#33.00 Motion for relief from stay

DEUTSCHE BANK NATIONAL TRUST COMPANY VS DEBTOR

Property:14605 Woodland Drive #16, Fontana, CA 92337
[Real Prop] Kelly M. raftery, attorney/movant

Docket 199

Tentative Ruling:

1/10/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

(4) Waiver of 11 U.S.C. § 1301 co-debtor stay.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

#12.00 Motion for relief from stay

U.S. BANK NATIONAL VS DEBTOR

Property: 1529 Helen Street, Wrightwood, CA 92397]
[Real Prop] Sean C. Ferry, attorney/movant

Docket 20

Tentative Ruling:

1/11/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

#17.00 Motion for relief from stay

SRG GROVE VS DEBTOR

Property: 1110 East Philadelphia Street, Number 3106, Ontario, CA 91761
[UD] Helen Grayce Long, attorney/movant

Docket 24

Tentative Ruling:

1/11/2018:

The hearing regarding this motion shall be heard on shortened notice and any opposition is due at the hearing. Therefore, appearances are required at the hearing.

The motion requests relief from the automatic stay to complete an eviction. Using a bankruptcy case to delay an eviction is not appropriate. See, e.g., In re Smith, 105 B.R. 50, 53 & 55 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 1989) (describing cases filed to delay an eviction as “abusive” and designed to “delay improperly the landlord from obtaining possession of his property.”). Therefore, the tentative ruling of the court is to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property.

#19.00 Hrg re motion for default

Docket 10

Tentative Ruling:

1/11/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3).

No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion and enter judgment finding that the deed of trust executed by Antonio T. Young and Angie C. Young in favor of Bank of America, N.A., dated March 13, 2008, securing a debt in the original principal amount of $67,008, and recorded on April 25, 2008 as document number 2008-0187493, in the Official Records of San Bernardino County, is invalid, void and unenforceable.

Docket 61

Tentative Ruling:

1/16/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3).

No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to FRBP 9019.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. *Cf. Chapter 13

#21.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

1/24/2018:

On January 10, 2018, the debtor appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtor and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 1:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtor and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference.

Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtor still concurs with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtor and counsel for the debtor from appearing at the confirmation hearing and the continued status conference. No appearances by the debtor or counsel for the debtor are required at the confirmation hearing or the status conference.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtor (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtor. Instead, under those

#29.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter13 plan

FROM: 1-10-18

Docket 16

Tentative Ruling:

1/24/2018:

The status conference is hereby continued to February 21, 2018 at 3:00 p.m. No appearances are required by the debtors or counsel for the debtors today.

This is the second bankruptcy case filed by the debtors. The debtors filed the prior case (#: 6:16-bk-15016-WJ) on June 4, 2016. In that case, the Court confirmed a chapter 13 plan but the debtors defaulted. Therefore, the trustee filed a motion to dismiss the case which the Court granted. The debtors then filed a motion to vacate the dismissal order which the Court denied. The debtors then retained new counsel and filed this new case.

In the prior case, the Court entered a lengthy decision on November 20, 2017 denying the motion to vacate [docket #52 and #53]. Counsel for the debtors should review the decision and the order and then confer with the debtors. Prior to the next status conference, counsel for the debtors should file a pleading that indicates (1) counsel has read and understands the decision of the Court in the prior case, (2) counsel has explained the decision thoroughly to the debtors and (3) the debtors understand the prior decision. If such a pleading is filed and no other issues arise, the Court is likely to excuse counsel for the debtors and the debtors from appearing at the continued status conference.

#40.00 Motion for relief from stay

U.S. BANK NATIONAL VS DEBTOR

Property: 1098 Trujillo Lane, Colton, CA 92324
[Real Prop] Merdaud Jafarnia, attorney/movant

Docket 18

Tentative Ruling:

1/24/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

(4) Relief under § 362(d)(4) based on multiple bankruptcy filings affecting the real property.

(5) Pursuant to the request in the motion, the Court also hereby grants the extraordinary relief set forth in paragraphs 8(b), 10(b) and 11(b) on page 5 of the motion.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

Chapter 13

#42.00 Hrg re motion in individual case for order imposing a stay or continuing the automatic stay

Docket 20

Tentative Ruling:

1/24/2018:

The motion is untimely. Section 362(c)(3)(A) provides that the automatic stay “shall terminate with respect to the debtor on the 30th day after the filing of the later case.” See 11 U.S.C. § 362(c)(3)(A). In order to avoid the termination of the stay, a motion to extend the stay must be filed and it must be heard on or before the thirtieth day after the filing of the bankruptcy case. See 11 U.S.C. § 362(c)(3)(B) (stating that “on the motion of a party in interest for continuation of the automatic stay and upon notice and a hearing, the court may extend the stay in particular cases as to any or all creditors (subject to such conditions or limitations as the court may then impose) after notice and a hearing completed before the expiration of the 30-day period . . .”).

Accordingly, under the plain language of the statute, the hearing regarding a motion to extend the automatic stay pursuant to section 362(c)(3)(B) must occur no later than thirty days after the filing of this bankruptcy case. It is not enough to simply file the motion within the thirty day period. The hearing regarding the motion must also occur within the thirty day period. See, e.g., In re Moon, 339 B.R. 668, 670 (Bankr. N.D. Ohio 2006) (denying a motion to extend the stay that was filed during the thirty day period because the debtors scheduled the motion for a hearing thirty-seven days after the petition date); In re Garrett, 357 B.R. 128, 131 (Bankr. C.D. Ill. 2006) (“Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(c)(3)(B), the Bankruptcy Court may extend the automatic stay only after notice and a hearing completed before the expiration of the 30 day period after the filing of a second bankruptcy case within one year of the dismissal of a previously filed case. If the notice and hearing are not completed within this period, the automatic stay terminates by operation of law pursuant to § 362(c)(3) (A).”); In re Norman, 346 B.R. 181 (Bankr. N.D. W.Va. 2006) (holding that a motion to extend the automatic stay must be heard within the thirty day period); In re Ziolkowski, 338 B.R. 543, 546 (Bankr. D.Conn. 2006) (denying a motion to extend the stay that was filed during the thirty day period because the initial hearing regarding the motion – which was scheduled by the clerk of the court - occurred more than two months after the petition date and stating that the debtors “were the movants and it was their ultimate burden to insure that the Motion was timely scheduled.”); Capital One Auto Fin. v. Cowley, 374 B.R. 601, 610 (W.D. Tex. 2006) (reversing a bankruptcy court order granting a motion to extend the stay because, while the motion was filing within thirty days of the petition date, the hearing regarding the motion occurred after the thirty day period and stating that “the Court finds that § 362(c)(3) requires notice and a hearing to be completed within thirty days of a filing of a petition by a single-repeat filer.”); In re Wesselman, 2008 Bankr. LEXIS 950 (Bankr. E.D. Ky. 2008) (denying a motion to extend the stay that was filed during the thirty day period because the hearing regarding the motion occurred thirty-one days after the petition date.); In re Brewster, 2008 Bankr. LEXIS 949 (Bankr. E.D. Ky. 2008) (denying a motion to extend the stay that was filed during the thirty day period because the hearing regarding the motion occurred thirty-nine days after the petition date and stating that the “plain meaning of the statute is that the court does not have authority to extend the stay when a hearing is not completed before the expiration of the 30-day period following a bankruptcy filing.”).

Because of this strict thirty day period for conducting a hearing regarding a motion to extend the stay, this Court (like many others) has established self-calendaring instructions which permit debtors to set hearings regarding this type of motion on shortened notice (as little as seven days). Under those procedures, debtors typically have between two to four available dates for setting hearings regarding this type of motion during the first thirty days of any bankruptcy case. For unknown reasons, the debtor did not utilize those available dates in this case.

In this case, the debtor filed a prior bankruptcy case within the last twelve months (case no. 6:17-bk-15284). After that case was dismissed, the debtor filed this second bankruptcy case on December 13, 2017. Thus, the automatic stay expired on January 12, 2018. The debtor did not utilize the self-calendaring procedures that permit hearings on these types of motions on shortened notice (i.e. without an order shortening time) within the first thirty days of the petition date. Pursuant to those guidelines, the motion could have been heard on December 20th, December 27th, or January 10th. Indeed, the debtor could have scheduled the hearing regarding the motion for January 10th on regular notice to creditors (i.e. 21 days notice to creditors) or, pursuant to the Court's self-calendaring guidelines, on either seven or fourteen days notice to creditors. Instead, on January 3, 2018, the debtor filed a motion to extend the stay and the debtor selected a hearing date for the motion of January 24, 2018. However, that day is 42 days after the petition date.

Accordingly, the motion must be denied as untimely.

Docket 6

Tentative Ruling:

1/24/2018:

The hearing regarding this motion shall be heard on shortened notice and any opposition is due at the hearing. Therefore, appearances are required at the hearing.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the tentative ruling of the Court is to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

(2) Waiver of the 14-day stay prescribed by Bankruptcy Rule 4001(a)(3).

(3) Relief under § 362(d)(4) based on the transfer of all or part ownership of, or other interest in, such real property without the consent of the secured creditor or court approval and multiple bankruptcy filings affecting the real property.

(4) Pursuant to the request in the motion, the Court also hereby grants the extraordinary relief set forth in paragraphs 10(b) and 11(b) on page 5 of the motion.

#10.00 Hrg re motion to disgorge compensation

Docket 30

Tentative Ruling:

1/30/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3).

No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 329 and Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure 2017 with the following relief:

(1) Michael Shemtoub is ordered to disgorge and return to the Debtor all fees received.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

[UD] Helen Grayce Long, attorney/movant

Docket 7

Tentative Ruling:

2/1/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. *Cf. Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

The motion requests relief from the automatic stay to complete an eviction. Using a bankruptcy case to delay an eviction is not appropriate. See, e.g., In re Smith, 105 B.R. 50, 53 & 55 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 1989) (describing cases filed to delay an eviction as “abusive” and designed to “delay improperly the landlord from obtaining possession of his property.”). Accordingly, for this reason and the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) with the following relief:

Tentative Ruling:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3).

No appearance is necessary.

#23.00 Hrg re motion for default judgment

Docket 5

Tentative Ruling:

2/1/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3).

No appearance is necessary.

#16.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 1

Tentative Ruling:

2/7/2018:

On January 24, 2018, the debtor appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtor and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 1:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtor and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtor still concurs with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtor and counsel for the debtor from appearing at the confirmation hearing and the continued status conference. No appearances by the debtor or counsel for the debtor are required at the confirmation hearing or the status conference.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtor (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtor. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an

#40.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 6

Tentative Ruling:

2/7/2018:

On January 24, 2018, the debtor appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtor and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 1:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtor and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtor still concurs with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtor and counsel for the debtor from appearing at the confirmation hearing and the continued status conference. No appearances by the debtor or counsel for the debtor are required at the confirmation hearing or the status conference.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtor (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtor. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an

#45.00 Hrg re motion to avoid junior lien on principal residence with Household Finance Corp

[Property: 15417 Idaho Lane, Apple Valley, San Bernardino, CA 92307]

Docket 16

Tentative Ruling:

2/7/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion to value a claim secured by a lien on real property has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the valuation motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting certain relief requested in the motion and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

The motion requests an order determining that the fair market value of the real property located at 15417 Idaho Lane, Apple Valley, CA 92307 (“Property”) is no more than $208,000 as of November 22, 2017.

The evidence provided in the motion indicates the Property is encumbered by a first deed of trust held by Deutsche Bank National Trust Company, securing a loan with a balance of approximately $219,794.84. Therefore, any junior lien is completely under-collateralized and no portion of any claim secured by a junior lien should be allowed as a secured claim. See 11 U.S.C. § 506(a). Furthermore, no interest need be paid on the junior lienholder's wholly unsecured claim except to the extent otherwise required by 11 U.S.C. § 1325(a)(4).

The fact that some claims of junior lienholders are secured only by a security interest in the principal residence of a debtor does not prohibit modification of a junior lien. Zimmer v. PSB Lending Corp. (In re Zimmer), 313 F.3d 1220, 1227 (9th Cir. 2002); Lam v. Investors Thrift (In re Lam), 211 B.R. 36, 41 (9th Cir. BAP 1997), appeal dismissed, 192 F.3d 1309 (9th Cir. 1999). Valuation pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 506(a) and Rule 3012 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure is a contested matter initiated by the filing of a motion. Valuation does not require the filing of an adversary proceeding. Scott v. Countrywide Home Loans, Inc. (In re Scott), 376 B.R. 285, 291 (Bankr. D. Idaho 2007). Even if considered in the nature of a claim objection, an adversary proceeding is not required so long as the relief requested does not include a demand for relief of a kind specified in Rule 7001. See F.R.B.P. 3007(b).

Consistent with F.R.B.P. Rule 3007(b), to the extent that the title of the motion or the content of the motion seek relief avoiding, extinguishing, attacking or otherwise modifying any lien, that language and relief is not approved by the court. The relief granted is limited solely to valuing the collateral of a junior lienholder and determining the treatment of its claims in this bankruptcy case. Nothing in the order granting the motion shall be construed to avoid a lien or determine the extent, validity, or priority of a lien or security interest. The lien of the junior lienholder will remain of record and the junior lienholder shall retain all rights under the lien unless and until the Court enters a further order or judgment avoiding the lien. If the Court confirms a plan of reorganization and the debtor(s) perform all obligations under the confirmed plan and obtain a chapter 13 discharge, a further order or judgment extinguishing or avoiding the junior lien can be obtained by initiating an adversary proceeding pursuant to F.R.B.P. Rule 7001(2).

The motion contains evidence indicating it is directed at Household Finance Corporation of California (“Creditor”) and instrument number 2007-0061556 recorded in San Bernardino County on January 30, 2007. The motion also contains prima facie evidence that the motion was properly served upon the Creditor. Therefore, the relief described in this ruling shall be granted but only as to the Creditor. The order granting the motion shall be binding upon the Creditor (and any successors-in-interest to or assignees of the Creditor) but not upon any other creditor, any affiliate of the Creditor or any other party.

As a consequence, if the Creditor is not the actual holder of any loan secured by the Property, the terms of the order shall not apply to the actual holder of any loan secured by the Property. In addition, federal law (including, but not limited to, Rule 60(b)(4) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and Rule 9024 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure) allows a party to challenge an order as void if the order was obtained as a result of insufficient service of process of the motion and the Creditor (and any successors-in-interest to or assignees of the Creditor) retains such rights under applicable law.

The Court shall prepare an order. If for any reason an order is not entered by the Court within seven days, counsel for the moving party should prepare and submit electronically a proposed order.

#3.00 Hrg re motion to disallow claim number 8-1 filed by Velocity Transportation LLC

Docket 31

Tentative Ruling:

2/20/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. The objection to claim has been set for hearing on the notice required by Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 3007 and Local Bankruptcy Rules ("LBR") 3007-1 and 9013-1(d)(2). The failure of the claimant to file written opposition at least 14 days before the hearing as required by LBR 3007-1(b)(6) and 9013-1(h) is deemed consent to the sustaining of the objection. See LBR 9013-1(h); Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See LBR 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 502(b). General unsecured claim #8-1 in the amount of $12,799.90 filed by Velocity Transportation LLC is hereby disallowed.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtor still concurs with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtor and counsel for the debtor from appearing at the confirmation hearing and the continued status conference. No appearances by the debtor or counsel for the debtor are required at the confirmation hearing or the status conference.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtor (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtor. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtor and counsel for the debtor to appear and address such matters.

