Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for 4/10/18:

Appearances required by counsel for the debtor but telephonic appearances are encouraged if advance arrangements are made (see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.", "Instructions/Procedures").

(1) Current issues.

(a) Service of voting package. The proof of service (dkt. 140) states that the voting package has been served on "Secured and Twenty Largest Unsecured Creditors." (Emphasis added.) The voting package should have been served on all creditors. Is the proof of service in error? If so, the tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 4/11/18 for the debtor to file a corrected proof of service. If not, counsel for the debtor should be prepared to address (i) the dates and procedures for re-balloting and a continued hearing and (ii) not charging attorney fees for correcting this issue.

(b) Disclosure statement (dkt. 134) and plan (dkt. 135), and motion to modify plan (dkt. 142). The debtor has not filed any ballot summary. If sufficient ballots have been received to vote in favor of confirmation by the requisite majorities then the tentative ruling is to approve the disclosure statement on a final basis, grant the motion to modify the plan, and confirm the plan as modified. All of the foregoing is contingent, however, on the debtor filing a sufficient ballot summary no later than 4/11/18.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 2/27/17 and converted from chapter 13 on 4/28/17.

(a) Bar date: 8/24/2017 (dkt. 77, timely served dkt. 84).

(b) Plan (dkt. 135)/Disclosure Statement (dkt. 134). See above.

(c) Post-confirmation status conference: 7/17/18 at 1:00 p.m. Status report due 7/9/18.

Tentative Ruling for 2/13/18:

Appearances required but telephonic appearances are encouraged if advance arrangements are made (see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.", "Instructions/Procedures").

(1) Current issues.

(a) Plan (dkt. 127) and Disclosure Statement (dkt. 126).

(i) Impairment - Class 2B. The Plan lists Class 2B as unimpaired - is it?

(ii) Impairment - Class 4A. The Plan does not specify whether Class 4A is impaired.

(iii) DIP Financing. Class 2C appears to consist of the debtor's contemplated postpetition DIP borrowing (dkt. 111, 121). First, classes under the Plan are reserved for prepetition debts, whereas repayment of postpetition DIP financing should be reflected in cash flow projections (Ex.C) (this is not just an academic issue: for example, Classes vote; DIP lenders do not).

Second, Endnote 2C (in Ex.H) appears to relate to this "Class" of DIP financing, and it appears to state that the terms of that financing are unknown ("Debtors will have full and accurate loan information as the loan is processed"). The debtors' counsel must address at the hearing whether there is any reason why the Plan cannot be updated to reflect the actual financing terms, which would eliminate the need for any such Endnote.

(iv) Stipulation with US Bank. The Plan should attach a copy of the Stipulation (dkt. 124) with creditor U.S. Bank N.A. (as trustee); Wells Fargo Home Mortgage as servicer (collectively, "US Bank"), as it may be modified (see below re possible amendments to that Stipulation). See dkt. 129 (limited objection of US Bank).

(b) US Bank's concerns (dkt. 129). This Court's posted procedures (available at www.cacb.uscourts.gov, under Judge Bason) provide in part:
§ 362: Automatic Stay. (1) Stipulations. Generally, the judge will not approve a stipulation for relief from stay/adequate protection order ("APO") that purports to be automatically effective ... because there might be equity in the property .... [Emphasis altered.]

Consistent with this limitation, US Bank agreed to an Adequate Protection Order ("APO") which does not provide for any automatic termination of the automatic stay. Instead it provides (in the APO attachment, at paragraph 6.b.) that in the event of a default:

[US Bank] may file and serve a declaration under penalty of perjury specifying the default, together with a proposed order terminating the stay, which the court may grant without further notice or hearing.

More recently, however, US Bank entered into its Stipulation with the debtors (dkt. 124) which not only includes the above-quoted language about what will happen in the event of a pre-confirmation default but goes on to add another clause. It states:

5. ... [US Bank] may file and serve a declaration under penalty of perjury specifying the default, together with a proposed order Terminating the Automatic Stay, which the Court may grant without further notice or hearing, and Creditor (and/or its servicer) may commence any and all action necessary to obtain complete possession of the Subject Property ... without further notice, order, or proceeding of this Court. [Emphasis added.]

US Bank argues (dkt. 129, p.6:3-12) that this language in the Stipulation was "taken from" the APO (para. 6.b.), but this is not quite accurate: the emphasized language has been added. Does that additional language mean anything? US Bank now appears to argue that it means nothing - that "the intent was simply to maintain the status quo like it is under the APO" (dkt. 129, p.6:6).

This Court agrees: the emphasized language appears to be surplusage; but unfortunately it is arguably subject to a different interpretation. Because it is unusual for parties to add meaningless language to their stipulations, the emphasized language arguably could be read to mean that US Bank could "commence" all actions necessary to foreclose without any order of this court.

Because of this (and other) ambiguities in the Stipulation this Court added the following caveat in its order approving the Stipulation:

... notwithstanding anything in the Stipulation to the contrary, the automatic stay will not automatically terminate upon a default or conversion of this case except as to Debtors (i.e., no automatic termination as to the bankruptcy estate, so as to preserve any equity that might then exist in the property for the benefit of other creditors) .... [Dkt. 128, p.2:5-8, emphasis in original]

US Bank now requests "that the Order [approving the Stipulation] be amended to clarify that any pre-confirmation default shall be in accordance with the [Stipulation] at paragraph 5, or in the alternative, pursuant to the existing APO, paragraph 6(b)." Dkt. 129, p.6:10-12. This Court believes the simpler solution - both in this case and in all future cases - would be to delete the surplus language in paragraph 5 of the Stipulation. US Bank's counsel should be prepared to address whether they will agree to delete the surplus language in paragraph 5 of the Stipulation in this case and in all future stipulations in any case before this Court.

Similarly, paragraph 13 of the Stipulation ends by stating that in the event the debtors' case is dismissed or converted then not only shall US Bank retain its lien securing the full dollar amount it is owed (less any payments received) but also "the Automatic Stay shall be terminated without further notice, order or proceeding of the Court." (Emphasis added.) US Bank has now agreed to delete this emphasized language. See dkt. 129, pp.5:26-6:2. Again, US Bank's counsel should be prepared to address whether they will delete this language in all future stipulations in cases before this Court.

Another concern raised by US Bank is that this Court's language in the order approving the Stipulation (quoted above) appears to limit paragraph 6 of the Stipulation, which provides that upon confirmation of debtors' chapter 11 plan "the Automatic Stay shall be deemed terminated as to the Debtors and the estate" and US Bank can pursue its contractual remedies under the loan documents "without further notice, order, or proceeding of this Court." Dkt. 124, p.4:12-18. This Court did not intend to override that provision - the tentative ruling is that upon confirmation of a chapter 11 plan it is entirely appropriate to provide that the automatic stay no longer applies because then the parties have a revised contractual relationship - so US Bank is correct that the order approving the Stipulation is overbroad to the extent that the language added by this Court affects paragraph 6 of the Stipulation.

Based on all of the foregoing, the tentative ruling is that if US Bank will agree to amend its Stipulation in paragraphs 5 and 13 as set forth above (to delete the language about automatic termination of the automatic stay), and leave paragraph 6 unchanged, this Court will approve that Stipulation without the modification that is included in the current order approving the Stipulation. The debtor will need to attach the amended Stipulation to the Plan.

Note: The parties might wish to take the opportunity to review the Stipulation for any other provisions that would benefit from revision. For example, this Court notes that paragraph 13 of the Stipulation starts by providing that "[t]he terms of this Stipulation are contingent upon Debtors' confirming a Chapter 11 Plan." Dkt. 124, p.6:8-8. Read literally this would mean that the Stipulation's terms regarding pre-confirmation defaults (para. 5) are contingent upon confirmation, which makes no sense. Other provisions similarly do not appear to be intended to be contingent on confirmation (but it is up to the parties to decide if they wish to clarify such issues).

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 2/27/17 and converted from chapter 13 on 4/28/17.

(a) Bar date: 8/24/2017 (dkt. 77, timely served dkt. 84).

(b) Plan (dkt. 127)/Disclosure Statement (dkt. 126)*: 2/27/18 deadline to file (NOT SERVE - except on the U.S. Trustee) any redlined revisions to be discussed at the status conference, with a revised stipulation with US Bank attached, and lodge Judge Bason's form of order authorizing service of the voting package, setting deadlines, and setting a combined hearing on final approval of the Disclosure Statement and confirmation of the Plan for the same time as the continued status conference.

If appearances are required, and you fail to appear without adequately resolving this matter by consent, then you may waive your right to be heard on matters that are appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

Tentative Ruling for 1/23/18:

Continue this status conference to 2/13/18 at 1:00 p.m. Appearances are not required on 1/23/18.

Reasons: (a) the debtors' apparent need to amend the proposed plan in view of the recent withdrawal of their objection to the prior claim of the Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") in view of the IRS' amended claim (see dkt. 119);
(b) the debtor's failure to file a brief status report (due 1/16/18 per the adopted tentative ruling for the 11/7/17 hearing, reproduced below); and
(c) the inability of the Office of the United States Trustee ("UST") to appear (or perhaps even to analyze whether it should appear) because of the shutdown of much of the federal government.

Continue to 1/23/18 at 1:00 p.m. to address the following issues.
Appearances are not required on 11/7/17.

Reasons: This court is continuing the hearing in light of the response filed by the IRS (dkt. 105) and because (1) if the dollar amount owed to the IRS changes then changes also will be needed to the amended plan (dkt. 107) and amended disclosure statement (dkt. 106) and (2) although the debtor correctly deleted Endnotes 2, 2A, 2B and 2C from Exhibit H, the debtor forgot to delete the references to those (non-existent) endnotes on Exhibits A and E. No later than 1/16/18 the debtor is directed to file an amended plan to cure these issues, if possible, or alternatively a very brief status report (e.g., one or two sentence).

(1) Current issues.

(a) Monthly Operating Report (dkt. 94). What is the $700 transfer for 8/31/17 (at p.4) entitled "money owed"? The debtor reports one missed payment to Wells Fargo in the amount of $2,167.68 (at p.10), as against only $2,398.12 in her rental property account (p.11) and $1,404.57 in her personal account. Is the debtor losing money? Can the debtor propose a feasible plan of reorganization?

(b) Plan (dkt.92) /Disclosure Statement (dkt. 91). (i) These documents are not signed by the debtors ("/s/" typed signatures are only permitted for limited categories of persons, such as registered CM/ECF users). (ii) The Disclosure Statement contemplates claim objections (dkt. 91, Ex.H, Endnotes 1-2). Why have these issues not been resolved by now? (iii) The Disclosure Statement's Endnotes 2A, 2B, 2C and 5 repeat (and/or misstate) the terms of the Plan. Those endnotes should be deleted. (iv) The Disclosure Statement's Ex.C (income/expenses) is divided into two periods, but the income and expenses appear to be identical in each period. Why should this not be a single period?

(1) Current issues

The tentative ruling, subject to any objections at the hearing and further subject to consideration of whether re-balloting is required, is to provide the debtors with one final opportunity to correct the issues set forth below with the disclosure statement (dkt. 250) and the debtors' proposed plan (dkt. 249). The principal documents reviewed by this Court are the plan, disclosure statement, and supporting documents (dkt. 249-254), Butler Capital's objection (dkt. 256), and the debtors' reply (dkt. 257).

(a) Sequence of property sales.

The sequence of property sales in Exhibit H of the Disclosure Statement is not clear. Do the properties have to sell in a particular order? Are the debtors obligated to sell whatever they can as soon as they can and/or in whatever sequence and combinations will maximize value and/or speed? The tentative ruling is that the debtors must clarify Exhibit H either to demonstrate the correct order of sale or that the plan does not require sale in a particular order.

(b) Escrow Deadlines.

From this Court's review of the amended Exhibit H, it appears that the debtors intend to have one year from the projected effective date of December 1, 2016 in which to open escrow, and if any properties that meet that condition later fall out of escrow, the debtors have sixty days to open a new escrow, with an outside period of 18 months from December 1, 2016 (or earlier, if an escrow is opened earlier) in which all escrows must close. However, the way that this is written in the plan is difficult to understand. Particularly, Exhibit H, pp. 4:25-5:1, is unclear, especially because the projected effective date of the plan is not listed until Exhibit H, Page 10. The tentative ruling is that the debtors must revise the language in the plan to clarify these provisions.

(c) Provisions for relief from default.

The sentence on p.5:14-19 regarding relief from default remains confusing. Is default exclusively tied to proceeds given to Bayview? Can other parties declare default? The tentative ruling is that these provisions must be revised to be written in "plain" english to better reflect the debtors' intention.

(d) "Good cause" for relief from default.

The sentences on p.6:10-14 regarding the standard for cause for relief from default are confusing. The debtors list as a possible standard the same standard that would apply to a debtor showing adequate protection in defending against a motion for relief from the automatic stay, but then they state that alternative standards may be proposed by the parties or the Court, if the Court deems some other standard more reasonable under the circumstances. How would this court make that determination? The tentative ruling is that the debtors must clarify these provisions so they may be more equitable to creditors.

(e) Feasibility of interest payments.

In its Tentative Ruling for 9/27/16, this Court addressed the issue of the feasibility of the debtors' proposed interest payments to Bayview (Exhibit H, p.7:14-16) without some sort of cash infusion at the beginning of the plan. Exhibit H does not appear to have been explicitly amended to address the Court's concerns. The tentative ruling is that the plan must be amended to provide for a cash infusion, and to make the failure to provide such infusion, or failure of the debtors immediately to provide evidence of that infusion, an event of default. In addition, the parties should be prepared to address whether Exhibit H should include an explanation of Butler Capital's treatment under the plan, in light of Butler Capital's objection to confirmation (dkt. 256), and the debtors' reply (dkt. 257).

In addition, the debtors should be prepared to address the status of the proposed sale of the Foasberg Dry Cleaning business and whether, after payment of creditors to that business have been paid, the proceeds will constitute an adequate cash infusion to support the proposed interest payments.

(2) Deadlines/dates. These jointly administered cases were filed on 1/23/15.

(a) Bar date: 4/20/15 (timely served per dkt. 40)

(b) Plan: The tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 12/13/16 for the debtor to lodge proposed orders approving the disclosure statement and confirming the plan and to file and serve on Bayview, the Receiver (for Hilma Foasberg), and the debtors' equity holders (i) notices of lodgment, (ii) an amended plan as set forth above (with any additional changes ordered at the hearing) and (iii) a redline showing the changes. If those documents appear accurately to reflect this court's rulings and otherwise to be acceptable, and if there are no objections to those changes by 12/20/16, then this court intends to issue orders approving the disclosure statement and confirming the plan. Otherwise, this court intends to hold a telephonic hearing.

(c) Continued status conference: 1/10/16 at 2:00 p.m. No written status report is required. (This likely will be continued for 60 days or so if the plan is confirmed.)

Chapter 11

If you do not appear, and the matter is not adequately resolved by consent, then you may waive your right to be heard on matters that are appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

Revised Tentative Ruling for 9/27/16

Appearances required by counsel for the debtor but telephonic appearances are encouraged if advance arrangements are made (see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.", "Instructions/Procedures").

(1) Current issues

The tentative ruling is to approve the disclosure statement (dkt. 228) and confirm the debtors' proposed plan (dkt. 227) if and only if the debtors make the following modifications/interlineations and can provide a cash infusion or other sufficient evidence of feasibility as set forth below. The principal documents reviewed by this court are the plan, disclosure statement, supporting documents (dkt. 229-231), Bayview's objections (dkt. 240), the ballot summary (dkt. 242), the debtors' reply (dkt. 243), and Mr. Foasberg's supplemental declaration (dkt. 244).

(a) Explicit incorporation of Exhibit H into the plan

The tentative ruling is that either Exhibit H itself, or the plan, or the order confirming the plan, or all three, must make it explicit that Exhibit H is incorporated into the plan (although it is only attached to the disclosure statement). That appears to be the intent of the plan, if not its actual terms, because it references Ex.H and vice versa, but this should be more explicit.

(b) "Hard" dates for the close of escrow

The debtors' current proposed plan adopts the previously ordered deadlines that for each property the debtors must be in escrow one year after confirmation (dkt. 228, Ex.H, p.4:24-25), and close escrow 18 months after escrow is entered (id., p.5:26-28), and also proposes (i) that they have 60 days from the failure of any escrow to re-open an escrow if they find a new buyer (id., p.5:2-4) and, apparently, (ii) that each new escrow opens a new 18 month period (id., p. 5:26-28). The tentative ruling is that the former condition meets the standards for cramdown (fair and equitable etc.) but the latter does not.

The tentative ruling is further that the debtors could cure this problem by expressly providing two things. First, the 18 month period would run from the first date when any escrow is opened as to a given property (or, for any escrow that is pending on the Effective Date, 18 months from the Effective Date). Second, to prevent possible evasion of the deadlines, sales would need to be all cash at closing (no deferred payments; no transfers of equity in lieu of cash; etc.).

(c) Confusing additional preconditions to any default

The debtor apparently seeks to impose an additional precondition (dkt. 228, Ex.H, p.5:12-25, the "Additional Precondition") that before a party in interest may send a notice of default it must show that the payment of its claim is actually threatened after taking into account the likely proceeds from whatever properties actually are in escrow. First, as Bayview points out, this appears to place an undue burden on creditors.

Second, the Additional Precondition appears to be unnecessary because the debtors have an alternate remedy. If the debtor is actually able to pay creditors from the pending sales of other properties, and those sales are sufficiently likely to occur quickly, then the debtor can argue as much in its motion for relief from default (dkt. 228, Ex.H, pp. 5:28-6:6, the "Relief From Default Provisions").

Accordingly the tentative ruling is that the Additional Preconditions are not fair and equitable and must be struck from the plan.

(d) Relief from default

The debtor has presented evidence regarding the difficulty of selling the properties, due in large part to environmental issues. Based on that evidence, it is difficult to tell in advance, for example, (i) what defaults could reflect a lack of diligence by the debtor, as opposed to genuine obstacles to closing due to environmental issues, or (ii) whether the debtor is unreasonably seeking to eliminate all possible environmental issues instead of selling at a moderate discount to a buyer who is willing to address some such issues. In other words, there may be good reasons for the debtor to be able to seek relief from default, but it is difficult if not impossible to know in advance, so the debtor appears to have proposed a reasonable mechanism to place this issue before this court, subject to the familiar standards for relief from the automatic stay.

Bayview has not presented contrary evidence or a suitable alternative mechanism for dealing with these issues. Accordingly, the tentative ruling is that the Relief From Default Provisions are fair and equitable and otherwise satisfy the requirements for confirmation under the circumstances.

(e) Reinstatement

The debtors do not disagree with Bayview's proposed language: that "any [currently pending] foreclosure [proceedings with respect to] the subject properties will be rescinded" as opposed to stating that the loans will no longer be in default. The tentative ruling is that the plan must be amended to make this change (see dkt. 228, Exhibit H, p. 6, dkt. 240, p.12:5-8, dkt. 243, p. 8:10-12).

(f) Interest payments

The debtors' plan proposes to make monthly interest-only payments of $5,963.41 and $3,794.45 to Bayview until it is paid in full from the sale of the real properties (dkt. 228, Ex. H, p.7:2-4). This raises two issues: (i) whether the proposed rate of interest is appropriate and (ii) whether the proposed payments are feasible (11 U.S.C. 1129(a)(11)).

(i) Appropriate interest rate

The debtors have proposed interest rates of 7.5% (dkt. 228, Ex.H, p.7:2-4). This is somewhat higher than the rates in the existing promissory notes (dkt. 243, pp.8:28-9:4).

As stated in Judge Bason's posted procedures,

Judge Bason has expressed the view in various cases that when dealing with relatively small dollar amounts (for which the cost of presenting expert testimony as to interest rates would be prohibitive) the analysis in Till v. SCS Credit Corp., 541 U.S. 465 (2004), is appropriate, and conversely when dealing with larger dollar amounts the Till analysis probably is not appropriate, and one acceptable method for experts to opine as to the appropriate interest rate is the method described in In re Boulders on the River, Inc., 164 B.R. 99 (9th Cir. BAP 1994); see In re N. Valley Mall, LLC, 432 B.R. 825 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2010) (discussing continued viability of Boulders on the River).

In this case it does not appear to be cost-effective for either party to incur the expense of expert testimony as to interest rates (i.e., the type of expert testimony addressed in Boulders on the River and N. Valley Mall). In any event neither party has chosen to do so. So the tentative ruling is to apply the Till analysis or something comparable.

Under that analysis, courts typically apply an interest rate of 1% to 3% over prime, although the starting point might be different (higher) in situations such as this when the properties have environmental issues, so this court also looks to the contract rate used by the parties. This court also takes into consideration that payment to Bayview has been much delayed, and the debtors are proposing interest-only payments (as opposed to amortizing payments), but on the other hand Bayview's claims are protected by a large equity cushion, and national interest rates are near historic lows.

Under the foregoing analysis the debtors have made a sufficient prima facie showing that their proposed interest rates are within the range of what is permissible. Bayview has not rebutted that showing. Therefore the tentative ruling is to approve the proposed interest rates.

(ii) Feasibility

The supplemental declaration of Mr. Foasberg indicates that he intends to sell the dry cleaning businesses that have been failing to pay rent to the debtors for several months (dkt. 244, p. 2). The problem is that it is not at all clear how the debtors intend to make plan payments prior to the sale of the business given their recent performance, i.e., lack of feasibility (11 U.S.C. 1129(a)(11)). Their MOR for August (dkt. 241, p. 21), states that they only hold unrestricted cash of $2,044.28.

It appears that the debtors will need a cash infusion if this court is to make a finding of feasibility. In addition, testimony will be needed (or at least an offer of proof subject to cross-examination) to support the debtors' assertion that any given dollar amount is adequate to show feasibility.

To the extent that this or any other issue requires testimony, this court may accept an offer of proof or brief testimony at today's hearing, or may set a continued hearing for the presentation of evidence and cross-examination. The parties should be prepared to address timing and procedures.

The tentative ruling is that the plan must be amended to provide for such a cash infusion, and to make the failure to provide such infusion, or failure of the debtors immediately to provide evidence of that infusion, an event of default.

(g) Preservation of net revenues/"set aside" for possible environmental remediation

The plan apparently contemplates that if the debtors have their projected cash flow then most net revenues would be used to fund a "set aside" each month for possible environmental remediation of their properties estimated at $5,000 per month per debtor. The tentative ruling is that for the plan to be fair and equitable (and otherwise meet the standards for confirmation) any such funds must be subject to the following conditions.

First, they must be actually paid: if the debtors make any expenditures out of the ordinary course of business, except to fund such a set aside or pay for environmental remediation, then it seems that must be a default under the plan for the plan to be fair and equitable. Second, if the debtors fail to provide monthly accounting of such funds, including a bank account statement, then that would have to be a default under the plan for it to be fair and equitable.

(h) Form of confirmation order

The tentative ruling is that, pursuant to LBR 3020-1(b) the confirmation order shall include the following:

Within 120 days of the entry of this order, the debtors shall file a status report explaining what progress has been made toward consummation of the confirmed plan of reorganization. The initial report shall be served on the United States trustee, the 20 largest unsecured creditors, and those parties who have requested special notice. Further reports shall be filed every 120 days thereafter and served on the same entities, unless otherwise ordered by the court. A postconfirmation status conference will be held on January 17, 2017 at 2:00 p.m.

If this case is converted to one under chapter 7, the property of the reorganized debtor shall be revested in the chapter 7 estate.

(2) Deadlines/dates. These jointly administered cases were filed on 1/23/15.

(a) Bar date: 4/20/15 (timely served per dkt. 40)

(b) Plan: The tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 10/4/16 for the debtor to lodge proposed orders approving the disclosure statement and confirming the plan and to file and serve on Bayview, the Receiver (for Hilma Foasberg), and the debtors' equity holders (i) notices of lodgment, (ii) an amended plan as set forth above (with any additional changes ordered at the hearing) and (iii) a redline showing the changes. If those documents appear accurately to reflect this court's rulings and otherwise to be acceptable, and if there are no objections to those changes by 10/11/16, then this court intends to issue orders approving the disclosure statement and confirming the plan. Otherwise, this court intends to hold a telephonic hearing.

(1) Current issues

(a) Background

These cases were filed in January of 2015. The debtors have filed several proposed plans and disclosure statements, the latest of which are dated 6/21/16 (dkt. 217, 218).

They blame the lack of a confirmed plan of reorganization on the fact that they own several parcels of real estate that may require extensive environmental remediation, and therefore are difficult to sell. The primary outstanding issue in this case is whether their proposed joint plan must provide for a more expedited sales process than the one they have proposed.

That is primarily a confirmation issue (under, e.g., 11 U.S.C. 1129(a)(3) (good faith), (a)(11) (feasibility), and, to the extent "cramdown" is required, (b) (1) (no unfair discrimination, and being fair and equitable, with respect to each impaired, non-consenting class)). Typically, however, the bankruptcy courts consider prior to any confirmation hearing whether a plan is so deficient on its face that sending it out for voting is not worth the resulting expense, delay, and potential confusion.

In addition, the disclosure statement must contain "adequate information" under 11 U.S.C. 1125(a). Again, that is generally an issue for a later stage - the disclosure statement hearing - but bankruptcy courts often address as a preliminary matter whether the disclosure statement is so deficient that no such hearing should be set. That is particularly important given Judge Bason's practice of setting combined hearings on the disclosure statement and plan confirmation. Therefore it is appropriate to address at this stage, initially, whether the debtor has adequately disclosed the potential environmental issues and analyzed the nature of possible remediation, possible approaches that could maximize the sale proceeds balanced against expediting the time for sale, etc.

At the status conference on 5/31/16 this Bankruptcy Court established procedures for the parties to address these issues on a preliminary basis - to determine whether to authorize the debtor to mail a voting package to creditors. The debtors have filed the declaration of their real estate broker Mr. O'Healy (dkt. 220). No other parties in interest have filed any contrary evidence, although creditor Bayview Loan Servicing, LLC ("Bayview") has filed an "opposition" to the proposed joint plan (dkt. 222), which includes an objection to Mr. O'Healy's declaration. The debtors have filed a reply (dkt. 223).

(b) Tentative Rulings

The tentative rulings are as follows, taking into account the amendments that the debtors propose in their reply (dkt. 223) (and solely for the limited purpose described above - i.e., for authorizing the debtor to mail its voting package - and without prejudice to objections at the combined hearing on adequacy of the disclosure statement and whether to confirm the proposed joint plan):

(i) Evidence: Overrule the objections to Mr. O'Healy's declaration.

(ii) Timing: Overrule Bayview's objection as to the timing of the sales, except that the timing must be clarified regarding how long escrow can be open before it can be said to have "fail[ed] to close" (dkt. 218-7, Disclosure Statement p.39:3, which is Ex.H at 5:3); and how long the debtors would after any new escrow were to open before it too would have failed to close. On the present record, this Bankruptcy Court is not persuaded that the "drop dead" dates proposed by Bayview are essential, and that the voting package should not be sent. The debtors argue, with supporting evidence, that "[i]f Bayview were to foreclose, it would face the same problems facing Debtors because the hurdles to selling these properties would not be eliminated if someone else were to sell them." (Dkt. 223, p.6:10-12.)

The foregoing should not be interpreted as a ruling for confirmation purposes. It may be necessary or appropriate, in order to confirm any plan, to establish either "drop dead" dates or some mechanism to assess whether the debtors have been dragging their feet and whether it is fair and equitable to grant additional time to engage in the sale process.

(iii) Default terms: Sustain Bayview's objections regarding the proposed default terms, because of the difficulty (if not impossibility) that Bayview would have in filing a declaration under penalty of perjury as to the debtors' funds and the status of the debtors' sales. The parties should be prepared to address alternative default terms.

(iv) Reinstatement of loans: Overrule Bayview's objections regarding the reinstatement of its loans.

(v) Other issues: The debtors' Exhibit H is needlessly repetitive (this Court will review the details orally at the hearing). In addition, the parties appear to assume that the automatic stay will continue to apply (see, e.g., dkt. 218-7, Disclosure Statement p.89:9, which is Ex.H at 5:9) but the "boilerplate" language in the plan provides for property to revert in the reorganized debtors on the Effective Date (dkt. 217, p.5, part IV.B.) which generally terminates the automatic stay (11 U.S.C. 362(c)(1)). If the debtors intend to provide for the automatic stay to continue (either by eliminating reversion, or by some other means) then they must disclose that clearly, and establish that they legally can do so.

(2) Deadlines/dates. These jointly administered cases were filed on 1/23/15.

(a) Bar date: 4/20/15 (timely served per dkt. 40)

(b) Plan (dkt.217)/Disclosure Statement (dkt. 218): This court anticipates setting the following deadlines: 7/26/16 to file (NOT SERVE - except on the U.S. Trustee) any redlined revisions to be discussed at the status conference; 7/29/16 for the plan proponent to lodge Judge Bason's form of order authorizing service of the relevant documents and setting deadlines; 9/27/16 at 1:00 p.m. for the combined hearing on approval of the Disclosure Statement and confirmation of the Plan (with the court to set typical deadlines for objections etc.).

Appearances required by counsel for the debtor but telephonic appearances are encouraged if advance arrangements are made (see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.", "Instructions/Procedures").

(1) Current issues.

These cases have been pending since 1/23/15 - a very long time. This Court has reviewed the debtor's (belated) status report (dkt. 213). The parties should be prepared to address the outline of a plan proposed by the debtor and any associated deadlines.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 1/23/15.

(a) Bar date: 4/20/15 (timely served per dkt. 40)

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement: See above

(c) Continued status conference: 9/6/16 at 1:00 p.m. No written status report is required.

*Warning: special procedures apply (see order setting initial status conference).

If you do not appear, and the matter is not adequately resolved by consent, then you may waive your right to be heard on matters that are appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

Chapter 11

(1) Current issues. On 3/22/16, this court continued this matter to allow the debtors and Bayview (the primary secured creditor) to negotiate agreeable terms. The parties should be prepared to address whether they have resolved their dispute or, if not, how they intend to proceed.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 1/13/15.

(a) Bar date: 4/20/15 (timely served per dkt. 40)

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement: Subject to the foregoing issues: 4/6/16 deadline for the plan proponent to lodge Judge Bason's form of order authorizing service of the relevant documents and setting deadlines; and 5/31/16 at 1:00 p.m. for the combined hearing on approval of the Disclosure Statement and confirmation of the Plan (with the court to set typical deadlines for objections etc.).

(c) Continued status conference: 5/31/16 at 1:00 p.m. No written status report is required.

*Warning: special procedures apply (see order setting initial status conference).

If you do not appear, and the matter is not adequately resolved by consent, then you may waive your right to be heard on matters that are appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

Appearances required but telephonic appearances are encouraged if advance arrangements are made (see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.", "Instructions/Procedures").

(1) Current issues.

(a) Plan (dkt. 193) and disclosure statement (dkt. 194) (and redline, dkt. 195). The debtors now propose a one year deadline after the effective date to have the subject properties "under contract and in escrow" (see, e.g., dkt. 194-7, p. 6:1-6). Is this agreeable to Bayview Loan Servicing, LLC? Are all major constituencies in agreement regarding the amended plan? Are there any other issues that need to be resolved prior to setting a date for a hearing on approval of the disclosure statement and confirmation of the plan?

Chapter 11

Appearances required but telephonic appearances are encouraged if advance arrangements are made (see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.", "Instructions/Procedures").

(1) Current issues

(a) Ms. Cohen's motion for reconsideration (dkt. 1421) and related papers (dkt. 1423, 1431, 1434, 1436). The tentative ruling is to deny the motion as to the approximately $67,128 paid into this court's registry and as to all but $20,000 of the approximately $32,872 held by Ms. Cohen's current counsel. In addition, the tentative ruling is to require Ms. Cohen's current counsel to continue to hold that $20,000 pending a further order regarding the proper person(s) to whom those funds should be distributed.

Reasons: The point of coercive sanctions is to coerce compliance, and up until that compliance happened the sanctions had not had their intended coercive effect. In addition, there is a "moral hazard" problem (both for Ms. Cohen's future behavior and for any other parties involved in bankruptcy cases) if this court were to reduce coercive sanctions after (very belated) compliance. The motion asserts that Ms. Cohen has suffered and will suffer various hardships due to lack of funds; but she always had the ability to mitigate those hardships by complying with this court's orders (and her own prior agreements), thereby stopping the accumulation of coercive sanctions.

Nevertheless, as the motion points out, Ms. Cohen's counsel had to "negotiate, review and draft the documents needed to comply with the Confirmation Order" (dkt. 1421, p.4:12-14), which means that even after she was prepared to comply with this court's orders there was a period of time when the coercive sanctions were continuing to accrue at a rate of $500 per day. Although Ms. Cohen has not presented any evidence regarding how many days this took (or whether her efforts at compliance were always genuine or diligent), this court is familiar with the progress of documentation based on the hearings that were held before this court. Giving Ms. Cohen the benefit of the doubt that the documentation took 40 days after she was diligently committed to compliance, the tentative ruling is that as a matter of discretion the coercive sanctions will be reduced by $20,000.

Proposed order: Ms. Cohen is directed to serve and lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this court's final ruling. In addition, Ms. Cohen is directed to lodge a proposed order on Local Form F

7067-1.1.ORDER.REGISTRY.FUND.

(b) Effect of attorney liens (dkt. 1423, 1431)

To the extent that Ms. Cohen's former counsel (Mr. Shensen, Mr. Aron, and their firms) request to be paid immediately - either out of the $20,000 referenced in section "(1)(a)" of this tentative ruling or out of any other distributions that might be made to Ms. Cohen - the tentative ruling is that those matters are not properly before this court. First, those request should be the subject of their own proceedings, rather than simply being included in oppositions to Ms. Cohen's motion for reconsideration.

Second, to the extent, if any, that those attorneys are seeking declaratory or injunctive relief, those matters presumably would require an adversary proceeding. See Rule 7001 (Fed. R. Bankr. P.).

Third, presumably any such proceeding would need to join all other known potential claimants, including not just each other but also the IRS/FTB, the bankruptcy estate (dkt. 1434), and perhaps Ms. Cohen's other former or present counsel and anyone who has asserted liens that may apply against her distributions, such as persons who have filed judgment liens or conducted a judgment debtor exam.

The foregoing is based solely on the filed papers to date. This court has not researched the mechanisms for enforcing attorney liens, and does not intend for this tentative ruling to supplant or prejudice any such mechanisms.

(c) Adversary proceedings. The parties should be prepared to address whether Ms. Cohen is moving forward with prosecuting the various adversary proceedings that have been assigned to her under the (now effective) chapter 11 plan. If not, what remedies are appropriate?

(d) Motion to employ professionals (1429). The tentative ruling is to grant the debtor's motion to employ professionals for the benefit of the estate.

Proposed order: The debtor is directed to serve and lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date.

(e) Compensatory civil sanctions (adv.p. 2:16-ap-01046-NB, dkt. 90, 97, 118, 126, 147), and attorney liens (dkt. 1423, 1431, 1433). The parties should be prepared to address the issue of which party should receive the monthly rent and the security deposit that Ms. Cohen would otherwise receive pursuant to the plan. As stated above in section "(1)(b)" of this tentative ruling, this court has concerns about whether this issue has been properly presented for determination at this time.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 6/25/13. The tentative ruling is to set a continued post-confirmation status conference for 7/11/17 at 2:00 p.m., but the parties should be prepared to address at the hearing the necessity of scheduling a continued hearing sooner or later than that date, and any other deadlines in this case.

fr. 3/20/18, 3/21/18

Docket 5

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for 4/10/18:

Appearances required.

(1) Current issues. This Court has reviewed the debtor's status report (dkt. 76) and the pending motions for relief from the automatic stay and related matters. There is no tentative ruling at the present time.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 2/16/18.

(a) Bar date: 5/25/18 (timely served dkt. 63).

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: file by 7/16/18 (see Order, dkt. 21) using the forms required by Judge Bason (DO NOT SERVE yet, except on the U.S. Trustee - the court will set a deadline and procedures at a later time).

Note: If the U.S. Trustee wishes to file initial comments on any draft Plan documents before the regular deadline, it should do so at least two weeks prior to the subsequent status conference (but, whether or not any comments are filed, all rights are reserved to object to the Disclosure Statement or Plan when deadline(s) for such objections are established).

(c) Continued status conference: 5/22/18 at 2:00 p.m.

*Warning: special procedures apply (see order setting initial status conference).

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

Tentative Ruling for 3/20/18:

Appearances required by counsel for the debtor and by the debtor(s) themselves. This court has reviewed the debtor's chapter 11 status report (dkt. 31) and all other filings in this case.

(1) Current issues

(a) Proposed bankruptcy counsel (dkt. 9, 30, 34, 45, 46). The debtor has now disclosed that the source of the prepetition retainer is Olympic Holdings, LLC ("Olympic"), the managing member of which is also the debtor's managing member, namely Mr. Mark Slotkin. The debtor has also clarified that although Olympic proposes to pay counsel's monthly bills as they come due (to be held in proposed counsel's client trust account until allowed), Olympic reserves the right to request reimbursement of prepetition payments as a general unsecured claim and postpetition payments as an administrative claim - would such postpetition request be on "substantial contribution" grounds? or on other grounds, such as an administrative priority loan (under 11 U.S.C. 364? without interest? with interest?)?

The foregoing facts and questions raise a host of ethical concerns. Any counsel who is paid by a third party (the "Funder") may be subject to conflicts of interest, especially if there are potential avoidance actions, reimbursement or contribution or indemnity claims, or other claims that could be investigated or brought against the Funder. At the hearing, proposed counsel must address the following.

(i) Connections. What are all of the connections (as that term is used in FRBP 2014) among the Funder, the debtor, Mr. Slotkin, and proposed counsel? Are there any conflicts of interest, or potential conflicts? In the past, Judge Bason has followed authority holding that conflicts cannot be waived by a debtor in possession because it is representing the interests of creditors and has no authority to waive conflicts on creditors' behalf. In addition, to help in identifying all connections, Judge Bason's posted procedures require the use of Local Form 2014-1 (see those procedures at www.cacb.uscourts.gov for instructions how to fill out that form).

(ii) Terms. What are the precise understandings regarding the funds?

(iii) Informed consent of Funder. Mr. Slotkin declares (dkt. 45, para.5) that both he and Olympic understand that proposed counsel "does not represent us, and only represents the Debtor"? Have the members of Olympic (whoever they might be) been advised of this as well? Have all such persons been advised not only of representation issues but also attorney-client privilege issues, including what can happen if a trustee were to be appointed? Have all such persons been advised of duties of loyalty, whom counsel will continue to represent (if anyone) if a conflict develops, and other ethical and practical concerns? Who provided such advice: independent counsel, or the debtor's proposed counsel? Has the Funder given informed consent? Are those things in writing?

(iv) Informed consent of debtor. Has the debtor likewise been fully advised and given informed consent? Who provided such advice? Are these things in writing?

(v) Other considerations. Has proposed counsel demonstrated or represented to this Court the absence of an actual or potential conflict, a lack of disinterestedness, or any other basis for disqualification? See In re Kelton Motors, Inc., 109 B.R. 641 (Bankr. D. Vt. 1989); In re Hathaway Ranch Partnership, 116 B.R. 208, 219 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 1990); In re Park-Helena Corp., 63 F.3d 877 (9th Cir. 1995).

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 2/16/18.

(a) Bar date: 5/25/18 (DO NOT SERVE notice yet - court will prepare an order after the status conference).

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: file by 7/16/18 (see Order, dkt. 21) using the forms required by Judge Bason (DO NOT SERVE yet, except on the U.S. Trustee - the court will set a deadline and procedures at a later time).

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for 4/10/18:

Appearances are not required on 4/10/18.

(1) Current issues

(a) Motion for Relief from Stay (dkt. 57). In light of the proposed settlement with the Fresco Parties, the tentative ruling is to continue the hearing to be concurrent with the continued status conference (see below).

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement. The tentative ruling is to conduct a combined hearing on the adequacy of the (forthcoming) disclosure statement and confirmation of the (forthcoming) plan to be concurrent with the continued status conference (see below).

Chapter 11

Tentative Ruling for 2/13/18:

Appearances required.

(1) Current issues

(a) Potential settlement with Fresco Parties. The parties must be prepared to address the status of their settlement negotiations and finalization of the draft settlement documents circulated 2/5/18, and all other issues appropriate to raise at a status conference, including the issues in their recent status reports and related documents (Sakurai case, no. 2:17-bk-22660-NB, dkt. 87, 104, 105, 114, 124, and Checkmate case, no. 2:17-bk-22648-NB, dkt. 90, 93, 100, 102, 104, 105, 106, 109, 112, 113, 119, 122).

(b) Cash collateral & budget motions & stipulation (Sakurai dkt. 119, 122; Checkmate dkt. 114, 118, 119). Grant the cash collateral motion in the Sakurai case, subject to the same replacement liens and other terms and conditions as this Court's prior approvals of the use of cash collateral (see Sakurai case dkt. 43, 57); grant the budget motion in the Sakurai case; and approve the cash collateral stipulation in the Checkmate case on a final basis.

(d) Removed action (Adv. no. 2:17-ap-01558-NB), motions for stay and for remand (adv. dkt. 8, 10, 12, 13). The tentative ruling is that the motion for a stay pending determination by the District Court of the debtors' motion to withdraw the reference is moot, because the District Court has dismissed that motion. There is no tentative ruling on the motion to remand.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 10/16/17.

(1) Current issues

(a) Status Report (dkt. 37): The status report states that the debtor has no executory contracts. What about all the contracts with Radiology Solutions Inc./Corp. (whichever name is correct)?

(b) Cash collateral motion (dkt.9): The debtor reports (dkt. 53, p.3) that it has reached a stipulation with Community Bank regarding the use of cash collateral, but as of the preparation of this tentative ruling no such stipulation appears on the docket. fr. 11/14/17, 1/9/18, 1/23/18, 1/30/18, 02/13/18

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for 4/10/18:

Appearances are not required on 4/10/18.

(1) Current issues

(a) Motion for Relief from Stay (dkt. 48). In light of the proposed settlement with the Fresco Parties, the tentative ruling is to continue the hearing to be concurrent with the continued status conference (see below).

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement. The tentative ruling is to conduct a combined hearing on the adequacy of the (forthcoming) disclosure statement and confirmation of the (forthcoming) plan to be concurrent with the continued status conference (see below).

(c) Fresco Adversary Proceeding (adv. case no. 2:17-ap-01558-NB), including motion to remand (adv. dkt. 8). The tentative ruling is that this matter will be mooted, assuming that this Court approves the parties' proposed settlement, and therefore this matter should go off calendar. The parties are reminded to file appropriate papers to have this matter dismissed once the settlement is fully implemented.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 10/16/17.

(a) Bar date: 1/17/18 (order timely served. dkt. 58, 59)

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: file by 4/18/18 using the forms required by Judge Bason (DO NOT SERVE yet, except on the U.S. Trustee - the court will set a deadline and procedures at a later time).

(c) Continued status conference: 5/8/18 at 2:00 p.m. No status report required.

*Warning: special procedures apply (see order setting initial status conference).

Tentative Ruling for 2/13/18:

Appearances required.

(1) Current issues

(a) Potential settlement with Fresco Parties. The parties must be prepared to address the status of their settlement negotiations and finalization of the draft settlement documents circulated 2/5/18, and all other issues appropriate to raise at a status conference, including the issues in their recent status reports and related documents (Sakurai case, no. 2:17-bk-22660-NB, dkt. 87, 104, 105, 114, 124, and Checkmate case, no. 2:17-bk-22648-NB, dkt. 90, 93, 100, 102, 104, 105, 106, 109, 112, 113, 119, 122).

(b) Cash collateral & budget motions & stipulation (Sakurai dkt. 119, 122; Checkmate dkt. 114, 118, 119). Grant the cash collateral motion in the Sakurai case, subject to the same replacement liens and other terms and conditions as this Court's prior approvals of the use of cash collateral (see Sakurai case dkt. 43, 57); grant the budget motion in the Sakurai case; and approve the cash collateral stipulation in the Checkmate case on a final basis.

(d) Removed action (Adv. no. 2:17-ap-01558-NB), motions for stay and for remand (adv. dkt. 8, 10, 12, 13). The tentative ruling is that the motion for a stay pending determination by the District Court of the debtors' motion to withdraw the reference is moot, because the District Court has dismissed that motion. There is no tentative ruling on the motion to remand.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 10/16/17.

Tentative Ruling for 1/30/18:

(1) Current issues

(a) Dec MOR (dkt. 97):

(i) On page 1 of 34, the MOR reflects $793,000 in cash receipts for the pre-petition Community Bank Sakurai Family Trust savings account, with a notation that Community Bank initially seized, but has since returned, the funds. What is this money from? Is it currently being held? Is it available to pay secured or unsecured creditors?

(ii) On page 7 of 34, there is a line item reflecting a $5,000 payment to Mr. Aronson for legal fees. At the status conference on 1/9/18 this court highlighted that the Sakurais had made a similar payment in November for Mr. Aronson's fees and counsel stated that the payment was made in error, and the debtors and their counsel assured this court that this issue would be addressed. By no later than February 7, 2018, Mr. Aronson is directed to file a declaration addressing the status of the $10,000 in legal fees ($5,000 Nov; $5,000 Dec) that he received from the Sakurais.

(b) Turnover of Documents and Information, etc. The parties must be prepared to address what documents and information have been produced by the debtors, and all other issues appropriate to raise at a status conference, including the issues in their recent status reports and related documents (case no. 2:17-bk-22660-NB, dkt. 87, 104, 105, 114, and 2:17-bk-22648-NB, dkt. 90, 93, 100, 102, 104, 105, 106, 109, 112, 113).

Chapter 11

(1) Current issues

(a) Status Report (dkt. 42): The debtors' status report fails to suggest any bar date or any deadline for filing a draft plan and draft disclosure statement. The debtors suggest that the Fresco litigation might have to conclude before they can propose plan, but they fail to support any such delay with relevant information about that litigation, nor do they explain how claims estimation and/or a disputed claims reserve would be inadequate to address this litigation. See generally 11 U.S.C. 502(c) and Rule 3018(a) (Fed. R. Bankr. P.). Accordingly, the tentative ruling is to fix the deadlines set forth below.

(b) Cash collateral motion (dkt. 8). The tentative ruling is to grant this motion on a final basis, on the same terms as the interim order (dkt. 43).

(b) Utility motion (dkt. 11). The tentative ruling is to grant this motion on a final basis.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 10/16/17.

Tentative Ruling for 10/26/17:

Appearances required by counsel for the debtor.

(1) Current issues

(a) Proofs of service (dkt. 18, 19, 21, 22). Service does not appear to be in compliance with this court's orders shortening time because they do not certify that anyone was served via overnight delivery or other expedited means.

The following tentative rulings are contingent on filing a corrected proof of service, no later than the day after this hearing, declaring that such expedited service was actually done, or if that is not true then the tentative ruling is to impose sanctions of $200 on counsel for the debtors and, despite the lack of service, authorize the proposed expenditures of cash collateral and the proposed utility deposits as an interim method of providing adequate protection under 11 U.S.C. 361-366.

(b) Cash collateral motion (dkt. 8). Subject to any opposition at the hearing, the tentative ruling is to grant this motion on the terms set forth in the separate tentative ruling on that motion.

(c) Utility motion (dkt. 11). Subject to any opposition at the hearing, the tentative ruling is to grant this motion. Proposed order: Movant is directed to serve and lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date.

THE BANK OF NEW YORK MELLON
VS
DEBTOR

Docket 49

Tentative Ruling:

Grant as provided below. Appearances are not required.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this court's final ruling. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

Termination. Terminate the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1) and (d)(4).

Any co-debtor stay (11 U.S.C. 1301(c)) is also terminated, because it has not been shown to have any basis to exist independent of the stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(a). To the extent, if any, that the motion seeks to terminate the automatic stay in other past or pending bankruptcy cases, such relief is denied on the present record. See In re Ervin (Case No. 14-bk-18204-NB, docket no. 311).

Relief notwithstanding future bankruptcy cases. Grant the following relief pursuant to 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(4) and the legal analysis in In re Vazquez (case no. 2:16-bk-10699-NB, dkt. 75) and/or In re Choong (case no. 2:14-bk-28378-NB, docket no. 31), as applicable:

If this order is duly recorded in compliance with applicable State laws governing notices of interests or liens in the property at issue, then no automatic stay shall apply to such property in any bankruptcy case purporting to affect such property and filed within two years after the date of entry of this order, unless otherwise ordered by the court presiding over that bankruptcy case.

possession of such property shall not be stayed. Any additional request for relief applicable to future bankruptcy cases is denied (e.g., any request to grant relief against third parties without any notice is denied) due to lack of sufficient factual or legal grounds presented in support of such relief.

Effective date of relief. Grant the request to waive the 14-day stay provided by FRBP 4001(a)(3).

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." Docket 15

Tentative Ruling:

Grant as provided below. Appearances are not required.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this court's final ruling. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

The automatic stay does not apply. This case has been dismissed, which terminates the automatic stay. See 11 USC 349(b)(3) & 362(c).

Deny Movant's request for an order pursuant to 11 U.S.C. 362(c)(4)(A)(ii) (Movant's alternative ground for arguing that the stay does not apply). Movant has not established an exception to the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(c)(4)(A)(ii) because Movant has failed to show that this debtor (as opposed to another debtor) was a debtor in two or more cases within the year prior to the petition date in this case.

In the alternative and in addition, this court grants relief from the automatic stay as follows.

Termination. Terminate the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1) and (d)(4).

Any co-debtor stay (11 U.S.C. 1301(c)) is also terminated, because it has not been shown to have any basis to exist independent of the stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(a). To the extent, if any, that the motion seeks to terminate the Relief notwithstanding future bankruptcy cases.

Grant the following relief pursuant to 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(4) and the legal analysis in In re Vazquez (case no. 2:16-bk-10699-NB, dkt. 75) and/or In re Choong (case no. 2:14-bk-28378-NB, docket no. 31), as applicable:

If this order is duly recorded in compliance with applicable State laws governing notices of interests or liens in the property at issue, then no automatic stay shall apply to such property in any bankruptcy case purporting to affect such property and filed within two years after the date of entry of this order, unless otherwise ordered by the court presiding over that bankruptcy case.

For the avoidance of doubt, any acts by the movant to obtain exclusive possession of such property shall not be stayed. Any additional request for relief applicable to future bankruptcy cases is denied (e.g., any request to grant relief against third parties without any notice is denied) due to lack of sufficient factual or legal grounds presented in support of such relief.

Effective date of relief. Grant the request to waive the 14-day stay provided by FRBP 4001(a)(3).

Docket 33

Tentative Ruling:

Continue to 5/1/18 at 10:00 a.m. to address the following issues.
Appearances are not required on 4/17/18.

Option for shortened time: This court has selected a continued hearing date that contemplates shortened notice (per Rule 9006) but that date is conditioned on the movant serving all papers on the day after the current hearing date. Alternatively, the movant may self-calendar a continued hearing on regular notice.

Reasons:

(1) Service. The Motion was not served on the debtor pursuant to LBR 4001-1(c)(1)(C)(i) and 4001-1(e)(2) - service on the debtor's attorney is not sufficient by itself. Movant is directed to file an amended proof of service reflecting service on the debtor by 4/18/18.

- #2.10 Cont'd status conference re: Complaint to determine dischargeability of debt and for specific performance compelling an audit fr. 4/10/18

Docket 1

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for 4/17/18:

Appearances required. The court has reviewed the debtor's motion to dismiss (dkt. 7), Plaintiff's opposition (dkt. 14), the parties' joint status report (dkt. 9), Notice of Related District Court Case (dkt. 12) and the other filed documents and records in this adversary proceeding.

Paragraph "(2)" below is the tentative ruling on the motion to dismiss. Paragraphs "(1)," "(3)," and "(4)" below are Judge Bason's standard requirements for status conferences, with additional provisions specific to this matter. (To the extent that the parties have already addressed these issues in their status report, they need not repeat their positions at the status conference.)

(1) Venue/jurisdiction/authority.

The parties are directed to address any outstanding matters of (a) venue, (b) jurisdiction, (c) this court's authority to enter final orders or judgment(s) in this proceeding and, if consent is required, whether the parties do consent, or have already expressly or impliedly consented. See generally Stern v. Marshall, 131 S.Ct. 2594, 2608 (2011) (if litigant "believed that the Bankruptcy Court lacked the authority to decide his claim...then he should have said so – and said so promptly."); Wellness Int'l Network, Ltd. v. Sharif, 135 S.Ct. 1932 (2015) (consent must be knowing and voluntary but need not be express); In re Bellingham Ins. Agency, Inc., 702 F.3d 553 (9th Cir. 2012) (implied consent), aff'd on other grounds, 134 S. Ct. 2165 (2014); In re Pringle, 495 B.R. 447 (9th Cir. BAP 2013) (rebuttable presumption that failure to challenge authority to issue final order is intentional and indicates consent); In re Deitz, 760 F.3d 1028 (9th Cir. 2014) (authority to adjudicate nondischargeability encompasses authority to liquidate debt and enter final judgment). See generally In re AWTR Liquidation, Inc., 548 B.R. 300 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2016).

With respect to this specific matter, although nondischargeability complaints are prototypically "core" bankruptcy matters, this Bankruptcy Court is concerned about possible duplication of litigation and infringement on the District Court's management of the related nonbankruptcy action pending in that Court since 6/16/17. Should this Bankruptcy Court grant relief from the automatic stay (on this Court's own motion or the motion of either party) so that such litigation can proceed, and meanwhile hold this nondischargeability action in abeyance? Alternatively, are other approaches preferable, such as removal, or withdrawal of the reference, or bifurcation of issues? The parties are directed to address what is the most appropriate and efficient way to proceed.

(2) Motion to Dismiss (dkt. 7)

The legal standards applicable to a motion to dismiss will not be repeated here because they are well known and have been summarized in the parties' filed papers. The tentative ruling is to grant the motion to dismiss the first and second claims for relief, with leave to amend, for the following reasons.

(a) 11 U.S.C. 523(a)(2)(A): false representation etc.

The debtor/defendant seeks dismissal of the first claim for relief, under section 523(a)(2)(A), on the ground that the plaintiff has not alleged that he obtained money, property, services, or credit from plaintiff as a result of the alleged fraud. The debtor/defendant argues (adv. dkt. 7, pp.6:23-7:3) that any alleged misrepresentations occurred in reports filed after the employees had performed services for the prior month and therefore after the debt was incurred, so the money or property at issue was not "obtained by" the alleged fraud.

On the one hand, the motion to dismiss is not entirely persuasive on this point. Reading the complaint in the light most favorable to the plaintiff as this Court must do when addressing a motion to dismiss, the complaint (adv. dkt. 1, p.1, para. 25) alleges that as a result of an ongoing pattern of false reports the Trust Funds (whom the plaintiff represents) missed opportunities to assert claims against the debtor/defendant's general contractors, which allegedly would have resulted in recovery of funds to cover the dollar amounts owed to the Trust Funds. In other words, if the Trust Funds had known of the (allegedly) false representations in those reports (or the allegedly fraudulent nature or false pretenses in those reports) then, allegedly, the Trust Funds could have pursued remedies that apparently are no longer available to them, so the fact that the reports were filed after the services were rendered each month is not dispositive.

But the complaint does not explain how the Trust Funds' missed opportunity amounts to obtaining money, property, services, or credit from plaintiff as a result of the alleged fraud. Rather, it appears that the (allegedly) false reports enabled the debtor/defendant to continue obtaining services from the employees (without providing those employees all of the compensation to which they were owed, in the form of funds that should have been transferred to the Trust Funds for the benefit of the employees). Compare In re Kay, 60 B.R. 174, 176 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 1986) (liability based on fact that "the employee beneficiaries" sustained damages as "the proximate result of the defendants' representations") (emphasis added).

In sum, there are not enough allegations in the complaint to show a causal connection between the alleged falsehoods of the debtor/defendant and some sort of damage to the plaintiff. It is possible, of course, that the plaintiff stands in the shoes of the employees for these purposes, but the complaint does not include sufficient allegations (or copies of documents) for this Court to read the complaint that way. It is also possible that the plaintiff itself has been damaged - e.g., perhaps the plaintiff is liable to the employees if it did not detect and cure the alleged falsehoods in the debtor/defendant's reports, and thus the plaintiff itself has been damaged - but again the complaint does not include sufficient allegations (or copies of documents) for this Court to read the complaint that way.

For all of these reasons, the tentative ruling is to grant the motion to dismiss the first claim for relief, with leave to amend. The tentative deadline for filing an amended complaint is 5/1/18.

The debtor/defendant has raised a separate argument with respect to the first claim for relief. The tentative ruling, however, is to reject the debtor/defendant's alternative argument (adv. dkt. 7, pp.7:23-8:5) that, under Rule 9(b), Fed. R. Civ. P. (incorporated by Rule 7009, Fed. R. Bankr.P.), the complaint is not sufficiently precise about the amount of hours that were falsely under-reported in each report. The complaint sufficiently apprises the debtor/defendant of the grounds of the alleged fraud, and any greater specificity is a matter for discovery and proof at trial, not a defect in pleading.

(b) 11 U.S.C. 523(a)(4): fraud or defalcation while acting in a fiduciary capacity, etc.

The debtor/defendant seeks dismissal of the second claim for relief, under section 523(4), on the ground that the complaint lacks sufficient allegations that he is a fiduciary with respect to the funds at issue. The tentative ruling is that this is correct.

The complaint alleges that "amounts withheld from employee wages meant to be transmitted to the Vacation Trust" became assets of that trust "as of the earliest date on which such contributions ... can reasonably be segregated from the employer's general assets." Complaint (adv. dkt. 1), p. 8, para.30 (emphasis added, quoting 29 C.F.R. 2510.3-102). In response the debtor/defendant argues (adv. dkt. 7, pp.9:12-15): "Plaintiff has failed to allege that such withholdings actually occurred and when such employee wage withholdings could be 'reasonably segregated from the employer's general assets.' Without such allegations, Plaintiff has failed to adequately allege that plan assets are at issue." (Emphasis added.)

To illustrate, consider the following hypothetical situation. Suppose that the debtor/defendant was paid $10X by a customer, but had obligations at that time of $15X consisting of $5X owed to employees for their base pay, $1X that should have been transmitted to the Vacation Trust but was not, and $9X for various other business expenses such as rent and income taxes. Did the $1X ever become segregated (withheld from wages) to the extent that it became a separate fund as to which the debtor/defendant had fiduciary obligations, or was the $1X only one contractual debt among many, with no segregated fund and therefore no associated fiduciary obligations?

In a similar vein the debtor/defendant also argues (adv. dkt. 7, pp.9:16-10:17) that the allegations about purported control over plan assets are conclusory, that unpaid contributions to employee benefit funds are not plan assets, and that there are insufficient allegations in the complaint to establish that there was any pre-existing fiduciary relationship. The tentative ruling is that all of these arguments are persuasive.

The debtor/defendant cites persuasive authority in support of the foregoing analysis. It is one thing if an employer misuses employee contributions to a trust fund, but if the funds have never reached the employee and instead are contributions that the employer was supposed to make then the failure to pay that contribution is not, by itself, enough to establish a fiduciary relationship with respect to those funds. See In re Quinones, 537 B.R. 942, 945 n.2 (Bankr. N.D. Cal. 2015) (distinguishing employer contributions "from the situation where an employer has control over funds that were withheld from employees' paychecks"). The complaint does not include sufficient allegations to determine which type of contribution is at issue.

In sum, the complaint does not contain enough allegations about the precise relationships among the parties so as to be able to figure out when the debtor/defendant's duties arose and to whom. The tentative ruling is to set the same deadline to amend the complaint as for the first claim for relief.

Unless this Court is persuaded to depart from the foregoing tentative ruling it will be adopted as this Court's final ruling on the motion to dismiss. The debtor/defendant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this court's final ruling. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

(3) Mediation. Is there is any reason why this court should not order the parties to mediation before one of the volunteer mediators (not a Bankruptcy Judge) at this time? The tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 5/1/18 for the parties to lodge a proposed mediation order (the parties are directed to use the time between now and that deadline to find a mutually agreeable mediator whose schedule can accommodate the needs of this matter; and if the parties cannot even agree on a mediator they may lodge separate orders and Judge Bason will chose among them, or issue his own order).

(4) Deadlines: This adversary proceeding has been pending since 2/5/18. Pursuant to LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B), plaintiff is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the status conference, attaching a copy of this tentative ruling or otherwise memorializing the following.

(2) Declaratory Relief
fr. 10/03/17, 11/17/17, 12/5/17

Docket 1

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for 4/17/18:

Grant the motion for an order allowing service of process via publication (dkt. 27), as supplemented (dkt. 34), for the reasons stated at the hearing on 12/5/17 (see dkt. 33). Continue the status conference in this adversary proceeding to 5/29/18 at 11:00 a.m. (no written status report required). Appearances are not required on 4/17/18.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this court's final ruling. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

Tentative Ruling for 12/5/17:

Appearances required. The tentative rulings are as follows.

(1) No relief against unnamed defendants. At the initial status conference on 10/13/17, and in the tentative ruling for that status conference (reproduced below), this court questioned how quiet title relief could be granted against persons who are not named as defendants. The motion for a default judgment does not address that issue, and yet it seeks to quiet title as against all persons, whether or not they are named as defendants. The tentative ruling is to deny that relief.

(2) No relief against decedent whose estate has not been properly served. In addition, the plaintiff appears to be seeking a default judgment against a decedent, Ms. Rosa Moisa, without having served anyone who could properly accept service for the decedent. In fact, in preparing for this hearing this court noticed that the plaintiff had the complaint served on herself as administrator of Mr. Moisa's estate (see adv. dkt. 5 at PDF p.4). How is that proper?

To make matters worse, it appears that she is not actually the administrator: she declares that she is currently seeking to be appointed as the administrator of the decedent's estate. See adv. dkt. 21, Plaintiff Decl., p.4, para. 14.

How could counsel for the debtor seek a default judgment on this foundation?

(3) No relief against persons with whom there is no actual case or controversy. The plaintiff also seeks relief against Mr. Edward Trevino Moisa (the son of the decedent Ms. Moisa). The plaintiff alleges that there is an actual case or controversy involving him (and Ms. Moisa), but the plaintiff also alleges that after his mother transferred the property to Mr. Moisa he voluntarily transferred the subject property to the plaintiff via grant deed (dkt. 21, Plaintiff Decl., p.2, para. 5-6), and that Mr. Moisa "takes no position" and has not responded to the complaint (id. p.5:3). How is there an actual case or controversy involving Mr. Moisa (or his mother)?

(4) Possible real party in interest? It is unclear from the filed papers, but the party against whom the plaintiff might really be seeking relief is the county of Los Angeles. She alleges that when she attempted to refinance the property "the Title Company for the future Lender noticed the discrepancy in the Grant Deeds (regarding Legal Description), that LA County changed the designation back to Rosa Moisa as the current owner." Id., p.4, para. 13 (emphasis added.) But it is not clear what this means - did LA County commit an error in indexing? Did it improperly alter the text of some grant deed? Or did LA County allegedly do something else to "change the designation" in some document or record?

Nor does the plaintiff point to any document that reflects any such confusion. It is not this court's role to scour the record to try to figure out what the plaintiff means.

(5) Conclusion. This court is very empathetic to the plaintiff (the debtor), who alleges that she purchased the property when it had no equity, and made payments to save the property from foreclosure, and yet, although she has obtained this court's approval to refinance the property, she has been unable to do so because of some sort of discrepancy in the real estate records regarding her title to the property. But the papers filed by the debtor's counsel fail to explain the actual issue, and in any event appear to be wholly inadequate to address whatever the issue might be.

In addition, this court is very troubled that the filed papers appear to violate basic legal principles and ethical obligations. It appears that counsel for the debtor has sought a default judgment based on (i) the plaintiff/debtor serving herself, (ii) as the purported administrator of the estate of a decedent/defendant, even though she has not yet been appointed in that role, and (iii) with whom there does not appear to have been any actual case or controversy. This appears to be an attempted fraud on the court, intended to obtain a default judgment in the hope of binding other persons who have not been named as defendants.

Is there any reason why this court should not issue an order to show cause why sanctions should not be imposed? Meanwhile, what can be done to address whatever is the actual issue that is holding up the debtor's refinance of her real property?

At the 3/6/18 hearing, this Court continued the matter to allow the parties time to meet and confer about the various deadlines that this court should set in this adversary proceeding and/or court-ordered mediation. This court also directed the parties to file a status report by 4/3/18, but the parties have not done so.

There is no tentative ruling, but the parties are directed to address why they have not filed a status report, and to provide an oral status report, and are cautioned that continued failure to adhere to the applicable rules and orders of this Court may result in sanctions. The tentative ruling is to continue this status conference to 5/29/18 at 11:00 a.m. with a brief status report due 5/15/18.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." advance arrangements are made (see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.", "Instructions/Procedures").

The parties requested a brief continuance of this status conference from 2/27/18 to today's date (see Joint Status Report, adv. dkt. 10). At the status conference on 1/23/18 there was no appearance for the plaintiff, and this Court was persuaded that it was premature to adopt the deadlines stated in the tentative ruling for that status conference (reproduced below). There is no tentative ruling, but the parties should be prepared to discuss the status of this case.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." If appearances are required, and you fail to appear without adequately resolving this matter by consent, then you may waive your right to be heard on matters that are appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

Tentative Ruling for 2/27/18:

Continue to 3/6/18 at 11:00 a.m. Appearances are not required on 2/27/18.

Reasons: At the status conference on 1/23/18 there was no appearance for the plaintiff, and this Court was persuaded that it was premature to adopt the deadlines stated in the tentative ruling for that status conference (reproduced below). The plaintiff and one defendant (the debtor) have now filed a joint status report (adv. dkt. 10) requesting a brief continuance.

(1) Venue/jurisdiction/authority. The parties are directed to address any outstanding matters of (a) venue, (b) jurisdiction, (c) this court's authority to enter final orders or judgment(s) in this proceeding and, if consent is required, whether the parties do consent, or have already expressly or impliedly consented. See generally Stern v. Marshall, 131 S.Ct. 2594, 2608 (2011) (if litigant "believed that the Bankruptcy Court lacked the authority to decide his claim...then he should have said so – and said so promptly."); Wellness Int'l Network, Ltd. v. Sharif, 135 S.Ct. 1932 (2015) (consent must be knowing and voluntary but need not be express); In re Bellingham Ins. Agency, Inc., 702 F.3d 553 (9th Cir. 2012) (implied consent), aff'd on other grounds, 134 S. Ct. 2165 (2014); In re Pringle, 495 B.R. 447 (9th Cir. BAP 2013) (rebuttable presumption that failure to challenge authority to issue final order is intentional and indicates consent); In re Deitz, 760 F.3d 1028 (9th Cir. 2014) (authority to adjudicate nondischargeability encompasses authority to liquidate debt and enter final judgment). See generally In re AWTR Liquidation, Inc., 548 B.R. 300 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2016).

(2) Mediation. Is there is any reason why this court should not order the parties to mediation before one of the volunteer mediators (not a Bankruptcy Judge), and meanwhile set the deadlines set forth below? The tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 2/6/18 for the parties to lodge a proposed mediation order (the parties are directed to use the time between now and that deadline to find a mutually agreeable mediator whose schedule can accommodate the needs of this matter; and if the parties cannot even agree on a mediator they may lodge separate orders and Judge Bason will chose among them, or issue his own order).

(3) Deadlines/dates: This adversary proceeding has been pending since 11/21/17. The tentative ruling is to set the following deadlines/dates. Pursuant to LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B), plaintiff is directed to serve and lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the status conference, attaching a copy of this tentative ruling or otherwise memorializing the following.

Appearances required but telephonic appearances are encouraged if advance arrangements are made (see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.", "Instructions/Procedures"). There is no tentative ruling, but the parties should apprise this court about the status of any appeals or other matters (see dkt. 31, order granting in part plaintiff's motion for summary judgment, and dkt. 35, notice of appeal). The tentative ruling is to set a continued status conference for 7/17/18 at 11:00 a.m., with a brief status report due 7/6/18.

(a) Legal standards. The legal standards governing motions for summary judgment are well known, do not appear to be disputed by the parties, and need not be repeated in this tentative ruling.

(b) First claim for relief (fraudulent transfer). Although the complaint (adv. dkt.1) asserts fraudulent transfer claims under both California law and the Bankruptcy Code, the MSJ limits this to 11 U.S.C. 548. The MSJ also asserts only constructive, not actual, fraud. See adv. dkt. 14, pp.2:21-3:1.

The complaint alleges less than reasonably equivalent value (11 U.S.C. 548(a)(1)(B)(i)) - namely, transfers by the debtors/defendants for no value from the debtors and/or their revocable trusts (the assets of which apparently could be reached by creditors) to irrevocable trusts. But to establish the elements of a constructively fraudulent transfer the plaintiff must also establish one of three types of insolvency (commonly referred to as "balance sheet," "inadequate capital," or "cash flow" insolvency) or else a transfer to an insider under an "employment contract." See 11 U.S.C. 548(a)(1)(B)(ii)(I)-(IV). There is no allegation about any employment contract, so the plaintiff must establish some type of insolvency.

The MSJ refers to balance sheet insolvency (11 U.S.C. 101(32A)). But the complaint never alleges that type of insolvency, so the plaintiff cannot be granted partial summary judgment as to that element (11 U.S.C. 548(a)(1)(B)(ii)(I)).

The complaint alleges inadequate capital and inadequate cash flow (in language that roughly parallels 11 U.S.C. 548(a)(1)(B)(ii)(II)&(III)). But the MSJ extrapolates that those types of insolvency could be presumed based on the bankruptcy schedules many months after the transfer, and from the sheer number of lawsuits and eventual judgments against the defendants and other circumstantial evidence. Those things might (or might not) be persuasive at trial, but they are insufficient to establish a lack of genuine issue of fact.

(c) Second claim for relief (declaratory relief related to nature of the trusts). The complaint (adv. dkt. 1, para. 23) seeks a declaratory judgment (i) that the debtors/defendants are "beneficiaries" of the trusts within the meaning of California Probate Code 15304, (ii) that the benefits the debtors/defendants receive from the trusts are "property of the estate" under 11 U.S.C. 541, and (iii) that the trusts qualify as "self-settled trusts" under California law, which the MSJ uses as shorthand for a trust the assets of which are reachable by creditors.

Various provisions of the Bankruptcy Code define what property is part of the bankruptcy estate:

The bankruptcy estate includes "all legal or equitable interests of the debtor in property as of the commencement of the case." 11 U.S.C. § 541(a)(1). It does not include, however, "any power that the debtor may exercise solely for the benefit of another," 11 U.S.C. § 541(b)(1), nor does it include "[p]roperty in which the debtor holds ... only legal title and not an equitable interest." 11 U.S.C. § 541(d). Similarly, the estate does not include property containing "[a] restriction on the transfer of a beneficial interest of the debtor in a trust that is enforceable under applicable nonbankruptcy law." 11 U.S.C. § 541(c)(2). [In re Cutter, 398 B.R. 6, 18-19 (9th Cir. BAP 2008).]

Under California law:

(a) If the settlor is a beneficiary of a trust created by the settlor and the settlor's interest is subject to a provision restraining the voluntary or involuntary transfer of the settlor's interest, the restraint is invalid against transferees or creditors of the settlor. The invalidity of the restraint on transfer does not affect the validity of the trust.

(b) If the settlor is the beneficiary of a trust created by the settlor and the trust instrument provides that the trustee shall pay income or principal or both for the education or support of the beneficiary or gives the trustee discretion to determine the amount of income or principal or both to be paid to or for the benefit of the settlor, a transferee or creditor of the settlor may reach the maximum amount that the trustee could pay to or for the benefit of the settlor under the trust instrument, not exceeding the amount of the settlor's proportionate contribution to the trust. [California Probate Code 15304]

The California Supreme Court has held that to the extent that the settlor of a trust is also a beneficiary, creditors can reach the property held by the trust:

It is against public policy to permit a man to tie up his property in such a way that he can enjoy it but prevent his creditors from reaching it, and where the settlor makes himself a beneficiary of a trust any restraints in the instrument on the involuntary alienation of his interest are invalid and ineffective. Since [the settlor] was the sole beneficiary, all the property in the trust is subject to the claims of his creditors. [Nelson v. Cal. Trust Co., 33 Cal.2d 501, 501-02 (1949) (emphasis added)]

These principles have been more recently reaffirmed in a decision of the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals:

[U]nder California law, a settlor of a spendthrift trust cannot also act as beneficiary of that trust (i.e., California law prohibits "self-settled" trusts). See Cal. Prob.Code § 15304(a) (West 1987). California law voids self-settled trusts to prevent individuals from placing their property beyond the reach of their creditors while at the same time still reaping the bounties of such property. See Nelson v. California Trust Co., 33 Cal.2d 501, 202 P.2d 1021, 1021 (Cal. 1949). [In re Moses, 167 F.3d 470, 473 (9th Cir. 1999)]

In addition, the MSJ cites authority that if beneficiaries exercise "excessive" control over a trust then under California law they cannot "shield that trust with an anti-alienation provision lacking true substance." In re Moses, 167 F.3d 470, 473 (9th Cir. 1999) (citation omitted) (emphasis added). See also In re Cutter, 398 B.R. 6, 22 (9th Cir. BAP 2008). MSJ (adv. dkt. 14, p.10:1-14).

The debtors argue that their situation is different from that in Cutter because "the Debtor in Cutter could potentially use all the Trust's principal and income to maintain his standard of living, without limitation" whereas "[t] here is no such provision" in the debtors' trusts. Dkt. 22, p.3:22-26 (italics added to case name). That distinction of Cutter (and the other authorities cited above) is unpersuasive.

The MSJ points to the following facts in support of its argument that (i) the debtors are also beneficiaries and (ii) the anti-alienation provisions of the trust lack "true substance." The debtor/defendants do not raise any genuine contrary issues of fact.

(i) The debtors deducted mortgage interest and real estate taxes on their 2015 tax returns. See dkt. 18, p.4:5-9 (and evidence cited therein).

(ii) During the "initial period" of the trusts (the earlier of the grantors' deaths or 16 years) the debtors can continue to live in the property rent-free. See Dkt. 18, p.4:10-15 (and evidence cited therein).

(iii) During that same period, any net income or excess cash is distributed to the debtors. See Dkt. 18, p.4:16-21 (and evidence cited therein).

(iv) The debtors can manage the property as "absolute owners." See Dkt. 18, p.4:22-28 (and evidence cited therein).

(v) The debtors can loan money to themselves and/or use the property to secure loans to themselves. See Dkt. 18, p.5:2-7 (and evidence cited therein).

(vi) During their lifetime, the debtors can make discretionary distributions to their children, and upon their deaths the trust assets are to be distributed to their children. See Dkt. 18, p.5:8-12 (and evidence cited therein).

Based on the foregoing, it appears that the debtors are indeed beneficiaries of the trusts to a large extent, and moreover the anti-alienation provisions of the trust lack "true substance" as that term has been used in the cited authorities. Accordingly, the tentative ruling is to grant the MSJ on the second claim for relief.

(2) Deadlines: This adversary proceeding has been pending since 9/26/17. The applicable deadlines are reflected in this court's orders (adv. dkt. 7, 20). The parties should be prepared to address whether there are any non-mooted matters left to resolve in this adversary proceeding, if this Court is not persuaded to depart from the foregoing tentative ruling on the MSJ.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." Tentative Ruling for 12/5/17:

Appearances required. The court has reviewed the parties' joint status report (dkt. 5) and the other filed documents and records in this adversary proceeding.

(1) Venue/jurisdiction/authority.

The parties are directed to address any outstanding matters of (a) venue, (b) jurisdiction, (c) this court's authority to enter final orders or judgment(s) in this proceeding and, if consent is required, whether the parties do consent, or have already expressly or impliedly consented. See generally Stern v. Marshall, 131 S.Ct. 2594, 2608 (2011) (if litigant "believed that the Bankruptcy Court lacked the authority to decide his claim...then he should have said so – and said so promptly."); *Wellness Int'l Network, Ltd. v. Pringle, 495 B.R. 447 (9th Cir. BAP 2013) (rebuttable presumption that failure to challenge authority to issue final order is intentional and indicates consent); In re Deitz, 760 F.3d 1028 (9th Cir. 2014) (authority to adjudicate nondischargeability encompasses authority to liquidate debt and enter final judgment). See generally In re AWTR Liquidation, Inc., 548 B.R. 300 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2016).

This court recognizes that, at least at this stage, the attorney who filed the answer (dkt. 4) for both trustees of the trust has also executed the Status Report (dkt. 5) on behalf of one of the defendant trustees (the debtor/defendant) asserting that neither of them can consent to this Bankruptcy Court entering a final judgment because third party beneficiaries of the trust allegedly have a right to have their rights litigated "outside of this venue." Counsel for the answering defendants should be prepared (a) to explain whether this is a Stern objection or something else and (b) whether both answering defendants or only one of them takes this position, and if the former, why he did not execute the status report on behalf of both of them.

Counsel for the plaintiff should be prepared to address whether the plaintiff contends that there are no additional parties who need to be joined, and why.

(2) Mediation. The plaintiff suggests in the Status Report (adv. dkt. 5) that mediation, if any, should not be ordered before dispositive motion(s) are heard, which the plaintiff anticipates will be by 3/1/18. The tentative ruling is to revisit the issue of mediation after that date.

(3) Deadlines: This adversary proceeding has been pending since 9/26/17. Pursuant to LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B), plaintiff is directed to serve and lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the status conference, attaching a copy of this tentative ruling or otherwise memorializing the following.

Discovery cutoff (for completion of discovery): 3/1/18

Expert(s) - deadline for reports: 2/20/18

Docket 1

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for 4/17/18:

Continue all matters set for today to the same date and time as the continued status conference, as set forth below. Appearances are not required on 4/17/18.

(1) Current issues - plan (dkt. 59) and disclosure statement (dkt. 58)

(a) Background. At the hearing on 1/23/18 the debtor's counsel conceded that debtor lacked the votes for confirmation of his proposed plan, and suggested various ways in which the debtor might proceed. This court set a deadline of 1/30/18 for filing an amended plan or an alternative pleading, which was later extended (dkt. 71) to 2/7/18.

