Chapter 7

#2.00 Hearing re trustee's final report and application for compensation

Docket 72

Tentative Ruling:

01/08/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. No opposition has been filed. This application for compensation has been set for hearing on the notice required by LBR 2016-1(c)(4).

No appearance is necessary.

The Court thanks the trustee for his efforts in this case. The trustee minimized professional expenses and achieved a recovery that will pay general unsecured claims approximately 60% of their claims. That is an excellent result!

Pursuant to the trustee's final report, the following administrative claims will be allowed:

(1) Trustee: fees of $915 and expenses of $62.08.

The trustee shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

#3.00 Hrg re trustee's final report and applications for compensation

Docket 24

Tentative Ruling:

01/08/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. No opposition has been filed. This application for compensation has been set for hearing on the notice required by LBR 2016-1(c)(4). No appearance is necessary.

The Court is grateful to the trustee for his efforts in this case. Although the dividend to creditors is small, creditors would have received nothing without the trustee's efforts. The Court appreciates the work of the trustee in administering a case with a very small amount of non-exempt assets.

Pursuant to the trustee's final report, the following administrative claims will be allowed:

(1) Trustee: fees of $749.75 and expenses of $0.

The trustee shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

#4.00 Hrg re trustee's final report and applicarions for compensation

Docket 30

Tentative Ruling:

01/08/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. No opposition has been filed. This application for compensation has been set for hearing on the notice required by LBR 2016-1(c)(4).

No appearance is necessary.

The trustee administered a case with few non-exempt assets and did so without hiring counsel. The work of the trustee minimized administrative expenses and provided a dividend to creditors. Although the dividend is small, creditors would have received nothing otherwise. The Court is grateful for the trustee's efforts.

Pursuant to the trustee's final report, the following administrative claims will be allowed:

(1) Trustee: fees of $1,446.50 and expenses of $85.59.

The trustee shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

Chapter 13

#30.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

01/09/2019:

On December 19, 2018, the debtor appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtor and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 1:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtor and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtor still concurs with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtor and counsel for the debtor from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtor or counsel for the debtor are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtor (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtor. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtor and counsel for the debtor to appear and address such matters.

Chapter 13

#31.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 12-19-18

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

01/09/2019:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtor or counsel for the debtor at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtor nor counsel for the debtor should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtor once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtor, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtor and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtor should increase the debtor's understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtor did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to May 8, 2019 at 9:00 a.m. The debtor must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtor is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtor is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtor should provide the debtor with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtor should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (May 8, 2019 at 9:00 a.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtor, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtor to appear at a status conference.

So, in summary, the status conference is continued to May 8, 2019 at 9:00 a.m. and neither the debtor nor their counsel should appear today.

THE BANK OF NEW YORK MELLON VS DEBTOR

[Real Prop] Anna Landa, attorney/movant

Docket 36

Tentative Ruling:

01/09/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

[Real Prop] Akexander Neussner, attorney/movant

Docket 38

Tentative Ruling:

01/09/2019:

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(4) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

(4) Relief under § 362(d)(4) based on (a) the transfer of all or part ownership of, or other interest in, such real property without the consent of the secured creditor or court approval and (b) multiple bankruptcy filings affecting the real property.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

#2.00 Motion for relief from stay

NISSAN MOTOR ACCEPTANCE CORPORATION VS DEBTORS

Property: 2016 NISSAN ALTIMA
[Personal Prop] Michael D. Vanlochem, attorney/movant

Docket 58

Tentative Ruling:

01/10/19:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

#10.00 Motion for relief from stay

WELLS FARGO BANK VS DEBTOR

Property: 27688 Tangelo Street, Cathedral City, CA 92234
[Real Property: Nancy Lee, attorney/movant

Docket 21

Tentative Ruling:

01/10/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(4) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

(2) Waiver of the 14-day stay prescribed by Bankruptcy Rule 4001(a)(3).

(3) The creditor or counsel for the creditor may communicate with the debtors or counsel for the debtors regarding the property that is the subject of this motion and the debt owed to the creditor.

(4) Relief under § 362(d)(4) based on multiple bankruptcy filings affecting the real property.

Pursuant to the request in the motion, the Court also hereby grants the extraordinary relief set forth in paragraphs 8(b), 10(b) and 11(b) on page 5 of the motion.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

#13.00 Motion for relief from stay

XIE XIN VS DEBTOR

Property: 7678 Lady Banks Loop, Corona, CA 92883
[UD] Barry Lee O'Connor, attorney/movant

Docket 6

Tentative Ruling:

01/10/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

The motion requests relief from the automatic stay to complete an eviction. Using a bankruptcy case to delay an eviction is not appropriate. See, e.g., In re Smith, 105 B.R. 50, 53 & 55 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 1989) (describing cases filed to delay an eviction as “abusive” and designed to “delay improperly the landlord from obtaining possession of his property.”). Accordingly, for this reason and the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) with the following relief:

#25.00 Hrg re plaintiff's motion for default judgment

Docket 8

Tentative Ruling:

01/10/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3).

No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion and enter judgment finding that the deed of trust executed by Perry and Samantha Wiseman in favor of Greenpoint Mortgage Funding, Inc., dated February 9, 2006, securing a debt in the original principal amount of $154,000, and recorded on February 16, 2006, as document number 2006-0111927, in the Official Records of San Bernardino County, is invalid, void and unenforceable.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

Chapter 13

#30.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

01/23/2019:

On January 11, 2019, the debtor appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtor and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 12:00 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtor and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtor still concurs with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtor and counsel for the debtor from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtor or counsel for the debtor are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtor (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtor. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtor and counsel for the debtor to appear and address such matters.

Chapter 13

#30.01 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

From: 1-9-19, 1-11-19

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

01/23/2019:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtor or counsel for the debtor at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtor nor counsel for the debtor should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtor once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtor, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtor and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtor should increase the debtor's understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtor did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to May 8, 2019 at 10:00 a.m. The debtor must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtor is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtor is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtor should provide the debtor with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtor should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (May 8, 2019 at 10:00 a.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtor, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtor to appear at a status conference.

Chapter 13

#35.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

01/23/2019:

On January 11, 2019, the debtor appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtor and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 12:00 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtor and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtor still concurs with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtor and counsel for the debtor from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtor or counsel for the debtor are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtor (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtor. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtor and counsel for the debtor to appear and address such matters.

Chapter 13

#35.01 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan
From: 1-9-19, 1-11-19

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

01/23/2019:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtor or counsel for the debtor at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtor nor counsel for the debtor should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtor once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtor, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtor and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtor should increase the debtor's understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtor did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to May 8, 2019 at 10:00 a.m. The debtor must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtor is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtor is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtor should provide the debtor with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtor should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (May 8, 2019 at 10:00 a.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtor, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling

problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtor to appear at a status conference.

So, in summary, the status conference is continued to May 8, 2019 at 10:00 a.m. and neither the debtor nor their counsel should appear today.

Chapter 13

#60.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 1-9-19

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

01/23/2019:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtor or counsel for the debtor at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtor nor counsel for the debtor should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtor once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtor, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtor and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtor should increase the debtor's understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtor did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to May 8, 2019 at 10:00 a.m. The debtor must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtor is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtor is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtor should provide the debtor with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtor should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (May 8, 2019 at 10:00 a.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtor, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling

problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtor to appear at a status conference.

So, in summary, the status conference is continued to May 8, 2019 at 10:00 a.m. and neither the debtor nor their counsel should appear today.

Chapter 13

#67.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 16

Tentative Ruling:

01/23/2019:

On January 9, 2019, the debtor appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtor and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 4:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtor and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtor still concurs with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtor and counsel for the debtor from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtor or counsel for the debtor are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtor (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtor. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtor and counsel for the debtor to appear and address such matters.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

Docket 20

Tentative Ruling:

01/23/2019:

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. *See Boone v. Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

The motion requests relief from the automatic stay to complete an eviction. Using a bankruptcy case to delay an eviction is not appropriate. See, e.g., In re Smith, 105 B.R. 50, 53 & 55 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 1989) (describing cases filed to delay an eviction as “abusive” and designed to “delay improperly the landlord from obtaining possession of his property.”). Accordingly, for this reason and the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion

(2) Waiver of the 14-day stay prescribed by Bankruptcy Rule 4001(a)(3).

Pursuant to the request in the motion, the Court also hereby grants the extraordinary relief set forth in paragraphs 7(b), 9(b) and 11 on page 5 of the motion.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

[Real Prop] Nichole L. Glowin, attorney/movant

Docket 37

Tentative Ruling:

01/24/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1), 362(d)(2), and 362(d)(4) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

(4) Termination of the co-debtor stay.

(5) Relief under § 362(d)(4) based on multiple bankruptcy filings affecting the real property.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

Ghazali v. Moran*, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

#5.00 Motion for relief from stay

FIRST FINANCIAL FEDERAL CAREREDIT UNION VS DEBTORS

Property: 2017 Jeep Cherokee Sport
[Personal Prop] Bruce P. Needleman, attorney/movant

Docket 12

Tentative Ruling:

01/24/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Docket 21

Tentative Ruling:

01/24/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Tentative Ruling:

The Court is prepared to enter an order regarding cash collateral as follows:

The Court has reviewed the "Stipulation Regarding Use of Cash Collateral and Adequate Protection" ("Stipulation") [docket number 33] and related documents, and good cause appearing, the Court hereby ORDERS as follows:

1. The Stipulation is approved except as follows.
2. The debtor may use cash collateral to and including February 28, 2019, in the amounts and for the purposes specified in the budget attached as Exhibit 2 to the Stipulation, and must comply with all conditions and requirements for such use stated in the Stipulation.
3. The provisions in paragraphs 1, 2, 3(a), 3(b) and 15 of the Stipulation are binding solely on the debtor-in-possession and not upon the bankruptcy estate, any subsequently appointed trustee, any committee, any other party in interest or the Court. The provisions of this order supersede and control over the provisions of the Stipulation including, but not limited to, paragraph 19 of the Stipulation.
4. The amount secured by the Replacement Lien (as defined in paragraph 5(a) of the Stipulation) shall be the amount by which (if any) that cash collateral decreases post-petition and is not replenished post-petition as a result of use of cash collateral by the debtor post-petition ("Diminution Amount").

5. The amount of the super-priority claim described in paragraph 5(b) of the Stipulation shall be the Diminution Amount.

6. The provisions in paragraph 5(c) of the Stipulation are not approved at this time. The parties should provide briefing regarding the issue and notice to all creditors.

7. The provisions in paragraph 7 of the Stipulation are not construed to prohibit the debtor from seeking any relief set forth in that paragraph but, rather, are construed to prohibit the debtor from seeking any such relief set forth in paragraph 7 on an ex parte basis. To the extent the provisions of paragraph 7 of the Stipulation prohibit the debtor from filing an application for an order shortening time, that relief is not approved.

8. The provisions in paragraph 10, 11 and 12 of the Stipulation are not approved to the extent that they (a) mandate that the Court consider any matter on shortened notice or (b) relieve any party of the obligation to file an application for an order shortening time.

9. The Court neither approves nor disapproves paragraphs 16 or 28(a) of the Stipulation.

#6.00 Hrg re motion for order compelling debtors to turnover property of the estate

Docket 36

Tentative Ruling:

02/05/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3).

No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 542 with the following relief:

(1) Debtors shall turn over funds in the amount of $13,566 to the Trustee.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

Final Ruling. Pursuant to a separate ruling, the Court has granted the Trustee's request for a turnover order. Therefore, the Court hereby continues the hearing regarding this motion to April 16, 2019 at 1:30 p.m. No appearances are required today. This will provide the trustee with additional time to enforce the turnover order and, if the debtors fail to fully and immediately comply with the turnover order, file a complaint seeking to revoke the discharge of the debtors.

[Real Prop] Kristin Zilberstein, attorney/movant

Docket 48

Tentative Ruling:

02/06/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

(3) The creditor or counsel for the creditor may communicate with the debtors or counsel for the debtors regarding the property that is the subject of this motion and the debt owed to the creditor.

(4) Termination of the co-debtor stay.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

#6.00 Motion for relief from stay

ACAR LEASING VS DEBTOR

Property: 2016 Cadillac XTS
[Personal Prop] Jennifer H. Wang, attorney/movant

Docket 11

Tentative Ruling:

02/07/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

MUNTHER KUBBA VS DEBTOR

Property: 44750 Rutherford Street, Temecula, CA 92592

Docket 9

Tentative Ruling:

02/07/2019:

The hearing regarding this motion shall be heard on shortened notice and any opposition is due at the hearing. Therefore, appearances are required at the hearing.

The motion requests relief from the automatic stay to complete an eviction. Using a bankruptcy case to delay an eviction is not appropriate. See, e.g., In re Smith, 105 B.R. 50, 53 & 55 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 1989) (describing cases filed to delay an eviction as “abusive” and designed to “delay improperly the landlord from obtaining possession of his property.”). Therefore, the tentative ruling of the court is to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property.

#19.00 Hrg re motion for order determining value of collateral with Wells Fargo Dealer Services

[Property: 2012 Ford Explorer Limited]

Docket 28

Tentative Ruling:

02/20/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3).

No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 506(a). The Court finds the value of the 2012 Ford Explorer Limited is $13,750.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

#43.00 Motion for relief from stay

U.S. BANK NATIONAL VS DEBTOR

Property: 31180 Whispering Palms Trail, Cathedral City, CA 92234
[Real Prop] Caren Jacobs Castle, attorney/movant

Docket 34

Tentative Ruling:

02/20/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

(2) Waiver of the 14-day stay prescribed by Bankruptcy Rule 4001(a)(3).

(3) The creditor or counsel for the creditor may communicate with the debtor or counsel for the debtor regarding the property that is the subject of this motion and the debt owed to the creditor.

(4) Termination of the co-debtor stay.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

#1.00 Motion for relief from stay

AMERICAN HONDA FINANCE VS DEBTOR

Property: 2015 Honda Accord
[Personal Prop] Vincent V. Frounjian attorney/movant

Docket 98

Tentative Ruling:

02/21/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

(2) Waiver of the 14-day stay prescribed by Bankruptcy Rule 4001(a)(3).

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

DEL SOL VS DEBTORS

Property: 1241 Hollowell Street, Ontario, Calif 91762
[UD] Stirling J. Hopson, attorney/movant

Docket 15

Tentative Ruling:

02/21/2019:

The hearing regarding this motion shall be heard on shortened notice and any opposition is due at the hearing. Therefore, appearances are required at the hearing.

The motion requests relief from the automatic stay to complete an eviction. Using a bankruptcy case to delay an eviction is not appropriate. See, e.g., In re Smith, 105 B.R. 50, 53 & 55 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 1989) (describing cases filed to delay an eviction as “abusive” and designed to “delay improperly the landlord from obtaining possession of his property.”). Therefore, the tentative ruling of the court is to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property.

#2.00 Hrg re objection to claim filed by Cavalry SPV I, LLC claim number 3

Docket 56

Tentative Ruling:

02/26/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. The objection to claim has been set for hearing on the notice required by Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 3007 and Local Bankruptcy Rules ("LBR") 3007-1 and 9013-1(d)(2). The failure of the claimant to file written opposition at least 14 days before the hearing as required by LBR 3007-1(b)(6) and 9013-1(h) is deemed consent to the sustaining of the objection. See LBR 9013-1(h); Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See LBR 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 502(b). General unsecured claim #3-1 in the amount of $1,000.42 filed by Cavalry SPV I, LLC, as agent for Cavalry Portfolio Services, LLC is hereby disallowed.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the

#39.00 Motion for relief from stay

DEUTSCHE BANK NATIONAL TRUST VS DEBTOR

Property: 942 East Monticello Court #35, Ontario, Calif 91716
[Real Property] Sean C. Ferry, attorney/movant

Docket 167

Tentative Ruling:

02/27/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

#10.00 Motion for relief from stay

U.S. BANK NATIONAL ASSOCIATION VS DEBTORS

[Real Prop] Sean C. Ferry, attorney/movant

FROM: 2-28-19

Docket 50

Tentative Ruling:

03/04/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to

(2) Waiver of the 14-day stay prescribed by Bankruptcy Rule 4001(a)(3).