#29.00 Hrg re motion for order determining value of collateral with Los Angeles Federal Credit Union

[Property: 2011 Jeep Compass

Docket 9

Tentative Ruling:

2/21/2018:

The tentative ruling of the Court is to deny the motion without prejudice for improper service. FRBP Rule 7004(b)(3) provides that service on an institution must be addressed to an officer of the institution or its agent for service of process. Service on Los Angeles Federal Credit Union was not made in accordance with the rule – the motion was not addressed to a named officer or agent of the institution. The motion was served upon an unnamed officer ("Attn: Managing Officer") which does not comply with the applicable rules. Pursuant to FRBP Rule 7004(b)(3) and 7004(h), a moving party must serve the appropriate named officer of the lienholder. Service that is not upon a named officer is not valid. In re Schoon, 153 B.R. 48 (Bankr. N.D. Cal. 1993) (denying a motion to avoid a lien under section 522(f) that was served upon "Attn: President"); In re Franchi, 451 B.R. 604 (Bankr. S.D. Fla. 2011) (denying a motion to avoid a lien because the debtor improperly served it upon "Any Officer Authorized to Accept Service" and holding that "service under Rule 7004(h) is not effected by serving an unnamed title or using language such as ‘any other officer or agent entitled to receive service.’ Service under Rule 7004(h) must be upon a named officer of the institution unless one of the three enumerated exceptions in that rule apply."); Addison v. Gibson Equip. Co. (In re Pittman Mechanical Contractors), 180 B.R. 453 (Bankr. E.D. Va 1995) (following Schoon and granting a motion to set aside a default judgment because the summons and complaint were improperly served upon "Attn: President or Corporate Officer"); In re Golden Books Family Entertainment, 269 B.R. 300, 305 (Bankr. D.Del. 2001) (holding that service upon an unnamed "Asst. Controller" does not comply with FRBP Rule 7004(b)(3) because the "notice documents were deficient because, among other things, they failed to address any of the copies of the notice to a person of authority or to a person authorized to accept service."); Saucier v. Capitol One (In re Saucier), 366 B.R. 780, 784 (Bankr. N.D. Ohio 2007) (citing Schoon and holding that a debtor who served a complaint upon "Capitol One" upon an "office manager" at a post office box failed to comply with the requirements of Rule 7004(b)(3) because "it has been generally held that this type of generic heading is insufficient to effectuate proper service under the Rule."); see also Faulknor v. Amtrust Bank (In re Faulknor), 2005 Bankr. LEXIS 60, *5 (Bankr. N.D. Ga. 2005) (holding that service of a motion to redeem a car which was served to "Attn: President" did not satisfy Rule 7004(h) because "service of the motion to redeem to the attention of an officer, without specifically naming the individual, fails to comply with Rule 7004 and the constitutional requirements of due process"); In re Roby, 2006 Bankr. LEXIS 4336 (Bankr. D.Md. 2006) (holding that a motion by the chapter 13 trustee to disallow a claim that was served by the trustee upon the "president" of the creditor did not satisfy Rule 7004(b)(3)).

#2.00 Hrg re motion for order authorizing disbursement of $50,672.00 go debtors per their claimed exemptions

Docket 95

Tentative Ruling:

2/27/2018:

The motion seeks authority to pay funds to the debtors. The motion asks for permission to pay $50,672 and the motion repeatedly references C.C.P. § 703.140(b) (2) and C.C.P. § 703.140(b)(5). These sections do not provide for payment of $50,672 to the debtors. In addition, the motion does not indicate when disbursements to creditors are contemplated or why a disbursement to the debtors should precede disbursements to creditors.

Accordingly, the trustee, John Pringle, is directed to personally appear tomorrow at the hearing to discuss the matter further.

Chapter 7

#5.00 Hrg re motion to compel abandonment of estate property

Docket 39

Tentative Ruling:

2/27/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3).

No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 554(b).

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

#22.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 15

Tentative Ruling:

2/28/2018:

On February 21, 2018, the debtors appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtors and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 1:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtors and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtors still concur with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtors and counsel for the debtors from appearing at the confirmation hearing and the continued status conference. No appearances by the debtors or counsel for the debtors are required at the confirmation hearing or the status conference.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtors (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other

Property: 2016 Nissan Rogue
[Personal Prop] Michael D. Vanlochem, attorney/movant

Docket 9

Tentative Ruling:

3/1/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

TRANS LEASE VS DEBTOR

Property: 2013 Kenworth T700 Tractor
[Personal Prop] Randall P. Mroczynski, attorney/movant

Docket 8

Tentative Ruling:

3/1/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

(2) The order shall be binding and effective despite any conversion of this bankruptcy case to a case under any other chapter of Title 11 of the United States Code.

(3) Waiver of the 14-day stay prescribed by Bankruptcy Rule 4001(a)(3).

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

None.

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3).

No appearance is necessary.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after

Chapter 13

#27.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

3/14/2018:

On February 28, 2018, the debtor appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtor and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 1:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtor and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtor still concurs with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtor and counsel for the debtor from appearing at the confirmation hearing and the continued status conference. No appearances by the debtor or counsel for the debtor are required at the confirmation hearing or the status conference.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtor (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than

[Real Prop] Sean C. Ferry, attorney/movant

Docket 19

Tentative Ruling:

3/15/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain

(3) The creditor or counsel for the creditor may communicate with the debtors or counsel for the debtors regarding the property that is the subject of this motion and the debt owed to the creditor.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

#9.00 Motion for relief from stay

TOYOTA MOTOR CREDIT CORPORATION VS DEBTOR

Property: 2014 Toyota RAV4
[Personal Prop] Austin P. Nagel, attorney/movant

Docket 13

Tentative Ruling:

3/15/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

Docket 13

Tentative Ruling:

3/15/2018:

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. *Cf. No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion and enter judgment finding that the deed of trust executed by Rolando P. Sanchez and Rachael I. Sanchez in favor of Household Finance Corporation of California, dated January 18, 2008, securing a debt in the original principal amount of $53,825.47, and recorded on January 22, 2008 as document number 2008-0032559, in the Official Records of Riverside County, is invalid, void and unenforceable.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR

#3.00 Hrg re motion for order approving compromise between Trustee and Debtors re: Turnover of funds amendment to IRS proof of claim

Docket 78

Tentative Ruling:

3/27/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3).

No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to F.R.B.P. 9019(a).

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

Nonbankruptcy action - Enforcement action is anticipated but not yet filed
[Non Bk Forum] Mohammad Tehrani, attorney/movant

Docket 12

Tentative Ruling:

3/27/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. *See Boone v. For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(b)(4) with the following relief:

Chapter 13

#14.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

3/28/2018:

On March 14, 2018, the debtor appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtor and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 1:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtor and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtor still concurs with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtor and counsel for the debtor from appearing at the confirmation hearing and the continued status conference. No appearances by the debtor or counsel for the debtor are required at the confirmation hearing or the status conference.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtor (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtor. #24.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Tentative Ruling:

3/28/2018:

On March 14, 2018, the debtor appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtor and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 1:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtor and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtor still concurs with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtor and counsel for the debtor from appearing at the confirmation hearing and the continued status conference. No appearances by the debtor or counsel for the debtor are required at the confirmation hearing or the status conference.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtor (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtor. #63.00 Hrg re motion in individual case for order imposing a stay or continuing the automatic stay

Final Ruling. The motion is untimely. Section 362(c)(3)(A) provides that the automatic stay “shall terminate with respect to the debtor on the 30th day after the filing of the later case.” See 11 U.S.C. § 362(c)(3)(A). In order to avoid the termination of the stay, a motion to extend the stay must be filed and it must be heard on or before the thirtieth day after the filing of the bankruptcy case. See 11 U.S.C. § 362(c)(3)(B) (stating that “on the motion of a party in interest for continuation of the automatic stay and upon notice and a hearing, the court may extend the stay in particular cases as to any or all creditors (subject to such conditions or limitations as the court may then impose) after notice and a hearing completed before the expiration of the 30-day period . . .”).

Accordingly, under the plain language of the statute, the hearing regarding a motion to extend the automatic stay pursuant to section 362(c)(3)(B) must occur no later than thirty days after the filing of this bankruptcy case. It is not enough to simply file the motion within the thirty day period. The hearing regarding the motion must also occur within the thirty day period. See, e.g., In re Moon, 339 B.R. 668, 670 (Bankr. N.D. Ohio 2006) (denying a motion to extend the stay that was filed during the thirty day period because the debtors scheduled the motion for a hearing thirty-seven days after the petition date); In re Garrett, 357 B.R. 128, 131 (Bankr. C.D. Ill.

2006) (“Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(c)(3)(B), the Bankruptcy Court may extend the automatic stay only after notice and a hearing completed before the expiration of the 30 day period after the filing of a second bankruptcy case within one year of the dismissal of a previously filed case. If the notice and hearing are not completed within this period, the automatic stay terminates by operation of law pursuant to § 362(c)(3) (A).”); In re Norman, 346 B.R. 181 (Bankr. N.D. W.Va. 2006) (holding that a motion to extend the automatic stay must be heard within the thirty day period); In re Ziolkowski, 338 B.R. 543, 546 (Bankr. D.Conn. 2006) (denying a motion to extend the stay that was filed during the thirty day period because the initial hearing regarding the motion – which was scheduled by the clerk of the court - occurred more than two months after the petition date and stating that the debtors “were the movants and it was their ultimate burden to insure that the Motion was timely scheduled.”); Capital One Auto Fin. v. Cowley, 374 B.R. 601, 610 (W.D. Tex. 2006) (reversing a bankruptcy court order granting a motion to extend the stay because, while the motion was filing within thirty days of the petition date, the hearing regarding the motion occurred after the thirty day period and stating that “the Court finds that § 362(c)(3) requires notice and a hearing to be completed within thirty days of a filing of a petition by a single-repeat filer.”); In re Wesselman, 2008 Bankr. LEXIS 950 (Bankr. E.D. Ky. 2008) (denying a motion to extend the stay that was filed during the thirty day period because the hearing regarding the motion occurred thirty-one days after the petition date.); In re Brewster, 2008 Bankr. LEXIS 949 (Bankr. E.D. Ky. 2008) (denying a motion to extend the stay that was filed during the thirty day period because the hearing regarding the motion occurred thirty-nine days after the petition date and stating that the “plain meaning of the statute is that the court does not have authority to extend the stay when a hearing is not completed before the expiration of the 30-day period following a bankruptcy filing.”).

Because of this strict thirty day period for conducting a hearing regarding a motion to extend the stay, this Court (like many others) has established self-calendaring instructions which permit debtors to set hearings regarding this type of motion on shortened notice (as little as seven days). Under those procedures, debtors typically have between two to four available dates for setting hearings regarding this type of motion during the first thirty days of any bankruptcy case. For unknown reasons, the debtor did not utilize those available dates in this case.

In this case, the debtor filed a prior bankruptcy case within the last twelve months (case no. 6:17-bk-14184-WJ). After that case was dismissed, the debtor filed this second bankruptcy case on February 20, 2018. Thus, the automatic stay expired on March 22, 2018. The debtor did not utilize the self-calendaring procedures that permit hearings on these types of motions on shortened notice (i.e. without an order shortening time) within the first thirty days of the petition date. Pursuant to those guidelines, the motion could have been heard on February 28th or March 14th. Indeed, the debtor could have scheduled the hearing regarding the motion for March 14th on regular notice to creditors (i.e. 21 days notice to creditors) or, pursuant to the Court's self-calendaring guidelines, on either seven or fourteen days notice to creditors. Instead, on March 21, 2018, the debtor filed a motion to extend the stay and the debtor selected a hearing date for the motion of March 28, 2018. However, that day is 36 days after the petition date.

Accordingly, the motion must be denied as untimely.

Property: 1339 Alta Ave, Upland, CA 91786
[Real Prop] Christina J.O. attorney/movant

Docket 35

Tentative Ruling:

3/29/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

Chapter 13

#23.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

4/11/2018:

On March 28, 2018, the debtor appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtor and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 1:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtor and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtor still concurs with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtor and counsel for the debtor from appearing at the confirmation hearing and the continued status conference. No appearances by the debtor or counsel for the debtor are required at the confirmation hearing or the status conference.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtor (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtor. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtor and counsel for the debtor to appear and address such

#28.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

4/11/2018:

On March 28, 2018, the debtor appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtor and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 1:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtor and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtor still concurs with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtor and counsel for the debtor from appearing at the confirmation hearing and the continued status conference. No appearances by the debtor or counsel for the debtor are required at the confirmation hearing or the status conference.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtor (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtor. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtor and counsel for the debtor to appear and address such

WELLS FARGO BANK VS DEBTOR

Property: 2014 Hyundai Santa Fe
[Personal Prop] Jennifer H. Wang, attorney/movant

Docket 25

Tentative Ruling:

4/12/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

#48.00 Hrg re motion for default judgment

Docket 31

Tentative Ruling:

4/12/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3).

No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion and enter judgment finding that the deed of trust executed by Erminio M. Padilla Jr. and Veronica M. Padilla in favor of Lyon Financial Service, dated May 1, 2006, securing a debt in the original principal amount of $29,624, and recorded on May 5, 2006 as document number 2006-0308584, in the Official Records of San Bernardino County, is invalid, void and unenforceable.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR

Final Ruling. No opposition has been filed. The applications for compensation have been set for hearing on the notice required by LBR 2016-1(c)(4).

The Court thanks the trustee and his professionals for their excellent work in this case. The trustee and his professionals recovered significant funds in the case and then voluntarily agreed to a carve-out that will provide sufficient funds to pay 100% of all general unsecured creditors. All of this action is quite comendable. The trustee and his professionals have demonstrated a very high level of professionalism in this case and deserve praise for the benefits conferred upon creditors and the estate. Thank you.

Pursuant to the trustee's final report, the following administrative claims will be allowed:

(1) Trustee: fees of $8,349.60.

Docket 24

Tentative Ruling:

4/24/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. No opposition has been filed. This application for compensation has been set for hearing on proper notice. No appearance is necessary.

The Court thanks the trustee for administering a case with few assets. Although the payments to creditors in this case will be small, creditors would have not received any payments at all if the trustee had been unwilling to administer a case with a small amount of cash. In addition, the trustee minimized administrative expenses which maximized the possible payments to creditors. So the Court comends the trustee for his efforts in this case. Thank you.

Pursuant to the trustee's final report, the following administrative claims will be allowed:

(1) Trustee: fees of $1,075.19 and expenses of $51.94.

The trustee shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

#24.00 Hrg re motion to avoid junior lien on principal residence

[Property: 27246 Discovery Bay Drive, Romoland, CA 92585-0000]

FROM: 3-14-18, 3-28-18

Docket 14

Tentative Ruling:

5/2/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion to value a claim secured by a lien on real property has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the valuation motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting certain relief requested in the motion and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

The motion requests an order determining that the fair market value of the real property located at 27246 Discovery Bay Dr., Romoland, CA 92585 (“Property”) is no more than $400,000 as of December 30, 2017.

The evidence provided in the motion indicates the Property is encumbered by a first deed of trust held by Select Portfolio Servicing, Inc., Family Lending Services,

Inc. S.P.S. Affiliates, and Mortgage Electronic Registration Systems, Inc. ("MERS"), securing a loan with a balance of approximately $447,154. Therefore, any junior lien is completely under-collateralized and no portion of any claim secured by a junior lien should be allowed as a secured claim. See 11 U.S.C. § 506(a). Furthermore, no interest need be paid on the junior lienholder's wholly unsecured claim except to the extent otherwise required by 11 U.S.C. § 1325(a)(4).

The fact that some claims of junior lienholders are secured only by a security interest in the principal residence of a debtor does not prohibit modification of a junior lien. Zimmer v. PSB Lending Corp. (In re Zimmer), 313 F.3d 1220, 1227 (9th Cir. 2002); Lam v. Investors Thrift (In re Lam), 211 B.R. 36, 41 (9th Cir. BAP 1997), appeal dismissed, 192 F.3d 1309 (9th Cir. 1999). Valuation pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 506(a) and Rule 3012 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure is a contested matter initiated by the filing of a motion. Valuation does not require the filing of an adversary proceeding. Scott v. Countrywide Home Loans, Inc. (In re Scott), 376 B.R. 285, 291 (Bankr. D. Idaho 2007). Even if considered in the nature of a claim objection, an adversary proceeding is not required so long as the relief requested does not include a demand for relief of a kind specified in Rule 7001. See F.R.B.P. 3007(b).