At the continued hearing on 2/13/18, the debtor stated that he reached a settlement with Wells Fargo regarding plan treatment and would be filing a motion to allow late-filed ballot. On 3/12/18, the debtor filed that motion (dkt. 78), with a hearing scheduled for this date. Debtor's ability to confirm the Amended Plan apparently depends upon whether this court accepts Wells Fargo's late-filed ballot.

For the reasons stated below, the tentative ruling is to continue the hearing on approval of debtor's disclosure statement and plan to the above-stated time and place, concurrent with a continued hearing on debtor's motion to accept late-filed ballot.

(b) Motion to Accept Late-Filed Ballot (dkt. 78)

(i) Service. The Motion was not properly served on American Express at the address listed in its proofs of claim (claim nos. 4-1 and 6-1) (nor is it served in an alternative manner that might satisfy Rule 7004 because it was not served to the attention of an officer or agent pursuant to Rule 7004(b)(3) (FRBP)). Since American Express cast the only ballots against debtor's plan, it is particularly important that it be given proper service.

Chapter 11

The tentative ruling is to continue the hearing to the same date and time as the continued status conference (see below) and direct the debtor to re-serve the Motion on American Express. This court has selected a continued hearing date that contemplates shortened notice (per Rule 9006) but that date is conditioned on the debtor serving all papers on the day after the current hearing date and filing a proof of service. Alternatively, debtor may self-calendar a continued hearing on regular notice.

(c) Exit strategy. At the continued hearing, if this Court does not approve the debtor's motion to accept late-filed ballot, the debtor should be prepared to address what his exit strategy from bankruptcy is and whether this case be dismissed.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 6/7/17.

(a) Bar date: 8/18/17 (timely served, dkt. 27, 30)

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement (dkt. 59, 58)*: TBD.

which was later extended (dkt. 71) to 2/7/18. That deadline has passed and, as of the preparation of this tentative ruling, no such papers have been filed.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 6/7/17.

(a) Bar date: 8/18/17 (timely served, dkt. 27, 30)

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement (dkt. 59, 58)*: TBD.

(c) Continued status conference: 3/20/18 at 1:00 p.m. (if this case is not dismissed). No written status report is required.

Tentative Ruling for 1/23/18:

Continue this status conference and the combined hearing on final approval of the disclosure statement (dkt. 60) and confirmation of the plan (dkt. 59) to 2/13/18 at 1:00 p.m. Appearances are not required on 1/23/18.

Reasons: (a) the debtor's failure to file the ballot summary with respect to the plan, which was due on 1/16/18 (see Order, dkt. 61) and (b) the inability of the Office of the United States Trustee ("UST") to appear (or perhaps even to analyze whether it should appear) because of the shutdown of much of the federal government.

At the continued hearing the debtor should be prepared to testify, or make an offer of proof, as to feasibility.

Tentative Ruling for 12/12/17:

Appearances required by counsel for the debtor but telephonic appearances are encouraged if advance arrangements are made (see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.", "Instructions/Procedures").

(1) Current issues - plan (dkt. 59) and disclosure statement (dkt. 58)

(a) Income calculation. Exhibit C, Attachment 1, line 7, for income from "operations of business" requires the debtor to "attach detailed statement." No such statement appears to be provided.

(b) Disputed claims and other prior issues appear to be adequately addressed. The revised Exhibit F (dkt. 58) lists the 16th Street Group twice: once for the undisputed portion and once for the disputed portion - if the dollar amount of the disputed portion of the claim is sufficient then this appears to fully address this court's concerns expressed in the tentative ruling for 11/7/17. All of this court's other concerns appear to have been fully addressed as well.

(c) Feasibility. This court anticipates that the debtor may be required to testify, or make an offer of proof, as to feasibility at the combined hearing (set forth below) on final approval of the disclosure statement and confirmation of the plan.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 6/7/17.

(a) Bar date: 8/18/17 (timely served, dkt. 27, 30)

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement (dkt. 59, 58)*: 12/15/17 deadline to file (NOT SERVE - except on the U.S. Trustee) any redlined revisions to be discussed at the status conference and lodge Judge Bason's form of order authorizing service of the voting package, setting deadlines, and setting a combined hearing on final approval of the Disclosure Statement and confirmation of the Plan for the same time as the continued status conference.

*Warning: special procedures apply (see order setting initial status conference).

Tentative Ruling for 11/7/17:

Appearances required by counsel for the debtor but telephonic appearances are encouraged if advance arrangements are made (see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.", "Instructions/Procedures").

(1) Current issues - plan (dkt. 54) and disclosure statement (dkt. 53)

(a) Disputed claims. The plan contemplates non-payment to some disputed claims. Unless and until those claims are disallowed (or allowed), the debtor must establish a disputed claims reserve and pay into that reserve in order to confirm any plan.

(b) General unsecured creditors. The plan includes a confusing mix of different listings of general unsecured creditors. Exhibit F starts with the total from the debtor's bankruptcy schedules and then reduces it by a dollar amount that appears to be random (there are no calculations to show how the debtor arrived at that reduction). Attached to Exhibit F is a copy of the debtor's bankruptcy schedules, but those are not manually marked up to show how the debtor arrived at the dollar amounts in Exhibit F.

Exhibit I lists not only general unsecured claims but also priority and secured claims, so it is not helpful to figure out how the debtor arrived at the dollar amount of reduction in Exhibit F.

Exhibit H item "(6)" lists anticipated/pending objections to claims, and provides what appear to be estimated dollar amounts, but there is no basis for such estimates and they are not tied to the reduction in total claims listed in Exhibit F.

It appears that the simpler solution would be (i) to use the "electronic option" in Exhibit F (starting at line 5) for general unsecured claims, instead of attaching the bankruptcy schedules, (ii) cut all unsecured claims from Exhibit I as redundant, and (iii) use a disputed claims reserve and/or obtain final orders disallowing or allowing claims and/or follow the proper procedures for claims estimation, if permissible (see 11 U.S.C. 502(c) and Rule 3018(a), Fed. R. Bankr. P.).

(c) Tax claims. One tax claim has been withdrawn (dkt. 52). Is the tax claim listed in Exhibit A for "LACTTC" a different claim?

(d) Pagination. The debtor's plan divides one-page exhibits onto two pages, which is somewhat confusing. The debtor may need to adjust the page margins to enable them to print on a single page.

(e) Income calculation. Exhibit C, Attachment 1, lines 1 and 7, do not provide adequate disclosure of the debtor's income calculation. Line 1 is for "wages, salary, and commissions" but as an independent contractor the more appropriate line would appear to be line 7 for "operations of business," which requires the debtor to "attach detailed statement." In any event, the debtor cannot simply list net income without any disclosure as to the gross revenues, specific expenses, and calculation of that net income.

The debtor's failure to disclose sufficient information about revenues and expenses has been a recurring theme - see the tentative ruling for 7/11/17 (reproduced below), item "(1)(a)" under the "Third" issue. Given this history, this court will require the debtor to file and serve on the U.S. Trustee, no later than the deadline set forth below for filing an amended plan and disclosure statement, a detailed declaration providing documentation as to the basis for each aspect of the income and expense projections (the debtor may incorporate Monthly Operating Reports by reference, but cannot rely only on those MORs - the debtor must provide additional support for his projections).

(f) Double-counting of expenses. Exhibit C, Attachment 1, line 17, includes an adequate protection payment of $325.50/mo. (with a reference to "RFS Order Dkt No. 45"), but it appears that these adequate protection payments will be replaced by the payments in Class 1A of $383.28/mo. It appears that once the added $325.50/mo. is eliminated then the cash flow might be more feasible.

(1) Current issues.

(a) Budget motion (dkt. 21). This motion is not on for hearing, but in connection with this Status Conference the debtor should be prepared to address the following concerns.

First, the debtor lists $1,350/mo. in income derived from unemployment benefits, in addition to his $6,150/mo. in business income derived from his self-employment as an independent marketing consultant, a job at which he claims to have been employed for the past year. Dkt. 21, p. 8. How can the debtor obtain unemployment benefits when he is employed? How will the budget change when those benefits cease?

Second, the debtor lists net business income but has failed to provide a breakdown of gross receipts, ordinary and necessary business expenses, and calculation of the resulting monthly net income, as required by the instructions on bankruptcy Schedule "I" line 8a. See dkt. 21 at p. 8.

Third, the debtor asserts a 50% interest in a real estate business in Miami, Buena Vista Terminal, LLC. See dkt. 1, pp. 19, 51. What is the nature of that business? Does the debtor derive any income from that business?

Finally, the debtor reports that he has just $43.43 in monthly net income to contribute to a chapter 11 plan. But the debtor has two cars and a motorcycle and over $700/mo. in automobile payments (plus "transportation" costs). Is that reasonable? See In re Concoff (case no. 2:13-bk-37328-NB, dkt. 246).

(b) Application to employ counsel (dkt. 24). Does the U.S. Trustee have any concerns about the proposed interim payment procedures and fee sharing arrangement between Ms. Ghanooni and Ms. Esmaili?

According to the retainer letter (dkt. 24, Ex. 3, para. 4) some of the retainer was to be paid by the debtor's mother, as a gift. But the application and the Rule 2014 disclosures by proposed counsel and by the debtor assert that there is no connection with any insider, and that all funds have come solely from the debtor. Which version of the facts is true? If any portion of the retainer has been paid by a third party, that raises special concerns (e.g., was the third party fully informed, in writing, that counsel represents the DIP not the third party, and might actually have to sue the third party if there were any potentially avoidable transfers? are there any such transfers or other potential conflicts?). Chapter 11

#1.00 Hrg re: Motion for determination of violation of the automatic stay, or, in the alternative, to enjoin related proceeding

Docket 253

Tentative Ruling:

Revised Tentative Ruling for 4/17/18:

The tentative ruling is to grant the motion in part and deny it in part as set forth below. Appearances required.

(1) Overview. The movant, Mr. Barrett, is a former named member of the debtor who also asserts claims against the debtor. He has filed a "Motion For Determination Of Violation Of The Automatic Stay, Or, In The Alternative, To Enjoin Related Proceeding" (dkt. 253, the "Stay Motion").

The Stay Motion concerns an action by secured creditor Wellgen Standard, LLC (successor in interest to Advocate Capital, Inc.) ("Wellgen") against Mr. Barrett and others in Tennessee - initially that action was pending in State court, but Mr. Barrett has removed it to Federal court (the "TN Action"). The Stay Motion is opposed both by Wellgen (dkt. 268) and by the Chapter 11 Trustee, Richard M. Pachulski (the "Trustee") (dkt. 269).

The tentative ruling is that Mr. Barrett is correct that secured creditor Wellgen has violated the automatic stay of 11 U.S.C. 362(a)(3). But the tentative ruling is also that any stay violation is irrelevant, for two reasons.

First, Mr. Barrett lacks standing to seek a remedy for Wellgen's alleged violation of the automatic stay, except as to any alleged damages to himself personally under 11 U.S.C. 362(k), which he does not seek in the Stay Motion. Second, and alternatively, at least to the extent that Mr. Barrett is concerned about any ongoing future violation of the automatic stay, that is irrelevant because the Chapter 11 Trustee has stated his willingness to stipulate to relief from the automatic stay.

As for Mr. Barrett's various alternative requests for relief, the tentative ruling is that they are not persuasive for the reasons discussed below.

(2) Standing under 362. The tentative ruling is that because Mr.

Barrett's motion does not seek damages under 11 U.S.C. 362(k) (formerly 362(h)), he lacks standing to seek any remedy under controlling Ninth Circuit authority. As pointed out by Wellgen and Trustee, the Ninth Circuit has broadly expressed the concept that creditors lack standing to seek relief under 11 U.S.C. 362:

In previous cases, we have reserved the question of whether a creditor can attack violations of the automatic stay. While there is no precedent on point in the Ninth Circuit, the majority of jurisdictions which have considered standing under the automatic stay provision, 11 U.S.C. § 362, have concluded that section 362 is intended solely to benefit the debtor estate. Language from many cases indicates that, if the trustee does not seek to enforce the protections of the automatic stay, no other party may challenge acts purportedly in violation of the automatic stay.

The trustee is charged with the administration of the estate for the debtor's and creditor's benefit. Allowing unsecured creditors to pursue claims the trustee abandons could subvert the trustee's powers. Granting claimants like Tilley and B & C standing will overburden the bankruptcy courts with litigation. [In re Pecan Groves of Ariz., 951 F.2d 242 (9th Cir.1991). See also In re Yan, 2015 WL 845570, *3 (9th Cir. BAP Feb. 26, 2015).]

Mr. Barrett cites several cases that at first seem contrary. See In re Goodman, 991 F.2d 613, 618 (9th Cir. 1993) ("Normally [certain] creditors ... shall recover damages . . . for willful violations of the automatic stay.") (emphasis added); In re Dawson, 390 F.3d 1139, 1146 (9th Cir. 2004) (Section 362 "allows any 'individual,' including a creditor, to recover damages") (emphasis added) abrogation recognized on other grounds in In re Gugliuzza, 852 F.3d 884 (9th Cir. 2017); In re Int'l Forex of Calif., Inc., 247 B.R. 284, 291 (Bankr. S.D. Cal. 2000) ("In re Pecan Groves' holding has been overstated for the proposition that the automatic stay is solely for the benefit of the debtor, and a creditor cannot have standing under § 362(h).").

But on closer inspection all of those cases arise under a portion of the statute that expressly grants standing for a particular type of enforcement of the automatic stay:

[A]n individual injured by any willful violation of a stay provided by this section shall recover actual damages, including costs and attorneys' fees, and, in appropriate circumstances, may recover punitive damages. ... [11 U.S.C. 362(k) (formerly 362(h)) (emphasis added).]

No such specific authorization applies to Mr. Barrett's more generalized request for relief in the Stay Motion. He does not allege that he was "injured" by a willful violation of the stay, and his motion does not seek damages.

It is true that Pecan Groves has been distinguished on various grounds, and may be subject to criticism. See, e.g., Int'l Forex, 247 B.R. 284, 291. But this Bankruptcy Court is not persuaded that it can disregard the pronouncements in Pecan Groves, especially when there is some logic to distinguishing between a creditor who has personally been damaged by a violation of the automatic stay (and has statutory standing under section 362(k)) and another creditor who seeks to enforce the stay more generally. In the latter situation there is no statutory standing and, as Pecan Groves points out, permitting a creditor to seek remedies for violation of the automatic stay on behalf of the bankruptcy estate could interfere with the decision of the trustee (or debtor in possession) not to pursue such remedies for tactical or strategic reasons (e.g., as part of a compromise with the person who violated the automatic stay). Therefore, the tentative ruling is that Pecan Groves is binding. See generally United States v. Johnson, 256 F.3d 895, 914 (9th Cir. 2001) (a reasoned and published ruling on any issue germane to the appeal becomes law of the circuit, regardless whether that ruling is strictly necessary to the decision).

In sum, the tentative ruling is that under Pecan Groves Mr. Barrett would only have standing to seek relief for violation of the automatic stay if he were proceeding under section 362(k). But his Stay Motion does not seek damages under section 362(k), so he lacks standing to seek any remedy for any violation of the automatic stay by Wellgen.

Despite the foregoing tentative ruling that Mr. Barrett lacks standing to seek the relief he requests in the Stay Motion, the remainder of this discussion addresses the merits of that motion for several reasons. First, this is only a tentative ruling, and at the hearing Mr. Barrett's counsel are invited to attempt to distinguish Pecan Groves. (This Court notes, however, that Mr. Barrett still could not seek any forward-looking enforcement of the automatic stay because the Trustee has stated his willingness to stipulate to relief from the automatic stay. See Trustee's Response (dkt. 269) at p.3 n.3 ("To the extent the Court finds that the automatic stay applies to the Tennessee Action as presently styled, the Trustee is willing to stipulate to relief from the stay.")

Second, this Court could raise concerns about violation of the automatic stay on its own initiative. See 11 U.S.C. 105. It is worth exploring whether Wellgen's alleged violation of the automatic stay is sufficiently troublesome to prompt this Court to do so.

Third, this Court does not wish the foregoing discussion to be misconstrued. This Court has noted that Mr. Barrett would have standing to seek damages under section 362(k), but this Court does not intend to suggest that Mr. Barrett necessarily would be entitled to any such relief. As described at the end of this tentative ruling, there may be obstacles to any request for damages.

(3) The TN Action is stayed by Section 362(a)(3). The debtor's bankruptcy petition operates as a stay, applicable to all entities, of "any act to obtain possession of property of the estate or of property from the estate or to exercise control over property of the estate." 11 U.S.C. 362(a)(3). Mr. Barrett cites authority (dkt. 253, p.7:5-28) that "property of the estate" includes causes of action, and that a creditor violates the automatic stay by pursuing causes of action that belong to the bankruptcy estate, including fraudulent transfer claims.

Wellgen and the Trustee do not cite any contrary authority. Instead they argue that the TN Action is not a fraudulent transfer action but instead is an alter ego action, and the latter allegedly does not belong to the bankruptcy estate under Ahcom, Ltd. v. Smeding, 623 F.3d 1248, 1252 (9th Cir. 2010).

(a) Applicable law: Tennessee or California. The Ninth Circuit has stated:

The trustee stands in the shoes of the bankrupt corporation and has standing to bring any suit that the bankrupt corporation could have instituted had it not petitioned for bankruptcy. However, the trustee's power is limited. The trustee may assert only claims belonging to the debtor corporation and has no standing generally to sue third parties on behalf of the estate's creditors.

When the trustee does have standing to assert a debtor's claim, that standing is exclusive and divests all creditors of the power to bring the claim. Although federal bankruptcy law applies to this action, state law determines whether a claim belongs to the trustee or to the creditor. [Ahcom, 623 F.3d 1248, 1250 (citations and internal quotation marks omitted, emphasis added).]

Ahcom was decided under California law, and Wellgen's alter ego claims appear to be asserted under Tennessee law. Wellgen Opposition (dkt. 268), at p.4:5-6. But cf. Trustee Response (dkt. 269), p.3, n.1 (implying that California law probably applies). Wellgen does not address whether Tennessee law, like California law, does not recognize a generalized alter ego claim that could be asserted by a bankruptcy trustee.

But this Court need not decide that issue. No party has argued that there is any difference between Tennessee law and California law on this issue. Therefore for present purposes this Court applies California law.

(b) Alter ego is a procedural remedy, not a substantive cause of action. It is an overstatement to assert that a bankruptcy estate can never seek recovery under an alter ego theory. As a California Court of Appeal has explained:

A claim against a defendant, based on the alter ego theory, is not itself a claim for substantive relief, e.g., breach of contract or to set aside a fraudulent conveyance, but rather, procedural, i.e., to disregard the corporate entity as a distinct defendant and to hold the alter ego individuals liable on the obligations of the corporation where the corporate form is being used by the individuals to escape personal liability, sanction a fraud, or promote injustice. In applying the alter ego doctrine, the issue is not whether the corporation is the alter ego of its shareholders for all purposes, or whether the corporation was organized for the purpose of defrauding the plaintiff, but rather, whether justice and equity are best accomplished in a particular case, and fraud defeated, by disregarding the separate nature of the corporate form as to the claims in that case.

The trustee of a bankrupt corporation can maintain an action against a defendant based on an alter ego theory if there is some allegation of injury to the corporation that gives the corporation a right of action against the defendant. For example, the trustee of a bankrupt corporation can maintain an action against corporate shareholders on an alter ego theory in order to recover property or pursue a right of action belonging to the bankrupt corporation, including an action to set aside fraudulent transfers or an action for conversion to recover assets of the bankrupt corporation. However, the trustee of a bankrupt corporation cannot maintain an action against defendants on an alter ego theory absent some allegation of injury to the corporation giving rise to a right of action in it against defendants. In the absence of any such allegation, the asserted cause of action belongs to each creditor individually[. A] trustee in bankruptcy may not enforce rights of action which belong to the creditors individually[,] because they are not rights in which the bankrupt claims an interest and are not assets of the estate in bankruptcy. [Shaoxing County Huayue Import & Export v. Bhaumik, 191 Cal.App.4th 1189, 1198-99 (2011) (citations and internal quotation marks omitted, emphasis added).]

This distinction between a substantive cause of action and a procedural remedy should be kept in mind in the following discussion.

(c) Wellgen's TN Action appears to assert fraudulent transfer claims. Mr. Barrett argues that what Wellgen characterizes as an alter ego claim actually seeks to recover alleged fraudulent transfers of the debtor's assets, and that the courts look to the substance not the label of the underlying claims. According to him, the automatic stay applies to claims "sounding in fraudulent transfer, even if the creditor couches them in terms of 'alter ego.'" Stay Motion (dkt. 253), p.8:3-8 (citing In re O'Reilly, 2014 WL 460767 (N.D. Cal.), and In re Howrey, LLP, 2014 WL 3899309 (N.D. Cal.)). He argues that in O'Reilly, for example, because "the nature of the 'alter ego' claims was diversion of firm assets, the [Bankruptcy Court, and the District Court on appeal,] determined that the case sounded in fraudulent transfer." Stay Motion (dkt. 253), p.8:14-16 (citing O'Reilly).

For several reasons the tentative ruling is that Mr. Barrett has the better of this argument. First, Wellgen's own description of the TN Action sounds like a fraudulent transfer action.

Wellgen alleges that the defendants in the TN Action knew that the debtor "was not paying its creditors" - which is one type of insolvency for fraudulent transfer purposes (often called "cash flow" insolvency). "With this knowledge" Mr. Layfield and others allegedly "devised a plan to transfer the high value assets out of [the debtor] to [the defendants in the TN Action], while leaving all liabilities in [the debtor] with only low value assets" - which sounds like an actual or constructively fraudulent transfer. See Wellgen's Response to motions to dismiss TN Action (Ex.1 to Reply, dkt. 277), at p.14, para. 2&3. See 11 U.S.C. 548. See also Uniform Voidable Transactions Act, codified in California at Cal. Civ. C. 3439-3439.14, and predecessor UFTA.

Second, and more generally, Wellgen's allegations sound like an injury to the debtor generally, rather than some sort of conduct in which only Wellgen was harmed by the debtor's disregard of the separateness of the debtor and some alleged alter egos. "If the debtor suffered an injury, the trustee has standing to pursue a claim seeking to rectify such injury" and the trustee only lacks standing when third parties (Mr. Layfield and others) have "injured not the bankrupt corporation itself but a creditor of that corporation." Smith v. Arthur Andersen LLP, 421 F.3d 989, 1002-03 (9th Cir. 2005) (citation and internal quotation marks omitted).

Third, the relief that Wellgen seeks in the TN Action certainly appears to be in conflict with preservation of the bankruptcy estate, which is a principal purpose of the automatic stay. Put differently, if the debtor's assets have been fraudulently transferred and Wellgen seeks to recover those assets, that places Wellgen in direct competition with the bankruptcy estate for recovery of the same assets. The tentative ruling is that this effectively takes "possession" of or exercises "control" over property "of" or "from" the estate - namely, the estate's interest in the transferred assets themselves, and the estate's causes of action for recovery of those assets. In other words, the TN Action appears to come within the scope of acts that are stayed under section 362(a)(3).

It is true that the alter ego claims hypothetically could be founded on grounds that would be very different from a fraudulent transfer claim, and theoretically alter ego claims could involve a different body of assets than fraudulent transfer claims (although Wellgen has not raised any such argument). But this Court finds persuasive Judge Montali's analogy in the O'Reilly case to how the automatic stay would protect a bankruptcy estate's partial interest in recovery of real property ("Black Acre") even if a creditor had a separate claim against Black Acre. The competing claims against Black Acre need not be co-extensive for the automatic stay to protect the estate's interest in Black Acre.

In sum, the gravamen of Wellgen's complaint is that assets were fraudulently transferred to evade creditors' claims. The result is both (i) that Wellgen's claim conflicts with the bankruptcy estate's fraudulent transfer claims in the same assets and (ii) that the particular type of alter ego recovery that Wellgen seeks is not the usual type of alter ego recovery that the trustee lacks standing to pursue - rather, it is one possible remedy that can expand the recovery of any fraudulent transfers that the bankruptcy estate could seek to pursue. Under either of these two alternate analyses, the automatic stay applies.

That does not end the analysis. First, there are alternative theories advanced by Mr. Barrett. Second, the end of this tentative ruling addresses the bigger picture.

(4) Mr. Barrett's alternative arguments.

(a) Mr. Barrett's reliance on the "exceptional circumstances" doctrine is not persuasive. This Court is not persuaded that the Ninth Circuit would extend the automatic stay to non-debtors under the so-called "exceptional circumstances" doctrine, as argued by Mr. Barrett. See Stay Motion (dkt. 253), at pp.9:25-11:25. The Ninth Circuit has rejected protection of non-debtors even in confirmed chapter 11 plans under the analogous provisions of the discharge injunction (see, e.g., In re American Hardwoods, Inc., 885 F.2d 621, 623-24 (9th Cir. 1989)) so it seems highly unlikely that the Ninth Circuit would interpret the automatic stay to protect third parties when then plain words of the statute do not do so.

The remedy is for the third party to file its own bankruptcy petition if it needs the protections of the automatic stay. Alternatively, if protection of a third party is sufficiently important to the bankruptcy estate, then the estate can seek injunctive relief under In re Excel Innovations, Inc., 502 F.3d 1086 (9th Cir. 2007).

(b) Mr. Barrett's request for a preliminary injunction is not properly presented. A request for injunctive relief requires an adversary proceeding per Rule 7001(7) (Fed. R. Bankr. P.). The Stay Motion was not brought in an adversary proceeding, so it is insufficient to request injunctive relief beyond enforcement of the automatic stay.

(5) Bigger picture. Notwithstanding the tentative ruling in part "(3)" above that the automatic stay applies to the TN Action, it appears that Wellgen has a security interest in the assets to be recovered. Therefore the larger question is whether Wellgen or someone else should prosecute one or more actions for recovery of funds from the defendants named in the TN action, for the benefit of both Wellgen and the bankruptcy estate. As noted above, the Trustee has indicated a willingness to stipulate to relief from the automatic stay. That appears to be within the reasonable business judgment of the Trustee given Wellgen's apparent security interest. In other words, Wellgen has the most direct interests and the bankruptcy estate has only residual interest, so it probably makes sense for Wellgen to prosecute any actions for recovery of assets that the bankruptcy estate could recover, and either apply those recoveries directly to reduce its secured claim, or recover assets for the benefit of the bankruptcy estate including its secured claim.

The parties should be prepared to address the precise nature of any such arrangement between Wellgen and the Trustee. For example:

(a) will the Trustee and Wellgen stipulate to relief from the automatic stay - possibly including retroactive annulment of the automatic stay - for Wellgen to be able to continue prosecuting the TN Action and/or the bankruptcy estate's fraudulent transfer claims, and/or

(b) will Wellgen prosecute claims on behalf of the estate (which will be essentially on its own behalf because of its very substantial secured claim), and/or

(c) will Wellgen's counsel prosecute the bankruptcy estate's claims as special counsel, or

(d) will Wellgen and the trustee agree to some sort of allocation of any recoveries, perhaps allocating all recoveries up to Wellgen's claim to it, with any remainder allocated to the bankruptcy estate, and/or

(e) will the parties agree to some other arrangement? See generally In re Maximus Computers, Inc., 278 BR 189, 197-98 (9th Cir. BAP 2002).

Based on the foregoing possibilities, it is questionable whether Mr. Barrett would have any claim for damages for any violation of the automatic stay by Wellgen. It appears that either the bankruptcy estate or Wellgen can seek recovery of the assets that allegedly were wrongfully or fraudulently transferred, and moreover the estate probably has just as much ability to seek recovery of any avoided transfers on alter ego theory as Wellgen, so it is not apparent how Mr. Barrett has been damaged by the fact that the plaintiff is

(6) Conclusion.

For the foregoing reasons the tentative ruling is that Mr. Barrett lacks standing to seek the relief he requests in the Stay Motion. Alternatively, supposing for the sake of discussion that he had standing, the tentative ruling is that although he is correct that Wellgen has violated the automatic stay, that makes no difference because the Trustee is willing to stipulate to relief from the automatic stay, and there is no apparent damage to Mr. Barrett from the fact that the litigation has been commenced by Wellgen rather than the Trustee.

Unless this Court is persuaded to depart from this tentative ruling in any material respect, Wellgen is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this court's final ruling. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

Tentative Ruling for 9/19/17:

Appearances required.

(1) Current issues.

(a) Order for relief. This case was commenced as an involuntary chapter 7, and thereafter the debtor filed a motion (dkt. 19) to convert this case to chapter 11, which this court treated at a hearing on 8/8/17 as a consent to an order for relief conditioned on such conversion. This court orally ordered relief and granted the motion to convert to chapter 11, and although the latter order was reduced to writing (dkt. 25) the former was not. The tentative ruling is to direct the Chapter 11 Trustee to prepare and lodge a written order, memorializing that the oral order for relief was effective on 8/8/17. The parties should be prepared to address whether that written order should modify any deadlines that otherwise would apply (see next paragraph), notwithstanding that all parties in interest appear to have been present in person or on the telephone at that 8/8/17 hearing.

(b) Lack of information. The Chapter 11 Trustee's status report (dkt.

79) indicates that the debtor has yet to provide information on numerous issues, notwithstanding Rule 1007(a)(2), (b) and (c). The docket does not reflect that the debtor has filed bankruptcy schedules, a statement of financial affairs, or other information, or filed any motion for extension of time. What is the current status, and what additional action may be appropriate?

(c) Clients. This court has approved a client transfer protocol (dkt. 83). What is the status of those transfers?

(d) Reconversion? The debtor's status report (dkt. 80, at PDF p.3:4-21) suggests that, although the debtor and other parties in interest stipulated (dkt. 38) to the appointment of a chapter 11 trustee, and this court approved that stipulation (dkt. 42), nevertheless this case is essentially being operated as a chapter 7 liquidation and should be converted back to chapter 7. What are the positions of parties in interest on that issue?

(e) Joint administration? Should this case be jointly administered (not procedurally consolidated) with the case of Maximum Legal (California), LLP (Case No. 2:17-bk-18433-NB)?

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed as an involuntary chapter 7 on 8/3/17 and converted to chapter 11 on 8/11/17.

(a) Bar date: TBD after bankruptcy schedules are filed.

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: Do not file or serve until further order of this court.

relief or have defaulted. On the other hand, there are some fundamental issues that appear to prevent this court from granting default judgments at this time.

(1) Self-calendaring error. The motions for default judgments were only served on 10/27/17. See, e.g., Motion for Default Judgment Derek Wilshee (dkt. 83, 74) (collectively, the "Wilshee Default Motion"). That is insufficient time prior to the hearing, under the applicable rules, nor was there any cover notice of the hearing date and deadline for any opposition or response.

(2) Jurisdictional issues.

(a) Personal jurisdiction. Does the complaint adequately establish personal jurisdiction over each defendant? At least one defendant is alleged to be a resident of Australia (dkt. 1, para. 14), although the plaintiff has voluntarily dismissed claims against that defendant (dkt. 107). Are each of the defaulting defendants subject to personal jurisdiction?

(b) Subject matter jurisdiction, and abstention. The complaint and motions for default judgment make somewhat vague assertions of other action(s) that were or are pending in other courts apparently involving the same subject matter, and involving at least preliminary injunctive relief if not other relief. Can this Bankruptcy Court assume jurisdiction over matters that are pending in other courts? Must or should this Bankruptcy Court abstain?

(3) Allegations of wrongdoing. Where is the analysis tying each of the defaulting defendants to one or more of the specific acts of wrongdoing bringing them within the claims in the complaint? For example, the only allegation in the complaint regarding Mr. Wilshee (dkt. 1, para. 14) appears to be that he was at one time an officer of the debtor. How is that an act of wrongdoing?

The Wilshee Default Motion seeks a default judgment against Mr. Wilshee of $431,472,300.00 (dkt. 74, at PDF p.51 of 53). How is he responsible for such alleged damages? Does the complaint need to be amended to establish, as against one or more of the defaulting defendants, how they are alleged to be liable?

(4) Calculation of damages. An exhibit to the plaintiff's motions for default judgments asserts that "Based on Department of Conservation Records [available on a website and/or verified by whom?], these leases [which leases? the ones that allegedly were supposed to be assigned but were not?] were producing 1730 barrels of Oil a day [when?] and "[w]ith today's technology [how is today's technology better?], a conservative figure would be 3500 barrels a day [based on whose expert opinion?] that will be used as a figure for all the losses caused by Western States International [how about other defendants?]." Dkt. 83, Ex.A, at PDF p.17 of 53. The same exhibit shows a calculation of alleged damages based on "Approx Production" of "105,000" which is far more than 3500 barrels (perhaps using a 30-day presumptive month multiplied by 3500 barrels a day?), an "Average Oil Price [from what source?]," and a "Cost [to extract, market, refine, deliver, and sell the oil - or some other or different set of things? based on what expert's opinion?]." Based on the foregoing questions, and applying Rule 55(b)(2) (Fed. R. Civ. P.) (incorporated by Rule 7055, Fed. R. Bankr. P.), it appears that additional evidence and a "prove up" hearing will be needed to determine the amount of damages, if not other issues.

(5) Alleged costs, attorney fees, and interest. The debtor/plaintiff asserts $1 million in costs (dkt. 74 at PDF p.51 of 53) - how is that possible? What are the components? Attorney fees are alleged to be $300,000 - this case has barely commenced, so how is that possible? Where are the daily time sheets and/or other support for this figure? Prejudgment interest is alleged to be at a 10% rate per year starting 1/1/11. What is the contractual or statutory basis for that interest rate and that commencement date? The purported damages were incurred month by month, so how can interest run from before those damages were incurred?

(6) Declaratory relief. The plaintiff makes broad allegations about the rights under various contracts, or arising from breaches of those contracts or by operation of law. Where is the support for these allegations? The plaintiff cannot place the burden on this court to sort through numerous provisions of various contracts to piece together the plaintiff's theory. The plaintiff must provide specific, easy-to-follow analysis and evidence.

(7) Conclusion. Because the motions for default judgments are both procedurally and substantively deficient in all of the ways set forth above, the tentative ruling is to deny them without prejudice.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." If appearances are required, and you fail to appear without adequately resolving this matter by consent, then you may waive your right to be heard on matters that are appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

Tentative Ruling for 8/22/17:

Appearances required. This court notes that the parties were directed to file a joint status report two weeks in advance of this hearing (dkt. 2), but have not done so. In addition, this court notes that the tentative ruling in the main case status conference (calendar no. 3, 8/22/17 at 2:00 p.m.) is to dismiss the main case, which normally would terminate this adversary proceeding. Nevertheless, to preserve all rights in the event that this court were to be persuaded not to dismiss the main case, this court has reviewed the other filed documents and records in this adversary proceeding and issues the following tentative ruling.

(1) Venue/jurisdiction/authority.

The parties are directed to address any outstanding matters of (a) venue, (b) jurisdiction, (c) this court's authority to enter final orders or judgment(s) in this proceeding and, if consent is required, whether the parties do consent, or have already expressly or impliedly consented. See generally Stern v. Marshall, 131 S.Ct. 2594, 2608 (2011) (if litigant "believed that the Bankruptcy Court lacked the authority to decide his claim...then he should have said so – and said so promptly."); Wellness Int'l Network, Ltd. v. Sharif, 135 S.Ct. 1932 (2015) (consent must be knowing and voluntary but need not be express); In re Bellingham Ins. Agency, Inc., 702 F.3d 553 (9th Cir. 2012) (implied consent), aff'd on other grounds, 134 S. Ct. 2165 (2014); In re Pringle, 495 B.R. 447 (9th Cir. BAP 2013) (rebuttable presumption that failure to challenge authority to issue final order is intentional and indicates consent); In re Deitz, 760 F.3d 1028 (9th Cir. 2014) (authority to adjudicate nondischargeability encompasses authority to liquidate debt and enter final judgment). See generally In re AWTR Liquidation, Inc., 548 B.R. 300 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2016).

(2) Mediation. Is there is any reason why this court should not order the parties to mediation before one of the volunteer mediators (not a Bankruptcy Judge), and meanwhile set the deadlines set forth below?

(3) Deadlines: This adversary proceeding has been pending since 6/19/17. Pursuant to LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B), plaintiff is directed to serve and lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the status conference, attaching a copy of this tentative ruling or otherwise memorializing the following.

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for 4/17/18:

Continue (1) calendar nos. 5, 6 and 7 on today's calendar, and (2) the motion for relief from the automatic stay filed by Ingrid Aliet-Gass for herself and Western States International, Inc. (dkt. 130, the "R/S Motion") all as set forth below. Appearances are not required on 4/17/18.

Specifically, the tentative ruling is as follows:

(1) Continue (a) the status conference in this bankruptcy case, (b) the status conference in adversary proceeding no. 2:17-ap-01326-NB, and (c) the debtor's motion to amend the complaint in that adversary proceeding (adv. dkt. 125, and see adv. dkt. 130, 131, 139, 142) to be concurrent with (d) the motion by the Bureau of Land Management ("BLM") to dismiss the separate adversary proceeding against it (no. 2:18-ap-01057-NB, adv. dkt. 7), which is currently scheduled for 5/8/18 at 2:00 p.m.

(2) Continue the R/S Motion, which is currently set for 5/1/18 at 10:00 a.m., to the same date and time.

After this hearing date this Court will prepare an order continuing all of the foregoing matters and will serve it on the BLM, Aliet-Gass, and Western States International, Inc. at the addresses known to this Court, and that order will also direct the debtor to serve those parties and any other known parties with an interest in the foregoing matters.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 11/23/16.

(a) Bar date: 7/10/17 and 1/26/18 (sufficiently served, dkt. 56, 60, 103, 107, 110, 111, 121, 123).

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: TBD.

Tentative Ruling for 3/6/18:
Appearances required.

(1) Current issues.

(a) Default judgment motion - Wilshee (adv. dkt. 140). Deny for lack of service. See dkt. 140 at PDF p.4 (serving defendant at "ENTER ADDRESS HERE").

(b) Default judgment motion - JNDDC, LLC (adv. dkt. 135). Deny for lack of service. See dkt. 135, last two pages (defendant not listed in service list).

(c) Default judgment motion - Flavio Rodriguez (adv. dkt. 133). Deny for lack of service. See dkt. 133 at PDF p.8 (marked up by someone - movant? - to show deficiencies in completion of proof of service) and dkt. 133 last two pages (defendant not listed on service list).

(d) Default judgment motion - Jag Pathirana (adv. dkt. 134). Grant. It appears that plaintiff has abandoned claims against defendant Jag Pathirana other than "clearing title" to the plaintiff/debtor's alleged property interests at issue in the complaint. That appears to moot the relevant concerns previously raised by this court (see adv. dkt. 116, exhibit).

(e) Case status report (case dkt. 122) and adversary proceeding against Bureau of Land Management (Adv. No. 2:18-ap-01057-NB). The debtor should be prepared to provide an update as to the status of these matters.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 11/23/16.

(1) Current issues.

(a) Status Reports (main case dkt. 122; adv. no. 2:17-ap-01326-NB, dkt. 132). The debtor/plaintiff suggests that it will be filing a motion to approve a disclosure statement. Is that premature, given the following issues?

(b) Motion to amend complaint (adv. dkt. 125). The parties should be prepared to address the issues raised in the motion and in the oppositions filed by the California Department of Conservation, Division of Oil and Gas, and Geothermal Resources ("DOGGR") (adv. dkt. 125, 130, 131).

In addition, the debtor/plaintiff should be prepared to address whether the proposed amended complaint cures the deficiencies in the original complaint, and whether any ruling on the motion to amend the complaint should be deferred until after default judgments are (or are not) obtained on the existing (original) complaint, for the reasons set forth in this Court's Memorialization Of Reasons For Denying Motions For Default Judgments (captioned for the adversary proceeding but erroneously filed in the main

(a) Bar date: initial date of 7/10/17 (order timely served, dkt. 56, 60, 103, 111, 121, 123); supplemental date of 1/26/18 (order served late, but the tentative ruling is to excuse that lateness, dkt. 107, 110).

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: TBD.

(c) Continued status conference: 3/20/18 at 2:00 p.m., status report due 3/6/18.

If appearances are required, and you fail to appear without adequately resolving this matter by consent, then you may waive your right to be heard on matters that are appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

Tentative Ruling for 1/23/18:

Continue the status conferences in both the main case and the adversary proceeding (adv. no. 2:17-ap-01326-NB) to 2/13/18 at 2:00 p.m. with a status report due 2/6/18 (at which time other documents are also due as set forth below) for the reasons set forth below. Appearances are not required on 1/23/18.

(1) Current issues

(a) Reasons for continuance: (i) because of the problems noted below; (ii) because of the debtor's untimely last-minute filing of status reports (the debtor is cautioned that continued untimely filings may result in sanctions); (iii) because of the inability of the Office of the United States Trustee to appear due to the shutdown of much of the federal government, (iv) to be concurrent with the (improperly self-calendared) motion to amend the complaint, and (v) in view of the debtor's various status reports (main case dkt. 117, adv. dkt. 122, 127, 129).

(b) Bar date. The debtor's proofs of service of the bar date order are missing exhibits and incomprehensible (see dkt. 110, 111). The debtor is directed to file, no later than 2/6/18, either a corrected proof of service or an application (supported by a declaration) to set yet another supplemental bar date - whichever is appropriate.

(c) Status of existing complaint in adversary proceeding. On 11/20/17 this court issued an order (adv. dkt. 117) denying the plaintiff/debtor's motions for default judgments, without prejudice. The debtor now seeks to amend the complaint (adv. dkt. 125). All of these things moot the motions for default judgments so the hearings on those motions have been vacated.

In addition, the tentative ruling is to memorialize this court's reasons for denying the motions for default judgments by filing on the docket a copy of this court's adopted tentative ruling for the 11/14/17 hearings on those motions (reproduced within the tentative ruling for calendar no. 9. 1/23/18 at 2:00 p.m.).

(d) Motion to amend complaint (adv. dkt. 125). This motion was self-calendared for 2:00 p.m. (a time that cannot be used for self-calendaring) on 2/13/18. Nevertheless, the tentative ruling is to permit that motion to proceed at that time.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 11/23/16.

(a) Bar date: initial date of 7/10/17 (order timely served, dkt. 56, 60); supplemental date of 1/26/18, to be served no later than 11/15/17 (per Order, dkt. 107) but proofs of service are incomprehensible (dkt. 110, 111) - see above under "current issues".

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: TBD.

are required, and you fail to appear without adequately resolving this matter by consent, then you may waive your right to be heard on matters that are appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

Tentative Ruling for 11/14/17:

Appearances required but telephonic appearances are encouraged if advance arrangements are made (see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.", "Instructions/Procedures").

There is no tentative ruling, but the parties should be prepared to address the following issues.

(1) Current issues. The debtor has filed a second (very belated) proof of service (dkt. 103) of this court's order (dkt. 56) setting a bar date. Under that order the bar date was set as 7/10/17 and service was required no later than 5/8/17. What does the debtor's belated service do except cause confusion? Does the debtor require a new bar date for previously unknown creditors?

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 11/23/16. If this case is not converted or dismissed, the tentative ruling is to set the following:

(a) Bar date: 7/10/17 (order timely served, dkt. 56, 60; but see above under "current issues").

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: TBD.

(c) Continued status conference: 1/30/18 at 2:00 p.m., status report due 1/16/18.

*Warning: special procedures apply (see order setting initial status conference).

The tentative ruling is to dismiss this case with a 180 day bar for willful failure to appear in proper prosecution, as set forth below. See 11 U.S.C. 109(g)(1). Appearances are not required.

Reasons: This case was filed on 11/23/16. The debtor's assets consist of disputed rights in hydrocarbon leases. See Status Report, dkt. 81. Realizing any value from those rights apparently depends on retaining special counsel who will diligently prosecute the debtor's claims. Despite numerous opportunities, the debtor has failed to satisfy the prerequisites for retention of special counsel.

(1) Inadequate declarations about "connections"

At the hearing on 7/11/17 this court extensively reviewed the evidence that would be required before this court could approve the application to employ the latest proposed special counsel, Mr. Montes. That included a requirement of detailed declarations from Mr. and Mrs. Hoats regarding any transfers of any property (including intangible property) involving the debtor and any of them, as well as any other "connections" (as that term is used in Rule 2014, Fed. R. Bankr. P.) to the debtor and any other party in interest.

This court recognizes that Mr. and Mrs. Hoats are not the professionals whose employment is being sought. Nevertheless, given their very close ties to the debtor, and their failure to disclose connections to the prior proposed special counsel that raised questions about conflicts of interest, this court orally ordered the debtor to provide their declarations at the hearing on 5/2/17. That order has been ignored.

(2) Knudsen factors

This court also directed Mr. Montes to file a declaration addressing the factors that this court must consider in assessing his request to be paid more frequently than once every 120 days. See In re Knudsen, 84 B.R. 668, 672-73 (9th Cir. BAP 1988). Mr. Montes has filed such a declaration (dkt. 82) and has adequately summarized the factors (id., p.3:15-23) but he has not adequately addressed the third factor, which he summarizes as: "any funds paid but later disapproved by the court can be recovered from the professional" in one or more of the ways listed in Knudsen. (Emphasis added.) Those ways are:

- [a. Holdback] retainer payments are for only a percentage of the amount billed so that the likelihood or necessity of repayment is minimal [Mr. Montes suggests a 10% holdback, which has not been shown to be adequate - the typical amount is 20%, and that typically applies only to well established firms whose ability to repay funds is reinforced by the firm's longevity and reputation or similar considerations];

[b. Bond] counsel can post a bond covering any possible reassessment [Mr. Montes has not addressed this factor];

[c. Financial ability to repay] counsel's financial position makes it certain that any reassessment can be repaid [Mr. Montes has not addressed this factor]; [and/or]

[d. Hold funds in trust account] funds paid prior to allowance are held in a trust account until a final or interim fee allowance is made [Mr. Montes has only offered to place the 10% proposed holdback in a trust account]. [Knudsen, 84 B.R. 668, at 672]

(3) The debtor appears to cite the wrong statutory authority

The debtor's application to employ Mr. Montes (dkt. 65) requests that his employment be approved under subsection "(e)" of 11 U.S.C. 327. But that subsection only applies by its terms to an attorney who "has represented the debtor" (i.e., prepetition counsel whose employment is to continue postpetition). Id. (emphasis added).

That is not the end of the analysis, because it has been held that special counsel can be employed even when such counsel has not represented the debtor prepetition. See In re Fondiller, 15 B.R. 890, 892 (9th Cir. BAP 1981) (emphasis added), appeal dismissed, 707 F.2d 441 (9th Cir. 1983). Although Fondiller has been interpreted as authorizing employment under subsection (e) (see, e.g., Covenant Fin. Group of Am., Inc., 243 B.R. 450, 455 & n. 8 (Bankr. N.D. Ala. 1999)), the precise holding of Fondiller appears to be that special counsel can be employed under subsection "(a)" of Section 327 because any "omission" in subsection "(e)" does not limit the general authority in subsection "(a)." See Fondiller, 15 B.R. at 891-92 (interpreting § 327(a) by comparison with §§ 327(c) and (e)).

True, the precise statutory authority appears to make little if any practical difference, because Fondiller held that when counsel is only employed to perform limited services, then an interest "adverse to the estate" means "an adverse interest relating to the services which are to be performed by that attorney," which appears to mean that the inquiry for proposed special counsel under subsection "(a)" is the same as under subsection "(e)." Fondiller, 15 B.R. at 892 (emphasis added). Mr. Montes' declaration (included in dkt. 65) appears to meet this test because he states that he has no adverse interest.

Nevertheless, as stated above this court has required additional evidence from Mr. and Mrs. Hoats and that evidence has not been provided. In addition, because the debtor has sought authority under subsection "(e)" instead of "(a)" it appears not have met the technical requirements for employment of Mr. Montes.

Appearances required.

(1) Current issues

(a) Employment of special counsel. Deny the application to employ the Law Offices of M. Brian McMahon (dkt. 46) because he no longer intends to pursue employment. See dkt. 73, para. 3. Deny the application to employ the Law Offices of Mike Montes, Jr. (dkt. 65) due to the failure to address the issues raised by this court in the tentative ruling for 5/2/17 (reproduced below) (without reaching the issues raised by the U.S. Trustee's objection, dkt. 72, and the debtor's reply, dkt. 74). The U.S. Trustee is directed to lodge proposed orders denying each application within seven days after this hearing date.

(b) Lack of progress. Should this case be dismissed for lack of prosecution?

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 11/23/16. If this case is not converted or dismissed, the tentative ruling is to set the following:

(a) Bar date: 7/10/17 (order timely served, dkt. 56, 60).

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: TBD.

(c) Continued status conference: 8/22/17 at 2:00 p.m., status report due 8/15/17.

Tentative Ruling for 6/13/17:

Continue to 7/11/17 at 1:00 p.m. to allow the debtor time to prosecute an employment application regarding Mr. Motes (see debtor's case status report, dkt. 62). Appearances are not required on 6/13/17.

Tentative Ruling for 5/2/17:

Appearances required. There is no tentative ruling, but the debtor's proposed attorney, Brian McMahon Esq., should be prepared to address the concerns set forth in the U.S. Trustee's objection (dkt. 49) and the other issues set forth below.

(1) Current issues.

(a) Proposed special counsel.

(i) Background. On 4/5/17 the debtor filed an application for authority to employ the law offices of Mr. McMahon as special counsel under 11 U.S.C. 327(e) (dkt. 47). On 4/12/17 the United States Trustee ("UST") filed an objection to the employment application, which expressed concerns about the payment arrangement proposed in the application (dkt. 49).

The debtor filed a statement of disinterestedness for Mr. McMahon (dkt.53), and a reply (dkt.55), stating that a third party, Ms. Lilian Hoats, will be paying the attorney fees for Mr. McMahon's representation. Ms. Hoats is the CEO of Inviron Technologies, Inc. ("Managing Member"), which is the debtor's managing member (dkt. 55, Ex.1, p.1, recital "b"). Attached to the reply (dkt. 55, Ex.1) is a written document that purports to be a waiver of conflicts (if any exist) among the debtor, Ms. Hoats, and the Managing Member (the "Hoats/Managing Member Conflict Waiver").

The Attorney-Client Retainer Agreement attached to the employment application (dkt. 46, Ex.1) provides that Mr. McMahon is representing not only the debtor but also its affiliates Riverwood Energy, LLC ("Energy Affiliate") and Riverwood Resources Ltd. ("Resources Affiliate"). This court is not aware of the precise organizational and contractual relationships among the debtor, Energy Affiliate, and Resources Affiliate, nor of any written document purporting to be a waiver of conflicts (if any exist) among them.

(ii) Statutory provisions and rules

Although special counsel does not have to be "distinterested" (compare 11 U.S.C. 327(a)), special counsel still must not "represent or hold any interest adverse to the debtor or to the estate with respect to the matter on which such attorney is to be employed." 11 U.S.C. 327(e) (emphasis added). Under Rule 2014 (Fed. R. Bankr. P.) both Mr. McMahon and the debtor were supposed to disclose all connections between Mr. McMahon and "the debtor, creditors, any other party in interest, their respective attorneys and accountants, the United States trustee, or any person employed in the office of the United States trustee."

The disclosures have not been adequate. This court does not know enough about the underlying litigation and the organizational and contractual relationships among the various entities to assess whether there may be conflicts of interest between the debtor, on the one hand, and Ms. Hoats, Managing Member, Energy Affiliate, and/or Resource Affiliate.

(iii) A DIP's conflicts generally cannot be waived

Any purported conflict waiver probably cannot waive actual conflicts. See, e.g., In re Perry, 194 B.R. 875, 880 (E.D.Cal.1996) (waiver of conflict by non-debtor parties was insufficient and "[i]nformed consent could not be obtained" because "the real parties in interest in this case are the creditors, and that is not a waivable conflict"); In re B.E.S. Concrete Products, Inc., 93 B.R. 228, 235 (Bankr. E.D. Cal. 1988).

But while actual conflicts of interest create a violation of 11 U.S.C. 327 which would require disqualification of the proposed professional, the mere existence of a potential conflict of interest does not require disqualification, and it is up to the court's discretion whether the purported conflict is sufficiently threatening to the estate to warrant disqualification. In re Wheatfield Business Park, LLC, 286 B.R. 412, 421 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2002).

Are proposed counsel and the debtor aware of any actual conflicts?
How about potential conflicts?

(iv) The purported conflict waiver is incomplete

The Hoats/Managing Member Conflict Waiver is not actually signed by Ms. Hoats in her individual capacity (she has only signed it on behalf of the debtor's Managing Member). In addition, as noted above, this court is not aware of any purported conflict waiver among the debtor and Operating Affiliate or Resources Affiliate.

(v) There might be conflicts among the debtor and Ms. Hoats

A third party who funds a retainer for the debtor (the "Funder") generally has some pre-existing relationship with the debtor, and/or some motivation to providing the funding. Those things increase the likelihood that the Funder could be the recipient of an avoidable preference, or might have alter ego liability, or otherwise might have interests that are adverse to (or at least not fully aligned with) the bankruptcy estate or creditors. For these reasons, although payment of a retainer by a third party is not outright prohibited, it is fraught with ethical concerns. At the hearing, counsel for the debtor and proposed special counsel should be prepared to address the following.

(A) Terms. What are the precise agreements, understandings or expectations regarding the funds -- e.g., are the funds a loan, a gift, an investment, or something else?

(B) Informed consent of Funder. Has the Funder been advised regarding actual and potential conflicts of interest, and that the sole attorney-client relationship and duty of loyalty is with the debtor, not the Funder? Who provided such advice: independent counsel? counsel for the debtor? the debtor's proposed special counsel? Has the Funder given informed consent? Are those things in writing?

(C) Informed consent of debtor. Has the debtor likewise been fully advised and given informed consent? Who provided such advice? Are these things in writing? Ms. Hoats has signed the Hoats/Managing Member conflict waiver on behalf of the debtor: how can she, acting for the debtor, waive conflicts with herself?

(D) Other considerations. Has proposed special counsel demonstrated or represented to the Court the absence of an actual or potential conflict, a lack of disinterestedness, or any other basis for disqualification? See In re Kelton Motors, Inc., 109 B.R. 641 (Bankr. D. Vt. 1989); In re Lotus Prop's LP, 200 B.R. 388 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 1996) (rejecting per se disqualification when fees are paid by third party); and compare In re Hathaway Ranch Partnership, 116 B.R. 208, 219 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 1990) (per se rule). See generally In re Park-Helena Corp., 63 F.3d 877 (9th Cir. 1995).

(1) Current issues

This case was filed on 11/23/16. The debtor's status report (dkt. 34) states that the debtor intends to retain special counsel, and the monthly operating reports (dkt. 37, 38) appear to show no activity other than opening DIP bank accounts and paying associated fees. Although progress in this case has been slow, it does not appear efficient to hold a status conference at this time. If substantially more progress is not shown by the next status conference, this court may dismiss this case for failure to appear in proper prosecution. See 11 U.S.C. 109(g)(1), 349.

Docket 0

Tentative Ruling:

Appearances required by telephone - advance arrangements must be made through CourtCall (see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.", "Instructions/Procedures").

There is no tentative ruling, but the parties should be prepared to address what procedures should apply to this mediation. As the parties have been advised through Judge Bason's law clerk, his mediation procedures are as follows:

[Mediation] Procedures. Judge Bason has no set requirements or procedures, except that for out-of-district mediation he requires (1) that the parties sign some sort of confidentiality agreement (similar to local form 708) and (2) that they agree to be bound by appropriate procedures for mediation (e.g., this district's mediation rules, available on the court's website – so that, e.g., if a party to the mediation were to violate the confidentiality requirements then that would be treated the same as a violation of the local rules and/or the local form of order directing the parties to mediation, and that could subject the offending party to sanctions). Judge Bason prefers to have an initial status conference either by phone or in person, at which he will determine if mediation briefs are needed, and other procedures. Typical procedures might include the following, at least a week in advance: (1) a short summary from each party (e.g., a 3 page letter brief served on each party plus an addendum of up to 2 pages of "Mediator's Eyes Only" discussion) and (2) key documents (e.g., up to 50 pages of excerpts and/or complete documents, preferably served on all parties, but if appropriate then some or all of the documents can also be "Mediator's Eyes Only"). If the parties can agree on these or other types of procedures then Judge Bason typically defers to them, although he may impose limitations for the sake of efficiency and his own needs.

In applying the foregoing general guidelines to this particular matter, the parties should keep in mind Judge Bason's limited knowledge of the parties' disputes (e.g., if the parties want Judge Bason to review certain filed documents prior to the mediation, they should say so). Judge Bason has intentionally avoided any review at this time, both because that would be inefficient until he knows the main points of dispute, and so that the mediation can start with a "clean slate."

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." If appearances are required, and you fail to appear without adequately resolving this matter by consent, then you may waive your right to be heard on matters that are appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

Appearances required. There is no tentative ruling, but the parties should be prepared to address (a) whether the alleged arrears have been brought current and/or (b) whether they will agree to the terms of an adequate protection order (see the debtor's response, dkt. 55).

#2.00 Hrg re: Motion for relief from stay [RP]

U.S. BANK TRUST, NA
DEBTOR

Docket 46

Tentative Ruling:

Grant as provided below. Appearances are not required.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this court's final ruling. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

Key documents reviewed (in addition to motion papers): debtor's opposition (dkt. 48, the "Opposition").

Analysis: The Opposition fails to provide any support for its allegations. The Opposition asserts that not all required parties were served and that there was inadequate notice of the hearing (dkt. 48, p.2, section 3.a.). But the debtor provides no explanation why he believes that is so. The motion includes this Court's form notice, and the proof of service shows that the motion was served on the debtor and his attorney on 4/5/18, which is fully compliant with the applicable rules for service.

The Opposition also asserts that "[m]ore and more bankruptcy courts across the country are holding that debtors/mortgagors are intended third party beneficiaries of the HAMP program" (dkt. 48, at PDF p.3, para. 4) and on that basis the debtor apparently asserts that he has standing to raise alleged HAMP violations as a defense to foreclosure, and that this Court has the power to "order Creditor to evaluate debtor for a HAMP and put him in a trial period." Id., para. 9. The debtor fails to cite any authority for these assertions, and this Court is not persuaded that (a) it has any authority to order the movant to modify its loan (i.e., to require that the debtor be permitted to retain the property that he purchased with borrowed money, without having to abide by his promise to repay that borrowed money).

In sum, the debtor's Opposition fails to provide any explanation or authority for its assertions, and it is unpersuasive. Therefore the tentative ruling is to grant the following relief.

Termination. Terminate the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1).

Any co-debtor stay (11 U.S.C. 1301(c)) is also terminated, because it has not been shown to have any basis to exist independent of the stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(a). To the extent, if any, that the motion seeks to terminate the automatic stay in other past or pending bankruptcy cases, such relief is denied on the present record. See In re Ervin (Case No. 14-bk-18204-NB, docket no. 311).

Effective date of relief. Grant the request to waive the 14-day stay provided by FRBP 4001(a)(3) because the debtor's Chapter 13 Plan misleadingly stated that the debtor's intention was to surrender this property, and because he has failed to do so the movant has been forced to bring this motion for relief from the automatic stay, so the debtor has already obtained a delay of more than 14 days.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." Grant as provided below. Appearances are not required.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

Termination. Terminate the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1) and (d)(2).

Any co-debtor stay (11 U.S.C. 1301(c)) is also terminated, because it has not been shown to have any basis to exist independent of the stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(a). To the extent, if any, that the motion seeks to terminate the automatic stay in other past or pending bankruptcy cases, such relief is denied on the present record. See In re Ervin (Case No. 14-bk-18204-NB, docket no. 311).

Effective date of relief. Grant the request to waive the 14-day stay provided by FRBP 4001(a)(3).

Docket 21

Tentative Ruling:

Grant as provided below. Appearances are not required.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this court's final ruling. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

The movant has not established that the automatic stay does not apply at all. Deny the request for an order confirming that no stay is in effect. Movant has not established an exception to the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(b) or (c) because Movant has failed to include any analysis or evidence in support of such a finding.

The tentative ruling is to grant relief from the automatic stay as follows.

Termination. Terminate the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1) and (d)(4).

Any co-debtor stay (11 U.S.C. 1301(c)) is also terminated, because it has not been shown to have any basis to exist independent of the stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(a). To the extent, if any, that the motion seeks to terminate the automatic stay in other past or pending bankruptcy cases, such relief is denied on the present record. See In re Ervin (Case No. 14-bk-18204-NB, docket no. 311).

Retroactive relief. Grant the request for retroactive annulment of the stay. See In re Fjeldsted, 293 B.R. 12 (9th Cir. BAP 2003).

For the avoidance of doubt, any acts by the movant to obtain exclusive possession of such property shall not be stayed. Any additional request for relief applicable to future bankruptcy cases is denied (e.g., any request to grant relief against third parties without any notice is denied) due to lack of sufficient factual or legal grounds presented in support of such relief.

Appearances required but telephonic appearances are encouraged if advance arrangements are made (see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.", "Instructions/Procedures").

This Court presumes that counsel for the movant will not seek to charge the debtor or the estate any fees for appearing at this hearing because such appearance would have been unnecessary if the correct procedures had been followed (if counsel intends to do otherwise, that must be raised and argued at the hearing).

Analysis: The motion papers were not served until 4/17/18 (14 days before the hearing) (see dkt. 34, 35). Judge Bason's posted procedures permit parties to file this type of motion on shortened time without prior approval, but Movant failed to comply with the instructions in the posted procedures, which requires amendment of the local notice form to state that (i) the motion is being brought on shortened notice and, (ii) oppositions must be filed at least five calendar days before the self-calendered hearing date.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this court's final ruling. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

Termination. Terminate the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1) and (d)(2).

Grant as provided below, subject to any opposition at the hearing, for the reasons set forth below. Appearances required but telephonic appearances are encouraged if advance arrangements are made (see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.", "Instructions/Procedures").

This Court presumes that counsel for the movant will not seek to charge the debtor or the estate any fees for appearing at this hearing because such appearance would have been unnecessary if the correct procedures had been followed (if counsel intends to do otherwise, that must be raised and argued at the hearing).

After the hearing date, if this Court is not persuaded to depart from this tentative ruling, this Court will prepare an order and the tentative ruling is to include the following language in that order:

The stay of 11 U.S.C. 362(a) applies subject to the following modifications and conditions:

(1) Service and reconsideration. Any party in interest who was not timely served in accordance with FRBP 7004 (incorporated by FRBP 9014(b)) is hereby granted through 14 days after proper service to seek reconsideration, including retroactive relief (under FRBP 9023 and/or 9024). Any such person (a) may set a hearing on 14 days' notice, (b) may appear by telephone (if arrangements are made per Judge Bason's posted procedures), and (c) may present all arguments orally at the hearing (i.e., no written argument is required). If written arguments appear necessary then this court will set a briefing schedule at the hearing.

#18.00 Hrg re: Motion in Individual Case for Order
Imposing a Stay or Continuing the Automatic
Stay as the Court Deems Appropriate

Docket 12

Tentative Ruling:

Grant, subject to the following conditions. Appearances are not required.

After the hearing date this court will prepare an order and the tentative ruling is to include the following language in that order:

The stay of 11 U.S.C. 362(a) applies subject to the following modifications and conditions:

(1) Service and reconsideration. Any party in interest who was not timely served in accordance with FRBP 7004 (incorporated by FRBP 9014(b)) is hereby granted through 14 days after proper service to seek reconsideration, including retroactive relief (under FRBP 9023 and/or 9024). Any such person (a) may set a hearing on 14 days' notice, (b) may appear by telephone (if arrangements are made per Judge Bason's posted procedures), and (c) may present all arguments orally at the hearing (i.e., no written argument is required). If written arguments appear necessary then this court will set a briefing schedule at the hearing.

(2) Reasons. (a) It appears appropriate to impose the automatic stay, and to impose it as to all persons rather than just as to selected persons, because one purpose of the automatic stay is to preventing a "race to collect" that could unfairly advantage some creditors at the expense of others. (b) To prevent possible abuse, this court provides the foregoing simple process for reconsideration.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." Tentative Ruling for 5/1/18:

Appearances required but telephonic appearances are encouraged if advance arrangements are made (see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.", "Instructions/Procedures").

At the 4/10/18 hearing on the motion, this court continued the hearing at the debtor's request to provide additional time to negotiate the terms of an adequate protection agreement. This Court directed the debtor's counsel to provide notice of the continued hearing but the docket does not reflect such notice - why not?

There is no tentative ruling, but the parties should be prepared to address (a) whether the alleged arrears have been brought current and/or (b) whether they will agree to the terms of an adequate protection order.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." Chapter 13

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

Termination. Terminate the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1).

Any co-debtor stay (11 U.S.C. 1301(c)) is also terminated, because it has not been shown to have any basis to exist independent of the stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(a). To the extent, if any, that the motion seeks to terminate the automatic stay in other past or pending bankruptcy cases, such relief is denied on the present record. See In re Ervin (Case No. 14-bk-18204-NB, docket no. 311).

Relief applicable in future bankruptcy cases. Deny the request for relief under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(4) for lack of cause shown.

Effective date of relief. Deny the request to waive the 14-day stay provided by FRBP 4001(a)(3) for lack of sufficient cause shown.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." Tentative Ruling for 5/1/18:

Appearances required but telephonic appearances are encouraged if advance arrangements are made (see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.", "Instructions/Procedures"). At the 4/17/18 hearing, this court continued the matter for the parties to finalize the terms of an adequate protection agreement and directed the movant to give notice of the continuance by 4/19/18, which the movant timely did. This court had previously continued the matter from 3/20/18 for this same purpose (see dkt. 201, 203, 205). There is no tentative ruling, but the parties should be prepared to address (a) whether the alleged arrears have been brought current and/or (b) whether they will agree to the terms of an adequate protection order.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." If appearances are required, and you fail to appear without adequately resolving this matter by consent, then you may waive your right to be heard on matters that are appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

Tentative Ruling for 5/1/18:

Deny for the reasons set forth below. Appearances are not required.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this court's final ruling. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

Reasons for denial: This Court's tentative ruling for 4/17/18 (below) directed movant to serve the debtor with the motion and file an amended proof of service by 4/18/18. Although movant filed a notice of continuance (dkt. 35) on 4/17/18, the proof of service does not reflect service on the debtor and there is nothing in the record to show that movant served the underlying motion on the debtor. The tentative ruling is to deny the motion, without prejudice, for failure to comply with this Court's order.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." Option for shortened time: This court has selected a continued hearing date that contemplates shortened notice (per Rule 9006) but that date is conditioned on the movant serving all papers on the day after the current hearing date. Alternatively, the movant may self-calendar a continued hearing on regular notice.

Reasons:

(1) Service. The Motion was not served on the debtor pursuant to LBR 4001-1(c)(1)(C)(i) and 4001-1(e)(2) - service on the debtor's attorney is not sufficient by itself. Movant is directed to file an amended proof of service reflecting service on the debtor by 4/18/18.

Appearances required but telephonic appearances are encouraged if advance arrangements are made (see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.", "Instructions/Procedures"). This court has reviewed the parties' joint status report (dkt. 27).

(1) Mediation. The tentative ruling is to order mandatory mediation (again), with a deadline of 5/15/18 for the parties to lodge proposed mediation order (s).

(2) Deadlines: This adversary proceeding has been pending since 2/24/17. Due to the parties' prior delays and an anticipated settlement the normal deadlines for completion of discovery and other matters have not been applied. The tentative ruling is to set the following deadlines, to run concurrent with the parties' mediation. The parties are cautioned that once the following deadlines have been established this Court is unlikely to be persuaded to amend them.

Pursuant to LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B), plaintiff is directed to serve and lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the status conference, attaching a copy of this tentative ruling or otherwise memorializing the following.

Appearances required by counsel for the debtor but telephonic appearances are encouraged if advance arrangements are made (see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.", "Instructions/Procedures").

(1) Current issues. This Court has reviewed the debtors' status report (dkt. 85), the Amended Plan (dkt. 80), Amended Disclosure Statement (dkt. 81), and other relevant pleadings.

(a) Exhibit F (Discl. Stmt., dkt. 81, at PDF p.12). This exhibit continues to contain the same errors identified in this court's tentative ruling for 10/3/17: line "1" lists general unsecured claims of $64,716, the source for which is listed as dkt.10, plus another $7,970.39 in line "8" from a "Continuation Sheet"; but dkt.10 is not a listing of creditors (it is a notice of commencement of this case and the meeting of creditors), the only bankruptcy Schedule E/F that appears on the docket (dkt.1) lists general unsecured claims of $64,672.60, and there is no "Continuation Sheet" attached.

(b) Exhibit C (Discl. Stmt., dkt. 81, at PDF p.7). This document references "Exhibit I" - apparently meaning bankruptcy Schedules I & J (dkt.1) - as the source of the gross income and expenses used to calculate the debtor's cash flow. But there are several problems with this approach.

First, when using bankruptcy Schedules I and J there is a danger of double-counting: bankruptcy Schedule J includes debt payments on lines 17 and 20 - namely $474.10/mo for vehicle1, $500/mo for vehicle2, $900/mo for a home equity loan on rental property, and $1,219.99/mo for the mortgage on rental property - but the Plan includes payments of those same debts:

Chapter 11

Classes 2D and 2E are payments of vehicle loans, and Classes 2A and 2B are payments of loans secured by real property (in other words, the Plan pays the same debts again).

Second, when using bankruptcy Schedules I&J a plan proponent is supposed to use Exhibit C-1 to the Disclosure Statement. That spreadsheet includes lines to make adjustments to eliminate the double-counting problem.

Third, bankruptcy Schedule I (dkt.1), line 8a, includes an instruction to "Attach a statement for each property and business showing gross receipts, ordinary and necessary business expenses, and the total monthly net income." The debtors have failed to provide any such statements, and as a result there is inadequate disclosure of the cash flow in support of the Disclosure Statement. It is true that the debtors have attached such a statement as part of their budget motion in the form of a spreadsheet (dkt. 20, at PDF p.8), but that spreadsheet includes debt payment (so, again, it double-counts payments on such debt) and in any event no such spreadsheet is attached to the Disclosure Statement (or incorporated by reference).

Fourth, the debtor's status report (dkt. 85) suggests that the finances described in bankruptcy Schedules I & J (dkt. 1) and the budget motion (dkt. 20) are all out of date. Apparently the debtors have moved from their prior residence into their former rental property and they are renting out their former residence, and they no longer have the costs of a storage locker. The debtors should have filed the local form statement of postpetition income and expenses (with statements showing gross income, expenses, and net income from their current rental property as an exhibit). Then they should attach a copy of that form and exhibit to their Disclosure Statement so as to provide accurate, current information about their cash flow.

(d) Effective date. The proposed effective date of 6/1/18 does not leave adequate time (i) to file a further amended plan and further amended disclosure statement; (ii) to have a further status conference to review those documents; and (iii) to disseminate the amended plan and amended disclosure statement for voting and hold a confirmation hearing. The debtors are directed to modify the effective date to 9/1/18.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 5/10/17.

(a) Bar date: 8/31/17 (timely served, dkt. 26).

(b) AmPlan/AmDisclosure Statement* (dkt. 80, 81): The tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 5/8/18 to file (NOT SERVE - except on

(a) Amended Plan, Amended Disclosure Statement: Counsel for the debtors should be prepared to address the status of the debtors' efforts to reach agreements with their secured creditors.

(b) Monthly Operating Reports ("MORs"). Counsel for the debtor must explain at the hearing the enties reflecting transfers of $1,000 and $8,300 to "cash" "due to bk dismissal" listed in MOR#9 (dkt.76 at PDF pp.3&6, entries for 1/23/18 & 1/17/18). Has the debtor properly accounted for use of the cash while this case was dismissed?

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 5/10/17.

Appearances required. If this court is persuaded to vacate the dismissal (see calendar No. 3, 1/30/18 at 1:00 p.m.), the tentative ruling will be to continue the status conference to March 6, 2018 at 1:00 p.m. and set a hard deadline of March 30, 2018 for the debtors to file an amended plan and disclosure statement.

(1) Current issues.

(a) Plan/Disclosure Statement (dkt. 44, 45). There is a blank page in the plan that should be deleted (dkt. 44 at PDF p.11).

Exhibit F (dkt. 45 at PDF p.12) appears to contain some errors: line "1" lists general unsecured claims of $64,716, the source for which is listed as dkt.10, plus another $7,970.39 in line "8" from a "Continuation Sheet"; but dkt.10 is not a listing of creditors (it is a notice of commencement of this case and the meeting of creditors), the only bankruptcy Schedule E/F that appears on the docket (dkt.1) lists general unsecured claims of $64,672.60, and there is no "Continuation Sheet" attached.

The debtor discloses (dkt. 45, Ex.H, at PDF p.14, Endnotes 2B-2E) that agreements have yet to be reached with various secured creditors; and therefore it appears appropriate to defer any solicitation of votes. The debtor's counsel should be prepared to address how long it is expected to take before agreements are reached or unresolved disputes are ready for presentation to this court for decision.

Chapter 11

If you do not appear, and the matter is not adequately resolved by consent, then you may waive your right to be heard on matters that are appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

Tentative Ruling for 6/20/17:

Grant the budget motion and continue the status conference as set forth below. Appearances are not required on 6/20/17.

(1) Current issues.

(a) Budget motion. This court mistakenly ruled at the status conference on 6/13/17 that the budget motion would be granted on a final basis, not realizing that the 6/13/17 hearing on that motion had been vacated because an amended motion had been filed and set for hearing on this 6/20/17 date. See dkt. 16, 20. Notwithstanding that error, no opposition has been filed to the budget motion, and the tentative ruling is to issue an order after this hearing granting the amended motion on a final basis (the debtor is directed to lodge a proposed order within seven days after this hearing date).

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 5/10/17.

(a) Bar date: 8/31/17 (dkt. 23) - to be served by 8/20/17

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: file by 9/15/17 using the forms required by Judge Bason (DO NOT SERVE yet, except on the U.S. Trustee - the court will set a deadline and procedures at a later time).

but telephonic appearances are encouraged if advance arrangements are made (see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.", "Instructions/Procedures").

(1) Current issues.

(a) Budget motion. The debtors' amended budget motion filed on 6/1/17 (dkt. 20) appears to have only partially cured the defects pointed out by the U.S. Trustee in its opposition (dkt. 19) to the initial budget motion (dkt. 16). First, the debtor and/or spouse apparently has income from a property or business but has failed to provide a breakdown of gross receipts, ordinary and necessary business expenses, and calculation of the resulting monthly net income. See dkt. 20 at PDF p.7 (bankruptcy schedule "I" line 8a).

Second, the budget motion includes both (a) bankruptcy schedules "I" and "J" and (b) a spreadsheet showing what appears to be largely or entirely duplicative data. Which one controls (or are both the same)?

Third, the notice of the amended motion incorrectly provides that oppositions are due 14 days prior to the hearing on the motion, although the motion was set on shortened notice pursuant to this court's posted Procedures. For this reason, this court intends to hear oppositions to the amended budget motion at the hearing on 6/13/17.

The tentative ruling is to grant the budget motion on an interim basis, based on the proposed budget spreadsheet (not bankruptcy schedules "I" and "J"), with a deadline of 6/14/17 to file a supplemental declaration providing a thorough breakdown of gross revenues, expenses and calculation of net income for each property/business, and with a continued hearing on 6/20/17 at 1:00 p.m.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 5/10/17.

(a) Bar date: 8/31/17 (DO NOT SERVE notice yet - court will prepare an order after the status conference).

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: file by 9/15/17 using the forms required by Judge Bason (DO NOT SERVE yet, except on the U.S. Trustee - the court will set a deadline and procedures at a later time).

Tentative Ruling for 5/1/18:

Appearances required by counsel for the debtor but telephonic appearances are encouraged if advance arrangements are made (see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.", "Instructions/Procedures").

(1) Current issues.

(a) Budget Motion (dkt. 21). This Court has reviewed Debtor's Supplemental Declaration in Support of the Budget Motion (dkt. 34). Although that declaration addresses many of the concerns raised by this Court and by Strategic Acquisitions, Inc. (dkt. 23), the debtor has failed to provide historical monthly profit and loss statements from the period from 1/1/18 through 3/31/18 as required by this Court's order (dkt. 27, para. 5.a.). The parties should be prepared to address what remedy this Court should impose.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 3/13/18.

(a) Bar date: 6/15/18 (timely served, dkt. 26, 32).

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: In view of the debtor's declaration about her current and future projected income, the tentative ruling is to vacate the prior deadline to file these documents, and set a new deadline at a future status conference, with the caveat that if the debtor fails to show sufficient diligence in obtaining employment and/or if the estate suffers any substantial losses then this Court might have to dismiss or convert this case.

(c) Continued status conference: 6/12/18 at 1:00 p.m. No written status report is required.

If appearances are required, and you fail to appear without adequately resolving this matter by consent, then you may waive your right to be heard on matters that are appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

Tentative Ruling for 4/10/18:

Appearances required by counsel for the debtor and by the debtor herself.

(1) Current issues. This Court has reviewed the debtor's status report (dkt. 19), the response (dkt. 23) filed by creditor Strategic Acquisitions, Inc. ("Strategic"), and the other filed documents and records in this case.

(a) Prior failed case. The debtor's husband's prior case (no. 17-bk-19071-NB) was a chapter 13 case that was dismissed on 10/13/17 with a 180-day bar to re-filing for failure to make plan payments or appear at the meeting of creditors (11 U.S.C. 341(a)).

(b) Budget Motion (dkt. 21). First, as Strategic points out, the debtor's bankruptcy Schedule I, line 8a, lists $6,220/mo. of net income from "rental property and from operating a business, profession, or farm" but fails to follow the instructions to "[a]ttach a statement for each property and business showing gross receipts, ordinary and necessary business expenses, and the total net monthly income." In addition, as Strategic points out, the debtor may be failing to account for the payment of real property taxes and perhaps also income taxes, and therefore it is not at all clear how the debtor will be able to fund any plan of reorganization.

The tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 4/17/18 for the debtor to file declaration(s) (i) attaching the statement(s) required by the line 8a instructions, (ii) providing complete explanations of any other sources of income (e.g., how long does the debtor anticipate continuing to receive disability payments? does the debtor anticipate returning to employment, and if so, when?), (iii) explaining whether the debtor is accounting for real estate taxes and income taxes, (iv) explaining how the debtor anticipates generating sufficient income to fund a plan of reorganization, and (v) attaching historical monthly accounts for the period of one year prepetition

Second, bankruptcy Schedule J (attached to the budget motion), lines 17c and 17d, list payments to Strategic of $1,750/mo. and to Ropers Majeski of $500/mo. The tentative ruling is to treat those payments as adequate protection payments on account of claims that appear to be secured claims, conditioned on return of such payments in the event that such security interests or claims are avoided or otherwise disallowed.