(3) The creditor or counsel for the creditor may communicate with the debtor or counsel for the debtor regarding the property that is the subject of this motion and the debt owed to the creditor.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

#14.00 Motion for relief from stay

BANK OF AMERICA VS DEBTOR

Property: U 2013 Kia Optima
[Personal Prop] Megan E. Lees, attorney/movant

FROM: 2-28-19

Docket 14

Tentative Ruling:

03/04/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to

(2) Waiver of the 14-day stay prescribed by Bankruptcy Rule 4001(a)(3).

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

FROM: 2-28-19

Docket 20

Tentative Ruling:

03/04/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. *Cf. The motion requests relief from the automatic stay to complete an eviction. Using a bankruptcy case to delay an eviction is not appropriate. See, e.g., In re Smith, 105 B.R. 50, 53 & 55 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 1989) (describing cases filed to delay an eviction as “abusive” and designed to “delay improperly the landlord from obtaining possession of his property.”). SAW Y. SHIN VS DEBTOR

Property: 5856 Cedar Spring Ct., Chino Hills, Calif 91709
[UD] Luke Daniels, attorney/movant

FROM: 2-28-19

Docket 8

Tentative Ruling:

03/04/2019:

The hearing regarding this motion shall be heard on shortened notice and any opposition is due at the hearing. Therefore, appearances are required at the hearing.

The motion requests relief from the automatic stay to complete an eviction. Using a bankruptcy case to delay an eviction is not appropriate. See, e.g., In re Smith, 105 B.R. 50, 53 & 55 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 1989) (describing cases filed to delay an eviction as “abusive” and designed to “delay improperly the landlord from obtaining possession of his property.”). Therefore, the tentative ruling of the court is to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property.

Chapter 13

#32.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

FROM: 2-6-19

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

03/04/2019:

On January 23, 2019, the debtor appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtor and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 1:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtor and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtor still concurs with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtor and counsel for the debtor from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtor or counsel for the debtor are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtor (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtor. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtor and counsel for the debtor to appear and address such matters.

FROM: 1-23-19

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

03/04/2019:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtor or counsel for the debtor at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtor nor counsel for the debtor should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtor once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtor, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtor and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtor should increase the debtor's understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtor did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to May 8, 2019 at 11:00 a.m. The debtor must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtor is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtor is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtor should provide the debtor with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtor should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

significant scheduling problem for the debtor, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtor to appear at a status conference.

So, in summary, the status conference is continued to May 8, 2019 at 11:00 a.m. and neither the debtor nor their counsel should appear today.

Chapter 13

#40.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

FROM: 2-6-19

Docket 13

Tentative Ruling:

03/04/2019:

On January 23, 2019, the debtor appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtor and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 3:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtor and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtor still concurs with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtor and counsel for the debtor from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtor or counsel for the debtor are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtor (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtor. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtor and counsel for the debtor to appear and address such matters.

Chapter 13

#41.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan
FROM 1-23-19

Docket 1

Tentative Ruling:

03/04/2019:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtor or counsel for the debtor at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtor nor counsel for the debtor should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtor once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtor, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtor and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtor should increase the debtor's understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtor did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to May 8, 2019 at 11:00 a.m. The debtor must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtor is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtor is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtor should provide the debtor with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtor should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (May 8, 2019 at 11:00 a.m.) presents a

Docket 48

Tentative Ruling:

03/12/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

[UD] Abel Ortiz, attorney/movant

Docket 56

Tentative Ruling:

03/12/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

The motion requests relief from the automatic stay to complete an eviction. Using a bankruptcy case to delay an eviction is not appropriate. See, e.g., In re Smith, 105 B.R. 50, 53 & 55 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 1989) (describing cases filed to delay an eviction as “abusive” and designed to “delay improperly the landlord from obtaining possession of his property.”). Accordingly, for this reason and the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

#9.00 Hrg re motion to allow claim number 3 filed by JK & C Grand Kitchen and Bath as a general unsecured claim

Docket 101

Tentative Ruling:

03/12/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. The objection to claim has been set for hearing on the notice required by Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 3007 and Local Bankruptcy Rules ("LBR") 3007-1 and 9013-1(d)(2). The failure of the claimant to file written opposition at least 14 days before the hearing as required by LBR 3007-1(b)(6) and 9013-1(h) is deemed consent to the sustaining of the objection. See LBR 9013-1(h); Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. *See Boone v. Chapter 7

#10.00 Hrg re motion to disallow claim number 9 filed by Ms International, Inc. as unsupported

Docket 103

Tentative Ruling:

03/12/2019:

Under applicable law, a proof of claim should not be disallowed solely because the creditor fails to attach backup documentation. The failure to attach backup documentation is not a basis for disallowing a proof of claim under section 502. In re Heath, 331 B.R. 424 (9th Cir. BAP 2005); In re Campbell, 336 B.R. 430 (9th Cir. BAP 2005). Rule 3001(c) requires a creditor to attached backup documentation to a proof of claim. A proof of claim that has no documentation is not entitled to the benefit of Rule 3001(f) (which provides that proofs of claims with backup documentation are prima facie valid). Nevertheless, the failure to attach backup documentation (in and of itself) is not a basis for disallowance under section 502. In re Campbell, 336 B.R. 430 (9th Cir. BAP 2005) ("Objections without substance are inadequate to disallow claims, even if those claims lack the documentation required by Rule 3001(c)."). If the debtor (or a trustee) asks for the backup documentation and the creditor does not respond, however, then the claim is subject to disallowance. In re Heath, 331 B.R. 424, 436-437 (9th Cir. BAP 2005); In re Campbell, 336 B.R. 430, 436 (9th Cir. BAP 2005).

In this case, there is no evidence that the objecting party contacted the creditor and asked for the backup documentation. Therefore, the tentative ruling of the court is to deny the objection without prejudice. The moving party may submit on this tentative ruling (and not appear), if he so desires.

Chapter 13

#11.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

03/18/2019:

On February 27, 2019, the debtors appeared at a meeting of creditors. On March 5, 2019, counsel for the debtors and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 1:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtors and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtors still concur with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtors and counsel for the debtors from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtors or counsel for the debtors are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtors (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtors. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtors and counsel for the debtors to appear and address such matters.

Chapter 13

#12.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 3-5-19

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

03/18/2019:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtors or counsel for the debtors at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtors nor counsel for the debtors should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtors once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtors, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtors and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtors should increase the debtors' understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtors did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to May 8, 2019 at 11:00 a.m. Both debtors must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtors is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtors is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtors should provide the debtors with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtors should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

Chapter 13

If the designated date and time (May 8, 2019 at 11:00 a.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtors, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtors to appear at a status conference.

So, in summary, the status conference is continued to May 8, 2019 at 11:00 a.m. and neither the debtors nor their counsel should appear today.

#1.00 Hrg re trustee's final report and applications for compensation

Docket 46

Tentative Ruling:

03/26/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. No opposition has been filed. This application for compensation has been set for hearing on the notice required by LBR 2016-1(c)(4).
No appearance is necessary.

Pursuant to the trustee's final report, the following administrative claims will be allowed:

- (1) Trustee: fees of $2,760.25 and expenses of $0.
- (2) Grobstein Teeple LLP: fees of $2,002 and expenses of $0.

The trustee shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

Chapter 7

#2.00 Hrg re trustee's motion to close case but retain real property as asset of estate and pay administrative expenses

Docket 65

Tentative Ruling:

03/26/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3).

No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

Chapter 13

#30.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

03/27/2019:

On March 13, 2019, the debtor appeared at a meeting of creditors. On March 25, 2019, counsel for the debtor and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 1:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtor and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtor still concurs with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtor and counsel for the debtor from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtor or counsel for the debtor are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtor (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtor. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtor and counsel for the debtor to appear and address such matters.

Chapter 13

#36.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 3-25-19

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

03/27/2019:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtor or counsel for the debtor at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtor nor counsel for the debtor should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtor once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtor, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtor and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtor should increase the debtor's understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtor did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to May 8, 2019 at 1:00 p.m. The debtor must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtor is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtor is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtor should provide the debtor with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtor should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (May 8, 2019 at 1:00 p.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtor, counsel should file a declaration stating

United States Bankruptcy Court

as much as at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtor to appear at a status conference.

So, in summary, the status conference is continued to May 8, 2019 at 1:00 p.m. and neither the debtor nor their counsel should appear today.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtors still concur with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtors and counsel for the debtors from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtors or counsel for the debtors are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtors (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtors. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtors and counsel for the debtors to appear and address such matters.

Docket 14

Tentative Ruling:

03/27/2019:

On March 13, 2019, the debtors appeared at a meeting of creditors. On March 25, 2019, counsel for the debtors and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 3:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtors and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtors still concur with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtors and counsel for the debtors from appearing at the confirmation hearing. #49.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan
FROM: 3-25-19

Docket 1

Tentative Ruling:

03/27/2019:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtors or counsel for the debtors at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtors nor counsel for the debtors should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtors once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtors, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtors and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtors should increase the debtors' understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtors did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to May 8, 2019 at 1:00 p.m. Both debtors must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtors is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtors is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtors should provide the debtors with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtors should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (May 8, 2019 at 1:00 p.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtors, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtors to appear at a status conference.

So, in summary, the status conference is continued to May 8, 2019 at 1:00 p.m. and neither the debtors nor their counsel should appear today.

Chapter 13

#64.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 24

Tentative Ruling:

03/27/2019:

On March 13, 2019, the debtor appeared at a meeting of creditors. On March 25, 2019, counsel for the debtor and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 4:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtor and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no unresolved objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtor still concurs with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtor and counsel for the debtor from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtor or counsel for the debtor are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtor (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtor. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtor and counsel for the debtor to appear and address such matters.

Chapter 13

#65.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 3-25-19

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

03/27/2019:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtor or counsel for the debtor at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtor nor counsel for the debtor should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtor once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtor, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtor and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtor should increase the debtor's understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtor did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to May 8, 2019 at 1:00 p.m. The debtor must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtor is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtor is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtor should provide the debtor with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtor should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (May 8, 2019 at 1:00 p.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtor, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling

problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtor to appear at a status conference.

So, in summary, the status conference is continued to May 8, 2019 at 1:00 p.m. and neither the debtor nor their counsel should appear today.

Docket 42

Tentative Ruling:

03/27/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

(2) Waiver of the 14-day stay prescribed by Bankruptcy Rule 4001(a)(3).

(3) The creditor or counsel for the creditor may communicate with the debtors or counsel for the debtors regarding the property that is the subject of this motion and the debt owed to the creditor.

(4) Termination of the co-debtor stay.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

Burk (In re Eliapo)*, 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

#2.00 Motion for relief from stay

NEWREZ VS DEBTORS

Property: 74377 Zircon Circle E, Palm Desert, CA 92260
[Real Prop] Erin M. McCartney, attorney/movant

Docket 48

Tentative Ruling:

03/28/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

#2.00 Hrg re trustee's final report and applications for compensation

Docket 38

Tentative Ruling:

04/09/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. No opposition has been filed. This application for compensation has been set for hearing on the notice required by LBR 2016-1(c)(4).
No appearance is necessary.

The Court thanks the trustee for her efforts in this case. The trustee minimized administrative expenses by negotiating with the debtors directly and avoiding hiring counsel. Those efforts provided a recovery for creditors that would not have otherwise been achieved. The Court is grateful for the trustee's efforts.

Pursuant to the trustee's final report, the following administrative claims will be allowed:

(1) Trustee: fees of $1,750 and expenses of $111.85.

The trustee shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

#3.00 Hrg re trustee's final report and application for compensation

Docket 44

Tentative Ruling:

04/09/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. No opposition has been filed. This application for compensation has been set for hearing on the notice required by LBR 2016-1(c)(4). No appearance is necessary.

The court appreciates the efforts of the trustee in this case. The trustee negotiated directly with the debtors (instead of hiring counsel) and that provided a significant benefit to creditors. The trustee not only achieved a great recovery ($25,000) which will pay general unsecured creditors about 66% of their claims, the trustee minimized administrative expenses which contributed substantially to the disbursements of 66%. Well done!

Pursuant to the trustee's final report, the following administrative claims will be allowed:

- (1) Trustee: fees of $3,250 and expenses of $233.92.
- (2) Donald T. Fife, CPA: fees of $1,000.

The trustee shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B)

Tentative Ruling:

04/09/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. No opposition has been filed. This application for compensation has been set for hearing on the notice required by LBR 2016-1(c)(4).
No appearance is necessary.

The court is grateful for the efforts of the trustee in this case. The trustee administered a very small asset ($1,000) but still recovered sufficient funds to pay all timely claims in full. That is excellent!

Pursuant to the trustee's final report, the following administrative claims will be allowed:

(1) Trustee: fees of $250 and expenses of $26.52.

The trustee shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

6:18-20286 Philmar Care, LLC

Chapter 11

#19.00 Hrg re motion for order (1) Authorizing private sale of substantially all assets of estate free and clear of liens, claims, and interests; (2) Confirming sale to third party; (3) Determining that buyer is a good faith purchaser; (4) Waiving fourteen day stay prescribed by rules 6004(h) and 6006(d) of the federal rules of bankruptcy procedure; (5) Authorizing assumption and assignment of unexpired leases and executory contracts designated by buyer; and (6) Approving management and operations transfer agreement

Docket 197

Tentative Ruling:

04/09/2019:

The Court thanks the trustee and the parties for their extensive briefs regarding this matter. It would be helpful if the parties were prepared to address the following questions and issues at the hearing.

- 1) How much time (if any) does the committee of unsecured creditors desire to obtain other bidders? A definitive answer would be helpful.

- 2) If the motion is granted and the transaction consummated, what claims (pre-petition, post-petition, administrative, nonpriority, etc.) will Foothill, El Sereno and/or their affiliates or insiders have (if any) in this bankruptcy case including, but not limited to, any claims arising under the MOU, the MOTA, the Facility Lease, the Foothill Management Agreement, the Asset Purchase Agreement, etc.?

- 3) Does the trustee have any estimate of the amount of the "normal, reasonable, and ordinary fees and costs of sale, if any, chargeable to the estate" described on page 10, lines 17-18 of the Motion?

Chapter 11

4) A clearer statement of the benefit of the sale to the creditors of the estate would be helpful. It appears that the estate will recover about $1 million in unencumbered cash but the Motion does not project how these funds will be disbursed. For example, page 11, lines 3-5 of the Motion states "The Trustee will use the estate's portion of the net sales proceeds to pay all remaining administrative, secured, priority, and unsecured claims of the estate according to the provisions of the Code." What does this mean specifically? What does the trustee estimate will be the estimated projected disbursements to administrative, secured, priority and unsecured claims?

5) When does the trustee contemplate conversion of this case to chapter 7? The motion states on page 26, lines 22-23 that "the Trustee prefers to conduct the sale within the confines of chapter 11" but the Motion is premised upon providing a benefit to creditors (recovery of $1 million under section 724) that is only achievable in chapter 7.

6) In addition, the Motion contains a discussion of section 724(a) and 726(b)(4) but no discussion of section 724(b)(2). Has the trustee performed an analysis under section 724(b)(2) and, if so, what is the analysis? Section 724(b)(2) would tend to indicate that conversion to chapter 7 sooner rather than later would maximize the avoidance of the tax liens and, hence, maximize recovery for unsecured creditors. Does the trustee agree or disagree?

7) In light of the provisions of section 724(a) and (b), isn't the lien of the Internal Revenue Service subject to a bona fide dispute within the meaning of section 363(f) (4)?

Chapter 11

8) If the Court approves the Motion, will El Sereno consent to entry of an order disallowing all its claims in the case (pre-petition, post-petition, filed or unfiled, existing or future)?

9) It would be helpful if the parties who support a section 363(m) finding were prepared to address the case of In re M Capital Corporation, 290 B.R. 743 (9th Cir. BAP 2003) which suggests that section 363(m) findings should not be included in a sale order and, instead, if otherwise appropriate, made after consummation of the proposed sale.

10) It would also be helpful if the parties who support a section 363(m) finding were prepared to address the benefits of such findings. Presumably the primary (if not sole) reason for such findings would be to moot any appeal of the sale order. A discussion of other reasons (if any) would be helpful.

11) The parties should assume the Court will not grant a waiver of Rule 6004(h) and 6006(d) over any objection by any party. The bankruptcy court does not (or should not) issue orders that are unappealable (or constructively unappealable).