Consistent with F.R.B.P. Rule 3007(b), to the extent that the title of the motion or the content of the motion seek relief avoiding, extinguishing, attacking or otherwise modifying any lien, that language and relief is not approved by the court. The relief granted is limited solely to valuing the collateral of a junior lienholder and determining the treatment of its claims in this bankruptcy case. Nothing in the order granting the motion shall be construed to avoid a lien or determine the extent, validity, or priority of a lien or security interest. The lien of the junior lienholder will remain of record and the junior lienholder shall retain all rights under the lien unless and until the Court enters a further order or judgment avoiding the lien. If the Court confirms a plan of reorganization and the debtor(s) perform all obligations under the confirmed plan and obtain a chapter 13 discharge, a further order or judgment extinguishing or avoiding the junior lien can be obtained.

The motion contains evidence indicating it is directed at Oseburg Trust III by U.S. Bank Trust National Association, not in its individual capacity but solely as Trustee, c/o Specialized Loan Servicing, LLC, RCS Recovery Services, LLC, Family

Lending Services, Inc., S.P.S. Affiliates, MERS, Select Loan Servicing, LLC, and Note Resolutions, LLC (“Creditors”) and instrument number 2006-0948486 recorded in Riverside County on December 28, 2006. The motion also contains prima facie evidence that the motion was properly served upon the Creditor. Therefore, the relief described in this ruling shall be granted but only as to the Creditor. The order granting the motion shall be binding upon the Creditor (and any successors-in-interest to or assignees of the Creditor) but not upon any other creditor, any affiliate of the Creditor or any other party.

As a consequence, if the Creditor is not the actual holder of any loan secured by the Property, the terms of the order shall not apply to the actual holder of any loan secured by the Property. In addition, federal law (including, but not limited to, Rule 60(b)(4) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and Rule 9024 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure) allows a party to challenge an order as void if the order was obtained as a result of insufficient service of process of the motion and the Creditor (and any successors-in-interest to or assignees of the Creditor) retains such rights under applicable law.

The Court shall prepare an order. If for any reason an order is not entered by the Court within seven days, counsel for the moving party should prepare and submit electronically a proposed order.

Docket 49

Tentative Ruling:

5/2/2018:

The tentative ruling of the Court is to grant the motion in part pursuant to an order that would state as follows: "The motion is granted in part and denied in part. The proof of claim filed by Cach, LLC on March 2, 2018 as claim #1 is hereby allowed as a general unsecured claim in the amount of $3,009.52. The secured status asserted in the claim is disallowed and the Court finds that the creditor has no lien against any assets of the debtor or the bankruptcy estate. The request for sanctions is denied."

If the parties concur with this tentative ruling, they may submit a stipulation consenting to entry of an order consistent with this ruling and a proposed order.

Otherwise, all parties must appear at the hearing.

#40.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

FROM: 4-25-18

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

5/2/2018:

On April 11, 2018, the debtor appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtor and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 1:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtor and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtor still concurs with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtor and counsel for the debtor from appearing at the confirmation hearing and the continued status conference. No appearances by the debtor or counsel for the debtor are required at the confirmation hearing or the status conference.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtor (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than

#49.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

5/2/2018:

On April 11, 2018, the debtor appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtor and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 1:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited and approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtor still concurs with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtor and counsel for the debtor from appearing at the confirmation hearing and the continued status conference. No appearances by the debtor or counsel for the debtor are required at the confirmation hearing or the status conference.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtor (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtor. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtor and counsel for the debtor to appear and address such

#3.00 Motion for relief from stay

AMERICREDIT FINANCIAL SERVICES VS DEBTOR

Property: 2015 Chevrolet Camaro
[Personal Prop] Sheryl K. Ith, attorney/movant

Docket 11

Tentative Ruling:

5/3/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

Tentative Ruling:

5/3/2018:

#3.00 Hrg re trustee's final report and applications for compensation

Docket 21

Tentative Ruling:

5/8/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. No opposition has been filed. This application for compensation has been set for hearing on the notice required by LBR 2016-1(c)(4).

No appearance is necessary.

The Court thanks the trustee for administering a case with few assets and for doing so economically. Recovering the small tax refund and minimizing administrative expenses will allow creditors to receive 50% of their claims. That is an excellent result and was achieved by the trustee's efficiency and diligence. Thank you.

Pursuant to the trustee's final report, the following administrative claims will be allowed:

(1) Trustee: fees of $1,325.80 and expenses of $56.77.

The trustee shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

#4.00 Hrg re trustee's final report and application for compensation

5/8/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. No opposition has been filed. This application for compensation has been set for hearing on the notice required by LBR 2016-1(c)(4).

No appearance is necessary.

The trustee recovered tax refunds and administered the estate with minimal administrative claims. Those efforts have produced a recovery that should pay creditors nearly 38% of their claims. The Court thanks the trustee for administering this relatively small case and for doing so efficiently. Thank you.

Pursuant to the trustee's final report, the following administrative claims will be allowed:

- (1) Trustee: fees of $2,147.38 and expenses of $591.77.
- (2) Donald Fife: fees of $1,000.

The trustee shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

#6.00 Hrg re motion for order compelling debtor to: (1) Cooperate with the trustee and
(2) Turn over property of the estate

Docket 55

Tentative Ruling:

5/8/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3).

No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 521 and 542.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

Ghazali v. Moran*, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3).

No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to FRBP 4004(b). The deadline to file a complaint objecting to the discharge of debtor pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 727 is extended to and including June 8, 2018 as to the United States Trustee only.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

Docket 21

Tentative Ruling:

5/8/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3).

No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 329 and FRBP 2016 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure with the following relief:

(1) Scott Burton is ordered to file a disclosure of compensation and

(2) the Court hereby retains jurisdiction over any matter arising under 11 U.S.C. § 329.

Chapter 13

#33.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

5/9/2018:

On May 2, 2018, the debtors appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtors and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 2:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtors and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtors still concur with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtors and counsel for the debtors from appearing at the confirmation hearing and the continued status conference. No appearances by the debtors or counsel for the debtors are required at the confirmation hearing or the status conference.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtors (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtors. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtors and counsel for the debtors to

#57.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

5/9/2018:

On May 2, 2018, the debtor appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtor and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 3:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtor and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtor still concurs with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtor and counsel for the debtor from appearing at the confirmation hearing and the continued status conference. No appearances by the debtor or counsel for the debtor are required at the confirmation hearing or the status conference.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtor (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtor. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtor and counsel for the debtor to appear and address such

PACIFIC PALMS MOBILE HOME PARK VS DEBTOR

Property: 2727 Pacific Street Space 10, Highland, CA 92346
[UD] Barry Lee O'Connor, attorney/movant

Docket 65

Tentative Ruling:

5/9/2018:

The hearing regarding this motion shall be heard on shortened notice and any opposition is due at the hearing. Therefore, appearances are required at the hearing.

The motion requests relief from the automatic stay to complete an eviction. Using a bankruptcy case to delay an eviction is not appropriate. See, e.g., In re Smith, 105 B.R. 50, 53 & 55 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 1989) (describing cases filed to delay an eviction as “abusive” and designed to “delay improperly the landlord from obtaining possession of his property.”). Therefore, the tentative ruling of the court is to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property.

(2) Waiver of the 14-day stay prescribed by Bankruptcy Rule 4001(a)(3).

5/9/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. The Court has reviewed the new application for entry of discharge filed in this case. Based on that review, the court entered a discharge in this case and, therefore, it does not appear that a status conference is necessary at this time. No appearances are required.

If the debtor has any concerns, questions or objections regarding these matters or anything else regarding this case that the debtor wishes to address, the debtor or counsel for the debtor is welcome to appear at the status conference. Likewise, if the debtor or counsel for the debtor wishes to discuss the chapter 13 procedures order or ask any questions, the status conference is an opportunity to do so. Any issues in this case may be addressed at the status conference. However, as stated above, no appearances are required and, in the absence of an appearance, the Court will simply conclude the status conference.

#2.00 Motion for relief from stay

WELLS FARGO BANK VS DEBTOR

[Real Prop] Austin P. Nagel, attorney/movant

Docket 16

Tentative Ruling:

5/10/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

TOWNE MORTGAGE COMPANY VS DEBTOR

[Real Prop] Gilbert R. Yabes, attorney/movant

Docket 40

Tentative Ruling:

5/17/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

GRIFFIN PROPERTY INVESTMENTS VS DEBTOR

Property: 81720 Avenue 46th, Bld. 14, Apt. 201, Indio, CA 92201
[UD] R. Scott Andrews, attorney/movant

Docket 11

Tentative Ruling:

5/17/2018:

The hearing regarding this motion shall be heard on shortened notice and any opposition is due at the hearing. Therefore, appearances are required at the hearing.

The motion requests relief from the automatic stay to complete an eviction. Using a bankruptcy case to delay an eviction is not appropriate. See, e.g., In re Smith, 105 B.R. 50, 53 & 55 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 1989) (describing cases filed to delay an eviction as “abusive” and designed to “delay improperly the landlord from obtaining possession of his property.”). Therefore, the tentative ruling of the court is to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property.

(2) Waiver of the 14-day stay prescribed by Bankruptcy Rule 4001(a)(3).

Docket 32

Tentative Ruling:

5/22/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3).

No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to FRBP 4004(b). The deadline to file a complaint objecting to the discharge of debtor pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 727 is extended to and including October 6, 2018 as to the chapter 7 trustee.

Docket 57

Tentative Ruling:

5/22/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3).

No appearance is necessary.

(1) Keith Nguyen is ordered to disgorge $1,300 to the estate.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

#41.00 Hrg re objection to proof of claim filed by County of San Bernanrdino claim number 7-1

Docket 35

Tentative Ruling:

5/23/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. The objection to claim has been set for hearing on the notice required by Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 3007 and Local Bankruptcy Rules ("LBR") 3007-1 and 9013-1(d)(2). The failure of the claimant to file written opposition at least 14 days before the hearing as required by LBR 3007-1(b)(6) and 9013-1(h) is deemed consent to the sustaining of the objection. See LBR 9013-1(h); Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See LBR 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 502(b). Secured claim #7-1 in the amount of $11,791.04 filed by the County of San Bernardino is hereby disallowed.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR

#47.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

5/23/2018:

On March 9, 2018, the debtors appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtors and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 2:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtors and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtors still concur with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtors and counsel for the debtors from appearing at the confirmation hearing and the continued status conference. No appearances by the debtors or counsel for the debtors are required at the confirmation hearing or the status conference.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtors (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtors. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtors and counsel for the debtors to

#67.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 13

Tentative Ruling:

5/23/2018:

On May 9, 2018, the debtors appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtors and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 3:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtors and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no unresolved objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtors still concur with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtors and counsel for the debtors from appearing at the confirmation hearing and the continued status conference. No appearances by the debtors or counsel for the debtors are required at the confirmation hearing or the status conference.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtors (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtors. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtors and counsel for the debtors to

Tentative Ruling:

5/23/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

(2) Waiver of the 14-day stay prescribed by Bankruptcy Rule 4001(a)(3).

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

#3.00 Motion for relief from stay

VOLVO FINANCIAL SERVICES VS DEBTOR

Property: Four Vehicles

[Personal Prop] Jeffrey D. Cawdrey, attorney/movant

Docket 48

Tentative Ruling:

5/24/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

#3.00 Hrg re trustee's final report and applications for compensation

Docket 92

Tentative Ruling:

6/5/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. No opposition has been filed. This application for compensation has been set for hearing on the notice required by LBR 2016-1(c)(4).

No appearance is necessary.

The Court thanks the trustee and his professionals for their efforts in the case. Those efforts have produced a significant benefit for creditors: 43% dividend to general unsecured creditors. That recovery well exceeds the results in the vast majority of other chapter 7 cases.

Pursuant to the trustee's final report, the following administrative claims will be allowed:

- (1) Trustee: fees of $9,000 and expenses of $102.08.
- (2) Marshack Hays, LLP: fees of $35,493 and expenses of $964.74.

Chapter 7

#5.00 Hrg re motion for a authorizing the payment of post-petition taxes of the estate

Docket 111

Tentative Ruling:

6/5/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3).

No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 503.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

Docket 138

Tentative Ruling:

6/5/2018:

The tentative ruling of the Court is to deny the objection. Either the trustee or senior counsel for the trustee (John Pringle) should appear at the hearing. The objection alleges that the documentation attached to the proof of claim is inadequate and the objection relies upon In re Garner, 246 B.R. 617, 620 (9th Cir. BAP 2000). However, the objection does not cite or discuss In re Heath, 331 B.R. 424, 437-438 (9th Cir. BAP 2005) (rejecting an objection to claim and stating: "Rather than contacting Creditors and asking for appropriate documentation of any claims that they reasonably believed they might not owe, or might owe in a different amount, they filed objections that relied solely on the alleged lack of prima facie validity of the proofs of claim.") or In re Campbell, 336 B.R. 430 (9th Cir. #12.00 Hrg re trustee's final report and applications for compensation

Tentative Ruling:

6/5/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. No opposition has been filed. This application for compensation has been set for hearing on the notice required by LBR 2016-1(c)(4).
No appearance is necessary.

The Court thanks the trustee for his efforts in the case. Although the amount of funds recovered is small, the trustee administered the case efficiently and minimized professional fees and other administrative costs. These efforts by the trustee produced a benefit for creditors in a case involving minimal assets. Well done.

Pursuant to the trustee's final report, the following administrative claims will be allowed:

(1) Trustee: fees of $1,763.38 and expenses of $16.81.

The trustee shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

Chapter 13

#38.00 Hrg re objection to claim filed by Ally Financial claim number 6

Docket 31

Tentative Ruling:

6/6/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. The objection to claim has been set for hearing on the notice required by Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 3007 and Local Bankruptcy Rules ("LBR") 3007-1 and 9013-1(d)(2). The failure of the claimant to file written opposition at least 14 days before the hearing as required by LBR 3007-1(b)(6) and 9013-1(h) is deemed consent to the sustaining of the objection. See LBR 9013-1(h); Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See LBR 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 502(b). General unsecured claim #6-1 in the amount of $2,456.71 filed by Ally Financial is hereby disallowed.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

2:00 PM

6:18-12889 Alejandro Herrera

Chapter 13

#41.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 13

Tentative Ruling:

6/6/2018:

On May 23, 2018, the debtor appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtor and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 2:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtor and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtor still concurs with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtor and counsel for the debtor from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtor or counsel for the debtor are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtor (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtor. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtor and counsel for the debtor to appear and address such matters.

Docket 1

Tentative Ruling:

6/6/2018:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. As set forth in the posted ruling, the Court intends to confirm the plan and conclude the status conference.

Chapter 13

#53.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 5

Tentative Ruling:

6/6/2018:

On May 23, 2018, the debtors appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtors and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 2:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtors and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no unresolved objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtors still concur with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtors and counsel for the debtors from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtors or counsel for the debtors are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtors (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtors. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtors and counsel for the debtors to appear and address such matters.

#54.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 5-23-18

Docket 5

Tentative Ruling:

6/6/2018:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtors or counsel for the debtors at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtors nor counsel for the debtors should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtors once about their confirmed plan in order to (1) insure the debtors understand its essential requirements, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtors and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtors should increase their understanding of the case and increase their chances of success in the case. The debtors did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to September 28, 2018 at 9:00 a.m. Both debtors are directed to appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtors is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtors is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtors should provide the debtors with an entered copy of the order confirming their chapter 13 plan and the debtors should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (September 28, 2018 at 9:00 a.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtors, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtors to appear at a status conference.

So, in summary, the status conference is continued to September 28, 2018 at 9:00 a.m. and neither the debtors nor their counsel should appear today.

