#3.00 Hrg re: Motion for: 1. Use of Cash Collateral On An Interim Basis; and 2. Setting Final Hearing on Use Of Cash Collateral

Docket 19

Tentative Ruling:

Grant the motion (docket no. 19, supplemented by consents, dkt. 26) and approve the budget (id., Ex.1) on an interim basis, subject to the conditions set forth below, with a final hearing at the same date and time as the continued status conference (see calendar no. 4, 6/26/18 at 1:00 p.m.), and a deadline of 6/29/18 for the movant to file and serve a notice of the final hearing. Appearances are not required on 6/26/18.

Conditions specific to this case:

(1) Local Form. Judge Bason's posted procedures (available at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) require the use of Local Form 4001-1. The tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 6/29/18 for the debtor to file that form.

(2) Bookkeeping and meter reading. The budget includes a line item for $500 per month for bookkeeping and $250 per month for "meter reading." Those expenses appear to be a very substantial portion of the gross income of only slightly more than $7,000 per month. See dkt. 19, Ex.1. At the final hearing counsel should be prepared to address why those expenses are not lower, and what due diligence has been performed to explore alternatives (keeping in mind whether those issues will be mooted by any proposed disposition of the property).

Judge Bason's standard conditions for use of cash collateral and/or postpetition financing (by creditors holding prepetition claims)

(1) Written order

(a) Form. Use local form F2081-

1.1.ORDER.CASH.COLLATERAL or the equivalent. Attach a copy of this tentative ruling as an exhibit, thereby adopting it as the written ruling of the court. Do not repeat the terms set forth in the motion or any stipulation. Incorporate those terms by reference, subject to any modification by this court (including the docket number of the document).

(b) Timing. Lodge the proposed order within 7 days after the hearing. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

(2) Minimum adequate protection

In addition to the postpetition security interests that are automatically provided pursuant to 11 U.S.C. 552 (e.g., in traceable proceeds and profits), and subject to any more comprehensive protection that may be included in the motion or related papers, the debtor shall provide at least the following protection to any creditor with a security interest in the subject property (pursuant to 11 U.S.C. 361-364, as applicable):

(a) Insurance. For all collateral of a type that typically is insured (e.g., real property and improvements), the debtor is directed to maintain insurance in a dollar amount at least equal to the debtor's good faith estimate of the value of such creditor's interest in the collateral, and such insurance shall name such creditor as an additional insured. The debtor is directed to remain current on payments for such insurance.

(b) Taxes. The debtor is directed to remain current on payments on account of postpetition real estate taxes (to the extent that real estate is part of the collateral).

(c) Disclosures/access. The debtor is directed to provide, upon such creditor's reasonable request, periodic accountings of the foregoing insurance and tax obligations and payments, as well as postpetition proceeds, products, offspring, or profits from the collateral, including gross revenues and expenses and a calculation of net revenues, including any rents and any fees, charges, accounts, or other payments for the use or occupancy of rooms and other public facilities in lodging properties (as all of the foregoing terms are used in 11 U.S.C. 552). The debtor is directed to provide appropriate documentation of those accountings, and access for purposes of inspection or appraisal.

(3) Limitation on postpetition liens

In the event that the motion or related papers seek authority to grant postpetition liens to the creditor(s) with respect to prepetition debts any such liens shall be limited to the same validity, priority, and amount as prepetition liens. As used herein, the "validity, priority, and amount" or any similar phrase that may be used by the parties or the court is deemed to include the following:

(a) Extent. Such liens shall be limited to the type of collateral in which the creditor held a security interest as of the petition date, unless this order expressly states that the liens granted by this order are intended to attach to different types of collateral from the prepetition collateral. For example, if prepetition liens extended to inventory and accounts receivable but not equipment then postpetition liens are likewise limited (unless otherwise expressly provided below); and postpetition liens shall not extend to the proceeds of any avoidance actions, any recoveries under 11 U.S.C. 506 (c), or any "carveout" under 11 U.S.C. 552.

(b) Priority. Such liens shall be limited to the same priority as the security interest held by the creditor as of the petition date.

(c) Dollar amount. Such liens shall be limited to the dollar amount needed to protect the creditor against diminution in the value of the secured claims as of the petition date.

(d) Enforceability. Such liens shall be limited to the extent that the creditor's security interests were duly perfected and valid as of the petition date, and to the extent that they are unavoidable.

(e) Automatic postpetition perfection. Any automatic perfection of such liens shall be subject to any applicable limitations regarding the Court's authority, jurisdiction, or due process.

(4) Automatic disapproval of insufficiently disclosed provisions

Any provision of the type listed in FRBP 4001(c)(1)(B) or in local form F4001-2 (e.g., cross-collateralization) or any waiver of the "equities of the case" exception in 11 U.S.C. 552(b)(2) shall be deemed automatically disapproved and excepted from any order granting the motion, notwithstanding any other provision of such order, unless either: (a) such provision is specifically and prominently disclosed in the motion papers in a checklist (such as local form F4001-2), or alternatively (b) such provision is specifically identified in any proposed order granting the motion, using terminology of the type used in FRBP 4001(c)(1)(B) or local form F4001-2 (e.g., any "cross-collateralization" that is not specifically identified as such is deemed to be disapproved).

(5) Disputes

In the event of any disputes regarding the rulings in this order, the

Revised Tentative Ruling for 5/22/18:

Appearances are not required on 5/22/18. See below for continued Status Conference date.

(1) Current issues.

(a) Sale motions for Stockton and Fresno properties (dkt. 106, 107).

Subject to the following, the tentative ruling is to grant these motions on the terms agreed by the parties per dkt. 123, 124, 127, 128, 129, and 130.

(b) Fresno dual agency. This Court's order (dkt. 112) authorized the retention of Newmark Grubb Pearson Commercial ("Newmark") as real estate broker but specified "no dual agency." Id. p.2:19 (emphasis in original.) The Fresno property sale motion concedes (dkt. 107, p.3, n.1) that Newmark has acted in a dual agency capacity. The tentative ruling is that, before lodging any proposed order granting the Fresno motion (dkt. 107), the debtor must file a declaration establishing that another broker has been brought into the transaction to represent one of the two parties, to be paid out of Newmark's commission. The tentative ruling is that such declaration must be served on the parties who have filed written oppositions and on the U.S. Trustee.

(c) Good faith findings (11 U.S.C. 363(m)). The tentative ruling is that, before lodging any proposed order that includes a "good faith" finding, the debtor must file a declaration from the buyer (not just the broker and/or debtor) and serve that declaration on the parties who have filed written oppositions and on the U.S. Trustee.

(d) Hearing to be set if needed. The tentative ruling is that if this Court is not satisfied with the foregoing declarations then this Court will issue an order setting a hearing to address whatever troubles this Court. This Court does not anticipate, however, that any hearing will be necessary.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 2/16/18.

(a) Bar date: 5/25/18 (timely served dkt. 63).

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: file by 7/16/18 (see Order, dkt. 21) using the forms required by Judge Bason (DO NOT SERVE yet, except on the U.S. Trustee - the court will set a deadline and procedures at a later time).

Tentative Ruling for 3/20/18:

Appearances required by counsel for the debtor and by the debtor(s) themselves. This court has reviewed the debtor's chapter 11 status report (dkt. 31) and all other filings in this case.

(1) Current issues

(a) Proposed bankruptcy counsel (dkt. 9, 30, 34, 45, 46). The debtor has now disclosed that the source of the prepetition retainer is Olympic Holdings, LLC ("Olympic"), the managing member of which is also the debtor's managing member, namely Mr. Mark Slotkin. The debtor has also clarified that although Olympic proposes to pay counsel's monthly bills as they come due (to be held in proposed counsel's client trust account until allowed), Olympic reserves the right to request reimbursement of prepetition payments as a general unsecured claim and postpetition payments as an administrative claim - would such postpetition request be on "substantial contribution" grounds? or on other grounds, such as an administrative priority loan (under 11 U.S.C. 364? without interest? with interest?)?

The foregoing facts and questions raise a host of ethical concerns. Any counsel who is paid by a third party (the "Funder") may be subject to conflicts of interest, especially if there are potential avoidance actions, reimbursement or contribution or indemnity claims, or other claims that could be investigated or brought against the Funder. At the hearing, proposed counsel must address the following.

(i) Connections. What are all of the connections (as that term is used in FRBP 2014) among the Funder, the debtor, Mr. Slotkin, and proposed counsel? Are there any conflicts of interest, or potential conflicts? In the past, Judge Bason has followed authority holding that conflicts cannot be waived by a debtor in possession because it is representing the interests of creditors and has no authority to waive conflicts on creditors' behalf. In addition, to help in identifying all connections, Judge Bason's posted procedures require the use of Local Form 2014-1 (see those procedures at www.cacb.uscourts.gov for instructions how to fill out that form).

(ii) Terms. What are the precise understandings regarding the funds?

(iii) Informed consent of Funder. Mr. Slotkin declares (dkt. 45, para.5) that both he and Olympic understand that proposed counsel "does not represent us, and only represents the Debtor"? Have the members of Olympic (whoever they might be) been advised of this as well? Have all such persons been advised not only of representation issues but also attorney-client privilege issues, including what can happen if a trustee were to be appointed? Have all such persons been advised of duties of loyalty, whom counsel will continue to represent (if anyone) if a conflict develops, and other ethical and practical concerns? Who provided such advice: independent counsel, or the debtor's proposed counsel? Has the Funder given informed consent? Are those things in writing?

(iv) Informed consent of debtor. Has the debtor likewise been fully advised and given informed consent? Who provided such advice? Are these things in writing?

(v) Other considerations. Has proposed counsel demonstrated or represented to this Court the absence of an actual or potential conflict, a lack of disinterestedness, or any other basis for disqualification? See In re Kelton Motors, Inc., 109 B.R. 641 (Bankr. D. Vt. 1989); In re Hathaway Ranch Partnership, 116 B.R. 208, 219 (Bankr. C.D. Tentative Ruling for 4/17/18:

Continue (1) calendar nos. 5, 6 and 7 on today's calendar, and (2) the motion for relief from the automatic stay filed by Ingrid Aliet-Gass for herself and Western States International, Inc. (dkt. 130, the "R/S Motion") all as set forth below. Appearances are not required on 4/17/18.

Specifically, the tentative ruling is as follows:

(1) Continue (a) the status conference in this bankruptcy case, (b) the status conference in adversary proceeding no. 2:17-ap-01326-NB, and (c) the debtor's motion to amend the complaint in that adversary proceeding (adv. dkt. 125, and see adv. dkt. 130, 131, 139, 142) to be concurrent with (d) the motion by the Bureau of Land Management ("BLM") to dismiss the separate adversary proceeding against it (no. 2:18-ap-01057-NB, adv. dkt. 7), which is currently scheduled for 5/8/18 at 2:00 p.m.

(2) Continue the R/S Motion, which is currently set for 5/1/18 at 10:00 a.m., to the same date and time.

After this hearing date this Court will prepare an order continuing all of the foregoing matters and will serve it on the BLM, Aliet-Gass, and Western

In addition, the debtor/plaintiff should be prepared to address whether the proposed amended complaint cures the deficiencies in the original complaint, and whether any ruling on the motion to amend the complaint should be deferred until after default judgments are (or are not) obtained on the existing (original) complaint, for the reasons set forth in this Court's Memorialization Of Reasons For Denying Motions For Default Judgments (captioned for the adversary proceeding but erroneously filed in the main case as dkt. 118). Chapter 11

(1) Current issues

(a) Reasons for continuance: (i) because of the problems noted below; (ii) because of the debtor's untimely last-minute filing of status reports (the debtor is cautioned that continued untimely filings may result in sanctions); (iii) because of the inability of the Office of the United States Trustee to appear due to the shutdown of much of the federal government, (iv) to be concurrent with the (improperly self-calendared) motion to amend the complaint, and (v) in view of the debtor's various status reports (main case dkt. 117, adv. dkt. 122, 127, 129).

(b) Bar date. The debtor's proofs of service of the bar date order are missing exhibits and incomprehensible (see dkt. 110, 111). The debtor is directed to file, no later than 2/6/18, either a corrected proof of service or an application (supported by a declaration) to set yet another supplemental bar date - whichever is appropriate.

(c) Status of existing complaint in adversary proceeding. On 11/20/17 this court issued an order (adv. dkt. 117) denying the plaintiff/debtor's motions for default judgments, without prejudice. The debtor now seeks to amend the complaint (adv. dkt. 125). All of these things moot the motions for default judgments so the hearings on those motions have been vacated.

In addition, the tentative ruling is to memorialize this court's reasons for denying the motions for default judgments by filing on the docket a copy of this court's adopted tentative ruling for the 11/14/17 hearings on those motions (reproduced within the tentative ruling for calendar no. 9. 1/23/18 at 2:00 p.m.).

(d) Motion to amend complaint (adv. dkt. 125). This motion was self-calendared for 2:00 p.m. (a time that cannot be used for self-calendaring) on 2/13/18. Nevertheless, the tentative ruling is to permit that motion to proceed at that time.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 11/23/16.

(a) Bar date: initial date of 7/10/17 (order timely served, dkt. 56, 60); supplemental date of 1/26/18, to be served no later than 11/15/17 (per Order, dkt. 107) but proofs of service are incomprehensible (dkt. 110, 111) - see above under "current issues".

Appearances required but telephonic appearances are encouraged if advance arrangements are made (see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.", "Instructions/Procedures").

There is no tentative ruling, but the parties should be prepared to address the following issues.

(1) Current issues. The debtor has filed a second (very belated) proof of service (dkt. 103) of this court's order (dkt. 56) setting a bar date. Under that order the bar date was set as 7/10/17 and service was required no later than 5/8/17. What does the debtor's belated service do except cause confusion? Does the debtor require a new bar date for previously unknown creditors?

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 11/23/16. If this case is not converted or dismissed, the tentative ruling is to set the following:

(a) Bar date: 7/10/17 (order timely served, dkt. 56, 60; but see above under "current issues").

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." If appearances are required, and you fail to appear without adequately resolving this matter by consent, then you may waive your right to be heard on matters that are appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

Tentative Ruling for 8/22/17:

The tentative ruling is to dismiss this case with a 180 day bar for willful failure to appear in proper prosecution, as set forth below. See 11 U.S.C. 109(g)(1). Appearances are not required.

Reasons: This case was filed on 11/23/16. The debtor's assets consist of disputed rights in hydrocarbon leases. See Status Report, dkt. 81. Realizing any value from those rights apparently depends on retaining special counsel who will diligently prosecute the debtor's claims. Despite numerous opportunities, the debtor has failed to satisfy the prerequisites for retention of special counsel.

(1) Inadequate declarations about "connections"

At the hearing on 7/11/17 this court extensively reviewed the evidence that would be required before this court could approve the application to employ the latest proposed special counsel, Mr. Montes. That included a requirement of detailed declarations from Mr. and Mrs. Hoats regarding any transfers of any property (including intangible property) involving the debtor and any of them, as well as any other "connections" (as that term is used in Rule 2014, Fed. R. Bankr. P.) to the debtor and any other party in interest.

This court recognizes that Mr. and Mrs. Hoats are not the professionals whose employment is being sought. Nevertheless, given their very close ties to the debtor, and their failure to disclose connections to the prior proposed special counsel that raised questions about conflicts of interest, this court orally ordered the debtor to provide their declarations at the hearing on 5/2/17. That order has been ignored.

(2) Knudsen factors

This court also directed Mr. Montes to file a declaration addressing the factors that this court must consider in assessing his request to be paid more frequently than once every 120 days. See In re Knudsen, 84 B.R. 668, 672-

73 (9th Cir. BAP 1988). Mr. Montes has filed such a declaration (dkt. 82) and has adequately summarized the factors (id., p.3:15-23) but he has not adequately addressed the third factor, which he summarizes as: "any funds paid but later disapproved by the court can be recovered from the professional" in one or more of the ways listed in Knudsen. (Emphasis added.) Those ways are:

- [a. Holdback] retainer payments are for only a percentage of the amount billed so that the likelihood or necessity of repayment is minimal [Mr. Montes suggests a 10% holdback, which has not been shown to be adequate - the typical amount is 20%, and that typically applies only to well established firms whose ability to repay funds is reinforced by the firm's longevity and reputation or similar considerations];
- [b. Bond] counsel can post a bond covering any possible reassessment [Mr. Montes has not addressed this factor];
- [c. Financial ability to repay] counsel's financial position makes it certain that any reassessment can be repaid [Mr. Montes has not addressed this factor]; [and/or]
- [d. Hold funds in trust account] funds paid prior to allowance are held in a trust account until a final or interim fee allowance is made [Mr. Montes has only offered to place the 10% proposed holdback in a trust account]. [Knudsen, 84 B.R. 668, at 672]

(3) The debtor appears to cite the wrong statutory authority

The debtor's application to employ Mr. Montes (dkt. 65) requests that his employment be approved under subsection "(e)" of 11 U.S.C. 327. But that subsection only applies by its terms to an attorney who "has represented the debtor" (i.e., prepetition counsel whose employment is to continue postpetition). Id. (emphasis added).

That is not the end of the analysis, because it has been held that special counsel can be employed even when such counsel has not represented the debtor prepetition. See In re Fondiller, 15 B.R. 890, 892 (9th Cir. BAP 1981) (emphasis added), appeal dismissed, 707 F.2d 441 (9th Cir. 1983). Although Fondiller has been interpreted as authorizing employment under subsection (e) (see, e.g., Covenant Fin. Group of Am., Inc., 243 B.R. 450, 455 & n. 8 (Bankr. N.D. Ala. 1999)), the precise holding of Fondiller appears to be that special counsel can be employed under subsection "(a)" of Section 327 because any "omission" in subsection "(e)" does not limit the general authority in subsection "(a)." See Fondiller, 15 B.R. at 891-92 (interpreting § 327(a) by comparison with §§ 327(c) and (e)).

True, the precise statutory authority appears to make little if any practical difference, because Fondiller held that when counsel is only employed to perform limited services, then an interest "adverse to the estate" means "an adverse interest relating to the services which are to be performed by that attorney," which appears to mean that the inquiry for proposed special counsel under subsection "(a)" is the same as under subsection "(e)." Fondiller, 15 B.R. at 892 (emphasis added). Mr. Montes' declaration (included in dkt. 65) appears to meet this test because he states that he has no adverse interest.

Nevertheless, as stated above this court has required additional evidence from Mr. and Mrs. Hoats and that evidence has not been provided. In addition, because the debtor has sought authority under subsection "(e)" instead of "(a)" it appears not have met the technical requirements for employment of Mr. Montes.

If you wish to dispute the above tentative ruling, please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings".

Tentative Ruling for 7/11/17:
Appearances required.

(1) Current issues

(a) Employment of special counsel. Deny the application to employ the Law Offices of M. Brian McMahon (dkt. 46) because he no longer intends to pursue employment. See dkt. 73, para. 3. Deny the application to employ the Law Offices of Mike Montes, Jr. (dkt. 65) due to the failure to address the issues raised by this court in the tentative ruling for 5/2/17 (reproduced below) (without reaching the issues raised by the U.S. Trustee's objection, dkt. 72, and the debtor's reply, dkt. 74). The U.S. Trustee is directed to lodge proposed orders denying each application within seven days after this hearing date.

Tentative Ruling for 5/2/17:

Appearances required. There is no tentative ruling, but the debtor's proposed attorney, Brian McMahon Esq., should be prepared to address the concerns set forth in the U.S. Trustee's objection (dkt. 49) and the other issues set forth below.

(1) Current issues.

(a) Proposed special counsel.

(i) Background. On 4/5/17 the debtor filed an application for authority to employ the law offices of Mr. McMahon as special counsel under 11 U.S.C. 327(e) (dkt. 47). On 4/12/17 the United States Trustee ("UST") filed an objection to the employment application, which expressed concerns about the payment arrangement proposed in the application (dkt. 49).

The debtor filed a statement of disinterestedness for Mr. McMahon (dkt.53), and a reply (dkt.55), stating that a third party, Ms. Lilian Hoats, will be paying the attorney fees for Mr. McMahon's representation. Ms. Hoats is the CEO of Inviron Technologies, Inc. ("Managing Member"), which is the debtor's managing member (dkt. 55, Ex.1, p.1, recital "b"). Attached to the reply (dkt. 55, Ex.1) is a written document that purports to be a waiver of conflicts (if any exist) among the debtor, Ms. Hoats, and the Managing Member (the "Hoats/Managing Member Conflict Waiver").

The Attorney-Client Retainer Agreement attached to the employment application (dkt. 46, Ex.1) provides that Mr. McMahon is representing not only the debtor but also its affiliates Riverwood Energy, LLC ("Energy Affiliate") and Riverwood Resources Ltd. ("Resources Affiliate"). This court is not aware of the precise organizational and contractual relationships among the debtor, Energy Affiliate, and Resources Affiliate, nor of any written document purporting to be a waiver of conflicts (if any exist) among them.

(ii) Statutory provisions and rules

Although special counsel does not have to be "disinterested" (compare 11 U.S.C. 327(a)), special counsel still must not "represent or hold any interest adverse to the debtor or to the estate with respect to the matter on which such attorney is to be employed." 11 U.S.C. 327(e) (emphasis added). Under Rule 2014 (Fed. R. Bankr. P.) both Mr. McMahon and the debtor were supposed to disclose all connections between Mr. McMahon and "the debtor, creditors, any other party in interest, their respective attorneys and accountants, the United States trustee, or any person employed in the office of the United States trustee."

The disclosures have not been adequate. This court does not know enough about the underlying litigation and the organizational and contractual relationships among the various entities to assess whether there may be conflicts of interest between the debtor, on the one hand, and Ms. Hoats, Managing Member, Energy Affiliate, and/or Resource Affiliate.

(iii) A DIP's conflicts generally cannot be waived

Any purported conflict waiver probably cannot waive actual conflicts. See, e.g., In re Perry, 194 B.R. 875, 880 (E.D.Cal.1996) (waiver of conflict by non-debtor parties was insufficient and "[i]nformed consent could not be obtained" because "the real parties in interest in this case are the creditors, and that is not a waivable conflict"); In re B.E.S. Concrete Products, Inc., 93 B.R. 228, 235 (Bankr. E.D. Cal. 1988).

But while actual conflicts of interest create a violation of 11 U.S.C. 327 which would require disqualification of the proposed professional, the mere existence of a potential conflict of interest does not require disqualification, and it is up to the court's discretion whether the purported conflict is sufficiently threatening to the estate to warrant disqualification. In re Wheatfield Business Park, LLC, 286 B.R. 412, 421 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2002).

Are proposed counsel and the debtor aware of any actual conflicts? How about potential conflicts?

(iv) The purported conflict waiver is incomplete

The Hoats/Managing Member Conflict Waiver is not actually signed by Ms. Hoats in her individual capacity (she has only signed it on behalf of the debtor's Managing Member). In addition, as noted above, this court is not aware of any purported conflict waiver among the debtor and Operating Affiliate or Resources Affiliate.

(v) There might be conflicts among the debtor and Ms. Hoats

A third party who funds a retainer for the debtor (the "Funder") generally has some pre-existing relationship with the debtor, and/or some motivation to providing the funding. Those things increase the likelihood that the Funder could be the recipient of an avoidable preference, or might have alter ego liability, or otherwise might have interests that are adverse to (or at least not fully aligned with) the bankruptcy estate or creditors. For these reasons, although payment of a retainer by a third party is not outright prohibited, it is fraught with ethical concerns. At the hearing, counsel for the debtor and proposed special counsel should be prepared to address the following.

(A) Terms. What are the precise agreements, understandings or expectations regarding the funds -- e.g., are the funds a loan, a gift, an investment, or something else?

(B) Informed consent of Funder. Has the Funder been advised regarding actual and potential conflicts of interest, and that the sole attorney-client relationship and duty of loyalty is with the debtor, not the Funder? Who provided such advice: independent counsel? counsel for the debtor? the debtor's proposed special counsel? Has the Funder given informed consent? Are those things in writing?

(C) Informed consent of debtor. Has the debtor likewise been fully advised and given informed consent? Who provided such advice? Are these things in writing? Ms. Hoats has signed the Hoats/Managing Member conflict waiver on behalf of the debtor: how can she, acting for the debtor, waive conflicts with herself?

(D) Other considerations. Has proposed special counsel demonstrated or represented to the Court the absence of an actual

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 11/23/16. If this case is not converted or dismissed, the tentative ruling is to set the following:

- (a) Bar date*: to be set during the status conference.
- (b) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: same.
- (c) Continued status conference: 5/23/17 at 2:00 p.m., status report due 5/9/17.

*Warning: special procedures apply (see order setting initial status conference).

If you do not appear, and the matter is not adequately resolved by consent, then you may waive your right to be heard on matters that are appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

Tentative Ruling for 4/4/17:

Appearances required by counsel for the debtor but telephonic appearances are encouraged if advance arrangements are made (see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.", "Instructions/Procedures").

(1) Current issues.

(a) Status report. This court's previous tentative ruling (reproduced below) directed the debtor to file a status report by 3/14/17. Why has no such status report been filed?

(b) Exit strategy. What is the debtor's exit strategy, and what progress has been made toward that goal?

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 11/23/16. If this case is not converted or dismissed, the tentative ruling is to set the following:

Tentative Ruling for 2/7/17:

Continue to 4/4/17 at 2:00 p.m., status report due 3/14/17. No appearances are required on 2/7/17.

(1) Current issues

This case was filed on 11/23/16. The debtor's status report (dkt. 34) states that the debtor intends to retain special counsel, and the monthly operating reports (dkt. 37, 38) appear to show no activity other than opening DIP bank accounts and paying associated fees. Although progress in this case has been slow, it does not appear efficient to hold a status conference at this time. If substantially more progress is not shown by the next status conference, this court may dismiss this case for failure to appear in proper prosecution. See 11 U.S.C. 109(g)(1), 349.

If you wish to dispute the above tentative ruling, please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings".

Tentative Ruling for 1/10/17:

Appearances required by counsel for the debtor but telephonic appearances are encouraged if advance arrangements are made (see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.", "Instructions/Procedures").

(1) Current issues.

(a) Substitution of attorney. On 12/23/16, the debtor filed a substitution of attorney (dkt. 22) reflecting that current proposed counsel is Giovanni Orantes, Esq. Why has no employment application been filed?

(b) Exit strategy. What is the debtor's exit strategy, and what progress has been made toward that goal?

with creditor Trinity Financial Services, LLC

Docket 19

Tentative Ruling:

Appearances required. There is no tentative ruling, but the parties should be prepared to address how they propose to resolve their disputes - e.g., (i) with an evidentiary hearing; (ii) with a court ruling based solely on the written record (to save costs, if all parties consent), (iii) through mediation, or (iv) through appointment of an appraiser (jointly selected by the parties/their appraisers) as the court's own expert under FRE 706.

#3.00 Hrg re: Motion for order determining

Docket 7

Tentative Ruling:

Appearances required but telephonic appearances are encouraged if advance arrangements are made (see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.", "Instructions/Procedures").

The tentative ruling is to grant the motion in part, with a valuation of $13,225 pursuant to Exhibit 2 to the motion (dkt. 7). Counsel for the debtor is directed to address the following issues.

First, the motion is missing any evidence regarding the lien (see dkt. 7, p.4, paragraph 5.c.), which does not appear to be fatal to the motion but probably would help on the following issue. The the vehicle is described as a "2016" Hyundai Elantra, so it is possible that this is a "910" day vehicle (11 U.S.C. 1325(a), hanging paragraph) meaning that 11 U.S.C. 506 does not apply, so the claim cannot be bifurcated, if the debt was incurred within 910 days before the petition date, i.e., 5/29/18 - 910 days = 12/1/15. Counsel for the debtor is directed to provide an offer of proof regarding the date on which the debt was incurred.

Second, assuming that 11 U.S.C. 506 does apply, there is no indication that the vehicle is for anything other than personal, family, or household use, so the valuation is not just replacement value but also "the price that a retail merchant would charge" for a comparable vehicle. The debtor has used a "private party" range of values in Exhibit 1, so that valuation is irrelevant. Only Exhibit 2, which provides "retail" value of $13,225 in the last column, is relevant. Counsel for the debtor is directed to address why he attempted to use an impermissible measure of value, and what steps he will take to assure that his office does not do this in future.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling,

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this court's final ruling. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

Reasons for denial: The evidence of valuation is a "sale to private party," whereas 11 U.S.C. 506(a)(2) requires use of "the price a retail merchant would charge" for the same make and model in similar condition (assuming the vehicle was acquired for personal, family, or household purposes, as it appears to have been). Counsel for the debtor is directed to take steps to assure that this same issue does not arise in future.

#5.00 Hrg re: Motion for order determining

Docket 18

Tentative Ruling:

Grant in part, reducing the secured claim to $15,275. Appearances are not required.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this Court's final ruling. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

Replacement value is required under 11 U.S.C. 506(a)(2). There is no evidence that the vehicle was acquired for any business, or any other reason apart from "personal, family, or household purposes." Therefore the replacement value is "the price a retail merchant would charge" for a vehicle of the same make, model, and condition.

The evidence in support of the motion (dkt. 18, Exhibit, 1st page) lists the retail price as $12,300 plus $2,150 for (low) mileage plus $825 for being a certified pre-owned vehicle, for a total of $15,275. The debtor ignores all but the first of these numbers, with no stated basis for doing so.

Counsel for the debtor is directed to take steps to assure that the same miscalculation does not occur in future.

2:15-13511 Julia Moreno

Chapter 13

#9.00 Hrg re: Debtor's Motion for Order to Expunge Bankruptcy Case

Docket 23

Tentative Ruling:

Continue Ms. Moreno's motion (dkt. 23, 25) to expunge this bankruptcy case (Case No. 2:15-bk-13511-NB) to 8/2/18 at 8:30 a.m. with a deadline of 7/9/18 to file and serve the documents described below. Appearances are not required on 6/28/18.

Required documents:

(1) Declarations. Ms. Moreno's motion is supported by her declaration in English. But she concedes that she does not read or write either English or Spanish (dkt. 23, p.10, para.8). Accordingly, the tentative ruling is that her English declaration does not constitute any evidence at all, so the motion is unsupported by any evidence.

The tentative ruling is that Ms. Moreno will need to sign a declaration in Spanish (with an English translation), and that must be supported by the declaration (in English) of a translator certifying (a) that the Spanish declaration signed by Ms. Moreno is a true and correct translation of the English version (with a copy of that English version attached) and (b) that the Spanish version was read out loud to Ms. Moreno and, if necessary, explained to her in Spanish, before she signed it.

(2) Efforts to pursue alleged wrongdoer. The tentative ruling is that Ms. Moreno's declaration must disclose all efforts she has undertaken to seek prosecution of Mr. Munoz (e.g., police reports, any reports to the office of the United States Trustee, etc.). Absent evidence of attempts to pursue Mr. Munoz, the tentative ruling is that Ms. Moreno's denials of any involvement in the bankruptcy petitions lack sufficient support for the extraordinary remedy of expunging the bankruptcy cases.

(3) Proof of service. The proof of service (dkt. 23, last page) does not show service on all creditors in both of the allegedly fraudulently filed bankruptcy cases (see Creditor Matrix, Case No. 2:15-bk-13511-NB and Case No. 2:16-bk-17335-NB), nor on Mr. Jose Munoz (the alleged wrongdoer), nor on Mr. Valentin Moreno-Perez (the debtor's soon-to-be former husband, whose involvement in the alleged fraud is unclear), nor on any entities who were granted in rem relief from the automatic stay (see Case 2:16-bk-17335-NB, dkt. 34, granting such relief to CBB Properties, LLC). The tentative ruling is to required service on all such persons.

(4) Non-disturbance of in rem relief. Ms. Moreno does not explain exactly what is meant by her request to "expunge" this bankruptcy case. The tentative ruling is to interpret that request as follows, and in any event to limit any relief as follows.

Expungement is intended to assist Ms. Moreno to repair her credit with the credit reporting agencies, and with any other person seeking to verify her credit history. Expungement is also intended to eliminate any future consequences of these past bankruptcy cases (see, e.g., 11 U.S.C. 109(g)(1) or 362(c)). Expungement is not intended, however, to vacate or in any way disturb any prior grant of in rem relief. See, e.g., Case No. 2:16-bk-17335-NB, dkt. 34 (order granting in rem relief) (the "CBB In Rem Order"). Such relief is still appropriate because it was not necessary for Ms. Moreno to have been a party to any "scheme" under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(4) for in rem relief to have been warranted. See In re Vazquez (Bankr. C.D. Cal., Case No. 2:16-bk-10699-NB, dkt. 75).

Accordingly, the tentative ruling is that if Ms. Moreno wishes to obtain relief from the CBB In Rem Order, or any other in rem order, she must do so by separate motion or adversary proceeding.

#12.00 Hrg re: Debtor's objection to the claims of Schools First Federal Credit Union its successors, assigns and subsequent transferees (Claim nos. 8, 9, 10)

Docket 22

Tentative Ruling:

Continue to 8/2/18 at 8:30 a.m. to address the following issues. Appearances are not required on 6/28/18.

Reasons:

(1) The claim objection fails to include a sufficient cost/benefit analysis. Judge Bason's posted Procedures (available at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) state:

When objecting to claims, be sure to consider whether the costs of preparing and litigating the claim objection (administrative expenses) do not exceed the anticipated benefits (reductions in claims). For example, if the anticipated dividend is small or 0%, your claim objection to any general unsecured claim should clearly explain how it is justified to incur the attorney fees for that objection.

No later than 7/9/18 the movant must file either:

(a) a supplemental declaration explaining why the attorney fees for this objection are justified (including supporting evidence, such as a copy of the plan showing the projected dividend to the claimant, and a calculation comparing that projected dividend against the attorney fees related to this claim objection), or

(b) a withdrawal of the claim objection.

(2) No additional fees absent specific order. Counsel is prohibited from charging any additional fees related to this continuance and any supplemental papers addressing the cost/benefit analysis, unless this Court expressly states in a future tentative ruling or written order that such fees may be charged.

Docket 10

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for 6/28/18:

Appearances required. There is no tentative ruling but counsel for the debtor is directed to address the following:

(1) any response from creditors (permitted at the hearing per this Court's order to show cause why this case should not be dismissed (dkt. 10, last para.));

(2) why the motion for permission to file this case (dkt. 24) was not served on some creditors until 6/7/18 (dkt. 28) and not served on other creditors until 6/19/18 (dkt. 33); and

(3) why the motion to continue the automatic stay (dkt. 16) - which was granted at a hearing on 6/19/18 at 10:00 a.m. (calendar no. 11) - similarly was not served on some creditors until 6/20/18 (dkt. 38), and whether that oral ruling should be vacated.

VS
DEBTOR

Docket 59

Tentative Ruling:

Appearances required. There is no tentative ruling, but the parties should be prepared to address (a) whether the alleged arrears have been brought current and/or (b) whether they will agree to the terms of an adequate protection order (see the debtor's response, dkt. 61).

#2.00 Hrg re: Motion for relief from stay [RP]

WELLS FARGO BANK N.A.
DEBTOR

Docket 18

Tentative Ruling:

Grant as provided below. Appearances are not required.

Termination. Terminate the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1) and (d)(4).

Any co-debtor stay (11 U.S.C. 1301(c)) is also terminated, because it has not been shown to have any basis to exist independent of the stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(a). To the extent, if any, that the motion seeks to terminate the automatic stay in other past or pending bankruptcy cases, such relief is denied on the present record. See In re Ervin (Case No. 14-bk-18204-NB, docket no. 311).

Relief notwithstanding future bankruptcy cases.

Grant the following relief pursuant to 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(4) and the legal analysis in In re Vazquez (case no. 2:16-bk-10699-NB, dkt. 75) and/or In re Choong (case no. 2:14-bk-28378-NB, docket no. 31), as applicable:

If this order is duly recorded in compliance with applicable State laws governing notices of interests or liens in the property at issue, then no automatic stay shall apply to such property in any bankruptcy case purporting to affect such property and filed within two years after the date of entry of this order, unless otherwise ordered by the court presiding over that bankruptcy case.

Docket 10

Tentative Ruling:

Grant as provided below. Appearances are not required.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this court's final ruling. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

The automatic stay does not apply. This case has been dismissed, which terminates the automatic stay. See 11 USC 349(b)(3) & 362(c).

In the alternative and in addition, this court grants relief from the automatic stay as follows.

Termination. Terminate the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1) and (d)(4).

Any co-debtor stay (11 U.S.C. 1301(c)) is also terminated, because it has not been shown to have any basis to exist independent of the stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(a). I. Tentative findings of fact:

(A) In violation of the loan documents, an interest in the subject property purportedly was transferred to the debtor, either individually or as trustee of a purported trust.

(B) The transfer was part of a scheme to delay or hinder movant's remedies against the property by implicating the automatic stay of 11 U.S.C. 362(a) in the debtor's bankruptcy case.

(C) This court does not find that the debtor was part of any such scheme (i.e., based on the record before this court it appears that this may be a so-called "hijacked" or "dumping" case in which a third party seeks to implicate the automatic stay for their own benefit, without the debtor's participation or acquiescence, by transferring property into a random bankruptcy estate, or by back-dating or falsifying a grant deed to make it appear that such a transfer occurred).

10699-NB, dkt. 75) and/or In re Choong (case no. 2:14-bk-28378-NB, docket no. 31), as applicable:

(A) Jurisdiction. This court has jurisdiction to grant the type of relief requested in the motion.

(B) Termination of stay. The automatic stay, if it applies, is terminated pursuant to 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1), (d)(4), and 1301(c).

(C) Relief notwithstanding future bankruptcy cases. If this order is duly recorded in compliance with applicable State laws governing notices of interests or liens in the property at issue, then no automatic stay shall apply to such property in any bankruptcy case purporting to affect such property and filed within two years after the date of entry of this order, unless otherwise ordered by the court presiding over that bankruptcy case.

For the avoidance of doubt, any acts by the movant to obtain exclusive possession of such property shall not be stayed. Any additional request for relief applicable to future bankruptcy cases is denied (e.g., any request to grant relief against third parties without any notice is denied) due to lack of sufficient factual or legal grounds presented in support of such relief.

(D) Effective date of relief. The 14 day stay under FRBP 4001(a)(3) is waived.

(E) No prejudice to debtor intended. Nothing in the foregoing disposition should be interpreted to support the application of 11 U.S.C. 109 (g)(2) in the event of any future dismissal of this bankruptcy case. See generally In re Leafly, 479 B.R. 545, 550 (9th Cir. BAP 2012); In re Payton, 481 B.R. 460 (Bankr. N.D. Ill. 2012).

DEBTOR

Docket 28

Tentative Ruling:

Grant as provided below. Appearances are not required.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

Termination. Terminate the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1).

Any co-debtor stay (11 U.S.C. 1301(c)) is also terminated, because it has not been shown to have any basis to exist independent of the stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(a). To the extent, if any, that the motion seeks to terminate the automatic stay in other past or pending bankruptcy cases, such relief is denied on the present record. See In re Ervin (Case No. 14-bk-18204-NB, docket no. 311).

Effective date of relief. Grant the request to waive the 14-day stay provided by FRBP 4001(a)(3).

#21.00 Hrg re: Motion in individual case for order imposing a stay or continuing the automatic stay as court the court deems appropriate

Docket 15

Tentative Ruling:

Grant, subject to the following conditions. Appearances are not required.

After the hearing date this court will prepare an order and the tentative ruling is to include the following language in that order:

The stay of 11 U.S.C. 362(a) applies subject to the following modifications and conditions:

(1) Service and reconsideration. Any party in interest who was not timely served in accordance with FRBP 7004 (incorporated by FRBP 9014(b)) is hereby granted through 14 days after proper service to seek reconsideration, including retroactive relief (under FRBP 9023 and/or 9024). Any such person (a) may set a hearing on 14 days' notice, (b) may appear by telephone (if arrangements are made per Judge Bason's posted procedures), and (c) may present all arguments orally at the hearing (i.e., no written argument is required). If written arguments appear necessary then this court will set a briefing schedule at the hearing.

(2) Reasons. (a) It appears appropriate to impose the automatic stay, and to impose it as to all persons rather than just as to selected persons, because one purpose of the automatic stay is to preventing a "race to collect" that could unfairly advantage some creditors at the expense of others. (b) To prevent possible abuse, this court provides the foregoing simple process for reconsideration.

Continue to 6/26/18 at 10:00 a.m. to address the following issues.
Appearances are not required on 5/29/18.

Reasons: At the 4/10/18 hearing, this Court continued this motion for the debtors to pursue a loan modification. The debtors have filed supplemental

Tentative Ruling:

Grant as provided below. Appearances are not required.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

The automatic stay does not apply. This case has been dismissed, which terminates the automatic stay. See 11 USC 349(b)(3) & 362(c).

In the alternative and in addition, this court grants relief from the automatic stay as follows.

Termination. Terminate the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1).

Any co-debtor stay (11 U.S.C. 1301(c)) is also terminated, because it has not been shown to have any basis to exist independent of the stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(a). To the extent, if any, that the motion seeks to terminate the automatic stay in other past or pending bankruptcy cases, such relief is denied on the present record. See In re Ervin (Case No. 14-bk-18204-NB, docket no. 311).

Effective date of relief. Grant the request to waive the 14-day stay provided by FRBP 4001(a)(3).

Tentative Ruling for 7/10/18:

Deny the request for in rem relief (without prejudice to the other types of relief already granted at the 6/26/18 hearing) because the movant did not serve the motion papers as required by the tentative ruling for 6/26/18 (reproduced below). Appearances are not required.

terminates the automatic stay. See 11 USC 349(b)(3) & 362(c).

In the alternative and in addition, this court grants relief from the automatic stay as follows.

Termination. Terminate the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1), (d)(2), and (d)(4).

Any co-debtor stay (11 U.S.C. 1301(c)) is also terminated, because it has not been shown to have any basis to exist independent of the stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(a). Effective date of relief. Grant the request to waive the 14-day stay provided by FRBP 4001(a)(3).

Relief notwithstanding future bankruptcy cases.

As to the requested relief that will remain effective notwithstanding any future bankruptcy case, continue the motion to the date and time set forth at the start of this tentative ruling, for service on the persons who executed the documents through which the movant asserts its interest in the property (sometimes referred to in the mortgage context as the "original borrower"). Reasons: See LBR 4001-1(c)(1)(B). In addition, Judge Bason has due process concerns about granting such relief without service on the person(s) whose interests may be most directly affected. See generally Mullane v. Central Hanover Bank & Trust Co., 339 U.S. 306 (1950) (due process generally). In this matter, such persons appear to include, in addition to Mauro Hernandez (who was served), Maria C. Hernandez, who is described in the DOT as Mauro Hernandez' wife with a joint tenancy in the property.

Option for shortened time: This court has selected a continued hearing date that contemplates shortened notice (per Rule 9006) but that date is conditioned on the movant serving all papers on the day after the current hearing date. Alternatively, the movant may self-calendar a continued hearing on regular notice.

Option for interim/partial order: Movant may elect to lodge a proposed

Docket 1

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for 7/10/18:

Continue to 8/7/18 at 11:00 a.m. (no written status report required). Plaintiff is encouraged to file and serve a motion for a default judgment (the "Default Judgment Motion") for the same date and time.

Reasons: Plaintiff has obtained Clerk's defaults (dkt. 43, 44) on the amended complaint (dkt. 37) against the defendants Rosa Moisa and Edward Trevino Moisa. The tentative ruling is that any Default Judgment Motion must include the following.

(1) Evidence. The Default Judgment Motion must be supported by a declaration showing evidence to support the assertion that the property description in the prayer for relief (dkt. 37 at PDF pp. 8:21-9:6) is correct (and the existing property descriptions are wrong (see dkt. 37, p.2 at para.3&5 & Ex.A&B at PDF pp. 12&15). For example, it appears that an authenticated copy of the recorded grant deed by which the defendant(s) acquired her (or their) interest(s) in the property might show the correct property description.

(2) Service. Pursuant to Rule 55(b)(2) (Fed. R. Civ. P., incorporated by Rule 7055, Fed. R. Bankr. P.), the tentative ruling is that any Default Judgment Motion must be served only on Mr. Edward Trevino Moisa, not on the (deceased) defendant Ms. Rosa Moisa.

Continue the status conference in this adversary proceeding to 5/29/18 at 11:00 a.m. (no written status report required). Appearances are not required on 4/17/18.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this court's final ruling. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

Tentative Ruling for 12/5/17:

Appearances required. The tentative rulings are as follows.

(1) No relief against unnamed defendants. At the initial status conference on 10/13/17, and in the tentative ruling for that status conference (reproduced below), this court questioned how quiet title relief could be granted against persons who are not named as defendants. The motion for a default judgment does not address that issue, and yet it seeks to quiet title as against all persons, whether or not they are named as defendants. The tentative ruling is to deny that relief.

(2) No relief against decedent whose estate has not been properly served. In addition, the plaintiff appears to be seeking a default judgment against a decedent, Ms. Rosa Moisa, without having served anyone who could properly accept service for the decedent. In fact, in preparing for this hearing this court noticed that the plaintiff had the complaint served on herself as administrator of Mr. Moisa's estate (see adv. dkt. 5 at PDF p.4). How is that proper?

To make matters worse, it appears that she is not actually the administrator: she declares that she is currently seeking to be appointed as the administrator of the decedent's estate. See adv. dkt. 21, Plaintiff Decl., p.4, para. 14.

How could counsel for the debtor seek a default judgment on this foundation?

(3) No relief against persons with whom there is no actual case or controversy. The plaintiff also seeks relief against Mr. Edward Trevino Moisa (the son of the decedent Ms. Moisa). The plaintiff alleges that there is an actual case or controversy involving him (and Ms. Moisa), but the plaintiff also alleges that after his mother transferred the property to Mr. Moisa he voluntarily transferred the subject property to the plaintiff via grant deed (dkt. 21, Plaintiff Decl., p.2, para. 5-6), and that Mr. Moisa "takes no position" and has not responded to the complaint (id. p.5:3). How is there an actual case or controversy involving Mr. Moisa (or his mother)?

(4) Possible real party in interest? It is unclear from the filed papers, but the party against whom the plaintiff might really be seeking relief is the county of Los Angeles. She alleges that when she attempted to refinance the property "the Title Company for the future Lender noticed the discrepancy in the Grant Deeds (regarding Legal Description), that LA County changed the designation back to Rosa Moisa as the current owner." Id., p.4, para. 13 (emphasis added.) But it is not clear what this means - did LA County commit an error in indexing? Did it improperly alter the text of some grant deed? Or did LA County allegedly do something else to "change the designation" in some document or record?

Nor does the plaintiff point to any document that reflects any such confusion. It is not this court's role to scour the record to try to figure out what the plaintiff means.

(5) Conclusion. This court is very empathetic to the plaintiff (the debtor), who alleges that she purchased the property when it had no equity, and made payments to save the property from foreclosure, and yet, although she has obtained this court's approval to refinance the property, she has been unable to do so because of some sort of discrepancy in the real estate records regarding her title to the property. But the papers filed by the debtor's counsel fail to explain the actual issue, and in any event appear to be wholly inadequate to address whatever the issue might be.

In addition, this court is very troubled that the filed papers appear to violate basic legal principles and ethical obligations. It appears that counsel for the debtor has sought a default judgment based on (i) the plaintiff/debtor serving herself, (ii) as the purported administrator of the estate of a decedent/defendant, even though she has not yet been appointed in that role, and (iii) with whom there does not appear to have been any actual case or controversy. This appears to be an attempted fraud on the court, intended to obtain a default judgment in the hope of binding other persons who have not been named as defendants.

Is there any reason why this court should not issue an order to show cause why sanctions should not be imposed? Meanwhile, what can be done to address whatever is the actual issue that is holding up the debtor's refinance of her real property?

Docket 8

Tentative Ruling:

Appearances required by counsel for the debtor and by the debtor itself.

(1) Current issues. This Court has reviewed the debtor's status report (dkt. 18) and other relevant documents.

(a) Status Report. Debtor used an old form of status report. Judge Bason's current posted procedures require the use of local form F 2081-1.1.C11.STATUS.RPT. Counsel is directed to review Judge Bason's posted procedures and to use the appropriate form status report in future.

(b) Motion for relief from automatic stay. There is no tentative ruling, but the debtor and Crescent Capital Holding LLC should be prepared to address the issues raised in the motion (dkt. 17) and debtor's response (dkt. 21) regarding the Las Flores property, including the previous grant of "in rem" relief against the property, and whether the debtor has provided sufficient evidence of insurance on the property.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 6/11/18.

(a) Bar date: 9/14/18 (DO NOT SERVE notice yet - court will prepare an order after the status conference).

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: file by 9/28/18 using the forms required by Judge Bason (DO NOT SERVE yet, except on the U.S. Trustee - the court will set a deadline and procedures at a later time).

(c) Continued status conference: 9/18/18 at 1:00 p.m., brief status report due 9/4/18.

#2.00 Status conference re: Chapter 11 case

Docket 13

Tentative Ruling:

Appearances required by counsel for the debtor and by the debtor(s) themselves.

(1) Current issues.

(a) Status Report. Debtor used an old form of status report. Judge Bason's current posted procedures require the use of local form F 2081-1.1.C11.STATUS.RPT. Counsel is directed to review Judge Bason's posted procedures and to use the appropriate form status report in future.

(b) Budget motion (dkt. 13, 28). The tentative ruling is to continue the hearing on this motion to the same date and time as the continued status conference set forth below, with a deadline of 7/17/18 for the debtor to file a declaration and amended Schedules I and J addressing (i) the fact that the Texas property no longer should be included (because relief from the automatic stay was granted as to that property) and (ii) the issues raised by the United States Trustee's opposition (dkt. 28). Specifically, debtor does not list expenses for the Sandlake Avenue property in her Schedule J or a line item for her income taxes on self-employment earnings.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 6/4/18.

(a) Bar date: 10/12/18 (DO NOT SERVE notice yet - court will prepare an order after the status conference).

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: TBD.

(c) Continued status conference: 8/7/18 at 1:00 p.m.

*Warning: special procedures apply (see order setting initial status conference).

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for 7/10/18:

Appearances required.

Proposed order: If this Court is persuaded to adopt the following tentative ruling - i.e. to approve the Amended Disclosure Statement on a final basis and confirm the debtors' Amended Plan - then the debtors are directed to lodge via LOU, within 7 days after the hearing date, (1) a proposed order approving the Amended Disclosure Statement and (2) a proposed order confirming the Amended Plan, and attach to the latter proposed order a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this Court's final ruling. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

(1) Current Issues. This court has reviewed debtor's Amended Plan (dkt. 87), Amended Disclosure Statement (dkt. 88), Ballot Summary (dkt. 94), and other relevant pleadings.

(a) Debtors Amended Plan requires cramdown pursuant to 1129(b).

The debtors acknowledge that their amended plan has five impaired classes: 2B, 2C, 2D, 2E, 4A. To avoid cramdown, all five classes must vote to accept the amended plan (11 U.S. C. 1129(a)(8)). Based on a review of the debtors' Ballot Summary (dkt. 94), the votes were as follows:

(i) Classes that voted to accept the AmPI: 2D, 2E

(ii) Classes that voted to reject the AmPI: 4A

(iii) Classes that did not vote and are deemed to reject the

AmPI: 2B, 2C

Therefore, the debtors' plan can only be confirmed if it satisfies the cramdown requirements of 1129(b) as to Classes 2B, 2C, and 4A.

Chapter 11

(b) The Amended Plan is "fair and equitable" and does not "unfairly discriminate" with respect to Classes 2B, 2C, and 4A. Section 1129(b)(1) states, in relevant part "...if all of the applicable requirements of subsection (a) of this section other than paragraph (8) [acceptance by every impaired, voting class] are met with respect to a plan, the court, on request of the proponent of the plan, shall confirm the plan notwithstanding the requirements of such paragraph if the plan does not discriminate unfairly, and is fair and equitable, with respect to each class of claims or interests that is impaired under, and has not accepted, the plan." (Emphasis added.)

(i) Secured Creditor Classes 2B and 2C. First, the debtors appropriately classified their secured creditors into separate categories, and have not otherwise discriminated unfairly with respect to Classes 2B and 2C. Second, the debtors propose to pay Class 2B (First Tennessee) 100% of its claim for a period of 360 months with 5% apr and Class 2C (IRS) 100% of its claim for a period of 60 months with 4% apr. Neither creditor has objected to the interest rate on the basis that it does not provide present value and both creditors will retain their liens and receive deferred cash payments. Therefore, the Amended Plan satisfies 11 USC 1129(b)(2)(A)(i)(I) and (II). In addition, Classes 2B and 2C will receive payment in full, so the absolute priority rule (11 U.S.C. 1129(b)(2)(B)(ii)) is satisfied with respect to these classes. Finally, in all other respects the Amended Plan appears to be fair and equitable with respect to these classes. Therefore, the Amended Plan satisfies the requirements for cramdown with respect to Classes 2A and 2B.

(ii) General Unsecured Creditors ("GUCs") Class 4A. The debtors propose to pay GUCs 4.1% on their claims for a period of 60 months with no interest. Although two GUCs have voted against the Amended Plan, no objection to confirmation has been filed.

Under Article I.B. of the Amended Plan the debtors' interests are in Class 5 and their rights are unchanged. Under Article V.B. of the Amended Plan all property of the estate will be vested in the debtors.

In other words, the Amended Plan proposes that the debtors will retain their exempt property, and secured creditors will be paid in full with interest, while GUCs will receive 4.1% of their claims. Debtors' liquidation analysis shows, however, that GUCs would receive a 0% distribution if the case were converted to a case under chapter 7.

The first question is whether the Amended Plan discriminates unfairly as between GUCs and other classes. As for secured creditor classes, this

Chapter 11

Court notes that Congress has provided for certain treatment of secured creditors that is superior to the treatment of unsecured creditors, so the fact that the secured claims are being treated better than GUCs under the Amended Plan is not unfair discrimination.

As for the debtors' retention of their home and certain personal property, this Court notes that Congress has provided for retention of exempt property in both liquidation and reorganization chapters of the Bankruptcy Code, so retention of exempt property is not unfair discrimination.

That leaves the question whether the Amended Plan is fair and equitable with respect to GUCs. The statute defines provides, in relevant part:

- (b) (2) ... the condition that a plan be fair and equitable with respect to a class includes the following requirements: ...
- (B) With respect to a class of unsecured claims— ...
- (ii) the holder of any claim or interest that is junior to the claims of such class [i.e., the debtors' interests in Class 5] will not receive or retain under the plan on account of such junior claim or interest any property, except that in a case in which the debtor is an individual, the debtor may retain property included in the estate under section 1115 .... [Emphasis added.]

The two emphasized portions of the above-quoted language establish two exceptions or corrolaries to the absolute priority rule. First, if the debtors receive or retain property in exchange for "new value," rather than in exchange for their existing net equity interests in their property, then there is no violation of the absolute priority rule. Second, the debtors may retain property that becomes "included in the estate" by virtue of 11 U.S.C. 1115, which includes property acquired postpetition (as well as postpetition earnings of individuals) - i.e., the debtors' postpetition pension receipts.

Because the Amended Plan proposes for the debtors to contribute $50/month for 60 months (representing a 4.1% distribution for GUCs) from debtors' pension income, and because GUCs would receive a 0% distribution in chapter 7, the tentative ruling is that the Amended Plan satisfies the requirements of the absolute priority rule.

is to approve the amended disclosure statement on a final basis and confirm debtors' amended plan pursuant to 1129(b).

*Warning: special procedures apply (see order setting initial status conference).

Tentative Ruling for 5/1/18:

Appearances required by counsel for the debtor but telephonic appearances are encouraged if advance arrangements are made (see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.", "Instructions/Procedures").

(1) Current issues. This Court has reviewed the debtors' status report (dkt. 85), the Amended Plan (dkt. 80), Amended Disclosure Statement (dkt. 81), and other relevant pleadings.

(a) Exhibit F (Discl. Stmt., dkt. 81, at PDF p.12). This exhibit continues to contain the same errors identified in this court's tentative ruling for 10/3/17: line "1" lists general unsecured claims of $64,716, the source for which is listed as dkt.10, plus another $7,970.39 in line "8" from a "Continuation Sheet"; but dkt.10 is not a listing of creditors (it is a notice of commencement of this case and the meeting of creditors), the only bankruptcy Schedule E/F that appears on the docket (dkt.1) lists general unsecured claims of $64,672.60, and there is no "Continuation Sheet" attached.

(b) Exhibit C (Discl. Stmt., dkt. 81, at PDF p.7). This document references "Exhibit I" - apparently meaning bankruptcy Schedules I & J (dkt.1) - as the source of the gross income and expenses used to calculate the debtor's cash flow. But there are several problems with this approach.

First, when using bankruptcy Schedules I and J there is a danger of double-counting: bankruptcy Schedule J includes debt payments on lines 17 and 20 - namely $474.10/mo for vehicle1, $500/mo for vehicle2, $900/mo for a home equity loan on rental property, and $1,219.99/mo for the mortgage on rental property - but the Plan includes payments of those same debts: Classes 2D and 2E are payments of vehicle loans, and Classes 2A and 2B are payments of loans secured by real property (in other words, the Plan pays the same debts again).

Second, when using bankruptcy Schedules I&J a plan proponent is supposed to use Exhibit C-1 to the Disclosure Statement. That spreadsheet includes lines to make adjustments to eliminate the double-counting problem.

Third, bankruptcy Schedule I (dkt.1), line 8a, includes an instruction to "Attach a statement for each property and business showing gross receipts, ordinary and necessary business expenses, and the total monthly net income." The debtors have failed to provide any such statements, and as a result there is inadequate disclosure of the cash flow in support of the Disclosure Statement. It is true that the debtors have attached such a statement as part of their budget motion in the form of a spreadsheet (dkt. 20, at PDF p.8), but that spreadsheet includes debt payment (so, again, it double-counts payments on such debt) and in any event no such spreadsheet is attached to the Disclosure Statement (or incorporated by reference).

Fourth, the debtor's status report (dkt. 85) suggests that the finances described in bankruptcy Schedules I & J (dkt. 1) and the budget motion (dkt. 20) are all out of date. Apparently the debtors have moved from their prior residence into their former rental property and they are renting out their former residence, and they no longer have the costs of a storage locker. The debtors should have filed the local form statement of postpetition income and expenses (with statements showing gross income, expenses, and net income from their current rental property as an exhibit). Then they should attach a copy of that form and exhibit to their Disclosure Statement so as to provide accurate, current information about their cash flow.

(d) Effective date. The proposed effective date of 6/1/18 does not leave adequate time (i) to file a further amended plan and further amended disclosure statement; (ii) to have a further status conference to review those documents; and (iii) to disseminate the amended plan and amended disclosure statement for voting and hold a confirmation hearing. The debtors are directed to modify the effective date to 9/1/18.

cautioned debtors' counsel about the possibility of dismissing this case for failure to prosecute. Although the debtors have reached an agreement with Sheffield Financial (dkt. 51, 53), it does not appear that the debtors have reached agreements with any of their other secured creditors (see dkt. 45, Ex.H, at PDF p.14, Endnotes 2B-2D), despite this case having been pending for nearly eight months. As a result, counsel for the debtor should address why this court should not dismiss this case.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 5/10/17.

(a) Bar date: 8/31/17 (timely served, dkt. 26).

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement (dkt. 77, 76)*: If this case is not dismissed, this court will set a hard deadline for the debtors to negotiate agreements with their secured creditors regarding plan treatment.

(c) Continued status conference: If this case is not dismissed, this court will set a date for a continued status conference.

*Warning: special procedures apply (see order setting initial status conference).

Tentative Ruling for 12/5/17:

Appearances required by counsel for the debtor but telephonic appearances are encouraged if advance arrangements are made (see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.", "Instructions/Procedures").

(1) Current issues.

(a) Plan/Disclosure Statement: The tentative ruling is not to impose at this time a deadline for filing amended documents, but to caution debtor's counsel that if this case is not adequately prosecuted then it may be dismissed.

- (a) Bar date: 8/31/17 (timely served, dkt. 26).
  - (b) Plan/Disclosure Statement (dkt. 77, 76)*: This court anticipates that at the continued status conference (set forth below) this court will set a new, hard deadline shortly thereafter for filing revised drafts of the plan and disclosure statement.
  - (c) Continued status conference: 1/9/18 at 1:00 p.m. No written status report is required.
- *Warning: special procedures apply (see order setting initial status conference).

Appearances required by counsel for the debtor but telephonic appearances are encouraged if advance arrangements are made (see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.", "Instructions/Procedures").

(1) Current issues.

(a) Plan/Disclosure Statement (dkt. 44, 45). There is a blank page in the plan that should be deleted (dkt. 44 at PDF p.11).

Exhibit F (dkt. 45 at PDF p.12) appears to contain some errors: line "1" lists general unsecured claims of $64,716, the source for which is listed as dkt.10, plus another $7,970.39 in line "8" from a "Continuation Sheet"; but dkt.10 is not a listing of creditors (it is a notice of commencement of this case and the meeting of creditors), the only bankruptcy Schedule E/F that appears on the docket (dkt.1) lists general unsecured claims of $64,672.60, and there is no "Continuation Sheet" attached.

The debtor discloses (dkt. 45, Ex.H, at PDF p.14, Endnotes 2B-2E) that agreements have yet to be reached with various secured creditors; and therefore it appears appropriate to defer any solicitation of votes. The debtor's counsel should be prepared to address how long it is expected to take before agreements are reached or unresolved disputes are ready for presentation to this court for decision.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 5/10/17.

(a) Bar date: 8/31/17 (timely served, dkt. 26).

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement (dkt. 77, 76)*: 11/14/17 deadline to file (NOT SERVE - except on the U.S. Trustee) any redlined revisions per the above tentative ruling and any matters discussed at the status conference.

(c) Continued status conference: 12/5/17 at 1:00 p.m. No written status report is required.

*Warning: special procedures apply (see order setting initial status conference).

If you do not appear, and the matter is not adequately resolved by consent, then you may waive your right to be heard on matters that are appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

Appearances required by counsel for the debtor but telephonic appearances are encouraged if advance arrangements are made (see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.", "Instructions/Procedures").

(1) Current issues.

(a) Orders. The debtors' counsel should be prepared to address why certain orders have not been lodged, namely, (i) the order on the debtors' motion to value their personal property (dkt. 27), which motion was granted on 7/11/17, and (ii) the order on the debtors' application to employ general bankruptcy counsel (dkt. 22).

Tentative Ruling for 6/20/17:

Grant the budget motion and continue the status conference as set forth below. Appearances are not required on 6/20/17.

(1) Current issues.

(a) Budget motion. This court mistakenly ruled at the status conference on 6/13/17 that the budget motion would be granted on a final basis, not realizing that the 6/13/17 hearing on that motion had been vacated because an amended motion had been filed and set for hearing on this 6/20/17 date. See dkt. 16, 20. Notwithstanding that error, no opposition has been filed to the budget motion, and the tentative ruling is to issue an order after this hearing granting the amended motion on a final basis (the debtor is directed to lodge a proposed order within seven days after this hearing date).

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 5/10/17.

(a) Bar date: 8/31/17 (dkt. 23) - to be served by 8/20/17

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: file by 9/15/17 using the forms required by Judge Bason (DO NOT SERVE yet, except on the U.S. Trustee - the court will set a deadline and procedures at a later time).

(c) Continued status conference: 8/22/17 at 1:00 p.m. No written status report is required.

but telephonic appearances are encouraged if advance arrangements are made (see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.", "Instructions/Procedures").

(1) Current issues.

(a) Budget motion. The debtors' amended budget motion filed on 6/1/17 (dkt. 20) appears to have only partially cured the defects pointed out by the U.S. Trustee in its opposition (dkt. 19) to the initial budget motion (dkt. 16). First, the debtor and/or spouse apparently has income from a property or business but has failed to provide a breakdown of gross receipts, ordinary and necessary business expenses, and calculation of the resulting monthly net income. See dkt. 20 at PDF p.7 (bankruptcy schedule "I" line 8a).

Second, the budget motion includes both (a) bankruptcy schedules "I" and "J" and (b) a spreadsheet showing what appears to be largely or entirely duplicative data. Which one controls (or are both the same)?

Third, the notice of the amended motion incorrectly provides that oppositions are due 14 days prior to the hearing on the motion, although the motion was set on shortened notice pursuant to this court's posted Procedures. For this reason, this court intends to hear oppositions to the amended budget motion at the hearing on 6/13/17.

The tentative ruling is to grant the budget motion on an interim basis, based on the proposed budget spreadsheet (not bankruptcy schedules "I" and "J"), with a deadline of 6/14/17 to file a supplemental declaration providing a thorough breakdown of gross revenues, expenses and calculation of net income for each property/business, and with a continued hearing on 6/20/17 at 1:00 p.m.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 5/10/17.

Docket 7

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for 7/10/18:

Continue to 8/14/18 at 1:00 p.m. Appearances are not required on 7/10/18.

(1) Current issues.

(a) Budget motion (dkt. 17, 41, 46, 50, 56). This Court approved the debtor's budget on an interim basis (dkt. 46) and orally on a final basis at the hearing on 6/12/18, but no proposed final order was lodged, and since that time the debtor has filed amended bankruptcy Schedules I&J (dkt. 56). The tentative ruling is to deem the budget motion to be amended by those latest amended Schedules I&J and approve the budget as so amended on a final basis.

Proposed order: The debtors are directed to lodge a proposed order granting the motion via LOU, within 7 days after the hearing date, and a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this Court's final ruling. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

(b) Other issues. This Court has reviewed the debtor's filed Status Report (dkt. 54). This Court has no issues to raise sua sponte at this time.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 5/1/18.

(a) Bar date: 8/7/18 (timely served, dkt. 34, 40).

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: file by 8/29/18 using the forms required by Judge Bason (DO NOT SERVE yet, except on the U.S. Trustee - the court will set a deadline and procedures at a later time).

(c) Continued status conference: Continue to the date set forth at the start of this tentative ruling. No written status report is required.

Appearances required by counsel for the debtor but telephonic appearances are encouraged if advance arrangements are made (see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.", "Instructions/Procedures").

(1) Current issues.

(a) Budget motion (dkt. 17, 29, 41). Grant the budget motion on a final basis (i) as deemed amended by the latest bankruptcy Schedules I and J (dkt. 41) and (ii) subject to a requirement that, no later than 6/19/18, the debtor must file a declaration showing how it is reasonable to estimate self employment taxes of only $100 per month (see dkt. 41, Sch.J, line 16) or, alternatively, file a declaration establishing a higher dollar amount and lodge a proposed order amending the approved budget accordingly.

Proposed order: The debtor is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and include a provision that the budget is deemed amended by dkt. 41. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

Tentative Ruling for 5/29/18:

Appearances required by counsel for the debtor and by the debtor(s) themselves.

(1) Current issues.

(a) Amended Schedule I (dkt. 26). Bankruptcy Schedule I, paragraph 8a, requires a separate statement for any rental property showing gross receipts, ordinary and necessary expenses, and net income. The debtor has not complied. Why not?

(b) Budget motion (dkt. 17, 29). Notwithstanding the foregoing, this Court has reviewed the cash collateral motion (dkt. 28), which appears to set forth the gross receipts, expenses, and net income of the subject property. Based on the presumption that this is included in the budget for which the debtor seeks approval, the tentative ruling is to grant the budget motion as amended (dkt. 29), on an interim basis, subject to a final hearing at the same date and time as the continued status conference set forth below. By no later than 6/8/18, the debtor must (i) correct the above-referenced omission from bankruptcy Schedule I and the budget motion, (ii) provide notice of the final hearing on this motion via U.S. Mail to all parties in interest, and (iii) file a proof of service.

Proposed order: The debtor is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this court's final ruling. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

Appearances required by counsel for the debtor but telephonic appearances are encouraged if advance arrangements are made (see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.", "Instructions/Procedures").

(1) Current issues. This Court has reviewed the debtor's status report (dkt. 54) and other relevant pleadings.

(a) Plan/Disclosure Statement (dkt. 51, 52). It appears that the differences between the stipulation with JP Morgan Chase Bank, NA (dkt. 55, 58) and the proposed plan (dkt. 52, Ex.A, Class 2B) are immaterial (a very minor increase in the claim amount and monthly amortizing payment amount). This court has no issues to raise sua sponte.

Chapter 11

If you do not appear, and the matter is not adequately resolved by consent, then you may waive your right to be heard on matters that are appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

Tentative Ruling for 9/19/17:
Appearances required.

(1) Current issues.

(a) Order for relief. This case was commenced as an involuntary chapter 7, and thereafter the debtor filed a motion (dkt. 19) to convert this case to chapter 11, which this court treated at a hearing on 8/8/17 as a consent to an order for relief conditioned on such conversion. This court orally ordered relief and granted the motion to convert to chapter 11, and although the latter order was reduced to writing (dkt. 25) the former was not. The tentative ruling is to direct the Chapter 11 Trustee to prepare and lodge a written order, memorializing that the oral order for relief was effective on 8/8/17. The parties should be prepared to address whether that written order should modify any deadlines that otherwise would apply (see next paragraph), notwithstanding that all parties in interest appear to have been present in person or on the telephone at that 8/8/17 hearing.

(b) Lack of information. The Chapter 11 Trustee's status report (dkt. 79) indicates that the debtor has yet to provide information on numerous issues, notwithstanding Rule 1007(a)(2), (b) and (c). The docket does not reflect that the debtor has filed bankruptcy schedules, a statement of financial affairs, or other information, or filed any motion for extension of time. What is the current status, and what additional action may be appropriate?

(c) Clients. This court has approved a client transfer protocol (dkt. 83). What is the status of those transfers?

(d) Reconversion? The debtor's status report (dkt. 80, at PDF p.3:4-21) suggests that, although the debtor and other parties in interest stipulated (dkt. 38) to the appointment of a chapter 11 trustee, and this court approved that stipulation (dkt. 42), nevertheless this case is essentially being operated as a chapter 7 liquidation and should be converted back to chapter 7. What are the positions of parties in interest on that issue?