Chapter 13

#31.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

FROM: 2-20-18

Docket 1

Tentative Ruling:

04/10/2019:

On March 27, 2019, the debtors appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtors and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 1:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtors and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no unresolved objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtors still concur with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtors and counsel for the debtors from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtors or counsel for the debtors are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtors (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtors. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtors and counsel for the debtors to appear and address such matters.

Chapter 13

#55.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan
FROM: 3-27-19

Docket 1

Tentative Ruling:

04/10/2019:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtor or counsel for the debtor at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtor nor counsel for the debtor should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtor once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtor, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtor and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtor should increase the debtor's understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtor did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to May 8, 2019 at 1:00 p.m. The debtor must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtor is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtor is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtor should provide the debtor with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtor should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (May 8, 2019 at 1:00 p.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtor, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling

problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtor to appear at a status conference.

So, in summary, the status conference is continued to May 8, 2019 at 1:00 p.m. and neither the debtor nor their counsel should appear today.

Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtors still concur with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtors and counsel for the debtors from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtors or counsel for the debtors are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtors (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtors. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtors and counsel for the debtors to appear and address such matters.

Chapter 13

#57.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 3-27-19

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

04/10/2019:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtors or counsel for the debtors at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtors nor counsel for the debtors should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtors once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtors, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtors and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtors should increase the debtors' understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtors did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to May 8, 2019 at 1:00 p.m. Both debtors must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtors is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtors is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtors should provide the debtors with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtors should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (May 8, 2019 at 1:00 p.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtors, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtors to appear at a status conference.

So, in summary, the status conference is continued to May 8, 2019 at 1:00 p.m. and neither the debtors nor their counsel should appear today.

[Real Prop] Renee M. Parker, attorney/movant

Docket 41

Tentative Ruling:

04/10/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

Docket 17

Tentative Ruling:

04/10/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. *Cf. Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

The motion requests relief from the automatic stay to complete an eviction. Using a bankruptcy case to delay an eviction is not appropriate. See, e.g., In re Smith, 105 B.R. 50, 53 & 55 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 1989) (describing cases filed to delay an eviction as “abusive” and designed to “delay improperly the landlord from obtaining possession of his property.”). Accordingly, for this reason and the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

#10.00 Motion for relief from stay

U.S. BANK VS DEBTOR

Property: 9145 West Rancho Park Circle, Rancho Cucamonga, CA 91730
[Real Prop] Diane Weifenbach, attorney/movant

Docket 11

Tentative Ruling:

04/11/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

(2) Waiver of the 14-day stay prescribed by Bankruptcy Rule 4001(a)(3).

(3) The creditor or counsel for the creditor may communicate with the debtor or counsel for the debtor regarding the property that is the subject of this motion and the debt owed to the creditor.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

#34.00 Hrg re motion for default judgment

Docket 5

Tentative Ruling:

04/11/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3).

No appearance is necessary.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

Chapter 7

#1.00 Hrg re omnibus motion for order approving settlement and compromise of disputes by and among: 1) Chapter 7 Trustee, John C. Spencer and related parties, and (2) Chapter Trustee, Mark Lobb and et al.

Docket 1020

Tentative Ruling:

04/16/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3).

No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to FRBP 9019 with the following relief:

(1) The compromises are approved.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

Chapter 7

#2.00 Hrg re trustee's final report and application for compensation

Docket 94

Tentative Ruling:

04/16/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. No opposition has been filed. This application for compensation has been set for hearing on the notice required by LBR 2016-1(c)(4). No appearance is necessary.

The Court appreciates the efforts of the trustee in administering a case with few assets. While the recovery was small, it produced a benefit that creditors would not otherwise have received. Therefore, pursuant to the trustee's final report, the following administrative claims will be allowed:

(1) Trustee: fees of $1,240.25 and expenses of $329.82.

The trustee shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

6:16-17131 Meliton Valenzuela and Maria Evarista Curiel

Chapter 7

#3.00 Hrg re trustee's final report and applications for compensation

Docket 28

Tentative Ruling:

04/16/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. No opposition has been filed. This application for compensation has been set for hearing on the notice required by LBR 2016-1(c)(4).
No appearance is necessary.

The Court thanks the trustee for diligently pursuing assets in this case. Pursuant to the trustee's final report, the following administrative claims will be allowed:

(1) Trustee: fees of $877.49 and expenses of $58.85.

The trustee shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

#24.00 Hrg re motion for order determining value of collateral with Altura Credit Union
[Property: 2016 Chevrolet Silverado 1500 Crew Cab]

Docket 15

Tentative Ruling:

04/17/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3).

No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 506(a). The Court finds the value of the 2016 Chevrolet Silverado 1500 is $30,200.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

Chapter 13

#25.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

FROM: 3-18-19

Docket 1

Tentative Ruling:

04/17/2019:

In reviewing this matter, the Court notes that counsel for the trustee has raised a significant feasibility objection in the case which, from the perspective of the court, appears to be valid. The trustee's objection was raised orally at the hearing on March 18th as well as in a written objection to confirmation filed by counsel for the trustee. As a result, the current evidentiary record is not sufficient to support a finding that the debtor can comply with section 1325(a)(6). As the Court understands it, the debtor seeks to proceed forward with a 0% plan on the current evidentiary record. As the parties are aware, the Court cannot confirm a chapter 13 plan that fails to satisfy any of the nine requirements in section 1325(a) (even if no one objects to confirmation). The United States Supreme Court has held that bankruptcy courts have an independent duty to insure that debtors comply with section 1325(a) before confirming a chapter 13 plan. A bankruptcy court cannot confirm a chapter 13 plan that does not comply with the statute (even if no one objects). United Student Aid Funds, Inc. v. Espinosa, 559 U.S. 260, 277 n.14, 130 S. Ct. 1367, 176 L. Ed. 2d 158 (2010) ("In other contexts, we have held that courts have the discretion, but not the obligation, to raise on their own initiative certain nonjurisdictional barriers to suit . . . Section 1325(a) does more than codify this principle; it requires bankruptcy courts to address and correct a defect in a debtor's proposed plan even if no creditor raises the issue." (original emphasis)). According to the Supreme Court, "§ 1325(a)(1) instructs a bankruptcy court to confirm a plan only if the court finds, inter alia, that the plan complies with the 'applicable provisions' of the Code. § 1325(a)." Id. at 277. See also In re Butcher, 459 B.R. 115, 120 (Bankr. D.Colo. 2011) (denying confirmation of a chapter 13 plan and stating that "[t]he Supreme Court has stated that § 1325(a) places an independent duty on the court to 'address and correct a defect in a debtor's proposed plan even if no creditor raises the issue.'"); In re Dyer, 2013 Bankr. Chapter 13

928, *12-*13 (6th Cir. BAP 2013) ("Chapter 13 plan confirmation is governed by 11 U.S.C. § 1325. The bankruptcy court is required to confirm the plan so long as it satisfies the provisions of 11 U.S.C. § 1325(a). Moreover, if debtors fail to meet these conditions, the mere absence of a creditor's or trustee's objection will not protect the debtors from a dismissal or denial of confirmation; bankruptcy courts enjoy broad discretion to police Chapter 13 plans and enforce the Bankruptcy Code sua sponte." (citations omitted)); In re Williams, 2017 Bankr. LEXIS 1311, *23 (Bankr. W.D. Miss 2017) (declining to confirm a chapter 13 plan and stating, inter alia, that the "bankruptcy court has, however, an independent duty to verify a plan's compliance with § 1325 even in the absence of an objection.").

As a result, under the circumstances presented in this case, prior to holding an evidentiary hearing for confirmation, the Court tends to refer the parties back to the meeting of a creditors for a further discussion of feasibility and examination of evidence of expenses and income. Given that the rotation for counsel for the trustee shall change imminently, for the sake of future continuity in this particular case, the further meeting of creditors should occur on a date and time when the trustee is able to personally handle the matter. Therefore, the parties should confer and attempt to identify a date on which such a meeting of creditors could occur (i.e. a date that is convenient for the trustee, counsel for the debtor and the debtor). The parties should also identify a further date (perhaps in June or August) for a continuance of the pending confirmation hearing and status conference (which should also be a date convenient to counsel for the debtor and the trustee). If the parties can agree on such dates, counsel for trustee may appear on April 17th and announce the dates and, if the parties so agree, counsel for the trustee may appear for counsel for the debtor (on April 17th only) to inform the court of the new agreed dates.

Chapter 13

#28.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 0

Tentative Ruling:

04/17/2019:

On April 10, 2019, the debtors appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtors and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 3:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtors and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtors still concur with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtors and counsel for the debtors from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtors or counsel for the debtors are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtors (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtors. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtors and counsel for the debtors to appear and address such matters.

Chapter 13

#29.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 4-10-19

Docket 0

Tentative Ruling:

04/17/2019:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtors or counsel for the debtors at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtors nor counsel for the debtors should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtors once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtors, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtors and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtors should increase the debtors' understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtors did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to May 8, 2019 at 3:00 p.m. Both debtors must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtors is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtors is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtors should provide the debtors with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtors should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (May 8, 2019 at 3:00 p.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtors, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtors to appear at a status conference.

So, in summary, the status conference is continued to May 8, 2019 at 3:00 p.m. and neither the debtors nor their counsel should appear today.

Chapter 13

#43.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 15

Tentative Ruling:

04/17/2019:

On April 10, 2019, the debtor appeared at a meeting of creditors. On April 12, 2019, counsel for the debtor and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 3:00 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtor and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtor still concurs with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtor and counsel for the debtor from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtor or counsel for the debtor are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtor (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtor. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtor and counsel for the debtor to appear and address such matters.

#43.01 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 4-10-19, 4-12-19

Docket 1

Tentative Ruling:

04/17/2019:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtor or counsel for the debtor at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtor nor counsel for the debtor should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtor once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtor, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtor and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtor should increase the debtor's understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtor did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to May 8, 2019 at 3:00 p.m. The debtor must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtor is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtor is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtor should provide the debtor with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtor should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (May 8, 2019 at 3:00 p.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtor, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling

problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtor to appear at a status conference.

So, in summary, the status conference is continued to May 8, 2019 at 3:00 p.m. and neither the debtor nor their counsel should appear today.

Docket 39

Tentative Ruling:

04/17/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

Chapter 13

(2) Waiver of the 14-day stay prescribed by Bankruptcy Rule 4001(a)(3).

(3) Termination of the co-debtor stay.

(4) Relief under § 362(d)(4) based on (a) the transfer of all or part ownership of, or other interest in, such real property without the consent of the secured creditor or court approval and (b) multiple bankruptcy filings affecting the real property.

Pursuant to the request in the motion, the Court also hereby grants the extraordinary relief set forth in paragraph 10(b) on page 5 of the motion.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

#60.00 Motion for relief from stay

FORD MOTOR CREDIT COMPANY VS DEBTORS

Property: 2013 Ford F150
[Personal Prop] Jennifer H. Wang, attorney/movant

Docket 36

Tentative Ruling:

04/17/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

Final Ruling. The Court has reviewed the new applications for entry of discharge filed in this case. Based on that review, the court entered a discharge in this case and, therefore, it does not appear that a status conference is necessary at this time. No appearances are required.

If the debtors have any concerns, questions or objections regarding these matters or anything else regarding this case that the debtors wish to address, the debtors or counsel for the debtors are welcome to appear at the status conference. Likewise, if the debtors or counsel for the debtors wish to discuss the chapter 13 procedures order or ask any questions, the status conference is an opportunity to do so. Any issues in this case may be addressed at the status conference. However, as stated above, no appearances are required and, in the absence of an appearance, the Court will simply conclude the status conference.

Chapter 13

#81.00 Hrg re status conference regarding application of discharge

CASE DISCHARGE 4-16-19

Docket 1

Tentative Ruling:

04/17/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. The Court has reviewed the new application for entry of discharge filed in this case. Based on that review, the court entered a discharge in this case and, therefore, it does not appear that a status conference is necessary at this time.

No appearances are required.

If the debtor has any concerns, questions or objections regarding this matter or anything else regarding this case that the debtor wishes to address, the debtor or counsel for the debtor is welcome to appear at the status conference. Likewise, if the debtor or counsel for the debtor wishes to discuss the chapter 13 procedures order or ask any questions, the status conference is an opportunity to do so. Any issues in this case may be addressed at the status conference. However, as stated above, no appearances are required and, in the absence of an appearance, the Court will simply conclude the status conference.

#1.00 Motion for relief from stay

JPMORGAN CHASE BANK VS DEBTOR

Property: 1520 West 2nd Street, Santa Ana, CA 92703
[Real Prop] Alexander K. Lee, attorney/movant

Docket 66

Tentative Ruling:

04/18/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(4) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

(2) Waiver of the 14-day stay prescribed by Bankruptcy Rule 4001(a)(3).

(3) The creditor or counsel for the creditor may communicate with the debtor or counsel for the debtor regarding the property that is the subject of this motion and the debt owed to the creditor.

(4) Relief under § 362(d)(4) based on (a) the transfer of all or part ownership of, or other interest in, such real property without the consent of the secured creditor or court approval and (b) multiple bankruptcy filings affecting the real property.

Pursuant to the request in the motion, the Court also hereby grants the extraordinary relief set forth in paragraph 10(b) on page 5 of the motion.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

#7.01 Motion for relief from stay

NULEVEL PARTNERS VS DEBTOR

Property: 1254 Via Florence, Redlands, CA 92374
[UD] William E. Windham, attorney/movant

Docket 11

Tentative Ruling:

04/18/2019:

The hearing regarding this motion shall be heard on shortened notice and any opposition is due at the hearing. Therefore, appearances are required at the hearing.

The motion requests relief from the automatic stay to complete an eviction. Using a bankruptcy case to delay an eviction is not appropriate. See, e.g., In re Smith, 105 B.R. 50, 53 & 55 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 1989) (describing cases filed to delay an eviction as “abusive” and designed to “delay improperly the landlord from obtaining possession of his property.”). Therefore, the tentative ruling of the court is to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property.

(2) Waiver of the 14-day stay prescribed by Bankruptcy Rule 4001(a)(3).

#1.00 Hrg re trustee's final report and application for compensation

Docket 72

Tentative Ruling:

04/30/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. No opposition has been filed. This application for compensation has been set for hearing on the notice required by LBR 2016-1(c)(4).
No appearance is necessary.

The Court thanks the trustee and his professional for their work in the case. By agreement of the trustee and his professionals, they have insured that timely proofs of claim will be paid 100%. That is, obviously, an excellent result and the Court appreciates the efforts of the trustee and his professionals.

Pursuant to the trustee's final report, the following administrative claims will be allowed:

- (1) Trustee: fees of $22,692.10.
- (2) Grobstein Teeple, LLP: fees of $1,963.42.
- (3) Law Offices of Larry D. Simons: fees of $38,437.87 and expenses of $531.89.

#5.00 Hrg re trustee's final reports and application for compensation

Docket 35

Tentative Ruling:

04/30/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. No opposition has been filed. This application for compensation has been set for hearing on the notice required by LBR 2016-1(c)(4). No appearance is necessary.

The Court appreciates the efforts of the trustee in the case. Although the amount of assets recovered was relatively small, the trustee's efforts will produce a benefit for creditors. The Court thanks the trustee for administering a smaller case and minimizing administrative expenses. But for the trustee's efforts, the creditors would have received nothing.

Pursuant to the trustee's final report, the following administrative claims will be allowed:

(1) Trustee: fees of $1,703.55 and expenses of $220.29.

The trustee shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

Chapter 13

#21.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

05/01/2019:

On April 17, 2019, the debtor appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtor and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 1:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtor and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtor still concurs with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtor and counsel for the debtor from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtor or counsel for the debtor are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtor (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtor. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtor and counsel for the debtor to appear and address such matters.

Chapter 13

#22.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 4-17-19

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

05/01/2019:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtor or counsel for the debtor at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtor nor counsel for the debtor should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtor once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtor, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtor and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtor should increase the debtor's understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtor did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to May 8, 2019 at 4:00 p.m. The debtor must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtor is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtor is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtor should provide the debtor with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtor should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (May 8, 2019 at 4:00 p.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtor, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtor to appear at a status conference.

So, in summary, the status conference is continued to May 8, 2019 at 4:00 p.m. and neither the debtor nor their counsel should appear today.

