Chapter 13

#23.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 14

Tentative Ruling:

1/6/2020:

On December 18, 2019, the debtor appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtor and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 3:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtor and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtor still concurs with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtor and counsel for the debtor from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtor or counsel for the debtor are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtor (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtor. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtor and counsel for the debtor to appear and address such matters.

Chapter 13

#24.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 12-18-19

Docket 1

Tentative Ruling:

1/6/2020:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtor or counsel for the debtor at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtor nor counsel for the debtor should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtor once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtor, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtor and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtor should increase the debtor's understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtor did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to March 16, 2020 at 11:00 a.m. The debtor must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtor is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtor is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtor should provide the debtor with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtor should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (March 16, 2020 at 11:00 a.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtor, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtor to appear at a status conference.

So, in summary, the status conference is continued to March 16, 2020 at 11:00 a.m., and neither the debtor nor their counsel should appear today.

Tentative Ruling:

1/6/2020:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

(3) The co-debtor stay of §1301(a) is terminated, modified, or annulled as to the co-debtor, on the same terms and conditions as to the debtor.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

#1.00 Motion for relief from stay

NISSAN MOTOR ACCEPTANCE VS DEBTOR

Property: 2017 Nissan Altima
[Personal Prop] Michael D.Vanlochem, attorney/movant

Docket 29

Tentative Ruling:

1/7/2020:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

#15.00 Hrg on trustees motion for order disallowing claim 85 filed by Express Services

Docket 1193

Tentative Ruling:

1/7/2020:

None.

Final Ruling. The objection to claim has been set for hearing on the notice required by Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 3007 and Local Bankruptcy Rules ("LBR") 3007-1 and 9013-1(d)(2). The failure of the claimant to file written opposition at least 14 days before the hearing as required by LBR 3007-1(b)(6) and 9013-1(h) is deemed consent to the sustaining of the objection. See LBR 9013-1(h); Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See LBR 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 502(b). Claim #85-1 in the amount of $1,002.32 filed by Express Services, Inc. is hereby disallowed as a duplicate of Claim #153. Claim #153 is hereby reclassified as a nonpriority, general unsecured claim.

#24.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

1/8/2020:

On December 18, 2019, the debtors appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtors and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 3:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtors and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtors still concur with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtors and counsel for the debtors from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtors or counsel for the debtors are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtors (i.e., deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtors. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtors and counsel for the debtors to appear and address such matters.

Chapter 13

#25.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 12-18-19

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

1/8/2020:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtors or counsel for the debtors at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtors nor counsel for the debtors should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtors once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtors, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtors, and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtors should increase the debtors' understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtors did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to March 16, 2020 at 11:00 a.m. Both debtors must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtors is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtors is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtors should provide the debtors with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtors should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (March 16, 2020 at 11:00 a.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtors, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtors to appear at a status conference.

So, in summary, the status conference is continued to March 16, 2020 at 11:00 a.m., and neither the debtors nor their counsel should appear today.

Chapter 13

#26.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

1/15/2020:

On January 8, 2020, the debtors appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtors and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 1:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtors and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtors still concur with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtors and counsel for the debtors from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtors or counsel for the debtors are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtors (i.e., deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtors. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtors and counsel for the debtors to appear and address such matters.

Chapter 13

#27.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan
FROM: 1-8-20

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

1/15/2020:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtors or counsel for the debtors at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtors nor counsel for the debtors should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtors once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtors, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtors, and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtors should increase the debtors' understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtors did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to March 16, 2020 at 1:00 p.m. Both debtors must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtors is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtors is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtors should provide the debtors with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtors should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (March 16, 2020 at 1:00 p.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtors, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtors to appear at a status conference.

So, in summary, the status conference is continued to March 16, 2020 at 1:00 p.m., and neither the debtors nor their counsel should appear today.

Chapter 13

#28.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

1/15/2020:

On January 8, 2020, the debtors appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtors and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 1:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtors and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtors still concur with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtors and counsel for the debtors from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtors or counsel for the debtors are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtors (i.e., deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtors. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtors and counsel for the debtors to appear and address such matters.

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

1/15/2020:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtors or counsel for the debtors at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtors nor counsel for the debtors should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtors once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtors, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtors, and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtors should increase the debtors' understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtors did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to March 16, 2020 at 1:00 p.m. Both debtors must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtors is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtors is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtors should provide the debtors with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtors should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (March 16, 2020 at 1:00 p.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtors, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the

#48.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

1/15/2020:

On January 8, 2020, the debtors appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtors and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 3:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtors and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtors still concur with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtors and counsel for the debtors from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtors or counsel for the debtors are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtors (i.e., deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtors. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtors and counsel for the debtors to appear and address such matters.

#49.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 1-8-20

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

1/15/2020:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtors or counsel for the debtors at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtors nor counsel for the debtors should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtors once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtors, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtors, and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtors should increase the debtors' understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtors did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to March 16, 2020 at 1:00 p.m. Both debtors must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtors is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtors is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtors should provide the debtors with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtors should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (March 16, 2020 at 1:00 p.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtors, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtors to appear at a status conference.

Chapter 13

#53.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 1

Tentative Ruling:

1/15/2020:

On January 8, 2020, the debtors appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtors and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 3:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtors and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtors still concur with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtors and counsel for the debtors from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtors or counsel for the debtors are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtors (i.e., deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtors. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtors and counsel for the debtors to appear and address such matters.

#54.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 1-8-20

Docket 6

Tentative Ruling:

1/15/2020:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtors or counsel for the debtors at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtors nor counsel for the debtors should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtors once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtors, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtors, and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtors should increase the debtors' understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtors did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to March 16, 2020 at 1:00 p.m. Both debtors must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtors is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtors is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtors should provide the debtors with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtors should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (March 16, 2020 at 1:00 p.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtors, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtors to appear at a status conference.

SAN DIEGO COUNTY CREDIT UNION VS DEBTORS

Property: 2011 Volkswagen Routan
[Personal Prop] Lisa S. Yun, attorney/movant

Docket 43

Tentative Ruling:

1/15/2020:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

Docket 10

Tentative Ruling:

1/16/2020:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

#8.00 Motion for relief from stay

YINGJIU DURAN VS DEBTOR

PROPERTY: 13245 Catalpa St., Rancho Cucamonga, CA 91738
[UD] Luke Daniels, attorney/movant

Docket 14

Tentative Ruling:

1/16/2020:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

The motion requests relief from the automatic stay to complete an eviction. Using a bankruptcy case to delay an eviction is not appropriate. See, e.g., In re Smith, 105 B.R. 50, 53 & 55 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 1989) (describing cases filed to delay an eviction as “abusive” and designed to “delay improperly the landlord from obtaining possession of his property.”). Accordingly, for this reason and the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

Pursuant to the request in the motion, the Court also hereby grants the relief set forth in paragraphs 7(b), 9(b), and 11 on page 5 of the motion.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

#17.00 Hrg re motion for default judgment

Docket 14

Tentative Ruling:

1/16/2020:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3).

No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion and enter judgment finding that the deed of trust executed by Daniel Wayne Balmes in favor of Washington Mutual Bank, FA, dated March 23, 2005, securing a debt in the original principal amount of $44,000, and recorded on April 11, 2005 as document number 2005-0283233, in the Official Records of Riverside County, is invalid, void and unenforceable.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after

#1.00 Motion for relief from stay

CARRINGTON MORTGAGE SERVICES VS DEBTOR

Property: 123 Clearwater Way, Rancho Mirage, CA 92270
[Real Prop] Diana Torres-Brito, attorney/movant

Docket 8

Tentative Ruling:

1/21/2020:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

(3) The creditor or counsel for the creditor may communicate with the debtor(s) or counsel for the debtor(s) regarding the property that is the subject of this motion and the debt owed to the creditor.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

Chapter 13

#44.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

1/22/2020:

On January 15, 2020, the debtors appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtors and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 3:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtors and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtors still concur with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtors and counsel for the debtors from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtors or counsel for the debtors are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtors (i.e., deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtors. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtors and counsel for the debtors to appear and address such matters.

#45.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 1-15-20

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

1/22/2020:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtors or counsel for the debtors at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtors nor counsel for the debtors should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtors once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtors, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtors, and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtors should increase the debtors' understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtors did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to March 16, 2020 at 2:00 p.m. Both debtors must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtors is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtors is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtors should provide the debtors with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtors should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (March 16, 2020 at 2:00 p.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtors, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtors to appear at a status conference.

So, in summary, the status conference is continued to March 16, 2020 at 2:00 p.m., and neither the debtors nor their counsel should appear today.

Chapter 13

#49.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 13

Tentative Ruling:

1/22/2020:

On January 15, 2020, the debtor appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtor and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 3:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtor and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtor still concurs with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtor and counsel for the debtor from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtor or counsel for the debtor are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtor (i.e., deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtor. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtor and counsel for the debtor to appear and address such matters.

Chapter 13

#50.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 1-15-20

Docket 1

Tentative Ruling:

1/22/2020:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtor or counsel for the debtor at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtor nor counsel for the debtor should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtor once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtor, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtor, and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtor should increase the debtor's understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtor did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to March 16, 2020 at 2:00 p.m. The debtor must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtor is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtor is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtor should provide the debtor with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtor should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (March 16, 2020 at 2:00 p.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtor, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling

#43.00 Hrg re status conference regarding application of discharge

CASE DISCHARGE 1-23-20

Docket 34

Tentative Ruling:

1/27/2020:

None.

Final Ruling. The Court has reviewed the new application for entry of discharge filed in this case. Based on that review, the court entered a discharge in this case and, therefore, it does not appear that a status conference is necessary at this time. No appearances are required.

If the debtor has any concerns, questions or objections regarding these matters or anything else regarding this case that the debtor wishes to address, the debtor or counsel for the debtor is welcome to appear at the status conference. Likewise, if the debtor or counsel for the debtor wishes to discuss the chapter 13 procedures order or ask any questions, the status conference is an opportunity to do so. Any issues in this case may be addressed at the status conference. However, as stated above, no appearances are required and, in the absence of an appearance, the Court will simply conclude the status conference.

#1.00 Hrg re objectin to claim number 13 and 169 filed by Plews Inc

Docket 1228

Tentative Ruling:

2/4/2020:

None.

Final Ruling. The objection to claim has been set for hearing on the notice required by Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 3007 and Local Bankruptcy Rules ("LBR") 3007-1 and 9013-1(d)(2). The failure of the claimant to file written opposition at least 14 days before the hearing as required by LBR 3007-1(b)(6) and 9013-1(h) is deemed consent to the sustaining of the objection. See LBR 9013-1(h); Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See LBR 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion as follows. Claim #169 in the amount of $60,968.65 filed by Plews, Inc. is hereby disallowed.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the

#11.00 Hrg re Trustee's motion for turnover

Docket 26

Tentative Ruling:

2/4/2020:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3).

No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

#19.00 Hrg re objection to claim number 8 filed by Universal Financial Company

Docket 50

Tentative Ruling:

2/5/2020:

None.

Final Ruling. The objection to claim has been set for hearing on the notice required by Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 3007 and Local Bankruptcy Rules ("LBR") 3007-1 and 9013-1(d)(2). The failure of the claimant to file written opposition at least 14 days before the hearing as required by LBR 3007-1(b)(6) and 9013-1(h) is deemed consent to the sustaining of the objection. See LBR 9013-1(h); Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See LBR 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 502(b). General unsecured claim #8-1 in the amount of $13,700.84 filed by Universal Financial Company is hereby disallowed.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR

#25.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 1

Tentative Ruling:

2/5/2020:

On January 22, 2020, the debtor appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtor and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 1:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtor and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtor still concurs with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtor and counsel for the debtor from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtor or counsel for the debtor are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtor (i.e., deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtor. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtor and counsel for the debtor to appear and address such matters.

#26.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan
FROM: 1-22-20

Docket 1

Tentative Ruling:

2/5/2020:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtor or counsel for the debtor at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtor nor counsel for the debtor should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtor once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtor, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtor, and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtor should increase the debtor's understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtor did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to March 16, 2020 at 3:00 p.m. The debtor must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtor is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtor is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtor should provide the debtor with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtor should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (March 16, 2020 at 3:00 p.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtor, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtor to appear at a status conference.

So, in summary, the status conference is continued to March 16, 2020 at 3:00 p.m., and neither the debtor nor their counsel should appear today.

#50.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

2/5/2020:

On January 22, 2020, the debtors appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtors and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 3:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtors and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtors still concur with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtors and counsel for the debtors from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtors or counsel for the debtors are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtors (i.e., deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtors. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtors and counsel for the debtors to appear and address such matters.

