#8.00 Cont'd hrg re: Motion for an Order Directing the Chapter 7 Trustee to Abandon the Real Property Located at 10315 Kingerman Ave., South El Monte, California 91733 as it is of Inconsequential Value to the Estate
fr. 3/3/20, 04/21/20

Docket 158

Tentative Ruling:

Revised Tentative Ruling for 6/16/20:

Grant the motion, in view of the Trustee's 6/16/20 report of no distribution. Appearances are not required. If you wish to dispute the tentative ruling you must notify other parties of your intent to appear telephonically.

Pursuant to Judge Bason's COVID19 Procedures, ONLY TELEPHONIC APPEARANCES WILL BE PERMITTED until further notice. Please contact CourtCall at (888) 882-6878 to make arrangements for any telephonic appearance. There is no need to contact the Court for permission. Parties who are not represented by an attorney will be able to use CourtCall for free through 6/30/20. Attorneys will receive a 25% discount (for more information, see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.," "Telephonic Instructions").

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." If appearances are required, and you fail to appear telephonically without adequately resolving this matter by consent, then you may waive your right to be heard on matters that are appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

This matter was continued to this date to allow more time for the Trustee to continue efforts to sell the property. There is no tentative ruling, but the Trustee should be prepared to provide an update on the status of those efforts.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." Tentative Ruling for 3/3/20:

Deny. Appearances required.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this Court's final ruling, subject to any changes ordered at the hearing. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

Key documents reviewed (in addition to motion papers): Trustee's opposition (dkt. 160) and request for hearing (dkt. 161); reply (dkt.162).

Reasons for denial: The tentative ruling is to deny the motion for abandonment because, although there is not a large amount of equity above the homestead exemption, there is some equity based on the only evidence before this Court, and Debtor's argument would enable any debtor in bankruptcy essentially to increase the homestead exemption by tens of thousands of dollars. It is very understandable that Debtors wish to retain

fr. 3/17/20, 03/31/20, 5/12/20

Docket 1

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for 6/16/20:

Appearances required by counsel for the Debtor and the Subchapter V Trustee.

Pursuant to Judge Bason's COVID19 Procedures, ONLY TELEPHONIC APPEARANCES WILL BE PERMITTED until further notice. Please contact CourtCall at (888) 882-6878 to make arrangements for any telephonic appearance. There is no need to contact the Court for permission. Parties who are not represented by an attorney will be able to use CourtCall for free through 6/30/20. (1) Current issues

(a) Debtor's application to employ general bankruptcy counsel (the "Employment Application," dkt. 16)

This Court's order (dkt. 53) set the Employment Application for hearing and directed Debtor to file and serve a declaration and/or brief addressing the issues set forth in the order no later than 6/2/20. As of the drafting of this tentative ruling, no such additional papers have been filed. Why not?

Debtor is directed to address the issues raised in this Court's order (dkt. 53).

(b) Debtor's plan

Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. 1189(b), Debtor was required to file a plan no later than 6/4/20. As of the drafting of this tentative ruling, no plan has been filed. Why not? If no party in interest has sought any consequence for missing that deadline, should this Court impose any remedy sua sponte?

Chapter 11

(c) Monthly Operating Report ("MOR") (4/20) (dkt.57)

The MOR shows that Debtor has only $168.94 in the bank. The MOR shows substantial negative cash flow, even before including the unpaid quarterly sales taxes. The MOR also shows that Debtor's projection of $8,000 for cash receipts in April of 2020 was off by $3,682.58, and if Debtor's projection of $8,000 of cash receipts for May of 2020 is off by a similar amount then Debtor will have a negative account balance. Is Debtor's business doing anything but depleting the bankruptcy estate?

In addition, this Court notes that Debtor's MOR has a typographical error (in line 22, "net case flow" instead of "net cash flow"). This suggests that the MOR is not on the US Trustee's official form. How can parties in interest and this Court rely on the completeness of the MOR if it is not on the official form?

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 3/6/20.

(a) Bar date: 5/15/20 per General Order 20-01 (70 days after petition date in Subchapter V cases) (DO NOT SERVE any notice: one has already been sent, see dkt. 11, 18).

Appearances required by counsel for the Debtor.

Pursuant to Judge Bason's COVID19 Procedures, ONLY TELEPHONIC APPEARANCES WILL BE PERMITTED until further notice. (1) Current issues

(a) Outdated mailing address?

Debtor's petition designated 525 E. Colorado Blvd., Pasadena, CA 91101 (the "Colorado Blvd Address") as its address for purposes of service (dkt. 1). But Debtor subsequently rejected its sublease of certain premises located at the Colorado Blvd Address (dkt. 90, 92). As a result, it is not clear if Debtor has been receiving personal service of this Court's orders and/or papers filed in this case. By no later than 6/19/20 Debtor is directed to amend its address to ensure it is receiving notice of all papers and proceedings in this case.

(b) Debtor's motion to extend exclusivity periods (dkt. 112, 113, 117, the "Exclusivity Motion"), untimely opposition of Christopher Becker ("Mr. Becker") (dkt. 127), order setting hearing on Exclusivity Motion (dkt. 129), Debtor's reply (dkt. 136), Mr. Becker's unauthorized sur-reply (dkt. 137)

The tentative ruling is to deny the motion. On the one hand, Mr. Becker's opposition was not timely filed and served, and he offers no excuse for that untimeliness in his opposition papers. In addition, this Court recognizes the challenges presented by COVID19, and by the restaurant and cooking school businesses generally, all of which make it understandable that it would take more time than usual for Debtor to propose a chapter 11 plan.

On the other hand, even disregarding Mr. Becker's papers, this Court takes note of Debtor's representations that this case is administratively insolvent (dkt. 95, p.3:18-19), that Debtor does not anticipate that its business operations will resume (dkt. 123, p. 9:13-14), and that Best Rich no longer appears to be willing to purchase Debtor's business or continue to fund ongoing operations (id., p. 9:14-18). Considering these matters, and all other relevant facts and circumstances reflected in prior hearings and on the docket, the tentative ruling is that Debtor has not established sufficient cause to extend exclusivity, and to the contrary creditors would be better served by allowing exclusivity to terminate and permitting creditors an opportunity to propose a viable plan.

(c) Weintraub & Selth, APC's fee application (dkt. 123, 124), declaration of Shaojing (Ewen) Xu in support of fee application (dkt. 132), MAC LBNA, LLC's ("MAC") limited opposition (dkt. 128), Debtor's reply (dkt. 135)

The tentative ruling is to approve Weintraub & Selth's request for fees in the amount of $110,208.12 and expenses in the amount of $1,925.16, for a total award of $112,133.28. As for the request for immediate payment, the tentative ruling is that on the legal issue Weintraub & Selth is correct that if funds are contributed to a debtor and are earmarked for payment to a professional then other administrative claimants such as MAC do not have a right to those funds. But the tentative ruling is that the declarations in support of such contribution and earmarking are too vague (and, as of the preparation of this tentative ruling, one is unsigned). When was the alleged earmarking agreement entered into? Is it in writing? Does the history of equity contributions to Debtor and Debtor's use of the funds suggest that the funds were to be used for all bankruptcy purposes or were earmarked for specific purposes?

The tentative ruling is to set a continued hearing, contemporaneous with the continued status conference (see part "(2)" of this tentative ruling, below). The tentative ruling is to set a deadline of two weeks prior to that continued hearing to file and serve any supplemental papers in support of

Tentative Ruling for 3/3/20:

Grant as set forth below. Appearances required.

Key documents reviewed: Original motion of Michael George Tremblay, as Trustee ("Tremblay") for relief from the automatic stay (dkt. 9), debtor's response (dkt. 11), Celtic Bank Corporation's limited objection (dkt. 18, 40), debtor's supplemental opposition and supporting declarations (dkt. 25, 26, 27, 29), stipulations to continue hearing and orders thereon (dkt. 62, 63, 83, 87), Tremblay's amended motion for relief from stay (dkt. 93), Debtor's opposition (dkt. 95) and evidentiary objections (dkt. 96), reply (dkt.119).

Analysis

(1) Service

As Debtor points out (dkt.94, pp.4:13-5:2), under Rule 4001 (Fed. R. Bankr. P.) a motion for relief from the automatic stay must be served on Debtor's list of 20 largest general unsecured creditors. Debtor asserts that the motion was not served in accordance with that rule; but the original motion was (dkt.9, at PDF pp.61-64) and Debtor cites no authority that the amendments to the motion were so substantial that they would require re-noticing. Any creditor who cared to follow the progress of the original motion would be able to do so, and file any papers or make any arguments they wish. The tentative ruling is that Debtor's argument that additional service is required is not persuasive.

(2) Evidentiary objections

The tentative ruling is to overrule Debtor's evidentiary objections (dkt.96), which are not well taken. For example, Debtor objects to Movant's valuation evidence on grounds of relevance. How can Debtor assert that the value of the subject property is irrelevant when it is clearly relevant under the statute (11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1) and (2)) and when the Amended Motion asserts (dkt.93, p.3, para.4.a.(1)(A)&(B) & p.4, para.4.b.) that (i) the subject property's value is inadequate to protect Movant's interest and is declining, and (ii) Debtor lacks any equity in the property (and that the property is not necessary to an effective reorganization)?

(3) Valuation

Chapter 11

Although valuation is relevant, the tentative ruling is that this Court cannot resolve the parties' valuation disputes without an evidentiary hearing (or other procedure, such as an agreement of the parties to be bound by the valuation determined by an independent appraiser selected by each of their appraisers). Normally this Court would set an evidentiary hearing (or other procedures) and establish associated deadlines and other procedures. But the tentative ruling is that all such procedures are unnecessary because Movant has shown other "cause" for relief from the automatic stay.

(4) Cause for relief from the automatic stay

Movant asserts that Debtor has shown bad faith, and that this is "cause" for relief from the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1). The tentative ruling is to agree.

This is Debtor's second bankruptcy case. The first case (Case No. 2:19-bk-21504-NB) was filed on 9/30/19 and dismissed on 11/5/19 for failure to file required documents. Before that case was dismissed, Tremblay filed a motion for relief from the automatic stay in which he pointed out that Debtor was ineligible for chapter 13 under 11 U.S.C. 109(e) and accused Debtor of intentionally misusing the bankruptcy system for purposes of delay. See Case No. 2:19-bk-21504-NB, dkt.10, p.5). Nevertheless, Debtor filed this case as another chapter 13 case on 11/20/19.

This Court recognizes that at the time each case was filed Debtor had no attorney of record. But Debtor owns multiple real properties and two businesses (one that recently ceased operating), and there is no showing that Debtor is unsophisticated.

Nor is there any showing that Debtor was unable to read and understand Tremblay's motion, or was unable to find an attorney to represent her, despite her substantial alleged assets and income. This Court takes judicial notice that other debtors with a range of assets, liabilities, income, expenses, and other characteristics regularly understand the chapter 13 debt limits and regularly retain bankruptcy attorneys, especially after having been accused of misusing the bankruptcy system.

In other words, Movant has established a prima facie showing that Debtor's two chapter 13 bankruptcy petitions were filed in bad faith. The burden is on Debtor to rebut that showing. Instead, the tentative ruling is that Debtor has done the opposite.

True, Debtor belatedly retained an attorney, and filed a motion to convert this case to chapter 11, which this Court granted effective just over two months ago, on 1/2/20. Subsequently, however, this Court has noted Debtor's lack of prosecution of this chapter 11 case. See Tentative Rulings for Status Conference (calendar no. 16, 3/3/20 at 1:00 p.m.).

Even now, over three months after the petition date (11/20/19), Debtor still has not proposed any sale of her properties, or other method to pay her creditors within a reasonable time. Debtor's filed papers suggest that she is entirely reliant on rental income, but that income is uncertain and the net amount apparently is very modest (if anything), after mortgages and other expenses (see Tentative Ruling for Status Conference, calendar no.16 on 3/3/20 at 1:00 p.m.). See also Jan. MOR (dkt.103) ($0 income reported).

Debtor proposes a chapter 11 plan (dkt.97) that appears unconfirmable on its face. As Movant points out, the plan proposes to modify Movant's claim (and another claim) both of which appear to be secured only by an interest in Debtor's principal residence, in contravention of 11 U.S.C. 1123(b)(5). See dkt.97, pp.3:1-4:10. Moreover, the plan proposes what appear to be interest-only payments with a balloon payment of the entire principal many months later. See dkt.97, Ex.A & A-1, at PDF pp.8&10, Classes 2A & 2B. See also dkt.119, p.3:1-8.

For all of these reasons, the tentative ruling is that Debtor has filed and has prosecuted (or failed to prosecute) her two bankruptcy cases in bad faith. The tentative ruling is that this is sufficient "cause" for relief from the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1). Specifically, the tentative ruling is to grant the following relief.

Termination

Terminate the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1).

To the extent, if any, that the motion seeks to terminate the automatic stay in other past or pending bankruptcy cases, such relief is denied on the present record. See In re Ervin (Case No. 14-bk-18204-NB, docket no. 311).

Effective date of relief

Grant the request to waive the 14-day stay provided by FRBP 4001(a) (3).

Co-debtor stay

Any co-debtor stay (11 U.S.C. 1301(c)) has not been shown to have any basis for any different treatment from the stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(a), so the tentative ruling is to grant the identical relief regarding any co-debtor stay.

Tentative Ruling for 12/17/19:

Appearances required. There is no tentative ruling, but the parties should be prepared to address (a) whether the alleged arrears have been brought current and/or (b) whether they will agree to the terms of an adequate protection order (see the debtor's response, dkt. 11). In addition the tentative ruling is that if this Court grants any relief to Movant, it will grant parallel relief to junior creditors, including creditor Celtic Bank Corporation (see dkt. 40) and alleged secured creditor Oxygen Funding, Inc., to exercise whatever remedies they may or may not have under applicable nonbankruptcy law.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." If appearances are required, and you fail to appear without adequately resolving this matter by consent, then you may waive your right to be heard on matters that are appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for 6/16/20:

Appearances required.

Pursuant to Judge Bason's COVID19 Procedures, ONLY TELEPHONIC APPEARANCES WILL BE PERMITTED until further notice. Please contact CourtCall at (888) 882-6878 to make arrangements for any telephonic appearance. There is no need to contact the Court for permission. Parties who are not represented by an attorney will be able to use CourtCall for free through 6/30/20. (1) Current issues

(a) Case progress

At the last hearing on 6/5/20, this Court removed debtor as debtor in possession and expanded the powers and duties of the Subchapter V Trustee (see dkt. 232). There is no tentative ruling, but the parties should be prepared to update this Court on any progress that has occurred since the last hearing.

The parties also should be prepared to address whether this Court should set a new deadline for Debtor to file an amended disclosure statement and amended plan at this time.

(b) Motion for relief from stay by Mr. Tremblay as trustee (as amended, dkt. 93), debtor's supplemental declaration (dkt. 129), previously-filed papers (see tentative ruling for 3/3/20, reproduced at calendar no. 10, 6/16/20 at 1:00 p.m)

The tentative ruling is to take this motion off calendar, without prejudice to filing any amended motion for relief from the automatic stay in future. The reasons are as follows.

At prior hearings this Court was persuaded to continue this matter. As for Debtor's alleged bad faith, the tentative ruling is that any bad faith by Debtor herself is no longer sufficient cause for relief from the automatic stay because this Court has removed Debtor as a debtor in possession - although, if Debtor were to fail to cooperate with the Subchapter V Trustee, or otherwise fail to comply with her ongoing duties, that might change. As for valuation of the property, the tentative ruling is that it is premature to address that issue, until the Subchapter V Trustee has had an opportunity to explore options for dealing with the property and negotiating with creditors.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 11/20/19, converted from chapter 13 to chapter 11 on 1/2/20, and designated by Debtor as a Subchapter V case on 3/2/20 (dkt.128).

(1) Current issues

(a) Combined status conferences

Three cases are jointly administered: In re Anthony Chan (Case No. 2:20-bk-11409-NB) ("Chan"); In re A Touch of Brass, Inc. (Case No. 2:20-bk-11555-NB) ("Brass"); and A.C. Yu Chan Holding, Inc. (Case No. 2:20-bk-11476-NB) ("Holding"). This status conference addresses all three cases.

(b) Holding's Application to Employ Leesh Tishman Fuscaldo & Lampl, Inc.'s ("Leesh Tishman") (dkt. 72, 75), UST's opposition (dkt. 81), Elegant's opposition (dkt. 89), Leesh Tishman's reply (dkt. 95), Interim employment order (dkt. 113), Holding's supplemental reply (dkt. 122)

The tentative ruling is to grant the application, and authorize Leesh Tishman's employment under 11 U.S.C. 327(a) and 330, subject to Judge Bason's standard employment terms.

(1) Current issues

(a) Combined status conferences

Three cases are jointly administered: In re Anthony Chan (Case No. 2:20-bk-11409-NB) ("Chan"); In re A Touch of Brass, Inc. (Case No. 2:20-bk-11555-NB) ("Brass"); and A.C. Yu Chan Holding, Inc. (Case No. 2:20-bk-11476-NB) ("Holding"). This status conference addresses all three cases.

(b) Mediation

At a hearing on 3/3/20, this Court ordered the jointly administered Debtors and Elegant to participate in mediation. What is the status of those efforts?

(c) Chan Monthly Operating Report ("MOR") (dkt. 102)

Debtor Chan's April MOR reflects bi-weekly payroll income from AC Air Technology ("Air") (pdf p. 15), which he indicates he only started receiving post-petition. But Debtor Chan has not filed a declaration of current and post-petition income and expenses (on the Local Form).

In addition, it is unclear what funds previously have been or currently are being received from or disbursed to or by Debtor Chan's affiliates, including but not limited to his non-filing spouse and her family. See dkt.107, pp.2:5-4:4. As pointed out by Le Elegant Bath, Inc. ("Elegant") (dkt.107, p.2:4-15), absent a valid agreement regarding separate property, it appears that Debtor and his bankruptcy estate may have a community property interest in the non-debtor spouse's income. In addition, all three Debtors are reminded of the following provision from this Court's identical orders in all three bankruptcy cases:

4. Affiliates. For all reporting purposes – including Monthly Operating Reports ("MORs"), disclosure statements, etc. – Debtor must disclose all income, expenses, assets, and liabilities of (a) affiliated businesses and (b) any spouse. See §§ 101(2) & (9); Rule 2015.3; SBE v. Woo, 82 Cal. App.4th 481, 483-84 (2000). Prior authorization of this Court is required for Debtor to cause any affiliate to act out of the ordinary course of that affiliate's business (§ 363(c)). Debtor may request at the principal status conference to be excused from these requirements. [Order (Chan dkt.3), p.2:13-19.]

All three Debtors are reminded that failing to abide by the above-quoted order; failing to provide accurate reporting of revenues and expenses; and failing to obtain approval for the use of cash collateral (11 U.S.C. 363(c)) or for transactions out of the ordinary course (11 U.S.C. 363(b)) can be grounds for conversion or dismissal of this case or appointment of a chapter 11 trustee. See 11 U.S.C. 1104, 1112.

(d) Debtor Chan's amended budget motion (dkt.44, amended by dkt.94), opposition of Le Elegant Bath, Inc. ("Elegant") (dkt. 107), Debtor Chan's reply (dkt. 114)

The tentative ruling is to direct Debtor Chan no later than 6/9/20 to file amended MORs, amended Bankruptcy Schedules I and J, a statement of postpetition income and expenses (on the mandatory local form), and a further amended budget motion, all in compliance with the requirements summarized above. The tentative ruling is not to authorize any further responses to the amended budget motion at this time, but instead to hold a further interim hearing on the (amended) budget motion concurrent with the continued status conference (see part "(2)" of this tentative ruling below). At that time this Court can determine whether to set a briefing schedule, or other procedures in connection with whatever further amended budget motion is filed by Debtor Chan.

(c) Debtor Brass's cash collateral motion (dkt. 11), first interim order authorizing cash collateral (dkt. 37), Elegant's opposition (dkt. 47), Brass's reply (dkt. 49), second interim order authorizing cash collateral (dkt. 58)

The tentative ruling is to grant the motion on a final basis, on the same conditions set forth in the second interim order authorizing debtor's use of cash collateral (dkt. 58).

Proposed orders: Debtor Brass is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1) (B).

(1) Current issues

(a) Debtor's eligibility to elect Subchapter V

On 6/4/20, Debtor amended her petition to elect application of Subchapter V of chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (dkt. 238, p.4, line 13). On 6/8/20, the UST filed a notice of appointment of John-Patrick McGinnis Fritz as Subchapter V Trustee (dkt. 240). This Court questions whether Debtor is eligible to elect Subchapter V.

Debtor is not within the debt limit for a "small business debtor": an aggregate of $2,725,625 or less of noncontingent liquidated secured and unsecured debts as of the petition date. 11 U.S.C. 101(51D)(A). Debtor's Summary of Assets and Liabilities (dkt. 232, at PDF p. 35) lists $6,792,923.99 in total liabilities as of the petition date.

Debtor's status report notes that "the debt limit was increased under the provisions of the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act." Dkt.236, p.3:26-28. It is true that 11 U.S.C. 1182(1) was amended, effective March 27, 2020, to raise the debt limit to $7,500,000. But the CARES Act (Pub. Law 116-136, section 1113) provides that such amendment "shall apply only with respect to cases commenced [under the Bankruptcy Code] on or after the date of enactment of this Act" (with a sunset provision after one year). Debtor's bankruptcy petition was filed on 7/17/19. So it appears that Debtor is ineligible to elect to proceed under Subchapter V.

(b) Motion of the U.S. Trustee ("UST") to dismiss (dkt. 65, "MTD"), debtor's opposition (dkt. 86), UST's reply (dkt. 168, 170), debtor's response (dkt. 179), debtor's status report (dkt. 180), stipulation and order re pre-petition bank account (dkt. 212, 221)

The hearing on the MTD has been continued many times. The UST's reasons for seeking relief have expanded as this case has continued. In addition, this Court has expressed its own concerns, and is prepared to act on its own motion under 11 U.S.C. 105(a).

The MTD seeks either dismissal, conversion, or appointment of a chapter 11 trustee. The tentative ruling is that there is cause for relief under 11 U.S.C. 1104 and 1112, and that appointment of a chapter 11 trustee is in the best interests of creditors, for the reasons set forth in the tentative ruling for 5/5/20, part (1)(a) and prior tentative rulings (reproduced below).

In addition, another reason for appointment of a chapter 11 trustee is that any such trustee could act much the way a Subchapter V trustee might act, in terms of attempting to foster a consensual resolution. The UST might even select Mr. Fritz for that role, given his experience with this case already.

Nor would appointment of a chapter 11 trustee necessarily mean that Debtor would lose the ability to propose a plan, or that parties in interest would lose the benefits of the streamlined procedures in Subchapter V. For example, in small cases the posted Procedures of Judge Bason (available at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) contemplate a combined hearing on final approval of a disclosure statement and confirmation of a proposed plan, after any gating issues have been addressed at status conferences and/or through motion practice. See 11 U.S.C. 105(d)(2)(B)(vi) (authorizing combined hearing on plan and disclosure statement).

These are additional reasons why the tentative ruling is to appoint a chapter 11 trustee.

dba ClaimsXP (dkt. 167, "Application"); opposition of Wilmington Savings Fund Society ("Wilmington") (dkt. 181, 182); notice of hearing (dkt. 184); Debtor's reply (dkt. 192), statement of disinterestedness (dkt. 217), Debtor's supplement (dkt. 241)

The parties should be prepared to address whether this Court should grant the Application, on the modified terms described in Debtor's supplement (dkt. 241). If this Court were to order the appointment of a chapter 11 trustee, and if it is unknown whether that person will be Mr. Friz, then this issue might have to be deferred until the chapter 11 trustee is appointed and can be heard on this issue.

(d) Contemplated motion to approve settlement with Wilmington Savings Fund ("Wilmington")

The tentative ruling is to take this matter off-calendar in view of (i) the tentative ruling to appoint a chapter 11 trustee and (ii) Debtor's representation that she will pursue approval of the contemplated settlement through her chapter 11 plan (dkt. 236, p.3:18-25).

(e) Wilmington's motion for relief from stay (dkt. 147), James Haycock's response (dkt. 157), Shiv and Saroj Gupta's opposition (dkt. 158), Debtor's opposition (dkt. 159, 160), Andrea Friedlander's joinder to Gupta opposition (dkt. 163), Wilmington's reply (dkt. 165, 166), orders granting in part, denying in part, motion for relief from stay (dkt. 173, 174)

There is no tentative ruling. The parties should be prepared to discuss whether this motion should be taken off calendar, without prejudice to Wilmington resetting it for hearing, in view of the parties' representations that they have reached a settlement that will resolve this motion.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 7/17/19, and designated by Debtor as a Subchapter V case on 6/4/20 (dkt. 238).

(1) Current issues

(a) Motion of the U.S. Trustee ("UST") to dismiss (dkt. 65, "MTD"), debtor's opposition (dkt. 86), UST's reply (dkt. 168, 170), debtor's response (dkt. 179), debtor's status report (dkt. 180), stipulation and order re pre-petition bank account (dkt. 212, 221)

At the hearing on 4/21/20, this Court's tentative ruling was to appoint a chapter 11 trustee. That tentative ruling was based on the long history of this case without progress and with many mis-steps by Debtor regarding the business of running the estate.

Briefly, Debtor has alternated between:

- (i) presenting the subject property as being almost ready to rent out as an Air-BnB (at the start of this case), or as being so extensively damaged that it cannot be used at all (in the many months thereafter);
- (ii) handling the claims-adjustment process herself (for a substantial time, without apparent progress), or belatedly hiring, without authorization, a claims adjuster (who would charge substantial fees, but whose fees would not be sufficient because the adjuster apparently contemplates hiring special counsel to represent the bankruptcy estate - all of which conceivably might be capable of being justified, but none of which has been supported despite this Court having granted continuances and set a deadline to provide supplemental information); and

(iii) proposing to refinance the subject property (but without fully paying off existing liens), or proposing to retain it, but without any apparent strategy for obtaining DIP financing, rehabilitating the property, and using it to generate income; or any other colorable business strategy for stemming the ongoing depletion of the bankruptcy estate.

In sum, if there is any viable business strategy, Debtor has given every indication of being unwilling to implement one. In addition, Debtor has used funds of the bankruptcy estate without authorization or adequate accounting, despite explanation by the United States Trustee ("UST") at the meeting of creditors (11 U.S.C. 341(a)) and the initial debtor interview ("IDI").

The foregoing issues are noted in the extensive prior tentative rulings reproduced below - see especially 10/29/19, 10/15/19, 9/24/19, and 8/20/19 - and in the filed papers of the UST and on the record at hearings. All of the foregoing appears to constitute "cause" for relief under 11 U.S.C. 1112(b), including but not limited to "(A) ... continuing loss to or diminution of the estate and the absence of a reasonable likelihood of rehabilitation, (B) gross mismanagement of the estate; ... [and] (H) failure timely to provide information ... reasonably requested by the United States trustee [regarding the filing of accurate MORs]." 11 U.S.C. 1112(b)(4). In addition, if this case were to be dismissed, the foregoing appears to constitute evidence of a willful failure to appear in proper prosecution of this case. 11 U.S.C. 109(g)(1).

Despite all of the foregoing, this Court was persuaded to continue the matter to this date. The purpose was to allow time for Debtor's proposed new counsel to substitute into the case - not because the current situation is in any way attributable to existing counsel, but instead because someone (either existing counsel or new counsel) needs to argue on Debtor's behalf, and if Debtor was in the process of switching counsel that could be awkward.

Since the last hearing this Court has issued an order (dkt. 221) approving a stipulation between Debtor and the United States Trustee permitting Debtor to continue using her trust account, subject to certain conditions. But the docket does not reflect any substitution of counsel, nor does the docket reflect any progress on all the other long-pending and critical issues noted above.

In addition, if Debtor could arrive at a viable business strategy, then she would have to propose a viable chapter 11 plan to implement that strategy and stop the running of high rates of interest (default and non-default). See Tentative Ruling for 4/7/20, part "(1)(b)" (reproduced below). The docket does not reflect any such plan, or any progress toward such a plan.

Based on the foregoing, the tentative ruling remains to appoint a chapter 11 trustee, to see if there is any viable way to reorganize this bankruptcy estate. If not, the tentative ruling is to dismiss this case with a 180 day bar under section 109(g)(1).

The UST should also be prepared to address whether there are any outstanding compliance issues.

(b) Application to employ public adjuster Asset Recovery Association dba ClaimsXP (dkt. 167, "Application"); opposition of Wilmington Savings Fund Society ("Wilmington") (dkt. 181, 182); notice of hearing (dkt. 184); Debtor's reply (dkt. 192), statement of disinterestedness (dkt. 217)

The tentative ruling is to deny this Application for lack of prosecution. At the 4/7/20 hearing, this Court ordered Debtor to file a declaration(s) with an update on the projected repair costs. As of the preparation of this tentative ruling, Debtor still has not complied.

(c) Contemplated motion to approve settlement with Wilmington Savings Fund ("Wilmington")

At the 4/7/20 hearing, this Court orally shortened time for Debtor to file a contemplated motion to approve a settlement with Wilmington that would resolve the parties' default interest, late fees, and other charges dispute, but set a deadline of 4/14/20 for Debtor to file and serve the motion. On 4/13/20, Debtor filed an ex parte application requesting modification of the filing and service deadlines (dkt. 203), which this Court treated as an application for hearing on shortened time and granted the application (dkt. 204). As of the preparation of this tentative ruling, no motion is on file. Accordingly, the tentative ruling is to deny the request to shorten time, and take this matter off-calendar, without prejudice to any similar request for relief in future (by a chapter 11 trustee, or anyone else).

(1) Current issues

(a) Motion of the U.S. Trustee ("UST") to dismiss (dkt. 65, "MTD"), debtor's opposition (dkt. 86), UST's reply (dkt. 168, 170), debtor's response (dkt. 179), debtor's status report (dkt. 180)

There is no tentative ruling. The parties should be prepared to address whether this Court should appoint a chapter 11 trustee, convert this case, dismiss this case, or order other relief based on:

- (i) the UST's MTD and related papers,
- (ii) Debtor's lack of progress noted in the relief from stay orders (dkt. 173, 174),
- (iii) Debtor's apparent history of mis-starts and poor management of this estate, including a long history of missed projections about how this case would progress, an abandoned attempt to retain a professional to rent out property as an Air-bnb, the belated and unsuccessful attempts to explore a sale or refinancing of the Bel Air property, and transfers of funds without adequate explanation (as referenced in this Court's prior tentative rulings for 10/29/19, 10/15/19, and 9/24/19, reproduced below).

(b) Inadequate attempts to stop the running of default interest

An additional concern, which may bear on the MTD, is whether Debtor has made adequate attempts to stop the running of postpetition default interest payable to Patch of Land Lending, LLC ("Patch"). The tentative ruling is that she has not.

From the inception of this bankruptcy case this Court has raised concerns that default interest, late fees, and other charges are consuming any equity in the Bel Air property at a rapid rate. On 8/13/19 this Court issued an order conditionally continuing the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(c) (3) and setting a deadline of 11/12/19 for Debtor to "file a motion to refinance the Bel Air Road property, or file a realistic plan of reorganization, or otherwise file appropriate papers aimed at stopping the running of postpetition default interest owed to Patch [of Land Lending]." Dkt. 31, Ex.1, p.1, item "(ii)" (emphasis added). Debtor filed a motion challenging the validity of Patch's assertion that it is entitled to default interest and late fees under 11 U.S.C. 506(b) (the "Default Interest Motion," dkt. 123). That is insufficient, for two reasons.

First, it is not enough to file the Default Interest Motion without prosecuting it. The hearing on that motion has been continued several times (dkt. 129, 133, 141) with the current hearing set to be heard 5/5/20 at 1:00 p.m. (dkt. 164).

Second, the Default Interest Motion has the effect of gambling that Debtor will prevail in her attempt to establish that no default interest is owed - an uphill battle that might well fail - rather than stopping the running of whatever interest turns out to be owed. See, e.g., East West Bank v. Altadena Lincoln Crossing, LLC, 598 B.R. 633 (C.D. Cal. 2019) (allowing default interest). This distinction is further explained below.

As a preliminary matter, it is helpful to recognize the different periods in which default interest may accrue:

Three categories of interest exist in bankruptcy cases: (1) interest accrued prior to the filing of the bankruptcy petition (prepetition interest); (2) interest accrued after the filing of a petition but prior to the effective date of a reorganization plan (pendency interest); and (3) interest to accrue under the terms of a reorganization plan (plan interest). ...

Generally, the Code does not provide for pendency interest to creditors, because the filing of the petition usually stops interest from accruing. Section 506(b), however, provides an exception for oversecured creditors:

To the extent that an allowed secured claim is secured by property the value of which, after any recovery under subsection (c) of this section, is greater than the amount of such claim, there shall be allowed to the holder of such claim, interest on such claim, and any reasonable fees, costs, or charges provided for under the agreement or State statute under which such claim arose. [11 U.S.C. 506(b) (emphasis added).]

Thus, an oversecured creditor can recover pendency interest as part of its allowed claim, at least to the extent it is oversecured. Any accumulated pendency interest determined under § 506(b) is added to the allowed claim of an oversecured creditor and then paid pursuant to the terms of the confirmed plan with plan interest determined under § 1129(b)(2)(A)(i)(II). [In re Beltway One Dev. Group, LLC, 547 B.R. 819, 826 (9th Cir. BAP 2016) (emphasis added, citations omitted).]

There are only three ways that occur to this Court to stop the running of pendency default interest.

(i) A sale under section 363

Debtor could sell the Bel Air property under 11 U.S.C. 363. That is only a partial remedy because it does not stop the running of pendency default interest before the proceeds are distributed. GECC v. Future Media, 547 F.3d 956 (9th Cir. 2008). But at least from that point forward it would stop the ongoing accrual of pendency default interest.

Unfortunately, a section 363 sale appears to be precluded because Debtor reports that any sale of the Bel Air property would result in capital gains taxes estimated at roughly $1 million. Dkt.159, p.17:1-4. In other words, the cure might be worse than the disease.

(ii) Refinancing the debt

Debtor attempted to refinance Patch's debt, but not fully. Patch objected, and this Court denied Debtor's refinancing motion. Debtor has not presented any alternative refinancing proposal. So this alternative appears to be unavailable.

(iii) Plan confirmation

The last way known to this Court to stop the running of pendency default interest is to confirm a plan that restructures the debt to Patch and reduces the interest rate. As with the other alternatives, this is only a partial remedy because it does not stop the running of pendency interest before the effective date of the plan. But at least it stops the accrual of default interest going forward.

An added benefit of confirming a plan used to be available under some decisions in the Ninth Circuit: retroactively eliminating all pendency default interest. See Beltway One, 547 B.R. 819, 826-28 (discussing In re Entz-White Lumber & Supply, Inc., 850 F.2d 1338 (9th Cir. 1988), and subsequent lower court decisions). But more recent guidance from the Court of Appeals has been interpreted to mean that pendency interest is not eliminated unless the claim is left unimpaired - i.e., unless all defaults in un-matured long-term debt are cured, or matured debt is paid in full on the effective date. See Beltway One, 547 B.R. 819, 826-28 (interpreting Future Media, 547 F.3d 956).

This Court expresses no opinion on these issues except to note that they exist. The point is that, at the very least, it appears that confirmation of a plan would provide a partial remedy because it would stop the ongoing running of pendency default interest, and replace it with plan interest going forward.

(iv) Conclusion as to default interest

Why has Debtor not attempted to move forward with a plan of reorganization to address the default interest?

(c) Application to employ public adjuster Asset Recovery Association dba ClaimsXP (dkt. 167, "Application"); opposition of Wilmington Savings Fund Society ("Wilmington") (dkt. 181, 182); notice of hearing (dkt. 184); Debtor's reply (dkt. 192)

There is no tentative ruling. Debtor should be prepared to provide this Court with an update on the 4/1/20 AIG inspection (dkt. 192, Bordon decl., para. 7) and AIG's response, if any, to the adjusted insurance claim of $454,717.11 (id., para.6). Wilmington should be prepared to address under what conditions it would support employment of ClaimsXP (or any other adjuster).

If this Court is persuaded to grant the Application and authorize some form of employment of ClaimsXP retroactively to 1/7/20, employment will be subject to Judge Bason's standard employment terms (available at www.cacb.uscourts.gov). Additionally, any employment will be subject to the filing of a satisfactory statement of disinterestedness as required by the posted Procedures of Judge Bason (id.) by 4/10/20.

(d) Motion to allow Claim 29 filed by Shiv Raj Gupta and Saroj Gupta ("Claimants") (dkt. 150), debtor's opposition (dkt. 178), claimants' reply (dkt.

The tentative ruling is to grant the motion on the terms set forth in Claimants' reply (dkt. 188): namely, that the late-filed claim is allowed as a general unsecured claim in the amount of $284,664.66 without prejudice to Debtor's right to object to any dollar amount that exceeds Debtor's admitted (scheduled) amount of $250,000.

(e) Motion to allow Claim 31 filed by Deanna D'Egidio ("Claimant") (dkt. 152), debtor's motion to extend opposition deadline (dkt. 186) and order thereon (dkt. 189), debtor's opposition (dkt. 187), claimant's reply (dkt. 193)

The tentative ruling is to grant the motion on the terms set forth in Debtor's opposition (dkt. 187) and Claimant's reply (dkt. 193): namely, that the late-filed claim is allowed as a general unsecured claim in the amount of $44,500.00.

(1) Current issues

(a) Motion of the U.S. Trustee ("UST") to dismiss (dkt. 65), debtor's opposition (dkt. 86), no reply is on file

There is no tentative ruling, but Debtor is directed to address the thousands of dollars of unauthorized payments to "Independent Contractor[s]" Ofir Engel and L. Napolitano, "McCarthy Construction," and cash withdrawals, as well as the other issues raised by the UST. Debtor is also directed to address what progress, if any, has been made on insurance claims, AirBnB arrangements, refinancing or selling the Bel Air and Sweetzer properties, and other aspects of this bankruptcy case.

(b) Application to employ Totaro & Shanahan (the "Firm") (dkt. 63) (the "Employment Application"), Statement of disinterestedness (dkt. 100), UST Objection (dkt. 90), the Firm's errata (dkt. 97)

(1) Current issues

(a) UST's motion to dismiss (dkt. 65), debtor's opposition (dkt. 86), no reply is on file

There is no tentative ruling. The parties should be prepared to address whether debtor has cured all outstanding compliance issues, and whether Debtor's second corrected opposition continues to have error(s) in calculating projected cash flow. That opposition lists net income before personal expenses for "Oct-19" and "Nov-19" as -5,850.00, but then after personal expenses of $1,751.00 for each month it lists "excess income" of $34,900.00. Appearances required. The Court has reviewed the Debtor's status report (dkt. 69).

(1) Current issues

In addition to addressing the general status of this case, the following issues will be addressed.

(a) Motion of Alliance for Relief From Automatic Stay (dkt. 40)

There is no tentative ruling. The parties should be prepared to advise this Court on whether they will agree to an adequate protection order and the proposed $50,000 loan from Complete Business Solutions Group ("Complete") (dkt.69, p.2:21-25). The parties also should be prepared to address whether shortened time or other special procedures are requested regarding any proposed lending. See 11 U.S.C. 364; Rules 4001(c) & 9006(c)(2) (Fed. R. Bankr. P.).

(b) Contemplated contract with Majestic Ventures LLC dba VacationHomes365.com ("Consultant") re marketing (Airbnb etc.)

Debtor is contemplating a contract with Consultant for marketing services. Dkt.69, Ex.2. As that contract points out (id., sec.7.2, p.44), Debtor is responsible for complying with legal obligations regarding short term rentals, and associated costs, including local taxes.

The parties should be prepared to address whether Consultant is a "professional" within the meaning of 11 U.S.C. 327; whether approval of the contract with Consultant is required under that section or section 363(b); and whether shortened time or other special procedures are requested regarding any proposed agreement with Consultant. See 11 U.S.C. 327, 363(b); Rules 2002(a)(2) & 9006(c)(2) (Fed. R. Bankr. P.).

(c) Termination of prior real estate agent

Debtor reports (dkt. 69, para.3) that the previously authorized real estate agent has agreed to cancel the listing. Is that in writing? Will Debtor need any order related to that cancellation/termination? What assurance is there that this prior agent will not seek some sort of compensation?

wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." If appearances are required, and you fail to appear without adequately resolving this matter by consent, then you may waive your right to be heard on matters that are appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

Tentative Ruling for 8/20/19:

Appearances required by counsel for the debtor and by debtor herself.

(1) Current issues

(a) Airbnb

Debtor's budget motion (dkt. 37, Ex.A, p.2) reveals that, although the Sweetzer property is "listed to be sold," meanwhile "Debtor intends to rent [that property] as an Airbnb." The tentative ruling is that this is a transaction out of the ordinary course, which requires notice, an opportunity for a hearing, and approval by this Court. 11 U.S.C. 363(b). Has Debtor already acted on this intent, without such approval?

In addition, this Court is concerned about (i) whether Airbnb rental would be in compliance with any local permitting and zoning requirements and is otherwise permissible, (ii) whether that proposed use might expose the bankruptcy estate to liabilities, (iii) whether there is adequate insurance for that use of the property, and (iv) whether the proposed sale of the property is consistent with any agreement with Airbnb.

(b) Real estate agent.

The employment application (dkt. 26, p.4:1-4) states that Agent has agreed to disclose to Debtor [i.e., only to Debtor? how about disclosure to creditors, the US Trustee, and this Court?] any agency relationship Agent has with other parties ("Third Parties") that may be part of a real estate transaction for the sale of the Real Property i.e., dual agency? that is prohibited by the posted Procedures of Judge Bason (available at [www.cacb.uscourts.gov)] as well as the amount of any compensation Agent receives from Agent's relationship with any Third Parties [i.e., splitting the commission with a cooperating agent from a different real estate agency? or something else?].

Tentative Ruling for 6/16/20:

Continue to 12/8/20 at 2:00 p.m. because this adversary proceeding is still stayed as set forth in the tentative ruling for 6/4/19 (reproduced below). Appearances are not required on 6/16/20. If you wish to dispute the tentative ruling you must notify other parties of your intent to appear telephonically.

Pursuant to Judge Bason's COVID19 Procedures, ONLY TELEPHONIC APPEARANCES WILL BE PERMITTED until further notice. Please contact CourtCall at (888) 882-6878 to make arrangements for any telephonic appearance. There is no need to contact the Court for permission. Parties who are not represented by an attorney will be able to use CourtCall for free through 6/30/20. Attorneys will receive a 25% discount (for more information, see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.," "Telephonic Instructions").

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." For two reasons, the tentative ruling is to order mandatory mediation.

(1) Usual reasons for mediation

The usual policy of Judge Bason is to order mandatory mediation, absent compelling arguments to the contrary. Mediation is relatively cheap and can achieve results that can be better than litigation.

For just one example of how mediation can be better, consider the issue of attorney fees. Debtor seeks attorney fees, and if she has any right to seek such fees then perhaps the claimant could assert a similar right, but (a) Debtor cites no statutory authority for any award of attorney fees, (b) if Debtor is relying on a contractual basis for attorney fees, that would appear to cut against her assertion that there is no written contract, (c) the document on which the claimant appears to rely as a contract does not appear to contain an attorney fee clause, and (4) even if attorney fees could be awarded to the prevailing party, there is no assurance that either party will prevail (their opponent could prevail, or this Court might determine that the outcome is mixed and that neither party has prevailed). In other words, litigation would involve many hurdles to either party obtaining an award of attorney fees, whereas in mediation any attorney fees are invariably far less and could be addressed briefly without having to clear all of those hurdles.

(2) Reasons why mediation is particularly appropriate in this contested matter

This Court has thoroughly reviewed the parties' extensive papers. This Court notes a number of aspects of this dispute that have the potential to make any litigation particularly expensive - both in absolute terms and in comparison to the dollar amounts at issue.

For example, if this matter proceeds to trial, it will be necessary for the litigants to present a large amount of evidence (over 2,000 photographs and other pieces of evidence, according to Debtor, plus whatever additional evidence the claimant may add). It will take considerable time, effort, and expense for the litigants, their attorneys, and any expert witnesses to discover, review, organize, and present or object to such evidence in a persuasive manner.

The litigants' tasks are made more onerous by the fact that it is difficult to re-create an accurate picture of the conditions of property at various times in the past. That is even more difficult when subsequent work (repairs, enhancements, or other construction) may have obscured prior conditions, and when the available photographs might not fully convey the conditions. (This Court notes that the copies of photographs in the record are mostly blurry black and white photocopies that are impossible to view, although this Court presumes that better copies could be produced for trial.)

(3) Conclusion

For all of the foregoing reasons, the tentative ruling is to order the parties to mediation before one of the volunteer mediators (not a Bankruptcy Judge) and set a deadline of July 10, 2020 for the parties to lodge a proposed mediation order (the parties are directed to use the time between now and that deadline to find a mutually agreeable mediator whose schedule can accommodate the needs of this matter; and if the parties cannot even agree on a mediator they may lodge separate orders and Judge Bason will choose among them, or issue his own order).

Meanwhile, the tentative ruling is to continue this hearing to 8/27/20 at 8:30 a.m., with a deadline of 8/13/20 for the parties, if they have not been able to resolve their disputes through mediation, to lodge a proposed scheduling order (or, if they cannot agree on the schedule for this litigation, then they must lodge separate proposed orders). The scheduling order must set deadlines for:

- * completion of discovery;
- * exchange of experts' reports;
- * completion of discovery from experts (depositions etc.), if the parties propose a different deadline from the general discovery cutoff; and
- * lodging a proposed pretrial order (or, if they cannot agree on a joint form of pretrial order, then separate proposed orders).

(1) Background

Debtor objects (dkt. 24) to Proof of Claim 1-1 filed by creditor IRBC3, LLC ("Creditor"). Creditor claims to be the holder of a loan secured by a second deed of trust on Debtor's real property.

Debtor asserts that this junior loan was forgiven/discharged as part of a loan modification allegedly encompassing both the senior and junior loans. On June 11, 2020 Creditor timely filed its opposition (dkt. 32). Debtor's reply was due 6/18/20, but as of the preparation of this tentative ruling none has been filed.

(2) Discussion

Debtor makes two arguments for why Creditor's claim should be disallowed. The tentative ruling is that Debtor's first argument is unpersuasive, and that the second argument requires further briefing and evidence before this Court can decide the issues presented.

Chapter 13

(a) Sufficiency of evidence supporting the proof of claim

Debtor's first argument is that Creditor's claim should be disallowed because the proof of claim is not supported by sufficient evidence. Dkt. 24, p.4:23. Creditor's opposition argues that the proof of claim is supported by sufficient documentation, and alternatively Creditor cites authority that an objecting party must do more than point to a lack of compliance with Rule 3001 (Fed. R. Bankr. P.) in order to disallow a claim. Dkt. 32, p.2:10-24.

The tentative ruling is that Creditor has the better arguments on this issue. First, there is authority that insufficient documentation is not, by itself, a basis to disallow a claim. See In re Campbell, 336 B.R. 430, 436 (9th Cir. BAP 2005); In re Heath, 331 B.R. 424, 437 (9th Cir. BAP 2005). Second, even if it were, the tentative ruling is that Creditor's proof of claim contains sufficient documentation pursuant to Rule 3001(c) to constitute prima facie evidence of the validity and amount of Creditor's claim pursuant to Rule 3001(f).

(b) Promissory estoppel

Debtor's second argument is that Creditor's claim is barred by promissory estoppel. The elements of promissory estoppel under California law are:

- (1) a promise clear and unambiguous in its terms;
- (2) reliance by the party to whom the promise is made;
- (3) the reliance must be both reasonable and foreseeable; and
- (4) the party asserting the estoppel must have been injured by his reliance. [Aceves v. U.S. Bank, N.A., 120 Cal. Rptr. 3d 507, 514 (Cal. Ct. App. 2011) (internal citation and quotation omitted)]

Detrimental reliance requires a showing that the party has undertaken "a sufficient change of position in reliance" on the promise. Panaszewicz v. GMAC Mortg., LLC, 2013 WL 2252112 at *10 (N.D. Cal. 2013). Vague and conclusory allegations are insufficient to plead reliance – a party must allege facts showing, for example, that they were induced to take some specific action, that they actually changed their position in reliance on the promise, or that some other course of action that could have been pursued would have been successful but was not pursued as a result of the promise. See id. at *

13-14. See also, e.g., Griffin v. Green Tree Servicing, LLC, 166 F. Supp. 3d 1046-47 (C.D. Cal. 2015); Nguyen v. Pennymac Loan Servs., LLC, 2012 WL 6062742 at *22-23 (C.D. Cal. 2012).

Debtor argues that a loan modification by Creditor's predecessor in interest ("IndyMac") encompassed not only IndyMac's senior loan but also its junior loan, now held by Creditor. Debtor states that, because she "performed under the [loan modification] agreement," Creditor's claim should be disallowed. Dkt.24, p.1:24-25.

Debtor supports her argument with the following allegations. First, she asserts that she was "assured" by IndyMac's representatives that the loan modification covered both loans, and that they would both be "eligible for forgiveness." Id. at p.4:16-19. Second, she asserts that the principal dollar amount listed in the loan modification papers is consistent with both loans, not just the senior loan, being modified. Dkt. 24, p.3:6-8; 19-21. Third, Debtor asserts that Creditor's predecessor in interest submitted two 1099-C Cancellation of Debt notices to the Internal Revenue Service ("IRS"), one for each loan. Id. at p.3:21-23. Fourth, Debtor asserts that she "was taxed" on the two 1099-C amounts, and she "performed under the [loan modification] agreement," so she "relied upon the representations of IndyMac regarding the modification of the two loans it serviced and therefore, Creditor is estopped from asserting its claim." Id., p.1:24-25 and pp.6-7.

Creditor makes two counter-arguments. First, Creditor argues that Debtor has failed to show detrimental reliance because she has not alleged any change in her position following the alleged oral promise that the junior loan would be forgiven. Dkt. 32, p.3:15-18. Creditor argues that Debtor claims in a "conclusory fashion" that she relied on Creditor's predecessor in interest's representations, which is insufficient to plead detrimental reliance under applicable case law. Id. at pp.3:18-4:13. Creditor also says that Debtor has failed to allege any facts or submit any evidence showing her position change. Id. at p.4:14-15.

Second, according to Creditor, most courts have held that issuance of a Form 1099-C does not create a triable issue of fact as to whether the subject debt has been cancelled or forgiven. Dkt.32 at p.4:21-24. Creditor notes that it is not aware of courts in the Ninth Circuit addressing the issue.

(i) Debtor's allegations re principal amount of modified loan

As noted above, Debtor asserts that the principal dollar amount listed in the loan modification papers is consistent with both loans, not just the senior loan, being modified. Dkt. 24, pp.3:6-21 and 4:16-19. But Debtor provides no evidence of each loan's balance at the time of the loan modification, or any other evidence on this issue. The tentative ruling is that Debtor must provide such evidence if she wishes to rely on the principal dollar amount as evidence of a loan modification covering Creditor's claim.

(ii) Reliance

The tentative ruling is that Debtor has provided some evidence of reliance, but that this matter should be continued for additional evidence. Debtor states under penalty of perjury that she is "current" on her modified loan (dkt. 24, p.6:11-12) - i.e., that presumably she has paid thousands of dollars toward owning her home outright, that she could have used to purchase a different home or for other purposes if she had not been led to believe that the junior loan had been forgiven/discharged - and that she "was taxed on the two 1099-C reports" (id., p.7:3-4) - i.e., that she has paid taxes she would not have had to pay if she (and the tax authorities) had not been led to believe that the junior loan had been forgiven/discharged. These things, if proven, might be substantial evidence of detrimental reliance.

But Debtor has not provided documentary evidence to support these statements, such as a copy of the proof of claim of the senior lienholder or (appropriately redacted) bank statements showing that she is current on the modified loan(s) (or at least that she made substantial payments), and tax returns showing that she paid taxes on the dollar amounts of imputed income listed in the 1099-C notices. Nor has Debtor provided evidence that she would have pursued some other alternatives but for IndyMac's alleged promises, or that she changed her position based on such promises - e.g., evidence that if IndyMac had refused to enter into a loan modification then Debtor would have surrendered the property or filed an earlier bankruptcy petition or pursued some other course, and that such alternatives realistically can be projected to have placed her in a better financial position today than if Creditor's junior loan continues to encumber her property.

(iii) Effect of issuing Form 1099-C

Creditor relies most heavily on F.D.I.C. v. Cashion, 720 F.3d 169 (4th Cir. 2013), but the tentative ruling is that this case and some other cases cited by Creditor may be distinguishable because they hold only that issuance of a Form 1099-C alone does not create a triable issue of fact as to if the subject debt has been cancelled or forgiven. Dkt. 32, p.4:21-24. In this case there is more, as summarized above.

Creditor also relies on two IRS Information Letters issued in 2005, but the tentative ruling is that those authorities, too, may be distinguishable. The letters by their own terms have no binding effect on the IRS, and it appears that they interpret a version of 26 C.F.R. § 1.6050P-1 which has since been amended in a manner that might be relevant (removing an event code "H" that arguably did not involve discharge of debt). This Court notes that the forms 1099-C in this case cite a different event code ("F"), although Debtor has not copied the reverse side of the forms or some other source that would provide a key to the event codes.

In addition, although the Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit has not addressed the issue, several District Courts in California have. The United States District Court for the Eastern District of California recognized the "split in authority as to the legal effect of issuing a 1099-C," and stated that "while there are decisions finding that the issuance of a Form 1099-C does not, alone, extinguish a debt, those cases were often narrowly decided under circumstances where no evidence other than the cancellation itself supported a discharge." Habtemariam v. Vida Cap. Group, LLC, 2017 WL 627404 at *3 (E.D. Cal. 2017) (emphasis added). See also, e.g., Kunwar v. Capital One, N.A., 2017 WL 5991864 at *4 (N.D. Cal. 2017). Cf. Amtrust Bank v. Fossett, 224 P.3d 935 (Ariz. Ct. App. 2009) (Creditor "may rebut" Debtor's evidence "by showing that when it issued the form it did not intend to forgive the obligation").

In sum, the authorities of which this Court is aware do not appear uniformly to disregard Form 1099-Cs in determining whether debts have been discharged. The tentative ruling is that those forms, together with the other possible evidence noted above, are enough to create unresolved factual and legal issues about whether the junior loan was or was not forgiven/discharged.

(3) Conclusion

The tentative ruling is to continue this matter to the date and time set forth at the beginning of this Tentative Ruling for the reasons set forth above, and meanwhile order mediation. The tentative ruling is that such mediation must be before one of the volunteer mediators (not a Bankruptcy Judge). The parties are directed to use the time between now and the date when the mediation order must be lodged to find a mutually agreeable mediator whose schedule can accommodate the needs of this matter; and if the parties

#8.00 Order to Show Cause Re: Why This Case Should Not Be Converted to Chapter 7 or Dismissed, and Why Any Dismissal Should Not Include a 180 Day Bar to Being a Debtor in Bankruptcy

Docket 115

Tentative Ruling:

Appearances required.

Pursuant to Judge Bason's COVID19 Procedures, ONLY TELEPHONIC APPEARANCES WILL BE PERMITTED until further notice. Please contact CourtCall at (888) 882-6878 to make arrangements for any telephonic appearance. There is no need to contact the Court for permission. Parties who are not represented by an attorney will be able to use CourtCall for free through 6/30/20. The tentative ruling is to convert this case to chapter 7. Then a chapter 7 trustee can pursue recovery for the benefit of creditors based on Debtor's apparent equitable interest in the house that is the subject of this litigation.

This Court's order to show cause ("OSC," dkt.115) listed two alternative reasons for directing Debtor to show cause why this case should not be converted or dismissed with or without a bar of at least 108 days. Debtor responded only to the second.

The two reasons in the OSC are:

(a) [Debtor's] apparent attempt to effectuate a constructive or actual fraud on creditors, by settling for $-0- the bankruptcy estate's valuable claim to an interest in the house, and (b) [Debtor's] failure to disclose her title to the house in her bankruptcy schedules. [OSC, dkt.115, p.2:2-16 (emphasis added).]

Debtor's response (dkt. 118) notes that, in fact, she did disclose her title to the house. Debtor is absolutely correct on this point: this Court made an error stating otherwise in the OSC. See dkt. 1, p.12; dkt. 118, p.2:4-9.

Chapter 13

Debtor's former husband, Mr. Jose Mejia (the "Ex"), points out that what Debtor did not disclose was his asserted interest in the property (see dkt. 122, p.1, para. 2), and Debtor did not initially include him on her creditor matrix (see dkt. 1, pp.53-55). He is correct that these omissions potentially are more grounds for dismissing this case and imposing a bar (they are also potential additional grounds for conversion). But the OSC mistakenly did not direct Debtor to address those issues, and therefore the tentative ruling is that it would not be appropriate basis to dismiss this case (with or without a bar), or convert this case.

Nevertheless, the tentative ruling is that there is more than sufficient cause to convert (or dismiss this case with a bar) based on the evidence that Debtor attempted to effectuate (i) an actual fraud on creditors, and alternatively (ii) a constructive fraud on creditors, by proposing to settle for $-0- the bankruptcy estate's valuable claim to an interest in the house, while transferring such value to her family. The tentative ruling is that conversion is in the best interests of creditors because a chapter 7 trustee can seek to recover funds for the benefit of creditors based on the estate's apparently valuable claim to an interest in the subject house.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." Reason:

There is no tentative ruling but the parties should be prepared to address the following issues.

(1) Settlement negotiations

In the stipulation continuing the initial hearing on Debtor's motion, the parties stated that they were exploring resolving the motion without the need for a hearing. Dkt. 37, p.2:10-14. The parties should be prepared to address the status of those efforts.

(2) Value of the property

Debtor's motion relies on an appraisal as of 3/3/20 valuing the subject property at $390,000.00. See dkt. 33, p.3 & Ex. C. In its opposition, Real Time Resolutions, Inc.'s (as agent for the Bank of New York Mellon) ("Resolutions") argues that the motion should be denied because (i) Debtor's valuation of the property was not as of the petition date, (ii) the appraiser relied on a contractor's invoice from an unnamed contractor in reducing the value of his appraisal, and (iii) based on Resolutions' own appraisal the property is worth $455,000.00 as of the petition date. Dkt. 35, pp.2:26-3:24; dkt. 36. Debtor's reply (dkt. 42) argues that Resolutions' appraisal underestimates the cost of repairs needed on property ($20,000 v. $131,925.00), and includes a declaration from a general contract to support Debtor's repair estimates (dkt. 43).

The tentative ruling is that Resolutions' first argument is not persuasive, at least without evidence that the difference in dates makes an actual difference in valuation. Judge Bason typically accepts valuations dated within 6 months before or after the petition date. Because the petition date is 12/7/19 and Debtor's appraisal is dated as of 3/3/20, the tentative ruling is that Debtor's appraisal is sufficiently close to the petition date.

As to the parties' other arguments, the parties should address how they propose to resolve their disputes re the value of the property and the cost of necessary repairs - e.g., (i) with an evidentiary hearing; (ii) with a court ruling based solely on the written record (to save costs, if all parties consent), (iii) through mediation, or (iv) through appointment of an appraiser (jointly selected by the parties/their appraisers) as the Court's own expert under FRE 706.

