The initial hearing on the Claim Objection took place on June 6, 2018, at 10:00 a.m. On May 28, 2018, Ms. Ho commenced a voluntary Chapter 7 petition in the Northern District of California. The Court continued the hearing on the Claim Objection to allow the Trustee appointed in Ms. Ho's Chapter 7 case an opportunity to defend Ms. Ho's claim, which is now an asset of her Chapter 7 estate.

On June 11, 2018, the Committee provided notice of the continued hearing on the Claim Objection to the Trustee appointed in Ms. Ho's Chapter 7 case. The Trustee has not filed an papers in opposition to the Claim Objection. The Court takes judicial notice of papers filed by Ms. Ho's Trustee in opposition to an unrelated motion for stay-relief brought by the Committee in her case. The Trustee took the position that the Claim Objection was well-founded:

The Debtor [Ms. Ho] filed the proof of claim 13 months late and it is the subject of an objection in the Liberty Asset Management case. The objection was filed by the moving party [the Committee]. The Trustee believes the objection appears to be well taken. Whether there is a viable claim for legal malpractice [against the law firm responsible for the late filing of the Proof of Claim] is a different question that the Trustee will investigate in due course.

the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors' Objection to Claim Number 39 Filed by Tsai Luan Ho A/K/A Shelby Ho [Doc. No. 121, Adv. No. 2:16-ap-01374-ER] (the "Notice"). The Notice requests that the Court take judicial notice of an order entered in Ms. Ho's Chapter 7 case on July 5, 2018. Although the caption of the Notice references the Claim Objection, the order that is actually attached to the Notice pertains to an unrelated motion for relief from the automatic stay.

On July 11, 2018, the Plan Administrator for Liberty's confirmed Chapter 11 Plan (which is the successor in interest to the Committee and is being represented by the same law firm that represented the Committee) filed a response to the Notice, pointing out the inconsistency identified above.

II. Findings and Conclusions

A. No Further Continuance of the Hearing is Required

Ms. Ho's commencement of a Chapter 7 petition vested the rights in Claim 39 in Ms. Ho's estate. The previous continuance of the hearing was appropriate to provide the Trustee appointed in Ms. Ho's case the chance to defend Claim 39. Ms. Ho's Trustee has received notice of the continued hearing and has not filed any papers in defense of Claim 39. Based on papers filed in an unrelated motion in Ms. Ho's Chapter 7 case, Ms. Ho's Trustee's position is that the Claim Objection is well taken. No further continuance of this hearing is required.

The Court takes judicial notice of the entire record of the proceedings in Ms. Ho's Chapter 7 case pending before Judge Montali. The Court has reviewed the audio recording of the proceedings on an unrelated lift-stay motion brought by the Committee in that case. There is no merit to Ms. Ho's position that Judge Montali's ruling on the lift-stay motion was a ruling on the Claim Objection. Adjudication of the Claim Objection will not interfere with the administration of Ms. Ho's Chapter 7 case in any manner. As noted, the Trustee appointed in Ms. Ho's case believes that the Claim Objection is well taken and does not intend to defend Claim 39.

B. The Claim Objection is Sustained

Under Bankruptcy Rule 3001(f), a proof of claim executed and filed in accordance with the Bankruptcy Rules constitutes prima facie evidence of the validity and amount of the claim. To overcome the presumption of validity created by a timely-filed proof of claim, an objecting party must do one of the following: (1) object based on legal grounds and provide a memorandum of points and authorities setting forth the legal basis for the objection; or (2) object based on a factual ground and provide sufficient evidence (usually in the form of declarations under penalty of perjury) to create triable issues of fact. Durkin v. Benedor Corp. (In re G.I. Indus., Inc.), 204 F.3d 1276, 1280 (9th Cir. BAP 2000); United States v. Offord Finance, Inc. (In re Medina), 205 B.R. 216, 222 (9th Cir. BAP 1996); Hemingway Transport, Inc. v. Kahn (In re Hemingway Transport, Inc.), 993 F.2d 915, 925 (1st Cir. 1993). Upon objection, a proof of claim provides "some evidence as to its validity and amount" and is "strong enough to carry over a mere formal objection without more." See Lundell v. Anchor Constr. Spec., Inc., 223 F.3d 1035, 1039 (9th Cir. 2000) (citing Wright v. Holm (In re Holm), 931 F.2d 620, 623 (9th Cir. 1991)). An objecting party bears the burden and must "show facts tending to defeat the claim by probative force equal to that of the allegations of the proofs of claim themselves." Holm, 931 F.2d at 623. When the objector has shown enough evidence to negate one or more facts in the proof of claim, the burden shifts back to the claimant to prove the validity of the claim by a preponderance of evidence. See Lundell, 223 F.3d at 1039 (citation omitted).

Section 502(b)(9) requires the Court to disallow a claim if the "proof of such claim is not timely filed." Here, Ms. Ho filed Claim 39 approximately one year subsequent to the claims bar date. Notice of the claims bar date was provided to Ms. Ho and her attorney. In addition, Ms. Ho's awareness of the claims bar date is established by the fact that she caused proofs of claim to be filed on behalf of two other entities in which she held an interest. Because Claim No. 39 was not timely filed, it is DISALLOWED.

Section 502 requires the Court to disallow a claim that "is unenforceable against the debtor and the property of the debtor, under any agreement or applicable law for a reason other than because such claim is contingent or unmatured." Here, the claim is unenforceable under California law and therefore must be disallowed for this additional reason. Specifically, Cal. Civ. Code §1624(a)(4) provides that an agreement employing an agent to purchase or sell real estate is not enforceable unless the agreement is "in writing and subscribed by the party to be charged by the party's agent." Here, Claim 39 is not supported by any written agreement.

Based upon the foregoing, the Claim Objection is SUSTAINED and Claim 39, asserted by Ms. Ho (and now owned by Ms. Ho's Chapter 7 estate), is DISALLOWED in its entirety. The Committee shall submit an order incorporating this tentative ruling by reference within seven days of the hearing.

Tentative Ruling:

7/23/2018: Tentative Ruling

Based on the existence of parallel litigation now pending in Ms. Ho's Chapter 7 case in the Northern District of California, the Court intends to dismiss this action without prejudice, unless an objection is filed by no later than August 7, 2018.

Pleadings Filed and Reviewed:

- 1) Order Setting Status Conference for July 24, 2018, at 10:00 a.m. [Doc. No. 119]
- 2) The Plan Administrator's Status Report [Doc. No. 123]

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

Trial in this matter was set to go forward on May 29, 2018. On May 28, 2018, Defendant Tsai Luan Ho aka Shelby Ho ("Ms. Ho") commenced a voluntary Chapter 7 petition in the Northern District of California, staying the trial.

To allow the trial to go forward, the Plaintiff sought stay-relief in Ms. Ho's Chapter 7 case. The Court takes judicial notice of all proceedings in that case. Judge Montali, who is presiding over Ms. Ho's Chapter 7 case, denied Plaintiff's motion to lift the stay. Judge Montali concluded that lifting the stay would waste judicial resources, because if the stay were lifted, two trials would have to take place—a trial to liquidate the amount of Plaintiff's claim against Ms. Ho conducted by this Court, followed by a trial to determine whether such claim was non-dischargeable conducted by Judge Montali. See Doc. No. 27, Case No. 18-bk-30581 (audio recording of hearing on Plaintiff's motion to lift the stay).

Chapter 11

On July 20, 2018, Plaintiff commenced a non-dischargeability action against Ms. Ho in the Northern District of California. That action largely mirrors the claims set forth in the instant complaint, but adds additional claims asserting that Ms. Ho's alleged indebtedness is non-dischargeable pursuant to §523(a)(4).

II. Findings and Conclusions

The Plaintiff's action pending in the Northern District of California will (1) establish the amount of the Plaintiff's claim, if any, against Ms. Ho, and will (2) establish whether any such claim is dischargeable. As a result of this parallel litigation, there is no longer any reason for the instant action to proceed. Unless an objection is filed by no later than August 7, 2018, the Court intends to dismiss this action without prejudice. In the event an objection is filed, the Court will determine whether a hearing is required, and the parties will be so notified.

The Court will prepare and enter an appropriate order.

No appearance is required if submitting on the court's tentative ruling. Description of the Plan and Disclosure Statement

The Plan will become effective (the "Effective Date") within 60 days after the date of entry of the Confirmation Order.

The Plan's includes "Unclassified Claims" as follows:

- 1) Administrative Priority Claims: these claims include (i) professional fees and costs; and (ii) United States Trustee's fees. Such claims shall be paid in full on, or as soon as practicable after the Effective Date or upon allowance of such claim, whichever is later.
- 2) Unclassified Priority Claims/Priority Tax Claims: Unsecured Claims of Governmental Units entitled to priority under § 507(a)(8). These claims will be paid in full on the Effective Date unless the Debtor files an objection to such claim prior to the Effective Date. The Debtors are not aware of any Unclassified Priority Claims at this time.

The Plan's classification scheme for Claims and Interests is as follows:

- 1) Class 1: Secured Tax Claims Against the Rideshare Debtor: this class includes allowed secured tax claims against the Rideshare Debtor. Class

Each holder of a Class 1 Claim will be paid in the amount of the allowed claim pursuant to one of the three alternative treatments set forth in the Plan.
 - 3) Class 3: Convenience Claims: Class 3 consists of Convenience Claims (as that term is defined in the Plan and Disclosure Statement) against the Debtors. Class 3 is impaired under the Plan and entitled to vote on the Plan.
 - 4) Class 4: Allowed Claims of the Holders of General Unsecured Claims Against the Rideshare Debtor: Class 4 excludes (i) disputed employment claims; (ii) general unsecured claims that qualify and elect treatment in Class 3; and/or (iii) general unsecured claims that qualify for treatment in Classes 5, 6, and/or 7. The Debtors' estimate of the amount of the Class 4 Claims is $277,057.00. Holders of Class 4 Claims are impaired under the Plan. After the Effective Date, the Holders of Class 4 Claims will receive one of either: (a) net proceeds of the New Value Contribution; (b) quarterly plan payments; (c) unused proceeds of the Class 4 Plan Reserve Account; or (d) liquidation value/final payment.
 - 5) Class 5: Allowed Claims of the Holders of General Unsecured Claims Against the Red Booth Debtor: Class 5 excludes (i) disputed employment claims; (ii) general unsecured claims that qualify and elect treatment in Class 3; and/or (iii) general unsecured claims that qualify for treatment in Classes 4, 6, and/or 7. The Debtors' estimate of the amount of the Class 5 Claims is $31,275.00. Holders of Class 5 Claims are impaired under the Plan. After the Effective Date, the Holders of Class 5 Claims will receive one of either: (a) net proceeds of the New Value Contribution; (b) quarterly plan payments; (c) unused proceeds of the Class 5 Plan Reserve Account; or (d) liquidation value/final payment.

The Debtors anticipate that there will have approximately $44,281.21 in unrestricted cash on the Effective Date.

The plan's risk factors, as detailed in the Disclosure Statement, include the risk that the Debtor's projections of its income and expenses between the date of the Disclosure Statement and the date of the proposed distributions may prove to be overly optimistic.

Opposition

On March 22, 2018, Kaushaal Laxmee, Gary Oganesian, Alex Licterman and Howard Miller (collectively, the "Creditors") filed the "Opposition to Joint Disclosure Statement Describing Plan of Reorganization" (the "Opposition") [Rideshare Doc. No. 67]. The Opposition contends that the Disclosure Statement is inadequate in the following respects:

- (1) The Disclosure Statement does not provide any information as to the amount or source of the New Value Contribution;
- (2) The Disclosure Statement does not provide information as to the procedure for determining disputed claims, including Creditors' claims;
- (3) The Disclosure Statement references exhibits which have not been filed;
- (4) The Disclosure Statement separately classifies unsecured "Disputed Employment Claims" from other general unsecured claims, which is impermissible gerrymandering;
- (5) The Plan provides for an impermissible waiver of creditor rights against non-debtor parties; and
- (6) The Disclosure Statement, as a whole, lacks material information for unsecured creditors to make an informed judgment on whether to vote for or against the Plan; the Disclosure Statement's description of the class treatments is ambiguous and renders it impossible for the Creditors to know what the payout will be or the source of funds, and it is thus impossible to determine whether the treatment of insider unsecured claims will violate the absolute priority rule.

Therefore, the Opposition request that the Court deny approval of the Disclosure Statement.

Section 1125 requires a disclosure statement to contain "information of a kind, and in sufficient detail, as far as is reasonably practicable in light of the nature and history of the debtor and the condition of the debtor's books and records . . . that would enable. . . a hypothetical investor of the relevant class to make an informed judgment about the plan." In determining whether a disclosure statement provides adequate information, "the court shall consider the complexity of the case, the benefit of additional information to creditors and other parties in interest, and the cost of providing additional information." 11 U.S.C. § 1125(a). Courts interpreting § 1125(a) have explained that the "primary purpose of a disclosure statement is to give the creditors the information they need to decide whether to accept the plan." In re Monnier Bros., 755 F.2d 1336, 1342 (8th Cir. 1985). "According to the legislative history, the parameters of what constitutes adequate information are intended to be flexible." In re Diversified Investors Fund XVII, 91 B.R. 559, 560 (Bankr. C.D. Relevant factors for evaluating the adequacy of a disclosure statement may include: (1) the events which led to the filing of a bankruptcy petition; (2) a description of the available assets and their value; (3) the anticipated future of the company; (4) the source of information stated in the disclosure statement; (5) a disclaimer; (6) the present condition of the debtor while in Chapter 11; (7) the scheduled claims; (8) the estimated return to creditors under a Chapter 7 liquidation; (9) the accounting method utilized to produce financial information and the name of the accountants responsible for such information; (10) the future management of the debtor; (11) the Chapter 11 plan or a summary thereof; (12) the estimated administrative expenses, including attorneys' and accountants' fees; (13) the collectability of accounts receivable; (14) financial information, data, valuations or projections relevant to the creditors' decision to accept or reject the Chapter 11 plan; (15) information relevant to the risks posed to creditors under the plan; (16) the actual or projected realizable value from recovery of preferential or otherwise voidable transfers; (17) litigation likely to arise in a nonbankruptcy context; (18) tax attributes of the debtor; and (19) the relationship of the debtor with affiliates.

In re Metrocraft Pub. Services, Inc., 39 B.R. 567, 568 (Bankr. Ga. 1984). However, "[d]isclosure of all factors is not necessary in every case." Id.

Here, the Court finds that the Disclosure Statement fails to satisfy the following relevant Metrocraft factors: (2) a description of the available assets and their value; (4) the source of information stated in the disclosure statement; (6) the present condition of the debtor while in Chapter 11; (7) the scheduled claims; (8) the estimated return to creditors under a Chapter 7 liquidation; (14) financial information, data, valuations or projections relevant to the creditors' decision to accept or reject the Chapter 11 Plan; and (15) information relevant to the risks posed to creditors under the Plan.

Among other deficiencies, the Disclosure Statement: (a) does not provide adequate information regarding the specific identities of the "Plan Funders," the amount of the contemplated New Value Contribution, or state whether the New Value Contribution has been exposed to the market; (b) provides for interest holders in Class 8 to retain their interests due to the New Value Contribution, but does not provide a valuation offered for those interests; (c) does not specify the interest rate that is being used to bring the present value equal to the liquidation value, where applicable; (d) references omitted exhibits which are material to the adequacy of the Disclosure Statement (e.g., the procedure for estimating or allowing disputed claims) and which, contrary to their stated intent in the Disclosure Statement, the Debtors have not filed prior to this hearing; (e) does not adequately describe the class treatments or detail the anticipated pay outs to respective classes, which makes it impossible for voting claimholders to assess whether the treatment of insider unsecured claims will violate the absolute priority rule; and (f) does not adequately detail the effect of, among other things, election to participate in the Plan Trust.

The Court notes that, in other filings in their respective cases and in the related Rideshare Adversary Proceeding (Adv. Case. No. 2:17-ap-01530-ER), the Debtors have stated their intent to file a First Amended Joint Plan and Joint Disclosure Statement. See, e.g., "Motion to Extend Exclusivity Period" [Rideshare Doc. For the reasons set forth above, the Court DENIES the Motion for Approval of the Disclosure Statement. The Disclosure Statement does not contain adequate information. I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

On February 21, 2018 (the "Petition Date"), Korean Airlines Co., Ltd. ("Korean Airlines"), Asiana Airlines, Inc. ("Asiana Airlines"), and Sunjin Logistics Co., Ltd. ("Sunjin Logistics") (collectively, the "Petitioning Creditors") commenced this involuntary Chapter 7 petition against Raymond Express International, LLC ("Raymond Express"). The Involuntary Petition alleges that the Petitioning Creditors are indebted to Raymond Express in the total amount of $2,630,313, as follows:

- 1) Korean Airlines—owed $1,104,655 on account of freight charges.
- 2) Asiana Airlines—owed $1,441,566 on account of freight charges.
- 3) Sunjin Logistics—owed $84,082 on account of freight charges.

On March 16, 2018, Raymond Express answered the Involuntary Petition. In its Answer, Raymond Express asserted that (1) the Petitioning Creditors were ineligible to file the Involuntary Petition because the Petitioning Creditors' claims were contingent as to liability and/or the subject of a bona fide dispute as to liability and amount; that (2) Raymond Express was generally paying its undisputed debts as they became due as of the Petition Date; and that (3) the interests of creditors and Raymond Express would be better served by dismissal or suspension of the case.

On April 10, 2018, after having conducted a Status Conference, the Court entered a Scheduling Order [Doc. No. 12] setting litigation deadlines governing trial on the Involuntary Petition, and ordered the parties to mediation. On April 27, 2018, the Court entered an order assigning the matter to the Mediation Panel. Doc. No. 20. The parties scheduled mediation for June 14, 2018, see Scott Lee Decl. at ¶11; the record does not reflect whether the mediation took place or what the results were.

Petitioning Creditors move for summary judgment, contending that the undisputed facts necessitate entry of an order for relief against Raymond Express. Raymond Express has not filed an Opposition to the Motion.

II. Findings and Conclusions

Summary judgment is appropriate "if the movant shows that there is no genuine dispute as to any material facts and the movant is entitled to judgment as a matter of law." Civil Rule 56 (made applicable to these proceedings by Bankruptcy Rule 7056). The moving party has the burden of establishing the absence of a genuine issue of material fact and that it is entitled to judgment as a matter of law. Celotex Corp. v. Catrett, 477 U.S. 317, 323 (1986). "[S]ummary judgment will not lie if the dispute about a material fact is 'genuine,' that is, if the evidence is such that a reasonable jury could return a verdict for the nonmoving party." Anderson v. Liberty Lobby, Inc., 477 U.S. 242, 248 (1986). "A fact is 'material' only if it might affect the outcome of the case[.]" Fresno Motors, LLC v. Mercedes Benz USA, LLC, 771 F.3d 1119, 1125 (9th Cir. 2014). If the moving party shows the absence of a genuine issue of material fact, the nonmoving party must "go beyond the pleadings and by her own affidavits, or by the 'depositions, answers to interrogatories, and admissions on file,' designate 'specific facts showing that there is a genuine issue for trial.'" Celotex, 477 U.S. at 324 (quoting Fed. R. Civ. P. 56(e)). The court is "required to view all facts and draw all reasonable inferences in favor of the nonmoving party" when reviewing the Motion. Brosseau v. Haugen, 543 U.S. 194, 195 n.2 (2004).

thereof, and the pleadings on file, the Court finds that there is no genuine dispute as to the following material facts [Note 1]:

- 1) Raymond Express is a broker in the business of providing logistics services to clients in need of transportation, supply chain distribution, and shipping services. Raymond Express' services help its clients ship produce and other perishable items. Raymond Express conducts business in the United States, Australia, and Asia. Scott Lee Decl. at ¶14 and Ex. 9.
- 2) The Petitioning Creditors are Korean businesses operating in the United States and in South Korea who have provided cargo and freight services to Raymond Express for many years. Scott Lee Decl. at ¶2.
- 3) From about 1983 to the Petition Date, Raymond Express retained Korean Airlines to transport goods (primarily produce products). Chon Decl. at ¶5.
- 4) Until August 2017, Raymond Express paid Korean Airlines for the transportation services that Korean Airlines provided. Chon Decl. at ¶6.
- 5) As of September 28, 2017, Raymond Express owed Korean Airlines $1,104,655.05, evidenced by outstanding cargo sales invoices. Chon Decl. at ¶¶8–12, Exs. 14–17. Such indebtedness is not in bona fide dispute as to liability or amount, and is not contingent as to liability. Raymond Express' indebtedness, and the absence of any bona fide dispute with respect thereto, is established by the invoices authenticated by Michelle Chon, Deputy General Manager of Cargo Revenue Accounting at Korean Airlines, as well as the following facts:
 - a) In September 2017, Korean Airlines contacted Raymond Express regarding its past-due balances. Raymond Express indicated that it was experiencing financial difficulties. Subsequent to September 2017, Raymond Express ignored Korean Airlines' requests for payment, and failed to remit payment. Chon Decl. at ¶¶13–14.
 - b) On September 20, 2017, Chang Hoon Kim, the General Manager of Accounting & Financing at Korean Airlines, attended a meeting at Raymond Express' Los Angeles branch office. At the meeting, Dave Moore, Raymond Express' Executive Vice President, stating that Raymond Express was in the process of shutting down and terminating all employees, and intended to proceed with self-liquidation using the services of a liquidation company called Realization Services, Inc. - d) Prior to the filing of the Answer to the Involuntary Petition, Raymond Express did not inform Mr. Kim, Korean Airlines, or any of Korean Airlines' employees that the amounts due and owing were either contingent or disputed.
- 6) As of February 21, 2018, Raymond Express owed Sunjin Logistics $84,082 on account of outstanding freight charges. Park Decl. at ¶¶ 7–11. Such indebtedness is not in bona fide dispute as to liability or amount, and is not contingent as to liability. Raymond Express' indebtedness, and the absence of any bona fide dispute with respect thereto, is established by the invoices authenticated by Hyundo Park, a senior staff member of Sunjin Logistics, as well as the following facts:
 - a) On August 23, 2017, Mr. Park e-mailed Raymond Express regarding its outstanding indebtedness. Steve Shao of Raymond Express responded, indicating that it would review the invoices and pay the amount due as soon as possible. Park Decl. at ¶7.
 - b) Prior to the filing of the Answer to the Involuntary Petition, Raymond Express did not inform Mr. Park that the amounts due and owing were either contingent or disputed. Park Decl. at ¶9.
- 7) As of February 21, 2018, Raymond Express owed Asiana Airlines $1,441,556 on account of outstanding freight charges. Jee-Woon Lee Decl. at ¶10 and Ex. 13. Such indebtedness is not in bona fide dispute as to liability or amount, and is not contingent as to liability. Raymond Express' indebtedness, and the absence of any bona fide dispute with respect thereto, is established by the invoices authenticated by Jee-Woon Lee, Deputy General Manager for the Regional Headquarters-The Americas for Asiana Airlines, as well as the following facts:
 - a) On September 20, 2017, Jee-Woon Lee e-mailed John Tree, David Moore, and Steve Shao of Raymond Express regarding the outstanding past due amounts owed to Asiana Airlines. Raymond Express responded only that the e-mail account would be suspended and that future inquiries should be directed to a person named Autum. Jee Woon-Lee Decl. at ¶9.
 - b) On several occasions between June 16, 2017 and October 16, 2017, Jee-Woon Lee contacted Barry Kasoff of Raymond Express regarding the outstanding indebtedness. At no time during these communications did

Mr. Kasoff dispute that the amounts due and owing were either contingent or disputed. Jee-Woon Lee Decl. at ¶11.

- 8) As of the commencement of the Involuntary Petition, Raymond Express was not generally paying its debts as such debts became due. This is established by the fact that in addition to the indebtedness owed to the Petitioning Creditors of approximately $2.5 million, four other creditors have filed Proofs of Claim since the commencement of the case. Scott Lee Decl. at ¶12; RJN at Ex. 6. The aggregate debt owed to claimants who have filed proofs of claim is $934,515. Scott Lee Decl. at ¶13; RJN at Ex. 6. Raymond Express' non-payment of its debts is further established by its decision to inform Korean Airlines that it intended to liquidate. See ¶5(b)–(c), above.

B. Based Upon the Undisputed Facts, Petitioning Creditors are Entitled to Entry of an Order for Relief Against Raymond Express

Section 303(b), which governs the commencement of an involuntary petition, provides in relevant part:

An involuntary case against a person is commenced by the filing with the bankruptcy court of a petition under chapter 7 or 11 of this title by three or more entities, each of which is either a holder of a claim against such person that is not contingent as to liability or the subject of a bona fide dispute as to liability or amount, ... if such noncontingent, undisputed claims aggregate at least $15,775 more than the value of any lien on property of the debtor securing such claims held by the holders of such claims.

Where a petition is timely controverted, the court must enter an order for relief against the alleged debtor if, after trial, the court determines that "the debtor is generally not paying such debtor's debts as such debts become due unless such debts are the subject of a bona fide dispute as to liability or amount." § 303(h).

As set forth above, there is no genuine dispute that Raymond Express is indebted to Korean Airlines, Asiana Airlines, and Sunjin Logistics in the aggregate approximate amount of $2.6 million. The indebtedness owed to these three Petitioning Creditors is not contingent as to liability, and is not subject to a bona fide dispute as to liability or amount. Although Raymond Express asserted in its Answer that the debts were contingent and/or subject to a bona fide dispute, Raymond Express has asserted no specific facts in support of this position. Further, prior to the filing of the Answer, Raymond Express never advised any of the Petitioning Creditors that the debts were disputed. The Court finds that there is no genuine dispute that the indebtedness owed the Petitioning Creditors is not contingent or subject to a bona fide dispute.

In addition, based upon the indebtedness owed to the Petitioning Creditors, as well as the claims in the amount of $934,515 asserted by four additional creditors subsequent to the commencement of the case, there is no genuine dispute that Raymond Express is generally not paying its debts as they become due. The fact that Raymond Express advised Korean Airlines that it intended to liquidate its operations is further evidence that it is not paying its debts as they become due.

The Petitioning Creditors have established that they are entitled to entry of an order for relief against Raymond Express. Within fourteen days of the entry of the order for relief, Raymond Express shall file the schedules, documents, and statements set forth in Bankruptcy Rule 1007.

The Court will sign the proposed judgment that has already been lodged by the Petitioning Creditors.

No appearance is required if submitting on the court's tentative ruling. If you intend to submit on the tentative ruling, please contact Cameron Schlagel or Daniel Koontz at 213-894-1522. If you intend to contest the tentative ruling and appear, please first contact opposing counsel to inform them of your intention to do so. Should an opposing party file a late opposition or appear at the hearing, the court will determine whether further hearing is required. If you wish to make a telephonic appearance, contact Court Call at 888-882-6878, no later than one hour before the hearing.

Note 1

The Court has reviewed the Proposed Statement of Uncontroverted Facts and Conclusions of Law in Support of Petitioning Creditors' Motion for Summary Judgment for the Entry of an Order for Relief Against the Alleged Debtor and Exhibits Thereto [Doc. No. 24] (the "SUF"). The Court finds that all statements of undisputed fact set forth in the SUF are adequately established by the exhibits and declaration testimony submitted in connection with the Motion. It being the intent of the Court to find that there is no genuine dispute as to any of the facts set forth in the SUF, no negative inference shall be derived from the omission of any such facts from the abbreviated summation set forth herein.

Chapter 7

First Amended Complaint: (1) For Declaratory Relief; (2) In the Alternative, for Sale of Real Property Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §363(h); (3) For Turnover; (4) For Violation of Automatic Stay; and (5) For Dissolution of Limited Liability Company [Adv. Doc. No. 21] [Note 1] (the "Complaint") against Ronald Peterson ("Ronald") [Note 2] and two limited liability companies—Maitreya, LLC, a Nevada LLC ("Maitreya Nevada") and Maitreya, LLC, an Arizona LLC ("Maitreya Arizona") (Ronald, Maitreya Nevada, and Maitreya Arizona collectively, the "Defendants"). The Complaint sought (1) a declaration that real property located at 359 W. Langston Street, Upland, California 91786 (the "Property") is community property of Anne Lan Peterson (the "Debtor") and Ronald, and therefore property of the estate pursuant to §541(a)(2); (2) turnover of the Property; (3) avoidance of the post-petition transfer of the Property to Maitreya Arizona; and (4) dissolution of Maitreya Nevada pursuant to Nevada Revised Statute §86.495, on the grounds that the Trustee, as Maitreya Nevada's sole owner, is entitled to liquidate the entity.

On February 26, 2018, Ronald, Maitreya Nevada, and Maitreya Arizona filed an Answer to the Complaint. Adv. Doc. No. 42. The Answer asserted four affirmative defenses but did not assert any counterclaims.

On June 6, 2018—the day prior to the hearing on the Trustee's Motion for Summary Judgment with respect to the Complaint's first, third, and fifth claims for relief (the "Motion")—the Court posted, at 12:20 p.m., a tentative ruling indicating its intent to grant the Motion. Approximately eleven hours later, at 11:03 p.m., Ronald filed a Cross-Complaint for (1) Breach of Fiduciary Duty 1; (2) Breach of Fiduciary 2; (3) Breach of Contract; [and] (4) Negligence [Bankr. Doc. No. 64] (the "Purported Cross-Complaint") against the Trustee and the Debtor.

On June 14, 2018, the Court entered summary judgment, in the Trustee's favor, on the Complaint's first, third, and fifth claims for relief (the "Judgment"). The Court found that the filing of the Purported Cross-Complaint was not cause to delay entry of the Judgment. The Court ordered the Defendants to turnover the Property to the Trustee by no later than July 6, 2018, at 5:00 p.m.

Defendants failed to turnover the Property to the Trustee as ordered by the Court. On July 12, 2018, the Court denied Defendants' motion for reconsideration of the Judgment. Adv. Doc. Nos. 96–97. On that same date, the Court directed the Clerk of the Court to issue a Writ of Possession to enforce the Judgment. Adv. Doc. No. 98.

The Purported Cross-Complaint alleges that the Trustee breached his fiduciary duties to Ronald by failing to adequately investigate the Debtor's assets at the time the petition was filed in 2011. The Purported Cross-Complaint alleges that had the Trustee conducted an adequate investigation, he would have discovered the undisclosed Property much sooner, before it had appreciated in value. The Purported Cross-Complaint alleges that this breach of fiduciary duty harmed Ronald by preventing him from negotiating a purchase of the estate's interest in the Property at a lower price. Finally, the Purported Cross-Complaint alleges that the Debtor breached her fiduciary duties to Ronald, and was negligent, by failing to disclose the Property in her bankruptcy schedules; and that the Trustee was negligent by failing to timely discover the undisclosed Property. The Purported Cross-Complaint seeks damages in the amount of $300,000.

On June 18, 2018, the Court issued an order requiring Ronald to appear and show cause why the Court should not (1) construe the Purported Cross-Complaint as a Counter-Complaint, (2) find that the claims asserted in the Counter-Complaint are compulsory, and (3) dismiss the Counter-Complaint as untimely. Adv. Doc. No. 69 (the "Order to Show Cause"). In its Preliminary Findings and Conclusions, the Court first found that the Purported Cross-Complaint was more properly characterized as a Counter-Complaint, because it sought relief against an opposing party (the Trustee), not a co-party. The Court next found that the claims asserted in the Purported Cross-Complaint are compulsory counterclaims, because they arose from the same set of operative facts as the claims asserted in the Complaint.

A. Ronald's Response to the Order to Show Cause

Ronald makes the following arguments in his Response to the Order to Show Cause:

The claims asserted in the Purported Cross-Complaint are not compulsory, because they do not arise from the same set of operative facts as the claims asserted in the Complaint. The Purported Cross-Complaint alleges that (1) the Trustee breached his fiduciary duties to Ronald by failing to conduct an adequate investigation into the Debtor's financial affairs; that (2) the Debtor breached her fiduciary duties to Ronald by disclosing the Property in the divorce proceedings but not disclosing the Property in her bankruptcy schedules; that (3) the Trustee and the Debtor committed gross negligence for the same reasons; and that (4) the Trustee breached a contract between the Trustee and Ronald to sell the Property to Ronald.

The Trustee's Complaint does not rely upon any facts regarding the Trustee's investigation into the Debtor's financial affairs, because these events occurred before the Trustee took any action to administer the Property. The Complaint, unlike the Purported Cross-Complaint, contains no claims against the Debtor, notwithstanding the Debtor's falsification of her bankruptcy schedules. The Purported Cross-Complaint does not seek to challenge the Trustee's administration of estate assets; rather, it challenges the Trustee for his failures during the investigative phase of the Debtor's bankruptcy. These failures occurred before the Trustee decided to administer the Property.

B. The Trustee's Opposition to Ronald's Response

The Trustee makes the following arguments in his Opposition to Ronald's Response:

First, the Response was untimely and should be deemed waived. The Court ordered Ronald to respond to the Order to Show Cause by no later than July 5, 2018; Ronald did not file the Response until July 9, 2018, at 9:50 p.m. This delay reduced the Trustee's time to file an Opposition to the Response from seven days to two days.

Second, the Trustee's Complaint and Ronald's Purported Cross-Complaint are based upon the same aggregate set of operative facts. A counterclaim is compulsory if the facts are "logically related" to the underlying complaint, Pinkstaff v. United States (In re Pinkstaff), 974 F.2d 113, 115 (9th Cir. 1992); it is not necessary that the facts be identical. A complaint and counterclaim will "rarely, if ever," involve exactly the same facts. See Aetna U.S. Healthcare, Inc. v. Madigan (In re Madigan), 270 B.R. 749, 755 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 2001).

The logical relationship test is satisfied here. The facts underlying the Complaint may be briefly summarized as follows: The Debtor and Ronald were married and are now in dissolution proceedings. The Debtor and Ronald acquired the Property, among other assets, during marriage. When the Debtor filed for bankruptcy protection in 2011 she failed to disclose the existence of the Property, among other community property assets, and the bankruptcy case was closed in 2012 without administration of those assets. In 2016, the bankruptcy case was reopened to allow the Trustee to administer the assets. The Trustee's administration led to the filing of this action for declaratory relief that the Property is community property and, therefore, property of the estate, and for turnover thereof. See generally Amended Complaint [Adv. Doc. No. 21].

In the Purported Cross-Complaint, Ronald admits that the Debtor failed to list the Property. Ronald contends that the Trustee's actions in administration of the Debtor's assets resulted in harm to Ronald, arising from alleged breach of contract, breach of fiduciary duty and negligence. Ronald attempts to argue that certain of the Trustee's alleged actions, or alleged inaction, at issue occurred when the Trustee did not discover the community property interests in 2011-2012, before the case was closed, while other alleged faults arose when the Trustee allegedly failed to perform on the purported contract in 2017.

Notwithstanding Ronald's attempt to separate these events, the fact that these assets, particularly the Property, existed as disputed community property interests of the Debtor and Ronald, serve as the fundamental basis, the factual "core," for both the Complaint and the Purported Cross-Complaint. It is because of these basic operative facts that there is a Complaint and a Purported Cross-Complaint. It is the Trustee's effort to administer the assets that resulted in the Complaint, while it is Ronald's allegations regarding the Trustee's administration that give rise to his Purported Cross-Complaint. First to occur was the acquisition of the assets during marriage, next was the Debtor's dissolution proceeding, then her bankruptcy filing, and then subsequently the Trustee's administration, followed by Ronald's claims criticizing that very administration. These facts are clearly and logically related.

Further, the Purported Cross-Complaint is frivolous and was filed in bad faith. Prior to entry of the Order to Show Cause, the Trustee considered seeking sanctions against Ronald pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9011 and 28 U.S.C. §1927. Presently, in light of the Order to Show Cause, the Trustee does not seek sanctions, but reserves his right to do so.

The Purported Cross-Claim's allegation that the Trustee breached his fiduciary duties to Ronald in his administration of the Debtor's case is frivolous. See Wolf v. Kupetz (In re Wolf & Vine, Inc.), 118 B.R. 761, 771 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 1990) (holding that a breach of fiduciary claim against a bankruptcy trustee for bringing a fraudulent transfer action was frivolous). Any suggestion that the Trustee breached any duties by relying upon the Debtor's bankruptcy schedules and sworn testimony at the §341(a) meeting is frivolous on its face because: (1) the Trustee is entitled to rely on the Debtor's sworn testimony; (2) if that were not true, trustees could not fulfill their duties in the numerous cases assigned to them; (3) Ronald had knowledge of the Debtor's nondisclosure for years before notifying the Trustee as a last ditch ploy to gain a tactical advantage the family court; and (4) the Trustee is protected by the doctrine of derived quasi-judicial immunity.

The breach of contract claim is frivolous because it fails to allege acceptance or the exchange of consideration, two basic elements of any contract. The exhibit attached to the Purported Cross-Complaint is itself clear evidence that Ronald never signed the contract, and that the contract expired by its own terms on January 23, 2017 absent Ronald's signature.

The negligence claim is frivolous because to prove negligence, Ronald must show that the Trustee owed him a duty and that the Trustee's breach proximately damaged Ronald. None of these elements are met. The Trustee did not owe a duty to Ronald to investigate the Debtor's assets on his behalf. The Trustee did not breach any duty by relying on the Debtor's schedules and sworn testimony.

II. Findings and Conclusions

At the outset, the Court will consider Ronald's Response, even though was filed four days late. Although the Court does not strike the Response, the untimely filing demonstrates a lack of diligence, imposed an additional burdening upon the Trustee by severely reducing his time to respond, and is not acceptable.

Turning to the merits, Civil Rule 13(g) provides in relevant part (emphasis added):

A pleading may state as a crossclaim any claim by one party against a coparty if the claim arises out of the transaction or occurrence that is the subject matter of the original action or of a counterclaim, or if the claim relates to any property that is the subject matter of the original action.

The Court finds that the Purported Cross-Complaint is more properly characterized as a Counter-Complaint, because the Purported Cross-Complaint seeks relief against the Chapter 7 Trustee. As to Ronald, the Trustee is an opposing party, not a coparty, because Ronald is named as a defendant in the Trustee's Complaint.

The Court finds that the claims asserted in the Purported Cross-Complaint are compulsory counter-claims, because the claims arise from the same transaction or occurrence as the claims asserted in the Complaint. See Pinkstaff v. United States (In re Pinkstaff), 974 F.2d 113, 115 (9th Cir. 1992) (stating that a counterclaim is compulsory if it arises from the same transaction or occurrence as the claims in the underlying complaint). To determine whether claims arise from the same transaction or occurrence, courts rely upon the "logical relationship" test. Id. As the Ninth Circuit has held:

A logical relationship exists when the counterclaim arises from the same aggregate set of operative facts as the initial claim, in that the same operative facts serve as the basis of both claims or the aggregate core of facts upon which the claim rests activates additional legal rights otherwise dormant in the defendant.

Pinkstaff, 974 F.2d at 115.

The Ninth Circuit Bankruptcy Appellate Panel has explained that under the "logical relationship" test, "the word 'transaction' is given a liberal and flexible construction" and "is a word of flexible meaning." Aetna U.S. Healthcare, Inc. v. Madigan (In re Madigan), 270 B.R. 749, 755 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 2001). A "transaction" may "comprehend a series of many occurrences, depending not so much upon the immediateness of their connection as upon their logical relationship." Id. (citing Moore v. New York Cotton Exchange, 270 U.S. 593, 610 (1926)). Further, the phrase "same aggregate set of operative facts" does not mean that there must be identical facts, "since the facts relied upon the plaintiff rarely, if ever, are, in all particulars, the same as those constituting the defendant's counterclaim." Id. (citing Moore, 270 U.S. at 610).

Here, the Trustee's Complaint and Ronald's Purported Cross-Complaint arise from the same set of operative facts and satisfy the logical relationship test. Both the Complaint and Purported Cross-Complaint assert allegations involving the Property and the Debtor and Ronald's interest in the Property. For example, the Complaint alleges that the Trustee is entitled to turnover of the Real Property because it is community property of Ronald and the Debtor. The Purported Cross-Complaint asserts that the Trustee breached his fiduciary duties to Ronald by failing to timely discover the Debtor's undisclosed interest in the Property, even though the Debtor had disclosed a marital dissolution proceeding and had claimed, in the dissolution proceeding, that the Property was community property.

Ronald argues that no logical relationship exists, because the counterclaims he asserts are based upon the Trustee's alleged failures during the investigative phase of the Debtor's bankruptcy, not the Trustee's activities while administering the Property. Ronald's argument overlooks the fact that a transaction may "comprehend a series of many occurrences, depending not so much upon the immediateness of their connection as upon their logical relationship." Aetna, 270 B.R. at 755.

All actions taken by the Trustee with respect to the Property—the Trustee's initial investigation into the Debtor's financial affairs, the Trustee's ultimate discovery of the Property, and the Trustee's decision to administer the Property—were done pursuant to the Trustee's statutory obligation to "collect and reduce to money the property of the estate" §704(a). Under the "liberal" and "flexible" scope afforded to a transaction pursuant to the "logical relationship" test, Aetna, 270 B.R. at 755, all these activities were part of the same transaction—namely, the Trustee's discharge of his obligations to investigate and administer the Debtor's estate. The distinction Ronald draws between the investigative and administrative phases of the Trustee's work disregards the reality that both phases are directed toward the same objective, liquidating the property of the estate. As such, the Trustee's activities are logically related and thus part of the same transaction for purposes of Civil Rule 13.

Because the Purported Cross-Complaint is logically related to the Complaint, the claims asserted in the Purported Cross-Complaint are compulsory counterclaims that Ronald was required to plead at the time he answered the Complaint. See Civil Rule 13(a) (requiring that a compulsory counterclaim be pleaded concurrently with the Answer). Ronald answered the Complaint on February 26, 2018, but did not assert the compulsory counterclaims until June 6, 2018. Consequently, the compulsory counterclaims are untimely and must be dismissed. See Kuschner v. Nationwide Credit, Inc., 256 F.R.D. 684, 689 (E.D. Cal. 2009) ("When a counterclaim is compulsory, it is forfeited if it is not included in the party's pleading, including its answer to a complaint.").

The Court does not address the Trustee's allegations that the Purported Cross-Complaint is frivolous. The Order to Show Cause did not raise these issues; addressing them here would prejudice Ronald.

III. Conclusion

Based upon the foregoing, the Court construes the Purported Cross-Complaint as a Counter-Complaint, finds that the claims asserted in the Counter-Complaint are compulsory, and dismisses the Counter-Complaint as untimely. The Court will prepare and enter an appropriate order.

#100.00 Hearing [1040] Objection to Claim #9,28 by Claimant Los Angeles County Treasurer and Tax Collector. in the amount of $ $240,532.03

Docket 1040

Tentative Ruling:

7/24/2018

Tentative Ruling:

For the reasons set forth below: (1) the Trustee's objection to Claim 9 is SUSTAINED, and Claim 9 is DISALLOWED in its entirety; and (2) the Trustee's objection to Claim 28 is SUSTAINED, and Claim 28 is DISALLOWED in its entirety.

Pleadings Filed and Reviewed:

- 1) Objection to Claim Nos. 9-2 and 28-2 Filed By Los Angeles County Treasurer and Tax Collector (the "Objection") [Doc. No. 1040]
- 2) No opposition on file.

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

Jayampath Dharmasuriya (the "Debtor") filed a voluntary Chapter 11 petition on July 20, 2009 (the "Petition") [Doc. No. 1]. On September 9, 2011, pursuant to the "Order Approving Appointment of a Chapter 11 Trustee" [Doc. No. 186], Jeffrey Golden was appointed as Chapter 11 Trustee (the "Trustee"). On November 2, 2011, upon motion by the Trustee, the Debtor's case was converted to one under Chapter 7 pursuant to the "Order Converting Case to Chapter 7" [Doc. No. 213]. The Trustee accepted appointment as the Chapter 7 Trustee on November 9, 2011. Doc. No. 215.

The Debtor originally scheduled seventeen pieces of real property in which title was held in his name or that of his revocable living trust. Certain of the properties lacked equity and were abandoned by the Trustee, and others were sold by the Trustee.

Additionally, there are two of the Debtor's properties where relief from stay was granted or the property was foreclosed on:

(1) 11526 Simms Ave., Inglewood, CA 90303 was foreclosed on at a trustee's sale held on November 7, 2011; and

(2) Relief from stay was granted as to the real property located at 504 E. Arbor Vitae St., Nos. 1-4, Inglewood, CA 90301, see Doc. No. 144.

On January 3, 2012, LATTC filed the following proofs of claim: (1) Claim No. 9-2 in the fully secured amount of $240,532.03 ("Claim 9"); and (2) Claim No. 28-2 in the fully secured amount of $240,532.03 ("Claim 28").

The Objection

On June 25, 2018, the Trustee filed the "Objection to Claim Nos. 9-2 and 28-2 Filed By Los Angeles County Treasurer and Tax Collector" (the "Objection") [Doc. No. 1040]. The Trustee contends that Claim 9 should be disallowed on the grounds that it is duplicative of Claim 28 and was amended and superseded by Claim 28. The Objections states that: the Claims were filed by the same creditor; the amount of the Claims, the basis of the Claims, and the classification of the Claims is identical; and the Claims attach the same supporting evidence. With respect to Claim 28 (and for the reasons stated above, Claim 9), the Trustee contends that Claim 28 should be disallowed because the properties upon which Claim 28 is based have been abandoned, sold, or otherwise disposed of. Insofar as Claim 28 relates to certain of the Abandoned Properties and/or properties that the secured lender obtained relief from stay on, the Trustee did not administer the properties, and Claim 28 is not secured by a lien on property in which the Estate has an interest. Insofar as Claim 28 relates to the Sold Properties, the LATTC was paid in full from escrow; therefore, the LATTC does not have an enforceable claim against the Estate. In sum, the Trustee requests that Claim 28 be disallowed because it is not a secured claim pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 506(a), no unsecured deficiency claim was filed, and certain of the liens were paid in full through sales; therefore, the LATTC does not have an enforceable claim against the Estate pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 502(b)(1).

No opposition is on file.

II. Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law

Pursuant to LBR 9013-1(h), LBR 3007-1(b)(3)(B), and LBR 3007-1(b)(6), the failure of the Claimant to file a timely response to the Objection is grounds for granting the relief requested by the Movant. Given the Claimant's failure to file a response, the Court treats this as consent to granting the relief requested by the Movant.

A proof of claim executed and filed in accordance with the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure constitutes prima facie evidence of the validity and amount of the claim. Fed. R. Bankr. P. 3001(f). "The filing of an objection to a proof of claim 'creates a dispute which is a contested matter' within the meaning of Bankruptcy Rule 9014 and must be resolved after notice and opportunity for hearing upon a motion for relief." Lundell v. Anchor Const. Specialists, Inc., 223 F.3d 1035, 1039 (9th Cir. 2000) (citing Adv. Comm. Notes to Fed. R. Bankr. P. 9014). Upon objection, the proof of claim provides "some evidence as to its validity and amount" and carries over a "mere formal objection." Id. The objector must produce sufficient evidence "tending to defeat the claim by probative force equal to that of the allegations in the proofs of claim themselves." Id. (quoting Wright v. Holm (In re Holm), 931 F.2d 620, 623 (9th Cir.1991)). The claim itself can be used as evidence to rebut the prima facie validity where the objector's contention is that the claim is facially defective and insufficient as a matter of law. See In re Circle J Dairy, Inc., 112 B.R. 297, 299-301 (Bankr. W.D. Ark. 1989). The claimant must "prove the validity of the claim by a preponderance of the evidence. The ultimate burden of persuasion remains at all times upon the claimant." Id. Bankruptcy Code § 502(b) sets forth nine bases for a claim to be disallowed. To the extent that a claim falls within any of these paragraphs, upon proper objection, the Court will disallow the claim. Under § 502(b) (1), the court shall disallow a claim if "such claim is unenforceable against the debtor and property of the debtor, under any agreement or applicable law for a reason other than because such claim is contingent or unmatured[.]"

Here, the Court finds that Claim 9 and Claim 28 were sufficiently filed in accordance with FRBP 3001; therefore, the Claims are presumed valid. The Court finds, however, that the Trustee has satisfied his burden of presenting factual evidence that defeats the presumption of validity of the Claims.

The Court finds that Claim 9 is duplicative of, and was superseded by Claim 28; therefore, the Trustee's objection to Claim 9 is SUSTAINED, and Claim 9 is DISALLOWED in its entirety.

Furthermore, the Court finds that Claim 28 is not an enforceable claim against the Estate pursuant to § 502(b)(1) because, insofar as the Claim relates to the Abandoned Properties, the Sold Properties, or the property on which relief from stay was granted the secured lender, Claim 28 is not a secured claim pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 506(a), no unsecured deficiency claim was filed, and certain of the liens upon which Claim 28 is based were paid in full through sales. Therefore, the Trustee's objection to Claim 28 is SUSTAINED, and Claim 28 is DISALLOWED in its entirety.

III. Conclusion

Based on the foregoing: (1) the Trustee's objection to Claim 9 is SUSTAINED, and Claim 9 is DISALLOWED in its entirety; and (2) the Trustee's objection to Claim 28 is SUSTAINED, and Claim 28 is DISALLOWED in its entirety.

The Trustee shall lodge a conforming order incorporating this tentative ruling within seven (7) days of the hearing.

For the reasons set forth below, the Trustee's objection to Claim 14 is SUSTAINED, and Claim 14 is DISALLOWED in its entirety.

Pleadings Filed and Reviewed:

- 1) Objection to Claim No. 14 Filed By Jayantha Sunila Rillagodage (the "Objection") [Doc. No. 1032]

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

Jayampath Dharmasuriya (the "Debtor") filed a voluntary Chapter 11 petition on July 20, 2009 (the "Petition") [Doc. No. 1]. On September 9, 2011, pursuant to the "Order Approving Appointment of a Chapter 11 Trustee" [Doc. No. 186], Jeffrey Golden was appointed as Chapter 11 Trustee (the "Trustee"). Kodituwakku against the Debtor, among other cross-defendants. On November 16, 2009, the Claimant filed Claim No. 14 in the amount of $95,000.00 ("Claim 14"). On December 24, 2009, the Debtor filed the "Motion to Approve Compromise of Controversy" [Doc. No. 67], which sought approval of a settlement agreement entered into between the Debtor, the Claimant, and Kodituwakku (the "Settlement Agreement"). On March 12, 2010, the terms of the Settlement Agreement were approved pursuant to "Order Granting Motion to Approve Compromise" (the "Settlement Order") [Doc. No. 90]. Pursuant to the Settlement Order, the Claimant released all of her claims against the Debtor under the terms of the Settlement Agreement.

The Objection

On June 19, 2018, the Trustee filed the "Objection to Claim No. 14 Filed By Jayantha Sunila Rillagodage" (the "Objection") [Doc. No. 1032]. The Trustee contends that Claim 14 should be disallowed on the grounds that, pursuant to the Settlement Order and the terms of the Settlement Agreement, the Claimant released all her claims against the Debtor, and, therefore, the Claimant does not have an enforceable claim against the Estate pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 502(b)(1).

upon motion by the Trustee, the Debtor's case was converted to one under Chapter 7 pursuant to the "Order Converting Case to Chapter 7" [Doc. No. 213]. The Trustee accepted appointment as the Chapter 7 Trustee on November 9, 2011. Doc. No. 215.

The Debtor originally scheduled seventeen pieces of real property in which title was held in his name or that of his revocable living trust. Certain of the properties lacked equity and were abandoned by the Trustee, and others were sold by the Trustee.

One of the properties owned by the Debtor was located at 6476 W. 81st Street, Los Angeles, CA 90045 (the "81st Street Property"), although as of the Petition Date, title was held by Donald Eller ("Eller") pursuant to a grant deed recorded on June 25, 2009. A dispute between Eller and the Trustee emerged regarding ownership of the 81st Street Property. The Trustee and Eller eventually agreed to the terms of a settlement agreement (the "Settlement Agreement"), and on April 26, 2013, the Trustee filed the "Motion to Approve Settlement Agreement Between the Chapter 7 Trustee and Donald H. Eller" [Doc. No. 577]. On June 7, 2013, the terms of the Settlement Agreement were approved pursuant to the "Order Granting Motion to Approve Settlement Agreement Between the Chapter 7 Trustee and Donald H. Eller" (the "Settlement Order") [Doc. No. 600]. Pursuant to the Settlement Order, and under the terms of the Settlement Agreement, the Trustee waived and released all ownership claims of the Estate to the 81st Street Property.

The Debtor's Schedules additionally listed certain real property located at 818 E. 65th St., Inglewood, CA 90302 (the "65th Street Property," and together with the 81st Street Property, the "Properties"). On October 23, 2012, the Trustee filed the "Motion for Order Authorizing Abandonment of Real Property of the Estate Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 554 and Retention of Rents" (the "Motion to Abandon") [Doc. No. 501]. On January 7, 2013, pursuant to the "Order Granting Motion to Abandon" [Doc. No. 544], the Trustee received authorization to abandon the 65th Street Property.

On November 5, 2009, CitiMortgage, Inc. (the "Claimant") filed Claim No. 10 in the amount of $73,749.65 ("Claim 10"), which claim was purportedly secured by the 81st Street Property. On December 11, 2009, the Claimant filed Claim No. 16 in the amount of $77,210.61 ("Claim 16," and together with Claim 10, the "Claims"), which claim was purportedly secured by the 61st Street Property.

Pursuant to LBR 9013-1(h), LBR 3007-1(b)(3)(B), and LBR 3007-1(b)(6), the failure of the Claimant to file a timely response to the Objection is grounds for granting the relief requested by the Movant. Given the Claimant's failure to file a response, the Court treats this as consent to granting the relief requested by the Movant.

A proof of claim executed and filed in accordance with the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure constitutes prima facie evidence of the validity and amount of the claim. Fed. R. Bankr. P. 3001(f). "The filing of an objection to a proof of claim 'creates a dispute which is a contested matter' within the meaning of Bankruptcy Rule 9014 and must be resolved after notice and opportunity for hearing upon a motion for relief." Lundell v. Anchor Const. Specialists, Inc., 223 F.3d 1035, 1039 (9th Cir. 2000) (citing Adv. Comm. Notes to Fed. R. Bankr. P. 9014). Upon objection, the proof of claim provides "some evidence as to its validity and amount" and carries over a "mere formal objection." Id. The objector must produce sufficient evidence "tending to defeat the claim by probative force equal to that of the allegations in the proofs of claim themselves." Id. (quoting Wright v. Holm (In re Holm), 931 F.2d 620, 623 (9th Cir.1991)). The claim itself can be used as evidence to rebut the prima facie validity where the objector's contention is that the claim is facially defective and insufficient as a matter of law. See In re Circle J Dairy, Inc., 112 B.R. 297, 299-301 (Bankr. W.D. Ark. 1989). The claimant must "prove the validity of the claim by a preponderance of the evidence. The ultimate burden of persuasion remains at all times upon the claimant." Id. Bankruptcy Code § 502(b) sets forth nine bases for a claim to be disallowed. To the extent that a claim falls within any of these paragraphs, upon proper objection, the Court will disallow the claim. Under § 502(b) (1), the court shall disallow a claim if "such claim is unenforceable against the debtor and property of the debtor, under any agreement or applicable law for a reason other than because such claim is contingent or unmatured[.]"

Here, the Court finds that the Claims were sufficiently filed in accordance with FRBP 3001; therefore, the Claims are presumed valid. The Court finds, however, that the Trustee has satisfied his burden of presenting factual evidence that defeats the presumption of validity of the Claims.

The Court finds that, pursuant to the Settlement Order, the terms of the Settlement Agreement, and the Order Granting Motion to Abandon, the Claims are not secured by property of the Estate, and, therefore, the Claims are not enforceable claims against the Estate pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 502(b)(1). The Trustee's objections to Claim 10 and Claim 16, respectively, are SUSTAINED, and the Claims are DISALLOWED in their entirety.

III. Conclusion

Based on the foregoing, the Trustee's objections to Claim 10 and Claim 16, respectively, are SUSTAINED, and the Claims are DISALLOWED in their entirety.

The Trustee shall lodge a conforming order incorporating this tentative ruling within seven (7) days of the hearing.

No appearance is required if submitting on the court's tentative ruling. Adv#: 2:16-01217 Garcia et al v. Fernandez

#1.00 HearingRE: [69] Motion For Summary Judgment; memorandum of point and authorities in support; exhibits; and declaration of Adrian M. Baca.

Docket 69

Tentative Ruling:

7/25/2018

For the reasons set forth below, the Motion is GRANTED.

Pleadings Filed and Reviewed:

1) Plaintiff's Motion for Summary Judgment [Doc. No. 69] (the "Motion")

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

Zeferino Garcia and Maria Francisco (the "Plaintiffs") move for summary judgment against Elma Fernandez ("Defendant"). After the Court lifted the automatic stay in Defendant's bankruptcy case, Plaintiffs obtained a judgment against Defendant in the Los Angeles Superior Court (the "State Court Judgment"). The State Court Judgment provides in relevant part:

The court found plaintiffs were libeled, by defendant Elma Fernandez, on the following causes of action: 3rd, 6th, 7th, 11th, 13th and 15th. The court found that Elma Fernandez acted willfully and with oppression.

The court found in favor of plaintiffs against Elma Fernandez and awarded damages to Plaintiffs as follows:

Zeferino Garcia, non-economic damages: $25,000.00

Zeferino Garcia, punitive damages: $1,000.00

Maria Francisco, non-economic damages: $25,000.00

Maria Francisco, punitive damages: $1,000.00

Total award of Damages against Elma Fernandez: $52,000.00

Judgment on General Verdict [Doc. No. 69, Ex. A].

The State Court found that Defendant libeled Plaintiffs by publishing various false statements on Facebook. As to Plaintiff Maria Francisco, those statements included that Ms. Francisco had committed immigration and Medi-Cal fraud, and had defrauded the State of California by obtaining benefits to which she was not entitled under the Women, Infants, and Children ("WIC") program (WIC provides food aid to new mothers, infants, and children under age five). As to Plaintiff Zeferino Garcia, those statements included that Mr. Garcia forced his female employees to work late at night and early in the morning so that he could sexually abuse them and embezzled funds that had been raised to support the local community.

Plaintiffs now seek summary judgment in this §523(a)(6) dischargeability action. Plaintiffs assert that Defendant is precluded from contesting the findings made by the State Court, and that those findings establish Defendant's liability under §523(a)(6).

No opposition to the Motion is on file.

II. Findings and Conclusions

A. Defendant Has Received Adequate Notice of the Motion

Plaintiffs served Defendant at her last known address. On April 11, 2018, the Court granted Defendant's counsel's motion to withdraw from representation. See Order Granting Counsel's Motion to Withdraw From Representation [Doc. No. 67] (the "Withdrawal Order"). In the Withdrawal Order, the Court found that service upon Defendant's last known address "shall be deemed to constitute adequate notice and service of the MSJ." Withdrawal Order at ¶2. The Court reiterates its previous findings concerning service:

The Court acknowledges that counsel's attempts to communicate with Defendant at her last known address have been unsuccessful.

However, as the Ninth Circuit has held, "[a] party, not the ... court, bears the burden of keeping the court apprised of any changes in his mailing address." Carey v. King, 856 F.2d 1439, 1441 (9th Cir. 1998). A party's obligation to keep the Court apprised of her current address is reiterated in the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the "Bankruptcy Rules") and the Local Bankruptcy Rules ("LBR"). Specifically, Bankruptcy Rule 4002(a)(5) provides that the Debtor "shall file a statement of any change of the debtor's address." Local Bankruptcy Rule ("LBR") 1002-1(a)(2) reiterates this obligation: "Using the court-approved form, pursuant to FRBP 4002(a)(5), a debtor must file and serve a change of address each time a debtor's street address or post office box changes."

Here, the Debtor chose to voluntarily subject herself to the Bankruptcy Court's jurisdiction in order to obtain a Chapter 7 discharge. Despite receiving the benefits of the discharge, the Debtor has failed to comply with her corresponding obligation to keep the Court apprised of her current address. The Debtor cannot invoke the Court's jurisdiction, obtain the benefit of the discharge injunction, but then escape liability in the instant non-discharge ability action by failing to update her address. Therefore, notwithstanding the fact that mail sent to the Debtor's most recent address has been returned as undeliverable, the Court will deem service of process upon that address as sufficient for purposes of this action.

Withdrawal Order at ¶2.

B. Plaintiffs Are Entitled to Summary Judgment

Summary judgment is appropriate "if the movant shows that there is no genuine dispute as to any material facts and the movant is entitled to judgment as a matter of law." Civil Rule 56 (made applicable to these proceedings by Bankruptcy Rule 7056). The moving party has the burden of establishing the absence of a genuine issue of material fact and that it is entitled to judgment as a matter of law. Celotex Corp. v. Catrett, 477 U.S. 317, 323 (1986). "[S]ummary judgment will not lie if the dispute about a material fact is 'genuine,' that is, if the evidence is such that a reasonable jury could return a verdict for the nonmoving party." Anderson v. Liberty Lobby, Inc., 477 U.S. 242, 248 (1986). "A fact is 'material' only if it might affect the outcome of the case[.]" Fresno Motors, LLC v. Mercedes Benz USA, LLC, 771 F.3d 1119, 1125 (9th Cir. 2014). If the moving party shows the absence of a genuine issue of material fact, the nonmoving party must "go beyond the pleadings and by her own affidavits, or by the 'depositions, answers to interrogatories, and admissions on file,' designate 'specific facts showing that there is a genuine issue for trial.'" Celotex, 477 U.S. at 324 (quoting Fed. R. Civ. P. 56(e)). The court is "required to view all facts and draw all reasonable inferences in favor of the nonmoving party" when reviewing the Motion. Brosseau v. Haugen, 543 U.S. 194, 195 n.2 (2004).

To determine the preclusive effect of an existing state court judgment, the "bankruptcy court must apply the forum state's law of issue preclusion." Plyam v. Precision Development, LLC (In re Plyam), 530 B.R. 452, 462 (9th Cir. BAP 2015). California preclusion law requires that:

- 1) The issue sought to be precluded from relitigation is identical to that decided in a former proceeding;
- 2) The issue was actually litigated in the former proceeding;
- 3) The issue was necessarily decided in the former proceeding;
- 4) The decision in the former proceeding is final and on the merits; and

- 5) The party against whom preclusion is sought was the same as, or in privity with, the party to the former proceeding.

Lucido v. Super. Ct., 795 P.2d 1223, 1225 (Cal. 1990).

Even if all five elements are satisfied, preclusion is appropriate "only if application of preclusion furthers the public policies underlying the doctrine." Harmon v. Kobrin (In re Harmon), 250 F.3d 1240, 1245 (9th Cir. 2001) (citing Lucido v. Super. Ct., 795 P.2d at 1225). In California, the public policies supporting preclusion are "preservation of the integrity of the judicial system, promotion of judicial economy, and protection of litigants from harassment by vexatious litigation." Lucido, 795 P.2d at 1227.

As set forth below, the Court finds that all five elements of issue preclusion are satisfied.

Element 1: The Issues Are Identical

"Section 523(a)(6) excepts from discharge debts arising from a debtor's 'willful and malicious' injury to another person or to the property of another. The 'willful' and 'malicious' requirements are conjunctive and subject to separate analysis." Plyam v. Precision Development, LLC (In re Plyam), 530 B.R. 456, 463 (9th Cir. B.A.P. 2015) (internal citations omitted).

An injury is "willful" when "a debtor harbors 'either subjective intent to harm, or a subjective belief that harm is substantially certain.' The injury must be deliberate or intentional, 'not merely a deliberate or intentional act that leads to injury.'" Id. at 463 (internal citations omitted). When determining intent, there is a presumption that the debtor knows the natural consequences of her actions. Ormsby v. First Am. Title Co. of Nevada (In re Ormsby), 591 F.3d 1199, 1206 (9th Cir. 2010). An injury is "malicious" if it "involves '(1) a wrongful act, (2) done intentionally, (3) which necessarily causes injury, and (4) is done without just cause or excuse.'" Carrillo v. Su (In re Su), 290 F.3d 1140, 1146–47 (9th Cir. 2002) (internal citations omitted). "Within the plain meaning of this definition, it is the wrongful act that must be committed intentionally rather than the injury itself." Jett v. Sicroff (In re Sicroff), 401 F.3d 1101, 1106 (9th Cir. 2005).

The State Court Judgment precludes Defendant from contesting that she committed "willful and malicious injury" to Plaintiffs within the meaning of §523(a)(6). The State Court found that Defendant knowingly published on Facebook false statements with respect to the Plaintiffs, and that in publishing these statements, Defendant "acted willfully and with oppression." The State Court found that Defendant's conduct was sufficiently egregious to support an award of punitive damages.

As to Plaintiff Maria Francisco, the false statements included that Ms. Francisco had committed immigration and Medi-Cal fraud, and had defrauded the State of California by obtaining benefits to which she was not entitled under the Women, Infants, and Children ("WIC") program (WIC provides food aid to new mothers, infants, and children under age five). As to Plaintiff Zeferino Garcia, the false statements included that Mr. Garcia forced his female employees to work late at night and early in the morning so that he could sexually abuse them and embezzled funds that had been raised to support the local community.

Defendant is precluded from contesting that in publishing these statements, she intended to inflict injury upon the Plaintiffs, or knew that injury was substantially certain. As noted, in determining intent, there is a presumption that the Defendant knows the natural consequences of her actions. See Ormsby v. First Am. Title Co. of Nevada (In re Ormsby), 591 F.3d 1199, 1206 (9th Cir. 2010) (explaining that the defendant "is charged with the knowledge of the natural consequences of [her] actions"). The Defendant's decision to publish, in a tight-knit community, accusations that Plaintiff Francisco committed various types of fraud and accusations that Plaintiff Zeferino sexually abused employees and embezzled fundraising proceeds, establishes that Defendant held a subjective intent to inflict reputational, emotional, and psychological injury upon the Plaintiffs, or at the very least, knew that such injury was substantially certain.

This determination is not inconsistent with Carrillo v. Sue (In re Su), 290 F.3d 1140 (9th Cir. 2002). In In re Su, the debtor/defendant sped into an intersection against a red light, traveling 37 miles per hour in a 25-mile-per-hour zone, nearly five seconds after the light had turned red. Id. at 1141. The debtor/defendant crashed into a car and then careened into a pedestrian, severely injuring her. Id. After the debtor/defendant sought bankruptcy protection, the injured pedestrian sued for a determination that the damages arising from the crash were non-dischargeable. The bankruptcy court determined that the debtor/defendant had acted willfully because there was, by an objective standard, a substantial certainty of harm when the debtor/defendant drove his van through a red light at an intersection known to be heavily congested with traffic. Id. at 1142.

Reversing and remanding, the Ninth Circuit held that the bankruptcy court erred by applying an objective standard to determine "willfulness." The Ninth Circuit held:

By its very terms, the objective standard disregards the particular debtor's state of mind and considers whether an objective, reasonable person would have known that the actions in question were substantially certain to injure the creditor. In its application, this standard looks very much like the "reckless disregard" standard used in negligence. That the Bankruptcy Code's legislative history makes it clear that Congress did not intend § 523(a)(6)'s willful injury requirement to be applied so as to render nondischargeable any debt incurred by reckless behavior, reinforces application of the subjective standard. The subjective standard correctly focuses on the debtor's state of mind and precludes application of § 523(a)(6)'s nondischargeability provision short of the debtor's actual knowledge that harm to the creditor was substantially certain.

Su, 290 F.3d at 1145–46.

The Su court stated that in assessing the debtor/defendant's state of mind, it was "not suggesting that a court must simply take a debtor's word for his statement of mind." Id. at 1145, n. 6. Rather, the court was free to "consider circumstantial evidence that tends to establish what the debtor must have actually known when taking the injury-producing action." Id.

Here, it is clear that in publishing the libelous statements, the Defendant intended to injure the Plaintiffs, or at the very least knew that injury to the Plaintiffs was substantially certain. As noted previously, Plaintiffs and Defendant both lived in a small, tight-knit community. Defendant published on Facebook accusations that Plaintiff Francisco defrauded the government and that Plaintiff Zeferino sexually abused his employees, when Defendant knew these accusations were false. The circumstantial evidence is sufficient to show that Defendant intended to inflict reputational, emotional, and psychological injury upon the Plaintiffs, or was substantially certain that such injury would occur. The State Court Judgment precludes Defendant from arguing otherwise.

Elements 2–3: The Issues Were Actually Litigated and Necessarily Decided

The State Court issued its judgment after conducting a trial at which witnesses testified. This establishes that the issues were actually litigated and necessarily decided.

Element 4: The State Court Judgment is Final

The State Court Judgment was entered on March 22, 2018. Plaintiffs served a Notice of Entry of Judgment on the same date. An Amended State Court Judgment was entered on May 22, 2018; Plaintiffs again served a Notice of Entry of Judgment on that same date. Pursuant to Cal. Rule of Court §8.104(a)(1)(B), Defendant had until 60 days after service of the Notice of Entry of Judgment to file an appeal. Defendant's deadline to appeal the Amended State Court Judgment expired on July 23, 2018. The state court docket indicates that no timely appeal has been filed. The Amended State Court Judgment is now final.

Element 5: The Party Against Whom Preclusion is Sought is the Same as the Party to the State Court Proceeding

Elma Fernandez, the Defendant in the instant action, is the same person against whom Plaintiffs obtained the State Court Judgment.

Public Policy Supports Preclusion

Having found that all five elements of issue preclusion are satisfied, the Court must determine whether the "application of preclusion furthers the public policies underlying the doctrine," Harmon, 250 F.3d at 1245—namely, “preservation of the integrity of the judicial system, promotion of judicial economy, and protection of litigants from harassment by vexatious litigation,” Lucido, 795 P.2d at 1227. Applying preclusion law preserves the integrity of the judicial system by giving full effect to a judgment that was obtained after both parties were afforded full opportunity to litigate the matter. Preclusion promotes judicial economy by obviating the need for a duplicative and unnecessary trial. The avoidance of an unnecessary trial promotes the public policy against vexatious litigation.

III. Conclusion

Based upon the foregoing, the Motion is GRANTED. All future hearings and litigation deadlines in this action are VACATED. Within seven days of the hearing, Plaintiffs shall submit (1) a proposed order incorporating this tentative ruling by reference and (2) a proposed judgment. (For purposes of the separate document rule, set forth in Civil Rule 58(a), both an order and a judgment must be submitted.)

No appearance is required if submitting on the court's tentative ruling. If you intend to submit on the tentative ruling, please contact Cameron Schlager or Daniel Koontz at 213-894-1522. If you intend to contest the tentative ruling and appear, please first contact opposing counsel to inform them of your intention to do so. Should an opposing party file a late opposition or appear at the hearing, the court will

#2.00 HearingRE: [5] Motion for Turnover of Property ; Declaration of Debtor in support;
Notice of Motion; proof of service (Sawdayi, Devin)

Docket 5

Tentative Ruling:

7/25/2018

For the reasons set forth below, the Motion is DENIED, without prejudice to the Debtor's ability to bring a renewed motion for possession of the funds that cures the defects identified herein.

Pleadings Filed and Reviewed:

- 1) Notice of Motion for Turnover of Estate Property Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §542 [Doc. No. 5] (the "Motion")
 - a) Amended Proof of Service of Motion [Doc. No. 6]
- 2) No Opposition to the Motion is on file

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

On April 25, 2018, Citibank, N.A. ("Citibank") obtained a judgment against Teri Breier (the "Debtor") in the amount of $21,170.73 (the "Judgment"). To enforce the Judgment, Citibank obtained a Writ of Execution. On June 21, 2018, the Santa Barbara County Sheriff's Office (the "Sheriff"), acting as the levying officer, levied upon the Debtor's deposit account at Chase Bank, N.A. ("Chase"). See Motion at Ex. A (Notice of Levy Under Writ of Execution). At the time of the levy, the Debtor's deposit account contained approximately $19,000. Decl. of Debtor at ¶3.

Debtor commenced a voluntary Chapter 7 petition on June 27, 2018 (the "Petition Date"). Debtor claimed an exemption in all $19,000 of the funds in the Chase deposit account. Debtor now moves for an order requiring Chase to turnover the funds, pursuant to §542, on the ground that the funds are property of the estate, and that the Debtor is entitled to the funds as a result of her claim of exemption. The premise of the Motion is that Chase has not transferred the funds to the Sheriff pursuant to the levy, and that the funds remain under Chase's control; however, no specific evidence in support of this premise has been submitted.

No Opposition to the Motion is on file.

II. Findings and Conclusions

Numerous defects require the Court to deny the Motion, without prejudice to the Debtor's ability to file a renewed motion to obtain possession of the funds that corrects the defects identified herein.

First, the Debtor seeks turnover of the funds pursuant to §542. In support of her position that she is entitled to turnover, the Debtor cites United States v. Whiting Pools Inc., 462 U.S. 198 (1983). However, a Chapter 7 debtor lacks standing to move for turnover:

Section 542(a) enables the bankruptcy trustee, or the debtor-in-possession in a reorganization case to seek turnover of the debtors' assets, for the benefit of the estate. Indeed, in Whiting Pools, it was the debtor-in-possession in a reorganization case that sought turnover. Under the statute, a chapter 7 debtor is not mentioned and generally has no standing to bring an action for turnover. See In re Freeman, 331 B.R. 327, 329 (Bankr.N.D. Ohio 2005) (the general provision in the Bankruptcy Code governing turnover, confers this right upon the trustee); Price v. Gaslowitz (In re Price), 173 B.R. 434, 440 (Bankr.N.D. Ga. 1994) (turnover action is one facet of a chapter 7 trustee's general duties under § 704(1)).

Collect Access LLC v. Hernandez (In re Hernandez), 483 B.R. 713, 725 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 2012).

The Debtor lacks standing to seek turnover even where the Debtor claims an exemption in the funds sought to be turned over. That was the relief the Debtor sought in In re Hernandez. The Hernandez court held that seeking the exempt funds under § 542 was a "procedural irregularity" and observed that the appropriate procedure would have been for the Debtor to exercise the trustee's avoiding powers under §522(h). Id.

Second, because the deadline to object to the Debtor's exemptions has not elapsed, it has not yet been established that the funds at issue are exempt. Under Bankruptcy Rule 4003(b), interested parties may object to a claimed exemption within 30 days after the conclusion of the §341(a) meeting of creditors. Here, the meeting of creditors is set for July 30, 2018. Assuming that the meeting is concluded on that date, interested parties have until August 29, 2018, to object to the exemption claimed by the Debtor.

Third, the Debtor has failed to show that she is entitled to possession of the funds. On June 21, 2018 (prior to the Petition Date), the Sheriff, at Citibank's direction, levied upon the Debtor's Chase deposit account. As provided by Cal. Code Civ. P. § 697.710, a "levy on property under a writ of execution creates an execution lien on the property from the time of levy until the expiration of two years after the date of issuance of the writ unless the judgment is sooner satisfied." The execution lien in favor of the judgment creditor does not arise until all acts necessary to levy on the property are completed. See Grover v. Bay View Bank, 87 Cal. App. 4th 452, 459, 104 Cal. Rptr. 2d 677, 682 (2001). On the present incomplete record, the Court cannot determine whether a valid levy occurred, and therefore whether Citibank holds an execution lien against the funds. To obtain possession of the funds, the Debtor must show either that the funds are not encumbered by an execution lien in favor of Citibank, or that the Debtor is entitled to avoid any execution lien Citibank may have. For example, it might be possible for the Debtor to avoid an execution lien (if one exists) under §522(h), or under some other provision of the Bankruptcy Code.

Fourth, the Court cannot order turnover of the funds unless the Debtor submits evidence clearly establishing who controls the funds. The premise of the Motion is that Chase retains control of the funds. This may be correct; the Debtor sought bankruptcy protection shortly after the levy, possibly before Chase had transferred the funds to the Sheriff. But such assumptions cannot support issuance of a turnover order. An indispensable predicate for issuance of a turnover order is that the Movant clearly establish that the entity to whom the order is directed is in possession of the relevant property. Haphazard issuance of a turnover order against an entity, based only upon the suspicion that such entity controlled the relevant property, would cause confusion.

Finally, service upon Citibank was not sufficient. The Debtor served the Motion upon Hunt & Henriques, the law firm responsible for the levy. Under Bankruptcy Rule 7004(h), an insured depository institution such as Citibank must be served by certified mail, unless the institution has appeared by its attorney. Citibank has not appeared in the Debtor's bankruptcy case, so service upon Hunt & Henriques alone was inadequate. If the Debtor brings a renewed motion, such motion must be served upon (1) Citibank by certified mail pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 7004(h) and upon (2) Hunt & Henriques.

III. Conclusion

Based upon the foregoing, the Motion is DENIED, without prejudice to the Debtor's ability to bring a renewed motion for possession of the funds that cures the defects identified herein. The Court will prepare and enter an appropriate order.

II. Findings and Conclusions

Having reviewed the form of notice of the Administrative Expense Claims Bar Date, the Administrative Expense Proof of Claim Form, and the proposed procedures for providing notice thereof, the Court finds that the proposed form and manner of notice are reasonably calculated to provide appropriate notice to all potential holders of administrative expense claims against the estate. The Motion is GRANTED in its entirety. Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 3003(c)(3), August 24, 2018, at 4:00 p.m. Pacific Daylight Time is fixed as the Administrative Expense Claims Bar Date. The Administrative Expense Proof of Claim Form is approved. The form and manner of notice of the Administrative Expense Claims Bar Date is approved.

Appearances required. Notwithstanding Goldstein's filing of a Notice of Withdrawal of the Goldstein Claim on July 27, 2018, the trial will proceed as scheduled.

As set forth below, the Court is prepared to find that Goldstein has failed to carry his burden establishing the validity of his claim, and is prepared to enter judgment in favor of the Debtor disallowing the Goldstein Claim in its entirety.

Pleadings Filed and Reviewed:

- 1) Trial Brief of Debtor-Objector Claire Levine in Support of Objection to Claim #10 [Doc. No. 609]
- 2) Debtor's Objection to Gerald Goldstein Claim Number 10 Memorandum of Points and Authorities [Doc. No. 275]

 - a) Levine Objection to Claim #10 Pretrial Statement [Doc. No. 596]
- 4) Order (1) Finding that PWB Holds the Right to Receive Any Funds or Property Distributed from the Estate on Account of the Goldstein Claim and (2) Requiring PWB to Participate in the Claim Objection Trial to the Extent Set Forth Herein [Doc. No. 591]

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

Claire Levine (the "Debtor") objects to Proof of Claim 10-1, asserted by Gerald Goldstein (the "Goldstein Claim"). Goldstein asserts an unsecured claim of "not less than $5,571,022.62." Goldstein Claim at Main Document p. 1, ¶1. [Note 1] The Debtor asserts that the Goldstein Claim should be disallowed in its entirety.

Chapter 7

The Debtor and Goldstein are the settlors and co-trustees of the Amadeus Trust dated January 24, 2000 (the “Amadeus Trust”). The Amadeus Trust was created to hold title to multiple parcels of real property. Goldstein asserts that as the co-trustee and co-owner of the properties held in the Amadeus Trust, the Debtor was responsible for 50% of the expenses of the properties. Goldstein Claim at Main Document p. 4. Goldstein alleges that he has paid all expenses associated with such properties, in the total amount of $11,142,045.42. Id. According to Goldstein, the Debtor’s 50% share of these expenses is $5,571,022.62. Id.

Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 3001(e)(4), the Court has issued an order specifying the division of rights associated with Proof of Claim No. 10, asserted by Gerald Goldstein (the “Goldstein Claim”). See Order (1) Finding that PWB Holds the Right to Receive Any Funds or Property Distributed From the Estate on Account of the Goldstein Claim and (2) Requiring PWB to Participate in the Claim Objection Trial to the Extent Set Forth Herein [Doc. No. 591] (the “Rule 3001 Order”). As set forth in the Rule 3001 Order, Pacific Western Bank (“PWB”) “is entitled to receive any distribution from the estate that would otherwise be paid to Goldstein on account of the Goldstein Claim.” Rule 3001 Order at 2. As further provided in the Rule 3001 Order:

Goldstein remains responsible for defending the Goldstein Claim against the Debtor’s claim objection. Placing such responsibility with Goldstein is appropriate given that he has greater knowledge of the transactions underlying the Goldstein Claim than PWB. Nonetheless, PWB shall appear at the Pretrial Conference and trial and shall advise the Court in the event Goldstein’s actions in defending the Goldstein Claim prejudice PWB’s economic interest in that claim. Any objections of PWB to actions taken by Goldstein in connection with the prosecution and/or settlement of the Goldstein Claim that are not presented to the Court at the Claim Objection Trial shall be deemed to have been waived.

Id. at 2.

On July 24, 2018, the Court granted seven Motions in Limine filed by the Debtor. See Doc. Nos. 599–605 (final rulings granting the Motions in Limine) and 611–18 (orders granting the Motions in Limine). As a result, Goldstein is precluded from introducing the following evidence at trial:

- 1) Evidence of debts allegedly accrued prior to December 3, 2008, as those debts are time barred under Cal. Code Civ. P. §337(a).
- 2) Any written documents in support of the Goldstein Claim, other than the documentation attached to the claim itself that has not otherwise been excluded.
- 3) The tabular compilation of the amounts allegedly owed by the Debtor that are attached to the Goldstein Claim at Part 2, pp. 1–78 and Part 3, pp. 1–2.

- 4) Any writings purporting to evidence payments made by Goldstein lacking sufficient indicia of reliability to evidence both tender by Goldstein and receipt by the payee.
- 5) Any evidence of expenditures made by Goldstein if such expenditures were not made in accordance with the contractual provisions of the Amadeus Trust.
- 6) Any evidence of expenditures made by Goldstein related to properties held by the Amadeus Trust that were sold at a loss.
- 7) The Second Amendment and Restatement of the Gerald Goldstein Revocable Trust (the "Goldstein Revocable Trust"). (The Goldstein Revocable Trust is a completely different trust from the Amadeus Trust that is at issue, and is therefore irrelevant.)

The Debtor argues that, as a result of the Court's granting of the seven Motions in Limine, Goldstein has failed to establish the validity of his claim. Goldstein has not timely opposed the Debtor's claim objection, and has failed to timely submit any briefing, exhibits, or other materials in support of his claim.

On July 26, 2018, the Court struck from the record the purported Substitution of Attorney form [Doc. No. 619] (the "Purported Substitution") filed by Jonathan B. Cole. The Court noted that Jonathan B. Cole and his colleague Lucy H. Mekhael (collectively, "Counsel") had appeared in this case on Goldstein's behalf in connection with multiple hearings. See, e.g., Doc. Nos. 390, 402, and 462. The Court further noted the Goldstein Claim was filed by Lucy Mekhael. The Court found that the filing of the Purported Substitution was an improper attempt to circumvent Local Bankruptcy Rule 2091-1, which requires Counsel to obtain leave of Court to withdraw from representing Goldstein. See generally Order Striking from the Record Purported Substitution of Attorney Form Filed by Attorney Jonathan B. Cole [Doc. No. 621].

On July 27, 2018, Counsel filed, on Goldstein's behalf, a Notice of Withdrawal of Claim No. 10 by Jerry Goldstein (the "Notice of Withdrawal"). [Note 2]

II. Findings and Conclusions

A. The Trial Will Proceed Notwithstanding the Filing of the Notice of Withdrawal

Where, as here, an objection to a proof of claim has been filed, "the creditor may not withdraw the claim except on order of the court after a hearing on notice to the trustee or debtor in possession" Bankruptcy Rule 3006.

Goldstein's attempt to withdraw his claim on the eve of trial was not procedurally proper. Goldstein should have filed a noticed motion seeking an order permitting him to withdraw the claim, and he should have done so well in advance of the trial. Goldstein has been aware of the trial date since January 30, 2018. Since July 2, 2018—the date upon which the Court disapproved a stipulation between the Debtor and Goldstein seeking a continuance of the trial—

Goldstein has been aware that no continuances of the trial date would be authorized. Goldstein has had more than sufficient time to move to withdraw the Goldstein Claim or to negotiate some other resolution of the Debtor’s claim objection.

Any motion to withdraw the claim that Goldstein may now attempt to present would come far too late. If Goldstein filed such a motion, the Court would be required to provide an opportunity to respond to Pacific Western Bank (“PWB”), which holds the right to any funds or property distributed on account of the Goldstein Claim. See Order (1) Finding that PWB Holds the Right to Receive Any Funds or Property Distributed from the Estate on Account of the Goldstein Claim and (2) Requiring PWB to Participate in the Claim Objection Trial to the Extent Set Forth Herein [Doc. No. 591]. Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 3006, the Court would also be required to provide an opportunity to respond to the Chapter 7 Trustee. This would require delaying the trial. The Court has previously made it abundantly clear that delay of the trial would not be permitted. See Doc. No. 583 (order disapproving stipulation to continue the trial, based in part upon a finding that the Debtor and Goldstein had failed to diligently pursue a contemplated settlement); Doc. No. 591 at p. 3 (order setting shortened deadlines with respect to the determination of issues arising under Bankruptcy Rule 3001(e)(4), “to prevent any delays in the trial”); Doc. No. 592 (order setting deadlines for the parties to comply with their obligations in connection with the Pretrial Conference, issued after the parties failed to comply with previously ordered deadlines); and Doc. No. 611 (order setting deadlines for the parties to submit required trial materials, issued after the parties failed to comply with previously ordered deadlines).

B. The Court is Prepared to Disallow the Goldstein Claim in Its Entirety

Under Bankruptcy Rule 3001(f), a proof of claim executed and filed in accordance with the Bankruptcy Rules constitutes prima facie evidence of the validity and amount of the claim. To overcome the presumption of validity created by a timely-filed proof of claim, an objecting party must do one of the following: (1) object based on legal grounds and provide a memorandum of points and authorities setting forth the legal basis for the objection; or (2) object based on a factual ground and provide sufficient evidence (usually in the form of declarations under penalty of perjury) to create triable issues of fact. In re G.I. Indus., Inc., 204 F.3d 1276, 1280 (9th Cir. BAP 2000); In re Medina, 205 B.R. 216, 222 (9th Cir. BAP 1996); In re Hemingway Transport, Inc., 993 F.2d 915, 925 (1st Cir. 1993). Upon objection, a proof of claim provides "some evidence as to its validity and amount" and is "strong enough to carry over a mere formal objection without more." See Lundell v. Anchor Constr. Spec., Inc., 223 F.3d 1035, 1039 (9th Cir. 2000) (citing In re Holm, 931 F.2d 620, 623 (9th Cir. 1991)). An objecting party bears the burden and must "show facts tending to defeat the claim by probative force equal to that of the allegations of the proofs of claim themselves." Holm, 931 F.2d at 623. When the objector has shown enough evidence to negate one or more facts in the proof of claim, the burden shifts back to the claimant to prove the validity of the claim by a preponderance of evidence. See Lundell, 223 F.3d at 1039 (citation omitted).

Here, the Debtor has overcome the Goldstein Claim's presumption of validity by obtaining orders precluding Goldstein from introducing the vast majority of evidence attached to the Proof of Claim. As a result, the burden has shifted to Goldstein to provide the validity of the claim by a preponderance of the evidence. Goldstein has failed to carry this burden.

Goldstein alleges that the Debtor, as a co-trustee of the Amadeus Trust, was responsible for 50% of the expenses associated with the real properties held in the Amadeus Trust. Goldstein Claim at Main Document p. 4. Goldstein further alleges that he has paid all expenses associated with the properties held in the Amadeus Trust, in the total amount of $11,142,045.42. According to Goldstein, the Debtor's 50% share of these expenses is $5,571,022.62. Id.

As a result of the Court's rulings on the Debtor's seven Motions in Limine, there is no evidence before the Court substantiating Goldstein's allegation that he paid expenses of $11,142,045.42 in connection with properties held by the Amadeus Trust. The Court has excluded the tabular compilation of expenses allegedly paid by Goldstein as hearsay. See Doc. Nos. 601 and 618. In addition to the tabular compilation, Goldstein has also submitted various real estate transactional documents which purport to show that Goldstein contributed or borrowed funds to purchase properties now held in the Amadeus Trust. None of these transactional documents are admissible, because the Court has ruled that Goldstein's claim for indebtedness allegedly accrued prior to December 3, 2008 is barred by the relevant statute of limitations, Cal. Code Civ. Proc. §337(a). Specifically, the following transactional documents are irrelevant because they purport to evidence alleged indebtedness that is beyond the limitations period:

- 1) Settlement Statement for 40 Bond Street Unit 4, New York, NY 10003, dated January 24, 2008. Goldstein Claim at Part 3, pp. 4-5.

Even if Goldstein had furnished admissible evidence corroborating the expenses he claims to have paid, Goldstein has failed to identify any provision of the Amadeus Trust supporting his contention that he and the Debtor “are each 50% responsible for all expenses concerning” properties held by the Trust. Goldstein Claim at Main Document, p. 4. The Court has reviewed the Declaration of Trust for the Amadeus Trust and can find no provision therein supporting Goldstein’s theory regarding the allocation of expenses related to properties held by the trust. The Amadeus Trust provides for the recovery of certain trust-related expenses during the settlor’s lifetimes from the trust’s principal and net income, but does not impose an unsecured personal obligation upon the Debtor in her capacity as the co-trustee.

III. Conclusion

Based upon the foregoing, the Court is prepared to DISALLOW the Goldstein Claim in its entirety.

the page numbers automatically affixed to each page by the Electronic Case Filing (ECF) system. Technical limitations on the file size of electronically filed documents required the Goldstein Claim to be filed in three parts. Where multipart documents are filed, in addition to the page number, the ECF system automatically affixes a description of each part to the top of the page; this description precedes the page number. The Court has preserved these descriptions in its citations to the Goldstein Claim. Consistent with the ECF descriptions, the first 63 pages of the Goldstein Claim are designated as "Main Document"; the next 78 pages are designated as "Part 2"; and the final 121 pages are designated as "Part 3."

The Notice of Withdrawal was signed by Lucy Mekhael but was filed using Jonathan Cole's CM/ECF login. Pursuant to Local Bankruptcy Rule ("LBR") 9011-1(b), Jonathan Cole is also deemed to have filed the Notice of Withdrawal based upon the fact that his CM/ECF login was used to file the document. See LBR 9011-2(b)(1) ("The electronic filing or lodging of a document by a Filer through the CM/ECF, ePOC, LOU or other system, constitutes a signature on that document by such Filer and shall subject the Filer to the same consequences as if the Filer had signed such document by hand, including sanctions under FRBP 9011 and liability for perjury. When a password is required to electronically file or lodge a document, the Filer whose password is used to effectuate such filing shall be deemed to be a Filer of the document.").

#100.00 HearingRE: [10] Notice of motion and motion for relief from the automatic stay with supporting declarations UNLAWFUL DETAINER RE: 1298 Becket Drive, San Jose, CA 95121 . (Castle, Caren)

Docket 10

Tentative Ruling:

7/26/2018

Tentative Ruling:

This Motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on the notice required by LBR 4001(c)(1) and LBR 9013-1(d)(2). The failure of the Debtor, the trustee, and all other parties in interest to file written opposition at least 14 days prior to the hearing as required by LBR 9013-1(f) is considered as consent to the granting of the Motion. LBR 9013-1(h). Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995).

The Motion is GRANTED pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1). The stay is terminated as to the Debtor and the Debtor's bankruptcy estate with respect to the Movant, its successors, transferees and assigns. Movant may enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property in accordance with applicable law, but may not pursue a deficiency claim against the debtor or property of the estate except by filing a proof of claim pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 501.

The Debtor continues to occupy the property after a foreclosure sale held on October 18, 2017. The Movant filed an unlawful detainer action on February 6, 2018.

This Motion has been filed to allow the Movant to proceed with the unlawful detainer proceeding in state court. The unlawful detainer proceeding may go forward because the Debtor's right to possess the premises must be determined. This does not change simply because a bankruptcy petition was filed. See In re Butler, 271 B.R. 867, 876 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2002).

Furthermore, the Court finds that there is sufficient evidence to grant relief pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(4). The filing of the petition was part of a scheme to

The 14-day period specified in Fed.R.Bankr.P. 4001(a)(3) is waived. This order shall be binding and effective despite any conversion of the bankruptcy case to a case under any other chapter of Title 11 of the United States Code. If recorded in compliance with applicable State laws governing notices of interests or liens in real property, the order shall be binding in any other case under this title purporting to affect such real property filed not later than 2 years after the date of the entry of such order by the Court, except that a debtor in a subsequent case under this title may move for relief from such order based upon changed circumstances or for good cause shown, after notice and a hearing. Any Federal, State, or local governmental unit that accepts notices of interests or liens in real property shall accept a certified copy of this order for indexing and recording. All other relief is denied.

Movant shall upload an appropriate order via the Court's Lodged Order Upload system within 7 days of the hearing.

No appearance is required if submitting on the court's tentative ruling. If you intend to submit on the tentative ruling, please contact Daniel Koontz or Cameron Schlagel, the Judge's law clerks at 213-894-1522. If you intend to contest the tentative ruling and appear, please first contact opposing counsel to inform them of your intention to do so. Should an opposing party file a late opposition or appear at the hearing, the court will determine whether further hearing is required. Docket 12

7/26/2018

The Motion is DENIED without prejudice. Pursuant to the Court's "Self-Calendaring Instructions" for residential unlawful detainer motions for relief from stay on shortened notice, no later than 7-days prior to the hearing, the motion and supporting documents are required to be served by posting or personal service on the Debtor. Here, the proof of service attached to the Motion indicates that the Debtor was served via overnight delivery on July 18, 2018, which method of service does not comply with the Court's Self-Calendaring Instructions. The Movant may refile the Motion with service upon the Debtor in a manner consistent with the Court's Self-Calendaring Instructions.

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

Sultan Financial Corporation (the "Debtor") filed a voluntary Chapter 11 petition on July 13, 2018 (the "Petition") [Doc. No. 1]. Randall C. Sultan is the Chief Executive Officer of the Debtor. "Omnibus Declaration of Randall C. Sultan in Support of Debtor's 'First-Day' Motions" (the "Sultan Declaration") [Doc. No. 10] at ¶ 2. Other members of the Debtor's senior management include Zackary Vandenberg, President, and Gregg Sultan, Vice President and General Counsel. Id. at ¶ 5. The Debtor was incorporated in the State of California on January 27, 1986. Id. at ¶ 4. The "Randall and Patricia Sultan Family Revocable Trust" (the "Sultan Family Trust") owns all the stock in the Debtor, and Randall Sultan is the sole member of the Debtor's board of directors. Id. Since 1997, the Debtor has developed and operated Aaron's Sales & Lease Stores ("Aaron's"), and currently operates sixteen Aaron's stores throughout Southern California (the "Stores"). Id. at ¶ 6. The Debtor and Aaron's have executed a separate "Franchise Agreement" for each of the Stores that are currently open (collectively, the "Franchise Agreements"). Id. at ¶ 27. In exchange for the Debtor's use (as a franchisee) of the "Aaron's System"¹ [Note 1], each of the Franchise Agreements, as modified by the Settlement Agreement between the parties (the "Settlement Agreement"), provide that, for the period commencing August 1, 2018 through July 31, 2020, the Debtor is required to pay a weekly fee to Aaron's of either 5% or 6%² [Note 2] of the Debtor's gross revenues (the "Royalty Fee" or "License Fee"). See id. at ¶¶ 27–28; "Declaration of Christopher Kelly Wall" (the "Wall Declaration") [Doc. No. 79] at ¶ 6. The Debtor states that the Petition was precipitated by changes to the Franchise Agreements, which caused the Debtor's profits to decline, and a subsequent dispute between the Debtor and Aaron's related to these changes. See id. at ¶¶ 29–35. The Debtor is in the "rent-to-own industry" ("RTO"). Id. at ¶ 7. RTO stores, including the Debtor's, rent household goods such as appliances, consumer electronics, and furniture to customers on a weekly or monthly basis. Id. After a prescribed period of months of continuous rental payments by the customer, the merchandise automatically passes to the customer. Id. Approximately 35% of all rental contracts go to term. Id. As of July 2, 2018, the total value of the Debtor's inventory for the Stores was $1,255,700.00. Id. at ¶ 9. The Debtor has approximately 13,040 customers with active contracts, and approximately 20,500 total contracts. Id. at ¶ 10. The aggregate value of the remaining payments due under these contracts is approximately $26,63,000.00. Id. Based on past performance, the Debtor collects approximately 55% of the outstanding lease value, which yields an estimated value for all outstanding contracts of $14,647,000.00. Id. The Debtor typically writes 1,700 new contracts each month. Id.

The Debtor's primary secured creditor is ZB, N.A., successor by merger to California Bank & Trust ("CBT" or the "Lender"). Id. at ¶ 12. On January 4, 2012, the Debtor and CBT entered into a Commercial Loan Agreement (the "CLA"), which provided for a revolving line of credit loan to the Debtor and term loans made by CBT to the Debtor (collectively, the "CBT Loans"). Id. The CLA has been amended fifteen times since January 2012. Id. To secure the payments of all amounts due under the CBT Loans as well as all other obligations to the Lender, the Debtor executed a Security Agreement whereby the Debtor granted the Lender a lien and security interest in all its assets. Id. at ¶ 13. As of July 13, 2018, the total amount owing on the CBT Loans is $15,556,285.54. Id. at ¶ 15.

The Debtor does not own any real estate; however, the Debtor leases its corporate headquarters and its sixteen Stores (the "Real Estate Leases"). Id. at ¶ 19. Six of the Real Estate Leases are with entities in which Randall Sultan has an ownership interest, while the remaining eleven Real Estate Leases are with unrelated parties. Id. The Debtor also leases thirty vehicles that are used at the Stores for customer deliveries and returns (the "Vehicle Leases"). Id. at ¶ 20.

The Sultan Declaration states that, in addition to the CBT Loans, there are multiple pre-petition unsecured claims against the Debtor. See id. at ¶ 25. As of the Petition Date the Debtor owes the following amounts to its franchisor, Aaron's: (1) $1,457,497.00 for inventory purchases; and (2) amounts due under the certain 2016

The Debtor also leases certain equipment and signage from Aaron's. Id. The Debtor has general unsecured non-insider trade claims totaling approximately $282,509.00. Id. at ¶ 22. Additionally, Randall Sultan has, on multiple occasions, loaned personal funds to the Debtor for general corporate purposes, which loans were evidenced by promissory notes (the "Shareholder Notes"). Id. at ¶ 23. The aggregate principal amount due under the Shareholder Notes is $950,000.00. Id.

The Emergency Cash Collateral Motion

On the Petition Date, the Debtor filed the "Emergency Motion for an Interim Order: Authorizing Debtor Use of Cash Collateral Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 363; (2) Granting Adequate Protection to Pre-petition Senior CBT Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 361, 362, and 363; (3) Scheduling a Continued Hearing Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 4001; and (4) Granting Related Relief" (the "Emergency Cash Collateral Motion") [Doc. No. 4]. On July 17, 2018, Aaron's filed the "Limited Objection of Aaron's, Inc. to Debtor's Emergency Motion For Use of Cash Collateral" (the "Limited Objection") [Doc. No. 34]. The Court held a hearing on the Emergency Cash Collateral Motion July 17, 2018. Counsel for the Debtor and counsel for Aaron's, among others, appeared at the hearing.

There is a dispute between the Debtor and Aaron's regarding the terms a certain settlement agreement entered into between the Debtor and Aaron's related to the payment of royalties by the Debtor to Aaron's (the "Settlement Agreement"), which dispute includes the timing of the Royalty Fee payments and whether the Debtor should be required to make continuing Royalty Fee payments as adequate protection for the Debtor's use of Aaron's trademarks and other intellectual property. The Court stated that based on the record, from which it appeared to the Court that the Debtor may be using the bankruptcy as a tactic to get a better negotiating footing in its dispute with Aaron's, the Court would be inclined to require the Debtor to pay Aaron's what it was due under the Settlement Agreement and the related Franchise Agreements. Counsel for the Debtor noted that pre-petition, the Debtor had downsized from 26 stores to 16, and that the Petition was also necessary because the CBT Loans matured on June 15, 2018. The Debtor's counsel further noted the pending adversary proceeding by the Debtor against Aaron's, Case No. 2:18-ap-01225-ER (the "Adversary Proceeding"), in which the Debtor asserts claims against Aaron's based on Aaron's alleged wrongful conduct related to the Franchise Agreements and the Settlement Agreement. After considering the arguments raised by the parties at the hearing, the Court granted the Emergency Cash Collateral Motion, and authorized the use of cash collateral on an interim basis, scheduled a continued hearing on the use of cash collateral for August 8, 2018, and set a briefing schedule for the continued use of cash collateral, including the issue of payment of the Royalty Fees to Aaron's. On July 18, 2018, the Debtor and CBT filed the "Stipulation Between ZB, N.A. dba California Bank & Trust and the Debtor for Authorization to Use Cash Collateral under 11 U.S.C. § 363 on an Interim Basis" (the "Interim Cash Collateral Stipulation") [Doc. No. 48]. On July 19, 2018, the Court entered the Interim Order Granting the Emergency Cash Collateral Motion (the "Interim Cash Collateral Order") [Doc. No. 53], which authorizes the use of cash collateral consistent with the terms of the Interim Cash Collateral Stipulation.

The Continued Cash Collateral Motion and Opposition to Aaron's Limited Objection

On July 24, 2018, the Debtor filed the "Supplemental Brief: (A) In Support of Debtor's Continued Use of Cash Collateral; and (B) In Opposition to the Limited Objection of Aaron's, Inc. to Debtor's Emergency [Motion] For Use of Cash Collateral" (the "Continued Cash Collateral Motion") [Doc. No. 67].

The Continued Use of Cash Collateral

Pursuant to the Interim Cash Collateral Order, and in support of the Debtor's continued use of cash collateral, the Debtor submits a thirteen-week proposed budget commencing on August 5, 2018 (the "Budget") [Doc. No. 67, Ex. A].

The Opposition to Aaron's Limited Objection

The Debtor opposes Aaron's Limited Objection to the use of cash collateral, and asserts that Aaron's seeks to: (1) deprive the Debtor of the "breathing space" afforded to Chapter 11 debtors under § 365; (2) relieve itself of its burden to demonstrate that its ongoing performance under the Franchise Agreements is providing an "actual" and "necessary" benefit to the Estate under § 503(b)(1)(A); (3) strip the Debtor of its rights to setoff and recoupment under § 558; and (4) utilize a strategy that ignores available statutory remedies and, instead, seeks to exploit the Debtor's need to continue use of cash collateral based on the premise that Aaron's has standing to challenge such use of cash collateral on adequate protection grounds.

The Debtor contends that the Franchise Agreements are executory contracts under § 365, and that the Interim Cash Collateral Stipulation provides the Debtor with the "breathing space" under § 365 to properly evaluate whether to assume or reject its existing Franchise Agreements with Aaron's. The Debtor argues that, under § 365, during the period from the Petition Date through confirmation of a plan the Debtor may decide whether to assume or reject an executory contract (the "breathing space"), and that during this period, "executory contracts may be enforced by, but not against, a [Chapter 11] debtor." Continued Cash Collateral Motion at 6 (quoting In re BCE West, L.P., 257 B.R. 304, 307 (Bankr. D. Ariz. 2000) (emphasis added)). Furthermore, that until the executory contracts are assumed or rejected, Aaron's is either barred from enforcing the contract, or may perform the executory contract post-petition and seek a post-petition administrative claim for the reasonable value of such performance. See id. (quoting In re El Paso Refinery, L.P., 220 B.R. 37 (Bankr. W.D. Tex. 1998)). Thus, the Debtor argues that during the breathing space afforded by § 365, the Debtor is not bound by any duty to make ongoing Royalty Fee payments or otherwise perform under the Franchise Agreements. Id. at 7.

Additionally, the Debtor contends that by insisting that the Debtor make ongoing Royalty Fee payments during the period under § 365, Aaron's is attempting to relieve itself of its statutory burden under § 503(b)(1)(A), which provides that a non-debtor counterparty to an executory contract may be entitled to receive an "allowed administrative expense" to the extent that the non-debtor party can demonstrate that its post-petition performance under the contract during the breathing space conferred an "actual" and "necessary" benefit upon the Estate. Id. at 8.

The Debtor further argues that Aaron's Limited Objection seeks to strip the Debtor of its statutory rights under § 558, which permits a Chapter 11 debtor to offset a pre-petition claim against a post-petition, administrative liability. Id. at 11. The Debtor contends that if Aaron's were to properly proceed under § 503(b)(1)(A) such that it is awarded an administrative priority claim for its ongoing performance under the Franchise Agreements during the breathing space, the Debtor would be entitled to assert a right of set-off against such administrative claim for any pre- and/or post-petition claims that the Debtor has against Aaron's, including those claims being asserted by the Debtor in the Adversary Proceeding.

Lastly, the Debtor states that to the extent Aaron's maintains it is being prejudiced as a result of the Debtor's use of cash collateral without being conditioned upon payment of post-petition Royalty Fees to Aaron's, Aaron's should seek relief with respect to one or more of the executory contracts under § 365(d)(2).

The Supplemental Objection

On July 31, 2018, Aaron's filed the "Supplemental Objection of Aaron's, Inc. to the [Continued Cash Collateral Motion]" (the "Supplemental Objection") [Doc. No. 79]. The Supplemental Objection advances three arguments in opposition to the Continued Cash Collateral Motion: (1) that Aaron's is entitled to post-petition payment of the License Fees; (2) the Debtor cannot rely on § 365 to avoid paying the License Fees; and (3) the Debtor may not seek to set-off current debts against potential future claims. Aaron's argues that it is beyond dispute that the Debtor's current business would not exist without the Debtor's ability to use the Franchisor's Marks and the Aaron's System on a daily basis. Id. at 4.

In arguing that it is entitled to post-petition payment of the License Fees, Aaron's cites multiple cases which have held that franchisors are entitled to be compensated for continuing to provide access to their trademarks and franchise systems to debtors during the post-petition period. See id. at 4–5. Aaron's further argues that it has a property interest in the Aaron's System and the intellectual property rights which it licensed to the Debtor under the Franchise Agreements, and that it is entitled to adequate protection in the form of post-petition payments equal to the License Fees because of the value of Aaron's trademark, service marks, and reputation to the general public. Id. at 5 (citing In re Tudor Motor Lodge Assocs., Ltd. P'Ship., 102 B.R. 936, 954 (Bankr. D.N.J. 1989)). Thus, the failure of the Debtor to pay the License Fees would be sufficient cause for Aaron's to seek relief from stay to proceed with the termination of the Franchise Agreements, and Aaron's proposes that the Budget be amended to provide for such adequate protection, rather than wait for the issue to be raised in the context of a motion for relief from stay. Additionally, while Aaron's asserts that the issue of adequate protection is the central issue in connection with the Continued Cash Collateral Motion, Aaron's contends that the Debtor's continued use of the Franchisor's Marks and the Aaron's System post-petition under § 365 without payment of the License Fees provides continuing value to the Estate, and, therefore, would be an "actual" and "necessary" expense under § 503(b)(1)(A).

The Continued Cash Collateral Stipulation

On August 7, 2018, the Debtor filed the "Stipulation Regarding (I) Debtor's Motion Authorizing Debtor's Use of Cash Collateral and (II) Standstill Agreement" (the "Continued Cash Collateral Stipulation") [Doc. No. 80], entered into between the Debtor, Randall and Patricia Sultan, and Aaron's (collectively, the "Parties"). The Parties entered into the Continued Cash Collateral Stipulation in order to avoid unnecessary motion practice and expense to the Parties. The Parties have agreed to maintain the status quo for a period of sixty days while the Parties negotiate toward a global resolution (the "Standstill Period"). Among other terms, the Parties agree as follows: (1) the Parties will submit to mediation; (2) the License Fee shall be paid to Aaron's by the Debtor commencing August 1, 2018 through the Standstill Period at a rate of 6%, and any cash collateral budget submitted by the Debtor for approval will include the License Fee; (3) all other payments due to Aaron's under the Franchise Agreements from the Petition Date through the Standstill Period shall be paid by the Debtor in accordance with the terms of the Franchise Agreements; (4) the hearing on the Cash Collateral Motion shall be continued to a date agreed upon by the Parties and approved by the Court; and (5) all litigation activities between the Parties shall be stayed during the Standstill Period, except for the Debtor being permitted to file an application to employ special counsel in connection with the Adversary Proceeding. A revised thirteen-week cash collateral budget is attached as "Exhibit A" to the Continued Cash Collateral Stipulation (the "Revised Budget").

II. Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law

Section 363(c)(2) requires court authorization for the use of cash collateral unless "each entity that has an interest in such cash collateral consents." In the Ninth Circuit, satisfaction of Section 363(c)(2)(A) requires the "affirmative express consent" of the secured creditor; "implied consent," resulting from the failure of the secured creditor to object to use of cash collateral, does not satisfy the requirements of the statute. Freightliner Market Development Corp. v. Silver Wheel Freightlines, Inc., 823 F.2d 362, 368–69 (9th Cir. 1987).

Here, the Court finds that the terms of the Interim Cash Collateral Stipulation comply with §§ 361 and 363. Furthermore, the Court finds that the Continued Cash Collateral Stipulation temporarily resolves the Supplemental Objection by Aaron's. Because the Interim Cash Collateral Stipulation constitutes "affirmative express consent" by CBT to the Debtor's use of the Cash Collateral, the Court GRANTS the Continued Cash Collateral Motion. The Debtor is authorized to use the Cash Collateral in accordance with the terms of the Interim Cash Collateral Stipulation, the Continued Cash Collateral Stipulation, and the Revised Budget.

III. Conclusion

In conclusion, based on the foregoing, the Court GRANTS the Continued Cash Collateral Motion. The Debtor is authorized to use the Cash Collateral in accordance with the terms of the Interim Cash Collateral Stipulation, the Continued Cash Collateral Stipulation, and the Revised Budget. The Court will conduct a further hearing on the use of cash collateral on October 10, 2018, at 10:00 a.m. The Debtor must submit further evidence in support of the use of cash collateral by no later than September 26, 2018. Any opposition to the continued use of cash collateral must be submitted by no later than October 3, 2018.

The Debtor shall lodge a conforming order within seven (7) days of the hearing.

programs; use of Aaron's proprietary point of sale software system; and centralized support functions.

Note 2: The percentage due to be paid under the Franchise Agreements, as modified by the Settlement Agreement, is disputed by the parties. The Debtor asserts that, subject to the dispute regarding post-petition payments discussed in more detail herein, the Debtor is only required to pay a 5% Royalty Fee pursuant to the terms of the Settlement Agreement. See Sultan Declaration at ¶¶ 27–28. Aaron's asserts that the Debtor is in breach of the Settlement Agreement based upon its failure to pay the amounts owing under the Aaron's Note, and that under applicable law such breach negates Aaron's agreement to accept a 5% License Fee instead of the 6% License Fee provided for pursuant to the Franchise Agreements. See "Declaration of Christopher Kelly Wall" (the "Wall Declaration") [Doc. I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

A. Background

Anne Lan Peterson (the "Debtor") commenced a voluntary Chapter 7 petition on December 14, 2011. On April 16, 2012, the Debtor received a discharge, and on April 30, 2012, the Debtor's case was closed as a "no asset" case. Bankr. Doc. Nos. 18 and 20.

The Debtor was married to Ronald Peterson ("Ronald") from 1997 to 2010.

Chapter 7

Divorce proceedings between the Debtor and Ronald have been lengthy and contentious. In an apparent attempt to gain a tactical advantage in the divorce litigation, Ronald notified the Trustee of undisclosed assets, and the Debtor's case was reopened.

On October 19, 2017, the Trustee initiated a Complaint against Ronald and two LLCs—Maitreya, LLC, a Nevada LLC ("Maitreya Nevada") and Maitreya, LLC, an Arizona LLC ("Maitreya Arizona") (Ronald, Maitreya Nevada, and Maitreya Arizona collectively, the "Defendants"). The Complaint sought a declaration that real property located at 359 W. Langston Street, Upland, California 91786 (the "Property") is community property of the Debtor and Ronald, and therefore property of the estate pursuant to §541(a)(2). The Complaint sought turnover of the Property, avoidance of the post-petition transfer of the Property to Maitreya Arizona, and dissolution of Maitreya Nevada pursuant to Nevada Revised Statute §86.495, on the grounds that the Trustee, as the sole owner, is entitled to liquidate Maitreya Nevada.

On June 14, 2018, the Court entered final judgment (the "Judgment") in favor of the Trustee, and against the Defendants, on the Trustee's first, third, and fifth claims for relief. The Judgment ordered Defendants to turnover the Property to the Trustee by no later than July 6, 2018, at 5:00 p.m. Defendants failed to comply with the Court's order and did not turnover the Property by the July 6 deadline.

On July 12, 2018, the Court denied Defendants' motion for reconsideration of the Judgment (the "Motion for Reconsideration"). In the Motion for Reconsideration, Defendants asserted that the only claims filed in the Debtor's bankruptcy case were on account of debts the Debtor incurred after she separated from Ronald. Defendants maintained that as a result, the claims are not payable from property of the estate because they do not qualify as "community claims" within the meaning of §101(7). Defendants' theory was that the absence of any creditors entitled to receive a distribution from the estate precluded the Trustee from administering estate property. In denying the Motion for Reconsideration, the Court noted that Defendants had been provided an opportunity to present their arguments before the Court entered the Judgment, but had failed to do so. Observing that Defendants had offered no explanation whatsoever for their failure to timely raise these arguments, the Court determined that the "extraordinary circumstances" necessary to support reconsideration were not present. See Zurich Am. Ins. Co. v. Int'l Fibercom, Inc. (In re Int'l Fibercom, Inc.), 503 F.3d 933, 941 (9th Cir. 2007). Defendants have appealed the denial of the Motion to Reconsideration to the District Court.

Concurrently with the denial of the Motion for Reconsideration, the Court directed the Clerk of the Court to issue a Writ of Possession, authorizing the United States Marshal to enforce the Judgment by placing the Trustee in possession of the Property. The United States Marshal has served the Writ of Possession and has advised Defendants that the Property must be turned over to the Trustee by no later than August 31, 2018, at 12:00 p.m. See Adv. B. Ronald's Claim Objections, the Trustee's Opposition, Shaco's Opposition, and Ronald's Replies in Support of the Objections

Ronald objects to Proofs of Claim filed by Shaco, Inc. and Kathy K. Settle. Ronald raises the same arguments that he raised in the Motion for Reconsideration—he contends that the claims do not qualify as "community claims," and therefore are not payable from the estate's community property, because the claims arose after Ronald and the Debtor separated.

The Trustee opposes both of Ronald's Claim Objections. Claimant Shaco, Inc. also opposes Ronald's objection to its claim. Claimant Settle has not filed any papers. The Trustee first argues that Ronald lacks standing to object to other creditor's claims. According to the Trustee, Ronald has improperly interposed the claim objections as part of a broader litigation strategy to defeat the Trustee's attempt to gain possession of the Property. Next, the Trustee disputes Ronald's contention that no distribution may be made from the estate on account of the claims. According to the Trustee, §726(c) dictates the following distribution scheme:

- 1) The estate's community assets, including the Property, will first be liquidated to cash.
- 2) Pursuant to §726(c), all costs of administration will be paid from funds on hand.
- 3) After payment of costs of administration, the remaining funds will be divided in half, one half allocable to the Debtor, and the other allocable to Ronald.
- 4) In the event the Trustee determines that the claims filed by Shaco and Settle are the separate debts of the debtor, those claims will be paid from the Debtor's half of the remaining funds.

Shacos' arguments in opposition to Ronald's objection to its claim generally parallel those of the Trustee. Like the Trustee, Shaco asserts that Ronald lacks standing to object to its claim. Shaco further asserts that there is no merit to Ronald's contention that Shaco's claims cannot be paid from estate assets.

In Reply to the Trustee's Opposition, Ronald reiterates his assertion that because both claims were incurred by the Debtor post-separation, the claims are not community claims and therefore cannot receive a distribution from the estate's community property assets.

Chapter 7

II. Findings and Conclusions

A. Ronald's Arguments Are Not Properly Before the Court

Ronald's motivation in objecting to the claims is to gain a litigation advantage in the related adversary proceeding. In his Claim Objections, Ronald asserts that the claims do not qualify as "community claims" and therefore may not be paid from the estate's community property. The estate's primary community property asset is the Property. As discussed above, Ronald has vigorously contested the Trustee's attempts to enforce the Judgment and gain possession of the Property. Ronald's objective in prosecuting the Claim Objections is to prevent the Trustee from enforcing the Judgment.

Ronald raised the arguments he asserts now in his motion for Reconsideration of the Judgment. In denying Ronald's Motion for Reconsideration, the Court found that Ronald had failed to show that "extraordinary circumstances" excused his failure to timely raise his arguments regarding the allowability of the claims. See Zurich Am. Ins. Co. v. Int'l Fibercom, Inc. (In re Int'l Fibercom, Inc.), 503 F.3d 933, 941 (9th Cir. 2007). Based upon this finding, the Court refused to consider the arguments. Ronald cannot procedurally circumvent the Court's determination by now seeking to present these identical arguments in a different context.

The Court declines to find that Ronald lacks standing to object to the claims. It would be more precise to say that the Ronald has interposed the Claim Objections for the improper purpose of attempting to escape the consequences of his failure to timely raise the arguments he now presents. Had Ronald timely raised these arguments in opposition to the Trustee's motion for summary judgment, they would have been properly before the Court. But raising the arguments now—after the Court's express determination that the arguments would not be considered because they were untimely—is not proper.

Because Ronald's arguments are not properly before the Court, the Court will deny the Claim Objections solely on that basis. However, even if Ronald's arguments were properly before the Court, they lack merit. In the context of Claim Objections which are not properly before it, the Court declines to make any findings regarding the nature of the claims. However, as discussed below, assuming arguendo that the claims are not community claims, the claimants would still be entitled to a distribution from the estate. Consequently, there is no merit to Ronald's contention that the Trustee's administration of the property would serve no purpose other than compensating the Trustee's professionals.

B. Even if Ronald's Arguments Were Properly Before the Court, They Lack Merit

Where an estate includes community property, distribution of such property is governed by §726(c). Section 726(c) provides a framework for the distribution of community property to holders of community claims.

A "community claim" is a "claim that arose before the commencement of the case concerning the debtor for which property of the kind specified in section 541(a)(2) is liable [community property of the estate], whether or not there is any such property at the time of the commencement of the case." §101(7).

"The Bankruptcy Code's distribution scheme regarding community property is generally intended to parallel state law." In re Cohen, 522 B.R. 232, 240 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2014). California Family Code §910(a) provides that "the community estate is liable for a debt incurred by either spouse before or during marriage, regardless of which spouse has the management and control of the property and regardless of whether one or both spouses are parties to the debt or to a judgment for the debt." For purposes of §910(a), "during marriage" does not include the period after the parties are separated.

The Court assumes without deciding that the indebtedness asserted by the claimants was incurred by the Debtor after she separated from Ronald. As such, the claims would not constitute community claims.

To provide for the distribution of community property, §726(c) creates four "sub-estates," described in §726(c)(A), (B), (C), and (D). Only holders of community claims are eligible to receive a distribution from sub-estates (A), (B), and (D). However, sub-estate (C) provides for a distribution to holders of all claims against the Debtor, provided that such distribution is not from the estate's community property.

The distribution contemplated by the Trustee is consistent with the §726(c). First, the Trustee will liquidate the Property, the estate's primary community asset. Once the Property has been liquidated, costs of administration will be paid from cash on hand. Subsequent to the payment of costs of administration, the remaining funds will be divided in half, with one half allocable to the Debtor, and the other allocable to Ronald. Once the remaining funds have been divided, the Debtor's share of such funds will no longer constitute community property. Instead, such funds will be property of the estate liable for separate property claims against the Debtor—such as the claims asserted by Shaco and Settle (provided that such claims are in fact properly characterized as separate property claims). Such funds may be distributed to the claimants pursuant to §726(c)(2)(C).