Third, notice of the motion and the deadline for objections is inadequate. The proof of service fails to attach a service list of creditors, and the debtor checked the box directing creditors to file any oppositions within 14 days' from the date of the proof of service (3/27/18), which would be the date of this hearing. Nevertheless, despite the lack of adequate service or notice, the tentative ruling is that on the present record it appears that it would be more prejudicial to creditors to prevent the debtors from making their proposed expenditures than to permit those expenditures, so the tentative ruling is to grant the budget motion on an interim basis, subject to any objections at a continued hearing simultaneous with the continued status conference date set forth below. This court has selected a continued hearing date that contemplates shortened notice (per Rule 9006, Fed. R. Bankr. P.), but that date is conditioned upon the debtor serving the motion on the entire creditor matrix the day after the current hearing date.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 3/13/18.

(a) Bar date: 6/15/18 (DO NOT SERVE notice yet - court will prepare an order after the status conference).

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: File by 6/29/18 using the forms required by Judge Bason (DO NOT SERVE yet, except on the U.S. Trustee - the court will set a deadline and procedures at a later time). This Court is aware that the debtor has requested a much later deadline (dkt. 19, p. 5), but this Court is not aware of any reason why so much time is needed. The debtor should be negotiating with secured creditors and other key constituencies already.

(c) Continued status conference: 5/1/18 at 1:00 p.m. No written status report is required.

Chapter 11

Judge Bason's standard conditions for use of cash collateral and/or postpetition financing (by creditors holding prepetition claims)

(1) Written order

(a) Form. Use local form F2081-

1.1.ORDER.CASH.COLLATERAL or the equivalent. Attach a copy of this tentative ruling as an exhibit, thereby adopting it as the written ruling of the court. Do not repeat the terms set forth in the motion or any stipulation. Incorporate those terms by reference, subject to any modification by this court (including the docket number of the document).

(b) Timing. Lodge the proposed order within 7 days after the hearing. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

(2) Minimum adequate protection

In addition to the postpetition security interests that are automatically provided pursuant to 11 U.S.C. 552 (e.g., in traceable proceeds and profits), and subject to any more comprehensive protection that may be included in the motion or related papers, the debtor shall provide at least the following protection to any creditor with a security interest in the subject property (pursuant to 11 U.S.C. 361-364, as applicable):

(a) Insurance. For all collateral of a type that typically is insured (e.g., real property and improvements), the debtor is directed to maintain insurance in a dollar amount at least equal to the debtor's good faith estimate of the value of such creditor's interest in the collateral, and such insurance shall name such creditor as an additional insured. The debtor is directed to remain current on payments for such insurance.

(b) Taxes. The debtor is directed to remain current on payments on account of postpetition real estate taxes (to the extent that real estate is part of the collateral).

(c) Disclosures/access. The debtor is directed to provide, upon such creditor's reasonable request, periodic accountings of the foregoing insurance and tax obligations and payments, as well as postpetition proceeds, products, offspring, or profits from the collateral, including gross revenues and expenses and a calculation of net revenues, including any rents and any fees, charges, accounts, or other payments for the use or occupancy of rooms and other public facilities in lodging properties (as all of the foregoing terms are used in 11 U.S.C. 552). The debtor is directed to provide appropriate documentation of those accountings, and access for purposes of inspection or appraisal.

(3) Limitation on postpetition liens

In the event that the motion or related papers seek authority to grant postpetition liens to the creditor(s) with respect to prepetition debts any such liens shall be limited to the same validity, priority, and amount as prepetition liens. As used herein, the "validity, priority, and amount" or any similar phrase that may be used by the parties or the court is deemed to include the following:

(a) Extent. Such liens shall be limited to the type of collateral in which the creditor held a security interest as of the petition date, unless this order expressly states that the liens granted by this order are intended to attach to different types of collateral from the prepetition collateral. For example, if prepetition liens extended to inventory and accounts receivable but not equipment then postpetition liens are likewise limited (unless otherwise expressly provided below); and postpetition liens shall not extend to the proceeds of any avoidance actions, any recoveries under 11 U.S.C. 506 (c), or any "carveout" under 11 U.S.C. 552.

(b) Priority. Such liens shall be limited to the same priority as the security interest held by the creditor as of the petition date.

(c) Dollar amount. Such liens shall be limited to the dollar amount needed to protect the creditor against diminution in the value of the secured claims as of the petition date.

(d) Enforceability. Such liens shall be limited to the extent that the creditor's security interests were duly perfected and valid as of the petition date, and to the extent that they are unavoidable.

(e) Automatic postpetition perfection. Any automatic perfection of such liens shall be subject to any applicable limitations regarding the Court's authority, jurisdiction, or due process.

(4) Automatic disapproval of insufficiently disclosed provisions

Any provision of the type listed in FRBP 4001(c)(1)(B) or in local form F4001-2 (e.g., cross-collateralization) or any waiver of the "equities of the case" exception in 11 U.S.C. 552(b)(2) shall be deemed automatically disapproved and excepted from any order granting the motion, notwithstanding any other provision of such order, unless either: (a) such provision is specifically and prominently disclosed in the motion papers in a checklist (such as local form F4001-2), or alternatively (b) such provision is specifically identified in any proposed order granting the motion, using terminology of the type used in FRBP 4001(c)(1)(B) or local form F4001-2 (e.g., any "cross-collateralization" that is not specifically identified as such is deemed to be disapproved).

(5) Disputes

In the event of any disputes regarding the rulings in this order, the parties are directed to meet and confer and, if they cannot resolve their disputes consensually, contact the chambers of the presiding judge to arrange a mutually convenient time for either a telephonic or in-person hearing to address such disputes.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for 5/1/18:

Appearances required by counsel for the debtor but telephonic appearances are encouraged if advance arrangements are made (see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.", "Instructions/Procedures").

(1) Current issues.

(a) Cash Collateral Motion (dkt. 12). The tentative ruling is to grant the motion on a final basis and authorize the use of cash collateral as modified by the amended budget (dkt. 35).

(b) Budget Motion (dkt 13). The tentative ruling is to grant the motion on a final basis as modified by the amended budget (dkt. 35) (see also dkt. 18, 21, 22, 28).

(c) Proposed Orders. The debtor is directed to serve and lodge proposed orders on the foregoing motions via this court's "LOU" system within 7 days after the hearing date.

(d) Status Report. This Court's prior tentative ruling set a deadline of 4/17/18 to file a brief status report. As of the preparation of this tentative ruling, the debtor has not filed a status report. Why not?

(e) Untimely Filings.

(i) This Court directed the debtor to serve Chase with the Budget Motion and Cash Collateral Motion by 3/22/18, but the Debtor's proof of service reflects service on 3/23/18.

(ii) This Court also directed the debtor to file a supplemental declaration in support of the Budget Motion by 3/30/18, but the Debtor did not file her declaration until 4/5/18.

The debtor's counsel is cautioned that continued failure to abide by the deadlines this court sets may result in adverse consequences.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 2/16/18.

Tentative Ruling for 3/20/18:

Appearances required by counsel for the debtor and by the debtor herself.

(1) Current issues.

(a) Cash Collateral Motion (dkt. 12). See the separate tentative ruling for that motion (calendar no. 4, 3/20/18 at 1:00 p.m.).

(b) Budget Motion (dkt 13).

(i) Service is inadequate. The proof of service (dkt. 13, pp. 5-6) fails to comply with the rules for service. Chase was not served via certified mail or to the attention of an officer as required by Rule 7004(b)(3) & (h) (Fed. R. Bankr. P.) (incorporated by Rule 9014(b), Fed. R. Bankr. P.).

Appearances required but telephonic appearances are encouraged if advance arrangements are made (see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.", "Instructions/Procedures").

(1) Current issues.

(a) Budget motion (dkt. 13). Counsel must address:

(i) Income as of petition date or current? The debtor has filed an amended bankruptcy Schedule I (dkt. 30). Is that actually intended to be a decaration of postpetition income, or a correction of the debtor's income as of the petition date?

(ii) Amended budget motion? Should an amended budget motion needs to be filed and served, or is such notice unnecessary and should the budget be deemed amended, in view of what appears to be an increase of approximately $168 in the debtor's monthly income (compare dkt. 13 at PDF p.8, debtor's personal income of $2,800, with dkt. 30, line 7, debtor's personal income of $2,968)?

(b) Cash collateral motion (dkt. 12). Grant on a final basis, on the same terms as the interim order (dkt.24).

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 3/6/18.

Tentative Ruling for 4/10/18:

Appearances required by counsel for the debtor and by the debtor(s) themselves.

(1) Current issues.

(a) Failure to serve order. This Court's order setting this status conference (dkt. 6) directed the debtor to serve a copy of that order on all parties in interest no later than 14 days prior to this status conference. No proof of service appears on the docket. The tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 4/11/18 for the debtor to effect such service, with a caution to counsel that in future such failure may result in sanctions.

(b) Budget motion (dkt. 13). Grant on an interim basis, with a final hearing on the same date at the continued status conference set forth below.

Docket 1

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for 5/1/18:

Appearances required by counsel for the debtor but telephonic appearances are encouraged if advance arrangements are made (see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.", "Instructions/Procedures").

(1) Current issues - plan (dkt. 59) and disclosure statement (dkt. 58)

(a) Background. At the hearing on 1/23/18 the debtor's counsel conceded that debtor lacked the votes for confirmation of his proposed plan, and suggested various ways in which the debtor might proceed. This court set a deadline of 1/30/18 for filing an amended plan or an alternative pleading, which was later extended (dkt. 71) to 2/7/18.

At the continued hearing on 2/13/18, the debtor stated that he reached a settlement with Wells Fargo regarding plan treatment and would be filing a motion to allow late-filed ballot. On 3/12/18, the debtor filed that motion (dkt. 78), with a hearing scheduled for 4/17/18. Debtor's ability to confirm the Amended Plan apparently depends upon whether this court accepts Wells Fargo's late-filed ballot.

For the reasons stated below, the tentative ruling is to approve the disclosure statement on a final basis and confirm the debtor's plan.

(b) Motion to Accept Late-Filed Ballot (dkt. 78). The tentative ruling is to grant the motion and accept Wells Fargo's late-filed ballot, in view of the debtor's timely filing of a proof of service reflecting service of the motion on American Express (dkt. 82) in accordance with this Court's 4/17/18 tentative ruling (below). With that ballot counted, the proposed Plan has been accepted by the requisite majorities for consensual confirmation (see Ballot Summary, dkt. 81).

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 6/7/17.

Tentative Ruling for 4/17/18:

Continue all matters set for today to the same date and time as the continued status conference, as set forth below. Appearances are not required on 4/17/18.

(1) Current issues - plan (dkt. 59) and disclosure statement (dkt. 58)

(a) Background. At the hearing on 1/23/18 the debtor's counsel conceded that debtor lacked the votes for confirmation of his proposed plan, and suggested various ways in which the debtor might proceed. This court set a deadline of 1/30/18 for filing an amended plan or an alternative pleading, which was later extended (dkt. 71) to 2/7/18.

On 3/12/18, the debtor filed that motion (dkt. 78), with a hearing scheduled for this date. Debtor's ability to confirm the Amended Plan apparently depends upon whether this court accepts Wells Fargo's late-filed ballot.

For the reasons stated below, the tentative ruling is to continue the hearing on approval of debtor's disclosure statement and plan to the above-stated time and place, concurrent with a continued hearing on debtor's motion to accept late-filed ballot.

(b) Motion to Accept Late-Filed Ballot (dkt. 78)

(i) Service. The Motion was not properly served on American Express at the address listed in its proofs of claim (claim nos. 4-1 and 6-1) (nor is it served in an alternative manner that might satisfy Rule 7004 because it was not served to the attention of an officer or agent pursuant to Rule 7004(b)(3) (FRBP)). Since American Express cast the only ballots against debtor's plan, it is particularly important that it be given proper service.

The tentative ruling is to continue the hearing to the same date and time as the continued status conference (see below) and direct the debtor to re-serve the Motion on American Express. This court has selected a continued hearing date that contemplates shortened notice (per Rule 9006) but that date is conditioned on the debtor serving all papers on the day after the current hearing date and filing a proof of service. Alternatively, debtor may self-calendar a continued hearing on regular notice.

(c) Exit strategy. At the continued hearing, if this Court does not approve the debtor's motion to accept late-filed ballot, the debtor should be prepared to address what his exit strategy from bankruptcy is and whether this case be dismissed.

Reasons: (a) the debtor's failure to file the ballot summary with respect to the plan, which was due on 1/16/18 (see Order, dkt. 61) and (b) the inability of the Office of the United States Trustee ("UST") to appear (or perhaps even to analyze whether it should appear) because of the shutdown of much of the

Appearances required by counsel for the debtor but telephonic appearances are encouraged if advance arrangements are made (see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.", "Instructions/Procedures").

(1) Current issues - plan (dkt. 59) and disclosure statement (dkt. 58)

(a) Income calculation. Exhibit C, Attachment 1, line 7, for income from "operations of business" requires the debtor to "attach detailed statement." No such statement appears to be provided.

(b) Disputed claims and other prior issues appear to be adequately addressed. The revised Exhibit F (dkt. 58) lists the 16th Street Group twice: once for the undisputed portion and once for the disputed portion - if the dollar amount of the disputed portion of the claim is sufficient then this appears to fully address this court's concerns expressed in the tentative ruling for 11/7/17. All of this court's other concerns appear to have been fully addressed as well.

revisions to be discussed at the status conference and lodge Judge Bason's form of order authorizing service of the voting package, setting deadlines, and setting a combined hearing on final approval of the Disclosure Statement and confirmation of the Plan for the same time as the continued status conference.

Appearances required by counsel for the debtor but telephonic appearances are encouraged if advance arrangements are made (see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.", "Instructions/Procedures").

(1) Current issues - plan (dkt. 54) and disclosure statement (dkt. 53)

(a) Disputed claims. The plan contemplates non-payment to some disputed claims. Unless and until those claims are disallowed (or allowed), the debtor must establish a disputed claims reserve and pay into that reserve in order to confirm any plan.

(b) General unsecured creditors. The plan includes a confusing mix of different listings of general unsecured creditors. Exhibit F starts with the total from the debtor's bankruptcy schedules and then reduces it by a dollar amount that appears to be random (there are no calculations to show how the debtor arrived at that reduction). Attached to Exhibit F is a copy of the debtor's bankruptcy schedules, but those are not manually marked up to show how the debtor arrived at the dollar amounts in Exhibit F.

Exhibit I lists not only general unsecured claims but also priority and secured claims, so it is not helpful to figure out how the debtor arrived at the dollar amount of reduction in Exhibit F.

Exhibit H item "(6)" lists anticipated/pending objections to claims, and provides what appear to be estimated dollar amounts, but there is no basis for such estimates and they are not tied to the reduction in total claims listed in Exhibit F.

It appears that the simpler solution would be (i) to use the "electronic option" in Exhibit F (starting at line 5) for general unsecured claims, instead of attaching the bankruptcy schedules, (ii) cut all unsecured claims from Exhibit I as redundant, and (iii) use a disputed claims reserve and/or obtain final orders disallowing or allowing claims and/or follow the proper procedures for claims estimation, if permissible (see 11 U.S.C. 502(c) and Rule 3018(a), Fed. R. Bankr. P.).

(c) Tax claims. One tax claim has been withdrawn (dkt. 52). Is the tax claim listed in Exhibit A for "LACTTC" a different claim?

(d) Pagination. The debtor's plan divides one-page exhibits onto two pages, which is somewhat confusing. The debtor may need to adjust the page margins to enable them to print on a single page.

(e) Income calculation. Exhibit C, Attachment 1, lines 1 and 7, do not provide adequate disclosure of the debtor's income calculation. Line 1 is for "wages, salary, and commissions" but as an independent contractor the more appropriate line would appear to be line 7 for "operations of business," which requires the debtor to "attach detailed statement." In any event, the debtor cannot simply list net income without any disclosure as to the gross revenues, specific expenses, and calculation of that net income.

The debtor's failure to disclose sufficient information about revenues and expenses has been a recurring theme - see the tentative ruling for 7/11/17 (reproduced below), item "(1)(a)" under the "Third" issue. Given this history, this court will require the debtor to file and serve on the U.S. Trustee, no later than the deadline set forth below for filing an amended plan and disclosure statement, a detailed declaration providing documentation as to the basis for each aspect of the income and expense projections (the debtor may incorporate Monthly Operating Reports by reference, but cannot rely only on those MORs - the debtor must provide additional support for his projections).

(f) Double-counting of expenses. Exhibit C, Attachment 1, line 17, includes an adequate protection payment of $325.50/mo. (with a reference to "RFS Order Dkt No. 45"), but it appears that these adequate protection payments will be replaced by the payments in Class 1A of $383.28/mo. It appears that once the added $325.50/mo. is eliminated then the cash flow might be more feasible.

(1) Current issues.

(a) Budget motion (dkt. 21). This motion is not on for hearing, but in connection with this Status Conference the debtor should be prepared to address the following concerns.

First, the debtor lists $1,350/mo. in income derived from unemployment benefits, in addition to his $6,150/mo. in business income derived from his self-employment as an independent marketing consultant, a job at which he claims to have been employed for the past year. Dkt. 21, p. 8. How can the debtor obtain unemployment benefits when he is employed? How will the budget change when those benefits cease?

Second, the debtor lists net business income but has failed to provide a breakdown of gross receipts, ordinary and necessary business expenses, and calculation of the resulting monthly net income, as required by the instructions on bankruptcy Schedule "I" line 8a. See dkt. 21 at p. 8.

Third, the debtor asserts a 50% interest in a real estate business in Miami, Buena Vista Terminal, LLC. See dkt. 1, pp. 19, 51. What is the nature of that business? Does the debtor derive any income from that business?

Finally, the debtor reports that he has just $43.43 in monthly net income to contribute to a chapter 11 plan. But the debtor has two cars and a motorcycle and over $700/mo. in automobile payments (plus "transportation" costs). Is that reasonable? See In re Concoff (case no. 2:13-bk-37328-NB, dkt. 246).

(b) Application to employ counsel (dkt. 24). Does the U.S. Trustee have any concerns about the proposed interim payment procedures and fee sharing arrangement between Ms. Ghanooni and Ms. Esmaili?

According to the retainer letter (dkt. 24, Ex. 3, para. 4) some of the retainer was to be paid by the debtor's mother, as a gift. But the application and the Rule 2014 disclosures by proposed counsel and by the debtor assert that there is no connection with any insider, and that all funds have come solely from the debtor. Which version of the facts is true? If any portion of the retainer has been paid by a third party, that raises special concerns (e.g., was the third party fully informed, in writing, that counsel represents the DIP not the third party, and might actually have to sue the third party if there were any potentially avoidable transfers? are there any such transfers or other potential conflicts?). See In re Kelton Motors, Inc., 109 B.R. 641 (Bankr. D. Vt. 1989); In re Hathaway Ranch Partnership, 116 B.R. 208, 219 (Bankr. C.D. (2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 6/7/17.

(a) Bar date: 9/22/17 (DO NOT SERVE notice yet - court will prepare an order after the status conference).

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: file by 10/13/17 using the forms required by Judge Bason (DO NOT SERVE yet, except on the U.S. Trustee - the court will set a deadline and procedures at a later time).

(c) Continued status conference: 8/15/17 at 1:00 p.m. No written status report is required.

*Warning: special procedures apply (see order setting initial status conference, dkt. 8).

If you do not appear, and the matter is not adequately resolved by consent, then you may waive your right to be heard on matters that are appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

Appearances required but telephonic appearances are encouraged if advance arrangements are made (see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.", "Instructions/Procedures").

(1) Current issues: The debtor and Mr. Britton have stipulated (dkt. 327) to continue the hearing on the motion to estimate Mr. Britton's claim to 10/30/18 at 2:00 p.m. This Court issued an order (dkt. 328) setting the matter for hearing so that Ms. West can be heard on the proposed continuance, if she wishes. The tentative ruling is to approve the stipulation, but with one additional week, to 11/6/18@2, because the date selected by the parties is not available on this Court's calendar.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 12/1/15.

(a) Bar date: 2/8/16 (timely served, dkt. 19 & 25).

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement: TBD

(c) Continued status conference: 7/17/18 at 2:00 p.m.; brief Status Report due 7/9/18 at noon.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." Tentative Ruling for 3/20/18:
Appearances required.

(1) Current issues: estimating Mr. Britton's claim

This matter has been substantially briefed and argued at prior hearings (see para. "(1)" of Revised Tentative Ruling for 1/30/18, reproduced below, and Mr. Britton's Opposition to Estimation Motion, dkt. 315, and debtor's Reply, dkt. 317, 322). This Court anticipates providing an oral tentative ruling at the start of the hearing, followed by a brief time (maximum 10 minutes each) for further argument before this Court makes a final ruling on the estimation motion.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 12/1/15.

(a) Bar date: 2/8/16 (timely served, dkt. 19 & 25).

(1) Current issues: estimating Mr. Britton's claim

At the hearing on 10/3/18 this court contemplated that after the debtor filed its motion (dkt. 297) for an order estimating the claim of creditor Layne Leslie Britton then this court would set a briefing schedule. The tentative ruling is to set the briefing schedule set forth below.

This court notes that the parties have already briefed, and this court has preliminarily addressed, some of the underlying issues, in connection with the debtor's prior motion for an order approving a draft plan and disclosure statement. Therefore a longer briefing schedule does not appear to be necessary. See dkt. 244 (motion), dkt. 260 (opposition, especially at pp.17:11-21:13 and Winston Decl. Key documents reviewed: Motion for relief from automatic stay (dkt. 11), the debtor's opposition (dkt. 33), and the movant's reply (dkt. 46); and the debtor's application to employ Browne George Ross LLP as special counsel under 11 U.S.C. 327(e) and supporting papers (dkt. 26-30, 44, 45).

(1) Current issues.

(a) Background. Claimant Britton's motion for relief from the automatic stay (dkt. 11) seeks to modify the automatic stay to liquidate the parties' claims in the underlying State Court action (Britton v. Riggs, LA Superior Ct. No. BC 496298). Just before trial was set to commence, the debtor filed this bankruptcy case, and trial has now been continued to 2/10/16. The debtor has filed an application (dkt. 26) to employ its existing attorneys in the State Court action as special counsel.

In view of the apparent urgency of these matters, this Bankruptcy Court issued an order raising a number of its initial concerns (dkt. 35), held a preliminary hearing on 1/8/16, and directed the debtor to serve a supplemental notice addressing certain issues. In addition, when Judge Bason's law clerk learned of certain attenuated connections between him and the parties in this case, those matters were disclosed on the record (dkt. 39), and the debtor was directed to serve those disclosures on all parties in interest.

The debtor complied with these notice requirements (see dkt. 44, 43, 45) and the period for any response expires on 1/29/16 (fixed date in dkt. 39 as to this court's disclosures; and service on 1/11/16 + 14 days' notice + 3 days for service via U.S. mail = 1/29/16 as to the employment application). As of the time when this tentative ruling has been prepared (1/18/16) no response on either matter appears on the docket.

(b) Relief from the automatic stay. The tentative ruling is to modify the automatic stay as follows, effective immediately upon (i) entry of an order of this court granting the employment application (so that the debtor can defend and prosecute its claims in the State Court action) and (ii) resolution of any request to be heard regarding recusal. Specifically, the automatic stay would be modified to permit litigation of the State court action insofar as liquidating claims by Mr. Britton against the debtor and its principal, Mr. Riggs, as well as liquidating any counterclaims, including all subsidiary disputes such as whether the statute of limitations should be tolled and any alter ego issues, but not to permit enforcement of any judgment against any property in which the debtor asserts an interest absent further order of this Bankruptcy Court.

Judge Bason is not persuaded by the debtor's argument that the statute of limitations issue should be addressed by this Bankruptcy Court before any State Court litigation is permitted to continue. The principles underlying the Rooker Feldman doctrine (that this Bankruptcy Court may not act as essentially an appellate court for State Court determinations), as well as comity, a respect for the State Court's determination of these issues, conservation of judicial resources, the avoidance of forum shopping, and not permitting a party to obtain "two bites at the apple" all weigh against deciding the statute of limitations issues here. The State Court issued a detailed tentative ruling (dkt. 46-1, Ex.A, pp.23-26) regarding the statute of limitations issues, including its conclusion that those issues could not be determined as a matter of law because a reasonable trier of fact "may well determine that the delay in filing the action was due to the Defendants' fraud or other misconduct such that Defendants should be estopped from asserting the statute of limitations," and the State Court apparently adopted that tentative ruling when it denied the defendants' motion for summary judgment and declined to address the statute of limitations issues before trial. Judge Bason is not persuaded that this Bankruptcy Court can or should revisit that determination.

As to any claims that are truly alter ego claims (as distinguished from fraudulent transfer claims or other avoidance actions that belong to this bankruptcy estate), the tentative ruling is that under the Ahcom decision (623 F.3d 1248 (9th Cir. 2010)), any such claims do not belong to the bankruptcy estate and, therefore, the automatic stay would not prevent claimant Mr.

Britton from seeking to establish and pursue any alter ego claims against Mr. Riggs. Alternatively, the tentative ruling is to modify the automatic stay (if it applied) to permit such true alter ego claims to be litigated (when and if the State Court determines that they should be) because if those issues turn out to be relevant then they will have to be litigated anyway, and the State Court would be the proper forum in which to litigate them. To the extent that the debtor seeks to stay (enjoin) any such alter ego claims against Mr. Riggs in this bankruptcy case, such an injunction would have to be the subject of a separate adversary proceeding. See, e.g., In re Excel Innovations, Inc., 502 F.3d 1086 (9th Cir. 2007).

(c) Employment of special litigation counsel. The tentative ruling is to conditionally approve employment of special litigation counsel for the reasons stated at the preliminary hearing on 1/8/16 and in the application (dkt. 26) and debtor's supplemental disclosures (dkt. 44). The condition is that no order approving such employment should be lodged until after the period for responses to such application or to this court's disclosures has expired (on 1/29/16), and of course if any such response is filed then this court will consider such responses (at a hearing as set forth below).

The potential for alter ego claims does not appear to create any cognizable conflict, at least at this stage of the litigation. Although it could be argued that there would be a conflict because any recovery that Mr. Britton could obtain from Mr. Riggs would decrease his claim against the debtor, and therefore theoretically benefit the debtor, it seems more likely at this stage that both Mr. Riggs and the debtor have a unified interest in contesting any asserted grounds for alter ego liability (i) so as to assure that Mr. Riggs devotes his energies to the debtor's future success and ability to pay its creditors, and (ii) so as to attempt to assure that there is a level playing field among the debtor's creditors (which, arguably, there would not be if one creditor - Mr. Britton - could pursue alter ego recoveries before other creditors could seek to do the same).

Of course, counsel for the debtor (both general and special counsel) and Mr. Riggs himself will need to monitor the situation continually. If a conflict or potential conflict does develop, they will need to file appropriate disclosures and/or seek a supplemental ruling from this court regarding the terms of any continued employment of special counsel.

(d) Tentative hearing. If any response is filed to either the employment application or this court's disclosures, then a hearing will take place on 2/2/16 at 2:00 p.m. to address those things. If there is any such response, the debtor must notify chambers so that the matter may be added to this court's calendar for that day.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 12/1/15.

(a) Bar date: Bar date: 2/8/16 (timely served, dkt. 19 & 25).

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: file by 7/1/16 using the forms required by Judge Bason (DO NOT SERVE yet, except on the U.S. Trustee - the court will set a deadline and procedures at a later time).

Note: If the U.S. Trustee wishes to file initial comments on any draft Plan documents before the regular deadline, it should do so at least two weeks prior to the next status conference (but, whether or not any comments are filed, all rights are reserved to object to the Disclosure Statement or Plan when deadline(s) for such objections are established).

(c) Continued status conference: 2/2/16 at 2:00 p.m. (no written status report required; telephonic appearances permitted provided that parties comply with posted procedures for same).

*Warning: special procedures apply (see order setting initial status conference).

9:3) requests that the debtor be excused from providing financial information concerning affiliates in both the status report and monthly operating reports. The tentative ruling is to grant that request.

(b) Service of status report. This court's form status report must be served on, inter alia, all of the debtor's secured creditors and the top 20 largest general unsecured creditors. It appears that there are no secured creditors, but that unsecured creditors were not served (see dkt. 20, p. 10). The tentative ruling is to direct the debtor, no later than 1/6/16, to serve all parties in interest with a copy of the status report and this tentative ruling, and then parties in interest may, if they choose, raise any appropriate issues at future status conferences.

(c) Plan and disclosure statement. The debtor has suggested (dkt. 20, p.4:20-23) a deadline of 4/30/16 to file initial drafts. The debtor should be prepared to address the associated procedures, including the local form plan and whether that deadline is consistent with the pending litigation with creditor Layne Leslie Britton (dkt. 11), currently set for trial in State court for 2/10/16.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 12/1/15.

(a) Bar date: Bar date: 2/8/16 (timely served, dkt. 19 & 25).

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: file by 4/30/16 using the forms required by Judge Bason (DO NOT SERVE yet, except on the U.S. Trustee - the court will set a deadline and procedures at a later time).

Docket 19

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for 5/1/18:

Continue to 5/29/18 at 2:00 p.m. Appearances are not required on 5/1/18.

(1) Current issues.

(a) Background. At a post-confirmation status conference on 4/17/18 for B&B Bachrach (2:17-bk-15292-NB), debtor's counsel discussed the status of that case as well as the B&B Liquidating case. At counsel's request, this Court set a tentative bar date of 6/29/18, but advised counsel that this Court would hold off on issuing the bar date order (and may push the bar date back) pending resolution of the claims/noticing agent issues raised sua sponte by this Court.

(b) Cash Collateral/DIP Financing (dkt. 21, 22). The tentative ruling is to grant the motion on a final basis, as modified on the record at the hearing on 2/22/18, the interim order (dkt. 36), the amended budget (dkt. 65), and the second amended stipulation (dkt. 141). The debtor is directed to serve and lodge a proposed order via this court's "LOU" system within 7 days after the hearing date.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 2/16/18.

(a) Bar date: Tentatively set as 6/29/18. DO NOT serve any notice at this time (this Court will prepare an order after the claims/noticing issues are resolved)

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: 8/31/18

(c) Continued status conference: continue to the date set forth at the start of this tentative ruling, brief status report due 5/15/18.

(1) Current issues. This Court has reviewed the debtor's status report (dkt. 78) and the other filed documents and records in this case.

(a) Utilities Motion (dkt. 4). The tentative ruling is to grant the motion on an a final basis.

(b) Tax Motion (dkt. 5). The tentative ruling is to grant the motion on a final basis.

(c) Cash Management Motion (dkt. 6). The tentative ruling is to grant the motion on a final basis.

(d) Store Closing Sale Motion (dkt. 17). The tentative ruling is to grant the motion on a final basis.

(e) Cash Collateral/DIP Financing (dkt. 21, 22). The tentative ruling is to authorize consensual use of cash collateral as modified on the record at the hearing on 2/22/18, the interim order (dkt. 36), and the amended budget (dkt. 65).

(f) Proposed Orders. The debtor is directed to serve and lodge proposed orders via this court's "LOU" system within 7 days after the hearing date.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 2/16/18.

Tentative Ruling for 2/22/18:

Appearances required by counsel for the debtor. Other parties in interest are invited but not required to appear (and pursuant to LBR 9075-1, any response may be presented orally).

Telephonic appearances are encouraged if advance arrangements are made (see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.", "Instructions/Procedures").

(1) Current issues. As of the time when this tentative ruling has been prepared, there is no proof of service of the debtor's motions. The following tentative rulings are subject to (i) adequate proof of service and (ii) any oppositions presented at or prior to the hearing. In addition, rather than stating at length this Court's reasoning, the following tentative rulings adopt, to the extent relevant, the reasoning of this Court regarding similar motions in the Bachrach case (no. 2:17-bk-15292-NB, dkt. 46-47).

(a) Notice/Service. Pursuant to LBR 9075-1(a)(2)(B), this Court has already orally and conditionally granted the debtor's request to shorten time on the motions identified below, subject to the right of any party in interest to object at or before the hearing to the adequacy of notice. With those limitations, the tentative ruling is to find notice adequate and grant the debtor's requests in its motions (e.g., dkt. 5, p.3:3-5) to excuse any requirement for telephonic notice provided that overnight delivery or other permissible expedited service (e.g., personal delivery, or email as permitted by applicable rules) has been delivered no later than 24 hours prior to this hearing to all persons with a pecuniary interest that could be adversely affected by the relief requested in each motion.

(b) Immediate relief. With respect to any immediate relief described below, the tentative ruling is that the debtor has shown sufficient cause for such immediate relief under Rule 6003 (Fed. R. Bankr. P.), to the extent applicable, and the other rules and procedures governing relief on an emergency or expedited basis.

(c) Limit Notice Motion (dkt. 3). The tentative ruling is to grant this motion, subject to the following adjustments. First, the Limited Service List must be augmented to include (i) junior lienholder Emerald Capital Funding, LLC ("Emerald") and (ii) the debtor's own bankruptcy counsel (because the motion apparently contemplates that all parties in interest - not just the debtor - will be authorized to use the Limited Service List). Second, this Court contemplates limitations that parallel this Court's modifications to the parallel order in the Bachrach case (no. 2:17-bk-15292-NB, dkt. 53).

(d) Utilities Motion (dkt. 4). The tentative ruling is to grant the motion on an interim basis, with a final hearing at the same time as the continued status conference set forth below.

(e) Tax Motion (dkt. 5). The tentative ruling is to grant the motion on an interim basis, with a final hearing at the same time as the continued status conference set forth below.

(f) Cash Management Motion (dkt. 6). The tentative ruling is to grant the motion on the following conditions on an interim basis, with a final hearing at the same time as the continued status conference set forth below. No later than 2/23/18 the debtor must file a declaration of its CFO or other appropriate person certifying that, first, the debtor has taken measures to assure that prepetition debts are not paid out of its existing accounts (e.g., stopping payment on prepetition checks, except to the extent authorized by this court), and second, the debtor is maintaining sufficiently detailed books and records that, if it becomes necessary to analyze the debtor's finances as of the petition date, such analysis will not be impaired by the non-closing of the debtor's prepetition accounts.

(g) Lease Rejection Motion (dkt. 7). The tentative ruling is to grant the motion on a final basis.

(h) Employee Wages Motion (dkt. 8). The tentative ruling is to grant this motion immediately and on a final basis as to the employees, and to grant it as to the retention of Modern HR, Inc. ("HR") either immediately or at a continued hearing if the debtor can provide an offer of proof or evidence that HR's rates are within normal market rates for comparable services.

(i) Store Closing Sale Motion (dkt. 17). The tentative ruling is to approve the retention of Great American Group LLC and Tiger Capital Group LLC (collectively, "Liquidation Consultant") subject to the filing, no later than

2/23/18, of a satisfactory statement of Liquidation Consultant's disinterestedness on Local Form F 2014-1.STMT.DISINTEREST.PROF. In addition, the tentative ruling is to authorize the proposed sales of the debtor's inventory and furniture, fixtures and equipment ("FF&E"), free and clear of any liens, claims, encumbrances or other interests of all persons/entities who have been served with the motion, with all such interests to attach to proceeds of such sales, under 11 U.S.C. 363(b) and (f)(1), (2) and (5), for the reasons stated in the motion papers. In addition, the tentative ruling with respect to compliance with nonbankruptcy liquidation laws, restrictions in leases, and abandonment of property is to track the limitations in this Court's interim order on the parallel motion in the Bachrach case (no. 2:17-bk-15292-NB, dkt. 71). In addition, the tentative ruling is to grant all such relief on an interim basis, with a final hearing at the same time as the continued status conference set forth below.

(j) Cash Collateral/DIP Financing (dkt. 21, 22). The parties should be prepared to address the following issues. (i) Is there any evidence that the debtor is "unable" to obtain credit by granting a "senior or equal lien" to the lien of Siena Lending Group, LLC ("Siena"), within the meaning of 11 U.S.C. 364(d)(1)(A)? (ii) Why would it be appropriate for this Court to approve a roll-up, cross-collateralization, and other provisions that generally are disapproved (see dkt. 22)? (iii) Why should this Court grant broader relief in this case than it did in approving a similar motion in the Bachrach case (no. 2:17-bk-15292-NB, dkt. 46, Ex.A, pp.5-9, and dkt. 50)? The tentative ruling is to authorize either consensual or non-consensual use of cash collateral and, if the terms can be modified sufficiently to be acceptable, the proposed DIP financing, on an interim basis, with a final hearing at the same time as the continued status conference set forth below.

(k) Notice of continued hearings. The tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 2/27/18 for the debtor to file and serve a notice of the final hearing on all motions that are only granted on an interim basis, and to set the same deadline for the debtor to file any supplements or amendments to such motions, with deadlines of 3/6/18 for any opposition and 3/13/18 for any reply.

(l) Proposed Orders. This court intends to file these tentative rulings on the docket (with the caption, "Memorialization Of Tentative rulings" or the like). Thereafter, if appropriate, all orders can grant or deny relief "for the reasons stated in the Memorialization Of Tentative Rulings (dkt. __), as modified or supplemented on the record at the hearing" (or similar language).

The debtor is directed to serve and lodge proposed orders via this court's "LOU" system within 7 days after the hearing date.

In view of the shortened time on the foregoing motions, parties in interest may appear and dispute the foregoing tentative rulings without prior notice to the debtor or the court (contrary to the usual requirements for "tentative rulings" under Judge Bason's Procedures, posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov).

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 2/16/18.

(a) Bar date: TBD

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: TBD

(c) Continued status conference: March 20, 2018 at 2:00 p.m., status report due 3/6/18. (see order, dkt. 18).

*Warning: special procedures apply (see order setting initial status conference).

Tentative Ruling for 4/17/18:

Appearances required.

(1) Current Issues.

(a) B&B Liquidating, LLC (2:18-bk-11744-NB). On 2/16/18 B&B Liquidating LLC ("BBL") filed a chapter 11 petition for relief before this court. In its "first-day" motions, BBL details the troubles B&B Bachrach ("BBB") encountered post-confirmation, which resulted in the need to liquidate. See e.g., BBL Liquidating Motion, dkt. 17.

BBB should be prepared to address the debtor's progress in liquidating the estate.

(1) Motion to Dismiss (dkt. 24). At the hearing on 3/20/18, this Court delivered its oral tentative ruling to deny the motion but, due to the Court's heavy calendar that day, could not afford the parties an opportunity to present oral arguments in response. This Court lifted the stay of discovery and continued the matter to this date to allow the parties an opportunity to attempt a consensual resolution, or present arguments for or against the tentative ruling.

(2) Deadlines. If this Court sticks with its tentative ruling not to dismiss the complaint, the parties should be prepared to discuss relevant discovery dates and other deadlines.

Appearances required.

(1) Motion to Dismiss. At the hearing on 3/6/18, this court continued the matter for the parties to review relevant authority on the "unfinished business doctrine" and consider the implications of that authority on this proceeding. This Court has reviewed the parties' status reports (dkt. 39, 41), which effectively are briefs, and the parties are directed to address (a) whether further briefing or discovery is needed, either as to the Teitelbaum Case or any other matter, (b) whether the range of possible outcomes could include any in which the underlying clients (or any other parties) could be prejudiced (e.g., if any party presently before this Court is denied a recovery in this proceeding, would that party have any ability to seek recovery from the underlying client on a different theory?) and, if so, whether such persons need to be joined in this proceeding, and (c) whether to bifurcate the Teitelbaum Case from other matters and render a decision as to the former after oral argument and/or set deadlines for discovery or other procedures (see, e.g., the list of deadlines set forth in paragraph "(3)" of this Court's tentative ruling for 12/19/17, reproduced below).

Tentative Ruling for 3/6/18:

Appearances required. This Court has reviewed the parties' status reports (adv. dkt. 28, 29) and the other filed documents and records in this adversary proceeding.

(1) Venue/jurisdiction/authority. The issues raised in paragraph "(1)" of this Court's tentative ruling for 12/19/17 (reproduced below) appear to have been addressed (see adv. dkt. 28, 29) or waived/forfeited by parties who have not expressly addressed them.

(2) Mediation. The parties are directed to report on the status of the 2/27/18 mediation. If the mediation was not successful, the parties should be prepared to argue the merits of the motion to dismiss filed by Advocate Capital, Inc. (adv. dkt. 24, the "MTD") and related papers (e.g., adv. dkt. 30, 34). To the extent that the foregoing does not resolve the parties' litigation, this Court anticipates setting deadlines for discovery and possibly other matters (see paragraph "(3)" of this Court's tentative ruling for 12/19/17, reproduced below).

(3) Continued status conference: 5/29/18 at 1:00 p.m. Brief status report due 5/15/18.

(dkt. 9) and the other filed documents and records in this adversary proceeding. The tentative ruling is to excuse the parties from any Rule 26 compliance at this time (Fed. R. Civ. P. 26, incorporated by Fed. R. Bankr. P. 7026), as requested by certain of the parties. In addition, the tentative ruling is as follows (the parties need not repeat their responses in the status report unless there is some change to those responses).

(1) Venue/jurisdiction/authority.

The parties are directed to address any outstanding matters of (a) venue, (b) jurisdiction, (c) this court's authority to enter final orders or judgment(s) in this proceeding and, if consent is required, whether the parties do consent, or have already expressly or impliedly consented. See generally Stern v. Marshall, 131 S.Ct. 2594, 2608 (2011) (if litigant "believed that the Bankruptcy Court lacked the authority to decide his claim...then he should have said so – and said so promptly."); Wellness Int'l Network, Ltd. v. Sharif, 135 S.Ct. 1932 (2015) (consent must be knowing and voluntary but need not be express); In re Bellingham Ins. Agency, Inc., 702 F.3d 553 (9th Cir. 2012) (implied consent), aff'd on other grounds, 134 S. Ct. 2165 (2014); In re Pringle, 495 B.R. 447 (9th Cir. BAP 2013) (rebuttable presumption that failure to challenge authority to issue final order is intentional and indicates consent); In re Deitz, 760 F.3d 1028 (9th Cir. 2014) (authority to adjudicate nondischargeability encompasses authority to liquidate debt and enter final judgment). See generally In re AWTR Liquidation, Inc., 548 B.R. 300 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2016).

(2) Mediation. Is there is any reason why this court should not order the parties to mediation before one of the volunteer mediators (not a Bankruptcy Judge), and meanwhile set the deadlines set forth below?

The tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 1/5/18 for the parties to agree on a mediator whose schedule is consistent with the needs of this matter and lodge mediation order(s) (if the parties are unable to agree on a single order they may lodge competing orders and Judge Bason will decide among them or issue his own, although it should be possible for the parties to agree on a mediator).

(3) Deadlines: This adversary proceeding has been pending since 10/17/17. Pursuant to LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B), plaintiff is directed to serve and lodge a

Tentative Ruling for 5/1/18:

Appearances required.

(1) Current issues. This Court has reviewed the Chapter 11 Trustee's status report (dkt. 283).

(a) Surcharge motion under 11 U.S.C. 506(c) (dkt. 239). The Trustee and Wellgen have entered into a Stipulation resolving the motion (dkt. 281). This Court has issued an order setting this matter for hearing. The parties are directed to address the issues raised in that order. In addition, the parties are directed to address what will happen if there are any proceeds in excess of both (1) the maximum amount distributed to Wellgen (para. 9 of the Stipulation) and (2) the maximum amount distributed to the Trustee and his counsel (para. 10 of the Stipulation).

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed as an involuntary chapter 7 on 8/3/17 and converted to chapter 11 on 8/11/17.

(a) Bar date: 2/5/18 (timely served, dkt. 133, 157)

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: TBD. Do not file or serve until further order of this court.

(c) Continued status conference: 7/10/18 at 1:00 p.m., brief status report due 6/26/18.

*Warning: special procedures apply (see order setting initial status conference).

If you do not appear, and the matter is not adequately resolved by consent, then you may waive your right to be heard on matters that are appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

Tentative Ruling for 9/19/17:

Appearances required.

(1) Current issues.

(a) Order for relief. This case was commenced as an involuntary chapter 7, and thereafter the debtor filed a motion (dkt. 19) to convert this case to chapter 11, which this court treated at a hearing on 8/8/17 as a consent to an order for relief conditioned on such conversion. This court orally ordered relief and granted the motion to convert to chapter 11, and although the latter order was reduced to writing (dkt. 25) the former was not. The tentative ruling is to direct the Chapter 11 Trustee to prepare and lodge a written order, memorializing that the oral order for relief was effective on 8/8/17. The parties should be prepared to address whether that written order should modify any deadlines that otherwise would apply (see next paragraph), notwithstanding that all parties in interest appear to have been present in person or on the telephone at that 8/8/17 hearing.

(b) Lack of information. The Chapter 11 Trustee's status report (dkt. 79) indicates that the debtor has yet to provide information on numerous issues, notwithstanding Rule 1007(a)(2), (b) and (c). The docket does not reflect that the debtor has filed bankruptcy schedules, a statement of financial affairs, or other information, or filed any motion for extension of time. What is the current status, and what additional action may be appropriate?

(c) Clients. This court has approved a client transfer protocol (dkt. 83).

What is the status of those transfers?

(d) Reconversion? The debtor's status report (dkt. 80, at PDF p.3:4-21) suggests that, although the debtor and other parties in interest stipulated (dkt. 38) to the appointment of a chapter 11 trustee, and this court approved that stipulation (dkt. 42), nevertheless this case is essentially being operated as a chapter 7 liquidation and should be converted back to chapter 7. What are the positions of parties in interest on that issue?

(e) Joint administration? Should this case be jointly administered (not procedurally consolidated) with the case of Maximum Legal (California), LLP (Case No. 2:17-bk-18433-NB)?

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed as an involuntary chapter 7 on 8/3/17 and converted to chapter 11 on 8/11/17.

(a) Bar date: TBD after bankruptcy schedules are filed.

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: Do not file or serve until further order of this court.

(dkt. 31) and all other filings in this case.

(1) Current issues

(a) Proposed bankruptcy counsel (dkt. 9, 30, 34, 45, 46). The debtor has now disclosed that the source of the prepetition retainer is Olympic Holdings, LLC ("Olympic"), the managing member of which is also the debtor's managing member, namely Mr. Mark Slotkin. The debtor has also clarified that although Olympic proposes to pay counsel's monthly bills as they come due (to be held in proposed counsel's client trust account until allowed), Olympic reserves the right to request reimbursement of prepetition payments as a general unsecured claim and postpetition payments as an administrative claim - would such postpetition request be on "substantial contribution" grounds? or on other grounds, such as an administrative priority loan (under 11 U.S.C. 364? without interest? with interest?)?

The foregoing facts and questions raise a host of ethical concerns. Any counsel who is paid by a third party (the "Funder") may be subject to conflicts of interest, especially if there are potential avoidance actions, reimbursement or contribution or indemnity claims, or other claims that could be investigated or brought against the Funder. At the hearing, proposed counsel must address the following.

(i) Connections. What are all of the connections (as that term is used in FRBP 2014) among the Funder, the debtor, Mr. Slotkin, and proposed counsel? Are there any conflicts of interest, or potential conflicts? In the past, Judge Bason has followed authority holding that conflicts cannot be waived by a debtor in possession because it is representing the interests of creditors and has no authority to waive conflicts on creditors' behalf. In addition, to help in identifying all connections, Judge Bason's posted procedures require the use of Local Form 2014-1 (see those procedures at www.cacb.uscourts.gov for instructions how to fill out that form).

(ii) Terms. What are the precise understandings regarding the funds?

(iii) Informed consent of Funder. Mr. Slotkin declares (dkt. 45, para.5) that both he and Olympic understand that proposed counsel "does not represent us, and only represents the Debtor"? Have the members of Olympic (whoever they might be) been advised of this as well? Have all such persons been advised not only of representation issues but also attorney-client privilege issues, including what can happen if a trustee were to be appointed? Have all such persons been advised of duties of loyalty, whom counsel will continue to represent (if anyone) if a conflict develops, and other ethical and practical concerns? Who provided such advice: independent counsel, or the debtor's proposed counsel? Has the Funder given informed consent? Are those things in writing?

(iv) Informed consent of debtor. Has the debtor likewise been fully advised and given informed consent? Who provided such advice? Are these things in writing?

(v) Other considerations. Has proposed counsel demonstrated or represented to this Court the absence of an actual or potential conflict, a lack of disinterestedness, or any other basis for disqualification? Chapter 13

#1.00 Hrg re: Motion to avoid junior lien on principal residence with DLJ Mortgage Capital Successor to BrooksAmerica Mortgage Serviced by Ditech

Docket 26

Tentative Ruling:

Appearances required.

This is the second time known to this Court that counsel for the debtor has submitted papers with the same obvious defect (using liquidation value when the statute requires fair market value). See 11 U.S.C. 506(a) (further explained below). In the prior case with the same issue, counsel withdrew the motion after this Court pointed out the defect. See In re Graciela Redden (Case No. 2:17-bk-17-25324, dkt. 21 & 27), and see tentative ruling for 4/5/18, 8:30 a.m., calendar no. 5.

Counsel must appear and explain why she continues to file papers that appear plainly to violate 11 U.S.C. 506. This Court presumes that counsel will not charge the debtors or the estate for this appearance. If counsel believes that charges are appropriate, she must argue for such charges at this hearing.

The tentative ruling is to continue this motion to 6/7/18 at 8:30 a.m., with deadline of 5/24/18 for the debtors to file and serve supplemental papers addressing the valuation issue. Alternatively, if the debtors prefer, they may file and serve a withdrawal of the motion.

Explanation: The evidence in support of the motion (dkt. 26, Ex.4) states that the appraised value is based on a "liquidation" value which is defined as, among other things: "[t]he most probable price ... under the following conditions: (1) consummation of a sale within a short period of time ... (4) the seller is under extreme compulsion to sell ... (7) a normal marketing effort is not possible due to the brief exposure of time." These assumptions are inconsistent with 11 U.S.C. 506(a)(1), which requires that the value be determined "in light of the purpose of the valuation and of the proposed disposition or use of such property ...." There is no evidence that the debtors are contemplating a sale of the subject property, let alone a forced liquidation sale. To the contrary, if any sale were necessary there are provisions in the Bankruptcy Code that permit an orderly, well-marketed sale for the maximum market value.

This Court presumes that the debtors' appraiser can use the prior investigation of the subject property to arrive at an alleged fair market valuation by the deadline stated at the start of this tentative ruling. If that valuation is sufficient to support the motion then this matter will go forward; and otherwise the debtors should file a withdrawal of the motion.

#12.00 Hrg re: Motion to Disallow Claims #5 of American First Finance

Docket 21

Tentative Ruling:

Continue to 6/7/18 at 8:30 a.m. to address the following issues. Appearances are not required on 5/3/18. If the following issues are adequately addressed, then this Court anticipates that the tentative ruling for the continued hearing will be to grant the motion (but, as always, parties in interest should check the tentative rulings posted prior to that continued hearing).

Reasons:

(1) Missing mandatory form F 3007-1.1.NOTICE.OBJ.CLAIM. The debtor failed to use mandatory form F 3007-1.1.NOTICE.OBJ.CLAIM as required by LBR 3007-1(b). The debtor is directed to file and serve this form on American First Finance by no later than 5/17/18.

(2) The claim objection fails to include a sufficient cost/benefit analysis. Judge Bason's posted Procedures (available at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) state:

When objecting to claims, be sure to consider whether the costs of preparing and litigating the claim objection (administrative expenses) do not exceed the anticipated benefits (reductions in claims). For example, if the anticipated dividend is small or 0%, your claim objection to any general unsecured claim should clearly explain how it is justified to incur the attorney fees for that objection.

No later than 5/17/18 the movant must file either:

(a) a supplemental declaration explaining why the attorney fees for this objection are justified (including supporting evidence, such as a copy of the plan showing the projected dividend to the claimant, and a calculation comparing that projected dividend against the attorney fees related to this claim objection), or

(b) a withdrawal of the claim objection.

(3) No fees absent specific order. Counsel is prohibited from charging any fees on this matter (including all past, present and future work related to this claim objection) and is directed to return any fees that might be (or might have already been) awarded relative to this matter, unless this Court expressly states in a future tentative ruling or written order that the cost/benefit analysis warrants charging fees.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." #14.00 Hrg re: Motion to Disallow Proof of Claim No. 7

Tentative Ruling:

Deny for the reasons stated in the opposition (dkt. 44) and because the debtor failed to use mandatory form F 3007-1.1.NOTICE.OBJ.CLAIM as required by LBR 3007-1(b). This Court notes that the proofs of service on the motion papers (dkt. 35 at PDF p.5; dkt. 40 at PDF p.5) are signed by "ALBERT KNOWLES dba The Bankruptcy Clinic," and it appears that Mr. Knowles may be practicing law without a license and/or providing bankruptcy advice in violation of 11 U.S.C. 110 and/or charging the debtor for services that are actually counterproductive; and therefore the tentative ruling is that this Court will issue an order directing the debtor and Mr. Knowles to appear and address those issues. Appearances are not required on 5/3/18.

Proposed order: Claimant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this court's final ruling. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

#15.00 Hrg re: Motion to Disallow Proof of Claim No 8
of LoanMe and C/O Weinstein & Riley PS.
Pursuant to 3007

Docket 34

Tentative Ruling:

Deny for the reasons set forth below. This Court will prepare an order after the hearing date. This Court notes that the proofs of service on the motion papers (dkt. 34 at PDF p.5; dkt. 39 at PDF p.5) are signed by "ALBERT KNOWLES dba The Bankruptcy Clinic," and it appears that Mr. Knowles may be practicing law without a license and/or providing bankruptcy advice in violation of 11 U.S.C. 110 and/or charging the debtor for services that are actually counterproductive; and therefore the tentative ruling is that this Court will issue an order directing the debtor and Mr. Knowles to appear and address those issues. Appearances are not required on 5/3/18.

Reasons:

(1) The motion (claim objection) does not state any actual grounds for disallowance (it just states that the claim is "inaccurate," but does not say why, nor is there any evidence attached to the motion, except for the debtor's bankruptcy schedules which actually show a larger debt (undisputed) than the proof of claim no. 8).

(2) No copy of the claim is attached (as required by the Local Rules).

(3) The proof of service (dkt. 34 at PDF p.5) does not state when the motion was mailed, nor does it actually state that the creditor was served (the check-box for "Service information continued on attached page" is not checked, although presumably the service list relates to the proof of service).

(4) The debtor failed to use mandatory form F 3007-1.1.NOTICE.OBJ.CLAIM as required by LBR 3007-1(b).

Tentative Ruling:

Deny for the reasons set forth below. This Court will prepare an order after the hearing date. This Court notes that the proofs of service on the motion papers (dkt. 36 at PDF p.5; dkt. 38 at PDF p.5) are signed by "ALBERT KNOWLES dba The Bankruptcy Clinic," and it appears that Mr. Knowles may be practicing law without a license and/or providing bankruptcy advice in violation of 11 U.S.C. 110 and/or charging the debtor for services that are actually counterproductive; and therefore the tentative ruling is that this Court will issue an order directing the debtor and Mr. Knowles to appear and address those issues. (2) No copy of the claim is attached (as required by the Local Rules).

(3) The proof of service (dkt. 38 at PDF p.5) does not state when the motion was mailed, nor does it actually state that the creditor was served (the check-box for "Service information continued on attached page" is not checked, although presumably the service list relates to the proof of service).

(4) The address in the proof of service does not match the address for notices in the proof of claim (the "c/o" information could cause the mail to be misdirected).

(5) The debtor failed to use mandatory form F 3007-1.1.NOTICE.OBJ.CLAIM as required by LBR 3007-1(b).

This matter has been continued from 3/8/18 and 1/11/18 to provide the parties with an opportunity to engage in settlement negotiations and, apparently, agree to an order granting the motion in substantial part based on a third party appraisal. There is no tentative ruling, but the parties should be prepared to address the status of those things.

Tentative Ruling for 1/11/18:

Appearances required. There is no tentative ruling, but the parties should be prepared to address the following issues:

(1) Valuation dispute

The parties should be prepared to address how they propose to resolve their disputes re: valuation of the subject property - e.g., (i) with an evidentiary hearing; (ii) with a court ruling based solely on the written record (to save costs, if all parties consent), (iii) through mediation, or (iv) through appointment of an appraiser (jointly selected by the parties/their appraisers) as the court's own expert under FRE 706. Note: Judge Bason requires valuations at or near the petition date. See In re Gutierrez, 503 B.R. 458 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2013).

(2) Settlement

The parties should address whether this court should continue this matter to provide the parties with an opportunity to engage in settlement negotiations.

(1) Missing mandatory form F 3007-1.1NOTICE.OBJ.CLAIM. The debtor failed to file the mandatory form F 3007-1.1.NOTICE.OBJ.CLAIM as required by LBR 3007-1(b). The debtor is cautioned that failure to follow this Court's rules and procedures in future may result in adverse consequences.

(2) The claim objection fails to include a sufficient cost/benefit analysis. Judge Bason's posted Procedures (available at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) state:

When objecting to claims, be sure to consider whether the costs of preparing and litigating the claim objection (administrative expenses) do not exceed the anticipated benefits (reductions in claims). For example, if the anticipated dividend is small or 0%, your claim objection to any general unsecured claim should clearly explain how it is justified to incur the attorney fees for that objection.

In this instance, it appears that the claim objection, if successful, would result in a benefit that exceeds the costs of counsel's fees. However, the debtor failed to include any analysis demonstrating that this is so. The debtor is cautioned that failure to follow this Court's rules and procedures in future may result in adverse consequences.

#28.00 Cont'd Status Conference re: Retention of New Counsel
fr. 03/08/18, 4/5/18

Docket 8

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for 5/3/18:

Appearances required by the debtor and debtor's counsel. The tentative ruling is to dismiss this case, with a 180 day bar against being a debtor in bankruptcy, for the debtor's willful failure to appear in proper prosecution of this case. See 11 U.S.C. 109(g)(1).

(1) Current Issues.

(a) Background. This case was commenced on 11/22/17. The debtor's bankruptcy schedules assert that he has no debts other than a first and second deed of trust of his residence, both of which are oversecured. The debtor apparently fell behind on one of his deeds of trust (see Claim No. 2-1, item 9, listing $8,307.90 needed to cure defaults as of petition date, and Notice of Default at dkt. 59, PDF p.8).

The debtor filed a motion to avoid the second deed of trust lien that was defective in numerous respects, as set forth in the Tentative Ruling for 2/8/18 (reproduced below). That motion was denied.

This Court has warned the debtor and his attorney at prior hearings that if they continued to file improper papers, or to move this case forward, then this Court might have to find that they are willfully failing to appear in proper prosecution of this case. At the hearing on 4/5/18 this Court set a deadline of 4/19/18 for the debtor to file an amended plan and all other documents appropriate to move this case forward.

This Court has reviewed debtor's Amended Plan (dkt. 56), Amended Schedules I & J (dkt. 58), the Supplemental Aviles Declaration (dkt. 59), the proofs of claim filed by Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. as both senior and junior lienholder (Claim Nos. 1-1, 1-2, and 2-1), and the Debtor's Supplemental Declaration (dkt. 60).

(b) Supplemental Aviles Declaration. The declaration makes no sense.

For example, Mr. Aviles declares (dkt. 59, p.2:17-19): "If Wells Fargo Bank N.A. believed that the [debtor's prior bankruptcy case under] Chapter 7 had discharged the debt owed as to the arrearages [then] Wells Fargo Bank N.A. would not have proceeded with foreclosure proceedings due to the arrearages owed by debtor ...." That is ridiculous.

A discharge in bankruptcy applies to in personam liability, and has nothing to do with in rem liability. For example, if a debtor borrows $100 secured by collateral, that debtor may be able to discharge the $100 (plus interest and other charges) as in personam liability, but if the debtor wants to retain the collateral then the debtor has to pay the full $100 (plus interest and other charges) or alternatively file a proper motion to reduce the lien (which the debtor has not done and apparently cannot do under the facts of this case). In other words, a debtor cannot have it both ways: keep valuable collateral but not pay for it.

(c) Amended Bankruptcy Schedules I & J (dkt. 58). First, the debtor's scheduled expenses appear to be far too low to be realistic. For example, the debtor only lists $65/mo for food. This is not a basis for any feasible chapter 13 plan. If the debtor is receiving a contribution from a third party then that should have been disclosed in the bankruptcy schedules and/or a supporting declaration.

Second, if the debtor's amended bankruptcy schedules I & J are to be believed, he has monthly net income of $606.42, after $757/mo. of mortgage expenses. But the debtor appears to ignore one of his two mortgages: one monthly payment is $767.53 (Claim No. 2-1, at PDF p.4, last column) and another is $470.08 (Claim No. 2-1, at PDF p.6, last column). That would leave monthly net income of only $125.81 ($606.42 - shortfall of $10.53 on one mortgage - $470.08 on the other mortgage = $125.81).

(d) Amended Plan (dkt. 56). The debtor apparently contemplates plan payments of $256.17 per month for 36 months, although what his plan actually states is that the "base amount" (the total of all monthly payments) is only $256.17.

In any event, the $256.17/mo. would go to only two things: (i) paying the Chapter 13 Trustee's fee (11% of all distributions) and (ii) paying Class 2 (the $8,307.90 arrears) at $230.78/mo over 36 months with 0% interest. But the debtor cannot afford that because, as set forth above, he only has net income of $125.81/mo. (and even that assumes expenses that appear to be unrealistically low).

True, if the plan were extended to 60 months then the payments in Class 2 could be reduced to $138.65/mo. ( $$8,307.90 / 60 = $138.65$ ), but that is still above $125.81, and it assumes 0% interest and living expenses that appear to be unrealistic.

(This Court notes that the plan is defective in another respect. The plan's liquidation analysis is internally inconsistent. It states that in a chapter 7 case there would be $0 available but that this would result in an estimated 11% dividend.)

The bottom line is that the debtor's proposed chapter 13 plan appears to be totally unrealistic. If there is any way for the debtor to make proper use of chapter 13 (e.g., if he could propose a sale of his property or a refinance), he has not pursued it. This case is over five months old and so far the debtor has made no progress at all.

(d) Dismissal With a Bar. At the hearing on 4/5/18, this Court cautioned the debtor and debtor's counsel that if they continued to file inadequate information, did not seek assistance from an experienced bankruptcy attorney, and otherwise failed to appear in proper prosecution of this case, then this Court might have to dismiss this case with a bar against being a debtor in a future bankruptcy case for some period of time. At the hearing they should address how the record in this case is consistent with anything other than a willful failure to appear in proper prosecution.

On 3/5/18, debtor's counsel requested a continuance of this hearing due to a death in the family. On 3/6/18, this court granted the request to continue the hearing and directed debtor and debtor's counsel, Mr. Aviles, to appear and show cause why sanctions, dismissal with a bar, or other relief should not be imposed (dkt. 37) (the "OSC").

There is no tentative ruling, but the debtor and debtor's counsel should be prepared to address the issues identified in the OSC.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." Tentative Ruling for 2/8/18 on motion to avoid lien:

(1) Deny for the reasons set forth in the opposition (dkt. 22) filed by Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. ("Wells Fargo") and the additional reasons set forth below, and (2) direct counsel to address at the hearing (a) why he should be allowed any fees for this motion, (b) whether he is competent to represent the debtor at all, and (c) whether he should be associating experienced bankruptcy counsel or arranging for a substitution of counsel and transfer of any fees received from the debtor. Appearances required by counsel for the debtor and by the debtor himself (counsel for the debtor must appear in person, but the debtor and any other parties in interest may appear by telephone if they follow Judge Bason's posted procedures for telephonic appearances, available at www.cacb.uscourts.gov).

Proposed order: Wells Fargo is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this court's final ruling. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

Reasons for denial: The debtor seeks to avoid the junior liens of Wells Fargo and the City of Pomona, Housing Division's ("Pomona") on his principal residence pursuant to section 506(d). But on the record before this court (1) service is inadequate, (2) the evidence is inadequate, and (3) there is no basis to avoid either lien (in whole or in part) under section 506(d).

(1) Service is inadequate

The proof of service (dkt. 8, last 2 pages) fails to comply with the rules for service. Service on Pomona does not comply with Rule 7004(b)(6).

This court also notes that service on Wells Fargo was defective, although Wells Fargo has waived any such defects by filing an opposition (in which it did not raise any deficiency in service). Among other things, Wells Fargo was not served to the attention of an officer as required by Rule 7004(b)(3) & (h) (Fed. R. Bankr. P.) (incorporated by Rule 9014(b), Fed. R. Bankr. P.).

(2) Evidence is inadequate

The form motion includes a section for describing the supporting evidence by exhibit numbers. See dkt. 8, p.4, section 3.c. That section is mostly blank.

(3) Section 506(d) does not support avoidance of either lien

The motion papers include an appraisal valuing the property at $265,000. The debtor states that the total value of all liens against the property is $207,417.65. Motion, p.3, lines 3-7 (1st DOT $89,545.97 + Wells Fargo's 2nd DOT $65,157.55 + Pomona's 3rd DOT $48,714.13 = $207,417.65). Therefore, according to the debtor's own evidence both liens are fully secured and cannot be avoided under section 506(d).

It appears that counsel for the debtor has mistakenly conflated two sections of the Bankruptcy Code:

(a) section 506(d) (which only permits avoidance of liens to the extent they are "under water" (and sometimes not even then - see 11 U.S.C. 1322(b)(2)), and

(b) 11 U.S.C. 522(f), which permits avoidance of judicial liens to the extent that they impair a valid homestead exemption: there is no showing that the liens of Wells Fargo or Pomona are "judicial" liens, and in any event the motion neither seeks nor establishes a sufficient basis for avoidance under section 522(f).

The debtor's reply (dkt. 24) cites irrelevant cases. One case was decided under section 522(f) (and much of its discussion involves matters that have since been mooted by the 2005 revisions to the Bankruptcy Code). See In re Smith, 92 B.R. 287 (Bankr. S.D. Ohio 1988). The debtor cites one other case, for the proposition that "a Motion to Strip [a junior] mortgage may be filed, despite [the fact] that Debtor already obtained a Chapter 7 Discharge." Dkt. 24, p.1:24-25 (citing In re Blendheim, 803 F.3d 477 (9th Cir. 2015)). That issue is irrelevant to whether the lien is partially or wholly unsecured; and on the debtor's own facts the subject liens are wholly secured.

(4) Counsel's fees and competence

Bankruptcy is a complex specialty. It appears that the debtor's counsel is not sufficiently familiar with the Bankruptcy Code and Rules to represent the debtor, either in this specific matter or more generally in this bankruptcy case. Awarding fees for the counterproductive work on this matter would only harm the debtor and creditors, and going forward this Bankruptcy Court is concerned about the potential for irreparable harm to the debtor and creditors. Counsel should be prepared to address (a) whether new counsel should be substituted in and (b) whether any fees that the debtor or the Chapter 13 Trustee may have paid to such counsel should be transferred to new counsel.

Deny as moot for the reasons stated in the Supplemental Declaration (dkt. 23). Appearances are not required on 5/3/18.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this court's final ruling. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

Tentative Ruling for 4/5/18:

Continue to 5/3/18 at 8:30 a.m., with a deadline of 4/19/18 to file and serve the debtor's declaration addressing the following issue. Appearances are not required on 4/5/18.

Reasons: The evidence in support of the motion (dkt. 11, p.9 & Ex.B) is a Kelley Blue Book printout that states that it is a "private party" value, but under 11 U.S.C. 506(a)(2) the value means "the price a retail merchant would charge for the property ..." (emphasis added) (which this Court expects is higher than the "private party" value). The tentative ruling is to continue the hearing to the above date and time and direct the debtor to submit a supplemental declaration addressing this issue.

#32.00 Hrg re: Motion for Turnover of Property of the estate pursuant to 11 U.S.C. section 542(a)

Docket 124

Tentative Ruling:

The tentative ruling is to deny the motion for the reasons stated below.
Appearances are not required.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this court's final ruling. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

Key documents reviewed (in addition to motion papers): Ditech Financial LLC's Opposition (dkt. 130)

Reasons for denial: The debtor seeks a turnover order for $10,193.15 (the "Turnover Amount") in disbursements made by the chapter 13 trustee to Ditech Financial, LLC's predecessor-in-interest (together, "Ditech") prior to 3/1/13 pursuant to the terms of debtor's confirmed chapter 13 plan, based on this court's order granting debtor's objection to Ditech's claim for $56,981.30 in arrears (dkt. 91) following the debtor's negotiation of a loan modification.

Debtor contends there is an ambiguity in the Loan Modification Agreement documents as to whether the Turnover Amount was taken into consideration for purposes of the modified principal balance owing under the loan modification, but asserts that any ambiguity should be resolved in the debtor's favor (dkt. 124, p. 7, lines 1-5; Loan Modification Agreement, page 3, provision 3.B).

Ditech contends that the Turnover Amount was applied towards the outstanding principal for purposes of the Loan Modification and requiring it to turn over the funds would be a breach of the parties' agreement that would necessitate an adversary proceeding to void the Loan Modification Agreement. (dkt. 130, p. 4, lines 9-12, 18-22).

In this Court's view, Ditech has the better argument. The Loan

Modification Agreement states:

The modified principal balance of my Note will include all amounts and arrearages that will be past due as of the Modification Effective Date (including unpaid and deferred interest, fees, escrow advances and other costs, but excluding unpaid late charges, collectively, 'Unpaid Amounts') less any amounts paid to the Lender but not previously credited to my Loan. [Dkt. 130, Exhibit 2, p.3, section 3B]

The "modified effective date" is defined as March 1, 2013. [Dkt. 130, Exhibit 2, p. 3, section 3.]

Additionally, on 6/5/15 Ditech (formerly known as Green Tree Servicing LLC) filed a Motion for Consent to Enter into Loan Modification Agreement (dkt. 111), which states, in relevant part: "The Loan Modification Agreement provides for a lower interest rate and the capitalization of arrears into a modified principal balance ...."

Based on the foregoing, it would appear that Ditech's predecessor arrived at the modified principal balance of $301,602.91 by crediting all payments received prior to 3/1/13 and capitalizing all remaining principal, arrears, interest, fees, escrow advances and other costs, but excluding unpaid late charges.

The debtor has not presented any evidence (such as an accounting reflecting a history of all payments and credits) to show that she did not receive a credit for the $10,193.15 in funds paid to Ditech pursuant to her confirmed plan for the then outstanding arrears. Therefore, the tentative ruling is that the debtor has failed to demonstrate that the Turnover Amount is property of the estate pursuant to 11 U.S.C. 541 and subject to turnover.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." (1) Current issues.

(a) Cash flow and cash collateral motion (dkt. 5, 14, 15, 29). This Court's written order (dkt. 29) erroneously lists the continued hearing as 3/20/18 instead of 4/17/18 at 2:00 p.m., as orally ordered at the hearing on 3/9/18. Nevertheless, it is appropriate in connection with this Status

Conference to address the debtor's current and projected cash flow and related issues.

This Court was not persuaded at the hearing on 3/9/18 that the debtor can generate positive cash flow. The debtor is directed to provide a brief update on any plans to generate positive cash flow from her various businesses and properties. It is also appropriate for other parties in interest to address whether there has been adequate disclosure to date regarding the finances of those businesses and properties. The debtor is cautioned that the declaration due on 3/27/18 must provide comprehensive disclosures regarding those businesses and properties: if the debtor cannot show reasonable prospects for positive cash flow within a reasonable time then this Court might have to grant relief from the automatic stay (upon a proper motion), or convert or dismiss this bankruptcy case, at least if the debtor does not abandon unprofitable businesses or properties.

(b) Employment applications. The parties should be prepared to address the oppositions (dkt. 56, 57) and the direct and indirect source(s) of funds used by the debtor to pay prepetition retainers (see dkt. 48, and cf. dkt. 9, p.6, dkt. 18, p.8, dkt. 20, p.8 - blank spaces instead of disclosure), including when the liens against the 1902 property arose (dkt. 48, Ex.A). In addition, the parties should be prepared to address the following issues:

(i) Proposed bankruptcy counsel - Tilem (dkt. 9, 10): (i) Why were resumes for associates, paralegals, and persons who are "of counsel" to the firm not included? (ii) Has counsel waived or amended the provisions in the retainer agreement regarding the "evergreen" retainer; "overtime" rates, and any attorney's lien? (iii) As for proposed out-sourcing, counsel must address whether employment of such counsel could result in imputed or actual conflicts of interest from any work performed by such attorneys for their own clients or for other law firms.

(ii) Proposed special counsel: the Robins firm and Horvitz firm (dkt. 18, 19, 20, 21). The hourly rates of proposed counsel at the Robins firm and Horvitz firm are substantially greater than those for the debtor's proposed general bankruptcy counsel and the Snyder firm. How will the debtor - acting as a debtor in possession with the duties of a trustee for the benefit of creditors - assure that the potential benefits are not outweighed by the costs that can be reasonably anticipated in connection with the ongoing litigation with Birds Nest, the Archbishop, and the Institute (as those terms are defined in the parties' papers)?

(i) What is the nature of the litigation in which that firm represents the debtor and co-plaintiff, Bridge Tavern, LLC against Odysseuss Investment Group, LLC? (ii) What are the potential costs/risks and benefits? (iii) Is there any actual or potential conflict of interest between the two plaintiffs (e.g., if any judgment in their favor were to be allocated between them in a way that is unfavorable to one or the other)? (iv) From the description at the status conference on 3/9/18 it seemed that the Snyder firm might be assisting the debtor now or in future in transactional matters - is that so?

fr. 3/9/18, 3/20/18, 3/21/18, 4/17/18
fr. 5/3/18

Docket 1

Tentative Ruling:

Revised Tentative Ruling for 5/7/18:
Appearances required.

(1) Current issues

(a) Timing. The matters set forth below are all colloquially known as "first day," "emergency," or otherwise urgent motions that typically would have been resolved by now, except that the facts could not be determined without (expedited) discovery. See dkt. 175 (discovery order) and discussion below. In addition, motions for relief from the automatic stay generally are subject to a 30-day limit (11 U.S.C. 362(e)), although that has been extended in this case (and unless the debtor argues to the contrary this Court will presume that the debtor is consenting to a further continuance). See LBR 4001-1(c) (3). More generally, this Court has the authority to reduce or extend deadlines, with certain exceptions. See Rule 9006 (Fed. R. Bankr. P.).

The tentative ruling is that the dates set forth throughout this tentative ruling are appropriate under the foregoing authorities. The principal dates are:

- 5/14/18 for the debtor to file various supplemental declarations and other papers as explained below and for the parties to lodge a proposed order directing them to mandatory mediation;
- 5/21/18 for any responses from the official committee of general unsecured creditors (the "Committee"), The Bird Nest, LLC ("The Bird Nest"), The Roman Catholic Archbishop of Los Angeles and the California Institute of the Sisters of the Most Holy and Immaculate Heart of the Blessed Virgin Mary (together "RCALA"), and any other parties in interest, and
- 5/28/18 for the debtor to file any reply papers, and for the parties to file a joint status report, and a continued hearing on 6/12/18 at 3:00 p.m.

(b) Cash collateral & budget motions (dkt. 5, 14, 15, 29, 74, 151, 152, 163, 164, 167, 168, 171, 172, 176, 185; and 96, 146, 161).

(i) Legal standards, generally. A chapter 11 debtor who is in possession of the bankruptcy estate (11 U.S.C. 1101(1)) has the duties of a trustee for the benefit of creditors (11 U.S.C. 1107), including a fiduciary duty to protect and conserve property of the estate. See, e.g., In re McConville, 110 F.3d 47, 50 (9th Cir. 1997). Just like a trustee, the debtor may use, sell, or lease property of the bankruptcy estate in the "ordinary course of business" (11 U.S.C. 363(c)(1)), but may not use any property "other than in the ordinary course of business" without authorization from the Bankruptcy Court after notice and a hearing. 11 U.S.C. 363(b)(1) (emphasis added).

In addition, if property at issue is the "cash collateral" of any entity (as defined in 11 U.S.C. 363(a)) then the debtor may not use it at all without prior authorization (or the consent of the entities with an interest in that cash collateral). 11 U.S.C. 363(c)(2). For this reason, it is typical to hold an initial hearing on the use of cash collateral within the first days of a case, with one or more continued hearings thereafter. See generally Rule 4001(b)&(d) (Fed. R. Bankr. P.).

Any entities with an interest in property of the estate (cash collateral or any other collateral) may request that the court require the debtor provide them with "adequate protection" of that interest. 11 U.S.C. 363(e). Then the Bankruptcy Court "shall" condition or prohibit any proposed use, sale, or lease of property to the extent necessary to provide such adequate protection.

Adequate protection must protect the economic interests of secured creditors against diminution after the bankruptcy petition date. It may come in various forms, such as periodic cash payments or liens on any unencumbered property. 11 U.S.C. 361.

(ii) Legal standards, as applied to individual debtors. There is not a great deal of authority about how to apply 11 U.S.C. 363(b)(2) and (c)(1) to individual debtors. First, if the ordinary course of "business" were read to mean only commercial business then a debtor might not be authorized to spend almost anything at all without prior court authorization. See In re Goldstein, 383 B.R. 496 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2007).

Hearing Room 1545

Dana Hollister

Chapter 11

But it is commonly accepted that ordinary living expenses are implicitly part of an individual debtor's everyday "business." Thus, the debtor is automatically authorized by section 363(b) to use property of the estate (except cash collateral) without court approval for such basics such as food, shelter, and ordinary and necessary expenses such as personal care products and other moderate expenses listed on bankruptcy Schedule J. See In re Seely, 492 B.R. 284, 289-91 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2013).

Second, in determining what use of property is "ordinary course," individual debtors' transactions appear to be subject to both (A) a "vertical" or "creditors' expectation" test and (B) a "horizontal" test, just like commercial business debtors. See Seely, 492 B.R. 284, 289-91 & n.7 (applying In re Dant & Russell, Inc., 853 F.2d 700, 704-05 (9th Cir. 1988), superseded by statute on other grounds, 11 U.S.C. § 365\(d\)\(3\)).

The "vertical" or "creditors' expectation" test asks whether the transaction at issue subjects a hypothetical creditor to economic risks of a nature different from those the creditor accepted when deciding to extend credit. This compares the debtor's proposed postpetition transaction with the debtor's prepetition background to see if there is a history of similar transactions. Dant & Russell, 853 F.2d 700, 704-05. The "horizontal" test asks whether persons who are similarly situated to the debtor ordinarily would engage in such transactions. Id.