#37.00 Motion for relief from stay

SANTANDER CONSUMER USA VS DEBTORS

Property: 2014 Mitsubishi Outlander
[Personal Prop] Jennifer H. Wang, attorney/movant

Docket 47

Tentative Ruling:

05/01/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

#5.00 Motion for relief from stay

FIRST TECH FEDERAL CREDIT UNION VS DEBTORS

Property: 2017 Volkswagen Jetta
[Personal Prop] Nichole L. Glowin, attorney/movant

Docket 17

Tentative Ruling:

05/02/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

#6.00 Motion for relief from stay

SANTANDER CONSUMER USA VS DEBTOR

Property: 2014 Nissan Versa
[Personal Prop] Jennifer H. Wang, attorney/movant

Docket 13

Tentative Ruling:

05/02/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

(2) Waiver of the 14-day stay prescribed by Bankruptcy Rule 4001(a)(3).

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

#1.00 Motion for relief from stay

WILMINGTON SAVINGS FUND SOCIETY VS DEBTOR

Property: 5039 Surfside Drive, San Diego, CA 92154-8449
[Real Prop] Erin M. McCartney, attorney/movant

Docket 75

Tentative Ruling:

05/09/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(4) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

(2) Waiver of the 14-day stay prescribed by Bankruptcy Rule 4001(a)(3).

(3) The creditor or counsel for the creditor may communicate with the debtor or counsel for the debtor regarding the property that is the subject of this motion and the debt owed to the creditor.

(4) Relief under § 362(d)(4) based on (a) the transfer of all or part ownership of, or other interest in, such real property without the consent of the secured creditor or court approval and (b) multiple bankruptcy filings affecting the real property.

Pursuant to the request in the motion, the Court also hereby grants the extraordinary relief set forth in paragraph 10(b) on page 5 of the motion.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

[Real Prop] Robert P. Zahradka, attorney/movant

Docket 9

Tentative Ruling:

05/09/2019:

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. *Cf. Chapter 13

#19.00 Hrg re objection to proof of claim number 2-1 filed by Lvnv Funding, LLC

Docket 20

Tentative Ruling:

05/15/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. The objection to claim has been set for hearing on the notice required by Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 3007 and Local Bankruptcy Rules ("LBR") 3007-1 and 9013-1(d)(2). The failure of the claimant to file written opposition at least 14 days before the hearing as required by LBR 3007-1(b)(6) and 9013-1(h) is deemed consent to the sustaining of the objection. See LBR 9013-1(h); Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See LBR 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 502(b). General unsecured claim #2-1 in the amount of $2,675.14 filed by LVNV Funding, LLC is hereby disallowed.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR

Chapter 13

#36.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 1

Tentative Ruling:

05/15/2019:

On May 1, 2019, the debtor appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtor and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 2:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtor and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtor still concurs with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtor and counsel for the debtor from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtor or counsel for the debtor are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtor (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtor. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtor and counsel for the debtor to appear and address such matters.

Chapter 13

#37.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 5-1-19

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

05/15/2019:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtor or counsel for the debtor at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtor nor counsel for the debtor should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtor once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtor, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtor and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtor should increase the debtor's understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtor did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to September 4, 2019 at 9:00 a.m. The debtor must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtor is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtor is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtor should provide the debtor with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtor should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (September 4, 2019 at 9:00 a.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtor, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling

problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtor to appear at a status conference.

So, in summary, the status conference is continued to September 4, 2019 at 9:00 a.m. and neither the debtor nor their counsel should appear today.

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. *Cf. The motion requests relief from the automatic stay to complete an eviction. Using a bankruptcy case to delay an eviction is not appropriate. See, e.g., In re Smith, 105 B.R. 50, 53 & 55 (Bankr. Docket 0

Tentative Ruling:

05/15/2019:

The hearing regarding this motion shall be heard on shortened notice and any opposition is due at the hearing. Therefore, appearances are required at the hearing.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the tentative ruling of the Court is to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(4) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

(2) Relief under § 362(d)(4) based on (a) the transfer of all or part ownership of, or other interest in, such real property without the consent of the secured creditor or court approval and (b) multiple bankruptcy filings affecting the real property.

(3) Waiver of the 14-day stay prescribed by Bankruptcy Rule 4001(a)(3).

Pursuant to the request in the motion, the Court also hereby grants the extraordinary relief set forth in paragraphs 7(b), 9(b) and 10(b) on page 5 of the motion.

Chapter 7

#3.00 Hrg re first and final application of Goe & Forsythe, LLP

Docket 410

Tentative Ruling:

06/11/2019:

The tentative ruling of the Court is to continue the hearings regarding the fee applications to July 30, 2019 at 1:00 p.m. for the following reasons. The local bankruptcy rules and applicable law contemplate that before a court awards professional compensation (whether on an interim or final basis), the parties should indicate the overall status of the case and, in particular, the projected scope of overall professional fees and the projected distributions to unsecured creditors. See, e.g., LBR 2016-1(a)(1)(ii) ("Applicant must report the status of administration of the estate, discussing the actions taken to liquidate property of the estate, the property remaining to be administered, the reasons the estate is not in a position to be closed, and whether it is feasible to pay an interim dividend to creditors."). Indeed, a fair evaluation of professional fees is not possible without an understanding of the benefit that creditors are likely to receive in the case.

In this case, the scope of chapter 11 administrative expenses has not yet been determined. However, there is a path to provide clarity on the subject. The trustee should proceed with filing a motion to set a deadline for the filing of all applications for allowance of chapter 11 expenses. If the trustee can proceed with filing such a motion in June, it could be heard on July 30, 2019 at 1:00 p.m. (or earlier). If the trustee needs more time to prepare and file such a motion then the hearings regarding the fee applications can be continued to August or September.

In addition, the parties should file supplemental briefing in support of the fee applications. With respect to the trustee, the Court needs a reasonably detailed projection regarding the amount the trustee expects will be distribution to general unsecured creditors. It would also be helpful if the trustee filed with the Court her billing records in the case.

As for the other professionals, it would be helpful if former counsel for the debtor also submitted a reasonably detailed projection regarding the amount expected to be paid to general unsecured creditors. If counsel agrees with any projection created by the trustee, counsel may simply agree with that projection (instead of filing a separate one). If a disagreement exists, then counsel should file a separate projection.

Subject to reviewing the additional information provided, the Court is currently inclined to allow (on an interim basis) at the continued hearing fees and costs of $100,000 to counsel for the trustee and $100,000 to former counsel for the debtor and allow payment of these amounts on an interim basis. The Court is also inclined to allow the fees and costs of the accountant for the trustee. However, again, the court is not ruling as such today. A continuance and further action is needed.

Any party who wishes to submit on the tentative ruling need not appear at the hearing today.

#5.00 Hrg re trustee's final report and application for compensation

Docket 85

Tentative Ruling:

06/11/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. No opposition has been filed. This application for compensation has been set for hearing on the notice required by LBR 2016-1(c)(4).
No appearance is necessary.

Pursuant to the trustee's final report, the following administrative claims will be allowed:

- (1) Trustee: fees of $1,853.10 and expenses of $65.70.
- (2) Pagter and Perry Isaacson, APLC: fees of $4,960 and expenses of $218.74.

The trustee shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

#6.00 Hrg re motion to disallow claim number 9-1 filed by David Stone DBA Cornerstone Financial Services as untimely

Docket 79

Tentative Ruling:

06/11/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. The objection to claim has been set for hearing on the notice required by Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 3007 and Local Bankruptcy Rules ("LBR") 3007-1 and 9013-1(d)(2). The failure of the claimant to file written opposition at least 14 days before the hearing as required by LBR 3007-1(b)(6) and 9013-1(h) is deemed consent to the sustaining of the objection. See LBR 9013-1(h); Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See LBR 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 502(b). General unsecured claim #9-1 in the amount of $145,362 filed by Cornerstone Financial Services, dba of David Stone, is hereby subordinated to timely filed general unsecured claims.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR

Chapter 7

#10.00 Hrg re motion for an order directing the debtor to turn over property of the estate

Docket 16

Tentative Ruling:

06/11/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. *See Boone v. Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3).

No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 541 and 542 with the following relief:

(1) Debtor shall turn over $5,857.50 to the Trustee within 10 days.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR

Chapter 13

#33.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 0

Tentative Ruling:

06/12/2019:

On May 29, 2019, the debtors appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtors and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 1:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtors and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtors still concur with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtors and counsel for the debtors from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtors or counsel for the debtors are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtors (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtors. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtors and counsel for the debtors to appear and address such matters.

Chapter 13

#34.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 5-29-19

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

06/12/2019:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtors or counsel for the debtors at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtors nor counsel for the debtors should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtors once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtors, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtors and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtors should increase the debtors' understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtors did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to September 4, 2019 at 10:00 a.m. Both debtors must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtors is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtors is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtors should provide the debtors with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtors should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (September 4, 2019 at 10:00 a.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtors, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtors to appear at a status conference.

So, in summary, the status conference is continued to September 4, 2019 at 10:00 a.m. and neither the debtors nor their counsel should appear today.

Chapter 13

#43.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 0

Tentative Ruling:

06/12/2019:

On May 29, 2019, the debtor appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtor and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 2:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtor and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no unresolved objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtor still concurs with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtor and counsel for the debtor from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtor or counsel for the debtor are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtor (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtor. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtor and counsel for the debtor to appear and address such matters.

Chapter 13

#44.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 5-29-19

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

06/12/2019:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtor or counsel for the debtor at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtor nor counsel for the debtor should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtor once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtor, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtor and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtor should increase the debtor's understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtor did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to September 4, 2019 at 10:00 a.m. The debtor must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtor is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtor is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtor should provide the debtor with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtor should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (September 4, 2019 at 10:00 a.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtor, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling

problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtor to appear at a status conference.

WELLS FARGO BANK VS DEBTORS

Property: 4172 Charlton Avenue, Hemet, CA 92544
[Real Prop] Alexander K. Lee, attorney/movant

Docket 36

Tentative Ruling:

06/12/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

(2) Waiver of the 14-day stay prescribed by Bankruptcy Rule 4001(a)(3).

(3) The creditor or counsel for the creditor may communicate with the debtors or counsel for the debtors regarding the property that is the subject of this motion and the debt owed to the creditor.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

#74.01 Motion for relief from stay

MANUEL CORTEZ VS DEBTOR

Property: 17745 Fairview Dr., Fontana, CA 92336
[UD] William E. Windham, attorney/movant

Docket 9

Tentative Ruling:

06/12/19:

The hearing regarding this motion shall be heard on shortened notice and any opposition is due at the hearing. Therefore, appearances are required at the hearing.

The motion requests relief from the automatic stay to complete an eviction. Using a bankruptcy case to delay an eviction is not appropriate. See, e.g., In re Smith, 105 B.R. 50, 53 & 55 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 1989) (describing cases filed to delay an eviction as “abusive” and designed to “delay improperly the landlord from obtaining possession of his property.”). Therefore, the tentative ruling of the court is to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property.

(2) Termination of the co-debtor stay.

(3) Waiver of the 14-day stay prescribed by Bankruptcy Rule 4001(a)(3).

#5.00 Motion for relief from stay

FORD MOTOR CREDIT VS DEBTOR

Property: 2018 Ford Flex
[Personal Prop] Jennifer H. Wang, attorney/movant

Docket 51

Tentative Ruling:

06/13/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

#17.00 Motion for relief from stay

LBS FINANCIAL CREDIT UNION VS DEBTORS

Property: 2018 GMC Yukon XL
[Personal Prop] Karel Rocha, attorney/movant

Docket 10

Tentative Ruling:

06/13/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

#18.00 Motion for relief from stay

VBC VS DEBTOR

Property: 12520 Business Center Drive, Units D & E, Victorville, CA 92395
[UD] Vic Rodriguez Esq, attorney/movant

Docket 5

Tentative Ruling:

06/13/2019:

The hearing regarding this motion shall be heard on shortened notice and any opposition is due at the hearing. Therefore, appearances are required at the hearing.

The motion requests relief from the automatic stay to complete an eviction. Using a bankruptcy case to delay an eviction is not appropriate. See, e.g., In re Smith, 105 B.R. 50, 53 & 55 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 1989) (describing cases filed to delay an eviction as “abusive” and designed to “delay improperly the landlord from obtaining possession of his property.”). Therefore, the tentative ruling of the court is to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property.

(2) Waiver of the 14-day stay prescribed by Bankruptcy Rule 4001(a)(3).

#7.00 Hrg re trustee's final report and application for compensation

Docket 35

Tentative Ruling:

06/25/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. No opposition has been filed. This application for compensation has been set for hearing on the notice required by LBR 2016-1(c)(4).
No appearance is necessary.

The Court thanks the trustee for his efforts in this case. In particular, the Court is grateful that the trustee minimized administrative expenses by (among other things) not hiring counsel and handling the case without the additional legal expense. Those efforts have produced a significant recovery for unsecured creditors (35%). Well done!

Pursuant to the trustee's final report, the following administrative claims will be allowed:

- (1) Trustee: fees of $2,250 and expenses of $123.81.
- (2) Donald T. Fife of Hahn Fife & Company as tax preparer: $1,000.

The trustee shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B)

06/25/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. No opposition has been filed. This application for compensation has been set for hearing on the notice required by LBR 2016-1(c)(4). No appearance is necessary.

The Court thanks the trustee for all his efforts in this case. The trustee minimized administrative expenses by (among other things) not hiring legal counsel. By handling negotiations with the debtor himself, the trustee insured that most of the funds he recovered would be available to pay creditors. Those actions produced a substantial recovery. General unsecured creditors will be paid 100%. That is an excellent result. Well done!

Pursuant to the trustee's final report, the following administrative claims will be allowed:

(1) Trustee: fees of $2,417.95 and expenses of $106.06.

The trustee shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

Chapter 13

#15.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

06/26/2019:

On June 12, 2019, the debtor appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtor and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 1:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtor and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtor still concurs with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtor and counsel for the debtor from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtor or counsel for the debtor are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtor (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtor. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtor and counsel for the debtor to appear and address such matters.

Chapter 13

#16.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 6-12-19

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

06/26/2019:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtor or counsel for the debtor at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtor nor counsel for the debtor should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtor once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtor, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtor and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtor should increase the debtor's understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtor did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to September 4, 2019 at 11:00 a.m. The debtor must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtor is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtor is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtor should provide the debtor with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtor should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (September 4, 2019 at 11:00 a.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtor, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtor to appear at a status conference.

So, in summary, the status conference is continued to September 4, 2019 at 11:00 a.m. and neither the debtor nor their counsel should appear today.

Chapter 13

#18.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 17

Tentative Ruling:

06/26/2019:

On June 12, 2019, the debtors appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtors and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 1:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtors and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtors still concur with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtors and counsel for the debtors from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtors or counsel for the debtors are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtors (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtors. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtors and counsel for the debtors to appear and address such matters.

Chapter 13

#19.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 6-12-19

Docket 1

Tentative Ruling:

06/26/2019:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtors or counsel for the debtors at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtors nor counsel for the debtors should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtors once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtors, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtors and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtors should increase the debtors' understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtors did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to September 4, 2019 at 11:00 a.m. Both debtors must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtors is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtors is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtors should provide the debtors with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtors should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (September 4, 2019 at 11:00 a.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtors, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtors to appear at a status conference.

So, in summary, the status conference is continued to September 4, 2019 at 11:00 a.m. and neither the debtors nor their counsel should appear today.

#49.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 6-12-19

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

06/26/2019:

Due to the recent filing of an objection to confirmation, counsel for the debtor should appear. The debtor, however, should not appear. If the objection is resolved and the plan confirmed, the Court will hold a status conference on September 4th (at which the debtor should appear).

#2.00 Motion for relief from stay

NEW REZ LLC VS DEBTOR

Property: 1144 Blazewood Street, Riverside, CA 92507
[Real Prop] Mark S. Krause, attorney/movant

Docket 18

Tentative Ruling:

06/27/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

(3) The creditor or counsel for the creditor may communicate with the debtor or counsel for the debtor regarding the property that is the subject of this motion and the debt owed to the creditor.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

TD AUTO FINANCE VS DEBTOR

Property: 2018 Nissan Altima
[Personal Prop] Jennifer H. Wang, attorney/movant

Docket 9

Tentative Ruling:

07/02/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

#5.00 Hrg re motion for order authorizing the chapter 7 trustee to employ the Turoci Firm as general bankruptcy counsel

Docket 85

Tentative Ruling:

07/02/2019:

The application seeks an order of the Court approving the employment of The Turoci Firm and the biography attached to the application indicates that a former bankruptcy judge is associated with the firm. The application is silent regarding whether or not the former judge will have any involvement in this case. Normally, courts assume that anyone listed in the biography of an employment application are professionals who may be involved in the case and (among other things) may bill time to the matter. As a result, Advisory Opinion No. 70 of the Committee on Codes of Conduct may or may not apply in this situation. Therefore, the Court needs more information to evaluate the applicability of the Advisory Opinion.