Faced with similar facts, this was exactly the result reached by the court in In re Herrera, No. AP 16-90131-MM, 2017 WL 5473768, at *10 (Bankr. S.D. Cal. Nov. 13, 2017), aff'd sub nom. Herrera v. Pons, No. 17-CV-2392-GPC-NLS, 2018 WL 2229369 (S.D. Cal. May 16, 2018). The Herrera court found that proceeds of a community property asset could be distributed to pay the Debtor's post-separation debts pursuant to §726(c)(2), but only after the non-debtor had received his half of those proceeds. Id. at *10. The Trustee proposes adopting the same process here—that is, the Trustee will pay the Debtor's post-separation debts only after Ronald has received his half of the proceeds of the estate's community property.

III. Conclusion

Because the Claims Objections are not properly before the Court, they are OVERRULED in their entirety. The Court will prepare and enter appropriate orders.

- 3) Defendant Morad Neman's Reply Brief in Support of Motion for Attorneys' Fees (the "Reply") [Doc. No. 257]

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

On August 29, 2016, the Court approved the sale of the estate's interest in this litigation to Defendants Morad Neman ("Mr. Neman") and MBN Real Estate, LLC ("MBN") for $1 million. Bankr. Doc. No. 130. [Note 1] After Mr. Neman failed to complete the purchase, backup bidder Accessories Mart, LLC purchased the litigation for $905,000 on October 20, 2016. Adv. Doc. No. 57. Accessories Mart subsequently assigned its interest in the litigation to JL AM Plus, LLC ("JLAMP"). On September 2, 2016, the Court entered a preliminary injunction, barring Mr. Neman and MBN Real Estate from transferring or encumbering the assets which are the subject of this litigation. Bankr. Doc. No. 138.

On May 25, 2017, the Court entered final judgment in Mr. Neman's favor (the "Judgment"). See Judgment in Favor of Defendant Morad Neman [Doc. No. 138];

Memorandum of Decision Finding that Morad Neman is Entitled to Summary Judgment in His Favor [Doc. No. 136] (the “Memorandum of Decision”). The Court found that there was no genuine dispute that Mr. Neman was not the alter ego of MBN. Having found that Mr. Neman was not MBN’s alter ego, the Court found that Mr. Neman was entitled to judgment in his favor, and that there was no just reason to delay the entry of judgment.

On July 17, 2017, the Court found that Mr. Neman was entitled to attorneys’ fees, in the amount of $74,366.50, as the prevailing party in the adversary proceeding. Adv. Doc. No. 150.

On July 20, 2018, the Court conducted a hearing on JLAMP’s motion to set aside the Judgment in Mr. Neman’s favor. The Court denied the motion. The Court found that JLAMP had not obtained judgment in his favor by stonewalling JLAMP’s discovery; instead, judgment was entered in Mr. Neman’s favor largely as a result of JLAMP’s failure to allege or show any specific facts substantiating its alter ego theory.

Mr. Neman now seeks an award of attorneys’ fees in the amount of $27,122.50, in connection with work performed litigating JLAMP’s motion to set aside the Judgment. Mr. Neman’s counsel seeks reimbursement for 68.8 hours of work. The hourly rates for Mr. Neman’s counsel range between $380 to $475.

JLAMP does not dispute that Mr. Neman is entitled to attorney’s fees, and does not dispute the reasonableness of counsel’s billing rates. JLAMP asserts that the amount of time billed (68.8 hours) to oppose a single motion is not reasonable. JLAMP further notes that the Court significantly discounted the fees awarded to JLAMP in connection with discovery motions, and that the same discount should be applied to Mr. Neman’s request.

In Reply, Mr. Neman states that the amount of time spent by counsel was reasonable, because (1) counsel had to familiarize itself with events that took place a year ago in order to oppose the motion; (2) the stakes involved in the motion were high; and (3) the motion was not routine.

II. Findings and Conclusions

The Court agrees with JLAMP that the fee request of $27,122.50 is excessive. It is true that the motion to set aside the Judgment was not routine and required counsel to familiarize itself with a complicated set of events. However, having thoroughly reviewed the papers filed by both sides when it adjudicated the motion, the Court cannot find that Mr. Neman’s counsel deserves $27,122.50 in fees for the work that it performed.

Chapter 7

In this litigation, the Court has previously awarded JLAMP $16,000 in connection with three motions that JLAMP brought to compel discovery. The amount of work those three motions would have reasonably required is roughly commensurate with the amount of work Mr. Neman's counsel would have reasonably have been required to perform to oppose JLAMP's motion to set aside the Judgment. The Court will limit Mr. Neman's counsel's fees to $16,000.

Mr. Neman shall submit a conforming order, incorporating this tentative ruling by reference, within seven days of the hearing.

#4.10 HearingRE: [253] Motion Notice of Motion and Motion to Continue Trial Until October 15, 2018 (Shikai, Yuriko)

Docket 253

Tentative Ruling:

8/8/2018

For the reasons set forth below, the trial is continued from September 12, 2018 to Tuesday, October 9, 2018 at 9:00 a.m.

Pleadings Filed and Reviewed:

- 1) Notice of Motion and Motion to Continue Trial Until October 15, 2018 [Doc. No. 253]
- 2) JL Am Plus, LLC's Opposition to Defendant MBN's Motion to Continue Trial Until October 15, 2018 [Doc. No. 256]

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

Trial in this matter is currently set for September 12, 2018, at 9:00 a.m. MBN moves to continue the trial until October 15, 2018. MBN's principal, Morad Neman, is scheduled to be sentenced in a criminal proceeding on October 4, 2018. Neman is one of the principal witnesses who will testify concerning the transactions at issue in this litigation.

On December 21, 2017, Neman pleaded guilty to conspiracy to structure cash deposits, conspiracy to impede the Internal Revenue Service, subscribing to a false tax return, and procuring the filing of a false tax return. Neman was initially scheduled to be sentenced on July 19, 2018. The sentencing date has been continued to October 4, 2018.

Neman's Motion for a Continuance Neman's criminal defense counsel asserts that if trial in this matter occurs prior to Neman's sentencing, Neman will be required to assert his Fifth Amendment rights against self-incrimination. MBN argues that if Neman, its primary witness, is required to assert his Fifth Amendment rights at trial, MBN will be unable to adequately defend itself. On this basis, MBN requests that the trial be continued from September 12, 2018 to October 15, 2018.

JLAMP's Opposition

JLAMP opposes any continuance. JLAMP makes the following arguments and representations in support of its opposition:

The Ninth Circuit has adopted a five-factor test to determine whether civil proceedings should be continued pending completion of criminal proceedings. That standard requires the Court to consider:

- 1) the interest of the plaintiffs in proceeding expeditiously with this litigation or any particular aspect of it, and the potential prejudice to plaintiffs of a delay;
- 2) the burden which any particular aspect of the proceedings may impose on defendants;
- 3) the convenience of the court in the management of its cases, and the efficient use of judicial resources;
- 4) the interests of persons not parties to the civil litigation; and
- 5) the interest of the public in the pending civil and criminal litigation.

Fed. Sav. & Loan Ins. Corp. v. Molinaro, 889 F.2d 899, 903 (9th Cir. 1989).

Here, all factors weigh strongly in JLAMP's favor. With respect to factor one, in May 2017, the Court denied JLAMP's request for a continuance of Neman's motion for summary judgment. JLAMP had sought a continuance so that it would have additional time to conduct discovery. The Court also denied JLAMP's request for leave to amend its complaint. The Court found that leave to amend would cause undue delay, and noted that the case had at that time been pending for almost two years. The case has now been pending for three years, and trial still has not taken place. The same considerations that compelled the Court to deny JLAMP's request for leave to amend also compel the Court to deny MBN's request for a continuance.

With respect to factor two, trial of this case in September will not impose an undue burden upon MBN. Neman's counsel has not adequately explained why Neman's testimony will affect his criminal sentencing. None of the properties or transactions in this case are at issue in the criminal matter. Even MBN acknowledges that "the civil and criminal actions are distinct (fraudulent transfer v. structuring and a tax issue." Doc. No. 253 at p. 4.

Factors three and four support having this case heard as soon as possible. Quick disposition of this matter will free the Court to hear other matters. The public interest weighs against delay, as delay of the trial would reward MBN and Neman's gamesmanship.

With respect to factor five, there will be no prejudice to the criminal proceedings as a result of litigation of this matter.

MBN's Reply

MBN makes the following arguments in its Reply to JLAMP's Opposition:

The five-factor test set forth in Fed. Sav. & Loan Ins. Corp. v. Molinaro, 889 F.2d 899, 903 (9th Cir. 1989) does not apply. MBN is seeking only a brief continuance of the trial date, not a stay of the litigation proceedings. However, even if the Molinaro factors did apply, they weigh heavily in MBN's favor. JLAMP has offered absolutely no evidence of prejudice that would result from a delay of approximately one month. By contrast, MBN will suffer substantial prejudice absent a continuance. The fact that the civil and criminal matters do not involve the same properties or transactions is immaterial. The issue is that Neman will be prevented from fully testifying as to the details of the transactions because he will be required to invoke his Fifth Amendment rights.

Finally, Neman's counsel has a case in the Los Angeles Superior Court that is set for trial from September 4–14, 2018. A recent settlement conference was unsuccessful, and it appears the trial will go forward. Therefore, the September 12 trial date is untenable.

II. Findings and Conclusions

As a preliminary matter, the Court overrules MBN's evidentiary objections to the declaration of John S. Purcell, JLAMP's counsel. The Purcell Declaration is intended to provide general background and context regarding the case to assist the Court in evaluating the merits of MBN's motion for a continuance. The Court relies upon the Purcell Declaration only to obtain a general idea of the context in which this Motion arises. It does not turn to the Purcell Declaration for the purpose of adjudicating specific facts regarding various properties or entities. Therefore, MBN's objections as to Mr. Purcell's lack of personal knowledge are overruled.

Turning to the merits, in Fed. Sav. & Loan Ins. Corp. v. Molinaro, 889 F.2d 899, 902 (9th Cir. 1989), the Ninth Circuit articulated the factors the Court must consider when determining whether to stay civil proceedings pending the outcome of parallel criminal proceedings. Molinaro is not exactly on point. MBN seeks a one-month continuance of the trial, as opposed to an indefinite stay. Nonetheless, the Court finds the Molinaro factors relevant and will consider them in adjudicating the instant

Motion.

The Molinaro factors are as follows:

- 1) the interest of the plaintiffs in proceeding expeditiously with this litigation or any particular aspect of it, and the potential prejudice to plaintiffs of a delay;
- 2) the burden which any particular aspect of the proceedings may impose on defendants;
- 3) the convenience of the court in the management of its cases, and the efficient use of judicial resources;
- 4) the interests of persons not parties to the civil litigation; and
- 5) the interest of the public in the pending civil and criminal litigation.

Fed. Sav. & Loan Ins. Corp. v. Molinaro, 889 F.2d 899, 903 (9th Cir. 1989).

Factor One—the Plaintiff’s Interest in Proceeding Expeditiously with this Litigation

This factor weighs slightly in favor of JLAMP. By this litigation, JLAMP seeks to recover several properties located in downtown Los Angeles. JLAMP has an economic interest in having this litigation resolved as quickly as possible. On the other hand, MBN seeks a delay of only slightly more than one month. JLAMP has not shown that there are special circumstances—such as an imminent risk of damage to the properties—which would cause it to be seriously prejudiced by an additional one-month delay.

The Court does not agree with JLAMP’s contention that the Court’s prior ruling, denying JLAMP’s request for leave to amend, now compels it to deny MBN’s request for a brief continuance. Granting JLAMP leave to amend would have delayed this action by far more than the brief delay at issue in the context of this Motion.

Factor Two—the Burden on the Defendants

This factor weighs strongly in favor of MBN. JLAMP is correct that MBN has not specified exactly how Neman’s exercise of his Fifth Amendment rights would prevent him from fully testifying as to the transactions at issue. What JLAMP overlooks is that the disclosure of such information would, in and of itself, be prejudicial to Neman’s upcoming criminal sentencing, as such disclosures could be construed as an admission of guilt which could, in turn, effect his sentence. MBN’s failure to provide a specific explanation therefore does not indicate that its claims of prejudice are not well grounded.

Chapter 7

Factor Three—the Convenience of the Court

This factor weighs slightly in favor of JLAMP. Faster resolution of this matter would conserve judicial resources. However, because MBN seeks a delay of only one month, this factor has minimal weight.

Factor Four—the Interests of the Persons Not Parties to the Civil Litigation

This factor weighs slightly in favor of JLAMP. Resolution of this litigation would remove a cloud over title to the several valuable properties in downtown Los Angeles. Faster development of such properties would benefit the public. But again, this factor is of minimal weight since the delay is only one month.

Factor Five—the Interest of the Public in the Pending Civil and Criminal Litigation

This factor has minimal weight. Neman's testimony in this matter will likely have minimal effect upon the criminal litigation, since Neman has already reached a plea agreement. Faster resolution of the civil litigation would be in the public's interest—since it would enable the faster development of the properties at issue—but again, the short delay makes this factor minimal.

Consideration of All Factors Supports a Brief Delay of the Trial

Upon consideration of all five factors, the Court finds that MBN has shown that it is entitled to a brief delay of the trial. In this context, factor two is the most salient. Neman is MBN's principal witness. If trial takes place before Neman's sentencing, he will not be able to fully testify as to the transactions at issue in this case. This would prevent MBN from fully defending itself.

It is true that the other factors weigh in favor of JLAMP. However, as noted above, those factors have only minimal weight, given that the delay will be approximately one month.

Neman is scheduled to be sentenced on October 4, 2018. The Court will continue the trial to Tuesday, October 9, 2018, at 9:00 a.m. The deadline for the submission of trial briefs, exhibits, and other materials described in the Order Re: Courtroom Procedures [Doc. No. 71] is Thursday, September 27, 2018 (seven court days prior to trial).

Medical Center, Inc. (the "Debtor") and the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (the "Committee") jointly seek approval of the Modified Proposed Disclosure Statement for Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Liquidation Pursuant to Section 1125 of the Bankruptcy Code [Doc. No. 1255] (the "Disclosure Statement").

The Plan provides for liquidation of the Debtor's remaining assets. Funds recovered in connection with such liquidation will be paid to claimants in accordance with the distribution priorities established by the Bankruptcy Code and Plan. Upon the Effective Date of the Plan, the Debtor shall establish a Liquidating Trust, and the assets shall be liquidated by a Liquidating Trustee.

No Opposition to the Motion is on file.

II. Findings and Conclusions

Section 1125 provides that a disclosure statement must contain "information of a kind, and in sufficient detail, as far as is reasonably practicable in light of the nature and history of the debtor and the condition of the debtor's books and records, ... that would enable ... a hypothetical investor of the relevant class to make an informed judgment about the plan." In determining whether a disclosure statement provides adequate information, "the court shall consider the complexity of the case, the benefit of additional information to creditors and other parties in interest, and the cost of providing additional information." §1125.

Courts interpreting § 1125(a) have explained that the "primary purpose of a disclosure statement is to give the creditors the information they need to decide whether to accept the plan." In re Monnier Bros., 755 F.2d 1336, 1342 (8th Cir. 1985). "According to the legislative history, the parameters of what constitutes adequate information are intended to be flexible." In re Diversified Investors Fund XVII, 91 B.R. 559, 560 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 1988). As explained by one court:

Relevant factors for evaluating the adequacy of a disclosure statement may include: (1) the events which led to the filing of a bankruptcy petition; (2) a description of the available assets and their value; (3) the anticipated future of the company; (4) the source of information stated in the disclosure statement; (5) a disclaimer; (6) the present condition of the debtor while in Chapter 11; (7) the scheduled claims; (8) the estimated return to creditors under a Chapter 7 liquidation; (9) the accounting method utilized to produce financial information and the name of the accountants responsible for such information; (10) the future management of the debtor; (11) the Chapter 11 plan or a summary thereof; (12) the estimated administrative expenses, including attorneys' and accountants' fees; (13) the collectability of accounts receivable;

However, "[d]isclosure of all factors is not necessary in every case." Id.

The Court finds that the Disclosure Statement contains adequate information, in view of the size and complexity of the case. Among other things, the Disclosure Statement contains detailed descriptions of (1) the Debtor's capital structure and pre-petition indebtedness, (2) the factors precipitating the Chapter 11 filing, (3) significant events that occurred during the Chapter 11 case, (4) the classification structure of the Plan, and (5) the means for execution of the Plan. The Disclosure Statement also contains (1) a liquidation analysis, (2) a description of the tax consequences of the Plan, and (3) a discussion of risk factors in connection with the Plan.

The Court has reviewed the Debtor's proposed order (the "Proposed Order"), which approves the Disclosure Statement, approves procedures pertaining to the tabulation and solicitation of ballots, and approves the form of various notices to be sent to creditors and interested parties. The Court will enter the Proposed Order in the form submitted by the Debtor, with the following minor modifications and clarifications:

- The provision at ¶25.e. allowing for an extension of the September 10, 2018 deadline to object to confirmation of the Plan upon the consent of the Debtor, the Committee, the United States Trustee, and all parties who have requested notice shall be stricken. To provide the Court sufficient time to consider all objections, the deadline to object to confirmation shall not be extended except upon order of the Court.
- The Court will enter the Proposed Order on Thursday, August 9, 2016. Therefore, the Solicitation Commencement Date (as defined in the Proposed Order) shall be Wednesday, August 15.
- The Proposed Order does not set forth a date certain by which the Debtor must distribute the Confirmation Hearing Notice and Solicitation Packages to Voting Classes. To enable creditors adequate time to review such materials, the Debtor must serve the Confirmation Hearing Notice and Solicitation

- The deadline for the Debtor to file a tabulation report for the Plan, a proposed form of confirmation order, and a declaration in support of confirmation addressing the requirements of §1129(a) is September 11, 2018, at 4:00 p.m. (not September 13, 2018, at 4:00 p.m.).

Except as set forth above, all other deadlines pertaining to plan confirmation, the solicitation of votes, and the tabulation of ballots shall be as set forth in the Proposed Order. The Plan Confirmation Hearing shall take place on Monday, September 17, 2018, at 10:00 a.m., as requested by the Debtor.

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

Pacific Western Bank ("PWB") seeks relief from the automatic stay, pursuant to § 362(d)(1), to enable it to record abstracts of judgment and to exercise similar state law remedies against Gerald Goldstein. Recordation of the abstracts of judgment would result in the perfection of a lien against Goldstein's interest in certain real properties in which both the estate and Goldstein claim an interest. The Chapter 7 Trustee (the "Trustee"), the Debtor, unsecured creditor Peter Rudinkas, Goldstein, and Nemecek & Cole (a law firm that has represented Goldstein) oppose the Motion.

A. Background

Claire Levine (the "Debtor") commenced a voluntary Chapter 11 petition on April 4, 2012. On July 30, 2012, the case was converted to Chapter 7. Doc. No. 78. Prior to the petition date, the Debtor initiated a palimony action against Gerald Goldstein, a high net worth music and entertainment executive (the "2008 Action"). The Debtor alleged that she had rescued Goldstein from financial disaster, saving his home from foreclosure and his business from bankruptcy, and had devoted her time, labor, and capital to Goldstein's music and entertainment businesses, which the parties agreed would be their joint businesses. The Debtor further alleged that Goldstein had siphoned joint assets, concealed asset transfers, and engaged in a course of conduct designed to deny the Debtor her rightful share of the assets of the joint businesses. The Debtor and Goldstein executed a settlement agreement under which the 2008 Action was dismissed without prejudice.

The Debtor and Goldstein are co-trustees of the Amadeus Trust dated January 24, 2000 (the "Amadeus Trust"). As of the commencement of the case, the Amadeus Trust held title to six parcels of real property. Four of the properties have been sold, foreclosed upon, or are otherwise no longer within the estate. Two properties are still subject to administration by the Trustee. Those properties are located at 1027 Napoli Drive, Pacific Palisades, CA (the "Napoli Property") and 3800 Wailea Alanui, B101, Maui, HI (the "Wailea Property"). The extent of Goldstein's interest in the Napoli and Wailea Properties, if any, has not been adjudicated.

On December 3, 2012, Goldstein filed a proof of claim (the "Goldstein Claim") in the amount of $5,571,022.62. The Goldstein Claim alleged that Debtor, as a co-trustee of the Amadeus Trust and a co-owner of properties held by the trust, was responsible for 50% of the expenses of maintaining the trust properties. The Goldstein Claim alleged that Goldstein paid all the expenses of maintaining the properties, and that the Debtor failed to pay any of the expenses for which she was responsible. Other than the Goldstein Claim, total allowed unsecured claims amount to approximately $80,000.

On July 30, 2018, the Court conducted a trial on the allowability of the Goldstein Claim. On that same date, the Court entered judgment disallowing the Goldstein Claim in its entirety. Doc. Nos. 636–37.

After the 2008 Action was dismissed, the Debtor alleged that instead of complying with his fiduciary obligations to and his agreements with the Debtor, Goldstein undertook a course of conduct that exposed the parties' assets to substantial devaluation. The Debtor commenced a second action against Goldstein, which the Chapter 7 Trustee ("Trustee") is now prosecuting as the real party in interest; the action is entitled Howard M. Ehrenberg, Chapter 7 Trustee and Real Party in Interest for Claire Levine v. Gerald Goldstein et al. (the "Civil Complaint"). The Civil Complaint alleges that Goldstein wrongfully withdrew up to $30 million in equity from Levine and Goldstein's jointly-held properties, and seeks damages in that amount. Civil Complaint at ¶83. The Civil Complaint seeks an adjudication that Debtor holds an undivided one-half interest in all of the properties, as well as an undivided one-half interest in Goldstein's music and entertainment businesses and assets. Id. at ¶156.

On September 24, 2015, the Court approved a global settlement between the Debtor, Goldstein, the Amadeus Trust, and various businesses controlled by Goldstein (the "Original Settlement Agreement"). Doc. Nos. 324 and 326. The Original Settlement Agreement was conditioned on the short sale of property in which the Debtor and Goldstein claimed an interest, located at 3800 Wailea Avenue, B101, Wailea, Maui (the "Wailea Property"), to HAR-Bronson ("Bronson"). Bronson was then required to resell the Wailea Property (the "Resale"). Upon the Resale, Goldstein and the Debtor would have been required to cause the Amadeus Trust to quitclaim and Napoli Property to the Debtor. Thus, consummation of the Original Settlement Agreement would have established the extent of Goldstein's interest, if any, in the Napoli and Wailea Properties.

As a result of the parties' inability to complete the short sale of the Wailea Property, the Original Settlement Agreement was never consummated. On January 19, 2017, the Court approved an Amended Settlement Agreement. Consummation of the Amended Settlement Agreement would have likewise established the extent of Goldstein's interest in the Napoli and Wailea Properties. Like the Original Settlement Agreement, the Amended Settlement Agreement required the short sale of the Wailea Property. As a result of various issues, including an inability to resolve a lien asserted against the Wailea Property by Trinity Financial Services, the parties were unable to complete the short sale.

By its own terms, the Amended Settlement Agreement would become "null and void" if the parties did not complete the short sale within 450 days of full execution of the Amended Settlement Agreement. See Amended Settlement Agreement at ¶2a [Doc. No. 373, Ex. 1]. The Amended Settlement Agreement was fully executed as of September 30, 2016. Thus, the deadline for the short sale was December 24, 2017. Because the parties were unable to complete the short sale by that date, the Amended Settlement Agreement is now null and void.

On December 8, 2014, the Court granted PWB stay-relief to proceed with two state court actions against Goldstein. The Court ordered that the stay would remain in effect with respect to PWB's enforcement of any judgments it obtained against Goldstein, to the extent that such enforcement actions "directly or indirectly impact estate property ..." See Doc. No. 299 at p. 3.

On January 19, 2017, the Court denied PWB's request that the stay be lifted to enable PWB to record abstracts of judgment against properties in which both the estate and Goldstein claimed an interest. Doc. No. 429. The Court had previously lifted the stay to enable PWB to enforce judgments it had obtained against Goldstein against Goldstein's personal property. Doc. Nos. 360–361. The Court found that permitting PWB to enforce its judgments against properties in which both the estate and Goldstein claimed an interest risked jeopardized consummation of the Amended Settlement Agreement.

PWB appealed the denial of its motion to lift the stay to the District Court. On January 8, 2018, in a published opinion, the District Court affirmed the denial. The District Court noted that if the Amended Settlement Agreement were consummated, the Debtor would acquire an interest in certain real properties. The District Court held that the automatic stay extended to the Debtor's contingent future property interest:

Like the debtor in Bialac, Levine owns a contingent interest in the entirety of the Real Properties. If the B101 Apartment is sold in a Short Sale pursuant to the Settlement Agreement, then Levine, and therefore her bankruptcy estate, will take the Napoli Property and Brentwood Condo as her sole, separate property. At that point, the B101 Apartment will have been sold, with Goldstein receiving none of the direct proceeds from the Short Sale. The Settlement Agreement could, therefore, operate to grant Levine and her bankruptcy estate the entirety of the Real Properties. Because Levine has a contingent interest in the entirety of the Real Properties, including whatever separate interest Goldstein currently has in them, Bank cannot take enforcement actions against the Real Properties without also affecting the bankruptcy estate's property rights. Accordingly, the Real Properties fall entirely within the scope of the automatic stay.

B. Summary of PWB's Motion for Stay-Relief; Oppositions Filed by the Debtor and Peter Rudinkas, Goldstein and Nemecek & Cole, and the Trustee; and PWB's Reply in Support of the Motion

PWB holds judgments against Goldstein in excess of $5 million. PWB seeks relief from the automatic stay for cause, pursuant to §362(d)(1), to enable it to record abstracts of judgment and to exercise similar state law remedies against Goldstein. Recordation of the abstracts of judgment would result in the perfection of a lien against Goldstein's interest, if any, in the Napoli and Wailea Properties. PWB states that if the stay is not lifted, its ability to enforce its judgments against Goldstein will be severely impaired. PWB notes that state and local procedures do not permit abstracts of judgment to be recorded on a property-by-property basis. Consequently, absent stay-relief, PWB will be unable to record abstracts of judgment against any real property owned by Goldstein—including property in which the estate does not claim an interest and property which Goldstein may acquire in the future.

In opposition to the Motion, the Trustee argues that allowing the Napoli and Wailea Properties to be liened will interfere with the Trustee's administration of those properties. The Trustee requests that any order awarding stay-relief be limited, making clear that (1) any collection or judgment enforcement actions PWB takes do not attach to the estate's interest in any property; that (2) PWB shall have no right or ability to block any sale or monetization of any estate asset, notwithstanding any liens it may obtain, even if the contemplated disposition does not satisfy PWB's liens in full; and that (3) any post-petition lien PWB obtains shall be deemed fully and completely released as is necessary to transfer title upon the Trustee's sale of the property, regardless of whether such lien has been satisfied.

Goldstein, and Nemecek & Cole ("N&C"), a law firm that has provided legal services to Goldstein, also oppose stay-relief. Lucy Mekhael, an attorney at N&C, testifies that Goldstein and the Debtor are still attempting to consummate the Amended Settlement Agreement. Mekhael states that the parties are close to achieving a global resolution of all disputes, but that such resolution will be jeopardized if PWB obtains stay-relief.

The Debtor and unsecured creditor Peter Rudinkas jointly oppose stay-relief. The Debtor and Rudinkas likewise argue that stay-relief will interfere with future administration of the estate. The Debtor and Rudinkas contend that Goldstein holds no interest in the Napoli and Wailea Properties, and that PWB is seeking to record abstracts of judgment against Goldstein only to obtain an unfair bargaining position.

Chapter 7

In its Reply in support of the Motion, PWB argues that the parties opposing stay-relief have failed to furnish any competent evidence. PWB moves to strike the declaration submitted by Lucy Mekhael (the "Mekhael Decl.") on the grounds that it does not contain a holographic signature as required by the Local Bankruptcy Rules. PWB notes that regardless of whether it records abstracts of judgment, it will be difficult for the Trustee to administer the Napoli and Wailea Properties, given that the extent of Goldstein's interest in such properties has never been adjudicated. PWB states that these difficulties are not its fault and that it should not be penalized as a result of the disputes between the Debtor and Goldstein.

II. Findings and Conclusions

A. PWB's Evidentiary Objections to the Mekhael Declaration

PWB moves to strike the Declaration of Lucy H. Mekhael (the "Mekhael Decl.") in its entirety. PWB notes that the Mekhael Decl. does not contain Mekhael's holographic signature. Instead, the declaration contains an electronic signature. PWB states that the electronic signature is not effective under the Local Bankruptcy Rules, because the Mekhael Decl. was filed using attorney Jonathan Cole's CM/ECF login.

PWB is correct that the Mekhael Decl.'s signature is not compliant with LBR 9011. LBR 9011 implements Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 9011. Bankruptcy Rule 9011 requires that papers filed with the Court be signed by the attorney of record. The purpose of Bankruptcy Rule 9011 is to insure that attorneys who file frivolous papers can be held responsible for their actions.

The Court finds that Mekhael's failure to precisely comply with the requirements of LBR 9011 was inadvertent. Mekhael's firm appears before the Bankruptcy Court infrequently. LBR 9011's holographic signature requirement became effective only recently. Many firms are still unfamiliar with the technical requirements of submitting a PDF document compliant with LBR 9011's holographic signature provisions.

Bankruptcy Rule 9011 provides that an "unsigned paper shall be stricken unless omission of the signature is corrected promptly after being called to the attention of the attorney or party." Because Mekhael's failure to comply with LBR 9011's holographic signature requirement was inadvertent, the Court will permit Mekhael to correct the error by re-filing the declaration with a holographic signature. Mekhael must file a declaration containing her holographic signature by no later than Wednesday, August 15. Provided that Mekhael timely files a compliant declaration, the Court will deny PWB's request to strike the declaration.

PWB's evidentiary objection to Mekhael's testimony that Goldstein and the Debtor have been working diligently to settle their disputes, and are close to reaching a settlement, is OVERRULED. As an attorney who has represented Goldstein, Mekhael has sufficient personal knowledge to offer such testimony. However, the Court accords Mekhael's representation that Goldstein and the Debtor are close to resolving their disputes very little weight. Goldstein and the Debtor have had more than three years to resolve their disputes, and have not done so. Various parties have repeatedly represented to the Court that a resolution was imminent—only for the Court to see such resolution collapse as a result of additional unexpected complications. At this point it is immaterial whether the failure to achieve resolution was attributable to a lack of diligence, or from the complexity of the issues and the number of counterparties. The bottom line is that the parties have been provided more than ample time to resolve their disputes. Having failed to do so, they can no longer be permitted to enjoy the protections of the automatic stay to the detriment of PWB's ability to enforce its judgments against Goldstein, as further discussed below.

PWB's remaining evidentiary objections are SUSTAINED. PWB objects to the Mekhael Decl. to the extent that it presents legal argument disguised as testimony. PWB is correct that significant portions of the Mekhael Decl. are in fact nothing more than legal argument—which has no place in a declaration. To the extent the Mekhael Decl. states legal conclusions, the Court construes the declaration only as argument, not as testimony.

B. The Motion is Granted

Under §362(d)(1), the Court is required to lift the stay "for cause." As explained by the Ninth Circuit Bankruptcy Appellate Panel:

What constitutes 'cause' for granting relief from the automatic stay is decided on a case-by-case basis. Among factors appropriate to consider in determining whether relief from the automatic stay should be granted to allow state court proceedings to continue are considerations of judicial economy and the expertise of the state court, ... as well as prejudice to the parties and whether exclusively bankruptcy issues are involved.

Kronemyer v. American Contractors Indemnity Co. (In re Kronemyer), 405 B.R. 915, 921 (BAP 9th Cir. 2009).

The factors articulated in In re Curtis, 40 B.R. 795, 799-800 (Bankr. D. Utah 1984) and adopted by the bankruptcy court in Truebro, Inc. v. Plumberex Specialty Prods., Inc. (In re Plumberex Specialty Prods., Inc), 311 B.R. 551, 559-60 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2004) are also "appropriate, nonexclusive factors to consider in deciding whether to grant relief from the automatic stay to allow pending litigation to continue in another forum." Kronemyer, 405 B.R. at 921. The Curtis factors are as follows:

- 1) Whether the relief will result in a partial or complete resolution of the issues;
- 2) The lack of any connection with or interference with the bankruptcy case;
- 3) Whether the foreign proceeding involves the debtor as a fiduciary;
- 4) Whether a specialized tribunal has been established to hear the particular cause of action and whether that tribunal has the expertise to hear such cases;
- 5) Whether the debtor's insurance carrier has assumed full financial responsibility for defending the litigation;
- 6) Whether the action essentially involves third parties, and the debtor functions only as a bailee or conduit for the goods or proceeds in question;
- 7) Whether the litigation in another forum would prejudice the interests of other creditors, the creditors' committee and other interested parties;
- 8) Whether the judgment claim arising from the foreign action is subject to equitable subordination under Section 510(c);
- 9) Whether movant's success in the foreign proceeding would result in a judicial lien avoidable by the debtor under Section 522(f);
- 10) The interests of judicial economy and the expeditious and economical determination of litigation for the parties;
- 11) Whether the foreign proceedings have progressed to the point where the parties are prepared for trial, and
- 12) The impact of the stay on the parties and the "balance of hurt."

Plumberex, 311 B.R. at 599.

Applying the applicable Curtis and Kronemyer factors, the Court finds ample cause to lift the stay to allow PWB to record abstracts of judgment against property in which both estate and Goldstein claim an interest. Here, the most salient consideration is factor two—the extent to which stay-relief will interfere with the Trustee's ability to administer the Napoli and Wailea Properties. The Court previously denied PWB's motion for stay-relief, finding that granting relief would jeopardize consummation of the Amended Settlement Agreement. However, as stated above, Goldstein and the Debtor have been provided more than sufficient time to resolve their disputes, and have failed to do so. The Court has no confidence in representations that a resolution is imminent. The Court has heard such representations on multiple past occasions, only to see the settlement collapse.

Chapter 7

Regardless of whether stay-relief is granted to PWB, the Napoli and Wailea Properties will be difficult assets for the Trustee to administer. That is because the Debtor and Goldstein vigorously dispute the extent of Goldstein's interest in those properties. Preventing PWB from recording abstracts of judgment against Goldstein does nothing to facilitate resolution of the disputes between the Debtor and Goldstein. It is true that an additional lien against the properties may slightly complicate the Trustee's efforts to sell or otherwise administer such properties. But the main challenge to administration is not PWB's claims against Goldstein—it is the contentious disputes between Goldstein and the Debtor.

Denying stay-relief would be particularly prejudicial to PWB because state and local procedures do not permit recordation of an abstract of judgment on a property-by-property basis. As long as the stay remains in place, PWB cannot record abstracts of judgment against any of Goldstein's real estate—even real estate as to which the estate claims no interest, or real estate which Goldstein may acquire in the future.

The Court will lift the stay to permit PWB to take whatever actions are necessary to record abstracts of judgment against those properties in which both the estate and Goldstein claim an interest. The stay remains in place with respect to PWB's ability to foreclose upon such properties. Before any such foreclosure can take place, this Court must first determine the extent, if any, of Goldstein's interest in the properties, and the extent of the estate's interest. These issues require an adjudication of the scope of the estate's property interests and are therefore within the sole jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court.

In addition to authorization to record abstracts of judgment, PWB also requests stay-relief for the purpose of "exercising similar state law remedies" against Goldstein. Doc. No. 608 at ¶4.g. That request is denied. The phrase "similar state law remedies" is far too vague and ambiguous. Instead, PWB shall be authorized to take whatever actions are necessary to record abstracts of judgment against those properties in which both the estate and Goldstein claim an interest.

III. Conclusion

Based upon the foregoing, the Motion is GRANTED. Because the Motion was opposed, PWB's request for waiver of the 14-day stay is DENIED. PWB shall submit an order, incorporating this tentative ruling by reference, within seven days of the hearing.

#2.00 HearingRE: [8] Notice of motion and motion for relief from the automatic stay with supporting declarations REAL PROPERTY RE: 850, 852, & 852 West 43rd Place, Los Angeles, CA 90037 . (Schloss, Edward)

Docket 8

Tentative Ruling:

8/9/2018

Tentative Ruling:

This Motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on the notice required by LBR 4001(c)(1) and LBR 9013-1(d)(2). The failure of the Debtor, the trustee, and all other parties in interest to file written opposition at least 14 days prior to the hearing as required by LBR 9013-1(f) is considered as consent to the granting of the Motion. LBR 9013-1(h). Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995).

The Motion is GRANTED pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(2) to permit Movant, its successors, transferees and assigns, to enforce its remedies to foreclose upon and obtain possession of the property in accordance with applicable law. Movant may not pursue any deficiency claim against the Debtor or property of the estate except by filing a proof of claim pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 501. Since a chapter 7 case does not contemplate reorganization, the sole issue before the Court when stay relief is sought under 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(2) is whether the Debtor has equity in the property. See, e.g., Martens v. Countrywide Home Loans (In re Martens), 331 B.R. 395, 398 (8th Cir. BAP 2005); Ramco Indus. v. Preuss (In re Preuss), 15 B.R. 896, 897 (9th Cir. BAP 1981).

The subject property has a value of $628,114.00 and is encumbered by a perfected deed of trust or mortgage in favor of the Movant. The liens against the property and the expected costs of sale total $829,261.01. The Court finds there is no equity and there is no evidence that the trustee can administer the subject real property for the benefit of creditors.

RE: [56] [59] Notice of motion and motion for relief from automatic stay with supporting declarations ACTION IN NON-BANKRUPTCY FORUM RE: none .
(Salamirad, Ali)

Docket 56

Tentative Ruling:

8/9/2018

The Court GRANTS the Motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) to permit the Movants to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to proceed to final judgment in the non-bankruptcy forum, provided that the stay remains in effect with respect to enforcement of any judgment against the Debtor or estate property.

Pleadings Filed and Reviewed:

- 1) Notice of Motion and Motion for Relief from the Automatic Stay Under 11 U.S.C. § 362 (Action in Nonbankruptcy Forum) (the "Motion") [Doc. No. 56]
- 2) No Opposition to the Motion has been filed as of the date of this tentative ruling

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

Henderson Mechanical Systems, Inc. (the "Debtor") filed a voluntary Chapter 11 petition on April 9, 2018 (the "Petition") [Doc. No. 1]. On July 19, 2018, International Fidelity Insurance Company (the "Movant") filed the "Notice of Motion and Motion for Relief from the Automatic Stay under 11 U.S.C. § 362 (Action in Nonbankruptcy Forum)" (the "Motion") [Doc. No. 56].

The Motion

The Motion seeks stay-relief pursuant to § 362(d)(1), so that the Movant may proceed under applicable nonbankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to proceed to final judgment in the nonbankruptcy forum in an action currently pending in the California Superior Court, County of Los Angeles, captioned International Fidelity Ins. Co. v. Henderson Mech. Sys. Inc., Case No. BC678452 (the "State Court Action"). The State Court Action was filed on October 4, 2017. Other defendants in the State Court Action are James Paul Lee, individually and dba Henderson Heating & Ductman, Hedieh Lee, and individual, and Doe defendants. Trial is estimated to require 2 days of trial/hearings. The Complaint in the State Court Action asserts claims for: breach of contract – indemnity; breach of contract – collateral security; statutory reimbursement; and specific performance.

Chapter 11

The Movant contends that cause exists to grant stay-relief under §362(d)(1) for the following reasons:

- (1) The Movants seek recovery primarily from third parties and agrees that the stay will remain in effect as to the enforcement of any resulting judgment against the Debtor or bankruptcy estate, except that Movant will retain the right to file a proof of claim under 11 U.S.C. § 501 and/or an adversary complaint under 11 U.S.C. § 523 or § 727 in this bankruptcy case.
- (2) The claims arise under nonbankruptcy law and can be most expeditiously resolved in the nonbankruptcy forum, because the State Court Action involves non-debtor parties and a single trial in the nonbankruptcy forum is the most efficient use of judicial resources.

The Movant seeks to proceed under applicable nonbankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to proceed to final judgment in the nonbankruptcy forum, provided that the stay remains in effect with respect to enforcement of any judgment against the Debtor or property of the Debtor's bankruptcy estate. The Movant also requests annulment of the stay; however, the basis for annulment of the stay is not clear.

II. Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law

As a preliminary matter, a motion for relief from the automatic stay is a summary proceeding that does not involve an adjudication of the merits of the underlying claims. As recognized by the Ninth Circuit Bankruptcy Appellate Panel in In re Luz Int'l, Ltd.:

Chapter 11

Given the limited grounds for obtaining a motion for relief from stay, read in conjunction with the expedited schedule for a hearing on the motion, most courts hold that motion for relief from stay hearings should not involve an adjudication of the merits of claims, defenses, or counterclaims, but simply determine whether the creditor has a colorable claim to the property of the estate. See In re Johnson, 756 F.2d 738, 740 (9th Cir.), cert. denied, 474 U.S. 828, 106 S.Ct. 88, 88 L.Ed.2d 72 (1985) ("Hearings on relief from the automatic stay are thus handled in a summary fashion. The validity of the claim or contract underlying the claim is not litigated during the hearing.").

The automatic stay of 11 U.S.C. § 362(a) stays all action involving the following, in pertinent part:

- (1) the commencement or continuation, including the issuance or employment of process of a judicial, administrative, or other action or proceeding against the debtor that was or could have been commenced before the commencement of the case under this title, or to recover a claim against the debtor that arose before the commencement of the case under this title.

11 U.S.C. § 362(a)(1).

Section 362(d)(1) permits a bankruptcy court to grant relief from the automatic stay upon a showing of "cause." Cause is a flexible concept and courts often conduct a fact intensive, case-by-case balancing test, examining the totality of the circumstances to determine whether sufficient cause exists to lift the stay. In re SCO Grp., Inc., 395 B.R. 852, 856 (Bankr. D. Del. 2007) (citing Baldino v. Wilson (In re Wilson), 116 F.3d 87, 90 (3d Cir. 1997); In re Laguna Assocs. Ltd., 30 F.3d 734, 737 (7th Cir. 1994)); In re MacDonald, 755 F.2d 715, 717 (9th Cir. 1985). "Among factors appropriate to consider in determining whether relief from the automatic stay should be granted to allow state court proceedings to continue are considerations of judicial economy and the expertise of the state court." In re Kronemyer, 405 B.R. 915, 921

Here, to the extent the automatic stay applies under the circumstances described above, the Court finds that the causes of actions in the state court complaint attached to the Motion involve state law violations and are within the expertise of the state court. Allowing the Movant to continue the State Court Action will best promote the judicial economy by adjudicating a final judgment as to the underlying claims that may either support or negate the filing of a proof of claim and/or an adversary complaint.

Based on the foregoing, to the extent the automatic stay applies, the Court GRANTS the Motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) to permit the Movant to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to proceed to final judgment in the nonbankruptcy forum, provided that the stay remains in effect with respect to enforcement of any judgment against the Debtors or estate property. The Movant may not pursue any deficiency claim or any other claim against the Debtors or property of the estate, except that the Movant will retain the right to file a proof of claim and/or an adversary complaint under §§523 or 727. Tentative Ruling:

8/9/2018

Tentative Ruling:

This Motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set on a shortened notice in accordance with Judge Robles' procedures. Oppositions, if any, will be considered at the hearing.

The Motion is GRANTED pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1). The stay is terminated as to the Debtor and the Debtor's bankruptcy estate with respect to the Movant, its successors, transferees and assigns. Movant may enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property in accordance with applicable law, but may not pursue a deficiency claim against the debtor or property of the estate except by filing a proof of claim pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 501.

The Debtor continues to occupy the property after a foreclosure sale held on January 8, 2018. The Movant filed an unlawful detainer action on May 2, 2018.

This Motion has been filed to allow the Movant to proceed with the unlawful detainer proceeding in state court. The unlawful detainer proceeding may go forward because the Debtor's right to possess the premises must be determined. This does not change simply because a bankruptcy petition was filed. See In re Butler, 271 B.R. 867, 876 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2002).

The stay is annulled retroactive to the petition date, so that enforcement actions taken by Movant, if any, before receipt of notice of the automatic stay will not be deemed to have been voided by the automatic stay.

Docket 234

Tentative Ruling:

8/13/2018

For the reasons set forth below, this hearing is VACATED and no appearances are required. A continued Status Conference shall be held on September 11, 2018, at 10:00 a.m.

On February 17, 2018, the Court issued a Report and Recommendation, recommending that the District Court enter final judgment, in favor of the Chapter 7 Trustee (the "Trustee"), as to the second, third, and sixth claims for relief for avoidance and recovery of fraudulent transfers made with actual intent. Doc. No. 341. On that same date, the Court issued a Memorandum of Decision, stating that the Court intended to grant the Trustee's motion for summary adjudication disallowing the proofs of claim filed by the Bright Conscience Trust. However, the Memorandum of Decision stated that the findings set forth therein would not become the order of the Court until the District Court acted upon the Report and Recommendation.

On June 25, 2018, the District Court rejected the Report and Recommendation, and denied the Trustee's motion for summary adjudication as to the second, third, and sixth claims for relief. On July 20, 2018, the Trustee moved for reconsideration of the District Court's rejection of the Report and Recommendation. On August 10, 2018, the District Court vacated oral argument on the motion for reconsideration and took the motion under submission.

The Trustee requests that the Status Conference be continued until after the Motion for Reconsideration has been adjudicated. Defendants request that the Court set a Pretrial Conference for a date in September 2018. Defendants state that it is likely that the District Court will deny the Motion for Reconsideration. Defendants also state that they anticipate filing a motion to withdraw the reference to the District Court.

It is not appropriate for the Bankruptcy Court to continue to adjudicate this matter until the District Court has ruled upon the Trustee's Motion for Reconsideration. A continued Status Conference shall be held on September 11, 2018, at 10:00 a.m. A Joint Status Report shall be filed by no later than seven days prior to the hearing.

The Trustee shall promptly advise the Court once the District Court rules upon the Motion for Reconsideration. The September 11, 2018 Status Conference may be advanced in the event that the Motion for Reconsideration is decided quickly.

The Court will prepare and enter an order setting the continued Status Conference.

Docket 1

Tentative Ruling:

8/13/2018

Having reviewed the Joint Status Report submitted by the parties, the Court HEREBY ORDERS as follows:

- 1) Defendant Ramona Leon Cruz ("Defendant") has timely demanded a jury trial in this avoidance action, has not filed a proof of claim against the estate, and consents to having the jury trial conducted by the Bankruptcy Court. Under these circumstances, Defendant is entitled to a jury trial. See Langenkamp v. Culp, 498 U.S. 42, 45 (1990) ("If a party does not submit a claim against the bankruptcy estate, however, the trustee can recover allegedly preferential transfers only by filing what amounts to a legal action to recover a monetary transfer. In those circumstances the preference defendant is entitled to a jury trial."). Because both Plaintiff and Defendant have consented to the Bankruptcy Court's entry of final judgment, the jury trial will be conducted by the Bankruptcy Court. See Bankruptcy Rule 9015(b) (stating that the Bankruptcy Court may conduct a jury trial only with the consent of all parties).
- 2) The litigation deadlines previously ordered shall continue to apply, as follows:
 - a) The last day to amend pleadings and/or join other parties is 9/13/2018.
 - b) The last day to disclose expert witnesses and expert witness reports is 12/25/2018.

If the expert discovery cutoff date falls on a date when the court is closed or that is not available for self-calendaring, the deadline for hearings on expert discovery motions is the next closest date which is available for self-calendaring.)
- e) The last day for dispositive motions to be heard is 2/19/2019. (If the motion cutoff date is not available for self-calendaring, the deadline for dispositive motions to be heard is the next closest date which is available for self-calendaring.)
 - f) The last day to complete discovery (except as to experts), including hearings on discovery motions, is 2/23/2019. (If the non-expert discovery cutoff date is not available for self-calendaring, the deadline for non-expert discovery motions to be heard is the next closest date which is available for self-calendaring.)
 - g) A Pretrial Conference is set for 3/12/2019 at 11:00 a.m. By no later than fourteen days prior to the Pretrial Conference, the parties must submit a Joint Pretrial Stipulation via the Court's Lodged Order Upload (LOU) system. Submission via LOU allows the Court to edit the Joint Pretrial Stipulation, if necessary. Parties should consult the Court Manual, section 4, for information about LOU.
 - h) In addition to the procedures set forth in Local Bankruptcy Rule 7016-1(b), the following procedures govern the conduct of the Pretrial Conference and the preparation of the Pretrial Stipulation:
 - i) By no later than thirty days prior to the Pretrial Conference, the parties must exchange copies of all exhibits which each party intends to introduce into evidence (other than exhibits to be used solely for impeachment or rebuttal).
 - ii) When preparing the Pretrial Stipulation, all parties shall stipulate to the admissibility of exhibits whenever possible. In the event any party cannot stipulate to the admissibility of an exhibit, that party must file a Motion in Limine which clearly identifies each exhibit alleged to be inadmissible and/or prejudicial. The moving party must set the Motion in Limine for hearing at the same time as the Pretrial Conference; notice and service of the Motion shall be governed by LBR 9013-1.

This hearing is vacated and no appearances are required. On November 16, 2017, the Court entered an order staying this adversary proceeding pending the completion of Defendant's appeal of the State Court Judgment giving rise to the indebtedness alleged to be non-dischargeable. On April 16, 2018, the California Court of Appeal reversed and remanded to the trial court the portion of the State Court Judgment awarding attorneys' fees. On June 7, 2018, the trial court conducted an initial status conference regarding the proper award of attorneys' fees. A further hearing in the trial court regarding the appropriate award of attorneys' fees is set for August 13, 2018, at 8:30 a.m.

A continued Status Conference shall take place on October 16, 2018, at 10:00 a.m. A Joint Status Report, which should discuss the status of the proceedings before the State Court, must be submitted by no later than fourteen days prior to the hearing. Docket 1

Tentative Ruling:

8/13/2018

On June 28, 2018, Plaintiff filed this dischargeability action against Defendants Chong Sang Tak, In Og Tak, Gangnam Pizza, Inc., dba Round Table Pizza ("Gangnam Pizza"), and Does 1 through 50. Doc. No. 1. On July 24, 2018, Defendant Chong Sang Tak filed an Answer to the Complaint. Doc. No. 8. The remaining defendants have not answered or otherwise responded to the Complaint.

On July 30, 2018, Plaintiff filed a document captioned Amended Adversary Petition, wherein Plaintiff requests that the Court dismiss Defendants In Og Tak, Gangnam Pizza, and Does 1 through 50 (the "Non-Answering Defendants"), on the ground that such defendants were named in error. The Court will construe this document as a request for dismissal, without prejudice, of the Non-Answering Defendants, made pursuant to Civil Rule 41(a)(1)(A) (the "Request for Dismissal"). Pursuant to Civil Rule 41(a)(1)(A), a plaintiff may dismiss parties who have not appeared without a Court order. The Court will enter an order confirming that the voluntary dismissal of the Non-Answering Defendants took effect as of the date of the filing of the Request for Dismissal. Although the document is captioned Amended Adversary Petition, it is not appropriate for the Court to construe the Request for Dismissal as a First Amended Complaint, because the document requests only that the Non-Answering Defendants be dismissed, and does not re-allege any of the operative claims for relief.

According to Plaintiff's Unilateral Status Report, Defendant failed to respond to any of Plaintiff's attempts to meet and confer in order to prepare the Status Report. Defendant is advised that cooperation with Plaintiff in the preparation of Status Vision Airlines, Inc.*, 687 F.3d 1162, 1169 (9th Cir. 2012) (setting forth the factors the Court must consider before striking a pleading and declaring default).

Having reviewed Plaintiff's Unilateral Status Report, the Court HEREBY ORDERS as follows:

Docket 1

Tentative Ruling:

8/13/2018

For the reasons set forth below, this hearing is VACATED and no appearances are required.

On May 31, 2018, the Court reopened this case, and ordered the United States Trustee to appoint a Chapter 7 Trustee (the "Trustee"), for the purpose of investigating a newly discovered asset. The Court set this Status Conference and directed the Trustee to advise the Court regarding the anticipated administration of the asset—a lawsuit.

On July 16, 2018, the Court granted the Trustee's application to employ Best, Best & Krieger LLP as his general bankruptcy counsel. On August 6, 2018, the Court granted the Trustee's application to employ McElfish Law Firm Corporation as his special litigation counsel.

The asset is an action seeking damages for a prepetition slip-and-fall injury that occurred on November 4, 2013. According to the Debtor's personal injury attorney, the claim is worth approximately $1 million. Trial in the personal injury action is scheduled for October 23, 2018, in the Los Angeles Superior Court. General unsecured claims in the Debtor's Chapter 7 case equal $24,736.61.

The Trustee has adequately informed the Court of the status of his administration of the action. This hearing is VACATED and no appearances are required. Unless ordered by the Court, no further Status Conferences regarding the administration of the asset will be conducted.

The Court will prepare and enter an appropriate order.

Docket 6

 VACATED  REASON: PER ORDER ENTERED 8-3-18

Tentative Ruling:

4/9/2018

Tentative Ruling:

The litigation deadlines set forth below shall govern the trial on the involuntary petition.

Pleadings Filed and Reviewed:

- 1) Involuntary Petition Against a Non-Individual [Doc. No. 1]
 - a) Addendum to Involuntary Petition [Doc. No. 6]
 - b) Summons and Notice of Status Conference in an Involuntary Bankruptcy Case [Doc. No. 7]
 - i) Proof of Service of Summons and Notice of Status Conference [Doc. No. 9]
- 2) Answer and Affirmative Defenses of Raymond Express International, LLC to Involuntary Petition [Doc. No. 10]

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

On February 21, 2018, Korean Air Lines Co., Ltd., Asiana Airlines, Inc., and Sunjin Logistics Co., Ltd. (collectively, the "Petitioning Creditors") commenced this involuntary Chapter 7 petition against Raymond Express International, LLC (the "Alleged Debtor"). The Alleged Debtor is a logistics company that transports perishable goods requiring refrigeration. On March 16, 2018, the Alleged Debtor answered the involuntary petition. This hearing is a status conference on the involuntary petition.

Chapter 7

II. Findings and Conclusions

Section 303(b), which governs the commencement of an involuntary petition, provides in relevant part:

An involuntary case against a person is commenced by the filing with the bankruptcy court of a petition under chapter 7 or 11 of this title by three or more entities, each of which is either a holder of a claim against such person that is not contingent as to liability or the subject of a bona fide dispute as to liability or amount, ... if such noncontingent, undisputed claims aggregate at least $15,775 more than the value of any lien on property of the debtor securing such claims held by the holders of such claims.

Where a petition is timely controverted, the court must enter an order for relief against the alleged debtor if, after trial, the court determines that "the debtor is generally not paying such debtor's debts as such debts become due unless such debts are the subject of a bona fide dispute as to liability or amount." § 303(h).

During the period between the commencement of an involuntary petition and the issuance of an order for relief, the Alleged Debtor enjoys the protections of the automatic stay but is not required to comply with many of the obligations imposed upon Debtors who commence voluntary petitions. To minimize the length of this period of uncertainty, the Court's policy is to set compressed litigation deadlines governing the trial on the involuntary petition.

The following dates shall apply to this action:

- 1) The last day to amend pleadings and/or join other parties is 5/15/2018.
- 2) The last day to disclose expert witnesses and expert witness reports is 5/29/2018.
- 3) The last day to disclose rebuttal expert witnesses and rebuttal expert witness reports is 6/28/2018.
- 4) The last date to complete discovery relating to expert witnesses (e.g., depositions of expert witnesses), including hearings on motions related to expert discovery, is 7/17/2018. (For contemplated hearings on motions related to expert discovery, it is counsel's responsibility to check the Judge's self-calendaring dates, posted on the Court's website. If the expert discovery cutoff date falls on a date when the court is closed or that is not available for self-calendaring, the deadline for hearings on expert discovery motions is the next closest previous date which is available for self-calendaring.)
- 5) The last day for dispositive motions to be heard is 7/24/2018. (If the Submission via LOU allows the Court to edit the Joint Pretrial Stipulation, if necessary. Parties should consult the Court Manual, section 4, for information about LOU.

- 8) Trial is set for the week of 8/27/2018. The trial day commences at 9:00 a.m. The exact date of the trial will be set at the Pretrial Conference. Consult the Court's website for the Judge's requirements regarding exhibit binders and trial briefs.

The Court FURTHER ORDERS that the matter shall be referred to the Mediation Panel. The parties shall meet and confer and select a Mediator from this District's Mediation Panel. Petitioning Creditors will lodge a completed "Request for Assignment to Mediation Program; [Proposed] Order Thereon" (See Amended General Order 95-01 available on the Court's website) within 15 days from the date of this hearing, and deliver a hard copy directly to chambers c/o the judge's law clerk Daniel Koontz.

No appearance is required if submitting on the court's tentative ruling. If you intend to submit on the tentative ruling, please contact Cameron Schlagel or Daniel Koontz at 213-894-1522. If you intend to contest the tentative ruling and appear, please first contact opposing counsel to inform them of your intention to do so. Should an opposing party file a late opposition or appear at the hearing, the court will determine whether further hearing is required. Nature of Suit: (21 (Validity, priority or extent of lien or other interest in property)), (02 (Other (e.g. other actions that would have been brought in state court if unrelated to bankruptcy))) (Orantes, Giovanni)

Docket 1

Tentative Ruling:

8/13/2018

This is an action to quiet title, brought by Ravinder Kumar Bhatia and Johanna Arias-Bhatia against Fidel Ramirez. On August 15, 2011, Fidel Ramirez and Liduvina Ramirez commenced a voluntary Chapter 7 petition. The Ramirezes' case was closed on November 22, 2011.

Ramirez holds a Short Form Deed of Trust and Assignment of Rents (the "Deed of Trust") against property located at 721 N. Alta Vista Blvd, Los Angeles, CA 90046 (the "Property"). The Deed of Trust is dated February 27, 2007, but was not recorded until March 2, 2012. Ramirez failed to disclose the Deed of Trust in his Chapter 7 case. The Bhatias dispute the validity of the Deed of Trust.

On March 16, 2018, the Bhatias reached a settlement with Ramirez, under which the Bhatias agreed to pay Ramirez $31,000 to release the Deed of Trust. Solorzano Decl. at ¶4 [Doc. No. 25]; Motion to Reopen filed in Ramirez's Chapter 7 case [Doc. No. 17, Case No. 1:11-bk-17676-VK]. Recognizing that Ramirez had failed to disclose the Deed of Trust in his Chapter 7 case, the Bhatias notified the United States Trustee (the "UST") of the settlement. The UST filed a motion seeking to reopen Ramirez's case, which was granted on August 6, 2018. See Doc. No. 20, Case No. 1:11-bk-17676-VK. David K. Gottlieb ("Trustee Gottlieb") is serving as the Trustee in Ramirez's case.

Trustee Gottlieb requests that this Pretrial Conference be continued for 60–90 days, to allow him to investigate the facts of this action, and potentially substitute in as the real party-in-interest. The Bhatias likewise request a continuance.

It appears that any settlement proceeds payable to Ramirez are most likely an asset of Ramirez's estate, meaning that Trustee Gottlieb would be required to approve any settlement of this action. The Court finds it appropriate to continue the Pretrial Conference for 90 days to allow Trustee Gottlieb to determine whether the $31,000 proposed settlement is adequate. A continued Pretrial Conference shall be held on November 13, 2018, at 11:00 a.m. Unless a settlement of this action has been approved by the Court, a Joint Pretrial Order must be submitted, via the Court's Lodged Order Upload (LOU) system, by no later than fourteen days prior to the hearing. The trial is continued to the week of November 26, 2018.

Tentative Ruling:

8/13/2018

The Court has reviewed the Joint Pretrial Stipulation submitted by Plaintiff and Defendants. The Joint Pretrial Stipulation shall be adopted as the Pretrial Order and shall govern the course of trial of this action, unless modified to prevent manifest injustice.

Pursuant to the Order Establishing Procedures for the Adjudication of Evidentiary Objections [Doc. No. 20] (the "Evidence Procedures Order"), the parties were required to present any objection to the admissibility of (a) any exhibit or (b) the testimony proposed to be offered by any witness by way of a noticed Motion in Limine. The parties were required to notice a hearing on any such Motion in Limine concurrently with this Pretrial Conference. As no such Motions in Limine have been filed, all exhibits set forth in the Joint Pretrial Stipulation shall be deemed admissible, and any objections to the admissibility thereof have been waived. See Evidence Procedures Order at ¶3. In addition, the Court will not entertain at trial any objections to the admissibility of any witness testimony, if such an objection could have been presented by way of a Motion in Limine. See Evidence Procedures Order at ¶4. (The Court recognizes that certain types of objections to live witness testimony cannot be anticipated prior to trial and thus could not have been brought in accordance with the Evidence Procedures Order; the parties are not precluded from raising such objections at trial.)

Trial shall take place on Monday, August 27, commencing at 9:00 a.m. All trial materials specified in the Order Re: Courtroom Procedures [Doc. No. 5] shall be delivered directly to chambers by no later than Thursday, August 16 (seven court days prior to trial). As set forth in the Scheduling Order [Doc. No. 15], because

#9.00 HearingRE: [65] Motion to Approve Compromise Under Rule 9019 Motion of Chapter 7 Trustee For Approval of Settlement Agreement and Release with Proof of Service (Kogan, Michael)

Docket 65

Tentative Ruling:

8/14/2018

The Court, finding the terms of the Settlement Agreement to be fair, reasonable, and adequate, GRANTS the Trustee's Motion.

Pleadings Filed and Reviewed:

- 1) Motion of Chapter 7 Trustee for Approval of Settlement Agreement and Release (the "Motion") [Doc. No. 65]
- 2) No opposition on file

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

Uprising Creative, LLC (the "Debtor") filed a voluntary Chapter 7 petition on August 17, 2017 (the "Petition") [Doc. No. 1]. On July 23, 2018, the Trustee filed the "Motion of Chapter 7 Trustee for Approval of Settlement Agreement and Release" (the "Motion") [Doc. No. 65]. The Motion seeks an order approving the compromises of the Estate's claims with JMBSM Equities, LLC ("JMBSM"), Bill Silva Management Inc. ("Silva Management") and William Silva (collectively, "Silva"), in which the Trustee resolved his claims on potential avoidable transfers to Silva. The terms of the compromise are set forth in the "Agreement of Compromise, Settlement, and Release," which is attached as Exhibit "A" to the Motion (the "Settlement Agreement").

On December 11, 2017, JMBSM filed Claim No. 17 in the total amount of $357,342.45, of which $101,384.27 was claimed as secured (the "JMBSM Claim"). On the same date, Silva Management filed Claim No. 15 in the total amount of $5,500.00 (the "Silva Claim").

The Trustee alleges that the Debtor made certain transfers in the total amount of $276,985.00 to Silva (the "Transfers"), which transfers avoidable by the Trustee. On June 5, 2018, the Trustee sent correspondence to Silva detailing the Transfers. Additionally, the Trustee's investigation revealed a transfer of the Debtor's stock interest in AtVenue, Inc. (the "Stock"), and an adversary action by the Trustee would seek to avoid the Stock transfer and return of the value of the Stock to the Estate. Silva contends that the Transfers are not avoidable or recoverable by the Trustee, and that the Stock is held by the Debtor. Based on the Trustee's review of the documents related to the Transfers and Silva's arguments pertaining thereto, the Trustee determined that a settlement was in the best interests of the Estate.

The Proposed Settlement Agreement

The material terms of the Settlement Agreement, see Motion at Ex. A, are as follows:

1. Silva's Payment to the Estate: Silva agrees to pay the Trustee $100,000.00 within twelve days after the date of entry of the order approving the Settlement Agreement.
2. Transfer and Assignment of Stock: Upon receipt of the settlement payment, the Trustee will transfer to Silva, and Silva will acquire the Estate's ownership interest in the Stock.
3. Mutual Releases: The parties are executing mutual releases including a waiver of claims by Silva. The mutual releases and the release extends to the JMBSM Claim and the Silva Claim.

The Trustee contends that the Settlement Agreement is a favorable compromise for the Estate, because it will resolve all claims of the Trustee while avoiding the risks and costs associated with litigation. "Declaration of Wesley H. Avery" ("Avery Decl.") [Doc. No. 65] at ¶¶ 15–17.

No opposition to approval of the Settlement Agreement has been filed.

II. Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law

The Court approves the Settlement Agreement. Bankruptcy Rule 9019(a) permits the Court to approve a compromise or settlement. "In determining the fairness, reasonableness and adequacy of a proposed settlement agreement, the court must consider: (a) The probability of success in the litigation; (b) the difficulties, if any, to be encountered in the matter of collection; (c) the complexity of the litigation involved, and the expense, inconvenience and delay necessarily attending it; (d) the paramount interest of the creditors and a proper deference to their reasonable views in the premises." Martin v. Kane (In re A&C Properties), 784 F.2d 1377, 1381 (9th Cir. 1986). "Each factor need not be treated in a vacuum; rather, the factors should be considered as a whole to determine whether the settlement compares favorably with the expected rewards of litigation." In re Western Funding Inc., 550 B.R. 841, 851 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 2016). Furthermore, "compromises are favored in bankruptcy, and the decision of the bankruptcy judge to approve or disapprove the compromise of the parties rests in the sound discretion of the bankruptcy judge." In re Sassalos, 160 B.R. 646, 653 (D. Ore. 1993). In approving a settlement agreement, the Court must "canvass the issues and see whether the settlement 'falls below the lowest point in the range of reasonableness.'" Cosoff v. Rodman (In re W.T. Grant Co.), 699 F.2d 599, 608 (2d Cir. 1983).

The A&C Properties factors weigh in favor of approving the Settlement Agreement. Applying the A&C Properties factors, the Court finds that the compromise is adequate, fair, and reasonable.

(1) Probability of Success in the Litigation and Complexity of the Litigation, and the Expense, Inconvenience and Delay Necessarily Attending It

Under the circumstances, these factors are the most pertinent, and they weigh strongly in favor of approving the Settlement Agreement. The Trustee evaluated the potential outcome of the Trustee's claims, and the Strength of Silva's defenses, and determined that there was no assurance that the Trustee would prevail on his claims. Avery Decl. at ¶¶ 8, 16, 17. The Trustee's assessment in this respect is in part due to the complexity of the transactions and underlying transactional documents, and the factual and legal issues that would likely arise in litigation of the Trustee's claims. The Settlement Agreement, however, minimizes the costs and expenses that would necessarily be incurred in litigation of the Trustee's claims.

(2) Paramount Interests of Creditors

The Settlement Agreement is in the best interest of Estate creditors. The Settlement Agreement will result in a substantial return to the Estate that will provide for distributions to creditors, while keeping administrative expenses at a minimum. Id. at ¶ 16.

defendants herein, removed this action from the Los Angeles Superior Court to the Bankruptcy Court. On July 13, 2018, Century Indemnity filed a motion seeking to transfer venue to the Bankruptcy Court for the Western District of Washington. The action is between insurers of Fraser's Boiler Service (the "Debtor"), the debtor in a Chapter 11 case pending in the Bankruptcy Court for the Western District of Washington. Century Indemnity argues that transfer of venue is appropriate because the action was intended to interfere with the Debtor's Chapter 11 case, by obstructing a Court-approved settlement between the Debtor and various insurers.

On July 31, 2018, Century Indemnity filed a document captioned Notice of Stay of Proceedings Due to Orders Issued by the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the Western District of Washington [Doc. No. 23] (the "Notice of Stay"). Century Indemnity states that all activity in this adversary proceeding has been enjoined as a result of an order issued by the Bankruptcy Judge presiding over the Debtor's case. The order provides, in relevant part:

Pursuant to Sections 363 and 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, all rights, titles, and interests in Policies issued by any Insurers will be deemed to have been sold, transferred, and conveyed to those Insurers, free and clear of all claims, liens, encumbrances, and interests of any kind or nature whatsoever. In order to effectuate the sale, transfer, and conveyance of the Policies, all persons and entities shall be, and hereby are, permanently enjoined, barred, and estopped from seeking any relief from or taking any action or asserting any claim against the Insurers based upon, arising out of, in connection with, attributable to, or relating to the Policies, for the purpose of directly or indirectly collecting, recovering, receiving, or asserting any claims, liens, encumbrances, or interests of any kind or nature based upon, arising out of, under, and/or relating to the Policies, including, but not limited to, any claims, liens, encumbrances, or interests such person or entity had, has, or may have against or in the Debtor or its estate or successors.

On July 30, 2018, the Washington Bankruptcy Court issued an order staying this adversary proceeding. That order provides:

Angeles, Central District as No. BC697553, having been removed to the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Central District of California by notice dated July 6, 2018 and now docketed in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Central District of California as Case No. 2:18-ap-01221-ER (the "Removed Action"), is stayed by the Court's orders dated July 25, 2018 [Docket Nos. 300 and 301] (the "Settlement Orders").

2. If any party shall timely file an appeal of the Settlement Orders, all times within which any party to the Removed Action may act to remand the Removed Action or object or respond to any pending motion in the Removed Action shall be extended until 30 days after such time as the appeal has been fully adjudicated and the time for any further appeal has expired without a further appeal having been taken.

Stipulated Order on Emergency Motion of National Union for Modification of Order and Leave to File Responsive Pleadings in Removed State Court Action to Preserve Rights (the "Stay Order") at ¶¶1-3.

Century Indemnity states that based upon the Stay Order, its venue-transfer motion must be taken off calendar.

II. Findings and Conclusions

A Status Conference in this adversary proceeding shall be held on November 13, 2018, at 10:00 a.m. By no later than fourteen days prior to the hearing, all parties to this action shall file a Joint Status Report. The Joint Status Report shall discuss (1) the status of the appeal of the Settlement Orders and (2) any events occurring in the Debtor's Chapter 11 case that are relevant to the disposition of this action.

The Court will prepare and enter an order setting the Status Conference.

The Motion is GRANTED for the reasons set forth below. A continued hearing to monitor the Debtor's compliance with his accounting and turnover obligations shall be held on September 18, 2018, at 10:00 a.m.

Pleadings Filed and Reviewed:

- 1) Chapter 7 Trustee's Notice of Motion and Motion for Order Compelling (1) Turnover and (2) Accounting of Estate's Property [Doc. No. 102] (the "Motion")
- 2) Opposition to Chapter 7 Trustee's Notice of Motion and Motion for Order Compelling (1) Turnover and (2) Accounting of Estate's Property [Doc. No. 104] (the "Opposition")
- 3) Chapter 7 Trustee's Reply to Debtor's Opposition to Motion for Order Compelling (1) Turnover and (2) Accounting of Estate's Property [Doc. No. 107] (the "Reply")

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

A. Background

Guillermo Alvarado (the "Debtor") filed a voluntary Chapter 7 petition on June 15, 2016 (the "Petition Date"). Doc. No. 1. The Debtor received a discharge on November 7, 2016. Doc. No. 31. On March 14, 2018, after conducting a trial on a dischargeability action brought by C.H. Robinson Worldwide, Inc. ("CH Robinson"), the Court found that the Debtor was indebted to CH Robinson in the amount of $68,361.00, and that such indebtedness was excepted from the Debtor's discharge pursuant to §523(a)(2)(A) and (a)(4). Adv. Doc. Nos. 55–56. Among other things, the Court found that the Debtor had committed "actual fraud" by causing Global Fresh, a company which he controlled, to transfer a substantial salary to himself instead of remitting the funds to CH Robinson, per the requirements of the Perishable Agricultural Commodities Act ("PACA"). Adv. Doc. No. 55 at p. 11. The Court further found that the Debtor had committed defalcation by misappropriating PACA trust assets. Id. at 12–13.

In his Statement of Financial Affairs (the "SOFA"), the Debtor stated that during the one year period prior to the Petition Date, he received $70,000.00 from the sale of real property to Rebecca Segovia. The SOFA stated that the Debtor did not make any payments to any creditors within one year of the Petition Date, other than a payment of $1,406.12 to Infinity Financial Services made in June 2016. The SOFA further provided that the Debtor did not transfer any property to anyone within one year of the Petition Date. The Debtor's Schedule A/B provides that as of the Petition Date, the Debtor had $800.00 in cash and $585.80 in various bank accounts, of which $580.62 belonged to his children, leaving the Debtor with $5.18.

B. The Trustee's Motion for Turnover, the Debtor's Opposition, and the Trustee's Reply in Support of the Motion

The Trustee moves for an accounting and turnover of the $70,000.00 the Debtor received from the sale of the real property. The Trustee asserts that the funds are property of the estate that must be administered for the benefit of creditors. The Trustee notes that the Debtor has failed to adequately explain the disposition of the funds. The Trustee points out that it is implausible that the Debtor could have so little cash on hand as of the Petition Date, based upon the Debtor's representation in his SOFA that he had not transferred funds to creditors or other parties during the one-year period prior to the Petition Date.

In Opposition to the Motion, the Debtor's counsel, the Orantes Law Firm, PC, states that he has been unable to contact the Debtor since Friday, July 27, 2018. Counsel requests that the Motion be denied, or in the alternative be continued for approximately thirty days, to enable the Debtor to file a more detailed response. Counsel located a declaration filed by the Debtor on October 27, 2016, regarding the disposition of the $70,000.00. The declaration provides:

In regards to the $70,000.00 I received from the sale of the real property located at 17104 West Summer Maple Way, Canyon Country, CA 91387, I used that money for a business investment that resulted in a net loss. I sent the money in two wire transfers to Costa Rica for the purchase of containers of fruit that were sent to Texas to sell; however, by the time the fruit arrived in Texas, it was [too] old to sell or had outright spoiled and could not be sold, so

I lost the money that I invested.

Alvarado Decl. at ¶6.

In Reply to the Debtor's Opposition, the Trustee argues that the Debtor's declaration is inadequate, because it is not accompanied by any documentation—such as proofs of purchase, wire transfer receipts, bank statements, or financial statements—evidencing the alleged investment. The Trustee further argues that the Opposition should be rejected because it failed to comply with Local Bankruptcy Rule 9013-1(f)(2), which requires that an opposition must advise the adverse party of the deadline for the filing of a reply.

II. Findings and Conclusions

As a preliminary matter, the Court declines the Trustee's request to reject the Debtor's Opposition solely on the ground that the Opposition failed to advise the Trustee of the deadline for filing a Reply, as required by Local Bankruptcy Rule 9013-1(f)(2). The purpose of LBR 9013-1(f)(2) is to apprise litigants of the requirements for presenting their arguments to the Court. The Trustee is well aware of his briefing obligations and therefore was in no way prejudiced by the Opposition's failure to explicitly advise him of the deadline for filing reply papers.

Turning to the merits, the Motion is GRANTED, and the Debtor's Opposition and request for a 30-day continuance is OVERRULED. The request for a continuance is not well taken. Debtor's counsel claims that he has been unable to communicate with the Debtor since Friday, July 27, 2018. Yet on August 8, 2018, counsel filed, on the Debtor's behalf, a motion seeking to compel the Trustee to abandon the estate's interest in the Debtor's principal residence. That motion was supported by a declaration of the Debtor, which was dated July 30, 2018—three days subsequent to the date that counsel claims it lost contact with the Debtor. Thus, counsels' claim that it has been unable to contact the Debtor since July 27, 2018 is contradicted by other papers that counsel has filed on the Debtor's behalf.

Even if counsel had lost contact with the Debtor, that would not constitute cause for continuing the Motion. Debtor chose to subject himself to the jurisdiction of the Court when he sought bankruptcy protection. He has received benefits afforded by the Bankruptcy Code, including a discharge. Having received such benefits, the Debtor cannot now shirk his corresponding obligations to cooperate with the Trustee and to timely respond to matters pertaining to the administration of the estate. The Bankruptcy Code requires the Debtor to cooperate with the Trustee "as necessary to enable the trustee to perform the trustee's duties under this title" §521(a)(3).

Among other duties, the Trustee has the obligation to "collect and reduce to money the property of the estate" and to "investigate the financial affairs of the debtor" § 704(a)(1) and (a)(4). "[T]he Trustee has a statutory authorization to require production of documents in the furtherance of an investigatory duty also created by statute," and the debtor has a "duty to provide information and to cooperate in this investigation." Rigby v. Mastro (In re Mastro), 585 B.R. 587, 596 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 2018).

Section 542 provides: "[A]n entity, other than a custodian, in possession, custody, or control, during the case, of property that the trustee may use, sell or lease under section 363 of this title ..., shall deliver to the trustee, and account for, such property or the value of such property, unless such property is of inconsequential value or benefit to the estate." The "property" referred to in §542 "is generally understood to mean 'property of the estate,' as defined in section 541." Collier on Bankruptcy ¶ 542.02[2] (16th rev'd ed.). The Trustee may seek turnover of property from any person or entity that had "possession, custody, or control" of the subject property during the bankruptcy case, regardless of whether that person or entity had "possession, custody, or control" at the time the turnover motion is filed. Shapiro v. Henson, 739 F.3d 1198, 1204 (9th Cir. 2014).

The $70,000.00 that the Debtor received from the sale of the real estate is property of the estate that the Debtor is required to account for and turnover to the Trustee. The cursory 2016 declaration filed by the Debtor does not constitute an adequate accounting of the property. A sufficient accounting would include documentation, such as proofs of purchase, wire transfer receipts, bank statements, or financial statements.

By no later than August 24, 2018, the Debtor shall:

- 1) Provide to the Trustee an accounting of the $70,000.00 the Debtor received from the sale of the real estate. Such accounting shall be accompanied by a declaration executed under penalty of perjury by the Debtor attesting to the authenticity of the accounting. The accounting shall be supported by adequate documentary evidence, such as proofs of purchase, wire transfer receipts, bank statements, or financial statements.
- 2) Turnover the $70,000.00 to the Trustee. This requirement applies only if the Debtor has the ability to turnover the funds.

A continued hearing to monitor the Debtor's compliance with the order granting the Motion shall be held on September 18, 2018, at 10:00 a.m. By no later than September 4, 2018, the Trustee shall file a declaration (1) setting forth his position as to the sufficiency of the accounting and (2) stating whether the $70,000 has been turned over. The Debtor's response to the Trustee's declaration is due by no later than September 11, 2018. The Debtor is advised that if he fails to comply with his accounting and turnover obligations, he may be subject to sanctions as deemed appropriate by the Court.

The Trustee shall submit an order incorporating this tentative ruling by reference within seven days of the hearing.

Docket 1045

Tentative Ruling:

8/14/2018

For the reasons set forth below, the Trustee's Claim Objections are SUSTAINED, and Claims 25 and 31 are DISALLOWED in their entirety.

Pleadings Filed and Reviewed:

- 1) Objection to Claim No. 31-1 [Doc. No. 1045] (the "Claim Objection")
 - a) Notice of Objection to Claim [Doc. No. 1046]
- 2) Objection to Claim No. 25-2 [Doc. No. 1047]
 - a) Notice of Objection to Claim [Doc. No. 1048]
- 3) No Opposition to either Claim Objection is on file

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

Jayampath P. Dharmasuriya (the "Debtor") commenced a voluntary Chapter 11 petition on July 20, 2009. Four Bankruptcy Judges have presided over this case, which has been pending for almost ten years. From the date of the filing of the petition (the "Petition Date") to August 22, 2010, the Hon. Samuel L. Bufford acted as presiding judge. Doc. No. 108. From August 23, 2010 to May 8, 2014, the Hon. Peter Carroll presided. Doc. Nos. 108 and 741. From May 9, 2014 to January 2, 2018, the Hon. Deborah J. Saltzman presided. Doc. Nos. 741 and 1025. On January 3, 2018, the case was transferred to the undersigned Judge. Doc. No. 1025.

On July 13, 2011, the Court conducted a hearing on a motion to appoint a Chapter 11 Trustee brought by three creditors. On August 24, 2011, the Court ordered the United States Trustee to appoint a Chapter 11 Trustee. Doc. No. 181. On September 7, 2011, the United States Trustee appointed Jeffery Golden as the Chapter 11 Trustee. Doc. No. 184. On November 2, 2011, upon the Chapter 11 Trustee's motion, the Court converted the case to Chapter 7. Doc. No. 213. Jeffery Golden was reappointed as the Chapter 7 Trustee (the "Trustee").

The Debtor owned more than seventeen rental properties located in or around Los Angeles, California. The Trustee sold certain of the properties and obtained orders authorizing him to abandon others. As relevant to these Claim Objections, the Debtor owned properties located at 7051 S. La Cienega Blvd., Los Angeles, CA (the "La Cienega Property") and 4053 W. 23rd Street, Los Angeles, CA (the "23rd Street Property").

On November 27, 2012, Bank of America sought stay-relief with respect to the La Cienega Property. Ultimately, the Trustee and Bank of America entered into a stipulation, pursuant to which the Trustee abandoned the La Cienega Property effective as of the Petition Date, and Bank of America was granted stay-relief. The Court approved the stipulation on December 14, 2012. Doc. No. 539.

On November 15, 2011, East West Bank sought stay-relief with respect to the 23rd Street Property. Ultimately, the Trustee and East West Bank entered into a stipulation, pursuant to which the Trustee abandoned the 23rd Street Property, and East West Bank was granted stay-relief. The Court approved the stipulation on December 14, 2011. Doc. No. 255. The stipulation did not specify the date upon which the abandonment took effect.

Arne Oftedal, in his capacity as Successor Trustee of The Richard and Suzanne Oftedal Trust Dated July 27, 2004, asserts a fully secured claim in the amount of $568,684.11 against the 23rd Street Property ("Claim 31"). Bank of America asserts a fully secured claim in the amount of $429,896.53 against the La Cienega Property. The Trustee seeks disallowance of both claims, on the ground that each claim is secured by property that is not property of the estate. No opposition to either of the Trustee's Claim Objections is on file.

II. Findings and Conclusions

Section 502 requires the Court to disallow a claim that "is unenforceable against the debtor and the property of the debtor, under any agreement or applicable law for a reason other than because such claim is contingent or unmatured."

Under Bankruptcy Rule 3001(f), a proof of claim executed and filed in accordance with the Bankruptcy Rules constitutes prima facie evidence of the validity and amount of the claim. To overcome the presumption of validity created by a timely-filed proof of claim, an objecting party must do one of the following: (1) object based on legal grounds and provide a memorandum of points and authorities setting forth the legal basis for the objection; or (2) object based on a factual ground and provide sufficient evidence (usually in the form of declarations under penalty of perjury) to create triable issues of fact. In re G.I. Indus., Inc., 204 F.3d 1276, 1280 (9th Cir. Upon objection, a proof of claim provides "some evidence as to its validity and amount" and is "strong enough to carry over a mere formal objection without more." See Lundell v. Anchor Constr. Spec., Inc., 223 F.3d 1035, 1039 (9th Cir. 2000) (citing In re Holm, 931 F.2d 620, 623 (9th Cir. 1991)). An objecting party bears the burden and must "show facts tending to defeat the claim by probative force equal to that of the allegations of the proofs of claim themselves." Holm, 931 F.2d at 623. When the objector has shown enough evidence to negate one or more facts in the proof of claim, the burden shifts back to the claimant to prove the validity of the claim by a preponderance of evidence. See Lundell, 223 F.3d at 1039 (citation omitted).

Here, Claims 25 and 31 are unenforceable against the estate because the properties securing such claims have been abandoned. The Court approved the abandonment of the La Cienega Property on December 14, 2012, with such abandonment taking effect as of the Petition Date. Doc. No. 529. The Court approved the abandonment of the 23rd Street Property on December 14, 2011. Doc. No. 255.

Because Claims 25 and 31 are unenforceable against the estate, the Trustee's Claim Objections are SUSTAINED, and Claims 25 and 31 are DISALLOWED in their entirety. The Trustee shall submit conforming orders, incorporating this tentative ruling by reference, within seven days of the hearing.

No appearance is required if submitting on the court's tentative ruling. If you intend to submit on the tentative ruling, please contact Cameron Schlagel or Daniel Koontz at 213-894-1522. If you intend to contest the tentative ruling and appear, please first contact opposing counsel to inform them of your intention to do so. Should an opposing party file a late opposition or appear at the hearing, the court will determine whether further hearing is required. as the Chapter 7 Trustee (the "Trustee").

The Debtor owned more than seventeen rental properties located in or around Los Angeles, California. The Trustee sold certain of the properties and obtained orders authorizing him to abandon others. As relevant to this Motion, on December 28, 2011, the Court authorized the Trustee to abandon the estate's interest in property located at 3637-3639 9th Avenue, Los Angeles, CA 90018 (the "9th Avenue Property"). Doc. No. 272. On April 11, 2012, the Court authorized the Trustee to abandon the estate's interest in property located at 3123-3125 Vernon Avenue, Los Angeles, CA 90008 (the "Vernon Avenue Property"). Doc. No. 381. On January 7, 2013, the Court authorized the Trustee to abandon the estate's interest in property located at 818 E. 65th Street, Inglewood, CA 90302 (the "65th Street Property") (the 9th Avenue Property, the Vernon Avenue Property, and the 6th Street Property collectively, the "Properties"). Doc. No. 544.

Each order authorizing the Trustee to abandon the Properties provided that abandonment was effective as of the Petition Date. Doc. Nos. 272, 381, and 544 (such orders collectively, the "Abandonment Orders"). The Abandonment Orders further authorized the Trustee to retain the rents that he collected during the period in which he operated the Properties. Id. David M. Hunter, the claimant herein, objected to the Trustee's request to retain the rental income generated by the Vernon Avenue Property. Doc. Nos. 318 and 364. The Court overruled Hunter's objections to the Trustee's retention of the rental income. Doc. No. 381 at ¶3 (providing that the "Trustee is authorized to retain the rents from the [Vernon Avenue Property]").

On April 30, 2012, David M. Hunter ("Hunter") filed Proof of Claim 39-1 ("Claim 39"), asserting an administrative claim in the amount of $8,877.50. Hunter asserts that he is entitled to rental income generated by the Properties for the months of October and November 2011, based on the fact that Hunter holds Deeds of Trust secured by the Properties.

Before the Trustee abandoned the Properties, he obtained orders authorizing him to operate the Properties and authorizing him to use cash collateral. The Trustee also obtained orders establishing procedures under which lenders holding Deeds of Trust secured by the Properties could obtain principal payments from the rental income collected by the Trustee. Those orders established a detailed procedure for calculating the exact amount of the principal payments to which the lenders would be entitled. Per the orders, the lenders were not necessarily entitled to receive the full principal payment under the terms of the notes. Doc. Nos. 234, 259, 355, 483, 593, and 639. Property from December 2011 until April 2012, the date upon which the property was abandoned. Hunter received lender payments from rental income generated by the 65th Street Property from December 2011 through October 2012, the date upon which the property was abandoned.

The Trustee's Claim Objection, Hunter's Opposition, and the Trustee's Reply in Support of the Claim Objection

The Trustee objects to Claim 39. First, the Trustee asserts that Claim 39 should be disallowed because it was not timely filed. Second, the Trustee argues that Claim 39 should be disallowed, because the claim is not enforceable against the estate, since the Properties by which the claim is secured have all been abandoned, with such abandonment taking effect as of the Petition Date. The Trustee further argues that the claim for the two missed monthly rental payments do not constitute an administrative expense claim, but at most could serve to increase the amount of the secured claim.

Hunter filed an untimely declaration in opposition to the Claim Objection. The declaration provides in relevant part: "Although we believe this should be considered an administrative claim, I am prepared to amend this claim to a secured claim, but stand on the position that the subject properties were utilized by the Trustee who failed to pay the secured claims." Hunter Decl. at ¶8.

In his Reply in support of the Claim Objection, the Trustee first contends that Hunter's declaration should be disregarded because it was not filed timely. Next, the Trustee argues that Hunter has no rights to any rents that were retained by the estate. The Trustee's position is that he was authorized to retain any rents collected pursuant to Cal. Civ. Code §2938(a), which provides that an assignment of rents provision in a Deed of Trust is not an absolute assignment, but instead creates only a security interest in the rents.

II. Findings and Conclusions

Notwithstanding the fact that it was not timely filed, the Court will consider Hunter's declaration in opposition to the Trustee's Claim Objection. Hunter's opposition is OVERRULED, the Trustee's Claim Objection is SUSTAINED, and Claim 39 is DISALLOWED in its entirety.

Section 502 requires the Court to disallow a claim that "is unenforceable against the debtor and the property of the debtor, under any agreement or applicable law for a reason other than because such claim is contingent or unmatured."

Upon objection, a proof of claim provides "some evidence as to its validity and amount" and is "strong enough to carry over a mere formal objection without more." See Lundell v. Anchor Constr. Spec., Inc., 223 F.3d 1035, 1039 (9th Cir. 2000) (citing In re Holm, 931 F.2d 620, 623 (9th Cir. 1991)). An objecting party bears the burden and must "show facts tending to defeat the claim by probative force equal to that of the allegations of the proofs of claim themselves." Holm, 931 F.2d at 623. When the objector has shown enough evidence to negate one or more facts in the proof of claim, the burden shifts back to the claimant to prove the validity of the claim by a preponderance of evidence. See Lundell, 223 F.3d at 1039 (citation omitted).

Here, Claim 39 is unenforceable against the estate because the Court has approved the Trustee's abandonment of the Properties securing such claims. Abandonment of each Property took effect as of the Petition Date.

Even if the Properties had not been abandoned, Hunter would still not be entitled to an administrative claim on account of the rental income collected by the Trustee. Cal. Civ. Code §2398 sets forth the circumstances under which an assignee can collect and receive rents pursuant to an assignment-of-rents clause, and provides in relevant part:

Upon default of the assignor under the obligation secured by the assignment of leases, rents, issues, and profits, the assignee shall be entitled to enforce the assignment in accordance with this section. On and after the date the assignee takes one or more of the enforcement steps described in this subdivision, the assignee shall be entitled to collect and receive all rents, issues, and profits that have accrued but remain unpaid and uncollected by the assignor or its agent or for the assignor's benefit on that date, and all rents, issues, and profits that accrue on or after that date. The assignment shall be enforced by one or more of the following:

- (1) The appointment of a receiver;

- (2) Obtaining possession of the rents, issues or profits;
- (3) Delivery to any one or more of the tenants of a written demand for turnover of rents, issues and profits . . .
- (4) Delivery to the assignor.

Under the plain language of the statute, an assignee, such as Hunter, is not entitled to any rents collected unless and until the assignee takes steps to enforce the assignment of rents clause. Here, Hunter is not entitled to the rents asserted in Claim 39 because he took no steps to enforce the assignment of rents clause before the Trustee had collected the rents. Courts interpreting Cal. Civ. Code §2398 have held that lenders are not entitled to pre-enforcement step rents. See In re GOCO Realty Fund I, 151 B.R. 241, 248 (Bankr. N.D. Cal. 1993) ("No California court has interpreted an absolute assignment of rents to be self-executing with respect to enforcement upon default by the borrower. Thus, a lender's right to possession of rents arises only upon both the borrower's default and the lender's demand for possession. Although Cal. Civ. Code § 2938 may obviate the need for a further perfection step, it cannot be read to obviate the need for a further enforcement step."). Hunter's contention that he failed to take enforcement steps, because he was unaware of the need to do so, is unavailing.

Based upon the foregoing, the Claim Objection is SUSTAINED and Claim 39 is DISALLOWED in its entirety. The Trustee shall submit a conforming order, incorporating this tentative ruling by reference, within seven days of the hearing.

No appearance is required if submitting on the court's tentative ruling. If you intend to submit on the tentative ruling, please contact Cameron Schlagel or Daniel Koontz at 213-894-1522. If you intend to contest the tentative ruling and appear, please first contact opposing counsel to inform them of your intention to do so. Should an opposing party file a late opposition or appear at the hearing, the court will determine whether further hearing is required. Docket 1052

Tentative Ruling:

8/14/2018

For the reasons set forth below, the Trustee's Claim Objection is GRANTED IN PART and DENIED IN PART. Claim 38 shall be allowed as a general unsecured claim in the amount of $1,800.

Pleadings Filed and Reviewed:

- 1) Objection to Claim No. 38 [Doc. No. 1052] (the "Claim Objection")
 - a) Notice of Objection to Claim [Doc. No. 1053]
- 2) Declaration of Regina Smith in Opposition to Trustee's Objection to Regina Smith's Claim No. 38 [Doc. No. 1071] (the "Smith Decl.")
- 3) Reply to the Declaration of Regina Smith in Opposition to the Trustee's Objection to Regina Smith's Claim No. 38 [Doc. No. 1072] (the "Reply")

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

Jayampath P. Dharmasuriya (the "Debtor") commenced a voluntary Chapter 11 petition on July 20, 2009. Four Bankruptcy Judges have presided over this case, which has been pending for almost ten years. From the date of the filing of the petition (the "Petition Date") to August 22, 2010, the Hon. Samuel L. Bufford acted as presiding judge. Doc. No. 108. From August 23, 2010 to May 8, 2014, the Hon. Peter Carroll presided. Doc. Nos. 108 and 741. From May 9, 2014 to January 2, 2018, the Hon. Deborah J. Saltzman presided. Doc. Nos. 741 and 1025. On January 3, 2018, the case was transferred to the undersigned Judge. Doc. No. 1025.

On May 2, 2012, Regina Smith filed Proof of Claim 38 ("Claim 38"), asserting a priority claim in the amount of $10,000, and a general unsecured claim in the amount of $179,000. The basis for the claim is "unpaid wages." No supporting documentation is attached to the claim.

Chapter 7

The Trustee objects to the claim on the ground that it has not been substantiated. In response, Smith filed a declaration, stating that she is a bookkeeper who used to manage various properties for the Debtor. Smith states that she is "prepared to amend the claim to remove [the] administrative portion and reduce it to $1,800.00." Smith Decl. at ¶3. In his Reply, the Trustee states that he is amenable to reclassification of the claim as a general unsecured claim, in the amount of $1,800.

II. Findings and Conclusions

The Trustee and Smith have agreed that Claim 38 should be reclassified as a general unsecured claim in the amount of $1,800. Based upon that agreement, the Trustee's Claim Objection is GRANTED IN PART and DENIED IN PART. Claim 38 shall be allowed as a general unsecured claim in the amount of $1,800.

The Trustee shall submit a conforming order, incorporating this tentative ruling by reference, within seven days of the hearing.

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

Monge Property Investments, Inc. (the "Debtor") filed a voluntary Chapter 11 petition on May 31, 2012 (the "Petition") [Doc. No. 1]. On June 24, 2016 the Honorable Thomas Donovan entered an order staying any disclosure statement and/or plan proceeding until a probate matter that the Debtor was involved in (the "Probate Matter") is resolved. The Debtor's case was transferred to this Court on March 13, 2017. On September 14, 2017 the Court entered the "Order Granting Debtor in Possession's Motion for an Order (1) Approving Compromise of Controversy (Fed. R. Bank. P. 9019); and (2) Authorizing the Use of Property of the Estate Outside the Ordinary Course of Business (11 U.S.C. § 363(b)(1))" (the "Settlement Order") [Doc. No. 580]. The Settlement Order approved the settlement of the "Probate Code § 850 Petition prosecuted by the Estate of Ruben M. Monge, Sr., against MPI in Los Angeles Superior Court, Probate Division."

The Debtor owns and operates three parcels of residential real property located at the following addresses: (1) 5908 1/2 Fayette St., Los Angeles, CA 90042; (2) 5908 Fayette St., Los Angeles, CA 90042; and (3) 942-44 Marine Ave., Wilmington, CA 90744. The Debtor is operating its business and managing its financial affairs as Debtor-in-Possession.

The Sale Motion

On July 18, 2018, the Debtor filed the "Motion for Order Approving Sale of Real Property Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 363 Free and Clear of All Liens, Claims, and Interests and Granting Certain other Related Relief (the "Sale Motion") [Doc. No. 710]. The Debtor holds an interest in the real property located at 5908 1/2 Fayette St., Los Angeles, CA 90042 (the "Property"). The Debtor seeks to fund its Second Amended Chapter 11 Plan, in part, through the sale of the Property. On August 22, 2014, the Court entered the Order Approving the Debtor's Application to Employ Vu Ly (the "Broker") as Real Estate Broker [Doc. No. 323]. The Debtor listed the Property for sale with the Broker on May 3, 2018. After a period of marketing the Property, the Debtor entered into negotiations with Journey Investments, Inc. (the "Buyer") for the sale of the Property, and the parties eventually agreed to the sale of the Property for a purchase price of $295,000.00 as set forth in the "Residential Purchase Agreement" attached as Exhibit "A" to the Sale Motion. The offer from the Buyer was the highest offer among three offers to purchase the Property. The Debtor believes that the proposed sale of the Property will generate approximately $240,069.00 of net proceeds for the Estate. "Declaration of Ruben Monge, Jr." (the "Monge Declaration") [Doc. No. 710] at ¶ 19. Therefore, the Debtor seeks an order (granting among other relief): (a) authorizing the sale of the Property to the Buyer free and clear of all liens, claims, and interests; (b) approving the proposed overbid procedures; (c) determining that the Buyer is a good faith purchaser; (d) authorizing payment of commissions set forth in the Sale Motion at the close of escrow; and (e) waiving the fourteen-day stay prescribed by Rule 6004(h) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure. The key sale terms are as follows:

- 1) Proposed purchaser: Journey Investments, Inc.;
- 2) Property for Sale: 5908 1/2 Fayette Street, Los Angeles, CA 90042;
- 3) Purchase price: $295,000.00;
- 4) Overbids: The initial overbid shall be $15,000.00; subsequent overbids shall be in the amount of $7,500.00. The overbid increment is subject to adjustment by the Court to facilitate bidding. Overbidders shall advise the Debtor of their intent to overbid and the amount of such interested bidder's initial overbid no later than three business days prior to the hearing on the Sale Motion. Overbidders shall provide the Debtor with a cashier's check in the amount of $10,000.00 prior to the hearing on the Sale Motion.

The LACTTC Response

On July 30, 2018, the Los Angeles County Treasurer and Tax Collector (the "LACTTC"), filed the "Los Angeles County Treasurer and Tax Collector's Statement of Obligations in Response to [the Sale Motion]" (the "LACTTC Response") [Doc. No. 718]. The LACTTC Response states that the estimated amount of the amount owing to the LACTTC stated in the Sale Motion ($35,106.00) is incorrect. The LACTTC Response states that as of August and September 2018, the LACTTC is owed taxes for the Property in the amount of $51,433.99 and $51,890.47, for August and September respectively. "Declaration of Barry S. Glaser" (the "Glaser Declaration") at ¶ 2; see also Claim Nos. 7-4 and 12-3 (LACTTC Proofs of Claim). The LACTTC Response was filed in order to ensure that the LACTTC will be paid in full through escrow with penalties, interest, and costs.

The Limited Opposition

On August 1, 2018, the United States of America, on behalf of the IRS, filed the "United States of America's Limited Opposition to the [Sale Motion]" (the "Limited Opposition") [Doc. No. 719]. On July 6, 2016, the IRS filed its amended Proof of Claim No. 13, reflecting a pre-petition priority claim of $46,543.19, and a general unsecured claim of $28,346.01. On June 4, 2018, the IRS filed its amended Proof of Claim No. 14, reflecting the post-petition administrative tax due by the Debtor in the total amount of $136,937.78. The Limited Opposition states that the Sale Motion does not discuss the tax implications of the proposed sale, or how the Estate is going to pay any resulting administrative expense. Therefore, the Limited Opposition requests that the Court grant the Sale Motion, and order that the Debtor make a deposit with the IRS for the 2018 tax year based on the sale of the Property.

The Reply

On August 8, 2018, the Debtor filed the Reply to (1) the Limited Opposition, and (2) the LACTTC Response (the "Reply") [Doc. No. 721]. With respect to the Limited Opposition, the Reply states that the Debtor will include the additional language requested by the IRS in any order approving the Sale Motion, and that the Debtor agrees to make the deposit requested by the IRS, if any, within 30-days of the close of escrow. With respect to the LACTTC Response, the Reply states that the correct amount of taxes owed to the LACTTC is "in the range of $103,324.46," and that the Debtor agrees that the LACTTC must be paid and will ensure that escrow has the updated information.

II. Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law

Section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code permits the trustee to sell estate property outside the ordinary course of business, subject to court approval. The trustee must articulate a business justification for the sale. In re Walter, 83 B.R. 14, 19-20 (9th Cir. BAP 1988). Whether the articulated business justification is sufficient "depends on the case," in view of "all salient factors pertaining to the proceeding." Id. at 19-20.

Chapter 11

Here, the Debtor articulates a sufficient business justification for the sale. The Debtor believes the proposed sale of the Property is in the best interest of the Estate because the sale will generate significant cash proceeds for the Estate. Additionally, the Debtor believes that the sale price is reasonable considering that the Property was marketed by the Broker, and the Broker received a total of three offers to purchase the Property, with the Buyer's offer being the highest offer. Additionally, the sale is subject to overbids, which allows any party wishing to purchase the Property at a higher price to do so. The purchase offer of $295,000.00 was obtained by the Debtor through arm's length negotiations.

Lastly, the Debtor has met the conditions for the sale of the Property free and clear of all liens. Section 363(f) permits a sale of property "free and clear of any interest in such property of an entity other than the estate" if any one of the following conditions is met:

- (1) applicable nonbankruptcy law permits the sale of such property free and clear of such interest;
- (2) such entity consents;
- (3) such interest is a lien and the price at which such property is to be sold is greater than the aggregate value of all liens on such property;
- (4) such interest is in bona fide dispute; or
- (5) such entity could be compelled, in a legal or equitable proceeding, to accept a money satisfaction of such interest.

11 U.S.C. § 363(f). Here, the Court finds that the Sale Motion satisfies the requirements of §§ 363(f)(3). The price at which the Property will be sold ($295,000.00) is greater than the aggregate value of all liens on the Property held by the LACTTC. Lastly, the proposed Sale Order shall incorporate the language set forth in the Limited Opposition regarding the tax deposit requested by the IRS.

Auction Procedures

all qualified overbidders. The initial overbid will be $10,000.00. Subsequent overbids will be increments of $5,000.00, with the increments subject to adjustment by the Court depending upon the bidding. The Court will announce each bid level. To remain in the auction, bidders must participate at all bid levels. That is, parties who do not bid in a round cannot later change their minds and re-enter the auction. Parties may make a bid higher than that announced by the Court by approaching the podium and stating their bid.

If a bidder other than the Buyers prevails at the auction, the Court will take testimony to determine whether that bidder is entitled to the protections of §363(m).

III. Conclusion

In conclusion, based on the foregoing, the Court GRANTS the Debtor's Sale Motion in its entirety. The Court will conduct the auction in accordance with the procedures set forth above.

The Debtor shall submit an appropriate order within seven days of the hearing. The Order shall incorporate the conditional language set forth by the IRS in the Limited Opposition.

If you intend to submit on the tentative ruling, please contact Cameron Schlagel or Daniel Koontz at 213-894-1522. If you intend to contest the tentative ruling and appear, please first contact opposing counsel to inform them of your intention to do so. Should an opposing party file a late opposition or appear at the hearing, the court will determine whether further hearing is required. If you wish to make a telephonic appearance, contact Court Call at 888-882-6878, no later than one hour before the hearing.

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

Monge Property Investments, Inc. (the "Debtor") filed a voluntary Chapter 11 petition on May 31, 2012 (the "Petition") [Doc. No. 1]. On June 24, 2016 the Honorable Thomas Donovan entered an order staying any disclosure statement and/or plan proceeding until a probate matter that the Debtor was involved in (the "Probate Matter") is resolved. The Debtor's case was transferred to this Court on March 13, 2017. On September 14, 2017 the Court entered the "Order Granting Debtor in Possession's Motion for an Order (1) Approving Compromise of Controversy (Fed. R. Bank. P. 9019); and (2) Authorizing the Use of Property of the Estate Outside the Ordinary Course of Business (11 U.S.C. § 363(b)(1))" (the "Settlement Order") [Doc. No. 580]. The Settlement Order approved the settlement of the "Probate Code § 850 Petition prosecuted by the Estate of Ruben M. Monge, Sr., against MPI in Los Angeles Superior Court, Probate Division."

On the Petition Date, the Debtor owned eight parcels of real property. The Debtor has sold five of these parcels during the pendency of this case, will seek to sell a sixth parcel located at 5908 1/2 Fayette St., Los Angeles, CA 90042 in order to fund the Plan (see Sale Motion [Doc. No. 710], which is set to be heard concurrently with the hearing on this Motion), and will retain the remaining two parcels located at 5908 Fayette St., Los Angeles, CA 90042, and 942-44 Marine Ave., Wilmington, CA 90744.

The Second Amended Disclosure Statement

On June 20, 2018, the Debtor filed the "Second Amended Chapter 11 Plan of Reorganization" (the "Plan") [Doc. No. 682], and the "Second Amended Disclosure Statement Describing [the Plan]" (the "Disclosure Statement") [Doc. No. 681]. The Debtor concurrently filed the "Motion for Order Approving the Adequacy of [the Disclosure Statement] and Setting Dates and Procedures for Approval of [the Plan]" (the "Motion") [Doc. No. 683]. The effective date of the Plan is January 1, 2019 (the "Effective Date").

On July 2, 2018, the Debtor entered into the following stipulations regarding the Plan treatment of certain claims: (i) the "Stipulation RE: Treatment of Creditor's Claim Under Debtor's Proposed Chapter 11 Plan of Reorganization" (the "JPMorgan Stipulation") [Doc. No. 694], which was approved pursuant to the Court's order entered on July 3, 2018, see Order Approving the JPMorgan Stipulation [Doc. No. 702]; and (ii) the "Stipulation RE Treatment of All Claims Held by the Los Angeles County Treasurer and Tax Collector" (the "LACTTC Stipulation") [Doc. No. 700], which was approved pursuant to the Court's order entered on July 3, 2018, see Order Approving the LACTTC Stipulation [Doc. No. 703].

The Plan includes "Unclassified Claims" as follows:

- 1) Administrative Priority Claims: these claims include, (i) professional fees and costs; (ii) the claim of the IRS, Claim No. 14-2, including additional administrative taxes, fees, and penalties, (iii) the Post-Petition administrative claim of the LACTTC, Claim No. 12-3, see LACTTC Stipulation [Doc. No. 700], and (iv) United States Trustee's fees.
- 2) Priority Tax Claims: Unsecured Claims of Governmental Units entitled to priority under § 507(a)(8). These claims will be paid in full on the Effective Date.

The Plan's classification scheme for Claims and Interests is as follows:

- 1) Class 1 – JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A.: this class includes the Claim of JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., in the amount of $163,307.95 (pursuant to the JPMorgan Stipulation [Doc. No. 694]) (the "JPMorgan Claim") amortized over 30-years at a fixed interest rate of 6% per annum. The Debtor shall tender regular monthly principal and interest payments to JPMorgan in the amount of $979.11 on the first day of each month commencing on July 1, 2018.
- 2) Class 2 – LACTTC: this class includes Claim No. 7-4, filed by the LACTTC in the amount of 62,766.78 (pursuant to LACTTC Stipulation [Doc. No. 700]) (the "Pre-Petition LACTTC Claim"). The Pre-Petition LACTTC Claim will be paid in full over five-years at 18% interest commencing on the first day of the first month following the Effective Date. LACTTC Stipulation at ¶ 3.

- 3) Class 3 – Priority Unsecured Claims: this class consists of certain priority claims specified in §§ 507(a)(3), (4), (5), (6), and (7). The Debtor does not believe any such claims exist.
- 4) Class 4 – Unsecured Claims: this class consists of general unsecured claims not entitled to priority under § 507(a). The Debtor estimates that Class 4 general unsecured debts total approximately $78,711.00. See Disclosure Statement, Ex. C. Class 4 is impaired. Class 4 claims will be paid in full in 60 equal monthly installments of $1,312.00 each, commencing on the first day of the first month following the Effective Date.
- 5) Class 5 – Interest Holders: the Debtor's owner will retain his ownership interest in the Debtor.

The Disclosure Statement details the means of funding the plan and making Effective Date payments. The Disclosure statement states that the Plan will be primarily funded from the proceeds of the sale of the property located at 5908 ½ Fayette St., Los Angeles, CA 90042. Additional funding for the Plan will come from the proceeds of debtor-in-possession exit financing of the property located at 5908 Fayette St., Los Angeles, CA 90042 (the Debtor has obtained preliminary pre-approval from Caliber Home Loans in the amount of $538,460.00, see Disclosure Statement, Ex. E), and from the collection of its rental income and the finds it has/will have accumulated in its Debtor-in-Possession bank account.

The Plan's risk factors, as detailed in the Disclosure Statement, include the risk that the Debtor will not have sufficient cash flow in the future to pay all of the obligations created under the Plan.

Wednesday, August 15, 2018

Hearing Room 1568

11:00 AM

CONT... Monge Property Investments, Inc.

Chapter 11

On August 1, 2018, the United States of America, on behalf of the IRS, filed the Opposition to the Motion (the "Opposition") [Doc. No. 720]. On July 6, 2016, the IRS filed its amended Proof of Claim No. 13, reflecting a pre-petition priority claim of $46,543.19, and a general unsecured claim of $28,346.01. On June 4, 2018, the IRS filed its amended Proof of Claim No. 14, reflecting the post-petition administrative tax due by the Debtor in the total amount of $136,937.78.

The first contention in the Opposition is that the Disclosure Statement and Plan fail to properly describe the treatment of the IRS Administrative Claim, and that the post-petition tax liability must be paid on the Effective Date of the Plan. The Opposition further states that the Debtor has not made any deposits for its Form 941 account, or filed its Form 941 for the period ending on June 30, 2018. The IRS additionally notes that the Plan and Disclosure Statement do not contain a discussion of the tax consequences of the proposed sale of certain real property of the Estate.

The second contention in the Opposition is that the Disclosure Statement and Plan fail to properly describe the treatment of the IRS priority claim. The Opposition states that the Debtor is required to pay all pre-petition priority unsecured taxes specified in § 507(a)(8) in cash in regular installment payments within five-years of the Petition Date, including interest on such installments.

The Reply

On August 8, 2018, the Debtor filed the Reply to the Opposition (the "Reply") [Doc. No. 722]. With respect to the IRS administrative claim, the Reply states that the Debtor will pay the full amount of the administrative claim by the Effective Date, and that the Debtor will file its Form 941 for the period ending June 30, 2018 within fourteen-days of the date of entry of the order approving the adequacy of the Disclosure Statement. Regarding the tax consequences of the Plan, the Debtor states that it is amenable to including language that the Debtor is required to make a deposit with the IRS for any taxes resulting from the sale of property, within thirty-days of the close of escrow. Lastly, the Reply states that to the extent the IRS objects to the terms of payment of the IRS priority claim, the Plan provides that all amounts due to the IRS will be paid in full by the Effective Date; thus, the Opposition's argument regarding interest on periodic/installment payments is not relevant under the circumstances.

II. Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law

Section 1125 requires a disclosure statement to contain "information of a kind, and in sufficient detail, as far as is reasonably practicable in light of the nature and history of the debtor and the condition of the debtor's books and records . . . that would enable. . . a hypothetical investor of the relevant class to make an informed judgment about the plan." In determining whether a disclosure statement provides adequate information, "the court shall consider the complexity of the case, the benefit of additional information to creditors and other parties in interest, and the cost of providing additional information." 11 U.S.C. § 1125(a). Courts interpreting § 1125(a) have explained that the "primary purpose of a disclosure statement is to give the creditors the information they need to decide whether to accept the plan." In re Monnier Bros., 755 F.2d 1336, 1342 (8th Cir. 1985). "According to the legislative history, the parameters of what constitutes adequate information are intended to be flexible." In re Diversified Investors Fund XVII, 91 B.R. 559, 560 (Bankr. C.D. In re Ariz. Fast Foods, Inc.*, 299 B.R. 589 (Bankr. D. Ariz. 2003).

Relevant factors for evaluating the adequacy of a disclosure statement may include: (1) the events which led to the filing of a bankruptcy petition; (2) a description of the available assets and their value; (3) the anticipated future of the company; (4) the source of information stated in the disclosure statement; (5) a disclaimer; (6) the present condition of the debtor while in Chapter 11; (7) the scheduled claims; (8) the estimated return to creditors under a Chapter 7 liquidation; (9) the accounting method utilized to produce financial information and the name of the accountants responsible for such information; (10) the future management of the debtor; (11) the Chapter 11 plan or a summary thereof; (12) the estimated administrative expenses, including attorneys' and accountants' fees; (13) the collectability of accounts receivable; (14) financial information, data, valuations or projections relevant to the creditors' decision to accept or reject the Chapter 11 plan; (15) information relevant to the risks posed to creditors under the plan; (16) the actual or projected realizable value from recovery of preferential or otherwise voidable transfers; (17) litigation likely to arise in a nonbankruptcy context; (18) tax attributes of the debtor; and (19) the relationship of the debtor with affiliates.

In re Metrocraft Pub. Services, Inc., 39 B.R. 567, 568 (Bankr. Ga. 1984). However, "[d]isclosure of all factors is not necessary in every case." Id.

The Court finds that the Disclosure Statement contains adequate information. Here, the Disclosure Statement satisfies many relevant Metrocraft factors, including: (1) the events which led to the filing of a bankruptcy petition; (2) a description of the available assets and their value; (4) the source of information stated in the disclosure statement; (5) a disclaimer; (6) the present condition of the debtor while in Chapter 11; (7) the scheduled claims; (8) the estimated return to creditors under a Chapter 7 liquidation; (10) the future management of the debtor; (11) the Chapter 11 Plan or a summary thereof; (12) the estimated administrative expenses, including attorneys' and accountants' fees; (14) financial information, data, valuations or projections relevant to the creditors' decision to accept or reject the Chapter 11 Plan; (15) information relevant to the risks posed to creditors under the Plan; and (18) tax attributes of the debtor. The Court further finds that the Reply addresses the issues raised by the Opposition with respect to the Plan treatment of the IRS Claims.

III. Conclusion

Based on the foregoing, the Motion is GRANTED. The Disclosure Statement is approved as containing adequate information. The following dates will apply with respect to the solicitation of votes and plan confirmation:

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

Crestalliance LLC (the "Debtor") filed a voluntary Chapter 11 petition on November 22, 2017 (the "Petition") [Doc. No. 1]. On January 17, 2018, the Court entered the "Order Converting Case to Chapter 7" [Doc. No. 22]. David M. Goodrich accepted appointment as the Chapter 7 trustee (the "Trustee") for the Debtor's bankruptcy case. On March 6, 2018, the Trustee filed the "Application to Employ Neiman Realty, Inc. as Real Estate Broker to Market and Sell Real Properties" [Doc. No. 33]. The Court entered the "Order Granting the Application to Employ Neiman Realty" on March 28, 2018 [Doc. No. 46].

The Motion

On July 26, 2018, the Trustee filed the "Amended Motion for Order: (1) Authorizing Sale of Real Property Free and Clear of Liens, Claims, and Interests Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 363(b) and (f); (2) Approving Overbid Procedures; (3) Approving Buyer, Successful Bidder, and Back-Up Bidder As Good Faith Purchaser Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 363(m); and (4) Authorizing Payment of Undisputed Liens, Real Estate Broker's Commissions and Other Ordinary Costs of Sale" (the "Sale Motion") [Doc. No. 104]. The Debtor holds an interest in the real property located at 1806 Chapel Avenue, Alhambra, CA 91801 (the "Property"). See "Schedule A/B" [Doc. No. 10]. Yunying Chen (the "Buyer") has offered to purchase the Property pursuant to the terms of the "Purchase Agreement", see "Declaration of David M.

Goodrich" ("Goodrich Decl.") [Doc. No. 104], Exhibit "4", whereby the Buyers have agreed to purchase the Property for the sum of $1,012,000.00, id. at ¶ 9. The Buyers' offer was the highest offer the Trustee has received. Id. at ¶ 10. The Trustee believes that the proposed sale of the Property will generate approximately $305,000.00 to $450,000.00 of net proceeds for the Estate. Id. at ¶ 16. Therefore, the Trustee seeks an order: (a) authorizing the sale of the Property to the Buyer free and clear of all liens, claims, and interests; (b) approving proposed overbid procedures; (c) determining that the buyer is a good faith purchaser; (d) authorizing payment of costs of sale from escrow; and (e) waiving the fourteen day stay prescribed by Rule 6004(h) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure. The key sale terms are as follows:

- 1) Proposed purchaser: Yunying Chen;
- 2) Property for Sale: 1806 Chapel Avenue, Alhambra, CA 91801;
- 3) Purchase price: $1,012,000.00;
- 4) Overbids: The initial overbid shall be $10,000.00; subsequent overbids shall be in the amount of $5,000.00. The overbid increment is subject to adjustment by the Court to facilitate bidding. Overbidders shall advise the Trustee of their intent to overbid and the amount of such interested bidder's initial overbid no later than two business days prior to the hearing on the Sale Motion. Overbidders shall provide the Trustee with a cashier's check in the amount of $25,000.00, as well as evidence of the Overbidder's financial ability to pay the full amount of the Overbid.

The Non-Opposition

On August 3, 2018, Ocwen Loan Servicing, LLC (the "Creditor"), which is the holder of a note and first deed of trust encumbering the Property, filed the Conditional Non-Opposition to the Sale Motion (the "Non-Opposition") [Doc. No. 107]. The Non-Opposition states that the estimated payoff amount of the Creditor's lien as of August 31, 2018 is $475,976.40, which amount may not include interest and additional advances that may come due prior to the date of the proposed sale. The Creditor does not oppose the Sale Motion on the condition that the following provisions are included in the sale order: (1) the Creditor's consent is contingent upon the Creditor's first priority lien being paid off in full from the proceeds of the sale; (2) the Creditor's claim shall be paid off in full or in accordance with any approval authorized by Wells Fargo before satisfying any other lien on the Property; (3) the Creditor is authorized to submit an updated payoff demand to the appropriate escrow company; (4) to the extent the Debtor disputes any amounts which the Creditor is owed, the undisputed amount and the disputed amount shall be segregated into an interest bearing account pending further order of the Court; (5) in the event the Sale does not take place within 90 days from the entry of the order granting the Sale Motion, a new motion must be filed; and (6) in the event that the sale does not take place, the Creditor shall retain its lien.

The Reply

On August 8, 2018, the Trustee filed the Reply to the Non-Opposition (the "Reply") [Doc. No. 110]. The Reply states that the Non-Opposition fails to demonstrate the necessity or relevance of the provisions requested therein. Furthermore, three of the provisions are irrelevant because (1) the Sale Motion expressly provides for the Creditor to be paid through escrow, (2) if escrow requires an updated payoff demand, one will be requested, and (3) the Creditor's lien shall automatically remain in full force in the event the sale fails to close. The Trustee also argues that the request related to the segregation of disputed amounts, and the request regarding the 90 day period during which the sale should take place, interfere with the Trustee's authority and discretion to sell the Property. The Trustee is also not aware of any connection between Wells Fargo and the Creditor. Therefore, the Trustee does not consent to any of the proposed provisions.

II. Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law

Section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code permits the trustee to sell estate property outside the ordinary course of business, subject to court approval. The trustee must articulate a business justification for the sale. In re Walter, 83 B.R. 14, 19–20 (9th Cir. BAP 1988). Whether the articulated business justification is sufficient "depends on the case," in view of "all salient factors pertaining to the proceeding." Id. at 19–20. Here, the Trustee articulates a sufficient business justification for the sale. The Trustee believes the proposed sale of the Property is in the best interest of the Estate because the sale will generate significant cash proceeds for the Estate. Additionally, the Trustee believes that the sale price is reasonable considering that the Property was extensively marketed by the Broker. Additionally, the sale is subject to overbids, which allows any party wishing to purchase the Property at a higher price to do so. The purchase offer of $1,012,000.00 was obtained by the Trustee through arm's length negotiations.

Lastly, the Trustee has met the conditions for the sale of the Property free and clear of all liens. Section 363(f) permits a sale of property "free and clear of any interest in such property of an entity other than the estate" if any one of the following conditions is met:

- (1) applicable nonbankruptcy law permits the sale of such property free and clear of such interest;
- (2) such entity consents;
- (3) such interest is a lien and the price at which such property is to be sold is greater than the aggregate value of all liens on such property;
- (4) such interest is in bona fide dispute; or
- (5) such entity could be compelled, in a legal or equitable proceeding, to accept a money satisfaction of such interest.