#51.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan
FROM: 1-22-20

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

2/5/2020:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtors or counsel for the debtors at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtors nor counsel for the debtors should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtors once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtors, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtors, and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtors should increase the debtors' understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtors did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to March 16, 2020 at 3:00 p.m. Both debtors must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtors is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtors is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtors should provide the debtors with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtors should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (March 16, 2020 at 3:00 p.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtors, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtors to appear at a status conference.

Docket 42

Tentative Ruling:

2/5/2020:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

(2) Waiver of the 14-day stay prescribed by Bankruptcy Rule 4001(a)(3).

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

#69.03 Motion for relief from stay

VPM MAGNOLIA COURT VS DEBTOR

Property: 1251 Doris Lane #103, Corona, CA 92882
Richard Sontage, attorney/movant

Docket 52

Tentative Ruling:

2/5/2020:

The hearing regarding this motion shall be heard on shortened notice and any opposition is due at the hearing. Therefore, appearances are required at the hearing.

The motion requests relief from the automatic stay to complete an eviction. Using a bankruptcy case to delay an eviction is not appropriate. See, e.g., In re Smith, 105 B.R. 50, 53 & 55 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 1989) (describing cases filed to delay an eviction as “abusive” and designed to “delay improperly the landlord from obtaining possession of his property.”). Therefore, the tentative ruling of the court is to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property.

(2) The order shall be binding and effective despite any conversion of this bankruptcy case to a case under any other chapter of Title 11 of the United States Code.

(3) Waiver of the 14-day stay prescribed by Bankruptcy Rule 4001(a)(3).

Pursuant to the request in the motion, the Court also hereby grants the relief

[Personal Prop] Adam Barasch, attorney/movant

Docket 195

Tentative Ruling:

2/6/2020:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

#9.00 Motion for relief from stay

BAYVIEW LOAN SERVICING VS DEBTORS

Property: 5444 Turin Way, Fontana, California 92336
[Real Prop] Josephine E. Salmon, attorney/movant

Docket 21

Tentative Ruling:

2/6/2020:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

#2.00 Hrg re objection to claim numbers 15 and 56 filed by Jeffrey L. Beach dba Carbide Technology

Docket 1234

Tentative Ruling:

2/18/2020:

None.

Final Ruling. The objection to claim has been set for hearing on the notice required by Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 3007 and Local Bankruptcy Rules ("LBR") 3007-1 and 9013-1(d)(2). The failure of the claimant to file written opposition at least 14 days before the hearing as required by LBR 3007-1(b)(6) and 9013-1(h) is deemed consent to the sustaining of the objection. See LBR 9013-1(h); Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See LBR 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 502(b). General unsecured claims #15 and 56 in the amount of $315 filed by Jeffrey Beach dba Carbide Technology are hereby disallowed.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR

Docket 94

Tentative Ruling:

2/18/2020:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Docket 11

Tentative Ruling:

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3).

No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 4003(b). The deadline to file a motion objecting to the debtor's claimed exemption in the real property located at 10476 Sparrow Court, Moreno Valley, California is extended to and including June 21, 2020.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR

#23.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

2/19/2020:

On February 5, 2020, the debtor appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtor and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 1:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtor and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtor still concurs with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtor and counsel for the debtor from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtor or counsel for the debtor are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtor (i.e., deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtor. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtor and counsel for the debtor to appear and address such matters.

#24.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan
FROM: 2-5-20

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

2/19/2020:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtor or counsel for the debtor at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtor nor counsel for the debtor should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtor once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtor, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtor, and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtor should increase the debtor's understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtor did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to March 16, 2020 at 4:00 p.m. The debtor must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtor is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtor is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtor should provide the debtor with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtor should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (March 16, 2020 at 4:00 p.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtor, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling

#33.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

2/19/2020:

On February 5, 2020, the debtor appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtor and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 2:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtor and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtor still concurs with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtor and counsel for the debtor from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtor or counsel for the debtor are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtor (i.e., deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtor. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtor and counsel for the debtor to appear and address such matters.

#34.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 2-5-20

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

2/19/2020:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtor or counsel for the debtor at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtor nor counsel for the debtor should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtor once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtor, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtor, and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtor should increase the debtor's understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtor did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to March 16, 2020 at 4:00 p.m. The debtor must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtor is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtor is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtor should provide the debtor with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtor should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (March 16, 2020 at 4:00 p.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtor, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling

#47.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

2/19/2020:

On February 5, 2020, the debtors appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtors and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 3:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtors and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtors still concur with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtors and counsel for the debtors from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtors or counsel for the debtors are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtors (i.e., deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtors. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtors and counsel for the debtors to appear and address such matters.

#48.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 2-5-20

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

2/19/2020:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtors or counsel for the debtors at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtors nor counsel for the debtors should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtors once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtors, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtors, and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtors should increase the debtors' understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtors did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to March 16, 2020 at 4:00 p.m. Both debtors must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtors is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtors is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtors should provide the debtors with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtors should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (March 16, 2020 at 4:00 p.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtors, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtors to appear at a status conference.

So, in summary, the status conference is continued to March 16, 2020 at 4:00 p.m., and neither the debtors nor their counsel should appear today.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

(2) Waiver of the 14-day stay prescribed by Bankruptcy Rule 4001(a)(3).

#1.00 Motion for relief from stay

NATIONSTAR MORTGAGE VS DEBTOR

Property: 11747 Carlisle Ave, Chino, CA 91710
[Real Property] Kelly Kaufman, attorney/movant

Docket 13

Tentative Ruling:

2/20/2020:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

(3) The creditor or counsel for the creditor may communicate with the debtor(s) or counsel for the debtor(s) regarding the property that is the subject of this motion and the debt owed to the creditor.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

Tentative Ruling:

2/25/2020:

#12.00 Hrg re motion by United States Trustee for an order disgorging fees and imposing fines against bankruptcy petition preparer Vicki Hunter-Wade

Docket 26

Tentative Ruling:

2/25/2020:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3).

No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 110 with the following relief:

(1) order Vicki Hunter-Wade ("Wade") to disgorge and return to the Debtor all fees received;

(2) impose a fine of $500; and

(3) require Wade to pay $2,000 in damages to the Debtor.

2/25/2020:

The tentative ruling of the court is to sustain the objection for the reasons set forth therein. In particular, the argument by the trustee on page 21, line 8 of the objection that the claimants have failed to "show that the amount paid by the Claimants was greater than their equitable share" is significant. Similarly, the trustee notably argues on page 22, lines 6-8 of the objection that the "Claimants have provided no evidence that the settlements that they paid to Liberty Mutual and the Security Fund are far more than their 'fair share' and what portion of the amounts paid should have been paid by the Debtor in direct proportion of its respective fault." Likewise, the comments on page 22, lines 24-26 of the objection are significant ("As it currently stands, the Claimants are seeking to be paid pro rata with the Plaintiffs reducing any recovery to the Plaintiffs, so that the Claimants can be reimbursed for paying settlement payments to the Plaintiffs. Such a result is both absurd and highly inequitable.").

Nevertheless, this ruling is merely tentative and oral argument will be important in this matter. All counsel should appear in court for oral argument. Appearances by telephone are discouraged.

Finally, in preparing for oral argument, the parties should contemplate the following hypothetical and be prepared to discuss it.

Hypothetical #1:

George Washington, Benjamin Franklin, Thomas Jefferson, Abraham Lincoln and Franklin D. Roosevelt purchase a rental home for $1 million. They own the home as joint tenants and they borrow $1 million from The Bank to finance the purchase. They are all co-borrowers and co-obligors for the $1 million loan. The five borrowers are jointly and severally liable for the $1 million loan.

The house burns to the ground due to no negligence of the co-owners and loses all value. There is no insurance for the property. The Bank sues all five borrowers to recover the unpaid balance of the $1 million loan. (Assume no anti-deficiency statute prevents the lawsuit). In time, George Washington, Benjamin Franklin, Thomas Jefferson and Abraham Lincoln each settle with The Bank and pay $200,000 each for a total of $800,000. Franklin D. Roosevelt refuses to settle and files his own chapter 7 bankruptcy case. The Bank files a proof of claim for $200,000. In addition, George Washington, Benjamin Franklin, Thomas Jefferson and Abraham Lincoln each file proofs of claim for $200,000 each ($800,000 total) for contribution and indemnity.

The ever-industrious chapter 7 trustee recovers enough money to pay all allowed claims in full.

Option #1: The trustee pays The Bank the full amount of its claim of $200,000 and the Court disallows all claims of George Washington, Benjamin Franklin, Thomas Jefferson and Abraham Lincoln.

Practical impact of option #1: all five co-owners bear the cost of the failed purchase of the home equally (i.e. $200,000 each).

#1.00 Motion for relief from stay

BAYVIEW LOAN SERVICING VS DEBTOR

Property: 12661 Autumn Leaves Avenue, Victorville, CA 92365
[Real Prop] Kelly Kaufmann, attorney/movant

Docket 32

Tentative Ruling:

2/27/2020:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

(3) The creditor or counsel for the creditor may communicate with the debtor(s) or counsel for the debtor(s) regarding the property that is the subject of this motion and the debt owed to the creditor.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

Chapter 7

#4.00 Hrg re motion to dismiss case and vacate discharge if previously entered

Docket 16

Tentative Ruling:

3/3/2020:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3).

No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion and dismiss the case with a 180-day bar to refiling pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 109(g).

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

#7.00 Hrg re United States Trustee's motion to fine and enjoin bankruptcy petition prepares Veronica Lopez and VW & Associates

Docket 32

Tentative Ruling:

3/3/2020:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3).

No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 110 with the following relief:

(1) enjoin Veronica Lopez and VW & Associates from performing bankruptcy petition preparer services; and

(2) impose a fine of $500.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the

Chapter 13

#18.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

3/4/2020:

On February 19, 2020, the debtor appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtor and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 1:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtor and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtor still concurs with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtor and counsel for the debtor from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtor or counsel for the debtor are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtor (i.e., deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtor. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtor and counsel for the debtor to appear and address such matters.

#19.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan
FROM: 2-19-20

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

3/4/2020:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtor or counsel for the debtor at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtor nor counsel for the debtor should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtor once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtor, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtor, and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtor should increase the debtor's understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtor did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to March 16, 2020 at 4:00 p.m. The debtor must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtor is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtor is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtor should provide the debtor with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtor should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (March 16, 2020 at 4:00 p.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtor, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtor to appear at a status conference.

So, in summary, the status conference is continued to March 16, 2020 at 4:00 p.m., and neither the debtor nor their counsel should appear today.

#36.00 Motion for relief from stay

WELLS FARGO BANK VS DEBTOR

Property: 40633 Corte Albara, Murrieta, CA 92562
[Real Prop] Darlene C. Vigil, attorney/movant

Docket 24

Tentative Ruling:

3/4/2020:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

(2) Waiver of the 14-day stay prescribed by Bankruptcy Rule 4001(a)(3).

(3) The creditor or counsel for the creditor may communicate with the debtor(s) or counsel for the debtor(s) regarding the property that is the subject of this motion and the debt owed to the creditor.

Pursuant to the request in the motion, the Court also hereby grants the relief set forth in paragraphs 6 and 9 on page 5 of the motion.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

Final Ruling. No opposition has been filed. This application for compensation has been set for hearing on the notice required by LBR 2016-1(c)(4).

Chapter 13

#13.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

3/11/2020:

On February 26, 2020, the debtors appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtors and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 1:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtors and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtors still concur with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtors and counsel for the debtors from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtors or counsel for the debtors are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtors (i.e., deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtors. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtors and counsel for the debtors to appear and address such matters.

#14.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 2-26-20

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

3/11/2020:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtors or counsel for the debtors at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtors nor counsel for the debtors should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtors once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtors, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtors, and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtors should increase the debtors' understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtors did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to June 15, 2020 at 10:00 a.m. Both debtors must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtors is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtors is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtors should provide the debtors with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtors should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (June 15, 2020 at 10:00 a.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtors, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtors to appear at a status conference.

So, in summary, the status conference is continued to June 15, 2020 at 10:00 a.m., and neither the debtors nor their counsel should appear today.

Chapter 13

#23.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 2-26-20

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

3/11/2020:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtors or counsel for the debtors at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtors nor counsel for the debtors should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtors once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtors, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtors, and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtors should increase the debtors' understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtors did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to June 15, 2020 at 10:00 a.m. Both debtors must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtors is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtors is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtors should provide the debtors with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtors should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (June 15, 2020 at 10:00 a.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtors, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtors to appear at a status conference.