In this Court's experience, debtors sometimes take an overly aggressive view of what is the "ordinary course" of their business. Therefore a budget motion is required under the posted Procedures of Judge Bason (available at www.cacb.uscourts.gov). Compare Seely, 492 B.R. 284, n.5 & accompanying text (Bluebond, J.) (declining to require debtors to file budget motions, but cautioning that it may be advisable to seek prior authorization for any budget).

Once it is determined that section 363(b)(1) applies - i.e., that court authorization is required (beyond any authorization required for use of cash collateral) - it is unclear what standards the Bankruptcy Court should use in deciding whether or not to authorize a proposed expenditure. See In re Villalobos, 2011 WL 4485793 (9th Cir. BAP 8/19/11) (noting uncertainty, and remanding on that issue). The parties have not briefed that issue.

The tentative ruling is that the debtor bears the burden to establish that the proposed expenditure is in the best interests of the estate. See Goldstein, 383 B.R. 496, 502. For example, Goldstein involved divorcing debtors and the question was whether employment of special counsel to handle not only the property division aspect of the divorce but also the dissolution aspect would be "for the benefit of the estate and not for the debtor's personal benefit." Id. Because dissolution of the marriage was essential to disentangle the debtors' domestic lives, it was held that it was appropriate to authorize employment of counsel to handle both dissolution and property division. Id.

Note that the foregoing "best interests of creditors" test under section 363(b)(1) is in addition to, not in place of, the requirement for adequate protection under section 363(e). Therefore the relevant questions are as follows.

First, does the proposed budget of the debtor, Ms. Hollister, use cash in which Bird Nest or RCALA have an interest and, if so, has the debtor met her burden to show that those interests are adequately protected? Second, does the proposed budget include transactions that are out of the ordinary course and, if so, has the debtor met her burden to establish that the proposed expenditures are in the best interests of the estate?

(iii) Background: prior hearings on cash flow and asset valuation. Based on the record at the time of prior hearings, most extensively on 3/9/18, this Court has questioned whether the debtor can adequately protect the interests of The Bird Nest and RCALA in cash collateral. This Court has found that, among other things, (A) although the debtor's proposed budget, attached to her cash collateral motion, purports to show positive cash flow, that is undercut by the fact that the debtor prepaid her March, 2018 mortgage payments prepetition, and she omitted the ongoing estimated costs of repairs on certain properties, and taking those things into account her cash flow is negative, and (B) although the debtor asserts that The Bird Nest and RCALA are protected by equity cushion in her properties, that is undercut by the debtor's own inconsistent statements about the value of those properties and by accruing interest owed to Mrs. Staats as a senior lienholder, which erodes the value of those properties, all of which makes it uncertain whether there is any equity cushion or whether the net value of the creditors' interest in those properties is declining. See dkt. 5, Ex.A&B, and dkt. 175, p.1:21-24.

This Court was not persuaded to deny the motion to use cash collateral or deny the budget motion. But as a condition for interim approval of those motions this Court required expedited discovery and transparency by the debtor. The record before this Court, including the matters discussed below, establish that the debtor has not entirely lived up to those requirements. See dkt. 175.

(iv) Disputed interest in cash collateral. In the debtor's supplemental reply (dkt. 171, pp.4:22-6:11) the debtor for the first time sets forth an argument that The Bird Nest and RCALA do not actually have an interest in cash collateral, apart from approximately $55,000 in her bank account on the petition date. First, because this issue has only been addressed in the reply papers, this Court must presume for present purposes that those creditors have at least a disputed interest in cash collateral. Even a disputed interest must be adequately protected (if adequate protection did not apply to disputed interests then that would undermine the whole concept of adequate protection).

Second, this Court questions whether the debtor's analysis is correct. Ordinarily a debtor's postpetition cash is generated as proceeds from collateral that existed on the petition date (e.g., rents from rental properties), and therefore ordinarily any creditor with a security interest in the real property and other assets also has a security interest in traceable proceeds and, as adequate protection, such creditors typically are granted a replacement lien in all postpetition property of the estate to the same validity, priority, extent, and non-avoidability as the security interest on the petition date, as part of "adequate protection" of the interests on the petition date. See 11 U.S.C. 541, 552(b)(1), 1115. This Court is not aware of any reason to order otherwise in this case. In other words, based on the current record it appears that the debtor is incorrect that there is no postpetition cash collateral.

Third, supposing for the sake of discussion that The Bird Nest and RCALA actually were to lack an interest in cash collateral then that would only make it all the more important to adequately protect their interest in other collateral. The following tentative ruling therefore makes it a condition of the use of cash collateral, and of approval of the budget motion, that the debtor provide adequate protection with respect to all non-cash collateral.

For all of these reasons, the following tentative ruling presumes that The Bird Nest and RCALA have at least a disputed interest in the debtor's cash collateral. (For the same reasons, the fact that the debtor might have a viable avoidance action under 11 U.S.C. 547 is not dispositive. As the debtor notes, the possible solvency or insolvency of the debtor on and before the petition date cuts both ways. In any event, adequate protection is still needed.)

(v) Evidentiary objections and response (dkt. 171, 185). The tentative ruling is as follows. To the extent that The Bird Nest and RCALA are objecting to the debtor's use of cash collateral on grounds of alleged lack of good faith, or on grounds that the proposed use of that cash to continue the nonbankruptcy litigation on appeal would be a waste of estate resources or otherwise not in the best interests of creditors, the debtor's motivations and assessment of the merits of the nonbankruptcy litigation are relevant. Obviously, the debtor is not an expert on the law, and her attorneys' views of the merits are just one perspective, but this Court can take those things into consideration. There is no jury in these bankruptcy disputes regarding the use of cash collateral, so there is no risk of prejudice to any jury, and this Court can accept the proffered evidence subject to the foregoing limitations. Subject to the foregoing, the tentative ruling is to overrule the evidentiary objections of The Bird Nest and RCALA.

(vi) Cash collateral and budget - general conclusions. The tentative ruling is that, in view of (A) this Court's prior findings about the debtor's lack of profitability and questionable asset values, (B) the debtor's admittedly poor recordkeeping and inconsistent statements, (C) the other concerns addressed throughout this tentative ruling, (D) questions about whether the Paramour is appropriately licensed, and (E) the other serious questions raised by The Bird Nest and RCALA, the debtor has not carried her burden to show that their interests in cash collateral are adequately protected by maintaining the status quo - i.e., by permitting the debtor to continue in control of the estate without supervision. Nevertheless, given the statements by The Bird Nest and RCALA themselves that liquidation of the Paramour property would result in adverse tax consequences that would consume any equity, and given that those creditors and all other creditors and parties in interest may be better protected by continuing to operate some of the debtor's businesses, the tentative ruling is that liquidation is not appropriate and someone - either the debtor or a trustee - must continue to operate the bankruptcy estate.

The question is whether the debtor can be trusted to continue in possession of the bankruptcy estate. Based on the record in this case, including the issues discussed below, this Court has serious questions whether the debtor can be relied upon not to dissipate or hide assets, grossly mismanage the estate, or otherwise fail to live up to her obligations as a debtor in possession with the duties of a trustee for the benefit of creditors. This Court reminds the debtor of those obligations, including but not limited to the requirements to "be accountable for all property received" and to "furnish such information concerning the estate and the estate's administration as is required by [any] party in interest." 11 U.S.C. 1106(a)(1) (incorporating 11 U.S.C. 704(a)(2) & (7)), and see 11 U.S.C. 1101 & 1107.

The tentative ruling is that such a reminder is not sufficient, given the history of this case to date. Accordingly, the tentative ruling is to impose the following conditions on the debtor's continued authorization to use cash collateral.

First, the tentative ruling is to direct the United States Trustee to appoint an examiner.

Second, the tentative ruling is to require the debtor not to enter into any contracts or use any cash collateral or other property of the estate without prior written authorization from The Bird Nest and RCALA, who must have unfettered access to the debtor's premises and books and records at any time without prior notice. If the debtor fails to abide by these obligations then the tentative ruling is that this Court will be prepared, upon a proper declaration, to approve an order for the appointment of a trustee.

Third, subject to certain exceptions noted below, the tentative ruling is to continue the interim authorization to use cash collateral on the same terms as before, with replacement liens under 11 U.S.C. 552(b), and to continue this hearing to the same date as the continued status conference.

(vii) Exception: insurance. The debtor has provided evidence that the insurance policy premiums of $1,065/mo. are "ordinary" under the vertical test, because she apparently has been paying them for several years (she declares that she purchased the policy in 2012). See dkt. 161, p.4, para. 3. But the debtor provides no argument or evidence that the expense of a $3 million insurance policy is "ordinary" under the horizontal test.

Therefore, court approval is required under section 362(b)(1), and the debtor bears the burden to show that the proposed expenditure is in the best interests of the estate. The debtor has not done so.

In addition, the debtor must show that paying for $3 million of coverage is consistent with providing adequate protection to Bird Nest and RCALA. The debtor has not done so.

Accordingly, the tentative ruling is to disapprove the proposed expenditure for this life insurance. The debtor can address at today's hearing whether a different (lesser) life insurance policy is appropriate, and how much time she should have before having to replace the existing policy.

(viii) Car payments. The debtor pays a considerable monthly charge for her vehicle, consisting of both payments on the car loan balance of approximately $68,000 and "what appears to be 3 years of pre-paid maintenance." Dkt. 161, p.3:5. The debtor states that she is not opposed to seeking to refinance this debt, when she has more time. Dkt. 161, p.5, para. 11.

The tentative ruling is that no later than 5/14/18 the debtor must file and serve a motion for authority to refinance the vehicle. That motion must be self-calendared for the same date and time as the continued status conference.

(c) Motion for relief from the automatic stay to pursue appellate litigation (the "R/S Motion") (dkt. 68, 79, 141, 147, 154, 162). This is a somewhat unusual motion in that it is the debtor herself who is seeking relief from the automatic stay, to pursue her appeal from the nonbankruptcy judgments in favor of The Bird Nest and RCALA. Nevertheless, the legal framework is the same as for a creditor's motion for relief from the automatic stay.

The (nonexclusive, non-mandatory) factors that typically are used to assess whether to grant relief from the automatic stay to pursue nonbankruptcy litigation are well known and have been argued by the parties, so this Court need not repeat them here. See generally In re Curtis, 40 B.R. 795, 799–800 (Bankr. D. Utah 1984); In re Kronemeyer, 405 B.R. 915 (9th Cir. BAP 2009); In re Plumberex Specialty Prods., Inc., 311 B.R. 551, 559–60 (Bankr. Having reviewed all the usual factors and, more broadly, the facts and circumstances of this case, the tentative ruling is to agree with the Committee's argument (dkt. 154, pp.2:22-3:16) that a continuance is appropriate. More evidence is needed regarding (i) the solvency or insolvency of the debtor's bankruptcy estate and (ii) the projected costs of the appellate litigation.

The tentative ruling is to defer ruling on the R/S Motion until the time of the continued status conference - by which time further evidence presumably will be available - but meanwhile to continue the R/S Motion to the same date and time as the continued status conference as a "holding date." At that time this Court can, if appropriate, set a schedule for further evidence or other matters.

(d) Motion to authorize transaction out of ordinary course re Bridge Tavern, LLC ("Bridge") (dkt. 112, 140, 150, 156) and motion to employ Urbanlime Real Estate (Leslie Haro) ("Urbanlime") (dkt. 93, 121, 133, 134, 142, 157, 177, 179). No written opposition has been filed to the motion to liquidate and wind up Bridge (dkt. 112, the "Bridge Motion"). It is also supported by the Committee (dkt. 140). The motion to employ Urbanlime (dkt. 93, the "Urbanlime Motion") is opposed by Pierre Casanova, a co-owner of LLCs related to the Cliff's Edge restaurant. It is supported, however, by the Committee (dkt. 142).

Although the record is not entirely clear (mostly due to an apparent lack of transparency by the debtor), several aspects of these related motions are troubling. The debtor apparently has disregarded her duties as a trustee for the benefit of creditors by: (i) entering into a commitment to transfer the Bridge leasehold without the landlord's consent, (ii) reopening the Bridge business without notice or authorization by this Court, (iii) hiring a professional, out of the ordinary course of her business, without court authorization, so as to retroactively create books and records, without any notice or assurance that the professional is disinterested and qualified, (iv) marketing businesses for sale before having reliable books and records for those businesses, thereby possibly chilling the current bidding and any future sales, (v) hiring Urbanlime as a broker without safeguards required by this Court, and (vi) marketing and entering into an agreement to sell the Cliff's Edge-related LLCs without proper notice to, let alone authorization by, the co-owner of those LLCs.

(i) Landlord. Attached to the Bridge Motion is an agreement to sell the business for $495,000 (the "Bridge Agreement"), and although that agreement is expressly contingent on this Court's approval (dkt. 112, Ex.1, para. 24) it does not appear (from this Court's brief review) to include any contingency for approval by the landlord. After the Bridge Motion was filed, the debtor and landlord Odysseus Investment Group, LLC ("Bridge Landlord") stipulated (dkt. 150) to continue the hearing - presumably to address whether the landlord will consent to the assignment of the leasehold.

Is this Court misinterpreting the record? Regardless, why did the debtor market the Bridge assets, enter into the Bridge Agreement, and file the Bridge Motion without obtaining the Bridge Landlord's consent, or even disclosing in the Bridge Motion that such consent was needed? What is the status of the debtor's negotiations with Bridge Landlord? Have those negotiations resulted in any new terms that would make the proposed Bridge Agreement less advantageous for the estate and/or require disclosure to creditors and an opportunity to object by amending and re-noticing the Bridge Motion? The tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 5/14/18 for the debtor to file and serve her declaration addressing those things.

(ii) Reopening the business. The debtor's reply in support of the motion to hire Urbanlime states (dkt. 157, p.3:4-6) that the Bridge business ("Villain's Tavern") previously was not operating but as of April 20, 2018 it has been reopened. Again, this revelation is troubling.

Has reopening the business cost the bankruptcy estate money? Is the debtor certain to recoup that money?

This Court recognizes that, even if it involved some expense, reopening the business might be the best way to maximize the Bridge assets' value, or could be a good idea for other reasons. But that is not the point.

The point is that, just as the debtor acknowledges that causing Bridge to sell its business is a transaction out of the ordinary course, so is causing Bridge to reopen its closed business. In other words, the debtor has used estate assets "other than in the ordinary course of business," requiring approval under 11 U.S.C. 363(b) (emphasis added). Why did the debtor act without Court authorization?

This Court also recognizes that reopening the business might not cost the bankruptcy estate anything if the business is being funded and operated by the proposed new owner. But that in itself would be a transaction out of the ordinary course.

All of the foregoing raises the question what is actually meant by the debtor's delphic phrase that Villain's Tavern "has been reopened and is now operating." Dkt. 157, p.3:6. The tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 5/14/18 for the debtor to file and serve her declaration addressing those things.

(iii) "Controller" Jeffrey Garrison. The same reply in support of the Bridge Motion states (dkt. 157, p.2:3-8) that the debtor hired a "controller" after the petition date. The debtor apparently had not used a controller in the ordinary course of her businesses prepetition, because she admits (dkt. 157, p.2:9-17) that "in most cases" her "books and records were either non-existent, or rudimentary" and the controller is in the process of retroactively creating books and records from "source materials." Id.

It is true that usually a debtor engaged in business can hire regular employees, who may include controllers, bookkeepers, and the like, without having to seek authorization under 11 U.S.C. 327 or 363(b)(1). Likewise, if a debtor has used a non-employee tax accountant prepetition, it may be permissible to continue using that accountant postpetition without court authorization if the work is not central to the bankruptcy process but instead is part of the "ordinary course" operations of the debtor.

But this case does not appear to be anything like those situations. Mr. Garrison is a certified public accountant who was hired for his present tasks postpetition, and he does not appear to be an officer or employee of one or more of the debtor's businesses or the debtor herself. See dkt. 157, pp. 13-14 (Garrison decl.). Rather, he appears to be an accountant who is retroactively creating books and records for use in this bankruptcy case, and who fits the classic definition of a professional whose employment must be authorized under 11 U.S.C. 327. See, e.g., In re That's Entertainment Mktg. Group, Inc., 168 B.R. 226, 230 (N.D. Cal. 1994) (professional person is one who plays "an intimate role in the reorganization of a debtor's estate") (citations omitted).

The fact that Mr. Garrison's employment was not authorized is particularly troubling because none of the usual safeguards have been applied to assure that his employment is consistent with the best interests of the estate. Such safeguards are especially important when the person at issue has been hired to go through the debtor's "source documents" and retroactively create books and records. There is too much opportunity for whitewashing or other mischief when charged with such an important task.

Normal safeguards would include disclosing any "connections" with all parties in interest, providing evidence of qualifications, and proving that the proposed professional is disinterested and does not hold or represent any interest adverse to the bankruptcy estate. See 11 U.S.C. 101(14), 327(a) and Rule 2014 (Fed. R. Bankr. P.). Mr. Garrison's declaration does none of these things, except to declare that he has done "some work related to the Debtor's sole proprietorship businesses ...," which raises concerns about whether he is sufficiently independent, whether he was still owed anything for his prepetition services when he was hired postpetition by the debtor (without authorization), and whether he otherwise meets the standards for retaining professionals. Dkt. 157, p.13, para.5.

The tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 5/14/18 for the debtor and Mr. Garrison to file and serve declarations stating under oath all "connections" within the scope of Rule 2014, together with a motion for authority to employ Mr. Garrison (both retroactively and prospectively) under both section 327(a) and 363(b), to the extent that each may be applicable, and set that motion for hearing concurrent with the continued status conference.

(iv) Chilling the market? As noted above, the debtor concedes that most of the books and records with respect to her businesses are "either non-existent, or rudimentary," and her newly-hired controller is still in the process of attempting to construct books and records (dkt. 157, p.2:9-17). Yet the debtor states that "Ms. Haro [Urbanlime] has been informally shopping the three Cliff's entities for months" (dkt. 157, p.4:5-6) and has been "test[ing] the market" for her businesses (dkt. 157, p.5:18-24).

Normally, in this Court's experience, a buyer of a business requires reliable historical books and records, or else will impose a steep discount. Has the debtor used appropriate business judgment in marketing the businesses already? Has the market been chilled, and the estate harmed?

The tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 5/14/18 for the debtor and Ms. Haro to file and serve their declarations addressing those things.

(v) Employment of Urbanlime. The debtor has filed a separate motion to employ Urbanlime, not just for Bridge but for GJV, Inc. and the Cliff's Edge-related LLCs as well (dkt. 93, the "Urbanlime Motion"). That motion does not cite any section of the Bankruptcy Code, so it is unclear if Urbanlime's retention is sought to be approved under 11 U.S.C. 363(b) (as part of the use of the debtor's interest in Bridge out of the ordinary course) or under 11 U.S.C. 327 and/or 328 (retention of professionals).

The Committee supports that application (dkt. 142). That application nevertheless implicates the following issues.

First, this Court notes that Pierre Casanova, who is a 50% member with the debtor of the Cliff's Edge-related LLCs, has objected to Urbanlime's retention, but he takes no position with respect to Urbanlime's services involving Bridge or GJV, Inc. provided that the other LLCs' funds are not used to compensate Urbanlime. See dkt. 133, p.5, n.1. The tentative ruling is that any compensation to Urbanlime must come solely from proceeds of the transaction at issue, not from any other source.

Second, the Bridge Motion asserts that the application to hire Urbanlime "is probably not necessary" (dkt. 112, p.5:2), at least with respect to Bridge, because the sale, allegedly, is by the business not by the debtor herself. That assertion is not adequately supported.

For one thing, it is unclear whether the business purchase agreement (dkt. 112, Ex.1) is signed by the debtor in her personal capacity as well as on behalf of the business. Typed below her signature is "Dana Hollister/Bridge Tavern LLC." Dkt. 112, Ex.1, para. 46.

For another thing, the listing agreement with Urbanlime is also ambiguous. Its signature line (dkt. 93, Ex. C, at p.27) reads, "Clients: Dana Hollister, Pierre Casanova," which suggests that they are hiring Urbanlime in their individual capacities. It is true that the listing agreement is signed solely by the debtor (not Mr. Casanova), and she uses the title "President" - i.e., perhaps she is purporting to sign as the managing member (colloquially, "President") of the LLCs? But Mr. Casanova objects that the debtor had no authority to sign the listing agreement, either for him or for the Cliff's Edge-related LLCs. See dkt. 133, 134, 177. Cf. dkt. 157, p.5:1-5 (debtor's reply, still ambiguous). In sum, it is ambiguous in what capacity the debtor has signed the listing agreement, and therefore whether Urbanlime is being hired by the estate or by Bridge.

For all of these reasons, the ambiguous documentation suggests that Urbanlime may be representing the debtor/estate, not just Bridge. That may be a problem because Urbanlime discloses that it might act as broker for both the buyer and the seller (it is unclear whether it has in fact done so) and the posted Procedures of Judge Bason (available at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) give notice such dual agency is disapproved for persons hired by the estate (due to actual and potential conflicts of interest).

Alternatively, even if Urbanlime is not being hired by the debtor/estate directly, the tentative ruling is that it would be inappropriate to authorize a transaction out of the ordinary course under 11 U.S.C. 363(b) that had the effect of authorizing the retention of a professional by Bridge, whose goal should be to maximize the sale price, when that professional also represents a buyer whose interest is to minimize the sale price (among other terms of any purchase and sale). In other words, whether Urbanlime's retention is included within the Bridge Motion (11 U.S.C. 363(b)) or the Unrbanlime Application (11 U.S.C. 327, 328 and/or 363(b)), the tentative ruling is that if Urbanlime is hired it cannot engage in dual agency: it must arrange for a separate agent for the buyer.

That is potentially a serious problem. As noted above, the Villain's Tavern business has been reopened, and it is not clear who is running it. If the sale of the Bridge business and leasehold has already effectively occurred, it is questionable whether it will be possible to "unscramble the eggs" and arrange for the seller (the debtor/estate) and the buyer to have representation that is truly independent.

The tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 5/14/18 for the debtor to file and serve declarations by the debtor and Ms. Haro addressing those things. Those declarations must include all "connections" within the scope of Rule 2014.

(vi) Lack of notice to, or authorization by, Mr. Casanova. Mr. Casanova asserts, and the debtor does not deny, that she cannot act for the Cliff's Edge-related LLCs without his consent. But rather than serve him with papers in this bankruptcy case, the debtor has served the LLCs at her own address. See dkt. 133, 134, 177. Cf. dkt. 157.

The debtor argues that there is no harm to Mr. Casanova because he ended up finding out about the proposed transactions, and he can withhold his consent if he chooses. See dkt. 157. The debtor ignores the fact that, by not serving Mr. Casanova properly, she has misused the bankruptcy process. She also ignores the fact that, by already marketing the Cliff's Edge-related LLCs when she lacked the right to sell them, she may have promised prospective buyers what she cannot deliver and thereby chilled the bidding for any future marketing and sale.

(vii) Conclusion as to Bridge and Urbanlime. The tentative ruling is also to deny the Urbanlime Motion with respect to the Cliff's Edge-related entities. If the foregoing concerns in sections (1)(c)(i)-(vi) are adequately addressed, the tentative ruling is (A) to grant the Bridge Motion and (B) grant the Urbanlime Motion solely with respect to Bridge and GJV, Inc. But first the appropriate declarations must be filed, and the tentative ruling is to continue the Bridge Motion and the Urbanlime Motion to the same date and time as the continued status conference, with any supplemental oppositions and replies due at the usual time prior to the hearing (under the Local Bankruptcy Rules).

(e) Other employment applications. The tentative ruling is that, given the lack of sufficient information about the assets and liabilities of the bankruptcy estate, and the prospects of success in the appeal of the debtor's principal nonbankruptcy litigation, the employment applications must be continued to the same date and time as the continued status conference, with an extension of the prior interim authorization. The parties should be prepared to address, however, whether it is appropriate to grant any of the applications on a final basis, or conversely to impose other requirements before any such final approval.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 3/6/18.

(a) Bar date: The tentative ruling is that the debtor's bar date motion sets a bar date that is too soon after service of any notice to creditors; and in addition as stated in the posted Procedures of Judge Bason (available at www.cacb.uscourts.gov), the debtor is directed not to use the local form of notice. Rather, this Court will issue an order setting a bar date and directing the debtor to serve a copy of that order.

3/9/18. Nevertheless, it is appropriate in connection with this Status Conference to address the debtor's current and projected cash flow and related issues.

This Court was not persuaded at the hearing on 3/9/18 that the debtor can generate positive cash flow. The debtor is directed to provide a brief update on any plans to generate positive cash flow from her various businesses and properties. It is also appropriate for other parties in interest to address whether there has been adequate disclosure to date regarding the finances of those businesses and properties. The debtor is cautioned that the declaration due on 3/27/18 must provide comprehensive disclosures regarding those businesses and properties: if the debtor cannot show reasonable prospects for positive cash flow within a reasonable time then this Court might have to grant relief from the automatic stay (upon a proper motion), or convert or dismiss this bankruptcy case, at least if the debtor does not abandon unprofitable businesses or properties.

(b) Employment applications. The parties should be prepared to address the oppositions (dkt. 56, 57) and the direct and indirect source(s) of funds used by the debtor to pay prepetition retainers (see dkt. 48, and cf. dkt. 9, p.6, dkt. 18, p.8, dkt. 20, p.8 - blank spaces instead of disclosure), including when the liens against the 1902 property arose (dkt. 48, Ex.A). In addition, the parties should be prepared to address the following issues:

(i) Proposed bankruptcy counsel - Tilem (dkt. 9, 10): (i) Why were resumes for associates, paralegals, and persons who are "of counsel" to the firm not included? (ii) Has counsel waived or amended the provisions in the retainer agreement regarding the "evergreen" retainer; "overtime" rates, and any attorney's lien? (iii) As for proposed out-sourcing, counsel must address whether employment of such counsel could result in imputed or actual conflicts of interest from any work performed by such attorneys for their own clients or for other law firms.

(ii) Proposed special counsel: the Robins firm and Horvitz firm (dkt. 18, 19, 20, 21). The hourly rates of proposed counsel at the Robins firm and Horvitz firm are substantially greater than those for the debtor's proposed general bankruptcy counsel and the Snyder firm. How will the debtor - acting as a debtor in possession with the duties of a trustee for the benefit of creditors - assure that the potential benefits are not outweighed by the costs that can be reasonably anticipated in connection with the ongoing litigation with Birds Nest, the Archbishop, and the Institute (as those terms are defined in the parties' papers)?

(iii) Proposed special counsel: the Snyder firm (dkt. 36, 37). (i)

What is the nature of the litigation in which that firm represents the debtor and co-plaintiff, Bridge Tavern, LLC against Odysseuss Investment Group, LLC?

(ii) What are the potential costs/risks and benefits? (iii) Is there any actual or potential conflict of interest between the two plaintiffs (e.g., if any judgment in their favor were to be allocated between them in a way that is unfavorable to one or the other)? (iv) From the description at the status conference on 3/9/18 it seemed that the Snyder firm might be assisting the debtor now or in future in transactional matters - is that so?

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 3/6/18.

(a) Bar date: TBD

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: TBD

(c) Continued status conference: 4/17/18 at 2:00 p.m., status report due 4/3/18. (see order, dkt. 30).

DEBTOR

Docket 57

Tentative Ruling:

Grant as provided below. Appearances are not required.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

Termination. Terminate the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1).

Any co-debtor stay (11 U.S.C. 1301(c)) is also terminated, because it has not been shown to have any basis to exist independent of the stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(a). To the extent, if any, that the motion seeks to terminate the automatic stay in other past or pending bankruptcy cases, such relief is denied on the present record. See In re Ervin (Case No. 14-bk-18204-NB, docket no. 311).

Effective date of relief. Deny the request to waive the 14-day stay provided by FRBP 4001(a)(3) for lack of sufficient cause shown.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." automatic stay shall apply to such property in any bankruptcy case purporting to affect such property and filed within two years after the date of entry of this order, unless otherwise ordered by the court presiding over that bankruptcy case.

For the avoidance of doubt, any acts by the movant to obtain exclusive possession of such property shall not be stayed. Any additional request for relief applicable to future bankruptcy cases is denied (e.g., any request to grant relief against third parties without any notice is denied) due to lack of sufficient factual or legal grounds presented in support of such relief.

Effective date of relief. Grant the request to waive the 14-day stay provided by FRBP 4001(a)(3).

The automatic stay does not apply. This case has been dismissed, which terminates the automatic stay. See 11 USC 349(b)(3) & 362(c).

In the alternative and in addition, this court grants relief from the automatic stay as follows.

Termination. Terminate the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1) and (d)(2).

Any co-debtor stay (11 U.S.C. 1301(c)) is also terminated, because it has not been shown to have any basis to exist independent of the stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(a). interest in the property (sometimes referred to in the mortgage context as the "original borrower"), Movant did not serve the original borrower in compliance with Rule 7004(b)(3), which requires service on a corporation to be to the attention of an officer or agent. See LBR 4001-1(a) (1) and (c)(1)(B), 9014 (b).

Option for shortened time: This court has selected a continued hearing date that contemplates shortened notice (per Rule 9006) but that date is conditioned on the movant serving all papers on the day after the current hearing date. Alternatively, the movant may self-calendar a continued hearing on regular notice.

Option for interim/partial order: Movant may elect to lodge a proposed order granting the partial relief provided in this tentative ruling, but any such order must recite that a continued hearing has been set to consider additional relief (or, alternatively, that the movant no longer seeks additional relief and the Clerk's office is requested and directed to take the continued hearing off calendar).

Effective date of relief. Grant the request to waive the 14-day stay provided by FRBP 4001(a)(3).

Tentative Ruling:

Grant in part and continue in part to 5/22/18 at 10:00 a.m. as set forth below.
Appearances are not required on 5/8/18.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this court's final ruling. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

Use of incorrect form. This court notes that Movant used the relief from stay form for non-bankruptcy actions, but the non-bankruptcy action at issue is an unlawful detainer proceeding, for which there is a different form. This Court's forms are tailored to the particular matter at issue, and in general use of the wrong form may lead to errors and requires additional work for this Court. The tentative ruling is to excuse the use of the wrong form in this instance, with the caution that if the wrong form is used in future (without a sufficient explanation why the normal form is inadequate) it may lead to denial or delay of the requested relief.

The automatic stay does not apply. This case has been dismissed, which terminates the automatic stay. See 11 USC 349(b)(3) & 362(c).

In addition, based on the un rebutted assertions in the motion that the debtor is neither a signatory of the lease nor an occupant of the leased premises (dkt. 7, pp. 4, 7, 9 & supporting exhibits), it does not appear that there is any basis to assert that 11 U.S.C. 362(a) applies.

Imposing a Stay or Continuing the Automatic

Docket 11

Tentative Ruling:

Grant, subject to the following conditions. Appearances are not required.

After the hearing date this court will prepare an order and the tentative ruling is to include the following language in that order:

The stay of 11 U.S.C. 362(a) applies subject to the following modifications and conditions:

(1) Service and reconsideration. Any party in interest who was not timely served in accordance with FRBP 7004 (incorporated by FRBP 9014(b)) is hereby granted through 14 days after proper service to seek reconsideration, including retroactive relief (under FRBP 9023 and/or 9024). Any such person (a) may set a hearing on 14 days' notice, (b) may appear by telephone (if arrangements are made per Judge Bason's posted procedures), and (c) may present all arguments orally at the hearing (i.e., no written argument is required). If written arguments appear necessary then this court will set a briefing schedule at the hearing.

(2) Reasons. (a) It appears appropriate to impose the automatic stay, and to impose it as to all persons rather than just as to selected persons, because one purpose of the automatic stay is to preventing a "race to collect" that could unfairly advantage some creditors at the expense of others. (b) To prevent possible abuse, this court provides the foregoing simple process for reconsideration.

Tentative Ruling for 5/8/18:
Appearances required.

At the hearing on 3/20/18, this Court continued the matter to this date and directed (1) debtor to commence making higher payments to Movant in the amount of $4,079.99 ($3,698.51 P&I + $381.48 escrow); and (2) set deadlines for (a) Movant to file a supplemental declaration regarding recalculation of the appropriate monthly escrow fund payment, and (b) debtor to file a response.

This Court has reviewed Movant's supplemental declaration (dkt. 68) and debtor's response (dkt. 72). The parties should be prepared to address whether they have reached any resolution regarding debtor's contention that Movant has not taken into account any credits received from hazard insurance and county taxes.

Chapter 13

Grant in part, deny in part, and continue to 4/10/17 at 10:00 a.m., all as set forth below. Appearances required.

(1) Background

The parties appear to agree that the debtor has made monthly payments of $3,698.51 (the normal amortizing principal and interest payments). Those payments were due on the first day of each month, and generally were paid a few days later. See dkt. 8, Ex.5 (movant's spreadsheet) and dkt. 61, Ex.A, & dkt. 62) (debtor's copies of cashier checks). The motion lists some late charges, attorney fees, and other items (dkt. 58, p.7, para.8), but those do not appear to have been included in the movant's spreadsheet (dkt. 58, Ex.5, at PDF pp.30-33), perhaps because the listed amounts are for prepetition periods. In any event, the core of the parties' disagreement appears to involve an escrow impound account to pay real estate taxes and property insurance premiums.

(2) The debtor's assertions of "improper" escrow impounds are unpersuasive

The debtor's declaration (dkt. 61, Tribelsky Decl., para.9, at PDF p.7:24-28) asserts that the impound is "improper" and that the debtor has "struggled with [movant] Wells Fargo to have them end these impounds." The debtor also declares (dkt. 61, at PDF p.7:16-22) that there was an "improper increase" in monthly payments starting on March 1, 2016, which he believes was due to an escrow impound for taxes and insurance.

The debtor fails to explain why there is anything "improper" about requiring him to pay into an escrow for real estate taxes and insurance. The loan documents (dkt. 8, Ex.1, para.3, pp.4-5) require the debtor to make escrow payments for taxes and insurance premiums on the same date at the payments of principal and interest.

It is true that the movant apparently had not required escrow payments for some unspecified period prior to March 1, 2016. See Notice of Mortgage Payment Change (Official Form 410S1) (the "Change Notice"), filed 1/19/16 on the Claims Register, at PDF pp.5-6 (requiring monthly payments of $351.96 commencing March 1, 2016). But if the debtor is asserting some sort of waiver that argument is unpersuasive. The Deed of Trust provides (dkt. 58, Ex.1, para.3, pp.4-5) that although the movant may waive the escrow requirement, the movant "may revoke the waiver as to any or all Escrow Items at any time" and then the debtor "shall pay" all escrow amounts.

The debtor apparently just ignored his obligation to pay escrow impound amounts. Instead he has presented evidence (dkt. 61, Ex.B, at PDF pp.38 et seq.) that he paid taxes directly to the tax authorities and insurance premiums directly to the insurers.

It appears that the movant must have credited the debtor's direct payments of taxes and insurance, because its Change Notice filed on 10/18/16 lists a low estimated "Starting balance" of $861.27 as of December 2016 (although that apparently assumes that the debtor would start making his required escrow payments). In any event, the movant's Change Notice is prima facie evidence of the validity of this underlying calculation in support of its claim, and the debtor has not established that there is anything wrong with the movant's accounting included in its Change Notice filed on 10/18/16.

Similarly, by the time of the next Change Notice it appears that the movant must have once again credited the debtor's direct payments of taxes and insurance because, the escrow account projections ("Part 3") project a required "Starting balance" for March 2018 of only $762.96 (although, again, this appears to assume that the debtor will have made certain payments into the escrow account by the start of March 2018). In any event, the debtor has not shown that there is anything wrong with this supporting underlying documentation of the movant's claim.

(3) Despite the deficiencies in the debtor's arguments and evidence, it appears that the motion itself fails to account for the debtor's direct payments of real estate taxes and insurance

The motion asserts (dkt. 58, p.9, para.12.c.) that the debtor was behind three payments of $4,053.45, for a total of $12,160.35, less a suspense account balance of $1,166.12, for a total of $10,994.23 as of approximately 12/12/18 (when the declaration in support of the motion was signed). But unlike the Change Notices the motion does not appear to give the debtor credit for direct payments of real estate taxes and insurance.

Based on the spreadsheet attached to the motion as Exhibit 5 (dkt. 58, at PDF pp.30-33), the alleged shortfall of $10,994.23 appears to be the cumulative sum of all the shortfalls between the $3,698.51 that the debtor was paying each month (the normal amortizing principal and interest payments) and the higher monthly amounts that he should have been paying in order to fund the escrow account. There are no entries in the spreadsheet that appear to reflect the debtor's direct payments of taxes and insurance.

Nor is it possible to rely on the latest Change Notice to determine precisely what the debtor owes. At first glance that Change Notice would appear to have current information because it was filed on 3/5/18, but it provides only a projected shortfall of $762.96 in the escrow account as of March 2018 (3/5/18 Charge Notice at PDF p.6, Part 3, end of first line). That projection probably is too low, because it appears to assume that part of the debtor's monthly payment is credited to the escrow account in January of 2018, and that the debtor will make some very substantial payments in February and March of 2018, and that the real estate taxes that are due in March of 2018 will be paid out of those escrow payments (see id., Part 4, 2d and 5th columns, rows for January, February, and March, including credits of $1,281.90, $9,810.75, and $354.94, and debit of $1,612.38).

The bottom line is that although the movant has not established precisely what the debtor owes, it has established cause for some sort of relief from the automatic stay - namely, there is "cause" within the meaning of 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1) in that the debtor has failed for many months to comply with his obligations to fund the escrow account, which exposes the movant to the risk that it will have to bear the cost if the debtor fails to pay real estate taxes or insurance (especially if the property were to be damaged or completely burn down). The required adequate protection is for the debtor to cure the deficiency in the escrow account over a reasonable period of time.

The latest Change Notice (filed 3/5/18) can be used as a starting point. It requires that the debtor pay $381.48 per month into the escrow account, in addition to his regular monthly payments of $3,698.51 on account of principal and interest, for total monthly payments of $4,079.99. The escrow payments may have to be adjusted (as noted above, the Change Notice appears to assume that the debtor will have made some very substantial payments by the start of March 2018), but this Court can set a schedule for such adjustment (see below).

(4) Conclusion

The tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 4/1/18 for the debtor (a) to file evidence that he has paid the March 2018 real estate tax payment directly to the taxing authority and (b) to commence making monthly payments of $381.48 into the escrow account, in addition to his regular monthly payments of $3,698.51 on account of principal and interest, for total monthly payments of $4,079.99.

Chapter 13

In addition, the tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 4/1/18 for the movant to file a supplemental declaration showing a calculation of the required escrow balance as of 5/1/18, the required monthly payments for the debtor to cure the deficiency in that escrow balance, and the resulting new total monthly payment that the debtor will have to pay on 5/1/18 and each month thereafter.

Finally, the tentative ruling is to set a continued hearing at the date and time set forth at the start of this tentative ruling, so that the parties and this Court can address what to do if the debtor disputes the movant's calculations.

(1) Mediation. The parties' latest status report requests mediation. See adv. dkt. 35, p.3, section E.3. This request is puzzling.

At the 2/27/18 status conference, this Court set a deadline of 3/13/18 for the parties to lodge a proposed mediation order, which was later memorialized in a written order (adv. dkt. 33, 1st ordering paragraph adopting attached tentative ruling for 2/27/18, para. "(2)"). No such proposed mediation order was ever lodged with this Court. This is not the first time that they have ignored this Court's order regarding mediation (see tentative ruling for 2/27/18, para. "(1)," reproduced below).

The tentative ruling is to sanction both counsel $200 for repeatedly disregarding this Court's orders regarding mediation, and to set yet another deadline - 5/15/18 - for the parties to lodge a mediation order. The parties are cautioned that continued disregard of this Court's orders will result in more serious sanctions and/or other consequences.

(2) Deadlines: This adversary proceeding has been pending since 4/7/17. This Court previously has set deadlines (adv. dkt. 29, exhibit, adopting tentative ruling for 1/30/18, para. "(2)": e.g., a discovery cutoff of 5/1/18. The parties appear to have ignored those deadlines.

Their latest status report states (adv. dkt. 35, p.2, section B.3.) that they both expect to complete discovery by "July, 2018," i.e., after the discovery 5/1/18 cutoff. The parties' discovery schedule also appears to be incompatible with this Court's order regarding the 6/26/18 deadline for dispositive motions to be heard. See adv. dkt. 29.

Neither party has requested an extension of the deadlines previously ordered by this Court (either formally, by motion, or even informally in the status report). In setting deadlines this Court has attempted to apply a careful analysis of the parties' legal theories and factual allegations, the parties' status reports, this Court's available hearing dates, how much time might be needed for mediation, and other matters. Disregarding this Court's orders requires additional work by this Court to re-determine deadlines and/or address the consequences of missed deadlines.

The tentative ruling is to sanction both counsel $100 for ignoring this Court's previously ordered deadlines (with a caution, again, that continued disregard of this Court's orders may lead to greater adverse consequences). The tentative ruling is also to set a deadline of 5/15/18 for the parties to lodge a proposed agreed order setting realistic, binding new deadlines. Finally, the tentative ruling is to set a continued status conference for 5/22/18 at 11:00 a.m., the sole anticipated purpose of which will be to address whether the parties have complied with this Court's latest directions (set forth above) and, if not, to address what sanctions to impose. The parties are directed not to file any status report in advance of that status conference.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." If appearances are required, and you fail to appear without adequately resolving this matter by consent, then you may waive your right to be heard on matters that are appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

Tentative Ruling for 2/27/18:

Continue to 5/8/18 at 11:00 a.m. with a brief status report due 4/24/18.

Appearances are not required on 2/27/18.

(1) Background. This adversary proceeding has been pending since 4/7/17, and is being jointly administered with Adv. No. 2:17-ap-01551 - all papers are to be filed in this adversary proceeding (adv. dkt. 26). The discovery cutoff and some other deadlines have been set, but no trial date or pretrial conference date has yet been set (adv. dkt. 29). Matters of venue, jurisdiction, and authority have been determined and/or waived or forfeited (adv. dkt. 29). This Court previously ordered mediation (adv. dkt. 17) but at the status conference on 12/19/17 the parties reported that they had failed to comply with that order and the parties' latest status report (adv. dkt. 31) requests that they ordered to mediation again.

(2) Mediation. The tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 3/13/18 for the parties to lodge a proposed mediation order (the parties are directed to use the time between now and that deadline to find a mutually agreeable mediator whose schedule can accommodate the needs of this matter; and if the parties cannot even agree on a mediator they may lodge separate orders and Judge Bason will chose among them, or issue his own order).

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." If appearances are required, and you fail to appear without adequately resolving this matter by consent, then you may waive your right to be heard on matters that are appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

Tentative Ruling for 1/30/18:

Appearances required. The court has reviewed the parties' joint status report (adv. dkt. 24) and the other filed documents and records in this adversary proceeding.

(1) Venue/jurisdiction/authority. Matters of venue, jurisdiction, and authority have been determined and/or waived or forfeited (docket number(s) 22, and at the hearing on 12/19/17).

(2) Deadlines: This adversary proceeding has been pending since 4/7/17. Pursuant to LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B), plaintiff is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the status conference, attaching a copy of this tentative ruling or otherwise memorializing the following.

Appearances required by counsel for the debtor but telephonic appearances are encouraged if advance arrangements are made (see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.," "Instructions/Procedures").

(1) Current issues

The tentative ruling, subject to any objections at the hearing and further subject to consideration of whether re-balloting is required, is to provide the debtors with one final opportunity to correct the issues set forth below with the disclosure statement (dkt. 250) and the debtors' proposed plan (dkt. 249). The principal documents reviewed by this Court are the plan, disclosure statement, and supporting documents (dkt. 249-254), Butler Capital's objection (dkt. 256), and the debtors' reply (dkt. 257).

(a) Sequence of property sales.

The sequence of property sales in Exhibit H of the Disclosure Statement is not clear. Do the properties have to sell in a particular order? Are the debtors obligated to sell whatever they can as soon as they can and/or in whatever sequence and combinations will maximize value and/or speed? The tentative ruling is that the debtors must clarify Exhibit H either to demonstrate the correct order of sale or that the plan does not require sale in a particular order.

(b) Escrow Deadlines.

From this Court's review of the amended Exhibit H, it appears that the debtors intend to have one year from the projected effective date of December 1, 2016 in which to open escrow, and if any properties that meet that condition later fall out of escrow, the debtors have sixty days to open a new escrow, with an outside period of 18 months from December 1, 2016 (or earlier, if an escrow is opened earlier) in which all escrows must close. However, the way that this is written in the plan is difficult to understand. Particularly, Exhibit H, pp. 4:25-5:1, is unclear, especially because the projected effective date of the plan is not listed until Exhibit H, Page 10. The tentative ruling is that the debtors must revise the language in the plan to clarify these provisions.

(c) Provisions for relief from default.

The sentence on p.5:14-19 regarding relief from default remains confusing. Is default exclusively tied to proceeds given to Bayview? Can other parties declare default? The tentative ruling is that these provisions must be revised to be written in "plain" english to better reflect the debtors' intention.

(d) "Good cause" for relief from default.

The sentences on p.6:10-14 regarding the standard for cause for relief from default are confusing. The debtors list as a possible standard the same standard that would apply to a debtor showing adequate protection in defending against a motion for relief from the automatic stay, but then they state that alternative standards may be proposed by the parties or the Court, if the Court deems some other standard more reasonable under the circumstances. How would this court make that determination? The tentative ruling is that the debtors must clarify these provisions so they may be more equitable to creditors.

(e) Feasibility of interest payments.

In its Tentative Ruling for 9/27/16, this Court addressed the issue of the feasibility of the debtors' proposed interest payments to Bayview (Exhibit H, p.7:14-16) without some sort of cash infusion at the beginning of the plan. Exhibit H does not appear to have been explicitly amended to address the Court's concerns. The tentative ruling is that the plan must be amended to provide for a cash infusion, and to make the failure to provide such infusion, or failure of the debtors immediately to provide evidence of that infusion, an event of default. In addition, the parties should be prepared to address whether Exhibit H should include an explanation of Butler Capital's treatment under the plan, in light of Butler Capital's objection to confirmation (dkt. 256), and the debtors' reply (dkt. 257).

In addition, the debtors should be prepared to address the status of the proposed sale of the Foasberg Dry Cleaning business and whether, after payment of creditors to that business have been paid, the proceeds will constitute an adequate cash infusion to support the proposed interest payments.

(2) Deadlines/dates. These jointly administered cases were filed on 1/23/15.

(a) Bar date: 4/20/15 (timely served per dkt. 40)

(b) Plan: The tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 12/13/16 for the debtor to lodge proposed orders approving the disclosure statement and confirming the plan and to file and serve on Bayview, the Receiver (for Hilma Foasberg), and the debtors' equity holders (i) notices of lodgment, (ii) an amended plan as set forth above (with any additional changes ordered at the hearing) and (iii) a redline showing the changes. (1) Current issues

The tentative ruling is to approve the disclosure statement (dkt. 228) and confirm the debtors' proposed plan (dkt. 227) if and only if the debtors make the following modifications/interlineations and can provide a cash infusion or other sufficient evidence of feasibility as set forth below. The principal documents reviewed by this court are the plan, disclosure statement, supporting documents (dkt. 229-231), Bayview's objections (dkt. 240), the ballot summary (dkt. 242), the debtors' reply (dkt. 243), and Mr. Foasberg's supplemental declaration (dkt. 244).

(a) Explicit incorporation of Exhibit H into the plan

The tentative ruling is that either Exhibit H itself, or the plan, or the order confirming the plan, or all three, must make it explicit that Exhibit H is incorporated into the plan (although it is only attached to the disclosure statement). That appears to be the intent of the plan, if not its actual terms, because it references Ex.H and vice versa, but this should be more explicit.

(b) "Hard" dates for the close of escrow

The debtors' current proposed plan adopts the previously ordered deadlines that for each property the debtors must be in escrow one year after confirmation (dkt. 228, Ex.H, p.4:24-25), and close escrow 18 months after escrow is entered (id., p.5:26-28), and also proposes (i) that they have 60 days from the failure of any escrow to re-open an escrow if they find a new buyer (id., p.5:2-4) and, apparently, (ii) that each new escrow opens a new 18 month period (id., p. 5:26-28). The tentative ruling is that the former condition meets the standards for cramdown (fair and equitable etc.) but the latter does not.

The tentative ruling is further that the debtors could cure this problem by expressly providing two things. First, the 18 month period would run from the first date when any escrow is opened as to a given property (or, for any escrow that is pending on the Effective Date, 18 months from the Effective Date). Second, to prevent possible evasion of the deadlines, sales would need to be all cash at closing (no deferred payments; no transfers of equity in lieu of cash; etc.).

(c) Confusing additional preconditions to any default

The debtor apparently seeks to impose an additional precondition (dkt. 228, Ex.H, p.5:12-25, the "Additional Precondition") that before a party in interest may send a notice of default it must show that the payment of its claim is actually threatened after taking into account the likely proceeds from whatever properties actually are in escrow. First, as Bayview points out, this appears to place an undue burden on creditors.

Second, the Additional Precondition appears to be unnecessary because the debtors have an alternate remedy. If the debtor is actually able to pay creditors from the pending sales of other properties, and those sales are sufficiently likely to occur quickly, then the debtor can argue as much in its motion for relief from default (dkt. 228, Ex.H, pp. 5:28-6:6, the "Relief From Default Provisions").

Accordingly the tentative ruling is that the Additional Preconditions are not fair and equitable and must be struck from the plan.

(d) Relief from default

The debtor has presented evidence regarding the difficulty of selling the properties, due in large part to environmental issues. Based on that evidence, it is difficult to tell in advance, for example, (i) what defaults could reflect a lack of diligence by the debtor, as opposed to genuine obstacles to closing due to environmental issues, or (ii) whether the debtor is unreasonably seeking to eliminate all possible environmental issues instead of selling at a moderate discount to a buyer who is willing to address some such issues. In other words, there may be good reasons for the debtor to be able to seek relief from default, but it is difficult if not impossible to know in advance, so the debtor appears to have proposed a reasonable mechanism to place this issue before this court, subject to the familiar standards for relief from the automatic stay.

Bayview has not presented contrary evidence or a suitable alternative mechanism for dealing with these issues. Accordingly, the tentative ruling is that the Relief From Default Provisions are fair and equitable and otherwise satisfy the requirements for confirmation under the circumstances.

(e) Reinstatement

The debtors do not disagree with Bayview's proposed language: that "any [currently pending] foreclosure [proceedings with respect to] the subject properties will be rescinded" as opposed to stating that the loans will no longer be in default. The tentative ruling is that the plan must be amended to make this change (see dkt. 228, Exhibit H, p. 6, dkt. 240, p.12:5-8, dkt. 243, p. 8:10-12).

(f) Interest payments

The debtors' plan proposes to make monthly interest-only payments of $5,963.41 and $3,794.45 to Bayview until it is paid in full from the sale of the real properties (dkt. 228, Ex. H, p.7:2-4). This raises two issues: (i) whether the proposed rate of interest is appropriate and (ii) whether the proposed payments are feasible (11 U.S.C. 1129(a)(11)).

(i) Appropriate interest rate

The debtors have proposed interest rates of 7.5% (dkt. 228, Ex.H, p.7:2-4). This is somewhat higher than the rates in the existing promissory notes (dkt. 243, pp.8:28-9:4).

As stated in Judge Bason's posted procedures,

Judge Bason has expressed the view in various cases that when dealing with relatively small dollar amounts (for which the cost of presenting expert testimony as to interest rates would be prohibitive) the analysis in Till v. SCS Credit Corp., 541 U.S. 465 (2004), is appropriate, and conversely when dealing with larger dollar amounts the Till analysis probably is not appropriate, and one acceptable method for experts to opine as to the appropriate interest rate is the method described in In re Boulders on the River, Inc., 164 B.R. 99 (9th Cir. BAP 1994); see In re N. Valley Mall, LLC, 432 B.R. 825 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2010) (discussing continued viability of Boulders on the River).

In this case it does not appear to be cost-effective for either party to incur the expense of expert testimony as to interest rates (i.e., the type of expert testimony addressed in Boulders on the River and N. Valley Mall). In any event neither party has chosen to do so. So the tentative ruling is to apply the Till analysis or something comparable.

Under that analysis, courts typically apply an interest rate of 1% to 3% over prime, although the starting point might be different (higher) in situations such as this when the properties have environmental issues, so this court also looks to the contract rate used by the parties. This court also takes into consideration that payment to Bayview has been much delayed, and the debtors are proposing interest-only payments (as opposed to amortizing payments), but on the other hand Bayview's claims are protected by a large equity cushion, and national interest rates are near historic lows.

Under the foregoing analysis the debtors have made a sufficient prima facie showing that their proposed interest rates are within the range of what is permissible. Bayview has not rebutted that showing. Therefore the tentative ruling is to approve the proposed interest rates.

(ii) Feasibility

The supplemental declaration of Mr. Foasberg indicates that he intends to sell the dry cleaning businesses that have been failing to pay rent to the debtors for several months (dkt. 244, p. 2). The problem is that it is not at all clear how the debtors intend to make plan payments prior to the sale of the business given their recent performance, i.e., lack of feasibility (11 U.S.C. 1129(a)(11)). Their MOR for August (dkt. 241, p. 21), states that they only hold unrestricted cash of $2,044.28.

It appears that the debtors will need a cash infusion if this court is to make a finding of feasibility. In addition, testimony will be needed (or at least an offer of proof subject to cross-examination) to support the debtors' assertion that any given dollar amount is adequate to show feasibility.

To the extent that this or any other issue requires testimony, this court may accept an offer of proof or brief testimony at today's hearing, or may set a continued hearing for the presentation of evidence and cross-examination. The parties should be prepared to address timing and procedures.

The tentative ruling is that the plan must be amended to provide for such a cash infusion, and to make the failure to provide such infusion, or failure of the debtors immediately to provide evidence of that infusion, an event of default.

(g) Preservation of net revenues/"set aside" for possible environmental remediation

The plan apparently contemplates that if the debtors have their projected cash flow then most net revenues would be used to fund a "set aside" each month for possible environmental remediation of their properties estimated at $5,000 per month per debtor. The tentative ruling is that for the plan to be fair and equitable (and otherwise meet the standards for confirmation) any such funds must be subject to the following conditions.

First, they must be actually paid: if the debtors make any expenditures out of the ordinary course of business, except to fund such a set aside or pay for environmental remediation, then it seems that must be a default under the plan for the plan to be fair and equitable. Second, if the debtors fail to provide monthly accounting of such funds, including a bank account statement, then that would have to be a default under the plan for it to be fair and equitable.

(h) Form of confirmation order

The tentative ruling is that, pursuant to LBR 3020-1(b) the confirmation order shall include the following:

Within 120 days of the entry of this order, the debtors shall file a status report explaining what progress has been made toward consummation of the confirmed plan of reorganization. The initial report shall be served on the United States trustee, the 20 largest unsecured creditors, and those parties who have requested special notice. Further reports shall be filed every 120 days thereafter and served on the same entities, unless otherwise ordered by the court. A postconfirmation status conference will be held on January 17, 2017 at 2:00 p.m.

(1) Current issues

(a) Background

United States Bankruptcy Court

CONT... R&J Limited Partnership and JRJ Limited Partnership Chapter 11

These cases were filed in January of 2015. The debtors have filed several proposed plans and disclosure statements, the latest of which are dated 6/21/16 (dkt. 217, 218).

They blame the lack of a confirmed plan of reorganization on the fact that they own several parcels of real estate that may require extensive environmental remediation, and therefore are difficult to sell. The primary outstanding issue in this case is whether their proposed joint plan must provide for a more expedited sales process than the one they have proposed.

That is primarily a confirmation issue (under, e.g., 11 U.S.C. 1129(a)(3) (good faith), (a)(11) (feasibility), and, to the extent "cramdown" is required, (b) (1) (no unfair discrimination, and being fair and equitable, with respect to each impaired, non-consenting class)). Typically, however, the bankruptcy courts consider prior to any confirmation hearing whether a plan is so deficient on its face that sending it out for voting is not worth the resulting expense, delay, and potential confusion.

In addition, the disclosure statement must contain "adequate information" under 11 U.S.C. 1125(a). Again, that is generally an issue for a later stage - the disclosure statement hearing - but bankruptcy courts often address as a preliminary matter whether the disclosure statement is so deficient that no such hearing should be set. That is particularly important given Judge Bason's practice of setting combined hearings on the disclosure statement and plan confirmation. Therefore it is appropriate to address at this stage, initially, whether the debtor has adequately disclosed the potential environmental issues and analyzed the nature of possible remediation, possible approaches that could maximize the sale proceeds balanced against expediting the time for sale, etc.

At the status conference on 5/31/16 this Bankruptcy Court established procedures for the parties to address these issues on a preliminary basis - to determine whether to authorize the debtor to mail a voting package to creditors. The debtors have filed the declaration of their real estate broker Mr. O'Healy (dkt. 220). No other parties in interest have filed any contrary evidence, although creditor Bayview Loan Servicing, LLC ("Bayview") has filed an "opposition" to the proposed joint plan (dkt. 222), which includes an objection to Mr. O'Healy's declaration. The debtors have filed a reply (dkt. 223).

(b) Tentative Rulings

Chapter 11

The tentative rulings are as follows, taking into account the amendments that the debtors propose in their reply (dkt. 223) (and solely for the limited purpose described above - i.e., for authorizing the debtor to mail its voting package - and without prejudice to objections at the combined hearing on adequacy of the disclosure statement and whether to confirm the proposed joint plan):

(i) Evidence: Overrule the objections to Mr. O'Healy's declaration.

(ii) Timing: Overrule Bayview's objection as to the timing of the sales, except that the timing must be clarified regarding how long escrow can be open before it can be said to have "fail[ed] to close" (dkt. 218-7, Disclosure Statement p.39:3, which is Ex.H at 5:3); and how long the debtors would after any new escrow were to open before it too would have failed to close. On the present record, this Bankruptcy Court is not persuaded that the "drop dead" dates proposed by Bayview are essential, and that the voting package should not be sent. The debtors argue, with supporting evidence, that "[i]f Bayview were to foreclose, it would face the same problems facing Debtors because the hurdles to selling these properties would not be eliminated if someone else were to sell them." (Dkt. 223, p.6:10-12.)

The foregoing should not be interpreted as a ruling for confirmation purposes. It may be necessary or appropriate, in order to confirm any plan, to establish either "drop dead" dates or some mechanism to assess whether the debtors have been dragging their feet and whether it is fair and equitable to grant additional time to engage in the sale process.

(iii) Default terms: Sustain Bayview's objections regarding the proposed default terms, because of the difficulty (if not impossibility) that Bayview would have in filing a declaration under penalty of perjury as to the debtors' funds and the status of the debtors' sales. The parties should be prepared to address alternative default terms.

(iv) Reinstatement of loans: Overrule Bayview's objections regarding the reinstatement of its loans.

(v) Other issues: The debtors' Exhibit H is needlessly repetitive (this Court will review the details orally at the hearing). In addition, the parties appear to assume that the automatic stay will continue to apply (see, e.g., dkt. 218-7, Disclosure Statement p.89:9, which is Ex.H at 5:9) but the "boilerplate" language in the plan provides for property to revert in the reorganized debtors on the Effective Date (dkt. 217, p.5, part IV.B.) which generally terminates the automatic stay (11 U.S.C. 362(c)(1)). If the debtors intend to provide for the automatic stay to continue (either by eliminating revesting, or by some other means) then they must disclose that clearly, and establish that they legally can do so.

(1) Current issues

(a) Potential settlement with Fresco Parties. The parties must be prepared to address the status of their settlement negotiations and finalization of the draft settlement documents circulated 2/5/18, and all other issues appropriate to raise at a status conference, including the issues in their recent status reports and related documents (Sakurai case, no. 2:17-bk-22660-NB, dkt. 87, 104, 105, 114, 124, and Checkmate case, no. 2:17-bk-22648-NB, dkt. 90, 93, 100, 102, 104, 105, 106, 109, 112, 113, 119, 122).

(b) Cash collateral & budget motions & stipulation (Sakurai dkt. 119, 122; Checkmate dkt. 114, 118, 119). Grant the cash collateral motion in the Sakurai case, subject to the same replacement liens and other terms and conditions as this Court's prior approvals of the use of cash collateral (see Sakurai case dkt. 43, 57); grant the budget motion in the Sakurai case; and approve the cash collateral stipulation in the Checkmate case on a final basis.

(d) Removed action (Adv. no. 2:17-ap-01558-NB), motions for stay and for remand (adv. dkt. 8, 10, 12, 13). The tentative ruling is that the motion for a stay pending determination by the District Court of the debtors' motion to withdraw the reference is moot, because the District Court has dismissed that motion. There is no tentative ruling on the motion to remand.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." If appearances are required, and you fail to appear without adequately resolving this matter by consent, then you may waive your right to be heard on matters that are appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

Tentative Ruling for 1/30/18:

Appearances required.

(1) Current issues

(a) Dec MOR (dkt. 97):

(i) On page 1 of 34, the MOR reflects $793,000 in cash receipts for the pre-petition Community Bank Sakurai Family Trust savings account, with a notation that Community Bank initially seized, but has since returned, the funds. What is this money from? Is it currently being held? Is it available to pay secured or unsecured creditors?

(ii) On page 7 of 34, there is a line item reflecting a $5,000 payment to Mr. Aronson for legal fees. At the status conference on 1/9/18 this court highlighted that the Sakurais had made a similar payment in November for Mr. Aronson's fees and counsel stated that the payment was made in error, and the debtors and their counsel assured this court that this issue would be addressed. By no later than February 7, 2018, Mr. Aronson is directed to file a declaration addressing the status of the $10,000 in legal fees ($5,000 Nov; $5,000 Dec) that he received from the Sakurais.

(b) Turnover of Documents and Information, etc. The parties must be prepared to address what documents and information have been produced by the debtors, and all other issues appropriate to raise at a status conference, including the issues in their recent status reports and related documents (case no. 2:17-bk-22660-NB, dkt. 87, 104, 105, 114, and 2:17-bk-22648-NB, dkt. 90, 93, 100, 102, 104, 105, 106, 109, 112, 113).

Tentative Ruling for 1/23/18:

Continue all matters scheduled for today in the Sakurai and Checkmate cases and related adversary proceeding to 1/30/18 at 2:00 p.m. in view of the apparent inability of the Office of the United States Trustee to appear due to the shutdown of much of the federal government. At the continued hearing the parties must be prepared to address all issues appropriate to raise at a status conference, including the issues in their recent status reports and related documents (case no. 2:17-bk-22660-NB, dkt. 87, 104, 105, and 2:17-bk-22648-NB, dkt. 90, 93, 100, 102, 104, 105, 106, 109). See generally 11 U.S.C. 502(c) and Rule 3018(a) (Fed. R. Bankr. P.). Accordingly, the tentative ruling is to fix the deadlines set forth below.

(b) Cash collateral motion (dkt. 8). The tentative ruling is to grant this motion on a final basis, on the same terms as the interim order (dkt. 43).

(a) Proofs of service (dkt. 18, 19, 21, 22). Service does not appear to be in compliance with this court's orders shortening time because they do not certify that anyone was served via overnight delivery or other expedited means.

The following tentative rulings are contingent on filing a corrected proof of service, no later than the day after this hearing, declaring that such expedited service was actually done, or if that is not true then the tentative ruling is to impose sanctions of $200 on counsel for the debtors and, despite the lack of service, authorize the proposed expenditures of cash collateral and the proposed utility deposits as an interim method of providing adequate protection under 11 U.S.C. 361-366.

(b) Cash collateral motion (dkt. 8). Subject to any opposition at the hearing, the tentative ruling is to grant this motion on the terms set forth in the separate tentative ruling on that motion.

(c) Utility motion (dkt. 11). Subject to any opposition at the hearing, the tentative ruling is to grant this motion. Proposed order: Movant is directed to serve and lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date.

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for 5/8/18:

Appearances required.

(1) Current issues.

(a) Joint Plan/Joint Disclosure Statement (dkt. 165, 166).

These documents, and the supporting declaration of Yuichiro Sakurai (dkt. 167). are substantially identical to the documents filed in the related bankruptcy case of debtors Yuichiro and Akemi Sakurai (the "Sakurais"). See Sakurai BK dkt. 176, 177, 178. For the tentative ruling regarding these documents, see the tentative ruling for the status conference in the Sakurais' bankruptcy case (calendar no. 2, 5/8/18 at 2:00 p.m.).

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 10/16/17.

(a) Bar date: 1/17/18 (order timely served. dkt. 63, 69)

(b) Joint Plan/Disclosure Statement* (dkt. 166, 167): The tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 5/22/18 to file (NOT SERVE - except on the U.S. Trustee) an amended joint plan and amended joint disclosure statement to address the foregoing issues.

(1) Current issues

(a) Potential settlement with Fresco Parties. The parties must be prepared to address the status of their settlement negotiations and finalization of the draft settlement documents circulated 2/5/18, and all other issues appropriate to raise at a status conference, including the issues in their recent status reports and related documents (Sakurai case, no. 2:17-bk-22660-NB, dkt. 87, 104, 105, 114, 124, and Checkmate case, no. 2:17-bk-22648-NB, dkt. 90, 93, 100, 102, 104, 105, 106, 109, 112, 113, 119, 122).

(b) Cash collateral & budget motions & stipulation (Sakurai dkt. 119, 122; Checkmate dkt. 114, 118, 119). Grant the cash collateral motion in the Sakurai case, subject to the same replacement liens and other terms and conditions as this Court's prior approvals of the use of cash collateral (see Sakurai case dkt. 43, 57); grant the budget motion in the Sakurai case; and approve the cash collateral stipulation in the Checkmate case on a final basis.

(d) Removed action (Adv. no. 2:17-ap-01558-NB), motions for stay and for remand (adv. dkt. 8, 10, 12, 13). The tentative ruling is that the motion for a stay pending determination by the District Court of the debtors' motion to withdraw the reference is moot, because the District Court has dismissed that motion. There is no tentative ruling on the motion to remand.

(a) Proof of service (dkt. 28). Service appears to be in compliance with this court's orders shortening time, except that no addresses are listed. The following tentative rulings are contingent on filing a corrected proof of service, no later than the day after this hearing, listing those addresses.

(b) Cash collateral motion (dkt. 9). Subject to any opposition at the hearing, the tentative ruling is to grant this motion on the terms set forth in the separate tentative ruling on that motion.

(c) Payroll motion (dkt. 6). Subject to any opposition at the hearing, the tentative ruling is to grant this motion. Proposed order: Movant is directed to serve and lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 10/16/17.

(a) Bar date: TBD

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: TBD

(c) Continued status conference: 11/14/17 at 1:00 p.m. (see order, dkt. 20).

fr. 4/9/18, 4/10/18

Docket 10

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for 5/8/18:

Please see the tentative ruling for the status conference in the Checkmate v. Radiology Solutions et al adversary proceeding (calendar no. 8, 5/8/18 at 2:00 p.m.).

Tentative Ruling for 4/10/18:

Continue to 5/8/18 at 2:00 p.m. for the reasons stated on the record on 4/9/18. Appearances are not required on 4/10/18.

Tentative Ruling for 4/9/18:

Appearances required. There is no tentative ruling, but the parties should be prepared to address whether this court should grant Checkmate's request for an expedited hearing and issue an order granting a temporary restraining order and order the immediate turnover of the Collateral pursuant to Checkmate's claim and delivery action.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." If appearances are required, and you fail to appear without adequately resolving this matter by consent, then you may waive your right to be heard on matters that are appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

- #8.00 Status Conference re: Complaint for (1) Breach of Contract;
(2) Claim and Delivery; (3) Conversion; (4) Breach of Guaranty;
(5) Fraud; (6) Preliminary Injunction; and (7) Constructive Trust

Docket 1

Tentative Ruling:

The tentative ruling is to continue all pending matters in this adversary proceeding to 6/12/18 at 2:00 p.m. for the reason stated below, with a brief joint status report due 5/29/18, and with a deadline of 5/7/18 for the plaintiff to file and serve a notice of continuances attaching and incorporating by reference the deadlines in this tentative ruling (assuming that this Court is not persuaded to depart from this tentative ruling). Appearances are not required on 5/8/18.

(1) Current Issues. This Court has reviewed the parties' status reports (adv. dkt. 24 & 26) and the other filed documents and records in this adversary proceeding.

(a) Motion for TRO & Claim and Delivery (adv. dkt. 10). At the 4/9/18 hearing on this motion, counsel for plaintiff/debtor Checkmate King Co., Ltd. ("Checkmate") apprised this Court of the bankruptcy filings of defendants Radiology Solutions Corp. ("RS") and George Fower ("Fower") (Case Nos. 8:18-bk-10585-TA and 8:18-bk-10583-TA) and requested a continuance of this hearing to allow time to obtain orders granting relief from stay with annulment. In the Joint status report (adv. dkt. 24), Checkmate states that the hearings on the relief from stay motions are scheduled for 5/15/18. Accordingly, the tentative ruling is to continue this motion to the date and time set forth at the start of this tentative ruling.

(b) Siemens Motion to Dismiss (adv. dkt. 27, the "MTD"). Defendant Siemens Medical Solutions USA, Inc. ("Siemens") has properly self-calendared its MTD for 6/12/18 at 11:00 a.m. Siemens anticipates that it may be voluntarily dismissed by plaintiff (see adv. dkt. 24), but if that does not occur then this Court anticipates that the MTD may take 15 minutes or more to hear. This Court's practice is that matters anticipated to take 15 minutes or more are heard on the 2:00 p.m. calendar (not available for self-calendaring, except by permission of this Court). Therefore the tentative ruling is to re-calendar the MTD from 11:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m., which is concurrent with the other matters in this adversary proceeding that are on today's calendar.

(2) Deadlines: This adversary proceeding has been pending since 3/6/18. It is premature to set a discovery cutoff and other deadlines at this time.

On the one hand, there appears to be successful prosecution of this adversary proceeding because, according to the plaintiff's status report (adv. dkt. 92), all of the defendants have either agreed to the requested declaratory relief or have defaulted. On the other hand, there are some fundamental issues that appear to prevent this court from granting default judgments at this time.

(1) Self-calendaring error. The motions for default judgments were only served on 10/27/17. See, e.g., Motion for Default Judgment Derek Wilshee (dkt. 83, 74) (collectively, the "Wilshee Default Motion"). That is insufficient time prior to the hearing, under the applicable rules, nor was there any cover notice of the hearing date and deadline for any opposition or response.

(2) Jurisdictional issues.

(a) Personal jurisdiction. Does the complaint adequately establish personal jurisdiction over each defendant? At least one defendant is alleged to be a resident of Australia (dkt. 1, para. 14), although the plaintiff has voluntarily dismissed claims against that defendant (dkt. 107). Are each of the defaulting defendants subject to personal jurisdiction?

(b) Subject matter jurisdiction, and abstention. The complaint and motions for default judgment make somewhat vague assertions of other action(s) that were or are pending in other courts apparently involving the same subject matter, and involving at least preliminary injunctive relief if not other relief. Can this Bankruptcy Court assume jurisdiction over matters that are pending in other courts? Must or should this Bankruptcy Court abstain?

(3) Allegations of wrongdoing. Where is the analysis tying each of the defaulting defendants to one or more of the specific acts of wrongdoing bringing them within the claims in the complaint? For example, the only allegation in the complaint regarding Mr. Wilshee (dkt. 1, para. 14) appears to be that he was at one time an officer of the debtor. How is that an act of wrongdoing?

The Wilshee Default Motion seeks a default judgment against Mr. Wilshee of $431,472,300.00 (dkt. 74, at PDF p.51 of 53). How is he responsible for such alleged damages? Does the complaint need to be amended to establish, as against one or more of the defaulting defendants, how they are alleged to be liable?

(4) Calculation of damages. An exhibit to the plaintiff's motions for default judgments asserts that "Based on Department of Conservation Records [available on a website and/or verified by whom?], these leases [which leases? the ones that allegedly were supposed to be assigned but were not?] were producing 1730 barrels of Oil a day [when?]" and "[w]ith today's technology [how is today's technology better?], a conservative figure would be 3500 barrels a day [based on whose expert opinion?] that will be used as a figure for all the losses caused by Western States International [how about other defendants?]." Dkt. 83, Ex.A, at PDF p.17 of 53. The same exhibit shows a calculation of alleged damages based on "Approx Production" of "105,000" which is far more than 3500 barrels (perhaps using a 30-day presumptive month multiplied by 3500 barrels a day?), an "Average Oil Price [from what source?]," and a "Cost [to extract, market, refine, deliver, and sell the oil - or some other or different set of things? based on what expert's opinion?]." Based on the foregoing questions, and applying Rule 55(b)(2) (Fed. R. Civ. P.) (incorporated by Rule 7055, Fed. R. Bankr. P.), it appears that additional evidence and a "prove up" hearing will be needed to determine the amount of damages, if not other issues.

(5) Alleged costs, attorney fees, and interest. The debtor/plaintiff asserts $1 million in costs (dkt. 74 at PDF p.51 of 53) - how is that possible? What are the components? Attorney fees are alleged to be $300,000 - this case has barely commenced, so how is that possible? Where are the daily time sheets and/or other support for this figure? Prejudgment interest is alleged to be at a 10% rate per year starting 1/1/11. What is the contractual or statutory basis for that interest rate and that commencement date? The purported damages were incurred month by month, so how can interest run from before those damages were incurred?

(6) Declaratory relief. The plaintiff makes broad allegations about the rights under various contracts, or arising from breaches of those contracts or by operation of law. Where is the support for these allegations? The plaintiff cannot place the burden on this court to sort through numerous provisions of various contracts to piece together the plaintiff's theory. The plaintiff must provide specific, easy-to-follow analysis and evidence.

(7) Conclusion. Because the motions for default judgments are both procedurally and substantively deficient in all of the ways set forth above, the tentative ruling is to deny them without prejudice.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." If appearances are required, and you fail to appear without adequately resolving this matter by consent, then you may waive your right to be heard on matters that are appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

Tentative Ruling for 8/22/17:

Appearances required. This court notes that the parties were directed to file a joint status report two weeks in advance of this hearing (dkt. 2), but have not done so. In addition, this court notes that the tentative ruling in the main case status conference (calendar no. 3, 8/22/17 at 2:00 p.m.) is to dismiss the main case, which normally would terminate this adversary proceeding. Nevertheless, to preserve all rights in the event that this court were to be persuaded not to dismiss the main case, this court has reviewed the other filed documents and records in this adversary proceeding and issues the following tentative ruling.

(1) Venue/jurisdiction/authority.

The parties are directed to address any outstanding matters of (a) venue, (b) jurisdiction, (c) this court's authority to enter final orders or judgment(s) in this proceeding and, if consent is required, whether the parties do consent, or have already expressly or impliedly consented. See generally Stern v. Marshall, 131 S.Ct. 2594, 2608 (2011) (if litigant "believed that the Bankruptcy Court lacked the authority to decide his claim...then he should have said so – and said so promptly."); Wellness Int'l Network, Ltd. v. Sharif, 135 S.Ct. 1932 (2015) (consent must be knowing and voluntary but need not be express); In re Bellingham Ins. Agency, Inc., 702 F.3d 553 (9th Cir. 2012) (implied consent), aff'd on other grounds, 134 S. Ct. 2165 (2014); In re Pringle, 495 B.R. 447 (9th Cir. BAP 2013) (rebuttable presumption that failure to challenge authority to issue final order is intentional and indicates consent);

(2) Mediation. Is there is any reason why this court should not order the parties to mediation before one of the volunteer mediators (not a Bankruptcy Judge), and meanwhile set the deadlines set forth below?

(3) Deadlines: This adversary proceeding has been pending since 6/19/17. Pursuant to LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B), plaintiff is directed to serve and lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the status conference, attaching a copy of this tentative ruling or otherwise memorializing the following.

BENTLEY SQUARE CONDO ASSOCIATION
vs

Docket 17

Tentative Ruling:

Grant in part and deny in part as set forth below. Appearances required.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this court's final ruling. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

(1) Service

The tentative ruling is to reject the Debtor's argument (dkt. 19, p.2:14-25) that service was not proper. The Debtor does not appear to dispute being served at the P.O. Box that is the Debtor's address of record in this bankruptcy case. There is no support for the argument that the movant was somehow supposed to serve the Debtor at a street address instead.

Alternatively, supposing for the sake of discussion that there were anything improper about service (which the debtor has not established), the debtor has not argued that there was any prejudice. The Debtor's attorney was served; the debtor has actual notice; and the Debtor has not established that any purpose other than delay would be accomplished by continuing this hearing to redo service. The desire for delay is not a sufficient ground to oppose the motion.

(2) Adequate protection and related issues

The tentative ruling is to grant the motion under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1) in the form of requiring the Debtor to provide the following adequate protection: (i) the Debtor must pay all postpetition monthly assessments and late charges to the movant homeowners association ("HOA") immediately, (ii) the Debtor must stay current in HOA assessments postpetition, and (iii) the Debtor must pay the HOA's reasonable postpetition attorney fees incurred to date over the next four months pursuant to an adequate protection order ("APO") with only one opportunity to cure any further defaults.

Any co-debtor stay (11 U.S.C. 1301(c)) would be subject to the same modification and conditions, because it has not been shown to have any basis to exist independent of the stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(a).

The analysis is complex.

(a) Postpetition amounts owed

The motion asserts (dkt. 17 at PDF p.16:15-18 & Ex.4) that the Debtor owes at least $3,841.36 in postpetition assessments, by which the movant homeowners association ("HOA") apparently means assessments, late charges, attorney fees, and interest. The HOA appears to argue that this is the minimum it must be paid to adequately protect its interest within the meaning of 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1).

The details of the HOA's alleged postpetition claim are murky. The bankruptcy petition was filed on 2/13/18. Confusingly, Ex.4 to the motion (dkt. 17, Ex.4, last page, at PDF p.60) lists a "Beginning balance" as of 1/1/18 of $596.06, but 1/1/18 is prepetition so it cannot count toward postpetition obligations.