The tentative ruling is to deny the motion because, contrary to Debtor's assertions in the text of the motion that there will be no net proceeds (dkt.27, p.2, para.4), the evidence before this Court suggests that there might be approximately $74,000 in net proceeds (see dkt.33, p.2, penultimate paragraph), and Debtor has failed to respond to this Court's order (id., last paragraph) directing Debtor to address that issue.

Debtor's counsel is cautioned in future (a) to provide a draft closing statement or other clear statement of the financial calculations and (b) not to misstate facts (as appears to have happened in this instance, by asserting that no net proceeds would remain).

Debtor failed to appear at the hearing on 3/26/20. Nevertheless this Court exercised its discretion to continue the hearing.

Debtor still has not filed any supplemental papers addressing the issues raised in the 1/23/20 Tentative Ruling, reproduced below, and Creditor's objection (dkt. 32). Therefore the tentative ruling is to deny the motion.

Hearing Room 1545

8:30 AM

Chapter 13

Please contact CourtCall at (888) 882-6878 to make arrangements. There is no need to contact the Court for permission. Parties who are not represented by an attorney will be able to use CourtCall for free through 4/30/20. Attorneys will receive a 25% discount (for more information, see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.," "Telephonic Instructions").

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." If appearances are required, and you fail to appear telephonically without adequately resolving this matter by consent, then you may waive your right to be heard on matters that are appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

Tentative Ruling for 1/23/20:

Continue to 3/26/20 at 8:30 a.m. with a deadline of 3/12/20 for the parties to file supplemental papers addressing the issues set forth in the filed objection (dkt.32). Appearances are not required on 1/23/20.

Reasons:

(1) Service

The amended motion papers were not served until 1/7/20 (10 days before the hearing) (see dkt. 26), which is too little time before the hearing.

(2) Evidence of senior debt

Debtor's amended motion (dkt. 29) alleges that the senior lender ("Bayview") is owed $662,095.02 as of 11/16/19 but it is unclear from the mortgage statement (dkt. 29, Ex. 2) how Debtor arrived at that total.

(3) Appraisal; date of valuation

The junior lienholder has requested (dkt. 32) additional time to obtain an appraisal. Debtor is directed to provide reasonable access for that purpose. Note: Judge Bason's tentative ruling is to require valuations at or near the petition date. See In re Gutierrez, 503 B.R. 458 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2013).

At the continued hearing the parties should address how they propose to resolve their disputes - e.g., (i) with an evidentiary hearing; (ii) with a court ruling based solely on the written record (to save costs, if all parties consent), (iii) through mediation, or (iv) through appointment of an appraiser (jointly selected by the parties/their appraisers) as the court's own expert under FRE 706.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." Docket 23

Tentative Ruling:

Grant as set forth below. Appearances are not required. If you wish to dispute the tentative ruling you must notify other parties of your intent to appear telephonically.

Pursuant to Judge Bason's COVID19 Procedures, ONLY TELEPHONIC APPEARANCES WILL BE PERMITTED until further notice. Please contact CourtCall at (888) 882-6878 to make arrangements for any telephonic appearance. There is no need to contact the Court for permission. Parties who are not represented by an attorney will be able to use CourtCall for free through 6/30/20. Attorneys will receive a 25% discount (for more information, see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.," "Telephonic Instructions").

The automatic stay does not apply

This case has been dismissed, which terminates the automatic stay. See 11 U.S.C. 349(b)(3) & 362(c).

Termination

Terminate the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1) and (d)(2).

To the extent, if any, that the motion seeks to terminate the automatic stay in other past or pending bankruptcy cases, such relief is denied on the present record. See In re Ervin (Case No. 14-bk-18204-NB, docket no. 311).

Effective date of relief

Grant the request to waive the 14-day stay provided by FRBP 4001(a) (3).

Co-debtor stay

Any co-debtor stay (11 U.S.C. 1301(c)) has not been shown to have any basis for any different treatment from the stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(a), so the tentative ruling is to grant the identical relief regarding any co-debtor stay.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." Termination

Terminate the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1) and (d)(4).

To the extent, if any, that the motion seeks to terminate the automatic stay in other past or pending bankruptcy cases, such relief is denied on the present record. See In re Ervin (Case No. 14-bk-18204-NB, docket no. 311).

Relief notwithstanding future bankruptcy cases.

Grant the following relief pursuant to 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(4) and the legal analysis in In re Vazquez, 580 B.R. 526 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2017), and/or In re Choong (case no. 2:14-bk-28378-NB, docket no. 31), as applicable:

If this order is duly recorded in compliance with applicable State laws governing notices of interests or liens in the property at issue, then no automatic stay shall apply to such property in any bankruptcy case purporting to affect such property and filed within two years after the date of entry of this order, unless otherwise ordered by the court presiding over that bankruptcy case.

For the avoidance of doubt, any acts by the movant to obtain exclusive possession of such property shall not be stayed, including any eviction actions, through and including any lockout or other enforcement by the Sheriff or other authorized legal authority.

Note: Per Judge Bason's posted procedures (available at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) this Court's order will state that the Court "does not make" a finding that Debtor was involved in the "scheme" referenced in section 362(d)(4), unless there is sufficient evidence that Debtor was involved and Debtor is given clear notice that the movant seeks an express finding that Debtor was involved. The tentative ruling in this particular case is that there is sufficient evidence and notice.

Note: Per Judge Bason's posted procedures (available at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) this Court's order will state that the Court "does not make" a finding that Debtor was involved in the "scheme" referenced in section 362(d)(4), unless there is sufficient evidence that Debtor was involved and Debtor is given clear notice that the movant seeks an express finding that Debtor was involved. The tentative ruling in this particular case is that there is not sufficient evidence and notice.

No prejudice to Debtor intended. Based on the record, it appears that this is a "hijacked" case, and that Debtor is innocent of any involvement. See e.g., In re Vazquez, 580 B.R. 526 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2017) (describing hijacking); In re Dorsey, 476 B.R. 261 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2012) (same). In a hijacking case, the Debtor faces the legitimate concern of being subject to a 180-day bar and other adverse consequences if, for example, Debtor later requests and obtains a voluntary dismissal and subsequently needs to file another bankruptcy petition. See, e.g., 11 U.S.C. 109(g)(2), 362(b)(21) (A). There is authority that section 109 "eligibility issues" are nonjurisdictional, can be waived, forfeited, or subject to estoppel, and should not be applied if that would produce an "illogical, unjust, or capricious result, or when the benefit of dismissal would inure to a bad faith creditor." In re Leaffy, 489 B.R. 545, 550-51 (9th Cir. Bap 2012) (citing cases including under 109(g)(2)). See also In re Mendez, 367 B.R. 109, 116-17 (9th Cir. BAP 2007); In re Luna, 122 B.R. 575, 577 (9th Cir. BAP 1991); Dorsey, 476 B.R. 261, 270. The same principles apply to any other adverse consequences from a hijacking. Accordingly, the tentative ruling is to condition the relief from the automatic stay granted in this tentative ruling such that no adverse consequences apply to Debtor from the hijacking, including under 11 U.S.C. 109(g)(2) or 362(b)(21)(A). Note: None of the foregoing will shield Debtor if it turns out that Debtor was not, in fact, innocent of any involvement in the apparent hijacking or other abusive scheme.

Effective date of relief

Grant the request to waive the 14-day stay provided by FRBP 4001(a) (3).

Co-debtor stay

property of the debtor's bankruptcy estate - any such property shall be distributed when and how provided by the Bankruptcy Code. Nevertheless, the movant is permitted to enforce its final judgment by (i) collecting upon any available insurance in accordance with applicable nonbankruptcy law or (ii) proceeding against the debtor as to any property that is not property of this bankruptcy estate. See, e.g., 11 U.S.C. 362(b)(2)(B) & 541(b)(7) (collection of domestic support obligations from ERISA qualified retirement plans).

(b) Claim allowance, priority, and discharge issues. Any claims arising from the nonbankruptcy litigation are subject to this Bankruptcy Court's jurisdiction regarding claim allowance and priority, and the existence and scope of any bankruptcy discharge.

(c) No relief in other bankruptcy cases. To the extent, if any, that the motion seeks to terminate the automatic stay in other past or pending bankruptcy cases, such relief is denied on the present record. See In re Ervin (Case No. 14-bk-18204-NB, docket no. 311).

Additional analysis:

The Bankruptcy Court "shall grant relief from the stay" upon a showing of "cause." 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1). Such relief need not take the form of a complete termination of the automatic stay, but instead may include "modifying or conditioning such stay." Id.

"Cause" is determined on a case-by-case basis." In re Tucson Estates, Inc., 912 F.2d 1162, 1166 (9th Cir.1990). In determining whether "cause" exists to grant relief from the automatic stay to allow a movant to pursue litigation in a non-bankruptcy forum, courts in the Ninth Circuit have examined the factors set forth in In re Curtis, 40 B.R. 795, 799–800 (Bankr. D. Utah 1984). See In re Kronmeyer, 405 B.R. 915 (9th Cir. BAP 2009); In re Plumberx Specialty Prods., Inc., 311 B.R. 551, 559–60 (Bankr. C.D. Cal.2004). Those factors are: (1) Whether the relief will result in a partial or complete resolution of the issues; (2) The lack of any connection with or interference with the bankruptcy case; (3) Whether the foreign proceeding involves the debtor as a fiduciary; (4) Whether a specialized tribunal has been established to hear the particular cause of action and whether that tribunal has the expertise to hear such cases; (5) Whether the debtor's insurance carrier has assumed full financial responsibility for defending the litigation; (6)

Whether the action essentially involves third parties, and the debtor functions only as a bailee or conduit for the goods or proceeds in question; (7) Whether the litigation in another forum would prejudice the interests of other creditors, the creditors' committee and other interested parties; (8) Whether the judgment claim arising from the foreign action is subject to equitable subordination under Section 510(c); (9) Whether movant's success in the foreign proceeding would result in a judicial lien avoidable by the debtor under Section 522(f); (10) The interests of judicial economy and the expeditious and economical determination of litigation for the parties; (11) Whether the foreign proceedings have progressed to the point where the parties are prepared for trial; and (12) The impact of the stay on the parties and the "balance of hurt." Plumberex, 311 B.R. at 559. "[W]hile the Curtis factors are widely used to determine the existence of 'cause,' not all of the factors are relevant in every case, nor is a court required to give each factor equal weight." In re Landmark Fence Co., Inc., 2011 WL 6826253 at *4 (C.D. Cal. Dec. 9, 2011).

Based on the present record, the tentative ruling is that these factors weigh in favor of granting relief as set forth above. Most significantly, Credit Acceptance Corporation, the named loss payee (dkt.34, Ex.1, p.1), seeks to "recover only the insurance proceeds" re the vehicle (id. at p.10:16-17). The tentative ruling is that granting the requested relief by modifying and conditioning the automatic stay will result in complete resolution of the issues raised in this motion, and will not interfere with the bankruptcy case.

Effective date of relief

Grant the request to waive the 14-day stay provided by FRBP 4001(a) (3).

Co-debtor stay

Any co-debtor stay (11 U.S.C. 1301(c)) has not been shown to have any basis for any different treatment from the stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(a), so the tentative ruling is to grant the identical relief regarding any co-debtor stay.

Docket 44

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for 6/30/20 (same as for 5/19/20):
Appearances required.

Pursuant to Judge Bason's COVID19 Procedures, ONLY TELEPHONIC APPEARANCES WILL BE PERMITTED until further notice. Please contact CourtCall at (888) 882-6878 to make arrangements for any telephonic appearance. There is no need to contact the Court for permission. Parties who are not represented by an attorney will be able to use CourtCall for free through 6/30/20. Attorneys will receive a 25% discount (for more information, see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.," "Telephonic Instructions").

This matter was continued to this date to allow time for the parties to finalize the terms of an adequate protection agreement. There is no tentative ruling, but the parties should be prepared to provide an update on the status of those negotiations.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." If appearances are required, and you fail to appear telephonically without adequately resolving this matter by consent, then you may waive your right to be heard on matters that are appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

Chapter 13

Tentative Ruling for 2/4/20:

Grant as provided below. Appearances are not required.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

Terminate the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1).

To the extent, if any, that the motion seeks to terminate the automatic stay in other past or pending bankruptcy cases, such relief is denied on the present record. See In re Ervin (Case No. 14-bk-18204-NB, docket no. 311).

Effective date of relief

Deny the request to waive the 14-day stay provided by FRBP 4001(a) (3) for lack of sufficient cause shown.

Co-debtor stay

Any co-debtor stay (11 U.S.C. 1301(c)) has not been shown to have any basis for any different treatment from the stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(a), so the tentative ruling is to grant the identical relief regarding any co-debtor stay.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." Docket 330

Tentative Ruling:

Grant as set forth below, subject to overbids at the hearing. Appearances required.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this Court's final ruling, subject to any changes ordered at the hearing. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

Key documents reviewed (in addition to motion papers): No opposition is on file

Analysis: The tentative ruling is to grant the sale motion and authorize a sale free and clear (11 U.S.C. 363(b) & (f)), subject to overbids.

In addition, the tentative ruling is to grant the request for a "good faith" finding (11 U.S.C. 363(m)) if Franck Zheng is the successful bidder and, alternatively, subject to the successful bidder or backup bidder filing declaration(s) providing sufficient evidence of such good faith (see the posted Procedures of Judge Bason, available at www.cacb.uscourts.gov).

The tentative ruling is also to grant the request to waive the 14-day stay provided by Rule 6004(h) (Fed. R. Bankr. P.).

On 6/16/20, this Court determined that the Trustee has demonstrated by clear and convincing evidence that Debtors willfully failed to comply with this Court's Turnover Order (dkt. 282) by failing to vacate the premises and remove all of their personal property. This Court also determined that Debtors failed to sufficiently rebut that evidence, and imposed coercive sanctions. See Contempt Judgment (dkt. 336).

As for the Trustee's alternative ground for sanctions - Debtors' alleged non-cooperation in the process of selling the Gladstone property - this Court noted that some of the Trustee's evidence was presented in his reply papers, so this Court continued the hearing to this day with a deadline for Debtors to file and serve any rebuttal evidence. This Court also continued the hearing to this date to determine the appropriate amount of compensatory sanctions.

(a) Debtors' alleged non-cooperation with sale process

The tentative ruling is that the Trustee has submitted clear and convincing evidence of his alternative ground for sanctions: namely, that Debtors have willfully flouted this Court's Turnover Order by failing to cooperate with the Trustee, and to the contrary impeding the Trustee's efforts to sell the Gladstone Property. To cite one ground that is sufficient in itself to warrant sanctions, Debtors' supplemental evidence fails to rebut the Trustee's showing that the premises were maintained in a very unsightly condition. Debtors' protestations that they have "never been cited by any Government Official" (e.g., dkt.339, p.4:20) sets the bar far too low.

In addition and in the alternative, there are numerous other matters on which Debtors' evidence fails to rebut the Trustee's clear and convincing evidence of impeding the Trustee's sale efforts. This Court's findings of fact and conclusions of law regarding Debtors' prior evidence apply equally with respect to their latest evidence:

(i) Debtors' evidence shows only very belated attempts to pursue other housing; (ii) Debtors' evidence shows that they have pursued housing only of a type that they find suitable to the lifestyle they would like to maintain (as distinguished from cheaper housing, or moving in with their children, or exploration of any other alternatives); (iii) Debtors present no evidence of exploration of alternative means of obtaining even that more expensive housing, such as using the money that they are not spending (by living rent-free at the expense of the bankruptcy estate) to save for a large security deposit or prepaid rent; and (iv) Debtors have presented no evidence whatsoever of any attempts to arrange for the sale or storage or other disposition of their personal property in anticipation of actually moving out.

To the contrary, the evidence before this Court appears to show only minimal efforts to relocate – most of which occurred after the issuance of the OSC. This falls far short of the evidentiary showing Debtors are required to make to avoid a finding of contempt. See e.g. FTC v. Affordable Media, 179 F.3d at 1241 (finding inability to comply with a court order is a defense, but the burden is on the contemnor to show "categorically and in detail" how compliance is "impossible"); United States v. Asay, 614 F.2d 655, 660 (9th Cir. 1980) (It is not enough to show "substantial," "diligent," or "good faith" efforts to comply (as opposed to making all reasonable efforts to comply); Reno Air Racing Assn. Inc. v. McCord, 452 F.3d 1126, 1130 (9th Cir. 2006). [Judgement of Civil Contempt etc. (dkt.336), Ex.A, pp. 5:27-6:11]

Debtors still have not presented evidence, for example, of what they have done with the money they are not spending by living rent free at the expense of the bankruptcy estate at the Gladstone property. Similarly, Debtors' evidence of attempts to rent other properties consists of only a few communications regarding properties that it appears they cannot afford and do not qualify to rent. Debtors' other evidence is equally incomplete and unpersuasive.

For all of these reasons, the tentative ruling is that each and every one of the foregoing examples of Debtor's non-cooperation and impeding the Trustee's efforts to sell that Gladstone property are alternative and additional grounds on which the Trustee has established that this Court must hold Debtors in contempt. The tentative ruling is that the Trustee has established these alternative grounds for the existing coercive sanctions (dkt.336, p.2:1-7), and for the compensatory sanctions set forth below.

Note: This Court concludes that, although the Trustee has presented substantial evidence that Debtors have impeded his efforts in even more ways, Debtors have presented contrary evidence that raises issues of credibility as to those specific ways. The tentative ruling is that it is neither necessary nor appropriate to determine issues of credibility without testimony in open court. Therefore, for example, this Court does not address the parties' disputes about whether the Trustee on one occasion mistook Mr. Finnian Ebuehi's son for him.

(b) Compensatory sanctions

"Civil contempt sanctions must be wholly remedial and serve . . . to compensate the complainant for losses resulting from the contemnor's past noncompliance." In re County Liberty, LLC, 370 B.R. 259, 274 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2007). "A compensatory fine must be limited to actual damages incurred as a result of the violation." Id. "Actual loss includes attorneys fees and costs incurred in securing compliance with the order." Id. (citing In re Dyer, 322 F.3d 1178, 1195 (9th Cir. 2003) (stating that "attorneys fees are an appropriate component of a civil contempt award"))).

In support of the Trustee's request for compensatory sanctions, the Trustee submitted the Declaration of Ashleigh A. Danker (dkt. 337) and supporting billing entries reflecting $21,817 in fees and costs incurred from 4/7/20 (the effective date of the Turnover Order) through 6/16/20 (the initial OSC hearing). Id., Ex. 1. The Trustee also seeks an additional $4,025 for estimated fees and expenses incurred after 6/16/20 in connection with obtaining the Contempt Judgment and preparing and filing the supplemental briefing requested by this Court. Id., para. 2&6. Therefore, the Trustee seeks a total compensatory award of $25,842.

Debtors filed a timely opposition arguing that the requested fees are excessive because Debtors contend that the matters at issue are not complex and should not have been billed at Ms. Danker's rate of $505 per hour. Dkt. 341, pp.2:13-3:2. Debtors also take issue with the Trustee's current request for $25,842 in fees and expenses because the Turnover Motion only estimated approximately $5,000 in compensatory damages. Id., p.2:13-21. Accordingly, Debtors request that this Court only award compensatory sanctions of $5,000. Id., p.3:3-9.

Debtors' arguments are not well taken. This Court approved employment of Ms. Danker's firm, including her hourly rate, soon after this case was converted to chapter 7. Debtors were aware of Ms. Danker's hourly rate well before the Trustee sought turnover of the Gladstone Property and were on notice of the Trustee's request for compensatory damages to reimburse the estate for all attorneys' fees and expenses incurred to obtain Debtors' compliance with the Turnover Order. See Dkt. 310, Motion for OSC. The fact that the Trustee's request for compensatory damages is now higher than Debtors expected is directly traceable to Debtors' ongoing determination to flout this Court's Turnover Order, which forced the Trustee to expend substantial time and effort to try to obtain possession of the Gladstone Property. Even when the Trustee and this Court have, in effect, given Debtors a road map of the types of efforts they are required to undertake during the long course of these proceedings, Debtors have failed to undertake those efforts - e.g., they have failed to present evidence of any serious efforts to store or dispose of personal property and clean up the premises, or to find whatever alternative housing they can afford and qualify to rent or buy.

The tentative ruling is also that the Trustee's fees and expenses are reasonable, are directly attributable to Debtors' noncompliance with the Turnover Order, and are (less than) the actual amount of damages the estate has incurred trying to enforce the Turnover Order. Debtors have not cited any authority to persuade this Court that a $5,000 flat fee is appropriate, especially in light of Debtors' continued occupancy of the Gladstone Property throughout these proceedings.

Analysis:

(1) Background

Debtor filed an objection (dkt. 172) to Proof of Claim 5-1 filed by creditor Pensco Trust Company ("Pensco") arguing that (x) the default interest rate on Pensco's loan secured by a deed of trust on Debtor's real property violates California usury laws and (y) Pensco charged Debtor an impermissible amount in late fees under California law, and therefore Pensco's claim should be reduced. See dkt. 172, pp.4:16-6:6. Pensco filed its opposition (dkt. 186), which included a request to compel arbitration of this dispute based on the arbitration provision in the loan documents - but this Court's tentative ruling has been that a separate motion is required for any such relief. Pensco has subsequently filed and served a separate Motion To Compel Arbitration (dkt. 192), Debtor filed her opposition (dkt. 196), and Pensco filed its reply (dkt. 203).

(2) Discussion

Debtor makes three arguments for why the Motion To Compel Arbitration should be denied. The tentative ruling is that all three of Debtor's arguments are unpersuasive.

(a) Whether the California Arbitration Act or Federal Arbitration Act applies is immaterial

California Code of Civil Procedure ("Cal. C.C.P.") § 1281 provides

A written agreement to submit to arbitration an existing controversy or a controversy thereafter arising is valid, enforceable and irrevocable, save upon such grounds as exist for the revocation of any contract. [Cal. C.C.P. § 1281]

Similarly, 9 U.S.C. § 2 provides

A written provision in any maritime transaction or a contract evidencing a transaction involving commerce to settle by arbitration a controversy thereafter arising out of such contract or transaction, or the refusal to perform the whole or any part thereof, or an agreement in writing to submit to arbitration an existing controversy arising out of such a contract, transaction, or refusal, shall be valid, irrevocable, and enforceable, save upon such grounds as exist at law or in equity for the revocation of any contract. [9 U.S.C. § 2]

Neither party has addressed whether the California Arbitration Act (Cal. C.C.P. § 1280 et seq.) or the Federal Arbitration Act (9 U.S.C. § 1 et seq.) applies. The tentative ruling is that the California act applies. Alternatively, the tentative ruling is that neither party has established that anything in the Federal Arbitration Act would alter the outcome even if it were to apply, nor is this Court aware that it would alter the outcome, and any contrary arguments are waived and forfeited. See Maggio v. Windward Cap. Mgmt. Co., 96 Cal. Rptr. 2d 168, 171 n. 1 (Cal. Ct. App. 2000).

(b) The tentative ruling is that the arbitration provision is enforceable

"A written stipulation or other agreement to arbitrate a controversy is subject to the general rules of contract enforcement and interpretation." Horath v. Hess, 170 Cal. Rptr. 3d 325, 329 (Cal. Ct. App. 2014). The California Supreme Court has stated that "the fundamental goal of contractual interpretation is to give effect to the mutual intention of the parties ... If contractual language is clear and explicit, it governs." Id. (internal citation omitted). The arbitration provision need not reference the California Arbitration Act to be enforceable under California law. Garrido v. Air Liquide Indus. U.S. LP, 194 Cal. Rptr. 3d 297, 303 (Cal. Ct. App. 2015). The California Arbitration Act sets forth a "comprehensive statutory scheme regulating private arbitration in this state ... through this detailed statutory scheme, the Legislature has expressed a strong public policy in favor of arbitration." In re Tobacco Cases I, 21 Cal. Rptr. 3d 875, 880 (Cal. Ct. App. 2004).

Pensco argues that the parties' arbitration provision is enforceable. Dkt. 192, p.7:2. The provision states:

In the event of any legal dispute, all parties agree to submit to the final decision of Arbitration which decision may be entered in any court of competent jurisdiction. [Dkt. 192, PDF p.16, para. 6]

Debtor argues that because "arbitration" is not defined, the arbitration provision is too vague and ambiguous to be enforceable. Dkt. 196, p.2:1-2. Pensco argues in its reply that Debtor provides no admissible evidence and cites no legal authority to support this position. Dkt. 203, p.2:17-18.

The tentative ruling is that Pensco has the better of the argument here. First, Pensco is correct that Debtor cites no legal authority in support of this argument. Second, pursuant to the above cited legal authority, the tentative ruling is that the arbitration provision is "clear and explicit." Debtor does not allege that the intention of the parties was anything other than that legal disputes would be resolved via arbitration. To the extent that terms necessary to proceed with arbitration are not defined in the arbitration provision, the California Arbitration Act provides gap filler provisions such as Cal. C.C.P. § 1281.6, which addresses selection of arbitrators.

Therefore, the tentative ruling is that the arbitration provision is enforceable.

(c) The tentative ruling is that the arbitration provision is applicable to the parties' current dispute

Chapter 7

"To determine whether a contractual arbitration clause requires arbitration of a particular controversy, the controversy is first identified and the issue is whether that controversy is within the scope of the contractual arbitration clause." In re Tobacco Cases I, 21 Cal. Rptr. 3d 875 at 882. In California, as under federal law, "doubts concerning the scope of arbitrable issues are to be resolved in favor of arbitration." Id. at 881. "When a dispute arises over the meaning of contract language, the first question to be decided is whether the language is reasonably susceptible to the interpretation urged by the party. If it is not, the case is over." Horath v. Hess, 170 Cal. Rptr. 3d 325 at 329 (internal citation and quotation omitted).

Pensco argues that Debtor's objections to its claim "fall squarely under the arbitration provision." Dkt. 192, p.4:21. Debtor states that "it is unclear whether it [the arbitration provision] applies to the current dispute, a bankruptcy claim objection." Dkt. 196, p.2:2.

The tentative ruling is that Pensco has the better of the argument here. The parties' dispute is over whether Pensco's claim should be reduced because certain provisions of the note are allegedly impermissible under California law. See dkt. 172, pp.4:16-6:6. The arbitration provision provides that "in the event of any legal dispute" the parties will resolve the dispute via arbitration. Dkt. 192, PDF p.16, para. 6 (emphasis added). The arbitration provision is very broad, and the tentative ruling is that the language is not "reasonably susceptible" to an interpretation that does not encompass the current dispute.

Therefore, the tentative ruling is that the arbitration provision is applicable to the parties' current dispute.

(d) The tentative ruling is that this Court does not have discretion to decline to enforce the arbitration provision

Allowing or disallowing a claim is a "core proceeding." 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2)(B). The Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit has held that ... even in a core proceeding, the McMahon standard [Shearson/Am. Express, Inc. v. McMahon, 482 U.S. 220, 226 (1987)] must be met – that is, a bankruptcy court has discretion to decline to enforce an otherwise applicable arbitration provision only if arbitration would conflict with the underlying purposes of the Bankruptcy Code. [In re Thorpe Insulation Co., 671 F.3d 1011, 1021 (9th Cir. 2012)]

Chapter 7

Purposes of the Bankruptcy Code include "having bankruptcy law issues decided by bankruptcy courts; [] centralizing resolution of bankruptcy disputes; and [] protecting parties from piecemeal litigation." In re EPD Inv. Co., LLC, 821 F.3d 1146, 1150 (9th Cir. 2016). As set forth below, Debtor has not established that there would be any cognizable conflict with these or any other purposes of the Bankruptcy Code by enforcing the arbitration provision in this case.

Debtor relies on non-binding authority for the proposition that this Court has discretion to deny the request for arbitration. Dkt. 196, p.2:10-19. In its reply, Pensco argues that Debtor has failed to submit any admissible evidence or relevant authority establishing that the MacMahon standard has been met. Dkt. 203, p.2:24-25 and p.4:18-21. Pensco further argues that Debtor's cited cases are factually distinguishable from the current case. Id. at p.3:2-4 and p.5:2-6.

The tentative ruling is that Pensco has the better of the argument here. First, Pensco is correct that Debtor's opposition does not address the MacMahon standard. Second, the tentative ruling is that arbitration of the parties' dispute would not conflict with the underlying purposes of the Bankruptcy Code. While resolution of the claim objection is a bankruptcy law issue, the underlying arguments supporting the claim objection - whether the parties' contract provisions are permissible under California law - is not. Nor is there any evidence that submission of this issue to arbitration would result in piecemeal litigation: it appears that arbitration can resolve all of the relevant issues.

For all of the foregoing reasons, the tentative ruling is that this Court does not have discretion to decline to enforce the arbitration provision.

(3) Alternatively, the tentative ruling would be the same even if this Court had discretion

Even if this Court had discretion (which it does not) to decline to enforce the arbitration provision, the tentative ruling is that the most appropriate course is to enforce the arbitration provision. It was part of the parties' contractual bargain, and Debtor has not established anything unfair or improper about enforcing that provision. To the contrary, without in any way minimizing the importance of judicial fora, there are valid reasons to agree to arbitrate disputes, including typically lower costs and fewer avenues for protracted proceedings.

Chapter 7

As pointed out by Debtor in her reply (dkt. 186, p.4:22-25), the Counter Motion To Compel Dispute To Arbitration is not properly before this Court and will not be considered by this Court because any such motion should be separately noticed and filed.

(ii) Whether the parties' dispute should be sent to arbitration is a gating issue and this Court requires further briefing

The arbitration provision provides that "in the event of any legal dispute, all parties agree to submit to the final decision of Arbitration which decision may be entered in any court of competent jurisdiction." Dkt. 172, Ex. A, PDF p. 26, para. 6. But, although the term "Arbitration" is capitalized, there does not appear to be any definition of that term.

In the portion of its opposition that is properly before this Court, Pensco reserves its "claim that initial determination of the within dispute is subject to mandatory arbitration as agreed to by the parties in the loan documents." Dkt. 186, p.2:4-6 (emphasis added). In her reply, Debtor argues that the Court has jurisdiction over the Claim Objection because an objection to claim is a core proceeding per 28 U.S.C. Section 157(b)(2)(A), (B), and (O). Dkt. 191, p.4:26-28. Debtor also argues that the arbitration claim "is extremely vague and ambiguous, therefore unenforceable," explaining that "Arbitration" is not defined, Debtor's signature on the document that includes the arbitration provision is not dated, and that the rider to the promissory note which includes the arbitration provision is not listed as one of the loan documents in Ex. E to the opposition. Id. at pp.4:28-5:6. Lastly, Debtor cites In re Thorpe Insulation Co., 671 F.3d 1011, 1021 (9th Cir. 2012) for the proposition that resolution of a proof of claim involving a breach of contract subject to an arbitration clause is a core proceeding. Id. at p.5:7-10.

First, Debtor has not provided any citations to legal authority establishing that her referenced issues with the arbitration provision and the document in which its included render the arbitration provision unenforceable. For example, there are other portions of the loan documents that include Debtor's signature that are not dated. See dkt. 172, PDF pp. 22, 30, 35, 45. Is Debtor arguing that the failure to date her signature renders the loan documents unenforceable? As another example, when Debtor says that the arbitration provision is "extremely vague and ambiguous," is she arguing that the arbitration provision is unclear as to whether it applies to the current dispute, or that the actual terms of any arbitration are unclear?

Chapter 7

Second, while Debtor is correct that resolution of a proof of claim is a core proceeding, that is not the end of the inquiry. In Thorpe, the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit ("9th Circuit") held that ... even in a core proceeding, the McMahon standard must be met - that is, a bankruptcy court has discretion to decline to enforce an otherwise applicable arbitration provision only if arbitration would conflict with the underlying purposes of the Bankruptcy Code. [Thorpe, 671 F.3d 1011, 1021 (emphasis added)]

Debtor has not provided this Court with any briefing addressing the above referenced standard.

Third, this Court has reviewed the POC 5-1 and has not been able to locate where "Arbitration" is defined. Pensco has not provided this Court with any documentation defining "Arbitration," or otherwise outlining the terms of the parties' potential arbitration. Does Pensco have any such documents in its possession?

(3) Conclusion

For the reasons set forth above, the tentative ruling is to continue the hearing on this matter to the date and time set forth at the start of this tentative ruling. Pensco is directed to file and serve a separate arbitration motion and supporting declaration(s) no later than 5/12/20. Debtor is directed to file and serve her opposition papers no later than 6/9/20. Pensco is directed to file its reply no later than 6/23/20.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." If appearances are required, and you fail to appear telephonically without adequately resolving this matter by consent, then you may waive your right to be heard on matters that are appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

If this Court is persuaded not to grant the MTD, and if the COVID-19 situation has not changed Debtors' situation enough to warrant deferring any consideration of Debtors' current proposed plan, the tentative ruling is to proceed with Debtor's proposed Plan and Disclosure Statement. The tentative ruling is to direct Debtor to make minor corrections (deleting PDF pp. 9 & 11 of the Plan, which are blank), and set a deadline of 4/28/20 to lodge a proposed order, substantially in the form of the order posted on Judge Bason's portion of the Court's website (www.cacb.uscourts.gov), authorizing the service of a voting package and setting a combined hearing on final approval of the Amended Disclosure Statement and confirmation of the Amended Plan for the same time as the continued status conference (see below).

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 4/10/19 and converted from chapter 13 on 6/18/19.

(a) Bar date: 6/19/19, and supplemental bar date of 8/28/19 after conversion to chapter 11, notice timely served (see dkt. 66, 67)

(b) Procedures order: dkt. 41 (timely served, dkt. 46)

(c) Amended Plan/Amended Disclosure Statement*: see above.

(d) Continued status conference: 6/30/20 at 1:00 p.m. No written status report required.

*Warning: special procedures apply (see order setting initial status conference).

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." (1) Current issues

(a) Debtor's amended cash collateral motion (dkt. 55), opposition of Rehabbers Financial, Inc. dba Aztec Financial ("Aztec") (dkt. 70, 86 & 88), Debtor's reply (dkt. 90), and Debtor's supplemental declaration with appraisal (dkt. 129, 131)

This Court's ruling from the 5/5/20 hearing directed Debtor to lodge a proposed order granting this cash collateral motion on a further interim basis. As of the drafting of this tentative ruling, no such order has been lodged. The tentative ruling is to direct Debtor to lodge that proposed order no later than 7/2/20.

The parties' disputes regarding the use of cash collateral appear to have been effectively resolved by (i) this Court's order granting relief from the automatic stay (dkt. 145), (ii) the terms on which Debtor previously has been permitted to use cash collateral (dkt. 80), and (iii) Debtor's hope to confirm a chapter 11 plan (see dkt. 138, 139, 150, 152). The tentative ruling is to approve the use of cash collateral on a final basis on the same terms as this

(1) Current issues

(a) Cash collateral motion (dkt. 18, 19, 22, 31), Order shortening time (dkt. 16), order authorizing interim use of cash collateral (dkt. 25), no opposition is on file

At the hearing on 6/2/20 this Court directed Debtor to file and serve notice of this final cash collateral hearing. As of the preparation of this tentative ruling, there is no proof of service reflecting service as directed. Why not?

(b) Budget motion (dkt. 33), no opposition is on file

The tentative ruling is to grant the motion.

Proposed orders: Debtor is directed to lodge separate proposed orders via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby adopting it as this Court's final ruling, subject to any changes ordered at the hearing. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

Chapter 11

This Court has reviewed the parties' joint status report (dkt. 11) and the other filed documents and records in this adversary proceeding.

(1) Current issues

(a) Motion for remand (adv. dkt. 7, "Remand Motion") and supporting declaration (adv. dkt. 8), Plaintiff's opposition (adv. dkt. 10), Movants' reply (adv. dkt. 12)

Defendants Dos Cabezas Properties, LLC, Criscione-Meyer Entitlement, LLC, and Michael Criscione (collectively, the "Movants") seek an order remanding this proceeding and for an award of attorneys fees and costs imposed against plaintiff Tarzana Crossing, a Merchant Faire, LLC ("Plaintiff").

For the reasons set forth below, the tentative ruling is to grant the request to remand this removed action, but perhaps defer the remand until after mediation, and deny the request for attorney fees.

(i) Jurisdiction

The parties dispute whether this Court has subject matter jurisdiction to hear this proceeding. The tentative ruling is that this Court has "related to" jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. 157(c)(1), because the parties' dispute arises from an alleged breach of contract for the sale of the estate's principal asset.

(ii) Mandatory abstention

The tentative ruling is that mandatory abstention applies as follows. Mandatory abstention under 28 U.S.C. 1334(c)(2) requires seven elements: (1) a timely motion; (2) a purely state law question; (3) a non-core proceeding under 28 U.S.C. 157(c)(1); (4) a lack of independent federal jurisdiction absent the petition under Title 11; (5) that an action is commenced in a state court; (6) the state court action may be timely adjudicated; (7) a state forum of appropriate jurisdiction exists. [In re Gen. Carriers Corp., 258 B.R. 181, 189 (9th Cir. BAP 2001) (internal quotation omitted).]

These elements are satisfied: (1) the motion was timely - the proceeding was removed on 1/22/20 and Movants filed the remand motion just 30 days later, on 2/21/20; (2) the complaint involves purely nonbankruptcy law questions (breach of fiduciary duty etc., adv. dkt. 7, p. 2:17-21) (Movants state that they amended their complaint on 8/30/19, but there is nothing in the record reflecting what was amended (id., p. 2:21), so this Court bases its ruling on the record presented); (3) the proceeding is noncore - the authorities cited by the removing party (dkt.10, pp.14:24-15:14) are distinguishable because they all involved alleged violations of fiduciary duties within the bankruptcy case itself, not prepetition and nonbankruptcy alleged violations; (4) no independent federal jurisdiction has been asserted; (5) the action was commenced prepetition, on 12/14/18, in Los Angeles Superior Court; (6) there is no evidence that the proceeding cannot be timely adjudicated in the State Court; and (7) neither party has contested in this Court the State Court's jurisdiction over the proceeding.

(iii) Discretionary abstention

Alternatively, and in addition, the tentative ruling is that discretionary abstention is appropriate.

Discretionary abstention under 28 U.S.C. 1334(c)(1) requires consideration of the following twelve factors:

- (1) the effect of lack thereof on the efficient administration of the estate if a Court recommends abstention, (2) the extent to which state law issues predominate over bankruptcy issues, (3) the difficulty or unsettled nature of the applicable law, (4) the presence of a related proceeding commenced in state court or other nonbankruptcy court, (5) the jurisdictional basis, if any, other than 28 U.S.C. 1334, (6) the degree of relatedness or remoteness of the proceeding to the main bankruptcy case, (7) the substance rather than form of an asserted "core" proceeding, (8) the feasibility of severing state law claims from core bankruptcy matters to allow judgments to be entered in state court with enforcement left to the bankruptcy court, (9) the burden of the bankruptcy court's docket, (10) the likelihood that the commencement of the proceeding in bankruptcy court involves forum shopping by one of the parties, (11) the existence of a right to a jury trial, and (12) the presence in the proceeding of nondebtor parties.

Several of the Tucson factors weigh in favor of abstention. First, the Complaint involves purely state-law issues. Second, this Court would not have jurisdiction over the Complaint but for the Debtor's bankruptcy petition, because the claims arise under state law and there is no diversity between the parties. Third, the Complaint involves several non-debtor parties who have asserted a right to a jury trial. Fourth, permitting the Complaint to proceed in state court will contribute to the efficient administration of the bankruptcy case because the State Court is the best tribunal to adjudicate the parties' state law claims. Fifth, although the Complaint is related to the main bankruptcy case because it involves claims relating to the primary asset of the estate, deferring to the State Court to adjudicate the parties' claims will not unduly interfere with this Bankruptcy Court's determination of other matters in the bankruptcy case.

(iv) Movants' request for attorneys' fees is denied

The tentative ruling is to deny Movant's request for attorneys' fees because this Court is not persuaded that Plaintiff lacked an objectively reasonable basis for seeking removal of this action because the dispute is related to the primary asset of Debtor's bankruptcy estate.

Proposed order: Movants are directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this Court's final ruling, subject to any changes ordered at the hearing. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1) (B).

The following are Judge Bason's standard requirements for status conferences. (To the extent that the parties have already addressed these issues in their status report, they need not repeat their positions at the status conference.)

(2) Venue/jurisdiction/authority.

The parties are directed to address any outstanding matters of (a) venue, (b) jurisdiction, (c) this Bankruptcy Court's authority to enter final orders or judgment(s) in this proceeding and, if consent is required, whether the parties do consent, or have already expressly or impliedly consented. See generally Stern v. Marshall, 131 S.Ct. 2594, 2608 (2011) (if litigant "believed that the Bankruptcy Court lacked the authority to decide his claim...then he should have said so – and said so promptly."); Wellness Int'l Network, Ltd. v. Sharif, 135 S.Ct. 1932 (2015) (consent must be knowing and voluntary but need not be express); In re Bellingham Ins. Agency, Inc., 702 F.3d 553 (9th Cir. 2012) (implied consent), aff'd on other grounds, 134 S. Ct. 2165 (2014); In re Pringle, 495 B.R. 447 (9th Cir. BAP 2013) (rebuttable presumption that failure to challenge authority to issue final order is intentional and indicates consent); In re Deitz, 760 F.3d 1028 (9th Cir. 2014)

(4) Deadlines: [Intentionally omitted]

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." (1) Current issues

(a) Missing Status Report

This Court's tentative ruling for 6/2/20 (see below, section 2(d)) directed Debtor to file a status report by 6/16/20. No party contested that tentative ruling, so it became this Court's final ruling. But as of the preparation of this tentative ruling, no status report is on file. Why not?

(b) Missing Monthly Operating Reports ("MORs")

As of the preparation of this tentative ruling, Debtor has not filed an MOR for the months of April or May 2020. Why not? What remedies should this Court impose?

Tentative Ruling for 12/17/19:

Please see the tentative ruling for the status conference (calendar no. 30, 12/17/19 at 1:00 p.m.).

Tentative Ruling for 12/10/19:

Please see the tentative ruling for the status conference (calendar no. 13, 12/10/19 at 1:00 p.m.).

Tentative Ruling for 10/1/19:

Grant the motion (docket no. 19) on an interim basis, subject to the conditions set forth below, with a final hearing on 10/29/19 at 1:00 p.m., and a deadline of 10/3/19 for the movant to file and serve a notice of the final hearing provided that service on all persons with a potential interest in Debtor's cash must be served in strict compliance with Rule 7004 (Fed.R.Bankr.P.) - see the posted Procedures of Judge Bason (available at www.cacb.uscourts.gov). Appearances required.

As to the cash that allegedly is collateral of Beverly Partners, LLC, continue this hearing pursuant to its stipulation with the debtor (dkt.31) and this Court's order thereon. As to all properties/sources of cash, Debtor must segregate cash so that there is no commingling.

Judge Bason's standard conditions for use of cash collateral and/or postpetition financing (by creditors holding prepetition claims)

(1) Written order

(a) Form. Use local form

F2081-1.1.ORDER.CASH.COLLATERAL or the equivalent. Attach a copy of this tentative ruling as an exhibit, thereby adopting it as the written ruling of this Court, subject to any changes ordered at the hearing. Do not repeat the terms set forth in the motion or any stipulation. Incorporate those terms by reference (including the docket number of the document), subject to any modification by this Court.

(b) Timing. Lodge the proposed order within 7 days after the hearing. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

(2) Minimum adequate protection

In addition to the postpetition security interests that are automatically provided pursuant to 11 U.S.C. 552 (e.g., in traceable proceeds and profits), and subject to any more comprehensive protection that may be included in the motion or related papers, Debtor shall provide at least the following protection to any creditor with a security interest in the subject property (pursuant to 11 U.S.C. 361-364, as applicable):

(a) Insurance. For all collateral of a type that typically is insured (e.g., real property and improvements), Debtor is directed to maintain insurance in a dollar amount at least equal to Debtor's good faith estimate of the value of such creditor's interest in the collateral, and such insurance shall name such creditor as an additional insured. Debtor is directed to remain current on payments for such insurance.

(b) Taxes. Debtor is directed to remain current on payments on account of postpetition real estate taxes (to the extent that real estate is part of the collateral).

(c) Disclosures/access. Debtor is directed to provide, upon such creditor's reasonable request, periodic accountings of the foregoing insurance and tax obligations and payments, as well as postpetition proceeds, products, offspring, or profits from the collateral, including gross revenues and expenses and a calculation of net revenues, including any rents and any fees, charges, accounts, or other payments for the use or occupancy of rooms and other public facilities in lodging properties (as all of the foregoing terms are used in 11 U.S.C. 552). Debtor is directed to provide appropriate documentation of those accountings, and access for purposes of inspection or appraisal.

(3) Limitation on postpetition liens

In the event that the motion or related papers seek authority to grant postpetition liens to the creditor(s) with respect to prepetition debts any such liens shall be limited to the same validity, priority, and amount as prepetition liens. As used herein, the "validity, priority, and amount" or any similar phrase that may be used by the parties or this Court is deemed to include the following:

(a) Extent. Such liens shall be limited to the type of collateral in which the creditor held a security interest as of the petition date, unless this order expressly states that the liens granted by this order are intended to attach to different types of collateral from the prepetition collateral. For example, if prepetition liens extended to inventory and accounts receivable but not equipment then postpetition liens are likewise limited (unless otherwise expressly provided by order of this Court). In addition, postpetition liens shall not extend to the proceeds of any avoidance actions, any recoveries under 11 U.S.C. 506(c), or any "carveout" under 11 U.S.C. 552.

(b) Priority. Such liens shall be limited to the same priority as the security interest held by the creditor as of the petition date.

(c) Dollar amount. Such liens shall be limited to the dollar amount needed to protect the creditor against diminution in the value of the secured claims as of the petition date.

(d) Enforceability. Such liens shall be limited to the extent that the creditor's security interests were duly perfected and valid as of the petition date, and to the extent that they are unavoidable.

(e) Automatic postpetition perfection. Any automatic perfection of such liens shall be subject to any applicable limitations regarding the Court's authority, jurisdiction, or due process.

(4) Automatic disapproval of insufficiently disclosed provisions

Any provision of the type listed in FRBP 4001(c)(1)(B) or in local form F4001-2 (e.g., cross-collateralization) or any waiver of the "equities of the case" exception in 11 U.S.C. 552(b)(2) shall be deemed automatically disapproved and excepted from any order granting the motion, notwithstanding any other provision of such order, unless either: (a) such provision is specifically and prominently disclosed in the motion papers in a checklist (such as local form F4001-2), or alternatively (b) such provision is specifically identified in any proposed order granting the motion, using terminology of the type used in FRBP 4001(c)(1)(B) or local form F4001-2 (e.g., any "cross-collateralization" that is not specifically identified as such is deemed to be disapproved).

(5) Disputes

In the event of any disputes regarding the rulings in this order, the parties are directed to meet and confer and, if they cannot resolve their disputes consensually, contact Judge Bason's chambers to arrange a mutually convenient time for either a telephonic or in-person hearing to address such disputes.

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for 6/30/20:

Appearances required by counsel for the debtor.

Pursuant to Judge Bason's COVID19 Procedures, ONLY TELEPHONIC APPEARANCES WILL BE PERMITTED until further notice. Please contact CourtCall at (888) 882-6878 to make arrangements for any telephonic appearance. There is no need to contact the Court for permission. Parties who are not represented by an attorney will be able to use CourtCall for free through 6/30/20. Attorneys will receive a 25% discount (for more information, see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.," "Telephonic Instructions").

(1) Current issues

(a) Cash collateral motion (dkt.13, 19, 26, 31, 32, 42, 43, 55, 61, 75, 86, 101, 113, 141)

The tentative ruling is to modify the authority to use cash collateral generated by 10838-10842 Beverly Boulevard so as to restrict any authorization only to payment of real estate taxes, insurance, and other expenses necessary to maintain these properties, based on relief from the automatic stay being granted (dkt. 150).

Proposed order: Debtor is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

(b) May Monthly Operating Report ("MOR," dkt. 153)

The MOR reflects that insurance premiums for the Audi are paid through 6/24/20. Debtor is directed to address whether continued insurance coverage has been purchased.

(c) Status Report (dkt.154)

Debtor is encouraged to keep status reports very brief. Judge Bason prefers that status reports not repeat what is on the docket.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 8/30/19. The petition was amended to elect Subchapter V on 4/6/20 (see dkt. 111).

(a) Bar date: 12/13/19 (see Order, dkt. 28, timely served, dkt. 89 & 90)

(b) Plan*: 7/15/20. Debtor must use the forms required by Judge Bason (DO NOT SERVE yet, except on the U.S. Trustee - this Court will set a deadline and procedures at a later time).

(c) Continued status conference: 7/28/20 at 2:00 p.m. No written status report is required.

*Warning: special procedures apply (see order setting initial status conference).

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." reorganization ("Plan," dkt. 252), and objection of United States Trustee ("UST," dkt.264), Amended Schedules (dkt.232) and Amended MORs (dkt.247, 256, 261, 263, 265)

Debtor is racing against time to propose and obtain confirmation of a plan before her secured creditors can foreclose and/or before her tentative arrangements with creditors expire. As set forth in numerous tentative rulings posted since this inception of this case (which this Court will memorialize on the docket), Debtor frequently has been out of compliance with her obligations and this Court's directions. Her latest proposed Plan is a last-minute, desperate attempt to make this attempted reorganization work.

There is no tentative ruling regarding the proposed Plan and proposed disclosure statement. Debtor is directed to address the issues raised in the UST's objection including but not limited to issues regarding (i) her feasibility analysis, (ii) her historical income and expenses as reflected in her filed documents in this case, (iii) the adequacy of her disclosure of historical and projected revenues and expenses, and (iv) any "new value" issues.

If Debtor can make sufficient arguments and offers of proof to warrant the following relief, the tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 7/3/20 for Debtor to file, and serve only on the parties appearing at today's hearing, her supplemental/amended documents on the foregoing issues and a proposed order setting a combined hearing, concurrent with the continued status conference as set forth in part "(2)" below, on confirmation of a plan and final approval of a disclosure statement. Any such proposed order must be in the form posted on Judge Bason's portion of the Court's website, at www.cacb.uscourts.gov.

Tentative Ruling:

Appearances required.

Pursuant to Judge Bason's COVID19 Procedures, ONLY TELEPHONIC APPEARANCES WILL BE PERMITTED until further notice. Please contact CourtCall at (888) 882-6878 to make arrangements for any telephonic appearance. There is no need to contact the Court for permission. Parties who are not represented by an attorney will be able to use CourtCall for free through 8/31/20. Attorneys will receive a 25% discount (for more information, see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.," "Telephonic Instructions").

There is no tentative ruling, but the parties should be prepared to address (a) whether the alleged arrears have been brought current and/or (b) whether they will agree to the terms of an adequate protection order (see the debtor's response, dkt. 35).

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." If appearances are required, and you fail to appear telephonically without adequately resolving this matter by consent, then you may waive your right to be heard on matters that are appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

Co-debtor stay

Any co-debtor stay (11 U.S.C. 1301(c)) has not been shown to have any basis for any different treatment from the stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(a), so the tentative ruling is to grant the identical relief regarding any co-debtor stay.

#4.00 Hrg re: Motion in Individual Case for Order Imposing a Stay or Continuing the Automatic Stay as the Court Deems Appropriate

Docket 9

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for 7/7/20:

Appearances required.

Pursuant to Judge Bason's COVID19 Procedures, ONLY TELEPHONIC APPEARANCES WILL BE PERMITTED until further notice. Please contact CourtCall at (888) 882-6878 to make arrangements for any telephonic appearance. There is no need to contact the Court for permission. Parties who are not represented by an attorney will be able to use CourtCall for free through 8/31/20. Attorneys will receive a 25% discount (for more information, see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.," "Telephonic Instructions").

This Court has reviewed the motion papers (dkt. 9), the late-filed opposition papers (dkt. 18, 19, 20) filed by Norman Pomeranz and Tom Block (together, "Creditors"), and other filed documents.

The tentative ruling is that (1) the debtor apparently seeks to continue the automatic stay of 11 U.S.C. 362(a) as to all property, not just the debtor's real property; (2) the burden is on the debtor to show good faith in filing the current bankruptcy petition; (3) there is a presumption that the debtor did not file this case in good faith, which can only be rebutted by clear and convincing evidence; and (4) the debtor has not adequately rebutted that presumption.

Proposed order: Creditors are directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this Court's final ruling, subject to any changes ordered at the hearing. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

Chapter 13

(1) Background

The debtor seeks an order continuing the automatic stay in this case pursuant to 11 U.S.C. 362(c)(3). The motion (dkt. 9, p.3) only expressly references the real property and improvements at 8320 – 8350 La Tuna Canyon Road, Sun Valley, CA 91352 (the "Sun Valley Property"), although the debtor seeks to continue the stay as against all creditors (id., para. 1.e) regardless whether they have liens against that property. In any event, the motion focuses on two creditors in particular (apparently the holders of the first priority deed of trust against the Sun Valley Property): (1) Norman Pomeranz and (2) Tom Block (dkt. 9).

At the hearing the debtor is directed to clarify whether relief is sought as to all property of the estate. The tentative ruling is that any attempt to do otherwise would inappropriately discriminate among creditors.

For example, if the debtor seeks to stay acts against the Sun Valley Property but not stay garnishment of wages, that might create a race to seize those wages. Such an unrestricted race to seize assets could be disruptive to the orderly restructuring of the debtor's finances that is at the heart of the Bankruptcy Code's attempt to treat creditors equally and maximize creditors' recoveries.

Accordingly, the tentative ruling is to interpret the ambiguous motion as a request to continue the automatic stay as against all property and creditors.

(2) The automatic stay will terminate 30 days after the petition date unless this Court enters an order extending it

On November 25, 2019, the debtor filed a voluntary chapter 13 petition (1:19-bk-12954-VK) (the "Prior Case"). The Prior Case was dismissed on 6/10/20 based on debtor's failure to make post-petition plan payments (id., dkt. 40). Six days later, on 6/16/20, the debtor filed this chapter 13 case. Therefore, the automatic stay will terminate on 7/16/20 if this Court does not extend the stay, pursuant to 11 U.S.C. 362(c)(3):

(3) if a single or joint case is filed by or against a debtor who is an individual in a case under chapter 7, 11, or 13, and if a single or joint case of the debtor was pending within the preceding 1-year period but was dismissed, other than a case refiled under a chapter other than chapter 7 after dismissal under section 707(b) – taken with respect to a debt or property securing such debt or with respect to any lease shall terminate with respect to the debtor on the 30th day after the filing of the later case;

- (B) on motion of a party in interest for continuation of the automatic stay and upon notice and a hearing, the court may extend the stay in particular cases as to any or all creditors (subject to such conditions or limitations as the court may then impose) after notice and a hearing completed before the expiration of the 30-day period only if the party in interest demonstrates that the filing of the later case is in good faith as to the creditors to be stayed. [Emphasis added.]

The following principles guide this Court's application of 11 U.S.C. 362(c) to this case. First, there is authority that if the automatic stay is not continued beyond 30 days then it terminates in all aspects, i.e., not only as to the debtor individually but as to all parties and the bankruptcy estate. In re Reswick, 446 B.R. 362 (9th Cir. BAP 2011); In re Hernandez, case no. 2:11-bk-53730-NB, docket #40 (Memorandum Decision).

Second, there is authority that "good faith" is a factual inquiry, although to the extent the statute defines what is good faith the interpretation of the statute is a legal question. See generally, e.g., In re Ellsworth, 455 B.R. 904, 914, 917 (9th Cir. BAP 2011) (holding that good and bad faith in other contexts are factual inquiries). Cf. U.S. Bank v. Village at Lakeridge, LLC, 138 S.Ct. 960 (2018) (analyzing what issues are factual and what are legal).

Third, the factual nature of "good faith" does not necessarily mean that live testimony is required. See, e.g., In re Nicholson, 435 B.R. 622, 635-36 (9th Cir. BAP 2010). In fact, the tentative ruling is that, just like hearings on whether to grant relief from the automatic stay, any hearing on whether to continue the automatic stay is intended to be an expedited, summary proceeding, not a full blown trial. See 11 U.S.C. 362(c)(3)(B) (30 day limit to conclude hearing), and compare 11 U.S.C. 362(d)&(e) (30 day limit to conclude hearing) and In re Johnson, 756 F.2d 738, 740 (9th Cir. 1995) (summary nature of proceedings on whether to grant relief from stay); In re Veal, 450 B.R. 897, 914-15 (9th Cir. BAP 2011) (same, requiring only "colorable" basis for standing to seek relief from stay).

Fourth, the "good faith" inquiry is narrowly focused on the filing of the petition. For example, debtors sometimes argue that because they have a genuine desire to retain a roof over their and their family's heads they are acting in good faith, but the question is not the genuineness of that motive. The question is whether the debtor had a sufficient basis to believe that the current bankruptcy case could be properly prosecuted notwithstanding the dismissal of one or more earlier bankruptcy cases. In a reorganization case, such as this one, the tentative ruling is that the test of good faith is analogous to a standard test of whether relief from the automatic stay is appropriate: when the petition was filed, did the debtor have a good faith basis to believe that there would be "a reasonable possibility of a successful reorganization within a reasonable time." United Savings Assn. v. Timbers of Inwood Forest, 484 U.S. 365, 376 (1988) (interpreting 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(2)) (citation and internal quotation marks omitted), and see 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(3)(A) (similar test in small business cases).

Fifth, a finding of good faith for the preliminary purpose of whether to continue the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(c)(3) is not necessarily determinative of good faith for any other purposes. See, e.g., 11 U.S.C. 1129(a)(3), and In re Abdelgadir, 455 B.R. 896, 900 (9th Cir. BAP 2011).

(3) The tentative ruling is that this case presumptively was not filed in good faith, and that presumption is only rebuttable by clear and convincing evidence

The statute provides, in relevant part:

(C) ... a case is presumptively filed not in good faith (but such presumption may be rebutted by clear and convincing evidence to the contrary) – as to all creditors, if –

(II) a previous case under any of chapters 7, 11, and 13 in which the individual was a debtor was dismissed within such 1-year period, after the debtor failed to –

(aa) file or amend the petition or other documents as required by this title or the court without substantial excuse (but mere inadvertence or negligence shall not be a substantial excuse unless the dismissal was caused by the negligence of the debtor's attorney);

Chapter 13

(III) there has not been [x] a substantial change in the financial or personal affairs of the debtor since the dismissal of the next most previous case under chapter 7, 11, or 13 or [y] any other reason to conclude that the later case will be concluded –

...

(bb) if a case under chapter 11 or 13, with a confirmed plan that will be fully performed. [11 U.S.C. 362(c)(3)(C) (emphasis added)]

Creditors argue (dkt. 18, p.4-5) that this case is presumptively not filed in good faith under 362(c)(3)(C)(i)(III)(bb), because the debtor has not shown a sufficient change in the debtor's financial or personal affairs to conclude that the debtor will be able to propose a chapter 13 plan of reorganization that will be confirmed and fully performed.

The tentative ruling is that Creditors are correct. Therefore, the burden is on the debtor to show, by "clear and convincing" evidence, that he has filed this latest bankruptcy petition in good faith (whether he has done so is the topic of part "(4)" of this tentative ruling – this part "(3)" only addresses the presumptions and burdens of proof).