(e) Joint administration? Should this case be jointly administered (not procedurally consolidated) with the case of Maximum Legal (California), LLP (Case No. 2:17-bk-18433-NB)?

Tentative Ruling for 11/14/17:

Continue to 2/13/18 at 1:00 p.m. in view of the debtor's post-confirmation status report (dkt. 142). Appearances are not required on 11/14/17.

If you wish to dispute the above tentative ruling, please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings".

Tentative Ruling for 8/15/17:

Appearances required. The debtor's counsel should be prepared to address the issues set forth below.

Proposed order: If this court is persuaded to adopt this tentative ruling, then counsel for the debtor is directed to serve and lodge proposed orders (a) approving the disclosure statement (dkt. 101) on a final basis and (b) confirming the plan (dkt. 102), all as amended by the stipulation with class 2A (dkt. 127, 128). Those proposed orders must be lodged via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date.

(1) Ballot Summary. The debtor's ballot summary (dkt. 131) appears to be inaccurate and internally inconsistent. Although the ballots and stipulation attached to the ballot summary show acceptance by 100% in both dollar amount and number of the claims actually voted or deemed to have been voted in classes 2A, 2B and 4A, and no vote by Class 2C, the ballot summary makes assertions that are not consistent with those ballots, namely:

(a) Cramdown: The ballot summary asserts that the debtor is not requesting cramdown (dkt. 131, item 3), even though the lack of an affirmative vote in class 2C means that the debtor does not satisfy 11 U.S.C.

1129(a)(8) and therefore must seek cramdown under 11 U.S.C. 1129(b);

(b) Accepting classes: The ballot summary asserts that only class 4A has voted to accept the plan (dkt. 131, item 6), even though classes 2A and 2B have also accepted the plan; and

(c) Page 2 of the Ballot Summary: The chart on page 2 of the ballot summary (dkt. 131, p.2, top line of chart) fails to show that Class 2A has accepted the plan by 100% in number of claims deemed to have been voted (not just 100% in amount). In addition, it would have been helpful if the ballot summary's "Comments" following that chart had explained that (i) Portfolio Recovery Associates is Class 2C (even though it is listed as LA County Tax Collector in the Plan), (ii) U.S. Bank is Class 2A (even though it is listed as Wells Fargo in the Plan), and (iii) Class 2A is deemed to have voted in favor of the plan under its court-approved stipulation, even though it did not actually cast a ballot. (If any of the foregoing is incorret then counsel for the debtor must correct those issues at the hearing.)

(2) Status report

The debtor's status report (dkt. 130) misleadingly asserts that this court's order (dkt. 106) previously approved the disclosure statement (dkt. 101), whereas in fact this court only granted preliminary approval for purposes of this combined hearing on whether to approve the disclosure statement (dkt. 101) and confirm the plan (dkt. 102).

(3) Confirmation. Notwithstanding the foregoing, it appears that the debtor's disclosure statement (dkt. 101) should be approved, and that the chapter 11 plan (dkt. 102), as amended by the debtor's stipulation with the holder of the class 2A claim (dkt. 127, 128), has met the requirements for confirmation under 11 U.S.C. 1129(a) & (b).

(4) Correction. This court notes that the tentative ruling for 6/20/17 (reproduced below) was in error in asserting that "[at] the status conference on 5/23/17 this court set a deadline of 6/6/17 to file an amended plan and disclosure statement." In fact, this court was persuaded at that status conference not to impose that deadline.

Tentative Ruling for 6/20/17:

Continue to 8/8/17 at 1:00 p.m. (without the need for any written status report), but impose sanctions of $200 on counsel for the debtor, for the reasons set forth below. Appearances are not required on 6/20/17.

At the status conference on 5/23/17 this court set a deadline of 6/6/17 to file an amended plan and disclosure statement. On 6/15/17, after this court had already prepared a tentative ruling for this status conference, counsel for the debtor filed a stipulation (dkt. 117) and lodged a proposed order for yet another continuance of the confirmation hearing. At no point did counsel telephone chambers to suggest that counsel expected or was attempting to arrange for such a continuance. Moreover, as set forth in the tentative rulings reproduced below, this case has a long history of missed deadlines, last minute filings, and deficient documents.

This court recognizes that to a large extent counsel cannot control delays by a debtor and debtor in possession, and not infrequently a debtor is simply incapable of meeting all of the debtor's obligations. Nevertheless, this court has noted that counsel of record in this case has a pattern, in this and other cases (e.g., In re Barragan, 2:15-bk-29156-NB), of filing late and inadequate documents, and that pattern is not matched by the vast majority of other counsel who appear before this court. All of that strongly suggests that counsel bears some responsibility for those deficiencies, and that imposes substantial burdens on this court, the U.S. Trustee, and any other parties in interest who may be monitoring or involved in such bankruptcy cases. The tentative ruling is that this warrants sanctions under this court's inherent powers and 11 U.S.C. 105. Counsel is also cautioned that this court anticipates issuing similar or increased sanctions if this pattern continues in other cases in future.

If you wish to dispute the above tentative ruling, please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings".

(1) Current issues

The ballot summary was due 5/16/17 but was not filed until 5/22/17 at 4:12 p.m. In addition, it is internally inconsistent. What remedies are appropriate?

The plan (dkt. 102) has not been accepted by any class. This is the debtor's second bankruptcy case, and it has been pending for over a year. The debtor's lack of progress for that long a period of time suggests a willful delay. Should this court dismiss or convert this case? Should this court impose a bar against being a debtor in bankruptcy for the third time in a row?

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 4/20/16. If this case is not dismissed or converted, the tentative ruling is to hold a continued status conference on 6/20/17 at 1:00 p.m. with a deadline of 6/6/17 to file (but NOT serve) yet another amended plan and disclosure statement.

If you do not appear, and the matter is not adequately resolved by consent, then you may waive your right to be heard on matters that are appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

(1) Current issues.

(a) U.S. Trustee notice of non-compliance. Has the debtor cured the reporting delinquency noted by the U.S. Trustee regarding lack of insurance (dkt. 94)?

(b) Adequate protection payments. At the hearing on 1/10/17 counsel for the debtor assured this court that the debtor had cured the postpetition delinquency in adequate protection payments. But the monthly operating report for January 2017 (dkt. 95, filed 2/7/17, at p.4) continues to list 4 missed payments for a total of $6,972 delinquency. What was the basis for counsel's misrepresentation to this court? Should this court require counsel and the debtor to testify on that issue, and on the prospects for future income, before this court can find that the plan is feasible (11 U.S.C. 1129(a)(11))? Should this misrepresentation have any other consequences?

(c) Plan (dkt. 82) and Disclosure Statement (dkt. 81). The debtor's ballot summary was due to be filed no later than 2/21/17 (dkt. 89). Instead the debtor's counsel has filed a declaration (dkt. 96) asserting that a ballot in favor of the plan has been received by class "6b," even though no such class is listed in the plan (see dkt. 82, Ex.A), and requesting more time to receive ballots from classes 2a and 2b, even though the deadline for ballots has

(a) Payments to secured creditor Wells Fargo. The debtor's November 2016 MOR reflects that the debtor has not made 4 monthly payments to secured creditor Wells Fargo. See dkt. 84, PDF p. 7. Is that accurate, or did the debtor intend to state that those payments were made?

(1) Current issues

(a) Amended Chapter 11 Plan and Disclosure Statement (dkt. 74, 75).

There are issues with these documents which this Bankruptcy Court will review orally at the hearing.

(b) Monthly operating reports. The debtor's court approved budget (dkt. 19) and the budget attached to her amended chapter 11 disclosure statement (dkt. 74, PDF p. 13) show various typical monthly expenses such as transportation costs, utilities, and food. The expenses included in her budgets submitted to this court are either not reflected in her MORs for August and September 2016 (dkt. 65 and 73, respectively) or are reflected, but in much smaller amounts than budgeted. Is the debtor reporting all of her monthly expenses in her MORs? If not, why not?

Additionally, the MORs appear to reflect that the debtor is receiving less than her budgeted monthly income ($1,800/mo.) from her job as a real estate professional. In August 2016, the debtor reported receipts of $970.01;

(1) Current issues

(a) Chapter 11 Plan and Disclosure Statement (dkt. 59, 58). There are numerous issues with these documents, which this Bankruptcy Court will review orally at the hearing.

(b) Orders on budget and cash collateral motions. On July 19, 2016, this court held continued hearings on the debtor's motion for use of cash collateral (dkt. 18) and budget motion (dkt. 19). The motions were granted on a final basis, and the court's adopted tentative ruling directed the debtor to lodge proposed orders on those motions within seven days of the hearing date. This court has reviewed the case docket and its pending lodged orders, and it appears no such orders have been lodged.

Tentative Ruling for 5/31/16:

Appearances required by counsel for the debtor and by the debtor(s) themselves

(1) Current issues. This Court has reviewed the debtor's status report (dkt. 23).

(a) Prior failed case. The debtor's prior case (no. 2:14-bk-14065-NB) was a chapter 13 case that was dismissed because of plan infeasibility due to the objections by Wells Fargo, and claims by the IRS, FTB, and L.A. County Tax Collector.

(b) Debtor's real property

(i) Inconsistent rental income amount. This Court notes that the debtor's amended schedule G reflects a monthly rental of $2,200 (dkt. 13, p.10), which was originally listed as $1,500 per month (dkt. 1, p.36). However, the debtor's original schedule I originally listed the debtor's net income from rental property as $2,400 (dkt. 1, p.39). The debtor's amended schedule I now lists net income from rental property as $2,200 (dkt. 13, p.12). Although the rental income now appears to be consistent at $2,200, and schedule G reflects the same lessee, Smark Lyles, is this the correct amount?

(ii) Schedule I. Part 8.a. requires that the debtor attach a statement for each property and business showing gross receipts, ordinary and necessary business expenses, and the total monthly net income.

(iii) Motion to Value. The debtor's status report indicates that the debtor intends to file a motion to value the real property. When does the debtor anticipate filing the motion to value?

(c) UST compliance. The United States Trustee has filed a motion to dismiss or convert (dkt. 24). Although the matter has been set for hearing on 6/21/16, the debtor should be prepared to address more generally, why this case in chapter 11 instead of chapter 13. It appears that the debtor is within the debt limits for chapter 13, and chapter 11 typically is far more expensive, so it seems doubtful that the debtor needs or can afford a chapter 11 case.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 4/20/16.

(a) Bar date: 7/29/16 (DO NOT SERVE notice yet - court will prepare an order after the status conference).

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: file by 8/19/16 using the forms required by Judge Bason (DO NOT SERVE yet, except on the U.S. Trustee - the court will set a deadline and procedures at a later time). This Court is aware that the debtor has requested a much later deadline (dkt. 23, p.4) but this Court is not aware of any reason why so much time is needed. The debtor should be negotiating with secured creditors and other key constituencies already.

(c) Continued status conference: 7/19/16 at 1:00 p.m. No written status report is required.

*Warning: special procedures apply (see order setting initial status conference).

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for 7/10/18:

Continue to 9/18/18 at 1:00 p.m. Appearances are not required on 7/10/18.

Reasons: The tentative ruling is that the debtor's anticipated lack of distribution from the sale of the Tchoupitoulas property (per the latest post-confirmation status report, dkt. 290, para.5) is consistent with the terms of the plan (dkt. 227), disclosure statement (dkt. 228, including Ex.H, n. N15), and confirmation order (dkt. 253). The tentative ruling is also that, although the debtor anticipates that the sale might occur on or before 8/13/18, and that other matters might not require a status conference for several months (dkt. 290, para. 8), nevertheless in this Court's experience issues tend to arise in this and other cases that make it advisable not to continue status conferences out quite so far. Accordingly, the tentative ruling is to continue the status conference to the date and time set forth above.

Continue to 2/13/18 at 1:00 p.m. Appearances are not required on 11/14/17.

Reasons: The debtor's post-confirmation status report (dkt. 270) appears to show sufficient progress and compliance with the confirmed Plan (dkt. 227, confirmed by order at dkt. 253). Therefore the tentative ruling is to continue this status conference to allow the parties more time to reach a resolution with regards to the Tchoupitoulas property.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." suggests that the pendency of this case is impeding the debtor's ability to finish reorganizing his finances, and therefore the debtor may seek to close the case, but he is concerned that creditors may misinterpret that as permission to pursue him for prepetition debts (beyond enforcement of any such debts that survive in his Plan obligations) and therefore he may seek to obtain an early discharge of any debts that are not being paid under the Plan. That anticipated request is not presently before this court, but in the context of this status conference it is appropriate to address any standing policies of this court and any procedures that should be established regarding any such request.

Under the terms of the Bankruptcy Code, incorporated into the confirmed Plan (dkt. 227, p.4, Art.IV.A.) (see also Disclosure Statement, dkt. 228, p.2, summarizing same), without modification by the confirmation order (dkt. 253), there are only limited circumstances in which the debtor can obtain a discharge prior to the 84 month term for completion of payments to general unsecured creditors:

IV.A. ... Pursuant to § 1141(d)(5), Debtor will not be discharged from any debts unless and until (1) Debtor completes all payments “under” the Plan and obtains an order of the court granting a discharge (§ 1141(d)(5)(A)&(C)) – for purposes of this Plan payments that extend beyond the Plan Term stated in Exhibit A are not considered payments “under” the Plan (e.g., if the Plan Term is 5 years then Debtor will be eligible for a discharge under this clause if 5 years of payments are made, but the debtor will remain obligated on obligations that extend beyond the Plan Term, such as a 30-year mortgage); (2) the court grants a limited (“hardship”) discharge (§ 1141(d)(5)(B)&(C)); or (3) the court “orders otherwise for cause” (§ 1141(d)(5)(A)&(C)). [Dkt. 227, p.4 (emphasis added)]

The debtor should be prepared to address whether he will pursue his stated intent to seek an early discharge, and if so on what grounds, and pursuant to what procedures.

If you do not appear, and the matter is not adequately resolved by consent, then you may waive your right to be heard on matters that are appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

(A) Current issue: objection to AOK claim

This court has reviewed the debtor's objection (dkt. 121) to proof of claim 9-1, filed by AOK Brothers, LLC (AOK); AOK's opposition (dkt. 147); and the debtor's reply to the objection (dkt. 150).

(1) Default interest

The parties do not appear to disagree on the legal standards. The debtor does not (at this time) seek to disallow default interest pursuant to any "cure" concept under bankruptcy law. Cf., e.g., GECC v. Future Media, 547 F.3d 956 (9th Cir. 2008); In re Entz-White Lumber and Supply, Inc., 850 F.2d

Chapter 11

1338 (9th Cir. 1988). Rather, the debtor relies on California law. See generally In re Kord Enterprises II, 139 F.3d 684, 687 (9th Cir. 1998).

As stated by the California Supreme Court, the analysis under California law is to determine whether default rates of interest are either permissible liquidated damages or an impermissible penalty:

[California Civil Code] Section 1671 authorizes the assessment of agreed-upon and anticipated damages only when the fixing of the actual damages which would be sustained upon a breach would be "impracticable" or "extremely difficult." Where, as here, the issue is presented on admitted facts it is one of law and must be examined from the position of the parties at the time the contract was entered into. The party seeking to rely on a liquidated damages clause bears the burden of proof. [¶] "The validity of a clause for liquidated damages requires that the parties to the contract 'agree therein upon an amount which shall be presumed to be the amount of damages sustained by a breach thereof....'" (Civ. Code, § 1671.) This amount must represent the result of a reasonable endeavor by the parties to estimate a fair average compensation for any loss that may be sustained. [Garrett v. Coast & Southern Fed. Sav. & Loan Assn., 9 Cal.3d 731 (1973) (citations and some internal quotation marks omitted, emphasis added). See also Ridgley v. Topa Thrift & Loan Assn., 17 Cal. 4th 970, 981 (Cal. 1998).]

In this instance, AOK has not met its burden to establish that the default rate of interest is permissible under California law. A five percent (5%) interest rate has not been shown to be a reasonable estimate of liquidated damages, given the $1.3 million equity cushion AOK has in the property. In addition and alternatively, there is no showing of any anticipated damages - beyond the compensation that AOK already can claim through late charges, ongoing interest at the non-default rate, and other things such as attorney fees as set forth below - let alone evidence that the parties made a reasonable endeavor to estimate any such additional losses.

The debtor estimates that AOK's proof of claim includes at least $15,000 of default interest. The tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 9/20/16 for AOK to file an amended proof of claim that shows the calculation of default interest, and a deadline of 9/27/16 for the debtor to lodge a proposed order, with a copy of this tentative ruling attached, that disallows all default interest (including not just whatever AOK asserts as of the petition date but also any future claim for default interest).

(2) Attorney fees

The debtor's motion requests that AOK's claim be reduced by $34,221.46 for unreasonable and unnecessary attorney's fees incurred by AOK's counsel. The tentative ruling is to disallow a portion of those fees as set forth below.

The debtor is correct that the loan documents contain confusing provisions regarding attorney fees. But the tentative ruling is that the debtor is incorrect in arguing (dkt. 121, p.5:27-28) that a notice of acceleration or similar predicates were required before he had any obligation to pay AOK's attorney fees.

(a) Some loan document clauses require notices of acceleration or similar predicates

On the one hand, several clauses support the debtor's reading that AOK was required to send a notice of acceleration (or similar predicates) before being entitled to any attorney fees.

(i) The promissory note has a section (section 4.D) providing that "[i]f immediate full payment is required (acceleration, at AOK's option upon default) then AOK will have the right to be paid its reasonable attorney fees (dkt. 121, Ex.1, at PDF p.30, emphasis added).

(ii) The deed of trust ("DOT") provides (section 17) that if a notice of default is provided and the breach is not timely cured then AOK shall be entitled to collect all reasonable attorney fees "incurred in pursuing the remedies provided in this paragraph 17" (power of sale and other remedies permitted by applicable law). Dkt. 121, Ex.1, at PDF p.48.

(iii) The DOT's more general provision regarding protection of AOK's security (section 7) states that if debtor fails to perform then "upon notice to [debtor]" (dkt. 121, Ex.1, at PDF p.46, emphasis added) AOK may disburse sums and take actions necessary to protect its interests including disbursement of reasonable attorney fees.

(iv) An addendum to the promissory note (id., at PDF p.35, the "Note Addendum") and a rider to the DOT (dkt. 121, Ex.1, at PDF p.55, the "DOT Rider") both provide that "in the event that" there is a payment default and AOK permits the debtor "to cure the default," then the debtor shall pay AOK "all reasonable attorney fees and costs incurred by [AOK] originating from this default and the cure thereof." (Emphasis added.)

(v) The tentative ruling is that the debtor is correct that his "personal guaranty" of his own obligation is a nullity, so its attorney fee clause (dkt. 147, Ex.B, section 6) is of no force and effect.

(b) Other clauses require the debtor to pay AOK's attorney fees reasonably necessary to bring any late payments current

On the other hand, the Note Addendum and DOT Rider also provide that, if AOK has not received the full amount of any monthly payment by the end of ten calendar days after it is due, the debtor "will promptly pay to [AOK] all costs incurred by [it], including, but not limited to, attorneys' fees reasonably necessary to bring any late payments (overdue payments) current." Dkt. 121, Ex.1, at PDF pp. 35 & 55 (emphasis added). No notice of acceleration or other prerequisite is required for this obligation.

The debtor (dkt. 121, pp. 7:23-8:11 and 8:17-9:3) cites authority that such clauses must be construed narrowly against the lender, and argues that in this light AOK's bankruptcy litigation was not "reasonably necessary to bring any late payments (overdue payments) current." Instead, the debtor argues, AOK's litigation was bankruptcy-related: opposing the debtor's use of cash collateral; seeking to convert this case to one under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code; opposing the debtor's motion to extend the exclusive period in which only he may propose a plan of reorganization; etc.

It is true that the decisions cited by the debtor construe such clauses strictly against the lender. See dkt. 121, p.8:1-11 (citing cases); and see, e.g., In re Cukierman, 265 F.3d 846, 852 (9th Cir. 2001); In re Westside Print Works, 180 B.R. 557 (9th Cir. BAP 1995). But a fair reading of the loan documents, even construed against AOK, is that it was "reasonably necessary" to pay attorneys to engage in bankruptcy litigation in order to attempt to "bring any late payments" current. In fact, the whole point of bankruptcy reorganization (by this debtor and most debtors) is to attempt to defer or restructure financial obligations; and in opposing such attempts the creditor is attempting to "bring any late payments" current, as nearly as possible given the constraints of the bankruptcy system on creditors' exercise of their remedies.

Alternatively, even supposing that there were sufficient ambiguity about the loan documents to reach a different conclusion, that ambiguity would be resolved by the letter signed by the debtor (dkt. 147, Ex.E) confirmed that he agrees to pay a late fee "in addition to any legal fees [AOK] incurs in connection with collecting any payment on my loan." Again, a fair reading of this document is that "collecting" payments includes filing a claim in a bankruptcy case, opposing the debtor's attempts to defer or reduce payments, and otherwise engaging in bankruptcy litigation.

For the foregoing reasons, AOK is owed its reasonable attorney fees. The remaining question is what attorney fees were reasonable.

(c) Reasonableness of AOK's attorney fees

The debtor is correct that, at least on the present record, AOK appears to be greatly oversecured, so much of its litigation was unnecessary to protect its interests and doomed to fail from the outset. In addition, as this Bankruptcy Court has noted before on the record, many of AOK's arguments lacked a sufficient foundation.

On the other hand, as this Bankruptcy Court previously has also observed, the debtor has been sloppy in some aspects of his case management – such as failing to recognize that AOK has an interest in cash collateral; or failing to provide adequate notice to AOK. In addition, the debtor's sloppiness and tendency to overstate his arguments justify greater involvement by AOK than typically might be required for a creditor protected by a substantial equity cushion.

This Bankruptcy Court has taken these things into consideration in reviewing AOK's daily timesheets. That review has been hampered by the fact that AOK's timesheets do not comply with the local rules and guidelines – for example, time entries are "lumped" together, and they do not often identify the precise issues addressed (e.g., the subjects of telephone conferences generally are not described). Nevertheless, this Bankruptcy Court has sufficient familiarity with the filed pleadings and records in this case, as well as the approximate amount of fees that normally would be incurred in cases of this sort, to be able to rule on this record. In addition, it does not appear that any party's interests would be served by the expense and delay of further briefing.

In view of the foregoing, the tentative ruling is to reduce AOK's legal fees to date by $14,000.00.

(a) Motion to dismiss etc. (dkt. 51). Deny the motion without prejudice to renewing it at a later date, if sufficient cause exists.

Proposed order: The debtor is directed to serve and lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this court's final ruling.

Reasons for denial:

(i) Motion and opposition. The crux of AOK's motion is that cause exists under 11 USC 1112(b)(4) to convert or dismiss this case, and alternatively under 11 USC 1104, to appoint a chapter 11 trustee based on the debtor's alleged "gross mismanagement of the estate" and his "unauthorized use of cash collateral" that allegedly was "substantially harmful to 1 or more creditors[.]" 11 USC 1112(b)(4)(B) & (D). (In its reply (dkt. 65), AOK raises a number of additional issues allegedly supporting such relief.)

On the one hand this Court is somewhat concerned about (A) the debtor's (apparently inadvertent) use of cash collateral without authorization and (slight) delay in seeking such authorization once he was alerted to the assignment of rents issue (see dkt. 39), (B) his filing of this case in the wrong division of this district (see dkt. 19, 21), (C) his refusal to communicate in writing with AOK's counsel except in limited ways, (D) some vagueness regarding the assets and liabilities of the bankruptcy estate, (E) the prior bankruptcies affecting the property on which AOK has a lien, and (F) AOK's other allegations. Nevertheless, this Court is not persuaded based on the current record that there has been anything remotely approaching "gross" mismanagement of this estate or that the duration and nature of the use of cash collateral caused any "substantial" harm (if there was any harm at all) to any creditors, including AOK.

There is no evidence that the cash collateral was used for anything other than legitimate purposes. One such use has been paying liens, including tendering payments to AOK at an interest rate that is prima facie within a reasonable range for adequate protection of AOK's interest (and AOK has not rebutted that prima facie showing). Another use of cash collateral is to maintain the subject property (see dkt. 40, budget at pp. 4-6). AOK has not identified any harm at all, let alone "substantial" harm, from this use of cash collateral.

(ii) AOK's reply. AOK raises a number of new issues in its reply.

That is procedurally improper and should be disregarded. See LBR 9013-1 (g)(1).

Alternatively and additionally, these new issues are not sufficient to warrant conversion, dismissal, or appointment of a chapter 11 trustee. It is true that, in general, a debtor has a fiduciary obligation to make disclosures, conduct investigations, and take actions regarding liabilities and assets, including such matters as claims objections and potential avoidance actions. If this bankruptcy estate turns out to be insolvent, and if the other facts and circumstances warrant, then the debtor might have to consider recovering the funds that were used to pay for his son's legal fees, and in any event he may have to sort out his interests in certain real property and in the law firm with his wife. But at this early stage AOK has not established that the debtor is shirking any such duties at all.

The debtor has represented that he anticipates a 100% payment to creditors, and he is contemplating a sale or refinance of at least one property, all of which makes it likely that any pursuit of avoidance actions would be premature and possibly a waste of time and resources. AOK's secured claim appears to be adequately protected (as noted above).

Of course, AOK is not required to accept the debtor's assertions at face value, it can elect to do its own due diligence and otherwise protect its interests, and presumably (although this issue has not been briefed) it may be entitled to reimbursement under the loan documents and applicable law in some dollar amount for a reasonable expenditure of attorney fees in pursuit of those things. But at this early stage of this case AOK has not come close to showing any substantial basis for the extreme remedies of conversion, dismissal, or appointment of a chapter 11 trustee.

Turning to another example, it is true that the California ethical rules provide that "[w]hile representing a client" a member of the bar shall not communicate with a party whom the member "knows" to be represented by another lawyer in the matter (without that lawyer's consent). See Reply (dkt. 65) p.8:10-14 (quoting Rule 2-100). AOK has not cited legal authority that the debtor, representing himself, is "representing a client" within the meaning of the rule. In addition, the debtor has denied having the requisite knowledge of the representation, and AOK has not presented any contrary evidence. Moreover, supposing for the sake of discussion that AOK could show an ethical violation, it has not cited any authority that this would be sufficient for conversion, dismissal, or appointment of a chapter 11 trustee. does not condone the alleged nature and tone of the communications (see Nelson Decl., dkt. 65, at PDF pp. 11-12), but if those were proven and amounted to actual ethical violations there would be separate remedies that would be more closely tailored to any actual wrongdoing, as opposed to sweeping remedies such as dismissal that may harm all creditors (and that might unduly punish even a debtor who has violated an ethical rule).

The remaining issues raised in AOK's reply appear to be most appropriately resolved through other means, such as a claim objection, consideration of a draft disclosure statement and plan, or the usual process of oversight by the Office of the United States Trustee ("UST"). For example, having reviewed the record in this case (including the transcript from the hearing on 4/12/16), it does not appear that this Court ordered the debtor to file an amended bankruptcy Schedule I, contrary to AOK's assertions in its reply. It is true that the UST and the debtor discussed possible amendments to the bankruptcy schedules at a prior hearing, but this Court left that in the first instance to the discretion of the debtor (under the eye of the UST) and any purported lack of accuracy will only be appropriate for this Court to address if later developments show that the debtor abused that discretion.

(iii) Debtor's supplemental opposition (dkt.68). The debtor's supplemental opposition is unauthorized and therefore, like the new arguments in the reply, need not be addressed. In addition and alternatively, this Court need not consider the factual allegations in that document (largely concerning the alleged ethical violation) because this Court is not persuaded by the reply in any event (for the reasons set forth above).

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 2/17/16.

(a) Bar date: 6/30/16 (timely served, dkt. 58, 67).

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: file by 9/5/16 using the forms required by Judge Bason (DO NOT SERVE yet, except on the U.S. Trustee - the court will set a deadline and procedures at a later time).

Note: If the U.S. Trustee wishes to file initial comments on any draft Plan documents before the regular deadline, it should do so at least two weeks prior to the subsequent status conference (but, whether or not any comments are filed, all rights are reserved to object to the Disclosure Statement or Plan when deadline(s) for such objections are established).

Tentative Ruling for 4/12/16:

Appearances required by the debtor in person and any counsel for the debtor.

(1) Current issues.

(a) Status report. This Court has reviewed the debtor's timely filed status report (dkt. 47).

Regarding the debtor's request to file an explanation of the facts that gave rise to this case under seal, this Court requests that the U.S. Trustee state whether it would oppose such request and whether a written motion should be required.

In addition, the debtor should address what is meant by stating, with respect to possible sale procedures (dkt. 47, p.5:25-27), "This depends on how Court views New Orleans property."

(b) Employment of a real estate professional. When does this debtor anticipate filing a motion to employ a real estate professional to sell the one New Orleans property that he contemplates selling?

(c) Cash collateral. This Court has issued a separate tentative ruling addressing the debtor's proposed use of cash collateral (see calendar number 2, 4/12/16 at 1:00 p.m.).

(d) Monthly Operating Report ("MOR") (dkt. 53). The debtor refers to a postpetition settlement. Will that need to be subject to a motion under Rule 9019?

(e) Business income and expenses. The debtor's amended bankruptcy Schedules I&J (dkt. 45) fail to provide a breakdown of gross income, expenses, and net income for his business despite the instructions to do so on line 8a of Schedule I. The tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 4/19/16 to file an amended Schedule I that provides a detailed breakdown.

Appearances are not required on 4/10/18.

(1) Current issues

(a) Motion for Relief from Stay (dkt. 48). In light of the proposed settlement with the Fresco Parties, the tentative ruling is to continue the hearing to be concurrent with the continued status conference (see below).

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement. The tentative ruling is to conduct a combined hearing on the adequacy of the (forthcoming) disclosure statement and confirmation of the (forthcoming) plan to be concurrent with the continued status conference (see below).

(c) Fresco Adversary Proceeding (adv. case no. 2:17-ap-01558-NB), including motion to remand (adv. dkt. 8). The tentative ruling is that this matter will be mooted, assuming that this Court approves the parties' proposed settlement, and therefore this matter should go off calendar. Tentative Ruling for 2/13/18:

Appearances required.

(1) Current issues

(a) Potential settlement with Fresco Parties. The parties must be prepared to address the status of their settlement negotiations and finalization of the draft settlement documents circulated 2/5/18, and all other issues appropriate to raise at a status conference, including the issues in their recent status reports and related documents (Sakurai case, no. 2:17-bk-22660-NB, dkt. 87, 104, 105, 114, 124, and Checkmate case, no. 2:17-bk-22648-NB, dkt. 90, 93, 100, 102, 104, 105, 106, 109, 112, 113, 119, 122).

(b) Cash collateral & budget motions & stipulation (Sakurai dkt. 119, 122; Checkmate dkt. 114, 118, 119). Grant the cash collateral motion in the Sakurai case, subject to the same replacement liens and other terms and conditions as this Court's prior approvals of the use of cash collateral (see Sakurai case dkt. 43, 57); grant the budget motion in the Sakurai case; and approve the cash collateral stipulation in the Checkmate case on a final basis.

(d) Removed action (Adv. no. 2:17-ap-01558-NB), motions for stay and for remand (adv. dkt. 8, 10, 12, 13). The tentative ruling is that the motion for a stay pending determination by the District Court of the debtors' motion to withdraw the reference is moot, because the District Court has dismissed that motion. There is no tentative ruling on the motion to remand.

(1) Current issues

(a) Dec MOR (dkt. 97):

(i) On page 1 of 34, the MOR reflects $793,000 in cash receipts for the pre-petition Community Bank Sakurai Family Trust savings account, with a notation that Community Bank initially seized, but has since returned, the funds. What is this money from? Is it currently being held? Is it available to pay secured or unsecured creditors?

(ii) On page 7 of 34, there is a line item reflecting a $5,000 payment to Mr. Aronson for legal fees. At the status conference on 1/9/18 this court highlighted that the Sakurais had made a similar payment in November for Mr. Aronson's fees and counsel stated that the payment was made in error, and the debtors and their counsel assured this court that this issue would be addressed. By no later than February 7, 2018, Mr. Aronson is directed to file a declaration addressing the status of the $10,000 in legal fees ($5,000 Nov; $5,000 Dec) that he received from the Sakurais.

(1) Current issues

(a) Status Report (dkt. 42): The debtors' status report fails to suggest any bar date or any deadline for filing a draft plan and draft disclosure statement. The debtors suggest that the Fresco litigation might have to conclude before they can propose plan, but they fail to support any such delay with relevant information about that litigation, nor do they explain how claims estimation and/or a disputed claims reserve would be inadequate to address this litigation. Tentative Ruling for 11/14/17:

This court anticipates posting a tentative ruling at a later time.

Tentative Ruling for 10/26/17:

Appearances required by counsel for the debtor.

(1) Current issues

(a) Proofs of service (dkt. 18, 19, 21, 22). Service does not appear to be in compliance with this court's orders shortening time because they do not certify that anyone was served via overnight delivery or other expedited means.

The following tentative rulings are contingent on filing a corrected proof of service, no later than the day after this hearing, declaring that such expedited service was actually done, or if that is not true then the tentative ruling is to impose sanctions of $200 on counsel for the debtors and, despite the lack of service, authorize the proposed expenditures of cash collateral and the proposed utility deposits as an interim method of providing adequate protection under 11 U.S.C. 361-366.

(b) Cash collateral motion (dkt. 8). Subject to any opposition at the hearing, the tentative ruling is to grant this motion on the terms set forth in the separate tentative ruling on that motion.

(c) Utility motion (dkt. 11). Subject to any opposition at the hearing, the tentative ruling is to grant this motion. Proposed order: Movant is directed to serve and lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 10/16/17.

(a) Bar date: TBD

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: TBD

(c) Continued status conference: 11/14/17 at 1:00 p.m. (see order, dkt. 25).

*Warning: special procedures apply (see order setting initial status conference).

If you do not appear, and the matter is not adequately resolved by consent,

Tentative Ruling for 2/13/18:

Appearances required.

(1) Current issues

(a) Potential settlement with Fresco Parties. The parties must be prepared to address the status of their settlement negotiations and finalization of the draft settlement documents circulated 2/5/18, and all other issues appropriate to raise at a status conference, including the issues in their recent status reports and related documents (Sakurai case, no. 2:17-bk-22660-NB, dkt. 87, 104, 105, 114, 124, and Checkmate case, no. 2:17-bk-22648-NB, dkt. 90, 93, 100, 102, 104, 105, 106, 109, 112, 113, 119, 122).

(b) Cash collateral & budget motions & stipulation (Sakurai dkt. 119, 122; Checkmate dkt. 114, 118, 119). Grant the cash collateral motion in the Sakurai case, subject to the same replacement liens and other terms and conditions as this Court's prior approvals of the use of cash collateral (see Sakurai case dkt. 43, 57); grant the budget motion in the Sakurai case; and approve the cash collateral stipulation in the Checkmate case on a final basis.

(d) Removed action (Adv. no. 2:17-ap-01558-NB), motions for stay and for remand (adv. dkt. 8, 10, 12, 13). The tentative ruling is that the motion for a stay pending determination by the District Court of the debtors' motion to withdraw the reference is moot, because the District Court has dismissed that motion. There is no tentative ruling on the motion to remand.

(1) Current Issues.

(a) Joint Status Report and Notice of Continuances. This Court's 5/8/18 tentative ruling (see below) was not opposed, so it became this Court's actual ruling.

This Court directed (i) Checkmate to file and serve a notice of continuances attaching and incorporating by reference the deadlines in that tentative ruling by 5/7/18, and (ii) the parties to file a brief joint status report by 5/29/18. As of the preparation of this tentative ruling, none of the parties have complied. The parties are cautioned that failure to abide by applicable deadlines in future may result in adverse consequences.

(b) Motion for TRO & Claim and Delivery (adv. dkt. 10).

Plaintiff/debtor Checkmate King Co., Ltd. ("Checkmate") has filed a stipulation (adv. dkt. 30) with defendants Radiology Solutions Corp. ("RS") and George Fower ("Fower") for turnover of equipment. But Checkmate has not provided any evidence that it has relief from the automatic stay and consent of the Chapter 7 Trustee in the RS and Fower bankruptcy cases for such turnover (Case Nos. 8:18-bk-10585-TA and 8:18-bk-10583-TA). The tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 6/19/18 for Checkmate to file a declaration attaching evidence sufficient to establish those things, and lodge a revised proposed order to approve the stipulation.

(2) Deadlines: This adversary proceeding has been pending since 3/6/18. It is premature to set a discovery cutoff and other deadlines at this time. Continue to 7/17/18 at 2:00 p.m., brief joint status report due 7/3/18.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." If appearances are required, and you fail to appear without adequately resolving this matter by consent, then you may waive your right to be heard on matters that are appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

Tentative Ruling for 5/8/18:

The tentative ruling is to continue all pending matters in this adversary proceeding to 6/12/18 at 2:00 p.m. for the reason stated below, with a brief joint status report due 5/29/18, and with a deadline of 5/7/18 for the plaintiff to file and serve a notice of continuances attaching and incorporating by reference the deadlines in this tentative ruling (assuming that this Court is not persuaded to depart from this tentative ruling). Appearances are not required on 5/8/18.

(1) Current Issues. This Court has reviewed the parties' status reports (adv. dkt. 24 & 26) and the other filed documents and records in this adversary proceeding.

(a) Motion for TRO & Claim and Delivery (adv. dkt. 10). At the 4/9/18 hearing on this motion, counsel for plaintiff/debtor Checkmate King Co., Ltd. ("Checkmate") apprised this Court of the bankruptcy filings of defendants Radiology Solutions Corp. ("RS") and George Fower ("Fower") (Case Nos. 8:18-bk-10585-TA and 8:18-bk-10583-TA) and requested a continuance of this hearing to allow time to obtain orders granting relief from stay with annulment. In the Joint status report (adv. dkt. 24), Checkmate states that the hearings on the relief from stay motions are scheduled for 5/15/18. Accordingly, the tentative ruling is to continue this motion to the date and time set forth at the start of this tentative ruling.

(b) Siemens Motion to Dismiss (adv. dkt. 27, the "MTD"). Defendant Siemens Medical Solutions USA, Inc. ("Siemens") has properly self-calendared its MTD for 6/12/18 at 11:00 a.m. Siemens anticipates that it may be voluntarily dismissed by plaintiff (see adv. dkt. 24), but if that does not occur then this Court anticipates that the MTD may take 15 minutes or more to hear. This Court's practice is that matters anticipated to take 15 minutes or more are heard on the 2:00 p.m. calendar (not available for self-calendaring, except by permission of this Court). Therefore the tentative ruling is to re-calendar the MTD from 11:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m., which is concurrent with the other matters in this adversary proceeding that are on today's calendar.

(2) Deadlines: This adversary proceeding has been pending since 3/6/18. It is premature to set a discovery cutoff and other deadlines at this time.

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for 7/16/18:

Appearances required. The tentative rulings are set forth below. In addition, the tentative ruling is to set a continued status conference on 7/27/18 at 9:00 a.m., or such alternative time as may be ordered at the hearing.

(1) Current issues.

(a) 9019 Motion (see Term Sheet, dkt. 445). This Court will address the objections filed by Mr. Casanova (dkt. 465, 466) and The Presbytery of the Pacific (the "Presbytery") (dkt. 467) and the replies filed by the debtor (dkt. 472) and by the Archbishop/Institute and the Bird Nest (dkt. 474). Among other things, this Court will address whether the Term Sheet can be approved without the further documentation that is contemplated by the settling parties. In that regard, the parties should address the proposed amendment to paragraph 6 of the Term Sheet. See dkt. 474, Ex.C.

This Court expresses no present opinion on those issues. This Court is intentionally withholding any further tentative ruling on those matters so as not to disrupt potential settlement discussions among those parties, but if the parties have not agreed to the proposed amendment to paragraph 6 (or some other resolution) then this Court intends to provide a tentative ruling at the commencement of the hearing.

The parties are encouraged to meet and confer about the foregoing issues. If, at the end of the hearing, there are issues that remain to be addressed, then the parties should be prepared to address whether this Court should set a continued hearing on the date and time specified at the start of this tentative ruling or some other date.

(b) Stay relief motion (appellate litigation with Bird Nest and Archbishop/Institute) (dkt. 68). Continue to the date and time set forth at the start of this tentative ruling, if this motion is not mooted by the disposition of the settlement motion.

(c) Exclusivity motion (dkt. 308, 348, 422). Continue to the date and time set forth at the start of this tentative ruling, and meanwhile extend exclusivity for the same amount of time, on the same terms and conditions as this Court's Prior Order (dkt. 422) - i.e., no incurring of fees or expenses for plan-related work. This Court calculates that the extensions would be as follows: (i) The 120-day period specified in section 1121(c)(2) and (d)(1) (deadline for filing a plan) will be further extended from 8/15/18 (see dkt. 422) to and including 9/19/18, and (ii) the 180-day period specified in section 1121(c)(3) and (d)(1) (deadline for acceptance of plan by impaired classes) will be further extended from 10/15/18 (see dkt. 422) to and including 11/19/18.

(d) Cash Collateral motion (dkt. 5). Continue to the date and time set forth at the start of this tentative ruling, and meanwhile extend the interim authorized use of cash collateral through and including the conclusion of the continued hearing subject to the same terms and conditions as previously authorized by this Court (see dkt. 29, 79, 239, 244, 347, 413), if this motion is not mooted by the disposition of the settlement motion.

(e) Bridge Tavern, LLC asset sale motion (dkt. 112). Continue to the date and time set forth at the start of this tentative ruling.

(f) Villain's Tavern reopening motion (dkt. 214). Grant. Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

(g) Trustee appointment motion (dkt. 332). Continue to the date and time set forth at the start of this tentative ruling, if this motion is not mooted by the disposition of the settlement motion.

(h) Security Deposit refund motion (dkt. 350). Grant. Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

(i) Budget motion (dkt. 96). Extend the interim authorization through and including the date of the continued hearing and meanwhile approve the budget subject to the same terms and conditions as previously authorized by the Court (see dkt. 340), if this motion is not mooted by the disposition of the settlement motion.

(j) Claim objection (Bird Nest) (dkt. 292). Continue to the date and time set forth at the start of this tentative ruling, if this motion is not mooted by the disposition of the settlement motion.

(k) Claim objection (Institute) (dkt. 296). Continue to the date and time

(l) Claim objection (Archbishop) (dkt. 294). Continue to the date and time set forth at the start of this tentative ruling, if this motion is not mooted by the disposition of the settlement motion.

(m) Vehicle refinance motion (dkt. 216). Continue to the date and time set forth at the start of this tentative ruling, if this motion is not mooted by the disposition of the settlement motion.

(n) Vehicle relief from Stay motion (dkt. 349). The hearing on this motion has been vacated, and this matter is off calendar (see Adequate Protection Order, dkt. 444).

(o) Motion to Assume and Assign 1629 Griffith Lease (dkt. 351). Continue to the date and time set forth at the start of this tentative ruling.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 3/6/18.

(a) Bar date: 8/24/18 (dkt. 367, timely served on 6/19/18 per dkt. 383)

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: TBD.

(c) Continued status conference: Date and time set forth at the start of this tentative ruling. No written status report is required.

*Warning: special procedures apply (see order setting initial status conference).

Appearances required.

(1) Current issues.

(a) Urbanlime/Haro employment (dkt. 93, 253), Bridge Tavern (Villain's) Reopening Motion (dkt. 214, previously granted, dkt. 339, but rescheduled per dkt.369 para. 4.5), Sale Motion (dkt. 112, temporarily denied, dkt. 369, 385) and Lease Assignment Motion (dkt. 187, re-set for hearing, dkt. 388). The parties should be prepared to address the issues set forth in this Court's orders (dkt. 369, 378, 385, 388) setting this hearing.

(b) Motion to extend exclusivity (dkt. 308, 312, 333, 348). The tentative ruling is to preserve the status quo by:

(i) prohibiting the estate from incurring any fees or expenses relative to any contemplated plan between time this tentative ruling is posted and the conclusion of the hearing on the motion to appoint a trustee (dkt. 332, the "Trustee Motion"), currently scheduled for 7/10/18 at 2:00 p.m;

(ii) if the Trustee Motion is denied, then extending exclusivity through at least 8/14/18 (any further extension will be addressed at the hearing on 7/10/18 at 2:00 p.m.), so that Mr. Tilem will have the time he has stated he would need to draft a plan (approximately 30 days); and

(iii) if the Trustee motion is granted, then terminate exclusivity.

(c) Cash collateral motion (dkt. 5, 14, 15, 29, 74, 151, 152, 163, 164, 167, 168, 171, 172, 176, 185, 244). The tentative ruling is to continue this matter to 7/10/18 at 2:00 p.m., and meanwhile authorize the continued use of cash collateral through the conclusion of that continued hearing.

(d) Relief from stay motion (dkt. 68, 79, 141, 147, 154, 162, 222 section v., 270, 312). The tentative ruling is to continue this matter to 7/10/18 at 2:00 p.m.

(e) Expansion of Insul employment (dkt. 305). Please see calendar no. 2 (6/22/18 at 10:00 a.m.).

(f) Hearings on 7/10/18. Some matters in this case have been self-calendared for 7/10/18 at 1:00 p.m. The tentative ruling is that all matters set for 7/10/18 in this case will be heard at 2:00 p.m.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 3/6/18.

(a) Bar date: 8/24/18 (dkt. 367, timely served on 6/19/18 per dkt. 383)

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: TBD

(c) Continued status conference: 7/10/18 at 2:00 p.m., status report due 7/5/18 at noon.

*Warning: special procedures apply (see order setting initial status conference).

Appearances required but telephonic appearances are encouraged if advance arrangements are made (see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.", "Instructions/Procedures").

The only issue this Court intends to address is a continued hearing date in view of the last-minute papers that were filed, to fit the parties' and this Court's own needs.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." (1) Current issues.

(a) Cash flow and cash collateral motion (dkt. 5, 14, 15, 29). This Court's written order (dkt. 29) erroneously lists the continued hearing as 3/20/18 instead of 4/17/18 at 2:00 p.m., as orally ordered at the hearing on 3/9/18. Nevertheless, it is appropriate in connection with this Status Conference to address the debtor's current and projected cash flow and related issues.

This Court was not persuaded at the hearing on 3/9/18 that the debtor can generate positive cash flow. The debtor is directed to provide a brief update on any plans to generate positive cash flow from her various businesses and properties. It is also appropriate for other parties in interest to address whether there has been adequate disclosure to date regarding the finances of those businesses and properties. The debtor is cautioned that the declaration due on 3/27/18 must provide comprehensive disclosures regarding those businesses and properties: if the debtor cannot show reasonable prospects for positive cash flow within a reasonable time then this Court might have to grant relief from the automatic stay (upon a proper motion), or convert or dismiss this bankruptcy case, at least if the debtor does not abandon unprofitable businesses or properties.

(b) Employment applications. The parties should be prepared to address the oppositions (dkt. 56, 57) and the direct and indirect source(s) of funds used by the debtor to pay prepetition retainers (see dkt. 48, and cf. dkt. 9, p.6, dkt. 18, p.8, dkt. 20, p.8 - blank spaces instead of disclosure), including when the liens against the 1902 property arose (dkt. 48, Ex.A). In addition, the parties should be prepared to address the following issues:

(i) Proposed bankruptcy counsel - Tilem (dkt. 9, 10): (i) Why were resumes for associates, paralegals, and persons who are "of counsel" to the firm not included? (ii) Has counsel waived or amended the provisions in the retainer agreement regarding the "evergreen" retainer; "overtime" rates, and any attorney's lien? (iii) As for proposed out-sourcing, counsel must address whether employment of such counsel could result in imputed or actual conflicts of interest from any work performed by such attorneys for their own clients or for other law firms.

(ii) Proposed special counsel: the Robins firm and Horvitz firm (dkt. 18, 19, 20, 21). The hourly rates of proposed counsel at the Robins firm and Horvitz firm are substantially greater than those for the debtor's proposed general bankruptcy counsel and the Snyder firm. How will the debtor - acting as a debtor in possession with the duties of a trustee for the benefit of creditors - assure that the potential benefits are not outweighed by the costs that can be reasonably anticipated in connection with the ongoing litigation with Birds Nest, the Archbishop, and the Institute (as those terms are defined in the parties' papers)?

(iii) Proposed special counsel: the Snyder firm (dkt. 36, 37). (i) What is the nature of the litigation in which that firm represents the debtor and co-plaintiff, Bridge Tavern, LLC against Odysseuss Investment Group, LLC? (ii) What are the potential costs/risks and benefits? (iii) Is there any actual or potential conflict of interest between the two plaintiffs (e.g., if any judgment in their favor were to be allocated between them in a way that is unfavorable to one or the other)? (iv) From the description at the status conference on 3/9/18 it seemed that the Snyder firm might be assisting the debtor now or in future in transactional matters - is that so?

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 3/6/18.

(a) Bar date: TBD

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: TBD

(c) Continued status conference: 4/17/18 at 2:00 p.m., status report due 4/3/18. (see order, dkt. 30).

*Warning: special procedures apply (see order setting initial status conference).

vs
DEBTOR

Docket 31

Tentative Ruling:

Grant as provided below. Appearances are not required.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

Termination. Terminate the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1).

Any co-debtor stay (11 U.S.C. 1301(c)) is also terminated, because it has not been shown to have any basis to exist independent of the stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(a). To the extent, if any, that the motion seeks to terminate the automatic stay in other past or pending bankruptcy cases, such relief is denied on the present record. See In re Ervin (Case No. 14-bk-18204-NB, docket no. 311).

Effective date of relief. Deny the request to waive the 14-day stay provided by FRBP 4001(a)(3) for lack of sufficient cause shown.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." If appearances are required, and you fail to appear without adequately resolving this matter by consent, then you may waive your right to be heard on matters that are appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

As to the requested relief that will remain effective notwithstanding any future bankruptcy case, continue the motion to the date and time set forth at the start of this tentative ruling, for service on the persons who executed the documents through which the movant asserts its interest in the property (sometimes referred to in the mortgage context as the "original borrower").
Reasons: See LBR 4001-1(c)(1)(B). In addition, Judge Bason has due process concerns about granting such relief without service on the person(s) whose interests may be most directly affected. See generally Mullane v. Central Hanover Bank & Trust Co., 339 U.S. 306 (1950) (due process generally). In this matter, such persons appear to include: Sua Tuimalealiifano (and Karoline Tuimalealiifano, the debtor).

Option for shortened time: This court has selected a continued hearing date that contemplates shortened notice (per Rule 9006) but that date is conditioned on the movant serving all papers on the day after the current hearing date. Alternatively, the movant may self-calendar a continued hearing on regular notice.

Option for interim/partial order: Movant may elect to lodge a proposed order granting the partial relief provided in this tentative ruling, but any such order must recite that a continued hearing has been set to consider additional relief (or, alternatively, that the movant no longer seeks additional relief and the Clerk's office is requested and directed to take the continued hearing off calendar).

Effective date of relief. Grant the request to waive the 14-day stay provided by FRBP 4001(a)(3).

Tentative Ruling:

Grant, subject to the following conditions. Appearances are not required.

After the hearing date this court will prepare an order and the tentative ruling is to include the following language in that order:

The stay of 11 U.S.C. 362(a) applies subject to the following modifications and conditions:

(1) Service and reconsideration. Any party in interest who was not timely served in accordance with FRBP 7004 (incorporated by FRBP 9014(b)) is hereby granted through 14 days after proper service to seek reconsideration, including retroactive relief (under FRBP 9023 and/or 9024). Any such person (a) may set a hearing on 14 days' notice, (b) may appear by telephone (if arrangements are made per Judge Bason's posted procedures), and (c) may present all arguments orally at the hearing (i.e., no written argument is required). If written arguments appear necessary then this court will set a briefing schedule at the hearing.

(2) Reasons. (a) It appears appropriate to impose the automatic stay, and to impose it as to all persons rather than just as to selected persons, because one purpose of the automatic stay is to preventing a "race to collect" that could unfairly advantage some creditors at the expense of others. (b) To prevent possible abuse, this court provides the foregoing simple process for reconsideration.

Docket 11

Tentative Ruling:

Grant, subject to the following conditions. Appearances are not required.

After the hearing date this court will prepare an order and the tentative ruling is to include the following language in that order:

The stay of 11 U.S.C. 362(a) applies subject to the following modifications and conditions:

(1) Service and reconsideration. Any party in interest who was not timely served in accordance with FRBP 7004 (incorporated by FRBP 9014(b)) is hereby granted through 14 days after proper service to seek reconsideration, including retroactive relief (under FRBP 9023 and/or 9024). Any such person (a) may set a hearing on 14 days' notice, (b) may appear by telephone (if arrangements are made per Judge Bason's posted procedures), and (c) may present all arguments orally at the hearing (i.e., no written argument is required). If written arguments appear necessary then this court will set a briefing schedule at the hearing.

(2) Reasons. (a) It appears appropriate to impose the automatic stay, and to impose it as to all persons rather than just as to selected persons, because one purpose of the automatic stay is to preventing a "race to collect" that could unfairly advantage some creditors at the expense of others. (b) To prevent possible abuse, this court provides the foregoing simple process for reconsideration.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." Docket 97

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for 7/17/18:

Grant the motion as set forth in the tentative ruling for 6/12/18 (reproduced below). Appearances are not required.

Reasons: At hearing on 6/12/18, this Court continued the matter for the movant to attempt to negotiate the terms of a stay-current adequate protection order. Meanwhile, on 5/5/29/18, debtors' attorney filed his declaration (dkt. 106) stating that the debtors do not oppose the motion (although the declaration is not linked to the motion) and also stating that the debtors have no interest in the property located at "182151 Monje Street, Rosamond, CA 93560." (Emphasis added.) That address appears to be a typographical error for the property that is the subject of the motion, which lists the address as "2151 Monje Street, Rosamond, CA 93560" (the "Motion Address"). Dkt. 97 at p. 3. See also id., Ex.4, at PDF pp. 40-41 (stating that the debtor Mr. Stansbury has quitclaimed property at the Motion Address to his ex-wife per a 2005 divorce decree).

Grant as provided below. Appearances are not required.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

Termination. Terminate the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1).

Any co-debtor stay (11 U.S.C. 1301(c)) is also terminated, because it has not been shown to have any basis to exist independent of the stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(a). To the extent, if any, that the motion seeks to terminate the automatic stay in other past or pending bankruptcy cases, such relief is denied on the present record. See In re Ervin (Case No. 14-bk-18204-NB, docket no. 311).

Effective date of relief. Grant the request to waive the 14-day stay provided by FRBP 4001(a)(3).

Continue to 9/4/18 at 10:00 a.m. Appearances are not required on 7/17/18.

There is no tentative ruling, but the parties should be prepared to address (a) whether the alleged arrears have been brought current and/or (b) whether they will agree to the terms of an adequate protection order (see the debtor's late-filed response, dkt. 192).

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for 7/17/18:

Grant request for future in rem relief as provided below, subject to any opposition at the hearing. Appearances required.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this court's final ruling. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

Key documents reviewed (in addition to motion papers): Movant's notice of intent to proceed with motion for relief from the automatic stay notwithstanding dismissal (dkt. 12); Movant's notice of continuance of motion and supplemental declaration (dkt. 13).

On 7/10/18, this Court granted interim relief, but continued the matter to this date with respect to Movant's request for future in rem relief and set a 7/11/18 deadline for Movant to serve the papers via overnight mail on the tenant(s) under the lease and via U.S. mail for other persons already served with the motion. On 7/12/18, Movant filed a proof of service reflecting service of the motion on (i) Michael Kim; (ii) Michael Hwang; (iii) Young Hwang; and (iv) Hyun Hwang via U.S. mail (dkt. 13).

Movant did not comply with this Court ruling requiring service on the tenant(s) via overnight mail. Nevertheless, it appears appropriate to excuse such non-compliance for the following reasons. First, Movant's method of service still provides advanced notice of this continued hearing to the tenant(s) (i.e. served 7/11/18 + 3 days for service by mail = received by 7/16/18 for 7/17/18 hearing). Second, there is a strong showing of cause to grant future in rem relief in this case and a systemic interest in preserving the integrity of the bankruptcy process.

Movant is cautioned that failure to abide by this Court's orders in future may result in adverse consequences.

Relief notwithstanding future bankruptcy cases.

For the reason stated above, the tentative ruling is to grant future in rem relief pursuant to the legal analysis in In re Vazquez, 580 B.R. 526 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2017) and/or In re Choong (case no. 2:14-bk-28378-NB, docket no. 31), as applicable:

If this order is duly recorded in compliance with applicable State laws governing notices of interests or liens in the property at issue, then no automatic stay shall apply to such property in any bankruptcy case purporting to affect such property and filed within two years after the date of entry of this order, unless otherwise ordered by the court presiding over that bankruptcy case.

For the avoidance of doubt, any acts by the movant to obtain exclusive possession of such property shall not be stayed. Any additional request for relief applicable to future bankruptcy cases is denied (e.g., any request to grant relief against third parties without any notice is denied) due to lack of sufficient factual or legal grounds presented in support of such relief.

Any co-debtor stay (11 U.S.C. 1301(c)) is also terminated, because it has not been shown to have any basis to exist independent of the stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(a). To the extent, if any, that the motion seeks to terminate the automatic stay in other past or pending bankruptcy cases, such relief is denied on the present record. See In re Ervin (Case No. 14-bk-18204-NB, docket no. 311).

Docket 16

Tentative Ruling:

Grant as provided below, subject to (1) an explanation why the motion papers were not originally served via expedited means (see OST, dkt. 19, p.3, para."(7)"), and (2) any opposition at the hearing (see OST, dkt. 19, p.2, para. "(5)"). Appearances required.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this court's final ruling. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

Key documents reviewed (in addition to motion papers): Application for order shortening time (dkt. 17, 18) and evidence of service (dkt. 21, at PDF pp. 64-65).

The automatic stay does not apply. Grant the motion under 11 U.S.C. 362(c) (3) and (j): there is no automatic stay because (a) the debtor's prior case (# 2:18-bk-11518-ER) was dismissed (on 3/29/18) within one year before this case was filed (on 6/18/18), (b) that dismissal was not under 11 U.S.C. 707 (b), and (c) no finding of good faith was timely sought and obtained. The automatic stay has terminated both as to the debtor in personam and as to property of the debtor. See In re Hernandez & Jiminez, Case No. 2:11-bk-53730-NB, Dkt 40.

In the alternative and in addition, this court grants relief from the automatic stay as follows. (The following matters are not moot, nor are they advisory opinions, because (i) dismissals are not infrequently vacated and (ii) "in rem" relief is relevant notwithstanding dismissal of a bankruptcy case.)

Appearances required. The court has reviewed the parties' joint status report (adv. dkt. 7) and the other filed documents and records in this adversary proceeding. The following are Judge Bason's standard requirements for status conferences. (To the extent that the parties have already addressed these issues in their status report, they need not repeat their positions at the status conference.)

(1) Venue/jurisdiction/authority.

The parties are directed to address any outstanding matters of (a) venue, (b) jurisdiction, (c) this court's authority to enter final orders or judgment(s) in this proceeding and, if consent is required, whether the parties do consent, or have already expressly or impliedly consented. See *generally Stern v. nondischargeability encompasses authority to liquidate debt and enter final judgment). See generally In re AWTR Liquidation, Inc., 548 B.R. 300 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2016).

(2) Mediation. Is there is any reason why this court should not order the parties to mediation before one of the volunteer mediators (not a Bankruptcy Judge), and meanwhile set the deadlines set forth below? The tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 7/31/18 for the parties to lodge a proposed mediation order (the parties are directed to use the time between now and that deadline to find a mutually agreeable mediator whose schedule can accommodate the needs of this matter; and if the parties cannot even agree on a mediator they may lodge separate orders and Judge Bason will chose among them, or issue his own order).

(3) Deadlines: This adversary proceeding has been pending since 5/16/18. Pursuant to LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B), plaintiff is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the status conference, attaching a copy of this tentative ruling or otherwise memorializing the following.

Tentative Ruling for 6/19/18:

Appearances required. This Court has reviewed the parties' joint status report (adv. dkt. 30) and the other filed documents and records in this adversary proceeding, as well as relevant documents in the bankruptcy case.

(A) Background. Plaintiff, the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department ("Sheriff") has filed its complaint in interpleader against the debtor, her Chapter 13 Trustee ("Trustee"), and Cardlock Fuels Systems, Inc. ("Cardlock"). Sheriff levied on funds held in the debtor's bank account at Wells Fargo Bank, NA and received about $32,775.00 (the "Levied Funds") but the debtor and Cardlock dispute who should receive the funds.

Cardlock asserts that it owns the funds; but the debtor asserts that Cardlock has only a secured claim to the funds and that those funds should be returned to the debtor and Cardlock will continue being paid over time (without interest). Cardlock is listed as a secured creditor in the amount of $43,066.84 in the debtor's chapter 13 plan (case dkt. 2, p.5), which this Court previously confirmed (case dkt. 19), and in any event the debtor's plan promises to pay unsecured creditors 100% of their claims (without interest). Cardlock's proof of claim (Claim No. 3-1) asserts that it is owed $45,544.66 as of the petition date, based on a judgment for goods sold, which it asserts is secured by a judgment lien. In other words, the debtor proposes to pay Cardlock over 5 years, without interest (regardless whether Cardlock's claim is treated as secured or unsecured under the plan), and Cardlock seeks immediate payment of approximately 3/4 of the total debt using the Levied Funds.

Sheriff apparently has no reason to care about any of this. Sheriff only seeks a judgment that, among other things, would permit the deposit of the Levied Funds with this Court while restraining all of the defendants from involving Sheriff any further.

Before Sheriff filed the complaint, the debtor attempted to obtain turnover of the funds by filing a motion for turnover (case dkt. 31). This Court issued an order (dkt. 34, the "Non-Turnover Order") denying that motion for the following reasons (copied from that order):

(1) Facts

Neither party provides any copy of any levying documents, or any declarations to support their allegations. Nevertheless, the following facts appear to be undisputed.

Prepetition, on February 21, 2017, at the request of judgment creditor Cardlock, The Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department ("Sheriff") served a Writ of Execution and notice of levy on Wells Fargo Bank, NA ("Bank") where the debtor held a bank account. On February 28, 2017 the debtor filed her bankruptcy petition. Postpetition, on March 2, 2017, Bank delivered to Sheriff $32,775 (the "Funds"). See dkt. 31, p.3:1-12 and dkt. 33, pp.1:25-2:8.

(2) Legal authority

Neither party cites any authority for their principal arguments.

The authorities they do cite appear to be mostly the wrong statutes and irrelevant decisions.

The debtor asserts that the Funds are property of the estate under the general principles of 11 U.S.C. 541, without any citation to California law defining when ownership of funds is transferred away from the depositor/debtor. See In re Hernandez, 483 B.R. 713, 720 (9th Cir. BAP 2012) ("Whether a debtor's interest constitutes 'property of the estate' is a federal question to be decided by federal law [but] the nature and extent of the debtor's interest in property must be determined by nonbankruptcy law." ) (citations and internal quotation marks omitted, emphasis added).

The debtor next argues that Cardlock and Sheriff should be ordered to return the Funds to the debtor "under 11 U.S.C. [section] 105" (dkt. 31, p.4:6), which is the general authorization for the Bankruptcy Court to issue any order or judgment that is "necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of this title." The debtor ignores 11 U.S.C. 542 and 543, which are the specific statutory provisions governing turnover to the estate of property of the estate.

Cardlock argues, also without citation, that when the Funds "were levied" they "ceased being the Debtor's property" - Cardlock does not specify whether the time when the Funds "were levied" means when the writ and notice were served on Bank (prepetition), or when the Funds were delivered by Bank to Sheriff (postpetition). Dkt. 33, p.2:24-25. Cardlock may mean the latter because in the next sentence it states that when the Funds "were delivered from [Bank] to [Sheriff], title to the property was vested in creditor [Cardlock]" (dkt. 33, pp.2:25-3:4) based on a decision from the Seventh Circuit involving escrowed funds. See Fed. Deposit Ins. Corp. v. Knostman, 966 F.2d 1133, 1142 (7th Cir. 1992). Cardlock does not cite any California law or any decision applying California law, nor any decision involving a levy by a sheriff (as opposed to escrowed funds).

This court declines to perform the parties' research for them. Nevertheless, this court must determine based on general principles and who has what burden whether to grant or deny the debtor's motion. Accordingly, this court has performed some brief research on the following issues.

(a) The debtor had an interest in the Funds as of the petition date

Although this court's brief research suggests that California law is not entirely clear, it appears that when a bank has not yet turned over funds to the sheriff prepetition, the levying creditor only has a lien not an ownership interest in the funds. See Hernandez, 483 B.R. 713, 721 (under Cal. Code Civ. P. 700.140(a)&(e), creditor obtains execution lien on amounts in deposit account at time of service on financial institution, and that lien terminates when the funds are paid to the levying officer, which implies that the debtor's interest is transferred at the latter time). (The statute was amended after Hernandez was decided, including designating paragraph "(e)" as paragraph "(f)," but the amendments do not appear to be material.)

(b) Any postpetition termination of the debtor's interest in the Funds is void

Assuming that Cardlock is correct that the transfer from Bank to Sheriff terminates the debtor's interest in the Funds under California law, Cardlock has not suggested any reason why that transfer would not have violated the automatic stay of 11 U.S.C. 362(a). Therefore any such transfer apparently is void ab initio. See, e.g., In re Gruntz, 202 F.3d 1074 (9th Cir. 2000), and In re Schwartz, 954 F.2d 569 (9th Cir. 1992). (The debtor asserts, dkt. 31, p.3, n.1, that because the transfer from Bank to Sheriff occurred postpetition "the Debtor most likely has grounds to avoid the transfer of the Funds pursuant to 11 U.S.C. 549." This court expresses no opinion on that issue.)

(c) The debtor has neither sought, nor established a basis for, turnover

The debtor cannot use 11 U.S.C. 105 to evade or enlarge the specific statutory provisions that govern turnover: 11 U.S.C. 542 and 543. So one of those latter statutes governs - this court does not decide which one (i.e., whether Bank and/or Sheriff qualify as a "custodian" under 11 U.S.C. 101(11) and 543), because for present purposes the issues are the same under each section.

This court also assumes without deciding that the debtor would have standing to seek turnover under 11 U.S.C. 542 or 543 (or, for that matter, standing to seek avoidance under 11 U.S.C. 544-549 and recovery under 550, although as Cardlock points out any such avoidance actions presumably would require an adversary proceeding under Rule 7001, Fed. R. Bankr. P.). Compare In re Cohen, 305 B.R. 886, 891-900 (9th Cir. BAP 2004) (chapter 13 debtor has standing to bring avoidance actions).

So far so good for the debtor's position. But it is not enough for the debtor to show that someone is in possession of property in which the bankruptcy estate has an interest. The debtor also must establish that any persons holding an interest in that property, such as Cardlock, will have their interests adequately protected. See 11 U.S.C. 363(e) (court "shall" provide adequate protection of person's interest in property proposed to be used, upon request); 11 U.S.C. 542(a) (turnover only applies to property that trustee may "use, sell, or lease" or that debtor may exempt, i.e., which is subject to section 363(e)); 11 U.S.C. 543(c)(1) (court shall "protect all entities" to which custodian of property has become obligated).

The debtor has not shown that simply turning over the Funds to the debtor would adequately protect Cardlock, or for that matter that such turnover would be an appropriate use of property of the estate. In sum, the debtor has neither requested relief under the applicable statutory provisions, nor established a basis for such relief.

This court expresses no opinion regarding the remaining arguments raised by Cardlock - e.g., that the debtor lacks "clean hands," or that this case should be converted to chapter 7. It is unnecessary to reach the former issue, and the latter has not been properly presented (in the form of a motion to convert).

(B) Current motions. Returning to Sheriff's interpleader complaint, the following motions are on calendar today.

(1) Motion for default judgment against Trustee (adv. dkt. 19). The Clerk of this Court has entered a default against Trustee; Trustee has not responded to Sheriff's motion for a default judgment against her; and the tentative ruling is to grant that motion and enter a judgment substantially in the form attached as Exhibit B to Sheriff's motion. If that tentative ruling is adopted, Sheriff is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this court's final ruling. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

(2) Sheriff's motion for a default judgment against Cardlock (adv. dkt. 17), and Cardlock's opposition (adv. dkt. 28) and motion to set aside entry of the Clerk's default and/or any default judgment (adv. dkt. 27). The tentative ruling is to set aside the Clerk's default against Cardlock, for the reasons stated in its motion. That moots Sheriff's motion for a default judgment. If that tentative ruling is adopted, Cardlock is directed to lodge proposed orders on both motions via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this court's final ruling. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

(C) Status conference in this adversary proceeding.

(1) Deposit funds in registry. The parties are directed to address why there is any reason not to grant a judgment or order authorizing and directing deposit of the Levied Funds into the registry of this Court, while restraining all of the defendants from involving Sheriff any further (in language substantially in the form proposed for the judgment against Trustee), and reserving any other issues (such as any claim by Sheriff for attorney fees). Although there is no pending motion for such a judgment or order, the tentative ruling is that if all non-defaulting parties agree to such relief then it would be appropriate to grant such relief. Among other things, that might reduce the Sheriff's ongoing attorney fees, to the benefit of all parties.

The tentative ruling is that if all parties agree to the foregoing then this Court should treat that as an oral motion for entry of Local Form F7067-1.1.ORDER.REGISTRY.FUND entitled "Order on Motion: (A) To Deposit Funds Into the Court's Registry, or (B) To Disburse Funds Out of The Court's Registry." If this tentative ruling is adopted, Sheriff is directed to lodge that proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this court's final ruling. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

(2) Who is entitled to the Levied Funds. The debtor, Cardlock and Sheriff are directed to address the following issues.