So, in summary, the status conference is continued to June 15, 2020 at 10:00 a.m., and neither the debtors nor their counsel should appear today.

#27.00 Motion for relief from stay

BRECKENRIDGE PROPERTY FUND 2016 VS DEBTOR

Property: 4175 Alta Vista Drive, Riverside, CA 92506
[UD] Sam Chandra, attorney/movant

Docket 33

Tentative Ruling:

3/11/2020:

The hearing regarding this motion shall be heard on shortened notice and any opposition is due at the hearing. Therefore, appearances are required at the hearing.

The motion requests relief from the automatic stay to complete an eviction. Using a bankruptcy case to delay an eviction is not appropriate. See, e.g., In re Smith, 105 B.R. 50, 53 & 55 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 1989) (describing cases filed to delay an eviction as “abusive” and designed to “delay improperly the landlord from obtaining possession of his property.”). Therefore, the tentative ruling of the court is to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property.

(2) Waiver of the 14-day stay prescribed by Bankruptcy Rule 4001(a)(3).

Pursuant to the request in the motion, the Court also hereby grants the relief set forth in paragraph 4 on page 5 of the motion.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR

SANTANDER CONSUMER USA VS DEBTOR

Property: 2012 Chevrolet Silverado
[Personal Prop] Sheryl K. Ith, attorney/movant

Docket 9

Tentative Ruling:

3/11/2020:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

Chapter 13

#49.00 Hrg re status conference regarding application of discharge

FROM: 1-27-20

CASE DISCHARGE 2-4-20

Docket 1

Tentative Ruling:

3/11/2020:

None.

Final Ruling. The Court has reviewed the new application for entry of discharge filed in this case. Based on that review, the court entered a discharge in this case and, therefore, it does not appear that a status conference is necessary at this time. No appearances are required.

If the debtor has any concerns, questions or objections regarding these matters or anything else regarding this case that the debtor wishes to address, the debtor or counsel for the debtor are welcome to appear at the status conference. Likewise, if the debtor or counsel for the debtor wishes to discuss the chapter 13 procedures order or ask any questions, the status conference is an opportunity to do so. Any issues in this case may be addressed at the status conference. However, as stated above, no appearances are required and, in the absence of an appearance, the Court will simply conclude the status conference.

#4.00 Motion for relief from stay

TD AUTO FINANCE VS DEBTORS

Property: 2016 Nissan Sentra
[Personal Prop] Sheryl Ith, attorney/ movant

Docket 11

Tentative Ruling:

3/12/2020:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

(2) Waiver of the 14-day stay prescribed by Bankruptcy Rule 4001(a)(3).

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

FROM: 9-11-19, 9-27-19, 11-22-19

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

3/16/2020:

None.

Final Ruling. For the following reasons, this matter is hereby continued. No appearances are necessary. There will be no hearings on March 16th.

During the course of this week, federal, state and local authorities throughout the country (and, indeed, throughout the world) have implemented a very large number of measures to limit public activity to minimize the spread of the novel coronavirus. As a result, the federal courts are rapidly moving in the direction of maximizing appearances by telephone and minimizing appearances in person in courtrooms for the next month or two. Such efforts are designed to limit the spread of the virus and reduce anxiety among the public and court employees.

Accordingly, for matters which require appearances in court but are not urgent, the Court is working to continue those matters. The status conference in this case that is set for March 16th is such a matter. While the status conference is important, it is not urgent. It can be continued by several months to a date on which, hopefully, court operations will have returned to normal.

Therefore, the matter is hereby continued to September 21, 2020 at 9:00 a.m.

As a result, the federal courts are rapidly moving in the direction of maximizing appearances by telephone and minimizing appearances in person in courtrooms for the next month or two. Such efforts are designed to limit the spread of the virus and reduce anxiety among the public and court employees.

Accordingly, for matters which require appearances in court but are not urgent, the Court is working to continue those matters. The status conference in this case that is set for March 16th is such a matter. While the status conference is important, it is not urgent. It can be continued by several months to a date on which, hopefully, court operations will have returned to normal.

Therefore, the matter is hereby continued to September 21, 2020 at 9:00 a.m.

FROM: 12-4-19, 12-18-19

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

3/16/2020:

None.

Final Ruling. For the following reasons, this matter is hereby continued. No appearances are necessary. There will be no hearings on March 16th.

During the course of this week, federal, state and local authorities throughout the country (and, indeed, throughout the world) have implemented a very large number of measures to limit public activity to minimize the spread of the novel coronavirus. As a result, the federal courts are rapidly moving in the direction of maximizing appearances by telephone and minimizing appearances in person in courtrooms for the next month or two. Such efforts are designed to limit the spread of the virus and reduce anxiety among the public and court employees.

Accordingly, for matters which require appearances in court but are not urgent, the Court is working to continue those matters. The status conference in this case that is set for March 16th is such a matter. While the status conference is important, it is not urgent. It can be continued by several months to a date on which, hopefully, court operations will have returned to normal.

Therefore, the matter is hereby continued to September 21, 2020 at 11:00 a.m.

Final Ruling. For the following reasons, this matter is hereby continued. No appearances are necessary. There will be no hearings on March 16th.

During the course of this week, federal, state and local authorities throughout the country (and, indeed, throughout the world) have implemented a very large number of measures to limit public activity to minimize the spread of the novel coronavirus. As a result, the federal courts are rapidly moving in the direction of maximizing appearances by telephone and minimizing appearances in person in courtrooms for the next month or two. Such efforts are designed to limit the spread of the virus and reduce anxiety among the public and court employees.

Accordingly, for matters which require appearances in court but are not urgent, the Court is working to continue those matters. The status conference in this case that is set for March 16th is such a matter. While the status conference is important, it is not urgent. It can be continued by several months to a date on which, hopefully, court operations will have returned to normal.

Therefore, the matter is hereby continued to September 21, 2020 at 2:00 p.m.

#60.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 1-22-20, 2-5-20

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

3/16/2020:

None.

Final Ruling. For the following reasons, this matter is hereby continued. No appearances are necessary. There will be no hearings on March 16th.

During the course of this week, federal, state and local authorities throughout the country (and, indeed, throughout the world) have implemented a very large number of measures to limit public activity to minimize the spread of the novel coronavirus. As a result, the federal courts are rapidly moving in the direction of maximizing appearances by telephone and minimizing appearances in person in courtrooms for the next month or two. Such efforts are designed to limit the spread of the virus and reduce anxiety among the public and court employees.

Accordingly, for matters which require appearances in court but are not urgent, the Court is working to continue those matters. The status conference in this case that is set for March 16th is such a matter. While the status conference is important, it is not urgent. It can be continued by several months to a date on which, hopefully, court operations will have returned to normal.

Therefore, the matter is hereby continued to September 21, 2020 at 3:00 p.m.

#4.00 Hrg re motion for order extending time for chapter 7 trustee to operate the business of the debtor as necessary to preserve and sell property

Docket 231

Tentative Ruling:

3/24/2020:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3).

No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §721. The Trustee may operate the debtor's business in chapter 7 and pay expenses as necessary to preserve and sell the debtor's real property and related assets through June 1, 2020.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the

#14.00 Hrg re objection to claim of LVNV Funding, LLC, number one (1) and motion for order disallowing claim

Docket 43

Tentative Ruling:

3/25/2020:

None.

Final Ruling. The objection to claim has been set for hearing on the notice required by Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 3007 and Local Bankruptcy Rules ("LBR") 3007-1 and 9013-1(d)(2). The failure of the claimant to file written opposition at least 14 days before the hearing as required by LBR 3007-1(b)(6) and 9013-1(h) is deemed consent to the sustaining of the objection. See LBR 9013-1(h); Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See LBR 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 502(b). General unsecured claim #1 in the amount of $6,136.78 filed by LVNV Funding, LLC is hereby disallowed.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR

#25.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

3/25/2020:

On March 4, 2020, the debtors appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtors and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 1:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtors and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtors still concur with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtors and counsel for the debtors from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtors or counsel for the debtors are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtors (i.e., deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtors. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtors and counsel for the debtors to appear and address such matters.

#26.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 3-4-20

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

3/25/2020:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtors or counsel for the debtors at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtors nor counsel for the debtors should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtors once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtors, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtors, and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtors should increase the debtors' understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtors did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to June 15, 2020 at 10:00 a.m. Both debtors must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtors is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtors is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtors should provide the debtors with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtors should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (June 15, 2020 at 10:00 a.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtors, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtors to appear at a status conference.

So, in summary, the status conference is continued to June 15, 2020 at 10:00 a.m., and neither the debtors nor their counsel should appear today.

Chapter 13

#42.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

3/25/2020:

On March 4, 2020, the debtors appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtors and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 2:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtors and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtors still concur with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtors and counsel for the debtors from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtors or counsel for the debtors are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtors (i.e., deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtors. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtors and counsel for the debtors to appear and address such matters.

#43.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 3-4-20

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

3/25/2020:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtors or counsel for the debtors at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtors nor counsel for the debtors should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtors once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtors, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtors, and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtors should increase the debtors' understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtors did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to June 15, 2020 at 10:00 a.m. Both debtors must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtors is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtors is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtors should provide the debtors with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtors should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (June 15, 2020 at 10:00 a.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtors, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtors to appear at a status conference.

So, in summary, the status conference is continued to June 15, 2020 at 10:00 a.m., and neither the debtors nor their counsel should appear today.

U.S. BANK NATIONAL ASSOCIATION VS DEBTOR

Property: 3964 Lindsay St., Riverside, CA 92509
[Real Prop] Erin M. McCartney, attorney/movant

Docket 51

Tentative Ruling:

3/25/2020:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

3/25/2020:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

CASE DISCHARGE 3-24-20

Docket 1

Tentative Ruling:

3/25/2020:

None.

Final Ruling. The Court has reviewed the new application for entry of discharge filed in this case. Based on that review, the court entered a discharge in this case and, therefore, it does not appear that a status conference is necessary at this time. No appearances are required.

If the debtors have any concerns, questions or objections regarding these matters or anything else regarding this case that the debtors wish to address, the debtors or counsel for the debtors are welcome to appear at the status conference. Likewise, if the debtors or counsel for the debtors wish to discuss the chapter 13 procedures order or ask any questions, the status conference is an opportunity to do so. Any issues in this case may be addressed at the status conference. However, as stated above, no appearances are required and, in the absence of an appearance, the Court will simply conclude the status conference.

Chapter 13

#28.00 Hrg re objection to claim number 2 filed by Calgary SPV I, LLC

Docket 43

Tentative Ruling:

4/8/2020:

None.

Final Ruling. The objection to claim has been set for hearing on the notice required by Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 3007 and Local Bankruptcy Rules ("LBR") 3007-1 and 9013-1(d)(2). The failure of the claimant to file written opposition at least 14 days before the hearing as required by LBR 3007-1(b)(6) and 9013-1(h) is deemed consent to the sustaining of the objection. See LBR 9013-1(h); Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See LBR 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 502(b). General unsecured claim #2 in the amount of $28,001.23 filed by Cavalry SPV I, LLC is hereby disallowed.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR

Chapter 13

#93.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

FROM: 3-30-20

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

4/8/2020:

On March 11, 2020, the debtor appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtor and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 3:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtor and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtor still concurs with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtor and counsel for the debtor from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtor or counsel for the debtor are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtor (i.e., deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtor. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtor and counsel for the debtor to appear and address such matters.

#94.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan
FROM: 3-11-20, 3-30-20

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

4/8/2020:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtor or counsel for the debtor at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtor nor counsel for the debtor should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtor once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtor, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtor, and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtor should increase the debtor's understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtor did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to September 28, 2020 at 10:00 a.m. The debtor must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtor is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtor is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtor should provide the debtor with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtor should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (September 28, 2020 at 10:00 a.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtor, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other

#26.00 Motion for relief from stay

TD AUTO FINANCE VS DEBTORS

Property: 2020 Toyota Camry
[Personal Prop] Sheryl Ith, attorney/ movant

Docket 20

Tentative Ruling:

4/22/2020:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

(2) Waiver of the 14-day stay prescribed by Bankruptcy Rule 4001(a)(3).

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

#1.00 Hrg re trustee's final report and applicatins for compensation

FROM: 4-21-20

Docket 212

Tentative Ruling:

5/6/2020:

None.