11 U.S.C. § 363(f). Here, the Court finds that the Sale Motion satisfies the requirements of §§ 363(f)(3). The price at which the Property will be sold is greater than the aggregate value of all liens on the Property. Furthermore, the Sale Motion provides that the Creditor's lien will be paid in full from the sale proceeds. The Creditor's Non-Opposition is overruled in its entirety. The Court finds that the provisions requested by the Creditor are not necessary, duplicative, and interfere with the Trustee's authority to sell the Property.

Auction Procedures

The Court will distribute numbered auction paddles to the proposed purchaser and all qualified overbidders. The initial overbid will be $10,000.00. Subsequent overbids will be increments of $5,000.00, with the increments subject to adjustment by the Court depending upon the bidding. The Court will announce each bid level. To remain in the auction, bidders must participate at all bid levels. That is, parties who do not bid in a round cannot later change their minds and re-enter the auction. Parties may make a bid higher than that announced by the Court by approaching the podium and stating their bid.

If a bidder other than the Buyers prevails at the auction, the Court will take testimony to determine whether that bidder is entitled to the protections of §363(m).

For the reasons set forth below, this action is dismissed without prejudice, pursuant to Civil Rule 41(b), based upon Plaintiff's failure to prosecute. I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

On February 2, 2018, Margaret Tully Imhoff ("Plaintiff"), proceeding in pro per, commenced this action to discharge $166,102.19 in student loan indebtedness, on the grounds of undue hardship pursuant to §523(a)(8). On July 17, 2018, the Court conducted a Status Conference, at which Plaintiff appeared. The Court advised Plaintiff that it intended to require her to appear and show cause why this action should not be dismissed for failure to prosecute. The Court noted that Defendants Educational Credit Management Corporation ("ECMC") and the United States Department of Education ("Education") had both noticed motions to compel the Plaintiff to respond to written discovery, and that both Motions alleged that notwithstanding multiple extensions, Plaintiff failed to respond to written discovery and had failed to respond to the Defendants' requests to meet and confer regarding discovery. The Court further noted that Plaintiff had failed to contact either Defendant to prepare a Joint Status Report, as required by the Local Bankruptcy Rules. In response to the Court's concerns, Plaintiff stated that she did not intend to oppose dismissal of the action, and stated that she no longer wished to pursue the action for health reasons. The Court advised Plaintiff that the action would be dismissed if she did not respond to the Court's Order to Show Cause.

Plaintiff has not responded to the Order to Show Cause, and has not responded to either of Defendants' Motions to Compel.

II. Findings and Conclusions

Civil Rule 41(b), made applicable to these proceedings by Bankruptcy Rule 7041, provides in relevant part: "If the plaintiff fails to prosecute or to comply with these rules or a court order, a defendant may move to dismiss the action or any claim against it. Unless the dismissal order states otherwise, a dismissal under this subdivision (b) ... operates as an adjudication on the merits."

The Court weighs five factors in determining whether to dismiss a case for lack of prosecution:

- 1) the public's interest in expeditious resolution of litigation;
- 2) the court's need to manage its docket;
- 3) the risk of prejudice to the defendants;
- 4) the public policy favoring the disposition of cases on their merits; and
- 5) the availability of less drastic sanctions.

MoneyMaker v. CoBEN (In re Eisen), 31 F.3d 1447, 1451 (9th Cir. 1994).

Here, all factors weight in favor of dismissal. With respect to factor one, if the litigation remained pending, it would not be expeditiously resolved, because Plaintiff has failed to comply with her discovery obligations, and has indicated to the Court that health difficulties prevent her from diligently prosecuting the action. With respect to factor two, less drastic sanctions are not available because Plaintiff has made clear that she no longer desires to prosecute the action. Regarding factor three, there is no indication that Defendants would be prejudiced by dismissal. Defendants have not filed any papers opposing dismissal of this action. Even factor four, the public policy favoring disposition of cases on their merits, weighs in favor of dismissal. There is no way for the Court to find the facts necessary to adjudicate whether Plaintiff's loans are non-dischargeable if Plaintiff is unwilling or unable to comply with her discovery obligations. Dismissal of cases where a party refuses to participate in discovery furthers factor four by establishing that the Court will adjudicate only those cases in which all parties have the opportunity to uncover the relevant facts. Attempting to adjudicate a matter in which the parties did not have access to relevant factual information would frustrate the policy, by forcing the Court to decide matters without the facts. Finally, factor two—the Court's need to manage its docket—weighs in favor of dismissal.

Based upon the foregoing, this action is dismissed, pursuant to Civil Rule 41(b), for failure to prosecute. Because a dismissal with prejudice would prevent Plaintiff from ever again asserting that her student loans impose an undue hardship, the dismissal will be without prejudice. It would not be appropriate for the Court to prevent Plaintiff from ever seeking to except her student loans from discharge only because she has elected not to pursue such an action at the present time. The motions seeking to compel Plaintiff to respond to discovery filed by the United States Department of Education and Educational Credit Management Corporation are DENIED as moot.

The Court will prepare and enter an appropriate order.

Docket 64

Tentative Ruling:

8/15/2018

For the reasons set forth below, the Motion is GRANTED in its entirety.

Pleadings Filed and Reviewed:

- 1) Motion for Order Authorizing the Debtor to Continue its Insurance Policies and to Pay Prepetition and Postpetition Obligations in Respect Thereof [Doc. No. 64] (the "Motion")
 - a) Notice of Hearing on Motion for Order Authorizing the Debtor to Continue its Insurance Policies and to Pay Prepetition and Postpetition Obligations in Respect Thereof [Doc. No. 65]
 - b) Declaration That No Party Requested a Hearing on Motion [Doc. No. 87]
- 2) No opposition is on file

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

Sultan Financial Corporation (the "Debtor") commenced a voluntary Chapter 11 petition on July 13, 2018. Doc. No. 1. The Debtor currently operates sixteen discount retail stores under a franchise agreement with Aaron's, Inc. ("Aaron's"). The Debtor seeks authorization to (1) renew its insurance policies or obtain replacement coverage, as needed in the ordinary course of business, without further Court approval, and to (2) pay, in its sole discretion, (a) all prepetition insurance obligations for all undisputed premiums, claims, deductibles, administrative fees, broker fees, and other obligations relating to the insurance policies (the "Prepetition Insurance Obligations"), and (b) postpetition insurance obligations for all undisputed premiums, claims, deductibles, administrative fees, broker fees, and other obligations relating to the Insurance Policies, as applicable.

The Debtor states that payment of the Prepetition Insurance Obligations is necessary to insure continued coverage under its insurance policies and to maintain good relationships with its insurers. The Debtor states that continued insurance coverage is necessary to comply with the guidelines of the United States Trustee, the laws of the various jurisdictions in which the Debtor operates, and the Debtor's various financial agreements.

No opposition to the Motion is on file.

II. Findings and Conclusions

As a preliminary matter, the Court notes that the Debtor filed a Declaration That No Party Requested a Hearing on Motion [Doc. No. 87] (the "Negative Notice Declaration"). However, the Motion was noticed for hearing; it was not filed a negative notice basis. Therefore, the Negative Notice Declaration does not apply. Because the Motion was noticed for hearing, the hearing will go forward. However, as set forth below, the Debtor is not required to appear if it submits upon this tentative ruling.

Turning to the merits, §363(b)(1) authorizes the Debtor to use property of the estate, other than in the ordinary course of business, upon Court approval. In the Court's view, payment of the Postpetition Insurance Obligations constitutes use of estate property in the ordinary course of business, making entry of a Court order approving such payment unnecessary. Nonetheless, the Court will enter an order approving payment of the Postpetition Insurance Obligations.

It was necessary for the Debtor to seek Court approval to pay the Prepetition Insurance Obligations, because such payment is on account of prepetition indebtedness. The Debtor is authorized to pay the Prepetition Insurance Obligations. The Debtor has established that if it does not pay the Prepetition Insurance Obligations, it would be required to obtain new insurance coverage, most likely at greater cost.

Based upon the foregoing, the Motion is GRANTED in its entirety. The Court will enter the order that the Debtor has already submitted.

No appearance is required if submitting on the court's tentative ruling. I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

Fu Kong Inc. (the "Debtor"), filed a voluntary Chapter 11 petition on June 26, 2018 (the "Petition") [Doc. No. 1]. The Debtor is an importer, wholesaler, and designer of women's apparel under the brands "Lu Lu" and "Shu Shu." The Debtor has 29 years of experience in the industry and has created designs and sold women's apparel under various labels to high end retailers such as Nordstrom, Saks, Lord & Taylor, Dillard's, Macy's, and Stein Mart. Lillian Yu-Li Hsu is the Debtor's president, sole shareholder, and sole director; George Hsu was, until his termination on August 1, 2018, the Debtor's secretary.

The Petition was precipitated by the Debtor's recent cash flow problems due to a slowdown in business in the last three to six months, and a delayed shipment due to production issues in China which delay resulted in a number of the Debtor's customers to cancel orders. The Debtor's ability to generate income was also interfered with for a few weeks due to the father of George Hsu having an emergency health issue.

On June 1, 2018, the Debtor's secured lender, Cathay Bank (the "Secured Lender"), filed a lawsuit against the Debtor in Los Angeles Superior Court, Case No. KC070342 (the "State Court Action"), for failing to make payments on a business loan, seeking possession of the Debtor's assets and appointment of a receiver, foreclosure of the commercial warehouse leased by the Debtor, and foreclosure of Lillian and George Hsu's principal residence. Other of the Debtor's creditors have also recently began attempting to collect debts.

On July 9, 2018, the Debtor filed the "Motion for Order: (1) Authorizing Debtor to Use Cash Collateral; (2) Granting Adequate Protection to Secured Creditors" (the "Emergency Cash Collateral Motion") [Doc. No. 11]. The Debtor submitted the "Original Budget" [Doc. No. 11, Ex. 1] in connection with the Emergency Cash Collateral Motion. On July 13, 2018, the Court held a hearing on the Emergency Cash Collateral Motion, and on July 16, 2018, the Court entered the "Order (1) Authorizing Debtor to Use Cash Collateral On An Interim Basis Through and Including August 9, 2018, (2) Granting Adequate Protection to Cathay Bank, and (3) Setting Continued Hearing on the Further Interim Use of Cash Collateral" (the "Interim Order") [Doc. No. 21]. Pursuant to the Interim Order, on July 16, 2018, the Debtor made an adequate protection payment in the amount of $6,780.32 to Cathay Bank. "Declaration of George Hsu" (the "Hsu Declaration") [Doc. No. 40] at ¶ 13¹ [Note 1].

The Renewed Cash Collateral Motion

On July 26, 2018, the Debtor filed the "Motion for Order Authorizing Further Interim Use of Cash Collateral" (the "Renewed Cash Collateral Motion") [Doc. No. 40].

The Secured Lender is the holder of a promissory note in the total current amount of $1,574,163.00 (the "Loan"), secured by the Debtor's assets including inventory and accounts receivable. The Secured Lender's Loan is also secured by two real properties: (1) the Loan is secured by a second deed of trust on the Debtor's principals' residence located at 1324 N. Vosburg Dr., Azusa, CA 91702 (the "Vosburg Property"), which was appraised at $1.225 million on September 20, 2017, with approximately $975,000.00 in equity to satisfy the Loan; and (2) the Loan is secured by a second deed of trust on the industrial warehouse leased by the Debtor located at 2455 Lee Avenue, S. El Monte, CA 91733 (the "El Monte Property"), which was appraised at $2.0 million as of July 22, 2018, see "Declaration of Tony Hwang" (the "Hwang Declaration") [Doc. No. 40], Ex. 3, with approximately $941,919.35 in equity. Based on these figures, the Secured Lender is protected by equity in the approximate amount of $1,916,919.35 on the $1,574,163.00 principal balance of the Loan.

The Debtor has four additional working capital lenders that each have UCC-1 security interests in the Debtor's assets and accounts receivable: (1) Funding Metrics, LLC; (2) Landing Club Corp; (3) Wide Merchant Investment Inc.; and (4) Yellowstone Capital West, LLC (collectively, the "Capital Secured Creditors").

As of July 26, 2018, the Debtor has $11,761.91 in cash, and the Debtor anticipates that as of August 10, 2018, the Debtor will have approximately $18,949.91 in cash. Renewed Cash Collateral Motion at 7. The Debtor seeks authorization to continue to use the cash collateral in accordance with the "Amended Budget", see Hsu Declaration, Ex. 1, for the period of August 10, 2018 through and including December 31, 2018. Beginning in September or October 2018, the Debtor projects up to $100,000.00 to $200,000.00 in monthly gross revenue at a 15% to 20% profit margin through selling custom fabrics. The Debtor additionally submits further documentation to support the income projections in the Amended Budget. See Renewed Cash Collateral Motion, Ex. 5 ("Purchase Orders and Documentation Supporting Income Projections"). These documents purport to show that the Debtor has received $438,952.40 in purchase orders, with an additional $53,400.00 in pending purchase orders; however, the Amended Budget projects $850,000.00 in income for the period of August through December 2018 "because Debtor believes it will be able to generate such income." Renewed Cash Collateral Motion at 12; Hsu Declaration at ¶ 34. Just over half of the purchase orders, which total $438,952.40, consist of certain unsigned purchase orders by Pacico, Inc., dated July 26, 2018, which orders collectively total $298,200.00. See Renewed Cash Collateral Motion, Ex. 5. The Debtor further states that its belief in this regard is based on the Debtor anticipating large purchase orders from Intex Usa, Inc., and Casual Express Apparel, Inc. Id.

The Amended Budget represents the Debtor's best estimate of the necessary business expenses; however, because the needs of the business may fluctuate, the Debtor requests authority to deviate from the total expenses contained in the Amended Budget by no more than 20% and to deviate by expense category without the need for further court order. The Amended Budget reflects certain changes in response to the Court's Interim Cash Collateral Order. Among these changes, the Amended Budget: (1) provides for payment of rent on the El Monte Property in the amount of $5,000.00 per month, reduced from $10,000.00 per month in the Original Budget; (2) does not include a line item for payment of property tax on the El Monte Property, because the lessors are responsible for payment of such taxes; (3) the line item for "Auto Expense" is reduced to $500 per month, which the Debtor explains is a car allowance paid by the Debtor to Lillian Hsu for the business use of her personal car, see Renewed Cash Collateral Motion at 9; (4) includes a line item for "Commission" in varying amounts for each of the months August through December 2018, which expense is necessary to pay the Debtor's "road representatives" who travel to various stores around the country to promote and sell the Debtor's products, see id. at 10; and (5) includes a line item for "Wages" in the amount of $26,000.00, which expense is necessary to pay the Debtor's Principals, and which will only be paid after the expiration of the 15-day period required for insider compensation, see id. at 11 (on July 25, 2018 the Debtor filed the "Notice of Setting/Increasing Insider Compensation" for each of the Debtor's Principals, see Doc. Nos. 35, 36).

The Debtor contends that the use of cash collateral is necessary to continue business operations. The Debtor states that, based on the figures set forth above, the Secured Lender is adequately protected by the Debtor's inventory (which, according to the Debtor, has an approximate value of $1.4 million), the equity in the Vosburg Property and the El Monte Property, and has an equity cushion of approximately 21.77%. The Debtor disputes the appraisal figures relied on by the Secured Lender in its Opposition to the Emergency Cash Collateral Motion [Doc. No. 18], wherein the Secured Lender contends that its loan is not fully secured. The Debtor contends that the Secured Lender's respective appraisals of the Vosberg Property and the El Monte Property, which were based on exterior viewings, are less reliable than the Debtor's respective appraisals, which were based on full inspections. Compare "Declaration of Glenn W. Lee" (the "Lee Declaration") [Doc. No. 18] at ¶ 4, and "Declaration of Thomas C. Anderson" (the "Anderson Declaration") [Doc. No. 18] at ¶ 4 (Secured Lender's appraisals), with "Declaration of Frank Avina" [Doc. No. 40] at ¶ 2 & Ex. 2, and Hwang Declaration, Ex. 3 (Debtor's appraisal of the El Monte Property as of July 22, 2018). Based on its appraisal figures, the Debtor further contends that it should not be required to make any further adequate protection payments to the Secured Lender. Additionally, the Debtor states that the Secured Lender and the Capital Secured Creditors are adequately protected by the Debtor's continued business operations because the Debtor will continue to generate revenue and preserve the

The Renewed Opposition

On August 2, 2018, the Secured Lender filed the "Further Opposition of Creditor, Cathay Bank to [the Renewed Cash Collateral Motion]" (the "Renewed Opposition") [Doc. No. 46]. The Secured Lender opposes further use of the cash collateral by the Debtor. According to the Renewed Opposition, as of June 29, 2018, the total owing on the Loan is $1,589,689.04. Both the Vosburg Property and the El Monte Property are owned by Lillian and George Hsu. Renewed Opposition at 4. In addition to the Loan to the Debtor, the Secured Lender has made two additional loans to the Hsus, personally: a home equity line of credit secured by a first deed of trust on the Vosburg Property, and a commercial real estate loan secured by a first deed of trust on the El Monte Property. The Debtor defaulted on the Loan after failing to make the payment due on February 18, 2018. The Loan matured on June 18, 2018.

On June 1, 2018, the Secured Lender commenced the State Court Action, and on June 5, 2018, the State Court entered a temporary restraining order and an order to show cause re: appointment of receiver. During the period from the issuance of the TRO on June 5, 2018, through June 26, 2018, the Secured Lender experienced significant difficulties in its attempts to get the Debtor's compliance with the TRO. Such difficulties included, among other things, multiple delays by the Debtor's principals of the field examination of the Debtor's records, and the Debtor's failure to produce certain documents requested by the Secured Lender. The hearing on the State Court OSC was set for June 27, 2018, and on June 26, 2018, the State Court entered its tentative ruling granting the receivership and related relief. The Debtor filed the Petition shortly thereafter.

The Secured Lender points out the following discrepancies with respect to the Renewed Cash Collateral Motion, the Debtor's Schedules, and certain past representations made to the Secured Lender:

- (1) Schedule A/B, ¶ 11, lists the amount of accounts receivable as $3,250.00; however, in written financial statements provided by the Debtor to the Secured Lender pre-petition, the Debtor represented that as of December 31, 2017, it had $1,200,370.78 in accounts receivable. The Secured Lender argues that the Debtor has failed to explain this discrepancy. Furthermore, at the 341(a) meeting of creditors on August 1, 2018, Ms. Hsu testified that the December 31, 2017 financial statements were inaccurate. Supplemental Bloom Declaration at ¶ 4(a).

- (2) The Debtor's Statement of Financial Affairs, Part 1, states that the gross sales of the Debtor in 2017 totaled "$1,200,00.00" [sic]; however, in the 2017 Financial Statements provided to the Secured Lender, the gross sales of the Debtor were stated as $6,250,267.00. Renewed Opposition at 5. The Secured Lender argues that based on the Debtor's failure to explain this discrepancy, it continues to appear that either the 2017 signed financial statement given by the Debtor to the Secured Lender, or the Debtor's Schedules, are fraudulent. Id.

The Renewed Opposition further contends that, notwithstanding the changes to the Amended Budget as compared to the Original Budget, the Amended Budget is unrealistic based on the disparity between the Amended Budget's projections and the Debtor's past performance. The Debtor's 2016 tax return shows that the Debtor had gross sales in the amount of $6,167,200.00, and reported cost of goods sold of $4,783,280.00 (77.6% cost of goods). The Debtor's unaudited 2017 Financial statements show that the Debtor had gross sales in the amount of $6,250,267.00, and reported cost of goods sold of $4,898,057.00 (78.4% cost of goods). In contrast, the Amended Budget projects gross sales of $850,000.00, with a projected cost of goods sold of 60.06% of the projected gross sales. The Renewed Opposition raises additional issues regarding the assumption in the Budget that the Debtor will be able to obtain new credit, as well as significant discrepancies between the Debtor's net profit before taxes in 2016 and 2017 (.9% and 1.7% of gross sales, respectively), and the projected net profit before taxes of 30.7% of gross sales in the Budget. Furthermore, the Opposition contends that the Amended Budget is not supported by sufficient documentation or business records. Specifically, the Secured Lender argues that the newly provided "purchase orders" from Pacico, Inc., are not signed, and fail to set forth material provisions such as payment terms, delivery terms, and cancellation terms. Furthermore, the Pacico purchase orders only account for part of the $855,000.00 in projected sales, without any documentation to support the remaining projections. Previously, the Secured Lender discovered that the Debtor "maintained no general ledger and that no accounts receivable ageings were available, no inventory ageings were available, and the Debtor's accounts payable ageings appear[ed] to be highly inaccurate" "Declaration of Margaret Waye" ("Waye Declaration") [Doc. No. 18] at ¶¶ 16, 20, 21, 22. The Renewed Opposition also contends that the Debtor still has not provided sufficient information with respect to the lease of the El Monte Property

Lastly, the Renewed Opposition contends that the Secured Lender's interest in the collateral is not adequately protected. The Secured Lender disputes the Debtor's valuation of the Vosburg Property and El Monte Property. First, the Secured Lender points out that the Court previously rejected the Debtor's appraisal of the Vosburg Property, yet the Debtor submits the same appraisal in support of the Renewed Cash Collateral Motion. Thus, the Secured Lender contends that based on the its appraisal of the Vosburg Property on May 7, 2018, the Vosburg Property has a value of $978,000.00, leaving gross equity in the amount of $696,258.71 (including a reduction for delinquent property taxes). Regarding the El Monte Property, the Secured Lender argues that the Debtor's appraisal inflates the value of the El Monte Property by simply adding $200,000.00 to $250,000.00 in adjustments to the comparable sales. Additionally, the Secured Lender discovered that there is an additional third deed of trust in the amount of over $1 million recorded against the El Monte Property, which means that the encumbrances greatly exceed the amount of any appraisal.

The Reply

The Debtor filed the Reply to the Renewed Opposition on August 6, 2018 (the "Reply") [Doc. No. 48]. At the outset, the Debtor admits the misconduct of its now-former secretary, George Hsu, who provided false financial information to the Secured Lender pre-petition. The Debtor states that George Hsu has been removed, and that the Debtor is committed to maintaining accurate business records moving forward. Lillian Hsu disclaims having any knowledge of the actions taken by George Hsu regarding the financial statement provided to the Secured Lender pre-petition. The Reply submits additional evidence in support of the Renewed Cash Collateral Motion including, among other evidence: the Declaration of Lillian Hsu (the "L. Hsu Declaration"); signed purchase orders from Pacico, Inc., see L. Hsu Declaration, Exhibit 1; and further documentation to substantiate the list of received purchase orders and projected sales, see id., Exhibit 2. The Debtor explains that it anticipates large purchase orders being made by Intex USA, Inc. ("Intex") and Casual Express Apparel Inc. ("Casual Express") in the near future, which orders will account for the difference between the total amount of the received purchase orders and the Debtor's projection of gross income. The Reply contends that the Secured Lender's interest in the cash collateral is adequately protected by the equity in the Vosburg Property and the El Monte Property, the Debtor's business operations, and the approximately $1.4 million in inventory. The Debtor argues that the Debtor's appraisals of each of the Properties are superior to those submitted by the Secured Lender, and that calculation of equity for the purpose of determining adequate protection should be based on the Debtor's appraisals.

The Evidentiary Objections

On August 8, 2018, the Secured Lender filed the "Evidentiary Objections to the Reply Declarations Submitted by Debtor Fu Kong, Inc. In Support of its Motion to Use Cash Collateral" (the "Evidentiary Objections") [Doc. No. 49]. The Secured Lender objects (on various grounds) to the Declaration of Lillian Hsu and the Declaration of George Hsu, submitted in support of the Reply.

II. Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law

The Evidentiary Objections

For the reasons set forth below, the Secured Lender's Evidentiary Objections to the Declaration of Lillian Hsu and the Declaration of George Hsu are OVERRULED. To the extent the Secured Lender objects based on the respective declarations containing numerous statements that end with "to the best of my knowledge," "to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief," or any similar variation, the Court finds the objections lack merit. Additionally, the Court finds that as officers of the Debtor (in the case of George Hsu, a former officer of the Debtor), the Hsu's have the requisite personal knowledge to testify to the Debtor's operations, and the events and circumstances that arose in the ordinary course of business. See, e.g., Stuart v. UNUM Life Ins. Co. of Am., 217 F.3d 1145, 1155 (9th Cir. 2000); Barthelemy v. Air Lines Pilots Ass'n, 897 F.2d 999, 1018 (9th Cir. 1990) (CEO's personal knowledge of various corporate activities inferred from position).

The Court further notes that to the extent that declaration testimony purports to characterize the contents of evidence set forth in the record, the Court does not rely upon such testimony. Instead the Court has independently reviewed the evidence in the record, and draws its own conclusions as to whether the proffered evidence corroborates the position advanced by its proponent.

The Renewed Cash Collateral Motion

Section 363(c)(2) requires court authorization for the use of cash collateral unless "each entity that has an interest in such cash collateral consents." In the Ninth Circuit, satisfaction of Section 363(c)(2)(A) requires the "affirmative express consent" of the secured creditor; "implied consent," resulting from the failure of the secured creditor to object to use of cash collateral, does not satisfy the requirements of the statute. Freightliner Market Development Corp. v. Silver Wheel Freightlines, Inc., 823 F.2d 362, 368-69 (9th Cir. 1987). Absent affirmative express consent, the Debtors "may not use" cash collateral absent the Court's determination that the use is "in accordance with the provisions" of Section 363—that is, that the secured creditor's interest in the cash collateral is adequately protected. Section 363(c)(2)(B); Section 363(e). A secured creditor's interest is adequately protected if the value of its collateral is not declining; the secured creditor is not entitled to payment to compensate for its inability to foreclose upon the collateral during bankruptcy proceedings. United Savings Association of Texas v. Timbers of Inwood Forest Associates, Ltd., 484 U.S. 365 (1988).

Here, the Court finds that the Secured Lender is not adequately protected by the equity in the Vosburg Property and the El Monte Property; therefore, the Court finds that the Debtor must make monthly adequate protection payments to the Secured Lender in the amount of $6,780.32.

First, in connection with the Emergency Cash Collateral Motion the Court accepted the Secured Lender's appraisal of the Vosburg Property; nevertheless, the Debtor still attempts to rely on its appraisal of the Vosburg Property, which the Court previously rejected. The Debtor has failed to show that the Court should reconsider its previous rejection of the appraisal. Based on the Secured Lender's Appraisal, there is only $627,678.71 of equity in the Vosburg Property.

Secondly, with respect to the El Monte Property, the Court finds that the Secured Lender's Appraisal is the most reliable valuation, particularly because of the ambiguity identified by the Secured Lender with respect to whether the Debtor's appraisal is in fact an appraisal, or just an evaluation. Therefore, the Court finds that the value of the El Monte Property is $1,630,000.00.

In sum, the Secured Lender's Loan is secured by property with available equity of $1,111,798.06, while the principal balance on the Loan is $1,589,689.04, leaving $477,890.98 unsecured by real property. The Debtor argues that the Secured Lender has recourse to the Debtor's inventory, which the Debtor claims has a value of $1.4 million; however, given the lack of documentary evidence to support the claimed value of the collateral, the Court cannot accept the Debtor's valuation of the inventory for the purposes of determining whether the Secured Lender's interest in the cash collateral is adequately protected. As discussed, there is not sufficient equity in the Vosburg and El Monte Properties to provide adequate protection. Therefore, the Debtor must make monthly adequate protection payments to the Secured Lender in the amount of $6,780.32.

With respect to the evidence submitted in support of the Renewed Cash Collateral Motion and the Amended Budget, and having considered the Renewed Opposition filed by the Secured Lender, the Court finds that the documentation submitted with the Reply, coupled with the statements of Ms. Hsu regarding the anticipated purchase orders from Intex and Casual Express, see L. Hsu Declaration at ¶¶ 11–12, is sufficient to support the further interim use of the c. The evidence submitted as Exhibit 1 to the Lillian Hsu Declaration (the signed Pacico purchase orders) is sufficient to rebut the argument of the Secured Lender with respect to the authenticity of the Pacico purchase orders. Additionally, the documentation submitted as Exhibit 2 to the Lillian Hsu Declaration is sufficient to support the Renewed Cash Collateral Motion with respect to the total amount of purchase orders received by the Debtor. While there remains a sizeable difference in the total amount of the purchase orders received ($492,352.40), and the projected gross sales ($855,000.00), the Court finds that Ms. Hsu provided sufficient information detailing the status of the Debtor's negotiations with Intex and Casual Express to support the projected gross sales.

The Secured Lender additionally argues that there are significant disparities between the Amended Budget projections and the past performance of the Debtor, however, the Court finds that the Reply offers a sufficient explanation of these discrepancies. Importantly, the Debtor explains that the disparity between the cost of goods in the past and the cost which is set forth in the Amended Budget is attributable to the inclusion of $30,000.00 per month in projected sales of existing inventory in the Amended Budget, and the Debtor maintains that it will be able to afford the cost of purchasing new goods without third party financing based on its new business model. The Debtor's new business model includes an invoicing system whereby the Debtor's customers are invoiced with 30 days for repayment, while the Debtor's suppliers invoice the Debtor with 60 to 90 days for repayment. This model allows the Debtor to collect payments from its customers before the Debtor it pays its suppliers. Thus, the Debtor has submitted sufficient documentary evidence in connection with the Reply to support the further use of cash collateral on an interim basis.

The Court notes that the Debtor has acknowledged the past misrepresentations made by its former secretary, George Hsu. The Debtor fired George Hsu on August 1, 2018, and the Court expects all future representations to be accurate.

III. Conclusion

In ordering the deadlines set forth below, the Court understands there is a hearing on the Secured Lender's Motion to Appoint a Trustee or Examiner [Doc. No. 28] scheduled for August 21, 2018 at 10:00 a.m. That Motion is not before the Court, and the Court's ruling on the instant motion is unrelated to the merits of the pending Motion to Appoint a Trustee or Examiner.

Based on the foregoing, the Court GRANTS the Renewed Cash Collateral Motion. The Debtor is authorized to use the cash collateral in accordance with the terms of the Amended Budget and consistent with this tentative ruling through and including October 16, 2018. The Debtor shall make monthly adequate protection payments to the Secured Creditor in the amount of $6,780.32, in accordance with the terms and dates set forth in the Parties' Loan Agreement. The Court will hold a hearing on the further use of cash collateral on October 16, 2018 at 10:00 a.m. The deadline for the Debtor to file a motion for authorization of further interim use of cash collateral is October 2, 2018. The deadline to file any written opposition to the further interim use of cash collateral is October 9, 2018. The deadline for the Debtor to obtain approval of a disclosure statement in support of a Chapter 11 plan is December 19, 2018.

The Debtor shall lodge a conforming order within seven (7) days of the hearing.

Chapter 11

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

Oak River Asset Management LLC ("Oak River") commenced a voluntary Chapter 11 petition on July 12, 2016 (the "Petition Date"). From the Petition Date until January 29, 2017, the Hon. Thomas B. Donovan presided over this case. The case was reassigned to the undersigned Judge on January 30, 2017. Doc. No. 95.

As of the Petition Date, the Debtor's primary asset was its 50% interest in a single family residence located at 119 Furlong Lane, Bradbury, CA 91008 (the "Property"). The Property is a seven-bedroom, ten-bathroom single family residence containing more than 12,000 square feet, and is located in one of the most expensive ZIP codes in the United States.

Based upon the List of Equity Security Holders—Amended filed by Oak River on January 25, 2018, Liberty Asset Management Corporation ("Liberty") holds a 100% membership interest in Oak River. Doc. No. 113. Pursuant to Liberty's Chapter 11 Plan of Liquidation, Bradley D. Sharp, as Plan Administrator, is charged with effectuating the liquidation of Liberty's remaining assets.

On April 17, 2018, the Court approved a compromise between Oak River, on the one hand, and Ta-Lin Hsu ("Hsu"), TLH Reo Management LLC ("TLH"), and Han Ding Holding, Ltd. ("Han Ding") (Hsu, TLH, and Han Ding collectively, the "Co-Owners"). As of the Petition Date, the Co-Owners collectively held a 50% ownership interest in the Property. Under the compromise, the Co-Owners transferred their 50% ownership interest in the Property to Oak River. In exchange, the Oak River agreed to use its best efforts to market the Property, and agreed that upon sale, the Co-Owners would be entitled to receive a payment of $850,000 on account of their ownership interest. The compromise resolved an adversary proceeding between Oak River and the Co-Owners, Adv. No. 2:16-ap-01333-ER.

Oak River states that it acquired the Property in 2012 for the benefit of Liberty. According to Oak River, Liberty solicited minority investors to invest in the Property. Oak River states that those investors included Christopher Deryen Lee, Frank Lee, the Lee Living Trust dated 6/23/1998 (the "Lee Trust"), and YCJS 2012 LLC ("YCJS") (Christopher and Frank Lee, the Lee Trust, and YCJS collectively, the "Minority Investors"). Christopher Lee and the Lee Trust assert an unsecured claim in the amount of $1,176,164.38 for "breach of contract." Proof of Claim 3-1. YCJS asserts an unsecured claim in the amount of $1,210,191.78, also for "breach of contract." Proof of Claim 4-1. The Minority Investors have recorded a Notice of Lis Pendens against the Property.

Prolien Services LLC ("Prolien") is the successor-in-interest to certain contractors that performed services on the Property. The contractors recorded a mechanic's lien against the Property, and filed an action in the State Court seeking to foreclose upon their lien (the "Prolien Action"). Prolien has recorded a Notice of Lis Pendens against the Property on account of the Prolien Action.

On September 16, 2016, the Court authorized Oak River to obtain $500,000 in financing, on an emergency basis, for the purpose of remediating a hillside on the Property that was in danger of imminent collapse. Doc. No. 47.

Oak River seeks authorization to sell the Property, free and clear of liens, claims, and interests, to Yeung Sai Yeung, for $6,900,000. No timely overbids have been submitted. After payment of (a) $850,000 to the Co-Owners, (b) $575,000 to the lender who extended funds for hillside remediation, (c) property taxes, (d) payments owed to the City of Bradbury, (e) broker commissions, and (f) costs of sale, net proceeds to the estate are estimated to be approximately $4,185,085.

Oak River states that it has been in communication with counsel for Prolien and the Minority Investors regarding the Sale Motion. According to Oak River, Prolien and the Minority Investors consent to sale of the Property free and clear of liens, claims, and interests, provided that their liens, claims, and interests attach to the sale proceeds. Oak River agrees that the interests asserted by Prolien and the Minority Investors should attach to the sale proceeds.

The Liberty Plan Administrator supports the sale, but objects to Oak River's position that the interests asserted by the Minority Investors should attach to the sale proceeds. According to the Plan Administrator, the Minority Investors have acknowledged in litigation that they never received any interest in the Property, and have admitted in Proofs of Claim that they hold only unsecured claims against Oak River. The Plan Administrator's position is that the order approving the sale (the "Sale Order") should not contain any language stating that the interests asserted by the Minority Investors attach to the sale proceeds.

II. Findings and Conclusions

Section 363(b) permits debtors to sell estate property out of the ordinary course of business, subject to court approval. Debtors must articulate a business justification for the sale. In re Walter, 83 B.R. 14, 19–20 (9th Cir. BAP 1988). Whether the articulated business justification is sufficient "depends on the case," in view of "all salient factors pertaining to the proceeding." Id. at 19–20.

Oak River has articulated sufficient business justification for the sale. The sale will inject significant cash into the estate.

Section 363(f)(3) provides that the Court may authorize a sale free and clear of liens, if the "price at which such property is to be sold is greater than the aggregate value of all liens on such property." The purchase price of $6.9 million exceeds the aggregate value of the liens asserted by the Los Angeles County Tax Collector (the "LA County Tax Collector") and the debtor-in-possession lender (the "DIP Lender"). Pursuant to §363(f)(3), the Court approves the sale of the Property free and clear of the liens, claims, and interests of the LA County Tax Collector and the DIP Lender, with such liens, claims, and interests to attach to the sale proceeds.

Section 363(f)(4) provides that the Court may authorize a sale free and clear of any claim that is in bona-fide dispute. Here, the mechanic's lien asserted by Prolien is in bona-fide dispute, being the subject of litigation pending before the State Court. Pursuant to §363(f)(4), the sale is free and clear of Prolien's mechanic's lien, which shall attach to the sale proceeds.

The Minority Investors have recorded a Notice of Lis Pendens against the Property. The Liberty Plan Administrator asserts that the Notice of Lis Pendens should not attach to the sale proceeds. Oak River does not oppose attachment of the Notice of Lis Pendens to the sale proceeds.

The Court declines to determine, in connection with the Sale Motion, whether the Minority Investors have any interest in the Property. The Liberty Plan Administrator's objection to the validity of the interests asserted by the Minority Investors was presented in reply papers. That deprived the Minority Investors of any opportunity to respond to the Liberty Plan Administrator's objection. Adjudicating the validity of the interest asserted by the Minority Investors would deprive them of due process, particularly in view of the fact that the Sale Motion proposed that the Minority Investor's interest would attach to the sale proceeds. Whatever interest the Minority Investors may or may not have against the Property shall attach to the sale proceeds.

Having reviewed the declaration of Gary Lorenzini, the real estate broker who marketed the Property, the Court finds that purchaser Yeung Sai Yeung is entitled to the protections of §363(m).

The claim of the LA County Tax Collector, in the amount of $861,615.11 as of August 31, 2018, shall be paid directly from escrow. Oak River shall cooperate with the Tax Collector in the preparation of the proposed Sale Order to insure that the precise amounts to which the Tax Collector is entitled are reflected therein. The proposed Sale Order submitted by Oak River shall be endorsed as to form by the Tax Collector, pursuant to the procedure set forth in Local Bankruptcy Rule 9021-1(b)(3)

(C).

Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 6004(f), Oak River is authorized to execute and deliver, on behalf of the estate, whatever documents are necessary to close the sale. Notwithstanding Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h), the Sale Order shall take effect immediately upon entry. Oak River is authorized to pay from the sale proceeds (a) closing costs and (b) undisputed secured claims. The balance of the funds shall remain in escrow pending further order of this court.

III. Conclusion

Based upon the foregoing, the Sale Motion is GRANTED. Within seven days of the hearing, Oak River shall submit an order—which shall be approved as to form by the Tax Collector—incorporating this tentative ruling by reference.

Docket 26

Tentative Ruling:

8/17/2018

Tentative Ruling:

This Motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on the notice required by LBR 4001(c)(1) and LBR 9013-1(d)(2). The failure of the Debtor, the trustee, and all other parties in interest to file written opposition at least 14 days prior to the hearing as required by LBR 9013-1(f) is considered as consent to the granting of the Motion. LBR 9013-1(h). Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995).

The Motion is GRANTED pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) for cause to permit Movant, its successors, transferees and assigns, to enforce its remedies to repossess or otherwise obtain possession and dispose of its collateral pursuant to applicable law, and to use the proceeds from its disposition to satisfy its claim. Movant may not pursue any deficiency claim against the Debtor or property of the estate except by filing a proof of claim pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 501. The Movant regained possession of the subject vehicle on June 4, 2018, by voluntary surrender. "Declaration of Aaron Rangel" [Doc. No. 26] at ¶ 4.

This order shall be binding and effective despite any conversion of the bankruptcy case to a case under any other chapter of Title 11 of the United States Code. The 14-day stay prescribed by FRBP 4001(a)(3) is waived. All other relief is denied.

Movant shall upload an appropriate order via the Court's Lodged Order Upload system within 7 days of the hearing.

Tentative Ruling:

8/17/2018

Tentative Ruling:

This Motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on the notice required by LBR 4001(c)(1) and LBR 9013-1(d)(2). The failure of the Debtor, the trustee, and all other parties in interest to file written opposition at least 14 days prior to the hearing as required by LBR 9013-1(f) is considered as consent to the granting of the Motion. LBR 9013-1(h). Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995).

The Court finds that there is sufficient evidence to grant relief pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(4). The filing of the petition was part of a scheme to delay, hinder, and defraud creditors, which involved the transfer of all or part ownership of, or other interest in, the Property without the consent of Movant or court approval and multiple bankruptcy cases affecting the Property. Declaration of Shane Ells in support of Motion at paragraph 18.

For the same reasons, the Motion is GRANTED pursuant to section 362(d)(1) based on Debtor's bad faith filing. The 14-day period specified in Fed.R.Bankr.P. 4001(a)(3) is waived. This order shall be binding and effective despite any conversion of the bankruptcy case to a case under any other chapter of Title 11 of the United States Code. If recorded in compliance with applicable State laws governing notices of interests or liens in real property, the order shall be binding in any other case under this title purporting to affect such real property filed not later than 2 years after the date of the entry of such order by the Court, except that a debtor in a subsequent case under this title may move for relief from such order based upon changed

Tentative Ruling:

8/17/2018

Tentative Ruling:

This Motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on the notice required by LBR 4001(c)(1) and LBR 9013-1(d)(2). The failure of the Debtor, the trustee, and all other parties in interest to file written opposition at least 14 days prior to the hearing as required by LBR 9013-1(f) is considered as consent to the granting of the Motion. LBR 9013-1(h). Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995).

The Motion is GRANTED pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(2) to permit Movant, its successors, transferees and assigns, to enforce its remedies to foreclose upon and obtain possession of the property in accordance with applicable law. Movant may not pursue any deficiency claim against the Debtor or property of the estate except by filing a proof of claim pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 501. Since a chapter 7 case does not contemplate reorganization, the sole issue before the Court when stay relief is sought under 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(2) is whether the Debtor has equity in the property. See, e.g., Martens v. Countrywide Home Loans (In re Martens), 331 B.R. 395, 398 (8th Cir. BAP 2005); Ramco Indus. v. Preuss (In re Preuss), 15 B.R. 896, 897 (9th Cir. BAP 1981).

The subject property has a value of $690,000.00 and is encumbered by a perfected deed of trust or mortgage in favor of the Movant. The liens against the property and the expected costs of sale total $781,815.36. The Court finds there is no equity and there is no evidence that the trustee can administer the subject real property for the benefit of creditors.

The Motion is GRANTED pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1). The stay is terminated as to the Debtor and the Debtor's bankruptcy estate with respect to the Movant, its successors, transferees and assigns. Chapter 11

Fu Kong Inc. (the "Debtor"), filed a voluntary Chapter 11 petition on June 26, 2018 (the "Petition") [Doc. No. 1]. Lillian Yu-Li Hsu is the Debtor's president, sole shareholder, and sole director; George Hsu was, until his termination on August 1, 2018, the Debtor's secretary.

The Petition, according to the Debtor, was precipitated by the Debtor's recent cash flow problems due to a slowdown in business in the last three to six months, and a delayed shipment due to production issues in China which delay resulted in a number of the Debtor's customers to cancel orders. The Debtor's ability to generate income was also interfered with for a few weeks due to the father of George Hsu having an emergency health issue.

The Debtor's secured lender, Cathay Bank (the "Secured Lender"), is the holder of a promissory note in the total current amount of $1,574,163.00 (the "Loan"), secured by the Debtor's assets including inventory and accounts receivable. The Secured Lender's Loan is also secured by two real properties: (1) the Loan is secured by a second deed of trust on the Debtor's principals' residence located at 1324 N. Vosburg Dr., Azusa, CA 91702 (the "Vosburg Property"); and (2) the Loan is secured by a second deed of trust on the industrial warehouse leased by the Debtor located at 2455 Lee Avenue, S. El Monte, CA 91733 (the "El Monte Property"). On June 1, 2018, the Secured Lender filed a lawsuit against the Debtor in Los Angeles Superior Court, Case No. KC070342 (the "State Court Action"), for failing to make payments on a business loan, seeking possession of the Debtor's assets and appointment of a receiver, foreclosure of the commercial warehouse leased by the Debtor, and foreclosure of Lillian and George Hsu's principal residence.

The Motion

On July 23, 2018, the Secured Lender filed the "Motion for Order Appointing A Chapter 11 Trustee Or In the Alternative, An Examiner, Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 1104" (the "Motion") [Doc. No. 28].

The Secured Lender contends that appointment of a trustee is warranted based on the past dishonesty and mismanagement by the Debtor's management. The Secured Lender points to the discrepancies between the financial statements provided by the Debtor to the Secured Lender pre-petition, and the financial representations made by the Debtor in the Debtor's Schedules. Specifically, Schedule A/B, ¶ 11, lists the amount of accounts receivable as $3,250.00; however, in written financial statements provided by the Debtor to the Secured Lender pre-petition, the Debtor represented that as of December 31, 2017, it had $1,200,370.78 in accounts receivable. The Secured Lender argues that the Debtor has failed to explain this discrepancy. Additionally, the Debtor's Statement of Financial Affairs, Part 1, states that the gross sales of the Debtor in 2017 totaled "$1,200,00.00" [sic]; however, in the 2017 Financial Statements provided to the Secured Lender, the gross sales of the Debtor were stated as $6,250,267.00. The Secured Lender argues that based on the Debtor's failure to explain this discrepancy goes to the dishonesty of the Debtor's management, and could be an attempt to conceal from $5 to $6 million. Furthermore, on the Petition Date, certain of the Debtor's creditors recorded junior Deeds of Trust against the principal residence of Lillian and George Hsu. The Deeds of Trust appear to secure a loan to the Debtor in the amount of $1,065,000.00.

With respect to the mismanagement of the Debtor by the Debtor's current management, the Secured Lender argues that appointment of a trustee is necessary based on the Debtor's failure to maintain normal business records. Previously, the Secured Lender discovered that the Debtor "maintained no general ledger and that no accounts receivable ageings were available, no inventory ageings were available, and the Debtor's accounts payable ageings appear[ed] to be highly inaccurate" "Declaration of Margaret Waye" ("Waye Decl.") [Doc. No. 28] at ¶¶ 16, 20, 21, 22. This failure to maintain normal business records, the Secured Lender argues, constitutes gross mismanagement of the Debtor such that a Chapter 11 trustee is necessary.

The Opposition

On August 7, 2018, the Debtor filed the Opposition to the Motion (the "Opposition") [Doc. No. 50]. The Debtor acknowledges the Secured Lender's concerns regarding the discrepancies between the Debtor's bankruptcy schedules, and the figures in the financial statements provided to the Secured Lender in December 2017. The Opposition states that the figures provided to the Secured Lender were reported by George Hsu without the knowledge of the Debtor or Lillian Hsu, and that George Hsu was removed from his position as the Debtor's secretary, and no longer has any managerial duties.

With respect to the remaining allegations by the Secured Lender, the Debtor contends that appointment of a trustee is an extraordinary remedy, and the facts simply do not support appointment under the circumstances. First, the Opposition states that appointment would not be in the best interests of the Estate or its creditors, because appointment will result in substantial administrative expenses without providing a significant benefit that could not be obtained under the Debtor's current management. Second, in light of the firing of George Hsu, the Debtor argues that the misrepresentations in financial statements provided to the Secured Lender were made by the Debtor's "former management [emphasis in original] and do not harm or materially affect the estate." Opposition at 3, 6. Third, regarding the loan from Donna Chao, the proceeds of which the Motion alleges have disappeared, the Debtor states that the loan was borrowed in many installments beginning in early 2015 and has been spent on the Debtor's normal business expenses. Fourth, the Opposition argues that any violation of the State Court's temporary restraining order was inadvertent or, alternatively, the conduct of former management. And lastly, the Debtor states that it maintains normal business records, as evidenced by the documents provided in connection with the Renewed Cash Collateral Motion, including the certain audit report prepared by the Secured Lender's field examiner, Roy Sanchez, in August 2017.

The Reply

On August 14, 2018, the Secured Lender filed the Reply to the Opposition (the "Reply") [Doc. No. 57]. The Reply contends that the distinction made in the Opposition between "former" and "current" management is a distinction without a difference because George Hsu was not fired until August 1, 2018. Even after being fired, George Hsu appeared at the 341(a) meeting of creditors and, according to the Secured Lender, Lillian Hsu consulted him in order to answer certain questions about the Debtor during her examination. The Reply also argues that the misrepresentations made by George Hsu were substantive and have current relevance given the disparities between the pre-petition financial statements and the documents and figures submitted by the Debtor in connection with the Debtor's bankruptcy. Furthermore, the Secured Lender points out that in the Debtor's "7 Day Package" submitted to the United States Trustee ("UST"), the Debtor falsely states that "Debtor has not issued any financial statements in the two year period prior to the filing of this bankruptcy," notwithstanding the December 2017 financial statement provided by the Debtor to the Secured Lender, and the multiple loan applications made by the Debtor during the pre-petition period.

Regarding the Opposition's argument that any violation of the State Court temporary restraining order was inadvertent, the Reply argues that the Debtor was represented by counsel when the restraining order was entered, and that the Debtor's June 15, 2018, bank statement shows that more than $90,000.00 was withdrawn from the Debtor's bank account, and that these withdrawals came from the proceeds and payment of accounts receivable that the Debtor was restrained from withdrawing from under the State Court Order.

Insofar as the Opposition relies upon the audit performed by Roy Sanchez in support of the Debtor's contention that it does maintain normal business records, the Secured Lender argues that the audit report was based, in large part, on the false financial documentation provided by George Hsu; therefore, the audit report is not reliable evidence that the Debtor maintains normal business records.

The Evidentiary Objections

On August 14, 2018, the Secured Lender filed the "Evidentiary Objections in Support of [the Motion]" (the "Evidentiary Objections") [Doc. No. 58]. The Secured Lender objects (on various grounds) to the Declaration of Lillian Hsu and the Declaration of George Hsu, submitted in support of the Opposition.

II. Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law

The Evidentiary Objections

For the reasons set forth below, the Secured Lender's Evidentiary Objections to the Declaration of Lillian Hsu and the Declaration of George Hsu are OVERRULED. To the extent the Secured Lender objects based on the respective declarations containing numerous statements that end with "to the best of my knowledge," "to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief," or any similar variation, the Court finds the objections lack merit. Additionally, the Court finds that as officers of the Debtor (in the case of George Hsu, a former officer of the Debtor), the Hsu's have the requisite personal knowledge to testify to the Debtor's operations, and the events and circumstances that arose in the ordinary course of business. See, e.g., Stuart v. UNUM Life Ins. Co. of Am., 217 F.3d 1145, 1155 (9th Cir. 2000); Barthelemy v. Air Lines

Pilots Ass'n, 897 F.2d 999, 1018 (9th Cir. 1990) (CEO's personal knowledge of various corporate activities inferred from position).

The Court further notes that to the extent that declaration testimony purports to characterize the contents of evidence set forth in the record, the Court does not rely upon such testimony. Instead the Court has independently reviewed the evidence in the record, and draws its own conclusions as to whether the proffered evidence corroborates the position advanced by its proponent.

The Motion

Section 1104 of the Code provides as follows:

- (a) At any time after the commencement of the case but before confirmation of a plan, on request of a party in interest or the United States trustee, and after notice and a hearing, the court shall order the appointment of a trustee-
 - (1) for cause, including fraud, dishonesty, incompetence, or gross mismanagement of the affairs of the debtor by current management, either before or after the commencement of the case, or similar cause, but not including the number of holders of securities of the debtor or the amount of assets or liabilities of the debtor; or
 - (2) if such appointment is in the interests of creditors, any equity security holders, and other interests of the estate, without regard to the number of holders of securities of the debtor or the amount of assets or liabilities of the debtor.

11 U.S.C. § 1104(a)(1)–(2).

While it is undisputed that the party seeking appointment of a trustee bears the burden of persuasion, there is a dispute between the parties regarding the standard of proof to meet this burden. The Ninth Circuit has not addressed the approach a court should take in determining whether to appoint a trustee.

Although the Ninth Circuit has not addressed this issue, most courts agree that there is a presumption against the appointment of a trustee and favoring the continuation of current management, and many courts hold that the moving party has the burden of demonstrating "cause" for appointment of a trustee in a Chapter 11 case by clear and convincing evidence. See, e.g., In re Munoz, 866 F.3d 487, 497 (1st Cir. 2017); In re G-1 Holdings, Inc., 385 F.3d 313, 317–18 (3d Cir. 2004); In re Colorado-Ute Elec. Ass'n, Inc., 120 B.R. 164, 173 (Bankr. D. Colo. 1990). For example, the Third Circuit requires that the "party moving for appointment of a trustee . . . must prove the need for a trustee under either subsection [of § 1104(a)] by clear and convincing evidence." In re G-1 Holdings, Inc., 385 F.3d at 317–18 (quoting In re Marvel Entertainment Group, Inc., 140 F.3d 463, 473 (3d Cir. 1998)). The First and Fifth Circuits have also held that the moving party must meet its burden by "clear and convincing evidence." In re Munoz, 866 F.3d at 497; In re Cajun Elec. Power Coop., Inc., 69 F.3d 746, 749 (5th Cir. 1995).

Notwithstanding these decisions, in Grogan v. Garner, 498 U.S. 279 (1991), a unanimous Court determined that the preponderance of the evidence standard should be applied when determining whether the exception to discharge under § 523(a)(2)(A) had been met. The Court explained that the statute "does not prescribe the standard of proof for the discharge exceptions" and that "[t]his silence is inconsistent with the view that Congress intended to require a special, heightened standard of proof." Id. at 286. Furthermore, in determining whether a heightened standard was appropriate, the Court noted that "[b]ecause the preponderance-of-the-evidence standard results in a roughly equal allocation of risks of error between litigants, we presume that this standard is applicable in civil actions between private litigants unless 'particularly important individual interests or rights are at stake.'" Id. (quoting Herman & MacLean v. Huddleston, 459 U.S. 375, 389–90 (1934)). Thus, given the absence of any express congressional direction as to the standard of proof for "cause" under § 1104(a), the Court's holding in Grogan would seem to militate in favor of a preponderance of the evidence standard. See In re Corona Care Convalescent Corp., 527 B.R. 379, 384 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2015).

The Court need not decide this question, however, because the Court finds that the evidence presented by the Secured Lender does not satisfy even the lower standard of preponderance of the evidence.

With regards to § 1104(a)(1), the Court finds that Secured Lender has simply not provided enough evidence of "cause" for appointment of a Chapter 11 trustee. The appointment of a Chapter 11 Trustee is not to be made lightly, and under either standard of proof, courts agree that there is a presumption against the appointment of a trustee and favoring the continuation of current management. See, e.g., In re G-1 Holdings, Inc., 385 F.3d at 318; Tradex Corp. v. Morse, 339 B.R. 823, 831–32 (D. Mass. 2006) (adopting the preponderance of the evidence standard, and explaining that the " 'presumption' that current management can best run the debtor's business" does not necessarily require the heightened "clear and convincing" standard). This presumption is particularly relevant where, as here, the Debtor is a closely-held business. See In re 4 C Solutions, Inc., 289 B.R. 354, 370 (Bankr. C.D. Ill. 2003) ("The preference for retention of current management is stronger where the debtor is a closely-held entity whose reputation and good will is closely identified with its owners and/or management team."). Here, the Debtor's business appears, in large part, to be reliant upon Lillian Hsu's existing relationships with suppliers and customers, as well as her ongoing efforts to establish new relationships with large customers. While the Secured Lender has presented evidence of certain pre-petition misrepresentations by George Hsu, which in turn form the basis of many of the arguments advanced by the Secured Lender with respect to certain discrepancies between pre-petition financial statements and the Debtor's financial projections in connection with the Cash Collateral Motion, the Debtor fired George Hsu on August 1, 2018, and the Court has made it clear that the Court expects that George Hsu will not be involved in any capacity in the Debtor's business operations moving forward.

Alternatively, the court may consider practical realities and necessities under a more flexible standard of § 1104(a)(2): the debtor in possession's past and present performance and prospects for rehabilitation, the trustworthiness of the debtor, the confidence or lack thereof of the business community and of creditors in the present management, and the benefits derived from the appointment of a trustee, balanced against the costs of the appointment. In re Ionosphere Clubs, Inc., 113 B.R. 164 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1990). Again, the Court finds that appointment of a trustee is inappropriate at this stage. As stated above, the Debtor is a closely-held business; thus, appointment of a Chapter 11 trustee who would have to spend a substantial amount of time to become familiar with the Debtor's business operations, would result in significant administrative expense to the Estate, to the detriment of the Debtor's creditors. The Court finds that such expense outweighs any benefits that might be derived from the appointment of a trustee. Furthermore, the UST, charged with supervising DIPs, stated on the record at the Cash Collateral hearing held on August 16, 2018 that it would not be taking a position on the Motion because the UST has not completed its investigation into the Debtor. Thus, under the circumstances, appointment of a Chapter 11 trustee at this stage in the Debtor's case would be premature.

For the same reasons the Court does not find that Movant has demonstrated "cause" pursuant to §1104(c).

III. Conclusion

Wherefore, the Court hereby DENIES Movant's Motion without prejudice.

The Court will prepare the order.

Around May 2018, the Debtor was approached by Kings Cash Group ("KCG"), which offered the Debtor a large-scale debt consolidation if the Debtor entered into a merchant loan agreement for $175,000.00. Id. The Debtor entered the merchant loan agreement with KCG on May 10, 2018. Id.

Ultimately, the Debtor could not continue to pay its daily withdrawals from the various merchant capital loans which totaled nearly $7,000.00 per day. Id. KCG filed a lawsuit against the Debtor in New York, and obtained a judgment against the Debtor on June 19, 2018. Id. at ¶ 8. KCG subsequently levied the Debtor's general Bank of America operating account, which severely restricted the Debtor's cash flow. Id. On June 22, 2018, another of the Debtor's working capital lenders, EBF Partners, LLC, dba Everest Business Funding ("EBF"), see id. at ¶ 5, obtained a judgment against the Debtor in New York, and began informing the Debtor's clients to send payments that were owed to the Debtor directly to EBF, id. at ¶ 8. Consequently, the Debtor could not afford its monthly rental payments to its landlord 8 Net, Inc. ("8 Net") for its warehouse located at 18945-65 E. San Jose Avenue, City of Industry, CA 91749 (the "Industry Warehouse"), in the amount of $40,000.00 per month. Id. at ¶ 9. The Debtor began moving its operations to two smaller warehouses located at 17583-17585 Railroad St., City of Industry, CA 91749 (the "Railroad Warehouse"), and 717 Nogales St., City of Industry, CA 91748 (the "Nogales Warehouse") with lower monthly rental expenses. Id. at ¶ 10. On June 6, 2018, 8 Net filed an unlawful detainer complaint against the Debtor for eviction from the Industry Warehouse; a default judgment was entered against the Debtor in the unlawful detainer action on June 29, 2018. Id. at ¶ 11. On June 30, 2018, the Debtor was informed that its existing inventory located at the Industry Warehouse was confiscated by 8 Net. Id. at ¶ 12. As a result, the Debtor filed the Petition to reorganize its debt. Id.

On the Petition Date, the Debtor filed the "Debtor's Emergency Motion for Order Authorizing Debtor Use of Cash Collateral" (the "Cash Collateral Motion") [Doc. No. 8]. The Court held a hearing on the Cash Collateral Motion on July 19, 2018. On July 23, 2018, the Court entered the Order Granting the Cash Collateral Motion (the "Cash Collateral Order") [Doc. No. 24], which authorized the Debtor to use the cash collateral on an interim basis, and set a continued hearing on the further use of the cash collateral.

The Cash Collateral Motion

Pursuant to the Cash Collateral Order, on August 7, 2018, the Debtor filed the "Supplemental Brief in Support of Motion for Order Authorizing Use of Cash Collateral" (the "Renewed Motion") [Doc. No. 33].

The Renewed Motion seeks an order authorizing the Debtor to use the cash collateral in accordance with the terms of the "Amended Budget", see "[Supplemental] Declaration of Jiazheng Lu" (the "Supplemental Lu Declaration") [Doc. No. 33], Ex. 1. The Amended Budget reflects what the Debtor believes is necessary to fund the Debtor's continued operations on an average monthly basis until plan confirmation or until a final hearing on the Cash Collateral Motion. Id. at ¶¶ 5–7. The Amended Budget incorporates updated projections to more accurately reflect the Debtor's actual income and expenses for the month of July 2018 and the projected figures through December 31, 2018. The Amended Budget reflects a reduction in monthly expenses due to the removal of merchandise sales for "Fashiongo," which was previously the Debtor's largest venue for sales. Just before the Petition Date, Fashiongo closed the Debtor's sellers account. At the time the Cash Collateral Motion was filed, the Debtor believed that Fashiongo would reinstate the Debtor's sellers account; however, Fashiongo has not yet reinstated the Debtor's account. The Debtor is currently negotiating with Fashiongo, and although the Debtor is optimistic that its seller account will be reinstated at some point, the Amended Budget assumes that the Debtor will not be conducting sales through Fashiongo. Id. at ¶ 5. Changes in the Amended Budget also include the removal of additional selling venues as the Debtor intends to focus its energy on a reduced number of venues to ensure maximum profitability. Id. at ¶ 7.

As set forth in the Amended Budget, in the 30-days following the Petition Date, the Debtor anticipates total income in the amount of $63,120.00, gross profits in the amount of $23,620.00, and a net income after expenses in the amount of $3,954.00. See Amended Budget. As set forth in the Debtor's "Amended Profit and Loss" statements, see id., the Debtor projects the following net income amounts through the end of 2018: (1) net income for August 2018 in the amount of $3,856.00; (2) net income for September 2018 in the amount of $3,945.00; (3) net income for October 2018 in the amount of $3,956.00; (4) net income for November 2018 in the amount of $4,156.00; and (5) net income for December 2018 in the amount of $4,656.00.

The following entities claim a security interest in the Debtor's assets (collectively, the "Lenders"):

1. First General Bank, in the amount of $100,000.00;
2. Amazon Capital Services, LLC, in the amount of $750,000.00;
3. New Commercial Capital, Inc., in an unspecified/unknown amount;
4. Corporation Service Company, in an unspecified/unknown amount;
5. KCG, in the amount of $249,512.85;
6. EBF, in the amount of $300,000.00;
7. 8 Net, in the amount of $40,000.00;
8. Knight Capital Funding, in the amount of $300,000.00 (cash collateral: "alleged—no recording found");
9. Bank of the West, in an unspecified/unknown amount (cash collateral:

"alleged—no recording found"); and

10. Employment Development Department, in the amount of $47.18 (cash collateral: "alleged—no recording found").

See id. at ¶ 12.

The Debtor contends that based on the Debtor's post-petition operating results, including its accounts receivable ($35,229.00), see id., Ex. 2, and the Debtor's projected profit and loss statements through the end of 2018, see id., Ex. 1, the Lenders interest in the cash collateral will not be depleted through the Debtor's continued operations, id. at ¶ 10. The Debtor asserts that the value of the collateral is not declining because at least half of the Debtor's inventory consist of women's shoes for the upcoming fall season, and because an additional 20-25% of the Debtor's inventory are men's dress shoes which traditionally hold their value over time. Id. at ¶ 9.

The Renewed Motion proposes to continue the following adequate protection terms set forth in the Cash Collateral Motion: (1) the Lenders will receive a replacement lien on post-petition assets having the same priority, scope, and rights under applicable law as the Lender's pre-petition lien, see Lu Declaration [Doc. No. 8] at ¶ 20; and (2) the Lenders will receive, through the Debtor's filing with the Court or otherwise as requested by the Lenders, monthly operating reports as required by the Office of the United States Trustee, which will show cash usage and monthly income statements, see id. Coupled with the value that will be preserved and generated through the Debtor's continued operations, the Debtor contends that the Lenders are adequately protected as required under 11 U.S.C. § 363. Notwithstanding the Debtor's position that the Lenders are adequately protected, the Debtor proposes to make additional monthly adequate protection payments in the amount of $100.00 to the following Lenders: First General Bank; Amazon Capital Services, LLC; New Commercial Capital, Inc.; Kings Cash Group; EBF Partners; and Knight Capital Funding. Supplemental Lee Declaration at ¶ 12.

The Renewed Motion also notes that the Debtor's former landlord, 8 Net, has refused to return the estimated $250,000.00 in inventory and equipment it confiscated when it locked out the Debtor from the San Jose Warehouse. The Debtor will be amending Schedules A/B to include causes of action against 8 Net for unlawful

The Response

Pursuant to the Cash Collateral Order, on August 14, 2018, Secured Creditor First General Bank ("FGB") filed the Response to the Renewed Motion (the "Response") [Doc. No. 38].

The Response states that FGB has made two loans to the Debtor: (1) on March 9, 2015, FGB made a working capital loan to the Debtor in the amount of $100,000.00 ("Loan 1"), "Declaration of Joe Chen" (the "Chen Declaration") [Doc. No. 38] at ¶ 5; and (2) on May 16, 2018, FGB loaned the Debtor an additional $100,000.00 ("Loan 2"), id. at ¶ 9. Each of Loan 1 and Loan 2 (collectively, the "Loans") were evidenced by a loan agreement, promissory note, and commercial security agreement, whereby the Debtor granted FGB a security interest in all of its assets, now-existing and after-acquired, including proceeds thereof, which security interests were perfected by filing a UCC-1 financing statement. Id. at ¶¶ 5–8, 9–12; see also id., Ex. 1–4 (Loan 1 documents) and Ex. 5–7, 12 (Loan 2 documents). The Debtor defaulted on the Loans. As of August 8, 2018, the Debtor owes FGB $100,765.79 under Loan 1, and $73,973.93 under Loan 2. The contract rate of interest for both Loans is approximately $1,019.57 per month. Id. at ¶ 20. FGB's liens are senior to the liens held by the Debtor's other secured creditors.

The Response contends that both the Cash Collateral Motion and the Renewed Motion inaccurately state that FGB's security interest is limited to "A/R instruments, contract rights and other rights to money, including after-acquired general intangibles." Renewed Motion at 5. Contrary to the Debtor's representations (which FGB believes are inadvertent), FGB argues that its perfected security interests encompass all assets of the Debtor, as set forth in the respective commercial security agreements and UCC-1 financing statements. See Chen Declaration at ¶¶ 7–8, 11–12, and Ex. 4, 7, 8, and 11. Additionally, the Cash Collateral Motion and the Renewed Motion fail to include Loan 2.

With respect to the terms of adequate protection proposed by the Debtor, FGB contends that its secured claim is not adequately protected because it continues to generate post-petition interest at a rate of $1,019.57 per month at present interest rates, and the Debtor's proposed adequate protection payment of $100.00 is not sufficient.

Chapter 11

Furthermore, the Response objects to the Debtor's proposal to make payments of $500.00 per month to creditors with liens that are junior to FGB's liens. FGB contends that, at a minimum, adequate protection requires FGB to receive its post-petition non-default contract interest of approximately $1,019.57 per month, before any junior lienholder receives periodic payments from the Debtor. Unless FGB is paid its non-default contract rate of interest going forward, FGB objects to the use of any of its cash collateral to fund the payment of interest to junior lienholders.

II. Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law

Section 363(c)(2) requires court authorization for the use of cash collateral unless "each entity that has an interest in such cash collateral consents." In the Ninth Circuit, satisfaction of Section 363(c)(2)(A) requires the "affirmative express consent" of the secured creditor; "implied consent," resulting from the failure of the secured creditor to object to use of cash collateral, does not satisfy the requirements of the statute. Freightliner Market Development Corp. v. Silver Wheel Freightlines, Inc., 823 F.2d 362, 368–69 (9th Cir. 1987).

A secured creditor's interest is adequately protected if the value of its collateral is not declining; the secured creditor is not entitled to payment to compensate for its inability to foreclose upon the collateral during bankruptcy proceedings. United Savings Association of Texas v. Timbers of Inwood Forest Associates, Ltd., 484 U.S. 365, 382 (1988). Section 361 sets forth three non-exclusive examples of what may constitute adequate protection: (1) periodic cash payments equivalent to decrease in value; (2) an additional or replacement lien on other property; or (3) other relief that provides the indubitable equivalent. See In re Mellor, 734 F.2d 1396, 1400 (9th Cir. 1984). The Ninth Circuit has established that an equity cushion of 20% constitutes adequate protection for a secured creditor. Pistole v. Mellor (In re Mellor), 734 F.2d 1396, 1401 (9th Cir. 1984); see Downey Sav. & Loan Ass'n v. Helionetics, Inc. (In re Helionetics, Inc.), 70 B.R. 433, 440 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 1987) (holding that a 20.4% equity cushion was sufficient to protect the creditor's interest in its collateral).

As an initial matter, the Court finds that FGB's respective security interests encompass all assets of the Debtor, as set forth in the respective commercial security agreements and UCC-1 financing statements. See Chen Declaration at ¶¶ 7–8, 11–12, and Ex. 4, 7, 8, and 11. Additionally, the Renewed Motion does not contain any information regarding whether EBF—which holds a judgment against the Debtor, and which directed the Debtor's customers pre-petition to make any payments owed to the Debtor directly to EBF—is continuing to receive payments owed to the Debtor by the Debtor's customers on account of its judgment. The Debtor should be prepared to brief the Court on this issue at the hearing.

The Court finds that the use of cash collateral is necessary for the Debtor's continued operations, and to the Debtor's reorganization efforts. Furthermore, the Court finds that the Debtor will suffer irreparable harm absent the interim use of cash collateral. See Fed. R. Bankr. P. 4001. Considering that the Debtor has not provided any inventory ageings, and the only evidence in the record with respect to the value of the inventory is the Supplemental Lu Declaration, the Debtor shall make monthly adequate protection payments to FGB in the amount of $1,019.57, the non-default contract rate of interest. The Court finds the remaining terms of adequate protection proposed by the Debtor to be sufficient, which terms include (1) the Lenders being granted a replacement lien on the Debtor's post-petition assets, (2) the Debtor's monthly operating reports which will show the Debtor's cash usage and monthly income statements, and (3) the Debtor will make cash monthly adequate protection payments in the amount of $100.00 to each of Amazon Capital Services, LLC; New Commercial Capital, Inc.; Kings Cash Group; EBF Partners; and Knight Capital Funding.

III. Conclusion

In conclusion, based on the foregoing, the Court GRANTS the Renewed Motion on an interim basis. Subject to the conditions set forth below, the Debtor is authorized to use the cash collateral on an interim basis through and including October 23, 2018. The Debtor shall make monthly adequate protection payments to First General Bank in the amount of $1,019.57, and $100.00 per month to the remaining creditors as set forth in the Renewed Motion. The Court will conduct a further hearing on the use of cash collateral on October 23, 2018, at 10:00 a.m. The Debtor must submit further evidence in support of the use of cash collateral by no later than October 9, 2018. Any opposition to the continued use of cash collateral must be submitted by no later than October 9, 2018.

The Debtor shall lodge a conforming order within seven (7) days of the hearing

Chapter 7

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

M & A Enterprises, LLC (the "Debtor") filed a voluntary Chapter 7 petition on May 29, 2018 (the "Petition") [Doc. No. 1]. Rosendo Gonzalez was appointed as interim Chapter 7 trustee (the "Trustee").

On August 2, 2018, the Trustee filed the "Supplemental Response to Debtor's Motion to Convert Case From Chapter 7 to Chapter 11 and Motion for Entry of Order Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 543(d)(1) Maintaining Receiver" (the "Supplemental Trustee Response") [Doc. No. 58]. According to the Supplemental Trustee Response, the Trustee does not take any position regarding the motions discussed herein.

The Receiver Motion

On June 7, 2018, secured creditor Luis Munoz dba San Bernardino Apartments (the "Creditor") filed the "Motion for Entry of Order Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 543(d)(1) Maintaining Receiver Matthew Taylor as Custodian in Possession and Control of Real Estate of Debtor and Excusing Custodian from Compliance with 11 U.S.C. §§ 543(a) and (b)" (the "Receiver Motion") [Doc. No. 8]. On July 10, 2018, the Court entered the Order Setting Hearing on Motion to Convert and Continuing Hearing on Motion to Maintain Receiver [Doc. No. 43], which continued the hearing on the Motion to be held concurrently with the Debtor's Motion to Convert.

The property at issue is two adjacent apartment buildings located at 2936 North Loma Avenue and 2935 North Mountain Avenue, San Bernardino, CA (the "Property"). The Creditor is the holder of the second and third deeds of trust secured by the Property.

In 2015, the Property was sold to Neram Village, Inc. ("Neram"). "Declaration of Joseph G. McCarty" (the "McCarty Decl.") [Doc. No. 9] at ¶ 4. As part of the sale transaction, the Creditor received two notes and deeds of trust: (1) the second deed of trust, which was an All Inclusive Trust Deed ("AITD") wrap around the first deed of trust from East West Bank in the original principal amount of $3,432,154.81; and (2) the third deed of trust in the original principal amount of $1,123,845.18 (collectively, the "Loans"). Id. at ¶ 3. Subsequently, and without notifying the Creditor, Neram encumbered the Property with a fourth deed of trust and fifth deed of trust. Id. at ¶ 4. The Debtor was the beneficiary of the fifth deed of trust. Id. On April 12, 2016, after Neram had failed to make payments to the Creditor, the Creditor commenced a judicial foreclosure action in the California Superior Court (the "State Court"). Id. at ¶ 5. The State Court appointed Eloisa Fernandez as receiver (the "Original Receiver"). Id. The Original Receiver made certain (necessary) repairs to the Property and Creditor advanced funds to pay for the repairs and other expenses of the Property. Id. at ¶ 6. On June 12, 2017, the Debtor commenced a foreclosure action on its fifth deed of trust, and moved to remove the Original Receiver. Id. at ¶ 7. The Creditor opposed the Debtor's motion and proposed that Matthew Taylor take over as receiver. Id. On June 19, 2017, the State Court entered an order appointing Mr. Taylor as receiver (the "Receiver"). Id.; see also id., Exhibit 1 (the State Court Order). Over the objection of the Debtor to the discharge of the Original Receiver and to the amount paid for repairs, the State Court discharged the Original Receiver. Id. at ¶ 8. The Debtor subsequently filed a cross-complaint which contests the advances for the repairs and the expenses of the Property. Id. at ¶ 9. The Debtor's cross-complaint is still pending.

The Receiver Motion contends that the Receiver is currently fulfilling his duties to manage and maintain the Property; thus, the Receiver Motion requests that the Receiver be allowed to remain in possession of the Property. It is the position of the Creditor that there is no equity in the Property, and that the Petition was filed in bad faith to avoid foreclosure by the Creditor.

The Debtor's Opposition to Receiver Motion

On June 26, 2018, the Debtor filed the Opposition to the Receiver Motion (the "Receiver Opposition") [Doc. No. 27]. The Debtor opposes retention of the receiver under § 543, and requests that the receiver be discharged and provide all cash and accounting to the Debtor. The Receiver Opposition explains that the Debtor's case was filed as a Chapter 7 due to time limitations in getting bankruptcy documents on file, and due to the fact that the Debtor's present counsel is not experienced in Chapter 11. The Receiver Opposition notes that the Debtor intends to convert the case to Chapter 11 (the Debtor's Motion to Convert is discussed in more detail below). The Debtor states that the Debtor intends to file amended schedules which will show the Debtor having significantly more assets than was reflected in the initial Schedules. See "Supplemental Declaration of Managing Member of the Debtor, Miguel Arreola, in Support of the Opposition" ("Supp. Arreola Decl.") [Doc. No. 30] at ¶¶ 3–7; see also "Amended Schedule A/B" [Doc. No. 38]. Specifically, on the Petition date the Debtor had cash and secured notes in the approximate amount of $5,880,431.00, as well as a pending judicial foreclosure lawsuit with a potential recovery of $1,395,000.00. Id. at ¶ 7.

The Receiver Opposition further states that the Debtor has never had management control of the Property because the Property has been continuously managed by the respective receivers. Receiver Opposition at 5; see also Supp. Arreola Decl. at ¶ 9. The Receiver Opposition contends that, in the absence of previous mismanagement by the Debtor, there is no justification for the Receiver to remain in control of the Property, especially considering that retention of the Receiver would cause the Estate to incur further fees for the Receiver who is paid $250 per hour. Receiver Opposition at 5.

The Reply to the Receiver Opposition

On July 3, 2018, the Creditor filed the Reply to the Opposition (the "Receiver Reply") [Doc. No. 32]. The Receiver Reply contends that: (1) the Opposition admits that the Debtor's Schedules are inaccurate, and the Court should not consider the Receiver Opposition or the Motion to Convert until the Schedules have been amended and the need for amendment has been adequately explained; and (2) excusing the Receiver from turnover at this time is in the best interest of creditors.

The Creditor contends that without the amended schedules, the Creditor's position remains that the Petition was filed in bad faith to avoid foreclosure, and that a reorganization is not in prospect. The Receiver Reply additionally sets forth certain facts regarding the Debtor's prepetition foreclosure on the fifth deed of trust, seemingly in an effort to call into question whether the Petition was filed in bad faith.

The Debtor's Supplemental Receiver Opposition

On August 14, 2018, the Debtor filed the "Supplementary Opposition to the Receiver Motion" (the "Supplemental Receiver Opposition") [Doc. No. 70]. The Supplemental Receiver Opposition states that since the hearing on the Receiver Motion on July 9, 2018, the Debtor filed the "Amended Schedule A/B" [Doc. No. 38] and "Amended Schedules (D), (E/F)" [Doc. No. 49] (collectively, the "Amended Schedules"), which show that the Debtor has assets totalling approximately $6,895,000.00, and estimated secured and unsecured debts in the amount of $4.5 to $5.0 million. Additionally, John H. Bauer has substituted into the case for Steven Ibarra, the Debtor's original attorney who was, admittedly, inexperienced with Chapter 11 filings. The Debtor further argues that the cases cited in the Receiver Reply support the Debtor's position that a showing of property mismanagement by the Debtor is required for imposition of a property receiver.

The Debtor's Motion to Convert to Chapter 11

On June 22, 2018, the Debtor filed the "Motion to Convert Case from Chapter 7 to Chapter 11" (the "Motion to Convert") [Doc. No. 17], as well as the "Notice of Opportunity to Request a Hearing" pursuant to LBR 9013-1(o).

The Opposition to the Motion to Convert

On July 5, 2018, the Creditor filed the "Notice of Opposition [to the Motion to Convert] and Request for a Hearing" (the "Conversion Opposition") [Doc. No. 37]. The Conversion Opposition states that the Creditor opposes conversion of the case to Chapter 11 on the following grounds: (1) the Debtor's schedules are inaccurate and incomplete and a reorganization is not in prospect; (2) the Petition was filed in bad faith and the Debtor is attempting to abuse the bankruptcy process in order to further delay the Creditor's foreclosure on the Property; and (3) the Court should not consider the Receiver Opposition or the Motion to Convert until the Schedules have been amended and the need for amendment has been adequately explained.

The Creditor contends that conversion is not appropriate because the Debtor's pre-petition conduct coupled with the inadequacies and incompleteness of the Debtor's Schedules show that the Petition was filed in bad faith. Further, that the Motion to Convert is an attempt to further delay the Creditor's pending foreclosure, and is an abuse of the bankruptcy process because no reorganization is in prospect. The Conversion Opposition argues that the Debtor's "Amended Schedule A/B" [Doc. No. 38] does not correct the deficiencies in the Debtor's original Schedules, and the addition of substantial assets that were not disclosed in the Petition suggest that the Amended Schedule A/B is not real, but rather another attempt to delay the pending foreclosure proceedings.

The Reply to the Conversion Opposition

Chapter 7

On August 14, 2018, the Debtor filed the Reply to the Conversion Opposition (the "Conversion Reply") [Doc. No. 69]. The Conversion Reply states that the Debtor has never had management control of the Property because the Property has been continuously managed by the respective receivers; thus, the Creditor's arguments in this regard are unfounded, and are not sufficient to meet the standard of bad faith established in case law to deny conversion.

The Emergency Receiver Authorization

On July 20, 2018, the Receiver filed the "Emergency Motion for Order Authorizing the Receiver to (A) Operate Business of Debtor Nunc Pro Tunc to May 29, 2018, As Authorized in the Receivership Order and (B) Use Cash Collateral On An Interim Basis Nunc Pro Tunc to May 29, 2018" (the "Emergency Receiver Authorization") [Doc. No. 46]. On July 23, 2018, the Court entered the "Order Providing Notice of the Court's Intent to Grant [the Emergency Receiver Authorization]" [Doc. No. 50].

The Emergency Receiver Authorization requests authorization for the Receiver to operate the Debtor's business nunc pro tunc to May 29, 2018 pursuant to the State Court's Receivership Order, and authorization for the Receiver to use cash collateral nunc pro tunc to May 29, 2018, on an interim basis as necessary for the Receiver to continue to comply with the Receivership Order and carry out his duties thereunder. The Emergency Receiver Authorization was filed in order that the status quo be maintained through the continued hearing on the Receiver Motion, and the hearing on the Motion to Convert.

The Objection to the Emergency Receiver Authorization

On August 1, 2018, the Creditor filed the Objection to the Emergency Receiver Authorization (the "Objection") [Doc. No. 57]. The Creditor objects to the Emergency Receiver Authorization for the following reasons: (1) it was not properly served on the Debtor's secured creditors; (2) the Creditor is entitled to adequate protection in the form of a replacement lien; and (3) the Receiver should be making monthly payments on the East West Bank Loan in the amount of $17,281.85 per month.

With respect to the payments on the East West Bank Loan, the Creditor states that since the Petition Date, the Creditor has been required to make payments on the East West Bank Loan to keep it from going into default.

II. Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law

The Motion to Convert

Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 706(a), a "debtor may convert a case under this chapter to a case under chapter 11, 12, or 13 of this title at any time, if the case has not been converted under section 1112, 1208, or 1307 of this title." In Marrama v. Citizens Bank of Mass., 549 U.S. 365 (2007), the Supreme Court held that the apparently absolute right of the debtor to convert a chapter 7 case to another chapter could be curtailed in the "atypical" case of a fraudulent or "bad faith" debtor, in order "to prevent an abuse of process." Id. at 375 & n.11. Whether to convert a Chapter 7 case to one under Chapter 11 is within the discretion of the bankruptcy court. See In re Levesque, 473 B.R. 331, 339 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 2012); In re Daughtrey, 896 F.3d 1255, 1273–74 (11th Cir. 2018) ("whether to convert a Chapter 7 case to one under Chapter 11 is within the "sound discretion of the court" and depends upon whether conversion would "inure to the benefit of all parties in interest").

The Motion to Convert is DENIED. The court finds that, under the circumstances, denial of the Motion to Convert is warranted in order "to prevent an abuse of process." Id. at 375 & n.11. In Marrama, the Court held that a Chapter 7 debtor forfeited his right to convert to Chapter 13 by engaging in prepetition bad faith conduct, where the debtor had misrepresented the value of certain of his estate property and that he had not transferred it during the preceding year. In In re Levesque, 473 B.R. 331 (B.A.P. 9th Cir.), the Ninth Circuit BAP relied upon the Court's reasoning in Marrama, and affirmed the decision of the bankruptcy court's denial of the debtors' motion to convert from Chapter 7 to Chapter 11 where there was evidence of bad faith and abuse of the bankruptcy process. Id. at 340. As the Court stated at the outset of its opinion in Marrama, "The principal purpose of the Bankruptcy Code is to grant a fresh start to the honest but unfortunate Debtor." Id. at 367. The principal purpose of Chapter 11 is to permit the Debtor an opportunity to reorganize its secured and unsecured debts.

Here, the Debtor's pre-petition conduct, including its conduct in relation to the State Court Action, the fact that this bankruptcy was filed as a face sheet filing on the eve of foreclosure, and the fact that the subsequent amendments to the Schedules show that the Debtor's debt consists entirely of secured claims, militate in favor of curtailing the Debtor's right to convert in order to prevent abuse of the bankruptcy process. The Court is not confident in the Debtor's ability to reorganize given the entire history of the State Court Action, coupled with the fact that the Debtor's debts are all secured. Furthermore, the case arises from a dispute between the Debtor its secured creditors, and thereby demonstrates an intent to delay or frustrate the legitimate efforts of the Debtor's secured creditors to enforce their rights. See In re C-TC 9th Ave. Partnership, 113 F.3d 1304, 1309–1311 (2d. Cir. 1997); In re FMO Associates II, LLC, 402 B.R. 546, 551–552 (Bankr. E.D.N.Y. 2009).

Based on the foregoing, the Court DENIES the Motion to Convert.

The Receiver Motion

Section 541 of the Bankruptcy Code provides that the commencement of a case under Title 11 creates an estate consisting of all legal and equitable interests of the debtor in property as of the commencement of the case. Section 323(a) provides that "[t]he trustee in a case under this title is the representative of the estate." Thus, after the estate is created and a trustee is appointed, "although the trustee is not vested with title of the debtor," 3 COLLIER ON BANKRUPTCY ¶ 323.02 (Richard Levin & Henry J. Sommer eds., 16th ed.), the trustee is the authorized individual through whom the estate acts as its representative under § 323(a).

Section 543 of the Bankruptcy Code provides, in pertinent part:

- (a) A custodian with knowledge of the commencement of a case under this title concerning the debtor may not make any disbursement from, or take any action in the administration of, property of the debtor, proceeds, product, offspring, rents, or profits of such property, or property of the estate, in the possession, custody, or control of such custodian, except such action as is necessary to preserve such property.
- (b) A custodian shall—
 - (1) deliver to the trustee any property of the debtor held by or transferred to such custodian, or proceeds, product, offspring, rents, or profits of such property, that is in such custodian's possession, custody, or control on the date that such custodian acquires knowledge of the commencement of the case; and

(2) file an accounting of any property of the debtor, or proceeds, product, offspring, rents, or profits of such property, that, at any time, came into the possession, custody, or control of such custodian.

(d) After notice and hearing, the bankruptcy court—

(1) may excuse compliance with subsection (a), (b), or (c) of this section if the interests of creditors and, if the debtor is not insolvent, of equity security holders would be better served by permitting a custodian to continue in possession, custody, or control of such property

11 U.S.C. § 543(a)(b)(d).

Here, the Court finds that retention of the Receiver would not be in the best interest of creditors or the Estate; therefore, the Court DENIES the Receiver Motion. Having determined that this case should remain in Chapter 7, the Court finds that the Creditor has not established a basis for the Court to excuse compliance with the turnover requirements of § 543.

The Receiver shall turnover "any property of the debtor held by or transferred to such custodian, or proceeds, product, offspring, rents, or profits of such property, that is in such custodian's possession, custody, or control" to the Chapter 7 Trustee forthwith. With respect to the requirement under § 543(b)(2) that the Receiver file an accounting, the Court finds that the "Declaration of Matthew Taylor Re Accounting of Funds Received and Distributed in His Capacity as Receiver" [Doc. Nos. 71, 72] satisfies this requirement.

The Emergency Receiver Authorization

The Emergency Receiver Authorization is GRANTED. The Receiver is authorized to operate the Business of the Debtor nunc pro tunc to May 29, 2018, and to use cash collateral on an interim basis nunc pro tunc to May 29, 2018.

III. Conclusion

Based on the foregoing: (1) the Motion to Convert is DENIED; (2) the Motion to Retain Receiver is DENIED; and (3) the Emergency Motion for Receiver

#4.00 Status Hearing RE: [1] Adversary case 2:18-ap-01170. Complaint by Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors of Gardens Regional Hospital and Medical Center, Inc. against Southland Medical Dialysis, Inc.. (Charge To Estate). for Avoidance and Recover of Preferential Transfers Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. Section 547 and 550 Nature of Suit: (12 (Recovery of money/property - 547 preference)) (Golden, Jeffrey)

Docket 1

Tentative Ruling:

8/21/2018

On August 5, 2016, the Court approved the application of the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (the "Committee") to employ Weiland Golden Goodrich LLP ("Weiland") as local co-counsel. Bankr. Doc. No. 288. On May 25, 2018, the Court entered an order vesting the Committee with exclusive authority, on behalf of the Debtor and the estate, to investigate, initiate, prosecute, and settle any and all avoidance actions and claims against the estate. Bankr. Doc. No. 288. The Court also expanded the scope of Weiland's employment, authorizing Weiland to prosecute the avoidance actions. Id.

On June 6, 2018, the Committee filed 27 preference actions, seeking to recover transfers made by the Debtor to various creditors within the ninety-day period prior to the filing of the petition. The recoveries sought range from $11,548.40 to $221,886.00. In most of the preference actions, the recovery sought is $50,000 or less.

Weiland did not file a Status Report in any of the 27 actions until after the Court issued Orders to Comply. The Court expects that in the future, Weiland will timely file Status Reports pursuant to the Local Rules of the Court and this judge, and will timely comply with all other orders issued by the Court.

Weiland has elected not to serve the complaints "in an effort to conserve costs and resolve the claims without protracted litigation." To provide Weiland additional time to negotiate potential settlements, a continued Status Conference shall be held on November 13, 2018, at 10:00 a.m.

In each Status Report filed in connection with the continued Status Conferences, Weiland shall advise the Court whether the action has settled. For those actions which have not settled, Weiland shall obtain an Alias Summons, and shall serve the Summons and Complaint upon each defendant. Each Summons and Complaint must be served upon the non-settling defendants by no later than November 6, 2018. Litigation deadlines will be set for those actions that have not settled at the continued Status Conference.

Weiland did not submit a Status Report in connection with Adv. No. 2:18-ap-01172-ER, Committee v. US Foods, Inc., notwithstanding the issuance of the Order to Comply. As the omission appears to be inadvertent, the Court will not impose sanctions. The Court reiterates that at future Status Conferences, the Court expects Weiland to diligently comply with its obligations. Future failures to comply will not be dealt with so leniently.

In one of these actions, Adv. No. 2:18-ap-01195-ER, Defendant McKesson Health Solutions Holdings, LLC ("McKesson") filed an Answer out of an abundance of caution, notwithstanding Weiland's failure to serve the Summons and Complaint. By Answering the Complaint, McKesson has waived any objections to service. Accordingly, the Court will exercise jurisdiction over McKesson. Weiland is not required to obtain an alias summons in this action. With respect to Adv. No. 2:18-ap-01195-ER, the Court HEREBY FINDS and ORDERS as follows:

- 1) The Court lacks constitutional authority to enter final judgment in this preference action absent consent of all the parties. See Executive Benefits Ins. Agency v. Arkison (In re Bellingham Ins. Agency, Inc.), 702 F.3d 553 (9th Cir. 2012). Because McKesson has not consented to entry of a final judgment by this Court, the Court will prepare and transmit to the District Court a Report and Recommendation containing proposed findings and a proposed judgment.
- 2) The litigation deadlines previously ordered shall continue to apply, as follows:
 - a) The last day to amend pleadings and/or join other parties is 9/13/2018.
 - b) The last day to disclose expert witnesses and expert witness reports is 12/25/2018.
 - c) The last day to disclose rebuttal expert witnesses and rebuttal expert witness reports is 1/24/2019.
 - d) The last date to complete discovery relating to expert witnesses (e.g., depositions of expert witnesses), including hearings on motions related to expert discovery, is 2/12/2019.  - g) A Pretrial Conference is set for 3/12/2019 at 11:00 a.m. By no later than fourteen days prior to the Pretrial Conference, the parties must submit a Joint Pretrial Stipulation via the Court's Lodged Order Upload (LOU) system. Submission via LOU allows the Court to edit the Joint Pretrial Stipulation, if necessary. Parties should consult the Court Manual, section 4, for information about LOU.
 - h) In addition to the procedures set forth in Local Bankruptcy Rule 7016-1(b), the following procedures govern the conduct of the Pretrial Conference and the preparation of the Pretrial Stipulation:
 - i) By no later than thirty days prior to the Pretrial Conference, the parties must exchange copies of all exhibits which each party intends to introduce into evidence (other than exhibits to be used solely for impeachment or rebuttal).
 - ii) When preparing the Pretrial Stipulation, all parties shall stipulate to the admissibility of exhibits whenever possible. In the event any party cannot stipulate to the admissibility of an exhibit, that party must file a Motion in Limine which clearly identifies each exhibit alleged to be inadmissible and/or prejudicial. The moving party must set the Motion in Limine for hearing at the same time as the Pretrial Conference; notice and service of the Motion shall be governed by LBR 9013-1. The Motion in Limine must contain a statement of the specific prejudice that will be suffered by the moving party if the Motion is not granted. The Motion must be supported by a memorandum of points and authorities containing citations to the applicable Federal Rules of

 - iv) Motions in Limine seeking to exclude testimony to be offered by any witness shall comply with the requirements set forth in ¶(2)(i)(ii).
 - i) Trial is set for the week of 3/25/2019. The trial day commences at 9:00 a.m. The exact date of the trial will be set at the Pretrial Conference. Consult the Court's website for the Judge's requirements regarding exhibit binders and trial briefs.
- 3) The matter shall be referred to the Mediation Panel. The parties shall meet and confer and select a Mediator from this District's Mediation Panel. Plaintiff will lodge a completed "Request for Assignment to Mediation Program; [Proposed] Order Thereon" (See Amended General Order 95-01 available on the Court's website) within 15 days from the date of this hearing, and deliver a hard copy directly to chambers c/o the judge's law clerk Daniel Koontz.

With respect to Adv. No. 2:18-ap-01195-ER, the Court will enter a Scheduling Order and Weiland shall submit an order assigning the matter to mediation. With respect to the remaining actions, the Court will prepare and enter orders setting the continued Status Conferences.

Chapter 7

Adv#: 2:17-01008 Schrauwers et al v. Roy

#100.00 HearingRE: [40] Motion to Withdraw as Attorney with proof of service.

Docket 40

Tentative Ruling:

8/21/2018

For the reasons set forth below, the Motion to Withdraw is GRANTED.

Pleadings Filed and Reviewed:

- 1) Motion to Withdraw as Counsel [Doc. No. 40] (the "Motion")
 - a) Notice of Motion to Withdraw [Doc. No. 41]
- 2) No opposition is on file

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

Robert Reganyan ("Counsel"), counsel for Defendant Kevin Thomas Roy, moves to withdraw from representation. Counsel states that he agreed to represent the Defendant on a limited basis for purposes of filing a Rule 12(b)(6) motion, and that thereafter, Counsel continued to informally assist the Defendant without compensation on several future matters. In support of the Motion, Defendant submits a declaration stating that he is using all his resources to defend the underlying State Court Action and cannot afford to pay Counsel.

Counsel previously attempted to withdraw from representation by filing a purported Substitution of Attorney form. On August 3, 2017, the Court struck the purported substitution from the record. Doc. No. 15. The Court explained that Counsel could withdraw only upon leave of Court.

No Opposition to the Motion is on file.

II. Findings and Conclusions

Local Bankruptcy Rule ("LBR") 2091-1(a) requires that counsel obtain leave of court to withdraw from representation. LBR 2091-1(e)(2) provides that "no ... withdrawal will be allowed that will cause unreasonable delay in prosecution of the

On June 22, 2018, the Court stayed prosecution of this action pending resolution of the underlying State Court Action in which Plaintiffs seek to establish the indebtedness which is alleged to be non-dischargeable. Doc. No. 37. A Status Conference is set for September 11, 2018, at 10:00 a.m. Id.

Because this action has been stayed, Counsel's withdrawal will not cause undue delay. The Motion is GRANTED. Once a final, non-appealable judgment has been entered in the State Court Action and the stay of prosecution of this action is lifted, the Court strongly advises Defendant to retain counsel. The Court further advises Defendant that notwithstanding the absence of counsel, he remains responsible for complying with all orders of the Court—including the timely filing of a Joint Status Report in connection with the upcoming Status Conference.

Counsel shall submit a conforming order, incorporating this tentative ruling by reference, within seven days of the hearing.

No appearance is required if submitting on the court's tentative ruling. If you intend to submit on the tentative ruling, please contact Cameron Schlager or Daniel Koontz at 213-894-1522. If you intend to contest the tentative ruling and appear, please first contact opposing counsel to inform them of your intention to do so. Should an opposing party file a late opposition or appear at the hearing, the court will determine whether further hearing is required. Docket 64

Tentative Ruling:

Having reviewed the first interim application for fees and expenses filed by this applicant, the court approves the application and awards the fees and expenses set forth below.

The Objection of the United States Trustee to the First Interim Application [Doc. No. 71] is SUSTAINED. Pursuant to the "Order Granting Application to Employ Steinberg, Nutter & Brent" [Doc. No. 26], the effective date of employment was March 15, 2018. Thus, the Objection is sustained to the extent the Fee Application includes fees incurred prior to the effective date of employment in the amount of $635.00.

Fees: $32,520.00 (33,155.00 less the reduction of $635.00)

Expenses: $2,409.00

Chapter 11

Liberty Asset Management Corporation ("Liberty") commenced a voluntary Chapter 11 petition on March 21, 2016. From March 21, 2016 to January 29, 2017, the Hon. Thomas B. Donovan presided over this case. On January 30, 2017, the case was reassigned to the undersigned Judge. Doc. No. 325.

On June 9, 2016, the Court granted Liberty's application to employ Lawrence R. Perkins as Chief Restructuring Officer ("CRO"), with such employment effective as of March 28, 2016. Doc. No. 94.

On June 18, 2018, the Court confirmed a Plan of Liquidation (the "Plan"), proposed by Liberty's Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (the "Committee"). Doc. No. 665. The Plan provides for the liquidation of Liberty's assets, with such liquidation to be overseen by a Plan Administrator. Bradley D. Sharp of Development Specialists, Inc. ("DSI") is presently serving as the Plan Administrator. Mr. Sharp has retained Pachulski Stang Ziehl & Jones LLP, the law firm that advised the Committee, to represent him in overseeing the liquidation.

JD Brothers LLC ("JD") moves for allowance of an administrative expense claim pursuant to §§503(b)(3)(D), (b)(3)(F), and (b)(4). JD seeks fees in the amount of $28,550.00 and expenses in the amount of $2,100.72. The fees are sought for the work that attorney C. Alex Naegele performed advising JD, which served as the Chair of the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (the "Committee"). Benjamin Kirk opposes the Motion.

JD's Motion for Allowance of an Administrative Expense Claim

JD makes the following arguments and representations in support of the Motion:

Because of the unique manner in which this case unfolded, counsel for the Committee was responsible for performing most of the work. The issues with the Debtor's insiders made it such that there was not even really a Debtor client for the Committee to consult, and there were no records. JD, in its capacity as Chair of the Committee, was required to invest substantial time and resources communicating with the Committee's counsel regarding the direction of the case. Specifically, JD had responsibility for day-to-day management of the Committee. In this role, the Chair reviewed and commented on nearly every pleading, e-mail, and document sent by counsel for the Committee. The work JD performed was essential to the ultimate confirmation of the Committee's liquidating plan.

Mr. Naegele's billing rate of $250 per hour is well below the market rate of $450 per hour of similarly qualified professionals. Mr. Naegele has been selected as a Northern California Super Lawyer "rising star" in the field of business bankruptcy for the years 2016, 2017, and 2018. The fees of $28,550.00 and expenses of $2,100.72 are modest when compared to the benefit realized by the estate as a result of JD's work.

Benjamin Kirk's Opposition

Benjamin Kirk makes the following arguments in Opposition to the Motion:

JD is not entitled to an administrative expense claim for any legal fees incurred by its outside counsel for work performed assisting JD in fulfilling its responsibilities as Chair of the Committee. Section 503(b)(3)(F) allows, as an administrative expense, the "actual, necessary expenses ... incurred by ... a member of a committee appointed under section 1102" However, §503(b)(4) does not allow as an administrative expense fees incurred by a Committee members' professionals. Thus, the plain language of the statute bars the Court from awarding the relief sought by JD.

Even if JD's professional, Mr. Naegele, was entitled to an administrative expense claim, JD has failed to show that JD has made a substantial contribution to the case. There is no evidence that Mr. Naegele did anything other than the basic things an attorney would need to do for his client under the circumstances. Mr. Naegele's time records reflect that he did little more than review the Debtor's schedules and pleadings, work on an objection to a fee application that Mr. Naegele's own time entries indicate he subsequently withdrew, lobby the United States Trustee to sit on the Committee, and prepare for and attend the Debtor's first meeting of creditors. These activities are routinely undertaken by unsecured creditors such as JD in a Chapter 11 case.

It is true that a liquidating plan was ultimately confirmed. But there is no evidence that tasks undertaken by Mr. Naegele on JD's behalf were more than incidental to that result. JD hired Naegele to protect and preserve its $24 million claim. At most, it can be said that Mr. Naegele did that.

JD's Reply in Support of the Motion

JD makes the following arguments in its Reply to Benjamin Kirk's Opposition:

Benjamin Kirk lacks standing to object to the Motion. JD's application for an administrative expense claim was directed not against Kirk but against the funds in the estate. Mr. Kirk holds only an equity interest in the Debtor. Because there is only $4-5 million to distribute to unsecured creditors, and $80 million or more in claims,

Chapter 11

Mr. Kirk will never receive a distribution on account of his equity interest. Thus, Mr. Kirk will not be adversely affected by an order awarding JD an administrative expense claim. Because no party that has standing has objected, the Motion should be granted.

To the extent the Court entertains Mr. Kirk's arguments, then Mr. Kirk must necessarily have standing, which means Mr. Kirk must have a pecuniary interest in the estate. Such a pecuniary interest would amount to an unsecured claim against the estate. But Mr. Kirk cannot assert such a pecuniary interest, because he failed to timely file a proof of claim, and he has failed to pay the $75 million dollar judgment entered against him and in favor of the estate.

Even if Mr. Kirk had standing, his arguments lack merit. Pursuant to §503(b)(3)(D), the "actual, necessary expenses" of a creditor "in making a substantial contribution in a case under chapter ... 11" are entitled to administrative expense status. In the Ninth Circuit, the "principal test of substantial contribution is 'the extent of benefit to the estate.'" Cellular 101, Inc. v. Channel Communications, Inc. (In re Cellular 101, Inc.), 377 F.3d 1092, 1096–97 (9th Cir. 2004). Here, the work JD performed as Committee Chair was necessary and benefitted the estate. The Court ordered mediations that JD was required to attend. JD was required to sign declarations, which JD was required to review given its fiduciary responsibilities to the Committee.

II. Findings and Conclusions

A. Benjamin Kirk Lacks Standing to Object

To have standing to object, a party must be "a 'person aggrieved'" by the decision of the Court. Duckor Spradling & Metzger v. Baum Trust (In re P.R.T.C., Inc.), 177 F.3d 774, 777 (9th Cir. 1999). A party is aggrieved if he or she is "directly and adversely affected pecuniarily by an order of the bankruptcy court"; the Court's order must diminish the party's "property, increase [his] burdens, or detrimentally affect [his] rights." Id. at 777.

Benjamin Kirk lacks standing to object to the Motion because he will not be adversely pecuniarily affected by an order awarding JD an administrative expense claim. Mr. Kirk asserts that he holds 100% of the equity in Liberty. Testimony elicited in connection with a previous hearing established that Lucy Gao may hold a 20–50% beneficial interest in Liberty. The Court has never ruled upon the issue of who holds Liberty's equity, and makes no such ruling today. However, assuming arguendo that Mr. Kirk and Ms. Gao are the holders of Liberty's equity, allowance of JD's administrative expense claim would not affect Mr. Kirk's ability to receive a distribution from the estate.

Under the Plan, Mr. Kirk is a member of Class 4. The only way that Class 4 could receive any distribution in connection with the liquidation of Liberty's assets would be if the Committee succeeds in collecting upon the $74 million judgment against Mr. Kirk and Ms. Gao. Absent that judgment, the Committee anticipates that between $11.9 million and $13.8 million will be available for distribution to general unsecured creditors. General unsecured claims are estimated to be between $75 million and $80 million. Therefore, Mr. Kirk and Ms. Gao would not receive a distribution unless the Committee collected upon its judgment against them. Of course, if the Committee collected upon the judgment, the distribution would be economically meaningless since it would merely return to Mr. Kirk and Ms. Gao the funds that had been collected from them.

B. Under the Plain Language of the Statute, JD is Not Entitled to an Administrative Expense Claim for Fees Incurred by its Counsel for Work Performed as the Chair of the Committee

Section 503(b)(3) allows, as an administrative expense, the "actual, necessary expenses" incurred by:

(D) a creditor, an indenture trustee, an equity security holder, or a committee representing creditors or equity security holders other than a committee appointed under section 1102 of this title, in making a substantial contribution in a case under chapter 9 or 11 of this title [or] ...

(F) a member of a committee appointed under section 1102 of this title, if such expenses are incurred in the performance of the duties of such committee

Section 503(b)(3) expressly excludes allowance of "compensation and reimbursement specified in" §503(b)(4)—that is, "compensation for professional services rendered by an attorney or an accountant" of an entity whose expenses are allowable under § 503(b)(3). Section 503(b)(4) allows compensation for professionals employed by entities whose expenses are allowable under §503(b)(3)(A), (B), (C), (D), and (E). However, §503(b)(4) does not allow compensation for professionals employed by entities whose expenses are allowable under §503(b)(3)(F)—that is, a member of an official committee of creditors or equity security holders.

As one court has explained:

Chapter 11

Relevant here, official committee members' professional fee expenses are not included in § 503(b). The problem is not that such expenses are not listed—the list is not exhaustive—but instead that the structure of § 503(b)(3) and (4) glaringly exclude professional fee expenses for official committee members. See 11 U.S.C. § 503(b)(3), (4).⁴ Specifically, § 503(b)(3) allows for the payment of "actual, necessary expenses" incurred in situations listed in § 503(b)(3)(A) through (F), all of which involve work contributing to the bankruptcy case. See 11 U.S.C. § 502(b)(3). Section 503(b)(3)(F) provides for the payment of the expenses incurred by official committee members in performing committee work. Section 503(b)(3), however, explicitly excludes professional fee expenses—that is, the cost of hiring lawyers or accountants—from the expenses it authorizes. Id. § 503(b)(3). Professional fee expenses are instead covered by § 503(b)(4). That section authorizes professional fee expenses for any entity that qualifies for expenses under § 503(b)(3)(A) through (E). Id. § 502(b)(4). Importantly, entities eligible for expenses under § 503(b)(3)(F)—members of an official committee—are not covered by § 503(b)(4). Id. Consequently, § 503(b)(3) and 503(b)(4) work together to guarantee full payment for any professional fee expense incurred in a situation covered by § 503(b)(3)(A) through (E), but not (F).

Davis v. Elliot Management Corp. (In re Lehman Bros. Holdings Inc.), 508 B.R. 283, 290 (S.D.N.Y. 2014).

Collier on Bankruptcy, the leading treatise, explains that in certain instances a committee member may be entitled to allowance of an administrative expense claim:

The exclusion of subparagraph (F) does not mean that a committee member is never entitled to have such member's professional fees awarded administrative expense status. Although a committee appointed under section 1102 is excluded from the "substantial contribution" provision in section 503(b)(3)(D), an individual committee member that makes a "substantial contribution" under section 503(b)(3)(D) as a creditor or equity security holder, independent of the work of the committee, is eligible to seek administrative expense status for professional fees under section 503(b)(4).

4 Collier on Bankruptcy P 503.11 \(16th ed. 2018\) \(emphasis added\).

Here, JD's professional Mr. Naegele is not entitled to fees under §503(b)(4), on account of JD's expenses under §503(b)(3)(D), because the work JD performed was not independent of the work of the Committee. To the contrary, throughout the Motion JD emphasizes that the work it performed was in furtherance of its role as Committee Chair. Accordingly, Mr. Naegele is not entitled to an administrative expense claim under §503(b)(4)'s incorporation of §503(b)(3)(D).

Further, basic principles of statutory construction do not permit allowance of fees for JD's professionals pursuant to §503(b)(4)'s incorporation of §503(b)(3)(D). Section 503(b)(3)(D) allows administrative expense status for fees incurred by professionals employed by a "creditor ... in making a substantial contribution" Although JD is a creditor, §503(b)(3)(F) contains a more specific provision applicable to the type of claim asserted by JD. Under §503(b)(3)(F), expenses incurred by a committee member "in the performance of the duties of such committee" are allowed. Unfortunately for JD, §503(b)(4) does not allow the expenses of professionals employed by a creditor serving on a committee. It would not be appropriate for the Court to allow fees for JD's professional under a generalized provision where a more specific provision does not provide for the allowance of such fees.

However, under the plain language of §503(b)(3)(F), JD is entitled to expenses incurred performing its duties on the Committee. Accordingly, the Court will allow the $2,100.72 in expenses sought in the Motion.

The Court's ruling is in no way intended to derogate the work performed by JD as Chair of the Committee. Having reviewed the Motion and the time records submitted by JD's counsel, the Court agrees that JD's efforts as Committee Chair were instrumental in facilitating confirmation of the Plan. Unfortunately, under these circumstances, the statute does not permit the Court to award administrative expense status for fees incurred by JD's professionals.

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

In this preference action, the Chapter 7 Trustee (the "Trustee") seeks to avoid transfers totaling $601,723.52 made by the Debtor to Zeta Interactive ("Zeta") during the ninety-day period prior to the date of the filing of the petition (the "Petition Date"). The Trustee further seeks disallowance of any claim asserted by Zeta, pursuant to § 502(d).

The Debtor is a failed Internet-based financial services business. Zeta provides marketing solutions to help brands acquire, grow, and retain customers. Zeta provided services to the Debtor between 2011 and 2016.

Zeta moves for summary judgment in its favor. For purposes of the §547(c) preference defense, Zeta asserts that it conducts business within the affiliate-marketing industry. Zeta offers the testimony of Brian Benenhaley, whom it asserts is an expert in the affiliate marketing industry, in support of its contention that payment practices within that industry are highly variable. Based upon Mr. Benenhaley's testimony, Zeta argues that the payments which the Trustee seeks to avoid were made within the ordinary course of the business of the Debtor and Zeta. In the alternative, Zeta asserts that the payments were made according to ordinary business terms within the affiliate marketing industry.

The Trustee opposes the Motion, contending that a preference action involves factually intensive issues that are not appropriately disposed of in the context of summary judgment. The Trustee contends that there are disputed issues of material fact over the ordinariness of the transfers. Specifically, the Trustee argues that Zeta has focused only on transfers made by the Debtor subsequent to June 2016, even though the Debtor's business relationship with Zeta commenced in 2011. The Trustee asserts that the dispute as to the appropriate time period to be used to assess the ordinariness of the transfers precludes entry of summary judgment.

The Trustee further asserts that Zeta has not established that the affiliate marketing industry is the appropriate industry for purposes of determining whether the transactions at issue were made in the ordinary course of business. The Trustee's position is that the general advertising industry, rather than the more specialized affiliate marketing industry, is the appropriate industry.

In Reply to the Trustee's Opposition, Zeta asserts that the Trustee has failed to demonstrate the existence of a genuine dispute as to any material fact. Zeta notes that the Trustee has not disputed the parties' payment history, the absence of communications between the Debtor and Zeta, or that Zeta did not know the Debtor's financial condition. Zeta asserts that these facts are sufficient to support judgment that the payments are exempt from avoidance under §547(c).

II. Evidentiary Rulings

In support of its contentions regarding payment practices in the affiliate marketing industry, Zeta offers the testimony of Brian N. Benenhaley. Zeta asserts that Mr. Benenhaley should be treated as an expert witness under Federal Rule of Evidence ("FRE") 702. The Trustee asserts that Mr. Benenhaley's testimony is inadmissible for the following reasons:

- 1) The testimony is not reliable because it is based only on payments made by the Debtor to Zeta from June 30, 2015 to January 31, 2017, even though the parties' business relationship extended from 2011 to 2017. To opine as to whether the payments were made according to ordinary business terms or in the ordinary course of business, Mr. Benenhaley was required to review payments over the entirety of the parties' business relationship.
- 2) The testimony is not reliable because it is not supported by any objective data, statistics, or reports.
- 3) Zeta has not made a sufficient showing that Mr. Benenhaley is qualified as an expert in affiliate marketing.

The Trustee's objections to the admissibility of Mr. Benenhaley's testimony are overruled, and the Court will treat Mr. Benenhaley as an expert witness under FRE 702. Mr. Benenhaley's declaration sufficiently establishes his qualifications to testify as an expert in the area of affiliate marketing. In his declaration, Mr. Benenhaley states that he co-founded Reachsmart Interactive/AdDrive Affiliate Network ("ReachSmart") in 2000. Benenhaley Decl. at ¶5. Mr. Benenhaley was employed by Reachsmart from 2000 to 2014, serving as Chief Operating Officer, General Counsel, and a member of the Board of Directors. Id. While at Reachsmart, Mr. Benenhaley developed protocols for the creation and deployment of websites, advertising campaigns, and affiliate marketing programs, helping the company grow from an idea to an enterprise with $35 million in annual revenue. Id. At Reachsmart, Mr. Benenhaley negotiated agreements with advertisers and publishers and monitored accounts receivable from advertisers and accounts payable to publishers. Id. During his tenure the business facilitated payments of hundreds of millions of dollars between advertisers and publishers. Id. Mr. Benenhaley has given presentations on affiliate marketing and performance-based advertising on several occasions, including a presentation at the Directing Marketing Association headquarters in New York. Id.

[Note 1]

Federal Rule of Evidence ("FRE") 702 provides:

- A witness who is qualified as an expert by knowledge, skill, experience, training, or education may testify in the form of an opinion or otherwise if:
- a) the expert's scientific, technical, or other specialized knowledge will help the trier of fact to understand the evidence or to determine a fact in issue;
 - b) the testimony is based on sufficient facts or data;
 - c) the testimony is the product of reliable principles and methods; and
 - d) the expert has reliably applied the principles and methods to the facts of the case.

Under FRE 702, an expert may be qualified by "experience" or "training." Here, Mr. Benenhaley's declaration amply establishes that he has sufficient experience and training to testify regarding payment practices in the affiliate marketing industry. Mr. Benenhaley's declaration shows that he has first-hand, on-the-ground experience in this very industry. As noted by one bankruptcy court, witnesses who have worked in the industry at issue "may be prime candidates for providing relevant testimony." Stanziale v. Southern Steel & Supply, LLC (In re Conex Holdings, LLC, 518 B.R. 269, 286 (Bankr. D. Del. 2014).

The Trustee takes issue with Mr. Benenhaley's testimony because it is not accompanied by any statistical reports or other academic research. While studies and other scientific reports are often useful, it is a fallacy to assume that expert testimony not accompanied by such reports lacks credibility. Particularly in a nascent industry such as Internet-based affiliate marketing, testimony of industry practitioners such as Mr. Benenhaley can be just as useful as academic studies.

The Trustee also asserts that Mr. Benenhaley's opinions are not reliable because he based his conclusions only on payments made by the Debtor to Zeta between June 30, 2015 and January 31, 2017, even though the parties' business relationship extended from 2011 to 2017. The Trustee's objection lacks merit. As Zeta explains in its reply papers, it chose to streamline its Motion by focusing only upon transfers subsequent to June 30, 2016, because the amounts owed to Zeta by the Debtor increased dramatically subsequent to June 2016.

The Court further notes that although the Trustee attacks Mr. Benenhaley for presenting only those transactions subsequent to June 30, 2016, the Trustee did not present to the Court any evidence of payment transactions between the Debtor and Zeta before June 2016. In opposing a motion for summary judgment, a party must cite "to particular parts of materials in the record, including depositions, documents, electronically stored information, affidavits or declarations, stipulations ..., admissions, interrogatory answers, or other materials" Civil Rule 56(c)(1)(A). To support his position that Mr. Benenhaley's testimony is unreliable because it relies only on transactions subsequent to June 30, 2016, the Trustee was required to present to the Court a history of transactions prior to that date, and point out the ways in which the transactions prior to June 2016 differed materially from the transactions subsequent to June 2016. Because the Trustee could have easily presented such evidence to the Court yet failed to do so, the Court is entitled to presume that the transaction history presented by Zeta accurately reflects the business dealings between the parties.

The Trustee also objects to the Declaration of William Ettenger, Zeta's in-house-counsel. The Trustee asserts that Mr. Ettenger's testimony lacks foundation because his declaration does not specify how long he was employed at Zeta. The Trustee's objections lack merit. Mr. Ettenger's declaration establishes that in his capacity as Zeta's in-house counsel, he is familiar with Zeta's business operations and billing and payment practices. Ettenger Decl. at ¶2. The fact that Mr. Ettenger's declaration does not identify the precise period during which he has been employed at Zeta does not undermine his credibility.

dispute as to any material facts and the movant is entitled to judgment as a matter of law." Civil Rule 56 (made applicable to these proceedings by Bankruptcy Rule 7056). The moving party has the burden of establishing the absence of a genuine issue of material fact and that it is entitled to judgment as a matter of law. Celotex Corp. v. Catrett, 477 U.S. 317, 323 (1986). "[S]ummary judgment will not lie if the dispute about a material fact is "genuine," that is, if the evidence is such that a reasonable jury could return a verdict for the nonmoving party." Anderson v. Liberty Lobby, Inc., 477 U.S. 242, 248 (1986). "A fact is 'material' only if it might affect the outcome of the case[.]" Fresno Motors, LLC v. Mercedes Benz USA, LLC, 771 F.3d 1119, 1125 (9th Cir. 2014). If the moving party shows the absence of a genuine issue of material fact, the nonmoving party must "go beyond the pleadings and by her own affidavits, or by the 'depositions, answers to interrogatories, and admissions on file,' designate 'specific facts showing that there is a genuine issue for trial.'" Celotex, 477 U.S. at 324 (quoting Fed. R. Civ. P. 56(e)). The court is "required to view all facts and draw all reasonable inferences in favor of the nonmoving party" when reviewing the Motion. Brosseau v. Haugen, 543 U.S. 194, 195 n.2 (2004).

A. Material Facts as to Which there is No Genuine Dispute

Having reviewed the Motion and supporting evidence and declarations, the Opposition, and the pleadings on file, the Court finds that there is no genuine dispute as to the following material facts:

1. The Debtor and Zeta's Business

The Debtor, Blue Global, is a failed Internet-based financial services business. Zeta provides marketing solutions for helping brands to acquire, grow, and retain customers. Ettenger Decl. at ¶3. Zeta offers a range of services, including Internet-based advertising known as "affiliate marketing." Id. at ¶4. Zeta provided affiliate marketing services to the Debtor between 2011 and 2016. Id. at ¶5.

The Debtor used Zeta's services to promote its website and associated services. Id. at ¶6. Zeta provided a suite of ad creation, optimization, and marketing services. Id. at ¶7. Zeta was paid on a pay-per-lead model, meaning that for every consumer that clicked on a link in one of Zeta's Internet ads, was transited to the Debtor's website, and then provided contact information to the Debtor, the Debtor owed Zeta a payment. Id. at ¶8.

Chapter 7

Payment practices within the affiliate marketing industry are highly variable, particularly when compared to practices in more traditional forms of media and advertising. Benenhaley Decl. at ¶5. In traditional advertising, an advertiser pays a publisher such as a TV station, newspaper, or website owner a set rate based upon a certain number of impressions. Id. The rate may vary based upon the audience of the television program or website, or the circulation of the publication, but the rate is set before the deployment of the media and often paid in advance. Id. There is no variance based upon the effectiveness of the advertisement in generating consumer action. Id.

Affiliate marketing is entirely different. Id. An advertiser generally promises to pay a publisher a set amount for each consumer action that is recorded that is attributed to the advertisement. Id. There is no guarantee an advertiser will receive any payment regardless of how many times the advertisement is displayed. Id. The advertiser earns payment only when a consumer clicks on an ad (cost per click) or submits information (cost per lead) or makes a purchase (cost per acquisition). Id.

This is made possible by affiliate market attribution technology, which allows the advertiser to identify the source of any traffic to their website from a particular advertisement. Id. It is accordingly difficult for an advertiser or a publisher to know how much money will be due from month to month. Id. at ¶9. Affiliate marketers must wait until the end of the applicable reporting period (which can be daily, weekly, or monthly depending on the campaign) to finalize invoices, based on how many consumers responded to the advertisement. Id. This uncertainty is the primary contributing factor for payment unpredictability. Id.

However, there are additional factors that lead to the extreme variance in payment practices often encountered in affiliate marketing. Id. Reconciliation of the total number of consumer actions is also a major contributing factor to variances in payment schedules. Id. at ¶10. In every affiliate relationship, there is an advertiser and a publisher. Each entity keeps their own track of qualifying actions. Id. The total counts of qualifying actions compiled by the advertiser and publisher rarely match. Sometimes, the counts vary widely and the advertiser and publisher must negotiate a compromise. Id.