(a) If debtor seeks recovery under 11 U.S.C. 522(h). The debtor potentially could seek to recover property that the debtor could exempt, pursuant to section 522(h). But as Cardlock points out, the debtor's bankruptcy Schedule C does not purport to exempt the Levied Funds (see case dkt. 1, at PDF p.17). The debtor has not amended those exemptions and perhaps cannot (e.g., it is not clear that the debtor could do so without giving up other exemptions that the debtor might not wish to give up).

(b) If debtor seeks recovery of the Levied Funds as representative of the estate. As pointed out in the Non-Turnover Order, there is some authority that even if there is no applicable exemption the debtor has standing to seek avoidance of the levy on behalf of the estate (e.g., under 11 U.S.C. 549). But that would require commencement of an adversary proceeding.

In addition, Cardlock has pointed out that the debtor did not disclose the existence of these funds in her bankruptcy schedules, and based on that fact Cardlock's proposed Answer (attached to its motion to avoid the Clerk's default) raises various defenses to turning over the funds to the debtor. In addition, if the debtor is not able to exempt the funds then those funds presumably would have to be used for the benefit of the estate and creditors, which probably means that any recovery of the Levied Funds would have to be followed by a distribution of the Levied Funds either (i) for truly necessary expenses (but the debtor has not suggested any such expenses) or else (ii) back to creditors - i.e., the money might essentially go in a circle, from Cardlock/Sheriff to this Court's registry, and then to the debtor for distribution to creditors, including Cardlock.

In sum, there appears to be a substantial risk that the expense and delay for both the debtor and Cardlock will far exceed any potential net benefit to anyone. Therefore the parties should be prepared to address why they cannot agree to some arrangement whereby some portion of the Levied Funds would be paid to Sheriff, to the extent, if any, that Sheriff has a claim for attorney fees or other costs or expenses under applicable law, and then the remainder would be divided between Cardlock and the debtor (either for re-distribution to other creditors, or for the debtor's truly necessary expenses).

None of this has been briefed, and this Court emphasizes that all of the foregoing is only one possible resolution. This Court's hope is that the foregoing may suggest a path toward consensual resolution.

(D) If the parties are unable to reach a consensual resolution. If some or all issues remain unresolved, the parties are directed to address the following issues.

(1) Venue/jurisdiction/authority. The parties are directed to address any outstanding matters of (a) venue, (b) jurisdiction, (c) this court's authority to enter final orders or judgment(s) in this proceeding and, if consent is required, whether the parties do consent, or have already expressly or impliedly consented. See generally Stern v. Marshall, 131 S.Ct. 2594, 2608 (2011) (if litigant "believed that the Bankruptcy Court lacked the authority to decide his claim...then he should have said so – and said so promptly."); Wellness Int'l Network, Ltd. v. Sharif, 135 S.Ct. 1932 (2015) (consent must be knowing and voluntary but need not be express); In re Bellingham Ins. Agency, Inc., 702 F.3d 553 (9th Cir. 2012) (implied consent), aff'd on other grounds, 134 S. Ct. 2165 (2014); In re Pringle, 495 B.R. 447 (9th Cir. BAP 2013) (rebuttable presumption that failure to challenge authority to issue final order is intentional and indicates consent); In re Deitz, 760 F.3d 1028 (9th Cir. 2014) (authority to adjudicate nondischargeability encompasses authority to liquidate debt and enter final judgment). See generally In re AWTR Liquidation, Inc., 548 B.R. 300 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2016).

(2) Mediation. If the parties cannot reach a consensual resolution without the assistance of a mediator, is there any reason why this Court should not order mandatory mediation? Again, this Court's concern is that the expenses to all parties of litigation far exceed the net benefit any party is likely to gain.

(3) Deadlines: This adversary proceeding has been pending since 2/28/17. Even if the parties do not reach a consensual resolution, it appears that there will be very little left to determine in this adversary proceeding - perhaps only whether Sheriff is entitled to attorney fees. The parties are directed to address what issues remain, and whether discovery is needed on those issues or if, instead, they can be resolved through a motion for summary judgment or similar mechanism. Because that seems likely, the tentative ruling is not to set any discovery cutoff or other deadlines at this

Revised Tentative Ruling for 5/22/18:

Continue to 6/19/18 at 11:00 a.m. to be concurrent with the hearing on the motion of Cardlock Fuels System, Inc. ("Cardlock") to set aside the Clerk's entry of default against it. Appearances are not required on 5/22/18.

Analysis. It appears that the funds levied by the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department ("Sheriff") might properly belong to the debtor, or to Cardlock (if it can obtain relief from default), or to the bankruptcy estate (given the debtor's alleged nondisclosure in her bankruptcy papers of her claim to the funds at issue). See adv. dkt. 27, Ex.A, at pp.3:11-4:14 (Cardlock's affirmative defenses, asserting that either it or the debtor's bankruptcy estate owns the funds, not the debtor). Until it is determined whether or not the Clerk's default against Cardlock will be vacated, it is premature to address the motion for a default judgment against Cardlock. In addition, given the potential interests of the bankruptcy estate in the funds, and the possible lack of anyone to represent the estate if a default judgment were to be entered against Cardlock, it is premature to enter a default judgment against the other possible representative of the estate - the Chapter 13 Trustee.

(1) Mediation. The parties' latest status report requests mediation. See adv. dkt. 35, p.3, section E.3. This request is puzzling.

At the 2/27/18 status conference, this Court set a deadline of 3/13/18 for the parties to lodge a proposed mediation order, which was later memorialized in a written order (adv. dkt. 33, 1st ordering paragraph adopting attached tentative ruling for 2/27/18, para. "(2)"). No such proposed mediation order was ever lodged with this Court. This is not the first time that the have ignored this Court's order regarding mediation (see tentative ruling for 2/27/18, para. "(1)," reproduced below).

The tentative ruling is to sanction both counsel $200 for repeatedly disregarding this Court's orders regarding mediation, and to set yet another deadline - 5/15/18 - for the parties to lodge a mediation order. The parties are cautioned that continued disregard of this Court's orders will result in more serious sanctions and/or other consequences.

(2) Deadlines: This adversary proceeding has been pending since 4/7/17. This Court previously has set deadlines (adv. dkt. 29, exhibit, adopting tentative ruling for 1/30/18, para. "(2)": e.g., a discovery cutoff of 5/1/18. The parties appear to have ignored those deadlines.

Their latest status report states (adv. dkt. 35, p.2, section B.3.) that they both expect to complete discovery by "July, 2018," i.e., after the discovery 5/1/18 cutoff. The parties' discovery schedule also appears to be incompatible with this Court's order regarding the 6/26/18 deadline for dispositive motions to be heard. See adv. dkt. 29.

Neither party has requested an extension of the deadlines previously ordered by this Court (either formally, by motion, or even informally in the status report). In setting deadlines this Court has attempted to apply a careful analysis of the parties' legal theories and factual allegations, the parties' status reports, this Court's available hearing dates, how much time might be needed for mediation, and other matters. Disregarding this Court's orders requires additional work by this Court to re-determine deadlines and/or address the consequences of missed deadlines.

The tentative ruling is to sanction both counsel $100 for ignoring this Court's previously ordered deadlines (with a caution, again, that continued disregard of this Court's orders may lead to greater adverse consequences). The tentative ruling is also to set a deadline of 5/15/18 for the parties to lodge a proposed agreed order setting realistic, binding new deadlines. Finally, the tentative ruling is to set a continued status conference for 5/22/18 at 11:00 a.m., the sole anticipated purpose of which will be to address whether the parties have complied with this Court's latest directions (set forth above) and, if not, to address what sanctions to impose. The parties are directed not to file any status report in advance of that status conference.

Continue to 5/8/18 at 11:00 a.m. with a brief status report due 4/24/18.

Appearances are not required on 2/27/18.

(1) Background. This adversary proceeding has been pending since 4/7/17, and is being jointly administered with Adv. No. 2:17-ap-01551 - all papers are to be filed in this adversary proceeding (adv. dkt. 26). The discovery cutoff and some other deadlines have been set, but no trial date or pretrial conference date has yet been set (adv. dkt. 29). Matters of venue, jurisdiction, and authority have been determined and/or waived or forfeited (adv. dkt. 29). This Court previously ordered mediation (adv. dkt. 17) but at the status conference on 12/19/17 the parties reported that they had failed to comply with that order and the parties' latest status report (adv. dkt. 31) requests that they ordered to mediation again.

(2) Mediation. The tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 3/13/18 for the parties to lodge a proposed mediation order (the parties are directed to use the time between now and that deadline to find a mutually agreeable mediator whose schedule can accommodate the needs of this matter; and if the parties cannot even agree on a mediator they may lodge separate orders and Judge Bason will chose among them, or issue his own order).

Tentative Ruling for 6/13/17:

Appearances required. The court has reviewed the parties' joint status report (dkt. 12) and the other filed documents and records in this adversary proceeding.

(1) Venue/jurisdiction/authority.

The parties are directed to address any outstanding matters of (a) venue, (b) jurisdiction, (c) this court's authority to enter final orders or judgment(s) in this proceeding and, if consent is required, whether the parties do consent, or have already expressly or impliedly consented. See *generally Stern v. Revised Tentative Ruling for 3/20/18:

Appearances required.

(1) Motion for summary judgment (adv. dkt. 14-18, the "MSJ"); opposition papers (adv. dkt. 22-25); and reply papers (adv. dkt. 26-27). The tentative ruling is to deny in part and grant in part the MSJ, as set forth below.

(a) Legal standards. The legal standards governing motions for summary judgment are well known, do not appear to be disputed by the parties, and need not be repeated in this tentative ruling.

(b) First claim for relief (fraudulent transfer). Although the complaint (adv. dkt.1) asserts fraudulent transfer claims under both California law and the Bankruptcy Code, the MSJ limits this to 11 U.S.C. 548. The MSJ also asserts only constructive, not actual, fraud. See adv. dkt. 14, pp.2:21-3:1.

The complaint alleges less than reasonably equivalent value (11 U.S.C. 548(a)(1)(B)(i)) - namely, transfers by the debtors/defendants for no value from the debtors and/or their revocable trusts (the assets of which apparently could be reached by creditors) to irrevocable trusts. But to establish the elements of a constructively fraudulent transfer the plaintiff must also establish one of three types of insolvency (commonly referred to as "balance sheet," "inadequate capital," or "cash flow" insolvency) or else a transfer to an insider under an "employment contract." See 11 U.S.C. 548(a)(1)(B)(ii)(I)-(IV). There is no allegation about any employment contract, so the plaintiff must establish some type of insolvency.

The MSJ refers to balance sheet insolvency (11 U.S.C. 101(32A)). But the complaint never alleges that type of insolvency, so the plaintiff cannot be granted partial summary judgment as to that element (11 U.S.C. 548(a)(1)(B)(ii)(I)).

The complaint alleges inadequate capital and inadequate cash flow (in language that roughly parallels 11 U.S.C. 548(a)(1)(B)(ii)(II)&(III)). But the MSJ extrapolates that those types of insolvency could be presumed based on the bankruptcy schedules many months after the transfer, and from the sheer number of lawsuits and eventual judgments against the defendants and other circumstantial evidence. Those things might (or might not) be persuasive at trial, but they are insufficient to establish a lack of genuine issue of fact.

(c) Second claim for relief (declaratory relief related to nature of the trusts). The complaint (adv. dkt. 1, para. 23) seeks a declaratory judgment (i) that the debtors/defendants are "beneficiaries" of the trusts within the meaning of California Probate Code 15304, (ii) that the benefits the debtors/defendants receive from the trusts are "property of the estate" under 11 U.S.C. 541, and (iii) that the trusts qualify as "self-settled trusts" under California law, which the MSJ uses as shorthand for a trust the assets of which are reachable by creditors.

Various provisions of the Bankruptcy Code define what property is part of the bankruptcy estate:

The bankruptcy estate includes "all legal or equitable interests of the debtor in property as of the commencement of the case." 11 U.S.C. § 541(a)(1). It does not include, however, "any power that the debtor may exercise solely for the benefit of another," 11 U.S.C. § 541(b)(1), nor does it include "[p]roperty in which the debtor holds ... only legal title and not an equitable interest." 11 U.S.C. § 541(d). Similarly, the estate does not include property containing "[a] restriction on the transfer of a beneficial interest of the debtor in a trust that is enforceable under applicable nonbankruptcy law." 11 U.S.C. § 541(c)(2). [In re Cutter, 398 B.R. 6, 18-19 (9th Cir. BAP 2008).]

Under California law:

(a) If the settlor is a beneficiary of a trust created by the settlor and the settlor's interest is subject to a provision restraining the voluntary or involuntary transfer of the settlor's interest, the restraint is invalid against transferees or creditors of the settlor. The invalidity of the restraint on transfer does not affect the validity of the trust.

(b) If the settlor is the beneficiary of a trust created by the settlor and the trust instrument provides that the trustee shall pay income or principal or both for the education or support of the beneficiary or gives the trustee discretion to determine the amount of income or principal or both to be paid to or for the benefit of the settlor, a transferee or creditor of the settlor may reach the maximum amount that the trustee could pay to or for the benefit of the settlor under the trust instrument, not exceeding the amount of the settlor's proportionate contribution to the trust. [California Probate Code 15304]

The California Supreme Court has held that to the extent that the settlor of a trust is also a beneficiary, creditors can reach the property held by the trust:

It is against public policy to permit a man to tie up his property in such a way that he can enjoy it but prevent his creditors from reaching it, and where the settlor makes himself a beneficiary of a trust any restraints in the instrument on the involuntary alienation of his interest are invalid and ineffective. Since [the settlor] was the sole beneficiary, all the property in the trust is subject to the claims of his creditors. [Nelson v. Cal. Trust Co., 33 Cal.2d 501, 501-02 (1949) (emphasis added)]

These principles have been more recently reaffirmed in a decision of the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals:

[U]nder California law, a settlor of a spendthrift trust cannot also act as beneficiary of that trust (i.e., California law prohibits "self-settled" trusts). See Cal. Prob.Code § 15304(a) (West 1987). California law voids self-settled trusts to prevent individuals from placing their property beyond the reach of their creditors while at the same time still reaping the bounties of such property. See Nelson v. California Trust Co., 33 Cal.2d 501, 202 P.2d 1021, 1021 (Cal. 1949). [In re Moses, 167 F.3d 470, 473 (9th Cir. 1999)]

In addition, the MSJ cites authority that if beneficiaries exercise "excessive" control over a trust then under California law they cannot "shield that trust with an anti-alienation provision lacking true substance." In re Moses, 167 F.3d 470, 473 (9th Cir. 1999) (citation omitted) (emphasis added). See also In re Cutter, 398 B.R. 6, 22 (9th Cir. BAP 2008). MSJ (adv. dkt. 14, p.10:1-14).

The debtors argue that their situation is different from that in Cutter because "the Debtor in Cutter could potentially use all the Trust's principal and income to maintain his standard of living, without limitation" whereas "[t] here is no such provision" in the debtors' trusts. Dkt. 22, p.3:22-26 (italics added to case name). That distinction of Cutter (and the other authorities cited above) is unpersuasive.

The MSJ points to the following facts in support of its argument that (i) the debtors are also beneficiaries and (ii) the anti-alienation provisions of the trust lack "true substance." The debtor/defendants do not raise any genuine contrary issues of fact.

(i) The debtors deducted mortgage interest and real estate taxes on their 2015 tax returns. See dkt. 18, p.4:5-9 (and evidence cited therein).

(ii) During the "initial period" of the trusts (the earlier of the grantors' deaths or 16 years) the debtors can continue to live in the property rent-free. See Dkt. 18, p.4:10-15 (and evidence cited therein).

(iii) During that same period, any net income or excess cash is distributed to the debtors. See Dkt. 18, p.4:16-21 (and evidence cited therein).

(iv) The debtors can manage the property as "absolute owners." See Dkt. 18, p.4:22-28 (and evidence cited therein).

(v) The debtors can loan money to themselves and/or use the property to secure loans to themselves. See Dkt. 18, p.5:2-7 (and evidence cited therein).

(vi) During their lifetime, the debtors can make discretionary distributions to their children, and upon their deaths the trust assets are to be distributed to their children. See Dkt. 18, p.5:8-12 (and evidence cited therein).

Based on the foregoing, it appears that the debtors are indeed beneficiaries of the trusts to a large extent, and moreover the anti-alienation provisions of the trust lack "true substance" as that term has been used in the cited authorities. Accordingly, the tentative ruling is to grant the MSJ on the second claim for relief.

(2) Deadlines: This adversary proceeding has been pending since 9/26/17. The applicable deadlines are reflected in this court's orders (adv. dkt. 7, 20). The parties should be prepared to address whether there are any non-mooted matters left to resolve in this adversary proceeding, if this Court is not persuaded to depart from the foregoing tentative ruling on the MSJ.

(1) Venue/jurisdiction/authority.

The parties are directed to address any outstanding matters of (a) venue, (b) jurisdiction, (c) this court's authority to enter final orders or judgment(s) in this proceeding and, if consent is required, whether the parties do consent, or have already expressly or impliedly consented. See generally Stern v. Marshall, 131 S.Ct. 2594, 2608 (2011) (if litigant "believed that the Bankruptcy Court lacked the authority to decide his claim...then he should have said so – and said so promptly."); Wellness Int'l Network, Ltd. v. Sharif, 135 S.Ct. 1932 (2015) (consent must be knowing and voluntary but need not be express); In re Bellingham Ins. Agency, Inc., 702 F.3d 553 (9th Cir. 2012) (implied consent), aff'd on other grounds, 134 S. Ct. 2165 (2014); In re Pringle, 495 B.R. 447 (9th Cir. BAP 2013) (rebuttable presumption that failure to challenge authority to issue final order is intentional and indicates consent); In re Deitz, 760 F.3d 1028 (9th Cir. 2014) (authority to adjudicate nondischargeability encompasses authority to liquidate debt and enter final judgment). See generally In re AWTR Liquidation, Inc., 548 B.R. 300 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2016).

This court recognizes that, at least at this stage, the attorney who filed the answer (dkt. 4) for both trustees of the trust has also executed the Status Report (dkt. 5) on behalf of one of the defendant trustees (the debtor/defendant) asserting that neither of them can consent to this Bankruptcy Court entering a final judgment because third party beneficiaries of the trust allegedly have a right to have their rights litigated "outside of this venue." Counsel for the answering defendants should be prepared (a) to explain whether this is a Stern objection or something else and (b) whether both answering defendants or only one of them takes this position, and if the former, why he did not execute the status report on behalf of both of them.

Counsel for the plaintiff should be prepared to address whether the plaintiff contends that there are no additional parties who need to be joined, and why.

(2) Mediation. The plaintiff suggests in the Status Report (adv. dkt. 5) that mediation, if any, should not be ordered before dispositive motion(s) are heard, which the plaintiff anticipates will be by 3/1/18. The tentative ruling is to revisit the issue of mediation after that date.

(1) McDonnell claim: $20,000 principal. The principal dollar amount of the McDonnell claim (proof of claim no. 6) is reduced to $20,000, pursuant to Mr. McDonnell's concession that this is the correct amount of his (nondischargeable) claim. See dkt. 108, pp.2:21-3:2 and Judgment, dkt. 107, Ex.A.

(2) McDonnell claim: interest? The parties are directed to address whether interest should be included on that claim, and if so at the State or Federal judgment rate or some other rate, and whether this Court should set a deadline for Mr. McDonnell to file an amended proof of claim showing the calculation of such interest. (The Judgment does not address the interest issue, and although the Judgment references and approves a nondischargeability stipulation the parties have not provided a copy of that stipulation.)

(3) McDonnell service. Counsel for the debtor is directed to address at the hearing the assertion by Mr. McDonnell that he has never received service of documents that the debtor alleges he has served on Mr. McDonnell. See dkt. 105-3, at pp.1:27-2:2.

Revised Tentative Ruling for 7/17/18:

Grant in part and deny in part as follows. Appearances required.

(1) Overrule the debtor's opposition (dkt. 94). The debtor's objection to the Mackin Trust's standing suffers from two fundamental flaws. First, the debtor fails to address, let alone refute, the res judicata effect of his loss in his prior adversary proceeding against the Mackin Trust. See 102, 104, 105, 107, 108, 109, and see especially Judgment, dkt. 107, Ex.A. On this basis alone the debtor's objection appears to be frivolous.

Second, the Mackin Trust's motion includes prima facie evidence of the assignment of the promissory note and deed of trust to it. The debtor's speculation that perhaps Mr. McDonnell was not authorized to act for The Playforge, LLC is entirely unsupported: the debtor's opposition (dkt. 94, Ex.D) includes information about the registered agent for that entity, but no information about its officers, managing member(s), or other grounds to question Mr. McDonnell's authority to act for that entity.

As for the debtor's defense of an equity cushion, the debtor has provided no explanation or support for his arbitrary increase in his valuation of the property from what he asserted under oath in his bankruptcy schedules. To the contrary, his wild variation in valuation calls into question the alleged value stated in his bankruptcy schedules. That said, the Mackin Trust has not provided evidence of valuation beyond those same bankruptcy schedules and some material in its reply papers (dkt. 111), so on the present record this Court is not persuaded to find that the Mackin Trust has established a lack of

Nevertheless, the tentative ruling is that the debtor has shown bad faith and abuse of the bankruptcy system which is an alternative "cause" for some type of relief from the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1) and (d)(4). As set forth below the tentative ruling is to grant relief in the form of modifying but not terminating the stay.

Bad faith appears to be well established by the following facts. The debtor has engaged in a string of bankruptcy cases and adversary proceedings the primary purpose of which appears to have been to hinder, delay, and defraud the Mackin Trust and other creditors rather than engage in any viable reorganization of the debtor's finances. The debtor has failed to disclose the facts concerning the Hilltop Property which, among other things, persuaded this Court to convert this case to chapter 7. See dkt. 103 (IRS' summary of debtor's wrongdoing leading to conversion). Most recently, according to the Chapter 7 Trustee's unrefuted allegations, the debtor proposed to refinance the subject property but then engaged in woefully inadequate measures to do so, disregarding the lien of the Mackin Trust based on what appears to be frivolous arguments as noted above, all of which appear to have been nothing but a further tactic to hinder, delay, and defraud creditors. See dkt. 101 n.1 and accompanying text.

(2) Responses of the Chapter 7 Trustee (dkt. 101) and the IRS (dkt. 103), and the Movant's Reply (dkt. 110). The tentative ruling is that the Trustee and IRS are correct that the interests of other creditors - particularly unsecured creditors who do not have the protection that the Mackin Trust has - must take precedence over the Mackin Trust's very understandable desire for immediate termination of the automatic stay.

The tentative ruling is to grant modification of the automatic stay as follows. First, the Mackin Trust would be permitted to take steps preliminary to foreclosure, such as any notices relating to the ongoing increase in dollar amounts owed, without actually being able to foreclose for now, subject to being able to renew the motion, by noticing a new self-calendared hearing, to seek further modification or termination of the automatic stay if the Trustee does not proceed expeditiously toward the sale of the property. Second, the Mackin Trust would be able to record an order providing that no future bankruptcy case will affect this property, pursuant to 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(4) and the legal analysis in In re Vazquez, 580 B.R. 526 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2017), as follows:

If this order is duly recorded in compliance with applicable State laws governing notices of interests or liens in the property at issue, then no automatic stay shall apply to such property in any bankruptcy case purporting to affect such property and filed within two years after the date of entry of this order, unless otherwise ordered by the court presiding over that bankruptcy case.

#1.00 Status Conference re: Chapter 11 Case

Docket 9

Tentative Ruling:

Revised Tentative Ruling for 7/17/18:

Appearances required by counsel for the debtor and by the debtor(s) themselves.

(1) Current issues. This Court has reviewed the debtor's filed status report (dkt. 17) and the other filed documents in this case.

(a) Secured claims. Why does the debtor's bankruptcy Schedule D (dkt. 18 at PDF p.11) list $0 in secured claims (not even a disputed claim?) even though the status report (dkt. 17) states that the case was filed to stop foreclosure? How can creditor and this Court rely on the accuracy of the bankruptcy schedules in view of such inconsistency?

(b) Income. The debtor's bankruptcy Schedule I (dkt. 18 at PDF pp.19-20) lists a total of $100/mo. in income taxes, medicare and social security. It lists $0 for net income from operating a business (line 8a) despite listing multiple businesses with alleged income: "YB Design, Inc.," "Management of Rabenu Enterprises, LLC," "Babysitting services," and "Cosmetic Sales." It fails to comply with the instructions in line 8a to "Attach a statement for each ... business showing gross receipts, ordinary and necessary business expenses, and the total monthly net income." The debtor appears to be ignoring the requirements to provide disclosure as to his own income and expenses and, under this Court's order (dkt. 9, para.3), to provide equal disclosure with respect to his spouse and their businesses. How can creditors and this Court rely on the accuracy of the bankruptcy schedules and future compliance with orders of this Court in view of such non-compliance?

(c) Deadline for compliance. The tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 7/31/18 for the debtor to file amended bankruptcy schedules correcting not only the foregoing deficiencies that this Court has identified but also any other deficiencies that the debtor and his spouse and the debtor's counsel identify after carefully reviewing the documents that the debtor has filed. If in future this Court discovers other non-compliance with the debtor's obligations to

(1) Current issues.

(a) Budget Motion (dkt. 21). This Court has reviewed Debtor's Supplemental Declaration in Support of the Budget Motion (dkt. 34). Although that declaration addresses many of the concerns raised by this Court and by Strategic Acquisitions, Inc. (dkt. 23), the debtor has failed to provide historical monthly profit and loss statements from the period from 1/1/18 through 3/31/18 as required by this Court's order (dkt. 27, para. 5.a.). The parties should be prepared to address what remedy this Court should impose.

- (a) Bar date: 6/15/18 (timely served, dkt. 26, 32).
  - (b) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: In view of the debtor's declaration about her current and future projected income, the tentative ruling is to vacate the prior deadline to file these documents, and set a new deadline at a future status conference, with the caveat that if the debtor fails to show sufficient diligence in obtaining employment and/or if the estate suffers any substantial losses then this Court might have to dismiss or convert this case.
  - (c) Continued status conference: 6/12/18 at 1:00 p.m. No written status report is required.

Tentative Ruling for 4/10/18:

Appearances required by counsel for the debtor and by the debtor herself.

- (1) Current issues. This Court has reviewed the debtor's status report (dkt. 19), the response (dkt. 23) filed by creditor Strategic Acquisitions, Inc. ("Strategic"), and the other filed documents and records in this case.
- (a) Prior failed case. The debtor's husband's prior case (no. 17-bk-19071-NB) was a chapter 13 case that was dismissed on 10/13/17 with a 180-day bar to re-filing for failure to make plan payments or appear at the meeting of creditors (11 U.S.C. 341(a)).
  - (b) Budget Motion (dkt. 21). First, as Strategic points out, the debtor's bankruptcy Schedule I, line 8a, lists $6,220/mo. of net income from "rental property and from operating a business, profession, or farm" but fails to follow the instructions to "[a]ttach a statement for each property and business showing gross receipts, ordinary and necessary business expenses, and the total net monthly income." In addition, as Strategic points out, the debtor may be failing to account for the payment of real property taxes and perhaps also income taxes, and therefore it is not at all clear how the debtor will be able to fund any plan of reorganization.

The tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 4/17/18 for the debtor to file declaration(s) (i) attaching the statement(s) required by the line 8a instructions, (ii) providing complete explanations of any other sources of income (e.g., how long does the debtor anticipate continuing to receive disability payments? does the debtor anticipate returning to employment, and if so, when?), (iii) explaining whether the debtor is accounting for real estate taxes and income taxes, (iv) explaining how the debtor anticipates generating sufficient income to fund a plan of reorganization, and (v) attaching historical monthly accounts for the period of one year prepetition through 3/31/18.

Second, bankruptcy Schedule J (attached to the budget motion), lines 17c and 17d, list payments to Strategic of $1,750/mo. and to Ropers Majeski of $500/mo. The tentative ruling is to treat those payments as adequate protection payments on account of claims that appear to be secured claims, conditioned on return of such payments in the event that such security interests or claims are avoided or otherwise disallowed.

Third, notice of the motion and the deadline for objections is inadequate. The proof of service fails to attach a service list of creditors, and the debtor checked the box directing creditors to file any oppositions within 14 days' from the date of the proof of service (3/27/18), which would be the date of this hearing. Nevertheless, despite the lack of adequate service or notice, the tentative ruling is that on the present record it appears that it would be more prejudicial to creditors to prevent the debtors from making their proposed expenditures than to permit those expenditures, so the tentative ruling is to grant the budget motion on an interim basis, subject to any objections at a continued hearing simultaneous with the continued status conference date set forth below. This court has selected a continued hearing date that contemplates shortened notice (per Rule 9006, Fed. R. Bankr. P.), but that date is conditioned upon the debtor serving the motion on the entire creditor matrix the day after the current hearing date.

The voting package should have been served on all creditors. Is the proof of service in error? If so, the tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 4/11/18 for the debtor to file a corrected proof of service. If not, counsel for the debtor should be prepared to address (i) the dates and procedures for re-balloting and a continued hearing and (ii) not charging attorney fees for correcting this issue.

Chapter 11

(1) Current issues.

(a) Plan (dkt. 127) and Disclosure Statement (dkt. 126).

(i) Impairment - Class 2B. The Plan lists Class 2B as unimpaired - is it?

(ii) Impairment - Class 4A. The Plan does not specify whether Class 4A is impaired.

(iii) DIP Financing. Class 2C appears to consist of the debtor's contemplated postpetition DIP borrowing (dkt. 111, 121). First, classes under the Plan are reserved for prepetition debts, whereas repayment of postpetition DIP financing should be reflected in cash flow projections (Ex.C) (this is not just an academic issue: for example, Classes vote; DIP lenders do not).

Second, Endnote 2C (in Ex.H) appears to relate to this "Class" of DIP financing, and it appears to state that the terms of that financing are unknown ("Debtors will have full and accurate loan information as the loan is processed"). The debtors' counsel must address at the hearing whether there is any reason why the Plan cannot be updated to reflect the actual financing terms, which would eliminate the need for any such Endnote.

(iv) Stipulation with US Bank. The Plan should attach a copy of the Stipulation (dkt. 124) with creditor U.S. Bank N.A. (as trustee); Wells Fargo Home Mortgage as servicer (collectively, "US Bank"), as it may be modified (see below re possible amendments to that Stipulation). See dkt. 129 (limited objection of US Bank).

(b) US Bank's concerns (dkt. 129). This Court's posted procedures (available at www.cacb.uscourts.gov, under Judge Bason) provide in part: § 362: Automatic Stay. (1) Stipulations. Generally, the judge will not approve a stipulation for relief from stay/adequate protection order ("APO") that purports to be automatically effective ... because there might be equity in the property .... [Emphasis altered.]

Consistent with this limitation, US Bank agreed to an Adequate Protection Order ("APO") which does not provide for any automatic termination of the automatic stay. Instead it provides (in the APO attachment, at paragraph 6.b.) that in the event of a default:

[US Bank] may file and serve a declaration under penalty of perjury specifying the default, together with a proposed order terminating the stay, which the court may grant without further notice or hearing.

More recently, however, US Bank entered into its Stipulation with the debtors (dkt. 124) which not only includes the above-quoted language about what will happen in the event of a pre-confirmation default but goes on to add another clause. It states:

5. ... [US Bank] may file and serve a declaration under penalty of perjury specifying the default, together with a proposed order Terminating the Automatic Stay, which the Court may grant without further notice or hearing, and Creditor (and/or its servicer) may commence any and all action necessary to obtain complete possession of the Subject Property ... without further notice, order, or proceeding of this Court. [Emphasis added.]

US Bank argues (dkt. 129, p.6:3-12) that this language in the Stipulation was "taken from" the APO (para. 6.b.), but this is not quite accurate: the emphasized language has been added. Does that additional language mean anything? US Bank now appears to argue that it means nothing - that "the intent was simply to maintain the status quo like it is under the APO" (dkt. 129, p.6:6).

This Court agrees: the emphasized language appears to be surplusage; but unfortunately it is arguably subject to a different interpretation. Because it is unusual for parties to add meaningless language to their stipulations, the emphasized language arguably could be read to mean that US Bank could "commence" all actions necessary to foreclose without any order of this court.

Because of this (and other) ambiguities in the Stipulation this Court added the following caveat in its order approving the Stipulation:

... notwithstanding anything in the Stipulation to the contrary, the automatic stay will not automatically terminate upon a default or conversion of this case except as to Debtors (i.e., no automatic termination as to the bankruptcy estate, so as to preserve any equity that might then exist in the property for the benefit of other creditors) .... [Dkt. 128, p.2:5-8, emphasis in original]

US Bank now requests "that the Order [approving the Stipulation] be amended to clarify that any pre-confirmation default shall be in accordance with the [Stipulation] at paragraph 5, or in the alternative, pursuant to the existing APO, paragraph 6(b)." Dkt. 129, p.6:10-12. This Court believes the simpler solution - both in this case and in all future cases - would be to delete the surplus language in paragraph 5 of the Stipulation. US Bank's counsel should be prepared to address whether they will agree to delete the surplus language in paragraph 5 of the Stipulation in this case and in all future stipulations in any case before this Court.

Similarly, paragraph 13 of the Stipulation ends by stating that in the event the debtors' case is dismissed or converted then not only shall US Bank retain its lien securing the full dollar amount it is owed (less any payments received) but also "the Automatic Stay shall be terminated without further notice, order or proceeding of the Court." (Emphasis added.) US Bank has now agreed to delete this emphasized language. See dkt. 129, pp.5:26-6:2. Again, US Bank's counsel should be prepared to address whether they will delete this language in all future stipulations in cases before this Court.

Another concern raised by US Bank is that this Court's language in the order approving the Stipulation (quoted above) appears to limit paragraph 6 of the Stipulation, which provides that upon confirmation of debtors' chapter 11 plan "the Automatic Stay shall be deemed terminated as to the Debtors and the estate" and US Bank can pursue its contractual remedies under the loan documents "without further notice, order, or proceeding of this Court." Dkt. 124, p.4:12-18. This Court did not intend to override that provision - the tentative ruling is that upon confirmation of a chapter 11 plan it is entirely appropriate to provide that the automatic stay no longer applies because then the parties have a revised contractual relationship - so US Bank is correct that the order approving the Stipulation is overbroad to the extent that the language added by this Court affects paragraph 6 of the Stipulation.

Based on all of the foregoing, the tentative ruling is that if US Bank will agree to amend its Stipulation in paragraphs 5 and 13 as set forth above (to delete the language about automatic termination of the automatic stay), and leave paragraph 6 unchanged, this Court will approve that Stipulation without the modification that is included in the current order approving the Stipulation. The debtor will need to attach the amended Stipulation to the Plan.

Note: The parties might wish to take the opportunity to review the Stipulation for any other provisions that would benefit from revision. For example, this Court notes that paragraph 13 of the Stipulation starts by providing that "[t]he terms of this Stipulation are contingent upon Debtors' confirming a Chapter 11 Plan." Dkt. 124, p.6:8-8. Read literally this would mean that the Stipulation's terms regarding pre-confirmation defaults (para. 5) are contingent upon confirmation, which makes no sense. Other provisions similarly do not appear to be intended to be contingent on confirmation (but it is up to the parties to decide if they wish to clarify such issues).

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 2/27/17 and converted from chapter 13 on 4/28/17.

(a) Bar date: 8/24/2017 (dkt. 77, timely served dkt. 84).

(b) Plan (dkt. 127)/Disclosure Statement (dkt. 126)*: 2/27/18 deadline to file (NOT SERVE - except on the U.S. Trustee) any redlined revisions to be discussed at the status conference, with a revised stipulation with US Bank attached, and lodge Judge Bason's form of order authorizing service of the voting package, setting deadlines, and setting a combined hearing on final approval of the Disclosure Statement and confirmation of the Plan for the same time as the continued status conference.

(c) Continued status conference: 4/10/18 at 1:00 p.m. No written status report is required.

*Warning: special procedures apply (see order setting initial status conference).

Continue this status conference to 2/13/18 at 1:00 p.m. Appearances are not required on 1/23/18.

Reasons: (a) the debtors' apparent need to amend the proposed plan in view of the recent withdrawal of their objection to the prior claim of the Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") in view of the IRS' amended claim (see dkt. 119);

(b) the debtor's failure to file a brief status report (due 1/16/18 per the

(c) the inability of the Office of the United States Trustee ("UST") to appear (or perhaps even to analyze whether it should appear) because of the shutdown of much of the federal government.

Tentative Ruling for 11/7/17:

Continue to 1/23/18 at 1:00 p.m. to address the following issues.

Appearances are not required on 11/7/17.

Reasons: This court is continuing the hearing in light of the response filed by the IRS (dkt. 105) and because (1) if the dollar amount owed to the IRS changes then changes also will be needed to the amended plan (dkt. 107) and amended disclosure statement (dkt. 106) and (2) although the debtor correctly deleted Endnotes 2, 2A, 2B and 2C from Exhibit H, the debtor forgot to delete the references to those (non-existent) endnotes on Exhibits A and E. No later than 1/16/18 the debtor is directed to file an amended plan to cure these issues, if possible, or alternatively a very brief status report (e.g., one or two sentence).

If you wish to dispute the above tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings".

(1) Current issues.

(a) Monthly Operating Report (dkt. 94). What is the $700 transfer for 8/31/17 (at p.4) entitled "money owed"? The debtor reports one missed payment to Wells Fargo in the amount of $2,167.68 (at p.10), as against only $2,398.12 in her rental property account (p.11) and $1,404.57 in her personal account. Is the debtor losing money? Can the debtor propose a feasible plan of reorganization?

(b) Plan (dkt.92) /Disclosure Statement (dkt. 91). (i) These documents are not signed by the debtors ("/s/" typed signatures are only permitted for limited categories of persons, such as registered CM/ECF users). (ii) The Disclosure Statement contemplates claim objections (dkt. 91, Ex.H, Endnotes 1-2). Why have these issues not been resolved by now? (iii) The Disclosure Statement's Endnotes 2A, 2B, 2C and 5 repeat (and/or misstate) the terms of the Plan. Those endnotes should be deleted. (iv) The Disclosure Statement's Ex.C (income/expenses) is divided into two periods, but the income and expenses appear to be identical in each period. Why should this not be a single period?

Appearances required by counsel for the debtor and by the debtor(s) themselves.

(1) Current issues. This Court has reviewed the debtor's filed status report (dkt. 17) and the other filed documents in this case.

(a) Secured claims. Why does the debtor's bankruptcy Schedule D (dkt. 18 at PDF p.11) list $0 in secured claims (not even a disputed claim?) even though the status report (dkt. 17) states that the case was filed to stop foreclosure? How can creditor and this Court rely on the accuracy of the bankruptcy schedules in view of such inconsistency?

(b) Income. The debtor's bankruptcy Schedule I (dkt. 18 at PDF pp.19-20) lists a total of $100/mo. in income taxes, medicare and social security. It lists $0 for net income from operating a business (line 8a) despite listing multiple businesses with alleged income: "YB Design, Inc.," "Management of Rabenu Enterprises, LLC," "Babysitting services," and "Cosmetic Sales." It fails to comply with the instructions in line 8a to "Attach a statement for each ... business showing gross receipts, ordinary and necessary business expenses, and the total monthly net income." The debtor appears to be ignoring the requirements to provide disclosure as to his own income and expenses and, under this Court's order (dkt. 9, para.3), to provide equal disclosure with respect to his spouse and their businesses. How can creditors and this Court rely on the accuracy of the bankruptcy schedules and future compliance with orders of this Court in view of such non-compliance?

(c) Deadline for compliance. The tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 7/31/18 for the debtor to file amended bankruptcy schedules correcting not only the foregoing deficiencies that this Court has identified but also any other deficiencies that the debtor and his spouse and the debtor's counsel identify after carefully reviewing the documents that the debtor has filed. If in future this Court discovers other non-compliance with the debtor's obligations to provide accurate disclosures and to comply with this Court's orders, this Court may order the dismissal or conversion of this bankruptcy case, or other remedies.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 6/21/18.

Key documents reviewed (in addition to motion papers): Evidence of service of emergency motion (dkt. 21, at pp. 10-13).

After the hearing date this court will prepare an order and the tentative ruling is to include the following language in that order:

The stay of 11 U.S.C. 362(a) applies subject to the following modifications and conditions:

(1) Service and reconsideration. Any party in interest who was not timely served in accordance with FRBP 7004 (incorporated by FRBP 9014(b)) is hereby granted through 14 days after proper service to seek reconsideration, including retroactive relief (under FRBP 9023 and/or 9024). Appearances required but telephonic appearances are encouraged if advance arrangements are made (see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.", "Instructions/Procedures").

The tentative ruling is to deny the motion to vacate the 180-day bar on being a debtor in bankruptcy (dkt. 35), for the reasons stated in this Court's order setting this hearing (dkt. 37).

#1.00 Hrg re: Motion to avoid junior lien on principal residence with Select Portfolio Servicing and Franchise Tax Board

Docket 29

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for 8/2/18:

Grant in part and deny in part as set forth below. Appearances are not required.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this court's final ruling. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

Reasons: The debtor is seeking to avoid both the third priority lien asserted by Select Portfolio Servicing as agent for Deutsche Bank as trustee (collectively, "Select") and the second priority lien of the Franchise Tax Board ("FTB") with this one motion. The tentative ruling is to grant the motion as to Select but deny it without prejudice as to FTB for the following reasons.

(1) Separate motions required. Pursuant to LBR 4003-2(b)(1), a separate notice and motion must be filed for each lien sought to be avoided. Separate motions are important for various reasons: (a) so that separate orders can be entered, which in turn assures (b) that any appeals or motions for reconsideration can deal separately with each motion, and (c) for purposes of a clean record of title. In any event, regardless of the policy reasons, that is the rule, and the debtor has not cited any authority to depart from it.

(2) Select. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the interests of avoiding needless expense and delay, the tentative ruling is to grant the motion as against one of the two non-responding parties. Accordingly, the tentative ruling is that there is "no just reason for delay" in entering an order granting the motion as to Select, within the meaning of Rule 54(b) (Fed. R. Civ. P.) (incorporated by Rule 7054, Fed. R. Bankr. P.). See also Rule 9002(5) (Fed.

(2) FTB. The debtor may file, serve, and self-calendar a new motion directed to FTB's lien.

Chapter 13

#2.00 Hrg re: Motion to avoid junior lien on principal residence with Aspen G. Revocable Trust aka Aspen Properties Group, LLC, c.0 FCI Lender Services, Inc. and Best Diamond Funding Corp.

Docket 9

Tentative Ruling:

Appearances are not required. The tentative ruling is (1) to grant the motion with respect to the third lien of Best Diamond Funding Corp. ("Best Diamond") and (2) to deny the motion without prejudice with respect to the second lien of the Aspen G. Revocable Trust ("Aspen"), all for the following reasons.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this court's final ruling. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

(1) Best Diamond. There being no opposition, any evidentiary or other objections have been waived or forfeited. Therefore the tentative ruling is that it is appropriate to grant the motion as to Best Diamond.

In addition, the tentative ruling is that although the motion involves claims against different parties (Best Diamond and Aspen), and therefore the better practice would have been to file two separate motions, nevertheless there is "no just reason for delay" in entering an order granting the motion as to Best Diamond, within the meaning of Rule 54(b) (Fed. R. Civ. P.) (incorporated by Rule 7054, Fed. R. Bankr. P.). See also Rule 9002(5) (Fed. R. Bankr. P.) (defining judgment to mean any appealable order).

The reasons why there is "no just reason for delay" are that (i) the alternative would be to file and serve a new motion against Best Diamond, which would give Best Diamond a "second bite at the apple" without cause, such as requiring it to show excusable neglect for failing to respond to the current motion, and (ii) such proceedings would involve expense and delay. Therefore a final order can issue against Best Diamond.

(2) Aspen. The tentative ruling is to deny the motion as against Aspen, for the following reasons.

(a) Two liens in one motion. As noted above, the better practice would have been to file two separate motions: one for each lien. One reason that practice is better is so that further proceedings by one party (before this Court or on appeal) do not interfere with the finality of the disposition against the other party. Because the motion has deficiencies as against Aspen, and therefore needs to be amended anyway, the simplest solution is to deny the motion as to Aspen without prejudice, and then a separate motion can be filed against Aspen alone.

(b) Deficiencies in the motion. The tentative ruling is that most of Aspen's evidentiary objections go to the weight of the evidence, not admissibility. For example, Aspen's assertions that the appraisal or the property is too far in time from the petition date to establish the value on the petition date itself is not enough to exclude the appraisal. The time involved is relatively short, and although the property might have increased in value slightly during that time, that difference in value would be minor as compared with the relatively vast difference between the alleged value of the property as compared with the alleged dollar amount of the first lien. Therefore, the appraisal has not been shown to be irrelevant or lacking in foundation or otherwise inadmissible.

Likewise, Aspen is free to argue that the sales of allegedly comparable properties (the "Comps") are not persuasive because of an alleged lack of mathematical precision in adjusting for minor differences in square footage, or the age of the Comps, or any other reason. But that does not make the appraisal inadmissible, now that it is supported by the appraiser's declaration (dkt. 23).

Aspen is more persuasive in pointing out that the alleged dollar amount owed to the first lienholder is not adequately supported. The debtor has attempted to cure that deficiency, but her declaration (dkt. 22) does not actually authenticate any document showing the dollar amount secured by the first lien as of the petition date. She simply states that the first lien is in an alleged dollar amount, without disclosing how she arrived at that figure or providing any documentary evidence.

This evidentiary issue should be fairly easy to cure, so this Court is not persuaded that there is any basis to deny the motion with prejudice as to Aspen. Therefore the tentative ruling is to deny the motion as to Aspen, without prejudice.

#3.00 Hrg re: Motion to avoid junior lien under U.S.C. section 522 (f) with Patricia Reyes

Docket 21

Tentative Ruling:

Appearances required.

Key documents reviewed (in addition to motion papers): Patricia Reyes ("Reyes") Opposition (dkt. 26); Declaration of Jihad M. Smaili (dkt. 27); Debtor's Evidentiary Objections and Request to Strike Declaration of Jihad M. Smaili (dkt. 35); Debtor's Reply (dkt. 36).

Current issues.

(a) Timeliness of motion. Reyes objects that the motion is untimely pursuant to LBR 3015-1(b)(7). The tentative ruling is to overrule this objection as follows. First, Reyes has not affirmatively shown any undue prejudice resulting from debtor's delay in filing the motion. Second, this Court's own review of the docket suggests that there was in fact no prejudice to Reyes because debtor's plan stated an intent to file the motion (dkt. 14, PDF pp. 2, 11), and debtor filed her plan within 28 days of the petition date, on 4/14/18.

(b) Evidentiary issues (dkt. 35, pp.2:22-5:9). The tentative ruling is to sustain objection numbers "1" and "2" in full, "3" on the hearsay ground (and the lack of reliability of Zillow, Redfin, and Trulia, at least when not used by a licensed real estate appraiser or other person who could qualify as an expert who generally can rely on hearsay), and "5" (there is no "4") because the Reyes appraisal must be authenticated by the appraiser, not by Reyes' attorney.

Despite sustaining all of these objections, the result is only that there is a disputed issue of fact as to the value of the subject property. Moreover, the debtor's Reply includes new evidence, which is generally improper in a reply. That new evidence may or may not be sufficient to support the debtor's asserted valuation of the subject property. This is an additional reason why there are disputed issues of material fact that must be resolved.

Note: Although Reyes' Opposition alleges that there are a number of "substantial omissions and misrepresentations" in the papers filed by the debtor (dkt. 26, p.4:12-21), she does not appear to assert any evidentiary objections based on those alleged facts, nor does she explain how they might be relevant to valuation or other issues in connection with this motion. Therefore this Court expresses no view on those allegations.

(c) Evidence of Value. There is no tentative ruling, but the parties should be prepared to address how they propose to resolve their disputes re: valuation of the subject property - e.g., (i) with an evidentiary hearing; (ii) with a court ruling based solely on the written record (to save costs, if all parties consent), (iii) through mediation, or (iv) through appointment of an appraiser (jointly selected by the parties/their appraisers) as the court's own expert under FRE 706. Note: Judge Bason requires valuations at or near the petition date. See In re Gutierrez, 503 B.R. 458 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2013).

Docket 23

Tentative Ruling:

The tentative ruling is to sustain the claim objection with a caution to counsel for the debtor that in future he must include a cost/benefit analysis (as required by the posted procedures of Judge Bason). Appearances are not required.

Reasons:

(1) The claim objection fails to include a sufficient cost/benefit analysis. Judge Bason's posted Procedures (available at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) state:

When objecting to claims, be sure to consider whether the costs of preparing and litigating the claim objection (administrative expenses) do not exceed the anticipated benefits (reductions in claims). For example, if the anticipated dividend is small or 0%, your claim objection to any general unsecured claim should clearly explain how it is justified to incur the attorney fees for that objection.

(2) Fees. Judge Bason assumes that, because the claim at issue was filed as a priority claim and the claim objection seeks to classify it as a non-priority claim, a cost/benefit analysis would support the decision to prepare and file the objection. Therefore the tentative ruling is to permit counsel to apply for fees for those services.

#15.00 Hrg re: Objection to payment of claim number 4
by Claimant GE Money bank, c/o lvnv funding LLC its successors and assigns as assignee of GE Money Bank

Docket 16

Tentative Ruling:

Continue to 8/30/18 at 8:30 a.m. to address the following issues.
Appearances are not required on 8/2/18.

Reasons:

(1) The claim objection fails to include a sufficient cost/benefit analysis.
Judge Bason's posted Procedures (available at www.cacb.uscourts.gov)
state:

When objecting to claims, be sure to consider whether the costs of preparing and litigating the claim objection (administrative expenses) do not exceed the anticipated benefits (reductions in claims). For example, if the anticipated dividend is small or 0%, your claim objection to any general unsecured claim should clearly explain how it is justified to incur the attorney fees for that objection.

In this instance, it appears that the claim objection, if successful, would result in a benefit that exceeds the costs of counsel's fees. However, the debtor failed to include any analysis demonstrating that this is so. No later than 8/16/18, the movant must file either:

(a) a supplemental declaration explaining why the attorney fees for this objection are justified (including supporting evidence, such as a copy of the plan showing the projected dividend to the claimant, and a calculation comparing that projected dividend against the attorney fees related to this claim objection), or

(b) a withdrawal of the claim objection (so as not to further waste the time of this Bankruptcy Court, the claimant, and any other parties in interest in addressing this matter).

#18.00 Hrg re: Motion Objecting to Claim No. 3-1 on the Bankruptcy Court's Claim Register, of the Internal Revenue Service

Docket 24

Tentative Ruling:

Continue to 10/25/18 at 8:30 a.m. The parties have requested a different date (see Stipulation, dkt. 27) but that is not a regular hearing date, so this Court has chosen the next most recent hearing date. In addition, it seems highly likely that any objection to a priority and/or nondischargeable claim will satisfy any cost/benefit analysis, but counsel for the debtor is directed no later than 8/16/18 to file a supplemental declaration including such an analysis. Appearances are not required on 8/2/18.

Reasons:

(1) The claim objection fails to include a sufficient cost/benefit analysis. Judge Bason's posted Procedures (available at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) state:

#24.00 Cont'd hrg re: Motion for authority to incur debt
fr. 6/28/18

Docket 0

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for 8/2/18:

Appearances required by debtors' attorney and by both of the debtors. The tentative ruling is (1) to vacate the order (dkt. 98) linked to the motion to incur debt and (2) to dismiss this case, with a bar against being debtors in any future bankruptcy case for a period of 180 days, (a) for willful failure of the debtors to abide by this Court's prior orders to appear and to file declarations (see below) and alternatively (b) for willful failure of the debtors to appear in proper prosecution of this case. This Court will prepare the orders.

At the 6/28/18 hearing, no appearances were made at the hearing by debtors, their attorney of record, or any other persons on behalf of debtors. For that reason, this Court (i) continued the matter to the present date--for the Court to consider whether to vacate the prior order linked to this motion (but captioned as an order granting a motion to modify the plan) (dkt.98), (ii) directed each one of the debtors to file their own declaration by 7/12/18 regarding (a) the status of the vehicle purchase and (b) their response to concerns raised in the Order Setting Hearing (dkt. 100), and (iii) directed debtors' counsel and both of the debtors to appear at this continued hearing to show cause why this Court should not sanction each of them for non-appearance in violation of the Order Setting Hearing. See OSC, dkt. 103 and Order Continuing Hearing, dkt. 105. The Court has reviewed the docket, and no declarations have been filed by the debtors. Why not?

Continue Ms. Moreno's motion (dkt. 23, 25) to expunge this bankruptcy case (Case No. 2:15-bk-13511-NB) to 8/2/18 at 8:30 a.m. with a deadline of 7/9/18 to file and serve the documents described below. Appearances are not required on 6/28/18.

Required documents:

(1) Declarations. Ms. Moreno's motion is supported by her declaration in English. But she concedes that she does not read or write either English or Spanish (dkt. 23, p.10, para.8). Accordingly, the tentative ruling is that her

English declaration does not constitute any evidence at all, so the motion is unsupported by any evidence.

The tentative ruling is that Ms. Moreno will need to sign a declaration in Spanish (with an English translation), and that must be supported by the declaration (in English) of a translator certifying (a) that the Spanish declaration signed by Ms. Moreno is a true and correct translation of the English version (with a copy of that English version attached) and (b) that the Spanish version was read out loud to Ms. Moreno and, if necessary, explained to her in Spanish, before she signed it.

(2) Efforts to pursue alleged wrongdoer. The tentative ruling is that Ms. Moreno's declaration must disclose all efforts she has undertaken to seek prosecution of Mr. Munoz (e.g., police reports, any reports to the office of the United States Trustee, etc.). Absent evidence of attempts to pursue Mr. Munoz, the tentative ruling is that Ms. Moreno's denials of any involvement in the bankruptcy petitions lack sufficient support for the extraordinary remedy of expunging the bankruptcy cases.

(3) Proof of service. The proof of service (dkt. 23, last page) does not show service on all creditors in both of the allegedly fraudulently filed bankruptcy cases (see Creditor Matrix, Case No. 2:15-bk-13511-NB and Case No. 2:16-bk-17335-NB), nor on Mr. Jose Munoz (the alleged wrongdoer), nor on Mr. Valentin Moreno-Perez (the debtor's soon-to-be former husband, whose involvement in the alleged fraud is unclear), nor on any entities who were granted in rem relief from the automatic stay (see Case 2:16-bk-17335-NB, dkt. 34, granting such relief to CBB Properties, LLC). The tentative ruling is to required service on all such persons.

(4) Non-disturbance of in rem relief. Ms. Moreno does not explain exactly what is meant by her request to "expunge" this bankruptcy case. The tentative ruling is to interpret that request as follows, and in any event to limit any relief as follows.

Expungement is intended to assist Ms. Moreno to repair her credit with the credit reporting agencies, and with any other person seeking to verify her credit history. Expungement is also intended to eliminate any future consequences of these past bankruptcy cases (see, e.g., 11 U.S.C. 109(g)(1) or 362(c)). Expungement is not intended, however, to vacate or in any way disturb any prior grant of in rem relief. See, e.g., Case No. 2:16-bk-17335-NB, dkt. 34 (order granting in rem relief) (the "CBB In Rem Order"). Such relief is still appropriate because it was not necessary for Ms. Moreno to have been a party to any "scheme" under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(4) for in rem relief to have been warranted. See In re Vazquez (Bankr. C.D. Cal., Case No. 2:16-bk-10699-NB, dkt. 75).

Accordingly, the tentative ruling is that if Ms. Moreno wishes to obtain relief from the CBB In Rem Order, or any other in rem order, she must do so by separate motion or adversary proceeding.

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for 8/2/18 (same as for 6/7/18):

Appearances required but telephonic appearances are encouraged if advance arrangements are made (see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.", "Instructions/Procedures").

At a hearing on 5/8/18 on Wells Fargo's motion for relief from stay, Wells Fargo withdrew its motion and the parties stated that they believed they could resolve the outstanding escrow issues in the context of this motion. On 7/30/18, Wells Fargo filed a Notice of Withdrawal of Notice of Mortgage Payment Change (Claim 4) (dkt. 89) ("Withdrawal Notice"). There is no tentative ruling, but the parties should be prepared to address whether the Withdrawal Notice moots the debtor's pending objection.

directed (1) debtor to commence making higher payments to Movant in the amount of $4,079.99 ($3,698.51 P&I + $381.48 escrow); and (2) set deadlines for (a) Movant to file a supplemental declaration regarding recalculation of the appropriate monthly escrow fund payment, and (b) debtor to file a response.

This Court has reviewed Movant's supplemental declaration (dkt. 68) and debtor's response (dkt. 72). The parties should be prepared to address whether they have reached any resolution regarding debtor's contention that Movant has not taken into account any credits received from hazard insurance and county taxes.

Tentative Ruling for 3/20/18:

Grant in part, deny in part, and continue to 4/10/17 at 10:00 a.m., all as set forth below. Appearances required.

(1) Background

The parties appear to agree that the debtor has made monthly payments of $3,698.51 (the normal amortizing principal and interest payments). Those payments were due on the first day of each month, and generally were paid a few days later. See dkt. 8, Ex.5 (movant's spreadsheet) and dkt. 61, Ex.A, & dkt. 62) (debtor's copies of cashier checks). The motion lists some late charges, attorney fees, and other items (dkt. 58, p.7, para.8), but those do not appear to have been included in the movant's spreadsheet (dkt. 58, Ex.5, at PDF pp.30-33), perhaps because the listed amounts are for prepetition periods. In any event, the core of the parties' disagreement appears to involve an escrow impound account to pay real estate taxes and property insurance premiums.

Chapter 13

(2) The debtor's assertions of "improper" escrow impounds are unpersuasive

The debtor's declaration (dkt. 61, Tribelsky Decl., para.9, at PDF p.7:24-28) asserts that the impound is "improper" and that the debtor has "struggled with [movant] Wells Fargo to have them end these impounds." The debtor also declares (dkt. 61, at PDF p.7:16-22) that there was an "improper increase" in monthly payments starting on March 1, 2016, which he believes was due to an escrow impound for taxes and insurance.

The debtor fails to explain why there is anything "improper" about requiring him to pay into an escrow for real estate taxes and insurance. The loan documents (dkt. 8, Ex.1, para.3, pp.4-5) require the debtor to make escrow payments for taxes and insurance premiums on the same date at the payments of principal and interest.

It is true that the movant apparently had not required escrow payments for some unspecified period prior to March 1, 2016. See Notice of Mortgage Payment Change (Official Form 410S1) (the "Change Notice"), filed 1/19/16 on the Claims Register, at PDF pp.5-6 (requiring monthly payments of $351.96 commencing March 1, 2016). But if the debtor is asserting some sort of waiver that argument is unpersuasive. The Deed of Trust provides (dkt. 58, Ex.1, para.3, pp.4-5) that although the movant may waive the escrow requirement, the movant "may revoke the waiver as to any or all Escrow Items at any time" and then the debtor "shall pay" all escrow amounts.

The debtor apparently just ignored his obligation to pay escrow impound amounts. Instead he has presented evidence (dkt. 61, Ex.B, at PDF pp.38 et seq.) that he paid taxes directly to the tax authorities and insurance premiums directly to the insurers.

It appears that the movant must have credited the debtor's direct payments of taxes and insurance, because its Change Notice filed on 10/18/16 lists a low estimated "Starting balance" of $861.27 as of December 2016 (although that apparently assumes that the debtor would start making his required escrow payments). In any event, the movant's Change Notice is prima facie evidence of the validity of this underlying calculation in support of its claim, and the debtor has not established that there is anything wrong with the movant's accounting included in its Change Notice filed on 10/18/16.

Similarly, by the time of the next Change Notice it appears that the movant must have once again credited the debtor's direct payments of taxes and insurance because, the escrow account projections ("Part 3") project a required "Starting balance" for March 2018 of only $762.96 (although, again, this appears to assume that the debtor will have made certain payments into the escrow account by the start of March 2018). In any event, the debtor has not shown that there is anything wrong with this supporting underlying documentation of the movant's claim.

(3) Despite the deficiencies in the debtor's arguments and evidence, it appears that the motion itself fails to account for the debtor's direct payments of real estate taxes and insurance

The motion asserts (dkt. 58, p.9, para.12.c.) that the debtor was behind three payments of $4,053.45, for a total of $12,160.35, less a suspense account balance of $1,166.12, for a total of $10,994.23 as of approximately 12/12/18 (when the declaration in support of the motion was signed). But unlike the Change Notices the motion does not appear to give the debtor credit for direct payments of real estate taxes and insurance.

Based on the spreadsheet attached to the motion as Exhibit 5 (dkt. 58, at PDF pp.30-33), the alleged shortfall of $10,994.23 appears to be the cumulative sum of all the shortfalls between the $3,698.51 that the debtor was paying each month (the normal amortizing principal and interest payments) and the higher monthly amounts that he should have been paying in order to fund the escrow account. There are no entries in the spreadsheet that appear to reflect the debtor's direct payments of taxes and insurance.

Nor is it possible to rely on the latest Change Notice to determine precisely what the debtor owes. At first glance that Change Notice would appear to have current information because it was filed on 3/5/18, but it provides only a projected shortfall of $762.96 in the escrow account as of March 2018 (3/5/18 Charge Notice at PDF p.6, Part 3, end of first line). That projection probably is too low, because it appears to assume that part of the debtor's monthly payment is credited to the escrow account in January of 2018, and that the debtor will make some very substantial payments in February and March of 2018, and that the real estate taxes that are due in March of 2018 will be paid out of those escrow payments (see id., Part 4, 2d and 5th columns, rows for January, February, and March, including credits of $1,281.90, $9,810.75, and $354.94, and debit of $1,612.38).

The bottom line is that although the movant has not established precisely what the debtor owes, it has established cause for some sort of relief from the automatic stay - namely, there is "cause" within the meaning of 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1) in that the debtor has failed for many months to comply with his obligations to fund the escrow account, which exposes the movant to the risk that it will have to bear the cost if the debtor fails to pay real estate taxes or insurance (especially if the property were to be damaged or completely burn down). The required adequate protection is for the debtor to cure the deficiency in the escrow account over a reasonable period of time.

The latest Change Notice (filed 3/5/18) can be used as a starting point. It requires that the debtor pay $381.48 per month into the escrow account, in addition to his regular monthly payments of $3,698.51 on account of principal and interest, for total monthly payments of $4,079.99. The escrow payments may have to be adjusted (as noted above, the Change Notice appears to assume that the debtor will have made some very substantial payments by the start of March 2018), but this Court can set a schedule for such adjustment (see below).

(4) Conclusion

The tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 4/1/18 for the debtor (a) to file evidence that he has paid the March 2018 real estate tax payment directly to the taxing authority and (b) to commence making monthly payments of $381.48 into the escrow account, in addition to his regular monthly payments of $3,698.51 on account of principal and interest, for total monthly payments of $4,079.99.

In addition, the tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 4/1/18 for the movant to file a supplemental declaration showing a calculation of the required escrow balance as of 5/1/18, the required monthly payments for the debtor to cure the deficiency in that escrow balance, and the resulting new total monthly payment that the debtor will have to pay on 5/1/18 and each month thereafter.

Finally, the tentative ruling is to set a continued hearing at the date and time set forth at the start of this tentative ruling, so that the parties and this Court can address what to do if the debtor disputes the movant's calculations.

Hrg re: Application for Supplemental Attorney's Fees

Docket 67

Tentative Ruling:

(1) Overrule the objection to Mr. Webb's purported lack of standing, but also (2) overrule both Mr. Webb's objection and the debtor's objection to the fee application, and allow the fees in full, because among other things the retainer agreement cannot reasonably be construed as imposing a flat fee for the services at issue, and the charges for those services are reasonable. Appearances are not required.

Key documents reviewed (in addition to application papers, dkt. 67): objections (dkt. 88, 89), the applicant's replies (dkt. 91, 92), sur-replies (dkt. 95, 96).

(1) Standing. Based on this Court's understanding of the relationship between Mr. Webb and Ms. Webb (the debtor), he has a financial interest in the outcome of this fee application (albeit an indirect interest). The dollar amounts at issue might be payable by him, or out of property in which he has an interest, as part of the divorce or other arrangements between Mr. Webb and Ms. Webb. See also 11 U.S.C. 330(a)(2) (contemplating objection by "any party in interest").

(2) The debtor agreed to a flat fee for basic services plus additional hourly fees and another flat fee for all other services. On 5/13/17 the debtor executed Local Form F 3015-1.7.RARA, the "Rights And Responsibilities Agreement Between Debtor And Attorney For Debtor In A Chapter 13 Case (RARA)." Dkt. 91, Ex.B. The debtor also executed a retainer letter dated the same day. Dkt. 91, Ex.A (the "Retainer Agreement").

The RARA lists a "Base Fee" of $6,000 (id. p.5); it describes in detail what services are covered by the Base Fee (11 items before the case is filed, and 12 items after the case is filed) (id. pp. 3-4); and it explains that Applicant "may apply to the court" for allowance of Additional Fees for services that are not covered by the Base Fee at the hourly rate of $450 per hour or, "[a]lternatively, [Applicant] may charge a reasonable flat fee for some specified service(s) ...." Id. p.5.

The Retainer Agreement mirrors these provisions. It reiterates the base fee of $6000 for "this project," which it described as "the areas of substituting into your chapter 13 bankruptcy," and in the immediately following paragraph the Retainer Agreement adds:

This retainer agreement does not cover extraordinary matters such as: ... adversary proceedings which may arise in relation to the two disputed liens and the potential dispute with James Leach ... [or] representation in any adversary proceedings, motions, or other hearings of any type with the exception of your 341(a) and confirmation hearing. If you want to hire [Applicant] for any of the above, our hourly rate is $450.00 per hour. [Dkt. 91, Ex.A, at PDF p.10 (emphasis added).]

In subsequent email correspondence (dkt. 91, Ex. C), the debtor and Mr. Webb expressed an interest in participating in this Court's Loan Modification Management ("LMM") procedures. Applicant expressed a willingness to do that specific additional service for the Court-authorized flat fee of $2,500.

This Court's posted LMM procedures (available from a link on the Court's home page at www.cacb.uscourts.gov), state:

10. LMM Fees. Counsel for the debtor is entitled to receive reasonable compensation for all work involved in connection with the LMM process and shall file an application for allowance of attorney fees and costs with the Court, or alternatively accept a "no look" fee in a reasonable amount not to exceed $2,500 to be paid as an administrative expense. These fees and costs are in addition to those fees and costs incurred in the representation of Debtor in the bankruptcy case.

When Applicant stated that her flat fee would be $2,500 for this service, Mr. Webb asked, "if we give you all the information, and all you do is enter it online, and then if it were to be declined, why would it cost $2,500? shouldn't your billing only be for the time spent on it?" Dkt. 91, Ex.C, email (5/29/17 at 4:48 p.m.). Applicant responded, "It[']s not that simple. It[']s months of back and forth with the lender. It[']s very time consuming ..." and "If we charged hourly, it would end up costing a lot more." Dkt. 91, Ex.C, email (5/29/17 at 4:53 p.m. and 5:08 p.m.).

Applicant is entirely correct, and Mr. Webb's conception of the LMM process is completely unrealistic. This Court's LMM procedures state:

The $2,500 fee shall include:

- Filing of the Motion and Order;
- Preparation of the Initial LMM Package
- Preparation of any additional forms which may be required throughout the LMM
- Submission of all documentation through the Portal
- Filing of other required pleadings and preparation of proposed orders and settlement papers, as applicable;
- Communicating with Creditor and Program Manager, including communications through the Portal;
- Attendance at LMM Conferences and Court hearings; and
- Review of all modified loan documents.

Moreover, the Court's docket reflects that the LMM services in this particular case were extraordinarily extensive. The LMM period was extended three separate times while Applicant was representing the debtor. See Orders at dkt. 43, 50, 57. The printout of the LMM services attached to the last motion to extend the time (dkt. 52) is forty-eight pages long!

In addition to the Base Fee of $6,000 for the basic services listed in the RARA, and the $2,500 flat fee for the LMM program, Applicant is entitled to the hourly rate of $450.00 per hour for additional services. Those hourly rate fees are more than adequately supported by (a) the extremely detailed records of time spent, broken down into tenths of an hour, for a total of twenty-four pages of time records! (dkt. 67, Ex.A), (b) the narrative description of the services rendered (dkt. 67 pp.2-6), and (c) the occasions on which this Court has first-hand knowledge of the applicant's services, including documents filed with this Court and appearances at hearings, all of which were of consistently high quality and, combined with the daily time records, reflect reasonable and efficient billing.

information) in which it is abundantly clear that the debtor and Mr. Webb were well aware that Applicant was charging hourly fees. For example, an email dated 6/19/17 at 6:21 p.m. states:

The stipulation work is taking longer than anticipated so we need an additional deposit of $5K that we will put into trust and bill against. [Dkt. 91, Ex.D, bottom of second page (emphasis added)]

Mr. Webb responds the next day, "Can the extra be paid through the plan?" Id. (middle of page). In other words, this is further evidence of the obvious: both Mr. Webb and the debtor clearly understood that the "extra" legal fees were being incurred.

Another email to the debtor, dated 11/7/17 at 4:20 p.m., states:

I really don't know what to say to you or William that has not been said before. ... Please keep in mind that we try to keep legal fees to a minimum but we have to bill for every single email and those are really adding up. [Dkt. 91, Ex.F (emphasis added).]