(a) Insufficient evidence of a substantial change in circumstances, or other reason to believe that this case will conclude in a confirmed and fully performed plan

(I) Flaws in debtor's evidence of Crystal Clear Aquarium Service ("CCAS") income

The debtor's declaration states that he "was unable to pay [his] May 2020 Chapter 13 Plan payments because COVID-19 dramatically reduced" his income from Crystal Clear Aquarium Service ("CCAS") (dkt. 9, Debtor Decl., para. 9), but that his "CCAS business has bounced back and [he is] earning more income than [he has] from January 2020 – May 2020" (id., para. 10). The debtor does not specify how much of an increase in income he saw in June 2020. Additionally, debtor's Schedule I reflects $2,600 in net monthly income (dkt. 1, line 12), which is only slightly higher than the $2,386 figure provided in the Schedule I filed in the Prior Case (1:19-bk-12954-VK, dkt. 10, line 12). In addition, debtor has not followed the instructions to line 8.a which required him to attach a separate statement for each business showing gross receipts, ordinary and necessary expenses and net income, so it is not clear if the increase is attributable to CCAS or debtor's second business (discussed below) and debtor has not filed a Declaration of Current/Postpetition Income and Expenses on local form F 3015.1.20.DEC.INCOME.EXPENSE, subsequent to commencing this case, to reflect the asserted surge in business.

(II) Flaws in debtor's evidence of Treasure Hollow Film Location ("THFL") income

The debtor's declaration states that his THFL income was reduced by wildfires, mudflows, and a lack of financing to make the land useable again (dkt. 9, Debtor Decl. para. 9), but that he is currently renting a portion of the property out for $500/month (id. para. 8). As mentioned above, it is unclear whether this income is accounted for in his Schedule I because debtor did not follow the instructions to line 8.a. Furthermore, as Creditors highlight, debtor's declaration fails to address whether he has adequate insurance in place to insulate himself from potential liability resulting from leasing the property out while COVID19 cases persist (dkt. 18, p.5:1-7).

(III) Unexplained discrepancies between Schedules I and J

As Creditors highlight, debtor's declaration does not provide any explanation for the discrepancies between Schedule I and J filed in this case and the Prior Case. Debtor's Schedule I in this case identifies $1,557 in gross monthly expenses (dkt. 1, line 22c) and $1,043 in net monthly income (id., line 23c), whereas debtor's Schedule I filed in the Prior Case identifies $2,365 in gross monthly expenses and $21 in net monthly income (1:19-bk-12954-VK, dkt. 10, lines 23b and 23c). Debtor does not adequately account for the alleged $1,022 change in net monthly income in the relatively short period of time between filing the Prior Case and filing this case.

(IV) Insufficient evidence of a likelihood of bifurcating Creditors' lien

As for Debtor's reasons to believe that this case will result in a confirmed and fully performed plan, Debtor states that he intends to file a motion to value the Sun Valley Property, which will make his chapter 13 plan feasible and confirmable (dkt. 9, Debtor Decl. para.11-13). Although Debtor's declaration is some evidence that the Sun Valley Property is worth $50,000 (because Debtor, as the owner of the Sun Valley Property, is competent to testify as his opinion of value), this evidence is significantly undercut by the fact that Debtor's Schedule A, filed 12/9/19 in the Prior Case (1:19-bk-12954-VK, dkt. 10), values the same property at $464,000. Debtor's declaration provides no explanation for this extreme drop in value. For example, Debtor does not assert that he had the Sun Valley Property appraised since he filed his schedules in the Prior Case. Debtor's declaration (dkt.25) refers to mud slides in 2018, so his Prior Case in 2019 should have already taken into account any decrease in value from the mud slides. On the present record it appears that Debtor may have simply picked a figure lower than Creditors' asserted claim, in an attempt to buy himself more time under the protection of the automatic stay and to thwart Creditors' foreclosure sale scheduled for 7/7/20 (the same date as this hearing).

United States Bankruptcy Court

Furthermore, Creditors have presented a competing valuation from a licensed real estate appraiser that values the Sun Valley Property at $700,000, which further calls into question the accuracy and reliability of Debtor's valuation.

(4) Whether Debtor has rebutted the presumption of lack of good faith by "clear and convincing" evidence

The tentative ruling is that, in view of the deficiencies noted above, Debtor has not met his burden to show that when he filed this case he had a sufficient basis for a good faith belief that this case is likely to result in a "confirmed plan that will be fully performed" within the meaning of 11 U.S.C. 362(c)(3)(C)(i)(III)(b), nor has he met his burden to rebut the other evidence and presumptions of a lack of good faith.

(5) Conclusion

The tentative ruling is that there is a presumption that Debtor has not filed this case in good faith for two alternative factual grounds: first, he has not presented enough evidence of a change in his income; and second, he has not presented enough evidence to support his valuation of the Sun Valley Property to believe in good faith, as of the petition date, that this case has a reasonable possibility of resulting in a confirmed and fully performed plan. The tentative ruling is also that the burden is on Debtor to rebut this presumption by clear and convincing evidence and Debtor has not met that burden. For all of these reasons, the tentative ruling is to deny Debtor's motion as to all creditors.

Nevertheless, the parties are directed to address whether this case, if it is not dismissed or converted, should be transferred to Judge Kaufman in view of her familiarity with Debtor.

This Court will prepare an appropriate order after the hearing.

DEBTOR

Docket 44

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for 7/7/20:
Appearances required.

Pursuant to Judge Bason's COVID19 Procedures, ONLY TELEPHONIC APPEARANCES WILL BE PERMITTED until further notice. Please contact CourtCall at (888) 882-6878 to make arrangements for any telephonic appearance. There is no need to contact the Court for permission. Parties who are not represented by an attorney will be able to use CourtCall for free through 8/31/20. Attorneys will receive a 25% discount (for more information, see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.," "Telephonic Instructions").

This matter was continued to this date to allow time for the parties to negotiate the terms of an adequate protection agreement. There is no tentative ruling, but the parties should be prepared to address the status of those negotiations.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." If appearances are required, and you fail to appear telephonically without adequately resolving this matter by consent, then you may waive your right to be heard on matters that are appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

Proposed order: The Alleged Employees are directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this Court's final ruling, subject to any changes ordered at the hearing. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

Current issues

(1) Alleged employees' motion for issuance of OSC re contempt (dkt. 95, "Motion for OSC"), Law offices of Lynn Chao, APC ("Chao") and Debtor's opposition papers (dkt. 106, 107, 108), Alleged employees' reply (dkt. 111), Order setting hearing on Motion for OSC (dkt. 128), Alleged employees' supplemental papers (dkt. 131, 132, 133), Ms. Chao/Debtor's supplemental opposition papers (dkt. 136, 137), Alleged employees' supplemental reply papers (dkt. 138, 139, 140)

The tentative ruling is to overrule Ms. Chao/Debtor's evidentiary objections on all of the grounds asserted by the Alleged Employees, grant the Motion for OSC and, for the reasons stated in the Alleged Employees' papers, issue an order to show cause ("OSC") directing Ms. Chao, Mr. Polis,

Ms. Wang and debtor (collectively, the "Responding Parties") to appear and show cause why this Court should not find them in contempt and impose compensatory and coercive sanctions, including coercive sanctions in a daily amount for each day from the date of this hearing that they fail to produce the requested discovery.

(a) The Alleged Employees have made a sufficient showing to warrant issuance of an OSC

The Alleged Employees request the issuance of an OSC re contempt and sanctions against the Responding Parties for their alleged failure to comply with this Court's 2004 Orders (dkt. 25, 30). For example, the Alleged Employees' contend that Ms. Fang (aka Freda) Wang appeared for examination on 1/30/20 as debtor's designated "person most knowledgeable" but Ms. Wang was not prepared to address several of the Alleged Employees' topics of questioning (dkt. 95, p.9:9-12:8), including a line of questioning about the alleged misuse of her signature stamp. Id., p.12-17-13:6.

In response to the Motion for OSC, the Responding Parties admit that Ms. Wang was not prepared to speak to that issue and argue that the stamp was used after she resigned and without her knowledge. Dkt. 106, p.9:4-10. But the Responding Parties have not cited any authority to persuade this Court that, even if Ms. Wang's testimony is true, she would be excused from taking steps prior to the examination to inform herself about the circumstances surrounding the use of her signature stamp or obtain information about how to contact the employees who allegedly used her stamp without her knowledge.

Similarly, Mr. Polis has failed to explain satisfactorily his instructions to Ms. Wang not to answer questions on attorney client privilege grounds, despite his knowledge that the Chapter 7 Trustee had already waived that privilege. And Ms. Chao has failed to satisfactorily explain all efforts undertaken to produce responsive documents (dkt. 95, p.16:19-18:7) or confirm that she had complied in good faith with the Alleged Employees' document requests.

Therefore, the tentative ruling is that there is more than sufficient cause to issue the OSC to address what coercive and compensatory sanctions this Court should impose for the Respondents' failure to comply with this Court's discovery orders without a sufficient showing of any legitimate inability to do so.

(b) The requested discovery is pertinent to the administration of debtor's estate

The Responding Parties object yet again that this Court is permitting discovery to go forward even though there is similar discovery taking place in connection with the pending State Court litigation. If this is intended as a request to reconsider this Court's discovery orders, it is neither procedurally proper nor persuasive. If, instead, it is intended as an excuse for not complying with this Court's discovery orders, it fails to meet the standards for showing that compliance was impossible and, again, it is not persuasive.

This Court has previously explained why it is appropriate for discovery to continue in this form - including that Respondents' argument has been waived and forfeited because it was not raised until after the Alleged Employees had expended significant time and resources pursuing this information. In addition, this Court points out that requested discovery is very much relevant to bankruptcy-specific issues that could not be asserted in State Court.

For example, the discovery is relevant to assessing whether there are grounds to bring a motion for substantive consolidation of Debtor and the entities to which Debtor allegedly transferred funds or other assets. The discovery is also relevant to assessing whether there are grounds to pursue avoidance actions that might only be available in this bankruptcy case (the filing of which may have preserved actions that were available as of the commencement of this case, and as to which applicable statutes of limitation could apply but for statutory or equitable bankruptcy tolling principles). The discovery is also relevant precisely because the scope of discovery under Rule 2004 (Fed. R. Bankr. P.) is intentionally very broad (it has been described as a legitimate "fishing expedition"), because when a debtor in bankruptcy asserts that it lacks the ability to pay its creditors, it is appropriate to conduct a broad reaching examination of its "acts, conduct, or property" and its "liabilities and financial condition" and any other "matter which may affect the administration of the debtor's estate ...." Rule 2004(b).

(c) No hearing at this stage

The tentative ruling is to excuse appearances at today's hearing because the issue presently before this Court is only whether to issue the

OSC. The tentative ruling is that the Alleged Employees have provided more than enough grounds to issue the OSC, and the OSC itself will provide all parties with an opportunity to file briefs regarding (i) whether compensatory and coercive sanctions are appropriate for the Respondents' non-compliance with this Court's discovery orders, (ii) from what date, (iii) in what dollar amounts, and (iv) with what schedule and procedures for briefs and an evidentiary hearing on those issues.

The parties are directed to meet and confer regarding the proposed form of such OSC. As set forth at the start of this tentative ruling, the Alleged Employees must lodge their proposed form of order within seven days of this hearing date. In addition, as stated in the posted Procedures of Judge Bason (available at www.cacb.uscourts.gov), Judge Bason typically does not hold orders for any set period of time before issuing them so, if there is any disagreement regarding the form or substance of a proposed order, parties are directed to contact chambers and lodge an alternative proposed order as soon as possible.

The parties are advised that a "Sanctions Table" is posted on this Court's website, under Judge Bason' portion of that website, as a research tool for all parties in matters before this Court. As noted on that Sanctions Table, it is only a starting point for research, and all parties must Shepardize any cited authorities and otherwise satisfy their research obligations.

(2) Future proceedings

(a) Discovery

The tentative ruling is that, in view of ongoing health concerns arising from COVID-19, the parties are directed to meet and confer to discuss their availability for continued oral examinations via video within the next two weeks and then contact Chambers with their available dates. The tentative ruling is that Judge Bason will attend any such examinations via audio or video technology, and will rule on any objections as they arise. The tentative ruling is to use Zoomgov, because it is more secure than regular Zoom, and can be initiated by this Court and recorded on this Court's audio recording system which may be useful for future factfinding and rulings.

The tentative ruling is that once the parties have tentatively arranged for the dates of the examinations, they are directed to contact chambers to verify the availability of Judge Bason on each date. Once the dates are finalized, Judge Bason will email Zoomgov invitation links for each of the dates to the Alleged Employees' counsel, who will then be instructed to circulate the link with participating parties.

The parties are also directed to meet and confer regarding agreeable dates, in advance of the oral examinations, for a supplemental document production. Those dates must be sufficiently far in advance of the oral examinations to provide the Alleged Employees' counsel with adequate time to review the documents and prepare questions based on those documents.

(b) Scheduling the OSC evidentiary hearing

The parties are directed to meet and confer to discuss an agreeable day, that does not conflict with Judge Bason's posted hearing dates, for this Court to conduct an evidentiary hearing on the OSC via Zoomgov during or approximately on the dates of 8/17/20 through 8/21/20. The tentative ruling is to conduct that hearing starting at 9:00 a.m. on Wednesday 8/19/20.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." Reasons for denial:

(a) Lack of timely service

On 7/6/20, Debtor contacted Judge Bason's Chambers via telephone call, which this Court construed as an oral request for an emergency hearing pursuant to Local Bankruptcy Rule 9075-1(a) on whether to continue the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(c)(3).

Judge Bason's law clerk verbally instructed Debtor that her oral request was granted, provided that she file and serve the motion papers on all creditors via first-class U.S. mail by no later than 7/7/20. Debtor represented to Judge Bason's law clerk that she understood the oral instructions and would file and serve the motion on the morning of 7/7/20. This Court memorialized that oral ruling in its "Order Granting Telephonic Request and Setting Hearing on Shortened Notice" (dkt. 18, the "OST").

Chapter 13

On 7/8/20, Debtor filed her motion (dkt. 20), proof of service (dkt. 21) and supporting declaration (dkt. 22). Debtor's proof of service reflects that service was not made until 7/8/20 - one day after this Court's service deadline. Debtor's motion papers do not provide any explanation for her late filings or why this Court should excuse such noncompliance.

(b) Due process

The applicable rules provide that service via U.S. mail is presumed to take three days. See Rule 9006(f) (Fed. R. Bankr. P.). If Debtor had mailed her papers on the date directed by this Court (7/7/20), creditors presumably would have received those papers by Friday 7/10/20. Instead, they cannot be presumed to have received those papers until sometime on the day of the hearing, Monday 7/13/20 - perhaps even after the hearing.

Therefore, the tentative ruling is that it would violate due process to grant the motion.

For the foregoing reasons, the tentative ruling is to deny the motion as untimely.

(3) for lack of sufficient cause shown.

Co-debtor stay

The tentative ruling is to continue the hearing on this motion to 7/28/20 at 10:00 a.m., with respect to Movant's request to terminate the co-debtor stay under 11 U.S.C. 1301(c) based on lack of service on the co-debtor, Edmund Lincoln Anderson, who has a separate chapter 11 case pending before Judge Bason [2:20-bk-113330NB]. The tentative ruling is to direct Movant to serve notice of that hearing, the motion papers, and a copy of this tentative ruling on Mr. Anderson via U.S. mail no later than 7/15/20.

Note: The foregoing relief pertains only to the automatic stay in this case, not to the automatic stay in Mr. Anderson's case. Any relief in that case will have to be sought by a motion duly filed and served in that case.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." Chapter 13

#9.00 Hrg re: Motion in Individual Case for Order
Imposing a Stay or Continuing the Automatic Stay as the Court Deems Appropriate

Docket 8

Tentative Ruling:

Grant, subject to the following conditions. Appearances are not required. If you wish to dispute the tentative ruling you must notify other parties of your intent to appear telephonically.

Pursuant to Judge Bason's COVID19 Procedures, ONLY TELEPHONIC APPEARANCES WILL BE PERMITTED until further notice. Please contact CourtCall at (888) 882-6878 to make arrangements for any telephonic appearance. There is no need to contact the Court for permission. Parties who are not represented by an attorney will be able to use CourtCall for free through 8/31/20. Attorneys will receive a 25% discount (for more information, see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.," "Telephonic Instructions").

After the hearing date this Court will prepare an order and the tentative ruling is to include the following language in that order:

The stay of 11 U.S.C. 362(a) applies subject to the following modifications and conditions:

(1) Service and reconsideration. Any party in interest who was not timely served in accordance with FRBP 7004 (incorporated by FRBP 9014(b)) is hereby granted through 14 days after proper service to seek reconsideration, including retroactive relief (under FRBP 9023 and/or 9024). Any such person (a) may set a hearing on 14 days' notice, (b) may appear by telephone (if arrangements are made per Judge Bason's posted procedures), and (c) may present all arguments orally at the hearing (i.e., no written argument is required). If written arguments appear necessary then this court will set a briefing schedule at the hearing.

(2) Reasons. (a) It appears appropriate to impose the automatic stay, and to impose it as to all persons rather than just as to selected persons, because one purpose of the automatic stay is to preventing a "race to collect" that could unfairly advantage some creditors at the expense of others. (b) To prevent possible abuse, this Court provides the foregoing simple process for reconsideration.

(3) Very limited ruling. This Court's tentative ruling to grant the foregoing relief is solely for purposes of this motion, and is not intended to have any binding effect with respect to any future assertions by any party in interest regarding the existence or lack of existence of good faith in any other context.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

Termination

Terminate the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1).

To the extent, if any, that the motion seeks to terminate the automatic stay in other past or pending bankruptcy cases, such relief is denied on the present record. See In re Ervin (Case No. 14-bk-18204-NB, docket no. 311).

Effective date of relief

Deny the request to waive the 14-day stay provided by FRBP 4001(a) (3) for lack of sufficient cause shown.

Co-debtor stay

Any co-debtor stay (11 U.S.C. 1301(c)) has not been shown to have any basis for any different treatment from the stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(a), so the tentative ruling is to grant the identical relief regarding any co-debtor stay.

Tentative Ruling for 7/14/20:

Appearances required.

Pursuant to Judge Bason's COVID19 Procedures, ONLY TELEPHONIC APPEARANCES WILL BE PERMITTED until further notice. Please contact CourtCall at (888) 882-6878 to make arrangements for any telephonic appearance. There is no need to contact the Court for permission. Parties who are not represented by an attorney will be able to use CourtCall for free through 8/31/20. Attorneys will receive a 25% discount (for more information, see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.," "Telephonic Instructions").

(1) Current issues

(a) First interim fee application of Debtor's counsel (the "Fee Application," dkt. 140)

Approve $28,315.00 in fees, and $3,020.20 in expenses, for a total of $31,335.20.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

(b) Disputed under the stipulation for use of cash collateral and adequate protection (the "Stipulation," dkt. 62)

On 3/9/20, this Court issued an order (dkt. 64) approving the Stipulation. On 6/24/20, the Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") filed a declaration of default under the Stipulation (dkt. 144) and lodged a proposed order prohibiting the use of cash collateral (see dkt. 145). On 6/25/20, Debtor filed his opposition (dkt. 146) to the declaration of default. On 7/2/20, this Court issued an order setting this dispute for hearing (dkt. 147).

There is no tentative ruling, but the parties should be prepared to address the issues raised in this Court's order (dkt. 147), which are reproduced herein:

... Debtor is directed to address (i) how the allegedly lost May 12, 2020 payment was made (money order, personal check etc.), (ii) whether Debtor can stop and has stopped payment on that lost payment, and (iii) whether Debtor has taken steps to provide a substitute payment to the IRS. See dkt. 146, p.2:7-11 & Ex. 1.

... the IRS is directed to address what steps have been taken to locate the allegedly lost payment.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 2/6/20.

(a) Bar date: 5/1/20 (dkt. 50; timely served, dkt. 55).

(b) Procedures order: dkt. 7 (timely served, dkt.8)

(c) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: 8/14/20. Debtor must use the forms required by Judge Bason (DO NOT SERVE yet, except on the U.S. Trustee - this Court will set a deadline and procedures at a later time).

(d) Continued status conference: 7/28/20 at 2:00 p.m. No status report required.

Chapter 11

(1) Current issues

(a) Debtor's application to employ general bankruptcy counsel (the "Employment Application," dkt. 16)

This Court's order (dkt. 53) set the Employment Application for hearing and directed Debtor to file and serve a declaration and/or brief addressing the issues set forth in the order no later than 6/2/20. As of the drafting of this tentative ruling, no such additional papers have been filed. Why not?

Debtor is directed to address the issues raised in this Court's order (dkt. 53).

(b) Debtor's plan

Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. 1189(b), Debtor was required to file a plan no later than 6/4/20. As of the drafting of this tentative ruling, no plan has been filed. Why not? If no party in interest has sought any consequence for missing that deadline, should this Court impose any remedy sua sponte?

(c) Monthly Operating Report ("MOR") (4/20) (dkt.57)

The MOR shows that Debtor has only $168.94 in the bank. The MOR shows substantial negative cash flow, even before including the unpaid quarterly sales taxes. The MOR also shows that Debtor's projection of $8,000 for cash receipts in April of 2020 was off by $3,682.58, and if Debtor's projection of $8,000 of cash receipts for May of 2020 is off by a similar amount then Debtor will have a negative account balance. Is Debtor's business doing anything but depleting the bankruptcy estate?

In addition, this Court notes that Debtor's MOR has a typographical error (in line 22, "net case flow" instead of "net cash flow"). This suggests that the MOR is not on the US Trustee's official form. How can parties in interest and this Court rely on the completeness of the MOR if it is not on the official form?

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 3/6/20.

(a) Bar date: 5/15/20 per General Order 20-01 (70 days after petition date in Subchapter V cases) (DO NOT SERVE any notice: one has already been sent, see dkt. 11, 18).

Debtor/Defendant's Motion to Dismiss (adv. dkt. 11) from 7/28/20 at 2:00 p.m. to the same date and time as the continued status conference set in section (B)(3) below.

(B) Standard requirements

The following are Judge Bason's standard requirements for status conferences. (To the extent that the parties have already addressed these issues in their status report, they need not repeat their positions at the status conference.)

(1) Venue/jurisdiction/authority

The parties are directed to address any outstanding matters of (a) venue, (b) jurisdiction, (c) this Bankruptcy Court's authority to enter final orders or judgment(s) in this proceeding and, if consent is required, whether the parties do consent, or have already expressly or impliedly consented. See generally Stern v. Marshall, 131 S.Ct. 2594, 2608 (2011) (if litigant "believed that the Bankruptcy Court lacked the authority to decide his claim...then he should have said so – and said so promptly."); Wellness Int'l Network, Ltd. v. Sharif, 135 S.Ct. 1932 (2015) (consent must be knowing and voluntary but need not be express); In re Bellingham Ins. Agency, Inc., 702 F.3d 553 (9th Cir. 2012) (implied consent), aff'd on other grounds, 134 S. Ct. 2165 (2014); In re Pringle, 495 B.R. 447 (9th Cir. BAP 2013) (rebuttable presumption that failure to challenge authority to issue final order is intentional and indicates consent); In re Deitz, 760 F.3d 1028 (9th Cir. 2014) (authority to adjudicate nondischargeability encompasses authority to liquidate debt and enter final judgment). See generally In re AWTR Liquidation, Inc., 548 B.R. 300 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2016).

(2) Mediation

Is there is any reason why this Court should not order the parties to mediation before one of the volunteer mediators (not a Bankruptcy Judge), and meanwhile set the deadlines set forth below? The tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 7/28/20 for the parties to lodge a proposed mediation order (the parties are directed to use the time between now and that deadline to find a mutually agreeable mediator whose schedule can accommodate the needs of this matter; and if the parties cannot even agree on a mediator they may lodge separate orders and Judge Bason will chose among them, or issue

Tentative Ruling for 7/14/20:

Appearances required.

Pursuant to Judge Bason's COVID19 Procedures, ONLY TELEPHONIC APPEARANCES WILL BE PERMITTED until further notice. Please contact CourtCall at (888) 882-6878 to make arrangements for any telephonic appearance. There is no need to contact the Court for permission. Parties who are not represented by an attorney will be able to use CourtCall for free through 6/30/20. (1) Current issues

(a) Continued hearing on interim collateral motion (dkt. 51) and stipulation (dkt.61, Ex.A), Debtor's supplemental decl (dkt. 88), interim orders authorizing use of cash collateral (dkt. 80, 100, 113, 124), Hanmi's supplemental statement (dkt. 104)

There is no tentative ruling. The parties should be prepared to address whether Hanmi will consent to further use of its cash collateral. Given the number of continuances of this matter, the parties are directed to address whether this Court should grant the motion on a final basis (subject, as always, to Hanmi's rights to seek relief in the event that Debtor's finances change or there are other grounds to seek to amend the terms for use of cash collateral in order to provide adequate protection).

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 7/31/19.

(1) Current Issues

(a) Debtors' disclosure statement (dkt. 131, as amended by dkt.135, Ex.1) and chapter 11 plan (dkt. 132), Order setting combined hearing on disclosure statement approval and confirmation hearing (dkt. 137), solicitation package pos (dkt. 139), ballot summary (dkt. 152), order approving CSMC 2018-SP3 plan treatment stipulation (dkt. 157), order approving IRS plan treatment stipulation (dkt. 83), order approving Mazakoda, Inc. settlement (dkt. 126)

The tentative ruling is that it is necessary to amend the plan documents and re-solicit votes because of changes in Debtors' current and projected income.

(i) Background

On 4/24/20, Debtors and secured creditor CSMC 2018-SP3 stipulated to continue this hearing due to a reduction in Debtors' income due to COVID-19 that "affect[ed Debtors'] ability to confirm a Chapter 11 Plan . . .

and start making the required payments on the Effective Date" (dkt. 148, p.3:4-6). On 6/30/20, Debtors filed a status report indicating that Mr. Melamed is expecting to return to work in mid-July and Ms. Melamed will begin a new part-time job beginning mid-July (dkt. 164, p.3:14-19).

(ii) Income

Debtors' status report does not adequately discuss the impact COVID-19 has had on Debtors' finances or the feasibility of their Plan. For example, did Debtors deplete funds that were designated for effective date payments? Have Debtors cured any the most recent postpetition delinquencies in their mortgage payments or, alternatively, will Debtors' new income be sufficient to cure arrears and make all proposed plan payments? Moreover, regardless of the answers to these questions, it appears that Debtors' current and projected income might have changed sufficiently that creditors must have disclosure of these new circumstances, and a new opportunity to vote and/or object.

(iii) Alternative tentative ruling, if foregoing issues are adequately addressed

If Debtors can establish by evidence or offers of proof that there is no material changes that would require re-balloting, then the tentative ruling is to approve the disclosure statement (dkt. 131, as amended by dkt.135, Ex.1) on a final basis and confirm the plan (dkt.132) based on the "new value" contribution and satisfaction of the other elements for "cramdown." 11 U.S.C. 1129(b). In that event, Debtors are directed to lodge two proposed orders: one approving the disclosure statement, and a second confirming the plan and setting a post-confirmation status conference (with the language required by the local bankruptcy rules).

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 10/22/18.

(a) Bar date: 2/8/19 (dkt. 27, timely served dkt. 30)

(b) Procedures order: dkt. 6, timely served dkt. 14

(c) Plan (dkt. 132)/Disclosure Statement (dkt. 131)*: See section 1(a) above.

(d) Continued status conference: If Plan is confirmed, 10/27/20 at 1:00 p.m. (with a status report due 10/13/20); otherwise 8/4/20 at 1:00 p.m. (no written status report required).

A summons was issued on 12/26/19 (adv. dkt. 2), but as of the drafting of this tentative ruling, no proof of service evidencing service of the summons and complaint has been filed. Did the Trustee timely serve the summons and complaint? If so, Trustee is directed to file a proof of service evidencing such service no later than 4/10/20.

(2) Allegations in the complaint (adv. dkt. 1) re Section 727

The Adversary Proceeding Cover Sheet to the Trustee's complaint checks the box for objection/revocation of discharge pursuant to Section 727. Adv. dkt. 1, PDF p.1. But the body of the complaint does not address Section 727. The Trustee is reminded in future to avoid such discrepancies.

(3) Status report

The summons provides that the parties must file a joint status report no later than 14 days before the hearing (3/24/20). Adv. dkt. 2, p.2. As of the drafting of this tentative ruling, no status report has been filed. The parties are reminded of their obligation to file status reports.

(B) Standard issues

This Court has reviewed the filed documents and records in this adversary proceeding. The following are Judge Bason's standard requirements for status conferences, modified slightly to account for the fact that appearances are not required. (To the extent that the parties have already addressed these issues in their status report, they need not repeat their positions at the status conference.)

(1) Venue/jurisdiction/authority.

The parties are directed to address any outstanding matters of (a) venue, (b) jurisdiction, (c) this Bankruptcy Court's authority to enter final orders or judgment(s) in this proceeding and, if consent is required, whether the parties do consent, or have already expressly or impliedly consented. If the summons and complaint have been served then failure to contest this tentative ruling will be construed as consent, to the extent any consent is required, or alternatively as a waiver or forfeiture. See generally Stern v. Marshall, 131 S.Ct. 2594, 2608 (2011) (if litigant "believed that the Bankruptcy Court lacked the authority to decide his claim...then he should have said so – and said so promptly."); Wellness Int'l Network, Ltd. v. Sharif, appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

Tentative Ruling for 4/7/20:

This Court anticipates posting a tentative ruling at a later time.

Tentative Ruling for 3/3/20:

Continue as set forth below. Appearances are not required on 3/3/20.

(A) Preliminary Issues

(1) Proof of service of summons

A summons was issued on 12/26/19 (adv. dkt. 2), but as of the drafting of this tentative ruling, no proof of service evidencing service of the summons and complaint has been filed. Did the Trustee timely serve the summons and complaint?

(2) Status report

The summons (adv. dkt. 2) provides that a joint status report must be filed by the parties no later than 14 days prior to the status conference (2/18/20). As of the drafting of this tentative ruling, no status report has been filed.

The following are Judge Bason's standard requirements for status conferences. (To the extent that the parties have already addressed these issues in their status report, they need not repeat their positions at the status conference.)

(B) Standard Issues

(1) Venue/jurisdiction/authority.

The parties are directed to address any outstanding matters of (a) venue, (b) jurisdiction, (c) this Bankruptcy Court's authority to enter final orders or judgment(s) in this proceeding and, if consent is required, whether the parties do consent, or have already expressly or impliedly consented. Hearing Room 1545

2:00 PM

CONT... Attitude Marketing, Inc.

Chapter 7

(A) Preliminary issues

(1) Proof of service re another summons (adv. dkt. 16)

In response to the Defendants' argument in their Motion to Dismiss (adv. dkt. 11) that Erica Martin was not served with the Trustee's Complaint (adv. dkt. 1), the Trustee stated that Erica Martin would be served with a new summons. Adv. dkt. 15, p.3:13-15. Another summons was issued on 2/4/20 (adv. dkt. 16) and at the hearing on 2/18/20 the Trustee represented that this summons had been served; but as of the drafting of this tentative ruling, no written proof of service has been filed on the docket. The Trustee is directed to file a proof of service evidencing such service no later than 4/10/20.

(2) Allegations in the complaint (adv. dkt. 1) re Section 727

The Adversary Proceeding Cover Sheet to the Trustee's complaint checks the box for objection/revocation of discharge pursuant to Section 727. Adv. dkt. 1, PDF p.1. But the body of the complaint does not address Section 727. The Trustee is reminded in future to avoid such discrepancies.

(3) Status report

The new summons provides that the parties were required to file a joint status report no later than 14 days before this status conference (3/24/20). As of the drafting no status report has been filed. The parties are reminded of their obligation to file status reports.

(B) Standard issues

This Court has reviewed the filed documents and records in this adversary proceeding. The following are Judge Bason's standard requirements for status conferences, modified slightly to account for the fact that appearances are not required. (To the extent that the parties have already addressed these issues in their status report, they need not repeat their positions at the status conference.)

(1) Venue/jurisdiction/authority.

The parties are directed to address any outstanding matters of (a) venue, (b) jurisdiction, (c) this Bankruptcy Court's authority to enter final orders or judgment(s) in this proceeding and, if consent is required, whether the parties do consent, or have already expressly or impliedly consented. Failure to contest this tentative ruling will be construed as consent, to the extent any consent is required, or alternatively as a waiver or forfeiture. See

#3.00 Hrg re: Objection to Internal Revenue
Services claim #4-1

Docket 42

Tentative Ruling:

Continue to 8/27/20 at 8:30 a.m. to address the following issues.
Appearances are not required on 7/23/20. If you wish to dispute the tentative ruling you must notify other parties of your intent to appear telephonically.

Pursuant to Judge Bason's COVID19 Procedures, ONLY TELEPHONIC APPEARANCES WILL BE PERMITTED until further notice. Please contact CourtCall at (888) 882-6878 to make arrangements for any telephonic appearance. There is no need to contact the Court for permission. Parties who are not represented by an attorney will be able to use CourtCall for free through 8/31/20. Attorneys will receive a 25% discount (for more information, see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.," "Telephonic Instructions").

Reasons:

(A) Service.

The motion papers were not served:

(1) to the address for notices in the creditor's proof of claim (claim no. 4);

(2) as well as in the manner prescribed by Rule 7004(b)(4)&(5) - addresses and instructions are included in the Court Manual.

No later than seven days after the date of this hearing, Movant must file and serve notice of the continued hearing and proof of service reflecting service of the motion papers in a manner consistent with this tentative ruling.

(B) Lack of cost/benefit analysis. The posted Procedures of Judge Bason (available at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) provide:

§ 502: claim objections & cost/benefit analysis. When objecting to claims, be sure to include an analysis of whether the costs of preparing and litigating the claim objection (administrative expenses) do not exceed the anticipated benefits (reductions in claims). For example, if the anticipated dividend is small or 0% then the attorney fees incurred in prosecuting your claim objection to any general unsecured claim probably will exceed the benefit to the bankruptcy estate/debtor, so filing that objection would be a waste of the bankruptcy estate's (and everyone else's) resources (unless, for example, the claim is nondischargeable, in which event the attorney fees might well be justified).

No later than 7 days after the date of this hearing the movant must file either:

(1) a supplemental declaration explaining why the attorney fees for this objection are justified (including supporting evidence, such as a copy of the plan showing the projected dividend to the claimant, and a calculation comparing that projected dividend against the attorney fees related to this claim objection), or

(2) a withdrawal of the claim objection.

No fees on this matter, absent specific authorization. Counsel is directed not to charge any fees on this matter (including all past, present and future work related to this claim objection), and to return any fees received on this matter, unless and until this Court expressly finds: "Counsel has provided a cost/benefit analysis that is sufficient for purposes of Judge Bason's posted Procedures regarding claim objections." It is counsel's responsibility to include the quoted phrase, if warranted, in the proposed order on this claim objection.

This Court does not have the capacity to monitor all fee applications to assure compliance with the foregoing limitation on fees. But if counsel is found to have disregarded this limitation then this Court may impose sanctions.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." #5.00 Hrg re: Motion in Individual Case for Order Imposing a Stay or Continuing the Automatic Stay as the Court Deems Appropriate

Tentative Ruling:

Grant, subject to the following conditions. Appearances are not required. If you wish to dispute the tentative ruling you must notify other parties of your intent to appear telephonically.

Pursuant to Judge Bason's COVID19 Procedures, ONLY TELEPHONIC APPEARANCES WILL BE PERMITTED until further notice. After the hearing date this Court will prepare an order and the tentative ruling is to include the following language in that order:

The stay of 11 U.S.C. 362(a) applies subject to the following modifications and conditions:

(1) Service and reconsideration. Any party in interest who was not timely served in accordance with FRBP 7004 (incorporated by FRBP 9014(b)) is hereby granted through 14 days after proper service to seek reconsideration, including retroactive relief (under FRBP 9023 and/or 9024). Any such person (a) may set a hearing on 14 days' notice, (b) may appear by telephone (if arrangements are made per Judge Bason's posted procedures), and (c) may present all arguments orally at the hearing (i.e., no written argument is required). If written arguments appear necessary then this court will set a briefing schedule at the hearing.

stay, and to impose it as to all persons rather than just as to selected persons, because one purpose of the automatic stay is to preventing a "race to collect" that could unfairly advantage some creditors at the expense of others. (b) To prevent possible abuse, this Court provides the foregoing simple process for reconsideration.

(3) Very limited ruling. This Court's tentative ruling to grant the foregoing relief is solely for purposes of this motion, and is not intended to have any binding effect with respect to any future assertions by any party in interest regarding the existence or lack of existence of good faith in any other context.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." Co-debtor stay

Any co-debtor stay (11 U.S.C. 1301(c)) has not been shown to have any basis for any different treatment from the stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(a), so the tentative ruling is to grant the identical relief regarding any co-debtor stay.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." If appearances are required, and you fail to appear telephonically without adequately resolving this matter by consent, then you may waive your right to be heard on matters that are appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

Grant the following relief pursuant to 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(4) and the legal analysis in In re Vazquez, 580 B.R. 526 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2017), and/or In re Choong (case no. 2:14-bk-28378-NB, docket no. 31), as applicable:

If this order is duly recorded in compliance with applicable State laws governing notices of interests or liens in the property at issue, then no automatic stay shall apply to such property in any bankruptcy case purporting to affect such property and filed within two years after the date of entry of this order, unless otherwise ordered by the court presiding over that bankruptcy case.

For the avoidance of doubt, any acts by the movant to obtain exclusive possession of such property shall not be stayed, including any eviction actions, through and including any lockout or other enforcement by the Sheriff or other authorized legal authority.

Note: Per Judge Bason's posted procedures (available at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) this Court's order will state that the Court "does not make" a finding that Debtor was involved in the "scheme" referenced in section 362(d)(4), unless there is sufficient evidence that Debtor was involved and Debtor is given clear notice that the movant seeks an express finding that Debtor was involved. The tentative ruling in this particular case is that there is sufficient evidence and notice.

Current issues:

(a) Yunuen Campos' motion for relief from the automatic stay pursuant to 11 U.S.C. 362(d) to proceed with an action in nonbankruptcy forum (dkt. 22, "R/S Motion"), Debtor's opposition (dkt.34)

The tentative ruling is to continue the hearing on this matter to 8/18/20 at 1:00 p.m. (contemporaneous with another matter in this case) due to (i) the self-calendaring of this motion without adequate time or any order shortening time, (ii) the lack of service on the 20-largest creditors (or on Debtor individually - not just Debtor's counsel) as required by the applicable federal bankruptcy rules, local rules, and the "Posted Procedures of Judge Bason" (available at www.cacb.uscourts.gov), and (iii) Debtor's request for additional time, so as to be able to file a motion and/or present evidence regarding the parties' alleged mediation agreement, which might (or might not) moot the relief requested in this motion for relief from the automatic stay. The tentative ruling is to leave in place the normal deadlines for any supplemental moving papers (21 days before the hearing), any supplemental opposition (14 days), and any reply (7 days).

Chapter 11

(b) Debtor's motion to continue the automatic stay pursuant to 11 U.S.C. 362(c)(3) (dkt. 11, amended by dkt. 20), Yunuen Campos' opposition (dkt. 31) and evidentiary objections (dkt. 32)

(i) Overview

The tentative ruling is that one strong statutory policy in favor of imposing the automatic stay, embodied in the statute, is to protect creditors (not just the debtor). For example, the automatic stay prevents one or more creditors from levying on assets before other creditors can discover and levy on those assets. That type of prejudice can be with or without any collusion or bad motives (e.g., a debtor could engage in transactions with a "friendly" creditor, or a fictional creditor, or any variation; and some such transactions could be avoidable on other grounds but the automatic stay generally voids all such transactions, whether or not they involve any bad motives or tactics).

Although this Court has grave concerns about Debtor's repeated bankruptcy filings and his conduct in past cases, the tentative ruling is that, at this early stage of the current case, the documents filed by Debtor so far appear to reflect proper prosecution of this current case and the potential, with appropriate safeguards, to provide appropriate treatment for Ms. Campos and other creditors. Therefore the tentative ruling is that, if Debtor consents to certain limitations and protections of creditors' rights as outlined below, he will have established "good faith" within the narrow meaning of 11 U.S.C. 362(c)(3).

(ii) Governing law

The test for "good faith" under 11 U.S.C. 362(c)(3) is not entirely clear. By way of analogy, this Court notes that, in determining whether or not to dismiss a bankruptcy case for lack of good faith, there is authority that courts must consider the totality of the circumstances. See In re Montoya, 342 B.R. 312, 317 (Bankr. S.D. Cal. 2006). Some considerations in assessing the totality of the circumstances include (but are not limited to): "1) whether debtor misrepresented facts in the petition or the plan, unfairly manipulated the Code or otherwise filed the current chapter 13 plan or petition in an inequitable manner; 2) debtor's history of filings and dismissals; 3) whether debtor only intended to defeat state court litigation; and 4) whether egregious behavior is present." Montoya, 342 B.R. at 317 (citing In re Leavitt, 171 F.3d 1219, 1224 (9th Cir. 1999)).

An additional circumstance, as explained above, is to consider how the application of the automatic stay may protect creditors from one another. This can foster equality of distribution while preventing a potentially destructive, "winner take all" race to collect.

Another analogy is to subsection (d) of section 362. The tentative ruling is that proceedings under section 362(c), like those under section 362(d), are intended to be "summary proceedings" rather a full trial. Among other things, a full trial at the inception of the case would defeat the purpose of the "breathing spell" that is one of the purposes of the automatic stay, and that would harm both debtors and creditors. Cf. In re Veal, 450 B.R. 897, 914 (9th Cir. BAP 2011) (citing authority that hearings under section 362(d) are "summary" proceedings); In re Robbins, 310 B.R. 626, 631 (9th Cir. BAP 2004) ("relief from stay hearings are limited in scope ... do not involve a full adjudication on the merits ..." and adjudicate claims only to the extent of determining "whether a creditor has a colorable claim") (citations omitted).

Similarly, because of the expedited time frame under section 362(c)(3), the limited issues to be decided, and the fact that the merits of any underlying disputes are not fully adjudicated, the tentative ruling is that any determination of "good faith" for purposes of section 362(c)(3) has very limited if any claim or issue preclusive effect, and that any party opposing the good faith determination need only show a "colorable" basis to establish that it has standing and is the real party in interest who has a right to be heard in opposition to any good faith determination. Cf. Veal, 450 B.R. 897, 914-15 ("stay relief litigation has very limited claim preclusion effect" and "[g]iven the limited nature of the relief obtained through a motion for relief from the stay, the expedited hearing schedule § 362(e) provides, and because final adjudication of the parties' rights and liabilities is yet to occur, ... a party seeking stay relief need only establish that it has a colorable claim to enforce a right against property of the estate.") (citations omitted); and see generally In re M Capital Corp., 290 B.R. 743 (9th Cir. BAP 2003) (limitations on "good faith" findings when all facts and circumstances might not be established, in analogous context of 11 U.S.C. 363(m)).

To be clear, the tests for "good faith" under paragraphs (c)(3) and (c)(4) of section 362 are not the same as the tests of "good faith" for purposes of whether to dismiss a case, nor is the test under section 362(c)(3) or (4) the same as the test for determining whether to grant relief from the automatic stay under section 362(d). In all of these instances, the analysis may be informed by similar considerations, but there are differences.

For example, if a debtor proposes a plausible attempt to provide adequate protection, or a plausible outline of a possible financial reorganization, that may establish or go a long way toward establishing "good faith" under subsection (c) of section 362, even if the proposed protection of the creditor's interest turns out not to be "adequate" (11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1)) or if the debtor ultimately is unable to show that property is necessary to an "effective" reorganization (section 362(d)(2)(B)). The point is only that there are parallels in the analysis under subsections (c) and (d) of section 362 as well as the reported decisions involving dismissal of cases for lack of "good faith," and the tentative ruling is that each type of analysis of "good faith" informs the others.

Based on the foregoing, the tentative ruling is to consider the totality of the circumstances, in a summary proceeding, with all parties in interest being heard, and with very limited if any preclusive effect on the "good faith" issue in any other contexts (although the same underlying evidence might be relevant in other contexts). With this framework, this Court turns to the merits.

(iii) Contemplated conditions

In general, this Court contemplates (A) requiring more than the usual level of disclosure and transparency by Debtor and (B) requiring funds to be held only in bank accounts that this Court has authorized, and that have safeguards against unauthorized disbursement. The parties are directed to address at the hearing (x) how to implement the foregoing general principles, and (y) whether any additional conditions are appropriate in ordering that the automatic stay be continued. Additionally, Debtor is reminded that this Court's Procedures Order (dkt. 4) provides:

4. Affiliates. For all reporting purposes – including Monthly Operating Reports ("MORs"), disclosure statements, etc. – Debtor must disclose all income, expenses, assets, and liabilities of (a) affiliated businesses and (b) any spouse. See §§ 101(2) & (9); Rule 2015.3; SBE v. Woo, 82 Cal. App.4th 481, 483-84 (2000). Prior authorization of this Court is required for Debtor to cause any affiliate to act out of the ordinary course of that affiliate's business (§ 363(c)). In jointly administered cases, MORs must be filed in each debtor's separate case. Debtor may request at the principal status conference to be excused from these requirements. [Id., p.2:11-18].

The tentative ruling is not to excuse Debtor from these requirements and, to the contrary, to emphasize that he is required to provide full transparency for all affiliates' finances including, but not limited to, his medical practice and, to the extent of any financial transactions that relate to Debtor directly or indirectly, his girlfriend, his children, and any other family members.

(iv) Evidentiary objections

The tentative ruling is that none of the foregoing depends on this Court's ruling on Ms. Campos' evidentiary objections (dkt.32). But, for completeness, the tentative ruling is to sustain those objections except to the extent that the statements at issue are offered solely for purposes of establishing Debtor's subjective state of mind for purposes of whether he is acting in "good faith."

(v) Form of order

Based on the foregoing, the tentative ruling is that after the hearing date this Court will prepare an order and the tentative ruling is to include special provisions regarding disclosure, transparency, and safeguarding as noted above, as well as the following language:

The stay of 11 U.S.C. 362(a) applies subject to the following modifications and conditions:

(1) Service and reconsideration. Any party in interest who was not timely served in accordance with FRBP 7004 (incorporated by FRBP 9014(b)) is hereby granted through 14 days after proper service to seek reconsideration, including retroactive relief (under FRBP 9023 and/or 9024). Any such person (a) may set a hearing on 14 days' notice, (b) may appear by telephone (if arrangements are made per Judge Bason's posted procedures), and (c) may present all arguments orally at the hearing (i.e., no written argument is required). If written arguments appear necessary then this court will set a briefing schedule at the hearing.

(2) Reasons. (a) It appears appropriate to impose the automatic stay, and to impose it as to all persons rather than just as to selected persons, because one purpose of the automatic stay is to preventing a "race to collect" that could unfairly advantage some creditors at the expense of others. (b) To prevent possible abuse, this Court provides the foregoing simple process for reconsideration.

(3) Very limited ruling. This Court's tentative ruling to grant the foregoing relief is solely for purposes of this motion, and is not

Chapter 7

The following are Judge Bason's standard requirements for status conferences. (To the extent that the parties have already addressed these issues in their status report, they need not repeat their positions at the status conference.)

(1) Venue/jurisdiction/authority.

The parties are directed to address any outstanding matters of (a) venue, (b) jurisdiction, (c) this court's authority to enter final orders or judgment(s) in this proceeding and, if consent is required, whether the parties do consent, or have already expressly or impliedly consented. See generally Stern v. Marshall, 131 S.Ct. 2594, 2608 (2011) (if litigant "believed that the Bankruptcy Court lacked the authority to decide his claim...then he should have said so – and said so promptly."); Wellness Int'l Network, Ltd. v. Sharif, 135 S.Ct. 1932 (2015) (consent must be knowing and voluntary but need not be express); In re Bellingham Ins. Agency, Inc., 702 F.3d 553 (9th Cir. 2012) (implied consent), aff'd on other grounds, 134 S. Ct. 2165 (2014); In re Pringle, 495 B.R. 447 (9th Cir. BAP 2013) (rebuttable presumption that failure to challenge authority to issue final order is intentional and indicates consent); In re Deitz, 760 F.3d 1028 (9th Cir. 2014) (authority to adjudicate nondischargeability encompasses authority to liquidate debt and enter final judgment). See generally In re AWTR Liquidation, Inc., 548 B.R. 300 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2016).

(2) Mediation. Is there is any reason why this court should not order the parties to mediation before one of the volunteer mediators (not a Bankruptcy Judge), and meanwhile set the deadlines set forth below? The tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 8/24/18 for the parties to lodge a proposed mediation order (the parties are directed to use the time between now and that deadline to find a mutually agreeable mediator whose schedule can accommodate the needs of this matter; and if the parties cannot even agree on a mediator they may lodge separate orders and Judge Bason will chose among them, or issue his own order).

(3) Deadlines: This adversary proceeding has been pending since 5/24/18. Pursuant to LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B), plaintiff is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the status conference, attaching a copy of this tentative ruling or otherwise memorializing the following.

Tentative Ruling for 7/28/20:

Appearances required.

Pursuant to Judge Bason's COVID19 Procedures, ONLY TELEPHONIC APPEARANCES WILL BE PERMITTED until further notice. Please contact CourtCall at (888) 882-6878 to make arrangements for any telephonic appearance. (A) Current issues

(1) Status report - unilateral or joint?

Plaintiff's counsel has filed a status report that has "/S/" in the Defendant/Debtor's signature line. Is Plaintiff asserting that Defendant/Debtor has signed the status report?

(2) Status of Mediation

This matter was assigned to mediation on 6/18/20 (adv. dkt. 11), but Plaintiff's unilateral status report (adv. dkt. 13) does not address whether a date for mediation has been set or provide any other information on the status of the parties' mediation efforts (if any). The parties should be prepared to provide an update on where that stands.

(B) Standard requirements

The following are Judge Bason's standard requirements for status conferences. (To the extent that the parties have already addressed these issues in their status report, they need not repeat their positions at the status conference.)

(1) Venue/jurisdiction/authority

The parties are directed to address any outstanding matters of (a) venue, (b) jurisdiction, (c) this Bankruptcy Court's authority to enter final orders or judgment(s) in this proceeding and, if consent is required, whether the parties do consent, or have already expressly or impliedly consented.

Note: From the status report (adv.dkt.13) it appears that the parties have both consented to this Court issuing final orders/judgments.

But, as noted above, it is unclear whether Defendant/Debtor has signed that Status Report.

(2) Mediation: See section (A)(2) above.

(3) Deadlines

This adversary proceeding has been pending since 11/5/19. Pursuant to LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B), plaintiff is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the status conference, attaching a copy of this tentative ruling or otherwise memorializing the following.

(A) Current issues

The following are Judge Bason's standard requirements for status conferences. (To the extent that the parties have already addressed these issues in their status report, they need not repeat their positions at the status conference.)

See generally In re AWTR Liquidation, Inc., 548 B.R. 300 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2016).

(2) Mediation

Is there is any reason why this Court should not order the parties to mediation before one of the volunteer mediators (not a Bankruptcy Judge), and meanwhile set the deadlines set forth below? The tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 6/16/20 for the parties to lodge a proposed mediation order (the parties are directed to use the time between now and that deadline to find a mutually agreeable mediator whose schedule can accommodate the needs of this matter; and if the parties cannot even agree on a mediator they may lodge separate orders and Judge Bason will chose among them, or issue his own order).

(3) Deadlines

This adversary proceeding has been pending since 11/5/19. Pursuant to LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B), plaintiff is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the status conference, attaching a copy of this tentative ruling or otherwise memorializing the following.

Appearances required but telephonic appearances are encouraged if advance arrangements are made (see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.", "Instructions/Procedures").

This Court has reviewed the documents and records filed in this adversary proceeding.

Current issues

(a) No evidence that Defendant has been served

As of the preparation of this tentative ruling, there is no proof of service demonstrating that Defendant has been served with the summons and complaint. Is there any reason why this proceeding should not be dismissed based on Plaintiff's apparent failure to prosecute this action?

(b) No status report

Plaintiff has not filed a unilateral status report. Why not? The tentative ruling is that this provides another basis for this Court to dismiss this proceeding.

The following are Judge Bason's standard requirements for status conferences.

(1) Venue/jurisdiction/authority.

Appearances required by counsel for the debtor and by the debtor(s) themselves.

Pursuant to Judge Bason's COVID19 Procedures, ONLY TELEPHONIC APPEARANCES WILL BE PERMITTED until further notice. Please contact CourtCall at (888) 882-6878 to make arrangements for any telephonic appearance. There is no need to contact the Court for permission. (1) Current issues

This Court has reviewed the recently filed documents in this case, including Debtor's status report (dkt. 21).

(a) UST Compliance

Debtors are directed to address the status of establishing debtor in possession bank accounts, and compliance with the "7 day package" for the United States Trustee.

(b) Income

Debtors' Bankruptcy Schedule I lists $24,000 per month of combined income from employment by their affiliate Spliffin Group, Inc., but (i) they list $0 for any any income tax, medicare, or social security deductions (dkt.17, at PDF pp.39-40) and (ii) Debtors report $0 in income from any source for the past several years in their Statement Of Financial Affairs ("SOFA") (dkt.17, pp.1-2 (PDF pp.45-46)). How are these things possible?

(c) Affiliates' finances

Prior authorization of this Court is required for Debtor to cause any affiliate to act out of the ordinary course of that affiliate's business (§ 363(c)). In jointly administered cases, MORs must be filed in each debtor's separate case. Debtor may request at the principal status conference to be excused from these requirements. [Id., p.2:11-18]

Debtors are directed to address what steps are being taken to comply with this requirement, and whether, in addition to any other requirements, this Court should direct Debtors to file declaration(s) with a graphic chart of their affiliates' corporate/business structure/relationships.

#2.00 Status conference re: Chapter 11 case

Docket 15

Tentative Ruling:

Appearances required by counsel for the debtor, principal(s) of the debtor, and the Subchapter V Trustee.

Pursuant to Judge Bason's COVID19 Procedures, ONLY TELEPHONIC APPEARANCES WILL BE PERMITTED until further notice. Please contact CourtCall at (888) 882-6878 to make arrangements for any telephonic appearance. There is no need to contact the Court for permission. (1) Current issues

(a) Status reports (dkt. 36, 37)

(i) Bar date and plan deadline

Pursuant to First Amended General Order 20-01 (available at www.cacb.uscourts.gov under "Rules and Procedures"):

For chapter 11 cases filed under Subchapter V, all claims – except by governmental units – must be filed within 70 days after the date of the order for relief. Governmental units' claims for chapter 11 cases filed under Subchapter V must be filed within 180 days after the date of the order for relief." [Id., p.2:4-7 (emphasis added)]

Similarly, 11 U.S.C. 1189(b) provides:

The debtor shall file a plan not later than 90 days after the order for relief under this chapter, except that the court may extend the period if the need for the extension is attributable to circumstances for which the debtor should not justly be held accountable. [Id. (emphasis added).]

The tentative ruling is that the emphasized language in each of the above quotations runs from the date of conversion to chapter 11, which was 7/1/20. Cf. 11 U.S.C. 348(a) (distinguishing between the general order for relief, and the order for relief under the chapter to which the case is converted). If this Court adopts that tentative ruling, the general claims bar date would be 70 days from 7/1/20, which is 9/9/20, and the deadline to file the plan would be 90 days from 7/1/20, which is 9/29/20. The tentative ruling is to issue an order memorializing those dates. The parties are directed to address whether this Court should adopt any different dates.

(ii) Budget motion

Debtor's status report checks the box indicating that no budget motion would be filed because, allegedly, it is not required by the presiding judge. Dkt. 36, p.3. That is incorrect. Pursuant to the Posted of Judge Bason, Section VII(G) (available at www.cacb.uscourts.gov), a budget motion is required.

(iii) Required documents under 11 U.S.C. 1187(a)

Debtor's Subchapter V status report checks the box indicating that Debtor has not filed three of the required documents pursuant to 11 U.S.C. 1187(a). Dkt.37, p.4; see also 11 U.S.C. 1116(1). Debtor is directed to address why it did not comply with the requirements of the above referenced code sections "upon electing to be a debtor under this subchapter [V]." 11 U.S.C. 1187(a). The parties are directed to addresses what remedies this Court should consider for Debtor's failure to comply with 11 U.S.C. 1187(a).

(iv) Whether a separate disclosure should be required

Debtor's Subchapter V status report checks the box indicating that in its opinion, there is not "cause" for this Court to order the filing of a separate disclosure statement. Dkt.37, p.4. But the form Plan generally required by Judge Bason has not yet been updated to include the disclosures required by Subchapter V (11 U.S.C. 1190), so Judge Bason's usual policy is to require that the form Disclosure Statement be completed as well. 11 U.S.C. 1181(b). The parties are directed to address whether any different procedure should be adopted in this case.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 5/4/20 and converted from chapter 7 on 7/1/20 (dkt.17). The petition was amended to elect Subchapter V on 7/14/20 (dkt.27).

broker to sell the property instead of pursuing the Plan) (dkt. 254), and the Trustee's Broker Response (dkt. 257)

Deny the Plan Hearing Request, without prejudice. Appearances required.

(i) Procedural issues

The tentative ruling is that Debtor's Plan Hearing Request is properly addressed at this Status Conference. True, it has not been specifically set for hearing on 7/28/20, nor has Debtor lodged any proposed order granting that request on an ex parte basis. But the tentative ruling is that this is exactly the type of procedural issue that is properly addressed at this Status Conference, and therefore it is appropriate to reach the merits of the Plan Hearing Request. The tentative ruling is that, for the same reasons, it is appropriate to consider Celtic's Broker Response and the Trustee's Broker Response because they bear on the Plan Hearing Request.

(ii) Although the Plan Hearing Request has some merit, the tentative ruling is that the Plan on its face is unconfirmable due to its lack of provision for administrative claims and, alternatively, due to the facially valid claims for default interest and attorney fees

On the one hand, Debtor's proposed Plan appears to have many elements of what might have been required from the outset of this case. Those elements include: (x) a substantial proposed one-time contribution from Debtor's business partner, so as to be able to make "down payments" to secured creditors, (y) additional substantial ongoing contributions, and a projected return to more normal rental income, so as to be able to make ongoing monthly payments, and (z) future potential refinancing(s) to pay off claims.

None of the foregoing is intended to disregard the substantial hurdles to confirming any proposed plan. This Court recognizes those hurdles - but the question is not whether to confirm the Plan today; rather it is whether to set a hearing to address whether or not to confirm the Plan.

On the other hand, there is no point in setting such a hearing if the Plan is unconfirmable on its face. The tentative ruling is that, for at least the following reasons, the Plan cannot be confirmed.

First, as both Celtic Bank and the Subchapter V Trustee point out Debtor's Plan does not set aside an estimated dollar amount for administrative expenses.

Second, as Celtic Bank points out (dkt.254, p.3:6-11), it has a substantial claim for pre- and postpetition default interest on its fully matured loan, as well as attorney fees. In general, claims for both prepetition and "pendency" default interest on oversecured claims are allowed in bankruptcy cases, as are attorney fees, up to the value of the collateral. So any debtor either has to take steps quickly to stop the running of that interest - such as a section 363 sale, a refinance, or a confirmable plan - or else that debtor has to pay that interest in full (up to the value of the collateral). See generally In re Aarons (Case 2:19-bk-18316-NB), dkt. 268, pp.9:13-10:8.