The Court would be grateful if the movant filed a supplemental pleading which addresses whether or not a former judge of this Court will be involved in this case in any manner. If a former judge of this Court will not be involved in this case, the supplemental pleading could be quite short and simply state something to the effect that (1) no former judge of this Court will be involved in this case in any manner and (2) an ethical wall has been established in the firm to ensure no former judge is involved in this case in any manner.

On the other hand, if the application contemplates that a former judge will be involved in the case in any manner, it would be helpful to the Court for the movant to provide as much information as possible in order to, again, evaluate the applicability of the Advisory Opinion.

Chapter 7

If the supplemental briefing is filed a day or two before the hearing, the Court will review it and (depending on what it states) may resolve this pending motion without the need for a hearing.

The full text of the Advisory Opinion is as follows:

Committee on Codes of Conduct

Advisory Opinion No. 70

Disqualification When Former Judge Appears as Counsel

This opinion addresses recusal considerations when former judges, including judges who resign pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 371(a), appear as counsel before the court in which they once held judicial office. It does not directly address the ethical obligations of the former judge who later appears as counsel, although these obligations may be relevant to whether the former judge or his or her law firm should be disqualified from representation. Those obligations are governed by the rules of professional responsibility applicable to attorneys in the relevant jurisdiction. See, e.g., Rule 1.12, ABA Model Rules of Professional Conduct ("ABA Rule 1.12").

The Code of Conduct for United States Judges and 28 U.S.C. § 455(a) require recusal when the impartiality of a judge might reasonably be questioned. The Code also directs recusal where an appearance of impropriety might exist. These principles govern the duties of the judge when a former colleague appears as counsel. See Canon 2A and Canon 3B(3). Although the Committee on Codes of Conduct is not authorized to render advisory opinions interpreting the recusal statutes, Canon 3C of the Code closely tracks the language of 28 U.S. C. § 455, and the Committee is authorized to provide advice regarding the application of the Code.

The Committee recommends that courts announce a policy that for a fixed period after the retirement or resignation of a colleague, judges recuse themselves in any case in which the former colleague appears as counsel. The Committee's experience suggests that a recusal period of one to two years would be appropriate, depending on the size of the bench and the degree and nature of interactions among the judges. The advantage of such a policy is that it is evenhanded, can be cited as supplying an objective basis for recusal, and may be formulated without respect to particular individuals. Advance adoption of a policy also gives fair notice of the practice restrictions a judge will face after resignation or retirement.

Even though a fixed period may have expired, a judge may be required to recuse in a case in which counsel for a party is a former judge with whom the sitting judge had a particularly close association. The standard applied here is the same as when a former associate or partner in a law firm, or a close friend, is an attorney in the case. The relevant considerations are set forth in Advisory Opinion No. 11 ("Disqualification Where Long-Time Friend or Friend's Law Firm Is Counsel"). We have suggested a two-fold test. First, does the judge feel capable of disregarding the relationship; second, can others reasonably be expected to believe the relationship is disregarded? In applying that test, the judge should consider the closeness of the relationship, the length of service together, the size of the bench, and the period that has elapsed since the former judge left the bench.

In a large court, personal or social associations may not have been close. If the former judge had been a colleague for a short time, it may be easier to disregard the past relationship, and more likely that litigants will feel the relationship will play no part in the decision. When the association between the sitting and former judge has been long, close, and continuing, the judge's impartiality might reasonably be questioned, and the judge should consider recusal.

A discrete problem arises when a former judge appears as counsel in a case that was filed in his or her former court before he or she resigned. In such circumstances, the presiding judge should confirm that the attorney's representation is not in violation of the applicable rules of professional responsibility. Although the rules of some jurisdictions may allow waiver of conflicts resulting from an attorney's prior judicial service, the Committee concludes that waiver would not be appropriate to allow a former federal judge to represent parties in any case that had been assigned to the former judge's individual docket during his or her judicial tenure. See generally ABA Rule 1.12(a) ("[A] lawyer shall not represent anyone in connection with a matter in which the lawyer participated personally and substantially as a judge . . . unless all parties to the proceeding give informed consent, confirmed in writing."). Appropriate steps may include review of the docket sheet to insure the case was not previously assigned to the attorney during his or her judicial service or inquiry of the parties.

If the principles stated here are followed, the Committee finds no objection to appearances by former judges. That the former colleague may have superior knowledge of the viewpoints of the sitting judges does not require disqualification. The same information is available from a thorough study of the sitting judge's opinions, or from observation of the judge in the courtroom. Lawyers who frequently litigate before a particular judge may acquire the same type of information, yet no one would suggest recusal or disqualification in such cases.

If a judge sits in a case in which a former colleague appears as counsel, care should be exercised in the courtroom to avoid using or permitting indications of familiarity. The former colleague should not use or be called by his or her former title. See Advisory Opinion No. 72 ("Use of Title 'Judge' by Former Judges"). First names and references to past association, events, or discussions should be avoided.

Absent special circumstances giving rise to reasonable questions regarding the impartiality of the sitting judge, the fact that a former judge is an associate or partner of the law firm appearing in the case, where the former judge does not appear or work on the case, does not of itself require recusal of the judge. Advisory Opinion No. 11, pertaining to the law firm of a close friend, sets forth the considerations here. The judge should, however, be alert to concerns relating to disqualification of the firm which, like disqualification of the former judge, is governed by the relevant jurisdiction's rules of professional responsibility. See, e.g., ABA Rule 1.12(c) ("If a lawyer is disqualified by paragraph (a), no lawyer in a firm with which that lawyer is associated may knowingly undertake or continue representation in the matter unless: (1) the disqualified lawyer is timely screened from any participation in the matter and is apportioned no part of the fee therefrom; and (2) written notice is promptly given to the parties and any appropriate tribunal to enable them to ascertain compliance with the provisions of this rule.").

Chapter 13

#26.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

07/03/2019:

On June 26, 2019, the debtors appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtors and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 2:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtors and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtors still concur with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtors and counsel for the debtors from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtors or counsel for the debtors are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtors (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtors. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtors and counsel for the debtors to appear and address such matters.

Chapter 13

#27.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 6-26-19

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

07/03/2019:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtors or counsel for the debtors at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtors nor counsel for the debtors should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtors once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtors, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtors and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtors should increase the debtors' understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtors did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to September 4, 2019 at 1:00 p.m. Both debtors must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtors is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtors is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtors should provide the debtors with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtors should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (September 4, 2019 at 1:00 p.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtors, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtors to appear at a status conference.

So, in summary, the status conference is continued to September 4, 2019 at 1:00 p.m. and neither the debtors nor their counsel should appear today.

Chapter 13

#36.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

07/03/2019:

On June 26, 2019, the debtors appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtors and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 3:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtors and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtors still concur with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtors and counsel for the debtors from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtors or counsel for the debtors are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtors (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtors. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtors and counsel for the debtors to appear and address such matters.

Chapter 13

#37.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 6-26-19

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

07/03/2019:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtors or counsel for the debtors at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtors nor counsel for the debtors should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtors once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtors, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtors and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtors should increase the debtors' understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtors did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to September 4, 2019 at 1:00 p.m. Both debtors must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtors is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtors is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtors should provide the debtors with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtors should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (September 4, 2019 at 1:00 p.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtors, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtors to appear at a status conference.

So, in summary, the status conference is continued to September 4, 2019 at 1:00 p.m. and neither the debtors nor their counsel should appear today.

CASE DISCHARGE 6-19-18

Docket 43

Tentative Ruling:

07/03/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. The Court has reviewed the new applications for entry of discharge filed in this case. Based on that review, the court entered a discharge in this case and, therefore, it does not appear that a status conference is necessary at this time. No appearances are required.

If the debtors have any concerns, questions or objections regarding these matters or anything else regarding this case that the debtors wish to address, the debtors or counsel for the debtors are welcome to appear at the status conference. Likewise, if the debtors or counsel for the debtors wish to discuss the chapter 13 procedures order or ask any questions, the status conference is an opportunity to do so. Any issues in this case may be addressed at the status conference. However, as stated above, no appearances are required and, in the absence of an appearance, the Court will simply conclude the status conference.

Chapter 7

#6.00 Hrg re trustee's final report and applicatins for compensation

Docket 54

Tentative Ruling:

07/16/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. No opposition has been filed. This application for compensation has been set for hearing on the notice required by LBR 2016-1(c)(4).
No appearance is necessary.

The Court thanks the trustee and her professionals for their great work in this case. The professionals minimized expenses and maximized the recovery. More than enough money was recovered to pay all claims in full (several times over). Well done!

Pursuant to the trustee's final report, the following administrative claims will be allowed:

- (1) Trustee: fees of $4,248.59 and expenses of $65.26.
- (2) Roquemore, Pringle & Moore, Inc.: fees of $6,070 and expenses of $45.55.
- (3) Menchaca & Company, LLP: fees of $6,741 and expenses of $59.10.

The trustee shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time

#21.00 Hrg re motion to reopen chapter 13 case

Docket 121

Tentative Ruling:

07/17/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3).

No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 350(b) with the following relief:

(1) The case is reopened.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR

Chapter 13

#27.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 1

Tentative Ruling:

07/17/2019:

On July 3, 2019, the debtor appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtor and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 1:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtor and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtor still concurs with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtor and counsel for the debtor from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtor or counsel for the debtor are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtor (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtor. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtor and counsel for the debtor to appear and address such matters.

Chapter 13

#28.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 7-3-19

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

07/17/2019:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtor or counsel for the debtor at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtor nor counsel for the debtor should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtor once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtor, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtor and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtor should increase the debtor's understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtor did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to September 4, 2019 at 1:00 p.m. The debtor must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtor is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtor is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtor should provide the debtor with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtor should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (September 4, 2019 at 1:00 p.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtor, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling

problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtor to appear at a status conference.

So, in summary, the status conference is continued to September 4, 2019 at 1:00 p.m. and neither the debtor nor their counsel should appear today.

Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtors or counsel for the debtors at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtors nor counsel for the debtors should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtors once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtors, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtors and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtors should increase the debtors' understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtors did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to September 4, 2019 at 1:00 p.m. Both debtors must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtors is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtors is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtors should provide the debtors with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtors should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (September 4, 2019 at 1:00 p.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtors, counsel should file a declaration

#34.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 1

Tentative Ruling:

07/17/2019:

On July 3, 2019, the debtors appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtors and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 1:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtors and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtors still concur with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtors and counsel for the debtors from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtors or counsel for the debtors are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtors (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtors. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtors and counsel for the debtors to appear and address such matters.

The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtors and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtors still concur with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtors and counsel for the debtors from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtors or counsel for the debtors are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtors (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtors. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtors and counsel for the debtors to appear and address such matters.

Chapter 13

#48.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 7-3-19

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

07/17/2019:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtors or counsel for the debtors at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtors nor counsel for the debtors should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtors once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtors, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtors and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtors should increase the debtors' understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtors did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to September 4, 2019 at 1:00 p.m. Both debtors must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtors is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtors is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtors should provide the debtors with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtors should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (September 4, 2019 at 1:00 p.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtors, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtors to appear at a status conference.

So, in summary, the status conference is continued to September 4, 2019 at 1:00 p.m. and neither the debtors nor their counsel should appear today.

#52.00 Motion for relief from stay

ACAR LEASING LTD DBA GM FINANCIAL LEASING VS DEBTOR

Property: 2016 GMC CANYON
[Personal Prop] Jennifer H. Wang, attorney/movant

Docket 40

Tentative Ruling:

07/17/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

#2.00 Motion for relief from stay

TD AUTO FINANCE VS DEBTOR

Property: 2017 Jeep Wrangler
[Personal Prop] Jennifer H. Wang, attorney/movant

Docket 53

Tentative Ruling:

07/18/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

[Personal Prop] Jennifer H. Wang, attorney/movant

Docket 12

Tentative Ruling:

07/18/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

Chapter 7

#1.00 Hrg re trustee's final report and application for compensation

Docket 73

Tentative Ruling:

07/30/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. No opposition has been filed. This application for compensation has been set for hearing on the notice required by LBR 2016-1(c)(4).
No appearance is necessary.

The Court thanks the trustee and his professionals for their work in this case. Significant litigation occurred and counsel for the trustee made considerable efforts during lengthy litigation. Those efforts were successful but costly (litigation often is expensive). Nevertheless, the trustee and his professionals have agreed to reduce their requested fees and expenses to the point at which general unsecured creditors are paid 50% of their claims. The Court appreciates those reductions and the professionalism they reflect.

Pursuant to the trustee's final report, the following administrative claims will be allowed:

- (1) Trustee: fees of $2,312.98 and expenses of $32.87.
- (2) Goe & Forsythe, LLP: fees of $30,717.76 and expenses of $1,059.16.
- (3) Menchaca & Company LLP: fees of $1,383.89 and expenses of $26.95.

Tentative Ruling:

07/30/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. No opposition has been filed. This application for compensation has been set for hearing on the notice required by LBR 2016-1(c)(4).

No appearance is necessary.

The Court thanks the trustee for his efforts in this case. The trustee administered a small case with few assets (i.e. less than $5,000). Nevertheless, those funds will provide a benefit to creditors that they would not have otherwise received but for the trustee's efforts. This is another example of the benefits to creditors when trustees take the time to administer smaller cases. Thank you.

Pursuant to the trustee's final report, the following administrative claims will be allowed:

(1) Trustee: fees of $1,161.25 and expenses of $52.14.

The trustee shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

Chapter 13

#15.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

07/31/2019:

On July 17, 2019, the debtor appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtor and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 1:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtor and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtor still concurs with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtor and counsel for the debtor from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtor or counsel for the debtor are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtor (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtor. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtor and counsel for the debtor to appear and address such matters.

Chapter 13

#16.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 7-17-19

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

07/31/2019:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtor or counsel for the debtor at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtor nor counsel for the debtor should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtor once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtor, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtor and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtor should increase the debtor's understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtor did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to September 4, 2019 at 2:00 p.m. The debtor must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtor is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtor is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtor should provide the debtor with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtor should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (September 4, 2019 at 2:00 p.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtor, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling

problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtor to appear at a status conference.

So, in summary, the status conference is continued to September 4, 2019 at 2:00 p.m. and neither the debtor nor their counsel should appear today.

Counsel for the debtor is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtor is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtor should provide the debtor with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtor should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (September 4, 2019 at 2:00 p.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtor, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling

#32.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 20

Tentative Ruling:

07/31/2019:

On July 17, 2019, the debtors appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtors and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 2:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtors and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtors still concur with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtors and counsel for the debtors from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtors or counsel for the debtors are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtors (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtors. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtors and counsel for the debtors to appear and address such matters.

#33.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 7-17-19

Docket 1

Tentative Ruling:

07/31/2019:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtors or counsel for the debtors at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtors nor counsel for the debtors should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtors once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtors, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtors and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtors should increase the debtors' understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtors did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to September 4, 2019 at 2:00 p.m. Both debtors must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtors is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtors is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtors should provide the debtors with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtors should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

#55.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

07/31/2019:

On July 17, 2019, the debtors appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtors and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 4:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtors and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtors still concur with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtors and counsel for the debtors from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtors or counsel for the debtors are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtors (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtors. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtors and counsel for the debtors to appear and address such matters.

Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtors or counsel for the debtors at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtors nor counsel for the debtors should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtors once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtors, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtors and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtors should increase the debtors' understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtors did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to September 4, 2019 at 2:00 p.m. Both debtors must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtors is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtors is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtors should provide the debtors with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtors should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (September 4, 2019 at 2:00 p.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtors, counsel should file a declaration

#58.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

07/31/2019:

On July 17, 2019, the debtor appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtor and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 4:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtor and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtor still concurs with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtor and counsel for the debtor from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtor or counsel for the debtor are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtor (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtor. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtor and counsel for the debtor to appear and address such matters.