Another email, dated 11/20/17 at 12:33 p.m., includes Applicant's caution:

You [Mr. Webb] and Deborah [the debtor] need to get on the same page or work out a compromise of some sort because all the back and forth is only running up legal fees in her case. [Dkt. 91, Ex.D, penultimate page (emphasis added).]

Another email, dated 9/26/17, thanks Applicant "for your work on this challenging case." Dkt. 91, Ex.G (emphasis added).

In the face of all of this evidence, it is nothing short of outrageous for the debtor and Mr. Webb to argue, as they have done, (i) that they expected all the work to be done without any charges for hourly fees, and (ii) that the matters that were handled were not complex or that the fees for the services rendered were not reasonable.

(3) Conclusion. For all of the foregoing reasons, the tentative ruling is to award the entire amount of the requested fees and expenses under 11 U.S.C. 330.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." Appearances are not required. This matter has been mooted by the dismissal of the debtor in this case on 6/14/18. See Order, dkt. 74 and Notice, dkt. 75.

Appearances required.

This matter has been repeatedly continued from 12/7/17 to the present. See, e.g., dkt. 54, 62. Now the debtor has once again extended negotiations on the attempted loan modification (see dkt. 64) and is seeking yet another continuance of the hearings on this claim objection and confirmation (dkt. 70, 71). Why has this matter not been resolved? Is the debtor failing to appear in proper prosecution of this matter (see Order, dkt. 72, denying further continuance)?

At the 12/7/17 hearing on this matter, this court was persuaded to continue this matter. What is the current status of this matter?

Deny for the reasons stated in the Opposition (dkt. 46). If the debtor wishes to obtain more discovery regarding older records, she can seek such discovery using the normal procedures for doing so (subject to the normal limitations on any discovery). Appearances are not required.

Note: Counsel did not comply with the Local Bankruptcy Rules' requirement to attach a copy of the proof of claim to the objection. Nor did counsel comply with Judge Bason's posted procedures (at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) requiring a cost/benefit analysis for any claim objection (although the nature of the claim, and the provisions of the debtor's latest amended plan, dkt. 37, suggest that the cost/benefit analysis is favorable to bringing any meritorious objection). In future, counsel should comply with those requirements.

Proposed order: Creditor National Funding, Inc. is directed to serve and lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this court's final ruling.

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for 8/2/18:

Deny as moot and/or for lack of prosecution. Appearances are not required.

The tentative ruling for the 6/28/18 hearing, which was not opposed and therefore because this Court's adopted ruling, directed debtor's counsel to file either a withdrawal of the claim objection or a supplemental declaration. No withdrawal or declaration appears on the docket.

Meanwhile the debtor has filed a fourth amended plan (dkt. 26) and the claimant has withdrawn its objection to confirmation (see dkt. 27) so it appears that the parties have settled their disputes, thereby mooting this claim objection. Alternatively, by failing to file either a withdrawal or declaration (as this Court directed) the debtor has failed to prosecute this matter so it will be denied for lack of prosecution. For these alternative reasons, the tentative ruling is to deny the claim objection.

(1) The claim objection fails to include a sufficient cost/benefit analysis.
Judge Bason's posted Procedures (available at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) state:

When objecting to claims, be sure to consider whether the costs of preparing and litigating the claim objection (administrative expenses) do not exceed the anticipated benefits (reductions in claims). For example, if the anticipated dividend is small or 0%, your claim objection to any general unsecured claim should clearly explain how it is justified to incur the attorney fees for that objection.

No later than 7/9/18 the movant must file either:

(a) a supplemental declaration explaining why the attorney fees for this objection are justified (including supporting evidence, such as a copy of the plan showing the projected dividend to the claimant, and a calculation comparing that projected dividend against the attorney fees related to this claim objection), or

(b) a withdrawal of the claim objection.

(2) No additional fees absent specific order. Counsel is prohibited from charging any additional fees related to this continuance and any supplemental papers addressing the cost/benefit analysis, unless this Court expressly states in a future tentative ruling or written order that such fees may be charged.

Tentative Ruling:

Appearances required. Deny for the reasons stated in the opposition of Transamerica Life Insurance Company and its servicing agent (dkt. 173, 174), and for the following additional reasons.

"[N]o authority exists for "reinstating" an automatic stay that has been lifted." See In re Canter, 299 F.3d 1150, 1155 n.1 (9th Cir. 2002).

The debtor's remedy (if any) would be to seek injunctive relief, which would have required an adversary proceeding and also would have required sufficient grounds for injunctive relief (a difficult burden in view of the parties' earlier stipulation and this Court's order approving it, dkt. 67, 84). See In re Ramirez, 188 B.R. 413, 416 (9th Cir. BAP 1995) (Klein, J. concurring) ("In order to have a vacated stay `reimposed,' one must ordinarily file an adversary proceeding seeking an injunction under 11 U.S.C. § 105.") (citations omitted).

Alternatively, the debtor conceivably could have sought reconsideration under Rule 9024 (Fed. R. Bankr. P.) if there were newly discovered evidence, a change in the law, or other grounds satisfying the elements of that rule. But the debtor has neither briefed nor establish such grounds. See In re Gledhill, 76 F.3d 1070, 1078-80 (10th Cir. 1996). See generally In re Wishon, 410 B.R. 295, 307-310 (Bankr. D. Or. 2009) (discussing foregoing concepts and declining to reimpose automatic stay).

Appearances required. The tentative rulings are set forth below. In addition, the tentative ruling is to set a continued status conference on 8/16/18 at 10:00 a.m., or such alternative time as may be ordered at the hearing.

(1) Current issues.

(a) Motion to Confirm Dean Rallis as Agent (dkt. 536). Grant (approve the appointment of Dean Rallis, Esq. as Agent) under the Term Sheet, as amended (see below), and subject to the provisions of this Court's order approving the settlement (dkt. 528, paragraphs 3, 4, and 6-8). The tentative ruling to grant this motion is based on the representation in the motion (dkt. 536, p.9:5-9) that the parties who objected/reserved their rights to object have now consented to the appointment of Mr. Ralis. (This Court disregards the invective, id. n.3 & accompanying text.) If that is incorrect then this tentative ruling is subject to any opposition at the hearing (see OST, dkt. 538). This tentative ruling is also based on this Court's review of the other relevant documents. See dkt. 495 (selection of proposed agent), 528 (order approving settlement), 531 (objection), 535 (Committee support), 536 (motion), Application for Order Shortening Time (dkt. 537, 540) and evidence of service (dkt. 541).

Proposed order: Counsel for the debtor is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

(b) 9019 Motion (see Term Sheet, dkt. 445, 528). This Court's Order (dkt. 528) approving Settlement directed the parties to prepare, sign and file a final version of the "Term Sheet" reflecting certain modifications. This Court notes that the debtor appears to have circulated a revised Term Sheet (dkt. 536, Ex.A) that incorporates the changes discussed on the record, although that revised Term Sheet is not "redlined" and this Court has not engaged in any line-by-line review of its terms. In any event, the parties are directed to provide a status report on when a declaration will be filed with this Court memorializing the fully executed final Term Sheet.

(c) Motion to Extend Time to Assume or Reject Lease (dkt. 457). The tentative ruling is to continue this motion to the date and time of the continued status conference, for the authorized Agent to consider and take a position on the merits of this motion.

Analysis: Although the debtor argues (e.g., in dkt. 534) that she is prejudiced by any lack of immediate decision on pending matters, the tentative ruling is that the debtor has not established undue prejudice because of (i) the debtor's own delay in selecting a nominee to be the Agent, (ii) the debtor's ability to engage in numerous other activities to attempt to turn around her finances without having to wait for those particular pending matters to be resolved, and (iii) the fact that, as this Court interprets the deadlines in the Term Sheet, "Approval" of the settlement did not occur until "entry" of an order approving the settlement (see dkt. 474, Ex.C, section 1, 1st paragraph, penultimate sentence), and the oral ruling was not entered on the docket, only the written order (dkt. 528) was entered, so the time of Approval (which commences the time for the debtor to perform various tasks under the Term Sheet) did not commence until entry of that written order on 7/25/18.

(d) Motion to Assume and Assign 1629 Griffith Lease (Presbytery) (dkt. 351). Continue to the date and time of the continued status conference, for the authorized Agent to consider the merits of this motion, for the same reasons as stated in section (1)(c) of this tentative ruling, above.

(e) Motion to Expand Scope of Kaplan Employment (dkt. 461, 480, 497, 505, 534). Continue to the date and time of the continued status conference, for the authorized Agent to consider the merits of this motion, for the same reasons as stated in section (1)(c) of this tentative ruling, above.

(f) Scheduling Conference re: Evidentiary Hearing on Motion to Assume 1356 Palmetto Lease (Bridge Tavern/Villain's) (dkt. 187). At the 7/18/18 hearing, this Court was informed that the proposed assignee/buyer had withdrawn. This Court subsequently issued an Order (dkt. 501) deeming the portion of the motion that sought to assign the lease moot and withdrawn, and continuing the portion of the motion that seeks to assume the lease to this hearing solely for scheduling further proceedings on this motion. The parties should be prepared to address a schedule for this motion and/or whether to continue the scheduling matters so that the Agent can determine whether or not to pursue this motion and related matters.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 3/6/18.

(a) Bar date: 8/24/18 (dkt. 367, timely served on 6/19/18 per dkt. 383)

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: TBD.

(c) Continued status conference: Date and time set forth at the start of this tentative ruling. No written status report is required.

*Warning: special procedures apply (see order setting initial status conference).

Tentative Ruling for 7/16/18:

Appearances required. The tentative rulings are set forth below. In addition, the tentative ruling is to set a continued status conference on 7/27/18 at 9:00 a.m., or such alternative time as may be ordered at the hearing.

(1) Current issues.

(a) 9019 Motion (see Term Sheet, dkt. 445). This Court will address the objections filed by Mr. Casanova (dkt. 465, 466) and The Presbytery of the Pacific (the "Presbytery") (dkt. 467) and the replies filed by the debtor (dkt. 472) and by the Archbishop/Institute and the Bird Nest (dkt. 474). Among other things, this Court will address whether the Term Sheet can be approved without the further documentation that is contemplated by the settling parties. In that regard, the parties should address the proposed amendment to paragraph 6 of the Term Sheet. See dkt. 474, Ex.C.

This Court expresses no present opinion on those issues. This Court is intentionally withholding any further tentative ruling on those matters so as not to disrupt potential settlement discussions among those parties, but if the parties have not agreed to the proposed amendment to paragraph 6 (or some other resolution) then this Court intends to provide a tentative ruling at the commencement of the hearing.

The parties are encouraged to meet and confer about the foregoing issues. If, at the end of the hearing, there are issues that remain to be addressed, then the parties should be prepared to address whether this Court should set a continued hearing on the date and time specified at the start of this tentative ruling or some other date.

(b) Stay relief motion (appellate litigation with Bird Nest and Archbishop/Institute) (dkt. 68). Continue to the date and time set forth at the start of this tentative ruling, if this motion is not mooted by the disposition of the settlement motion.

(c) Exclusivity motion (dkt. 308, 348, 422). Continue to the date and time set forth at the start of this tentative ruling, and meanwhile extend exclusivity for the same amount of time, on the same terms and conditions as this Court's Prior Order (dkt. 422) - i.e., no incurring of fees or expenses for plan-related work. This Court calculates that the extensions would be as follows: (i) The 120-day period specified in section 1121(c)(2) and (d)(1) (deadline for filing a plan) will be further extended from 8/15/18 (see dkt. 422) to and including 9/19/18, and (ii) the 180-day period specified in section 1121(c)(3) and (d)(1) (deadline for acceptance of plan by impaired classes) will be further extended from 10/15/18 (see dkt. 422) to and including 11/19/18.

(d) Cash Collateral motion (dkt. 5). Continue to the date and time set forth at the start of this tentative ruling, and meanwhile extend the interim authorized use of cash collateral through and including the conclusion of the continued hearing subject to the same terms and conditions as previously authorized by this Court (see dkt. 29, 79, 239, 244, 347, 413), if this motion is not mooted by the disposition of the settlement motion.

(e) Bridge Tavern, LLC asset sale motion (dkt. 112). Continue to the date and time set forth at the start of this tentative ruling.

(f) Villain's Tavern reopening motion (dkt. 214). Grant. Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

(g) Trustee appointment motion (dkt. 332). Continue to the date and time set forth at the start of this tentative ruling, if this motion is not mooted by the disposition of the settlement motion.

(h) Security Deposit refund motion (dkt. 350). Grant. Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the

(i) Budget motion (dkt. 96). Extend the interim authorization through and including the date of the continued hearing and meanwhile approve the budget subject to the same terms and conditions as previously authorized by the Court (see dkt. 340), if this motion is not mooted by the disposition of the settlement motion.

(j) Claim objection (Bird Nest) (dkt. 292). Continue to the date and time set forth at the start of this tentative ruling, if this motion is not mooted by the disposition of the settlement motion.

(k) Claim objection (Institute) (dkt. 296). Continue to the date and time set forth at the start of this tentative ruling, if this motion is not mooted by the disposition of the settlement motion.

(l) Claim objection (Archbishop) (dkt. 294). Continue to the date and time set forth at the start of this tentative ruling, if this motion is not mooted by the disposition of the settlement motion.

(m) Vehicle refinance motion (dkt. 216). Continue to the date and time set forth at the start of this tentative ruling, if this motion is not mooted by the disposition of the settlement motion.

(n) Vehicle relief from Stay motion (dkt. 349). The hearing on this motion has been vacated, and this matter is off calendar (see Adequate Protection Order, dkt. 444).

(o) Motion to Assume and Assign 1629 Griffith Lease (dkt. 351). Continue to the date and time set forth at the start of this tentative ruling.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 3/6/18.

(a) Bar date: 8/24/18 (dkt. 367, timely served on 6/19/18 per dkt. 383)

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: TBD.

(c) Continued status conference: Date and time set forth at the start of this tentative ruling. No written status report is required.

by consent, then you may waive your right to be heard on matters that are appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

Tentative Ruling for 6/22/18:
Appearances required.

(1) Current issues.

(a) Urbanlime/Haro employment (dkt. 93, 253), Bridge Tavern (Villain's) Reopening Motion (dkt. 214, previously granted, dkt. 339, but rescheduled per dkt.369 para. 4.5), Sale Motion (dkt. 112, temporarily denied, dkt. 369, 385) and Lease Assignment Motion (dkt. 187, re-set for hearing, dkt. 388). The parties should be prepared to address the issues set forth in this Court's orders (dkt. 369, 378, 385, 388) setting this hearing.

(b) Motion to extend exclusivity (dkt. 308, 312, 333, 348). The tentative ruling is to preserve the status quo by:

(ii) if the Trustee Motion is denied, then extending exclusivity through at least 8/14/18 (any further extension will be addressed at the hearing on 7/10/18 at 2:00 p.m.), so that Mr. Tilem will have the time he has stated he would need to draft a plan (approximately 30 days); and

(iii) if the Trustee motion is granted, then terminate exclusivity.

(c) Cash collateral motion (dkt. 5, 14, 15, 29, 74, 151, 152, 163, 164, 167, 168, 171, 172, 176, 185, 244). The tentative ruling is to continue this matter to 7/10/18 at 2:00 p.m., and meanwhile authorize the continued use of cash collateral through the conclusion of that continued hearing.

(d) Relief from stay motion (dkt. 68, 79, 141, 147, 154, 162, 222 section v., 270, 312). The tentative ruling is to continue this matter to 7/10/18 at 2:00 p.m.

(e) Expansion of Insul employment (dkt. 305). Please see calendar no. 2 (6/22/18 at 10:00 a.m.).

(f) Hearings on 7/10/18. Some matters in this case have been self-calendared for 7/10/18 at 1:00 p.m. The tentative ruling is that all matters set for 7/10/18 in this case will be heard at 2:00 p.m.

by consent, then you may waive your right to be heard on matters that are appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

Tentative Ruling for 3/20/18:

Appearances required by counsel for the debtor. Other parties in interest are invited but not required to appear.

Telephonic appearances are encouraged if advance arrangements are made (see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.", "Instructions/Procedures").

(1) Current issues.

(a) Cash flow and cash collateral motion (dkt. 5, 14, 15, 29). This Court's written order (dkt. 29) erroneously lists the continued hearing as 3/20/18 instead of 4/17/18 at 2:00 p.m., as orally ordered at the hearing on 3/9/18. Nevertheless, it is appropriate in connection with this Status Conference to address the debtor's current and projected cash flow and related issues.

This Court was not persuaded at the hearing on 3/9/18 that the debtor can generate positive cash flow. The debtor is directed to provide a brief update on any plans to generate positive cash flow from her various businesses and properties. It is also appropriate for other parties in interest to address whether there has been adequate disclosure to date regarding the finances of those businesses and properties. The debtor is cautioned that the declaration due on 3/27/18 must provide comprehensive disclosures regarding those businesses and properties: if the debtor cannot show reasonable prospects for positive cash flow within a reasonable time then this Court might have to grant relief from the automatic stay (upon a proper motion), or convert or dismiss this bankruptcy case, at least if the debtor does not abandon unprofitable businesses or properties.

(b) Employment applications. The parties should be prepared to address the oppositions (dkt. 56, 57) and the direct and indirect source(s) of funds used by the debtor to pay prepetition retainers (see dkt. 48, and cf. dkt. 9, p.6, dkt. 18, p.8, dkt. 20, p.8 - blank spaces instead of disclosure), including when the liens against the 1902 property arose (dkt. 48, Ex.A). In addition, the parties should be prepared to address the following issues:

(i) Proposed bankruptcy counsel - Tilem (dkt. 9, 10): (i) Why were resumes for associates, paralegals, and persons who are "of counsel" to the firm not included? (ii) Has counsel waived or amended the provisions in the retainer agreement regarding the "evergreen" retainer; "overtime" rates, and any attorney's lien? (iii) As for proposed out-sourcing, counsel must address whether employment of such counsel could result in imputed or actual conflicts of interest from any work performed by such attorneys for their own clients or for other law firms.

(ii) Proposed special counsel: the Robins firm and Horvitz firm (dkt. 18, 19, 20, 21). The hourly rates of proposed counsel at the Robins firm and Horvitz firm are substantially greater than those for the debtor's proposed general bankruptcy counsel and the Snyder firm. How will the debtor - acting as a debtor in possession with the duties of a trustee for the benefit of creditors - assure that the potential benefits are not outweighed by the costs that can be reasonably anticipated in connection with the ongoing litigation with Birds Nest, the Archbishop, and the Institute (as those terms are defined in the parties' papers)?

(iii) Proposed special counsel: the Snyder firm (dkt. 36, 37). (i) What is the nature of the litigation in which that firm represents the debtor and co-plaintiff, Bridge Tavern, LLC against Odysseuss Investment Group, LLC? (ii) What are the potential costs/risks and benefits? (iii) Is there any actual or potential conflict of interest between the two plaintiffs (e.g., if any judgment in their favor were to be allocated between them in a way that is unfavorable to one or the other)? (iv) From the description at the status conference on 3/9/18 it seemed that the Snyder firm might be assisting the debtor now or in future in transactional matters - is that so?

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 3/6/18.

(a) Bar date: TBD

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: TBD

(c) Continued status conference: 4/17/18 at 2:00 p.m., status report due 4/3/18. (see order, dkt. 30).

DEBTOR

Docket 24

Tentative Ruling:

Grant as provided below. Appearances are not required.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

The automatic stay does not apply. This case has been dismissed, which terminates the automatic stay. See 11 U.S.C. 349(b)(3) & 362(c).

In the alternative and in addition, this court grants relief from the automatic stay as follows.

Termination. Terminate the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1) and (d)(2).

Any co-debtor stay (11 U.S.C. 1301(c)) is also terminated, because it has not been shown to have any basis to exist independent of the stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(a). To the extent, if any, that the motion seeks to terminate the automatic stay in other past or pending bankruptcy cases, such relief is denied on the present record. See In re Ervin (Case No. 14-bk-18204-NB, docket no. 311).

Effective date of relief. Grant the request to waive the 14-day stay provided by FRBP 4001(a)(3).

(261 East Barbour Street, Banning, CA 92220)

Ramirez Zuniga Family LLC
DEBTOR

Docket 25

Tentative Ruling:

Grant as provided below. Appearances are not required.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

The automatic stay does not apply. This case has been dismissed, which terminates the automatic stay. See 11 U.S.C. 349(b)(3) & 362(c).

In the alternative and in addition, this court grants relief from the automatic stay as follows.

Termination. Terminate the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1) and (d)(2).

Any co-debtor stay (11 U.S.C. 1301(c)) is also terminated, because it has not been shown to have any basis to exist independent of the stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(a). To the extent, if any, that the motion seeks to terminate the automatic stay in other past or pending bankruptcy cases, such relief is denied on the present record. See In re Ervin (Case No. 14-bk-18204-NB, docket no. 311).

Effective date of relief. Grant the request to waive the 14-day stay provided by FRBP 4001(a)(3).

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

Termination. Terminate the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1).

Any co-debtor stay (11 U.S.C. 1301(c)) is also terminated, because it has not been shown to have any basis to exist independent of the stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(a). To the extent, if any, that the motion seeks to terminate the automatic stay in other past or pending bankruptcy cases, such relief is denied on the present record. See In re Ervin (Case No. 14-bk-18204-NB, docket no. 311).

Effective date of relief. Deny the request to waive the 14-day stay provided by FRBP 4001(a)(3) for lack of sufficient cause shown.

vs
DEBTOR

Docket 12

Tentative Ruling:

Grant as provided below. Appearances are not required.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

Termination. Terminate the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1) and (d)(2).

Any co-debtor stay (11 U.S.C. 1301(c)) is also terminated, because it has not been shown to have any basis to exist independent of the stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(a). To the extent, if any, that the motion seeks to terminate the automatic stay in other past or pending bankruptcy cases, such relief is denied on the present record. See In re Ervin (Case No. 14-bk-18204-NB, docket no. 311).

Effective date of relief. Grant the request to waive the 14-day stay provided by FRBP 4001(a)(3).

Chapter 13

#27.00 Hrg re: Motion in Individual Case for Order Imposing a Stay or Continuing the Automatic Stay as the Court Deems Appropriate

Docket 10

Tentative Ruling:

Appearances required. The tentative ruling is to deny the motion, and issue an order to show cause ("OSC") why counsel for the debtor should not be sanctioned, because (1) the motion fails to give adequate notice of the relief being sought - in fact, it appears to be an attempt to obtain an order imposing the stay without mentioning that it is really seeking relief from the "in rem" order in favor of Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. (dkt. 15, Ex. A) - and (2) because the debtor has not provided sufficient evidence of "changed circumstances" or "good cause" for relief from that in rem order.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order denying the motion via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this court's final ruling. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B). If this Court is not persuaded to depart from the tentative ruling to issue an OSC, this Court will prepare the OSC.

Key documents reviewed (in addition to motion papers): oppositions of Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. ("Wells Fargo") (dkt. 15) and the Northlake Homeowners Association (dkt. 16), and the debtor's reply (dkt. 22).

(1) Lack of sufficient notice. The motion is on Local Form F 4001-1.IMPOSE.STAY.MOTION which seeks relief under 11 U.S.C. 362(c)(3) or (4) when a case of the debtor was pending within the previous year and was dismissed (with certain exceptions). The debtor had no such cases, the the motion admits (see dkt. 10, p.3, para. d.2.). The motion never cites 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(4), provides a copy of the in rem order, or states that the debtor is seeking "relief from such order based upon changed circumstances or for good cause shown." Id.

Therefore, the motion fails to provide adequate notice of what is being sought. Moreover, the motion was not served until 7/12/18 (dkt. 10, last two pages) without any order shortening time. In addition, the notice of motion (dkt. 10, first two pages) incorrectly states that an application for an order shortening time has been filed and remains pending, and that creditors will be served with a further notice once the court has ruled on that application. For all of these reasons the tentative ruling is to deny the motion for lack of adequate notice.

(2) Order to show cause re sanctions. All of the foregoing can be interpreted as an attempt to mislead Wells Fargo into not realizing that the debtor was seeking relief from the in rem order. By filing the wrong form of motion, and obtaining the local form order on that motion (Local Form F 4001-1.IMPOSE.STAY.ORDER) the debtor could have obtained an order that would appear, at least, to impose the automatic stay against Wells Fargo without having met the standards required by 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(4). This appears to be a misuse of the bankruptcy system, and a basis for this Court to issue an OSC. At the hearing, counsel for the debtor is directed to address why this Court should not issue an OSC.

In addition to the foregoing relief, the tentative ruling is to deny the motion even if this Court were (hypothetically) persuaded to excuse the lack of adequate notice, and the apparent misuse of the bankruptcy system, and reach the merits. The reason is that the motion fails to meet the standards for relief under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(4), as explained below.

(3) Evidence of intent to hinder, delay, or defraud. The debtor and his spouse have filed nine bankruptcy cases between them. See dkt. 16, Rosenbaum Decl., para. 7, at PDF p.6 (listing 5 bankruptcy cases by the debtor's wife and two prior cases by the debtor) and see dkt. 22, p.2:2-6 (debtor's reply, conceding sixth case by wife, which is the one in which the in rem order was entered). The debtor has not denied, let alone presented persuasive evidence to rebut, that this string of bankruptcy cases was intended to hinder, delay, or defraud creditors. This Court notes that the statute is in the disjunctive - hinder, delay, or defraud, see 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(4). Moreover, the record before this Court shows that creditors actually were hindered, delayed, and/or defrauded because those bankruptcy filings caused years of delay and hindrance in exercising remedies for nonpayment (see dkt. 15 and dkt. 16 Ex.A), and meanwhile the interest and other charges continued to accrue while the property was under water.

(4) Lack of evidence of changed circumstances or other good cause shown.

The debtor has not provided evidence to support his alleged current and future income. As the objecting parties point out, real estate commissions tend to be uncertain and variable. That is illustrated by the debtor's lack of substantial commissions during a robust and rising real estate market of the past several years (of which this Court takes judicial notice). It is also illustrated by the lack of evidence of the debtor's alleged "new job" (apparently, according to bankruptcy Schedule I, as a self-employed "entrepreneur") starting in "January of 2018, which is [allegedly] paying $7,500.00 salary [gross? monthly?]." Dkt. 22, p.2:27. The debtor's lack of support for these alleged sources of income is highlighted by:

(a) his variable and insufficient past income as reflected in his accumulated arrears and on the SOFA Part 2 (dkt. 9 at PDF pp. 28-29), ranging from $101,876 in 2016 to $37,450 in 2017, which is insufficient to cover his expenses of $8,389/mo. or $100,668/yr. ( $$8,389 \times 12 = $100,668/\text{yr.}$ ) (see Schedule J, dkt. 9 at PDF p.26), and

(b) his lack of evidence of current income, or projected future income, such as a detailed statement of gross revenues, expenses, and calculation of net income as required by the instructions in item 8a of Schedule I at dkt. 9, PDF p.24 (the debtor has - either intentionally or inadvertently - evaded that requirement by listing his income as an entrepreneur on line 2 and his real estate commissions on line 8h; and in any event neither his motion papers nor his reply papers provide any detail or evidence to support his alleged current or projected future gross revenues, expenses, and net income).

Docket 9

Tentative Ruling:

Grant, subject to the following conditions. Appearances are not required.

After the hearing date this court will prepare an order and the tentative ruling is to include the following language in that order:

The stay of 11 U.S.C. 362(a) applies subject to the following modifications and conditions:

(1) Service and reconsideration. Any party in interest who was not timely served in accordance with FRBP 7004 (incorporated by FRBP 9014(b)) is hereby granted through 14 days after proper service to seek reconsideration, including retroactive relief (under FRBP 9023 and/or 9024). Any such person (a) may set a hearing on 14 days' notice, (b) may appear by telephone (if arrangements are made per Judge Bason's posted procedures), and (c) may present all arguments orally at the hearing (i.e., no written argument is required). If written arguments appear necessary then this court will set a briefing schedule at the hearing.

(2) Reasons. (a) It appears appropriate to impose the automatic stay, and to impose it as to all persons rather than just as to selected persons, because one purpose of the automatic stay is to preventing a "race to collect" that could unfairly advantage some creditors at the expense of others. (b) To prevent possible abuse, this court provides the foregoing simple process for reconsideration.

Tentative Ruling:

Appearances are not required. The motion is defective. It refers to attached declarations but none are attached. It also fails to list the debtor's prior bankruptcy cases (there are two that were dismissed within the year before this case was filed: Case No. 2:17-bk-21186-NB and 2:17-bk-24025-SK). In addition, the debtor's prosecution of this case appears to have numerous problems. See, e.g., Trustee's Objections to Confirmation (dkt. 31).

Nevertheless, no party in interest has objected to the motion, and the relief that it seeks, and grounds therefor, can be adequately discerned. Therefore the tentative ruling is to grant the motion and find good faith solely for purposes of this motion (i.e., not for any other purposes, such as the Trustee's objection to confirmation). This tentative ruling is also subject to the following conditions.

Imposing a Stay or Continuing the Automatic

[Judge Brand's case]

Docket 14

Tentative Ruling:

Appearances required. This Court has reviewed the motion papers (dkt. 13, 14, 16, 19, 20), the opposition papers (dkt. 27) filed by Gap Fund, LLC ("Gap"), and other filed documents.

The tentative ruling is to deny the motion for the following reasons.

Analysis:

(1) Background.

The debtor seeks an order continuing the automatic stay in this case pursuant to 11 U.S.C. 362(c)(3). The motion (dkt. 14, pp. 3-4) only references the real property at 39926 Golfers Drive Palmdale, CA 93551 ("Golfers Drive Property") and 343 West 74th Street Los Angeles, CA 90003 ("74th Street Property") and names two creditors in particular (apparently the holders of deeds of trust against the Golfers Property): (1) US Bank, and (2) Real Time Resolutions. However, debtor's declaration (dkt. 14, para 11) states that debtor requests continuance of the stay as to all creditors.

At the hearing the debtor is directed to clarify whether relief is sought as to all property of the estate. The tentative ruling is that any attempt to do otherwise would inappropriately discriminate among creditors.

For example, if the debtor seeks to stay acts against the Golfers Drive Property but not stay garnishment of wages, that might create a race to seize those wages. Such an unrestricted race to seize assets could be disruptive to the orderly restructuring of the debtor's finances that is at the heart of the Bankruptcy Code's attempt to treat creditors equally and maximize creditors' recoveries.

Accordingly, the tentative ruling is interpret the ambiguous motion as a request to continue the automatic stay as against all property and creditors.

(2) The automatic stay will terminate 30 days after the petition date unless this Court enters an order extending it.

On 7/13/15 the debtor filed a voluntary chapter 13 petition (2:15-bk-21069-NB) (the "Prior Case"). The Prior Case was dismissed on 6/18/18 at the request of the chapter 13 trustee for failure to make plan payments (id., dkt. 113, 131). Less than a year later, on 7/13/18, the debtor filed this chapter 13 case. Therefore, the automatic stay will terminate on 8/12/18 if this court does not extend the stay, pursuant to 11 U.S.C. 362(c)(3):

(3) if a single or joint case is filed by or against a debtor who is an individual in a case under chapter 7, 11, or 13, and if a single or joint case of the debtor was pending within the preceding 1-year period but was dismissed, other than a case refiled under a chapter other than chapter 7 after dismissal under section 707(b) –

(A) the stay under subsection (a) with respect to any action taken with respect to a debt or property securing such debt or with respect to any lease shall terminate with respect to the debtor on the 30th day after the filing of the later case;

(B) on motion of a party in interest for continuation of the automatic stay and upon notice and a hearing, the court may extend the stay in particular cases as to any or all creditors (subject to such conditions or limitations as the court may then impose) after notice and a hearing completed before the expiration of the 30-day period only if the party in interest demonstrates that the filing of the later case is in good faith as to the creditors to be stayed. [Emphasis added.]

The parties have not briefed the legal standards applicable to 11 U.S.C. 362(c). First, there is authority that if the automatic stay is not continued beyond 30 days then it terminates in all aspects, i.e., not only as to the debtor individually but as to all parties and the bankruptcy estate. In re Reswick, 446 B.R. 362 (9th Cir. Second, there is authority that "good faith" is a factual inquiry, although to the extent the statute defines what is good faith the interpretation of the statute is a legal question. See generally, e.g., In re Ellsworth, 455 B.R. 904, 914, 917 (9th Cir. BAP 2011) (holding that good and bad faith in other contexts are factual inquiries). *Cf. U.S. Bank v. what are legal).

Third, the factual nature of "good faith" does not necessarily mean that live testimony is required. See, e.g., In re Nicholson, 435 B.R. 622, 635-36 (9th Cir. BAP 2010). In fact, the tentative ruling is that, just like hearings on whether to grant relief from the automatic stay, any hearing on whether to continue the automatic stay is intended to be an expedited, summary proceeding, not a full blown trial. See 11 U.S.C. 362(c)(3)(B) (30 day limit to conclude hearing), and compare 11 U.S.C. 362(d)&(e) (30 day limit to conclude hearing) and In re Johnson, 756 F.2d 738, 740 (9th Cir. 1995) (summary nature of proceedings on whether to grant relief from stay); In re Veal, 450 B.R. 897, 914-15 (9th Cir. BAP 2011) (same, requiring only "colorable" basis for standing to seek relief from stay).

Fourth, the "good faith" inquiry is narrowly focused on the filing of the petition. For example, debtors sometimes argue that because they have a genuine desire to retain a roof over their and their family's heads they are acting in good faith, but the question is not the genuineness of that motive. The question is whether the debtor had a sufficient basis to believe that the current bankruptcy case could be properly prosecuted notwithstanding the dismissal of one or more earlier bankruptcy cases. In a reorganization case, such as this one, the tentative ruling is that the test of good faith is analogous to a standard test of whether relief from the automatic stay is appropriate: when the petition was filed, did the debtor have a good faith basis to believe that there would be "a reasonable possibility of a successful reorganization within a reasonable time." United Savings Assn. v. Timbers of Inwood Forest, 484 U.S. 365, 376 (1988) (interpreting 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(2)) (citation and internal quotation marks omitted), and see 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(3)(A) (similar test in single asset real estate cases).

Fifth, a finding of good faith for the preliminary purpose of whether to continue the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(c)(3) is not necessarily determinative of good faith for any other purposes. See, e.g., 11 U.S.C. 1129 (a)(3), and In re Abdelgadir, 455 B.R. 896, 900 (9th Cir. BAP 2011).

(3) The tentative ruling is that this case presumptively was not filed in good faith, that presumption is only rebuttable by clear and convincing evidence, and the debtor has not met her burden to do so.

The statute provides, in relevant part:

(C) ... a case is presumptively filed not in good faith (but such presumption may be rebutted by clear and convincing evidence to the contrary) – as to all creditors, if –

...

(cc) perform the terms of a plan confirmed by the court; or

...

(III) there has not been [x] a substantial change in the financial or personal affairs of the debtor since the dismissal of the next most previous case under chapter 7, 11, or 13 or [y] any other reason to conclude that the later case will be concluded –

(bb) if a case under chapter 11 or 13, with a confirmed plan that will be fully performed. [11 U.S.C. 362(c)(3)(C) (emphasis added)]

(a) Failure to perform the terms of the confirmed plan in the Prior Case. Debtor's motion acknowledges that the Prior Case was dismissed because she failed to perform the terms of her confirmed chapter 13 plan (dkt. 14, p. 8). Debtor states that she was unable to make her plan payments because of extensive car repair bills, a broken foot that prevented her from working full time, and damages to the 74th Street Property that resulted in the tenant withholding rental income (id.).

Therefore, the presumption of lack of good faith applies, and it can only be rebutted by clear and convincing evidence.

(b) Insufficient evidence of a substantial change in circumstances, or other reasons to believe that this case will conclude in a confirmed and fully performed plan. Debtor states that there has been a substantial change in her personal or financial affairs since dismissal of the Prior Case (i.e. since 6/18/18) because "[she] is back to work full time, her car transmission is fixed and the rental property is back to code and [she] is receiving the Section 8 voucher again." (dkt. 14, p. 9).

Gap argues (dkt. 27) that the debtor has failed to demonstrate a substantial change in circumstances. On the one hand, this Court is not persuaded by Gap's argument that the costs of (i) being out of work on half-pay (implicitly for a substantial time) or (ii) damage to a rental property (that is implicitly extensive) are necessarily "expenses that one should expect to arise from time to time" (dkt. 27, p.5, para.13). On the other hand, this Court is persuaded that vehicle repairs should be expected, and in addition the debtor has not provided any evidence (let alone clear and convincing evidence) to corroborate (1) the alleged vehicle expenses, (2) why damage to her toe prevented her from working at her regular job (e.g., a doctor's evaluation that she could not work, even with a cast or other treatment), (3) for how long she allegedly was unable to work, and why her injury allegedly prevented her from earning alternative income (e.g., sedentary work), (4) the extent of damage to her rental property, (5) how long that damage resulted in a loss of rental income, (6) why that damage could not have been repaired soon enough to prevent or minimize an interruption in rental income, (7) why that damage (and any loss of rental income) was not covered by insurance, (8) whether the vehicle expenses, broken toe, and damage to the rental property were not in fact "expenses that one should expect to arise from time to time" (dkt. 27, p.5, para.13), (9) why events that happened years ago are still relevant, or (10) any other facts and circumstances that would establish her good faith by clear and convincing evidence.

Additionally, even though the debtor states that those financial hardships are now behind her, the debtor has not presented any evidence to show any actual changes in her financial or personal circumstances (e.g., that she is generating higher rental or employment income, etc.). Instead, the debtor's purported change in circumstances appears (at least implicitly) to be that debtor does not anticipate the same financial hardships that prevented her from performing the terms of her plan in the Prior Case to occur in this case. The tentative ruling is that this is insufficient evidence of a substantial change in circumstances, because debtor has not explained how she is in a better position to deal with similar events that likely will occur during the course of this case without defaulting on any proposed plan.

In sum, there is a presumption of lack of good faith; that presumption can only be rebutted by clear and convincing evidence; and the debtor has not met her burden to do so.

(4) Insufficient Service/Notice. In addition to the foregoing, (a) the docket does not reflect that the debtor served the order shortening time (dkt. 17, the OST) as directed in paragraph 3.(b)(3) of the OST, with a deadline of 7/26/18), and (b) to the contrary, the docket includes a misleading notice (dkt. 20) which states that any opposition was due 14 days prior to the hearing (an impossibility, because the notice itself was not served until 14 days prior to the hearing). (The tentative ruling is also to disregard the service via facsimile (dkt. 16, 19) for lack of compliance with Rule 9014(b) (Fed. R. Bankr. P.) (incorporating Rule 4 and Rule 5(b)(2)(E), Fed. R. Civ. P.).)

(6) Conclusion.

The tentative ruling is that there is a presumption that the debtor has not filed this case in good faith for two alternative reasons: first, she failed to perform the terms of a confirmed plan without substantial excuse; and second, she has not presented enough evidence of a change in her personal and financial circumstances to believe in good faith, as of the petition date, that this case has a reasonable possibility of resulting in a confirmed and fully performed plan. The burden is on the debtor to rebut this presumption by clear and convincing evidence and she has not done so.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." #3.00 Hrg re: Motion to: (1) Approve Sale of Real Property Commonly Known as 16520 La Quinta Way, Whittier, California Free and Clear of Liens and Claims, and (2) Authorize Payment of Real Estate Brokers Commissions

Tentative Ruling:

Appearances required. Subject to overbids, and the issues noted below, the tentative ruling is to grant the motion.

Proposed order: If this Court grants the Motion, Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this court's final ruling. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

Key documents reviewed (in addition to motion papers): Debtor's schedules (dkt. 1); Stipulation Between Trustee and U.S. on Behalf of IRS re: Sale of Real Property (dkt. 81, 83); Notice of Sale of Estate Property (LBR 6004-2) (dkt. 128); Construction Laborers Trust Funds' Response (dkt. 130)

Current Issues:

(1) Whether the Property is Property of the Estate. In order to authorize a sale of real property under section 363, this Court must first determine that the property is property of the estate. Debtor's schedules state that as of the petition date he owned a 100% fee simple interest in the property (dkt. 1, pdf p. 11), but the trustee concedes that title to the property "appears to be vested in Debtor's trust, the 'Grayson Family Trust Dated 2/8/2004'" and that "[d]espite his best efforts, the Trustee has been unable to obtain a copy of the Debtor's trust ...." (dkt. 126, pdf p. 7). Nevertheless, the Trustee relies on California Probate Code section 18200 in support of his position that he has the power to revoke the debtor's trust and exercises that power to bring the property into this estate.

As of the preparation of this tentative ruling, this Court is not aware of any party-in-interest asserting an ownership interest in the property or otherwise challenging the Trustee's assertion that it belongs entirely to this estate. In addition, it appears that implicit in the motion is the Trustee's assertion that all steps necessary to revoke any trust that exists have been taken or should be excused, and no party in interest has objected to that assertion.

Therefore, on the record before it, this Court could make a finding that the property is property of the estate that can be sold free and clear under section 363. But any such finding is premised upon a determination that the Trustee gave proper notice to all possible beneficiaries of the trust and/or heirs of the debtor. See In re Popp, 323 B.R. 260 (9th Cir. BAP 2005) (reversing approval of a sale of real property under section 363 where the bankruptcy court made a determination that the estate was authorized to sell the property while litigation over ownership was pending).

This Court notes that the Trustee's proof of service reflects service on "Anastasia Grayson, individually and as potential beneficiary of the Grayson Family Trust dated 2/8/2004" (dkt. 126, PDF p. 75). But the Trustee should be prepared to address whether Ms. Grayson is the only possible beneficiary and/or heir and, if not, whether all possible beneficiaries and heirs have been served with the papers.

(2) Good faith finding. The tentative ruling is that any buyer must provide declaration(s) disclosing any connections with the debtor and the trustee, and otherwise addressing the issue of good faith, as set forth in the posted procedures for Judge Bason (available at www.cacb.uscourts.gov).

(3) No 14 day stay. The motion requests that this Court order that there be no 14 day stay under Rule 6004(h) (Fed. R. Bankr. P.). In view of the lack of opposition to the motion, this Court's tentative ruling is to grant that request.

(4) Eviction, if necessary, of any occupants. The tentative ruling is that inherent in granting the motion for a sale free and clear of all interests is the authorization for the Trustee to pursue any remedies for failure to vacate the premises, including enforcement of the stipulation with the debtor's daughter to vacate the premises. See dkt. 126, Ex. 7.

Appearances required. The court has reviewed defendant/debtor Quinn's unilateral status report (dkt. 7) and the other filed documents and records in this adversary proceeding. Counsel for the plaintiff/creditor Duff is directed to address why no status report was executed by plaintiff.

The following are Judge Bason's standard requirements for status conferences. (To the extent that the parties have already addressed these issues in their status report, they need not repeat their positions at the status conference.)

(1) Venue/jurisdiction/authority.

The parties are directed to address any outstanding matters of (a) venue, (b) jurisdiction, (c) this court's authority to enter final orders or judgment(s) in this proceeding and, if consent is required, whether the parties do consent, or have already expressly or impliedly consented. (2) Service. Pursuant to Rule 55(b)(2) (Fed. R. Civ. P., incorporated by Rule 7055, Fed. R. Bankr. P.), the tentative ruling is that any Default Judgment Motion must be served only on Mr. Edward Trevino Moisa, not on the (deceased) defendant Ms. Rosa Moisa.

(1) No relief against unnamed defendants. At the initial status conference on 10/13/17, and in the tentative ruling for that status conference (reproduced below), this court questioned how quiet title relief could be granted against persons who are not named as defendants. The motion for a default judgment does not address that issue, and yet it seeks to quiet title as against all persons, whether or not they are named as defendants. The tentative ruling is to deny that relief.

(2) No relief against decedent whose estate has not been properly served. In addition, the plaintiff appears to be seeking a default judgment against a decedent, Ms. Rosa Moisa, without having served anyone who could properly accept service for the decedent. In fact, in preparing for this hearing this court noticed that the plaintiff had the complaint served on herself as administrator of Mr. Moisa's estate (see adv. dkt. 5 at PDF p.4). How is that proper?

To make matters worse, it appears that she is not actually the administrator: she declares that she is currently seeking to be appointed as the administrator of the decedent's estate. See adv. dkt. 21, Plaintiff Decl., p.4, para. 14.

How could counsel for the debtor seek a default judgment on this foundation?

(3) No relief against persons with whom there is no actual case or controversy. The plaintiff also seeks relief against Mr. Edward Trevino Moisa (the son of the decedent Ms. Moisa). The plaintiff alleges that there is an actual case or controversy involving him (and Ms. Moisa), but the plaintiff also alleges that after his mother transferred the property to Mr. Moisa he voluntarily transferred the subject property to the plaintiff via grant deed (dkt. 21, Plaintiff Decl., p.2, para. 5-6), and that Mr. Moisa "takes no position" and has not responded to the complaint (id. p.5:3). How is there an actual case or controversy involving Mr. Moisa (or his mother)?

(4) Possible real party in interest? It is unclear from the filed papers, but the party against whom the plaintiff might really be seeking relief is the county of Los Angeles. She alleges that when she attempted to refinance the property "the Title Company for the future Lender noticed the discrepancy in the Grant Deeds (regarding Legal Description), that LA County changed the designation back to Rosa Moisa as the current owner." Id., p.4, para. 13 (emphasis added.) But it is not clear what this means - did LA County commit an error in indexing? Did it improperly alter the text of some grant deed? Or did LA County allegedly do something else to "change the designation" in some document or record?

Nor does the plaintiff point to any document that reflects any such confusion. It is not this court's role to scour the record to try to figure out what the plaintiff means.

(5) Conclusion. This court is very empathetic to the plaintiff (the debtor), who alleges that she purchased the property when it had no equity, and made payments to save the property from foreclosure, and yet, although she has obtained this court's approval to refinance the property, she has been unable to do so because of some sort of discrepancy in the real estate records regarding her title to the property. But the papers filed by the debtor's counsel fail to explain the actual issue, and in any event appear to be wholly inadequate to address whatever the issue might be.

In addition, this court is very troubled that the filed papers appear to violate basic legal principles and ethical obligations. It appears that counsel for the debtor has sought a default judgment based on (i) the plaintiff/debtor -serving herself, (ii) as the purported administrator of the estate of a decedent/defendant, even though she has not yet been appointed in that role, and (iii) with whom there does not appear to have been any actual case or controversy. This appears to be an attempted fraud on the court, intended to obtain a default judgment in the hope of binding other persons who have not been named as defendants.

Is there any reason why this court should not issue an order to show cause why sanctions should not be imposed? Meanwhile, what can be done to address whatever is the actual issue that is holding up the debtor's refinance of her real property?

Tentative Ruling for 10/3/17:

Appearances required.

There is no tentative ruling, but the plaintiff should be prepared to address the exact nature of the relief sought, and how this court can grant relief as against persons who are not named as defendants.

If you do not appear, and the matter is not adequately resolved by consent, then you may waive your right to be heard on matters that are appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

(1) Current issues.

(a) Budget motion (dkt. 13). Counsel must address:

(i) Income as of petition date or current? The debtor has filed an amended bankruptcy Schedule I (dkt. 30). Is that actually intended to be a decaration of postpetition income, or a correction of the debtor's income as of the petition date?

(ii) Amended budget motion? Should an amended budget motion needs to be filed and served, or is such notice unnecessary and should the budget be deemed amended, in view of what appears to be an increase of approximately $168 in the debtor's monthly income (compare dkt. 13 at PDF p.8, debtor's personal income of $2,800, with dkt. 30, line 7, debtor's personal income of $2,968)?

(b) Cash collateral motion (dkt. 12). Grant on a final basis, on the same terms as the interim order (dkt.24).

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 3/6/18.

(a) Bar date: 6/15/18 (Order, dkt. 23). Note: Timely served? Per the proof of service (dkt. 26, the "POS") the debtor served the POS itself on creditors. Presumably the debtor means that she served the order on creditors (not the POS), but the debtor is directed to file an amended POS saying so, no later than 5/3/18.

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: file by 8/24/18 using the forms required by Judge Bason (DO NOT SERVE yet, except on the U.S. Trustee - the court will set a deadline and procedures at a later time).

(c) Continued status conference: 6/12/18 at 1:00 p.m. No written status report is required.

*Warning: special procedures apply (see order setting initial status conference).

(1) Current issues.

(a) Failure to serve order. This Court's order setting this status conference (dkt. 6) directed the debtor to serve a copy of that order on all parties in interest no later than 14 days prior to this status conference. No proof of service appears on the docket. The tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 4/11/18 for the debtor to effect such service, with a caution to counsel that in future such failure may result in sanctions.

(b) Budget motion (dkt. 13). Grant on an interim basis, with a final hearing on the same date at the continued status conference set forth below.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 3/6/18.

(a) Bar date: 6/15/18 (DO NOT SERVE notice yet - court will prepare an order after the status conference).

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: file by 8/24/18 using the forms required by Judge Bason (DO NOT SERVE yet, except on the U.S. Trustee - the court will set a deadline and procedures at a later time).

(1) Current issues - plan (dkt. 59) and disclosure statement (dkt. 58)

(a) Background. At the hearing on 1/23/18 the debtor's counsel conceded that debtor lacked the votes for confirmation of his proposed plan, and suggested various ways in which the debtor might proceed. This court set a deadline of 1/30/18 for filing an amended plan or an alternative pleading, which was later extended (dkt. 71) to 2/7/18.

At the continued hearing on 2/13/18, the debtor stated that he reached a settlement with Wells Fargo regarding plan treatment and would be filing a motion to allow late-filed ballot. On 3/12/18, the debtor filed that motion (dkt. 78), with a hearing scheduled for 4/17/18. Debtor's ability to confirm the Amended Plan apparently depends upon whether this court accepts Wells Fargo's late-filed ballot.

For the reasons stated below, the tentative ruling is to approve the disclosure statement on a final basis and confirm the debtor's plan.

(b) Motion to Accept Late-Filed Ballot (dkt. 78). The tentative ruling is to grant the motion and accept Wells Fargo's late-filed ballot, in view of the debtor's timely filing of a proof of service reflecting service of the motion on American Express (dkt. 82) in accordance with this Court's 4/17/18 tentative ruling (below). With that ballot counted, the proposed Plan has been accepted by the requisite majorities for consensual confirmation (see Ballot Summary, dkt. 81).

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 6/7/17.

(a) Bar date: 8/18/17 (timely served, dkt. 27, 30)

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement (dkt. 59, 58)*: Approve the disclosure statement on a final basis, and confirm the plan under 1129(a).

(c) Post-Confirmation status conference: 8/7/18 at 1:00 p.m. Brief status report due 7/24/18.

Tentative Ruling for 4/17/18:

Continue all matters set for today to the same date and time as the continued status conference, as set forth below. Appearances are not required on 4/17/18.

Chapter 11

and suggested various ways in which the debtor might proceed. This court set a deadline of 1/30/18 for filing an amended plan or an alternative pleading, which was later extended (dkt. 71) to 2/7/18.

At the continued hearing on 2/13/18, the debtor stated that he reached a settlement with Wells Fargo regarding plan treatment and would be filing a motion to allow late-filed ballot. On 3/12/18, the debtor filed that motion (dkt. 78), with a hearing scheduled for this date. Debtor's ability to confirm the Amended Plan apparently depends upon whether this court accepts Wells Fargo's late-filed ballot.

For the reasons stated below, the tentative ruling is to continue the hearing on approval of debtor's disclosure statement and plan to the above-stated time and place, concurrent with a continued hearing on debtor's motion to accept late-filed ballot.

(b) Motion to Accept Late-Filed Ballot (dkt. 78)

(i) Service. The Motion was not properly served on American Express at the address listed in its proofs of claim (claim nos. 4-1 and 6-1) (nor is it served in an alternative manner that might satisfy Rule 7004 because it was not served to the attention of an officer or agent pursuant to Rule 7004(b)(3) (FRBP)). Since American Express cast the only ballots against debtor's plan, it is particularly important that it be given proper service.

The tentative ruling is to continue the hearing to the same date and time as the continued status conference (see below) and direct the debtor to re-serve the Motion on American Express. This court has selected a continued hearing date that contemplates shortened notice (per Rule 9006) but that date is conditioned on the debtor serving all papers on the day after the current hearing date and filing a proof of service. Alternatively, debtor may self-calendar a continued hearing on regular notice.

(c) Exit strategy. At the continued hearing, if this Court does not approve the debtor's motion to accept late-filed ballot, the debtor should be prepared to address what his exit strategy from bankruptcy is and whether this case be dismissed.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 6/7/17.

(a) Bar date: 8/18/17 (timely served, dkt. 27, 30)

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement (dkt. 59, 58)*: TBD.

are required, and you fail to appear without adequately resolving this matter by consent, then you may waive your right to be heard on matters that are appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

Continue this status conference and the combined hearing on final approval of the disclosure statement (dkt. 60) and confirmation of the plan (dkt. 59) to 2/13/18 at 1:00 p.m. Appearances are not required on 1/23/18.

Reasons: (a) the debtor's failure to file the ballot summary with respect to the plan, which was due on 1/16/18 (see Order, dkt. 61) and (b) the inability of the Office of the United States Trustee ("UST") to appear (or perhaps even to analyze whether it should appear) because of the shutdown of much of the federal government.

At the continued hearing the debtor should be prepared to testify, or make an offer of proof, as to feasibility.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." (1) Current issues - plan (dkt. 59) and disclosure statement (dkt. 58)

(a) Income calculation. Exhibit C, Attachment 1, line 7, for income from "operations of business" requires the debtor to "attach detailed statement." No such statement appears to be provided.

(b) Disputed claims and other prior issues appear to be adequately addressed. The revised Exhibit F (dkt. 58) lists the 16th Street Group twice: once for the undisputed portion and once for the disputed portion - if the dollar amount of the disputed portion of the claim is sufficient then this appears to fully address this court's concerns expressed in the tentative ruling for 11/7/17. All of this court's other concerns appear to have been fully addressed as well.

(c) Feasibility. This court anticipates that the debtor may be required to testify, or make an offer of proof, as to feasibility at the combined hearing (set forth below) on final approval of the disclosure statement and confirmation of the plan.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 6/7/17.

(a) Bar date: 8/18/17 (timely served, dkt. 27, 30)

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement (dkt. 59, 58)*: 12/15/17 deadline to file (NOT SERVE - except on the U.S. Trustee) any redlined revisions to be discussed at the status conference and lodge Judge Bason's form of order authorizing service of the voting package, setting deadlines, and setting a combined hearing on final approval of the Disclosure Statement and confirmation of the Plan for the same time as the continued status conference.

(c) Continued status conference: 2/27/18 at 1:00 p.m. No written status report is required.

*Warning: special procedures apply (see order setting initial status conference).

Tentative Ruling for 11/7/17:

Appearances required by counsel for the debtor but telephonic appearances are encouraged if advance arrangements are made (see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.", "Instructions/Procedures").

(a) Disputed claims. The plan contemplates non-payment to some disputed claims. Unless and until those claims are disallowed (or allowed), the debtor must establish a disputed claims reserve and pay into that reserve in order to confirm any plan.

(b) General unsecured creditors. The plan includes a confusing mix of different listings of general unsecured creditors. Exhibit F starts with the total from the debtor's bankruptcy schedules and then reduces it by a dollar amount that appears to be random (there are no calculations to show how the debtor arrived at that reduction). Attached to Exhibit F is a copy of the debtor's bankruptcy schedules, but those are not manually marked up to show how the debtor arrived at the dollar amounts in Exhibit F.

Exhibit I lists not only general unsecured claims but also priority and secured claims, so it is not helpful to figure out how the debtor arrived at the dollar amount of reduction in Exhibit F.

Exhibit H item "(6)" lists anticipated/pending objections to claims, and provides what appear to be estimated dollar amounts, but there is no basis for such estimates and they are not tied to the reduction in total claims listed in Exhibit F.

It appears that the simpler solution would be (i) to use the "electronic option" in Exhibit F (starting at line 5) for general unsecured claims, instead of attaching the bankruptcy schedules, (ii) cut all unsecured claims from Exhibit I as redundant, and (iii) use a disputed claims reserve and/or obtain final orders disallowing or allowing claims and/or follow the proper procedures for claims estimation, if permissible (see 11 U.S.C. 502(c) and Rule 3018(a), Fed. R. Bankr. P.).

(c) Tax claims. One tax claim has been withdrawn (dkt. 52). Is the tax claim listed in Exhibit A for "LACTTC" a different claim?

(d) Pagination. The debtor's plan divides one-page exhibits onto two pages, which is somewhat confusing. The debtor may need to adjust the page margins to enable them to print on a single page.

(e) Income calculation. Exhibit C, Attachment 1, lines 1 and 7, do not provide adequate disclosure of the debtor's income calculation. Line 1 is for "wages, salary, and commissions" but as an independent contractor the more appropriate line would appear to be line 7 for "operations of business," which requires the debtor to "attach detailed statement." In any event, the debtor cannot simply list net income without any disclosure as to the gross revenues, specific expenses, and calculation of that net income.

The debtor's failure to disclose sufficient information about revenues and expenses has been a recurring theme - see the tentative ruling for 7/11/17 (reproduced below), item "(1)(a)" under the "Third" issue. Given this history, this court will require the debtor to file and serve on the U.S. Trustee, no later than the deadline set forth below for filing an amended plan and disclosure statement, a detailed declaration providing documentation as to the basis for each aspect of the income and expense projections (the debtor may incorporate Monthly Operating Reports by reference, but cannot rely only on those MORs - the debtor must provide additional support for his projections).

(f) Double-counting of expenses. Exhibit C, Attachment 1, line 17, includes an adequate protection payment of $325.50/mo. (with a reference to "RFS Order Dkt No. 45"), but it appears that these adequate protection payments will be replaced by the payments in Class 1A of $383.28/mo. It appears that once the added $325.50/mo. is eliminated then the cash flow might be more feasible.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 6/7/17.

(a) Bar date: 8/18/17 (timely served, dkt. 27, 30)

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: file "blacklined" versions by 11/21/17 (the spreadsheets probably will need to be manually blacklined) (DO NOT SERVE yet, except on the U.S. Trustee - the court will set a deadline and procedures at a later time).

(c) Continued status conference: 12/12/17 at 1:00 p.m. No written status report is required.

*Warning: special procedures apply (see order setting initial status conference).

(1) Current issues. This court has no issues to raise sua sponte at this time.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 6/7/17.

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: file by 10/13/17 using the forms required by Judge Bason (DO NOT SERVE yet, except on the U.S. Trustee - the court will set a deadline and procedures at a later time).

Tentative Ruling for 7/11/17:

Appearances required by counsel for the debtor and by the debtor himself.

(1) Current issues.

(a) Budget motion (dkt. 21). This motion is not on for hearing, but in connection with this Status Conference the debtor should be prepared to address the following concerns.

First, the debtor lists $1,350/mo. in income derived from unemployment benefits, in addition to his $6,150/mo. in business income derived from his self-employment as an independent marketing consultant, a job at which he claims to have been employed for the past year. Dkt. 21, p. 8. How can the debtor obtain unemployment benefits when he is employed? How will the budget change when those benefits cease?

Second, the debtor lists net business income but has failed to provide a breakdown of gross receipts, ordinary and necessary business expenses, and calculation of the resulting monthly net income, as required by the instructions on bankruptcy Schedule "I" line 8a. See dkt. 21 at p. 8.

Third, the debtor asserts a 50% interest in a real estate business in Miami, Buena Vista Terminal, LLC. See dkt. 1, pp. 19, 51. What is the nature of that business? Does the debtor derive any income from that business?

Finally, the debtor reports that he has just $43.43 in monthly net income to contribute to a chapter 11 plan. But the debtor has two cars and a motorcycle and over $700/mo. in automobile payments (plus "transportation" costs). Is that reasonable? See In re Concoff (case no. 2:13-bk-37328-NB, dkt. 246).

(b) Application to employ counsel (dkt. 24). Does the U.S. Trustee have any concerns about the proposed interim payment procedures and fee sharing arrangement between Ms. Ghanooni and Ms. Esmaili?

According to the retainer letter (dkt. 24, Ex. 3, para. 4) some of the retainer was to be paid by the debtor's mother, as a gift. But the application and the Rule 2014 disclosures by proposed counsel and by the debtor assert that there is no connection with any insider, and that all funds have come solely from the debtor. Which version of the facts is true? If any portion of the retainer has been paid by a third party, that raises special concerns (e.g., was the third party fully informed, in writing, that counsel represents the DIP not the third party, and might actually have to sue the third party if there were any potentially avoidable transfers? are there any such transfers or other potential conflicts?). See In re Kelton Motors, Inc., 109 B.R. 641 (Bankr. D. Vt. 1989); In re Hathaway Ranch Partnership, 116 B.R. 208, 219 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 1990); In re Park-Helena Corp., 63 F.3d 877 (9th Cir. 1995).

(a) Bar date: 9/22/17 (DO NOT SERVE notice yet - court will prepare an order after the status conference).

#1.00 Pretrial hrg re: Motion for Fine and/or Disgorgement of Fees Against Bankruptcy Petition Preparer William G. Hill as Respondent (and Leslie Richards as Responsible Professional) fr. 6/7/18

Docket 41

Tentative Ruling:

Continue to 9/18/18 at 2:00 p.m., and vacate the trial that is scheduled to commence on 8/15/18 at 9:00 a.m., in view of the automatic stay arising from the filing of the bankruptcy petition of Mr. William G. Hill (Case No. 1:18-bk-11914-VK). Appearances are not required on 8/7/18.

Analysis: First, although this Court has located authority that proceedings under 11 U.S.C. 110 are within the police and regulatory power exception to the automatic stay, that conclusion may be subject to dispute, and Mr. Hill (and the Office of the United States Trustee) have not had the opportunity to brief that issue. See In re Hernandez, 66 Collier Bankr.Cas.2d 1022 at n.9 & accompanying text (Bankr. D. Colo. 2011). See also In re Dingley, 852 F.3d 1143 (9th Cir. 2017) (civil contempt proceedings exempted from automatic stay when intended to effectuate court's public policy interest in deterring litigation misconduct).

Second, regardless whether the automatic stay applies, the tentative ruling is that continuing this matter is in keeping with the spirit of the "breathing spell" that bankruptcy is supposed to afford. This Court recognizes that the debtor may be very much in need of whatever funds could be owed to him by Mr. Hill, but any delay from the automatic stay is unlikely to last long.

Appearances required.

(1) Current issues.

(a) Debtor's Motion to Extend Time to Assume or Reject Lease (dkt. 139). Debtor seeks an extension of time to assume or reject its lease of commercial real property located at 2727 E. Del Amo Blvd., Rancho Dominguez, CA 90221 (the "Property") with Joe Murez Exempt Trust ("JMET" or "Landlord") through June 4, 2018. But in connection with Landlord's currently motion (dkt. 184, see discussion below), the debtor concedes that there are incurable defaults that prevent it from assuming the lease and states that it intends to vacate and surrender the Property by May 31, 2018 (dkt. 197, PDF p. 7, lines 17-19 & Wallace Declaration, paragraph 14). Additionally, on May 7, 2018, debtor served its subtenants with 30-day notices to terminate rental agreement with an expiration date of June 6, 2018 (id., Ex. A).

In Landlord's motion (dkt. 184, see discussion below), it seeks possession of the Property effective as of June 5, 2018 and appears to have consented to an extension through that time (see dkt. 184, PDF p. 4, lines 26-27).

The tentative ruling is to grant the debtor's motion and extend the deadline to assume or reject the lease to May 31, 2018. The effects of that date on the subtenants and the Landlord are addressed below.

(b) Landlord's Motion for Administrative Claim and Possession of Property (dkt. 184).

(i) Base rent, late fees, interest, CAM, taxes, attorneys' fees and costs. Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. 365(d)(3), Landlord is entitled to an allowed administrative expense for the full amount of rent accrued during the period following the order for relief through the lease rejection, regardless of the actual value conferred by the lease upon the estate. See Pacific-Atlantic Trading Company, 27 F.3d 401 (9th Cir. 1994); In re Cukierman, 265 F.3d 846 (9th Cir. 2001). Section 365(d)(3) requires immediate payment of lease obligations so that the landlord is not left providing uncompensated services. In re Cukierman, 265 F.3d at 851-52.

In this case, Paragraph 4.1 of the Lease provides: "All monetary obligations of Lessee to Lessor under the terms of this Lease (except for the Security Deposit) are deemed to be Rent." Pursuant to paragraphs 1.5, 4.3, 10.2, 13.4, 13.5, and 31, Landlord is entitled to an allowed administrative expense for payment of base rent, late fees, interest, CAM, taxes, and attorneys' fees and costs. On the record before this Court, Landlord holds an estimated administrative expense in the amount of $79,965.01 ($48,626 (May rent) + $4,862.20 (late fee) + $11,661.31 (real property taxes) + $14,815.5 (attorneys fees) = $79,965.01). Landlord may supplement the record to establish a valid basis for any additional amounts it may be entitled to under the Lease (e.g., prorated June rent if the debtor has not turned over the premises as of 5/31/18).

(ii) No superpriority. Section 365(d)(3) does not authorize a superpriority over other administrative expenses. In re LPM Corp., 300 F.3d 1134 (9th Cir. 2002). It is possible that the estate will be administratively insolvent (although the estate's assets and its administrative claims are largely moving targets until the conclusion of any bankruptcy case) so if Landlord had slept on its rights and were seeking prior months' rent it would not be entitled to payment at this time; but that is not the situation.

Landlords are entitled to current payments. Other administrative claimants are not. There is no evidence that this Landlord has slept on its rights.

Reconciling the lack of priority with the entitlement to current payments, the tentative ruling is that Landlord is entitled to immediate payment of a pro rata share of funds that are available to pay estimated accrued administrative expenses to date. This is essentially the alternative relief requested by Landlord (see dkt. 200, p.4:4-8).

Because the interim fee applications (discussed below) seek approximately $305,000 in fees and expenses, and because Landlord's claim is approximately $79,965.01, it appears that the rough total of accrued administrative expenses is approximately $385,000, of which Landlord holds roughly $80,000, or approximately 20% ( $$80,000/$385,000 = 20.8\%$ ).

Therefore, the tentative ruling is that Landlord is entitled to immediate payment of approximately 20% of the $47,000 in unrestricted funds currently in debtor's possession (dkt. 197, PDF p. 13, paragraph 13), or approximately $9,400.

(iii) Landlord has not established that the funds are held in trust for it. This Court is not persuaded that the $47,000 in funds debtor has on hand is being held in trust for Landlord. Landlord has not carried its burden of establishing that, under California law, an express trust exists that excepts these funds from estate property. See Golden Mortg. Fund # 14 v. Kennedy, 171 B.R. 79, 84 (9th Cir. BAP 1994) ("A creditor has the burden to prove that the funds in the debtor's possession should be held in trust for that creditor's benefit").

(iv) Surrender and Writ of Possession. Landlord has discretion whether to extend the time for the debtor to assume or reject the Lease beyond the statutory maximum, or permit occupancy after rejection, absent nonbankruptcy law that would permit occupants to continue in possession. As set forth above, the tentative ruling is that the lease will be deemed rejected on 5/31/18.

Because neither the subtenants nor any other party in interest has articulated a sufficient basis for the subtenants to continue to occupy the Property following rejection of the Lease, the tentative ruling is to grant Landlord's request for a writ of possession directing any subtenants to surrender and vacate the property effective 6/6/18. Landlord is instructed to review LBR 7064-1 and include the necessary language set forth in 7064-1(e) into the proposed order.

(v) Relief from stay. The tentative ruling is to grant Landlord relief from the automatic stay under 362(d)(1).

(vi) Waiver of 14-day stay. The tentative ruling is to waive the 14-day stay.

(c) Interim Fee Apps of Levene Neale Bender Yoo & Brill (dkt. 177); CohenReznick LLP (dkt. 178); and Haberbush & Associates LLP (dkt. 179), and related documents (dkt. 200, 214). The tentative ruling is to approve the applications on an interim basis, subject to final review and approval at the conclusion of the case, but deny the requests for immediate payment of fees and expenses given the debtor's limited funds on hand, except that Haberbush & Associates may draw down on its pre-petition retainer, subject

(1) Current issues.

(a) April MOR (dkt.192). On PDF p. 3, the debtor identifies a payment made to "Transport" on 4/26/18 in the amount of $55,515.00 for "dispatch and brokerage svc." What is this payment for? Is it an "ordinary course" transaction?

(b) Motion to Disqualify Truck Driver Counsel (dkt. 125). This Court issued an order (dkt. 169, amended dkt. 175) continuing this motion and set (i) a 5/15/18 deadline for the Slattery Law Firm and Hirsch Law Firm to file supplemental papers addressing who properly represents the Truck Drivers; and (ii) a 5/21/18 at noon deadline to file any responses.

This Court has reviewed the relevant papers. See dkt. 125, 126 & 127

There is no tentative ruling, but the parties should be prepared to address the arguments set forth in the filed papers.

(c) Objection to Claim Nos. 11, 37, 38, 40, 44, 45, 50 (dkt. 108, 109, 111, 113, 115, 117, 119). The proofs of claim were filed by the Hirsch Law Firm and the claim objections/notices were served on the Hirsch Law Firm and Slattery Law Firm. However, based on the debtor's pending motion to disqualify both firms, the tentative ruling is to continue the hearings on these claim objections to 6/19/18 at 2:00 p.m., pending resolution of the motion to disqualify. At the continued hearings, the parties should be prepared to address whether it would be appropriate for this court to set continued oppositions deadlines.

Note: Counsel did not comply with Judge Bason's posted procedures (at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) requiring a cost/benefit analysis for any claim objection (although this court's own cost/benefit analysis appears to favor seeking to reclassify these claim). In future, counsel should comply with those posted procedures.

(1) Current issues.

(a) Motion to Approve Compromise (dkt. 36). The parties should be prepared to address the status of any settlement negotiations with respect to the pending motion to approve compromise.

