November 29, 2018. Rosendo Gonzalez is the chapter 7 trustee (the "Trustee"). Pursuant to Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 9019, the Trustee moves the Court to authorize the compromise of a controversy concerning the transfer of Debtor's alleged interest in real property located at 11568 Springwood Court, Riverside, California 92505 (the "Property"). Motion at 2.

On her commencement documents, the Debtor claimed that she did not possess any ownership interests in real property. Further, at the § 341(a) Meeting of Creditors, she denied transferring any property of value within the last four years. However, the Trustee states that on May 15, 2015, a quitclaim deed was recorded, in which the Debtor purportedly transferred an interest in the Property to Jae Kwon An and Hee Jung Lee (collectively, the "Recipients") for no consideration paid. The Recipients contend that Debtor does not have an ownership interest in the Property but had instead obtained title from the Recipients to refinance the Property using her credit. Although these facts are not thoroughly explained in the Motion, the Court understands that the Debtor returned title to the Recipients upon finalizing the Property's refinance.

The Trustee and the Recipients dispute whether the estate has an interest in the Property. Notwithstanding, the Trustee and the Recipients have reached a settlement (the "Agreement"), subject to the Court's approval, providing for the resolution of all claims relating to the Property in exchange for a lump sum of $25,000 paid to the estate. Motion at 4. Additionally, the Agreement provides that:

1. The lump sum shall be paid within five business days of a final order approving the settlement.
2. The Recipients agree to waive and shall not assert any claims against the estate, with the condition that they will be entitled to receive any surplus funds, if any, at the conclusion of the bankruptcy case.

Motion at 2 – 3, Ex. 1.

The Trustee requests approval of the Agreement as it satisfies the fairness factors enumerated in Martin v. Kane (In re A & C Properties), 784 F.2d 1377, 1381 (9th Cir. 1986). Motion at 6 – 7. First, although Debtor's interest in the Property is supported by little or no evidence, the Trustee is cautiously optimistic that the estate would prevail in litigation against the Recipients. Id. at 7. Second, the Trustee does not anticipate that the collection of the settlement funds will be difficult, and he does not believe that issues concerned are complicated or complex. In sum, the Trustee argues that this Agreement is favorable to the estate as it will immediately generate funds for unsecured creditors. Id. at 8.

Summary of Opposition:

The Trustee states that only two claims have been timely filed as of the claims bar date on October 21, 2019. Younkyung Jeong (the "Creditor") asserted one of these claims in the amount of $90,000. He also initiated an adversary proceeding (see 2:19-ap-01058-ER, Adv. No. 1), objecting to the Debtor's discharge under §§ 523(a)(2)(A), 727(a)(2)(A), 727(a)(4)(A) and 727(a)(5). On October 9, 2019, the Creditor filed an opposition to the Motion generally propounding that the Agreement is improper because 1) it was conducted in "secret," without affording him a fair opportunity to negotiate its terms, and 2) the terms of the Agreement do not adequately represent the Creditor's best interests. Indeed, the Creditor's position is at times unclear and vaguely supported by several disjointed arguments. However, the Court understands that Creditor deems the $25,000 settlement unreasonable as the estate could recapture a larger monetary sum if the Trustee were to recover and liquidate the Property. Confusingly, the Creditor seems to reason that the probable success of his pending adversary proceeding factors against validating the Agreement. Additionally, and without apparent basis, the Creditor appears to suggest that the Agreement should be questioned as the Trustee may have entered into the settlement motivated by self-interest. Opposition at 9 ("Creditor is concerned of the proposed settlement proceeds being primarily used to pay the Trustee's fees rather than make Creditor whole.").

Summary of Trustee's Reply

The Trustee makes several arguments in response to Creditor's Opposition. First, the Trustee emphasizes that he has a fiduciary duty under the Bankruptcy Code to represent the interests of all unsecured creditors, and to that extent, he is required to protect the estate's property and maximize distribution. Reply at 2. Second, although Trustee recognizes that recovering the Property's fair market value would be greatly beneficial to the estate, the Creditor overlooks the lack of evidence substantiating the validity of Debtor's interest in the Property. Namely, the Trustee could not find evidence in Debtor's financial records that any consideration was paid for the Property. The Trustee notes that Creditor has not proffered any concrete evidence either but only makes unsupported assertions. The Trustee further counters that Creditor failed to demonstrate that he abused his judgment by executing the Agreement. Third, the Trustee maintains that in determining whether the Agreement satisfies the "fair and equitable" standard, the Court need "not rule upon disputed facts and questions of law, but rather need only canvass the issues." Wilmington Trust Co. v. Weinstein (In re Cmty. Bancorp), 2013 Bankr. LEXIS 4659 (Bankr. 9th Cir. 2013). Accordingly, the Agreement meets this standard. The Trustee submits that the Opposition should be overruled, and the Motion approved.

II. Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law

A court may approve a compromise or settlement disposing of an adversary proceeding or claim upon motion of the Trustee and after notice and a hearing. Fed. R. Bankr. P. 9019. "Approval should only be given if the settlement is 'fair and equitable and in the best interest of the estate.'" Matter of Cajun Elec. Power Co-op., Inc., 119 F.3d 349, 355 (5th Cir. 1997) (quoting Connecticut General Life Ins. Co. v. United Companies Financial Corp. (In re Foster Mortg. Corp.), 68 F.3d 914, 917 (5th Cir. 1995)). In reaching a determination, courts "must compare the 'terms of the compromise with the likely rewards of litigation.'" Jackson Brewing Co., 624 F.2d 599, 607 (citing Protective Committee for Independent Stockholders of TMT Trailer Ferry v. Anderson, 390 U.S. 414, 425 (1968)). Furthermore, a court should consider several factors when determining whether a compromise is reasonable, fair and equitable, including:

- (a) the probability of success in litigation;
- (b) the difficulties, if any, to be encountered in the matter of collection;
- (c) the complexity of the litigation involved, and the expense, inconvenience, and delay necessarily attending it; and
- (d) the paramount interest of the creditors and a proper deference to their reasonable views in the premises.

Martin v. Kane (In re A&C Properties), 784 F.2d 1377, 1381 (9th Cir. 1986). A reviewing court, however, need only find that the settlement falls below the lowest point in the range of reasonableness—not that the settlement or compromise offers a debtor the best possible resolution of the action or claim. See Cosoff v. Robman (In re W.T. Grant Co.), 699 F.2d 599, 608 (2d Cir. 1983), cert. denied 464 U.S. 822 (1983).

Applying the A&C Properties factors, the Court finds that the Agreement is fair and reasonable as set forth below.

A. Probability of Success in the Litigation

The estate's probability of success in litigation is uncertain. Based on the lack of evidence corroborating Debtor's ownership of the Property, a favorable litigation result is unlikely to follow unless the Trustee conducts time-consuming discovery, possibly entailing depositions, requests for production of documents, and subpoenas. Absent approval of the Agreement, the estate would have to incur these litigation costs, which could be substantial in an adversary proceeding that is likely to be contested by Debtor, the Recipients, and the Creditor. However, the possibility that an adversary proceeding could result in a favorable outcome to the estate should not be dismissed. Nevertheless, any such victory would be meaningless given that the anticipated administrative costs could substantially reduce any potential recovery. In opposition, the Creditor underscores the significance of his own adversary proceeding, however this argument is misplaced because Creditor's success in a dischargeability action is irrelevant with respect to the estate's ownership interest in the Property. In sum, the Court agrees with the Trustee's determination that the probability of success is doubtful in light of his evidentiary findings. The Court determines that this factor weighs in favor of approval of the Agreement.

B. Difficulty of Collection

If the Agreement were to be approved, the Court finds that collecting the settlement proceeds would not be difficult. However, if this issue is litigated, recovering the Property's current value for the benefit of the estate may be jeopardized due to the potential deterioration of the Property. As contemplated above, collecting the Property's monetized value would require the estate to engage in further motion practice, and incur liquidation costs and additional administration expenses. Therefore, this factor favors approval of the Agreement.

C. Complexity, Expenses, Inconvenience, and Delays of Litigation

Chapter 7

Given that there is no evidence supporting the Debtor's interest in the Property, and because it is conceivable that litigation could be costly and prolonged, the Court finds that settlement is preferable. In addition, upon further reviewing the record, the Court cannot establish whether there is any equity in the Property, and in light of this uncertainty, a speedy settlement for $25,000 is not undesirable. This factor weighs in favor of granting the Agreement.

D. Interests of Creditors

The Agreement is in the best interest of unsecured creditors as it guarantees the estate an immediate receipt of $25,000 [Note 1]. And as discussed above, it is not clear that litigation would result in the Creditor's desired outcome, and even if the estate were to prevail, it would not be without substantial costs. Moreover, aside from the baseless allegations that the Trustee might be acting primarily out of self-interest, Creditor has not articulated any basis to surmise that the Agreement fails to adequately represent his interests. Therefore, this factor supports the approval of the Agreement.

In sum, the Court finds that the proposed Agreement best serves the interests of the estate and the parties. The proposed Agreement provides a quick source of funds to the estate, while minimizing administrative costs and delays, and affording an alternative from prosecuting a potentially prolonged adversary proceeding. For all of the above reasons, the Court does not find that the proposed Agreement falls below the lowest point in the range of reasonableness. See Cosoff, 699 F.2d at 608.

Accordingly, the Court GRANTS the Motion and hereby APPROVES the Agreement.

The Trustee shall lodge a conforming order within 7 days of the hearing.

court will determine whether further hearing is required. If you wish to make a telephonic appearance, contact Court Call at 888-882-6878, no later than one hour before the hearing.

Note 1: The Creditor makes much of the fact that he was not offered a fair opportunity to negotiate a more favorable outcome for creditors. However, Creditor's argument is unpersuasive. Accordingly, there is no evidence that any point Creditor proposed an alternative resolution to improve creditors' best interests. For example, Creditor could have chosen to extend an offer to purchase the estate's avoidance rights in the Property for more than the settled amount. See, e.g. In re Mickey Thompson Entm't Grp., Inc., 292 B.R. 415, 420 – 21 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 2003) ("[w]hen confronted with a motion to approve a settlement under Rule 9019(a), a bankruptcy court is obliged to consider, as part of the 'fair and equitable' analysis, whether any property of the estate that would be disposed of in connection with the settlement might draw a higher price through a competitive process and be the proper subject of a section 363 sale. Whether to impose formal sale procedures is ultimately a matter of discretion that depends upon the dynamics of the particular situation.").

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

Debtor-in-possession, Maria G. Gallarza-Dominguez (the "Debtor"), filed this voluntary Chapter 11 case on June 26, 2018 (the "Petition Date"). The Debtor is employed and generates regular monthly income. The Debtor's primary assets consist of real property located at 8429 Rives Ave, Downey, CA 90240 (the "Rives Property") and 10735 Lesterford Avenue, Downey, CA 90241 (the "Rental Property"). The Debtor collects monthly income from the Rental Property.

The Debtor states that she sought bankruptcy protection after experiencing several years of financial difficulties that arose after her husband lost his high earnings job and as a result of a loss of rental income from the Rental Property. The Debtor and her husband attempted to modify the lien on the Rental Property, but negotiations were unsuccessful, and they ultimately fell behind on the payments. The Debtor and her husband also fell behind on payments for the Rives Property but were able to modify that loan and have been current ever since. The Debtor states that she now has stable rental income and anticipates being able to increase that income in August 2019.

On January 17, 2019, the Court entered an order granting the Debtor's motion to value the Rental Property at $700,000 for purposes of plan confirmation [Doc. No. 42] (the "Rental Property Valuation Order"). Pursuant to that order, the first-priority lien recorded in favor of Deutsche Bank National Trust Company, as Trustee for U.S. Bank, N.A., serviced by Ocwen Loan Servicing, LLC ("Deutsche Bank" or "Deutsche") was bifurcated into a secured claim of $700,000 and an unsecured claim of $495,778.35 and Real Time Solutions' second-priority lien was stripped off in full.

On August 20, 2019, the Court entered an order to approve Debtor's Disclosure Statement, and thereon established deadlines applicable to the solicitation and confirmation of the Plan. Having complied with said deadlines, the Debtor presently seeks confirmation of her Chapter 11 Plan of Reorganization [Doc. No. 57] (the "Plan") A summary of the Plan's material provisions is set forth below.

Summary of the Plan

Administrative Claims

The Debtor anticipates that administrative fees for professionals will be approximately $30,000 on the Effective Date. The Debtor proposes to pay all administrative claims in full, on the Effective Date, from available cash on hand.

Post-Petition Tax Claim

The Debtor proposes to pay the Los Angeles Property Tax Collector's post-petition real property tax claim of $10,620.99 in full on the Effective Date.

Class 2(a) – Secured Claim of Forethought Life Insurance Company ("Forethought") – Unimpaired (Deemed to Accept)

Forethought holds a first-priority deed of trust against the Rives Property securing debt in the approximate amount of $220,576.42. The Debtor proposes to continue making regular monthly mortgage payments as they become due based on the respective loan documents. Accordingly, the Debtor states that this claim will remain unchanged and is unimpaired.

On June 7, 2019, Forethought filed a timely objection to the Debtor's Disclosure Statement asserting that, despite the Debtor's classification of its' claim as unimpaired, certain language in the Plan appeared to apply to its claim in a way that it argued resulted in an impairment. On July 2, 2019, the Debtor filed a Motion to Approve Stipulation Resolving Objection to Confirmation of Chapter 11 Plan and For Plan Treatment on First Lien Secured By Real Property Located at 8429 Rives Ave, Downey, CA 90240 [Doc. No. 66] (the "Motion re Forethought Treatment"), pursuant to which the Debtor sought approval of a stipulation resolving Forethought's Objection in exchange for the Debtor's agreement to make adequate protection payments and modify the Plan treatment described in the Plan.

On July 24, 2019, the Court entered an order granting the Motion re Forethought Treatment [Doc. No. 81], which provides that Forethought's claim is unimpaired for purposes of plan confirmation and will be deemed to have accepted the Plan pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 1126(f).

Accordingly, Forethought's claim is unimpaired, was not required to vote, and deemed to accept the Plan.

Class 5(a) – Secured Claim of Deutsche Bank – Accepts the Plan

Deutsche holds a first-priority deed of trust against the Rental Property. Pursuant to the Rental Property Valuation Order, Deutsche holds a secured claim of $700,000 against the Rental Property. On August 12, 2019, Deutsche filed a Stipulation Re: Treatment of Creditor's Claim Under Debtor's Chapter 11 Plan of Reorganization [Doc. No. 89] ("Deutsche's Stipulation"). Pursuant to Deutsche's Stipulation, the Debtor will pay Deutsche's claim in full, plus 5.5% interest, by making monthly installment payments of $4,099.21 over a thirty-year period. The Court approved Deutsche's Stipulation on August 14, 2019 [Doc. No. 90].

Deutsche's claim is impaired and it voted to accept the Plan.

Class 6(b) – General Unsecured Claims – Accepts the Plan

This class consists of all allowed general unsecured claims, which the Debtor estimate hold aggregate claims in the amount of $684,385.99. The Debtor proposes to pay this class 3% of their claims, without interest, over a 5-year period by making equal pro-rata monthly installment payments totaling $342.19.

Class 6(b) is impaired and has voted to accept the Plan.

As of the preparation of this tentative ruling, no opposition has been filed.

II. Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law

As set forth below, the Court finds that the Plan complies with all applicable provisions of § 1129. The plan is confirmed.

Chapter 11

SECTION 1129(a)(1)

Section 1129(a)(1) requires that the "plan compl[y] with the applicable provisions of this title." According to the leading treatise, the "legislative history suggests that the applicable provisions are those governing the plan's internal structure and drafting: 'Paragraph (1) requires that the plan comply with the applicable provisions of chapter 11, such as section 1122 and 1123, governing classification and contents of a plan.'" Collier on Bankruptcy ¶ 1129.01[1] (16th rev'd ed.) (citing S. Rep. No. 989, 95th Cong., 2d Sess. 126 (1978)).

1. Section 1122(a)

Section 1122(a) provides that "a plan may place a claim or an interest in a particular class only if such claim or interest is substantially similar to the other claims or interests of such class."

The Plan's classification structure complies with § 1122(a).

2. Section 1122(b)

Section 1122(b) provides that "a plan may designate a separate class of claims consisting only of every unsecured claim that is less than or reduced to an amount that the court approves as reasonable and necessary for administrative convenience."

The Plan does not contain any convenience classes. Section 1122(b) does not apply.

3. Section 1123(a)(1)

Section 1123(a)(1) requires that a plan "designate ... classes of claims, other than claims of a kind specified in section 507(a)(2) [administrative expense claims], 507(a)(3) [claims arising during the gap period in an involuntary case], or 507(a)(8) [priority tax claims], and classes of interest."

There are no involuntary gap claims because this is a voluntary chapter 11 case. The Plan provides that the Debtor does not have any priority tax claims. In addition, the Plan appropriately classifies administrative expense claims. The Plan satisfies § 1123(a)(1).

Chapter 11

4. Section 1123(a)(2)

Section 1123(a)(2) requires that the Plan "specify any class of claims or interests that is not impaired under the Plan."

The Plan specifies that Class 2(a) is unimpaired. The Plan satisfies § 1123(a)(2).

5. Section 1123(a)(3)

Section 1123(a)(3) requires that the Plan "specify the treatment of any class of claims or interests that is impaired under the Plan."

The Plan specifies the treatment afforded to impaired classes, which are Classes 5(a) and 6(b). The Plan satisfies § 1123(a)(3).

6. Section 1123(a)(4)

Section 1123(a)(4) requires that the Plan "provide the same treatment for each claim or interest of a particular class unless the holder of a particular claim or interest agrees to a less favorable treatment of such particular claim or interest."

The Plan provides the same treatment to claims of the same class. The Plan satisfies § 1123(a)(4).

7. Section 1123(a)(5)

Section 1123(a)(5) requires that the Plan "provide adequate means for the plan's implementation."

The Plan will be funded by revenue generated by rental income and pre- and post-confirmation wage earnings of Debtor and her non-debtor spouse. The Debtor anticipates having approximately $40,671.76 of cash on hand on the Effective Date of the Plan to pay effective date payments of approximately $40,620.99. See Disclosure Statement at 5.

In support, the Debtor submitted the following evidence of her ability to adequately implement the Plan: 1) historical financial statements for the past six months (Disclosure Statement, Exhibit A2), 2) Debtor's post-petition income and expenses for May 2019 (Disclosure Statement, Exhibit A1), and 3) monthly financial projections through December 2019 (Disclosure Statement, Exhibit A1). monthly payments under the plan equal $4,441.4 and as Debtor's financial projections demonstrate, she will have an average monthly cash flow of $4,442.15. See Disclosure Statement, Ex. A1. Accordingly, Debtor will have a net monthly income of less than one dollar. However, to the extent that Debtor's plan is mathematically possible, the proposed funding sources provide an adequate means for the Plan's implementation. The Plan satisfies § 1123(a)(5).

8. Section 1123(a)(6)

Section 1123(a)(6) which imposes certain requirements upon corporate debtors, does not apply.

9. Section 1123(a)(7)

Section 1123(a)(7) which imposes certain requirements upon corporate debtors, does not apply.

10. Section 1123(a)(8)

Section 1123(a)(8) requires that individual debtors must provide post-petition earnings and other future income as needed to execute the Plan.

The Plan provides that Debtor will apply her future income to fund the Plan as necessary. The Plan satisfies § 1123(a)(8).

SECTION 1129(a)(2)

Section 1129(a)(2) requires that the "proponent of the plan compl[y] with the applicable provisions of this title." The Court finds that the Plan Proponent has:

- 1) Obtained Court approval of a Disclosure Statement in accordance with § 1125 (see "Order Approving Disclosure Statement and Setting Hearing on Confirmation of Plan" [Doc. No. 94]);
- 2) Obtained Court approval of the employment of professional persons (see "Order Granting Motion in Individual Ch. 11 Case for Order Employing Professional" [Doc. No. 32]); and
- 3) Filed monthly operating reports.

Accordingly, the Debtor has satisfied the requirements of § 1129(a)(2).

Chapter 11

Section 1129(a)(3) requires that the "plan has been proposed in good faith and not by any means forbidden by law." As one court has explained:

The term 'good faith' in the context of 11 U.S.C. § 1129(a)(3) is not statutorily defined but has been interpreted by case law as referring to a plan that 'achieves a result consistent with the objectives and purposes of the Code.' 'The requisite good faith determination is based on the totality of the circumstances.'

In re Melcher, 329 B.R. 865, 876 (Bankr. N.D. Cal. 2005) (internal citations omitted).

The Plan seeks objectives that are consistent with those of the Bankruptcy Code and the Plan Proponent has complied with the requirements of the Code throughout this case. Under Fed. R. Bankr. P. 3015(f), the Court is not required to receive evidence as to good faith because no party has objected to confirmation. Section 1129(a)(3) is satisfied.

SECTION 1129(a)(4)

Section 1129(a)(4) requires that "[a]ny payment made or to be made by the proponent, by the debtor, or by a person issuing securities or acquiring property under the plan, for services or for costs and expenses in or in connection with the case, or in connection with the plan and incident to the case, has been approved by, or is subject to the approval of, the court as reasonable."

The Plan provides that payment of all professional fees is subject to review by the Court. The plan satisfies § 1129(a)(4).

SECTION 1129(a)(5)

Section 1129(a)(5) which imposes certain requirements upon corporate debtors, does not apply.

SECTION 1129(a)(6)

Section 1129(a)(6), which requires that a governmental regulatory commission with jurisdiction over rates charged by a debtor approve any rate changes provided for in the plan, does not apply.

relevant part: "With respect to each impaired class of claims or interests, each holder of a claim or interest of such class has accepted the plan; or will receive or retain under the plan on account of such claim or interest property of a value, as of the effective date of the plan, that is not less than the amount that such holder would so receive or retain if the debtor were liquidated under chapter 7 of this title on such date."

Classes 2(a) is unimpaired and deemed to have accepted the Plan. Class 5(a) is impaired but voted to accept the Plan. See Plan Ballot Summary [Doc. No. 99]. Each claimant in Class 6(b), composed of general unsecured creditors, will receive 3% under the Plan, which is an improved distribution compared to the 0% payout anticipated in chapter 7 liquidation. Class 6(b) voted in favor of the Plan [Note 1]. The Plan satisfies the best interests of creditors test under § 1129(a)(7).