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

6/6/2018:

On May 23, 2018, the debtors appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtors and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 2:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtors and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtors still concur with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtors and counsel for the debtors from appearing at the confirmation hearing and the continued status conference. No appearances by the debtors or counsel for the debtors are required at the confirmation hearing or the status conference.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtors (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtors. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtors and counsel for the debtors to

LBS BINANCIAL CREDIT UNION VS DEBTOR

Property: 2002 National Dolphin
[Personal Prop] Karel Rocha, attorney/movant

Docket 34

Tentative Ruling:

6/6/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

#6.00 Motion for relief from stay

THE BANK OF NEW YORK MELLON VS DEBTORS

Property: 9031 Marmalade Ct., Riverside, CA 92508
[Real Property] Caren Jacobs Castle, attorney/movant

Docket 60

Tentative Ruling:

6/7/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

(3) The creditor or counsel for the creditor may communicate with the debtors or counsel for the debtors regarding the property that is the subject of this motion and the debt owed to the creditor.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. *Cf. The motion requests relief from the automatic stay to complete an eviction. Using a bankruptcy case to delay an eviction is not appropriate. See, e.g., In re Smith, 105 B.R. 50, 53 & 55 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 1989) (describing cases filed to delay an eviction as “abusive” and designed to “delay improperly the landlord from obtaining possession of his property.”). Accordingly, for this reason and the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

CINDY PEREZ VS DEBTOR

Property: 12350 2nd Street, Yuciapa, CA 92399
[UD] William E. Windham, attorney/movant

Docket 4

Tentative Ruling:

6/7/2018:

The hearing regarding this motion shall be heard on shortened notice and any opposition is due at the hearing. Therefore, appearances are required at the hearing.

The motion requests relief from the automatic stay to complete an eviction. Using a bankruptcy case to delay an eviction is not appropriate. See, e.g., In re Smith, 105 B.R. 50, 53 & 55 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 1989) (describing cases filed to delay an eviction as “abusive” and designed to “delay improperly the landlord from obtaining possession of his property.”). Therefore, the tentative ruling of the court is to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property.

Chapter 13

#29.00 Hrg re motion to disallow claim number 1 filed by Cavalry SPV I, LLC

Docket 26

Tentative Ruling:

6/13/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. The objection to claim has been set for hearing on the notice required by Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 3007 and Local Bankruptcy Rules ("LBR") 3007-1 and 9013-1(d)(2). The failure of the claimant to file written opposition at least 14 days before the hearing as required by LBR 3007-1(b)(6) and 9013-1(h) is deemed consent to the sustaining of the objection. See LBR 9013-1(h); Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See LBR 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 502(b). General unsecured claim #1-1 in the amount of $6,139.45 filed by Cavalry SPV I, LLC, as assignee of Bank of America/FIA Card Services, N.A. is hereby disallowed.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR

#31.00 Hrg re motion for order determining value of collateral
[Property: 2014 Kia Optima Ex]

Docket 18

Tentative Ruling:

6/13/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3).

No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 506(a). The Court finds the value of the 2014 Kia Optima is $13,391.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR

Chapter 13

#44.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 0

Tentative Ruling:

6/13/2018:

On June 6, 2018, the debtor appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtor and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 2:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtor and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no unresolved objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtor still concurs with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtor and counsel for the debtor from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtor or counsel for the debtor are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtor (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtor. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtor and counsel for the debtor to appear and address such matters.

Later that day, counsel for the debtors and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 4:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtors and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtors still concur with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtors and counsel for the debtors from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtors or counsel for the debtors are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtors (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtors. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtors and counsel for the debtors to appear and address such matters.

Chapter 13

#66.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 0

Tentative Ruling:

6/13/2018:

On June 6, 2018, the debtors appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtors and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 3:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtors and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no unresolved objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtors still concur with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtors and counsel for the debtors from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtors or counsel for the debtors are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtors (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtors. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtors and counsel for the debtors to appear and address such matters.

Docket 20

Tentative Ruling:

6/13/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3).

No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 506(a). The Court finds the value of the 2015 Jeep Wrangler is $17,350.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

#73.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 6-6-18

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

6/13/2018:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtor or counsel for the debtor at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtor nor counsel for the debtor should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtor once about their confirmed plan in order to (1) insure the debtor understand its essential requirements, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtor and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtor should increase their understanding of the case and increase their chances of success in the case. The debtor did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to September 28, 2018 at 9:00 a.m. The debtor is directed to appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtor is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtor is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtor should provide the debtor with an entered copy of the order confirming their chapter 13 plan and the debtor should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

Chapter 13

If the designated date and time (September 28, 2018 at 9:00 a.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtor, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtor to appear at a status conference.

So, in summary, the status conference is continued to September 28, 2018 at 9:00 a.m. and neither the debtor nor their counsel should appear today.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. *Cf. For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

The motion requests relief from the automatic stay to complete an eviction. Using a bankruptcy case to delay an eviction is not appropriate. See, e.g., In re Smith, 105 B.R. 50, 53 & 55 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 1989) (describing cases filed to delay an eviction as “abusive” and designed to “delay improperly the landlord from obtaining possession of his property.”). Accordingly, for this reason and the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

#1.00 Motion for relief from stay

ALTURA CREDIT UNION VS DEBTOR

Property: 2007 Mercedes Benz CLS-550
[Personal Prop] Brian T. Harvey, attorney/movant

Docket 9

Tentative Ruling:

6/14/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

Docket 15

Tentative Ruling:

#9.00 Hrg re motion for default judgment

Docket 13

Tentative Ruling:

6/14/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3).

No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 523(a)(2)(A).

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

Chapter 13

#21.00 Hrg re motion for order dismissing court claim number 7 Resurgent Capital Services

Docket 34

Tentative Ruling:

6/27/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. The objection to claim has been set for hearing on the notice required by Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 3007 and Local Bankruptcy Rules ("LBR") 3007-1 and 9013-1(d)(2). The failure of the claimant to file written opposition at least 14 days before the hearing as required by LBR 3007-1(b)(6) and 9013-1(h) is deemed consent to the sustaining of the objection. See LBR 9013-1(h); Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See LBR 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 502(b). General unsecured claim #7-1 in the amount of $555.61 filed by Pinnacle Credit Services, LLC its successors and assigns as assignee of Cellco Partnership d/b/a Verizon is hereby disallowed.

Chapter 13

#25.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

6/27/2018:

On June 13, 2018, the debtor appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtor and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 3:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtor and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtor still concurs with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtor and counsel for the debtor from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtor or counsel for the debtor are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtor (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtor. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtor and counsel for the debtor to appear and address such matters.

#26.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 6-13-18

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

6/27/2018:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtor or counsel for the debtor at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtor nor counsel for the debtor should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtor once about their confirmed plan in order to (1) insure the debtor understand its essential requirements, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtor and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtor should increase his understanding of the case and increase his chances of success in the case. The debtor did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to September 28, 2018 at 10:00 a.m. The debtor is directed to appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtor is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtor is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtor should provide the debtor with an entered copy of the order confirming his chapter 13 plan and the debtor should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (September 28, 2018 at 10:00 a.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtor, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtor to appear at a status conference.

Chapter 13

#47.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

6/27/2018:

On June 13, 2018, the debtor appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtor and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 2:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtor and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtor still concurs with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtor and counsel for the debtor from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtor or counsel for the debtor are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtor (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtor. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtor and counsel for the debtor to appear and address such matters.

DEUTSCHE BANK NATIONAL TRUST VS DEBTORS

Property: 19247 Buckboard lane, Riverside, California 92508
[Real Prop] Sean C. Ferry, attorney/movant

FROM: 5-23-18

Docket 148

Tentative Ruling:

6/27/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

#8.00 Hrg motion objecting to claim number 3 filed by Jennifer Boland

FROM: 6-5-18

Docket 138

Tentative Ruling:

7/3/2018:

The tentative ruling of the Court is to deny the objection. Mr. Daff and Mr. Pringle should both appear at the hearing. The objection alleges that the documentation attached to the proof of claim is inadequate and the objection relies upon In re Garner, 246 B.R. 617, 620 (9th Cir. BAP 2000). However, the objection does not cite or discuss In re Heath, 331 B.R. 424, 437-438 (9th Cir. BAP 2005) (rejecting an objection to claim and stating: "Rather than contacting Creditors and asking for appropriate documentation of any claims that they reasonably believed they might not owe, or might owe in a different amount, they filed objections that relied solely on the alleged lack of prima facie validity of the proofs of claim.") or In re Campbell, 336 B.R. 430 (9th Cir. BAP 2005) ("Objections without substance are inadequate to disallow claims, even if those claims lack the documentation required by Rule 3001(c)"). Accordingly, all three cases shall be discussed at the hearing. Counsel for the trustee should anticipate and prepare for a discussion of all three cases at the hearing. Thank you.

However, the objection does not cite or discuss In re Heath, 331 B.R. 424, 437-438 (9th Cir. BAP 2005) (rejecting an objection to claim and stating: "Rather than contacting Creditors and asking for appropriate documentation of any claims that they reasonably believed they might not owe, or might owe in a different amount, they filed objections that relied solely on the alleged lack of prima facie validity of the proofs of claim.") or In re Campbell, 336 B.R. 430 (9th Cir. BAP 2005) ("Objections without substance are inadequate to disallow claims, even if those claims lack the documentation required by Rule 3001(c)"). Accordingly, all three cases shall be discussed at the hearing. Counsel for the trustee should anticipate and prepare for a discussion of all three cases at the hearing. Thank you.

[Real Prop] Nancy Lee, attorney/movant

Docket 63

Tentative Ruling:

7/5/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

#13.00 Motion for relief from stay

FORD MOTOR CREDIT VS DEBTORS

Property: 2017 Ford F150
[Personal Prop] Sheryl K. Ith, attorney/movant

Docket 13

Tentative Ruling:

7/5/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

Chapter 13

#11.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

7/6/2018:

On June 27, 2018, the debtors appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtors and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 1:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtors and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtors still concur with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtors and counsel for the debtors from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtors or counsel for the debtors are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtors (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtors. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtors and counsel for the debtors to appear and address such matters.

#16.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 6-27-18

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

7/6/2018:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtors or counsel for the debtors at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtors nor counsel for the debtors should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtors once about their confirmed plan in order to (1) insure the debtors understand its essential requirements, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtors and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtors should increase their understanding of the case and increase their chances of success in the case. The debtors did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to September 28, 2018 at 11:00 a.m. Both debtors are directed to appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtors is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtors is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtors should provide the debtors with an entered copy of the order confirming their chapter 13 plan and the debtors should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (September 28, 2018 at 11:00 a.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtors, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtors to appear at a status conference.

#41.00 Motion for relief from stay

CAPITAL ONE AUTO FINANCE VS DEBTOR

Property: 2013 Scino Xb 10 Series Hatchback 4D
[Personal Prop] Bret D. Allen, attorney/movant

Docket 42

Tentative Ruling:

7/6/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

(2) Waiver of the 14-day stay prescribed by Bankruptcy Rule 4001(a)(3).

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing").

Chapter 13

#42.00 Hrg re motion in individual case for order imposing a stay or continuing the automatic stay

Docket 9

Tentative Ruling:

7/6/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. The motion is untimely. Section 362(c)(3)(A) provides that the automatic stay "shall terminate with respect to the debtor on the 30th day after the filing of the later case." See 11 U.S.C. § 362(c)(3)(A). In order to avoid the termination of the stay, a motion to extend the stay must be filed and it must be heard on or before the thirtieth day after the filing of the bankruptcy case. See 11 U.S.C. § 362(c)(3)(B) (stating that "on the motion of a party in interest for continuation of the automatic stay and upon notice and a hearing, the court may extend the stay in particular cases as to any or all creditors (subject to such conditions or limitations as the court may then impose) after notice and a hearing completed before the expiration of the 30-day period . . .").

Accordingly, under the plain language of the statute, the hearing regarding a motion to extend the automatic stay pursuant to section 362(c)(3)(B) must occur no later than thirty days after the filing of this bankruptcy case. It is not enough to simply file the motion within the thirty day period. The hearing regarding the motion must also occur within the thirty day period. See, e.g., In re Moon, 339 B.R. 668, 670 (Bankr. N.D. Ohio 2006) (denying a motion to extend the stay that was filed during the thirty day period because the debtors scheduled the motion for a hearing thirty-seven days after the petition date); In re Garrett, 357 B.R. 128, 131 (Bankr. C.D. Ill.

2006) ("Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(c)(3)(B), the Bankruptcy Court may extend the automatic stay only after notice and a hearing completed before the expiration of the 30 day period after the filing of a second bankruptcy case within one year of the dismissal of a previously filed case. If the notice and hearing are not completed within this period, the automatic stay terminates by operation of law pursuant to § 362(c)(3) (A)."); In re Norman, 346 B.R. 181 (Bankr. N.D. W.Va. 2006) (holding that a motion to extend the automatic stay must be heard within the thirty day period); In re Ziolkowski, 338 B.R. 543, 546 (Bankr. D.Conn. 2006) (denying a motion to extend the stay that was filed during the thirty day period because the initial hearing regarding the motion – which was scheduled by the clerk of the court - occurred more than two months after the petition date and stating that the debtors "were the movants and it was their ultimate burden to insure that the Motion was timely scheduled."); Capital One Auto Fin. v. Cowley, 374 B.R. 601, 610 (W.D. Tex. 2006) (reversing a bankruptcy court order granting a motion to extend the stay because, while the motion was filing within thirty days of the petition date, the hearing regarding the motion occurred after the thirty day period and stating that "the Court finds that § 362(c)(3) requires notice and a hearing to be completed within thirty days of a filing of a petition by a single-repeat filer."); In re Wesselman, 2008 Bankr. LEXIS 950 (Bankr. E.D. Ky. 2008) (denying a motion to extend the stay that was filed during the thirty day period because the hearing regarding the motion occurred thirty-one days after the petition date.); In re Brewster, 2008 Bankr. LEXIS 949 (Bankr. E.D. Ky. 2008) (denying a motion to extend the stay that was filed during the thirty day period because the hearing regarding the motion occurred thirty-nine days after the petition date and stating that the "plain meaning of the statute is that the court does not have authority to extend the stay when a hearing is not completed before the expiration of the 30-day period following a bankruptcy filing.").

Because of this strict thirty day period for conducting a hearing regarding a motion to extend the stay, this Court (like many others) has established self-calendaring instructions which permit debtors to set hearings regarding this type of motion on shortened notice (as little as seven days). Under those procedures, debtors typically have between two to four available dates for setting hearings regarding this type of motion during the first thirty days of any bankruptcy case. For unknown reasons, the debtor did not utilize those available dates in this case.

In this case, the debtor had a prior bankruptcy case dismissed within the last twelve months (case no. 2:14-bk-55411-mlo). After that case was dismissed, the debtor filed this second bankruptcy case on June 5, 2018. Thus, the automatic stay expired on July 5, 2018. The debtor did not utilize the self-calendaring procedures that permit hearings on these types of motions on shortened notice (i.e. without an order shortening time) within the first thirty days of the petition date. Pursuant to those guidelines, the motion could have been heard on June 13th, or June 27th. Indeed, the debtor could have scheduled the hearing regarding the motion for June 27th on regular notice to creditors (i.e. 21 days notice to creditors) or, pursuant to the Court's self-calendaring guidelines, on either seven or fourteen days notice to creditors. Instead, on June 8, 2018, the debtor filed a motion to extend the stay and the debtor selected a hearing date for the motion of July 6, 2018. However, that day is 31 days after the petition date.

Accordingly, the motion must be denied as untimely.

Chapter 13

#36.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 0

Tentative Ruling:

7/18/2018:

On July 6, 2018, the debtor appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtor and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 1:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtor and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no unresolved objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtor still concurs with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtor and counsel for the debtor from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtor or counsel for the debtor are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtor (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtor. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtor and counsel for the debtor to appear and address such matters.