Affiliate publishers also rotate ad campaigns heavily based on response rates, leading to further unpredictability. Id. at ¶11. Affiliate marketing agreements do not mandate a set number of impressions. Id. This results in publishers heavily rotating advertisements looking for ads that produce the best economic performance for them based on consumer response and the rate paid by the advertiser per qualifying action.

Id. Thus, it is impossible to forecast even the number of impressions a publisher will generate for any particular advertisement in any reporting period, as publishers rotate ads based on consumer sentiment, quality/freshness of ad creative, and changes in the rates advertisers are willing to pay for qualifying actions. Id.

The final factor that is a major contributor to the unpredictability of payment schedules in affiliate marketing is the unique way credit risk is allocated. Id. at ¶12. Although some of the world's largest advertisers and content distribution networks engage in affiliate marketing, the majority of affiliate marketers are much smaller and less well known. Id. Thus, affiliate marketers often find themselves doing a considerable volume of business with an unfamiliar partner with little credit history. Id. Most affiliate agreements are between entities where representatives of the respective businesses have never met in person. Id. Advertisers want to vet publishers thoroughly to minimize the risk of fraud, and publishers often aggressively manage the extension of credit to avoid over-exposure for non-payment. Id. Publishers often demand accelerated payments at intervals that would be unthinkable in conventional advertising. Id. Weekly, bi-weekly, and even daily payments are common, particularly when a publisher is succeeding at drawing consumers to the advertiser's website. Id.

Publishers often set credit limits that result in campaigns being taken out of rotation when an advertiser owes a certain amount until a payment is made to reduce the outstanding balance below the limit. Id. These payments often come in the form of partial payments made between the issuance of invoices. Id. On the converse side, long delays in payments can occur based on sequential liability clauses included in the agreements between affiliate networks and publishers. Id.

It is common in the industry for affiliate networks to reserve the right to withhold payment to publishers until such time as the network receives payment from the advertiser. Id. Networks routinely use this to justify making accelerated payments to active publishers who are driving good quality leads and delaying payments to other publishers who have either stopped providing traffic to a campaign or are producing a lower quantity/quality of leads to the advertiser. Id.

3. The Debtor's Financial Condition and Payments Made by the Debtor to Zeta

On March 17, 2016, the Debtor entered into a Consent Order with the New York State Department of Financial Services (the "NY Department"). Among other things, the Consent Order required the Debtor to make the following payments to the NY Department:

- 1) $100,000 by no later than April 1, 2016;

- 5) $150,000 by no later than December 31, 2017;
- 6) $150,000 by no later than June 1, 2018;
- 7) $150,000 by no later than December 31, 2018.

Consent Order at ¶28 (attached to Proof of Claim 19-1).

The Debtor made the first payment of $100,000 by the April 1, 2016 deadline. See Agreement to Amend the Payment Terms Under the March 17, 2016 Consent Order and Establish a Custodial Account for Future Payments (the "NY Modification Agreement") (attached to Proof of Claim 19-1) (reciting the history of payments made by the Debtor under the Consent Decree). On May 24, 2016, the Debtor informed the NY Department that it would be unable to make the second payment of $100,000 by May 31, 2016 as required by the Consent Order. Id. During the month of June 2016, the Debtor made the following payments to the NY Department:

- 1) $10,000 payment made on June 3, 2016;
- 2) $10,000 payment made on June 10, 2016;
- 3) $10,000 payment made on June 17, 2016;
- 4) $10,000 payment made on June 24, 2016.

Id.

On July 19, 2016, the Debtor and the NY Department entered into the NY Modification Agreement, which required the Debtor to initiate recurring Automated Clearing House ("ACH") transfers to the NY Department of at least $10,000 every seven days into a custodial account until the outstanding penalty amount of $860,000 was satisfied.

The payments required under the Consent Decree, and the payments required under the amended payment schedule imposed by the NY Modification Agreement, imposed a financial burden upon the Debtor. Deposition of Christopher Kay [Doc. No. 51].

The Debtor made the following payments to Zeta prior to the date of the filing of the petition (the "Petition Date") (payments which the Trustee seeks to avoid are in bold):

B. Zeta is Entitled to Summary Judgment in its Favor

Section 547(b) permits the Trustee to avoid "any transfer of an interest of the debtor in property" if the transfer was:

- 1) to or for the benefit of a creditor;
- 2) for or on account of an antecedent debt owed by the debtor before such transfer was made;
- 3) made while the debtor was insolvent;
- 4) made—
 - a) on or within 90 days before the date of the filing of the petition; or
 - b) between ninety days and one year before the date of the filing of the petition, if such creditor at the time of such transfer was an insider; and
- 5) that enables such creditor to receive more than such creditor would receive if—
 - a) the case were a case under chapter 7 of this title;
 - b) the transfer had not been made; and
 - c) such creditor received payment of such debt to the extent provided by the provisions of this title.

§547(b)(1)–(5).

For purposes of §547(b), a "transfer" means:

- a) the creation of a lien;
- b) the retention of title as a security interest;
- c) the foreclosure of a debtor's equity of redemption; or
- d) each mode, direct or indirect, absolute or conditional, voluntary or involuntary, of disposing of or parting with—
 - i) property; or
 - ii) an interest in property.

Section 547(c) sets forth certain defenses to transfer liability. The Defendant has the burden of establishing that the §547(c) defenses apply, again under the preponderance of the evidence standard. §547(g).

Section 547(c)(2) provides preference defendants with an affirmative "ordinary course of business" defense. The defense recognizes that preference payments made in the "ordinary course of business" should not be avoided. "[T]he purpose of this [defense] is to leave undisturbed normal financial relations because it does not detract from the general policy of the preference section to discourage unusual action by either the debtor or his creditors during the debtor's slide into bankruptcy." Sigma Micro Corp. v. Healthcentral.com (In re Healthcentral.com), 504 F.3d 775, 789 (9th Cir. 2007) (quoting H.R.Rep. No. 595, at 373–74 (1997), reprinted in 1978 U.S.C.C.A.N. 5787, 6329).

Section 547(c)(2) provides that an otherwise preferential transfer is not subject to avoidance if he transfer was:

- a) made in the ordinary course of business or financial affairs of the debtor and the transferee; or
- b) made according to ordinary business terms.

§547(c)(2).

In determining whether transfers are ordinary in relation to past practices under § 547(c)(2)(A), courts consider the following factors:

- 1) the length of time the parties were engaged in the transactions at issue;
- 2) whether the amount or form of tender differed from past practices;
- 3) whether the debtor or creditor engaged in any unusual collection or payment activity; and,
- 4) whether the creditor took advantage of the debtor's deteriorating financial condition.

state of mind. Edmund J. Wood v. Stratos Product Development, LLC (In re Ahaza Sys., Inc.), 482 F.3d 1118, 1125 n. 6 (9th Cir. 2007).

To establish that a payment was "made according to ordinary business terms" under §547(c)(2)(B), a creditor defending a preference action must show the following:

First the creditor must establish the "broad range" of business terms employed by similarly situated debtors and creditors, including those in financial distress, during the relevant period. In re Jan Weilert RV, Inc., 315 F.3d at 1197–98. Second, the creditor must show that the relevant payments were "ordinary in relation to [these] prevailing business terms." See In re Kaypro, 218 F.3d at 1074. In general, § 547(c)(2)(C) should not pose a particularly high burden for creditors. See In re Jan Weilert RV, Inc., 315 F.3d at 1198(holding only payments which are so unusual as to be "aberration[s] in the relevant industry" do not satisfy [§547(c)(2)(B)]).

In re Healthcentral.com, 504 F.3d at 791.

Evaluation of a creditor's §547(c)(2) defense requires the Court to first identify the industry in which the creditor and debtor operate. Id. at 791–92. Once that determination has been made, the Court can then assess whether the payments were ordinary in relation to the business terms prevailing within that industry. Id.

Where the debtor and creditor have engaged in a long-term business relationship, a transaction is "ordinary" under §547(c)(2)(A) and §547(c)(2)(B) only in cases in which "the debt and its payment are ordinary in relation to past practices between the debtor and this particular creditor." Ahaza Sys., Inc., 482 F.3d at 1124 (internal citation omitted). In other words, to assess what is "ordinary" among parties who have interacted repeatedly, the Court must "inquire into the pattern of interactions between the actual creditor and the actual debtor in question, not about what transactions would have been 'ordinary' for either party with other debtors or creditors." Id.

1. Zeta is Entitled to Summary Judgment on its Claim that the Transfers Were Made Within the Ordinary Course of Business or Financial Affairs of the Debtor and Zeta Pursuant to §547(c)(2)(A)

For purposes of the §547(c)(2) defenses, the Court finds that there can be no genuine dispute that the Debtor operates within the affiliate marketing industry. As set forth above, the Court finds that Mr. Benenhaley is qualified to offer expert opinion as to the industry in which the Debtor operates. Mr. Benenhaley has provided a detailed description of why the affiliate marketing industry is the appropriate industry. Specifically, Mr. Benenhaley has explained that the affiliate marketing industry, unlike the general advertising industry, requires customers to make payments only in response to customer action (as opposed to general up-front payments). Mr. Ettenger, Zeta's in-house counsel, has testified that the Debtor paid Zeta on a pay-per-lead model. That is, the Debtor owed Zeta a payment for every consumer that (a) clicked on a link in one of Zeta's Internet ads, (b) was transited to the Debtor's website, and (c) thereafter provided contact information to the Debtor. Given Mr. Benenhaley's testimony that pay-per-lead transactions are characteristics of the affiliate marketing industry, Mr. Ettenger's testimony further establishes that there can be no genuine dispute that the affiliate marketing industry is the appropriate industry for purposes of §547(c).

The Trustee makes the conclusory assertion that the general advertising industry, as opposed to the more specialized affiliate marketing industry, is the appropriate industry. However, the Trustee has not submitted an expert declaration contesting Mr. Benenhaley's testimony that the Debtor and Zeta operate within the affiliate marketing industry. A party asserting that a fact is genuinely disputed within the context of a motion for summary judgment must cite "to particular parts of materials in the record, including depositions, documents, electronically stored information, affidavits or declarations, stipulations ..., admissions, interrogatory answers, or other materials" Civil Rule 56(c)(1)(A). The Trustee cannot create a genuine dispute as to the issue of the appropriate industry through mere conclusory assertions, where Zeta has offered credible expert testimony explaining in detail why the affiliate marketing industry is the appropriate for §547(c)(2) purposes. To create a genuine dispute, the Trustee would have been required to submit expert testimony controverting the conclusions reached by Mr. Benenhaley.

The Supreme Court has held that an affidavit containing conclusory allegations not supported by specific facts is not sufficient to defeat entry of summary judgment:

The object of this provision [Civil Rule 56(c)] is not to replace conclusory allegations of the complaint or answer with conclusory allegations of an affidavit.... Rather, the purpose of Rule 56 is to enable a party who believes there is no genuine dispute as to a specific fact essential to the other side's case to demand at least one sworn averment of that fact before the lengthy process of litigation continues.

Chapter 7

The Ninth Circuit has similarly held that an affidavit containing only vague assertions cannot defeat entry of summary judgment. In Sullivan v. Dollar Tree Stores, 623 F.3d 770, 779 (9th Cir. 2010), the parties disputed whether Dollar Tree was a "successor in interest" to Factory 2-U under the Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993. Sullivan, 623 F.3d at 770. Critical to adjudication of the successor in interest issue was a finding as to how many personnel employed at Factory 2-U had continued to work for Dollar Tree. The court held that Plaintiff's testimony that "[m]ost of the same personnel continued to work when Dollar Tree took Factory 2-U over at my store" was too vague to create a genuine dispute as to a material fact, where Dollar Tree had provided detailed factual assertions about which employees it hired and for what purposes. Id. at 779.

Here, the Trustee has not submitted any type of affidavit at all (much less a vague and conclusory affidavit) refuting Mr. Benenhaley's expert testimony that the Debtor and Zeta operate within the affiliate marketing industry. Like the parties against whom summary judgment was entered in Lujan and Sullivan, the Trustee accordingly has failed to show that the fact that the Debtor and Zeta conducted business within the affiliate marketing industry is subject to genuine dispute.

Next, the Court finds that there can be no genuine dispute that the period of June 30, 2015 to January 31, 2017 provides an appropriate frame of reference for assessing whether the transactions are exempted from avoidance under §547(c)(2). The Trustee contends that there is a genuine dispute as to the appropriate time period, but once against he offers no concrete evidence to back up this assertion. For example, the Trustee attacks Mr. Benenhaley's decision to rely upon the June 2015–January 2017 time range, but he fails to present evidence showing that payment practices during that time period differed materially from payment practices outside that time period. Zeta has explained that it chose the June 2015–January 2017 time range because the Debtor's payments to Zeta substantially increased during that time frame. The Trustee's conclusory attacks upon the time range are not sufficient to create a genuine dispute.

The June 2015–January 2017 time range provides an appropriate baseline for assessing the ordinariness of the transactions because it encompasses a period in which the Debtor was not experiencing financial distress. Mr. Kay has testified that the Debtor began experiencing financial distress on March 17, 2016, after the Debtor entered into a Consent Decree with the NY Department. The June 2015–January 2017 time range includes twelve payments before the Consent Decree and twelve payments after the Consent Decree.

A review of the Debtor's payment history shows that there can be no genuine dispute that the payments which the Trustee seeks to avoid were made in the ordinary course of business between the Debtor and Zeta. There can be no genuine dispute that payments for invoices from June 2015 through July 2016 were made between 30 and 60 days from the issuance of applicable invoices, with an average payment term of net 42.5 days. Benenhaley Decl. at ¶14. Nor can there be any genuine dispute that payments between August and October 2016 range from net 35 to net 58 days with an average payment term of net 46 days.

Benenhaley's testimony further establishes that there can be no genuine dispute as to the following facts, which establish that the transactions at issue are exempt from avoidance under §547(c)(2)(A). Benenhaley's testimony establishes the absence of a genuine dispute as to: (1) the fact that the payments which the Trustee seeks to avoid are consistent with affiliate marketing industry standards and the prior history of the parties; and (2) the fact that there is nothing unusual concerning partial payments rendered for the September 30, 2016 invoice, since partial payments are common in the industry.

Further, Mr. Ettenger has testified that Zeta was unaware of the Debtor's financial position, and the Trustee has failed to present any evidence establishing any genuine dispute as to this lack of awareness. This further establishes that Zeta is entitled to judgment in its favor under §547(c)(2)(A).

2. Zeta is Entitled to Summary Judgment on its Claim that the Transfers Were Made According to Ordinary Business Terms

As noted, Mr. Benenhaley's declaration testimony establishes the absence of any genuine dispute as to the types of payment arrangements made in the ordinary course of business among parties transacting in the affiliate marketing industry. His declaration further establishes an absence of any genuine dispute as to the facts necessary to show that Zeta is entitled to judgment in its favor under §547(c)(2)(B).

As set forth above, to establish that the transactions were made according to ordinary business terms, Zeta must "establish the 'broad range' of business terms employed by similarly situated debtors and creditors, including those in financial distress, during the relevant period." Healthcentral, 504 F.3d at 791. Zeta must then show that the transactions at issue were "ordinary in relation to [these] prevailing business terms."

Mr. Benenhaley's declaration establishes an absence of a genuine dispute as to the following facts. Payment practices within the affiliate marketing industry are highly variable, particularly when compared to practices in more traditional forms of media and advertising. The variability results from the fact that advertisers receive payment only in response to customer action. Affiliate publishers rotate ad campaigns heavily based on response rates, leading to further unpredictability. Affiliate marketing agreements do not mandate a set number of impressions. This results in publishers heavily rotating advertisements looking for ads that produce the best economic performance.

Considering the high variability in payment practices in the affiliate marketing industry, the Court finds that the transfers which the Trustee seeks to avoid were made according to ordinary business terms. Mr. Benenhaley testifies that in the affiliate marketing industry, "it is not uncommon to see payment patterns that range from net 7 days (or less) up to net 90 days from the date of invoice with partial payments being a common occurrence." Benenhaley Decl. at ¶13. As noted, the Trustee has not introduced any expert testimony controverting Mr. Benenhaley's conclusions. The payment terms here are well within the ordinary range of net 7 to net 90 days in the affiliate marketing industry.

The Trustee asserts that a genuine dispute exists regarding the prevailing payment practices within the affiliate marketing industry. The Trustee points to an agreement between the Debtor and Zeta governing media purchases which is titled Standard Terms and Conditions for Internet Advertising for Media Buys One Year or Lease (the "Agreement"). The Agreement requires the Debtor to pay Zeta within thirty days of receiving an invoice. Pointing to Mr. Ettenger's testimony that the terms and conditions set forth in the Agreement are contained in all of the Debtor's purchase orders, the Trustee asserts that the Agreement supports a finding that "net 30" payment terms are ordinary in the affiliate marketing industry.

The Trustee's attempt to generate a disputed issue of fact based on inconsistencies between the payment terms set forth in the Agreement and the payment practices that the Debtor and Zeta actually adhered to is unavailing. In determining whether transfers are ordinary for the industry, the issue is the standard payment practices, not the terms that are standard in boilerplate contracts. In Matter of Tolona Pizza Prod. Corp., 3 F.3d 1029, 1031 (7th Cir. 1993), the creditor's invoices imposed payment terms of net 7 days. Noting that the creditor and most of its competitors "pay little or no attention to the terms stated on their invoices, allow most customers to take up to 30 days to pay, and allow certain favored customers to take even more time," the Tolona court found that the relevant inquiry was actual payment practices, not payment terms set forth on an invoice. Tolona, 3 F.3d at 1033. Here, the Trustee has presented no testimony contradicting Mr. Benenhaley's description of an industry with broadly flexible payment patterns. The Trustee's focus on the alleged inconsistency between the terms set forth in the Agreement, on the one hand, and the Debtor's payment practices and the description of payment practices in the affiliate marketing industry set forth in Mr. Benenhaley's declaration, on the other hand, is nothing more than an exercise in misdirection.

IV. Conclusion

Based upon the foregoing, Zeta is entitled to summary judgment that the transfers at issue are exempt from avoidance pursuant to §547(c)(2)(A) and §547(c)(2)(B). Zeta shall submit a conforming order, incorporating this tentative ruling by reference, within seven days of the hearing.

No appearance is required if submitting on the court's tentative ruling. If you intend to submit on the tentative ruling, please contact Cameron Schlager or Daniel Koontz at 213-894-1522. If you intend to contest the tentative ruling and appear, please first contact opposing counsel to inform them of your intention to do so. Should an opposing party file a late opposition or appear at the hearing, the court will determine whether further hearing is required. If you wish to make a telephonic appearance, contact Court Call at 888-882-6878, no later than one hour before the hearing.

Note 1

Zeta also submitted Mr. Benenhaley's curriculum-vitae ("CV") in support of its contention that he is qualified as an expert. However, the CV was inadvertently omitted from Mr. Benenhaley's declaration and was not filed with the Court until August 20, 2018—only three days before the date of the hearing on the Motion. As a result, the Trustee did not have a meaningful opportunity to respond or object to the CV. Therefore, the Court does not rely upon the CV in determining whether Mr. Benenhaley is qualified as an expert. The CV is unnecessary because Mr. Benenhaley's declaration contains a detailed description of his education, work history, and relevant qualifications.

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

Plaintiff Robin Williams ("Plaintiff") alleges that Darren James Searle dba Stonecraft Masonry ("Defendant") is indebted to her in the amount of $33,000, and that such indebtedness is excepted from Defendant's discharge pursuant to §523(a)(2) (A). Specifically, Plaintiff alleges that in 2017, she paid Defendant $28,000 to remodel her property. Plaintiff alleges that Defendant failed to properly complete the work, requiring Plaintiff to spend an additional $5,000 (in addition to the $28,000 she had already paid Defendant) to complete the remodeling.

Defendant maintains that prior to the disputed 2017 remodeling work, he had performed residential work for Plaintiff in 2010, 2011, and 2014. According to Defendant, Plaintiff was satisfied with this work and kept re-hiring Defendant to perform additional work. Defendant states that at the time the disputed 2017 job had almost been completed, Plaintiff brought her boyfriend and cousin onto the worksite. According to Defendant, the boyfriend and cousin criticized the job, creating a work environment so toxic that the other subcontractors performing work walked off the job. Defendant asserts that the boyfriend and cousin deliberately created these toxic conditions, hoping that the subcontractors would leave so that they could take over the project and reap a financial windfall.

Summary of Papers Filed in Connection with Defendant's Motions to Compel Defendant moves to compel Plaintiff to respond to interrogatories to which Plaintiff objected. The disputed interrogatories seek information regarding Defendant's theory that the 2017 job was disrupted by the conspiracy allegedly orchestrated by Plaintiff's cousin and boyfriend, as well as information regarding the work Defendant performed for Plaintiff prior to 2017. Plaintiff objects to the interrogatories on the ground that they seek information outside the scope of the litigation and unlikely to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. Defendant asserts that the information sought through the interrogatories is relevant to his defense that the 2017 job was disrupted by the actions of Plaintiff's boyfriend and cousin.

Defendant also moves to compel Plaintiff to produce (1) documents relating to the 2017 remodeling work, (2) documents, photographs, or other communications evidencing Plaintiff's dissatisfaction with work performed by Defendant prior to 2017, (3) communications between Plaintiff and her boyfriend and cousin, and (4) documents evidencing work performed by other contractors on Plaintiff's residence in 2017. Plaintiff objects that the requests for production are vague, ambiguous, and overbroad, and seek information outside the scope of the litigation and unlikely to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. Defendant asserts that the documents are necessary to establish his defense that Plaintiff was satisfied with the work Defendant performed prior to 2017, and became dissatisfied with the 2017 work only because of the bad-faith interference of Plaintiff's cousin and boyfriend.

Plaintiff argues that both Motions to Compel should be denied, because Defendant failed to make a good-faith attempt to meet and confer with Plaintiff prior to filing the Motions, as required by Civil Rule 37(a)(1). According to Plaintiff, Defendant provided Plaintiff only two business days to respond to Defendant's multiple objections to Plaintiff's discovery responses.

Plaintiff further asserts that the interrogatories and requests for production that Defendant served were missing pages. Defendant denies that any pages were missing, and states that Plaintiff never sent Defendant a meet-and-confer letter complaining about missing pages.

Summary of Papers Filed in Connection with Plaintiff's Motion to Compel Defendant's Deposition

Plaintiff moves to compel Defendant's deposition, and requests that Defendant be sanctioned in the amount of $2,380.00 for failing to attend a properly noticed deposition. Plaintiff states that she initially noticed Defendant's deposition for July 19, 2018, and subsequently agreed to continue the deposition to July 30, 2018, to take place after mediation. Plaintiff states that on Sunday, July 29, 2018, at 5:02 p.m., Defendant e-mailed her and stated that he would not appear for the deposition. Plaintiff states that as a result of this late cancellation, she was unable to cancel a court recorder, and incurred fees in the amount of $350.00.

Defendant acknowledges that he failed to appear at the July 30, 2018 deposition. Defendant states that he did not feel comfortable attending the deposition without an attorney against the backdrop of the discovery dispute regarding Plaintiff's objections to Defendant's discovery requests. Defendant states that he is now seeking counsel, and requests a continuance of the trial date.

II. Findings and Conclusions

A. Defendant's Motions to Compel are Granted

As a preliminary matter, the Court notes that subsequent to the filing of the Motions, Plaintiff has verified her responses to Defendant's interrogatories and requests for production. Therefore, Defendant's request for an order compelling Plaintiff to verify her discovery responses is now moot.

Civil Rule 37(a)(1) provides: "On notice to other parties and all affected persons, a party may move for an order compelling disclosure or discovery. The motion must include a certification that the movant has in good faith conferred or attempted to confer with the person or party failing to make disclosure or discovery in an effort to obtain it without court action." Production of documents may be compelled if "a party fails to produce documents or fails to respond that inspection will be permitted—or fails to permit inspection—as requested under Rule 34." Civil Rule 37(a)(3)(B)(iv). For purposes of Civil Rule 37, "an evasive or incomplete disclosure, answer, or response must be treated as a failure to disclose, answer, or respond."

"Parties are permitted to discover any relevant nonprivileged matter. Fed.R.Civ.P. 26(b)(1). This rule is construed very broadly, encompassing 'any matter that bears on, or that reasonably could lead to other matter that could bear on, any issue that is or may be in the case.' Discovery is not limited to the issues raised only in the pleadings, but rather it is designed to define and clarify the issues." Miller v. Pancucci, 141 F.R.D. 292, 296 (C.D. Cal. 1992). "The party opposing discovery bears the burden of resisting disclosure." Rogers v. Giurbino, 288 F.R.D. 469, 478-79 (S.D. Cal. 2012).

For the reasons set forth below, the Court will order Plaintiff to respond to Defendant's interrogatories and requests for production. With respect to Defendant's attempts to meet and confer with Plaintiff to resolve the discovery dispute without Court action, the Court agrees with Plaintiff that, as a matter of professional courtesy, Defendant should have provided Plaintiff more than two business days to respond to the discovery dispute. However, that fact alone does not support denial of the Motions. The information sought by Defendant is relevant to the claims and defenses in this litigation, and Defendant is entitled to that information in order to prepare his defense.

Interrogatory No. 4

Interrogatory No. 4 provides: "State all jobs you paid defendants for before the 2017 job." Plaintiff asserts that Interrogatory No. 4 is vague and ambiguous because the term "2017 job" is not defined. Plaintiff further objects that Interrogatory No. 4 seeks information beyond the scope of the litigation, because Defendant's claim that he performed work for Plaintiff prior to 2017 has no bearing upon the disputed 2017 work that is the subject of this action.

Plaintiff's objections are overruled. First, within the context of this litigation, the term "2017 job" is not vague or ambiguous. Rather, "2017 job" clearly refers to the work performed in connection with the written agreement that Defendant allegedly entered into with Plaintiff on May 2, 2017. See Complaint at ¶5. Second, the information sought is not beyond the scope of the litigation. Defendant's theory is that Plaintiff had been satisfied with the quality of Defendant's work in the past, and that Plaintiff was dissatisfied with the 2017 work only because that project was sabotaged by Plaintiff's cousin and boyfriend. Information regarding work that Defendant performed for Plaintiff prior to 2017 is therefore relevant.

Interrogatory No. 5

Interrogatory No. 5 provides: "Identify any sub-contractors you paid for any work you had done to your home in 2017." Plaintiff asserts that Interrogatory No. 5 seeks information outside the scope of the litigation, because Defendant seeks information related to every repair or improvement on the property in 2017, not just those repairs related to the jobs that Defendant was contracted to perform.

Plaintiff's objection is overruled. The identity of other sub-contractors is relevant because such sub-contractors may be able to testify regarding the quality of the work performed by the Defendant during roughly the same time frame. Given that identifying all sub-contractors who performed work on the property in 2017 will not prove unduly burdensome for Plaintiff, the Court declines to limit the scope of the interrogatory to contractors who performed work directly related to the work Defendant performed. Even contractors who did not work on the same areas of the home as Defendant might have observations or information regarding Defendant's work. Limiting the scope of the interrogatory as requested by Plaintiff would also likely generate future disputes as to what repair jobs were related to the jobs that Defendant performed.

Plaintiff shall respond to Interrogatory No. 5.

Interrogatory Nos. 6–7

Interrogatory No. 6 provides: "Identify all contact information for your boyfriend Jeff." Interrogatory No. 7 provides: "Identify all contact information for the man you introduced to [Defendant] Darren Searle as your cousin during the 2017 job." Plaintiff asserts that Interrogatory Nos. 6–7 seek information outside the scope of the litigation, and further asserts that an appropriate protective order should be put in place to prevent Defendant from harassing people closely associated with Plaintiff.

Plaintiff's objections and request for a protective order are overruled. As noted, Defendant's theory is that Plaintiff had been satisfied with the quality of Defendant's work in the past, and that Plaintiff became dissatisfied with the 2017 work only after the project was sabotaged by Plaintiff's cousin and boyfriend. The identity of the cousin and boyfriend are therefore highly relevant to this litigation. There is no merit to Plaintiff's unsubstantiated allegation that Defendant is likely to harass Plaintiff's cousin or boyfriend.

Plaintiff shall respond to Interrogatory Nos. 6–7.

Interrogatory No. 22 provides: "Identify all subcontractors who you claim had to finish or repair defendant's work for the 2017 job." Plaintiff responded to Interrogatory No. 22 as follows: "No subcontractors were used. Plaintiff hired new contractors to repair and complete Defendant's defective work."

Defendant asserts that Plaintiff's response is evasive and in bad-faith, because the context makes clear that Defendant was seeking the identity of any person Plaintiff hired to complete repairs. Plaintiff contends that Defendant is now attempting to enlarge the scope of Interrogatory No. 22 to cover both contractors and subcontractors, which Plaintiff asserts is impermissible. Plaintiff cites Black's Law Dictionary, which defines a subcontractor as "one who is awarded a portion of an existing contract by a contractor." Plaintiff states that under this definition, she did not hire any subcontractors. Defendant retorts that even under the definition set forth in Black's Law Dictionary, Plaintiff's response is evasive. Defendant contends that as the owner-builder of her home, Plaintiff should be considered the contractor, and therefore that anyone Plaintiff hired to work on her home would automatically be deemed a subcontractor.

The Court finds that Plaintiff's response to Interrogatory No. 22 is evasive. Interrogatory No. 22 clearly seeks the identity of all individuals who performed repairs on the work that Defendant performed. That information is highly relevant, as it goes to the amount of damages. Plaintiff's attempt to avoid responding to Interrogatory No. 22 by deliberately misconstruing the interrogatory, and relying upon a hyper-technical definition of "subcontractor," was not in good faith. Plaintiff shall identify any individual or firm who performed construction work or repairs related to the work that Defendant performed in 2017.

Interrogatory Nos. 10–18

Plaintiff asserts that Interrogatory Nos. 10–18 were never served upon her; Defendant disputes this contention.

The Court declines to make any findings regarding whether Interrogatory Nos. 10–18 were served upon the Plaintiff. The interrogatories are now set forth in Defendant's Motion, so there can be no dispute that Plaintiff is aware of them. Further, there is no merit to Plaintiff's contention that Interrogatory Nos. 10–18 are duplicative. The Court finds that Interrogatory Nos. 10–18 seek relevant information likely to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence.

Plaintiff shall respond to Interrogatory Nos. 10–18.

Request for Production No. 3

Request for Production ("RFP") No. 3 seeks: "Your complete job file including any correspondence, contracts or agreements between you and defendant for construction work on your home at 26064 Regents Park Circle in Valencia for the 2017 job." Plaintiff asserts that RFP No. 3 seeks documents beyond the scope of this litigation.

Plaintiff's objection is overruled. Correspondence between Plaintiff and Defendant regarding the 2017 construction work that is the subject of this litigation is highly relevant. To the extent that they have not already been produced, Plaintiff shall produce all documents responsive to RFP No. 3.

RFP No. 5

RFP No. 6 seeks: "Any documents, photographs, e-mails and text messages between you and Stonecraft Masonry about your dissatisfaction with Stonecraft's work for all jobs Stonecraft did for you before the 2017 job." Plaintiff asserts that RFP No. 5 is vague because the term "2017 job" is not defined. Plaintiff further asserts that the request is beyond the scope of this litigation, on the ground that Defendant's claim that he conducted work for Plaintiff prior to 2017 is irrelevant to the 2017 work that is at issue. Finally, Plaintiff contends that the discovery is not proportional to the needs of the case.

Plaintiff's objections are overruled. First, within the context of this litigation, the term "2017 job" is not vague or ambiguous. Rather, "2017 job" clearly refers to the work performed in connection with the written agreement that Defendant allegedly entered into with Plaintiff on May 2, 2017. See Complaint at ¶5. Second, the information sought is not beyond the scope of the litigation. Defendant's theory is that Plaintiff had been satisfied with the quality of Defendant's work in the past, and that Plaintiff was dissatisfied with the 2017 work only because that project was sabotaged by Plaintiff's cousin and boyfriend. Information regarding work that Defendant performed for Plaintiff prior to 2017 is therefore relevant. Third, the discovery sought is proportional to the needs of the case. Defendant's primary theory is that Plaintiff's dissatisfaction with the 2017 work was the fault of Plaintiff's cousin and boyfriend. Evidence regarding Plaintiff's satisfaction with Defendant's work performed prior to 2017 is relevant to this theory.

To the extent that they have not already been produced, Plaintiff shall produce all documents responsive to RFP No. 5.

RFP No. 6

RFP No. 6 seeks: "Any documents including contracts, agreements, invoices, checks and correspondence between you and any other sub-contractor, craftsman, trade, vendor or supplier for any construction work you had done to your homes in 2017." Plaintiff asserts that RFP No. 6 seeks information beyond the scope of the litigation, because the request seeks documents pertaining to every repair made by Plaintiff and is not confined to the repairs that Defendant was contracted to perform.

Plaintiff's objection is overruled. Plaintiff alleges that she was required to spend $5,000 to repair damages caused by Defendant's allegedly incomplete work. Therefore, the amount Plaintiff paid other contractors is relevant. To the extent that they have not already been produced, Plaintiff shall produce all documents responsive to RFP No. 6.

RFP Nos. 8-9

RFP No. 8 seeks: "Any documents between you and your boyfriend Jeff, including any e-mails or text messages about the quality or the work Stonecraft did for you in 2017." RFP No. 9 seeks: "Any documents including any e-mails or text messages between you and the man you introduced to Darren Searle as your cousin about the work Stonecraft did for you in 2017." Plaintiff objects to RFP Nos. 8–9 on the ground that the discovery sought is not proportional to the needs of the case. Plaintiff objects to RFP No. 9 on the grounds that it does not identify the name of the recipient of the text message.

Plaintiff's objections are overruled. The discovery sought is proportional, because it is highly relevant to Defendant's primary theory that the 2017 job was sabotaged by Plaintiff's boyfriend and cousin. Plaintiff's objection to Defendant's failure to identify the name of the person identified as Plaintiff's cousin lacks merit. There is no indication that Plaintiff is unable to ascertain the identity of this person.

To the extent that they have not already been produced, Plaintiff shall produce all documents responsive to RFP No. 6.

RFP Nos. 15–23

Plaintiff asserts that RFP Nos. 15–23 were never served upon her; Defendant disputes this contention.

The Court declines to make any findings regarding whether RFP Nos. 15–23 were served upon the Plaintiff. The RFPs are now set forth in Defendant's Motion, so there can be no dispute that Plaintiff is aware of them.

The Court finds that RFP Nos. 15–23 seek relevant information likely to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. To the extent that they have not already been produced, Plaintiff shall produce all documents responsive to RFP Nos. 15–23, except that Plaintiff is not required to produce tax returns for the year 2017. The Court finds that Plaintiff's tax returns have only minimal relevance. However, Plaintiff is required to produce bank statements (which may be redacted to conceal confidential information) in response to RFP No. 23. Bank statements are relevant because they could establish the amount that Plaintiff paid to other contractors; those payments go to the issue of Plaintiff's damages.

Plaintiff shall respond to the interrogatories and requests for production by no later than September 7, 2018.

B. Plaintiff's Motion to Compel Defendant's Deposition is Granted

As set forth above, the Court may enter an order compelling a party to respond to discovery. Civil Rule 37(a)(1). Here, Plaintiff properly noticed Defendant's deposition, and Defendant failed to appear at the deposition. Plaintiff is entitled to depose Defendant. The Court will enter an order compelling Defendant to appear for his deposition.

Defendant states that he was not comfortable to appear for his deposition without an attorney. Absence of an attorney was not an acceptable reason for Defendant to refuse to appear at his deposition. This action has been pending since November 14, 2017. Defendant had ample opportunity to retain counsel.

Defendant states that he is now seeking to retain counsel. If Defendant wishes to retain counsel, he must do so by no later than September 7, 2018. Defendant must submit to a deposition on or before September 14, 2018. The September 14 deadline provides Defendant sufficient time to retain counsel, should he wish to do so.

C. The Court Declines to Award Sanctions to Either Plaintiff or Defendant

Civil Rule 37(a)(5)(A) provides that where a motion to compel discovery is granted, the "court must, after giving an opportunity to be heard, require the party or deponent whose conduct necessitated the motion, the party or attorney advising that conduct, or both to pay the movant's reasonable expenses incurred in making the motion, including attorney's fees." However, if any of the following three circumstances apply, the Court must not order the payment of expenses:

- i. The movant filed the motion before attempting in good faith to obtain the disclosure or discovery without court action;
- ii. The opposing party's nondisclosure, response, or objection was substantially justified; or
- iii. Other circumstances make an award of expenses unjust.

Civil Rule 37(a)(5)(A)(i)–(iii).

Here, both Plaintiff and Defendant have failed to comply with their discovery obligations. Defendant failed to appear for his deposition. Plaintiff asserted numerous objections to Defendant's interrogatories and requests for production which were not substantially justified. Because both parties have engaged in sanctionable conduct, an award of expenses to either party would be unjust.

D. The Court Sua Sponte Continues the Pretrial Conference and Trial Dates

A Pretrial Conference is set for September 11, 2018; trial is set for the week of September 24, 2018. To provide Defendant an opportunity to retain counsel, and to provide the parties time to complete discovery as ordered herein, the Court sua sponte continues the Pretrial Conference to November 13, 2018, at 11:00 a.m. Trial is continued to the week of November 26, 2018. The remaining litigation deadlines are continued as follows:

- 1) The deadline to disclose expert witnesses is September 21, 2018.

- 2) The deadline to disclose rebuttal expert witnesses is October 21, 2018.
- 3) The last day to complete discovery relating to expert witnesses (e.g., depositions of expert witnesses), including hearings on motions related to expert discovery, is October 29, 2018. (For contemplated hearings on motions related to expert discovery, it is counsel's responsibility to check the Judge's self-calendaring dates, posted on the Court's website. If the expert discovery cutoff date falls on a date when the court is closed or that is not available for self-calendaring, the deadline for hearings on expert discovery motions is the next closest date which is available for self-calendaring.)
- 4) The last day for dispositive motions to be heard is October 23, 2018. (If the motion cutoff date is not available for self-calendaring, the deadline for dispositive motions to be heard is the next closest date which is available for self-calendaring.)
- 5) The last day to complete discovery (except as to experts), including hearings on discovery motions, is October 29, 2018. (If the non-expert discovery cutoff date is not available for self-calendaring, the deadline for non-expert discovery motions to be heard is the next closest date which is available for self-calendaring.)
- 6) The Motion in Limine filed by the Defendant, currently set for September 11, 2018, shall be heard on November 13, 2018, at 11:00 a.m.—the date of the continued Pretrial Conference. Briefing deadlines shall be in accordance with the Local Bankruptcy Rules.
- 7) The Order Establishing Procedures for the Adjudication of Evidentiary Objections [Doc. No. 18] remains in effect; however, the deadlines set forth therein shall be calculated based on the November 13 Pretrial Conference.

III. Conclusion

For the reasons set forth above, Defendant's Motions to Compel are both GRANTED. Plaintiff's Motion to Compel Defendant's Deposition is GRANTED. The trial dates and corresponding litigation deadlines are modified as set forth above. The Court will prepare and enter appropriate orders.

Docket 79

Tentative Ruling:

8/22/2018

For the reasons set forth below, the Trustee's application seeking to employ a real estate broker is GRANTED in its entirety.

Pleadings Filed and Reviewed:

- 1) Chapter 7 Trustee's Notice of Application and Application to Employ Real Estate Broker and Enter into Exclusive Listing Agreement [Doc. No. 79] (the "Application")
- 2) Chapter 7 Trustee's Supplement in Support of Application to Employ Real Estate Broker and Enter into Exclusive Listing Agreement

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

The Chapter 7 Trustee seeks authorization to employ Coldwell Banker Residential Broker ("Coldwell Banker") through its agents, William Friedman and Lisa Ta (the "Broker") as his real estate broker, at the expense of the estate, for the purpose of marketing real property located at 359 W. Langston Street, Upland, California (the "Property"). See Chapter 7 Trustee's Notice of Application and Application to Employ Real Estate Broker and Enter into Exclusive Listing Agreement [Doc. No. 79] (the "Application").

On June 14, 2018, the Court entered final judgment (the "Judgment") in favor of the Trustee in an avoidance action. The Judgment ordered Ronald Peterson and two LLCs controlled by Ronald to turnover the Property to the Trustee by no later than July 6, 2018, at 5:00 p.m. After Ronald failed to turnover the Property, the Trustee obtained a Writ of Possession to enforce the Judgment. On August 10, 2018, the United States Marshal obtained possession of the Property, and the Property was turned over to the Trustee.

No Opposition to the Application is on file.

II. Findings and Conclusions

Section 327 authorizes the Trustee, with the Court's approval, to employ professionals to assist the Trustee in carrying out his duties under the Bankruptcy Code. The Property is an asset of the estate that the Trustee is required to liquidate. A broker is necessary to liquidate the Property. The Application is GRANTED in its entirety.

The Trustee shall submit a conforming order, incorporating this tentative ruling by reference, within seven days of the hearing.

No appearance is required if submitting on the court's tentative ruling. #7.00 TRIAL
RE: [6] Amended involuntary petition

fr. 4-10-18

Docket 6

 VACATED  REASON: PER ORDER ENTERED 8-3-18

Tentative Ruling:

4/9/2018

Tentative Ruling:

The litigation deadlines set forth below shall govern the trial on the involuntary petition.

Pleadings Filed and Reviewed:

- 1) Involuntary Petition Against a Non-Individual [Doc. No. 1]
 - a) Addendum to Involuntary Petition [Doc. No. 6]
 - b) Summons and Notice of Status Conference in an Involuntary Bankruptcy Case [Doc. No. 7]
 - i) Proof of Service of Summons and Notice of Status Conference [Doc. No. 9]
- 2) Answer and Affirmative Defenses of Raymond Express International, LLC to Involuntary Petition [Doc. No. 10]

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

On February 21, 2018, Korean Air Lines Co., Ltd., Asiana Airlines, Inc., and Sunjin Logistics Co., Ltd. (collectively, the "Petitioning Creditors") commenced this involuntary Chapter 7 petition against Raymond Express International, LLC (the "Alleged Debtor"). The Alleged Debtor is a logistics company that transports perishable goods requiring refrigeration. On March 16, 2018, the Alleged Debtor answered the involuntary petition. This hearing is a status conference on the involuntary petition.

Chapter 7

Section 303(b), which governs the commencement of an involuntary petition, provides in relevant part:

An involuntary case against a person is commenced by the filing with the bankruptcy court of a petition under chapter 7 or 11 of this title by three or more entities, each of which is either a holder of a claim against such person that is not contingent as to liability or the subject of a bona fide dispute as to liability or amount, ... if such noncontingent, undisputed claims aggregate at least $15,775 more than the value of any lien on property of the debtor securing such claims held by the holders of such claims.

Where a petition is timely controverted, the court must enter an order for relief against the alleged debtor if, after trial, the court determines that "the debtor is generally not paying such debtor's debts as such debts become due unless such debts are the subject of a bona fide dispute as to liability or amount." § 303(h).

During the period between the commencement of an involuntary petition and the issuance of an order for relief, the Alleged Debtor enjoys the protections of the automatic stay but is not required to comply with many of the obligations imposed upon Debtors who commence voluntary petitions. To minimize the length of this period of uncertainty, the Court's policy is to set compressed litigation deadlines governing the trial on the involuntary petition.

The following dates shall apply to this action:

- 1) The last day to amend pleadings and/or join other parties is 5/15/2018.
- 2) The last day to disclose expert witnesses and expert witness reports is 5/29/2018.
- 3) The last day to disclose rebuttal expert witnesses and rebuttal expert witness reports is 6/28/2018.
- 4) The last date to complete discovery relating to expert witnesses (e.g., depositions of expert witnesses), including hearings on motions related to expert discovery, is 7/17/2018. (For contemplated hearings on motions related to expert discovery, it is counsel's responsibility to check the Judge's self-calendaring dates, posted on the Court's website. If the expert discovery cutoff date falls on a date when the court is closed or that is not available for self-calendaring, the deadline for hearings on expert discovery motions is the next closest previous date which is available for self-calendaring.)

Submission via LOU allows the Court to edit the Joint Pretrial Stipulation, if necessary. Parties should consult the Court Manual, section 4, for information about LOU.
 - 8) Trial is set for the week of 8/27/2018. The trial day commences at 9:00 a.m. The exact date of the trial will be set at the Pretrial Conference. Consult the Court's website for the Judge's requirements regarding exhibit binders and trial briefs.

The Court FURTHER ORDERS that the matter shall be referred to the Mediation Panel. The parties shall meet and confer and select a Mediator from this District's Mediation Panel. Petitioning Creditors will lodge a completed "Request for Assignment to Mediation Program; [Proposed] Order Thereon" (See Amended General Order 95-01 available on the Court's website) within 15 days from the date of this hearing, and deliver a hard copy directly to chambers c/o the judge's law clerk Daniel Koontz.

No appearance is required if submitting on the court's tentative ruling. If you intend to submit on the tentative ruling, please contact Cameron Schlager or Daniel Koontz at 213-894-1522. If you intend to contest the tentative ruling and appear, please first contact opposing counsel to inform them of your intention to do so. Should an opposing party file a late opposition or appear at the hearing, the court will determine whether further hearing is required. If you wish to make a telephonic appearance, contact Court Call at 888-882-6878, no later than one hour before the hearing.

fr. 6-25-18

Docket 70

Tentative Ruling:

No appearances required. For the reasons set forth below, the hearing is VACATED as moot.

On August 15, 2018 at 11:00 a.m., the Court held a hearing on the Trustee's "Amended Motion for Order: (1) Authorizing Sale of Real Property Free and Clear of Liens, Claims, and Interests Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 363(b) and (f); (2) Approving Overbid Procedures; (3) Approving Buyer, Successful Bidder, and Back-Up Bidder As Good Faith Purchaser Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 363(m); and (4) Authorizing Payment of Undisputed Liens, Real Estate Broker's Commissions and Other Ordinary Costs of Sale" (the "Sale Motion") [Doc. No. 104]. The Court adopted the tentative ruling as its final ruling [Doc. No. 114], which ruling granted the Sale Motion and authorized the sale of the property known as 1806 S. Chapel Avenue, Alhambra, CA 91801.

Thus, in light of the sale of the property that is the subject of the instant Motion for Relief From Stay, the Motion is moot.

Docket 8

Tentative Ruling:

8/23/2018

Tentative Ruling:

This Motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on the notice required by LBR 4001(c)(1) and LBR 9013-1(d)(2). The failure of the Debtor, the trustee, and all other parties in interest to file written opposition at least 14 days prior to the hearing as required by LBR 9013-1(f) is considered as consent to the granting of the Motion. LBR 9013-1(h). Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995).

The Motion is GRANTED pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(2) to permit Movant, its successors, transferees and assigns, to enforce its remedies to repossess or otherwise obtain possession and dispose of its collateral pursuant to applicable law, and to use the proceeds from its disposition to satisfy its claim. Movant may not pursue any deficiency claim against the Debtor or property of the estate except by filing a proof of claim pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 501. The Court finds that there is no equity in the subject vehicle and that the vehicle is not necessary for an effective reorganization since this is a chapter 7 case.

This order shall be binding and effective despite any conversion of the bankruptcy case to a case under any other chapter of Title 11 of the United States Code. The 14-day stay prescribed by FRBP 4001(a)(3) is waived. All other relief is denied.

Movant shall upload an appropriate order via the Court's Lodged Order Upload system within 7 days of the hearing.

Chapter 7

Factual Background

The property at issue consists of two adjacent apartment buildings located at 2936 North Loma Avenue and 2935 North Mountain Avenue, San Bernardino, CA (the "Property"). The Creditor is the holder of the second and third deeds of trust secured by the Property.

In 2015, the Property was sold to Neram Village, Inc. ("Neram"). "Declaration of Joseph G. McCarty" (the "McCarty Decl.") [Doc. No. 9] at ¶ 4. As part of the sale transaction, the Creditor received two notes and deeds of trust: (1) the second deed of trust, in the original principal amount of $3,432,154.81, which was an All Inclusive Trust Deed ("AITD") wrapping around the first deed of trust from East West Bank; and (2) the third deed of trust in the original principal amount of $1,123,845.18 (the indebtedness secured by such deeds of trust collectively, the "Loans"). Id. at ¶ 3. Subsequently, and without notifying the Creditor, Neram encumbered the Property with a fourth deed of trust and fifth deed of trust. Id. at ¶ 4. The Debtor was the beneficiary of the fifth deed of trust. Id. On April 12, 2016, after Neram had failed to make payments to the Creditor, the Creditor commenced a judicial foreclosure action in the California Superior Court (the "State Court"). Id. at ¶ 5. The State Court appointed Eloisa Fernandez as receiver (the "Original Receiver"). Id. The Original Receiver made certain necessary repairs to the Property and Creditor advanced funds to pay for the repairs and other expenses of the Property. Id. at ¶ 6.

On June 12, 2017, the Debtor commenced in the State Court a foreclosure action on its fifth deed of trust, and moved to remove the Original Receiver. Id. at ¶ 7. The Creditor opposed the Debtor's motion and proposed that Matthew Taylor take over as receiver. Id. On June 19, 2017, the State Court entered an order appointing Mr. Taylor as receiver (the "Receiver"). Id.; see also id., Exhibit 1 (the State Court Order). Over the objection of the Debtor to the discharge of the Original Receiver and to the amount paid for repairs, the State Court discharged the Original Receiver. Id. at ¶ 8. The Debtor subsequently filed a cross-complaint which contests the advances for the repairs and the expenses of the Property. Id. at ¶ 9. The Debtor's cross-complaint is still pending.

On August 22, 2018, the Court held a hearing on, among other motions, the Debtor's "Motion to Convert Case under 11 U.S.C. § 706(a)" (the "Motion to Convert") [Doc. No. 17], and the "Motion for Entry of Order Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 543(d)(1) Maintaining Receiver Matthew Taylor as Custodian in Possession and Control of Real Estate of Debtor and Excusing Custodian from Compliance with 11 U.S.C. §§ 543(a) and (b)" (the "Receiver Motion") [Doc. No. 8]. After considering the Motion to Convert and the Receiver Motion, the related papers, and the arguments raised by counsel for the respective parties at the hearing, the Court denied both the Motion to Convert and the Receiver Motion. See Doc. No. 75 (the Court's final ruling after hearing); "Order Denying Motion to Convert" [Doc. No. 77]. Furthermore, the Court ordered the Receiver to turn over all property of the estate under the Receiver's control to the Trustee. Doc. No. 75.

The Motion

On August 13, 2018, Luis Munoz, and N. Loma and N. Mountain Ave. Properties, LLC, (collectively, the "Movant" or the "Creditor") filed the "Notice of Motion and Motion for Relief from the Automatic Stay Under 11 U.S.C. § 362" (Real Property) (the "Motion") [Doc. No. 65]. The Motion seeks relief from the automatic stay under §§ 362(d)(1) and (d)(2) with respect to the Property.

The Movant contends that "cause" exists for relief from the stay under § 362(d)(1) because: (1) the Movant's interest in the Property is not adequately protected by an equity cushion; and (2) the bankruptcy case was filed in bad faith, based on the fact that the Movant is the only creditor, or one of very few creditors, listed or scheduled in the Debtor's case commencement documents; and (3) for other cause. Motion at ¶ 4(a). The Motion additionally requests relief from stay pursuant to § 362(d)(2) because, pursuant to § 362(d)(2)(A), the Debtor has no equity in the Property, and pursuant to § 362(d)(2)(B), the Property is not necessary to an effective reorganization. Id. at ¶ 4(b).

The Motion includes an appraisal of the Property by CBRE Valuation and Advisory Services dated August 6, 2018 (the "CBRE Appraisal") [Doc. No. 65, Ex. D]. According to the CBRE Appraisal, the fair market value of the Property is $5,900,000.00. According to the Movant, the Property is encumbered by a First Deed of Trust in favor of East West Bank, a Second Deed of Trust in favor of the Movant, Luis Munoz, in the amount of $4,422,564.00 (amount of Second Deed of Trust included as a wrap-around with the First Deed of Trust), a Third Deed of Trust in favor of the Movant, Luis Munoz, in the amount of $1,386,488.00, and a Fourth Deed of Trust in favor of Hahn Tran in the amount of $250,000.00. "Real Property Declaration of Luis Munoz" (the "Munoz Decl.") [Doc. No. 65] at ¶ 8. The Movant alleges that the total amount of its claim with respect to the Property is $5,894,948.83. Id. at ¶ 8. In sum, the Movant alleges that the amount of the total debt against the Property is $6,062,450.00. Id. at ¶ 11(e). Based on these amounts, the Movant contends that the Movant is not adequately protected by an equity cushion in the Property, and that there is no equity in the Property.

With respect to the Movant's argument that there is "cause" for relief from stay under § 362(d)(1) because the Petition was filed in bad faith, the Movant contends that the Debtor is attempting to abuse the bankruptcy process in order to further delay the Creditor's foreclosure on the Property, and that the Debtor's schedules are inaccurate and incomplete. The Movant argues that the Debtor's "Amended Schedule A/B" [Doc. No. 38] does not correct the deficiencies in the Debtor's original Schedules, and the addition of substantial assets that were not disclosed in the Petition suggest that the Amended Schedule A/B is not real, but rather another attempt to delay the pending foreclosure proceedings.

Lastly, the Motion requests that if the Court is inclined not to grant relief from stay, that the Court order the Debtor to make monthly adequate protection payments on the Movant's secured loans in the amount of $17,281.85 on the Second Deed of Trust wrap-around, and $6,020.00 on the Third Deed of Trust.

The Debtor's Opposition

On August 21, 2018, the Debtor filed the "Debtor's Opposition to the [Motion]" (the "Debtor Opposition") [Doc. No. 74]. The Opposition contends, among other things, that (1) the Movant's interest is protected by an adequate equity cushion, and that there is equity in the Property, and (2) the Petition was filed in good faith.

The Debtor submits an appraisal of the Property by Cushman & Wakefield Western, Inc., dated August 10, 2018 (the "Cushman Appraisal") [Doc. No. 74, Ex. A]. According to the Cushman Appraisal, the fair market value of the Property is $6,850,000.00. The Opposition asserts that Movant inflates the total indebtedness against the Property. The Debtor contends that the total debt against the Property, some of which the Debtor disputes, is $5,282,141.00. The Debtor contends that the Movant's claim includes inflated attorney's fees, and the Debtor additionally disputes the amounts the Movant claims that it spent to repair the Property. Thus, based on the Debtor's calculations there is gross equity in the Property in the amount of $1,567,859.00. Based on the Debtor's figures regarding indebtedness and the Cushman Appraisal submitted by the Debtor, there is $787,550.00 in gross equity. The Opposition further argues that the Movant inflates the balances for the First Deed of Trust and the Second Deed of Trust by failing to credit certain payments made on the First Deed of Trust, and based on the Loan Statements for the respective loans, see Debtor Opposition at Ex's. D and E. If the balances are adjusted accordingly, the amount of gross equity available is further increased.

The Debtor additionally argues that the Petition was not filed in bad faith, and that the Movant seeks to gain a cash windfall through Chapter 7. The Opposition further states that the Debtor has never had management control of the Property because the Property has been continuously managed by the respective receivers.

The Trustee's Opposition

On August 23, 2018, the Trustee filed the "Trustee's Opposition to the [Motion]" (the "Trustee Opposition") [Doc. No. 76]. The Trustee requests that the Motion be denied, or in the alternative, that the hearing on the Motion be continued for not less than 30 days to afford the Trustee an opportunity to determine whether there is any equity in the Property, and to evaluate the Movant's claim and lien against the Property. The Trustee explains that, in light of the Court's ruling denying the Motion to Convert on August 22, 2018, the Trustee has not had time to thoroughly review the Motion and the records of the Receiver and the Debtor, to determine whether there is any equity in the Property, or to evaluate the Movant's alleged secured claim and lien on the Property.

The Debtor's Supplemental Opposition

On August 27, 2018, the Debtor filed the "Supplemental Opposition to the Motion" (the "Supplemental Opposition") [Doc. No. 82]. The Supplemental Opposition contends: (1) the Debtor's Appraisal reveals that there is substantial equity in the Property, and that a Chapter 11 case is in prospect; (2) the Creditor opposes conversion to Chapter 11 in order to obtain a huge cash windfall through Chapter 7; (3) the Creditor's claimed loan balances are improperly inflated, and Chapter 11 is the most appropriate means to determine the loan balances; (4) the Chapter 7 Trustee does not oppose conversion to Chapter 11; and (5) the case is appropriate for immediate conversion to Chapter 11. The Supplemental Opposition includes evidence of a payoff statement provided to the Debtor by East West Bank for the First Deed of Trust, which conflicts with the payoff amount asserted by the Creditor.

To the extent the Supplemental Opposition raises arguments that are not relevant to the instant Motion, specifically those related to converting the case to Chapter 11, the Court will not consider such arguments in connection with the Motion at bar. To the extent the Supplemental Opposition raises arguments that are related to the Motion before the Court, the Court will consider such arguments at the continued hearing.

The Reply to the Oppositions

On August 28, 2018, the Creditor filed the "Reply to the Oppositions to [the Motion]" (the "Reply") [Doc. No. 84]. The Reply argues that cause exists for relief from stay and that the Appraisals confirm a lack of equity in the Property. Furthermore, the Reply contends that the Debtor's Opposition confirms that the Debtor is attempting to use this bankruptcy case to relitigate issues which have already been determined by the State Court. The Creditor states that the amounts listed in the Motion as being owed on the Creditor's loans are the correct amounts, and the Creditor submits spreadsheets in support of the amounts owing as Exhibits "1-3" attached to the "Declaration of Robert Yaspan" (the "Yaspan Decl.") [Doc. No. 84]. The Reply additionally argues that the Debtor's bankruptcy was filed in bad faith.

With respect to the request by the Trustee in the Trustee's Opposition, the Creditor contends that the Trustee has had adequate time to evaluate the Estate's assets, and that any further delay will prejudice the Creditor. The Creditor has continued to make payments on the First Deed of Trust to prevent foreclosure, and to maintain the status quo. Specifically, the Creditor has made monthly payments on the First Deed of Trust of $17,281.86 in June, July, and August, with the September payment coming due on September 15, 2018. To the extent the Court is inclined to do anything other than grant relief from stay, the Creditor requests that the Court order that monthly adequate protection payments be made to the Creditor in the amount of payments due on the First, Second, and Third Deeds of Trust, which total $23,301.85 per month, from the

II. Findings and Conclusions

For the purposes of granting the Trustee's request for a continuance only, the court finds that there is equity in the subject property sufficient for the purpose of adequately protecting Creditor for the limited period of time until the continued hearing.

Based on the foregoing, the hearing on the Motion is CONTINUED to October 15, 2018 at 10:00 a.m. The deadline for the parties to file any supplemental briefing is no later than 10-days before the continued hearing, i.e. October 5, 2018. Any supplemental briefing shall be limited to responding to the arguments raised in the Motion for Relief from Stay.

The Trustee shall lodge a conforming order within seven (7) days of the hearing.

Tentative Ruling:

9/4/2018

The Judgment Debtor's Claim of Exemption is GRANTED IN PART and DENIED IN PART. The Judgment Debtor shall be permitted to garnish $400 per month of the Judgment Debtor's wages.

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

On January 10, 2011, the Court entered judgment in favor of NuVision Federal Credit Union ("Judgment Creditor") and against Magda Angela Eslabon Catipon ("Judgment Debtor") in the amount of $17,886.21, plus costs in the amount of $250.00. See Doc. No. 11 (the "Judgment").

Judgment Creditor has attempted to garnish Judgment Debtor's wages in order to enforce the Judgment. Judgment Debtor has claimed an exemption in her wages in an attempt to defeat the wage garnishment. Judgment Debtor states that she can afford to pay no more than $50 per pay period on account of the Judgment. Judgment Debtor states that her base rate of pay is $21.56 per hour, and that her gross monthly pay is approximately $3,800 per month. Judgment Debtor states that her monthly living expenses are as follows:

- 1) $400 for food, household supplies, cleaning supplies, and home maintenance supplies.
- 2) $100 for clothing.
- 3) $150 for entertainment (cable, internet, newspapers, haircuts and nail polishes, and movies).
- 4) $100 for laundry (using a nearby coin-operated laundry).
- 5) $400 remittance to paralyzed brother who cares for three children, aged 9, 16, and 17.
- 6) $70 levied for taxes.
- 7) $402 for automobile payments, $181.25 for auto insurance, and $300 for gasoline, registration, and repair and maintenance.
- 8) $1500 for rent.

Judgment Creditor states that Judgment Debtor can reduce her expenses. Judgment Creditor notes that the Judgment Debtor is paying over $400 per month for a luxury SUV, an Infiniti QX50, which was leased on May 6, 2017. Judgment Creditor argues that Judgment Debtor can also reduce her expenses for entertainment by at least $75 per month. Finally, Judgment Creditor asserts that Judgment Debtor's remittances to her disabled family member are not entitled to priority over the judgment.

II. Findings and Conclusions

Under California law, all property of a judgment debtor is "subject to enforcement of a money judgment" unless an exemption applies. California Code of Civil Procedure ("CCP") § 695.010(a). CCP § 706.051 provides that "the portion of the judgment debtor's earnings that the judgment debtor proves is necessary for the support of the judgment debtor ... is exempt from levy under this chapter." In determining the amounts that are necessary for support of the judgment debtor, the Court notes that the "exemption laws are designed to facilitate the debtor's financial rehabilitation and have the effect of shifting social welfare costs from the community to judgment creditors.... Consequently, the exemption statutes should be construed, so far as practicable, to the benefit of the judgment debtor." Ford Motor Credit Co. v. Waters, 83 Cal. Rptr. 3d 826, 830 (Cal. App. Dep't Super. Ct. 2008).

Here, the Judgment Debtor is spending approximately $880 per month to lease and operate a luxury SUV, an Infiniti QX50. Such an expensive vehicle is not necessary for the Judgment Debtor's support. The Court finds that the Judgment Debtor is entitled to exempt only $480 per month for vehicle ownership and operating expenses. This amount is more than sufficient to enable the Judgment Debtor to have access to an economy vehicle, and will allow the Judgment Creditor to levy upon $400 per month of the Judgment Debtor's wages.

The Court does not find it appropriate to require the Judgment Debtor to reduce her remittances to her brother. Although under a strict construction of the statute, such expenses are not necessary for the Judgment Debtor's support, the remittances are akin to a charitable contribution that, under the circumstances, the Court believes should remain exempt from levy. Further, it appears that payments to the brother in exchange for childcare services allow the Judgment Debtor to remain gainfully employed. In sum, Judgment Creditor's levy of $400 per month will allow the Judgment Creditor to be repaid upon the Judgment within a reasonable amount of time.

Based upon the foregoing, all but $400 per month of the Judgment Debtor's wages are exempt from levy. The Judgment Creditor is entitled to garnish $400 per month to satisfy the Judgment.

The Judgment Creditor shall submit an order, incorporating this tentative ruling by reference, within seven days of the hearing.

No appearance is required if submitting on the court's tentative ruling. I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

A. Background [Note 1]

Liberty Asset Management Corporation ("Liberty") commenced a voluntary Chapter 11 petition on March 21, 2016. From March 21, 2016 to January 29, 2017, the Hon. Thomas B. Donovan presided over this case. On January 30, 2017, the case was reassigned to the undersigned Judge. Doc. No. 325.

Liberty was a real estate investment company that bought and sold real property using a combination of its own cash, cash from investors, and bank loans. Real property acquired by Liberty was not titled in the name of Liberty or its investors, but instead was purchased in the name of various limited liability companies. At all times since its formation, Benjamin Kirk was Liberty's President, CEO, CFO, and sole shareholder. Mr. Kirk's primary role was soliciting investors for Liberty and identifying real properties for purchase and sale.

B. The Claims Bar Date

On August 12, 2016, the Court issued an order setting October 30, 2016, as the deadline to file proofs of general unsecured claims. Doc. No. 178. On August 19, 2016, Liberty's Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (the "Committee") provided notice of the claims bar date to all known creditors. Doc. No. 186.

C. Claim 30-2, Asserted by Great Vista Real Estate Corporation

On October 29, 2016, Tsai Luan Ho aka Shelby Ho filed Proof of Claim No. 30-2 ("Claim 30") on behalf of her wholly-controlled entity Great Vista Real Estate Corporation ("Great Vista"). Claim 30 seeks a recovery of "$450,000 advanced; $200,00[0] indemnity claim for attorney's fees and costs incurred in two lawsuits." Great Vista was Ms. Ho's real estate brokerage company.

D. Summary of the Plan Administrator's Objection to Claim 30, Great Vista's Opposition to the Claim Objection, and the Plan Administrator's Reply in Support of the Claim Objection

The Plan Administrator asserts that Claim 30 must be disallowed for the following reasons:

- 1) Great Vista seeks recovery of $450,000 under a purported investment agreement dated September 2, 2010, which was subject to a written Settlement Agreement dated September 2, 2011. The Settlement Agreement required payment more than four years prior to the Petition Date. Because the statute of limitations for breach of a written contract in California is four years, Claim 30 is time-barred.
- 2) In support of its claim for $200,000 in attorneys' fees, Great Vista attaches to Claim 30 the Great Vista Note, dated September 22, 2014. The Great Vista Note requires Liberty to pay $200,000 to Great Vista. Ms. Ho could recall only limited information about the Great Vista Note. She could not remember whether the indebtedness represented by the Great Vista Note had been loaned by her or her friend.
- 3) Great Vista filed a Chapter 11 petition for bankruptcy on January 10, 2018. Great Vista did not schedule Liberty as a creditor, and did not schedule Claim 30 among its assets. Having failed to schedule Claim 30 as an asset, Great Vista cannot now take a contrary position and assert it is owed the amounts set forth in Claim 30.

Chapter 11

Great Vista asserts that Claim 30 is valid for the following reasons:

- 1) The Plan Administrator has failed to demonstrate that the Settlement Agreement giving rise to Claim 30 is invalid. The mere fact that Ms. Ho could recall only limited information about Claim 30 does not defeat the valid documentation supporting the claim.

In Reply to Great Vista's Opposition, the Plan Administrator makes the following arguments:

- 1) Great Vista has failed to respond to the Plan Administrator's core arguments. First, Great Vista has not responded to the Plan Administrator's contention that the $450,000 claimed in connection with the Settlement Agreement is time-barred. Second, Great Vista has not responded to the Plan Administrator's argument that the $200,000 Great Vista Note is a sham because it was not scheduled in Great Vista's Chapter 11 petition.

II. Findings and Conclusions

Under Bankruptcy Rule 3001(f), a proof of claim executed and filed in accordance with the Bankruptcy Rules constitutes prima facie evidence of the validity and amount of the claim. To overcome the presumption of validity created by a timely-filed proof of claim, an objecting party must do one of the following: (1) object based on legal grounds and provide a memorandum of points and authorities setting forth the legal basis for the objection; or (2) object based on a factual ground and provide sufficient evidence (usually in the form of declarations under penalty of perjury) to create triable issues of fact. Durkin v. Bendor Corp. (In re G.I. Indus., Inc.), 204 F.3d 1276, 1280 (9th Cir. BAP 2000); United States v. Offord Finance, Inc. (In re Medina), 205 B.R. 216, 222 (9th Cir. BAP 1996); Hemingway Transport, Inc. v. Kahn (In re Hemingway Transport, Inc.), 993 F.2d 915, 925 (1st Cir. 1993). Upon objection, a proof of claim provides "some evidence as to its validity and amount" and is "strong enough to carry over a mere formal objection without more." See Lundell v. Anchor Constr. Spec., Inc., 223 F.3d 1035, 1039 (9th Cir. 2000) (citing Wright v. Holm (In re Holm), 931 F.2d 620, 623 (9th Cir. 1991)). An objecting party bears the burden and must "show facts tending to defeat the claim by probative force equal to that of the allegations of the proofs of claim themselves." Holm, 931 F.2d at 623. When the objector has shown enough evidence to negate one or more facts in the proof of claim, the burden shifts back to the claimant to prove the validity of the claim by a preponderance of evidence. See Lundell, 223 F.3d at 1039 (citation omitted).

Section 502 requires the Court to disallow a claim that "is unenforceable against the debtor and the property of the debtor, under any agreement or applicable law for a reason other than because such claim is contingent or unmatured."

Here, the $450,000 portion of Claim 30 arising in connection with the Settlement Agreement is not enforceable under California law because it is time barred. Cal. Code Civ. Proc. §337(1) provides that an action to recover for breach of a written contract must be commenced within four years. The Settlement Agreement is dated September 2, 2011. Great Vista has supplied no evidence indicating that it took any action to enforce the Settlement Agreement prior to September 2, 2015.

The $200,000 portion of Claim 30 arising in connection with the Great Vista Note is disallowed because Great Vista has failed to demonstrate that the Great Vista Note is a legitimate obligation of Liberty. Great Vista failed to schedule the Great Vista Note in its own Chapter 11 petition, suggesting that the obligation was not valid. Great Vista has failed to supply sufficient evidence attesting to the validity of the obligation given Great Vista's contrary representations in its own Chapter 11 case.

Based upon the foregoing, the Claim Objection is SUSTAINED and Claim 30 is DISALLOWED in its entirety. The Plan Administrator shall submit a conforming order, incorporating this tentative ruling by reference, within seven days of the hearing.

#6.00 Hearing re [689] Plan Administrator's Objection To Claim Number 38 Filed By Hopkins & Carley, ALC

Docket 0

Tentative Ruling:

9/4/2018

For the reasons set forth below, the Plan Administrator's Claim Objection is SUSTAINED, and Claim No. 38 is DISALLOWED in its entirety.

Pleadings Filed and Reviewed:

- 1) Plan Administrator's Objection to Claim Number 38 Filed by Hopkins & Carley, ALC [Doc. No. 689] (the "Claim Objection")
 - a) Notice of Objection to Claim [Doc. No. 690]
- 2) No Opposition to the Claim Objection is on file

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

A. Background [Note 1]

Liberty Asset Management Corporation ("Liberty") commenced a voluntary Chapter 11 petition on March 21, 2016. From March 21, 2016 to January 29, 2017, the Hon. Thomas B. Donovan presided over this case. On January 30, 2017, the case was reassigned to the undersigned Judge. Doc. No. 325.

Liberty was a real estate investment company that bought and sold real property using a combination of its own cash, cash from investors, and bank loans. Real property acquired by Liberty was not titled in the name of Liberty or its investors, but instead was purchased in the name of various limited liability companies. At all times since its formation, Benjamin Kirk was Liberty's President, CEO, CFO, and sole shareholder. Mr. Kirk's primary role was soliciting investors for Liberty and identifying real properties for purchase and sale.

B. The Claims Bar Date

On August 12, 2016, the Court issued an order setting October 30, 2016, as the deadline to file proofs of general unsecured claims. Doc. No. 178. On August 19, 2016, Liberty's Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (the "Committee") provided notice of the claims bar date to all known creditors. Doc. No. 186.

C. Claim 38-1, Asserted by Hopkins & Carley

On October 16, 2017, Hopkins & Carley filed Claim No. 38-1 ("Claim 38"). Claim 38 seeks $59,258.76 and is based upon an arbitration award against Lucy Gao personally; Liberty is not referenced in the award.

D. Summary of the Plan Administrator's Objection to Claim 38

The Plan Administrator asserts that Claim 38 must be disallowed for the following reasons:

- 1) Claim 38 is based on an arbitration award against Lucy Gao. Liberty is not the obligor and is not referenced anywhere within the arbitration award.
- 2) Claim 38 was filed one year after the Claims Bar Date. Hopkins & Carley was not provided notice of the Claims Bar Date because it is not a creditor of Liberty.

No opposition to the Claim Objection is on file.

II. Findings and Conclusions

Under Bankruptcy Rule 3001(f), a proof of claim executed and filed in accordance with the Bankruptcy Rules constitutes prima facie evidence of the validity and amount of the claim. To overcome the presumption of validity created by a timely-filed proof of claim, an objecting party must do one of the following: (1) object based on legal grounds and provide a memorandum of points and authorities setting forth the legal basis for the objection; or (2) object based on a factual ground and provide sufficient evidence (usually in the form of declarations under penalty of perjury) to create triable issues of fact. Durkin v. Benedor Corp. (In re G.I. Indus., Inc.), 204 F.3d 1276, 1280 (9th Cir. BAP 2000); United States v. Offord Finance, Inc. (In re Medina), 205 B.R. 216, 222 (9th Cir. BAP 1996); Hemingway Transport, Inc. v. Kahn (In re Hemingway Transport, Inc.), 993 F.2d 915, 925 (1st Cir. 1993). Upon objection, a proof of claim provides "some evidence as to its validity and amount" and is "strong enough to carry over a mere formal objection without more." See Lundell v. Anchor Constr. Spec., Inc., 223 F.3d 1035, 1039 (9th Cir. 2000) (citing Wright v. Holm (In re Holm), 931 F.2d 620, 623 (9th Cir. 1991)). An objecting party bears the burden and must "show facts tending to defeat the claim by probative force equal to that of the allegations of the proofs of claim themselves." Holm, 931 F.2d at 623. When the objector has shown enough evidence to negate one or more facts in the proof of claim, the burden shifts back to the claimant to prove the validity of the claim by a preponderance of evidence. See Lundell, 223 F.3d at 1039 (citation omitted).

Section 502 requires the Court to disallow a claim that "is unenforceable against the debtor and the property of the debtor, under any agreement or applicable law for a reason other than because such claim is contingent or unmatured."

Here, Claim 38 is unenforceable against Liberty because it is based upon an arbitration award against Lucy Gao. Nothing within the arbitration award establishes Liberty's liability.

Based upon the foregoing, the Claim Objection is SUSTAINED and Claim 38 is DISALLOWED in its entirety. The Plan Administrator shall submit a conforming order, incorporating this tentative ruling by reference, within seven days of the hearing.

No appearance is required if submitting on the court's tentative ruling. If you intend to submit on the tentative ruling, please contact Jessica Vogel or Daniel Koontz at 213-894-1522. If you intend to contest the tentative ruling and appear, please first contact opposing counsel to inform them of your intention to do so. Should an opposing party file a late opposition or appear at the hearing, the court will determine whether further hearing is required. If you wish to make a telephonic appearance, contact Court Call at 888-882-6878, no later than one hour before the hearing.

Note 1

Unless otherwise indicated, the Court made the findings set forth in Section A in its Memorandum of Decision Finding that Plaintiff is Entitled to Judgment Against Defendants in the Amount of $74,140,695.29 [Doc. No. 141, Adv. No. 2:16-ap-01337-ER] (the "Memorandum of Decision"). The Memorandum of Decision was entered on December 29, 2017, in the related adversary proceeding captioned *Official Unsecured Creditors Committee for Liberty Asset Management Corporation v. #7.00 Hearing re [687] re Plan Administrator's Objection To Claim Number 8 Filed By Wynne Partners Development, Inc.

Docket 0

Tentative Ruling:

9/4/2018

For the reasons set forth below, the Plan Administrator's Claim Objection is SUSTAINED, and Claim No. 8 is DISALLOWED in its entirety.

Pleadings Filed and Reviewed:

- 1) Plan Administrator's Objection to Claim Number 8 Filed by Wynne Partners Development, Inc. [Doc. No. 687] (the "Claim Objection")

deadline to file proofs of general unsecured claims. Doc. No. 178. On August 19, 2016, Liberty's Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (the "Committee") provided notice of the claims bar date to all known creditors. Doc. No. 186.

C. Claim 8-1, Asserted by Wynne Partners Development, Inc.

On August 25, 2016, Wynne Partners Development, Inc. ("Wynne") filed Claim No. 8-1 ("Claim 8"). Wynne asserts $600,000 for "liability for claims asserted by Country Club Villas HOA." There are no attachments to Claim 8 and there is no description of the basis for the alleged liability.

D. Summary of the Plan Administrator's Objection to Claim 8

The Plan Administrator asserts that Claim 8 must be disallowed for the following reasons:

- 1) Prior to confirmation of the Plan, the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors to Liberty (the "Committee") contacted Wynne for more information about Claim 8, but received no response. Accordingly, the Plan Administrator disputes any liability to Wynne. Claim 8 should be disallowed because Liberty has no record of obligations owed to Wynne for claims asserted by Country Club Villas HOA. Claim 8 does not attach any information, such as a demand or complaint, reflecting the liability alleged. Further, Claim 8 does not describe any connection between Liberty and the Country Club Villas HOA or any connection between Liberty and Wynne.

No opposition to the Claim Objection is on file.

Section 502 requires the Court to disallow a claim that "is unenforceable against the debtor and the property of the debtor, under any agreement or applicable law for a reason other than because such claim is contingent or unmatured."

Here, Claim 8 is unenforceable against Liberty because Wynne has failed to provide any evidence corroborating the validity of the indebtedness alleged, and Claim 8 contains no evidence substantiating the alleged indebtedness. Because Wynne has failed to establish the validity of its claim by a preponderance of the evidence, the Claim Objection is SUSTAINED and Claim 8 is DISALLOWED in its entirety.

shareholder. Mr. Kirk's primary role was soliciting investors for Liberty and identifying real properties for purchase and sale.

B. The Claims Bar Date

On August 12, 2016, the Court issued an order setting October 30, 2016, as the deadline to file proofs of general unsecured claims. Doc. No. 178. On August 19, 2016, Liberty's Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (the "Committee") provided notice of the claims bar date to all known creditors. Doc. No. 186.

C. Claim 12, Asserted by Lucy Gao

On October 5, 2016, Lucy Gao filed Claim No. 12-1 ("Claim 12"), asserting a general unsecured claim in the amount of $2.5 million for "funds advanced to Debtor various purposes—money loaned."

D. Summary of the Plan Administrator's Objection to Claim 12, Lucy Gao's Opposition to the Claim Objection, and the Plan Administrator's Reply in Support of the Claim Objection

The Plan Administrator asserts that Claim 12 must be disallowed for the following reasons:

- 1) Claim 12 contains no attachments or descriptions of the basis for the alleged liability. Prior to confirmation of Liberty's Plan, the Committee deposed Ms. Gao in connection with the Committee's adversary proceeding against Mr. Kirk and Ms. Gao. When questioned about Claim 12, Ms. Gao testified in general terms that the Claim arose on account of (a) property located at 200 South Bushnell in Alhambra that was sold in 2012 or 2013 for which she was allegedly owed money, (b) legal fees, (c) damage to her credit and reputation, (d) her "profit," and (e) monies owed to her because she helped Mr. Kirk establish Liberty's business. The Claim should be disallowed because Liberty has no record of obligations owed to Ms. Gao or of any liability to Ms. Gao.

Ms. Gao asserts that Claim 12 is valid for the following reasons:

- 1) The Plan Administrator has disregarded the fact that a Proof of Claim has prima facie validity. It was not Ms. Gao's burden to establish the claim's validity at a deposition that was taken in an unrelated adversary proceeding. Instead, it is the Plan Administrator's burden to set forth facts showing why the claim is not valid. The Plan Administrator has not carried its burden of establishing that the Claim is invalid.

The Plan Administrator makes the following arguments in its Reply to Ms. Gao's Opposition to the Plan Administrator's Claim Objection:

- 1) Claim 12 is not substantiated by a promissory note, a confirming memorandum, any e-mails, demand letters, wire transfers, cancelled checks, or bank statements. Ms. Gao did not even file a declaration in support of her Opposition to the Plan Administrator's Claim Objection.
- 2) Ms. Gao's representation on Claim 12 that Liberty owes her $2.5 million is simply not credible evidence of any alleged loan. She has not met her burden with respect to the claim. This Court has previously found that Ms. Gao used Liberty's money (and Liberty's investors' money) to buy real estate which she put into companies she owned. To give any weight to Ms. Gao's naked assertion that Liberty owes her $2.5 million with no supporting documentary evidence or testimony is simply not reasonable, in light of the fact that the Court has found that Ms. Gao diverted Liberty's assets and breached her fiduciary duties to Liberty. See generally Memorandum of Decision Finding that Plaintiff is Entitled to Judgment Against Defendants in the Amount of $74,410,695.29, Doc. No. 141, Adv. No. 2:16-ap-01337-ER.
- 3) The Claim fails to state whether the alleged indebtedness is based on a written or oral agreement. If the indebtedness is based upon a writing, such writing was not attached to the claim, in violation of Bankruptcy Rule 3001(c). Failure to comply with Rule 3001's requirements causes the claim to lose its prima facie validity.
- 4) The claim does not contain even basic information, such as the date upon which the indebtedness was allegedly incurred. In response to the Plan Administrator's Claim Objection, Ms. Gao did not come forward with any evidence with respect to the date (or any other terms) of the alleged loan.
- 5) The claim should be barred because per Ms. Gao's own testimony, the funds advanced were an equity contribution. Ms. Gao described the claim as representing "her profit" for helping Mr. Kirk establish the business.

II. Findings and Conclusions

Under Bankruptcy Rule 3001(f), a proof of claim executed and filed in accordance with the Bankruptcy Rules constitutes prima facie evidence of the validity and amount of the claim. To overcome the presumption of validity created by a timely-filed proof of claim, an objecting party must do one of the following: (1) object based on legal grounds and provide a memorandum of points and authorities setting forth the legal basis for the objection; or (2) object based on a factual ground and provide sufficient evidence (usually in the form of declarations under penalty of perjury) to create triable issues of fact. Durkin v. Binder Corp. (In re G.I. Indus., Inc.), 204 F.3d 1276, 1280 (9th Cir. BAP 2000); United States v. Offord Finance, Inc. (In re Medina), 205 B.R. 216, 222 (9th Cir. BAP 1996); Hemingway Transport, Inc. v. Kahn (In re Hemingway Transport, Inc.), 993 F.2d 915, 925 (1st Cir. 1993). Upon objection, a proof of claim provides "some evidence as to its validity and amount" and is "strong enough to carry over a mere formal objection without more." See Lundell v. Anchor Constr. Spec., Inc., 223 F.3d 1035, 1039 (9th Cir. 2000) (citing Wright v. Holm (In re Holm), 931 F.2d 620, 623 (9th Cir. 1991)). An objecting party bears the burden and must "show facts tending to defeat the claim by probative force equal to that of the allegations of the proofs of claim themselves." Holm, 931 F.2d at 623. When the objector has shown enough evidence to negate one or more facts in the proof of claim, the burden shifts back to the claimant to prove the validity of the claim by a preponderance of evidence. See Lundell, 223 F.3d at 1039 (citation omitted).

Section 502 requires the Court to disallow a claim that "is unenforceable against the debtor and the property of the debtor, under any agreement or applicable law for a reason other than because such claim is contingent or unmatured."

Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 3001(f), Claim 12 is not entitled to prima facie validity because it was not filed in accordance with the Bankruptcy Rules. For example, the claim does not specify even basic information, such as the date upon which the indebtedness was incurred. The claim does not specify whether it is based upon a writing or upon an oral agreement. If the claim was based on a writing, such writing is not attached. A claim consisting of such cursory information is not entitled to prima facie validity.

In connection with the Committee's adversary proceeding against Mr. Kirk and Ms. Gao, the Court has found that Ms. Gao violated her fiduciary duties to Liberty by diverting its assets. See generally Memorandum of Decision Finding that Plaintiff is Entitled to Judgment Against Defendants in the Amount of $74,410,695.29, Doc. No. 141, Adv. No. 2:16-ap-01337-ER. It is completely appropriate for the Court to give any weight to the validity of Claim 12 against the backdrop of these findings. In view of its prior findings regarding Ms. Gao's breach of her fiduciary duties to Liberty, the Court will not accord prima facie validity to a Proof of Claim filed by Ms. Gao that lacks even the most basic of corroborating information, such as the date upon which the indebtedness was incurred.

Because Claim 12 is not entitled to prima facie validity and because Ms. Gao has failed to proffer any additional evidence substantiating the indebtedness at issue, the Plan Administrator's Claim Objection is SUSTAINED and the Claim 12 is DISALLOWED in its entirety.

The Plan Administrator shall submit a conforming order, incorporating this tentative ruling by reference, within seven days of the hearing.

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

A. Background [Note 1]

Liberty Asset Management Corporation ("Liberty") commenced a voluntary Chapter 11 petition on March 21, 2016. From March 21, 2016 to January 29, 2017, the Hon. Thomas B. Donovan presided over this case. On January 30, 2017, the case was reassigned to the undersigned Judge. Doc. No. 325.

Liberty was a real estate investment company that bought and sold real property using a combination of its own cash, cash from investors, and bank loans. Real property acquired by Liberty was not titled in the name of Liberty or its investors, but instead was purchased in the name of various limited liability companies. At all times since its formation, Benjamin Kirk was Liberty's President, CEO, CFO, and sole shareholder. Mr. Kirk's primary role was soliciting investors for Liberty and identifying real properties for purchase and sale.

B. The Claims Bar Date

On August 12, 2016, the Court issued an order setting October 30, 2016, as the deadline to file proofs of general unsecured claims. Doc. No. 178. On August 19, 2016, Liberty's Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (the "Committee") provided notice of the claims bar date to all known creditors. Doc. No. 186.

C. The Plan Administrator's Characterization of Claim 33, Asserted by Washe LLC

Shelby Ho convinced her longtime friend, Sophia Huang, to lead a group of investors to invest over $30 million with Liberty. In September 2014, in an effort to secure a refund by Liberty to Ms. Huang, Ms. Ho and her attorney formed an entity, Washe LLC, with Mr. Kirk's consent, for the stated purpose of "obtain[ing] and hold[ing] property for the benefit of Sophia Huang" and recovering funds owed to Ms. Huang by Liberty. Ms. Ho is or was the sole member of Washe, and purportedly acted as a trustee for Ms. Huang.

Immediately after Washe was formed, Mr. Kirk deeded four separate properties from investment entities of Liberty to Washe for no consideration. After transfer of the properties to Washe, Ms. Ho, on behalf of Washe, granted liens in favor of Ms. Huang.

In late 2014, Ms. Ho caused another Liberty entity, 544 San Antonio LLC ("San Antonio"), to grant liens on a commercial property in Mountain View in favor of, among others:

- 1) Her brokerage entity, Great Vista Real Estate Corporation, to secure payment of $450,000;
- 2) Her attorney, George Eshoo, to secure payment of $200,000; and
- 3) Washe, to secure payment of $2 million.

The San Antonio Property was subject to foreclosure in March 2016. The Plan Administrator has not located any evidence of a promissory note or payment by Washe to San Antonio or Liberty for its purported lien.

In November 2015, Ms. Gao initiated bankruptcy proceedings on behalf of Crystal Waterfalls (Case No. 2:15-bk-27769-ER). By stipulation and order entered on November 30, 2015, the Bankruptcy Court held that the transfer of title of the hotel property from Crystal Waterfalls LLC to Washe was void and of no force and effect, and title was re-vested in Crystal Waterfalls. By this time, Ms. Ho had amended Washe's operating agreement to vest 100% membership in Mr. Kirk, so that Mr. Kirk would address the now-disputed transfers and liens.

Washe filed its Claim for $2 million based on "monies advanced," supported by a purported promissory note dated November 25, 2014. Mr. Kirk, on behalf of Liberty, initially scheduled Washe as an unsecured creditor for this amount. The Chief Restructuring Officer later amended the schedules to reflect the amount was disputed.

D. Summary of the Plan Administrator's Objection to Claim 33, Washe's Opposition to the Claim Objection, and the Plan Administrator's Reply in Support of the Claim Objection

The Plan Administrator asserts that Claim 33 must be disallowed for the following reasons:

- 1) Washe did not advance any funds to Liberty under the purported promissory note or otherwise. The Plan Administrator is informed and believes that Washe was a shell entity that was used to transfer title and record liens, without money changing hands. Ms. Huang, the creditor who was meant to benefit from Washe's transfers, describes the transfers as a "refund arrangement." Liberty received money from Ms. Huang, but Liberty did not receive any money from Washe.
- 2) Similarly, the Plan Administrator believes that Ms. Ho, on behalf of San Antonio, granted liens on its commercial property to Washe and other entities controlled by Ms. Ho in an attempt to secure a reimbursement of funds to herself. However, apart from the purported note, which is not among Liberty's files, there is no evidence that Washe advanced any funds to Liberty, and any attorneys' fees spent on the "refund arrangement" were a complete waste of money, given that the transfer of the Crystal Waterfalls hotel to Washe was voided once Crystal commenced bankruptcy proceedings.
- 3) Washe's claim should be disallowed because it is a blatant attempt to obtain a recovery for the benefit of an insider. Washe was created for the purpose of transferring title from one set of Liberty investment entities to another, allegedly for the benefit of an investor, Ms. Huang. Ms. Huang has duly pursued her claims against Liberty. If the claim is allowed, it will only benefit Ms. Ho or Mr. Kirk, who came up with the idea of Washe was a refund arrangement.

Chapter 11

Washe asserts that Claim 33 is valid for the following reasons:

- 1) Washe was a benign entity created to benefit Ms. Huang and her family. Washe was designed to protect the $27 million investment made by Ms. Huang and the other investors she had recruited.
- 2) The Plan Administrator's contention that Ms. Ho caused San Antonio, another Liberty entity, to grant liens in an attempt to secure a reimbursement of funds to herself, is nothing more than unsupported speculation.

The Plan Administrator makes the following arguments in Reply to Washe's Opposition to the Plan Administrator's Claim Objection:

- 1) The Plan Administrator has produced ample evidence to refute that Liberty received $2 million from the purported note attached to Claim 33. In its Objection, Washe has acknowledged that it was a shell entity used to transfer title and record liens, all of which was voided upon Crystal Waterfalls' commencement of its bankruptcy petition.
- 2) Washe is unable to demonstrate that it advanced $2 million to Liberty as the note recites. In her declaration in Opposition to the Claim Objection, Ms. Ho, Washe's manager, has stated that Washe was a means to "hold defined real estate assets." Ms. Ho's declaration provides that Liberty deeded four separate properties from investment entities to Washe without consideration.
- 3) Whether Washe was created with benign intent is irrelevant. Even if that is the case, it does not establish that Washe is indebted to Liberty in the amount of $2 million.

II. Findings and Conclusions

Under Bankruptcy Rule 3001(f), a proof of claim executed and filed in accordance with the Bankruptcy Rules constitutes prima facie evidence of the validity and amount of the claim. To overcome the presumption of validity created by a timely-filed proof of claim, an objecting party must do one of the following: (1) object based on legal grounds and provide a memorandum of points and authorities setting forth the legal basis for the objection; or (2) object based on a factual ground and provide sufficient evidence (usually in the form of declarations under penalty of perjury) to create triable issues of fact. Durkin v. Binder Corp. (In re G.I. Indus., Inc.), 204 F.3d 1276, 1280 (9th Cir. BAP 2000); United States v. Offord Finance, Inc. (In re Medina), 205 B.R.

Upon objection, a proof of claim provides "some evidence as to its validity and amount" and is "strong enough to carry over a mere formal objection without more." See Lundell v. Anchor Constr. Spec., Inc., 223 F.3d 1035, 1039 (9th Cir. 2000) (citing Wright v. Holm (In re Holm), 931 F.2d 620, 623 (9th Cir. 1991)). An objecting party bears the burden and must "show facts tending to defeat the claim by probative force equal to that of the allegations of the proofs of claim themselves." Holm, 931 F.2d at 623. When the objector has shown enough evidence to negate one or more facts in the proof of claim, the burden shifts back to the claimant to prove the validity of the claim by a preponderance of evidence. See Lundell, 223 F.3d at 1039 (citation omitted).

Section 502 requires the Court to disallow a claim that "is unenforceable against the debtor and the property of the debtor, under any agreement or applicable law for a reason other than because such claim is contingent or unmatured."

Here, the Plan Administrator has presented sufficient evidence establishing that Washe never loaned $2 million to Liberty. Instead, Washe was created in an attempt to secure a refund to Ms. Huang and others who had invested money in Liberty. Ultimately, most of the transfers of assets to Washe were unwound once Crystal Waterfalls commenced bankruptcy proceedings. Even Ms. Ho's declaration, filed in Opposition to the Claim Objection, acknowledges that the purpose of Washe was to hold title to properties in an attempt to provide a refund to Ms. Huang and others who had invested in Liberty.

There is no credible evidence before the Court that Washe ever loaned $2 million to Liberty. Instead, the only plausible evidence before the Court shows that Washe received title to various properties and was created in an attempt by Mr. Kirk to placate Ms. Huang and others who had invested funds in Liberty.

There is no merit to Washe's contention that because Washe was created with benign intent, its claim should be allowed. Regardless of the motivation for creating Washe, the fact remains that the entity was never capitalized and never provided any funds to Liberty.

Based upon the foregoing, the Claim Objection is SUSTAINED and Claim 33 is DISALLOWED in its entirety. The Plan Administrator shall submit a conforming order, incorporating this tentative ruling by reference, within seven days of the hearing.

#11.00 HearingRE: [232] Motion For Final Decree and Order Closing Case. with proof of service

Docket 232

Tentative Ruling:

9/4/2018

The Motion is GRANTED IN PART and DENIED IN PART. The Court will enter a Final Decree closing this case. The Debtor's request for waiver of the UST fees is DENIED.

Pleadings Filed and Reviewed:

- 1) Notice of Motion and Motion in Chapter 11 Case for Entry of a Final Decree and Order Closing Case [Doc. No. 232] (the "Motion")
- 2) Limited Opposition of the United States Trustee to Motion in Chapter 11 Case for the Entry of a Final Decree and Order Closing Case [Doc. No. 235]
- 3) Debtor's Reply Memorandum of Points and Authorities in Opposition to the "Limited" Objection by the United States Trustee, Demanding Excessive Trustee Fees, and Request for Waiver of All Additional Trustee's Fees

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

The only dispute in connection with the Debtor's Motion for a Final Decree (the "Motion") is the amount of fees that the United States Trustee (the "UST") is entitled to receive upon the closing of the case. The UST asserts that it is entitled to fees of $19,170.14, based upon total estimated disbursements of $1,917,013.71 (UST fees consist of 1% of the total amount disbursed).

The Debtor objects to payment of the UST Fees, and asserts that he should not be required to pay the fees demanded for the following reasons:

- 1) The UST's estimate that the Debtor will disburse $1,917,013.71 is inflated, for the following reasons:
 - a) The UST estimates that the Debtor's monthly expenses are $22,000 per month. This is $10,000 per month too high. The UST has included non-recurring expenses in his estimate of the Debtor's monthly expenses.

Chapter 11

Actual monthly expenses for the period in question total $24,000, not $44,981.76. Fees should be reduced by $200 to correct for this overestimate.

- b) The UST counts the $30,813.17 that the Debtor paid on account of the IRS' administrative tax claim as a disbursement. This amount should not be counted as a disbursement, because it was an advance payment for potential future taxes, which the Debtor may not end up owing.
- 2) The operative law under which the UST can collect 1% of disbursements took effect January 1, 2018. The Debtor attempted to pay the holder of the First Deed of Trust against his former residence in December 2017. The holder of the First Deed of Trust declined the Debtor's settlement offer and instead waited until July 2018 to be paid. Had the holder of the First Deed of Trust behaved more reasonably, the Debtor would not have been required to wait until July 2018 to pay the holder of the First Deed of Trust $1,648,975.29. That would substantially reduce the amounts owed to the UST.
- 3) In view of these circumstances, the Court should exercise its discretion to waive the UST fees. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1930(f)(3), the Court has the authority to waive the fees.

II. Findings and Conclusions

The UST is charged with ensuring that Chapter 11 Debtors fulfill their obligations to act as fiduciaries to creditors. The UST program is funded largely through fees imposed based upon amounts disbursed in Chapter 11 cases.

Here, the Debtor asks the Court to substantially reduce his UST fee liability, based upon the Debtor's frustration about the way events unfolded during his Chapter 11 case. In the Court's experience, most participants in the Chapter 11 process experience frustration at various junctures in their cases. The fact of such frustration does not, by itself, support waiving the UST fee requirement. Were this the case, the UST would be starved of funds and would be unable to discharge its statutory responsibilities to supervise Debtors-in-Possession.

Based upon the Debtor's declaration testimony, the Court finds that the Debtor's living expenses during the period from July 1 to September 5 are approximately $24,000, not $44,981.76 as estimated by the UST. The Court will reduce the UST fees assessed by $200 reflect this adjustment.

The Debtor maintains that the amounts he was required to pay to the IRS, on account of its administrative priority tax claim, should not qualify as a "disbursement." The Debtor is incorrect. As the Court has previously explained at length (such explanation will not be repeated here), the Debtor was required to pay the IRS $30,813.17 on account of its §503(b)(1)(B)(i) administrative expense claim.

There is no basis for the Debtor's contention that such payment does not qualify as a "disbursement" for purposes of calculating UST fees.

The Court will enter a Final Decree closing this case, provided the Debtor pays the fees assessed by the UST (less $200 to reflect the UST's overestimate of the Debtor's living expenses). To ensure that the UST fees are paid, the order on this motion must be approved as to form by the UST in accordance with the procedure set forth in Local Bankruptcy Rule 9021-1(b)(3)(C).

Upon completion of all plan payments, the Debtor shall move to reopen this case, for the purpose of obtaining a discharge.

The Debtor shall submit a conforming order, which shall be approved as to form by the UST, within seven days of the hearing.

No appearance is required if submitting on the court's tentative ruling. Chapter 11

Keith Black Racing Engines, Inc. (the "Debtor" or "KBRE") filed a voluntary Chapter 11 petition on June 18, 2018 (the "Petition") [Doc. No. 1]. The Debtor is in the business of manufacturing engine blocks, racing parts, and other equipment used in drag racing and tractor pulling.

The Pre-Petition "Binding of Heads Agreement" and the Ensuing State Court Action

Prior to the Debtor's bankruptcy, KBRE had been experiencing financial difficulties. Black Decl. at ¶ 6. Sometime in 2016 KBRE began looking for investors to support its business operations. Id. On December 2, 2016, KBRE, Ken Black, the Black Family Trust (the "Trust"), and FMI entered into a "Binding Heads of Agreement" (the "BHA"), see "Declaration of Darren Beale" (the "Beale Decl.") [Doc. No. 29], Ex. 1 (the BHA is Ex. "A" attached to the state court complaint).

The BHA contemplated that all the agreements contained therein would be completed prior to December 30, 2016 or within 45-days of the date of execution of the BHA (i.e. 45-days after December 2, 2016 execution date), whichever was later. BHA at 2. Pursuant to the terms of the BHA, FMI and KBRE agreed to form a "NewCo"—eventually formed as Keith Black, Inc. ("KBI")—"for the purpose of manufacturing, marketing and distributing performance engine blocks for the automotive market" Id. at 1. The BHA also provided that KBI was to acquire the business undertakings and certain assets of KBRE. Id. at 1–2. It appears from the record that the "certain assets" referred to in the BHA were substantially all of the business assets of KBRE (the "KBRE Assets" or "assets"). See Black Decl. at ¶ 7; Beale Decl. at ¶ 7, Ex's. 3 & 4 (list of KBRE assets to be acquired pursuant to the BHA).

On January 25, 2018, the Debtor informed FMI that (allegedly) it had failed to perform under the terms of the BHA, and that unless such breaches were cured within 7-days the Debtor would terminate the BHA. Black Decl. at ¶ 9. On May 11, 2018, the Creditors Fast Machine, Inc. ("FMI") and Keith Black, Inc. ("KBI") (collectively, the "Creditors") filed a complaint in the Los Angeles Superior Court against, among other defendants, KBRE and the Trust, captioned *Keith Black, Inc. v. performance. See Beale Decl., Ex. 1 (the complaint in the State Action).

The Sale Motion

On August 7, 2018, the Debtor filed the "Motion for Order Authorizing the Sale of the Estate's Interests in Specific Machinery and Equipment Free and Clear of All Claims, Liens, and Interests Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 363" (the "Sale Motion") [Doc. No. 23]. The Debtor seeks approval of the sale of specific items of its machinery and equipment (the "Assets"), a complete list of which is attached as Exhibit "1" to the Black Declaration [Doc. No. 23], free and clear of all claims, liens, and encumbrances. The key sale terms are as follows:

- 1) Proposed purchaser: Jios Sales, Inc.;
- 2) Property for Sale: specific items of machinery and equipment, see Black Decl., Ex. 1;
- 3) Purchase price: $20,500.00;
- 4) Overbids: The initial overbid shall be $3,000.00; subsequent overbids shall be in the amount of $500.00. The overbid increment is subject to adjustment by the Court to facilitate bidding.

The Debtor requests that the assets be sold free and clear of liens under § 363(f). Specifically, Debtor seeks a sale free and clear of secured creditor, Ken Black, pursuant to § 363(f)(2), because Mr. Black consents to the sale of the Assets, provided that he retains a lien on the proceeds of the sale. The Debtor also seeks a sale free and clear of any asserted interest in the Assets by KBI and FMI pursuant to § 363(f)(4) based on Debtor's assertion that any such ownership interest is subject to a bona fide dispute arising from the BHA. Debtor proposes to deposit the proceeds from the sale into a separate bank account pending the resolution of the disputes regarding KBI's and FMI's claims of interests in the Assets.

Debtor states that the terms of the sale were negotiated in good faith, that it marketed the Assets, and believes the proposed sale price to be fair. The Debtor also states that it will no longer be using the Assets in its business operations, and selling the Assets is within the Debtor's reasonable business judgment.

The Opposition

On August 21, 2018, KBI and FMI filed the "Opposition and Objections to the [Sale Motion]" (the "Opposition") [Doc. No. 29]. The core argument in the Opposition is that the Sale Motion should be denied because the Debtor does not own the Assets, and the proposed sale is not supported under applicable non-bankruptcy law. The Opposition additionally argues that the Debtor has not articulated a sufficient business justification for the sale, and that the sale is a veiled attempt to avoid reorganization and proceed to liquidation.

With respect to the argument that the Debtor does not own the Assets, the Opposition contends that the Debtor sold substantially all of its assets to KBI and FMI in 2016 pursuant to the terms of the BHA. Beale Decl. at ¶¶ 7, 19–22. The 2016 sale of the Assets is the subject of the pending State Court Action. In support of this contention, the Opposition submits two copies of what Mr. Beale identifies as "Schedule A" of the BHA, which lists the tangible assets purportedly acquired by KBI and FMI from KBRE pursuant to the terms of the BHA. See Beale Decl., Ex's. 4 & 5. Each page of the copy of Schedule A attached as Exhibit "5" to the Beale Declaration contains the same vague and illegible initial, which Mr. Beale claims is Ken Black's initial "KB". Id. at ¶ 19. The Opposition argues that the list of the Assets which the Sale Motion seeks authorization to sell, see Black Decl., Ex. 1, is merely a copy of Schedule A of the BHA that has been edited by the Debtor to omit certain of the assets which the Debtor is not seeking to sell, Opposition at 4; Beale Decl. at ¶ 20.

The reason that the Debtor has possession of the Assets that were purportedly sold to KBI is because pursuant to the terms of the BHA, Ken Black took possession of the assets formerly owned by KBRE in his capacity as an employee of KBI. Beale Decl. at ¶ 20. The Opposition states that KBRE was paid for the Assets through the terms of the BHA, and that Ken Black was paid W-2 income as a full-time employee of KBI. Id. at ¶ 21. Furthermore, certain of the Assets which the Debtor seeks to sell were, according to Mr. Beale, sold to Jamison Equipment pre-petition with the participation and assistance of Ken Black in his capacity as an employee of KBI. Id. at 20–21. Jeff Jamison, the principal of Jamison Equipment, states that in March 2017 he agreed to purchase certain of the equipment Assets from KBI. Jamison Decl. at ¶ 3. On information and belief, and based on his dealings with Ken Black, among other employees of KBI, Mr. Jamison states that Ken Black was "working for" KBI in March 2017 when the purchase agreement for the equipment was entered into. Id. at 3.

In sum, whereas the Debtor frames the dispute as to ownership of the Assets in terms of KBI and FMI claiming an interest in assets which the Debtor owns, the Opposition contends that KBI and FMI acquired ownership of the Assets from the Debtor in 2016 pursuant to the terms of the BHA.

Chapter 11

With respect the Debtor's business justification for the sale, the Opposition contends that the Debtor does not articulate any sufficient justification for the sale, and that the Debtor has no identifiable business operations, production, employees, sales, or revenue. Finally, the Opposition argues that because the Debtor has no business operations, a reorganization is not reasonably in prospect. Rather, through the Sale Motion, the Debtor is attempting a piecemeal liquidation of assets that the Debtor does not own, some of which were already sold by KBI to Mr. Jamison. See Opposition at 5; Jamison Decl. ¶¶ 5–10.

The Reply

On August 29, 2018, the Debtor filed the Reply to the Opposition (the "Reply") [Doc. No. 30]. The Debtor also submits the "Declaration of Kenneth Black" in support of the Reply (the "Black Reply Decl.") [Doc. No. 30]. The bulk of the Reply argues that, for reasons previously stated in the Sale Motion, the proposed sale can be authorized under § 364(f). The Debtor submits additional evidence in support of its contention that KBI's and FMI's interests in the Assets are subject to a bona fide dispute. See Black Reply Decl. at ¶¶ 6–8, Ex's. 1–3. Additionally, the Reply seems to suggest that the Debtor's ownership of the Assets may also be subject to a bona fide dispute. Reply at 6 ("to the extent Debtor does not own the Assets, there is a bona fide dispute over the ownership of the Assets sufficient to allow their sale"). The Reply emphasizes that the terms of the BHA related to KBI's acquisition of the KBRE Assets was not self-effectuating on the completion date; rather, the BHA states that "[a]t completion, the Business Assets will be sold to [KBI] without encumbrance" Id. at 6, n.2.

The Reply additionally argues that the proposed sale benefits the Estate, that the Debtor has shown a sufficient business justification, and that the other arguments raised by the Opposition are meritless. See Reply at 7–9.

II. Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law

The Evidentiary Objections

On August 29, 2018, the Debtor filed: (1) the "Evidentiary Objection to [the Jamison Declaration]" (the "Jamison Evidentiary Objection") [Doc. No. 31]; and (2) the "Evidentiary Objection to [the Beale Declaration]" (the "Beale Evidentiary Objection") [Doc. No. 32].

Chapter 11

For the reasons set forth below, the Debtor's Evidentiary Objections to the Jamison Declaration and the Beale Declaration are OVERRULED. To the extent the Debtor objects based on the respective declarations containing numerous statements that end with "to the best of my knowledge," "to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief," or any similar variation, the Court finds the objections lack merit. Additionally, the Court finds that Mr. Jamison, as the Principal of Jamison Equipment, and Mr. Beale, as an officer of KBI and FMI, have the requisite personal knowledge to testify to the operations their respective businesses, and the events and circumstances that arose in the ordinary course of business. See, e.g., Stuart v. UNUM Life Ins. Co. of Am., 217 F.3d 1145, 1155 (9th Cir. 2000); Barthelemy v. Air Lines Pilots Ass'n, 897 F.2d 999, 1018 (9th Cir. 1990) (CEO's personal knowledge of various corporate activities inferred from position).

The Court further notes that to the extent that declaration testimony purports to characterize the contents of evidence set forth in the record, the Court does not rely upon such testimony. Instead the Court has independently reviewed the evidence in the record, and draws its own conclusions as to whether the proffered evidence corroborates the position advanced by its proponent.

The Sale Motion

Section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code permits the trustee to sell estate property outside the ordinary course of business, subject to court approval. The trustee must articulate a business justification for the sale. In re Walter, 83 B.R. 14, 19–20 (9th Cir. BAP 1988). Whether the articulated business justification is sufficient "depends on the case," in view of "all salient factors pertaining to the proceeding." Id. at 19–20. Section 363(f) permits a sale of property "free and clear of any interest in such property of an entity other than the estate" if any one of the following conditions is met:

- (1) applicable nonbankruptcy law permits the sale of such property free and clear of such interest;
- (2) such entity consents;
- (3) such interest is a lien and the price at which such property is to be sold is greater than the aggregate value of all liens on such property;

(4) such interest is in bona fide dispute; or

(5) such entity could be compelled, in a legal or equitable proceeding, to accept a money satisfaction of such interest.

11 U.S.C. § 363(f).

"A bankruptcy court may not allow the sale of property as 'property of the estate' without first determining whether the debtor in fact own[s] the property." Rodeo Canon Development Corp., 362 F.3d 603 (9th Cir. 2004), vacated, 126 Fed. App'x 353 (9th Cir. 2005) (vacated on the understanding that the ownership dispute had been resolved) (citing Moldo v. Clark (In re Clark), 266 B.R. 163, 172 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 2001) (holding that "the threshold question, is [the property] still property of the estate, must . . . be decided" before it can be sold free and clear under § 363(f)).

The evidence in the record is not sufficient for the Court to make the preliminary determination that the Assets are property of the estate. Section 541(a)(1) defines "property of the estate" to include "all legal or equitable interests of the debtor in property." Here, the Debtor's ownership of the Assets, and thus whether the Assets are property of the estate which can be sold, is not clear. The parties do not dispute that the BHA was executed on December 2, 2016. What happened after the execution of the BHA, however, is not clear. Indeed, one of the central issues in the pending State Action will likely be whether the BHA was a valid binding agreement under California law, in addition to other issues such as whether the BHA was breached, and whether KBI and FMI are entitled to the remedy of specific performance. Under these circumstances, particularly given the various ambiguities in the evidence, there appear to be genuine disputes regarding the estate's ownership interest in the Assets. Accordingly, it is not appropriate to proceed with a sale of the Assets until Debtor's ownership interest is resolved.

Section 363(f)(4) Does Not Apply Because the Debtor's Interest is Disputed

Notwithstanding the dispute as to ownership of the Assets, the Debtor contends that the sale may proceed if the Court makes a finding under § 363(f)(4) that FMI's or KBI's interest is in bona fide dispute. The Court is not persuaded by the Debtor's argument on this point because § 363(f)(4) does not apply in circumstances where the Debtor's interest in the property is disputed.

In Rodeo Canon Development Corp., the Ninth Circuit distinguished between a bona fide dispute over the validity of the non-debtor party's interest in the property, and a dispute over the debtor's interest. See 362 F.3d at 609–610. "In the latter, the court may not authorize a sale under section 363 until the court resolves the dispute and determines that the debtor has an interest that can be sold. Until that occurs, section 363 does not even apply." Alan N. Resnick & Henry J. Sommer, 3 COLLIER ON BANKR. ¶ 363.06 (16th ed. 2018). Contrary to the Debtor's argument, here, the Debtor's ownership of the Assets is disputed, and based on the record the Court cannot make the preliminary finding that the Assets are property of the Estate. Importantly, resolution of this issue would require the Court to decide the dispute regarding the alleged termination and/or breach of the BHA, which dispute is already pending before the State Court.

In support of its argument regarding the applicability of § 363(f)(4) to authorize the proposed sale, the Debtor cites In re Dewey Ranch Hockey, LLC, 414 B.R. 577, 591 (Bankr. D. Ariz. 2009) ("In re Dewey"), where the bankruptcy court explained the purpose of § 363(f)(4). However, the facts at issue in In re Dewey are distinguishable from the Debtor's case, and the holding of the bankruptcy court in In re Dewey actually supports this Court's reasoning. Consistent with the Ninth Circuit's holding in Rodeo Canon Development, the "bona fide dispute" in In re Dewey was a dispute over the non-debtor parties' interest in the property. In re Dewey, 414 B.R. at 590 ("For purposes of this decision, the court will assume that the debtors and PSE have established that the interests of the NHL and Glendale are subject to bona fide dispute as that term is used in Section 363(f)(4)."). Furthermore, and in contrast with the present case, the dispute in In re Dewey was not a dispute over the parties' ownership interests in the property, let alone whether the debtor had an ownership interest in the property, but rather, the dispute related to the non-debtor parties' interest in the property as creditors, and whether such interests could be adequately protected if the sale were to proceed under § 363(f)(4). See id. at 588–93. For example, in In re Dewey, the NHL, one of the non-debtor parties that opposed the sale, claimed three rights/interests: "First, the right to admit only new members who meet its written requirements. Second, the right to control where its members play their home hockey games [And] [t]hird, the right to a relocation fee, if appropriate, when a member team relocates to a new site." Id. at 591. Ultimately, the bankruptcy court in In re

Dewey determined that the non-debtor parties' interests could not be adequately protected, and that under § 363(e), the court was prohibited from authorizing the sale, notwithstanding the bona fide dispute.

Chapter 7

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

Rafael Cazarez-Torres (the "Debtor") filed a voluntary Chapter 11 petition on June 1, 2017 (the "Petition") [Doc. No. 1]. Rosendo Gonzalez accepted appointment as the Chapter 7 trustee (the "Trustee") for the Debtor's bankruptcy case.

The Motion

On August 15, 2018, the Trustee filed the "Notice of Motion and Motion to Sell Right, Title, and Interest in Real Property Free and Clear of Liens (the "Sale Motion") [Doc. No. 51]. The Debtor holds an interest in the real property located at 730 E. 83rd Street, Los Angeles, CA 90001 (the "Property"). Joong Kyung Ju (the "Buyer") has offered to purchase the Property pursuant to the terms of the "Purchase and Sale Agreement" (the "PSA"), see "Declaration of Rosendo Gonzalez" ("Gonzalez Decl.") [Doc. No. 51, Exhibit "1"], whereby the Buyer has agreed to purchase the Property for the sum of $451,000.00, see Gonzalez Decl. at ¶ 3. The Trustee believes that the proposed sale of the Property will generate approximately $149,920.00 of net proceeds for the Estate. Sale Motion at 5. The Trustee has marketed the Property, and received multiple offers. The Buyer's offer was the best offer received to date, subject to overbidding.

The key sale terms are as follows:

- 1) Proposed purchaser: Joong Kyung Ju (the "Buyer");
- 2) Property for Sale: 730 E. 83rd Street, Los Angeles, CA 90001;
- 3) Purchase price: $451,000.00;
- 4) Overbids: The initial overbid shall be $9,000.00; subsequent overbids shall be in the amount of $5,000.00. The overbid increment is subject to adjustment by the Court to facilitate bidding. Overbidders shall submit to the Trustee a written, executed overbid form, which is attached as Exhibit "3" to the Sale Motion. Overbidders shall provide the Trustee with a cashier's check in the amount of $15,000.00.

The Non-Opposition

On August 22, 2018, Secured Creditor Nationstar Mortgage LLC d/b/a Mr. Cooper (the "Secured Creditor"), which is the holder of a note and senior deed of trust encumbering the Property in the original principal amount of $289,521.00, filed the Conditional Non-Opposition to the Sale Motion (the "Non-Opposition") [Doc. No. 56]. The Non-Opposition states that the estimated payoff amount of the Secured Creditor's lien through September 15, 2018 is $263,368.90. The Sale Motion states that the Secured Creditor's claim is to be paid only "undisputed amounts through escrow," and the Secured Creditor would like to resolve any "disputed amounts" prior to the close of escrow. Therefore, the Secured Creditor does not oppose the Sale Motion on the condition that the following provision is included in the sale order: "Upon sale of the Property, either Secured Creditor will be paid in full subject to a proper payoff quote, or that any sale short of full payoff will be subject to Secured Creditor's final written approval."

II. Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law

Section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code permits the trustee to sell estate property outside the ordinary course of business, subject to court approval. The trustee must articulate a business justification for the sale. In re Walter, 83 B.R. 14, 19–20 (9th Cir. BAP 1988). Whether the articulated business justification is sufficient "depends on the case," in view of "all salient factors pertaining to the proceeding." Id. at 19–20. Here, the Trustee articulates a sufficient business justification for the sale. The Trustee believes the proposed sale of the Property is in the best interest of the Estate because the sale will generate significant cash proceeds for the Estate. Additionally, the Trustee believes that the sale price is reasonable considering that the Property was extensively marketed. Furthermore, the sale is subject to overbids, which allows any party wishing to purchase the Property at a higher price to do so. The purchase offer of $451,000.00 was obtained by the Trustee through arm's length negotiations.

Lastly, the Trustee has met the conditions for the sale of the Property free and clear of all liens. Section 363(f) permits a sale of property "free and clear of any interest in such property of an entity other than the estate" if any one of the following conditions is met:

- (1) applicable nonbankruptcy law permits the sale of such property free and clear of such interest;
- (2) such entity consents;
- (3) such interest is a lien and the price at which such property is to be sold is greater than the aggregate value of all liens on such property;

(4) such interest is in bona fide dispute; or

(5) such entity could be compelled, in a legal or equitable proceeding, to accept a money satisfaction of such interest.

11 U.S.C. § 363(f). Here, the Court finds that the Sale Motion satisfies the requirements of §§ 363(f)(3). The price at which the Property will be sold is greater than the aggregate value of all liens on the Property. Furthermore, the Sale Motion provides that the Secured Creditor's lien will be paid in full from the sale proceeds. As requested by the Secured Creditor in its Non-Opposition, the sale order shall include the following language: "Upon sale of the Property, either Secured Creditor will be paid in full subject to a proper payoff quote, or that any sale short of full payoff will be subject to Secured Creditor's final written approval." The sale will be approved with the protections of section 363.

Auction Procedures

The Court will distribute numbered auction paddles to the proposed purchaser and all qualified overbidders. The initial overbid will be $9,000.00. Subsequent overbids will be increments of $5,000.00, with the increments subject to adjustment by the Court depending upon the bidding. The Court will announce each bid level. To remain in the auction, bidders must participate at all bid levels. That is, parties who do not bid in a round cannot later change their minds and re-enter the auction. Parties may make a bid higher than that announced by the Court by approaching the podium and stating their bid.

If a bidder other than the Buyers prevails at the auction, the Court will take testimony to determine whether that bidder is entitled to the protections of §363(m).

III. Conclusion

In conclusion, based on the foregoing, the Court GRANTS the Trustee's Sale Motion in its entirety. The Court will conduct the auction in accordance with the procedures set forth above.

owned by the Debtor, located at 2936 North Loma Avenue and 2935 North Mountain Avenue, San Bernardino, CA (the "Property"). The Property consists of eighty apartment units. To the extent that rents generated by the Property are cash collateral, the Trustee seeks authorization to use such cash collateral in the operation of the Property. The Trustee seeks authorization to employ Jackson Property Management ("Jackson") as his property manager, effective as of August 30, 2018.

II. Findings and Conclusions

Because the Court has recently denied the Debtor's motion seeking to convert this case to Chapter 11, it is necessary that the Chapter 7 Trustee operate the Property. Section 721 provides that the Trustee may operate the business of the debtor for a limited period, if such operation is in the best interests of the estate. Here, such operation is in the best interests of the estate. Without the Trustee's continued operation, the Property will fall into further disrepair, depressing any future sale price.

To the extent that the rents generated by the Property constitute cash collateral, secured creditors are adequately protected by the Trustee's continued operation of the Property. See In re Megan-Racine Associates, Inc., 202 B.R. 660, 663 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1996) (concluding that "[a]s long as there was a continuous income stream being generated by the Debtor, the fact that the Debtor consumed a portion of those monies to operate and maintain the facility each month did not diminish the value of the [secured creditor's] interest in the [cash collateral]"). Accordingly, the Trustee is authorized to use cash collateral (a) in connection with the Property's operation and (b) to pay secured lenders.

A. Motion to Appoint Kurtzman Carson Consultants as Claims and Noticing Agent

Debtors request an order authorizing and approving the appointment of Kurtzman Carson Consultants LLC ("KCC") as Claims and Noticing Agent. KCC will provide the following services:

- 1) Prepare and serve required notices in this Chapter 11 case, including:
 - a) Notice of the commencement of the case and the initial meeting of creditors;
 - b) Notice of the claims bar date;
 - c) Notices of transfers of claims;
 - d) Notice of objections to claims;
 - e) Notices of any hearings on a disclosure statement and confirmation of a Chapter 11 Plan; and
 - f) Notice of the effective date of any Chapter 11 Plan.