SECTION 1129(a)(8)

Section 1129(a)(8) requires each class to accept the Plan, unless the class is not impaired.

Classes 2(a) is unimpaired and deemed to have accepted the Plan. Classes 5(a) and 6(b) are impaired and have accepted the Plan. See Plan Ballot Summary [Doc. No. 99]. Section 1129(a)(8) is satisfied because all classes have either affirmatively accepted the Plan or are deemed to accept the Plan.

SECTION 1129(a)(9)

Section 1129(a)(9) requires that holders of certain administrative and priority claims receive cash equal to the allowed claim amount of their claims on the effective date of the plan, unless the claimant agrees to different treatment.

The Plan provides for the payment of all outstanding allowed administrative claims in full as soon as the fees are approved by the Court and none of the professionals have requested a different payment arrangement. In addition, the Debtor represents that no priority tax claims were asserted. The Plan satisfies § 1129(a)(9).

SECTION 1129(a)(10)

Section 1129(a)(10) requires that "at least one class of claims that is impaired under the plan has accepted the plan, determined without including any acceptance of

Chapter 11

Classes 5(a) and 6(b) are impaired and have accepted the Plan. Section 1129(a) (10) is satisfied.

SECTION 1129(a)(11)

Section 1129(a)(11), known as the "feasibility requirement," requires the Court to find that "[c]onfirmation of the plan is not likely to be followed by the liquidation, or the need for further financial reorganization, of the debtor or any successor to the debtor under the plan, unless such liquidation or reorganization is proposed in the plan." In the Ninth Circuit, courts have construed "feasibility" as a "reasonable probability of success," thereby rejecting the notion that successful reorganization must be shown to be certain. See In re North Valley Mall, LLC, 432 B.R. 825, 838 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2010) (citing In re Acequia, Inc., 7887 F.2d 1352, 1364 – 65 (9th Cir. 1986)). The issue of feasibility is factual and may be satisfied by a "relatively low threshold of proof"—as long as a reorganizing debtor can demonstrate the ability to achieve the terms proposed in a plan, "the possibility of failure is not fatal." See id. (emphasis in original).

The Court previously advised Debtor to address her ability to implement the Plan in future briefing [see Doc. No. 93]. The Debtor's budget projections reflect that she will have a monthly income of $4,442.15 with which she is required to make monthly payments of $4,441.40 under the Plan, leaving her with a net monthly income of just $0.75. The Confirmation Brief fails to adequately explain the Debtor's ability to implement the Plan, merely offering conclusory assurances that Debtor will be able to effect payments as indicated by financial projections in the Disclosure Statement. Notwithstanding Debtor's unsatisfying explanation, the Court independently finds that the Plan has a reasonable possibility of success. Based upon its review of the Debtor's financial statements and budget projections, the Court finds that the Plan is mathematically possible, and not likely to be followed by liquidation or further financial reorganization. In addition, the Court observes that the most recent monthly operating report indicates a substantial increase in Debtor's rental account deposits—and in fact, said deposits more than doubled for the month of September 2019. Compare Doc. No. 101 at 5 with Doc. No. 74 at 4. For the reasons stated above, the Court finds that the Plan is consistent with the feasibility standard and complies with § 1129(a)(11).

SECTION 1129(a)(12)

Section 1129(a)(12) requires that the Debtor pay all United States Trustee fees prior to confirmation or provide for payment of those fees on the effective date.

To the Debtor's knowledge, UST fees are current. To the extent any fees are outstanding, the Plan provides that all such fees are nominal and will be paid by the Effective Date. Section 1129(a)(12) is satisfied.

SECTION 1129(a)(13)

Section 1129(a)(13), which contains requirements pertaining to the payment of retirement benefits, does not apply.

SECTION 1129(a)(14)

Section 1129(a)(14), which contains requirements pertaining to the payment of domestic support obligations, does not apply.

SECTION 1129(a)(15)

Section 1129(a)(15) imposes certain requirements upon individual debtors if the holder of an unsecured claim objects to confirmation of the Plan. Section 1129(a)(15) does not apply because no objections to the Plan are on file.

SECTION 1129(a)(16)

Section 1129(a)(16) provides: "All transfers of property under the plan shall be made in accordance with any applicable provisions of nonbankruptcy law that govern the transfer of property by a corporation or trust that is not a moneyed, business, or commercial corporation or trust."

The Plan does not provide for the transfer of any property. The Plan satisfies § 1129(a)(16).

SECTION 1129(b)

The Court finds that the relevant provisions of § 1129(b) are inapplicable because all classes have voted in favor of the Plan.

To the Court's knowledge, no governmental unit has requested that the court not confirm the Plan on the grounds that the Plan's purpose is the avoidance of taxes or application of section 5 of the Securities Act of 1944. The Plan satisfies § 1129(d).

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

Debtor Greencure Holding, LLC (the "Debtor") filed this voluntary Chapter 11 case on August 29, 2019 (the "Petition Date"). The Office of the United States Trustee (the "UST") seeks an order dismissing this case based upon the Debtor's failure to:

1. Provide Notice of Setting/Increasing Insider Compensation;
2. File an application to employ counsel;
3. File a declaration regarding compliance with the U.S. Trustee Guidelines and Requirements for Chapter 11 Debtors In Possession ("Chapter 11 Compliance declaration");
4. Submit a real property questionnaire;
5. Provide sufficient evidence of the Debtor's closing of all pre-petition bank accounts,

 8. Provide sufficient evidence of current insurance coverage;
 9. Provide proof of required certificates and applicable licenses in Chapter 11 Compliance declaration;
 10. Provide a list of insiders;
 11. Provide financial statement information in Chapter 11 Compliance declaration;
 12. File a projected cash flow statement for the first ninety (90) days of operation under chapter 11;
 13. File a statement of major issues and timetable report;
 14. Provide copies of the preceding two years of state and federal income tax returns;
 15. Provide an Employee Benefit Plan Questionnaire;
 16. File monthly operating reports ("MORs") for August and September 2019 [Note 1]; and
 17. Pay quarterly fees for the 3rd quarter of 2019 (4th quarter fees will be accruing by hearing date).

See Motion, Declaration of Maria A. Ramos.

The UST further contends that this petition was filed in bad faith for the purpose to stay a pending foreclosure sale. Debtor's only asset is a second-priority trust deed with a face value of $700,000 (the "Second Trust Deed") encumbering real in property in San Gabriel. Based on a review of Debtor's commencement documents, the Trustee contends that dismissal is consistent with the best interest of creditors as there are no assets to administer and nothing to reorganize. The UST asks for the dismissal of this case with a 180-day refiling bar, provided that the Court finds good cause. See Motion at 5, ¶ 3.

As of the preparation of this tentative ruling, the Debtor has not opposed the Motion. However, on September 15, 2019, the Debtor submitted a declaration of

"Summary and Explanations Re Trustee 7 Day Items," therein attesting to only possessing the asset described above and explaining that the bankruptcy case was filed to resolve a scheme to defraud Debtor's manager. Motion, Ex. A. Accordingly, the Debtor claims that a third party obtained title and subsequently incurred two loans secured by the property at issue. Id. Debtor acquired one of these loans—secured by the Second Trust Deed—while the other loan with senior priority (the "Senior Loan") is near foreclosure. Id. Debtor initiated this petition to stay foreclosure and raise funds to acquire the Senior Loan [Note 2]. Id. The Debtor's position appears to be that many of the Chapter 11 requirements delineated above are inapplicable to it in light of the foregoing facts. See id.

II. Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law

Under § 1112(b), the Court shall dismiss or convert a case to one under chapter 7 upon a showing of "cause." 11 U.S.C. § 1112(b). Section 1112(b)(4) provides a nonexclusive list of factors that constitute "(F) unexcused failure to satisfy timely any filing or reporting requirement established by this title or by any rule applicable to a case under this chapter;" "(H) failure to timely provide information or attend meetings reasonably required by the United States Trustee;" and "(M) inability to effectuate substantial consummation of a confirmed plan." 11 U.S.C. § 1112(b)(4)(F), (H), & (M). "The enumerated causes are not exhaustive, and 'the court will be able to consider other factors as they arise, and to use its equitable powers to reach an appropriate result in individual cases.'" In re Consolidated Pioneer Mortgage Entities, 248 B.R. 368, 375 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 2000) (quoting H.R. No. 95-595, 95th Cong., 1st Sess. 405-06 (1977), aff'd, 264 F.3d 803 (9th Cir. 2001)).

For the reasons set forth in the Motion and Declaration of Maria A. Ramos, the Court finds that the UST has established "cause" to convert, dismiss or appoint a chapter 11 trustee in this case based on the Debtor's unexcused failure to comply with timely reporting requirements, to timely provide information to the UST, and to pay the UST's quarterly fees.

Additionally, despite the Debtor's representations surrounding the commencement of this petition, the Court finds that the Debtor has not adequately demonstrated an interest and ability to pursue Chapter 11 reorganization based on the lack of meaningful progress in this case. Furthermore, the Court deems the Debtor's failure to file a response or opposition to the Motion as consent to the granting of the Motion pursuant to Local Bankruptcy Rule 9013-1(h). Notwithstanding, based on the record presented, the Court cannot determine that Debtor initiated this case with the intention to "unreasonably deter and harass creditors." See In re Sullivan, 522 B.R. 604, 615 – 16 (finding that bankruptcy courts "should examine [debtors'] financial status and motives" in determining whether a debtor acted in bad faith). Moreover, no evidence of past bankruptcy filings was proffered in the moving papers.

Having determined that cause exists, the Court must next determine whether conversion, dismissal or appointment of a Chapter 11 trustee serves the best interests of creditors or the estate. See In re Products Int'l Co., 395 B.R. 101, 107 (Bankr. D. Ariz. 2008) (citing In re Nelson, 343 B.R. 671 (9th Cir. 2006)). "[W]hen deciding between dismissal and conversion under 11 U.S.C. § 1112(b), the court must consider the interests of all of the creditors." Shulkin Hutton, Inc. v. Treiger (In re Owens), 552 F.3d 958, 961 (9th Cir. 2009) (emphasis in original) (quoting Rollex Corp. v. Associated Materials, Inc. (In re Superior Siding & Window, Inc.), 14 F.3d 240, 243 (4th Cir. 1994)). Based on the Court's review of relevant pleadings and the Debtor's schedules, the Court finds that that there does not appear to be any unencumbered assets that a Chapter 7 trustee could administer for the benefit of creditors. Therefore, the Court finds that dismissal appears to be in the best interest of creditors. Furthermore, the Court does not find that an 180-day refiling bar is appropriate at this time as it cannot determine that Debtor acted in bad faith on the facts presented.

III. Conclusion

For the reasons set forth above, the Motion is GRANTED, and this case is DISMISSED.

The UST is directed to lodge a conforming proposed order, incorporating this tentative ruling by reference, within seven days of the hearing.

#6.00 HearingRE: [15] Motion for Turnover of Property Chapter 7 Trustee's Notice of Motion and Motion for Orders: (1) Sustaining Objection to Debtor's Claimed Homestead Exemption; and (2) Compelling Turnover of Estate Property and Documents with Proof of Service (Chung, Toan)

Docket 15

Tentative Ruling:

11/5/2019

For the reasons stated below, the Trustee's objection to the Debtor's homestead exemption is SUSTAINED, and the claimed exemption is disallowed in its entirety.

Pleadings Filed and Reviewed:

- 1) Chapter 7 Trustee's Notice of Motion and Motion for Orders: 1) Sustaining Objection to Debtor's Claimed Homestead Exemption; and 2) Compelling Turnover of Estate Property and Documents ("Motion") [Doc. No. 15]
- 2) Other relevant papers:
 - a) Chapter 7 Voluntary Petition [Doc. No. 1]
 - b) Amended Schedule C [Doc. No. 11]
- 3) As of the preparation of this tentative ruling, no opposition has been filed.

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

Russell Gando Osio ("Debtor") commenced a voluntary Chapter 7 petition on July 16, 2019 (the "Petition Date"). Sam S. Leslie was appointed as Chapter 7 Trustee (the "Trustee"). As provided in Debtor's amended Schedule C, the Debtor claimed a homestead exemption of $47,491.50 in real property located at 11441 Kelowna St., Sylmar, CA 91342 (the "Property") [see Doc. No. 11]. Debtor claimed the homestead exemption under California Code of Civil Procedure ("CCP") §704.730. Debtor's Schedule A/B: Property further states that the value of the Property owned by Debtor is $334,124.50, and that the value of the entire Property is $668,249—indicating that Debtor holds a 50% interest in the Property. Debtor also represents that he owns an equitable interest in the Property, which is community property.

Debtor's commencement documents indicate that Debtor does not reside at the Property, but at a different address—9013 Woodale Ave., Pacoima, CA 91331 (the "Woodale Address"). See Official Form 101, Item No. 5 [Doc. No. 1]. According to his Statement of Financial Affairs, Debtor has not lived anywhere other than at the Woodale Address in the past three years. See Official Form 107, Item No. 2 [Doc. No. 1]. Reference to a rental agreement dated August 20, 2018 instead provides that Debtor is leasing the Property to a "Reynaldo Osio (Hernaez Residential Care Facility)" through August 20, 2023. Motion, Ex. 5.

On October 16, 2019, the Trustee filed an objection to the claimed exemption on the grounds that the Debtor does not live at the Property. Based on a liquidation assessment, the Trustee estimates that there is net equity in the Property totaling $41,523.08 [Note 1]. As part of his efforts to recover this equity, the Trustee contacted Debtor's attorney to obtain Debtor's permission to undertake an interior inspection of the Property, without success. Declaration of Sam S. Leslie ("Leslie Decl.") at ¶ 12. Similarly, Debtor did not respond to voicemail messages left by Trustee's realtor. Id. at ¶13. The Trustee presently seeks to fully disallow Debtor's homestead exemption in the Property, and to compel him to turn over the Property's keys, current mortgage statement, and proof of insurance no later than seven (7) days after entry of an order granting this Motion. Motion at 7. If Debtor fails to timely comply, the Trustee requests that the Court authorize the U.S. Marshal's office to make a forced entry into the Property. Id.

As of the preparation of this tentative ruling, no opposition has been filed.

II. Findings and Conclusions

Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 541(a)(1), the commencement of a bankruptcy petition creates an estate comprising of all of legal and equitable interests of a debtor, except as provided in subsections (b) or (c)(2) of this section. Furthermore, under §§ 521 and 542, a debtor is obligated to identify all property of the estate and to turn over the same to the Trustee, unless the property is of inconsequential value or exempt under § 522. Section 542(a) provides that an entity in possession of estate property "shall" deliver such property to the trustee. In re Del Mission Ltd., 98 F.3d 1147, 1151 (9th Cir. 1996). This is a mandatory duty arising at the time a bankruptcy petition is filed.

Id.

Under California law, the filing of a bankruptcy petition constitutes a "forced sale" which triggers the protections afforded by the automatic homestead exemption provided for in CCP §704.730. See Weil v. Elliott (In re Elliott), 523 B.R. 188, 195 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 2014) (“[t]he filing of a bankruptcy petition constitutes such a ‘forced sale’ to trigger the application of the automatic homestead exemption.”). Cal. CCP § 704.710(c) defines a homestead as “the principal dwelling (1) in which the judgment debtor or the judgment debtor’s spouse resided on the date the judgment creditor’s lien attached to the dwelling, and (2) in which the judgment debtor or the judgment debtor’s spouse resided continuously thereafter until the date of the court determination that the dwelling is a homestead.” In the bankruptcy context, the date on which the judgment creditor’s lien attached to the dwelling is the date of the filing of the petition. See In re Dodge, 138 B.R. 602, 606 (Bankr. E.D. Cal. 1992) (stating that in the context of a bankruptcy proceeding, “the filing of the petition is tantamount to a levy on the debtor’s property”).

The gravamen of the Trustee’s objection is that the Property belongs to the bankruptcy estate under § 541(a)(1) as the Debtor improperly claimed it exempt under CCP § 704.730. Accordingly, because the Debtor has not resided in the Property within the last three years, he may not claim it as part of his homestead exemption. In support, the Trustee refers to the information Debtor proffered in his commencement documents—Official Form 101 and Official Form 107—providing that Debtor exclusively resided at the Woodale Address in the three years preceding the bankruptcy filing. Moreover, the Court notes the inclusion of a rental agreement purportedly entered by Debtor and Reynaldo Osio, which indicates that the Property has been leased to a third party since August of 2018. Debtor has not disputed any of these assertions. Based on the foregoing, the Court concludes that Debtor is not entitled to a homestead exemption in the Property because he did not live there when the petition was filed. Moreover, the Court deems the Debtor’s failure to file a response or opposition as consent to granting the Motion pursuant to Local Bankruptcy Rule 9013-1(h).

For the reasons set forth above, the Trustee’s objection to the claimed homestead exemption is SUSTAINED, and Debtor’s exemption is DISALLOWED in its entirety.

Furthermore, because the Property is valuable to the estate, the Debtor has the duty to turn it over to the Trustee pursuant to § 542(a). Accordingly, the Debtor is ordered to turn over the Property and requested documents to the Trustee no later than seven (7) days after entry of an order incorporating this tentative ruling.

The Trustee shall submit a conforming order, incorporating this tentative ruling by reference, within seven days of the hearing.

Note 1: The Trustee calculated available net equity of $41,523.08 by subtracting estimated liquidation costs of $53,459.92 and the senior lien amount of $573,266 (see Exhibit 6) from the Property's fair market value of $668,249 (see Exhibit 1). See Leslie Decl. at ¶ 10.

Docket 3240

Tentative Ruling:

11/5/2019

For the reasons set forth below, the Motion is GRANTED in its entirety.

Pleadings Filed and Reviewed:

- 1) Debtors' Notice of Motion and Motion for Entry of an Order Amending Key Employee Incentive Plan [Doc. No. 3240] (the "Motion")
 - a) Declaration of Service by Kurtzman Carson Consultants, LLC Regarding Docket Numbers 3231, 3238 and 3240 [Doc. No. 3405]
- 2) Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors' Response to the Debtors' Motion for Entry of an Order Amending Key Employee Incentive Plan [Doc. No. 3418]
- 3) No opposition to the Motion is on file.

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

On August 31, 2018 (the "Petition Date"), Verity Health System of California ("VHS") and certain of its subsidiaries (collectively, the "Debtors") filed voluntary petitions for relief under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. On August 31, 2018, the Court entered an order granting the Debtors' motion for joint administration of the Debtors' Chapter 11 cases. Doc. No. 17. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors operated six acute care hospitals (the "Hospitals").

On November 28, 2018, the Court approved the Debtors' Key Employee Incentive Plan (the "Original KEIP") and Key Employee Retention Plan (the "KERP"). Doc. No. 893 (the "KEIP/KERP Order"). Under the Original KEIP, certain key employees of the Debtors' Hospitals are entitled to receive bonus payments if (1) the Debtors meet cash flow targets (the "Cash Flow Metric") and if (2) the Debtors close the sale of the Hospitals by specified deadlines (the "Closing Metric"). With respect to the Closing Metric, eligible employees are entitled to receive the following bonus

- 3) 7.5% of annual salary if the sale closes by September 30, 2019; and
- 4) 3% of annual salary if the sale closes by December 31, 2019.

On February 28, 2019, the Debtors closed the sale of O'Connor Regional Hospital ("O'Connor") and Saint Louise Regional Hospital ("St. Louise") to Santa Clara County. Eligible employees of O'Connor and St. Louise have received their maximum KEIP bonuses.

The sale of the Debtors' four remaining Hospitals (the "Remaining Hospitals") to Strategic Global Management, Inc. ("SGM" and the "SGM Sale") has not yet closed. Debtors move to amend the Original KEIP to modify the trigger date for the 15% bonus that eligible employees are entitled to receive under the Closing Metric provision (the Original KEIP as amended, the "Amended KEIP"). The proposed amendment would allow seven management employees who work at the Remaining Hospitals (the "Amendment Employees") to receive a 15% bonus payment, provided that the SGM Sale closes on or before December 31, 2019. (Under the Original KEIP, the Amendment Employees are eligible to receive only a 3% bonus if the sale closes on or before December 31, 2019.) If the SGM Sale closes subsequent to December 31, 2019, the Amendment Employees will not receive any bonus under the Closing Metric. Debtors state that the SGM Sale has taken longer than was anticipated at the time the Original KEIP was drafted. According to the Debtors, the Original KEIP prejudices the Amendment Employees by limiting their bonuses solely because of the delay in the sale resulting from the California Attorney General's lengthy review process.

The Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (the "Committee") has no objection to the Motion. No other opposition to the Motion is on file.

II. Findings and Conclusions

A. The Debtors are Authorized to Amend the KEIP

Amendment of a KEIP is appropriate where the amendment is sought as a result of circumstances beyond the control of the key employees. In the bankruptcy of LightSquared Inc., the debtors obtained approval of a KEIP that awarded key employees bonuses if the debtors confirmed a plan by a date certain. The LightSquared debtors' plan timeline was delayed by unforeseen circumstances, including regulatory delays from the Federal Communications Commission. The debtors sought to amend the KEIP to correspond with the delayed plan confirmation timeline. The Bankruptcy Court approved the proposed amendment and "authoriz[ed] LightSquared to modify and extend LightSquared's existing Key Employee Incentive Plan to accommodate the current facts and circumstances of the Chapter 11 Cases." Order Authorizing LightSquared to Modify and Extend Existing Key Employee Incentive Plan, Case No. 12-bk-12080, Doc. No. 2274 at *1 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Mar. 27, 2015).

Chapter 11

Similar to the situation in LightSquared, the Debtors' timeline for closing the SGM Sale has been delayed by unanticipated regulatory issues. Pursuant to Cal. Corp. Code § 5914, the Debtors submitted the SGM Sale to the review of the California Attorney General (the "Attorney General"). The Debtors requested an expedited review process given their substantial and ongoing operating losses. Notwithstanding this request, the Attorney General used the maximum time permitted under the statute to conduct the review, even availing himself of the 45-day extension under Cal. Corp. Code § 5915.