The actual postpetition debts appear to be as follows. The next to last page of Ex.4 shows an assessment of $254.00 on 2/15/18 and a late charge of $27.27 the same day (dkt.17, Ex.4, at PDF p.58), which this Court calculates as a total of $281.27. Presumably the same charges apply for March and will apply for April of 2018 because the Debtor's papers do not suggest that the debtor has made or will make any payments until the hearing, so the Debtor will owe 3 x $281.27 = $843.81 for these items.

The Debtor does not appear to dispute that postpetition monthly dues and late charges must be paid in order to adequately protect the HOA's interest. See 11 U.S.C. 361 & 362(d)(1). The areas of dispute appear to be attorney fees and interest.

The motion papers $3,000 for legal fees on 4/5/18 and list $3.30 for "Interest of 1.25% [per month?]" on 4/16/18. Dkt. 17, Ex.4, last page, at PDF p.60. The attorney fees appear to be an estimate (without supporting timesheets), based on the HOA counsel's rate of $350/hr. See dkt. 17 at PDF p.27:23.

(b) No secured claim for attorney fees or interest

The Debtor's opposition argues (dkt. 19, p.3:1-11) that the HOA cannot charge attorney fees and interest because the claim is undersecured, according to the Debtor's bankruptcy schedules. The debtor cites no legal authority for this argument, but presumably the debtor is relying on two things. First, 11 U.S.C. 506(b), and second, the fact that the condominium is a rental property (the condo is in Pennsylvania and the debtor is here in California) so it is not the debtor's "principal residence" and therefore the HOA's claim can be bifurcated into a secured claim and an unsecured deficiency claim. See id. and compare 11 U.S.C. 1322(b)(2) and Nobelman v. Am. Sav. Bank, 508 U.S. 324 (1993).

As of the preparation of this tentative ruling the reply deadline has passed and the HOA has not disputed the debtor's assertion that its claim is underwater. The debtor's bankruptcy schedules value the debtor's condominium at $45,000 and list two liens against it: (i) $21,274 owed to the City of Philadelphia for a "State [sic] tax lien" (i.e., a real estate tax lien?) and (ii) $23,272 owed to the HOA. See Schedule D (dkt. 1 at PDF p.19). The HOA asserts that its prepetition claim is approximately $31,129.23 (dkt. 17 at PDF p.25:2-3). Therefore, assuming that tax liens are senior (invariably they are), and assuming that the debtor's valuation of the condo is not way off, the debtor is correct that the HOA's claim is not oversecured and therefore its secured claim cannot include attorney fees and interest under 11 U.S.C. 506(b).

(c) Allegedly nondischargeable unsecured claim

A different analysis applies to the HOA's unsecured claim. True, an unsecured claim for postpetition interest must be disallowed pursuant to 11 U.S.C. 502(b)(2). But what about attorney fees?

The HOA points to 11 U.S.C. 523(a)(16), under which a debtor ordinarily cannot discharge "a fee or assessment that becomes due and payable after [the petition date] to [an HOA] ...." (Emphasis added.) The parties have not addressed whether a "fee" only means late fees and the like, but for purposes of this tentative ruling this Court assumes that a "fee" includes attorney fees and interest that can be charged to the Debtor under nonbankruptcy law and the parties' contracts.

In any event, for purposes of the HOA's motion for relief from the automatic stay, the HOA's point appears to be that its right to receive current payments from the debtor is not being adequately protected if the debtor is not paying his nondischargeable postpetition obligations to the HOA. But the analysis is not that simple because the parties have not fully addressed whether the attorney fees actually are dischargeable.

The HOA relies on In re Foster, 435 B.R. 650 (9th Cir. BAP 2010). Foster held that "as a matter of law, debtor's personal liability for HOA dues continues postpetition as long as he maintains his legal, equitable or possessory interest in the property and is unaffected by his discharge." Id. at 661 (emphasis added). But as discussed in Foster the statutory analysis is complex.

On the one hand, section 523 only applies fully under chapters 7 and 11. Chapter 13 includes a "super-discharge" (11 U.S.C. 1328(a)) which does not expressly carve out debts under section 523(a)(16), and therefore one could argue that such debts are discharged.

On the other hand, Foster rejected that argument because (at least under Washington State law that applied in that case) HOA dues are an affirmative covenant that runs with the land and therefore are not "rooted in the pre-bankruptcy past" so as to be prepetition claims that are dischargeable. Foster, 435 B.R. 650, at 660-61 (citation and internal quotation marks omitted). In other words, Foster held that the postpetition HOA dues were nondischargeable, but not because of section 1328(a) - rather, Foster relied on the fact that the HOA dues at issue were postpetition debts.

A potential problem for the HOA in this case, to the extent it relies on nondischargeability, is that postpetition attorney fees generally are sufficiently foreseeable that as of the petition date they constitute a contingent claim. See Travelers Cas. & Sur. Co. v. Pacific Gas, 549 U.S. 443 (2007); In re SNTL Corp., 571 F.3d 826 (9th Cir. 2009). The parties have not addressed this issue, and this Court does not decide it but, to the extent the HOA relies on the alleged nondischargeable nature of the Debtor's obligation to pay its postpetition attorney fees, the HOA has not sufficiently established that this is so.

But that is not the end of the analysis.

(d) Adequate protection includes a requirement to pay even dischargeable attorney fees for any period in which the Debtor retains the condo

Chapter 13

Assuming without deciding that the HOA's postpetition attorney fees might be dischargeable, the Debtor's obligation to pay those fees is still both an in personam obligation and an in rem obligation that is the quid pro quo of continuing to own the condo. See Foster, 435 B.R. 650, 661 (noting both in personam and in rem aspects). The Debtor also has obligations as a chapter 13 debtor to stay current. See 11 U.S.C. 361, 362(d)(1), 1303 & 1304, and 28 U.S.C. 959(b).

The tentative ruling is that the HOA's interests in the condo cannot be adequately protected unless the Debtor pays its postpetition attorney fees. If the Debtor cannot pay those fees, the Debtor must surrender the condo.

To hold otherwise would effectively allow the Debtor to disregard with impunity the postpetition obligation to stay current. The HOA would have to incur more fees to enforce that obligation than it could recover. That would be inconsistent with Congress' intent, expressed in section 523(a)(16), that debtors in bankruptcy stay current with postpetition HOA obligations, rather than imposing the condo expenses on fellow condo owners. To borrow a phrase from Foster (albeit addressing the slightly different issue of monthly dues, but analogous to the attorney fee obligation in this case): "you stay, you pay." Id.

(e) How soon the Debtor must pay

This Court has some discretion in fashioning a remedy, so long as that remedy adequately protects the HOA's interests - i.e., protects both its secured claim as of the petition date and its right to receive current payments of postpetition obligations. See 11 U.S.C. 361.

The tentative ruling is that the Debtor's long history of nonpayment prepetition, combined with the Debtor's failure to live up to the obligation to stay current postpetition, means that the HOA will not be adequately protected as to the postpetition arrears in monthly dues and late charges unless the Debtor pays those things immediately (at or before the hearing). As to the attorney fees, the tentative ruling is that (i) before a dollar amount can be fixed for those fees, the HOA must file a declaration with daily timeheets (with sufficient detail for a typical bankruptcy analysis of the reasonableness of those fees), and (ii) then a fourth month APO is appropriate.

Chapter 13

The Debtor's incredibly spartan argument about lack of equity in the property could be interpreted to include the Debtor's apparent intent to avoid the HOA's lien under 11 U.S.C. 522(f). See Plan, dkt. 2, p.11-12. But the HOA's lien is not a judicial lien, so section 522(f) does not appear to be applicable. Accordingly, to the extent (if any) that the Debtor is attempting to rely on section 522(f) to evade the requirement for adequate protection of the HOA's interests, that attempt is not persuasive.

(3) Request for relief notwithstanding future bankruptcy cases ("in rem" relief)

The HOA requests that any relief ordered in this case continue to apply notwithstanding any future bankruptcy cases. The HOA has not asserted any of the statutory grounds for such relief: multiple bankruptcy cases affecting the condo, or unauthorized transfers of the condo, or a "scheme" to hinder, delay or defraud creditors (apart from the unexplained failures of the Debtor to pay condo fees, or the HOA to either collect those fees or obtain relief, for ten years). See 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(4).

This Court has been persuaded that, in some circumstances, similar relief is available beyond the particular confines of section 362(d)(4). But the HOA has not established that any such in rem relief should be granted because Movant has failed to include any analysis or evidence in support of such a finding. See In re Vazquez (Bankr. C.D. Cal., Case No. 2:16-bk-10699-NB, dkt. 75) and In re Choong (Bankr. C.D. Cal., Case No. 2:14-bk-28378-NB, dkt. 31).

(5) The HOA's request for an order that the automatic stay does not apply at all

The HOA requests an order that the automatic stay does not apply. Probably the HOA was just checking almost every box on this Court's form motion, but in any event it has not established an exception to the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(b) or (c) because it has failed to include any analysis or evidence in support of such a ruling.

(6) Effective date of relief. The tentative ruling is to grant the request to waive the 14-day stay provided by FRBP 4001(a)(3).

(7) Conclusion

The tentative ruling is that the Debtor must pay $843.81 at or before the hearing and enter into a stay-current APO with a four month obligation to repay attorney fees as set forth above. The tentative ruling is also to set a deadline of 5/29/18 for the HOA to file and serve its declaration with timesheets in support of its claim for postpetition attorney fees, a deadline of 6/5/18 for any response by the debtor, a deadline of 6/12/18 for any reply, and a continued hearing on 6/19/18 at 10:00 a.m. to address the dollar amount of attorney fees that the debtor will be required to pay over four months.

Docket 11

Tentative Ruling:

Grant as provided below. Appearances are not required.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this court's final ruling. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

Termination. Terminate the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1) and (d)(4).

Any co-debtor stay (11 U.S.C. 1301(c)) is also terminated, because it has not been shown to have any basis to exist independent of the stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(a). To the extent, if any, that the motion seeks to terminate the automatic stay in other past or pending bankruptcy cases, such relief is denied on the present record. See In re Ervin (Case No. 14-bk-18204-NB, docket no. 311).

Relief notwithstanding future bankruptcy cases.

Grant the following relief pursuant to 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(4) and the legal analysis in In re Vazquez (case no. 2:16-bk-10699-NB, dkt. 75) and/or In re Choong (case no. 2:14-bk-28378-NB, docket no. 31), as applicable:

If this order is duly recorded in compliance with applicable State laws governing notices of interests or liens in the property at issue, then no automatic stay shall apply to such property in any bankruptcy case purporting to affect such property and filed within two years after the date of entry of this order, unless otherwise ordered by the court presiding over that bankruptcy case.

Docket 13

Tentative Ruling:

Grant as provided below. Appearances are not required.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this court's final ruling. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

The automatic stay does not apply. First, the evidence attached to the motion establishes by a preponderance of the evidence that the borrower under the loan documents died before the date on which she allegedly signed the grant deed transferring an interest to the debtor. No opposition was filed, let alone any persuasive evidence to the contrary. Accordingly, this Court is persuaded by the movant's argument that the grant deed is a sham, so no interest was transferred, which means that the automatic stay does not apply.

Second, and alternatively, this case has been dismissed, which terminates the automatic stay. See 11 USC 349(b)(3) & 362(c).

In the alternative and in addition, this court grants relief from the automatic stay as follows.

Termination. Terminate the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1).

Tentative Ruling:

Grant the motion as provided below. Appearances are not required.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling to the order, thereby incorporating it as this court's final ruling. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

I. Tentative findings of fact:

(A) In violation of the loan documents, an interest in the subject property purportedly was transferred to the debtor, either individually or as trustee of a purported trust.

(B) The transfer was part of a scheme to delay or hinder movant's remedies against the property by implicating the automatic stay of 11 U.S.C. 362(a) in the debtor's bankruptcy case.

(C) This court does not find that the debtor was part of any such scheme (i.e., based on the record before this court it appears that this may be a so-called "hijacked" or "dumping" case in which a third party seeks to implicate the automatic stay for their own benefit, without the debtor's participation or acquiescence, by transferring property into a random bankruptcy estate, or by back-dating or falsifying a grant deed to make it appear that such a transfer occurred).

II. Tentative conclusions of law:

Pursuant to the legal analysis in In re Vazquez (case no. 2:16-bk-10699-NB, dkt. 75) and/or In re Choong (case no. 2:14-bk-28378-NB, docket no. 31), as applicable:

(A) Jurisdiction. This court has jurisdiction to grant the type of relief requested in the motion.

(B) Termination of stay. The automatic stay, if it applies, is terminated pursuant to 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1), (d)(4), and 1301(c).

(C) Relief notwithstanding future bankruptcy cases. If this order is duly recorded in compliance with applicable State laws governing notices of interests or liens in the property at issue, then no automatic stay shall apply to such property in any bankruptcy case purporting to affect such property and filed within two years after the date of entry of this order, unless otherwise ordered by the court presiding over that bankruptcy case.

For the avoidance of doubt, any acts by the movant to obtain exclusive possession of such property shall not be stayed. Any additional request for relief applicable to future bankruptcy cases is denied (e.g., any request to grant relief against third parties without any notice is denied) due to lack of sufficient factual or legal grounds presented in support of such relief.

(D) Effective date of relief. The 14 day stay under FRBP 4001(a)(3) is waived.

(E) No prejudice to debtor intended. Nothing in the foregoing disposition should be interpreted to support the application of 11 U.S.C. 109(g)(2) in the event of any future dismissal of this bankruptcy case. Grant the following relief pursuant to 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(4) and the legal analysis in In re Vazquez (case no. 2:16-bk-10699-NB, dkt. 75) and/or In re Choong (case no. 2:14-bk-28378-NB, docket no. 31), as applicable:

If this order is duly recorded in compliance with applicable State laws governing notices of interests or liens in the property at issue, then no automatic stay shall apply to such property in any bankruptcy case purporting to affect such property and filed within two years after the date of entry of this order, unless otherwise ordered by the court presiding over that bankruptcy case.

For the avoidance of doubt, any acts by the movant to obtain exclusive possession of such property shall not be stayed. Any additional request for relief applicable to future bankruptcy cases is denied (e.g., any request to grant relief against third parties without any notice is denied) due to lack of sufficient factual or legal grounds presented in support of such relief.

Effective date of relief. Grant the request to waive the 14-day stay provided by FRBP 4001(a)(3).

Tentative Ruling:

Grant as provided below. Appearances are not required.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this court's final ruling. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

The automatic stay does not apply. This case has been dismissed, which terminates the automatic stay. See 11 USC 349(b)(3) & 362(c).

In the alternative and in addition, this court grants relief from the automatic stay as follows.

Termination. Terminate the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1) and (d)(2).

Any co-debtor stay (11 U.S.C. 1301(c)) is also terminated, because it has not been shown to have any basis to exist independent of the stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(a). To the extent, if any, that the motion seeks to terminate the automatic stay in other past or pending bankruptcy cases, such relief is denied on the present record. See In re Ervin (Case No. 14-bk-18204-NB, docket no. 311).

Effective date of relief. Grant the request to waive the 14-day stay provided by FRBP 4001(a)(3).

Imposing a Stay or Continuing the Automatic
Stay as the Court Deems Appropriate

Docket 9

Tentative Ruling:

Grant, subject to the following conditions. Appearances are not required.

After the hearing date this court will prepare an order and the tentative ruling is to include the following language in that order:

The stay of 11 U.S.C. 362(a) applies subject to the following modifications and conditions:

(1) Service and reconsideration. Any party in interest who was not timely served in accordance with FRBP 7004 (incorporated by FRBP 9014(b)) is hereby granted through 14 days after proper service to seek reconsideration, including retroactive relief (under FRBP 9023 and/or 9024). Any such person (a) may set a hearing on 14 days' notice, (b) may appear by telephone (if arrangements are made per Judge Bason's posted procedures), and (c) may present all arguments orally at the hearing (i.e., no written argument is required). If written arguments appear necessary then this court will set a briefing schedule at the hearing.

(2) Reasons. (a) It appears appropriate to impose the automatic stay, and to impose it as to all persons rather than just as to selected persons, because one purpose of the automatic stay is to preventing a "race to collect" that could unfairly advantage some creditors at the expense of others. (b) To prevent possible abuse, this court provides the foregoing simple process for reconsideration.

(b) Chapter 11 Trustee's Request for Extension

This court has reviewed the chapter 11 trustee's reponse (dkt. 152) to the motion, and movant's reply (dkt. 159). Given that this case is an involuntary case and the trustee has not had the benefit of any bankruptcy schedules, any statement of financial affairs, or access to the debtor's principals, this court is not persuaded by movant's argument that the trustee has already had sufficient time to investigate the alleged pre-petition transfer. In addition, the trustee has provided adequate evidence that the equity cushion and the relatively short delay provide adequate protection.

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for 5/22/18:

Grant, on a final basis, the debtor's motion (dkt. 59) to vacate this Court's order (dkt. 57) that had granted relief from the automatic stay, subject to the following conditions for a standard adequate protection order ("APO") requiring the debtor to reimburse the creditor $4,537.47 over six months. Appearances are not required.

Proposed order: The creditor is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this court's final ruling. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

Documents reviewed. In addition to the papers filed in support and opposition to the motion prior to the hearing on 4/10/18, and this Court's interim order (dkt. 71), this Court has reviewed the declaration of debtor's counsel regarding the required interim payments (dkt. 72), the creditor's declaration regarding $4,542.01 in asserted fees and costs (dkt. 74), the debtor's objection thereto (dkt. 75), and the creditor's reply papers (dkt. 77, 78).

Analysis. Based on the foregoing, this Court concludes:

- (a) that the total of the "Post-petition Foreclosure activities" (dkt. 78, pp.2:24-3:5 & Ex.1) is $2,088.61 rather than the $2,093.15 asserted by the creditor, and that lower dollar amount is reasonable;
- (b) that the total of the fees and costs regarding the "motion for Relief From Automatic Stay" (dkt. 78, p.3:6-26) is $1,338.19 (as stated therein), and that dollar amount is reasonable;
- (c) that the total of the fees and costs regarding the "Opposition to Debtor's Motion to Vacate Order Terminating Automatic Stay" (dkt. 78, pp.3:27-4:22) is $1,110.67 (as stated in the creditor's earlier declaration, dkt. 74, para. 10), and that dollar amount is reasonable; and

(d) that the total, reasonable dollar amount is $4,537.47 ($2,088.61 + $1,338.19 + $1,110.67 = $4,537.47).

In concluding that the foregoing dollar amounts are reasonable this Court recognizes two potential deficiencies in the evidence presented by the creditor. First, as to attorney fees, the creditor has not provided contemporaneous daily timesheets broken down into tenths of an hour. But that is not the only measure of reasonableness. Based on this Court's extensive experience with fee applications this Court concludes that the flat fees included within the foregoing dollar amounts are well within the dollar amounts that normally would be charged for comparable services at an hourly rate.

Second, this Court recognizes that the creditor has not provided copies of receipts for such charges as the fee for recording the notice of sale (alleged to be $104.00) or the trustee fee (alleged to be $1,280.23). Receipts would have been preferable. Nevertheless, this Court has used its discretion to accept the creditor's evidence without requiring receipts for the following reasons.

(a) Creditor's declaration (dkt. 78, para. 2) states that the asserted dollar amounts accurately reflect the books and records of the creditor. That satisfies FRE 803(6) (hearsay exception for records of regularly conducted activity).

(b) Hearings on motions for relief from the automatic stay are intended to be summary nature. See, e.g., In re Johnson, 756 F.2d 738, 740-41 (9th Cir. 1985).

(c) Further proceedings inevitably would cost the parties more than the dollar amounts at stake. Simply preparing a declaration attaching receipts likely would cost the creditor $150 to $200 or so, which is more than any realistic possible dollar amount that the debtor could object to. Then the debtor would have to reimburse the creditor for those fees plus the fees of the debtor's own counsel.

For all of these reasons, this Court is not requiring receipts. (This Court cautions the creditor that, in future, receipts may be required.)

Finally, this Court is persuaded that the creditor appropriately incurred fees and costs in connection with a continuance of the foreclosure sale. It is true that the debtor mailed the required payments to the creditor soon after the prior hearing on 4/10/18, but the creditor had to receive and process those payments before it could rely on them and postpone the foreclosure sale, and in the circumstances this Court is persuaded that the creditor acted with reasonable speed in connection with that postponement.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." If appearances are required, and you fail to appear without adequately resolving this matter by consent, then you may waive your right to be heard on matters that are appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

Tentative Ruling for 4/10/18:

Grant on the following conditions: (a) the debtor must tender the $26,278.75 cashier's check (dkt. 65, Ex.A) at the hearing (or as otherwise directed by the creditor) and (b) the debtor must pay any additional shortfall and the creditor's attorney fees and other costs and expenses as set forth below. Appearances required.

Analysis: The tentative ruling is that (1) the debtor has established sufficient excuses both for his own neglect and for the neglect of his counsel, (2) the debtor has presented sufficient evidence of a substantial equity cushion that adequately protects the creditor, and (3) equitable considerations apply both to relief under Rule 9024 (Fed. R. Bankr. P.) and to adequate protection (11 U.S.C. 361 & 362(d)) and it would be inequitable to require the creditor essentially to make a forced loan by incurring attorney fees and other costs and expenses without being reimbursed within a reasonable time. Accordingly the tentative ruling is to set a continued hearing on 5/22/18 at 10:00 a.m. with a standard briefing schedule to determine the dollar amount that the debtor must reimburse as follows.

Specifically, the tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 4/24/18 for the creditor to file declaration(s) setting forth any shortfall in the debtor's cure payment plus its reasonable attorney fees and all other costs and expenses attributable to the debtor's delay in payment (late fees, foreclosure trustee's fees, etc.), with a deadline of 5/1/18 for any objection by the debtor to those dollar amounts, and a deadline of 5/8/18 for any reply. At the continued hearing this Court will resolve any disputes as to the total dollar amount, after which the debtor will be obligated to repay that dollar amount over six months pursuant to a standard adequate protection order.

Key documents reviewed (in addition to motion papers): the creditor's opposition (dkt. 63-64) and the debtor's reply (dkt. 65).

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for 5/22/18:

Grant request for future in rem relief for the reasons stated below.
Appearances are not required on 5/22/18.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this court's final ruling. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

Reason: This matter was continued from 5/8/18 on shortened notice on the condition that Movant serve the motion and notice of this continued hearing on the original borrowers (Happy Yu) pursuant to Rule 7004(b)(3) by 5/9/18. On 5/9/18, Movant filed an amended proof of service reflecting proper service on the original borrower on 5/9/18 (dkt. 16) and notice of this continued hearing (dk. 17).

Relief notwithstanding future bankruptcy cases. Grant the following relief pursuant to 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(4) and the legal analysis in In re Vazquez (case no. 2:16-bk-10699-NB, dkt. 75) and/or In re Choong (case no. 2:14-bk-28378-NB, docket no. 31), as applicable:

If this order is duly recorded in compliance with applicable State laws governing notices of interests or liens in the property at issue, then no automatic stay shall apply to such property in any bankruptcy case purporting to affect such property and filed within two years after the date of entry of this order, unless otherwise ordered by the court presiding over that bankruptcy case.

For the avoidance of doubt, any acts by the movant to obtain exclusive possession of such property shall not be stayed. Grant in part and continue in part to 5/22/18 at 10:00 a.m. as set forth below.
Appearances are not required on 5/8/18.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this court's final ruling. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

The automatic stay does not apply. This case has been dismissed, which terminates the automatic stay. See 11 USC 349(b)(3) & 362(c).

In the alternative and in addition, this court grants relief from the automatic stay as follows.

Termination. Terminate the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1) and (d)(2).

Any co-debtor stay (11 U.S.C. 1301(c)) is also terminated, because it has not been shown to have any basis to exist independent of the stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(a). To the extent, if any, that the motion seeks to terminate the automatic stay in other past or pending bankruptcy cases, such relief is denied on the present record. As to the requested relief that will remain effective notwithstanding any future bankruptcy case, continue the motion to the date and time set forth at the start of this tentative ruling. Although Movant served the motion on the entity that executed the documents through which the movant asserts its interest in the property (sometimes referred to in the mortgage context as the "original borrower"), Movant did not serve the original borrower in compliance with Rule 7004(b)(3), which requires service on a corporation to be to the attention of an officer or agent. See LBR 4001-1(a) (1) and (c)(1)(B), 9014(b).

Option for shortened time: This court has selected a continued hearing date that contemplates shortened notice (per Rule 9006) but that date is conditioned on the movant serving all papers on the day after the current hearing date. Alternatively, the movant may self-calendar a continued hearing on regular notice.

Option for interim/partial order: Movant may elect to lodge a proposed order granting the partial relief provided in this tentative ruling, but any such order must recite that a continued hearing has been set to consider additional relief (or, alternatively, that the movant no longer seeks additional relief and the Clerk's office is requested and directed to take the continued hearing off calendar).

Effective date of relief. Grant the request to waive the 14-day stay provided by FRBP 4001(a)(3).

Docket 35

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for 5/22/18:

Continue to 5/29/18 at 10:00 a.m. as set forth below. Appearances are not required on 5/22/18.

Analysis:

(1) Background. At the hearing on 5/8/18 counsel for the movant engaged in a colloquy with this Court regarding possible relief from the automatic stay that would be effective notwithstanding this or other bankruptcy cases. This matter was continued from 5/8/18 on shortened notice to allow Movant to file and serve appropriate papers requesting such relief. On 5/9/18, Movant filed an amended motion (dkt. 50).

(2) Request for relief in other bankruptcy cases filed in future bankruptcy cases, but not currently pending or past bankruptcy cases

The motion requests relief in future bankruptcy cases (aka "in rem" relief). Implicitly the motion might be seeking relief notwithstanding currently pending or past bankruptcy cases, but it does not actually request such relief.

The motion notes that a large number of persons appear to have alleged that they have an interest in the property, notwithstanding the foreclosure sale that resulted in the movant's interest in the property. The motion implies that the alleged interests might be a complete sham.

This Court recognizes that this might be so. This Court notes (a) the large number of alleged interests; (b) the multiple bankruptcy cases that appear to be involved, (c) this Court's order dismissing this case with a two year bar (dkt. 42); and (d) this Court's orders that certain persons connected to this case appear and show cause why they should not be sanctioned (dkt. 48, 49). Based on similar facts and circumstances, this Court has been persuaded in the past to grant relief applicable to past or pending bankruptcy cases (not just future bankruptcy cases), but only when expressly requested (and supported with adequate evidence), and only when requested via an adversary proceeding. See In re Ervin (Case No. 14-bk-18204-NB, docket no. 311). The movant has not followed such procedures, nor has the movant made any request for relief expressly applicable to any currently pending or past bankruptcy cases, so this Court construes the motion as requesting relief that is only applicable to future bankruptcy cases.

(3) The motion was not served on most of the persons who apparently assert an interest in the property

The tentative ruling is to continue the motion to the date and time set forth at the start of this tentative ruling for service on the persons described below. According to the motion, various persons "claim to have a 'right to possession' as alleged tenants of the former owners [or singular owner?]" of the property prior to foreclosure (dkt. 50, p.7, para. 5.(4)). The tentative ruling is that such persons (and perhaps others) require notice of the relief sought in the motion.

This Court recognizes that any foreclosure might have wiped out the interests of any tenants. On the other hand in various situations that is not necessarily so - e.g., if the tenancy pre-dated the deed of trust and there was no agreement for subordination or the like then perhaps foreclosure did not wipe out the tenancies; or perhaps applicable nonbankruptcy law would protect residential tenants in some fashion; or perhaps even a bare possessory interest is entitled to some protection (perhaps that interest would be enough for a tenant to obtain the benefits of the automatic stay in their own future bankruptcy case long enough for an orderly move-out).

The point is not that the alleged tenants necessarily have any actual rights or ability to oppose the motion for "in rem" relief - Judge Bason is not prejudging those things one way or the other. Rather, the point is that Judge Bason has due process concerns about granting relief that would be effective notwithstanding any future bankruptcy filing without any notice to the alleged tenants or any others who may claim an interest in the property. See generally Mullane v. Central Hanover Bank & Trust Co., 339 U.S. 306 (1950) (due process generally).

The alleged tenants appear to be Catry Cho and Vivian Cho (dkt. 50, Ex.3); Robert Garviria and John Blanco (dkt. 50, Ex.4); Jonathan Marroquin and Zena Hill possibly aka Zena Louise Hill possibly aka Bonita D Hill (see cases no. 2:18-bk-14316-ER and 2:17-bk-21208-BR) (dkt. 50, Continuation Page, at PDF pp.12-13); Beanca "Bea" Cho (dkt. 50 at PDF pp.12-13); and Juan Herrera (one of the debtors in this case) (id.). In addition, the owner prior to foreclosure appears to have been Martin W. Gentry (the trustor under the deed of trust prior to foreclosure) (dkt. 50, Ex.1, at PDF p.5 of 21), and given the possibility that the alleged tenants or Mr. Gentry assert that some sort of alleged interest survived the foreclosure it appears appropriate to require service on him as well.

Accordingly, the tentative ruling is to direct the movant to serve (i) its papers and (ii) notice of the continued hearing date substantially as follows:

Dana Point, CA 92624

(4) Option for shortened time: This Court has selected a continued hearing date that contemplates shortened notice (per Rule 9006, Fed. R. Bankr. P.) but that date is conditioned on the movant serving all papers on the day after the current hearing date. Alternatively, the movant may self-calendar a continued hearing on regular notice.

Grant request for future in rem relief for the reasons stated below.
Appearances are not required on 5/22/18.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this court's final ruling. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

Reason: This matter was continued from 5/8/18 on shortened notice on the condition that Movant serve the motion and notice of this continued hearing on the persons who executed the subject commercial lease: (a) Chul Won Oh aka Young Hye Hong, (b) Hye Young Oh, and (c) O Dae San, Inc., by 5/9/18. order, unless otherwise ordered by the court presiding over that bankruptcy case.

For the avoidance of doubt, any acts by the movant to obtain exclusive possession of such property shall not be stayed. Any additional request for relief applicable to future bankruptcy cases is denied (e.g., any request to grant relief against third parties without any notice is denied) due to lack of sufficient factual or legal grounds presented in support of such relief.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." If appearances are required, and you fail to appear without adequately resolving this matter by consent, then you may waive your right to be heard on matters that are appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

Tentative Ruling for 5/8/18:

Grant in part and continue in part to 5/22/18 at 10:00 a.m. as set forth below.
Appearances are not required on 5/8/18.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this court's final ruling. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

Use of incorrect form. This court notes that Movant used the relief from stay form for non-bankruptcy actions, but the non-bankruptcy action at issue is an unlawful detainer proceeding, for which there is a different form. This Court's forms are tailored to the particular matter at issue, and in general use of the wrong form may lead to errors and requires additional work for this Court. The tentative ruling is to excuse the use of the wrong form in this instance, with the caution that if the wrong form is used in future (without a sufficient explanation why the normal form is inadequate) it may lead to denial or delay of the requested relief.

The automatic stay does not apply. This case has been dismissed, which terminates the automatic stay. See 11 USC 349(b)(3) & 362(c).

In addition, based on the un rebutted assertions in the motion that the debtor is neither a signatory of the lease nor an occupant of the leased premises (dkt. 7, pp. 4, 7, 9 & supporting exhibits), it does not appear that there is any basis to assert that 11 U.S.C. 362(a) applies.

In the alternative and in addition, this court grants relief from the automatic stay as follows.

Termination. Terminate the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1).

Any co-debtor stay (11 U.S.C. 1301(c)) is also terminated, because it has not been shown to have any basis to exist independent of the stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(a). To the extent, if any, that the motion seeks to terminate the automatic stay in other past or pending bankruptcy cases, such relief is denied on the present record. See In re Ervin (Case No. 14-bk-18204-NB, docket no. 311).

Relief notwithstanding future bankruptcy cases.

As to the requested relief that will remain effective notwithstanding any future bankruptcy case, continue the motion to the date and time set forth at the start of this tentative ruling, for service on the persons who executed the commercial lease agreement(s). Reasons: See LBR 4001-1(c)(1)(B). In addition, Judge Bason has due process concerns about granting such relief without service on the person(s) whose interests may be most directly affected. See generally Mullane v. Central Hanover Bank & Trust Co., 339 U.S. 306 (1950) (due process generally). In this matter, such persons appear to include: (a) Chul Won Oh aka Young Hye Hong, (b) Hye Young Oh, and (c) O Dae San, Inc. (which must be served "Attn: Officer" or the like, per Rule 7004(b)(3), Fed. R. Bankr. P.). See motion (dkt. 7) at p.10.

Docket 1

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for 5/22/18:

Continue to 6/12/18 at 11:00 a.m. for the reasons stated in the status report (adv. dkt. 16). Appearances are not required on 5/22/18.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." If appearances are required, and you fail to appear without adequately resolving this matter by consent, then you may waive your right to be heard on matters that are appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

Tentative Ruling for 4/17/18:

Appearances required. The court has reviewed the debtor's motion to dismiss (dkt. 7), Plaintiff's opposition (dkt. 14), the parties' joint status report (dkt. 9), Notice of Related District Court Case (dkt. 12) and the other filed documents and records in this adversary proceeding.

Paragraph "(2)" below is the tentative ruling on the motion to dismiss. Paragraphs "(1)," "(3)," and "(4)" below are Judge Bason's standard requirements for status conferences, with additional provisions specific to this matter. (To the extent that the parties have already addressed these issues in their status report, they need not repeat their positions at the status conference.)

(1) Venue/jurisdiction/authority.

The parties are directed to address any outstanding matters of (a) venue, (b) jurisdiction, (c) this court's authority to enter final orders or judgment(s) in this proceeding and, if consent is required, whether the parties do consent, or have already expressly or impliedly consented. See generally Stern v. Marshall, 131 S.Ct. 2594, 2608 (2011) (if litigant "believed that the Bankruptcy Court lacked the authority to decide his claim...then he should have said so – and said so promptly."); Wellness Int'l Network, Ltd. v. Sharif, 135 S.Ct. 1932 (2015) (consent must be knowing and voluntary but need not be express); In re Bellingham Ins. Agency, Inc., 702 F.3d 553 (9th Cir. 2012) (implied consent), aff'd on other grounds, 134 S. Ct. 2165 (2014); In re Pringle, 495 B.R. 447 (9th Cir. BAP 2013) (rebuttable presumption that failure to challenge authority to issue final order is intentional and indicates consent); In re Deitz, 760 F.3d 1028 (9th Cir. 2014) (authority to adjudicate nondischargeability encompasses authority to liquidate debt and enter final judgment). See generally In re AWTR Liquidation, Inc., 548 B.R. 300 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2016).

With respect to this specific matter, although nondischargeability complaints are prototypically "core" bankruptcy matters, this Bankruptcy Court is concerned about possible duplication of litigation and infringement on the District Court's management of the related nonbankruptcy action pending in that Court since 6/16/17. Should this Bankruptcy Court grant relief from the automatic stay (on this Court's own motion or the motion of either party) so that such litigation can proceed, and meanwhile hold this nondischargeability action in abeyance? Alternatively, are other approaches preferable, such as removal, or withdrawal of the reference, or bifurcation of issues? The parties are directed to address what is the most appropriate and efficient way to proceed.

(2) Motion to Dismiss (dkt. 7)

The legal standards applicable to a motion to dismiss will not be repeated here because they are well known and have been summarized in the parties' filed papers. The tentative ruling is to grant the motion to dismiss the first and second claims for relief, with leave to amend, for the following reasons.

(a) 11 U.S.C. 523(a)(2)(A): false representation etc.

The debtor/defendant seeks dismissal of the first claim for relief, under section 523(a)(2)(A), on the ground that the plaintiff has not alleged that he obtained money, property, services, or credit from plaintiff as a result of the alleged fraud. The debtor/defendant argues (adv. dkt. 7, pp.6:23-7:3) that any alleged misrepresentations occurred in reports filed after the employees had performed services for the prior month and therefore after the debt was incurred, so the money or property at issue was not "obtained by" the alleged fraud.

United States Bankruptcy Court

On the one hand, the motion to dismiss is not entirely persuasive on this point. Reading the complaint in the light most favorable to the plaintiff as this Court must do when addressing a motion to dismiss, the complaint (adv. dkt. 1, p.1, para. 25) alleges that as a result of an ongoing pattern of false reports the Trust Funds (whom the plaintiff represents) missed opportunities to assert claims against the debtor/defendant's general contractors, which allegedly would have resulted in recovery of funds to cover the dollar amounts owed to the Trust Funds. In other words, if the Trust Funds had known of the (allegedly) false representations in those reports (or the allegedly fraudulent nature or false pretenses in those reports) then, allegedly, the Trust Funds could have pursued remedies that apparently are no longer available to them, so the fact that the reports were filed after the services were rendered each month is not dispositive.

But the complaint does not explain how the Trust Funds' missed opportunity amounts to obtaining money, property, services, or credit from plaintiff as a result of the alleged fraud. Rather, it appears that the (allegedly) false reports enabled the debtor/defendant to continue obtaining services from the employees (without providing those employees all of the compensation to which they were owed, in the form of funds that should have been transferred to the Trust Funds for the benefit of the employees). Compare In re Kay, 60 B.R. 174, 176 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 1986) (liability based on fact that "the employee beneficiaries" sustained damages as "the proximate result of the defendants' representations") (emphasis added).

In sum, there are not enough allegations in the complaint to show a causal connection between the alleged falsehoods of the debtor/defendant and some sort of damage to the plaintiff. It is possible, of course, that the plaintiff stands in the shoes of the employees for these purposes, but the complaint does not include sufficient allegations (or copies of documents) for this Court to read the complaint that way. It is also possible that the plaintiff itself has been damaged - e.g., perhaps the plaintiff is liable to the employees if it did not detect and cure the alleged falsehoods in the debtor/defendant's reports, and thus the plaintiff itself has been damaged - but again the complaint does not include sufficient allegations (or copies of documents) for this Court to read the complaint that way.

For all of these reasons, the tentative ruling is to grant the motion to dismiss the first claim for relief, with leave to amend. The tentative deadline for filing an amended complaint is 5/1/18.

The debtor/defendant has raised a separate argument with respect to the first claim for relief. The tentative ruling, however, is to reject the debtor/defendant's alternative argument (adv. dkt. 7, pp.7:23-8:5) that, under Rule 9(b), Fed. R. Civ. P. (incorporated by Rule 7009, Fed. R. Bankr.P.), the complaint is not sufficiently precise about the amount of hours that were falsely under-reported in each report. The complaint sufficiently apprises the debtor/defendant of the grounds of the alleged fraud, and any greater specificity is a matter for discovery and proof at trial, not a defect in pleading.

(b) 11 U.S.C. 523(a)(4): fraud or defalcation while acting in a fiduciary capacity, etc.

The debtor/defendant seeks dismissal of the second claim for relief, under section 523(4), on the ground that the complaint lacks sufficient allegations that he is a fiduciary with respect to the funds at issue. The tentative ruling is that this is correct.

The complaint alleges that "amounts withheld from employee wages meant to be transmitted to the Vacation Trust" became assets of that trust "as of the earliest date on which such contributions ... can reasonably be segregated from the employer's general assets." Complaint (adv. dkt. 1), p. 8, para.30 (emphasis added, quoting 29 C.F.R. 2510.3-102). In response the debtor/defendant argues (adv. dkt. 7, pp.9:12-15): "Plaintiff has failed to allege that such withholdings actually occurred and when such employee wage withholdings could be 'reasonably segregated from the employer's general assets." Without such allegations, Plaintiff has failed to adequately allege that plan assets are at issue." (Emphasis added.)

To illustrate, consider the following hypothetical situation. Suppose that the debtor/defendant was paid $10X by a customer, but had obligations at that time of $15X consisting of $5X owed to employees for their base pay, $1X that should have been transmitted to the Vacation Trust but was not, and $9X for various other business expenses such as rent and income taxes. Did the $1X ever become segregated (withheld from wages) to the extent that it became a separate fund as to which the debtor/defendant had fiduciary obligations, or was the $1X only one contractual debt among many, with no segregated fund and therefore no associated fiduciary obligations?

In a similar vein the debtor/defendant also argues (adv. dkt. 7, pp.9:16-10:17) that the allegations about purported control over plan assets are conclusory, that unpaid contributions to employee benefit funds are not plan assets, and that there are insufficient allegations in the complaint to establish that there was any pre-existing fiduciary relationship. The tentative ruling is that all of these arguments are persuasive.

The debtor/defendant cites persuasive authority in support of the foregoing analysis. It is one thing if an employer misuses employee contributions to a trust fund, but if the funds have never reached the employee and instead are contributions that the employer was supposed to make then the failure to pay that contribution is not, by itself, enough to establish a fiduciary relationship with respect to those funds. See In re Quinones, 537 B.R. 942, 945 n.2 (Bankr. N.D. Cal. 2015) (distinguishing employer contributions "from the situation where an employer has control over funds that were withheld from employees' paychecks"). The complaint does not include sufficient allegations to determine which type of contribution is at issue.

In sum, the complaint does not contain enough allegations about the precise relationships among the parties so as to be able to figure out when the debtor/defendant's duties arose and to whom. The tentative ruling is to set the same deadline to amend the complaint as for the first claim for relief.

Unless this Court is persuaded to depart from the foregoing tentative ruling it will be adopted as this Court's final ruling on the motion to dismiss. The debtor/defendant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this court's final ruling. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

(3) Mediation. Is there is any reason why this court should not order the parties to mediation before one of the volunteer mediators (not a Bankruptcy Judge) at this time? The tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 5/1/18 for the parties to lodge a proposed mediation order (the parties are directed to use the time between now and that deadline to find a mutually agreeable mediator whose schedule can accommodate the needs of this matter; and if the parties

Tentative Ruling:

Revised Tentative Ruling for 5/22/18:

Continue to 6/19/18 at 11:00 a.m. to be concurrent with the hearing on the motion of Cardlock Fuels System, Inc. ("Cardlock") to set aside the Clerk's entry of default against it. Appearances are not required on 5/22/18.

Analysis. It appears that the funds levied by the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department ("Sheriff") might properly belong to the debtor, or to Cardlock (if it can obtain relief from default), or to the bankruptcy estate (given the debtor's alleged nondisclosure in her bankruptcy papers of her claim to the funds at issue). See adv. dkt. 27, Ex.A, at pp.3:11-4:14 (Cardlock's affirmative defenses, asserting that either it or the debtor's bankruptcy estate owns the funds, not the debtor). Until it is determined whether or not the Clerk's default against Cardlock will be vacated, it is premature to address the motion for a default judgment against Cardlock. In addition, given the potential interests of the bankruptcy estate in the funds, and the possible lack of anyone to represent the estate if a default judgment were to be entered against Cardlock, it is premature to enter a default judgment against the other possible representative of the estate - the Chapter 13 Trustee.

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for 5/22/18:

Appearances are not required on 5/22/18.

(1) Current issues.

(a) This court does not have any issues to raise sua sponte.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 3/13/18.

(a) Bar date: 6/15/18 (timely served, dkt. 26, 32).

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: This court will discuss setting a deadline for the filing of a draft plan/disclosure statement at the next status conference.

(c) Continued status conference: 7/17/18 at 1:00 p.m. Brief status report due 7/3/18.

*Warning: special procedures apply (see order setting initial status conference).

Tentative Ruling for 5/1/18:

Appearances required by counsel for the debtor but telephonic appearances are encouraged if advance arrangements are made (see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.", "Instructions/Procedures").

Chapter 11

(1) Current issues.

(a) Budget Motion (dkt. 21). This Court has reviewed Debtor's Supplemental Declaration in Support of the Budget Motion (dkt. 34). Although that declaration addresses many of the concerns raised by this Court and by Strategic Acquisitions, Inc. (dkt. 23), the debtor has failed to provide historical monthly profit and loss statements from the period from 1/1/18 through 3/31/18 as required by this Court's order (dkt. 27, para. 5.a.). The parties should be prepared to address what remedy this Court should impose.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 3/13/18.

(a) Bar date: 6/15/18 (timely served, dkt. 26, 32).

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: In view of the debtor's declaration about her current and future projected income, the tentative ruling is to vacate the prior deadline to file these documents, and set a new deadline at a future status conference, with the caveat that if the debtor fails to show sufficient diligence in obtaining employment and/or if the estate suffers any substantial losses then this Court might have to dismiss or convert this case.

(c) Continued status conference: 6/12/18 at 1:00 p.m. No written status report is required.

*Warning: special procedures apply (see order setting initial status conference).

Tentative Ruling for 4/10/18:

Appearances required by counsel for the debtor and by the debtor herself.

(1) Current issues. This Court has reviewed the debtor's status report (dkt.

Chapter 11

19), the response (dkt. 23) filed by creditor Strategic Acquisitions, Inc. ("Strategic"), and the other filed documents and records in this case.

(a) Prior failed case. The debtor's husband's prior case (no. 17-bk-19071-NB) was a chapter 13 case that was dismissed on 10/13/17 with a 180-day bar to re-filing for failure to make plan payments or appear at the meeting of creditors (11 U.S.C. 341(a)).

(b) Budget Motion (dkt. 21). First, as Strategic points out, the debtor's bankruptcy Schedule I, line 8a, lists $6,220/mo. of net income from "rental property and from operating a business, profession, or farm" but fails to follow the instructions to "[a]ttach a statement for each property and business showing gross receipts, ordinary and necessary business expenses, and the total net monthly income." In addition, as Strategic points out, the debtor may be failing to account for the payment of real property taxes and perhaps also income taxes, and therefore it is not at all clear how the debtor will be able to fund any plan of reorganization.

The tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 4/17/18 for the debtor to file declaration(s) (i) attaching the statement(s) required by the line 8a instructions, (ii) providing complete explanations of any other sources of income (e.g., how long does the debtor anticipate continuing to receive disability payments? does the debtor anticipate returning to employment, and if so, when?), (iii) explaining whether the debtor is accounting for real estate taxes and income taxes, (iv) explaining how the debtor anticipates generating sufficient income to fund a plan of reorganization, and (v) attaching historical monthly accounts for the period of one year prepetition through 3/31/18.

Second, bankruptcy Schedule J (attached to the budget motion), lines 17c and 17d, list payments to Strategic of $1,750/mo. and to Ropers Majeski of $500/mo. The tentative ruling is to treat those payments as adequate protection payments on account of claims that appear to be secured claims, conditioned on return of such payments in the event that such security interests or claims are avoided or otherwise disallowed.

Third, notice of the motion and the deadline for objections is inadequate. The proof of service fails to attach a service list of creditors, and the debtor checked the box directing creditors to file any oppositions within 14 days' from the date of the proof of service (3/27/18), which would be the date of this hearing. Nevertheless, despite the lack of adequate service or notice, the tentative ruling is that on the present record it appears that it would be more prejudicial to creditors to prevent the debtors from making their proposed expenditures than to permit those expenditures, so the tentative ruling is to grant the budget motion on an interim basis, subject to any objections at a continued hearing simultaneous with the continued status conference date set forth below. This court has selected a continued hearing date that contemplates shortened notice (per Rule 9006, Fed. R. Bankr. P.), but that date is conditioned upon the debtor serving the motion on the entire creditor matrix the day after the current hearing date.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 3/13/18.

(a) Bar date: 6/15/18 (DO NOT SERVE notice yet - court will prepare an order after the status conference).

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: File by 6/29/18 using the forms required by Judge Bason (DO NOT SERVE yet, except on the U.S. Trustee - the court will set a deadline and procedures at a later time). This Court is aware that the debtor has requested a much later deadline (dkt. 19, p. 5), but this Court is not aware of any reason why so much time is needed. The debtor should be negotiating with secured creditors and other key constituencies already.

(c) Continued status conference: 5/1/18 at 1:00 p.m. No written status report is required.

*Warning: special procedures apply (see order setting initial status conference).

(a) Sale motions for Stockton and Fresno properties (dkt. 106, 107). Subject to the following, the tentative ruling is to grant these motions on the terms agreed by the parties per dkt. 123, 124, 127, 128, 129, and 130.

(b) Fresno dual agency. This Court's order (dkt. 112) authorized the retention of Newmark Grubb Pearson Commercial ("Newmark") as real estate broker but specified "no dual agency." Id. p.2:19 (emphasis in original.) The Fresno property sale motion concedes (dkt. 107, p.3, n.1) that Newmark has acted in a dual agency capacity. The tentative ruling is that, before lodging any proposed order granting the Fresno motion (dkt. 107), the debtor must file a declaration establishing that another broker has been brought into the transaction to represent one of the two parties, to be paid out of Newmark's commission. The tentative ruling is that such declaration must be served on the parties who have filed written oppositions and on the U.S. Trustee.

(c) Good faith findings (11 U.S.C. 363(m)). The tentative ruling is that, before lodging any proposed order that includes a "good faith" finding, the debtor must file a declaration from the buyer (not just the broker and/or debtor) and serve that declaration on the parties who have filed written oppositions and on the U.S. Trustee.

(d) Hearing to be set if needed. The tentative ruling is that if this Court is not satisfied with the foregoing declarations then this Court will issue an order setting a hearing to address whatever troubles this Court. This Court does not anticipate, however, that any hearing will be necessary.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 2/16/18.

Tentative Ruling for 3/20/18:

Appearances required by counsel for the debtor and by the debtor(s) themselves. This court has reviewed the debtor's chapter 11 status report (dkt. 31) and all other filings in this case.

(1) Current issues

(a) Proposed bankruptcy counsel (dkt. 9, 30, 34, 45, 46). The debtor has now disclosed that the source of the prepetition retainer is Olympic Holdings, LLC ("Olympic"), the managing member of which is also the debtor's managing member, namely Mr. Mark Slotkin. The debtor has also clarified that although Olympic proposes to pay counsel's monthly bills as they come due (to be held in proposed counsel's client trust account until allowed), Olympic reserves the right to request reimbursement of prepetition payments as a general unsecured claim and postpetition payments as an administrative claim - would such postpetition request be on "substantial contribution" grounds? or on other grounds, such as an administrative priority loan (under 11 U.S.C. 364? without interest? with interest?)?

The foregoing facts and questions raise a host of ethical concerns. Any counsel who is paid by a third party (the "Funder") may be subject to conflicts of interest, especially if there are potential avoidance actions, reimbursement or contribution or indemnity claims, or other claims that could be investigated or brought against the Funder. At the hearing, proposed counsel must address the following.

(i) Connections. What are all of the connections (as that term is used in FRBP 2014) among the Funder, the debtor, Mr. Slotkin, and proposed counsel? Are there any conflicts of interest, or potential conflicts? In the past, Judge Bason has followed authority holding that conflicts cannot be waived by a debtor in possession because it is representing the interests of creditors and has no authority to waive conflicts on creditors' behalf. In addition, to help in identifying all connections, Judge Bason's posted procedures require the use of Local Form 2014-1 (see those procedures at www.cacb.uscourts.gov for instructions how to fill out that form).

(ii) Terms. What are the precise understandings regarding the funds?

(iii) Informed consent of Funder. Mr. Slotkin declares (dkt. 45, para.5) that both he and Olympic understand that proposed counsel "does not represent us, and only represents the Debtor"? Have the members of Olympic (whoever they might be) been advised of this as well? Have all such persons been advised not only of representation issues but also attorney-client privilege issues, including what can happen if a trustee were to be appointed? Have all such persons been advised of duties of loyalty, whom counsel will continue to represent (if anyone) if a conflict develops, and other ethical and practical concerns? Who provided such advice: independent counsel, or the debtor's proposed counsel? Has the Funder given informed consent? Are those things in writing?

(iv) Informed consent of debtor. Has the debtor likewise been fully advised and given informed consent? Who provided such advice? Are these things in writing?

(v) Other considerations. Has proposed counsel demonstrated or represented to this Court the absence of an actual or potential conflict, a lack of disinterestedness, or any other basis for disqualification? See In re Kelton Motors, Inc., 109 B.R. 641 (Bankr. D. Vt. 1989); In re Hathaway Ranch Partnership, 116 B.R. 208, 219 (Bankr. C.D. #13.00 Cont'd Status Conference re: Chapter 11 Case
fr. 12/5/17, 02/13/18, 03/06/18, 5/1/18

Docket 1

Tentative Ruling:

Revised Tentative Ruling for 5/22/18:

Appearances required.

(1) Current issues.

(a) April MOR (dkt.192). On PDF p. 3, the debtor identifies a payment made to "Transport" on 4/26/18 in the amount of $55,515.00 for "dispatch and brokerage svc." What is this payment for? Is it an "ordinary course" transaction?

(b) Motion to Disqualify Truck Driver Counsel (dkt. 125). This Court issued an order (dkt. 169, amended dkt. 175) continuing this motion and set (i) a 5/15/18 deadline for the Slattery Law Firm and Hirsch Law Firm to file supplemental papers addressing who properly represents the Truck Drivers; and (ii) a 5/21/18 at noon deadline to file any responses.

This Court has reviewed the relevant papers. See dkt. 125, 126 & 127 (motion papers), dkt. 143 (Hirsch opposition), dkt. 145 (Slattery opposition), dkt. 156, 157 (debtor's reply), dkt. 161 (Slattery decl.), dkt. 167 (Slattery Rule 2019 statements), dkt. 189 (debtor's authorities re attorney-client privilege as applied to retainer agreements), dkt. 199 (Hirsch supp. opposition), dkt. 201 (Slattery decl.), dkt. 202 (Hirsch supp. reply), dkt. 203 (Hirsch evid. obj. to Slattery decl.), dkt. 204 (Rivera|Shakleford opp. re S.H. Chung, R.M. Rubio, H.D. Alvarez & G. Perez Silva).

There is no tentative ruling, but the parties should be prepared to address the arguments set forth in the filed papers.

(c) Objection to Claim Nos. 11, 37, 38, 40, 44, 45, 50 (dkt. 108, 109, 111, 113, 115, 117, 119). The proofs of claim were filed by the Hirsch Law Firm and the claim objections/notices were served on the Hirsch Law Firm and Slattery Law Firm. However, based on the debtor's pending motion to disqualify both firms, the tentative ruling is to continue the hearings on these claim objections to 6/19/18 at 2:00 p.m., pending resolution of the motion to disqualify. At the continued hearings, the parties should be prepared to address whether it would be appropriate for this court to set continued oppositions deadlines.

Note: Counsel did not comply with Judge Bason's posted procedures (at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) requiring a cost/benefit analysis for any claim objection (although this court's own cost/benefit analysis appears to favor seeking to reclassify these claim). In future, counsel should comply with those posted procedures.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 11/6/17.

(a) Bar date: 3/16/18 (order timely served, dkt. 43, 46).

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: TBD.

(c) Continued status conference: 5/29/18 at 2:00 p.m., to be heard concurrently with the other matters set for hearing in this case.

No status report required.

*Warning: special procedures apply (see order setting initial status conference).

(1) Current issues.

(a) Motion to Approve Compromise (dkt. 36). The parties should be prepared to address the status of any settlement negotiations with respect to the pending motion to approve compromise.

(b) Status Report. At the last status conference on 2/13/18, this court directed the debtor to file a brief status report by 2/27/18. As of the preparation of this tentative ruling, the debtor has not complied. The debtor should be prepared to address why it failed to comply with this court's order.

(c) Employment application: Creditors' Committee Counsel (dkt. 47, 65). The objection by certain truck drivers (dkt. 63) has been withdrawn (dkt. 89). The debtor's limited objection (dkt. 55) and the reply papers (dkt. 85, 86) raise issues that are best addressed in connection with any application for compensation, at which time this Court can evaluate whether the hourly billing rates are commensurate with the nature of the work performed, the time spent on each task, and the other factors under 11 U.S.C. 330. Therefore the tentative ruling is to overrule the objection and authorize the employment.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 11/6/17.

(a) Bar date: 3/16/18 (order timely served, dkt. 43, 46).

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: TBD.

(c) Continued status conference: 5/1/18 at 1:00 p.m., brief status report due 4/17/18.

Chapter 11

(1) Current issues.

The parties should be prepared to address (a) whether the Court should order mandatory mediation of the proposed settlement, proposed assignment of the lease, and related issues; (b) whether concurrently this Court should set deadlines such as a discovery cutoff or, conversely, whether this Court should temporarily issue a stay of some litigation; and (c) whether the parties would prefer that this Court provide some tentative rulings or preliminary thoughts on various issues, or if instead it would foster possible settlement or serve other beneficial goals for this Court not to do those things at this stage of the case.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 11/6/17.

(a) Bar date: 3/16/18 (order timely served, dkt. 43, 46).

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: TBD.

(c) Continued status conference: 5/1/18 at 1:00 p.m., brief status report due 4/17/18.

*Warning: special procedures apply (see order setting initial status conference).

WELLS FARGO BANK, NA
DEBTOR

Docket 61

Tentative Ruling:

Grant as provided below. Appearances are not required.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

Termination. Terminate the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1).

Any co-debtor stay (11 U.S.C. 1301(c)) is also terminated, because it has not been shown to have any basis to exist independent of the stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(a). To the extent, if any, that the motion seeks to terminate the automatic stay in other past or pending bankruptcy cases, such relief is denied on the present record. See In re Ervin (Case No. 14-bk-18204-NB, docket no. 311).

Effective date of relief. Deny the request to waive the 14-day stay provided by FRBP 4001(a)(3) for lack of sufficient cause shown.

#13.00 Hrg re: Motion in Individual Case for Order
Imposing a Stay or Continuing the Automatic
Stay as the Court Deems Appropriate

Docket 12

Tentative Ruling:

Revised Tentative Ruling for 5/29/18:

Appearances required. This Court has reviewed the motion papers (dkt. 12), the opposition papers (dkt. 20, 21) filed by U.S. Bank National Association as trustee, "Mr. Cooper" as servicer (collectively, "US Bank"), the debtor's reply papers (dkt. 27), and other filed documents.

The tentative ruling is that (1) the debtor apparently seeks to continue the automatic stay of 11 U.S.C. 362(a) as to all property, not just the debtor's real property; (2) the burden is on the debtor to show good faith in filing the current bankruptcy petition; (3) there is a presumption that the debtor did not file this case in good faith, which can only be rebutted by clear and convincing evidence; and (4) the debtor has not adequately rebutted that presumption on the present record; but (5) it is appropriate to provide the debtor with an opportunity to present supplemental evidence, which might be done in any of several ways. (a) This Court could hold an evidentiary hearing. That hearing would have to occur within the next day in order to come within the 30 day limit in 11 U.S.C. 362(c)(3)(B), unless US Bank is willing to waive that limit. (b) Alternatively, it might be appropriate for this Court to make findings of fact and conclusions of law without live testimony, on written declarations and briefs. (c) Alternatively, an adequate protection order ("APO") might be sufficient to establish good faith if the monthly payments are set at a sufficient dollar amount and other terms and conditions are applied.

Analysis:

(1) Background

The debtor seeks an order continuing the automatic stay in this case pursuant to 11 U.S.C. 362(c)(3). The motion (dkt.12, p.3) only expressly references the real property and improvements at 9820 Brookshire Ave., Downey, CA 90240 (the "Downey Property"), although the debtor seeks to continue the stay as against all creditors (id., para. 1.e.) regardless whether they have liens against that property. In any event, the motion focuses on two creditors in particular (apparently the holders of deeds of trust against the Downey Property): (1) US Bank, and (2) Citimortgage (dkt. 12).

At the hearing the debtor is directed to clarify whether relief is sought as to all property of the estate. The tentative ruling is that any attempt to do otherwise would inappropriately discriminate among creditors.

For example, if the debtor seeks to stay acts against the Downey Property but not stay garnishment of wages, that might create a race to seize those wages. Such an unrestricted race to seize assets could be disruptive to the orderly restructuring of the debtor's finances that is at the heart of the Bankruptcy Code's attempt to treat creditors equally and maximize creditors' recoveries.

Accordingly, the tentative ruling is to interpret the ambiguous motion as a request to continue the automatic stay as against all property and creditors.

(2) The automatic stay will terminate 30 days after the petition date unless this Court enters an order extending it.

On 1/26/18 the debtor filed a voluntary chapter 13 petition (2:18-bk-10876-WB) (the "Prior Case"). The Prior Case was dismissed on 2/13/18 for failure to file case commencement documents (id., dkt. 11). Less than a year later, on 5/1/18, the debtor filed this chapter 11 case. Therefore, the automatic stay will terminate on 5/31/18 if this court does not extend the stay, pursuant to 11. U.S.C. 362(c)(3):

(3) if a single or joint case is filed by or against a debtor who is an individual in a case under chapter 7, 11, or 13, and if a single or joint case of the debtor was pending within the preceding 1-year period but was dismissed, other than a case refiled under a chapter other than chapter 7 after dismissal under section 707

(A) the stay under subsection (a) with respect to any action taken with respect to a debt or property securing such debt or with respect to any lease shall terminate with respect to the debtor on the 30th day after the filing of the later case;

(B) on motion of a party in interest for continuation of the automatic stay and upon notice and a hearing, the court may extend the stay in particular cases as to any or all creditors (subject to such conditions or limitations as the court may then impose) after notice and a hearing completed before the expiration of the 30-day period only if the party in interest demonstrates that the filing of the later case is in good faith as to the creditors to be stayed. [Emphasis added.]

The parties have not briefed the legal standards applicable to 11 U.S.C. 362(c). First, there is authority that if the automatic stay is not continued beyond 30 days then it terminates in all aspects, i.e., not only as to the debtor individually but as to all parties and the bankruptcy estate. In re Reswick, 446 B.R. 362 (9th Cir. BAP 2011); In re Hernandez, case no. 2:11-bk-53730-NB, docket #40 (Memorandum Decision).

Second, there is authority that "good faith" is a factual inquiry, although to the extent the statute defines what is good faith the interpretation of the statute is a legal question. See generally, e.g., In re Ellsworth, 455 B.R. 904, 914, 917 (9th Cir. BAP 2011) (holding that good and bad faith in other contexts are factual inquiries). Cf. U.S. Bank v. Village at Lakeridge, LLC, ___ U.S. ___ (3/5/2018) (analyzing what issues are factual and what are legal).

Third, the factual nature of "good faith" does not necessarily mean that live testimony is required. See, e.g., In re Nicholson, 435 B.R. 622, 635-36 (9th Cir. BAP 2010). In fact, the tentative ruling is that, just like hearings on whether to grant relief from the automatic stay, any hearing on whether to continue the automatic stay is intended to be an expedited, summary proceeding, not a full blown trial. See 11 U.S.C. 362(c)(3)(B) (30 day limit to conclude hearing), and compare 11 U.S.C. 362(d)&(e) (30 day limit to conclude hearing) and In re Johnson, 756 F.2d 738, 740 (9th Cir. 1995) (summary nature of proceedings on whether to grant relief from stay); In re Veal, 450 B.R. 897, 914-15 (9th Cir. BAP 2011) (same, requiring only "colorable" basis for standing to seek relief from stay).

Fourth, the "good faith" inquiry is narrowly focused on the filing of the petition. For example, debtors sometimes argue that because they have a genuine desire to retain a roof over their and their family's heads they are acting in good faith, but the question is not the genuineness of that motive. The question is whether the debtor had a sufficient basis to believe that the current bankruptcy case could be properly prosecuted notwithstanding the dismissal of one or more earlier bankruptcy cases. In a reorganization case, such as this one, the tentative ruling is that the test of good faith is analogous to a standard test of whether relief from the automatic stay is appropriate: when the petition was filed, did the debtor have a good faith basis to believe that there would be "a reasonable possibility of a successful reorganization within a reasonable time." United Savings Assn. v. Timbers of Inwood Forest, 484 U.S. 365, 376 (1988) (interpreting 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(2)) (citation and internal quotation marks omitted), and see 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(3)(A) (similar test in small business cases).

Fifth, a finding of good faith for the preliminary purpose of whether to continue the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(c)(3) is not necessarily determinative of good faith for any other purposes. See, e.g., 11 U.S.C. 1129 (a)(3), and In re Abdelgadir, 455 B.R. 896, 900 (9th Cir. BAP 2011).

(3) The tentative ruling is that this case presumptively was not filed in good faith, and that presumption is only rebuttable by clear and convincing evidence.

The statute provides, in relevant part:

(C) ... a case is presumptively filed not in good faith (but such presumption may be rebutted by clear and convincing evidence to the contrary) – as to all creditors, if –

...

(II) a previous case under any of chapters 7, 11, and 13 in which the individual was a debtor was dismissed within such 1-year period, after the debtor failed to –

(aa) file or amend the petition or other documents as required by this title or the court without substantial excuse (but mere inadvertence or negligence shall not be a substantial excuse unless the dismissal was caused by the negligence of the debtor's attorney);

(III) there has not been [x] a substantial change in the financial or personal affairs of the debtor since the dismissal of the next most previous case under chapter 7, 11, or 13 or [y] any other reason to conclude that the later case will be concluded –

(bb) if a case under chapter 11 or 13, with a confirmed plan that will be fully performed. [11 U.S.C. 362(c)(3)(C) (emphasis added)]

US Bank argues (dkt. 20, p.5:10-18) that two grounds exist to find that the case is presumptively not filed in good faith. First, under section 362(c)(3)(I)(aa), the Prior Case was dismissed after the debtor failed to file required case commencement documents (2:18-bk-10876-WB, dkt. 11). Second, under section 362(c)(3)(III)(bb), US Bank contends that the debtor has not shown a sufficient change in the debtor's financial or personal affairs to conclude that the debtor will be able to propose a chapter 11 plan of reorganization will be confirmed and fully performed.

The tentative ruling is that US Bank is correct on both grounds. Therefore the burden is on the debtor to show, by "clear and convincing" evidence, that she has filed her latest bankruptcy petition in good faith (whether she has done so is the topic of part "(4)" of this tentative ruling – this part "(3)" only addresses the presumptions and burden of proof).

(a) Failure to file case commencement documents in Prior Case. The debtor's motion acknowledges that the Prior Case was dismissed because she failed to file bankruptcy schedules, her statement of financial affairs ("SOFA"), and a proposed chapter 13 plan, but the motion offers no explicit explanation for those failings (dkt. 12, PDF p. 11, para. 6). Instead, the debtor states that she was "unable to propose a feasible plan under a Chapter 13 bankruptcy because she was not able to afford the arrears over a five year period." (Id., PDF p. 6, paragraph F) (emphasis added). In other words, the debtor implies that her failure to file documents in her Prior Case was intentional, because she realized that it was not feasible for her to attempt to restructure her debts in chapter 13.

In her reply papers, the debtor states that she "filed [the] prior case ... when a real estate agent referred her to a petition preparer, James Rivas ('Rivas') to file a bankruptcy for her. She paid $625 including filing fee and filed a chapter 13 ... [but] she did not know that Rivas did not file all the schedules and [the] Prior Case was dismissed for failure to file her schedules" (dkt. 27, PDF p. 2, lines 9-14). That explanation does not appear to be credible because in the Prior Case the debtor herself was served, at her address of record, with this Court's order directing her to file the missing documents (case no. 2:18-bk-10876-WB, dkt. 8).

The tentative ruling is that the debtor has not established a "substantial excuse" for failing to file her case commencement documents in the Prior Case. Therefore the presumption of lack of good faith applies, and it can only be rebutted by clear and convincing evidence.

(b) Insufficient evidence of a substantial change in circumstances, or other reason to believe that this case will conclude in a confirmed and fully performed plan. The debtor's declaration states that she has "taken steps to increase her income and cut her expenses" (dkt. 12, PDF p. 11, paragraphs 8-9). The debtor does not say what specific changes she has made with respect to her non-rental income and expenses. As to rental income, she has now moved out of the Downey Property and is renting it to tenants, and she claims in the motion papers that this will generate an additional $3,500 in monthly income. The debtor's amended bankruptcy Schedule I (dkt. 16, line 8.a.) increases this monthly rental income to $3,700.

(Note: This Court observes that the debtor's original and amended bankruptcy Schedule I suffer from two defects. First, the instructions to line 8.a. clearly state that the debtor is supposed to list "net" income from rental property and attach a statement showing gross receipts, ordinary and necessary expenses, and net income. Instead the debtor appears to have listed gross income in Schedule I, and expenses such as the mortgage, taxes, insurance, and maintenance in Schedule J.

Second, the debtor apparently is using amended bankruptcy Schedules I & J to reflect postpetition changes, which is wrong. Those schedules are supposed to reflect the facts as of the petition date. The debtor should have filed a Declaration of Current/Postpetition Income and Expenses on local form F 3015.1.20.DEC.INCOME.EXPENSE. Nevertheless, these errors do not appear to have altered the math, so for present purposes this Court will disregard the debtor's errors, with a direction to the debtor to correct these errors within seven days of the hearing date.)

As for the debtor's reasons to believe that this case will result in a confirmed and fully performed plan, the debtor states that she intends to "cram down" US Bank's first priority lien to $500,000 and amortize it over 30 years to reduce the monthly payment to US Bank to $2,684.11. (Id., PDF p. 5, paragraph 2.B. & C.). The motion does not specify the proposed interest rate or provide any evidence to support the $500,000 valuation.

(i) Flaws in the debtor's evidence of non-rental income: alternative reasons why there is a presumption of lack of good faith. US Bank argues (dkt. 20, pp.5:26-6:9) that (i) the debtor's historical non-rental income is not fully disclosed (see SOFA, dkt. 1, at PDF p.35, item "4", listing only this year and omitting two previous calendar years); (ii) even limited to these few months, the SOFA reveals $600/mo. less non-rental income per month than the debtor has projected in her bankruptcy Schedule I, which calls into question the accuracy of that projection; (iii) her net non-rental income includes only $100/mo. for payment of State or Federal self-employment/withholding taxes (dkt. 26, at PDF p. 5) and there is evidence that the debtor has under-paid such taxes in the past (see dkt. 20, pp.5:28-6:1); and therefore (iv) "Debtor's figures are not currently supported and are likely to be negative not positive." The debtor's reply papers (dkt. 27) fail to address these issues.

The tentative ruling that, in view of these deficiencies in the debtor's evidence of non-rental income, the debtor has not adequately shown that, when she filed this case, she had sufficient basis for a good faith belief that this case is likely to result in a "confirmed plan that will be fully performed" within the meaning of 11 U.S.C. 362(c)(3)(C)(iii)(bb). It is true that, as described below, the debtor has provided evidence of increased rental income; but even with such rental income the debtor's cash flow is dependent upon sufficient non-rental income. Therefore, this is an alternative reason why there is a presumption that this case was not filed in good faith, which can only be rebutted by "clear and convincing" evidence.

(ii) Flaws in the debtor's evidence of rental income appear to have been adequately addressed, for purposes of any presumptive lack of good faith. As for rental income and the debtor's proposed retention of the Downey Property, US Bank argues (A) that the debtor would have to provide substantial "new value" to satisfy the "absolute priority rule" and thus be eligible to confirm a plan (dkt. 20, p.6:10-18, citing In re Zachary, 811 F.3d 1191 (9th Cir. 2016)), and (B) that even with an interest rate of 5.75% (i.e., only 1% above prime, notwithstanding the 100% loan-to-value ratio), the principal and interest payments would be $2,917.86 per month which, combined with $996.66 of property tax, insurance and maintenance (per the debtor's bankruptcy Schedule J) would result in negative cash flow based on $3,700/mo. in rental income. US Bank questions whether the debtor could obtain confirmation of any plan that would retain property with negative cash flow. Dkt. 20, p.7:3-9 (citing Loop Corp. v. United States Trustee, 379 F.3d 511, 515-16 (8th Cir. 2004) (negative cash flow sufficient to establish continuing loss to or diminution of estate for purposes of converting to chapter 7); In re Lindsay, 122 B.R. 157, 158 (Bankr. M.D. Fla. 1991) (denial of confirmation when debtors proposed to devote first 12 plan payments to non-income producing investment property)).

In her reply papers, the debtor provides evidence that in addition to renting out part of the Downey Property to one tenant for $3,500/mo. under a lease dated 2/15/18 (dkt. 27, Ex.3), she is about to rent out one bedroom and one bathroom to another tenant for $750/mo. under a lease dated 5/19/18 (id.), for a total of $4,250/mo. in rental income (see id., at Ex.1, Sch.I, line 8.a.). (Confusingly, the debtor's pending cash collateral motion (dkt. 28, p.4, para. 3) lists her monthly rental income as $4,200, but the leases themselves call for total gross rents of $4,250/mo., so this Court will use the latter number.)

The debtor's reply proposes to increase adequate protection payments to US Bank to $3,210/mo. (She also proposes to pay property taxes and property insurance directly rather than through escrow account(s) (dkt. 27, PDF p. 2:18-20), an issue on which this Court expresses no opinion at present.)

The tentative ruling is that this evidence of additional rental income adequately rebuts, for present purposes, US Bank's evidence that the Downey Property is cash flow negative. True, the second lease was not actually entered into until after the petition, but the point is that as of the petition date it was reasonable for the debtor to believe that such a lease could be entered into, and therefore the debtor has established her good faith to the extent that she relied on such income in filing her bankruptcy petition on 5/1/18.

As for the confirmation issues, such as how much "new value" the debtor might be required to contribute, the tentative ruling is that such issues are premature. The issues are complex, and both US Bank and the debtor may have substantial arguments in their favor. See generally Procedures of Judge Bason, available at www.cacb.uscourts.gov (search for "new value" and "cramdown"). In other words, using the language of 11 U.S.C. 362(c)(3)

(C)(iii), US Bank has not established that the debtor lacked a good faith "reason to conclude" that this case could result in a confirmed plan that can be fully performed.

That does not mean that the debtor has necessarily established that she filed her petition in good faith. The point is only that the Downey Property issues do not establish an alternative basis for a presumption against good faith. As noted above, however, that presumption is established on two alternative grounds – the debtor's failure to file case commencement documents in the Prior Case, and the flaws in her evidence of non-rental income in this case. Therefore, the issue is whether the debtor has rebutted that presumption with clear and convincing evidence that she filed her petition in good faith.

(4) Whether the debtor has rebutted the presumption of lack of good faith by "clear and convincing" evidence

The tentative ruling is that the debtor has not met her burden on the present record. But if this Court is persuaded to accept additional evidence then perhaps the debtor can establish, by clear and convincing evidence, that she filed her current bankruptcy petition in good faith.

(a) Non-rental income. As noted above, the debtor has completely failed to address the flaws in her evidence of non-rental income. But for several reasons the debtor might be able to present sufficient evidence on that issue.

Assuming for the sake of discussion that the debtor's non-rental income must be decreased to account for self-employment/withholding taxes, and for the vagueries of being an independent contractor, it is not clear on the present record how substantial those adjustments might be. Depending on the debtor's testimony, historical records, and other evidence, she might be able to show by clear and convincing evidence that she had a good faith belief that no such adjustments would be necessary, or that they would be so minor that she could absorb them, and therefore that she filed her petition in good faith.

(b) Rental income, and retaining the Downey Property. The second lease attached to the debtor's reply appears to be "clear and convincing" evidence that, as of the petition date, the debtor had a reasonable basis to anticipate increasing her rental income, and to that extent a good faith basis to file her bankruptcy petition. Of course, that evidence was only presented with the reply, but the signature line on this lease is dated 5/19/18, so it could not have been presented earlier and the tentative ruling is to accept that evidence subject to providing US Bank with an opportunity to respond to it.

More generally, whether the Downey Property is cash flow negative, neutral, or positive depends in part on what amortizing payments the debtor must make to US Bank every month. Those amortizing payments depend, in turn, on the appropriate interest rate and collateral valuation.

US Bank's opposition papers recognize that there is a colorable argument for an interest rate of 1% above prime, although of course that rate might or might not be what this Court would actually approve. The tentative ruling is that because a colorable argument can be made for such a rate, that is clear and convincing evidence that the debtor could file her petition in a good faith belief that such a rate might be approved. Therefore the more significant issue is valuation of the Downey Property.

The debtor's motion and reply papers do not include any evidence in support of the $500,000 valuation used in her motion (dkt. 12, p.5). Nevertheless, as the owner of the Downey Property she is competent to testify as to her opinion of its value, if this Court is persuaded to accept that additional evidence.

In addition, this Court notes that the debtor has filed a Motion For Order Determining Value of Collateral (dkt. 24), which contains an appraisal and a signed statement from an appraiser (not a declaration) that values the real property at $550,000. The point is not that this is admissible evidence in support of the present motion under section 362(c)(3) – it is not. Rather, the point is that, if this Court is persuaded to provide the debtor with an opportunity to present additional evidence, she may be able to offer clear and convincing evidence of her good faith in presuming that the Downey Property has a value in a range that could make a chapter 11 plan confirmable and feasible.

(5) Conclusion

The tentative ruling is that there is a presumption that the debtor has not filed this case in good faith for two alternative reasons: first, she failed to file case commencement documents in her Prior Case without substantial excuse; and second, she has not presented enough evidence of a change in her non-rental income to believe in good faith, as of the petition date, that this case has a reasonable possibility of resulting in a confirmed and fully performed plan. The burden is on the debtor to rebut this presumption by clear and convincing evidence.

The debtor might be able to do so if this Court permits her to present additional evidence. The tentative ruling is to permit such evidence, subject to US Bank also being permitted to present rebuttal evidence. Such leeway appears to be warranted because of the considerable time pressure in bringing or opposing a motion under section 362(c)(3), as well as the complexity of the issues. Such evidence could be addressed in several ways.

(a) Evidentiary hearing. This Court could set an evidentiary hearing. But because the hearing must be "completed" before the expiration of the 30-day period after the petition date (11 U.S.C. 362(c)(3)(B)) any such hearing would have to occur in the next day, unless US Bank is willing to waive the 30 day limit.

(b) Declarations. Another alternative might be to make findings of fact and conclusions of law based on written declarations and briefs, without oral testimony. Given the expedited and summary nature of proceedings under 11 U.S.C. 362(c)(3), that might be appropriate.

(c) APO. The debtor has expressed a willingness to enter into an APO (dkt. 27, p.2:23-25). If the dollar amount of monthly payments is sufficient, and if other terms and conditions are appropriate, that might be sufficient to show "good faith" under 11 U.S.C. 362(c)(3). As the saying goes, "the proof is in the pudding."

The parties are directed to address the foregoing issues at the hearing, including whether they will agree to an APO in resolution of this motion. Any such APO would be without prejudice to disputing all issues, including good faith, at any later stage of this case.

Docket 6

Tentative Ruling:

Deny as moot. Appearances are not required.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to serve and lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this court's final ruling.

Reasons: This case was dismissed on 5/21/18 based on debtor's failure to file case commencement documents. See dkt. 12.