(b) Status Report. At the last status conference on 2/13/18, this court directed the debtor to file a brief status report by 2/27/18. As of the preparation of this tentative ruling, the debtor has not complied. The debtor should be prepared to address why it failed to comply with this court's order.

(c) Employment application: Creditors' Committee Counsel (dkt. 47, 65). The objection by certain truck drivers (dkt. 63) has been withdrawn (dkt. 89). The debtor's limited objection (dkt. 55) and the reply papers (dkt. 85, 86) raise issues that are best addressed in connection with any application for compensation, at which time this Court can evaluate whether the hourly billing rates are commensurate with the nature of the work performed, the time spent on each task, and the other factors under 11 U.S.C. 330. Therefore the tentative ruling is to overrule the objection and authorize the employment.

Docket 10

Tentative Ruling:

Grant as provided below. Appearances are not required.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this court's final ruling. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

Termination. Terminate the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1) and (d)(2).

Any co-debtor stay (11 U.S.C. 1301(c)) is also terminated, because it has not been shown to have any basis to exist independent of the stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(a). To the extent, if any, that the motion seeks to terminate the automatic stay in other past or pending bankruptcy cases, such relief is denied on the present record. See In re Ervin (Case No. 14-bk-18204-NB, docket no. 311).

Retroactive relief. Grant the request for retroactive annulment of the stay. See In re Fjeldsted, 293 B.R. 12 (9th Cir. BAP 2003).

Effective date of relief. Grant the request to waive the 14-day stay provided by FRBP 4001(a)(3).

Tentative Ruling:

Grant as provided below. Appearances are not required.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this court's final ruling. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

The automatic stay does not apply. The automatic stay does not affect this property. See In re Hernandez, Case No. 2:15-bk-21193-VZ, Dkt. 31.

In the alternative and in addition, this court grants relief from the automatic stay as follows.

Termination. Terminate the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1) and (d)(4).

Any co-debtor stay (11 U.S.C. 1301(c)) is also terminated, because it has not been shown to have any basis to exist independent of the stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(a). Choong (case no. 2:14-bk-28378-NB, docket no. 31), as applicable:

If this order is duly recorded in compliance with applicable State laws governing notices of interests or liens in the property at issue, then no automatic stay shall apply to such property in any bankruptcy case purporting to affect such property and filed within two years after the date of entry of this order, unless otherwise ordered by the court presiding over that bankruptcy case.

For the avoidance of doubt, any acts by the movant to obtain exclusive possession of such property shall not be stayed. Any additional request for relief applicable to future bankruptcy cases is denied (e.g., any request to grant relief against third parties without any notice is denied) due to lack of sufficient factual or legal grounds presented in support of such relief.

(A) Venue/jurisdiction/authority. Matters of venue, jurisdiction, and authority have been determined and/or waived or forfeited (adv. dkt. 46).

(B) Current issues.

(1) Deadlines: This adversary proceeding has been pending since 2/28/17. This issue regarding Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department's recovery of attorneys' fees appears to have been resolved by Order of this Court (adv. dkt. 40), pending entry of a subsequent order by which the movant will deposit the balance of the fees with the Court.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this Court's final ruling. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

(2) Entry of final judgment (adv. dkt. 42, 46). Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order disposing of this adversary proceeding by summary judgment or similar mechanism via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this Court's final ruling. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

(3) Mediation. In the event the parties are unable to resolve this adversary proceeding in the manner listed above and/or unresolved issues remain, the tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 7/31/18 for the parties to lodge a proposed mediation order (the parties are directed to use the time between now and that deadline to find a mutually agreeable mediator whose schedule can accommodate the needs of this matter; and if the parties cannot even agree on a mediator they may lodge separate orders and Judge Bason will chose among them, or issue his own order).

Tentative Ruling for 6/19/18:

Appearances required. This Court has reviewed the parties' joint status report (adv. dkt. 30) and the other filed documents and records in this adversary proceeding, as well as relevant documents in the bankruptcy case.

(A) Background. Plaintiff, the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department ("Sheriff") has filed its complaint in interpleader against the debtor, her Chapter 13 Trustee ("Trustee"), and Cardlock Fuels Systems, Inc. ("Cardlock"). Sheriff levied on funds held in the debtor's bank account at Wells Fargo Bank, NA and received about $32,775.00 (the "Levied Funds") but the debtor and Cardlock dispute who should receive the funds.

Cardlock asserts that it owns the funds; but the debtor asserts that Cardlock has only a secured claim to the funds and that those funds should be returned to the debtor and Cardlock will continue being paid over time (without interest). Cardlock is listed as a secured creditor in the amount of $43,066.84 in the debtor's chapter 13 plan (case dkt. 2, p.5), which this Court previously confirmed (case dkt. 19), and in any event the debtor's plan promises to pay unsecured creditors 100% of their claims (without interest). Cardlock's proof of claim (Claim No. 3-1) asserts that it is owed $45,544.66 as of the petition date, based on a judgment for goods sold, which it asserts is secured by a judgment lien. In other words, the debtor proposes to pay Cardlock over 5 years, without interest (regardless whether Cardlock's claim is treated as secured or unsecured under the plan), and Cardlock seeks immediate payment of approximately 3/4 of the total debt using the Levied Funds.

Sheriff apparently has no reason to care about any of this. Sheriff only seeks a judgment that, among other things, would permit the deposit of the Levied Funds with this Court while restraining all of the defendants from involving Sheriff any further.

Before Sheriff filed the complaint, the debtor attempted to obtain turnover of the funds by filing a motion for turnover (case dkt. 31). This Court issued an order (dkt. 34, the "Non-Turnover Order") denying that motion for the following reasons (copied from that order):

Neither party provides any copy of any levying documents, or any declarations to support their allegations. Nevertheless, the following facts appear to be undisputed.

Prepetition, on February 21, 2017, at the request of judgment creditor Cardlock, The Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department ("Sheriff") served a Writ of Execution and notice of levy on Wells Fargo Bank, NA ("Bank") where the debtor held a bank account. On February 28, 2017 the debtor filed her bankruptcy petition. Postpetition, on March 2, 2017, Bank delivered to Sheriff $32,775 (the "Funds"). See dk. 31, p.3:1-12 and dk. 33, pp.1:25-2:8.

(2) Legal authority

Neither party cites any authority for their principal arguments. The authorities they do cite appear to be mostly the wrong statutes and irrelevant decisions.

The debtor asserts that the Funds are property of the estate under the general principles of 11 U.S.C. 541, without any citation to California law defining when ownership of funds is transferred away from the depositor/debtor. See In re Hernandez, 483 B.R. 713, 720 (9th Cir. BAP 2012) ("Whether a debtor's interest constitutes 'property of the estate' is a federal question to be decided by federal law [but] the nature and extent of the debtor's interest in property must be determined by nonbankruptcy law.") (citations and internal quotation marks omitted, emphasis added).

The debtor next argues that Cardlock and Sheriff should be ordered to return the Funds to the debtor "under 11 U.S.C. [section] 105" (dk. 31, p.4:6), which is the general authorization for the Bankruptcy Court to issue any order or judgment that is "necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of this title." The debtor ignores 11 U.S.C. 542 and 543, which are the specific statutory provisions governing turnover to the estate of property of the estate.

Cardlock argues, also without citation, that when the Funds "were levied" they "ceased being the Debtor's property" - Cardlock does not specify whether the time when the Funds "were levied" means when the writ and notice were served on Bank (prepetition), or when the Funds were delivered by Bank to Sheriff (postpetition).

Dkt. 33, p.2:24-25. Cardlock may mean the latter because in the next sentence it states that when the Funds "were delivered from [Bank] to [Sheriff], title to the property was vested in creditor [Cardlock]" (dkt. 33, pp.2:25-3:4) based on a decision from the Seventh Circuit involving escrowed funds. See Fed. Deposit Ins. Corp. v. Knostman, 966 F.2d 1133, 1142 (7th Cir. 1992). Cardlock does not cite any California law or any decision applying California law, nor any decision involving a levy by a sheriff (as opposed to escrowed funds).

This court declines to perform the parties' research for them. Nevertheless, this court must determine based on general principles and who has what burden whether to grant or deny the debtor's motion. Accordingly, this court has performed some brief research on the following issues.

(a) The debtor had an interest in the Funds as of the petition date

Although this court's brief research suggests that California law is not entirely clear, it appears that when a bank has not yet turned over funds to the sheriff prepetition, the levying creditor only has a lien not an ownership interest in the funds. See Hernandez, 483 B.R. 713, 721 (under Cal. Code Civ. P. 700.140(a)&(e), creditor obtains execution lien on amounts in deposit account at time of service on financial institution, and that lien terminates when the funds are paid to the levying officer, which implies that the debtor's interest is transferred at the latter time). (The statute was amended after Hernandez was decided, including designating paragraph "(e)" as paragraph "(f)," but the amendments do not appear to be material.)

(b) Any postpetition termination of the debtor's interest in the Funds is void

Assuming that Cardlock is correct that the transfer from Bank to Sheriff terminates the debtor's interest in the Funds under California law, Cardlock has not suggested any reason why that transfer would not have violated the automatic stay of 11 U.S.C. 362(a). Therefore any such transfer apparently is void ab initio.

(The debtor asserts, dkt. 31, p.3, n.1, that because the transfer from Bank to Sheriff occurred postpetition "the Debtor most likely has grounds to avoid the transfer of the Funds pursuant to 11 U.S.C. 549." This court expresses no opinion on that issue.)

(c) The debtor has neither sought, nor established a basis for, turnover

The debtor cannot use 11 U.S.C. 105 to evade or enlarge the specific statutory provisions that govern turnover: 11 U.S.C. 542 and 543. So one of those latter statutes governs - this court does not decide which one (i.e., whether Bank and/or Sheriff qualify as a "custodian" under 11 U.S.C. 101(11) and 543), because for present purposes the issues are the same under each section.

This court also assumes without deciding that the debtor would have standing to seek turnover under 11 U.S.C. 542 or 543 (or, for that matter, standing to seek avoidance under 11 U.S.C. 544-549 and recovery under 550, although as Cardlock points out any such avoidance actions presumably would require an adversary proceeding under Rule 7001, Fed. R. Bankr. P.). Compare In re Cohen, 305 B.R. 886, 891-900 (9th Cir. BAP 2004) (chapter 13 debtor has standing to bring avoidance actions).

So far so good for the debtor's position. But it is not enough for the debtor to show that someone is in possession of property in which the bankruptcy estate has an interest. The debtor also must establish that any persons holding an interest in that property, such as Cardlock, will have their interests adequately protected. See 11 U.S.C. 363(e) (court "shall" provide adequate protection of person's interest in property proposed to be used, upon request); 11 U.S.C. 542(a) (turnover only applies to property that trustee may "use, sell, or lease" or that debtor may exempt, i.e., which is subject to section 363(e)); 11 U.S.C. 543(c)(1) (court shall "protect all entities" to which custodian of property has become obligated).

The debtor has not shown that simply turning over the Funds to the debtor would adequately protect Cardlock, or for that matter that such turnover would be an appropriate use of property of the estate. In sum, the debtor has neither requested relief under the applicable statutory provisions, nor established a basis for such relief.

This court expresses no opinion regarding the remaining arguments raised by Cardlock - e.g., that the debtor lacks "clean hands," or that this case should be converted to chapter 7. It is unnecessary to reach the former issue, and the latter has not been properly presented (in the form of a motion to convert).

(B) Current motions. Returning to Sheriff's interpleader complaint, the following motions are on calendar today.

(1) Motion for default judgment against Trustee (adv. dkt. 19). The Clerk of this Court has entered a default against Trustee; Trustee has not responded to Sheriff's motion for a default judgment against her; and the tentative ruling is to grant that motion and enter a judgment substantially in the form attached as Exhibit B to Sheriff's motion. If that tentative ruling is adopted, Sheriff is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this court's final ruling. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

(2) Sheriff's motion for a default judgment against Cardlock (adv. dkt. 17), and Cardlock's opposition (adv. dkt. 28) and motion to set aside entry of the Clerk's default and/or any default judgment (adv. dkt. 27). The tentative ruling is to set aside the Clerk's default against Cardlock, for the reasons stated in its motion. That moots Sheriff's motion for a default judgment. If that tentative ruling is adopted, Cardlock is directed to lodge proposed orders on both motions via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this court's final ruling. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

(C) Status conference in this adversary proceeding.

(1) Deposit funds in registry. The parties are directed to address why there is any reason not to grant a judgment or order authorizing and directing deposit of the Levied Funds into the registry of this Court, while restraining all of the defendants from involving Sheriff any further (in language substantially in the form proposed for the judgment against Trustee), and reserving any other issues (such as any claim by Sheriff for attorney fees). Although there is no pending motion for such a judgment or order, the tentative ruling is that if all non-defaulting parties agree to such relief then it would be appropriate to grant such relief. Among other things, that might reduce the Sheriff's ongoing attorney fees, to the benefit of all parties.

The tentative ruling is that if all parties agree to the foregoing then this Court should treat that as an oral motion for entry of Local Form F7067-1.1.ORDER.REGISTRY.FUND entitled "Order on Motion: (A) To Deposit Funds Into the Court's Registry, or (B) To Disburse Funds Out of The Court's Registry." If this tentative ruling is adopted, Sheriff is directed to lodge that proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this court's final ruling. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

(2) Who is entitled to the Levied Funds. The debtor, Cardlock and Sheriff are directed to address the following issues.

(a) If debtor seeks recovery under 11 U.S.C. 522(h). The debtor potentially could seek to recover property that the debtor could exempt, pursuant to section 522(h). But as Cardlock points out, the debtor's bankruptcy Schedule C does not purport to exempt the Levied Funds (see case dkt. 1, at PDF p.17). The debtor has not amended those exemptions and perhaps cannot (e.g., it is not clear that the debtor could do so without giving up other exemptions that the debtor might not wish to give up).

(b) If debtor seeks recovery of the Levied Funds as representative of the estate. As pointed out in the Non-Turnover Order, there is some authority that even if there is no applicable exemption the debtor has standing to seek avoidance of the levy on behalf of the estate (e.g., under 11 U.S.C. 549). But that would require commencement of an adversary proceeding.

In addition, Cardlock has pointed out that the debtor did not disclose the existence of these funds in her bankruptcy schedules, and based on that fact Cardlock's proposed Answer (attached to its motion to avoid the Clerk's default) raises various defenses to turning over the funds to the debtor. In addition, if the debtor is not able to exempt the funds then those funds presumably would have to be used for the benefit of the estate and creditors, which probably means that any recovery of the Levied Funds would have to be followed by a distribution of the Levied Funds either (i) for truly necessary expenses (but the debtor has not suggested any such expenses) or else (ii) back to creditors - i.e., the money might essentially go in a circle, from Cardlock/Sheriff to this Court's registry, and then to the debtor for distribution to creditors, including Cardlock.

In sum, there appears to be a substantial risk that the expense and delay for both the debtor and Cardlock will far exceed any potential net benefit to anyone. Therefore the parties should be prepared to address why they cannot agree to some arrangement whereby some portion of the Levied Funds would be paid to Sheriff, to the extent, if any, that Sheriff has a claim for attorney fees or other costs or expenses under applicable law, and then the remainder would be divided between Cardlock and the debtor (either for re-distribution to other creditors, or for the debtor's truly necessary expenses).

None of this has been briefed, and this Court emphasizes that all of the foregoing is only one possible resolution. This Court's hope is that the foregoing may suggest a path toward consensual resolution.

(D) If the parties are unable to reach a consensual resolution. If some or all issues remain unresolved, the parties are directed to address the following issues.

(1) Venue/jurisdiction/authority. The parties are directed to address any outstanding matters of (a) venue, (b) jurisdiction, (c) this court's authority to enter final orders or judgment(s) in this proceeding and, if consent is required, whether the parties do consent, or have already expressly or impliedly consented. See generally Stern v. Marshall, 131 S.Ct. 2594, 2608 (2011) (if litigant "believed that the Bankruptcy Court lacked the authority to decide his claim...then he should have said so – and said so promptly."); Wellness Int'l Network, Ltd. v. Sharif, 135 S.Ct. 1932 (2015) (consent must be knowing and voluntary but need not be express); In re Bellingham Ins. Agency, Inc., 702 F.3d 553 (9th Cir. 2012) (implied consent), aff'd on other grounds, 134 S. Ct. 2165 (2014); In re Pringle, 495 B.R. 447 (9th Cir. BAP 2013) (rebuttable presumption that failure to challenge authority to issue final order is intentional and indicates consent); In re Deitz, 760 F.3d 1028 (9th Cir. 2014) (authority to adjudicate nondischargeability encompasses authority to liquidate debt and enter final judgment). See generally In re AWTR Liquidation, Inc., 548 B.R. 300 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2016).

(2) Mediation. If the parties cannot reach a consensual resolution without the assistance of a mediator, is there any reason why this Court should not order mandatory mediation? Again, this Court's concern is that the expenses to all parties of litigation far exceed the net benefit any party is likely to gain.

(3) Deadlines: This adversary proceeding has been pending since 2/28/17. Even if the parties do not reach a consensual resolution, it appears that there will be very little left to determine in this adversary proceeding - perhaps only whether Sheriff is entitled to attorney fees. The parties are directed to address what issues remain, and whether discovery is needed on those issues or if, instead, they can be resolved through a motion for summary judgment or similar mechanism. Because that seems likely, the tentative ruling is not to set any discovery cutoff or other deadlines at this time, but instead to set a continued status conference for 7/17/18 at 11:00 a.m. with a brief status report due 7/9/18.

Revised Tentative Ruling for 5/22/18:

Continue to 6/19/18 at 11:00 a.m. to be concurrent with the hearing on the motion of Cardlock Fuels System, Inc. ("Cardlock") to set aside the Clerk's entry of default against it. Appearances are not required on 5/22/18.

Analysis. It appears that the funds levied by the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department ("Sheriff") might properly belong to the debtor, or to Cardlock (if it can obtain relief from default), or to the bankruptcy estate (given the debtor's alleged nondisclosure in her bankruptcy papers of her claim to the funds at issue). See adv. dkt. 27, Ex.A, at pp.3:11-4:14 (Cardlock's affirmative defenses, asserting that either it or the debtor's bankruptcy estate owns the funds, not the debtor). Until it is determined whether or not the Clerk's default against Cardlock will be vacated, it is premature to address the motion for a default judgment against Cardlock. In addition, given the potential interests of the bankruptcy estate in the funds, and the possible lack of anyone to represent the estate if a default judgment were to be entered against Cardlock, it is premature to enter a default judgment against the other possible representative of the estate - the Chapter 13 Trustee.

(2) Deadlines: This adversary proceeding has been pending since 4/7/17. This Court was persuaded at the prior status conference not to set new deadlines until after mediation. If the matter has not been resolved then the tentative ruling is to set a continued status conference for 8/14/18 at 11:00 a.m., with a brief status report due 7/31/18.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." If appearances are required, and you fail to appear without adequately resolving this matter by consent, then you may waive your right to be heard on matters that are appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

Tentative Ruling for 5/8/18:

Appearances required but telephonic appearances are encouraged if advance arrangements are made (see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.", "Instructions/Procedures"). This Court has reviewed the parties' joint status report (dkt. 35).

(1) Mediation. The parties' latest status report requests mediation. See adv. dkt. 35, p.3, section E.3. This request is puzzling.

At the 2/27/18 status conference, this Court set a deadline of 3/13/18 for the parties to lodge a proposed mediation order, which was later memorialized in a written order (adv. dkt. 33, 1st ordering paragraph adopting attached tentative ruling for 2/27/18, para. "(2)"). No such proposed mediation order was ever lodged with this Court. This is not the first time that they have ignored this Court's order regarding mediation (see tentative ruling for 2/27/18, para. "(1)," reproduced below).

The tentative ruling is to sanction both counsel $200 for repeatedly disregarding this Court's orders regarding mediation, and to set yet another deadline - 5/15/18 - for the parties to lodge a mediation order. The parties are cautioned that continued disregard of this Court's orders will result in more serious sanctions and/or other consequences.

(2) Deadlines: This adversary proceeding has been pending since 4/7/17. This Court previously has set deadlines (adv. dkt. 29, exhibit, adopting tentative ruling for 1/30/18, para. "(2)"): e.g., a discovery cutoff of 5/1/18. The parties appear to have ignored those deadlines.

Their latest status report states (adv. dkt. 35, p.2, section B.3.) that they both expect to complete discovery by "July, 2018," i.e., after the discovery 5/1/18 cutoff. The parties' discovery schedule also appears to be incompatible with this Court's order regarding the 6/26/18 deadline for dispositive motions to be heard. See adv. dkt. 29.

Neither party has requested an extension of the deadlines previously ordered by this Court (either formally, by motion, or even informally in the status report). In setting deadlines this Court has attempted to apply a careful analysis of the parties' legal theories and factual allegations, the parties' status reports, this Court's available hearing dates, how much time might be needed for mediation, and other matters. Disregarding this Court's orders requires additional work by this Court to re-determine deadlines and/or address the consequences of missed deadlines.

The tentative ruling is to sanction both counsel $100 for ignoring this Court's previously ordered deadlines (with a caution, again, that continued disregard of this Court's orders may lead to greater adverse consequences). The tentative ruling is also to set a deadline of 5/15/18 for the parties to lodge a proposed agreed order setting realistic, binding new deadlines. Finally, the tentative ruling is to set a continued status conference for 5/22/18 at 11:00 a.m., the sole anticipated purpose of which will be to address whether the parties have complied with this Court's latest directions (set forth above) and, if not, to address what sanctions to impose. The parties are directed not to file any status report in advance of that status conference.

Tentative Ruling for 2/27/18:

Continue to 5/8/18 at 11:00 a.m. with a brief status report due 4/24/18.

Appearances are not required on 2/27/18.

(1) Background. This adversary proceeding has been pending since 4/7/17, and is being jointly administered with Adv. No. 2:17-ap-01551 - all papers are to be filed in this adversary proceeding (adv. dkt. 26). The discovery cutoff and some other deadlines have been set, but no trial date or pretrial conference date has yet been set (adv. dkt. 29). Matters of venue, jurisdiction, and authority have been determined and/or waived or forfeited (adv. dkt. 29). This Court previously ordered mediation (adv. dkt. 17) but at the status conference on 12/19/17 the parties reported that they had failed to comply with that order and the parties' latest status report (adv. dkt. 31) requests that they ordered to mediation again.

(2) Mediation. The tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 3/13/18 for the parties to lodge a proposed mediation order (the parties are directed to use the time between now and that deadline to find a mutually agreeable mediator whose schedule can accommodate the needs of this matter; and if the parties cannot even agree on a mediator they may lodge separate orders and Judge Bason will chose among them, or issue his own order).

Appearances required.

(1) Motion for summary judgment (adv. dkt. 14-18, the "MSJ"); opposition papers (adv. dkt. 22-25); and reply papers (adv. dkt. 26-27). The tentative ruling is to deny in part and grant in part the MSJ, as set forth below.

(a) Legal standards. The legal standards governing motions for summary judgment are well known, do not appear to be disputed by the parties, and need not be repeated in this tentative ruling.

(b) First claim for relief (fraudulent transfer). Although the complaint (adv. dkt.1) asserts fraudulent transfer claims under both California law and the Bankruptcy Code, the MSJ limits this to 11 U.S.C. 548. The MSJ also asserts only constructive, not actual, fraud. See adv. dkt. 14, pp.2:21-3:1.

The complaint alleges less than reasonably equivalent value (11 U.S.C. 548(a)(1)(B)(i)) - namely, transfers by the debtors/defendants for no value from the debtors and/or their revocable trusts (the assets of which apparently could be reached by creditors) to irrevocable trusts. But to establish the elements of a constructively fraudulent transfer the plaintiff must also establish one of three types of insolvency (commonly referred to as "balance sheet," "inadequate capital," or "cash flow" insolvency) or else a transfer to an insider under an "employment contract." See 11 U.S.C. 548(a)(1)(B)(ii)(I)-(IV). There is no allegation about any employment contract, so the plaintiff must establish some type of insolvency.

The MSJ refers to balance sheet insolvency (11 U.S.C. 101(32A)). But the complaint never alleges that type of insolvency, so the plaintiff cannot be granted partial summary judgment as to that element (11 U.S.C. 548(a)(1)(B)(ii)(I)).

The complaint alleges inadequate capital and inadequate cash flow (in language that roughly parallels 11 U.S.C. 548(a)(1)(B)(ii)(II)&(III)). But the MSJ extrapolates that those types of insolvency could be presumed based on the bankruptcy schedules many months after the transfer, and from the sheer number of lawsuits and eventual judgments against the defendants and other circumstantial evidence. Those things might (or might not) be persuasive at trial, but they are insufficient to establish a lack of genuine issue of fact.

(c) Second claim for relief (declaratory relief related to nature of the trusts). The complaint (adv. dkt. 1, para. 23) seeks a declaratory judgment (i) that the debtors/defendants are "beneficiaries" of the trusts within the meaning of California Probate Code 15304, (ii) that the benefits the debtors/defendants receive from the trusts are "property of the estate" under 11 U.S.C. 541, and (iii) that the trusts qualify as "self-settled trusts" under California law, which the MSJ uses as shorthand for a trust the assets of which are reachable by creditors.

Various provisions of the Bankruptcy Code define what property is part of the bankruptcy estate:

The bankruptcy estate includes "all legal or equitable interests of the debtor in property as of the commencement of the case." 11 U.S.C. § 541(a)(1). It does not include, however, "any power that the debtor may exercise solely for the benefit of another," 11 U.S.C. § 541(b)(1), nor does it include "[p]roperty in which the debtor holds ... only legal title and not an equitable interest." 11 U.S.C. § 541(d). Similarly, the estate does not include property containing "[a] restriction on the transfer of a beneficial interest of the debtor in a trust that is enforceable under applicable nonbankruptcy law." 11 U.S.C. § 541(c)(2). Chapter 7

B.R. 6, 18-19 (9th Cir. BAP 2008).]

Under California law:

(a) If the settlor is a beneficiary of a trust created by the settlor and the settlor's interest is subject to a provision restraining the voluntary or involuntary transfer of the settlor's interest, the restraint is invalid against transferees or creditors of the settlor. The invalidity of the restraint on transfer does not affect the validity of the trust.

(b) If the settlor is the beneficiary of a trust created by the settlor and the trust instrument provides that the trustee shall pay income or principal or both for the education or support of the beneficiary or gives the trustee discretion to determine the amount of income or principal or both to be paid to or for the benefit of the settlor, a transferee or creditor of the settlor may reach the maximum amount that the trustee could pay to or for the benefit of the settlor under the trust instrument, not exceeding the amount of the settlor's proportionate contribution to the trust. [California Probate Code 15304]

The California Supreme Court has held that to the extent that the settlor of a trust is also a beneficiary, creditors can reach the property held by the trust:

It is against public policy to permit a man to tie up his property in such a way that he can enjoy it but prevent his creditors from reaching it, and where the settlor makes himself a beneficiary of a trust any restraints in the instrument on the involuntary alienation of his interest are invalid and ineffective. Since [the settlor] was the sole beneficiary, all the property in the trust is subject to the claims of his creditors. [Nelson v. Cal. Trust Co., 33 Cal.2d 501, 501-02 (1949) (emphasis added)]

These principles have been more recently reaffirmed in a decision of the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals:

[U]nder California law, a settlor of a spendthrift trust cannot also act as beneficiary of that trust (i.e., California law prohibits "self-settled" trusts). See Cal. Prob.Code § 15304(a) (West 1987). California law voids self-settled trusts to prevent individuals from placing their property beyond the reach of their creditors while at the same time still reaping the bounties of such property. Nelson v. California Trust Co., 33 Cal.2d 501, 202 P.2d 1021, 1021 (Cal. 1949). [In re Moses, 167 F.3d 470, 473 (9th Cir. 1999)]

In addition, the MSJ cites authority that if beneficiaries exercise "excessive" control over a trust then under California law they cannot "shield that trust with an anti-alienation provision lacking true substance." In re Moses, 167 F.3d 470, 473 (9th Cir. 1999) (citation omitted) (emphasis added). See also In re Cutter, 398 B.R. 6, 22 (9th Cir. BAP 2008). MSJ (adv. dkt. 14, p.10:1-14).

The debtors argue that their situation is different from that in Cutter because "the Debtor in Cutter could potentially use all the Trust's principal and income to maintain his standard of living, without limitation" whereas "[t] here is no such provision" in the debtors' trusts. Dkt. 22, p.3:22-26 (italics added to case name). That distinction of Cutter (and the other authorities cited above) is unpersuasive.

The MSJ points to the following facts in support of its argument that (i) the debtors are also beneficiaries and (ii) the anti-alienation provisions of the trust lack "true substance." The debtor/defendants do not raise any genuine contrary issues of fact.

(i) The debtors deducted mortgage interest and real estate taxes on their 2015 tax returns. See dkt. 18, p.4:5-9 (and evidence cited therein).

(ii) During the "initial period" of the trusts (the earlier of the grantors' deaths or 16 years) the debtors can continue to live in the property rent-free. See Dkt. 18, p.4:10-15 (and evidence cited therein).

(iii) During that same period, any net income or excess cash is distributed to the debtors. See Dkt. 18, p.4:16-21 (and evidence cited therein).

(iv) The debtors can manage the property as "absolute owners." See Dkt. 18, p.4:22-28 (and evidence cited therein).

(v) The debtors can loan money to themselves and/or use the property to secure loans to themselves. See Dkt. 18, p.5:2-7 (and evidence cited therein).

(vi) During their lifetime, the debtors can make discretionary distributions to their children, and upon their deaths the trust assets are to be distributed to their children. See Dkt. 18, p.5:8-12 (and evidence cited therein).

Based on the foregoing, it appears that the debtors are indeed beneficiaries of the trusts to a large extent, and moreover the anti-alienation provisions of the trust lack "true substance" as that term has been used in the cited authorities. Accordingly, the tentative ruling is to grant the MSJ on the second claim for relief.

The parties are directed to address any outstanding matters of (a) venue, (b) jurisdiction, (c) this court's authority to enter final orders or judgment(s) in this proceeding and, if consent is required, whether the parties do consent, or have already expressly or impliedly consented. See *generally Stern v. This court recognizes that, at least at this stage, the attorney who filed the answer (dkt. 4) for both trustees of the trust has also executed the Status Report (dkt. 5) on behalf of one of the defendant trustees (the debtor/defendant) asserting that neither of them can consent to this Bankruptcy Court entering a final judgment because third party beneficiaries of the trust allegedly have a right to have their rights litigated "outside of this

Counsel for the answering defendants should be prepared (a) to explain whether this is a Stern objection or something else and (b) whether both answering defendants or only one of them takes this position, and if the former, why he did not execute the status report on behalf of both of them.

Counsel for the plaintiff should be prepared to address whether the plaintiff contends that there are no additional parties who need to be joined, and why.

(2) Mediation. The plaintiff suggests in the Status Report (adv. dkt. 5) that mediation, if any, should not be ordered before dispositive motion(s) are heard, which the plaintiff anticipates will be by 3/1/18. The tentative ruling is to revisit the issue of mediation after that date.

(3) Deadlines: This adversary proceeding has been pending since 9/26/17. Pursuant to LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B), plaintiff is directed to serve and lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the status conference, attaching a copy of this tentative ruling or otherwise memorializing the following.

Appearances required but telephonic appearances are encouraged if advance arrangements are made (see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.", "Instructions/Procedures").

At the 3/6/18 hearing, this Court continued the matter to allow the parties time to meet and confer about the various deadlines that this court should set in this adversary proceeding and/or court-ordered mediation. This matter was further continued to today's date for the parties to participate in mediation on or about 5/21/18 (see Order, adv. dkt. 21). This Court also directed the parties to file a status report by 5/29/18, but the parties have not done so--for a second time.

There is no tentative ruling, but the parties are directed to address why they have not filed a status report, and to provide an oral status report, and are cautioned that continued failure to adhere to the applicable rules and orders of this Court may result in sanctions.

There is no tentative ruling, but the parties are directed to address why they have not filed a status report, and to provide an oral status report, and are cautioned that continued failure to adhere to the applicable rules and orders of this Court may result in sanctions. The tentative ruling is to continue this status conference to 5/29/18 at 11:00 a.m. with a brief status report due 5/15/18.

The parties requested a brief continuance of this status conference from 2/27/18 to today's date (see Joint Status Report, adv. dkt. 10). At the status conference on 1/23/18 there was no appearance for the plaintiff, and this Court was persuaded that it was premature to adopt the deadlines stated in the tentative ruling for that status conference (reproduced below). There is no tentative ruling, but the parties should be prepared to discuss the status of this case.

Tentative Ruling for 2/27/18:

Continue to 3/6/18 at 11:00 a.m. Appearances are not required on 2/27/18.

Reasons: At the status conference on 1/23/18 there was no appearance for the plaintiff, and this Court was persuaded that it was premature to adopt the deadlines stated in the tentative ruling for that status conference (reproduced below). The plaintiff and one defendant (the debtor) have now filed a joint status report (adv. dkt. 10) requesting a brief continuance.

Appearances required. The court has reviewed the parties' filed documents and records in this adversary proceeding. The parties must address why they failed to file the required status report, and also the following issues. The following are Judge Bason's standard requirements for status conferences.

(1) Venue/jurisdiction/authority. The parties are directed to address any outstanding matters of (a) venue, (b) jurisdiction, (c) this court's authority to enter final orders or judgment(s) in this proceeding and, if consent is required, whether the parties do consent, or have already expressly or impliedly consented. See generally *Stern v. See generally In re AWTR Liquidation, Inc., 548 B.R. 300 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2016).

(2) Mediation. Is there is any reason why this court should not order the parties to mediation before one of the volunteer mediators (not a Bankruptcy Judge), and meanwhile set the deadlines set forth below? The tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 2/6/18 for the parties to lodge a proposed mediation order (the parties are directed to use the time between now and that deadline to find a mutually agreeable mediator whose schedule can accommodate the needs of this matter; and if the parties cannot even agree on a mediator they may lodge separate orders and Judge Bason will chose among them, or issue his own order).

(3) Deadlines/dates: This adversary proceeding has been pending since 11/21/17. The tentative ruling is to set the following deadlines/dates. Pursuant to LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B), plaintiff is directed to serve and lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the status conference, attaching a copy of this tentative ruling or otherwise memorializing the following.

Discovery cutoff (for completion of discovery): 5/1/18

#2.00 Hrg re: Motion in individual chapter 11 case for order authorizing use of cash collateral

Docket 14

Tentative Ruling:

Appearances required.

(1) Realistic budget? The cash collateral motion (dkt. 14) includes only $100/mo. for maintenance, and nothing for pest control, utilities, repairs, etc. Is the budget realistic?

(2) Local Form F 4001-2 (dkt. 16). Item "(ii)" states that the debtor is offering replacement lien "in excess of the dollar amount of the lien on cash collateral as of the petition date." What does the debtor mean by that? Is that appropriate?

Subject to satisfactory answers to the foregoing questions, the tentative ruling is to grant the motion on an interim basis, subject to the conditions set forth below, with a final hearing on 9/18/18 at 1:00 p.m., and a deadline of 8/20/18 for the debtor to file and serve a notice of the final hearing.

Judge Bason's standard conditions for use of cash collateral and/or postpetition financing (by creditors holding prepetition claims)

(1) Written order

(a) Form. Use local form F2081-

1.1.ORDER.CASH.COLLATERAL or the equivalent. Attach a copy of this tentative ruling as an exhibit, thereby adopting it as the written ruling of the court. Do not repeat the terms set forth in the motion or any stipulation. Incorporate those terms by reference, subject to any modification by this court (including the docket number of the document).

(b) Timing. Lodge the proposed order within 7 days after the hearing. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

(2) Minimum adequate protection

In addition to the postpetition security interests that are automatically provided pursuant to 11 U.S.C. 552 (e.g., in traceable proceeds and profits), and subject to any more comprehensive protection that may be included in the motion or related papers, the debtor shall provide at least the following protection to any creditor with a security interest in the subject property (pursuant to 11 U.S.C. 361-364, as applicable):

(a) Insurance. For all collateral of a type that typically is insured (e.g., real property and improvements), the debtor is directed to maintain insurance in a dollar amount at least equal to the debtor's good faith estimate of the value of such creditor's interest in the collateral, and such insurance shall name such creditor as an additional insured. The debtor is directed to remain current on payments for such insurance.

(b) Taxes. The debtor is directed to remain current on payments on account of postpetition real estate taxes (to the extent that real estate is part of the collateral).

(c) Disclosures/access. The debtor is directed to provide, upon such creditor's reasonable request, periodic accountings of the foregoing insurance and tax obligations and payments, as well as postpetition proceeds, products, offspring, or profits from the collateral, including gross revenues and expenses and a calculation of net revenues, including any rents and any fees, charges, accounts, or other payments for the use or occupancy of rooms and other public facilities in lodging properties (as all of the foregoing terms are used in 11 U.S.C. 552). The debtor is directed to provide appropriate documentation of those accountings, and access for purposes of inspection or appraisal.

(3) Limitation on postpetition liens

In the event that the motion or related papers seek authority to grant postpetition liens to the creditor(s) with respect to prepetition debts any such liens shall be limited to the same validity, priority, and amount as prepetition liens. As used herein, the "validity, priority, and amount" or any similar phrase that may be used by the parties or the court is deemed to include the following:

(a) Extent. Such liens shall be limited to the type of collateral in which the creditor held a security interest as of the petition date, unless this order expressly states that the liens granted by this order are intended to attach to different types of collateral from the prepetition collateral. example, if prepetition liens extended to inventory and accounts receivable but not equipment then postpetition liens are likewise limited (unless otherwise expressly provided below); and postpetition liens shall not extend to the proceeds of any avoidance actions, any recoveries under 11 U.S.C. 506 (c), or any "carveout" under 11 U.S.C. 552.

(b) Priority. Such liens shall be limited to the same priority as the security interest held by the creditor as of the petition date.

(c) Dollar amount. Such liens shall be limited to the dollar amount needed to protect the creditor against diminution in the value of the secured claims as of the petition date.

(d) Enforceability. Such liens shall be limited to the extent that the creditor's security interests were duly perfected and valid as of the petition date, and to the extent that they are unavoidable.

(e) Automatic postpetition perfection. Any automatic perfection of such liens shall be subject to any applicable limitations regarding the Court's authority, jurisdiction, or due process.

(4) Automatic disapproval of insufficiently disclosed provisions

Any provision of the type listed in FRBP 4001(c)(1)(B) or in local form F4001-2 (e.g., cross-collateralization) or any waiver of the "equities of the case" exception in 11 U.S.C. 552(b)(2) shall be deemed automatically disapproved and excepted from any order granting the motion, notwithstanding any other provision of such order, unless either: (a) such provision is specifically and prominently disclosed in the motion papers in a checklist (such as local form F4001-2), or alternatively (b) such provision is specifically identified in any proposed order granting the motion, using terminology of the type used in FRBP 4001(c)(1)(B) or local form F4001-2 (e.g., any "cross-collateralization" that is not specifically identified as such is deemed to be disapproved).

(5) Disputes

In the event of any disputes regarding the rulings in this order, the parties are directed to meet and confer and, if they cannot resolve their disputes consensually, contact the chambers of the presiding judge to arrange a mutually convenient time for either a telephonic or in-person hearing to address such disputes.

Chapter 11

#3.00 Status conference re: Chapter 11 case

Docket 7

Tentative Ruling:

Appearances required by counsel for the debtor and by the debtor(s) themselves.

(1) Current issues. This Court has reviewed the debtor's filed status report (dkt. 17) and the other filed documents in this case.

(a) Budget motion (dkt. 15). Grant on an interim basis, with a final hearing concurrent with the continued status conference (see below), and a deadline of 8/21/18 to file declaration(s) regarding the income of the debtor's spouse (see below). Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

(b) Debtor's spouse's income. The debtor's bankruptcy Schedule I reports that the debtor's spouse is a self-employed construction contractor, but that the spouse only earns $1,500/mo. in net income. Dkt. 1, at PDF p.32, line 8a. This Court takes judicial notice that there is considerable construction activity in this geographic area. Why is that income not higher?

In addition, there is no attached statement showing gross income, expenses, and the calculation of net income. That is contrary to the instructions for line 8a, and to this Court's order that for reporting purposes any spouse is to be treated as equivalent to the debtor (dkt. 6, para.3).

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 7/11/18.

(a) Bar date: 10/29/18 (DO NOT SERVE notice yet - court will prepare an order after the status conference).

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: TBD

(c) Continued status conference: 9/18/18 at 1:00 p.m., brief status report due 9/4/18.

*Warning: special procedures apply (see order setting initial status conference).

Tentative Ruling for 8/14/18:

Continue to the date and time set forth below. Appearances are not required on 8/14/18.

(1) Current issues. This Court has reviewed debtor's status report (dkt. 38) and other relevant pleadings.

(a) This Court does not have any issues to raise sua sponte.

(2) Dates/Deadlines. This case was filed on 5/28/18.

(a) Bar date: 9/4/18 (timely served, dkt. 23, 25)

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: file by 9/25/18 using the forms required by Judge Bason (DO NOT SERVE yet, except on the U.S. Trustee - the court will set a deadline and procedures at a later time).

Note: If the U.S. Trustee wishes to file initial comments on any draft Plan documents before the regular deadline, it should do so at least two weeks prior to the next status conference (but, whether or not any comments are filed, all rights are reserved to object to the Disclosure Statement or Plan when deadline(s) for such objections are established).

(c) Continued status conference: 10/16/18 at 1:00 p.m. Brief status report due 10/2/18.

*Warning: special procedures apply (see order setting initial status conference).

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." are required, and you fail to appear without adequately resolving this matter by consent, then you may waive your right to be heard on matters that are appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

Tentative Ruling for 6/26/18:

Appearances required by counsel for the debtor and by the debtor themselves.

(1) Current issues. This Court has reviewed the debtors' status report (dkt. 14), and the other filed documents and records in this case.

(a) May MOR (dkt. 18). The MOR purports to cover the period from 5/28/18 (the petition date) to 5/31/18, but is essentially blank, including the section for disclosure of existing insurance coverage (dkt. 18, pdf p. 5). Debtors should be prepared to address (i) whether they have insurance coverage on their residential real property (and any other asset requiring insurance); and, if they do (ii) whether they read the MOR and understood it prior to signing.

(b) Case Status Report (dkt. 14).

(i) Budget Motion. The status report says that a budget motion is not required by Judge Bason's procedures (dkt. 14, pdf p. 3), but that is not correct. See Judge Bason's Procedures, Section VII.F ("Judge Bason requires the use of local forms F 2081-2.2.MOTION.BUDGET and F 2081-2.2.ORDER.BUDGET"). Did counsel actually review the posted procedures? The tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 6/28/18 to file and serve a budget motion.

(ii) Consumers' confidential information. The status report states that the debtors do not have possession, custody, or control of consumers' confidential information (dkt. 14, pdf p. 10), but this Court questions whether that is accurate. What about customer lists from Hey Baby Sales, Inc.? Do the debtors claim any rights to those lists? (e.g. if the case were converted to a chapter 7 case, a sale of the debtors' interest in the company took place, and the buyer wanted the customer lists, would the debtors agree they could not retain or use the lists because the lists are owned by the company?).

The debtors should be prepared to address what steps they will take to protect confidential consumer information, and whether a consumer privacy ombudsman is required (11 U.S.C. 332).

(1) Current issues. This Court has reviewed the debtor's filed status report (dkt. 17) and the other filed documents in this case.

(a) Secured claims. Why does the debtor's bankruptcy Schedule D (dkt. 18 at PDF p.11) list $0 in secured claims (not even a disputed claim?) even though the status report (dkt. 17) states that the case was filed to stop foreclosure? How can creditor and this Court rely on the accuracy of the bankruptcy schedules in view of such inconsistency?

(b) Income. The debtor's bankruptcy Schedule I (dkt. 18 at PDF pp.19-20) lists a total of $100/mo. in income taxes, medicare and social security. It lists $0 for net income from operating a business (line 8a) despite listing multiple businesses with alleged income: "YB Design, Inc.," "Management of Rabenu Enterprises, LLC," "Babysitting services," and "Cosmetic Sales." It fails to comply with the instructions in line 8a to "Attach a statement for each ... business showing gross receipts, ordinary and necessary business expenses, and the total monthly net income." The debtor appears to be ignoring the requirements to provide disclosure as to his own income and expenses and, under this Court's order (dkt. 9, para.3), to provide equal disclosure with respect to his spouse and their businesses. How can creditors and this Court rely on the accuracy of the bankruptcy schedules and future compliance with orders of this Court in view of such non-compliance?

(c) Deadline for compliance. The tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 7/31/18 for the debtor to file amended bankruptcy schedules correcting not only the foregoing deficiencies that this Court has identified but also any other deficiencies that the debtor and his spouse and the debtor's counsel identify after carefully reviewing the documents that the debtor has filed. If in future this Court discovers other non-compliance with the debtor's obligations to provide accurate disclosures and to comply with this Court's orders, this Court may order the dismissal or conversion of this bankruptcy case, or other remedies.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 6/21/18.

retention of Newmark Grubb Pearson Commercial ("Newmark") as real estate broker but specified "no dual agency." Id. p.2:19 (emphasis in original.) The Fresno property sale motion concedes (dkt. 107, p.3, n.1) that Newmark has acted in a dual agency capacity. The tentative ruling is that, before lodging any proposed order granting the Fresno motion (dkt. 107), the debtor must file a declaration establishing that another broker has been brought into the transaction to represent one of the two parties, to be paid out of Newmark's commission. The tentative ruling is that such declaration must be served on the parties who have filed written opositions and on the U.S. Trustee.

(c) Good faith findings (11 U.S.C. 363(m)). The tentative ruling is that, before lodging any proposed order that includes a "good faith" finding, the debtor must file a declaration from the buyer (not just the broker and/or debtor) and serve that declaration on the parties who have filed written opositions and on the U.S. Trustee.

(d) Hearing to be set if needed. The tentative ruling is that if this Court is not satisfied with the foregoing declarations then this Court will issue an order setting a hearing to address whatever troubles this Court. This Court does not anticipate, however, that any hearing will be necessary.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 2/16/18.

themselves. This court has reviewed the debtor's chapter 11 status report (dkt. 31) and all other filings in this case.

(1) Current issues

(a) Proposed bankruptcy counsel (dkt. 9, 30, 34, 45, 46). The debtor has now disclosed that the source of the prepetition retainer is Olympic Holdings, LLC ("Olympic"), the managing member of which is also the debtor's managing member, namely Mr. Mark Slotkin. The debtor has also clarified that although Olympic proposes to pay counsel's monthly bills as they come due (to be held in proposed counsel's client trust account until allowed), Olympic reserves the right to request reimbursement of prepetition payments as a general unsecured claim and postpetition payments as an administrative claim - would such postpetition request be on "substantial contribution" grounds? or on other grounds, such as an administrative priority loan (under 11 U.S.C. 364? without interest? with interest?)?

The foregoing facts and questions raise a host of ethical concerns. Any counsel who is paid by a third party (the "Funder") may be subject to conflicts of interest, especially if there are potential avoidance actions, reimbursement or contribution or indemnity claims, or other claims that could be investigated or brought against the Funder. At the hearing, proposed counsel must address the following.

(i) Connections. What are all of the connections (as that term is used in FRBP 2014) among the Funder, the debtor, Mr. Slotkin, and proposed counsel? Are there any conflicts of interest, or potential conflicts? In the past, Judge Bason has followed authority holding that conflicts cannot be waived by a debtor in possession because it is representing the interests of creditors and has no authority to waive conflicts on creditors' behalf. In addition, to help in identifying all connections, Judge Bason's posted procedures require the use of Local Form 2014-1 (see those procedures at www.cacb.uscourts.gov for instructions how to fill out that form).

(ii) Terms. What are the precise understandings regarding the funds?

(iii) Informed consent of Funder. Mr. Slotkin declares (dkt. 45, para.5) that both he and Olympic understand that proposed counsel "does not represent us, and only represents the Debtor"? Have the members of Olympic (whoever they might be) been advised of this as well? Have all such persons been advised not only of representation issues but also attorney-client privilege issues, including what can happen if a trustee were to be appointed? Have all such persons been advised of duties of loyalty, whom counsel will continue to represent (if anyone) if a conflict develops, and other ethical and practical concerns? Who provided such advice: independent counsel, or the debtor's proposed counsel? Has the Funder given informed consent? Are those things in writing?

(iv) Informed consent of debtor. Has the debtor likewise been fully advised and given informed consent? Who provided such advice? Are these things in writing?

(v) Other considerations. Has proposed counsel demonstrated or represented to this Court the absence of an actual or potential conflict, a lack of disinterestedness, or any other basis for disqualification? See In re Kelton Motors, Inc., 109 B.R. 641 (Bankr. D. Vt. 1989); In re Hathaway Ranch Partnership, 116 B.R. 208, 219 (Bankr. C.D. (2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 2/16/18.

(a) Bar date: 5/25/18 (DO NOT SERVE notice yet - court will prepare an order after the status conference).

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: file by 7/16/18 (see Order, dkt. 21) using the forms required by Judge Bason (DO NOT SERVE yet, except on the U.S. Trustee - the court will set a deadline and procedures at a later time).

Note: If the U.S. Trustee wishes to file initial comments on any draft Plan documents before the regular deadline, it should do so at least two weeks prior to the subsequent status conference (but, whether or not any comments are filed, all rights are reserved to object to the Disclosure Statement or Plan when deadline(s) for such objections are established).

(c) Continued status conference: concurrent with any other hearings in this case, and also on 5/1/18 at 2:00 p.m., brief status report due 4/17/18.

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for 8/14/18:

Continue as set forth below. Appearances are not required on 8/14/18.

(1) Current issues. This Court has reviewed the debtor's status report (dkt. 203) and other relevant pleadings in this case.

(a) Siena r/s motion. Although the debtor requests that this status conference be continued to the same date and time as the pending motion (dkt. 205) by Siena Lending Group, LLC for relief from the automatic stay, that could disrupt the relief from stay calendar. As an alternative, the debtor may seek a consensual or non-consensual brief continuance of Siena's motion to be heard at the same time as the status conference, if that would be more appropriate or convenient for the parties.

(b) B&B Bachrach, LLC Post-Confirmation Status Conference (2:17-bk-15292-NB). The tentative ruling is to continue the post-confirmation status conference to the date and time set forth below to be heard concurrently with the continued status conference in the B&B Liquidating, LLC case.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 2/16/18.

(a) Bar date: Timely served (dkt. 155, 163, 167).

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: TBD

(c) Continued status conference: Continue to 9/18/18 at 2:00 p.m. No status report required.

Continue as set forth below. Appearances are not required on 6/12/18.

(1) Current issues.

(a) Motion to Extend (1) Time to Assume or Reject Leases and (2) Term of Store Closing Sales (dkt. 172). The tentative ruling is to grant this motion. The debtor is directed to serve and lodge proposed orders via this court's "LOU" system within 7 days after the hearing date.

(b) B&B Bachrach, LLC Post-Confirmation Status Conference (2:17-bk-15292-NB). The tentative ruling is to continue the post-confirmation status conference to the date and time set forth below to be heard concurrently with the continued status conference in the B&B Liquidating, LLC case.

171), and other related pleadings.

(a) Untimely Status Report and April MOR. This Court's tentative ruling for 5/1/18 (see below) directed the debtor to file a brief status report by 5/15/18, but the debtor did not file a status report until 5/18/18. Further, debtor did not file its April MOR until 5/23/18. The debtor is cautioned that failure to abide by applicable deadlines in future may result in adverse consequences.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 2/16/18.

(a) Bar date: Timely served (dkt. 155, 163, 167).

Tentative Ruling for 5/1/18:

Continue to 5/29/18 at 2:00 p.m. Appearances are not required on 5/1/18.

(1) Current issues.

(a) Background. At a post-confirmation status conference on 4/17/18 for B&B Bachrach (2:17-bk-15292-NB), debtor's counsel discussed the status of that case as well as the B&B Liquidating case. At counsel's request, this Court set a tentative bar date of 6/29/18, but advised counsel that this Court would hold off on issuing the bar date order (and may push the bar date back) pending resolution of the claims/noticing agent issues raised sua sponte by this Court.

(b) Cash Collateral/DIP Financing (dkt. 21, 22). The tentative ruling is to grant the motion on a final basis, as modified on the record at the hearing to the extent relevant, the reasoning of this Court regarding similar motions in the Bachrach case (no. 2:17-bk-15292-NB, dkt. 46-47).

(a) Notice/Service. Pursuant to LBR 9075-1(a)(2)(B), this Court has already orally and conditionally granted the debtor's request to shorten time on the motions identified below, subject to the right of any party in interest to object at or before the hearing to the adequacy of notice. With those limitations, the tentative ruling is to find notice adequate and grant the debtor's requests in its motions (e.g., dkt. 5, p.3:3-5) to excuse any requirement for telephonic notice provided that overnight delivery or other permissible expedited service (e.g., personal delivery, or email as permitted by applicable rules) has been delivered no later than 24 hours prior to this hearing to all persons with a pecuniary interest that could be adversely affected by the relief requested in each motion.

(b) Immediate relief. With respect to any immediate relief described below, the tentative ruling is that the debtor has shown sufficient cause for such immediate relief under Rule 6003 (Fed. R. Bankr. P.), to the extent applicable, and the other rules and procedures governing relief on an emergency or expedited basis.

(c) Limit Notice Motion (dkt. 3). The tentative ruling is to grant this motion, subject to the following adjustments. First, the Limited Service List must be augmented to include (i) junior lienholder Emerald Capital Funding, LLC ("Emerald") and (ii) the debtor's own bankruptcy counsel (because the motion apparently contemplates that all parties in interest - not just the debtor - will be authorized to use the Limited Service List). Second, this Court contemplates limitations that parallel this Court's modifications to the parallel order in the Bachrach case (no. 2:17-bk-15292-NB, dkt. 53).

(d) Utilities Motion (dkt. 4). The tentative ruling is to grant the motion on an interim basis, with a final hearing at the same time as the continued status conference set forth below.

(e) Tax Motion (dkt. 5). The tentative ruling is to grant the motion on an interim basis, with a final hearing at the same time as the continued status conference set forth below.

(f) Cash Management Motion (dkt. 6). The tentative ruling is to grant the motion on the following conditions on an interim basis, with a final hearing at the same time as the continued status conference set forth below. No later than 2/23/18 the debtor must file a declaration of its CFO or other appropriate person certifying that, first, the debtor has taken measures to assure that prepetition debts are not paid out of its existing accounts (e.g., stopping payment on prepetition checks, except to the extent authorized by this court), and second, the debtor is maintaining sufficiently detailed books and records that, if it becomes necessary to analyze the debtor's finances as of the petition date, such analysis will not be impaired by the non-closing of the debtor's prepetition accounts.

(g) Lease Rejection Motion (dkt. 7). The tentative ruling is to grant the motion on a final basis.

(h) Employee Wages Motion (dkt. 8). The tentative ruling is to grant this motion immediately and on a final basis as to the employees, and to grant it as to the retention of Modern HR, Inc. ("HR") either immediately or at a continued hearing if the debtor can provide an offer of proof or evidence that HR's rates are within normal market rates for comparable services.

(i) Store Closing Sale Motion (dkt. 17). The tentative ruling is to approve the retention of Great American Group LLC and Tiger Capital Group LLC (collectively, "Liquidation Consultant") subject to the filing, no later than 2/23/18, of a satisfactory statement of Liquidation Consultant's disinterestedness on Local Form F 2014-1.STMT.DISINTEREST.PROF. In addition, the tentative ruling is to authorize the proposed sales of the debtor's inventory and furniture, fixtures and equipment ("FF&E"), free and clear of any liens, claims, encumbrances or other interests of all persons/entities who have been served with the motion, with all such interests to attach to proceeds of such sales, under 11 U.S.C. 363(b) and (f)(1), (2) and (5), for the reasons stated in the motion papers. In addition, the tentative ruling with respect to compliance with nonbankruptcy liquidation laws, restrictions in leases, and abandonment of property is to track the limitations in this Court's interim order on the parallel motion in the Bachrach case (no. 2:17-bk-15292-NB, dkt. 71). In addition, the tentative ruling is to grant all such relief on an interim basis, with a final hearing at the same time as the continued status conference set forth below.

(j) Cash Collateral/DIP Financing (dkt. 21, 22). The parties should be prepared to address the following issues. (i) Is there any evidence that the debtor is "unable" to obtain credit by granting a "senior or equal lien" to the lien of Siena Lending Group, LLC ("Siena"), within the meaning of 11 U.S.C. 364(d)(1)(A)? (ii) Why would it be appropriate for this Court to approve a roll-up, cross-collateralization, and other provisions that generally are disapproved (see dkt. 22)? (iii) Why should this Court grant broader relief in this case than it did in approving a similar motion in the Bachrach case (no. 2:17-bk-15292-NB, dkt. 46, Ex.A, pp.5-9, and dkt. 50)? The tentative ruling is to authorize either consensual or non-consensual use of cash collateral and, if the terms can be modified sufficiently to be acceptable, the proposed DIP financing, on an interim basis, with a final hearing at the same time as the continued status conference set forth below.

(k) Notice of continued hearings. The tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 2/27/18 for the debtor to file and serve a notice of the final hearing on all motions that are only granted on an interim basis, and to set the same deadline for the debtor to file any supplements or amendments to such motions, with deadlines of 3/6/18 for any opposition and 3/13/18 for any reply.

(l) Proposed Orders. This court intends to file these tentative rulings on the docket (with the caption, "Memorialization Of Tentative rulings" or the like). Thereafter, if appropriate, all orders can grant or deny relief "for the reasons stated in the Memorialization Of Tentative Rulings (dkt. ___), as modified or supplemented on the record at the hearing" (or similar language). The debtor is directed to serve and lodge proposed orders via this court's "LOU" system within 7 days after the hearing date.

In view of the shortened time on the foregoing motions, parties in interest may appear and dispute the foregoing tentative rulings without prior notice to the debtor or the court (contrary to the usual requirements for "tentative rulings" under Judge Bason's Procedures, posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov).

(1) Current Issues.

(a) B&B Liquidating, LLC (2:18-bk-11744-NB). On 2/16/18 B&B Liquidating LLC ("BBL") filed a chapter 11 petition for relief before this court. In its "first-day" motions, BBL details the troubles B&B Bachrach ("BBB") encountered post-confirmation, which resulted in the need to liquidate. See e.g., BBL Liquidating Motion, dkt. 17.

BBB should be prepared to address the debtor's progress in liquidating the estate.

Reasons:

(1) Appraisal; date of valuation. The junior lienholder has requested (dkt. 31) additional time to obtain an appraisal. The debtor is directed to provide reasonable access for that purpose. The junior lienholder is directed to file and serve the appraisal at least two weeks before the continued hearing. Docket 12

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for 8/14/18:

The tentative ruling is to deny the motion. Appearances are not required.

Analysis.

(1) Background

At the hearing on 5/29/18 creditor US Bank agreed to waive the 30-day time limit in 11 U.S.C. 362(c)(3) (and no other creditors filed papers or appeared so they have forfeited and implicitly waived that time limit). Accordingly, this Court continued the hearing to this date for the debtor to present clear and convincing evidence to rebut the presumption that she did not file this case in good faith.

(As set forth in the tentative ruling for 5/29/18, such a presumption exists because (a) the debtor failed to file case commencement documents in her Prior Case without substantial excuse and alternatively (b) because she has not presented enough evidence of a change in her non-rental income to believe in good faith, as of the petition date, that this case has a reasonable possibility of resulting in a confirmed and fully performed plan.)

(2) Rental property cash flow

US Bank argues persuasively (dkt. 63, pp.6:28-7:21) that the debtor cannot overcome the presumption of a lack of good faith as to her intent to retain the rental property. That property apparently requires immediate and substantial repairs that she cannot afford.

As noted in the tentative ruling for the hearing on 5/29/18, the burden is on the debtor show that she believed in good faith, as of the petition date, that this case has a reasonable possibility of resulting in a confirmed and fully performed plan. That dovetails with the fact that, even if this Court were to grant the debtor's motion and further continue the automatic stay as against US Bank, the bank could file a motion for relief from the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(2), and then the burden would be on the debtor (11 U.S.C. 362(g)) to show that the rental property is necessary to an effective reorganization (11 U.S.C. 362(d)(2)(B)).

But the debtor's own evidence appears to show that the rental property would not generate positive cash flow after taking into consideration (a) the interest that would have to be paid to US Bank, plus the ordinary and necessary expenses, or alternatively (b) the extraordinary expenses associated with urgent repairs at the property. This analysis appears to be so even supposing (i) that the contributions from the debtor's parents were dedicated solely to this property and (ii) that no such contributions would be made absent the debtor's retention of this property.

(a) Negative cash flow even in absence of extraordinary repairs. The debtor's own projections show that, even with her parents' contributions, she will barely break even. US Bank argues persuasively that under current interest rates the debtor will lose money in any permissible treatment of its lien. Dkt. 63, p.7:10-21.

(b) Extraordinary, expensive, and immediate repairs. The repairs at issue appear to be urgently needed, for health and safety reasons as well as to preserve the value of the collateral, according to the debtor's own evidence. The debtor's appraiser allocates $371,000 to remediate mold, water intrusion, and foundation issues. Dkt. 60 at PDF p.17:17-28 (appraiser's declaration), and dkt. 24, Ex.1, at PDF pp. 17 & 20-26 (appraisal, and contractor's bid).

This Court takes judicial notice that mold, water intrusion, and foundation issues can result in very substantial claims by tenants (mold infections, tripping hazards, etc.), and very substantial damage to collateral. Those issues tend to get worse if not remediated, so they require a large and immediate cash outlay, which the debtor cannot afford.

(3) Title to the rental property

The tentative ruling is to reject US Bank's contention (dkt. 63, pp. 5:26-6:27) that this Court lacks the jurisdiction or ability to value the property and determine the dollar amount of its secured claim due to the apparent shared title to the property. Nevertheless, that shared title means that the debtor is not entitled to 100% of the rent (absent clear and convincing evidence to the contrary). Therefore the negative value of the rental property is exacerbated. That is a further reason why the debtor has not shown (by clear and convincing evidence) that she has a reasonable expectation of positive cash flow from the rental property.

(4) Income from wages, salary or commissions

The debtor's monthly operating reports do not appear to reflect non-rental income consistent with her projections. See MOR #1 (dkt. 49) and MOR #2 (dkt. 57). In addition, the debtor's numerous amendments to her bankruptcy Schedule I are all over the map and appear to be somewhat unreliable in terms of her projections, as US Bank points out (dkt. 63, p.4:18-28). In addition, her latest bankruptcy Schedule I (dkt.51) goes back to failing to include the breakdown of rental income and expenses (dkt. 41), which makes the latest figures even less clear and convincing.

(5) Lack of documentation in prior bankruptcy case.

The debtor blames a bankruptcy petition preparer (dkt. 60), but as US Bank points out (dkt. 63, pp.3:25-4:2) that person is un-named. In addition, as US Bank points out (id.), the debtor is no stranger to bankruptcy, so when she received the notice that her papers were incomplete she should have known that they had to be supplemented. These circumstances reinforce the evidence (recited above) that this latest bankruptcy case is part of a pattern of cases filed to delay US Bank (and other creditors) rather than having been filed with a reasonable expectation of being able to make legitimate use of the bankruptcy system.

trustee, "Mr. Cooper" as servicer (collectively, "US Bank"), the debtor's reply papers (dkt. 27), and other filed documents.

The tentative ruling is that (1) the debtor apparently seeks to continue the automatic stay of 11 U.S.C. 362(a) as to all property, not just the debtor's real property; (2) the burden is on the debtor to show good faith in filing the current bankruptcy petition; (3) there is a presumption that the debtor did not file this case in good faith, which can only be rebutted by clear and convincing evidence; and (4) the debtor has not adequately rebutted that presumption on the present record; but (5) it is appropriate to provide the debtor with an opportunity to present supplemental evidence, which might be done in any of several ways. (a) This Court could hold an evidentiary hearing. That hearing would have to occur within the next day in order to come within the 30 day limit in 11 U.S.C. 362(c)(3)(B), unless US Bank is willing to waive that limit. (b) Alternatively, it might be appropriate for this Court to make findings of fact and conclusions of law without live testimony, on written declarations and briefs. (c) Alternatively, an adequate protection order ("APO") might be sufficient to establish good faith if the monthly payments are set at a sufficient dollar amount and other terms and conditions are applied.

Analysis:

(1) Background

The debtor seeks an order continuing the automatic stay in this case pursuant to 11 U.S.C. 362(c)(3). The motion (dkt.12, p.3) only expressly references the real property and improvements at 9820 Brookshire Ave., Downey, CA 90240 (the "Downey Property"), although the debtor seeks to continue the stay as against all creditors (id., para. 1.e.) regardless whether they have liens against that property. In any event, the motion focuses on two creditors in particular (apparently the holders of deeds of trust against the Downey Property): (1) US Bank, and (2) Citimortgage (dkt. 12).

At the hearing the debtor is directed to clarify whether relief is sought as to all property of the estate. The tentative ruling is that any attempt to do otherwise would inappropriately discriminate among creditors.

For example, if the debtor seeks to stay acts against the Downey Property but not stay garnishment of wages, that might create a race to seize those wages. Such an unrestricted race to seize assets could be disruptive to the orderly restructuring of the debtor's finances that is at the heart of the Bankruptcy Code's attempt to treat creditors equally and maximize creditors' recoveries.

Accordingly, the tentative ruling is to interpret the ambiguous motion as a request to continue the automatic stay as against all property and creditors.

(2) The automatic stay will terminate 30 days after the petition date unless this Court enters an order extending it.

On 1/26/18 the debtor filed a voluntary chapter 13 petition (2:18-bk-10876-WB) (the "Prior Case"). The Prior Case was dismissed on 2/13/18 for failure to file case commencement documents (id., dkt. 11). Less than a year later, on 5/1/18, the debtor filed this chapter 11 case. Therefore, the automatic stay will terminate on 5/31/18 if this court does not extend the stay, pursuant to 11. U.S.C. 362(c)(3):

(3) if a single or joint case is filed by or against a debtor who is an individual in a case under chapter 7, 11, or 13, and if a single or joint case of the debtor was pending within the preceding 1-year period but was dismissed, other than a case refiled under a chapter other than chapter 7 after dismissal under section 707

(A) the stay under subsection (a) with respect to any action taken with respect to a debt or property securing such debt or with respect to any lease shall terminate with respect to the debtor on the 30th day after the filing of the later case;

(B) on motion of a party in interest for continuation of the automatic stay and upon notice and a hearing, the court may extend the stay in particular cases as to any or all creditors (subject to such conditions or limitations as the court may then impose) after notice and a hearing completed before the expiration of the 30-day period only if the party in interest demonstrates that the filing of the later case is in good faith as to the creditors to be stayed. [Emphasis added.]

The parties have not briefed the legal standards applicable to 11 U.S.C. 362(c). First, there is authority that if the automatic stay is not continued beyond 30 days then it terminates in all aspects, i.e., not only as to the debtor individually but as to all parties and the bankruptcy estate. In re Reswick, 446 B.R. 362 (9th Cir. BAP 2011); In re Hernandez, case no. 2:11-bk-53730-NB, docket #40 (Memorandum Decision).

Second, there is authority that "good faith" is a factual inquiry, although to the extent the statute defines what is good faith the interpretation of the statute is a legal question. See generally, e.g., In re Ellsworth, 455 B.R. 904, 914, 917 (9th Cir. BAP 2011) (holding that good and bad faith in other contexts are factual inquiries). Cf. U.S. Bank v. Village at Lakeridge, LLC, 138 S.Ct. 960, 583 U.S. ___ (3/5/2018) (analyzing what issues are factual and what are legal).

Third, the factual nature of "good faith" does not necessarily mean that live testimony is required. See, e.g., In re Nicholson, 435 B.R. 622, 635-36 (9th Cir. BAP 2010). In fact, the tentative ruling is that, just like hearings on whether to grant relief from the automatic stay, any hearing on whether to continue the automatic stay is intended to be an expedited, summary proceeding, not a full blown trial. See 11 U.S.C. 362(c)(3)(B) (30 day limit to conclude hearing), and compare 11 U.S.C. 362(d)&(e) (30 day limit to conclude hearing) and In re Johnson, 756 F.2d 738, 740 (9th Cir. 1995) (summary nature of proceedings on whether to grant relief from stay); In re Veal, 450 B.R. 897, 914-15 (9th Cir. BAP 2011) (same, requiring only "colorable" basis for standing to seek relief from stay).

Fourth, the "good faith" inquiry is narrowly focused on the filing of the petition. For example, debtors sometimes argue that because they have a genuine desire to retain a roof over their and their family's heads they are acting in good faith, but the question is not the genuineness of that motive. The question is whether the debtor had a sufficient basis to believe that the current bankruptcy case could be properly prosecuted notwithstanding the dismissal of one or more earlier bankruptcy cases. In a reorganization case, such as this one, the tentative ruling is that the test of good faith is analogous to a standard test of whether relief from the automatic stay is appropriate: when the petition was filed, did the debtor have a good faith basis to believe that there would be "a reasonable possibility of a successful reorganization within a reasonable time." United Savings Assn. v. Timbers of Inwood Forest, 484 U.S. 365, 376 (1988) (interpreting 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(2)) (citation and internal quotation marks omitted), and see 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(3)(A) (similar test in small business cases).

Fifth, a finding of good faith for the preliminary purpose of whether to continue the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(c)(3) is not necessarily determinative of good faith for any other purposes. See, e.g., 11 U.S.C. 1129

(a)(3), and In re Abdelgadir, 455 B.R. 896, 900 (9th Cir. BAP 2011).