Closing of the SGM Sale was further delayed by the Attorney General's attempt to impose conditions upon the SGM Sale in excess of the conditions which SGM had agreed to accept. [Note 1] The Asset Purchase Agreement under which SGM agreed to purchase the Hospitals (the "APA") provided that SGM would close the sale so long as any conditions imposed by the Attorney General under the review process set forth in Cal. Corp. Code § 5914 were substantially consistent with conditions that SGM had agreed to accept (the "Approved Conditions"). In the event that the Attorney General sought to impose conditions materially different from the Approved Conditions (the "Additional Conditions"), the APA provided that the Debtors would have an opportunity to seek a determination from the Court that the Hospitals could be sold free and clear of the Additional Conditions under § 363(f). The APA does not require SGM to close the sale unless the Debtors obtain a final, non-appealable order authorizing the sale free and clear of the Additional Conditions. Closing of the SGM Sale has been delayed by the need for the Debtors to seek to obtain a final, non-appealable order authorizing the sale free and clear.

The delays discussed above are not the fault of the key employees and were not anticipated at the time the Debtors designed the KEIP. As was the case in the LightSquared bankruptcy, it is appropriate to permit the Debtors to amend the KEIP.

B. Application of the Dana Corp. Factors Supports Approval of the Amended KEIP

Courts have relied upon the following factors in evaluating key employee incentive plans such as the plan at issue here:

- Is there a reasonable relationship between the plan proposed and the results to be obtained, i.e., will the key employee stay for as long as it takes for the debtor to reorganize or market its assets, or, in the case of a performance incentive, is the plan calculated to achieve the desired performance? (emphasis added)
- Is the cost of the plan reasonable in the context of the debtor’s assets, liabilities and earning potential?
- Is the scope of the plan fair and reasonable; does it apply to all employees; does it discriminate unfairly?
- Is the plan or proposal consistent with industry standards?
- What were the due diligence efforts of the debtor in investigating the need for a plan; analyzing which key employees need to be incentivized; what is available; what is generally applicable in a particular industry?
- Did the debtor receive independent counsel in performing due diligence and in creating and authorizing the incentive compensation?

In re Dana Corp., 358 B.R. 567, 576–77 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2006).

The Amended KEIP is consistent with the factors set forth in Dana Corp. The only difference between the Amended KEIP and the Original KEIP, which was previously approved by the Court, is the enlargement of the date triggering bonus payments under the Closing Metric. As discussed above, the regulatory delays necessitating enlargement of this date were not anticipated at the time the KEIP was designed. Further, the circumstances necessitating enlargement are entirely outside the control of the key employees who benefit from the Amended KEIP. Therefore, the Amended KEIP satisfies the Dana Corp. factors for the same reasons that the Original KEIP did. [Note 2]

Chapter 11

Specifically, the Amended KEIP appropriately incentivizes Amendment Employees by awarding bonuses under the Closing Metric only if the Debtors close the SGM Sale on or before December 31, 2019. The Amended KEIP is reasonable in the context of the Debtors' assets and liabilities. Compared to the Original KEIP, the incremental cost of the Amended KEIP is $305,204. This amount is reasonable in the context of the $610 million SGM Sale. The scope of the Amended KEIP is fair and reasonable. Only seven management employees who work at the four Remaining Hospitals are eligible to receive payments under the Amended KEIP. Finally, the Declaration of Richard G. Adcock, the CEO of VHS, establishes that the Debtors have conducted the requisite due diligence in developing the Amended KEIP.

C. The Amended KEIP Satisfies the Business Judgment Standard

Section 363(b)(1) authorizes the Debtors to use property of the estate, other than in the ordinary course of business, after notice and a hearing. The Debtors are required to articulate a business justification for use of estate property outside the ordinary course of business. Walter v. Sunwest Bank (In re Walter), 83 B.R. 14, 19–20 (9th Cir. BAP 1988). Whether the articulated business justification is sufficient "depends on the case," in view of "all salient factors pertaining to the proceeding." Id. at 19–20.

Here, the Debtors have sufficiently articulated a business justification for the Amended KEIP. As stated above, the Amendment Employees are not responsible for the delays necessitating the enlargement of the date triggering the Closing Metric. The Amended KEIP is necessary to preserve morale as the Amendment Employees confront numerous complex issues while working to close the SGM Sale.

Section 503(c)(3) requires that payments to a debtor's employees outside the ordinary course of business be "justified by the facts and circumstances of the case" to be allowable as an administrative expense. The majority of courts have found that this standard is no different from the business judgment standard under §363(b). See, e.g., Global Home Prods., 369 B.R. at 783-84; In re Velo Holdings, Inc., 472 B.R. 201, 212 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2012) (collecting cases); In re Nobex Corp., 2006 WL 4063024 (Bankr. D. Del. Jan. 19, 2006) (concluding that § 503(c)(3) was nothing more than a reiteration of the standard under § 363 under which courts had previously authorized transfers outside the ordinary course of business based on the business judgment of the debtor).

Having found the payments under the Amended KEIP to be appropriate under § 363(b)(1), the Court finds that such payments also meet the standard set forth in § 503(c)(3). Payments under the Amended KEIP are therefore allowable as an

#9.00 Hearing re [3336] Motion For Order Authorizing Disposal Of Patient Records

Docket 0

Tentative Ruling:

11/5/2019

For the reasons set forth below, the Motion is GRANTED in its entirety.

Pleadings Filed and Reviewed:

- 1) Debtors' Notice of Motion and Motion for Order Authorizing Disposal of Patient Records [Doc. Nos. 3336 and 3354 (Motion refiled as Doc. No. 3354 solely to correct docket event code)] (the "Motion")
 - a) Submission of Signature Page of Declaration of Richard G. Adcock in Support of Debtors' Notice of Motion and Motion for Order Authorizing Disposal of Patient Records [Doc. No. 3367]
 - b) Declaration of Service by Kurtzman Carson Consultants, LLC Regarding Docket Numbers 3336, 3337, 3357 and 3358 [Doc. No. 3496]
- 2) No opposition to the Motion is on file

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

On August 31, 2018 (the "Petition Date"), Verity Health System of California ("VHS") and certain of its subsidiaries filed voluntary petitions for relief under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. On August 31, 2018, the Court entered an order granting the Debtors' motion for joint administration of the Debtors' Chapter 11 cases. Doc. No. 17. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors operated six acute care hospitals (the "Hospitals").

The Debtors move for authorization to dispose of certain patient records in the manner set forth in § 351. Custody of the majority of the Debtors' patient records has been transferred, or will be transferred, to the purchasers of the Debtors' Hospitals. The remaining patient records which the Debtors seek authorization to dispose of include, inter alia, records related to physicians no longer affiliated with medical foundations formerly operated by the Debtors. The cost of storing the remaining records would be approximately $165,000 for the next seven years. The Debtors seek to dispose of the records in order to increase the recovery to creditors.

No opposition to the Motion is on file.

II. Findings and Conclusions

Section 351 provides:

If a health care business commences a case under chapter 7, 9, or 11, and the trustee does not have a sufficient amount of funds to pay for the storage of patient records in the manner required under applicable Federal or State law, the following requirements shall apply:

(1) The trustee shall—

(A) promptly publish notice, in 1 or more appropriate newspapers, that if patient records are not claimed by the patient or an insurance provider (if applicable law permits the insurance provider to make that claim) by the date that is 365 days after the date of that notification, the trustee will destroy the patient records; and

(B) during the first 180 days of the 365-day period described in subparagraph (A), promptly attempt to notify directly each patient that is the subject of the patient records and appropriate insurance carrier concerning the patient records by mailing to the most recent known address of that patient, or a family member or contact person for that patient, and to the appropriate insurance carrier an appropriate notice regarding the claiming or disposing of patient records.

(2) If, after providing the notification under paragraph (1), patient records are not claimed during the 365-day period described under that paragraph, the trustee shall mail, by certified mail, at the end of such 365-day period a written request to each appropriate Federal agency to request permission from that agency to deposit the patient records with that agency, except that no Federal agency is required to accept patient records under this paragraph.

Chapter 11

(3) If, following the 365-day period described in paragraph (2) and after providing the notification under paragraph (1), patient records are not claimed by a patient or insurance provider, or request is not granted by a Federal agency to deposit such records with that agency, the trustee shall destroy those records by—

(A) if the records are written, shredding or burning the records; or

(B) if the records are magnetic, optical, or other electronic records, by otherwise destroying those records so that those records cannot be retrieved.

Here, the Debtors intend to comply with all requirements of § 351 with respect to the patient records that the Debtors seek to dispose of (the "Patient Records"). Specifically, the Debtors will:

- 1) Publish notice of the proposed disposal of the Patient Records in the following newspapers of general circulation: (a) the Los Angeles Times, (b) the San Francisco Chronicle, (c) the San Jose Mercury News, and (d) USA Today (the "Published Notice");
- 2) Within 180 days of the Published Notice, notify patients and/or insurance carriers of their right to claim the Patient Records;
- 3) Request permission from the United States Department of Health and Human Services ("DHHS") to deposit any unclaimed Patient Records with the DHHS;
- 4) To the extent that Patient Records remain unclaimed within 365 days of the Published Notice and have not been accepted for deposit with the DHHS, destroy the records in the manner specified in § 351(3).

The Court finds that the Patient Records impose an unnecessary financial burden upon the Debtors' estates. Storing the Patient Records for the next seven years will cost $165,000. The Debtors intend to dispose of the Patient Records in the manner specified in § 351. The Motion is GRANTED in its entirety.

The Debtors shall submit a conforming order, incorporating this tentative ruling by reference, within seven days of the hearing.

human resources records, and legal and compliance records.

No opposition to the Motion is on file.

II. Findings and Conclusions

Section 363(c) authorizes a debtor-in-possession to use or dispose of property of the estate in the ordinary course of business. Section 554(a) authorizes a debtor-in-possession to abandon property of the estate that is burdensome or of inconsequential value to the estate.

The Court authorizes the Debtors to dispose of the Non-Patient Records in accordance with the Alternative Record Retention Policy. The Alternative Record Retention Policy is consistent with applicable non-bankruptcy law with respect to the maintenance of the records at issue. The cost of maintaining the Non-Patient Records under the Debtors' current retention policies is in excess of $110,000 per year. Disposal of the Non-Patient Records in accordance with the Alternative Record Retention Policy will materially reduce storage costs and is therefore in the best interests of the estates and creditors. Records necessary to the continued operation of the Hospitals have been, or will be, transferred to the purchasers of those Hospitals. Because the Debtors will no longer be operating the Hospitals, there is no reason for the Debtors to retain the Non-Patient Records, which are burdensome to the estates.

Based upon the foregoing, the Motion is GRANTED in its entirety, pursuant to §§ 363(c) and 554(a). The Debtors shall submit a conforming order, incorporating this tentative ruling by reference, within seven days of the hearing.

No appearance is required if submitting on the court's tentative ruling. I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

CAFA Homes, Inc. (the "Debtor") filed a voluntary Chapter 7 petition on September 4, 2019 (the "Petition Date"). According to its verified schedules [Doc. No. 9], the Debtor declares that its only assets consist of $35 in a Wells Fargo account and the following six parcels of real property:

- i. 393 E. 93rd Street, Los Angeles CA 90003
- ii. 9022 Compton Avenue, Los Angeles, CA 90002
- iii. 10401 South Avalon Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90003
- iv. 10970 South Avalon Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90061
- v. 417 E. 119th Street, Los Angeles, CA 90051
- vi. 2825 Live Oak St., Huntington Park, CA 90255

On October 21, 2019, the Court scheduled a combined hearing on the Motion to Convert, Hobart's R/S Motion, Bochner's R/S Motion, and the proposed abandonment of certain real property of the estate. As set forth below, these motions are discussed in the chronological order they were filed.

senior deed of trust granted by Debtor to secure a principal debt of $175,000 against real property located at 9022 Compton Avenue, Los Angeles, CA 90002 (the "Compton Avenue Property"). On September 26, 2019, Hobart filed its motion for relief from the automatic stay pursuant to §§ 362(d)(1), (d)(2), and (d)(4) as to the Compton Avenue Property [Doc. No. 11]. Under § 362(d)(2), Hobart asserts that Debtor has no equity in the Compton Avenue Property as its total claim of $240,168.25, in conjunction with numerous other liens and delinquent taxes, amounts to more than $4 million in debt, far exceeding any reasonable valuation figure,. See Hobart's R/S Motion at 8. While Hobart claims the Compton Avenue Property is worth $290,000 based on its 2016 sale for $275,000, on its schedules, the Debtor attests that the property was appraised at $475,000. See id., ¶ 11(d); Doc. No. 9. Hobart argues that even if the Court accepts the Debtor's valuation of $475,000, the Compton Avenue Property remains hopelessly underwater, being encumbered by indebtedness in excess of $4 million.

However, Hobart's primary argument is that the Debtor filed this petition in bad faith, or to further a scheme to delay, hinder, or defraud creditors. The evidentiary record presented by Hobart is voluminous and bears striking resemblance to the events described in Bochner's R/S Motion. In short, Hobart has been unable to foreclose on the Compton Avenue Property on five different occasions within the last year due to the bankruptcy filing of individuals claiming an interest therein. See Hobart's R/S Motion, Real Property Declaration of Abraham Ohebsion at ¶¶ 20 – 66 (providing a chronological account of attempted foreclosure sales.). Based on the record advanced by Hobart, the Court summarizes the extensive history of prior bankruptcy filings concerning the Compton Avenue Property as follows:

1. Prior to a foreclosure sale scheduled on May 20, 2019, Hobart received an email purportedly from Debtor's president, Carlos Flores ("Flores"), notifying of a voluntary Chapter 13 petition commenced by Carolina Villalvazo on May 16, 2019. See Declaration of Krause-Leemon ("Krause-Leemon Decl."), ¶¶ 4 – 9. Ms. Villalvazo claimed an interest of $7,500 in the Compton Avenue Property by virtue of a deed of trust executed by Flores on November 17, 2017. Id. Villalvazo's bankruptcy petition was dismissed on June 3, 2019 because she failed to file all required documents. Id.
2. Prior to a second foreclosure sale, which had been postponed to June 12, 2019, Hobart received another email purportedly from Flores notifying of a - second bankruptcy petition filed by Carolina Villalvazo on June 10, 2019. See id., ¶¶ 11 – 20. Ms. Villalvazo claimed another interest of $7,500 in the Compton Avenue Property by virtue of a second deed of trust executed by Flores on November 17, 2017. See id. As with the prior bankruptcy, Villalvazo's second petition was dismissed on July 25, 2019 because she failed to appear at the meeting of the creditors. See id.

3. Prior to a third postponed foreclosure sale on August 2, 2019, Hobart received another email purportedly from Flores notifying of a new bankruptcy petition, this filed by a Jose Santiago on July 26, 2019. See id., ¶¶ 22 – 31. Like past bankruptcies, Mr. Santiago claimed an interest of $7,500 in the Compton Avenue Property by virtue of a deed of trust executed by Flores on September 8, 2017. Id. Some of the commencement documents provided in Santiago's petition were signed by one "Jose Ruiz." See Hobart's R/S Motion, Ex. 9. As with the prior bankruptcies, Santiago's petition was dismissed shortly after commencement on August 13, 2019. Krause-Leemon Decl., ¶ 31.
 4. Prior to a fourth postponed foreclosure sale on August 16, 2019, Hobart yet again received an email purportedly from Flores notifying of a new bankruptcy petition, this filed by a Jason Green on August 13, 2019. See id., ¶¶ 33 – 39. Mr. Green claimed an interest of $3,200 in the Compton Avenue Property by virtue of an unrecorded deed of trust executed by Flores on May 29, 2018. See id. As with the prior bankruptcies, Green's petition was dismissed on September 9, 2019 because the debtor failed to lodge required commencement documents. See id., ¶ 48.
 5. For a fifth time, prior to a foreclosure sale postponed to August 30, 2019, Flores apparently notified Hobart of another bankruptcy petition, filed by a Carmen Aguilar on August 29, 2019. See id., ¶¶ 40 – 50. Ms. Aguilar claimed an interest of $2,750 in the Compton Avenue Property by virtue of a deed of trust executed by Flores. See id. Unlike previous deeds of trust, the document in question was dated October 24, 2014, purportedly signed on October 24, 2016, and had not been recorded as of August 14, 2019. See id. at 43. Predictably, Aguilar's petition was dismissed on September 16, 2019 soon after it was filed because the debtor failed to complete required documents. See id., ¶ 48.
 6. Moreover, Hobart's counsel later learned that the schedules actually filed by each of the aforementioned debtors do not reflect any interests in the Compton Avenue Property, differing from the schedules purportedly e-mailed by Flores to Hobart on the eve of foreclosure, which do demonstrate interests in said property. Krause-Leemon Decl., ¶¶ 46 – 47.

On September 18, 2019, in preparation for a sixth postponed foreclosure sale, Hobart independently discovered that Debtor had commenced the instant case. Based on the foregoing history, Hobart contends that this case, and the cases referenced above, are part of a scheme to delay, hinder, or defraud Hobart and junior lienholders.

Opposition to Hobart's R/S Motion and Hobart's Reply

On October 15, 2018, the Debtor filed the Opposition to Hobart's R/S Motion [Doc. No. 18]. In opposition, Debtor completely disregards allegations concerning the claimed pattern of fraud perpetrated by Debtor and Flores, instead opting to challenge relief from stay solely on § 362(d)(2) grounds. The Debtor counters that there is sufficient equity in the Compton Avenue Property and attaches an appraisal valuing said property at $475,000. Opposition to Hobart's R/S Motion, Ex. 1. Flores further attests that conversion to Chapter 11 will enable the Debtor to substantially improve the Compton Avenue Property, enhancing its current value to $700,000 or more. Declaration of Carlos Flores in Response to Hobart' R/S Motion, ¶¶ 6 – 7. Neither Flores nor Debtor explain the basis for this speculated increase in value. Accordingly, the Court understands that the Debtor's defense heavily rests in the success of the Motion to Convert.

On reply, Hobart repeats much of the information already provided in its moving papers but does emphasize the obvious detail that the property is significantly underwater regardless of its disputed valuation. Moreover, Hobart notes that Debtor did not address any allegations concerning past fraudulent conduct. In sum, Hobart requests that the Court halt Debtor's abusive bankruptcy practices thwarting its legitimate foreclosure efforts.

Bochner's R/S Motion

On September 27, 2019, Dan Z. Bochner ("Bochner") filed a motion seeking relief from the automatic stay to foreclose on a mixed-use commercial and residential building located at 10401 South Avalon Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90003 (the "10401 Avalon Property," and together with the Compton Avenue Property, the "Properties").

Chapter 7

Bochner holds a recorded senior deed of trust in the amount of $477,000, granted by Flores and secured by the 10401 Avalon Property (the "Note"). See Bochner's R/S Motion, Ex. A. The Note became due on December 31, 2014; the full amount of Bochner's claim is $624,354.35 as of September 27, 2019. Id. at 7. On its Schedule A/B: Assets – Real and Personal Property, the Debtor estimates the fair market value of the 10401 Avalon Property at $1,100,000. See id., Ex. C.

Bochner seeks relief from automatic stay under §§ 362(d)(1), (d)(2), and (d)(4). First, Bochner argues for relief under § 362(d)(2) because the Debtor has no equity in the 10401 Avalon Property, and it is not necessary to an effective reorganization. Accordingly, Bochner's total claim, along with five additional junior liens and unpaid property taxes, comprise of debt in the sum of $1,309,035.88, which exceeds the 10401 Avalon Property's estimated fair market value of $1,100,000. Bochner's R/S Motion at 7 – 8. Once sale costs are added to the total indebtedness claimed against the 10401 Avalon Property, Bochner concludes that the Debtor has no net equity in the 10401 Avalon Property [Note 1]. See id. at 9.

Next, with respect to grounds asserted under § 362(d)(1), Bochner contends that the Debtor initiated this petition in bad faith—it being the third bankruptcy case in a year to implicate interests in the 10401 Avalon Property. The following facts are not disputed by the Debtor. On September 20, 2018, a deed of trust was recorded, in which Flores appeared to grant an interest in the 10401 Avalon Property to Michael Angelo Vertiz ("Vertiz") and Christina Saucedo ("Saucedo") to secure a loan for $28,000. Bochner's R/S Motion at 4a. The instrument was recorded one day before Terra Nova Capital ("Terra Nova"), a junior lienholder, was set to foreclose on the 10401 Avalon Property. See id. In addition, Bochner claims that this transaction transpired without his consent or knowledge, and in contravention with the terms of the Note. See id. On September 17, 2018, Saucedo commenced a voluntary chapter 7, wherein the Honorable Barry Russell granted Terra Nova's request to lift the stay against the 10401 Avalon Property on October 25, 2018. See id.; see also Ex. G. Days later, Vertiz similarly filed Chapter 13 case on September 21, 2018, which was summarily dismissed on October 9, 2018 due to Vertiz's failure to file required documents. See Bochner's R/S Motion at 4a; see also Ex. F. For the reasons set forth above, Bochner argues that this case was also part of a scheme to delay, hinder, or defraud creditors under § 362(d)(4).

Chapter 7

On October 7, 2019, the Debtor filed the Opposition to Bochner's R/S Motion. The Debtor argues that the 10401 Avalon Property has a fair market value of $1,350,000, and therefore, Bochner's claim is adequately protected by an equity cushion of approximately $625,645.65. The Debtor bases this new valuation upon a "restricted" appraisal conducted by Pacific Valuation Real Estate Services ("Pacific"), current as of September 20, 2019. See Opposition to Bochner's R/S Motion, Ex. 1. Additionally, Flores provides a declaration, attesting that he ordered the appraisal to facilitate pre-petition plans to refinance the 10401 Avalon Property, and thereby enhance its resale value through physical renovation. Flores Decl. [Doc. No. 19] at ¶ 3. As he did in the Opposition to Hobart's R/S Motion, Flores again alludes to the Motion to Convert, claiming that the 10401 Avalon Property is necessary to the Debtor's successful reorganization. Id. at ¶¶ 2, 7. As to Bochner's additional contentions, the Debtor generally denies that this case was filed in bad faith, but it does not expressly address either the bankruptcy petitions filed by Vertiz and Saucedo, or the interests purportedly transferred to these individuals.