No attorney fees: This court presumes that counsel for the debtor will not charge any fees for the time spent on this motion (because counsel knew or should have known that the deadline to file required documents was 5/16/18 and did not timely file all required case commencement documents or timely file a motion to extend that deadline). If counsel intends to charge any fees then the procedures must be followed to dispute this tentative ruling.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." Grant as provided below. Appearances are not required.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

Termination. Terminate the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1).

Any co-debtor stay (11 U.S.C. 1301(c)) is also terminated, because it has not been shown to have any basis to exist independent of the stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(a). To the extent, if any, that the motion seeks to terminate the automatic stay in other past or pending bankruptcy cases, such relief is denied on the present record. See In re Ervin (Case No. 14-bk-18204-NB, docket no. 311).

Relief applicable in future bankruptcy cases. Deny the request for relief under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(4) for lack of cause shown.

Effective date of relief. Deny the request to waive the 14-day stay provided by FRBP 4001(a)(3) for lack of sufficient cause shown.

#5.00 Hrg re: Motion for order appointing an interim trustee under 11 U.S.C. section 303(G)

Docket 5

Tentative Ruling:

Appearances required but telephonic appearances are permitted (as usual) if advance arrangements are made (see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.", "Instructions/Procedures").

Subject to any oral (or written) opposition at the hearing, and any reply, the tentative ruling is:

- (1) to take judicial notice of the proceedings in the related case (In re Layfield & Barrett, case no. 2:17-bk-19548-NB), and based on that and the arguments and evidence in the motion papers:
- (2) to grant the motion;
- (3) to issue an order:
  - (a) directing the appointment of an interim trustee pursuant to 11 U.S.C. 303(g) and 701 and Rule 2001 (Fed. R. Bankr. P.) for the reasons set forth in the motion, including in particular the risk of concealment, waste, or loss of assets of the estate, and the public interest in protecting clients and other creditors of Mr. Layfield and/or his firms, and
  - (b) directing the interim trustee to assume all of the duties of a trustee under 11 U.S.C. 704; and
- (4) to set the bond at $-0- (subject to later adjustment as may be directed by the United States Trustee or, upon appropriate motion, by this Court).

Proposed order: Except to the extent that this Court is persuaded to adopt any different ruling, the movant is directed to attach a copy of this tentative ruling to a proposed order, which must be lodged via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, thereby incorporating this tentative ruling as this Court's final ruling. Chapter 11

#2.00 Status conference re: Chapter 11 case

Docket 7

Tentative Ruling:

Appearances required by counsel for the debtor and by the debtor(s) themselves.

(1) Current issues.

(a) Amended Schedule I (dkt. 26). Bankruptcy Schedule I, paragraph 8a, requires a separate statement for any rental property showing gross receipts, ordinary and necessary expenses, and net income. The debtor has not complied. Why not?

(b) Budget motion (dkt. 17, 29). Notwithstanding the foregoing, this Court has reviewed the cash collateral motion (dkt. 28), which appears to set forth the gross receipts, expenses, and net income of the subject property. Based on the presumption that this is included in the budget for which the debtor seeks approval, the tentative ruling is to grant the budget motion as amended (dkt. 29), on an interim basis, subject to a final hearing at the same date and time as the continued status conference set forth below. By no later than 6/8/18, the debtor must (i) correct the above-referenced omission from bankruptcy Schedule I and the budget motion, (ii) provide notice of the final hearing on this motion via U.S. Mail to all parties in interest, and (iii) file a proof of service.

Proposed order: The debtor is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this court's final ruling. See LBR 9021-1(b) (1)(B).

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 5/1/18.

(a) Bar date: 8/7/18 (DO NOT SERVE notice yet - court will prepare an order after the status conference).

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: file by 8/29/18 using the forms required by Judge Bason (DO NOT SERVE yet, except on the U.S. Trustee - the court will set a deadline and procedures at a

Docket 155

Tentative Ruling:

The application and supporting declaration of Ms. Anyama are unsigned (dkt. 155). Subject to filing an errata with such signatures, the tentative ruling is to excuse the lack of the debtors' supporting declaration (see dkt. 158), grant the application, and award fees of $18,605.00 and expenses of $660.05 for a total of $19,265.05. Appearances are not required.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this court's final ruling. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

Appearances required but telephonic appearances are encouraged if advance arrangements are made (see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.", "Instructions/Procedures").

There is no tentative ruling, but the parties should be prepared to address any outstanding disputes with landlords, or other issues that are appropriate for disposition at this post-confirmation status conference.

If you do not appear, and the matter is not adequately resolved by consent, then you may waive your right to be heard on matters that are appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

#4.00 Cont'd Status Conference re: Chapter 11 Case
fr. 2/22/18, 3/20/18, 5/1/18

Docket 19

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for 5/29/18:

Continue as set forth below. Appearances are not required on 5/29/18.

(1) Current issues. This Court has reviewed the debtor's status report (dkt. 171), and other related pleadings.

(a) Untimely Status Report and April MOR. This Court's tentative ruling for 5/1/18 (see below) directed the debtor to file a brief status report by 5/15/18, but the debtor did not file a status report until 5/18/18. Further, debtor did not file its April MOR until 5/23/18. The debtor is cautioned that failure to abide by applicable deadlines in future may result in adverse consequences.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 2/16/18.

(a) Bar date: Timely served (dkt. 155, 163, 167).

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: 8/31/18

(c) Continued status conference: Continue to 6/12/18 at 2:00 p.m. No status report required.

*Warning: special procedures apply (see order setting initial status conference).

Continue to 5/29/18 at 2:00 p.m. Appearances are not required on 5/1/18.

(1) Current issues.

(a) Background. At a post-confirmation status conference on 4/17/18 for B&B Bachrach (2:17-bk-15292-NB), debtor's counsel discussed the status of that case as well as the B&B Liquidating case. At counsel's request, this Court set a tentative bar date of 6/29/18, but advised counsel that this Court would hold off on issuing the bar date order (and may push the bar date back) pending resolution of the claims/noticing agent issues raised sua sponte by this Court.

(b) Cash Collateral/DIP Financing (dkt. 21, 22). The tentative ruling is to grant the motion on a final basis, as modified on the record at the hearing on 2/22/18, the interim order (dkt. 36), the amended budget (dkt. 65), and the second amended stipulation (dkt. 141). The debtor is directed to serve and lodge a proposed order via this court's "LOU" system within 7 days after the hearing date.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 2/16/18.

(a) Bar date: Tentatively set as 6/29/18. DO NOT serve any notice at this time (this Court will prepare an order after the claims/noticing issues are resolved)

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: 8/31/18

(c) Continued status conference: continue to the date set forth at the start of this tentative ruling, brief status report due 5/15/18.

*Warning: special procedures apply (see order setting initial status conference).

Telephonic appearances are encouraged if advance arrangements are made (see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.", "Instructions/Procedures").

(1) Current issues. As of the time when this tentative ruling has been prepared, there is no proof of service of the debtor's motions. The following tentative rulings are subject to (i) adequate proof of service and (ii) any oppositions presented at or prior to the hearing. In addition, rather than stating at length this Court's reasoning, the following tentative rulings adopt, to the extent relevant, the reasoning of this Court regarding similar motions in the Bachrach case (no. 2:17-bk-15292-NB, dkt. 46-47).

(a) Notice/Service. Pursuant to LBR 9075-1(a)(2)(B), this Court has already orally and conditionally granted the debtor's request to shorten time on the motions identified below, subject to the right of any party in interest to object at or before the hearing to the adequacy of notice. With those limitations, the tentative ruling is to find notice adequate and grant the debtor's requests in its motions (e.g., dkt. 5, p.3:3-5) to excuse any requirement for telephonic notice provided that overnight delivery or other permissible expedited service (e.g., personal delivery, or email as permitted by applicable rules) has been delivered no later than 24 hours prior to this hearing to all persons with a pecuniary interest that could be adversely affected by the relief requested in each motion.

(b) Immediate relief. With respect to any immediate relief described below, the tentative ruling is that the debtor has shown sufficient cause for such immediate relief under Rule 6003 (Fed. R. Bankr. P.), to the extent applicable, and the other rules and procedures governing relief on an emergency or expedited basis.

(c) Limit Notice Motion (dkt. 3). The tentative ruling is to grant this motion, subject to the following adjustments. First, the Limited Service List must be augmented to include (i) junior lienholder Emerald Capital Funding, LLC ("Emerald") and (ii) the debtor's own bankruptcy counsel (because the motion apparently contemplates that all parties in interest - not just the debtor - will be authorized to use the Limited Service List). Second, this Court contemplates limitations that parallel this Court's modifications to the parallel order in the Bachrach case (no. 2:17-bk-15292-NB, dkt. 53).

(e) Tax Motion (dkt. 5). The tentative ruling is to grant the motion on an interim basis, with a final hearing at the same time as the continued status conference set forth below.

(f) Cash Management Motion (dkt. 6). The tentative ruling is to grant the motion on the following conditions on an interim basis, with a final hearing at the same time as the continued status conference set forth below. No later than 2/23/18 the debtor must file a declaration of its CFO or other appropriate person certifying that, first, the debtor has taken measures to assure that prepetition debts are not paid out of its existing accounts (e.g., stopping payment on prepetition checks, except to the extent authorized by this court), and second, the debtor is maintaining sufficiently detailed books and records that, if it becomes necessary to analyze the debtor's finances as of the petition date, such analysis will not be impaired by the non-closing of the debtor's prepetition accounts.

(g) Lease Rejection Motion (dkt. 7). The tentative ruling is to grant the motion on a final basis.

(h) Employee Wages Motion (dkt. 8). The tentative ruling is to grant this motion immediately and on a final basis as to the employees, and to grant it as to the retention of Modern HR, Inc. ("HR") either immediately or at a continued hearing if the debtor can provide an offer of proof or evidence that HR's rates are within normal market rates for comparable services.

(i) Store Closing Sale Motion (dkt. 17). The tentative ruling is to approve the retention of Great American Group LLC and Tiger Capital Group LLC (collectively, "Liquidation Consultant") subject to the filing, no later than 2/23/18, of a satisfactory statement of Liquidation Consultant's disinterestedness on Local Form F 2014-1.STMT.DISINTEREST.PROF. In addition, the tentative ruling is to authorize the proposed sales of the debtor's inventory and furniture, fixtures and equipment ("FF&E"), free and clear of any liens, claims, encumbrances or other interests of all persons/entities who have been served with the motion, with all such interests to attach to proceeds of such sales, under 11 U.S.C. 363(b) and (f)(1), (2) and (5), for the reasons stated in the motion papers. In addition, the tentative ruling with respect to compliance with nonbankruptcy liquidation laws, restrictions in leases, and abandonment of property is to track the limitations in this Court's interim order on the parallel motion in the Bachrach case (no. 2:17-bk-15292-NB, dkt. 71). In addition, the tentative ruling is to grant all such relief on an interim basis, with a final hearing at the same time as the continued status conference set forth below.

(j) Cash Collateral/DIP Financing (dkt. 21, 22). The parties should be prepared to address the following issues. (i) Is there any evidence that the debtor is "unable" to obtain credit by granting a "senior or equal lien" to the lien of Siena Lending Group, LLC ("Siena"), within the meaning of 11 U.S.C. 364(d)(1)(A)? (ii) Why would it be appropriate for this Court to approve a roll-up, cross-collateralization, and other provisions that generally are disapproved (see dkt. 22)? (iii) Why should this Court grant broader relief in this case than it did in approving a similar motion in the Bachrach case (no. 2:17-bk-15292-NB, dkt. 46, Ex.A, pp.5-9, and dkt. 50)? The tentative ruling is to authorize either consensual or non-consensual use of cash collateral and, if the terms can be modified sufficiently to be acceptable, the proposed DIP financing, on an interim basis, with a final hearing at the same time as the continued status conference set forth below.

(k) Notice of continued hearings. The tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 2/27/18 for the debtor to file and serve a notice of the final hearing on all motions that are only granted on an interim basis, and to set the same deadline for the debtor to file any supplements or amendments to such motions, with deadlines of 3/6/18 for any opposition and 3/13/18 for any reply.

(l) Proposed Orders. This court intends to file these tentative rulings on the docket (with the caption, "Memorialization Of Tentative rulings" or the like). Thereafter, if appropriate, all orders can grant or deny relief "for the reasons stated in the Memorialization Of Tentative Rulings (dkt. __), as modified or supplemented on the record at the hearing" (or similar language). The debtor is directed to serve and lodge proposed orders via this court's "LOU" system within 7 days after the hearing date.

In view of the shortened time on the foregoing motions, parties in interest may appear and dispute the foregoing tentative rulings without prior notice to the debtor or the court (contrary to the usual requirements for "tentative rulings" under Judge Bason's Procedures, posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov).

fr. 12/5/17, 02/13/18, 03/06/18, 5/1/18, 5/22/18

Docket 1

Tentative Ruling:

Revised Tentative Ruling for 5/29/18:
Appearances required.

(1) Current issues.

(a) Debtor's Motion to Extend Time to Assume or Reject Lease (dkt. 139). Debtor seeks an extension of time to assume or reject its lease of commercial real property located at 2727 E. Del Amo Blvd., Rancho Dominguez, CA 90221 (the "Property") with Joe Murez Exempt Trust ("JMET" or "Landlord") through June 4, 2018. But in connection with Landlord's currently motion (dkt. 184, see discussion below), the debtor concedes that there are incurable defaults that prevent it from assuming the lease and states that it intends to vacate and surrender the Property by May 31, 2018 (dkt. 197, PDF p. 7, lines 17-19 & Wallace Declaration, paragraph 14). Additionally, on May 7, 2018, debtor served its subtenants with 30-day notices to terminate rental agreement with an expiration date of June 6, 2018 (id., Ex. A).

In Landlord's motion (dkt. 184, see discussion below), it seeks possession of the Property effective as of June 5, 2018 and appears to have consented to an extension through that time (see dkt. 184, PDF p. 4, lines 26-27).

The tentative ruling is to grant the debtor's motion and extend the deadline to assume or reject the lease to May 31, 2018. The effects of that date on the subtenants and the Landlord are addressed below.

(b) Landlord's Motion for Administrative Claim and Possession of Property (dkt. 184).

(i) Base rent, late fees, interest, CAM, taxes, attorneys' fees and costs. Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. 365(d)(3), Landlord is entitled to an allowed administrative expense for the full amount of rent accrued during the period following the order for relief through the lease rejection, regardless of the actual value conferred by the lease upon the estate. See Pacific-Atlantic Trading Company, 27 F.3d 401 (9th Cir. 1994); In re Cukierman, 265 F.3d 846 (9th Cir. 2001). Section 365(d)(3) requires immediate payment of lease obligations so that the landlord is not left providing uncompensated services. In re Cukierman, 265 F.3d at 851-52.

In this case, Paragraph 4.1 of the Lease provides: "All monetary obligations of Lessee to Lessor under the terms of this Lease (except for the Security Deposit) are deemed to be Rent." Pursuant to paragraphs 1.5, 4.3, 10.2, 13.4, 13.5, and 31, Landlord is entitled to an allowed administrative expense for payment of base rent, late fees, interest, CAM, taxes, and attorneys' fees and costs. On the record before this Court, Landlord holds an estimated administrative expense in the amount of $79,965.01 ($48,626 (May rent) + $4,862.20 (late fee) + $11,661.31 (real property taxes) + $14,815.5 (attorneys fees) = $79,965.01). Landlord may supplement the record to establish a valid basis for any additional amounts it may be entitled to under the Lease (e.g., prorated June rent if the debtor has not turned over the premises as of 5/31/18).

(ii) No superpriority. Section 365(d)(3) does not authorize a superpriority over other administrative expenses. In re LPM Corp., 300 F.3d 1134 (9th Cir. 2002). It is possible that the estate will be administratively insolvent (although the estate's assets and its administrative claims are largely moving targets until the conclusion of any bankruptcy case) so if Landlord had slept on its rights and were seeking prior months' rent it would not be entitled to payment at this time; but that is not the situation.

Landlords are entitled to current payments. Other administrative claimants are not. There is no evidence that this Landlord has slept on its rights.

Reconciling the lack of priority with the entitlement to current payments, the tentative ruling is that Landlord is entitled to immediate payment of a pro rata share of funds that are available to pay estimated accrued administrative expenses to date. This is essentially the alternative relief requested by Landlord (see dkt. 200, p.4:4-8).

Because the interim fee applications (discussed below) seek approximately $305,000 in fees and expenses, and because Landlord's claim is approximately $79,965.01, it appears that the rough total of accrued administrative expenses is approximately $385,000, of which Landlord holds roughly $80,000, or approximately 20% ( $$80,000/$385,000 = 20.8\%$ ). Therefore, the tentative ruling is that Landlord is entitled to immediate payment of approximately 20% of the $47,000 in unrestricted funds currently in debtor's possession (dkt. 197, PDF p. 13, paragraph 13), or approximately $9,400.

(iii) Landlord has not established that the funds are held in trust for it. This Court is not persuaded that the $47,000 in funds debtor has on hand is being held in trust for Landlord. Landlord has not carried its burden of establishing that, under California law, an express trust exists that excepts these funds from estate property. See Golden Mortg. Fund # 14 v. Kennedy, 171 B.R. 79, 84 (9th Cir. BAP 1994) ("A creditor has the burden to prove that the funds in the debtor's possession should be held in trust for that creditor's benefit").

(iv) Surrender and Writ of Possession. Landlord has discretion whether to extend the time for the debtor to assume or reject the Lease beyond the statutory maximum, or permit occupancy after rejection, absent nonbankruptcy law that would permit occupants to continue in possession. As set forth above, the tentative ruling is that the lease will be deemed rejected on 5/31/18.

Because neither the subtenants nor any other party in interest has articulated a sufficient basis for the subtenants to continue to occupy the Property following rejection of the Lease, the tentative ruling is to grant Landlord's request for a writ of possession directing any subtenants to surrender and vacate the property effective 6/6/18. Landlord is instructed to review LBR 7064-1 and include the necessary language set forth in 7064-1(e) into the proposed order.

(v) Relief from stay. The tentative ruling is to grant Landlord relief from the automatic stay under 362(d)(1).

(vi) Waiver of 14-day stay. The tentative ruling is to waive the 14-day stay.

(c) Interim Fee Apps of Levene Neale Bender Yoo & Brill (dkt. 177); CohenReznick LLP (dkt. 178); and Haberbush & Associates LLP (dkt. 179), and related documents (dkt. 200, 214). The tentative ruling is to approve the applications on an interim basis, subject to final review and approval at the conclusion of the case, but deny the requests for immediate payment of fees

(a) Bar date: 3/16/18 (order timely served, dkt. 43, 46).

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: TBD.

(c) Continued status conference: 8/7/18 at 2:00 p.m., to be heard concurrently with the other matters set for hearing in this case.

(1) Current issues.

(a) April MOR (dkt.192). On PDF p. 3, the debtor identifies a payment made to "Transport" on 4/26/18 in the amount of $55,515.00 for "dispatch and brokerage svc." What is this payment for? Is it an "ordinary course" transaction?

(b) Motion to Disqualify Truck Driver Counsel (dkt. 125). This Court issued an order (dkt. 169, amended dkt. 175) continuing this motion and set (i) a 5/15/18 deadline for the Slattery Law Firm and Hirsch Law Firm to file supplemental papers addressing who properly represents the Truck Drivers; and (ii) a 5/21/18 at noon deadline to file any responses.

This Court has reviewed the relevant papers. See dkt. 125, 126 & 127 (motion papers), dkt. 143 (Hirsch opposition), dkt. 145 (Slattery opposition), dkt. 156, 157 (debtor's reply), dkt. 161 (Slattery decl.), dkt. 167 (Slattery Rule 2019 statements), dkt. 189 (debtor's authorities re attorney-client privilege as applied to retainer agreements), dkt. 199 (Hirsch supp. opposition), dkt. 201 (Slattery decl.), dkt. 202 (Hirsch supp. reply), dkt. 203 (Hirsch evid. obj. to Slattery decl.), dkt. 204 (Rivera|Shakleford opp. re S.H. Chung, R.M. Rubio, H.D. Alvarez & G. Perez Silva).

There is no tentative ruling, but the parties should be prepared to address the arguments set forth in the filed papers.

(c) Objection to Claim Nos. 11, 37, 38, 40, 44, 45, 50 (dkt. 108, 109, 111, 113, 115, 117, 119). The proofs of claim were filed by the Hirsch Law Firm and the claim objections/notices were served on the Hirsch Law Firm and Slattery Law Firm. However, based on the debtor's pending motion to disqualify both firms, the tentative ruling is to continue the hearings on these claim objections to 6/19/18 at 2:00 p.m., pending resolution of the motion to disqualify. At the continued hearings, the parties should be prepared to address whether it would be appropriate for this court to set continued oppositions deadlines.

Note: Counsel did not comply with Judge Bason's posted procedures (at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) requiring a cost/benefit analysis for any claim objection (although this court's own cost/benefit analysis appears to favor seeking to reclassify these claim). In future, counsel should comply with those posted procedures.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 11/6/17.

(a) Bar date: 3/16/18 (order timely served, dkt. 43, 46).

Appearances required.

(1) Current issues.

(a) Motion to Approve Compromise (dkt. 36). The parties should be prepared to address the status of any settlement negotiations with respect to the pending motion to approve compromise.

(b) Status Report. At the last status conference on 2/13/18, this court directed the debtor to file a brief status report by 2/27/18. As of the preparation of this tentative ruling, the debtor has not complied. The debtor should be prepared to address why it failed to comply with this court's order.

(c) Employment application: Creditors' Committee Counsel (dkt. 47, 65). The objection by certain truck drivers (dkt. 63) has been withdrawn (dkt. 89). The debtor's limited objection (dkt. 55) and the reply papers (dkt. 85, 86) raise issues that are best addressed in connection with any application for compensation, at which time this Court can evaluate whether the hourly billing rates are commensurate with the nature of the work performed, the time spent on each task, and the other factors under 11 U.S.C. 330. Therefore the tentative ruling is to overrule the objection and authorize the employment.

#5.00 Hrg re: Motion for order determining value of collateral

Docket 24

Tentative Ruling:

Grant in part and continue in part to 6/28/18 as set forth below.
Appearances are not required.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

Key documents reviewed (in addition to motion papers): Santander Consumer USA Inc.'s ("Santander") Proof of Claim (Claim no. 2-1).

Reasons:

(1) The debtor has carried her burden of proof under 11 U.S.C. 506(a) and FRBP 3012. On 4/18/18 Santander filed a proof of claim asserting a total claim of $35,227.20, of which Santander contends $18,750 is secured by the debtor's 2015 Chevrolet Traverse (the "Vehicle"). The debtor seeks an order determining the value of the Vehicle pursuant to 11 U.S.C. 506(a) and FRBP 3012. In support of debtor's motion, debtor attached an email from edmunds.com dated 4/24/18 listing a "Dealer Retail" value for the Vehicle of $17,873. As of the preparation of this tentative ruling, Santander has not filed an opposition. Therefore, the tentative ruling is to grant the debtor's motion and value the Vehicle at $17,873.

(2) Cost-Benefit Analysis. The Bason posted Procedures (available at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) state:

When objecting to claims, be sure to include an analysis of whether the costs of preparing and litigating the claim objection (administrative expenses) do not exceed the anticipated benefits (reductions in claims). For example, if the anticipated dividend is small or 0% then the attorney fees incurred in prosecuting your claim objection to any general unsecured claim probably will exceed the benefit to the bankruptcy estate/debtor, so filing that objection would be a waste of the bankruptcy estate's (and everyone else's) resources (unless, for example, the claim is nondischargeable, in which event the attorney fees might well be justified).

Based on this Court's review of Santander's proof of claim, it appears the benefit to the debtor in bringing this motion is $877 ($18,750 - $17,873). Accordingly, it appears the costs of preparing and litigating the motion (administrative expenses) may exceed the anticipated benefit (reduction in secured claim).

No later than 6/14/18 debtor's counsel must file a supplemental declaration explaining why the attorneys fees for this motion are justified.

(3) No fees absent specific order. Counsel is prohibited from charging any fees in connection with the declaration described in the preceding paragraph.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." #8.00 Hrg re: Motion under Local Bankruptcy Rule 3015-1 (n)
and (w) to modify plan or suspend plan payments

Docket 90

Tentative Ruling:

Appearances required absent either (1) an agreement with the Chapter 13 Trustee's office to further continue this matter or (2) withdrawal of the motion by the debtor. There is no tentative ruling, but the parties should be prepared to address the issues raised by the Chapter 13 Trustee (dkt. 92) and the debtor's response (dkt. 103).

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." #14.00 Hrg re: Motion for fine and/or disgorgement of fees against bankruptcy petition preparer William G. Hill as Respondent (and Leslie Richards as Responsible Professional)

Docket 41

Tentative Ruling:

Appearances required. The parties have raised a number of disputed issues, including issues of credibility (attorney Leslie Richards, Esq. blaming former attorney William G. Hill and vice versa), that appear to require an evidentiary hearing. The parties are directed to address when this Court should schedule such a hearing.

In addition, the parties should be prepared to address whether 11 U.S.C. 110 can encompass liability against an attorney, as argued by the United States Trustee ("UST"). See dkt. 41, pp.2, 7-9, & nn.2 & 8). The parties should also be prepared to address whether this Court should grant any additional time for the UST to file additional or amended papers with respect to Ms. Richards.

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for 6/7/18:

Deny the motion for the reasons stated below. Appearances are not required.

Proposed order: Debtor is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this court's final ruling. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

Key documents reviewed (in addition to motion papers): Wells Fargo Bank, N.A.'s Opposition (dkt. 29), Debtor's Reply (dkt. 31), Appraisal (dkt. 44).

Reason: At the hearing on 4/5/18 this court continued the hearing at the parties' request to allow time for them to obtain a binding third party appraisal and, based on that appraisal, for the debtor to lodge a proposed order either granting or denying the motion. On 5/24/18, Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. ("WF") filed the binding appraisal (dkt. 44), which lists a fair market value of $295,000. Based on this value, the debtor cannot avoid WF's junior lien because it is not entirely underwater ($295,000 - $259,822.71 (senior lien) = $35,177.29 equity securing WF's junior lien). See In re Zimmer, 313 F.3d 1220, 1227 (9th Cir. BAP 2002) (Only the rights of a creditor holding an unsecured claim may be modified under 11 U.S.C. 1322(b)(2)); In re Lam, 211 B.R. 36 (9th Cir. BAP 1997) (same). Therefore, the tentative ruling is to deny the motion.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." are required, and you fail to appear without adequately resolving this matter by consent, then you may waive your right to be heard on matters that are appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

Tentative Ruling for 4/5/18:

Appearances required. At the hearing on 2/8/18 this court continued the hearing at the parties' request to allow time for them to obtain a binding third party appraisal. There is no tentative ruling, but the parties should be prepared to update this court on the status of their negotiations and when they expect this matter to be resolved.

Tentative Ruling for 2/8/18 (same as for 12/7/17, 10/5/17 and 7/20/17):

Appearances required. There is no tentative ruling, but the parties should be prepared to address how they propose to resolve their disputes re: valuation of the subject property - e.g., (i) with an evidentiary hearing; (ii) with a court ruling based solely on the written record (to save costs, if all parties consent), (iii) through mediation, or (iv) through appointment of an appraiser (jointly selected by the parties/their appraisers) as the court's own expert under FRE 706. Note: Judge Bason requires valuations at or near the petition date. See In re Gutierrez, 503 B.R. 458 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2013).

This matter has been repeatedly continued from 12/7/17 to the present. See, e.g., dkt. 54, 62. Now the debtor has once again extended negotiations on the attempted loan modification (see dkt. 64) and is seeking yet another continuance of the hearings on this claim objection and confirmation (dkt. 70, 71). Why has this matter not been resolved? Is the debtor failing to appear in proper prosecution of this matter (see Order, dkt. 72, denying further continuance)?

Tentative Ruling for 12/7/17:

Deny for the reasons stated in the Opposition (dkt. 46). If the debtor wishes to obtain more discovery regarding older records, she can seek such discovery using the normal procedures for doing so (subject to the normal limitations on any discovery). Appearances are not required.

Note: Counsel did not comply with the Local Bankruptcy Rules' requirement to attach a copy of the proof of claim to the objection. Nor did counsel comply with Judge Bason's posted procedures (at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) requiring a cost/benefit analysis for any claim objection (although the nature of the claim, and the provisions of the debtor's latest amended plan, dkt. 37, suggest that the cost/benefit analysis is favorable to bringing any meritorious objection). In future, counsel should comply with those requirements.

Proposed order: Creditor National Funding, Inc. is directed to serve and lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this court's final ruling.

fr. 03/08/18, 4/5/18, 5/3/18

Docket 8

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for 6/7/18:

Appearances are not required.

(1) Current Issues.

(a) Background. This case was commenced on 11/22/17. It has not been well prosecuted (see dkt. 37 (the "OSC") and this Court's previous tentative rulings, reproduced below). Now, however, it appears that the debtor's amended chapter 13 plan (dkt.69) might be capable of being confirmed. See also Amended Schedules I & J (dkt. 74), Debtor's Supp. Decl. (dkt. 71), Robert Martinez Decl. (dkt. 72), Proofs of Claim of Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. (Claim Nos. 1-1, 1-2, and 2-1).

(b) Declaration of Robert Martinez (dkt. 72). The debtor's brother declares that he contributes $250 a month for the debtor's living expenses. He does not attach any evidence or proof of his income, but that can be addressed as follows. If this Court is persuaded to confirm the debtor's proposed plan (at the 9:30 a.m. hearing or any other time) then one condition of such confirmation could be to set a deadline of 6/28/18 for the debtor to file a contribution declaration from Ronald Martinez on the court's form F 3015-1.09.DEC.CONTRIBUTION with appropriate proof of financial income and any other supporting documents. If the debtor fails to timely comply with the foregoing deadline, the Chapter 13 Trustee has the discretion to bring a motion to dismiss. That solution, or any other appropriate disposition, can be addressed at the 9:30 a.m. hearing.

(c) No need for further status conferences. The tentative ruling is not to continue this status conference.

(d) Discharge OSC. The tentative ruling is to discharge the OSC (dkt. 37). This Court will prepare an order doing so after this hearing.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." Tentative Ruling for 5/3/18:

Appearances required by the debtor and debtor's counsel. The tentative ruling is to dismiss this case, with a 180 day bar against being a debtor in bankruptcy, for the debtor's willful failure to appear in proper prosecution of this case. See 11 U.S.C. 109(g)(1).

(1) Current Issues.

(a) Background. This case was commenced on 11/22/17. The debtor's bankruptcy schedules assert that he has no debts other than a first and second deed of trust of his residence, both of which are oversecured. The debtor apparently fell behind on one of his deeds of trust (see Claim No. 2-1, item 9, listing $8,307.90 needed to cure defaults as of petition date, and Notice of Default at dkt. 59, PDF p.8).

The debtor filed a motion to avoid the second deed of trust lien that was defective in numerous respects, as set forth in the Tentative Ruling for 2/8/18 (reproduced below). That motion was denied.

This Court has warned the debtor and his attorney at prior hearings that if they continued to file improper papers, or to move this case forward, then this Court might have to find that they are willfully failing to appear in proper prosecution of this case. At the hearing on 4/5/18 this Court set a deadline of 4/19/18 for the debtor to file an amended plan and all other documents appropriate to move this case forward.

This Court has reviewed debtor's Amended Plan (dkt. 56), Amended Schedules I & J (dkt. 58), the Supplemental Aviles Declaration (dkt. 59), the proofs of claim filed by Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. as both senior and junior lienholder (Claim Nos. 1-1, 1-2, and 2-1), and the Debtor's Supplemental Declaration (dkt. 60).

(b) Supplemental Aviles Declaration. The declaration makes no sense. For example, Mr. Aviles declares (dkt. 59, p.2:17-19): "If Wells Fargo Bank

N.A. believed that the [debtor's prior bankruptcy case under] Chapter 7 had discharged the debt owed as to the arrearages [then] Wells Fargo Bank N.A. would not have proceeded with foreclosure proceedings due to the arrearages owed by debtor ...." That is ridiculous.

A discharge in bankruptcy applies to in personam liability, and has nothing to do with in rem liability. For example, if a debtor borrows $100 secured by collateral, that debtor may be able to discharge the $100 (plus interest and other charges) as in personam liability, but if the debtor wants to retain the collateral then the debtor has to pay the full $100 (plus interest and other charges) or alternatively file a proper motion to reduce the lien (which the debtor has not done and apparently cannot do under the facts of this case). In other words, a debtor cannot have it both ways: keep valuable collateral but not pay for it.

(c) Amended Bankruptcy Schedules I & J (dkt. 58). First, the debtor's scheduled expenses appear to be far too low to be realistic. For example, the debtor only lists $65/mo for food. This is not a basis for any feasible chapter 13 plan. If the debtor is receiving a contribution from a third party then that should have been disclosed in the bankruptcy schedules and/or a supporting declaration.

Second, if the debtor's amended bankruptcy schedules I & J are to be believed, he has monthly net income of $606.42, after $757/mo. of mortgage expenses. But the debtor appears to ignore one of his two mortgages: one monthly payment is $767.53 (Claim No. 2-1, at PDF p.4, last column) and another is $470.08 (Claim No. 2-1, at PDF p.6, last column). That would leave monthly net income of only $125.81 ($606.42 - shortfall of $10.53 on one mortgage - $470.08 on the other mortgage = $125.81).

(d) Amended Plan (dkt. 56). The debtor apparently contemplates plan payments of $256.17 per month for 36 months, although what his plan actually states is that the "base amount" (the total of all monthly payments) is only $256.17.

In any event, the $256.17/mo. would go to only two things: (i) paying the Chapter 13 Trustee's fee (11% of all distributions) and (ii) paying Class 2 (the $8,307.90 arrears) at $230.78/mo over 36 months with 0% interest. But the debtor cannot afford that because, as set forth above, he only has net income of $125.81/mo. (and even that assumes expenses that appear to be unrealistically low).

True, if the plan were extended to 60 months then the payments in Class 2 could be reduced to $138.65/mo. ( $$8,307.90 / 60 = $138.65$ ), but that is still above $125.81, and it assumes 0% interest and living expenses that appear to be unrealistic.

(This Court notes that the plan is defective in another respect. The plan's liquidation analysis is internally inconsistent. It states that in a chapter 7 case there would be $0 available but that this would result in an estimated 11% dividend.)

The bottom line is that the debtor's proposed chapter 13 plan appears to be totally unrealistic. If there is any way for the debtor to make proper use of chapter 13 (e.g., if he could propose a sale of his property or a refinance), he has not pursued it. This case is over five months old and so far the debtor has made no progress at all.

(d) Dismissal With a Bar. At the hearing on 4/5/18, this Court cautioned the debtor and debtor's counsel that if they continued to file inadequate information, did not seek assistance from an experienced bankruptcy attorney, and otherwise failed to appear in proper prosecution of this case, then this Court might have to dismiss this case with a bar against being a debtor in a future bankruptcy case for some period of time. At the hearing they should address how the record in this case is consistent with anything other than a willful failure to appear in proper prosecution.

On 3/5/18, debtor's counsel requested a continuance of this hearing due to a death in the family. On 3/6/18, this court granted the request to continue the hearing and directed debtor and debtor's counsel, Mr. Aviles, to appear and show cause why sanctions, dismissal with a bar, or other relief should not be imposed (dkt. 37) (the "OSC").

There is no tentative ruling, but the debtor and debtor's counsel should be prepared to address the issues identified in the OSC.

Tentative Ruling for 2/8/18 on motion to avoid lien:

(1) Deny for the reasons set forth in the opposition (dkt. 22) filed by Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. ("Wells Fargo") and the additional reasons set forth below, and (2) direct counsel to address at the hearing (a) why he should be allowed any fees for this motion, (b) whether he is competent to represent the debtor at all, and (c) whether he should be associating experienced bankruptcy counsel or arranging for a substitution of counsel and transfer of any fees received from the debtor. Appearances required by counsel for the debtor and by the debtor himself (counsel for the debtor must appear in person, but the debtor and any other parties in interest may appear by telephone if they follow Judge Bason's posted procedures for telephonic appearances, available at www.cacb.uscourts.gov).

within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this court's final ruling. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

Reasons for denial: The debtor seeks to avoid the junior liens of Wells Fargo and the City of Pomona, Housing Division's ("Pomona") on his principal residence pursuant to section 506(d). But on the record before this court (1) service is inadequate, (2) the evidence is inadequate, and (3) there is no basis to avoid either lien (in whole or in part) under section 506(d).

(1) Service is inadequate

The proof of service (dkt. 8, last 2 pages) fails to comply with the rules for service. Service on Pomona does not comply with Rule 7004(b)(6).

This court also notes that service on Wells Fargo was defective, although Wells Fargo has waived any such defects by filing an opposition (in which it did not raise any deficiency in service). Among other things, Wells Fargo was not served to the attention of an officer as required by Rule 7004 (b)(3) & (h) (Fed. R. Bankr. P.) (incorporated by Rule 9014(b), Fed. R. Bankr. P.).

(2) Evidence is inadequate

The form motion includes a section for describing the supporting evidence by exhibit numbers. See dkt. 8, p.4, section 3.c. That section is mostly blank.

(3) Section 506(d) does not support avoidance of either lien

The motion papers include an appraisal valuing the property at $265,000. The debtor states that the total value of all liens against the property is $207,417.65. Motion, p.3, lines 3-7 (1st DOT $89,545.97 + Wells Fargo's 2nd DOT $65,157.55 + Pomona's 3rd DOT $48,714.13 = $207,417.65). Therefore, according to the debtor's own evidence both liens are fully secured and cannot be avoided under section 506(d).

It appears that counsel for the debtor has mistakenly conflated two sections of the Bankruptcy Code:

(a) section 506(d) (which only permits avoidance of liens to the extent they are "under water" (and sometimes not even then - see 11 U.S.C. 1322(b) (2)), and

(b) 11 U.S.C. 522(f), which permits avoidance of judicial liens to the extent that they impair a valid homestead exemption: there is no showing that the liens of Wells Fargo or Pomona are "judicial" liens, and in any event the motion neither seeks nor establishes a sufficient basis for avoidance under section 522(f).

The debtor's reply (dkt. 24) cites irrelevant cases. One case was decided under section 522(f) (and much of its discussion involves matters that have since been mooted by the 2005 revisions to the Bankruptcy Code). See In re Smith, 92 B.R. 287 (Bankr. S.D. Ohio 1988). The debtor cites one other case, for the proposition that "a Motion to Strip [a junior] mortgage may be filed, despite [the fact] that Debtor already obtained a Chapter 7 Discharge." Dkt. 24, p.1:24-25 (citing In re Blendheim, 803 F.3d 477 (9th Cir. 2015)). That issue is irrelevant to whether the lien is partially or wholly unsecured; and on the debtor's own facts the subject liens are wholly secured.

(4) Counsel's fees and competence

Bankruptcy is a complex specialty. It appears that the debtor's counsel is not sufficiently familiar with the Bankruptcy Code and Rules to represent the debtor, either in this specific matter or more generally in this bankruptcy case. Awarding fees for the counterproductive work on this matter would only harm the debtor and creditors, and going forward this Bankruptcy Court is concerned about the potential for irreparable harm to the debtor and creditors. Counsel should be prepared to address (a) whether new counsel should be substituted in and (b) whether any fees that the debtor or the Chapter 13 Trustee may have paid to such counsel should be transferred to new counsel.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." Docket 26

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for 6/7/18:

Deny without prejudice, for the reasons stated below. Appearances are not required.

Reasons.

(1) Background. This Court's 5/3/18 tentative ruling (see below) continued the matter to this date and set a deadline of 5/24/18 for the debtors to (a) file a supplemental declaration from an appraiser with a fair market value for the subject property or (b) withdraw the motion. As of the preparation of this tentative ruling, the debtors have not filed any new evidence to support the valuation asserted in the motion, so the tentative ruling is to deny the motion because the debtors have failed to carry their burden of proof.

(2) No prejudice. This Court is aware that there may be ongoing settlement negotiations between the parties (dkt. 29). Nothing in the foregoing ruling prevents the parties from continuing to negotiate a resolution of their disputes. If they are unable to reach a consensual resolution then the debtor may file an amended motion (if the evidence supports such a motion).

Tentative Ruling for 5/3/18:
Appearances required.

This is the second time known to this Court that counsel for the debtor has submitted papers with the same obvious defect (using liquidation value when the statute requires fair market value). See 11 U.S.C. 506(a) (further explained below). In the prior case with the same issue, counsel withdrew the motion after this Court pointed out the defect. See In re Graciela Redden (Case No. 2:17-bk-17-25324, dkt. 21 & 27), and see tentative ruling for 4/5/18, 8:30 a.m., calendar no. 5.

Counsel must appear and explain why she continues to file papers that appear plainly to violate 11 U.S.C. 506. This Court presumes that counsel will not charge the debtors or the estate for this appearance. If counsel believes that charges are appropriate, she must argue for such charges at this hearing.

The tentative ruling is to continue this motion to 6/7/18 at 8:30 a.m., with deadline of 5/24/18 for the debtors to file and serve supplemental papers addressing the valuation issue. Alternatively, if the debtors prefer, they may file and serve a withdrawal of the motion.

Explanation: The evidence in support of the motion (dkt. 26, Ex.4) states that the appraised value is based on a "liquidation" value which is defined as, among other things: "[t]he most probable price ... under the following conditions: (1) consummation of a sale within a short period of time ... (4) the seller is under extreme compulsion to sell ... (7) a normal marketing effort is not possible due to the brief exposure of time." These assumptions are inconsistent with 11 U.S.C. 506(a)(1), which requires that the value be determined "in light of the purpose of the valuation and of the proposed disposition or use of such property ...." There is no evidence that the debtors are contemplating a sale of the subject property, let alone a forced liquidation sale. To the contrary, if any sale were necessary there are provisions in the Bankruptcy Code that permit an orderly, well-marketed sale for the maximum market value.

This Court presumes that the debtors' appraiser can use the prior investigation of the subject property to arrive at an alleged fair market valuation by the deadline stated at the start of this tentative ruling. If that valuation is sufficient to support the motion then this matter will go forward; and otherwise the debtors should file a withdrawal of the motion.

(1) Current issues

The tentative ruling, subject to any objections at the hearing and further subject to consideration of whether re-balloting is required, is to provide the debtors with one final opportunity to correct the issues set forth below with the disclosure statement (dkt. 250) and the debtors' proposed plan (dkt. 249). The principal documents reviewed by this Court are the plan, disclosure statement, and supporting documents (dkt. 249-254), Butler Capital's objection (dkt. 256), and the debtors' reply (dkt. 257).

(a) Sequence of property sales.

The sequence of property sales in Exhibit H of the Disclosure Statement is not clear. Do the properties have to sell in a particular order?

Chapter 11

Are the debtors obligated to sell whatever they can as soon as they can and/or in whatever sequence and combinations will maximize value and/or speed? The tentative ruling is that the debtors must clarify Exhibit H either to demonstrate the correct order of sale or that the plan does not require sale in a particular order.

(b) Escrow Deadlines.

From this Court's review of the amended Exhibit H, it appears that the debtors intend to have one year from the projected effective date of December 1, 2016 in which to open escrow, and if any properties that meet that condition later fall out of escrow, the debtors have sixty days to open a new escrow, with an outside period of 18 months from December 1, 2016 (or earlier, if an escrow is opened earlier) in which all escrows must close. However, the way that this is written in the plan is difficult to understand. Particularly, Exhibit H, pp. 4:25-5:1, is unclear, especially because the projected effective date of the plan is not listed until Exhibit H, Page 10. The tentative ruling is that the debtors must revise the language in the plan to clarify these provisions.

(c) Provisions for relief from default.

The sentence on p.5:14-19 regarding relief from default remains confusing. Is default exclusively tied to proceeds given to Bayview? Can other parties declare default? The tentative ruling is that these provisions must be revised to be written in "plain" english to better reflect the debtors' intention.

(d) "Good cause" for relief from default.

The sentences on p.6:10-14 regarding the standard for cause for relief from default are confusing. The debtors list as a possible standard the same standard that would apply to a debtor showing adequate protection in defending against a motion for relief from the automatic stay, but then they state that alternative standards may be proposed by the parties or the Court, if the Court deems some other standard more reasonable under the circumstances. How would this court make that determination? The tentative ruling is that the debtors must clarify these provisions so they may be more equitable to creditors.

(e) Feasibility of interest payments.

In its Tentative Ruling for 9/27/16, this Court addressed the issue of the feasibility of the debtors' proposed interest payments to Bayview (Exhibit H, p.7:14-16) without some sort of cash infusion at the beginning of the plan.

Chapter 11

Exhibit H does not appear to have been explicitly amended to address the Court's concerns. The tentative ruling is that the plan must be amended to provide for a cash infusion, and to make the failure to provide such infusion, or failure of the debtors immediately to provide evidence of that infusion, an event of default. In addition, the parties should be prepared to address whether Exhibit H should include an explanation of Butler Capital's treatment under the plan, in light of Butler Capital's objection to confirmation (dkt. 256), and the debtors' reply (dkt. 257).

In addition, the debtors should be prepared to address the status of the proposed sale of the Foasberg Dry Cleaning business and whether, after payment of creditors to that business have been paid, the proceeds will constitute an adequate cash infusion to support the proposed interest payments.

(2) Deadlines/dates. These jointly administered cases were filed on 1/23/15.

(a) Bar date: 4/20/15 (timely served per dkt. 40)

(b) Plan: The tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 12/13/16 for the debtor to lodge proposed orders approving the disclosure statement and confirming the plan and to file and serve on Bayview, the Receiver (for Hilma Foasberg), and the debtors' equity holders (i) notices of lodgment, (ii) an amended plan as set forth above (with any additional changes ordered at the hearing) and (iii) a redline showing the changes. If those documents appear accurately to reflect this court's rulings and otherwise to be acceptable, and if there are no objections to those changes by 12/20/16, then this court intends to issue orders approving the disclosure statement and confirming the plan. Otherwise, this court intends to hold a telephonic hearing.

(c) Continued status conference: 1/10/16 at 2:00 p.m. No written status report is required. (This likely will be continued for 60 days or so if the plan is confirmed.)

Chapter 11

Revised Tentative Ruling for 9/27/16

Appearances required by counsel for the debtor but telephonic appearances are encouraged if advance arrangements are made (see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.", "Instructions/Procedures").

(1) Current issues

The tentative ruling is to approve the disclosure statement (dkt. 228) and confirm the debtors' proposed plan (dkt. 227) if and only if the debtors make the following modifications/interlineations and can provide a cash infusion or other sufficient evidence of feasibility as set forth below. The principal documents reviewed by this court are the plan, disclosure statement, supporting documents (dkt. 229-231), Bayview's objections (dkt. 240), the ballot summary (dkt. 242), the debtors' reply (dkt. 243), and Mr. Foasberg's supplemental declaration (dkt. 244).

(a) Explicit incorporation of Exhibit H into the plan

The tentative ruling is that either Exhibit H itself, or the plan, or the order confirming the plan, or all three, must make it explicit that Exhibit H is incorporated into the plan (although it is only attached to the disclosure statement). That appears to be the intent of the plan, if not its actual terms, because it references Ex.H and vice versa, but this should be more explicit.

(b) "Hard" dates for the close of escrow

The debtors' current proposed plan adopts the previously ordered deadlines that for each property the debtors must be in escrow one year after confirmation (dkt. 228, Ex.H, p.4:24-25), and close escrow 18 months after escrow is entered (id., p.5:26-28), and also proposes (i) that they have 60 days from the failure of any escrow to re-open an escrow if they find a new buyer (id., p.5:2-4) and, apparently, (ii) that each new escrow opens a new 18 month period (id., p. 5:26-28). The tentative ruling is that the former condition meets the standards for cramdown (fair and equitable etc.) but the latter does not.

The tentative ruling is further that the debtors could cure this problem by expressly providing two things. First, the 18 month period would run from the first date when any escrow is opened as to a given property (or, for any escrow that is pending on the Effective Date, 18 months from the Effective Date). Second, to prevent possible evasion of the deadlines, sales would need to be all cash at closing (no deferred payments; no transfers of equity in lieu of cash; etc.).

(c) Confusing additional preconditions to any default

The debtor apparently seeks to impose an additional precondition (dkt. 228, Ex.H, p.5:12-25, the "Additional Precondition") that before a party in interest may send a notice of default it must show that the payment of its claim is actually threatened after taking into account the likely proceeds from whatever properties actually are in escrow. First, as Bayview points out, this appears to place an undue burden on creditors.

Second, the Additional Precondition appears to be unnecessary because the debtors have an alternate remedy. If the debtor is actually able to pay creditors from the pending sales of other properties, and those sales are sufficiently likely to occur quickly, then the debtor can argue as much in its motion for relief from default (dkt. 228, Ex.H, pp. 5:28-6:6, the "Relief From Default Provisions").

Accordingly the tentative ruling is that the Additional Preconditions are not fair and equitable and must be struck from the plan.

(d) Relief from default

The debtor has presented evidence regarding the difficulty of selling the properties, due in large part to environmental issues. Based on that evidence, it is difficult to tell in advance, for example, (i) what defaults could reflect a lack of diligence by the debtor, as opposed to genuine obstacles to closing due to environmental issues, or (ii) whether the debtor is unreasonably seeking to eliminate all possible environmental issues instead of selling at a moderate discount to a buyer who is willing to address some such issues. In other words, there may be good reasons for the debtor to be able to seek relief from default, but it is difficult if not impossible to know in advance, so the debtor appears to have proposed a reasonable mechanism to place this issue before this court, subject to the familiar standards for relief from the automatic stay.

Bayview has not presented contrary evidence or a suitable alternative mechanism for dealing with these issues. Accordingly, the tentative ruling is that the Relief From Default Provisions are fair and equitable and otherwise satisfy the requirements for confirmation under the circumstances.

(e) Reinstatement

The debtors do not disagree with Bayview's proposed language: that "any [currently pending] foreclosure [proceedings with respect to] the subject properties will be rescinded" as opposed to stating that the loans will no longer be in default. The tentative ruling is that the plan must be amended to make this change (see dkt. 228, Exhibit H, p. 6, dkt. 240, p.12:5-8, dkt. 243, p. 8:10-12).

(f) Interest payments

The debtors' plan proposes to make monthly interest-only payments of $5,963.41 and $3,794.45 to Bayview until it is paid in full from the sale of the real properties (dkt. 228, Ex. H, p.7:2-4). This raises two issues: (i) whether the proposed rate of interest is appropriate and (ii) whether the proposed payments are feasible (11 U.S.C. 1129(a)(11)).

(i) Appropriate interest rate

The debtors have proposed interest rates of 7.5% (dkt. 228, Ex.H, p.7:2-4). This is somewhat higher than the rates in the existing promissory notes (dkt. 243, pp.8:28-9:4).

As stated in Judge Bason's posted procedures,

Judge Bason has expressed the view in various cases that when dealing with relatively small dollar amounts (for which the cost of presenting expert testimony as to interest rates would be prohibitive) the analysis in Till v. SCS Credit Corp., 541 U.S. 465 (2004), is appropriate, and conversely when dealing with larger dollar amounts the Till analysis probably is not appropriate, and one acceptable method for experts to opine as to the appropriate interest rate is the method described in In re Boulders on the River, Inc., 164 B.R. 99 (9th Cir. BAP 1994); see In re N. Valley Mall, LLC, 432 B.R. 825 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2010) (discussing continued viability of Boulders on the River).

In this case it does not appear to be cost-effective for either party to incur the expense of expert testimony as to interest rates (i.e., the type of expert testimony addressed in Boulders on the River and N. Valley Mall). In any event neither party has chosen to do so. So the tentative ruling is to apply the Till analysis or something comparable.

Under that analysis, courts typically apply an interest rate of 1% to 3% over prime, although the starting point might be different (higher) in situations such as this when the properties have environmental issues, so this court also looks to the contract rate used by the parties. This court also takes into consideration that payment to Bayview has been much delayed, and the debtors are proposing interest-only payments (as opposed to amortizing payments), but on the other hand Bayview's claims are protected by a large equity cushion, and national interest rates are near historic lows.

Under the foregoing analysis the debtors have made a sufficient prima facie showing that their proposed interest rates are within the range of what is permissible. Bayview has not rebutted that showing. Therefore the tentative ruling is to approve the proposed interest rates.

(ii) Feasibility

The supplemental declaration of Mr. Foasberg indicates that he intends to sell the dry cleaning businesses that have been failing to pay rent to the debtors for several months (dkt. 244, p. 2). The problem is that it is not at all clear how the debtors intend to make plan payments prior to the sale of the business given their recent performance, i.e., lack of feasibility (11 U.S.C. 1129(a)(11)). Their MOR for August (dkt. 241, p. 21), states that they only hold unrestricted cash of $2,044.28.

It appears that the debtors will need a cash infusion if this court is to make a finding of feasibility. In addition, testimony will be needed (or at least an offer of proof subject to cross-examination) to support the debtors' assertion that any given dollar amount is adequate to show feasibility.

To the extent that this or any other issue requires testimony, this court may accept an offer of proof or brief testimony at today's hearing, or may set a continued hearing for the presentation of evidence and cross-examination. The parties should be prepared to address timing and procedures.

The tentative ruling is that the plan must be amended to provide for such a cash infusion, and to make the failure to provide such infusion, or failure of the debtors immediately to provide evidence of that infusion, an event of default.

(g) Preservation of net revenues/"set aside" for possible environmental remediation

The plan apparently contemplates that if the debtors have their projected cash flow then most net revenues would be used to fund a "set aside" each month for possible environmental remediation of their properties estimated at $5,000 per month per debtor. The tentative ruling is that for the plan to be fair and equitable (and otherwise meet the standards for confirmation) any such funds must be subject to the following conditions.

First, they must be actually paid: if the debtors make any expenditures out of the ordinary course of business, except to fund such a set aside or pay for environmental remediation, then it seems that must be a default under the plan for the plan to be fair and equitable. Second, if the debtors fail to provide monthly accounting of such funds, including a bank account statement, then that would have to be a default under the plan for it to be fair and equitable.

(h) Form of confirmation order

The tentative ruling is that, pursuant to LBR 3020-1(b) the confirmation order shall include the following:

Within 120 days of the entry of this order, the debtors shall file a status report explaining what progress has been made toward consummation of the confirmed plan of reorganization. The initial report shall be served on the United States trustee, the 20 largest unsecured creditors, and those parties who have requested special notice. Further reports shall be filed every 120 days thereafter and served on the same entities, unless otherwise ordered by the court. A postconfirmation status conference will be held on January 17, 2017 at 2:00 p.m.

If this case is converted to one under chapter 7, the property of the reorganized debtor shall be revested in the chapter 7 estate.

(2) Deadlines/dates. These jointly administered cases were filed on 1/23/15.

(a) Bar date: 4/20/15 (timely served per dkt. 40)

(b) Plan: The tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 10/4/16 for the debtor to lodge proposed orders approving the disclosure statement and confirming the plan and to file and serve on Bayview, the Receiver (for Hilma Foasberg), and the debtors' equity holders (i) notices of lodgment, (ii) an amended plan as set forth above (with any additional changes ordered at the hearing) and (iii) a redline showing the changes. If those documents appear accurately to reflect this court's rulings and otherwise to be acceptable, and if there are no objections to those changes by 10/11/16, then this court intends to issue orders approving the disclosure statement and confirming the plan. Otherwise, this court intends to hold a telephonic hearing.

(c) Continued status conference: 10/18/16 at 2:00 p.m. No written status report is required. (This likely will be continued for 60 days or so if the plan is confirmed.)

(1) Current issues

(a) Background

These cases were filed in January of 2015. The debtors have filed several proposed plans and disclosure statements, the latest of which are dated 6/21/16 (dkt. 217, 218).

They blame the lack of a confirmed plan of reorganization on the fact that they own several parcels of real estate that may require extensive environmental remediation, and therefore are difficult to sell. The primary outstanding issue in this case is whether their proposed joint plan must provide for a more expedited sales process than the one they have proposed.

That is primarily a confirmation issue (under, e.g., 11 U.S.C. 1129(a)(3) (good faith), (a)(11) (feasibility), and, to the extent "cramdown" is required, (b) (1) (no unfair discrimination, and being fair and equitable, with respect to each impaired, non-consenting class)). Typically, however, the bankruptcy courts consider prior to any confirmation hearing whether a plan is so deficient on its face that sending it out for voting is not worth the resulting expense, delay, and potential confusion.

In addition, the disclosure statement must contain "adequate information" under 11 U.S.C. 1125(a). Again, that is generally an issue for a later stage - the disclosure statement hearing - but bankruptcy courts often address as a preliminary matter whether the disclosure statement is so deficient that no such hearing should be set. That is particularly important given Judge Bason's practice of setting combined hearings on the disclosure statement and plan confirmation. Therefore it is appropriate to address at this stage, initially, whether the debtor has adequately disclosed the potential environmental issues and analyzed the nature of possible remediation, possible approaches that could maximize the sale proceeds balanced against expediting the time for sale, etc.

At the status conference on 5/31/16 this Bankruptcy Court established procedures for the parties to address these issues on a preliminary basis - to determine whether to authorize the debtor to mail a voting package to creditors. The debtors have filed the declaration of their real estate broker Mr. O'Healy (dkt. 220). No other parties in interest have filed any contrary evidence, although creditor Bayview Loan Servicing, LLC ("Bayview") has filed an "opposition" to the proposed joint plan (dkt. 222), which includes an objection to Mr. O'Healy's declaration. The debtors have filed a reply (dkt. 223).

(b) Tentative Rulings

The tentative rulings are as follows, taking into account the amendments that the debtors propose in their reply (dkt. 223) (and solely for the limited purpose described above - i.e., for authorizing the debtor to mail its voting package - and without prejudice to objections at the combined hearing on adequacy of the disclosure statement and whether to confirm the proposed joint plan):

(i) Evidence: Overrule the objections to Mr. O'Healy's declaration.

(ii) Timing: Overrule Bayview's objection as to the timing of the sales, except that the timing must be clarified regarding how long escrow can be open before it can be said to have "fail[ed] to close" (dkt. 218-7, Disclosure Statement p.39:3, which is Ex.H at 5:3); and how long the debtors would after any new escrow were to open before it too would have failed to close. On the present record, this Bankruptcy Court is not persuaded that the "drop dead" dates proposed by Bayview are essential, and that the voting package should not be sent. The debtors argue, with supporting evidence, that "[i]f Bayview were to foreclose, it would face the same problems facing Debtors because the hurdles to selling these properties would not be eliminated if someone else were to sell them." (Dkt. 223, p.6:10-12.)

The foregoing should not be interpreted as a ruling for confirmation purposes. It may be necessary or appropriate, in order to confirm any plan, to establish either "drop dead" dates or some mechanism to assess whether the debtors have been dragging their feet and whether it is fair and equitable to grant additional time to engage in the sale process.

(iii) Default terms: Sustain Bayview's objections regarding the proposed default terms, because of the difficulty (if not impossibility) that Bayview would have in filing a declaration under penalty of perjury as to the debtors' funds and the status of the debtors' sales. The parties should be prepared to address alternative default terms.

(iv) Reinstatement of loans: Overrule Bayview's objections regarding the reinstatement of its loans.

(v) Other issues: The debtors' Exhibit H is needlessly repetitive (this Court will review the details orally at the hearing). In addition, the parties appear to assume that the automatic stay will continue to apply (see, e.g., dkt. 218-7, Disclosure Statement p.89:9, which is Ex.H at 5:9) but the "boilerplate" language in the plan provides for property to revert in the reorganized debtors on the Effective Date (dkt. 217, p.5, part IV.B.) which generally terminates the automatic stay (11 U.S.C. 362(c)(1)). If the debtors intend to provide for the automatic stay to continue (either by eliminating reversion, or by some other means) then they must disclose that clearly, and establish that they legally can do so.

(2) Deadlines/dates. These jointly administered cases were filed on 1/23/15.

(a) Bar date: 4/20/15 (timely served per dkt. 40)

(b) Plan (dkt.217)/Disclosure Statement (dkt. 218): This court anticipates setting the following deadlines: 7/26/16 to file (NOT SERVE - except on the U.S. Trustee) any redlined revisions to be discussed at the status conference; 7/29/16 for the plan proponent to lodge Judge Bason's form of order authorizing service of the relevant documents and setting deadlines; 9/27/16 at 1:00 p.m. for the combined hearing on approval of the Disclosure Statement and confirmation of the Plan (with the court to set typical deadlines for objections etc.).

(c) Continued status conference: 9/27/16 at 1:00 p.m. No written status report is required.

*Warning: special procedures apply (see order setting initial status conference).

Appearances required by counsel for the debtor but telephonic appearances are encouraged if advance arrangements are made (see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.", "Instructions/Procedures").

(1) Current issues.

These cases have been pending since 1/23/15 - a very long time. This Court has reviewed the debtor's (belated) status report (dkt. 213). The parties should be prepared to address the outline of a plan proposed by the debtor and any associated deadlines.

Appearances required but telephonic appearances are encouraged if advance arrangements are made (see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.", "Instructions/Procedures").

(1) Current issues.

(a) Plan (dkt. 193) and disclosure statement (dkt. 194) (and redline, dkt. 195). The debtors now propose a one year deadline after the effective date to have the subject properties "under contract and in escrow" (see, e.g., dkt. 194-7, p. 6:1-6). Is this agreeable to Bayview Loan Servicing, LLC? Are all major constituencies in agreement regarding the amended plan? Are there any other issues that need to be resolved prior to setting a date for a hearing on approval of the disclosure statement and confirmation of the plan?

(1) Progress toward confirmation. At the 11/17/15 status conference, the debtors stated that they would file an amended, red-lined version of their plan and disclosure statement correcting certain issues. When do the debtors anticipate filing these?

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 1/13/15.

(a) Bar date: 4/20/15 (timely served per dkt. 40)

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement (dkt. 174, 175): The parties should be prepared to discuss the debtors' exit strategy and deadlines for any further sale motions and/or an amended plan and amended disclosure statement.

#1.00 Hrg re: Motion for relief from stay [RP]

BAYVIEW LOAN SERVICING, LLC
vs
DEBTOR

Docket 56

Tentative Ruling:

Grant as provided below. Appearances are not required.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

Termination. Terminate the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1).

Any co-debtor stay (11 U.S.C. 1301(c)) is also terminated, because it has not been shown to have any basis to exist independent of the stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(a). To the extent, if any, that the motion seeks to terminate the automatic stay in other past or pending bankruptcy cases, such relief is denied on the present record. See In re Ervin (Case No. 14-bk-18204-NB, docket no. 311).

Effective date of relief. Deny the request to waive the 14-day stay provided by FRBP 4001(a)(3) for lack of sufficient cause shown.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." Tentative Ruling:

Grant as provided below. Appearances are not required.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

Termination. Terminate the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1).

Any co-debtor stay (11 U.S.C. 1301(c)) is also terminated, because it has not been shown to have any basis to exist independent of the stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(a). To the extent, if any, that the motion seeks to terminate the automatic stay in other past or pending bankruptcy cases, such relief is denied on the present record. See In re Ervin (Case No. 14-bk-18204-NB, docket no. 311).

Effective date of relief. Deny the request to waive the 14-day stay provided by FRBP 4001(a)(3) for lack of sufficient cause shown.

WILMINGTON TRUST, NA
vs
DEBTOR

Docket 49

Tentative Ruling:

Grant as set forth below. Appearances are not required.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this court's final ruling. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

(1) Background. On 1/16/18 the debtor filed his chapter 13 petition commencing this case. The bankruptcy schedules filed with the petition (dkt. 1, at PDF pp.13, 20, 22) value the subject property at $1.2 million and assert a homestead exemption of approximately $150,000. Creditor Wilmington has filed a proof of claim (POC 6) asserting a claim of $1,252,632.10 as of the petition date, secured by the property.

This case was voluntarily converted to chapter 7 by the debtor (dkt. 33, 35) after creditor John R. Lobherr, Inc. ("Lobherr") obtained relief from the automatic stay to complete litigation in State Court, and then obtained a judgment of over $250,000 against the debtor. See dkt. 20, 31, 35.

Creditor Wilmington Trust, N.A. as trustee for the holders of the beneficial interest under the deed of trust on the subject property ("Wilmington") has now filed its motion for relief from the automatic stay (dkt. 49, the "R/S Motion"). According to Wilmington (dkt. 49, pp.10-17) there have been (a) transfers of fractional interests in the subject property, (b) at least seven bankruptcy cases filed by the debtor and the non-debtor spouse, and (c) numerous other bankruptcy cases affecting this property - for a total of approximately 30 bankruptcies that have hindered and delayed its efforts to collect its claim.

A response to the R/S Motion has been filed by Mr. Iwuchuku, the debtor's counsel of record, on behalf of the debtor and/or the non-debtor spouse (the response is not entirely clear about who is responding). See dkt. 54, p.1 (the "Debtor Response"). At the hearing Mr. Iwuchuku is directed to clarify whether he has filed the Debtor Response on behalf of both the debtor and the non-debtor spouse.

The Debtor Response claims that the purported transfers to other debtors in bankruptcy "were done by forgery and NOT with debtor's consent." Dkt.54, p.2, para. 3.c.(2) (emphasis added). Presumably, the allegation is that the transfers were done without the knowledge or consent of either the debtor or the non-debtor spouse; but again Mr. Iwuchuku is directed to clarify if that is the representation being made to this Court.

In any event, the Debtor Response asserts that Wilmington's interest in the property is adequately protected because the property allegedly is worth $1,400,000 as of 3/30/18. The Debtor Response relies on an appraisal by Mr. James Frost. Dkt. 54.

Meanwhile, the Chapter 7 Trustee has filed a notice of intent to abandon the property (dkt. 48, the "Abandonment Notice"). The Trustee asserts that the property is burdensome or of inconsequential value to the estate. See 11 U.S.C. 554(a).

Creditor Loherr filed responses to both the Abandonment Notice and the R/S Motion (dkt. 51, 52, 53) arguing that the property is worth approximately $1.8 million and therefore has non-exempt equity that should be used to pay creditors. Loherr relies on a declaration of a real estate broker, Brian T. Thompson. Dkt. 51, p.3, dkt. 52, p.5. The Trustee's reply in support of abandonment (dkt. 57) asserts that the value of the property is $1.4 to $1.45 million, and in the alternative calculates that under any of the proposed valuations there would be no net equity for the bankruptcy estate after paying the deed of trust, capital gains taxes, costs of sale, and the debtor's homestead exemption.

The Trustee filed a notice setting the Abandonment Notice for hearing concurrent with this hearing on the R/S Motion (presumably subject to authorization from this Court for shortened time for such notice). See LBR 6007-1(e). Meanwhile Loherr also filed a motion objecting to the debtor's asserted homestead exemption (dkt. 55, the "Homestead Objection"), which had been self-calendared for hearing on 6/26/18 at 11:00 a.m.

More recently, however, Loherr has withdrawn its oppositions to the Abandonment Notice, the R/S Motion, and the debtor's asserted homestead exemption. Dkt. 59-61. The Trustee has filed a notice of lodgment of an order abandoning the property (dkt. 62), although as of the preparation of this tentative ruling this Court's records do not show that any such order actually has been lodged.

(2) Clarification by Mr. Iwuchuku and his apparent clients. As stated above, Mr. Iwuchuku is directed to clarify (a) whether the Debtor Response is filed by both the debtor and the non-debtor spouse, and (b) whether they are asserting that neither one of them had any knowledge of, or participation in, the transfers of fractional interests in the property to other persons. The debtor and the non-debtor spouse should be prepared to testify on those issues.

(3) Abandonment terminates the automatic stay. The automatic stay only protects property as long as the property remains within the bankruptcy estate. See 11 U.S.C. 362(c)(1). When property is abandoned it is no longer part of the estate (11 U.S.C. 554), and the Trustee's Abandonment Notice is now unopposed. Therefore, the stay will be terminated and the only issue is whether to grant relief from the automatic stay that will be applicable in other bankruptcy cases - (a) future bankruptcy cases (sometimes referred to as "in rem" or "ex parte" relief), or (b) past or present bankruptcy cases.

In addition and in the alternative, the tentative ruling is that Wilmington has established sufficient "cause" to terminate the automatic stay in this case under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1). Such cause is shown by the "scheme" described below.

(4) Relief from the automatic stay in other bankruptcy cases.

(a) Relief as to future bankruptcy cases. Section 362(d)(4) provides for relief that will be effective with respect to real property notwithstanding any future bankruptcy cases purporting to involve that property. The statute directs that this Court "shall" grant relief "with respect to a stay of an act against real property" by a creditor whose claim is secured by an interest in such property, "if the court finds that the filing of the petition was part of a scheme to delay, hinder, or defraud creditors that involved either - (A) transfer of all or part ownership of, or other interest in, such real property without the consent of the secured creditor or court approval; or (B) multiple bankruptcy filings affecting such real property." (Emphasis added.)

The debtor and non-debtor spouse assert that they were not part of the scheme, but they do not dispute that such a scheme exists.

Debtors/borrowers need not be part of any such scheme for this Court to be able to grant in rem/ex parte relief. See In re Vazquez (case no. 2:16-bk-10699-NB, dkt. 75). Under the facts and circumstances presented, the tentative ruling is to grant such relief because Wilmington has met its burden to show prima facie cause for such relief from the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(4) and/or Vazquez and the debtor and the non-debtor spouse have not rebutted that showing.

First, their allegations about someone having forged their signatures are not supported by their declarations. See dkt. 54. Second, they offer no explanation why some as-yet unidentified person would have any incentive to forge their signatures and create sham documents that purported to show transfers that never actually happened.

This Court is well aware that sometimes debtors will pay a purported "foreclosure prevention expert" (the "Agent") to stop a foreclosure, and that Agent then "hijacks" bankruptcy cases, either in collusion with the debtors or, sometimes, without such collusion. But when debtors truly are innocent they offer credible explanations, supported by evidence.

For example, the debtor and non-debtor spouse have not offered any declarations explaining how they were introduced to the Agent, what payments they made to the Agent (with copies of canceled checks), how the Agent somehow kept them from having knowledge or notice of the fraud despite the sudden and unexplained cessation of collection or foreclosure activities and despite any notices from the bankruptcy courts or the creditor, what they did as soon as they found out about the fraud to report the Agent to police and regulatory authorities, how they have worked with the creditor to pursue recoveries from the Agent, etc. In this case the debtor and non-debtor spouse offer none of these things. Their asserted innocence does not rise to the level of a colorable assertion, let alone rebut Wilmington's evidence.

For all of the foregoing reasons, the tentative ruling is to grant the following relief as to any future bankruptcy cases:

If this order is duly recorded in compliance with applicable State laws governing notices of interests or liens in the property at issue, then no automatic stay shall apply to such property in any bankruptcy case purporting to affect such property and filed within two years after the date of entry of this order, unless otherwise ordered by the court presiding over that bankruptcy case.

For the avoidance of doubt, any acts by the movant to obtain exclusive possession of such property shall not be stayed. Any additional request for relief applicable to future bankruptcy cases is denied (e.g., any request to grant relief against third parties without any notice is denied) due to lack of sufficient factual or legal grounds presented in support of such relief.

(b) Relief as to past and pending bankruptcy cases. Based on the assertions by the debtor and the non-debtor spouse themselves, all of the purported transfers of interests in their property are shams. Therefore the tentative ruling is that Wilmington has grounds to file an adversary proceeding seeking a declaratory judgment that all transfers are shams, and therefore the automatic stay has never actually arisen in any past or pending bankruptcy case with respect to the property (except for any bankruptcy cases filed by the debtor or the non-debtor spouse themselves). Any such relief presumably would have to be upon sufficient notice to any known persons who might assert an interest in the property. See In re Ervin (Case No. 14-bk-18204-NB, docket no. 311).

To date, however, no such adversary proceeding has been filed. Therefore, to the extent that Wilmington's R/S Motion seeks any such relief, it is denied on the present record.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." The automatic stay does not apply. This case has been dismissed, which terminates the automatic stay. See 11 USC 349(b)(3) & 362(c).

In the alternative and in addition, this court grants relief from the automatic stay as follows.

Termination. Terminate the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1) and (d)(4).

Any co-debtor stay (11 U.S.C. 1301(c)) is also terminated, because it has not been shown to have any basis to exist independent of the stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(a). Grant as provided below. Appearances are not required.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this court's final ruling. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

The automatic stay does not apply. This case has been dismissed, which terminates the automatic stay. See 11 USC 349(b)(3) & 362(c).

In the alternative and in addition, this court grants relief from the automatic stay as follows.

Termination. Terminate the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1) and (d)(4).

Any co-debtor stay (11 U.S.C. 1301(c)) is also terminated, because it has not been shown to have any basis to exist independent of the stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(a). To the extent, if any, that the motion seeks to terminate the automatic stay in other past or pending bankruptcy cases, such relief is denied on the present record. See In re Ervin (Case No. 14-bk-18204-NB, docket no. 311).

Relief notwithstanding future bankruptcy cases.

Grant the following relief pursuant to 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(4) and the legal analysis in In re Vazquez (case no. 2:16-bk-10699-NB, dkt. 75) and/or In re Choong (case no. 2:14-bk-28378-NB, docket no. 31), as applicable:

documents through which the movant asserts its interest in the property (sometimes referred to in the mortgage context as the "original borrower"). Reasons: See LBR 4001-1(c)(1)(B). In addition, Judge Bason has due process concerns about granting such relief without service on the person(s) whose interests may be most directly affected. See generally Mullane v. Central Hanover Bank & Trust Co., 339 U.S. 306 (1950) (due process generally). In this matter, such persons appear to include: (a) USA LA CASA S Investment, LLC, a California Limited Liability Company, and (b) Jaime Casas.

Option for shortened time: This court has selected a continued hearing date that contemplates shortened notice (per Rule 9006) but that date is conditioned on the movant serving all papers on the day after the current hearing date in accordance with Rule 7004(b)(1) and (3) (FRBP). Alternatively, the movant may self-calendar a continued hearing on regular notice.

Option for interim/partial order: Movant may elect to lodge a proposed order granting the partial relief provided in this tentative ruling, but any such order must recite that a continued hearing has been set to consider additional relief (or, alternatively, that the movant no longer seeks additional relief and the Clerk's office is requested and directed to take the continued hearing off calendar).

Effective date of relief. Grant the request to waive the 14-day stay provided by FRBP 4001(a)(3).

vs
DEBTOR

Docket 27

Tentative Ruling:

Grant in part, deny in part, as set forth below. Appearances required.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this court's final ruling. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

Key documents reviewed (in addition to motion papers): debtor's response (dkt. 32) and first amended plan (dkt. 35).

APO. The tentative ruling is to require the debtor to make payments under an adequate protection order ("APO") but include within that order that the automatic stay will not be effective in any future bankruptcy case except as provided in 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(4). The reasons are as follows.

On the one hand, the debtor has presented some evidence of adequate protection in the form of a large equity in the property. The debtor has also provided some justifications for the unauthorized grant deed from the borrower (the debtor's mother) to the debtor: namely, the mother's immigration issues, and the family's desire to protect the equity in the family home.

On the other hand, the mother's three successive bankruptcy cases have not been adequately explained: the only explanation is that, with respect to a single one of those three cases, she had immigration issues that prevented her from attending the meeting of creditors (11 U.S.C. 341(a)). The mother's failure to adequately prosecute all three of her bankruptcy cases is prima facie evidence of "a scheme to hinder, delay or defraud creditors." 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(4) (emphasis added). (This Court rejects the debtor's odd argument that when the statute says "or" it means "and." Dkt. 32 at PDF p.7:7-9.)

These circumstances, combined with the unauthorized grant deed to the debtor, are prima facie evidence that the debtor's bankruptcy petition is part of that scheme. The statute directs that this Court "shall" grant relief when such a scheme has been shown, but it is within this Court's discretion whether such relief should take the form of terminating the automatic stay or some other form, such as modifying or conditioning the stay. See 11 U.S.C. 362(d).

An APO is one form of modifying and conditioning the automatic stay. The tentative ruling is to issue a standard APO (e.g., three opportunities to cure any future defaults). As usual, the same relief would apply with respect to any co-debtor stay that might exist (11 U.S.C. 1301(c)).

As part of adequate protection, the debtor immediately will have to provide better evidence that the property is adequately insured. The debtor has only provided evidence of some sort of correspondence from an insurer to her mother (dkt. 32, Ex.C), which is not the equivalent of an insurance declarations page, showing the dollar amount of insurance, the expiration date, etc.

As to relief notwithstanding any future bankruptcy cases, the tentative ruling is as follows:

If this order is duly recorded in compliance with applicable State laws governing notices of interests or liens in the property at issue, then no automatic stay shall apply to such property in any bankruptcy case purporting to affect such property and filed within two years after the date of entry of this order, unless otherwise ordered by the court presiding over that bankruptcy case.

For the avoidance of doubt, any acts by the movant to obtain exclusive possession of such property shall not be stayed. Any additional request for relief applicable to future bankruptcy cases is denied (e.g., any request to grant relief against third parties without any notice is denied) due to lack of sufficient factual or legal grounds presented in support of such relief.

Effective date of relief. Grant the request to waive the 14-day stay provided by FRBP 4001(a)(3).

JP MORGAN CHASE BANK, NATIONAL ASSOC
vs
DEBTOR

Docket 10

Tentative Ruling:

Appearances required. The response filed by the debtor's attorney (dkt. 16, 17) states that the debtor is deceased and that he and his widow wish for the subject property to be sold by the Chapter 7 Trustee for the benefit of creditors. Neither that response nor the motion papers explain whether there is any net equity in the property, but bankruptcy Schedule D (dkt. 1 at PDF p. 18) asserts that the property is worth $1.6 million as against the movant's lien alleged to be in the approximate amount of $1.1 million.

The parties should be prepared to address whether there is any net equity in the property after deductions for any legitimate liens, any legitimate co-ownership interests, any outstanding taxes, etc. If the Trustee is satisfied that there may be such net equity then the tentative ruling is to modify and condition the automatic stay as follows.

The Trustee would be required to sell the property within a specified time (e.g., several months), failing which the stay would be terminated, and meanwhile protect the movant by granting relief that will prevent any future bankruptcy case from interfering with the movant's rights regarding this property. Such relief would be pursuant to the statutory authorization not just to terminate the stay but also to "modify" or "condition" it, under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1)&(4).

The relief as to any future bankruptcy cases is as follows:

If this order is duly recorded in compliance with applicable State laws governing notices of interests or liens in the property at issue, then no automatic stay shall apply to such property in any bankruptcy case purporting to affect such property and filed within two years after the date of entry of this order, unless otherwise ordered by the court presiding over that bankruptcy case.