The tentative ruling is that the Plan must, but does not, provide for payment of administrative expenses and Celtic's default interest and attorney fees. Nor does the Plan or any other filed document known to this Court provide a basis for this Court to presume that the very large proposed contributions would be increased by enough to cover the shortfall. Therefore, the tentative ruling is that it would be a waste of time and resources to set a hearing on confirmation of Debtor's proposed Plan at this time, so the Plan Hearing Request must be denied.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 11/20/19, converted from chapter 13 to chapter 11 on 1/2/20, and designated by Debtor as a Subchapter V case on 3/2/20 (dkt.128).

(1) Current issues

(a) Case progress

At the last hearing on 6/5/20, this Court removed debtor as debtor in possession and expanded the powers and duties of the Subchapter V Trustee (see dkt. 232). There is no tentative ruling, but the parties should be prepared to update this Court on any progress that has occurred since the last hearing.

The parties also should be prepared to address whether this Court should set a new deadline for Debtor to file an amended disclosure statement and amended plan at this time.

(b) Motion for relief from stay by Mr. Tremblay as trustee (as amended, dkt. 93), debtor's supplemental declaration (dkt. 129), previously-filed papers (see tentative ruling for 3/3/20, reproduced at calendar no. 10, 6/16/20 at 1:00 p.m)

The tentative ruling is to take this motion off calendar, without prejudice to filing any amended motion for relief from the automatic stay in future. The reasons are as follows.

At prior hearings this Court was persuaded to continue this matter. As for Debtor's alleged bad faith, the tentative ruling is that any bad faith by Debtor herself is no longer sufficient cause for relief from the automatic stay because this Court has removed Debtor as a debtor in possession - although, if Debtor were to fail to cooperate with the Subchapter V Trustee, or otherwise fail to comply with her ongoing duties, that might change. As for valuation of the property, the tentative ruling is that it is premature to address that issue, until the Subchapter V Trustee has had an opportunity to explore options for

(1) Current issues

(a) A.O.E. Law & Associates' second interim fee application, and supporting declaration (dkt. 181, 188, collectively, the "Fee Application"), no opposition is on file

The tentative ruling is to grant the Fee Application in part, and authorized a reduced fee award of $10,206.61 ($9,940 in fees and $266.61 in expenses), but deny Applicant's request for $1,960 in fees consisting of:

(i) $1,015 in fees incurred drafting the "Motion to Amend the Order Determining Value of Collateral in Debtors' Bankruptcy Case" (dkt. 167) [2.9 hours at $350/hr = $1,015] and

(ii) $945 in fees incurred drafting the "Second Motion for Order Determining Value of Collateral" (dkt. 172) [2.7 hours at $350/hr = $945].

Reasons: These fees appear to be duplicative of the $630 in fees Applicant has already received (dkt. 126, pdf p. 8:19-9:3) for time spent drafting and filing the original Motion for Order Determining Value (dkt. 95, the

(b) Valuation issues

Debtor and Mission Hen, LLC ("Mission Hen") have a pending dispute about valuation of certain property. See dkt.172, 187. The tentative ruling is to direct the parties to meet and confer about how they seek to resolve their valuation disputes: e.g., (i) with an evidentiary hearing (see the sample order regarding video hearings, posted on Judge Bason's portion of this Court's website, at www.cacb.uscourts.gov); (ii) with a court ruling based solely on the written record (to save costs, if all parties consent), (iii) through mediation, or (iv) through appointment of an appraiser (jointly selected by the parties/their appraisers) as the court's own expert under FRE 706.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 4/10/19 and converted from chapter 13 on 6/18/19.

- (a) Bar date: 6/19/19, and supplemental bar date of 8/28/19 after conversion to chapter 11, notice timely served (see dkt. 66, 67)
- (b) Procedures order: dkt. 41 (timely served, dkt. 46)

The tentative ruling is to continue this matter concurrent with the continued status conference (section 2(d) below) and Debtors' second motion for order determining value of collateral (dkt. 172, 173), because the outcome of the that motion could affect whether Debtors' amended plan is confirmable. This Court anticipates setting revised deadlines for the submission of Debtors' reply in support of confirmation and a ballot summary at the continued hearing.

(c) Outdated vehicle insurance policy

Debtors' May monthly operating report ("MOR") reflects that Debtors' vehicle insurance policy with Alliance United Insurance expired on 2/8/20 (dkt. 171, pdf p. 8). Debtors are directed to file an amended MOR by 7/7/20 with updated insurance coverage information.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 2/20/19. A Plan (dkt.562) was confirmed on 5/15/20 (dkt.630). A post-confirmation status conference presently is set for 8/4/20 at 1:00 p.m., and Debtor's status report (dkt.669) requests a continuance of approximately 90 days. The tentative ruling is to grant that continuance as set a new date of 11/10/20 at 1:00 p.m., with a brief status report due 10/27/20.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." If appearances are required, and you fail to appear telephonically without adequately resolving this matter by consent, then you may waive your right to be heard on matters that are appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

Appearances required.

(1) Current issues

(a) Debtor's disclosure statement (dkt. 83) and plan (dkt. 82), PHH Mortgage Corporation's limited objection (dkt. 91)

The tentative ruling is that if Debtor can satisfactorily address the issues set forth below, this Court will set a deadline of 8/7/20 for Debtor to file a further amended Plan and amended D/S to correct these issues and lodge a proposed order, substantially in the form of the order posted on Judge Bason's portion of the Court's website (www.cacb.uscourts.gov), authorizing the service of a voting package and setting a combined hearing on final approval of the D/S and confirmation of the Plan for the same time as the continued status conference (see below). The tentative ruling is also to sustain PHH Mortgage's limited objection and required Debtor to attach the parties' plan treatment stipulation to the plan and incorporate its provisions by reference.

(dkt. 83, Ex. 1), but Debtor's June Monthly Operating Report ("MOR") only reflects $2,824.16 in net monthly income from Vons (dkt. 92, p.1, line 4). Debtor's Amended Schedule I lists income from a second job at "City of Pomona" which provided Debtor with an additional $1,750.99 in monthly income (dkt. 28, p.5, line 8h). Debtor should be prepared to address whether she is still receiving income from the City of Pomona and what impact any loss in income from that source has on Debtor's plan projections and/or the feasibility of the Plan.

(ii) Overly inflated projected expenses

Debtor's projected monthly expenses includes a line item for $500 for "Cable/Internet" (dkt. 83, Ex.1), which appears to be excessive and is significantly higher than the $200 figure this Court authorized in Debtor's Budget Motion (dkt. 57, p. 7). Debtor should be prepared to address why this expense is projected to be so much higher and whether it is appropriate for her to spend that much on cable and internet each month when that money could be used to increase distributions to creditors.

(b) Outstanding UST fees

Debtor's June MOR reflects that UST fees for Q2 are outstanding in the amount of $325 (dkt. 92, p.11). Debtor is cautioned that failure to pay these fees by the payment deadline may result in adverse consequences.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 2/26/20.

This Court has no issues to raise sua sponte. This Court had intended, at the continued status conference (see below), to address whether any party in interest had filed an alternate plan or whether to dismiss or convert this case; but meanwhile Debtor has filed its own motion (dkt.155) to convert this case to chapter 7. If for some reason this case is not converted, the status conference will be held and this Court will address those issues; but if this case is converted then the continued status conference will go off calendar.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 1/15/20.

- (b) Procedures order: dkt. 5 (timely served, dkt. 11, 18).

(d) Continued status conference: 9/29/20 at 1:00 p.m., to go off calendar if this case is converted to chapter 7. No written status report required.

*Warning: special procedures apply (see order setting initial status conference).

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." If appearances are required, and you fail to appear telephonically without adequately resolving this matter by consent, then you may waive your right to be heard on matters that are appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

Tentative Ruling for 6/16/20:

Appearances required by counsel for the Debtor.

Pursuant to Judge Bason's COVID19 Procedures, ONLY TELEPHONIC APPEARANCES WILL BE PERMITTED until further notice. Please contact CourtCall at (888) 882-6878 to make arrangements for any telephonic appearance. There is no need to contact the Court for permission. Parties who are not represented by an attorney will be able to use CourtCall for free through 6/30/20. Attorneys will receive a 25% discount (for more information, see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.," "Telephonic Instructions").

(1) Current issues

(a) Outdated mailing address?

Debtor's petition designated 525 E. Colorado Blvd., Pasadena, CA 91101 (the "Colorado Blvd Address") as its address for purposes of service (dkt. 1). But Debtor subsequently rejected its sublease of certain premises located at the Colorado Blvd Address (dkt. 90, 92). As a result, it is not clear if Debtor has been receiving personal service of this Court's orders and/or papers filed in this case. By no later than 6/19/20 Debtor is directed to amend its address to ensure it is receiving notice of all papers and proceedings in this case.

Chapter 11

(b) Debtor's motion to extend exclusivity periods (dkt. 112, 113, 117, the "Exclusivity Motion"), untimely opposition of Christopher Becker ("Mr. Becker") (dkt. 127), order setting hearing on Exclusivity Motion (dkt. 129), Debtor's reply (dkt. 136), Mr. Becker's unauthorized sur-reply (dkt. 137)

The tentative ruling is to deny the motion. On the one hand, Mr. Becker's opposition was not timely filed and served, and he offers no excuse for that untimeliness in his opposition papers. In addition, this Court recognizes the challenges presented by COVID19, and by the restaurant and cooking school businesses generally, all of which make it understandable that it would take more time than usual for Debtor to propose a chapter 11 plan.

On the other hand, even disregarding Mr. Becker's papers, this Court takes note of Debtor's representations that this case is administratively insolvent (dkt. 95, p.3:18-19), that Debtor does not anticipate that its business operations will resume (dkt. 123, p. 9:13-14), and that Best Rich no longer appears to be willing to purchase Debtor's business or continue to fund ongoing operations (id., p. 9:14-18). Considering these matters, and all other relevant facts and circumstances reflected in prior hearings and on the docket, the tentative ruling is that Debtor has not established sufficient cause to extend exclusivity, and to the contrary creditors would be better served by allowing exclusivity to terminate and permitting creditors an opportunity to propose a viable plan.

(c) Weintraub & Selth, APC's fee application (dkt. 123, 124), declaration of Shaojing (Ewen) Xu in support of fee application (dkt. 132), MAC LBNA, LLC's ("MAC") limited opposition (dkt. 128), Debtor's reply (dkt. 135)

The tentative ruling is to approve Weintraub & Selth's request for fees in the amount of $110,208.12 and expenses in the amount of $1,925.16, for a total award of $112,133.28. As for the request for immediate payment, the tentative ruling is that on the legal issue Weintraub & Selth is correct that if funds are contributed to a debtor and are earmarked for payment to a professional then other administrative claimants such as MAC do not have a right to those funds. But the tentative ruling is that the declarations in support of such contribution and earmarking are too vague (and, as of the preparation of this tentative ruling, one is unsigned). When was the alleged earmarking agreement entered into? Is it in writing? Does the history of equity contributions to Debtor and Debtor's use of the funds suggest that the funds were to be used for all bankruptcy purposes or were earmarked for specific purposes?

The tentative ruling is to set a continued hearing, contemporaneous with the continued status conference (see part "(2)" of this tentative ruling, below). The tentative ruling is to set a deadline of two weeks prior to that continued hearing to file and serve any supplemental papers in support of payment out of such funds, and a deadline of one week prior for any supplemental opposition papers.

Proposed orders: Debtor is directed to lodge proposed orders - (i) one order terminating exclusivity and (ii) a second order allowing the requested fees and expenses but setting a continued hearing on payment out of the alleged earmarked funds - via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date and attach a copy of the relevant portion of this tentative ruling to each order, thereby adopting it as this Court's final ruling, subject to any changes ordered at the hearing. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 1/15/20.

(a) Bar date: 4/7/20 (dkt. 52, timely served, dkt. 59).

(b) Procedures order: dkt. 5 (timely served, dkt. 11, 18).

(c) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: The 5/15/20 deadline previously set at the last status conference is vacated based on Debtor's representations in its status report (dkt. 80).

(d) Continued status conference: 7/28/20 at 1:00 p.m. No written status report required.

(1) Limited relief. Modify and condition the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1) such that the movant may proceed in the nonbankruptcy forum to final judgment (including any appeals) in accordance with applicable nonbankruptcy law, subject to the following limitations (Judge Bason's standard limitations).

(a) No enforcement against property of the bankruptcy estate. The stay remains in effect with respect to enforcement of any judgment against property of the debtor's bankruptcy estate - any such property shall be distributed when and how provided by the Bankruptcy Code. Nevertheless, the movant is permitted to enforce its final judgment by (i) collecting upon any available insurance in accordance with applicable nonbankruptcy law or (ii) proceeding against the debtor as to any property that is not property of this bankruptcy estate. See, e.g., 11 U.S.C. 362(b)(2)(B) & 541(b)(7) (collection of domestic support obligations from ERISA qualified retirement plans).

(b) Claim allowance, priority, and discharge issues. Any claims arising from the nonbankruptcy litigation are subject to this Bankruptcy Court's jurisdiction regarding claim allowance and priority, and the existence and scope of any bankruptcy discharge.

(c) No relief in other bankruptcy cases. To the extent, if any, that the motion seeks to terminate the automatic stay in other past or pending bankruptcy cases, such relief is denied on the present record. See In re Ervin (Case No. 14-bk-18204-NB, docket no. 311).

(2) Additional analysis:

The Bankruptcy Court "shall grant relief from the stay" upon a showing of "cause." 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1). Such relief need not take the form of a complete termination of the automatic stay, but instead may include "modifying or conditioning such stay." Id.

"Cause" is determined on a case-by-case basis." In re Tucson Estates, Inc., 912 F.2d 1162, 1166 (9th Cir.1990). In determining whether "cause" exists to grant relief from the automatic stay to allow a movant to pursue litigation in a non-bankruptcy forum, courts in the Ninth Circuit have examined the factors set forth in In re Curtis, 40 B.R. 795, 799-800 (Bankr. D. Utah 1984). See In re Kronmeyer, 405 B.R. 915 (9th Cir. BAP 2009); In re Plumberx Specialty Prods., Inc., 311 B.R. 551, 559-60 (Bankr. C.D. Cal.2004). Those factors are: (1) Whether the relief will result in a partial or complete resolution of the issues; (2) The lack of any connection with or interference with the bankruptcy case; (3) Whether the foreign proceeding involves the debtor as a fiduciary; (4) Whether a specialized tribunal has been established to hear the particular cause of action and whether that tribunal has the expertise to hear such cases; (5) Whether the debtor's insurance carrier has assumed full financial responsibility for defending the litigation; (6) Whether the action essentially involves third parties, and the debtor functions only as a bailee or conduit for the goods or proceeds in question; (7) Whether the litigation in another forum would prejudice the interests of other creditors, the creditors' committee and other interested parties; (8) Whether the judgment claim arising from the foreign action is subject to equitable subordination under Section 510(c); (9) Whether movant's success in the foreign proceeding would result in a judicial lien avoidable by the debtor under Section 522(f); (10) The interests of judicial economy and the expeditious and economical determination of litigation for the parties; (11) Whether the foreign proceedings have progressed to the point where the parties are prepared for trial; and (12) The impact of the stay on the parties and the "balance of hurt." Plumberex, 311 B.R. at 559. "[W]hile the Curtis factors are widely used to determine the existence of 'cause,' not all of the factors are relevant in every case, nor is a court required to give each factor equal weight." In re Landmark Fence Co., Inc., 2011 WL 6826253 at *4 (C.D. Cal. Dec. 9, 2011).

Based on the present record, the tentative ruling is that these factors weigh in favor of granting relief as set forth above. Most significantly, Debtor does not oppose the requested relief. The non-bankruptcy action involves third parties not subject to suit in bankruptcy court (dkt. 144, pp.7&10) and the claims arise under non-bankruptcy law (id. at p.3). Therefore, it serves the interest of judicial economy for the Superior Court of California to hear this action, which will result in complete resolution of the dispute between the parties and will not interfere with the bankruptcy case. Lastly, Movants state that they seek to recover primarily from third parties. Id. at p.7.

Effective date of relief

Grant the request to waive the 14-day stay provided by FRBP 4001(a) (3).

(1) Current issues

(a) Patricia Poynter et al. motion for relief from the automatic stay, action in nonbankruptcy forum (dkt. 31)

Grant as set forth in calendar no. 3, 7/28/20 at 2:00 p.m. Appearances are not required.

(b) Debtor's exit strategy

In a status report dated 6/26/20, Debtor stated its intent to confer with creditors about pursuing a plan of liquidation or a structured dismissal. Dkt.142. Debtor is directed to address the status of those efforts.

(2) Deadlines/dates. The involuntary petition commencing this case was filed on 9/15/19, and an order for relief in this converted chapter 11 case was entered on 12/18/19 (see dkt.28, 29).

(a) Bar date: 2/28/20 (order, dkt. 58; timely served, dkt. 59).

(b) Procedures order: dkt.30 (timely served, dkt.34)

Tentative Ruling for 7/28/20:

Appearances required by counsel for the debtor and the Subchapter V Trustee.

Pursuant to Judge Bason's COVID19 Procedures, ONLY TELEPHONIC APPEARANCES WILL BE PERMITTED until further notice. (1) Current issues

(a) Debtor's Plan (dkt.158) and Disclosure Statement (dkt.159), supporting declaration (dkt.160), and request to set hearing (dkt.162)

(i) Debtor used the wrong forms.

As noted in the tentative ruling for 6/30/20 (reproduced below), the Posted Procedures of Judge Bason ("Procedures") require use of local forms F 3018-1.CH11.PLAN, F 3017-1.CH11.DISCLSR.STMT, and F 3018-1.CH11.PLAN.DS.EXHIBITS, unless otherwise ordered. Instead, Debtor has used forms F 2081-1 (plan, and disclosure statement). The tentative ruling is to excuse the use of the wrong forms, with a warning not to use the wrong forms in future cases.

(ii) Stop serving creditors - until authorized

Debtor may have confused creditors by sending them the Plan and Disclosure Statement. In general, a debtor is not supposed to serve all parties in interest with any disclosure-statement-related documents (before a disclosure statement is approved). See 11 U.S.C. 1125(b) and Rules 2002(b) & 3017(a) (Fed. R. Bankr. P.) and Tentative Ruling for 6/30/20 (reproduced below) part (2)(b). In addition, as set forth in the Posted Procedures of Judge Bason (available at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) (the "Procedures"), the required procedure is for this Court to conduct a preliminary review at a status conference, conditionally approve the disclosure statement, and only then direct service on all parties in interest, as authorized by 11 U.S.C. 105(d)(2) (vi). In future, counsel is directed to follow the Procedures.

(iii) Gating issue(s) regarding Plan and Disclosure Statement

The tentative ruling is that it is appropriate to address any gating issues at this point, before authorizing Debtor to serve ballots and the rest of the voting package on creditors. This Court is aware of one gating issue: it appears that, although Debtor the linchpin of the Plan is to sell the Honolulu Terrace property, there is no commitment in the Plan not to withdraw the listing of that property, and no deadline to sell the property. Meanwhile creditors are promised only $500 per month (or possibly more, if Debtor has sufficient future income). If Debtor does not amend the Plan to address these issues, can he satisfy 11 U.S.C. 1129(a)(3), (a)(7), and any other applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code?

(iv) Combined hearing

The tentative ruling is, if Debtor sufficiently addresses the foregoing issues, to set a deadline of 7/31/20 for Debtor to file "blacklined" versions of the Disclosure Statement and Plan (if changes are agreed or ordered to each of those documents) and for Debtor to lodge a proposed order - in the form posted on Judge Bason's portion of this Court's website - approving the disclosure statement on an interim basis, authorizing service of the voting package on all creditors, and setting a hearing, contemporaneous with the continued status conference (see below), to consider final approval of the Disclosure Statement and confirmation of the Plan.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 8/30/19. The petition was amended to elect Subchapter V on 4/6/20 (see dkt. 111).

(a) Bar date: 12/13/19 (see Order, dkt. 28, timely served, dkt. 89 & 90)

(b) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: See above.

(c) Continued status conference: 9/1/20 at 2:00 p.m. No written status report is required.

The tentative ruling is to modify the authority to use cash collateral generated by 10838-10842 Beverly Boulevard so as to restrict any authorization only to payment of real estate taxes, insurance, and other expenses necessary to maintain these properties, based on relief from the automatic stay being granted (dkt. 150).

Current issues:

(a) Debtor's brief re liability of Nationstar Mortgage, LLC for damages for contempt (violation of discharge injunction) (dkt. 320), Nationstar's opposition (dkt. 321), Debtor's reply (dkt. 322)

(i) Scope of remand

The tentative ruling is that the parties should be prepared to address whether (i) there is any dispute that the Bankruptcy Appellate Panel ("BAP") determined that the actual meaning of the confirmed chapter 13 plan and the confirmation order was to reduce the amount of the debt secured by Nationstar's lien, such that when that debt was paid the lien automatically became void, and (ii) the BAP remanded the matter to this Court to address whether Nationstar's understanding of whether the discharge injunction applied was or was not objectively reasonable, and thus whether Nationstar is subject to contempt sanctions.

(ii) No further evidence regarding whether Nationstar is subject to contempt sanctions; but further evidence might be appropriate on other issues

Chapter 13

The tentative ruling is also that, because the record for this matter was closed when this Court took the matter under submission, prior to the appeal to the BAP, therefore no further evidence is appropriate regarding whether Nationstar is subject to contempt sanctions. But, if it is subject to sanctions, then the tentative ruling is that further evidence and an evidentiary hearing may be appropriate regarding the dollar amount of any compensatory damages and any other damages or sanctions. Those issues can be addressed at a future hearing, if appropriate, and meanwhile the tentative ruling is that the scope of this hearing is limited to whether Nationstar is subject to contempt sanctions.

(iii) Merits

There is no tentative ruling on the merits of that question. This Court has reviewed the parties' briefs, and the parties are invited to make brief oral arguments, following which this Court anticipates taking the matter under submission, and setting a continued hearing date of 8/18/20 at 2:00 p.m. at which the parties and this Court can address next steps in view of whatever Memorandum Decision this Court issues.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." (A) Current Issues

(1) U.S Bank's Motion to dismiss (adv. dkt. 4, "MTD"), no opposition is on file

The tentative ruling is to grant the MTD (apart from the issue of whether or not to grant leave to amend) on the grounds that it is law of the case that this Court has already ruled in connection with Debtor's motion to void lien filed in the main case that all of the grounds asserted in the MTD are persuasive. See 2:20-bk-12732-NB, dkt. 94.

Alternatively, even if it were not law of the case, this Court is still persuaded that on the merits, all of the arguments asserted in the MTD are persuasive.

Alternatively, and in addition, as of the preparation of this tentative ruling Debtor has not filed an opposition to the MTD, so any arguments in opposition to dismissal of this proceeding are deemed waived and forfeited.

(2) Whether to grant leave to amend

The tentative ruling is to continue the hearing on the MTD, solely with respect to whether this Court should grant leave to amend, so as to be concurrent with the hearing on Plaintiff/Debtor's motion for leave to amend (dkt.20), which is set for hearing on 8/4/20 at 11:00 a.m. The tentative ruling is that no written order is required until this Court has ruled on that remaining issue.

(B) Standard requirements

The following are Judge Bason's standard requirements for status conferences. (To the extent that the parties have already addressed these issues in their status report, they need not repeat their positions at the status conference.)

(1) Venue/jurisdiction/authority

The parties are directed to address any outstanding matters of (a) venue, (b) jurisdiction, (c) this Bankruptcy Court's authority to enter final orders or judgment(s) in this proceeding and, if consent is required, whether the parties do consent, or have already expressly or impliedly consented. See generally Stern v. Marshall, 131 S.Ct. 2594, 2608 (2011) (if litigant "believed that the Bankruptcy Court lacked the authority to decide his claim...then he should have said so – and said so promptly."); Wellness Int'l Network, Ltd. v. Sharif, 135 S.Ct. 1932 (2015) (consent must be knowing and voluntary but need not be express); In re Bellingham Ins. Agency, Inc., 702 F.3d 553 (9th Cir. 2012) (implied consent), aff'd on other grounds, 134 S. Ct. 2165 (2014); In re Pringle, 495 B.R. 447 (9th Cir. BAP 2013) (rebuttable presumption that failure to challenge authority to issue final order is intentional and indicates consent); In re Deitz, 760 F.3d 1028 (9th Cir. 2014) (authority to adjudicate nondischargeability encompasses authority to liquidate debt and enter final judgment). See generally In re AWTR Liquidation, Inc., 548 B.R. 300 (Bankr. Chapter 11

#11.00 Cont'd Status Conference re: Chapter 11 Case
fr. 4/7/20, 5/5/20, 5/12/20, 6/2/20

Docket 6

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for 7/28/20:

Appearances required.

Pursuant to Judge Bason's COVID19 Procedures, ONLY TELEPHONIC APPEARANCES WILL BE PERMITTED until further notice. Please contact CourtCall at (888) 882-6878 to make arrangements for any telephonic appearance. There is no need to contact the Court for permission. Parties who are not represented by an attorney will be able to use CourtCall for free through 8/31/20. Attorneys will receive a 25% discount (for more information, see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.," "Telephonic Instructions").

(1) Current issues

(a) Budget motion (dkt. 83), orders setting hearing on budget motion (dkt. 103) and continuing hearing (dkt. 105), Amended budget motion (dkt. 118) and supplemental declaration (dkt. 120)

There is no tentative ruling. The parties are directed to address whether the amended budget should be approved.

(b) Monthly Operating Reports ("MORs")

On 6/22/20 the Clerk's Office issued notices directing Debtor to re-file April and May MORs, but as of the preparation of this tentative ruling, Debtor has not complied. Why not?

Additionally, based on this Court's comparison of Debtor's signature in docket 83, page 2, with the MORs, it is unclear whether Debtor is personally signing her MORs or if someone else is signing on her behalf. Debtor should be prepared to address this issue.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 3/9/20.

(1) Current issues

(a) Dispute under the stipulation for use of cash collateral and adequate protection (the "Stipulation," dkt. 62)

This Court's ruling from the 7/14/20 hearing directed Debtor to stop payment on the outstanding missing check(s) and make the required adequate protection order payments via overnight mail to Mr. Ellis by 7/17/20.

The parties are directed to address the status of those efforts.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 2/6/20.

(a) Bar date: 5/1/20 (dkt. 50; timely served, dkt. 55).

(b) Procedures order: dkt. 7 (timely served, dkt.8)

(c) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: 8/14/20. Debtor must use the forms required by Judge Bason (DO NOT SERVE yet, except on the U.S. Trustee - this Court will set a deadline and procedures at a later time).

(d) Continued status conference: 8/18/20 at 1:00 p.m. No status report required.

(1) Current issues

(a) First interim fee application of Debtor's counsel (the "Fee Application," dkt. 140)

Approve $28,315.00 in fees, and $3,020.20 in expenses, for a total of $31,335.20.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

(b) Disputed under the stipulation for use of cash collateral and adequate protection (the "Stipulation," dkt. 62)

On 3/9/20, this Court issued an order (dkt. 64) approving the Stipulation. On 6/24/20, the Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") filed a declaration of default under the Stipulation (dkt. 144) and lodged a proposed order prohibiting the use of cash collateral (see dkt. 145). On 6/25/20, Debtor filed his opposition (dkt. 146) to the declaration of default. On 7/2/20, this Court issued an order setting this dispute for hearing (dkt. 147).

There is no tentative ruling, but the parties should be prepared to address the issues raised in this Court's order (dkt. 147), which are reproduced herein:

... Debtor is directed to address (i) how the allegedly lost May 12, 2020 payment was made (money order, personal check etc.), (ii) whether Debtor can stop and has stopped payment on that lost payment, and (iii) whether Debtor has taken steps to provide a substitute payment to the IRS. See dkt. 146, p.2:7-11 & Ex. 1.

... the IRS is directed to address what steps have been taken to locate the allegedly lost payment.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 2/6/20.

(a) Bar date: 5/1/20 (dkt. 50; timely served, dkt. 55).

(b) Procedures order: dkt. 7 (timely served, dkt.8)

(c) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: 8/14/20. Debtor must use the forms required by Judge Bason (DO NOT SERVE yet, except on the U.S. Trustee - this Court will set a deadline and procedures at a later time).

If this order is duly recorded in compliance with applicable State laws governing notices of interests or liens in the property at issue, then no automatic stay shall apply to such property in any bankruptcy case purporting to affect such property and filed within two years after the date of entry of this order, unless otherwise ordered by the court presiding over that bankruptcy case.

For the avoidance of doubt, any acts by the movant to obtain exclusive possession of such property shall not be stayed, including any eviction actions, through and including any lockout or other enforcement by the Sheriff or other authorized legal authority.

Note: Per Judge Bason's posted procedures (available at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) this Court's order will state that the Court "does not make" a finding that Debtor was involved in the "scheme" referenced in section 362(d)(4), unless there is sufficient evidence that Debtor was involved and Debtor is given clear notice that the movant seeks an express finding that Debtor was involved. The tentative ruling in this particular case is that there is sufficient evidence and notice.

Co-debtor stay

Any co-debtor stay (11 U.S.C. 1301(c)) has not been shown to have any basis for any different treatment from the stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(a), so the tentative ruling is to grant the identical relief regarding any co-debtor stay.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." If appearances are required, and you fail to appear telephonically without adequately resolving this matter by consent, then you may waive your right to be heard on matters that are appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

This Court has reviewed the motion papers (dkt. 12), the opposition papers (dkt. 18, 19, 23) filed by BVV Profit Sharing Plan ("BVV"), Debtor's reply (dkt. 20), and other filed documents.

(1) Overview

The tentative ruling is that one strong statutory policy in favor of imposing the automatic stay, embodied in the statute, is to protect creditors (not just the debtor). For example, the automatic stay prevents one or more creditors from levying on assets before other creditors can discover and levy on those assets.

Although there is a statutory presumption that Debtor did not file this case in good faith, which Debtor can only rebut by clear and convincing evidence, the tentative ruling is that at this early stage of the current case, the documents filed by Debtor so far appear to reflect proper prosecution of this current case and the potential, with appropriate safeguards, to provide appropriate treatment for BVV and other creditors. Therefore, the tentative ruling is that, if Debtor consents to, and/or if this Court imposes, a "stay-current" adequate protection order as set forth below, Debtor will have established "good faith" within the narrow meaning of 11 U.S.C. 362(c)(3).

(2) Governing law

The test for "good faith" under 11 U.S.C. 362(c)(3) is not entirely clear. Compare, e.g., In re Villaneuva, 274 B.R. 836, 841 (9th Cir. BAP 2002) ("good faith" for plan confirmation purposes), with, e.g., In re Elliot-Cook, 357 B.R. 811, 815 (Bankr. N.D. Cal. 2006) ("good faith" for purposes of section 362(c)(3)); In re Ferguson, 376 B.R. 109 (Bankr. E.D. Pa. 2009) (same). In general, the main considerations appear to be why the prior case failed, and what facts and circumstances suggest a different outcome in this case. See Elliot-Cook, 357 B.R. at 815.

By way of analogy, this Court notes that, in determining whether or not to dismiss a bankruptcy case for lack of good faith, there is authority that courts must consider the totality of the circumstances. See In re Montoya, 342 B.R. 312, 317 (Bankr. S.D. Cal. 2006). Some considerations in assessing the totality of the circumstances include (but are not limited to): "1) whether debtor misrepresented facts in the petition or the plan, unfairly manipulated the Code or otherwise filed the current chapter 13 plan or petition in an inequitable manner; 2) debtor's history of filings and dismissals; 3) whether debtor only intended to defeat state court litigation; and 4) whether egregious behavior is present." Montoya, 342 B.R. at 317 (citing In re Leavitt, 171 F.3d 1219, 1224 (9th Cir. 1999)). See also Elliot-Cook, 357 B.R. 811, 814-15 (similar considerations).

An additional circumstance, as explained above, is to consider how the application of the automatic stay may protect creditors from one another. This can foster equality of distribution while preventing a potentially destructive, "winner take all" race to collect.

Another analogy is to subsection (d) of section 362. The tentative ruling is that proceedings under section 362(c), like those under section 362(d), are intended to be "summary proceedings" rather a full trial. Among other things, a full trial at the inception of the case would defeat the purpose of the "breathing spell" that is one of the purposes of the automatic stay, and that would harm both debtors and creditors. Cf. In re Veal, 450 B.R. 897, 914 (9th Cir. BAP 2011) (citing authority that hearings under section 362(d) are "summary" proceedings); In re Robbins, 310 B.R. 626, 631 (9th Cir. BAP 2004) ("relief from stay hearings are limited in scope ... do not involve a full adjudication on the merits ..." and adjudicate claims only to the extent of determining "whether a creditor has a colorable claim") (citations omitted).

Similarly, because of the expedited time frame under section 362(c)(3), the limited issues to be decided, and the fact that the merits of any underlying disputes are not fully adjudicated, the tentative ruling is that any determination of "good faith" for purposes of section 362(c)(3) has very limited if any claim or issue preclusive effect. The tentative ruling is also that any party opposing the good faith determination need only show a "colorable" basis to establish that it has standing and is the real party in interest who has a right to be heard in opposition to any good faith determination. Cf. Veal, 450 B.R. 897, 914-15 ("stay relief litigation has very limited claim preclusion effect" and "[g]iven the limited nature of the relief obtained through a motion for relief from the stay, the expedited hearing schedule § 362(e) provides, and because final adjudication of the parties' rights and liabilities is yet to occur, ... a party seeking stay relief need only establish that it has a colorable claim to enforce a right against property of the estate.") (citations omitted); and see generally In re M Capital Corp., 290 B.R. 743 (9th Cir. BAP 2003) (limitations on "good faith" findings when all facts and circumstances might not be established, in analogous context of 11 U.S.C. 363(m)).

To be clear, the tests for "good faith" under paragraphs (c)(3) and (c) (4) of section 362 are not the same as the tests of "good faith" for purposes of whether to dismiss a case, nor is the test under section 362(c)(3) or (4) the same as the test for determining whether to grant relief from the automatic stay under section 362(d). In all of these instances, the analysis may be informed by similar considerations, but there are differences.

For example, if a debtor proposes a plausible attempt to provide adequate protection, or a plausible outline of a possible financial reorganization, that may establish or go a long way toward establishing "good faith" under subsection (c) of section 362, even if the proposed protection of the creditor's interest turns out not to be "adequate" (11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1)) or if the debtor ultimately is unable to show that property is necessary to an "effective" reorganization (section 362(d)(2)(B)). The point is only that there are parallels in the analysis under subsections (c) and (d) of section 362 as well as the reported decisions involving dismissal of cases for lack of "good faith," and the tentative ruling is that each type of analysis of "good faith" informs the others.

Based on the foregoing, the tentative ruling is to consider the totality of the circumstances, in a summary proceeding, with all parties in interest being heard, and with very limited if any preclusive effect on the "good faith" issue in any other contexts (although the same underlying evidence might be relevant in other contexts). With this framework, this Court turns to the merits.

(3) The tentative ruling is that Debtor will have rebutted the presumption of a lack of good faith, by clear and convincing evidence, if certain conditions are imposed

The tentative ruling is that (a) there is nothing in the record for this Court to conclude that Debtor has misrepresented facts in her petition or plan, unfairly manipulated the Code or otherwise filed the current chapter 13 plan or petition in an inequitable manner, (b) Debtor successfully confirmed a plan in her prior case and made approximately $67,130.77 in plan payments prior to dismissal (dkt. 12, p.5, para. 4(a)(1)(B)), (c) this Court is not aware of any state court litigation motivating this bankruptcy filing, (d) Debtor's current plan proposes to pay creditors 100% of their claims (dkt. 2), (e) continuing the automatic stay in this case is in the best interest of creditors because the evidence is that Debtor has approximately $441,705.60 in equity in the property, which serves both to protect creditors and to motivate Debtor to pay creditors if this case remains in chapter 13, but much of that equity might be lost or consumed by costs of foreclosure or administration if this case were dismissed or converted to chapter 7, (f) the evidence is that BVV's claim is adequately protected by an approximate 37% equity cushion, and (g) Debtor has provided a persuasive explanation why her circumstances have changed since her prior case. In these circumstances, the tentative ruling is that Debtor will have established "good faith" within the meaning of section 362(c) (3) if she agrees to a standard "stay current" adequate protection stipulation with BVV (14 days' notice of any missed payment, during which time Debtor can cure; with a maximum of three such cures). Alternatively, the tentative ruling is that this Court can impose such requirements as a condition of modification of the automatic stay.

(4) Evidentiary objections

The tentative ruling is that BVV's evidentiary objections (dkt. 19, 23), although somewhat persuasive, ultimately go to the weight rather than the admissibility of Debtor's evidence. For example, it is true that Debtor has not provided documentation showing the dollar amounts and timing of her alleged expenditures for family purposes, including expenses associated with her brother's demise. But, first, the tentative ruling is that the other considerations listed above are more significant in terms of good faith. Second, although the lack of financial details makes Debtor's evidence of changed circumstances have less weight, the tentative ruling is that she is still competent to testify from her personal knowledge as to her own experiences and actions. Considering the totality of the facts and circumstances, the tentative ruling is that Debtor has shown her good faith by clear and convincing evidence.

(5) Form of order

Based on the foregoing, the tentative ruling is that after the hearing date two separate orders are appropriate: (a) an order continuing the automatic stay (which this Court will prepare), with a copy of this tentative ruling attached) and (b) an APO with BVV, which BVV is directed to prepare.

The tentative ruling is that this Court's order will include the following language:

The stay of 11 U.S.C. 362(a) applies subject to the following modifications and conditions:

(i) Service and reconsideration. Any party in interest who was not timely served in accordance with FRBP 7004 (incorporated by FRBP 9014(b)) is hereby granted through 14 days after proper service to seek reconsideration, including retroactive relief (under FRBP 9023 and/or 9024). Any such person (a) may set a hearing on 14 days' notice, (b) may appear by telephone (if arrangements are made per Judge Bason's posted procedures), and (c) may present all arguments orally at the hearing (i.e., no written argument is required). If written arguments appear necessary then this court will set a briefing schedule at the hearing.

(ii) Reasons. (A) It appears appropriate to impose the automatic stay, and to impose it as to all persons rather than just as to selected persons, for the reasons set forth in this Court's adopted tentative ruling (attached hereto). (B) To prevent possible abuse, this Court provides the foregoing simple process for reconsideration.

(iii) Very limited ruling. This Court's tentative ruling to grant the foregoing relief is solely for purposes of this motion, and is not automatic stay as follows.

Note regarding mootness: Judge Bason's standard tentative ruling is as follows. For three reasons the above conclusion that there is no stay does not moot requests for relief from whatever stay might apply. First, such alternative rulings are appropriate because (i) the very nature of tentative rulings is that this Court could be persuaded to depart from any one of them, and (ii) a final ruling on any one issue could be reversed on appeal. Second, even if there is currently no stay, that could change - e.g., if there is no stay because of dismissal, such dismissal could be vacated and that would reimpose the stay even if there is a lack of adequate protection, or other grounds why the stay should not apply, and therefore the movant will suffer cognizable harm unless the issues are addressed now (Judge Bason regularly vacates dismissals based on stipulations or other good cause). Third, any request for relief as to past acts (annulment) or future cases (in rem relief) is still at issue even if there is currently no stay. See In re Aheong, 276 B.R. 233 (9th Cir. BAP 2002). For all of these reasons, the tentative ruling is that it is appropriate to address the following issues.

Termination

Terminate the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1).

To the extent, if any, that the motion seeks to terminate the automatic stay in other past or pending bankruptcy cases, such relief is denied on the present record. See In re Ervin (Case No. 14-bk-18204-NB, docket no. 311).

Effective date of relief

Grant the request to waive the 14-day stay provided by FRBP 4001(a) (3).

Co-debtor stay

Any co-debtor stay (11 U.S.C. 1301(c)) has not been shown to have any basis for any different treatment from the stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(a), so the tentative ruling is to grant the identical relief regarding any co-debtor stay.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

Termination

Terminate the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1).

To the extent, if any, that the motion seeks to terminate the automatic stay in other past or pending bankruptcy cases, such relief is denied on the present record. See In re Ervin (Case No. 14-bk-18204-NB, docket no. 311).

Effective date of relief

Deny the request to waive the 14-day stay provided by FRBP 4001(a)(3) for lack of sufficient cause shown.

Co-debtor stay

Any co-debtor stay (11 U.S.C. 1301(c)) has not been shown to have any basis for any different treatment from the stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(a), so the tentative ruling is to grant the identical relief regarding any co-debtor stay.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." (A) Current Issues

(1) U.S Bank's Motion to dismiss (adv. dkt. 4, "MTD"), no opposition is on file

At a hearing on 7/28/20 at 2:00 p.m., this Court granted the MTD, but continued the matter to this date solely with respect to whether this Court should grant leave to amend. The tentative ruling is that, unless this Court is persuaded not to adopt the tentative ruling set forth below, the MTD is granted in its entirety - i.e., without leave to amend.

(2) Debtor's Motion for leave to file first amended complaint (adv. dkt. 20, "Leave to Amend Motion"), U.S. Bank's opposition (adv. dkt. 22), Debtor's reply (adv. dkt. 23)

reasons stated in U.S. Bank's opposition (adv. dkt. 22).

Proposed orders: U.S. Bank is directed to lodge proposed orders on each of the foregoing motions via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby adopting it as this Court's final ruling, subject to any changes ordered at the hearing. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

(B) Standard requirements

[Same as prior tentative ruling]

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." Tentative Ruling for 7/28/20:

Appearances are not required on 7/28/20. If you wish to dispute the tentative ruling you must notify other parties of your intent to appear telephonically.

Pursuant to Judge Bason's COVID19 Procedures, ONLY TELEPHONIC APPEARANCES WILL BE PERMITTED until further notice. Please contact CourtCall at (888) 882-6878 to make arrangements for any telephonic appearance. (A) Current Issues

(1) U.S Bank's Motion to dismiss (adv. dkt. 4, "MTD"), no opposition is on file

The tentative ruling is to grant the MTD (apart from the issue of whether or not to grant leave to amend) on the grounds that it is law of the case that this Court has already ruled in connection with Debtor's motion to void lien filed in the main case that all of the grounds asserted in the MTD are persuasive. See 2:20-bk-12732-NB, dkt. 94.

Alternatively, even if it were not law of the case, this Court is still persuaded that on the merits, all of the arguments asserted in the MTD are persuasive.

Alternatively, and in addition, as of the preparation of this tentative ruling Debtor has not filed an opposition to the MTD, so any arguments in opposition to dismissal of this proceeding are deemed waived and forfeited.

(2) Whether to grant leave to amend

The tentative ruling is to continue the hearing on the MTD, solely with respect to whether this Court should grant leave to amend, so as to be concurrent with the hearing on Plaintiff/Debtor's motion for leave to amend (dkt.20), which is set for hearing on 8/4/20 at 11:00 a.m. The tentative ruling is that no written order is required until this Court has ruled on that remaining issue.

(B) Standard requirements

The following are Judge Bason's standard requirements for status conferences. (To the extent that the parties have already addressed these issues in their status report, they need not repeat their positions at the status conference.)

(1) Venue/jurisdiction/authority

The parties are directed to address any outstanding matters of (a) venue, (b) jurisdiction, (c) this Bankruptcy Court's authority to enter final orders or judgment(s) in this proceeding and, if consent is required, whether the parties do consent, or have already expressly or impliedly consented. See generally Stern v. Marshall, 131 S.Ct. 2594, 2608 (2011) (if litigant "believed that the Bankruptcy Court lacked the authority to decide his claim...then he should have said so – and said so promptly."); Wellness Int'l Network, Ltd. v. Sharif, 135 S.Ct. 1932 (2015) (consent must be knowing and voluntary but need not be express); In re Bellingham Ins. Agency, Inc., 702 F.3d 553 (9th Cir. 2012) (implied consent), aff'd on other grounds, 134 S. Ct. 2165 (2014); In re Pringle, 495 B.R. 447 (9th Cir. BAP 2013) (rebuttable presumption that failure to challenge authority to issue final order is intentional and indicates consent); In re Deitz, 760 F.3d 1028 (9th Cir. 2014)

Grant as set forth below. Appearances are not required. If you wish to dispute the tentative ruling you must notify other parties of your intent to appear telephonically.

Pursuant to Judge Bason's COVID19 Procedures, ONLY TELEPHONIC APPEARANCES WILL BE PERMITTED until further notice. Please contact CourtCall at (888) 882-6878 to make arrangements for any telephonic appearance. There is no need to contact the Court for permission. Parties who are not represented by an attorney will be able to use CourtCall for free through 9/30/20. Attorneys will receive a 25% discount (for more information, see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.," "Telephonic Instructions").

Analysis:

(1) Background

On 7/8/20, the Chapter 7 Trustee filed a Motion For Order (1) Compelling Debtor Zeta Graff And Those In Possession With Her To Turnover Property Of The Estate; And (2) Authorizing Trustee To Utilize The Services Of The United States Marshals To Enforce Court Order (the "Turnover Motion," dkt. 212). On 7/14/20, Pensco Trust Company, FBO Elizabeth S. Boren, IRA filed its joinder in the Turnover Motion. Dkt. 226. On 7/23/20 Debtor filed her opposition (dkt.226), and on 7/23/20 and 7/24/20

Chapter 7

Debtor filed her supplemental oppositions (dkt. 233, 240), . On 7/28/20, the Chapter 7 Trustee filed a reply (dkt. 242) and an objection to and request to strike Debtor's late filed oppositions (dkt. 243).

(2) Discussion

For the reasons set forth below, the tentative ruling is to grant the Turnover Motion.

(a) The tentative ruling is that Debtor's oppositions are untimely, contain inadmissible allegations, and should not be considered

LBR 9013-1(f)(1) (Local Bankruptcy Rule) provides that, except as set forth in inapplicable other LBRs, an interested party must file and serve their response to a motion on the moving party and the United States trustee "not later than 14 days before the date designated for hearing." LBR 9013-1(h) provides that, except as set forth in an inapplicable LBR, "if a party does not timely file and serve documents, the court may deem this to be consent to the granting or denial of the motion, as the case may be." The "Posted Procedures of Judge Bason" (available at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) provide that "if your opposition or reply papers are filed late, you must include a brief explanation (and a request to accept such papers)."

The Trustee argues that Debtor's oppositions should be stricken because they are not timely. Dkt. 243, p.4:19-23. In addition, the Trustee explains that he only had two business days to file his reply because of the late filings. Id. at p.4:15-17.

The tentative ruling is that the Trustee's argument is persuasive on this issue. First, Debtor's oppositions were untimely, without an excuse until Debtor's supplemental opposition, and then without admissible evidence sufficient to excuse such untimeliness. Second, the Trustee appears to have suffered harm due to the late filings – namely, a very short time to prepare and file a reply. Third, and finally, Debtor did not comply with the "Posted Procedures of Judge Bason" regarding providing an explanation for why papers were filed late, and a request that they be accepted.

Alternatively, the tentative ruling is to sustain the Trustee's objections to Debtor's declaration. See dkt.243. If Debtor's allegations are stricken, there is no evidence in opposition to the Turnover Motion. That is an alternative reason why the tentative ruling is to grant the Turnover Motion.

(b) In the alternative, on the merits, the tentative ruling is that Debtor's oppositions are not persuasive

Chapter 7

(i) Debtor's explanations do not refute the Trustee's arguments

11 U.S.C. 521(a) provides in relevant part

(a) The debtor shall –

...

(4) if a trustee is serving in the case ... surrender to the trustee all property of the estate and any recorded information, including books, documents, records, and papers, relating to property of the estate ... [11 U.S.C. 521(a)(4)]

11 U.S.C. 542 provides in relevant part

(a) ... an entity, other than a custodian, in possession, custody, or control, during the case, of property that the trustee may use, sell, or lease under section 363 of this title ... shall deliver to the trustee, and account for, such property or the value of such property ... [11 U.S.C. 542(a)]

The Trustee alleges in the Turnover Motion that Debtor (i) has refused to allow the Trustee's broker to show the property and (ii) is not maintaining insurance. See dkt. 212, p.6:14-15. Debtor's oppositions assert that she has been acting in good faith. Dkt. 240, p.4:7. Debtor states that she denied access to the Trustee's real estate agent because she has been stricken with COVID-19, and it is not safe for the Trustee's real estate agent and prospective purchasers to be exposed to the virus. Id. at p.2:15-20. Debtor also states that she is attempting to get court approval to finance the home insurance premiums. Id. at p.4:7-8. In the reply, the Trustee asserts that "Debtor does not actually dispute the Trustee's allegations." Dkt. 242, p.4:4-5.

The tentative ruling is that the Trustee's argument is persuasive on this issue. Debtor does not appear to dispute the Trustee's allegations, but rather seeks to explain how the actions were either justifiable or are being resolved. It is very unfortunate that Debtor asserts she has COVID-19, and this Court appreciates that Debtor may be attempting to be responsible and attempting to social distance from others. But this development only further illustrates that granting the Turnover Motion is appropriate. It seems that the best way for Debtor and other persons to be safe, while allowing the Trustee to discharge his duties, is for Debtor to surrender the home to the Trustee and relocate. Of course, it is very unfortunate for anyone to have to leave their home; but most chapter 7 debtors must do so, and the Trustee has met his burden to establish that, in order to carry out his duties, turnover is necessary.

(ii) Rule 7070 (Fed. R. Bank. P.) is appropriate to apply in this contested matter

Rule 70 (Fed. R. Civ. P.), made applicable in adversary proceedings by Rule 7070 (Fed. R. Bankr. P.), provides in relevant part

(a) Party's Failure to Act; Ordering Another to Act. If a judgment requires a party to convey land, to deliver a deed or other document, or to perform any other specific act and the party fails to comply within the time specified, the court may order the act to be done – at the disobedient party's expense – by another person appointed by the court ...

(d) Obtaining a Writ of Execution or Assistance. On application by a party who obtains a judgment or order for possession, the clerk must issue a writ of execution or assistance. [Rule 70(a)&(d)]

Rule 9014(c) provides a list of Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, applicable to adversary proceedings, that "shall apply" and another list of rules that "shall not apply" in any contested matter, unless the court directs otherwise. Rule 7070 is not in either list. Rule 9014(c) further provides that "the court may at any stage in a particular matter direct that one or more" of the rules applicable to adversary proceedings "shall apply." Lastly, Rule 9014(c) states that the "court shall give the parties notice of any order issued under this paragraph ..."

The Trustee argues that application of Rule 7070 is appropriate and requests a court order applying Rule 7070. See dkt. 212, pp.15:23-16:2. Debtor argues that the Turnover Motion should be denied because "it is based on Bankruptcy Rule 7070 which only applies in adversary proceedings ..." dkt. 240, p.3:22-23.

The tentative ruling is that the Trustee's argument is persuasive on this issue. First, the Trustee's basis for seeking turnover is not Rule 7070, but 11 U.S.C. 521 and 542. Second, it appears to be appropriate to implement those turnover requirements by issuing an order applying Rule 7070. This is the Trustee's second turnover motion, and the Trustee has presented uncontested evidence that Debtor has not maintained insurance and that turnove is otherwise necessary. Moreover, even if this Court were to disregard that evidence (and this Court is not aware of any reason to do so), a court order applying Rule 7070 provides the Trustee with the tools necessary to compel turnover, which is required by the Bankruptcy Code and appropriate under 11 U.S.C. 105.

(3) Conclusion

For the reasons set forth above, the tentative ruling is (a) to strike Debtor's oppositions as untimely, and alternatively as not being supported by any competent evidence, and therefore grant the Turnover Motion as unopposed, (b) alternatively, to grant the Turnover Motion on the merits, and (c) to apply Rule 7070 to implement the Bankruptcy Code's turnover requirements.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." If appearances are required, and you fail to appear telephonically without adequately resolving this matter by consent, then you may waive your right to be heard on matters that are appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

(1) Current issues

(a) Debtor's Subchapter V Plan (dkt. 40) and Disclosure Statement (dkt. 41), no opposition is on file

The tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 8/11/20 for Debtor to do the following.

(i) Amended Plan

Debtor must file an amended Plan corrects the error values reflected in the current version. See dkt.40, Ex.A & A-1, at PDF pp.2-4.

(ii) Amended Disclosure Statement

Debtor must file an amended Disclosure Statement that reproduces the financial projections in Attachment 4 in a more user-friendly format (the existing text is miniature, and although that text can be enlarged when viewed in PDF format, it should be legible when printed and mailed to creditors). In addition, the tentative ruling is that the Disclosure Statement must include a declaration providing (i) a brief summary of Debtor's background and exit strategy, along the lines of what was included in Debtor's initial status report (dkt.29 at PDF p.13, "Part I - 2") and (ii) sufficient support for Debtor's

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for 8/4/20:

Continue to 12/8/20 at 1:00 p.m., with a brief status report due 11/24/20.
Appearances are not required on 8/4/20. If you wish to dispute the tentative ruling you must notify opposing counsel of your intent to appear telephonically.

Pursuant to Judge Bason's COVID19 Procedures, ONLY TELEPHONIC APPEARANCES WILL BE PERMITTED until further notice. Please contact CourtCall at (888) 882-6878 to make arrangements for any telephonic appearance. There is no need to contact the Court for permission. Parties who are not represented by an attorney will be able to use CourtCall for free through 8/31/20. Attorneys will receive a 25% discount (for more information, see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.," "Telephonic Instructions").

This Court has reviewed the Debtor's latest filed documents, including its Monthly Operating Reports (dkt. 101, 102) and Status Report (dkt. 103). This Court is not aware of issues that would warrant a status conference at this time.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." If appearances are required, and you fail to appear telephonically without adequately resolving this matter by consent, then you may waive your right to be heard on matters that are appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

(1) Current issues

(a) Amended disclosure statement (dkt. 153, 155) and amended plan of reorganization (dkt. 154), Order setting combined hearing on (1) disclosure statement approval and (2) plan confirmation, and related deadlines (dkt. 159), proof of service of voting package (dkt 166), Mission Hen's objection (dkt. 169), no reply or ballot summary is on file

There is no tentative ruling. The outcome of the Amended Valuation Motion could affect whether Debtors' amended plan is confirmable. This Court will defer setting new deadlines for submission of Debtors' reply in support of confirmation and a ballot summary until that matter has been resolved.

(b) Debtors' second motion for order determining value of collateral (dkt. 172, "Amended Valuation Motion") and request for judicial notice (dkt. 173), stipulation & order continuing hearing (dkt. 175, 177), Mission Hen's opposition (dkt. 187), Debtor's supplemental appraiser declaration (dkt. 189)

There is no tentative ruling. The parties should be prepared to address how they seek to resolve their valuation disputes: e.g., (i) with an evidentiary hearing (see the sample order regarding video hearings, posted on Judge Bason's portion of this Court's website, at www.cacb.uscourts.gov); (ii) with a court ruling based solely on the written record (to save costs, if all parties consent), (iii) through mediation, or (iv) through appointment of an appraiser (jointly selected by the parties/their appraisers) as the court's own exper under FRE 706.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 4/10/19 and converted from chapter 13 on 6/18/19.

- (a) Bar date: 6/19/19, and supplemental bar date of 8/28/19 after conversion to chapter 11, notice timely served (see dkt. 66, 67)
- (b) Procedures order: dkt. 41 (timely served, dkt. 46)
- (c) Amended Plan/Amended Disclosure Statement*: TBD, after the pending valuation issues are resolved.
- (d) Continued status conference: 9/15/20 at 1:00 p.m. Brief status report due 9/1/20.

*Warning: special procedures apply (see order setting initial status conference).

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." version (dkt. 282), Amended plan (dkt. 283), and redline version (dkt. 284), notice of hearing (dkt. 285, dkt. 293), objection of Shiv and Saroj Gupta (the "Guptas," dkt. 295), joinder of Andrea Freidlander (dkt. 297), and Debtor's reply (dkt.299)

The tentative ruling is to approve the Disclosure Statement, subject to the proposed amendments to the Plan and Disclosure Statement attached to Debtor's reply (dkt.299), and further subject to (i) amending the certification at the end of the Plan and end of the Disclosure Statement to cross-reference the changes to the local forms reflected in Debtor's redlines and (ii) correcting the phrase "working as a legal assistance" (dkt.299 at PDF p.46, para. "(4)") to "working as a legal assistant." The tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 8/7/20 for Debtor to file those amended documents and lodge a proposed order setting a confirmation hearing concurrent with the continued status conference (see below), and setting deadlines for service of the voting package, objections, etc. The order should be substantially in the form of the order posted on Judge Bason's portion of the Court's website (www.cacb.uscourts.gov) (except that the hearing is not a combined hearing on the Disclosure Statement and the Plan - it is only on whether or not to confirm the Plan).

(d) Debtor's application to employ Law Offices of Mainak D'Attaray as special litigation counsel (dkt. 273, 274), UST's opposition (dkt. 277), notice of hearing (dkt. 290), Debtor's reply (dkt. 291)

Continue concurrent with the continued status conference (see below)/hearing on whether to confirm Debtor's proposed Plan. The tentative ruling is that, if the Plan were to be confirmed, then it would be appropriate to grant the application, effective as of the date proposed therein, subject to (i) consideration of any further objection(s) by the UST at the hearings, (ii) the modifications set forth in Debtor's reply (dkt. 291) regarding waiver of the 10% late payment penalty and arbitration provision, and (iii) the standard employment terms set forth in the "Posted Procedures of Judge Bason" (available at www.cacb.uscourts.gov).

Chapter 11

There is no tentative ruling.

(c) Debtor's disclosure statement (dkt. 253) and chapter 11 plan of reorganization ("Plan," dkt. 252), and objection of United States Trustee ("UST," dkt.264), Amended Schedules (dkt.232) and Amended MORs (dkt.247, 256, 261, 263, 265)

Debtor is racing against time to propose and obtain confirmation of a plan before her secured creditors can foreclose and/or before her tentative arrangements with creditors expire. As set forth in numerous tentative rulings posted since this inception of this case (which this Court will memorialize on the docket), Debtor frequently has been out of compliance with her obligations and this Court's directions. Her latest proposed Plan is a last-minute, desperate attempt to make this attempted reorganization work.

There is no tentative ruling regarding the proposed Plan and proposed disclosure statement. Debtor is directed to address the issues raised in the UST's objection including but not limited to issues regarding (i) her feasibility analysis, (ii) her historical income and expenses as reflected in her filed documents in this case, (iii) the adequacy of her disclosure of historical and projected revenues and expenses, and (iv) any "new value" issues.

If Debtor can make sufficient arguments and offers of proof to warrant the following relief, the tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 7/3/20 for Debtor to file, and serve only on the parties appearing at today's hearing, her supplemental/amended documents on the foregoing issues and a proposed order setting a combined hearing, concurrent with the continued status conference as set forth in part "(2)" below, on confirmation of a plan and final approval of a disclosure statement. Any such proposed order must be in the form posted on Judge Bason's portion of the Court's website, at www.cacb.uscourts.gov.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

Termination

Terminate the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1).