Bochner's Reply

On October 11, 2019, Bochner filed a response, summarizing the record of evidence supporting his valuation of the 10401 Avalon Property and estimated total of all liens. Bochner also restates prior arguments, including those concerning the history of bankruptcy abuses allegedly perpetrated by Flores and Debtor. Specifically, Bochner emphasizes that Debtor failed to refute that it engaged in a practice characterized as "hijacking." Bochner relies on the discussion provided in In re Vazquez, 580 B.R. 526, 528 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2017)—describing "hijacking" as a scheme to transfer a borrower's distressed assets to a debtor entering bankruptcy to invoke automatic stay relief and delay any nonbankruptcy procedures. Bochner's Reply at 2. Accordingly, Bochner appears to suggest that the Debtor engaged in hijacking by transferring its interest in the 10401 Avalon Property to Vertiz and Saucedo. See id. at 2, 6 – 7. Separately, Bochner contends that the appraisal offered by Debtor is inadmissible and unauthenticated, but in any case, Debtor does not possess any equity under either valuation. Id. at 6.

Chapter 7

Brad Krasnoff, the Chapter 7 Trustee (the "Trustee") filed two separate notices for the proposed abandonment of the Properties pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 554 [Doc. Nos. 15 and 16].

The Debtor timely filed the Opposition to Abandonment, objecting only to the abandonment of the 10401 Avalon Property on the grounds that it possesses equity therein. Further, the Debtor briefly mentions the Motion to Convert and counters that the 10401 Avalon Property will be fundamental to Debtor's reorganization. As of the preparation of this tentative ruling, the Motion to Abandon the Compton Avenue Property has not been opposed.

On reply, the Trustee attests that a title search obtained from William Friedman of Coldwell Banker shows that the 10401 Avalon Property is subject to three additional liens not discussed in Bochner's R/S Motion: one held by PRC Residential in the amount of $3,795,000, and two (2) held by a party named "Vertiz" for $28,000 and $10,000, respectively. Declaration of Brad Krasnoff, ¶¶ 3 – 4. Furthermore, according to an exterior evaluation performed on or about September 23, 2019, the 10401 Avalon Property has an estimated value of just $795,000. Id., ¶ 6. Based on these findings, the Trustee concludes that the 10401 Avalon Property has no net equity to administer for the benefit of creditors.

Motion to Convert

On October 4, 2019, the Debtor filed the Motion to Convert, which is substantively limited to the terse details requested in the two-page mandatory form. Debtor generally seeks to convert its voluntary Chapter 7 petition to Chapter 11. No attachments or declarations are included therein. Aside the assertions made in Flores's declarations in opposition to different motions, the Debtor has not filed a reply or other supplemental briefing supporting the Motion to Convert.

Chapter 7

Both Hobart and Bochner (collectively, the "Creditors") filed separate oppositions to the Motion to Convert [Doc Nos. 27, 32], where each creditor refers to and incorporates therein the factual narrative previously proffered in their motions for relief from stay. The Creditors strongly object to the requested conversion on two grounds: 1) Debtor is disqualified to act as a Chapter 11 fiduciary based on its expansive history of bankruptcy abuse, and 2) Debtor has offered no evidence that it can successfully reorganize.

As to the former grounds, the Creditors rely upon In re Hunter which stands for the proposition that a Chapter 7 debtor seeking to convert to Chapter 11 "must be eligible to be a debtor under that chapter and not subject to conversion or dismissal" for reasons that include "bad faith." In re Hunter, 597 B.R. 287, 292 (Bankr. M.D.N.C. 2019) (citing In re Daughtrey, 896 F.3d 1255 (11th Cir. 2018).); Hobart's Opposition to Conversion at 4; Bochner's Opposition to Conversion at 4. Creditors point to the legal principle articulated in In re Hunter in concluding that the Debtor's actions are textbook examples of "fraudulent bad faith bankruptcy conduct." Hobart's Opposition to Conversion at 8. Additionally, Hobart highlights that Debtor never disclosed any of the factual history discussed above in any of its commencement documents, or any other subsequent filings. Id. In sum, the Creditors submit that Debtor should be disqualified from acting as Chapter 11 fiduciary, with a referral to the U.S. Trustee's Fraud Division being more appropriate. Bochner's Opposition to Conversion at 6 – 7.

As to the latter grounds, the Creditors reiterate many of their previous points. Hobart posits that even if the Court were to overlook the fraud and bad faith allegations, the Debtor's schedules indicate that there is no viable path to a successful Chapter 11 reorganization. Hobart's Opposition to Conversion at 9. Accordingly, the Debtor only has $35 in cash, and the indebtedness encumbering the Compton Avenue Property alone ($4,365,259.66) is larger than the combined value of Debtor's interest in its six parcels of real property ($3,339,600). Id.; Ex. A. In fact, Hobart plans to file a motion to convert this case back to Chapter 7, if the Motion to Convert is granted.

As of the preparation of this tentative ruling, no reply has been filed.

Chapter 7

II. Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law

A. The Debtor is ineligible to proceed under Chapter 11 based on a pattern of fraudulent and bad faith pre-petition conduct.

Section 706(a) provides that the "debtor may convert a case under [chapter 7] to a case under chapter 11 ... of this title at any time, if the case has not been converted under section 1112, 1208, or 1307 of this title. Any waiver of the right to convert a case under this subsection is unenforceable."

The Creditors contend that the Motion to Convert should be denied based on the Debtor's alleged bad faith and fraudulent conduct. The Creditors support their position by relying on In re Hunter, supra, which itself cites to the Supreme Court's decision in Marrama v. Citizens Bank of Mass., 549 U.S. 365 (2007). In Marrama, the Supreme Court considered whether § 706(a) provided a Chapter 7 debtor the absolute right to convert to Chapter 13. Noting that § 1307(c) permits the bankruptcy court to convert or dismiss a Chapter 13 case for "cause," the Marrama Court found that the bankruptcy court was not required to convert a Chapter 7 case to Chapter 13 where circumstances existed that would justify dismissal under § 1307(c): "Nothing in the text of either § 706 or § 1307(c) (or the legislative history of either provision) limits the authority of the court to take appropriate action in response to fraudulent conduct by the atypical litigant who has demonstrated that he is not entitled to the relief available to the typical debtor. On the contrary, the broad authority granted to bankruptcy judges to take any action that is necessary or appropriate 'to prevent an abuse of process' described in § 105(a) of the Code, is surely adequate to authorize an immediate denial of a motion to convert filed under § 706 in lieu of a conversion order that merely postpones the allowance of equivalent relief and may provide a debtor with an opportunity to take action prejudicial to creditors." Id. at 374-75 (footnotes omitted).

The reasoning in Marrama applies with equal force even in a motion to convert from Chapter 7 to Chapter 11. Similarly to § 1307(c), Chapter 11 permits courts to dismiss or convert a Chapter 11 case for "cause." See § 1112(b). Rather than granting a motion to convert from Chapter 7 to Chapter 11 and then dismissing or re-converting the Chapter 11 case for "cause," the bankruptcy court may simply deny the original motion to convert to Chapter 11 under the mantle of "broad authority" alluded in Marrama. See, e.g. In re Daughtrey, 896 F.3d at 1276.

Section 1112(b) enumerates sixteen non-exclusive circumstances which constitute "cause" for conversion or dismissal. "It is well-settled that even though Chapter 11 does not expressly so state, bad faith may serve as a ground for dismissal of a petition." In re Charfoos, 979 F.2d 390, 392 (6th Cir. 1992); see 11 U.S.C. § 1112(b) (grounds for dismissal); see also In re Marsch, 36 F.3d 825, 828 (9th Cir. 1994) ("[a]lthough section 1112(b) does not explicitly require that cases be filed in "good faith," courts have overwhelmingly held that a lack of good faith in filing a Chapter 11 petition establishes cause for dismissal."). As one court explained: "Bankruptcy is an equitable remedy whereby a debtor is clothed with the protection of an automatic stay, preventing his creditors from acting against him for a period of time, in order to facilitate rehabilitation or reorganization of his finances and to promote a 'fresh start' through the orderly disposition of assets to satisfy his creditors. Every bankruptcy statute since 1898 has incorporated literally, or by judicial interpretation, a standard of good faith for the commencement, prosecution, and confirmation of bankruptcy proceedings. Such a standard furthers the balancing process between the interests of debtors and creditors which characterizes so many provisions of the bankruptcy laws and is necessary to legitimize the delay and costs imposed upon parties to a bankruptcy." Matter of Little Creek Development Co., 779 F.2d 1068, 1071-72 (5th Cir. 1986) (internal citations omitted).

To determine whether a petition is filed in bad faith, courts consider a variety of circumstances: "'The existence of good faith depends on an amalgam of factors and not upon a specific fact.' The test is whether a debtor is attempting to unreasonably deter and harass creditors or attempting to effect a speedy, efficient reorganization on a feasible basis." In re Marsch, supra (citing In re Arnold, 806 F.2d 937, 939 (9th Cir. 1986)). Furthermore, a finding of bad faith may be based on pre-petition conduct. See, e.g., In re Owens, 552 F.3d 958 (9th Cir. 2009) (affirming dismissal of Chapter 11 case on the grounds that the "bankruptcy was filed in bad faith as a litigation tactic intended to delay" the sale of real property); In re Charfoos, 979 F.2d at 392 – 93 ("pre-petition conduct is sufficient to establish bad faith"). Moreover, like Chapter 7 trustees, principals of Chapter 11 debtors are responsible for overseeing creditors' best interests: "[w]hen the debtor is a corporation, corporate officers and directors are considered to be fiduciaries both to the corporate debtor in possession and to the creditors." In re Anchorage Nautical Tours, Inc., 145 B.R. 637, 643 (9th Cir. Chapter 7 1992) (finding that debtor's president violated its fiduciary duty to creditors by surrendering estate assets without notice) (internal citations omitted).

Here, the evidence of pre-petition bad-faith is extensive. The Creditors have both submitted a comprehensive record showing clearly that Flores transferred nominal interests in the Properties to third parties, and that repeatedly and strategically said parties commenced bankruptcy petitions on the eve of numerous foreclosure sales. As discussed above, the Court finds that the Properties have been implicated in no less than eight (8) bankruptcies in the last fourteen (14) months. Many, if not all, of the bankruptcy petitions concerning the Properties share discrepancies and characteristics indicative of fraud.

Notably, all of these cases were summarily dismissed within weeks because of the debtors' inability to accomplish basic commencement tasks. The timing of these filings is also particularly suspect. For example, Saucedá filed a voluntary Chapter 7 petition on September 17, 2018, just four days before Terra Nova foreclosed on the 10401 Avalon Property and dismissed two months later. See 2:18-bk-20815-BR, Doc. Nos. 1, 23. Comparably, Vertiz filed a voluntary Chapter 13 petition on September 21, 2018, the day of the same foreclosure sale, which was also dismissed approximately two months later for his failure to submit all required commencement documents. See 2:18-bk-21065-VZ, Doc. Nos. 1, 31. The pattern highlighted above parallels each of the petitions affecting the Compton Avenue Property.

Furthermore, there are a litany of discrepancies and misrepresentations in many of the documents filed in these bankruptcy petitions. The following are some of the most egregious examples observed. Vertiz's initial schedules disclose his interest in the 10401 Avalon Property as his only asset, while Terra Nova and Bochner are identified as two of his three only creditors. See 2:18-bk-21065-VZ, Doc. No. 1. Weeks later, after Terra Nova had rescheduled its foreclosure, Vertiz filed amended schedules completely removing mention of the 10401 Avalon Property, Terra Nova, and Bochner. See 2:18-bk-21065-VZ, Doc. No. 13. In an apparent scheme to derail Hobart's foreclosure on the Compton Avenue Property, shortly after a new bankruptcy was initiated by a third-party debtor, Flores allegedly e-mailed a series of documents to Hobart, which included such debtors' schedules reflecting an interest in the Compton Avenue Property. Krause-Leemon Decl., ¶¶ 46 – 47. However, the schedules provided by Flores differ from the schedules that had actually been filed, which did not reflect an interest in the Compton Avenue Property. Id. Suffice it to say, the Court finds it disconcerting that Debtor neglected to disclose any of these bankruptcy proceedings in its schedules and subsequent pleadings.

The common denominator in each of these bankruptcies is Flores. The Court observes that many of the instruments through which he purportedly transferred real property interests bear the seal of a notary public, certifying under penalty of perjury that Flores personally signed the documents. And neither Debtor nor Flores deny or even challenge any of the alleged bad faith. Given Debtor's silence on this issue, and in consideration of the vast record proffered, the Court is persuaded that the Debtor perpetrated bankruptcy fraud pre-petition, through its principal, sufficient to establish bad faith. In light of the Debtor's bad faith conduct, the Court finds that Flores is not qualified to serve as a fiduciary for any of Debtor's creditors in a Chapter 11 proceeding. See In re Anchorage Nautical Tours, Inc., 145 B.R. at 643 ("[w]hen the debtor is a corporation, corporate officers and directors are considered to be fiduciaries both to the corporate debtor in possession and to the creditors.").

For the reasons stated above, the Court finds that the Debtor is ineligible to proceed under Chapter 11 based on its pre-petition bad faith conduct. Accordingly, the Motion to Convert is DENIED.

The Debtor is directed to lodge a conforming proposed order, incorporating this tentative ruling by reference, within seven days of the hearing.

B. Relief from the automatic stay is GRANTED as to the Properties based on evidence of fraudulent conduct and because Debtor does not have any equity therein.

Section 362(d)(4) provides that on request of a party in interest and after notice and a hearing, the court shall grant relief from the stay with respect to an act against the property if the court finds that the filing of the petition was part of a scheme to delay, hinder or defraud creditors that involved either (1) the transfer of all or part ownership of or interest in the property without the consent of the secured creditor or court approval or (2) multiple bankruptcy filings affecting the property. 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(4).

"[T]he Code requires more than just the occurrence of...multiple filings. It requires that 'the filing of the petition was part of a scheme to delay, hinder or defraud creditors.'" In re Khurana, 2015 Bankr. LEXIS 2399, at *23-24 (Bankr. D. Idaho July 21, 2015). Factors considered in determining whether the filing of the petition was part of a scheme to delay, hinder or defraud include:

The number of bankruptcy filings; their frequency; the time lapsed between filings; whether the filings were dismissed, and for what reasons; whether the evidence suggests that the debtor had a legitimate belief that it could reorganize in such cases; the strategic timing of the cases, especially in relation to creditor collection efforts such as foreclosure; any changes in circumstances between the various case; and others.

Id. at *25-26.

The Court incorporates the findings made in connection with the Motion to Convert and thereby determines that there is sufficient evidence to grant the Creditors' motions for relief from stay based on §§ 362(d)(1) and (d)(4) grounds alone. This bankruptcy petition and at least eight other petitions were filed as part of a scheme to delay and hinder the Creditors' efforts to exercise their state law foreclosure rights as to the Properties. For the same reasons, both motions for relief from stay are granted pursuant to § 362(d)(1) based on the Debtor's bad faith filing.

Additionally, the Court further determines that the Creditors are entitled to relief from stay under § 362(d)(2) because Debtor has no equity in either the Compton Avenue Property or the 10401 Avalon Property. In response to the arguments under § 362(d)(2), Debtor contends that the Creditors enjoy a substantial equity cushion in each respective property, sufficient to provide their claims with adequate protection. Debtor submits two restricted appraisals from Pacific valuing the Compton Avenue Property and the 10401 Avalon Property at $475,000 and $1,350,000, respectively.

See Debtor's Opposition to Hobart's R/S Motion, Ex. 1; Debtor's Opposition to Bochner's R/S Motion, Ex. 1. The appraisals' legitimacy and valuations reached therein have been put into question by the Creditors and the Trustee. See Hobart's Reply at 2; Bochner's Reply at 3 ; Trustee's Reply at 2.

The Court need not make any findings with respect to the validity of the Pacific appraisals because even if the Properties are valued as appraised, each property remains substantially underwater and would not provide the estate with any equity. Accordingly, the liens asserted against the 10401 Avalon Property, inclusive of estimated sale costs, total $1,397,035.88, providing equity of -$47,035.88. See Bochner's R/S Motion at 8 – 9. Furthermore, according to the Trustee's title search, there is an additional lien of $3,795,000 in favor of PRC Residential. See Krasnoff Decl., ¶ 4 [Doc. No. 34]. Similarly, the sum of all liens encumbering the Compton Avenue Property, inclusive of sale costs, is approximately $4,365,259.66, leaving equity of -$3,928,259.66. Hobart's Reply at 4. Moreover, the Debtor fails to challenge or even acknowledge the validity of any liens over-encumbering the Properties. Based on the foregoing, the Court agrees with Hobart that the liens encumbering the Properties eclipse the collective value of assets in the estate "not just by a little [but] by a lot." See Hobart's Opposition to Conversion at 9.

For the reasons set forth above, Hobart's R/S Motion is GRANTED pursuant to §§ 362(d)(1), (d)(2) and (d)(4). Bochner's R/S Motion is GRANTED on the same grounds.

The Court grants the following relief with respect to both motions: The 14-day period specified in Fed. R. Bankr. P. 4001(a)(3) is waived. If recorded in compliance with applicable State laws governing notices of interests or liens in real property, the order shall be binding in any other case under this title purporting to affect such real property filed not later than 2 years after the date of the entry of such order by the Court, except that a debtor in a subsequent case under this title may move for relief from such order based upon changed circumstances or for good cause shown, after notice and a hearing. Any Federal, State, or local governmental unit that accepts notices of interests or liens in real property shall accept a certified copy of this order for indexing and recording. All other relief is denied.

Hobart is directed to lodge a conforming proposed order, incorporating this tentative ruling by reference with respect to Hobart's R/S Motion only, within seven Bochner is directed to lodge a conforming proposed order, incorporating this tentative ruling by reference with respect to Bochner's R/S Motion only, within seven days of the hearing.

C. Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 554, the Trustee may abandon the Properties.

Section 554(a) provides that a Trustee "may abandon any property of the estate that is burdensome to the estate or that is of inconsequential value and benefit to the estate." The Court incorporates the findings stated above and determines that the Trustee may abandon both the 10401 Avalon Property and the Compton Avenue Property as they possess no value that can benefit the estate. The Debtor objected to the abandonment of the 10401 Avalon Property citing to the pending Motion to Convert, but because said motion has been denied, the Court overrules the objection.

Based on the foregoing, the Motion to Abandon the 10401 South Avalon Property is GRANTED. The Motion to Abandon the Compton Avenue Property is GRANTED for the same reasons.

The Trustee is directed to lodge a conforming proposed order, incorporating this tentative ruling by reference with respect to the motions discussed in this section only, within seven days of the hearing.

No appearance is required if submitting on the court's tentative ruling. If you intend to submit on the tentative ruling, please contact Carlos Nevarez or Daniel Koontz at 213-894-1522. If you intend to contest the tentative ruling and appear, please first contact opposing counsel to inform them of your intention to do so. Should an opposing party file a late opposition or appear at the hearing, the court will determine whether further hearing is required. If you wish to make a telephonic appearance, contact Court Call at 888-882-6878, no later than one hour before the hearing.

Note 1: The estimated cost of selling the 10401 Avalon Property is $88,000, which is based upon 8% of the estimated gross sale receipts. Bochner's Motion at 9.

Tentative Ruling:

11/7/2019

On April 15, 2019, the Court stayed this action pending the completion of arbitration of the claims for relief asserted in the Complaint. Doc. Nos. 38 and 43. The Court found that it lacked discretion to decline to enforce an arbitration provision with respect to the non-core claims for breach of contract, unjust enrichment, and turnover. With respect to the remaining core claims for violation of the automatic stay and injunctive relief, the Court found that arbitration would not conflict with the purposes of the Bankruptcy Code, given that the amount at issue in connection with the core claims (approximately $360,000) was inconsequential when compared to the amount at issue in connection with the non-core claims (approximately $25 million). Consequently, the Court found that it was required to enforce the arbitration provision even with respect to the core claims.

#1.00 HearingRE: [231] Motion to Approve Compromise Under Rule 9019 Chapter 7 Trustee's Motion for Order Approving Proposed Compromise and Settlement Agreement Between the Trustee and the Remaining Defendants Declaration of Rosendo Gonzalez in Support Thereof (Krieger, Jeffrey)

Docket 231

Tentative Ruling:

11/12/2019

For the reasons set forth below, the Settlement Motion is GRANTED, and the Proposed Settlement is APPROVED.

Pleadings Filed and Reviewed

1. Chapter 7 Trustee's Motion for Order Approving Proposed Compromise and Settlement Agreement Between the Trustee and the Remaining Defendants [Doc. No. 231] (the "Motion")
2. Notice of Chapter 7 Trustee's Motion for Order Approving Proposed Compromise and Settlement Agreement Between the Trustee and the Remaining Defendants [Doc. No. 232]
3. As of the date of this tentative ruling, no opposition is on file

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

Green Jane, Inc. (the "Debtor") filed a voluntary chapter 11 petition on March 6, 2017 (the "Petition Date"). On May 25, 2017, the Court entered an order converting the case to a case under chapter 7 [Doc. No. 61]. Shortly thereafter, the UST appointed Rosendo Gonzalez to serve as the chapter 7 trustee (the "Trustee") and he continues to act in that capacity.

On March 5, 2019, the Trustee initiated an adversary proceeding against, among other defendants, TCG Assets, Inc. ("TCG Assets"), TCG International Holdings ("TCG International"), Michael B. Citron ("Citron"), Kenneth Morris ("Morris"), the Law Office of Kenneth R. Morris, LLC ("Morris Law Office"), and Nicholas Moffatt ("Moffatt") (collectively, the "Remaining Defendants") by filing a complaint to avoid and recover alleged fraudulent transfers pursuant to §§ 542, 544, 548, 550 (the "Complaint"). See Gonzalez v. TCG Assets, Inc. et al, Adv. Case. No. 2:19-ap-01061-ER, Doc. No. 1.

As stated in the Complaint, the Trustee alleges that Citron, Debtor's principal, directed the pre-petition transfer of funds in the aggregate amount of $578,211.24 to the Remaining Defendants, comprising of the following transfers:

- Citron allegedly directed the transfer of a total sum of $105,500 to TCG Assets from funds held in the bank accounts of Growth Innovations, Debtor's purported alter ego, of which $100,000 was transferred on June 23, 2015 and $5,500 on October 28, 2015.
- From April 17, 2015 to April 24, 2015, Citron allegedly directed the transfer of a total sum of $40,044.24 to various parties on behalf of TCG Assets from funds held in a trust account managed by Morris' attorney.
- From May 8, 2015 to October 1, 2015, Citron allegedly directed the transfer of a total sum of $79,167 to various parties on behalf of TCG Assets from funds held in the bank accounts of Growth Innovations, Debtor's purported alter ego.
- Citron allegedly directed the transfer of a total sum of $283,500 to TCG International, which is also allegedly owned by Citron, of which $25,000 was transferred on January 28, 2015; $25,000 on February 20, 2015; $133,500 on April 22, 2015; and $100,000 on July 15, 2015.
- On October 7, 2015, Citron allegedly directed the transfer of $5,000 to TCG International from funds held in the bank account of Growth Innovations, Debtor's purported alter ego.
- On May 1, 2015, Citron allegedly directed the transfer of $65,000 to Moffat from funds held in a trust account managed by Morris' attorney.
- Further, Citron allegedly made a pre-petition transfer of Debtor's funds in the sum of $30,000 to Ulzheimer and/or the Ulzheimer Group (the "Ulzheimer Defendants").