Hrg re: Motion for relief from stay [UD]

CITYWIDE PROPERTY MANAGEMENT & CONSULTING INC
VS
DEBTOR

Docket 7

Tentative Ruling:

Grant as provided below. Appearances are not required.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this court's final ruling. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

The automatic stay does not apply. This case has been dismissed, which terminates the automatic stay. See 11 USC 349(b)(3) & 362(c).

In the alternative and in addition, this court grants relief from the automatic stay as follows.

Termination. Terminate the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1) and (d)(2).

Any co-debtor stay (11 U.S.C. 1301(c)) is also terminated, because it has not been shown to have any basis to exist independent of the stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(a). To the extent, if any, that the motion seeks to terminate the automatic stay in other past or pending bankruptcy cases, such relief is denied on the present record. See In re Ervin (Case No. 14-bk-18204-NB, docket no. 311).

Relief notwithstanding future bankruptcy cases.

Grant the following relief pursuant to the legal analysis in In re Vazquez (case no. 2:16-bk-10699-NB, dkt. 75) and/or In re Choong (case no. 2:14-bk-28378-NB, docket no. 31), as applicable:

If this order is duly recorded in compliance with applicable State laws governing notices of interests or liens in the property at issue, then no automatic stay shall apply to such property in any bankruptcy case purporting to affect such property and filed within two years after the date of entry of this order, unless otherwise ordered by the court presiding over that bankruptcy case.

For the avoidance of doubt, any acts by the movant to obtain exclusive possession of such property shall not be stayed. Any additional request for relief applicable to future bankruptcy cases is denied (e.g., any request to grant relief against third parties without any notice is denied) due to lack of sufficient factual or legal grounds presented in support of such relief.

Effective date of relief. Grant the request to waive the 14-day stay provided by FRBP 4001(a)(3).

Docket 33

Tentative Ruling:

Appearances required but telephonic appearances are encouraged if advance arrangements are made (see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.", "Instructions/Procedures").

The tentative ruling is to terminate the automatic stay in this case, but deny relief as to any future bankruptcy case, subject to the conditions described below.

Conditions for terminating the automatic stay

(1) Verify lack of prejudice to creditors, and address other Curtis factors. The movant is directed to address the Curtis factors, set forth in part "(3)" of this tentative ruling, and in particular verify whether there is any anticipated or potential prejudice to the debtor's creditors. A lack of prejudice is not entirely clear from the movant's papers (dkt. 33, 34) or from the papers filed by the debtor.

The debtor's confirmed plan (dkt. 15) omits the creditors that apparently hold deeds of trust against two parcels of real property, both of which are listed on the debtor's bankruptcy schedule D as her sole property (dkt. 1, at PDF p.19, listing properties in Whittier and Calexico, CA, neither with any substantial non-exempt equity). See also Trustee's Notice Of Intent To Pay Claims (dkt. 32) (noting two "omitted" secured creditors).

On the other hand, the debtor's amended bankruptcy schedules I & J

(dkt. 14) show both income and expenses apparently associated with these properties. Is the movant paying the mortgages on these properties? Will any award of these properties to him in the divorce case result in a decrease (or increase) in the debtor's disposable income?

(2) Provide reports. The tentative ruling is to include within any order granting relief from the automatic stay a direction to the movant to file a declaration every six months through the end of this case (or as later ordered by this Court) with a status report as to any property division or allocation of mortgage payments and receipt of rental income. The purpose is so that appropriate adjustments can be made, if the Chapter 13 Trustee or a creditor so requests, to the debtor's confirmed chapter 13 plan (dkt. 15), any statement of postpetition income and expenses, or other appropriate documents.

(3) The Curtis factors. The Bankruptcy Court "shall grant relief from the stay," such as by terminating, modifying, or conditioning the stay, upon a showing of "cause." 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1). "'Cause' is determined on a case-by-case basis." In re Tucson, 912 F.2d 1162, 1166 (9th Cir.1990).

In determining whether "cause" exists to grant relief from the automatic stay to allow a movant to pursue litigation in a non-bankruptcy forum, courts in the Ninth Circuit have examined the factors set forth in In re Curtis, 40 B.R. 795, 799–800 (Bankr. D. Utah 1984). See In re Kronmeyer, 405 B.R. 915 (9th Cir. BAP 2009); In re Plumberex Specialty Prods., Inc., 311 B.R. 551, 559–60 (Bankr. C.D. Cal.2004). Those factors are: (1) Whether the relief will result in a partial or complete resolution of the issues; (2) The lack of any connection with or interference with the bankruptcy case; (3) Whether the foreign proceeding involves the debtor as a fiduciary; (4) Whether a specialized tribunal has been established to hear the particular cause of action and whether that tribunal has the expertise to hear such cases; (5) Whether the debtor's insurance carrier has assumed full financial responsibility for defending the litigation; (6) Whether the action essentially involves third parties, and the debtor functions only as a bailee or conduit for the goods or proceeds in question; (7) Whether the litigation in another forum would prejudice the interests of other creditors, the creditors' committee and other interested parties; (8) Whether the judgment claim arising from the foreign action is subject to equitable subordination under Section 510(c); (9)

#27.00 Hrg re: Motion for relief from stay [NA]

CONSTRUCTION LABORERS TRUST FUNDS
FOR SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA ADMIN CO
VS
DEBTOR

Docket 117

Tentative Ruling:

Grant as provided below, based on the motion (dkt. 117), the Chapter 7 Trustee's non-opposition (dkt. 120), and the fact that, as noted by the movant (dkt. 121), no opposition has been filed by the debtor . Appearances are not required.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this court's final ruling. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

(1) Limited relief. Modify and condition the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1) such that the movant may proceed in the nonbankruptcy forum to final judgment (including any appeals) in accordance with applicable nonbankruptcy law, subject to the following limitations (Judge Bason's standard limitations).

(a) No enforcement against property of the bankruptcy estate. The stay remains in effect with respect to enforcement of any judgment against property of the debtor's bankruptcy estate - any such property shall be distributed when and how provided by the Bankruptcy Code. Nevertheless, the movant is permitted to enforce its final judgment by (i) collecting upon any available insurance in accordance with applicable nonbankruptcy law or (ii) proceeding against the debtor as to any property that is not property of this bankruptcy estate. See, e.g., 11 U.S.C. 362(b)(2)(B) & 541(b)(7) (collection of domestic support obligations from ERISA qualified retirement plans).

(b) Claim allowance, priority, and discharge issues. Any claims arising from the nonbankruptcy litigation are subject to this Bankruptcy Court's jurisdiction regarding claim allowance and priority, and the existence and scope of any bankruptcy discharge.

(c) No relief in other bankruptcy cases. To the extent, if any, that the motion seeks to terminate the automatic stay in other past or pending bankruptcy cases, such relief is denied on the present record. See In re Ervin (Case No. 14-bk-18204-NB, docket no. 311).

Additional analysis:

The Bankruptcy Court "shall grant relief from the stay" upon a showing of "cause." 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1). Such relief need not take the form of a complete termination of the automatic stay, but instead may include "modifying or conditioning such stay." Id.

the parties; (11) Whether the foreign proceedings have progressed to the point where the parties are prepared for trial; and (12) The impact of the stay on the parties and the "balance of hurt." Plumberex, 311 B.R. at 559. Cal. Dec. 9, 2011).

Based on the present record, the tentative ruling is that these factors weigh in favor of granting relief as set forth above. Most significantly:

(a) the district court action involves the debtor as a fiduciary (factor 3);
(b) the nonbankruptcy action complaint involves nonbankruptcy issues which would be more appropriately resolved by the district court (factor 4);
(c) the district court is better situated to conduct a jury trial and it is more economical for the parties to only have to litigate their dispute before a single tribunal (factor 10); and

(d) as of the preparation of this tentative ruling, the debtor has not opposed this court granting relief for the district court action to proceed, so the balance of hurt weighs in movant's favor (factor 12).

The parties are cautioned that the standards for nondischargeability may be different from the standards applicable to the underlying litigation. To avoid needless duplication of judicial resources, the parties are encouraged to frame the issues before the district court in a way that will have preclusive effect on any nondischargeability issues.

This Court has reviewed the debtor's status report (dkt. 289) and the movant's supplemental proof of service (dkt. 288). There is no tentative ruling, but the parties should be prepared to inform this Court about any other updates regarding the Tchoupitoulas Property, the Santa Ynez Property and the debtor's payments to the movant.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." If appearances are required, and you fail to appear without adequately resolving this matter by consent, then you may waive your right to be heard on matters that are appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

Tentative Ruling for 5/1/18:

Appearances required. There is no tentative ruling, but the parties should be prepared to address the effect of the debtor's failure to perform the terms of the confirmed plan; the debtor's response (dkt. 276); the movant's reply papers (dkt. 277-79); and the debtor's further papers including his request for a continuance (dkt. 280-84).

Docket 35

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for 6/12/18:

Continue to 6/26/18 at 10:00 a.m. as set forth below as a final continuance.
Appearances are not required on 6/12/18.

Analysis:

(1) Background. On 5/9/18, Movant filed an amended motion (dkt. 50). The amended motion was not properly served, so this Court's tentative ruling for 5/22/18 (reproduced below) set a continued hearing date of 5/29/18 with directions for Movant to properly serve necessary parties with the motion and notice of the continued hearing date. At the hearing on 5/22/18, counsel for Movant appeared and requested this Court continue the hearing to 6/12/18 (instead of 5/29/18), which was granted. Accordingly, this matter was not listed on this Court's calendar for 5/29/18.

Nevertheless, on 5/23/18, Movant served notice of the continued hearing with a 5/29/18 hearing date (dkt. 53). This Court issued a Notice to Filer of Error and/or Deficient Document and directed Movant to refile the notice of continued hearing (see dkt. 54), but as of the preparation of this tentative ruling Movant has not done so.

Therefore, the tentative ruling is to continue the hearing to the date and time stated at the start of this tentative ruling to afford Movant a final opportunity to properly serve necessary parties with the motion and notice of the continued hearing date.

Tentative Ruling for 5/22/18:

Continue to 5/29/18 at 10:00 a.m. as set forth below. Appearances are not required on 5/22/18.

Analysis:

(1) Background. At the hearing on 5/8/18 counsel for the movant engaged in a colloquy with this Court regarding possible relief from the automatic stay that would be effective notwithstanding this or other bankruptcy cases. This matter was continued from 5/8/18 on shortened notice to allow Movant to file and serve appropriate papers requesting such relief. On 5/9/18, Movant filed an amended motion (dkt. 50).

(2) Request for relief in other bankruptcy cases filed in future bankruptcy cases, but not currently pending or past bankruptcy cases

The motion requests relief in future bankruptcy cases (aka "in rem" relief). Implicitly the motion might be seeking relief notwithstanding currently pending or past bankruptcy cases, but it does not actually request such relief.

The motion notes that a large number of persons appear to have alleged that they have an interest in the property, notwithstanding the foreclosure sale that resulted in the movant's interest in the property. The motion implies that the alleged interests might be a complete sham.

This Court recognizes that this might be so. This Court notes (a) the large number of alleged interests; (b) the multiple bankruptcy cases that appear to be involved, (c) this Court's order dismissing this case with a two year bar (dkt. 42); and (d) this Court's orders that certain persons connected to this case appear and show cause why they should not be sanctioned (dkt. 48, 49). Based on similar facts and circumstances, this Court has been persuaded in the past to grant relief applicable to past or pending bankruptcy cases (not just future bankruptcy cases), but only when expressly requested (and supported with adequate evidence), and only when requested via an adversary proceeding. See In re Ervin (Case No. 14-bk-18204-NB, docket no. 311). The movant has not followed such procedures, nor has the movant made any request for relief expressly applicable to any currently pending or past bankruptcy cases, so this Court construes the motion as requesting relief that is only applicable to future bankruptcy cases.

(3) The motion was not served on most of the persons who apparently assert an interest in the property

The tentative ruling is to continue the motion to the date and time set forth at the start of this tentative ruling for service on the persons described below. According to the motion, various persons "claim to have a 'right to possession' as alleged tenants of the former owners [or singular owner?]" of the property prior to foreclosure (dkt. 50, p.7, para. 5.(4)). The tentative ruling is that such persons (and perhaps others) require notice of the relief sought in the motion.

This Court recognizes that any foreclosure might have wiped out the interests of any tenants. On the other hand in various situations that is not necessarily so - e.g., if the tenancy pre-dated the deed of trust and there was no agreement for subordination or the like then perhaps foreclosure did not wipe out the tenancies; or perhaps applicable nonbankruptcy law would protect residential tenants in some fashion; or perhaps even a bare possessory interest is entitled to some protection (perhaps that interest would be enough for a tenant to obtain the benefits of the automatic stay in their own future bankruptcy case long enough for an orderly move-out).

The point is not that the alleged tenants necessarily have any actual rights or ability to oppose the motion for "in rem" relief - Judge Bason is not prejudging those things one way or the other. Rather, the point is that Judge Bason has due process concerns about granting relief that would be effective notwithstanding any future bankruptcy filing without any notice to the alleged tenants or any others who may claim an interest in the property. See generally Mullane v. Central Hanover Bank & Trust Co., 339 U.S. 306 (1950) (due process generally).

The alleged tenants appear to be Catry Cho and Vivian Cho (dkt. 50, Ex.3); Robert Garviria and John Blanco (dkt. 50, Ex.4); Jonathan Marroquin and Zena Hill possibly aka Zena Louise Hill possibly aka Bonita D Hill (see cases no. 2:18-bk-14316-ER and 2:17-bk-21208-BR) (dkt. 50, Continuation Page, at PDF pp.12-13); Beanca "Bea" Cho (dkt. 50 at PDF pp.12-13); and Juan Herrera (one of the debtors in this case) (id.). In addition, the owner prior to foreclosure appears to have been Martin W. Gentry (the trustor under the deed of trust prior to foreclosure) (dkt. 50, Ex.1, at PDF p.5 of 21), and given the possibility that the alleged tenants or Mr. Gentry assert that some sort of alleged interest survived the foreclosure it appears appropriate to require service on him as well.

Accordingly, the tentative ruling is to direct the movant to serve (i) its papers and (ii) notice of the continued hearing date substantially as follows:

34471 Via Gomez

(4) Option for shortened time: This Court has selected a continued hearing date that contemplates shortened notice (per Rule 9006, Fed. R. Bankr. P.) but that date is conditioned on the movant serving all papers on the day after the current hearing date. Alternatively, the movant may self-calendar a continued hearing on regular notice.

(5) Option for interim/partial order: Movant may elect to lodge a proposed order granting the partial relief provided in this tentative ruling, but any such order must recite that a continued hearing has been set to consider additional relief (or, alternatively, that the movant no longer seeks additional relief and the Clerk's office is requested and directed to take the continued hearing off calendar).

Any co-debtor stay (11 U.S.C. 1301(c)) is also terminated, because it has not been shown to have any basis to exist independent of the stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(a). To the extent, if any, that the motion seeks to terminate the automatic stay in other past or pending bankruptcy cases, such relief is denied on the present record. See In re Ervin (Case No. 14-bk-18204-NB, docket no. 311).

If appearances are required, and you fail to appear without adequately resolving this matter by consent, then you may waive your right to be heard on matters that are appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

Tentative Ruling for 5/2/17:

Appearances required. At the hearing on 12/13/16 this court was persuaded to continue this matter to today's date, with a deadline of 4/11/17 to complete mediation (see adv. dkt. 13 (mediation order)).

There is no tentative ruling, but the parties should be prepared to address (1) the results of their mediation, (2) whether to continue this status conference a short time (for finalization of any settlement) or a long time (far enough ahead that the parties can litigate their issues in State Court, which then presumably will have a partially or fully preclusive effect on any nondischargeability issues before this court), and (3) any other matters appropriate to address at this status conference.

If you do not appear, and the matter is not adequately resolved by consent, then you may waive your right to be heard on matters that are appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

Tentative Ruling for 12/13/16:

Continue to 2/7/17 at 11:00 a.m. at which time this court anticipates addressing, in view of the State Court's determinations as to pending matters,

Tentative Ruling for 7/19/16:

Appearances required. There is no tentative ruling, but the parties should be prepared to address the following issues:

(1) Failure to file a status report. Why did the plaintiff not file a status report updating the Court as to the status of the pending state court litigation (adv. dkt. 4)? Should this Court issue an order to show cause based on plaintiff's disregard of this Court's order?

(2) Status of the state court litigation. What is the status of the state court litigation?

(3) Continued status conference. Assuming that the state court litigation is still pending, this Court intends to set a continued status conference for 11/8/16 at 11:00 a.m. The plaintiff must file a brief status report detailing the current status of the state court litigation by 10/25/16.

If you do not appear, and the matter is not adequately resolved by consent, then you may waive your right to be heard on matters that are appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

Appearances required but telephonic appearances are encouraged if advance arrangements are made (see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.", "Instructions/Procedures").

At the 3/6/18 hearing, this Court continued the matter to allow the parties time to meet and confer about the various deadlines that this court should set in this adversary proceeding and/or court-ordered mediation. This matter was further continued to today's date for the parties to participate in mediation on or about 5/21/18 (see Order, adv. dkt. 21). This Court also directed the parties to file a status report by 5/29/18, but the parties have not done so--for a second time.

There is no tentative ruling, but the parties are directed to address why they have not filed a status report, and to provide an oral status report, and are cautioned that continued failure to adhere to the applicable rules and orders of this Court may result in sanctions.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." There is no tentative ruling, but the parties are directed to address why they have not filed a status report, and to provide an oral status report, and are cautioned that continued failure to adhere to the applicable rules and orders of this Court may result in sanctions. The tentative ruling is to continue this status conference to 5/29/18 at 11:00 a.m. with a brief status report due 5/15/18.

Tentative Ruling for 2/27/18:

Continue to 3/6/18 at 11:00 a.m. Appearances are not required on 2/27/18.

Reasons: At the status conference on 1/23/18 there was no appearance for the plaintiff, and this Court was persuaded that it was premature to adopt the deadlines stated in the tentative ruling for that status conference (reproduced below). The plaintiff and one defendant (the debtor) have now filed a joint status report (adv. dkt. 10) requesting a brief continuance.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." Tentative Ruling for 1/23/18:

Appearances required. The court has reviewed the parties' filed documents and records in this adversary proceeding. The parties must address why they failed to file the required status report, and also the following issues. The following are Judge Bason's standard requirements for status conferences.

(1) Venue/jurisdiction/authority. The parties are directed to address any outstanding matters of (a) venue, (b) jurisdiction, (c) this court's authority to enter final orders or judgment(s) in this proceeding and, if consent is required, whether the parties do consent, or have already expressly or impliedly consented. See generally Stern v. Marshall, 131 S.Ct. 2594, 2608 (2011) (if litigant "believed that the Bankruptcy Court lacked the authority to decide his claim...then he should have said so – and said so promptly."); Wellness Int'l

See generally In re AWTR Liquidation, Inc., 548 B.R. 300 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2016).

(2) Mediation. Is there is any reason why this court should not order the parties to mediation before one of the volunteer mediators (not a Bankruptcy Judge), and meanwhile set the deadlines set forth below? The tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 2/6/18 for the parties to lodge a proposed mediation order (the parties are directed to use the time between now and that deadline to find a mutually agreeable mediator whose schedule can accommodate the needs of this matter; and if the parties cannot even agree on a mediator they may lodge separate orders and Judge Bason will chose among them, or issue his own order).

(3) Deadlines/dates: This adversary proceeding has been pending since 11/21/17. The tentative ruling is to set the following deadlines/dates. Pursuant to LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B), plaintiff is directed to serve and lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the status conference, attaching a copy of this tentative ruling or otherwise memorializing the following.

Discovery cutoff (for completion of discovery): 5/1/18

Expert(s) - deadline for reports: 5/8/18

Expert(s) - discovery cutoff (if different from above): 5/15/18

Dispositive motions to be heard no later than: 6/26/18

Joint Status Report: 2/6/18

Continued status conference: 2/27/18 at 11:00 a.m.

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for 6/12/18:

Continue status conference to 10/16/18 at 11:00 a.m. for the reasons stated below. Appearances are not required on 6/12/18.

Current Issues.

(1) Motion to Dismiss (adv. dkt.7). At the hearing on 4/17/18, this Court was persuaded to defer ruling on the motion to dismiss in view of the possibility that the issues would be litigated before the district court. On 5/9/18 plaintiff filed a motion for relief from stay to proceed with the district court litigation (2:16-bk-24010-NB, dkt. 117) (the "R/S Motion") and scheduled a hearing for this date on the 10:00 a.m. calendar. This court's tentative ruling for the R/S Motion is to grant that motion. Therefore, the tentative ruling for this matter is to take the motion to dismiss off calendar without prejudice to resetting it or filing appropriate papers after the district court litigation has been resolved.

(2) Deadlines: In view of this Court's tentative ruling on the R/S Motion, the tentative ruling is to continue this status conference to the date and time stated at the start of this tentative ruling. The parties are directed to file a joint status report by 10/2/18.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." by consent, then you may waive your right to be heard on matters that are appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

Tentative Ruling for 5/22/18:

Continue to 6/12/18 at 11:00 a.m. for the reasons stated in the status report (adv. dkt. 16). Appearances are not required on 5/22/18.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." If appearances are required, and you fail to appear without adequately resolving this matter by consent, then you may waive your right to be heard on matters that are appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

Tentative Ruling for 4/17/18:

Appearances required. The court has reviewed the debtor's motion to dismiss (dkt. 7), Plaintiff's opposition (dkt. 14), the parties' joint status report (dkt. 9), Notice of Related District Court Case (dkt. 12) and the other filed documents and records in this adversary proceeding.

Paragraph "(2)" below is the tentative ruling on the motion to dismiss. Paragraphs "(1)," "(3)," and "(4)" below are Judge Bason's standard requirements for status conferences, with additional provisions specific to this matter. (To the extent that the parties have already addressed these issues in their status report, they need not repeat their positions at the status conference.)

(1) Venue/jurisdiction/authority.

The parties are directed to address any outstanding matters of (a) venue, (b) jurisdiction, (c) this court's authority to enter final orders or judgment(s) in this proceeding and, if consent is required, whether the parties do consent, or have already expressly or impliedly consented. (implied consent), aff'd on other grounds, 134 S. Ct. 2165 (2014); In re Pringle, 495 B.R. 447 (9th Cir. BAP 2013) (rebuttable presumption that failure to challenge authority to issue final order is intentional and indicates consent); In re Deitz, 760 F.3d 1028 (9th Cir. 2014) (authority to adjudicate nondischargeability encompasses authority to liquidate debt and enter final judgment). See generally In re AWTR Liquidation, Inc., 548 B.R. 300 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2016).

With respect to this specific matter, although nondischargeability complaints are prototypically "core" bankruptcy matters, this Bankruptcy Court is concerned about possible duplication of litigation and infringement on the District Court's management of the related nonbankruptcy action pending in that Court since 6/16/17. Should this Bankruptcy Court grant relief from the automatic stay (on this Court's own motion or the motion of either party) so that such litigation can proceed, and meanwhile hold this nondischargeability action in abeyance? Alternatively, are other approaches preferable, such as removal, or withdrawal of the reference, or bifurcation of issues? The parties are directed to address what is the most appropriate and efficient way to proceed.

(2) Motion to Dismiss (dkt. 7)

The legal standards applicable to a motion to dismiss will not be repeated here because they are well known and have been summarized in the parties' filed papers. The tentative ruling is to grant the motion to dismiss the first and second claims for relief, with leave to amend, for the following reasons.

(a) 11 U.S.C. 523(a)(2)(A): false representation etc.

The debtor/defendant seeks dismissal of the first claim for relief, under section 523(a)(2)(A), on the ground that the plaintiff has not alleged that he obtained money, property, services, or credit from plaintiff as a result of the alleged fraud. The debtor/defendant argues (adv. dkt. 7, pp.6:23-7:3) that any alleged misrepresentations occurred in reports filed after the employees had performed services for the prior month and therefore after the debt was incurred, so the money or property at issue was not "obtained by" the alleged fraud.

On the one hand, the motion to dismiss is not entirely persuasive on this point. Reading the complaint in the light most favorable to the plaintiff as this Court must do when addressing a motion to dismiss, the complaint (adv.

dkt. 1, p.1, para. 25) alleges that as a result of an ongoing pattern of false reports the Trust Funds (whom the plaintiff represents) missed opportunities to assert claims against the debtor/defendant's general contractors, which allegedly would have resulted in recovery of funds to cover the dollar amounts owed to the Trust Funds. In other words, if the Trust Funds had known of the (allegedly) false representations in those reports (or the allegedly fraudulent nature or false pretenses in those reports) then, allegedly, the Trust Funds could have pursued remedies that apparently are no longer available to them, so the fact that the reports were filed after the services were rendered each month is not dispositive.

But the complaint does not explain how the Trust Funds' missed opportunity amounts to obtaining money, property, services, or credit from plaintiff as a result of the alleged fraud. Rather, it appears that the (allegedly) false reports enabled the debtor/defendant to continue obtaining services from the employees (without providing those employees all of the compensation to which they were owed, in the form of funds that should have been transferred to the Trust Funds for the benefit of the employees). Compare In re Kay, 60 B.R. 174, 176 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 1986) (liability based on fact that "the employee beneficiaries" sustained damages as "the proximate result of the defendants' representations") (emphasis added).

In sum, there are not enough allegations in the complaint to show a causal connection between the alleged falsehoods of the debtor/defendant and some sort of damage to the plaintiff. It is possible, of course, that the plaintiff stands in the shoes of the employees for these purposes, but the complaint does not include sufficient allegations (or copies of documents) for this Court to read the complaint that way. It is also possible that the plaintiff itself has been damaged - e.g., perhaps the plaintiff is liable to the employees if it did not detect and cure the alleged falsehoods in the debtor/defendant's reports, and thus the plaintiff itself has been damaged - but again the complaint does not include sufficient allegations (or copies of documents) for this Court to read the complaint that way.

For all of these reasons, the tentative ruling is to grant the motion to dismiss the first claim for relief, with leave to amend. The tentative deadline for filing an amended complaint is 5/1/18.

The debtor/defendant has raised a separate argument with respect to the first claim for relief. The tentative ruling, however, is to reject the debtor/defendant's alternative argument (adv. dkt. 7, pp.7:23-8:5) that, under Rule 9(b), Fed. R. Civ. P. (incorporated by Rule 7009, Fed. R. Bankr.P.), the complaint is not sufficiently precise about the amount of hours that were falsely under-reported in each report. The complaint sufficiently apprises the debtor/defendant of the grounds of the alleged fraud, and any greater specificity is a matter for discovery and proof at trial, not a defect in pleading.

(b) 11 U.S.C. 523(a)(4): fraud or defalcation while acting in a fiduciary capacity, etc.

The debtor/defendant seeks dismissal of the second claim for relief, under section 523(4), on the ground that the complaint lacks sufficient allegations that he is a fiduciary with respect to the funds at issue. The tentative ruling is that this is correct.

The complaint alleges that "amounts withheld from employee wages meant to be transmitted to the Vacation Trust" became assets of that trust "as of the earliest date on which such contributions ... can reasonably be segregated from the employer's general assets." Complaint (adv. dkt. 1), p. 8, para.30 (emphasis added, quoting 29 C.F.R. 2510.3-102). In response the debtor/defendant argues (adv. dkt. 7, pp.9:12-15): "Plaintiff has failed to allege that such withholdings actually occurred and when such employee wage withholdings could be 'reasonably segregated from the employer's general assets.' Without such allegations, Plaintiff has failed to adequately allege that plan assets are at issue." (Emphasis added.)

To illustrate, consider the following hypothetical situation. Suppose that the debtor/defendant was paid $10X by a customer, but had obligations at that time of $15X consisting of $5X owed to employees for their base pay, $1X that should have been transmitted to the Vacation Trust but was not, and $9X for various other business expenses such as rent and income taxes. Did the $1X ever become segregated (withheld from wages) to the extent that it became a separate fund as to which the debtor/defendant had fiduciary obligations, or was the $1X only one contractual debt among many, with no segregated fund and therefore no associated fiduciary obligations?

In a similar vein the debtor/defendant also argues (adv. dkt. 7, pp.9:16-10:17) that the allegations about purported control over plan assets are conclusory, that unpaid contributions to employee benefit funds are not plan assets, and that there are insufficient allegations in the complaint to establish that there was any pre-existing fiduciary relationship. The tentative ruling is that all of these arguments are persuasive.

The debtor/defendant cites persuasive authority in support of the foregoing analysis. It is one thing if an employer misuses employee contributions to a trust fund, but if the funds have never reached the employee and instead are contributions that the employer was supposed to make then the failure to pay that contribution is not, by itself, enough to establish a fiduciary relationship with respect to those funds. See In re Quinones, 537 B.R. 942, 945 n.2 (Bankr. N.D. Cal. 2015) (distinguishing employer contributions "from the situation where an employer has control over funds that were withheld from employees' paychecks"). The complaint does not include sufficient allegations to determine which type of contribution is at issue.

In sum, the complaint does not contain enough allegations about the precise relationships among the parties so as to be able to figure out when the debtor/defendant's duties arose and to whom. The tentative ruling is to set the same deadline to amend the complaint as for the first claim for relief.

Unless this Court is persuaded to depart from the foregoing tentative ruling it will be adopted as this Court's final ruling on the motion to dismiss. The debtor/defendant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this court's final ruling. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

(3) Mediation. Is there is any reason why this court should not order the parties to mediation before one of the volunteer mediators (not a Bankruptcy Judge) at this time? The tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 5/1/18 for the parties to lodge a proposed mediation order (the parties are directed to use the time between now and that deadline to find a mutually agreeable mediator whose schedule can accommodate the needs of this matter; and if the parties cannot even agree on a mediator they may lodge separate orders and Judge Bason will chose among them, or issue his own order).

(4) Deadlines: This adversary proceeding has been pending since 2/5/18. Pursuant to LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B), plaintiff is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the status conference, attaching a copy of this tentative ruling or otherwise memorializing the following.

#3.00 Hrg re: Motion in individual chapter 11 case
for order authorizing use of cash collateral

Docket 28

Tentative Ruling:

Grant the motion (dkt. 28), as amended (dkt. 29), on a final basis.
Appearances are not required.

Judge Bason's standard conditions for use of cash collateral and/or postpetition financing (by creditors holding prepetition claims)

(1) Written order

(a) Form. Use local form F2081-

1.1.ORDER.CASH.COLLATERAL or the equivalent. Attach a copy of this tentative ruling as an exhibit, thereby adopting it as the written ruling of the court. Do not repeat the terms set forth in the motion or any stipulation. Incorporate those terms by reference, subject to any modification by this court (including the docket number of the document).

(b) Timing. Lodge the proposed order within 7 days after the hearing. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

(2) Minimum adequate protection

In addition to the postpetition security interests that are automatically provided pursuant to 11 U.S.C. 552 (e.g., in traceable proceeds and profits), and subject to any more comprehensive protection that may be included in the motion or related papers, the debtor shall provide at least the following protection to any creditor with a security interest in the subject property (pursuant to 11 U.S.C. 361-364, as applicable):

(a) Insurance. For all collateral of a type that typically is insured (e.g., real property and improvements), the debtor is directed to maintain insurance in a dollar amount at least equal to the debtor's good faith estimate of the value of such creditor's interest in the collateral, and such insurance shall name such creditor as an additional insured. The debtor is directed to remain current on payments for such insurance.

(b) Taxes. The debtor is directed to remain current on payments on account of postpetition real estate taxes (to the extent that real estate is part of the collateral).

(c) Disclosures/access. The debtor is directed to provide, upon such creditor's reasonable request, periodic accountings of the foregoing insurance and tax obligations and payments, as well as postpetition proceeds, products, offspring, or profits from the collateral, including gross revenues and expenses and a calculation of net revenues, including any rents and any fees, charges, accounts, or other payments for the use or occupancy of rooms and other public facilities in lodging properties (as all of the foregoing terms are used in 11 U.S.C. 552). The debtor is directed to provide appropriate documentation of those accountings, and access for purposes of inspection or appraisal.

(3) Limitation on postpetition liens

In the event that the motion or related papers seek authority to grant postpetition liens to the creditor(s) with respect to prepetition debts any such liens shall be limited to the same validity, priority, and amount as prepetition liens. As used herein, the "validity, priority, and amount" or any similar phrase that may be used by the parties or the court is deemed to include the following:

(a) Extent. Such liens shall be limited to the type of collateral in which the creditor held a security interest as of the petition date, unless this order expressly states that the liens granted by this order are intended to attach to different types of collateral from the prepetition collateral. For example, if prepetition liens extended to inventory and accounts receivable but not equipment then postpetition liens are likewise limited (unless otherwise expressly provided below); and postpetition liens shall not extend to the proceeds of any avoidance actions, any recoveries under 11 U.S.C. 506 (c), or any "carveout" under 11 U.S.C. 552.

(b) Priority. Such liens shall be limited to the same priority as the security interest held by the creditor as of the petition date.

(c) Dollar amount. Such liens shall be limited to the dollar amount needed to protect the creditor against diminution in the value of the secured claims as of the petition date.

(d) Enforceability. Such liens shall be limited to the extent that the creditor's security interests were duly perfected and valid as of the petition date, and to the extent that they are unavoidable.

(e) Automatic postpetition perfection. Any automatic perfection of such liens shall be subject to any applicable limitations regarding the Court's authority, jurisdiction, or due process.

(4) Automatic disapproval of insufficiently disclosed provisions

Any provision of the type listed in FRBP 4001(c)(1)(B) or in local form F4001-2 (e.g., cross-collateralization) or any waiver of the "equities of the case" exception in 11 U.S.C. 552(b)(2) shall be deemed automatically disapproved and excepted from any order granting the motion, notwithstanding any other provision of such order, unless either: (a) such provision is specifically and prominently disclosed in the motion papers in a checklist (such as local form F4001-2), or alternatively (b) such provision is specifically identified in any proposed order granting the motion, using terminology of the type used in FRBP 4001(c)(1)(B) or local form F4001-2 (e.g., any "cross-collateralization" that is not specifically identified as such is deemed to be disapproved).

(5) Disputes

In the event of any disputes regarding the rulings in this order, the parties are directed to meet and confer and, if they cannot resolve their disputes consensually, contact the chambers of the presiding judge to arrange a mutually convenient time for either a telephonic or in-person hearing to address such disputes.

Tentative Ruling for 5/29/18:

Appearances required by counsel for the debtor and by the debtor(s) themselves.

(1) Current issues.

(a) Amended Schedule I (dkt. 26). Bankruptcy Schedule I, paragraph 8a, requires a separate statement for any rental property showing gross receipts, ordinary and necessary expenses, and net income. The debtor has not complied. Why not?

(b) Budget motion (dkt. 17, 29). Notwithstanding the foregoing, this Court has reviewed the cash collateral motion (dkt. 28), which appears to set forth the gross receipts, expenses, and net income of the subject property. Based on the presumption that this is included in the budget for which the debtor seeks approval, the tentative ruling is to grant the budget motion as amended (dkt. 29), on an interim basis, subject to a final hearing at the same date and time as the continued status conference set forth below. By no later than 6/8/18, the debtor must (i) correct the above-referenced omission from bankruptcy Schedule I and the budget motion, (ii) provide notice of the final hearing on this motion via U.S. Mail to all parties in interest, and (iii) file a proof of service.

Proposed order: The debtor is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this court's final ruling. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

Appearances required by counsel for the debtor but telephonic appearances are encouraged if advance arrangements are made (see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.", "Instructions/Procedures").

(1) Current issues. The debtor's proofs of service continue to be defective. Elizabeth Cruz declares that she has served the "PROOF OF SERVICE" itself, not the underlying orders. See dkt. 20 at PDF p.2 and dkt. 31 at PDF p.2. It is true that an unsigned cover page on one of those documents asserts on behalf of the debtor that "All parties were served on April 11, 2018" with a copy of the bar date order, but that is inadequate.

At the hearing counsel is directed to explain why the proofs of service are defective, and what steps will be taken to correct this issue so that it no longer occurs. The deadline is 6/19/18 to file further amended proofs of service of both orders (the order setting principal status conference etc. at dkt. 6, and the bar date order at dkt. 23).

Appearances required but telephonic appearances are encouraged if advance arrangements are made (see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.", "Instructions/Procedures").

(1) Current issues.

(a) Budget motion (dkt. 13). Counsel must address:

(i) Income as of petition date or current? The debtor has filed an amended bankruptcy Schedule I (dkt. 30). Is that actually intended to be a declaration of postpetition income, or a correction of the debtor's income as of the petition date?

(ii) Amended budget motion? Should an amended budget motion needs to be filed and served, or is such notice unnecessary and should the budget be deemed amended, in view of what appears to be an increase of approximately $168 in the debtor's monthly income (compare dkt. 13 at PDF p.8, debtor's personal income of $2,800, with dkt. 30, line 7, debtor's personal income of $2,968)?

(b) Cash collateral motion (dkt. 12). Grant on a final basis, on the same terms as the interim order (dkt.24).

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 3/6/18.

(a) Bar date: 6/15/18 (Order, dkt. 23). Note: Timely served? Per the proof of service (dkt. 26, the "POS") the debtor served the POS itself on creditors. Presumably the debtor means that she served the order on creditors (not the POS), but the debtor is directed to file an amended POS saying so, no later than 5/3/18.

Tentative Ruling for 4/10/18:

Appearances required by counsel for the debtor and by the debtor(s) themselves.

(1) Current issues.

(a) Failure to serve order. This Court's order setting this status conference (dkt. 6) directed the debtor to serve a copy of that order on all parties in interest no later than 14 days prior to this status conference. No proof of service appears on the docket. The tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 4/11/18 for the debtor to effect such service, with a caution to counsel that in future such failure may result in sanctions.

(b) Budget motion (dkt. 13). Grant on an interim basis, with a final hearing on the same date at the continued status conference set forth below.

Docket 19

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for 6/12/18:

Continue as set forth below. Appearances are not required on 6/12/18.

(1) Current issues.

(a) Motion to Extend (1) Time to Assume or Reject Leases and (2) Term of Store Closing Sales (dkt. 172). The tentative ruling is to grant this motion. The debtor is directed to serve and lodge proposed orders via this court's "LOU" system within 7 days after the hearing date.

(b) B&B Bachrach, LLC Post-Confirmation Status Conference (2:17-bk-15292-NB). The tentative ruling is to continue the post-confirmation status conference to the date and time set forth below to be heard concurrently with the continued status conference in the B&B Liquidating, LLC case.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 2/16/18.

(a) Bar date: Timely served (dkt. 155, 163, 167).

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: 8/31/18

(c) Continued status conference: Continue to 8/14/18 at 2:00 p.m.
Brief written status report due 7/31/18.

*Warning: special procedures apply (see order setting initial status conference).

Chapter 11

Tentative Ruling for 5/29/18:

Continue as set forth below. Appearances are not required on 5/29/18.

(1) Current issues. This Court has reviewed the debtor's status report (dkt. 171), and other related pleadings.

(a) Untimely Status Report and April MOR. This Court's tentative ruling for 5/1/18 (see below) directed the debtor to file a brief status report by 5/15/18, but the debtor did not file a status report until 5/18/18. Further, debtor did not file its April MOR until 5/23/18. The debtor is cautioned that failure to abide by applicable deadlines in future may result in adverse consequences.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 2/16/18.

(a) Bar date: Timely served (dkt. 155, 163, 167).

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: 8/31/18

(c) Continued status conference: Continue to 6/12/18 at 2:00 p.m. No status report required.

*Warning: special procedures apply (see order setting initial status conference).

Continue to 5/29/18 at 2:00 p.m. Appearances are not required on 5/1/18.

(1) Current issues.

(a) Background. At a post-confirmation status conference on 4/17/18 for B&B Bachrach (2:17-bk-15292-NB), debtor's counsel discussed the status of that case as well as the B&B Liquidating case. At counsel's request, this Court set a tentative bar date of 6/29/18, but advised counsel that this Court would hold off on issuing the bar date order (and may push the bar date back) pending resolution of the claims/noticing agent issues raised sua sponte by this Court.

(b) Cash Collateral/DIP Financing (dkt. 21, 22). The tentative ruling is to grant the motion on a final basis, as modified on the record at the hearing on 2/22/18, the interim order (dkt. 36), the amended budget (dkt. 65), and the second amended stipulation (dkt. 141). The debtor is directed to serve and lodge a proposed order via this court's "LOU" system within 7 days after the hearing date.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 2/16/18.

(a) Bar date: Tentatively set as 6/29/18. DO NOT serve any notice at this time (this Court will prepare an order after the claims/noticing issues are resolved) prepared, there is no proof of service of the debtor's motions. The following tentative rulings are subject to (i) adequate proof of service and (ii) any oppositions presented at or prior to the hearing. In addition, rather than stating at length this Court's reasoning, the following tentative rulings adopt, to the extent relevant, the reasoning of this Court regarding similar motions in the Bachrach case (no. 2:17-bk-15292-NB, dkt. 46-47).

(a) Notice/Service. Pursuant to LBR 9075-1(a)(2)(B), this Court has already orally and conditionally granted the debtor's request to shorten time on the motions identified below, subject to the right of any party in interest to object at or before the hearing to the adequacy of notice. With those limitations, the tentative ruling is to find notice adequate and grant the debtor's requests in its motions (e.g., dkt. 5, p.3:3-5) to excuse any requirement for telephonic notice provided that overnight delivery or other permissible expedited service (e.g., personal delivery, or email as permitted by applicable rules) has been delivered no later than 24 hours prior to this hearing to all persons with a pecuniary interest that could be adversely affected by the relief requested in each motion.

(b) Immediate relief. With respect to any immediate relief described below, the tentative ruling is that the debtor has shown sufficient cause for such immediate relief under Rule 6003 (Fed. R. Bankr. P.), to the extent applicable, and the other rules and procedures governing relief on an emergency or expedited basis.

(c) Limit Notice Motion (dkt. 3). The tentative ruling is to grant this motion, subject to the following adjustments. First, the Limited Service List must be augmented to include (i) junior lienholder Emerald Capital Funding, LLC ("Emerald") and (ii) the debtor's own bankruptcy counsel (because the motion apparently contemplates that all parties in interest - not just the debtor - will be authorized to use the Limited Service List). Second, this Court contemplates limitations that parallel this Court's modifications to the parallel order in the Bachrach case (no. 2:17-bk-15292-NB, dkt. 53).

(d) Utilities Motion (dkt. 4). The tentative ruling is to grant the motion on an interim basis, with a final hearing at the same time as the continued status conference set forth below.

(e) Tax Motion (dkt. 5). The tentative ruling is to grant the motion on an interim basis, with a final hearing at the same time as the continued status conference set forth below.

(f) Cash Management Motion (dkt. 6). The tentative ruling is to grant the motion on the following conditions on an interim basis, with a final hearing at the same time as the continued status conference set forth below. No later than 2/23/18 the debtor must file a declaration of its CFO or other appropriate person certifying that, first, the debtor has taken measures to assure that prepetition debts are not paid out of its existing accounts (e.g., stopping payment on prepetition checks, except to the extent authorized by this court), and second, the debtor is maintaining sufficiently detailed books and records that, if it becomes necessary to analyze the debtor's finances as of the petition date, such analysis will not be impaired by the non-closing of the debtor's prepetition accounts.

(g) Lease Rejection Motion (dkt. 7). The tentative ruling is to grant the motion on a final basis.

(h) Employee Wages Motion (dkt. 8). The tentative ruling is to grant this motion immediately and on a final basis as to the employees, and to grant it as to the retention of Modern HR, Inc. ("HR") either immediately or at a continued hearing if the debtor can provide an offer of proof or evidence that HR's rates are within normal market rates for comparable services.

(i) Store Closing Sale Motion (dkt. 17). The tentative ruling is to approve the retention of Great American Group LLC and Tiger Capital Group LLC (collectively, "Liquidation Consultant") subject to the filing, no later than 2/23/18, of a satisfactory statement of Liquidation Consultant's disinterestedness on Local Form F 2014-1.STMT.DISINTEREST.PROF. In addition, the tentative ruling is to authorize the proposed sales of the debtor's inventory and furniture, fixtures and equipment ("FF&E"), free and clear of any liens, claims, encumbrances or other interests of all persons/entities who have been served with the motion, with all such interests to attach to proceeds of such sales, under 11 U.S.C. 363(b) and (f)(1), (2) and (5), for the reasons stated in the motion papers. In addition, the tentative ruling with respect to compliance with nonbankruptcy liquidation laws, restrictions in leases, and abandonment of property is to track the limitations in this Court's interim order on the parallel motion in the Bachrach case (no. 2:17-bk-15292-NB, dkt. 71). In addition, the tentative ruling is to grant all such relief on an interim basis, with a final hearing at the same time as the continued status conference set forth below.

(j) Cash Collateral/DIP Financing (dkt. 21, 22). The parties should be prepared to address the following issues. (i) Is there any evidence that the debtor is "unable" to obtain credit by granting a "senior or equal lien" to the lien of Siena Lending Group, LLC ("Siena"), within the meaning of 11 U.S.C. 364(d)(1)(A)? (ii) Why would it be appropriate for this Court to approve a roll-up, cross-collateralization, and other provisions that generally are disapproved (see dkt. 22)? (iii) Why should this Court grant broader relief in this case than it did in approving a similar motion in the Bachrach case (no. 2:17-bk-15292-NB, dkt. 46, Ex.A, pp.5-9, and dkt. 50)? The tentative ruling is to authorize either consensual or non-consensual use of cash collateral and, if the terms can be modified sufficiently to be acceptable, the proposed DIP financing, on an interim basis, with a final hearing at the same time as the continued status conference set forth below.

(k) Notice of continued hearings. The tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 2/27/18 for the debtor to file and serve a notice of the final hearing on all motions that are only granted on an interim basis, and to set the same deadline for the debtor to file any supplements or amendments to such motions, with deadlines of 3/6/18 for any opposition and 3/13/18 for any reply.

(l) Proposed Orders. This court intends to file these tentative rulings on the docket (with the caption, "Memorialization Of Tentative rulings" or the like). Thereafter, if appropriate, all orders can grant or deny relief "for the reasons stated in the Memorialization Of Tentative Rulings (dkt. __), as modified or supplemented on the record at the hearing" (or similar language). The debtor is directed to serve and lodge proposed orders via this court's "LOU" system within 7 days after the hearing date.

In view of the shortened time on the foregoing motions, parties in interest may appear and dispute the foregoing tentative rulings without prior notice to the debtor or the court (contrary to the usual requirements for "tentative rulings" under Judge Bason's Procedures, posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov).

(a) Joint Plan/ Joint Disclosure Statement proposed by the Sakurais and related debtor Checkmate King Co., Ltd., and supporting declaration (Sakurai dkt. 176, 177, 178). At the status conference this Court will address numerous issues with these documents.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 10/16/17.

(a) Bar date: 1/17/18 (order timely served. dkt. 58, 59)

(b) Joint Plan/Disclosure Statement* (dkt. 176, 177): The tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 5/22/18 to file (NOT SERVE - except on the U.S. Trustee) an amended joint plan and amended joint disclosure statement to address the foregoing issues.

(c) Continued status conference: 6/12/18 at 2:00 p.m. No status report required.

*Warning: special procedures apply (see order setting initial status conference).

(a) Motion for Relief from Stay (dkt. 48). In light of the proposed settlement with the Fresco Parties, the tentative ruling is to continue the hearing to be concurrent with the continued status conference (see below).

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement. The tentative ruling is to conduct a combined hearing on the adequacy of the (forthcoming) disclosure statement and confirmation of the (forthcoming) plan to be concurrent with the continued status conference (see below).

(c) Fresco Adversary Proceeding (adv. case no. 2:17-ap-01558-NB), including motion to remand (adv. dkt. 8). The tentative ruling is that this matter will be mooted, assuming that this Court approves the parties' proposed settlement, and therefore this matter should go off calendar. The parties are reminded to file appropriate papers to have this matter dismissed once the settlement is fully implemented.

(1) Current issues

(a) Dec MOR (dkt. 97):

(i) On page 1 of 34, the MOR reflects $793,000 in cash receipts for the pre-petition Community Bank Sakurai Family Trust savings account, with a notation that Community Bank initially seized, but has since returned, the funds. What is this money from? Is it currently being held? Is it available to pay secured or unsecured creditors?

(ii) On page 7 of 34, there is a line item reflecting a $5,000 payment to Mr. Aronson for legal fees. At the status conference on 1/9/18 this court highlighted that the Sakurais had made a similar payment in November for Mr. Aronson's fees and counsel stated that the payment was made in error, and the debtors and their counsel assured this court that this issue would be addressed. By no later than February 7, 2018, Mr. Aronson is directed to file a declaration addressing the status of the $10,000 in legal fees ($5,000 Nov; $5,000 Dec) that he received from the Sakurais.

(b) Turnover of Documents and Information, etc. The parties must be prepared to address what documents and information have been produced by the debtors, and all other issues appropriate to raise at a status conference, including the issues in their recent status reports and related documents (case no. 2:17-bk-22660-NB, dkt. 87, 104, 105, 114, and 2:17-bk-22648-NB, dkt. 90, 93, 100, 102, 104, 105, 106, 109, 112, 113).

If appearances are required, and you fail to appear without adequately resolving this matter by consent, then you may waive your right to be heard on matters that are appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

Tentative Ruling for 1/23/18:

Continue all matters scheduled for today in the Sakurai and Checkmate cases and related adversary proceeding to 1/30/18 at 2:00 p.m. in view of the apparent inability of the Office of the United States Trustee to appear due to the shutdown of much of the federal government. At the continued hearing the parties must be prepared to address all issues appropriate to raise at a status conference, including the issues in their recent status reports and related documents (case no. 2:17-bk-22660-NB, dkt. 87, 104, 105, and 2:17-bk-22648-NB, dkt. 90, 93, 100, 102, 104, 105, 106, 109). Tentative Ruling for 1/9/18:

Appearances required by the debtor's counsel.

Proposed orders: The debtor is directed to serve and lodge proposed orders on each motion listed below via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date.

(1) Current issues

(a) Status Report (dkt. 90): The status report states that the debtor's business is dormant with respect to its financing of the purchase of used medical equipment. Where is Radiology Solutions storing the $4.6M worth of financed equipment and does the debtor have a perfected security interest in the equipment?

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 10/16/17.

(a) Bar date: 1/17/18 (order timely served, dkt. 63, 69)

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: file by 4/16/18 using the forms required by Judge Bason (DO NOT SERVE yet, except on the U.S. Trustee - the court will set a deadline and procedures at a later time).

(c) Continued status conference: 3/6/18 at 1:00 p.m. Brief status report due 2/20/18.

Revised Tentative Ruling for 11/14/17:

Appearances required by the debtor's principals and debtor's counsel.

Proposed orders: The debtor is directed to serve and lodge proposed orders on each motion listed below via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date.

(1) Current issues

(a) Status Report (dkt. 37): The status report states that the debtor has no executory contracts. What about all the contracts with Radiology Solutions Inc./Corp. (whichever name is correct)?

(b) Cash collateral motion (dkt.9): The debtor reports (dkt. 53, p.3) that it has reached a stipulation with Community Bank regarding the use of cash collateral, but as of the preparation of this tentative ruling no such stipulation appears on the docket. If there is no such stipulation, or if it does not moot the bank's opposition (dkt. 50), then the parties should be prepared to address the merits of that opposition. In addition, the parties should be prepared to address the objection of the Fresco parties (dkt. 49) and the debtor's response (dkt. 53).

(c) Payroll motion (dkt. 6). The tentative ruling is to grant this motion on a final basis.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 10/16/17.

(a) Bar date: 1/17/18

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: file by 4/16/18 using the forms required by Judge Bason (DO NOT SERVE yet, except on the U.S. Trustee - the court will set a deadline and procedures at a later time).

(c) Continued status conference: 12/19/17 at 1:00 p.m. Brief status report due 12/7/17.

Docket 1

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for 6/12/18:

Appearances required.

(1) Current Issues.

(a) Joint Status Report and Notice of Continuances. This Court's 5/8/18 tentative ruling (see below) was not opposed, so it became this Court's actual ruling.

This Court directed (i) Checkmate to file and serve a notice of continuances attaching and incorporating by reference the deadlines in that tentative ruling by 5/7/18, and (ii) the parties to file a brief joint status report by 5/29/18. As of the preparation of this tentative ruling, none of the parties have complied. The parties are cautioned that failure to abide by applicable deadlines in future may result in adverse consequences.

(b) Motion for TRO & Claim and Delivery (adv. dkt. 10).

Plaintiff/debtor Checkmate King Co., Ltd. ("Checkmate") has filed a stipulation (adv. dkt. 30) with defendants Radiology Solutions Corp. ("RS") and George Fower ("Fower") for turnover of equipment. But Checkmate has not provided any evidence that it has relief from the automatic stay and consent of the Chapter 7 Trustee in the RS and Fower bankruptcy cases for such turnover (Case Nos. 8:18-bk-10585-TA and 8:18-bk-10583-TA). The tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 6/19/18 for Checkmate to file a declaration attaching evidence sufficient to establish those things, and lodge a revised proposed order to approve the stipulation.

(2) Deadlines: This adversary proceeding has been pending since 3/6/18. It is premature to set a discovery cutoff and other deadlines at this time.

Continue to 7/17/18 at 2:00 p.m., brief joint status report due 7/3/18.

If appearances are required, and you fail to appear without adequately resolving this matter by consent, then you may waive your right to be heard on matters that are appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

Tentative Ruling for 5/8/18:

The tentative ruling is to continue all pending matters in this adversary proceeding to 6/12/18 at 2:00 p.m. for the reason stated below, with a brief joint status report due 5/29/18, and with a deadline of 5/7/18 for the plaintiff to file and serve a notice of continuances attaching and incorporating by reference the deadlines in this tentative ruling (assuming that this Court is not persuaded to depart from this tentative ruling). Appearances are not required on 5/8/18.

(1) Current Issues. This Court has reviewed the parties' status reports (adv. dkt. 24 & 26) and the other filed documents and records in this adversary proceeding.

(a) Motion for TRO & Claim and Delivery (adv. dkt. 10). At the 4/9/18 hearing on this motion, counsel for plaintiff/debtor Checkmate King Co., Ltd. ("Checkmate") apprised this Court of the bankruptcy filings of defendants Radiology Solutions Corp. ("RS") and George Fower ("Fower") (Case Nos. 8:18-bk-10585-TA and 8:18-bk-10583-TA) and requested a continuance of this hearing to allow time to obtain orders granting relief from stay with annulment. In the Joint status report (adv. dkt. 24), Checkmate states that the hearings on the relief from stay motions are scheduled for 5/15/18. Accordingly, the tentative ruling is to continue this motion to the date and time set forth at the start of this tentative ruling.

(b) Siemens Motion to Dismiss (adv. dkt. 27, the "MTD"). Defendant Siemens Medical Solutions USA, Inc. ("Siemens") has properly selfcalendared its MTD for 6/12/18 at 11:00 a.m. Siemens anticipates that it may be voluntarily dismissed by plaintiff (see adv. dkt. 24), but if that does not occur then this Court anticipates that the MTD may take 15 minutes or more to hear. This Court's practice is that matters anticipated to take 15 minutes or more are heard on the 2:00 p.m. calendar (not available for self-calendaring, except by permission of this Court). Therefore the tentative ruling is to re-calendar the MTD from 11:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m., which is concurrent with the other matters in this adversary proceeding that are on today's calendar.

(2) Deadlines: This adversary proceeding has been pending since 3/6/18. It is premature to set a discovery cutoff and other deadlines at this time.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." 2D COPY OF DRAFT TENTATIVE RULING (AS OF early 5/7/18) (BACKUP).

Tentative Ruling for 5/7/18:

Appearances required.

(1) Current issues.

(a) Urgency. The matters set forth below are all colloquially known as "first day," "emergency," or urgent motions that typically would have been resolved by now, except that the facts could not be determined without (expedited) discovery. See dkt. 175 (discovery order). In addition, the motion for relief from the automatic stay is generally subject to a 30-day limit (11 U.S.C. 362(e)), although that has been extended in this case. See LBR 4001-1(c)(3).

(b) Cash collateral & budget motions (dkt. 5, 14, 15, 29, 74, 151, 152, 163, 164, 167-68, 171, 176; and 96, 146, 161).

(i) Legal standards, generally. A chapter 11 debtor who is in possession of the bankruptcy estate (11 U.S.C. 1101(1)) has the duties of a trustee for the benefit of creditors (11 U.S.C. 1107), including a fiduciary duty to protect and conserve property of the estate. See, e.g., In re McConville, 110 F.3d 47, 50 (9th Cir. 1997). Just like a trustee, the debtor may use, sell, or lease property of the bankruptcy estate in the "ordinary course of business" (11 U.S.C. 363(c)(1)), but may not use any property other than in the ordinary course of business" without authorization from the Bankruptcy Court after notice and a hearing. 11 U.S.C. 363(b)(1).

Chapter 11

In addition, if property at issue is the "cash collateral" of any entity (as defined in 11 U.S.C. 363(a)) then the debtor may not use it at all without prior authorization (or the consent of the entities with an interest in that cash collateral). 11 U.S.C. 363(c)(2).

Any entities with an interest in property of the estate may request that the court require the debtor provide "adequate protection" to them. 11 U.S.C. 363(e). The Bankruptcy Court "shall" condition or prohibit any proposed use, sale, or lease of property to the extent necessary to provide such adequate protection.

Adequate protection may include periodic cash payments, replacement liens, or other things. 11 U.S.C. 361. But those things must protect the economic interests of the entities with an interest in property of the estate. Id.

(ii) Legal standards, as applied to individual debtors. There is not a great deal of authority about how to apply the foregoing standards to individual debtors. First, if the ordinary course of "business" were read to mean only commercial business then theoretically a debtor essentially would not be authorized to spend anything without prior court authorization. See In re Goldstein, 383 B.R. 486 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2007).

But ordinary living expenses are implicitly part of an individual debtor's everyday "business." Thus, the debtor is automatically authorized by section 363(b) to use property of the estate (except cash collateral) without court approval for such basics such as food, shelter, and ordinary and necessary expenses such as personal care products and some entertainment. See In re Seely, 492 B.R. 284, 289-91 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2013).

Second, just like commercial business transactions, individual debtors' transactions probably are subject to both (A) a "vertical" or "creditors' expectation" test and (B) a "horizontal" test. See Seely, 492 B.R. 284, 289-91 & n.7 (applying In re Dant & Russell, Inc., 853 F.2d 700, 704-05 (9th Cir. 1988)).

The "vertical" or "creditors' expectation" test asks whether the transaction at issue subjects a hypothetical creditor to economic risks of a nature different from those the creditor accepted when deciding to extend credit. This compares the debtor's proposed postpetition transaction with the debtor's prepetition background to see if there is a history of similar transactions. Dant & Russell, 853 F.2d 700, 704-05. The "horizontal" test asks whether persons who are similarly situated to the debtor ordinarily would engage in such transactions. Id.

Debtors sometimes take an overly aggressive view of what is the "ordinary course" of their business. Therefore a budget motion is required under the posted Procedures of Judge Bason (available at www.cacb.uscourts.gov). Compare Seely, 492 B.R. 284, n.5 & accompanying text (Bluebond, J., declining to require debtors to file budget motions, but cautioning that it might be advisable to seek prior authorization for any budget).

Once it is determined that section 363(b)(1) applies - i.e., that court authorization is required (beyond any authorization required for use of cash collateral) - it is unclear what standards the Bankruptcy Court should apply in deciding whether or not to authorize a proposed expenditure. See In re Villalobos, 2011 WL 4485793 (9th Cir. BAP 8/19/11) (noting uncertainty, and remanding on that issue). The parties have not briefed that issue.

The tentative ruling is that the debtor bears the burden to establish that the proposed expenditure is in the best interests of the estate. See Goldstein, 383 B.R. 496, 502. For example, in a situation involving divorcing debtors, it was held that each debtor had to show that employment of special counsel to handle not only the property division aspect of the divorce but also the dissolution aspect was "for the benefit of the estate and not for the debtor's personal benefit." Id. But because dissolution of the marriage was essential to disentangle the debtors' domestic lives, and move forward with the bankruptcy case, it was held that it was appropriate to authorize employment of counsel to handle both dissolution and property division.

Note that the foregoing test under section 363(b)(1) is in addition to, not in place of, the requirement for adequate protection under section 363(e). Therefore the relevant questions are as follows. First, does the proposed budget of the debtor, Ms. Hollister, use cash in which Bird Nest or RCALA have an interest and, if so, has the debtor met her burden to show that those interests are adequately protected? Second, does the proposed budget include transactions that are out of the ordinary course and, if so, has the debtor met her burden to establish that the proposed expenditures are in the best interests of the estate?

Chapter 11

(ii) ... [BACKGROUND RE CASH FLOW & ASSETS/APPRAISALS]

(iii) [CASH COLLATERAL]

(iv) Insurance. The debtor has provided evidence that the insurance policy premiums of $1,065/mo. are "ordinary" under the vertical test. because she apparently has been paying them for several years (she declares that she purchased the policy in 2012). See dkt. 161, p.4, para. 3. But the debtor provides no argument or evidence that the expense of a $3 million insurance policy is "ordinary" under the horizontal test. Therefore, court approval is required under section 362(b)(1), and the debtor bears the burden to show that the proposed expenditure is in the best interests of the estate.

In addition, the debtor must show that paying for $3 million of coverage is consistent with providing adequate protection to Bird Nest and RCALA.

(v) Car payments. The debtor pays $_____/mo. for her vehicle, consisting of both payments on the car loan balance of approximately $68,000 and "what appears to be 3 years of pre-paid maintenance." Dkt. 161, p.3:5. The debtor states that she is not opposed to seeking to refinance this debt, when she has more time. Dkt. 161, p.5, para. 11.

(c) Relief from stay motion (dkt. ).

(d) Motion to authorize transaction out of ordinary course re Bridge Tavern, LLC ("Bridge") (dkt. 112, 140, 150, 156) and motion to employ Urbanlime Real Estate (Leslie Haro) ("Urbanlime") (dkt. 93, 121, 133, 134, 142, 157, 177, 179). No written opposition has been filed to the motion to liquidate and wind up Bridge (dkt. 112, the "Bridge Motion"). It is also supported by the Committee (dkt. 140). The motion to employ Urbanlime (dkt. 93, the "Urbanlime Motion") is opposed by Pierre Casanova, a co-owner of LLCs related to the Cliff's Edge restaurant. It is supported, however, by the Committee (dkt. 142).

Several aspects of these related motions are troubling. The debtor apparently has disregarded her duties as a trustee for the benefit of creditors by: (i) entering into a commitment to transfer the Bridge leasehold without the landlord's consent, (ii) reopening the Bridge business without notice or authorization by this Court, (iii) hiring a professional, out of the ordinary course of her business, to retroactively create books and records, without any notice or assurance that the professional is disinterested and qualified, (iv) marketing businesses for sale before having reliable books and records for those businesses, thereby possibly chilling the current bidding and any future sales, (v) hiring Urbanlime as a broker without without safeguards required by this Court, and (vi) marketing and entering into an agreement to sell the Cliff's Edge-related LLCs without proper notice to, let alone authorization by, the co-owner of those LLCs.

(i) Landlord.

Attached to the Bridge Motion is an agreement to sell the business for $495,000 (the "Bridge Agreement"), and although that agreement is expressly contingent on this Court's approval (dkt. 112, Ex.1, para. 24) it does not appear (from this Court's brief review) to include any contingency for approval by the landlord. After the Bridge Motion was filed, the debtor and landlord Odysseus Investment Group, LLC ("Bridge Landlord") stipulated (dkt. 150) to continue the hearing - presumably to address whether the landlord will consent to the assignment of the leasehold.

Is this Court misinterpreting the record? Regardless, why did the debtor market the Bridge assets, enter into the Bridge Agreement, and file the Bridge Motion without obtaining the Bridge Landlord's consent, or even disclosing in the Bridge Motion that such consent was needed? What is the status of the debtor's negotiations with Bridge Landlord? Have those negotiations resulted in any new terms that would make the proposed Bridge Agreement less advantageous for the estate and/or require disclosure to creditors and an opportunity to object by amending and re-noticing the Bridge Motion? The tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 5/14/18 for the debtor to file and serve her declaration addressing those things.

(ii) Reopening the business. The debtor's reply in support of the motion to hire Urbanlime states (dkt. 157, p.3:4-6) that the Bridge business ("Villain's Tavern") previously was not operating but as of April 20, 2018 it has been reopened. Again, this revelation is troubling.

Has reopening the business cost the bankruptcy estate money? Is the debtor guaranteed to recoup that money?

This Court recognizes that, even if it involved some expense, reopening the business might be the best way to maximize the Bridge assets' value, or could be a good idea for other reasons. But that is not the point.

The point is that, just as the debtor acknowledges that causing Bridge to sell its business is a transaction out of the ordinary course, so is causing Bridge to reopen its closed business. In other words, the debtor has used estate assets "other than in the ordinary course of business," requiring approval under 11 U.S.C. 363(b) (emphasis added). Why did the debtor act without Court authorization?

This Court recognizes that reopening the business might not cost the bankruptcy estate anything if the business is being funded and operated by the proposed new owner. But that in itself would be a transaction out of the ordinary course.

All of the foregoing raises the question what is actually meant by the debtor's delphic phrase that Villain's Tavern "has been reopened and is now operating." Dkt. 157, p.3:6. The tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 5/10/18 for the debtor to file and serve her declaration addressing those things.

(iii) "Controller" Jeffrey Garrison. The same reply in support of the Bridge Motion states (dkt. 157, p.2:3-8) that the debtor hired a "controller" after the petition date. The debtor apparently had not used a controller in the ordinary course of her businesses prepetition, because she admits (dkt. 157, p.2:9-17) that "in most cases" her "books and records were either non-existent, or rudimentary" and the controller is in the process of retroactively creating books and records from "source materials." Id.

It is true that usually a debtor engaged in business can hire regular employees, who may include controllers, bookkeepers, and the like, without having to seek authorization under 11 U.S.C. 327 or 363(b)(1). Likewise, if a debtor has used a non-employee tax accountant prepetition, it may be permissible to continue using that accountant postpetition without court authorization if the work is not central to the bankruptcy process but instead is part of the "ordinary course" operations of the debtor.

But this case does not appear to be anything like those situations. Mr. Garrison is a certified public accountant who was hired for his present tasks postpetition, and he does not appear to be an officer or employee of one or more of the debtor's businesses or the debtor herself. See dkt. 157, pp. 13-14 (Garrison decl.). Rather, he appears to be an accountant who is retroactively creating books and records for use in this bankruptcy case, and who fits the classic definition of a professional whose employment must be authorized under 11 U.S.C. 327. See, e.g., In re That's Entertainment Mktg.

Group, Inc., 168 B.R. 226, 230 (N.D. Cal. 1994) (professional person is one who plays "an intimate role in the reorganization of a debtor's estate") (citations omitted).

The fact that Mr. Garrison's employment was not authorized is particularly troubling because none of the usual safeguards have been applied to assure that his employment is consistent with the best interests of the estate. Such safeguards are especially important when the person at issue has been hired to go through the debtor's "source documents" and retroactively create books and records. There is too much opportunity for whitewashing or other mischief when charged with such an important task.

Normal safeguards would include disclosing any "connections" with all parties in interest, providing evidence of qualifications, and proving that the proposed professional is disinterested and does not hold or represent any interest adverse to the bankruptcy estate. See 11 U.S.C. 101(14), 327(a) and Rule 2014 (Fed. R. Bankr. P.). Mr. Garrison's declaration does none of these things, except to declare that he has done "some work related to the Debtor's sole proprietorship businesses ...." Dkt. 157, p.13, para.5.

The tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 5/14/18 for the debtor and Mr. Garrison to file and serve declarations stating under oath all "connections" within the scope of Rule 2014, together with a motion for authority to employ Mr. Garrison (both retroactively and prospectively) under both section 327(a) and 363(b), to the extent that each may be applicable, and set that motion for hearing concurrent with the continued status conference.

(iv) Chilling the market? As noted above, the debtor concedes that most of the books and records with respect to her businesses are "either non-existent, or rudimentary," and her newly-hired controller is still in the process of attempting to construct books and records (dkt. 157, p.2:9-17). Yet the debtor states that "Ms. Haro [Urbanlime] has been informally shopping the three Cliff's entities for months" (dkt. 157, p.4:5-6) and has been "test[ing] the market" for her businesses (dkt. 157, p.5:18-24).

Normally, in this Court's experience, a buyer of a business requires reliable historical books and records, or else will impose a steep discount. Has the debtor used appropriate business judgment in marketing the businesses already? Has the market been chilled, and the estate harmed?

The tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 5/14/18 for the debtor to file and serve her declaration addressing those things.

(v) Employment of Urbanlime. The debtor has filed a separate motion to employ Urbanlime, not just for Bridge but for GJV, Inc. and the Cliff's Edge-related LLCs as well (dkt. 93, the "Urbanlime Motion"). That motion does not cite any section of the Bankruptcy Code, so it is unclear if Urbanlime's retention is sought to be approved under 11 U.S.C. 363(b) (as part of the use of the debtor's interest in Bridge out of the ordinary course) or under 11 U.S.C. 327 and/or 328 (retention of professionals).

The Committee supports that application (dkt. 142). That application nevertheless implicates the following issues.

First, this Court notes that Pierre Casanova, who is a 50% member with the debtor of the Cliff's Edge-related LLCs, has objected to Urbanlime's retention, but he takes no position with respect to Urbanlime's services involving Bridge or GJV, Inc. provided that the other LLCs' funds are not used to compensate Urbanlime. See dkt. 133, p.5, n.1. The tentative ruling is that any compensation to Urbanlime must come solely from proceeds of the transaction at issue, not from any other source.

Second, the Bridge Motion asserts that the application to hire Urbanlime "is probably not necessary" (dkt. 112, p.5:2), at least with respect to Bridge, because the sale, allegedly, is by the business not by the debtor herself. That assertion is not adequately supported.

For one thing, it is unclear whether the business purchase agreement (dkt. 112, Ex.1) is signed by the debtor in her personal capacity as well as on behalf of the business. Typed below her signature is "Dana Hollister/Bridge Tavern LLC." Dkt. 112, Ex.1, para. 46.

For another thing, the listing agreement with Urbanlime is also ambiguous. Its signature line (dkt. 93, Ex. C, at p.27) reads, "Clients: Dana Hollister, Pierre Casanova," which suggests that they are hiring Urbanlime in their individual capacities. It is true that the listing agreement is signed solely by the debtor (not Mr. Casanova), and she uses the title "President" - i.e., perhaps she is purporting to sign as the managing member (colloquially, "President") of the LLCs? But Mr. Casanova objects that the debtor had no authority to sign the listing agreement, either for him or for the Cliff's Edge-related LLCs. See dkt. 133, 134, 177. Cf. dkt. 157, p.5:1-5 (debtor's reply, still ambiguous). In sum, it is ambiguous in what capacity the debtor has signed the listing agreement, and therefore whether Urbanlime is being hired by the estate or by Bridge.

For all of these reasons, the ambiguous documentation suggests that Urbanlime may be representing the debtor/estate, not just Bridge. That may be a problem because Urbanlime discloses that it might act as broker for both the buyer and the seller (it is unclear whether it has in fact done so) and the posted Procedures of Judge Bason (available at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) give notice such dual agency is disapproved for persons hired by the estate (due to actual and potential conflicts of interest).

Alternatively, even if Urbanlime is not being hired by the debtor/estate directly, the tentative ruling is that it would be inappropriate to authorize a transaction out of the ordinary course under 11 U.S.C. 363(b) that had the effect of authorizing the retention of a professional by Bridge, whose goal should be to maximize the sale price, when that professional also represents a buyer whose interest is to minimize the sale price (among other terms of any purchase and sale). In other words, whether Urbanlime's retention is included within the Bridge Motion (11 U.S.C. 363(b)) or the Unrbanlime Application (11 U.S.C. 327, 328 and/or 363(b)), the tentative ruling is that if Urbanlime is hired it cannot engage in dual agency: it must arrange for a separate agent for the buyer.

That is potentially a serious problem. As noted above, the Villain's Tavern business has been reopened, and it is not clear who is running it. If the sale of the Bridge business and leasehold has already effectively occurred, it is questionable whether it will be possible to "unscramble the eggs" and arrange for the seller (the debtor/estate) and the buyer to have representation that is truly independent.

The tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 5/14/18 for the debtor to file and serve declarations by the debtor and Ms. Haro addressing those things. Those declarations must include all "connections" within the scope of Rule 2014.

(vi) Lack of notice to, or authorization by, Mr. Casanova. Mr. Casanova asserts, and the debtor does not deny, that she cannot act for the Cliff's Edge-related LLCs without his consent. But rather than serve him with papers in this bankruptcy case, the debtor has served the LLCs at her own address. See dkt. 133, 134, 177. Cf. dkt. 157.

The debtor argues that there is no harm to Mr. Casanova because he ended up finding out about the proposed transactions, and he can withhold his consent if he chooses. See dkt. 157. The debtor ignores the fact that, by not serving Mr. Casanova properly, she has misused the bankruptcy process. She also ignores the fact that, by already marketing the Cliff's Edge-related LLCs when she lacked the right to sell them, she may have promised prospective buyers what she cannot deliver and thereby chilled the bidding for any future marketing and sale.

(vii) Conclusion as to Bridge and Urbanlime. The tentative ruling is also to deny the Urbanlime Motion with respect to the Cliff's Edge-related entities. If the foregoing concerns in sections (1)(c)(i)-(vi) are adequately addressed, the tentative ruling is (A) to grant the Bridge Motion and (B) grant the Urbanlime Motion solely with respect to Bridge and GJV, Inc. But first the appropriate declarations must be filed, and the tentative ruling is to continue the Bridge Motion and the Urbanlime Motion to the same date and time as the continued status conference, with any supplemental oppositions and replies due at the usual time prior to the hearing (under the Local Bankruptcy Rules).

(d) Other employment applications. The parties should be prepared to address the oppositions (dkt. 56, 57) and the direct and indirect source(s) of funds used by the debtor to pay prepetition retainers (see dkt. 48, and cf. dkt. 9, p.6, dkt. 18, p.8, dkt. 20, p.8 - blank spaces instead of disclosure), including when the liens against the 1902 property arose (dkt. 48, Ex.A). In addition, the parties should be prepared to address the following issues:

(i) Proposed bankruptcy counsel - Tilem (dkt. 9, 10): (i) Why were resumes for associates, paralegals, and persons who are "of counsel" to the firm not included? (ii) Has counsel waived or amended the provisions in the retainer agreement regarding the "evergreen" retainer; "overtime" rates, and any attorney's lien? (iii) As for proposed out-sourcing, counsel must address whether employment of such counsel could result in imputed or actual conflicts of interest from any work performed by such attorneys for their own clients or for other law firms.

(ii) Proposed special counsel: the Robins firm and Horvitz firm (dkt. 18, 19, 20, 21). The hourly rates of proposed counsel at the Robins firm and Horvitz firm are substantially greater than those for the debtor's proposed general bankruptcy counsel and the Snyder firm. How will the debtor - acting as a debtor in possession with the duties of a trustee for the benefit of creditors - assure that the potential benefits are not outweighed by the costs that can be reasonably anticipated in connection with the ongoing litigation with Birds Nest, the Archbishop, and the Institute (as those terms are defined in the parties' papers)?

(iii) Proposed special counsel: the Snyder firm (dkt. 36, 37). (i)

What is the nature of the litigation in which that firm represents the debtor and co-plaintiff, Bridge Tavern, LLC against Odysseuss Investment Group, LLC? Tentative Ruling for 3/20/18:

Appearances required by counsel for the debtor. Other parties in interest are invited but not required to appear.

Telephonic appearances are encouraged if advance arrangements are made (see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.", "Instructions/Procedures").

(1) Current issues.

(a) Cash flow and cash collateral motion (dkt. 5, 14, 15, 29). This Court's written order (dkt. 29) erroneously lists the continued hearing as 3/20/18 instead of 4/17/18 at 2:00 p.m., as orally ordered at the hearing on 3/9/18. Nevertheless, it is appropriate in connection with this Status Conference to address the debtor's current and projected cash flow and related issues.

This Court was not persuaded at the hearing on 3/9/18 that the debtor can generate positive cash flow. The debtor is directed to provide a brief update on any plans to generate positive cash flow from her various businesses and properties. It is also appropriate for other parties in interest to address whether there has been adequate disclosure to date regarding the finances of those businesses and properties. The debtor is cautioned that the declaration due on 3/27/18 must provide comprehensive disclosures regarding those businesses and properties: if the debtor cannot show reasonable prospects for positive cash flow within a reasonable time then this Court might have to grant relief from the automatic stay (upon a proper motion), or convert or dismiss this bankruptcy case, at least if the debtor does not abandon unprofitable businesses or properties.

(b) Employment applications. The parties should be prepared to address the oppositions (dkt. 56, 57) and the direct and indirect source(s) of funds used by the debtor to pay prepetition retainers (see dkt. 48, and cf. dkt. 9, p.6, dkt. 18, p.8, dkt. 20, p.8 - blank spaces instead of disclosure), including when the liens against the 1902 property arose (dkt. 48, Ex.A). In addition, the parties should be prepared to address the following issues:

DEUTSCHE BANK NATIONAL TRUST COMPANY
VS
DEBTOR

Docket 56

Tentative Ruling:

Grant as provided below. Appearances are not required.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this court's final ruling. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

Termination. Terminate the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1) and (d)(4).

Any co-debtor stay (11 U.S.C. 1301(c)) is also terminated, because it has not been shown to have any basis to exist independent of the stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(a). To the extent, if any, that the motion seeks to terminate the automatic stay in other past or pending bankruptcy cases, such relief is denied on the present record. See In re Ervin (Case No. 14-bk-18204-NB, docket no. 311).

Relief notwithstanding future bankruptcy cases.

Grant the following relief pursuant to 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(4) and the legal analysis in In re Vazquez (case no. 2:16-bk-10699-NB, dkt. 75) and/or In re Choong (case no. 2:14-bk-28378-NB, docket no. 31), as applicable:

If this order is duly recorded in compliance with applicable State laws governing notices of interests or liens in the property at issue, then no automatic stay shall apply to such property in any bankruptcy case purporting to affect such property and filed within two years after the date of entry of this order, unless otherwise ordered by the court presiding over that bankruptcy case.

possession of such property shall not be stayed. Any additional request for relief applicable to future bankruptcy cases is denied (e.g., any request to grant relief against third parties without any notice is denied) due to lack of sufficient factual or legal grounds presented in support of such relief.