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtors or counsel for the debtors at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtors nor counsel for the debtors should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with debtor Gina Monterroso once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure she understand its essential requirements, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions and (4) address any other pertinent issues. #53.00 Motion for relief from stay

TERRY FLEIG VS DEBTOR

Property: 19595 Galway Street, Rialto, CA 92377
[Real Prop] James Jay Stoffel, attorney/movant

Docket 64

Tentative Ruling:

7/18/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

(2) Relief under § 362(d)(4) based on multiple bankruptcy filings affecting the real property.

(3) Pursuant to the request in the motion, the Court also hereby grants the extraordinary relief set forth in paragraphs 10(b) and 11(b) on page 5 of the motion.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Ghazali v. Moran*, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

#15.00 Motion for relief from stay

WELLS FARGO BANK VS DEBTORS

Property: 8099 Elderkin Street, Corona, CA 92880
[Real Prop] Nancy Lee, attorney/movant

Docket 52

Tentative Ruling:

7/19/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

(2) Waiver of the 14-day stay prescribed by Bankruptcy Rule 4001(a)(3).

(3) The creditor or counsel for the creditor may communicate with the debtors or counsel for the debtors regarding the property that is the subject of this motion and the debt owed to the creditor.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

#17.00 Hrg re motion for default judgment

Docket 7

Tentative Ruling:

7/19/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. *Cf. Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3).

No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion and enter judgment finding that the deed of trust executed by Balwant and Sukhjinder Sandhu in favor of Wescom Central Credit Union, dated July 12, 2007, securing a debt in the original principal amount of $70,000, and recorded on July 19, 2007 as document number 2007-0470028, in the Official Records of Riverside County, is invalid, void and unenforceable.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

Chapter 7

#3.00 Hrg re trustee's final report and application for compensation

Docket 70

Tentative Ruling:

7/31/2018:

This matter presents unusual facts which implicate sections 326(a), 330(a)(7) and 363(j) of the Bankruptcy Code. Specifically, should the trustee's compensation be calculated based (in part) upon disbursements to co-owners of property sold by the trustee? The funds paid by the trustee to the co-owners were not property of the estate and were not distributed to creditors.

It would be helpful if, prior to the hearing, the trustee reviewed In re Eidson, 481 B.R. 380 (Bankr. E.D. Va. 2012) as well as Stine v. Diamond (In re Flynn), 418 F.3d 1005 (9th Cir. 2005).

Chapter 7

#6.00 Hrg re trustee's final report and applications for compensation

Docket 36

Tentative Ruling:

7/31/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. No opposition has been filed. This application for compensation has been set for hearing on the notice required by LBR 2016-1(c)(4). No appearance is necessary.

The Court thanks the trustee for his efforts in this case. The trustee minimized administrative expenses and recovered sufficient funds to pay creditors 60% of their claims. By not employing other professionals and handling the case administration entirely himself, the trustee saved the creditors considerable funds and made the 60% distribution possible. This is excellent work.

Pursuant to the trustee's final report, the following administrative claims will be allowed:

(1) Trustee: fees of $1,550 and expenses of $153.38.

The trustee shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

Chapter 11

#7.00 Hrg re motion for order: (1) Approving compromise of controversies; (2) Dismissing bankruptcy case

Docket 58

Tentative Ruling:

7/31/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3).

No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

#31.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

8/1/2018:

On July 18, 2018, the debtor appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtor and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 2:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtor and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtor still concurs with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtor and counsel for the debtor from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtor or counsel for the debtor are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtor (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtor. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtor and counsel for the debtor to appear and address such matters.

6:18-14992 Albert Domingo Mencias

Chapter 13

#64.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 26

Tentative Ruling:

8/1/2018:

On July 18, 2018, the debtor appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtor and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 4:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtor and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtor still concurs with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtor and counsel for the debtor from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtor or counsel for the debtor are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtor (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtor. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtor and counsel for the debtor to appear and address such matters.

Docket 43

Tentative Ruling:

8/1/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

(2) Waiver of the 14-day stay prescribed by Bankruptcy Rule 4001(a)(3).

#83.01 Motion for relief from stay

LINDA SISNEROS VS DEBTOR

Property: 5745 Grand Ave., Riverside, CA 92504
[UD] William E. Windham, attorney/movant

Docket 9

Tentative Ruling:

8/1/2018:

The hearing regarding this motion shall be heard on shortened notice and any opposition is due at the hearing. Therefore, appearances are required at the hearing.

The motion requests relief from the automatic stay to complete an eviction. Using a bankruptcy case to delay an eviction is not appropriate. See, e.g., In re Smith, 105 B.R. 50, 53 & 55 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 1989) (describing cases filed to delay an eviction as “abusive” and designed to “delay improperly the landlord from obtaining possession of his property.”). Therefore, the tentative ruling of the court is to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property.

(2) Waiver of 11 U.S.C. § 1301 co-debtor stay.

(3) Waiver of the 14-day stay prescribed by Bankruptcy Rule 4001(a)(3).

#6.00 Motion for relief from stay

CAPITAL ONE AUTO FINANCE VS DEBTOR

Property: 2015 Honda Civic Coupe 2D EX 14
[Personal Prop] Bret D. Allen, attorney/movant

Docket 20

Tentative Ruling:

8/2/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

#9.00 Motion for relief from stay

TOYOTA MOTOR CREDIT V DEBTORS

Property: 2013 Toyota Camry
[Personal Prop] Austin P. Nagel, attorney/movant

Docket 49

Tentative Ruling:

8/2/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

Docket 22

Tentative Ruling:

8/09/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

(2) Waiver of the 14-day stay prescribed by Bankruptcy Rule 4001(a)(3).

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

THOMAS E. WALJESKI VS DEBTOR

Property: Vacant land in Calabassas
[Real Prop] Thomas B. Ure, attorney/movant

Docket 38

Tentative Ruling:

8/9/2018:

The hearing regarding this motion shall be heard on shortened notice and any opposition is due at the hearing. Therefore, appearances are required at the hearing.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the tentative ruling of the Court is to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

(2) Waiver of the 14-day stay prescribed by Bankruptcy Rule 4001(a)(3).

(3) Relief under § 362(d)(4) based on the transfer of all or part ownership of, or other interest in, such real property without the consent of the secured creditor or court approval and multiple bankruptcy filings affecting the real property.

(4) Pursuant to the request in the motion, the Court also hereby grants the extraordinary relief set forth in paragraph 11(b) on page 5 of the motion.

Chapter 13

#44.00 Hrg re objection to claim filed by Bank of America claim number 9

Docket 27

Tentative Ruling:

8/15/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. The objection to claim has been set for hearing on the notice required by Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 3007 and Local Bankruptcy Rules ("LBR") 3007-1 and 9013-1(d)(2). The failure of the claimant to file written opposition at least 14 days before the hearing as required by LBR 3007-1(b)(6) and 9013-1(h) is deemed consent to the sustaining of the objection. See LBR 9013-1(h); Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See LBR 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 502(b). General unsecured claim #9-1 in the amount of $6,157.89 filed by Bank of America, N.A. is hereby disallowed.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR

Ghazali v. Moran*, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See LBR 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 502(b). General unsecured claim #10 in the amount of $2,198.44 filed by LVNV Funding, LLC, its successors and assigns as assignee of Citibank (South Dakota) N.A., is hereby disallowed.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR

#55.00 Hrg re objection to claim filed by LVNV Funding, LLC et al., claim number 11

Docket 35

Tentative Ruling:

8/15/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. The objection to claim has been set for hearing on the notice required by Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 3007 and Local Bankruptcy Rules ("LBR") 3007-1 and 9013-1(d)(2). The failure of the claimant to file written opposition at least 14 days before the hearing as required by LBR 3007-1(b)(6) and 9013-1(h) is deemed consent to the sustaining of the objection. See LBR 9013-1(h); *Cf. Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. *See Boone v. Chapter 13

#57.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

8/15/2018:

On August 1, 2018, the debtors appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtors and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 1:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtors and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtors still concur with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtors and counsel for the debtors from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtors or counsel for the debtors are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtors (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtors. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtors and counsel for the debtors to appear and address such matters.

#81.00 Hrg re motion for order determining value of collateral

[Property: 2011 Volkswagen Touareg-V6]

Docket 21

Tentative Ruling:

8/15/2018:

The tentative ruling of the Court is to deny the motion without prejudice for insufficient evidence and improper service. There is insufficient evidence regarding the identity of the lienholder and the current balance owed on the lien. Additionally, no debtor's declaration or evidence of ownership by the debtors is provided. Lastly, FRBP Rule 7004(b)(3) provides that service on an institution must be addressed to an officer of the institution or its agent for service of process. Service on Alaska USA Federal Credit Union was not made in accordance with the rule – the motion was not addressed to a named officer or agent of the institution. In re Schoon, 153 B.R. 48 (Bankr. N.D. Cal. 1993).

Chapter 13

#88.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 15

Tentative Ruling:

8/15/2018:

On August 1, 2018, the debtor appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtor and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 4:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtor and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtor still concurs with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtor and counsel for the debtor from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtor or counsel for the debtor are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtor (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtor. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtor and counsel for the debtor to appear and address such matters.

Chapter 13

#89.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan
FROM: 8-1-18

Docket 1

Tentative Ruling:

8/15/2018:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtor or counsel for the debtor at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtor nor counsel for the debtor should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtor once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtor, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtor and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtor should increase the debtor's understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtor did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to September 28, 2018 at 3:00 p.m. The debtor must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtor is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtor is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtor should provide the debtor with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtor should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (September 28, 2018 at 3:00 p.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtor, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtor to appear at a status conference.

So, in summary, the status conference is continued to September 28, 2018 at 3:00 p.m. and neither the debtor nor their counsel should appear today.

#1.00 Motion for relief from stay

WELLS FARGO BANK VS DEBTORS

Property: 2015 Dodge Charger
[Personal Prop] Sheryl K. Ith, attorney/movant

Docket 66

Tentative Ruling:

8/23/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

#2.00 Motion for relief from stay

WELLS FARGO BANK VS DEBTOR

Property: 2013 Lexus CT
[Personal Prop] Sheryl K. Ith, attorney/movant

Docket 22

Tentative Ruling:

8/23/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

#1.00 Hrg re motion for order authorizing distribution

Docket 79

Tentative Ruling:

8/28/18:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3).

No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 726.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

Docket 113

Tentative Ruling:

8/29/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3).

No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 350(b).

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

Chapter 13

#39.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

8/29/2018:

On August 15, 2018, the debtor appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtor and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 2:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtor and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtor still concurs with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtor and counsel for the debtor from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtor or counsel for the debtor are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtor (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtor. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtor and counsel for the debtor to appear and address such matters.

#63.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan
FROM: 8-15-18

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

8/29/2018:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtor or counsel for the debtor at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtor nor counsel for the debtor should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtor once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtor, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtor and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtor should increase the debtor's understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtor did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to September 28, 2018 at 3:00 p.m. The debtor must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtor is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtor is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtor should provide the debtor with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtor should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (September 28, 2018 at 3:00 p.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtor, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtor to appear at a status conference.

So, in summary, the status conference is continued to September 28, 2018 at 3:00 p.m. and neither the debtor nor their counsel should appear today.

#66.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

8/29/2018:

On August 15, 2018, the debtor appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtor and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 4:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtor and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtor still concurs with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtor and counsel for the debtor from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtor or counsel for the debtor are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtor (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtor. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtor and counsel for the debtor to appear and address such matters.

Tentative Ruling:

8/29/2018:

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

#95.00 Hrg re status conference regarding debtors certification of compliance and application for entry of discharge

[CASE DISCHARGE 7-18-18]

Docket 0

Tentative Ruling:

8/29/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. The Court has reviewed the new application for entry of discharge filed in this case. Based on that review, the court entered a discharge in this case and, therefore, it does not appear that a status conference is necessary at this time. No appearances are required.

If the debtor has any concerns, questions or objections regarding these matters or anything else regarding this case that the debtor wishes to address, the debtor or counsel for the debtor is welcome to appear at the status conference. Likewise, if the debtor or counsel for the debtor wishes to discuss the chapter 13 procedures order or ask any questions, the status conference is an opportunity to do so. Any issues in this case may be addressed at the status conference. However, as stated above, no appearances are required and, in the absence of an appearance, the Court will simply conclude the status conference.

#1.00 Motion for relief from stay

FORD MOTOR CREDIT VS DEBTOR

Property: 2016 Ford Focus
[Personal Prop] Jennifer H. Wang, attorney/movant

Docket 17

Tentative Ruling:

8/30/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

#4.00 Motion for relief from stay

MANUEL ALVAREZ VS DEBTOR

Property: 25114 Kalmia Avenue, Moreno Valley, CA 92557
[UD] Helen Grayce Long & Associates, attorney/movant

Docket 7

Tentative Ruling:

8/30/2018:

The hearing regarding this motion shall be heard on shortened notice and any opposition is due at the hearing. Therefore, appearances are required at the hearing.

The motion requests relief from the automatic stay to complete an eviction. Using a bankruptcy case to delay an eviction is not appropriate. See, e.g., In re Smith, 105 B.R. 50, 53 & 55 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 1989) (describing cases filed to delay an eviction as “abusive” and designed to “delay improperly the landlord from obtaining possession of his property.”). Therefore, the tentative ruling of the court is to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property.

#9.00 Hrg re motion for default judgment

Docket 17

Tentative Ruling:

8/30/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3).

No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion and enter judgment finding that the deed of trust executed by Robert D. Terrazas and Camille J. Terrazas in favor of Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., dated August 31, 2006, securing a debt in the original principal amount of $172,000, and recorded on September 22, 2006 as document number 2006-0650050, in the Official Records of San Bernardino County, is invalid, void and unenforceable.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after

#5.00 Motion for relief from stay

AMERICAN HONDA FINANCE CORPORATION VS DEBTOR

Property: 2018 Honda Odyssey
[Personal Prop] Vincent V. Frounjian, attorney/movant

Docket 43

Tentative Ruling:

9/6/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

[Personal Prop] Joseph L. Cruz, attorney/movant

Docket 7

Tentative Ruling:

9/6/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. *Cf. Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

The motion requests relief from the automatic stay to complete an eviction. Using a bankruptcy case to delay an eviction is not appropriate. See, e.g., In re Smith, 105 B.R. 50, 53 & 55 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 1989) (describing cases filed to delay an eviction as “abusive” and designed to “delay improperly the landlord from obtaining possession of his property.”). Accordingly, for this reason and the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

#10.00 Motion for relief from stay

ASHRAF FAHIM, MERVAT MIKHAIL VS DEBTOR

Property: 1268 Flemington Road, Riverside, CA 92506
[UD] Barry Lee O'Connor, attorney/movant

Docket 13

Tentative Ruling:

9/6/2018:

The hearing regarding this motion shall be heard on shortened notice and any opposition is due at the hearing. Therefore, appearances are required at the hearing.

The motion requests relief from the automatic stay to complete an eviction. Using a bankruptcy case to delay an eviction is not appropriate. See, e.g., In re Smith, 105 B.R. 50, 53 & 55 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 1989) (describing cases filed to delay an eviction as “abusive” and designed to “delay improperly the landlord from obtaining possession of his property.”). Therefore, the tentative ruling of the court is to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property.

(2) Waiver of the 14-day stay prescribed by Bankruptcy Rule 4001(a)(3).

Chapter 7

#1.00 Hrg re trustee's final report and application for compensation

Docket 39

Tentative Ruling:

9/11/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. No opposition has been filed. This application for compensation has been set for hearing on the notice required by LBR 2016-1(c)(4).

No appearance is necessary.

The Court thanks the Trustee for his efforts in the case. The Trustee identified a small asset in the case (a tax refund) and made efforts to recover the funds with no additional administrative expenses. By avoiding professional fees and taking efficient action, general unsecured creditors will be paid 25% in case involving a very small asset. Well done.