Final Ruling. No opposition has been filed. This application for compensation has been set for hearing on the notice required by LBR 2016-1(c)(4).
No appearance is necessary.

The Court thanks the trustee and his professionals for their efforts in this case. They recovered approximately $1.58 million for creditors and their professional fees and costs constitute only about 10% of this amount. That level of efficiency and billing restraint is commendable and well above average. The Court has seen other instances in other cases with other trustees and other professionals with less efficiency.

Likewise, the overall results in the case are impressive. The final report of the trustee indicates general unsecured creditors will be paid approximately 39% of their claims. Again, those results are well above average for asset chapter 7 cases.

In the end, as the debtor slipped into insolvency, the name of the debtor may not have felt apt in the weeks and months leading up to the filing of the bankruptcy case but the name certainly seems apt when considering the results of the trustee and his professionals during their administration of the bankruptcy case. Creditors rarely have hope for any payment in chapter 7 cases, but this case provided much hope.

Final Ruling. No opposition has been filed. This application for compensation has been set for hearing on the notice required by LBR 2016-1(c)(4).

The Court thanks the trustee and his professionals for their excellent work in this case. They collected $40,000 and minimized administrative expenses (less than $13,000). The remaining funds are sufficient to pay all general unsecured claims in full and pay a surplus to the debtors which is an excellent and unusual result. Well done!

Final Ruling. No opposition has been filed. This application for compensation has been set for hearing on the notice required by LBR 2016-1(c)(4).
No appearance is necessary.

The Court thanks the trustee for his efforts in this case. The only non-exempt asset was a small preferential transfer ($6,000) and, rather than ignore or abandon the asset, the trustee recovered 67% of that amount ($4,000) by negotiating without hiring counsel or initiating litigation. That is one of most impressive and efficient examples of a trustee (who is not a lawyer) pursuing assets for the benefit of creditors without incurring legal expenses. Although the recovery was small, but for the highly efficient efforts of the trustee, creditors would have recovered nothing. Well done!

Pursuant to the trustee's final report, the following administrative claims will be allowed:

(1) Trustee: fees of $1,000.00 and expenses of $187.35.

The trustee shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but

The Court thanks the trustee for his efforts in this case. The non-exempt assets were minimal, but the trustee still made efforts to recover them and minimized administrative expenses in doing so. That work produced a recovery which will pay general unsecured claims a significant portion of their claims: 42%. This case is a fine example of the important benefits that trustees can achieve even in small cases with minimal assets. Great job!

Pursuant to the trustee's final report, the following administrative claims will be allowed:

(1) Trustee: fees of $1,197.25 and expenses of $103.25.

#24.00 Hrg re status conference regarding application of discharge

CASE DISCHARGE 5-7-20

Docket 46

Tentative Ruling:

5/13/2020:

None.

Final Ruling. The Court has reviewed the new applications for entry of discharge filed in this case. Based on that review, the court entered a discharge in this case and, therefore, it does not appear that a status conference is necessary at this time.

No appearances are required.

If the debtors have any concerns, questions or objections regarding these matters or anything else regarding this case that the debtors wish to address, the debtors or counsel for the debtors are welcome to appear at the status conference. Likewise, if the debtors or counsel for the debtors wish to discuss the chapter 13 procedures order or ask any questions, the status conference is an opportunity to do so. Any issues in this case may be addressed at the status conference. However, as stated above, no appearances are required and, in the absence of an appearance, the Court will simply conclude the status conference.

Final Ruling. The Court has reviewed the new application for entry of discharge filed in this case. Based on that review, the court entered a discharge in this case and, therefore, it does not appear that a status conference is necessary at this time. No appearances are required.

If the debtor has any concerns, questions or objections regarding these matters or anything else regarding this case that the debtor wishes to address, the debtor or counsel for the debtor are welcome to appear at the status conference. Likewise, if the debtor or counsel for the debtor wishes to discuss the chapter 13 procedures order or ask any questions, the status conference is an opportunity to do so. Any issues in this case may be addressed at the status conference. However, as stated above, no appearances are required and, in the absence of an appearance, the Court will simply conclude the status conference.

Chapter 13

#7.00 Hrg re objection to claim number 4 filed by California Business Bureau Inc

Docket 37

Tentative Ruling:

5/18/2020:

None.

Final Ruling. The objection to claim has been set for hearing on the notice required by Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 3007 and Local Bankruptcy Rules ("LBR") 3007-1 and 9013-1(d)(2). The failure of the claimant to file written opposition at least 14 days before the hearing as required by LBR 3007-1(b)(6) and 9013-1(h) is deemed consent to the sustaining of the objection. See LBR 9013-1(h); Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See LBR 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 502(b). General unsecured claim #14 in the amount of $1,436.62 filed by California Business Bureau Inc. is hereby disallowed.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR

Chapter 13

#10.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

5/18/2020:

On May 6, 2020, the debtor appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtor and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 1:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtor still concurs with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtor and counsel for the debtor from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtor or counsel for the debtor are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtor (i.e., deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtor. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtor and counsel for the debtor to appear and address such matters.

Chapter 13

#11.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 5-6-20

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

5/18/2020:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtor or counsel for the debtor at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtor nor counsel for the debtor should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtor once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtor, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtor, and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtor should increase the debtor's understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtor did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to September 28 at 10:00 a.m. The debtor must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtor is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtor is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtor should provide the debtor with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtor should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (September 28 at 10:00 a.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtor, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtor to appear at a status conference.

So, in summary, the status conference is continued to September 28 at 10:00 a.m., and neither the debtor nor their counsel should appear today.

The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtors still concur with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtors and counsel for the debtors from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtors or counsel for the debtors are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtors (i.e., deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtors. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtors and counsel for the debtors to appear and address such matters.

Chapter 13

#14.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 5-6-20

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

5/18/2020:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtors or counsel for the debtors at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtors nor counsel for the debtors should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtors once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtors, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtors, and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtors should increase the debtors' understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtors did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to September 28 at 10:00 a.m. Both debtors must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtors is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtors is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtors should provide the debtors with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtors should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (September 28 at 10:00 a.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtors, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtors to appear at a status conference.

So, in summary, the status conference is continued to September 28 at 10:00 a.m., and neither the debtors nor their counsel should appear today.

#17.00 Motion for relief from stay

THE BANK OF NEW YORK VS DEBTOR

Property: 15319 Thistle Street, Fontana, CA 92336-0219
[Real Prop] Kirsten Martinez, attorney/movant

Docket 53

Tentative Ruling:

5/18/2020:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

(3) The creditor or counsel for the creditor may communicate with the debtor(s) or counsel for the debtor(s) regarding the property that is the subject of this motion and the debt owed to the creditor.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

Final Ruling. The objection to claim has been set for hearing on the notice required by Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 3007 and Local Bankruptcy Rules ("LBR") 3007-1 and 9013-1(d)(2). The failure of the claimant to file written opposition at least 14 days before the hearing as required by LBR 3007-1(b)(6) and 9013-1(h) is deemed consent to the sustaining of the objection. See LBR 9013-1(h); *Cf. Chapter 13

#22.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

6/8/2020:

On May 13, 2020, the debtor appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtor and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 1:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtor still concurs with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtor and counsel for the debtor from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtor or counsel for the debtor are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtor (i.e., deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtor. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtor and counsel for the debtor to appear and address such matters.

Chapter 13

#23.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 5-13-20

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

6/8/2020:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtor or counsel for the debtor at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtor nor counsel for the debtor should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtor once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtor, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtor, and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtor should increase the debtor's understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. However, because the courthouse is currently closed due to the coronavirus, appearing today in court will not be possible.

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to December 14, 2020 at 10:00 a.m. The debtor must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtor is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtor is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtor should provide the debtor with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtor should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (December 14, 2020 at 10:00 a.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtor, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtor to appear at a status conference.

So, in summary, the status conference is continued to December 14, 2020 at 10:00 a.m., and neither the debtor nor their counsel should appear today.

This case lasted considerably longer than expected due to the failure of the debtors to make certain payments. The Court appreciates the patience and perseverance of the trustee and the efforts of the Office of the United States Trustee. That patience as well as minimization of professional fees produced a meaningful benefit for creditors. Thank you.

Pursuant to the trustee's final report, the following administrative claims will be allowed:

#4.00 Hrg re motion to allow claim number 4 filed by Bureau USA as late filed allowable against a surplus only

Docket 78

Tentative Ruling:

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the creditor, the debtors and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion and allow claim number 4 as an untimely claim pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 726(a)(3).

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

#8.00 Hrg re objection to claim number 1 filed by Mckesson Medical-Surgical, Inc

Docket 34

Tentative Ruling:

Final Ruling. The objection to claim has been set for hearing on the notice required by Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 3007 and Local Bankruptcy Rules ("LBR") 3007-1 and 9013-1(d)(2). The failure of the claimant to file written opposition at least 14 days before the hearing as required by LBR 3007-1(b)(6) and 9013-1(h) is deemed consent to the sustaining of the objection. See LBR 9013-1(h); Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See LBR 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 502(b). General unsecured claim number 1 in the amount of $17,320.11 filed by Mckesson Medical-Surgical, Inc. is hereby disallowed.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

Docket 19

Tentative Ruling:

Final Ruling. No opposition has been filed. This application for compensation has been set for hearing on the notice required by LBR 2016-1(c)(4).
No appearance is necessary.

The Court appreciates the trustee efficiently administering a case with a small non-exempt asset. And while the recovery to general unsecured creditors is small, they would have received nothing at all in the absence of the trustee's work. Thank you.

Pursuant to the trustee's final report, the following administrative claims will be allowed:

- (1) Trustee: fees of $620.25 and expenses of $0.00.

The trustee shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

Chapter 13

#18.00 Hrg re motion for order disallowing claim number 10 filed by Lending Club Corporation

Docket 40

Tentative Ruling:

Final Ruling. The objection to claim has been set for hearing on the notice required by Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 3007 and Local Bankruptcy Rules ("LBR") 3007-1 and 9013-1(d)(2). The failure of the claimant to file written opposition at least 14 days before the hearing as required by LBR 3007-1(b)(6) and 9013-1(h) is deemed consent to the sustaining of the objection. See LBR 9013-1(h); Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See LBR 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 502(b). Claim #10 in the amount of $4,837.58 filed by Lending Club Corporation is hereby reduced in amount to $2,734.08.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

Chapter 13

#22.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

6/10/2020:

On May 13, 2020, the debtor appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtor and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 1:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtor still concurs with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtor and counsel for the debtor from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtor or counsel for the debtor are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtor (i.e., deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtor. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtor and counsel for the debtor to appear and address such matters.

#23.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13

FROM: 5-13-20

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

6/10/2020:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtor or counsel for the debtor at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtor nor counsel for the debtor should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtor once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtor, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtor, and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtor should increase the debtor's understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. However, because the courthouse is currently closed due to the coronavirus, appearing today in court will not be possible.

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to December 14, 2020 at 10:00 a.m. The debtor must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtor is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtor is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtor should provide the debtor with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtor should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (December 14, 2020 at 10:00 a.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtor, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other

DEUTSCHE BANK NATIONAL TRUST VS DEBTOR

Property: 6645 Veneto Place, Rancho Cucamonga, CA 91701
[Real Prop] Austin P. Nagel, attorney/movant

Docket 23

Tentative Ruling:

6/11/2020:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

Docket 0

Tentative Ruling:

For this matter, the debtor, counsel for the debtor, and all other parties may appear by telephone. Although the scheduling order issued by the Court on April 28, 2020 does not allow for appearances by telephone, the court issued that order at a time when it assumed the courthouses in the district would have re-opened by June 17th. However, that is not the case. Therefore, appearances by telephone are permitted for this hearing. Indeed, only appearances by telephone are permitted due to the closure of the courthouses.

#1.00 Hrg re application to employ Stuart J. Wald as bankruptcy counsel

4-21-20

Docket 74

Tentative Ruling:

The tentative ruling of the court is to deny the employment application. Mr. Wald seeks to be employed on a secured basis and desires that the court approve a lien in his favor against a retainer. In making this request, Mr. Wald relies upon the decision in Rus, Miliband & Smith, APC v. Yoo (In re Dick Cepek, Inc.), 339 B.R. 730 (9th Cir. BAP 2006) but this reliance is misplaced for several reasons. First, the bankruptcy court in Dick Cepek addressed a request for disgorgement of a retainer long after the court had approved the employment application of counsel for the debtor. The firm contended that it had a security interest in the retainer by virtue of possessing the cash and that it had disclosed the retainer when the bankruptcy court approved the employment application.