Docket 16

Tentative Ruling:

Grant, subject to the following conditions. Appearances are not required.

After the hearing date this court will prepare an order and the tentative ruling is to include the following language in that order:

The stay of 11 U.S.C. 362(a) applies subject to the following modifications and conditions:

(1) Service and reconsideration. Any party in interest who was not timely served in accordance with FRBP 7004 (incorporated by FRBP 9014(b)) is hereby granted through 14 days after proper service to seek reconsideration, including retroactive relief (under FRBP 9023 and/or 9024). Any such person (a) may set a hearing on 14 days' notice, (b) may appear by telephone (if arrangements are made per Judge Bason's posted procedures), and (c) may present all arguments orally at the hearing (i.e., no written argument is required). If written arguments appear necessary then this court will set a briefing schedule at the hearing.

(2) Reasons. (a) It appears appropriate to impose the automatic stay, and to impose it as to all persons rather than just as to selected persons, because one purpose of the automatic stay is to preventing a "race to collect" that could unfairly advantage some creditors at the expense of others. (b) To prevent possible abuse, this court provides the foregoing simple process for reconsideration.

Docket 16

Tentative Ruling:

Grant in part and continue in part to 6/26/18 at 10:00 a.m. as set forth below.
Appearances are not required on 6/19/18.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this court's final ruling. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

The automatic stay does not apply. This case has been dismissed, which terminates the automatic stay. See 11 USC 349(b)(3) & 362(c).

In the alternative and in addition, this court grants relief from the automatic stay as follows.

Termination. Terminate the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1).

Any co-debtor stay (11 U.S.C. 1301(c)) is also terminated, because it has not been shown to have any basis to exist independent of the stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(a). To the extent, if any, that the motion seeks to terminate the automatic stay in other past or pending bankruptcy cases, such relief is denied on the present record. See In re Ervin (Case No. 14-bk-18204-NB, docket no. 311).

Retroactive relief. Grant the request for retroactive annulment of the stay. See In re Fjeldsted, 293 B.R. 12 (9th Cir. BAP 2003).

Relief notwithstanding future bankruptcy cases.

future bankruptcy case, continue the motion to the date and time set forth at the start of this tentative ruling, for service on the persons who executed the documents through which the movant asserts its interest in the property (sometimes referred to in the mortgage context as the "original borrower"). Reasons: See LBR 4001-1(c)(1)(B). In addition, Judge Bason has due process concerns about granting such relief without service on the person(s) whose interests may be most directly affected. See generally Mullane v. Central Hanover Bank & Trust Co., 339 U.S. 306 (1950) (due process generally). In this matter, such persons appear to include: (a) Jamshid Azaradibi; and (b) Mahnaz Azaradibi.

Option for shortened time: This court has selected a continued hearing date that contemplates shortened notice (per Rule 9006) but that date is conditioned on the movant serving all papers on the day after the current hearing date. Alternatively, the movant may self-calendar a continued hearing on regular notice.

Option for interim/partial order: Movant may elect to lodge a proposed order granting the partial relief provided in this tentative ruling, but any such order must recite that a continued hearing has been set to consider additional relief (or, alternatively, that the movant no longer seeks additional relief and the Clerk's office is requested and directed to take the continued hearing off calendar).

Effective date of relief. Grant the request to waive the 14-day stay provided by FRBP 4001(a)(3).

fr. 5/22/18

Docket 1

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for 6/19/18:

Appearances required. This Court has reviewed the parties' joint status report (adv. dkt. 30) and the other filed documents and records in this adversary proceeding, as well as relevant documents in the bankruptcy case.

(A) Background. Plaintiff, the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department ("Sheriff") has filed its complaint in interpleader against the debtor, her Chapter 13 Trustee ("Trustee"), and Cardlock Fuels Systems, Inc. ("Cardlock"). Sheriff levied on funds held in the debtor's bank account at Wells Fargo Bank, NA and received about $32,775.00 (the "Levied Funds") but the debtor and Cardlock dispute who should receive the funds.

Cardlock asserts that it owns the funds; but the debtor asserts that Cardlock has only a secured claim to the funds and that those funds should be returned to the debtor and Cardlock will continue being paid over time (without interest). Cardlock is listed as a secured creditor in the amount of $43,066.84 in the debtor's chapter 13 plan (case dkt. 2, p.5), which this Court previously confirmed (case dkt. 19), and in any event the debtor's plan promises to pay unsecured creditors 100% of their claims (without interest). Cardlock's proof of claim (Claim No. 3-1) asserts that it is owed $45,544.66 as of the petition date, based on a judgment for goods sold, which it asserts is secured by a judgment lien. In other words, the debtor proposes to pay Cardlock over 5 years, without interest (regardless whether Cardlock's claim is treated as secured or unsecured under the plan), and Cardlock seeks immediate payment of approximately 3/4 of the total debt using the Levied Funds.

Sheriff apparently has no reason to care about any of this. Sheriff only seeks a judgment that, among other things, would permit the deposit of the Levied Funds with this Court while restraining all of the defendants from involving Sheriff any further.

Before Sheriff filed the complaint, the debtor attempted to obtain turnover of the funds by filing a motion for turnover (case dkt. 31). This Court issued an order (dkt. 34, the "Non-Turnover Order") denying that motion for the following reasons (copied from that order):

(1) Facts

Neither party provides any copy of any levying documents, or any declarations to support their allegations. Nevertheless, the following facts appear to be undisputed.

Prepetition, on February 21, 2017, at the request of judgment creditor Cardlock, The Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department ("Sheriff") served a Writ of Execution and notice of levy on Wells Fargo Bank, NA ("Bank") where the debtor held a bank account. On February 28, 2017 the debtor filed her bankruptcy petition. Postpetition, on March 2, 2017, Bank delivered to Sheriff $32,775 (the "Funds"). See dkt. 31, p.3:1-12 and dkt. 33, pp.1:25-2:8.

(2) Legal authority

Neither party cites any authority for their principal arguments. The authorities they do cite appear to be mostly the wrong statutes and irrelevant decisions.

The debtor asserts that the Funds are property of the estate under the general principles of 11 U.S.C. 541, without any citation to California law defining when ownership of funds is transferred away from the depositor/debtor. See In re Hernandez, 483 B.R. 713, 720 (9th Cir. BAP 2012) ("Whether a debtor's interest constitutes 'property of the estate' is a federal question to be decided by federal law [but] the nature and extent of the debtor's interest in property must be determined by nonbankruptcy law.") (citations and internal quotation marks omitted, emphasis added).

The debtor next argues that Cardlock and Sheriff should be ordered to return the Funds to the debtor "under 11 U.S.C. [section] 105" (dkt. 31, p.4:6), which is the general authorization for the Bankruptcy Court to issue any order or judgment that is "necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of this title." The debtor ignores 11 U.S.C. 542 and 543, which are the specific statutory provisions governing turnover to the estate of property of the estate.

Cardlock argues, also without citation, that when the Funds "were levied" they "ceased being the Debtor's property" - Cardlock does not specify whether the time when the Funds "were levied" means when the writ and notice were served on Bank (prepetition), or when the Funds were delivered by Bank to Sheriff (postpetition). Dkt. 33, p.2:24-25. Cardlock may mean the latter because in the next sentence it states that when the Funds "were delivered from [Bank] to [Sheriff], title to the property was vested in creditor [Cardlock]" (dkt. 33, pp.2:25-3:4) based on a decision from the Seventh Circuit involving escrowed funds. See Fed. Deposit Ins. Corp. v. Knostman, 966 F.2d 1133, 1142 (7th Cir. 1992). Cardlock does not cite any California law or any decision applying California law, nor any decision involving a levy by a sheriff (as opposed to escrowed funds).

This court declines to perform the parties' research for them. Nevertheless, this court must determine based on general principles and who has what burden whether to grant or deny the debtor's motion. Accordingly, this court has performed some brief research on the following issues.

(a) The debtor had an interest in the Funds as of the petition date

Although this court's brief research suggests that California law is not entirely clear, it appears that when a bank has not yet turned over funds to the sheriff prepetition, the levying creditor only has a lien not an ownership interest in the funds. See Hernandez, 483 B.R. 713, 721 (under Cal. Code Civ. P. 700.140(a)&(e), creditor obtains execution lien on amounts in deposit account at time of service on financial institution, and that lien terminates when the funds are paid to the levying officer, which implies that the debtor's interest is transferred at the latter time). (The statute was amended after Hernandez was decided, including designating paragraph "(e)" as paragraph "(f)," but the amendments do not appear to be material.)

(b) Any postpetition termination of the debtor's interest in the Funds is void

Assuming that Cardlock is correct that the transfer from Bank to Sheriff terminates the debtor's interest in the Funds under California law, Cardlock has not suggested any reason why that transfer would not have violated the automatic stay of 11 U.S.C. 362(a). Therefore any such transfer apparently is void ab initio. See, e.g., In re Gruntz, 202 F.3d 1074 (9th Cir. 2000), and In re Schwartz, 954 F.2d 569 (9th Cir. 1992). (The debtor asserts, dkt. 31, p.3, n.1, that because the transfer from Bank to Sheriff occurred postpetition "the Debtor most likely has grounds to avoid the transfer of the Funds pursuant to 11 U.S.C. 549." This court expresses no opinion on that issue.)

(c) The debtor has neither sought, nor established a basis for, turnover

The debtor cannot use 11 U.S.C. 105 to evade or enlarge the specific statutory provisions that govern turnover: 11 U.S.C. 542 and 543. So one of those latter statutes governs - this court does not decide which one (i.e., whether Bank and/or Sheriff qualify as a "custodian" under 11 U.S.C. 101(11) and 543), because for present purposes the issues are the same under each section.

This court also assumes without deciding that the debtor would have standing to seek turnover under 11 U.S.C. 542 or 543 (or, for that matter, standing to seek avoidance under 11 U.S.C. 544-549 and recovery under 550, although as Cardlock points out any such avoidance actions presumably would require an adversary proceeding under Rule 7001, Fed. R. Bankr. P.). Compare In re Cohen, 305 B.R. 886, 891-900 (9th Cir. BAP 2004) (chapter 13 debtor has standing to bring avoidance actions).

So far so good for the debtor's position. But it is not enough for the debtor to show that someone is in possession of property in which the bankruptcy estate has an interest. The debtor also must establish that any persons holding an interest in that property, such as Cardlock, will have their interests adequately protected. See 11 U.S.C. 363(e) (court "shall" provide adequate protection of person's interest in property proposed to be used, upon request); 11 U.S.C.

542(a) (turnover only applies to property that trustee may "use, sell, or lease" or that debtor may exempt, i.e., which is subject to section 363(e)); 11 U.S.C. 543(c)(1) (court shall "protect all entities" to which custodian of property has become obligated).

The debtor has not shown that simply turning over the Funds to the debtor would adequately protect Cardlock, or for that matter that such turnover would be an appropriate use of property of the estate. In sum, the debtor has neither requested relief under the applicable statutory provisions, nor established a basis for such relief.

This court expresses no opinion regarding the remaining arguments raised by Cardlock - e.g., that the debtor lacks "clean hands," or that this case should be converted to chapter 7. It is unnecessary to reach the former issue, and the latter has not been properly presented (in the form of a motion to convert).

(B) Current motions. Returning to Sheriff's interpleader complaint, the following motions are on calendar today.

(1) Motion for default judgment against Trustee (adv. dkt. 19). The Clerk of this Court has entered a default against Trustee; Trustee has not responded to Sheriff's motion for a default judgment against her; and the tentative ruling is to grant that motion and enter a judgment substantially in the form attached as Exhibit B to Sheriff's motion. If that tentative ruling is adopted, Sheriff is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this court's final ruling. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

(2) Sheriff's motion for a default judgment against Cardlock (adv. dkt. 17), and Cardlock's opposition (adv. dkt. 28) and motion to set aside entry of the Clerk's default and/or any default judgment (adv. dkt. 27). The tentative ruling is to set aside the Clerk's default against Cardlock, for the reasons stated in its motion. That moots Sheriff's motion for a default judgment. If that tentative ruling is adopted, Cardlock is directed to lodge proposed orders on both motions via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this court's final ruling. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

(C) Status conference in this adversary proceeding.

(1) Deposit funds in registry. The parties are directed to address why there is any reason not to grant a judgment or order authorizing and directing deposit of the Levied Funds into the registry of this Court, while restraining all of the defendants from involving Sheriff any further (in language substantially in the form proposed for the judgment against Trustee), and reserving any other issues (such as any claim by Sheriff for attorney fees). Although there is no pending motion for such a judgment or order, the tentative ruling is that if all non-defaulting parties agree to such relief then it would be appropriate to grant such relief. Among other things, that might reduce the Sheriff's ongoing attorney fees, to the benefit of all parties.

The tentative ruling is that if all parties agree to the foregoing then this Court should treat that as an oral motion for entry of Local Form F7067-1.1.ORDER.REGISTRY.FUND entitled "Order on Motion: (A) To Deposit Funds Into the Court's Registry, or (B) To Disburse Funds Out of The Court's Registry." If this tentative ruling is adopted, Sheriff is directed to lodge that proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this court's final ruling. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

(2) Who is entitled to the Levied Funds. The debtor, Cardlock and Sheriff are directed to address the following issues.

(a) If debtor seeks recovery under 11 U.S.C. 522(h). The debtor potentially could seek to recover property that the debtor could exempt, pursuant to section 522(h). But as Cardlock points out, the debtor's bankruptcy Schedule C does not purport to exempt the Levied Funds (see case dkt. 1, at PDF p.17). The debtor has not amended those exemptions and perhaps cannot (e.g., it is not clear that the debtor could do so without giving up other exemptions that the debtor might not wish to give up).

(b) If debtor seeks recovery of the Levied Funds as representative of the estate. As pointed out in the Non-Turnover Order, there is some authority that even if there is no applicable exemption the debtor has standing to seek avoidance of the levy on behalf of the estate (e.g., under 11 U.S.C. 549). But that would require commencement of an adversary proceeding.

In addition, Cardlock has pointed out that the debtor did not disclose the existence of these funds in her bankruptcy schedules, and based on that fact Cardlock's proposed Answer (attached to its motion to avoid the Clerk's default) raises various defenses to turning over the funds to the debtor. In addition, if the debtor is not able to exempt the funds then those funds presumably would have to be used for the benefit of the estate and creditors, which probably means that any recovery of the Levied Funds would have to be followed by a distribution of the Levied Funds either (i) for truly necessary expenses (but the debtor has not suggested any such expenses) or else (ii) back to creditors - i.e., the money might essentially go in a circle, from Cardlock/Sheriff to this Court's registry, and then to the debtor for distribution to creditors, including Cardlock.

In sum, there appears to be a substantial risk that the expense and delay for both the debtor and Cardlock will far exceed any potential net benefit to anyone. Therefore the parties should be prepared to address why they cannot agree to some arrangement whereby some portion of the Levied Funds would be paid to Sheriff, to the extent, if any, that Sheriff has a claim for attorney fees or other costs or expenses under applicable law, and then the remainder would be divided between Cardlock and the debtor (either for re-distribution to other creditors, or for the debtor's truly necessary expenses).

None of this has been briefed, and this Court emphasizes that all of the foregoing is only one possible resolution. This Court's hope is that the foregoing may suggest a path toward consensual resolution.

(D) If the parties are unable to reach a consensual resolution. If some or all issues remain unresolved, the parties are directed to address the following issues.

(1) Venue/jurisdiction/authority. The parties are directed to address any outstanding matters of (a) venue, (b) jurisdiction, (c) this court's authority to enter final orders or judgment(s) in this proceeding and, if consent is required, whether the parties do consent, or have already expressly or impliedly consented. See generally Stern v. Marshall, 131 S.Ct. 2594, 2608 (2011) (if litigant "believed that the Bankruptcy Court lacked the authority to decide his claim...then he should have said so – and said so promptly."); Wellness Int'l Network, Ltd. v. Sharif, 135 S.Ct. 1932 (2015) (consent must be knowing and voluntary but need not be express); In re Bellingham Ins. Agency, Inc., 702 F.3d 553 (9th Cir. 2012) (implied consent), aff'd on other grounds, 134 S. Ct. 2165 (2014); In re Pringle, 495 B.R. 447 (9th Cir. BAP

See generally In re AWTR Liquidation, Inc., 548 B.R. 300 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2016).

(2) Mediation. If the parties cannot reach a consensual resolution without the assistance of a mediator, is there any reason why this Court should not order mandatory mediation? Again, this Court's concern is that the expenses to all parties of litigation far exceed the net benefit any party is likely to gain.

(3) Deadlines: This adversary proceeding has been pending since 2/28/17. Even if the parties do not reach a consensual resolution, it appears that there will be very little left to determine in this adversary proceeding - perhaps only whether Sheriff is entitled to attorney fees. The parties are directed to address what issues remain, and whether discovery is needed on those issues or if, instead, they can be resolved through a motion for summary judgment or similar mechanism. Because that seems likely, the tentative ruling is not to set any discovery cutoff or other deadlines at this time, but instead to set a continued status conference for 7/17/18 at 11:00 a.m. with a brief status report due 7/9/18.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." Department ("Sheriff") might properly belong to the debtor, or to Cardlock (if it can obtain relief from default), or to the bankruptcy estate (given the debtor's alleged nondisclosure in her bankruptcy papers of her claim to the funds at issue). See adv. dkt. 27, Ex.A, at pp.3:11-4:14 (Cardlock's affirmative defenses, asserting that either it or the debtor's bankruptcy estate owns the funds, not the debtor). Until it is determined whether or not the Clerk's default against Cardlock will be vacated, it is premature to address the motion for a default judgment against Cardlock. In addition, given the potential interests of the bankruptcy estate in the funds, and the possible lack of anyone to represent the estate if a default judgment were to be entered against Cardlock, it is premature to enter a default judgment against the other possible representative of the estate - the Chapter 13 Trustee.

#1.00 Hrg re: First Interim Application of Leslie Cohen Law PC, Attorneys for Debtor, for Allowance of Interim Compensation of Fees and Reimbursements of Expenses

Docket 137

Tentative Ruling:

Grant, with a reduction of $200 because the fee application's description of the services was vague and not in compliance with the local rules and guidelines, making those services appear to be clerical, and only in the reply was a sufficient explanation provided. Appearances are not required.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

Key documents reviewed (in addition to motion papers): Supplemental Declaration in Support of Fee Application (dkt. 147), opposition by the U.S. Trustee (dkt. 146), reply (dkt. 148).

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." If appearances are required, and you fail to appear without adequately resolving this matter by consent, then you may waive your right to be heard on matters that are appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

Docket 1

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for 6/19/18:

Appearances required. There is no tentative ruling, but the parties should be prepared to provide an update on the status of their negotiations, and whether all matters on calendar for today in the Sakurai and Checkmate cases (including the adversary proceeding against Fower and Radiology Solutions) should be continued to 8/7/18 at 2:00 pm., with a brief status report due 7/24/18.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." If appearances are required, and you fail to appear without adequately resolving this matter by consent, then you may waive your right to be heard on matters that are appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

Tentative Ruling for 6/12/18:

Appearances required.

(1) Current issues.

(a) Amended Joint Plan/Amended Joint Disclosure Statement proposed by the Sakurais and related debtor Checkmate King Co., Ltd., and supporting declaration (Sakurai dkt. 186, 187, 188). At the status conference this Court will address changes that need to be made to the amended disclosure statement and amended plan prior to service on creditors.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 10/16/17.

(b) Amended Joint Plan/Amended Joint Disclosure Statement* (dkt. 186, 187): At the status conference this Court will discuss deadlines for filing an amended disclosure statement and plan, and whether to set hearing(s) on final approval of the disclosure statement and whether to approve the plan.

(c) Continued status conference: 8/7/18 at 2:00 p.m. Brief written status report due 7/24/18.

*Warning: special procedures apply (see order setting initial status conference).

Appearances required by counsel for the debtors but telephonic appearances are encouraged if advance arrangements are made (see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.", "Instructions/Procedures").

(1) Current issues.

(a) Joint Plan/ Joint Disclosure Statement proposed by the Sakurais and related debtor Checkmate King Co., Ltd., and supporting declaration (Sakurai dkt. 176, 177, 178). At the status conference this Court will address numerous issues with these documents.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 10/16/17.

(a) Bar date: 1/17/18 (order timely served. dkt. 58, 59)

(b) Joint Plan/Disclosure Statement* (dkt. 176, 177): The tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 5/22/18 to file (NOT SERVE - except on the U.S. Trustee) an amended joint plan and amended joint disclosure statement to address the foregoing issues.

Tentative Ruling for 4/10/18:

Appearances are not required on 4/10/18.

(1) Current issues

(a) Motion for Relief from Stay (dkt. 48). In light of the proposed settlement with the Fresco Parties, the tentative ruling is to continue the hearing to be concurrent with the continued status conference (see below).

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement. The tentative ruling is to conduct a combined hearing on the adequacy of the (forthcoming) disclosure statement and confirmation of the (forthcoming) plan to be concurrent with the continued status conference (see below).

(c) Fresco Adversary Proceeding (adv. case no. 2:17-ap-01558-NB), including motion to remand (adv. dkt. 8). The tentative ruling is that this matter will be mooted, assuming that this Court approves the parties' proposed settlement, and therefore this matter should go off calendar. The parties are reminded to file appropriate papers to have this matter dismissed once the settlement is fully implemented.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 10/16/17.

Tentative Ruling for 2/13/18:

Appearances required.

(1) Current issues

(a) Potential settlement with Fresco Parties. The parties must be prepared to address the status of their settlement negotiations and finalization of the draft settlement documents circulated 2/5/18, and all other issues appropriate to raise at a status conference, including the issues in their recent status reports and related documents (Sakurai case, no. 2:17-bk-22660-NB, dkt. 87, 104, 105, 114, 124, and Checkmate case, no. 2:17-bk-22648-NB, dkt. 90, 93, 100, 102, 104, 105, 106, 109, 112, 113, 119, 122).

(b) Cash collateral & budget motions & stipulation (Sakurai dkt. 119, 122; Checkmate dkt. 114, 118, 119). Grant the cash collateral motion in the Sakurai case, subject to the same replacement liens and other terms and conditions as this Court's prior approvals of the use of cash collateral (see Sakurai case dkt. 43, 57); grant the budget motion in the Sakurai case; and approve the cash collateral stipulation in the Checkmate case on a final basis.

(d) Removed action (Adv. no. 2:17-ap-01558-NB), motions for stay and for remand (adv. dkt. 8, 10, 12, 13). The tentative ruling is that the motion for a stay pending determination by the District Court of the debtors' motion to withdraw the reference is moot, because the District Court has dismissed that motion. There is no tentative ruling on the motion to remand.

Tentative Ruling for 1/30/18:

Appearances required.

(1) Current issues

(a) Dec MOR (dkt. 97):

(i) On page 1 of 34, the MOR reflects $793,000 in cash receipts for the pre-petition Community Bank Sakurai Family Trust savings account, with a notation that Community Bank initially seized, but has since returned, the funds. What is this money from? Is it currently being held? Is it available to pay secured or unsecured creditors?

(ii) On page 7 of 34, there is a line item reflecting a $5,000 payment to Mr. Aronson for legal fees. At the status conference on 1/9/18 this court highlighted that the Sakurais had made a similar payment in November for Mr. Aronson's fees and counsel stated that the payment was made in error, and the debtors and their counsel assured this court that this issue would be addressed. By no later than February 7, 2018, Mr. Aronson is directed to file a declaration addressing the status of the $10,000 in legal fees ($5,000 Nov; $5,000 Dec) that he received from the Sakurais.

(b) Turnover of Documents and Information, etc. The parties must be prepared to address what documents and information have been produced by the debtors, and all other issues appropriate to raise at a status conference,

Continue all matters scheduled for today in the Sakurai and Checkmate cases and related adversary proceeding to 1/30/18 at 2:00 p.m. in view of the apparent inability of the Office of the United States Trustee to appear due to the shutdown of much of the federal government. Proposed orders: The debtors are directed to serve and lodge proposed orders on each motion listed below via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date.

(1) Current issues

(a) Status Report (dkt. 42): The debtors' status report fails to suggest any bar date or any deadline for filing a draft plan and draft disclosure statement. The debtors suggest that the Fresco litigation might have to conclude before they can propose plan, but they fail to support any such delay with relevant information about that litigation, nor do they explain how claims estimation and/or a disputed claims reserve would be inadequate to address this litigation. See generally 11 U.S.C. 502(c) and Rule 3018(a) (Fed. R. Bankr. P.). Accordingly, the tentative ruling is to fix the deadlines set forth below.

(b) Cash collateral motion (dkt. 8). The tentative ruling is to grant this motion on a final basis, on the same terms as the interim order (dkt. 43).

(b) Utility motion (dkt. 11). The tentative ruling is to grant this motion on a final basis.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 10/16/17.

(a) Bar date: 1/17/18

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: file by 4/16/18 using the forms required by Judge Bason (DO NOT SERVE yet, except on the U.S. Trustee - the court will set a deadline and procedures at a later time).

Tentative Ruling for 11/14/17:

This court anticipates posting a tentative ruling at a later time.

Tentative Ruling for 10/26/17:

Appearances required by counsel for the debtor.

(1) Current issues

(a) Proofs of service (dkt. 18, 19, 21, 22). Service does not appear to be in compliance with this court's orders shortening time because they do not certify that anyone was served via overnight delivery or other expedited means.

The following tentative rulings are contingent on filing a corrected proof of service, no later than the day after this hearing, declaring that such expedited service was actually done, or if that is not true then the tentative ruling is to impose sanctions of $200 on counsel for the debtors and, despite the lack of service, authorize the proposed expenditures of cash collateral and the proposed utility deposits as an interim method of providing adequate protection under 11 U.S.C. 361-366.

(b) Cash collateral motion (dkt. 8). Subject to any opposition at the hearing, the tentative ruling is to grant this motion on the terms set forth in the separate tentative ruling on that motion.

(c) Utility motion (dkt. 11). Subject to any opposition at the hearing, the tentative ruling is to grant this motion. Proposed order: Movant is directed to serve and lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 10/16/17.

Tentative Ruling for 6/12/18:

Appearances required.

(1) Current issues.

(a) Amended Joint Plan/Amended Joint Disclosure Statement (dkt. 175, 176).

These documents, and the supporting declaration of Yuichiro Sakurai (dkt. 177), appear to be identical to the documents filed in the related bankruptcy case of debtors Yuichiro and Akemi Sakurai (the "Sakurais"). See Sakurai BK dkt. 186, 187, 188. Counsel are directed to alert this Court and the parties at the hearing if they are not.

For the tentative ruling regarding these documents, see the tentative ruling for the status conference in the Sakurais' bankruptcy case (calendar no. 4, 6/12/18 at 2:00 p.m.).

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 10/16/17.

Tentative Ruling for 2/13/18:

Appearances required.

(1) Current issues

(a) Potential settlement with Fresco Parties. The parties must be prepared to address the status of their settlement negotiations and finalization of the draft settlement documents circulated 2/5/18, and all other issues appropriate to raise at a status conference, including the issues in their recent status reports and related documents (Sakurai case, no. 2:17-bk-22660-NB, dkt. 87, 104, 105, 114, 124, and Checkmate case, no. 2:17-bk-22648-NB, dkt. 90, 93, 100, 102, 104, 105, 106, 109, 112, 113, 119, 122).

(b) Cash collateral & budget motions & stipulation (Sakurai dkt. 119, 122; Checkmate dkt. 114, 118, 119). Grant the cash collateral motion in the Sakurai case, subject to the same replacement liens and other terms and conditions as this Court's prior approvals of the use of cash collateral (see Sakurai case dkt. 43, 57); grant the budget motion in the Sakurai case; and approve the cash collateral stipulation in the Checkmate case on a final basis.

(d) Removed action (Adv. no. 2:17-ap-01558-NB), motions for stay and for remand (adv. dkt. 8, 10, 12, 13). The tentative ruling is that the motion for a stay pending determination by the District Court of the debtors' motion to withdraw the reference is moot, because the District Court has dismissed that motion. There is no tentative ruling on the motion to remand.

Tentative Ruling for 1/9/18:

Appearances required by the debtor's counsel.

Proposed orders: The debtor is directed to serve and lodge proposed orders on each motion listed below via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date.

(1) Current issues

(a) Status Report (dkt. 90): The status report states that the debtor's business is dormant with respect to its financing of the purchase of used medical equipment. Where is Radiology Solutions storing the $4.6M worth of financed equipment and does the debtor have a perfected security interest in the equipment?

Appearances required by the debtor's principals and debtor's counsel.

Proposed orders: The debtor is directed to serve and lodge proposed orders on each motion listed below via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date.

(1) Current issues

(a) Status Report (dkt. 37): The status report states that the debtor has no executory contracts. What about all the contracts with Radiology Solutions Inc./Corp. (whichever name is correct)?

(b) Cash collateral motion (dkt.9): The debtor reports (dkt. 53, p.3) that it has reached a stipulation with Community Bank regarding the use of cash collateral, but as of the preparation of this tentative ruling no such stipulation appears on the docket. If there is no such stipulation, or if it does not moot the bank's opposition (dkt. 50), then the parties should be prepared to address the merits of that opposition. In addition, the parties should be prepared to address the objection of the Fresco parties (dkt. 49) and the debtor's response (dkt. 53).

(c) Payroll motion (dkt. 6). The tentative ruling is to grant this motion on a final basis.

(1) Current Issues.

(a) Joint Status Report and Notice of Continuances. This Court's 5/8/18 tentative ruling (see below) was not opposed, so it became this Court's actual ruling.

This Court directed (i) Checkmate to file and serve a notice of continuances attaching and incorporating by reference the deadlines in that tentative ruling by 5/7/18, and (ii) the parties to file a brief joint status report by 5/29/18. As of the preparation of this tentative ruling, none of the parties have complied. (b) Motion for TRO & Claim and Delivery (adv. dkt. 10).

Plaintiff/debtor Checkmate King Co., Ltd. ("Checkmate") has filed a stipulation (adv. dkt. 30) with defendants Radiology Solutions Corp. ("RS") and George Fower ("Fower") for turnover of equipment. But Checkmate has not provided any evidence that it has relief from the automatic stay and consent of the Chapter 7 Trustee in the RS and Fower bankruptcy cases for such turnover (Case Nos. 8:18-bk-10585-TA and 8:18-bk-10583-TA). The tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 6/19/18 for Checkmate to file a declaration attaching evidence sufficient to establish those things, and lodge a revised proposed order to approve the stipulation.

(2) Deadlines: This adversary proceeding has been pending since 3/6/18. It is premature to set a discovery cutoff and other deadlines at this time. Continue to 7/17/18 at 2:00 p.m., brief joint status report due 7/3/18.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." If appearances are required, and you fail to appear without adequately resolving this matter by consent, then you may waive your right to be heard on matters that are appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

Tentative Ruling for 5/8/18:

The tentative ruling is to continue all pending matters in this adversary proceeding to 6/12/18 at 2:00 p.m. for the reason stated below, with a brief joint status report due 5/29/18, and with a deadline of 5/7/18 for the plaintiff to file and serve a notice of continuances attaching and incorporating by reference the deadlines in this tentative ruling (assuming that this Court is not persuaded to depart from this tentative ruling). Appearances are not required on 5/8/18.

(1) Current Issues. This Court has reviewed the parties' status reports (adv. dkt. 24 & 26) and the other filed documents and records in this adversary proceeding.

hearing on this motion, counsel for plaintiff/debtor Checkmate King Co., Ltd. ("Checkmate") apprised this Court of the bankruptcy filings of defendants Radiology Solutions Corp. ("RS") and George Fower ("Fower") (Case Nos. 8:18-bk-10585-TA and 8:18-bk-10583-TA) and requested a continuance of this hearing to allow time to obtain orders granting relief from stay with annulment. In the Joint status report (adv. dkt. 24), Checkmate states that the hearings on the relief from stay motions are scheduled for 5/15/18. Accordingly, the tentative ruling is to continue this motion to the date and time set forth at the start of this tentative ruling.

(b) Siemens Motion to Dismiss (adv. dkt. 27, the "MTD"). Defendant Siemens Medical Solutions USA, Inc. ("Siemens") has properly self-calendared its MTD for 6/12/18 at 11:00 a.m. Siemens anticipates that it may be voluntarily dismissed by plaintiff (see adv. dkt. 24), but if that does not occur then this Court anticipates that the MTD may take 15 minutes or more to hear. This Court's practice is that matters anticipated to take 15 minutes or more are heard on the 2:00 p.m. calendar (not available for self-calendaring, except by permission of this Court). Therefore the tentative ruling is to re-calendar the MTD from 11:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m., which is concurrent with the other matters in this adversary proceeding that are on today's calendar.

(2) Deadlines: This adversary proceeding has been pending since 3/6/18. It is premature to set a discovery cutoff and other deadlines at this time.

Attorney at Law as Special Counsel
fr. 6/12/18

Docket 103

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for 6/22/18:

Grant the motion (dkt. 305) to expand Mr. Insul's employment (which previously has been authorized) to include loan or financing arrangements, subject to the following provisos. Appearances are not required.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this court's final ruling. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

Provisos: (1) As a reminder, any attempt to by the debtor to do anything indirectly through any business in which she asserts any interest (e.g., to obtain financing through any such entity) is a transaction out of the ordinary course of the debtor's own business and financial affairs that must be disclosed in advance and approved under 11 U.S.C. 363(b). Bankruptcy counsel for the debtor (Mr. Tilem) is directed to remind both the debtor and Mr. Insul of this in writing.

(2) As a further reminder, the debtor is acting as a debtor in possession with the fiduciary duties of a trustee for the benefit of creditors, and any work by Mr. Insul must reflect those fiduciary duties. Mr. Tilem is directed to remind both the debtor and Mr. Insul of those fiduciary duties in writing.

(3) For the avoidance of doubt, payment of any fees or expenses of Mr. Insul related to the debtor - including any business in which she asserts any interest - must be authorized by this Court. Mr. Tilem is directed to remind both the debtor and Mr. Insul of this in writing.

(4) Mr. Tilem is directed to file and serve a declaration confirming that he has provided the foregoing written reminders to the debtor and Mr. Insul no later than 6/26/18.

6/12/18

Docket 1

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for 6/22/18:

Appearances required.

(1) Current issues.

(a) Urbanlime/Haro employment (dkt. 93, 253), Bridge Tavern (Villain's) Reopening Motion (dkt. 214, previously granted, dkt. 339, but rescheduled per dkt.369 para. 4.5), Sale Motion (dkt. 112, temporarily denied, dkt. 369, 385) and Lease Assignment Motion (dkt. 187, re-set for hearing, dkt. 388). The parties should be prepared to address the issues set forth in this Court's orders (dkt. 369, 378, 385, 388) setting this hearing.

(b) Motion to extend exclusivity (dkt. 308, 312, 333, 348). The tentative ruling is to preserve the status quo by:

(i) prohibiting the estate from incurring any fees or expenses relative to any contemplated plan between time this tentative ruling is posted and the conclusion of the hearing on the motion to appoint a trustee (dkt. 332, the "Trustee Motion"), currently scheduled for 7/10/18 at 2:00 p.m;

(ii) if the Trustee Motion is denied, then extending exclusivity through at least 8/14/18 (any further extension will be addressed at the hearing on 7/10/18 at 2:00 p.m.), so that Mr. Tilem will have the time he has stated he would need to draft a plan (approximately 30 days); and

(iii) if the Trustee motion is granted, then terminate exclusivity.

(c) Cash collateral motion (dkt. 5, 14, 15, 29, 74, 151, 152, 163, 164, 167, 168, 171, 172, 176, 185, 244). The tentative ruling is to continue this matter to 7/10/18 at 2:00 p.m., and meanwhile authorize the continued use of cash collateral through the conclusion of that continued hearing.

(d) Relief from stay motion (dkt. 68, 79, 141, 147, 154, 162, 222 section v., 270, 312). The tentative ruling is to continue this matter to 7/10/18 at 2:00 p.m.

Appearances required by counsel for the debtor. Other parties in interest are invited but not required to appear.

Telephonic appearances are encouraged if advance arrangements are made (see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.", "Instructions/Procedures").

(1) Current issues.

(a) Cash flow and cash collateral motion (dkt. 5, 14, 15, 29). This Court's written order (dkt. 29) erroneously lists the continued hearing as 3/20/18 instead of 4/17/18 at 2:00 p.m., as orally ordered at the hearing on 3/9/18. Nevertheless, it is appropriate in connection with this Status Conference to address the debtor's current and projected cash flow and related issues.

This Court was not persuaded at the hearing on 3/9/18 that the debtor can generate positive cash flow. The debtor is directed to provide a brief update on any plans to generate positive cash flow from her various businesses and properties. It is also appropriate for other parties in interest to address whether there has been adequate disclosure to date regarding the finances of those businesses and properties. The debtor is cautioned that the declaration due on 3/27/18 must provide comprehensive disclosures regarding those businesses and properties: if the debtor cannot show reasonable prospects for positive cash flow within a reasonable time then this Court might have to grant relief from the automatic stay (upon a proper motion), or convert or dismiss this bankruptcy case, at least if the debtor does not abandon unprofitable businesses or properties.

(b) Employment applications. The parties should be prepared to address the oppositions (dkt. 56, 57) and the direct and indirect source(s) of funds used by the debtor to pay prepetition retainers (see dkt. 48, and cf. dkt. 9, p.6, dkt. 18, p.8, dkt. 20, p.8 - blank spaces instead of disclosure), including when the liens against the 1902 property arose (dkt. 48, Ex.A). In addition, the parties should be prepared to address the following issues:

(i) Proposed bankruptcy counsel - Tilem (dkt. 9, 10): (i) Why were resumes for associates, paralegals, and persons who are "of counsel" to the firm not included? (ii) Has counsel waived or amended the provisions in the retainer agreement regarding the "evergreen" retainer; "overtime" rates, and any attorney's lien? (iii) As for proposed out-sourcing, counsel must address whether employment of such counsel could result in imputed or actual conflicts of interest from any work performed by such attorneys for their own clients or for other law firms.

(ii) Proposed special counsel: the Robins firm and Horvitz firm (dkt. 18, 19, 20, 21). The hourly rates of proposed counsel at the Robins firm and Horvitz firm are substantially greater than those for the debtor's proposed general bankruptcy counsel and the Snyder firm. How will the debtor - acting as a debtor in possession with the duties of a trustee for the benefit of creditors - assure that the potential benefits are not outweighed by the costs that can be reasonably anticipated in connection with the ongoing litigation with Birds Nest, the Archbishop, and the Institute (as those terms are defined in the parties' papers)?

(iii) Proposed special counsel: the Snyder firm (dkt. 36, 37). (i) What is the nature of the litigation in which that firm represents the debtor and co-plaintiff, Bridge Tavern, LLC against Odysseuss Investment Group, LLC? (ii) What are the potential costs/risks and benefits? (iii) Is there any actual or potential conflict of interest between the two plaintiffs (e.g., if any judgment in their favor were to be allocated between them in a way that is unfavorable to one or the other)? (iv) From the description at the status conference on 3/9/18 it seemed that the Snyder firm might be assisting the debtor now or in future in transactional matters - is that so?

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 3/6/18.

Appearances required.

(1) Current issues.

(a) Urgency. The matters set forth below are all colloquially known as "first day," "emergency," or urgent motions that typically would have been resolved by now, except that the facts could not be determined without (expedited) discovery. See dkt. 175 (discovery order). In addition, the motion for relief from the automatic stay is generally subject to a 30-day limit (11 U.S.C. 362(e)), although that has been extended in this case. See LBR 4001-1(c)(3).

(b) Cash collateral & budget motions (dkt. 5, 14, 15, 29, 74, 151, 152, 163, 164, 167-68, 171, 176; and 96, 146, 161).

Chapter 11

(i) Legal standards, generally. A chapter 11 debtor who is in possession of the bankruptcy estate (11 U.S.C. 1101(1)) has the duties of a trustee for the benefit of creditors (11 U.S.C. 1107), including a fiduciary duty to protect and conserve property of the estate. See, e.g., In re McConville, 110 F.3d 47, 50 (9th Cir. 1997). Just like a trustee, the debtor may use, sell, or lease property of the bankruptcy estate in the "ordinary course of business" (11 U.S.C. 363(c)(1)), but may not use any property "other than" in the ordinary course of business" without authorization from the Bankruptcy Court after notice and a hearing. 11 U.S.C. 363(b)(1).

In addition, if property at issue is the "cash collateral" of any entity (as defined in 11 U.S.C. 363(a)) then the debtor may not use it at all without prior authorization (or the consent of the entities with an interest in that cash collateral). 11 U.S.C. 363(c)(2).

Any entities with an interest in property of the estate may request that the court require the debtor provide "adequate protection" to them. 11 U.S.C. 363(e). The Bankruptcy Court "shall" condition or prohibit any proposed use, sale, or lease of property to the extent necessary to provide such adequate protection.

Adequate protection may include periodic cash payments, replacement liens, or other things. 11 U.S.C. 361. But those things must protect the economic interests of the entities with an interest in property of the estate. Id.

(ii) Legal standards, as applied to individual debtors. There is not a great deal of authority about how to apply the foregoing standards to individual debtors. First, if the ordinary course of "business" were read to mean only commercial business then theoretically a debtor essentially would not be authorized to spend anything without prior court authorization. See In re Goldstein, 383 B.R. 486 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2007).

But ordinary living expenses are implicitly part of an individual debtor's everyday "business." Thus, the debtor is automatically authorized by section 363(b) to use property of the estate (except cash collateral) without court approval for such basics such as food, shelter, and ordinary and necessary expenses such as personal care products and some entertainment. See In re Seely, 492 B.R. 284, 289-91 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2013).

Second, just like commercial business transactions, individual debtors' transactions probably are subject to both (A) a "vertical" or "creditors' expectation" test and (B) a "horizontal" test. See Seely, 492 B.R. 284, 289-91 & n.7 (applying In re Dant & Russell, Inc., 853 F.2d 700, 704-05 (9th Cir.

The "vertical" or "creditors' expectation" test asks whether the transaction at issue subjects a hypothetical creditor to economic risks of a nature different from those the creditor accepted when deciding to extend credit. This compares the debtor's proposed postpetition transaction with the debtor's prepetition background to see if there is a history of similar transactions. Dant & Russell, 853 F.2d 700, 704-05. The "horizontal" test asks whether persons who are similarly situated to the debtor ordinarily would engage in such transactions. Id.

Debtors sometimes take an overly aggressive view of what is the "ordinary course" of their business. Therefore a budget motion is required under the posted Procedures of Judge Bason (available at www.cacb.uscourts.gov). Compare Seely, 492 B.R. 284, n.5 & accompanying text (Bluebond, J., declining to require debtors to file budget motions, but cautioning that it might be advisable to seek prior authorization for any budget).

Once it is determined that section 363(b)(1) applies - i.e., that court authorization is required (beyond any authorization required for use of cash collateral) - it is unclear what standards the Bankruptcy Court should apply in deciding whether or not to authorize a proposed expenditure. See In re Villalobos, 2011 WL 4485793 (9th Cir. BAP 8/19/11) (noting uncertainty, and remanding on that issue). The parties have not briefed that issue.

The tentative ruling is that the debtor bears the burden to establish that the proposed expenditure is in the best interests of the estate. See Goldstein, 383 B.R. 496, 502. For example, in a situation involving divorcing debtors, it was held that each debtor had to show that employment of special counsel to handle not only the property division aspect of the divorce but also the dissolution aspect was "for the benefit of the estate and not for the debtor's personal benefit." Id. But because dissolution of the marriage was essential to disentangle the debtors' domestic lives, and move forward with the bankruptcy case, it was held that it was appropriate to authorize employment of counsel to handle both dissolution and property division.

Note that the foregoing test under section 363(b)(1) is in addition to, not in place of, the requirement for adequate protection under section 363(e). Therefore the relevant questions are as follows. First, does the proposed budget of the debtor, Ms. Hollister, use cash in which Bird Nest or RCALA have an interest and, if so, has the debtor met her burden to show that those interests are adequately protected? Second, does the proposed budget include transactions that are out of the ordinary course and, if so, has the debtor met her burden to establish that the proposed expenditures are in the best interests of the estate?

(ii) ... [BACKGROUND RE CASH FLOW & ASSETS/APPRAISALS]

(iii) [CASH COLLATERAL]

(iv) Insurance. The debtor has provided evidence that the insurance policy premiums of $1,065/mo. are "ordinary" under the vertical test. because she apparently has been paying them for several years (she declares that she purchased the policy in 2012). See dkt. 161, p.4, para. 3. But the debtor provides no argument or evidence that the expense of a $3 million insurance policy is "ordinary" under the horizontal test. Therefore, court approval is required under section 362(b)(1), and the debtor bears the burden to show that the proposed expenditure is in the best interests of the estate.

In addition, the debtor must show that paying for $3 million of coverage is consistent with providing adequate protection to Bird Nest and RCALA.

(v) Car payments. The debtor pays $_____/mo. for her vehicle, consisting of both payments on the car loan balance of approximately $68,000 and "what appears to be 3 years of pre-paid maintenance." Dkt. 161, p.3:5. The debtor states that she is not opposed to seeking to refinance this debt, when she has more time. Dkt. 161, p.5, para. 11.

(c) Relief from stay motion (dkt. ).

(d) Motion to authorize transaction out of ordinary course re Bridge Tavern, LLC ("Bridge") (dkt. 112, 140, 150, 156) and motion to employ Urbanlime Real Estate (Leslie Haro) ("Urbanlime") (dkt. 93, 121, 133, 134, 142, 157, 177, 179). No written opposition has been filed to the motion to liquidate and wind up Bridge (dkt. 112, the "Bridge Motion"). It is also supported by the Committee (dkt. 140). The motion to employ Urbanlime (dkt. 93, the "Urbanlime Motion") is opposed by Pierre Casanova, a co-owner of LLCs related to the Cliff's Edge restaurant. It is supported, however, by the Committee (dkt. 142).

Chapter 11

Several aspects of these related motions are troubling. The debtor apparently has disregarded her duties as a trustee for the benefit of creditors by: (i) entering into a commitment to transfer the Bridge leasehold without the landlord's consent, (ii) reopening the Bridge business without notice or authorization by this Court, (iii) hiring a professional, out of the ordinary course of her business, to retroactively create books and records, without any notice or assurance that the professional is disinterested and qualified, (iv) marketing businesses for sale before having reliable books and records for those businesses, thereby possibly chilling the current bidding and any future sales, (v) hiring Urbanlime as a broker without without safeguards required by this Court, and (vi) marketing and entering into an agreement to sell the Cliff's Edge-related LLCs without proper notice to, let alone authorization by, the co-owner of those LLCs.

(i) Landlord.

Attached to the Bridge Motion is an agreement to sell the business for $495,000 (the "Bridge Agreement"), and although that agreement is expressly contingent on this Court's approval (dkt. 112, Ex.1, para. 24) it does not appear (from this Court's brief review) to include any contingency for approval by the landlord. After the Bridge Motion was filed, the debtor and landlord Odysseus Investment Group, LLC ("Bridge Landlord") stipulated (dkt. 150) to continue the hearing - presumably to address whether the landlord will consent to the assignment of the leasehold.

Is this Court misinterpreting the record? Regardless, why did the debtor market the Bridge assets, enter into the Bridge Agreement, and file the Bridge Motion without obtaining the Bridge Landlord's consent, or even disclosing in the Bridge Motion that such consent was needed? What is the status of the debtor's negotiations with Bridge Landlord? Have those negotiations resulted in any new terms that would make the proposed Bridge Agreement less advantageous for the estate and/or require disclosure to creditors and an opportunity to object by amending and re-noticing the Bridge Motion? The tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 5/14/18 for the debtor to file and serve her declaration addressing those things.

(ii) Reopening the business. The debtor's reply in support of the motion to hire Urbanlime states (dkt. 157, p.3:4-6) that the Bridge business ("Villain's Tavern") previously was not operating but as of April 20, 2018 it has been reopened. Again, this revelation is troubling.

Has reopening the business cost the bankruptcy estate money? Is the debtor guaranteed to recoup that money?

This Court recognizes that, even if it involved some expense, reopening the business might be the best way to maximize the Bridge assets' value, or could be a good idea for other reasons. But that is not the point.

The point is that, just as the debtor acknowledges that causing Bridge to sell its business is a transaction out of the ordinary course, so is causing Bridge to reopen its closed business. In other words, the debtor has used estate assets "other than in the ordinary course of business," requiring approval under 11 U.S.C. 363(b) (emphasis added). Why did the debtor act without Court authorization?

This Court recognizes that reopening the business might not cost the bankruptcy estate anything if the business is being funded and operated by the proposed new owner. But that in itself would be a transaction out of the ordinary course.

All of the foregoing raises the question what is actually meant by the debtor's delphic phrase that Villain's Tavern "has been reopened and is now operating." Dkt. 157, p.3:6. The tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 5/10/18 for the debtor to file and serve her declaration addressing those things.

(iii) "Controller" Jeffrey Garrison. The same reply in support of the Bridge Motion states (dkt. 157, p.2:3-8) that the debtor hired a "controller" after the petition date. The debtor apparently had not used a controller in the ordinary course of her businesses prepetition, because she admits (dkt. 157, p.2:9-17) that "in most cases" her "books and records were either non-existent, or rudimentary" and the controller is in the process of retroactively creating books and records from "source materials." Id.

It is true that usually a debtor engaged in business can hire regular employees, who may include controllers, bookkeepers, and the like, without having to seek authorization under 11 U.S.C. 327 or 363(b)(1). Likewise, if a debtor has used a non-employee tax accountant prepetition, it may be permissible to continue using that accountant postpetition without court authorization if the work is not central to the bankruptcy process but instead is part of the "ordinary course" operations of the debtor.

But this case does not appear to be anything like those situations. Mr. Garrison is a certified public accountant who was hired for his present tasks postpetition, and he does not appear to be an officer or employee of one or more of the debtor's businesses or the debtor herself. See dkt. 157, pp.

13-14 (Garrison decl.). Rather, he appears to be an accountant who is retroactively creating books and records for use in this bankruptcy case, and who fits the classic definition of a professional whose employment must be authorized under 11 U.S.C. 327. See, e.g., In re That's Entertainment Mktg. Group, Inc., 168 B.R. 226, 230 (N.D. Cal. 1994) (professional person is one who plays "an intimate role in the reorganization of a debtor's estate") (citations omitted).

The fact that Mr. Garrison's employment was not authorized is particularly troubling because none of the usual safeguards have been applied to assure that his employment is consistent with the best interests of the estate. Such safeguards are especially important when the person at issue has been hired to go through the debtor's "source documents" and retroactively create books and records. There is too much opportunity for whitewashing or other mischief when charged with such an important task.

Normal safeguards would include disclosing any "connections" with all parties in interest, providing evidence of qualifications, and proving that the proposed professional is disinterested and does not hold or represent any interest adverse to the bankruptcy estate. See 11 U.S.C. 101(14), 327(a) and Rule 2014 (Fed. R. Bankr. P.). Mr. Garrison's declaration does none of these things, except to declare that he has done "some work related to the Debtor's sole proprietorship businesses ...." Dkt. 157, p.13, para.5.

The tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 5/14/18 for the debtor and Mr. Garrison to file and serve declarations stating under oath all "connections" within the scope of Rule 2014, together with a motion for authority to employ Mr. Garrison (both retroactively and prospectively) under both section 327(a) and 363(b), to the extent that each may be applicable, and set that motion for hearing concurrent with the continued status conference.

(iv) Chilling the market? As noted above, the debtor concedes that most of the books and records with respect to her businesses are "either non-existent, or rudimentary," and her newly-hired controller is still in the process of attempting to construct books and records (dkt. 157, p.2:9-17). Yet the debtor states that "Ms. Haro [Urbanlime] has been informally shopping the three Cliff's entities for months" (dkt. 157, p.4:5-6) and has been "test[ing] the market" for her businesses (dkt. 157, p.5:18-24).

Normally, in this Court's experience, a buyer of a business requires reliable historical books and records, or else will impose a steep discount. Has the debtor used appropriate business judgment in marketing the businesses already? Has the market been chilled, and the estate harmed?

The tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 5/14/18 for the debtor to file and serve her declaration addressing those things.

(v) Employment of Urbanlime. The debtor has filed a separate motion to employ Urbanlime, not just for Bridge but for GJV, Inc. and the Cliff's Edge-related LLCs as well (dkt. 93, the "Urbanlime Motion"). That motion does not cite any section of the Bankruptcy Code, so it is unclear if Urbanlime's retention is sought to be approved under 11 U.S.C. 363(b) (as part of the use of the debtor's interest in Bridge out of the ordinary course) or under 11 U.S.C. 327 and/or 328 (retention of professionals).

The Committee supports that application (dkt. 142). That application nevertheless implicates the following issues.

First, this Court notes that Pierre Casanova, who is a 50% member with the debtor of the Cliff's Edge-related LLCs, has objected to Urbanlime's retention, but he takes no position with respect to Urbanlime's services involving Bridge or GJV, Inc. provided that the other LLCs' funds are not used to compensate Urbanlime. See dkt. 133, p.5, n.1. The tentative ruling is that any compensation to Urbanlime must come solely from proceeds of the transaction at issue, not from any other source.

Second, the Bridge Motion asserts that the application to hire Urbanlime "is probably not necessary" (dkt. 112, p.5:2), at least with respect to Bridge, because the sale, allegedly, is by the business not by the debtor herself. That assertion is not adequately supported.

For one thing, it is unclear whether the business purchase agreement (dkt. 112, Ex.1) is signed by the debtor in her personal capacity as well as on behalf of the business. Typed below her signature is "Dana Hollister/Bridge Tavern LLC." Dkt. 112, Ex.1, para. 46.

For another thing, the listing agreement with Urbanlime is also ambiguous. Its signature line (dkt. 93, Ex. C, at p.27) reads, "Clients: Dana Hollister, Pierre Casanova," which suggests that they are hiring Urbanlime in their individual capacities. It is true that the listing agreement is signed solely by the debtor (not Mr. Casanova), and she uses the title "President" - i.e., perhaps she is purporting to sign as the managing member (colloquially, "President") of the LLCs? But Mr. Casanova objects that the debtor had no authority to sign the listing agreement, either for him or for the Cliff's Edge-related LLCs. See dkt. 133, 134, 177. Cf. dkt. 157, p.5:1-5 (debtor's reply, still ambiguous). In sum, it is ambiguous in what capacity the debtor has signed the listing agreement, and therefore whether Urbanlime is being hired by the estate or by Bridge.

For all of these reasons, the ambiguous documentation suggests that Urbanlime may be representing the debtor/estate, not just Bridge. That may be a problem because Urbanlime discloses that it might act as broker for both the buyer and the seller (it is unclear whether it has in fact done so) and the posted Procedures of Judge Bason (available at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) give notice such dual agency is disapproved for persons hired by the estate (due to actual and potential conflicts of interest).

Alternatively, even if Urbanlime is not being hired by the debtor/estate directly, the tentative ruling is that it would be inappropriate to authorize a transaction out of the ordinary course under 11 U.S.C. 363(b) that had the effect of authorizing the retention of a professional by Bridge, whose goal should be to maximize the sale price, when that professional also represents a buyer whose interest is to minimize the sale price (among other terms of any purchase and sale). In other words, whether Urbanlime's retention is included within the Bridge Motion (11 U.S.C. 363(b)) or the Unrbanlime Application (11 U.S.C. 327, 328 and/or 363(b)), the tentative ruling is that if Urbanlime is hired it cannot engage in dual agency: it must arrange for a separate agent for the buyer.

That is potentially a serious problem. As noted above, the Villain's Tavern business has been reopened, and it is not clear who is running it. If the sale of the Bridge business and leasehold has already effectively occurred, it is questionable whether it will be possible to "unscramble the eggs" and arrange for the seller (the debtor/estate) and the buyer to have representation that is truly independent.

The tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 5/14/18 for the debtor to file and serve declarations by the debtor and Ms. Haro addressing those things. Those declarations must include all "connections" within the scope of Rule 2014.

(vi) Lack of notice to, or authorization by, Mr. Casanova. Mr. Casanova asserts, and the debtor does not deny, that she cannot act for the Cliff's Edge-related LLCs without his consent. But rather than serve him with papers in this bankruptcy case, the debtor has served the LLCs at her own address. See dkt. 133, 134, 177. Cf. dkt. 157.

The debtor argues that there is no harm to Mr. Casanova because he ended up finding out about the proposed transactions, and he can withhold his consent if he chooses. See dkt. 157. The debtor ignores the fact that, by not serving Mr. Casanova properly, she has misused the bankruptcy process. She also ignores the fact that, by already marketing the Cliff's Edge-related LLCs when she lacked the right to sell them, she may have promised prospective buyers what she cannot deliver and thereby chilled the bidding for any future marketing and sale.

(vii) Conclusion as to Bridge and Urbanlime. The tentative ruling is also to deny the Urbanlime Motion with respect to the Cliff's Edge-related entities. If the foregoing concerns in sections (1)(c)(i)-(vi) are adequately addressed, the tentative ruling is (A) to grant the Bridge Motion and (B) grant the Urbanlime Motion solely with respect to Bridge and GJV, Inc. But first the appropriate declarations must be filed, and the tentative ruling is to continue the Bridge Motion and the Urbanlime Motion to the same date and time as the continued status conference, with any supplemental oppositions and replies due at the usual time prior to the hearing (under the Local Bankruptcy Rules).

(d) Other employment applications. The parties should be prepared to address the oppositions (dkt. 56, 57) and the direct and indirect source(s) of funds used by the debtor to pay prepetition retainers (see dkt. 48, and cf. dkt. 9, p.6, dkt. 18, p.8, dkt. 20, p.8 - blank spaces instead of disclosure), including when the liens against the 1902 property arose (dkt. 48, Ex.A). In addition, the parties should be prepared to address the following issues:

(i) Proposed bankruptcy counsel - Tilem (dkt. 9, 10): (i) Why were resumes for associates, paralegals, and persons who are "of counsel" to the firm not included? (ii) Has counsel waived or amended the provisions in the retainer agreement regarding the "evergreen" retainer; "overtime" rates, and any attorney's lien? (iii) As for proposed out-sourcing, counsel must address whether employment of such counsel could result in imputed or actual conflicts of interest from any work performed by such attorneys for their own clients or for other law firms.

(ii) Proposed special counsel: the Robins firm and Horvitz firm (dkt. 18, 19, 20, 21). The hourly rates of proposed counsel at the Robins firm and Horvitz firm are substantially greater than those for the debtor's proposed general bankruptcy counsel and the Snyder firm. How will the debtor - acting as a debtor in possession with the duties of a trustee for the benefit of creditors - assure that the potential benefits are not outweighed by the costs that can be reasonably anticipated in connection with the ongoing litigation with Birds Nest, the Archbishop, and the Institute (as those terms are defined in the parties' papers)?

(iii) Proposed special counsel: the Snyder firm (dkt. 36, 37). (i) What is the nature of the litigation in which that firm represents the debtor and co-plaintiff, Bridge Tavern, LLC against Odysseuss Investment Group, LLC? (ii) What are the potential costs/risks and benefits? (iii) Is there any actual or potential conflict of interest between the two plaintiffs (e.g., if any judgment in their favor were to be allocated between them in a way that is unfavorable to one or the other)? (iv) From the description at the status conference on 3/9/18 it seemed that the Snyder firm might be assisting the debtor now or in future in transactional matters - is that so?

(1) Current issues.

(a) Cash flow and cash collateral motion (dkt. 5, 14, 15, 29). This Court's written order (dkt. 29) erroneously lists the continued hearing as 3/20/18 instead of 4/17/18 at 2:00 p.m., as orally ordered at the hearing on 3/9/18. Nevertheless, it is appropriate in connection with this Status Conference to address the debtor's current and projected cash flow and related issues.

This Court was not persuaded at the hearing on 3/9/18 that the debtor can generate positive cash flow. The debtor is directed to provide a brief update on any plans to generate positive cash flow from her various businesses and properties. It is also appropriate for other parties in interest to address whether there has been adequate disclosure to date regarding the finances of those businesses and properties. The debtor is cautioned that the declaration due on 3/27/18 must provide comprehensive disclosures regarding those businesses and properties: if the debtor cannot show reasonable prospects for positive cash flow within a reasonable time then this Court might have to grant relief from the automatic stay (upon a proper motion), or convert or dismiss this bankruptcy case, at least if the debtor does not abandon unprofitable businesses or properties.

Docket 39

Tentative Ruling:

Appearances required. There is no tentative ruling, but the parties should be prepared to address (a) whether the alleged arrears have been brought current and/or (b) whether they will agree to the terms of an adequate protection order (see the debtor's response, dkt. 41).

VS
DEBTOR

Docket 61

Tentative Ruling:

Grant as provided below. Appearances are not required.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

Termination. Terminate the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1).

Any co-debtor stay (11 U.S.C. 1301(c)) is also terminated, because it has not been shown to have any basis to exist independent of the stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(a). To the extent, if any, that the motion seeks to terminate the automatic stay in other past or pending bankruptcy cases, such relief is denied on the present record. See In re Ervin (Case No. 14-bk-18204-NB, docket no. 311).

Effective date of relief. Deny the request to waive the 14-day stay provided by FRBP 4001(a)(3) for lack of sufficient cause shown.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." Docket 23

Tentative Ruling:

Grant in part and continue in part to 7/10/18 at 10:00 a.m. as specified below.
Appearances are not required on 6/26/18.

The automatic stay does not apply. This case has been dismissed, which terminates the automatic stay. See 11 USC 349(b)(3) & 362(c).

In the alternative and in addition, this court grants relief from the automatic stay as follows.

Termination. Terminate the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1), (d)(2), and (d)(4).

Any co-debtor stay (11 U.S.C. 1301(c)) is also terminated, because it has not been shown to have any basis to exist independent of the stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(a). To the extent, if any, that the motion seeks to terminate the automatic stay in other past or pending bankruptcy cases, such relief is denied on the present record. See In re Ervin (Case No. 14-bk-18204-NB, docket no. 311).

Effective date of relief. Grant the request to waive the 14-day stay provided by FRBP 4001(a)(3).

Relief notwithstanding future bankruptcy cases.

As to the requested relief that will remain effective notwithstanding any future bankruptcy case, continue the motion to the date and time set forth at the start of this tentative ruling, for service on the persons who executed the documents through which the movant asserts its interest in the property (sometimes referred to in the mortgage context as the "original borrower"). Reasons: See LBR 4001-1(c)(1)(B). In addition, Judge Bason has due process concerns about granting such relief without service on the person(s) whose interests may be most directly affected. See generally Mullane v. Central Hanover Bank & Trust Co., 339 U.S. 306 (1950) (due process generally). In this matter, such persons appear to include, in addition to Mauro Hernandez (who was served), Maria C. Hernandez, who is described in the DOT as Mauro Hernandez' wife with a joint tenancy in the property.

Option for shortened time: This court has selected a continued hearing date that contemplates shortened notice (per Rule 9006) but that date is conditioned on the movant serving all papers on the day after the current hearing date. Alternatively, the movant may self-calendar a continued hearing on regular notice.

Option for interim/partial order: Movant may elect to lodge a proposed order granting the partial relief provided in this tentative ruling, but any such order must recite that a continued hearing has been set to consider additional relief (or, alternatively, that the movant no longer seeks additional relief and the Clerk's office is requested and directed to take the continued hearing off calendar).

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." Choong (case no. 2:14-bk-28378-NB, docket no. 31), as applicable:

If this order is duly recorded in compliance with applicable State laws governing notices of interests or liens in the property at issue, then no automatic stay shall apply to such property in any bankruptcy case purporting to affect such property and filed within two years after the date of entry of this order, unless otherwise ordered by the court presiding over that bankruptcy case.

For the avoidance of doubt, any acts by the movant to obtain exclusive possession of such property shall not be stayed. Any additional request for relief applicable to future bankruptcy cases is denied (e.g., any request to grant relief against third parties without any notice is denied) due to lack of sufficient factual or legal grounds presented in support of such relief.

Effective date of relief. Grant the request to waive the 14-day stay provided by FRBP 4001(a)(3).

DEBTOR

Docket 10

Tentative Ruling:

Grant as provided below. Appearances are not required.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this court's final ruling. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

The automatic stay does not apply. This case has been dismissed, which terminates the automatic stay. See 11 USC 349(b)(3) & 362(c).

In the alternative and in addition, this court grants relief from the automatic stay as follows.

Termination. Terminate the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1) and (d)(4).

Any co-debtor stay (11 U.S.C. 1301(c)) is also terminated, because it has not been shown to have any basis to exist independent of the stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(a). To the extent, if any, that the motion seeks to terminate the automatic stay in other past or pending bankruptcy cases, such relief is denied on the present record. See In re Ervin (Case No. 14-bk-18204-NB, docket no. 311).

Relief notwithstanding future bankruptcy cases.

Grant the following relief pursuant to 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(4) and the legal analysis in In re Vazquez (case no. 2:16-bk-10699-NB, dkt. 75) and/or In re

Appearances required but telephonic appearances are encouraged if advance arrangements are made (see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.", "Instructions/Procedures").

The tentative ruling is to deny the motion in part and grant it in part as follows.

(1) Texas property. The tentative ruling is to deny the motion with respect to any act by Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. ("Wells Fargo") to pursue its in rem remedies as to the Texas property, for the reasons stated in its opposition (dkt. 34) regarding the debtor's failure to rebut, by clear and convincing evidence, the presumption of lack of good faith due to:

(a) Adequate protection failure: failure to "provide adequate protection as ordered by the court" in the prior case (11 U.S.C. 362(c)(3)(C)(i)(II)(bb));

(b) Plan failure: failure to perform the terms of a confirmed plan (section 362(c)(3)(C)(i)(II)(cc));

(c) Lack of sufficiently substantial change: the debtor has not establishes a sufficiently substantial change in financial or personal affairs to make it likely that the present bankruptcy will not be concluded with a confirmed plan that will be fully performed, at least of the debtor retains the Texas property (11 U.S.C. 362(c)(3)(C)(i)(III)); and

(d) Negative cash flow: negative cash flow at at the Texas property, if Wells Fargo's mortgage is amortized at even the lowest range of permissible interest rates, is another reason to conclude that, if such property is not abandoned, the present bankruptcy case will not be concluded with a confirmed plan that will be fully performed (id.).

(b) Other acts/property/creditors. As to any other acts by Wells Fargo,

Docket 24

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for 6/26/18:

Deny request for relief notwithstanding future bankruptcy cases as set forth below. Appearances are not required on 6/26/18.

Reason: This Court's tentative ruling for 6/12/18 (see below) directed Movant to serve the motion on the original borrowers: (a) USA LA CASA S Investment, LLC, a California Limited Liability Company, and (b) Jaime Casas, and file a proof of service by 6/13/18. As of the preparation of this tentative ruling, Movant has not complied. Therefore, the tentative ruling is to deny Movant's request for relief notwithstanding future bankruptcy cases.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this court's final ruling. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

The automatic stay does not apply. This case has been dismissed, which terminates the automatic stay. See 11 USC 349(b)(3) & 362(c).

In the alternative and in addition, this court grants relief from the automatic stay as follows.

Termination. Terminate the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1).

Any co-debtor stay (11 U.S.C. 1301(c)) is also terminated, because it has not been shown to have any basis to exist independent of the stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(a). To the extent, if any, that the motion seeks to terminate the automatic stay in other past or pending bankruptcy cases, such relief is denied on the present record. See In re Ervin (Case No. 14-bk-18204-NB, docket no. 311).

Relief notwithstanding future bankruptcy cases.

As to the requested relief that will remain effective notwithstanding any future bankruptcy case, continue the motion to the date and time set forth at the start of this tentative ruling, for service on the persons who executed the documents through which the movant asserts its interest in the property (sometimes referred to in the mortgage context as the "original borrower"). Reasons: See LBR 4001-1(c)(1)(B). In addition, Judge Bason has due process concerns about granting such relief without service on the person(s) whose interests may be most directly affected. See generally Mullane v. Central Hanover Bank & Trust Co., 339 U.S. 306 (1950) (due process generally). In this matter, such persons appear to include: (a) USA LA CASA S Investment, LLC, a California Limited Liability Company, and (b) Jaime Casas.

Option for shortened time: This court has selected a continued hearing date that contemplates shortened notice (per Rule 9006) but that date is conditioned on the movant serving all papers on the day after the current hearing date in accordance with Rule 7004(b)(1) and (3) (FRBP). Alternatively, the movant may self-calendar a continued hearing on regular notice.

Option for interim/partial order: Movant may elect to lodge a proposed order granting the partial relief provided in this tentative ruling, but any such order must recite that a continued hearing has been set to consider additional relief (or, alternatively, that the movant no longer seeks additional relief and the Clerk's office is requested and directed to take the continued hearing off calendar).

Effective date of relief. Grant the request to waive the 14-day stay provided by FRBP 4001(a)(3).

Docket 35

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for 6/26/18:

Deny the request for in rem relief (without prejudice to the other types of relief already granted, dkt. 56) because the movant did not serve the motion papers as required by the tentative rulings for 6/12/18 and 5/22/18 (reproduced below). Appearances are not required.

Tentative Ruling for 6/12/18:

Continue to 6/26/18 at 10:00 a.m. as set forth below as a final continuance. Appearances are not required on 6/12/18.

Analysis:

(1) Background. On 5/9/18, Movant filed an amended motion (dkt. 50). The amended motion was not properly served, so this Court's tentative ruling for 5/22/18 (reproduced below) set a continued hearing date of 5/29/18 with directions for Movant to properly serve necessary parties with the motion and notice of the continued hearing date. At the hearing on 5/22/18, counsel for Movant appeared and requested this Court continue the hearing to 6/12/18 (instead of 5/29/18), which was granted. Accordingly, this matter was not listed on this Court's calendar for 5/29/18.

Nevertheless, on 5/23/18, Movant served notice of the continued hearing with a 5/29/18 hearing date (dkt. 53). This Court issued a Notice to Filer of Error and/or Deficient Document and directed Movant to refile the notice of continued hearing (see dkt. 54), but as of the preparation of this tentative ruling Movant has not done so.

Therefore, the tentative ruling is to continue the hearing to the date and time stated at the start of this tentative ruling to afford Movant a final opportunity to properly serve necessary parties with the motion and notice of the continued hearing date.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." If appearances are required, and you fail to appear without adequately resolving this matter by consent, then you may waive your right to be heard on matters that are appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

Tentative Ruling for 5/22/18:

Continue to 5/29/18 at 10:00 a.m. as set forth below. Appearances are not required on 5/22/18.

Analysis:

(1) Background. At the hearing on 5/8/18 counsel for the movant engaged in a colloquy with this Court regarding possible relief from the automatic stay that would be effective notwithstanding this or other bankruptcy cases. This matter was continued from 5/8/18 on shortened notice to allow Movant to file and serve appropriate papers requesting such relief. On 5/9/18, Movant filed an amended motion (dkt. 50).

(2) Request for relief in other bankruptcy cases filed in future bankruptcy cases, but not currently pending or past bankruptcy cases

The motion requests relief in future bankruptcy cases (aka "in rem" relief). Implicitly the motion might be seeking relief notwithstanding currently pending or past bankruptcy cases, but it does not actually request such relief.

The motion notes that a large number of persons appear to have alleged that they have an interest in the property, notwithstanding the foreclosure sale that resulted in the movant's interest in the property. The motion implies that the alleged interests might be a complete sham.

This Court recognizes that this might be so. This Court notes (a) the large number of alleged interests; (b) the multiple bankruptcy cases that appear to be involved, (c) this Court's order dismissing this case with a two year bar (dkt. 42); and (d) this Court's orders that certain persons connected to this case appear and show cause why they should not be sanctioned (dkt. 48, 49). Based on similar facts and circumstances, this Court has been persuaded in the past to grant relief applicable to past or pending bankruptcy cases (not just future bankruptcy cases), but only when expressly requested (and supported with adequate evidence), and only when requested via an adversary proceeding. See In re Ervin (Case No. 14-bk-18204-NB, docket no. 311). The movant has not followed such procedures, nor has the movant made any request for relief expressly applicable to any currently pending or past bankruptcy cases, so this Court construes the motion as requesting relief that is only applicable to future bankruptcy cases.

(3) The motion was not served on most of the persons who apparently assert an interest in the property

The tentative ruling is to continue the motion to the date and time set forth at the start of this tentative ruling for service on the persons described below. According to the motion, various persons "claim to have a 'right to possession' as alleged tenants of the former owners [or singular owner?]" of the property prior to foreclosure (dkt. 50, p.7, para. 5.(4)). The tentative ruling is that such persons (and perhaps others) require notice of the relief sought in the motion.

This Court recognizes that any foreclosure might have wiped out the interests of any tenants. On the other hand in various situations that is not necessarily so - e.g., if the tenancy pre-dated the deed of trust and there was no agreement for subordination or the like then perhaps foreclosure did not wipe out the tenancies; or perhaps applicable nonbankruptcy law would protect residential tenants in some fashion; or perhaps even a bare possessory interest is entitled to some protection (perhaps that interest would be enough for a tenant to obtain the benefits of the automatic stay in their own future bankruptcy case long enough for an orderly move-out).

The point is not that the alleged tenants necessarily have any actual rights or ability to oppose the motion for "in rem" relief - Judge Bason is not prejudging those things one way or the other. Rather, the point is that Judge Bason has due process concerns about granting relief that would be effective notwithstanding any future bankruptcy filing without any notice to the alleged tenants or any others who may claim an interest in the property. See generally Mullane v. Central Hanover Bank & Trust Co., 339 U.S. 306 (1950) (due process generally).

The alleged tenants appear to be Catry Cho and Vivian Cho (dkt. 50, Ex.3); Robert Garviria and John Blanco (dkt. 50, Ex.4); Jonathan Marroquin and Zena Hill possibly aka Zena Louise Hill possibly aka Bonita D Hill (see cases no. 2:18-bk-14316-ER and 2:17-bk-21208-BR) (dkt. 50, Continuation Page, at PDF pp.12-13); Beanca "Bea" Cho (dkt. 50 at PDF pp.12-13); and Juan Herrera (one of the debtors in this case) (id.). In addition, the owner prior to foreclosure appears to have been Martin W. Gentry (the trustor under the deed of trust prior to foreclosure) (dkt. 50, Ex.1, at PDF p.5 of 21), and given the possibility that the alleged tenants or Mr. Gentry assert that some sort of alleged interest survived the foreclosure it appears appropriate to require service on him as well.

Accordingly, the tentative ruling is to direct the movant to serve (i) its papers and (ii) notice of the continued hearing date substantially as follows:

Martin W. Gentry; Catry Cho; Vivian Cho; Robert Garviria; John Blanco; Jonathan Marroquin; Zena Hill; Zena Louise Hill; Bonita D Hill; Beanca "Bea" Cho; Juan Herrera; Anais Cabrera; and any other residents or persons asserting an interest in the premises
34471 Via Gomez
Dana Point, CA 92624

(4) Option for shortened time: This Court has selected a continued hearing date that contemplates shortened notice (per Rule 9006, Fed. R. Bankr. P.) but that date is conditioned on the movant serving all papers on the day after the current hearing date. Alternatively, the movant may self-calendar a continued hearing on regular notice.

(5) Option for interim/partial order: Movant may elect to lodge a proposed order granting the partial relief provided in this tentative ruling, but any such order must recite that a continued hearing has been set to consider additional relief (or, alternatively, that the movant no longer seeks additional relief and the Clerk's office is requested and directed to take the continued hearing off calendar).

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." If appearances are required, and you fail to appear without adequately resolving this matter by consent, then you may waive your right to be heard on matters that are appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

Tentative Ruling for 5/8/18:

Grant as provided below. Appearances are not required.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

Termination. Terminate the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1) and (d)(2).

Any co-debtor stay (11 U.S.C. 1301(c)) is also terminated, because it has not been shown to have any basis to exist independent of the stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(a). To the extent, if any, that the motion seeks to terminate the automatic stay in other past or pending bankruptcy cases, such relief is denied on the present record. See In re Ervin (Case No. 14-bk-18204-NB, docket no. 311).

Effective date of relief. Grant the request to waive the 14-day stay provided by FRBP 4001(a)(3).

Chapter 11

#1.00 Status conference re: Chapter 11 case

Docket 6

Tentative Ruling:

Appearances required by counsel for the debtor and by the debtor themselves.

(1) Current issues. This Court has reviewed the debtors' status report (dkt. 14), and the other filed documents and records in this case.

(a) May MOR (dkt. 18). The MOR purports to cover the period from 5/28/18 (the petition date) to 5/31/18, but is essentially blank, including the section for disclosure of existing insurance coverage (dkt. 18, pdf p. 5). Debtors should be prepared to address (i) whether they have insurance coverage on their residential real property (and any other asset requiring insurance); and, if they do (ii) whether they read the MOR and understood it prior to signing.

(b) Case Status Report (dkt. 14).

(i) Budget Motion. The status report says that a budget motion is not required by Judge Bason's procedures (dkt. 14, pdf p. 3), but that is not correct. See Judge Bason's Procedures, Section VII.F ("Judge Bason requires the use of local forms F 2081-2.2.MOTION.BUDGET and F 2081-2.2.ORDER.BUDGET"). Did counsel actually review the posted procedures? The tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 6/28/18 to file and serve a budget motion.

(ii) Consumers' confidential information. The status report states that the debtors do not have possession, custody, or control of consumers' confidential information (dkt. 14, pdf p. 10), but this Court questions whether that is accurate. What about customer lists from Hey Baby Sales, Inc.? Do the debtors claim any rights to those lists? (e.g. if the case were converted to a chapter 7 case, a sale of the debtors' interest in the company took place, and the buyer wanted the customer lists, would the debtors agree they could not retain or use the lists because the lists are owned by the company?).

The debtors should be prepared to address what steps they will take to

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 5/28/18.

(a) Bar date: 9/4/18 (DO NOT SERVE notice yet - court will prepare an order after the status conference).

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: file by 9/25/18 using the forms required by Judge Bason (DO NOT SERVE yet, except on the U.S. Trustee - the court will set a deadline and procedures at a later time).

(c) Continued status conference: 8/14/18 at 1:00 p.m., brief status report due 7/31/18.

*Warning: special procedures apply (see order setting initial status conference).