Pursuant to the trustee's final report, the following administrative claims will be allowed:

(1) Trustee: fees of $725 and expenses of $121.48.

The trustee shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

Chapter 7

#2.00 Hrg re motion for order compelling turnover of settlement funds and request for award of attorney's fees

Docket 88

Tentative Ruling:

9/11/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3).

No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 542.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

09/11/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. No opposition has been filed. This application for compensation has been set for hearing on the notice required by LBR 2016-1(c)(4).

No appearance is necessary.

The Court thanks the Trustee for his efforts in the case. The Trustee identified a small asset in the case (a tax refund) and made efforts to recover the funds with no additional administrative expenses. By avoiding professional fees and taking efficient action, general unsecured creditors will be paid 18% in case involving a very small asset. Well done.

Pursuant to the trustee's final report, the following administrative claims will be allowed:

(1) Trustee: fees of $965.75 and expenses of $60.56.

The trustee shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

Chapter 13

#31.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

9/12/2018:

On August 29, 2018, the debtors appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtors and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 1:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtors and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtors still concur with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtors and counsel for the debtors from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtors or counsel for the debtors are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtors (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtors. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtors and counsel for the debtors to appear and address such matters.

Chapter 13

#32.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 8-29-18

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

9/12/2018:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtors or counsel for the debtors at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtors nor counsel for the debtors should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtors once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtors, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtors and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtors should increase the debtors' understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtors did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to September 28, 2018 at 4:00 p.m. Both debtors must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtors is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtors is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtors should provide the debtors with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtors should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (September 28, 2018 at 4:00 p.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtors, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtors to appear at a status conference.

So, in summary, the status conference is continued to September 28, 2018 at 4:00 p.m. and neither the debtors nor their counsel should appear today.

Chapter 13

#46.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 0

Tentative Ruling:

9/12/2018:

On August 29, 2018, the debtor appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtor and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 3:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtor and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no unresolved objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtor still concurs with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtor and counsel for the debtor from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtor or counsel for the debtor are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtor (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtor. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtor and counsel for the debtor to appear and address such matters.

Chapter 13

#47.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan
FROM: 8-29-18

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

9/12/2018:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtors or counsel for the debtors at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtors nor counsel for the debtors should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtors once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtors, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtors and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtors should increase the debtors' understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtors did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to September 28, 2018 at 4:00 p.m. Both debtors must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtors is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtors is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtors should provide the debtors with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtors should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (September 28, 2018 at 4:00 p.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtors, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtors to appear at a status conference.

So, in summary, the status conference is continued to September 28, 2018 at 4:00 p.m. and neither the debtors nor their counsel should appear today.

#2.00 Motion for relief from stay

NATIONSTAR MORTGAGE VS DEBTORS

Property: 56 Seaman Ave, Castleton On Hudson, NY 12033
[Real Prop] Darlene C. Vigil, attorney/movant

Docket 17

Tentative Ruling:

09/13/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

#1.00 Motion for relief from stay

STAR MILLING VS DEBTORS

Property: 35826 and 35870 Fir Avenue, Yucaipa, CA 92399
[Real Prop] Bradley A. Silva, attorney/movant

Docket 63

Tentative Ruling:

09/20/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

Property: 2018 Toyota Camry
[Personal Property] Austin P. Nagel, attorney/movant

Docket 10

Tentative Ruling:

09/20/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. *Cf. Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

Docket 0

Tentative Ruling:

09/25/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3).

No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to sustain the objection pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §522 with the following relief:

(1) Disallow the Debtor's claimed exemption in the real property located at 17772 Wilt Road, Sisters, Oregon.

None.

Final Ruling. No opposition has been filed. This application for compensation has been set for hearing on the notice required by LBR 2016-1(c)(4). No appearance is necessary.

The Court thanks the trustee for administering a small asset in this case efficiently. The trustee recovered a portion of a small tax refund and that will provide a modest distribution to creditors. The trustee's efforts are appreciated.

Pursuant to the trustee's final report, the following administrative claims will be allowed:

(1) Trustee: fees of $921.70 and expenses of $44.21.

The trustee shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

Chapter 13

#31.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

09/26/2018:

On September 12, 2018, the debtor appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtor and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 1:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtor and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtor still concurs with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtor and counsel for the debtor from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtor or counsel for the debtor are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtor (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtor. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtor and counsel for the debtor to appear and address such matters.

#33.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

09/26/2018:

On September 12, 2018, the debtors appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtors and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 1:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtors and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtors still concur with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtors and counsel for the debtors from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtors or counsel for the debtors are required at the confirmation hearing.

#34.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 9-12-18

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

09/26/2018:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtors or counsel for the debtors at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtors nor counsel for the debtors should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtors once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtors, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtors and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtors should increase the debtors' understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtors did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to December 12, 2018 at 9:00 a.m. Both debtors must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtors is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtors is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtors should provide the debtors with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtors should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (December 12, 2018 at 9:00 a.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtors, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtors to appear at a status conference.

So, in summary, the status conference is continued to December 12, 2018 at 9:00 a.m. and neither the debtors nor their counsel should appear today.

Chapter 13

#73.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

09/26/2018:

On September 12, 2018, the debtor appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtor and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 4:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtor and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtor still concurs with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtor and counsel for the debtor from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtor or counsel for the debtor are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtor (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtor. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtor and counsel for the debtor to appear and address such matters.

Chapter 13

#74.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 9-12-18

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

09/26/2018:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtor or counsel for the debtor at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtor nor counsel for the debtor should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtor once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtor, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtor and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtor should increase the debtor's understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtor did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to December 12, 2018 at 9:00 a.m. The debtor must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtor is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtor is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtor should provide the debtor with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtor should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (December 12, 2018 at 9:00 a.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtor, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtor to appear at a status conference.

So, in summary, the status conference is continued to December 12, 2018 at 9:00 a.m. and neither the debtor nor their counsel should appear today.

#79.00 Motion for relief from stay

BAYVIEW LOAN SERVICING VS DEBTOR

Property: 23551 Jubilee Lane, Diamond Bar, CA 91765
[Real Prop] Edward G. Schloss, attorney/movant

Docket 53

Tentative Ruling:

09/26/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(4) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

#1.00 Motion for relief from stay

AMERICREDIT FINANCIAL SERVICES VS DEBTOR

Property: Lienholder and named loss payee
[Non Bk Forum] Sheryl K. Ith, attorney/movant

Docket 64

Tentative Ruling:

09/27/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) with the following relief:

- (1) Termination of the stay solely to pursue insurance proceeds.
- (2) Waiver of the 14-day stay prescribed by Bankruptcy Rule 4001(a)(3).

Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

Docket 8

Tentative Ruling:

09/27/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

#7.00 Motion for relief from stay

WELLS FARGO BANK VS DEBTOR

Property: 2015 Buick Verano
[Personal Prop] Sheryl K. Ith, attorney/movant

Docket 12

Tentative Ruling:

10/04/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Chapter 13

#22.00 Hrg re objection to claim 5 filed by Cavalry SPV I, LLC

Docket 41

Tentative Ruling:

10/10/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. The objection to claim has been set for hearing on the notice required by Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 3007 and Local Bankruptcy Rules ("LBR") 3007-1 and 9013-1(d)(2). The failure of the claimant to file written opposition at least 14 days before the hearing as required by LBR 3007-1(b)(6) and 9013-1(h) is deemed consent to the sustaining of the objection. See LBR 9013-1(h); Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See LBR 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 502(b). General unsecured claim #5-1 in the amount of $28,716.96 filed by Cavalry SPV I, LLC is hereby disallowed.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR

Chapter 13

#30.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 15

Tentative Ruling:

10/10/2018:

On September 26, 2018, the debtor appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtor and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 1:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtor and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtor still concurs with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtor and counsel for the debtor from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtor or counsel for the debtor are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtor (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtor. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtor and counsel for the debtor to appear and address such matters.

#44.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 9-26-18

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

10/10/2018:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtor or counsel for the debtor at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtor nor counsel for the debtor should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtor once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtor, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtor and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtor should increase the debtor's understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtor did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to December 12, 2018 at 9:00 a.m. The debtor must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtor is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtor is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtor should provide the debtor with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtor should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (December 12, 2018 at 9:00 a.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtor, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtor to appear at a status conference.

#64.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

10/10/2018:

On September 26, 2018, the debtors appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtors and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 4:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtors and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtors still concur with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtors and counsel for the debtors from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtors or counsel for the debtors are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtors (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtors. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtors and counsel for the debtors to appear and address such matters.

#69.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 9-26-18

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

10/10/2018:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtors or counsel for the debtors at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtors nor counsel for the debtors should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtors once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtors, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtors and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtors should increase the debtors' understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtors did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to December 12, 2018 at 9:00 a.m. Both debtors must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtors is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtors is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtors should provide the debtors with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtors should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (December 12, 2018 at 9:00 a.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtors, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtors to appear at a status conference.

So, in summary, the status conference is continued to December 12, 2018 at 9:00 a.m. and neither the debtors nor their counsel should appear today.

OSBUN SQUARE HOMEOWNERS VS DEBTOR

Property: 2350 Osbun Road #59, San Bernardion, CA 92404
[Real Prop] Mark D. Estle, attorney/movant

Docket 49

Tentative Ruling:

10/10/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

(4) Waiver of the co-debtor stay.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

#1.00 Motion for relief from stay

JPMORGAN CHASE BANK VS DEBTOR

Property: 2008 Hummer H2
[Personal Prop] Joseph M. Pleasant, attorney/movant

Docket 73

Tentative Ruling:

10/11/2018:

The tentative ruling of the court is to deny the motion. Paragraph 1 of the proof of service is not filled out correctly. Paragraph 1 of the proof of service states that the party completing the proof of service "checked the CM/ECF docket for this bankruptcy case or adversary proceeding and determined that the following persons are on the Electronic Mailing Notice List to receive NEF transmission at the e-mail addresses stated below:". That did not occur in this case.

Therefore, the moving party should re-file the motion and, when doing so, the moving party should comply with the requirements in paragraph 1 of the proof of service and include in paragraph 1 all parties and e-mail addresses listed on the Electronic Mail Notice List. That list is available by taking the following steps in CM/ECF: (1) select "Utilities" (2) select "Mailings", (3) select "Mailing Info for a Case", (4) input the correct case number and then (5) copy all information in the first paragraph into paragraph 1 of the proof of service. In this case, following these steps would have resulted in the following information appearing in the proof of service:

Chapter 7

#5.00 Hrg re motion for default judgment

Docket 24

Tentative Ruling:

10/11/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3).

No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §727 with the following relief:

(1) The Debtors' discharge is denied.

The court will enter an order.

#2.00 Motion for relief from stay

JPMORGAN CHASE BANK VS DEBTOR

Property: 35229 Momat Avenue, Wildomar, CA 92595
[Real Prop] Nancy Lee, attorney/movant

Docket 8

Tentative Ruling:

10/18/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

(3) The creditor or counsel for the creditor may communicate with the debtor or counsel for the debtor regarding the property that is the subject of this motion and the debt owed to the creditor.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

None.

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3).

No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 503(b) with the following relief:

(1) Finance agreement with Creative Finance LLC granting an administrative claim is approved.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

Chapter 13

#18.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 37

Tentative Ruling:

10/24/2018:

On October 10, 2018, the debtors appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtors and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 1:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtors and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtors still concur with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtors and counsel for the debtors from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtors or counsel for the debtors are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtors (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtors. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtors and counsel for the debtors to appear and address such matters.

Chapter 13

#27.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

10/24/2018:

On October 10, 2018, the debtor appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtor and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 1:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtor and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtor still concurs with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtor and counsel for the debtor from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtor or counsel for the debtor are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtor (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtor. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtor and counsel for the debtor to appear and address such matters.

#31.00 Hrg re motion to value collateral held by Capital One Bank (USA), National Association

Docket 18

Tentative Ruling:

10/24/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3).

No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 506 with the following relief:

(1) The lien held by Capital One Bank (USA), N.A., on the 2006 Suzuki GSXR, has a secured value of $4,920 in accordance with the NADA Guide average retail value. See In re Morales, 387 B.R. 36, 45 (Bkrtcy.C.D.Cal. 2008).

Chapter 13

#45.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 10-10-18

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

10/24/2018:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtor or counsel for the debtor at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtor nor counsel for the debtor should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtor once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtor, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtor and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtor should increase the debtor's understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtor did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to December 12, 2018 at 11:00 a.m. The debtor must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtor is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtor is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtor should provide the debtor with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtor should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (December 12, 2018 at 11:00 a.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtor, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtor to appear at a status conference.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. *See Boone v. For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

Final Ruling. The motion is untimely. Section 362(c)(3)(A) provides that the automatic stay “shall terminate with respect to the debtor on the 30th day after the filing of the later case.” See 11 U.S.C. § 362(c)(3)(A). In order to avoid the termination of the stay, a motion to extend the stay must be filed and it must be heard on or before the thirtieth day after the filing of the bankruptcy case. See 11 U.S.C. § 362(c)(3)(B) (stating that “on the motion of a party in interest for continuation of the automatic stay and upon notice and a hearing, the court may extend the stay in particular cases as to any or all creditors (subject to such conditions or limitations as the court may then impose) after notice and a hearing completed before the expiration of the 30-day period . . .”).

Accordingly, under the plain language of the statute, the hearing regarding a motion to extend the automatic stay pursuant to section 362(c)(3)(B) must occur no later than thirty days after the filing of this bankruptcy case. It is not enough to simply file the motion within the thirty day period. The hearing regarding the motion must also occur within the thirty day period. See, e.g., In re Moon, 339 B.R. 668, 670 (Bankr. N.D. Ohio 2006) (denying a motion to extend the stay that was filed during the thirty day period because the debtors scheduled the motion for a hearing thirty-seven days after the petition date); In re Garrett, 357 B.R. 128, 131 (Bankr. C.D. Ill.

2006) (“Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(c)(3)(B), the Bankruptcy Court may extend the automatic stay only after notice and a hearing completed before the expiration of the 30 day period after the filing of a second bankruptcy case within one year of the dismissal of a previously filed case. If the notice and hearing are not completed within this period, the automatic stay terminates by operation of law pursuant to § 362(c)(3) (A).”); In re Norman, 346 B.R. 181 (Bankr. N.D. W.Va. 2006) (holding that a motion to extend the automatic stay must be heard within the thirty day period); In re Ziolkowski, 338 B.R. 543, 546 (Bankr. D.Conn. 2006) (denying a motion to extend the stay that was filed during the thirty day period because the initial hearing regarding the motion – which was scheduled by the clerk of the court - occurred more than two months after the petition date and stating that the debtors “were the movants and it was their ultimate burden to insure that the Motion was timely scheduled.”); Capital One Auto Fin. v. Cowley, 374 B.R. 601, 610 (W.D. Tex. 2006) (reversing a bankruptcy court order granting a motion to extend the stay because, while the motion was filing within thirty days of the petition date, the hearing regarding the motion occurred after the thirty day period and stating that “the Court finds that § 362(c)(3) requires notice and a hearing to be completed within thirty days of a filing of a petition by a single-repeat filer.”); In re Wesselman, 2008 Bankr. LEXIS 950 (Bankr. E.D. Ky. 2008) (denying a motion to extend the stay that was filed during the thirty day period because the hearing regarding the motion occurred thirty-one days after the petition date.); In re Brewster, 2008 Bankr. LEXIS 949 (Bankr. E.D. Ky. 2008) (denying a motion to extend the stay that was filed during the thirty day period because the hearing regarding the motion occurred thirty-nine days after the petition date and stating that the “plain meaning of the statute is that the court does not have authority to extend the stay when a hearing is not completed before the expiration of the 30-day period following a bankruptcy filing.”).