That procedural context is different than the matter at hand. Courts should not approve employment applications that contemplate secured liens against retainers for the reasons articulated by Judge Marlar in dissent in Dick Cepek. Judge Marlar eloquently argues precisely why Mr. Wald's request for a security interest should be denied. To authorize a lien would subvert the plain language of section 726. Under section 726, the trustee is entitled to the retainer and Mr. Wald seeks to defeat section 726 and the trustee by asking the Court to approve a lien in the retainer. Such a request runs afoul of section 726 and Judge Marlar made the case very convincingly.

For this reason, this court has entered many orders precluding the lien sought by Mr. Wald. He can verify as much by reviewing the employment orders entered in other chapter 11 cases which specifically prohibit the relief requested by Mr. Wald today. For example, Mr. Wald should review paragraph 4 of the orders authorizing the employment of counsel for chapter 11 debtors in the following cases:

Dani Transport Service (6:20-bk-11234-WJ): order entered on March 13, 2020 [docket #47]

DanRu Enterprises (6:19-bk-18309-WJ): order entered on December 18, 2019 [docket #84]

Carlton and Charmaine Collins-Cepeda (6:18-20185-WJ): order entered on August 30, 2019 [docket #55]

Three Chiefs and No Indians, LLC (6:18-bk-17106-WJ): order entered on September 28, 2018 [docket #100]

Russel Hiles (6:16-bk-16877-WJ): order entered on August 24, 2016 [docket #41]

In addition, a complete reading of the Dick Cepek case actually weighs against granting an employment application that seeks a security interest in a retainer. Judge Marlar, of course, opposed such relief. Likewise, Judge Pappas in his concurring opinion stated that "As a general rule, it may be profoundly unwise for a bankruptcy court to allow an attorney the leverage inherent in a security in funds given by the chapter 11 debtor as a retainer. When that is the case, the bankruptcy judge may and should reject such an arrangement." Thus, two of the three judges in the Dick Cepek case would reject Mr. Wald's employment application. Indeed, Judge Pappas went on to state that "I am no fan of secured professional employment arrangements, having shunned them on occasion when proposed." This court agrees.

#11.00 Hrg re United State Trustee's motion to extend dismissal and discharge deadlines

Docket 28

Tentative Ruling:

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3).

No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to FRBP 1017(e) and 4004(b). The deadline to file a dismissal motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 707 and to file a complaint objecting to the discharge of debtor pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 727 is extended to and including July 23, 2020.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

#16.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

6/24/2020:

On June 10, 2020, the debtor appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtor and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 1:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtor still concurs with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtor and counsel for the debtor from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtor or counsel for the debtor are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtor (i.e., deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtor. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtor and counsel for the debtor to appear and address such matters.

#17.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 6-10-20

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

6/24/2020:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtor or counsel for the debtor at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtor nor counsel for the debtor should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtor once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtor, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtor, and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtor should increase the debtor's understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. However, because the courthouse is currently closed due to the coronavirus, appearing today in court will not be possible.

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to December 14, 2020 at 2:00 p.m. The debtor must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtor is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtor is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtor should provide the debtor with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtor should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (December 14, 2020 at 2:00 p.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtor, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtor to appear at a status conference.

No appearances by the debtor or counsel for the debtor are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtor (i.e., deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtor. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtor and counsel for the debtor to appear and address such matters.

Chapter 13

#30.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan
FROM: 6-10-20

Docket 0

Tentative Ruling:

6/24/2020:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtor or counsel for the debtor at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtor nor counsel for the debtor should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtor once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtor, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtor, and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtor should increase the debtor's understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. However, because the courthouse is currently closed due to the coronavirus, appearing today in court will not be possible.

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to December 14, 2020 at 2:00 p.m. The debtor must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtor is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtor is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtor should provide the debtor with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtor should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (December 14, 2020 at 2:00 p.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtor, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtor to appear at a status conference.

So, in summary, the status conference is continued to December 14, 2020 at 2:00 p.m., and neither the debtor nor their counsel should appear today.

U.S. BANK NATIONAL VS DEBTORS

Property: 2540 Whispering Pines Drive, Running Springs, CA 92382
[Real Prop] Austin P. Nagel, attorney/movant

Docket 25

Tentative Ruling:

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

(2) Waiver of the 14-day stay prescribed by Bankruptcy Rule 4001(a)(3).

Chapter 13

#20.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 25

Tentative Ruling:

7/1/2020:

On June 24, 2020, the debtors appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtors and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 1:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtors and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtors still concur with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtors and counsel for the debtors from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtors or counsel for the debtors are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtors (i.e., deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtors. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtors and counsel for the debtors to appear and address such matters.

#21.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 6-24-20

Docket 1

Tentative Ruling:

7/1/2020:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtors or counsel for the debtors at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtors nor counsel for the debtors should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtors once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtors, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtors, and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtors should increase the debtors' understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtors did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to December 14, 2020 at 1:00 p.m. Both debtors must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtors is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtors is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtors should provide the debtors with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtors should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (December 14, 2020 at 1:00 p.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtors, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtors to appear at a status conference.

So, in summary, the status conference is continued to December 14, 2020 at 1:00 p.m., and neither the debtors nor their counsel should appear today.

#13.00 Motion for relief from stay

KINECTA FEDERAL CREDIT UNION VS DEBTORS

Property: 2018 Honda Pilot
[Personal Prop] Mark S. Blackman, attorney/movant

Docket 18

Tentative Ruling:

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

(2) Waiver of the 14-day stay prescribed by Bankruptcy Rule 4001(a)(3).

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

#3.00 Hrg re motion to reopen chapter 7 bankruptcy case

Docket 32

Tentative Ruling:

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3).

No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion and reopen the case pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 350(b).

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

#4.00 Hrg re trustee's final report and application for compensation

Docket 53

Tentative Ruling:

Final Ruling. No opposition has been filed. This application for compensation has been set for hearing on the notice required by LBR 2016-1(c)(4).
No appearance is necessary.

The Court thanks the trustee for his efforts in the case. The trustee recovered sufficient funds to pay general unsecured claims approximately three-fourths of their claims. That is an excellent result and was achieved, in large part, because the trustee minimized administrative expenses and handled certain legal matters himself. By not hiring counsel, the trustee maximized the recovery for creditors efficiently. Well done!

Pursuant to the trustee's final report, the following administrative claims will be allowed:

- (1) Trustee: fees of $4,750 and expenses of $219.98.
- (2) Donald T. Fife: fees of $1,000 and expenses of $0.00.

The trustee shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

#5.00 Hrg re moiton for extension of time to file complaint objecting to discharge

Docket 148

Tentative Ruling:

The tentative ruling of the court is to deny the motion as unnecessary. To the extent the motion seeks an extension of time to pursue a complaint objecting to the dischargeability of a debt, 11 U.S.C. § 523(a)(3) governs cases in which creditors assert they were not properly scheduled or notified of the bankruptcy case and there is no deadline to file an action under section 523(a)(3).

To the extent the moving party seeks an extension of the deadline to file a proof of claim, the motion is also unnecessary. The moving party has not filed a proof of claim and the deadline to do so does not appear to have passed. Prior to the hearing, counsel for the moving party should review the court docket for this case and review the following pleadings filed in this case:

Docket #28: Paragraph 10 on page 2 of the "Notice of Chapter 7 Bankruptcy Case -- No Proof of Claim Deadline" issued by the court on June 23, 2017.

Docket #154: The "Notice of Possible Dividend and Order Fixing Time to File Claims" issued by the court on June 9, 2020.

#6.00 Hrg re trustee's motion objecting to amended exemption in real property

Docket 81

Tentative Ruling:

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion and disallow the exemption asserted by the debtor.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

Docket 38

Tentative Ruling:

Final Ruling. No opposition has been filed. This application for compensation has been set for hearing on the notice required by LBR 2016-1(c)(4). No appearance is necessary.

The court thanks the trustee for administering this case even though it involved a very small nonexempt asset. Although the recovery to creditors is small, they would have received nothing but for the efforts of the trustee.

Pursuant to the trustee's final report, the following administrative claims will be allowed:

- (1) Trustee: fees of $904.75 and expenses of $40.13.

The trustee shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

Chapter 13

#17.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 1

Tentative Ruling:

7/15/2020:

On July 1, 2020, the debtors appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtors and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 1:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtors and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtors still concur with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtors and counsel for the debtors from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtors or counsel for the debtors are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtors (i.e., deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtors. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtors and counsel for the debtors to appear and address such matters.

#18.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 7-1-20

Docket 1

Tentative Ruling:

7/15/2020:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtors or counsel for the debtors at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtors nor counsel for the debtors should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtors once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtors, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtors, and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtors should increase the debtors' understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. No appearances by the debtors or counsel for the debtors are required at the confirmation hearing.

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to December 14, 2020 at 3:00 p.m. Both debtors must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtors is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtors is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtors should provide the debtors with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtors should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (December 14, 2020 at 3:00 p.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtors, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtors to appear at a status conference.

#27.00 Motion for relief from stay

FORD MOTOR CREDIT VS DEBTOR

Property: 2016 Ford F-150
[Personal Prop] Sheryl K. Ith, attorney/movant

Docket 15

Tentative Ruling:

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

(2) Waiver of the 14-day stay prescribed by Bankruptcy Rule 4001(a)(3).

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

Docket 65

Tentative Ruling:

Final Ruling. The Court has reviewed the new applications for entry of discharge filed in this case. Based on that review, the court entered a discharge in this case and, therefore, it does not appear that a status conference is necessary at this time. No appearances are required.

If the debtors have any concerns, questions or objections regarding these matters or anything else regarding this case that the debtors wish to address, the debtors or counsel for the debtors are welcome to appear at the status conference. Likewise, if the debtors or counsel for the debtors wish to discuss the chapter 13 procedures order or ask any questions, the status conference is an opportunity to do so. Any issues in this case may be addressed at the status conference. However, as stated above, no appearances are required and, in the absence of an appearance, the Court will simply conclude the status conference.

#2.00 Motion for relief from stay

AMERICREDIT FINANCIAL SERVICES VS DEBTORS

Property: 2012 Dodge Durango
[Personal Prop] Sheryl K. Ith, attorney/movant

Docket 42

Tentative Ruling:

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

(2) Waiver of the 14-day stay prescribed by Bankruptcy Rule 4001(a)(3).

Tentative Ruling:

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules ("LBR"). Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion and enter default judgment pursuant to to LBR 7055-1.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

Chapter 13

#18.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

7/22/2020:

On July 15, 2020, the debtors appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtors and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 1:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtors and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtors still concur with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtors and counsel for the debtors from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtors or counsel for the debtors are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtors (i.e., deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtors. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtors and counsel for the debtors to appear and address such matters.

Chapter 13

#19.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 7-15-20

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

7/22/2020:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtors or counsel for the debtors at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtors nor counsel for the debtors should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtors once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtors, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtors, and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtors should increase the debtors' understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtors did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to December 14, 2020 at 4:00 p.m. Both debtors must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtors is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtors is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtors should provide the debtors with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtors should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (December 14, 2020 at 4:00 p.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtors, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtors to appear at a status conference.

So, in summary, the status conference is continued to December 14, 2020 at 4:00 p.m., and neither the debtors nor their counsel should appear today.

Chapter 13

#21.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

7/22/2020:

On July 15, 2020, the debtor appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtor and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 1:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtor and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtor still concurs with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtor and counsel for the debtor from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtor or counsel for the debtor are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtor (i.e., deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtor. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtor and counsel for the debtor to appear and address such matters.

Chapter 13

#22.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 7-15-20

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

7/22/2020:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtor or counsel for the debtor at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtor nor counsel for the debtor should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtor once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtor, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtor, and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtor should increase the debtor's understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtor did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to December 14, 2020 at 4:00 p.m. The debtor must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtor is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtor is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtor should provide the debtor with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtor should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (December 14, 2020 at 4:00 p.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtor, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtor to appear at a status conference.

So, in summary, the status conference is continued to December 14, 2020 at 4:00 p.m., and neither the debtor nor their counsel should appear today.

Docket 40

Tentative Ruling:

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

(2) Waiver of the 14-day stay prescribed by Bankruptcy Rule 4001(a)(3).

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

Final Ruling. No opposition has been filed. This application for compensation has been set for hearing on the notice required by LBR 2016-1(c)(4).
No appearance is necessary.

(1) Trustee: fees of $1,357 and expenses of $697.17

The trustee shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

Final Ruling. No opposition has been filed. This application for compensation has been set for hearing on the notice required by LBR 2016-1(c)(4). No appearance is necessary.