Complaint, ¶¶ 56-58, 63-64, 66.

pursuant to §§ 544 and 548. In order to avoid extensive litigation, the Trustee entered into settlement discussions with the Ulzheimer Defendants and counsel for the Remaining Defendants. The Trustee reached a settlement compromise with the Ulzheimer Defendants to resolve the Trustee's claims against the Ulzheimer Defendants, in full, in exchange for their return of the $30,000 (the "Ulzheimer Settlement"). This Court approved the Ulzheimer Settlement on May 7, 2019 [See Doc. Nos. 220, 224].

The Trustee and the Remaining Defendants presently seek approval of a settlement to resolve all claims and dismiss the adversary proceeding as to the Remaining Defendants, in exchange for $250,000 payable in six installments (the "Proposed Settlement"), $160,000 of which have since been paid to the Trustee [Note 1]. Given that litigation expenses will likely be considerable, the Trustee submits that the Proposed Settlement is reasonable, adequate under the circumstances, and in the best interest of creditors.

As of the date of this tentative ruling, no opposition is on file.

II. Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law

Bankruptcy Rule 9019(a) permits the Court to approve a compromise or settlement. In the Ninth Circuit, courts consider the following factors in determining the fairness, reasonableness and adequacy of a proposed settlement agreement:

- (a) The probability of success in the litigation;
- (b) the difficulties, if any, to be encountered in the matter of collection;
- (c) the complexity of the litigation involved, and the expense, inconvenience and delay necessarily attending it;
- (d) the paramount interest of the creditors and a proper deference to their reasonable views in the premises.

Martin v. Kane (In re A&C Properties), 784 F.2d 1377, 1381 (9th Cir. 1986).

"Each factor need not be treated in a vacuum; rather, the factors should be considered as a whole to determine whether the settlement compares favorably with the expected rewards of litigation." In re Western Funding Inc., 550 B.R. 841, 851

Chapter 7

(B.A.P. 9th Cir. 2016). Furthermore, "compromises are favored in bankruptcy, and the decision of the bankruptcy judge to approve or disapprove the compromise of the parties rests in the sound discretion of the bankruptcy judge." In re Sassalos, 160 B.R. 646, 653 (D. Ore. 1993). In approving a settlement agreement, the Court must "canvass the issues and see whether the settlement 'falls below the lowest point in the range of reasonableness.'" Cosoff v. Rodman (In re W.T. Grant Co.), 699 F.2d 599, 608 (2d Cir. 1983).

Here, the Court finds that the Proposed Settlement is adequate, fair and reasonable, and in the best interest of the estate in accordance with the A&C Properties factors. With respect to the first and third factors, the Trustee claims that, although possible, prevailing in the adversary proceeding would result in considerable expense—entailing the collection of evidence of no less than eighteen (18) individual transfers. The Court concurs with the Trustee that the first and third factors favor the approval of the Proposed Settlement. With respect to the issue of collection, the Trustee understands that TCG Assets and TCG International may now be defunct and uninsured as to the disputed claims. In contrast, collecting the Proposed Settlement funds has not been an issue as the Trustee has already received $160,000 of the settlement payout. Therefore, the second factor weighs in favor of the Proposed Settlement. Finally, as to the fourth factor, approval of the parties' agreement will ensure the estate recovers a significant portion (approximately 43%) of the Trustee's alleged fraudulent transfer claims, thereby avoiding unnecessary costs, delays, and uncertainties attendant with litigation. The Court has not received any objection to the Motion. Accordingly, pursuant to LBR 9013-1(h), the Court presumes all interested parties consent to approval of the Settlement Motion and Proposed Settlement.

III. Conclusion

For the reasons set forth above, the Motion is GRANTED, and the Proposed Settlement is APPROVED.

The Trustee is directed to lodge a conforming proposed order, incorporating this tentative ruling by reference, within seven days of the hearing.

Chapter 7

A. Background

On March 18, 2015, Alvaro Cortes (“Plaintiff”) commenced an action in the Los Angeles Superior Court (the “State Court”) against Jeremy LeClair (the “Defendant”) and other parties (the “State Court Action”) (Case No. BC-575500, filed on March 18, 2015). The State Court Action alleged that Defendant fraudulently offered and sold unqualified, non-exempt securities in the form of operating agreements, bridge loans, and promissory notes. On February 24, 2016, Plaintiff obtained authorization from the State Court to serve Defendant by publication. Plaintiff published the summons in the Los Angeles Daily Journal on March 17, 2016, March 24, 2016, March 31, 2016, and April 7, 2016. On June 21, 2016, Plaintiff obtained entry of default against the Defendant. On March 28, 2017, the State Court entered default judgment against the Defendant in the amount of $590,908.50 (the “State Court Judgment”).

On June 12, 2018, Defendant filed a voluntary Chapter 7 petition in the Western District of North Carolina (the “North Carolina Bankruptcy Court”). On August 29, 2018, the North Carolina Bankruptcy Court found that the proper venue for Defendant’s case was the Central District of California, Los Angeles Division. The conclusion was based on a finding that the Defendant currently resides in Hacienda Heights, California. See Order on Motion to Dismiss and Motion to Transfer Case [Bankr. Doc. No. 1] at ¶¶ 6–7. Defendant’s bankruptcy case was transferred to this court on August 30, 2018.

On November 30, 2018, Plaintiff filed the instant Complaint to Determine Dischargeability of Debt and for Money Judgment [Adv. Doc. No. 1] (the “Complaint”). The Complaint alleges that the indebtedness established by the State Court Judgment is excepted from Defendant’s discharge pursuant to § 523(a)(2)(A) and (a)(6). The Complaint further alleges that Defendant’s discharge should be denied, pursuant to § 727(a)(2)(A), because Defendant transferred substantial assets to others for the purpose of hindering, delaying, and defrauding creditors within one year prior to the filing of the petition.

On February 28, 2019, the Court denied Defendant’s motion to dismiss the Complaint. Adv. Doc. Nos. 17 and 19. The Court rejected Defendant’s assertion that the Complaint was not filed within the time period imposed by Bankruptcy Rule 4007. The Court also rejected Defendant’s contention that the Complaint’s allegations under § 523(a)(6) failed to state a claim upon which relief could be granted.

On May 31, 2019, the Court denied Defendant’s motion to set aside the State Court Judgment. Adv. Doc. Nos. 39 and 42. In support of that motion, Defendant argued that the State Court Judgment was void because he had not been personally served. The Court rejected Defendant's argument, finding that the Rooker-Feldman doctrine prevented the Court from entertaining Defendant's attack upon the validity of the State Court Judgment:

Defendant attacks the validity of the State Court Judgment on various grounds. In so doing, Defendant is effectively asking this Court to review a final determination of the State Court. The Rooker-Feldman doctrine prevents this Court from conducting such a review. As stated in Exxon Mobil Corp. v. Saudi Basic Industries Corp., the Rooker-Feldman doctrine bars "cases brought by state-court losers complaining of injuries caused by state-court judgments rendered before the [federal] court proceedings commenced and inviting [federal] court review and rejection of those judgments." 544 U.S. 280, 284 (2005).

The Supreme Court has explained:

Property interests are created and defined by state law. Unless some federal interest requires a different result, there is no reason why such interests should be analyzed differently simply because an interested party is involved in a bankruptcy proceeding. Uniform treatment of property interests by both state and federal courts within a State serves to reduce uncertainty, to discourage forum shopping, and to prevent a party from receiving "a windfall merely by reason of the happenstance of bankruptcy."

Butner v. United States, 440 U.S. 48, 55 (1979).

The State Court Judgment is a property interest which was created and defined by California state law. As long as the State Court Judgment remains valid and enforceable by the courts of the state of California, it is sufficient to establish indebtedness for non-dischargeability purposes. To hold otherwise would not only violate the Rooker-Feldman doctrine, but would create the uncertainty and forum-shopping that the Supreme Court warned against in Butner. If Defendant wishes to attack the validity of the State Court Judgment, he must do so before the State Court.

The Court's denial of the Motion is consistent with Ninth Circuit precedent. In MacKay v. Pfeil, 827 F.2d 540 (9th Cir.1987), MacKay filed an action in federal district court, alleging that a judgment entered by an Alaska state court was void because the court lacked personal jurisdiction. MacKay sought from federal court a declaration that the judgment entered by the state court was void. The MacKay court held that the jurisdictional attack upon the state court's judgment was barred by the Rooker-Feldman doctrine. MacKay, 827 F.2d at

Like the defendant in MacKay, the Defendant here mounts a jurisdictional attack upon a judgment entered by a state court. Just as defendant's jurisdictional attack was barred in MacKay, it is barred here.

Final Ruling Denying Motion to Set Aside State Court Judgment [Adv. Doc. No. 39] at 3–5.

On October 8, 2019, Defendant filed a Complaint for Independent Action in Equity to Set Aside and Vacate Default and Default Judgment for Lack of Personal Jurisdiction in the State Court (the action commenced by the filing of such complaint, the "State Court Collateral Attack Action"). The State Court Collateral Attack Action seeks to vacate the State Court Judgment for lack of personal jurisdiction, and alleges that service of the State Court Complaint was defective. [Note 1] On November 1, 2019, the State Court set an Order to Show Cause Hearing for January 21, 2020, based on Defendant's failure to file a proof of service of the complaint that commenced the State Court Collateral Attack Action.

B. Summary of Papers Filed in Connection with Defendant's Motion to Stay the Complaint

Defendant moves to stay the proceedings in this action pending the outcome of the State Court Collateral Attack Action. Defendant explains that he commenced the State Court Collateral Action after the Bankruptcy Court declined to entertain Defendant's jurisdictional attack upon the State Court Action. Defendant asserts that it is appropriate to stay this action until it has been determined whether the State Court Judgment, which established the indebtedness alleged to be non-dischargeable in this action, is vacated for lack of personal jurisdiction.

Plaintiff opposes Defendant's motion to stay the proceedings. Plaintiff asserts that the motion is procedurally improper, and points out that in the State Court Collateral Attack Action, Plaintiff has not yet filed a motion to set aside the default that was entered in the State Court Action. Plaintiff further argues that the motion is untimely, having been filed only after Plaintiff moved for summary judgment.

C. Summary of Papers Filed in Connection with Plaintiff's Motion for Summary

Judgment

Plaintiff moves for summary judgment on his claim for relief under § 523(a)(6). Plaintiff argues that Defendant is precluded from contesting his liability under § 523(a)(6), because the issues litigated in the State Court Action are identical to the issues arising in this action. Plaintiff emphasizes that in the State Court Action, Defendant was found liable for fraudulently selling bogus insurance and securities.

Defendant opposes the Motion for Summary Judgment. First, Defendant argues that collateral estoppel cannot apply, because the State Court Action was not actually litigated. In support of this argument, Defendant reiterates his contention that service in the State Court Action was defective. In addition, Defendant states that he did not become aware of the State Court Action until after judgment had been entered, and therefore lacked an opportunity to litigate. Second, Defendant argues that the State Court Judgment is not final, given the pending State Court Collateral Attack Action. Finally, Defendant asserts that the issues in the State Court Action are not identical to the issues in this dischargeability action.

In Reply to Defendant's Opposition, Plaintiff contends that the Court should disregard the Opposition because it was filed three days late. Plaintiff disputes Defendant's contention that the State Court Judgment was void for lack of jurisdiction. Plaintiff emphasizes that the State Court Judgment remains in effect and has not been set aside. Plaintiff argues that Defendant's State Court Collateral Attack Action cannot succeed, because a judgment cannot be set aside on collateral attack unless it is void on its face.

II. Findings and Conclusions

A. The Motion for Summary Judgment is Denied without Prejudice.

At the outset, the Court declines Plaintiff's request to disregard Defendant's Opposition, merely because the Opposition was filed three days late. The untimely filing of the Opposition did not unduly prejudice Plaintiff, who filed a Reply contesting the arguments set forth in the Opposition.

Summary judgment is appropriate "if the movant shows that there is no genuine dispute as to any material facts and the movant is entitled to judgment as a matter of law." Civil Rule 56 (made applicable to these proceedings by Bankruptcy Rule 7056). The moving party has the burden of establishing the absence of a genuine issue of material fact and that it is entitled to judgment as a matter of law. *Celotex Corp. v. about a material fact is "genuine," that is, if the evidence is such that a reasonable jury could return a verdict for the nonmoving party." Anderson v. Liberty Lobby, Inc., 477 U.S. 242, 248 (1986). "A fact is 'material' only if it might affect the outcome of the case[.]" Fresno Motors, LLC v. Mercedes Benz USA, LLC, 771 F.3d 1119, 1125 (9th Cir. 2014). If the moving party shows the absence of a genuine issue of material fact, the nonmoving party must "go beyond the pleadings and by her own affidavits, or by the 'depositions, answers to interrogatories, and admissions on file,' designate 'specific facts showing that there is a genuine issue for trial.'" Celotex, 477 U.S. at 324 (quoting Fed. R. Civ. P. 56(e)). The court is "required to view all facts and draw all reasonable inferences in favor of the nonmoving party" when reviewing the Motion. Brosseau v. Haugen, 543 U.S. 194, 195 n.2 (2004).

To determine the preclusive effect of an existing state court judgment, the "bankruptcy court must apply the forum state's law of issue preclusion." Plyam v. Precision Development, LLC (In re Plyam), 530 B.R. 452, 462 (9th Cir. BAP 2015). California preclusion law requires that:

- 1) The issue sought to be precluded from relitigation is identical to that decided in a former proceeding;
- 2) The issue was actually litigated in the former proceeding;
- 3) The issue was necessarily decided in the former proceeding;
- 4) The decision in the former proceeding is final and on the merits; and
- 5) The party against whom preclusion is sought was the same as, or in privity with, the party to the former proceeding.

Lucido v. Super. Ct., 795 P.2d 1223, 1225 (Cal. 1990).

Even if all five elements are satisfied, preclusion is appropriate "only if application of preclusion furthers the public policies underlying the doctrine." Harmon v. Kobrin (In re Harmon), 250 F.3d 1240, 1245 (9th Cir. 2001) (citing Lucido v. Super. Ct., 795 P.2d at 1225). In California, the public policies supporting preclusion are "preservation of the integrity of the judicial system, promotion of judicial economy, and protection of litigants from harassment by vexatious litigation." Lucido, 795 P.2d at 1227.

At this juncture, the Court cannot find that the State Court Judgment is entitled to preclusive effect. Plaintiff has not shown that the State Court Action was actually litigated. It is true that the "mere fact that a plaintiff 'obtained a judgment by default does not, in itself, foreclose the possibility that the resolution of some issues in the

However, collateral estoppel "may be applied only if the defendant in the prior action 'ha[d] been personally served with [a] summons or ha[d] actual knowledge of the existence of the litigation.'" Id. (internal citations omitted).

Here, there is no dispute that Defendant was not personally served with the Summons and Complaint in the State Court Action; instead, as Plaintiff acknowledges, service was by publication. In addition, Defendant testifies that he was not aware of the State Court Action until after judgment was entered. See Defendant's Declaration in Support of Motion to Stay Proceedings [Doc. No. 49] at ¶ 3. Defendant's testimony is sufficient to create a genuine dispute as to the issue of whether Defendant had actual knowledge of the existence of the State Court Action. To prevail upon the actual litigation element, Plaintiff must establish that Defendant was aware of the State Court Action. The disputed factual issue of Defendant's awareness cannot be resolved at the summary judgment phase. However, this issue may be ruled upon by the State Court in the context of the Defendant's State Court Collateral Attack Action; at which point the summary judgment motion may be refiled. Therefore, denial is without prejudice.

B. The Motion to Stay is Granted

The Court finds it appropriate to stay this action pending the outcome of Defendant's State Court Collateral Attack Action. If Defendant prevails in the State Court Collateral Attack Action, the State Court Judgment which establishes the indebtedness that is alleged to be non-dischargeable will no longer be valid. An invalidation of the underlying State Court Judgment would significantly affect the course of this litigation.

The litigation deadlines previously set by way of the Scheduling Order [Doc. No. 41] entered on May 31, 2019, are VACATED. This action is STAYED pending resolution of the State Court Collateral Attack Action. A Status Conference shall be held on April 14, 2020, at 10:00 a.m. A Joint Status Report, which should discuss the status of the State Court Collateral Attack Action, shall be submitted by no later than fourteen days prior to the hearing.

III. Conclusion

Based upon the foregoing, the Motion for Summary Judgment is DENIED. This action is STAYED pending resolution of the State Court Collateral Attack Action. A RE: [80] Defendants' Motion for Judgment on the Pleadings

FR. 11-12-19

Docket 80

Tentative Ruling:

11/12/2019

For the reasons set forth below, the Court will enter judgment on the pleadings in Defendants' favor.

Pleadings Filed and Reviewed:

- 1) Trustee's First Amended Complaint [Doc. No. 36] (the "Complaint")
- 2) Notice of Motion and Motion for Judgment on the Pleadings [Doc. No. 80] (the "Motion")
 - a) Amended Notice of Hearing on Defendants' Motion for Judgment on the Pleadings [Doc. No. 83]
- 3) Trustee's Opposition to Defendants Jenny Melendez's and Clara Melendez's Motion for Judgment on the Pleadings [Doc. No. 84] (the "Opposition")
 - a) Chapter 7 Trustee's Request for Judicial Notice in Support of Opposition to Motion for Judgment on the Pleadings [Doc. No. 85]
- 4) Defendants' Reply to Trustee's Opposition to Defendants' Motion for Judgment on the Pleadings

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

On September 5, 2018, Jenny Melendez ("Jenny") filed a voluntary Chapter 7 petition. [Note 1] On January 2, 2019, Jenny received a discharge.

On April 18, 2019, the Chapter 7 Trustee (the "Trustee") filed a First Amended Complaint [Doc. 36] (the "Complaint") against Jenny and Clara E. Melendez ("Clara," and together with Jenny, the "Defendants"). The Complaint seeks the following relief:

Chapter 7

- 1) A judgment that properties commonly known as 1225 West 123rd Street, Los Angeles, CA 90044 (the “LA Property”) and 1102 South Temple Avenue, Compton, CA 90221 (the “Compton Property,” and together with the LA Property, the “Properties”) are property of the estate;
- 2) Turnover and sale of the Properties;
- 3) An injunction barring the Defendants from (a) recording liens against the Properties, (b) committing acts of waste against the Properties, and/or (c) interfering with the Trustee’s operation and sale of the Properties; and
- 4) Revocation of Jenny’s discharge for allegedly concealing her interest in the Compton Property.

A. Summary of the Complaint’s Allegations

The material allegations of the Complaint are as follows:

Allegations Regarding the LA Property

In May 2004, Jenny and her former husband, Elmer Rivas (“Rivas”) purchased the LA Property. Complaint at ¶ 10. Notwithstanding language in the conveying instruments providing that Jenny and Rivas took the LA Property as “husband and wife as joint tenants,” the LA Property was in fact community property because it was purchased with community funds. Id.

On February 5, 2008, Jenny and Rivas recorded a grant deed, purporting to convey title to the LA Property to “Elmer Rivas and Jenny Melendez, Husband and Wife and Clara E. Melendez, a Single Woman, all as Joint Tenants.” Id. at ¶ 11. The grant deed stated that the conveyance was a bona fide gift for which the grantors received nothing in return. As a result of the grant deed, Rivas, Jenny, and Clara each held 33.3% of the legal title to the LA Property. Id. Jenny did not receive reasonably equivalent value in exchange for the transfer. Id.

On April 8, 2008, the Los Angeles Superior Court entered a judgment dissolving Jenny and Rivas’ marriage and dividing their community property (the “Divorce Judgment”). Id. at ¶ 12. The Divorce Judgment ordered Rivas to cause title to his interest in the LA Property to be placed in Jenny’s name alone.

By a grant deed recorded on May 1, 2008, “Elmer Rivas and Jenny Melendez, Husband and Wife and Clara E. Melendez, a Single Woman, All as Joint Tenants” purported to grant title to the LA Property to “Jenny Melendez, an Unmarried Woman and Clara E. Melendez, a Single Woman, as Joint Tenants.” Id. at ¶ 13. The grant deed stated that the conveyance was a bona fide gift for which the grantors received nothing in return. Id. The effect of the grant deed was to convey Rivas' 33.3% interest in the LA Property to Jenny, resulting in Jenny holding 66.67% of the legal title to the Property and Clara holding the remaining 33.33% of the legal title to the Property. Id.

Jenny holds 100% of the beneficial and equitable title to the LA Property. Id. at ¶ 16. Jenny pays the entire monthly mortgage on the LA Property. Id. In her 2017 federal tax return, Jenny stated that she paid $11,783 in home mortgage interest. Id. Jenny also pays for the utilities on the LA Property. Id. Jenny has continuously controlled the LA Property since she obtained it as community property in May 2004. Id.

The only outstanding lien encumbering the LA Property is a Deed of Trust in favor of Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., in the amount of $270,400 (the "Wells Fargo DOT"). Id. at ¶ 14. The Trustee is not seeking to avoid the Wells Fargo DOT. There is equity in the LA Property that can be administered for the benefit of Jenny's creditors. Id. at ¶ 15.

Allegations Regarding the Compton Property

In March 2001, Jenny and Rivas purchased the Compton Property using community funds. Id. at ¶ 17. In September 2001, Jenny and Rivas transferred the Compton Property to Jenny's parents, Clara and Gerardo Melendez, by quitclaim deed. Id. at ¶ 18. The quitclaim deed stated that the transfer was a bona fide gift for which the grantors received nothing in return. Id. Jenny did not receive reasonably equivalent value in exchange for the transfer. Id.