- 3) Maintain (a) a list of potential creditors and other parties-in-interest and (b) a "core" mailing list consisting of all parties described in Bankruptcy Rule 2002.
- 4) Within five business days after the service of a particular Notice, file with the Clerk's Office a declaration of service that includes (i) an alphabetical list of persons on whom KCC served the Notice, along with their addresses, and (ii) the date and manner of service;
- 5) Maintain a post office box or address for the purpose of receiving claims and returned mail, and process all mail received;
- 6) Process all proofs of claim received, including those received by the Clerk's office, check said processing for accuracy, and maintain the original proofs of claim in a secure area;
- 7) Maintain copies of all proofs of claim and proofs of interest filed in this case at a location other than where the originals are maintained;
- 8) Maintain an official claims register for each debtor (the "Claims Register") in this case by docketing all proofs of claim and proofs of interest in a claims database;
- 9) Implement necessary security measures to ensure the completeness and integrity of the claims register as approved by the Clerk of the Court;
- 10) Periodically audit the claims information to assure the Clerk's Office that the claims information is being appropriately and accurately recorded in the official claims register;
- 11) Furnish a notice to all potential creditors of the last date for the filing of proofs of claim and a form for the filing of a proof of claim, after such notice and form are approved by the Court, and notify said potential creditors of the existence, amount, and classification of their respective claims as set forth in the Schedules, which may be effected by inclusion of such information (or the lack thereof, in cases where the Schedules indicate no debt due to the subject party) on a customized proof of claim form provided to potential creditors;

Management Motion:

Chapter 11

Debtors seek authority to (1) continue using their cash management system, (2) implement changes to the system in the ordinary course of business, (3) continue to perform and honor intercompany transactions in the ordinary course of business, and (4) provide administrative expense priority for postpetition intercompany claims. The Debtors request that the Court authorize the financial institutions at which the Debtors maintain various bank accounts to (1) continue to maintain, service and administer the Debtors' bank accounts, and (2) debit the bank accounts in the ordinary course of business.

The Debtors use an integrated cash management system to collect, concentrate and disburse funds generated by operations. The cash management system is broadly similar to systems used by other large businesses. The cash management system meets the Debtors' operating needs as the operator of a large health system.

The cash management system currently comprises 63 accounts, with five commercial banks. The cash management system provides significant benefits to the Debtors, including the ability to control corporate and Hospital funds, ensure maximum available of funds where necessary, and reduce costs and administrative expenses.

1. U.S. Bank's Reservation of Rights

U.S. Bank, in its capacity as the 2015 Note Trustee and the 2017 Note Trustee, responds to the Cash Management Motion as follows:

The Notes Trustee does not, on an interim basis, object to the majority of the relief requested in the Cash Management Motion, including the Debtors' continued use of their existing cash management system and bank accounts and business forms. The Notes Trustee requests that any relief on the Cash Management Motion be granted only on an interim basis subject to a final hearing.

In the Motion, the Debtors seek authority to continue to perform under and honor intercompany transactions in the ordinary course of business, in their business judgment and sole discretion. The Notes Trustee is still evaluating the potential impact of this request in light of the related issues presented by the Debtors' use of cash collateral and postpetition debtor in possession loan proceeds. The Notes Trustee wants to ensure that its liens and security interests are adequately protected, and that the

Debtors do not improperly use revenues from certain Hospitals or Debtors and to fund or subsidize losses incurred by other Hospitals or Debtors. The Notes Trustee is still analyzing whether granting administrative expense priority to all postpetition intercompany claims is appropriate.

2. Debtors' Supplement to Cash Management Motion

The Debtors filed a Supplement to the Cash Management Motion, in which the Debtors make the following arguments and representations:

In an abundance of caution, and in response to informal comments by the UST, the Debtors wish to address the applicability of §345(b) to the Cash Management Motion. Section 345 requires that the Debtors deposit funds in accounts that will “yield the maximum reasonable net return” on such funds. For deposits or investments not insured or guaranteed by the United States, §345(b) requires that the estate obtain a bond in favor of the United States to secure the repayment of such deposits. The bond requirement imposed by §345(b) can be waived “for cause.”

All except two of the Debtors' deposit accounts are ordinary depository accounts maintained for operational and not investment purposes. At times, the individual balance in the accounts may exceed the current limits of government insurance. Therefore, these accounts may be subject to §345(b)'s bonding requirement unless it is waived.

The Debtors request that the Court waive the requirements of §345(b) and permit the Debtors to maintain their deposits in the accounts in accordance with existing deposit practices. The Debtors' existing deposit practices are significantly less burdensome and more appropriately tailored to their business needs than the practices otherwise required under both the Bankruptcy Code and by the UST Guidelines. The Debtors submit that strict compliance with § 345(b) would be overly burdensome and restrict the Debtors' banking options to the detriment of their Estates and creditors.

C. Motion to Limit Scope of Notice

The Debtors move for authority to limit the scope of notice, and make the following arguments and representations in support of the Motion:

The Debtors mailing matrix has tens of thousands of creditors. The Debtors seek to limit the scope of service of all notices relating to any of the following matters:

- 1) any proposed use, sale, or lease of property of the estate pursuant to § 363 and

- 2) any proposed debtor in possession financing or use of cash collateral;
- 3) any proposed extension of the Debtors' exclusive time to file a plan of reorganization and solicit acceptance thereof (including, without limitation, the time to file a disclosure statement) pursuant to § 1121 and Bankruptcy Rule 3016;
- 4) any proposed approval of a compromise or settlement of a controversy pursuant to Bankruptcy Rules 2002(a)(3) and 9019 and/or § 363;
- 5) any proposed abandonment or disposition of property of the estate pursuant to § 554 and Bankruptcy Rules 6007(a) or (c);
- 6) any proposed assumption, assumption and assignment or rejection of contracts or leases pursuant to § 365 and Bankruptcy Rule 6006(a) or (c);
- 7) any proposal to prohibit or condition the use, sale or lease of property pursuant to § 363 or Bankruptcy Rule 4001(a);
- 8) any proposed objections to claims pursuant to § 502 or Bankruptcy Rules 3002, 3003 or 3007;
- 9) any verified statement filed by any entity or committee (other than those appointed pursuant to §§ 1102 or 1104) representing more than one creditor pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2019(a) and any motion filed in respect thereof pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2019(b);
- 10) any proposed application for employment of professionals pursuant to §§ 327, 1103 or 1104 or Bankruptcy Rule 2014;
- 11) any proposed application for compensation or reimbursement of expenses of professionals, pursuant to §§ 328, 329, 330, or 331 and Bankruptcy Rules 2002(a)(6), 2016, 2017, and 6005; except as provided by other orders of this Court;
- 12) any a hearing on any other contested matter in this Case that requires notice to all creditors or equity holders pursuant to the Bankruptcy Code, Bankruptcy Rule 9014, or the LBR; and
- 13) all other pleadings, papers, and requests for relief or other order of the Court, except as limited below.

However, all creditors will receive notice of the following:

- 1) the date fixed for filing proofs of claim;
- 2) the time fixed for filing objections to any disclosure statement and any hearing to consider approval of any disclosure statement;

- 3) the time fixed for accepting, rejecting, or objecting to confirmation of a plan or any modification thereof and the hearing thereon;
- 4) the entry of an order confirming a plan; and
- 5) a hearing regarding the dismissal or conversion of this Case (the "Complete Notice Matters").

Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002, the Court has authority to limit notice. Given that there are tens of thousands of creditors, requiring notice of every matter upon all creditors would impose a large administrative and economic burden upon the Debtors.

D. Motion for Authorization to File Consolidated List of Fifty Largest General Unsecured Creditors

The Debtors seek authorization to file a consolidated list of the fifty largest general unsecured creditors, and making the following arguments and representations in support of the Motion:

Rather than filing a list of the twenty largest unsecured creditors in each of these seventeen related cases, the Debtors seek authorization to file a consolidated list of the fifty general unsecured creditors for all seventeen Debtors and a consolidated Master Mailing Matrix for all seventeen Debtors.

Debtors have over $1 billion in liabilities and there are over 40,000 potential creditors and parties in interest in these seventeen Chapter 11 cases. Preparing an individual list of the twenty largest unsecured creditors in each of the seventeen cases would be an exceptionally burdensome task.

The Debtors' businesses are highly integrated. If the Debtors filed separate lists of the twenty largest unsecured creditors in each of the seventeen cases, there would be substantial overlap. The Debtors believe that a consolidated list of the fifty largest creditors would be more representative of the parties in interest.

II. Findings and Conclusions

A. Motion to Appoint Kurtzman Carson Consultants as Claims and Balloting Agent

The Motion to appoint KCC as claims and balloting agent is GRANTED. KCC is well-qualified to serve as the Debtors' claims and balloting agent, having provided such services in many of the largest Chapter 11 cases filed in the Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York and the Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware. The services to be provided by KCC will help streamline the administration of the Debtors' estates and will assist the Debtors in monitoring claims and bringing these cases to a timely resolution.

Because KCC's services will benefit the estates and creditors, allowance of KCC's services as an administrative expense claim is appropriate. The Debtor is authorized to pay KCC's fees in the ordinary course of business without further application to order of the Court.

B. Cash Management Motion

The Court is prepared to grant the Cash Management Motion on an interim basis, subject to a Final Hearing to be held on October 3, 2018, at 10:00 a.m.

The Debtors are authorized to continue using their existing cash management system, to implement changes to the system in the ordinary course of business, to continue to honor intercompany transactions in the ordinary course of business, and to provide administrative expense priority for postpetition company claims.

Local Bankruptcy Rule 2015-2 requires that Debtors comply with the United States Trustee Guidelines. The UST Guidelines require that new bank accounts be opened at certain financial institutions designated as authorized depositories by the U.S. Trustee.

In this case, requiring the Debtors to close their existing bank accounts, and to open new ones, will disrupt the Debtors' business and cash flow, which could affect patient care. Transitioning to new bank accounts will also increase the workload upon the Debtors' accounting staff.

The Debtors' existing accounts are already at banks that are on the UST's list of authorized depositories. Under these circumstances, waiving the UST requirements regarding debtor-in-possession accounts is appropriate.

To the extent necessary, the Court waives the bonding requirement imposed by § 345(b), "for cause." The Debtors are authorized to maintain their deposits in the accounts in accordance with existing deposit practices. The Court is satisfied that the Debtors' funds have been deposited with reputable financial institutions and that the funds on deposit are not at risk of loss.

The Court agrees with U.S. Bank, in its capacity as the Notes Trustee, that the Debtors' request to honor intercompany transactions in the ordinary course of business should be subject to a Final Hearing. The Court notes that in a consolidated enterprise such as that operated by the Debtors, intercompany transactions often do not reflect the market price for the goods and/or services transferred. Of course, the Court makes no findings as to whether non-market price transfers are occurring in this case, as no relevant evidence is before the Court. However, it is possible that the transfer pricing used by the Debtors might not reflect economic reality, and thus could economically advantage one estate to the disadvantage of the others. Therefore, the Debtors' request to continue honoring intercompany transactions could have real economic impact on the creditors of certain of the Debtors.

A Final Hearing on the Cash Management Motion shall take place on October 3, 2018, at 10:00 a.m. Opposition to the Cash Management Motion is due by no later than September 19, 2018. The Debtor's Reply in support of the Cash Management Motion is due by September 26, 2018.

C. Motion to Limit the Scope of Notice

Bankruptcy Rule 2002 authorizes the Court to limit the scope of the notices that are required to be provided. Here, the Debtors have more than 40,000 creditors. Requiring notice of every matter upon every creditor would prove unduly burdensome and expensive. The Debtor is authorized to limit the scope of notice as set forth in the Motion.

D. Motion to File Consolidated List of Fifty Largest Unsecured Creditors

The Debtors' motion for authorization to file a consolidated list of the fifty largest general unsecured creditors of all seventeen Debtors in each case (in lieu of a separate list of the twenty largest unsecured creditors for each Debtor) is GRANTED. The Debtors operated their businesses as a single consolidated enterprise. The Debtors have stated that it would be extremely burdensome to file separate lists of the twenty largest unsecured creditors in each of these seventeen jointly-administered cases, and that such lists would contain substantial overlap. The Court finds that a list of the fifty largest unsecured creditors of all seventeen Debtors, to be filed in each case, will provide a more accurate representation of the creditor body.

authority to revise, extend, supplement, renew, or change insurance coverage as needed, (b) pay insurance premiums, self-insured retentions, broker fees and deductibles in the ordinary course of business, and (c) pay certain administrative obligations associated therewith. Debtors further seek an order preventing insurance companies from enforcing any ipso facto clauses or giving any notice of termination or otherwise modifying or cancelling any insurance policies without first obtaining relief from the automatic stay. Debtors make the following arguments and representations in support of the Motion:

Any disruption to payment of the Debtors' insurance obligations would prevent the Debtors from achieving their goals in this case because the Debtors may not be able to operate without maintaining their insurance coverage. Failure to pay insurance obligations will result in severe repercussions on the Debtors' ability to continue to provide patient care, and will immediately and irreparably harm patients.

The Debtors maintain insurance policies providing for coverage of, among other things:

- 1) Workers' compensation and employers liability;
- 2) Directors and officers liability;
- 3) General liability;
- 4) Professional liability;
- 5) Sexual misconduct and molestation liability;
- 6) Storage tank liability;
- 7) Commercial property liability;
- 8) Commercial automobile liability;
- 9) Helipad liability and non-owned aircraft liability.

Significant insurance is issued to the Debtors by its captive insurer Marillac Insurance Company, Ltd. ("Marillac"). (Marillac has not sought relief under the Bankruptcy Code.)

The Debtors are required to maintain workers' compensation insurance coverage to comply with their obligations under California law. As a practical matter, the Debtors cannot continue to provide patient care and operate a healthcare system without professional and general liability insurance, among other coverages.

Chapter 11

Bankruptcy Code §107(c) provides that the Court may, for cause, “protect an individual” with respect to the disclosure of personal information. Information that the Debtors are required to keep confidential under relevant healthcare legislation easily qualifies as information of the type that is protected under Bankruptcy Code §107(c). The Debtors’ motion to file confidential patient information under seal is GRANTED.

B. The Motion to Maintain Insurance Coverage

The Court finds that, as a practical matter, the Debtors cannot continue the operation of their Hospitals without all the types of insurance set forth in the Motion. To the extent that payments to insurance carriers are for services rendered post-petition, such payments constitute an “ordinary course of business” expense for which Court approval is unnecessary.

To the extent that insurance payments represent pre-petition indebtedness, Court approval is required. If the Debtor did not pay insurers on account of pre-petition indebtedness, it would most likely be required to obtain new insurance coverage at greater cost. Such a result would inure to the detriment of all creditors.

The Ninth Circuit has recognized that “[c]ases have permitted unequal treatment of pre-petition debts when necessary for rehabilitation, in such contexts as (i) pre-petition wages to key employees; (ii) hospital malpractice premiums incurred prior to filing; (iii) debts to providers of unique and irreplaceable supplies; and (iv) peripheral benefits under labor contracts.” Burchinal v. Central Wash. Bank (In re Adams Apple, Inc.), 829 F.2d 1484, 1490 (9th Cir. 1987). Payment of prepetition insurance premiums falls within this rationale. Accordingly, the Court is prepared to authorize the Debtors to pay prepetition insurance premiums.

The Court is also prepared to bar insurance providers from invoking any ipso facto clauses set forth in any of the Debtors’ insurance policies. Ipsso facto clauses are not enforceable in bankruptcy, and any attempt by an insurance carrier to terminate insurance coverage absent court authorization would constitute a violation of the automatic stay.

Chapter 11

A. The Motion

The Debtors move for authorization to pay prepetition wages and employee benefits, and making the following arguments and representations in support of the Motion:

Debtors employ approximately 7,385 employees. Debtors seek authorization to pay prepetition wages in the aggregate amount of $14,287,757, for services performed from August 19, 2018 to August 30, 2018. With respect to any payments to insiders, the Debtors will serve Notices of Setting/Increasing Insider Compensation and will not pay insiders except in accordance with the procedures set forth by the United States Trustee.

Debtor also seeks to make payments for contributions to employee benefit plans. None of the contemplated payments will exceed the priority amounts set forth in § 507(a)(4) or (a)(5).

II. Findings and Conclusions

Section 507(a)(4) designates "wages, salaries, or commissions, including vacation, severance, and sick leave pay" that are earned by an individual "within 180 days before the date of the filing of the petition" as a fourth-priority claim. Additionally, § 507(a)(4) imposes a limit of $12,850.00 for each individual employee for priority status. A leading national bankruptcy treatise explains:

[B]ecause wages are priority claims, courts have often permitted debtors to pay prepetition wage claims in the ordinary course in response to a motion filed by a debtor in possession at the commencement of a chapter 11 case. The ability to ensure that the employees receive their unpaid prepetition salary and do not miss a paycheck is critical to obtaining the stability necessary for the transition to operating as a debtor in possession. If wage claims were not entitled to priority, it would be difficult to justify 'first day' orders approving payments of prepetition wages. There is no clear statutory authority for such first day orders, although a court with some confidence in the debtor's ability to satisfy claims through the third priority could justify the order under section 105.

COLLIER ON BANKRUPTCY ¶ 507.06[2] (16th ed. 2017). Local Bankruptcy Rule 2081-1(a) provides that a motion to pay prepetition payroll must be supported by evidence that establishes the following: "(A) The employees are still employed; (B) The necessity for payment; (C) The benefit of the procedures; (D) The prospect of reorganization; (E) Whether the employees are insiders; (F) Whether the employees' claims are within the limits established by 11 U.S.C. § 507; and that (G) The payment will not render the estate administratively insolvent."

Similar to Section 507(a)(4), §507(a)(5) provides that contributions to an employee benefit plan, up to the amount of $12,850 per employee, are entitled to administrative priority status.

Having reviewed the declaration of Richard G. Adcock, the Debtors' Chief Executive Officer, the Court finds that the Debtors have established the necessity of paying the prepetition wages, employee benefits, and employee benefit plan contributions as set forth in the Motion. The employees that are the subject of the Motion remain employed by the Debtors and are critical to the Debtors' continued operations. The Debtors will not pay any employee wages or benefits in excess of the priority amount set forth in §507(a)(4), and the Debtors will not make employee benefit plan contributions in excess of the amounts set forth in §507(a)(5). In view of the contemplated DIP Facility, the payments will not render the estate administratively insolvent. Finally, Debtors have made a sufficient showing that they have a reasonable prospect of selling assets or otherwise prosecuting this case to a conclusion consistent with the objectives of the Bankruptcy Code.

Based upon the foregoing, the Court is prepared to GRANT the Motion in its entirety.

Chapter 11

Discontinuing Service and (B) Determining Adequate Assurance of Payment for Future Utility Services

Debtors assert that they receive essential utility services from a number of utility providers identified in Exhibit A to the Motion (collectively, the "Utility Companies" and individually a "Utility Company") and seek emergency relief to avoid irreparable harm to the Debtors and their patients that might result if any one of the Utility Companies altered or discontinued service. Accordingly, by this motion, Debtors seek entry of an order: (i) prohibiting the Utility Companies from altering, refusing, or discontinuing service without further order of the Court; and (ii) determining adequate assurance of payment for future utility services, as already provided for in the Debtors' Budget submitted in connection with the Debtors' Cash Collateral Motion.

Debtors propose to give each Utility Company adequate assurance of future performance for their future services in the form of cash deposits (the "Utility Deposits" and each, a "Utility Deposit") in amounts that are equal to the average monthly invoice for one month of prepetition services provided to the Debtors by each Utility Company. See Utility Motion, Exhibit B. The Debtors propose to pay the Utility Deposits within days after the Court's entry of an order granting this Motion. Additionally, Debtors state that they will have adequate cash to meet all of their necessary postpetition operating expenses on a current basis, including payment to the Utility Companies.

Debtors also seek to establish a reasonable procedure by which a Utility Company may request further adequate assurance of future payment, in the event that such Utility Company believes that their Utility Deposit does not provide it with satisfactory adequate assurance (the "Procedures"). Debtors proposed Procedures are set forth on pages 13 – 15 of the Utility Motion.

Debtors submit that tendering the Utility Deposit and approval of the Procedures will provide adequate assurance of payment as required by 11 U.S.C. § 366(c). on shortened notice. Given the exigencies of first day motions, the Court finds that notice of the hearing was adequate.

Section 366(c)(2) provides that a utility companies may "alter, refuse, or discontinue utility service if, during the 30-day period beginning on the date of the filing of the petition, the utility does not receive from the debtor . . . adequate assurance of payment for utility service that is satisfactory to the utility." However, § 366(c)(3) provides that upon request of a party in interest and after notice and a hearing, the court "may order modification of the amount of an assurance of payment" under § 366(c)(2).

In In re Circuit City Stores, Inc., 2009 WL 484553 (Bankr. E.D. Va. Jan. 14, 2009), the court evaluated proposed procedures for determining adequate assurance of payment to utility providers. The Circuit City court concluded that the statute "does not prohibit a court from making a determination about the adequacy of an assurance of payment until only after a payment 'satisfactory to the utility' has been received from the debtor under § 366(c)(2). The first clause of § 366(c)(2) clearly renders the entire section subject to the court's authority outlined in § 366(c)(3). See 11 U.S.C. § 366(c)(2); see also 3 Collier on Bankruptcy ¶ 366.03[2] (Alan N. Resnick & Henry J. Sommer eds., 15th ed. rev.2008) (stating § 366(c)(2) means that the debtor must 'pay what the utility demands, unless the court orders otherwise.')." In re Circuit City Stores, supra, at *5.

The Circuit City court rejected the interpretation of § 363(c)(2) that "concludes that a bankruptcy court may not determine the appropriate amount of adequate assurance until the debtor has first paid whatever amount the utility has demanded." Id. at *3. Such an interpretation, the court reasoned, "is simply unworkable" and "could lead to absurd results." Id. For instance, a utility company might "simply fail to respond to a debtor's offer of adequate assurance, or it may choose to respond on the thirtieth day. In either event, the result would be calamitous for a debtor in the throes of bankruptcy." Id.

"The requirement is for 'adequate assurance' of payment, which . . . need not necessarily be provided by deposit." In re Adelpia Bus. Solutions, Inc., 280 B.R. 63, 80 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2002). "Whether utilities have adequate assurance of future payment is determined by the individual circumstances of each case." Id. "Accordingly, bankruptcy courts must be afforded reasonable discretion in determining what constitutes 'adequate assurance' of payment for continuing utility services." Virginia Elec. & Power Co. v. Caldor, Inc.-New York, 117 F.3d 646, 650 (2d Cir. 1997) (citations omitted).

Here, the Court finds that the Debtors' proposed Utility Deposit constitutes "adequate assurance of payment" pursuant to § 366(c)(2). The Debtors operate hospitals, medical centers and clinics. Any interruption in utility services could irreparably harm the Debtors and their patients and hamper the Debtors' ability to reorganize. Requiring the Debtors to first meet a utility company's demands for adequate assurance of payment before requesting a court order modifying that request would enable utility companies to subject the Debtors to unreasonable demands. Additionally, Debtors contends that they are current with all utility companies as of filing for bankruptcy and represent that they will remain current on all post-petition debts owed.

For these reasons, subject to oppositions at the hearing, the Court's tentative ruling is to GRANT the Utility Motion on the terms set forth herein. Debtors are directed to tender the Utility Deposits within 7 business days following entry of an order approving the motion. The Utility Companies will be deemed to be receiving adequate assurance of payment on these terms.

The Debtors must lodge a conforming proposed order within 7 days of the hearing.

Debtors' emergency motion for authorization to obtain secured credit and to authorize the use of cash collateral, and is not repeated here.

A. The Motion

The Debtors move for entry of an interim order authorizing, but not directing, the Debtors to continue to pay and/or honor prepetition claims, in an interim amount of up to $5 million. The Debtors make the following arguments and representations in support of the Motion:

The Debtors operate a nonprofit safety-net healthcare system that provides medical care for over 300,000 patients per year. To continue operations, the Debtors must be authorized to make prepetition payments to certain medical suppliers, medical care providers, and critical service providers (collectively, the "Critical Vendors").

The Debtors and their advisors have developed a protocol to identify only those vendors most critical to the Debtors' continued operations (the "Protocol"). Under the Protocol, a vendor is a Critical Vendor if that vendor meets the following criteria:

- 1) The vendor is essential to patient care, supports maintaining the Debtors' business in full compliance with all applicable legal requirements, and allows the Debtors to continue to provide essential and life-saving patient care and services;
- 2) The vendor is indispensable for providing vital goods and services (such as blood products or surgical implants), could not be replaced without prohibitive expense, or is critical to prevent the diversion of management and key personnel;
- 3) The vendor will most likely refuse to deliver vital goods or services without payment of its prepetition claim, and the automatic stay is inadequate to address the issue;
- 4) Cash on delivery is unlikely to provide the requisite incentive for the vendor to continue providing goods or services;
- 5) The Debtors lack a long-term contractual relationship with the vendor that would oblige the vendor to continue the prepetition relationship;
- 6) The Debtors are otherwise without adequate leverage to compel performance on commercially reasonable terms;
- 7) The Debtors will suffer immediate and irreparable harm if the vendor is not specially incentivized to continue providing essentially goods or services.

Chapter 11

The Debtors will use commercially reasonable efforts to require the vendor to sign a postpetition agreement with normalized terms and conditions that contractually binds the vendor to continue providing essential goods and services postpetition (the “Critical Vendor Agreement”).

Critical Vendors fall into the following categories:

- 1) Uncompensated Care and On-Call Coverage Physicians. The Debtors require the services of various physicians who provide care to patients who lack the ability to pay the Debtors for their medical treatment. Uncompensated Care Contract Physicians provide life-saving medical care and treatment for patients who cannot pay for such care. On-Call Coverage Physicians ensure that specialty physician services are available at all times for all patients, regardless of the patient’s ability to pay. Due to a strong economy and tight labor market, Uncompensated Care Contract Physicians and On-Call Coverage Physicians would likely leave to work at other hospitals if they did not receive payment on account of their prepetition claims.
- 2) Medical Directors. Medical Directors ensure that the Debtors’ Hospitals provide patient care efficiently and in compliance with state and federal laws, rules, and regulations. Absent payment on account of their prepetition claims, Medical Directors would likely leave to work at other hospitals.
- 3) Medical Leadership. In order to maintain the accreditations that are necessary to enable the Hospitals to retain their certifications under the Medicare and Medi-Cal programs, the Debtors require the services of various physicians who serve as medical staff officers or who occupy various other leadership positions. Absent payment on account of their prepetition claims, these physicians would likely leave to work at other hospitals.
- 4) Physician Educators. The Debtors require the services of various physicians who provide teaching services in the Debtors’ graduate medical education (“GME”) program. The GME program trains physicians who provided needed staffing for the Debtors’ hospitals. Physician Educators are in high demand because they are highly skilled—they must not only be experts in their fields, but they must also meet stringent qualifications under the government’s GME requirements. Without the Physician Educators, the Debtors would lose their GME program. The GME Program is a require program for the Level II Trauma Center at St. Vincent Medical Center. Physician Educators would likely leave to work at other hospitals absent payment on their prepetition claims.

- 5) Medical Services Providers. The Debtors require the services of various Medical Services Provides, including providers of surgical anesthesia coverage, organ harvesting and organ matching services, medical equipment sanitization, diagnostic interventional cardiology services, imaging services, advanced wound care, laboratory services, dialysis services, and medical screening services, among others.
- 6) Medical Supplies and Equipment Providers. The Debtors require the use of various medical supplies and medical equipment, including without limitation blood and plasma, heart valves, defibrillators, surgical medical products, pharmaceuticals, radiational equipment, cochlear implants, and sterilization equipment.
- 7) Clinical Staffing. The Debtors require various medical staffing agencies to provide numerous personnel essential to operating hospitals, including without limitation nurses, nurse practitioners, physicians assistances, imaging technicians, surgical technicians, and admission department staff. Because Debtors must comply with mandatory California nurse-to-patient ratios, the Debtors are required to increase nurse staffing depending upon daily patient census.
- 8) Non-Medical Services Providers. The Debtors require services of various non-medical service provides, including without limitation providers offering payroll tax services, financial audit services, billing services, cost reporting services, and revenue cycle management services.
- 9) IT Service Providers. The Debtors require the use of various information technology services, including without limitation services supporting diagnostic technology, device interoperability, risk management software, revenue cycle management billing software, customer relationship management software, and networking services.
- 10) Benefits Providers. The Debtors have incentivized their employees to continue working through the continuation of company-subsidized benefits, such as workers compensation, medical, dental, and vision benefits, and life insurance benefits. If the Debtors are not permitted by pay any prepetition premium amounts due to these Benefits Providers, the employees' insurance coverage will be jeopardized and the employees will

All Critical Vendors will be required to sign a Critical Vendor Agreement. If, after signing the Critical Vendor Agreement, the Critical Vendor thereafter refuses to supply goods and services to the Debtors throughout the course of the bankruptcy proceeding, the Debtors may (a) deem payments to the defaulting Critical Vendor to be a voidable post-petition transfer pursuant to §549(a) and (b) may demand the immediate return of any and all payment made to the defaulting Critical Vendor.

B. Reservation of Rights by the Notes Trustee

U.S. Bank, in its capacity as the 2015 Note Trustee and the 2017 Note Trustee, responds to the Critical Vendor Motion as follows:

The Notes Trustee acknowledges that the Debtors' business is complex and that payment of certain vendors may be necessary to enhance the value of the bankruptcy estates. However, payment of critical vendors is a form of extraordinary relief that is not specifically authorized by any section of the Bankruptcy Code. If permitted, it will allow the Debtors to use collateral pledged to the repayment of certain prepetition secured creditors, like the Notes Trustee, to make payments to unsecured or other creditors whose claims may otherwise be paid last. Further, the Debtors, at their discretion, can decide which Critical Vendor claims should be paid and in what amounts. Accordingly, it is important to allow all creditors sufficient time to understand how the Debtors' requests may impact creditors' relative priorities and security positions.

Based upon the foregoing, the Notes Trustee the Notes Trustee has a significant interest in making sure that interim payments to Critical Vendors are only made where necessary to avoid immediate and irreparable harm to the Debtors. Moreover, the Notes Trustee has an interest in understanding the need for, and the proposed uses of, the additional up to $15 million in potential Critical Vendor payments that may be authorized on a non-interim basis. At this time, the Notes Trustee does not expect to have a full understanding of these issue by the first day hearing on the Motion.

II. Findings and Conclusions

Chapter 11

Ct. 973, 985, 197 L. Ed. 2d 398 (2017). The Supreme Court’s statement in Jevic obviously was not a holding upon the validity of a critical vendor order; nonetheless, the Supreme Court’s acknowledgment that Bankruptcy Courts have reasoned that critical vendor orders are necessary to “enable a successful reorganization and make even the disfavored creditors better off” is significant. Id. at 985.

More on point, in the context of a cross-collateralization clause, the Ninth Circuit has recognized that “[c]ases have permitted unequal treatment of pre-petition debts when necessary for rehabilitation, in such contexts as (i) pre-petition wages to key employees; (ii) hospital malpractice premiums incurred prior to filing; (iii) debts to providers of unique and irreplaceable supplies; and (iv) peripheral benefits under labor contracts.” Burchinal v. Central Wash. Bank (In re Adams Apple, Inc.), 829 F.2d 1484, 1490 (9th Cir. 1987). The Ninth Circuit’s recognition of the necessity of paying prepetition debts to “providers of unique and irreplaceable supplies” is particularly salient; that relief is most analogous to the relief sought by the instant Motion.

The Debtors have established that there is a strong likelihood that they may suffer irreparable harm if they are not able to pay Critical Vendors. The Debtors have adopted rigorous procedures to limit the amounts to be paid to Critical Vendors on account of prepetition debt.

Such prepetition payments obviously are frowned upon because they subvert the Bankruptcy Code’s priority scheme. Yet the priority scheme will be of little use to anyone if value is destroyed because the Debtors cannot continue operations. There is a credible threat that the Debtors will not be able to obtain needed services and supplies absent authorization to pay Critical Vendors.

The Motion is GRANTED on an interim basis. A Final Hearing shall be held on October 3, 2018, at 10:00 a.m. Opposition to the Debtor’s ability to pay an additional $15 million to Critical Vendors is due by no later than September 19, 2018. The Debtor’s reply in support of continued authorization is due by September 26, 2018.

No. 67]

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

A. Background

On August 31, 2018, Verity Health Systems of California (“VHS”) and certain of its subsidiaries (collectively, the “Debtors”) filed voluntary petitions for relief under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. On August 31, 2018, the Court entered an order granting the Debtors’ motion for joint administration of the Debtors’ Chapter 11 cases. Doc. No. 17.

Debtor VHS, a California nonprofit public benefit corporation, is the sole corporate member of the following five Debtor nonprofit public benefit corporations that operate acute care hospitals: O’Connor Hospital, Saint Louise Regional Hospital, St. Francis Medical Center, St. Vincent Medical Center, Seton Medical Center, and Seton Medical Center Coastside (collectively, the “Hospitals”). Adcock Decl. [Doc. No. 8] at ¶11. VHS, the Hospitals, and their affiliated entities (collectively, the “Verity Health System”) operate a nonprofit health care system in the State of California, with approximately 1,680 inpatient beds, six active emergency rooms, a trauma center, and various medical specialties. Id. at ¶12. In 2017, the Hospitals provided medical services to over 50,000 inpatients and approximately 480,000 outpatients. Id.

Debtor Verity Medical Foundation (“VMF”), incorporated in 2011, is a medical foundation that contracts with physicians and other healthcare professionals to provide patient care throughout California. Id. at ¶14. VMF offers medical, surgical, and related healthcare services at community-based, multi-specialty clinics located in areas served by the Debtor Hospitals. Id.

Verity Holdings LLC (“Holdings”), a direct subsidiary of its sole member VHS, was created in 2016 to hold and finance Verity’s interests in six medical office buildings whose tenants are primarily physicians, medical groups, healthcare providers, and certain of the Hospitals. Id. at ¶15. Holdings’ real estate portfolio includes over 30 properties. Id.

Debtors Saint Louise Regional Hospital Foundation, St. Francis Medical Center Foundation, St. Vincent Medical Center Foundation, Seton Medical Center Foundation, and O'Connor Medical Center Foundation handle fundraising and grant-making programs for each of their respective Debtor Hospitals. Id. at ¶16.

As of August 30, 2018, the Debtors' facilities had approximately 850 patients, and are currently at approximately 50% occupancy. Id. at ¶17. As of August 31, 2018, the Debtors have approximately 7,385 employees, of whom 4,733 are full-time employees. Id. at ¶18. Approximately 74% of these employees are represented by collective bargaining units. Id.

VHS operates Debtor Verity Business Services ("VBS"), a nonprofit public benefit corporation. Id. at ¶30. VBS provides support services to the Verity Health System, including accounting, finance, patient financial services, supply chain management, and purchasing services. Id.

O'Connor Hospital operates a 358 bed, general acute care hospital that serves residents from the greater San Jose area, and contains an emergency department with 23 emergency treatment stations. Id. at ¶32. St. Vincent Medical Center operates a 366 bed, regional acute care facility located in Los Angeles, CA. Id. at ¶34. St. Vincent Medical Center is the sole corporate member of the St. Vincent Dialysis Center, located on the Hospital's campus. Id. at ¶36. St. Vincent Dialysis Center provides dialysis services for kidney disease patients. Id.

St. Francis Medical Center operates a 384 bed, general acute care hospital located in Lynwood, California. Id. at ¶37. Seton Medical Center operates a 357 bed hospital located in Daly City, California. Id. at ¶39. Seton Coastside is located in the City of Half Moon Bay, California, and contains 116 skilled nursing beds and five general, acute-care beds. Id. at ¶40. Saint Louise Hospital is located in Gilroy, California and operates a 93 bed, general acute care hospital. Id. at ¶42.

DePaul Ventures, LLC is a wholly-owned and operated holding company of the Debtors that was formed in August 2010 for the purpose of investing in a freestanding surgery center and other healthcare entities. Id. at ¶45. In April 2013, DePaul Ventures, LLC formed DePaul Ventures—San Jose Dialysis, LLC ("Dialysis"), a general and limited partner of Priday Dialysis, LLC ("Priday"). B. The Financing Motion

The Debtors make the following arguments and representations in support of the Financing Motion:

Debtors seek authorization to enter into a senior secured, superpriority debtor in possession financing facility with Ally Bank, a subsidiary of Ally Financial, Inc. (the "DIP Lender"), in (a) an interim amount not to exceed $30 million, and (b) after a final hearing, in an amount up to total lending of not more than $185 million (such financing, the "DIP Facility").

VHS, VBS, and VHS' five acute care hospital subsidiaries (O'Connor Hospital, Saint Louise Regional Hospital, St. Francis Medical Center, St. Vincent Medical Center, Seton Medical Center, and Seton Medical Center Coastside) are jointly obligated parties on approximately $461.4 million in outstanding secured debt consisting of (a) $259.4 million in outstanding principal amount of tax exempt revenue bonds, Series 2005 A, G and H issued by the California Statewide Communities Development Authority (the "2005 Bonds") and (b) $202 million in outstanding principal amount of tax exempt revenue notes, Series 2015 A, B, C, and D and Series 2017 issued by the California Public Financing Authority (the "Working Capital Notes").

For the 2005 Bonds, Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. ("Wells Fargo") is the Bond Trustee and UMB Bank, N.A. ("UMB") is the successor Master Trustee. The 2005 Bonds were issued to provide funds for capital improvements and to refinancing certain tax exempt bonds that had been issued in 2001. For the Working Capital Notes, U.S. Bank, N.A. ("U.S. Bank") is the Note Trustee and Collateral Agent. (The Working Capital Notes, together with the 2005 Bonds, are collectively referred to as the "MTI Obligations" ("MTI" is an abbreviation for "Master Trustee Indenture").)

Holdings, a direct subsidiary of its sole member VHS, was created in 2016 to hold and finance VHS' interests in six medical office buildings whose tenants are primarily physicians and medical groups affiliated with certain of the Hospitals operated by the Debtors. Holdings' real estate portfolio consists of over 30 properties, including, but not limited to, apartment buildings, parking lots, and condominiums. Holdings is the borrower on approximately $66 million on two series of non-recourse financing secured by separate deeds of trust and revenue and accounts pledges, including lease rents on medical buildings (the "MOB Financing"). The secured lenders for the MOB

Financing are affiliates of NantWorks, LLC, which is an affiliate of the Debtors' prepetition manager, Integrity Healthcare, LLC ("Integrity") (Integrity has not sought bankruptcy protection).

Debtor Seton Medical Center is liable for repayment of $20 million of limited obligation tax exempt bonds issued in September 2017 by the California Statewide Communities Development Authority (the "Clean Fund Bonds"). The Clean Fund Bonds were issued to assist with clean energy-related capital improvements to Seton Medical Center. No other Debtor is liable for repayment of the Clean Fund Bonds. Wilmington Trust National Association ("WTNA") is the Trustee holding the construction funds raised in connection with the Clean Fund Bonds.

Debtor Seton Medical Center is also liable for repayment of $20 million in California 30-year tax exempt bonds, issued in September 2017 for the purpose of seismic improvements at Seton Medical Center (the "NR2 Petros Bonds"). No other Debtor is liable for repayment of the NR2 Petros Bonds. WTNA is the Trustee holding the construction funds raised in connection with the NR2 Petros Bonds.

NantCapital, LLC has provided $40 million in unsecured debt financing for VHS, as reflected in two $20 million unsecured notes dated March 7, 2018 and March 29, 2018 (the "Unsecured Notes").

All of the Debtors' income is subject to prepetition perfected pledges. The gross revenue of the Hospitals is pledged in favor of the 2005 Bonds. The prepetition accounts receivable and government receivables of the Hospitals are pledged in favor of the Working Capital Notes. As of August 31, 2018 (the "Petition Date"), the Debtors had less than $40 million of cash on hand that is not subject to control accounts in favor of either the 2005 Bonds, the Working Capital Notes, or the MOB Financing (excluding cash held by WTNA on account of the Clean Fund Bonds and/or the NR2 Petros Bonds). The Debtors expect to spend approximately $113 million during the first four weeks of the case; operating cash losses for this period are expected to exceed $11 million. These figures do not include critical vendor payments, adequate protection payments, pension contributions, or capital expenditures.

As of the Petition Date, the Debtors anticipate having in excess of $219 million in net accounts receivable, and expect to generate approximately $80 million in new post-petition receivables during the first four weeks of the case. U.S. Bank, as Note Trustee for the Working Capital Notes, asserts that all postpetition receipts are proceeds of prepetition accounts receivable and prepetition government receivables and as such constitute priority collateral for the Working Capital Notes.

The terms of the DIP Facility are the result of a wide-ranging market exploration by the Debtors and their professionals. Beginning the week of July 23, 2018, Cain Brothers, a division of KeyBanc Capital Markets (“Cain”), acting as investment advisers to the Debtors, began searching for DIP financing. Cain consulted with 16 potential DIP Lenders. Cain’s efforts yielded four offers for debtor-in-possession financing. The Debtors believe the financing offered by Ally Bank (the “DIP Lender”) to be the most favorable.

To secure the DIP Facility, the Debtors propose to grant the DIP Lender first priority priming liens on, and security interests in, substantially all of the Debtors’ assets, subject to a Carve-Out not to exceed (a) $2 million for fees accrued by professionals retained by the Debtors and (b) $75,000 for fees accrued by professionals retained by the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (the “Committee”).

Secured Creditors will receive the following adequate protection:

- 1) Secured Creditors in connection with the 2005 Bonds, Working Capital Notes, and MOB Financing shall receive post-petition, non-default interest. WTNA, which holds the cash raised in connection with the Clean Fund Bonds and NR2 Petros Bonds, will not receive interest payments.
- 2) To the extent of any diminution in value of their interests, Secured Creditors shall receive replacement liens.
- 3) To preserve the prepetition value of the Debtors’ real property and improvements, the Debtors will use the DIP Facility Proceeds and cash collateral to continue to maintain such property in good repair.
- 4) To the extent of any diminution in the value of their interests, Secured Creditors shall have an allowed superpriority administrative expense claim.

B. The Attorney General’s Limited Objection

The California Attorney General (the “Attorney General”) filed a Limited Objection to the Financing Motion. The Attorney General makes the following arguments and representations in support of the Limited Objection:

The Debtors are nonprofit public benefit corporations that hold charitable gifts and assets that are restricted for a specific purpose. Those restricted gifts and assets are not to be used for any other purposes than the restricted purpose and should not be available to creditors unless authorized in the restriction.

Restricted donations to nonprofit corporations have been held not to be property of the bankruptcy estate and therefore not available for distribution to general creditors. *See In re Save Our Springs (S.O.S.) Restricted charitable funds held by the Debtors are held in a charitable trust, must be used for the restricted purposes, are not subject to liens or other encumbrances, are not available to cover operating expenses or other activities of the nonprofit corporation, and are not available either for distribution to the general creditors or to be used as cash collateral.

Debtors' Financing Motion seeks entry of interim and final orders which include provisions that inappropriately provide for liens on the charitable trust assets that may not be subject to such liens or other encumbrances.

Any order authorizing the use of cash collateral or approving debtor-in-possession financing should contain the following language:

Nothing in this order shall create or validate liens on or allow the use of any assets that are not assets of, or subject to being encumbered by, the debtors under applicable law. These assets may include, but are not limited to, restricted charitable funds.

Nothing in this order shall in any way diminish the obligation of any entity, including the debtors, to comply with applicable state law and conditions including, but not limited to, charitable trust laws and the conditions set forth in the California Attorney General's Decision dated December 3, 2015. Further, nothing in this order or the budget shall prevent the debtor from complying with any such obligations or conditions.

C. U.S. Bank's Combined Reservation of Rights

U.S. Bank responds to the Financing Motion as follows:

Subject to acceptable adequate protection, U.S. Bank, in its capacity as the 2015 Note Trustee and the 2017 Note Trustee, supports an order approving the DIP Facility and the Debtors' use of cash collateral. The Notes Trustee acknowledges that the Debtors face a serious liquidity crisis and urgently require some level of debtor-in-possession financing and use of cash collateral on an interim basis.

The Notes Trustee wants to make sure that the amount of money borrowed by the Debtors on an interim basis is truly necessary. For example, the proposed authorization for $20 million to pay Critical Vendors seems extraordinary, and the Debtors have not yet demonstrated that such a large allocation is truly critical or appropriate.

In addition, given that the Debtors' facilities are being marketed for sale, the Debtors should be required to demonstrate why allocation of approximately $8.3 million toward capital expenditures in the first 13-week period of the case (including allocation of $5.72 million in the first 30 days) is necessary. Such expenditures would benefit the eventual purchasers of the facilities but would not benefit the Debtors' estates or their senior secured creditors.

The interim and final orders on the Financing Motion need to include protections that respect the separateness of each bankruptcy estate, including separate budgets for borrowings and repayments of the DIP Facility. Certain of the Hospitals, such as the St. Francis Medical Center on which the Notes Trustee has priority liens, are cash flow positive. The Debtors should be required to account for and report on their use of the DIP Facility on an entity-by-entity basis.

The Notes Trustee has discussed its position on other issues with the Debtors, and believes that the Debtors are amenable to including language in the Financing Order resolving the concerns of the Notes Trustee. Specifically, the following issues have been addressed:

- 1) In the Financing Motion, the Debtors propose to limit the adequate protection payment of the Notes Trustee's fees and expenses to out-of-pocket expenses incurred with respect to one law firm and one financial advisor. Because the 2015 Notes and 2017 Notes were issued under separate indentures and have separate collateral rights, they have separate trustees. The Notes Trustee has discussed with the Debtors its position that there is no justification for limiting U.S. Bank to one counsel with respect to both trusteeships. The Notes Trustees believe that the Debtors are amenable to including language in the order resolving this issue.
- 2) The 2017 Note Trustee holds the only lien in the Moss Property under the Moss Deed of Trust. The proposed interim order on the Motion does preserve the relative priority of the Notes Trustee and the Master Trustee as provided in the Intercreditor Agreement, but does not preserve the relative prepetition priority of the 2017 Note Trustee in the Moss Property. The Notes Trustee has suggested language for the interim order on the Motion to clarify that the prepetition priority status of the Moss Deed of Trust will not be primed by Replacement Liens. Based on its discussions with the Debtors, the Notes Trustee believes that the Debtors are amenable to including this language in a revised form of interim order to be filed with the Court.

II. Findings and Conclusions

A. The Attorney General's Limited Objection is Overruled Only for Purposes of this Hearing

The Attorney General asserts that certain of the Debtors' assets are may not be distributed to creditors and are unavailable for general operating expenses because those assets are restricted charitable funds held in charitable trust. In support of this contention, the Attorney General points to various requirements imposed by the Attorney General upon the Debtors' operations in connection with a System Restructuring and Supporting Agreement dated December 3, 2015 (the "Agreement").

In the Agreement, the Attorney General consents to a change of control in the operation of the Debtors, provided the Debtors comply with various conditions, which include, among others, the following:

- 1) A fifteen-year prohibition on selling, transferring, or otherwise alienating the Hospitals operated by the Debtors.
- 2) A ten-year requirement that emergency departments at various Debtor Hospitals be operated in accordance with minimum requirements.
- 3) Requirements pertaining to the type of health care that the Debtor Hospitals must provide.
- 4) Requirements that the Debtor Hospitals furnish specified amounts of charitable care.

Notably, there is nothing in the Agreement that references or discusses any funds held by the Debtors that are the subject of a charitable trust.

In his Limited Objection, the Attorney General cites various decisions which held that funds that are part of an irrevocable, restricted charitable trust are not property of the bankruptcy estate. See, e.g., In re Parkview Hosp., 211 B.R. 619, 634 (Bankr. N.D. Ohio 1997), In re Roman Catholic Archbishop of Portland in Oregon, 345 B.R. 686, 704 (Bankr. D. Or. 2006), and In re Bishop Coll., 151 B.R. 394, 398 (Bankr. N.D. Tex. 1993). Parkview Hospital, Roman Catholic Arhbishop of Portland, and Bishop Coll. stand for the unremarkable proposition that funds that are the property of an irrevocable charitable trust are not property of the bankruptcy estate.

In contrast to Parkview Hospital, Roman Catholic Archbishop of Portland, or Bishop Coll., the Attorney General has not introduced specific evidence indicating that the Debtors hold custody over assets that are subject to an irrevocable charitable trust, such that those assets would not be property of the estate. On the record before it, the Court cannot conclusively rule out that the Debtors might have custody over assets that are part of an irrevocable charitable trust of the type at issue in Parkview and related cases, such that those assets would not constitute estate property. But the Attorney General has proffered no evidence that any of the Debtors' assets are the subject of such a trust.

Though it is not entirely clear, the Attorney General's argument appears to be that because the Debtors are public benefit corporations, all or almost all of the Debtors' assets are impressed with a charitable trust as a matter of law, and that accordingly such assets are either not property of the estate or may not be used by the Debtors in the postpetition operation of their estates. For purposes of this hearing only, the Court declines to adopt the Attorney General's position. It may be that the Debtors have custody over assets that are the subject of an irrevocable charitable trust and that are not property of the estate. However, there is currently no evidence before the Court establishing the presence of such assets. Therefore, at this juncture, the Court will not require that the interim order issued in connection with the Financing Motion contain the language suggested by the Attorney General. The Court's findings on the charitable trust issue are for purposes of this hearing only, and the Attorney General may raise such arguments in connection with future hearings.

B. DIP Financing

Section 364 provides in relevant part:

- (c) If the trustee is unable to obtain unsecured credit allowable under section 503(b)(1) of this title as an administrative expense, the court, after notice and a hearing, may authorize the obtaining of credit or the incurring of debt—
 - (1) with priority over any or all administrative expenses of the kind specified in section 503(b) or 507(b) of this title;
 - (2) secured by a lien on property of the estate that is not otherwise subject to a lien; or
 - (3) secured by a junior lien on property of the estate that is subject to a lien.
- (d)(1) The court, after notice and a hearing, may authorize the obtaining of credit or the incurring of debt secured by a senior or equal lien on property of the estate that is subject to a lien only if—

(A) the trustee is unable to obtain such credit otherwise; and

(B) there is adequate protection of the interest of the holder of the lien on the property of the estate on which such senior or equal lien is proposed to be granted.

(2) In any hearing under this subsection, the trustee has the burden of proof on the issue of adequate protection.

Having reviewed the declaration submitted by Anita Chou, the Chief Financial Officer of VHS (the “Chou Decl.”), the Court finds that the Debtors were unable to obtain financing on more favorable terms than those proposed by the DIP Lender. The Court further finds that the Debtors require the use of $30 million, on an interim basis, in order to avoid irreparable harm to the continued operation of the Hospitals.

The Court finds that the Secured Creditors whose liens are primed by the DIP Facility are adequately protected. The book value of the Debtors’ collateral is approximately $840 million, which provides more than a 20% equity cushion for Secured Creditors. See In re James River Associates, 148 B.R. 790, 796 (E.D. Va. 1992) (“The amount of equity cushion sufficient to adequately protect the creditor is determined on a case-by-case basis. Kost, 102 B.R. at 831. However, the reported cases do provide some guidance: Case law has almost uniformly held that an equity cushion of 20% or more constitutes adequate protection.... Case law has almost as uniformly held that an equity cushion under 11% is insufficient to constitute adequate protection.... Case law is divided on whether a cushion of 12% to 20% constitutes adequate protection....”).

In addition to adequate protection through the equity cushion, the replacement liens and superpriority claim provide the secured creditors additional adequate protection. The financing provided by the DIP Lender will enable the Debtors to continue to operate and generate additional receivables. Those receivables will be subject to the replacement liens. See In re Megan-Racine Associates, Inc., 202 B.R. 660, 663 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1996) (concluding that “[a]s long as there was a continuous income stream being generated by the Debtor, the fact that the Debtor consumed a portion of those monies to operate and maintain the facility each month did not diminish the value of the [secured creditor’s] interest in the [cash collateral]”). There is no evidence before the Court that the Debtors’ assets are declining in value. However, the abrupt cessation of operations would almost certainly result in a decline in value.

The Court agrees with U.S. Bank, in its capacity as Trustee for the 2015 Notes and the 2017 Notes, that the Debtors' financial reporting should be broken down on an entity-by-entity basis. Although these cases are being jointly administered, the estates have not been substantively consolidated, and each Debtor has its own assets and liabilities independent of the other Debtors.

C. Cash Collateral

Section 363(c)(2) requires court authorization for the use of cash collateral unless "each entity that has an interest in such cash collateral consents." Absent affirmative express consent, the Debtors "may not use" cash collateral absent the Court's determination that the use is "in accordance with the provisions" of Section 363—that is, that the secured creditor's interest in the cash collateral is adequately protected. Section 363(c)(2)(B); Section 363(e).

A secured creditor's interest is adequately protected if the value of its collateral is not declining; the secured creditor is not entitled to payment to compensate for its inability to foreclose upon the collateral during bankruptcy proceedings. United Savings Association of Texas v. Timbers of Inwood Forest Associates, Ltd., 484 U.S. 365 (1988).

For the reasons set forth above, the Court finds that the Secured Creditors are adequately protected.

D. Final Hearing

A Final Hearing on the Financing Motion shall take place on October 3, 2018, at 10:00 a.m. Opposition to final approval of the DIP Facility is due by no later than September 19, 2018. The Debtors' Reply in support of the Financing Motion is due by September 26, 2018.

The Trustee has determined that the sale of certain of the Debtor's personal property (trademark) assets through an auction will provide the most benefit for the Estate and its creditors. The personal property assets to be included in the auction are: (1) the word mark registered as "Patina-V", serial number 87481155; (2) the word mark registered as "Patina-V", serial number 77619170; and (3) the word mark registered as "Patina Arts", serial number 77619232 (collectively, the "Trademarks" or "Trademark Assets").

On July 10, 2018, the Trustee and Caisse Regionale De Credit Agricole ("Credit Agricole"), which holds a security interest in the Trademarks, entered into the "Amended Stipulation to Sell Trademarks and Related Goodwill of the Estate Free and Clear of Liens" (the "Stipulation") [Doc. No. 75], which was approved by order of the Court entered on August 1, 2018 [Doc. No. 82]. The Stipulation provides that the Trustee shall have the right to sell the Trademark Assets free and clear of Credit Agricole's lien for not less than $80,000.00, and provides a distribution scheme for the payment of the gross proceeds received from the sale.

The key sale terms are as follows:

- 1) Proposed purchaser: CNL Mannequins (the "Buyer");
- 2) Property for Sale: The Trademark Assets, including: (a) the word mark registered as "Patina-V", serial number 87481155; (b) the word mark registered as "Patina-V", serial number 77619170; and (c) the word mark registered as "Patina Arts", serial number 77619232;
- 3) Purchase price: $80,000.00;
- 4) Bidding Procedures: The initial overbid shall be $5,000.00; subsequent overbids shall be in the amount of $500.00. The overbid increment is subject to adjustment by the Court to facilitate bidding. Overbids must be in writing and received by the Trustee no later than three business days prior to the hearing on the Sale Motion. Overbids must be accompanied by a deposit in the amount of at least $5,000.00 payable to the Trustee.

Based on the sale terms, the sale will generate proceeds of at least $20,000.00 which will benefit the Estate.

II. Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law

Section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code permits the trustee to sell estate property outside the ordinary course of business, subject to court approval. The trustee must articulate a business justification for the sale. In re Walter, 83 B.R. 14, 19–20 (9th Cir. BAP 1988). Whether the articulated business justification is sufficient "depends on the case," in view of "all salient factors pertaining to the proceeding." Id. at 19–20. Here, the Trustee articulates a sufficient business justification for the sale. The Trustee believes the proposed sale of the Trademark Assets is in the best interest of the Estate, and furthermore, that the projected sale price represents the fair market value of the Assets.

The Trustee has met the conditions for the sale of the Property free and clear of all liens. Section 363(f) permits a sale of property "free and clear of any interest in such property of an entity other than the estate" if any one of the following conditions is met:

- (1) applicable nonbankruptcy law permits the sale of such property free and clear of such interest;
- (2) such entity consents;
- (3) such interest is a lien and the price at which such property is to be sold is greater than the aggregate value of all liens on such property;
- (4) such interest is in bona fide dispute; or
- (5) such entity could be compelled, in a legal or equitable proceeding, to accept a money satisfaction of such interest.

11 U.S.C. § 363(f). Here, the Court finds that the Sale Motion satisfies the requirements of §§ 363(f)(3) and 363(f)(4). Pursuant to the Stipulation, the Trustee has obtained the consent of Credit Agricole to sell the Trademark Assets free and clear of the liens of Credit Agricole, provided that the sale price is not less than $80,000.00.

Lastly, pending the final outcome of the sale, the 14-day stay under FRBP 6004(h) is WAIVED.

Auction Procedures

The Court will distribute numbered auction paddles to the proposed purchaser and all qualified overbidders. The initial overbid will be $5,000.00. Subsequent overbids will be increments of $500.00, with the increments subject to adjustment by the Court depending upon the bidding. The Court will announce each bid level. To remain in the auction, bidders must participate at all bid levels. That is, parties who do not bid in a round cannot later change their minds and re-enter the auction. Parties may make a bid higher than that announced by the Court by approaching the podium and stating their bid.

If a bidder other than the Buyers prevails at the auction, the Court will take testimony to determine whether that bidder is entitled to the protections of §363(m).

III. Conclusion

In conclusion, based on the foregoing, the Court GRANTS the Trustee's Sale Motion in its entirety. The Court will conduct the auction in accordance with the procedures set forth above.

The Trustee shall submit an appropriate order within seven days of the hearing.

If you intend to submit on the tentative ruling, please contact Cameron Schlagel or Daniel Koontz at 213-894-1522. If you intend to contest the tentative ruling and appear, please first contact opposing counsel to inform them of your intention to do so. Should an opposing party file a late opposition or appear at the hearing, the court will determine whether further hearing is required. Docket 25

Tentative Ruling:

9/7/2018

Tentative Ruling:

This Motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on the notice required by LBR 4001(c)(1) and LBR 9013-1(d)(2). The failure of the Debtor, the trustee, and all other parties in interest to file written opposition at least 14 days prior to the hearing as required by LBR 9013-1(f) is considered as consent to the granting of the Motion. LBR 9013-1(h). Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995).

The Motion is GRANTED pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(2) to permit Movant, its successors, transferees and assigns, to enforce its remedies to foreclose upon and obtain possession of the property in accordance with applicable law. Movant may not pursue any deficiency claim against the Debtor or property of the estate except by filing a proof of claim pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 501. Since a chapter 7 case does not contemplate reorganization, the sole issue before the Court when stay relief is sought under 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(2) is whether the Debtor has equity in the property. See, e.g., Martens v. Countrywide Home Loans (In re Martens), 331 B.R. 395, 398 (8th Cir. BAP 2005); Ramco Indus. v. Preuss (In re Preuss), 15 B.R. 896, 897 (9th Cir. BAP 1981).

The subject property has a value of $497,100 and is encumbered by a perfected deed of trust or mortgage in favor of the Movant. The liens against the property and the expected costs of sale total $597,761.11. The Court finds there is no equity and there is no evidence that the trustee can administer the subject real property for the benefit of creditors.

Tentative Ruling:

This Motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on the notice required by LBR 4001(c)(1) and LBR 9013-1(d)(2). The failure of the Debtor, the trustee, and all other parties in interest to file written opposition at least 14 days prior to the hearing as required by LBR 9013-1(f) is considered as consent to the granting of the Motion. Movant may not pursue any deficiency claim against the Debtor or property of the estate except by filing a proof of claim pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 501. #2.00 Status Hearing RE: [66] Crossclaim by Ronald Peterson against Anne Lan Peterson, Brad D. Krasnoff, Chapter 7 Trustee (Ham, Yoon)

Docket 66

Tentative Ruling:

9/10/2018

If Ronald Peterson wishes to continue prosecuting the Cross-Complaint, he must appear. The Court will deem Mr. Peterson's non-appearance as consent to dismissal of the Cross-Complaint, without prejudice, for failure to prosecute. If Mr. Peterson intends to appear, he shall, through counsel, notify Anne Lan Peterson of such intent, so that she may also have the opportunity to be present. The Trustee is not required to appear because the Cross-Complaint has been dismissed as to the Trustee.

The Court will focus this Status Conference on the claims that remain outstanding in the Cross-Complaint. The Court notes that a Status Conference with respect to the Complaint is not necessary. The Court has entered final judgment with respect to certain of the claims asserted in the Complaint, and the Trustee has filed a motion for dismissal of the remaining claims.

The Cross-Complaint alleges that Anne Lan Peterson committed negligence and breached her fiduciary duties Ronald Peterson by failing to disclose certain real property (the "Property") on her bankruptcy schedules.

Anne Lan Peterson has not meaningfully participated in connection with this Status Conference. Ronald Peterson cooperated in the preparation of a Status Report submitted by the Trustee, but in such Status Report states only that he is considering his options.

Anne Lan Peterson and Ronald Peterson shall appear to advise the Court if they intend to proceed with this litigation. As noted above, if Mr. Peterson does not appear, the Court will dismiss the Cross-Complaint, without prejudice, for failure to prosecute.

Docket 1

Tentative Ruling:

9/10/2018

In this dischargeability action, Plaintiffs allege that Defendant committed willful and malicious injury by secretly videotaping Plaintiffs changing and using the restroom. The Court has stayed this action pending resolution of the underlying state court action in which Plaintiffs seek to establish the indebtedness which is alleged to be non-dischargeable (the "State Court Action").

Based upon its review of the most recent Status Report and the Declaration of Eric V. Traut Showing Actions Undertaken to Prosecute the State Court Action, the Court notes that the State Court Action has recently been transferred to a different division. It further appears that proceedings in the State Court Action are at an early stage.

A continued Status Conference shall be held on January 15, 2019, at 10:00 a.m. The parties must submit a Joint Status Report by no later than fourteen days prior to the hearing. In addition to the Joint Status Report, Plaintiff shall submit a detailed declaration, accompanied by supporting exhibits as appropriate, setting forth the actions Plaintiff has undertaken to prosecute the State Court Action to completion. That declaration is due by no later than fourteen days prior to the continued Status Conference.

The Court will prepare and enter an order setting the continued Status Conference.

Tentative Ruling:

9/10/2018

The Court has previously found that resolution of the Chapter 11 case of Crystal Waterfalls, LLC ("Crystal") may resolve this action. See Order Continuing Pretrial Conference Pending Confirmation of Crystal Waterfalls, LLC's Chapter 11 Plan [Doc. No. 26]. On June 8, 2018, the Court entered an Order Approving Motion for Structured Dismissal of Chapter 11 Case [Bankr. Doc. No. 478] (the "Approval Order") in Crystal's bankruptcy case. The Approval Order provides that the structured dismissal of Crystal's Chapter 11 case shall occur through a two-step process. First, Crystal shall be required to make payments to various creditors. Once satisfactory evidence of those payments has been received, the case will be dismissed.

On July 20, 2018, the Court set this Status Conference, and directed the parties to file a Joint Status Report explaining the progress of resolution of the Crystal case. Having reviewed the Joint Status Report submitted by the parties, the Court finds that not all actions contemplated by the Approval Order have been completed. Specifically, the following conditions have not yet been satisfied:

- 1) Crystal has not yet filed its 2017 tax return or paid claims arising in connection with its 2017 tax return.
- 2) Crystal has not provided to the Liberty Plan Administrator a receipt evidencing the funding of the Reserve Fund.

- 3) Crystal has not yet provided proof to the Liberty Plan Administrator that all outstanding United States Trustee fees have been paid.
- 4) Crystal has not yet obtained orders disallowing certain disputed claims.

The Court notes that Crystal has paid Liberty an initial distribution of $625,705.25, as required by the Approval Order.

Pursuant to the request of the parties, the Court shall hold a continued Status Conference on December 11, 2018, at 10:00 a.m. Because this ninety-day continuance provides more than sufficient time for Crystal to complete the remaining actions contemplated by the Approval Order, the Court expects that all such remaining actions will have been completed by the date of the continued Status Conference. A Joint Status Report shall be filed by no later than fourteen days prior to the hearing.

Docket 234

Tentative Ruling:

9/10/2018

On February 17, 2018, the Court issued a Report and Recommendation, recommending that the District Court enter final judgment, in favor of the Chapter 7 Trustee (the "Trustee"), as to the second, third, and sixth claims for relief for avoidance and recovery of fraudulent transfers made with actual intent. Doc. No. 341. On that same date, the Court issued a Memorandum of Decision, stating that the Court intended to grant the Trustee's motion for summary adjudication disallowing the proofs of claim filed by the Bright Conscience Trust (the "BC Trust"). However, the Memorandum of Decision stated that the findings set forth therein would not become the order of the Court until the District Court acted upon the Report and Recommendation.

On June 25, 2018, the District Court rejected the Report and Recommendation, and denied the Trustee's motion for summary adjudication as to the second, third, and sixth claims for relief. On July 20, 2018, the Trustee moved for reconsideration of the District Court's rejection of the Report and Recommendation. On August 13, 2018, the District Court denied the Trustee's motion for reconsideration.

The Trustee asserts that the Court has jurisdiction over the Trustee's claims for disallowance and equitable subordination of the proofs of claim filed by the BC Trust. The Trustee's position is that the Court should enter final judgment with respect to these claims. According to Defendants John C. Kirkland and the BC Trust (collectively, the "Defendants"), Mr. Kirkland has preserved his rights to a jury trial in the District Court because Mr. Kirkland has not consented to the Bankruptcy Court's entry of final judgment. Defendants assert that the issues arising in connection with the Trustee's claims against the BC Trust overlap with the issues arising in connection with the Trustee's claims against Mr. Kirkland. According to Defendants, bifurcating the fraudulent transfer claims against Mr. Kirkland and the equitable subordination and disallowance claims against the BC Trust would prejudice Mr. Kirkland, because of the collateral estoppel effect against Mr. Kirkland of findings made with respect to the common issues affecting both Mr. Kirkland and the BC Trust.

As further set forth in the Preliminary Findings and Conclusions, below, in the Court's view, the most efficient means of resolving these proceedings would be for the District Court to conduct a jury trial on the claims against Mr. Kirkland. Subsequent to the District Court's entry of final judgment against Mr. Kirkland, the Bankruptcy Court would then try the Trustee's claims against the BC Trust. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §157(d) and Bankruptcy Rule 5011(a), only the District Court can withdraw the jurisdictional reference. See Sigma Micro Corp. v. Healthcentral.com (In re Healthcentral.com), 504 F.3d 775, 785 (9th Cir. 2007). Therefore, by separate order, the Court will require the Trustee and the Defendants to show cause why the Court should not stay adjudication of the claims against the BC Trust until the District Court has entered final judgment on the claims against Mr. Kirkland. The hearing on the Order to Show Cause shall take place on October 2, 2018, at 10:00 a.m. The Trustee and the Defendants shall submit papers responding to the Court's Preliminary Findings and Conclusions by no later than September 25, 2018. No reply briefing will be accepted.

Mr. Kirkland shall file with the District Court a motion to withdraw the reference by no later than September 25, 2018.

Preliminary Findings and Conclusions

John C. Kirkland has demanded a jury trial in this fraudulent conveyance action, has not filed a proof of claim against the estate, and does not consent to having the jury trial conducted by the Bankruptcy Court. Under these circumstances, Mr.

Kirkland is entitled to a jury trial before the District Court. See Langenkamp v. Culp, 498 U.S. 42, 45 (1990) ("If a party does not submit a claim against the bankruptcy estate, however, the trustee can recover allegedly preferential transfers only by filing what amounts to a legal action to recover a monetary transfer. In those circumstances the preference defendant is entitled to a jury trial."); Bankruptcy Rule 9015(b) (stating that the Bankruptcy Court may conduct a jury trial only if the parties consent); and Executive Benefits Ins. Agency v. Arkison (In re Bellingham Ins. Agency, Inc.), 702 F.3d 553 (9th Cir. 2012) (holding that the Bankruptcy Court lacks constitutional authority to enter final judgment in a fraudulent conveyance action absent consent of the parties).

The BC Trust has filed proofs of claim against the estate. As a result, the Bankruptcy Court has jurisdiction to enter final judgment with respect to the Trustee's claims against the BC Trust. See Langenkamp, 498 U.S. at 45.

The claims against Mr. Kirkland and the BC Trust present common issues of fact. For example, the Trustee asserts that the BC Trust's claims against the estate should be disallowed and/or equitably subordinated based upon Mr. Kirkland's alleged inequitable conduct. The Trustee's causes of action for disallowance and/or equitable subordination are pleaded against both the BC Trust and Mr. Kirkland.

As a result of the overlap between the claims asserted against Mr. Kirkland and the claims asserted against the BC Trust, the most efficient means for this action to proceed would be for the District Court to first adjudicate the claims against Mr. Kirkland. Once the District Court has entered findings with respect to Mr. Kirkland, the Bankruptcy Court can then try the claims against the BC Trust. If the Bankruptcy Court tried claims against the BC Trust prior to the District Court's trial of claims against Mr. Kirkland, findings by the Bankruptcy Court with respect to common issues of fact could prejudice Mr. Kirkland. For example, Mr. Kirkland could be collaterally estopped from contesting certain issues of fact that might prove material to the adjudication of the claims against him; were that to occur, Mr. Kirkland would effectively be deprived of his right to a jury trial. See Ross v. Bernhard, 396 U.S. 531 (holding that "where equitable and legal claims are joined in the same action," the right to jury trial on the legal claims "must not be infringed either by trying the legal issues as incidental to the equitable ones by a court trial of a common issue existing between the claims").

No appearance is required if submitting on the court's tentative ruling. If you intend to submit on the tentative ruling, please contact Jessica Vogel or Daniel Koontz at

- 2) The last day to disclose expert witnesses and expert witness reports is 6/26/2018.
- 3) The last day to disclose rebuttal expert witnesses and rebuttal expert witness reports is 7/26/2018.
- 4) The last date to complete discovery relating to expert witnesses (e.g., depositions of expert witnesses), including hearings on motions related to expert discovery, is 8/14/2018. (For contemplated hearings on motions related to expert discovery, it is counsel's responsibility to check the Judge's self-calendaring dates, posted on the Court's website. If the expert discovery cutoff date falls on a date when the court is closed or that is not available for self-calendaring, the deadline for hearings on expert discovery motions is the next closest date which is available for self-calendaring.)
- 5) The last day for dispositive motions to be heard is 8/21/2018. (If the motion cutoff date is not available for self-calendaring, the deadline for dispositive motions to be heard is the next closest date which is available for self calendaring.)

- 7) A Pretrial Conference is set for 9/11/2018 at 11:00 a.m. By no later than fourteen days prior to the Pretrial Conference, the parties must submit a Joint Pretrial Stipulation via the Court's Lodged Order Upload (LOU) system. Submission via LOU allows the Court to edit the Joint Pretrial Stipulation, if necessary. Parties should consult the Court Manual, section 4, for information about LOU.
- 8) Trial is set for the week of 9/24/2018. The trial day commences at 9:00 a.m. The exact date of the trial will be set at the Pretrial Conference. Consult the Court's website for the Judge's requirements regarding exhibit binders and trial briefs.

The Court will not require the Plaintiff to submit an order referring this matter to the Mediation Panel, but the Court expects that the parties will complete a second day of mediation before Mr. Nassif as the parties have stated they intend to do in the most recent Status Report.

The Court will enter a Scheduling Order.

Docket 1

Tentative Ruling:

9/10/2018

The Court has reviewed the the proposed Unilateral Pretrial Order submitted by Plaintiff as well as Plaintiff's declaration regarding his attempts to work with Defendant to fashion a Joint Pretrial Stipulation. Based upon its review of the declaration of Plaintiff's counsel, Robert A. Brock, and the e-mails attached thereto, it appears that Defendant has not made a good-faith effort to cooperate with the Plaintiff in preparing the Joint Pretrial Stipulation. The Court notes that while Plaintiff has made every effort to treat Defendant with professional courtesy and respect, Defendant, who is proceeding pro se, has injected unnecessary rancor into the proceedings. See, e.g., E-mail from Defendant to Plaintiff, dated August 21, 2018 ("... honestly I don't give a rate [sic] ass what you say the rules are").

The Court understands that litigation is unpleasant, confusing and difficult especially for parties who are proceeding in pro se. However, the Court advises Defendant that by failing to cooperate with the Plaintiff in preparing a proposed Joint Pretrial Stipulation, he is only prejudicing himself. The Joint Pretrial Stipulation is the document that allows the Court to focus on the key issues in the litigation. By failing to meaningfully cooperate in the preparation of this document, the Defendant is depriving himself of the opportunity to present his arguments to the Court. As with all litigation, Defendant will not agree with Plaintiff as to certain of the facts. But if Defendant can agree with the Plaintiff on certain immaterial background facts, the Court will be able to focus its attention on the most important issues that are actually in dispute. The Court advises Defendant that by stipulating to those facts that are not in dispute, Defendant only benefits his own case, because it allows the Court to focus its attention on the real disputes between the parties.

The Court will continue the Pretrial Conference to November 13, 2018, at 11:00 a.m., to give the Defendant one final opportunity to meaningfully participate with Plaintiff in the preparation of a Joint Pretrial Stipulation. The Court notes that many pro se litigants mistakenly believe that it is to their tactical advantage to be as non-cooperative as possible. That approach almost always leaves the non-cooperative party far worse off.

The parties shall make a good-faith effort to lodge a Joint Pretrial Stipulation with the Court by no later than fourteen days prior to the continued Pretrial Conference. If, after diligent effort, the parties find it impossible to agree upon the form of a proposed Joint Pretrial Stipulation, both parties shall lodge separated proposed Unilateral Pretrial Orders with the Court by no later than seven days prior to the Pretrial Conference. See Local Bankruptcy Rule 7016-1(d)(2). The Court will thereafter enter an appropriate order. The parties are advised that the Court views the Pretrial Conference as an indispensable component of the resolution of this litigation and strictly enforces compliance with the Local Bankruptcy Rules. A material default by the Plaintiff in complying with obligations regarding the preparation of the Joint Pretrial Stipulation will most likely result in dismissal of the action for failure to prosecute. See Moneymaker v. CoBEN (In re Eisen), 31 F.3d 1447, 1451 (9th Cir. 1994) (dismissing action for failure to prosecute). A material default by the Defendant in fulfilling Defendant's corresponding obligations will most likely result in striking of the answer, entry of a default, and entry of judgment in favor of the Plaintiff. See Hester v. Vision Airlines, Inc., 687 F.3d 1162, 1169 (9th Cir. 2012) (setting forth the factors the Court must consider before striking a pleading and declaring default).

(Mar, Alvin)

Docket 26

Tentative Ruling:

9/10/2018

For the reasons set forth below, the Court finds that the granting of relief in this case would be an abuse of Chapter 7. The case will be dismissed unless the Debtor agrees to convert his case to Chapter 13.

Pleadings Filed and Reviewed:

- 1) United States Trustee's Notice of Motion and Motion to Dismiss Chapter 7 Case Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 707(b)(1), (b)(2) and (3)(B) and Contingent Motion to Extend Bar Date for Filing Complaint Under 11 U.S.C. § 727 Objecting to Debtor's Discharge [Doc. No. 26] ("Motion to Dismiss")
 - a. Declaration of Wendy Carole Sadovnick (the "Sadovnick Decl.")
 - b. Request for Judicial Notice in Support of United States Trustee's Motion to Dismiss Chapter 7 Case Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 707(b)(1), (b)(2) and (b)(3)(B) [Doc. No. 27] ("RJN")

I. Facts and Summary of the Pleadings:

Chapter 7

The United States Trustee (the "UST") now moves for an order dismissing this case on the grounds that (i) Debtor fails the § 707(b)(2) means test (the "Means Test"), and (ii) the totality of the circumstances of the Debtor's financial situation demonstrates abuse under § 707(b)(3)(B).

According to the UST, the Debtor has understated his average gross monthly wages in his Means Test. Based on the UST's review of the Debtor's payroll records for the relevant period, the UST asserts that the Debtor understated his actual monthly employment income by approximately $1,476.10 [$14,620.66 (UST's asserted amount) - $13,144.56 (claimed amount) = $1,476.10]. Motion to Dismiss, 13:3-10 & Ex. 4; see also Doc. No. 20, Schedule I & Chapter 7 Means Test Calculation.

The UST also contends that the Debtor misstated his allowable monthly expense deductions in his Means Test. The UST completed its own Means Test calculations based on the information in documents Debtor supplied to it and national standards and contends that the appropriate monthly expense deduction is $12,829.83, rather than the $14,054.04 amount Debtor claimed. Motion to Dismiss, 13:17-18:6; see also Doc. No. 20, Schedule J & Chapter 7 Means Test Calculation.

After making these adjustments, the UST asserts that a proper Means Test calculation show that the Debtor has $107,449.80 in disposable income available to repay unsecured creditors 100% over a sixty-month period.

Opposition

As of the preparation of this tentative ruling, the Debtor has not filed an opposition to the Motion to Dismiss.

II. Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law:

This Court has explained the function and purpose of the Means Test as follows:

Among the significant changes effected by the Bankruptcy Abuse Prevention and Consumer Protection Act of 2005 ("BAPCPA") was the introduction of the § 707(b)(2) Means Test. Designed to ferret out abusive bankruptcy petitions, the Means Test creates a "presumption of abuse" if the debtor's Current Monthly Income (CMI)—as determined by a detailed statutory formula—is above a certain amount. Debtors unable to rebut the presumption of abuse may have their cases dismissed or be required to fund a Chapter 13 plan. However, even debtors who survive the Means Test may see their cases dismissed pursuant to § 707(b)(3)(B), which permits the Court to dismiss a case if “the totality of the circumstances ... of the debtor's financial situation demonstrates abuse.”

In re Jensen, 407 B.R. 378, 380–81 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2009).

“Current monthly income” (“CMI”) for purposes of the Means Test calculation is defined as the “average monthly income from all sources that the debtor receives ... during the 6-month period ending on the last day of the calendar month immediately preceding the date of the commencement of the case” §101(10A).

There is a Presumption of Abuse Under § 707(b)(2)(A)(i)(II)

Based on the UST’s unrefuted assertions, this Court finds as follows. The Debtor is an individual whose debts are primarily consumer debts. See Doc. No. 20. The Debtor’s CMI is $14,620.66 and total allowable monthly expenses are $12,829.83. That leaves the Debtor with monthly disposable income of $1,790.83, or disposable income over a 60-month period of $107,449.80. The Debtor’s disposable income far exceeds the $12,475 threshold set forth in § 707(b)(2)(A)(i)(II). Based on the foregoing, this Court finds that there is a presumption of abuse under § 707(b)(2).

The Debtor Has Failed to Rebut the Presumption of Abuse

Section 707(b)(2)(B)(i) provides that the presumption of abuse may be rebutted by "demonstrating special circumstances, such as a serious medical condition or a call or order to active duty in the Armed Forces, to the extent such special circumstances ... justify additional expenses or adjustments of current monthly income for which there is no reasonable alternative." To establish special circumstances, the Debtor must itemize each additional expense and provide "a detailed explanation of the special circumstances that make such expenses or adjustment to income necessary and reasonable." §707(b)(2)(B)(ii).

The Debtor has not opposed the Motion to Dismiss or otherwise challenged the UST’s assertions. Because the Court finds that the presumption of abuse arises under § 707(b) and has not been rebutted, the Court does not consider the UST’s arguments in the alternative that the case should be dismissed pursuant to § 707(b)(3)(B).

Chapter 7

The Case Will Be Dismissed Unless the Debtor Consents to Conversion to Chapter 13

Where the § 707(b) presumption of abuse arises and has not been rebutted, the Court must dismiss the case, unless the Debtor consents to conversion to Chapter 13. 11 U.S.C. § 707(b)(1). The UST seeks only dismissal, not conversion. However, § 707(b)(1) expressly provides the Debtor the option to convert to Chapter 13 if the Court finds that relief under Chapter 7 would be abusive. Therefore, based upon the Debtor's election, the case will either be dismissed or will be converted to Chapter 13.

III. Conclusion

Over a sixty-month period, the Debtor has $107,449.80 in income available to repay unsecured creditors 100% of their claims. The § 707(b) presumption of abuse arises and has not been rebutted. The case will be dismissed, unless the Debtor consents to conversion to Chapter 13.

The Debtor should appear to advise the Court whether he consents to conversion to Chapter 13 (a telephonic appearance is acceptable). If the Debtor fails to appear, the case will be dismissed. The UST is not required to appear. If Debtor intends to contest the tentative ruling, he must advise the UST of his intention to do so prior to the hearing.

After the hearing, the Court will prepare the order.

If you intend to submit on the tentative ruling, please contact Daniel Koontz or Jessica Vogel at 213-894-1522. If you intend to contest the tentative ruling and appear, please first contact opposing counsel to inform them of your intention to do so. Should an opposing party file a late opposition or appear at the hearing, the court will determine whether further hearing is required. #109.00 Status Hearing RE: [1] Chapter 7 Involuntary Petition Against a Non-Individual. Medicine Flower (attorney James E Till), Zuckerman-Honickman Inc (attorney James E Till) . (Collins, Kim S.) Additional attachment(s) added on 7/12/2018 (Collins, Kim S.).

Docket 1

Tentative Ruling:

9/11/2018

For the reasons set forth below, the Court will enter an order for relief against the Alleged Debtor.

Pleadings Filed and Reviewed:

- 1) Involuntary Petition Against a Non-Individual [Doc. No. 1]
- 2) Summons and Notice of Status Conference in an Involuntary Bankruptcy Case [Doc. No. 3]
 - a) Proof of Service [Doc. No. 5]

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

On July 12, 2018 (the "Petition Date"), Demooing & Marketing, Medicine Flower, and Zuckerman-Honickman (collectively, the "Petitioning Creditors") commenced this Chapter 7 involuntary petition (the "Involuntary Petition") against OBI Probiotic Soda LLC (the "Alleged Debtor"). Petitioning Creditors are represented by James E. Till of Bosley Till LLP. The Involuntary Petition alleges that the Alleged Debtor is indebted to the Petitioning Creditors in the total amount of $46,681.62, as follows:

- 1) Demooing & Marketing—owed $7,059.90 on account of a trade payable
- 2) Medicine Flower—owed $7,990.46 on account of a trade payable
- 3) Zuckerman-Honickman—owed $31,631.26 on account of a trade payable

On July 20, 2018, Petitioning Creditors filed a Proof of Service, establishing that the Summons and Notice of Status Conference was timely served upon the Alleged Debtor on July 19, 2018. Doc. No. 3. The Alleged Debtor has not timely controverted the allegations set forth in the Involuntary Petition.

II. Findings and Conclusions

Section 303(b), which governs the commencement of an involuntary petition, provides in relevant part:

An involuntary case against a person is commenced by the filing with the bankruptcy court of a petition under chapter 7 or 11 of this title by three or more entities, each of which is either a holder of a claim against such person that is not contingent as to liability or the subject of a bona fide dispute as to liability or amount, ... if such noncontingent, undisputed claims aggregate at least $15,775 more than the value of any lien on property of the debtor securing such claims held by the holders of such claims.

Section 303(h) provides that if "the petition is not timely controverted, the court shall order relief against the debtor in an involuntary case under the chapter under which the petition was filed."

Because the Involuntary Petition was properly served and has not been timely controverted, the Court will enter an order for relief against the Alleged Debtor. Within fourteen days of the entry of the order for relief, the Alleged Debtor shall file the schedules, documents, and statements set forth in Bankruptcy Rule 1007.

The Petitioning Creditors shall submit an order incorporating this tentative ruling by reference within seven days of the hearing.

No appearance is required if submitting on the court's tentative ruling. If you intend to submit on the tentative ruling, please contact Jessica Vogel or Daniel Koontz at 213-894-1522. If you intend to contest the tentative ruling and appear, please first contact opposing counsel to inform them of your intention to do so. Should an opposing party file a late opposition or appear at the hearing, the court will determine whether further hearing is required. - Tenth Post-Confirmation Status Report ("Status Report") [Doc. No. 508]

This is a post-confirmation status conference. On March 9, 2018, Vikaran Ghei and Michael Zaitzeff (the "Liquidating Trustees") filed their "Ninth Post-Confirmation Status Report" (the "9th Status Report") [Doc. No. 499]. In that status report, the Liquidating Trustees informed this Court that on November 20, 2017, the Ninth Circuit denied their appeal involving their claim to a $22,000,000 refund of federal income taxes from the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, in its capacity as receiver for the Debtor's bank subsidiary [Id. 3:10]. Based on that denial, the Liquidating Trustees stated that they would "shortly wind up the Bankruptcy Case" [Id. 3:11].

On August 30, 2018, the Liquidating Trustees filed their "Tenth Post-Confirmation Status Report" (the "10th Status Report") [Doc. No. 508]. Based on this Court's review, the 10th Status Report appears to be virtually identical to the 9th Status Report. The 10th Status Report provides no further detail on the Liquidating Trustee's efforts to wind up this bankruptcy case since the filing of the 9th Status Report nearly six months ago.

Based on the foregoing, counsel for the Liquidating Trustees is directed to appear to

Docket 1267

Tentative Ruling:

9/12/2018 (updated to reflect additional payment that the Committee received from the Debtor in August 2018):

Tentative Ruling:

On September 20, 2016, the Court entered an Order on Debtor's Motion for Order Establishing Procedures for Monthly Payment of Fees and Expense Reimbursement [Doc. No. 406] (the "Fee Procedures Order"). Pursuant to the Fee Procedures Order, each professional employed by the estate may file a monthly fee application (each, a "Monthly Application") seeking payment of interim compensation in an amount equal to 80% of the fees sought and 100% of the expenses incurred during the prior month. If no objection is timely filed and served within ten calendar days after the date of the filing of the notice of the Monthly Application, the Monthly Application is deemed approved on an interim basis, and the Debtor is authorized to pay 80% of the fees and 100% of the expenses requested in the Monthly Application without further order of the Court.

On August 5, 2016, the Court approved the application submitted by the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (the "Committee") to employ Sills Cummis & Gross P.C. ("Sills") as its co-counsel. Pursuant to the procedures set forth in the Fee Procedures Order, Sills has submitted 22 Monthly Applications [Doc. Nos. 417, 476, 544, 588, 644, 671, 700, 753, 838, 837, 911, 946, 980, 1032, 1067, 1080, 1118, 1145, 1170, 1197, and 1249], none of which have been opposed. Sills received payment in connection with the first seven Monthly Applications it submitted. In August 2018, Sills received an additional payment from the Debtor in the amount of $414,665.76. See Doc. No. 1307.

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

Base Architecture Planning & Engr Inc. (the "Debtor") commenced a voluntary Chapter 11 petition on July 14, 2017. The Debtor is an urban design, architecture, planning, and civil engineering firm located in Los Angeles. The Debtor specializes in designing and constructing airport facilities, transit projects, municipal and civic facilities, schools, and commercial offices. The Debtor has 22 active contracts with different property owners and government agencies, which it expects to assume. The immediate cause of the petition was the entry of a judgment against the Debtor in the amount of $70,000 on May 25, 2017.

On July 31, 2017, the Debtor filed its "Motion for Authority to Use Cash Collateral" [Doc. No. 14] (the "Cash Collateral Motion"). Debtor subsequently filed stipulations with the Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") and Citizens Business Bank ("CBB" or "the Bank") regarding Debtor's proposed use of cash collateral [Doc. Nos. 26, 30]. On September 1, 2017, this Court entered orders approving those stipulations and authorizing interim use of cash collateral through October 31, 2017, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the stipulations [Doc. Nos. 47, 48].

On September 27, 2017, Debtor filed its "Supplement to Motion for Authority to Use Cash Collateral," seeking authority to extend its use of cash collateral through plan confirmation [Doc. No. 59]. Shortly thereafter, Debtor stipulated with CBB and the IRS, pursuant to which the parties agreed Debtor could use their cash collateral on an interim basis, through December 31, 2017 [Doc. Nos. 61, 62], which this Court approved [Doc. Nos. 64, 71, 72].

On November 28, 2017, Debtor filed a further request for interim use of cash collateral [Doc. No. 81]. The Debtor entered into further stipulations with the Bank and IRS regarding its continued use of cash collateral [Doc. Nos. 85, 98], which this Court approved [Doc. Nos. 88, 100]. The Debtor subsequently sought and obtained a number of additional extensions for interim use of cash collateral [See Doc. Nos. 104, 107, 119, 122, 127].

The Debtor now seeks to extend its authorization to use cash collateral pursuant to the terms and conditions of the IRS and Bank stipulations, through and including December 31, 2018 [Doc. No. 134].

Pursuant to the Court's "Order Approving Fifth Request for Interim Use of Cash Collateral and Adequate Protection" entered on June 22, 2018 [Doc. No. 127], the deadline for filing an objection was August 29, 2018. As of the preparation of this tentative ruling, no objection has been filed.

II. Findings and Conclusions

Section 363(c)(2) requires court authorization for the use of cash collateral unless "each entity that has an interest in such cash collateral consents." In the Ninth Circuit, satisfaction of Section 363(c)(2)(A) requires the "affirmative express consent" of the secured creditor; "implied consent," resulting from the failure of the secured creditor to object to use of cash collateral, does not satisfy the requirements of the statute. Freightliner Market Development Corp. v. Silver Wheel Freightlines, Inc., 823 F.2d 362, 368-69 (9th Cir. 1987). Absent affirmative express consent, the Debtors "may not use" cash collateral absent the Court's determination that the use is "in accordance with the provisions" of Section 363—that is, that the secured creditor's interest in the cash collateral is adequately protected. Section 363(c)(2)(B); Section 363(e).

A secured creditor's interest is adequately protected if the value of its collateral is not declining; the secured creditor is not entitled to payment to compensate for its inability to foreclose upon the collateral during bankruptcy proceedings. United Savings Association of Texas v. Timbers of Inwood Forest Associates, Ltd., 484 U.S. 365 (1988).

The Court finds that CBB and the IRS are adequately protected by the terms and conditions set forth in the negotiated CBB and IRS Stipulations. The Court, therefore, authorizes the continued use of cash collateral provided that the Debtor continues to comply with the terms of those stipulations, including making the adequate protection payments required therein.

III. Conclusion

For the reasons stated above, the Debtor is authorized to use cash collateral through and including December 31, 2018, in accordance with the terms of the Third Stipulation with Citizen's Business Bank and the Third IRS Stipulation. A hearing on whether the Debtor may use cash collateral after December 31, 2018 will take place on December 12, 2018 at 10:00 a.m. Papers in support of the continued use of cash collateral must be filed and served by November 21, 2018. Objections, if any, to the Debtor's request for continued use of cash collateral must be filed and served by November 28, 2018. Any reply may be filed and served by December 5, 2018.

Tentative Ruling:

On September 20, 2016, the Court entered an Order on Debtor's Motion for Order Establishing Procedures for Monthly Payment of Fees and Expense Reimbursement [Doc. No. 406] (the "Fee Procedures Order"). Pursuant to the Fee Procedures Order, each professional employed by the estate may file a monthly fee application (each, a "Monthly Application") seeking payment of interim compensation in an amount equal to 80% of the fees sought and 100% of the expenses incurred during the prior month. If no objection is timely filed and served within ten calendar days after the date of the filing of the notice of the Monthly Application, the Monthly Application is deemed approved on an interim basis, and the Debtor is authorized to pay 80% of the fees and 100% of the expenses requested in the Monthly Application without further order of the Court.

On August 5, 2016, the Court approved the application submitted by the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (the "Committee") to employ Weiland, Golden, Goodrich LLP ("Weiland") as its co-counsel. Pursuant to the procedures set forth in the Fee Procedures Order, Weiland has submitted two Monthly Applications, none of which have been opposed.

No objections have been filed to the First Interim Application for Allowance and Payment of Fees and Reimbursement of Expenses of Weiland Golden Goodrich LLP, Local Co-Counsel to the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors of Gardens Regional Hospital and Medical Center [Doc. I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

In connection with this Third and Final Application ... for Approval of Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses [Doc. No. 726] (the "Fee Application"), Pachulski Stang Ziehl & Jones LLP ("PSZJ") applies for allowance of fees in the amount of $3,055,998.50 and expenses in the amount of $180,134.45. The Court has previously allowed, on an interim basis, fees in the amount of $2,177,275.00 and expenses in the amount of $114,375.67. In addition to seeking allowance, on a final basis, of the amounts previously awarded on an interim basis, PSZJ seeks allowance, on a final basis, of fees in the amount of $879,826 and expenses in the amount of $65,758.78 for work performed during the period covered by the instant Fee Application. The $879,826 in fees sought in connection with the instant Fee Application includes $35,102.50 in fees for (a) preparing and litigating the Fee Application and for (b) reviewing the fee applications submitted by other professionals. The Court finds that notice was consistent with FRBP 2002(i).

Benjamin Kirk objects to the Fee Application. No other objections to the Fee Application have been filed.

A. Benjamin Kirk's Objection to the Fee Application

Benjamin Kirk makes the following arguments and representations in support of his objection to the Fee Application:

PSZJ has not demonstrated that the fees it has requested are reasonable, as required by §330(a). Although Mr. Kirk takes issue with the work performed by PSZJ in this case, that argument is not made today. Similarly, although Mr. Kirk believes PSZJ's hourly rates push the upper limits of hourly rates in Southern California, he does not challenge PSZJ's rates.

Mr. Kirk's objection lies with the disproportionate use of partner and senior level attorneys to bill on this case. PSZJ did not bill a single hour of associate time to this case. Of the 4,009.4 hours billed through June 2018, only 110.5 hours (or 2.75%) were billed by attorneys with less than twenty years of experience.

It was not reasonable for PSZJ to staff this case almost exclusively with partner or partner-level attorneys. This is not the first time a court has been asked to examine the reasonableness of PSZJ's top-heavy staffing decisions. In In re Fleming Companies, Inc., 304 B.R. 85, 93 (Bankr. D. Del. 2003), the court required PSZJ to submit evidence responding to the United States Trustee's allegation that it had "staffed the case with a disproportionate number of senior personnel." Fleming Companies, 304 B.R. at 93.

PSZJ's use of senior attorneys resulted in a higher than necessary blended fee rate. Here, PSZJ's blended fee rate was $753 per hour. Had PSZJ used more junior personnel, and billed at a blended rate of $600, the savings to the estate and creditors would have been more than $600,000.

Finally, PSZJ's request for compensation in the amount of approximately $35,000 for work performed in connection with this Fee Application is not reasonable.

B. PSZJ's Reply to Benjamin Kirk's Objection

PSZJ makes the following arguments and representations in its Reply to Mr. Kirk's Objection to the Fee Application:

There is no precedent supporting Mr. Kirk's position that staffing a case with experienced attorneys is cause for the denial of fees. In In re Powerine Oil Co., 71 B.R. 767 (BAP 9th Cir. 1986), the Ninth Circuit BAP rejected similar arguments:

David Gould, a senior partner, was accountable for 166.2 hours, or 83 percent of the total time.... Because the Bank Group does not object to the number of hours, its argument boils down to the assertion that Gould unwarrantedly performed most of the work. Many areas of legal analysis and negotiations described in the application for compensation are such as would reasonably require effort of a senior-level partner. An appellate court is in no position to second-guess the factors that may have caused a senior lawyer rather than a junior lawyer to perform the work required on a case.

Powerine Oil, 71 B.R. at 769–72.

In this case, the use of experienced attorneys was necessary given the complicated issues. Due to the breaches of fiduciary duty committed by Mr. Kirk and Ms. Gao, this case involved a hundred million dollars of claims by defrauded investors, litigation on multiple fronts to recover assets that were wrongfully in the hands of third parties, and counsel's involvement in numerous other related bankruptcy cases. It was necessary to staff the case with experienced attorneys who also, over time, built an institutional knowledge of the complicated facts and issues. In fact, to avoid billing for the inefficiencies and training of junior associates, PSZJ does not generally hire new graduates from law schools.

There is no merit to Mr. Kirk's contention that the fees incurred by PSZJ in the litigation and preparation of this Fee Application are not reasonable. PSZJ has spent 74.1 hours preparing and litigating this Fee Application and reviewing other professionals' fee applications. The fees of $35,102.50 which PSZJ seeks for this work are reasonable.

II. Findings and Conclusions

Section 330(a)(1) allows the Court to award "reasonable compensation for actual, necessary services rendered" by a professional. In determining the amount of compensation to award, the Court considers the nature, the extent, and the value of such services, taking into account all relevant factors, including—

- (A) the time spent on such services;
- (B) the rates charged for such services;
- (C) whether the services were necessary to the administration of, or beneficial at the time at which the service was rendered toward the completion of, a case under this title;
- (D) whether the services were performed within a reasonable amount of time commensurate with the complexity, importance, and nature of the problem, issue, or task addressed;
- (E) with respect to a professional person, whether the person is board certified or otherwise has demonstrated skill and experience in the bankruptcy field; and
- (F) whether the compensation is reasonable based on the customary compensation charged by comparably skilled practitioners in cases other than cases under this title.

§330(a)(3).

"The statute does not require that the services result in a material benefit to the estate in order for the professional to be compensated; the applicant must demonstrate only that the services were 'reasonably likely' to benefit the estate at the time the services were rendered." Sheridan & Kotel, P.C. v. Bergen Brunswig Drug Co. (In re Mednet), 251 B.R. 103, 108 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 2000).

In determining the amount of allowable fees under §330(a), courts within the Ninth Circuit rely upon the lodestar approach. Under the lodestar approach, the "initial estimate of a reasonable attorney's fee is properly calculated by multiplying the number of hours reasonably expended on the litigation times a reasonable hourly rate. Adjustments to that fee then may be made as necessary in the particular case." Blum v. Stenson, 465 U.S. 886, 888, 104 S. Ct. 1541, 1544, 79 L. Ed. 2d 891 (1984).

Mr. Kirk's objections to the Fee Application are overruled. The Court does not agree with Mr. Kirk's contention that PSZJ's use of only senior attorneys in this case was unreasonable or was done for the purpose of inflating PSZJ's fees. This has not been a routine Chapter 11 case. A review of only a few of the decisions issued by the Court gives a sense of the complicated issues. See, e.g., Memorandum of Decision Finding that Plaintiff is Entitled to Judgment Against Defendants in the Amount of $74,140,695.29 [Doc. No. 141, Adv. No. 2:16-ap-01337-ER]; Final Ruling Denying Motion to Convert Case from Chapter 11 to Chapter 7 [Doc. No. 580, Case No. 2:16-bk-13575-ER]; Memorandum of Decision Imposing Terminating Sanctions Against Lucy Gao [Doc. No. 54, Adv. No. 2:16-ap-01144-ER]; and Memorandum of Decision (1) Denying Benjamin Kirk's Motion for Reconsideration of Sale Order, (2) Denying Benjamin Kirk's Application for a Stay of the Sale Order, and (3) Denying Benjamin Kirk's Request for a Continuance of the October 18, 2017 Auctions [Doc. No. 480, Case No. 2:16-bk-13575-ER]. In view of the complicated issues, it was entirely proper and appropriate for PSZJ to staff the case with senior attorneys.

Mr. Kirk's objection to the amount of fees incurred by PSZJ in the preparation and litigation of this Fee Application, and the review of the fee applications submitted by other professionals, is overruled. Reasonable fees incurred in the preparation and litigation of fee applications are compensable. In re Nucorp Energy, 764 F.2d 655 (9th Cir. 1985); 11 U.S.C. §330(a)(6). The Court finds that fees of $35,102.50 for spending 74.1 hours in connection with this Fee Application are reasonable.

Exercising its independent obligation to review PSZJ's fees, the Court finds that the fees sought by PSZJ for opposing a motion to set aside entry of default in the adversary proceeding Official Unsecured Creditors Committee for Liberty Asset Management Corp. v. Blue Sky Communications, Inc. et al., Adv. No. 2:17-ap-01477-ER, are not reasonable and must be disallowed. In overruling PSZJ's opposition to the motion to set aside the entry of default, the Court found:

[T]he Committee [represented by PSZJ] filed unduly lengthy papers in connection with what should have been a routine issue—whether a default that was entered only several months ago should be set aside. The resources the Committee devoted to this issue exceeded its importance.

Final Ruling Granting Motion to Set Aside Entry of Default at 4 [Doc. No. 55, Adv. No. 2:17-ap-01477-ER].

PSZJ is not entitled to any fees in connection with time spent in litigation (a) seeking to prevent certain defendants in the Blue Sky litigation from setting aside the entry of default and (b) seeking the entry of default judgment with respect to those same defendants. PSZJ devoted extensive resources to aggressively opposing a routine motion to set aside the entry of default, even though attorneys of PSZJ's caliber and experience should have been aware that PSZJ's likelihood of prevailing upon this issue was minimal.

Because the hearings in the Blue Sky litigation took place on the same day as several other hearings in the case, and because PSZJ's billing records contain several entries with headings such as "[p]repare for 1/18/18 hearings," the Court cannot determine the exact amount of time PSZJ billed in connection with litigation pertaining to the default issue. By no later than September 19, 2018, PSZJ shall submit a declaration, citing to specific line entries in its billing records, showing exactly how much PSZJ billed the estate in litigation on this issue. PSZJ shall not be entitled to compensation for time spent preparing such declaration. Any opposition to the declaration must be submitted by no later than September 26, 2018. As of September 26, 2018, this matter shall stand submitted and the Court will determine the exact amount of the fee deduction warranted as a result of PSZJ's unnecessary litigation on the default issue.

Aside from fees incurred litigating the default issue, PSZJ's remaining fees and expenses were reasonable and necessary. Subject to the deductions for the unnecessary Blue Sky litigation, the Court is prepared confirm as final the fees and expenses previously awarded on an interim basis. The Court is further prepared to award, on a final basis, fees incurred during the time covered by this Fee Application in the amount of $879,826 and expenses in the amount of $65,758.78 (again subject to a deduction for fees incurred in the unnecessary Blue Sky litigation).

If you intend to submit on the tentative ruling, please contact Jessica Vogel or Daniel Koontz at 213-894-1522. If you intend to contest the tentative ruling and appear, please first contact opposing counsel to inform them of your intention to do so. Should an opposing party file a late opposition or appear at the hearing, the court will determine whether further hearing is required. Docket 72

Tentative Ruling:

9/11/2018

For the reasons set forth below, both the Rule 9019 Motion and the Motion to Dismiss are GRANTED.

Pleadings Filed and Reviewed:

- 1) Notice of Motion and Motion of Debtor for Order Approving Compromise and Settlement of Claims Between the Debtor, on the One Hand, and Yolanda Flores Corporation, on the Other Hand [Doc. No. 72] (the "Rule 9019 Motion")
- 2) Notice of Motion and Motion for Order Dismissing Debtor's Chapter 11 Proceeding Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §1112(b)(1) [Doc. No. 73] (the "Motion to Dismiss")

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

Beverly South Hills Pacific Surgery Center (the "Debtor") commenced a voluntary Chapter 11 petition on March 15, 2018. The Debtor sought bankruptcy protection as a result of a dispute with Yolanda Flores Corporation ("YF"). Aside from YF, the Debtor has few creditors.

On April 19, 2018, the Debtor removed an action captioned Yolanda Flores Corp. v. Beverly Hills South Pacific Surgery Center (the "Action") from the Los Angeles Superior Court (the "State Court") to the Bankruptcy Court. On July 26, 2018, after a contested hearing, the Court remanded the Action to the State Court.

Debtor has now reached a settlement with YF. Under the settlement, the Debtor will pay $300,000 to YF. In connection with the settlement, the Debtor seeks dismissal of its bankruptcy case, pursuant to §1112(b). No papers opposing either the motion to approve the settlement (the "Rule 9019 Motion") or the motion for dismissal (the "Motion to Dismiss") have been filed.

II. Findings and Conclusions

A. The Settlement is Approved and the Rule 9019 Motion is Granted

Bankruptcy Rule 9019 provides that the Court may approve a compromise or settlement. "In determining the fairness, reasonableness and adequacy of a proposed settlement agreement, the court must consider: (a) The probability of success in the litigation; (b) the difficulties, if any, to be encountered in the matter of collection; (c) the complexity of the litigation involved, and the expense, inconvenience and delay necessarily attending it; (d) the paramount interest of the creditors and a proper deference to their reasonable views in the premises." Martin v. Kane (In re A&C Properties), 784 F.2d 1377, 1381 (9th Cir. 1986). "[C]ompromises are favored in bankruptcy, and the decision of the bankruptcy judge to approve or disapprove the compromise of the parties rests in the sound discretion of the bankruptcy judge." In re Sassalos, 160 B.R. 646, 653 (D. Ore. 1993). In approving a settlement agreement, the Court must "canvass the issues and see whether the settlement 'falls below the lowest point in the range of reasonableness.'" Cosoff v. Rodman (In re W.T. Grant Co.), 699 F.2d 599, 608 (2d Cir. 1983). Applying the A&C Properties factors, the Court finds that the Settlement Agreement with Mutual Releases (the "Settlement Agreement") is adequate, fair, and reasonable, and is in the best interests of the estate and creditors.

Complexity of the Litigation

This factor weighs in favor of approving the Settlement Agreement. The dispute involves contested issues of fact and would expensive to litigate.

Probability of Success on the Merits

This factor weighs in favor of approving the Settlement Agreement. The Debtor's state-court counsel has strongly advised the Debtor to settle the matter, and the Debtor believes that if the matter proceeded to trial, there is a strong possibility it could lose and become subject to a judgment of no less than $605,000.

Paramount Interests of Creditors

This factor weighs strongly in favor of approving the Settlement Agreement. The Debtor's primary creditor is YF, who has entered into the Settlement Agreement. No other creditors have objected to approval of the Settlement Agreement.

Chapter 11

Difficult with Collection

This factor does not apply.

B. The Case is Dismissed

Section 1112(b) provides that the Court, upon request of a party in interest, "shall convert a case under this chapter to a case under chapter 7 or dismiss a case under this chapter, whichever is in the best interests of creditors and the estate, for cause unless the court determines that the appointment under section 1104(a) of a trustee or an examiner is in the best interests of creditors and the estate." The factors set forth in § 1112(b)(4) "are not exhaustive, and 'the court will be able to consider other factors as they arise, and to use its equitable powers to reach an appropriate result in individual cases.'" Pioneer Liquidating Corp. v. United States Trustee (In re Consol. Pioneer Mortg. Entities), 248 B.R. 368, 375 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 2000), aff'd, 264 F.3d 803 (9th Cir. 2001).

Here, the Court finds that the Debtor has shown cause for dismissal, and that dismissal is in the best interests of creditors. The Settlement Agreement resolves the dispute with the Debtor's largest creditor, YF. Other than YF, the Debtor has few significant creditors. No creditors have objected to dismissal of the case.

C. Conclusion

Based upon the foregoing, the Rule 9019 Motion is GRANTED, and the case is DISMISSED. The Debtor shall submit conforming orders, incorporating this tentative ruling by reference, within seven days of the hearing.

No appearance is required if submitting on the court's tentative ruling. If you intend to submit on the tentative ruling, please contact Jessica Vogel or Daniel Koontz at 213-894-1522. If you intend to contest the tentative ruling and appear, please first contact opposing counsel to inform them of your intention to do so. Should an opposing party file a late opposition or appear at the hearing, the court will determine whether further hearing is required. On September 14, 2017, the Court approved a settlement agreement (the "Settlement Agreement") resolving this action. See Doc. Nos. 419, 428, and 433, Case No. 2:16-bk-13575-ER. The material terms of the Settlement Agreement are as follows:

- 1) Defendants shall pay Liberty Asset Management Corporation ("Liberty") $1 million (the "Settlement Payment"). Settlement Agreement at ¶1 [Doc. No. 419 at Ex. A, Case No. 2:16-bk-13575]. Upon full payment of the Settlement Amount, Liberty "will promptly file a notice or stipulation of dismissal of the action." Id. at ¶6.
- 2) Defendants shall execute and deliver to Liberty a Stipulated Judgment against Defendants and in favor of Liberty in the amount of $1.5 million. Liberty shall not record the Stipulated Judgment unless Defendants fail to make the Settlement Payment. Settlement Agreement at ¶2.
- 3) Defendants shall use their best efforts to sell property located at 17634 Bellflower Boulevard, CA (the "Bellflower Property") to a third party within twelve months (the "Sale Period"). Settlement Agreement at ¶3. Defendants shall receive the first $150,000 of the sales proceeds (net of certain costs), with Liberty to receive the balance. Defendants have made the Settlement Payment. At a Status Conference conducted on March 6, 2018, Defendants stated that issues remain regarding the sale of the Bellflower Property:

Defendant wants to sell the [Bellflower Property] but has not yet received approval by [Liberty] (although Defendant has the right to sell the property, without such written approval). If the matter cannot be resolved between the parties it will require Defendant to file a Motion with the Court seeking approval of the sale of the dilapidated [Bellflower Property] to an adjoining landowner for its fair market value as provided to [Liberty], in writing, by Defendant. Therefore, the case should not be dismissed and a further status conference [should be] set out for 75 days.

Joint Status Report [Doc. No. 89] at ¶G.

At the March 6 Status Conference, Liberty asserted that because the Settlement Amount had been paid, it has "circulated a stipulation for dismissal ... and will file [the] stipulation once it is signed by Defendant." Id. at ¶G.

The Court made the following findings at the March 6 Status Conference:

In the Court's view, dismissal of the action at this juncture would be premature, given that the issues regarding the Bellflower Property have not been resolved and given that Defendants have not consented to execution of a stipulation for dismissal. However, on the present record, there is no compelling reason why consummation of the Settlement Agreement's provisions regarding sale of the Bellflower Property should require Court intervention. Those provisions are straightforward and the Court expects the parties to negotiate and resolve any issues regarding the sale in good faith.

Final Ruling at 5–6.

In the Status Report filed in connection with this Status Conference, the parties make conflicting representations regarding the Bellflower Property. Plaintiff states that the sales and marketing efforts of the Bellflower Property are continuing; Defendants state that the Bellflower Property has been sold. The parties must appear to clarify this inconsistency.

If the Bellflower Property has in fact been sold, the Court would be inclined to approve a stipulated dismissal of this action, with the Court retaining jurisdiction to enforce the terms of the Settlement Agreement.

RE: [703] Motion to Reconsider of Claim (related documents 623 Objection to Claim, 657 ORDER disallowing claim(s) (BNC-PDF)) (Henshaw, David)

Docket 703

Tentative Ruling:

9/17/2018

For the reasons set forth below, the Motion to Reconsider is GRANTED, and Claim 2 is allowed as a general unsecured claim in the amount of $1,210,191.78.

Pleadings Filed and Reviewed:

- 1) Order Setting Hearing on YCJS' "Motion for Reconsideration of Claim" [Doc. No. 721]
- 2) Motion for Reconsideration of Claim [Doc. No. 703]
- 3) The Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors' Objection to Claim Number 2 Filed by YCJS 2012 LLC (the "Claim Objection") [Doc. No. 623]
 - a) Notice of Objection to Claim [Doc. No. 624]
- 4) The Plan Administrator has not filed an opposition to the Motion for Reconsideration

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

On June 8, 2018, the Court entered an order disallowing Proof of Claim 2-1 ("Claim 2"), an unsecured claim in the amount of $1,210,191.78 for breach of contract asserted by YCJS 2012 LLC ("YCJS"). Doc. No. 657. The objection to Claim 2 (the "Claim Objection") was brought by the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (the "Liberty Committee") for the Debtor, Liberty Asset Management Corporation ("Liberty"). YCJS did not oppose the Claim Objection.

On June 18, 2018, the Court entered an order confirming the First Amended Chapter 11 Plan of Liquidation [Ex. A, Doc. No. 609] (the "Plan") propounded by the Liberty Committee. Doc. No. 665 (the "Confirmation Order"). The Plan provides for the appointment of a Plan Administrator who is responsible for overseeing the liquidation of Liberty's remaining assets. The Plan further provides that the Plan Administrator is the successor-in-interest to Liberty, and is the sole representative of Liberty's estate. The Plan Administrator is represented by Pachulski Stang Ziehl & Jones LLP ("PSZJ"), the same law firm that represented the Liberty Committee.

On August 16, 2018, the Court entered an order setting this hearing on YCJS' motion seeking reconsideration of the order disallowing Claim 2 (the "Motion to Reconsider"). In the Motion to Reconsider, YCJS asserts that it had inadvertently failed to oppose the Claim Objection, based on its mistaken belief that YCJS' claim would be resolved through the adversary proceeding captioned AHA 2012 LLC et al. v. Benjamin Kirk et al. (Adv. No. 2:16-ap-01278-ER) (the "AHA Adversary"). The Plan Administrator, which pursuant to the Confirmation Order has succeeded to the rights of the Liberty Committee with respect to the Claim Objection, did not oppose vacatur of the order disallowing Claim 2 and the setting of a hearing on the Motion to Reconsider, provided that the Plan Administrator was afforded an additional opportunity to object to Claim 2. The Plan Administrator has not filed any papers in opposition to the Motion to Reconsider.

A. Claim 2 Asserted by YCJS

YCJS asserts an unsecured claim in the amount of $1,210,191.78, based upon breach of contract. The contract allegedly breached is a Disclosure Acknowledgment and Commitment to Purchase and Sell Distressed Real Estate Assets Agreement (the "Purchase and Sale Agreement") entered into between Liberty and YCJS on October 10, 2012. The Purchase and Sale Agreement provided that Liberty would purchase, on YCJS' behalf, property located at 119 Furlong Lane, Bradbury, CA 91008 (the "Bradbury Property") in exchange for a $900,000 payment. On account of the $900,000 payment, YCJS would acquire a 10% interest in the Bradbury Property.

B. The Claim Objection and the Order Disallowing Claim 2

On June 8, 2018, the Court entered an order granting the Liberty Committee's unopposed objection to Claim 2, and disallowed Claim 2 in its entirety. In support of the Claim Objection, Liberty had argued that the indebtedness asserted by YCJS through Claim 2 had been satisfied in connection with a Settlement Agreement approved in the Chapter 11 case of Big Max LLC ("Big Max"), Case No. 18-bk-30031-DM (Bankr. N.D. Cal.). [Note 1] The Liberty Committee alleged that if Claim 2 were allowed, YCJS would obtain a double recovery to the detriment of Liberty's other general unsecured creditors.

C. YCJS' Motion to Reconsider

In support of its Motion to Reconsider, YCJS asserts that it made multiple investments with Liberty. According to YCJS, the consideration it received in connection with the Settlement Agreement approved in the Big Max case (the "Big Max Settlement") resulted from a different investment it had made with Liberty—the investment upon which YCJS seeks a recovery through Claim 2. YCJS states that the consideration it received from the Big Max Settlement reimbursed YCJS for Liberty's default on its promise to purchase, on YCJS' behalf, property located at 3981 Alemany Blvd., San Francisco, CA 94132 (the "3981 Alemany Property"). By contrast, YCJS maintains that Claim 2 seeks recovery for Liberty's default on its promise, to purchase on YCJS' behalf, an interest in the Bradbury Property.

YCJS' assertions are supported by a declaration of Yuchi Wang, a member of YCJS. The Plan Administrator has not filed any papers in opposition to the Motion to Reconsider.

II. Findings and Conclusions

Under Bankruptcy Rule 3001(f), a proof of claim executed and filed in accordance with the Bankruptcy Rules constitutes prima facie evidence of the validity and amount of the claim. To overcome the presumption of validity created by a timely-filed proof of claim, an objecting party must do one of the following: (1) object based on legal grounds and provide a memorandum of points and authorities setting forth the legal basis for the objection; or (2) object based on a factual ground and provide sufficient evidence (usually in the form of declarations under penalty of perjury) to create triable issues of fact. Durkin v. Binder Corp. (In re G.I. Indus., Inc.), 204 F.3d 1276, 1280 (9th Cir. BAP 2000); United States v. Offord Finance, Inc. (In re Medina), 205 B.R. 216, 222 (9th Cir. BAP 1996); Hemingway Transport, Inc. v. Kahn (In re Hemingway Transport, Inc.), 993 F.2d 915, 925 (1st Cir. 1993). Upon objection, a proof of claim provides "some evidence as to its validity and amount" and is "strong enough to carry over a mere formal objection without more." See Lundell v. Anchor Constr. Spec., Inc., 223 F.3d 1035, 1039 (9th Cir. 2000) (citing Wright v. Holm (In re Holm), 931 F.2d 620, 623 (9th Cir. 1991)). An objecting party bears the burden and must "show facts tending to defeat the claim by probative force equal to that of the allegations of the proofs of claim themselves." Holm, 931 F.2d at 623. When the objector has shown enough evidence to negate one or more facts in the proof of claim, the burden shifts back to the claimant to prove the validity of the claim by a preponderance of evidence. See Lundell, 223 F.3d at 1039 (citation omitted).

Chapter 11

Section 502 requires the Court to disallow a claim that "is unenforceable against the debtor and the property of the debtor, under any agreement or applicable law for a reason other than because such claim is contingent or unmatured."

The Plan Administrator has not submitted any evidence to contravene the testimony proffered by YCJS that Claim 2 seeks reimbursement on account of YCJS' investment in the Bradbury Property. YCJS' testimony establishes that Claim 2 is not duplicative of the consideration YCJS received in connection with the Big Max Settlement. The uncontroverted evidence before the Court establishes that the consideration YCJS received in the Big Max Settlement was on account of its investment in the 3981 Alemany Property. By contrast, through Claim 2, YCJS seeks to recover the amounts it invested in the Bradbury Property. Contrary to the position of the Plan Administrator, the record shows YCJS is not seeking a double recovery through Claim 2.

Based upon the foregoing, the Motion to Reconsider is GRANTED. Claim 2 is allowed as a general unsecured claim in the amount of $1,210,191.78.

YCJS shall submit an order incorporating this tentative ruling by reference within seven days of the hearing.

- 1) Reorganized Debtor's Chapter 11 Post-Confirmation Status Report [Doc. No. 179]

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

On May 29, 2018, the Court entered an Order Confirming Debtor's Second Amended Chapter 11 Plan of Reorganization [Doc. No. 169] (the "Confirmation Order"). This is a Post-Confirmation Status Conference. Debtor states that it is current on all payments required under the Plan. Pursuant to the Plan, payments will be completed by approximately May 1, 2023. Debtor states that its counsel intends to shortly file a final fee application and a motion for a final decree.

II. Findings and Conclusions

A continued Post-Confirmation Status Conference shall be held January 15, 2019, at 10:00 a.m. A Post-Confirmation Status Report must be submitted by no later than fourteen days prior to the hearing. Debtor shall file and serve a final fee application and a motion for a final decree such that those motions are heard prior to the date of the continued Status Conference. If favorable orders on the motions for a final fee application and final decree are entered, the continued Status Conference will go off calendar.

The Debtor shall submit an order setting the continued Status Conference within seven days of the hearing.

The Debtor commenced this chapter 11 bankruptcy case on May 23, 2017. At a hearing on June 8, 2018, this Court orally granted Debtor's Motion for Order Approving Sale of Real Property Free and Clear of Designated Liens, Providing for Overbids, and for Ancillary Relief [Doc. No. 102] (the "Sale Motion"), ordered Debtor's disclosure statement withdrawn [Doc. Nos. 97, 115] and set this chapter 11 status conference. As set forth in the Sale Motion, Debtor anticipated the sale of his property would generate funds sufficient to pay all claims in full. This Court entered an order granting the Sale Motion on June 15, 2018 [Doc. No. 118].

On July 24, 2018, the Debtor filed a Motion to Amend Order Granting:

Chapter 11 Disclosure Statement Describing Plan of Reorganization [Doc. Nos. 283, 301] (the "Disclosure Statement"). The following provisions are the material provisions of the Joint Proposed Chapter 11 Plan of Reorganization [Doc. No. 282] (the "Plan"):

1. The Plan is a reorganizing plan. The Proponents seek to accomplish payment under the Plan with both pre- and post-confirmation income from the Debtor's business operations.
2. The Effective Date will be 10 days after entry of the order confirming the plan or final approval of the class action settlement in the Superior Court of the State of California.
3. On the Effective Date, the Committee will cease to exist and will be replaced by a Plan Committee that will monitor Debtor's compliance with the Plan and serve as disbursing agent.
4. The Plan consists of 15 classes of claims. Only Class 11 and Class 14 are impaired and entitled to vote.
5. Class 11 consists of general unsecured claims. The Plan proposes to pay Class 11 $4,500,00 over approximately 5 years. This represents an approximate 31.113% distribution on such claims (or 21.116% distribution if the People's claim is disallowed).
6. Class 14 consists of civil and tax penalty claims. The Plan proposes to pay Class 14 a one-time $10,000 payment on January 1, 2024. This represents an approximate 0.02% distribution on such claims.
7. The Debtor shall establish a post-confirmation liquidating trust that will become effective on the Effective Date. Timothy Yoo, or his designee, shall serve as trustee. In the event of an uncured default under the Plan, at the election of the Plan Committee, the assets of the Debtor will be transferred to and vest in the Liquidation Trust. Among other things, preferential and fraudulent transfer claims will be tolled and the trustee will be vested with standing to pursue such claims.