The Court thanks the trustee and his professionals for their efforts in this case. Their work resulted in the recovery of sufficient funds to pay (among other things) 100% to allowed unsecured creditors. That is an excellent and unusual result. Well done!

Pursuant to the trustee's final report, the following administrative claims will be allowed:

- (1) Trustee: fees of $47,472.01 and expenses of $111.85.
- (2) Shulman Bastian Friedman & Bui LLP: fees of $27,641 and expenses of $774.61.
- (3) Hahn Fife & Company LLP: fees of $1,438 and expenses of $257.80.

Docket 68

Final Ruling. No opposition has been filed. This application for compensation has been set for hearing on the notice required by LBR 2016-1(c)(4). No appearance is necessary.

The Court appreciates the work by the trustee and his professionals in this case. The administration by the trustee produced enough funds to (among other things) pay 100% to allowed unsecured creditors. That is an excellent and unusual result. Well done!

Pursuant to the trustee's final report, the following administrative claims will be allowed:

Chapter 7

#6.00 Hrg re motion objecting to debtor's claimed retirement exemptions

Docket 0

Tentative Ruling:

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3).

No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion and deny the debtors' claimed exemptions in the retirement accounts pursuant to Cal. Civ. Proc. § 704.110(b).

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

Chapter 13

#21.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

8/5/2020:

On July 22, 2020, the debtors appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtors and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 1:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtors and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtors still concur with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtors and counsel for the debtors from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtors or counsel for the debtors are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtors (i.e., deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtors. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtors and counsel for the debtors to appear and address such matters.

#22.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 7-22-20

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

8/5/2020:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtors or counsel for the debtors at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtors nor counsel for the debtors should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtors once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtors, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtors, and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtors should increase the debtors' understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtors did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to December 15, 2020 at 3:00 p.m. Both debtors must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtors is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtors is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtors should provide the debtors with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtors should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (December 15, 2020 at 3:00 p.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtors, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtors to appear at a status conference.

So, in summary, the status conference is continued to December 15, 2020 at 3:00 p.m., and neither the debtors nor their counsel should appear today.

A discussion with the debtor should increase the debtor's understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtor did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to December 15, 2020 at 3:00 p.m. The debtor must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtor is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtor is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtor should provide the debtor with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtor should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (December 15, 2020 at 3:00 p.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtor, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling

#27.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

8/5/2020:

On July 22, 2020, the debtors appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtors and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 1:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtors and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtors still concur with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtors and counsel for the debtors from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtors or counsel for the debtors are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtors (i.e., deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtors. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtors and counsel for the debtors to appear and address such matters.

Docket 1

Tentative Ruling:

8/5/2020:

On July 22, 2020, the debtor appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtor and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 2:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtor and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtor still concurs with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtor and counsel for the debtor from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtor or counsel for the debtor are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtor (i.e., deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtor. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtor and counsel for the debtor to appear and address such matters.

#43.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan
FROM: 7-22-20

Docket 1

Tentative Ruling:

8/5/2020:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtor or counsel for the debtor at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtor nor counsel for the debtor should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtor once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtor, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtor, and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtor should increase the debtor's understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtor did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to December 15, 2020 at 4:00 p.m. The debtor must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtor is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtor is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtor should provide the debtor with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtor should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (December 15, 2020 at 4:00 p.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtor, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtor to appear at a status conference.

So, in summary, the status conference is continued to December 15, 2020 at 4:00 p.m., and neither the debtor nor their counsel should appear today.

#46.00 Motion for relief from stay

SANTANDER CONSUMER USA VS DEBTOR

Property: 2013 Chevrolet
Personal Prop] Sheryl K. Ith, attorney/movant

Docket 96

Tentative Ruling:

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

(2) Waiver of the 14-day stay prescribed by Bankruptcy Rule 4001(a)(3).

Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

(2) Waiver of the 14-day stay prescribed by Bankruptcy Rule 4001(a)(3).

#9.00 Motion for relief from stay

FINANCIAL SERVICES DBA GM FINANCIAL VS DEBTORS

Property: 2018 Chevrolet Equinox
[Personal Prop] Sheryl K. Ith, attorney/movant

Docket 9

Tentative Ruling:

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

Chapter 13

#10.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

8/12/2020:

On August 5, 2020, the debtors appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtors and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 1:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtors and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtors still concur with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtors and counsel for the debtors from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtors or counsel for the debtors are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtors (i.e., deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtors. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtors and counsel for the debtors to appear and address such matters.

Chapter 13

#11.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 8-5-20

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

8/12/2020:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtors or counsel for the debtors at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtors nor counsel for the debtors should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtors once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtors, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtors, and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtors should increase the debtors' understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtors did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to December 15, 2020 at 4:00 p.m. Both debtors must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtors is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtors is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtors should provide the debtors with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtors should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

Chapter 13

If the designated date and time (December 15, 2020 at 4:00 p.m.) presents a significant scheduling problem for the debtors, counsel should file a declaration stating as much at least a week or two prior to the status conference explaining the scheduling problem. In addition, the declaration should provide at least three or four other proposed dates (on Fridays) on which it would be convenient for the debtors to appear at a status conference.

So, in summary, the status conference is continued to December 15, 2020 at 4:00 p.m., and neither the debtors nor their counsel should appear today.

#1.00 Hrg re motion to reopen chapter 7 case

Docket 17

Tentative Ruling:

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3).

No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion and reopen the case pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 350(b).

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

#2.00 Hrg re motion for order: (1) Holding the Ridge Community Association in contempt for violation of discharge; (2) Awarding debtors actual and punitive damages subject to further proof

Docket 46

Tentative Ruling:

The debtors, Samuel and Natalie Genous ("Debtors"), have filed a motion seeking a contempt citation and sanctions against The Ridge Community Association ("Association"). The Association opposes the motion. After reviewing the various pleadings, the tentative ruling of the Court is to deny the motion primarily for the reasons argued by the Association. Specifically, the Association contends that the issues are "not ripe" and require a trial with a full presentation of evidence. The Court concurs.

The debtors alleged that the Association has violated the discharge injunction, but the Debtors concede that creditors may enforce liens against collateral post-discharge. The discharge injunction of section 541 does not prevent a creditor from enforcing a lien post-discharge. Johnson v. Home State Bank, 501 U.S. 78, 84 (1991) ("[A] bankruptcy discharge extinguishes only one mode of enforcing a claim -- namely, an action against the debtor in personam -- while leaving intact another -- namely, an action against the debtor in rem."). And the notice that the Court provides to all parties upon entry of a discharge specifically reminds all parties that valid liens remain enforceable. See Docket 22, page 1 ("However, a creditor with a lien may enforce a claim against the debtors' property subject to that lien unless the lien was avoided or eliminated. For example, a creditor may have the right to foreclose a home mortgage or repossess an automobile.")

In this case, the Debtors argue that the lien of the Association is not valid. At present, however, the Debtors have not obtained a judgment in any court invalidating the lien. If they do so, then the discharge issues would become ripe.

A trial regarding the validity of the lien is currently set in state court for September 4, 2020. The state court clearly has jurisdiction to proceed. Alternatively, the Debtors may seek a determination in the bankruptcy court regarding the "validity, priority or extent" of a lien but such relief requires an adversary proceeding under Rule 7001(2) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure. However, the Debtors have not initiated any such action.

In addition, even when parties commence adversary proceedings seeking certain relief, bankruptcy courts often hold in abeyance adversary proceedings if a similar state court action is pending and on the eve of trial. That is apparently true in this instance because trial is set for September 4, 2020. Therefore, even if the Debtors commenced an adversary proceeding in this case, the Court would likely defer ruling on the matter until the state court trial concluded. Either way (with or without an adversary proceeding in bankruptcy court), the best course of action would be for the state court to proceed with its trial on September 4th.

If the state court determines that the lien of the Association is not valid, then an action for violating the discharge injunction would become ripe. If the state court determines the lien is valid, then no violation of the discharge injunction will have occurred.

In addition, the Court is inclined to deny the motion without prejudice for several additional reasons.

First, the Debtors contend the lien of the Association is not valid because it has been paid. They allege that the lien does not secure future obligations that they failed to pay to the Association after the recording of the lien. However, the lien document specifically states that it secures the existing delinquency ($1,005.12) "[p]lus subsequent assessments and other additional charges, including attorneys' fees, costs, interest and late charges as provided for in the Declaration and by California law, which may hereafter become due and unpaid." So, the document itself purports to secure future unpaid obligations.

In that regard, the lien document of the Association appears to be no different than the average deed of trust or mortgage. Such documents have a face amount but also secure any future unpaid interest and collection costs such as late fees, attorneys fees, costs, etc. The face amount of a mortgage or deed of trust is a starting point, but borrowers and lenders understand that mortgages secure all amounts due including unpaid interest that arises after recordation of the document as well as all costs of enforcing the mortgage. California law does not require a lender to record a revised deed of trust each time more interest accrues whenever a borrower misses a mortgage payment. So, it makes little sense to require the Association to do so as well; especially given that the CC&Rs (in this case – the Declaration) is also a recorded document of record that puts all parties on notice of obligations that arise in favor of the Association.

Second, while the Debtors rely upon Highland Greens Homeowners Association v. de Guillen (In re Guillen), 604 B.R. 826 (BAP 9th Cir. 2019), the decision of the California Court of Appeals in Bear Creek Master Association v. Edwards, 130 Cal.App.4th 1470 (Cal. Ct. App. 2005) seems more persuasive.

The Debtors failed to pay the Association anything from May 2006 to July 2016. They failed to pay 123 monthly dues payments in a row. If the Court embraced the Debtors' theory of the case, the Association would have had to record an assessment lien 123 times (i.e. every month) over ten years. That seems utterly impractical and pointless. It would cast a stain upon the public records for no apparent purpose (except, perhaps, to generate recording fees). Therefore, it seems more than a bit impractical to interpret the governing statute (CA Civil Code section 5565) in such a manner. See, e.g., Bear Creek, 130 Cal. App.4th at 1489 ("A successive recordation requirement would impose a heavy—and needless—burden upon homeowners' associations, fraught with risk to the association, and undue windfall to the delinquent homeowner, should any installment be overlooked. We are unwilling to construe Civil Code section 1367 to require such an oppressive burden. Both delinquent homeowners and the public at large are placed on notice, with the recordation of the initial assessment lien, that subsequent regularly and specially levied assessments, if they continue unpaid, will accrue in due course. The purpose of the lien notice and recordation will have been served, and the association's remedy justly preserved, by the initial recordation of lien.").

Again, if a debtor fails to pay a mortgage for ten years, California law does not require the lender to record 123 notices of default. Such a requirement would serve no purpose.

Third, even if the Court ruled in favor of the Debtors on all issues, the Motion requests "sanctions . . . including actual and punitive damages," but no evidence of any kind support sanctions has been presented. The evidentiary record is completely void regarding a basis for actual or punitive damages.

Finally, the Court notes that it does not believe that the state court has concurrent jurisdiction to adjudicate alleged violations of the discharge injunction under section 524. The bankruptcy court has exclusive jurisdiction over such matters. But state courts clearly have jurisdiction to adjudicate the validity of liens including a homeowner's association lien. The fact that such an adjudication may possibly form the foundation for a future action in bankruptcy court does not prevent the state court from deciding the validity of the lien. If the state court (or any court) finds that the lien of the Association is not valid, then the parties are free to return to bankruptcy court for a determination whether the conduct of the Association in attempting to enforce the allegedly invalid lien warrants relief under section 524.

Docket 432

Tentative Ruling:

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3).

No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion and approve the settlement pursuant to F.R.B.P. 9019.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

#2.00 Motion for relief from stay

TOYOTA MOTOR CREDIT VS DEBTOR

Property: 2018 Toyota Camry
[Personal Prop] Kirsten Martinez, attorney/movant

Docket 36

Tentative Ruling:

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

(2) Waiver of the 14-day stay prescribed by Bankruptcy Rule 4001(a)(3).

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

#8.00 Hrg re motion objecting to debtor's amended retirement exemptions and for turnover of estate property

Docket 95

Tentative Ruling:

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the debtors and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3).

No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

Chapter 7

#18.00 Hrg re trustee's motion for order authorizing interim distributions

Docket 74

Tentative Ruling:

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3).