(3) The tentative ruling is that this case presumptively was not filed in good faith, and that presumption is only rebuttable by clear and convincing evidence.

The statute provides, in relevant part:

(C) ... a case is presumptively filed not in good faith (but such presumption may be rebutted by clear and convincing evidence to the contrary) – as to all creditors, if –

...

(aa) file or amend the petition or other documents as required by this title or the court without substantial excuse (but mere inadvertence or negligence shall not be a substantial excuse unless the dismissal was caused by the negligence of the debtor's attorney);

(III) there has not been [x] a substantial change in the financial or personal affairs of the debtor since the dismissal of the next most previous case under chapter 7, 11, or 13 or [y] any other reason to conclude that the later case will be concluded –

(bb) if a case under chapter 11 or 13, with a confirmed plan that will be fully performed. [11 U.S.C. 362(c)(3)(C) (emphasis added)]

US Bank argues (dkt. 20, p.5:10-18) that two grounds exist to find that the case is presumptively not filed in good faith. First, under section 362(c)(3)(I)(aa), the Prior Case was dismissed after the debtor failed to file required case commencement documents (2:18-bk-10876-WB, dkt. 11). Second, under section 362(c)(3)(III)(bb), US Bank contends that the debtor has not shown a sufficient change in the debtor's financial or personal affairs to conclude that the debtor will be able to propose a chapter 11 plan of reorganization will be confirmed and fully performed.

The tentative ruling is that US Bank is correct on both grounds. Therefore the burden is on the debtor to show, by "clear and convincing" evidence, that she has filed her latest bankruptcy petition in good faith (whether she has done so is the topic of part "(4)" of this tentative ruling – this part "(3)" only addresses the presumptions and burden of proof).

(a) Failure to file case commencement documents in Prior Case. The debtor's motion acknowledges that the Prior Case was dismissed because she failed to file bankruptcy schedules, her statement of financial affairs ("SOFA"), and a proposed chapter 13 plan, but the motion offers no explicit explanation for those failings (dkt. 12, PDF p. 11, para. 6). Instead, the debtor states that she was "unable to propose a feasible plan under a Chapter 13 bankruptcy because she was not able to afford the arrears over a five year period." (Id., PDF p. 6, paragraph F) (emphasis added). In other words, the debtor implies that her failure to file documents in her Prior Case was intentional, because she realized that it was not feasible for her to attempt to restructure her debts in chapter 13.

In her reply papers, the debtor states that she "filed [the] prior case ... when a real estate agent referred her to a petition preparer, James Rivas ('Rivas') to file a bankruptcy for her. She paid $625 including filing fee and filed a chapter 13 ... [but] she did not know that Rivas did not file all the schedules and [the] Prior Case was dismissed for failure to file her schedules" (dkt. 27, PDF p. 2, lines 9-14). That explanation does not appear to be credible because in the Prior Case the debtor herself was served, at her address of record, with this Court's order directing her to file the missing documents (case no. 2:18-bk-10876-WB, dkt. 8).

The tentative ruling is that the debtor has not established a "substantial excuse" for failing to file her case commencement documents in the Prior Case. Therefore the presumption of lack of good faith applies, and it can only be rebutted by clear and convincing evidence.

(b) Insufficient evidence of a substantial change in circumstances, or other reason to believe that this case will conclude in a confirmed and fully performed plan. The debtor's declaration states that she has "taken steps to increase her income and cut her expenses" (dkt. 12, PDF p. 11, paragraphs 8-9). The debtor does not say what specific changes she has made with respect to her non-rental income and expenses. As to rental income, she has now moved out of the Downey Property and is renting it to tenants, and she claims in the motion papers that this will generate an additional $3,500 in monthly income. The debtor's amended bankruptcy Schedule I (dkt. 16, line 8.a.) increases this monthly rental income to $3,700.

(Note: This Court observes that the debtor's original and amended bankruptcy Schedule I suffer from two defects. First, the instructions to line 8.a. clearly state that the debtor is supposed to list "net" income from rental property and attach a statement showing gross receipts, ordinary and necessary expenses, and net income. Instead the debtor appears to have listed gross income in Schedule I, and expenses such as the mortgage, taxes, insurance, and maintenance in Schedule J.

Second, the debtor apparently is using amended bankruptcy Schedules I & J to reflect postpetition changes, which is wrong. Those schedules are supposed to reflect the facts as of the petition date. The debtor should have filed a Declaration of Current/Postpetition Income and Expenses on local form F 3015.1.20.DEC.INCOME.EXPENSE. Nevertheless, these errors do not appear to have altered the math, so for present purposes this Court will disregard the debtor's errors, with a direction to the debtor to correct these errors within seven days of the hearing date.)

As for the debtor's reasons to believe that this case will result in a confirmed and fully performed plan, the debtor states that she intends to "cram down" US Bank's first priority lien to $500,000 and amortize it over 30 years to reduce the monthly payment to US Bank to $2,684.11. (Id., PDF p. 5, paragraph 2.B. & C.). The motion does not specify the proposed interest rate or provide any evidence to support the $500,000 valuation.

(i) Flaws in the debtor's evidence of non-rental income: alternative reasons why there is a presumption of lack of good faith. US Bank argues (dkt. 20, pp.5:26-6:9) that (i) the debtor's historical non-rental income is not fully disclosed (see SOFA, dkt. 1, at PDF p.35, item "4", listing only this year and omitting two previous calendar years); (ii) even limited to these few months, the SOFA reveals $600/mo. less non-rental income per month than the debtor has projected in her bankruptcy Schedule I, which calls into question the accuracy of that projection; (iii) her net non-rental income includes only $100/mo. for payment of State or Federal self-employment/withholding taxes (dkt. 26, at PDF p. 5) and there is evidence that the debtor has under-paid such taxes in the past (see dkt. 20, pp.5:28-6:1); and therefore (iv) "Debtor's figures are not currently supported and are likely to be negative not positive." The debtor's reply papers (dkt. 27) fail to address these issues.

The tentative ruling that, in view of these deficiencies in the debtor's evidence of non-rental income, the debtor has not adequately shown that, when she filed this case, she had sufficient basis for a good faith belief that this case is likely to result in a "confirmed plan that will be fully performed" within the meaning of 11 U.S.C. 362(c)(3)(C)(iii)(bb). It is true that, as described below, the debtor has provided evidence of increased rental income; but even with such rental income the debtor's cash flow is dependent upon sufficient non-rental income. Therefore, this is an alternative reason why there is a presumption that this case was not filed in good faith, which can only be rebutted by "clear and convincing" evidence.

(ii) Flaws in the debtor's evidence of rental income appear to have been adequately addressed, for purposes of any presumptive lack of good faith. As for rental income and the debtor's proposed retention of the Downey Property, US Bank argues (A) that the debtor would have to provide substantial "new value" to satisfy the "absolute priority rule" and thus be eligible to confirm a plan (dkt. 20, p.6:10-18, citing In re Zachary, 811 F.3d 1191 (9th Cir. 2016)), and (B) that even with an interest rate of 5.75% (i.e., only 1% above prime, notwithstanding the 100% loan-to-value ratio), the principal and interest payments would be $2,917.86 per month which, combined with $996.66 of property tax, insurance and maintenance (per the debtor's bankruptcy Schedule J) would result in negative cash flow based on $3,700/mo. in rental income. US Bank questions whether the debtor could obtain confirmation of any plan that would retain property with negative cash flow. Dkt. 20, p.7:3-9 (citing Loop Corp. v. United States Trustee, 379 F.3d 511, 515-16 (8th Cir. 2004) (negative cash flow sufficient to establish continuing loss to or diminution of estate for purposes of converting to chapter 7); In re Lindsay, 122 B.R. 157, 158 (Bankr. M.D. Fla. 1991) (denial of confirmation when debtors proposed to devote first 12 plan payments to non-income producing investment property)).

In her reply papers, the debtor provides evidence that in addition to renting out part of the Downey Property to one tenant for $3,500/mo. under a lease dated 2/15/18 (dkt. 27, Ex.3), she is about to rent out one bedroom and one bathroom to another tenant for $750/mo. under a lease dated 5/19/18 (id.), for a total of $4,250/mo. in rental income (see id., at Ex.1, Sch.I, line 8.a.). (Confusingly, the debtor's pending cash collateral motion (dkt. 28, p.4, para. 3) lists her monthly rental income as $4,200, but the leases themselves call for total gross rents of $4,250/mo., so this Court will use the latter number.)

The debtor's reply proposes to increase adequate protection payments to US Bank to $3,210/mo. (She also proposes to pay property taxes and property insurance directly rather than through escrow account(s) (dkt. 27, PDF p. 2:18-20), an issue on which this Court expresses no opinion at present.)

The tentative ruling is that this evidence of additional rental income adequately rebuts, for present purposes, US Bank's evidence that the Downey Property is cash flow negative. True, the second lease was not actually entered into until after the petition, but the point is that as of the petition date it was reasonable for the debtor to believe that such a lease could be entered into, and therefore the debtor has established her good faith to the extent that she relied on such income in filing her bankruptcy petition on 5/1/18.

As for the confirmation issues, such as how much "new value" the debtor might be required to contribute, the tentative ruling is that such issues are premature. The issues are complex, and both US Bank and the debtor may have substantial arguments in their favor. See generally Procedures of Judge Bason, available at www.cacb.uscourts.gov (search for "new value" and "cramdown"). In other words, using the language of 11 U.S.C. 362(c)(3)(C)(iii), US Bank has not established that the debtor lacked a good faith "reason to conclude" that this case could result in a confirmed plan that can be fully performed.

That does not mean that the debtor has necessarily established that she filed her petition in good faith. The point is only that the Downey Property issues do not establish an alternative basis for a presumption against good faith. As noted above, however, that presumption is established on two alternative grounds – the debtor's failure to file case commencement documents in the Prior Case, and the flaws in her evidence of non-rental income in this case. Therefore, the issue is whether the debtor has rebutted that presumption with clear and convincing evidence that she filed her petition in good faith.

(4) Whether the debtor has rebutted the presumption of lack of good faith by "clear and convincing" evidence

The tentative ruling is that the debtor has not met her burden on the present record. But if this Court is persuaded to accept additional evidence then perhaps the debtor can establish, by clear and convincing evidence, that she filed her current bankruptcy petition in good faith.

(a) Non-rental income. As noted above, the debtor has completely failed to address the flaws in her evidence of non-rental income. But for several reasons the debtor might be able to present sufficient evidence on that issue.

Assuming for the sake of discussion that the debtor's non-rental income must be decreased to account for self-employment/withholding taxes, and for the vagueries of being an independent contractor, it is not clear on the present record how substantial those adjustments might be. Depending on the debtor's testimony, historical records, and other evidence, she might be able to show by clear and convincing evidence that she had a good faith belief that no such adjustments would be necessary, or that they would be so minor that she could absorb them, and therefore that she filed her petition in good faith.

(b) Rental income, and retaining the Downey Property. The second lease attached to the debtor's reply appears to be "clear and convincing" evidence that, as of the petition date, the debtor had a reasonable basis to anticipate increasing her rental income, and to that extent a good faith basis to file her bankruptcy petition. Of course, that evidence was only presented with the reply, but the signature line on this lease is dated 5/19/18, so it could not have been presented earlier and the tentative ruling is to accept that evidence subject to providing US Bank with an opportunity to respond to it.

More generally, whether the Downey Property is cash flow negative, neutral, or positive depends in part on what amortizing payments the debtor must make to US Bank every month. Those amortizing payments depend, in turn, on the appropriate interest rate and collateral valuation.

US Bank's opposition papers recognize that there is a colorable argument for an interest rate of 1% above prime, although of course that rate might or might not be what this Court would actually approve. The tentative ruling is that because a colorable argument can be made for such a rate, that is clear and convincing evidence that the debtor could file her petition in a good faith belief that such a rate might be approved. Therefore the more significant issue is valuation of the Downey Property.

The debtor's motion and reply papers do not include any evidence in support of the $500,000 valuation used in her motion (dkt. 12, p.5). Nevertheless, as the owner of the Downey Property she is competent to testify as to her opinion of its value, if this Court is persuaded to accept that additional evidence.

In addition, this Court notes that the debtor has filed a Motion For Order Determining Value of Collateral (dkt. 24), which contains an appraisal and a signed statement from an appraiser (not a declaration) that values the real property at $550,000. The point is not that this is admissible evidence in support of the present motion under section 362(c)(3) – it is not. Rather, the point is that, if this Court is persuaded to provide the debtor with an opportunity to present additional evidence, she may be able to offer clear and convincing evidence of her good faith in presuming that the Downey Property has a value in a range that could make a chapter 11 plan confirmable and feasible.

(5) Conclusion

The tentative ruling is that there is a presumption that the debtor has not filed this case in good faith for two alternative reasons: first, she failed to file case commencement documents in her Prior Case without substantial excuse; and second, she has not presented enough evidence of a change in her non-rental income to believe in good faith, as of the petition date, that this case has a reasonable possibility of resulting in a confirmed and fully performed plan. The burden is on the debtor to rebut this presumption by clear and convincing evidence.

The debtor might be able to do so if this Court permits her to present additional evidence. The tentative ruling is to permit such evidence, subject to US Bank also being permitted to present rebuttal evidence. Such leeway appears to be warranted because of the considerable time pressure in bringing or opposing a motion under section 362(c)(3), as well as the complexity of the issues. Such evidence could be addressed in several ways.

(a) Evidentiary hearing. This Court could set an evidentiary hearing.

But because the hearing must be "completed" before the expiration of the 30-day period after the petition date (11 U.S.C. 362(c)(3)(B)) any such hearing would have to occur in the next day, unless US Bank is willing to waive the 30 day limit.

(b) Declarations. Another alternative might be to make findings of fact and conclusions of law based on written declarations and briefs, without oral testimony. Given the expedited and summary nature of proceedings under 11 U.S.C. 362(c)(3), that might be appropriate.

(c) APO. The debtor has expressed a willingness to enter into an APO (dkt. 27, p.2:23-25). If the dollar amount of monthly payments is sufficient, and if other terms and conditions are appropriate, that might be sufficient to show "good faith" under 11 U.S.C. 362(c)(3). As the saying goes, "the proof is in the pudding."

The parties are directed to address the foregoing issues at the hearing, including whether they will agree to an APO in resolution of this motion. Any such APO would be without prejudice to disputing all issues, including good faith, at any later stage of this case.

fr. 5/29/18, 6/12/18, 7/10/18

Docket 7

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for 8/14/18:

The tentative ruling is to convert this bankruptcy case to chapter 7.
Appearances are not required. After the hearing this Court will prepare the conversion order.

(1) Current issues.

(a) Background. The debtor's status report notes (dkt. 62, p.2:9-12) that the debtor fell behind in mortgage payments and faced a scheduled increase in monthly payments from $2,500 to $7,800. That is an extremely unfortunate circumstance, but at this point it appears that there is no way to retain the property, and attempting to do so would simply mean that the debtor and her parents would be "throwing good money after bad." The best alternative may be for the debtor to obtain her chapter 7 discharge and the "fresh start" that is one of the main purposes of the bankruptcy system.

This Court recognizes that the debtor has attempted to save the property by moving out and renting it, as well as by obtaining contributions from her parents. Unfortunately, even if the debt is bifurcated as the debtor seeks to do, the property does not appear to be able to generate positive cash flow after payments on the mortgage. See tentative ruling for calendar no. 4 (denying motion to continue automatic stay). In addition, the property appears to have substantial deferred maintenance and other problems. Despite the efforts of the debtor and her counsel, it does not appear possible to satisfy the requirements of the Bankruptcy Code to keep the property.

(b) Denial of motion to continue automatic stay. As noted above, this Court's tentative ruling is to deny the debtor's motion to continue the automatic stay (see tentative ruling for calendar no. 4).

(c) Budget motion (dkt. 17, 41, 46, 50, 56). This Court granted the debtor's budget on an interim basis (dkt. 46) and orally on a final basis at the hearing on 6/12/18, but no proposed final order was lodged. In addition, since that time the debtor has filed amended bankruptcy Schedules I&J (dkt. 56) which appear to amend the proposed budget. In addition, as set forth in the tentative ruling denying the debtor's motion to continue the automatic stay, it appears that even the latest proposed budget would need to be different, to account for greater adequate protection payments in view of increased interest rates and in view of the urgent need to stop the mold and water intrusion issues at the property from becoming worse (see tentative ruling for calendar no. 4). For all of these reasons, the tentative ruling is that, notwithstanding this Court's prior oral ruling, the budget motion cannot be approved on a final basis; but that issue appears to be moot because of the tentative ruling to convert this case to chapter 7.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 5/1/18.

- (b) Plan/Disclosure Statement: N/A.

Tentative Ruling for 4/10/18:

Appearances are not required on 4/10/18.

(1) Current issues

(a) Motion for Relief from Stay (dkt. 48). In light of the proposed settlement with the Fresco Parties, the tentative ruling is to continue the hearing to be concurrent with the continued status conference (see below).

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement. The tentative ruling is to conduct a combined hearing on the adequacy of the (forthcoming) disclosure statement and confirmation of the (forthcoming) plan to be concurrent with the continued status conference (see below).

(c) Fresco Adversary Proceeding (adv. case no. 2:17-ap-01558-NB), including motion to remand (adv. dkt. 8). The tentative ruling is that this matter will be mooted, assuming that this Court approves the parties' proposed settlement, and therefore this matter should go off calendar. The parties are reminded to file appropriate papers to have this matter dismissed once the settlement is fully implemented.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 10/16/17.

Chapter 11

Tentative Ruling for 2/13/18:

Appearances required.

(1) Current issues

(a) Potential settlement with Fresco Parties. The parties must be prepared to address the status of their settlement negotiations and finalization of the draft settlement documents circulated 2/5/18, and all other issues appropriate to raise at a status conference, including the issues in their recent status reports and related documents (Sakurai case, no. 2:17-bk-22660-NB, dkt. 87, 104, 105, 114, 124, and Checkmate case, no. 2:17-bk-22648-NB, dkt. 90, 93, 100, 102, 104, 105, 106, 109, 112, 113, 119, 122).

(b) Cash collateral & budget motions & stipulation (Sakurai dkt. 119, 122; Checkmate dkt. 114, 118, 119). Grant the cash collateral motion in the Sakurai case, subject to the same replacement liens and other terms and conditions as this Court's prior approvals of the use of cash collateral (see Sakurai case dkt. 43, 57); grant the budget motion in the Sakurai case; and approve the cash collateral stipulation in the Checkmate case on a final basis.

(d) Removed action (Adv. no. 2:17-ap-01558-NB), motions for stay and for remand (adv. dkt. 8, 10, 12, 13). The tentative ruling is that the motion for a stay pending determination by the District Court of the debtors' motion to withdraw the reference is moot, because the District Court has dismissed that motion. There is no tentative ruling on the motion to remand.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 10/16/17.

Tentative Ruling for 1/30/18:

(1) Current issues

(a) Dec MOR (dkt. 97):

(i) On page 1 of 34, the MOR reflects $793,000 in cash receipts for the pre-petition Community Bank Sakurai Family Trust savings account, with a notation that Community Bank initially seized, but has since returned, the funds. What is this money from? Is it currently being held? Is it available to pay secured or unsecured creditors?

(ii) On page 7 of 34, there is a line item reflecting a $5,000 payment to Mr. Aronson for legal fees. At the status conference on 1/9/18 this court highlighted that the Sakurais had made a similar payment in November for Mr. Aronson's fees and counsel stated that the payment was made in error, and the debtors and their counsel assured this court that this issue would be addressed. By no later than February 7, 2018, Mr. Aronson is directed to file a declaration addressing the status of the $10,000 in legal fees ($5,000 Nov; $5,000 Dec) that he received from the Sakurais.

(b) Turnover of Documents and Information, etc. The parties must be prepared to address what documents and information have been produced by the debtors, and all other issues appropriate to raise at a status conference, including the issues in their recent status reports and related documents (case no. 2:17-bk-22660-NB, dkt. 87, 104, 105, 114, and 2:17-bk-22648-NB, dkt. 90, 93, 100, 102, 104, 105, 106, 109, 112, 113).

Continue all matters scheduled for today in the Sakurai and Checkmate cases and related adversary proceeding to 1/30/18 at 2:00 p.m. in view of the apparent inability of the Office of the United States Trustee to appear due to the shutdown of much of the federal government. At the continued hearing the parties must be prepared to address all issues appropriate to raise at a status conference, including the issues in their recent status reports and related documents (case no. 2:17-bk-22660-NB, dkt. 87, 104, 105, and 2:17-bk-22648-NB, dkt. 90, 93, 100, 102, 104, 105, 106, 109). The following tentative rulings are contingent on filing a corrected proof of service, no later than the day after this hearing, declaring that such expedited service was actually done, or if that is not true then the tentative ruling is to impose sanctions of $200 on counsel for the debtors and, despite the lack of service, authorize the proposed expenditures of cash collateral and the proposed utility deposits as an interim method of providing adequate protection under 11 U.S.C. 361-366.

(1) Current Issues.

(a) Joint Status Report and Notice of Continuances. This Court's 5/8/18 tentative ruling (see below) was not opposed, so it became this Court's actual ruling.

This Court directed (i) Checkmate to file and serve a notice of continuances attaching and incorporating by reference the deadlines in that tentative ruling by 5/7/18, and (ii) the parties to file a brief joint status report by 5/29/18. As of the preparation of this tentative ruling, none of the parties have complied. The parties are cautioned that failure to abide by applicable deadlines in future may result in adverse consequences.

(b) Motion for TRO & Claim and Delivery (adv. dkt. 10).

Plaintiff/debtor Checkmate King Co., Ltd. ("Checkmate") has filed a stipulation (adv. dkt. 30) with defendants Radiology Solutions Corp. ("RS") and George Fower ("Fower") for turnover of equipment. But Checkmate has not provided any evidence that it has relief from the automatic stay and consent of the Chapter 7 Trustee in the RS and Fower bankruptcy cases for such turnover (Case Nos. 8:18-bk-10585-TA and 8:18-bk-10583-TA). The tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 6/19/18 for Checkmate to file a declaration attaching evidence sufficient to establish those things, and lodge a revised proposed order to approve the stipulation.

(2) Deadlines: This adversary proceeding has been pending since 3/6/18. It is premature to set a discovery cutoff and other deadlines at this time. Continue to 7/17/18 at 2:00 p.m., brief joint status report due 7/3/18.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." If appearances are required, and you fail to appear without adequately resolving this matter by consent, then you may waive your right to be heard on matters that are appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

Tentative Ruling for 5/8/18:

The tentative ruling is to continue all pending matters in this adversary proceeding to 6/12/18 at 2:00 p.m. for the reason stated below, with a brief joint status report due 5/29/18, and with a deadline of 5/7/18 for the plaintiff to file and serve a notice of continuances attaching and incorporating by reference the deadlines in this tentative ruling (assuming that this Court is not persuaded to depart from this tentative ruling). Appearances are not required on 5/8/18.

(1) Current Issues. This Court has reviewed the parties' status reports (adv. dkt. 24 & 26) and the other filed documents and records in this adversary proceeding.

(a) Motion for TRO & Claim and Delivery (adv. dkt. 10). At the 4/9/18 hearing on this motion, counsel for plaintiff/debtor Checkmate King Co., Ltd. ("Checkmate") apprised this Court of the bankruptcy filings of defendants Radiology Solutions Corp. ("RS") and George Fower ("Fower") (Case Nos. 8:18-bk-10585-TA and 8:18-bk-10583-TA) and requested a continuance of this hearing to allow time to obtain orders granting relief from stay with annulment. In the Joint status report (adv. dkt. 24), Checkmate states that the hearings on the relief from stay motions are scheduled for 5/15/18. Accordingly, the tentative ruling is to continue this motion to the date and time set forth at the start of this tentative ruling.

(b) Siemens Motion to Dismiss (adv. dkt. 27, the "MTD"). Defendant Siemens Medical Solutions USA, Inc. ("Siemens") has properly self-calendared its MTD for 6/12/18 at 11:00 a.m. Siemens anticipates that it may be voluntarily dismissed by plaintiff (see adv. dkt. 24), but if that does not occur then this Court anticipates that the MTD may take 15 minutes or more to hear. This Court's practice is that matters anticipated to take 15 minutes or more are heard on the 2:00 p.m. calendar (not available for self-calendaring, except by permission of this Court). Therefore the tentative ruling is to re-calendar the MTD from 11:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m., which is concurrent with the other matters in this adversary proceeding that are on today's calendar.

(2) Deadlines: This adversary proceeding has been pending since 3/6/18. It is premature to set a discovery cutoff and other deadlines at this time.

fr. 6/28/18, 7/20/18

Docket 25

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for 8/17/18:

Appearances required by debtor's counsel, Peter L. Nisson, Esq, and telephonic appearance required by debtor.

(1) Background.

(a) Denial of Reconsideration Motion. Debtor filed a voluntary chapter 13 case on 5/2/18. On 5/21/18, debtor's case was dismissed for failure to file to file case commencement documents (dkt. 12) ("Dismissal Order"). The debtor filed a motion for reconsideration of the Dismissal Order (dkt. 19) ("Reconsideration Motion"), which this Court denied (dkt. 24) ("Order Denying Reconsideration Motion").

(b) Issuance of OSC. For the reasons stated in the Order Denying Reconsideration Motion, this Court separately issued an Order Directing Debtor and Her Attorney to Show Cause Why ... (2) This Court Should Not Impose Sanctions (dkt. 25) ("OSC"), based on an apparent abuse of the bankruptcy system. The OSC directed debtor and her bankruptcy attorney, Peter L. Nisson, Esq. ("Mr. Nisson") to appear at a hearing on 6/28/18. id.

On 6/25/18, Mr. Nisson filed a response to the OSC (dkt. 29) and debtor's declaration (dkt. 30).

(c) Mr. Nisson failed to appear at hearing on OSC. Debtor and an "appearance counsel" appeared at the 6/25/18 hearing on the OSC ("Original Hearing on the OSC"); but Mr. Nisson failed to appear. As a result, this Court issued an order setting an evidentiary hearing on 7/20/18 regarding possible sanctions against Mr. Nisson (dkt. 31) ("Order Setting 7/20/18 Evidentiary Hearing"). That order provided that at the evidentiary hearing, this Court would consider whether to impose sanctions against Mr. Nisson for the reasons stated below:

(a) for the reasons stated in the OSC, (b) for his failure to appear at the Original Hearing at the OSC or to inform this Court of his unavailability prior to the hearing, and (c) for repeatedly filing documents in this case that appear to have been improperly prepared, either by Mr. Nisson or by his staff without adequate supervision, including (i) the reconsideration motion (dkt. 19) that is referenced in the OSC, (ii) a proposed chapter 13 plan that improperly includes the debtor's typed signature rather than a scanned signature (dkt. 16), and (iii) the debtor's belated declaration in response to the OSC, which was filed sideways and cuts off half of the document (dkt. 30).

(d) Mr. Nisson provided insufficient explanations for his conduct at the 7/20/18 Evidentiary Hearing. At the 7/20/18 evidentiary hearing Mr. Nisson appeared on his own behalf; debtor did not appear. As set forth on the record, this Court made certain oral interlocutory rulings regarding Mr. Nisson's representations and the need for a further continued evidentiary hearing to address a number of issues concerning such representations and debtor's failure to appear. On 7/20/18, this Court issued an order setting a continued status conference for 8/30/18 and setting an 8/1/18 deadline for Mr. Nisson to file certain documents and telephone this Court's chambers with an available date for this Court to conduct the continued evidentiary hearing (dkt. 39) ("Scheduling Order").

On 7/31/18, Mr. Nisson filed a timely declaration (dkt. 43) ("Nisson Declaration") as required by the Scheduling Order and provided telephonic notice to chambers regarding debtor's and his availability for the continued evidentiary hearing.

On 8/1/18, this Court issued its order setting an evidentiary hearing for this date for Mr. Nisson to address the conduct described in the Order Setting 7/20/18 Evidentiary Hearing and copied above (dkt. 44) ("Order Setting 8/17/18 Evidentiary Hearing"). That order directed Mr. Nisson to appear in person (including for his testimony) and the debtor to appear and testify by telephone.

(2) Current Issues. This Court has reviewed the Nisson Declaration and other relevant pleadings in this case. There is no tentative ruling, but Mr. Nisson and the debtor should be prepared to testify regarding the issues raised in this Court's OSC (dkt. 25), Order Setting 7/20/18 Evidentiary Hearing (dkt.

#2.00 Hrg re: Motion to Avoid Junior Lien on Principal Residence with Aspen G. Revocable Trust aka Aspen Properties Group, LLC., c/o FCI Lender Services, Inc. ("Aspen")

Docket 26

Tentative Ruling:

Appearances required. The tentative ruling is (1) to overrule the evidentiary objection of Aspen G. Revocable Trust ("Aspen") regarding the amount owed to the first lienholder and (2) require appearances to address issues with valuation of the subject property, for the following reasons.

(1) Overrule Aspen's evidentiary objection. Aspen asserts that debtor has again failed to meet her evidentiary burden in an attempt to establish the amount owed to the first lienholder. But on August 13, 2018, the first lienholder (Bayview) filed proof of claim no. 6 reflecting a secured claim of $652,860.72 (which debtor attached as an exhibit to her supplemental declaration (dkt. 32)). A proof of claim executed and filed in accordance with Rule 3001 (Fed. R. Bankr. P.) constitutes prima facie evidence of the validity and amount of the claim and is deemed allowed under 11 USC 502(a) unless a party in interest objects. Therefore, the tentative ruling is to overrule Aspen's objection.

(2) Valuation. There is no tentative ruling, but the parties should be prepared to address how they propose to resolve their disputes re: valuation of the subject property - e.g., (i) with an evidentiary hearing; (ii) with a court ruling based solely on the written record (to save costs, if all parties consent), (iii) through mediation, or (iv) through appointment of an appraiser (jointly selected by the parties/their appraisers) as the court's own expert under FRE 706. Note: Judge Bason requires valuations at or near the petition date. See In re Gutierrez, 503 B.R. 458 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2013).

The Motion is granted. The Clerk of the Bankruptcy Court is requested and directed to reopen this case. A trustee will not be appointed in this case absent further order from this court. Docket 20

Tentative Ruling:

Continue to 9/27/18 at 8:30 a.m. to address the following issues.
Appearances are not required on 8/30/18.

Reasons:

(1) The claim objection fails to include a sufficient cost/benefit analysis.
Judge Bason's posted Procedures (available at www.cacb.uscourts.gov)
state:

When objecting to claims, be sure to consider whether the costs of preparing and litigating the claim objection (administrative expenses) do not exceed the anticipated benefits (reductions in claims). For example, if the anticipated dividend is small or 0%, your claim objection to any general unsecured claim should clearly explain how it is justified to incur the attorney fees for that objection.

No later than 9/13/18, the movant must file either:

(a) a supplemental declaration explaining why the attorney fees for this objection are justified (including supporting evidence, such as a copy of the plan showing the projected dividend to the claimant, and a calculation comparing that projected dividend against the attorney fees related to this claim objection), or

(b) a withdrawal of the claim objection.

(2) No fees absent specific order. Counsel is prohibited from charging any fees on this matter (including all past, present and future work related to this claim objection) and is directed to return any fees that might be (or might have already been) awarded relative to this matter, unless this Court expressly states in a future adopted tentative ruling or written order that the cost/benefit analysis warrants charging fees.

Hrg re: Application of Attorney for Debtor for Allowance of Fees and Expenses Following Dismissal or Conversion of Chapter 13 Case Subject to a Rights and Responsibilities Agreement

Docket 131

Tentative Ruling:

Grant in part and deny in part as set forth below. Appearances are not required.

Proposed order: The Applicant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this court's final ruling. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

(1) Service

Although the debtor purports (dkt. 136) to have served the Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") as directed by this Court's order (dkt. 135), it appears that the IRS was only served at two of the three required addresses. Nevertheless, the IRS has filed a response (dkt. 140) and has not objected to the form of service. Therefore it appears that service is no longer at issue.

(2) Fee Application (dkt. 131)

Although the fee application could include more explanation, it appears that counsel is seeking a "no look" $2,500 for participation in the "LMM" (loan modification) program, plus post-dismissal approval of the presumptive fee in the RARA (in addition to supplemental amounts previously awarded). There has been no objection to the requested fees, so the tentative ruling is to grant the request for allowance of $9,495 in fees and $245.46 in costs, for a total award of $9,740.46, but deny counsel's request for an order directing payment of any unpaid balance of such fees out of funds held by the Chapter 13 Trustee ("Trustee") for the reasons stated below.

(3) Disposition of Funds in Chapter 13 Trustee's Possession (dkt. 132)

The Trustee filed a response (dkt. 132) to counsel's fee application seeking clarification and instruction from this Court regarding the appropriate disposition of $1,212.78 in funds currently in the Trustee's possession. According to the Trustee, the IRS has requested turnover of those funds.

(a) Procedure. The Trustee's request appears to be essentially an interpleader. The parties have not objected to this Court deciding about disposition of the remaining funds in the context of counsel's request for approval and payment of fees. Because of the small dollar amount at stake, it seems appropriate to resolve this issue at this time without requiring a formal interpleader adversary proceeding.

(b) Jurisdiction. This Court has an independent duty to consider whether it has jurisdiction in this dismissed case. Given this Court's control over the sale (under the local rules, practice, and the order approving the sale), and given that the Trustee is currently holding funds generated from that sale, this Court concludes that it has subject-matter jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. 157. See Beam v. I.R.S. (In re Beam), 192 F.3d 941 (9th Cir. 1999) (bankruptcy court had subject-matter jurisdiction to determine proper distribution of funds in trustee's possession following dismissal of chapter 13 bankruptcy case); In re Taylor, 884 F.2d 478, 481 (9th Cir. 1989) ("the bankruptcy court retains jurisdiction to interpret orders entered prior to dismissal of the underlying bankruptcy case, and to dispose of ancillary matters ....") (internal citations omitted, emphasis in original); LBR 1017-2(f).

(c) Applicable Law. If the IRS were not involved then any funds held by the Trustee would be returned to the debtor after payment of allowed administrative expenses. Section 1326(a)(2) states that "a payment made under this subsection shall be retained by the trustee until confirmation or denial of confirmation of a plan ... If a plan is not confirmed, the trustee shall return any such payment to the debtor, after deducting any unpaid claim allowed under section 503(b) of this title." 11 U.S.C. 1326(a)(2) (emphasis added). "If a debtor proposes to fund a portion of his chapter 13 plan with the proceeds from the sale or refinancing of his residence, those proceeds may consist of 'payments' under section 1326(a)." In re Van Etten, 2007 WL 7541009, at *3 (9th Cir. BAP June, 19 2007).

But "in [Beam], the Ninth Circuit held that plan payments held by a chapter 13 trustee following dismissal of a case without a confirmed plan were subject to levy by the IRS. In so holding, the Ninth Circuit noted that section 1326(a)(2) conflicted with levying statutes contained in the Internal Revenue Code and held that 28 U.S.C. 6334 [] superseded section 1326(a)(2)." In re Van Etten, 2007 WL 7541009, at *4.

Here, the IRS states that "on July 17, 2018, after the case was dismissed and after the automatic stay terminated, the IRS sent a levy to the Trustee for the funds on hand." Dkt. 140, Tanner Decl. para. 8. Therefore, the tentative ruling is to direct the Trustee to disburse the held funds directly to the IRS.

Tentative Ruling for 8/30/18:

Appearances required but telephonic appearances are encouraged if advance arrangements are made (see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.", "Instructions/Procedures").

At the hearings on 4/5/18 and 6/7/18 this Court continued the matter to allow the IRS time to evaluate debtor's proposals. What are the current positions of the parties?

Appearances required but telephonic appearances are encouraged if advance arrangements are made (see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.", "Instructions/Procedures").

At the 4/5/18 hearing, this court continued the matter for the debtor to file an amended chapter 13 plan. This court had previously continued the matter at the IRS' request for more time to evaluate the debtor's prior proposal. Debtor has since filed an amended plan (dkt. 33) and an amended Schedule J (dkt. 34). There is no tentative ruling, but the parties should be prepared to address where this matter stands and whether the IRS needs more time to evaluate debtor's latest proposal.

#11.00 Cont'd hrg re: Motion Objecting to Claim No. 5-1 on the Bankruptcy Court's Claims Register of Jerson Estrada; Request Claim to be Disallowed fr. 6/28/18, 8/2/18

Docket 24

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for 8/30/18:

Appearances required. There is no tentative ruling but the parties should be prepared to address the following issues.

This Court has reviewed the claim objection (dkt. 24), claimant's opposition (dkt. 35), and debtor's reply (dkt. 37). The claimant asserts (dkt. 35, p.4, n.1) that he "is also filing a motion from stay in order to have his claim adjudicated and liquidated in the State Court Litigation" and he claims that this bankruptcy case was filed "less than two months before the State Court Litigation's scheduled trial date." Dkt. 35, p.2:23-24. But, as of the preparation of this tentative ruling, no such motion for relief from the automatic stay has been filed.

The debtor asserts that this bankruptcy case was filed to protect the debtor from this litigation, but he does not cite authorities addressing whether claims litigation should be conducted in the Bankruptcy Court or in State Court. See, e.g., 28 U.S.C. 1334(c)(2) (mandatory abstention if non-core proceeding has been commenced, "and can be timely adjudicated," in a State forum of appropriate jurisdiction); 28 U.S.C. 1334(c)(1) (discretionary abstention); In re Tucson Estates, Inc., 912 F.2d 1162, 1166-67 (9th Cir.1990).

In this instance, it appears that the claim objection, if successful, would result in a benefit that exceeds the costs of counsel's fees. However, the debtor failed to include any analysis demonstrating that this is so. No later than 8/16/18, the movant must file either:

(a) a supplemental declaration explaining why the attorney fees for this objection are justified (including supporting evidence, such as a copy of the plan showing the projected dividend to the claimant, and a calculation comparing that projected dividend against the attorney fees related to this claim objection), or

(b) a withdrawal of the claim objection (so as not to further waste the time of this Bankruptcy Court, the claimant, and any other parties in interest in addressing this matter).

(2) No fees absent specific order. Counsel is prohibited from charging any fees on this matter (including all past, present and future work related to this claim objection) and is directed to return any fees that might be (or might have already been) awarded relative to this matter, unless this Court expressly states in a future adopted tentative ruling or written order that the cost/benefit analysis warrants charging fees.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." #1.00 Hrg re: Motion to Approve Stipulation to Resolve Debtor's Motion to Disqualify the Slattery Law Firm and Hirsch Law Firm for Conflicts of Interest and Failure to Comply with Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 2019

Tentative Ruling:

Appearances required. There is no tentative ruling, but the parties should be prepared to address (1) any filed opposition (due 8/28/18 per this Court's order shortening time (dkt. 279, the "OST")), (2) this Court's jurisdiction and authority to rule on the motion to the extent that it seeks binding rulings on the Drivers, and (3) whether this Court has a sufficient legal and factual basis to approve or disapprove the terms of the Stipulation.

Key documents reviewed (in addition to the motion papers): the supplemental papers filed by the parties (dkt. 282-86) and the debtor's motion to disqualify the Slattery Law Firm and Hirsch Law Firm for conflicts of interest (dkt. 125, the "Disqualification Motion").

(1) Background

The Drivers have a prepetition judgment based on which they assert over $8 million of claims against the debtor. The judgment is on appeal, although the automatic stay (11 U.S.C. 362(a)) presumably has stayed all such proceedings.

Most but not all of the Drivers (approximately 43 out of 54) assert judgment liens. The debtor apparently disputes the validity and/or extent of those liens such that the property subject to any such lien would be worth no more than about $4,500 in total (although conceivably there might be grounds to assert that the lien is worth much more - that issue has yet to be presented to this Court, and this Court makes no assumptions on it one way or the other).

Two firms have purported to represent many of the Drivers. The Hirsch Law Firm apparently represented most of the Drivers throughout much of the State Court Action and asserts that it currently represents all of the Drivers. The Slattery Law Firm apparently was involved in post-judgment representation and asserts that it is the proper representative of most of the Drivers.

The debtor filed the Disqualification Motion. The alleged conflicts of interest are: (a) that the two firms have made conflicting assertions as to which of them represents many of the same Drivers and (b) that the judgment liens asserted by various Drivers may create conflicts - allegedly non-waivable - among individual Drivers' security interests and between those who assert secured claims and those who do not.

At hearings on the Disqualification Motion, counsel for the debtor argued that the debtor has to know which law firm is representing any or all Drivers. That is important so that the debtor knows with or against whom it can negotiate or litigate a resolution of their disputes.

This Court's preliminary views, expressed at prior hearings, partially agreed with the debtor, partially disagreed, and acknowledged room for reasonable minds to disagree on some issues. Briefly, this Court was not persuaded that there were actual conflicts or disqualifying potential conflicts within classes of Drivers (secured, and unsecured). But this Court was tentatively persuaded that between those two classes there might be actual or potential conflicts, although any such actual or potential conflicts probably were waivable.

This Court was also tentatively persuaded that, because the issue of who represents litigants before this Court is so central to the bankruptcy process, this Court must have jurisdiction to address that issue. But this Court recognized that the expense and delay of litigating that issue would be detrimental to the progress of this case, so this Court ordered the parties to mediation. The Settlement Motion (dkt.276) seeks an order of this Court approving a stipulation (id., Ex. 1) to resolve the debtor's Disqualification Motion (dkt. 125).

(2) Jurisdiction and authority to make rulings binding on Driver Creditors

As noted above, this Court is tentatively persuaded that it has jurisdiction to determine which law firm properly represents the Drivers. This Court also has jurisdiction to approve settlements by debtors in bankruptcy, if the appropriate standards are met. See Rule 9019 (Fed. R. Bankr. P.); In re A & C Properties, 784 F.2d 1377, 1381 (9th Cir. 1986). But the stipulation goes further than simply settling who represents the Drivers.

Chapter 11

(a) Slattery fees

The stipulation approves a $175,000 payment to the Slattery Law Firm (para. 9, the "Slattery Fee Payment"). Many (perhaps all) of those fees were (allegedly) earned for nonbankruptcy work. How does this Court have jurisdiction and authority to approve or disapprove those fees?

In addition, the stipulation provides that the Slattery Fee Payment will be paid out of any distributions that otherwise would go to the Drivers, in a single lump-sum payment, without proration as to the Slattery Firm. Again, how does this Court have the jurisdiction and authority to grant a priority of distribution to the Slattery Firm?

(b) Waiver of conflicts

Paragraphs 12 and 14 of the stipulation (dkt. 276, Ex.1) include various agreements by the parties to that stipulation regarding actual or potential conflicts. Many of those agreements appear to be innocuous. For example, they agree that secured claims are to be paid ahead of unsecured claims, which appears to be an innocuous recitation of the distribution scheme provided by the Bankruptcy Code and by nonbankruptcy law.

The parties also stipulate that any Driver who no longer wishes to be represented by the Hirsch Law Firm may terminate that representation at any time, but that "any potential or actual conflict of interest which is raised in or by the foregoing recitals and stipulated terms shall be deemed waived." Id., para. 14 (emphasis added). How does this Court have jurisdiction and authority to rule that any future assertion by a Driver of an actual or potential conflict has been deemed waived?

(3) Legal and factual basis for approving the terms of the stipulation

Supposing for the sake of discussion that this Court has the jurisdiction and authority to approve the above-referenced terms of the stipulation, this Court is concerned that it apparently lacks a sufficient legal and factual basis to do so.

(a) Slattery fees

Where is the retainer agreement with the Slattery Law Firm? Where is the citation to authorities establishing the legal standards for approving attorney fees "including but not limited to a quantum meruit basis" (paragraph 9 of the stipulation, dkt. 276, Ex.1, p.4)? Have the parties applied a "quantum meruit" rate of $1,000 per hour? Because the standard is "not limited" to quantum meruit, have the parties applied a 50% contingency rate? Whatever metrics the parties have used, are they reasonable?

More broadly, where is a description of the services performed, and evidence that they are worth $175,000 pursuant to the hourly rate, or contingency fee, or any other arrangement that the Slattery Law Firm may or may not have with the Drivers? Should this Court be reviewing timesheets?

As a procedural matter, can this Court approve any fees without providing an opportunity to the Drivers to review whatever supporting evidence might exist? Has there been sufficient disclosure to the Drivers of the proposed payment to the Slattery Law Firm, including its priority?

What is the basis for granting the Slattery Law Firm an absolute priority over the first $175,000 distributed to the Drivers? Is that consistent with whatever retainer agreement exists between that firm and the Drivers?

(b) Waiver of conflicts

How is the purported "deemed" waiver of any actual or potential conflicts consistent with what is required by Rule 3-310(a) of the CA Rules of Professional Conduct? Is there any authority that this Court could dispense with the normal requirements for the informed written consent of each client after full written disclosure of the relevant circumstances and the reasonably foreseeable adverse consequences thereof?

(4) Conclusion

This Court is well aware of the need to resolve who represents the Drivers, so that the larger issues in this case can move forward, including the scheduled mediation in the next few days of the more global issues. But this Court questions whether it can approve the stipulation as proposed.

Can the parties agree to dividing the stipulation into one that resolves the Disqualification Motion and is approved under the A&C Properties factors, and another that governs the agreements between persons and issues that are not within the jurisdiction or authority of this Court? If such a divided arrangement is possible, is it appropriate?

The parties are directed to address the foregoing issues at the hearing.

Grant as provided below. Appearances are not required.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

Termination. Terminate the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1).

Any co-debtor stay (11 U.S.C. 1301(c)) is also terminated, because it has not been shown to have any basis to exist independent of the stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(a). To the extent, if any, that the motion seeks to terminate the automatic stay in other past or pending bankruptcy cases, such relief is denied on the present record. See In re Ervin (Case No. 14-bk-18204-NB, docket no. 311).

Effective date of relief. Grant the request to waive the 14-day stay provided by FRBP 4001(a)(3) in view of the relief already granted to the first lienholder.

Termination. Terminate the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1).

Any co-debtor stay (11 U.S.C. 1301(c)) is also terminated, because it has not been shown to have any basis to exist independent of the stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(a). See In re Ervin (Case No. 14-bk-18204-NB, docket no. 311).

Effective date of relief. Deny the request to waive the 14-day stay provided by FRBP 4001(a)(3) for lack of sufficient cause shown.

vs
DEBTOR

Docket 188

Tentative Ruling:

Grant as provided below. Appearances are not required.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this court's final ruling. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

Termination. Terminate the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1) and (d)(4).

Any co-debtor stay (11 U.S.C. 1301(c)) is also terminated, because it has not been shown to have any basis to exist independent of the stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(a). To the extent, if any, that the motion seeks to terminate the automatic stay in other past or pending bankruptcy cases, such relief is denied on the present record. See In re Ervin (Case No. 14-bk-18204-NB, docket no. 311).

Relief notwithstanding future bankruptcy cases.

Grant the following relief pursuant to 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(4) and the legal analysis in In re Vazquez, 580 B.R. 526 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2017), and/or In re Choong (case no. 2:14-bk-28378-NB, docket no. 31), as applicable:

If this order is duly recorded in compliance with applicable State laws governing notices of interests or liens in the property at issue, then no automatic stay shall apply to such property in any bankruptcy case purporting to affect such property and filed within two years after the date of entry of this order, unless otherwise ordered by the court presiding over that bankruptcy case.

exclusive possession of such property shall not be stayed. Any additional request for relief applicable to future bankruptcy cases is denied (e.g., any request to grant relief against third parties without any notice is denied) due to lack of sufficient factual or legal grounds presented in support of such relief.

Note: Per Judge Bason's posted procedures (available at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) this Court's order will state that the Court "does not make" a finding that the debtor was involved in the "scheme" referenced in section 362(d)(4), unless there is sufficient evidence that the debtor was involved and the debtor is given clear notice that the movant seeks an express finding that the debtor was involved. The tentative ruling in this particular case is that there is insufficient evidence and notice.

Effective date of relief. Grant the request to waive the 14-day stay provided by FRBP 4001(a)(3).

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this court's final ruling. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

The automatic stay does not apply. This case has been dismissed, which terminates the automatic stay. See 11 U.S.C. 349(b)(3) & 362(c).

In the alternative and in addition, this court grants relief from the automatic stay as follows.

Termination. Terminate the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1) and (d)(4).

Any co-debtor stay (11 U.S.C. 1301(c)) is also terminated, because it has not been shown to have any basis to exist independent of the stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(a). To the extent, if any, that the motion seeks to terminate the automatic stay in other past or pending bankruptcy cases, such relief is denied on the present record. See In re Ervin (Case No. 14-bk-18204-NB, docket no. 311).

Relief notwithstanding future bankruptcy cases.

Grant the following relief pursuant to 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(4) and the legal analysis in In re Vazquez, 580 B.R. 526 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2017), and/or In re Choong (case no. 2:14-bk-28378-NB, docket no. 31), as applicable:

then no automatic stay shall apply to such property in any bankruptcy case purporting to affect such property and filed within two years after the date of entry of this order, unless otherwise ordered by the court presiding over that bankruptcy case.

For the avoidance of doubt, any acts by the movant to obtain exclusive possession of such property shall not be stayed. Any additional request for relief applicable to future bankruptcy cases is denied (e.g., any request to grant relief against third parties without any notice is denied) due to lack of sufficient factual or legal grounds presented in support of such relief.

Note: Per Judge Bason's posted procedures (available at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) this Court's order will state that the Court "does not make" a finding that the debtor was involved in the "scheme" referenced in section 362(d)(4), unless there is sufficient evidence that the debtor was involved and the debtor is given clear notice that the movant seeks an express finding that the debtor was involved. The tentative ruling in this particular case is that there is insufficient evidence and notice.

Effective date of relief. Grant the request to waive the 14-day stay provided by FRBP 4001(a)(3).

The automatic stay does not apply. This case has been dismissed, which terminates the automatic stay. See 11 U.S.C. 349(b)(3) & 362(c).

Grant the motion under 11 U.S.C. 362(c)(3) and (j): there is no automatic stay because (a) the debtor's prior case (#9:17-bk-12010-DS) was dismissed (on 5/24/18) within one year before this case was filed (on 7/17/18), (b) that dismissal was not under 11 U.S.C. 707(b), and (c) no finding of good faith was timely sought and obtained. SIENA LENDING GROUP, LLC
vs
DEBTOR

Docket 205

Tentative Ruling:

Grant as provided below. Appearances are not required.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this Court's final ruling (except to the extent, if any, of any changes at the hearing). See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

Key documents reviewed (in addition to motion papers at dkt. 205-06): (i) The Forbes Company Response (dkt. 211), (ii) Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors Opposition (dkt. 212), (iii) GGP, Inc. and The Taubman Company, LLC Response (dkt. 214), (iv) Debtor's Response (dkt. 215), and the movant Siena Lending Group, LLC's reply (dkt. 217).

Analysis. Subject to the provisions set forth below, the tentative ruling is to terminate the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(2) as to all collateral, except any claims that the debtor has standing to assert against Great American Group, LLC or Tiger Capital, LLC (the "Liquidation Consultants"). That limitation is without prejudice to any future request by movant Siena for relief from the automatic stay regarding any claims against the Litigation Consultants that constitute part of the collateral of the movant Siena. The tentative ruling is also to grant the request to waive the 14-day stay provided by FRBP 4001(a)(3).

(1) Landlords issues - prior to termination of automatic stay. The tentative ruling is that any relief from the automatic stay (11 U.S.C. 362(a)) should be conditioned on the movant Siena first paying any outstanding postpetition lease obligations to the objecting landlords, through the earlier of

(a) the date when the premises have been surrendered to the applicable landlord or (b) the date on which the automatic stay is terminated. See dkt. 212, p.2:14 (asserting unpaid obligations of $41,130.03), and dkt. 214, p.3:6-8 (preserving rights). As to any disputed amounts, the tentative ruling is that they must be paid into a blocked account to be held by the debtor (or as otherwise agreed between the landlords and the movant Siena) pending resolution of those disputes. (None of the foregoing should be interpreted as affecting any dispute that might exist between the movant Siena and any non-objecting landlord - that is an issue that is not presently before this Court.)

In setting forth the above condition this Court recognizes that the only issues for relief under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(2) are whether there is any equity in the property and whether the property is necessary to an effective reorganization, as movant Siena argues. Dkt. 217, p.2:7-14. But the statute gives this Court discretion regarding what type of relief to grant - whether to terminate the stay, or condition it, or grant some other form of relief. The tentative ruling is that the conditions set forth herein are appropriate in the exercise of this Court's discretion.

(2) Landlords issues - after termination of stay. The tentative ruling is that if the movant Siena wishes to remove or liquidate inventory prior to 9/14/18 then it may do so without interference from the landlords, provided that it pays ongoing rent on the same terms as currently exist, for the following reasons. Cf. dkt. 214, p.3:24-4:3 (landlord asserting that movant Siena has no right to occupy premises before (as well as after) deemed rejection on 9/14/18).

The reasoning is as follows: (a) until the lease is rejected the debtor continues to have a right to occupy the premises (subject to paying the rent), (b) terminating the automatic stay does not operate as a rejection of the lease or an ouster of the debtor - it merely permits the movant Siena to exercise its nonbankruptcy remedies, and (c) the debtor has obligations not only to unsecured creditors but also to the movant Siena, and those obligations require cooperation even after termination of the automatic stay, including not causing waste of the inventory and coordinating with the movant Siena regarding liquidation or removal of the inventory.

But if the movant Siena provides written notice to the landlord that it elects not to use the premises for liquidation or removal of inventory (and instead decides to abandon any remaining inventory) then this Court is not aware of any bankruptcy law, rule, or discretionary condition that should require the movant Siena to pay lease obligations after the later of (a) such notice or (b) termination of the automatic stay. Nor does the oral agreement of movant Siena to pay rent directly (rather than advance funds to the debtor to pay rent) create any obligation to continue paying rent. See Tr. 2/22/18 (dkt. 67) at pp. 37:11-40:3; dkt. 36 p.3:15-16. (This Court expresses no opinion about any nonbankruptcy law that might govern any rights and duties as between the landlords and the movant Siena.) Cf. dkt. 214, p.3:8-10 (landlord questioning whether movant Siena intends that termination of automatic stay should cut off obligation to pay lease obligations).

As for removal of fixtures (dkt. 211, p.2:19-27), the tentative ruling is to agree with the movant Siena that this issue should be left to nonbankruptcy law. Dkt. 217, p.6:1-6. This does not appear to be an issue that this Court should address, at least at this time, if ever.

Tentative Ruling:

Grant as provided below. Appearances are not required.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

Termination. Terminate the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1).

Any co-debtor stay (11 U.S.C. 1301(c)) is also terminated, because it has not been shown to have any basis to exist independent of the stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(a). To the extent, if any, that the motion seeks to terminate the automatic stay in other past or pending bankruptcy cases, such relief is denied on the present record. See In re Ervin (Case No. 14-bk-18204-NB, docket no. 311).

Effective date of relief. Grant the request to waive the 14-day stay provided by FRBP 4001(a)(3).

vs
DEBTOR

Docket 8

Tentative Ruling:

Grant in part and continue in part to 9/18/18 at 10:00 a.m. as set forth below.
Appearances are not required on 9/4/18.

Termination. Terminate the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1) and (d)(2).

Any co-debtor stay (11 U.S.C. 1301(c)) is also terminated, because it has not been shown to have any basis to exist independent of the stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(a). To the extent, if any, that the motion seeks to terminate the automatic stay in other past or pending bankruptcy cases, such relief is denied on the present record. See In re Ervin (Case No. 14-bk-18204-NB, docket no. 311).

Relief notwithstanding future bankruptcy cases.

As to the requested relief that will remain effective notwithstanding any future bankruptcy case, continue the motion to the date and time set forth at the start of this tentative ruling, for service on the persons who executed the documents through which the movant asserts its interest in the property (sometimes referred to in the leasehold context as the "original lessee(s)").
Reasons: See LBR 4001-1(c)(1)(B). In addition, Judge Bason has due process concerns about granting such relief without service on the person(s) whose interests may be most directly affected. See generally Mullane v. Central Hanover Bank & Trust Co., 339 U.S. 306 (1950) (due process generally). In this matter, such persons appear to include: Hyang Seo, Junh Hee Kim, Yongnam Lee or "Yong" Lee, Misoon Kim, Choi Taejin, Se Hyong, Hyang Seo, So Hee, Soon Choi, Da Sol Choi, and Da Wit Choi.

Option for shortened time: This court has selected a continued hearing date that contemplates shortened notice (per Rule 9006) but that date is conditioned on the movant (i) serving, on the day after the current hearing date, the motion papers and notice of the continued hearing date, and (ii) filing that notice and a proof of service no later than the next day. Alternatively, the movant may self-calendar a continued hearing on regular notice.

Option for interim/partial order: Movant may elect to lodge a proposed order granting the partial relief provided in this tentative ruling, but any such order must recite that a continued hearing has been set to consider additional relief (or, alternatively, that the movant no longer seeks additional relief and the Clerk's office is requested and directed to take the continued hearing off calendar).

Effective date of relief. Grant the request to waive the 14-day stay provided by FRBP 4001(a)(3).

*** VACATED *** REASON: Withdrawal filed on 8/31/18 [dkt. 24]

Tentative Ruling:

Grant as provided below. Appearances are not required.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this court's final ruling. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

The automatic stay does not apply. First, this case has been dismissed, which terminates the automatic stay. See 11 U.S.C. 349(b)(3) & 362(c).

Second, and alternatively, the movant obtained a prepetition eviction judgment and writ of possession. See In re Perl, 811 F.3d 1120, 1127-28 (9th Cir. 2016) ("We conclude that under California law, entry of judgment and a writ of possession following unlawful detainer proceedings extinguishes all other legal and equitable possessory interests in the real property at issue.").

In the alternative and in addition, this court grants relief from the automatic stay as follows.

Termination. Terminate the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1), (d)(2), and (d)(4).

Any co-debtor stay (11 U.S.C. 1301(c)) is also terminated, because it has not been shown to have any basis to exist independent of the stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(a). To the extent, if any, that the motion seeks to terminate the automatic stay in other past or pending bankruptcy cases, such relief is denied on the present record. Relief notwithstanding future bankruptcy cases.

Grant the following relief pursuant to 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(4) and the legal analysis in In re Vazquez, 580 B.R. 526 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2017), and/or In re Choong (case no. 2:14-bk-28378-NB, docket no. 31), as applicable:

If this order is duly recorded in compliance with applicable State laws governing notices of interests or liens in the property at issue, then no automatic stay shall apply to such property in any bankruptcy case purporting to affect such property and filed within two years after the date of entry of this order, unless otherwise ordered by the court presiding over that bankruptcy case.

For the avoidance of doubt, any acts by the movant to obtain exclusive possession of such property shall not be stayed. Any additional request for relief applicable to future bankruptcy cases is denied (e.g., any request to grant relief against third parties without any notice is denied) due to lack of sufficient factual or legal grounds presented in support of such relief.

Note: Per Judge Bason's posted procedures (available at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) this Court's order will state that the Court "does not make" a finding that the debtor was involved in the "scheme" referenced in section 362(d)(4), unless there is sufficient evidence that the debtor was involved and the debtor is given clear notice that the movant seeks an express finding that the debtor was involved. The tentative ruling in this particular case is that there is sufficient evidence and notice.

Effective date of relief. Grant the request to waive the 14-day stay provided by FRBP 4001(a)(3).

Tentative Ruling:

Grant, subject to (1) any opposition (due 8/30/18) and (2) the following conditions. Appearances required.

After the hearing date this court will prepare an order and the tentative ruling is to include the following language in that order:

The stay of 11 U.S.C. 362(a) applies subject to the following modifications and conditions:

(1) Service and reconsideration. Any party in interest who was not timely served in accordance with FRBP 7004 (incorporated by FRBP 9014(b)) is hereby granted through 14 days after proper service to seek reconsideration, including retroactive relief (under FRBP 9023 and/or 9024). Any such person (a) may set a hearing on 14 days' notice, (b) may appear by telephone (if arrangements are made per Judge Bason's posted procedures), and (c) may present all arguments orally at the hearing (i.e., no written argument is required). If written arguments appear necessary then this court will set a briefing schedule at the hearing.

(2) Reasons. (a) It appears appropriate to impose the automatic stay, and to impose it as to all persons rather than just as to selected persons, because one purpose of the automatic stay is to preventing a "race to collect" that could unfairly advantage some creditors at the expense of others. (b) To prevent possible abuse, this court provides the foregoing simple process for reconsideration.

Grant as provided below. Appearances are not required.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

Termination. Terminate the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1).

Any co-debtor stay (11 U.S.C. 1301(c)) is also terminated, because it has not been shown to have any basis to exist independent of the stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(a). To the extent, if any, that the motion seeks to terminate the automatic stay in other past or pending bankruptcy cases, such relief is denied on the present record. See In re Ervin (Case No. 14-bk-18204-NB, docket no. 311).

Effective date of relief. Deny the request to waive the 14-day stay provided by FRBP 4001(a)(3) for lack of sufficient cause shown.

Docket 1

Tentative Ruling:

Appearances required. The court has reviewed the filed documents and records in this adversary proceeding. The following are Judge Bason's standard requirements for status conferences. (To the extent that the parties have already addressed these issues in their status report, they need not repeat their positions at the status conference.)

(1) Venue/jurisdiction/authority. The parties are directed to address any outstanding matters of (a) venue, (b) jurisdiction, (c) this court's authority to enter final orders or judgment(s) in this proceeding and, if consent is required, whether the parties do consent, or have already expressly or impliedly consented. See generally Stern v. Marshall, 131 S.Ct. 2594, 2608 (2011) (if litigant "believed that the Bankruptcy Court lacked the authority to decide his claim...then he should have said so – and said so promptly."); Wellness Int'l Network, Ltd. v. Sharif, 135 S.Ct. 1932 (2015) (consent must be knowing and voluntary but need not be express); In re Bellingham Ins. Agency, Inc., 702 F.3d 553 (9th Cir. 2012) (implied consent), aff'd on other grounds, 134 S. Ct. 2165 (2014); In re Pringle, 495 B.R. 447 (9th Cir. BAP 2013) (rebuttable presumption that failure to challenge authority to issue final order is intentional and indicates consent); In re Deitz, 760 F.3d 1028 (9th Cir. 2014) (authority to adjudicate nondischargeability encompasses authority to liquidate debt and enter final judgment). See generally In re AWTR Liquidation, Inc., 548 B.R. 300 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2016).█

(2) Mediation. Is there is any reason why this court should not order the parties to mediation before one of the volunteer mediators (not a Bankruptcy Judge), and meanwhile set the deadlines set forth below? The tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 9/10/18 for the parties to lodge a proposed

#6.00 Hrg re: Motion to compel trustee to abandon interest in property of estate Motion For Order Compelling The Abandonment Of The Estates Interest In Real Property Located At 924 Reed Drive, Claremont, California 91711 And Personal Property Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 554(b)

Docket 12

Tentative Ruling:

Grant, as to both the debtors' residence and their personal property, for the reasons set forth below. Appearances are not required.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as a final ruling. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

Key documents reviewed (in addition to motion papers): Creditor La Verne Village LLC's opposition papers (dkt. 16, 17, 18) and the debtors' reply (dkt. 24).

Reasons

(1) Background

The debtors assert that the fair market value of their homestead at 924 Reed Drive, Claremont, California is $650,000 and that it is encumbered by liens and subject to a $175,000 homestead exemption aggregating just under $645,000 (as of the petition date). They argued that the property should be abandoned because it is of "inconsequential" value and benefit to the estate (11 U.S.C. 554) or, put differently, it will not result in a "meaningful" distribution to general unsecured creditors. In re KVN Corp., 514 B.R. 1, 6-9 (9th Cir. BAP 2014) (quoting US Trustee handbook).

Creditor La Verne Village, LLC ("La Verne") argues that the abandonment motion is "moot and unnecessary" because La Verne made an offer to purchase the property for $680,000, with no real estate brokers involved, and that offer was accepted by the chapter 7 trustee. Dkt. 17, p.2:8. La Verne also argues that the debtor's valuation of $650,000 is not supported by any admissible evidence. La Verne alleges that its $680,000 purchase price will result in approximately $25,000 inuring to the benefit of the estate. Id. p.5:7-8.

The debtors reply that even if there were $25,000 in net proceeds to the estate, the Chapter 7 Trustee's commission alone would amount to $28,500, thereby making the sale worthless to the estate. In addition, there would be fees for the Trustee's counsel and other administrative costs - i.e., to the extent those things are attributable to the sale, they would further reduce any net benefit to the estate.

(The debtors' motion also seeks abandonment of personal property, and as the debtors point out, no party in interest has objected to that portion of their motion.)

(2) Analysis

This Court is not persuaded by La Verne's argument that the abandonment motion is moot and unnecessary in view of the Chapter 7 Trustee's agreement to sell the property to La Verne. Any agreement by a bankruptcy trustee to sell property is always subject to the other requirements of the Bankruptcy Code and Rules, including the debtors' ability to seek to compel abandonment and the requirement that any sale be approved or disapproved by the Bankruptcy Court, after notice and an opportunity for a hearing on any objections. See In re Mickey Thompson Entm't Group, Inc., 292 B.R. 415, 421 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 2003). In other words, any agreement by the chapter 7 trustee has no binding or preclusive effect that would bar the debtors from prosecuting their motion to compel abandonment.

As for the merits of abandonment, the debtors have argued persuasively that there would be no net benefit at all to the bankruptcy estate, let alone a "meaningful" benefit to unsecured creditors. KVN Corp., 514 B.R. 1 . In these circumstances, it is appropriate to compel abandonment.

(1) Evidence. The Default Judgment Motion must be supported by a declaration showing evidence to support the assertion that the property description in the prayer for relief (dkt. 37 at PDF pp. 8:21-9:6) is correct (and the existing property descriptions are wrong (see dkt. 37, p.2 at para.3&5 & Ex.A&B at PDF pp. 12&15). For example, it appears that an authenticated copy of the recorded grant deed by which the defendant(s) acquired her (or their) interest(s) in the property might show the correct property description.

(2) Service. Pursuant to Rule 55(b)(2) (Fed. R. Civ. P., incorporated by Rule 7055, Fed. R. Bankr. P.), the tentative ruling is that any Default Judgment Motion must be served only on Mr. Edward Trevino Moisa, not on the (deceased) defendant Ms. Rosa Moisa.

are required, and you fail to appear without adequately resolving this matter by consent, then you may waive your right to be heard on matters that are appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

Tentative Ruling for 12/5/17:

Appearances required. The tentative rulings are as follows.

(1) No relief against unnamed defendants. At the initial status conference on 10/13/17, and in the tentative ruling for that status conference (reproduced below), this court questioned how quiet title relief could be granted against persons who are not named as defendants. The motion for a default judgment does not address that issue, and yet it seeks to quiet title as against all persons, whether or not they are named as defendants. The tentative ruling is to deny that relief.

(2) No relief against decedent whose estate has not been properly served. In addition, the plaintiff appears to be seeking a default judgment against a decedent, Ms. Rosa Moisa, without having served anyone who could properly accept service for the decedent. In fact, in preparing for this hearing this court noticed that the plaintiff had the complaint served on herself as administrator of Mr. Moisa's estate (see adv. dkt. 5 at PDF p.4). How is that proper?

To make matters worse, it appears that she is not actually the administrator: she declares that she is currently seeking to be appointed as the administrator of the decedent's estate. See adv. dkt. 21, Plaintiff Decl., p.4, para. 14.

How could counsel for the debtor seek a default judgment on this foundation?

(3) No relief against persons with whom there is no actual case or controversy. The plaintiff also seeks relief against Mr. Edward Trevino Moisa (the son of the decedent Ms. Moisa). The plaintiff alleges that there is an actual case or controversy involving him (and Ms. Moisa), but the plaintiff also alleges that after his mother transferred the property to Mr. Moisa he voluntarily transferred the subject property to the plaintiff via grant deed (dkt. 21, Plaintiff Decl., p.2, para. 5-6), and that Mr. Moisa "takes no position" and has not responded to the complaint (id. p.5:3). How is there an actual case or controversy involving Mr. Moisa (or his mother)?

Chapter 13

(4) Possible real party in interest? It is unclear from the filed papers, but the party against whom the plaintiff might really be seeking relief is the county of Los Angeles. She alleges that when she attempted to refinance the property "the Title Company for the future Lender noticed the discrepancy in the Grant Deeds (regarding Legal Description), that LA County changed the designation back to Rosa Moisa as the current owner." Id., p.4, para. 13 (emphasis added.) But it is not clear what this means - did LA County commit an error in indexing? Did it improperly alter the text of some grant deed? Or did LA County allegedly do something else to "change the designation" in some document or record?

Nor does the plaintiff point to any document that reflects any such confusion. It is not this court's role to scour the record to try to figure out what the plaintiff means.

(5) Conclusion. This court is very empathetic to the plaintiff (the debtor), who alleges that she purchased the property when it had no equity, and made payments to save the property from foreclosure, and yet, although she has obtained this court's approval to refinance the property, she has been unable to do so because of some sort of discrepancy in the real estate records regarding her title to the property. But the papers filed by the debtor's counsel fail to explain the actual issue, and in any event appear to be wholly inadequate to address whatever the issue might be.

In addition, this court is very troubled that the filed papers appear to violate basic legal principles and ethical obligations. It appears that counsel for the debtor has sought a default judgment based on (i) the plaintiff/debtor servicing herself, (ii) as the purported administrator of the estate of a decedent/defendant, even though she has not yet been appointed in that role, and (iii) with whom there does not appear to have been any actual case or controversy. This appears to be an attempted fraud on the court, intended to obtain a default judgment in the hope of binding other persons who have not been named as defendants.

Is there any reason why this court should not issue an order to show cause why sanctions should not be imposed? Meanwhile, what can be done to address whatever is the actual issue that is holding up the debtor's refinance of her real property?