#72.00 Motion for relief from stay

WELLS FARGO BANK VS DEBTOR

[Real Prop] Nancy Lee, attorney/movant

Docket 16

Tentative Ruling:

07/31/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(4) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

(2) Waiver of the 14-day stay prescribed by Bankruptcy Rule 4001(a)(3).

(3) The creditor or counsel for the creditor may communicate with the debtor or counsel for the debtor regarding the property that is the subject of this motion and the debt owed to the creditor.

(4) Relief under § 362(d)(4) based on multiple bankruptcy filings affecting the real property.

(5) Termination of the co-debtor stay.

Pursuant to the request in the motion, the Court also hereby grants the extraordinary relief set forth in paragraphs 8(b), 10(b) and 11(b) on page 5 of the motion.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

#3.00 Motion for relief from stay

BAYVIEW LOAN SERVICING, LLC VS DEBTOR

Property: 20750 El Nido Avenue, Area of Perris, CA 92571
[Real Prop] Edward G. Schloss, attorney/movant

Docket 15

Tentative Ruling:

08/01/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1), 362(d)(2), and 362(d)(4) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

(2) Waiver of the 14-day stay prescribed by Bankruptcy Rule 4001(a)(3).

(3) Relief under § 362(d)(4) based on (a) the transfer of all or part ownership of, or other interest in, such real property without the consent of the secured creditor or court approval and (b) multiple bankruptcy filings affecting the real property.

Pursuant to the request in the motion, the Court also hereby grants the extraordinary relief set forth in paragraph 10(b) on page 5 of the motion.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

Property: 2017 Honda Civic
[Personal Prop] Vincent V. Frounjian, attorney/movant

Docket 7

 VACATED  REASON: SCHEDULING ORDER ENTERED 8-5-19; MATTER OFF CALENDAR

Tentative Ruling:

08/06/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary. The hearing is hereby taken off calendar.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

(2) Waiver of the 14-day stay prescribed by Bankruptcy Rule 4001(a)(3).

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

6:19-15310 Theresa Wendy Miller

Chapter 13

#20.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

08/07/2019:

On July 31, 2019, the debtor appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtor and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 2:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtor and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtor still concurs with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtor and counsel for the debtor from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtor or counsel for the debtor are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtor (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtor. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtor and counsel for the debtor to appear and address such matters.

Chapter 13

#21.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan
FROM: 7-31-19

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

08/07/2019:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtor or counsel for the debtor at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtor nor counsel for the debtor should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtor once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtor, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtor and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtor should increase the debtor's understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtor did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to September 4, 2019 at 3:00 p.m. The debtor must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtor is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtor is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtor should provide the debtor with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtor should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (September 4, 2019 at 3:00 p.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtor, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling

problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtor to appear at a status conference.

So, in summary, the status conference is continued to September 4, 2019 at 3:00 p.m. and neither the debtor nor their counsel should appear today.

Chapter 13

#34.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

08/07/2019:

On July 31, 2019, the debtor appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtor and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 3:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtor and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtor still concurs with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtor and counsel for the debtor from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtor or counsel for the debtor are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtor (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtor. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtor and counsel for the debtor to appear and address such matters.

Chapter 13

#35.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 7-31-19

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

08/07/2019:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtor or counsel for the debtor at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtor nor counsel for the debtor should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtor once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtor, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtor and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtor should increase the debtor's understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtor did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to September 4, 2019 at 3:00 p.m. The debtor must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtor is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtor is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtor should provide the debtor with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtor should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (September 4, 2019 at 3:00 p.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtor, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling

problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtor to appear at a status conference.

6:19-15722 Juan Carlos Ochoa

Chapter 13

#54.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 7-31-19

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

08/07/2019:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtor or counsel for the debtor at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtor nor counsel for the debtor should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtor once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtor, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtor and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtor should increase the debtor's understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtor did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to September 4, 2019 at 3:00 p.m. The debtor must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtor is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtor is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtor should provide the debtor with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtor should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (September 4, 2019 at 3:00 p.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtor, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling

problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtor to appear at a status conference.

So, in summary, the status conference is continued to September 4, 2019 at 3:00 p.m. and neither the debtor nor their counsel should appear today.

Chapter 13

#9.00 Hrg re motion for trustee's verified motion to modify plan

Docket 44

Tentative Ruling:

08/28/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3).

No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 1329 with the following relief:

(1) The plan is modified per the motion.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR

Chapter 13

#21.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

08/28/2019:

On August 14, 2019, the debtors appeared at a meeting of creditors. On August 26, 2019, counsel for the debtors and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 1:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtors and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no unresolved objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtors still concur with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtors and counsel for the debtors from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtors or counsel for the debtors are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtors (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtors. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtors and counsel for the debtors to appear and address such matters.

Chapter 13

#22.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan
FROM: 8-26-19

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

08/28/2019:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtors or counsel for the debtors at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtors nor counsel for the debtors should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtors once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtors, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtors and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtors should increase the debtors' understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtors did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to September 4, 2019 at 3:00 p.m. Both debtors must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtors is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtors is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtors should provide the debtors with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtors should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (September 4, 2019 at 3:00 p.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtors, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtors to appear at a status conference.

So, in summary, the status conference is continued to September 4, 2019 at 3:00 p.m. and neither the debtors nor their counsel should appear today.

Chapter 13

#41.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

08/28/2019:

On August 14, 2019, the debtor appeared at a meeting of creditors. On August 26, 2019, counsel for the debtor and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 3:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtor and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no unresolved objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtor still concurs with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtor and counsel for the debtor from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtor or counsel for the debtor are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtor (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtor. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtor and counsel for the debtor to appear and address such matters.

Chapter 13

#42.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 8-26-19

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

08/28/2019:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtor or counsel for the debtor at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtor nor counsel for the debtor should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtor once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtor, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtor and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtor should increase the debtor's understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtor did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to September 4, 2019 at 3:00 p.m. The debtor must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtor is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtor is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtor should provide the debtor with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtor should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (September 4, 2019 at 3:00 p.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtor, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling

problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtor to appear at a status conference.

So, in summary, the status conference is continued to September 4, 2019 at 3:00 p.m. and neither the debtor nor their counsel should appear today.

FROM: 4-17-19

CASE DISCHARGE 8-28-19

Docket 108

Tentative Ruling:

08/28/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. The Court has reviewed the new applications for entry of discharge filed in this case. Based on that review, the court entered a discharge in this case and, therefore, it does not appear that a status conference is necessary at this time. No appearances are required.

If the debtors have any concerns, questions or objections regarding these matters or anything else regarding this case that the debtors wish to address, the debtors or counsel for the debtors are welcome to appear at the status conference. Likewise, if the debtors or counsel for the debtors wish to discuss the chapter 13 procedures order or ask any questions, the status conference is an opportunity to do so. Any issues in this case may be addressed at the status conference. However, as stated above, no appearances are required and, in the absence of an appearance, the Court will simply conclude the status conference.

#2.00 Motion for relief from stay

FORD MOTOR CREDIT COMPANY VS DEBTOR

Property: 2016 Ford Fusion
[Personal Prop] Jennifer H. Wang, attorney/movant

Docket 40

Tentative Ruling:

08/29/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

#5.00 Motion for relief from stay

ACAR LEASING VS DEBTORS

Property: 2017 Buick Regal
[Personal Prop] Jennifer H. Wang, attorney/movant

Docket 10

Tentative Ruling:

08/29/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

#22.00 Hrg re motion for default judgment

Docket 23

Tentative Ruling:

08/29/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3).

No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to FRBP 7055.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

Chapter 7

#5.00 Hrg re chapter 7 trustee's motion for order extending the deadline to object to the the debtor's claimed exemptions

Docket 42

Tentative Ruling:

9/10/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3).

No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to FBRP 4003(b) with the following relief:

(1) Extend the deadline to object to Debtor's exemptions to and including February 18, 2020.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

#6.00 Hrg re motion to dismiss case and vacate discharge if previously entered

Docket 34

Tentative Ruling:

9/10/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3).

No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §109(g) with the following relief:

(1) Order of discharge is vacated and case is dismissed with a 180-day bar to refiling.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

Chapter 13

#34.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

09/11/2019:

On August 28, 2019, the debtor appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtor and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 1:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtor and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtor still concurs with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtor and counsel for the debtor from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtor or counsel for the debtor are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtor (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtor. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtor and counsel for the debtor to appear and address such matters.

Chapter 13

#35.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 8-28-19

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

09/11/2019:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtor or counsel for the debtor at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtor nor counsel for the debtor should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtor once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtor, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtor and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtor should increase the debtor's understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtor did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to December 11, 2019 at 9:00 a.m. The debtor must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtor is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtor is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtor should provide the debtor with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtor should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (December 11, 2019 at 9:00 a.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtor, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtor to appear at a status conference.

So, in summary, the status conference is continued to December 11, 2019 at 9:00 a.m. and neither the debtor nor counsel should appear today.

#1.00 Hrg re trustee's final report and applications for compensation

Docket 51

Tentative Ruling:

9/24/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. No opposition has been filed. This application for compensation has been set for hearing on the notice required by LBR 2016-1(c)(4).
No appearance is necessary.

The Court thanks the trustee for the efforts by the trustee in this case. The trustee's administration of the case will produce a recovery of of 83% by the general unsecured creditor. That is an excellent (and unusual) result. The Court also appreciates that the trustee minimized administrative expenses by not hiring counsel and handling certain legal matters without counsel (such as negotiating and documenting a compromise, preparing and filing the motion to approve the compromise, and reviewing and objecting informally to claims). Many trustees would not have resisted the impulse to hire counsel under such circumstances, and, therefore, the Court is particularly appreciative of the efforts of the trustee. The decision to not hire counsel had a significant positive impact on the creditor in the case.

Accordingly, pursuant to the trustee's final report, the following administrative claims will be allowed:

(1) Trustee: fees of $3,750 and expenses of $103.11.

#5.00 Hrg re trustee's final report and applications for compensation

Docket 19

Tentative Ruling:

9/24/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. No opposition has been filed. This application for compensation has been set for hearing on the notice required by LBR 2016-1(c)(4). No appearance is necessary.

The Court thanks the trustee for the efforts by the trustee in this case. The Court appreciates the willingness of the trustee to administer a case with a minimal amount of assets and the efforts of the trustee to minimize administrative expenses. That work has produced a benefit for creditors that would not otherwise occur. Accordingly, pursuant to the trustee's final report, the following administrative claims will be allowed:

(1) Trustee: fees of $658.50 and expenses of $28.83.

The trustee shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

Chapter 7

#8.00 Hrg re motion by United States Trustee to dismiss case with a re-filing bar

Docket 7

Tentative Ruling:

9/24/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor, and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3).

No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 105, 349, and 707(b) with the following relief:

(1) The case is dismissed with a bar to re-filing of three years.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR

Docket 44

Tentative Ruling:

9/25/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3).

No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §1307(c) (11) and dismiss this case.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

Chapter 13

#34.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

09/25/2019:

On September 11, 2019, the debtor appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtor and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 1:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtor and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtor still concurs with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtor and counsel for the debtor from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtor or counsel for the debtor are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtor (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtor. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtor and counsel for the debtor to appear and address such matters.

Chapter 13

#35.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 9-11-19

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

09/25/2019:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtor or counsel for the debtor at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtor nor counsel for the debtor should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtor once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtor, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtor and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtor should increase the debtor's understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtor did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to December 11, 2019 at 11 a.m. The debtor must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtor is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtor is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtor should provide the debtor with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtor should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (December 11, 2019 at 11 a.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtor, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling

problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtor to appear at a status conference.

So, in summary, the status conference is continued to December 11, 2019 at 11 a.m., and neither the debtor nor their counsel should appear today.

Chapter 13

#44.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 9-11-19

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

09/25/2019:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtor or counsel for the debtor at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtor nor counsel for the debtor should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtor once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtor, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtor and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtor should increase the debtor's understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtor did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to December 11, 2019 at 11 a.m. The debtor must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtor is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtor is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtor should provide the debtor with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtor should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (December 11, 2019 at 11 a.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtor, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling

problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtor to appear at a status conference.

So, in summary, the status conference is continued to December 11, 2019 at 11 a.m., and neither the debtor nor their counsel should appear today.

#54.00 Hrg re motion for order determining value of collateral with GM Financial
[Property: 2011 BMW 328 2D Coupe I]

Docket 23

Tentative Ruling:

9/25/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3).

No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §506.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

Chapter 13

#57.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

09/25/2019:

On September 11, 2019, the debtor appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtor and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 3:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtor and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtor still concurs with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtor and counsel for the debtor from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtor or counsel for the debtor are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtor (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtor. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtor and counsel for the debtor to appear and address such matters.

Chapter 13

#69.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

09/25/2019:

On September 11, 2019, the debtors appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtors and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 4:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtors and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtors still concur with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtors and counsel for the debtors from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtors or counsel for the debtors are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtors (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtors. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtors and counsel for the debtors to appear and address such matters.

Chapter 13

#70.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 9-11-19

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

09/25/2019:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtors or counsel for the debtors at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtors nor counsel for the debtors should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtors once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtors, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtors and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtors should increase the debtors' understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtors did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to December 11, 2019 at 11 a.m. Both debtors must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtors is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtors is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtors should provide the debtors with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtors should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (December 11, 2019 at 11 a.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtors, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtors to appear at a status conference.

So, in summary, the status conference is continued to December 11, 2019 at 11 a.m., and neither the debtors nor their counsel should appear today.

Docket 50

Tentative Ruling:

9/25/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

WELLS FARGO BANK VS DEBTORS

Property: 57445 Twenty-Nine Palms Hwy. Suite 302, Yucca Valley, CA 92284
[Real Prop] Ashley R. Wedding, attorney/movant

Docket 25

Tentative Ruling:

9/26/2098:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

(4) The order shall be binding and effective despite any conversion of this bankruptcy case to a case under any other chapter of Title 11 of the United States Code.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

#7.00 Motion for relief from stay

FORD MOTOR CREDIT VS DEBTOR

Property: 2019 Ford Fusion
[Personal Prop] Jennifer H. Wang, attorney/movant

Docket 15

Tentative Ruling:

9/26/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

ADVANCED GROUP 200, LP VS DEBTOR

Property: 1255 E. Citrus Avenue, #134, Redlands, CA 92374
[UD] Jospeh L. Cruz, attorney/movant

Docket 9

Tentative Ruling:

9/26/2019:

The hearing regarding this motion shall be heard on shortened notice and any opposition is due at the hearing. Therefore, appearances are required at the hearing.

The motion requests relief from the automatic stay to complete an eviction. Using a bankruptcy case to delay an eviction is not appropriate. See, e.g., In re Smith, 105 B.R. 50, 53 & 55 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 1989) (describing cases filed to delay an eviction as “abusive” and designed to “delay improperly the landlord from obtaining possession of his property.”). Therefore, the tentative ruling of the court is to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property.

Chapter 13

#41.00 Hrg re the automatic stay motion

Docket 0

Tentative Ruling:

9/27/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. The motion is untimely. Section 362(c)(3)(A) provides that the automatic stay “shall terminate with respect to the debtor on the 30th day after the filing of the later case.” See 11 U.S.C. § 362(c)(3)(A). In order to avoid the termination of the stay, a motion to extend the stay must be filed and it must be heard on or before the thirtieth day after the filing of the bankruptcy case. See 11 U.S.C. § 362(c)(3)(B) (stating that “on the motion of a party in interest for continuation of the automatic stay and upon notice and a hearing, the court may extend the stay in particular cases as to any or all creditors (subject to such conditions or limitations as the court may then impose) after notice and a hearing completed before the expiration of the 30-day period . . .”).