No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion and authorize the Trustee to make the requested interim distributions pursuant to F.R.B.P 3009.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

#1.00 Motion for relief from stay

TOYOTA MOTOR CREDIT CORP VS DEBTORS

Property: 2018 Toyota Highlander
[Personal Prop] Austin P. Nagel, attorney/movant

Docket 26

Tentative Ruling:

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

(2) Waiver of the 14-day stay prescribed by Bankruptcy Rule 4001(a)(3).

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after

#18.00 Hrg re trustee's final report and application for compensation

FROM: 9-22-20

Docket 0

Tentative Ruling:

Final Ruling. No opposition has been filed. This application for compensation has been set for hearing on the notice required by LBR 2016-1(c)(4).
No appearance is necessary.

The court thanks the trustee for his efforts in this case. By seeking to re-open the case and administer the unexpected asset, the trustee made it possible for payment of 100% to creditors who filed claims. That is a great (and unusual) result for creditors.

Pursuant to the trustee's final report, the following administrative claims will be allowed:

(1) Trustee: fees of $1,366.79 and expenses of $34.00.

The trustee shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

#26.00 Hrg re motion for default judgment

Docket 7

Tentative Ruling:

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the defendant, trustee and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3).

No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion and avoid the junior lien held by SchoolsFirst Federal Credit Union.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

#28.00 Hrg re motion for default judgment with Opteryx Mineral Management LP

Docket 69

Tentative Ruling:

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the defendants, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion and enter default judgment for the plaintiff.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

#36.00 Hrg re motion for default judgment

Docket 17

Tentative Ruling:

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3).

No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion and enter default judgment for the plaintiff pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 523(a).

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

FREEDOM MORTGAGE VS DEBTOR

Property: 31575 Sierra Verde Road, Homeland, Ca 92548
[Real Prop] Dame Exnpwski, attorney/movant

Docket 67

Tentative Ruling:

Having reviewed the motion and the case, the Court finds that there is no automatic stay in this case. Indeed, no automatic stay ever arose in this case. The debtor filed two prior chapter 13 bankruptcy cases that were dismissed within twelve months prior to the filing of this case. The Court addressed this issue in a memorandum of decision issued in this case on February 8, 2019 [docket #28]. Pursuant to section 362(c)(4) of the Bankruptcy Code, no automatic stay ever arose in this case. As a result, the debtor filed a motion to impose the stay in 2019 but the court denied it for the reasons set forth in the memorandum of decision and the separate order.

Accordingly, the pending motion is unnecessary and the Court is prepared to enter an order finding that there is no automatic stay in this case and there never has been.

#19.00 Motion for relief from stay

VW CREDIT LEASING VS DEBTOR

Property: 2019 Volkswagen Jetta
[Personal Prop] Austin P. Nagel, attorney/movant

Docket 61

Tentative Ruling:

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property, foreclose its lien upon the property and to sell the property.

(2) Waiver of the 14-day stay prescribed by Bankruptcy Rule 4001(a)(3).

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR

Docket 24

Tentative Ruling:

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3).

No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion and approve the compromise pursuant to F.R.B.P. 9019.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

Docket 49

Tentative Ruling:

Final Ruling. No opposition has been filed. This application for compensation has been set for hearing on the notice required by LBR 2016-1(c)(4).
No appearance is necessary.

The Court thanks the trustee for her efforts in this case. The trustee recovered sufficient funds to pay all creditors in full and, in doing so, minimized administrative expenses. That efficiency ensured that creditors will be paid in full and the Court is grateful for the fine work. Well done!

Pursuant to the trustee's final report, the following administrative claims will be allowed:

- (1) Trustee: fees of $4,746.64 and expenses of $174.55.
- (2) Grobstein Teeple LLP: fees of $3,115.50 and expenses of $78.34.

The trustee shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

Chapter 7

#32.00 Hrg re motion to reclassify claims notice of motion and chapter 7 trustee motion for order allowing claim #3 of ACAR Leasing LTD as fully secured, not entitled to a dividend, or in alternative, disallowance of claim

Docket 20

Tentative Ruling:

Final Ruling. The objection to claim has been set for hearing on the notice required by Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 3007 and Local Bankruptcy Rules ("LBR") 3007-1 and 9013-1(d)(2). The failure of the claimant to file written opposition at least 14 days before the hearing as required by LBR 3007-1(b)(6) and 9013-1(h) is deemed consent to the sustaining of the objection. See LBR 9013-1(h); Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See LBR 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion and disallow claim #3 in the amount of $5,203.05 filed by ACAR Leasing LTD d/b/a GM Financial Leasing.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

#35.00 Hrg re trustee's final report and application for compensation

Docket 30

Tentative Ruling:

Final Ruling. No opposition has been filed. This application for compensation has been set for hearing on the notice required by LBR 2016-1(c)(4).
No appearance is necessary.

The Court thanks the trustee for administering a case with a very small amount of nonexempt assets. Although the recovery for creditors is small, they would have received nothing but for the actions of the trustee.

Pursuant to the trustee's final report, the following administrative claims will be allowed:

(1) Trustee: fees of $545.75.

The trustee shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

Chapter 7

#36.00 Hrg re motion to approve compromise with George Saunders, Dawn Saunders, and Joseph Knoblock regarding determining claim amounts and secured status of claim

Docket 39

Tentative Ruling:

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3).

No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion and approve the compromise pursuant to F.R.B.P. 9019.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

Chapter 13

#15.00 Hrg re motion for order disallowing claim number 12 filed by Reveue Service in the amount of $52,223.83

Docket 51

Tentative Ruling:

Final Ruling. The objection to claim has been set for hearing on the notice required by Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 3007 and Local Bankruptcy Rules ("LBR") 3007-1 and 9013-1(d)(2). The failure of the claimant to file written opposition at least 14 days before the hearing as required by LBR 3007-1(b)(6) and 9013-1(h) is deemed consent to the sustaining of the objection. See LBR 9013-1(h); Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See LBR 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to reduce the claim of the IRS to $43,763.83 by reducing the figure of $11,613 listed as an unsecured priority claim for 2019 to $3,153.00.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

Chapter 13

#29.01 Hrg re motion in individual case for order imposing a stay or continuing the automatic stay

Docket 26

Tentative Ruling:

The motion is untimely. Section 362(c)(3)(A) provides that the automatic stay "shall terminate with respect to the debtor on the 30th day after the filing of the later case." See 11 U.S.C. § 362(c)(3)(A). In order to avoid the termination of the stay, a motion to extend the stay must be filed and it must be heard on or before the thirtieth day after the filing of the bankruptcy case. See 11 U.S.C. § 362(c)(3)(B) (stating that "on the motion of a party in interest for continuation of the automatic stay and upon notice and a hearing, the court may extend the stay in particular cases as to any or all creditors (subject to such conditions or limitations as the court may then impose) after notice and a hearing completed before the expiration of the 30-day period . . .").

Accordingly, under the plain language of the statute, the hearing regarding a motion to extend the automatic stay pursuant to section 362(c)(3)(B) must occur no later than thirty days after the filing of this bankruptcy case. It is not enough to simply file the motion within the thirty day period. The hearing regarding the motion must also occur within the thirty day period. See, e.g., In re Moon, 339 B.R. 668, 670 (Bankr. N.D. Ohio 2006) (denying a motion to extend the stay that was filed during the thirty day period because the debtors scheduled the motion for a hearing thirty-seven days after the petition date); In re Garrett, 357 B.R. 128, 131 (Bankr. C.D. Ill. 2006) ("Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(c)(3)(B), the Bankruptcy Court may extend the automatic stay only after notice and a hearing completed before the expiration of the 30 day period after the filing of a second bankruptcy case within one year of the dismissal of a previously filed case. If the notice and hearing are not completed within this period, the automatic stay terminates by operation of law pursuant to § 362(c)(3)

(A)."); In re Norman, 346 B.R. 181 (Bankr. N.D. W.Va. 2006) (holding that a motion to extend the automatic stay must be heard within the thirty day period); In re Ziolkowski, 338 B.R. 543, 546 (Bankr. D.Conn. 2006) (denying a motion to extend the stay that was filed during the thirty day period because the initial hearing regarding the motion – which was scheduled by the clerk of the court - occurred more than two months after the petition date and stating that the debtors "were the movants and it was their ultimate burden to insure that the Motion was timely scheduled."); Capital One Auto Fin. v. Cowley, 374 B.R. 601, 610 (W.D. Tex. 2006) (reversing a bankruptcy court order granting a motion to extend the stay because, while the motion was filing within thirty days of the petition date, the hearing regarding the motion occurred after the thirty day period and stating that "the Court finds that § 362(c)(3) requires notice and a hearing to be completed within thirty days of a filing of a petition by a single-repeat filer."); In re Wesselman, 2008 Bankr. LEXIS 950 (Bankr. E.D. Ky. 2008) (denying a motion to extend the stay that was filed during the thirty day period because the hearing regarding the motion occurred thirty-one days after the petition date.); In re Brewster, 2008 Bankr. LEXIS 949 (Bankr. E.D. Ky. 2008) (denying a motion to extend the stay that was filed during the thirty day period because the hearing regarding the motion occurred thirty-nine days after the petition date and stating that the "plain meaning of the statute is that the court does not have authority to extend the stay when a hearing is not completed before the expiration of the 30-day period following a bankruptcy filing.").

Because of this strict thirty day period for conducting a hearing regarding a motion to extend the stay, this Court (like many others) has established self-calendaring instructions which permit debtors to set hearings regarding this type of motion on shortened notice (as little as seven days). Under those procedures, debtors typically have between two to four available dates for setting hearings regarding this type of motion during the first thirty days of any bankruptcy case. For unknown reasons, the debtor did not utilize those available dates in this case.

In this case, the debtor filed a prior bankruptcy case within the last twelve months (case no. 20-11117). After that case was dismissed, the debtor filed this second bankruptcy case on October 14, 2020. Thus, the automatic stay expired on November 13, 2020. On November 6, 2020, the debtor filed a motion to extend the stay and the debtor selected a hearing date for the motion of November 18, 2020. However, that day is 35 days after the petition date.

#38.00 Hrg re motion authority to sell real property

[Property: 11030 Arrow Route, Unite 106, Rancho Cucamonga, CA 91730]

Docket 0

Tentative Ruling:

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3).

No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

Chapter 7

#8.00 Hrg re motion alleging violaiton of discharge injunction

FROM: 11-17-20

Docket 32

Tentative Ruling:

Prior to the hearing, counsel should review California Civil Code sections 3439.07(a)(1) and 3439.08(b) and be prepared to answer the following questions:

The fraudulent transfer complaint filed by NCR against the debtor on April 10, 2013 is attached to the request for judicial notice as exhibit 4.

Did the request for relief in paragraph 1 of the prayer of the complaint on page 4, lines 21-26 request in rem relief of the kind described in California Civil Code section 3439.08(b)(2) (i.e. a request to recover real property allegedly fraudulently transferred) or in personam relief as described in California Civil Code section 3439.08(b)(1) (i.e. a money judgment based on personal liability)?

Did the request for relief in paragraph 2 of the prayer of the complaint at the bottom of page 4 (and the top of page 5) request in rem relief of the kind described in California Civil Code section 3439.08(b)(2) (i.e. a request to recover real property allegedly fraudulently transferred) or in personam relief as described in California Civil Code section 3439.08(b)(1) (i.e. a money judgment based on personal liability)?

Which form of relief did the judgment issued on April 13, 2016 grant (i.e. in rem relief aganist the property or in personam relief againt the debtor)?

Furthmore, in her reply brief, the debtor asserts that NCR "had no separate in rem claim against the Property" but section 3439.08(b)(2) of the California Civil Code specifically provides for an in rem remedy. The debtor also argues in the reply brief that "as of the commencement of Debtor's Chapter 7 Case, NCR had only a fraudulent-transfer claim against her - a claim for money, which was subject to the Discharge/Discharge injunction. As of that time, NCR had no in rem claims against the Property." However, section 3439.08(b)(2) appears to directly contradict these assertions.

The parties should also be prepared to discuss the following hypothetical questions:

Fact pattern #1. A debtor steals a car immediately prior to filing a bankruptcy case and the true owner of the car seeks only to recover the car. The true owner of the car seeks no monetary judgment against the debtor. If the debtor obtains a discharge in the bankruptcy case, does section 524(a) of the Bankruptcy Code prevent the true owner of the car from suing the debtor post-discharge to recover back his car?

Fact pattern #2. A friend of the debtor steals a car and gives it to the debtor immediately prior to the debtor filing a bankruptcy case and the true owner of the car seeks only to recover the car. The true owner of the car seeks no monetary judgment against the debtor. If the debtor obtains a discharge in the bankruptcy case, does section 524(a) of the Bankruptcy Code prevent the true owner of the car from suing the debtor post-discharge to recover back his car?