In November 2003, a grant deed was recorded transferring the Compton Property from "Clara E. Melendez and Gerardo E. Melendez" to "Gerardo E. Melendez and Clara E. Melendez, Husband and Wife as Joint Tenants." Id. at ¶ 21. As a result of Gerardo E. Melendez's death in December 2016, 100% of the bare legal title to the Compton Property was transferred by operation of law to Clara Melendez. Id. at ¶ 22.

Clara does not live at the Compton Property. Id. at ¶ 24. Clara lives with Jenny at the LA Property. Id. According to Jenny's testimony at the meeting of creditors, the Compton Property is a duplex, with one unit being occupied by Jenny's brother and the other unit being leased to a third party. Id. Jenny also testified at the meeting of creditors that her brother collects all the rental income from the Compton Property and that she does not receive any of the rental income. Id.

The only outstanding lien encumbering the Compton Property is a Deed of Trust in favor of PHH Mortgage Corp., fka Cendant Mortgage Corp., in the amount of $270,000 (the "PHH Deed of Trust"). Id. at ¶ 23. The Trustee is not seeking to avoid the PHH Deed of Trust.

Jenny did not schedule the Compton Property. Id. at ¶ 24. Jenny falsely testified at the meeting of creditors that she never had an interest in the Compton Property. Id.

Claims for Relief

Based upon the foregoing allegations, the Trustee asserts the following claims for relief:

- 1) A declaratory judgment that the Trustee, on behalf of the estate, holds 100% of the beneficial and equitable title to the LA Property, and that the LA Property is property of the estate pursuant to § 541(a)(1). Id. at ¶¶ 25–27.
- 2) A declaratory judgment that the Trustee, on behalf of the estate, holds 100% of the legal and equitable title to the Compton Property, and that the Compton Property is property of the estate pursuant to § 541(a)(1). Id. at ¶¶ 28–30.
- 3) Turnover of the Properties pursuant to § 542, and recovery of the Properties, or the value thereof, pursuant to § 550(a)(1). Id. at ¶¶ 31–38.
- 4) An injunction, pursuant to § 105(a), barring Jenny and Clara from (a) recording liens against the Properties, (b) committing acts of waste against the Properties, and/or (c) interfering with the Trustee's operation and sale of the Properties. Id. at ¶¶ 39–42.
- 5) Sale of the Properties, free and clear of Clara's interest, pursuant to § 363(h). Id. at ¶¶ 43–56.
- 6) Revocation of Jenny's discharge, pursuant to § 727(d)(1), based upon Jenny's failure to disclose her interest in the Compton Property. Id. at ¶¶ 57–58.

B. Summary of Defendants' Motion for Judgment on the Pleadings

Defendants move for judgment on the pleadings, pursuant to Civil Rule 12(c). Defendants make the following arguments in support of the Motion:

The Complaint's factual allegations do not support the Trustee's contention that the Properties are property of the estate in their entirety.

LA Property

The Trustee is correct that Jenny holds 66.6% of the legal title to the LA Property. The only fact that the Trustee offers in support of his contention that the estate holds a

Chapter 7

100% beneficial interest in the LA Property is that in 2008—more than ten years prior to the Petition Date—Jenny’s former husband transferred his interest in the property to Jenny and Clara. The 2008 transfer does not provide the estate with a 100% beneficial interest in the LA Property.

Compton Property

The Compton Property is Clara’s home. In March 2001, Jenny’s parents—Clara and Gerardo Melendez—purchased the Compton Property. Because Clara and Gerardo could not obtain financing to purchase the Compton Property, Jenny and Rivas obtained a loan, using a down payment from Clara and Gerardo, and took title to the Compton Property. Jenny and Rivas then quitclaimed the Compton Property to Clara and Gerardo in September 2001.

The only fact that supports the Trustee’s contention that the estate holds a 100% beneficial interest in the Compton Property is the 2001 quitclaim deed. This 17-year old transfer does not show that the Compton Property is property of the estate.

Claim for Revocation of Jenny’s Discharge

The Trustee’s claim for revocation of Jenny’s discharge is based on the allegation that Jenny failed to disclose her interest in the Compton Property. If the Court agrees that the Complaint fails to allege facts showing that Jenny had an interest in the Compton Property in 2019, there can be no basis to revoke Jenny’s discharge.

C. Summary of the Trustee’s Opposition

The Trustee makes the following arguments in Opposition to the Motion:

The Trustee has pleaded sufficient facts in support of his claims. With respect to the LA Property, the Trustee has alleged that Jenny paid the mortgages and utilities on the Property. With respect to the Compton Property, the Trustee has alleged that at the meeting of creditors, Jenny falsely testified that she had never had an interest in the Compton Property; in fact, Jenny held an interest in the Compton Property in 2001.

The Trustee has sufficiently pleaded his claim for revocation of Jenny’s discharge. The claim is based upon Jenny’s false statement that she never had an interest in the Compton Property. In support of a prior motion to vacate the entry of default, Jenny acknowledged that she had an interest in the Compton Property in 2001.

Chapter 7

Defendants make the following arguments in Reply to the Opposition:

The only argument that the Trustee makes in support of his contention that the LA Property is property of the estate in its entirety is that Jenny makes the mortgage payments for the Property, claims a tax deduction for mortgage interest expense, and pays utilities for the Property. None of these allegations support the Trustee's contention that Clara's 33.3% interest in the LA Property is property of the estate.

The only argument the Trustee makes in support of his contention that the Compton Property is property of the estate in its entirety is that Clara, who holds 100% of the legal title to the Compton Property, does not live at the Compton Property. This allegation is insufficient to support the Trustee's claim that the Compton Property is property of the estate.

II. Findings and Conclusions

Civil Rule 12(c) is functionally identical to Rule 12(b)(6), and the same standard of review applies to motions brought under either rule. Cafasso, U.S. ex rel. v. Gen. Dynamics C4 Sys., Inc., 637 F.3d 1047, 1055 n. 4 (9th Cir. 2011).

To survive a motion to dismiss brought under Civil Rule 12(b)(6), "a complaint must contain sufficient factual matter, accepted as true, to 'state a claim to relief that is plausible on its face.' A claim has facial plausibility when the plaintiff pleads factual content that allows the court to draw the reasonable inference that the defendant is liable for the misconduct alleged." Ashcroft v. Iqbal, 556 U.S. 662, 678 (2009) (internal citations omitted). To state a plausible claim for relief, a complaint must satisfy two working principles:

First, the tenet that a court must accept as true all of the allegations contained in a complaint is inapplicable to legal conclusions. Threadbare recitations of the elements of a cause of action, supported by mere conclusory statements, do not suffice.... Second, only a complaint that states a plausible claim for relief survives a motion to dismiss. Determining whether a complaint states a plausible claim for relief will ... be a context-specific task that requires the reviewing court to draw on its judicial experience and common sense. But where the well-pleaded facts do not permit the court to infer more than the mere possibility of misconduct, the complaint has alleged—but it has not "show[n]"—"that the pleader is entitled to relief."

Id. (citing Civil Rule 8(a)(2)).

Although the pleading standard Civil Rule 8 announces “does not require ‘detailed factual allegations,’ ... it demands more than an unadorned, the-defendant-unlawfully-harmed-me accusation.... A pleading that offers ‘labels and conclusions’ or a ‘formulaic recitation of the elements of a cause of action will not do.’ Nor does a complaint suffice if it tenders ‘naked assertion[s]’ devoid of ‘further factual enhancement.’” Id. (citing Bell Atlantic Corp. v. Twombly, 550 U.S. 544, 555 (2007)).

The Court finds that Defendants are entitled to judgment on the pleadings in their favor because the Complaint fails to state any claims upon which relief can be granted.

A. The Complaint Fails to State a Claim for a Declaration that the Estate Holds a 100% Beneficial Interest in the LA Property

The Complaint fails to allege specific facts plausibly supporting a reasonable inference that the estate holds a 100% beneficial interest in the LA Property. The Complaint alleges that Jenny failed to receive reasonably equivalent value in connection with a transfer of the LA Property that occurred in 2008. The Complaint does not, and could not, seek to avoid the 2008 transfer under §§ 544, or 548, as the statute of limitations under these sections has long since expired.

In support of his theory that the estate holds a 100% beneficial interest in the LA Property, the Trustee alleges only that Jenny pays the LA Property’s mortgage and utilities, and has continuously controlled the LA Property since acquiring it in 2004.

Cal. Evid. Code § 662 provides: “The owner of the legal title to property is presumed to be the owner of the full beneficial title. This presumption may be rebutted only by clear and convincing proof.”

Under Cal. Evid. Code § 662, Clara’s 33.3% interest in the LA Property’s legal title gives rise to the presumption that Clara holds a 33.3% beneficial interest in the LA Property. The allegation that Jenny pays all mortgage and utility expenses for the LA Property does not constitute clear and convincing proof sufficient to rebut Clara’s presumed 33.3% beneficial interest. It is possible for Clara to retain a beneficial interest in the LA Property even though Jenny pays all the expenses. For example, under California law, “where the grantee of property is the child or other natural object of the affections of the grantor, a presumption arises of a gift or advancement.” Lloyds Bank California v. Wells Fargo Bank, 187 Cal. App. 3d 1038, 1043, 232 Cal. Rptr. 339, 341 (Ct. App. 1986). Here, the Complaint alleges that in 2008, Jenny and her former husband transferred title to the LA Property to Jenny and her mother, Clara. The most plausible inference arising from this allegation is not that Jenny holds a 100% beneficial interest in the LA Property, but rather that through the 2008 transfer, Jenny intended to gift to Clara a 33.3% beneficial interest in the LA Property. Given that clear and convincing evidence is required to defeat the presumption that record title is consistent with beneficial title, the Trustee has not alleged facts sufficient to defeat the presumption that Clara holds a beneficial interest in the LA Property consistent with her record title interest.

B. The Complaint Fails to State a Claim for a Declaration that the Estate Holds a 100% Beneficial Interest in the Compton Property

The Complaint fails to allege specific facts plausibly supporting a reasonable inference that the estate holds a 100% beneficial interest in the Compton. The Complaint alleges that Jenny failed to receive reasonably equivalent value in connection with the 2001 transfer of the Property to Clara and Gerardo Melendez. The Complaint does not seek to avoid the 2001 transfer under §§ 544 or 548. The Complaint does not, and could not, seek to avoid the 2008 transfer under §§ 544, or 548, as the statute of limitations under these sections has long since expired.

In support of his theory that the estate holds a 100% beneficial interest in the Compton Property, the Trustee alleges only that Clara does not live at the Compton Property, and that Jenny falsely testified at the meeting of creditors that she had never had an interest in the Compton Property, when in fact Jenny had held an interest in the Compton Property in 2001.

The Complaint alleges that Clara holds a 100% record title interest in the Compton Property. Under Cal. Evid. Code § 662, Clara's 100% record title interest creates a presumption that Clara holds a 100% beneficial interest in that Property.

The Trustee has not alleged facts sufficient to defeat the presumption arising under Cal. Evid. Code § 662. The Trustee's allegation that Clara does not live at the Compton Property does not plausibly support a reasonable inference that Clara lacks a beneficial interest in that Property. It is common for owners of Property to reside elsewhere, particularly where, as here, the Property is being rented out.

The allegation that Jenny failed to disclose her prior interest in the Compton Property likewise fails to defeat the presumption of Clara's beneficial interest. The meeting of creditors occurred in 2018. Jenny allegedly failed to disclose that seventeen years prior to that meeting, she had briefly held an interest in the Compton Property. This alleged non-disclosure does not support the Trustee's theory that the Compton Property is property of the estate.

Chapter 7

C. The Complaint Fails to State a Claim for Turnover and Sale of the Properties

The Trustee's claims for turnover and sale of the Properties depend upon his claims for declarations that the Properties are property of the estate. The failure of the claims for declaratory relief forecloses the claims for turnover and sale.

D. The Complaint Fails to State a Claim for Revocation of Jenny's Discharge

Section 727(d)(1) provides that upon the request of the Trustee, the Court "shall revoke a discharge ... if such discharge was obtained through the fraud of the debtor, and the [Trustee] did not know of such fraud until after the granting of such discharge."

Revocation of a debtor's discharge "is an extraordinary remedy." Tighe v. Valencia (In re Guadarrama), 284 B.R. 463, 469 (C.D. Cal. 2002). Section 727(d)(1) "is construed liberally in favor of the debtor and strictly against those objecting to discharge." Id.

The Complaint alleges that Jenny did not schedule the Compton Property, and that she falsely testified at the meeting of creditors that she never had an interest in the Compton Property. Id.

The Complaint's factual allegations fail to plausibly support the Trustee's claim that Jenny holds a beneficial interest in the Compton Property. Since it is undisputed that Jenny does not hold legal title to the Compton Property, Jenny was not required to schedule the Compton Property. Therefore, the failure to schedule the Compton Property was not fraudulent and cannot form the basis of a claim for revocation of Jenny's discharge.

The allegation that Jenny falsely stated at the meeting of creditors that she had never held an interest in the Compton Property is not sufficient to state a claim for revocation of Jenny's discharge. To state a claim for revocation of discharge based upon a false statement, the Trustee must allege that the false statement "concerned a material fact." Guadarrama, 284 B.R. 463, 471 (C.D. Cal. 2002). It is not material that Jenny briefly held an interest in the Compton Property nearly seventeen years prior to the Petition Date.

E. The Trustee's Request for Leave to Amend is Denied

The Trustee has already amended the Complaint once. If the Trustee possessed any facts in support of his claims, he could have, and should have, alleged such facts by now. The Trustee's request for leave to amend is denied as futile. See Reddy v.

#8.00 Post-Confirmation Status Conference re Confirmation of Debtor's Chapter 11 Plan

fr. 7-6-16; 10-4-16; 11-9-16; 4-11-17; 7-11-17; 12-19-17; 5-16-18; 10-16-18; 3-13-19; 7-17-19

Docket 109

Tentative Ruling:

11/12/2019: Appearances required.

This is a post-confirmation status conference. On June 3, 2019, Wesley Brian Ferris (the "Debtor") submitted his "Sixth Post-Confirmation Status Report" (the "6th Status Report") [Doc. No. 244]. In that report, the Debtor reported having issues implementing stipulated loan modifications concerning the real properties located at 444 N. Myrtle Avenue, Monrovia, CA and 443 East Greystone Avenue, Monrovia, CA. Debtor also averred that he would be objecting to a notice of breach of the confirmed plan filed by Creditor Bayview Loan Servicing, LLC [Doc. No. 241]. The 6th Status Report further stated that Debtor was "very close" to consummating his confirmed plan.

On October 31, 2019, Debtor filed his "Seventh Post-Confirmation Status Report" (the "7th Status Report") [Doc. No. 250]. Based upon this Court's review, the 7th Status Report appears to be nearly identical to the 6th Status Report. The 7th Status Report fails to provide any clarifying detail on Debtor's efforts to resolve the implementation issues since the filing of 6th Status Report nearly four months ago. The Debtor has also not submitted additional information on his tentative plans to sell the real estate parcel located at 515 North Alta Vista Avenue, Monrovia, CA 91016.

Based on the foregoing, counsel for the Debtor is directed to appear to provide the Court with an update on those issues referenced above.

Tentative Ruling:

11/12/2019:

The Court has reviewed the proposed form of order negotiated between the Debtors and the Attorney General (the "AG Order") and the proposed form of order submitted by Strategic Global Management, Inc. (the "SGM Order"). The parties should be prepared to address the following questions and concerns of the Court.

1. Absence of Findings and Conclusions Supporting Entry of the Order

The stipulation entered into between the Debtors and the California Attorney General [Doc. No. 3572] (the "Stipulation") provides that the Memorandum of Decision Granting Debtors' Emergency Motion to Enforce the Sale Order [Doc. No. 3446] (the "Memorandum of Decision") "is hereby vacated and withdrawn." Stipulation at ¶ 2.

Does the Court have the ability to enter an order that is not supported by findings and conclusions? The Debtors' motion seeking entry of an order enforcing the terms of the Sale Order (the "Sale Enforcement Motion") is a "contested matter" within the meaning of Bankruptcy Rule 9014. Rule 9014 provides that Rule 7052 applies to contested matters. Rule 7052 requires the Court to "find the facts specially and state its conclusions of law separately."

Rule 9014 authorizes the Court to direct that Rule 7052 not apply, which would excuse the Court from issuing findings and conclusions in support of its Order. What are the circumstances in which other courts have issued orders that are not supported by any findings and conclusions?

Chapter 11

Will the absence of findings and conclusions lead to future litigation regarding the meaning and interpretation of the Order?

2. Meaning of Prefatory Phrase “Solely and Exclusively for the purposes of the APA”

Paragraph 3 of the AG Order states:

Solely and exclusively for purposes of the APA (as defined below) and the Motion, the Additional Conditions (as defined in section 8.6 of that certain asset purchase agreement [Docket No. 2305-1] (the “APA”)) are an “interest in property” for purposes of 11 U.S.C. § 363(f), and the Assets (as defined in the APA) can be sold free and clear of the Additional Conditions without the imposition of any other conditions which would adversely affect the Purchaser (as defined in the APA).

The Court understands the italicized phrase to mean that the AG Order shall have no precedential effect. SGM contends that this prefatory phrase is ambiguous. SGM should be prepared to further explain its position. It is not clear to the Court exactly what is ambiguous about this prefatory phrase.

3. Difference Between the Phrases “Can Be Sold” and “Are Being Transferred”

SGM objects to the AG Order’s use of the phrase “can be sold,” and asserts that the Order should provide instead that the Assets “are being transferred.” SGM should be prepared to explain what additional meaning is conveyed by the phrase “are being transferred” that is not conveyed by the phrase “can be sold.” Within the context of ¶ 3 of the AG Order, the Court is unable to discern a meaningful difference between the two phrases.

Is it of concern to SGM that the phrase “can be sold” is precatory rather than declaratory? If that is the issue, would the Attorney General accept the phrase “are being sold” in lieu of “can be sold”?

4. The State Court’s Jurisdiction to Enforce the Purchaser Approved Conditions

Paragraph 4 of the AG Order provides:

This Court shall retain exclusive jurisdiction to adjudicate any disputes or controversies regarding the interpretation or enforcement of this Order.

Chapter 11

Notwithstanding the preceding sentence, nothing contained in this Order shall prohibit or limit the authority of the Attorney General to enforce, in the California state courts and pursuant to section 5926 of the California Corporations Code, the Purchaser Approved Conditions set forth on Schedule 8.6 to the APA.

SGM objects to the language authorizing the Attorney General to enforce the Purchaser Approved Conditions in the state courts. SGM fears that the Attorney General will use misdirection to attempt to improperly enforce the Additional Conditions before the state courts. Specifically, SGM postulates that the Attorney General could mislead a state court into believing that the impermissible enforcement of an Additional Condition was instead the permissible enforcement of a Purchaser Approved Condition.

In the Court's view, the situation envisioned by SGM is not likely to occur. Schedule 8.6 to the APA contains 28 pages setting forth the Purchaser Approved Conditions. The exhaustive detail in the APA would make it very difficult for the Attorney General to overstep the bounds of his authority to enforce the Purchaser Approved Conditions.

The Court is also concerned that it may not have authority to retain jurisdiction with respect to the Attorney General's enforcement of the Purchaser Approved Conditions. The facts here are similar to those of Battle Ground Plaza v. Ray (In re Ray), 624 F.3d 1124 (9th Cir. 2010), in which the Bankruptcy Court approved the sale of real property, free and clear of a right of first refusal granted to Battle Ground Plaza (the "Sale Order"). After the bankruptcy case had been closed, Battle Ground Plaza launched a collateral attack on the Sale Order that was based on state law breach of contract claims. The Ninth Circuit found that the bankruptcy court lacked jurisdiction over Battle Ground Plaza's collateral attack on the Sale Order, notwithstanding a provision in the confirmation order stating that the bankruptcy court "shall retain jurisdiction of this case to determine any controversies in connection with assets of the bankruptcy estate." Id. at 1136 n.8.

5. What Specific Objections Does the Attorney General Have to the Alternative Language Proposed by SGM in ¶ 2 of the SGM Order?

The Attorney General has rejected the following alternative language proposed by SGM:

The Debtors' transfer to SGM of the Debtors' assets (the "SGM Sale") pursuant to that certain asset purchase agreement [Docket No. 2305-1] (the "SGM APA") is free and clear of, and shall not be subject to or conditioned upon SGM's performance of, compliance with, or adherence to, any and all Additional Conditions (as defined in the SGM APA and in the Motion), pursuant to Bankruptcy Code §§ 363(b), (f)(1), (f)(4), and (f)(5) and otherwise as provided in the Sale Order.

SGM Order at ¶ 2.

The Stipulation provides that the Attorney General will not waive his right to appeal the Memorandum Decision unless the AG Order is entered without modification. The Attorney General should be prepared to discuss the reasons for his objections to the alternative language proposed by SGM.

6. Does the AG Order Satisfy § 8.6 of the SGM APA?

Does SGM take the position that the AG Order does not qualify as a "Supplemental Sale Order" that is final and non-appealable within the meaning of § 8.6 of the SGM APA?

Chapter 7

2) No opposition to the Sale Motion is on file

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

Soul Hollywood, LLC (the "Debtor") commenced a voluntary Chapter 7 petition on July 5, 2019. The Debtor owned and operated a restaurant at the time this petition was filed. One of the assets scheduled by the Debtor is a Type 47 General Liquor License #47-558177 (the "Liquor License"). Howard Ehrenberg, the Chapter 7 trustee (the "Trustee"), presently seeks to sell the Liquor License to Flora LA, LLC for $90,000 (the "Purchaser"), or its chosen nominee. The Trustee further states that he is not aware of any liens encumbering the Liquor License. The sale is subject to overbids. No opposition to the Sale Motion is on file.

II. Findings and Conclusions

Section 363(b) permits the Trustee to sell estate property out of the ordinary course of business, subject to court approval. The Trustee must articulate a business justification for the sale. In re Walter, 83 B.R. 14, 19–20 (9th Cir. B.A.P. 1988). Whether the articulated business justification is sufficient "depends on the case," in view of "all salient factors pertaining to the proceeding." Id. at 19–20.

The Trustee has demonstrated sufficient business justification for the sale, which will generate receipts of approximately $90,000 for the benefit of the estate. Therefore, the sale is in accordance with the Trustee's statutory obligation to liquidate the estate's assets.