To the extent, if any, that the motion seeks to terminate the automatic stay in other past or pending bankruptcy cases, such relief is denied on the present record. See In re Ervin (Case No. 14-bk-18204-NB, docket no. 311).

Effective date of relief

Deny the request to waive the 14-day stay provided by FRBP 4001(a)(3) for lack of sufficient cause shown.

The automatic stay does not apply

This case has been dismissed, which terminates the automatic stay. See 11 U.S.C. 349(b)(3) & 362(c).

In the alternative and in addition, this court grants relief from the automatic stay as follows.

Note regarding mootness: Judge Bason's standard tentative ruling is as follows. For three reasons the above conclusion that there is no stay does not moot requests for relief from whatever stay might apply. First, such alternative rulings are appropriate because (i) the very nature of tentative rulings is that this Court could be persuaded to depart from any one of them, and (ii) a final ruling on any one issue could be reversed on appeal. Second, even if there is currently no stay, that could change - e.g., if there is no stay because of dismissal, such dismissal could be vacated and that would reimpose the stay even if there is a lack of adequate protection, or other grounds why the stay should not apply, and therefore the movant will suffer cognizable harm unless the issues are addressed now (Judge Bason regularly vacates dismissals based on stipulations or other good cause). Third, any request for relief as to past acts (annulment) or future cases (in rem relief) is still at issue even if there is currently no stay. See In re Aheong, 276 B.R. 233 (9th Cir. BAP 2002). For all of these reasons, the tentative ruling is that it is appropriate to address the following issues.

Termination

Terminate the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1).

To the extent, if any, that the motion seeks to terminate the automatic stay in other past or pending bankruptcy cases, such relief is denied on the present record. See In re Ervin (Case No. 14-bk-18204-NB, docket no. 311).

Effective date of relief

Grant the request to waive the 14-day stay provided by FRBP 4001(a) (3).

Co-debtor stay

Any co-debtor stay (11 U.S.C. 1301(c)) has not been shown to have any basis for any different treatment from the stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(a), so the tentative ruling is to grant the identical relief regarding any co-debtor stay.

Relief notwithstanding future bankruptcy cases.

Grant the following relief pursuant to the legal analysis in In re Vazquez, 580 B.R. 526 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2017), and/or In re Choong (case no. 2:14-bk-28378-NB, docket no. 31), as applicable:

If this order is duly recorded in compliance with applicable State laws governing notices of interests or liens in the property at issue, then no automatic stay shall apply to such property in any bankruptcy case purporting to affect such property and filed within two years after the date of entry of this order, unless otherwise ordered by the court presiding over that bankruptcy case.

For the avoidance of doubt, any acts by the movant to obtain exclusive possession of such property shall not be stayed, including any eviction actions, through and including any lockout or other enforcement by the Sheriff or other authorized legal authority.

Note: Per Judge Bason's posted procedures (available at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) this Court's order will state that the Court "does not make" a finding that Debtor was involved in the "scheme" referenced in section 362(d)(4), unless there is sufficient evidence that Debtor was involved and Debtor is given clear notice that the movant seeks an express finding that Debtor was involved. The tentative ruling in this particular case is that there is not sufficient evidence and notice.

No prejudice to Debtor intended. Based on the record, it appears that this is a "hijacked" case, and that Debtor is innocent of any involvement. See e.g., In re Vazquez, 580 B.R. 526 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2017) (describing hijacking); In re Dorsey, 476 B.R. 261 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2012) (same). In a hijacking case, the Debtor faces the legitimate concern of being subject to a 180-day bar and other adverse consequences if, for example, Debtor later requests and obtains a voluntary dismissal and subsequently needs to file another bankruptcy petition. See, e.g., 11 U.S.C. 109(g)(2), 362(b)(21) (A). There is authority that section 109 "eligibility issues" are nonjurisdictional, can be waived, forfeited, or subject to estoppel, and should not be applied if that would produce an "illogical, unjust, or capricious result, or when the benefit of dismissal would inure to a bad faith creditor." In re Leafy, 489 B.R. 545, 550-51 (9th Cir. Bap 2012) (citing cases including under 109(g)(2)). See also In re Mendez, 367 B.R. 109, 116-17 (9th Cir. BAP 2007); In re Luna, 122 B.R. 575, 577 (9th Cir. BAP 1991); Dorsey, 476 B.R. 261, 270. The same principles apply to any other adverse consequences from a hijacking. Accordingly, the tentative ruling is to condition the relief from the automatic stay granted in this tentative ruling such that no adverse consequences apply to Debtor from the hijacking, including under 11 U.S.C. 109(g)(2) or 362(b)(21)(A). Note: None of the foregoing will shield Debtor if it turns out that Debtor was not, in fact, innocent of any involvement in the apparent hijacking or other abusive scheme.

Effective date of relief

Grant the request to waive the 14-day stay provided by FRBP 4001(a) (3).

Co-debtor stay

Any co-debtor stay (11 U.S.C. 1301(c)) has not been shown to have any basis for any different treatment from the stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(a), so the tentative ruling is to grant the identical relief regarding any co-debtor stay.

Any co-debtor stay (11 U.S.C. 1301(c)) has not been shown to have any basis for any different treatment from the stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(a), so the tentative ruling is to grant the identical relief regarding any co-debtor stay.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." #22.00 Hrg re: Motion and Motion in Individual Case for Order Imposing a Stay or Continuing the Automatic Stay as the Court Deems Appropriate

Tentative Ruling:

Grant, subject to the following conditions. Appearances are not required. If you wish to dispute the tentative ruling you must notify other parties of your intent to appear telephonically.

Pursuant to Judge Bason's COVID19 Procedures, ONLY TELEPHONIC APPEARANCES WILL BE PERMITTED until further notice. Please contact CourtCall at (888) 882-6878 to make arrangements for any telephonic appearance. There is no need to contact the Court for permission. After the hearing date this Court will prepare an order and the tentative ruling is to include the following language in that order:

The stay of 11 U.S.C. 362(a) applies subject to the following modifications and conditions:

(1) Service and reconsideration. Any party in interest who was not timely served in accordance with FRBP 7004 (incorporated by FRBP 9014(b)) is hereby granted through 14 days after proper service to seek reconsideration, including retroactive relief (under FRBP 9023 and/or 9024). Any such person (a) may set a hearing on 14 days' notice, (b) may appear by telephone (if arrangements are made per Judge Bason's posted procedures), and (c) may present all arguments orally at the hearing (i.e., no written argument is required). If written arguments appear necessary then this court will set a briefing schedule at the hearing.

(2) Reasons. (a) It appears appropriate to impose the automatic stay, and to impose it as to all persons rather than just as to selected persons, because one purpose of the automatic stay is to preventing a "race to collect" that could unfairly advantage some creditors at the expense of others. (b) To prevent possible abuse, this Court provides the foregoing simple process for reconsideration.

(3) Very limited ruling. This Court's tentative ruling to grant the foregoing relief is solely for purposes of this motion, and is not intended to have any binding effect with respect to any future assertions by any party in interest regarding the existence or lack of existence of good faith in any other context.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." Chapter 13

Tentative Ruling for 7/14/20:

Grant as set forth below. Appearances are not required. If you wish to dispute the tentative ruling you must notify other parties of your intent to appear telephonically.

Pursuant to Judge Bason's COVID19 Procedures, ONLY TELEPHONIC APPEARANCES WILL BE PERMITTED until further notice. Please contact CourtCall at (888) 882-6878 to make arrangements for any telephonic appearance. There is no need to contact the Court for permission. Parties who are not represented by an attorney will be able to use CourtCall for free through 8/31/20. Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

Termination

Terminate the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1).

To the extent, if any, that the motion seeks to terminate the automatic stay in other past or pending bankruptcy cases, such relief is denied on the present record. See In re Ervin (Case No. 14-bk-18204-NB, docket no. 311).

Effective date of relief

Deny the request to waive the 14-day stay provided by FRBP 4001(a) (3) for lack of sufficient cause shown.

Co-debtor stay

Any co-debtor stay (11 U.S.C. 1301(c)) has not been shown to have any basis for any different treatment from the stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(a), so the tentative ruling is to grant the identical relief regarding any co-debtor stay.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." (1) U.S Bank's Motion to dismiss (adv. dkt. 4, "MTD"), no opposition is on file

At a hearing on 7/28/20 at 2:00 p.m., this Court granted the MTD, but continued the matter to 8/4/20 at 11:00 a.m. solely with respect to whether this Court should grant leave to amend. This Court was persuaded to further continue the hearing to this date to allow additional oral argument on that issue in the event that Plaintiff/Debtor wishes, after consultation with her current counsel or any new counsel, to contest this Court's tentative rulings regarding the MTD and Plaintiff/Debtor's motion for leave to file an amended complaint.

The tentative ruling is to grant the MTD in its entirety - i.e., without leave to amend - for the reasons stated below.

(A) Current Issues

(1) U.S Bank's Motion to dismiss (adv. dkt. 4, "MTD"), no opposition is on file

The tentative ruling is to grant the MTD (apart from the issue of whether or not to grant leave to amend) on the grounds that it is law of the case that this Court has already ruled in connection with Debtor's motion to void lien filed in the main case that all of the grounds asserted in the MTD are persuasive. See 2:20-bk-12732-NB, dkt. 94.

Alternatively, even if it were not law of the case, this Court is still persuaded that on the merits, all of the arguments asserted in the MTD are persuasive.

Alternatively, and in addition, as of the preparation of this tentative ruling Debtor has not filed an opposition to the MTD, so any arguments in opposition to dismissal of this proceeding are deemed waived and forfeited.

(2) Whether to grant leave to amend

The tentative ruling is to continue the hearing on the MTD, solely with respect to whether this Court should grant leave to amend, so as to be concurrent with the hearing on Plaintiff/Debtor's motion for leave to amend (dkt.20), which is set for hearing on 8/4/20 at 11:00 a.m. The tentative ruling is that no written order is required until this Court has ruled on that remaining issue.

(B) Standard requirements

The following are Judge Bason's standard requirements for status conferences. (To the extent that the parties have already addressed these issues in their status report, they need not repeat their positions at the status conference.)

(1) Venue/jurisdiction/authority

The parties are directed to address any outstanding matters of (a) venue, (b) jurisdiction, (c) this Bankruptcy Court's authority to enter final orders or judgment(s) in this proceeding and, if consent is required, whether the parties do consent, or have already expressly or impliedly consented. See generally Stern v. Marshall, 131 S.Ct. 2594, 2608 (2011) (if litigant "believed that the Bankruptcy Court lacked the authority to decide his claim...then he should have said so – and said so promptly."); Wellness Int'l Network, Ltd. v. Sharif, 135 S.Ct. 1932 (2015) (consent must be knowing and voluntary but need not be express); In re Bellingham Ins. Agency, Inc., 702 F.3d 553 (9th Cir. 2012) (implied consent), aff'd on other grounds, 134 S. Ct. 2165 (2014); In re Pringle, 495 B.R. 447 (9th Cir. BAP 2013) (rebuttable presumption that failure to challenge authority to issue final order is intentional and indicates consent); In re Deitz, 760 F.3d 1028 (9th Cir. 2014) (authority to adjudicate nondischargeability encompasses authority to liquidate debt and enter final judgment). See generally In re AWTR Liquidation, Inc., 548 B.R. 300 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2016).

(2) Mediation: [Intentionally omitted]

(3) Deadlines

This adversary proceeding has been pending since 3/21/20. Pursuant to LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B), plaintiff is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the status conference, attaching a copy of this tentative ruling or otherwise memorializing the following.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this Court's final ruling, subject to any changes ordered at the hearing. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

Termination

Terminate the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1).

To the extent, if any, that the motion seeks to terminate the automatic stay in other past or pending bankruptcy cases, such relief is denied on the present record. See In re Ervin (Case No. 14-bk-18204-NB, docket no. 311).

Relief notwithstanding future bankruptcy cases

Deny, without prejudice to any other types of relief granted herein (or previously granted), for the following reasons.

The motion requests requests "in rem" relief (i.e., relief applicable notwithstanding future bankruptcy cases (under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(4) and/or In re Vazquez, 580 B.R. 526 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2017), and/or In re Choong (case no. 2:14-bk-28378-NB, docket no. 31)). The tentative ruling is to deny that request because there is no evidence of multiple bankruptcy cases, unauthorized transfers of interests in property, or other acts that would amount to a scheme to delay, hinder, or defraud the Movant within the meaning of the authorities cited above.

Movant's assertion that Debtors are involved in the cannabis business - while apparently accurate in general - has not been tied to this specific property. Even if it were, Movant has not established how any activity at the property that might be illegal under federal law (with no evidence of any enforcement action by federal prosecutors) has any bearing on whether to grant in rem relief.

Effective date of relief

Grant the request to waive the 14-day stay provided by FRBP 4001(a) (3).

Co-debtor stay

Any co-debtor stay (11 U.S.C. 1301(c)) has not been shown to have any basis for any different treatment from the stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(a), so the tentative ruling is to grant the identical relief regarding any co-debtor stay.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." (1) Current issues

(a) Vadim Kogan's Motion For Relief From The Automatic Stay (dkt. 23, 29)

Grant in part and deny in part as set forth in calendar no. 1, 8/18/20 at 1:00 p.m. (Appearances are not required on this matter.)

(b) Proof of service (dkt.35) for Order Setting Bar Date (dkt. 30)

The proof of service asserts that service occurred before the order was issued - an impossibility. The tentative ruling is to direct Debtor to file a corrected proof of service by the deadline set forth below.

(c) Finances

Debtors' amended bankruptcy schedules (dkt.26) appear to have many of the same problems noted in the tentative ruling for 7/28/20 (reproduced below). For example, amended Bankruptcy Schedule I (dkt.26, at PDF p.37-38) lists income but no income taxes. How can that be, and why has this not been corrected?

(e) Monthly operating reports ("MORs")

As of the preparation of this tentative ruling there are no MORs on the docket. Why not?

(f) Deadlines

The tentative ruling is to issue an order to show cause ("OSC") why this case should not be dismissed or converted, or why other remedies should not be imposed, if the foregoing issues are not corrected by 8/25/20. The tentative ruling is to set a hearing on the OSC concurrent with the continued status conference (see below).

(1) Current issues

This Court has reviewed the recently filed documents in this case, including Debtor's status report (dkt. 21).

(a) UST Compliance

Debtors are directed to address the status of establishing debtor in possession bank accounts, and compliance with the "7 day package" for the United States Trustee.

(b) Income

Debtors' Bankruptcy Schedule I lists $24,000 per month of combined income from employment by their affiliate Spliffin Group, Inc., but (i) they list $0 for any any income tax, medicare, or social security deductions (dkt.17, at PDF pp.39-40) and (ii) Debtors report $0 in income from any source for the past several years in their Statement Of Financial Affairs ("SOFA") (dkt.17, pp.1-2 (PDF pp.45-46)). How are these things possible?

(c) Affiliates' finances

This Court's Procedures order (dkt.6) provides:

4. Affiliates. For all reporting purposes – including Monthly Operating Reports ("MORs"), disclosure statements, etc. – Debtor must disclose all income, expenses, assets, and liabilities of (a) affiliated businesses and (b) any spouse. See §§ 101(2) & (9); Rule 2015.3; SBE v. Woo, 82 Cal. App.4th 481, 483-84 (2000). Prior authorization of this Court is required for Debtor to cause any affiliate to act out of the ordinary course of that affiliate's business (§ 363(c)). In jointly administered cases, MORs must be filed in each debtor's separate case. Debtor may request at the principal status conference to be excused from these requirements. [Id., p.2:11-18]

Debtors are directed to address what steps are being taken to comply with this requirement, and whether, in addition to any other requirements, this Court should direct Debtors to file declaration(s) with a graphic chart of their

Tentative Ruling:

Continue to be concurrent with the continued Status Conference (see calendar no. 5, 8/18/20 at 1:00 p.m.), to address the following issues.

Appearances are not required on 8/18/20. If you wish to dispute the tentative ruling you must notify other parties of your intent to appear telephonically.

Pursuant to Judge Bason's COVID19 Procedures, ONLY TELEPHONIC APPEARANCES WILL BE PERMITTED until further notice. Lack of cost/benefit analysis. The posted Procedures of Judge Bason (available at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) provide:

§ 502: claim objections & cost/benefit analysis. When objecting to claims, be sure to include an analysis of whether the costs of preparing and litigating the claim objection (administrative expenses) do not exceed the anticipated benefits (reductions in claims). For example, if the anticipated dividend is small or 0% then the attorney fees incurred in prosecuting your claim objection to any general unsecured claim probably will exceed the benefit to the bankruptcy estate/debtor, so filing that objection would be a waste of the bankruptcy estate's (and everyone else's) resources (unless, for example, the claim is nondischargeable, in which event the attorney fees might well be justified).

No later than 7 days after the date of this hearing the movant must file either:

- (1) a supplemental declaration explaining why the attorney fees for this objection are justified (including supporting evidence, such as a copy of the plan showing the projected dividend to the claimant, and a calculation comparing that projected dividend against the attorney fees related to this claim objection), or
- (2) a withdrawal of the claim objection.

No fees on this matter, absent specific authorization. Counsel is directed not to charge any fees on this matter (including all past, present and future work related to this claim objection), and to return any fees received on this matter, unless and until this Court expressly finds: "Counsel has provided a cost/benefit analysis that is sufficient for purposes of Judge Bason's posted Procedures regarding claim objections." It is counsel's responsibility to include the quoted phrase, if warranted, in the proposed order on this claim objection.

This Court does not have the capacity to monitor all fee applications to assure compliance with the foregoing limitation on fees. But if counsel is found to have disregarded this limitation then this Court may impose sanctions.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." Docket 1

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for 8/18/20:

Appearances required.

Pursuant to Judge Bason's COVID19 Procedures, ONLY TELEPHONIC APPEARANCES WILL BE PERMITTED until further notice. Please contact CourtCall at (888) 882-6878 to make arrangements for any telephonic appearance. There is no need to contact the Court for permission. Parties who are not represented by an attorney will be able to use CourtCall for free through 9/30/20. (1) Current issues

(a) Debtor's disclosure statement (dkt. 181) and plan (dkt. 182)

The tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 8/25/20 for Debtor to file, BUT NOT SERVE on anyone except the United States Trustee and parties requesting a copy, manually "blacklined" and "clean" copies of an amended Plan and amended Disclosure Statement to correct the issues discussed below, and lodge a proposed order, substantially in the form posted on Judge Bason's portion of the Court's website (at www.cacb.uscourts.gov), setting a combined hearing on final approval of the Disclosure Statement and confirmation of the Plan, contemporaneous with the continued status conference (see below). The issues to be corrected are as follows:

(i) The Plan in its current form is infeasible by $13,343.15 on the Effective Date

Debtor's cash flow statement (dkt. 181, Ex.C) shows a negative balance on the effective date: it gives the impression that the Plan is infeasible because Debtor would not be able to make $13,343.15 in required effective date payments (see 11 U.S.C. 1129(a)(11)). Debtor is directed to address whether it will have sufficient cash on hand to make these payments, and make any necessary changes to Ex.C.

(ii) Sufficient cash flow?

Debtor's cash flow statement (dkt. 181, Ex.C) projects gross income of $368,644.89, which is the average of Debtor's gross income from 1/31/20-6/30/20 (Id., Ex.D). But, Exhibit D reflects a significant decrease in income during the months of April, May and June 2020 (Id.). Debtor should be prepared to address the cause of this decrease (e.g. is it related to COVID-19 or some other issue?) and what impact (if any) the source of the decrease may have on Debtor's projected gross income over the length of the Plan.

(iii) Adjustments to unsecured claims in Exhibit F

Debtor lists adjusted amounts of unsecured claims as negative numbers (dkt.181, at PDF p.13). That would mean those creditors would be paying Debtor, which is incorrect. Debtor appears to have conflated the dollar amount by which Debtor wishes to reduce the claims with the resulting net dollar amount of such claims (e.g., a $180,000 claim reduced by $180,000 results in a claim of $-0-, not a claim of negative $180,000).

(iv) Discrepancies between tax claims in Ex.A-1 and Ex.I (IRS), J (EDD), and K (LA)

In Exhibit I, Debtor calculates the monthly payment to the IRS as $3,933.74 (for 40 months). See dkt.181 at PDF p.23 (first dollar amount). But Debtor's Ex.A-1 (dkt.182, PDF p.10, 1st line) lists the monthly amount as $3,826.77 (for 40 months).

Similarly, in Exhibit J Debtor calculates the monthly payment to the EDD as $1,088.51 (for 40 months). See dkt.181 at PDF p.23 (first dollar amount). But Debtor's Ex.A-1 (dkt.182, at PDF p.10, 2d line) lists the monthly amount as $1,058.91 (for 40 months).

The error appears to be that Debtor has included an additional payment (a 41st payment) on the Effective Date. See Plan (dkt.182), Ex.A, at PDF p.8. Based on this Court's own entry of the correct data on Ex.A & A-1, the monthly amortization payments match Ex.I and J.

As for the tax claim of the City of Los Angeles, Debtor has manually entered a monthly payment of $831.26 but has not listed the proposed 0.5% interest rate on Ex.A. See Plan (dkt.182), Ex.A, at PDF p.8 (last individual claim listed). With that correction, Ex.A and Ex.K will match.

(v) Omission of some exhibits?

Debtor's proposed disclosure statement is bulky. Copying and mailing this document may be expensive, and many of the exhibits appear to be unnecessary (e.g., once the monthly tax claim payments are corrected as set forth above, it appears that Exhibits I, J and K can be omitted; and it is unclear why stipulations and other filed documents need to be reproduced and served on all creditors when they are available on the docket and, upon request, from Debtor's counsel). Debtor is directed to address whether many of the exhibits can be omitted, or alternatively if they can be replaced by a statement such as "Exhibits __ through __ are available on the Court's docket, and also can be obtained by written request to Debtor's attorneys at _____."

- (b) Procedures order: dkt. 3 (timely served 6/18/19, dkt. 16).
- (c) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: see above.
- (d) Continued status conference: 10/27/20 at 1:00 p.m. No written status report required.

Grant in part, deny in part, as set forth below. Appearances required.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this Court's final ruling, subject to any changes ordered at the hearing. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

Background

As a preliminary matter, this Court notes that Ms. Campos' motion for relief from stay (dkt. 22, the "R/S Motion"), is not entirely clear about what relief Ms. Campos seeks. The R/S Motion represents that an appellate court has affirmed in part and reversed in part the trial court's award of attorney's fees and that "Campos has not received notice that remittitur issued and therefore has not yet filed a proposed Third Amended Judgment" (id., p.17:21-26), so perhaps Ms. Campos seeks relief to obtain entry of a final judgment with respect to the amount of attorney's fees? This relief would be consistent with Ms. Campos' statement in her unauthorized supplemental brief in support of the R/S Motion (see dkt. 35, p.5:12-13) ("Campos should be permitted to proceed to final judgment once and for all").

But the R/S Motion also describes Ms. Campos' efforts to enforce an "April 26, 2016 Assignment Order," conduct post-judgment discovery regarding Debtor's assets, and states that the day before a hearing on Ms. Campos' motion for assignment order was scheduled to be heard Debtor filed this bankruptcy case (dkt. 22, p.18:1-11), so perhaps Ms. Campos also seeks relief for the State Court to rule on that motion and/or to allow her to continue enforcement efforts?

Meanwhile, Debtor has admitted that this case was filed to halt Ms. Campos' collection efforts, to allow Debtor to file a motion to enforce and assume a mediation settlement agreement between Debtor and Ms. Campos and treat her claim through a chapter 11 plan of reorganization (dkt. 20, p.14). And this Court previously expressed its grave concerns about Debtor's repeated bankruptcy filings and his conduct in past cases, which have undoubtedly frustrated Ms. Campos' collection efforts (see tentative ruling for Calendar No. 12, 7/28/20 at 10:00 a.m., available at www.cacb.uscourts.gov).

Nevertheless, the tentative ruling is that it would be inappropriate to terminate the stay, at least unless and until this Court has had an opportunity to determine whether the parties' have an enforceable settlement agreement, and whether Debtor can assume and enforce such an agreement, or alternatively if Debtor can propose an effective plan of reorganization. Additionally, and alternatively, the tentative ruling is that at this early stage of the current case, the documents filed by Debtor so far appear to reflect proper prosecution of this current case and the potential, with appropriate safeguards to protect Ms. Campos and other creditors, for Debtor to propose a viable plan of reorganization without the distraction of having to defend himself against the state court proceeding.

Therefore, the tentative ruling is to modify and condition the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1) such that Debtor must set aside funds into a reserve account to be available for distribution to Ms. Campos (and any similarly situated creditors) as adequate protection of all of their interests, while this Court determines the enforceability of the parties' Mediation Term Sheet and/or whether Debtor can propose an effective reorganization. The parties should be prepared to discuss what an appropriate frequency and dollar amount of payments would be to adequately protect Ms. Campos' interests.

Legal analysis:

The Bankruptcy Court "shall grant relief from the stay" upon a showing of "cause." 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1). Such relief need not take the form of a complete termination of the automatic stay, but instead may include "modifying or conditioning such stay." Id.

"Cause' is determined on a case-by-case basis." In re Tucson

Estates, Inc., 912 F.2d 1162, 1166 (9th Cir.1990). In determining whether "cause" exists to grant relief from the automatic stay to allow a movant to pursue litigation in a non-bankruptcy forum, courts in the Ninth Circuit have examined the factors set forth in In re Curtis, 40 B.R. 795, 799–800 (Bankr. D. Utah 1984). See In re Kronmeyer, 405 B.R. 915 (9th Cir. BAP 2009); In re Plumberex Specialty Prods., Inc., 311 B.R. 551, 559–60 (Bankr. C.D. Cal.2004). Those factors are: (1) Whether the relief will result in a partial or complete resolution of the issues; (2) The lack of any connection with or interference with the bankruptcy case; (3) Whether the foreign proceeding involves the debtor as a fiduciary; (4) Whether a specialized tribunal has been established to hear the particular cause of action and whether that tribunal has the expertise to hear such cases; (5) Whether the debtor's insurance carrier has assumed full financial responsibility for defending the litigation; (6) Whether the action essentially involves third parties, and the debtor functions only as a bailee or conduit for the goods or proceeds in question; (7) Whether the litigation in another forum would prejudice the interests of other creditors, the creditors' committee and other interested parties; (8) Whether the judgment claim arising from the foreign action is subject to equitable subordination under Section 510(c); (9) Whether movant's success in the foreign proceeding would result in a judicial lien avoidable by the debtor under Section 522(f); (10) The interests of judicial economy and the expeditious and economical determination of litigation for the parties; (11) Whether the foreign proceedings have progressed to the point where the parties are prepared for trial; and (12) The impact of the stay on the parties and the "balance of hurt." Plumberex, 311 B.R. at 559. "[W]hile the Curtis factors are widely used to determine the existence of 'cause,' not all of the factors are relevant in every case, nor is a court required to give each factor equal weight." In re Landmark Fence Co., Inc., 2011 WL 6826253 at *4 (C.D. Cal. Dec. 9, 2011).

Based on the present record, the tentative ruling is that on balance these factors weigh in favor of granting only limited relief as set forth above. Most significantly:

As to the first Curtis factor (would relief result in partial or complete resolution of the issues?), if Ms. Campos seeks relief solely to obtain a final judgment in the State Court action, then granting relief would result in complete resolution of the issues and the issues can be resolved most expeditiously in the non-bankruptcy forum. Conversely, if Ms. Campos seeks relief for the State Court to rule on her motion for assignment order, then relief would only result in partial resolution of the issues.

As to the fourth Curtis factor (whether a specialized tribunal has been established to hear the action) and the eleventh Curtis factor (whether the proceedings have progressed to the point where the parties are prepared for trial), the tentative ruling is that, although not a specialized tribunal, the State Court is the only tribunal that can follow through with the appellate court mandate and enter final judgment with respect to the attorney's fees award, and is the most appropriate forum for many post-judgment proceedings, although this Bankruptcy Court is the most appropriate forum for either enforcing any mediated settlement that allegedly was reached in Debtor's prior case, or for restructuring Debtor's financial obligations, if that can be done in an effective reorganization.

As to the seventh Curtis factor (prejudice to creditors and other interested parties), the tentative ruling is that granting relief would prejudice other creditors because it would distract Debtor from focusing necessary time and money towards either implementing the parties' alleged settlement or proposing a viable chapter 11 plan of reorganization.

As to the tenth Curtis factor (interest of judicial economy) and the twelfth Curtis factor (the impact of the stay on the parties and the "balance of hurt"), the tentative ruling is that granting more extensive relief from stay than what has been outlined above would impede the efficient administration of this case and place a greater burden on Debtor and all other creditors.

This Court agrees that factors 3, 5, 6, 8, and 9 are inapplicable.

Evidentiary objections

The tentative ruling is that none of the foregoing depends on this Court's ruling on Ms. Campos' evidentiary objections (dkt. 56). But, for completeness, the tentative ruling is with respect to Debtor's declaration is to sustain those objections except to the extent that the statements at issue are offered solely for the purpose of establishing Debtor's subjective state of mind for purposes of whether this case was filed in "good faith." With respect to Mr. Shinbrot's declaration, the tentative ruling is to sustain the objections except to the extent that the statements at issue are offered solely for the purpose of establishing Mr. Shinbrot's subjective state of mind. With respect to the Holmes' declaration, the tentative ruling is to sustain the objection.

(1) Current issues

(a) Budget motion (dkt. 51), Yunuen Campos' opposition (dkt. 57)

There is no tentative ruling. The parties are directed to address the issues raised in Ms. Campos' opposition (dkt. 57). Debtor is also directed to explain the proposed expenditure of $800/mo. for "Personal Care, South Bay Family-Emily."

As to all questioned expenditures, Debtor is directed to address why they are monthly transactions "in the ordinary course" of Debtor's business (11 U.S.C. 363(c)(1)), or otherwise authorized by the Bankruptcy Code. See Dkt.51, Ex.A at p.6 (PDF p.7) (last line on page). See generally In re Villalobos, 2011 WL 4485793, 2011 Bankr.LEXIS 4329 (9th Cir. (permissible expenses for disposable income requirement in 11 U.S.C. 1129(a)(15)).

(b) Patient care ombudsman motion (dkt. 28), proof of service (dkt. 37), no opposition is on file

The tentative ruling is to grant the motion.

(c) Debtor's motion for leave to file documents under seal (dkt. 41), Yunuen Campos' response (dkt. 44), Debtor's reply (dkt. 45), order setting hearing (dkt. 47)

Debtor moves for an order authorizing him to file under seal a motion authorizing the assumption of a mediation term sheet between Debtor and Yuneun Campos. Ms. Campos objects to the admissibility of the mediation term sheet on the grounds that it is protected by the evidence exclusion provision pursuant to California Evidence Code section 1119. The tentative ruling is to grant the motion as follows.

(i) Applicable law

"Privileges are narrowly construed, because they impede the full and fair discovery of truth." Yeager v. Yeager, 2008 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 74245, at *3 (E.D. Cal. Sep. 25, 2008) (citing Weil v. Investment/Indicators, Research & Management, Inc., 647 F.2d 18, 24 (9th Cir. 1981)). "The party asserting an evidentiary privilege has the burden to demonstrate that the privilege applies to the information in question." Id. (quoting Torney v. United States, 840 F.2d 1424, 1426 (9th Cir. 1988)).

"Under Federal Rule of Evidence 501, privileges provided by state law apply in civil actions only 'with respect to an element of a claim or defense as to which State law supplies the rule of decision.'" Babasa v. LensCrafters, Inc., 498 F.3d 972, 974 (9th Cir. 2007) (citing Fed. R. Evid. 501; Breed v. U.S. Dist. Court for the N. Dist. Of Cal., 542 F.2d 1114, 1115 (9th Cir. 1976)).

"State contract law governs how settlement agreements are construed and enforced, even if the underlying cause of action is federal." Karubian v. Kaiser Ventures, LLC, 2018 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 235252, at *12 (C.D. Cal. Oct. 17, 2018) (citing United Commercial Ins. Serv., Inc., v. Paymaster Corp., 962 F.2d 853, 856 (9th Cir. 1992)). Therefore, California privilege law applies.

Two relevant provisions apply. First, California Evidence Code § 1119 states, in relevant part:

Except as otherwise provided in this chapter: (a) No evidence of anything said or any admission made . . . in the course of, or pursuant to, a mediation . . . is admissible or subject to discovery, and disclosure of the evidence shall not be compelled, in any . . . noncriminal proceeding (b) No writing . . . prepared in the course of, or pursuant to, a mediation . . . is admissible or subject to discovery, and disclosure of the writing shall not be compelled in any . . . noncriminal proceeding . . . (c) All communications . . . by and between participants in the course of a mediation . . . shall remain confidential.

Second, California Evidence Code § 1123 states, in relevant part:

A written settlement agreement prepared in the course of, or pursuant to, a mediation, is not made inadmissible, or protected from disclosure . . . if the agreement is signed by the settling parties and any of the following conditions are satisfied: (a) The agreement provides that it is admissible or subject to disclosure, or words to that effect. (b) The agreement provides that it is enforceable or binding or words to that effect.

This Court notes that the foregoing provisions are also consistent with the Rules 6.1 and 6.5 set forth in Appendix III of the Local Bankruptcy Rules, governing mediations in this district.

As the party asserting the privilege, Ms. Campos bears the burden of demonstrating that the exception set forth in California Evidence Code § 1123 do not apply. The tentative ruling is that Ms. Campos has not carried that burden. In support of her opposition, Ms. Campos simply concludes that "the requirements of California Evidence Code are not met to render any of the exhibits admissible" and "[t]here is no doubt the Mediation Term Sheet is inadmissible and confidential." Dkt. 44, p.3: 5-6 & 20-21. This is not sufficient.

Alternatively, the tentative ruling is that authorizing the Debtor to file the Mediation Term Sheet under seal will enable this Court to determine whether an exception to California Evidence Code § 1123 applies while still protecting the contents of the document from public disclosure.

(d) Yunuen Campos' motion for relief from the automatic stay (dkt. 22), Debtor's opposition (dkt. 34), notice of continued hearing (dkt. 35) & proof of service (dkt. 36), Ms. Campos' reply (dkt. 55) and evidentiary objections (dkt. 56)

(1) Current issues

(a) Omnibus claim objection ("Claim Objection," dkt.121) by Dos Cabezas Properties, LLC, Criscione-Meyer Entitlement, Michael Criscione and Michael Meyer's ("Claim Objectors"); stipulation & order continuing hearing (dkt. 129, 131); opposition (dkt.137) of Tarzana Crossing, a Merchant Faire, LLC ("Tarzana Crossing"); no reply is on file

Claim Objectors seek disallowance of the following Claims in full: Claim Nos. 4, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 29, 31, 33, 34, 35, 36 and 37 (the "Claims"). The Claim Objectors assert three grounds for disallowance of all Claims:

(w) the Claims are "interests," not "claims" entitled to a pro rata distribution with other creditors,

(x) the Claims fail to state an amount that is purportedly claimed, and

(y) the Claims are not supported by a copy of a writing as required by Rule 3001(c)(1) (Fed. R. Bankr. P.). Dkt. 40, p.39.

The Claim Objectors also object to claims 24, 25, 26, and 37 on an additional ground:

(z) that they are duplicative of claims previously filed by the holders of those claims. Id., p.40.

The tentative ruling is to sustain the Claim Objection as to all claims on ground "(w)." In addition, the tentative ruling, as to ground "(z)," is to sustain the objection insofar as disallowing the earlier version of each duplicative claim.

(i) Legal standards for objections to claim

"The term 'claim' is broadly defined to mean "a right to payment, whether or not such right is reduced to judgment, liquidated, unliquidated, fixed, contingent, matured, unmatured, disputed, undisputed, legal, equitable, secure, or unsecured . . . ." 11 U.S.C. 101(5)(A) (emphasis added). The term also broadly includes a "right to an equitable remedy for breach of performance . . . ." 11 U.S.C. 101(5)(B). "The Code utilizes this 'broadest possible definition' of claim to ensure that 'all legal obligations of the debtor, no matter how remote or contingent, will be able to be dealt with in the bankruptcy case." In re SNTL Corp., 571 F.3d 826, 838 (9th Cir. 2009). Furthermore, "a claim may exist for bankruptcy and discharge purposes long before a cause of action accrues under nonbankruptcy law." Id., at 839. "It is only necessary that the creditor be able to fairly or reasonably contemplate the claim's existence as of the petition date." Id.

The exclusive grounds under which a debtor may successfully object to a claim are listed in 11 U.S.C. 502(b). In re Campbell, 336 B.R. 430 (9th Cir. BAP 2005); In re Heath, 331 B.R. 424, 435 (9th Cir. BAP 2005).

(ii) The Claims, apart from the Claim of Tarzana Crossing

With the exception of the Tarzana Crossing Claim (Claim No. 23-1/23-2) (discussed separately below), the tentative ruling is as follows.

(A) The Claims are "equity interests" subject to mandatory subordination (11 U.S.C. 510(b))

Claim Objectors assert that the Claims should be disallowed because they are "interests" rather than "claims." The tentative ruling is that this is correct: the Claims are, by their own admission, equity interests and, as such, must be subordinated to general unsecured claims pursuant to 11 U.S.C. 510(b). See e.g. In re Tristar Esperanza Props., LLC, 782 F.3d 492 (9th Cir. 2015) (a claim arising from an equity interest in a limited liability company is subordinated to general unsecured creditors). See also dkt. 1, PDF pp.11-15 (Debtor's listing of alleged claims as equity interests on bankruptcy schedules).

(B) Duplicate claims are properly disallowed

Claim Objectors assert that claim 24-1 is a duplicate of claim 19-1, that claim 25-1 is a duplicate of claim 20-1, that claim 26-1 is a duplicate of claim 18-1, and that claim 37-1 is a duplicate of claim 35-1. The tentative ruling is to grant the objection in substance by treating the later filed claims as amendments to the earlier filed claims, and then disallowing the earlier filed claims as duplicative (i.e., disallow claims 18-1, 19-1, 20-1, and 35-1).

(C) The fact that a claim is contingent is not a proper basis to disallow a claim under section 502(b)(1)

Section 502(b)(1) provides that a claim is not allowable if it is unenforceable under the applicable agreement or law "for a reason other than because such claim is contingent or unmatured." 11 U.S.C. 502(b)(1). "Under section 502(b)(1), [ ] contingent claims cannot be disallowed simply because the contingency occurred postpetition." SNTL Corp., 571 F.3d at 838.

Therefore, the tentative ruling is to overrule Claim Objectors' request to disallow the Claims based on the fact that fail to state the amount of their respective claims.

(D) Failure to attach supporting documentation is not a sufficient basis to disallow a claim

Under Heath, "a request for complete disallowance of the claim merely because of inadequate documentation" is not a proper objection. 331 B.R. 424, 435. Accordingly, the tentative ruling is to overrule the Claim Objectors' request to disallow the Claims on the grounds they are not supported by copies of the operating agreement.

(iii) The Tarzana Crossing Claim

Tarzana Crossing opposes the Claim Objection on the grounds that its claim (Claim 23-2) "is not based on an equity interest in [Debtor] alone," but is also "based on the same pre-petition claims for which Tarzana Crossing filed suit long before this bankruptcy case was filed . . . ." Dkt. 137, p.6:3-5 (emphasis added). But the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit (the "Ninth Circuit") considered and rejected similar arguments in Tristar, 782 F.3d 492.

In Tristar, the Ninth Circuit affirmed the lower courts' determination that 11 U.S.C. 510(b)'s mandatory subordination applied to the claim of a former member of the debtor limited liability company (the "LLC") who obtained a judgment valuing her equity interest after the LLC did not honor a provision in its operating agreement requiring a buy-back of the withdrawing member's interest. Id. The Ninth Circuit confirmed that § 510(b) "sweeps broadly" (id. at 495) and held that "the critical question for purposes of § 510(b) . . . is not whether the claim is debt or equity at the time of the petition, but rather whether the claim arises from the purchase or sale of a security" and concluded that the "claim must be subordinated if there is a sufficient 'nexus or causal relationship between the claim and the purchase' or sale of securities." Id. at 497 (citation omitted).

The tentative ruling is that Tarzana Crossing's State Court claims are all directly related to and "arise from" its purchase of "security of the debtor" and Tarzana Crossing has not demonstrated that any damages it might recover from the State Court action against the Debtor would be anything but "damages arising from the purchase . . . of such a security." See 11 U.S.C. 510(b).

Therefore, the tentative ruling is to sustain the Claim Objectors' objection to the Tarzana Crossing Claim and order Claim 23-2 subordinated to general unsecured claims pursuant to 11 U.S.C. 510(b).

The tentative ruling is to deny the Claim Objectors' objection to this claim on all other grounds, for the reasons stated above.

Proposed order: The Claim Objectors are directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby adopting it as this Court's final ruling, subject to any changes ordered at the hearing. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

Chapter 11

(1) Current issues

(a) Motion for remand (adv. dkt. 7, "Remand Motion") and supporting declaration (adv. dkt. 8), Plaintiff's opposition (adv. dkt. 10), Movants' reply (adv. dkt. 12)

Defendants Dos Cabezas Properties, LLC, Criscione-Meyer Entitlement, LLC, and Michael Criscione (collectively, the "Movants") seek an order remanding this proceeding and for an award of attorneys fees and costs imposed against plaintiff Tarzana Crossing, a Merchant Faire, LLC ("Plaintiff").

For the reasons set forth below, the tentative ruling is to grant the request to remand this removed action, but perhaps defer the remand until after mediation, and deny the request for attorney fees.

(i) Jurisdiction

The parties dispute whether this Court has subject matter jurisdiction to hear this proceeding. The tentative ruling is that this Court has "related to" jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. 157(c)(1), because the parties' dispute arises from an alleged breach of contract for the sale of the estate's principal asset.

(ii) Mandatory abstention

The tentative ruling is that mandatory abstention applies as follows. Mandatory abstention under 28 U.S.C. 1334(c)(2) requires seven elements: (1) a timely motion; (2) a purely state law question; (3) a non-core proceeding under 28 U.S.C. 157(c)(1); (4) a lack of independent federal jurisdiction absent the petition under Title 11; (5) that an action is commenced in a state court; (6) the state court action may be timely adjudicated; (7) a state forum of appropriate jurisdiction exists. [In re Gen. Carriers Corp., 258 B.R. 181, 189 (9th Cir. BAP 2001) (internal quotation omitted).]

These elements are satisfied: (1) the motion was timely - the proceeding was removed on 1/22/20 and Movants filed the remand motion just 30 days later, on 2/21/20; (2) the complaint involves purely nonbankruptcy law questions (breach of fiduciary duty etc., adv. dkt. 7, p. 2:17-21) (Movants state that they amended their complaint on 8/30/19, but there is nothing in the record reflecting what was amended (id., p. 2:21), so this Court bases its ruling on the record presented); (3) the proceeding is noncore - the authorities cited by the removing party (dkt.10, pp.14:24-15:14) are distinguishable because they all involved alleged violations of fiduciary duties within the bankruptcy case itself, not prepetition and nonbankruptcy alleged violations; (4) no independent federal jurisdiction has been asserted; (5) the action was commenced prepetition, on 12/14/18, in Los Angeles Superior Court; (6) there is no evidence that the proceeding cannot be timely adjudicated in the State Court; and (7) neither party has contested in this Court the State Court's jurisdiction over the proceeding.

(iii) Discretionary abstention

Alternatively, and in addition, the tentative ruling is that discretionary abstention is appropriate.

Discretionary abstention under 28 U.S.C. 1334(c)(1) requires consideration of the following twelve factors:

- (1) the effect of lack thereof on the efficient administration of the estate if a Court recommends abstention, (2) the extent to which state law issues predominate over bankruptcy issues, (3) the difficulty or unsettled nature of the applicable law, (4) the presence of a related proceeding commenced in state court or other nonbankruptcy court, (5) the jurisdictional basis, if any, other than 28 U.S.C. 1334, (6) the degree of relatedness or remoteness of the proceeding to the main bankruptcy case, (7) the substance rather than form of an asserted "core" proceeding, (8) the feasibility of severing state law claims from core bankruptcy matters to allow judgments to be entered in state court with enforcement left to the bankruptcy court, (9) the burden of the bankruptcy court's docket, (10) the likelihood that the commencement of the proceeding in bankruptcy court involves forum shopping by one of the parties, (11) the existence of a right to a jury trial, and (12) the presence in the proceeding of nondebtor parties.

Several of the Tucson factors weigh in favor of abstention. First, the Complaint involves purely state-law issues. Second, this Court would not have jurisdiction over the Complaint but for the Debtor's bankruptcy petition, because the claims arise under state law and there is no diversity between the parties. Third, the Complaint involves several non-debtor parties who have asserted a right to a jury trial. Fourth, permitting the Complaint to proceed in state court will contribute to the efficient administration of the bankruptcy case because the State Court is the best tribunal to adjudicate the parties' state law claims. Fifth, although the Complaint is related to the main bankruptcy case because it involves claims relating to the primary asset of the estate, deferring to the State Court to adjudicate the parties' claims will not unduly interfere with this Bankruptcy Court's determination of other matters in the bankruptcy case.

(iv) Movants' request for attorneys' fees is denied

The tentative ruling is to deny Movant's request for attorneys' fees because this Court is not persuaded that Plaintiff lacked an objectively reasonable basis for seeking removal of this action because the dispute is related to the primary asset of Debtor's bankruptcy estate.

Proposed order: Movants are directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this Court's final ruling, subject to any changes ordered at the hearing. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1) (B).

The following are Judge Bason's standard requirements for status conferences. (To the extent that the parties have already addressed these issues in their status report, they need not repeat their positions at the status conference.)

(2) Venue/jurisdiction/authority.

The parties are directed to address any outstanding matters of (a) venue, (b) jurisdiction, (c) this Bankruptcy Court's authority to enter final orders or judgment(s) in this proceeding and, if consent is required, whether the parties do consent, or have already expressly or impliedly consented. See generally Stern v. Marshall, 131 S.Ct. 2594, 2608 (2011) (if litigant "believed that the Bankruptcy Court lacked the authority to decide his claim...then he should have said so – and said so promptly."); Wellness Int'l Network, Ltd. v. Sharif, 135 S.Ct. 1932 (2015) (consent must be knowing and voluntary but need not be express); In re Bellingham Ins. Agency, Inc., 702 F.3d 553 (9th Cir. 2012) (implied consent), aff'd on other grounds, 134 S. Ct. 2165 (2014); In re Pringle, 495 B.R. 447 (9th Cir. BAP 2013) (rebuttable presumption that failure to challenge authority to issue final order is intentional and indicates consent); In re Deitz, 760 F.3d 1028 (9th Cir. 2014) (authority to adjudicate nondischargeability encompasses authority to liquidate debt and enter final judgment). (a) Pre-trial conference

Continue to the same date and time as the continued status coference as set forth below.

(b) Status Report (dkt. 173)

Debtor's status report requests that this Court set dates for balloting and plan confirmation trial. The status report also states that the parties have contacted the mediation, but have not yet attended mediation due to COVID 19.

The tentative ruling is that it is premature to set dates for balloting and plan confirmation trial prior to the parties attending mediation.

(a) Debtor's brief re liability of Nationstar Mortgage, LLC for damages for contempt (violation of discharge injunction) (dkt. 320), Nationstar's opposition (dkt. 321), Debtor's reply (dkt. 322)

This Court anticipates issuing a ruling prior to the hearing. At the hearing this Court anticipates addressing next steps with the parties.

(b) Debtor's bill of costs (dkt. 296)

Pursuant to Rule 8021(a)(4) (Fed. R. Bankr. P.) costs are "only as the ... BAP orders." This Bankruptcy Court is not aware of any such order by the BAP; but Debtor filed a "Bill of Costs" (dkt. 296), objections were due within fourteen days (Rule 8021(d)), and no objection was filed, so the tentative ruling is to interpret the BAP's remand as providing discretion to this Bankruptcy Court to award costs, and alternatively the tentative ruling is to consider any objections waived and forfeited, and on both alternative grounds the tentative ruling is to award Debtor his requested costs of $484.50.

Current issues:

(a) Debtor's brief re liability of Nationstar Mortgage, LLC for damages for contempt (violation of discharge injunction) (dkt. 320), Nationstar's opposition (dkt. 321), Debtor's reply (dkt. 322)

(i) Scope of remand

The tentative ruling is that the parties should be prepared to address whether (i) there is any dispute that the Bankruptcy Appellate Panel ("BAP") determined that the actual meaning of the confirmed chapter 13 plan and the confirmation order was to reduce the amount of the debt secured by Nationstar's lien, such that when that debt was paid the lien automatically became void, and (ii) the BAP remanded the matter to this Court to address whether Nationstar's understanding of whether the discharge injunction applied was or was not objectively reasonable, and thus whether Nationstar is subject to contempt sanctions.

(ii) No further evidence regarding whether Nationstar is subject to contempt sanctions; but further evidence might be appropriate on other issues

Chapter 13

The tentative ruling is also that, because the record for this matter was closed when this Court took the matter under submission, prior to the appeal to the BAP, therefore no further evidence is appropriate regarding whether Nationstar is subject to contempt sanctions. But, if it is subject to sanctions, then the tentative ruling is that further evidence and an evidentiary hearing may be appropriate regarding the dollar amount of any compensatory damages and any other damages or sanctions. Those issues can be addressed at a future hearing, if appropriate, and meanwhile the tentative ruling is that the scope of this hearing is limited to whether Nationstar is subject to contempt sanctions.

(iii) Merits

There is no tentative ruling on the merits of that question. This Court has reviewed the parties' briefs, and the parties are invited to make brief oral arguments, following which this Court anticipates taking the matter under submission, and setting a continued hearing date of 8/18/20 at 2:00 p.m. at which the parties and this Court can address next steps in view of whatever Memorandum Decision this Court issues.

248), Celtic Bank's response to Debtor's opposition ("Celtic's Broker Response," dkt. 254), Subvchapter V Trustee's reply ("Trustee's Broker Response," dkt. 257)

Grant the Broker Application, for the reasons set forth below, subject to (i) Judge Bason's standard conditions, including no dual agency, and (ii) filing of Local Form F2014-1 (saying only "see Application" - unless there are matters that were not disclosed in the Application), all as required by the "Posted Procedures of Judge Bason" (available at www.cacb.uscourts.gov).
Appearances required.

(b) Debtor's small business chapter 11 plan ("Plan," dkt. 246), request to set hearing on confirmation and related deadlines ("Plan Hearing Request," dkt. 247), and Celtic's Broker Response (regarding employment of real estate broker to sell the property instead of pursuing the Plan) (dkt. 254), and the Trustee's Broker Response (dkt. 257)

Deny the Plan Hearing Request, without prejudice. Appearances required.

(i) Procedural issues

The tentative ruling is that Debtor's Plan Hearing Request is properly addressed at this Status Conference. True, it has not been specifically set for hearing on 7/28/20, nor has Debtor lodged any proposed order granting that request on an ex parte basis. But the tentative ruling is that this is exactly the type of procedural issue that is properly addressed at this Status Conference, and therefore it is appropriate to reach the merits of the Plan Hearing Request. The tentative ruling is that, for the same reasons, it is appropriate to consider Celtic's Broker Response and the Trustee's Broker Response because they bear on the Plan Hearing Request.

(ii) Although the Plan Hearing Request has some merit, the tentative ruling is that the Plan on its face is unconfirmable due to its lack of provision for administrative claims and, alternatively, due to the facially valid claims for default interest and attorney fees

On the one hand, Debtor's proposed Plan appears to have many elements of what might have been required from the outset of this case. Those elements include: (x) a substantial proposed one-time contribution from Debtor's business partner, so as to be able to make "down payments" to secured creditors, (y) additional substantial ongoing contributions, and a projected return to more normal rental income, so as to be able to make ongoing monthly payments, and (z) future potential refinancing(s) to pay off claims.

None of the foregoing is intended to disregard the substantial hurdles to confirming any proposed plan. This Court recognizes those hurdles - but the question is not whether to confirm the Plan today; rather it is whether to set a hearing to address whether or not to confirm the Plan.

On the other hand, there is no point in setting such a hearing if the Plan is unconfirmable on its face. The tentative ruling is that, for at least the following reasons, the Plan cannot be confirmed.

First, as both Celtic Bank and the Subchapter V Trustee point out Debtor's Plan does not set aside an estimated dollar amount for administrative expenses.

Second, as Celtic Bank points out (dkt.254, p.3:6-11), it has a substantial claim for pre- and postpetition default interest on its fully matured loan, as well as attorney fees. In general, claims for both prepetition and "pendency" default interest on oversecured claims are allowed in bankruptcy cases, as are attorney fees, up to the value of the collateral. So any debtor either has to take steps quickly to stop the running of that interest - such as a section 363 sale, a refinance, or a confirmable plan - or else that debtor has to pay that interest in full (up to the value of the collateral). See generally In re Aarons (Case 2:19-bk-18316-NB), dkt. 268, pp.9:13-10:8.

The tentative ruling is that the Plan must, but does not, provide for payment of administrative expenses and Celtic's default interest and attorney fees. Nor does the Plan or any other filed document known to this Court provide a basis for this Court to presume that the very large proposed contributions would be increased by enough to cover the shortfall. Therefore, the tentative ruling is that it would be a waste of time and resources to set a hearing on confirmation of Debtor's proposed Plan at this time, so the Plan Hearing Request must be denied.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 11/20/19, converted from chapter 13 to chapter 11 on 1/2/20, and designated by Debtor as a Subchapter V case on 3/2/20 (dkt.128).

(1) Current issues

(a) Case progress

At the last hearing on 6/5/20, this Court removed debtor as debtor in possession and expanded the powers and duties of the Subchapter V Trustee (see dkt. 232). There is no tentative ruling, but the parties should be prepared to update this Court on any progress that has occurred since the last hearing.

The parties also should be prepared to address whether this Court should set a new deadline for Debtor to file an amended disclosure statement and amended plan at this time.

(b) Motion for relief from stay by Mr. Tremblay as trustee (as amended, dkt. 93), debtor's supplemental declaration (dkt. 129), previously-filed papers

Chapter 11

(see tentative ruling for 3/3/20, reproduced at calendar no. 10, 6/16/20 at 1:00 p.m)

The tentative ruling is to take this motion off calendar, without prejudice to filing any amended motion for relief from the automatic stay in future. The reasons are as follows.

At prior hearings this Court was persuaded to continue this matter. As for Debtor's alleged bad faith, the tentative ruling is that any bad faith by Debtor herself is no longer sufficient cause for relief from the automatic stay because this Court has removed Debtor as a debtor in possession - although, if Debtor were to fail to cooperate with the Subchapter V Trustee, or otherwise fail to comply with her ongoing duties, that might change. As for valuation of the property, the tentative ruling is that it is premature to address that issue, until the Subchapter V Trustee has had an opportunity to explore options for dealing with the property and negotiating with creditors.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 11/20/19, converted from chapter 13 to chapter 11 on 1/2/20, and designated by Debtor as a Subchapter V case on 3/2/20 (dkt.128).

- (a) Bar date: 6/29/20, dkt. 179 (timely served, dkt. 184)
- (b) Procedures order: dkt. 50 (timely served, dkt. 58)
- (c) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: TBD (prior, insufficient versions were filed 4/15/20, dkt. 171, 172)
- (d) Continued status conference: 7/28/20 at 1:00 p.m. No written status report required.

*Warning: special procedures apply (see order setting initial status conference).

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." Tentative Ruling for 4/30/19:

Continue as set forth below. Appearances are not required on 4/30/19.

This Court has reviewed the latest filed documents in this adversary proceeding and is not aware of issues that would warrant a status conference at this time.

(1) Venue/jurisdiction/authority

Matters of venue, jurisdiction, and authority have been determined and/or waived or forfeited (adv. dkt. 6, 11, 24).

(2) Deadlines

This adversary proceeding has been pending since 4/7/17.

Supplemental Tentative Ruling for 4/9/19:

The original tentative ruling (below) provides two inconsistent dates for a continued status conference: 4/30/19 at 11:00 a.m., 4/7/19 at 11:00 a.m. The latter [should be "former"] is correct. No status report required.

Tentative Ruling for 4/9/19:

Deny the motion to quash (with the possible exception of one aspect), address procedural issues, and then continue this Status Conference, all as set forth below. Appearances required.

Chapter 7

Please see the tentative ruling for the main case status conference (calendar no. 10, 4/9/19 at 11:00 a.m.)

(b) Motion to Quash (adv. dkt. 84)

The tentative ruling is that the motion to quash (adv. dkt. 84) by Aston Business Solutions, Inc. ("ABS") is unpersuasive, except perhaps for limitations as to time, which the parties are directed to address at the hearing.

(A) Analysis re motion to quash

ABS asserts only vague objections:

(1) Competitors?

ABS asserts that it and Plaintiff are competitors. How so?

The motion does not even disclose ABS' business. Is it a timeshare owner? Is it a timeshare operator? Is it something else? (As noted below, this Court expects that it has gleaned the answer from other documents, but the tentative ruling is that this lack of even such basic information in the motion is fatal to this argument.)

(2) Protected information?

ABS alleges that some sort of trade secrets or other confidential, privileged, or other type of protected information is involved. What sort of information? Why would a traditional privilege log and other tools be inadequate?

ABS complains that parties in interest in this bankruptcy case have shared information. But ABS fails to point to any prohibition on sharing information.

(3) Burden?

ABS alleges that the requested discovery is unduly burdensome. How so? Is it stored in thousands of boxes of paper files that are difficult to reach and review for some reason?

(4) Vagueness and overbreadth?

ABS alleges that the discovery requests are vague and overbroad. How so? ABS fails to provide any explanation or evidence to support this allegations.

(5) Discussion

Chapter 7

Based on a question (not an answer) in excerpts from the deposition of ABS' President and shareholder, Glenn Chaffin, ABS may be a marketing company for "timeshare exit companies." Adv. dkt. 84, Ex.1 (Depo. Tr. 1/24/19), p.95:22-23. But how does that make ABS a "competitor" of Plaintiff, with information that would constitute trade secrets, as opposed to a facilitator of (possibly) legitimate ways to exit timeshares, who sends out non-secret flyers and other publicly known marketing materials, and assists timeshare members in navigating contracts that are known to all the parties?

Such a facilitator theoretically could benefit Plaintiff, by replacing non-paying or troubled members with paying ones - unless, of course, ABS engages in acts that improperly interfere with contractual relations or otherwise assists in the wrongdoing of which Plaintiff accuses Defendants. Plaintiff's discovery appears to be targeted at discovering information that could lead to admissible evidence on this and other relevant issues. Accordingly, the discovery appears to be entirely proper and appropriate, with the possible exception of the movant's request to impose some limitations as to time, which the parties are directed to address at the hearing.

(B) Adversary proceeding status conference issues

#1.00 Hrg re: Motion to avoid junior lien on debtor's principal residence with BCMB1 Trust

Docket 12

Tentative Ruling:

Continue to 10/22/20 at 8:30 a.m. to address the following issues.
Appearances are not required on 8/27/20. If you wish to dispute the tentative ruling you must notify other parties of your intent to appear telephonically.

Pursuant to Judge Bason's COVID19 Procedures, ONLY TELEPHONIC APPEARANCES WILL BE PERMITTED until further notice. Please contact CourtCall at (888) 882-6878 to make arrangements for any telephonic appearance. There is no need to contact the Court for permission. Parties who are not represented by an attorney will be able to use CourtCall for free through 9/30/20. Attorneys will receive a 25% discount (for more information, see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.," "Telephonic Instructions").