Because of this strict thirty day period for conducting a hearing regarding a motion to extend the stay, this Court (like many others) has established self-calendaring instructions which permit debtors to set hearings regarding this type of motion on shortened notice (as little as seven days). Under those procedures, debtors typically have between two to four available dates for setting hearings regarding this type of motion during the first thirty days of any bankruptcy case. For unknown reasons, the debtor did not utilize those available dates in this case.

In this case, the debtor filed a prior bankruptcy case within the last twelve months (case no. 6:18-bk-15606-WJ). After that case was dismissed, the debtor filed this second bankruptcy case on September 17, 2018. Thus, the automatic stay expired on October 17, 2018. The debtor did not utilize the self-calendaring procedures that permit hearings on these types of motions on shortened notice (i.e. without an order shortening time) within the first thirty days of the petition date. Pursuant to those guidelines, the motion could have been heard on September 26, 2018, or October 10, 2018. Indeed, the debtor could have scheduled the hearing regarding the motion for October 10, 2018 on regular notice to creditors (i.e. 21 days notice to creditors) or, pursuant to the Court's self-calendaring guidelines, on either seven or fourteen days notice to creditors. Instead, on September 21, 2018, the debtor filed a motion to extend the stay and the debtor selected a hearing date for the motion of October 24, 2018. However, that day is 37 days after the petition date.

Accordingly, the motion must be denied as untimely.

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(4) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

#5.00 Motion for relief from stay

U.S. BANK NATIONAL VS DEBTOR

Property: 769 West 20th Street, San Bernardino, CA 92405
[Real Prop] Sean C. Ferry, attorney/movant

Docket 13

Tentative Ruling:

11/01/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

(3) The creditor or counsel for the creditor may communicate with the debtor or counsel for the debtor regarding the property that is the subject of this motion and the debt owed to the creditor.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

Chapter 13

#39.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 1

Tentative Ruling:

11/07/2018:

On October 24, 2018, the debtor appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtor and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 1:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtor and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtor still concurs with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtor and counsel for the debtor from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtor or counsel for the debtor are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtor (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtor. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtor and counsel for the debtor to appear and address such matters.

Chapter 13

#40.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 10-24-18

Docket 5

Tentative Ruling:

11/07/2018:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtor or counsel for the debtor at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtor nor counsel for the debtor should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtor once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtor, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtor and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtor should increase the debtor's understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtor did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to December 12, 2018 at 11:00 a.m. The debtor must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtor is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtor is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtor should provide the debtor with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtor should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (December 12, 2018 at 11:00 a.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtor, counsel should file a declaration stating

United States Bankruptcy Court

Riverside

as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtor to appear at a status conference.

So, in summary, the status conference is continued to December 12, 2018 at 11:00 a.m. and neither the debtor nor their counsel should appear today.

Chapter 13

#57.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

11/07/2018:

On October 24, 2018, the debtors appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtors and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 2:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtors and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtors still concur with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtors and counsel for the debtors from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtors or counsel for the debtors are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtors (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtors. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtors and counsel for the debtors to appear and address such matters.

#69.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 10-24-18

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

11/07/2018:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtor or counsel for the debtor at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtor nor counsel for the debtor should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtor once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtor, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtor and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtor should increase the debtor's understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtor did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to December 12, 2018 at 11:00 a.m. The debtor must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtor is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtor is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtor should provide the debtor with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtor should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (December 12, 2018 at 11:00 a.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtor, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtor to appear at a status conference.

So, in summary, the status conference is continued to December 12, 2018 at 11:00 a.m. and neither the debtor nor their counsel should appear today.

Chapter 13

#77.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

11/07/2018:

On October 24, 2018, the debtor appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtor and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 3:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtor and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtor still concurs with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtor and counsel for the debtor from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtor or counsel for the debtor are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtor (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtor. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtor and counsel for the debtor to appear and address such matters.

Chapter 13

#78.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 10-24-18

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

11/07/2018:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtor or counsel for the debtor at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtor nor counsel for the debtor should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtor once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtor, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtor and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtor should increase the debtor's understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtor did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to December 12, 2018 at 11:00 a.m. The debtor must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtor is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtor is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtor should provide the debtor with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtor should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (December 12, 2018 at 11:00 a.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtor, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtor to appear at a status conference.

So, in summary, the status conference is continued to December 12, 2018 at 11:00 a.m. and neither the debtor nor their counsel should appear today.

#80.00 Motion for relief from stay

FORD MOTOR CREDIT COMPANY VS DEBTOR

Property: Superior Court Docket RIC483696
[Non Bk Forum] Joseph M. Pleasant, attorney/movant

Docket 48

Tentative Ruling:

11/07/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) with the following relief:

- (1) Termination of the stay solely to renew the judgment and lien.
- (2) Termination of the co-debtor stay.

U.S. BANK TRUST VS DEBTOR

[Real Prop] Christina J.O., attorney/movant

Docket 58

Tentative Ruling:

11/08/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(4) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

(3) The creditor or counsel for the creditor may communicate with the debtor or counsel for the debtor regarding the property that is the subject of this motion and the debt owed to the creditor.

(4) Relief under § 362(d)(4) based on (a) the transfer of all or part ownership of, or other interest in, such real property without the consent of the secured creditor or court approval and (b) multiple bankruptcy filings affecting the real property.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

#3.00 Hrg re trustee's final report and applicatin for compensation

Docket 37

Tentative Ruling:

11/27/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. No opposition has been filed. This application for compensation has been set for hearing on the notice required by LBR 2016-1(c)(4).

No appearance is necessary.

The Court thanks the trustee for his efforts in this case. The trustee administered a case with minimal assets and, in the proces, minimized administrative expenses. The result has produced a dividend of 100% to timely unsecured claims. That is an excellent outcome and the Court appreciates the efforts of the trustee.

Pursuant to the trustee's final report, the following administrative claims will be allowed:

(1) Trustee: fees of $1,161.18 and expenses of $109.98.

The trustee shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

Chapter 7

#5.00 Hrg re motion to approve compromise with the debtor David J. Lizama

Docket 76

Tentative Ruling:

11/27/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3).

No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to FRBP 9019.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

Final Ruling. No opposition has been filed. This application for compensation has been set for hearing on the notice required by LBR 2016-1(c)(4).

The Court thanks the trustee for his efforts in this case. Although the overall recovery was small, the trustee minimized administrative expenses and produced a net recovery to general unsecured creditors of over $11,000. By not hiring counsel and handling certain matters himself (such as the compromise motion), the trustee maximized the recovery for the unsecured creditors and the Court is grateful.

Pursuant to the trustee's final report, the following administrative claims will be allowed:

(1) Trustee: fees of $2,150 and expenses of $147.96.

The trustee shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

Chapter 13

#24.00 Hrg re objection to payment of claim number 5 filed by LVNV Funding, LLC

Docket 37

Tentative Ruling:

11/28/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. The objection to claim has been set for hearing on the notice required by Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 3007 and Local Bankruptcy Rules ("LBR") 3007-1 and 9013-1(d)(2). The failure of the claimant to file written opposition at least 14 days before the hearing as required by LBR 3007-1(b)(6) and 9013-1(h) is deemed consent to the sustaining of the objection. See LBR 9013-1(h); Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See LBR 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 502(b). General unsecured claim #5-1 in the amount of $28,349.21 filed by Resurgent Capital Services, as agent for LVNV Funding, LLC is hereby disallowed.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR

Chapter 13

#31.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 1

Tentative Ruling:

11/28/2018:

On November 7, 2018, the debtor appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtor and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 1:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtor and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no unresolved objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtor still concurs with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtor and counsel for the debtor from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtor or counsel for the debtor are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtor (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtor. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtor and counsel for the debtor to appear and address such matters.

#40.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 11-7-18

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

11/28/2018:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtors or counsel for the debtors at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtors nor counsel for the debtors should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtors once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtors, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtors and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtors should increase the debtors' understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtors did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to December 12, 2018 at 11:00 a.m. Both debtors must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtors is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtors is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtors should provide the debtors with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtors should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (December 12, 2018 at 11:00 a.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtors, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtors to appear at a status conference.

So, in summary, the status conference is continued to December 12, 2018 at 11:00 a.m. and neither the debtors nor their counsel should appear today.

Chapter 13

#52.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 1

Tentative Ruling:

11/28/2018:

On November 7, 2018, the debtors appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtors and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 2:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtors and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtors still concur with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtors and counsel for the debtors from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtors or counsel for the debtors are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtors (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtors. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtors and counsel for the debtors to appear and address such matters.

Chapter 13

#53.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 11-7-18

Docket 1

Tentative Ruling:

11/28/2018:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtors or counsel for the debtors at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtors nor counsel for the debtors should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtors once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtors, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtors and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtors should increase the debtors' understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtors did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to December 12, 2018 at 11:00 a.m. Both debtors must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtors is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtors is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtors should provide the debtors with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtors should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (December 12, 2018 at 11:00 a.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtors, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtors to appear at a status conference.

So, in summary, the status conference is continued to December 12, 2018 at 11:00 a.m. and neither the debtors nor their counsel should appear today.

Chapter 13

#78.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

11/28/2018:

On November 7, 2018, the debtors appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtors and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 1:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtors and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtors still concur with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtors and counsel for the debtors from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtors or counsel for the debtors are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtors (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtors. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtors and counsel for the debtors to appear and address such matters.

Chapter 13

#79.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

From: 11-7-18

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

11/28/2018:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtors or counsel for the debtors at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtors nor counsel for the debtors should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtors once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtors, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtors and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtors should increase the debtors' understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtors did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to December 12, 2018 at 11:00 a.m. Both debtors must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtors is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtors is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtors should provide the debtors with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtors should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (December 12, 2018 at 11:00 a.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtors, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtors to appear at a status conference.

So, in summary, the status conference is continued to December 12, 2018 at 11:00 a.m. and neither the debtors nor their counsel should appear today.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

Final Ruling. The motion is untimely. Section 362(c)(3)(A) provides that the automatic stay “shall terminate with respect to the debtor on the 30th day after the filing of the later case.” See 11 U.S.C. § 362(c)(3)(A). In order to avoid the termination of the stay, a motion to extend the stay must be filed and it must be heard on or before the thirtieth day after the filing of the bankruptcy case. See 11 U.S.C. § 362(c)(3)(B) (stating that “on the motion of a party in interest for continuation of the automatic stay and upon notice and a hearing, the court may extend the stay in particular cases as to any or all creditors (subject to such conditions or limitations as the court may then impose) after notice and a hearing completed before the expiration of the 30-day period . . .”).

Accordingly, under the plain language of the statute, the hearing regarding a motion to extend the automatic stay pursuant to section 362(c)(3)(B) must occur no later than thirty days after the filing of this bankruptcy case. It is not enough to simply file the motion within the thirty day period. The hearing regarding the motion must also occur within the thirty day period. See, e.g., In re Moon, 339 B.R. 668, 670 (Bankr. N.D. Ohio 2006) (denying a motion to extend the stay that was filed during the thirty day period because the debtors scheduled the motion for a hearing thirty-seven days after the petition date); In re Garrett, 357 B.R. 128, 131 (Bankr. C.D. Ill.

2006) (“Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(c)(3)(B), the Bankruptcy Court may extend the automatic stay only after notice and a hearing completed before the expiration of the 30 day period after the filing of a second bankruptcy case within one year of the dismissal of a previously filed case. If the notice and hearing are not completed within this period, the automatic stay terminates by operation of law pursuant to § 362(c)(3) (A).”); In re Norman, 346 B.R. 181 (Bankr. N.D. W.Va. 2006) (holding that a motion to extend the automatic stay must be heard within the thirty day period); In re Ziolkowski, 338 B.R. 543, 546 (Bankr. D.Conn. 2006) (denying a motion to extend the stay that was filed during the thirty day period because the initial hearing regarding the motion – which was scheduled by the clerk of the court - occurred more than two months after the petition date and stating that the debtors “were the movants and it was their ultimate burden to insure that the Motion was timely scheduled.”); Capital One Auto Fin. v. Cowley, 374 B.R. 601, 610 (W.D. Tex. 2006) (reversing a bankruptcy court order granting a motion to extend the stay because, while the motion was filing within thirty days of the petition date, the hearing regarding the motion occurred after the thirty day period and stating that “the Court finds that § 362(c)(3) requires notice and a hearing to be completed within thirty days of a filing of a petition by a single-repeat filer.”); In re Wesselman, 2008 Bankr. LEXIS 950 (Bankr. E.D. Ky. 2008) (denying a motion to extend the stay that was filed during the thirty day period because the hearing regarding the motion occurred thirty-one days after the petition date.); In re Brewster, 2008 Bankr. LEXIS 949 (Bankr. E.D. Ky. 2008) (denying a motion to extend the stay that was filed during the thirty day period because the hearing regarding the motion occurred thirty-nine days after the petition date and stating that the “plain meaning of the statute is that the court does not have authority to extend the stay when a hearing is not completed before the expiration of the 30-day period following a bankruptcy filing.”).

Because of this strict thirty day period for conducting a hearing regarding a motion to extend the stay, this Court (like many others) has established self-calendaring instructions which permit debtors to set hearings regarding this type of motion on shortened notice (as little as seven days). Under those procedures, debtors typically have between two to four available dates for setting hearings regarding this type of motion during the first thirty days of any bankruptcy case. For unknown reasons, the debtor did not utilize those available dates in this case.

In this case, the debtor(s) filed a prior bankruptcy case within the last twelve months (case no. 6:18-bk-15179-WJ). After that case was dismissed, the debtor filed this second bankruptcy case on October 18, 2018. Thus, the automatic stay expired on November 17, 2018. The debtor did not utilize the self-calendaring procedures that permit hearings on these types of motions on shortened notice (i.e. without an order shortening time) within the first thirty days of the petition date. Pursuant to those guidelines, the motion could have been heard on November 7, 2018. Indeed, the debtor could have scheduled the hearing regarding the motion for November 7, 2018 pursuant to the Court's self-calendaring guidelines, on either seven or fourteen days notice to creditors. Instead, on November 14, 2018, the debtor filed a motion to extend the stay and the debtor selected a hearing date for the motion of November 28, 2018. However, that day is 41 days after the petition date.

Accordingly, the motion must be denied as untimely.

#2.00 Motion for relief from stay

CAB WEST VS DEBTOR

Property: 2016 Ford Explorer
[Personal Prop] Sheryl K. Ith, attorney/movant

Docket 12

Tentative Ruling:

11/29/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

Chapter 7

#4.00 Hrg re objection to claim number 1 filed by Cavalry SPV I, LLC

Docket 15

Tentative Ruling:

12/04/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. The objection to claim has been set for hearing on the notice required by Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 3007 and Local Bankruptcy Rules ("LBR") 3007-1 and 9013-1(d)(2). The failure of the claimant to file written opposition at least 14 days before the hearing as required by LBR 3007-1(b)(6) and 9013-1(h) is deemed consent to the sustaining of the objection. See LBR 9013-1(h); Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See LBR 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 502(b). General unsecured claim #1-1 in the amount of $11,797.12 filed by Cavalry Portfolio Services, LLC, as agent for Cavalry SPV I, LLC is hereby disallowed.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

Chapter 11

#6.00 Hrg re debtor's motion to dismiss chapter 11 case

Docket 68

Tentative Ruling:

12/04/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. *See Boone v. No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 1112 with the following relief:

(1) The case is dismissed.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

Tentative Ruling:

12/04/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. No opposition has been filed. This application for compensation has been set for hearing on the notice required by LBR 2016-1(c)(4).
No appearance is necessary.

The Court is grateful for the efforts of the trustee in this case. Although the recovery was small, creditors would have received nothing without the work by the trustee. The Court appreciates the efforts of the trustee to administer a case with few assets.

Pursuant to the trustee's final report, the following administrative claims will be allowed:

(1) Trustee: fees of $1,268.50 and expenses of $101.20.