Summary of the Objection Filed by the People of the State of California and the Debtor's and Committee's Replies California's Attorney General, acting on behalf of the People of the State of California (the "Attorney General" or "People"), filed an objection [Doc. No. 323] (the "Objection") contending that the Disclosure Statement does not contain adequate information. The objections are summarized as follows.

First, the People assert that the Disclosure Statement does not provide adequate information about potential avoidable fraudulent or preferential transfers. Based on its asserted review of Debtor's financial statements, the People contend that the Debtor and Green Anchor were highly profitable companies and that from 2013 through July 6, 2017, the companies' ledgers indicate that they paid over $ 9 million in distributions to Alfredo and Elizabeth Barajas. The People assert that Debtor also omitted over $2.5 million in transfers paid within the one-year period immediately preceding the petition date. Therefore, the People assert that the Disclosure Statement should be amended to include more information about the nature and recipients of these transfers.

In response, the Debtor states that it included information in the Disclosure Statement to put creditors on notice that there may be potential fraudulent transfer and preference claims, including that the potential claims will vest into a post-confirmation liquidating trust. Further, Debtor has already provided the Committee's counsel and People's counsel with financial information and documents relevant to any potential fraudulent transfer and preference claims. Therefore, Debtor submits that the disclosure statement contains adequate information on this issue.

Second, the People assert that the Disclosure Statement does not provide adequate information about the terms of two settlement agreements made in connection with Debtor's attempt to settle a putative class action suit. The People contend that the settlement agreements attempt to release third party insiders from potential liability in violation of 11 U.S.C. § 524(e). The People assert that creditors should be informed of the consequences of approval of these settlements as part of any consideration of the Plan.

In response, the Debtor states that it disclosed these settlements in the Disclosure Statement and contends that this objection has no bearing on whether the disclosure statement contains adequate information. Debtor contends that, to the extent the People oppose their treatment under the Plan as a result of any settlement, such opposition would be a confirmation issue, and not an issue regarding adequacy of disclosure.

Third, the People assert that the Disclosure Statement does not provide adequate information about the Attorney General's $500,000 priority wage claim for unpaid wages, which would potentially affect the feasibility of the proposed plan.

In response, Debtor asserts that this objection is misleading because it fails to acknowledge that Debtor has objected to the asserted claim. Further, to the extent the wage claim is allowed, Debtor contends again that this would be a confirmation issue and not an issue with disclosure.

Fourth, the People assert that the Disclosure Statement does not provide adequate information about the Attorney General's administrative claim for unpaid wages, which also would potentially affect the feasibility of the proposed plan. The People assert that Debtor's continued use of independent contractor drivers during the pendency of this bankruptcy case gives rise to a post-petition administrative wage claim that the People intend to file.

In response, the Debtor asserts that the People have not even filed any claim yet, so there is no issue with the adequacy of the Debtor's disclosures on this issue. The Debtor also states that if such administrative expense claim is filed and allowed, its existence would be a feasibility issue to be determined in connection with plan confirmation.

Fifth, the People assert that the Disclosure Statement does not provide adequate information about the pre-petition merger with Green Anchor, such as the financial consequences of the merger and the potential that the merger may be fraudulent or otherwise avoidable.

In response, the Debtor states that it has disclosed detailed descriptions of its past business activities and provided the Committee with all of the information that is reasonably practical in connection with preparation of the Disclosure Statement and Plan.

Sixth, the People assert that the Disclosure Statement does not provide adequate information about the calculations used in the liquidation analysis, including whether they are based on the present value of future payments under the Plan.

In response, the Debtor contends that it provided a detailed breakdown of each of the Debtor's assets and a complete liquidation analysis. Debtor submits that no further information is required.

Debtor also generally contends that the People's Objection is not well founded and is merely an attempt to delay confirmation of the Plan. Additionally, Debtor states that it will face up to $300,000 in tax consequences if its Plan is not confirmed and distributions made prior to the end of 2018. In connection with its reply, Debtor filed a request for this court to take judicial notice of its bankruptcy docket and its objection to the People's Proof of Claim 13 [Doc. No. 330] (the "RFJN").

The Committee contends that it and the Debtor have gone out of their way to try to include the Attorney General and negotiate a resolution of the outstanding disputes, but that the Attorney General has not been all that cooperative and has engaged in dilatory conduct. The Committee also submits that the Attorney General was provided with substantial amounts of financial information concerning all relevant aspects of Debtor's financial operations and transfers to insiders. Therefore, the Committee joins in Debtor's Reply and requests the Court overrule the Objection.

II. Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law

Section 1125 requires a disclosure statement to contain "information of a kind, and in sufficient detail, as far as is reasonably practicable in light of the nature and history of the debtor and the condition of the debtor's books and records . . . that would enable. . . a hypothetical investor of the relevant class to make an informed judgment about the plan." In determining whether a disclosure statement provides adequate information, "the court shall consider the complexity of the case, the benefit of additional information to creditors and other parties in interest, and the cost of providing additional information." 11 U.S.C. § 1125(a). Courts interpreting § 1125(a) have explained that the "primary purpose of a disclosure statement is to give the creditors the information they need to decide whether to accept the plan." In re Monnier Bros., 755 F.2d 1336, 1342 (8th Cir. 1985). "According to the legislative history, the parameters of what constitutes adequate information are intended to be flexible." In re Diversified Investors Fund XVII, 91 B.R. 559, 560 (Bankr. C.D. In re Metrocraft Pub. Services, Inc., 39 B.R. 567, 568 (Bankr. Ga. 1984). However, “[d]isclosure of all factors is not necessary in every case.” Id.

The Court finds that the Disclosure Statement contains adequate information, in view of the size and complexity of the case, and the benefit of additional information to creditors and other parties in interest when weighed against the costs of providing such information. Among other things, the Disclosure Statement contains:

- 1) A detailed description of the estate’s principal assets, including estimates of the liquidation value of those assets.
- 2) A description of the significant events that led to the filing of this case and that have occurred during the Chapter 11 proceedings.
- 3) A description of all classes and class treatment.
- 4) A description of the creation of a Liquidating Trust and procedures that shall apply in the event of a default under the Plan.
- 5) Disclosure of the Class Action and Attorney General Litigation and the impact of those suits on the Debtor’s efforts to reorganize.

The People’s objections to the adequacy of the information contained in the Disclosure Statement are overruled. Having reviewed the Disclosure Statement and Plan, the Court finds that the Disclosure Statement contains sufficient information to enable creditors to make an informed decision as to whether to vote for or against the Plan.

The Court also finds it significant that the Plan and Disclosure Statement are jointly proposed by the Debtor and Committee – especially considering the size and voting power of the Committee’s constituents. The circumstances of this joint Plan lead this Court to conclude that there is little futility to requiring the Proponents to amend the Disclosure Statement and Plan to include additional information concerning potential fraudulent transfer and preference claims, the proposed settlement agreements, and Debtor’s merger with Green Anchor Lines, Inc.

The Court also finds that the People’s objections regarding the adequacy of disclosure concerning its priority wage claim and yet-to-be-filed administrative claim and the sufficiency of the liquidation analysis are without merit. These issues appear to center on the feasibility of the Plan and, as such, should be raised in connection with plan confirmation.

The following dates will apply with respect to the solicitation of votes and plan confirmation:

No appearances required. The tentative ruling is to GRANT the motion and set an Administrative Claim Bar Date of December 1, 2018.

Pleadings Filed and Reviewed

1. Debtor's Motion for Entry of an Order (1) Establishing Administrative Claim Bar Date, (2) Approving the Form, Manner and Sufficiency of the Administrative Bar Date Notice, and (3) Approving the Form of the Proof of Administrative Expense Claim and Related Administrative Expense Claim Procedures [Doc. 2. Amended Notice of Hearing on Bar Date Motion [Doc. No. 314]
3. As of the preparation of this tentative ruling, no oppositions have been filed.

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

Motion

Debtor seeks entry of an order establishing an administrative claim bar date of December 1, 2018 (the "Administrative Claim Bar Date") for all persons and entities holding a claim entitled to administrative expense priority under sections 503(b) and 507(a)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code that arose or accrued prior to the Administrative Claim Bar Date (an "Administrative Expense Claim") to file requests for payment and proof of such Administrative Expense Claim – with the exception of certain persons

Debtor further requests that the Court approve: (A) the form, manner, and sufficiency of the notice of the Administrative Claim Bar Date in substantially the same form as that attached to the Declaration of Alfredo Barajas (the "Barajas Decl.") as Exhibit 1 (the "Administrative Bar Date Notice"); (B) the proposed form for submission of an Administrative Expense Claim (the "Proof of Administrative Expense Claim") attached as Exhibit 2 to the Barajas Decl.; and (C) Debtor's proposed procedures for filing Proofs of Administrative Expense Claims.

Opposition(s)

As of the preparation of this tentative ruling, no oppositions have been filed.

II. Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law

Pursuant to Rule 3003(c)(3), the "court shall fix and for cause shown may extend the time within which proofs of claim or interest may be filed." Fed. R. Bankr. P. 3003(c)(3). "This rule contributes to one of the main purposes of bankruptcy law, securing, within a limited time, the prompt and effectual administration and settlement of the debtor's estate" In re Smidth & Co., 413 B.R. 161, 165 (Bankr. D. Del. 2009).

The Court finds it appropriate to set an Administrative Claim Bar Date of December 1, 2018. The Court approves the form, manner, and sufficiency of the Administrative Bar Notice (Exhibit 1), the proposed Proof of Administrative Expense Claim (Exhibit 2), and the proposed procedures for filing Proofs of Administrative Expense Claims (Doc No. 307, p. 11:15-12:3 or PDF pp. 14-15).

Debtor is directed to lodge a proposed order within 7 days of the hearing and to send out notice no later than five business days after entry of an order granting the motion in the manner proposed in the motion.

FR. 7-17-18

Docket 5

Tentative Ruling:

9/17/2018

For the reasons set forth below, the Cash Management Motion is granted on a final basis.

Pleadings Filed and Reviewed:

- 1) Debtor's Emergency Motion for Order Authorizing Debtor to Maintain Bank Accounts, Cash Management System, and Use of Existing Business Forms [Doc. No. 5] (the "Cash Management Motion")
 - a) Omnibus Declaration of Randall C. Sultan in Support of Debtor's First-Day Motions [Doc. No. 10]
- 2) Ruling Granting Cash Management Motion [Doc. No. 39] (the "Interim Cash Management Ruling")
- 3) No opposition is on file

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

Sultan Financial Corporation (the "Debtor") commenced a voluntary Chapter 11 petition on July 13, 2018 (the "Petition Date"). On July 18, 2018, the Court granted, on an interim basis, the Debtor's first-day motion for authorization to continue to use its existing bank accounts, cash management system, and business forms. See Ruling Granting Emergency Motion for Interim Order Authorizing the Debtor to Maintain Bank Accounts, Cash Management System, and Use of Existing Business Forms [Doc. Management System, and Use of Existing Business Forms [Doc. No. 44] (the “Interim Cash Management Order”). Among other things, the Interim Cash Management Order authorized the Debtor to continue to use its (1) existing pre-petition accounts and its (2) pre-petition cash management system, for a period of sixty days from the Petition Date. This is a final hearing on the Cash Management Motion, in which the Debtor seeks continued authorization to use its pre-petition accounts and pre-petition cash management system. No opposition to the Cash Management Motion has been filed.

II. Findings and Conclusions

The Court adopts and incorporates herein by reference all the findings set forth in the Interim Cash Management Ruling. As set forth in the Interim Cash Management Ruling, §§1107(a) and 1108 authorize a debtor-in-possession to operate its business, and §363(c) authorizes a debtor-in-possession to use property of estate in the ordinary course of business. Read together, these sections provide authority for the Debtor to continue using its pre-petition bank accounts and pre-petition cash management system.

Having received no objections to the Cash Management Motion; finding the relief sought in the Motion to be appropriate; and for the reasons set forth in the Interim Cash Management Ruling, the Court GRANTS the Cash Management Motion on a final basis.

The Debtor shall submit an order, incorporating this tentative ruling by reference, within seven days of the hearing.

No appearance is required if submitting on the court’s tentative ruling. If you intend to submit on the tentative ruling, please contact Jessica Vogel or Daniel Koontz at 213-894-1522. If you intend to contest the tentative ruling and appear, please first contact opposing counsel to inform them of your intention to do so. Should an opposing party file a late opposition or appear at the hearing, the court will determine whether further hearing is required. fr:8-15-18

Docket 102

Tentative Ruling:

9/17/2018

For the reasons set forth below, the Court finds that the accounting provided by the Debtor is adequate.

Pleadings Filed and Reviewed:

- 1) Order Granting Chapter 7 Trustee's Motion Compelling (1) Turnover and (2) Accounting of Estate's Property [Doc. No. 112]

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

Guillermo Alvarado (the "Debtor") filed a voluntary Chapter 7 petition on June 15, 2016 (the "Petition Date"). Doc. No. 1. The Debtor received a discharge on November 7, 2016. Doc. No. 31. On March 14, 2018, after conducting a trial on a dischargeability action brought by C.H. Robinson Worldwide, Inc. ("CH Robinson"), the Court found that the Debtor was indebted to CH Robinson in the amount of $68,361.00, and that such indebtedness was excepted from the Debtor's discharge pursuant to §523(a)(2)(A) and (a)(4). Adv. Doc. Nos. 55–56. Among other things, the Court found that the Debtor had committed "actual fraud" by causing Global Fresh, a company which he controlled, to transfer a substantial salary to himself instead of remitting the funds to CH Robinson, per the requirements of the Perishable Agricultural Commodities Act ("PACA"). Adv. Doc. No. 55 at p. 11. The Court further found that the Debtor had committed defalcation by misappropriating PACA trust assets. Id. at 12–13.

In his Statement of Financial Affairs (the "SOFA"), the Debtor stated that during the one year period prior to the Petition Date, he received $70,000.00 from the sale of real property to Rebecca Segovia. The SOFA stated that the Debtor did not make any payments to any creditors within one year of the Petition Date, other than a payment of $1,406.12 to Infinity Financial Services made in June 2016. The SOFA further provided that the Debtor did not transfer any property to anyone within one year of the Petition Date. The Debtor's Schedule A/B provides that as of the Petition Date, the Debtor had $800.00 in cash and $585.80 in various bank accounts, of which $580.62 belonged to his children, leaving the Debtor with $5.18.

On August 24, 2018, the Court entered an order granting a motion filed by the Chapter 7 Trustee (the "Trustee") for an accounting and turnover of the $70,000.00 the Debtor received from the sale of the real property. Doc. No. 24. The Court ordered the Debtor to turnover the $70,000 that he received from the sale to the Trustee by no later than August 24, 2018, provided that the Debtor had the ability to turnover the funds. Doc. No. 112 (the "Turnover Order"). The Court further ordered the Debtor to provide an accounting of the funds.

On August 24, 2018, the Debtor filed a declaration regarding the disposition of the $70,000 (the "Alvarado Decl."). Ex. A, Doc. No. 115. The Alvarado Decl. provides in relevant part:

In regards to the $70,000.00 I received from the sale of the real property ..., I spent the funds in product for my business in an attempt to save it and provide an accounting. Unfortunately my records are not in as orderly a fashion as they were when [my] business was operating and I have spent a long time looking for the appropriate records. Nevertheless, hereinbelow is an accounting of the funds as far as I have been able to find so far. I used the money to pay part or some of the invoices listed below

Alvarado Decl. at ¶3.

The declaration contains two tables setting forth the payment of invoices. The aggregate amount of invoices paid is approximately $200,000. Alvarado Decl. at ¶¶ 3–5.

The Trustee states that the $70,000 has not been turned over to the estate.

According to the Trustee, the Alvarado Decl. is inadequate for the following reasons:

- 1) The bulk of the invoices attached to the Alvarado Decl. are in Spanish, and there is no English translation.
- 2) The invoices attached to the declaration state that the produce was consigned to M&B Produce Imports, Inc. and J&K Fresh, LLC. There is no description of how these entities are related to the Debtor or his company, Global Fresh.
- 3) The Debtor provided only a partial bank statement. The pages containing the account's name and other identifiable information were omitted.

II. Findings and Conclusions

The Bankruptcy Code requires the Debtor to cooperate with the Trustee "as necessary to enable the trustee to perform the trustee's duties under this title" § 521(a)(3). Among other duties, the Trustee has the obligation to "collect and reduce to money the property of the estate" and to "investigate the financial affairs of the debtor" §704(a)(1) and (a)(4). "[T]he Trustee has a statutory authorization to require production of documents in the furtherance of an investigatory duty also created by statute," and the debtor has a "duty to provide information and to cooperate in this investigation." Rigby v. Mastro (In re Mastro), 585 B.R. 587, 596 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 2018).

The Court finds that the accounting provided by the Debtor is sufficient to allow the Trustee to perform his duties to liquidate the property of the estate and investigate the financial affairs of the Debtor. The accounting that the Debtor has provided is hardly a textbook example of precision. However, as was made apparent in the trial in the dischargeability action brought by C.H. Robinson, the Debtor never did an exemplary job of keeping records of his business activities. The Court finds that the shortcomings in the accounting provided here are a reflection of the Debtor's casual approach to bookkeeping, rather than an attempt to mislead the Trustee and the Court.

Addressing the Trustee's specific objections, although certain of the documents are in Spanish, they still permit even a non-Spanish speaker to assess in general terms the products purchased and the amounts paid. Although the invoices do not bear the names of the Debtor or his company Global Fresh, the Debtor has offered sworn testimony that he used the $70,000 to buy "product for my business in an attempt to save it" Alvarado Decl. at ¶3. The reasonable inference from this testimony is that the entities listed on the invoices were affiliates of or were otherwise related to the Debtor or Global Fresh.

In sum, the Court finds that the Debtor has sufficiently complied with the Turnover Order by providing an accounting of the expenditure of the funds. The Court will enter an order finding that the Debtor has complied with the requirements of the Turnover Order.

The Trustee shall submit an order, incorporating this tentative ruling by reference, within seven days of the hearing.

No appearances are required. To provide LA Financial an opportunity to respond to the late-filed Johnson Appraisal, the hearing is CONTINUED to October 10, 2018, at 10:00 a.m.

After LA Financial Credit Union ("LA Financial") filed papers in opposition to this Lien Avoidance Motion, the Debtors submitted additional evidence in support of the Motion—an appraisal of the Property prepared by Daryl Johnson (the "Johnson Appraisal"). Local Bankruptcy Rule ("LBR") 9013-1(g)(4) prohibits the introduction of new evidence or arguments in reply papers. LBR 9013-1(g)(4) is a codification of the Ninth Circuit's well-established "general rule that [litigants] cannot raise a new issue for the first time in their reply briefs." Martinez-Serrano v. I.N.S., 94 F.3d 1256, 1259 (9th Cir. 1996).

Because the Johnson Appraisal will assist the Court in determining the Property's value, the Court declines to strike the Johnson Appraisal from the record. However, due process requires that LA Financial be provided an opportunity to respond to the Johnson Appraisal. Accordingly, the hearing on the Motion is CONTINUED to October 10, 2018, at 10:00 a.m. The deadline for LA Financial to file papers in opposition to the Johnson Appraisal is October 3, 2018. Other than LA Financial's opposition to the Johnson Appraisal, the Motion has been fully briefed. No further briefing will be accepted absent further order of the Court.

3) No opposition is on file

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

The Chapter 7 Trustee (the "Trustee") moves to sell the estate's remaining assets, whether known or unknown (the "Remnant Assets") to Oak Point Partners, LLC ("Oak Point"), free and clear of liens, claims, interests, and encumbrances. The purchase price is $5,000, and the sale is subject to overbids.

On October 16, 2014, this Court issued an order (the "Vexatious Litigant Order," Doc. No. 434) deeming Peli Popovich Hunt, individually and as Trustee of the Robert and Peli Hunt Living Trust, and as purported "agent" of Robert W. Hunt, MD, a medical corporation, the debtor herein, and all persons acting in concert therewith, including, but not limited to, Franklin P. Jeffries and Robert L. Jarrett, Jr., to be vexatious litigants (collectively, "Vexatious Litigants"). The Vexatious Litigant Order placed a pre-filing bar on filing documents that the Court determines to be duplicative or frivolous. The Vexatious Litigant Order is strengthened by a similar order issued on May 4, 2015 by Judge Andrew J. Guilford of the U.S. District Court for the Central District of California imposing further pre-filing restrictions on the Vexatious Litigants. See Case No. 2:15-cv-00667-AG, Doc. No. 46.

In this Court, the pre-filing restrictions require the Vexatious Litigants to provide the Court with a copy of any attempted filing so that the Court may determine whether it is duplicative or frivolous. The Vexatious Litigants are permitted, without leave of court, "to respond to pleadings filed by another party seeking relief against Hunt, Jeffries, or Jarrett[.]" Vexatious Litigant Order at 2.

On August 23, 2018, Peli Popovich Hunt ("Ms. Hunt") presented for filing a document captioned Memorandum Opposition to Chapter 7 Trustees Motion for Order Authorizing Sale of Certain Assets of the Debtors Estate Free and Clear of Liens, Claims, Encumbrances and Related Relief (the "Filing"). On August 24, 2018, the Court issued an order rejecting the Filing as barred by the Vexatious Litigant Order.

Other than the frivolous and duplicative papers presented by Ms. Hunt which the Court has not accepted for filing, no opposition to the Sale Motion is on file.

II. Findings and Conclusions

The Court has rejected the papers presented by Ms. Hunt in opposition to the Sale Motion as frivolous, duplicative, and barred by the Vexatious Litigant Order. Ms. Hunt's previous oral presentations have been of no assistance to the Court. Ms. Hunt will not be allowed to present any arguments in opposition to the Sale Motion.

Section 363(b) permits the Trustee to sell estate property out of the ordinary course of business, subject to court approval. The debtor must articulate a business justification for the sale. In re Walter, 83 B.R. 14, 19–20 (9th Cir. BAP 1988). Whether the articulated business justification is sufficient "depends on the case," in view of "all salient factors pertaining to the proceeding." Id. at 19–20.

Section 363(f) provides that estate property may be sold free and clear of liens, claims, and interests, providing one of the following conditions is satisfied:

- 1) Applicable nonbankruptcy law permits sale of such property free and clear of such interest;
- 2) Such entity consents;
- 3) Such interest is a lien and the price at which such property is sold is greater than the aggregate value of all liens on such property;
- 4) Such interest is in bona fide dispute; or
- 5) Such entity could be compelled, in a legal or equitable proceeding, to accept a money satisfaction of such interest.

The Remnant Assets include unknown assets of the estate and therefore cannot be delineated with particularity. The Trustee asserts that to the extent that any interests may be asserted in the Remnant Assets, one or more of the conditions set forth in § 363(f) have been satisfied.

The sale is approved free and clear of liens, claims, and interests, pursuant to § 363(f). Although the sale of unknown assets does not permit the kind of precise analysis that the Court normally undertakes when applying §363(f), sales of unknown assets have become common in bankruptcy, and have been recognized by courts as a useful and efficient means of allowing Trustees to complete the administration of the estate. Therefore, the Court finds it appropriate to approve the sale, free and clear of liens, claims, and interests, with such liens, claims and interests (if any) to attach to the sales proceeds.

The Trustee has demonstrated ample business justification for the sale. Sale of the Remnant Assets will allow the Trustee to complete his statutory obligation of liquidating the estate's remaining assets.

Having reviewed the declaration submitted by the Trustee, the Court finds that the sale to Oak Point was negotiated at arms-length, and that Oak Point is entitled to the protections of §363(m).

Notwithstanding Bankruptcy Rule 6004(f), the order approving the sale shall take

Auction Procedures

In the event that any qualified overbidders are present, the Court will distribute numbered auction paddles to the proposed purchaser and all qualified overbidders. The initial overbid will be $6,000, with subsequent overbids to be increments of $1,000. The overbid increment is subject to adjustment by the Court to facilitate bidding. The Court will announce each bid level. To remain in the auction, bidders must participate at all bid levels. That is, parties who do not bid in a round cannot later change their minds and re-enter the auction. Parties may make a bid higher than that announced by the Court by approaching the podium and stating their bid.

III. Conclusion

Based upon the foregoing, the Sale Motion is GRANTED in its entirety. The Trustee shall submit a conforming order, incorporating this tentative ruling by reference, within seven days of the hearing.

Tentative Ruling:

Having reviewed the parties' Joint Status Report, the Court HEREBY ORDERS that the following dates shall apply to this action:

- 1) The last day to amend pleadings and/or join other parties is 4/12/2018.
- 2) The last day to disclose expert witnesses and expert witness reports is 6/26/2018.
- 3) The last day to disclose rebuttal expert witnesses and rebuttal expert witness reports is 7/26/2018.
- 4) The last date to complete discovery relating to expert witnesses (e.g., depositions of expert witnesses), including hearings on motions related to expert discovery, is 8/14/2018. (For contemplated hearings on motions related to expert discovery, it is counsel's responsibility to check the Judge's self-calendaring dates, posted on the Court's website. If the expert discovery cutoff date falls on a date when the court is closed or that is not available for self-calendaring, the deadline for hearings on expert discovery motions is the next closest date which is available for self-calendaring.)
- 5) The last day for dispositive motions to be heard is 8/21/2018. (If the motion cutoff date is not available for self-calendaring, the deadline for dispositive motions to be heard is the next closest date which is available for self calendaring.)

- 6) The last day to complete discovery (except as to experts), including hearings on discovery motions, is 8/25/2018. (If the non-expert discovery cutoff date is not available for self-calendaring, the deadline for non-expert discovery motions to be heard is the next closest date which is available for self-calendaring.)
- 7) A Pretrial Conference is set for 9/11/2018 at 11:00 a.m. By no later than fourteen days prior to the Pretrial Conference, the parties must submit a Joint Pretrial Stipulation via the Court's Lodged Order Upload (LOU) system. Submission via LOU allows the Court to edit the Joint Pretrial Stipulation, if necessary. Parties should consult the Court Manual, section 4, for information about LOU.
- 8) Trial is set for the week of 9/24/2018. The trial day commences at 9:00 a.m. The exact date of the trial will be set at the Pretrial Conference. Consult the Court's website for the Judge's requirements regarding exhibit binders and trial briefs.

The Court will not require the Plaintiff to submit an order referring this matter to the Mediation Panel, but the Court expects that the parties will complete a second day of mediation before Mr. Nassif as the parties have stated they intend to do in the most recent Status Report.

The Court will enter a Scheduling Order.

No appearance is required if submitting on the court's tentative ruling. If you intend to submit on the tentative ruling, please contact Cameron Schlagel or Daniel Koontz at 213-894-1522. If you intend to contest the tentative ruling and appear, please first contact opposing counsel to inform them of your intention to do so. Should an opposing party file a late opposition or appear at the hearing, the court will determine whether further hearing is required. If you wish to make a telephonic appearance, contact Court Call at 888-882-6878, no later than one hour before the hearing.

Tentative Ruling:

Defendants have demanded a jury trial. However, "[b]ankruptcy litigants ... have no Seventh Amendment right to a jury trial in dischargeability proceedings." American Express v. Hashemi (In re Hashemi), 104 F.3d 1122, 1124 (9th Cir. 1996). A bench trial will be conducted in this matter.

Having reviewed the parties' Joint Status Report, the Court HEREBY ORDERS that the following dates shall apply to this action:

- 1) The last day to amend pleadings and/or join other parties is 4/12/2018.
- 2) The last day to disclose expert witnesses and expert witness reports is 6/26/2018.
- 3) The last day to disclose rebuttal expert witnesses and rebuttal expert witness reports is 7/26/2018.
- 4) The last date to complete discovery relating to expert witnesses (e.g., depositions of expert witnesses), including hearings on motions related to expert discovery, is 8/14/2018. (For contemplated hearings on motions related to expert discovery, it is counsel's responsibility to check the Judge's self-scheduling dates, posted on the Court's website. If the expert discovery cutoff date falls on a date when the court is closed or that is not available for self-scheduling, the deadline for hearings on expert discovery motions is the next closest date which is available for self-scheduling.)

(If the non-expert discovery cutoff date is not available for self-calendaring, the deadline for non-expert discovery motions to be heard is the next closest date which is available for self-calendaring.)
- 7) A Pretrial Conference is set for 9/11/2018 at 11:00 a.m. By no later than fourteen days prior to the Pretrial Conference, the parties must submit a Joint Pretrial Stipulation via the Court's Lodged Order Upload (LOU) system. Submission via LOU allows the Court to edit the Joint Pretrial Stipulation, if necessary. Parties should consult the Court Manual, section 4, for information about LOU.
- 8) Trial is set for the week of 9/24/2018. The trial day commences at 9:00 a.m. The exact date of the trial will be set at the Pretrial Conference. Consult the Court's website for the Judge's requirements regarding exhibit binders and trial briefs.

The matter shall be referred to the Mediation Panel. The parties shall meet and confer and select a Mediator from this District's Mediation Panel. Plaintiff will lodge a completed "Request for Assignment to Mediation Program; [Proposed] Order Thereon" (See Amended General Order 95-01 available on the Court's website) within 30 days from the date of this hearing, and deliver a hard copy directly to chambers c/o the judge's law clerk Daniel Koontz.

Docket 8

Tentative Ruling:

9/20/2018

Tentative Ruling:

This Motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on the notice required by LBR 4001(c)(1) and LBR 9013-1(d)(2). The failure of the Debtor, the trustee, and all other parties in interest to file written opposition at least 14 days prior to the hearing as required by LBR 9013-1(f) is considered as consent to the granting of the Motion. LBR 9013-1(h). Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995).

The Motion is GRANTED pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) for cause to permit Movant, its successors, transferees and assigns, to enforce its remedies to repossess or otherwise obtain possession and dispose of its collateral pursuant to applicable law, and to use the proceeds from its disposition to satisfy its claim. Movant may not pursue any deficiency claim against the Debtor or property of the estate except by filing a proof of claim pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 501. The Court takes judicial notice of the Chapter 7 Individual Debtor's Statement of Intention in which the Debtor stated an intention to surrender the vehicle to Movant.

This order shall be binding and effective despite any conversion of the bankruptcy case to a case under any other chapter of Title 11 of the United States Code. The 14-day stay prescribed by FRBP 4001(a)(3) is waived. All other relief is denied.

Movant shall upload an appropriate order via the Court's Lodged Order Upload system within 7 days of the hearing.

#102.00 HearingRE: [10] Notice of motion and motion for relief from the automatic stay with supporting declarations REAL PROPERTY RE: Property known as 47 OAK CLIFF DRIVE, POMONA, CA 91766 . (Richey, Cassandra)

Docket 10

Tentative Ruling:

9/20/2018

For the reasons stated below, the tentative ruling is to DENY the R/S Motion without prejudice.

Pleadings Filed and Reviewed

1. Notice of Motion and Motion for Relief from the Automatic Stay Under 11 U.S.C. § 362 (Real Property) (the "R/S Motion") [Doc. No. 10]
2. Trustee's Opposition to R/S Motion ("Trustee's Opposition") [Doc. No. 15]
3. As of the preparation of this tentative ruling, Movant has not filed a reply.

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

Motion

Rogelio and Carol Gonzalez (together, the "Debtors") filed this voluntary joint chapter 7 case on July 16, 2018. On August 30, 2018, creditor Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. ("Movant") filed a "Motion for Relief From the Automatic Stay Under 11 U.S.C. § 362 (Real Property)" (the "R/S Motion") [Doc. No. 10] seeking relief from the automatic stay pursuant to §§ 362(d)(1) and (d)(2) with respect to real property located at 47 Oak Cliff Drive, Pomona, CA 91766 (the "Property"). Movant asserts that cause exists to grant it relief from stay under § 362(d)(1) because the Debtors filed a Statement of Intention that indicates the Debtors' intent to surrender the Property ("Statement of Intention"). See Motion, Exhibit 8.

Movant also asserts that cause exists to grant it relief from stay under § 362(d)(2) because the Debtors have no equity in the Property and the Property is not necessary for an effective reorganization because this is a chapter 7 case. In support, Movant states that the total debt on the Property is $591,518.92 which is comprised of Movant's first priority deed of trust secured by a lien in the amount of $248,386.30 and approximately fifteen other liens securing an approximate indebtedness of $351,518.92. See Request for Judicial Notice, Doc No. 10, PDF p. 15. After factoring in 8% costs of sale ($49,384.64), Movant contends that the total debt exceeds the Property's $617,308 fair market value.

Opposition

On September 10, 2018, the chapter 7 trustee filed an Opposition to the R/S Motion [Doc. No. 15] ("Trustee's Opposition"). The Trustee requests that the Court deny the R/S Motion as follows. First, the Trustee contends that Movant has not established sufficient cause for relief from stay under § 362(d)(1) because (i) Movant is adequately protected by an equity cushion of $368,921.71 or 149%; and (ii) Debtors' Statement of Intention has no bearing on whether to grant Movant relief from stay because the Property is subject to administration by the Trustee pursuant to § 541.

Second, the Trustee contends that the Court should not grant Movant relief from stay pursuant to § 362(d)(2) because, using Movant's figures and assuming all the alleged liens are legitimate, the Debtors have approximately $17,402.78 in equity in the Property. [NOTE 1] Additionally, the Trustee states that he is currently evaluating the validity of the other asserted liens on the Property and requests an opportunity to try to negotiate with those creditors for a consensual sale that might provide some benefit to the estate or pursue a sale free and clear of some or all those interests.

Reply

As of the preparation of this tentative ruling, Movant has not filed a reply.

II. Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law

11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1)

Under 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1), the Court shall grant relief if the movant's interest in the property is not protected by an adequate equity cushion. In the Ninth Circuit, "[a] 20% [equity] cushion has been held to be an adequate protection for a secured creditor." In re Mellor, 734 F.2d 1396, 1401 (9th Cir. 1984). Based on Movant's figures, the Court finds that Movant is adequately protected by a 149% equity cushion.

Chapter 7

The Court also finds that the Trustee has the better argument with respect to Debtors' Statement of Intention.

Based on the foregoing, the Court finds that Movant is not entitled to relief from stay under § 362(d)(1).

11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(2)

Under 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(2), the court shall grant relief from the stay if "(A) the debtor does not have any equity in such property; and (B) such property is not necessary for an effective reorganization."

Since this is a chapter 7 case, it is undisputed that the Property is not necessary for an effective reorganization. Therefore, the Court must only determine whether the Debtors enjoy any equity in the Property. Using Movant's figures and deducting costs of sale, Debtors' $100,000 homestead exemption, the Trustee's fees, and administrative claims, it appears unlikely that the Trustee will be able to administer the Property for the benefit of general unsecured creditors.

However, none of the purported junior lienholder filed a response to this R/S Motion. On balance, the Court is persuaded that it is premature to find that there is no equity in the Property given the relatively newness of this case and the lack of meaningful investigation by the Trustee into the validity of the junior liens.

III. Conclusion

The tentative ruling is to DENY the R/S Motion without prejudice.

The Trustee shall upload an appropriate order via the Court's Lodged Order Upload system within 7 days of the hearing.

No appearance is required if submitting on the court's tentative ruling. If you intend to submit on the tentative ruling, please contact Daniel Koontz or Jessica Vogel at 213-894-1522. If you intend to contest the tentative ruling and appear, please first contact opposing counsel to inform them of your intention to do so. Should an opposing party file a late opposition or appear at the hearing, the court will

No appearances required. The matter is CONTINUED to October 15, 2018 at 10:00 a.m. to be heard concurrently with Debtor's Motion to Convert Case to Chapter 11 [Doc. No. 122]. #100.00 Hearing
RE: [133] Emergency motion Notice of Motion and Emergency Motion for Authority to Refinance Apartment Properties

Docket 133

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling:

Subject to additional argument which may be presented at the hearing, the Court is prepared to dismiss this case, so that the Debtor will be able to close the contemplated refinancing transaction. However, as set forth in greater detail below, the Court will retain jurisdiction to ensure that creditors are repaid, and will require that the proceeds of the refinancing transaction and the cash on hand in the Debtor's bank account be transferred to an escrow account under the joint control of the Chapter 7 Trustee and the Debtor's counsel. The case will not be dismissed until the funds have been deposited into escrow.

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

M&A Enterprises, LLC (the "Debtor") commenced a voluntary Chapter 7 petition on May 29, 2018. The Debtor owns two adjacent apartment buildings, located at 2936 North Loma Avenue and 2935 North Mountain Avenue, San Bernardino, CA (the "Properties"). According to the declaration of Luis Munoz submitted in support of a motion for stay-relief set for hearing on October 15, 2018, [Note 1] the Properties are encumbered by the following deeds of trust:

- 1) First Deed of Trust (the "First DOT") in favor of East West Bank, in the original principal amount of $3,432,154.81. According to a payoff demand provided to Debtor's counsel by East West Bank, as of August 23, 2018, the amount owing on the First DOT was $3,210,575.03. See Doc. No. 133, Ex. E.
- 2) Second Deed of Trust (the "Second DOT") in favor of Luiz Munoz. The Second DOT is a "wrap-around" DOT that fully incorporates the First DOT. According to a declaration filed by Mr. Munoz on August 13, 2018, the amount owing on the Second DOT is $4,422,564 (this amount includes the amounts owed on the First DOT, since the Second DOT is an all-inclusive or "wrap around" deed of trust).
- 3) Third Deed of Trust (the "Third DOT"), also in favor of Luiz Munoz. According to a declaration filed by Mr. Munoz on August 13, 2018, the balance on the Third DOT is $1,386,488.
- 4) Fourth Deed of Trust (the "Fourth DOT") in favor of Hahn Tran, in the amount of $250,000.

Based upon the foregoing figures, the total debt against the Properties is $6,064,450 as of August 13, 2018.

On August 22, 2018, the Court denied, without prejudice, the Debtor's motion to convert the case from Chapter 7 to Chapter 11 (the "First Motion to Convert"). The Debtor has filed a renewed motion to convert to Chapter 11 (the "Second Motion to Convert”), which is currently scheduled to be heard on October 15, 2018.

Mr. Munoz has filed a motion seeking stay-relief as to the Properties, which is also set to be heard on October 15, 2018. Based upon an appraiser’s declaration, Mr. Munoz asserts that the Properties are worth only $5.9 million, and that there is no equity in the Properties. See Doc. No. 65. The Debtor has obtained a competing appraisal which values the Properties at $6.85 million. See Doc. No. 69.

On or about September 14, 2018, the Chapter 7 Trustee (the “Trustee”) caused the bank holding the Debtor’s funds to place a hold on approximately $2,465,000 of those funds. See Decl. of John Bauer [Doc. No. 134] at ¶4. The Trustee has filed a motion seeking turnover of the funds, which is set for hearing on October 15, 2018.

Summary of the Debtor’s Refinancing Motion, the Opposition of Mr. Munoz and the Trustee, and the Debtor’s Replies in Support of the Refinancing Motion

The Debtor seeks authorization to obtain a loan in the amount of $4.0 million from Capital Direct Funding (“Capital Direct”). The Debtor asserts that the loan from Capital Direct, when combined with the $2,465,000 in funds in the Debtor’s bank account, will be sufficient to repay all debt against the Properties and to repay all unsecured creditors. The Debtor states that the instant motion seeking authorization to refinance the Properties (the “Refinancing Motion”) is filed as a prelude to a motion for a structured dismissal, which the Debtor contemplates filing shortly.

In support of the Refinancing Motion, the Debtor submits a declaration from Frank Williams, the Divisional Manager of Capital Direct. The Williams Declaration states that all conditions for funding the refinancing loan have been satisfied, except for (1) Court approval, (2) deposit into escrow of the $2.3 million in funds held by the estate, and (3) submission of all loan payoff demands.

The Debtor also submits a declaration from Mary L. O’Neill. Ms. O’Neill has represented the Debtor in various real estate litigation. According to Ms. O’Neill, an action against the Debtor brought by SMN Lo. Inc. (“SMN”) currently pending in the state court will not impact the Debtor’s other assets. Ms. O’Neill states that the action is a lien priority dispute pertaining to an unrelated property, and that regardless of the outcome of the dispute, there is sufficient equity in the property to cover any claims asserted by SMN in the event that it prevails.

The Trustee opposes the Refinancing Motion. The Trustee states that he does not consent to the refinancing of the Properties, and argues that the Refinancing Motion should be denied because the Debtor has refused to cooperate with the Trustee’s administration of the estate. According to the Trustee, the Debtor has (1) failed to turnover to the Trustee the funds in its bank account, has (2) continued to operate a cash lending business post-petition without Court authorization, and has (3) failed to promptly disclose to the Trustee the existence of the cash lending business. The Trustee states that although he has not had time to fully evaluate the proposed refinancing, there is no evidence that the 9.5% loan is at market rate, and that it “does not make any sense to put $2.5 million in unencumbered estate cash into the Property without any benefit to unsecured creditors.” Doc. No. 149 at p. 8.

Mr. Munoz, who holds the Second and Third DOTs, states that he supports the purpose of the Refinancing Motion, but questions whether Capital Direct will fund the loan. Mr. Munoz argues that the Refinancing Motion should either be denied without prejudice, or continued to give the Trustee more time to analyze the situation.

In Reply to the Trustee’s Opposition, the Debtor argues that the Trustee’s opposition to the proposed refinancing is not in the best interests of the estate, because the refinancing could pay off all creditors and allow the case to be expeditiously closed. In Reply to Mr. Munoz’s Opposition, the Debtor argues that Mr. Munoz’s primary motive is to obtain a windfall by obtaining stay-relief as to the Properties, and then foreclosing upon his Second and Third DOTs, so that the $250,000 Fourth DOT will be extinguished.

II. Findings and Conclusions

As a threshold matter, the Court addresses the Trustee’s evidentiary objections to the O’Neill Declaration. The Trustee objects to Ms. O’Neill’s statement that the state court claims asserted against the Debtor by SMN will not affect the Properties. The Trustee contends that Ms. O’Neill’s testimony is inadmissible under Federal Rules of Evidence (“FRE”) 602 (lack of personal knowledge), 701 (as improper lay opinion), and 801 and 802 (as hearsay). The Trustee further asserts that the testimony lacks foundation and is an inadmissible legal conclusion.

The Trustee’s evidentiary objections are overruled. Ms. O’Neill testifies that she has represented the Debtor and its principal “in its state court judicial foreclosure actions and real estate litigation for the past fifteen years,” and that she is “intimately familiar with each and every one of those state court actions.” O’Neill Decl. at ¶3. This testimony establishes that Ms. O’Neill has personal knowledge of the action brought by SMN, and that she is qualified to offer expert opinion as to the likely outcome of that action. Ms. O’Neill’s opinion that the SMN action will not affect the Properties is not hearsay.

Turning to the merits, the Court notes that the Debtor seeks to accomplish its objective of obtaining a structured dismissal of this case through a two-step process. First, through the instant Refinancing Motion, the Debtor seeks authorization to obtain the $4.0 million loan from Capital Direct. The Debtor then intends to file a motion to dismiss the case.

The Court notes that from a procedural perspective, the Debtor faces a Catch-22. Because this is a Chapter 7 case, the Trustee is charged with administering the Properties, and the Debtor cannot encumber the Properties absent the Trustee's consent. However, in order to obtain dismissal of the case (which would make obtaining the Trustee's consent to encumber the Properties unnecessary), the Debtor must show that creditors will not suffer legal prejudice, such as a reduced distribution. Leach v. Internal Revenue Service (In re Leach), 130 B.R. 855, 858 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 1991). To make this showing, it is necessary for the Debtor to obtain the financing.

In the Court's view, the refinancing of the Properties and the dismissal of the case is in the interests of the Debtor, the Trustee and his professionals, creditors, and the objectives of the Bankruptcy Code. The funds from the proposed refinancing, when combined with cash on hand in the estate, are sufficient to satisfy the claims of all secured and unsecured creditors, as well as administrative expenses accrued by the Trustee and his professionals. The Debtor operates a profitable lending business which would be liquidated if this case remained in Chapter 7. Where, as here, the Debtor's principal does not wish to proceed under Chapter 7 and has, through counsel, made multiple attempts to undo the consequences of the initial Chapter 7 filing, the liquidation of a profitable enterprise is not consistent with the objectives of the Bankruptcy Code.

Although the Refinancing Motion does not explicitly request dismissal of the case, it makes clear that a structured dismissal is the Debtor's ultimate objective. See, e.g., Refinancing Motion [Doc. No. 133] at p. 3 ("This motion is filed as a prelude to the filing of a motion to dismiss this Chapter 7 case. Upon the refinance as will be described below, Debtor's estate will have full and complete ownership of the subject apartment properties subject only to the lien of refinance and there will be no further need for the Trustee to liquidate this estate. There will be no further estate debts to repay. There will be no further need for the administration of this Chapter 7 case."). The Court finds it appropriate to construe the Motion as a motion for a structured dismissal, with such dismissal conditioned upon the Debtor's ability to close on the financing from Capital Direct. The Motion makes clear that the Debtor's ultimate objective in obtaining the financing was to facilitate dismissal. All creditors have received notice of the Motion and therefore have been afforded an opportunity to object to either the refinancing or the contemplated dismissal.

Section 707(a)(1) provides that the "court may dismiss a case under this chapter only after notice and a hearing and only for cause." In Hickman v. Hana (In re Hickman), 384 B.R. 832, 840 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 2008), the court observed that the "term 'for cause' is defined in the Bankruptcy Code only by way of a list of three examples—unreasonable delay prejudicial to creditors, nonpayment of filing fees, and not filing schedules—that is plainly incomplete." The Hickman court explained that courts should examine the totality of the circumstances in determining whether "cause" under §707(a) is present. Id. at 840. A "case will not be dismissed on the motion of a debtor if such dismissal would cause 'some plain legal prejudice' to a creditor." Id. Legal prejudice exists if dismissal will result in a decreased distribution to creditors. See, e.g., Leach v. Internal Revenue Service (In re Leach), 130 B.R. 855, 858 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 1991) (upholding denial of debtor's motion to dismiss, because dismissal would prejudice the Internal Revenue Service by permitting the debtor to refile at a later date when tax liabilities would be dischargeable).

Provided that the proposed refinancing transaction with Capital Direct closes, dismissal will not prejudice creditors because the refinancing will yield funds sufficient to repay all creditors in full. Having reviewed the Declaration of Frank Williams, Capital Direct's Divisional Manager, the Court finds that the refinancing offer is legitimate. Mr. Williams testifies that states that all conditions for funding the refinancing loan have been satisfied, except for (1) Court approval, (2) deposit into escrow of the $2.3 million in funds held by the estate, and (3) submission of all loan payoff demands.

To enable the Debtor to complete the refinancing transaction, the Court is prepared to dismiss this case. However, the Court will retain jurisdiction to ensure that the refinancing transaction is completed; that the Debtor repays all secured and unsecured creditors; and that the Debtor repays reasonable administrative fees incurred by the Trustee and his professionals. To ensure that creditors are repaid, all cash in the Debtor's account at JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. ("Chase") shall be transferred to an escrow account under the joint control of the Trustee and the Debtor's counsel prior to dismissal of the case. [Note 2] The Trustee and the Debtor's counsel shall meet and confer and make arrangements to establish an escrow account that is acceptable to both parties. The administrative freeze on the Chase account shall remain in effect pending the transfer of the Debtor's funds into escrow.

The proceeds of the contemplated refinancing transaction must also be deposited into the escrow account. Once (a) the funds in the Chase account and (b) the proceeds of the refinancing transaction have been transferred to escrow, the Trustee shall submit a declaration so stating.

The Court will prepare and enter an order (a) authorizing Capital Direct to fund the loan, (b) requiring that the loan proceeds be deposited directly into escrow, and (c) ordering Chase to transfer the funds in the Debtor's bank account into escrow. Upon receipt of a declaration from the Trustee establishing that the funds from both the refinancing transaction and the Debtor's Chase account have been deposited into escrow, the Court will prepare and enter an order dismissing the case, but retaining jurisdiction to (a) supervise the distribution of funds in the escrow account to creditors and to (b) determine the amount of administrative fees allowable to the Trustee and his professionals.

Note 1

The Court does not make any findings as to the exact amounts owing on any of the deeds of trust. This information is set forth for background purposes. The information is based upon Mr. Munoz's declaration because that is the source that the Debtor relied upon when preparing the instant motion seeking authorization to refinance the Properties.

Note 2

The Debtor asserts that of the $2,750,000 on deposit in the Chase account, approximately $2,465,000 belongs to the Debtor and approximately $300,000 belongs to the Debtor's principal, Miguel Arreola. The Debtor has not submitted sufficient evidence to support a finding that $300,000 of the funds in the Chase account are not property of the estate. Therefore, all funds on deposit in the Chase account shall be transferred to escrow.

RE: [19] Notice of motion and motion for relief from the automatic stay with supporting declarations REAL PROPERTY RE: 1115 East Sierra Madre Avenue, Glendora, CA 91741 . (Jafarnia, Merdaud)

fr: 9-4-18

Docket 19

Tentative Ruling:

9/27/2018

Tentative Ruling:

This Motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on the notice required by LBR 4001(c)(1) and LBR 9013-1(d)(2). The failure of the Debtor, the trustee, and all other parties in interest to file written opposition at least 14 days prior to the hearing as required by LBR 9013-1(f) is considered as consent to the granting of the Motion. LBR 9013-1(h). Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995).

The Court previously continued this hearing after finding inadequate service on JPMorgan Chase as holder of the second deed of trust on the property. On August 9, 2018, Movant filed a notice of continued hearing on motion for relief from the automatic stay [Doc. No. 23] and an amended proof of service [Doc. No. 24]. The Court finds service is now proper.

The Motion is GRANTED pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(2) to permit Movant, its successors, transferees and assigns, to enforce its remedies to foreclose upon and obtain possession of the property in accordance with applicable law. Movant may not pursue any deficiency claim against the Debtor or property of the estate except by filing a proof of claim pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 501. Since a chapter 7 case does not contemplate reorganization, the sole issue before the Court when stay relief is sought under 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(2) is whether the Debtor has equity in the

The subject property has a value of $800,000 and is encumbered by a perfected deed of trust or mortgage in favor of the Movant. The liens against the property and the expected costs of sale total $997,846.97. The Court finds there is no equity and there is no evidence that the trustee can administer the subject real property for the benefit of creditors.

This order shall be binding and effective despite any conversion of the bankruptcy case to a case under any other chapter of Title 11 of the United States Code. All other relief is denied.

#4.00 HearingRE: [8] Notice of motion and motion for relief from the automatic stay with supporting declarations REAL PROPERTY RE: 32 Aldgate Drive East, Manhasset, New York 11030 .

Docket 8

Tentative Ruling:

9/27/2018

Tentative Ruling:

This Motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on the notice required by LBR 4001(c)(1) and LBR 9013-1(d)(2). The failure of the Debtor, the trustee, and all other parties in interest to file written opposition at least 14 days prior to the hearing as required by LBR 9013-1(f) is considered as consent to the granting of the Motion. LBR 9013-1(h). Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995).

The Court finds that there is sufficient evidence to grant relief pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(4). The filing of the petition was part of a scheme to delay, hinder, and defraud creditors, which involved multiple bankruptcy cases affecting the Property. See Declaration of Shane Ellis in support of Motion at paragraph 18.

For the same reasons, the Motion is GRANTED pursuant to section 362(d)(1) based on Debtor's bad faith filing. The 14-day period specified in Fed.R.Bankr.P. 4001(a)(3) is waived. This order shall be binding and effective despite any conversion of the bankruptcy case to a case under any other chapter of Title 11 of the United States Code. If recorded in compliance with applicable State laws governing notices of interests or liens in real property, the order shall be binding in any other case under this title purporting to affect such real property filed not later than 2 years after the date of the entry of such order by the Court, except that a debtor in a subsequent case under this title may move for relief from such order based upon changed circumstances or for good cause shown, after notice and a hearing. Docket 10

Tentative Ruling:

9/27/2018

Tentative Ruling:

This Motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on the notice required by LBR 4001(c)(1) and LBR 9013-1(d)(2). The failure of the Debtor, the trustee, and all other parties in interest to file written opposition at least 14 days prior to the hearing as required by LBR 9013-1(f) is considered as consent to the granting of the Motion. LBR 9013-1(h). Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995).

The Motion is GRANTED pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(2) to permit Movant, its successors, transferees and assigns, to enforce its remedies to repossess or otherwise obtain possession and dispose of its collateral pursuant to applicable law, and to use the proceeds from its disposition to satisfy its claim. Movant may not pursue any deficiency claim against the Debtor or property of the estate except by filing a proof of claim pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 501. The Court finds that there is no equity in the subject vehicle and that the vehicle is not necessary for an effective reorganization since this is a chapter 7 case.

This order shall be binding and effective despite any conversion of the bankruptcy case to a case under any other chapter of Title 11 of the United States Code. The 14-day stay prescribed by FRBP 4001(a)(3) is waived. All other relief is denied.

Docket 129

Tentative Ruling:

10/1/2018

For the reasons set forth below, the Motion is GRANTED.

Pleadings Filed and Reviewed

1. Chapter 7 Trustee's Notice of Motion and Motion to Voluntarily Dismiss Second and Fourth Claims for Relief Without Prejudice [Doc. No. 129] (the "Motion to Dismiss")
2. As of the preparation of this tentative ruling, no opposition to the Motion is on file

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

On October 19, 2017, the Trustee commenced this action by filing a Complaint against Defendants Ronald Peterson ("Peterson"), Maitreya, LLC, a Nevada LLC ("Maitreya Nevada") and Maitreya, LLC, an Arizona LLC ("Maitreya Arizona," collectively with Peterson and Maitreya Nevada, the "Defendants"). On January 22, 2018, the Trustee filed an amended complaint [Adv. Doc. No. 21]. On February 26, 2018, Defendants filed their Answer [Adv. Doc. No. 42].

On June 14, 2018, the Court entered summary judgment in favor of the Trustee on his first, third and fifth claims for relief [Adv. Doc. Nos. 64, 65]. Defendants did not appeal the summary judgment, but have filed an appeal of a subsequent order denying their motion for reconsideration of the summary judgment [Adv. Doc. Nos. 96, 97, 110]. That appeal is presently pending.

Chapter 7

In the Trustee's motion for summary judgment, the Trustee requested dismissal of his second and fourth claims for relief after entry of a judgment in his favor on his first, third and fifth claims for relief. However, on June 6, 2018, the eve of the hearing on the Trustee's motion for summary judgment, Defendants filed a purported cross-complaint against the Trustee [Adv. Doc. No. 66]. In light of that filing, the Trustee requested that the second and fourth claims remain pending. The Court granted that request [Adv. Doc. No. 64].

On July 27, 2018, the Court entered an order dismissing the purported cross-complaint as to the Trustee, with prejudice [Adv. Doc. No. 113].

On September 6, 2018, the Trustee filed the instant motion to voluntarily dismiss his second and fourth claims for relief against the Defendants without prejudice pursuant to Civil Rule 41(a)(2) [Adv. Doc. No. 129] (the "Motion to Dismiss"). The Trustee states that dismissal is necessary to avoid further litigation costs and facilitate the Trustee's administration of the case. The Trustee further states that a Court order authorizing dismissal is necessary because Defendants have refused to stipulate to dismissal of the Trustee's remaining claims.

As of the preparation of this tentative ruling, no opposition is on file.

II. Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law

Absent a stipulation of dismissal signed by all parties who have appeared, Civil Rule 41(a)(2) provides that "an action may be dismissed at the plaintiff's request only by court order, on terms that the court considers proper." If a defendant has pleaded a counterclaim, "the action may be dismissed over the defendant's objection only if the counterclaim can remain pending for independent adjudication." Civil Rule 41(a)(2).

Defendants have not filed an objection to the Motion to Dismiss. Defendants have filed a counterclaim, but the Trustee is no longer a defendant to that purported cross-complaint and that action can remain pending against the remaining defendant. The operative Complaint does not contain a request for relief under § 727, so this Court need not apply Bankruptcy Rule 7041, which provides that a complaint asserting § 727 claims for relief may be dismissed "only on order of the court containing terms and conditions which the court deems proper." The Court also finds that continued prosecution of the Trustee's remaining claims for relief would be economically

#8.00 Hearing
RE: [40] Motion for Default Judgment with proof of service

Docket 40

 VACATED  REASON: PER ORDER ENTERED 10-2-18

Tentative Ruling:

10/1/2018

For the reasons set forth below, the Motion is GRANTED IN-PART AND DENIED IN-PART.

Pleadings Filed and Reviewed

1. Trustee's Motion for Default Judgment Under LBR 7055-1 [Adv. Doc. No. 40] ("Default Judgment Motion")
 - a. Memorandum of Points and Authorities in Support of Default Judgment [Adv. Doc. No. 41] (the "Memo")
 - b. Declaration of Linda Lee in Support of Motion for Default Judgment [Adv. Doc. No. 42] ("Lee Declaration" or "Lee Decl.")
2. As of the preparation of this tentative ruling, JWK has not filed an opposition.

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

JW Wireless, Inc. ("Debtor"), filed a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 7 on May 27, 2016 (the "Petition Date"). On July 22, 2016, the Court approved the Trustee's application to employ CBIZ Valuation Group, LLC to serve as the Trustee's financial advisors and consultants with respect to the Trustee's analysis and investigation of avoidable transfers.

On April 10, 2018, the Trustee commenced this action against by filing a complaint against JWK Management, Inc. ("JWK"), among others, for avoidance and recovery of certain pre-petition transfers. On April 18, 2018, the Trustee file a proof of service reflecting service of the Summons and Complaint on JWK [Adv. Doc. No. 8].

The deadline for JWK to file an answer or response to the Complaint expired on May 11, 2018. JWK did not timely file an answer and, as of the preparation of this tentative ruling, has not filed an answer. The Clerk of the Court entered JWK's default on August 7, 2018 [Adv. Doc. No. 32].

The Trustee now seeks entry of default judgment against JWK Management, Inc on the Trustee's:

Eleventh claim for relief for avoidance and recovery of intentional fraudulent transfer pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 502(d), 544, 548, 550, 551; Cal. Civ. Code §§ 3439.04, 3439.07, 3439.08 and 3439.09; and Twelfth claims for relief for avoidance and recovery of constructive fraudulent transfer pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 502(d), 544, 548, 550, 551; Cal. Civ. Code §§ 3439.04, 3439.05, 3439.07, 3439.08 and 3439.09.

As of the preparation of this tentative ruling, JWK has not filed an opposition.

II. Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law

Service of the Default Judgment Motion was Adequate

To determine whether the Default Judgment Motion was properly served on JWK, the Court relies upon the documents that JWK filed with the California Secretary of State.

Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 7004(b)(4)—made applicable to the instant Motion by Bankruptcy Rule 9014(b)—service upon a domestic corporation is effectuated “by mailing [the motion] to the attention of an officer, a managing or general agent, or to any other agent authorized by appointment or by law to receive service of process and, if the agent is one authorized by statute to receive service and the statute so requires, by also mailing a copy to the defendant.” Cal. Civ. Proc. Code §416.10 provides that service upon a corporation may be made by serving the person that the corporation has designated as its agent for service of process; there is no requirement that both the agent for service of process and some other agent of the corporation be served.

Where, as here, a corporation has been dissolved, service upon the corporation's agent for process is sufficient to provide the corporation actual notice of the litigation. See Pulte Homes Corp. v. Williams Mech., Inc., 2 Cal. App. 5th 267, 274, 206 Cal. Rptr. 3d 244, 250 (Cal. Ct. App. 2016) (“Here, however, Williams [the corporation] dissolved in 2012 and has been wound up; presumably it no longer has any directors, officers, agents or employees. At least under these circumstances, we believe that notice to the person designated by the corporation as its agent for service of process is actual notice. An agent for service of process has the necessary authority because the corporation has expressly held that person out to the world as authorized to receive notice of actions. Indeed, in the case before us, if actual notice to Morris [the agent for service of process] was not sufficient to make a default judgment stick, who else was there?”).

Here, the Trustee served the Default Judgment Motion upon Michael Lee, the agent for service of process of JWK. Therefore, the Court finds that service is adequate.

The Trustee is Entitled to Entry of Default Judgment Avoiding and Recovering $1,545,131.31 in Fraudulent Transfers Made to JWK

Once default has been entered, the well-pleaded factual allegations of the complaint are taken as true. Cripps v. Life Ins. Co. of North America, 980 F.2d 1261, 1267 (9th Cir.1992). Based upon the Complaint’s allegations, as well as the evidence submitted in support of the Default Judgment Motion [Note 1], the Court makes the following findings:

The Trustee Has Not Adequately Established Entitlement to Entry of Default Judgment on His § 548 Claim

Section 548(a)(1) provides: "The trustee may avoid any transfer ... of an interest of the debtor in property ... that was made or incurred on or within 2 years before the date of the filing of the petition, if the debtor voluntarily or involuntarily made such transfer" (emphasis added).

The Complaint alleges that JWK received transfers in the total amount of $1,659,477.48 within four years of the Petition Date. Complaint, ¶¶ 108, 109. The Complaint also attaches a general ledger identifying a series of payments the Debtor purported made to JWK within the relevant timeframe. Complaint, Exhibit 3.

Chapter 7

However, nothing in the Complaint, Default Judgment Motion, Memo, or Lee Declaration attempts to separate out which transfers fall within the 2-year reach back period to constitute avoidable transfers under § 548.

The Court recognizes that the general ledger identifies the dates of the alleged transfers. But the Court is not prepared to do the Trustee's work for him by independently identifying the transfers that fall within the applicable period and calculating the value of the total transfers made during that timeframe. In any event, for the reasons stated below, the Court finds entry of default judgment under § 548 unnecessary because the Trustee is entitled to entry of default judgment under §§ 544(b) and Cal. Civ. Code §§ 3439.04 and 3439.05, resulting in avoidance of the same transfers the Trustee seeks to avoid under § 548.

If the Trustee wishes to pursue his request for entry of Default Judgment under § 548, the Trustee may appear at the hearing to request an opportunity to file a supplemental brief that specifically identifies the relevant transfers, the sum of those transfers, and demonstrates the Trustee's entitlement to default judgment under § 548.

The Trustee is Entitled to Avoid $1,545,131.31 In Fraudulent Transfers Pursuant to § 544(b), Applying California Civil Code §§ 3439.04(a)(1), (2)(A) and (B) and 3439.05

Section 544(b)(1) permits the trustee to "avoid any transfer of an interest of the debtor in property ... that is voidable under applicable law by a creditor holding an unsecured claim that is allowable under section 502 of this title or that is not allowable only under section 502(e) of this title." The "applicable law" in this case is California's Uniform Voidable Transfers Act, codified at California Civil Code § 3439.01 et seq.

The relevant provisions of California Uniform Voidable Transfers Act (the "UVTA"), §3439.04(a)(1), (2)(A) and (B) provide in relevant part:

A transfer made or obligation incurred by a debtor is voidable as to a creditor ... if the debtor made the transfer or incurred the obligation as follows:

(1) with actual intent to hinder, delay, or defraud any creditor of the debtor.

(B) Intended to incur, or believed or reasonably should have believed that the debtor would incur, debts beyond the debtor's ability to pay as they became due.

Cal. Civ. Code §§ 3439.04(a)(1), (2)(A) and (B).

Section 3439.04(b) provides in relevant part:

In determining actual intent under paragraph (1) of subdivision (a), consideration may be given, among other factors, to any or all of the following:

...

(8) Whether the value of the consideration received by the debtor was reasonably equivalent to the value of the asset transferred or the amount of the obligation incurred.

(9) Whether the debtor was insolvent or became insolvent shortly after the transfer was made or the obligation was incurred

Cal. Civ. Code § 3439.04(b).

Section 3439.05(a) provides:

A transfer made or obligation incurred by a debtor is voidable as to a creditor whose claim arose before the transfer was made or the obligation was incurred if the debtor made the transfer or incurred the obligation without receiving a reasonably equivalent value in exchange for the transfer or obligation and the debtor was insolvent at that time or the debtor became insolvent as a result of the transfer or obligation.

Cal. Civ. Code § 3439.05.

Pursuant to §§ 3439.07 and 3439.09, the Trustee may avoid the transfer of a debtor's assets that is actually or constructively fraudulent and which is made within four years prior to the date the avoidance action is filed. "A trustee's action under § 544 is also subject to the time limitations set forth in § 546(a), which provides, in relevant part, that an action or proceeding under § 544 to avoid a transfer must be commenced within '2 years after the entry of the order for relief.'" Rund v. Bank of Am. Corp. (In re EPD Inv. Co., LLC), 523 B.R. 680 at *685 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 2015) (quoting 11 U.S.C. § 546(a)(1)(A)).

The Complaint was timely filed within 2 years of the May 27, 2016 Petition Date as required by § 546. The Trustee has presented evidence to show that the Debtor made transfers to JWK in the amount of $1,659,477.48 between May 21, 2012 and October 3, 2014. Based on the Court's own calculation, the four-year reach back period extends to May 27, 2012. Accordingly, the Trustee has not shown that he is entitled to default judgment avoiding the transfer made on May 21, 2012 in the amount of $114,346.17.

The Court finds that the Complaint contains sufficient allegations to plead a claim for relief under § 3439.04(a)(1) for actual fraudulent transfers. The Trustee alleges that the Debtor transferred $1,545,131.31 in funds within four years of the Petition Date and that such transfers were made: (i) "either in anticipation of bankruptcy and/or to prevent JW from paying its debts;" (ii) "for the purpose of preventing a prospective bankruptcy trustee and/or creditors of JW from obtaining the value of the transfers;" and "with the actual intent to hinder, delay or defraud creditors, including the Trustee." Complaint, ¶¶ 107-112.

The Court also finds that the Complaint contains sufficient allegations to plead claims for relief under §§ 3439.04(a)(2)(A) and (B) and § 3439.05 for constructively fraudulent transfers. The Trustee alleges that the Debtor transferred $1,545,131.31 in funds within four years of the Petition Date and that such transfers were made:

- (a) For less than reasonably equivalent value, or any value, in exchange for the transfers, and
- (b) While JW was engaged or about to engage in a business or transaction for which the remaining assets of JW were unreasonably small in relation to the business or transaction.
- (c) While JW intended to incur, or believed or reasonably should have believed that it would incur, debts beyond the debtor's ability to pay them as they became due; and/or

(d) At a time when JW was insolvent and/or was rendered insolvent by virtue of the constructive fraudulent transfers; and/or
(e) JW made the constructive fraudulent transfers to or for the benefit of BJ, an insider, or incurred such obligation to or for the benefit of an insider, and not in the ordinary course of business.

Complaint, ¶¶ 116-118.

For the reasons stated above, the Court finds that transfers totaling $1,545,131.31 are actual fraudulent transfers pursuant to § 544(b), applying California Civil Code § 3439.04(a)(1) and constructively fraudulent transfers pursuant to § 544(b), applying California Civil Code §§ 3439.04(a)(2)(A) and (B) and § 3439.05.

The Trustee is Entitled to Recover the Transfers from JWK Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 550(a)

Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 550(a), the Trustee is entitled to recover an avoided transfer from the transferee. Accordingly, the Trustee is entitled to a judgment against JWK in the amount of the transfers.

The Trustee is Entitled to Preserve the Transfers for the Benefit of the Estate Pursuant to § 551

Pursuant to § 551, "any transfer avoided under section ... 544 ... is preserved for the benefit of the estate but only with respect to property of the estate." Accordingly, the Trustee is entitled to a judgment against JWK preserving the avoided transfer for the benefit of the estate.

Any Claim JWK May File is Disallowed Pursuant to §502(d)

Section 502(d) requires the Court to disallow any claim of an entity that is a transferee of an avoidable transfer. Here, JWK has not filed a Proof of Claim. However, the Court will enter judgment providing that in the event the JWK does file a claim, such claim shall be disallowed pursuant to §502(d) until such time as JWK turns over the amounts due and owing under the default judgment.

For the reasons set forth above, the Motion is GRANTED IN-PART and DENIED IN-PART. The Trustee is entitled to judgment in his favor pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 544(b), 550(a), 551 and 502(d) and Cal. Civ. Code §§ 3439.04(a)(1), (2)(A) and (B), and 3439.05. The Trustee's request for entry of default judgment under § 548 is DENIED.

Although the Trustee's § 548 claims shall remain pending, pursuant to Civil Rule 54(b), the Court finds that there is no just reason to delay entry of judgment in favor of the Trustee with respect to his claims for relief under 11 U.S.C. §§ 544(b), 550(a), 551 and 502(d) and Cal. Civ. Code §§ 3439.04(a)(1), (2)(A) and (B), and 3439.05.

The Trustee should lodge a proposed order and judgment within seven days of the hearing.

No appearance is required if submitting on the court's tentative ruling. If you intend to submit on the tentative ruling, please contact Daniel Koontz or Jessica Vogel at 213-894-1522. If you intend to contest the tentative ruling and appear, please first contact opposing counsel to inform them of your intention to do so. Should an opposing party file a late opposition or appear at the hearing, the court will determine whether further hearing is required. If you wish to make a telephonic appearance, contact Court Call at 888-882-6878, no later than one hour before the hearing.

Note 1: The Default Judgment Motion, Memo and Lee Declaration are devoid of any meaningful analysis of the specific claims for relief upon which the Trustee seeks entry of default judgment. Nowhere in any of those pleadings does the Trustee identify the specific elements of each claim for relief or which corresponding allegations in the Complaint or supplemental evidence satisfy each of those elements. As a result, the Court has had to expend unnecessary judicial time and resources to perform that work for the Trustee. The Trustee is cautioned that filing deficient pleadings like the ones before the Court in the future may result in adverse consequences. In any event, the Estate should not be charged for such shoddy work.

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

On July 16, 2015, Fred Rosenberg ("Mr. Rosenberg") and Friendgift, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("Friendgift," and together with Mr. Rosenberg, the "Plaintiffs") filed a Second Amended Complaint in Los Angeles Superior Court ("LASC") against Robert Mark Carpenter ("Mr. Carpenter" or "Defendant") asserting the following causes of action: (1) Damages for Conversion; (2) Breach of Fiduciary Duty; and (3) Fraud by Deceit (Case No. BC563329) (the "State Court Action").

On October 31, 2016, the LASC entered an order granting Plaintiffs' Motion for Summary Judgment against the Defendant on all three causes of action (the "Order Granting MSJ"). See Plaintiffs' RFJN, Ex. 1. The entirety of the LASC's findings of fact and conclusions of law are set forth below:

Though defendant provides an opposition, he fails to provide an opposing separate statement. "When a moving party makes the required prima facie showing, failure to comply with [the separate statement] requirement may, in the court's discretion, constitute a sufficient ground for granting the motion." (Weil & Brown, Civ. Proc. Before Trial (The Rutter Group 2015 ¶ 10:189.) Moreover, defendant's declaration is signed under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States, and not under California law. (See Code Civ. Proc., § 2015.5.)

Plaintiff has alleged causes of action for conversion, breach of fiduciary duty, and concealment.

"Conversion is the wrongful exercise of dominion over the property of another. The elements of conversion are the plaintiff's ownership or right to possession of the property at the time of conversion; the defendant's conversion by a wrongful act or disposition of property rights; and damages. It is not necessary that there be a manual taking of the property; it is only necessary to show an assumption of control or ownership over the property, or that the alleged converter has applied the property to its own use." (Oakdale Village Group c. Fong (1996) 43 Cal.App.4th 539, 543-44.)

"The elements of a cause of action for breach of fiduciary duty are: (1) the existence of a fiduciary duty; (2) breach of fiduciary duty; and (3) damages proximately caused by the breach." (People ex rel. Harris v. Rizzo (2013) 214 Cal.App.4th 921, 950.) "A fiduciary relationship has been defined as 'any relation existing between parties to a transaction wherein one of the parties is ... duty bound to act with the utmost good faith for the benefit of the other party. Such a relation ordinarily arises where a confidence is reposed by one person in the integrity of another, and in such a relation the party in whom the confidence is reposed, if he voluntarily accepts or assumes to accept the confidence, can take no advantage from his acts relating to the interest of the other party without the latter's knowledge or consent.'" Id.

"[T]he elements of an action fraud an [sic] deceit based on concealment are: (1) the defendant must have concealed or suppressed a material fact, (2) the defendant must have been under a duty to disclose the fact to the plaintiff; (3) the defendant must have intentionally concealed or suppressed the fact with the intent to defraud the plaintiff; (4) the plaintiff must have been unaware of the fact and would not have acted as he did if he had known of the concealed or suppressed fact, and (5) as a result of the concealment or suppression of the fact, the plaintiff must have sustained damages." (Blickman Turkin, LP v. MF Downtown Sunnyvale LLC (2008) 162 Cal.App.4th 858, 868.)

Defendant was co-CEO and co-President of the Board of Directors of Friendgiftr from 2008 to 2012, and was CEO and President from 2009 to 2012. (PMF 204.) Defendant admits that he owed a fiduciary duty to Friendgiftr during the relevant times. (PMF 5.)

In 2012, John Fabiano, CPA, conducted an audit of Friendgiftr's bank accounts. (PMF 7.) Fabiano declares that his audit revealed what he believed to be a total of $209,825.24 improperly transferred from the Friendgiftr accounts by defendant. (See PMF 8.) The transfers included $9,500.00 to

Donald Uwanawich. (PMF 9.) The transfers also included over $3,000.00 to various charities. (PMF 10.) Defendant admits that he made transfers to Uwanawich or the charities. (PMF 12.) Plaintiffs present evidence that defendant made the transfers in his capacity as an officer of Friendgift and on its behalf. (PMF 13.) Plaintiffs present evidence that defendant did not receive approval from the Board for the transfers to Uwanawich or the charities, there are no invoices or expense reports for the transfers, and no tax benefits could be received for the transfers. (PMF 14.) Plaintiffs assert that the transfers have no discernable business purpose and Friendgift received nothing of value for the transfers. (PMF 15.) Plaintiffs assert that they were unaware of the transfers until the audit results in April 2012. (PMF 17.)

Defendant's conclusory declaration is not sufficient to raise a triable issue of fact. (See Carpenter Decl.) Defendant does not appear to provide any admissible evidence to support its assertion that the claims are time-barred.

Based upon the above, IT IS ORDERED that the issue of liability as it relates to the three causes of action alleged in the Second Amended Complaint are summarily adjudicated in favor of Plaintiffs and against Robert Carpenter. Specifically, the Court finds that:

1. Plaintiffs are entitled to summary adjudication in their favor as to the issue of defendant Robert Carpenter's liability under Plaintiffs' First Cause of Action for Conversion on the ground that there is no triable issue of fact as to the establishment of each essential element to support such a claim.

2. Plaintiffs are entitled to summary adjudication in their favor as to the issue of defendant Robert Carpenter's liability under Plaintiffs' Second Cause of Action for Breach of Fiduciary Duty on the ground that there is no triable issue of fact as to the establishment of each essential element to support such a claim.

3. Plaintiffs are entitled to summary adjudication in their favor as to the issue of defendant Robert Carpenter's liability under Plaintiffs' Third Cause of Action for Concealment on the ground that there is no triable issue of fact as to the establishment of each essential element to support such a claim.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Plaintiffs' RFJN, Ex. 1.

On November 17, 2016 and March 13, 2017, the LASC conducted a trial on the issue of damages. On May 15, 2017, the LASC entered a judgment for Plaintiffs in the amount of $262,722.42 (the "Judgment"). See Plaintiffs' RFJN, Ex. 2.

On July 19, 2017, Mr. Carpenter filed a voluntary chapter 7 petition (Case No. 2:17-bk-18805-ER).

On October 23, 2017, Plaintiffs filed this action, alleging that the indebtedness established by the Judgment is non-dischargeable pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 523(a)(4) (the "Complaint"). After conducting a Pretrial Conference on July 17, 2018, this Court entered an order vacating the trial date and directing Plaintiffs to file a motion for summary judgment [Adv. Doc. No. 29]. Based on Plaintiffs' contention that the Judgment was entitled to preclusive effect, this Court found that the matter could be most efficiently resolved by way of a motion for summary judgment. Id.

On August 16, 2018, Plaintiffs filed the instant motion for summary judgment arguing that Defendant is precluded from contesting his liability under § 523(a)(4). Plaintiffs contend that the LASC's findings and conclusions are entitled to preclusive effect and satisfy all elements necessary for a determination of non-dischargeability under 11 U.S.C. § 523(a)(4) for fraud or defalcation while acting in a fiduciary capacity.

On September 7, 2018, Defendant timely filed the following pleadings: (i) a Separate Statement of Uncontroverted Facts and Conclusions of Law in Opposition to Motion for Summary Judgment [Doc. No. 38] ("Defendant's Statement of Controverted Facts") [Note 1]; (ii) a Request for Judicial Notice [Doc. Defendant opposes summary judgment on several grounds. First, Defendant contends that the Order Granting MSJ was entered as a default and technicality because Plaintiffs did not provide any evidence to support their motion and "the judge in the case would not accept [his] paperwork because [he] was Defendant in Pro Se and did not know how to properly file an 'opposing separate statement.'" Carpenter Decl., paragraph 2. Second, Defendant argues that the Judgment was simply an extension of the MSJ default because the "judge would not allow [him] to enter ANY evidence." Id., paragraph 3. Third, Defendant argues that the LASC's decision not to award Plaintiffs punitive damages establishes that the Court did not find he committed fraud. Id. Fourth, Defendant contends that Plaintiffs' current Motion is deficient because (1) it does not respond to his pretrial statement in which Defendant outlines his affirmative defenses; (2) Plaintiffs have failed to conduct any discovery in this action; and (3) Plaintiffs have not presented any evidence in support of the MSJ. Id., paragraphs 4-6.

As of the preparation of this tentative ruling, Plaintiffs have not filed a reply.

II. Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law

Applicable law

Summary judgment is appropriate "if the movant shows that there is no genuine dispute as to any material facts and the movant is entitled to judgment as a matter of law." Civil Rule 56 (made applicable to these proceedings by Bankruptcy Rule 7056). The moving party has the burden of establishing the absence of a genuine issue of material fact and that it is entitled to judgment as a matter of law. Celotex Corp. v. Catrett, 477 U.S. 317, 323 (1986). "[S]ummary judgment will not lie if the dispute about a material fact is 'genuine,' that is, if the evidence is such that a reasonable jury could return a verdict for the nonmoving party." Anderson v. Liberty Lobby, Inc., 477 U.S. 242, 248 (1986). "A fact is 'material' only if it might affect the outcome of the case[.]" Fresno Motors, LLC v. Mercedes Benz USA, LLC, 771 F.3d 1119, 1125 (9th Cir. 2014). If the moving party shows the absence of a genuine issue of material fact, the nonmoving party must "go beyond the pleadings and by her own affidavits, or by the 'depositions, answers to interrogatories, and admissions on file,' designate 'specific facts showing that there is a genuine issue for trial.'" Celotex, 477 U.S. at 324 (quoting Fed. R. Civ. P. 56(e)). The court is "required to view all facts and draw all reasonable inferences in favor of the nonmoving party" when reviewing the Motion. Brosseau v. Haugen, 543 U.S. 194, 195 n.2 (2004).

To determine the preclusive effect of an existing state court judgment, the "bankruptcy court must apply the forum state's law of issue preclusion." Plyam v. Precision Development, LLC (In re Plyam), 530 B.R. 452, 462 (9th Cir. BAP 2015). California preclusion law requires that:

- 1) The issue sought to be precluded from relitigation is identical to that decided in a former proceeding;
- 2) The issue was actually litigated in the former proceeding;
- 3) The issue was necessarily decided in the former proceeding;
- 4) The decision in the former proceeding is final and on the merits; and
- 5) The party against whom preclusion is sought was the same as, or in privity with, the party to the former proceeding.

Lucido v. Super. Ct., 795 P.2d 1223, 1225 (Cal. 1990).

Even if all five elements are satisfied, preclusion is appropriate "only if application of preclusion furthers the public policies underlying the doctrine." Harmon v. Kobrin (In re Harmon), 250 F.3d 1240, 1245 (9th Cir. 2001) (citing Lucido v. Super. Ct., 795 P.2d at 1225). In California, the public policies supporting preclusion are "preservation of the integrity of the judicial system, promotion of judicial economy, and protection of litigants from harassment by vexatious litigation." Lucido, 795 P.2d at 1227.

This Court must first determine whether the Order Granting MSJ and Judgment establish that Defendant committed fraud or defalcation while acting in a fiduciary capacity within the meaning of § 523(a)(4).

Section 523(a)(4) excepts from discharge a debt "for fraud or defalcation while acting in a fiduciary capacity." 11 U.S.C. § 523(a)(4). To prevail on a nondischargeability claim under § 523(a)(4) the plaintiff must prove: "1) an express trust existed, 2) the debt was caused by fraud or defalcation, and 3) the debtor acted as a fiduciary to the creditor at the time the debt was created." Mele v. Mele (In re Mele), 501 B.R. 357, 363 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 2013) (quoting Otto v. Niles, 106 F.3d 1456, 1459 (9th Cir. 1997)). Plaintiff must show "not only the debtor's fraud or defalcation, but also that the debtor was acting in a fiduciary capacity when the debtor committed the fraud or defalcation." Honkanen v. Hopper (In re Honkanen), 446 B.R. 373, 378 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 2011) (citations omitted).

"The definition of 'fiduciary capacity' under § 523(a)(4) is a question of federal law." Cal-Micro, Inc. v. Cantrell (In re Cantrell), 329 F.3d 1119, 1124 (9th Cir. 2003). "The broad definition of fiduciary under nonbankruptcy law – a relationship involving trust, confidence, and good faith – is inapplicable in the dischargeability context. Id. at 1125. "The Ninth Circuit has adopted a narrow definition of 'fiduciary' as a relationship 'arising from an express trust or technical trust that was imposed before, and without reference to, the wrongdoing that caused the debt as opposed to a trust ex maleficio, constructively imposed because of the act of wrongdoing from which the debt arose.'" In re Honkanen, 446 B.R. at 378-79 (citations omitted).

"While the scope of the 'fiduciary capacity' is a question of federal law, the Ninth Circuit considers state law to ascertain whether the requisite trust relationship exists." Id. at 379 (citations omitted). "For a trust relationship under § 523(a)(4) to be established, the applicable state law must clearly define fiduciary duties and identify trust property." Id. (citation omitted). "The mere fact that state law puts two parties in a fiduciary-like relationship does not necessarily mean it is a fiduciary relationship within 11 U.S.C. § 523(a)(4)." Id. (citation omitted).

The Briefs Do Not Address a Necessary Element of Plaintiffs' § 523(a)(4) Claim

Based on the Court's review of the briefing submitted in support of and, in opposition to, the Motion for Summary Judgment, it appears neither party briefed the issue of whether an express or statutory trust existed as required by § 523(a)(4). Absent any analysis of that element, the Court cannot determine whether Plaintiffs have established that Defendant was acting in a fiduciary capacity within the narrow confines of § 523(a)(4).

The Court notes that the LASC found that "Defendant was co-CEO and co-President of the Board of Directors of Friendgift ... and admit[ted] that he owed a fiduciary duty to Friendgift during the relevant times." Plaintiffs' RFJN, Ex. 1. But the Ninth Circuit made clear in In re Cantrell that "under California law a corporate officer is not a fiduciary within the meaning of § 523(a)(4)." 329 F.3d at 1128. The Cantrell court explained, "although officers and directors [under California law] are imbued with the fiduciary duties of an agent and certain duties of a trustee, they are not trustees with respect to corporate assets." Id. at 1126; see also Saccheri v. St. Lawrence Valley Dairy (In re Saccheri), 2012 WL 5359512, at *11 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. Nov. 1, 2012), aff'd, 559 F. App'x 687 (9th Cir. 2015) (Rejecting argument that defendant was a trustee for purposes of § 523(a)(4) based on the fact that defendant was "entrusted with the bank accounts" and "had virtually 'unlimited sway over them'").

Therefore, the fact that Defendant was an officer and director of Friendgift and admitted to owing certain fiduciary duties, without more, is insufficient to show that he stood in a "fiduciary capacity" for purposes of § 523(a)(4).

Since neither side has briefed these issues, the Court finds it appropriate to continue the matter for further briefing as set forth below.

III. Conclusion

For the reasons stated above, the matter is CONTINUED to November 6, 2018 at 10:00 a.m. for further briefing on the issues of: (1) whether an express or statutory trust existed; and (2) whether Defendant was acting in a fiduciary capacity within the narrow meaning of § 523(a)(4).

The deadline for Plaintiffs to file a supplemental brief is October 16, 2018.

The deadline for Defendant to file a reply brief is October 23, 2018.

Note 1:

Despite Defendant's use of the caption "Separate Statement of Uncontroverted Facts and Conclusions of Law ...," it is clear Defendant intended the pleading to be a statement of controverted facts and conclusions of law. For example, Defendant interlineated Plaintiffs' asserted uncontroverted facts by typing either "Admit" or "Deny" next to each fact. Defendant also identified nine separate issues of fact for which he contends remain to be litigated, and which incorporate Defendant's affirmative defenses.

Note 2:

Exhibits 1 and 2 to Defendant's RFJN are the Order Granting MSJ and Judgment. Defendant does not request that this Court take judicial notice of these documents. Instead, Defendant hand-wrote various objections he has with the LASC's findings in the Order Granting MSJ. However, Defendant concedes that he has not appealed those findings and conclusions. See Carpenter Decl., paragraph 7. Since Defendant did not file an appeal within the time prescribed by Rule 8.104 of the California Rules of Court, the Judgment is now final. Furthermore, Defendant has not presented any persuasive arguments to show why the LASC's findings and conclusions should not be entitled to preclusive effect. Therefore, Defendant is estopped from challenging the LASC's findings and conclusions.

Exhibit 3 to Defendant's RFJN is the unilateral Pretrial Stipulation he filed in this action [Adv. Doc. No. 26]. It appears Defendant requests the Court take judicial notice of this document to show that Plaintiffs have failed to respond to his asserted affirmative defenses. For the same reason as stated above, the Court finds Defendant estopped from asserting affirmative defenses regarding his liability in the State Court Action in this action.

#14.00 HearingRE: [16] Motion for Turnover of Property (amended); Notice of Motion with proof of service (Sawdayi, Devin)

Docket 16

Tentative Ruling:

10/1/2018

For the reasons set forth below, the Motion is DENIED with prejudice.

Pleadings Filed and Reviewed

1. Notice of Motion for Turnover of Estate Property Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 542 and 522(h) [Doc. No. 16] ("Amended Turnover Motion")
2. As of the preparation of this tentative ruling, no opposition to the Amended Turnover Motion is on file

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

On April 25, 2018, Citibank, N.A. ("Citibank") obtained a judgment against Teri Breier (the "Debtor") in the amount of $21,170.73 (the "Judgment"). To enforce the Judgment, Citibank obtained a Writ of Execution. On June 21, 2018, the Santa Barbara County Sheriff's Office (the "Sheriff"), acting as the levying officer, levied upon the Debtor's deposit account at Chase Bank, N.A. ("Chase"). See Motion at Ex. A (Notice of Levy Under Writ of Execution). At the time of the levy, the Debtor's deposit account contained approximately $19,000 (the "Funds"). Decl. of Debtor at ¶ 3.

Debtor commenced a voluntary Chapter 7 petition on June 27, 2018 (the "Petition Date"). Debtor claimed an exemption in all $19,000 of the Funds in the Chase deposit account. No party in interest timely objected to Debtor's claimed exemptions, so Debtor's entitlement to those exemptions is now final.

On June 28, 2018, Debtor filed a Motion for Turnover of Property [Doc. No. 5] (the "Turnover Motion"). Pursuant to the Turnover Motion, the Debtor moved for an order requiring Chase to turn over the Funds, pursuant to §542, on the ground that the Funds are property of the estate, and that the Debtor is entitled to the Funds as a result of her claim of exemption. The premise of the Turnover Motion was that Chase has not transferred the Funds to the Sheriff pursuant to the levy, and that the Funds remain under Chase's control. See Doc. No. 5. However, no specific evidence in support of that premise was submitted.

On July 26, 2018, the Court conducted a hearing on the Turnover Motion. Prior to the hearing, the Court issued a tentative ruling (the "Tentative Ruling"). See Doc. No. 13, Exhibit A. The Tentative Ruling stated the Court's intent to deny the Motion, without prejudice, based on various defects.

Devin Sawdayi ("Counsel") appeared at the hearing on behalf of the Debtor. Counsel requested that in lieu of a denial of the Motion, the Court set a continued hearing to provide Counsel an opportunity to file an amended motion correcting the defects identified by the Court. There were no other appearances at the hearing. Accordingly, the Court issued its Order Setting Continued Hearing on Debtor's Motion to Obtain Possession of Funds [Doc. No. 13] continuing the hearing to September 4, 2018 and directing Debtor to file an amended motion by August 14, 2018.

On August 31, 2018, the Court issued an Order Deeming Turnover Motion to Be Withdrawn and Vacating Hearing on Turnover Motion [Doc. No. 18], based on Debtor's failure to file an amended motion by the August 14, 2018 deadline.

On August 30, 2018, Debtor filed the instant amended Motion for Turnover of Estate Property Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 542 and 522(h) [Doc. No. 16] (the "Amended Turnover Motion"). Debtor contends that because a Chapter 7 Trustee is empowered to seek turnover of exempt funds under § 542, § 522(h) empowers the Debtor to stand in the Trustee's shoes and pursue turnover of the Funds.

As of the preparation of this tentative ruling, no opposition to the Amended Turnover Motion is on file.

Chapter 7

The Amended Turnover Motion still has several defects that require the Court to deny the motion.

First, § 522(h) does not permit the Debtor is to seek relief under § 542. Section 522(h) provides:

The debtor may avoid a transfer of property of the debtor or recover a setoff to the extent that the debtor could have exempted such property under subsection (g)(1) of this section if the trustee had avoided such transfer, if –

(1) such transfer is avoidable by the trustee under section 544, 545, 547, 548, 549, or 724(a) of this title or recoverable by the trustee under section 553 of this title; and

(2) the trustee does not attempt to avoid such transfer.

11 U.S.C. § 522(h).

Section 522(h) identifies several code sections under which a debtor may seek relief, and § 542 is not listed. Debtor has not presented, nor has this Court been able to locate, any authority to find that Congress intended § 522(h) to extend to § 542. Accordingly, the Debtor has not demonstrated that she has standing to seek turnover of the Funds under § 542.

Second, the Debtor has not identified any section that is identified in § 522(h) under which the Debtor could avoid Chase's purported lien.

Third, in exercising the trustee's avoidance powers, the Debtor must file an adversary proceeding. Fed. R. Bankr. P. 7001(2) (requiring an adversary proceeding for "a proceeding to determine the validity, priority, or extent of a lien or other interest in property . . ."); see also In re Wilkinson, 196 B.R. 311, 315 (Bankr. E.D. Va. 1996) ("a debtor's action under § 522(h) . . . must be brought as an adversary proceeding"); In re Shorts, 63 B.R. 2, 3-4 (Bankr. D.D.C. 1985) (same). Accordingly, the Court finds the Amended Turnover Motion is procedurally improper.

Finally, this Court's prior Tentative Ruling on the original Turnover Motion stated: "if the Debtor brings a renewed motion, such motion must be served upon . . . (2) Hunt & Henriques" Doc. No. 13, Exhibit A. Debtor's proof of service does not reflect service on Hunt & Henriques. Therefore, the Court finds that service remains inadequate based on this Court's prior directive.

III. Conclusion

Based upon the foregoing, the Amended Turnover Motion is DENIED. Additionally, given the numerous deficiencies discussed above and the fact that the Debtor has now had two opportunities to seek turnover of the Funds, such denial is with prejudice.

The Court will prepare and enter an appropriate order.

No appearance is required if submitting on the court's tentative ruling. Docket 489

Tentative Ruling:

10/1/2018

Tentative Ruling:

For the reasons set forth below, any claim asserted against Crystal's estate by Sequoia is DISALLOWED. Crystal shall submit a conforming order, incorporating this tentative ruling by reference, within seven days of the hearing.

Pleadings Filed and Reviewed:

- 1) Motion for Order Disallowing the Claim of Sequoia Hospitality F&B Corporation [Doc. No. 489] (the "Claim Objection")
 - a) Original Signature Page [Doc. No. 492]
- 2) No Opposition is on file

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

Crystal Waterfalls, LLC ("Crystal") filed a voluntary Chapter 11 petition on November 19, 2015. On June 8, 2018, the Court entered an Order Approving Motion for Structured Dismissal of Chapter 11 Case [Doc. No. 478] (the "Approval Order"). The Approval Order provides that "[n]either the Debtor nor the Disbursing Agent shall make any payments to or for the benefit of Lucy Gao, Benny Kirk, Shelby Ho or persons or entities affiliated with them or any insiders of the Debtor or equity holders ... either before or after the entry of this Order." Approval Order at ¶F.1.

Crystal's original Schedule F states that Sequoia Hospitality F&B Corporation ("Sequoia") holds an "unliquidated" claim for "business debt" in the amount of $850,000. Doc. No. 41. Crystal's Amended Schedule F states that Sequoia holds an "unliquidated" claim for "business debt" in the amount of $18,500. Doc. No. 85.

On October 21, 2016, Sequoia received notice that the Court had set November 7, 2016, as the claims bar date. Doc. No. 235. Sequoia has not filed a Proof of Claim.

Pursuant to a Statement of Information filed with the California Secretary of State on April 13, 2015, Lucy Gao is the chief executive officer, secretary, and chief financial officer of Sequoia.

Crystal moves for an order disallowing any claim against the estate asserted by Sequoia. Crystal argues that any such claim should be disallowed because (1) Sequoia failed to file a Proof of Claim, which it was required to do because its claim was scheduled as unliquidated, and (2) Sequoia is not entitled to receive any distribution from the estate pursuant to the Approval Order, because it is an entity affiliated with Lucy Gao.

II. Findings and Conclusions

Under Bankruptcy Rule 3001(f), a proof of claim executed and filed in accordance with the Bankruptcy Rules constitutes prima facie evidence of the validity and amount of the claim. To overcome the presumption of validity created by a timely-filed proof of claim, an objecting party must do one of the following: (1) object based on legal grounds and provide a memorandum of points and authorities setting forth the legal basis for the objection; or (2) object based on a factual ground and provide sufficient evidence (usually in the form of declarations under penalty of perjury) to create triable issues of fact. Durkin v. Bendor Corp. (In re G.I. Indus., Inc.), 204 F.3d 1276, 1280 (9th Cir. BAP 2000); United States v. Offord Finance, Inc. (In re Medina), 205 B.R. 216, 222 (9th Cir. BAP 1996); Hemingway Transport, Inc. v. Kahn (In re Hemingway Transport, Inc.), 993 F.2d 915, 925 (1st Cir. 1993). Upon objection, a proof of claim provides "some evidence as to its validity and amount" and is "strong enough to carry over a mere formal objection without more." See Lundell v. Anchor Constr. Spec., Inc., 223 F.3d 1035, 1039 (9th Cir. 2000) (citing Wright v. Holm (In re Holm), 931 F.2d 620, 623 (9th Cir. 1991)). An objecting party bears the burden and must "show facts tending to defeat the claim by probative force equal to that of the allegations of the proofs of claim themselves." Holm, 931 F.2d at 623. When the objector has shown enough evidence to negate one or more facts in the proof of claim, the burden shifts back to the claimant to prove the validity of the claim by a preponderance of evidence. See Lundell, 223 F.3d at 1039 (citation omitted).

Section 502 requires the Court to disallow a claim that "is unenforceable against the debtor and the property of the debtor, under any agreement or applicable law for a reason other than because such claim is contingent or unmatured."

Here, any claim asserted by Sequoia against Crystal's estate is unenforceable and therefore must be disallowed. First, Sequoia failed to file a Proof of Claim. Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 3003(b)(1), Sequoia was required to file a Proof of Claim in order to receive a distribution from Crystal's estate, because Crystal's schedules listed Sequoia's claim as "unliquidated." Second, the Approval Order provides that entities affiliated with Lucy Gao shall not be entitled to receive any distribution from the estate. According to the Statement of Information filed with the California Secretary of State on April 13, 2015, Lucy Gao is the chief executive officer, secretary, and chief financial officer of Sequoia. Because Sequoia is an entity affiliated with Lucy Gao, it is not entitled to receive any distribution from the estate pursuant to the Approval Order.

Based upon the foregoing, any claim asserted against Crystal's estate by Sequoia is DISALLOWED. Crystal shall submit a conforming order, incorporating this tentative ruling by reference, within seven days of the hearing.

No appearance is required if submitting on the court's tentative ruling. Under Bankruptcy Rule 3001(f), a proof of claim executed and filed in accordance with the Bankruptcy Rules constitutes prima facie evidence of the validity and amount of the claim. To overcome the presumption of validity created by a timely-filed proof of claim, an objecting party must do one of the following: (1) object based on legal grounds and provide a memorandum of points and authorities setting forth the legal basis for the objection; or (2) object based on a factual ground and provide sufficient evidence (usually in the form of declarations under penalty of perjury) to create triable issues of fact. Durkin v. Bendor Corp. (In re G.I. Indus., Inc.), 204 F.3d 1276, 1280 (9th Cir. BAP 2000); United States v. Offord Finance, Inc. (In re Medina), 205 B.R. 216, 222 (9th Cir. BAP 1996); Hemingway Transport, Inc. v. Kahn (In re Hemingway Transport, Inc.), 993 F.2d 915, 925 (1st Cir. 1993). Upon objection, a proof of claim provides "some evidence as to its validity and amount" and is "strong enough to carry over a mere formal objection without more." See Lundell v. Anchor Constr. Spec., Inc., 223 F.3d 1035, 1039 (9th Cir. 2000) (citing Wright v. Holm (In re Holm), 931 F.2d 620, 623 (9th Cir. 1991)). An objecting party bears the burden and must "show facts tending to defeat the claim by probative force equal to that of the allegations of the proofs of claim themselves." Holm, 931 F.2d at 623. When the objector has shown enough evidence to negate one or more facts in the proof of claim, the burden shifts back to the claimant to prove the validity of the claim by a preponderance of evidence. See Lundell, 223 F.3d at 1039 (citation omitted).

reason other than because such claim is contingent or unmatured."

Here, any claim asserted by Ace against Crystal's estate is unenforceable and therefore must be disallowed. First, Ace failed to file a Proof of Claim. Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 3003(b)(1), Ace was required to file a Proof of Claim in order to receive a distribution from Crystal's estate, because Crystal's schedules listed Ace's claim as "unliquidated." Second, the Approval Order provides that entities affiliated with Lucy Gao and Benjamin Kirk shall not be entitled to receive any distribution from the estate. According to Ms. Gao's declaration, Mr. Kirk and Ms. Gao were principals of Ace, and created Ace "to manage our properties prior to transitioning to a third party management company." Gao Decl. at ¶2. Because Ace is an entity affiliated with Ms. Gao and Mr. Kirk, it is not entitled to receive any distribution from the estate pursuant to the Approval Order.

Based upon the foregoing, any claim asserted against Crystal's estate by Ace is DISALLOWED. Crystal shall submit a conforming order, incorporating this tentative ruling by reference, within seven days of the hearing.

No appearance is required if submitting on the court's tentative ruling. If you intend to submit on the tentative ruling, please contact Daniel Koontz at 213-894-0295. If you intend to contest the tentative ruling and appear, please first contact opposing counsel to inform them of your intention to do so. Should an opposing party file a late opposition or appear at the hearing, the court will determine whether further hearing is required. Ehrenberg in Support Thereof (Lev, Daniel)

Docket 951

Tentative Ruling:

10/1/2018

For the reasons set forth below, the Chapter 7 Trustee's Claim Objection is GRANTED in its entirety, and the Proofs of Claim at issue are DISALLOWED.

Pleadings Filed and Reviewed:

- 1) Notice of Motion and Chapter 7 Trustee's Motion Objecting to Claims of First Interstate Bank (Claims No. 5 and 13) and Coast Federal Bank (Claim No. 11) [Doc. No. 951] (the "Claim Objection")
 - a) Notice of Errata Re Chapter 7 Trustee's Motion Objecting to Claims of First Interstate Bank (Claims No. 5 and 13) and Coast Federal Bank (Claim No. 11) [Doc. No. 953]
- 2) No Opposition is on file

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

The Chapter 7 Trustee (the "Trustee") objects to two Proofs of Claim asserted by First Interstate Bank ("First Interstate"), [Note 1] and one Proof of Claim asserted by J.P. Morgan Chase Bank, N.A., as successor in interest to Coast Federal Bank ("Chase"). No opposition to the Claim Objection is on file.

On March 22, 2018, the Court entered an order substantively consolidating the estates of Harry Roussos and Theodosios Roussos. Doc. No. 947. The claims at issue were filed before these cases were reopened in 2015.

Chapter 7

On July 19, 1999, R. Todd Neilson, who served as the Trustee before the cases were reopened (the "Predecessor Trustee"), filed motions to disallow two Proofs of Claim asserted by First Interstate in Theodosios' case. The Predecessor Trustee subsequently obtained orders disallowing both First Interstate claims in Theodosios' case. However, apparently as a result of inadvertence, the Predecessor Trustee did not obtain orders disallowing the identical claims in Harry's case.

The Trustee moves to disallow the two Proofs of Claim asserted by First Interstate against Harry's estate, on the grounds that the claims are duplicates of the claims disallowed in Theodosios' case.

B. Proof of Claim Asserted by Chase

During the administration of these cases, the Trustee used a portion of the net sales proceeds derived from the sale of the San Vicente Property to pay off the secured claim of J.P. Morgan Chase Bank, N.A., as successor in interest to Coast Federal Bank ("Chase").

The Trustee moves to disallow the claim asserted by Chase on the ground that it has been paid in full.

II. Findings and Conclusions

Under Bankruptcy Rule 3001(f), a proof of claim executed and filed in accordance with the Bankruptcy Rules constitutes prima facie evidence of the validity and amount of the claim. To overcome the presumption of validity created by a timely-filed proof of claim, an objecting party must do one of the following: (1) object based on legal grounds and provide a memorandum of points and authorities setting forth the legal basis for the objection; or (2) object based on a factual ground and provide sufficient evidence (usually in the form of declarations under penalty of perjury) to create triable issues of fact. Durkin v. Bendor Corp. (In re G.I. Indus., Inc.), 204 F.3d 1276, 1280 (9th Cir. BAP 2000); United States v. Offord Finance, Inc. (In re Medina), 205 B.R. 216, 222 (9th Cir. BAP 1996); Hemingway Transport, Inc. v. Kahn (In re Hemingway Transport, Inc.), 993 F.2d 915, 925 (1st Cir. 1993). Upon objection, a proof of claim provides "some evidence as to its validity and amount" and is "strong enough to carry over a mere formal objection without more." See Lundell v. Anchor Constr. Spec., Inc., 223 F.3d 1035, 1039 (9th Cir. 2000) (citing Wright v. Holm (In re Holm), 931 F.2d 620, 623 (9th Cir. 1991)). An objecting party bears the burden and must "show facts tending to defeat the claim by probative force equal to that of the allegations of the proofs of claim themselves." Holm, 931 F.2d at 623. enough evidence to negate one or more facts in the proof of claim, the burden shifts back to the claimant to prove the validity of the claim by a preponderance of evidence. See Lundell, 223 F.3d at 1039 (citation omitted).

Section 502 requires the Court to disallow a claim that "is unenforceable against the debtor and the property of the debtor, under any agreement or applicable law for a reason other than because such claim is contingent or unmatured."

Here, the Proofs of Claim asserted by First Interstate against Harry's estate are identical to Proofs of Claim that it asserted against Theodosios' estate and that were disallowed. The Trustee's objection to the duplicate Proofs of Claim that First Interstate asserts against Harry's estate is SUSTAINED.

The Court finds that the claim asserted by Chase is not allowable because the Trustee has already paid in full the indebtedness at issue.

Based upon the foregoing, the Claim Objection is GRANTED in its entirety, and the Proofs of Claim at issue are DISALLOWED. The Trustee shall submit a conforming order, incorporating this tentative ruling by reference, within seven days of the hearing.

No appearance is required if submitting on the court's tentative ruling. If you intend to submit on the tentative ruling, please contact Jessica Vogel or Daniel Koontz at 213-894-1522. If you intend to contest the tentative ruling and appear, please first contact opposing counsel to inform them of your intention to do so. Should an opposing party file a late opposition or appear at the hearing, the court will determine whether further hearing is required. Docket 74

Tentative Ruling:

10/2/2018

Tentative Ruling:

This hearing is VACATED and no appearances are required. On September 17, 2018, the Plan Administrator under the Confirmed First Amended Chapter 11 Plan of Liquidation for Liberty Asset Management Corporation (the "Plan Administrator") filed a Notice of Compromise of Claims in Adversary Proceeding [Doc. No. 774, Case No. 2:16-bk-13575-ER] (the "Notice of Compromise"). Pursuant to the terms of the Plan of Liquidation, parties have fourteen days to object to the Notice of Compromise. Under the Plan, the Plan Administrator may compromise this litigation without further order of the Court if no objections to the Notice of Compromise are timely filed.

In the event the Plan Administrator is unable to proceed with the proposed compromise of this litigation as a result of an objection, the Court will reschedule the hearing on this Motion for Summary Judgment. Otherwise, this litigation will be resolved pursuant to the compromise negotiated by the Plan Administrator. All future litigation deadlines in this action are VACATED.

The Court will prepare and enter an appropriate order.

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

On August 31, 2018 (the "Petition Date"), Verity Health Systems of California ("VHS") and certain of its subsidiaries (collectively, the "Debtors") filed voluntary petitions for relief under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. On August 31, 2018, the Court entered an order granting the Debtors' motion for joint administration of the Debtors' Chapter 11 cases. Doc. No. 17.

On September 6, 2018, the Court authorized the Debtors to borrow $30 million from Ally Financial, Inc. (the "DIP Lender") on an interim basis. See Doc. No. 86 (the "Interim Financing Order"). The Debtor now seeks authorization to borrow up to an additional $155 million from the DIP Lender on a final basis.

A. General Background Information

Debtor VHS, a California nonprofit public benefit corporation, is the sole corporate member of the following five Debtor nonprofit public benefit corporations that operate acute care hospitals: O'Connor Hospital, Saint Louise Regional Hospital, St. Francis Medical Center, St. Vincent Medical Center, Seton Medical Center, and Seton Medical Center Coastsides (collectively, the "Hospitals"). Adcock Decl. [Doc. No. 8] at ¶11. VHS, the Hospitals, and their affiliated entities (collectively, the "Verity Health System") operate a nonprofit health care system in the State of California, with approximately 1,680 inpatient beds, six active emergency rooms, a trauma center, and various medical specialties. Id. at ¶12. In 2017, the Hospitals provided medical services to over 50,000 inpatients and approximately 480,000 outpatients. Id.

Debtor Verity Medical Foundation (“VMF”), incorporated in 2011, is a medical foundation that contracts with physicians and other healthcare professionals to provide patient care throughout California. Id. at ¶14. VMF offers medical, surgical, and related healthcare services at community-based, multi-specialty clinics located in areas served by the Debtor Hospitals. Id.

Verity Holdings LLC (“Holdings”), a direct subsidiary of its sole member VHS, was created in 2016 to hold and finance Verity’s interests in six medical office buildings whose tenants are primarily physicians, medical groups, healthcare providers, and certain of the Hospitals. Id. at ¶15. Holdings’ real estate portfolio includes over 30 properties. Id.

Debtors Saint Louise Regional Hospital Foundation, St. Francis Medical Center Foundation, St. Vincent Medical Center Foundation, Seton Medical Center Foundation, and O’Connor Medical Center Foundation handle fundraising and grant-making programs for each of their respective Debtor Hospitals. Id. at ¶16.

As of August 30, 2018, the Debtors’ facilities had approximately 850 patients, and are currently at approximately 50% occupancy. Id. at ¶17. As of August 31, 2018, the Debtors have approximately 7,385 employees, of whom 4,733 are full-time employees. Id. at ¶18. Approximately 74% of these employees are represented by collective bargaining units. Id.

VHS operates Debtor Verity Business Services (“VBS”), a nonprofit public benefit corporation. Id. at ¶30. VBS provides support services to the Verity Health System, including accounting, finance, patient financial services, supply chain management, and purchasing services. Id.

O’Connor Hospital operates a 358 bed, general acute care hospital that serves residents from the greater San Jose area, and contains an emergency department with 23 emergency treatment stations. Id. at ¶32. St. Vincent Medical Center operates a 366 bed, regional acute care facility located in Los Angeles, CA. Id. at ¶34. St. Vincent Medical Center is the sole corporate member of the St. Vincent Dialysis Center, located on the Hospital’s campus. Id. at ¶36. St. Vincent Dialysis Center provides dialysis services for kidney disease patients. Id.

St. Francis Medical Center operates a 384 bed, general acute care hospital located in Lynwood, California. Id. at ¶37. Seton Medical Center operates a 357 bed hospital located in Daly City, California. Id. at ¶39. Seton Coastside is located in the City of Half Moon Bay, California, and contains 116 skilled nursing beds and five general, acute-care beds. Id. at ¶40. Saint Louise Hospital is located in Gilroy, California and operates a 93 bed, general acute care hospital. Id. at ¶42.

DePaul Ventures, LLC is a wholly-owned and operated holding company of the Debtors that was formed in August 2010 for the purpose of investing in a freestanding surgery center and other healthcare entities. Id. at ¶45. In April 2013, DePaul Ventures, LLC formed DePaul Ventures—San Jose Dialysis, LLC ("Dialysis"), a general and limited partner of Priday Dialysis, LLC ("Priday"). Priday—which is not a Debtor—is a healthcare center specializing in end-stage renal disease treatment. Id. at ¶46.

B. The Debtors' Capital Structure

VHS, VBS, and VHS' five acute care hospital subsidiaries (O'Connor Hospital, Saint Louise Regional Hospital, St. Francis Medical Center, St. Vincent Medical Center, Seton Medical Center, and Seton Medical Center Coastside) are jointly obligated parties on approximately $461.4 million in outstanding secured debt consisting of (a) $259.4 million in outstanding principal amount of tax exempt revenue bonds, Series 2005 A, G and H issued by the California Statewide Communities Development Authority (the "2005 Bonds") and (b) $202 million in outstanding principal amount of tax exempt revenue notes, Series 2015 A, B, C, and D and Series 2017 issued by the California Public Financing Authority (the "Working Capital Notes").

For the 2005 Bonds, Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. ("Wells Fargo") is the Bond Trustee and UMB Bank, N.A. ("UMB") is the successor Master Trustee. The 2005 Bonds were issued to provide funds for capital improvements and to refinancing certain tax exempt bonds that had been issued in 2001. For the Working Capital Notes, U.S. Bank, N.A. ("U.S. Bank") is the Note Trustee and Collateral Agent. (The Working Capital Notes, together with the 2005 Bonds, are collectively referred to as the "MTI Obligations" ("MTI" is an abbreviation for "Master Trustee Indenture").)

Holdings, a direct subsidiary of its sole member VHS, was created in 2016 to hold and finance VHS' interests in six medical office buildings whose tenants are primarily physicians and medical groups affiliated with certain of the Hospitals operated by the Debtors. Holdings' real estate portfolio consists of over 30 properties, including, but not limited to, apartment buildings, parking lots, and condominiums. Holdings is the borrower on approximately $66 million on two series of non-recourse financing secured by separate deeds of trust and revenue and accounts pledges, including lease rents on medical buildings (the "MOB Financing"). The secured lenders for the MOB Financing are affiliates of NantWorks, LLC, which is an affiliate of the Debtors' prepetition manager, Integrity Healthcare, LLC ("Integrity"). (Integrity has not sought bankruptcy protection.)

Debtor Seton Medical Center is liable for repayment of $20 million of limited obligation tax exempt bonds issued in September 2017 by the California Statewide Communities Development Authority (the "Clean Fund Bonds"). The Clean Fund Bonds were issued to assist with clean energy-related capital improvements to Seton Medical Center. No other Debtor is liable for repayment of the Clean Fund Bonds. Wilmington Trust National Association ("WTNA") is the Trustee holding the construction funds raised in connection with the Clean Fund Bonds.

Debtor Seton Medical Center is also liable for repayment of $20 million in California 30-year tax exempt bonds, issued in September 2017 for the purpose of seismic improvements at Seton Medical Center (the "NR2 Petros Bonds"). No other Debtor is liable for repayment of the NR2 Petros Bonds. WTNA is the Trustee holding the construction funds raised in connection with the NR2 Petros Bonds.

NantCapital, LLC has provided $40 million in unsecured debt financing for VHS, as reflected in two $20 million unsecured notes dated March 7, 2018 and March 29, 2018 (the "Unsecured Notes").

All of the Debtors' income is subject to prepetition perfected pledges. The gross revenue of the Hospitals is pledged in favor of the 2005 Bonds. The prepetition accounts receivable and government receivables of the Hospitals are pledged in favor of the Working Capital Notes. As of August 31, 2018 (the "Petition Date"), the Debtors had less than $40 million of cash on hand that is not subject to control accounts in favor of either the 2005 Bonds, the Working Capital Notes, or the MOB Financing (excluding cash held by WTNA on account of the Clean Fund Bonds and/or the NR2 Petros Bonds).

C. Summary of Papers Filed in Connection with the Final Hearing on the Financing Motion

The Debtors seek entry of a final order authorizing them to borrow an additional $155 million from the DIP Lender (such order, the "Final Financing Order"). Numerous parties object to the terms of the financing package. Those objections, as well as the Debtors' responses thereto, are summarized briefly below.

The Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (the "Committee") contends that the terms of the financing package are unduly favorable to secured creditors and that unsecured creditors have been unfairly prejudiced. The Debtors maintain that the terms of the financing package are the best that could be negotiated under the circumstances and that the provisions to which the Committee objects were necessary to induce the DIP Lender to provide the financing.

The Attorney General asserts that the Debtor has failed to show that it has properly segregated charitable trust funds in its possession. The Debtors contend that they are in compliance with applicable law regarding the charitable trust assets, and that the Attorney General has failed to point to specific facts showing otherwise.

Various unions representing the Debtors' employees object to the proposed budget (the "Budget") on the grounds that the Budget does not provide for the full payments required under various collective bargaining agreements ("CBAs"). The Debtors assert that under applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, they are not required at this time to make certain of the payments required under the CBAs.

Swinerton Builders ("Swinerton") asserts that it holds an inchoate mechanic's lien against the Seton Medical Center, and objects to the priming of its asserted lien. The Debtors do not concede the validity of the asserted lien, and argue that even if Swinerton does hold a mechanic's lien, it may be primed pursuant to §364(d).

Creditors holding subordinated debt (the "2005 Bond Parties") object to the priming of their liens. The Debtors contend that the holder of the senior secured debt is authorized to consent to the priming of the liens held by the 2005 Bond Parties pursuant to an intercreditor agreement. The Debtors contend that even if the senior secured creditor is not so authorized, the liens of the 2005 Bond Parties may be primed pursuant to §364(d).

II. Findings and Conclusions

Based upon its review of the declarations of James Moloney and Anita Chou, the Court finds that the Debtor has submitted competent evidence establishing the need for the proposed financing from the DIP Lender. Specifically, as of the Petition Date, the book value of the Debtors' assets was approximately $857 million. Moloney Decl. [Doc. No. 309] at ¶8. After proper marketing, the aggregate realizable value of those same assets is in the range of $725 million to $800 million. Id. As of the Petition Date, aggregate secured claims against the Debtors totaled approximately $565 million. Id. at ¶9. The realizable value of the Debtors' assets, in excess of prepetition secured liabilities, is between $150–$225 million. Id.

During the first thirteen weeks of the case, the Debtors are projected to collect approximately $239 million in patient revenue, but spend approximately $405 million to maintain operations. Chou Decl. [Doc. No. 309], Ex. 1. The total cash shortfall during the first thirteen weeks is approximately $109 million. Id.

These figures establish that the Debtors are in dire need of post-petition financing.

Chapter 11

If the Debtors continue operations, they have a realistic opportunity to sell their assets for a price that will yield between $150–$225 million in excess of existing secured debt. A sale at that price would result in a meaningful recovery for unsecured creditors. However, simply to maintain operations over the first thirteen weeks of the case, the Debtors must plug a funding shortfall in excess of $100 million.

Against this backdrop, the Court finds it appropriate to approve the financing package that the Debtors have negotiated with the DIP Lender. In this respect, the Court notes that secured creditors holding a significant portion of the outstanding secured indebtedness also support the proposed financing. As addressed in greater detail below, the objections to the financing asserted by the Committee, the 2005 Bond Parties, Swinerton, the Attorney General, and various unions representing the Debtors' employees are OVERRULED.

B. The Debtors Are Entitled to Borrow on a Superpriority Basis

Section 364 provides in relevant part:

(c) If the trustee is unable to obtain unsecured credit allowable under section 503(b)(1) of this title as an administrative expense, the court, after notice and a hearing, may authorize the obtaining of credit or the incurring of debt—

- (1) with priority over any or all administrative expenses of the kind specified in section 503(b) or 507(b) of this title;
- (2) secured by a lien on property of the estate that is not otherwise subject to a lien; or
- (3) secured by a junior lien on property of the estate that is subject to a lien.

(d)(1) The court, after notice and a hearing, may authorize the obtaining of credit or the incurring of debt secured by a senior or equal lien on property of the estate that is subject to a lien only if—

- (A) the trustee is unable to obtain such credit otherwise; and
- (B) there is adequate protection of the interest of the holder of the lien on the property of the estate on which such senior or equal lien is proposed to be granted.

(2) In any hearing under this subsection, the trustee has the burden of proof on the issue of adequate protection.

Having reviewed the declaration submitted by Anita Chou, the Chief Financial Officer of VHS (the “Chou Decl.”), the Court finds that the Debtors were unable to obtain financing on more favorable terms than those proposed by the DIP Lender.

The Court finds that the Secured Creditors whose liens are primed by the DIP Facility are adequately protected. The Maloney Decl. establishes that the aggregate secured debt on the Debtors' balance sheet as of the Petition Date was approximately $565 million. Maloney Decl. at ¶9. The approximate realizable value of the Debtors' assets, in excess of prepetition secured liabilities, is between $150 and $225 million. Id. That is, secured creditors are protected by an equity cushion of between 26% to 40%. It is well established that an equity cushion of 20% or more constitutes adequate protection. See, e.g., In re James River Associates, 148 B.R. 790, 796 (E.D. Va. 1992) ("The amount of equity cushion sufficient to adequately protect the creditor is determined on a case-by-case basis. Kost, 102 B.R. at 831. However, the reported cases do provide some guidance: Case law has almost uniformly held that an equity cushion of 20% or more constitutes adequate protection.... Case law has almost as uniformly held that an equity cushion under 11% is insufficient to constitute adequate protection.... Case law is divided on whether a cushion of 12% to 20% constitutes adequate protection....").

In addition to adequate protection through the equity cushion, the replacement liens and superpriority claims provide the secured creditors additional adequate protection. The financing provided by the DIP Lender will enable the Debtors to continue to operate and generate additional receivables. Those receivables will be subject to the replacement liens. See In re Megan-Racine Associates, Inc., 202 B.R. 660, 663 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1996) (concluding that "[a]s long as there was a continuous income stream being generated by the Debtor, the fact that the Debtor consumed a portion of those monies to operate and maintain the facility each month did not diminish the value of the [secured creditor's] interest in the [cash collateral]"). There is no evidence before the Court that the Debtors' assets are declining in value. However, the abrupt cessation of operations would almost certainly result in a decline in value.

B. The Objections Asserted by the Committee are Overruled

The gravamen of the Committee's opposition is that the financing package negotiated by the Debtors places too much risk upon unsecured creditors because the Debtors have granted liens on unencumbered assets. The Committee's opposition is overruled.