Fact Pattern #3: John borrows money from the Bank and fails to pay. Bank sues John and obtains a judgment against John. John owns a $30,000 vehicle. John then asks Jane to hide the vehicle in Jane's garage to prevent the Bank from seizing the vehicle. Jane files a bankruptcy case (with John's car in her garage) and receives a discharge. Can the Bank sue Jane post-discharge to force her to deliver possession of John's car to the Bank? (Bank seeks no monetary judgment against Jane).

Fact Pattern #4: John borrows money from the Bank and fails to pay. Bank sues John and obtains a judgment against John. John owns a $30,000 vehicle. John likes Jane more than the Bank so he gives the vehicle to Jane as a birthday gift to prevent the Bank from seizing the vehicle. The day after her birthday, Jane then files a bankruptcy case and, ultimately, receives a discharge. Can the Bank sue Jane post-discharge to force her to deliver possession and title of the fraudulently transferred car to the Bank? (Bank seeks no monetary judgment against Jane).

Chapter 7

Finally, the parties should carefully review the decision in Int'l Mgmt. Grp., Inc. v. Bank, 274 So. 3d 1003 (Ala. Civ. App. 2018) which states (among other things) as follows on page 1009:

"Carter also argues that his discharge in bankruptcy prevents the Bank from securing a judgment in its favor against him, personally. Although Carter is correct insofar as he posits that a bankruptcy discharge serves to extinguish the personal liability of a debtor, see 11 U.S.C. § 524(a)(2), he is incorrect that his bankruptcy discharge isolates the transfer of [a valuable asset] from the Bank's reach in this fraudulent-transfer action. See 11 U.S.C. § 524(e). The transfer the Bank attacked as fraudulent in this action was the transfer of [a valuable asset] from IMG to Liberty. Thus, the Bank, acting as IMG's creditor, seeks to reach the transferred [valuable asset] to satisfy its claim against IMG. That is, the Bank's action against Carter is premised not on any personal liability he may owe to the Bank, if any, but on his status as a subsequent transferee of the [valuable asset]."

In addition, the parties should review the Ninth Circuit in Kathy B. Enterprises, Inc. v. United States, 779 F.2d 1413 (9th Cir. 1986). To the extent that the debtor contends that her liability for receiving a fraudulent transfer was extinguished when Jose Beltran receive a discharge, such an argument was specifically rejected by the Ninth Circuit in the Kathy B. case. See also, J. P. Castagna, Inc. v. Castagna, 1995 Conn. Super. LEXIS 1097 (Sup. Ct. Ct. 1995) (discussing and relying on Kathy B.).

The parties should also review Rountree v. Nunnery (In re Rountree), 448 B.R. 389 (Bankr. E.D.Va. 2011).

#18.01 Motion for relief from stay

SHEILA RENEE SPENCE VS DEBTOR

Property: 4473 Orange Drive, San Bernardino, CA 9247
[Real Prop] Nancy Korompis, attorney/movant

Docket 21

Tentative Ruling:

The motion is untimely. Section 362(c)(3)(A) provides that the automatic stay "shall terminate with respect to the debtor on the 30th day after the filing of the later case." See 11 U.S.C. § 362(c)(3)(A). In order to avoid the termination of the stay, a motion to extend the stay must be filed and it must be heard on or before the thirtieth day after the filing of the bankruptcy case. See 11 U.S.C. § 362(c)(3)(B) (stating that "on the motion of a party in interest for continuation of the automatic stay and upon notice and a hearing, the court may extend the stay in particular cases as to any or all creditors (subject to such conditions or limitations as the court may then impose) after notice and a hearing completed before the expiration of the 30-day period . . .").

Accordingly, under the plain language of the statute, the hearing regarding a motion to extend the automatic stay pursuant to section 362(c)(3)(B) must occur no later than thirty days after the filing of this bankruptcy case. It is not enough to simply file the motion within the thirty day period. The hearing regarding the motion must also occur within the thirty day period. See, e.g., In re Moon, 339 B.R. 668, 670 (Bankr. N.D. Ohio 2006) (denying a motion to extend the stay that was filed during the thirty day period because the debtors scheduled the motion for a hearing thirty-seven days after the petition date); In re Garrett, 357 B.R. 128, 131 (Bankr. C.D. Ill. 2006) ("Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(c)(3)(B), the Bankruptcy Court may extend the automatic stay only after notice and a hearing completed before the expiration of the 30 day period after the filing of a second bankruptcy case within one year of the dismissal of a previously filed case. If the notice and hearing are not completed within this period, the automatic stay terminates by operation of law pursuant to § 362(c)(3) (A)."); In re Norman, 346 B.R. 181 (Bankr. N.D. to extend the automatic stay must be heard within the thirty day period); In re Ziolkowski, 338 B.R. 543, 546 (Bankr. D.Conn. 2006) (denying a motion to extend the stay that was filed during the thirty day period because the initial hearing regarding the motion – which was scheduled by the clerk of the court - occurred more than two months after the petition date and stating that the debtors "were the movants and it was their ultimate burden to insure that the Motion was timely scheduled."); Capital One Auto Fin. v. Cowley, 374 B.R. 601, 610 (W.D. Tex. 2006) (reversing a bankruptcy court order granting a motion to extend the stay because, while the motion was filing within thirty days of the petition date, the hearing regarding the motion occurred after the thirty day period and stating that "the Court finds that § 362(c)(3) requires notice and a hearing to be completed within thirty days of a filing of a petition by a single-repeat filer."); In re Wesselman, 2008 Bankr. LEXIS 950 (Bankr. E.D. Ky. 2008) (denying a motion to extend the stay that was filed during the thirty day period because the hearing regarding the motion occurred thirty-one days after the petition date.); In re Brewster, 2008 Bankr. LEXIS 949 (Bankr. E.D. Ky. 2008) (denying a motion to extend the stay that was filed during the thirty day period because the hearing regarding the motion occurred thirty-nine days after the petition date and stating that the "plain meaning of the statute is that the court does not have authority to extend the stay when a hearing is not completed before the expiration of the 30-day period following a bankruptcy filing.").

Because of this strict thirty day period for conducting a hearing regarding a motion to extend the stay, this Court (like many others) has established self-calendaring instructions which permit debtors to set hearings regarding this type of motion on shortened notice (as little as seven days). Under those procedures, debtors typically have between two to four available dates for setting hearings regarding this type of motion during the first thirty days of any bankruptcy case. For unknown reasons, the debtor did not utilize those available dates in this case.

In this case, the debtor filed a prior bankruptcy case within the last twelve months (case no. 20-15047). After that case was dismissed, the debtor filed this second bankruptcy case on October 22, 2020. Thus, the automatic stay expired on November 23, 2020. On November 18, 2020, the debtor filed a motion to extend the stay and the debtor selected a hearing date for the motion of December 2, 2020. However, that day is 41 days after the petition date.

Accordingly, the motion must be denied as untimely.

Docket 74

Tentative Ruling:

Stuart Wald has filed an application to be employed as chapter 11 counsel for the debtor for the period from April 16, 2019 to June 4, 2019 [docket #74]. Mr. Wald has also filed a first and final fee application seeking $9,981.03 in fees and costs for this same period of time [docket #131]. Creditor Vanessa Gutierrez has filed an objection to both applications and requests that the Court deny the employment application and deny all compensation to Mr. Wald [docket #78 & #143]. The objections raise very significant issues and, after extensive consideration, the Court is prepared, if the parties concur, to enter an order that grants both applications but allows fees in the amount of $4,500 on final basis as an unsecured priority claim. The Court suggests the parties resolve the matter on this basis.

Docket 26

Tentative Ruling:

Final Ruling. No opposition has been filed. This application for compensation has been set for hearing on the notice required by LBR 2016-1(c)(4).
No appearance is necessary.

The Court thanks the trustee for administering this case. Although the total amount recovered was small, creditors would have received nothing but for the efforts of the trustee. The trustee was also quite efficient by not hiring counsel or other professionals. That made additional funds available for non-administrative creditors. In addition, the debtors also benefitted because the efforts of the trustee resulted in payment of the priority claim of the IRS (which is typically the type of claim that would be nondischargeable). Thank you.

Pursuant to the trustee's final report, the following administrative claims will be allowed:

(1) Trustee: fees of $1,770.80.

The trustee shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

Docket 0

Tentative Ruling:

Final Ruling. No opposition has been filed. This application for compensation has been set for hearing on the notice required by LBR 2016-1(c)(4). No appearance is necessary.

The Court thanks the trustee for his efforts in this case. The results are particularly impressive. The trustee recovered sufficient funds to pay all creditors in full and to make a distribution to the debtor of over $30,000. That is a rare outcome and the efficiency of the trustee (by not hiring counsel and minimizing accounting fees) blessed both the creditors and the debtor. Well done!

Pursuant to the trustee's final report, the following administrative claims will be allowed:

- (1) Trustee: fees of $2,560.45 and expenses of $114.15;
- (2) Hahn Fife & Company LLP: fees of $1,804.00 and expenses of $273.90.

The trustee shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

#6.00 Hrg re trustee's final report and applications for compensation

Docket 62

Tentative Ruling:

Final Ruling. No opposition has been filed. This application for compensation has been set for hearing on the notice required by LBR 2016-1(c)(4).
No appearance is necessary.

The Court thanks the trustee for his efforts in this case. Although tax creditors were the primary beneficiaries in this case, Congress has specifically designed the bankruptcy code in a manner to encourage trustees to recover assets to pay tax claims. See, e.g., 11 U.S.C. §§ 507(a)(8) & 724.

Accordingly, pursuant to the trustee's final report, the following administrative claims will be allowed:

(1) Trustee: fees of $1,189.50 and expenses of $782.55.

The trustee shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

#7.00 Hrg re trustee's final report and applications for compensation

Docket 28

Tentative Ruling:

Final Ruling. No opposition has been filed. This application for compensation has been set for hearing on the notice required by LBR 2016-1(c)(4).

No appearance is necessary.

The Court thanks the trustee for his efforts in this case. This case demonstrates the benefits that can be achieved when a trustee administers a case with few assets. The trustee negotiated an agreement with the debtor to recover non-exempt equity and settled for $2,500. The trustee filed his own settlement motion (without hiring counsel) and obtained an order approving the settlement. This manner of proceeding was very efficient and provided a real benefit to creditors. Although the distributions in the case will be small, creditors would have received nothing without the efforts of the trustee. Well done!

Pursuant to the trustee's final report, the following administrative claims will be allowed:

- (1) Trustee: fees of $625.00.

The trustee shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

#8.00 Hrg re trustee's final report and applications for compensation

Docket 31

Tentative Ruling:

Final Ruling. No opposition has been filed. This application for compensation has been set for hearing on the notice required by LBR 2016-1(c)(4).
No appearance is necessary.

The Court thanks the trustee for his efforts in this case. This case also demonstrates the value of administering cases with few assets. The trustee efficiently recovered a small asset (approximately $3,000) which he will distribute to creditors. Had the trustee taken no action, creditors would have received nothing in this case which (at this time of the year) would have seemed like a lump of coal in the Christmas stockings of the creditors. However, because the trustee took action, creditors will receive distributions in the case (albeit small ones). Well done!

Pursuant to the trustee's final report, the following administrative claims will be allowed:

- (1) Trustee: fees of $750.00 and expenses of $99.88.

The trustee shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

FROM: 12-15-20

Docket 75

Tentative Ruling:

The Court thanks the trustee for providing the supplemental brief and supplemental declarations. They were helpful. In particular, the Court appreciates Mr. Fife reminding the Court that tax consequences for a limited liability company flow through to its members. The Court also appreciates the agreement by the trustee to ensure that at least 40% of the net sale proceeds will flow to non-administrative creditors.

The trustee should review paragraph 10 of the sale order entered in the case of In re Heath Carr (17-14622) on November 12, 2020 [docket # 111]. If that language is acceptable, the trustee may submit a sale order in this case prior to the hearing that includes (among other things) that language. The Court is prepared to enter an appropriate sale order prior to the hearing and take the matter off calendar. However, the parties may still proceed with the hearing if desired.

#10.00 Hrg re motion to impose a one-year bar to re-filing

Docket 0

Tentative Ruling:

Final Ruling. This motion has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3).

No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 349 and 105(a). The debtor is prohibited from filing another bankruptcy case for one year.

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").