Accordingly, under the plain language of the statute, the hearing regarding a motion to extend the automatic stay pursuant to section 362(c)(3)(B) must occur no later than thirty days after the filing of this bankruptcy case. It is not enough to simply file the motion within the thirty-day period. The hearing regarding the motion must also occur within the thirty-day period. See, e.g., In re Moon, 339 B.R. 668, 670 (Bankr. N.D. Ohio 2006) (denying a motion to extend the stay that was filed during the thirty-day period because the debtors scheduled the motion for a hearing thirty-seven days after the petition date); In re Garrett, 357 B.R. 128, 131 (Bankr. C.D. Ill. 2006) (“Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(c)(3)(B), the Bankruptcy Court may extend the automatic stay only after notice and a hearing completed before the expiration of the 30 day period after the filing of a second bankruptcy case within one year of the dismissal of a previously filed case. If the notice and hearing are not completed within this period, the automatic stay terminates by operation of law pursuant to § 362(c)(3) (A).”); In re Norman, 346 B.R. 181 (Bankr. N.D. W.Va. 2006) (holding that a motion to extend the automatic stay must be heard within the thirty-day period); In re Ziolkowski, 338 B.R. 543, 546 (Bankr. D.Conn. 2006) (denying a motion to extend the stay that was filed during the thirty day period because the initial hearing regarding the motion – which was scheduled by the clerk of the court – occurred more than two months after the petition date and stating that the debtors “were the movants and it was their ultimate burden to insure that the Motion was timely scheduled.”); Capital One Auto Fin. v. Cowley, 374 B.R. 601, 610 (W.D. Tex. 2006) (reversing a bankruptcy court order granting a motion to extend the stay because, while the motion was filed within thirty days of the petition date, the hearing regarding the motion occurred after the thirty day period and stating that “the Court finds that § 362(c)(3) requires notice and a hearing to be completed within thirty days of a filing of a petition by a single-repeat filer.”); In re Wesselman, 2008 Bankr. LEXIS 950 (Bankr. E.D. Ky. 2008) (denying a motion to extend the stay that was filed during the thirty-day period because the hearing regarding the motion occurred thirty-one days after the petition date.); In re Brewster, 2008 Bankr. LEXIS 949 (Bankr. E.D. Ky. 2008) (denying a motion to extend the stay that was filed during the thirty-day period because the hearing regarding the motion occurred thirty-nine days after the petition date and stating that the “plain meaning of the statute is that the court does not have authority to extend the stay when a hearing is not completed before the expiration of the 30-day period following a bankruptcy filing.”).

Because of this strict thirty-day period for conducting a hearing regarding a motion to extend the stay, this Court (like many others) has established self-calendaring instructions which permit debtors to set hearings regarding this type of motion on shortened notice (as little as seven days). Under those procedures, debtors typically have between two to four available dates for setting hearings regarding this type of motion during the first thirty days of any bankruptcy case.

In this case, the debtor filed a prior bankruptcy case within the last twelve months (case no. 6:19-bk-13953-WJ). After that case was dismissed, the debtor filed this second bankruptcy case on August 1, 2019. Thus, the automatic stay expired on August 31, 2019. The debtor did not properly utilize the self-calendaring procedures that permit hearings on these types of motions on shortened notice (i.e., without an order shortening time) within the first thirty days of the petition date. Pursuant to those guidelines, the motion could have been heard on August 26, 2019 or August 28, 2019. Indeed, the debtor could have scheduled the hearing regarding the motion for August 28, 2019 on regular notice to creditors (i.e., 21 days' notice to creditors) or, pursuant to the Court's self-calendaring guidelines, on either seven or fourteen days' notice to creditors. Instead, on August 12, 2019, the debtor filed a motion to extend the stay, but the debtor initially failed to pay the filing fee for the motion, which meant the clerk of the Court did not set the matter for a hearing. When the moving party did pay the filing fee, it failed to re-notice a hearing for the motion. Therefore, on September 12th, the Court set a hearing regarding the motion for September 27, 2019, but both of the dates of September 12th and September 27th fall after the expiration of the thirty-day period.

Accordingly, the motion must be denied as untimely.

Chapter 7

#4.00 Hrg re application to employ Maryan & Associates as digital forensico analyst

Docket 163

Tentative Ruling:

10/8/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3).

No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to authorize the Trustee to employ Maryman & Associates as digital forensic analysts.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

Docket 164

Tentative Ruling:

10/8/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. *Cf. Docket 117

Tentative Ruling:

10/8/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. *Cf. 6:19-17029 Jose A. Hernandez Garcia

Chapter 13

#31.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 18

Tentative Ruling:

10/9/2019:

On September 25, 2019, the debtor appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtor and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 1:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtor and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtor still concurs with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtor and counsel for the debtor from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtor or counsel for the debtor are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtor (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtor. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtor and counsel for the debtor to appear and address such matters.

6:19-17029 Jose A. Hernandez Garcia

Chapter 13

#32.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 9-25-19

Docket 1

Tentative Ruling:

10/9/2019:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtor or counsel for the debtor at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtor nor counsel for the debtor should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtor once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtor, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtor and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtor should increase the debtor's understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtor did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to December 11, 2019 at 1:00 p.m. The debtor must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtor is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtor is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtor should provide the debtor with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtor should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (December 11, 2019 at 1:00 p.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtor, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling

Chapter 13

#42.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

10/9/2019:

On September 25, 2019, the debtor appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtor and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 2:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtor and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtor still concurs with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtor and counsel for the debtor from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtor or counsel for the debtor are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtor (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtor. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtor and counsel for the debtor to appear and address such matters.

Chapter 13

#43.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 9-25-19

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

10/9/2019:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtor or counsel for the debtor at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtor nor counsel for the debtor should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtor once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtor, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtor and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtor should increase the debtor's understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtor did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to December 11, 2019 at 1:00 p.m. The debtor must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtor is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtor is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtor should provide the debtor with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtor should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (December 11, 2019 at 1:00 p.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtor, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling

Chapter 13

#63.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 plan

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

10/9/2019:

On September 25, 2019, the debtors appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtors and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 3:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtors and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtors still concur with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtors and counsel for the debtors from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtors or counsel for the debtors are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtors (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtors. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtors and counsel for the debtors to appear and address such matters.

Chapter 13

#64.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 9-25-19

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

10/9/2019:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtors or counsel for the debtors at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtors nor counsel for the debtors should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtors once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtors, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtors and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtors should increase the debtors' understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtors did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to December 11, 2019 at 1:00 p.m. Both debtors must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtors is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtors is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtors should provide the debtors with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtors should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (December 11, 2019 at 1:00 p.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtors, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtors to appear at a status conference.

So, in summary, the status conference is continued to 1:00 p.m., and neither the debtors nor their counsel should appear today.

Docket 55

Tentative Ruling:

10/9/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

(4) The creditor or counsel for the creditor may communicate with the debtor(s) or counsel for the debtor(s) regarding the property that is the subject of this motion and the debt owed to the creditor.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property, and to sell the

(2) Waiver of the 14-day stay prescribed by Bankruptcy Rule 4001(a)(3).

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

None.

Final Ruling. The Court has reviewed the new application for entry of discharge filed in this case. Based on that review, the court entered a discharge in this case and, therefore, it does not appear that a status conference is necessary at this time. No appearances are required.

If the debtor has any concerns, questions or objections regarding these matters or anything else regarding this case that the debtor wishes to address, the debtor or counsel for the debtor is welcome to appear at the status conference. Likewise, if the debtor or counsel for the debtor wishes to discuss the chapter 13 procedures order or ask any questions, the status conference is an opportunity to do so. Any issues in this case may be addressed at the status conference. However, as stated above, no appearances are required and, in the absence of an appearance, the Court will simply conclude the status conference.

#10.00 Motion for relief from stay

BANK OF AMERICA VS DEBTOR

Property: U 2000 Crusaders 320
[Personal Prop] Robert P. Zahradka, attorney/movant

Docket 40

Tentative Ruling:

10/10/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

(2) Waiver of the 14-day stay prescribed by Bankruptcy Rule 4001(a)(3).

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

Property: 2018 Ford F150
[Personal Prop] Mary Ellmann Tang, attorney/movant

Docket 15

Tentative Ruling:

[Real Prop] Nancy Lee, attorney/movant

Docket 14

Tentative Ruling:

10/10/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1), 362(d)(2), and 362(d)(4) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

(2) Waiver of the 14-day stay prescribed by Bankruptcy Rule 4001(a)(3).

(3) Relief under § 362(d)(4) based on (a) the transfer of all or part ownership of, or other interest in, such real property without the consent of the secured creditor or court approval and/or (b) multiple bankruptcy filings affecting the real property.

Pursuant to the request in the motion, the Court also hereby grants the extraordinary relief set forth in paragraphs 8(a),10(a), and 11 on page 5 of the motion.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

#18.02 Motion for relief from stay

U.S. BANK NATIONAL ASSOCIATION VS DEBTOR

Property: 7685 Stoney Creek Court, Highland, CA 92346
[UD] James F. Lewin, attorney/movant

Docket 12

Tentative Ruling:

10/10/2019:

The hearing regarding this motion shall be heard on shortened notice and any opposition is due at the hearing. Therefore, appearances are required at the hearing.

The motion requests relief from the automatic stay to complete an eviction. Using a bankruptcy case to delay an eviction is not appropriate. See, e.g., In re Smith, 105 B.R. 50, 53 & 55 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 1989) (describing cases filed to delay an eviction as “abusive” and designed to “delay improperly the landlord from obtaining possession of his property.”). Therefore, the tentative ruling of the court is to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property.

(2) The order shall be binding and effective despite any conversion of this bankruptcy case to a case under any other chapter of Title 11 of the United States Code.

(3) Waiver of the 14-day stay prescribed by Bankruptcy Rule 4001(a)(3).

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after

#4.00 Hrg re joint objection to claim number 48-1 of Estone Technology Inc., DBA Habey USA

Docket 345

Tentative Ruling:

10/22/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. The objection to claim has been set for hearing on the notice required by Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 3007 and Local Bankruptcy Rules ("LBR") 3007-1 and 9013-1(d)(2). The failure of the claimant to file written opposition at least 14 days before the hearing as required by LBR 3007-1(b)(6) and 9013-1(h) is deemed consent to the sustaining of the objection. See LBR 9013-1(h); Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See LBR 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 502(b). General unsecured claim #48-1 in the amount of $280,136.97 filed by Estone Technology Inc. is hereby allowed as an untimely claim pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 726(a)(3).

Chapter 7

#6.00 Hrg re joint objection to claim number 52-1 of Synnex Corporation

Docket 348

Tentative Ruling:

10/22/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. The objection to claim has been set for hearing on the notice required by Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 3007 and Local Bankruptcy Rules ("LBR") 3007-1 and 9013-1(d)(2). The failure of the claimant to file written opposition at least 14 days before the hearing as required by LBR 3007-1(b)(6) and 9013-1(h) is deemed consent to the sustaining of the objection. See LBR 9013-1(h); Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See LBR 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 502(b). General unsecured claim #52-1 in the amount of $11,519.70 filed by Synnex Corporation is hereby allowed as an untimely claim pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 726(a)(3).

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR

Chapter 7

#16.00 Hrg re motion of United States Trustee to dismiss case and contingent motion to extend the deadline

Docket 19

Tentative Ruling:

10/22/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3).

No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §707 and dismiss the case.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

Chapter 13

#31.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

10/23/2019:

On October 9, 2019, the debtor appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtor and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 1:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtor and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtor still concurs with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtor and counsel for the debtor from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtor or counsel for the debtor are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtor (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtor. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtor and counsel for the debtor to appear and address such matters.

Chapter 13

#32.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan
FROM: 10-9-19

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

10/23/2019:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtor or counsel for the debtor at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtor nor counsel for the debtor should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtor once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtor, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtor and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtor should increase the debtor's understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtor did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to December 11, 2019 at 2:00 p.m. The debtor must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtor is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtor is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtor should provide the debtor with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtor should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (December 11, 2019 at 2:00 p.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtor, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling

problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtor to appear at a status conference.

So, in summary, the status conference is continued to December 11, 2019 at 2:00 p.m., and neither the debtor nor their counsel should appear today.

Chapter 13

#46.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 17

Tentative Ruling:

10/23/2019:

On October 9, 2019, the debtor appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtor and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 2:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtor and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtor still concurs with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtor and counsel for the debtor from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtor or counsel for the debtor are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtor (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtor. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtor and counsel for the debtor to appear and address such matters.

Chapter 13

#47.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 10-9-19

Docket 1

Tentative Ruling:

10/23/2019:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtor or counsel for the debtor at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtor nor counsel for the debtor should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtor once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtor, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtor and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtor should increase the debtor's understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtor did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to December 11, 2019 at 2:00 p.m. The debtor must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtor is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtor is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtor should provide the debtor with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtor should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (December 11, 2019 at 2:00 p.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtor, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling

problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtor to appear at a status conference.

Chapter 13

#60.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 10-9-19

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

10/23/2019:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtor or counsel for the debtor at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtor nor counsel for the debtor should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtor once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtor, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtor and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtor should increase the debtor's understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtor did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to December 11, 2019 at 2:00 p.m. The debtor must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtor is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtor is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtor should provide the debtor with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtor should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (December 11, 2019 at 2:00 p.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtor, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling

problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtor to appear at a status conference.

So, in summary, the status conference is continued to December 11, 2019 at 2:00 p.m., and neither the debtor nor their counsel should appear today.

#70.00 Motion for relief from stay

GATEWAY ONE LENDING & FINANCE VS DEBTORS

Property: 2014 Hyundai Elantra
[Personal Prop] Karel Rocha, attorney/movant

Docket 37

Tentative Ruling:

10/23/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

[Real Prop] Dane Exnowski, attorney/movant

Docket 9

Tentative Ruling:

10/24/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

(2) Waiver of the 14-day stay prescribed by Bankruptcy Rule 4001(a)(3).

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

(2) Waiver of the 14-day stay prescribed by Bankruptcy Rule 4001(a)(3).

(3) The creditor or counsel for the creditor may communicate with the debtor(s) or counsel for the debtor(s) regarding the property that is the subject of this motion and the debt owed to the creditor.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

#4.00 Hrg re objection and objection to proof of claim 8-1 filed by PYOD, LLC
FROM: 10-23-19

Docket 48

Tentative Ruling:

Prior to the hearing, counsel for the moving party should review F.R.B.P. Rule 3004. Under the plain language of that rule, the proof of claim filed by the debtor (on behalf of the creditor) is timely. The claim is not untimely.

In addition, counsel for the moving party should also review paragraphs 3(c) and 3(f)(2) of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan entered on August 28, 2019. The motion appears to constitute a collateral attack upon those provisions of the confirmation order.

#1.00 Hrg re trustee's final report and application for compensation

Docket 60

Tentative Ruling:

11/5/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. No opposition has been filed. This application for compensation has been set for hearing on the notice required by LBR 2016-1(c)(4).
No appearance is necessary.

Pursuant to the trustee's final report, the following administrative claims will be allowed:

- (1) Trustee: fees of $5,801.40 and expenses of $219.10.
- (2) Shulman Hodges & Bastian: fees of $29,887.50 and expenses of $1,678.44.
- (3) Menchaca & Company: fees of $2,961.50 and expenses of $18.85.

The trustee shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

Chapter 7

#4.00 Hrg re motion to extend deadline within which the chapter 7 trustee or the office of the United States Trustee may file an objection to debtor's discharge

Docket 16

Tentative Ruling:

11/5/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3).

No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to FRBP 4004(b). The deadline for the chapter 7 trustee or the Office of the United States Trustee to file a complaint objecting to the discharge of debtor pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 727 is extended to and including November 19, 2019.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR

#23.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

11/6/2019:

On October 23, 2019, the debtor appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtor and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 1:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtor and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no unresolved objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtor still concurs with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtor and counsel for the debtor from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtor or counsel for the debtor are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtor (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtor. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtor and counsel for the debtor to appear and address such matters.

Chapter 13

#24.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 10-23-19

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

11/6/2019:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtor or counsel for the debtor at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtor nor counsel for the debtor should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtor once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtor, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtor and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtor should increase the debtor's understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtor did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to December 11, 2019 at 4:00 p.m. The debtor must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtor is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtor is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtor should provide the debtor with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtor should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (December 11, 2019 at 4:00 p.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtor, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling

problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtor to appear at a status conference.

So, in summary, the status conference is continued to December 11, 2019 at 4:00 p.m., and neither the debtor nor their counsel should appear today.

Chapter 13

#41.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 10-23-19

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

11/6/2019:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtors or counsel for the debtors at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtors nor counsel for the debtors should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtors once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtors, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtors and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtors should increase the debtors' understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtors did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to December 11, 2019 at 4:00 p.m. Both debtors must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtors is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtors is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtors should provide the debtors with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtors should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (December 11, 2019 at 4:00 p.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtors, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtors to appear at a status conference.

So, in summary, the status conference is continued to December 11, 2019 at 4:00 p.m., and neither the debtors nor their counsel should appear today.