The Committee cites In re Four Seasons Marine & Cycle, Inc., 263 B.R. 764, 771 (Bankr. E.D. Tex. 2001) for the proposition that the granting of replacement liens on unencumbered assets is fundamentally unfair to the Debtors' unsecured creditors. The Committee's reliance upon Four Seasons is misplaced, as the case is easily distinguishable. In Four Seasons, the secured lender sought a replacement lien on unencumbered assets after the debtor's case was converted to Chapter 7 as a result of the debtor's unauthorized use of cash collateral. Noting that the debtor was proceeding to liquidate, the Four Seasons court observed that granting the secured lender a replacement lien would punish unsecured parties, not the debtor who had engaged in the wrongdoing necessitating conversion to Chapter 7. The court explained that although the granting of replacement liens "would obviously restore certain funds to [the secured lender], it would do nothing to discourage debtors-in-possession from engaging in this type of misconduct, and it would impose the burden for such restitution upon parties who are wholly innocent of any wrongdoing." Four Seasons, 263 B.R. at 771.

In the present case, there is no indication that the Debtors have engaged in any type of wrongdoing. To the contrary, the record shows that the Debtors, under difficult circumstances, negotiated a financing package providing much-needed liquidity. The presence of this financing affords the Debtors critical breathing space, during which their assets can be exposed to the market. The facts of this case could not be more different from the facts of Four Seasons.

The premise underlying the Committee's objections is that the Debtors have prejudiced unsecured creditors by giving too much away to the secured creditors and the DIP Lender. Quite simply, that premise is incorrect. As discussed above, the Debtors are in a dire financial position. Under the circumstances, the Debtors were very fortunate to have negotiated a financing package containing such favorable terms.

The Committee objects to the Debtors' proposal to grant a §506(c) waiver, arguing that the Debtors are giving away a potential recovery for unsecured creditors. The Committee is correct that certain courts have declined to grant §506(c) waivers. However, the Committee overlooks the case that many other courts have granted § 506(c) waivers upon a finding that the waiver was necessary to induce the lender to extend the necessary credit. See, e.g., In re Real Mex Restaurants, Inc., Case No. 11-13122 (BLS) (Bankr. D. Del. Nov. 4, 2011); In re Metaldyne Corp., 2009 WL 2883045 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2009); In re Antico Mfg. Co., 31 B.R. 103, 106 n.1

(Bankr. E.D.N.Y. 1983) (holding that the §506(c) waiver was "not so detrimental or improper as to jeopardize the loss of the entire financing package"). Here, the Court finds that the §506(c) was necessary to induce the DIP Lender to extend the financing. The Committee's objection to the §506(c) waiver is overruled.

The Committee objects to the proposed §552(b) waiver, making arguments similar to those presented in opposition to the §506(c) waiver. Once again, the Court overrules the Committee's objections. Like §506(c) waivers, §552(b) waivers are routinely granted in large Chapter 11 cases as a means of adequately protecting the cash collateral of secured creditors. In view of the approximately $550 million in secured debt, the fact that the Debtors were able to obtain the assent of most of the secured creditor body with respect to the proposed financing package is significant. It was reasonable for the Debtors to grant the secured creditors a §552(b) waiver in order to obtain such consent.

The Committee's request that its budget to investigate the validity of the secured creditors' liens (the "Investigation Budget") be increased, as well as its request that its allocation under the carve-out be increased, are denied. The Debtors and the DIP Lender have already agreed to increase the Investigation Budget from $50,000 to $100,000. In the Court's view, the Committee's request for a further increase to $250,000 is not warranted.

Similarly, the Court finds that the currently budgeted amounts of $100,000 per month for the Committee's counsel and $50,000 per month for the Committee's financial advisors is sufficient, and that a further increase is not warranted.

The Committee objects to provisions of the financing package requiring that the Debtors commence a process to sell their assets within sixty days of the Petition Date. According to the Committee, these conditions improperly circumscribe the parameters of the sale process. The Court disagrees. As discussed, the Debtors' financial position is not strong. In fact, the Debtor is hemorrhaging money at an unsustainable rate. In the Court's view, a rapid sale of the Debtors' assets would be an expeditious means of resolving this case.

C. The Swinerton Objection is Overruled

Swinerton Builders ("Swinerton") asserts that it holds a mechanic's lien against the Seton Medical Center property, and objects to any priming of its asserted lien. Swinerton states that it has not taken action to formalize the perfection of its lien, but asserts that it will do so in the coming weeks.

In the context of this hearing, the Court makes no determination as to whether Swinerton holds a mechanic's lien against the Seton Medical Center Property. Even if Swinerton does hold such a lien, there is nothing in the Bankruptcy Code preventing that lien from being primed where necessary to facilitate post-petition financing. The financing package negotiated by the Debtor primes the liens of all secured creditors, not just Swinerton's. There is no reason why Swinerton's lien should not be primed in the same manner as the liens of other secured creditors. Swinerton's objection is overruled.

D. The Attorney General's Objection is Overruled

The Attorney General of the State of California (the "Attorney General") objects to the Motion on the grounds that the Debtors may be seeking to use restricted charitable funds as cash collateral. The Attorney General and the Debtors do not dispute that to the extent that the Debtors hold restricted donor funds, such funds may not be encumbered or used for non-charitable purposes.

The Attorney General argues that the Debtors should be required to include the following language in the Final Financing Order:

Nothing in this order shall create or validate liens on or allow the use of any temporarily or permanently restricted assets held by Debtors for any purpose other than their restricted purpose. These temporarily and permanently restricted assets are not property of the bankruptcy estate.

Nothing in this order shall in any way diminish the obligation of any entity, including the debtors, to comply with applicable state law and conditions including, but not limited to, charitable trust laws and the conditions set forth in the California Attorney General's Decision dated December 3, 2015.

Further, nothing in this order or the budget shall prevent the debtors from complying with any such obligations or conditions.

Having reviewed the Supplemental Chou Decl., the Court finds that the Debtors have adopted procedures to ensure that they remain compliant with their legal obligations with respect to the maintenance of restricted donor funds. Specifically, the Debtors have established procedures denominating funds as either "permanent donor restricted funds" or "temporarily restricted funds." Supplemental Chou Decl. at ¶6. As required by GAAP, the Debtors segregate permanent donor restricted funds from temporarily restricted funds. Id. The Court finds that the Debtors have established that they are in compliance with applicable charitable trust laws.

In its opposition, the Attorney General does not point to any specific conduct of the Debtors that violates applicable law. In view of the procedures implemented by the Debtors to ensure compliance with the law, and the absence of any showing by the Attorney General that the Debtors have not fulfilled their legal obligations, the Court declines to require the Debtors to insert into the Final Financing Order the provisions requested by the Attorney General. The DIP Credit Agreement, which is incorporated by reference into the proposed Final Financing Order, already contains language requiring the Debtors to "comply with the requirements of all Applicable Laws." DIP Credit Agreement, §5.5. Provisions in the Final Financing Order requiring compliance with applicable laws are unnecessary.

E. The 2005 Bond Parties' Objection is Overruled

The 2005 Bond Parties object to the priming of their liens, unless certain language is included in the Final Financing Order.

U.S. Bank, in its capacity as Note Trustee for the Working Capital Notes, has consented to the DIP Liens. Pursuant to an Intercreditor Agreement between U.S. Bank and the 2005 Bond Parties, U.S. Bank is authorized to subordinate the security interests held by the 2005 Bond Parties.

Based on the provisions set forth in the Intercreditor Agreement, the Court finds that the consent of the 2005 Bond Parties to the priming of their liens is unnecessary. To the extent that consent is required, it has been provided by U.S. Bank. The 2005 Bond Parties are bound by the provisions of the Intercreditor Agreement, and cannot escape the effect of those provisions simply as a result of the Debtors' bankruptcy.

In addition, even assuming arguendo that U.S. Bank had not consented or that its consent was somehow not effective, the provisions of §365(d) authorize the Court to prime the liens of secured creditors where necessary to facilitate post-petition financing. Further, the Court finds that the liens of the 2005 Bond Parties are adequately protected by, among other things, the assets of the Debtors, the equity cushion, the proposed package of payments, and the Prepetition Replacement Liens.

The 2005 Bond Parties' objections are overruled.

F. The Debtors are Not Required to Accord Superpriority Status to Postpetition Ordinary Course Transfers Between Debtors

As set forth in the tentative ruling issued in connection with the Cash Management Motion, the Court finds that Committee's contention that the Debtors should be required to accord super-priority claim status to transfers made between Debtors in the ordinary course of business is more appropriately addressed in the context of the Financing Motion. As set forth below, the Court declines to require the Debtors to accord super-priority status to intercompany transfers.

Chapter 11

The Debtors are seventeen separate legal entities, but operate those legal entities as a consolidated business enterprise. In the course of their business operations, it is common for one Debtor to purchase or sell goods and/or services to other Debtors.

The Committee's objection appears to be motivated by the concern that because these transfers are not at arms-length, the purchase price paid by one Debtor for goods and services purchased from another Debtor may not be commercially reasonable. The Court notes that it is conceivable that transfers from one Debtor to another on commercially unreasonable terms could function as a backdoor means of transferring funds from a financially stronger to a financially weaker Debtor.

There is no competent evidence before the Court showing that financially stronger Debtors are using intercompany transfers as an improper means of subsidizing financially weaker Debtors. Were such transfers to occur, the Committee would not be without legal remedies. The Committee's request that such ordinary transfers be accorded super-priority status would prove operationally burdensome. Absent concrete evidence of abuse, the Court declines to order the relief requested by the Committee.

G. Objections Asserted by Unions Representing the Debtors' Employees Are Addressed in the Prepetition Wages Motion

For the reasons set forth in the tentative ruling issued in connection with the Prepetition Wages Motion, the objections asserted by the unions representing the Debtors' employees are overruled.

H. Cash Collateral

Section 363(c)(2) requires court authorization for the use of cash collateral unless "each entity that has an interest in such cash collateral consents." Absent affirmative express consent, the Debtors "may not use" cash collateral absent the Court's determination that the use is "in accordance with the provisions" of Section 363—that is, that the secured creditor's interest in the cash collateral is adequately protected. Section 363(c)(2)(B); Section 363(e).

As noted above, the vast majority of the creditors holding secured debt have consented to the terms of the financing package. The 2005 Bond Parties have objected to the priming of their liens; however, as stated above, U.S. Bank has the capacity to consent to the priming of the 2005 Bond Parties' liens as a result of the Intercreditor Agreement. Further, even assuming arguendo that U.S. Bank did not have such capacity, the liens of the 2005 Bond Parties are adequately protected by, among other things, the assets of the Debtors, the equity cushion, the proposed package of payments, and the Prepetition Replacement Liens.

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

On August 31, 2018, Verity Health Systems of California ("VHS") and certain of its subsidiaries (collectively, the "Debtors") filed voluntary petitions for relief under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. On August 31, 2018, the Court entered an order granting the Debtors' motion for joint administration of the Debtors' Chapter 11 cases. Doc. No. 17.

On September 5, 2018, the Court granted, on an interim basis, the Debtor's motion for authorization to continue using its existing cash management system. See Doc. No. 76 (the "Interim Cash Management Order"). The Debtor now seeks a final order authorizing it to continue using its existing cash management system.

The Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (the "Committee") and the Debtor have been unable to resolve certain disputes regarding the Motion. The unresolved disputes, and the parties' positions with respect thereto, are as follows:

Intercompany Transactions

The Committee requests that intercompany transfers be granted superpriority claims status. The Committee argues that in view of the DIP financing, it is unnecessary for one Debtor to be transferring funds to another. The Committee asserts that, if such transfers are necessary, they should be provided superpriority status, so that intercompany transfers do not wind up benefitting financially stronger debtors at the expense of weaker ones.

The Debtors oppose this request. The Debtors state that other than superpriority claims proposed to be given to the DIP Lender, prepetition lenders, and secured creditor McKesson, the Debtors have granted superpriority status only to Verity Holdings, LLC (“Holdings”), to the extent that it is a net creditor of another Debtor. The Debtors assert that granting superpriority status for ordinary course intercompany transfers would defeat the purpose of the DIP financing. The Debtors assert that the intercompany transactions issue is most appropriately addressed in the context of the financing motion.

Transfers from Debtors to Non-Debtors

The Committee requests that the Debtors be required to seek Court approval prior to transferring funds in excess of $250,000 to a non-Debtor party.

The Debtors state that they are willing to acquiesce to the Committee’s respect, but not with respect to non-Debtor affiliates. That is, the Debtors do not agree to provide the Committee advance notice for ordinary course transfers to non-Debtor affiliates such as those already provided by the DIP financing arrangement. However, the Debtor is willing to provide the Committee notice of transfers to third parties that are not non-Debtor affiliates.

II. Findings and Conclusions

The findings made by the Court in its ruling granting the Cash Management Motion on an interim basis, see Doc. No. 118 (the “Interim Cash Management Ruling”), are incorporated herein by reference. As set forth more fully in the Interim Cash Management Ruling, the Court finds it appropriate to permit the Debtors to continue to use their existing cash management system and to implement changes to the system in the ordinary course of business.

As addressed in greater detail in the tentative ruling issued in connection with the Financing Motion, the Committee’s request that intercompany transfers, made in the ordinary course of business, be afforded superpriority status is OVERRULED.

With respect to transfers between the Debtor and non-Debtor affiliates, the Committee’s request that the Debtor be required to seek Court approval prior to transferring funds in excess of $250,000 to such affiliates is OVERRULED. In the course of their business operations, the Debtors routinely make transfers to non-Debtor affiliates. For example, the Debtor depends heavily upon non-Debtor Marillac Insurance Company, Ltd. (“Marillac”), its wholly-owned subsidiary, for its insurance needs. Requiring the Debtor to provide advance notice to the Committee with respect to ordinary-course transfers to non-Debtor affiliates would prove unduly burdensome.

Based upon the foregoing, the Motion is GRANTED in its entirety.

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

On September 5, 2018, the Court entered an Order Granting Emergency Motion of Debtors for Entry of Order: (I) Authorizing the Debtors to (A) Pay Prepetition Employee Wages and Salaries, and (B) Pay and Honor Employee Benefits and Other Workforce Obligations; and (II) Authorizing and Directing the Applicable Bank to Pay all Checks and Electronic Payment Requests Made by the Debtors Relating to the Foregoing [Doc. No. 75] (the "Prepetition Wages Order"). The Prepetition Wages Order authorized the Debtors to pay wages and employee benefits that had been accrued pre-petition, up to the priority amounts set forth in §507(a)(4) and (5).

The Prepetition Wages Order further authorized the Debtors to continue to pay, in the ordinary course of business, certain post-petition contributions for employee defined benefit plans. See, e.g., Prepetition Wage Order at ¶23.

At the interim hearing on the Prepetition Wages Motion, the Service Employees International Union, United Healthcare Workers-West ("SEIU-UHW") requested that the Prepetition Wage Order be entered on an interim, rather than final, basis. SEIU-UHW requested that a final hearing be held so that it could have the opportunity to object to the Debtors' position regarding the payment of various pension obligations. The Debtors did not oppose entry of the Prepetition Wage Order on an interim basis. The Court set this final hearing on the Prepetition Wages Motion to allow the parties an opportunity to object to the Debtors' proposal with respect to the ongoing payment of pension obligations.

The Debtors propose to pay certain pension obligations of certain employees who continue to work for the Debtors. However, the Debtors do not intend, at this time, to pay other pension obligations in accordance with the requirements of various collective bargaining agreements (the “CBAs”). The pension obligations which the Debtors do not intend to pay at this time consist primarily of obligations to make monthly contributions to underfunded pension plans.

Service Employees International Union, United Healthcare Workers-West (“SEIU-UHW”), the United Nurses Associations of California/Union of Health Care Professionals (“UNAC”), the Retirement Plan for Hospital Employees (“RPHE”), and the California Nurses Association (“CNA”) (collectively, the “Unions”) object to the Debtors’ non-payment of certain obligations under the CBAs. The Unions assert that the obligations under the CBAs must be paid unless and until the CBAs are rejected. The Unions further assert that they are entitled to a superpriority administrative expense claim for any CBA obligations that the Debtors do not pay.

The Debtors respond that under the majority interpretation of §507, claims arising from non-performance under a CBA are not entitled to superpriority status.

II. Findings and Conclusions

A. Obligations Under Unrejected CBAs are Not Entitled to Superpriority Administrative Expense Status

The objections asserted by the unions representing the Debtors’ employees to the Debtors’ non-payment of obligations arising under CBAs are overruled.

In support of their contention that the Debtors are required to make payments required under various CBAs, the unions primarily rely upon the following language from Teamsters Indus. Sec. Fund v. World Sales (In re World Sales, Inc.), 183 B.R. 872, 878 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 1995):

Section 1113 was enacted to protect employees during the interim between the filing of the bankruptcy petition and court-supervised modification or ultimate rejection of the CBA. During this period, working employees benefit the estate. Their rights accrue as services are rendered on the basis provided for by the CBA. These rights vest post-petition, and as indicated it would violate § 1113(f) to transform these rights into general unsecured claims upon subsequent rejection of the CBA. Hence, employees working under a CBA are insulated from the consequences of immediate rejection under § 365(g); subsection 1113(f) mandates that any conflict between § 1113 and other code sections must be resolved in favor of § 1113 as a whole. Because a CBA may not be rejected retroactively, unilateral breaches prior to rejection cannot be relegated to unsecured status. In re Hoffman Bros. Packing Co., Inc., 173 B.R. 177 (9th Cir. BAP 1994). We therefore hold that a debtor's unperformed post-petition obligations under an unmodified or unrejected CBA are beyond the scope of § 365(g), and claims based on such post-petition breaches must be given administrative status, even where the CBA is subsequently modified or rejected pursuant to § 1113.

World Sales, 183 B.R. at 878.

World Sales' holding regarding the superpriority status of claims arising from the post-petition breach of an unrejected CBA is the minority position, and World Sales has been rejected by other decisions in this district. In lieu of the minority approach set forth in World Sales, this Court follows the majority approach, which is well-articulated in In re Certified Air Techs., Inc., 300 B.R. 355, 369 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2003):

Section 1113 was enacted to protect the existence of collective bargaining agreements in chapter 11 cases, not to re-order the priority scheme set by Congress in § 507. Had Congress intended for § 1113 to create a super-priority for pre-petition wage and benefit claims arising under a collective bargaining agreement, it would have either included language in § 1113 similar to that incorporated into § 1114 or amended § 507 to reflect the change it intended. Because Congress neither included explicit language in § 1113 to supercede § 507 nor amended § 507 to specifically create a super-priority status for such claims, the court concludes that pre-petition claims for wages and benefits due under a collective bargaining agreement are not entitled to treatment as administrative expenses but are to be accorded priority consistent with § 507.

Certified Air, 300 B.R. at 369.

In support of its position that the Debtors must make CBA payments, SEIU-UHW points to Adventure Resources, Inc. v. Holland (In re Adventure Resources), 137 F.3d 786 (4th Cir. 1998). In Adventure Resources, the court held that where the debtor had not rejected a collective bargaining agreement under §1113 forty-three months after seeking bankruptcy protection, the debtor had assumed the collective bargaining agreement through inaction. As a result, the court held, the debtor was required to make postpetition payments due under the collective bargaining agreement.

Adventure Resources is readily distinguishable. This case is approximately one month old. There is no indication that the Debtors are engaged in the type of unreasonable delay with respect to CBAs that was at issue in Adventure Resources. Further, the payments at issue in Adventure Resources accrued postpetition. Here, the majority of the payments at issue arise in connection with obligations that accrued prepetition.

B. Clarification is Necessary Regarding the Debtors' Position as to Certain Benefit Payments

The Court requires clarification regarding the Debtors' position as to the payment of certain benefit payments to union members. RPHE objects to the Motion on the grounds that the Debtors have not proposed to pay RPHE plan contributions accrued in 2018 arising from services rendered by CNA members up to the priority cap provided in §507(a)(5). UNAC objects on the grounds that the Interim Prepetition Wages Order required that the Debtors make postpetition contributions to active employees of the Local 39 Stationary Engineers, but did not include similar provisions with respect to the CNA or UNAC-represented employees.

It appears to the Court that the omission of provisions protecting RPHE, CNA, or UNAC-represented employees may have been an oversight in the Pre-petition Wage Order. The Court requires clarification from the Debtors as to whether that is the case, or whether the omission was deliberate.

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

On August 31, 2018, Verity Health Systems of California ("VHS") and certain of its subsidiaries (collectively, the "Debtors") filed voluntary petitions for relief under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. On August 31, 2018, the Court entered an order granting the Debtors' motion for joint administration of the Debtors' Chapter 11 cases. Doc. No. 17.

On September 7, 2018, the Court authorized the Debtors to continue to pay and/or honor prepetition claims asserted by certain medical suppliers, medical care providers, and critical service providers (collectively, the "Critical Vendors"), in an interim amount of up to $5 million. See Ruling Granting Critical Vendor Motion on an Interim Basis [Doc. No. 123] (the "Interim Ruling") and Interim Order Granting Debtors' Emergency Motion for Entry of an Order Authorizing Debtors to Honor Prepetition Obligations to Critical Vendors [Doc. No. 134] (the "Interim Order").

The Debtors now seek authorization to pay prepetition claims of Critical Vendors in an amount of up to $20 million (consisting of the $5 million approved on an interim basis, plus an additional $15 million sought in connection with this final hearing). UMB Bank, N.A., in its capacity as master trustee for obligations issued by VHS in the approximate aggregate amount of $461 million ("UMB"), and Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., in its capacity as indenture trustee for debt instruments in the approximate aggregate amount of $259 million ("Wells Fargo") (UMB and Wells Fargo collectively, the "Secured Parties"), filed a Limited Objection to the Motion. The Secured Parties consent to the granting of the Motion, provided that they may review in advance any payments the Debtors intend to make to Critical Vendors.

Subsequent to the filing of the Limited Objection, the Debtors and the Secured Parties reached a compromise. Specifically, the Debtors have agreed to provide the Secured Parties (1) a list of Critical Vendors, (2) weekly reporting on Critical Vendor payments, and (3) three business days' notice regarding any proposed payments in excess of $250,000 in the aggregate to vendors not on the initial Critical Vendor list.

The Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (the "Committee") filed a response to the Motion. The Committee does not oppose the relief requested in the Motion; it seeks only that the final order on the Motion contain provisions requiring the Debtor to provide the Committee with certain information. The Debtor does not oppose providing the Committee the requested information.

II. Findings and Conclusions

The Court notes that in dicta, the Supreme Court has recently noted that Bankruptcy Courts have approved "'critical vendor' orders that allow payment of an essential suppliers' prepetition invoices." Czyzewski v. Jevic Holding Corp., 137 S. Ct. 973, 985, 197 L. Ed. 2d 398 (2017). The Supreme Court's statement in Jevic obviously was not a holding upon the validity of a critical vendor order; nonetheless, the Supreme Court's acknowledgment that Bankruptcy Courts have reasoned that critical vendor orders are necessary to "enable a successful reorganization and make even the disfavored creditors better off" is significant. Id. at 985.

More on point, in the context of a cross-collateralization clause, the Ninth Circuit has recognized that "[c]ases have permitted unequal treatment of pre-petition debts when necessary for rehabilitation, in such contexts as (i) pre-petition wages to key employees; (ii) hospital malpractice premiums incurred prior to filing; (iii) debts to providers of unique and irreplaceable supplies; and (iv) peripheral benefits under labor contracts." Burchinal v. Central Wash. Bank (In re Adams Apple, Inc.), 829 F.2d 1484, 1490 (9th Cir. 1987). The Ninth Circuit's recognition of the necessity of paying prepetition debts to "providers of unique and irreplaceable supplies" is particularly salient; that relief is most analogous to the relief sought by the instant Motion.

The Debtors have established that there is a strong likelihood that they may suffer irreparable harm if they are not able to pay Critical Vendors. As set forth in the Interim Ruling [Doc. No. 123], the Debtors have adopted rigorous procedures to limit the amounts to be paid to Critical Vendors on account of prepetition debt.

Such prepetition payments obviously are frowned upon because they subvert the Bankruptcy Code's priority scheme. Yet the priority scheme will be of little use to anyone if value is destroyed because the Debtors cannot continue operations. There is a credible threat that the Debtors will not be able to obtain needed services and supplies absent authorization to pay Critical Vendors.

#8.00 Hearing
RE: [108] Motion to Shorten to October 15, 2018, Debtor's Time to Assume or Reject Healthcare Services Risk Sharing Agreement

Docket 108

Tentative Ruling:

10/2/2018

For the reasons set forth below, the Motion is DENIED without prejudice.

Pleadings Filed and Reviewed:

- 1) Memorandum of Points and Authorities in Support of Motion to Shorten to October 15, 2018, Debtor's Time to Assume or Reject Healthcare Services Risk Sharing Agreement [Doc. No. 108] (the "Motion")
- 2) Debtors' Opposition to St. Vincent IPA Medical Services' Motion to Assume or Reject Health Services Risk Sharing Agreement on an Expedited Basis [Doc. No. 212] (the "Opposition")
- 3) Reply to Debtor's Opposition to Memorandum of Points and Authorities in Support of Motion to Shorten to October 15, 2018, Debtor's Time to Assume or Reject Healthcare Services Risk Sharing Agreement [Doc. No. 306] (the "Reply")

- 4) Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors' Response to St. Vincent IPA Medical Corporation's Motion to Shorten to October 15, 2018 Debtor's Time to Assume or Reject Healthcare Services Risk Sharing Agreement [Doc. No. 301]

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

St. Vincent IPA Medical Corporation (the "Group") moves for an order shortening the time by which St. Vincent Medical Center (the "Debtor") must assume or reject the Healthcare Services Risk Sharing Agreement (the "Agreement") with the Group.

The Group is an integrated practice association ("IPA") of doctors who provide medical services to patients treated at the Hospital operated by the Debtor. The Group consists of approximately 200 doctors, and has had a relationship with the Debtor for approximately twenty-five years.

Chapter 11

In providing medical services to patients, the Group's doctors are often required to use medical services provided by the Hospital. For example, patients of the Group's doctors may require diagnostic tests, surgical procedures, and other medical services.

The Agreement is a risk-sharing agreement between the Group and the Debtor, intended to allocate financial responsibility for medical services required by patients of the Group's doctors (such medical services, the "facility services"). Under the Agreement, the facility services may be provided by either the Debtor or a third-party medical facility.

The Group moves to compel the Debtor to assume or reject the Agreement by no later than October 15, 2018. The Group contends that the Debtor has defaulted under the Agreement and owes it at least $1,228,516.08. The Group further seeks protections from the Debtor until the determination to assume or reject is made, including requirements (1) that the Debtor segregate risk pool funds held by the Debtor pursuant to the Agreement (the "Risk Pool Funds") in a separate debtor-in-possession account, and (2) that the Debtor use the Risk Pool Funds only as provided under the express terms of the Agreement.

The Debtor opposes the Motion, contending that the relief sought by the Group is premature and would complicate the Debtor's efforts to sell its Hospital. The Debtor asserts that requiring it to determine whether to assume or reject the Agreement now would limit its options in structuring a sale transaction.

The Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (the "Committee") agrees with the Debtor that it would be premature for the Debtor to be required to make a decision regarding assumption or rejection of the Agreement at this time. The Committee requests that the Motion be denied without prejudice.

In support of its Reply to the Debtor's Opposition, the Group submits a Supplemental Declaration of Jeffrey Hendel, M.D. (the "Supplemental Hendel Decl."). According to the Supplemental Hendel Decl., the Debtor is not paying patient expenses as required under the Agreement, and as a result, certain medical service providers are "refusing necessary and urgent medical care to patients." Supplemental Hendel Decl. at ¶9. Dr. Hendel asserts that the "consequences of the Debtor's non-compliance may be catastrophic." Id. at ¶8.

II. Findings and Conclusions

The Supplemental Hendel Decl. introduces evidence that was not submitted in support of the Motion. The Motion contained no argument or evidence in support of the Group's contention that the Debtor's alleged non-performance under the Agreement would pose serious health risks to patients treated by the Group's doctors. Instead, the Motion asserted that the Debtor's assumption/rejection deadline should be advanced to protect the Group from financial risk. The Group's contention that the Court should grant the Motion in order to protect the health of patients treated by the Group's doctors was first raised in the Group's reply papers.

Local Bankruptcy Rule ("LBR") 9013-1(g)(4) prohibits the introduction of new evidence or arguments in reply papers. LBR 9013-1(g)(4) is a codification of the Ninth Circuit's well-established "general rule that [litigants] cannot raise a new issue for the first time in their reply briefs." Martinez-Serrano v. I.N.S., 94 F.3d 1256, 1259 (9th Cir. 1996). Because the Supplemental Hendel Decl. introduces new evidence in violation of LBR 9013-1(g)(4) and controlling Ninth Circuit case law, the Court does not consider it.

The Motion is DENIED without prejudice. Pursuant to §365(d)(2), the Debtor may assume or reject an executory contract at any time prior to plan confirmation. However, the Court may order the Debtor, for cause, to "determine within a specified period of time whether to assume or reject" an executory contract. §365(d)(2). "In deciding whether to accelerate the debtor's decision, the court must balance the interests of the contracting party against the interests of the debtor and its estate." In re Physician Health Corp., 262 B.R. 290, 292 (Bankr. D. Del. 2001).

Having weighed the evidence properly before it, the Court finds that Debtor's interest in maintaining flexibility with respect to the marketing of its assets outweighs the Group's interest in obtaining a rapid decision regarding whether the Agreement will be assumed or rejected. The Group asserts that it will suffer financial risk if the Debtor is not required to rapidly make a decision with respect to assumption or rejection. In the context of this case, whatever financial risk the Group may suffer is outweighed by the interest of preserving the Debtor's flexibility with respect to the marketing of its assets. Maintaining such flexibility benefits the Debtor as well as creditors. While the Court is sympathetic to the difficulties faced by the Group, those difficulties are outweighed by the prejudice that would inure to the Debtor and creditors were the Court to compel the Debtor to decide at this time whether to assume or reject the Agreement.

The Group's request that the Court require the Debtor to segregate Risk Pool Funds in a separate debtor-in-possession account is also denied. Such a requirement would impair the Debtor's ability to efficiently operate its business. In recognition of the necessity of allowing the Debtor to maintain the continuity of its business operations, the Court has previously entered an order allowing this Debtor, in conjunction with the sixteen other Debtors whose estates are being jointly administered, to maintain a cash management system which permits the seamless transfer of funds between the various Debtors who routinely conduct business with each other. Imposition of the protections sought by the Group would impair the operation of this cash management system.

Based upon the foregoing, the Motion is DENIED without prejudice. The Debtor shall submit a conforming order, incorporating this tentative ruling by reference, within seven days of the hearing.

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

On August 31, 2018, Verity Health Systems of California (“VHS”) and certain of its subsidiaries (collectively, the “Debtors”) filed voluntary petitions for relief under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. On August 31, 2018, the Court entered an order granting the Debtors’ motion for joint administration of the Debtors’ Chapter 11 cases. Doc. No. 17.

On September 28, 2018, the Court set an expedited hearing on the Debtor’s motion seeking authorization to open a revolving credit card account with City National Bank (the “Motion”). The proposed credit card facility will have a credit line of $20,000. The Debtors will use the credit line to pay for immediate expenses arising in the course of delivering health care services, such as purchasing fuel for patient transportation vehicles and purchasing emergency supplies for the Debtors’ facilities. The Debtors state that since filing for bankruptcy, they have had no access to a credit card to use in everyday transactions.

To obtain the credit line, the Debtors will deposit $20,000 with City National Bank. Ally Bank, the lender who has provided post-petition financing, has agreed to allow the Debtors to use its cash collateral to make the deposit with City National Bank. The Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (the “Committee”) does not oppose the Motion.

II. Findings and Conclusions

Subject to any opposition which may be presented at the hearing, the Court is prepared to GRANT the Motion on an interim basis. The Debtors require a credit facility in order to pay for everyday expenses. Absent the proposed credit facility, employees of the Debtors will continue to be required to use their personal credit cards to pay for emergency business expenses, and subsequently seek reimbursement from the Debtors—a cumbersome and unnecessary process.

Pursuant to §363(b)(1), the Court authorizes the Debtor to use property of the estate to fund the $20,000 deposit with City National Bank. Pursuant to §364(d), the Debtors are authorized to incur the secured credit under the proposed facility.

The proposed facility is approved on an interim basis pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 4001(c)(2), which permits the Court to approve post-petition financing on less than fourteen days’ notice pending a final hearing, to the extent necessary to avoid immediate and irreparable harm.

A final hearing on the Motion shall take place on October 24, 2018, at 11:00 a.m. Opposition to the granting of the Motion on a final basis must be submitted by no later than October 12, 2018. The Debtors’ Reply in support of the Motion, if any, is due by no later than October 19, 2018. Debtors shall provide notice of the final hearing, and shall file a proof of service so indicating, by no later than October 5, 2018.

This Motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on the notice required by LBR 4001(c)(1) and LBR 9013-1(d)(2). The failure of the Debtor, the trustee, and all other parties in interest to file written opposition at least 14 days prior to the hearing as required by LBR 9013-1(f) is considered as consent to the granting of the Motion. LBR 9013-1(h). Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995).

The Motion is GRANTED pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1). The stay is terminated as to the Debtor and the Debtor's bankruptcy estate with respect to the Movant, its successors, transferees and assigns. Movant may enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property in accordance with applicable law, but may not pursue a deficiency claim against the debtor or property of the estate except by filing a proof of claim pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 501.

The Debtor continues to occupy the property after a foreclosure sale held on June 18, 2018. The Movant filed an unlawful detainer action on July 11, 2018.

This Motion has been filed to allow the Movant to proceed with the unlawful detainer proceeding in state court. The unlawful detainer proceeding may go forward because the Debtor's right to possess the premises must be determined. This does not change simply because a bankruptcy petition was filed. See In re Butler, 271 B.R. 867, 876 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2002).

Hearing Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 4001; and (4) Granting Related Relief [Doc. No. 128] (the "Supplemental Briefing")

a) Notice of Hearing on Debtor's Continued Use of Cash Collateral [Doc. No. 129]

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

Sultan Financial Corporation (the "Debtor") commenced a voluntary Chapter 11 petition on July 13, 2018 (the "Petition Date"). As of the Petition Date, the Debtor operated sixteen Aaron's Sales & Lease Stores.

On July 19, 2018, the Court entered an interim order authorizing the Debtor to use the cash collateral of California Bank & Trust ("CBT"), and setting a continued hearing on the Debtor's motion to use cash collateral for August 8, 2018. See Doc. No. 53 (the "First Interim Cash Collateral Order"). On August 10, 2018, the Court entered a second interim order authorizing the Debtor's further interim use of cash collateral. See Doc. No. 91 (the "Second Interim Cash Collateral Order").

This is a further interim hearing on the Debtor's motion for authorization to continue to use CBT's cash collateral. In support of the continued use of cash collateral, the Debtor states that the Debtor, CBT, and Aaron's Inc. ("Aaron's") have reached an agreement in principle, subject to court approval, under which Aaron's will acquire substantially all of the Debtor's operating assets, free and clear of liens (the "Aaron's Transaction"). The Debtor expects that if the Aaron's Transaction is approved, it will close on or about November 9, 2018. The Debtor has supplied an updated budget (the "Budget") setting forth its projected expenditures and cash disbursements through November 10, 2018.

CBT supports the Debtor's continued use of cash collateral in accordance with the Budget through November 10, 2018, but reserves all rights with respect to the Debtor's use of cash collateral subsequent to November 10, 2018.

II. Findings and Conclusions

Section 363(c)(2) requires court authorization for the use of cash collateral unless "each entity that has an interest in such cash collateral consents." In the Ninth Circuit, satisfaction of Section 363(c)(2)(A) requires the "affirmative express consent" of the secured creditor; "implied consent," resulting from the failure of the secured creditor to object to use of cash collateral, does not satisfy the requirements of the statute. Freightliner Market Development Corp. v. Silver Wheel Freightlines, Inc., 823 F.2d 362, 368-69 (9th Cir. 1987). Absent affirmative express consent, the Debtors "may not use" cash collateral absent the Court's determination that the use is "in accordance with the provisions" of Section 363—that is, that the secured creditor's interest in the cash collateral is adequately protected. Section 363(c)(2)(B); Section 363(e).

A secured creditor's interest is adequately protected if the value of its collateral is not declining; the secured creditor is not entitled to payment to compensate for its inability to foreclose upon the collateral during bankruptcy proceedings. United Savings Association of Texas v. Timbers of Inwood Forest Associates, Ltd., 484 U.S. 365 (1988).

The Court notes that the Debtor's hearing on its request for approval of the Aaron's Transaction is set for October 24, 2018. CBT, the Debtor's senior secured lender, supports the Debtor's request for authorization to continue to use cash collateral. The Debtor is authorized to continue to use CBT's cash collateral, in accordance with the Budget, through and including November 10, 2018.

In the event that the Court does not approve the Aaron's Transaction, the Court will determine whether it is necessary to schedule a hearing regarding the further interim use of cash collateral, and will notify the parties.

The Debtor shall submit a conforming order, incorporating this tentative ruling by reference, within seven days of the hearing.

No appearance is required if submitting on the court's tentative ruling. If you intend to submit on the tentative ruling, please contact Jessica Vogel or Daniel Koontz at 213-894-1522. If you intend to contest the tentative ruling and appear, please first contact opposing counsel to inform them of your intention to do so. Should an opposing party file a late opposition or appear at the hearing, the court will determine whether further hearing is required. RE: [10] Motion to Avoid Lien JUDICIAL LIEN with LA FINANCIAL CREDIT UNION with proof of service

fr. 9-18-18

Docket 10

Tentative Ruling:

10/9/2018

Tentative Ruling:

For the reasons set forth below, the Debtors' Lien Avoidance Motion is GRANTED.

Pleadings Filed and Reviewed:

- 1) Debtors' Notice of Motion and Motion to Avoid Lien Under 11 U.S.C. §522(f) (Real Property) [Doc. No. 12]
 - a) Declaration of Appraiser Daryl Johnson [Doc. No. 12]
 - b) Notice of Hearing on Lien Avoidance Motion [Doc. No. 13]

- 3) LA Financial Credit Union's Withdrawal of Opposition to Debtors' Motion to Avoid the Lien of LA Financial Credit Union [Doc. No. 21]

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

Relevant Background Facts

On June 29, 2018, Javier Valencia and Maria Irene Valencia (the "Debtors") filed a motion to avoid a judicial lien encumbering their residential real property located at 37342 Lasker Avenue, Palmdale, CA 93550 (the "Property") held by LA Financial Credit Union ("LA Financial"), pursuant to §522(f) [Doc. No. 10] (the "Lien Avoidance Motion"). LA Financial timely opposed the Lien Avoidance Motion and requested a hearing [Doc. No. 11] (the "Opposition"). Debtors subsequently submitted additional evidence in support of the motion – an appraisal of the Property prepared by Daryl Johnson [Doc. No. 12] (the "Johnson Appraisal").

The Court issued a tentative ruling in advance of the September 18, 2018 hearing, available on the docket as entry 17, addressing Debtors' submission of new evidence in reply papers in contravention of Local Bankruptcy Rule ("LBR") 9013-1(g)(4) (the "Tentative Ruling"). As a result, the Tentative Ruling waived appearances, stated the Court's intent to continue the hearing to October 10, 2018, and set an October 3, 2018 deadline for LA Financial to file a response to the Johnson Appraisal. There were no appearances at the September 18, 2018 hearing, so the Court adopted the Tentative Ruling as its final ruling.

On October 3, 2018, LA Financial withdrew its Opposition [Doc. No. 21].

II. Findings and Conclusions

Pursuant to § 522(f), a debtor may avoid the fixing of a lien on an interest of the debtor in property to the extent that such lien impairs an exemption if such lien is a judicial lien, other than a judicial lien that secures a debt of a kind that is specified in § 523(a)(5). 11 U.S.C. § 522(f). "For the purposes of this subsection, a lien shall be considered to impair an exemption to the extent that the sum of: (i) the lien; (ii) all other liens on the property; and (iii) the amount of the exemption that the debtor could claim if there were no liens on the property, exceeds the value that the debtor's interest in the property would have in the absence of any liens." Id. A debtor's interest in the property is determined by the "fair market value as of the date of the filing of the petition." 11 U.S.C. §§ 522(a), (f). To prevail on a motion to avoid a judicial lien, the debtor must show that: (1) he has an interest in the homestead property; (2) he is entitled to a homestead exemption; (3) the asserted lien impairs that exemption; and (4) the lien is a judicial lien. In re Meeks, 349 B.R. 19, 21 (Bankr. E.D. Cal. 2006). "As the moving party, the debtor carries the burden of proof on all factors." Id.; see also In re Pederson, 230 B.R. 158, 160 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 1999); In re Catli, 999 F.2d 1405, 1406 (9th Cir. 1993).

Based on the Court's review of the Johnson Appraisal, the Court finds that the Property was worth $240,000 as of May 31, 2018, the date of the filing of the petition.

Debtors claim an exemption of $100,000 pursuant to Cal. CCP §704.730(a)(3). The sum of the LA Financial lien, all other liens, and the exemption is $290,881.90. Subtracting the value of the Debtors' interest in the Property ($240,000) shows that the LA Financial lien impairs the Debtors' exemption to the extent of $50,881.90.

Based upon the foregoing, the Lien Avoidance Motion is GRANTED. The Debtors shall submit a conforming order, incorporating this tentative ruling by reference, within seven days of the hearing.

No appearance is required if submitting on the court's tentative ruling. If you intend to submit on the tentative ruling, please contact Daniel Koontz or Jessica Vogel at 213-894-1522. If you intend to contest the tentative ruling and appear, please first contact opposing counsel to inform them of your intention to do so. Should an opposing party file a late opposition or appear at the hearing, the court will determine whether further hearing is required. Chapter 7

M & A Enterprises, LLC (the "Debtor") filed a voluntary Chapter 7 petition on May 29, 2018 (the "Petition") [Doc. No. 1]. Rosendo Gonzalez was appointed as interim Chapter 7 trustee (the "Trustee").

Factual Background

The property at issue consists of two adjacent apartment buildings located at 2936 North Loma Avenue and 2935 North Mountain Avenue, San Bernardino, CA (the "Property"). The Creditor is the holder of the second and third deeds of trust secured by the Property.

In 2015, the Property was sold to Neram Village, Inc. ("Neram"). "Declaration of Joseph G. McCarty" (the "McCarty Decl.") [Doc. No. 9] at ¶ 4. As part of the sale transaction, the Creditor received two notes and deeds of trust: (1) the second deed of trust, in the original principal amount of $3,432,154.81, which was an All Inclusive Trust Deed ("AITD") wrapping around the first deed of trust from East West Bank; and (2) the third deed of trust in the original principal amount of $1,123,845.18 (the indebtedness secured by such deeds of trust collectively, the "Loans"). Id. at ¶ 3. Subsequently, and without notifying the Creditor, Neram encumbered the Property with a fourth deed of trust and fifth deed of trust. Id. at ¶ 4. The Debtor was the beneficiary of the fifth deed of trust. Id. On April 12, 2016, after Neram had failed to make payments to the Creditor, the Creditor commenced a judicial foreclosure action in the California Superior Court (the "State Court"). Id. at ¶ 5. The State Court appointed Eloisa Fernandez as receiver (the "Original Receiver"). Id. The Original Receiver made certain necessary repairs to the Property and Creditor advanced funds to pay for the repairs and other expenses of the Property. Id. at ¶ 6.

On June 12, 2017, the Debtor commenced in the State Court a foreclosure action on its fifth deed of trust, and moved to remove the Original Receiver. Id. at ¶ 7. The Creditor opposed the Debtor's motion and proposed that Matthew Taylor take over as receiver. Id. On June 19, 2017, the State Court entered an order appointing Mr. Taylor as receiver (the "Receiver"). Id.; see also id., Exhibit 1 (the State Court Order). Over the objection of the Debtor to the discharge of the Original Receiver and to the amount paid for repairs, the State Court discharged the Original Receiver. Id. at ¶ 8. The Debtor subsequently filed a cross-complaint which contests the advances for the repairs and the expenses of the Property. Id. at ¶ 9. The Debtor's cross-complaint

On August 22, 2018, the Court held a hearing on, among other motions, the Debtor's "Motion to Convert Case under 11 U.S.C. § 706(a)" (the "Motion to Convert") [Doc. No. 17], and the "Motion for Entry of Order Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 543(d)(1) Maintaining Receiver Matthew Taylor as Custodian in Possession and Control of Real Estate of Debtor and Excusing Custodian from Compliance with 11 U.S.C. §§ 543(a) and (b)" (the "Receiver Motion") [Doc. No. 8]. After considering the Motion to Convert and the Receiver Motion, the related papers, and the arguments raised by counsel for the respective parties at the hearing, the Court denied both the Motion to Convert and the Receiver Motion. See Doc. No. 75 (the Court's final ruling after hearing); "Order Denying Motion to Convert" [Doc. No. 77]. Furthermore, the Court ordered the Receiver to turn over all property of the estate under the Receiver's control to the Trustee. Doc. No. 75.

The Motion

On August 13, 2018, Luis Munoz, and N. Loma and N. Mountain Ave. Properties, LLC, (collectively, the "Movant" or the "Creditor") filed the "Notice of Motion and Motion for Relief from the Automatic Stay Under 11 U.S.C. § 362" (Real Property) (the "Motion") [Doc. No. 65]. The Motion seeks relief from the automatic stay under §§ 362(d)(1) and (d)(2) with respect to the Property.

The Movant contends that "cause" exists for relief from the stay under § 362(d)(1) because: (1) the Movant's interest in the Property is not adequately protected by an equity cushion; and (2) the bankruptcy case was filed in bad faith, based on the fact that the Movant is the only creditor, or one of very few creditors, listed or scheduled in the Debtor's case commencement documents; and (3) for other cause. Motion at ¶ 4(a). The Motion additionally requests relief from stay pursuant to § 362(d)(2) because, pursuant to § 362(d)(2)(A), the Debtor has no equity in the Property, and pursuant to § 362(d)(2)(B), the Property is not necessary to an effective reorganization. Id. at ¶ 4(b).

The Motion includes an appraisal of the Property by CBRE Valuation and Advisory Services dated August 6, 2018 (the "CBRE Appraisal") [Doc. No. 65, Ex. D]. According to the CBRE Appraisal, the fair market value of the Property is $5,900,000.00. According to the Movant, the Property is encumbered by a First Deed of Trust in favor of East West Bank, a Second Deed of Trust in favor of the Movant, Luis Munoz, in the amount of $4,422,564.00 (amount of Second Deed of Trust included as a wrap-around with the First Deed of Trust), a Third Deed of Trust in favor of the Movant, Luis Munoz, in the amount of $1,386,488.00, and a Fourth Deed of Trust in favor of Hahn Tran in the amount of $250,000.00. "Real Property Declaration of Luis Munoz" (the "Munoz Decl.") [Doc. No. 65] at ¶ 8. The Movant alleges that the total amount of its claim with respect to the Property is $5,894,948.83. Id. at ¶ 8. In sum, the Movant alleges that the amount of the total debt against the Property is $6,062,450.00. Id. at ¶ 11(e). Based on these amounts, the Movant contends that the Movant is not adequately protected by an equity cushion in the Property, and that there is no equity in the Property.

With respect to the Movant's argument that there is "cause" for relief from stay under § 362(d)(1) because the Petition was filed in bad faith, the Movant contends that the Debtor is attempting to abuse the bankruptcy process in order to further delay the Creditor's foreclosure on the Property, and that the Debtor's schedules are inaccurate and incomplete. The Movant argues that the Debtor's "Amended Schedule A/B" [Doc. No. 38] does not correct the deficiencies in the Debtor's original Schedules, and the addition of substantial assets that were not disclosed in the Petition suggest that the Amended Schedule A/B is not real, but rather another attempt to delay the pending foreclosure proceedings.

Lastly, the Motion requests that if the Court is inclined not to grant relief from stay, that the Court order the Debtor to make monthly adequate protection payments on the Movant's secured loans in the amount of $17,281.85 on the Second Deed of Trust wrap-around, and $6,020.00 on the Third Deed of Trust.

The Debtor's Opposition

On August 21, 2018, the Debtor filed the "Debtor's Opposition to the [Motion]" (the "Debtor Opposition") [Doc. No. 74]. The Opposition contends, among other things, that (1) the Movant's interest is protected by an adequate equity cushion, and that there is equity in the Property, and (2) the Petition was filed in good faith.

The Debtor submits an appraisal of the Property by Cushman & Wakefield Western, Inc., dated August 10, 2018 (the "Cushman Appraisal") [Doc. No. 74, Ex. A]. According to the Cushman Appraisal, the fair market value of the Property is $6,850,000.00. The Opposition asserts that Movant inflates the total indebtedness against the Property. The Debtor contends that the total debt against the Property, some of which the Debtor disputes, is $5,282,141.00. The Debtor contends that the Movant's claim includes inflated attorney's fees, and the Debtor additionally disputes the amounts the Movant claims that it spent to repair the Property. Thus, based on the Debtor's calculations there is gross equity in the Property in the amount of $1,567,859.00. Based on the Debtor's figures regarding indebtedness and the Cushman Appraisal submitted by the Debtor, there is $787,550.00 in gross equity. The Opposition further argues that the Movant inflates the balances for the First Deed of Trust and the Second Deed of Trust by failing to credit certain payments made on the First Deed of Trust, and based on the Loan Statements for the respective loans, see Debtor Opposition at Ex's. D and E. If the balances are adjusted accordingly, the amount of gross equity available is further increased.

The Debtor additionally argues that the Petition was not filed in bad faith, and that the Movant seeks to gain a cash windfall through Chapter 7. The Opposition further states that the Debtor has never had management control of the Property because the Property has been continuously managed by the respective receivers.

The Trustee's Opposition

On August 23, 2018, the Trustee filed the "Trustee's Opposition to the [Motion]" (the "Trustee Opposition") [Doc. No. 76]. The Trustee requests that the Motion be denied, or in the alternative, that the hearing on the Motion be continued for not less than 30 days to afford the Trustee an opportunity to determine whether there is any equity in the Property, and to evaluate the Movant's claim and lien against the Property. The Trustee explains that, in light of the Court's ruling denying the Motion to Convert on August 22, 2018, the Trustee has not had time to thoroughly review the Motion and the records of the Receiver and the Debtor, to determine whether there is any equity in the Property, or to evaluate the Movant's alleged secured claim and lien on the Property.

The Debtor's Supplemental Opposition

On August 27, 2018, the Debtor filed the "Supplemental Opposition to the Motion" (the "Supplemental Opposition") [Doc. No. 82]. The Supplemental Opposition contends: (1) the Debtor's Appraisal reveals that there is substantial equity in the Property, and that a Chapter 11 case is in prospect; (2) the Creditor opposes conversion to Chapter 11 in order to obtain a huge cash windfall through Chapter 7; (3) the Creditor's claimed loan balances are improperly inflated, and Chapter 11 is the most appropriate means to determine the loan balances; (4) the Chapter 7 Trustee does not oppose conversion to Chapter 11; and (5) the case is appropriate for immediate conversion to Chapter 11. The Supplemental Opposition includes evidence of a payoff statement provided to the Debtor by East West Bank for the First Deed of Trust, which conflicts with the payoff amount asserted by the Creditor.

To the extent the Supplemental Opposition raises arguments that are not relevant to the instant Motion, specifically those related to converting the case to Chapter 11, the Court will not consider such arguments in connection with the Motion at bar. To the extent the Supplemental Opposition raises arguments that are related to the Motion before the Court, the Court will consider such arguments at the continued hearing.

The Reply to the Oppositions

On August 28, 2018, the Creditor filed the "Reply to the Oppositions to [the Motion]" (the "Reply") [Doc. No. 84]. The Reply argues that cause exists for relief from stay and that the Appraisals confirm a lack of equity in the Property. Furthermore, the Reply contends that the Debtor's Opposition confirms that the Debtor is attempting to use this bankruptcy case to relitigate issues which have already been determined by the State Court. The Creditor states that the amounts listed in the Motion as being owed on the Creditor's loans are the correct amounts, and the Creditor submits spreadsheets in support of the amounts owing as Exhibits "1-3" attached to the "Declaration of Robert Yaspan" (the "Yaspan Decl.") [Doc. No. 84]. The Reply additionally argues that the Debtor's bankruptcy was filed in bad faith.

With respect to the request by the Trustee in the Trustee's Opposition, the Creditor contends that the Trustee has had adequate time to evaluate the Estate's assets, and that any further delay will prejudice the Creditor. The Creditor has continued to make payments on the First Deed of Trust to prevent foreclosure, and to maintain the status quo. Specifically, the Creditor has made monthly payments on the First Deed of Trust of $17,281.86 in June, July, and August, with the September payment coming due on September 15, 2018. To the extent the Court is inclined to do anything other than grant relief from stay, the Creditor requests that the Court order that monthly adequate protection payments be made to the Creditor in the amount of payments due on the First, Second, and Third Deeds of Trust, which total $23,301.85 per month, from the Petition Date until the case is closed or dismissed.

II. Findings and Conclusions

For the purposes of granting the Trustee's request for a continuance only, the court finds that there is equity in the subject property sufficient for the purpose of adequately protecting Creditor for the limited period of time until the continued hearing.

Based on the foregoing, the hearing on the Motion is CONTINUED to October 15, 2018 at 10:00 a.m. The deadline for the parties to file any supplemental briefing is no later than 10-days before the continued hearing, i.e. October 5, 2018. Any supplemental briefing shall be limited to responding to the arguments raised in the Motion for Relief from Stay.

The Trustee shall lodge a conforming order within seven (7) days of the hearing.

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

M&A Enterprises, LLC (the "Debtor") commenced a voluntary Chapter 7 petition on May 29, 2018. The Debtor owns two adjacent apartment buildings, located at 2936 North Loma Avenue and 2935 North Mountain Avenue, San Bernardino, CA (the "San Bernardino Properties").

On September 26, 2018, the Court conducted a hearing on shortened notice on the Debtor's motion for authorization to refinance the San Bernardino Properties (the "Refinancing Motion"). The material provisions of the Court's ruling on the Refinancing Motion—subsequently memorialized in the Order: (1) Authorizing Release of Funds to Escrow and Refinance of Property; (2) Setting Hearing on Final Fee Applications; and (3) Setting Hearing on Court's Motion to Dismiss [Doc. No. 174] (the "Refinancing Order")—may be summarized as follows:

- 1) The Debtor shall promptly turn over copies of all its books and records to the Chapter 7 Trustee (the "Trustee").
- 2) After the Trustee has had the opportunity to review to his satisfaction the books and records provided by the Debtor and determine, to the extent he is able, that the Debtor has identified all of its known unsecured creditors, the Trustee shall deposit $2.3 million in estate cash from the Trustee's bank account into an escrow account for the refinancing of the San Bernardino Properties. The remaining estate funds—in the approximate amount of

- 3) The Debtor is authorized to refinance and encumber the San Bernardino Properties as requested in the Refinancing Motion. Title and escrow for the refinancing shall be handled by First American Title.
- 4) A hearing on the final fee applications (the “Fee Applications”) of the Trustee and the estate’s professionals shall take place on October 15, 2018. To reduce expenses incurred in the preparation of the Fee Applications, strict compliance with the requirements set forth in Local Bankruptcy Rule 2016-1 shall not be required. The Fee Applications shall contain the following information:
 - a) A listing of time spent by the professional on matters for which compensation is sought; and
 - b) A brief narrative statement of the services rendered and time expended.
- 5) A hearing on whether the case should be dismissed shall be held on October 29, 2018, at 10:00 a.m.
- 6) The following motions scheduled for hearing on October 15, 2018, at 10:00 a.m., are taken off calendar:
 - a) Notice of Motion and Motion for Relief from the Automatic Stay Under 11 U.S.C. §362 [filed by Luis Munoz] [Doc. No. 65];

The estate’s professionals have filed applications seeking compensation in the following amounts:

- 1) The Trustee seeks fees in the amount of $100,000.
- 2) Danning, Gill, Diamond & Kollitz, LLP (“DGDK”), the Trustee’s general bankruptcy counsel, seeks fees in the amount of $121,545 and expenses in the amount of $1,730.18.
- 3) SLBiggs, A Division of SingerLewak (“SLBiggs”), the Trustee’s accounting firm, seeks fees in the amount of $16,596.50 and expenses in the amount of $101.82.

The fees and expenses sought by DGDK and Arent Fox are estimates, as these professionals anticipate performing additional work prior to the hearing on Debtor’s motion for voluntary dismissal that is set for October 29, 2018.

Summary of Papers Filed in Connection with the Trustee’s Fee Application

In support of his request for fees of $100,000, the Trustee acknowledges that “Section 326 of the Bankruptcy Code is not typically used in the determination of a trustee’s compensation in cases of a debtor’s voluntary dismissal.” Doc. No. 171 at 5. The Trustee asserts that he did everything possible to maximize the distribution to creditors and is therefore entitled to compensation. The Trustee maintains that he is entitled to compensation pursuant to In re Woodworth, 70 B.R. 361 (Bankr. N.D.N.Y. 1987), in which the court observed that where “a case is either converted or dismissed, courts have seen fit to compensate the trustee even where no money has been disbursed to creditors, upon a showing that the trustee has performed substantial services on the estate’s behalf.” The Trustee notes that in this case, approximately $6.5 million will be distributed to creditors, which would entitle the Trustee to compensation of approximately $218,250 under the §326 formula. The Trustee contends that his fee request of $100,000 is reasonable under the circumstances.

In opposition to the Trustee’s Fee Application, the Debtor argues that the Trustee has performed minimal work in this case and that any funds distributed to creditors are the result of the Debtor’s efforts in obtaining court authorization to refinance the San Bernardino Property. The Debtor further argues that §326 does not apply, because the San Bernardino Property has not been sold to third parties and therefore has not been administered in a manner entitling the Trustee to compensation. The Debtor further notes that the Trustee’s Fee Application does not contain any billing records and was not filed timely.

In reply to the Debtor’s opposition, the Trustee states that he did not maintain time records because he is not required to do so in the typical Chapter 7 case. The Trustee asserts that he has performed significant work by personally responding “to a never-ending series of problems, inquiries, calls and issues,” a task which “was made more difficult, if not impossible,” by the inadequacy of the Debtor’s initial schedules. Doc. No. 179 at ¶R. Finally, the Trustee argues that the Debtor has only itself to blame for the accrual of the Trustee's fees, because it was the Debtor who chose to seek relief under Chapter 7 when relief should have been sought under Chapter 11.

Summary of Papers Filed in Connection with Arent Fox's Fee Application

Arent Fox, counsel for the Receiver, seeks fees in the estimated amount of $32,324.50 and expenses in the estimated amount of $174.16.

The Debtor argues that Arent Fox's fees should be reduced by $5,777. According to the Debtor, Arent Fox double-billed by unnecessarily sent two attorneys to hearings scheduled on August 22, 2018. The Debtor further contends that Arent Fox overstaffed the matter in conducting administrative follow-up work.

Because this hearing has been set on shortened notice, Arent Fox's reply papers were not yet due as of the issuance of this tentative ruling.

Summary of Papers Filed in Connection with the Motion for Approval of the Receiver's Final Accounting

The Receiver moves for an order (1) approving the Receiver's final accounting; (2) exonerating the Receiver's surety bond; (3) barring any further action against the receivership estate; (4) discharging Matthew L. Taylor as the court receiver in the state court receivership action; and (5) finding that the Receiver's fees are reasonable. Doc. No. 167 (the "Receivership Motion"). The Receiver asserts that the relief that it is requesting is routinely granted and that, pursuant to §543, "Congress has ... authorized bankruptcy courts to review and conclude matters relating to a state court receivership." In re Sundance Corp., Inc., 149 B.R. 641, 649-50 (Bankr. E.D. Wash 1993). No opposition to the Receivership Motion is on file.

II. Findings and Conclusions

A. The Debtor's Objections to Arent Fox's Fee Application are Overruled

Section 330(a)(1) allows the Court to award "reasonable compensation for actual, necessary services rendered" by a professional. In determining the amount of compensation to award, the Court considers the nature, the extent, and the value of such services, taking into account all relevant factors, including—

- (A) the time spent on such services;
- (B) the rates charged for such services;
- (C) whether the services were necessary to the administration of, or beneficial at the time at which the service was rendered toward the completion of, a case under this title;

(D) whether the services were performed within a reasonable amount of time commensurate with the complexity, importance, and nature of the problem, issue, or task addressed;
(E) with respect to a professional person, whether the person is board certified or otherwise has demonstrated skill and experience in the bankruptcy field; and
(F) whether the compensation is reasonable based on the customary compensation charged by comparably skilled practitioners in cases other than cases under this title.

§330(a)(3).

"The statute does not require that the services result in a material benefit to the estate in order for the professional to be compensated; the applicant must demonstrate only that the services were 'reasonably likely' to benefit the estate at the time the services were rendered." Sheridan & Kotel, P.C. v. Bergen Brunswig Drug Co. (In re Mednet), 251 B.R. 103, 108 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 2000).

In determining the amount of allowable fees under §330(a), courts within the Ninth Circuit rely upon the lodestar approach. Under the lodestar approach, the "initial estimate of a reasonable attorney's fee is properly calculated by multiplying the number of hours reasonably expended on the litigation times a reasonable hourly rate. Adjustments to that fee then may be made as necessary in the particular case." Blum v. Stenson, 465 U.S. 886, 888, 104 S. Ct. 1541, 1544, 79 L. Ed. 2d 891 (1984).

Having reviewed Arent Fox's detailed billing records, the Court does not agree with the Debtor's contention that Arent Fox overstaffed the case and double-billed the estate. It is true that two attorneys attended the hearing on August 22, 2018. However, both attorneys had performed substantive work on the case. The Court's review of Arent Fox's billing records indicates that Mr. Flahaut assumed primary responsibility for most matters that arose, but that Mr. Ordubegian also played a significant role. In fact, it was Mr. Ordubegian who made an oral presentation to the Court at the August 22 hearing. Under these circumstances, it was not unreasonable for both Mr. Flahaut and Mr. Ordubegian to attend the August 22 hearing.

The Court notes that the Receiver's counsel was required to advise the Receiver on multiple issues, often on a shortened time frame. Thus, the fact that the Receiver's counsel staffed the case with more than one senior attorney does not indicate that the Receiver was churning fees.

The Debtor's contention that Arent Fox double-billed for administrative work performed on August 28, 2018, is likewise without merit. On that date, Mr. Ordubegian billed $345 for a “call with Trustee’s counsel re transition issues and form of order objections.” Mr. Flahaut billed $672 for preparing a draft order, $448 for a telephone conference with the Trustee’s counsel regarding the proposed order, and $112 for exchanging emails with the Trustee’s counsel regarding the proposed order. The billing entries do not indicate, as the Debtor contends, that Mr. Ordubegian and Mr. Flahaut double-billed for the same work. Mr. Ordubegian billed for consulting with the Trustee’s counsel regarding transition issues and the form that the proposed order should take. Mr. Flahaut performed the entirely different tasks of then drafting the proposed order and following up with the Trustee’s counsel regarding the form of that order.

For the foregoing reasons, the Court awards Arent Fox, on a final basis, fees in the amount of $32,324.50 and expenses in the amount of $174.16. The exact amount of the fees and expenses awarded is subject to adjustment based on any additional work Arent Fox may perform in the litigation of its Fee Application or in connection with this case. By no later than October 19, 2018, Arent Fox shall submit a declaration, setting forth the exact amount of its final fee request. Any opposition to such declaration must be submitted by no later than October 26, 2018. As of October 26, 2018, the matter shall stand submitted and the Court will determine the exact amount of fees allowable to Arent Fox.

B. The Debtor’s Objections to the Trustee’s Fee Application are Overruled

The Court will consider the Trustee’s Fee Application, notwithstanding the fact that it was filed on Monday, October 8, 2018, rather than on Friday, October 5, 2018, as ordered by the Court. The Debtor has not been prejudiced by the slight delay in the filing of the Fee Application. Given the Trustee’s testimony that the untimely filing was the result of an inadvertent oversight, combined with the fact that the hearing on these Fee Applications was set on shortened notice, the untimely filing does not indicate a lack of diligence on the part of the Trustee.

Turning to the merits, §326(a) provides:

In a case under chapter 7 ..., the court may allow reasonable compensation under section 330 of this title of the trustee for the trustee’s services, payable after the trustee renders such services, not to exceed 25 percent on the first $5,000 or less, 10 percent on any amount in excess of $5,000 but not in excess of $50,000, 5 percent on any amount in excess of $50,000 but not in excess of $1,000,000, and reasonable compensation not to exceed 3 percent of such moneys in excess of $1,000,000, upon all moneys disbursed or turned over in the case by the trustee to parties in interest, excluding the debtor, but including holders of secured claims.

Section 330(a)(7) provides:

In determining the amount of reasonable compensation to be awarded to a trustee, the court shall treat such compensation as a commission, based on section 326.

The Debtor contends that §326 is not applicable to this case because it has not been fully administered. The Debtor is mistaken.

There is no requirement within §326 that a case be fully administered, and that the Chapter 7 Trustee file a Final Report and Final Account, in order to receive compensation. To the contrary, the statute allows the Trustee to receive “reasonable compensation” for his services, “payable after the trustee renders such services ...” Courts have held that even where a Trustee does not disburse any funds to creditors, the Trustee may still be entitled to compensation. This line of authority is summarized in In re Woodworth, 70 B.R. 361, 362 (Bankr. N.D.N.Y. 1987):

Consequently, a Chapter 7 trustee who created an asset in a no-asset case by successfully blocking a debtor's discharge was awarded compensation on a quantum meruit basis when the debtor's conversion to Chapter 13 stymied distribution of monies to creditors. Matter of Parameswaran, 64 B.R. 341, 343 (Bankr.S.D.N.Y.1986). Additionally, where a Chapter 7 trustee has actually marshaled assets prior to the debtor's conversion to Chapter 13, the bankruptcy court approved compensation even in the absence of disbursement. In re Schneider, 15 B.R. 744, 745 (Bankr.D.Kan.1981). Compare, In re Yale Mining Corp., 59 B.R. 302 (Bankr.W.D.Va.1986) (A strict interpretation of Code § 326(a) is not warranted absent complete administration, and thus fees paid to a Chapter 11 trustee prior to conversion are not considered when computing subsequent Chapter 7 trustee fees).

In contrast to the cases cited above, here the Trustee will distributed approximately $6.5 million to creditors. If a Trustee is entitled to compensation even where no funds are distributed to creditors, the Trustee here is certainly entitled to compensation.

The Debtor argues that because it was responsible for orchestrating the refinancing transaction, the Trustee has not administered any funds in this case. The Debtor is again incorrect. The Court allowed the Debtor to play a significant role in the refinancing transaction because the transaction furthered the interests of the Debtor, the Trustee and his professionals, creditors, and the objectives of the Bankruptcy Code. Notwithstanding the Debtor's involvement, ultimately it is the Trustee who has administered funds in this case. Any actions taken by the Debtor to facilitate the refinancing transaction were done only in the Debtor's capacity as an agent working on behalf of the Trustee. It is immaterial that the Trustee initially opposed the refinancing transaction and did not cooperate in facilitating the transaction prior to the September 26 hearing. Until this case is dismissed, the Trustee remains the estate's fiduciary, charged with overseeing and liquidating the estate's property, pursuant to § 704(a)(1).

The Debtor cannot justifiably complain of this result, given that it is dictated by the Debtor's decision to seek bankruptcy protection under Chapter 7. The Debtor has previously represented that its decision to seek relief under Chapter 7, rather than Chapter 11, was a mistake resulting from poor legal advice. That reality does not permit the Debtor to escape the consequences of its actions. As a corporation, the Debtor "may appear in federal courts only through licensed counsel." Rowland v. California Men's Colony, Unit II Men's Advisory Council, 506 U.S. 194, 202 (1993). The Debtor is bound by the actions of the counsel it selected. See Link v. Wabash Railroad Co., 370 U.S. 626, 633–34 (1962) ("There is certainly no merit to the contention that dismissal of petitioner's claim because of his counsel's unexcused conduct imposes an unjust penalty on the client. Petitioner voluntarily chose this attorney as his representative in the action, and he cannot now avoid the consequences of the acts or omissions of this freely selected agent. Any other notion would be wholly inconsistent with our system of representative litigation, in which each party is deemed bound by the acts of his lawyer-agent and is considered to have 'notice of all facts, notice of which can be charged upon the attorney.'").

The Ninth Circuit Bankruptcy Appellate Panel ("BAP") explains the proper application of §326(a) as follows:

Section 326(a) provides a formula for determining the maximum compensation a trustee may receive in a chapter 7 case. In our decision in Salgado–Nava, we analyzed the interaction between this maximum compensation formula and the provision of § 330(a)(7) that the bankruptcy court must "treat [a trustee's] compensation as a commission, based on section 326." In re Salgado–Nava, 473 B.R. at 915–22. We held that a trustee's request for compensation should be presumed reasonable as long as the amount requested does not exceed the statutory maximum calculated pursuant to § 326. “[A]bsent extraordinary circumstances, bankruptcy courts should approve chapter 7, 12 and 13 trustee fees without any significant additional review.” Id. at 921. If the court has found that extraordinary circumstances are present, only then does it become appropriate to conduct a further inquiry to “determine whether there exists a rational relationship” between the compensation requested and the services rendered.

Fear v. United States Trustee (In re Ruiz), 541 B.R. 892, 896 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 2015).

Applying the formula set forth in §326(a), the Trustee would be entitled to compensation of approximately $218,250. The Trustee has voluntarily reduced his requested compensation and seeks only $100,000.

The Debtor’s position is that the Trustee should receive nothing. Essentially, the Debtor’s argument is that it was the Debtor who performed the work that lead to the refinancing transaction; that the Trustee’s professionals, rather than the Trustee, did most of the work in this case; and that accordingly, the Trustee is entitled to nothing. The Debtor’s argument misapprehends the system Congress has established for the compensation of Chapter 7 Trustees.

As the Ninth Circuit BAP has observed, in 90% of cases the Trustee can expect to receive at most a flat fee of $60. Hopkins v. Asset Acceptance LLC (In re Salgado-Nava), 473 B.R. 911, 921–22 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 2012). Section 326(a) offsets the low flat fee Trustees receive in most cases by allowing them to obtain a substantial commission in the approximately 10% of cases in which assets are administered. Id. at 922 (explaining that the commission structure for assets cases “has a certain symmetry to it” given that Trustees will receive a flat fee in most cases).

The Trustee has already voluntarily reduced the fees to which he would be entitled under §326 by more than half. The Debtor has failed to show that “extraordinary circumstances” exist warranting any further reduction. Although it is true that it was primarily through the efforts of the Debtor that the refinancing transaction was facilitated, the Trustee still was required to perform significant work in this case—including communicating with his general bankruptcy counsel in connection with multiple hearings, seeking through his counsel the employment of a management company to operate the San Bernardino Property, overseeing the San Bernardino Property’s operations, and attending to various other administrative matters.

The Debtor objects to the Trustee’s Fee Application on the grounds that the Trustee has not submitted any billing records. The Debtor’s objection is overruled. In view of the commission structure under which the Trustee receives compensation, billing records would not be of material assistance to the Court in evaluating the Trustee's request for compensation. The Trustee has plausibly explained that he has not kept any billing records for this matter because in most Chapter 7 cases, he is not required to submit billing records to receive compensation.

C. The Fee Applications of DGDK and SLBiggs is Approved

No opposition to the Fee Applications submitted by DGDK and SLBiggs has been filed. Having reviewed both Fee Applications, the Court finds that the fees and expenses sought are reasonable and approves the applications.

DGDK is awarded, on a final basis, fees in the amount of $121,545 and expenses in the amount of $1,730.18. The exact amount of the fees and expenses awarded to DGDK is subject to adjustment based on any additional work DGDK may perform in the litigation of its Fee Application or in connection with this case. By no later than November 5, 2018, DGDK shall submit a declaration, setting forth the exact amount of its final fee request. Any opposition to such declaration must be submitted by no later than November 12, 2018. As of November 12, 2018, the matter shall stand submitted and the Court will determine the exact amount of fees allowable to DGDK.

SLBiggs is awarded, on a final basis, fees in the amount of $16,596.50 and expenses in the amount of $101.82. As it is not anticipated that SLBiggs will perform any additional work in this case, SLBiggs' fees are not subject to further adjustment.

D. The Receivership Motion is Granted in its Entirety

Section 543(c)(2) provides that the Court may "provide for payment of reasonable compensation for services rendered and costs and expenses incurred by" a professional such as the Receiver. As one court has explained:

[The Bankruptcy Court's] jurisdiction to review the actions and accounting of a state court receiver is found in § 543(c). Through § 543, Congress has apparently authorized bankruptcy courts to review and conclude matters relating to a state court receivership. Since receivership property becomes property of a bankruptcy estate upon the filing of a petition, control and decisions affecting the receivership assets which were formerly in custodia legis of the state court come under and become the domain of the bankruptcy court. Through § 543(c) and § 503(b)(3)(E) Congress gave the bankruptcy courts power to decide all issues concerning charges against that property.

No opposition to the Receiver's request for approval of its final accounting, approval of its fees, exoneration of its surety bond, and entry of an order discharging the Receiver from any obligations or liability in the state court action in which he was initially appointed has been filed. The Court finds that the fees incurred by the Receiver are reasonable and approves the Receiver's final accounting. The remaining relief requested by the Receiver is appropriate and is also granted.

III. Conclusion

Subject to additional argument which may be presented in reply briefs (which are not yet due as of the issuance of this tentative ruling), the Court is prepared to (1) overrule the Debtor's objections to the Fee Applications submitted by the professionals and grant the Fee Applications in their entirety and (2) approve the final accounting submitted by the Receiver, exonerate the Receiver's surety bond, and grant the related relief requested by the Receiver.

This Motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on the notice required by LBR 4001(c)(1) and LBR 9013-1(d)(2). The failure of the Debtor, the trustee, and all other parties in interest to file written opposition at least 14 days prior to the hearing as required by LBR 9013-1(f) is considered as consent to the granting of the Motion. LBR 9013-1(h). Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995).

The Motion is GRANTED pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) to permit Movant, its successors, transferees and assigns, to enforce its remedies to foreclose upon and obtain possession of the property in accordance with applicable law. Movant may not pursue any deficiency claim against the Debtor or property of the estate except by filing a proof of claim pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 501. Movant has established a prima facie case that cause exists, and Debtor has not responded with evidence or argument to contest Movant's papers.

On the record before it, the Court concludes that cause exists to terminate the stay under 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1).

This order shall be binding and effective despite any conversion of the bankruptcy case to a case under any other chapter of Title 11 of the United States Code. All other relief is denied.

Movant is directed to file a supplemental declaration by October 1, 2018 with additional evidence regarding the current value of the Property and an accounting or ledger identifying Debtors' payment history. The deadline for Debtors to file a reply is October 8, 2018.

Pleadings Filed and Reviewed

1. Notice of Motion and Motion for Relief from the Automatic Stay Under 11 U.S.C. § 362 (Real Property) (the "R/S Motion") [Doc. No. 1567]
2. Abram and Ruth Tavera's Opposition to Motion for Relief from the Automatic Stay (the "Opposition") [Doc. No. 1569]
3. Movant has not submitted a reply as of the preparation of this tentative ruling.

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

Motion

Abram and Ruth Tavera ("Debtors") filed a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 on January 26, 2010. On April 3, 2013, Debtors' confirmed their chapter 11 plan [Doc. Nos. 1255, 1299].

Chapter 7

On August 16, 2018, Wilmington Savings Fund Society, FSB, d/b/a Christiana Trust, not individually but as Trustee for Hilldale Trust ("Movant") filed a "Motion for Relief from the Automatic Stay Under 11 U.S.C. § 362 (Real Property)" (the "R/S Motion") [Doc. No. 1567] seeking relief from the automatic stay pursuant to §§ 362(d)(1) and (d)(2) with respect to the Debtors' real property located 10 Club View Lane Rolling Hills Estate, California 90274 (the "Property").

Movant asserts that cause exists to grant relief under § 362(d)(1) and (d)(2) because (i) Debtors have failed to make no less than six post confirmation payments, amounting to $51,264.72 in arrears; and (ii) the Debtors do not have any equity in the Property. In support, Movant states that the total debt owed on the Property is $1,463,212.86, which is comprised of its $1,213,212.86 claim as of July 10, 2018 and a second deed of trust in favor of Citi Mortgage Inc scheduled at $250,000. Movant states that the total debt exceeds the Property's fair market value of $1,100,000, which Movant supports by attaching Debtors' Schedule A as Exhibit 4.

Movant also contends that cause exists to grant relief from stay because the Debtors have failed to make payments in accordance with their confirmed chapter 11 plan. See In re Ellis, 60 B.R. 432, 435 (9th Cir. BAP 1985).

Opposition

On August 31, 2018, the Debtors filed their "Opposition to Motion for Relief from the Automatic Stay" [Doc. No. 1567] (the "Opposition"). Debtors request that the Court deny the R/S Motion because they intend to cure any arrears by the time of the hearing. Debtors state that they have been making monthly payments in good faith and were not aware that they were in default. Debtor also contend that Movant has failed to carry its burden of proof with respect to Debtors' equity in the Property, because Movant's reliance on Debtors' Schedule A (filed over eight years ago) is not an accurate representation of the present value of the Property. Debtors also state that Citi Mortgage's second deed of trust was stripped from the Property when Debtors' plan was confirmed.

Reply

As of the preparation of this ruling, Movant has not filed a reply.

Chapter 7

II. Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law

Under 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1), the Court shall grant relief from the stay "for cause, including the lack of adequate protection of an interest in property of such party in interest."

Movant contends that cause exists to grant relief from stay because its interest in the Property is not protected by an adequate equity cushion. In the Ninth Circuit, "[a] 20% [equity] cushion has been held to be an adequate protection for a secured creditor." In re Mellor, 734 F.2d 1396, 1401 (9th Cir. 1984). Pursuant to section 362(g)(1), Movant has the burden of proof on the issue of the Debtors' equity in the property. 11 U.S.C. § 362(g)(1).

The Court finds that Movant has failed to carry its burden of proof at the preliminary relief from stay stage because the only evidence submitted in support of the Property's current value was Debtors' eight-year-old schedules. The Court does not find this evidence to be a reliable measure of the Property's current value or an adequate basis to determine Movant's equity cushion. See Collier on Bankruptcy ¶ 362.07 (16th 2018) (Recognizing timing of valuation for purposes of adequate protection is not settled law, but concluding that determining value as of the date protection is sought will often be most consistent with the Code scheme). This evidence would also be relevant as to section 362(d)(2).

Therefore, this matter shall be set for a final hearing October 15, 2018 at 10:00 a.m. to consider further argument and evidence. Movant is directed to file a supplemental declaration by October 1, 2018 with additional evidence regarding the current value of the Property and an accounting identifying Debtors' payment history. The deadline for Debtors to file a reply is October 8, 2018.

Movant also contends that cause exists to grant relief from stay because the Debtors have failed to make payments pursuant to their confirmed plan. In support, Movant relies on In re Ellis, 60 B.R. 432, 435 (9th Cir. BAP 1985), in which the Ninth Circuit Bankruptcy Appellate Panel found that a creditor could seek relief from stay even after confirmation of the debtor's plan. However, Ellis involved a chapter 13 debtor and the Panel noted that the analysis might be different if the terms of the debtor's plan had resulted in the property at issue re-vesting in the debtor upon confirmation of the plan.

Chapter 7

Movant did not attach the Debtors' confirmed plan or provide any discussion concerning whether the Property re-vested in the Debtors following confirmation of their plan. Therefore, the Court finds that Movant's reliance on Ellis is not particularly useful to this Court determining whether it is appropriate to grant Movant relief from the stay.

Tentative Ruling:

10/12/2018

Tentative Ruling:

This Motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on the notice required by LBR 4001(c)(1) and LBR 9013-1(d)(2). The failure of the Debtor, the trustee, and all other parties in interest to file written opposition at least 14 days prior to the hearing as required by LBR 9013-1(f) is considered as consent to the granting of the Motion. LBR 9013-1(h). Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995).

The Motion is GRANTED pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) for cause to permit Movant, its successors, transferees and assigns, to enforce its remedies to repossess or otherwise obtain possession and dispose of its collateral pursuant to applicable law, and to use the proceeds from its disposition to satisfy its claim. Movant may not pursue any deficiency claim against the Debtor or property of the estate except by filing a proof of claim pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 501. The Court takes judicial notice of the Chapter 7 Individual Debtor's Statement of Intention in which the Debtor stated an intention to surrender the vehicle to Movant.

This order shall be binding and effective despite any conversion of the bankruptcy case to a case under any other chapter of Title 11 of the United States Code. The 14-day stay prescribed by FRBP 4001(a)(3) is waived. All other relief is denied.

Movant shall upload an appropriate order via the Court's Lodged Order Upload system within 7 days of the hearing.

Subject to any opposition which may be presented at the hearing, the Court is prepared to GRANT the Cash Collateral and Finance Motions on an INTERIM BASIS on the terms set forth below.

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

A. Background

F.A.S.S.T., LLC (the "Debtor" or "FASST") owns and operates a training facility/gymnasium that is open to the public doing business as Velocity Sports Club. The Debtor was established in 2010 as a franchisee of Velocity Sports Performance ("VSP"). The Debtor subsequently became an affiliate of VSP and pays for the use of the name and a listing on the VSP website.

Prior to November 2016, VSP heavily marketed for its franchisees and affiliates. In November 2016, the VSP franchisor changed ownership and, unbeknownst to the Debtor, stopped providing the same level of marketing. The diminished marketing efforts resulted in a decline in membership which, in turn, caused a 25% drop in the Debtor's receivables.

By the time the Debtor learned of the reduced marketing efforts, it had already fallen behind on its monthly rent obligations and was forced to obtain loans from predatory lenders with high interest rates and to incur sizeable credit card obligations. The Debtor has taken steps to create its own website and establish a greater social media presence and, as a result, has seen an increase in membership and profitability. Nevertheless, the Debtor now seeks bankruptcy protection to restructure its debt load, restore profitability, and preserve the value of its assets.

B. The Cash Collateral Motion

The Debtor seeks authorization to use cash collateral to pay the ordinary expenses of operating its business. According to the Debtor, the present amount of total allegedly secured debt is $190,000; however, the Debtor is still investigating the validity of the security interests asserted by various creditors and has been unable to definitively ascertain the amount and priority of secured indebtedness. The Debtor states that it is aware of the following potential secured creditors:

- 1) Cash Capital, a factor who asserts an ownership interest in 12% of the Debtor's receivables, based upon a loan.
- 2) WebBank/Can Capital Asset Servicing, Inc. ("WebBank"), which asserts secured indebtedness of approximately $140,000.
- 3) Three unspecified creditors who have recorded UCC-1 financing statements. The Debtor contests the validity of the asserted security interests based upon the fact that the financing statements were filed under the name of Corporation Servicing Company as "representative" of the creditors.
- 4) Cryo Center, which has also recorded a UCC-1 financing statement. The Debtor contends that it has paid off Cryo Center's indebtedness.

Chapter 11

The Debtor requests authorization to use cash collateral through February 6, 2019, without making any adequate protection payments. The Debtor's position is that it should not be required to make adequate protection payments until it has had additional time to investigate the amount, priority, and validity of the security interests asserted by creditors. The Debtor argues that even if the claims asserted by its lenders are secured, the lenders' security interest is limited to the Debtor's accounts receivable, which the Debtor states are virtually non-existent because its members pay monthly fees via electronic funds transfer. The Debtor's managing member, Charles DeBus, submits a declaration stating that after the Debtor has rebuilt its business, it will generate yearly gross revenues in excess of $1,154,000.

The Debtor asserts that any secured creditors are adequately protected by (1) the continued operation of the Debtor's business and by (2) replacement liens to be granted to any secured creditors.

C. The Finance Motion

The Debtor makes the following arguments and representations in support of the Finance Motion:

The Debtor seeks authorization to borrow up to the sum of $35,000 on a revolving basis from Robert Renae (the "Lender") to supplement the Debtor's ongoing cash flow needs during the pendency of this bankruptcy case. The terms of the proposed loan ("Loan") are as follows:

- i. Amount to be Borrowed: $35,000, on a revolving basis, as needed.
- ii. Interest Rate: 6% per annum, payable, and paid, at the end of each month on outstanding balances.
- iii. Due Date: Variable, i.e., as funds are available. However, the Loan will become completely due and payable on the occurrence of any of the following events: (a) the conversion of this Chapter 11 proceeding to a proceeding under Chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code; (b) the dismissal of the case; or (c) the appointment of a Chapter 11 Trustee.
- iv. Security: None.
- v. Priority of repayment: The Loan shall be granted an administrative priority equal to all other "priority one chapter 11 expenses of administration," provided however, that Lender's claim will be subject to a "carve out" for (i.e., a priority position subordinate to), the following: (a) aggregate unpaid and allowed fees and costs payable under sections 330 and 331 of the Bankruptcy Code to professionals retained by Debtor, including those incurred by General Counsel to Debtor (the Law Offices of Robert M. Yaspan); and (b) the unpaid fees of the Clerk of the Bankruptcy Court and the United States Trustee pursuant to 28 U.S.C. section 1930(a).

The Debtor states that it sought such financing from banking institutions on both a secured and unsecured basis, but its attempts have been unavailing. The Debtor further states that without the Loan, it is concerned that it will not be able to pay its expenses after October 20, 2018.

II. Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law

As a preliminary matter, the Court notes that the declarations regarding service show compliance and attempted compliance with the Court's order setting this matter on shortened notice. Given the exigencies of first day motions, the Court finds that notice of the hearing was adequate.

A. Cash Collateral

Section 363(c)(2) requires court authorization for the use of cash collateral unless "each entity that has an interest in such cash collateral consents." Absent affirmative express consent, the Debtor "may not use" cash collateral absent the Court's determination that the use is "in accordance with the provisions of 11 U.S.C. § 363—that is, that the secured creditor's interest in the cash collateral is adequately protected. 11 U.S.C. §§ 363(c)(2)(B), 363(e).

A secured creditor's interest is adequately protected if the value of its collateral is not declining; the secured creditor is not entitled to payment to compensate for its inability to foreclose upon the collateral during bankruptcy proceedings. United Savings Association of Texas v. Timbers of Inwood Forest Associates, Ltd., 484 U.S. 365 (1988).

For purposes of this emergency hearing only, the Court assumes that Cash Capital, WebBank, and the three unspecified creditors who have recorded UCC-1 financing statements hold valid security interests in the Debtor's revenue. Accordingly, the Debtor's revenue constitutes the cash collateral of such creditors, and the Debtor is authorized to use its revenue only if the creditor's interest in such cash collateral is adequately protected.

Only for purposes of authorizing the interim use of cash collateral, the Court is prepared to find that the secured creditors' interest in cash collateral is adequately protected by (1) the proposed replacement liens and by (2) the replacement income generated by the continued operation of the Debtor's business. See In re Megan-Racine Associates, Inc., 202 B.R. 660, 663 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1996) (concluding that "[a]s long as there was a continuous income stream being generated by the Debtor, the fact that the Debtor consumed a portion of those monies to operate and maintain the facility each month did not diminish the value of the [secured creditor's] interest in the [cash collateral]").

The Court finds that the Debtor will suffer irreparable harm absent the interim use of cash collateral. Absent the use of cash collateral, the Debtor's ability to pay the expenses necessary to maintain business operations will be severely circumscribed.

A further interim hearing on the continued use of cash collateral shall take place on Monday, November 19, 2018, at 10:00 a.m. The Debtor shall provide notice of the further interim hearing, and shall file a proof of service so indicating, by no later than October 17, 2018. The Debtor shall submit additional evidence in support of the continued use of cash collateral by no later than November 5, 2018. Such additional evidence shall include, at a minimum, an updated budget and updated financial projections. The Debtor is advised that the evidentiary showing it has made in connection with this hearing will not likely be sufficient to support the continued use of cash collateral beyond November 19. In particular, notwithstanding the fact that under §363(p) it is creditors who have the burden of proof regarding the validity, priority, and extent of a security interest, the minimal and conclusory evidence supplied by the Debtor in support of its challenge to the validity of the security interests at issue here is not sufficient to excuse the Debtor from complying with its adequate protection obligations. With respect to those adequate protection obligations, it is of substantial concern to the Court that the Debtor has failed to supply meaningful evidence (1) regarding the value of its business or (2) regarding the contention that its

Any opposition to the use of cash collateral beyond November 19 shall be submitted by no later than November 12, 2018. The Debtor's reply, if any, shall be submitted by no later than November 15, 2018.

B. DIP Financing

Section 364 provides in relevant part:

- (b) The court, after notice and a hearing, may authorize the trustee to obtain unsecured credit or to incur unsecured debt other than under subsection (a) of this section, allowable under section 503(b)(1) of this title as an administrative expense.

11 U.S.C. § 364(b).

Having reviewed the declaration submitted by Charles DeBus, the Debtor's managing member (the "DeBus Decl."), the Court finds that the terms of the proposed Loan are reasonable and that the Debtor was unable to obtain financing on more favorable terms than those proposed by the Lender. DeBus Decl., ¶ 49. The Court further finds that the Debtor requires the use of the $35,000 Loan, on an interim basis, in order to avoid irreparable harm to the continued operation of its business. Therefore, the Debtor is authorized to obtain the proposed Loan.

A final hearing on the Financing Motion shall take place on November 19, 2018, at 10:00 a.m., concurrently with the further interim hearing on the Cash Collateral Motion. The Debtor shall provide notice of the final hearing, and shall file a proof of service so indicating, by no later than October 17, 2018. Opposition to the Financing Motion shall be submitted by no later than November 5, 2018. The Debtor's reply in support of the Financing Motion shall be submitted by no later than November 12, 2018.

The Debtor must lodge a conforming proposed order within 7 days of the hearing.

- i. The Debtor sells monthly memberships for $99/month. Accordingly, most of the Debtor's members pre-paid dues for post-petition periods.
- ii. Independent trainers bring their clients into the gym and pay rent for the use of the gym for a thirty-day period. All of the independent trainers' clients pay their trainers directly, but each of their clients must become a member of the Debtor's gym.
- iii. The Debtor sells its own pre-paid personal training packages that do not expire. The Debtor estimates that it had approximately $15,000 in pre-paid personal training services as of the petition date.
- iv. The Debtor is required by California law to refund new memberships in full if requested within five days following signing up.

The Debtor states that continued compliance with California law and the ability to honor and maintain its Customer Obligations is critical to its continued operation and success in this chapter 11 case.

Chapter 11

As a preliminary matter, the Court notes that the declarations regarding service show compliance and attempted compliance with the Court's order setting this matter on shortened notice. Given the exigencies of first day motions, the Court finds that notice of the hearing was adequate.

Section 507(a)(7) provides for a priority claim with respect to deposits, as follows:

[A]llowed unsecured claims of individuals, to the extent of $2,775 for each such individual, arising from the deposit, before the commencement of the case, of money in connection with the purchase, lease or rental of property, or the purchase of services, for the personal, family, or household use of such individuals, that were not delivered or provided.

11 U.S.C. § 507(a)(7).

Here, the Court finds that many, if not all, of the Customer Obligations identified above constitute consumer deposits entitled to priority pursuant to § 507(a)(7).

Additionally, the Customer Obligations appear to be transactions in the ordinary course of business for which Court approval is not required. Nevertheless, to the extent any of the transactions could be construed as being outside of the ordinary course, the Court finds that section 363(b) provides authority for the Debtor to pay pre-petition customer claims, if any, in excess of the $2,775 priority limit and those customer claims which are not the equivalent of a return of deposits. See e.g., In re Ionosphere Clubs, Inc., 98 B.R. 174, 175 (S.D.N.Y. 1989) ("Section 363(b) gives the court broad flexibility in tailoring its orders to meet a wide variety of circumstances. However, the debtor must articulate some business justification, other than mere appeasement of major creditors, for using . . . property out of the ordinary course of business . . ."). As set forth in the DeBus declaration, compliance with California law, the continued loyalty of the Debtor's existing members, and the Debtor's ability to attract new members is critical to its continued ability to operate and to successfully reorganize. DeBus Decl., ¶ 73. If the Debtor is not permitted to honor the Customer Obligations, then members will lose confidence in the Debtor's gym and likely take their memberships to competitors. Id.

The Debtor has established that there is a strong likelihood that it would suffer irreparable harm if it is not able to honor its prepetition Customer Obligations. The viability of any reorganization depends upon the Debtor being able to maintain existing members and attract new members. Accordingly, the Court finds that allowing the Debtor to honor its prepetition Customer Obligations is in the best interest of Debtor's creditors.

Based upon the foregoing, the Prepetition Customer Obligations Motion is GRANTED on the terms set forth above.

The Debtor must lodge a conforming proposed order within 7 days of the hearing.

RE: [9] Emergency Motion For Order Authorizing (1) Payment Of Prefiling Payroll; And (2) Payment Of Independent Contractor Obligations

Docket 9

Tentative Ruling:

10/14/2018:

Subject to any opposition which may be presented at the hearing, the Court is prepared to GRANT the Prepetition Wages Motion on the terms set forth below.

Pleadings Filed and Reviewed

1. Emergency Motion for Order Authorizing (1) Payment of Prefiling Payroll; and (2) Payment of Independent Contractor Obligations [Doc. No. 9] (the "Prepetition Wages Motion" or "Motion")
 - a) Declaration of Charles DeBus In Support of First-Day Motions [Doc. No. 15] (the "DeBus Declaration" or "DeBus Decl.")
 - b) Amended Order Setting Hearing on First Day Motions [Doc. No. 18]

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

A. Background

F.A.S.S.T., LLC (the "Debtor" or "FASST") owns and operates a training facility/gymnasium that is open to the public doing business as Velocity Sports Club. The Debtor was established in 2010 as a franchisee of Velocity Sports Performance ("VSP"). The Debtor subsequently became an affiliate of VSP and pays for the use of the name and a listing on the VSP website.

Prior to November 2016, VSP heavily marketed for its franchisees and affiliates. In November 2016, the VSP franchisor changed ownership and, unbeknownst to the Debtor, stopped providing the same level of marketing. The diminished marketing efforts resulted in a decline in membership which, in turn, caused a 25% drop in the Debtor's receivables.

By the time the Debtor learned of the reduced marketing efforts, it had already fallen behind on its monthly rent obligations and was forced to obtain loans from predatory lenders with high interest rates and to incur sizeable credit card obligations. The Debtor has taken steps to create its own website and establish a greater social media presence and, as a result, has seen an increase in membership and profitability. Nevertheless, the Debtor now seeks bankruptcy protection to restructure its debt load, restore profitability, and preserve the value of its assets.

B. Motion for Order Authorizing (1) Payment of Prefiling Payroll; and (2) Payment of Independent Contractor Obligations

The Employees

The Debtor states that aside from insiders of the Debtor, it currently employs four employees (the "Employees") that are necessary for its continued operation and successful reorganization. The Debtor also employs one insider-employee, Cathy DeBus, who is a trainer at the gym (the "Insider Trainer") and vital to the Debtor's continued operations.

The Debtor seeks authorization to pay the Employees $4,598 and the Insider Trainer $2,802 on October 15, 2018 for prepetition wages. [Note 1] These wages represent payment for services provided from September 16, 2018 to September 30, 2018. The Debtor also seeks authorization to pay the Employees $2,349 and the Insider Trainer $1,401 on November 1, 2018 for prepetition wages. These wages represent payment for services provided from October 1, 2018 to October 8, 2018.

Finally, the Debtor seeks authorization to pay accrued prepetition vacation pay to the Employees and Insider Trainer in the regular course of business.

The Debtor submits that the total pre-petition payroll, including accrued vacation benefits, is less than the $12,850 limit imposed by section 507.

The Independent Contractors

The Debtor states that its business operations also rely on the services of eleven independent contractor trainers who are paid based on the number of personal training sessions that they handle on the Debtor's behalf (the "Independent Contractors"). The Debtor states that absent payment, the Independent Contractors will likely leave the gym and take members with them. The Debtor does not believe it would be able to find replacement trainers quickly enough to avoid irreparable damage to its business operations.

The Independent Contractors are paid on the same pay schedule as the Employees. Accordingly, the Debtor seeks authorization to pay the Independent Contractors $9,200 on October 15, 2018 for the September 16, 2018 to September 30, 2018 prepetition period and approximately $5,000 on November 1, 2018 for the October 1, 2018 to October 8, 2018 prepetition period.

Paychex

The Debtor also seeks authority to pay its payroll servicer, Paychex, Inc., no more than $500 so that it will continue doing service with the Debtor and handle the Debtor's payroll.

II. Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law

Section 507(a)(4) designates "wages, salaries, or commissions, including vacation, severance, and sick leave pay" that are earned by an individual "within 180 days before the date of the filing of the petition" as a fourth-priority claim. Additionally, § 507(a)(4) imposes a limit of $12,850.00 for each individual employee for priority status. A leading national bankruptcy treatise explains:

[B]ecause wages are priority claims, courts have often permitted debtors to pay prepetition wage claims in the ordinary course in response to a motion filed by a debtor in possession at the commencement of a chapter 11 case. The ability to ensure that the employees receive their unpaid prepetition salary and do not miss a paycheck is critical to obtaining the stability necessary for the transition to operating as a debtor in possession. If wage claims were not entitled to priority, it would be difficult to justify 'first day' orders approving payments of prepetition wages. There is no clear statutory authority for such first day orders, although a court with some confidence in the debtor's ability to satisfy claims through the third priority could justify the order under section 105.

COLLIER ON BANKRUPTCY ¶ 507.06[2] (16th ed. 2017).

Local Bankruptcy Rule 2081-1(a) provides that a motion to pay prepetition payroll must be supported by evidence that establishes the following: "(A) The employees are still employed; (B) The necessity for payment; (C) The benefit of the procedures; (D) The prospect of reorganization; (E) Whether the employees are insiders; (F) Whether the employees' claims are within the limits established by 11 U.S.C. § 507; and that (G) The payment will not render the estate administratively insolvent."

Having reviewed the declaration of Charles DeBus, the Court finds that the Debtor has established the necessity of paying the Employees the prepetition wages as requested in the Prepetition Wages Motion. The Employees that are the subject of the Motion remain employed by the Debtor and are critical to the Debtor's continued operations. The aggregate amount of wages to be paid to all four Employees is $6,950. Therefore, the wages to be paid fall well below the §507(a)(4) priority claim limit of $12,850. None of the Employees who will receive payment are insiders. The Debtor states that the payments will not render the estate administratively insolvent. Finally, the Debtor has made a sufficient showing that it has a reasonable prospect of reorganization. Accordingly, the Debtor is authorized to pay the Employees as set forth in the Motion.

For the same reasons, the Court finds it appropriate to authorize Debtor to pay the prepetition wages of the Insider Trainer. However, the Debtor is not authorized to pay the Insider Trainer any amounts owing for prepetition services until the applicable deadlines set forth in Local Bankruptcy Rule 2014-1(a) have passed.

As for the Independent Contractors' claims, the Court will authorize the Debtor to pay prepetition compensation under the necessity of payment doctrine. To justify paying critical vendors' prepetition claims under § 363(b)(1), the debtor-in-possession must establish that: (1) those critical vendors are indeed critical and have refused to do business with a debtor absent payment; and (2) only if the court finds that the disfavored creditors will be at least as well off as a result of the court's granting critical vendor status to the select vendors. Id.; see also In re Kmart Corp., 359 F.3d 866, 873 (7th Cir. 2004) (discussing a requirement, for any critical vendor order, that there be evidence of a "prospect of benefit to the other creditors").

While some courts use their equitable powers to grant "critical" vendors payment under the necessity of payment doctrine, other courts have been unwilling to do so. Compare In re Jeans.com, Inc., 502 B.R. 250, 254 (Bankr. D. P.R. 2013) (discussing the history and collection of cases dealing with the doctrine), with In re B & W Enters., Inc., 713 F.2d 534, 537 (9th Cir. 1983) (stating that "absent compelling reasons" it is "unwise to tamper with the statutory priority scheme"). At least one court in the Ninth Circuit has held that the "Code does not expressly authorize courts to allow preferential payment of prepetition obligations in contravention of its claims priority scheme or outside of a confirmed plan of reorganization." In re Berry Good, LLC, 400 B.R. 741, 746 (Bankr. D. Ariz. 2008) (citing In re B & W Enters., Inc., 713 F.2d at 537). Other courts, however, recognize § 363(b) as a source of authority to make critical vendor payments. In re Tropical Sportswear Int'l Corp., 320 B.R. 15, 20 (Bankr. M.D. Fla. 2005) (holding that a debtor-in-possession may, after a noticed hearing, use property of the estate to pay a prepetition debt in order to keep "critical" supplies flowing "in the ordinary course of business").

The Court notes that in dicta, the Supreme Court has recently noted that Bankruptcy Courts have approved "'critical vendor' orders that allow payment of an essential suppliers' prepetition invoices." Czyzewski v. Jevic Holding Corp., 137 S. Ct. 973, 985, 197 L. Ed. 2d 398 (2017). The Supreme Court's statement in Jevic obviously was not a holding upon the validity of a critical vendor order; nonetheless, the Supreme Court's acknowledgment that Bankruptcy Courts have reasoned that critical vendor orders are necessary to "enable a successful reorganization and make even the disfavored creditors better off" is significant. Id. at 985.

More on point, in the context of a cross-collateralization clause, the Ninth Circuit has recognized that "[c]ases have permitted unequal treatment of pre-petition debts when necessary for rehabilitation, in such contexts as (i) pre-petition wages to key employees; (ii) hospital malpractice premiums incurred prior to filing; (iii) debts to providers of unique and irreplaceable supplies; and (iv) peripheral benefits under labor contracts." Burchinal v. Central Wash. Bank (In re Adams Apple, Inc.), 829 F.2d 1484, 1490 (9th Cir. 1987). The Ninth Circuit's recognition of the necessity of paying prepetition debts to "providers of unique and irreplaceable supplies" is particularly salient; that relief is most analogous to the relief sought by the instant Motion.

In this case, the Court is persuaded that the Independent Contractors are critical vendors. [Note 2] Mr. DeBus states that the Independent Contractors are necessary to continue the operations of the Debtor's business and will likely stop work and take members with them if they do not receive payment. DeBus Decl., ¶ 36. In this regard, Debtor's creditors will be better off if the Independent Contractors are paid because the Debtor will be able to continue to operate and generate income. The same reasoning applies to the Debtor's request to pay Paychex.

Based upon the foregoing, the Prepetition Wages Motion is GRANTED on the terms set forth above.

The Debtor must lodge a conforming proposed order within 7 days of the hearing.

Note 1: Debtor states that it is serving a Request for Insider Compensation upon the creditor body with respect to the post-filing compensation to be earned by Cathy DeBus during the Chapter 11. Motion, p. 5: 13-16. Debtor further states that the post-filing portion of the insider payments will not be paid until the requisite time has passed with respect to the Insider Compensation Request. Motion, p. 5:16-18; DeBus Declaration, ¶ 32. However, the Debtor is not authorized to make any payments to Ms. DeBus for pre-filing compensation until the deadlines set forth in Local Bankruptcy Rule 2014-1(a) expire.

Note 2: However, in so holding, the Court notes that for the purpose of authorizing prepetition wages to be paid to independent contractors who are critical to the Debtor's business operations such as in this case, the Independent Contractors may be more appropriately classified as quasi-employees. To the extent that such Independent Contractors do qualify as quasi-employees, their entitlement to a priority claim under § 507(a)(4) furnishes an additional basis for the Court's ruling.

Tentative Ruling:

10/15/2018

On November 16, 2017, the Court entered an order staying this adversary proceeding pending the completion of Defendant's appeal of the State Court Judgment giving rise to the indebtedness alleged to be non-dischargeable. On April 16, 2018, the California Court of Appeal reversed and remanded to the trial court the portion of the State Court Judgment awarding attorneys' fees. On August 15, 2018, the trial court set the amount of attorneys' fees.

Plaintiff's position is that the issue of dischargeability can now be adjudicated by way of a motion for summary judgment. The Court agrees that a motion for summary judgment would be the most expeditious way to resolve this litigation. By no later than November 13, 2018, Plaintiff shall file and set for hearing a motion for summary judgment. In the event that summary judgment does not resolve the action, the Court will set pretrial conference and trial dates.

A continued status conference shall be held on December 11, 2018, at 10:00 a.m. A Joint Status Report must be submitted by no later than fourteen days prior to the hearing.

The Court will prepare and enter an appropriate order.

Docket 1

Tentative Ruling:

10/15/2018

On March 1, 2018, Plaintiff commenced a complaint against the Debtor/Defendant in the United States District Court for the Central District of California (the "District Court"), asserting claims for breach of contract, unfair competition and false advertising, trademark dilution, and trademark infringement (the "District Court Action"). Debtor/Defendant filed a voluntary Chapter 7 petition on April 23, 2018. On May 4, 2018, the District Court stayed the District Court Action pending resolution of Debtor/Defendant's bankruptcy proceeding.

By separate order, the Court will require Plaintiff and Debtor/Defendant to show cause why the Court should not sua sponte lift the automatic stay to allow the District Court Action to proceed. In the Court's view, the most efficient way to resolve this action is for Plaintiff to prosecute the District Court Action to final judgment. In the event Plaintiff obtains a final judgment in its favor, Plaintiff may then return to this Court for a determination as to whether the indebtedness established by that judgment is dischargeable.

No appearance is required if submitting on the court's tentative ruling. If you intend to submit on the tentative ruling, please contact Jessica Vogel or Daniel Koontz at 213-894-1522. If you intend to contest the tentative ruling and appear, please first contact opposing counsel to inform them of your intention to do so. Should an opposing party file a late opposition or appear at the hearing, the court will determine whether further hearing is required. Fee Amount $350 Nature of Suit: (02 (Other (e.g. other actions that would have been brought in state court if unrelated to bankruptcy)))

Docket 0

Tentative Ruling:

10/15/2018

On January 5, 2018, Plaintiff filed an action in the Los Angeles Superior Court (the "State Court") seeking a judgment confirming Plaintiff's title to and interest in property located at 2160 Century Park East, #812, Los Angeles, CA 90067 (the "Condo"). On May 22, 2018, Debtor/Defendant Fatemeh V. Mahdavi, who asserts an interest in the Condo, filed a voluntary Chapter 7 petition. The State Court Action also named as defendants the Debtor's spouse, Ali Rez Mahdavi, and Daria Asya Selivanova.

On August 20, 2018, Plaintiff removed the State Court Action to the Bankruptcy Court. Plaintiff asserts that removal is appropriate because the action seeks a determination as to whether the Condo is property of the estate. On October 4, 2018, Plaintiff dismissed its claims against Selivanova.

Plaintiff's counsel has advised counsel to the Chapter 7 Trustee (the "Trustee") that Plaintiff intends to file an amended complaint which names the Trustee as a defendant. The Trustee is willing to stipulate to an amended complaint, provided that the Trustee is provided the opportunity to assert an answer and counterclaims.

In view of the estate's potential interest in the Condo, the Court believes that an amended complaint would be appropriate. Plaintiff shall file and serve an amended complaint by no later than October 30, 2018. The Trustee shall be permitted to file an answer and counterclaims to the amended complaint. Upon the filing of the amended complaint, the Court will issue a new Scheduling Order setting forth the dates that shall govern this action.

The Court will prepare and enter an appropriate order.

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

Fu Kong Inc. (the "Debtor"), filed a voluntary Chapter 11 petition on June 26, 2018 (the "Petition") [Doc. No. 1]. The Debtor is an importer, wholesaler, and designer of women's apparel under the brands "Lu Lu" and "Shu Shu." The Debtor has 29 years of experience in the industry and has created designs and sold women's apparel under various labels to high end retailers such as Nordstrom, Saks, Lord & Taylor, Dillard's, Macy's, and Stein Mart. Lillian Yu-Li Hsu is the Debtor's president, sole shareholder, and sole director; George Hsu was, until his termination on August 1, 2018, the Debtor's secretary.

The Petition was precipitated by the Debtor's recent cash flow problems due to a slowdown in business in the last three to six months, and a delayed shipment due to production issues in China which delay resulted in a number of the Debtor's customers to cancel orders. The Debtor's ability to generate income was also interfered with for a few weeks due to the father of George Hsu having an emergency health issue.

On June 1, 2018, the Debtor's secured lender, Cathay Bank (the "Secured Lender"), filed a lawsuit against the Debtor in Los Angeles Superior Court, Case No. KC070342 (the "State Court Action"), for failing to make payments on a business loan, seeking possession of the Debtor's assets and appointment of a receiver, foreclosure of the commercial warehouse leased by the Debtor, and foreclosure of Lillian and George Hsu's principal residence. Other of the Debtor's creditors have also recently began attempting to collect debts.

On July 9, 2018, the Debtor filed the "Motion for Order: (1) Authorizing Debtor to Use Cash Collateral; (2) Granting Adequate Protection to Secured Creditors" (the "Emergency Cash Collateral Motion") [Doc. No. 11]. The Debtor submitted the "Original Budget" [Doc. No. 11, Ex. 1] in connection with the Emergency Cash Collateral Motion. On July 13, 2018, the Court held a hearing on the Emergency Cash Collateral Motion, and on July 16, 2018, the Court entered the "Order (1) Authorizing Debtor to Use Cash Collateral On An Interim Basis Through and Including August 9, 2018, (2) Granting Adequate Protection to Cathay Bank, and (3) Setting Continued Hearing on the Further Interim Use of Cash Collateral" (the "Interim Order") [Doc. No. 21]. Pursuant to the Interim Order, on July 16, 2018, the Debtor made an adequate protection payment in the amount of $6,780.32 to Cathay Bank. "Declaration of George Hsu" (the "Hsu Declaration") [Doc. No. 40] at ¶ 13¹ [Note 1].

The Renewed Cash Collateral Motion

On July 26, 2018, the Debtor filed the "Motion for Order Authorizing Further Interim Use of Cash Collateral" (the "Renewed Cash Collateral Motion") [Doc. No. 40].

The Secured Lender is the holder of a promissory note in the total current amount of $1,574,163.00 (the "Loan"), secured by the Debtor's assets including inventory and accounts receivable. The Secured Lender's Loan is also secured by two real properties: (1) the Loan is secured by a second deed of trust on the Debtor's principals' residence located at 1324 N. Vosburg Dr., Azusa, CA 91702 (the "Vosburg Property"), which was appraised at $1.225 million on September 20, 2017, with approximately $975,000.00 in equity to satisfy the Loan; and (2) the Loan is secured by a second deed of trust on the industrial warehouse leased by the Debtor located at 2455 Lee Avenue, S. El Monte, CA 91733 (the "El Monte Property"), which was appraised at $2.0 million as of July 22, 2018, see "Declaration of Tony Hwang" (the "Hwang Declaration") [Doc. No. 40], Ex. 3, with approximately $941,919.35 in equity. Based on these figures, the Secured Lender is protected by equity in the approximate amount of $1,916,919.35 on the $1,574,163.00 principal balance of the Loan.

The Debtor has four additional working capital lenders that each have UCC-1 security interests in the Debtor's assets and accounts receivable: (1) Funding Metrics, LLC; (2) Landing Club Corp; (3) Wide Merchant Investment Inc.; and (4) Yellowstone Capital West, LLC (collectively, the "Capital Secured Creditors").

As of July 26, 2018, the Debtor has $11,761.91 in cash, and the Debtor anticipates that as of August 10, 2018, the Debtor will have approximately $18,949.91 in cash. Renewed Cash Collateral Motion at 7. The Debtor seeks authorization to continue to use the cash collateral in accordance with the "Amended Budget", see Hsu Declaration, Ex. 1, for the period of August 10, 2018 through and including December 31, 2018. Beginning in September or October 2018, the Debtor projects up to $100,000.00 to $200,000.00 in monthly gross revenue at a 15% to 20% profit margin through selling custom fabrics. The Debtor additionally submits further documentation to support the income projections in the Amended Budget. See Renewed Cash Collateral Motion, Ex. 5 ("Purchase Orders and Documentation Supporting Income Projections"). These documents purport to show that the Debtor has received $438,952.40 in purchase orders, with an additional $53,400.00 in pending purchase orders; however, the Amended Budget projects $850,000.00 in income for the period of August through December 2018 "because Debtor believes it will be able to generate such income." Renewed Cash Collateral Motion at 12; Hsu Declaration at ¶ 34. Just over half of the purchase orders, which total $438,952.40, consist of certain unsigned purchase orders by Pacico, Inc., dated July 26, 2018, which orders collectively total $298,200.00. See Renewed Cash Collateral Motion, Ex. 5. The Debtor further states that its belief in this regard is based on the Debtor anticipating large purchase orders from Intex Usa, Inc., and Casual Express Apparel, Inc. Id.

The Amended Budget represents the Debtor's best estimate of the necessary business expenses; however, because the needs of the business may fluctuate, the Debtor requests authority to deviate from the total expenses contained in the Amended Budget by no more than 20% and to deviate by expense category without the need for further court order. The Amended Budget reflects certain changes in response to the Court's Interim Cash Collateral Order. Among these changes, the Amended Budget: (1) provides for payment of rent on the El Monte Property in the amount of $5,000.00 per month, reduced from $10,000.00 per month in the Original Budget; (2) does not include a line item for payment of property tax on the El Monte Property, because the lessors are responsible for payment of such taxes; (3) the line item for "Auto Expense" is reduced to $500 per month, which the Debtor explains is a car allowance paid by the Debtor to Lillian Hsu for the business use of her personal car, see Renewed Cash Collateral Motion at 9; (4) includes a line item for "Commission" in varying amounts for each of the months August through December 2018, which expense is necessary to pay the Debtor's "road representatives" who travel to various stores around the country to promote and sell the Debtor's products, see id. at 10; and (5) includes a line item for "Wages" in the amount of $26,000.00, which expense is necessary to pay the Debtor's Principals, and which will only be paid after the expiration of the 15-day period required for insider compensation, see id. at 11 (on July 25, 2018 the Debtor filed the "Notice of Setting/Increasing Insider Compensation" for each of the Debtor's Principals, see Doc. Nos. 35, 36).

The Debtor contends that the use of cash collateral is necessary to continue business operations. The Debtor states that, based on the figures set forth above, the Secured Lender is adequately protected by the Debtor's inventory (which, according to the Debtor, has an approximate value of $1.4 million), the equity in the Vosburg Property and the El Monte Property, and has an equity cushion of approximately 21.77%. The Debtor disputes the appraisal figures relied on by the Secured Lender in its Opposition to the Emergency Cash Collateral Motion [Doc. No. 18], wherein the Secured Lender contends that its loan is not fully secured. The Debtor contends that the Secured Lender's respective appraisals of the Vosberg Property and the El Monte Property, which were based on exterior viewings, are less reliable than the Debtor's respective appraisals, which were based on full inspections. Compare "Declaration of Glenn W. Lee" (the "Lee Declaration") [Doc. No. 18] at ¶ 4, and "Declaration of Thomas C. Anderson" (the "Anderson Declaration") [Doc. No. 18] at ¶ 4 (Secured Lender's appraisals), with "Declaration of Frank Avina" [Doc. No. 40] at ¶ 2 & Ex. 2, and Hwang Declaration, Ex. 3 (Debtor's appraisal of the El Monte Property as of July 22, 2018). Based on its appraisal figures, the Debtor further contends that it should not be required to make any further adequate protection payments to the Secured Lender. Additionally, the Debtor states that the Secured Lender and the Capital Secured Creditors are adequately protected by the Debtor's continued business operations because the Debtor will continue to generate revenue and preserve the business.

The Renewed Opposition

On August 2, 2018, the Secured Lender filed the "Further Opposition of Creditor, Cathay Bank to [the Renewed Cash Collateral Motion]" (the "Renewed Opposition") [Doc. No. 46]. The Secured Lender opposes further use of the cash collateral by the Debtor. According to the Renewed Opposition, as of June 29, 2018, the total owing on the Loan is $1,589,689.04. Both the Vosburg Property and the El Monte Property are owned by Lillian and George Hsu. Renewed Opposition at 4. In addition to the Loan to the Debtor, the Secured Lender has made two additional loans to the Hsus, personally: a home equity line of credit secured by a first deed of trust on the Vosburg Property, and a commercial real estate loan secured by a first deed of trust on the El Monte Property. The Debtor defaulted on the Loan after failing to make the payment due on February 18, 2018. The Loan matured on June 18, 2018.

On June 1, 2018, the Secured Lender commenced the State Court Action, and on June 5, 2018, the State Court entered a temporary restraining order and an order to show cause re: appointment of receiver. During the period from the issuance of the TRO on June 5, 2018, through June 26, 2018, the Secured Lender experienced significant difficulties in its attempts to get the Debtor's compliance with the TRO. Such difficulties included, among other things, multiple delays by the Debtor's principals of the field examination of the Debtor's records, and the Debtor's failure to produce certain documents requested by the Secured Lender. The hearing on the State Court OSC was set for June 27, 2018, and on June 26, 2018, the State Court entered its tentative ruling granting the receivership and related relief. The Debtor filed the Petition shortly thereafter.

The Secured Lender points out the following discrepancies with respect to the Renewed Cash Collateral Motion, the Debtor's Schedules, and certain past representations made to the Secured Lender:

- (1) Schedule A/B, ¶ 11, lists the amount of accounts receivable as $3,250.00; however, in written financial statements provided by the Debtor to the Secured Lender pre-petition, the Debtor represented that as of December 31, 2017, it had $1,200,370.78 in accounts receivable. The Secured Lender argues that the Debtor has failed to explain this discrepancy. Furthermore, at the 341(a) meeting of creditors on August 1, 2018, Ms. Hsu testified that the December 31, 2017 financial statements were inaccurate. Supplemental Bloom Declaration at ¶ 4(a).

- (2) The Debtor's Statement of Financial Affairs, Part 1, states that the gross sales of the Debtor in 2017 totaled "$1,200,00.00" [sic]; however, in the 2017 Financial Statements provided to the Secured Lender, the gross sales of the Debtor were stated as $6,250,267.00. Renewed Opposition at 5. The Secured Lender argues that based on the Debtor's failure to explain this discrepancy, it continues to appear that either the 2017 signed financial statement given by the Debtor to the Secured Lender, or the Debtor's Schedules, are fraudulent. Id.

The Renewed Opposition further contends that, notwithstanding the changes to the Amended Budget as compared to the Original Budget, the Amended Budget is unrealistic based on the disparity between the Amended Budget's projections and the Debtor's past performance. The Debtor's 2016 tax return shows that the Debtor had gross sales in the amount of $6,167,200.00, and reported cost of goods sold of $4,783,280.00 (77.6% cost of goods). The Debtor's unaudited 2017 Financial statements show that the Debtor had gross sales in the amount of $6,250,267.00, and reported cost of goods sold of $4,898,057.00 (78.4% cost of goods). In contrast, the Amended Budget projects gross sales of $850,000.00, with a projected cost of goods sold of 60.06% of the projected gross sales. The Renewed Opposition raises additional issues regarding the assumption in the Budget that the Debtor will be able to obtain new credit, as well as significant discrepancies between the Debtor's net profit before taxes in 2016 and 2017 (.9% and 1.7% of gross sales, respectively), and the projected net profit before taxes of 30.7% of gross sales in the Budget. Furthermore, the Opposition contends that the Amended Budget is not supported by sufficient documentation or business records. Specifically, the Secured Lender argues that the newly provided "purchase orders" from Pacico, Inc., are not signed, and fail to set forth material provisions such as payment terms, delivery terms, and cancellation terms. Furthermore, the Pacico purchase orders only account for part of the $855,000.00 in projected sales, without any documentation to support the remaining projections. Previously, the Secured Lender discovered that the Debtor "maintained no general ledger and that no accounts receivable ageings were available, no inventory ageings were available, and the Debtor's accounts payable ageings appear[ed] to be highly inaccurate" "Declaration of Margaret Waye" ("Waye Declaration") [Doc. No. 18] at ¶¶ 16, 20, 21, 22. The Renewed Opposition also contends that the Debtor still has not provided sufficient information with respect to the lease of the El Monte Property

Lastly, the Renewed Opposition contends that the Secured Lender's interest in the collateral is not adequately protected. The Secured Lender disputes the Debtor's valuation of the Vosburg Property and El Monte Property. First, the Secured Lender points out that the Court previously rejected the Debtor's appraisal of the Vosburg Property, yet the Debtor submits the same appraisal in support of the Renewed Cash Collateral Motion. Thus, the Secured Lender contends that based on the its appraisal of the Vosburg Property on May 7, 2018, the Vosburg Property has a value of $978,000.00, leaving gross equity in the amount of $696,258.71 (including a reduction for delinquent property taxes). Regarding the El Monte Property, the Secured Lender argues that the Debtor's appraisal inflates the value of the El Monte Property by simply adding $200,000.00 to $250,000.00 in adjustments to the comparable sales. Additionally, the Secured Lender discovered that there is an additional third deed of trust in the amount of over $1 million recorded against the El Monte Property, which means that the encumbrances greatly exceed the amount of any appraisal.