The trustee shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

#5.00 Motion for relief from stay

U.S BANK NATIONAL VS DEBTOR

Property: 40842 13th Street West, Palmdale, CA 93551
[Real Prop] Robert P. Zahradka, attorney/movant

Docket 67

Tentative Ruling:

12/06/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(4) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

(3) Relief under § 362(d)(4) based on (a) the transfer of all or part ownership of, or other interest in, such real property without the consent of the secured creditor or court approval and (b) multiple bankruptcy filings affecting the real property.

Pursuant to the request in the motion, the Court also hereby grants the extraordinary relief set forth in paragraph 10(b) on page 5 of the motion.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

12/06/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

#30.00 Hrg re debtor's motion to avoid junior lien on principal residence with JP Morgan Chase

[Property: 28619 Strauss Lane formerly know as 28661 Strauss Lane, Moreno Valley, CA 92555]

FROM: 12-5-18

Docket 136

Tentative Ruling:

12/10/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion to value a claim secured by a lien on real property has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the valuation motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting certain relief requested in the motion and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

The motion requests an order determining that the fair market value of the real property located at 28619 Strauss Lane, Moreno Valley, California (“Property”) is no more than $475,000 as of June 8, 2018.

The evidence provided in the motion indicates the Property is encumbered by a first deed of trust held by JP Morgan Chase Bank, N.A., securing a loan with a balance of approximately $667,033.07. Therefore, any junior lien is completely under-collateralized and no portion of any claim secured by a junior lien should be allowed as a secured claim. See 11 U.S.C. § 506(a). Furthermore, no interest need be paid on the junior lienholder's wholly unsecured claim except to the extent otherwise required by 11 U.S.C. § 1325(a)(4).

The fact that some claims of junior lienholders are secured only by a security interest in the principal residence of a debtor does not prohibit modification of a junior lien. Zimmer v. PSB Lending Corp. (In re Zimmer), 313 F.3d 1220, 1227 (9th Cir. 2002); Lam v. Investors Thrift (In re Lam), 211 B.R. 36, 41 (9th Cir. BAP 1997), appeal dismissed, 192 F.3d 1309 (9th Cir. 1999). Valuation pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 506(a) and Rule 3012 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure is a contested matter initiated by the filing of a motion. Valuation does not require the filing of an adversary proceeding. Scott v. Countrywide Home Loans, Inc. (In re Scott), 376 B.R. 285, 291 (Bankr. D. Idaho 2007). Even if considered in the nature of a claim objection, an adversary proceeding is not required so long as the relief requested does not include a demand for relief of a kind specified in Rule 7001. See F.R.B.P. 3007(b).

Consistent with F.R.B.P. Rule 3007(b), to the extent that the title of the motion or the content of the motion seek relief avoiding, extinguishing, attacking or otherwise modifying any lien, that language and relief is not approved by the court. The relief granted is limited solely to valuing the collateral of a junior lienholder and determining the treatment of its claims in this bankruptcy case. Nothing in the order granting the motion shall be construed to avoid a lien or determine the extent, validity, or priority of a lien or security interest. The lien of the junior lienholder will remain of record and the junior lienholder shall retain all rights under the lien unless and until the Court enters a further order or judgment avoiding the lien. If the Court confirms a plan of reorganization and the debtor(s) perform all obligations under the confirmed plan and obtain a chapter 13 discharge, a further order or judgment extinguishing or avoiding the junior lien can be obtained.

The motion contains evidence indicating it is directed at JP Morgan Chase Bank, N.A. ("Creditor") and instrument number 2007-0301043 recorded in Riverside County on May 4, 2007 at 8:00 a.m. The motion also contains prima facie evidence that the motion was properly served upon the Creditor. Therefore, the relief described in this ruling shall be granted but only as to the Creditor. The order granting the motion shall be binding upon the Creditor (and any successors-in-interest to or assignees of the Creditor) but not upon any other creditor, any affiliate of the Creditor or any other party.

As a consequence, if the Creditor is not the actual holder of any loan secured by the Property, the terms of the order shall not apply to the actual holder of any loan secured by the Property. In addition, federal law (including, but not limited to, Rule 60(b)(4) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and Rule 9024 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure) allows a party to challenge an order as void if the order was obtained as a result of insufficient service of process of the motion and the Creditor (and any successors-in-interest to or assignees of the Creditor) retains such rights under applicable law.

The Court shall prepare an order. If for any reason an order is not entered by the Court within seven days, counsel for the moving party should prepare and submit electronically a proposed order.

#38.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

FROM: 12-5-18

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

12/10/2018:

On November 28, 2018, the debtors appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtors and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 1:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtors and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtors still concur with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtors and counsel for the debtors from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtors or counsel for the debtors are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtors (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtors. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtors and counsel for the debtors to

#39.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 11-28-18, 12-5-18

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

12/10/2018:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtors or counsel for the debtors at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtors nor counsel for the debtors should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtors once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtors, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtors and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtors should increase the debtors' understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtors did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to May 8, 2019 at 9:00 a.m. Both debtors must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtors is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtors is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtors should provide the debtors with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtors should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (May 8, 2019 at 9:00 a.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtors, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtors to appear at a status conference.

So, in summary, the status conference is continued to May 8, 2019 at 9:00 a.m. and neither the debtors nor their counsel should appear today.

Chapter 13

#42.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

FROM: 12-5-18

Docket 1

Tentative Ruling:

12/10/2018:

On November 28, 2018, the debtors appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtors and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 1:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtors and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no unresolved objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtors still concur with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtors and counsel for the debtors from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtors or counsel for the debtors are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtors (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtors. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtors and counsel for the debtors to appear and address such matters.

#43.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 11-28-18, 12-5-18

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

12/10/2018:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtors or counsel for the debtors at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtors nor counsel for the debtors should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtors once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtors, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtors and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtors should increase the debtors' understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtors did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to May 8, 2019 at 9:00 a.m. Both debtors must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtors is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtors is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtors should provide the debtors with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtors should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (May 8, 2019 at 9:00 a.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtors, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtors to appear at a status conference.

So, in summary, the status conference is continued to May 8, 2019 at 9:00 a.m. and neither the debtors nor their counsel should appear today.

Chapter 13

#70.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

FROM: 12-5-18

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

12/10/2018:

On November 28, 2018, the debtor appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtor and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 3:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtor and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtor still concurs with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtor and counsel for the debtor from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtor or counsel for the debtor are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtor (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtor. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtor and counsel for the debtor to appear and address such matters.

#76.00 Motion for relief from stay

REVERSE MORTGAGE SOLUTIONS VS DEBTOR

Property: 14141 Williams Avenue, Blythe, CA 92225
[Real Prop] Sean C. Ferry, attorney/movant

FROM: 12-5-18

Docket 51

Tentative Ruling:

12/10/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain

Docket 21

Tentative Ruling:

12/10/2018:

Final Ruling. The motion is untimely. Section 362(c)(3)(A) provides that the automatic stay “shall terminate with respect to the debtor on the 30th day after the filing of the later case.” See 11 U.S.C. § 362(c)(3)(A). In order to avoid the termination of the stay, a motion to extend the stay must be filed and it must be heard on or before the thirtieth day after the filing of the bankruptcy case. See 11 U.S.C. § 362(c)(3)(B) (stating that “on the motion of a party in interest for continuation of the automatic stay and upon notice and a hearing, the court may extend the stay in particular cases as to any or all creditors (subject to such conditions or limitations as the court may then impose) after notice and a hearing completed before the expiration of the 30-day period . . .”).

Accordingly, under the plain language of the statute, the hearing regarding a motion to extend the automatic stay pursuant to section 362(c)(3)(B) must occur no later than thirty days after the filing of this bankruptcy case. It is not enough to simply file the motion within the thirty day period. The hearing regarding the motion must also occur within the thirty day period. See, e.g., In re Moon, 339 B.R. 668, 670 (Bankr. N.D. Ohio 2006) (denying a motion to extend the stay that was filed during the thirty day period because the debtors scheduled the motion for a hearing thirty-seven days after the petition date); In re Garrett, 357 B.R. 128, 131 (Bankr. C.D. Ill. 2006) (“Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(c)(3)(B), the Bankruptcy Court may extend the automatic stay only after notice and a hearing completed before the expiration of the 30 day period after the filing of a second bankruptcy case within one year of the dismissal of a previously filed case. If the notice and hearing are not completed within this period, the automatic stay terminates by operation of law pursuant to § 362(c)(3) (A).”); In re Norman, 346 B.R. 181 (Bankr. N.D. W.Va. 2006) (holding that a motion to extend the automatic stay must be heard within the thirty day period); In re Ziolkowski, 338 B.R. 543, 546 (Bankr. D.Conn. 2006) (denying a motion to extend the stay that was filed during the thirty day period because the initial hearing regarding the motion – which was scheduled by the clerk of the court - occurred more than two months after the petition date and stating that the debtors “were the movants and it was their ultimate burden to insure that the Motion was timely scheduled.”); Capital One Auto Fin. v. Cowley, 374 B.R. 601, 610 (W.D. Tex. 2006) (reversing a bankruptcy court order granting a motion to extend the stay because, while the motion was filed within thirty days of the petition date, the hearing regarding the motion occurred after the thirty day period and stating that “the Court finds that § 362(c)(3) requires notice and a hearing to be completed within thirty days of a filing of a petition by a single-repeat filer.”); In re Wesselman, 2008 Bankr. LEXIS 950 (Bankr. E.D. Ky. 2008) (denying a motion to extend the stay that was filed during the thirty day period because the hearing regarding the motion occurred thirty-one days after the petition date.); In re Brewster, 2008 Bankr. LEXIS 949 (Bankr. E.D. Ky. 2008) (denying a motion to extend the stay that was filed during the thirty day period because the hearing regarding the motion occurred thirty-nine days after the petition date and stating that the “plain meaning of the statute is that the court does not have authority to extend the stay when a hearing is not completed before the expiration of the 30-day period following a bankruptcy filing.”).

Because of this strict thirty day period for conducting a hearing regarding a motion to extend the stay, this Court (like many others) has established self-calendaring instructions which permit debtors to set hearings regarding this type of motion on shortened notice (as little as seven days). Under those procedures, debtors typically have between two to four available dates for setting hearings regarding this type of motion during the first thirty days of any bankruptcy case. For unknown reasons, the debtor did not utilize those available dates in this case.

Chapter 13

In this case, the debtor filed a prior bankruptcy case within the last twelve months (case no. 6:18-bk-17846-WJ). After that case was dismissed, the debtor filed this second bankruptcy case on October 29, 2018. Thus, the automatic stay expired on November 28, 2018. The debtor did not utilize the self-calendaring procedures that permit hearings on these types of motions on shortened notice (i.e. without an order shortening time) within the first thirty days of the petition date. Pursuant to those guidelines, the motion could have been heard on November 7, 2018, or on November 28, 2018. Indeed, the debtor could have scheduled the hearing regarding the motion for November 7, 2018, on seven days notice to creditors, or on November 28, 2018 on twenty-one days notice to creditors. Instead, on November 21, 2018, the debtor filed a motion to extend the stay and the debtor selected a hearing date for the motion of December 5, 2018. However, that day is 37 days after the petition date.

Accordingly, the motion must be denied as untimely.

#2.00 Motion for relief from stay

SANTANDER CONSUMER VS DEBTORS

Property: 2012 Nissan Cube
[Personal Prop] Jennifer Wang, attorney/movant

Docket 33

Tentative Ruling:

12/13/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

12/13/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

#4.00 Hrg re trustee's final report and applications for compensation

Docket 38

Tentative Ruling:

12/18/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. No opposition has been filed. This application for compensation has been set for hearing on the notice required by LBR 2016-1(c)(4). No appearance is necessary.

The Court appreciates the efforts of the trustee in this case. The trustee administered assets with a relatively small value and, but for those efforts, creditors would have received nothing. In addition, the trustee avoided hiring professionals which minimized administrative expenses and maximized the recovery for creditors. Well done!

Pursuant to the trustee's final report, the following administrative claims will be allowed:

(1) Trustee: fees of $1,811.06 and expenses of $125.80.

The trustee shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

Chapter 11

#6.00 Hrg re debtor's motion to dismiss chapter 11 case

Docket 94

Tentative Ruling:

12/18/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3).

No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §1112 with the following relief:

(1) The case is dismissed.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR

Chapter 13

#29.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 0

Tentative Ruling:

12/19/2018:

On December 10, 2018, the debtor appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtor and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 1:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtor and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtor still concurs with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtor and counsel for the debtor from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtor or counsel for the debtor are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtor (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtor. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtor and counsel for the debtor to appear and address such matters.

#40.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 12-5-18, 12-10-18

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

12/19/2018:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtors or counsel for the debtors at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtors nor counsel for the debtors should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtors once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtors, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtors and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtors should increase the debtors' understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtors did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to May 8, 2019 at 9:00 a.m. Both debtors must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtors is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtors is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtors should provide the debtors with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtors should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (May 8, 2019 at 9:00 a.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtors, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtors to appear at a status conference.

So, in summary, the status conference is continued to May 8, 2019 at 9:00 a.m. and neither the debtors nor their counsel should appear today.

#43.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 1

Tentative Ruling:

12/19/2018:

On December 10, 2018, the debtors appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtors and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 2:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtors and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtors still concur with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtors and counsel for the debtors from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtors or counsel for the debtors are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtors (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtors. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtors and counsel for the debtors to appear and address such matters.

#50.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 12-5-18, 12-10-18

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

12/19/2018:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtor or counsel for the debtor at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtor nor counsel for the debtor should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtor once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtor, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtor and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtor should increase the debtor's understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtor did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to May 8, 2019 at 9:00 a.m. The debtor must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtor is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtor is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtor should provide the debtor with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtor should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (May 8, 2019 at 9:00 a.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtor, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtor to appear at a status conference.

Chapter 13

#65.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 4

Tentative Ruling:

12/19/2018:

On December 10, 2018, the debtor appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtor and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 3:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtor and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtor still concurs with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtor and counsel for the debtor from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtor or counsel for the debtor are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtor (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtor. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtor and counsel for the debtor to appear and address such matters.

Chapter 13

#66.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 12-5-18, 12-10-18

Docket 4

Tentative Ruling:

12/19/2018:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtor or counsel for the debtor at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtor nor counsel for the debtor should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtor once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtor, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtor and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtor should increase the debtor's understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtor did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to May 8, 2019 at 9:00 a.m. The debtor must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtor is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtor is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtor should provide the debtor with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtor should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (May 8, 2019 at 9:00 a.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtor, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtor to appear at a status conference.

So, in summary, the status conference is continued to May 8, 2019 at 9:00 a.m. and neither the debtor nor their counsel should appear today.

Docket 40

Tentative Ruling:

12/19/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(4) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

#97.00 Hrg re status conference regarding application of discharge

CASE DISCHARGE 12-18-18

Docket 62

Tentative Ruling:

12/19/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. The Court has reviewed the new applications for entry of discharge filed in this case. Based on that review, the court entered a discharge in this case and, therefore, it does not appear that a status conference is necessary at this time. No appearances are required.

If the debtors have any concerns, questions or objections regarding these matters or anything else regarding this case that the debtors wish to address, the debtors or counsel for the debtors are welcome to appear at the status conference. Likewise, if the debtors or counsel for the debtors wish to discuss the chapter 13 procedures order or ask any questions, the status conference is an opportunity to do so. Any issues in this case may be addressed at the status conference. However, as stated above, no appearances are required and, in the absence of an appearance, the Court will simply conclude the status conference.

#1.00 Motion for relief from stay

PAUL J. NEWMAN VS DEBTORS

Property: 1050 East Ramon Road, Unit 1, Palm Spring, CA 92264-7709
[Real Prop] Christina J. O., attorney/movant

Docket 61

Tentative Ruling:

12/27/2018:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

(3) The creditor or counsel for the creditor may communicate with the debtors or counsel for the debtors regarding the property that is the subject of this motion and the debt owed to the creditor.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").