Good Faith Determination Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 363(m)

The Trustee requests that the Purchaser be afforded the protections of § 363(m). Having reviewed the declarations submitted by the Trustee and Jason B. Kho, the broker who marketed the Liquor License, the Court finds that the Purchaser is a good faith purchaser entitled to the protections of § 363(m). In the event that an overbidder prevails at the auction, the Court will take testimony from such overbidder to determine whether §363(m) protections are warranted.

Auction Procedures

In the event that any qualified overbidders are present, the Court will distribute numbered auction paddles to the Purchaser and all qualified overbidders. The initial overbid shall be $95,000.00 with subsequent overbids to be in increments of $1,000.00. The overbid increment is subject to adjustment by the Court to facilitate bidding. The Court will announce each bid level. To remain in the auction, bidders must participate at all bid levels. That is, parties who do not bid in a round cannot later change their minds and re-enter the auction. Parties may make a bid higher than that announced by the Court by approaching the podium and stating their bid.

The overbidding procedures proposed by the Trustee are approved as set forth below. A winning overbidder (except for the Purchaser) shall provide the Trustee with a $10,000 deposit (the "Deposit") by way of a cashier's check payable to "Howard M. Ehrenberg, the Chapter 7 Trustee of the Bankruptcy Estate of Soul Hollywood, LLC" at the time of the hearing. The Deposit shall be forfeited if the overbidder is unable to finalize the purchase of the Liquor License within thirty (30) days of entry of an order granting the Sale Motion. If a winning overbidder cannot timely close the purchase of the Liquor License, the Trustee may proceed with the sale to the next highest bidder. In addition, any successful overbidders shall purchase the Liquor License on the same terms and conditions as the Purchaser.

III. Conclusion

Based upon the foregoing, the Sale Motion is GRANTED.

The Trustee shall submit a conforming order, incorporating this tentative ruling by reference, within seven (7) days of the hearing. Notwithstanding Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h), the order approving the sale shall take immediate effect upon entry.

Tentative Ruling:

This Motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on the notice required by LBR 4001(c)(1) and LBR 9013-1(d)(2). The failure of the Debtor, the trustee, and all other parties in interest to file written opposition at least 14 days prior to the hearing as required by LBR 9013-1(f) is considered as consent to the granting of the Motion. LBR 9013-1(h). Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995).

The Motion is GRANTED pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) for cause to permit Movant, its successors, transferees and assigns, to enforce its remedies to repossess or otherwise obtain possession and dispose of its collateral pursuant to applicable law, and to use the proceeds from its disposition to satisfy its claim. Movant may not pursue any deficiency claim against the Debtor or property of the estate except by filing a proof of claim pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 501. The Court takes judicial notice of the Chapter 7 Individual Debtor's Statement of Intention [Doc. No. 1] in which the Debtor stated an intention to surrender the vehicle to Movant.

This order shall be binding and effective despite any conversion of the bankruptcy case to a case under any other chapter of Title 11 of the United States Code. The 14-day stay prescribed by FRBP 4001(a)(3) is waived. All other relief is denied.

Chapter 7

The amount owed to Lender arises from a series of loans made by Citizens Business Bank, a California banking corporation ("Citizens") to the Debtor starting in 2007, aggregating to a debt of over $300,000 as of June 24, 2019. Stipulation, ¶¶ A – H. In addition to this first group of loans, Citizens extended at least three other loans to the Debtor from 2014 to 2017 (the "Loans"). See id., ¶¶ I, N, and R. As collateral for the Loans, Debtor transferred a security interest to Citizens in virtually all of its personal property (the "Property"). Citizens's security interest in the Property was perfected pursuant to the filing of UCC-1 financing statements. See id., ¶¶ V, W. On July 29, 2019, Lender purchased the Loans from Citizens, thereby assuming Citizens's senior position with respect to the perfected security interests in the Property. Id., ¶ X. On August 13, 2019, the Debtor auctioned off the Property in a public sale, generating net proceeds of $121,304.21 (the "Sale Proceeds"). Id., ¶¶ Z, AA. Accordingly, the Parties have stipulated that Lender has a valid and perfected interest in the Sale Proceeds, which are substantially less than the amount owed to the Lender. See id., ¶¶ BB – DD. The Chapter 7 trustee signed onto the Stipulation, making no objection therein.

Motion to Continue

On November 4, 2019, the last day to file an objection to the Stipulation, creditors Motion Picture Industry Pension Plan, Motion Picture Industry Health Plan, Motion Picture Individual Account Plan, and Motion Picture Editors Guild IATSE Local 700 (collectively, the "Creditors") filed a continuance motion (the "Continuance Motion") [Doc. No. 17] seeking to continue the present hearing by thirty days, or in the alternative, requesting an extension of time to file opposing papers. Creditors's request for additional time was premised solely on their plan to further investigate the underlying transactions based on the unsupported contention that the Stipulation was a disguised insider transfer of assets. Because the Creditors were unable to persuade the Court that they were reasonably likely to prevail in their opposition, the Continuance Motion was denied in full [Doc No. 20]. Furthermore, having failed to timely respond to the Stipulation, the Court determined that any opposing briefs by Creditors would not be reviewed.

As of the preparation of this tentative ruling, no opposing briefs were filed.

Pursuant to Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure ("FRBP") 4001(d)(1), parties may seek court approval of an agreement to modify or terminate the automatic stay. Absent objection, "the court may enter an order approving or disapproving the agreement without conducting a hearing." FRBP 4001(d)(3).

Here, the Stipulation, which provides Lender for relief from stay with respect to the Sale Proceeds, has been properly noticed pursuant to FRBP 4001, and no timely objection has been asserted against it. In addition, the failure of any party in interest to file a written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing as required by LBR 9013-1(f) is deemed as consent to the approval of the Stipulation. LBR 9013-1(h); cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Based upon the foregoing, the Stipulation is APPROVED. The Lender is authorized to exercise any state law rights and remedies with respect to the Sale Proceeds. However, the Lender may not pursue any deficiency claim against the Debtor or property of the estate except by filing a proof of claim pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 501. The fourteen-day stay prescribed by FRBP 4001(a)(3) is waived.

The Lender shall submit a conforming order within seven days of the hearing.

No appearance is required if submitting on the court's tentative ruling. If you intend to submit on the tentative ruling, please contact Daniel Koontz or Carlos Nevarez at 213-894-1522. If you intend to contest the tentative ruling and appear, please first contact opposing counsel to inform them of your intention to do so. Should an opposing party file a late opposition or appear at the hearing, the court will determine whether further hearing is required. Docket 7

Tentative Ruling:

11/14/2019

Tentative Ruling:

This Motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on the notice required by LBR 4001(c)(1) and LBR 9013-1(d)(2). The failure of the Debtor, the trustee, and all other parties in interest to file written opposition at least 14 days prior to the hearing as required by LBR 9013-1(f) is considered as consent to the granting of the Motion. LBR 9013-1(h). Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995).

The Court notes that Debtor's case was dismissed on October 28, 2019. The Court vacates the dismissal for the limited purpose of entering an order on this Motion.

The Motion is GRANTED pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1). The stay is terminated as to the Debtor and the Debtor's bankruptcy estate with respect to the Movant, its successors, transferees and assigns. Movant may enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property in accordance with applicable law, but may not pursue a deficiency claim against the debtor or property of the estate except by filing a proof of claim pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 501.

The Movant filed an unlawful detainer action on August 28, 2019, and it received a favorable judgment on October 09, 2019. This Motion has been filed to allow the Movant to proceed under applicable nonbankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property. Under California law, debtors' possessory interests are extinguished following entry of an unlawful detainer judgment and a writ of possession. In re Perl, 811 F.3d 1120, 1128 (9th Cir. 2016). Movant may proceed with its efforts because a state court determined that Debtor does not have the right to possess the premises any longer. See Motion for Relief from the Automatic Stay, Ex. D.

Furthermore, the stay is annulled retroactive to the petition date, so that enforcement actions taken by Movant, if any, before receipt of notice of the automatic stay will not be deemed to have been voided by the automatic stay. This order shall be binding and effective despite any conversion of this bankruptcy case to a case under any other chapter of Title 11 of the United States Code. The 14-day stay prescribed by FRBP 4001(a)(3) is waived. All other relief is denied.

Movant shall upload an appropriate order via the Court's Lodged Order Upload system within 7 days of the hearing.

No appearance is required if submitting on the court's tentative ruling. #7.00 HearingRE: [11] Notice of motion and motion for relief from the automatic stay with supporting declarations PERSONAL PROPERTY RE: Furniture, Fixtures, and Equipment at 69 N. Raymond Ave. Pasadena, CA 91103 . (Dresser, Glen)

Docket 11

Tentative Ruling:

11/14/2019

Tentative Ruling:

This Motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on the notice required by LBR 4001(c)(1) and LBR 9013-1(d)(2). The failure of the Debtor, the trustee, and all other parties in interest to file written opposition at least 14 days prior to the hearing as required by LBR 9013-1(f) is considered as consent to the granting of the Motion. LBR 9013-1(h). Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995).

The Motion is GRANTED pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(2) to permit Movant, its successors, transferees and assigns, to enforce its rights for storage charges against personal property in accordance with applicable law. Movant may not pursue any deficiency claim against the Debtor or property of the estate except by filing a proof of claim pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 501. Since a chapter 7 case does not contemplate reorganization, the sole issue before the Court when stay relief is sought under 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(2) is whether the Debtor has equity in the property. See e.g. Nev. Nat'l Bank v. Casbul of Nev., Inc. (In re Casgul of Nev., Inc.), 22 B.R. 65, 66 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 1982); Ramco Indus. v. Preuss (In re Preuss), 15 B.R. 896 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 1981).

The subject property has an appraised value between $8,000 and $10,000 (Ex. 2) and is encumbered by a security interest in favor of the Movant (see Ex. 3; see also Doc. No. 8). The liens against the property and the expected costs of sale total $19,964.28. Declaration of Christa Durfee, ¶¶ 9-10. Docket 10

Tentative Ruling:

11/14/2019

Tentative Ruling:

This Motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on the notice required by LBR 4001(c)(1) and LBR 9013-1(d)(2). The failure of the Debtor [Note 1], the trustee, and all other parties in interest to file written opposition at least 14 days prior to the hearing as required by LBR 9013-1(f) is considered as consent to the granting of the Motion. LBR 9013-1(h). Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995).

The Motion is GRANTED pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(2) to permit Movant, its successors, transferees and assigns, to enforce its remedies to repossess or otherwise obtain possession and dispose of its collateral pursuant to applicable law, and to use the proceeds from its disposition to satisfy its claim. Movant may not pursue any deficiency claim against the Debtor or property of the estate except by filing a proof of claim pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 501. The Court finds that there is no equity in the subject vehicle and that the vehicle is not necessary for an effective reorganization since this is a chapter 7 case.

This order shall be binding and effective despite any conversion of the bankruptcy case to a case under any other chapter of Title 11 of the United States Code. The 14-day stay prescribed by FRBP 4001(a)(3) is waived. All other relief is denied.

Tentative Ruling:

10/11/2019

On September 13, 2019, Plaintiff filed a First Amended Complaint for Nondischargeability of Debt Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 523(a)(2)(A) and 523(a)(2)(B) [Doc. No. 9] (the "First Amended Complaint"). Under Civil Rule 15(a)(1)(B), Plaintiff's deadline to file the First Amended Complaint without obtaining "the opposing party's written consent or the court's leave" was September 10, 2019 (21 days after service of the Answer). See Civil Rule 15(a)(1)(B) and (a)(2). Plaintiff did not obtain the opposing party's written consent or the Court's leave prior to filing the First Amended Complaint.

On September 18, 2019, the Court issued an Order on First Amended Complaint [Doc. No. 10] (the "Order"), which provided in relevant part:

- 1) The deadline for Plaintiff to file an amended complaint as a matter of course was September 10, 2019. Because Plaintiff did not file the First Amended Complaint by this deadline, Plaintiff must obtain either the Defendant's consent or the Court's leave prior to filing the First Amended Complaint.
- 2) Until Plaintiff either (a) obtains Defendant's consent to the filing of the First Amended Complaint or (b) obtains the Court's leave to file the First Amended Complaint upon noticed motion (see Civil Rule 15(a)(2)), the Court will take no action on the First Amended Complaint, and the Complaint shall remain the operative pleading in this action. The Clerk of the Court is directed not to issue a Summons in connection with the First Amended Complaint.

Order at 2.

Plaintiff has not obtained Defendant's consent to the filing of the First Amended Complaint and has not obtained the Court's leave to file the First Amended Complaint. Therefore, the Complaint filed on July 22, 2019 remains the operative pleading in this action.

Prior to the Debtor's bankruptcy filing, Plaintiff commenced an action in the State Court (the "State Court Action") seeking to establish the indebtedness alleged to be non-dischargeable in this action (the "Non-Dischargeability Action"). As the Ninth Circuit has explained, a non-dischargeability action requires consideration of two distinct issues: first, a determination of whether the Defendant is indebted to the Plaintiff; and second, a determination of whether the indebtedness is non-dischargeable. Banks v. Gill Distribution Centers, Inc., 263 F.3d 862, 868 (9th Cir. 2001).

In the Court's view, the most efficient way to resolve the Non-Dischargeability Action is for Plaintiff to first prosecute the District Court Action to final judgment. In the event Plaintiff obtains judgment in its favor, Plaintiff can then return to the Bankruptcy Court to obtain a determination regarding whether such judgment is non-dischargeable. The State Court Action asserts claims for breach of contract, breach of the covenant of good faith and fair dealing, money had and received, negligence, fraud, and recovery on a contractor's bond. The State Court is better equipped than this Court to determine whether Defendant is indebted to Plaintiff on account of these claims, all of which require the application of substantive non-bankruptcy law.

By separate order, the Court will require Plaintiff and the Debtor to show cause why the Court should not sua sponte lift the automatic stay to allow the State Court Action to proceed to final judgment. The hearing on the Order to Show Cause shall take place on November 19, 2019, at 10:00 a.m. Plaintiff shall file a response to the Order to Show Cause by no later than October 29, 2019. Any opposition to Plaintiff's response shall be filed by no later than November 5, 2019. Plaintiff's reply to any opposition shall be filed by no later than November 12, 2019.

The Status Conference shall be continued to the date of the hearing on the Orders to Show Cause. At the continued Status Conference, the Court will set updated litigation deadlines.

Tentative Ruling:

10/11/2019

On September 13, 2019, Plaintiff filed a First Amended Complaint for Nondischargeability of Debt Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 523(a)(2)(A) and 523(a)(2)(B) [Doc. No. 9] (the "First Amended Complaint"). I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

Debtors-in-possession, Damu Vusha and Akiba Vusha (the "Debtors"), filed this voluntary Chapter 11 case on February 5, 2018 (the "Petition Date"). The Debtors' primary assets consist of three real properties: (1) their principal residence located at 6122 S. Kings Road, Los Angeles, CA 90056 (the "Principal Residence"); (2) 5150 S. Wilton Place, Los Angeles, CA 90062 (the "Wilton Property"); and 1300 W. 69th Street, Los Angeles, CA 90044 (the "69th Street Property") (collectively, the "Properties"). The Debtors also own and operate a residential care facility called Jatkodd Crisis Intervention Center (the "Business") which provides 24/7 care to four developmentally-disabled individuals. The Business operates out of the Wilton Property and pays the Debtors' monthly rent. The Debtors state that post-petition operations from the Business have been profitable. The Debtors also lease out the 69th Street Property for additional monthly income.

Chapter 11

On August 7, 2019, the Court held a hearing regarding Debtors' first Chapter 11 plan of reorganization [Doc. No. 103], which was then continued to September 24, 2019 [Doc. No. 144] to afford Debtors the opportunity to address various issues with the first plan's proposed terms [Note 1]. Having reviewed the Supplemental Confirmation Brief, the Court denied Debtors' first plan without prejudice, finding that the plan could not be crammed down on Class 2(A)—an impaired class deemed to reject the plan. Under the terms of the previous plan, the Debtors would have infringed the absolute priority rule as they proposed to retain their interests in the Properties without providing new value contributions, and while failing to pay Class 2(A) claimants, consisting of general unsecured creditors, an amount equal to their claims. In its denial order, the Court authorized Debtors to modify their plan as needed to ensure that Class 2(A) claimants would be paid with an appropriate interest rate, thereby satisfying the cram down requirements of §1129(b)(2).

On October 4, 2019, the Debtors filed the Amended Confirmation Brief seeking to confirm the Amended Plan, therein addressing the aforementioned issue. Based on the findings and conclusions set forth below, the Court finds it appropriate to CONFIRM the Amended Plan.

Summary of the Amended Plan

Administrative Claims

The Debtors anticipate having the following administrative claims as of the Effective Date:

- i. Law Offices of Michael Jay Berger ("Debtors' Counsel"): $15,000
- ii. Jennifer Min Liu ("Debtors' Accountant"): $2,000
- iii. Tamar Terzian (the "Patient Care Ombudsman"): $1,200

The Debtors propose to pay the foregoing administrative claims in full, once approved by the Court.

Priority Tax Claims

The Debtors propose to pay the priority tax claims of the Internal Revenue Service ($52,185.95) and Franchise Tax Board ($14,419) the present value of their claims in full within five years of the petition date in accordance with § 507(a)(8) by making equal monthly installments in the amounts set forth in Exhibit C of the Disclosure Statement.

Class 1(A) – Secured Claim of U.S. Bank, National Association – Accepts the Plan

Class 1(A) consists of the secured claim of U.S. Bank, National Association ("US Bank"). US Bank holds a first-priority lien against the Principal Residence, which secures debt in the amount of $609,000.

On October 25, 2018, the Debtors filed a Motion Under LBR 9019 to Approve Compromise Between Individual Debtors Damu Vusha and Akiba Vusha and Creditors Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. and US Bank National Association [Doc. No. 73] (the "Plan Treatment Stipulation"), which the Court approved by order entered December 6, 2018 [Doc. No. 82]. Pursuant to the Plan Treatment Stipulation, the Debtors propose to pay US Bank's claim in full over 228 months with 3% interest by making monthly payments of $3,507.48. The Debtors also propose to make the monthly escrow payments for taxes and insurance by making an additional monthly payment of $580.97.

US Bank's claim is impaired and, pursuant to the Plan Treatment Stipulation, it is deemed to accept the Plan.

Class 1(B) – Secured Claim of J.P. Morgan Acquisition Corp. – Accepts the Plan

Class 1(B) consists of the secured claim of J.P. Morgan Acquisition Corp. ("JP Morgan"). JP Morgan holds a first-priority lien against the Wilton Property, which secures debt in the amount of $310,833.69 and $4,078.86 in pre-petition arrears.

On March 12, 2019, JP Morgan filed a Stipulation Re: Adequate Protection and Treatment of Creditors' Claim Under Debtors' Chapter 11 Plan of Reorganization [Doc. No. 95] (the "JP Morgan Stipulation"), which the Court approved by order entered on the same date [Doc. No. 98]. Pursuant to the JP Morgan Stipulation, the Debtors propose to JP Morgan's claim in full with 5.125% interest by making monthly payments of $1,563.92. The Debtors also propose to make the monthly escrow payments for taxes and insurance by making an additional monthly payment of $321.56. Finally, the Debtors propose to cure the pre-petition arrears by making six equal monthly installment payments of $784.33 beginning the first month following confirmation of the Plan.

Class 1(C) – Secured Claim of CSMC 2018-RPL8 Trust – Accepts the Plan

Class 1(C) consists of the secured claim of CSMC 2018-RPL8 Trust ("CSMC"). CSMC holds a first-priority lien against the 69th Street Property, which secures debt in the amount of $277,258.87 and $4,723.57 in pre-petition arrears.

On July 3, 2019, the Debtors filed a Motion to Approve Stipulation for Plan Treatment on First Lien Secured by Real Property Located at 1300 West 69th Street, Los Angeles, CA 90044-2535 [Doc. No. 130] (the "CSMC 2018-RPL8 Trust Stipulation"), which the Court by order entered on July 24, 2019 [Doc. No. 138]. Pursuant to the CSMC 2018-RPL8 Trust Stipulation, the Debtors propose to pay CSMC's claim in full with 3.25% interest by making monthly payments of $1,060.60. The Debtors also propose to make the monthly escrow payments for taxes and insurance by making an additional monthly payment of approximately $308.54. Finally, the Debtors propose to make additional monthly payments of $61.87 for twelve (12) months to cure pre-petition arrears. [Note 2]

CSMC's claim is impaired, and it voted to accept the Plan.

Class 1(D) – Secured Claim of Santander Consumer USA – Deemed to Reject

Class 1(D) consists of the secured claim of Santander Consumer USA ("Santander"). Santander holds a secured lien against the Debtors' 2004 Toyota Sienna, securing debt in the amount of $3,622.13 and $1,186.19 in pre-petition arrears. As of April 5, 2019, the outstanding balance of this claim is $2,561.29. The Debtors propose to pay Santander's claim in full pursuant to the terms of the original Vehicle Loan Agreement, by making monthly payments of $417.73 until the claim is satisfied.

Santander's claim is impaired, and it did not cast a ballot. Therefore, Class 1(D) is deemed to reject the Plan.

Class 1(E) – Secured Claim of the Internal Revenue Service – Deemed to Reject

Class 1(E) consists of the secured claim of the Internal Revenue Service (the "IRS"). The IRS holds a blanket security lien against the Debtors' assets, securing debt in the amount of $40,222.59. The Debtors propose to pay the IRS's claim in full by making monthly payments of $759.60 for sixty months, with the applicable IRS interest rate of 5%. [Note 3]

The IRS's claim is impaired, and it did not cast a ballot. Therefore, Class 1(E) is deemed to reject the Plan.

Class 2(A) – General Unsecured Claims – Deemed to Reject

Class 2(A) consists of general unsecured claims ("GUC") totaling $66,108.32. The Debtors propose to pay 100% of all claims in Class 2(A), with an interest rate of 6%, over a period of five years by making monthly payments of $1,278.06 beginning on the first day of the month following the Effective Date.

Claims in this class are impaired and entitled to vote on the Plan. No votes were received. Therefore, Class 2(A) is deemed to reject the Plan.

Class 2(B) – Unsecured Claim of U.S. Department of Education – Deemed to Reject

Class 2(B) consists of the unsecured claim of the U.S. Department of Education c/o FedLoan Servicing ("U.S. Dept. of Educ.") for Debtors' student loans totaling $45,883.05 (the "Student Loans"). The Debtors propose to pay their Student Loans in full over a period of 18 years in accordance with the current terms of repayment. The Debtors state that they are on an "income-based" repayment plan and are not making any payments. Debtors propose to begin making payments of $212.42 per month beginning on the first day of the month following the Effective Date.