Reasons:

Appraisal; date of valuation. The junior lienholder has requested (dkt. 22) additional time to obtain an appraisal. Debtor is directed to provide reasonable access for that purpose. The junior lienholder is directed to file and serve the appraisal at least 14 days before the continued hearing. Note: Judge Bason's tentative ruling is to require valuations at or near the petition date. See In re Gutierrez, 503 B.R. 458 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2013).

At the continued hearing the parties should address how they propose to resolve their disputes - e.g., (i) with an evidentiary hearing; (ii) with a court ruling based solely on the written record (to save costs, if all parties consent), (iii) through mediation, or (iv) through appointment of an appraiser (jointly selected by the parties/their appraisers) as the court's own expert under FRE 706.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you

Key documents reviewed (in addition to motion papers): Raesi Group Inc.'s opposition papers (dkt. 52-59), Debtor's notice of hearing (dkt. 64), no reply is on file

Current issues

Debtor seeks an order under 11 U.S.C. 522(f) avoiding two judgment liens against Debtor's residence, located at 1316 Irving Avenue, Glendale, California 91201 (the "Property"), recorded in favor of Raesi Group, Inc. ("Lienholder"): (w) a judgment lien (the "Non-Debtor Lien") securing a $470,145.31 judgment entered against Debtor's non-filing spouse, Erik Hovsepian (the "Non-Filing Spouse") and (x) a judgment lien securing a $57,910.31 judgment entered against Debtor (the "Debtor Lien").

(a) Legal standard

Section 522(f) provides, in relevant part, that a debtor:

May avoid the fixing of a lien on an interest of the debtor in property to the extent that such lien impairs an exemption to which the debtor would have been entitled under subsection (b) of this section, if such lien is—

(A) a judicial lien . . . . [11 U.S.C. 522(f)]

Section 522(f)(2) provides a formula for calculating the extent to which a lien impairs an exemption: add the lien, all other liens on the property, and the amount of the exemption that the debtor could claim if there were no liens on the property and then subtract from that amount the value of the debtor's interest in the property in the absence of any liens. In re Meyer, 373 B.R. 84, 86 (9th Cir. BAP 2007); In re Pike, 243 B.R. 66, 71 (9th Cir. BAP 1999).

When multiple liens are involved, there is authority that the liens must be "subtracted in order of reverse priority." In re Hanger, 217 B.R. 592, 595 (9th Cir. BAP 1997), aff'd, 196 F.3d 1292 (9th Cir. 1999). See also In re Heaney, 453 B.R. 42, 48 (Bankr. E.D.N.Y. 2011) (same).

(b) Procedural issues

Debtor did not comply with Local Bankruptcy Rule ("LBR") 4003-2(b) (1), which requires a separate notice and motion for each lien that is sought to be avoided. The tentative ruling is to excuse Debtor's non-compliance because it does not appear to have prejudiced Lienholder, but Debtor's counsel is cautioned that failure to comply with applicable rules in future may result in adverse consequences.

Alternatively, the tentative ruling is that Lienholder has waived and forfeited any assertion of prejudice because this issue was not raised in its' opposition papers.

(c) The Property is property of the estate

Debtor states that she purchased the Property with her then-husband, now estranged, in April 2008, and that title to the Property is in the name of Erik Hovsepian and Elin Khachatourian Family Trust. Dkt. 49, pdf. p. 5, para. 7. Debtor asserts a community property interest in the Property. Dkt. 15, p.12.

Although not raised by either party, the tentative ruling is that the Property is property of the estate, notwithstanding the form of title. See Cal. Fam. Code 760 (Under California law, all property acquired by a spouse during marriage is presumptively community property); Cal. Fam. Code 761(a) ("[u]nless the trust instrument . . . expressly provides otherwise, community property that is transferred in trust remains community property during the marriage . . . if the trust . . . is revocable . . ."); 11 U.S.C. 541(a) (1)&(2) (property of the estate includes "all legal or equitable interests of the debtor in property as of the commencement of the case," and "[a]ll interests of the debtor and the debtor's spouse in community property as of the BAP 2008) (citing 11 U.S.C. 541(a)(1) and (c)(2)) ("While assets transferred to a trust do not ordinarily become property of the bankruptcy estate of the trust's trustee, powers that a debtor is a trustee of a trust may exercise for his or her own benefit become property of the estate" and "to the extent a debtor holds a beneficial interest in a trust, that beneficial interest becomes property of the estate, unless it is protected by a valid spendthrift provision").

(d) Avoidability of the Non-Debtor Lien

Lienholder argues that Debtor cannot use section 522(f) to avoid the Non-Debtor Lien because the lien secures a judgment against Debtor's Non-Filing Spouse who is not a debtor in bankruptcy nor a party to this motion. Dkt. 52, p.2:19-23. Lienholder also argues that the Non-Debtor Lien is not avoidable because Debtor's Non-Filing Spouse would be prohibited from avoiding the lien if he were to commence his own chapter 13 bankruptcy case because the debt is nondischargeable under 11 U.S.C. 523(a)(4). Id. p. 9:18-10:13. In support of this argument, Lienholder relies on the non-binding case of Castle v. Parrish, 29 B.R. 869, 874 (Bankr. S.D. Ohio 1983). But Castle is inapplicable, because it involves the avoidability of a lien securing child support, which is a debt "of a kind that is specified in section 523(a)(5)," and which section 522(f)(1) unambiguously excepts from avoidance. See 11 U.S.C. 522(f)(1)(A) (. . . the debtor may avoid the fixing of a lien on an interest of the debtor in property to the extent that the lien impairs and exemption to which debtor would have been entitled under subsection (b), if such lien is – a judicial lien, other than a judicial lien that secures a debt of a kind that is specified in section 523(a)(5)") (emphasis added). Although Lienholder argues that its judgment against Debtor's Non-Filing Spouse is nondischargeable under 11 U.S.C. 523(a)(4), Rule 7001(6) (Fed. R. Bankr. P.) would require the initiation of an adversary proceeding for any determination of nondischargeability in bankruptcy. See In re Kimmel, 367 B.R. 174, 180-81 (Bankr. N.D. Cal. 2007) (reviewing procedures for nondischargeability action against non-debtor spouse).

In addition, dischargeability is not at issue. That is an "in personam" concept, but Debtor seeks an "in rem" remedy: avoiding the Non-Debtor Lien on estate Property. Accordingly, the tentative ruling is that any issues regarding the dischargeability of Lienholder's debts against the Non-Filing Spouse are not properly before this Court in this hearing.

Chapter 13

The tentative ruling is also that on the issue of avoidability, Debtor can avoid the Non-Debtor Lien if Debtor can establish that it impairs her claimed homestead exemption. See, e.g., In re Obedian, 546 B.R. 409, 423-25 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2016) (concluding that debtor could avoid judicial lien against non-filing spouse because lien attached to community property interests as a debt incurred during marriage and, because the property was property of the estate, the lien impaired debtor's exemption).

(e) Valuation

Debtor asserts that to the extent the liens exceed the $66,761.28 equity in the Property after deducting senior liens and Debtor's homestead exemption from Debtor's alleged $935,000 fair market value, Lienholder's liens are avoidable. Dkt. 4, p. 4. Conversely, Lienholder argues that the Property is actually worth $1,315,000, and therefore do not impair Debtor's homestead exemption in any amount. Dkt. 55.

The parties should be prepared to address how they propose to resolve their disputes - e.g., (i) with an evidentiary hearing; (ii) with a court ruling based solely on the written record (to save costs, if all parties consent), (iii) through mediation, or (iv) through appointment of an appraiser (jointly selected by the parties/their appraisers) as the court's own expert under FRE 706.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." Current issues:

(1) Missing copy of appraisal

merchant would charge for property of that kind considering the age and condition of the property at the time value is determined. [11 U.S.C. 506(a)(2) (emphasis added)].

Debtor states that her vehicle was appraised at $4,500. Id. Debtor does not specifically state whether that appraisal value was the replacement value, as determined by the price a retail merchant would charge, or some other valuation method. But based on Debtor's declaration it appears that she has used the trade-in value for the vehicle, which does not comply with the above-quoted statutory provisions.

Chapter 13

#10.00 HearingRE: [73] Motion under Local Bankruptcy Rule 3015-1 (n) and (w) to modify plan or suspend plan payments

Docket 73

Tentative Ruling:

Appearances required.

Pursuant to Judge Bason's COVID19 Procedures, ONLY TELEPHONIC APPEARANCES WILL BE PERMITTED until further notice. Please contact CourtCall at (888) 882-6878 to make arrangements for any telephonic appearance. There is no need to contact the Court for permission. Parties who are not represented by an attorney will be able to use CourtCall for free through 9/30/20. Attorneys will receive a 25% discount (for more information, see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.," "Telephonic Instructions").

There is no tentative ruling, but Debtor should be prepared to address the issues raised by the Chapter 13 Trustee (dkt. 77).

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." If appearances are required, and you fail to appear telephonically without adequately resolving this matter by consent, then you may waive your right to be heard on matters that are appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

Docket 44

Tentative Ruling:

Grant as set forth below. Appearances are not required. If you wish to dispute the tentative ruling you must notify other parties of your intent to appear telephonically.

Pursuant to Judge Bason's COVID19 Procedures, ONLY TELEPHONIC APPEARANCES WILL BE PERMITTED until further notice. Please contact CourtCall at (888) 882-6878 to make arrangements for any telephonic appearance. There is no need to contact the Court for permission. Proposed order: Debtor is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this Court's final ruling, subject to any changes ordered at the hearing. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

Key documents reviewed (in addition to motion papers): Order setting hearing (dkt. 47), declaration of Daniel King (dkt. 49).

Reasons:

This Court has reviewed the Declaration of Daniel King (dkt. 49) addressing the issues raised in this Court's order setting the matter for hearing (dkt. 47).

The tentative ruling is that (i) Mr. King cannot charge Debtor or the bankruptcy estate for any time spent on the Dismissal Motion, including preparing for and attending the hearing (if applicable), because any such billing would be unreasonable in view of the inaccurate representation by Mr.

King; but Mr. King can charge fees and expenses in the normal course for unrelated matters; and (ii) Mr. King is cautioned that failure to make accurate representations in pleadings filed with this Court in future may result in adverse consequences.

The tentative ruling is also to grant the motion and dismiss this case with a 180-day bar to being a debtor in bankruptcy pursuant to 11 U.S.C. 109(g)(2).

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." Docket 39

Tentative Ruling:

Continue to 9/24/20 at 8:30 a.m. to address the following issues.

Appearances are not required on 8/27/20. If you wish to dispute the tentative ruling you must notify other parties of your intent to appear telephonically.

Pursuant to Judge Bason's COVID19 Procedures, ONLY TELEPHONIC APPEARANCES WILL BE PERMITTED until further notice. Continued hearing date: The continued hearing date is conditioned on the movant serving all amended or supplemental papers in time for self-calendaring on that date.

Note: Notice of the continued hearing must be via certified mail. See Rule 7004(h) (Fed. R. Bankr. P.).

Reasons:

Lack of cost/benefit analysis. The posted Procedures of Judge Bason (available at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) provide:

§ 502: claim objections & cost/benefit analysis. When objecting to claims, be sure to include an analysis of whether the costs of preparing and litigating the claim objection (administrative expenses) do not exceed the anticipated benefits (reductions in claims). For example, if the anticipated dividend is small or 0% then the attorney fees incurred in prosecuting your claim objection to any general unsecured claim probably will exceed the benefit to the bankruptcy estate/debtor, so filing that objection would be a waste of the bankruptcy estate's (and everyone else's) resources (unless, for example, the claim is nondischargeable, in which event the attorney fees might well be justified).

No later than 7 days after the date of this hearing the movant must file either:

(1) a supplemental declaration explaining why the attorney fees for this objection are justified (including supporting evidence, such as a copy of the plan showing the projected dividend to the claimant, and a calculation comparing that projected dividend against the attorney fees related to this claim objection), or

(2) a withdrawal of the claim objection.

No fees on this matter, absent specific authorization. Counsel is directed not to charge any fees on this matter (including all past, present and future work related to this claim objection), and to return any fees received on this matter, unless and until this Court expressly finds: "Counsel has provided a cost/benefit analysis that is sufficient for purposes of Judge Bason's posted Procedures regarding claim objections." It is counsel's responsibility to include the quoted phrase, if warranted, in the proposed order on this claim objection.

This Court does not have the capacity to monitor all fee applications to assure compliance with the foregoing limitation on fees. But if counsel is found to have disregarded this limitation then this Court may impose sanctions.

Although no party in interest has raised the issue whether the automatic stay applies, this Court addresses that issue because it is inherent in determining whether to grant relief from whatever stay allegedly exists. The tentative ruling is to grant the motion under 11 U.S.C. 362(c)(3) and (j): there is no automatic stay because (a) Debtor's prior case (# 2:19-bk-19803-NB) was dismissed (on 9/9/19) within one year before this case was filed (on 10/1/19), (b) that dismissal was not under 11 U.S.C. 707(b), and (c) no finding of good faith was timely sought and obtained. The automatic stay has terminated both as to Debtor in personam and as to property of Debtor. See In re Reswick, 446 B.R. 362 (9th Cir. BAP 2011); In re Hernandez, case no. 2:11-bk-53730-NB, docket #40 (Memorandum Decision).

In the alternative and in addition, this court grants relief from the automatic stay as follows.

Note regarding mootness: Judge Bason's standard tentative ruling is as follows. For three reasons the above conclusion that there is no stay does not moot requests for relief from whatever stay might apply. First, such alternative rulings are appropriate because (i) the very nature of tentative rulings is that this Court could be persuaded to depart from any one of them, and (ii) a final ruling on any one issue could be reversed on appeal. Second, even if there is currently no stay, that could change - e.g., if there is no stay because of dismissal of this bankruptcy case, such dismissal could be vacated and that might reimpose the stay even if there is a lack of adequate protection, or other grounds why the stay should not apply, and therefore the movant will suffer cognizable harm unless the issues are addressed now (Judge Bason regularly vacates dismissals based on stipulations or other good cause). Third, any request for relief as to past acts (annulment) or future cases (in rem relief) is still at issue even if there is currently no stay. See In re Aheong, 276 B.R. 233 (9th Cir. BAP 2002). For all of these reasons, the tentative ruling is that it is appropriate to address the following issues.

Termination

Terminate the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1).

To the extent, if any, that the motion seeks to terminate the automatic stay in other past or pending bankruptcy cases, such relief is denied on the present record. See In re Ervin (Case No. 14-bk-18204-NB, docket no. 311).

Effective date of relief

Deny the request to waive the 14-day stay provided by FRBP 4001(a) (3) for lack of sufficient cause shown.

Co-debtor stay

Any co-debtor stay (11 U.S.C. 1301(c)) has not been shown to have any basis for any different treatment from the stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(a), so

Attorney fees

Movant notes that it has incurred attorney fees (dkt. 29, p.4), which is an additional indebtedness and additional cause for relief from the automatic stay. To the extent, if any, that Movant seeks an order of this Court allowing such attorney fees, the tentative ruling is that this Court will not express any view regarding the proper dollar amount of attorney fees because (a) in any nonjudicial foreclosure action, attorney fee issues typically are not decided by a court (and in a judicial foreclosure it is the State Court, not this Bankruptcy Court, that would determine attorney fee issues), (b) a motion for relief from the automatic stay is not the proper vehicle to adjudicate attorney fees in this Bankruptcy Court, and (c) this hearing does not involve any claim objection or other proceeding that might properly present that issue for this Court's determination.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." If appearances are required, and you fail to appear telephonically without adequately resolving this matter by consent, then you may waive your right to be heard on matters that are appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

Docket 5

Tentative Ruling:

Appearances required.

Pursuant to Judge Bason's COVID19 Procedures, ONLY TELEPHONIC APPEARANCES WILL BE PERMITTED until further notice. Please contact CourtCall at (888) 882-6878 to make arrangements for any telephonic appearance. There is no need to contact the Court for permission. Parties who are not represented by an attorney will be able to use CourtCall for free through 9/30/20. There is no tentative ruling, but Debtor should be prepared to address the following issues:

(1) Background

Debtor's prior bankruptcy case (2:20-bk-10045-NB, the "Prior Case") was dismissed on 7/31/20 with a temporary 180-day bar to Debtor being a debtor in bankruptcy. On 8/30/20, this Court issued its Order Vacating Temporary Bar To Being A Debtor In Bankruptcy (the "Order Vacating Bar," Prior Case dkt.35) based in part on Debtor's declaration (Prior Case, dkt.31), and the records in Debtor's three bankruptcy filings that predate the Prior Case. See Prior Case, dkt.35, p.2:5-9. The Order Vacating Bar also stated that "[t]his Court notes, however, that Debtor's history of missed promises and making minimal payments are concerns that may be relevant in any future bankruptcy case." Id. at p.2:9-11.

On 8/10/20, Debtor commenced the instant bankruptcy case (see dkt. 1), and on 8/11/20 Debtor filed a motion to impose or continue the automatic stay (the "Impose Stay Motion," dkt.5).

(2) Current issues

(a) Debtor's ability to work

The Impose Stay Motion argues among other things that the instant bankruptcy case has been filed in good faith, and that the presumption of bad faith is overcome, because "at this time Debtor has decided that he is well enough to return to work." Dkt.5, p.4. Debtor's declaration (dated 8/11/20) says: "I am unemployed as I am receiving continuous medical treatment as the result of two vehicle accidents, I was involved in. I have decided that I am now well enough to start working again." Id. at PDF p.8.

Debtor's declaration in the Prior Case (dated 7/29/20) explaining why the Prior Case should not be dismissed with a bar to Debtor being a debtor in bankruptcy, says: "I have been offered a job but unfortunately, I am still receiving continuous treatment and now am not able to take the job offer." Prior Case, dkt.31, p.2, para.13.

Debtor is directed to address how he was too injured to work as of 7/29/20, but as of 8/11/20 is well enough to work.

(b) Debtor's bankruptcy schedules

Debtor's bankruptcy Schedules I&J purport to show that Debtor and his spouse have enough income to make the monthly payments under Debtor's proposed chapter 13 plan. But Debtor's bankruptcy Schedule I ignores the instruction to "Attach a statement for each property and business showing gross receipts, ordinary and necessary business expenses, and the total monthly net income." Dkt.12, at PDF p.19, line 8a.

Why should creditors, and this Court, accept the unsupported assertion that Debtor will net $4,500 per month? Is that realistic, given Debtor's failures to make payments in prior bankruptcy cases, and the added challenges presented by the current COVID-19 situation?

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." If appearances are required, and you fail to appear telephonically without adequately resolving this matter by consent, then you may waive your right to be heard on matters that are appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

The stay of 11 U.S.C. 362(a) applies subject to the following modifications and conditions:

(1) Service and reconsideration. Any party in interest who was not timely served in accordance with FRBP 7004 (incorporated by FRBP 9014(b)) is hereby granted through 14 days after proper service to seek reconsideration, including retroactive relief (under FRBP 9023 and/or 9024). (3) Very limited ruling. This Court's tentative ruling to grant the foregoing relief is solely for purposes of this motion, and is not intended to have any binding effect with respect to any future assertions by any party in interest regarding the existence or lack of existence of good faith in any other context.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." Chapter 13

If this order is duly recorded in compliance with applicable State laws governing notices of interests or liens in the property at issue, then no automatic stay shall apply to such property in any bankruptcy case purporting to affect such property and filed within two years after the date of entry of this order, unless otherwise ordered by the court presiding over that bankruptcy case.

For the avoidance of doubt, any acts by the movant to obtain exclusive possession of such property shall not be stayed, including any eviction actions, through and including any lockout or other enforcement by the Sheriff or other authorized legal authority.

Note: Per Judge Bason's posted procedures (available at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) this Court's order will state that the Court "does not make" a finding that Debtor was involved in the "scheme" referenced in section 362(d)(4), unless there is sufficient evidence that Debtor was involved and Debtor is given clear notice that the movant seeks an express finding that Debtor was involved. The tentative ruling in this particular case is that there is sufficient evidence and notice.

Effective date of relief

Grant the request to waive the 14-day stay provided by FRBP 4001(a) (3).

Co-debtor stay

Any co-debtor stay (11 U.S.C. 1301(c)) has not been shown to have any basis for any different treatment from the stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(a), so the tentative ruling is to grant the identical relief regarding any co-debtor stay.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." Hearing Room 1545

CONT... Ricardo Corona and Maricela Corona

Chapter 13

Tentative Ruling for 8/18/20:

Grant as set forth below. Appearances are not required. If you wish to dispute the tentative ruling you must notify other parties of your intent to appear telephonically.

Pursuant to Judge Bason's COVID19 Procedures, ONLY TELEPHONIC APPEARANCES WILL BE PERMITTED until further notice. Please contact CourtCall at (888) 882-6878 to make arrangements for any telephonic appearance. There is no need to contact the Court for permission. Parties who are not represented by an attorney will be able to use CourtCall for free through 9/30/20. Attorneys will receive a 25% discount (for more information, see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.," "Telephonic Instructions").

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

Termination

Terminate the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1).

To the extent, if any, that the motion seeks to terminate the automatic stay in other past or pending bankruptcy cases, such relief is denied on the present record. See In re Ervin (Case No. 14-bk-18204-NB, docket no. 311).

Effective date of relief

Deny the request to waive the 14-day stay provided by FRBP 4001(a) (3) for lack of sufficient cause shown.

Co-debtor stay

Any co-debtor stay (11 U.S.C. 1301(c)) has not been shown to have any basis for any different treatment from the stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(a), so the tentative ruling is to grant the identical relief regarding any co-debtor stay.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." #2.00 Hrg re: Motion for order directing clerk of the court to enter satisfaction of judgment

Tentative Ruling:

Appearances required.

Pursuant to Judge Bason's COVID19 Procedures, ONLY TELEPHONIC APPEARANCES WILL BE PERMITTED until further notice. Please contact CourtCall at (888) 882-6878 to make arrangements for any telephonic appearance. There is no need to contact the Court for permission. Parties who are not represented by an attorney will be able to use CourtCall for free through 9/30/20. Tentative Ruling for 8/18/20:

Continue to be concurrent with the continued Status Conference (see calendar no. 5, 8/18/20 at 1:00 p.m.), to address the following issues.

Appearances are not required on 8/18/20. If you wish to dispute the tentative ruling you must notify other parties of your intent to appear telephonically.

Pursuant to Judge Bason's COVID19 Procedures, ONLY TELEPHONIC APPEARANCES WILL BE PERMITTED until further notice. Please contact CourtCall at (888) 882-6878 to make arrangements for any telephonic appearance. There is no need to contact the Court for permission. Lack of cost/benefit analysis. The posted Procedures of Judge Bason (available at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) provide:

§ 502: claim objections & cost/benefit analysis. When objecting to claims, be sure to include an analysis of whether the costs of preparing and litigating the claim objection (administrative expenses) do not exceed the anticipated benefits (reductions in claims). For example, if the anticipated dividend is small or 0%

then the attorney fees incurred in prosecuting your claim objection to any general unsecured claim probably will exceed the benefit to the bankruptcy estate/debtor, so filing that objection would be a waste of the bankruptcy estate's (and everyone else's) resources (unless, for example, the claim is nondischargeable, in which event the attorney fees might well be justified).

No later than 7 days after the date of this hearing the movant must file either:

(1) a supplemental declaration explaining why the attorney fees for this objection are justified (including supporting evidence, such as a copy of the plan showing the projected dividend to the claimant, and a calculation comparing that projected dividend against the attorney fees related to this claim objection), or

(2) a withdrawal of the claim objection.

No fees on this matter, absent specific authorization. Counsel is directed not to charge any fees on this matter (including all past, present and future work related to this claim objection), and to return any fees received on this matter, unless and until this Court expressly finds: "Counsel has provided a cost/benefit analysis that is sufficient for purposes of Judge Bason's posted Procedures regarding claim objections." It is counsel's responsibility to include the quoted phrase, if warranted, in the proposed order on this claim objection.

This Court does not have the capacity to monitor all fee applications to assure compliance with the foregoing limitation on fees. But if counsel is found to have disregarded this limitation then this Court may impose sanctions.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." Docket 1

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for 9/1/20:

Appearances required on Debtor's motion to sell 6520 and 6522 Brynhurst Avenue (dkt. 174) only.

Pursuant to Judge Bason's COVID19 Procedures, ONLY TELEPHONIC APPEARANCES WILL BE PERMITTED until further notice. Please contact CourtCall at (888) 882-6878 to make arrangements for any telephonic appearance. There is no need to contact the Court for permission. Attorneys will receive a 25% discount (for more information, see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.," "Telephonic Instructions").

(1) Current issues

(a) Debtor's motion to sell 6520 and 6522 Brynhurst Avenue (dkt. 174, 175, 177); IRS opposition (dkt. 189); Debtor reply (dkt.191)

Grant, subject to the conditions set forth below, and further subject to any overbids.

(i) Service

Although there is no proof of service of this Court's order granting Debtor's application for an order shortening time (the "OST," dkt. 178), as required therein, there is a proof of service of notice of sale (dkt.175) on all creditors with the correct hearing date and time, so the tentative ruling is to excuse Debtor's lack of full compliance with the OST.

(ii) Dual agency

The order granting Debtor's application (dkt.88) to employ real estate agent Elisabeth Araya of Real Estate Executives specifically provided, "no dual agency." Order (dkt.126), p.2 (emphasis in original). But it appears that

Chapter 11

Ms. Araya's office has served as agent for both the buyer and the seller. See Sale Motion (dkt.174, Ex.1, at PDF p.21). The tentative ruling is that an independent real estate agent must be brought in to represent the buyer.

(iii) Grounds for sale free and clear

On the one hand, the Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") is correct (Opp., dkt.189, p.3, n.5) that the motion does not specify which paragraph of section 11 U.S.C. 363(f) is alleged to apply, and that implicitly it is paragraph "(4)" regarding an alleged "bona fide dispute." The tentative ruling is that the IRS is also correct that, on the present record, it would not be adequately protected unless Debtor segregates all net proceeds (after payment of other liens and costs of sale including any capital gains tax payment) until further order of this Court.

On the other hand, the tentative ruling is that Debtor has raised a sufficient dispute regarding the IRS claim to constitute a "bona fide dispute" and therefore (subject to the adequate protection referenced above) the sale can proceed. In support of Debtor's allegation that there is a bona fide dispute, his declaration (dkt.174) states:

A portion of the tax lien is subject to claim objection based on my allegation that I was the subject of fraud. (Docket Number 155). The hearing has been continued to November 3, 2020 pending the IRS review of its own documents. Escrow will pay $115,652.03 which constitutes the undisputed portions of the 2018 tax lien. [Dkt.174 at PDF p.9:23-26 (emphasis in original).]

The referenced claim objection (dkt.155) includes Debtor's declaration which sets forth alleged identity theft/fraud that, on an objective basis, appears to establish a bona fide dispute. See dkt.155, pp.5-6. See also IRS Obj. (dkt.189, p.3) (citing authorities re meaning of "bona fide dispute").

As for adequate protection, Debtor's reply (dkt.191) states:

The Debtor does not oppose the need to segregate sales proceeds except for the projected $50,000 in capital gains taxes pending the resolution of the [IRS] Claim and this need to segregate should not act as a barrier to completing the sale. $278,427.33 has been budgeted for the Service [i.e., the IRS], with $135,000.00 to be paid immediately and with approximately $143,427.33 to be segregated pending the conclusion of litigation of the Claim. [Dkt.191, p.1:23-27.]

The tentative ruling is that this proposed adequate protection is sufficient. In addition, the tentative ruling is that Debtor has established sufficient benefit to the bankruptcy estate and justification for the proposed sale under 11 U.S.C. 363(b), for the reasons set forth in the reply. See dkt.191.

(iv) "Good faith" finding

Debtor seeks a "good faith" finding under 11 U.S.C. 363(m). The tentative ruling is that any winning bidder must file declaration(s), preferably from both Debtor and the winning bidder, substantially in the form set forth in the "Posted Procedures of Judge Bason" (available at www.cacb.uscourts.gov).

Proposed order: Debtor is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this Court's final ruling, subject to any changes ordered at the hearing. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

(b) Dispute under the stipulation for use of cash collateral and adequate protection (the "Stipulation," dkt. 62)

The tentative ruling is that, based on representations at prior hearings, this matter has been fully resolved and should go off calendar.

(c) Debtor's motion to disallow claim no. 9 of Two Jinn Inc. (dkt. 152), Supplemental declaration of Stella Havkin (dkt. 188)

Grant.

This Court expressly finds that Counsel has provided a cost/benefit analysis (dkt. 188) that is sufficient for purposes of Judge Bason's posted Procedures regarding claim objections, so any limitation on fees in the prior tentative ruling on this matter is hereby vacated.

Proposed order: Debtor is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

(1) Current issues

(a) Order to show cause ("OSC") re dismissal with a bar, or conversion to chapter 7, or other remedies?

The tentative ruling is to issue an OSC why this case should not be dismissed under 11 U.S.C. 1112(b), or converted, or why other remedies should not be imposed, and in the event of any dismissal why a bar should not be imposed against future bankruptcy cases due to willful failure to appear in proper prosecution of this matter under 11 U.S.C. 109(g)(1), in view of:

- (i) this Court's dismissal of Debtor's adversary proceeding against U.S. Bank (Adv. No. 2:20-ap-01068-NB),
- (ii) Debtor's inability to fund any plan of reorganization absent a successful prosecution of the claims in that adversary proceeding (see, e.g., dkt. 47, p.2:15-23, MOR dkt.128, and dkt.130, para.3), and
- (iii) Debtor's apparent forum shopping, and apparent use of litigation for improper purposes such as delay, by attempting to bring claims in this Bankruptcy Court that arise from the same nexus of operative facts as one or more pending actions in the State Courts, after adverse rulings in the State Courts, and the evidence in the record that this bankruptcy case is in all material respects only a two-party dispute with the other party to that State Court litigation.

The tentative ruling is to set the OSC for hearing contemporaneous with the continued status conference (see below), with any response for or against the OSC due 9/15/20 and any reply due 9/22/20.

There is no tentative ruling. The parties are directed to address whether the amended budget should be approved.

(b) Monthly Operating Reports ("MORs")

On 6/22/20 the Clerk's Office issued notices directing Debtor to re-file April and May MORs, but as of the preparation of this tentative ruling, Debtor has not complied. Why not?

Additionally, based on this Court's comparison of Debtor's signature in docket 83, page 2, with the MORs, it is unclear whether Debtor is personally signing her MORs or if someone else is signing on her behalf. Debtor should be prepared to address this issue.

Appearances required by counsel for the debtor and the Subchapter V Trustee.

Pursuant to Judge Bason's COVID19 Procedures, ONLY TELEPHONIC APPEARANCES WILL BE PERMITTED until further notice. Please contact CourtCall at (888) 882-6878 to make arrangements for any telephonic appearance. (1) Current issues

(a) Monthly Operating Reports ("MORs")

Debtor's latest MOR shows a monthly profit, but (i) Debtor reports not having timely filed tax returns and/or paid taxes (MOR for 7/20 (dkt.69), p.1, item 6), so after taxes Debtor might be losing money, especially given Debtor's past history of not paying taxes (see, e.g., dkt.70, Ex.A); (ii) Debtor reports "cash deposits" of $4,000 (id., p.4, Ex.C, item 4) and "cash withdrawals" of $3,800 (id., p.4, Ex.D, item 12) but there is no description of the nature of these deposits and withdrawals, so it is unclear if cash contributions or other transactions are artificially inflating Debtor's profit (or otherwise distorting Debtor's finances); and (iii) Debtor's latest MOR (dkt.69) appears to be an amendment to a prior MOR (dkt.68), but the box for "amended filing" is not checked. What are Debtor's true finances?

The tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 9/15/20 for Debtor to file (further) amended MORs, supported by a declaration of Debtor's principal, disclosing in detail the nature of all postpetition cash deposits and withdrawals and estimates of all unpaid postpetition taxes. In addition, the tentative ruling is to caution Debtor that excessive cash transactions, and/or failure to describe adequately the nature of those transactions, and/or failure to pay postpetition taxes and/or file tax returns, may be cause to convert or dismiss this case or impose other remedies.

(b) Plan and disclosure statement

First, Debtor's estimate of monthly income and expenses (dkt.71, Ex.C, at PDF p.71) does not include any breakdown or supporting analysis. What is the basis for those projections, and are they sufficiently plausible to warrant voting on the Plan?

Second, Debtor's disclosure of nonpriority unsecured creditors (dkt.71, Ex.F, at PDF pp.11-12) lists a total of $111,827.00 and cross-references Debtor's amended Bankruptcy Schedule E/F at dkt.39. But the latter includes priority claims. Therefore the estimate of nonpriority unsecured claims appears to be overstated by over $45,000. Moreover, the bankruptcy schedules do not reflect any changes to total nonpriority unsecured claims based on filed proofs of claim.

The tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 9/15/20 for Debtor (i) to file a declaration explaining in detail the basis of the projected income and expenses, (ii) to file (but NOT serve) an amended Plan and amended Disclosure Statement with any revised projected income and expenses and with a revised Ex.F that takes into account filed proofs of claim and not double-counting priority claims (all of which presumably will result in a revised projected dividend to nonpriority unsecured creditors), and (iii) to lodge a proposed order (substantially in the form posted on Judge Bason's portion of the Court's website, www.cacb.uscourts.gov) conditionally approving the disclosure statement and setting a combined hearing, concurrent with the continued status conference set forth below, on final approval of the Disclosure Statement and confirmation of the Plan (that order will only be issued if Debtor's corrections to the MORs, supporting declaration, and the amended Plan and amended Disclosure Statement all appear to warrant balloting and holding a hearing on the amended Disclosure Statement and the amended Plan).

(1) Current issues

(a) Monthly Operating Reports ("MORs")

Debtor's June 2020 MOR (dkt.58) discloses non-payment of postpetition monthly amounts owed to secured creditors. What is the current status of Debtor's postpetition defaults?

Debtor's July 2020 MOR (dkt.64) is missing the page that would have made similar disclosures, and appears to be missing a number of other pages. What is missing? The tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 9/15/20 for Debtor to file an amended July 2020 MOR.

(b) Chapter 11 Plan (the "Plan," dkt. 63) and Chapter 11 Disclosure Statement (the "Disclosure Statement," dkt. 61)

Debtor's projection of income (dkt.61, Ex.C, at PDF pp.8-9) cross-references dkt.20 (Debtor's Bankruptcy Schedules) for a breakdown of Debtor's personal income and expenses and rental income and expenses. There are two problems with that approach.

First, Debtor's Bankruptcy Schedule I does not include any breakdown of income and expenses, despite the instruction on line 8a to "Attach a statement for each property and business showing gross receipts, ordinary and necessary business expenses, and the total monthly net income."

Second, Debtor appears to be double-counting. Specifically, Debtor's Plan includes payment of the 2d mortgage on Debtor's home (dkt.63, Ex.A, at PDF p.9, Class 1B), but so does Debtor's Bankruptcy Schedule J (dkt.20, at PDF p.27, last line); and likewise Debtor's Plan includes payment of the 1st DOT on the rental property (dkt.63, Ex.A, at PDF p.9, Class 2A), but so does Debtor's Bankruptcy Schedule J (dkt.20, at PDF p.28, line 17c).

The tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 9/15/20 for Debtor (i) to file (but NOT serve) an amended Bankruptcy Schedule I with the required "statement for each property or business," an amended Plan, and an amended Disclosure Statement correcting the above issues, and (ii) to lodge a proposed order, in the form provided on Judge Bason's portion of the Court's website (www.cacb.uscourts.gov), setting a combined hearing on final approval of the Disclosure Statement and confirmation of the Plan for the same date and time as the continued status conference (see Section 2(d) below).

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 12/2/19.

(a) Bar date: 2/17/20 (dkt. 22; timely served, dkt. 23)

(b) Procedures order: dkt. 5 (timely served, dkt. 9)

(c) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: See above

stay in other past or pending bankruptcy cases, such relief is denied on the present record. See In re Ervin (Case No. 14-bk-18204-NB, docket no. 311).

Relief notwithstanding future bankruptcy cases

Deny, without prejudice to any other types of relief granted herein (or previously granted), for the following reasons.

The motion requests requests "in rem" relief (i.e., relief applicable notwithstanding future bankruptcy cases (under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(4) and/or In re Vazquez, 580 B.R. 526 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2017), and/or In re Choong (case no. 2:14-bk-28378-NB, docket no. 31)). The tentative ruling is to deny that request because there is no evidence of multiple bankruptcy cases, unauthorized transfers of interests in property, or other acts that would amount to a scheme to delay, hinder, or defraud the Movant within the meaning of the authorities cited above.

Movant's assertion that Debtors are involved in the cannabis business - while apparently accurate in general - has not been tied to this specific property. Even if it were, Movant has not established how any activity at the property that might be illegal under federal law (with no evidence of any enforcement action by federal prosecutors) has any bearing on whether to grant in rem relief.

Effective date of relief

Grant the request to waive the 14-day stay provided by FRBP 4001(a)(3).

Co-debtor stay

Any co-debtor stay (11 U.S.C. 1301(c)) has not been shown to have any basis for any different treatment from the stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(a), so the tentative ruling is to grant the identical relief regarding any co-debtor stay.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." Tentative Ruling for 9/1/20:

Appearances required by counsel for Debtors.

Pursuant to Judge Bason's COVID19 Procedures, ONLY TELEPHONIC APPEARANCES WILL BE PERMITTED until further notice. Please contact CourtCall at (888) 882-6878 to make arrangements for any telephonic appearance. There is no need to contact the Court for permission. (1) Current issues

(a) Vadim Kogan's Motion For Relief From The Automatic Stay (dkt. 23, 29), adequate protection order (the "APO," dkt. 42)

There is no tentative ruling, but, in connection with Mr. Kogan's request for additional relief, including "in rem" relief, the parties are directed to address the following issues. First, Debtors have presented an unauthenticated copy of purported insurance declarations. See dkt.51. But this Court ordered them to file a declaration authenticating his insurance coverage. APO (dkt.42) p.6, para.11.

Second, the parties are directed to address whether Debtors have provided adequate proof of alleged payments to the senior lienholder, and are otherwise in compliance with the APO. Third, the parties are directed to address whether the following issues establish cause for "in rem" relief.

(b) Monthly Operating Reports ("MORs")

Debtors' June and July 2020 MORs (dkt.49, 50) make a mockery of the required disclosures. First, Debtors have completely ignored this Court's repeated directions - in the "Procedures" order issued at the inception of this case (dkt.6) and repeated in the adopted tentative ruling for 7/28/20 (dkt.43, Ex.A, pp.4-5) - that "For all reporting purposes – including Monthly Operating Reports ("MORs"), disclosure statements, etc. – Debtor[s] must disclose all income, expenses, assets, and liabilities of (a) affiliated businesses ...." (Emphasis added.)

Second, even if Debtors' MORs were limited to their personal income and expenditures (which they are not) the MORs are not credible on their face. For example, they include almost no reported food expenditures.

Third, the MORs include vague entries such as "[c]ash" ($620 on 6/24/20, per dkt.49 at PDF p.6) or "[a]djustment" ($500 on 6/29/20, per id.). Such vague entries are tantamount to hidden transactions.

Fourth, the MORs are mostly blank in places where they should not be, such as disclosures of taxes owed and paid (e.g., dkt.49 at PDF p.15) and insurance coverage for vehicles (e.g., dkt.49 at PDF p.17). The MORs offer no explanation.

(c) Amended Bankruptcy Schedule I (dkt.48); and lack of amended SOFA

At one place in this Court's Order to Show Cause ("OSC," dkt.43, Ex.A, p.3, para."(1)(c)") this Court listed one example of Debtors' inadequate financial disclosure: their Bankruptcy Schedule I listed income but no income taxes. That one example was only that: a single example. The same OSC refers to the "same problems" previously noted (id.), which include, as another example, that Debtors' SOFA lists $0 in income from any source for the past several years, which appears on its face not to be credible. See dkt.43, Ex.A, p.4, para."(1)(b)."

Despite owning a complex series of multi-million dollar businesses (see dkt.46, last page), Debtors' amended Bankruptcy Schedule I (dkt.48, at PDF pp.9-10) lists only $7,666/mo. of salary for Mr. Sergio Tellez, much reduced from his prior reported income. There is still no line item specifically disclosing any income taxes on that salary - instead there is a lump sum $2,300 described as "30% of gross [income] put aside for taxes, medicare, SSA." Id.

In addition, Ms. Roseanna Tellez is listed as having $0 income despite being described as an "Administrative Assistant" at Spliffin Group Inc. for the last 6 months; Debtors purport to have $0 income from any property or business (dkt.48 at PDF p.10, line 8a); and they claim $0 income from any interest or dividends (id., line 8b). In addition, Debtors have not filed any amended SOFA.

(d) Order to show cause ("OSC," dkt. 43)

The tentative ruling is that, although Debtors nominally have filed most of the documents required by the OSC (see dkt. 46-50), their financial disclosures are a complete sham, for the reasons set forth above. The tentative ruling is that Debtors have willfully failed to appear in proper prosecution of this case, within the meaning of 11 U.S.C. 109(g)(1), and have misrepresented facts, unfairly manipulated the Bankruptcy Code, filed their bankruptcy petition for improper and inequitable purposes of delaying and harassing creditors; and have engaged in egregious behavior as described above.

The tentative ruling is to dismiss this case with a permanent bar against being debtors in any future bankruptcy case, unless this Court for cause shown were to lift that bar after notice to all parties in interest in this case and a hearing. In addition, the tentative ruling is to include a concurrent bar under 11 U.S.C. 109(g)(1) (for the first 180-days of the permanent bar). See 11 U.S.C. §§ 105(a), 349(a), 1112(b); In re Glover, 537 Fed.Appx. 741 (9th Cir. 2013) (affirming dismissal with a five-year bar to refile under 11 U.S.C. 105(a)); In re Leavitt, 171 F.3d 1219 (9th Cir. 1999) (affirming dismissal with prejudice based on finding of bad faith, considering whether debtor misrepresented facts, unfairly manipulated Code, or otherwise filed his petition or plan in inequitable manner; debtor's history of filings and dismissals; whether the debtor intended to defeat state court litigation; and whether egregious behavior is present).

(e) Alternative grounds for dismissal with bar

The record before this Court is that much of Debtors' business involves cannabis, which is illegal under federal law. Although that fact does not necessarily create a bar that would prevent Debtors from reorganizing their finances at all in bankruptcy, at the very least Debtors would have had to pay special attention to careful disclosures of their finances and operations, and show what steps they are taking toward coming into compliance with nonbankruptcy laws, or divesting themselves of non-compliant businesses, or taking other steps to make appropriate use of the bankruptcy system. See, e.g., 28 U.S.C. 959(b); In re Burton, 610 B.R. 633 (9th Cir. BAP 2020); In re Olson, 2018 WL 989263 (9th Cir. BAP 2/5/2018). But Debtors have done none of these things, and as set forth above they have flouted the required financial disclosures.

In sum, Debtors' involvement in businesses that are illegal under federal law, and their lack of care in dealing with the associated legal and financial issues, are additional reasons to impose the above bars against being debtors in any future bankruptcy case.

(f) Starting date for bar

The tentative ruling is that the bars described above should commence from the time when this tentative ruling is first posted (8/31/20 just prior to 9:15am).

(g) Notice

This Court notes that Debtors' counsel did not comply with this Court's direction to serve the OSC on all parties in interest. See OSC (dkt.43), p.4, para.4. Nevertheless, the tentative ruling is that all parties in interest have received adequate notice pursuant to this Court's Procedures order, which was served on all parties in interest. See dkt.6, 16.

(1) Current issues

(a) Debtor's exit strategy

At the 7/28/20 hearing, Debtor's counsel represented to this Court that he was in communication with creditors regarding a structured dismissal. Debtor is directed to address the status of those communications, and Debtor's likely strategy for exiting bankruptcy.

(2) Deadlines/dates. The involuntary petition commencing this case was filed on 9/15/19, and an order for relief in this converted chapter 11 case was entered on 12/18/19 (see dkt.28, 29).

(a) Bar date: 2/28/20 (order, dkt. 58; timely served, dkt. 59).

(b) Procedures order: dkt.30 (timely served, dkt.34)

(c) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: TBD

(d) Continued status conference: 10/27/20 at 2:00 p.m., with no status report required.

*Warning: special procedures apply (see order setting initial status

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for 9/1/20:

Appearances required by counsel for the debtor and the Subchapter V Trustee.

Pursuant to Judge Bason's COVID19 Procedures, ONLY TELEPHONIC APPEARANCES WILL BE PERMITTED until further notice. Please contact CourtCall at (888) 882-6878 to make arrangements for any telephonic appearance. There is no need to contact the Court for permission. Parties who are not represented by an attorney will be able to use CourtCall for free through 9/30/20. (1) Current issues

(a) Debtor's Second Amended Chapter 11 Plan (the "Plan," dkt. 167), Debtor's Second Amended Disclosure Statement (the "Disclosure Statement," dkt. 168), order setting a combined hearing on the Plan and Disclosure Statement (dkt. 169), proof of service (dkt. 173), and ballot summary (dkt. 175)

The tentative ruling is (i) notwithstanding Debtor's erroneous assertion that "cramdown" is not required (Ballot Summary, dkt.175, p.1, line 3), to accept an oral motion by Debtor to confirm the Plan notwithstanding the lack of acceptance by all impaired classes (11 U.S.C. 1129(a)(8)); (ii) notwithstanding the lack of an actual ballot from the holder of the Class 2A claim, to accept the provision in the parties' stipulation that "Secured Creditor agrees to vote for Debtor's Plan ..." as a self-effectuating vote; and (iii) to approve the Disclosure Statement on a final basis; confirm the Plan under 11 analysis in In re Vazquez, 580 B.R. 526 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2017), and/or In re Choong (case no. 2:14-bk-28378-NB, docket no. 31), as applicable:

If this order is duly recorded in compliance with applicable State laws governing notices of interests or liens in the property at issue, then no automatic stay shall apply to such property in any bankruptcy case purporting to affect such property and filed within two years after the date of entry of this order, unless otherwise ordered by the court presiding over that bankruptcy case.

For the avoidance of doubt, any acts by the movant to obtain exclusive possession of such property shall not be stayed, including any eviction actions, through and including any lockout or other enforcement by the Sheriff or other authorized legal authority.

Note: Per Judge Bason's posted procedures (available at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) this Court's order will state that the Court "does not make" a finding that Debtor was involved in the "scheme" referenced in section 362(d)(4), unless there is sufficient evidence that Debtor was involved and Debtor is given clear notice that the movant seeks an express finding that Debtor was involved. The tentative ruling in this particular case is that there is not sufficient evidence and notice.

No prejudice to Debtor intended. Based on the record, it appears that this is a "hijacked" case, and that Debtor is innocent of any involvement. See e.g., In re Vazquez, 580 B.R. 526 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2017) (describing hijacking); In re Dorsey, 476 B.R. 261 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2012) (same). In a hijacking case, the Debtor faces the legitimate concern of being subject to a 180-day bar and other adverse consequences if, for example, Debtor later requests and obtains a voluntary dismissal and subsequently needs to file another bankruptcy petition. See, e.g., 11 U.S.C. 109(g)(2), 362(b)(21) (A). There is authority that section 109 "eligibility issues" are nonjurisdictional, can be waived, forfeited, or subject to estoppel, and should not be applied if that would produce an "illogical, unjust, or capricious result, or when the benefit of dismissal would inure to a bad faith creditor." In re Leaffy, 489 B.R. 545, 550-51 (9th Cir. Bap 2012) (citing cases including under 109(g)(2)). See also In re Mendez, 367 B.R. 109, 116-17 (9th Cir. BAP 2007); In re Luna, 122 B.R. 575, 577 (9th Cir. from the automatic stay granted in this tentative ruling such that no adverse consequences apply to Debtor from the hijacking, including under 11 U.S.C. 109(g)(2) or 362(b)(21)(A). Tentative Ruling for 9/15/20:
Appearances required.

Pursuant to Judge Bason's COVID19 Procedures, ONLY TELEPHONIC APPEARANCES WILL BE PERMITTED until further notice. Please contact CourtCall at (888) 882-6878 to make arrangements for any telephonic appearance. This matter has been continued multiple times. Most recently, at the hearing on 6/16/20, this Court set a deadline of 9/14/20 for Debtor to file and serve a motion to approve a proposed refinancing or sale of the subject property so as to pay Movant in full (which motion was to be set for hearing no later than 10/22/20, on the 8:30 a.m. calendar). As of the preparation of this tentative ruling, no such motion appears on the docket. Accordingly, the tentative ruling is to terminate the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1).

resolving this matter by consent, then you may waive your right to be heard on matters that are appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

Tentative Ruling for 6/16/20:

Appearances required, but pursuant to Judge Bason's COVID19 Procedures, telephonic appearances are REQUIRED until further notice.

Please contact CourtCall at (888) 882-6878 to make arrangements. There is no need to contact the Court for permission. Parties who are not represented by an attorney will be able to use CourtCall for free through 4/30/20. Attorneys will receive a 25% discount (for more information, see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.," "Telephonic Instructions").

At the hearing on 3/26/20 this Court declined to order adequate protection payments or set a deadline for a sale or refinance, in view of the alleged equity in the property and the COVID-19 situation. But (a) this Court cautioned Debtor about the need to move forward with a refinance, sale, or other resolution of the parties' issues, and (b) this Court directed Debtor to file a status report no later than 6/2/20.

As of the preparation of this tentative ruling, no status report has been filed. Debtor is directed to address what sanction should be imposed for disregarding this Court's order to file a status report.

On the merits, the tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 9/15/20 to file and serve a motion for a sale or refinance to pay off movant, and self-calendar that motion for hearing no later than 10/22/20 at 8:30 a.m.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." If appearances are required, and you fail to appear telephonically without adequately resolving this matter by consent, then you may waive your right to be heard on matters that are appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

Chapter 13

Appearances required, but pursuant to Judge Bason's COVID19 Procedures, telephonic appearances are REQUIRED until further notice.

Please contact CourtCall at (888) 882-6878 to make arrangements. There is no need to contact the Court for permission. Parties who are not represented by an attorney will be able to use CourtCall for free through 4/30/20. Attorneys will receive a 25% discount (for more information, see www.cacb.uscourts.gov, "Judges," "Bason, N.," "Telephonic Instructions").

This matter was continued to this date to allow time for the parties to negotiate regarding the issues addressed in the tentative ruling for 2/18/20 (reproduced below). Has this matter been resolved?

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." If appearances are required, and you fail to appear telephonically without adequately resolving this matter by consent, then you may waive your right to be heard on matters that are appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

Tentative Ruling for 2/18/20:

This matter was continued to this date (a) to allow time for Debtor to substitute in new counsel and (b) for Debtor to determine whether she can and will refinance the debt, or sell the property, or propose some other realistic strategy for addressing her missed payments. The tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 4/6/20 for Debtor to file and serve a motion seeking authorization for one of those methods of curing her defaults, to be self-calendared for hearing no later than 4/30/20 at 8:30 a.m. Meanwhile, the tentative ruling is to continue this hearing to 4/7/20 at 10:00 a.m. Appearances are not required on 2/18/20.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." by consent, then you may waive your right to be heard on matters that are appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

Tentative Ruling for 1/28/20:

Appearances required. This matter was continued to this date to allow time for the parties to attempt to resolve this dispute. Based on this Court's review of the filed documents and records in this case, including Debtor's response (dkt.119) and Movant's reply (dkt.124) the tentative ruling is that Debtor has not rebutted Movant's evidence that Debtor is seriously in default, but that Debtor as the owner of the property is competent to provide an opinion as to its value, and Debtor has asserted a very substantial equity cushion, so the parties should be prepared to address whether Debtor can and will refinance the debt, or sell the property, or propose some other realistic strategy for addressing her missed payments.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." If appearances are required, and you fail to appear without adequately resolving this matter by consent, then you may waive your right to be heard on matters that are appropriate for disposition at this hearing.

Tentative Ruling for 1/7/20:

Grant as provided below. Appearances are not required.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

Termination

Terminate the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1).

To the extent, if any, that the motion seeks to terminate the automatic stay in other past or pending bankruptcy cases, such relief is denied on the present record. See In re Ervin (Case No. 14-bk-18204-NB, docket no. 311).

Co-debtor stay

Any co-debtor stay (11 U.S.C. 1301(c)) has not been shown to have any basis for any different treatment from the stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(a), so the tentative ruling is to grant the identical relief regarding any co-debtor stay.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." Docket 1

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for 9/15/20:

Continue, with interim deadlines, as set forth below. Appearances are not required on 9/15/20.

This Court has reviewed the parties' joint status report (dkt. 19) and the other filed documents and records in this adversary proceeding.

(A) Current issues

On 5/14/20, this Court entered a scheduling order memorializing the deadlines set forth in section (3) below (adv.dkt. 17). The tentative ruling is to direct the parties to meet and confer regarding updated deadlines, in view of the uncertainty and challenges presented by COVID-19 noted in their joint status report, and lodge a proposed agreed order (or, if they cannot agree, separate proposed orders) no later than 9/29/20.

(B) Standard requirements

The following are Judge Bason's standard requirements for status conferences. (To the extent that the parties have already addressed these issues in their status report, they need not repeat their positions at the status conference.)

(1) Venue/jurisdiction/authority

Matters of venue, jurisdiction, and authority have been determined and/or waived or forfeited (see adv.dkt.15).

(2) Mediation: Is there is any reason why this Bankruptcy Court should not order the parties to mediation before one of the volunteer mediators (not a Bankruptcy Judge), as this Bankruptcy Court contemplated at the last status conference? The tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 9/29/20 for the parties to lodge a proposed mediation order (the parties are directed to use the time between now and that deadline to find a mutually agreeable mediator whose schedule can accommodate the needs of this matter; and if the parties cannot even agree on a mediator they may lodge separate orders and Judge Bason will chose among them, or issue his own order).

(3) Deadlines

This adversary proceeding has been pending since 11/5/19. [See above re possible amendment of the following deadlines ordered in adv.dkt.17]

Joinder of parties/amendment of pleadings: 11/20/20 deadline.

Discovery cutoff (for completion of discovery): 12/8/20.

Expert(s) - deadline for reports: 12/15/20.

Expert(s) - discovery cutoff (if different from above): 12/29/20.

Dispositive motions to be filed no later than: 1/26/21 - NOTE: per the District Court's order (adv.dkt.15, Ex.1) any such motions are to be heard by the District Court.

Joint Status Report: 12/8/20

Continued status conference: 12/22/20 at 11:00 a.m.

Lodge Joint Proposed Pre-Trial Order: TBD NOTE: see immediately following paragraph below.

Pretrial conference: TBD NOTE: The District Court's order (referenced above) directs that this Bankruptcy Court address all pretrial proceedings (except dispositive motions) through the approval and entry of a pretrial order. This Bankruptcy Court interprets that direction to require supplemental proceedings before the District Court to address some issues that normally might be included in a pretrial order, such as the trial date, the format of exhibits preferred by District Court Judge Bernal, etc. The parties are directed to plan accordingly (e.g., addressing with the District Court what trial date should be included in any pretrial order).

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for 9/15/20:

Appearances required.

(1) Current issues

(a) Debtor's small business chapter 11 plan, as amended ("Plan," dkt. 246, 258, 259, 260, 270, 271); Debtor's requests to set hearing on confirmation etc., as amended ("Plan Hearing Request," dkt. 247, 272)

There is no tentative ruling. The parties should be prepared to address whether it is premature to set any hearing on confirmation given (i) Debtor's assertion that in future she "may amend the Plan" to address various objections (dkt.285, p.3, n.1), (ii) the fact that a critical component of the latest Plan is obtaining financing from Debtor's husband, but her husband has been unable to date to pay off or refinance debts on the Laurel property, so on the present record it appears that the Plan is premised on unrealistic funding, and (iii) it is not clear that Debtor has sufficiently addressed the issues previously raised by the parties and this Court, including but not limited to the following (including whatever updated dollar amounts might be required):

COPY OF TENTATIVE RULING FROM 7/28/20:

... The tentative ruling is that, for at least the following reasons, the Plan cannot be confirmed.

First, as both Celtic Bank and the Subchapter V Trustee point out Debtor's Plan does not set aside an estimated dollar amount for administrative expenses.

Second, as Celtic Bank points out (dkt.254, p.3:6-11), it has a substantial claim for pre- and postpetition default interest on its fully matured loan, as well as attorney fees. In general, claims for both prepetition and "pendency" default interest on oversecured claims are allowed in bankruptcy cases, as are attorney fees, up to the value of the collateral. So any debtor either has to take steps quickly to stop the running of that interest - such as a section 363 sale, a refinance, or a confirmable plan - or else that debtor has to pay that interest in full (up to the value of the collateral). See generally In re Aarons (Case 2:19-bk-18316-NB), dkt. 268, pp.9:13-10:8.

The tentative ruling is that the Plan must, but does not, provide for payment of administrative expenses and Celtic's default interest and attorney fees. Nor does the Plan or any other filed document known to this Court provide a basis for this Court to presume that the very large proposed contributions would be increased by enough to cover the shortfall. Therefore, the tentative ruling is that it would be a waste of time and resources to set a hearing on confirmation of Debtor's proposed Plan at this time, so the Plan Hearing Request must be denied.

(b) SubChapter V Trustee's motion for turnover of Laurel Property (dkt. 280), Debtor's opposition (dkt. 285), replies due at hearing

Debtor has had just under 10 months in this case, and almost a year since the commencement of her prior bankruptcy case (2:19-bk-21504-NB), to arrange some alternative to selling the Laurel Property. Debtor requests that turnover will be unnecessary in view of her hoped-for financing from her husband and/or her hoped-for confirmation of some variation on her latest proposed Plan.

The tentative ruling is that these alternatives are speculative, particularly in view of Debtor's history of missed projections and unkept obligations. See dkt.208, 209, 232. Accordingly, the tentative ruling is that these arguments do not warrant delaying Debtor's obligation to turn over the Laurel Property.

Debtor also argues that her parents have special needs that have required unspecified "special adaptation" of the Laurel Property (dkt.285, at PDF p.11:8); that Debtor's own home and other properties allegedly cannot accommodate those special needs, again for unspecified reasons; and that replacement residential arrangements for Debtor's parents would be "difficult, at best, during this time of COVID-19." Dkt.285, at PDF p.11:15-16. The tentative ruling is that these vague allegations are insufficient, particularly because they are unsupported by any medical reports, any photographs of ramps or other special accommodations, any estimate from contractors about the time and expense that would be required to accommodate Debtor's parents in her home or other properties, or any other specific information and evidence that would support Debtor's allegations.

This Bankruptcy Court does not in any way intend to minimize whatever medical conditions might be afflicting Debtor's parents. But, particularly in view of Debtor's history of a lack of candor and transparency (see dkt.208, 209, 232), the tentative ruling is that it would be inappropriate to deny the turnover motion based on allegations that are unsupported by any evidence except Debtor's vague declaration.

Debtor also argues that the Jewish High Holidays are occurring off and on from approximately 9/18/20 through 10/9/20. The tentative ruling is that a short delay in turnover is warranted by the combination of these (i) holidays, (ii) the previously ordered "adequate protection" payments to secured creditors, and (iii) the (weak) evidence that Debtor's parents suffer from medical ailments. The parties are directed to address how long a delay is warranted.