#1.00 Status Conference re: Chapter 11 Case

Docket 1

Tentative Ruling:

Appearances required by counsel for the debtor and by the debtor(s) themselves.

(1) Current issues

(a) Failure to serve order. This Court's status conference order (dkt. 9, para.5, bolded text) directed counsel for the debtor to serve all creditors with a copy of the order. Why was it not served?

(b) Failure to comply with requirements for professionals. The debtor's status report (dkt. 45, p.4) states that neither the debtor's attorney nor any other professional intend to apply for employment because they do not intend to seek compensation during the case. That is not the test. They are required to apply for employment under 11 U.S.C. 327. In addition, the United States Trustee ("UST") has objected in its motion to dismiss (dkt. 39) that the person who claims to be acting as the debtor's bankruptcy attorney, Robert A. Brown, Esq., is also the debtor's CEO and General Counsel. The parties should be prepared to address the conflicts issues.

(c) Failure to comply with Chapter 11 requirements. See the UST's motion to dismiss (dkt. 39).

(d) Failure to comply with procedures for plan (dkt. 38) and disclosure statement (dkt. 37). As stated in this Court's status conferences order (dkt. 9), Judge Bason's posted procedures (available at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) establish procedures for any draft plan and disclosure statement. Counsel for the debtor has violated those procedures by mailing a copy of the drafts to creditors before this Court has approved such mailing.

In addition, those documents omit any meaningful liquidation analysis or disclosure of what could be paid to general unsecured creditors, instead opting for a flat 12% promised distribution (dkt. 38, at PDF pp.13-14). In addition, from the summary of assets and liabilities (dkt. 19) it appears that the debtor might have enough equity in property to pay far more than 12%, depending on the total amount of unsecured claims.

(e) Opaque "disclosures". The debtor's references to a sale of the "Marsh" property is not adequately explained. In addition, although the debtor's bankruptcy Schedule H (dkt. 1) asserts that there are no co-debtors, this Court questions whether that is so because business organizations typically have individual guarantors on any major debts.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 7/30/18.

(a) Bar date: 11/7/18 (DO NOT SERVE notice yet - court will prepare an order after the status conference).

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement: TBD.

(c) Continued status conference: 10/9/18 at 1:00 p.m. No written status report is required.

(a) Failure to serve order. This Court's status conference order (dkt. 2, para.5, bolded text) directed counsel for the debtor to serve all creditors with a copy of the order. Why was it not served?

(b) Failure to file status report. This Court's status conference order also directed the debtor to file a status report. None has been filed.

(c) Failure to comply with Chapter 11 requirements. See the UST's motion to dismiss or convert (dkt. 12).

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 7/30/18.

(a) Bar date: 11/7/18 (DO NOT SERVE notice yet - court will prepare an order after the status conference).

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: TBD

(c) Continued status conference: 10/9/18 at 1:00 p.m. Status Report due 9/25/18.

*Warning: special procedures apply (see order setting initial status conference).

#11.00 Cont'd status conference re: Chapter 11 Case
fr. 3/20/18, 5/1/18, 7/10/18

Docket 6

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for 9/4/18:

Appearances required.

Proposed order: If this Court is persuaded to adopt the following tentative ruling - i.e. to approve the Amended Disclosure Statement on a final basis and confirm the debtor's Amended Plan - then the debtor is directed to lodge via LOU, within 7 days after the hearing date, (1) a proposed order approving the Amended Disclosure Statement and (2) a proposed order confirming the Amended Plan, and attach to the latter proposed order a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this Court's final ruling. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

(1) Current issues. This Court has reviewed the debtor's Amended Disclosure Statement (dkt. 61), Amended Plan (dkt. 62), Ballot Summary (dkt. 69), and other relevant pleadings.

(a) Debtor's Amended Plan requires cramdown pursuant to 1129(b).

The debtor's amended plan identifies three impaired classes: 2A, 2B, and 4A. To avoid cramdown, all three classes must vote to accept the plan (11 U.S.C. 1129(a)(8)). Based on a review of the debtor's Ballot Summary (dkt. 69), the votes were as follows:

(i) Classes that voted to accepted the AmPI: 2B, 4A

(ii) Classes that voted to reject the AmPI: n/a

(iii) Classes that did not vote and are deemed to reject the

AmPI: 2A

Therefore, the debtor's plan can only be confirmed if it satisfies the cramdown requirements of 1129(b) as to Class 2A.

(b) The Amended Plan is "fair and equitable" and does not "unfairly discriminate" with respect to Class 2A. Section 1129(b)(1) states, in relevant part "...if all of the applicable requirements of subsection (a) of this section other than paragraph (8) [acceptance by every impaired, voting class] are met with respect to a plan, the court, on request of the proponent of the plan, shall confirm the plan notwithstanding the requirements of such paragraph if the plan does not discriminate unfairly, and is fair and equitable, with respect to each class of claims or interests that is impaired under, and has not accepted, the plan." (Emphasis added.)

(i) Secured Creditor Class 2A. First, the debtor appropriately classified Planet Home Lending, Inc.'s ("PLH") first priority secured claim into its own category and has not otherwise discriminated unfairly with respect to Class 2A. Second, the debtor proposes to pay PLH 100% of its claim for a period of 180 months with 3% apr. PLH has not objected to the interest rate on the basis that it does not provide present value and PLH will retain its lien and receive deferred cash payments. Therefore, the amended plan satisfies 11 U.S.C. 1129(b)(2)(A)(i)(I) and (II). In addition, PLH will receive payment in full, so the absolute priority rule (11 U.S.C. 1129(b)(2)(B)(ii)) is satisfied with respect to this class. Finally, in all other respects the amended plan appears to be fair and equitable with respect to Class 2A. Therefore, the amended plan satisfies the requirements for cramdown with respect to Class 2A.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 2/16/18.

(a) Bar date: 5/25/18 (timely served dkt. 24, 29).

(b) AmPlan/AmDisclosure Statement (dkt. 61, 62)*: The tentative ruling is to approve the amended disclosure statement on a final basis and confirm debtor's amended plan pursuant to 1129(b).

(c) Post-Confirmation status conference: 11/27/18 at 1:00 p.m. Brief written post-confirmation status report due 11/13/18.

*Warning: special procedures apply (see order setting initial status conference).

Appearances required by counsel for the debtor but telephonic appearances are encouraged if advance arrangements are made (see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.", "Instructions/Procedures").

(1) Current issues. This Court has reviewed the debtor's status report (dkt. 54) and other relevant pleadings.

(a) Plan/Disclosure Statement (dkt. 51, 52). It appears that the differences between the stipulation with JP Morgan Chase Bank, NA (dkt. 55, 58) and the proposed plan (dkt. 52, Ex.A, Class 2B) are immaterial (a very minor increase in the claim amount and monthly amortizing payment amount). This court has no issues to raise sua sponte.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 2/16/18.

(a) Bar date: 5/25/18 (timely served dkt. 24, 29).

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement (dkt. 51, 52)*: 7/17/18 deadline to file (NOT SERVE - except on the U.S. Trustee) any redlined revisions to be discussed at the status conference and lodge Judge Bason's form of order authorizing service of the voting package, setting deadlines, and setting a combined hearing on final approval of the Disclosure Statement and confirmation of the Plan for the same time as the continued status conference.

(a) Cash Collateral Motion (dkt. 12). The tentative ruling is to grant the motion on a final basis and authorize the use of cash collateral as modified by the amended budget (dkt. 35).

(b) Budget Motion (dkt 13). The tentative ruling is to grant the motion on a final basis as modified by the amended budget (dkt. 35) (see also dkt. 18, 21, 22, 28).

(c) Proposed Orders. The debtor is directed to serve and lodge proposed orders on the foregoing motions via this court's "LOU" system within 7 days after the hearing date.

(d) Status Report. This Court's prior tentative ruling set a deadline of 4/17/18 to file a brief status report. As of the preparation of this tentative ruling, the debtor has not filed a status report. Why not?

(e) Untimely Filings.

(i) This Court directed the debtor to serve Chase with the Budget Motion and Cash Collateral Motion by 3/22/18, but the Debtor's proof of service reflects service on 3/23/18.

(ii) This Court also directed the debtor to file a supplemental declaration in support of the Budget Motion by 3/30/18, but the Debtor did not file her declaration until 4/5/18.

Docket 7

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for 9/4/18:

Appearances required.

(1) Current issues. This Court has reviewed the debtor's draft plan (dkt. 47) and disclosure statement (dkt. 46) and this Court has no issues to raise sua sponte. Has the debtor had any negotiations with secured creditors? Is it more appropriate to allow additional time for such negotiations, or to authorize the debtor to mail a voting package to all parties in interest and set a combined hearing on final approval of the disclosure statement and confirmation of the plan for the same time and date as the continued status conference set forth below?

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 3/6/18.

(a) Bar date: 6/15/18 (dkt. 23). Timely served (dkt. 41).

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement (dkt. 46, 47)*: See above.

(c) Continued status conference: 10/16/18 at 1:00 p.m. No written status report is required.

*Warning: special procedures apply (see order setting initial status conference).

At the hearing counsel is directed to explain why the proofs of service are defective, and what steps will be taken to correct this issue so that it no longer occurs. (1) Current issues.

(a) Budget motion (dkt. 13). Counsel must address:

(i) Income as of petition date or current? The debtor has filed an amended bankruptcy Schedule I (dkt. 30). Is that actually intended to be a declaration of postpetition income, or a correction of the debtor's income as of the petition date?

(ii) Amended budget motion? Should an amended budget motion needs to be filed and served, or is such notice unnecessary and should the budget be deemed amended, in view of what appears to be an increase of approximately $168 in the debtor's monthly income (compare dkt. 13 at PDF p.8, debtor's personal income of $2,800, with dkt. 30, line 7, debtor's personal income of $2,968)?

Appearances required by counsel for the debtor and by the debtor(s) themselves.

- (1) Current issues.
- (a) Failure to serve order. This Court's order setting this status conference (dkt. 6) directed the debtor to serve a copy of that order on all parties in interest no later than 14 days prior to this status conference. No proof of service appears on the docket. The tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 4/11/18 for the debtor to effect such service, with a caution to counsel that in future such failure may result in sanctions.

Tentative Ruling for 9/4/18:

Continue as set forth below. Appearances are not required on 9/4/18.

This Court has reviewed the debtors' latest filed documents, including the Status Report (dkt. 163) filed 7/10/18 in which debtors anticipated (i) completing payments by 8/9/18 and (ii) filing a motion for discharge thereafter. This Court is not aware of issues that would warrant a status conference at this time, but the Court is setting a deadline for the filing of a status report, as set forth below, for the debtors to apprise the Court of any other developments regarding this case and its final disposition.

The voting package should have been served on all creditors. Is the proof of service in error? If so, the tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 4/11/18 for the debtor to file a corrected proof of service. If not, counsel for the debtor should be prepared to address (i) the dates and procedures for re-balloting and a continued hearing and (ii) not charging attorney fees for correcting this issue.

modify plan (dkt. 142). The debtor has not filed any ballot summary. If sufficient ballots have been received to vote in favor of confirmation by the requisite majorities then the tentative ruling is to approve the disclosure statement on a final basis, grant the motion to modify the plan, and confirm the plan as modified. All of the foregoing is contingent, however, on the debtor filing a sufficient ballot summary no later than 4/11/18.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 2/27/17 and converted from chapter 13 on 4/28/17.

  - (i) Impairment - Class 2B. The Plan lists Class 2B as unimpaired - is it?
  - (ii) Impairment - Class 4A. The Plan does not specify whether Class 4A is impaired.

the Plan are reserved for prepetition debts, whereas repayment of postpetition DIP financing should be reflected in cash flow projections (Ex.C) (this is not just an academic issue: for example, Classes vote; DIP lenders do not).

Second, Endnote 2C (in Ex.H) appears to relate to this "Class" of DIP financing, and it appears to state that the terms of that financing are unknown ("Debtors will have full and accurate loan information as the loan is processed"). The debtors' counsel must address at the hearing whether there is any reason why the Plan cannot be updated to reflect the actual financing terms, which would eliminate the need for any such Endnote.

(iv) Stipulation with US Bank. The Plan should attach a copy of the Stipulation (dkt. 124) with creditor U.S. Bank N.A. (as trustee); Wells Fargo Home Mortgage as servicer (collectively, "US Bank"), as it may be modified (see below re possible amendments to that Stipulation). See dkt. 129 (limited objection of US Bank).

(b) US Bank's concerns (dkt. 129). This Court's posted procedures (available at www.cacb.uscourts.gov, under Judge Bason) provide in part:
§ 362: Automatic Stay. (1) Stipulations. Generally, the judge will not approve a stipulation for relief from stay/adequate protection order ("APO") that purports to be automatically effective ... because there might be equity in the property .... [Emphasis altered.]

Consistent with this limitation, US Bank agreed to an Adequate Protection Order ("APO") which does not provide for any automatic termination of the automatic stay. Instead it provides (in the APO attachment, at paragraph 6.b.) that in the event of a default:

[US Bank] may file and serve a declaration under penalty of perjury specifying the default, together with a proposed order terminating the stay, which the court may grant without further notice or hearing.

More recently, however, US Bank entered into its Stipulation with the debtors (dkt. 124) which not only includes the above-quoted language about what will happen in the event of a pre-confirmation default but goes on to add another clause. It states:

5. ... [US Bank] may file and serve a declaration under penalty of perjury specifying the default, together with a proposed order Terminating the Automatic Stay, which the Court may grant without further notice or hearing, and Creditor (and/or its servicer) may commence any and all action necessary to obtain complete possession of the Subject Property ... without further notice, order, or proceeding of this Court. [Emphasis added.]

US Bank argues (dkt. 129, p.6:3-12) that this language in the Stipulation was "taken from" the APO (para. 6.b.), but this is not quite accurate: the emphasized language has been added. Does that additional language mean anything? US Bank now appears to argue that it means nothing - that "the intent was simply to maintain the status quo like it is under the APO" (dkt. 129, p.6:6).

This Court agrees: the emphasized language appears to be surplusage; but unfortunately it is arguably subject to a different interpretation. Because it is unusual for parties to add meaningless language to their stipulations, the emphasized language arguably could be read to mean that US Bank could "commence" all actions necessary to foreclose without any order of this court.

Because of this (and other) ambiguities in the Stipulation this Court added the following caveat in its order approving the Stipulation:

... notwithstanding anything in the Stipulation to the contrary, the automatic stay will not automatically terminate upon a default or conversion of this case except as to Debtors (i.e., no automatic termination as to the bankruptcy estate, so as to preserve any equity that might then exist in the property for the benefit of other creditors) .... [Dkt. 128, p.2:5-8, emphasis in original]

US Bank now requests "that the Order [approving the Stipulation] be amended to clarify that any pre-confirmation default shall be in accordance with the [Stipulation] at paragraph 5, or in the alternative, pursuant to the existing APO, paragraph 6(b)." Dkt. 129, p.6:10-12. This Court believes the simpler solution - both in this case and in all future cases - would be to delete the surplus language in paragraph 5 of the Stipulation. US Bank's counsel should be prepared to address whether they will agree to delete the surplus language in paragraph 5 of the Stipulation in this case and in all future stipulations in any case before this Court.

Similarly, paragraph 13 of the Stipulation ends by stating that in the event the debtors' case is dismissed or converted then not only shall US Bank retain its lien securing the full dollar amount it is owed (less any payments received) but also "the Automatic Stay shall be terminated without further notice, order or proceeding of the Court." (Emphasis added.) US Bank has now agreed to delete this emphasized language. See dkt. 129, pp.5:26-6:2. Again, US Bank's counsel should be prepared to address whether they will delete this language in all future stipulations in cases before this Court.

Another concern raised by US Bank is that this Court's language in the order approving the Stipulation (quoted above) appears to limit paragraph 6 of the Stipulation, which provides that upon confirmation of debtors' chapter 11 plan "the Automatic Stay shall be deemed terminated as to the Debtors and the estate" and US Bank can pursue its contractual remedies under the loan documents "without further notice, order, or proceeding of this Court." Dkt. 124, p.4:12-18. This Court did not intend to override that provision - the tentative ruling is that upon confirmation of a chapter 11 plan it is entirely appropriate to provide that the automatic stay no longer applies because then the parties have a revised contractual relationship - so US Bank is correct that the order approving the Stipulation is overbroad to the extent that the language added by this Court affects paragraph 6 of the Stipulation.

Based on all of the foregoing, the tentative ruling is that if US Bank will agree to amend its Stipulation in paragraphs 5 and 13 as set forth above (to delete the language about automatic termination of the automatic stay), and leave paragraph 6 unchanged, this Court will approve that Stipulation without the modification that is included in the current order approving the Stipulation. The debtor will need to attach the amended Stipulation to the Plan.

Note: The parties might wish to take the opportunity to review the Stipulation for any other provisions that would benefit from revision. For example, this Court notes that paragraph 13 of the Stipulation starts by providing that "[t]he terms of this Stipulation are contingent upon Debtors' confirming a Chapter 11 Plan." Dkt. 124, p.6:8-8. Read literally this would mean that the Stipulation's terms regarding pre-confirmation defaults (para. 5) are contingent upon confirmation, which makes no sense. Other provisions similarly do not appear to be intended to be contingent on confirmation (but it is up to the parties to decide if they wish to clarify such issues).

(c) Continued status conference: 4/10/18 at 1:00 p.m. No written status report is required.

*Warning: special procedures apply (see order setting initial status conference).

Tentative Ruling for 1/23/18:

Continue this status conference to 2/13/18 at 1:00 p.m. Appearances are not required on 1/23/18.

Reasons: (a) the debtors' apparent need to amend the proposed plan in view of the recent withdrawal of their objection to the prior claim of the Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") in view of the IRS' amended claim (see dkt. 119);

(b) the debtor's failure to file a brief status report (due 1/16/18 per the adopted tentative ruling for the 11/7/17 hearing, reproduced below); and

(c) the inability of the Office of the United States Trustee ("UST") to appear (or perhaps even to analyze whether it should appear) because of the shutdown of much of the federal government.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." are required, and you fail to appear without adequately resolving this matter by consent, then you may waive your right to be heard on matters that are appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

Tentative Ruling for 11/7/17:

Continue to 1/23/18 at 1:00 p.m. to address the following issues.

Appearances are not required on 11/7/17.

Reasons: This court is continuing the hearing in light of the response filed by the IRS (dkt. 105) and because (1) if the dollar amount owed to the IRS changes then changes also will be needed to the amended plan (dkt. 107) and amended disclosure statement (dkt. 106) and (2) although the debtor correctly deleted Endnotes 2, 2A, 2B and 2C from Exhibit H, the debtor forgot to delete the references to those (non-existent) endnotes on Exhibits A and E. No later than 1/16/18 the debtor is directed to file an amended plan to cure these issues, if possible, or alternatively a very brief status report (e.g., one or two sentence).

If you wish to dispute the above tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings".

Tentative Ruling for 9/19/17:

Appearances required but telephonic appearances are encouraged if advance arrangements are made (see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.", "Instructions/Procedures").

(1) Current issues.

(a) Monthly Operating Report (dkt. 94). What is the $700 transfer for 8/31/17 (at p.4) entitled "money owed"? The debtor reports one missed payment to Wells Fargo in the amount of $2,167.68 (at p.10), as against only $2,398.12 in her rental property account (p.11) and $1,404.57 in her personal account. Is the debtor losing money? Can the debtor propose a feasible plan of reorganization?

limited categories of persons, such as registered CM/ECF users). (ii) The Disclosure Statement contemplates claim objections (dkt. 91, Ex.H, Endnotes 1-2). Why have these issues not been resolved by now? (iii) The Disclosure Statement's Endnotes 2A, 2B, 2C and 5 repeat (and/or misstate) the terms of the Plan. Those endnotes should be deleted. (iv) The Disclosure Statement's Ex.C (income/expenses) is divided into two periods, but the income and expenses appear to be identical in each period. Why should this not be a single period?

Appearances are not required on 9/4/18.

(1) Current issues.

(a) Dissolution of "Oh Happy Day" (dkt. 544, 579, 583, 602). Grant, provided that all assets (tangible or intangible) in which Oh Happy Day, LLC currently has an interest must continue, after dissolution of that entity, to be administered by the Agent (to the full extent of any interest the debtor has in such assets). See Term Sheet (dkt. 547), section 6 (defining Agent Assets).

Proposed order: The debtor is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

(b) Employment of Ballard, Rosenberg firm/Schwettmann as Special Counsel (dkt. 490, 532, 533, 546, 582). Continue to the same date and time as the continued status conference (set forth below), for the reasons set forth in the responses (dkt. 546, 582). In addition, no later than 10/2/18 the debtor is directed to file a supplement clarifying whether the proposed employment is of Mr. Schwettmann individually or his firm.

(c) Expand Kaplan Employment (dkt. 461, 480, 497, 505, 534, 575, 576). Continue to the same date and time as the continued status conference (set forth below), for the reasons set forth in the latest documents (dkt. 575, 576).

Tentative Ruling for 9/4/18:

This court anticipates issuing or posting a tentative ruling at a later time.

Tentative Ruling for 8/3/18:

Appearances required. The tentative rulings are set forth below. In addition, the tentative ruling is to set a continued status conference on 8/16/18 at 10:00 a.m., or such alternative time as may be ordered at the hearing.

(1) Current issues.

(a) Motion to Confirm Dean Rallis as Agent (dkt. 536). Grant (approve the appointment of Dean Rallis, Esq. as Agent) under the Term Sheet, as amended (see below), and subject to the provisions of this Court's order approving the settlement (dkt. 528, paragraphs 3, 4, and 6-8). The tentative ruling to grant this motion is based on the representation in the motion (dkt. 536, p.9:5-9) that the parties who objected/reserved their rights to object have now consented to the appointment of Mr. Ralis. (This Court disregards the invective, id. n.3 & accompanying text.) If that is incorrect then this tentative ruling is subject to any opposition at the hearing (see OST, dkt. 538). This tentative ruling is also based on this Court's review of the other relevant documents. See dkt. 495 (selection of proposed agent), 528 (order approving settlement), 531 (objection), 535 (Committee support), 536 (motion), Application for Order Shortening Time (dkt. 537, 540) and evidence of service (dkt. 541).

Proposed order: Counsel for the debtor is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

(b) 9019 Motion (see Term Sheet, dkt. 445, 528). This Court's Order (dkt. 528) approving Settlement directed the parties to prepare, sign and file a final version of the "Term Sheet" reflecting certain modifications. This Court notes that the debtor appears to have circulated a revised Term Sheet (dkt. 536, Ex.A) that incorporates the changes discussed on the record, although that revised Term Sheet is not "redlined" and this Court has not engaged in any line-by-line review of its terms. In any event, the parties are directed to provide a status report on when a declaration will be filed with this Court memorializing the fully executed final Term Sheet.

(c) Motion to Extend Time to Assume or Reject Lease (dkt. 457). The tentative ruling is to continue this motion to the date and time of the continued status conference, for the authorized Agent to consider and take a position on the merits of this motion.

Analysis: Although the debtor argues (e.g., in dkt. 534) that she is prejudiced by any lack of immediate decision on pending matters, the tentative ruling is that the debtor has not established undue prejudice because of (i) the debtor's own delay in selecting a nominee to be the Agent, (ii) the debtor's ability to engage in numerous other activities to attempt to turn around her finances without having to wait for those particular pending matters to be resolved, and (iii) the fact that, as this Court interprets the deadlines in the Term Sheet, "Approval" of the settlement did not occur until "entry" of an order approving the settlement (see dkt. 474, Ex.C, section 1, 1st paragraph, penultimate sentence), and the oral ruling was not entered on the docket, only the written order (dkt. 528) was entered, so the time of Approval (which commences the time for the debtor to perform various tasks under the Term Sheet) did not commence until entry of that written order on 7/25/18.

(d) Motion to Assume and Assign 1629 Griffith Lease (Presbytery) (dkt. 351). Continue to the date and time of the continued status conference, for the authorized Agent to consider the merits of this motion, for the same reasons as stated in section (1)(c) of this tentative ruling, above.

(e) Motion to Expand Scope of Kaplan Employment (dkt. 461, 480, 497, 505, 534). Continue to the date and time of the continued status conference, for the authorized Agent to consider the merits of this motion, for the same reasons as stated in section (1)(c) of this tentative ruling, above.

(f) Scheduling Conference re: Evidentiary Hearing on Motion to Assume 1356 Palmetto Lease (Bridge Tavern/Villain's) (dkt. 187). At the 7/18/18 hearing, this Court was informed that the proposed assignee/buyer had withdrawn. This Court subsequently issued an Order (dkt. 501) deeming

(a) Bar date: 8/24/18 (dkt. 367, timely served on 6/19/18 per dkt. 383)

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: TBD.

(c) Continued status conference: Date and time set forth at the start of this tentative ruling. No written status report is required.

Tentative Ruling for 7/16/18:

Appearances required. The tentative rulings are set forth below. In addition, the tentative ruling is to set a continued status conference on 7/27/18 at 9:00 a.m., or such alternative time as may be ordered at the hearing.

(1) Current issues.

(a) 9019 Motion (see Term Sheet, dkt. 445). This Court will address the objections filed by Mr. Casanova (dkt. 465, 466) and The Presbytery of the Pacific (the "Presbytery") (dkt. 467) and the replies filed by the debtor (dkt. 472) and by the Archbishop/Institute and the Bird Nest (dkt. 474). Among other things, this Court will address whether the Term Sheet can be approved without the further documentation that is contemplated by the settling parties. In that regard, the parties should address the proposed amendment to paragraph 6 of the Term Sheet. See dkt. 474, Ex.C.

This Court expresses no present opinion on those issues. This Court is intentionally withholding any further tentative ruling on those matters so as not to disrupt potential settlement discussions among those parties, but if the parties have not agreed to the proposed amendment to paragraph 6 (or some other resolution) then this Court intends to provide a tentative ruling at the commencement of the hearing.

The parties are encouraged to meet and confer about the foregoing issues. If, at the end of the hearing, there are issues that remain to be addressed, then the parties should be prepared to address whether this Court should set a continued hearing on the date and time specified at the start of this tentative ruling or some other date.

(b) Stay relief motion (appellate litigation with Bird Nest and Archbishop/Institute) (dkt. 68). Continue to the date and time set forth at the start of this tentative ruling, if this motion is not mooted by the disposition of the settlement motion.

(c) Exclusivity motion (dkt. 308, 348, 422). Continue to the date and time set forth at the start of this tentative ruling, and meanwhile extend exclusivity for the same amount of time, on the same terms and conditions as this Court's Prior Order (dkt. 422) - i.e., no incurring of fees or expenses for plan-related work. This Court calculates that the extensions would be as follows: (i) The 120-day period specified in section 1121(c)(2) and (d)(1) (deadline for filing a plan) will be further extended from 8/15/18 (see dkt. 422) to and including 9/19/18, and (ii) the 180-day period specified in section 1121(c)(3) and (d)(1) (deadline for acceptance of plan by impaired classes) will be further extended from 10/15/18 (see dkt. 422) to and including 11/19/18.

(d) Cash Collateral motion (dkt. 5). Continue to the date and time set forth at the start of this tentative ruling, and meanwhile extend the interim authorized use of cash collateral through and including the conclusion of the continued hearing subject to the same terms and conditions as previously authorized by this Court (see dkt. 29, 79, 239, 244, 347, 413), if this motion is not mooted by the disposition of the settlement motion.

(e) Bridge Tavern, LLC asset sale motion (dkt. 112). Continue to the date and time set forth at the start of this tentative ruling.

(f) Villain's Tavern reopening motion (dkt. 214). Grant. Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

(h) Security Deposit refund motion (dkt. 350). Grant. Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

(i) Budget motion (dkt. 96). Extend the interim authorization through and including the date of the continued hearing and meanwhile approve the budget subject to the same terms and conditions as previously authorized by the Court (see dkt. 340), if this motion is not mooted by the disposition of the settlement motion.

(j) Claim objection (Bird Nest) (dkt. 292). Continue to the date and time set forth at the start of this tentative ruling, if this motion is not mooted by the disposition of the settlement motion.

(k) Claim objection (Institute) (dkt. 296). Continue to the date and time set forth at the start of this tentative ruling, if this motion is not mooted by the disposition of the settlement motion.

(l) Claim objection (Archbishop) (dkt. 294). Continue to the date and time set forth at the start of this tentative ruling, if this motion is not mooted by the disposition of the settlement motion.

(m) Vehicle refinance motion (dkt. 216). Continue to the date and time set forth at the start of this tentative ruling, if this motion is not mooted by the disposition of the settlement motion.

(n) Vehicle relief from Stay motion (dkt. 349). The hearing on this motion has been vacated, and this matter is off calendar (see Adequate Protection Order, dkt. 444).

(o) Motion to Assume and Assign 1629 Griffith Lease (dkt. 351). Continue to the date and time set forth at the start of this tentative ruling.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 3/6/18.

(a) Bar date: 8/24/18 (dkt. 367, timely served on 6/19/18 per dkt. 383)

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: TBD.

(c) Continued status conference: Date and time set forth at the start of this tentative ruling. No written status report is required.

*Warning: special procedures apply (see order setting initial status conference).

Tentative Ruling for 6/22/18:
Appearances required.

(1) Current issues.

(a) Urbanlime/Haro employment (dkt. 93, 253), Bridge Tavern (Villain's) Reopening Motion (dkt. 214, previously granted, dkt. 339, but rescheduled per dkt.369 para. 4.5), Sale Motion (dkt. 112, temporarily denied, dkt. 369, 385) and Lease Assignment Motion (dkt. 187, re-set for hearing, dkt. 388). The parties should be prepared to address the issues set forth in this Court's orders (dkt. 369, 378, 385, 388) setting this hearing.

(b) Motion to extend exclusivity (dkt. 308, 312, 333, 348). The tentative ruling is to preserve the status quo by:

(ii) if the Trustee Motion is denied, then extending exclusivity through at least 8/14/18 (any further extension will be addressed at the hearing on 7/10/18 at 2:00 p.m.), so that Mr. Tilem will have the time he has stated he would need to draft a plan (approximately 30 days); and

(iii) if the Trustee motion is granted, then terminate exclusivity.

(c) Cash collateral motion (dkt. 5, 14, 15, 29, 74, 151, 152, 163, 164, 167, 168, 171, 172, 176, 185, 244). The tentative ruling is to continue this matter to 7/10/18 at 2:00 p.m., and meanwhile authorize the continued use of cash collateral through the conclusion of that continued hearing.

(d) Relief from stay motion (dkt. 68, 79, 141, 147, 154, 162, 222 section v., 270, 312). The tentative ruling is to continue this matter to 7/10/18 at 2:00 p.m.

(e) Expansion of Insul employment (dkt. 305). Please see calendar no. 2 (6/22/18 at 10:00 a.m.).

(f) Hearings on 7/10/18. Some matters in this case have been self-calendared for 7/10/18 at 1:00 p.m. The tentative ruling is that all matters set for 7/10/18 in this case will be heard at 2:00 p.m.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 3/6/18.

(a) Bar date: 8/24/18 (dkt. 367, timely served on 6/19/18 per dkt. 383)

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: TBD

(c) Continued status conference: 7/10/18 at 2:00 p.m., status report due 7/5/18 at noon.

Tentative Ruling for 3/20/18:

Appearances required by counsel for the debtor. Other parties in interest are invited but not required to appear.

Telephonic appearances are encouraged if advance arrangements are made (see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.", "Instructions/Procedures").

(1) Current issues.

(a) Cash flow and cash collateral motion (dkt. 5, 14, 15, 29). This Court's written order (dkt. 29) erroneously lists the continued hearing as 3/20/18 instead of 4/17/18 at 2:00 p.m., as orally ordered at the hearing on 3/9/18. Nevertheless, it is appropriate in connection with this Status Conference to address the debtor's current and projected cash flow and related issues.

This Court was not persuaded at the hearing on 3/9/18 that the debtor can generate positive cash flow. The debtor is directed to provide a brief update on any plans to generate positive cash flow from her various businesses and properties. It is also appropriate for other parties in interest to address whether there has been adequate disclosure to date regarding the finances of those businesses and properties. The debtor is cautioned that the declaration due on 3/27/18 must provide comprehensive disclosures regarding those businesses and properties: if the debtor cannot show reasonable prospects for positive cash flow within a reasonable time then this Court might have to grant relief from the automatic stay (upon a proper motion), or convert or dismiss this bankruptcy case, at least if the debtor does not abandon unprofitable businesses or properties.

(b) Employment applications. The parties should be prepared to address the oppositions (dkt. 56, 57) and the direct and indirect source(s) of funds used by the debtor to pay prepetition retainers (see dkt. 48, and cf. dkt. 9, p.6, dkt. 18, p.8, dkt. 20, p.8 - blank spaces instead of disclosure), including when the liens against the 1902 property arose (dkt. 48, Ex.A). In addition, the parties should be prepared to address the following issues:

(i) Proposed bankruptcy counsel - Tilem (dkt. 9, 10): (i) Why were resumes for associates, paralegals, and persons who are "of counsel" to the firm not included? (ii) Has counsel waived or amended the provisions in the retainer agreement regarding the "evergreen" retainer; "overtime" rates, and any attorney's lien? (iii) As for proposed out-sourcing, counsel must address whether employment of such counsel could result in imputed or actual conflicts of interest from any work performed by such attorneys for their own clients or for other law firms.

(ii) Proposed special counsel: the Robins firm and Horvitz firm (dkt. 18, 19, 20, 21). The hourly rates of proposed counsel at the Robins firm and Horvitz firm are substantially greater than those for the debtor's proposed general bankruptcy counsel and the Snyder firm. How will the debtor - acting as a debtor in possession with the duties of a trustee for the benefit of creditors - assure that the potential benefits are not outweighed by the costs that can be reasonably anticipated in connection with the ongoing litigation with Birds Nest, the Archbishop, and the Institute (as those terms are defined in the parties' papers)?

(iii) Proposed special counsel: the Snyder firm (dkt. 36, 37). (i) What is the nature of the litigation in which that firm represents the debtor and co-plaintiff, Bridge Tavern, LLC against Odysseuss Investment Group, LLC? (ii) What are the potential costs/risks and benefits? (iii) Is there any actual or potential conflict of interest between the two plaintiffs (e.g., if any judgment in their favor were to be allocated between them in a way that is unfavorable to one or the other)? (iv) From the description at the status conference on 3/9/18 it seemed that the Snyder firm might be assisting the debtor now or in future in transactional matters - is that so?

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 3/6/18.

(a) Bar date: TBD

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: TBD

(c) Continued status conference: 4/17/18 at 2:00 p.m., status report due 4/3/18. (see order, dkt. 30).

Hearing Room 1545

CONT... Checkmate King Co., LTD and Radiology Solutions Corp.

Chapter 11

Proposed orders: The debtor is directed to serve and lodge proposed orders on each motion listed below via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date.

(1) Current issues

(a) Status Report (dkt. 90): The status report states that the debtor's business is dormant with respect to its financing of the purchase of used medical equipment. Where is Radiology Solutions storing the $4.6M worth of financed equipment and does the debtor have a perfected security interest in the equipment?

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 10/16/17.

(a) Bar date: 1/17/18 (order timely served, dkt. 63, 69)

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: file by 4/16/18 using the forms required by Judge Bason (DO NOT SERVE yet, except on the U.S. Trustee - the court will set a deadline and procedures at a later time).

(c) Continued status conference: 3/6/18 at 1:00 p.m. Brief status report due 2/20/18.

*Warning: special procedures apply (see order setting initial status conference).

Revised Tentative Ruling for 11/14/17:

Appearances required by the debtor's principals and debtor's counsel.

(a) Status Report (dkt. 37): The status report states that the debtor has no executory contracts. What about all the contracts with Radiology Solutions Inc./Corp. (whichever name is correct)?

(b) Cash collateral motion (dkt.9): The debtor reports (dkt. 53, p.3) that it has reached a stipulation with Community Bank regarding the use of cash collateral, but as of the preparation of this tentative ruling no such stipulation appears on the docket. If there is no such stipulation, or if it does not moot the bank's opposition (dkt. 50), then the parties should be prepared to address the merits of that opposition. In addition, the parties should be prepared to address the objection of the Fresco parties (dkt. 49) and the debtor's response (dkt. 53).

(c) Payroll motion (dkt. 6). The tentative ruling is to grant this motion on a final basis.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 10/16/17.

(a) Bar date: 1/17/18

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: file by 4/16/18 using the forms required by Judge Bason (DO NOT SERVE yet, except on the U.S. Trustee - the court will set a deadline and procedures at a later time).

(a) Joint Status Report and Notice of Continuances. This Court's 5/8/18 tentative ruling (see below) was not opposed, so it became this Court's actual ruling.

This Court directed (i) Checkmate to file and serve a notice of continuances attaching and incorporating by reference the deadlines in that tentative ruling by 5/7/18, and (ii) the parties to file a brief joint status report by 5/29/18. As of the preparation of this tentative ruling, none of the parties have complied. Chapter 11

(b) Motion for TRO & Claim and Delivery (adv. dkt. 10).

Plaintiff/debtor Checkmate King Co., Ltd. ("Checkmate") has filed a stipulation (adv. dkt. 30) with defendants Radiology Solutions Corp. ("RS") and George Fower ("Fower") for turnover of equipment. But Checkmate has not provided any evidence that it has relief from the automatic stay and consent of the Chapter 7 Trustee in the RS and Fower bankruptcy cases for such turnover (Case Nos. 8:18-bk-10585-TA and 8:18-bk-10583-TA). The tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 6/19/18 for Checkmate to file a declaration attaching evidence sufficient to establish those things, and lodge a revised proposed order to approve the stipulation.

(2) Deadlines: This adversary proceeding has been pending since 3/6/18. It is premature to set a discovery cutoff and other deadlines at this time. Continue to 7/17/18 at 2:00 p.m., brief joint status report due 7/3/18.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." If appearances are required, and you fail to appear without adequately resolving this matter by consent, then you may waive your right to be heard on matters that are appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

Tentative Ruling for 5/8/18:

The tentative ruling is to continue all pending matters in this adversary proceeding to 6/12/18 at 2:00 p.m. for the reason stated below, with a brief joint status report due 5/29/18, and with a deadline of 5/7/18 for the plaintiff to file and serve a notice of continuances attaching and incorporating by reference the deadlines in this tentative ruling (assuming that this Court is not persuaded to depart from this tentative ruling). Appearances are not required on 5/8/18.

(a) Motion for TRO & Claim and Delivery (adv. dkt. 10). At the 4/9/18 hearing on this motion, counsel for plaintiff/debtor Checkmate King Co., Ltd. ("Checkmate") apprised this Court of the bankruptcy filings of defendants Radiology Solutions Corp. ("RS") and George Fower ("Fower") (Case Nos. 8:18-bk-10585-TA and 8:18-bk-10583-TA) and requested a continuance of this hearing to allow time to obtain orders granting relief from stay with annulment. In the Joint status report (adv. dkt. 24), Checkmate states that the hearings on the relief from stay motions are scheduled for 5/15/18. Accordingly, the tentative ruling is to continue this motion to the date and time set forth at the start of this tentative ruling.

(b) Siemens Motion to Dismiss (adv. dkt. 27, the "MTD"). Defendant Siemens Medical Solutions USA, Inc. ("Siemens") has properly self-calendared its MTD for 6/12/18 at 11:00 a.m. Siemens anticipates that it may be voluntarily dismissed by plaintiff (see adv. dkt. 24), but if that does not occur then this Court anticipates that the MTD may take 15 minutes or more to hear. This Court's practice is that matters anticipated to take 15 minutes or more are heard on the 2:00 p.m. calendar (not available for self-calendaring, except by permission of this Court). Therefore the tentative ruling is to re-calendar the MTD from 11:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m., which is concurrent with the other matters in this adversary proceeding that are on today's calendar.

(2) Deadlines: This adversary proceeding has been pending since 3/6/18. It is premature to set a discovery cutoff and other deadlines at this time.

Appearances required.

(1) Current issues.

(a) Fresco Parties' Motion to Convert Cases (dkt. 199 & Checkmate 2:17-bk-22648-NB, dkt. 185). The tentative ruling is to grant Fresco's motions to convert the Checkmate and Sakurai cases to chapter 7 for the following reasons.

(i) Gross mismanagement. The tentative finding of fact is that the debtors have grossly mismanaged their estates such that cause exists under 1112(b)(4)(B) to convert their cases. These cases have been pending for nearly a year, since 10/16/17, only very belated and half-hearted investigation or collection activity against Radiology Solutions and Fower - either using legal enforcement or practical steps. For example, at hearings on 11/14/17 and 1/30/18, the debtors maintained their belief that they could recover 100% on the dated receiveables from Radiology Solutions, despite this Court's expressed concerns with the debtors' counsel regarding the apparent lack of collection activity based on Checkmate's failure to use the vast panoply of litigation tools available to them, including examinations under Rule 2004 (Fed. R. Bankr. P.), other discovery tools, remedies such as immediately seeking restraining orders and injunctions, and non-litigation approaches such as pressuring Radiology Solutions and Fower by reporting their defaults to Siemens or attempting to use pressure from other suppliers, customers, government regulators, or other persons. All of those avenues should have been explored vigorously, both prepetition and postpetition, and disclosed to parties in interest in these cases.

(ii) Other "cause." The debtors appear to have run through vast amounts of money to "purchase" equipment that does not exist, and yet as set forth above they have a very cavalier attitude toward attempting to engage in discovery or collection, while continuing to insist that they expected very substantial recoveries from those sources and/or from equipment (which turned out not to exist). The tentative finding of fact is that these circumstances show not just gross mismanagement but also that the debtors are hiding facts, or they are attempting to run out the clock on possible causes of action against them or transferees of their assets, or both.

(ii) The debtors' counter-argument about the best interests of creditors is not persuasive. The debtors argue that under their liquidation analysis (Sakurai, dkt. 240, PDF p. 14, Checkmate, dkt. 194, PDF p. 17) creditors will receive faster and better recoveries if the debtors are permitted to engage in a liquidation through chapter 11, rather than converting these cases to chapter 7. There are several problems with this argument.

First, this Court questions the debtors' projected recoveries in chapter 11. The debtors have been wildly inaccurate (or have intentionally hidden the truth) before, as set forth above. This Court has no faith in the Debtors to adequately disclose and maximize the value of their remaining assets, such as the house in Japan or purported interests in that house. Moreover, this Court is concerned about the debtor's management of whatever is recovered, such as what might happen to proceeds from the sale of real property. This Court recognizes that safeguards can be attempted; but safeguards can also be evaded, and the tentative ruling is that the simplest and best safeguard is to appoint a chapter 7 trustee.

Second, this Court questions the debtor's projected lack of substantial recoveries in chapter 7. The tentative ruling is that the Fresco Parties have the better arguments regarding the potential benefits to unsecured creditors in a chapter 7 case (perhaps as much as 80% or more).

Third, supposing for the sake of discussion that the debtors were accurate in their projected recoveries in a liquidating chapter 11 case, and their comparison with projected recoveries in a chapter 7 case, that is not the only consideration. This Court must consider the integrity of the bankruptcy system. Given the debtors' gross mismanagement and this Court's concerns about the debtors' conduct (as described above) it appears that the only adequate safeguard of the integrity of the bankruptcy system is to convert these cases to chapter 7.

(iii) Evidentiary Objections (Sakurai, dkt. 233, 252) & (Checkmate 2:17-bk-22648-NB, dkt. 200, 204). The tentative ruling is that the history of this case and this Court's own admonishments to the debtors provides ample support for conversion, so this Court need not resolve the parties' respective evidentiary objections.

(iv) Proposed Orders. The Fresco Parties are directed to lodge proposed orders via this Court's LOU system within 7 days of the hearing.

(b) Application to Employ KW Commercial Inland Empire (dkt. 197) and Neiman Realty (dkt. 206). If this Court adopts the tentative ruling set forth above, the tentative ruling is to continue these hearings to the date and time set forth below to allow time for the chapter 7 trustees to weigh in.

(c) RS/Fower Adversary Proceeding (2:18-ap-01602-NB). The tentative ruling is to continue the status conference to the date and time stated below.

(a) Bar date: 1/17/18 (order timely served. dkt. 58, 59)

(b) Joint Plan/Disclosure Statement* (dkt. 176, 177): The tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 5/22/18 to file (NOT SERVE - except on the U.S. Trustee) an amended joint plan and amended joint disclosure statement to address the foregoing issues.

(c) Continued status conference: 6/12/18 at 2:00 p.m. No status report required.

*Warning: special procedures apply (see order setting initial status conference).

Appearances are not required on 4/10/18.

(1) Current issues

(a) Motion for Relief from Stay (dkt. 48). In light of the proposed settlement with the Fresco Parties, the tentative ruling is to continue the hearing to be concurrent with the continued status conference (see below).

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement. The tentative ruling is to conduct a combined hearing on the adequacy of the (forthcoming) disclosure statement and confirmation of the (forthcoming) plan to be concurrent with the continued status conference (see below).

including motion to remand (adv. dkt. 8). The tentative ruling is that this matter will be mooted, assuming that this Court approves the parties' proposed settlement, and therefore this matter should go off calendar. The parties are reminded to file appropriate papers to have this matter dismissed once the settlement is fully implemented.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 10/16/17.

(a) Bar date: 1/17/18 (order timely served. dkt. 58, 59)

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: file by 4/18/18 using the forms required by Judge Bason (DO NOT SERVE yet, except on the U.S. Trustee - the court will set a deadline and procedures at a later time).

(c) Continued status conference: 5/8/18 at 2:00 p.m. No status report required.

*Warning: special procedures apply (see order setting initial status conference).

(a) Potential settlement with Fresco Parties. The parties must be prepared to address the status of their settlement negotiations and finalization of the draft settlement documents circulated 2/5/18, and all other issues appropriate to raise at a status conference, including the issues in their recent status reports and related documents (Sakurai case, no. 2:17-bk-22660-NB, dkt. 87, 104, 105, 114, 124, and Checkmate case, no. 2:17-bk-22648-NB, dkt. 90, 93, 100, 102, 104, 105, 106, 109, 112, 113, 119, 122).

(d) Removed action (Adv. no. 2:17-ap-01558-NB), motions for stay and for remand (adv. dkt. 8, 10, 12, 13). The tentative ruling is that the motion for a stay pending determination by the District Court of the debtors' motion to withdraw the reference is moot, because the District Court has dismissed that motion. There is no tentative ruling on the motion to remand.

the funds. What is this money from? Is it currently being held? Is it available to pay secured or unsecured creditors?

(ii) On page 7 of 34, there is a line item reflecting a $5,000 payment to Mr. Aronson for legal fees. At the status conference on 1/9/18 this court highlighted that the Sakurais had made a similar payment in November for Mr. Aronson's fees and counsel stated that the payment was made in error, and the debtors and their counsel assured this court that this issue would be addressed. Revised Tentative Ruling for 11/14/17:

Appearances required by at least one of the debtors and their counsel.

Proposed orders: The debtors are directed to serve and lodge proposed orders on each motion listed below via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date.

(1) Current issues

(a) Status Report (dkt. 42): The debtors' status report fails to suggest any bar date or any deadline for filing a draft plan and draft disclosure statement. The debtors suggest that the Fresco litigation might have to conclude before they can propose plan, but they fail to support any such delay with relevant information about that litigation, nor do they explain how claims estimation and/or a disputed claims reserve would be inadequate to address this litigation. See generally 11 U.S.C. 502(c) and Rule 3018(a) (Fed. R. Bankr. P.). Accordingly, the tentative ruling is to fix the deadlines set forth below.

(b) Cash collateral motion (dkt. 8). The tentative ruling is to grant this motion on a final basis, on the same terms as the interim order (dkt. 43).

(b) Utility motion (dkt. 11). The tentative ruling is to grant this motion on a final basis.

Tentative Ruling for 11/14/17:

This court anticipates posting a tentative ruling at a later time.

Tentative Ruling for 10/26/17:

Appearances required by counsel for the debtor.

(1) Current issues

(a) Proofs of service (dkt. 18, 19, 21, 22). Service does not appear to be in compliance with this court's orders shortening time because they do not certify that anyone was served via overnight delivery or other expedited means.

The following tentative rulings are contingent on filing a corrected proof of service, no later than the day after this hearing, declaring that such expedited service was actually done, or if that is not true then the tentative ruling is to impose sanctions of $200 on counsel for the debtors and, despite the lack of service, authorize the proposed expenditures of cash collateral and the proposed utility deposits as an interim method of providing adequate protection under 11 U.S.C. 361-366.

(b) Cash collateral motion (dkt. 8). Subject to any opposition at the hearing, the tentative ruling is to grant this motion on the terms set forth in the separate tentative ruling on that motion.

(c) Utility motion (dkt. 11). Subject to any opposition at the hearing, the

#1.00 Hrg re: Motion for relief from stay [RP]

BAYVIEW LOAN SERVICING, LLC
vs
DEBTOR

Docket 68

Tentative Ruling:

Grant as provided below. Appearances are not required.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

Termination. Terminate the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1).

Any co-debtor stay (11 U.S.C. 1301(c)) is also terminated, because it has not been shown to have any basis to exist independent of the stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(a). To the extent, if any, that the motion seeks to terminate the automatic stay in other past or pending bankruptcy cases, such relief is denied on the present record. See In re Ervin (Case No. 14-bk-18204-NB, docket no. 311).

Effective date of relief. Deny the request to waive the 14-day stay provided by FRBP 4001(a)(3) for lack of sufficient cause shown.

DEBTOR

Docket 40

Tentative Ruling:

Grant in part and deny in part as provided below. Appearances are not required.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this court's final ruling. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

Modification. Modify the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1)&(4) to provide that (a) no future bankruptcy case will have any effect on the subject property (in rem relief, as provided below) but (b) the stay will remain in place in this case for the moment, so that the Chapter 7 Trustee has an opportunity to sell the property, with a continued hearing on 11/6/18 at 10:00 a.m. so that, if the property has not been sold by then, the motion can be considered again.

Any co-debtor stay (11 U.S.C. 1301(c)) is also modified, because it has not been shown to have any basis to exist independent of the stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(a). To the extent, if any, that the motion seeks to terminate the automatic stay in other past or pending bankruptcy cases, such relief is denied on the present record. See In re Ervin (Case No. 14-bk-18204-NB, docket no. 311).

Relief notwithstanding future bankruptcy cases.

Grant the following relief pursuant to 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(4) and the legal analysis in In re Vazquez, 580 B.R. 526 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2017), and/or In re Choong (case no. 2:14-bk-28378-NB, docket no. 31), as applicable:

Chapter 7

If this order is duly recorded in compliance with applicable State laws governing notices of interests or liens in the property at issue, then no automatic stay shall apply to such property in any bankruptcy case purporting to affect such property and filed within two years after the date of entry of this order, unless otherwise ordered by the court presiding over that bankruptcy case.

For the avoidance of doubt, any acts by the movant to obtain exclusive possession of such property shall not be stayed. Any additional request for relief applicable to future bankruptcy cases is denied (e.g., any request to grant relief against third parties without any notice is denied) due to lack of sufficient factual or legal grounds presented in support of such relief.

Note: Per Judge Bason's posted procedures (available at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) this Court's order will state that the Court "does not make" a finding that the debtor was involved in the "scheme" referenced in section 362(d)(4), unless there is sufficient evidence that the debtor was involved and the debtor is given clear notice that the movant seeks an express finding that the debtor was involved. The tentative ruling in this particular case is that there is insufficient evidence and notice.

Effective date of relief.

Grant the request to waive the 14-day stay provided by FRBP 4001(a)(3).

Effective date of relief.

Docket 37

Tentative Ruling:

Grant as provided below. Appearances are not required.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

Termination. Terminate the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1).

Any co-debtor stay (11 U.S.C. 1301(c)) is also terminated, because it has not been shown to have any basis to exist independent of the stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(a). To the extent, if any, that the motion seeks to terminate the automatic stay in other past or pending bankruptcy cases, such relief is denied on the present record. See In re Ervin (Case No. 14-bk-18204-NB, docket no. 311).

Effective date of relief.

Grant the request to waive the 14-day stay provided by FRBP 4001(a)(3).

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." Tentative Ruling:

Grant as provided below. Appearances are not required.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

The automatic stay does not apply. The movant obtained a prepetition unlawful detainer judgment, and the debtor has not satisfied the statutory requirements to remain in possession. See 11 U.S.C. 362(b)(22) and (l) and (b). The movant obtained a prepetition eviction judgment and writ of possession. See In re Perl, 811 F.3d 1120, 1127-28 (9th Cir. 2016) ("We conclude that under California law, entry of judgment and a writ of possession following unlawful detainer proceedings extinguishes all other legal and equitable possessory interests in the real property at issue.").

Termination. Terminate the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1) and (d)(2).

Any co-debtor stay (11 U.S.C. 1301(c)) is also terminated, because it has not been shown to have any basis to exist independent of the stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(a). Evidence. This court notes that the declaration attached to the motion is incomplete and/or contains changes to the mandatory form (which are hereby treated as a request to amend the form per LBR 9009-1). This court makes no determination whether such omissions/changes would withstand an evidentiary objection. Nevertheless, this court has considered the key documents because (a) there are no evidentiary objections and/or (b) those documents appear to be admissible on other grounds. In future the movant's failure to complete the form properly may result in denial of the motion sua sponte.

#16.00 Hrg re: Motion in Individual Case for Order
Imposing a Stay or Continuing the Automatic
Stay as the Court Deems Appropriate

Docket 12

Tentative Ruling:

Grant, subject to the following conditions. Appearances are not required.

After the hearing date this court will prepare an order and the tentative ruling is to include the following language in that order:

The stay of 11 U.S.C. 362(a) applies subject to the following modifications and conditions:

(1) Service and reconsideration. Any party in interest who was not timely served in accordance with FRBP 7004 (incorporated by FRBP 9014(b)) is hereby granted through 14 days after proper service to seek reconsideration, including retroactive relief (under FRBP 9023 and/or 9024). Any such person (a) may set a hearing on 14 days' notice, (b) may appear by telephone (if arrangements are made per Judge Bason's posted procedures), and (c) may present all arguments orally at the hearing (i.e., no written argument is required). If written arguments appear necessary then this court will set a briefing schedule at the hearing.

(2) Reasons. (a) It appears appropriate to impose the automatic stay, and to impose it as to all persons rather than just as to selected persons, because one purpose of the automatic stay is to preventing a "race to collect" that could unfairly advantage some creditors at the expense of others. (b) To prevent possible abuse, this court provides the foregoing simple process for reconsideration.

#17.00 Hrg re: Motion to Vacate Mortgage Default Pursuant to F.R.C.P. 55 and 60(b)

Docket 38

Tentative Ruling:

Deny. Appearances are not required.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this court's final ruling. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

Reasons for denial:

Although the loss of a home is tragic, creditor Nationstar Mortgage LLC dba Mr. Cooper ("Nationstar") has set forth a long history of defaults by the debtor and non-debtor spouse, as well as evidence of little equity cushion (perhaps none, after adding costs of sale, attorney fees, etc.). See dkt. 18, 19. Although the debtor's declaration explained his motivations (see dkt. 20) the bottom line is that he and his spouse still hindered and delayed Nationstar for a substantial time, without repaying the debt as promised. Nevertheless, this Court was persuaded to provide the debtor with one final opportunity to hold Nationstar at bay. That opportunity required timely payments or, if the payment was not timely, a full cure within 14 days after written notice of default. See dkt. 22 ("APO"). The debtor did not make timely payments, and then despite the additional opportunity to cure within 14 days after written notice, he did not cure the full amount due and he did not make the (partial) payment within the 14 day additional cure period.

This Court recognizes that the shortfall is small, both in the dollar amount and in the number of days after the 14 days of cure period. But those shortfalls come on top of a long history of failures to repay the debt as promised, and this Court's "one last chance" order with not only the opportunity to keep Nationstar at bay by making payments but also the additional leeway of any default requiring written notice and a 14 day period in which to cure that default. In other words, the debtor has had many "bites at the apple" and has not met the requirements under the APO.

The debtor has not cited any authority that would suggest that his non-expedited mailing of the (partial) payment to cure his default under this "last chance" APO amounts to "excusable" neglect. Nor has the debtor established any other adequate cause to reconsider this Court's order (dkt. 33) terminating the automatic stay after his failure to cure his default under the APO. See Rule 60(b) (Fed. R. Civ. P., incorporated by Rule 9024, Fed. R. Bankr. P.).

Termination. Terminate the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1).

Any co-debtor stay (11 U.S.C. 1301(c)) is also terminated, because it has not been shown to have any basis to exist independent of the stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(a). To the extent, if any, that the motion seeks to terminate the automatic stay in other past or pending bankruptcy cases, such relief is denied on the present record. See In re Ervin (Case No. 14-bk-18204-NB, docket no. 311).

Effective date of relief. Deny the request to waive the 14-day stay provided by FRBP 4001(a)(3) for lack of sufficient cause shown.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." Tentative Ruling for 5/1/18:

Appearances required but telephonic appearances are encouraged if advance arrangements are made (see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.", "Instructions/Procedures"). This court has reviewed the parties' joint status report (dkt. 27).

(1) Mediation. The tentative ruling is to order mandatory mediation (again), with a deadline of 5/15/18 for the parties to lodge proposed mediation order (s).

(2) Deadlines: This adversary proceeding has been pending since 2/24/17. Due to the parties' prior delays and an anticipated settlement the normal deadlines for completion of discovery and other matters have not been applied. The tentative ruling is to set the following deadlines, to run concurrent with the parties' mediation. The parties are cautioned that once the following deadlines have been established this Court is unlikely to be persuaded to amend them.

Pursuant to LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B), plaintiff is directed to serve and lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the status conference, attaching a copy of this tentative ruling or otherwise memorializing the following.

(1) Venue/jurisdiction/authority.

The parties are directed to address any outstanding matters of (a) venue, (b) jurisdiction, (c) this court's authority to enter final orders or judgment(s) in this proceeding and, if consent is required, whether the parties do consent, or have already expressly or impliedly consented. See generally Stern v. Marshall, 131 S.Ct. 2594, 2608 (2011) (if litigant "believed that the Bankruptcy Court lacked the authority to decide his claim...then he should have said so – and said so promptly."); *Wellness Int'l Network, Ltd. v. See generally In re AWTR Liquidation, Inc., 548 B.R. 300 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2016).

Docket 219

Tentative Ruling:

Appearances required. There is no tentative ruling, but the parties should be prepared to address (1) whether any deficiencies in following the Local Bankruptcy Rules ("LBR") regarding notice of this hearing have caused any prejudice; and (2) whether this Court should reopen and then dismiss this case, or alternatively, issue an order to show cause ("OSC") or order other remedies for non-compliance with the parties' stipulation (dkt. 209) and the order approving it (dkt. 211).

fr. 7/10/18

Docket 8

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for 9/18/18:

Appearances required.

(1) Current issues. This Court has reviewed the debtor's status report (dkt. 46) and other relevant documents.

(a) Failure to Serve Bar Date Order (dkt. 25). The order directs the debtor to serve all parties in interest no later than 7/16/18 but no proof of service appears on the docket. Why not? The tentative ruling is to set a new bar date of 12/7/18 (the debtor should not serve any notice at this time; this Court will prepare and issue the order after the hearing).

(b) Application to Employ Hector Perez/Advantage Realty Group (dkt. 33). There is no tentative ruling, but the parties should be prepared to address (1) the issues raised in the opposition by Crescent Capital Holding LLC (dkt. 45); (2) whether the debtor is seeking to employ Mr. Perez, or Advantage Realty Group, or both; and (3) the absence of Local Form 2014-1 (required by Judge Bason's posted procedures, available at www.cacb.uscourts.gov).

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 6/11/18.

(a) Bar date: to be re-set see above.

Tentative Ruling for 7/10/18:

Appearances required by counsel for the debtor and by the debtor itself.

(1) Current issues. This Court has reviewed the debtor's status report (dkt. 18) and other relevant documents.

(a) Status Report. Debtor used an old form of status report. Judge Bason's current posted procedures require the use of local form F 2081-1.1.C11.STATUS.RPT. Counsel is directed to review Judge Bason's posted procedures and to use the appropriate form status report in future.

(b) Motion for relief from automatic stay. There is no tentative ruling, but the debtor and Crescent Capital Holding LLC should be prepared to address the issues raised in the motion (dkt. 17) and debtor's response (dkt. 21) regarding the Las Flores property, including the previous grant of "in rem" relief against the property, and whether the debtor has provided sufficient evidence of insurance on the property.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 6/11/18.

(a) Bar date: 9/14/18 (DO NOT SERVE notice yet - court will prepare an order after the status conference).

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: file by 9/28/18 using the forms required by Judge Bason (DO NOT SERVE yet, except on the U.S. Trustee - the court will set a deadline and procedures at a later time).

(c) Continued status conference: 9/18/18 at 1:00 p.m., brief status report due 9/4/18.

Appearances required but telephonic appearances are encouraged if advance arrangements are made (see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.", "Instructions/Procedures").

(1) Current issues. This Court has reviewed the debtor's filed status report (dkt. 42) and the other filed documents in this case.

(a) Motion of U.S. Trustee ("UST") to dismiss or convert (dkt. 21). The debtor claims to have come into compliance (dkt. 41). Does the UST have any outstanding compliance issues?

(b) Budget motion (dkt. 15) and supplemental declaration of non-debtor spouse Jose M. Juarez (dkt. 37). Grant on a final basis. Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

(c) Cash collateral motion (dkt. 14, 16). The adopted tentative ruling for the 8/14/18 hearing (reproduced at calendar no. 7, 9/18/18 at 1:00 p.m.) directed the debtor to file an order granting the motion on an interim basis. Chapter 11

Tentative Ruling for 8/14/18:

Appearances required by counsel for the debtor and by the debtor(s) themselves.

(1) Current issues. This Court has reviewed the debtor's filed status report (dkt. 17) and the other filed documents in this case.

(a) Budget motion (dkt. 15). Grant on an interim basis, with a final hearing concurrent with the continued status conference (see below), and a deadline of 8/21/18 to file declaration(s) regarding the income of the debtor's spouse (see below). Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

(b) Debtor's spouse's income. The debtor's bankruptcy Schedule I reports that the debtor's spouse is a self-employed construction contractor, but that the spouse only earns $1,500/mo. in net income. Dkt. 1, at PDF p.32, line 8a. This Court takes judicial notice that there is considerable construction activity in this geographic area. Why is that income not higher?

In addition, there is no attached statement showing gross income, expenses, and the calculation of net income. That is contrary to the instructions for line 8a, and to this Court's order that for reporting purposes any spouse is to be treated as equivalent to the debtor (dkt. 6, para.3).

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 7/11/18.

(a) Bar date: 10/29/18 (DO NOT SERVE notice yet - court will prepare an order after the status conference).

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: TBD

(c) Continued status conference: 9/18/18 at 1:00 p.m., brief status report due 9/4/18.

#7.00 Cont'd hrg re: Motion in Individual Chapter 11 Case
for Order Authorizing Use of Cash Collateral
fr. 08/14/18

Docket 14

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for 9/18/18:

Please see the tentative ruling for the Status Conference (calendar no. 6, 9/18/18 at 1:00 p.m.).

Tentative Ruling for 8/14/18:

Appearances required.

(1) Realistic budget? The cash collateral motion (dkt. 14) includes only $100/mo. for maintenance, and nothing for pest control, utilities, repairs, etc. Is the budget realistic?

(2) Local Form F 4001-2 (dkt. 16). Item "(ii)" states that the debtor is offering replacement lien "in excess of the dollar amount of the lien on cash collateral as of the petition date." What does the debtor mean by that? Is that appropriate?

Subject to satisfactory answers to the foregoing questions, the tentative ruling is to grant the motion on an interim basis, subject to the conditions set forth below, with a final hearing on 9/18/18 at 1:00 p.m., and a deadline of 8/20/18 for the debtor to file and serve a notice of the final hearing.

Judge Bason's standard conditions for use of cash collateral and/or postpetition financing (by creditors holding prepetition claims)

(1) Written order

(a) Form. Use local form F2081-

1.1.ORDER.CASH.COLLATERAL or the equivalent. Attach a copy of this tentative ruling as an exhibit, thereby adopting it as the written ruling of the court. Do not repeat the terms set forth in the motion or any stipulation.

Incorporate those terms by reference, subject to any modification by this court (including the docket number of the document).

(b) Timing. Lodge the proposed order within 7 days after the hearing. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

(2) Minimum adequate protection

In addition to the postpetition security interests that are automatically provided pursuant to 11 U.S.C. 552 (e.g., in traceable proceeds and profits), and subject to any more comprehensive protection that may be included in the motion or related papers, the debtor shall provide at least the following protection to any creditor with a security interest in the subject property (pursuant to 11 U.S.C. 361-364, as applicable):

(a) Insurance. For all collateral of a type that typically is insured (e.g., real property and improvements), the debtor is directed to maintain insurance in a dollar amount at least equal to the debtor's good faith estimate of the value of such creditor's interest in the collateral, and such insurance shall name such creditor as an additional insured. The debtor is directed to remain current on payments for such insurance.

(b) Taxes. The debtor is directed to remain current on payments on account of postpetition real estate taxes (to the extent that real estate is part of the collateral).

(c) Disclosures/access. The debtor is directed to provide, upon such creditor's reasonable request, periodic accountings of the foregoing insurance and tax obligations and payments, as well as postpetition proceeds, products, offspring, or profits from the collateral, including gross revenues and expenses and a calculation of net revenues, including any rents and any fees, charges, accounts, or other payments for the use or occupancy of rooms and other public facilities in lodging properties (as all of the foregoing terms are used in 11 U.S.C. 552). The debtor is directed to provide appropriate documentation of those accountings, and access for purposes of inspection or appraisal.

(3) Limitation on postpetition liens

In the event that the motion or related papers seek authority to grant postpetition liens to the creditor(s) with respect to prepetition debts any such liens shall be limited to the same validity, priority, and amount as prepetition liens. As used herein, the "validity, priority, and amount" or any similar phrase that may be used by the parties or the court is deemed to include the following:

(a) Extent. Such liens shall be limited to the type of collateral in which the creditor held a security interest as of the petition date, unless this order expressly states that the liens granted by this order are intended to attach to different types of collateral from the prepetition collateral. For example, if prepetition liens extended to inventory and accounts receivable but not equipment then postpetition liens are likewise limited (unless otherwise expressly provided below); and postpetition liens shall not extend to the proceeds of any avoidance actions, any recoveries under 11 U.S.C. 506 (c), or any "carveout" under 11 U.S.C. 552.

(b) Priority. Such liens shall be limited to the same priority as the security interest held by the creditor as of the petition date.

(c) Dollar amount. Such liens shall be limited to the dollar amount needed to protect the creditor against diminution in the value of the secured claims as of the petition date.

(d) Enforceability. Such liens shall be limited to the extent that the creditor's security interests were duly perfected and valid as of the petition date, and to the extent that they are unavoidable.

(e) Automatic postpetition perfection. Any automatic perfection of such liens shall be subject to any applicable limitations regarding the Court's authority, jurisdiction, or due process.

(4) Automatic disapproval of insufficiently disclosed provisions

Any provision of the type listed in FRBP 4001(c)(1)(B) or in local form F4001-2 (e.g., cross-collateralization) or any waiver of the "equities of the case" exception in 11 U.S.C. 552(b)(2) shall be deemed automatically disapproved and excepted from any order granting the motion, notwithstanding any other provision of such order, unless either: (a) such provision is specifically and prominently disclosed in the motion papers in a checklist (such as local form F4001-2), or alternatively (b) such provision is specifically identified in any proposed order granting the motion, using terminology of the type used in FRBP 4001(c)(1)(B) or local form F4001-2 (e.g., any "cross-collateralization" that is not specifically identified as such is deemed to be disapproved).

Revised Tentative Ruling for 7/17/18:

Appearances required by counsel for the debtor and by the debtor(s) themselves.

(1) Current issues. This Court has reviewed the debtor's filed status report (dkt. 17) and the other filed documents in this case.

(a) Secured claims. Why does the debtor's bankruptcy Schedule D (dkt. 18 at PDF p.11) list $0 in secured claims (not even a disputed claim?) even though the status report (dkt. 17) states that the case was filed to stop foreclosure? How can creditor and this Court rely on the accuracy of the bankruptcy schedules in view of such inconsistency?

(b) Income. The debtor's bankruptcy Schedule I (dkt. 18 at PDF pp.19-20) lists a total of $100/mo. in income taxes, medicare and social security. It lists $0 for net income from operating a business (line 8a) despite listing multiple businesses with alleged income: "YB Design, Inc.," "Management of Rabenu Enterprises, LLC," "Babysitting services," and "Cosmetic Sales." It fails to comply with the instructions in line 8a to "Attach a statement for each ... business showing gross receipts, ordinary and necessary business expenses, and the total monthly net income." ignoring the requirements to provide disclosure as to his own income and expenses and, under this Court's order (dkt. 9, para.3), to provide equal disclosure with respect to his spouse and their businesses. How can creditors and this Court rely on the accuracy of the bankruptcy schedules and future compliance with orders of this Court in view of such non-compliance?

(c) Deadline for compliance. The tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 7/31/18 for the debtor to file amended bankruptcy schedules correcting not only the foregoing deficiencies that this Court has identified but also any other deficiencies that the debtor and his spouse and the debtor's counsel identify after carefully reviewing the documents that the debtor has filed. If in future this Court discovers other non-compliance with the debtor's obligations to provide accurate disclosures and to comply with this Court's orders, this Court may order the dismissal or conversion of this bankruptcy case, or other remedies.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 6/21/18.

(a) Bar date: 9/24/18 (DO NOT SERVE notice yet - court will prepare an order after the status conference).

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: TBD

fr. 4/10/18, 5/1/18, 5/22/18, 07/17/18

Docket 9

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for 9/18/18:

Continue to the date and time set forth below. Appearances are not required on 9/18/18.