The Reply

The Debtor filed the Reply to the Renewed Opposition on August 6, 2018 (the "Reply") [Doc. No. 48]. At the outset, the Debtor admits the misconduct of its now-former secretary, George Hsu, who provided false financial information to the Secured Lender pre-petition. The Debtor states that George Hsu has been removed, and that the Debtor is committed to maintaining accurate business records moving forward. Lillian Hsu disclaims having any knowledge of the actions taken by George Hsu regarding the financial statement provided to the Secured Lender pre-petition. The Reply submits additional evidence in support of the Renewed Cash Collateral Motion including, among other evidence: the Declaration of Lillian Hsu (the "L. Hsu Declaration"); signed purchase orders from Pacico, Inc., see L. Hsu Declaration, Exhibit 1; and further documentation to substantiate the list of received purchase orders and projected sales, see id., Exhibit 2. The Debtor explains that it anticipates large purchase orders being made by Intex USA, Inc. ("Intex") and Casual Express Apparel Inc. ("Casual Express") in the near future, which orders will account for the difference between the total amount of the received purchase orders and the Debtor's projection of gross income. The Reply contends that the Secured Lender's interest in the cash collateral is adequately protected by the equity in the Vosburg Property and the El Monte Property, the Debtor's business operations, and the approximately $1.4 million in inventory. The Debtor argues that the Debtor's appraisals of each of the Properties are superior to those submitted by the Secured Lender, and that calculation of equity for the purpose of determining adequate protection should be based on the Debtor's appraisals.

The Evidentiary Objections

On August 8, 2018, the Secured Lender filed the "Evidentiary Objections to the Reply Declarations Submitted by Debtor Fu Kong, Inc. In Support of its Motion to Use Cash Collateral" (the "Evidentiary Objections") [Doc. No. 49]. The Secured Lender objects (on various grounds) to the Declaration of Lillian Hsu and the Declaration of George Hsu, submitted in support of the Reply.

II. Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law

The Evidentiary Objections

For the reasons set forth below, the Secured Lender's Evidentiary Objections to the Declaration of Lillian Hsu and the Declaration of George Hsu are OVERRULED. To the extent the Secured Lender objects based on the respective declarations containing numerous statements that end with "to the best of my knowledge," "to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief," or any similar variation, the Court finds the objections lack merit. Additionally, the Court finds that as officers of the Debtor (in the case of George Hsu, a former officer of the Debtor), the Hsu's have the requisite personal knowledge to testify to the Debtor's operations, and the events and circumstances that arose in the ordinary course of business. See, e.g., Stuart v. UNUM Life Ins. Co. of Am., 217 F.3d 1145, 1155 (9th Cir. 2000); Barthelemy v. Air Lines Pilots Ass'n, 897 F.2d 999, 1018 (9th Cir. 1990) (CEO's personal knowledge of various corporate activities inferred from position).

The Court further notes that to the extent that declaration testimony purports to characterize the contents of evidence set forth in the record, the Court does not rely upon such testimony. Instead the Court has independently reviewed the evidence in the record, and draws its own conclusions as to whether the proffered evidence corroborates the position advanced by its proponent.

The Renewed Cash Collateral Motion

Section 363(c)(2) requires court authorization for the use of cash collateral unless "each entity that has an interest in such cash collateral consents." In the Ninth Circuit, satisfaction of Section 363(c)(2)(A) requires the "affirmative express consent" of the secured creditor; "implied consent," resulting from the failure of the secured creditor to object to use of cash collateral, does not satisfy the requirements of the statute. Freightliner Market Development Corp. v. Silver Wheel Freightlines, Inc., 823 F.2d 362, 368-69 (9th Cir. 1987). Absent affirmative express consent, the Debtors "may not use" cash collateral absent the Court's determination that the use is "in accordance with the provisions" of Section 363—that is, that the secured creditor's interest in the cash collateral is adequately protected. Section 363(c)(2)(B); Section 363(e). A secured creditor's interest is adequately protected if the value of its collateral is not declining; the secured creditor is not entitled to payment to compensate for its inability to foreclose upon the collateral during bankruptcy proceedings. United Savings Association of Texas v. Timbers of Inwood Forest Associates, Ltd., 484 U.S. 365 (1988).

Here, the Court finds that the Secured Lender is not adequately protected by the equity in the Vosburg Property and the El Monte Property; therefore, the Court finds that the Debtor must make monthly adequate protection payments to the Secured Lender in the amount of $6,780.32.

First, in connection with the Emergency Cash Collateral Motion the Court accepted the Secured Lender's appraisal of the Vosburg Property; nevertheless, the Debtor still attempts to rely on its appraisal of the Vosburg Property, which the Court previously rejected. The Debtor has failed to show that the Court should reconsider its previous rejection of the appraisal. Based on the Secured Lender's Appraisal, there is only $627,678.71 of equity in the Vosburg Property.

Secondly, with respect to the El Monte Property, the Court finds that the Secured Lender's Appraisal is the most reliable valuation, particularly because of the ambiguity identified by the Secured Lender with respect to whether the Debtor's appraisal is in fact an appraisal, or just an evaluation. Therefore, the Court finds that the value of the El Monte Property is $1,630,000.00.

In sum, the Secured Lender's Loan is secured by property with available equity of $1,111,798.06, while the principal balance on the Loan is $1,589,689.04, leaving $477,890.98 unsecured by real property. The Debtor argues that the Secured Lender has recourse to the Debtor's inventory, which the Debtor claims has a value of $1.4 million; however, given the lack of documentary evidence to support the claimed value of the collateral, the Court cannot accept the Debtor's valuation of the inventory for the purposes of determining whether the Secured Lender's interest in the cash collateral is adequately protected. As discussed, there is not sufficient equity in the Vosburg and El Monte Properties to provide adequate protection. Therefore, the Debtor must make monthly adequate protection payments to the Secured Lender in the amount of $6,780.32.

With respect to the arguments raised by counsel for the Secured Lender at the hearing regarding the viability of the Debtor's business, such arguments are not relevant to the Court's determination of whether to authorize the Debtor to use cash collateral. Rather, in the absence of affirmative express consent by the creditor, the Debtors "may not use" cash collateral absent the Court's determination that the use is "in accordance with the provisions" of Section 363—that is, that the secured creditor's interest in the cash collateral is adequately protected. Section 363(c)(2)(B); Section 363(e). The Secured Lender has not shown that its interest in the cash collateral is not adequately protected by the combination of the equity in the Vosburg and El Monte Properties, the Debtor's inventory, the monthly adequate protection payments ordered by the Court, and the deadline set by the Court for the Debtor to obtain approval of a Chapter 11 disclosure statement.

With respect to the evidence submitted in support of the Renewed Cash Collateral Motion and the Amended Budget, and having considered the Renewed Opposition filed by the Secured Lender, the Court finds that the documentation submitted with the Reply, coupled with the statements of Ms. Hsu regarding the anticipated purchase orders from Intex and Casual Express, see L. Hsu Declaration at ¶¶ 11–12, is sufficient to support the further interim use of cash collateral. The evidence submitted as Exhibit 1 to the Lillian Hsu Declaration (the signed Pacico purchase orders) is sufficient to rebut the argument of the Secured Lender with respect to the authenticity of the Pacico purchase orders. Additionally, the documentation submitted as Exhibit 2 to the Lillian Hsu Declaration is sufficient to support the Renewed Cash Collateral Motion with respect to the total amount of purchase orders received by the Debtor. While there remains a sizeable difference in the total amount of the purchase orders received ($492,352.40), and the projected gross sales ($855,000.00), the Court finds that Ms. Hsu provided sufficient information detailing the status of the Debtor's negotiations with Intex and Casual Express to support the projected gross sales.

The Secured Lender additionally argues that there are significant disparities between the Amended Budget projections and the past performance of the Debtor, however, the Court finds that the Reply offers a sufficient explanation of these discrepancies. Importantly, the Debtor explains that the disparity between the cost of goods in the past and the cost which is set forth in the Amended Budget is attributable to the inclusion of $30,000.00 per month in projected sales of existing inventory in the Amended Budget, and the Debtor maintains that it will be able to afford the cost of purchasing new goods without third party financing based on its new business model. The Debtor's new business model includes an invoicing system whereby the Debtor's customers are invoiced with 30 days for repayment, while the Debtor's suppliers invoice the Debtor with 60 to 90 days for repayment. This model allows the Debtor to collect payments from its customers before the Debtor it pays its suppliers. Thus, the Debtor has submitted sufficient documentary evidence in connection with the Reply to support the further use of cash collateral on an interim basis.

The Court notes that the Debtor has acknowledged the past misrepresentations made by its former secretary, George Hsu. The Debtor fired George Hsu on August 1, 2018, and the Court expects all future representations to be accurate. The Court takes the statements of Lillian Hsu at the 341(a) meeting of creditors, as well as in her declaration in support of the Reply that George Hsu was fired as Secretary of the Debtor on August 1, 2018, to mean that George Hsu will not play any role whatsoever in the Debtor's business operations moving forward. And to be clear, the Court expects that George Hsu will not participate in any capacity in the Debtor's ongoing business operations.

III. Conclusion

In ordering the deadlines set forth below, the Court understands there is a hearing on the Secured Lender's Motion to Appoint a Trustee or Examiner [Doc. Motion to Appoint a Trustee or Examiner.

Based on the foregoing, the Court GRANTS the Renewed Cash Collateral Motion. The Debtor is authorized to use the cash collateral in accordance with the terms of the Amended Budget and consistent with this tentative ruling through and including October 16, 2018. The Debtor shall make monthly adequate protection payments to the Secured Creditor in the amount of $6,780.32, in accordance with the terms and dates set forth in the Parties' Loan Agreement. The Court will hold a hearing on the further use of cash collateral on October 16, 2018 at 10:00 a.m. The deadline for the Debtor to file a motion for authorization of further interim use of cash collateral is October 2, 2018. The deadline to file any written opposition to the further interim use of cash collateral is October 9, 2018. The deadline for the Debtor to obtain approval of a disclosure statement in support of a Chapter 11 plan is December 19, 2018.

The Debtor shall lodge a conforming order within seven (7) days of the hearing.

Chapter 11

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

Relevant Background facts

Debtor Michael McNulty filed a voluntary chapter 11 petition on May 23, 2017. Debtor's primary asset is a rental property located at 1110 E. Acacia Avenue, El Segundo, CA 90245 (the "Rental Property"). The Rental Property is encumbered by two deeds of trust securing indebtedness of approximately $630,727.99, and a tax lien in favor of the Internal Revenue Service (the "IRS") in the amount of $20,355.66. See Doc. No. 102, p. 4.

On December 12, 2017, Debtor filed a Disclosure Statement and Chapter 11 Plan of Reorganization [Doc. Nos. 73, 74]. Following a hearing on January 24, 2018, the Court entered an order denying Debtor's motion for approval of the Disclosure Statement based on a lack of adequate information [Doc. No. 89]. The order directed Debtor to file an Amended Disclosure Statement by April 24, 2018 and set a continued hearing for May 22, 2018. Id. On April 25, 2018, Debtor filed a First Amended Disclosure Statement and Chapter 11 Plan [Doc. Nos. 96, 97].

On May 3, 2018, the Debtor filed a motion to sell the Rental Property free and clear of all encumbrances under section 363(f) for $1,175,000 [Doc. No. 102] (the "Sale Motion"). As set forth in the Sale Motion, Debtor anticipated the sale would generate funds sufficient to pay all claims in full. At a hearing on June 8, 2018, the Court orally granted the Sale Motion, ordered Debtor's First Amended Disclosure Statement and Chapter 11 Plan withdrawn, and set a chapter 11 status conference for September 18, 2018 [Doc. No. 116]. The Court entered an order granting the Sale Motion on June 15, 2018 [Doc. No. 118] (the "Sale Order").

On July 24, 2018, the Debtor filed a Motion to Amend the Sale Order to provide for a reduced sale price of $1,100,000 due to the condition of the Rental Property [Doc. No. 129] (the "Amended Sale Motion"). As set forth in the Amended Sale Motion, the Debtor expected escrow to close on or about August 9, 2018, and then anticipated paying all creditors in full and moving to close this case. Id. The Court entered an order approving the Amended Sale Motion on August 13, 2018 [Doc. No. 132] (the "Amended Sale Order").

Order to Show Cause Why This Case Should Not Be Converted or Dismissed

In advance of the September 18, 2018 chapter 11 status conference, the Court issued a tentative ruling directing the Debtor to appear and provide an update on the status of escrow, whether all claims have been paid in full, and when the debtor anticipates moving for dismissal of the case. The Debtor failed to appear at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court issued an Order Requiring the Debtor To Appear and Show Cause Why This Case Should Not Be Dismissed or Converted for failure to appear in proper prosecution of this case pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 1112(e) [Doc. No. 137] (the "OSC"). At the request of Debtor's counsel, the Court continued the hearing on the OSC from October 3, 2018 to October 16, 2018 [Doc. Nos. 144, 146].

Debtor filed a response to the OSC stating as follows: (i) Debtor's counsel miscalendared the chapter 11 status conference and apologizes for failing to appear; (ii) following the hearing on the Sale Motion, "debtor had some issues with title due to his partners passing and had to start a probate case," and "debtor is currently in probate and has not been able to close escrow" [Doc. No. 143] ("Debtor's Response to OSC").

The IRS filed a reply to Debtor's Response to OSC [Doc. No. 149] ("IRS Reply"). The IRS contends that cause exists to either convert or dismiss this case pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 1112(b) for the following reasons:

(i) The case has been pending for seventeen months and Debtor has not obtained approval of a disclosure statement or confirmed a plan. Debtor's First Amended Disclosure Statement was ordered withdrawn and Debtor has not filed an amended disclosure statement. Debtor has not made any meaningful or substantive progress toward confirming a plan or demonstrated the ability to do so in the near future.

(ii) Debtor did not disclose any potential issues with title and ownership of the Rental Property in his schedules, the Sale Motion, or Amended Sale Motion. Furthermore, it appears Debtor's wife passed away in 2008, and Debtor fails to adequately explain why probate is necessary or why he did not take the necessary steps to obtain clean title prior to filing the Sale Motion. Debtor has also failed to provide adequate information regarding when escrow will close.

(iii) Debtor acted in bad faith by failing to disclose his late wife's purported ownership interest in the Rental Property at any point during the pendency of this case and for waiting so long to take any steps towards obtaining clean title. Additionally, the fact that this is Debtor's second chapter 11 bankruptcy case in less than three years supports a finding that the Debtor is using bankruptcy to delay and prejudice creditors.

The IRS requests that the Court either convert this case to a case under chapter 7 or dismiss this case with a 180-day refiling bar.

UST Motion to Convert or Dismiss

Shortly after the Court issued its OSC, the Unites States Trustee ("UST") filed a separate Motion Under 11 U.S.C. § 1112(b)(1) to Convert, Dismiss or Appoint a Chapter 11 Trustee With an Order Directing Payment of Quarterly Fees and Judgment Thereon [Doc. No. 140] (the "UST Motion to Convert or Dismiss"). The UST recommends that the case be converted to a case under chapter 7 based on the following (i) the Debtor's disclosure statement was withdrawn on June 8, 2018; (ii) Debtor has failed to pay quarterly fees for the second quarter of 2018; (iii) Debtor has failed to provide adequate information regarding the status of escrow on the Rental Property; and (iv) this is Debtor's second chapter 11 case and the first chapter 11 case was filed on August 18, 2015 and dismissed on March 28, 2017 (see Case No. 2:15-bk-22962-ER).

On October 9, 2018, the Debtor filed a Reply to the UST Motion to Convert or Dismiss ("Debtor's Reply") [Doc. No. 150]. Debtor states that he filed this bankruptcy case to reorganize the debts associated with the Rental Property, intends to move forward with escrow and is currently in a probate case with the Los Angeles Superior Court. Debtor also states that he will be filing a Disclosure Statement and Plan after escrow has closed. Finally, Debtor states that he has cured the delinquent UST quarterly fee. Therefore, Debtor requests that the Court deny the motion or, alternatively, issue a continuing compliance order requiring the debtor to remain current with the UST requirements.

II. Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law

In light of the overlap between the OSC and UST Motion to Convert or Dismiss, the Court finds it appropriate to consolidate its rulings as set forth below.

Under § 1112(b), the Court shall dismiss or convert a case to one under chapter 7 upon a showing of "cause." 11 U.S.C. § 1112(b). Section 1112(b)(4) provides a nonexclusive list of factors that constitute "cause," including in relevant part: "(A) substantial or continuing loss to or diminution of the estate and the absence of a reasonable likelihood of rehabilitation;" "(B) gross mismanagement of the estate;" "(E) failure to comply with an order of the court;" "(J) failure to file a disclosure statement, or to file or confirm a plan, within the time fixed by this title or by order of the court." "The enumerated causes are not exhaustive, and 'the court will be able to consider other factors as they arise, and to use its equitable powers to reach an appropriate result in individual cases.'" In re Consolidated Pioneer Mortgage Entities, 248 B.R. 368, 375 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 2000) (quoting H.R. No. 95-595, 95th Cong., 1st Sess. 405-06 (1977), aff'd, 264 F.3d 803 (9th Cir. 2001).

The Court finds that "cause" exists to convert this case to a case under chapter 7. First, the Court finds it troubling to learn that the Debtor has been unable to close escrow, presumably because title to the Rental Property is in both the Debtor's late wife's and Debtor's name. Either Debtor has not been entirely truthful in his schedules and relevant pleadings regarding the Rental Property, or his counsel's and his conduct has been negligent in reviewing necessary documents to determine the true nature of ownership. The Court is further troubled by the Debtor's lack of candor relating to the probate case. For example, the Debtor does not explain what the issue was that prevented consummation of the sale, what steps Debtor is taking to remedy that issue, how long the probate proceedings are expected to take, or whether the buyer is willing to wait for those issues to be resolved and move forward with the sale. Instead, the Court and creditors are left to guess about these issues.

Next, the Debtor concedes that the sole asset with any value in this case is the Debtor's Rental Property. However, in the seventeen months since this case was filed, the Debtor has been unable to obtain approval of a disclosure statement, confirm a plan, or administer the Rental Property. These failings are exacerbated by the fact that the Debtor has essentially had the benefit of the automatic stay for over three years. See Case No. 2:15-bk-22962-ER. Meanwhile, the Debtor continues to accrue administrative fees that reduce the potential payout to creditors.

For all of these reasons, the Court finds that it is no longer in the best interest of creditors to allow the Debtor to remain a debtor in possession. A trustee should be appointed in order to determine if there is value in the Rental Property sufficient to

III. Conclusion

The UST is directed to upload a conforming order within 7 days of the hearing.

Docket 3

Tentative Ruling:

10/16/2018

For the reasons set forth below, the Motion is GRANTED.

Pleadings Filed and Reviewed

1. Judgment Creditor Tannor Partners Credit Fund, LP's Motion for Order Assigning Judgment Debtor's Rights to Payment and Restraining Judgment Debtor [Doc. No. 3] ("Motion")
 - a. Notice of Motion for Judgment Creditor Tannor Partners Credit Fund, LP's Motion for Order Assigning Judgment Debtor's Rights to Payment and Restraining Judgment Debtor [Doc. No. 2]
 - b. Request for Judicial Notice in Support of Motion [Doc. No. 4] ("RJN")
2. As of the preparation of this tentative ruling, no opposition is on file.

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

Tannor Partners Credit Fund, LP ("Judgment Creditor") moves, pursuant to Civil Rule 69(a)(1) and California Code of Civil Procedure ("CCP") section 708.510 et seq., for an order: (1) assigning Tomisho SDN BHD's ("Judgment Debtor") right to payment due or to become due from Coaster Company of America, LP ("Coaster" or "Obligor"), to the extent necessary to satisfy Judgment Creditor's judgment against Judgment Debtor, and (2) restraining Judgment Debtor from assigning or otherwise disposing of such right to payment.

Pursuant to an order entered by the Virginia Bankruptcy Court on August 28, 2017, Judgment Creditor purchased the estate's interest in the Judgment. RJN, Ex. 3.

Judgment Creditor states that it registered the Judgment in the Central District of California pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1963 on September 13, 2018. RJN, Ex. 4. As of that date, the Judgment totaled $171,560.19. No amount has been paid on the Judgment.

As of the preparation of this tentative ruling, Judgment Debtor has not filed an opposition.

II. Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law

Service of the Motion is Adequate

Judgment Creditor's proof of service reflects service of the Motion on the Judgment Debtor via the following methods: (i) two e-mail addresses; and (ii) U.S. first class mail and Federal Express on two Malaysian addresses associated with the Judgment Debtor. In support of the Motion, Judgment Creditor submitted an order, issued by the Virginia Bankruptcy Court on August 22, 2016, granting Judgment Creditor's request to serve the summons and complaint in that action on the Judgment Debtor pursuant to Civil Rule 4(f)(3). RJN, Ex. 1.

Pursuant to Civil Rule 4(f), made applicable in this proceeding by Bankruptcy Rules 7004 and 9014(b), service on a foreign entity must be made in accordance with subsections (f)(1) or (f)(2), unless the court orders service may be made "by other means not prohibited by international agreement." Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(f)(1) – (3). Pursuant to CCP § 708.510(b), the motion need only be served on the Judgment Debtor. Cal. Code Civ. P. § 708.510(b); see also Greenbaum v. Islamic Republic of Iran, 782 F.Supp.2d 893, 897 (C.D. Cal. 2008) ("motion for an assignment of rights need only be served on the judgment debtor and not on the obligor") (emphasis in original).

Chapter 0

Judgment Creditor did not file a separate request with this Court for authority to serve this Motion on the Judgment Debtor pursuant to Civil Rule 4(f)(3). Nevertheless, the Court finds it appropriate to deem the Motion as such a request, grant that request, and find that service on the Judgment Debtor is proper.

Applicable Law

The execution of final judgments is governed by Civil Rule 69(a)(1), made applicable to this proceeding by Bankruptcy Rules 7069 and 9014(c), which provides: "A money judgment is enforced by a writ of execution, unless the court directs otherwise. The procedure on execution [of a money judgment] – and in proceedings supplementary to and in aid of judgment or execution – must accord with the procedure of the state where the court is located, but a federal statute governs to the extent it applies." Fed. R. Civ. P. 69(a)(1).

Assignment Order

Judgment Creditor submits that CCP § 708.510 is the applicable state law governing assignment of rights to a money judgment. Section 708.510 states, in relevant part:

[U]pon application of the judgment creditor on noticed motion, the court may order the judgment debtor to assign to the judgment creditor ... all or part of a right to payment due or to become due, whether or not the right is conditioned on future developments

Cal. Code Civ. P. § 708.510(a).

"Under the statute, which contains a non-exhaustive list of relevant factors for consideration, the court has broad discretion from determining whether to order an assignment." Greenbaum, 782 F.Supp.2d at 895. "While a motion for an assignment order does not demand '[d]etailed evidentiary support,' a judgment creditor must describe the source of the right to payment with 'some degree of concreteness.'" Nat'l Grange of Order of Patrons of Husbandry v. California Guild, 2017 WL 953792, at *1 (E.D. Cal. Mar. 9 2017) (internal citations omitted).

Chapter 0

Here, Judgment Creditor states that Judgment Debtor has not yet paid any part of the Judgment and, to the best of its knowledge, does not have any assets in the United States available to satisfy the Judgment, other than monies owed by Coaster. Judgment Creditor further states that Coaster, whose principal office is in Santa Fe Springs, California, imports furniture manufactured by Judgment Debtor in Malaysia into the United States for distribution and then sends payment to Judgment Debtor.

The Court finds this is a sufficiently concrete source of payment and sufficient grounds exist to grant Judgment Creditor's motion to the extent necessary to satisfy the Judgment.

Restraining Order

"When an application is made pursuant to § 708.510 or thereafter, the judgment creditor may apply to the court for an order restraining the judgment debtor from assigning or otherwise disposing of the right to payment that is sought to be assigned The court may issue an order pursuant to this section upon a showing of need for the order." Cal. Code. Civ. P. § 708.520. "Courts have issued restraining orders 'so that [the assigned rights to payment] might be available for satisfaction of the judgment.'" UMG Recordings, Inc. v. BCD Music Grp., Inc., 2009 WL 2213678, at *3 (C.D. Cal. July 9, 2009), amended in part on other grounds, 2011 WL 798901 (C.D. Cal. Feb. 25, 2011), aff'd 509 F.App'x 661 (9th Cir. 2013) (internal citation omitted).

Here, the fact that the Judgment Debtor is a foreign corporation with little to no assets in the United States and has not paid any part of the Judgment to date demonstrate a need to protect the assigned right to payment from transfer or disposition by the Judgment Debtor. Accordingly, Judgment Creditor's request for a restraining order is granted.

III. Conclusion

For the reasons set forth above, the Motion is GRANTED. Judgment Creditor is directed to lodge a proposed order, incorporating the tentative ruling by reference, within 7 days of the hearing.

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

Pac Anchor Transportation, Inc. (the "Debtor") commenced a voluntary Chapter 11 petition on July 6, 2017. On July 7, 2017, the Debtor removed to the Bankruptcy Court an action that had been pending in the Los Angeles Superior Court, People of the State of California ex rel. Kamala D. Harris v. Pac Anchor Transportation, Inc. (the "Enforcement Action"). On that same date, the Debtor removed to the Bankruptcy Court another action pending in the Los Angeles Superior Court, Carlos Mosquera and Juan Francisco Rodriguez on Behalf of Themselves and All Others Similarly Situated v. Pac Anchor Transportation (the "Class Action").

Chapter 11

The Enforcement Action

The State of California (the "State") commenced the Enforcement Action against the Debtor and its principal, Alfredo Barajas, on September 5, 2008. The Enforcement Action alleges that the Debtor misclassifies its driver employees as independent contractors, and thus commits "unfair competition" within the meaning of California Business and Professions Code §17200, by failing to pay the minimum wage, secure workers' compensation insurance, and report and remit payroll taxes. The State seeks an injunction, civil penalties, and restitution of unpaid wages.

In August 2009, the Debtor and Mr. Barajas filed a motion for judgment on the pleadings in the Los Angeles Superior Court (the "State Court"), arguing that the State's claims against them were pre-empted by the Federal Aviation Administration Authorization Act. On September 22, 2009, the Superior Court granted the motion and entered judgment in favor of the Debtor and Mr. Barajas. On December 7, 2009, the State appealed the judgment. The Enforcement Action was stayed during the appeal, which lasted from December 7, 2009 to April 8, 2015. The Superior Court's judgment in favor of the Debtor and Mr. Barajas was ultimately reversed and litigation began anew in the Superior Court in April 2015.

On February 18, 2016, the State filed a supplemental complaint (the "Supplemental Complaint"), adding the Debtor's sister company, Green Anchor Lines, Inc. ("Green Anchor") as a defendant. The State alleges that Green Anchor supplied the Debtor's drivers from 2009 through at least December 2016. The Supplemental Complaint makes the same allegations and seeks the same relief as the original complaint.

The Class Action

On June 14, 2017, Carlos Mosquera and Juan Francisco Rodriguez commenced an action against the Debtor in the Superior Court (the "Class Action"). The Class Action seeks restitution and damages from the Debtor due to the Debtor's employment practices for all drivers, statutory penalties under the California Labor Code, and an injunction. The Class Action is brought under the Private Attorneys General Act ("PAGA").

Remand of the Enforcement Action

On September 15, 2017, upon a motion brought by the State of California, the Court remanded the Enforcement Action to the State Court. The Court found that it was required to remand the Enforcement Action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1452, which bars the removal of civil actions “by a government unit to enforce such governmental unit’s police or regulatory power.” The Court explained:

To determine whether an action is exempt from removal under the police and regulatory power exception, the Court determines whether the action meets either the “pecuniary purpose” test or the “public policy” test. Universal Life Church, Inc. v. United States (In re Universal Life Church, Inc.), 128 F.3d 1294, 1297 (9th Cir. 1997), as amended on denial of reh’g (Dec. 30, 1997).

An action is not removable if either test is satisfied. Lockyer v. Mirant Corp., 398 F.3d 1098, 1108 (9th Cir. 2005). The pecuniary purpose and public policy tests that are applied to assess the permissibility of removal are the same tests that are applied to determine whether an action is exempt from the automatic stay pursuant to §362(b)(4)....

As the Ninth Circuit has explained:

Under the pecuniary purpose test, the court determines whether the government action relates primarily to the protection of the government’s pecuniary interest in the debtor’s property or to matters of public safety and welfare. If the government action is pursued solely to advance a pecuniary interest of the governmental unit, the stay will be imposed.

The public policy test “distinguishes between government actions that effectuate public policy and those that adjudicate private rights.” Universal Life Church, 128 F.3d at 1297 (internal citations omitted)....

The Debtor concedes that the State’s claims for injunctive relief and civil penalties fall within the police and regulatory power exception and are therefore ineligible for removal under 28 U.S.C. §1452. The Court finds that the only remaining claim, for restitution of unpaid wages, also falls within the police and regulatory power exception. The Enforcement Action alleges that by misclassifying its truck driver employees as independent contractors, the Debtor lowered its cost of doing business by failing to pay payroll taxes, by failing to pay the minimum wages, and by failing to secure workers’ compensation insurance for its employees. The Enforcement Action seeks an order requiring the Debtor to make restitution of the unpaid minimum wages.

The Enforcement Action satisfies the public policy test since its primary purpose is to vindicate California labor law. The police and regulatory nature of the action is underscored by the fact that if employers could circumvent labor laws without fear of prosecution, all employers would have an incentive to ignore such laws to save money and gain a competitive advantage. This would result in a race to the bottom in which even employers without a predilection to violate the law would face pressure to do so simply to remain competitive. Thus, although the Debtor's employees, who were allegedly underpaid, may incidentally benefit from the Enforcement Action, the overriding purpose of the action is to effectuate public policy, not to adjudicate private rights. The purpose of the restitution provisions contained in California's Business and Professions Code is "to deter future violations ... and to foreclose retention by the violator of its ill-gotten gains." Fletcher v. Sec. Pac. Nat'l Bank, 23 Cal. 3d 442, 449, 591 P.2d 51 (1979). While requiring violators to make restitution of ill-gotten gains inevitably benefits their victims, the primary impact of the restitution requirement is to uphold respect for the law; if violators could retain illegal gains, the public would have less incentive to comply with the law.

The Enforcement Action also satisfies the pecuniary purpose test. The Debtor asserts that the pecuniary purpose test is not met because the Enforcement Action seeks to recover unpaid payroll taxes. The Debtor mischaracterizes the Enforcement Action. There is no claim for unpaid payroll taxes in the prayer for relief, and as the Attorney General points out, he does not represent the Employment Development Department, which is the agency responsible for collecting unpaid taxes.

It is true that the State seeks civil penalties in an amount of no less than $4.16 million. However, as discussed above, the primary purpose of the action is to enforce California labor law. The collection of civil penalties is a necessary component of this public purpose, and does not cause the Enforcement Action to fail the pecuniary purpose test. The collection of civil penalties is one of the key mechanisms by which governments vindicate their police and regulatory authority. If the presence of civil penalties disqualified an action under the pecuniary purpose test, then almost no governmental actions could satisfy the test. See, e.g., Berg v. Good Samaritan Hospital (In re Berg), 230 F.3d 1165, 1168 (9th Cir. 2000) (holding that the imposition of sanctions qualified as an action to protect public safety and welfare, on the ground that "although private parties may benefit financially from sanctions, the deterrent effect of monetary penalties can be essential for the government

Final Ruling Granting Remand Motion [Doc. No. 19, Adv. No. 2:17-ap-01345-ER] at 21–23.

Remand of the Class Action

On September 5, 2017, the Court entered an order requiring the Debtor to show cause why the Class Action should not also be remanded. Doc. No. 6, Case No. 2:17-ap-01346-ER (the “Order to Show Cause”). In Preliminary Findings set forth in the Order to Show Cause, the Court found that equitable grounds supported remand of the Class Action. Applying the factors set forth in Citigroup, Inc. v. Pacific Investment Management Co., LLC (In re Enron Corp.), 296 B.R. 505, 509 n. 2 (C.D. Cal. 2003), the Court reasoned:

Multiple Enron factors support remand. With respect to factor two, the action involves only issues of state law that are within the expertise of the Superior Court to determine. With respect to factor one, remand will not impair the efficient administration of the estate. The Superior Court can determine the Debtor/Defendant’s liability, if any; if and when a final, non-appealable judgment against the Debtor/Defendant has been entered, the Bankruptcy Court can then make whatever determinations are necessary with respect to that judgment in the Chapter 11 context. (These reasons also support remand pursuant to factor eight.) With respect to factor eleven, the Plaintiffs have demanded a jury trial, which the Bankruptcy Court cannot provide absent the consent of the parties. Factor eleven, comity, supports remand because the action asserts only claims arising under California employment law; courts of the State of California are in the best position to adjudicate such claims.

Finally, remand will conserve judicial resources. The Court has recently determined that it was required to remand the action People of the State of California ex rel. Kamala D. Harris v. Pac Anchor Transportation, Inc. (the “Enforcement Action”). The Court found that the Enforcement Action was not properly removed because it qualified as a “civil action by a governmental unit to enforce such governmental unit’s police or regulatory power” pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1452. See generally Ruling Granting Motion for Remand [Doc. No. 19, Adv. No. 2:17-ap-01345-ER]. The Enforcement Action is based upon the same set of operative facts as this action. Remand will enable the Defendant to Order to Show Cause at 2.

On October 4, 2017, the Court approved a stipulation remanding the Class Action. See Doc. No. 12, Adv. No. 2:17-ap-01346-ER.

The Debtor's Plan of Reorganization and Settlement of the Class Action

On July 30, 2018, the Debtor filed a motion seeking approval of a settlement (the "Settlement Agreement") of the Class Action. See Doc. No. 286, Case No. 2:17-bk-18213-ER (the "Rule 9019 Motion"). The Settlement Agreement requires that the proposed settlement be approved by both the State Court and the Bankruptcy Court. A hearing on the Rule 9019 Motion is set for November 6, 2018. Settlement of the Class Action is supported by the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (the "Committee").

The Settlement Agreement does not become effective unless the Debtor's Plan of Reorganization (the "Plan") is approved. A hearing on confirmation of the Plan is set for December 5, 2018. The Plan provides for a total payout to general unsecured creditors (including creditors in the Class Action) of $4.5 million. An initial payment of $750,000 will be made on the effective date of the Plan, with subsequent payments in the amount of $187,500 to be made quarterly, such payments to commence on April 1, 2019 and end on January 1, 2024.

The Section 105 Action

On July 30, 2018, the Debtor commenced a Complaint for an Injunction Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §105(a) (the "Section 105 Action") against the State of California (the "State"). The Section 105 Action seeks an injunction, under §105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, staying the State's prosecution of the Enforcement Action. The Debtor asserts that being required to defend against the Enforcement Action imposes substantial burden and expense upon the estate. The Debtor further contends that the proposed settlement of the Class Action resolves all claims for restitution and injunctive relief sought by the State in the Enforcement Action, such that no practical or legal purpose remains for the State's continued prosecution of the Enforcement Action.

Chapter 11

In the Section 105 Action, the Debtor moves for imposition of a preliminary injunction staying continued prosecution of the Enforcement Action. The proposed injunction would remain in effect until the earlier of denial of the Rule 9019 Motion or denial of the motion to confirm the Plan. The Debtor makes the following arguments and representations in support of its motion for an injunction:

The proposed settlement of the Class Action will vindicate all the interests pursued by the State by way of the Enforcement Action. Pursuant to the terms of the Settlement Agreement resolving the Class Action, the Debtor has agreed to the same injunctive relief sought by the State in the Enforcement Action and has agreed to pay $4.5 million in restitution to drivers that the Debtor formerly treated as independent contractors rather than as employees.

The State's continued prosecution of the Enforcement Action will impose a severe burden upon the estate and will likely prevent the Debtor from confirming and performing under the Plan. Between November 1, 2017 and March 31, 2018, the Debtor incurred $209,431.66 in attorneys' fees defending against the Enforcement Action. Trial in the Enforcement Action is currently scheduled for November 6, 2018. If the Debtor is required to proceed to trial, it will be required to spend an additional $90,000 in attorneys' fees. These additional attorneys' fees, combined with the possibility of a duplicated judgment in the Enforcement Action, may make reorganization impossible. In addition, if the Plan is not confirmed prior to 2018, the Debtor will accrue an additional $300,000 in tax liability. The payment of such liability will leave the Debtor with insufficient capital to both continue operations and perform under the Plan.

If the Settlement Agreement resolving the Class Action is approved prior to trial of the Enforcement Action, principles of res judicata may prevent the State from continuing to prosecute the Enforcement Action. See California v. IntelliGender, LLC, 771 F.3d 1169, 1179 (9th Cir. 2014) (holding that the State was precluded from prosecuting an action seeking restitution on behalf of members of a certified class, where those class members had previously obtained restitution in a private class action). An injunction against the State is therefore appropriate to prevent the State from obtaining a double recovery in the Enforcement Action.

The only relief sought in the Enforcement Action that is not resolved through settlement of the Class Action is the State's claim for penalties. However, the Debtor does not object to the dollar amount of the penalties claimed by the State in Proof of Claim No. 13 ("Claim 13"). Claim 13 seeks penalties of $15 million, based upon the Enforcement Action. Although the Debtor has filed an objection to Claim 13, the Debtor objects only to the priority status of the penalties sought by the State—not to the dollar amount of those penalties. Because the Debtor does not object to the dollar amount of the penalties, no purpose would be served in litigating the amount of those penalties by way of the Enforcement Action.

"Section 105(a) gives the bankruptcy courts the power to stay actions that are not subject to the 11 U.S.C. § 362(a) automatic stay but 'threaten the integrity of a bankrupt's estate.'"

Indivos Corp. v. Excel Innovations, Inc., Ned Hoffman (In re Excel Innovations, Inc.), 502 F.3d 1086, 1093 (9th Cir. 2007). The usual preliminary injunction standard applies to injunctions issued under §105(a), except that instead of considering the probability that the Debtor will succeed on the merits of the litigation, the Court must consider the probability of a successful reorganization. Excel, 502 F.3d at 1096.

The Debtor satisfies the requirements necessary to obtain a §105(a) injunction. First, the Plan proposed by the Debtor can be confirmed provided that the Settlement Agreement resolving the Class Action is approved. Second, the Debtor will suffer irreparable harm if the Enforcement Action is not stayed. Absent a stay, the Debtor will continue to incur significant attorneys' fees. Those additional fees will deplete the Debtor's cash flow such that the Debtor will not be able to make the payments required under the Plan. Third, the balance of the hardships tips sharply in favor of the Debtor. The State will suffer no harm if the Enforcement Action is stayed because the settlement of the Class Action will vindicate all the interests pursued by the State in the Enforcement Action. The Debtor, by contrast, will suffer significant harm if it is unable to confirm or perform under the Plan. Finally, a stay of the Enforcement Action is in the public interest. Such a stay will enable the Debtor to confirm a Plan and preserve jobs through the continued operation of its business. Further, the public interest is served because, as discussed, the settlement of the Class Action furthers all the policy objectives pursued by the State in the Enforcement Action.

Summary of the State's Opposition to the Debtor's Motion for a Preliminary Injunction

The State makes the following arguments and representations in support of its opposition to the Debtor's Motion:

The Debtor seeks to hold the State to a flawed private settlement through application of res judicata. The Debtor has failed to satisfy the standards for injunctive relief.

First, the Debtor has not shown that it has a reasonable likelihood of confirming its Plan. The Plan contains a provision limiting to $100,000 the amount that may be recovered against Alfredo Barajas (the Debtor's sole shareholder) and his wife, if either of them seek bankruptcy protection. That provision is tantamount to a third-party release, which is barred by §524(e).

Second, the Debtor has failed to show that it will suffer irreparable harm absent an injunction. Being required to proceed towards trial does not constitute "a clear case of hardship or inequity." Lockyer v. Mirant Corp., 398 F.3d 1098, 1112 (9th Cir. 2005). The $90,000 in attorneys' fees that the Debtor will pay in connection with trial of the Enforcement Action will not interfere with the Debtor's ability to implement or perform under the Plan. The Debtor's August monthly operating report shows that it has $2.5 million in cash available. Even after making $1.25 million in effective date payments, the Debtor will still have more than $1 million of cash on hand. The Debtor has failed to show that it needs more than $1 million in order to sustain operations; to the contrary, the Debtor's own projections show that at times it is expected to have only $900,000 in cash on hand.

In addition, the Debtor's claim that it may be required to pay an extra $300,000 in tax liability if the Plan is not confirmed prior to 2018 is not correct. The Debtor is a sub-chapter S-corporation, meaning that Alfredo Barajas, the Debtor's sole shareholder, is personally liable for the Debtor's taxes. Any tax liability resulting from a delay in confirmation will not fall upon the estate.

The Debtor's contention that the claims in the Class Action and Enforcement Action are duplicative is without merit. The underlying conduct giving rise to the Class Action and Enforcement Action is the same. However, the Enforcement Action claims differ from the Class Action claims, because the State suffered a different harm than the drivers. The harm suffered by the State is the Debtor's violation of the law, which is different from the economic harm suffered by the drivers.

Third, the balance of the hardships favors the State. Staying the Enforcement Action would deprive the State of the opportunity to obtain a judgment prior to approval of the deeply-flawed settlement of the Class Action. This sequence of events would favor private enforcement over public enforcement and would deprive the State of the opportunity to obtain a judgment with a deterrent effect.

Fourth, an injunction is not in the public interest. The Court's determination that the Enforcement Action was subject to remand under the "police or regulatory power" exception to removal establishes that prosecution of the Enforcement Action is in the public interest. The Debtor should be precluded from now contesting the Court's prior determination that prosecution of the Enforcement Action is in the public interest.

Summary of the Debtor's Reply in Support of the Motion

The Debtor makes the following arguments and representations in reply to the State's opposition:

The State has failed to show how the relief provided through the settlement of the Class Action does not protect the public interests pursued by the State through the Enforcement Action. The State makes only conclusory statements that the proposed settlement is "deeply flawed," Opposition at 14, will cause "ongoing harm to employees and law-abiding employers," id. at 13, and will "prejudice California's ability to enforce a duly enacted statute," id. at 13.

An injunction is appropriate because the State has failed to show that the claims in the Enforcement Action are not duplicative of the claims in the Class Action. The State has failed to inform the Court that the State Court has already continued the Enforcement Action, having concluded that trial of both actions would result in a duplication of effort and would be unnecessary.

There is no merit to the State's contention that the Debtor is collaterally estopped from seeking a §105 injunction as a result of the Court's decision to remand the Enforcement Action. The injunctive relief the Debtor seeks now is different from the issues raised by the decision to remand.

The State's contention that the Debtor's ability to reorganize will not be impaired by accrual of attorneys' fees defending the Enforcement Action is without merit. The State assumes that all the Debtor's funds can be used to make Plan payments and that the Debtor has no operating capital needs. As demonstrated by the declaration of Alfredo Barajas filed in support of this Reply, the Debtor requires minimum capital of $1.5 million to sustain operations. Although the plan projections show that during certain periods the Debtor will be required to sustain operations using capital of less than $1.5 million, operations with such a thin capital cushion are risky and threaten the feasibility of the Plan.

The State disputes the Debtor's liability for additional income taxes if the Plan is not confirmed prior to 2018. Notwithstanding the fact that the Debtor is an S-corporation and that its sole shareholder is responsible for its tax liabilities, the Debtor is required under California law to indemnify shareholders for the Debtor's tax liability. Therefore, any pass-through tax is an administrative expense for which the estate is liable.

Finally, contrary to the State's contention, the Debtor is not requesting a stay of the Enforcement Action as to non-debtor Alfredo Barajas. The Motion seeks injunctive relief only as to the Debtor. If the injunction is granted, the State Court will be required to determine whether the Debtor is a necessary party to the Enforcement Action and whether to stay the Enforcement Action in its entirety or to proceed with the action only as to Mr. Barajas.

II. Findings and Conclusions

For the reasons set forth in Section III, below, the State's evidentiary objections to the declarations of Alfredo Barajas and David Haberbush, submitted in support of the Motion, are overruled.

"A plaintiff seeking a preliminary injunction must establish that he is likely to succeed on the merits, that he is likely to suffer irreparable harm in the absence of preliminary relief, that the balance of equities tips in his favor, and that an injunction is in the public interest." Winter v. Nat. Res. Def. Council, Inc., 555 U.S. 7, 20, 129 S. Ct. 365, 374, 172 L. Ed. 2d 249 (2008). "[I]f a plaintiff can only show that there are 'serious questions going to the merits'—a lesser showing than likelihood of success on the merits—then a preliminary injunction may still issue if the 'balance of hardships tips sharply in the plaintiff's favor,' and the other two Winter factors are satisfied." Shell Offshore, Inc. v. Greenpeace, Inc., 709 F.3d 1281, 1291 (9th Cir. 2013). Plaintiff must demonstrate, "by a clear showing," that he is entitled to a preliminary injunction. Mazurek v. Armstrong, 520 U.S. 968, 972, 117 S. Ct. 1865, 1867, 138 L. Ed. 2d 162 (1997).

Where a preliminary injunction is sought in the bankruptcy context, a debtor "must show a reasonable likelihood of a successful reorganization" in lieu of showing a likelihood of success on the merits. Indivos Corp. v. Excel Innovations, Inc., Ned Hoffman (In re Excel Innovations, Inc.), 502 F.3d 1086, 1095 (9th Cir. 2007).

As discussed below, the Debtor has shown that it is entitled to a stay of the Enforcement Action, which stay shall remain in effect until the earlier of denial of the Rule 9019 Motion or denial of the motion to confirm the Plan.

A. The Debtor Has Demonstrated a Reasonable Likelihood of a Successful Reorganization

The Debtor has demonstrated a reasonable likelihood that it will be able to successfully reorganize. On October 1, 2018, the Court approved the Disclosure

Chapter 11

Statement describing the Plan. Doc. No. 358, Case. No. 2:17-bk-18213-ER. A confirmation hearing is set for December 5, 2018.

The Plan is supported by the Committee and is supported by the Class Action claimants with whom the Debtor has settled. It is true that the State has asserted multiple objections to confirmation of the Plan. While the Court does not make any final determination as to the validity of the State's objections in connection with this hearing, the State has not identified any Plan issues that would be fatal to confirmation. Given the support for the Plan by large creditor constituencies, the Court finds that there is a reasonable likelihood that the Debtor will be able to successfully confirm the Plan.

B. The Debtor is Likely to Suffer Irreparable Harm in the Absence of Preliminary Relief

The Debtor is likely to suffer irreparable harm in the absence of preliminary relief. Absent an injunction, the Debtor will be required to spend at least $90,000 defending against the Enforcement Action. If prosecution of the Enforcement Action delays confirmation of the Plan beyond 2018, the Debtor will accrue additional tax liability of approximately $300,000. Although such tax liability is the initial responsibility of the Debtor's principal, Alfredo Barajas, the Debtor will likely be ultimately responsible for the liability because it is required to indemnify Mr. Barajas.

The State maintains that the Debtor can afford to pay the attorneys' fees and still perform under the Plan. Having reviewed the Debtor's financial projections, the Court finds that there is a very significant risk that the additional burdens imposed by the attorneys' fees could leave the Debtor with too thin a capital cushion to successfully reorganize. The possibility that the Debtor might be able to scrape through cannot be conclusively ruled out. However, the chances that the additional fee burden will impair the Debtor's ability to reorganize are high enough to satisfy the "likelihood of irreparable harm" standard.

C. Balance of the Hardships

The balance of the hardships tips in the Debtor's favor. Declining to stay the Enforcement Action will substantially impair the Debtor's ability to reorganize.

With respect to the hardship suffered by the State, the Court expresses no view as to whether approval of the Settlement Agreement would preclude the State from prosecuting the Enforcement Action pursuant to California v. IntelliGender, LLC, 771 F.3d 1169, 1179 (9th Cir. 2014). However, even if the stay ultimately does result in the State being precluded from prosecuting the Enforcement Action, the Court still would find that the balance of the hardships tips in the Debtor's favor. Any court finding that issue preclusion was appropriate would be required to conclude that the Class Action settlement addressed the same issues and involved the same parties as the Enforcement Action. A court would also be required to find that the State's due process rights were protected. While a finding of preclusion would interfere with the State's litigation strategy, under the circumstances the Court does not believe that the hardship to the State from such a finding would be greater than the hardship to the Debtor if its ability to reorganize is impaired.

Further, as discussed below, even if the State were precluded from prosecuting the Enforcement Action, the State has failed to plausibly explain how its interests are not vindicated by the Settlement Agreement resolving the Class Action.

D. An Injunction is in the Public Interest

The Debtor has shown that the Settlement Agreement resolving the Class Action will vindicate the same public policy objectives pursued by the State through the Enforcement Action. Thus, briefly staying the Enforcement Action for the purpose of greatly increasing the chances that the Debtor will be able to successfully reorganize is in the public interest. See Bohm v. Howard (In re Howard), 422 B.R. 593, 605 (Bankr. W.D. Pa. 2010) aff'd, No. 2:10CV962, 2011 WL 578777 (W.D. Pa. Feb. 9, 2011) (holding that "preservation of a debtor's assets for the purpose of paying creditors" is in the public interest).

The State asserts that the settlement is flawed and does not vindicate the policies it seeks to pursue through the Enforcement Action, but fails to identify any specific defects with the Settlement Agreement in support of its contentions. Under the Settlement Agreement, the Debtor will consent to entry of the same injunctive relief sought in the Enforcement Action. Under the Settlement Agreement, the Debtor will pay its drivers restitution for unpaid wages and expenses pursuant to the California Labor Code. The Enforcement Action seeks restitution for the same set of drivers.

The only relief sought in the Enforcement Action not resolved through the Settlement Agreement is the State's claim for penalties. However, in its objection to Claim 13 (which claim is based upon the Enforcement Action), the Debtor does not object to the dollar amount of the penalties. The Debtor objects only to the priority status of those penalties. The Court agrees with the Debtor that no purpose would be served in litigating the amount of the penalties in the Enforcement Action.

The State disputes the Debtor's claim that the Class Action vindicates the same interests as the Enforcement Action. According to the State, the Enforcement Action vindicates the State's interest in assuring that the laws are enforced and respected. The State maintains that the Class Action, having been brought by private parties, cannot vindicate its interest in enforcing the laws on behalf of the public.

The State's argument ignores the fact that the Class Action was brought under the Private Attorneys' General Act—a statute which contemplates that private actors will assist the State in enforcing public laws by suing entities who violate those laws, essentially as agents of the State. Therefore, the monetary and injunctive provisions of the Class Action settlement do vindicate the State's interest in enforcing the law.

Although not binding upon this Court, the findings made by the State Court at a hearing conducted on August 14, 2018, are highly persuasive. The State Court concluded that trying the Enforcement Action prior to resolution of the Class Action would likely result in a "duplication of effort." Doc. No. 26-4 at 1:1–4. Responding to the State's argument that the Class Action and Enforcement Action should proceed along parallel tracks, the State Court said: "So you want me to litigate how much is owed when that has already been settled? That makes no sense." Id. at 9:26–28. The State Court rejected the State's argument that it was essential for trial of the Enforcement Action to take place prior to a hearing on approval of the Class Action.

The gravamen of the relief sought by the Debtor is that the Class Action be resolved prior to trial of the Enforcement Action. The manner in which the issue arose before the State Court is not identical to the manner in which the issue arises before this Court. Nonetheless, it is significant that the State Court essentially agreed with the Debtor's position that resolution of the Class Action prior to trial of the Enforcement Action was the appropriate. The State Court's reasoning bolsters the Court's conclusion to briefly stay the Enforcement Action pending resolution of the Class Action.

III. The State's Evidentiary Objections are Overruled

The State objects to the declaration of Alfredo Barajas, submitted in support of the Motion, on the grounds that Mr. Barajas lacks personal knowledge, that the declaration contains improper expert opinion by a lay witness, that the declaration lacks foundation, and that the testimony is conclusory and speculative. The State's evidentiary objections are overruled.

Mr. Barajas states that his testimony is based upon his experience as the owner and president of the Debtor. Mr. Barajas has established a proper foundation for his testimony.

Chapter 11

The State's objections based upon lack of personal knowledge are overruled. As owner and president of the Debtor, Mr. Barajas has personal knowledge and may testify regarding the Debtor's business operations, assets, liabilities, and operations, and may testify concerning the effect that certain costs will have upon the Debtor's operations. Such testimony does not constitute improper expert opinion by a lay witness.

The State asserts similar evidentiary objections to the declaration of David Haberbusch, the Debtor's attorney. Those objections are likewise without merit. As the Debtor's attorney, Mr. Haberbusch has personal knowledge of the Debtor's plan, and is qualified to offer opinions regarding the likely consequences the Debtor will face if the Plan is not confirmed.

IV. Conclusion

Based upon the foregoing, the Motion is GRANTED. Prosecution of the Enforcement Action is stayed until the earlier of denial of the Rule 9019 Motion or denial of the motion to confirm the Plan.

Because confirmation of the Plan will moot the Section 105 Action, the Court VACATES the litigation deadlines previously set in this litigation. If the Plan is not confirmed, the Court will set a Status Conference to determine the future course of the Section 105 Action.

The Debtor shall submit an order, incorporating this tentative ruling by reference, within seven days of the hearing.

Tentative Ruling:

10/16/2018

For the reasons set forth below, the Motion is GRANTED.

Pleadings Filed and Reviewed

1. Motion for Default Judgment Under LBR 7055-1 [Adv. Doc. No. 50] (the "Motion")
 - a. Notice of Motion for Default Judgment [Adv. Doc. No. 51]
2. As of the preparation of this tentative ruling, no opposition is on file.

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

Shasa USA LLC (the "Debtor") commenced a voluntary Chapter 7 petition on February 4, 2015 (the "Petition Date"). Prior to the Petition Date, the Debtor was a retailer in the women's "fast fashion" clothing industry, and competed with other fashion retailers such as Forever 21, H&M, Wet Seal, and Deb Shops. The Debtor updated the clothing and fashion accessories for sale at its retail stores on a monthly basis. The clothing and accessories sold by the Debtor were intended to be used a few times and then thrown away because the clothing was no longer fashionable. Consumers would return to the Debtor's stores to buy the current monthly fashion. Clothing and accessories sold by the Debtor were priced in the typical range of $5.00 to $15.00.

In the 90-day period prior to the Petition Date, the Debtor did not have sufficient funds to pay all of its debts, and fell behind on its payments to creditors. During this time period, many of the Debtor's creditors contacted the Debtor and demanded that

On January 31, 2017, the Chapter 7 Trustee (the "Trustee") commenced this preference action against Shanghai Jingtong International Trading Co. (the "Defendant"), seeking to avoid transfers in the total amount of $783,304.50 that the Debtor made to the Defendant during the ninety-day period prior to the Petition Date. The Clerk of the Court entered Defendant's default on July 24, 2018 [Adv. Doc. No. 48]. The Trustee seeks entry of default judgment against the Defendant.

As of the preparation of this tentative ruling, no opposition is on file.

II. Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law

Once default has been entered, the well-pleaded factual allegations of the complaint are taken as true. Cripps v. Life Ins. Co. of North America, 980 F.2d 1261, 1267 (9th Cir.1992). Based upon the Complaint's allegations [Note 1], and the evidence submitted in support of the Motion, the Court makes the following findings:

The Trustee is Entitled to Avoid $783,304.50 in Preferential Transfers Pursuant to § 547

Section 547(b) permits the Trustee to avoid "any transfer of an interest of the debtor in property" if the transfer was:

- 1) to or for the benefit of a creditor;
- 2) for or on account of an antecedent debt owed by the debtor before such transfer was made;
- 3) made while the debtor was insolvent;
- 4) made—
 - a) on or within 90 days before the date of the filing of the petition; or
 - b) between ninety days and one year before the date of the filing of the petition, if such creditor at the time of such transfer was an insider; and
- 5) that enables such creditor to receive more than such creditor would receive if—
 - a) the case were a case under chapter 7 of this title;
 - b) the transfer had not been made; and

- c) such creditor received payment of such debt to the extent provided by the provisions of this title.

11 U.S.C. § 547(b)

For purposes of § 547(b), a "transfer" means:

- a) the creation of a lien;
- b) the retention of title as a security interest;
- c) the foreclosure of a debtor's equity of redemption; or
- d) each mode, direct or indirect, absolute or conditional, voluntary or involuntary, of disposing of or parting with—
 - i) property; or
 - ii) an interest in property.

11 U.S.C. § 101(54).

It is the Trustee's burden to establish all the elements of § 547(b) by a preponderance of the evidence. 11 U.S.C. § 547(g); Hall-Mark Electronics Corp. v. Sims (In re Lee), 179 B.R. 149, 155 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 1995) aff'd, 108 F.3d 239 (9th Cir. 1997). Section 547(c) sets forth certain defenses to transfer liability. The Defendant has the burden of establishing that the § 547(c) defenses apply, again under the preponderance of the evidence standard. 11 U.S.C. § 547(g).

The Trustee has alleged facts sufficient to establish that the Defendant received transfers avoidable under § 547(b). The declarations attached to the Motion support the Trustee's entitlement to the damages requested against the Defendant. The Trustee engaged the services of an accountant and forensic data firm to reconstruct the Debtor's business records. The Trustee has submitted invoices and/or reconstructed business records of the Debtor showing that the Defendant received preferential payments, in the amount of $783,304.50, during the 90-day period prior to the Petition Date.

The Trustee is Entitled to Recover the Transfers Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 550(a)

Pursuant to § 551, "any transfer avoided under section ... 547 ... is preserved for the benefit of the estate but only with respect to property of the estate." Accordingly, the Trustee is entitled to a judgment against Defendant preserving the avoided transfer for the benefit of the estate.

III. Conclusion

For the reasons set forth above, the Motion is GRANTED. The Trustee is entitled to a default judgment in his favor pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 547, 550, and 551.

The Trustee is directed to submit a proposed order and conforming judgment within seven days of the hearing.

#101.00 HearingRE: [16] Motion to set aside RE: DEFAULT POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

Docket 16

Tentative Ruling:

10/16/2018

For the reasons set forth below, the Motion to Set Aside Default is GRANTED.

Pleadings Filed and Reviewed

1. Complaint to Determine Nondischargeability of Debt (11 U.S.C. § 523(a)(2)(A), § 523(a)(2)(B), § 523(a)(6)) [Adv. Doc. No. 1]
2. Notice That Clerk Has Entered Default Against Defendant(s) Manuel Macias [Adv. Doc. No. 13]
3. Defendant's Motion to Set Aside Default [Adv. Doc. No. 16]
4. As of the preparation of this tentative ruling, Plaintiff has not filed an opposition.

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

On July 12, 2018, Merchants Acquisition Group LLC ("Plaintiff") filed a Complaint to Determine Nondischargeability of Debt (11 U.S.C. § 523(a)(2)(A), § 523(a)(2)(B), § 523(a)(6)) [Adv. Doc. No. 1] ("Complaint") against debtor Manuel Macias ("Defendant"). The deadline for Defendant to file a response or answer to the Complaint was August 15, 2018. Defendant did not timely respond. The Clerk of the Court entered Defendant's default on August 22, 2018 [Adv. Doc. No. 13].

On September 21, 2018, Defendant filed the instant Motion to Set Aside Default [Adv. Doc. No. 16]. Defendant asserts that relief from default is appropriate based on the following: (1) Defendant's failure to timely respond is excusable because he was out of the country at the time the Summons and Complaint were served; (2) Defendant has a meritorious defense to the claims asserted in the Complaint; and (3) Plaintiff will not be prejudiced by the short delay that has resulted from Defendant's failure to timely respond to the Complaint.

Chapter 7

As of the preparation of this tentative ruling, Plaintiff has not filed an opposition.

II. Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law

Civil Rule 55(c) provides that "[t]he court may set aside a default for good cause." Fed. R. Civ. P. 55(c). "To determine 'good cause,' a court must 'consider [] three factors: (1) whether [the party seeking to set aside the default] engaged in culpable conduct that led to the default; (2) whether [it] had [no] meritorious defense; or (3) whether reopening the default judgment would prejudice' the other party." U.S. v. Signed Personal Check No. 730 of Yubran S. Mesle, 615 F.3d 1085, 1091 (9th Cir. 2010). "This standard, which is the same as is used to determine whether a default judgment should be set aside under Rule 60(b), is disjunctive, such that a finding that any one of these factors is true is sufficient reason for the district court to refuse to set aside the default." Id. "Crucially, however, judgment by default is a drastic step appropriate only in extreme circumstances; a case should, whenever possible, be decided on the merits." Id. (internal citations omitted). "The Court's discretion is especially broad where ... it is entry of default that is being set aside, rather than a default judgment." O'Connor v. State of Nev., 27 F.3d 357, 364 (9th Cir. 1994).

In this case, there is nothing in the record to suggest that Defendant engaged in culpable conduct that led to the default. Rather, Defendant has offered a reasonable excuse for why he did not timely respond to the Complaint. In addition, Defendant contends that he has a meritorious defense to Plaintiff's claims based on a purported lack of fraudulent intent. Finally, this Court does not believe Plaintiff will be prejudiced by vacating the default and Plaintiff has not presented any argument for this Court to find otherwise.

For the reasons stated above, the Court finds "good cause" to set aside the default. The Motion to Set Aside Default is GRANTED. Defendant is directed to file his answer or response to the Complaint no later than 7 days after entry of the order granting this motion.

Defendant is directed to lodge a proposed order within 7 days of the hearing.

No appearance is required if submitting on the court's tentative ruling. If you

Docket 1

Tentative Ruling:

10/16/2018

For the reasons set forth in Cal. No. 101, above, the Court is prepared to set aside the default and allow the Defendant to Answer the Complaint. Having reviewed the Joint Status Report filed by the parties, the Court HEREBY ORDERS as follows:

- 1) Defendant shall file an Answer or otherwise respond to the Complaint by no later than seven days after entry of the order granting Defendant's Motion to Set Aside Default.
- 2) The following litigation deadlines shall apply:
 - a) The last day to amend pleadings and/or join other parties is 12/13/2018.
 - b) The last day to disclose expert witnesses and expert witness reports is 3/26/2019.
 - c) The last day to disclose rebuttal expert witnesses and rebuttal expert witness reports is 4/25/2019.
 - d) The last date to complete discovery relating to expert witnesses (e.g., depositions of expert witnesses), including hearings on motions related to expert discovery, is 5/14/2019. (For contemplated hearings on motions related to expert discovery, it is counsel's responsibility to check the Judge's self-calendaring dates, posted on the Court's website. If the expert discovery cutoff date falls on a date when the court is closed or that is not available for self-calendaring, the deadline for hearings on expert

- e) The last day for dispositive motions to be heard is 5/21/2019. (If the motion cutoff date is not available for self-calendaring, the deadline for dispositive motions to be heard is the next closest date which is available for self-calendaring.)
 - f) The last day to complete discovery (except as to experts), including hearings on discovery motions, is 5/25/2019. (If the non-expert discovery cutoff date is not available for self-calendaring, the deadline for non-expert discovery motions to be heard is the next closest date which is available for self-calendaring.)
 - g) A Pretrial Conference is set for 6/11/2019 at 11:00 a.m. By no later than fourteen days prior to the Pretrial Conference, the parties must submit a Joint Pretrial Stipulation via the Court's Lodged Order Upload (LOU) system. Submission via LOU allows the Court to edit the Joint Pretrial Stipulation, if necessary. Parties should consult the Court Manual, section 4, for information about LOU.
 - h) In addition to the procedures set forth in Local Bankruptcy Rule 7016-1(b), the following procedures govern the conduct of the Pretrial Conference and the preparation of the Pretrial Stipulation:
 - i) By no later than thirty days prior to the Pretrial Conference, the parties must exchange copies of all exhibits which each party intends to introduce into evidence (other than exhibits to be used solely for impeachment or rebuttal).
 - ii) When preparing the Pretrial Stipulation, all parties shall stipulate to the admissibility of exhibits whenever possible. In the event any party cannot stipulate to the admissibility of an exhibit, that party must file a Motion in Limine which clearly identifies each exhibit alleged to be inadmissible and/or prejudicial. The moving party must set the Motion in Limine for hearing at the same time as the Pretrial Conference; notice and service of the Motion shall be governed by LBR 9013-1. The Motion in Limine must contain a statement of the specific prejudice that will be suffered by the moving party if the Motion is not granted. The Motion must be supported by a memorandum of points and authorities containing citations to the applicable Federal Rules of Evidence, relevant caselaw, and other legal authority. Blanket or boilerplate evidentiary objections not accompanied by detailed supporting argument are prohibited, will be summarily overruled, and may subject the moving party to sanctions.

- iii) The failure of a party to file a Motion in Limine complying with the requirements of ¶(2)(i)(ii) shall be deemed a waiver of any objections to the admissibility of an exhibit.
 - iv) Motions in Limine seeking to exclude testimony to be offered by any witness shall comply with the requirements set forth in ¶(2)(i)(ii).
 - i) Trial is set for the week of 6/24/2019. The trial day commences at 9:00 a.m. The exact date of the trial will be set at the Pretrial Conference. Consult the Court's website for the Judge's requirements regarding exhibit binders and trial briefs.
- 3) The matter shall be referred to the Mediation Panel. The parties shall meet and confer and select a Mediator from this District's Mediation Panel. Plaintiff will lodge a completed "Request for Assignment to Mediation Program; [Proposed] Order Thereon" (See Amended General Order 95-01 available on the Court's website) within 15 days from the date of this hearing, and deliver a hard copy directly to chambers c/o the judge's law clerk Daniel Koontz.

The Court will prepare and enter a Scheduling Order. Plaintiff shall submit the order assigning the matter to mediation.

#103.00 HearingRE: [33] Motion to Approve Compromise Under Rule 9019 Trustees Notice Of Motion And Motion To Approve Compromise With Lancaster Baptist Church with proof of service (Singh, Sonia)

Docket 33

Tentative Ruling:

10/16/2018

For the reasons set forth below, the Settlement Agreement is APPROVED and the Motion is GRANTED.

Pleadings Filed and Reviewed

1. Motion to Approve Compromise with Lancaster Baptist Church [Doc. No. 33] (the "Settlement Motion")
 - a. Notice of Motion to Approve Compromise with Lancaster Baptist Church [Doc. No. 34]
2. As of the preparation of this tentative ruling, no opposition is on file.

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

Timothy and Victoria Rosen (the "Debtors") filed this voluntary joint chapter 7 case on November 7, 2016 (the "Petition Date"). On October 3, 2017, the Chapter 7 Trustee ("Trustee") filed a Complaint for Avoidance and Recovery of Transfers against Lancaster Baptist Church ("Lancaster Baptist") asserting claims for relief under 11 U.S.C. §§ 544, 548, 550 and California Civil Code §§ 3439.04, 3439.05 and 3439.07 (the "Complaint") (Adv. Case No. 2:17-ap-01491-ER).

On June 26, 2018, the Trustee obtained an order of the Court granting him leave to amend the Complaint [Adv. Doc. No. 47] and filed his First Amended Complaint for Avoidance and Recovery of Transfers [Adv. Doc. No. 48] (the "Amended Complaint"). The Amended Complaint alleges that the Debtors made avoidable transfers to Lancaster Baptist within ten years of the Petition Date in the aggregate amount of $375,820.08 (the "Subject Transfers"). Lancaster Baptist filed an answer denying the material allegations in the Amended Complaint and asserting certain affirmative defenses [Adv. Doc. No. 55].

On July 9, 2018, Lancaster Baptist filed a Motion for Partial Summary Adjudication, or, Alternatively, Summary Adjudication of Issues [Adv. Doc. No. 56] (the "MSJ") and self-calendared a hearing for September 5, 2018. The Trustee timely opposed the MSJ [Adv. Doc. No. 61] and Lancaster Baptist filed a timely reply [Adv. Doc. No. 63]. On August 29, 2018, the parties filed a Notice of Settlement and Stipulation to Continue Summary Judgment Motion [Adv. Doc. No. 64], which the Court approved by order entered August 31, 2018 [Adv. Doc. No. 66].

The Trustee now seeks approval of a settlement agreement with Lancaster Baptist that resolves their disputes relating to the Subject Transfers (the "Agreement"). A copy of the fully-executed Agreement is attached to the Motion as Exhibit "1." The Agreement provides that Lancaster Baptist will pay $102,500 (the "Settlement Amount") in exchange for mutual releases and dismissal of the Amended Complaint with prejudice. Lancaster Baptist has also agreed to waive any claim that it may have against the Debtors' estate, including any claim for payment of an administrative expense.

As of the preparation of this tentative ruling, no timely opposition has been filed. Accordingly, the Court presumes all interested parties consent to its approval of the Motion pursuant to Local Bankruptcy Rule 9013-1(h).

II. Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law

A court may approve a compromise or settlement disposing of an adversary proceeding or claim upon a motion and a noticed hearing. Fed. R. Bankr. P. 9019. "Approval should only be given if the settlement is 'fair and equitable and in the best interest of the estate.'" Matter of Cajun Elec. Power Co-op., Inc., 119 F.3d 349, 355 (5th Cir. 1997). See In re Schmitt, 215 B.R. 417, 420 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 1997) (citing Martin v. Kane (In re A&C Properties), 784 F.2d 1377, 1381 (9th Cir. 1986)). A court should consider several factors when determining whether a compromise is reasonable, fair, and equitable, including:

- (a) the probability of success in litigation;
- (b) the difficulties, if any, to be encountered in the matter of collection;
- (c) the complexity of the litigation involved, and the expense, inconvenience, and delay necessarily attending it; and
- (d) the paramount interest of the creditors and a proper deference to their reasonable views in the premises.

In re A&C Properties, 784 F.2d at 1381. "[C]ompromises are favored in bankruptcy, and the decision of the bankruptcy judge to approve or disapprove the compromise of the parties rests in the sound discretion of the bankruptcy judge." In re Sassalos, 160 B.R. 646, 653 (D. Ore. 1993). See id. In reviewing a settlement agreement, the Court must "canvass the issues and see whether the settlement 'falls below the lowest point in the range of reasonableness.'" Cosoff v. Rodman (In re W.T. Grant Co.), 699 F.2d 599, 608 (2d Cir. 1983). A reviewing court need only find that the settlement does not fall below the lowest point in the range of reasonableness—not that the settlement or compromise offers a debtor the best possible resolution of the action or claim. W.T. Grant Co., 699 F.2d at 608. The party proposing the compromise has the burden of persuading the court that the compromise is fair and equitable. A&C Properties, 784 F.2d at 1381.

For the reasons set forth below, the Court finds that the compromise is fair and reasonable and is in the best interests of the estate.

Probability of Success in the Litigation

The Trustee believes that he would be successful in avoiding the Subject Transfers and overcome Lancaster Baptist's affirmative defenses and arguments set forth in its MSJ. Nevertheless, the Trustee concedes and the Court agrees that there are several issues that may need to be tried and that litigation always brings the risk of loss, increased administrative costs and extra delay.

Difficulties to Be Encountered in Collection

The Trustee is not aware of any difficulty in collecting on a judgment against Lancaster Baptist, so the Court agrees that this factor is neutral.

Complexity of the Litigation and Delay Attending It

Chapter 7

The Trustee does not believe that continuing to pursue his fraudulent transfer claims will be complex, but notes that continued litigation will likely include trial and potential appeals which would result in significant delay. The Court agrees that approving the Agreement will enable the estate to receive $102,500 in unencumbered funds and avoid the uncertainty of protracted litigation and appeals. Such litigation would drain resources from the estate and reduce the distribution to creditors.

Paramount Interests of Creditors

The Court finds that the Agreement is in the best interest of creditors because it results in the immediate recovery of $102,500 for the estate without incurring additional expenses and delay. Absent the Agreement, there is no guarantee that the Trustee will succeed in avoiding any of the Subject Transfers.

III. Conclusion

For the foregoing reasons, the Court GRANTS the Motion and APPROVES the Agreement.

The Trustee shall upload a conforming order within 7 days of the hearing.

Tentative Ruling:

This Motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on the notice required by LBR 4001(c)(1) and LBR 9013-1(d)(2). The failure of the Debtor, the trustee, and all other parties in interest to file written opposition at least 14 days prior to the hearing as required by LBR 9013-1(f) is considered as consent to the granting of the Motion. LBR 9013-1(h). Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995).

The Motion is GRANTED pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(2) to permit Movant, its successors, transferees and assigns, to enforce its remedies to foreclose upon and obtain possession of the property in accordance with applicable law. Movant may not pursue any deficiency claim against the Debtor or property of the estate except by filing a proof of claim pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 501. Since a chapter 7 case does not contemplate reorganization, the sole issue before the Court when stay relief is sought under 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(2) is whether the Debtor has equity in the property. See, e.g., Martens v. Countrywide Home Loans (In re Martens), 331 B.R. 395, 398 (8th Cir. BAP 2005); Ramco Indus. v. Preuss (In re Preuss), 15 B.R. 896, 897 (9th Cir. BAP 1981).

The subject property has a value of $11,392.83 and is encumbered by a perfected deed of trust or mortgage in favor of the Movant. The liens against the property and the costs of sale total $68,827.65. The Court finds there is no equity and

The Court entered the ORAP based upon Plaintiff's counsel's representation, made under penalty of perjury, that Ms. Lefevre "resides or has a place of business in the county [of Los Angeles] or within 150 miles of the place of examination." See Doc. No. 58.

Ms. Lefevre has supplied evidence establishing that she resides at 901 Jefferson Street, Apartment 514, Oakland, CA 94607—which is not within 150 miles of the place of examination. Ms. Lefevre has further supplied evidence showing that her place of business is in Oakland, California.

II. Findings and Conclusions

Pursuant to Cal. Code Civ. Proc. §§491.150(b) and 708.160(b), an examinee must conduct business or reside within 150 miles of the place of examination. Ms. Lefevre does not reside or conduct business live within 150 miles of this Court. Therefore, Ms. Lefevre is not required to appear at this examination. To the extent the ORAP required Ms. Lefevre to appear for examination before this Court, is it HEREBY VACATED.

Ms. Lefevre's counsel states that he is communicating with Plaintiff's counsel to facilitate the production of documents and to renote the examination for a location in Oakland, California. In the Court's view, a stipulated resolution of this matter would be the most expeditious means for Plaintiff's counsel to obtain the information he seeks. To the extent the ORAP required Ms. Lefevre to produce documents, it shall remain in force. Plaintiff's counsel and Ms. Lefevre's counsel are directed to file a stipulation to renote the examination in Oakland, California by no later than November 16, 2018.

No appearance is required if submitting on the court's tentative ruling. If you intend to submit on the tentative ruling, please contact Jessica Vogel or Daniel Koontz at 213-894-1522. If you intend to contest the tentative ruling and appear, please first contact opposing counsel to inform them of your intention to do so. Should an opposing party file a late opposition or appear at the hearing, the court will determine whether further hearing is required. #2.00 HearingRE: [17] Motion to Avoid Lien Judicial Lien with First National Bank of Omaha with Proof of Service

Tentative Ruling:

10/22/2018

For the reasons set forth below, the Lien Avoidance Motion is GRANTED.

Pleadings Filed and Reviewed

1. Debtors' Notice of Motion and Motion to Avoid Lien Under 11 U.S.C. § 522(f) (Real Property) [Doc. No. 17]
2. First National Bank of Omaha's Notice of Opposition and Request for a Hearing [Doc. No. 18]
3. Notice of Hearing on Motion to Avoid Judicial Lien with First National Bank of Omaha [Doc. No. 19]
4. As of the preparation of this tentative ruling, no reply is on file

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

Matthew Vidal Hernandez and Deborah Ann Hernandez (the "Debtors") filed a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 7 on July 6, 2017 (the "Petition Date"). Debtors' Schedule A identified a 50% ownership interest in real property located at 10415 Ferina Street, Bellflower, CA 90706 (the "Property"), valued at $493,000. See Doc. No. 1. Debtors claimed a $100,000 homestead exemption in the Property on Schedule C. Id. On October 16, 2017, the Debtors received their discharge [Doc. No. 11].

On July 25, 2018, the Debtors filed a Motion to Avoid Lien Under 11 U.S.C. § 522(f) (Real Property) [Doc. No. 17] (the "Lien Avoidance Motion"), pursuant to which the Debtors seek to avoid the judicial lien of First National Bank of Omaha ("FNB") securing a pre-petition judgment in the amount of $6,154.82. In support of the Lien Avoidance Motion, the Debtors attached an appraisal report valuing the Property at $485,000 as of July 6, 2017. Lien Avoidance Motion, Exhibit B. The Debtors also attached a grant deed reflecting title to the Property being held by Deborah Ann Hernandez and Marsha A. Tucker as joint tenants (the "Grant Deed") and a May 2017 billing statement from the first lien holder with a balance of $332,956.53. Id., Exhibits C & F.

On August 2, 2018, FNB filed a Notice of Opposition and Request for Hearing [Doc. No. 18] (the "Opposition"). FNB objects to the avoidance of its lien as follows:

1. The Lien Avoidance Motion fails to establish that there is not enough equity in the home to cover FNB's judicial lien.
2. On Debtors' Schedule C, under the section "Current value of the portion you own," the Debtors stated $493,000, thereby indicating that they own 100% of the Property. However, this is contradicted by the Grant Deed which shows that Ms. Hernandez only owns a 50% interest in the Property. The Debtors received a discharge on October 16, 2017, and are judicially estopped from asserting a change in ownership at this stage of the proceedings.

On August 22, 2018, the Debtors filed a Notice of Hearing on the Lien Avoidance Motion [Doc. No. 19]. As of the preparation of this tentative ruling, the Debtors have not filed a reply.

II. Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law

Pursuant to § 522(f), a debtor may avoid the fixing of a lien on an interest of the debtor in property to the extent that such lien impairs an exemption if such lien is a judicial lien, other than a judicial lien that secures a debt of a kind that is specified in § 523(a)(5). 11 U.S.C. § 522(f). "For the purposes of this subsection, a lien shall be considered to impair an exemption to the extent that the sum of: (i) the lien; (ii) all other liens on the property; and (iii) the amount of the exemption that the debtor could claim if there were no liens on the property, exceeds the value that the debtor's interest in the property would have in the absence of any liens." Id. A debtor's interest in the property is determined by the "fair market value as of the date of the filing of the petition." 11 U.S.C. §§ 522(a), (f). To prevail on a motion to avoid a judicial lien, the debtor must show that: (1) he has an interest in the homestead property; (2) he is entitled to a homestead exemption; (3) the asserted lien impairs that exemption; and

(4) the lien is a judicial lien. In re Meeks, 349 B.R. 19, 21 (Bankr. E.D. Cal. 2006). "As the moving party, the debtor carries the burden of proof on all factors." Id.; see also In re Pederson, 230 B.R. 158, 160 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 1999); In re Catli, 999 F.2d 1405, 1406 (9th Cir. 1993).

According to the Debtors, their homestead exemption is impaired by FNB's lien because the sum of FNB's lien, all other liens (including the non-filing co-owner's 50% interest valued at $242,500), and the Debtors' exemption is $675,456.53. The Debtors then subtracted the value of the Debtors' interest in the Property ($485,000) to show that FNB's lien impairs the Debtors' exemption to the extent of $675,456.53.

FNB does not dispute that the Property was worth $485,000 as of the Petition Date or that the Debtors are entitled to their claimed homestead exemption of $100,000 pursuant to Cal. CCP § 704.730(a)(3). However, FNB does object to the Debtors' calculations based on a 50% ownership interest in the Property.

The Court agrees that the Debtors application of the § 522(f) formula is incorrect. In In re Meyer, the Ninth Circuit Bankruptcy Appellate Panel addressed the application of § 522(f)'s lien avoidance formula when the debtor owns a fractional interest in the property. 373 B.R. 84 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 2007). The Court acknowledged a circuit split over whether to strictly apply the statutory formula in situations where property is co-owned and concluded that a mechanical application of the statutory formula would lead to an absurd result not intended by Congress. Id. at 90. Therefore, under Meyer, "nonavoidable encumbrances on co-owned property must be deducted from the total value of the property before a debtor's fractional interest is determined" for purposes of § 522(f). Id. at 91.

Using the same analysis applied in Meyer, the proper calculation is as follows:

Value of Collateral:	$485,000
Minus nonavoidable encumbrances:	($332,956.53)
	$152,043.47
Minus co-owner's interest in Collateral ($$152,043.47 \div 2$):	($76,021.74)
= Debtors' interest in the Property:	$76,021.74

Accordingly, applying the proper values into the formula, the Court takes the sum of FNB's lien ($6,154.82), all other nonavoidable liens on the property ($0), and the Debtor's exemption ($100,000) to arrive at $106,154.82. Subtracting the value of the Debtors' interest in the Property ($76,021.74) shows that FNB's lien impairs the Debtors' exemption to the extent of $30,133.08. Therefore, the Debtors are entitled to avoid FNB's lien under § 522(f).

FNB's judicial estoppel argument is overruled. "Judicial estoppel is an equitable doctrine that precludes a party from gaining an advantage by asserting one position, and then later seeking an advantage by taking a clearly inconsistent position." Hamilton v. State Farm Fire & Cas. Co., 270 F.3d 778, 782 (9th Cir.2001). Debtors' Schedule A clearly states that Debtors held a 50% ownership interest in the Property as of the Petition Date. See Doc. No. 1. The fact that Debtors incorrectly filled out Schedule C by listing the entire value of the Property, rather than 50% of that value, does not cancel out Debtors' Schedule A. Accordingly, the Court is not persuaded to find that the Debtors have taken clearly inconsistent positions with respect to their ownership interest.

For the reasons set forth above, the Lien Avoidance Motion is GRANTED.

Debtors shall lodge a conforming proposed order within 7 days of the hearing.

#3.00 HearingRE: [6] Motion to Reject Lease or Executory Contract , Abandon Personal Property, Destroy Any Personal Property With Identifying Information; and Pay for the Cost of Such Destructions; Declaration of Timothy J. Yoo in Support (Pagay, Carmela)

Docket 6

Tentative Ruling:

10/22/2018

For the reasons set forth below, the Motion is GRANTED, subject to the Trustee appearing at the hearing and providing evidence demonstrating that the Landlord received actual notice of the motion.

Pleadings Filed and Reviewed

1. Motion for Entry of An Order Authorizing Chapter 7 Trustee: (1) To Reject Unexpired Non-Residential Real Property Lease For Debtor's Business Location and Related Storage Agreement Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 365; (2) To Abandon Personal Property at the Premises Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 554; (3) To Destroy And Personal Property With Personally Identifiable Information; and (4) To Pay for the Cost of Such Destruction [Doc. No. 6] (the "Motion")
2. Notice of Motion [Doc. No. 5]
3. As of the date of preparation of this tentative ruling, no opposition is on file.

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

Worldwide Marketing Solutions (the "Debtor") filed a voluntary chapter 7 petition on September 17, 2018 (the "Petition Date"). The Chapter 7 Trustee ("Trustee") seeks authority to reject the Debtor's unexpired lease of non-residential commercial property located at 3130 Wilshire Boulevard, #300, Santa Monica, California 90403 (the "Premises") from Kilroy Realty, L.P. ("Landlord") pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 365(a). The Trustee also seeks authority to reject the debtor's separate lease of storage space in the same building as the Premises from the Landlord. Copies of the lease agreement, amendments, and storage agreement (collectively, the "Lease") are attached to the Motion as Exhibit "1."

Chapter 7

The Trustee states that the Debtor ceased all business operations on the Premises pre-petition and the rent and other obligations payable under the Lease are generally at or above current market rates. Therefore, the Trustee does not believe it would be in the best interest of creditors to try to market the Lease for assignment to a third party and rejecting the Lease will avoid unnecessary depletion of estate resources. The Trustee requests that the Lease be deemed rejected effective September 28, 2018.

The Trustee also states that certain personal property of the Debtor's remains at the Premises, which includes furniture, office equipment and supplies, finished goods, infomercial video masters, and miscellaneous files and documents (collectively, the "Personal Property"). The Trustee believes the Personal Property is burdensome and of inconsequential value. Therefore, the Trustee seeks authority to abandon the Personal Property pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 554(a). To the extent any Personal Property contains "personally identifiable information" as defined in § 101(41A), the Trustee seeks authority to destroy them and pay for the costs from estate funds.

As of the date of preparation of this tentative ruling, no opposition is on file.

II. Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law

A. The Proof of Service Does Not Reflect Proper Service on the Landlord

Bankruptcy Rules 6006(a), 9014(b), and 7004(b)(3) require the Motion to be served on Kilroy Realty, L.P. (the "Landlord") "to the attention of an officer, a managing or general agent, or to any other agent authorized by appointment or by law to receive service of process." Fed. R. Bankr. P. 7004(b)(3). The proof of service does not reflect service on the Landlord as required by 7004(b)(3). Although the Trustee served Michael S. Greger of Allen Matkins et al LLP, there is nothing in the record for this Court to conclude that Mr. Greger is authorized to accept service on behalf of the Landlord.

Accordingly, the Trustee is directed to appear to provide evidence demonstrating that the Landlord received actual notice of the motion.

Under 11 U.S.C. § 365(a), a "trustee, subject to the court's approval, may assume or reject any executory contract or unexpired lease of the debtor." 11 U.S.C. § 365(a). "A bankruptcy court's hearing on a motion to reject is a summary proceeding that involves only a cursory review of a trustee's decision to reject the contract." Durkin v. Benedor Corp. (In re G.I Indus.), 204 F.3d 1276, 1282 (9th Cir. 2000). "Specifically, a bankruptcy court applies the business judgment rule to evaluate a trustee's rejection decision." Id. A court should approve the rejection decision unless it finds that the trustee's conclusion that rejection would be advantageous is so "manifestly unreasonable that it could not be based on sound business judgment, but only on bad faith, or whim or caprice." Agarwal v. Pomona Valley Med. Grp., Inc. (In re Pomona Valley Med. Grp., Inc.), 476 F.3d 665, 670 (9th Cir. 2007) (internal citation omitted).

Here, the Trustee states that the Debtor has ceased operating and the estate has no use for the Premises. Declaration of Timothy Yoo ("Trustee Decl."), ¶ 3. The Trustee further states that absent rejection of the Lease, the estate's resources will continue to be depleted and he does not believe that marketing the Lease for assignment will result in any net recovery for the estate. Id., ¶ 4. Accordingly, the Court finds that it is in the best interest of the estate to authorize the Trustee to reject the Lease.

Next, the Trustee requests that the Court deem the Lease rejection nunc pro tunc to September 28, 2018, the Motion filing date. In support, the Trustee cites Pacific Shores Development, LLC v. At Home Corporation (In re At Home Corporation), 392 F.3d 1064, 1071 (9th Cir. 2004). In In re At Home Corporation, the Ninth Circuit identified four non-exclusive factors to be applied by a bankruptcy court in making a determination whether "exceptional circumstances" warranted retroactive rejection of a lease:

- (1) the debtor's immediate filing of a motion to reject the lease;
- (2) a debtor's prompt action in setting that motion for hearing;
- (3) the vacancy of the leased premises; and
- (4) the landlord's conduct and motivation in opposing a retroactive rejection of the lease.

Chapter 7

The Court finds it appropriate to deem the Lease rejected as of September 28, 2018, based on the fact that (i) the Trustee filed the Motion eleven days after the Petition Date; (ii) the Trustee selected the first available hearing date; and (iii) the Trustee states that the Debtor ceased operating on the Premises prior to the Petition Date. The Landlord has not responded to the Motion, so the fourth factor is inapplicable.

C. Abandonment of Personal Property

Under 11 U.S.C. § 554(a), "after noticed and a hearing, the trustee may abandon any property of the estate that is burdensome to the estate or that is of inconsequential value and benefit to the estate."

Based on the Trustee's declaration, as well as the lack of opposition from any party in interest, the Court finds that the Personal Property is of inconsequential value and benefit to the estate. Therefore, the Trustee is authorized to abandon the Personal Property. The Trustee is also authorized to destroy an "personally identifiable information" as defined in 11 U.S.C. § 101(41A) and to pay for the costs from estate funds.

III. Conclusion

For the reasons stated above, the Motion is GRANTED, subject to the Trustee appearing at the hearing and providing evidence demonstrating that the Landlord received actual notice of the motion.

Andrews & Son Tradings, Inc., dba Beston Shoes (the "Debtor") filed a voluntary Chapter 11 petition on July 13, 2018 (the "Petition Date"). The Debtor is an online wholesaler and retailer of shoes. The Court conducted an initial hearing on the Debtor's request to use cash collateral consisting of the Debtor's inventory and accounts receivables on July 19, 2018, and entered an order authorizing interim use of cash collateral on July 23, 2014. See Doc. hearing on August 21, 2018, and entered an order authorizing Debtor's continued use of interim cash collateral through October 23, 2018. See Doc. No. 47.

In connection with this hearing, the Debtor timely filed a Supplemental Brief in Support of Motion for Order Authorizing Use of Cash Collateral (the "Renewed Motion") [Doc. No. 60]. In support of the Renewed Motion, the Debtor submitted further evidence in support of its continued use of cash collateral, including revised projected income and expenses for the months of October 1, 2018 through March 30, 2018 (the "Projections"). The Debtor's August and September 2018 monthly operating reports ("MORs") show that the Debtor's actual revenue projections have been stronger than anticipated. See Doc. Nos. 41 & 54. Accordingly, the Debtor requests that the Court approve the modified budget attached as Exhibit "1" to the Declaration of Jiazheng Lu (the "Lu Declaration").

The Debtor also requests that the Court approve its continued adequate protection payments to secured creditors, except that Debtor seeks authority to cease making payments to New Commercial Capital ("NCC") because the Debtor cannot determine any loan or monies owed to and NCC has not filed a claim.

As of the preparation of this tentative ruling, no opposition is on file.

II. Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law

Section 363(c)(2) requires court authorization for use of cash collateral unless "each entity that has an interest in such cash collateral consents." In the Ninth Circuit, satisfaction of § 363(c)(2)(A) requires the "affirmative express consent" of the secured creditor; "implied consent," resulting from the failure of the secured creditor to object to use of cash collateral, does not satisfy the requirements of the statute. Freightliner Market Development Corp. v. Silver Wheel Freightlines, Inc., 823 F.2d 362, 368-69 (9th Cir. 1987). Absent affirmative express consent, the Debtor "may not use" cash collateral absent the Court's determination that the use is "in accordance with the provisions" of § 363 – that is, that the secured creditor's interest in the cash collateral is adequately protected. 11 U.S.C. §§ 363(c)(2)(B), 363(e).

A secured creditor's interest is adequately protected if the value of its collateral is not declining; the secured creditor is not entitled to payment to compensate for its inability to foreclose upon the collateral during bankruptcy proceedings. United Savings Association of Texas v. Timbers of Inwood Forest Associates, Ltd., 484 U.S. 365, 382 (1988). Section 361 sets forth three non-exclusive examples of what may constitute adequate protection: (1) periodic cash payments equivalent to decrease in value; (2) an additional or replacement lien on other property; or (3) other relief that provides the indubitable equivalent. See In re Mellor, 734 F.2d 1396, 1400 (9th Cir. 1984).

In this case, the Court previously determined that the secured creditors are adequately protected by the Debtor's ongoing operations, periodic cash payments, and replacement liens. See Doc. Nos. 24 & 47. Further, the Debtor's supplemental evidence and MORs show that the secured creditors' cash collateral is not declining in value. The Debtor's use of cash collateral to purchase new inventory and pay operating expenses will generate replacement income, which provides another form of adequate protection. See In re Megan-Racine Associates, Inc., 202 B.R. 660, 663 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1996) (concluding that "[a]s long as there was a continuous income stream being generated by the Debtor, the fact that the Debtor consumed a portion of those monies to operate and maintain the facility each month did not diminish the value of the [secured creditor's] interest in the [cash collateral]").

The Court also finds it appropriate to authorize the Debtor to cease making monthly adequate protection payments to NCC based on the representations set forth in the Lu Declaration. See Doc. No. 60, Lu Decl., ¶ 11.

Based on the foregoing, the Court GRANTS the Motion for Use of Cash Collateral is GRANTED on a final basis and approves the Debtor's revised budget.

The Debtor shall upload a conforming order within seven days of the hearing.

Docket 141

Tentative Ruling:

10/23/2018

For the reasons set forth below, the Motion is GRANTED as modified below.

Pleadings Filed and Reviewed

1. Debtor's Motion to Extend Time to Assume or Reject Unexpired Leases of Nonresidential Real Property [Doc. No. 141] (the "Extension Motion")

4. As of the preparation of this tentative ruling, no reply is on file

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

Debtor-in-possession Sultan Financial Corporation (the "Debtor") filed a voluntary chapter 11 petition on July 13, 2018. The Debtor presently operates sixteen Aaron's stores throughout Southern California pursuant to separate unexpired commercial leases (collectively, the "Subject Leases"). The current deadline for the Debtor to assume or reject the Subject Leases is November 10, 2018.

On October 3, 2018, the Debtor filed a separate motion to approve a settlement and sale of substantially all of its assets [Doc. No. 138] (the "Sale Motion"). Pursuant to the Sale Motion, the Debtor seeks authority to assume and assign 15 of its 16 commercial leases to Aaron's in connection with an anticipated sale closing date of November 9, 2018. However, out of an abundance of caution, in the event the sale does not close by November 9, 2018, the Debtor seeks a 90-day extension, to February 9, 2019, of its deadline to assume, assign, or reject the Subject Leases. The Debtor states that there is more than sufficient cause to grant the requested extension because if an extension is not granted and the sale does not timely close, the Subject Leases will be rejected and the sale will fall apart.

With respect to the lease of commercial property located at 3265 W. Shaw Ave., Fresno, CA 93711 (the "Shaw Ave. Lease"), the Debtor states that it will continue to operate at that location for a brief period to complete the transition period for the Aaron's sale transaction, and then move to reject the Shaw Ave. Lease.

Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., ("Wells Fargo") filed a limited opposition to the Extension Motion [Doc. No. 155] (the "Opposition"). Wells Fargo states that pre-petition it entered into a series of transactions wherein it loaned money to the Randall & Patricia Family Revocable Trust (the "Sultan Trust"), Fresno-Blackstone, LLC (the "Blackstone LLC"), and Sultan Financial Niles, LLC (the "Sultan Niles LLC"), entities related to the Debtor (collectively, the "Sultan Related Entities") for the purchase of real property located that 3265 West Shaw Avenue Fresno, CA 93711 (the "Shaw Property"), 1614-1632 North Blackstone Avenue Fresno, CA 93703 (the "Blackstone Property") and 6473 Niles Street Bakersfield, CA 93306 (the "Niles Property," collectively the "Properties"). Wells Fargo further states that the Debtor is a guarantor of certain commercial guarantees with respect to the Properties and that the Debtor entered into lease agreements with each of the Sultan Related Entities for the lease of the Properties.

Wells Fargo objects to the relief requested in the Extension Motion on two grounds. First, Wells Fargo contends that the Debtor fails to adequately explain why a 90-day extension is appropriate, as opposed to some shorter extension. Wells Fargo also contends that any assumption and assignment (of the Blackstone and Niles Properties) should occur concurrently with the sale closing. Therefore, Wells Fargo seeks clarification as to whether that it the Debtor's intention.

Second, Wells Fargo contends that the Extension Motion does not provide an adequate reason for the Debtor's use of the Shaw Property beyond November 10, 2018, and how Debtor's intended rejection of the Shaw Ave Lease will impact Wells Fargo if the Debtor is no longer paying rent. Accordingly, Wells Fargo also seeks clarification on these issues.

Chapter 11

As of the preparation of this tentative ruling, the Debtor has not filed a reply.

II. Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law

Section 365(d)(4) provides that an unexpired lease of nonresidential real property is deemed rejected if the Debtor does not assume such lease within 120 days after the date of the order for relief. Section 365(d)(4)(B) permits the Court to extend the Debtor's deadline to assume or reject nonresidential real property leases for an additional 90 days "for cause." Cause for an extension exists if the case involves numerous and complicated leases and if the Debtor remains current on its post-petition lease obligations. Willamette Water Front, Ltd. v. Victoria Station Inc. (In re Victoria Station Inc.), 88 B.R. 231, 236 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 1988), aff'd, 875 F.2d 1380 (9th Cir. 1989).

Based upon the Court's review of the separately filed Notice to Counterparties to Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases to Potentially Be Assumed and Assigned, and Notice of Cure Amounts [Doc. No. 140], the Court finds that the Debtor is current on its post-petition lease obligations. To ensure the Debtor is able to consummate the proposed sale to Aaron's, the Court finds that "cause" exists for an extension of the Debtor's deadline to assume or reject the Subject Leases; however, the Court agrees that the Debtor has not articulated an adequate basis to grant a 90-day extension. Accordingly, the Court will grant the Debtor a 30-day extension, which may be extended by a separate motion or stipulation for good cause shown.

The remainder of the limited objections raised by Wells Fargo are overruled. As set forth in more detail in the Sale Motion, it appears that the Debtor intends to assume and assign the Subject Leases concurrently with the sale to Aaron's. If this is not the case, the Debtor should appear at the hearing to provide further clarification. Additionally, the Court finds cause exists to extend the deadline for the Debtor to assume or reject the Shaw Ave Lease. Wells Fargo's right to seek payment of an administrative expense for amounts owing prior to rejection is reserved.

III. Conclusion

For the reasons set forth above, the Extension Motion is GRANTED. The

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

Debtor-in-possession Sultan Financial Corporation (the "Debtor") filed a voluntary chapter 11 petition on July 13, 2018 (the "Petition Date"). The Debtor is in the rent-to-own industry and presently operates sixteen stores under the Aaron's Sales & Lease ("Aaron's") trademark in California (the "Stores"). The Debtor has sixteen separate, but virtually identical, franchise agreements (the "Franchise Agreements") with Aaron's, pursuant to which, the Debtor holds a nonexclusive license to operate its leasing and retail business using Aaron's licensing system (the "Aaron's System") and Aaron's service marks, trade names, trademarks, logos, and unique signs (collectively, the "Franchisor's Marks"). Among other fees, the Franchise Agreements require the Debtor to pay a weekly royalty fee to Aaron's in an amount equal to six percent of the Debtor's gross revenues.

The Debtor is solely owned by the Randall and Patricia Sultan Family Revocable Trust dated December 5, 1999, as amended (the "Sultan Family Trust"). Randall Sultan is the sole member of SFC's board of directors and the chief executive officer. Randall and Patricia Sultan (the "Sultans") personally guaranteed the Debtor's obligations under each of the Franchise Agreements. The Debtor's primary secured creditor is Zions Bankcorporation, N.A., successor by merger to California Bank & Trust ("CBT"). In exchange for certain term loans and lines of credit, CBT has a security interest in all of the Debtor's assets. As of the Petition Date, the Debtor owed CBT $15,556,285.54. Aaron's also asserts an unsecured claim in the amount of $4,630,053.63 as of that date.

Prior to filing bankruptcy, certain disputes arose between the Debtor and Aaron's.

Chapter 11

The parties participated in a mediation, which resulted in a settlement agreement dated October 19, 2016 (the "Aaron's Settlement"). Notwithstanding the Aaron's Settlement, the parties continued to have disagreements. At the same time, the Debtor was experiencing declining revenue and profitability and the CBT loans matured on June 15, 2018. Accordingly, the Debtor sought bankruptcy protection.

On July 16, 2018, the Debtor commenced an adversary proceeding against Aaron's by filing a complaint asserting six claims, each of which is based on the Debtor's contention that Aaron's did not make certain changes or adjustments to the Aaron's System that Debtor requested and that Aaron's breached its obligations under the Aaron's Settlement (Adv. Case. No. 2:18-ap-01225-ER) (the "Aaron's Litigation"). Aaron's denies each claim and contends that the Debtor's assertions are baseless.

Following several weeks of settlement discussions and two mediation sessions, the Debtor, CBT, the Sultans, individually and as trustees of the Sultan Family Trust, and Aaron's (collectively, the "Settling Parties") have agreed to resolve their disputes. The Debtor has agreed to sell substantially all of its assets to Aaron's free and clear of all interests for $13,000,000, payable to CBT, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in a settlement agreement (the "Settlement Agreement") and purchase agreement (the "Purchase Agreement," together with the Settlement Agreement, the "Agreements").

The Debtor now seeks authorization and approval to enter into the Agreements, settle its dispute with Aaron's and CBT pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019, and sell substantially all of its assets to Aaron's under § 363(f). The salient terms of the Settlement Agreement are as follows:

- Aaron's will pay CBT $13 million on upon sale closing for the purchase of the Debtor's assets, except for certain excluded assets (the "Excluded Assets"). The Debtor will use its cash reserves to pay CBT $300,000, provided that the payment does not render the Debtor administratively insolvent, in which case, the Debtor only has to pay an amount up to $300,000 that would not render the Debtor administratively insolvent. After the Debtor satisfies all allowed administrative expense claims, the Debtor will pay all of its remaining cash to CBT, provided that such amount does not exceed CBT's claim. If those payments do not equal $400,000, the Sultans will personally pay CBT up to $50,000 in exchange for CBT's rights, claims, and interests in the Excluded Assets and the possibility of an administrative expense claim against the Debtor's estate. These payments will be in full satisfaction of CBT's claim.

- The Settling Parties will provide certain mutual releases.
- Upon execution of the Settlement Agreement, the Debtor will move to dismiss the Aaron's Litigation with prejudice. Following the sale closing date, CBT will move to dismiss a state court action presently pending against the Debtor with prejudice.
- Aaron's will defend and hold harmless against any damages the Debtor or Sultans are ordered to pay in connection with a pending lawsuit captioned Byrd et al v. Aaron's, Inc., et al (Case No. 11-00101), pending in the District Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania.
- The Debtor will continue to operate its business until the final payment due under the Agreements is paid.

The salient terms of the Purchase Agreement are as follows:

- Aaron's will purchase substantially all of the Debtor's assets free and clear pursuant to § 363(f) for $13 million, with the exception of the Excluded Assets and certain excluded liabilities set forth in the Purchase Agreement, through a private sale.
- The Debtor will assume and assign to Aaron's a list of identified leases and executory contracts and any personal guaranty of the Sultans'.
- Aaron's will offer employment to all existing employees, subject to certain qualifications.
- The Debtor and Aaron's will enter into a transition service agreement, the terms of which are set forth in detail in the Purchase Agreement.

In connection with the proposed sale, the Debtor seeks to assume and assign certain executory contracts and leases. [Note 1] Concurrently with the filing of the Motion, the Debtor filed and served a Notice to Counterparties to Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases to Potentially be Assumed and Assigned, and Notice of Cure Amounts (the "Assumption and Assignment Notice"). The Debtor seeks approval of the notice provided in the Assumption and Assignment Notice and authorization to assume and assign the executory contracts and unexpired leases identified in Exhibit A to the Assumption and Assignment Notice.

The Debtor also requests that the Court make a finding under § 363(m) that Aaron's is a good faith purchaser and waiver of the 14-day stay on any order approving the proposed sale pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h).

On October 12, 2018, CBT filed a statement in support of the Motion and requests that the Court approve the relief requested therein. Doc No. 158.

As of the preparation of this tentative ruling, no opposition is on file.

II. Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law

The Court Approves the Settlement Agreement

The Court approves the Settlement Agreement. Bankruptcy Rule 9019(a) permits the Court to approve a compromise or settlement. "In determining the fairness, reasonableness and adequacy of a proposed settlement agreement, the court must consider: (a) The probability of success in the litigation; (b) the difficulties, if any, to be encountered in the matter of collection; (c) the complexity of the litigation involved, and the expense, inconvenience and delay necessarily attending it; (d) the paramount interest of the creditors and a proper deference to their reasonable views in the premises." Martin v. Kane (In re A&C Properties), 784 F.2d 1377, 1381 (9th Cir. 1986). "[C]ompromises are favored in bankruptcy, and the decision of the bankruptcy judge to approve or disapprove the compromise of the parties rests in the sound discretion of the bankruptcy judge." In re Sassalos, 160 B.R. 646, 653 (D. Ore. 1993). In approving a settlement agreement, the Court must "canvass the issues and see whether the settlement 'falls below the lowest point in the range of reasonableness.'" Cosoff v. Rodman (In re W.T. Grant Co.), 699 F.2d 599, 608 (2d Cir. 1983). The A&C Properties factors weigh in favor of approving the Amended Settlement Agreement. Applying the A&C Properties factors, the Court finds that the compromise is adequate, fair, and reasonable.

Probability of Success in the Litigation

This factor weighs in favor of approving the Settlement Agreement. While it is possible that additional litigation might yield a more favorable result for the estate, that potential is outweighed by the immediate resolution of all disputes between the Debtor and Aaron's and the avoidance of protracted and costly litigation and appeals.

Difficulties to be Encountered in Collection

This factor is neutral. The Debtor does not believe that it would have difficulty collecting upon any judgment against Aaron's.

Complexity of the Litigation

This factor weighs in favor of approving the Settlement Agreement. The Aaron's Litigation involves a number of complex issues and claims. Further, the action is in a relatively early stage of litigation and, absent a settlement, would likely require costly discovery, a trial, and appeals.

Paramount Interest of Creditors

This factor weighs in favor of approving the Settlement Agreement. While the Settlement Agreement appears to primarily benefit CBT, insiders, and administrative claimants, there is nothing in the record for the Court to conclude that unsecured creditors would receive any distribution if the Court were to deny the settlement. Additionally, approving the settlement will benefit the estate because it will enable the Debtor to wind down its business and more expeditiously administer the case.

The Court also notes that no interested party has objected to the proposed settlement. Pursuant to Local Bankruptcy Rule 9013-1(h), failure to respond to the Motion may be deemed consent to the granting of the Motion.

The Court Approves the Sale

Section 363(b) permits the debtor or trustee to sell estate property out of the ordinary course of business, subject to Court approval. The debtor or trustee must articulate a business justification for the sale of the property. In re Walter, 83 B.R. 14, 19–20 (9th Cir. BAP 1988) (citing In re Continental Air Lines, 780 F.2d 1223 (5th Cir. 1986)). Whether the articulated business justification is sufficient "depends on the case," in view of "all salient factors pertaining to the proceeding." Id. "The court's obligation in § 363(b) sales is to assure that optimal value is realized by the estate under the circumstances." *Simantob v. Chapter 11

The Court finds that notice is proper and the Debtor has provided ample business justification for the proposed sale and on that basis approves the sale. In view of the specific facts of this case, the Court is satisfied that the private sale to Aaron's is fair and reasonable and the best opportunity for the Debtor to maximize the value of the Debtor's assets. As set forth in the Declaration of Randall C. Sultan (the "Sultan Decl.") filed in support of the Motion, there do not appear to be any apparent or viable alternative third-party purchasers and none of Aaron's other franchisees have expressed an interest. Sultan Decl., ¶¶ 22, 24. Furthermore, any third-party sale would require Aaron's consent prior to the Debtor's assumption and assignment of the Franchise Agreements and it is likely that Aaron would oppose such assumption and assignment, thereby dissuading interested parties from participating in a competitive bidding process. Id.

Based upon the Sultan Decl. at para. 26, the Court finds that Aaron's is a good-faith purchaser under § 363(m).

The 14-day stay provided by Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h) is waived.

The Sale is Free and Clear of All Interests, Including Successor Liability

Section 363(f)(2) provides that a sale may be free and clear of liens if the holder of the interest consents. No timely objection was filed, so all interested holders who received notice are deemed to have consented pursuant to LBR 9013-1(h). The Court also finds that the sale may proceed free and clear of all interests, such as potential holders of successor liability claims, pursuant to § 363(f)(5) because such individuals or entities could be compelled, in a legal or equitable proceeding, to accept a money satisfaction of such interest.

The Debtor May Assume and Assign Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases

Under § 365, the Debtor may assume executory contracts and unexpired leases and, pursuant to § 363(b), assumed executory contracts and leases may be sold. Prior to assumption, the Debtor must cure any defaults.

Based on the Court's review of the Assumption and Assignment Notice, it does not appear any defaults exist. No timely objections to the proposed $0.00 cure amounts were filed. Accordingly, the assumption and assignment of those executory contracts and unexpired leases is approved.

III. Conclusion

For the reasons set forth above, the Motion is GRANTED.

The Debtor shall lodge a conforming proposed order within 7 days of the hearing.

No appearance is required if submitting on the court's tentative ruling. If you intend to submit on the tentative ruling, please contact Daniel Koontz or Jessica Vogel at 213-894-1522. If you intend to contest the tentative ruling and appear, please first contact opposing counsel to inform them of your intention to do so. Should an opposing party file a late opposition or appear at the hearing, the court will determine whether further hearing is required. Note 1: The Debtor states that it does not intend to provide notice of the Motion or the Assumption and Assignment Notice to the more than 12,000 individuals or entities (the "Customers") who are party to more than 18,000 ongoing, individual lease arrangements with the Debtor (the "Customer Contracts"). Motion, pdf pp. 26:23-28:11. For the reasons set forth in the Motion, the Court agrees that the Debtor is not required to provide notice to the Customers.

#5.00 HearingRE: [119] Application to Employ Martini Akpovi Partners LLP as Accountants for the Debtor # 2 Exhibit B (Sultan Declaration)) (Warfield, David)

Docket 119

Tentative Ruling:

10/23/2018

For the reasons set forth below, the Employment Application is GRANTED on the terms set forth below.

Pleadings Filed and Reviewed

1. Application to Employ Martini Akpovi Partners LLP as Accountants for the Debtor [Doc. No. 119] (the "Employment Application")
 - a. Notice of Employment Application [Doc. No. 120] (the "Notice of Application")
 - b. Proof of Service [Doc. No. 121]
2. United States Trustee's Objection to Employment Application and Request for Hearing [Doc. No. 126] (the "Objection")
3. Notice of Hearing on Employment Application [Doc. No. 135] (the "Notice of Hearing")

 - b. Proof of Service [Doc. No. 165]

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

Sultan Financial Corporation (the "Debtor") filed a voluntary chapter 11 petition on July 13, 2018 (the "Petition Date"). On September 19, 2018, the Debtor filed an application to employ Martini Akpovi Partners LLP (the "Martini Firm") as the Debtor's accountants pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 327(a) and 330, on a nunc pro tunc basis, effective as of the Petition Date (the "Employment Application"). Doc. No.

Chapter 11

119.

The United States Trustee ("UST") filed an objection to the employment of the Martini Firm and requested a hearing [Doc. No. 126] (the "Objection"). The UST contends that the Employment Application fails to articulate any basis for granting nunc pro tunc employment, despite the fact that the application was filed two months after the proposed effective date. Therefore, the UST asserts that employment should only be effective as of the filing date of the Employment Application.

The UST also contends that the Employment Application contains inadequate information because: (i) aside from listing a billing range for professionals, there is no detail as to what the exact rate of each professional working on the case is; (ii) the Debtor seeks employment pursuant to the terms of a blank, unsigned, form engagement letter; and (ii) the application fails to state whether any retainer was received and why monthly Knudsen payments are required in this case.

Finally, the UST contends that the Notice fails to comply with Local Bankruptcy Rule ("LBR") 2014-1(b)(3), because it does not state whether compensation will be pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 328 or 330 and does not describe the arrangement for compensation, including the hourly rate of each professional to render services, source of the fees, the source and amount of any retainer, the date on which it was paid, and any provision regarding replenishment thereof. For these reasons, the UST requests the Court deny the Employment Application.

On October 19, 2018, the Debtor filed a Supplement to the Employment Application. In response to the UST's objection to employment being nunc pro tunc, the Debtor requests that the Court authorize employment effective 30 days prior to the Employment Application filing date, or August 19, 2018 (instead of July 13, 2018). The Debtor states that authorizing employment as of that date is appropriate because the Martini Firm's services are essential to the Debtor's business operations and needed to be performed before the retention papers could be completed and presented to the Court.

Next, in response to the UST's objection to the lack of adequate information in the notice and application, the Debtor clarifies that no retainer was paid to the Martini Firm and compensation will be pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 330. The Debtor also provides the specific hourly rates of each of the professional who may perform work for this case and filed an amended notice [Doc. No. 164] with the missing information. Finally, the Debtor attached as Exhibit A to the Supplement a fully executed engagement letter and states that any compensation will be paid only in such amounts as the Court may award pursuant to § 330. [Note 1]

II. Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law

Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 327(a), a debtor-in-possession may employ a professional or professional organization that does not hold or represent an interest adverse to the estate, and that qualifies as a disinterested person, to represent or assist the debtor-in-possession in carrying out the debtor-in-possession duties under Title 11. Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2014, an employment application brought under § 327 must state:

the specific facts showing the necessity for the employment, the name of the person to be employed, the reasons for the selection, the professional services to be rendered, any proposed arrangement for compensation, and, to the best of the applicant's knowledge, all of the person's connections with the debtor, creditors, any other party in interest, their respective attorneys and accountants, the United States trustee, or any person employed in the office of the United States trustee.

Fed. R. Bankr. P. 2014(a). Additionally, LBR 2014-1(b)(3)(A)-(E) sets forth a list of information to be included in any notice of an employment application.

Having reviewed the Employment Application, Notice of Application, the Declaration of Steven Martini (the "Martini Decl."), Engagement Letters, Amended Notice of Hearing, and Supplement, the Court finds that the Employment Application and Amended Notice contain sufficient information to satisfy the requirements of Bankruptcy Rule 2014 and LBR 2014-1(b)(3).

The Court finds it appropriate to grant nunc pro tunc employment as of August 19, 2018. A nunc pro tunc approval of employment "should be limited to situations in which 'exceptional circumstances' exist." In re Atkins, 69 F.3d 970, 974 (9th Cir. 1995). "To establish the presence of exceptional circumstances, professionals seeking retroactive approval must satisfy two requirements: they must (1) satisfactorily explain their failure to receive prior judicial approval; and (2) demonstrate that their services benefitted the bankrupt estate in a significant manner." Id.

Based on the Debtor's representations in the Supplement, the Court finds exceptional circumstances exist to authorize employment as of August 19, 2018.

III. Conclusion

For the reasons set forth above, the Employment Application is GRANTED with employment effective as of August 19, 2018.

The Debtor is directed to lodge a conforming proposed order within 7 days of the hearing.

No appearance is required if submitting on the court's tentative ruling. Note 1: In the prayer for relief, the Debtor requests authorization to employ the Martini Firm pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 327(e). Supplement, p. 4:3. Section 327(e) is only applicable to attorneys who have previously represented the debtor. Accordingly, the request is denied.

RE: [364] Motion Notice Of Motion And Motion For An Order Authorizing The Debtors To Retain And Compensate Professionals Utilized By The Debtors In The Ordinary Course Of Business; Memorandum Of Points And Authorities In Support Thereof; Declaration Of Elspeth Paul

Docket 364

Tentative Ruling:

10/23/2018

For the reasons set forth below, the Motion—which seeks the approval of procedures for the retention and employment of ordinary course professionals—is GRANTED in its entirety.

Pleadings Filed and Reviewed:

- 1) Notice of Motion and Motion for an Order Authorizing the Debtors to Retain and Compensate Professionals Utilized by the Debtors in the Ordinary Course of Business [Doc. No. 364] (the "Motion")
 - a) Certificate of Service [Doc. No. 525]

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

On August 31, 2018, Verity Health Systems of California ("VHS") and certain of its subsidiaries (collectively, the "Debtors") filed voluntary petitions for relief under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. On August 31, 2018, the Court entered an order granting the Debtors' motion for joint administration of the Debtors' Chapter 11 cases. Doc. No. 17.

The Debtors seek approval of procedures allowing the Debtors to retain and pay professionals employed in the ordinary course of business (such professionals are known as "ordinary course professionals" or "OCPs"). Debtors do not believe that the OCPs are "professionals" within the meaning of §327, but seek approval of the proposed retention procedures in an abundance of caution.

The proposed retention procedures are as follows. Each OCP shall file with the Court and serve upon the Debtor, the United States Trustee ("UST"), all alleged secured creditors, counsel for the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors ("Committee"), and all parties requesting special notice (collectively, the "Notice Parties") a disclosure declaration (the "Declaration"). The Declaration shall contain sets forth the following information:

- 1) to the best of the OCP's knowledge, a description of the effort(s) that were taken to search for connections with parties in interest;
- 2) a description of the proposed scope of services to be provided by the OCP;
- 3) the rate(s) proposed to be charged for the services;
- 4) all information otherwise required to be disclosed pursuant to Rule 2014 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure;
- 5) any prepetition amounts owed to the OCP by the Debtor;
- 6) to the extent that the OCP was not providing services as of the Petition Date, the date on which such services began postpetition; and
- 7) any supplemental information, if necessary.

The Notice Parties have ten days from the date of the filing and service of the Declaration to object to the retention of the OCP in question. If an objection is not resolved and/or withdrawn within twenty days after service of such objection, the Court shall adjudicate the matter at a hearing scheduled by the Debtor. If no timely objection is filed and served, or if an objection is withdrawn, the Debtor will be authorized to retain the OCP on a final basis without further order of the Court.

The Debtor will pay, without formal application to and order from the Court, 100% of the fees and expenses of each OCP, upon submission to and approval by the Debtor of an appropriate billing statement.

No opposition to the Motion is on file.

II. Findings and Conclusions

Section 327(b) provides: "If the trustee is authorized to operate the business of the debtor under section 721, 1202, or 1108 of this title, and if the debtor has regularly employed attorneys, accountants, or other professional persons on salary, the trustee may retain or replace such professional persons if necessary in the operation of such business."

The Court finds that the Debtors' proposed retention procedures are consistent with §327(b) and approves the procedures. The Court notes that procedures similar to those proposed here have been approved by a number of courts. [Note 1]

The OCPs that the Debtor seeks to employ fall within the ambit of §327(b). The OCPs have been regularly employed by the Debtor prior to the petition. The services they perform—collections, regulatory compliance, and litigation defense—are necessary regardless of whether a bankruptcy petition was filed. The fact that professionals are not paid a fixed salary does not disqualify the Debtor from retaining their services under §327(b). The professionals were employed by the Debtor prepetition and received regular payments, which necessarily varied depending upon the amounts of services that the professionals provided.

Under the Debtors' procedures, the rights of all parties to object are preserved. The Court finds that the procedures are an effective means of reducing the administrative costs of the case. The professionals the Debtors seek to employ do not regularly practice before the bankruptcy court and are not familiar with the Bankruptcy Code's required employment and compensation procedures. Were the professionals required to file fee applications, the Debtors would be required to spend significant time helping them to comply with the procedures—driving up administrative costs. If some OCPs were unwilling to assume the cost and burden of filing employment and fee applications and declined to continue working for the Debtor, the Debtor would incur additional costs retaining other professionals who are not already familiar with the Debtor's operations.

Based upon the foregoing, the Motion is GRANTED in its entirety. The Debtors shall submit an order, incorporating this tentative ruling by reference, within seven days of the hearing.

No appearance is required if submitting on the court's tentative ruling. If you intend to submit on the tentative ruling, please contact Jessica Vogel or Daniel Koontz at 213-894-1522. If you intend to contest the tentative ruling and appear, please first contact opposing counsel to inform them of your intention to do so. Should an opposing party file a late opposition or appear at the hearing, the court will determine whether further hearing is required.