(c) Unauthorized source of funding for Debtor's counsel (dkt.282)

As a preliminary matter, although Debtor is no longer a debtor in possession (dkt.232), nevertheless Debtor continues to have considerable powers and duties, including continued operations in the ordinary course of her business and financial affairs, proposing a chapter 11 plan, etc. This Court is not aware of any authority that would excuse Debtor from continuing to have the same fiduciary obligations (within her decreased scope of authority) as a trustee for the benefit of creditors. Nor is this Court aware of any authority that would permit Debtor's professionals to hold or represent interests adverse to the bankruptcy estate.

In that context, it is troubling that Debtor's bankruptcy counsel reports (dkt.282) having accepted payments for several months from a source other than the bankruptcy estate - namely, Debtor's non-debtor husband, who asserts that he holds considerable assets that are not community property, and who might or might not have interests adverse to the bankruptcy estate. See generally Order re Employment etc., In re The New School Of Cooking (Case No. 2:20-bk-10484-NB, dkt.61). Debtor's counsel is directed to address why authorization for his new compensation arrangement has not

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for 9/15/20:

Appearances required.

This Court has reviewed the parties' joint status report (dkt. 37) and the other filed documents and records in this adversary proceeding.

Current issues

(a) Apparent waste of resources and/or unwillingness to prosecute

This Court continues to have serious concerns why it makes any sense for Debtor to dispute the alleged security interest of Oxygen Funding, Inc. when (i) Debtor continues to assert that all creditors will be paid 100% of their allowed claims regardless whether those claims are or are not secured by any collateral, (ii) the Bankruptcy Code includes many tools to assure that disputed security interests do not block attempted refinancings, sales, or other uses of estate property (see, e.g., 11 U.S.C. 363(f), 1129(b)(1)), and (iii) the expense of this litigation to the bankruptcy estate appears very likely to exceed any possible future benefits (but cf. dkt.282 re unauthorized funding of Debtor's counsel by non-debtor husband). At prior hearings this Court was persuaded not to take any action on the foregoing concerns, pending mediation, but the parties report (adv.dkt.37) that mediation was unsuccessful.

Conversely, assuming for the sake of discussion that for some reason would make any sense to pursue this litigation, Debtor/Plaintiff appears to be unwilling to prosecute it unless and until she can obtain a different forum. She states, in the parties' joint status report (adv.dkt.37, p.4, para.G) that she will seek dismissal of this bankruptcy case and then pursue this litigation in State Court.

The parties are directed to address whether this Court should (i) stay this litigation indefinitely, pending the results of attempts by Debtor and the Subchapter V Trustee to sell or refinance the "Laurel" property, or confirm a chapter 11 plan, or implement other means of restructuring Debtor's finances, (ii) dismiss this adversary proceeding for lack of prosecution if Debtor/Plaintiff does not prosecute it pursuant to the deadlines tentatively set forth below, or (iii) establish some other deadlines or procedures regarding this matter.

(A) Standard requirements

The following are Judge Bason's standard requirements for status conferences. (To the extent that the parties have already addressed these issues in their status report, they need not repeat their positions at the status conference.)

(1) Venue/jurisdiction/authority

Matters of venue, jurisdiction, and authority have been determined and/or waived or forfeited (docket numbers 26, 37)

(2) Mediation [Intentionally omitted]

(3) Deadlines

This adversary proceeding has been pending since 2/10/20. Pursuant to LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B), plaintiff is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the status conference, attaching a copy of this tentative ruling or otherwise memorializing the following.

Joinder of parties/amendment of pleadings: 10/30/20 deadline.

(A) Current issues

(1) Debtor/Plaintiff's ex parte motion for retroactive extension to file opposition to defendant's motion to set aside default (adv. dkt. 20), order setting hearing (adv. dkt. 22)

Subject to any opposition at the hearing, the tentative ruling is to grant the motion.

Grant, as set forth in the tentative ruling for calendar #2 (4/21/20 at 11:00 a.m.).

(3) Debtor/Plaintiff's motion for entry of default judgment (adv. dkt. 14), order suspending briefing deadlines (adv. dkt. 17, "Default Judgment Motion")

If this Court is persuaded to adopt its tentative ruling for the Relief From Default Motion, the tentative ruling is to deny this motion as moot.

(4) Missing status report(s)

As of the preparation of this tentative ruling, none of the parties have filed joint or unilateral status reports. The parties are cautioned that failure to file status reports in future may result in adverse consequences.

(5) Debtor's duties as a trustee for the benefit of creditors

The tentative ruling is that, as a debtor in possession in a Subchapter V case, Debtor still must exercise discretion in managing the bankruptcy estate as a trustee for the benefit of creditors. See 11 U.S.C. 1101(1), 1181(a) (making section 1107 inapplicable), 1187 (making many duties applicable). This Court has previously expressed concerns about Debtor's similar tactics against creditor National Commercial Recovery ("NCR"). See adv.dkt.25, pp.10:1-24 & 14:3-17.

In particular, the tentative ruling is that Debtor must make a cost/benefit assessment in connection with all litigation in this bankruptcy case. Debtor is directed to address how her tactics in this matter are consistent with her duties to creditors.

(a) Why is it cost-effective to pursue this litigation seeking to establish that Defendants lack a secured claim, when Debtor anticipates a 100% dividend to all creditors regardless whether they are secured or unsecured?

(b) Why has Debtor not pursued options that might stop the running of high rates of interest on this and other claims, such as expeditiously seeking confirmation of a plan, or selling or refinancing properties.

In other words, is this litigation a waste of resources and time that would be better spent on other matters?

Proposed orders: Defendants are directed to lodge proposed orders on each of the foregoing motions via LOU within seven days after the hearing date and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby adopting it as this Court's final ruling, subject to any changes ordered at the hearing. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

(B) Standard requirements

The following are Judge Bason's standard requirements for status conferences. (To the extent that the parties have already addressed these issues in their status report, they need not repeat their positions at the status conference.)

(1) Venue/jurisdiction/authority

The parties are directed to address any outstanding matters of (a) venue, (b) jurisdiction, (c) this Bankruptcy Court's authority to enter final orders or judgment(s) in this proceeding and, if consent is required, whether the parties do consent, or have already expressly or impliedly consented. See generally Stern v. Marshall, 131 S.Ct. 2594, 2608 (2011) (if litigant "believed that the Bankruptcy Court lacked the authority to decide his claim...then he should have said so – and said so promptly."); Wellness Int'l Network, Ltd. v. Sharif, 135 S.Ct. 1932 (2015) (consent must be knowing and voluntary but need not be express); In re Bellingham Ins. Agency, Inc., 702 F.3d 553 (9th Cir. 2012) (implied consent), aff'd on other grounds, 134 S. Ct. 2165 (2014); In re Pringle, 495 B.R. 447 (9th Cir. BAP 2013) (rebuttable presumption that failure to challenge authority to issue final order is intentional and indicates consent); In re Deitz, 760 F.3d 1028 (9th Cir. 2014) (authority to adjudicate nondischargeability encompasses authority to liquidate debt and enter final judgment). See generally In re AWTR Liquidation, Inc., 548 B.R. 300 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2016).

(2) Mediation

Is there is any reason why this Court should not order the parties to mediation before one of the volunteer mediators (not a Bankruptcy Judge), and meanwhile set the deadlines set forth below? The tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 5/8/20 for the parties to lodge a proposed mediation order (the parties are directed to use the time between now and that deadline to find a mutually agreeable mediator whose schedule can accommodate the needs of this matter; and if the parties cannot even agree on a mediator they may lodge separate orders and Judge Bason will chose among them, or issue his own order).

Continue as set forth below. Appearances are not required.

This Court has reviewed the parties' joint status report (dkt. 32) and the other filed documents and records in this adversary proceeding.

(A) Current issues

The tentative ruling is that Defendant is correct that Plaintiff's request for leave to file a second amended complaint must be made by filing and serving a noticed motion on interested parties, presumably including all parties who are sought to be joined and all extant parties. See Rule 7015 (Fed. R. Bankr. P.) (amendment of pleadings) and Rule 9013 (Fed. R. Bankr. P.) (requests for order must be by motion unless otherwise authorized by rules).

(B) Standard requirements

The following are Judge Bason's standard requirements for status conferences. (To the extent that the parties have already addressed these issues in their status report, they need not repeat their positions at the status conference.)

(1) Venue/jurisdiction/authority

The parties have stated their positions (see adv.dkt. 14 & 19, p.4, para. F) and this Court has not yet ruled on these issues.

(1) Current issues

(a) Continued hearing on cash collateral motion (dkt. 51) and stipulation (dkt.61, Ex.A), Debtor's supplemental decl (dkt. 88), interim orders authorizing use of cash collateral (dkt. 80, 100, 113, 124, 143), Hanmi's supplemental statement (dkt. 104)

The tentative ruling is to approve the use of cash collateral on a final basis, on the same terms as previously ordered (subject, as always, to Hanmi's rights to seek relief in the event that Debtor's finances change or there are other grounds to seek to amend the terms for use of cash collateral in order to provide adequate protection).

(b) Late status report

This Court's adopted ruling for 7/14/20 directed Debtor to file a status report by 9/1/20. The status report was filed on 9/9/20. Debtor is reminded to file status reports timely, and is reminded that belated reports impede parties' and this Court's ability to prepare for hearings.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 7/31/19.

(a) Bar date: 10/25/19 (dkt. 24; timely served, dkt. 26). Exception: the bar date for creditors Apex Realty, Inc. and BRG Adams, LLC is 10/14/20 (dkt. 78, 138)

(b) Procedures order: dkt. 2 (timely served, dkt.23).

(c) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: TBD

(d) Continued status conference: 11/10/20 at 1:00 p.m., Brief written status report due 10/27/20.

Tentative Ruling for 7/14/20:

Appearances required.

Pursuant to Judge Bason's COVID19 Procedures, ONLY TELEPHONIC APPEARANCES WILL BE PERMITTED until further notice. Please contact CourtCall at (888) 882-6878 to make arrangements for any telephonic appearance. There is no need to contact the Court for permission. Parties who are not represented by an attorney will be able to use CourtCall for free through 6/30/20. There is no tentative ruling. The parties should be prepared to address whether Hanmi will consent to further use of its cash collateral. Given the number of continuances of this matter, the parties are directed to address whether this Court should grant the motion on a final basis (subject, as always, to Hanmi's rights to seek relief in the event that Debtor's finances change or there are other grounds to seek to amend the terms for use of cash collateral in order to provide adequate protection).

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for 9/15/20:

Appearances are not required on 9/15/20.

(1) Current issues

(a) Debtor's Amended Subchapter V Plan (dkt. 54) and Amended Disclosure Statement (dkt. 55), no opposition is on file

The tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 9/18/20 to lodge a proposed order, substantially in the form of the order posted on Judge Bason's portion of the Court's website (www.cacb.uscourts.gov), authorizing the service of a voting package and setting a combined hearing on final approval of the Amended Disclosure Statement and confirmation of the Amended Plan for the same time as the continued status conference (see below).

(b) Debtor's notice of setting/increasing insider compensation (filed with UST), First Home Bank's opposition (dkt. 47) & request for hearing (dkt. 49), UST's opposition (dkt. 48), notice of hearing (dkt. 50), Supplemental Russell declaration (dkt. 56)

The tentative ruling is to allow the proposed insider compensation for Rebecca Russell in the reduced amount of $2,911.87/month.

Proposed order: Debtor is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby adopting it as this Court's final ruling, subject to any changes ordered at the hearing. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

Tentative Ruling for 9/15/20:
Appearances required.

(1) Current issues

(a) Second interim fee application of Pachulski Stang Ziehl & Jones LLP (dkt. 502, 503, 506), stipulation re reduction in fee amount (dkt. 518, "Fee Reduction Stipulation") and order thereon, no opposition is on file

Applicant is directed to address whether all parties in interest were required to receive notice of the fee application. See Rule 2002(a)(6) (Fed. R. Bankr. P.). If that issue is adequately addressed, the tentative ruling is to approve second interim fees of $1,176,400 ($1,202,010 [amount requested in application] - $25,610 [per Fee Reduction Stipulation]) and expenses of $51,187.12, for a total interim award of $1,227,587.12 for the period 1/1/18 - 6/30/20.

Proposed order: Applicant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby adopting it as this Court's final ruling, subject to any changes ordered at the hearing. See LBR 9021-1(b) (1)(B).

Tentative Ruling for 9/15/20:
Appearances required.

Proposed orders: Debtor is directed to lodge proposed orders on each of the following motions via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling to the proposed order on the Assumption Motion, thereby incorporating it as this Court's final ruling, subject to any changes ordered at the hearing. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

(1) Current issues

(a) Budget motion (dkt. 51), Yunuen Campos' opposition (dkt. 57), Debtor's supplemental declarations (dkt. 71), Campos' response (dkt. 92), interim order (dkt. 101), Debtor's reply (dkt. 103)

The tentative ruling is to grant the Budget motion on a further interim basis (except as modified in section 1(b) below) and set a further continued hearing concurrent with the status conference (see below).

(b) Insider compensation, Debtor's supplemental declaration (dkt. 71), Ms. Campos' response (dkt. 92), Debtor's reply (dkt. 103)

The tentative ruling is to authorize Debtor to pay Ms. Howerton monthly compensation of $6,000, retroactive to July 2020, on an interim basis, and set a further continued hearing concurrent with the status conference (see below) pending additional evidence from Debtor's accountant.

(c) Motion to assume and enforce settlement agreement (dkt. 67, the "Assumption Motion"), supporting declarations & request for judicial notice (dkt. 68, 69, 70) Ms. Campos' opposition (dkt. 89, 91) & evidentiary objections (dkt. 90), Debtor's response to evidentiary objections (dkt. 104) & reply (dkt.

105), Ms. Campos' evidentiary objections (dkt. 106)

The tentative ruling is conditionally to grant the Assumption Motion in part, without any evidentiary hearing, for the following reasons. (i) This Bankruptcy Court has "arising under" jurisdiction. (ii) The mediation term sheet lacked agreement on an essential term to make it noncontingent - the dollar amount and other terms to be offered by Ms. Campos to settle with a third party - and Debtor has not established that this contingency can be eliminated by any judicial determination of a dollar amount and other terms that Ms. Campos allegedly "should" have offered to comport with the duty of good faith and fair dealing. (iii) Nevertheless, as of the date of the bankruptcy petition the conditional agreement embodied in the mediation term sheet still existed; and if Ms. Campos is not required to pay anything more than her highest offer to settle the Fuller matters then, to that extent, Debtor's theory of good faith and fair dealing can apply, such that she could not deny that the condition is satisfied. Accordingly, if Debtor is willing to absorb the cost of settling the Fuller matters above what Ms. Campos previously agreed to pay, then the mediation term sheet is enforceable - otherwise not.

(i) Jurisdiction

The parties dispute whether this Bankruptcy Court has jurisdiction. See 28 U.S.C. 1334. In addition, this Court has an independent duty to consider its own jurisdiction. In re AWTR Liquidation Inc., 547 B.R. 831, 833 (2016).

Ms. Campos argues that this Court lacks jurisdiction under Kokkonen v. Guardian Life Ins. Co. of Am., 511 U.S. 375 (1994). Ms. Campos cites a decision in which a Bankruptcy Court held that, under Kokkonen, it lacked post-dismissal jurisdiction over a settlement allegedly agreed to during the bankruptcy case. In re Hanks, 182 B.R. 930 (Bankr. ND Ga. 1995).

One of Debtor's arguments is that Kokkonen includes an exception when the federal court's dismissal order retains jurisdiction. It is true that this Bankruptcy Court's dismissal order included language retaining jurisdiction. On the one hand, the tentative ruling is that this language would not be broad enough to adjudicate a run-of-the-mill contract dispute (if that were all that is at issue).

The dismissal order provides that this Court "retains jurisdiction on all issues involving sanctions [and other irrelevant grounds] ... and to any additional extent provided by law." Dismissal Order (Ex.2 to Reply, dkt.105, at PDF pp.15-17) (emphasis added). The problem for Debtor is that, under Kokkonen, the "additional extent provided by law" does not include ordinary post-dismissal disputes over alleged settlements.

On the other hand, the tentative ruling is that Debtor's alternative argument is correct: the mediation term sheet, just like any other purported contract sought to be assumed, is subject to this Bankruptcy Court's jurisdiction. See dk.105, p.7:5-12. Any ability to assume the contract arises under the Bankruptcy Code (11 U.S.C. 365), and an essential element of assumption is the determination whether an assumable contract exists. In other words, this is not just a run-of-the-mill contract dispute: it is part and parcel of issues that arise under section 365.

Any contrary ruling would not make sense. Motions to assume executory contracts and unexpired leases could not be litigated at all if Bankruptcy Courts lacked jurisdiction to address the inevitable subsidiary issues: everything from whether a contract was formed to whether it was terminated prepetition, who breached it, what damages have been incurred, whether those damages amount to penalties that need not be cured, etc., etc. See generally AWTR, 547 B.R. 831, 833-37 (discussing "arising under" jurisdiction and authority, and Bankruptcy Courts' ability to determine issues necessarily addressed in determining issues arising under the Bankruptcy Code).

For these reasons, the tentative ruling is that this Bankruptcy Court has subject matter jurisdiction.

(ii) The mediation term sheet lacked agreement on an essential term to make it noncontingent - the dollar amount to be paid by Ms. Campos to settle with a third party

Debtor argues that the mediation term sheet contains all of the essential terms of the parties' agreement, is signed by both parties, and was intended to be a binding (albeit conditional) agreement. Dkt. 67, pp.14:12-17:9. The tentative ruling is that Debtor has established prima facie evidence of all of those things, but that as long as the contingency exists the agreement cannot be enforced.

Paragraph 10 of the mediation term sheet (id., Ex.1, at PDF p.37) states in relevant part that "[t]he settlement is contingent upon Campos' negotiating a settlement with Bertram Fuller ...." (Emphasis added.) Ms. Campos argues that this is a condition precedent that has not been satisfied, which renders the mediation term sheet unenforceable. Dkt. 89, p.14:9-18. Debtor counters that, regardless whether paragraph 10 is a condition precedent or (as Debtor argues) a condition subsequent, Ms. Campos failed to use good faith to fulfill the contingency. Dkt. 105, pp.2:6-6:16.

The parties devote considerable time and effort to addressing whether or not Ms. Campos attempted to settle in good faith. The tentative ruling is that this is not a justiciable question.

Debtor has not cited any legal authority that this Bankruptcy Court can and should determine whether a party to a settlement agreement, which is itself conditioned on settling with a third party, acted in good faith in deciding how many dollars to offer that third party and any other settlement terms. Nor is this Bankruptcy Court aware of such authority.

To the contrary, paragraph 10 appears to be an agreement to agree, which is generally unenforceable. The fact that the issue reserved for future agreement was the terms of a settlement with a third party only makes matters worse.

Under Debtor's theory, he and Ms. Campos had an agreement that was contingent on Ms. Campos' negotiation of a future agreement with a third party in an unspecified dollar amount, to be paid over an unspecified period of time, with unspecified other terms and conditions. Without having set forth in the mediation term sheet the range of terms that Ms. Campos could agree to, Debtor now asks this Bankruptcy Court to determine what range he and Ms. Campos alleged would have agreed to, had they finished negotiating every term of the mediation term sheet, under the implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing.

The tentative ruling is that this is the very definition of an agreement to agree. Such amorphous agreements are unenforceable - at least, until the contingency is removed. See, e.g., City of L.A. v. Superior Court of L.A. Cnty., 51 Cal.2d 423, 433 (1959) ("The general rule is that if an 'essential element' of a promise is reserved for future agreement of both parties, the promise gives rise to no legal obligation until such future agreement is made") (citation omitted).

Alternatively, even if paragraph 10 of the mediation term sheet were not an agreement to agree, the same principles should apply. Just as agreements to agree are too amorphous to be enforceable, there is no yardstick by which this Bankruptcy Court can determine whether Ms. Campos did or did not act in good faith by not offering a higher dollar amount, or sooner payment, or other terms.

In sum, Debtor has not established that the mediation term sheet is enforceable, as long as the contingency in paragraph 10 continues to exist. But that last clause is important because Debtor apparently has settled part of the Fuller matters, and has an option to settle the rest (dkt. 67, p.22:19-26).

(iii) If the contingency is removed then the mediation term sheet becomes enforceable

As of the date of the bankruptcy petition the conditional agreement embodied in the mediation term sheet still existed. Therefore, unlike a situation in which a contract has terminated prepetition, there is something to be assumed.

True, as Ms. Campos points out, neither Debtor nor she performed the other terms of the mediation term sheet, such as Debtors obligation to make monthly payments. But that is the whole point of section 365: debtors in bankruptcy can cure defaults (even many defaults that could not be cured outside of bankruptcy).

As noted above, "[t]he general rule is that if an 'essential element' of a promise is reserved for future agreement of both parties, the promise gives rise to no legal obligation until such future agreement is made." City of L.A., 51 Cal.2d 423, 433 (1959) (emphasis added). Therefore, for example, if Ms. Campos were to have reached a settlement of the Fuller matters then, at that moment, the mediation term sheet would have become enforceable.

But the equivalent of that outcome can still happen. Consider what would happen if Debt has simply settled the Fuller matters (rather than purchasing the judgments/claims). In that event, the contingency would have become moot, thereby eliminating Ms. Campos' objection to the enforceability of the mediation term sheet.

The tentative ruling is that Debtor need not go that far. There is evidence that Ms. Campos offered $60,000 to settle the Fuller matters (see dkt. 89, p.8) That changes the amorphous state of affairs that existed when the parties signed the mediation term sheet. The tentative ruling is that any refusal by Ms. Campos now to apply that same $60,000 that she offered before to settle the Fuller matters would be a violation of the covenant of good faith and fair dealing. In that situation, the tentative ruling is that Ms. Campos has not overcome Debtor's arguments that the mediation term sheet will be a curable, assumable, enforceable contract.

In other words, the tentative ruling is that if Debtor is willing to absorb the cost of settling the Fuller matters above the $60,000 that Ms. Campos previously agreed to pay, then Ms. Campos has not adequately rebutted Debtor's arguments in favor of granting the Assumption Motion. But, if Debtor is unwilling to absorb that cost, then the parties are left with an agreement to agree, which is unenforceable.

(iv) Conclusion as to the Assumption Motion

There is no precedent of which this Bankruptcy Court is aware for holding a trial to assess Ms. Campos' "good faith" in exploring settlement of the Fuller matters. Moreover, as a practical matter, doing so would be highly impractical.

Presumably this Court not only would have to take evidence regarding the underlying merits of Ms. Campos' disputes with Bertram Fuller, but also would have to take evidence on the "meta-issue" of whether, based on Ms. Campos' subjective beliefs as to those merits, she did or did not make or receive settlement offers in "good faith." More precisely, this Court would have to determine whether an offer of $X over Y months with Z contingencies was too little, but $Z' over X' months with Y' contingencies would be enough to constitute "good faith." The process just described would include layers of expensive litigation and uncertainty.

The tentative ruling is that such litigation over Ms. Campos' good faith is not legally warranted, not practical, and not necessary. Rather, applying California precedent cited above regarding agreements to agree, Debtor can either hold Ms. Campos to her highest and best offer and thereby remove the contingency in paragraph 10, or Debtor can elect not to do so. In the latter event, the parties will be left with an unenforceable agreement (and they can continue litigating as before, or Debtor can explore other options).

(d) Yunuen Campos' motion for relief from the automatic stay (the "R/S Motion," dkt. 22), Debtor's opposition (dkt. 34), notice of continued hearing (dkt. 35) & proof of service (dkt. 36), Ms. Campos' reply (dkt. 55) and evidentiary objections (dkt. 56), Ms. Campos' supplemental briefing (dkt. 66, 82), Debtor's supplemental briefing (dkt. 71, 72), scheduling order (dkt. 88), Ms. Campos' second supplemental reply (dkt. 102)

The tentative ruling is to direct Debtor to continue making monthly transfers of $10,000 into Counsel's client-trust account, subject to Debtor's

The tentative ruling is to continue the matter with respect to Ms. Campos' interest in pre- and post-petition accounts receivable, to be heard concurrent with the continued status conference (see below), with a deadline of 9/18/20 for Debtor's response to Ms. Campos' second supplemental reply.

The foregoing tentative ruling presumes Ms. Campos' consent to a further extension of the time period in 11 U.S.C. 362(e). Alternatively, if Ms. Campos does not wish to consent, she is directed to say so at the hearing, and this Court will address whether her second supplemental reply constitutes implied consent and, if not, make a final ruling on the R/S Motion.

(1) Current issues

(a) Budget motion (dkt. 51), Yunuen Campos' opposition (dkt. 57)

There is no tentative ruling. The parties are directed to address the issues raised in Ms. Campos' opposition (dkt. 57). Debtor is also directed to explain the proposed expenditure of $800/mo. for "Personal Care, South Bay Family-Emily."

As to all questioned expenditures, Debtor is directed to address why they are monthly transactions "in the ordinary course" of Debtor's business (11 U.S.C. 363(c)(1)), or otherwise authorized by the Bankruptcy Code. See Dkt.51, Ex.A at p.6 (PDF p.7) (last line on page). See generally In re Villalobos, 2011 WL 4485793, 2011 Bankr.LEXIS 4329 (9th Cir. (c) Debtor's motion for leave to file documents under seal (dkt. 41), Yunuen Campos' response (dkt. 44), Debtor's reply (dkt. 45), order setting hearing (dkt. 47)

Debtor moves for an order authorizing him to file under seal a motion authorizing the assumption of a mediation term sheet between Debtor and Yuneun Campos. Ms. Campos objects to the admissibility of the mediation term sheet on the grounds that it is protected by the evidence exclusion provision pursuant to California Evidence Code section 1119. The tentative ruling is to grant the motion as follows.

(i) Applicable law

"Privileges are narrowly construed, because they impede the full and fair discovery of truth." Yeager v. Yeager, 2008 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 74245, at *3 (E.D. Cal. Sep. 25, 2008) (citing Weil v. Investment/Indicators, Research & Management, Inc., 647 F.2d 18, 24 (9th Cir. 1981)). "The party asserting an evidentiary privilege has the burden to demonstrate that the privilege applies to the information in question." Id. (quoting Torney v. United States, 840 F.2d 1424, 1426 (9th Cir. 1988)).

"Under Federal Rule of Evidence 501, privileges provided by state law apply in civil actions only 'with respect to an element of a claim or defense as to which State law supplies the rule of decision.'" Babasa v. LensCrafters, Inc., 498 F.3d 972, 974 (9th Cir. 2007) (citing Fed. R. Evid. 501; Breed v. U.S. Dist. Court for the N. Dist. Of Cal., 542 F.2d 1114, 1115 (9th Cir. 1976)).

"State contract law governs how settlement agreements are construed and enforced, even if the underlying cause of action is federal." Karubian v. Kaiser Ventures, LLC, 2018 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 235252, at *12 (C.D. Cal. Oct. 17, 2018) (citing United Commercial Ins. Serv., Inc. v. Paymaster Corp., 962 F.2d 853, 856 (9th Cir. 1992)). Therefore, California privilege law applies.

Two relevant provisions apply. First, California Evidence Code § 1119 states, in relevant part:

Except as otherwise provided in this chapter: (a) No evidence of anything said or any admission made . . . in the course of, or pursuant to, a mediation . . . is admissible or subject to discovery, and disclosure of the evidence shall not be compelled, in any . . . noncriminal proceeding (b) No writing . . . prepared in the course of, or pursuant to, a mediation . . . is admissible or subject to discovery, and disclosure of the writing shall not be compelled in any . . . noncriminal proceeding . . . and between participants in the course of a mediation . . . shall remain confidential.

Second, California Evidence Code § 1123 states, in relevant part:

A written settlement agreement prepared in the course of, or pursuant to, a mediation, is not made inadmissible, or protected from disclosure . . . if the agreement is signed by the settling parties and any of the following conditions are satisfied: (a) The agreement provides that it is admissible or subject to disclosure, or words to that effect. (b) The agreement provides that it is enforceable or binding or words to that effect.

This Court notes that the foregoing provisions are also consistent with the Rules 6.1 and 6.5 set forth in Appendix III of the Local Bankruptcy Rules, governing mediations in this district.

As the party asserting the privilege, Ms. Campos bears the burden of demonstrating that the exception set forth in California Evidence Code § 1123 do not apply. The tentative ruling is that Ms. Campos has not carried that burden. In support of her opposition, Ms. Campos simply concludes that "the requirements of California Evidence Code are not met to render any of the exhibits admissible" and "[t]here is no doubt the Mediation Term Sheet is inadmissible and confidential." Dkt. 44, p.3: 5-6 & 20-21. This is not sufficient.

Alternatively, the tentative ruling is that authorizing the Debtor to file the Mediation Term Sheet under seal will enable this Court to determine whether an exception to California Evidence Code § 1123 applies while still protecting the contents of the document from public disclosure.

(d) Yunuen Campos' motion for relief from the automatic stay (dkt. 22), Debtor's opposition (dkt. 34), notice of continued hearing (dkt. 35) & proof of service (dkt. 36), Ms. Campos' reply (dkt. 55) and evidentiary objections (dkt. 56)

The tentative ruling is to grant in part, deny in part, for the reasons stated in the tentative ruling for that motion (Calendar No. 12, 8/18/20 at 1:00 p.m.).

Proposed orders: Debtor is directed to lodge proposed orders on each of the foregoing motions via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby adopting it as this Court's final

(1) Current issues

(a) Debtor's application to employ Colliers International Greater Los Angeles, Inc., dba Colliers International ("Colliers") (dkt. 138-140, 142, the "Employment Application"), Criscione-Meyer Parties' opposition (dkt. 144), Tarzana Crossing's opposition (dkt. 146, 149), Debtor's replies (dkt. 150, 151, 152, 157)

The tentative ruling is (i) to overrule the objections for the reasons stated in Debtor's reply papers (except to the extent of Debtor's and Colliers' accession to the 6-month term in Debtor's reply papers) but (ii) to prohibit dual agency as set forth below. The "Posted Procedures of Judge Bason" (available at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) provide notice that Judge Bason's standard employment order prohibits dual agency, and refer to an explanation of the problems with dual agency as set forth in another case. See In re Ebuehi, Case No. 2:18-bk-20704-NB, dkt. 281, at PDF pp.9-10). Nothing in the Employment Application provides any reason to depart from that policy.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the tentative ruling is that the dangers inherent in dual agency are substantially ameliorated if (i) the individual(s) who represent the bankruptcy estate as seller operate out of a different branch office from the office of any individual(s) who represent prospective buyers and (ii) the compensation structure is structured in a way that does not implicate the concerns raised in Ebuehi. The tentative ruling is that, if Debtor and Colliers wish to attempt to meet these conditions, then this Court will set a deadline of 9/22/20 to file declaration(s) addressing these conditions (including a detailed disclosure of the compensation structure), and serve such declarations on the United States Trustee and all parties in interest who

#4.00 Cont'd Status Conference re: Chapter 11 Case
fr. 7/28/20, 9/1/20

Docket 15

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for 9/15/20:

Continue as set forth below. Appearances are not required on 9/15/20.

(1) Current issues

(a) Motions of Baodi Zhou for relief from automatic stay or dismissal (dkt.49, 50, 59); Debtor's opposition (dkt.62), no reply is on file

The tentative ruling is to deny Ms. Zhou's request for dismissal and deny any immediate relief from the automatic stay for the reasons stated in Debtor's opposition papers. But the tentative ruling is to continue the motions to be concurrent with the continued Status Conference date (see below), so as re-assess at that time what progress has or has not been made in this case, and whether Debtor and its affiliates are making appropriate use of their bankruptcy "breathing spell."

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 5/4/20 and converted from chapter 7 on 7/1/20 (dkt.17). The petition was amended to elect Subchapter V on 7/14/20 (dkt.27). On 9/4/20 this Court ordered joint administration with several affiliated debtors (dkt.64).

(a) Bar date: 9/9/20 (dkt. 40; timely served, dkt. 43).

(b) Procedures order: dkt.18 (timely served, dkt.20)

(c) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: TBD.

(d) Continued status conference: 9/29/20 at 1:00 p.m. to be concurrent with other matters (no written status report required).

*Warning: special procedures apply (see order setting initial status conference).

Key documents reviewed (in addition to motion papers): Cavalry Investments, LLC's ("Cavalry") opposition (dkt. 28)

Reasons for denial: The tentative ruling is to deny the claim objection based on the evidence filed in support of Cavalry's opposition.

Lack of cost/benefit analysis: The posted Procedures of Judge Bason (available at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) provide:

§ 502: claim objections & cost/benefit analysis. When objecting to claims, be sure to include an analysis of whether the costs of preparing and litigating the claim objection (administrative expenses) do not exceed the anticipated benefits (reductions in claims). For example, if the anticipated dividend is small or 0% then the attorney fees incurred in prosecuting your claim objection to any general unsecured claim probably will exceed the benefit to the bankruptcy estate/debtor, so filing that objection would be a waste of the bankruptcy estate's (and everyone else's) resources (unless, for example, the claim is nondischargeable, in which event the attorney fees might well be justified).

Debtor's counsel is cautioned that failure to include a cost/benefit analysis in future claim objections in accordance with Judge Bason's Procedures may

Chapter 13

#9.00 Hrg re: Debtor's Objection to Proof of Claim 6 by Claimant BBV Profit Sharing Plan

Docket 38

Tentative Ruling:

Sustain the claim objection in part, overrule it in part, and continue the hearing, all as set forth below. Appearances required.

Key documents reviewed (in addition to motion papers): BBV Profit Sharing Plan ("BBV") opposition papers (dkt. 40, 41), Debtor's reply (dkt. 42), BBV's unauthorized sur-reply (dkt. 43), BBV's amended proof of claim 6-2 ("AmClaim")

Analysis:

(1) Advances of funds to the senior lienholder

(a) Nonbankruptcy law

The tentative ruling is that Debtor is correct that under nonbankruptcy law a junior lienholder is not authorized to advance more funds than what is necessary to cure any arrears on a senior lien (Cal. Civ. Code 2924c(a)(1)) and BBV has not demonstrated that it was necessary to advance $91,930.10 to the senior lienholder, when it appears that the senior lienholder's arrears as of the petition date were only $47,356.58 (see dkt. 38, Ex.C). Therefore, to the extent the advances exceeded the amount of any default (i.e.,  $$91,930.10 - $47,356.58 = $44,573.52$ ), they were unauthorized under nonbankruptcy law.

The parties have not briefed the consequences of making such an unauthorized transfer. One remedy might be for BBV, Debtor, and/or the senior lien holder to seek to unwind BBV's unauthorized payment of $44,573.52 to the senior lien holder. In that event, presumably, Debtor would once again owe the excess $44,573.52 to the senior debt holder, and BBV's claim would be reduced by that same dollar amount. But that does not appear to have happened, so the question is what consequences follow from BBV's unauthorized payment of the senior debt.

The tentative ruling, in the absence of cited authority from either party, is that California law must be construed so as to treat BBV's payment of the senior debt as an unauthorized loan that attempts to replace the (lower) interest rate under the senior loan documents with the (higher) interest rate under the junior loan documents, and that this is impermissible. BBV has not cited authority that someone who makes a loan without authority to do so can charge any interest on that unauthorized loan. Therefore, the tentative ruling is that BBV cannot charge any interest prior to the effective date of any plan; although, after the effective date, it would have to bear "present value" interest pursuant to 11 U.S.C. 1325(a)(5)(B)(ii). In other words, the senior debt paid by BBV does not simply disappear (which would be a windfall to Debtor), but nor can BBV charge (higher) interest on that debt (which would be a windfall to BBV).

(b) Bankruptcy law

All of the foregoing analysis under nonbankruptcy law may be mooted by the superseding effect of bankruptcy law. It appears that both of BBV's payments are void as a matter of bankruptcy law.

BBV's checks are dated 7/8/20 - the same day that Debtor's prior bankruptcy case was dismissed (Case No. 2:18-bk-18060-NB). This Court presumes for purposes of this discussion that the checks were issued after the dismissal (and therefore this Court will not address whether the checks violated the automatic stay in that prior case). This Court also presumes, for purposes of this discussion, that the checks were mailed on or about the same date. But the timestamps reflect that the checks were not received and/or deposited by the senior lienholder until after the 7/10/20 petition date in this current case. The checks apparently were deposited on 7/13/20 and 7/17/20 (see AmClaim, pdf pp. 6-7).

The parties have not briefed which of these dates is relevant, but the tentative ruling is that the date of deposit is the date when BBV's lien against Debtor's real property was increased, and that this constituted a "transfer" of an interest in that property and an "exercise of control" over property of the estate, in violation of the automatic stay of 11 U.S.C. 362(a)(3). Alternatively the tentative ruling is that each transfer constituted an act to obtain "possession" of property of the estate in violation of the other clause of 11 U.S.C. 362(a)(3), or an act to "create, perfect, or enforce a lien" against property of the estate in violation of 11 U.S.C. 362(a)(4). On each of these alternative grounds, BBV's advances violated the automatic stay and therefore are void ab initio. See generally 11 U.S.C. 11 U.S.C. 101(50)

("transfer" defined); cf. In re Lee, 179 B.R. 149, 158-59 (9th Cir. BAP 1995) (date of "transfer" involving perfection of lien, under 11 U.S.C. 547), aff'd 108 F.3d 239, 241 (9th Cir. 1997); In re Hagen, 922 F.2d 742, 745 (11th Cir. 1991) (same); see also In re Schwartz, 954 F.2d 569, 571 (9th Cir. 1992) (acts in violation of automatic stay are void).

Note: The tentative ruling is that the transfers also likely constituted avoidable unauthorized postpetition transfers (11 U.S.C. 549(a)), and/or unauthorized post-petition loans (11 U.S.C. 364), which had the effect of replacing a senior encumbrance bearing a low interest rate with BBV's encumbrance bearing a higher interest rate. But the tentative ruling is that this Court cannot make any ruling on those issues because they would require an adversary proceeding. See Rules 3007(b), 7001(1) (Fed. R. Bankr. P.).

The bottom line is that, in making payments to the holder of the senior lien, BBV violated the automatic stay and therefore both advances are void. BBV argues that there is no harm because Debtor owed the money anyway, but as a practical matter, BBV effectively increased the interest rate that Debtor must pay, which ultimately takes away from any recovery for junior creditors and jeopardizes Debtor's ability to reorganize.

Again, this Court is not ruling that Debtor will receive a windfall. If this Court adheres to the foregoing tentative ruling then the transfers from BBV to the senior lien holder were void, so presumably the senior lienholder must return the $91,930.10 to BBV and Debtor's debt to the senior lienholder will increase by that same dollar amount. That said, the senior lienholder has not been made a party to these proceedings, and Debtor has not commenced any proceeding to compel turnover by the senior lienholder (see 11 U.S.C. 542; Rule 7001(1), Fed. R. Bankr. P.). In addition, if BBV's entire $91,930.10 transfers were to be unwound then Debtor might owe additional interest, late charges, and other charges to the senior lienholder, and there might be other consequences.

Accordingly, although the tentative ruling is that BBV's $91,930.10 in advances were void (because, by increasing BBV's lien, they violated the automatic stay), the tentative ruling is that it would be premature to disallow BBV's claim for those funds at this time. Rather, the tentative ruling is to direct Debtor and BBV to meet and confer, and for both of them to communicate with the holder of the senior lien, to attempt to resolve this matter.

Chapter 13

(2) Foreclosure and Bankruptcy Attorneys Fees and Costs

(i) Foreclosure fees, costs & interest thereon

The tentative ruling is to overrule Debtor's objection to BBV's foreclosure fees, costs and interest because BBV's response cites the applicable loan provision that purportedly entitles it to collect these fees/costs (dkt. 40, p.8:1-9) and Debtor's reply does not renew any challenges to these items.

(ii) Reasonableness of attorneys' fees & costs

The tentative ruling is to overrule the objection as to the reasonableness of the amounts charged because BBV's opposition papers attach time records (dkt. 40, Ex.2, pdf pp. 30-40 & dkt. 41), which appear to provide adequate support for the reasonableness of its fees.

(iii) Rule 3002.1(c) (Fed. R. Bankr. P.)

First, the tentative ruling is that it is appropriate for this Court to reach the merits of this issue because although Debtor raised this issue for the first time in her reply papers (a) it appears to be in response to new information provided in BBV's opposition and (b) there is no prejudice to BBV because it filed the unauthorized sur-reply (dkt. 43) responding to these arguments.

Second, on the merits, the tentative ruling is that Debtor appears to be correct that BBV did not comply with Rule 3002.1(c) by filing timely notices of postpetition mortgage fees, expenses and charges in the Prior Case. Although BBV points out (dkt. 43) that any noncompliance was in the Prior Case, the tentative ruling is that for the following reasons this issue is properly raised in this current case.

The tentative ruling is that the burden is on BBV to show why charges that it was supposed to have noticed in the prior case should survive and be chargeable in this case. In addition, if necessary this Court could reopen the prior case and decide the issues in that case instead of in this one, but because this Court presided over the Prior Case that would appear to be form over substance, and any insistence by BBV on parties incurring the expense of reopening might be appropriately charged to BBV as part of this Court's discretion under Rule 3002.1(i) to award "appropriate relief."

All of that said, neither side has cited any authority interpreting Rule 3002.1; Debtor has not shown how she was prejudiced by BBV's nondisclosure of its charges in the Prior Case; and just as Debtor is having another bite at the apple in this current case perhaps BBV should as well - in other words, BBV's apparent violation of Rule 3002.1 does not appear to have caused any cognizable prejudice, and both parties did not fully live up to their obligations in the prior bankruptcy case, so the tentative ruling is that an "appropriate remedy" under Rule 3002.1(i) is probably not to reduce BBV's claim. Therefore the tentative ruling is to overrule Debtor's objection on this ground.

(3) Interest Rate

The tentative ruling is to overrule the objection for the reasons stated in BBV's opposition papers.

(4) Unapplied funds from Debtor's prior bankruptcy case

The tentative ruling is that this objection appears to be moot in view of BBV's filing of an Amended Proof of Claim crediting Debtor for all payments made during the Prior Case.

(5) Conclusion

The tentative ruling is not to adopt any of the foregoing tentative rulings on any final basis, and instead to direct the parties to meet and confer, and communicate with the holder of the senior lien, and meanwhile continue this matter to 10/22/20 at 8:30 a.m.

#11.00 Hrg re: United States Trustee's motion seeking disgorgement of compensation from attorney Marc A. Goldbach pursuant to 11 U.S.C. section 329

Docket 26

Tentative Ruling:

Deny. Appearances are not required.

Analysis: Mr. Goldbach's responsive declaration (dkt. 40) adequately supports the $1,690 already received. True, as the United States Trustee points out (dkt.42, p.2) only a skeletal bankruptcy petition was filed and it is unclear how much progress was made on other documents. But (a) competent representation usually requires substantial work both before and after filing the petition and, even after Debtor's family indicated its initial intent to proceed with Debtor's other bankruptcy case, Mr. Goldbach had to continue performing some services because he could not simply ignore this Court's order to show cause re dismissal and other remedies (dkt.12); (b) Mr. Goldbach declares that he did such work, in excess of $1,690; (c) it would have been inappropriate for Mr. Goldbach to have filed half-completed bankruptcy schedules and other documents (they would be misleading, and could disclose privileged communications and work product); (d) Debtor's multiple apparent representatives caused confusion; (e) there is no basis in the record to speculate that the petition was filed for improper purposes (a filing on the eve of foreclosure can be just as much evidence of good faith as bad faith: for example, in this Court's experience debtors frequently try in good faith to explore options to resolve their financial distress and only file a bankruptcy petition as a last resort); and (f) in this Court's experience, the fees are modest for the type of work involved.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this Court's final ruling, subject to any changes ordered at the hearing. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

Key documents reviewed (in addition to motion papers): Raeisi Group Inc.'s opposition papers (dkt. 52-59), Debtor's notice of hearing (dkt. 64), no reply is on file

Current issues

Debtor seeks an order under 11 U.S.C. 522(f) avoiding two judgment liens against Debtor's residence, located at 1316 Irving Avenue, Glendale, California 91201 (the "Property"), recorded in favor of Raeisi Group, Inc. ("Lienholder"): (w) a judgment lien (the "Non-Debtor Lien") securing a $470,145.31 judgment entered against Debtor's non-filing spouse, Erik Hovsepian (the "Non-Filing Spouse") and (x) a judgment lien securing a $57,910.31 judgment entered against Debtor (the "Debtor Lien").

(a) Legal standard

Section 522(f) provides, in relevant part, that a debtor:

May avoid the fixing of a lien on an interest of the debtor in property to the extent that such lien impairs an exemption to which the debtor would have been entitled under subsection (b) of this section, if such lien is—

(A) a judicial lien . . . . [11 U.S.C. 522(f)]

Section 522(f)(2) provides a formula for calculating the extent to which a lien impairs an exemption: add the lien, all other liens on the property, and the amount of the exemption that the debtor could claim if there were no liens on the property and then subtract from that amount the value of the debtor's interest in the property in the absence of any liens. In re Meyer, 373 B.R. 84, 86 (9th Cir. BAP 2007); In re Pike, 243 B.R. 66, 71 (9th Cir. BAP 1999). When multiple liens are involved, there is authority that the liens must be "subtracted in order of reverse priority." In re Hanger, 217 B.R. 592, 595 (9th Cir. BAP 1997), aff'd, 196 F.3d 1292 (9th Cir. 1999). See also In re Heaney, 453 B.R. 42, 48 (Bankr. E.D.N.Y. 2011) (same).

(b) Procedural issues

Debtor did not comply with Local Bankruptcy Rule ("LBR") 4003-2(b) (1), which requires a separate notice and motion for each lien that is sought to be avoided. The tentative ruling is to excuse Debtor's non-compliance because it does not appear to have prejudiced Lienholder, but Debtor's counsel is cautioned that failure to comply with applicable rules in future may result in adverse consequences.

Alternatively, the tentative ruling is that Lienholder has waived and forfeited any assertion of prejudice because this issue was not raised in its' opposition papers.

(c) The Property is property of the estate

Debtor states that she purchased the Property with her then-husband, now estranged, in April 2008, and that title to the Property is in the name of Erik Hovsepian and Elin Khachatourian Family Trust. Dkt. 49, pdf. p. 5, para. 7. Debtor asserts a community property interest in the Property. Dkt. 15, p.12.

Although not raised by either party, the tentative ruling is that the Property is property of the estate, notwithstanding the form of title. See Cal. Fam. Code 760 (Under California law, all property acquired by a spouse during marriage is presumptively community property); Cal. Fam. Code 761(a) ("[u]nless the trust instrument . . . expressly provides otherwise, community property that is transferred in trust remains community property during the marriage . . . if the trust . . . is revocable . . ."); 11 U.S.C. 541(a)(1)&(2) (property of the estate includes "all legal or equitable interests of the debtor in property as of the commencement of the case," and "[a]ll interests of the debtor and the debtor's spouse in community property as of the commencement of the case . . ."); In re Brace, 9 Cal.5th 903 (Cal. Supreme Ct. 7/23/2020); In re Cutter, 398 B.R. 6, 19 (9th Cir. BAP 2008) (citing 11 U.S.C. 541(a)(1) and (c)(2)) ("While assets transferred to a trust do not ordinarily become property of the bankruptcy estate of the trust's trustee, powers that a debtor is a trustee of a trust may exercise for his or her own benefit become property of the estate" and "to the extent a debtor holds a beneficial interest in a trust, that beneficial interest becomes property of the estate, unless it is protected by a valid spendthrift provision").

(d) Avoidability of the Non-Debtor Lien

Lienholder argues that Debtor cannot use section 522(f) to avoid the Non-Debtor Lien because the lien secures a judgment against Debtor's Non-Filing Spouse who is not a debtor in bankruptcy nor a party to this motion. Dkt. 52, p.2:19-23. Lienholder also argues that the Non-Debtor Lien is not avoidable because Debtor's Non-Filing Spouse would be prohibited from avoiding the lien if he were to commence his own chapter 13 bankruptcy case because the debt is nondischargeable under 11 U.S.C. 523(a)(4). Id. p.

Chapter 13

9:18-10:13. In support of this argument, Lienholder relies on the non-binding case of Castle v. Parrish, 29 B.R. 869, 874 (Bankr. S.D. Ohio 1983). But Castle is inapplicable, because it involves the avoidability of a lien securing child support, which is a debt "of a kind that is specified in section 523(a)(5)," and which section 522(f)(1) unambiguously excepts from avoidance. See 11 U.S.C. 522(f)(1)(A) (. . . the debtor may avoid the fixing of a lien on an interest of the debtor in property to the extent that the lien impairs and exemption to which debtor would have been entitled under subsection (b), if such lien is – a judicial lien, other than a judicial lien that secures a debt of a kind that is specified in section 523(a)(5)") (emphasis added). Although Lienholder argues that its judgment against Debtor's Non-Filing Spouse is nondischargeable under 11 U.S.C. 523(a)(4), Rule 7001(6) (Fed. R. Bankr. P.) would require the initiation of an adversary proceeding for any determination of nondischargeability in bankruptcy. See In re Kimmel, 367 B.R. 174, 180-81 (Bankr. N.D. Cal. 2007) (reviewing procedures for nondischargeability action against non-debtor spouse).

In addition, dischargeability is not at issue. That is an "in personam" concept, but Debtor seeks an "in rem" remedy: avoiding the Non-Debtor Lien on estate Property. Accordingly, the tentative ruling is that any issues regarding the dischargeability of Lienholder's debts against the Non-Filing Spouse are not properly before this Court in this hearing.

The tentative ruling is also that on the issue of avoidability, Debtor can avoid the Non-Debtor Lien if Debtor can establish that it impairs her claimed homestead exemption. See, e.g., In re Obedian, 546 B.R. 409, 423-25 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2016) (concluding that debtor could avoid judicial lien against non-filing spouse because lien attached to community property interests as a debt incurred during marriage and, because the property was property of the estate, the lien impaired debtor's exemption).

(e) Valuation

Debtor asserts that to the extent the liens exceed the $66,761.28 equity in the Property after deducting senior liens and Debtor's homestead exemption from Debtor's alleged $935,000 fair market value, Lienholder's liens are avoidable. Dkt. 4, p. 4. Conversely, Lienholder argues that the Property is actually worth $1,315,000, and therefore do not impair Debtor's homestead exemption in any amount. Dkt. 55.

The parties should be prepared to address how they propose to resolve their disputes - e.g., (i) with an evidentiary hearing; (ii) with a court

Deny. Appearances are not required.

Proposed order: Debtor is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this Court's final ruling, subject to any changes ordered at the hearing. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

Reasons for denial: This Court's prior tentative ruling directed Debtor to submit a supplemental declaration by 9/10/20 that (i) attached a copy of the appraisal she referenced in her motion and (ii) addressed whether Debtor's valuation was the replacement value, as determined by the price a retail merchant would charge, or some other valuation method. As of the preparation of this tentative ruling, no supplemental declaration is on file. Therefore, the tentative ruling is to deny the motion.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." Pursuant to Judge Bason's COVID19 Procedures, ONLY TELEPHONIC APPEARANCES WILL BE PERMITTED until further notice. Please contact CourtCall at (888) 882-6878 to make arrangements for any telephonic appearance. There is no need to contact the Court for permission. Parties who are not represented by an attorney will be able to use CourtCall for free through 9/30/20. Current issues:

(1) Missing copy of appraisal

Debtor states that she had her car appraised at CarMax on June 10, 2020, and that a copy of that appraisal is attached to the motion as Exhibit B. Dkt. 29, p.5, para. 5.

There are no exhibits attached to the motion.

(2) Valuation method

Under 11 U.S.C. 506(a):

If the debtor is an individual in a case under chapter 7 or 13, [the] value with respect to personal property securing an allowed claim shall be determined based on the replacement value of such property as of the date of the filing of the petition ... With respect to property acquired for personal, family, or household purposes, replacement value shall mean the price a retail merchant would charge for property of that kind considering the age and condition of the property at the time value is determined. [11 U.S.C. 506(a)(2) (emphasis added)].

Debtor states that her vehicle was appraised at $4,500. Id. Debtor does not specifically state whether that appraisal value was the replacement value, as determined by the price a retail merchant would charge, or some other valuation method. But based on Debtor's declaration it appears that she has used the trade-in value for the vehicle, which does not comply with the above-quoted statutory provisions.

Docket 39

Tentative Ruling:

Grant as set forth below. Appearances are not required.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

Termination

Terminate the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1).

To the extent, if any, that the motion seeks to terminate the automatic stay in other past or pending bankruptcy cases, such relief is denied on the present record. See In re Ervin (Case No. 14-bk-18204-NB, docket no. 311).

Effective date of relief

Deny the request to waive the 14-day stay provided by FRBP 4001(a)(3) for lack of sufficient cause shown.

Co-debtor stay

Any co-debtor stay (11 U.S.C. 1301(c)) has not been shown to have any basis for any different treatment from the stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(a), so the tentative ruling is to grant the identical relief regarding any co-debtor stay.

TOYOTA MOTOR CREDIT CORPORATION
VS
DEBTOR

Docket 28

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for 9/29/20:
Appearances required.

This matter was continued at Movant's request to allow time for it to review its accounting. There is no tentative ruling, but the parties should be prepared to address (a) whether the alleged arrears have been brought current and/or (b) whether they will agree to the terms of an adequate protection order (see the debtor's response, dkt. 30).

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." If appearances are required, and you fail to appear without adequately resolving this matter by consent, then you may waive your right to be heard on matters that are appropriate for disposition at this hearing. Pursuant to Judge Bason's COVID-19 procedures, all appearances are telephonic via CourtCall at (888) 882-6878.

Docket 31

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for 9/29/20:
Appearances required.

This matter was continued to this date to allow time to determine the status of any loan modification negotiations with Debtor. There is no tentative ruling, but the parties should be prepared to provide an update on the status of those investigations.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." Instructions").

Chapter 7

This Court has reviewed the parties' joint status report (adv.dkt. 18) and the other filed documents and records in this adversary proceeding.

(B) Standard requirements

The following are Judge Bason's standard requirements for status conferences. (To the extent that the parties have already addressed these issues in their status report, they need not repeat their positions at the status conference.)

(1) Venue/jurisdiction/authority

Matters of venue, jurisdiction, and authority have been determined and/or waived or forfeited (docket number 18).

(2) Mediation

Is there is any reason why this Court should not order the non-settling parties (i.e. Plaintiff/Trustee and Defendant Salgado) to mediation before one of the volunteer mediators (not a Bankruptcy Judge), and meanwhile set the deadlines set forth below? The tentative ruling is to set a deadline of 5/5/20 for the parties to lodge a proposed mediation order (the parties are directed to use the time between now and that deadline to find a mutually agreeable mediator whose schedule can accommodate the needs of this matter; and if the parties cannot even agree on a mediator they may lodge separate orders and Judge Bason will chose among them, or issue his own order).

(3) Deadlines

This adversary proceeding has been pending since 5/10/19. Pursuant to LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B), plaintiff is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the status conference, attaching a copy of this tentative ruling or otherwise memorializing the following.

Joinder of parties/amendment of pleadings: 7/17/20 deadline.

Discovery cutoff (for completion of discovery): 7/31/20.

Expert(s) - deadline for reports: 8/7/20.

Expert(s) - discovery cutoff (if different from above): 8/14/20.

Dispositive motions to be heard no later than: 9/29/20 at 11:00 a.m.

fr. 5/5/20, 6/30/20

Docket 172

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for 9/29/20:
Appearances required.

On 7/2/20 this Court entered an order granting the motion of Pensco Trust Company ("Pensco") to compel arbitration to resolve Debtor's objection to its claim (dkt. 209). Pensco's status report (dkt. 270) states that (i) there has been no communication between Debtor and Pensco regarding arbitration and (ii) arbitration proceedings have not been instituted.

There is no tentative ruling, but Debtor should be prepared to address why this Court should not deny her objection to Pensco's proof of claim (dkt. 172) for lack of prosecution.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." Docket 6

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for 9/29/20:

Appearances are not required.

(1) Current issues

(a) Order to show cause ("OSC") re dismissal with a bar, or conversion to chapter 7, or other remedies (dkt. 133); response of the United States Trustee ("UST") (dkt. 144); response by Debtor (dkt. 146) [and additional, untimely responses, dkt.154, 157]

The tentative ruling - for the reasons stated in the OSC, the UST's response, the Procedures Order (dkt.10, 22), and in this tentative ruling - is to convert this case to chapter 7 so that the chapter 7 trustee can explore whether to (i) sell the subject property for its highest and best price, presumably with an agreed carve-out for professional fees, (ii) sell/settle the bankruptcy estate's claims against U.S. Bank, if appropriate, (iii) abandon the estate's assets to Debtor, or (iv) take other appropriate action. Alternatively, the tentative ruling is to dismiss this case, and impose a bar under 11 U.S.C. 109(g)(1) for willful failure to appear in proper prosecution of this bankruptcy case.

This Court recognizes that Debtor and her family are in an awful situation: they face the likelihood of losing their rental property through foreclosure, after a series of failures in the State Courts, while also apparently facing medical calamities and other dire circumstances. This is tragic for Debtor, and similar circumstances all too familiar in bankruptcy cases.

But Debtor has not prosecuted this bankruptcy case in any way that would lead to a realistic, good faith use of the bankruptcy system. Even at this late stage, she continues to press highly unrealistic strategies.

Debtor suggests that she may seek to employ a broker "to see if the Subject Property can be sold and the proceeds used to fund a [chapter 11] Plan" (dkt.146, p.3:23-25) (emphasis added), which might provide an "increased [sic] payout to the unsecured creditors" (id., p.3:16-17) (emphasis added), who "mainly" include (apart from possibly underwater junior lienholders) "attorneys that worked on the state court matters over the past several years and creditors related to maintenance of the Debtor's primary asset [the subject rental property]." Id., p.2:8-11. This outline of a chapter 11 plan is nothing but wishful thinking.

Selling property that is underwater will not generate any "proceeds" to "fund" a plan; and as the UST points out Debtor is losing a substantial amount of money every month, so there is no apparent source for any payment to unsecured creditors, let alone any "increased" payments.

True, Debtor hopes that, despite a string of losses in the State Courts, she might be able to pull a rabbit out of a hat by raising a new theory. But, first, Debtor cannot simply ignore the disputed lien meanwhile, and use the proceeds from selling the property to "fund" a chapter 11 plan. At best, any disputed proceeds would have to be held in a disputed claims reserve.

Second, on this record this Bankruptcy Court can only conclude that Debtor's hope of any recovery on her claims against the lienholder is a highly unlikely outcome. Debtor's claims are not a basis on which to "park" in bankruptcy, and gain the benefits of the automatic stay, despite ongoing and substantial financial losses.

Debtor's new theory, as this Bankruptcy Court understands it, is that the meets and bounds description in the deed of trust of senior lienholder U.S. Bank was not simply negligently omitted or misstated but was fraudulently altered, and that this alleged alteration would void the lien. This new theory appears very unlikely to succeed for two reasons.