(1) Current issues.

(a) Motion for relief from automatic stay (dkt. 41). Deny without prejudice, for the reasons stated in the debtor's response (dkt. 48) and based on the representations in the debtor's status report (dkt. 60). Proposed order: The debtor is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

(2) Dates/Deadlines.

(a) Bar date: 6/15/18 (timely served, dkt. 26, 32)

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: file by 12/4/18 (see dkt. 55, p.4:25) using the forms required by Judge Bason.

(c) Continued status conference: 12/11/18 at 1:00 p.m. Brief status report due 12/4/18.

*Warning: special procedures apply (see order setting initial status conference).

Chapter 11

Continue to the date and time set forth below. Appearances are not required on 7/17/18.

(1) Current issues. This Court has reviewed debtor's status report (dkt. 55) and other relevant pleadings. This Court does not have any issues to raise sua sponte.

(2) Dates/Deadlines.

(a) Bar date: 6/15/18 (timely served, dkt. 26, 32)

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: TBD. This Court is aware that debtor has requested a somewhat distant deadline (dkt. 55, p. 4). This Court may or may not be persuaded to grant that deadline at the continued status conference.

(c) Continued status conference: 9/18/18 at 1:00 p.m. Brief status report due 9/4/18.

*Warning: special procedures apply (see order setting initial status conference).

Tentative Ruling for 5/22/18:

Appearances are not required on 5/22/18.

(1) Current issues.

(a) This court does not have any issues to raise sua sponte.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 3/13/18.

(a) Bar date: 6/15/18 (timely served, dkt. 26, 32).

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: This court will discuss setting a deadline for the filing of a draft plan/disclosure statement at the next status conference.

Appearances required by counsel for the debtor but telephonic appearances are encouraged if advance arrangements are made (see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.", "Instructions/Procedures").

(1) Current issues.

(a) Budget Motion (dkt. 21). This Court has reviewed Debtor's Supplemental Declaration in Support of the Budget Motion (dkt. 34). Although that declaration addresses many of the concerns raised by this Court and by Strategic Acquisitions, Inc. (dkt. 23), the debtor has failed to provide historical monthly profit and loss statements from the period from 1/1/18 through 3/31/18 as required by this Court's order (dkt. 27, para. 5.a.). The parties should be prepared to address what remedy this Court should impose.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 3/13/18.

(a) Bar date: 6/15/18 (timely served, dkt. 26, 32).

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: In view of the debtor's declaration about her current and future projected income, the tentative ruling is to vacate the prior deadline to file these documents, and set a new deadline at a future status conference, with the caveat that if the debtor fails to show sufficient diligence in obtaining employment and/or if the estate suffers any substantial losses then this Court might have to dismiss or

(c) Continued status conference: 6/12/18 at 1:00 p.m. No written status report is required.

Tentative Ruling for 4/10/18:

Appearances required by counsel for the debtor and by the debtor herself.

(1) Current issues. This Court has reviewed the debtor's status report (dkt. 19), the response (dkt. 23) filed by creditor Strategic Acquisitions, Inc. ("Strategic"), and the other filed documents and records in this case.

(a) Prior failed case. The debtor's husband's prior case (no. 17-bk-19071-NB) was a chapter 13 case that was dismissed on 10/13/17 with a 180-day bar to re-filing for failure to make plan payments or appear at the meeting of creditors (11 U.S.C. 341(a)).

(b) Budget Motion (dkt. 21). First, as Strategic points out, the debtor's bankruptcy Schedule I, line 8a, lists $6,220/mo. of net income from "rental property and from operating a business, profession, or farm" but fails to follow the instructions to "[a]ttach a statement for each property and business showing gross receipts, ordinary and necessary business expenses, and the total net monthly income." In addition, as Strategic points out, the debtor may be failing to account for the payment of real property taxes and perhaps also income taxes, and therefore it is not at all clear how the debtor will be able to fund any plan of reorganization.

The tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 4/17/18 for the debtor to file declaration(s) (i) attaching the statement(s) required by the line 8a instructions, (ii) providing complete explanations of any other sources of income (e.g., how long does the debtor anticipate continuing to receive disability payments? does the debtor anticipate returning to employment, and if so, when?), (iii) explaining whether the debtor is accounting for real estate taxes and income taxes, (iv) explaining how the debtor anticipates generating sufficient income to fund a plan of reorganization, and (v) attaching historical monthly accounts for the period of one year prepetition through 3/31/18.

Second, bankruptcy Schedule J (attached to the budget motion), lines 17c and 17d, list payments to Strategic of $1,750/mo. and to Ropers Majeski of $500/mo. The tentative ruling is to treat those payments as adequate protection payments on account of claims that appear to be secured claims, conditioned on return of such payments in the event that such security interests or claims are avoided or otherwise disallowed.

Third, notice of the motion and the deadline for objections is inadequate. The proof of service fails to attach a service list of creditors, and the debtor checked the box directing creditors to file any oppositions within 14 days' from the date of the proof of service (3/27/18), which would be the date of this hearing. Nevertheless, despite the lack of adequate service or notice, the tentative ruling is that on the present record it appears that it would be more prejudicial to creditors to prevent the debtors from making their proposed expenditures than to permit those expenditures, so the tentative ruling is to grant the budget motion on an interim basis, subject to any objections at a continued hearing simultaneous with the continued status conference date set forth below. This court has selected a continued hearing date that contemplates shortened notice (per Rule 9006, Fed. R. Bankr. P.), but that date is conditioned upon the debtor serving the motion on the entire creditor matrix the day after the current hearing date.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 3/13/18.

(a) Bar date: 6/15/18 (DO NOT SERVE notice yet - court will prepare an order after the status conference).

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: File by 6/29/18 using the forms required by Judge Bason (DO NOT SERVE yet, except on the U.S. Trustee - the court will set a deadline and procedures at a later time). This Court is aware that the debtor has requested a much later deadline (dkt. 19, p. 5), but this Court is not aware of any reason why so much time is needed. The debtor should be negotiating with secured creditors and other key constituencies

Docket 271

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for 9/18/18:

Continue to 12/18/18 at 1:00 p.m. with a likely continuance for an additional three months once this Court's 2019 calendar is set. See dkt. 300.

Appearances are not required on 9/18/18.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." If appearances are required, and you fail to appear without adequately resolving this matter by consent, then you may waive your right to be heard on matters that are appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

Tentative Ruling for 7/10/18:

Continue to 9/18/18 at 1:00 p.m. Appearances are not required on 7/10/18.

Reasons: The tentative ruling is that the debtor's anticipated lack of distribution from the sale of the Tchoupitoulas property (per the latest post-confirmation status report, dkt. 290, para.5) is consistent with the terms of the plan (dkt. 227), disclosure statement (dkt. 228, including Ex.H, n. N15), and confirmation order (dkt. 253). The tentative ruling is also that, although the debtor anticipates that the sale might occur on or before 8/13/18, and that other matters might not require a status conference for several months (dkt. 290, para. 8), nevertheless in this Court's experience issues tend to arise in this and other cases that make it advisable not to continue status conferences out quite so far. Accordingly, the tentative ruling is to continue the status conference to the date and time set forth above.

Continue to 7/10/18 at 1:00 p.m. as suggested in the debtor's latest post-confirmation status report (dkt. 272, para. 10). Appearances are not required on 2/13/18.

Tentative Ruling for 11/14/17:

Continue to 2/13/18 at 1:00 p.m. Appearances are not required on 11/14/17.

Reasons: The debtor's post-confirmation status report (dkt. 270) appears to show sufficient progress and compliance with the confirmed Plan (dkt. 227, confirmed by order at dkt. 253). Therefore the tentative ruling is to continue this status conference to allow the parties more time to reach a resolution with regards to the Tchoupitoulas property.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

Tentative Ruling for 9/19/17:

Appearances required but telephonic appearances are encouraged if advance arrangements are made (see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.", "Instructions/Procedures").

(1) Continuance. The debtor's post-confirmation status report (dkt. 264) appears to show sufficient progress and compliance with the confirmed Plan (dkt. 227, confirmed by order at dkt. 253). Therefore the tentative ruling is to continue this status conference to 11/14/17 at 1:00 p.m.

(2) Request for early discharge. The same status report (dkt. 264, para. 7-10) suggests that the pendency of this case is impeding the debtor's ability to finish reorganizing his finances, and therefore the debtor may seek to close the case, but he is concerned that creditors may misinterpret that as permission to pursue him for prepetition debts (beyond enforcement of any such debts that survive in his Plan obligations) and therefore he may seek to obtain an early discharge of any debts that are not being paid under the Plan. That anticipated request is not presently before this court, but in the context of this status conference it is appropriate to address any standing policies of this court and any procedures that should be established regarding any such request.

Under the terms of the Bankruptcy Code, incorporated into the confirmed Plan (dkt. 227, p.4, Art.IV.A.) (see also Disclosure Statement, dkt. 228, p.2, summarizing same), without modification by the confirmation order (dkt. 253), there are only limited circumstances in which the debtor can obtain a discharge prior to the 84 month term for completion of payments to general unsecured creditors:

IV.A. ... Pursuant to § 1141(d)(5), Debtor will not be discharged from any debts unless and until (1) Debtor completes all payments "under" the Plan and obtains an order of the court granting a discharge (§ 1141(d)(5)(A)&(C)) – for purposes of this Plan payments that extend beyond the Plan Term stated in Exhibit A are not considered payments "under" the Plan (e.g., if the Plan Term is 5 years then Debtor will be eligible for a discharge under this clause if 5 years of payments are made, but the debtor will remain

The debtor should be prepared to address whether he will pursue his stated intent to seek an early discharge, and if so on what grounds, and pursuant to what procedures.

If you do not appear, and the matter is not adequately resolved by consent, then you may waive your right to be heard on matters that are appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

Revised Tentative Ruling for 6/13/17:

Appearances required by counsel for the debtor but telephonic appearances are encouraged if advance arrangements are made (see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.", "Instructions/Procedures").

(1) Current issues.

(a) Plan (dkt. 227) and disclosure statement (dkt. 228) & errata (dkt. 246). The parties should be prepared to address the objection by CitiMorgage, Inc. (dkt. 237) and the debtor's responses (dkt. 242, 250) as well as the ballot summary (dkt. 243) and whether the SEC has been or needs to be served (see dkt. 230 at p.1:23-24, and dkt. 236).

Amended Chapter 11 Plan and Disclosure Statement (dkt. 174, 175, 177). This court will review various issues with these documents orally at the hearing.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 2/17/16.

(a) (1) Bar date: 6/30/16 (timely served, dkt. 58, 67).

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement: this court anticipates setting the following deadlines: 12/19/17 to file (NOT SERVE - except on the U.S. Trustee) any redlined revisions to be discussed at the status conference.

Note: If the U.S. Trustee wishes to file initial comments on any draft Plan documents before the regular deadline, it should do so at least two weeks prior to the subsequent status conference (but, whether or not any comments are filed, all rights are reserved to object to the Disclosure Statement or Plan when deadline(s) for such objections are established).

(c) Continued status conference: 1/17/17 at 1:00 p.m. No written status report is required.

If you do not appear, and the matter is not adequately resolved by consent, then you may waive your right to be heard on matters that are appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

Tentative Ruling for 11/8/16:

Continue to 11/29/16 at 2:00 p.m. for the reasons stated in the debtor's pending motion to extend time for filing plan and disclosure statement and extend exclusivity (dkt. 166). Appearances are not required on 11/8/16.

Chapter 11

Appearances required by counsel for the debtor but telephonic appearances are encouraged if advance arrangements are made (see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.", "Instructions/Procedures").

(A) Current issue: objection to AOK claim

This court has reviewed the debtor's objection (dkt. 121) to proof of claim 9-1, filed by AOK Brothers, LLC (AOK); AOK's opposition (dkt. 147); and the debtor's reply to the objection (dkt. 150).

(1) Default interest

The parties do not appear to disagree on the legal standards. The debtor does not (at this time) seek to disallow default interest pursuant to any "cure" concept under bankruptcy law. Cf., e.g., GECC v. Future Media, 547 F.3d 956 (9th Cir. 2008); In re Entz-White Lumber and Supply, Inc., 850 F.2d 1338 (9th Cir. 1988). Rather, the debtor relies on California law. See generally In re Kord Enterprises II, 139 F.3d 684, 687 (9th Cir. 1998).

As stated by the California Supreme Court, the analysis under California law is to determine whether default rates of interest are either permissible liquidated damages or an impermissible penalty:

[California Civil Code] Section 1671 authorizes the assessment of agreed-upon and anticipated damages only when the fixing of the actual damages which would be sustained upon a breach would be "impracticable" or "extremely difficult." Where, as here, the issue is presented on admitted facts it is one of law and must be examined from the position of the parties at the time the contract was entered into. The party seeking to rely on a liquidated damages clause bears the burden of proof. [¶] "The validity of a clause for liquidated damages requires that the parties to the contract 'agree therein upon an amount which shall be presumed to be the amount of damages sustained by a breach thereof....'" (Civ. Code, § 1671.) This amount must represent the result of a reasonable endeavor by the parties to estimate a fair average compensation for any loss that may be sustained. [Garrett v. Coast & Southern Fed. Sav. & Loan Assn., 9 Cal.3d 731 (1973) (citations and some internal quotation marks omitted, emphasis added). See also Ridgley v. Topa Thrift & Loan Assn., 17 Cal. 4th 970, 981 (Cal. 1998).]

In this instance, AOK has not met its burden to establish that the default rate of interest is permissible under California law. A five percent (5%) interest rate has not been shown to be a reasonable estimate of liquidated damages, given the $1.3 million equity cushion AOK has in the property. In addition and alternatively, there is no showing of any anticipated damages - beyond the compensation that AOK already can claim through late charges, ongoing interest at the non-default rate, and other things such as attorney fees as set forth below – let alone evidence that the parties made a reasonable endeavor to estimate any such additional losses.

The debtor estimates that AOK's proof of claim includes at least $15,000 of default interest. The tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 9/20/16 for AOK to file an amended proof of claim that shows the calculation of default interest, and a deadline of 9/27/16 for the debtor to lodge a proposed order, with a copy of this tentative ruling attached, that disallows all default interest (including not just whatever AOK asserts as of the petition date but also any future claim for default interest).

(2) Attorney fees

The debtor's motion requests that AOK's claim be reduced by $34,221.46 for unreasonable and unnecessary attorney's fees incurred by AOK's counsel. The tentative ruling is to disallow a portion of those fees as set forth below.

The debtor is correct that the loan documents contain confusing provisions regarding attorney fees. But the tentative ruling is that the debtor is incorrect in arguing (dkt. 121, p.5:27-28) that a notice of acceleration or similar predicates were required before he had any obligation to pay AOK's attorney fees.

(a) Some loan document clauses require notices of acceleration or similar predicates

On the one hand, several clauses support the debtor's reading that AOK was required to send a notice of acceleration (or similar predicates) before being entitled to any attorney fees.

(i) The promissory note has a section (section 4.D) providing that "[i]f immediate full payment is required (acceleration, at AOK's option upon default) then AOK will have the right to be paid its reasonable attorney fees (dkt. 121, Ex.1, at PDF p.30, emphasis added).

(ii) The deed of trust ("DOT") provides (section 17) that if a notice of default is provided and the breach is not timely cured then AOK shall be entitled to collect all reasonable attorney fees "incurred in pursuing the remedies provided in this paragraph 17" (power of sale and other remedies permitted by applicable law). Dkt. 121, Ex.1, at PDF p.48.

(iii) The DOT's more general provision regarding protection of AOK's security (section 7) states that if debtor fails to perform then "upon notice to [debtor]" (dkt. 121, Ex.1, at PDF p.46, emphasis added) AOK may disburse sums and take actions necessary to protect its interests including disbursement of reasonable attorney fees.

(iv) An addendum to the promissory note (id., at PDF p.35, the "Note Addendum") and a rider to the DOT (dkt. 121, Ex.1, at PDF p.55, the "DOT Rider") both provide that "in the event that" there is a payment default and AOK permits the debtor "to cure the default," then the debtor shall pay AOK "all reasonable attorney fees and costs incurred by [AOK] originating from this default and the cure thereof." (Emphasis added.)

(v) The tentative ruling is that the debtor is correct that his "personal guaranty" of his own obligation is a nullity, so its attorney fee clause (dkt. 147, Ex.B, section 6) is of no force and effect.

(b) Other clauses require the debtor to pay AOK's attorney fees reasonably necessary to bring any late payments current

On the other hand, the Note Addendum and DOT Rider also provide that, if AOK has not received the full amount of any monthly payment by the end of ten calendar days after it is due, the debtor "will promptly pay to [AOK] all costs incurred by [it], including, but not limited to, attorneys' fees reasonably necessary to bring any late payments (overdue payments) current." Dkt. 121, Ex.1, at PDF pp. 35 & 55 (emphasis added). No notice of acceleration or other prerequisite is required for this obligation.

The debtor (dkt. 121, pp. 7:23-8:11 and 8:17-9:3) cites authority that such clauses must be construed narrowly against the lender, and argues that in this light AOK's bankruptcy litigation was not "reasonably necessary to bring any late payments (overdue payments) current." Instead, the debtor argues, AOK's litigation was bankruptcy-related: opposing the debtor's use of cash collateral; seeking to convert this case to one under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code; opposing the debtor's motion to extend the exclusive period in which only he may propose a plan of reorganization; etc.

It is true that the decisions cited by the debtor construe such clauses strictly against the lender. See dkt. 121, p.8:1-11 (citing cases); and see, e.g., In re Cukierman, 265 F.3d 846, 852 (9th Cir. 2001); In re Westside Print Works, 180 B.R. 557 (9th Cir. BAP 1995). But a fair reading of the loan documents, even construed against AOK, is that it was "reasonably necessary" to pay attorneys to engage in bankruptcy litigation in order to attempt to "bring any late payments" current. In fact, the whole point of bankruptcy reorganization (by this debtor and most debtors) is to attempt to defer or restructure financial obligations; and in opposing such attempts the creditor is attempting to "bring any late payments" current, as nearly as possible given the constraints of the bankruptcy system on creditors' exercise of their remedies.

Alternatively, even supposing that there were sufficient ambiguity about the loan documents to reach a different conclusion, that ambiguity would be resolved by the letter signed by the debtor (dkt. 147, Ex.E) confirmed that he agrees to pay a late fee "in addition to any legal fees [AOK] incurs in connection with collecting any payment on my loan." Again, a fair reading of this document is that "collecting" payments includes filing a claim in a bankruptcy case, opposing the debtor's attempts to defer or reduce payments, and otherwise engaging in bankruptcy litigation.

For the foregoing reasons, AOK is owed its reasonable attorney fees. The remaining question is what attorney fees were reasonable.

(c) Reasonableness of AOK's attorney fees

The debtor is correct that, at least on the present record, AOK appears to be greatly oversecured, so much of its litigation was unnecessary to protect its interests and doomed to fail from the outset. In addition, as this Bankruptcy Court has noted before on the record, many of AOK's arguments lacked a sufficient foundation.

On the other hand, as this Bankruptcy Court previously has also observed, the debtor has been sloppy in some aspects of his case management – such as failing to recognize that AOK has an interest in cash collateral; or failing to provide adequate notice to AOK. In addition, the debtor's sloppiness and tendency to overstate his arguments justify greater involvement by AOK than typically might be required for a creditor protected by a substantial equity cushion.

This Bankruptcy Court has taken these things into consideration in reviewing AOK's daily timesheets. That review has been hampered by the fact that AOK's timesheets do not comply with the local rules and guidelines – for example, time entries are "lumped" together, and they do not often identify the precise issues addressed (e.g., the subjects of telephone conferences generally are not described). Nevertheless, this Bankruptcy Court has sufficient familiarity with the filed pleadings and records in this case, as well as the approximate amount of fees that normally would be incurred in cases of this sort, to be able to rule on this record. In addition, it does not appear that any party's interests would be served by the expense and delay of further briefing.

In view of the foregoing, the tentative ruling is to reduce AOK's legal fees to date by $14,000.00.

(b) Properties. The tentative ruling is that the debtor has provided an adequate status report (dkt. 81), for present purposes, regarding the two properties as to which there appears to be some confusion regarding ownership: (i) 5255 Tchoupitoulas St., New Orleans Property and (ii) 3324 Octavia, New Orleans, Louisiana.

(c) Claim objections. Once AOK Brothers has filed its proof of claim, and the debtor has filed his objection, this Court will address whether to make preliminary rulings before or after directing the parties to mandatory mediation (note: Judge Bason's policy is to order mediation before one of the volunteer mediators, not a Bankruptcy Judge).

(d) Disclosure statement notice period. The debtor is correct (dkt. 81, para. 25) that the correct period is 42 days (the local rule is outdated and is in the process of being revised).

Tentative Ruling for 5/17/16:

This court anticipates posting a tentative ruling at a later time.

Tentative Ruling for 4/26/16:

Deny the motion of AOK Brothers, LLC ("AOK") to dismiss or for other remedies (dkt. 51), and set a continued status conference, all as further set forth below. Appearances are not required.

(1) Current issues.

(a) Motion to dismiss etc. (dkt. 51). Deny the motion without prejudice to renewing it at a later date, if sufficient cause exists.

Proposed order: The debtor is directed to serve and lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this court's final ruling.

Reasons for denial:

(i) Motion and opposition. The crux of AOK's motion is that cause exists under 11 USC 1112(b)(4) to convert or dismiss this case, and alternatively under 11 USC 1104, to appoint a chapter 11 trustee based on the debtor's alleged "gross mismanagement of the estate" and his "unauthorized use of cash collateral" that allegedly was "substantially harmful to 1 or more creditors[.]" 11 USC 1112(b)(4)(B) & (D). (In its reply (dkt. 65), AOK raises a number of additional issues allegedly supporting such relief.)

On the one hand this Court is somewhat concerned about (A) the debtor's (apparently inadvertent) use of cash collateral without authorization and (slight) delay in seeking such authorization once he was alerted to the assignment of rents issue (see dkt. 39), (B) his filing of this case in the wrong division of this district (see dkt. 19, 21), (C) his refusal to communicate in writing with AOK's counsel except in limited ways, (D) some vagueness regarding the assets and liabilities of the bankruptcy estate, (E) the prior bankruptcies affecting the property on which AOK has a lien, and (F) AOK's other allegations. Nevertheless, this Court is not persuaded based on the current record that there has been anything remotely approaching "gross" mismanagement of this estate or that the duration and nature of the use of cash collateral caused any "substantial" harm (if there was any harm at all) to any creditors, including AOK.

There is no evidence that the cash collateral was used for anything other than legitimate purposes. One such use has been paying liens, including tendering payments to AOK at an interest rate that is prima facie within a reasonable range for adequate protection of AOK's interest (and AOK has not rebutted that prima facie showing). Another use of cash collateral is to maintain the subject property (see dkt. 40, budget at pp. 4-6). AOK has not identified any harm at all, let alone "substantial" harm, from this use of cash collateral.

(ii) AOK's reply. AOK raises a number of new issues in its reply. That is procedurally improper and should be disregarded. See LBR 9013-1 (g)(1).

Alternatively and additionally, these new issues are not sufficient to warrant conversion, dismissal, or appointment of a chapter 11 trustee. It is true that, in general, a debtor has a fiduciary obligation to make disclosures, conduct investigations, and take actions regarding liabilities and assets, including such matters as claims objections and potential avoidance actions. If this bankruptcy estate turns out to be insolvent, and if the other facts and circumstances warrant, then the debtor might have to consider recovering the funds that were used to pay for his son's legal fees, and in any event he may have to sort out his interests in certain real property and in the law firm with his wife. But at this early stage AOK has not established that the debtor is shirking any such duties at all.

The debtor has represented that he anticipates a 100% payment to creditors, and he is contemplating a sale or refinance of at least one property, all of which makes it likely that any pursuit of avoidance actions would be premature and possibly a waste of time and resources. AOK's secured claim appears to be adequately protected (as noted above).

Of course, AOK is not required to accept the debtor's assertions at face value, it can elect to do its own due diligence and otherwise protect its interests, and presumably (although this issue has not been briefed) it may be entitled to reimbursement under the loan documents and applicable law in some dollar amount for a reasonable expenditure of attorney fees in pursuit of those things. But at this early stage of this case AOK has not come close to showing any substantial basis for the extreme remedies of conversion, dismissal, or appointment of a chapter 11 trustee.

Turning to another example, it is true that the California ethical rules provide that "[w]hile representing a client" a member of the bar shall not communicate with a party whom the member "knows" to be represented by another lawyer in the matter (without that lawyer's consent). See Reply (dkt. 65) p.8:10-14 (quoting Rule 2-100). AOK has not cited legal authority that the debtor, representing himself, is "representing a client" within the meaning of the rule. In addition, the debtor has denied having the requisite knowledge of the representation, and AOK has not presented any contrary evidence. Moreover, supposing for the sake of discussion that AOK could show an ethical violation, it has not cited any authority that this would be sufficient for conversion, dismissal, or appointment of a chapter 11 trustee. This Court does not condone the alleged nature and tone of the communications (see Nelson Decl., dkt. 65, at PDF pp. 11-12), but if those were proven and amounted to actual ethical violations there would be separate remedies that would be more closely tailored to any actual wrongdoing, as opposed to sweeping remedies such as dismissal that may harm all creditors (and that might unduly punish even a debtor who has violated an ethical rule).

The remaining issues raised in AOK's reply appear to be most appropriately resolved through other means, such as a claim objection, consideration of a draft disclosure statement and plan, or the usual process of oversight by the Office of the United States Trustee ("UST"). For example, having reviewed the record in this case (including the transcript from the hearing on 4/12/16), it does not appear that this Court ordered the debtor to file an amended bankruptcy Schedule I, contrary to AOK's assertions in its reply. It is true that the UST and the debtor discussed possible amendments to the bankruptcy schedules at a prior hearing, but this Court left that in the first instance to the discretion of the debtor (under the eye of the UST) and any purported lack of accuracy will only be appropriate for this Court to address if later developments show that the debtor abused that discretion.

(iii) Debtor's supplemental opposition (dkt.68). The debtor's supplemental opposition is unauthorized and therefore, like the new arguments in the reply, need not be addressed. In addition and alternatively, this Court need not consider the factual allegations in that document (largely concerning the alleged ethical violation) because this Court is not persuaded by the reply in any event (for the reasons set forth above).

Continue as set forth below. Appearances are not required on 7/10/18.

(1) Current Issues. This Court has reviewed debtor's status report (dkt. 154, 156) and other relevant pleadings in this case. This Court has no issues to raise sua sponte at this time.

(2) Deadlines/dates. Continue to 9/18/18 at 1:00 p.m. (no written status report required; and will go off calendar if a final decree has been issued before that time).

Appearances required but telephonic appearances are encouraged if advance arrangements are made (see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.", "Instructions/Procedures").

The parties should be prepared to address any issues appropriate for resolution at this post-confirmation status conference. The tentative ruling is to set a continued status conference for 7/10/18 at 1:00 p.m.

Proposed order: If this court is persuaded to adopt this tentative ruling, then counsel for the debtor is directed to serve and lodge proposed orders (a) approving the disclosure statement (dkt. 101) on a final basis and (b) confirming the plan (dkt. 102), all as amended by the stipulation with class 2A (dkt. 127, 128). Those proposed orders must be lodged via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date.

(1) Ballot Summary. The debtor's ballot summary (dkt. 131) appears to be inaccurate and internally inconsistent. Although the ballots and stipulation attached to the ballot summary show acceptance by 100% in both dollar amount and number of the claims actually voted or deemed to have been voted in classes 2A, 2B and 4A, and no vote by Class 2C, the ballot summary makes assertions that are not consistent with those ballots, namely:

(a) Cramdown: The ballot summary asserts that the debtor is not requesting cramdown (dkt. 131, item 3), even though the lack of an affirmative vote in class 2C means that the debtor does not satisfy 11 U.S.C. 1129(a)(8) and therefore must seek cramdown under 11 U.S.C. 1129(b);

(b) Accepting classes: The ballot summary asserts that only class 4A has voted to accept the plan (dkt. 131, item 6), even though classes 2A and 2B have also accepted the plan; and

(c) Page 2 of the Ballot Summary: The chart on page 2 of the ballot summary (dkt. 131, p.2, top line of chart) fails to show that Class 2A has accepted the plan by 100% in number of claims deemed to have been voted (not just 100% in amount). In addition, it would have been helpful if the ballot summary's "Comments" following that chart had explained that (i) Portfolio Recovery Associates is Class 2C (even though it is listed as LA County Tax Collector in the Plan), (ii) U.S. Bank is Class 2A (even though it is listed as Wells Fargo in the Plan), and (iii) Class 2A is deemed to have voted in favor of the plan under its court-approved stipulation, even though it did not actually cast a ballot. (If any of the foregoing is incorrect then counsel for the debtor must correct those issues at the hearing.)

(2) Status report

The debtor's status report (dkt. 130) misleadingly asserts that this court's order (dkt. 106) previously approved the disclosure statement (dkt. 101), whereas in fact this court only granted preliminary approval for purposes of this combined hearing on whether to approve the disclosure statement (dkt. 101) and confirm the plan (dkt. 102).

(3) Confirmation. Notwithstanding the foregoing, it appears that the debtor's disclosure statement (dkt. 101) should be approved, and that the chapter 11 plan (dkt. 102), as amended by the debtor's stipulation with the holder of the class 2A claim (dkt. 127, 128), has met the requirements for confirmation under 11 U.S.C. 1129(a) & (b).

(4) Correction. This court notes that the tentative ruling for 6/20/17 (reproduced below) was in error in asserting that "[at] the status conference on 5/23/17 this court set a deadline of 6/6/17 to file an amended plan and disclosure statement." In fact, this court was persuaded at that status conference not to impose that deadline.

If you do not appear, and the matter is not adequately resolved by consent, then you may waive your right to be heard on matters that are appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

Tentative Ruling for 6/20/17:

Continue to 8/8/17 at 1:00 p.m. (without the need for any written status report), but impose sanctions of $200 on counsel for the debtor, for the reasons set forth below. Appearances are not required on 6/20/17.

At the status conference on 5/23/17 this court set a deadline of 6/6/17 to file an amended plan and disclosure statement. On 6/15/17, after this court had already prepared a tentative ruling for this status conference, counsel for the debtor filed a stipulation (dkt. 117) and lodged a proposed order for yet another continuance of the confirmation hearing. At no point did counsel telephone chambers to suggest that counsel expected or was attempting to arrange for such a continuance. Moreover, as set forth in the tentative rulings reproduced below, this case has a long history of missed deadlines, last minute filings, and deficient documents.

This court recognizes that to a large extent counsel cannot control delays by a debtor and debtor in possession, and not infrequently a debtor is simply incapable of meeting all of the debtor's obligations. Nevertheless, this court has noted that counsel of record in this case has a pattern, in this and other cases (e.g., In re Barragan, 2:15-bk-29156-NB), of filing late and inadequate documents, and that pattern is not matched by the vast majority of other counsel who appear before this court. All of that strongly suggests that counsel bears some responsibility for those deficiencies, and that imposes substantial burdens on this court, the U.S. Trustee, and any other parties in interest who may be monitoring or involved in such bankruptcy cases. The tentative ruling is that this warrants sanctions under this court's inherent powers and 11 U.S.C. 105. Counsel is also cautioned that this court anticipates issuing similar or increased sanctions if this pattern continues in other cases in future.

If you wish to dispute the above tentative ruling, please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings".

Appearances required by counsel for the debtor, but telephonic appearances are encouraged if advance arrangements are made (see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.", "Instructions/Procedures").

(1) Current issues

The ballot summary was due 5/16/17 but was not filed until 5/22/17 at 4:12 p.m. In addition, it is internally inconsistent. What remedies are appropriate?

The plan (dkt. 102) has not been accepted by any class. This is the debtor's second bankruptcy case, and it has been pending for over a year. The debtor's lack of progress for that long a period of time suggests a willful delay. Should this court dismiss or convert this case? Should this court impose a bar against being a debtor in bankruptcy for the third time in a row?

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 4/20/16. If this case is not dismissed or converted, the tentative ruling is to hold a continued status conference on 6/20/17 at 1:00 p.m. with a deadline of 6/6/17 to file (but NOT serve) yet another amended plan and disclosure statement.

If you do not appear, and the matter is not adequately resolved by consent, then you may waive your right to be heard on matters that are appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

(dkt. 94)?

(b) Adequate protection payments. At the hearing on 1/10/17 counsel for the debtor assured this court that the debtor had cured the postpetition delinquency in adequate protection payments. But the monthly operating report for January 2017 (dkt. 95, filed 2/7/17, at p.4) continues to list 4 missed payments for a total of $6,972 delinquency. What was the basis for counsel's misrepresentation to this court? Should this court require counsel and the debtor to testify on that issue, and on the prospects for future income, before this court can find that the plan is feasible (11 U.S.C. 1129(a)(11))? Should this misrepresentation have any other consequences?

(c) Plan (dkt. 82) and Disclosure Statement (dkt. 81). The debtor's ballot summary was due to be filed no later than 2/21/17 (dkt. 89). Instead the debtor's counsel has filed a declaration (dkt. 96) asserting that a ballot in favor of the plan has been received by class "6b," even though no such class is listed in the plan (see dkt. 82, Ex.A), and requesting more time to receive ballots from classes 2a and 2b, even though the deadline for ballots has passed. The parties should be prepared to address how best to proceed in these circumstances.

(1) Current issues

(a) Amended Chapter 11 Plan and Disclosure Statement (dkt. 74, 75). There are issues with these documents which this Bankruptcy Court will review orally at the hearing.

(b) Monthly operating reports. The debtor's court approved budget (dkt. 19) and the budget attached to her amended chapter 11 disclosure statement (dkt. 74, PDF p. 13) show various typical monthly expenses such as transportation costs, utilities, and food. The expenses included in her budgets submitted to this court are either not reflected in her MORs for August and September 2016 (dkt. 65 and 73, respectively) or are reflected, but in much smaller amounts than budgeted. Is the debtor reporting all of her monthly expenses in her MORs? If not, why not?

Additionally, the MORs appear to reflect that the debtor is receiving less than her budgeted monthly income ($1,800/mo.) from her job as a real estate professional. In August 2016, the debtor reported receipts of $970.01; in September 2016, receipts of $1,000.

Based on the reporting in the debtor's two most recent MORs, this court is concerned that the debtor may not have sufficient disposable income with which to fund her proposed chapter 11 plan.

(a) Chapter 11 Plan and Disclosure Statement (dkt. 59, 58). There are numerous issues with these documents, which this Bankruptcy Court will review orally at the hearing.

(b) Orders on budget and cash collateral motions. On July 19, 2016, this court held continued hearings on the debtor's motion for use of cash collateral (dkt. 18) and budget motion (dkt. 19). (i) Inconsistent rental income amount. This Court notes that the debtor's amended schedule G reflects a monthly rental of $2,200 (dkt. 13, p.10), which was originally listed as $1,500 per month (dkt. 1, p.36). However, the debtor's original schedule I originally listed the debtor's net income from rental property as $2,400 (dkt. 1, p.39). The debtor's amended schedule I now lists net income from rental property as $2,200 (dkt. 13, p.12). Although the rental income now appears to be consistent at $2,200, and schedule G reflects the same lessee, Smark Lyles, is this the correct amount?

(ii) Schedule I. Part 8.a. requires that the debtor attach a statement for each property and business showing gross receipts, ordinary and necessary business expenses, and the total monthly net income.

(iii) Motion to Value. The debtor's status report indicates that the debtor intends to file a motion to value the real property. When does the debtor anticipate filing the motion to value?

(c) UST compliance. The United States Trustee has filed a motion to dismiss or convert (dkt. 24). Although the matter has been set for hearing on 6/21/16, the debtor should be prepared to address more generally, why this case in chapter 11 instead of chapter 13. It appears that the debtor is within the debt limits for chapter 13, and chapter 11 typically is far more expensive, so it seems doubtful that the debtor needs or can afford a chapter 11 case.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 4/20/16.

(a) Bar date: 7/29/16 (DO NOT SERVE notice yet - court will prepare an order after the status conference).

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: file by 8/19/16 using the forms required by Judge Bason (DO NOT SERVE yet, except on the U.S. Trustee - the court will set a deadline and procedures at a later time). This Court is aware that the debtor has requested a much later deadline (dkt. 23, p.4) but this Court is not aware of any reason why so much time is needed. The debtor should be negotiating with secured creditors and other key constituencies already.

#15.00 Status conference re: Post confirmation
fr. 7/10/18

Docket 87

Tentative Ruling:

Appearances required.

At a hearing on 7/10/18 this Court orally ordered that (1) the debtor's disclosure statement was approved on a final basis (as reflected in the written order at dkt. 101), (2) the debtor's plan was confirmed, and (3) this post-confirmation Status Conference was set, with a written status report due no later than 9/4/18. No proposed written order has been lodged confirming the debtor's plan. Counsel for the debtor is directed to do so immediately. No written status report was filed. Counsel for the debtor is directed to address why not.

Assuming there are satisfactory responses to the foregoing issues, the tentative ruling is to continue this post-confirmation Status Conference to 12/18/18 at 1:00 p.m., with a written status report due 12/4/18.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." Tentative Ruling for 9/18/18:

Appearances required but telephonic appearances are encouraged if advance arrangements are made (see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.", "Instructions/Procedures").

(1) Current issues. This status conference was continued from 8/18/18 to 9/18/18 (dkt.142). Based on recent docket activity, this Court is aware of the following issues.

(a) Dispute with State Compensation Insurance Fund (dkt. 145-156, 158, 159). Has this matter been resolved? Perhaps so, because the Status Report (dkt. 170) does not mention it. If not, what is the status of the parties' disputes?

(b) Final decree (dkt. 141, 151). The Status Report (dkt. 170) projects filing another motion by 12/31/18, so the tentative ruling is to continue this post-confirmation Status Conference to 12/18/18 at 1:00 p.m., with no written status report required and with the expectation that it might go off calendar if a motion for a final decree has been filed by then.

#20.00 Hrg re: Application for Compensation Interim fees and/or expenses for David A Tilem, Debtor's Attorney

Docket 585

Tentative Ruling:

Appearances required. Mr. Tilem is directed to address the following issues.

Proposed order: Regardless of the final ruling, Mr. Tilem is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby memorializing the issues addressed by this Court in reaching its final ruling. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

(1) Overtime. The overtime chart (dkt. 592, Ex.2, p.60) is very helpful, but does it include any persons other than Mr. Tilem himself? If so, that would appear to violate the terms of employment by applying a $150/hr. Overtime Formula (dkt. 592, Main Document, Tilem Decl., para.7, at PDF p.8) to persons whose normal hourly rate is less than $600/hr. Conversely, if other persons are not included in the overtime chart, then is Mr. Tilem foregoing overtime charges for the firm's employees (without waiving such charges for future time periods)? In any event, it is unclear how the Overtime Formula is any different from the authorized terms of employment, and Mr. Tilem is directed to explain that issue and also address why was this not explained in the fee application.

(2) Redactions. Numerous time entries have substantial redactions clearly shown via blacked-out text, and numerous other entries appear to have substantial redactions because the text stops in what appears to be mid-sentence (e.g., 3/6/18 entry, dkt. 592, Ex., p.69, "telephone call to client regarding"). A small amount of redaction may be unavoidable, but in this Court's experience the degree of redaction reflected in Mr. Tilem's timesheets is unprecedented.

Mr. Tilem has billed for that redaction (see dkt. 592, Ex., p.114, entry for 4/2/18) but has not provided any explanations for the redactions. How can this Court and parties in interest assess the reasonableness of the requested fees when there is no meaningful description for so many time entries?

Chapter 11

(3) Non-working time. It is unclear whether the time entries include non-working time. One example of non-working time is billing for travel time (in this Court's experience, it is often possible, while traveling, to do work simultaneously, such as telephone calls from a mobile phone, or preparation for a hearing during that travel time, so the time entry would be for those things rather than for travel). Another example of non-working time is time spent waiting in court for a matter to be called (without doing work such as emails or document review during that time). The posted policies of Judge Bason (available at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) cap such non-working time at 2 hours per day, absent a sufficient explanation why it is appropriate to bill for such non-working time. The fee application neither discloses whether any such time is being billed nor provides any explanation.

Is Mr. Tilem's firm billing for non-working time? If so, what is the justification?

(4) Efficiency. The vast majority of time entries appear to reflect reasonable time spent for the type of task at issue - indeed, the overall time spent on briefs that were filed with this Court and other matters on which this Court has first-hand knowledge appear to reflect an efficient use of time (on other matters, it is impossible to tell because of the excessive redaction noted above). One time entry (noted below) is oddly at variance with this pattern, and if the timesheets were not so heavily redacted then other entries might also appear to be inefficient.

A time entry for 3/6/18 is for 1.5 hours (at $600/hr.) to prepare a list of the 20 largest general unsecured creditors and secured creditors. That task usually would not require that much time of the highest billing-rate attorney at the firm. Dkt. 592, Ex., p.89. What is the explanation?

This one example illustrates one of the reasons why redaction is such a substantial issue.

(5) Conclusion. Should this Court set a deadline for Mr. Tilem to file his declaration with an explanation of the foregoing, and amended timesheets? Alternatively, or in addition, should this Court require greater disclosure at a later time - e.g., in connection with a final fee application - and meanwhile allow 80% of the requested fees, or some other percentage, on an interim basis?

Chapter 11

- #1.00 Hrg re: Claimant Philip J. Layfield's Ex Parte Motion to Set Status Conference to Establish Protocol for Resolving Open Issues, Set Briefing Schedules and to Stay All Other Proceedings, Payments and Final Orders Pending Resolution of Critical Issues

Docket 323

Tentative Ruling:

Appearances required. To the extent that this Court has tentative rulings, they are set forth below. The parties should be prepared to address the following issues:

(1) Status conferences in the interrelated bankruptcy cases. Various bankruptcy cases before this Court are interrelated: (a) In re Layfield & Barrett, APC, Case No. 2:17-bk-19548-NB ("L&B"); (b) In re Layfield, Case No. 2:18-bk-15829-NB ("Lay-Invol."), (c) In re Maximum Legal (Cal.), LLP, Case No. 2:17-bk-18433-NB ("Max-CA"). As a matter of calendar management, this Court will hold general status conferences in all of those cases concurrent with the status conferences on specific matters that have been self-calendared or specially set for today (9/18/18 at 2:00 p.m.).

(2) L&B case: Status Conference on Mr. Layfield's Ex Parte Motion to stay proceedings etc. (L&B dkt. 325) (the "Ex Parte Motion"). This Court issued an order (L&B dkt. 325) denying Mr. Layfield's Ex Parte Motion to the extent (if any) that it sought immediate relief (e.g., excusing Mr. Layfield or others from the bar date; staying all matters involving him or others; converting the L&B case to chapter 7; etc.). This Court also set this status conference on Mr. Layfield's Ex Parte Motion. Wellgen filed a response (L&B dkt. 332).

The tentative ruling is that this Court should not take any action at this time. Rather, Mr. Layfield must follow the applicable statutes and rules and file separate motions and/or adversary proceedings for each type of relief that he seeks in his Ex Parte Motion, instead of combining multiple requests in a single document that does not include points and authorities, includes numerous assertions that are not supported by admissible evidence, and does not otherwise comply with the applicable statutes and rules.

For example, Mr. Layfield would need to file and serve a motion to convert the L&B case to chapter 7, and a separate motion to consolidate the L&B case with the Max-CA case. Each of those documents would need to be supported by appropriate points and authorities, declarations, etc.

Although Mr. Layfield requests that this Court establish briefing schedules on the foregoing and other matters, that appears to be premature or unnecessary. The Local Bankruptcy Rules ("LBR") and the self-calendaring procedures (available at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) establish briefing and hearing schedules for typical motions, and there is no showing that special procedures are necessary or appropriate at this stage.

Mr. Layfield (and all other parties in interest) are reminded that they must comply with the Posted Procedures of Judge Bason (available at www.cacb.uscourts.gov). In addition, they may wish to familiarize themselves with this Court's earlier rulings in these various proceedings. See, e.g., L&B dkt. 288 (order denying Mr. Barrett's motion to stay proceedings).

Nothing in the preceding paragraphs should be interpreted as expressing any opinion about whether Mr. Layfield does or does not have standing or have grounds to seek any of the relief he mentions. For example, both standing and grounds for relief are unclear with respect to Mr. Layfield's request to establish that "all unpaid client claims and unpaid liens relating to client claims must be given priority over any secured creditors or Trustee compensation."

First, this Court is not certain what Mr. Layfield means. Second, it is unclear whether Mr. Layfield has standing to seek a determination of priority of L&B's client's claims over secured creditors' claims or any administrative expenses - presumably that is an issue between those parties. Third, assuming for purposes of discussion that Mr. Layfield is seeking some sort of declaratory judgment that he has an attorney lien with priority over the lien held by Welgen Standard, LLC (as successor to Advocate Capital, Inc.) ("Wellgen"), it is unclear whether he has any standing to assert an attorney lien (which might belong to L&B rather than Mr. Layfield) or any grounds for such relief (e.g., does he assert an attorney lien by operation of nonbankruptcy law, or contract, or on some other ground?). Fourth, it would be premature to set a briefing schedules before he has filed any adversary proceeding and motion(s) or claim objections or whatever other papers may be necessary or appropriate, complete with points and authorities, supported

In sum, the tentative ruling to DENY Mr. Layfield's Ex Parte Motion, without prejudice to any properly presented requests for the relief that he appears to seek. The tentative ruling is to direct Wellgen's counsel to prepare an order denying Mr. Layfield's Ex Parte Motion for the reasons stated in this tentative ruling (as they may be augmented or modified at the hearing).

(3) Lay-Invol. case: status conference on Mr. Layfield's "Special Appearance For The Limited Purpose Of Objecting To The Employment Of Jeffrey Golden's Law Firm And The Appointment Of An Interim Trustee" (Lay-Invol. dkt. 37, the "Special Appearance"). Mr. Layfield appears to be attempting to combine at least three separate matters in a single document: (a) limiting his appearance in some way (although it is unclear whether he can limit his appearance and also request the other relief he seeks); (b) challenging the appointment of an interim chapter 7 trustee (the "Interim Trustee") and/or objecting to the selection of Mr. Avery as such Interim Trustee (see Lay-Invol. dkt. 13, order) (it is unclear what relief Mr. Layfield actually seeks); and (c) objecting to the pending application (Lay-Invol. dkt. 30) by the Interim Trustee to employ Weiland Golden Goodrich LLP (Mr. Golden's law firm) (the "Weiland Golden" firm). As with other matters, he has not included points and authorities, he makes numerous allegations that are not supported by admissible evidence, and he has not followed proper procedures.

Due to these deficiencies the tentative ruling is to deny Mr. Layfield's request to set these matters (and others) for hearing on October 23, 24, or 25. See Lay-Invol. dkt. 37, p.3. In addition, the tentative ruling is to deny his request for a stay of various proceedings pending resolution of these matters, for the same reasons why this Court denied his request for a similar stay in the L&B case. See L&B dkt. 325.

Nevertheless, the tentative ruling is to hold a status conference on Mr. Layfield's Special Appearance to address the following issues. To the extent he is attempting to object (a) to the appointment of an Interim Trustee generally or Mr. Avery as such Interim Trustee in particular, or (b) to the Interim Trustee's application to employ the Weiland Golden firm, the parties should be prepared to address:

(i) interim trustee: whether the objection to the appointment of any Interim Trustee is intended to be a request for reconsideration under Rule 9023 or 9024 (Fed. R. Bankr. P.) of this Court's order appointing Mr. Avery; and whether Mr. Layfield can meet the standards under those rules (or any other applicable rules or decisions), including whether Mr. Layfield was properly served and whether he has grounds to assert that there is not cause for appointment of an interim trustee at all (if that is his objection), or grounds to object to Mr. Avery as the Interim Trustee who was selected (if that is his objection); and

(ii) employment of law firm: whether this Court should, sua sponte, address the alleged conflict of interest in the Weiland Golden firm representing both the Chapter 7 Trustee (on matters not involving Wellgen) and Wellgen (see 11 U.S.C. 327(c)), or the alleged wrongdoing by that law firm (which it denies, see Lay-Invol. dkt. 37-5, Ex.I, Part V, at PDF pp. 59 et seq.), including whether this Court should set those issues for hearing; whether this Court should set a deadline for Mr. Layfield to file and serve points and authorities and any supporting evidence; and whether the United States Trustee should be requested to participate.

The tentative rulings on these issues are that, although Mr. Layfield's Special Appearance is inadequate to place the foregoing matters at issue, nevertheless the administration of these cases might be impeded unless this Court establishes a briefing schedule to obtain greater certainty, in view of Mr. Layfield's arguments, about who does or does not have authority to act for the bankruptcy estates. The tentative ruling is to give Mr. Layfield a deadline of 9/25/18 to file and serve his objections; a deadline of 10/2/18 for any response by the Interim Trustee or the Weiland Golden firm; a deadline of 10/9/18 for any reply; and a hearing date of 10/16/18 at 2:00 p.m., and to invite the U.S. Trustee to file papers by the same deadlines and appear at the hearing. The tentative ruling is to direct the Weiland Golden firm to prepare a proposed order memorializing those deadlines (with an attached copy of this tentative ruling, thereby adopting it as this Court's final ruling regarding those deadlines and the reasons for setting them).

(4) L&B case, Pachulski v. Layfield V, LLC and Philip Layfield (Adv. No. 2:18-ap-1050-NB) ("CondoAdv."), suggestion of bankruptcy (CondoAdv. dkt. 22), and related motions for relief from automatic stay (L&B dkt. 143, 144) (the "WF R/S Motions"). Mr. Layfield points out that the order granting the plaintiff's motion for a default judgment (CondoAdv. dkt. 18) and the judgment (CondoAdv. dkt. 17), were entered on 5/25/18, which is a few days after the involuntary bankruptcy petition was filed against him (LayInvol. dkt.1) on 5/21/18. This Court notes that the WF R/S Motions are scheduled for a continued hearing on 10/2/18 at 1:00 p.m.

The parties should be prepared to address how this adversary proceeding should be prosecuted going forward, and whether they are seeking any procedural orders or other relief from this Court to aid in the diligent prosecution of this matter. The tentative ruling is, as a matter of sua sponte calendar management, to continue the WF R/S Motions to 10/16/18 at 2:00 p.m., to be heard concurrent with the other matters in these interrelated cases. The tentative ruling is to direct counsel for Wellgen to file a notice of that continued hearing and serve it no later than 9/21/18 via U.S. mail on Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. as well as the debtors, trustees, and other parties asserting any interest in the subject condominium properties in the L&B, Lay-Invol., and Max-CA cases.

(5) Mr. Layfield's future filings. This Court has reviewed all of the papers filed by Mr. Layfield in the three interrelated cases and the adversary proceedings in those cases. Those papers are disorganized and exceptionally lengthy.

This Court recognizes that Mr. Layfield may have been impeded by his recent incarceration and other changes in his life, but any litigant, particularly an attorney, must provide coherent arguments, points and authorities as needed, and admissible evidence on relevant factual issues. In future, this Court may strike papers that do not meet these minimum standards and comply with the applicable rules.

(6) Mr. Layfield's requests for electronic service. This Court is confused by Mr. Layfield's requests (L&B dkt. 333, p.2:21-23; Lay. dkt. 37, p.2) that he be granted some sort of special electronic ability to file or be served. Although Mr. Layfield claims that he is "unable to receive ECF notifications," he does not explain why that is so.

Attorneys can sign up for electronic filing and notices ("CM/ECF" and "NEF"). Even non-attorneys can gain access to the docket ("PACER"). All parties in interest can receive email service by filing a request for special notice and consent to such service (and, for debtors, there is the additional option of signing up for electronic notices via this Court's "DeBN" program - instructions are available at www.cacb.uscourts.gov). (F) (Fed. R. Civ. P.) (incorporated by Rules 7005 & 9014(b), Fed. R. Bankr. P.).

To the extent that Mr. Layfield is requesting any relief that is not already available to him, this request is DENIED.

(7) L&B Case: Mr. Layfield's purported transfers of various claims to himself (dkt. 335-341) (the "Self-Transfers"). The parties should be prepared to address the Self-Transfers.

(8) Max-CA case. This Court notes that Mr. Barrett has filed a motion for relief from the automatic stay (Max-CA dkt. 108, the "Barrett R/S Motion"), set for hearing on 10/2/18 at 10:00 a.m., to assert counterclaims in one of the adversary proceedings in the L&B Case (Wellgen Standard, LLC v. Max. Legal (Cal.) LLP, Adv. No. 2:17-ap-01503-NB). Although this Court has considered sua sponte rescheduling the Barrett R/S Motion (to be heard concurrent with the 10/16/18 hearings tentatively set by this tentative ruling), it appears more efficient to leave the existing hearing as is.

(9) Mr. Layfield's address for service. This Court notes that Mr. Layfield has used variations of an address in Washington, D.C., as well as other addresses, in various documents filed recently. These multiple addresses seem prone to confusing and prejudicing parties in interest, including Mr. Layfield himself, because an address filed in one case or proceeding might or might not be used (or even known to parties) in a different case or proceeding, and because Mr. Layfield has asserted in the past that he has not been properly served.

Accordingly, the tentative ruling is to issue an order directing Mr. Layfield, no later than 9/24/18, (a) to file in each of the three bankruptcy cases (L&B, Lay-Invol., and Max-CA) and in each adversary proceeding in which he has filed any papers or is named in any capacity, a notice designating a single address for U.S. mail or overnight delivery to be used in all of these cases and related proceedings, as well as a single email address, and a statement about whether he agrees to accept service via email, and (b) to serve that notice via U.S. mail on all parties in interest (the entire creditor matrix in all cases and adversary proceedings). If Mr. Layfield fails to do so, the tentative ruling is that this Court will interpret his failure to respond as an attempt to maintain a factual ambiguity about which address is appropriate, and this Court may issue an order selecting the address that appears to be the most recent and, possibly, establishing evidentiary presumptions about service or other matters. The tentative ruling is to direct Wellgen to prepare a proposed order reflecting the foregoing, and to attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby adopting it as this Court's final ruling on the procedure for Mr. Layfield's address to be determined.

(10) Joint Status Conference: In addition to the above, due to the interrelated nature of the L&B, Lay-Invol., and Max-CA cases, this Court finds it appropriate to conduct a joint status conference in each of these cases (2:17-bk-19548-NB; 2:18-bk-15829-NB; 2:17-bk-18433-NB) on 10/16/18 at 2:00 pm. This joint status conference will be used to address any concerns this Court or the parties address at this 9/18/18 hearing, and any other pending issues that may arise.

the filing of the bankruptcy petition of Mr. William G. Hill (Case No. 1:18-bk-11914-VK). Appearances are not required on 8/7/18.

Analysis: First, although this Court has located authority that proceedings under 11 U.S.C. 110 are within the police and regulatory power exception to the automatic stay, that conclusion may be subject to dispute, and Mr. Hill (and the Office of the United States Trustee) have not had the opportunity to brief that issue. See In re Hernandez, 66 Collier Bankr.Cas.2d 1022 at n.9 & accompanying text (Bankr. D. Colo. 2011). See also In re Dingley, 852 F.3d 1143 (9th Cir. 2017) (civil contempt proceedings exempted from automatic stay when intended to effectuate court's public policy interest in deterring litigation misconduct).

Second, regardless whether the automatic stay applies, the tentative ruling is that continuing this matter is in keeping with the spirit of the "breathing spell" that bankruptcy is supposed to afford. This Court recognizes that the debtor may be very much in need of whatever funds could be owed to him by Mr. Hill, but any delay from the automatic stay is unlikely to last long.

Appearances required. The parties have raised a number of disputed issues, including issues of credibility (attorney Leslie Richards, Esq. blaming former attorney William G. In addition, the parties should be prepared to address whether 11 U.S.C. 110 can encompass liability against an attorney, as argued by the United States Trustee ("UST"). See dkt. 41, pp.2, 7-9, & nn.2 & 8). The parties should also be prepared to address whether this Court should grant

#5.00 Cont'd hrg re: Emergency Motion for Relief from In Rem Order
Granting Relief from Automatic Stay as to Real Property Under 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(4)
fr. 08/13/18

Docket 27

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for 9/18/18:

Appearances are not required. The tentative ruling is to grant the motion in substantial part, as set forth below.

Proposed order: The debtor is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this court's final ruling. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

Analysis. On the one hand, this Court is concerned about various issues. On the other hand, those concerns appear to be capable of resolution.

(1) Feasibility. The debtor's proposed chapter 13 plan (dkt. 34, p.6) lists an arrearage owed to Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. ("WF") of $185,264.20 whereas WF's objection to that plan (dkt. 37, p.2:4) asserts an estimated arrearage of $246,128.30, which calls into question whether the current disputes are moot in view of infeasibility.

That said, WF has not filed any supplemental opposition to the debtor's motion - it was not required to do so, but its lack of supplemental opposition might (or might not) suggest that it has decided to accept the $50,000 proposed payment from the debtor's employer REICO, LLC ("REICO") and then wait and see if the Plan succeeds or fails. This Court is inclined to adopt the same approach.

(2) Advance from REICO. The terms of the "advance" from REICO are still potentially ambiguous. Is that "advance" a loan or an employee signing bonus?

Conceivably it was intended to be the former, at least when the concept was first presented. But if so, is it to be secured by a junior lien on the subject real property, or an assignment of commissions, or is it unsecured, and where is the motion for approval under 11 U.S.C. 364?

As currently presented, the "advance" from REICO appears to be an employee signing bonus. But admittedly it has some odd characteristics:

(a) no assurances: the terms of the signing bonus (if that is what it is) do not include any assurance that the debtor will continue to work for REICO beyond the first day; but

(b) three months' guaranteed salary: the salary payments to the debtor (minimum of $150,000/yr., payable on the tenth day of each month) are to continue for 90 days beyond any termination date (per section 9 of the Employment Agreement, dkt. 43, Ex.G);

(c) open-ended increase in salary: REICO apparently "agrees to increase [the debtor's] salary" in whatever unknown dollar amount is required to make the Chapter 13 Plan confirmable "due to higher than anticipated claims" (id., section 20); and

(d) no collateral or other terms: the Employment Agreement states that it is the "entire agreement" of the parties (id., section 13) so apparently the 8/9/18 letter from REICO to the debtor, which referred to the debtor's agreement to assign all real estate commissions, is inoperative.

All of these issues raise some concerns, including those previously raise by this Court in the order granting interim relief. See dkt. 38, p.2, section 3.A.6., 7. & 8. But, despite these concerns, the proposed $50,000 cash payment might be a sufficient "changed circumstance" or "good cause shown" to grant relief from the "in rem" order, provided that there are some sort of conditions such as an adequate protection order.

(3) The Supplemental Opposition by the Northlake Homeowners Association (the "HOA") (dkt. 44). This Court did not rule on the HOA's standing at the prior hearings, but does it have standing to seek enforcement of WF's in rem order? The tentative ruling is that it does not.

Should this Court sua sponte direct the debtor to address the issue of the propriety of relying on future income from a cannabis-related business? Does that affect feasibility?

The apparent connection with cannabis is troubling, given that it continues to be illegal under federal law (although legal under California law, and reputed to have both medical benefits and medical risks). On the other hand, this Court very often has debtors before it who are out of compliance with one or more statutes, regulations, ordinances, orders, etc., such as "slum lords" whose residences are not up to code; and the whole point of bankruptcy is to provide a breathing spell in which debtors who are out of compliance with numerous obligations can restructure and reorganize.

In addition, the connection with cannabis appears to be one or two steps removed. The debtor himself apparently is not a dealer or grower; rather he is an employee of, or partner in, REICO, which apparently is a real estate business that works with businesses involved in cannabis.

The tentative ruling is that this Court should not sua sponte address any cannabis-related issues.

(4) Conclusion. The tentative ruling is that this Court should grant relief from the in rem order, effective upon the payment of $50,000 to WF no later than 9/21/18, subject to a "stay current" adequate protection order with the usual terms and conditions and the additional caveats that (a) the in rem relief will stay in place to the extent of preventing any other bankruptcy case from affecting the subject real property for a period of two years, and (b) in the event of any future assertion by any person with colorable standing that the transfer from REICO is avoidable in whole or in part, this Court will have to revisit whether WF should be granted additional "adequate protection," or relief from the automatic stay.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order denying the motion via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this court's final ruling. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B). If this Court is not persuaded to depart from the tentative ruling to issue an OSC, this Court will prepare the OSC.

Key documents reviewed (in addition to motion papers): oppositions of Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. ("Wells Fargo") (dkt. 15) and the Northlake Homeowners Association (dkt. 16), and the debtor's reply (dkt. 22).

(1) Lack of sufficient notice. The motion is on Local Form F 4001-1.IMPOSE.STAY.MOTION which seeks relief under 11 U.S.C. 362(c)(3) or (4) when a case of the debtor was pending within the previous year and was dismissed (with certain exceptions). The debtor had no such cases, the the motion admits (see dkt. 10, p.3, para. d.2.). The motion never cites 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(4), provides a copy of the in rem order, or states that the debtor is seeking "relief from such order based upon changed circumstances or for good cause shown." Id.

Therefore, the motion fails to provide adequate notice of what is being sought. Moreover, the motion was not served until 7/12/18 (dkt. 10, last two pages) without any order shortening time. In addition, the notice of motion (dkt. 10, first two pages) incorrectly states that an application for an order shortening time has been filed and remains pending, and that creditors will be served with a further notice once the court has ruled on that application. For all of these reasons the tentative ruling is to deny the motion for lack of adequate notice.

(2) Order to show cause re sanctions. All of the foregoing can be interpreted as an attempt to mislead Wells Fargo into not realizing that the debtor was seeking relief from the in rem order. By filing the wrong form of motion, and obtaining the local form order on that motion (Local Form F 4001-

1.IMPOSE.STAY.ORDER) the debtor could have obtained an order that would appear, at least, to impose the automatic stay against Wells Fargo without having met the standards required by 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(4). This appears to be a misuse of the bankruptcy system, and a basis for this Court to issue an OSC. At the hearing, counsel for the debtor is directed to address why this Court should not issue an OSC.

In addition to the foregoing relief, the tentative ruling is to deny the motion even if this Court were (hypothetically) persuaded to excuse the lack of adequate notice, and the apparent misuse of the bankruptcy system, and reach the merits. The reason is that the motion fails to meet the standards for relief under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(4), as explained below.

(3) Evidence of intent to hinder, delay, or defraud. The debtor and his spouse have filed nine bankruptcy cases between them. See dkt. 16, Rosenbaum Decl., para. 7, at PDF p.6 (listing 5 bankruptcy cases by the debtor's wife and two prior cases by the debtor) and see dkt. 22, p.2:2-6 (debtor's reply, conceding sixth case by wife, which is the one in which the in rem order was entered). The debtor has not denied, let alone presented persuasive evidence to rebut, that this string of bankruptcy cases was intended to hinder, delay, or defraud creditors. This Court notes that the statute is in the disjunctive - hinder, delay, or defraud, see 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(4). Moreover, the record before this Court shows that creditors actually were hindered, delayed, and/or defrauded because those bankruptcy filings caused years of delay and hindrance in exercising remedies for nonpayment (see dkt. 15 and dkt. 16 Ex.A), and meanwhile the interest and other charges continued to accrue while the property was under water.

(4) Lack of evidence of changed circumstances or other good cause shown. The debtor has not provided evidence to support his alleged current and future income. As the objecting parties point out, real estate commissions tend to be uncertain and variable. That is illustrated by the debtor's lack of substantial commissions during a robust and rising real estate market of the past several years (of which this Court takes judicial notice). It is also illustrated by the lack of evidence of the debtor's alleged "new job" (apparently, according to bankruptcy Schedule I, as a self-employed "entrepreneur") starting in "January of 2018, which is [allegedly] paying

$7,500.00 salary [gross? monthly?]." Dkt. 22, p.2:27. The debtor's lack of support for these alleged sources of income is highlighted by:

(a) his variable and insufficient past income as reflected in his accumulated arrears and on the SOFA Part 2 (dkt. 9 at PDF pp. 28-29), ranging from $101,876 in 2016 to $37,450 in 2017, which is insufficient to cover his expenses of $8,389/mo. or $100,668/yr. ( $$8,389 \times 12 = $100,668/\text{yr.}$ ) (see Schedule J, dkt. 9 at PDF p.26), and

(b) his lack of evidence of current income, or projected future income, such as a detailed statement of gross revenues, expenses, and calculation of net income as required by the instructions in item 8a of Schedule I at dkt. 9, PDF p.24 (the debtor has - either intentionally or inadvertently - evaded that requirement by listing his income as an entrepreneur on line 2 and his real estate commissions on line 8h; and in any event neither his motion papers nor his reply papers provide any detail or evidence to support his alleged current or projected future gross revenues, expenses, and net income).

Tentative Ruling for 9/18/18:

At the hearing on 8/14/18 this Court was persuaded not to convert this case, and instead to continue this hearing, in view of the debtor's apparent agreements with certain key creditors. This Court has reviewed the debtor's status report (dkt. 77).

(1) Current issues.

(a) Mold issues etc. Has the debtor addressed the mold and any other health and safety issues?

(b) Plan (dkt. 76) and Disclosure Statement (dkt. 75). The debtor treats tax claims from the IRS and the FTB as general unsecured claims (dkt. 75, Ex.F). The latter is listed as secured on the claims register. In addition, the claims register reflects Claim no. 4-1 by the LA County Treasurer for $10,433.84 in alleged real estate taxes. How does the debtor propose to treat these claims?

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 5/1/18.

(a) Bar date: 8/7/18 (timely served, dkt. 34, 40).

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement: TBD

(c) Continued status conference: 11/6/18 at 1:00 p.m. Brief status report due 10/30/18.

Chapter 11

Tentative Ruling for 8/14/18:

The tentative ruling is to convert this bankruptcy case to chapter 7.

Appearances are not required. After the hearing this Court will prepare the conversion order.

(1) Current issues.

(a) Background. The debtor's status report notes (dkt. 62, p.2:9-12) that the debtor fell behind in mortgage payments and faced a scheduled increase in monthly payments from $2,500 to $7,800. That is an extremely unfortunate circumstance, but at this point it appears that there is no way to retain the property, and attempting to do so would simply mean that the debtor and her parents would be "throwing good money after bad." The best alternative may be for the debtor to obtain her chapter 7 discharge and the "fresh start" that is one of the main purposes of the bankruptcy system.

This Court recognizes that the debtor has attempted to save the property by moving out and renting it, as well as by obtaining contributions from her parents. Unfortunately, even if the debt is bifurcated as the debtor seeks to do, the property does not appear to be able to generate positive cash flow after payments on the mortgage. See tentative ruling for calendar no. 4 (denying motion to continue automatic stay). In addition, the property appears to have substantial deferred maintenance and other problems. Despite the efforts of the debtor and her counsel, it does not appear possible to satisfy the requirements of the Bankruptcy Code to keep the property.

(b) Denial of motion to continue automatic stay. As noted above, this Court's tentative ruling is to deny the debtor's motion to continue the automatic stay (see tentative ruling for calendar no. 4).

(c) Budget motion (dkt. 17, 41, 46, 50, 56). This Court granted the debtor's budget on an interim basis (dkt. 46) and orally on a final basis at the hearing on 6/12/18, but no proposed final order was lodged. In addition, since that time the debtor has filed amended bankruptcy Schedules I&J (dkt. 56) which appear to amend the proposed budget. In addition, as set forth in the tentative ruling denying the debtor's motion to continue the automatic stay, it appears that even the latest proposed budget would need to be different, to account for greater adequate protection payments in view of increased interest rates and in view of the urgent need to stop the mold and water intrusion issues at the property from becoming worse (see tentative ruling for calendar no. 4). For all of these reasons, the tentative ruling is that, notwithstanding this Court's prior oral ruling, the budget motion cannot be approved on a final basis; but that issue appears to be moot because of the tentative ruling to convert this case to chapter 7.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 5/1/18.

(a) Bar date: 8/7/18 (timely served, dkt. 34, 40).

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement: N/A.

If appearances are required, and you fail to appear without adequately resolving this matter by consent, then you may waive your right to be heard on matters that are appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

Tentative Ruling for 7/10/18:

Continue to 8/14/18 at 1:00 p.m. Appearances are not required on 7/10/18.

(1) Current issues.

(a) Budget motion (dkt. 17, 41, 46, 50, 56). This Court approved the debtor's budget on an interim basis (dkt. 46) and orally on a final basis at the hearing on 6/12/18, but no proposed final order was lodged, and since that time the debtor has filed amended bankruptcy Schedules I&J (dkt. 56). The tentative ruling is to deem the budget motion to be amended by those latest amended Schedules I&J and approve the budget as so amended on a final basis.

Proposed order: The debtors are directed to lodge a proposed order granting the motion via LOU, within 7 days after the hearing date, and a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this Court's final ruling. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

(b) Other issues. This Court has reviewed the debtor's filed Status Report (dkt. 54). This Court has no issues to raise sua sponte at this time.

Appearances required by counsel for the debtor and by the debtor(s) themselves.

(1) Current issues.

(a) Amended Schedule I (dkt. 26). Bankruptcy Schedule I, paragraph 8a, requires a separate statement for any rental property showing gross receipts, ordinary and necessary expenses, and net income. The debtor has not complied. Why not?

(b) Budget motion (dkt. 17, 29). Notwithstanding the foregoing, this Court has reviewed the cash collateral motion (dkt. 28), which appears to set forth the gross receipts, expenses, and net income of the subject property. Based on the presumption that this is included in the budget for which the debtor seeks approval, the tentative ruling is to grant the budget motion as amended (dkt. 29), on an interim basis, subject to a final hearing at the same date and time as the continued status conference set forth below.