#45.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

11/6/2019:

On October 23, 2019, the debtor appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtor and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 3:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtor and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtor still concurs with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtor and counsel for the debtor from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtor or counsel for the debtor are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtor (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtor. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtor and counsel for the debtor to appear and address such matters.

Chapter 13

#65.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

11/6/2019:

On October 23, 2019, the debtor appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtor and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 4:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtor and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtor still concurs with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtor and counsel for the debtor from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtor or counsel for the debtor are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtor (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtor. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtor and counsel for the debtor to appear and address such matters.

Chapter 13

#66.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 10-23-19

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

11/6/2019:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtor or counsel for the debtor at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtor nor counsel for the debtor should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtor once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtor, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtor and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtor should increase the debtor's understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtor did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to December 11, 2019 at 4:00 p.m. The debtor must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtor is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtor is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtor should provide the debtor with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtor should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (December 11, 2019 at 4:00 p.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtor, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling

problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtor to appear at a status conference.

So, in summary, the status conference is continued to December 11, 2019 at 4:00 p.m., and neither the debtor nor their counsel should appear today.

Tentative Ruling:

11/6/2019:

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

#11.00 Motion for relief from stay

U.S. BANK VS DEBTOR

Property: 3906 Fairbreeze Circle, Westlake Village, CA 91361
[Real Prop] Nancy Lee, attorney/movant

Docket 89

Tentative Ruling:

11/7/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

Chapter 7

(2) Waiver of the 14-day stay prescribed by Bankruptcy Rule 4001(a)(3).

(3) The creditor or counsel for the creditor may communicate with the debtor(s) or counsel for the debtor(s) regarding the property that is the subject of this motion and the debt owed to the creditor.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

#13.00 Motion for relief from stay

RIALTO MOBILE VILLA #1 VS DEBTOR

Property: 250 N. Linden Avenue, Space No. 1., Rialto, CA 92376
[UD] Nichole Glowin, attorney/movant

Docket 10

Tentative Ruling:

11/7/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

The motion requests relief from the automatic stay to complete an eviction. Using a bankruptcy case to delay an eviction is not appropriate. See, e.g., In re Smith, 105 B.R. 50, 53 & 55 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 1989) (describing cases filed to delay an eviction as “abusive” and designed to “delay improperly the landlord from obtaining possession of his property.”). Accordingly, for this reason and the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(2) Waiver of the 14-day stay prescribed by Bankruptcy Rule 4001(a)(3).

(3) Relief under § 362(d)(4) based on multiple bankruptcy filings affecting the real property.

Pursuant to the request in the motion, the Court also hereby grants the extraordinary relief set forth in paragraphs 7b, 9b, and 10 on page 5 of the motion.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

Chapter 7

#2.00 Hrg motion for order authorizing and approving stipulation settlement agreement by and between chapter 7 trustee and the california department of public health pursuant to rule 9019 of the federal rule of bankruptcy procedures

Docket 332

Tentative Ruling:

11/19/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3).

No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion and approve the stipulation pursuant to F.R.B.P. Rule 9019.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

#3.00 Hrg re motion to withdraw as debtors proposed bankruptcy counsel

Docket 152

Tentative Ruling:

11/19/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3).

No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to L.B.R. 2091-1 and California Rules of Professional Conduct Rule 3-700(A)(2). Movant is deemed to have withdrawn as attorney of record.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

Docket 54

Tentative Ruling:

11/19/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. *Cf. Chapter 13

#31.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

11/20/2019:

On November 6, 2019, the debtor appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtor and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 1:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtor and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtor still concurs with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtor and counsel for the debtor from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtor or counsel for the debtor are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtor (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtor. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtor and counsel for the debtor to appear and address such matters.

Chapter 13

#32.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 11-6-19

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

11/20/2019:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtor or counsel for the debtor at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtor nor counsel for the debtor should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtor once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtor, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtor and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtor should increase the debtor's understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtor did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to December 11, 2019 at 5:00 p.m. The debtor must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtor is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtor is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtor should provide the debtor with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtor should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (December 11, 2019 at 5:00 p.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtor, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling

problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtor to appear at a status conference.

#34.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 6

Tentative Ruling:

11/20/2019:

On November 6, 2019, the debtor appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtor and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 1:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtor and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtor still concurs with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtor and counsel for the debtor from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtor or counsel for the debtor are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtor (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtor. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtor and counsel for the debtor to appear and address such matters.

#35.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 11-6-19

Docket 6

Tentative Ruling:

11/20/2019:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtor or counsel for the debtor at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtor nor counsel for the debtor should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtor once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtor, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtor and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtor should increase the debtor's understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtor did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to December 11, 2019 at 5:00 p.m. The debtor must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtor is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtor is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtor should provide the debtor with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtor should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (December 11, 2019 at 5:00 p.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtor, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling

#64.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

11/20/2019:

On November 6, 2019, the debtor appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtor and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 4:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtor and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtor still concurs with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtor and counsel for the debtor from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtor or counsel for the debtor are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtor (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtor. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtor and counsel for the debtor to appear and address such matters.

Chapter 13

#65.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 11-6-19

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

11/20/2019:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtor or counsel for the debtor at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtor nor counsel for the debtor should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtor once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtor, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtor and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtor should increase the debtor's understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtor did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to December 11, 2019 at 5:00 p.m. The debtor must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtor is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtor is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtor should provide the debtor with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtor should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (December 11, 2019 at 5:00 p.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtor, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling

problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtor to appear at a status conference.

#72.00 Motion for relief from stay

ALLY BANK VS DEBTOR

Property: 2015 GMC Sierra
[Personal Prop] Adam N. Barasch, attorney/movant

Docket 93

Tentative Ruling:

11/20/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

(2) Waiver of the 14-day stay prescribed by Bankruptcy Rule 4001(a)(3).

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

#80.03 Motion for relief from stay

BROMBERG FAMILY TRUST VS DEBTOR

Property: 863 N. Vineyard Ave., D. Ontario, CA 91764
[UD] James M. Blucker, attorney/movant

Docket 9

Tentative Ruling:

11/20/2019:

The hearing regarding this motion shall be heard on shortened notice and any opposition is due at the hearing. Therefore, appearances are required at the hearing.

The motion requests relief from the automatic stay to complete an eviction. Using a bankruptcy case to delay an eviction is not appropriate. See, e.g., In re Smith, 105 B.R. 50, 53 & 55 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 1989) (describing cases filed to delay an eviction as “abusive” and designed to “delay improperly the landlord from obtaining possession of his property.”). Therefore, the tentative ruling of the court is to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property.

(2) The order shall be binding and effective despite any conversion of this bankruptcy case to a case under any other chapter of Title 11 of the United States Code without further notice.

(3) Waiver of the 14-day stay prescribed by Bankruptcy Rule 4001(a)(3).

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

#1.00 Motion for relief from stay

CAB WEST VS DEBTORS

Property: 2016 Ford F-150
[Personal Prop] Jennifer H. Wang, attorney/movant

Docket 36

Tentative Ruling:

11/21/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

#3.00 Motion for relief from stay

ABILITY INSURANCE VS DEBTOR

Property: 823 38th Street, West Palm Beach, Florida 33407
[Real Prop] Aleca P. Stephenson, attorney/movant

Docket 46

Tentative Ruling:

11/21/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

(2) Waiver of the 14-day stay prescribed by Bankruptcy Rule 4001(a)(3).

(3) The creditor or counsel for the creditor may communicate with the debtor(s) or counsel for the debtor(s) regarding the property that is the subject of this motion and the debt owed to the creditor.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

Docket 13

Tentative Ruling:

11/21/2019:

The hearing regarding this motion shall be heard on shortened notice and any opposition is due at the hearing. Therefore, appearances are required at the hearing.

The motion requests relief from the automatic stay to complete an eviction. Using a bankruptcy case to delay an eviction is not appropriate. See, e.g., In re Smith, 105 B.R. 50, 53 & 55 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 1989) (describing cases filed to delay an eviction as “abusive” and designed to “delay improperly the landlord from obtaining possession of his property.”). Therefore, the tentative ruling of the court is to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property.

(2) The order shall be binding and effective despite any conversion of this bankruptcy case to a case under any other chapter of Title 11 of the United States Code.

#12.00 Hrg re motion for default judgment

Docket 13

Tentative Ruling:

11/21/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3).

No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion and enter judgment finding that the deed of trust executed by Peter Gonzales in favor of Paul Miller, as Trustee of the Paul Miller Separate Property Living Trust, U/I/D August 31, 1999, dated September 10, 2007, securing a debt in the original principal amount of $35,000, and recorded on September 19, 2007 as document number 2007-0536742, in the Official Records of San Bernardino County, is invalid, void and unenforceable.

None.

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3).

No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §363(c).

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

Chapter 13

#42.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

12/4/2019:

On November 20, 2019, the debtor appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtor and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 2:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtor and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtor still concurs with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtor and counsel for the debtor from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtor or counsel for the debtor are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtor (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtor. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtor and counsel for the debtor to appear and address such matters.

Chapter 13

#43.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 11-20-19

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

12/4/2019:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtor or counsel for the debtor at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtor nor counsel for the debtor should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtor once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtor, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtor and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtor should increase the debtor's understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtor did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to March 16, 2020 at 9:00 a.m. The debtor must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtor is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtor is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtor should provide the debtor with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtor should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (March 16, 2020 at 9:00 a.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtor, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling

problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtor to appear at a status conference.

So, in summary, the status conference is continued to March 16, 2020 at 9:00 a.m., and neither the debtor nor their counsel should appear today.

Chapter 13

#57.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

12/4/2019:

On November 20, 2019, the debtor appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtor and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 3:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtor and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtor still concurs with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtor and counsel for the debtor from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtor or counsel for the debtor are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtor (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtor. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtor and counsel for the debtor to appear and address such matters.

Chapter 13

#58.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 11-20-19

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

12/4/2019:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtor or counsel for the debtor at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtor nor counsel for the debtor should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtor once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtor, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtor and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtor should increase the debtor's understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtor did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to March 16, 2020 at 9:00 a.m. The debtor must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtor is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtor is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtor should provide the debtor with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtor should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (March 16, 2020 at 9:00 a.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtor, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling

#71.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 5

Tentative Ruling:

12/4/2019:

On November 20, 2019, the debtor appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtor and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 4:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtor and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtor still concurs with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtor and counsel for the debtor from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtor or counsel for the debtor are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtor (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtor. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtor and counsel for the debtor to appear and address such matters.

Chapter 13

#72.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan
FROM: 11-20-19

Docket 5

Tentative Ruling:

12/4/2019:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtor or counsel for the debtor at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtor nor counsel for the debtor should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtor once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtor, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtor and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtor should increase the debtor's understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtor did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to March 16, 2020 at 9:00 a.m. The debtor must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtor is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtor is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtor should provide the debtor with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtor should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (March 16, 2020 at 9:00 a.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtor, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling

problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtor to appear at a status conference.

So, in summary, the status conference is continued to March 16, 2020 at 9:00 a.m., and neither the debtor nor their counsel should appear today.

#74.00 Motion for relief from stay

WELLS FARGO BANK VS DEBTORS

Property: 1997 Medoc Circle, San Jacinto, CA 92583
[Real Prop] Nancy Lee, attorney/movant

Docket 55

Tentative Ruling:

12/4/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

#9.00 Motion for relief from stay

FREEDOM MORTGAGE CORPORATION VS DEBTORS

Property: 22899 Miram Way, Grand Terrace, CA 92313
[Real Prop] Dane Exnowski, attorney/movant

Docket 44

Tentative Ruling:

12/5/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

#15.00 Motion for relief from stay

NISSAN-INFINIT LT VS DEBTOR

Property: 2016 Nissan Rogue
[Personal Prop] Michael D. Vanlochem, attorney/movant

Docket 11

Tentative Ruling:

12/5/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

#7.00 Hrg re trustee's final report and applications for compensation

Docket 45

Tentative Ruling:

12/17/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. No opposition has been filed. This application for compensation has been set for hearing on the notice required by LBR 2016-1(c)(4). No appearance is necessary.

Pursuant to the trustee's final report, the following administrative claims will be allowed:

- (1) Trustee: fees of $1,537.12 and expenses of $90.29.
- (2) Goe & Forsythe, LLP: fees of $3,750 and expenses of $68.36.

The trustee shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

#10.00 Hrg re motion for order extending time for chapter 7 trustee to operate the business of the debtor as necessary to preserve and sell property

Docket 172

Tentative Ruling:

12/17/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3).

No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §721. The Trustee may operate the debtor's business in chapter 7 and pay expenses as necessary to preserve and sell the debtor's real property and related assets through March 31, 2020.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the

#26.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

12/18/2019:

On December 4, 2019, the debtors appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtors and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 1:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtors and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtors still concur with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtors and counsel for the debtors from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtors or counsel for the debtors are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtors (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtors. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtors and counsel for the debtors to appear and address such matters.

Chapter 13

#27.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 12-4-19

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

12/18/2019:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtors or counsel for the debtors at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtors nor counsel for the debtors should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtors once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtors, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtors and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtors should increase the debtors' understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtors did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to March 16, 2020 at 11:00 a.m. Both debtors must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtors is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtors is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtors should provide the debtors with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtors should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (March 16, 2020 at 11:00 a.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtors, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtors to appear at a status conference.

So, in summary, the status conference is continued to March 16, 2020 at 11:00 a.m., and neither the debtors nor their counsel should appear today.

Chapter 13

#55.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

12/18/2019:

On December 4, 2019, the debtors appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtors and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 4:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtors and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtors still concur with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtors and counsel for the debtors from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtors or counsel for the debtors are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtors (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtors. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtors and counsel for the debtors to appear and address such matters.

Chapter 13

#56.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 12-4-19

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

12/18/2019:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtors or counsel for the debtors at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtors nor counsel for the debtors should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtors once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtors, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtors and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtors should increase the debtors' understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtors did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to March 16, 2020 at 11:00 a.m. Both debtors must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtors is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtors is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtors should provide the debtors with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtors should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (March 16, 2020 at 11:00 a.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtors, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtors to appear at a status conference.

So, in summary, the status conference is continued to March 16, 2020 at 11:00 a.m., and neither the debtors nor their counsel should appear today.

#83.00 Hrg re status conference regarding application of discharge

CASE DISCHARGE 12-17-19

Docket 0

Tentative Ruling:

12/18/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. The Court has reviewed the new applications for entry of discharge filed in this case. Based on that review, the court entered a discharge in this case and, therefore, it does not appear that a status conference is necessary at this time. No appearances are required.

If the debtor has any concerns, questions or objections regarding these matters or anything else regarding this case that the debtor wishes to address, the debtor or counsel for the debtors are welcome to appear at the status conference. Likewise, if the debtor or counsel for the debtor wishes to discuss the chapter 13 procedures order or ask any questions, the status conference is an opportunity to do so. Any issues in this case may be addressed at the status conference. However, as stated above, no appearances are required and, in the absence of an appearance, the Court will simply conclude the status conference.

#1.00 Motion for relief from stay

TOYOTA LEASE TRUST VS DEBTORS

Property: 2017 Toyota Tacoma P/U
[Personal Prop] Kirsten Martinez, attorney/movant

Docket 46

Tentative Ruling:

12/19/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

[Real Prop] Edward G. Schloss, attorney/movant

Docket 47

Tentative Ruling:

12/19/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion with the following relief:

(1) The automatic stay previously terminated on September 11, 2019 both as to the Debtors and the bankruptcy estate as set forth in the order of the Court entered on September 12, 2019.

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

#1.00 Motion for relief from stay

VW CREDIT VS DEBTOR

Property: 2018 AUDI RS 3
[Personal Prop] Austin Nagel, attorney/movant

Docket 10

Tentative Ruling:

12/30/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

#26.00 Motion for relief from stay

ALBERT SIMON VS DEBTOR

Property: 14150 Hillsborough Drive, Victorville, CA 91387
[UD] David Shevitz, attorney/movant

Docket 29

Tentative Ruling:

12/30/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

Chapter 13

(2) Waiver of the 14-day stay prescribed by Bankruptcy Rule 4001(a)(3).

(3) The stay is annulled retroactive to the bankruptcy petition date. Any postpetition acts taken by the Movant to enforce its remedies regarding the Property shall not constitute a violation of the stay.

Pursuant to the request in the motion, the Court also hereby grants the relief set forth in paragraphs 5 and 7(b) on page 5 of the motion.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").