First, based on what has been described to this Court, the Superior Court's reasoning was that anything to do with the meets and bounds description was immaterial. The rest of the loan documents apparently made it clear what property the parties meant to encumber, and the funds were advanced and used by Debtor, so (the Superior Court apparently ruled) there is no cognizable harm or claim. See, e.g., MTC Fin. v. Cal. Dept. of Tax & Fee Admin., 41 Cal.App.5th 742, 747 (2019) ("To be sufficient the description must be such that the land can be identified or located on the ground by use of the same.") (citation and internal quotation marks omitted; emphasis added).

Second, assuming solely for the sake of discussion that Debtor's new theory might have persuaded the Superior Court to reach a different

Parvin Jamali

Chapter 11

conclusion if that argument had been raised sooner, the problem remains that Debtor's new theory almost certainly will be precluded at this late stage. This Court takes judicial notice that Debtor's counsel admits Debtor's fear that the California Court of Appeal will bar Debtor from raising this new theory based on "collateral estoppel or res judicata," and will only accept new theories if they are based on "facts that have come to light after the [State Court's] order [sustaining the demurrer] was issued." See Shemtoub Decl. (included in dkt.147), p.4:1-10 (PDF p.13) (emphasis added).

This Court also takes judicial notice that Debtor's counsel admits that this was the reason to recommend proceeding in this Bankruptcy Court rather than before the California Courts. Id. See also Claim Obj. (dkt.139), p.4:8-11. Although Debtor's counsel vehemently denies forum shopping, the tentative ruling is that this is the very definition of forum shopping.

To be clear, this Bankruptcy Court is not actually deciding any of the issues being litigated in State Court. To the contrary, as Debtor notes, this Court has already ruled that the Rooker-Feldman doctrine prevents this Bankruptcy Court from reviewing the State Court's rulings. The point is only that, for bankruptcy purposes, the preponderance of the evidence (indeed, the clear and convincing evidence) is that Debtor lacks "a reasonable likelihood of rehabilitation" and there is a "substantial" and "continuing" loss to or diminution of the estate (the statute requires only that the loss or diminution be one or the other - either substantial or continuing - and both are established in this case). 11 U.S.C. 1112(b)(4)(A) (emphasis added).

For all of these reasons, the tentative ruling is that dismissal or conversion is appropriate under 11 U.S.C. 1112. The tentative ruling is that conversion to chapter 7 is the most appropriate disposition, because a chapter 7 trustee can prosecute this case in the ways that Debtor has failed to do and shows no signs of being willing to do, and alternatively the chapter 7 trustee can abandon the assets of the estate and leave Debtor and all creditors to their remedies outside of bankruptcy.

Finally, the tentative ruling is that the history of this case establishes that Debtor has willfully failed to appear in proper prosecution of this case within the meaning of 11 U.S.C. 109(g)(1). Therefore, if this case were to be dismissed (rather than converted), it would be appropriate to impose a 180-day bar against being a debtor in any future bankruptcy case.

In sum, although this Court recognizes how awful it is for anyone to lose their assets, that does not justify a misuse of the bankruptcy system.

Chapter 11

Debtor cannot gain the benefits of the automatic stay while incurring substantial and continuing lossess without any reasonable likelihood of rehabilitation.

Supplemental tentative ruling regarding untimely responses to OSC:

The tentative ruling is to strike the untimely responses to the OSC filed by U.S. Bank (dkt.154) and alleged secured creditor Natasha Espinal (dkt.157). Alternatively, the tentative ruling is that those responses only reinforce this Court's tentative ruling set forth above.

U.S. Bank points out that, just like Debtor's claims, Ms. Espinal's claims are the subject of a pending action in State Court. Dkt.154, pp.2:24-3:2. That reinforces this Bankruptcy Court's conclusion that the parties' disputes are properly determined in State Court.

Ms. Espinal asserts in her conclusion that the "issue before the Court is a core issue and not beholden to the bar of Rooker Feldman." [Dkt.157, p.12:5-7] She offers no analysis or citation to authority, and her bare assertion is not persuasive.

U.S. Bank also reiterates:

Although the USB DoT lacks a legal description, it nevertheless contains the correct common street address and correct Assessor's Parcel No. ("APN") for the Subject Property. (RJN ¶ 1). [U.S. Bank Response to OSC (dkt.154), p.3:25-27 (citing RJN in Adv. No. 2:20-ap-01068-NB, dkt.5)]

Throughout this bankruptcy case, nobody has disputed these assertions. This Bankruptcy Court has also verified that the Deed of Trust includes, as part of the property description, an APN (5561-007-032) and a current property address of "9219 Robin Dr., Los Angeles, California 90069" (capitalization omitted). RJN (Adv. No. 2:20-ap-01068-NB, dkt.5) p.9 (Ex.A to RJN). The street address matches the one asserted by Ms. Espinal. See dkt.157, p.13:9-10.

Under the authority cited by Debtor and Ms. Espinal themselves, this appears to be more than sufficient. "To be sufficient the description must be such that the land can be identified or located on the ground by use of the same." MTC Fin. v. Cal. Dept. of Tax & Fee Admin., 41 Cal.App.5th 742, 747 (2019) (citation and internal quotation marks omitted; emphasis added). Similarly, the California Evidence Code provides:

The party producing a writing as genuine which has been altered, or appears to have been altered, after its execution, in a part material to the question in dispute, must account for the alteration or appearance thereof. If he does that, he may give the writing in evidence, but not otherwise. [Cal. Evid. Code § 1402 (quoted in Espinal Reply (dkt.157, p.8:8-14)) (emphasis added).]

The tentative ruling is that arguments by Debtor and Ms. Espinal are entirely without merit, and that even if they had some remote chance of success that would be an insufficient basis on which to "park" in bankruptcy while attempting to litigate their claims. The supplemental papers only reinforce the conclusion that this case must be converted to chapter 7 or dismissed with a 180-day bar.

(b) Application to employ Joshua Barre and Westside Property Management, Inc. (dkt. 117, the "Management Application"), Order setting hearing (dkt. 135)

The tentative ruling is to deny the Management Application in view of the foregoing tentative ruling to convert this case to chapter 7 (or, alternatively, dismiss this case).

(c) Application to employ Law Offices of W. Derek May (dkt. 143)

The tentative ruling is to deny this employment application in view of the foregoing tentative ruling to convert this case to chapter 7 (or, alternatively, dismiss this case).

(1) Current issues

(a) Application to employ Law Offices of David Agler as special tax counsel (dkt. 363, the "Application"), statement of disinterestedness (dkt. 365), no opposition is on file

The tentative ruling is to grant the application, subject to Judge Bason's standard employment terms, pursuant to 11 U.S.C. 327(a). This Court notes that the Application seeks employment under 11 U.S.C. 327(e), but subsection "(e)" applies by its terms only to an attorney that previously "has represented the debtor." Mr. Agler's declaration states that his firm has no prior connection with Debtor (dkt. 363, p.18 & 365, p.2, para. 6). Nevertheless, there is authority that special counsel can be retained under subsection "(a)." See In re Fondiller, 15 B.R. 890, 892-93 (9th Cir. BAP 1981).

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if there are grounds to authorize employment under section 327(e), the tentative ruling is to direct Applicant to submit a supplemental declaration establishing such grounds no later than 2 days after the hearing date and reference that supplemental declaration in the proposed order.

Proposed order: Debtor is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this Court's final ruling, subject to any changes ordered at the hearing. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

#21.00 Cont'd Status Conference re: Chapter 11 Case
fr. 7/28/20, 9/1/20, 9/15/20

Docket 15

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for 9/29/20:

Appearances required by counsel for the jointly administered debtors, principal(s) of the debtors, and the Subchapter V Trustee.

(1) Current issues

(a) Combined status conferences

Eight cases are jointly administered: In re Tea Station Investment, Inc. (Case No. 2:20-bk-14175-NB) ("Investment"); In re Tea Station, Inc. (Case No. 2:20-bk-18039-NB) ("Station"); In re Tea Creations, Inc. (Case No. 2:20-bk-18041-NB) ("Creations"); In re Tea City, Inc. (Case No. 2:20-bk-18042-NB) ("City"); In re Tea Hut, Inc. (Case No. 2:20-bk-18043-NB) ("Hut"); In re Tea Station Operation, Inc. (Case No. 2:20-bk-18044-NB) ("Operation"); In re Tea Island, Inc. (Case No. 2:20-bk-18046) ("Island"); In re Tea Professor, Inc. (Case No. 2:20-bk-18047-NB) ("Professor"). For purposes of this tentative ruling, the newly filed debtors (i.e., all debtors except Investment) are collectively referred to as the "Affiliated Debtors." This status conference addresses all eight cases.

(b) Motions of Baodi Zhou for relief from automatic stay or dismissal of the Investment case (dkt.49, 50, 59); Debtor's opposition (dkt.62), reply (dkt.68)

Deny at this time, in view of Debtors' status reports (dkt.78, 79), but continue the motions to be concurrent with the continued Status Conference date (see below), so as to re-assess at that time what progress has or has not been made in this case.

(c) Motion of Sun Rich Development I, LLC ("SunRich") for relief from the automatic stay re unlawful detainer (dkt.10); Debtor's opposition (dkt.13); reply (dkt.14)

Continue to be concurrent with the continued Status Conference date (see below), provided that if Investment has not paid $7,563.58 for September by the time of this hearing, or has not paid another $7,563.58 for October by the time of the continued hearing, then SunRich may file a declaration of non-payment and lodge a proposed order terminating the automatic stay.

(d) Amended application to employ Leslie Cohen Law PC (dkt. 72), no opposition is on file

There is no tentative ruling. Applicant should be prepared to address her apparent conflict of interest in representing both Investment and Operation in view of (i) Operation's pre-petition gift to Investment to fund Applicant's retainer (dkt. 41, p.2, para. 2) and (ii) commitment to pay Investment's post-petition fees (Id., p.2, para. 3). Why was this fee arrangement not disclosed in the amended application or the statement of disinterestedness for Operation? How will Investment's fees be paid going forward in view of Operation's bankruptcy filing?

(e) Bar date for the Affiliated Debtors and joint plan deadline

Pursuant to First Amended General Order 20-01 (available at www.cacb.uscourts.gov under "Rules and Procedures"):

For chapter 11 cases filed under Subchapter V, all claims – except by governmental units – must be filed within 70 days after the date of the order for relief. Governmental units' claims for chapter 11 cases filed under Subchapter V must be filed within 180 days after the date of the order for relief." [Id., p.2:4-7 (emphasis added)]

Similarly, 11 U.S.C. 1189(b) provides:

The debtor shall file a plan not later than 90 days after the order for relief under this chapter, except that the court may extend the period if the need for the extension is attributable to circumstances for which the debtor should not justly be held accountable. [Id. (emphasis added).]

If this Court adopts those time frames, the general claims bar date for the Affiliated Debtors would be 70 days from 9/1/20, which is 11/10/20, and the deadline to file the plan would be 90 days from 9/1/20, which is 11/30/20. The tentative ruling is to issue an order memorializing those dates and continue Investment's deadline to file a plan to 11/30/20. The parties are directed to address whether this Court should adopt any different dates.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 5/4/20 and converted from chapter 7 to chapter 11 on 7/1/20 (dkt.17). The petition was amended to elect Subchapter V on 7/14/20 (dkt.27). On 9/4/20 this Court ordered joint administration with the Affiliated Debtors (dkt.64).

- (a) Bar date: (i) Investment 9/9/20 (dkt. 40; timely served, dkt. 43); Affiliated Debtors 11/10/20 (see above) (DO NOT SERVE notice yet - court will prepare orders for each of the Affiliated Debtors after the status conference).
- (b) Procedures order: dkt.18 (timely served, dkt.20) (also timely served in each jointly administered case).
- (c) Plan/Disclosure Statement*: file by 11/30/20 (see above) using the forms required by Judge Bason, or other forms if expressly authorized (DO NOT SERVE yet, except on the U.S. Trustee - this Court will set a deadline and procedures at a later time).
- (d) Continued status conference: 10/27/20 at 1:00 p.m. (no written status report required). The tentative ruling is that, although the continued status conferences will apply to all Affiliated Debtors, only the lead case will appear on this Court's calendar.

*Warning: special procedures apply (see order setting initial status conference).

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings." (a) Motions of Baodi Zhou for relief from automatic stay or dismissal (dkt.49, 50, 59); Debtor's opposition (dkt.62), no reply is on file ordered at the hearing. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

Termination

Terminate the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1).

To the extent, if any, that the motion seeks to terminate the automatic stay in other past or pending bankruptcy cases, such relief is denied on the present record. See In re Ervin (Case No. 14-bk-18204-NB, docket no. 311).

Relief notwithstanding future bankruptcy cases

Deny, without prejudice to any other types of relief granted herein (or previously granted), for the following reasons.

The motion requests requests "in rem" relief (i.e., relief applicable notwithstanding future bankruptcy cases (under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(4) and/or In re Vazquez, 580 B.R. 526 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2017), and/or In re Choong (case no. 2:14-bk-28378-NB, docket no. 31)). The tentative ruling is to deny that request because there is no evidence of multiple bankruptcy cases, unauthorized transfers of interests in property, or other acts that would amount to a scheme to delay, hinder, or defraud the Movant within the meaning of the authorities cited above.

Movant's assertion that Debtors are involved in the cannabis business - while apparently accurate in general - has not been tied to this specific property. Even if it were, Movant has not established how any activity at the property that might be illegal under federal law (with no evidence of any enforcement action by federal prosecutors) has any bearing on whether to grant in rem relief.

Effective date of relief

Grant the request to waive the 14-day stay provided by FRBP 4001(a)(3).

Co-debtor stay

Any co-debtor stay (11 U.S.C. 1301(c)) has not been shown to have any basis for any different treatment from the stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(a), so the tentative ruling is to grant the identical relief regarding any co-debtor stay.

Chapter 11

#25.00 Cont'd Status Conference re: Chapter 11 Case
fr. 7/28/20, 8/18/20, 9/1/20

Docket 1

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for 9/29/20:

Dismiss this case with a 180-day bar against being a debtor in any future bankruptcy case, for willful failure to appear in proper prosecution (11 U.S.C. 109(g)(1), 1112), and grant "in rem" relief from the automatic stay for 180 days, in favor of Vadim Kogan, for the reasons set forth below. Appearances required.

Analysis:

Dismissal with a 180-day bar is appropriate for the reasons stated (a) in the UST's motion to dismiss (dkt.39), (b) in tentative ruling for 9/1/20 (reproduced below), (c) in this Court's order to show cause ("OSC," dkt.43), (d) in the response by the United States Trustee (dkt.62) to that OSC, and (e) at all prior hearings in this case, as well as (f) based on this Court's review of the Court's records and the filed documents (through dkt.80 - the latest filed document as of the preparation of this tentative ruling).

The tentative ruling is that dismissal will moot all other matters that are on for hearing today, except the request by Vadim Kogan, as part of a motion for relief from the automatic stay with respect to 4531 Glenalbyn Drive, Los Angeles, CA 90065, for "in rem" relief for a period of 180 days. See dkt.23, p.5. Such requests typically survive dismissal. See In re Aheong, 276 B.R. 233 (9th Cir. BAP 2002). The tentative ruling is to grant such relief as follows, pursuant to the legal analysis in In re Vazquez, 580 B.R. 526 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2017) ("in rem" relief not limited to 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(4)):

If this order is duly recorded in compliance with applicable State laws governing notices of interests or liens in the property at issue, then no automatic stay shall apply to such property in any bankruptcy case purporting to affect such property and filed within 180 days after the date of entry of this order, unless otherwise ordered by the court presiding over that bankruptcy case.

Chapter 11

There is no tentative ruling, but, in connection with Mr. Kogan's request for additional relief, including "in rem" relief, the parties are directed to address the following issues. First, Debtors have presented an unauthenticated copy of purported insurance declarations. See dkt.51. But this Court ordered them to file a declaration authenticating his insurance coverage. APO (dkt.42) p.6, para.11.

Second, the parties are directed to address whether Debtors have provided adequate proof of alleged payments to the senior lienholder, and are otherwise in compliance with the APO. Third, the parties are directed to address whether the following issues establish cause for "in rem" relief.

(b) Monthly Operating Reports ("MORs")

Debtors' June and July 2020 MORs (dkt.49, 50) make a mockery of the required disclosures. First, Debtors have completely ignored this Court's repeated directions - in the "Procedures" order issued at the inception of this case (dkt.6) and repeated in the adopted tentative ruling for 7/28/20 (dkt.43, Ex.A, pp.4-5) - that "For all reporting purposes – including Monthly Operating Reports ("MORs"), disclosure statements, etc. – Debtor[s] must disclose all income, expenses, assets, and liabilities of (a) affiliated businesses ...."

(Emphasis added.)

Second, even if Debtors' MORs were limited to their personal income and expenditures (which they are not) the MORs are not credible on their face. For example, they include almost no reported food expenditures.

Third, the MORs include vague entries such as "[c]ash" ($620 on 6/24/20, per dkt.49 at PDF p.6) or "[a]djustment" ($500 on 6/29/20, per id.). Such vague entries are tantamount to hidden transactions.

Fourth, the MORs are mostly blank in places where they should not be, such as disclosures of taxes owed and paid (e.g., dkt.49 at PDF p.15) and insurance coverage for vehicles (e.g., dkt.49 at PDF p.17). The MORs offer no explanation.

(c) Amended Bankruptcy Schedule I (dkt.48); and lack of amended SOFA

At one place in this Court's Order to Show Cause ("OSC," dkt.43, Ex.A, p.3, para."(1)(c)") this Court listed one example of Debtors' inadequate financial disclosure: their Bankruptcy Schedule I listed income but no income taxes. That one example was only that: a single example. The same OSC refers to the "same problems" previously noted (id.), which include, as another example, that Debtors' SOFA lists $0 in income from any source for the past several years, which appears on its face not to be credible. See dkt.43, Ex.A, p.4, para."(1)(b)."

Despite owning a complex series of multi-million dollar businesses (see dkt.46, last page), Debtors' amended Bankruptcy Schedule I (dkt.48, at PDF pp.9-10) lists only $7,666/mo. of salary for Mr. Sergio Tellez, much reduced from his prior reported income. There is still no line item specifically disclosing any income taxes on that salary - instead there is a lump sum $2,300 described as "30% of gross [income] put aside for taxes, medicare, SSA." Id.

In addition, Ms. Roseanna Tellez is listed as having $0 income despite being described as an "Administrative Assistant" at Spliffin Group Inc. for the last 6 months; Debtors purport to have $0 income from any property or business (dkt.48 at PDF p.10, line 8a); and they claim $0 income from any interest or dividends (id., line 8b). In addition, Debtors have not filed any amended SOFA.

(d) Order to show cause ("OSC," dkt. 43)

The tentative ruling is that, although Debtors nominally have filed most of the documents required by the OSC (see dkt. 46-50), their financial disclosures are a complete sham, for the reasons set forth above. The tentative ruling is that Debtors have willfully failed to appear in proper prosecution of this case, within the meaning of 11 U.S.C. 109(g)(1), and have misrepresented facts, unfairly manipulated the Bankruptcy Code, filed their bankruptcy petition for improper and inequitable purposes of delaying and harassing creditors; and have engaged in egregious behavior as described above.

The tentative ruling is to dismiss this case with a permanent bar against being debtors in any future bankruptcy case, unless this Court for cause shown were to lift that bar after notice to all parties in interest in this case and a hearing. In addition, the tentative ruling is to include a concurrent bar under 11 U.S.C. 109(g)(1) (for the first 180-days of the permanent bar). See 11 U.S.C. §§ 105(a), 349(a), 1112(b); In re Glover, 537 Fed.Appx. 741 (9th Cir. 2013) (affirming dismissal with a five-year bar to refiling under 11 U.S.C. 105(a)); In re Leavitt, 171 F.3d 1219 (9th Cir. 1999) (affirming dismissal with prejudice based on finding of bad faith, considering whether debtor misrepresented facts, unfairly manipulated Code, or otherwise filed his petition or plan in inequitable manner; debtor's history of filings and dismissals; whether the debtor intended to defeat state court litigation; and whether egregious behavior is present).

(e) Alternative grounds for dismissal with bar

The record before this Court is that much of Debtors' business involves cannabis, which is illegal under federal law. Although that fact does not necessarily create a bar that would prevent Debtors from reorganizing their finances at all in bankruptcy, at the very least Debtors would have had to pay special attention to careful disclosures of their finances and operations, and show what steps they are taking toward coming into compliance with nonbankruptcy laws, or divesting themselves of non-compliant businesses, or taking other steps to make appropriate use of the bankruptcy system. See, e.g., 28 U.S.C. 959(b); In re Burton, 610 B.R. 633 (9th Cir. BAP 2020); In re Olson, 2018 WL 989263 (9th Cir. BAP 2/5/2018). But Debtors have done none of these things, and as set forth above they have flouted the required financial disclosures.

In sum, Debtors' involvement in businesses that are illegal under federal law, and their lack of care in dealing with the associated legal and financial issues, are additional reasons to impose the above bars against being debtors in any future bankruptcy case.

(f) Starting date for bar

The tentative ruling is that the bars described above should commence from the time when this tentative ruling is first posted (8/31/20 just prior to 9:15am).

(g) Notice

This Court notes that Debtors' counsel did not comply with this Court's direction to serve the OSC on all parties in interest. See OSC (dkt.43), p.4, para.4. Nevertheless, the tentative ruling is that all parties in interest have received adequate notice pursuant to this Court's Procedures order, which was served on all parties in interest. See dkt.6, 16.

Docket 1

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for 9/29/20:

Appearances required by counsel for the debtor.

(1) Current issues

(a) Debtor's Disclosure Statement (dkt. 83) and Plan (dkt. 82), PHH Mortgage Corporation's limited objection (dkt. 91), Debtor's amended Disclosure Statement (dkt. 96) and amended Plan (dkt. 95, "AmPI"), proof of service of solicitation package (dkt. 103), ballot summary (dkt. 104), no opposition is on file

As a preliminary matter, even though there is no opposition on file, this Bankruptcy Court has an independent obligation to review the Plan and Disclosure Statement for compliance with 11 U.S.C. 1129. Based on that review, the tentative ruling is to approve the Disclosure Statement on a final basis and confirm the Plan.

The starting point is Debtor's ballot summary (dkt. 104). Debtor has one consenting impaired class (Class 2A), and two classes that did not vote (Classes 2B and 4A), and Debtor requests "cramdown" (confirmation with fewer than all classes accepting, per 11 U.S.C. 1129(b)). One of the cramdown requirements is the "absolute priority rule" of section 1129(b)(2)(B)(ii), which essentially provides that Debtor cannot receive or retain any property - e.g., Debtor's rental property - "on account of" her prepetition interest in that property. The corollary is that Debtor can receive or retain property on account of "new value," and, as stated in the posted "Procedures of Judge Bason" (available at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) (the "Procedures"): new value must be (among other things) "reasonably equivalent to the value or interest received" (In re Bonner Mall P'ship, 2 F.3d 899, 908 (9th Cir. 1993) (citations omitted)) but by definition $0 is "reasonably equivalent" to whatever residual value exists in fully encumbered property (which is what debtors often retain).

The tentative ruling is that, because Debtor's rental property appears to be fully encumbered under the Plan, the "reasonably equivalent" element of the new value test is satisfied in this case. The Procedures go on to state:

[In addition,] new value must be "necessary" and "substantial" (id.), which requires whatever cash is "necessary" to the success of the proposed reorganization, as opposed to a "token" cash infusion. In re Snyder, 967 F.2d 1126, 1131-32 (7th Cir. 1992) (cited in Bonner Mall, 2 F.3d at 908). When a debtor is devoting all or almost all disposable income to the plan then it may be "necessary" for feasibility (§ 1129(a)(11)) to have a cash infusion to cover the type of unanticipated emergency expenses that typically arise, and Judge Bason has accepted this as "substantial" new value even if it does not increase the dividend to unsecured creditors. ... See also In re Ambanc La Mesa L.P., 115 F.3d 650, 656-657 (9th Cir. 1997) (not deciding among various ways to measure if contribution is "substantial," but holding that $32,000 contribution, less than 0.5% of unsecured debt, was de minimus as a matter of law).

The tentative ruling is that, for analogous reasons, Debtor's Plan satisfies the new value requirement. First, part of the funding for Debtor's Plan is "new" in that it is not subject to the absolute priority rule: although future earnings do not count as "new value," that is different from Debtor's cash in the bank accumulated from postpetition earnings, which are not counted for purposes of the absolute priority rule. See 11 U.S.C. 1129(b)(2)(B)(ii) (exception providing that individual debtor "may retain property included in the estate under section 1115 ...."). Despite Debtor's right to "retain" such property under section 1129(b)(2)(B)(ii), she proposes to use such cash to make $9,325.00 in payments on the Effective Date. See Disclosure Statement (dkt.96), Ex.C (lines 1 & 11a).

Second, the tentative ruling is that this cash infusion is "necessary" because otherwise there are insufficient funds to make the payments required on the Effective Date under the Bankruptcy Code. See 11 U.S.C. 1129(a)(9)(A) &(a)(12).

Third, the tentative ruling is that the $9,325 is "substantial" for two alternative reasons. For one thing, Debtor's payment is approximately 4.4% of unsecured claims ($9,325 / $212,238.88 (from dkt.95, Ex.A, Class 4A) = 4.39%). Although that percentage is not huge, it is meaningful, and not de minimus as a matter of law. Cf. Ambanc La Mesa L.P., 115 F.3d 650, 656-657. Alternatively, the tentative ruling is that comparing the dollar amount of new value to general unsecured claims is not the only way to measure what is "substantial," and $9,325 is very substantial in comparison to (a) Debtor's modest earnings despite working two jobs, (b) Debtor's very modest budget, including living in a rental apartment for only $1,000 per month (while reserving $300 per month for "miscellaneous" contingencies), and (c) Debtor's modest retention of property (she is not proposing to retain a mansion, for example). To illustrate the last point, consider a hypothetical situation in which a debtor proposes to retain property worth $10,000 and contributes $10,000 in new value. It is hard to conceive how that could be a violation of the absolute priority rule, even if $10,000 were some tiny fraction of creditors' claims.

For all of these reasons the tentative ruling is that Debtor's proposed Plan satisfied the absolute priority rule. In addition, based on this Court's review of Debtor's proposed budget and monthly operating reports, the tentative ruling is that her Plan meets the "feasibility" requirements of 11 U.S.C. 1129(a)(11). Finally, the tentative ruling is that Debtor's Plan meets the "fair and equitable" requirements (11 U.S.C. 1129(b)), the "good faith" requirement (11 U.S.C. 1129(a)(3)), and all the other requirements for confirmation.

Proposed orders: Debtor is directed to lodge two proposed orders via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date: (i) an order approving the Disclosure Statement on a final basis, and (ii) an order confirming the Plan and setting a post-confirmation status conference on the date set forth below, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this Court's final ruling, subject to any changes ordered at the hearing. In addition, the confirmation order should include the language required by the local rules regarding post-confirmation status reports and the effect of any future conversion. See LBR 3020-1(b), 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

the continued status conference (see below). The tentative ruling is also to sustain PHH Mortgage's limited objection and required Debtor to attach the parties' plan treatment stipulation to the plan and incorporate its provisions by reference.

(i) Debtor's projected income is inconsistent with Debtor's actual monthly income

Debtor's projected personal income from employment is $4,314.46 (dkt. 83, Ex. 1), but Debtor's June Monthly Operating Report ("MOR") only reflects $2,824.16 in net monthly income from Vons (dkt. 92, p.1, line 4). Debtor's Amended Schedule I lists income from a second job at "City of Pomona" which provided Debtor with an additional $1,750.99 in monthly income (dkt. 28, p.5, line 8h). Debtor should be prepared to address whether she is still receiving income from the City of Pomona and what impact any loss in income from that source has on Debtor's plan projections and/or the feasibility of the Plan.

(ii) Overly inflated projected expenses

Debtor's projected monthly expenses includes a line item for $500 for "Cable/Internet" (dkt. 83, Ex.1), which appears to be excessive and is significantly higher than the $200 figure this Court authorized in Debtor's Budget Motion (dkt. 57, p. 7). Debtor should be prepared to address why this expense is projected to be so much higher and whether it is appropriate for her to spend that much on cable and internet each month when that money could be used to increase distributions to creditors.

(b) Outstanding UST fees

Debtor's June MOR reflects that UST fees for Q2 are outstanding in the amount of $325 (dkt. 92, p.11). Debtor is cautioned that failure to pay these fees by the payment deadline may result in adverse consequences.

Docket 49

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for 9/29/20:

Appearances required.

(1) Current issues

(a) Debtor's small business chapter 11 plan, as amended ("Plan," dkt. 246, 258, 259, 260, 270, 271); Debtor's requests to set hearing on confirmation etc., as amended ("Plan Hearing Request," dkt. 247, 272), Order denying plan hearing request without prejudice (dkt. 304)

As of the preparation of this tentative ruling, the docket does not appear to reflect that Debtor has resolved the issues set forth in this Court's 9/21/20 order (dkt. 304, p.3:1-12). Accordingly, the tentative ruling is to continue Debtor's Plan Hearing Request to be concurrent with the continued Status Conference set forth below.

(b) SubChapter V Trustee's motion for turnover of Laurel Property (dkt. 280), Debtor's opposition (dkt. 285), Michael Tremblay's response (dkt. 291), Interim Turnover Order (dkt. 300)

There is no tentative ruling. This Court's order (dkt.300, p.2:16-19) set a deadline of 9/25/20 at noon for the parties to file any declarations regarding whether Debtor and her parents have complied with the Interim Turnover Order. As of the preparation of this tentative ruling, that deadline has not yet expired, so this Court will review any declarations prior to the hearing and review the issues with the parties at the hearing.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 11/20/19, converted from chapter 13 to chapter 11 on 1/2/20, and designated by Debtor as a Subchapter V case on 3/2/20 (dkt.128).

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for 9/29/20:

Appearances required.

(1) Current issues

(a) Budget motion (dkt. 51), Yunuen Campos' opposition (dkt. 57), Debtor's supplemental declarations (dkt. 71), Campos' response (dkt. 92), interim order (dkt. 101), Debtor's reply (dkt. 103)

The tentative ruling is to grant the Budget motion on a further interim basis (except as modified in section 1(b) below) and set a further continued hearing concurrent with the status conference (see below).

(b) Insider compensation, Debtor's supplemental declaration (dkt. 71), Ms. Campos' response (dkt. 92), Debtor's reply (dkt. 103)

The tentative ruling is to authorize Debtor to continue to pay Ms. Howerton monthly compensation of $6,000, on an interim basis, and set a further continued hearing concurrent with the status conference (see below) pending additional evidence from Debtor's accountant.

(c) Motion to assume and enforce settlement agreement (dkt. 67, the "Assumption Motion"), supporting declarations & request for judicial notice (dkt. 68, 69, 70) Ms. Campos' opposition (dkt. 89, 91) & evidentiary objections (dkt. 90), Debtor's response to evidentiary objections (dkt. 104) & reply (dkt. 105), Ms. Campos' evidentiary objections (dkt. 106)

This Court anticipates issuing its memorandum decision in advance of the hearing adopting this Court's tentative ruling for 9/15/20 (posted below) and expanding this Court's analysis in response to the arguments set forth on the record at that hearing.

(d) Yunuen Campos' motion for relief from the automatic stay (the "R/S

(i) Pre-petition accounts receivable

In view of this Court's forthcoming memorandum decision on the Assumption Motion, the tentative ruling is to authorize Ms. Campos to deposit any pre-petition accounts receivable checks currently in her possession, to be credited against any amounts Debtor must pay to cure and assume the mediation term sheet, upon the entry of a final non-appealable order approving the Assumption Motion. See dkt. 114, p.2:19-25.

(ii) Post-petition accounts receivable

The tentative ruling is that Ms. Campos has the burden to establish that she has a valid perfected interest in post-petition accounts receivable and she has not satisfied that burden. This Court does not find Ms. Campos' reliance on In re Advanced Biomedical, Inc., 547 B.R. 337 (2016), aff'd 2016 WL 7188651 (9th Cir. BAP, Dec. 2, 2016) to be particularly helpful because that case only addresses pre-petition accounts receivable and the trial court did not need to address whether its analysis would be the same for any post-petition accounts receivable (such as, for example, whether, 11 U.S.C. 552 cuts off a pre-petition assignment order) because the value of the property securing the judgment creditor's lien exceeded the amount of the debt.

The tentative ruling is further that the underlying policies and principles of the Bankruptcy Court do not support Ms. Campos' reading of section 708.510 (Cal. Code Civ. Proc.) and the combination of the Supremacy Clause of the Constitution (Article VI, Clause 2), and 11 U.S.C. 362, 541, 552 et cetera appear to support the conclusion that an individual chapter 11 Debtor's post-petition earnings belong to the estate, notwithstanding the existence of any pre-petition assignment order(s). Therefore, the tentative ruling is that Ms. Campos is not entitled to any post-petition accounts receivable.

Proposed orders: Debtor is directed to lodge proposed orders on each of the following motions via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling to the proposed order on the R/S Motion, thereby incorporating it as this Court's final ruling, subject

(b) Insider compensation, Debtor's supplemental declaration (dkt. 71), Ms. Campos' response (dkt. 92), Debtor's reply (dkt. 103)

The tentative ruling is to authorize Debtor to pay Ms. Howerton monthly compensation of $6,000, retroactive to July 2020, on an interim basis, and set a further continued hearing concurrent with the status conference (see below) pending additional evidence from Debtor's accountant.

(c) Motion to assume and enforce settlement agreement (dkt. 67, the "Assumption Motion"), supporting declarations & request for judicial notice (dkt. 68, 69, 70) Ms. Campos' opposition (dkt. 89, 91) & evidentiary objections (dkt. 90), Debtor's response to evidentiary objections (dkt. 104) & reply (dkt. 105), Ms. Campos' evidentiary objections (dkt. 106)

The tentative ruling is conditionally to grant the Assumption Motion in part, without any evidentiary hearing, for the following reasons. (i) This Bankruptcy Court has "arising under" jurisdiction. (ii) The mediation term sheet lacked agreement on an essential term to make it noncontingent - the dollar amount and other terms to be offered by Ms. Campos to settle with a third party - and Debtor has not established that this contingency can be eliminated by any judicial determination of a dollar amount and other terms that Ms. Campos allegedly "should" have offered to comport with the duty of good faith and fair dealing. (iii) Nevertheless, as of the date of the bankruptcy petition the conditional agreement embodied in the mediation term sheet still existed; and if Ms. Campos is not required to pay anything more than her highest offer to settle the Fuller matters then, to that extent, Debtor's theory of good faith and fair dealing can apply, such that she could not deny that the condition is satisfied. Accordingly, if Debtor is willing to absorb the cost of settling the Fuller matters above what Ms. Campos previously agreed to pay, then the mediation term sheet is enforceable - otherwise not.

(i) Jurisdiction

The parties dispute whether this Bankruptcy Court has jurisdiction.

Chapter 11

See 28 U.S.C. 1334. In addition, this Court has an independent duty to consider its own jurisdiction. In re AWTR Liquidation Inc., 547 B.R. 831, 833 (2016).

Ms. Campos argues that this Court lacks jurisdiction under Kokkonen v. Guardian Life Ins. Co. of Am., 511 U.S. 375 (1994). Ms. Campos cites a decision in which a Bankruptcy Court held that, under Kokkonen, it lacked post-dismissal jurisdiction over a settlement allegedly agreed to during the bankruptcy case. In re Hanks, 182 B.R. 930 (Bankr. ND Ga. 1995).

One of Debtor's arguments is that Kokkonen includes an exception when the federal court's dismissal order retains jurisdiction. It is true that this Bankruptcy Court's dismissal order included language retaining jurisdiction. On the one hand, the tentative ruling is that this language would not be broad enough to adjudicate a run-of-the-mill contract dispute (if that were all that is at issue).

The dismissal order provides that this Court "retains jurisdiction on all issues involving sanctions [and other irrelevant grounds] ... and to any additional extent provided by law." Dismissal Order (Ex.2 to Reply, dkt.105, at PDF pp.15-17) (emphasis added). The problem for Debtor is that, under Kokkonen, the "additional extent provided by law" does not include ordinary post-dismissal disputes over alleged settlements.

On the other hand, the tentative ruling is that Debtor's alternative argument is correct: the mediation term sheet, just like any other purported contract sought to be assumed, is subject to this Bankruptcy Court's jurisdiction. See dkt.105, p.7:5-12. Any ability to assume the contract arises under the Bankruptcy Code (11 U.S.C. 365), and an essential element of assumption is the determination whether an assumable contract exists. In other words, this is not just a run-of-the-mill contract dispute: it is part and parcel of issues that arise under section 365.

Any contrary ruling would not make sense. Motions to assume executory contracts and unexpired leases could not be litigated at all if Bankruptcy Courts lacked jurisdiction to address the inevitable subsidiary issues: everything from whether a contract was formed to whether it was terminated prepetition, who breached it, what damages have been incurred, whether those damages amount to penalties that need not be cured, etc., etc. See generally AWTR, 547 B.R. 831, 833-37 (discussing "arising under" jurisdiction and authority, and Bankruptcy Courts' ability to determine issues necessarily addressed in determining issues arising under the Bankruptcy

For these reasons, the tentative ruling is that this Bankruptcy Court has subject matter jurisdiction.

(ii) The mediation term sheet lacked agreement on an essential term to make it noncontingent - the dollar amount to be paid by Ms. Campos to settle with a third party

Debtor argues that the mediation term sheet contains all of the essential terms of the parties' agreement, is signed by both parties, and was intended to be a binding (albeit conditional) agreement. Dkt. 67, pp.14:12-17:9. The tentative ruling is that Debtor has established prima facie evidence of all of those things, but that as long as the contingency exists the agreement cannot be enforced.

Paragraph 10 of the mediation term sheet (id., Ex.1, at PDF p.37) states in relevant part that "[t]he settlement is contingent upon Campos' negotiating a settlement with Bertram Fuller ...." (Emphasis added.) Ms. Campos argues that this is a condition precedent that has not been satisfied, which renders the mediation term sheet unenforceable. Dkt. 89, p.14:9-18. Debtor counters that, regardless whether paragraph 10 is a condition precedent or (as Debtor argues) a condition subsequent, Ms. Campos failed to use good faith to fulfill the contingency. Dkt. 105, pp.2:6-6:16.

The parties devote considerable time and effort to addressing whether or not Ms. Campos attempted to settle in good faith. The tentative ruling is that this is not a justiciable question.

Debtor has not cited any legal authority that this Bankruptcy Court can and should determine whether a party to a settlement agreement, which is itself conditioned on settling with a third party, acted in good faith in deciding how many dollars to offer that third party and any other settlement terms. Nor is this Bankruptcy Court aware of such authority.

To the contrary, paragraph 10 appears to be an agreement to agree, which is generally unenforceable. The fact that the issue reserved for future agreement was the terms of a settlement with a third party only makes matters worse.

Under Debtor's theory, he and Ms. Campos had an agreement that was contingent on Ms. Campos' negotiation of a future agreement with a third party in an unspecified dollar amount, to be paid over an unspecified period of time, with unspecified other terms and conditions. Without having set forth in the mediation term sheet the range of terms that Ms. Campos could agree to, Debtor now asks this Bankruptcy Court to determine what range he and Ms. Campos alleged would have agreed to, had they finished negotiating every term of the mediation term sheet, under the implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing.

The tentative ruling is that this is the very definition of an agreement to agree. Such amorphous agreements are unenforceable - at least, until the contingency is removed. See, e.g., City of L.A. v. Superior Court of L.A. Cnty., 51 Cal.2d 423, 433 (1959) ("The general rule is that if an 'essential element' of a promise is reserved for future agreement of both parties, the promise gives rise to no legal obligation until such future agreement is made") (citation omitted).

Alternatively, even if paragraph 10 of the mediation term sheet were not an agreement to agree, the same principles should apply. Just as agreements to agree are too amorphous to be enforceable, there is no yardstick by which this Bankruptcy Court can determine whether Ms. Campos did or did not act in good faith by not offering a higher dollar amount, or sooner payment, or other terms.

In sum, Debtor has not established that the mediation term sheet is enforceable, as long as the contingency in paragraph 10 continues to exist. But that last clause is important because Debtor apparently has settled part of the Fuller matters, and has an option to settle the rest (dkt. 67, p.22:19-26).

(iii) If the contingency is removed then the mediation term sheet becomes enforceable

As of the date of the bankruptcy petition the conditional agreement embodied in the mediation term sheet still existed. Therefore, unlike a situation in which a contract has terminated prepetition, there is something to be assumed.

True, as Ms. Campos points out, neither Debtor nor she performed the other terms of the mediation term sheet, such as Debtors obligation to make monthly payments. But that is the whole point of section 365: debtors in bankruptcy can cure defaults (even many defaults that could not be cured outside of bankruptcy).

As noted above, "[t]he general rule is that if an 'essential element' of a promise is reserved for future agreement of both parties, the promise gives rise to no legal obligation until such future agreement is made." City of L.A., 51 Cal.2d 423, 433 (1959) (emphasis added). Therefore, for example, if Ms. Campos were to have reached a settlement of the Fuller matters then, at that moment, the mediation term sheet would have become enforceable.

But the equivalent of that outcome can still happen. Consider what would happen if Debt has simply settled the Fuller matters (rather than purchasing the judgments/claims). In that event, the contingency would have become moot, thereby eliminating Ms. Campos' objection to the enforceability of the mediation term sheet.

The tentative ruling is that Debtor need not go that far. There is evidence that Ms. Campos offered $60,000 to settle the Fuller matters (see dkt. 89, p.8) That changes the amorphous state of affairs that existed when the parties signed the mediation term sheet. The tentative ruling is that any refusal by Ms. Campos now to apply that same $60,000 that she offered before to settle the Fuller matters would be a violation of the covenant of good faith and fair dealing. In that situation, the tentative ruling is that Ms. Campos has not overcome Debtor's arguments that the mediation term sheet will be a curable, assumable, enforceable contract.

In other words, the tentative ruling is that if Debtor is willing to absorb the cost of settling the Fuller matters above the $60,000 that Ms. Campos previously agreed to pay, then Ms. Campos has not adequately rebutted Debtor's arguments in favor of granting the Assumption Motion. But, if Debtor is unwilling to absorb that cost, then the parties are left with an agreement to agree, which is unenforceable.

(iv) Conclusion as to the Assumption Motion

There is no precedent of which this Bankruptcy Court is aware for holding a trial to assess Ms. Campos' "good faith" in exploring settlement of the Fuller matters. Moreover, as a practical matter, doing so would be highly impractical.

Presumably this Court not only would have to take evidence regarding the underlying merits of Ms. Campos' disputes with Bertram Fuller, but also would have to take evidence on the "meta-issue" of whether, based on Ms. Campos' subjective beliefs as to those merits, she did or did not make or receive settlement offers in "good faith." More precisely, this Court would have to determine whether an offer of $X over Y months with Z contingencies was too little, but $Z' over X' months with Y' contingencies would be enough to constitute "good faith." The process just described would include layers of expensive litigation and uncertainty.

The tentative ruling is that such litigation over Ms. Campos' good faith is not legally warranted, not practical, and not necessary. Rather, applying California precedent cited above regarding agreements to agree, Debtor can either hold Ms. Campos to her highest and best offer and thereby remove the contingency in paragraph 10, or Debtor can elect not to do so. In the latter event, the parties will be left with an unenforceable agreement (and they can continue litigating as before, or Debtor can explore other options).

(d) Yunuen Campos' motion for relief from the automatic stay (the "R/S Motion," dkt. 22), Debtor's opposition (dkt. 34), notice of continued hearing (dkt. 35) & proof of service (dkt. 36), Ms. Campos' reply (dkt. 55) and evidentiary objections (dkt. 56), Ms. Campos' supplemental briefing (dkt. 66, 82), Debtor's supplemental briefing (dkt. 71, 72), scheduling order (dkt. 88), Ms. Campos' second supplemental reply (dkt. 102)

The tentative ruling is to direct Debtor to continue making monthly transfers of $10,000 into Counsel's client-trust account, subject to Debtor's proposed procedures for a reduction in that amount in the event of unforeseen circumstances. The tentative ruling is to continue the matter with respect to Ms. Campos' interest in pre- and post-petition accounts receivable, to be heard concurrent with the continued status conference (see below), with a deadline of 9/18/20 for Debtor's response to Ms. Campos' second supplemental reply.

The foregoing tentative ruling presumes Ms. Campos' consent to a further extension of the time period in 11 U.S.C. 362(e). Alternatively, if Ms. Campos does not wish to consent, she is directed to say so at the hearing, and this Court will address whether her second supplemental reply constitutes implied consent and, if not, make a final ruling on the R/S Motion.

(b) Patient care ombudsman motion (dkt. 28), proof of service (dkt. 37), no opposition is on file

The tentative ruling is to grant the motion.

(c) Debtor's motion for leave to file documents under seal (dkt. 41), Yunuen Campos' response (dkt. 44), Debtor's reply (dkt. 45), order setting hearing (dkt. 47)

Debtor moves for an order authorizing him to file under seal a motion authorizing the assumption of a mediation term sheet between Debtor and Yuneun Campos. Ms. Campos objects to the admissibility of the mediation term sheet on the grounds that it is protected by the evidence exclusion provision pursuant to California Evidence Code section 1119. The tentative ruling is to grant the motion as follows.

(i) Applicable law

"Privileges are narrowly construed, because they impede the full and fair discovery of truth." Yeager v. Yeager, 2008 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 74245, at *3 (E.D. Cal. Sep. 25, 2008) (citing *Weil v. Inc., 498 F.3d 972, 974 (9th Cir. 2007) (citing Fed. R. Evid. 501; Breed v. U.S. Dist. Court for the N. Dist. Of Cal., 542 F.2d 1114, 1115 (9th Cir. 1976)).

"State contract law governs how settlement agreements are construed and enforced, even if the underlying cause of action is federal." Karubian v. Kaiser Ventures, LLC, 2018 U.S. Dist. Two relevant provisions apply. First, California Evidence Code § 1119 states, in relevant part:

Except as otherwise provided in this chapter: (a) No evidence of anything said or any admission made . . . in the course of, or pursuant to, a mediation . . . is admissible or subject to discovery, and disclosure of the evidence shall not be compelled, in any . . . noncriminal proceeding (b) No writing . . . prepared in the course of, or pursuant to, a mediation . . . is admissible or subject to discovery, and disclosure of the writing shall not be compelled in any . . . noncriminal proceeding . . . (c) All communications . . . by and between participants in the course of a mediation . . . shall remain confidential.

Second, California Evidence Code § 1123 states, in relevant part:

A written settlement agreement prepared in the course of, or pursuant to, a mediation, is not made inadmissible, or protected from disclosure . . . if the agreement is signed by the settling parties and any of the following conditions are satisfied: (a) The agreement provides that it is admissible or subject to disclosure, or words to that effect. (b) The agreement provides that it is enforceable or binding or words to that effect.

This Court notes that the foregoing provisions are also consistent with the Rules 6.1 and 6.5 set forth in Appendix III of the Local Bankruptcy Rules, governing mediations in this district.

As the party asserting the privilege, Ms. Campos bears the burden of demonstrating that the exception set forth in California Evidence Code § 1123 do not apply. The tentative ruling is that Ms. Campos has not carried that burden. In support of her opposition, Ms. Campos simply concludes that "the requirements of California Evidence Code are not met to render any of the exhibits admissible" and "[t]here is no doubt the Mediation Term Sheet is inadmissible and confidential." Dkt. 44, p.3: 5-6 & 20-21. This is not sufficient.

Alternatively, the tentative ruling is that authorizing the Debtor to file the Mediation Term Sheet under seal will enable this Court to determine whether an exception to California Evidence Code § 1123 applies while still protecting the contents of the document from public disclosure.

(d) Yunuen Campos' motion for relief from the automatic stay (dkt. 22), Debtor's opposition (dkt. 34), notice of continued hearing (dkt. 35) & proof of service (dkt. 36), Ms. Campos' reply (dkt. 55) and evidentiary objections (dkt. 56)

(a) Motion of the U.S. Trustee ("UST") to dismiss (dkt. 65, "MTD"), debtor's opposition (dkt. 86), UST's reply (dkt. 168, 170), debtor's response (dkt. 179), debtor's status report (dkt. 180), stipulation and order re pre-petition bank account (dkt. 212, 221)

There is no tentative ruling. The outcome of this motion may depend on whether this Court confirms Debtor's amended plan.

(c) Debtor's Amended plan (dkt. 313) (see also Disclosure Statement, dkt. 311), order setting confirmation hearing (dkt. 317), proof of service of solicitation package (dkt. 324), Debtor's confirmation brief (dkt. 329), ballot summary (dkt. 330), objection of Post Acute Care Partners, Inc. ("Post") (dkt. 332), objection of Shiv Raj & Saroj Gupta ("Guptas") (dkt. 333), Debtor's Reply (dkt. 335)

The tentative ruling is that (x) Debtor has adequately addressed Post's objection; (y) Debtor has adequately addressed the non-materiality of her proposed minor modifications to the Plan (i.e., re-balloting is not required); and (z) Debtor has provided sufficient arguments and evidence to overrule most of the Guptas' objections. The Guptas' objections that Debtor has not yet sufficiently addressed are explained below.

(A) Best Interest Test (11 U.S.C. 1129(a)(7)): Debtor's calculations require an adjustment, but even with an adjustment the Guptas have not rebutted Debtor's showing that the Plan satisfies the best interest test

Chapter 11

The tentative ruling is that Debtor's alternative liquidation analysis (dkt.335, pp.11-12) should be adjusted to account for the possibility that the secured claim asserted by Patch Of Land ("Patch" or "POL") might be reduced to some extent, based on objections to default interest and other claims by the bankruptcy estate. But the tentative ruling - based on this Court's familiarity with numerous disputes in other cases regarding default rates of interest and other charges - is that the possibility of such reduction, discounted to present value, is less than shortfall in funds that would be available in any hypothetical chapter 7 case. See Debtor's Reply (dkt.335), p.12. See generally, e.g., East-West Bank v. Altadena Lincoln Crossing, LLC, 598 B.R. 633 (C.D. Cal. 2019)

The tentative ruling is that a precise dollar estimate is not required because the shortfall is hundreds of thousands of dollars; the discount to Patch's claim would not be greater than that. In other words, even with the adjustment to Patch's claim as described above, there would be $-0- for general unsecured creditors in a hypothetical chapter 7 case.

Alternatively, assuming for the sake of discussion that any adjustments to Debtor's liquidation analysis would be enough to provide any projected recovery for nonpriority unsecured creditors, that in itself does not establish that liquidation would be in the best interests of creditors. Rather, the issue would require further evidence because any such projected chapter 7 recovery still would have to exceed the projected recovery under Debtor's proposed Plan, and the latter requires more evidence (as noted below).

(B) Adequate means for implementation (11 U.S.C. 1123(a)(5)) and feasibility (11 U.S.C. 1129(a)(11))

Debtor is directed to address whether she has evidence of sufficient loan commitments and/or gift commitments from family and friends to make her proposed commitments in the Plan adequate and feasible. See, e.g., Debtor's Reply (dkt.335), p.14:2-8. The parties are directed to address whether any evidentiary hearing will be necessary to address the sufficiency of such evidence, and the possible scheduling of any such evidentiary hearing and any related matters.

(2) Deadlines/dates. This case was filed on 7/17/19.

(a) Bar date: 12/20/19, dkt. 116 (timely served, dkt. 120)

(b) Procedures order: dkt.9 (timely served, dkt.18)

U.S. BANK NATIONAL ASSOCIATION

Docket 60

Tentative Ruling:

Grant as set forth below. Appearances are not required.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

Termination

Terminate the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1).

To the extent, if any, that the motion seeks to terminate the automatic stay in other past or pending bankruptcy cases, such relief is denied on the present record. See In re Ervin (Case No. 14-bk-18204-NB, docket no. 311).

Effective date of relief

Deny the request to waive the 14-day stay provided by FRBP 4001(a)(3) for lack of sufficient cause shown.

Co-debtor stay

Any co-debtor stay (11 U.S.C. 1301(c)) has not been shown to have any basis for any different treatment from the stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(a), so the tentative ruling is to grant the identical relief regarding any co-debtor stay.

Attorney fees

Movant requests that its attorney fees be allowed. The tentative ruling is that this Court will not express any view regarding any attorney fee request because (a) in any nonjudicial foreclosure action, attorney fee issues typically are not decided by a court (and in a judicial foreclosure it is the State Court, not this Bankruptcy Court, that would determine attorney fee issues), (b) a motion for relief from the automatic stay is not the proper vehicle to adjudicate attorney fees in this Bankruptcy Court, and (c) this hearing does not involve any claim objection or other proceeding that might properly present that issue for this Court's determination.

DEBTOR

Docket 31

Tentative Ruling:

Grant in part and continue in part to 10/27/20 at 10:00 a.m. as set forth below.
Appearances are not required on 10/6/20.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this Court's final ruling, subject to any changes ordered at the hearing. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

Key documents reviewed (in addition to motion papers): Debtor's opposition (dkt. 35), Movant's reply (dkt. 43) & request for judicial notice (dkt. 44)

Analysis: The tentative ruling is that the reasons stated in Movant's papers are entirely persuasive, with one exception: In Movant's reply (dkt. 43, p.4:16-19) Movant suggests that a sale the subject property or some equivalent use of the property to generate cash would be required to make such property "necessary for a reorganization." This Court disagrees.

In individual cases, retaining a residence can be a necessary component of reorganizing the debtor's finances. The property does not need to generate income by itself.

That said, the reorganization must have a reasonable possibility of being confirmed within a reasonable time in order for the property to be necessary for a reorganization. Debtor fails that test for the reasons stated in the Movant's papers.

Terminate the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1) and (d)(4).
To the extent, if any, that the motion seeks to terminate the automatic stay in other past or pending bankruptcy cases, such relief is denied on the present record. See In re Ervin (Case No. 14-bk-18204-NB, docket no. 311).

Relief notwithstanding future bankruptcy cases.

As to the requested relief that will remain effective notwithstanding any future bankruptcy case, continue the motion to the date and time set forth at the start of this tentative ruling, for service on the persons who executed the documents through which the movant asserts its interest in the property (sometimes referred to in the mortgage context as the "original borrower").
Reasons: See LBR 4001-1(c)(1)(B). In addition, Judge Bason has due process concerns about granting such relief without service on the person(s) whose interests may be most directly affected. See generally Mullane v. Central Hanover Bank & Trust Co., 339 U.S. 306 (1950) (due process generally). In this matter, such persons appear to include: Lucio Valenzuela Marquez.

Option for shortened time: This Court has selected a continued hearing date that contemplates shortened notice (per Rule 9006) but that date is conditioned on the movant (i) serving, on the day after the current hearing date, the motion papers and notice of the continued hearing date, and (ii) filing that notice and a proof of service no later than the next day. Alternatively, the movant may self-calendar a continued hearing on regular notice.

Option for interim/partial order: Movant may elect to lodge a proposed order granting the partial relief provided in this tentative ruling, but any such order must recite that a continued hearing has been set to consider additional relief (or, alternatively, that the movant no longer seeks additional relief and the Clerk's office is requested and directed to take the continued hearing off calendar).

Effective date of relief

Grant the request to waive the 14-day stay provided by FRBP 4001(a) (3).

Co-debtor stay

Any co-debtor stay (11 U.S.C. 1301(c)) has not been shown to have

#5.00 Hrg re: Motion for relief from stay [RP]

THE LEBBY FAMILY TRUST
vs
DEBTOR

Docket 15

Tentative Ruling:

Grant as set forth below. Appearances are not required.

Proposed order: Movant is directed to lodge a proposed order via LOU within 7 days after the hearing date, and attach a copy of this tentative ruling, thereby incorporating it as this Court's final ruling, subject to any changes ordered at the hearing. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B).

The automatic stay does not apply

Grant the motion under 11 U.S.C. 362(c)(3) and (j): there is no automatic stay because (a) Debtor's prior case (#2:19-bk-21042-NB) was dismissed (on 7/8/20) within one year before this case was filed (on 8/11/20), (b) that dismissal was not under 11 U.S.C. 707(b), and (c) no finding of good faith was timely sought and obtained. The automatic stay has terminated both as to Debtor in personam and as to property of Debtor. See In re Reswick, 446 B.R. 362 (9th Cir. BAP 2011); In re Hernandez, case no. 2:11-bk-53730-NB, docket #40 (Memorandum Decision).

In the alternative and in addition, this court grants relief from the automatic stay as follows.

Note regarding mootness: Judge Bason's standard tentative ruling is as follows. For three reasons the above conclusion that there is no stay does not moot requests for relief from whatever stay might apply. First, such alternative rulings are appropriate because (i) the very nature of tentative rulings is that this Court could be persuaded to depart from any one of them, and (ii) a final ruling on any one issue could be reversed on appeal. Second, even if there is currently no stay, that could change - e.g., if there is no stay because of dismissal of this bankruptcy case, such dismissal could be vacated and that might reimpose the stay even if there is a lack of adequate protection, or other grounds why the stay should not apply, and therefore the movant will suffer cognizable harm unless the issues are addressed now (Judge Bason regularly vacates dismissals based on stipulations or other good cause). Third, if the motion includes any request for relief as to past acts (annulment) or future cases (in rem relief), those things are still at issue even if there is no current automatic stay. See In re Aheong, 276 B.R. 233 (9th Cir. BAP 2002). For all of these reasons, the tentative ruling is that it is appropriate to address the following issues.

Termination

Terminate the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1) and (d)(4).

To the extent, if any, that the motion seeks to terminate the automatic stay in other past or pending bankruptcy cases, such relief is denied on the present record. See In re Ervin (Case No. 14-bk-18204-NB, docket no. 311).

Relief notwithstanding future bankruptcy cases.

Grant the following relief pursuant to 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(4) and the legal analysis in In re Vazquez, 580 B.R. 526 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2017), and/or In re Choong (case no. 2:14-bk-28378-NB, docket no. 31), as applicable:

If this order is duly recorded in compliance with applicable State laws governing notices of interests or liens in the property at issue, then no automatic stay shall apply to such property in any bankruptcy case purporting to affect such property and filed within two years after the date of entry of this order, unless otherwise ordered by the court presiding over that bankruptcy case.

For the avoidance of doubt, any acts by the movant to obtain exclusive possession of such property shall not be stayed, including any eviction actions, through and including any lockout or other enforcement by the Sheriff or other authorized legal authority.

Note: Per Judge Bason's posted procedures (available at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) this Court's order will state that the Court "does not make" a finding that Debtor was involved in the "scheme" referenced in section 362(d)(4), unless there is sufficient evidence that Debtor was involved and Debtor is given clear notice that the movant seeks an express finding that Debtor was involved. The tentative ruling in this particular case is that there is sufficient evidence and notice.

Effective date of relief

Grant the request to waive the 14-day stay provided by FRBP 4001(a) (3).

Co-debtor stay

Any co-debtor stay (11 U.S.C. 1301(c)) has not been shown to have any basis for any different treatment from the stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(a), so the tentative ruling is to grant the identical relief regarding any co-debtor stay.

If appearances are not required at the start of this tentative ruling but you wish to dispute the tentative ruling, or for further explanation of "appearances required/are not required," please see Judge Bason's Procedures (posted at www.cacb.uscourts.gov) then search for "tentative rulings."