Class 2(B) is impaired, and U.S. Dept. of Educ. did not cast a ballot. Therefore, Class 2(B) is deemed to reject the Plan.

As of the preparation of this tentative ruling, no opposition is on file.

of this title." According to the leading treatise, the "legislative history suggests that the applicable provisions are those governing the plan's internal structure and drafting: 'Paragraph (1) requires that the plan comply with the applicable provisions of chapter 11, such as section 1122 and 1123, governing classification and contents of a plan.'" Collier on Bankruptcy ¶ 1129.01[1] (16th rev'd ed.) (citing S. Rep. No. 989, 95th Cong., 2d Sess. 126 (1978)).

1. Section 1122(a)

Section 1122(a) provides that "a plan may place a claim or an interest in a particular class only if such claim or interest is substantially similar to the other claims or interests of such class."

The Plan's classification structure complies with § 1122(a). The Plan contains five classes of secured creditors, a class of general unsecured creditors, and a class comprised of the unsecured claim of the U.S. Department of Education for the Debtors' student loans.

As to the discrimination of unsecured creditors, the Court recognizes that there is split between courts prohibiting the discrimination of unsecured debt in favor of long-term nondischargeable unsecured debt. See In re Sutton, No. 10-10539-8-RDD, 2012 WL 433480, at *3 (Bankr. E.D.N.C. Feb. 9, 2012) (discussing the jurisdictional split regarding separate classification of student loans). Courts allowing for such discrimination reason that: "1) the debtor will not be afforded a fresh start if the student loan is not separated from other general unsecured claims; 2) strong public policy exists for repayment of educational loans; 3) Congress prefers reorganization over liquidation; and 4) unsecured creditors are not harmed by favorable treatment because distribution must be equivalent to liquidation under Chapter 7." See at *4. Here, the Debtors' separate classification is consistent with the objectives set forth in In re Sutton. First, separate classification of the U.S. Department of Education's educational loan is permissible because the long-term student loan debt is nondischargeable pursuant to § 523(a)(8) and is clearly dissimilar from the remaining general unsecured claims. Second, separate classification would not result in any unfair discrimination against either class of unsecured creditors in violation of § 1129(b)(1) because the Plan proposes to remunerate both classes of claims in full. Third, any discrepancy in interest rates paid out to either class of unsecured creditors is the result of the longer repayment term to Class 2(B) pursuant to the Debtors'

Therefore, the Plan satisfies § 1122(a).

2. Section 1122(b)

Section 1122(b) provides that "a plan may designate a separate class of claims consisting only of every unsecured claim that is less than or reduced to an amount that the court approves as reasonable and necessary for administrative convenience."

The Plan does not contain any convenience classes. Section 1122(b) does not apply.

3. Section 1123(a)(1)

Section 1123(a)(1) requires that a plan "designate ... classes of claims, other than claims of a kind specified in section 507(a)(2) [administrative expense claims], 507(a)(3) [claims arising during the gap period in an involuntary case], or 507(a)(8) [priority tax claims], and classes of interest."

The Plan appropriately designates classes of claims and interests. The Plan satisfies § 1123(a)(1).

4. Section 1123(a)(2)

Section 1123(a)(2) requires that the Plan "specify any class of claims or interests that is not impaired under the Plan."

The Plan specifies that all classes are impaired. The Plan satisfies § 1123(a)(2).

5. Section 1123(a)(3)

Section 1123(a)(3) requires that the Plan "specify the treatment of any class of claims or interests that is impaired under the Plan."

The Plan specifies the treatment of all impaired classes. The Plan satisfies § 1123(a)(3).

6. Section 1123(a)(4)

Section 1123(a)(4) requires that the Plan "provide the same treatment for each claim or interest of a particular class unless the holder of a particular claim or interest agrees to a less favorable treatment of such particular claim or interest."

The Plan provides the same treatment to claims and interests of the same class. The Plan satisfies § 1123(a)(4).

7. Section 1123(a)(5)

Section 1123(a)(5) requires that the Plan "provide adequate means for the plan's implementation."

The Plan will be funded by income from the Business, the Debtors' monthly Social Security Income, rental income from the 69th Street Property and the Wilton Property, and a $2,500 monthly contribution from one of the Debtor's mother.

As demonstrated by Debtors' projected income and expenses for the next five years [Doc. No. 154], these funding sources provide an adequate means for the Plan's implementation. The Plan satisfies § 1123(a)(5).

8. Section 1123(a)(6)

Section 1123(a)(6) provides: "[A] plan shall provide for the inclusion in the charter of the debtor, if the debtor is a corporation ..., of a provision prohibiting the issuance of nonvoting equity securities, and providing, as to the several classes of securities possessing voting power, an appropriate distribution of such power among such classes, including, in the case of any class of equity securities having a preference over another class of equity securities with respect to dividends, adequate provisions for the election of directors representing such preferred class in the event of default in the payment of such dividends."

The Debtors are individuals. Section 1123(a)(6) does not apply.

9. Section 1123(a)(7)

Section 1123(a)(7) requires that the Plan's provisions with respect to the selection of officers and directors be consistent with public policy and the interests of creditors and equity security holders.

The Debtors are individuals. Section 1123(a)(7) does not apply.

Chapter 11

10. Section 1123(a)(8)

Section 1123(a)(8) was added to the Bankruptcy Code to provide that, to be confirmable, an individual debtor's plan must provide for the payment to creditors of all or such portion of earnings from personal services or other future income of the debtor. The Plan provides for the payment of a portion of the Debtors' future income to creditors. The Plan satisfies § 1123(a)(8).

11. Section 1123(b)

Section 1123(b) sets forth provisions that are permitted, but not required in a plan of reorganization. The Plan appropriately implements many of § 1123(b)'s optional provisions. For example, the Plan provides for the assumption of executory contracts and unexpired leases pursuant to § 1123(b)(2); provides for the settlement or adjustment of claims pursuant to § 1123(b)(3)(A) and designates the Debtors as the representatives of the estate to enforce any claims or causes of actions belonging to the estate pursuant to § 1123(b)(3)(B); and modifies the rights of certain holders of claims pursuant to § 1123(b)(5). In sum, the Plan complies with § 1123(b).

SECTION 1129(a)(2)

Section 1129(a)(2) requires that the "proponent of the plan compl[y] with the applicable provisions of this title." The Court finds that the Debtors have:

- 1) Complied with the Bankruptcy Code's provisions with respect to the use of cash collateral (see Order Re: Notice of Motion and Motion in Individual Chapter 11 Case for Order Authorizing Use of Cash Collateral [Doc. Nos. 23, 43]);
- 2) Obtained Court approval of a Disclosure Statement in accordance with § 1125 (see Order Approving Debtors' Disclosure Statement in Support of Plan of Reorganization [Doc. No. 120]);
- 3) Obtained Court approval of the employment of professional persons (see Doc. Nos. 32, 35, 38, 45 and 63); and
- 4) Filed monthly operating reports.

Accordingly, the Debtors have satisfied the requirements of § 1129(a)(2).

SECTION 1129(a)(3)

Section 1129(a)(3) requires that the "plan has been proposed in good faith and not by any means forbidden by law." As one court has explained:

The term 'good faith' in the context of 11 U.S.C. § 1129(a)(3) is not statutorily defined but has been interpreted by case law as referring to a plan that 'achieves a result consistent with the objectives and purposes of the Code.' 'The requisite good faith determination is based on the totality of the circumstances.'

In re Melcher, 329 B.R. 865, 876 (Bankr. N.D. Cal. 2005) (internal citations omitted).

The Plan seeks objectives that are consistent with those of the Bankruptcy Code and the Debtors have complied with the requirements of the Code throughout this case. Under Fed. R. Bankr. P. 3015(f), the Court is not required to receive evidence as to good faith because no party has objected to confirmation. The Plan satisfies § 1129(a)(3).

SECTION 1129(a)(4)

Section 1129(a)(4) requires that "[a]ny payment made or to be made by the proponent, by the debtor, or by a person issuing securities or acquiring property under the plan, for services or for costs and expenses in or in connection with the case, or in connection with the plan and incident to the case, has been approved by, or is subject to the approval of, the court as reasonable."

The Plan provides for Court approval of all professional fees. See Plan at II.a.1.i. The Plan satisfies § 1129(a)(4).

SECTION 1129(a)(5)

Section 1129(a)(5) requires that the Plan disclose "the identity and affiliations of any individual proposed to serve, after confirmation of the Plan, as a director, officer, or voting trustee of the debtor, an affiliate of the debtor participating in a joint Plan with the debtor, or a successor to the debtor under the Plan." Section 1129(a)(5)(A)(ii) requires that the appointment to or continuation in office of a director or officer be consistent with the interests of creditors, equity security holders, and public policy. Section 1129(a)(5)(B) requires the Plan proponent to disclose the identity of any insider to be employed by the reorganized debtor.

The Debtors are individuals. Section 1129(a)(5) does not apply.

SECTION 1129(a)(6)

Section 1129(a)(6), which requires that a governmental regulatory commission with jurisdiction over rates charged by a debtor approve any rate changes provided for in the plan, does not apply.

SECTION 1129(a)(7)

Section 1129(a)(7), known as the "best interests of creditors test," provides in relevant part: "With respect to each impaired class of claims or interests, each holder of a claim or interest of such class has accepted the plan; or will receive or retain under the plan on account of such claim or interest property of a value, as of the effective date of the plan, that is not less than the amount that such holder would so receive or retain if the debtor were liquidated under chapter 7 of this title on such date."

Classes 1(A), 1(B), and 1(C) have accepted the Plan. Classes 1(D), 1(E), 2(A), and 2(B) did not cast ballots and are deemed to have rejected the Plan. Based on the terms proposed in the Plan, the Debtors will pay rejecting claims in full. Accordingly, all classes have either accepted the Plan or will receive treatment that is no less favorable than they would receive under Chapter 7. The Plan satisfies § 1129(a)(7).

SECTION 1129(a)(8)

Section 1129(a)(8) requires each class to accept the Plan, unless the class is not impaired. Impaired Classes 1(A), 1(B), and 1(C) have accepted the Plan. Classes 1(D), 1(E), 2(A), and 2(B) did not cast ballots and are deemed to have rejected the Plan. See In re M. Long Arabians, 103 B.R. 211, 215-16 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 1989) (To accept a Plan, members of a class must affirmatively vote in favor of the Plan). Accordingly, the Plan does not satisfy § 1129(a)(8) and must, therefore, satisfy § 1129(b).

SECTION 1129(a)(9)

Section 1129(a)(9) requires that holders of certain administrative and priority claims receive cash equal to the allowed claim amount of their claims on the effective date of the plan, unless the claimant agrees to different treatment.

The Plan provides for the payment of all outstanding allowed administrative claims in full as soon as the fees are approved by the Court and none of the professionals have requested a different payment arrangement. The Plan also provides for payment of priority tax claims in a manner consistent with § 1129(a)(9)(C)(ii). The Plan satisfies § 1129(a)(9).

SECTION 1129(a)(10)

Section 1129(a)(10) requires that "at least one class of claims that is impaired under the plan has accepted the plan, determined without including any acceptance of the plan by any insider."

Classes 1(A), 1(B), and 1(C) consist of non-insider claims, are impaired, and have voted to accept the Plan. Section 1129(a)(10) is satisfied.

SECTION 1129(a)(11)

Section 1129(a)(11), known as the "feasibility requirement," requires the Court to find that "[c]onfirmation of the plan is not likely to be followed by the liquidation, or the need for further financial reorganization, of the debtor or any successor to the debtor under the plan, unless such liquidation or reorganization is proposed in the plan."

The Debtors submit that they have sufficient cash on hand to pay the amounts that are due on the Effective Date. Based upon a review of the budget projections included as Exhibit C to the Disclosure Statement (which was updated on Exhibit 6 to the Amended Confirmation Brief), the Court finds that confirmation is not likely to be followed by liquidation or the need for further financial reorganization.

The Plan is feasible and satisfies § 1129(a)(11).

SECTION 1129(a)(12)

Section 1129(a)(12) requires that the Debtor pay all United States Trustee fees prior to confirmation or provide for payment of those fees on the effective date.

To the Court's knowledge, UST fees are current. To the extent any fees are outstanding, the Plan provides that all such fees will be paid by the Effective Date.

SECTION 1129(a)(15)

Section 1129(a)(15) imposes certain requirements upon individual debtors if the holder of an unsecured claim objects to confirmation of the Plan. Section 1129(a)(15) does not apply because no objections to the Plan are on file.

Section 1129(a)(16) provides: "All transfers of property under the plan shall be made in accordance with any applicable provisions of nonbankruptcy law that govern the transfer of property by a corporation or trust that is not a moneyed, business, or commercial corporation or trust."

The Plan does not provide for the transfer of any property. The Plan satisfies § 1129(a)(16).

SECTION 1129(b)

Section 1129(b), which contains requirements for cram down, applies. Pursuant to § 1129(b)(1), a plan may be confirmed where not all impaired classes vote to accept the plan, provided that "the plan does not discriminate unfairly, and is fair and equitable, with respect to each class of claims or interests that is impaired under, and has not accepted, the plan." With respect to a class of secured claims, the condition that a plan be fair and equitable includes the following requirements:

- (i)(I) that the holders of such claims retain the liens securing such claims, whether the property subject to such liens is retained by the debtor or transferred to another entity, to the extent of the allowed amount of such claims; and
- (II) that each holder of a claim of such class receive on account of such claim deferred cash payments totaling at least the allowed amount of such claim, of a value, as of the effective date of the plan, of at least the value of such holder's interest in the estate's interest in such property;

(iii) for the realization by such holders of the indubitable equivalent of such claims.

11 U.S.C. § 1129(b)(2)(A).

Under the Plan, Classes 1(D) and 1(E) are impaired, did not cast ballots, and are deemed to reject the Plan. Therefore, the Plan must be crammed down on these classes. In this case, Debtors propose to pay Class 1(D) 100% of the outstanding claim balance at an interest rate of 25.49%, which was set pursuant to the vehicle purchase agreement. See Exhibit 1 of the Amended Confirmation Brief. Comparably, the Debtors propose to pay Class 1(E) 100% of its claim with the applicable interest rate of 5% set by the Internal Revenue Service. See I.R.S. Rev. Rul. 2019-15. Given that the Plan provides that Classes 1(D) and 1(E) will receive the total amount of their claims, with an appropriate interest rate, these claimants will receive the present value of their claims as of the Effective Date. The Court accordingly finds that the proposed treatment of Classes 1(D) and 1(E) is consistent with § 1129(b)(2)(A)(i)(II).

In sum, the "fair and equitable" requirement set forth in § 1129(b)(2) is satisfied with respect to Classes 1(D) and 1(E). The Plan may be crammed down on these classes.

With respect to a class of unsecured claims, the condition that a plan be fair and equitable includes the following requirements:

(i) the plan provides that each holder of a claim of such class receive or retain on account of such claim property of a value, as of the effective date of the plan, equal to the allowed amount of such claim; or

(ii) the holder of any claim or interest that is junior to the claims of such class will not receive or retain under the plan on account of such junior claim or interest any property, except that in a case in which the debtor is an individual, the debtor may retain property included in the estate under section 1115, subject to the requirements of subsection (a)(14) of this

11 U.S.C. § 1129(b)(2)(B).

Under the Plan, Classes 2(A) and 2(B) are impaired, did not cast ballots, and are deemed to reject the Plan. Therefore, the Plan must be crammed down on these classes.

As to Class 2(A), Debtors propose to pay general unsecured creditors (the "GUC") 100% of their claims, with an interest rate of 6%, which is comprised of the federal prime rate of 5% and an addition of one hundred (100) basis points to account for the risk absorbed by creditors [Note 4]. The Court determines that payment to the GUC at the proposed interest rate is adequate. See Till v. SCS Credit Corp., 541 U.S. 465, 478 – 79 (2004) (determining that debtors invoking the cram down option must pay rejecting creditors' claims at the national prime interest rate, adjusted to account for a number of critical factors); First S. Nat'l Bank v. Sunnyslope Hous. L.P. (In re Sunnyslope Hous. L.P.), 859 F.3d 637, 646 (9th Cir. 2017) (applying the "Till test" to ensure that a creditor received the present value of its claim through payments proposed in a Chapter 11 plan). Therefore, the Plan satisfies § 1129(b)(2)(B)(i) with respect to Class 2(A).

Separately, the Debtors propose to pay Class 2(B), consisting of unsecured student loans, in full at the interest rate fixed by the Debtors' individual student loan agreements. As the claimant in Class 2(B) is entitled to receive the total amount of its claim, with an appropriate rate of interest, the Court finds that the treatment of Class 2(B) under the Plan is consistent with § 1129(b)(2)(B)(i). Notwithstanding the Debtors' proposed payment schedule of claims in Class 2(B), this tentative ruling will not alter or affect any terms or provisions on the Debtors' respective student loan agreements.

Therefore, as the "fair and equitable" requirement provided in § 1129(b)(2) is satisfied with respect to Classes 2(A) and 2(B), the Plan may be crammed down on these classes.

- 2) No opposition to the Motion is on file

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

Bahram Zendedel (the "Debtor") filed a voluntary Chapter 7 petition on January 18, 2019. The Chapter 7 Trustee (the "Trustee") moves for an order compelling the Debtor to attend a continued § 341(a) meeting of creditors. No opposition to the Motion is on file.

Summary of the Motion

The Trustee makes the following arguments and representations in support of the Motion:

The first meeting of creditors at which the Debtor appeared was conducted on March 18, 2019. The Trustee has conducted multiple continued meetings of creditors to obtain further information from the Debtor.

The Debtor failed to appear at a continued meeting of creditors scheduled on October 2, 2019. The Debtor also failed to appear at a continued meeting of creditors scheduled on October 21, 2019.

The Debtor is evading examination. Further examination of the Debtor is necessary to facilitate the administration of the estate. Specifically, the Debtor must be examined regarding numerous business holdings that were not scheduled. The Trustee has been informed that the Debtor has engaged in a pattern of hiding assets, and is being investigated in three separate states for defrauding gold and jewelry merchants.

The Court should compel the Debtor to attend a continued meeting of creditors on a date to be set by the Court. If the Debtor fails to appear at the continued meeting of creditors, the Court should issue a body detention order.

II. Findings and Conclusions

Section 343 provides in relevant part:

The debtor shall appear and submit to examination under oath at the meeting of creditors under section 341(a) of this title. Creditors, any indenture trustee, any trustee or examiner in the case, or the United States trustee may examine the debtor.

Collier on Bankruptcy, the leading treatise, provides that if the debtor fails to appear at the meeting of creditors, the "court may choose to compel the debtor's attendance" through use of its contempt power. 3 Collier on Bankruptcy ¶ 343.09 (16th ed. 2019).

The Trustee has a statutory obligation to "investigate the financial affairs of the debtor." § 704(a)(4). The Debtor has a statutory obligation to "cooperate with the trustee as necessary to enable the trustee to perform the trustee's duties under this title." § 521(a)(3).

By failing to appear at two continued meetings of creditors, the Debtor has not complied with his obligations under the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtor chose to seek bankruptcy protection. Having benefited from the protections of the Bankruptcy Code, the Debtor cannot now shirk his corresponding obligations. The Debtor's appearance at the continued meeting of creditors is necessary to allow the Trustee to fulfill his obligation to investigate the Debtor's financial affairs.

The Court will order the Debtor to appear at a continued meeting of creditors, at a date and time to be selected by the Trustee. If the Debtor fails to appear at the continued meeting of creditors, the Court will issue an order subjecting the Debtor to body detention.

No appearance is required if submitting on the court's tentative ruling. If you

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

Marlon Camar Salamat (individually referred to as "Marlon") and Daisy Anne Boiser Salamat (individually referred to as "Daisy") (collectively, the "Debtors") filed a voluntary Chapter 7 petition on June 17, 2019 (the "Petition") [Doc. No. 1]. On their commencement documents, Debtors state that they have used three different doing business as ("dba") names in the last eight years: Iconcare Rehab, Inc. ("Iconcare"), At Home Therapy, LLC ("At Home"), and Oasis Rehab, Inc. ("Oasis"). See Petition at 2. Debtors' schedules do not indicate that they possess any ownership interests in the dbas referenced above. As further discussed below, on September 17, 2019, Creditor Angela Sandra Legaspi Fernando (the "Movant") filed an adversary proceeding (2:19-ap-bk-01441-ER) seeking a nondischargeability judgment against Debtors pursuant to §§ 523(a)(2), (a)(4), and (a)(6) (the "Adversary Proceeding"). The Chapter 7 Trustee issued a Report of No Distribution on September 5, 2019. On September 30, 2019, the Court entered an order of discharge as to both debtors (the "Discharge Order") [Doc. No. 28], and thereafter closed the case on October 16, 2019.

The Motion

The Movant successfully motioned to reopen this matter on October 22, 2019 [Doc. No. 35] in order to file the Motion. As set forth in the Motion, Movant seeks an order confirming that the Discharge Order does not preclude her from litigating state law claims against Iconcare and At Home in an action currently pending in California Superior Court, County of Los Angeles, captioned Angela Fernando v. Marlon Salamat, et al., Case No. BC722168 (the "State Action"). Movant further asks for confirmation that no stay was in effect when the State Action was filed on September 18, 2019. Mirroring many of the allegations raised in the Adversary Proceeding, the complaint in the State Action advances numerous claims against At Home, Iconcare, and Marlon, which include, inter alia: fraud; negligent misrepresentation, breach of fiduciary duty, breach of contract, conversion, and for the dissolution of Iconcare. See Motion, Ex. A. The filing of the Petition has allegedly stayed all proceedings in the State Action.

The Movant contends that although At Home and Iconcare (together, the "Entities") are identified as dbas in the Discharge Order, neither the automatic stay nor the discharge injunction should prevent collection actions because these entities are non-debtors in the bankruptcy case. In short, the Movant requests an order confirming that the State Action did not violate the automatic stay as to the Entities and that Movant may prosecute its nonbankruptcy claims against the Entities, with the caveat that enforcement of any judgment adverse to the Debtors will be dependent on the outcome of the pending Adversary Proceeding.

The Adversary Proceeding

For additional context, the Court summarizes the substantive allegations asserted in the Adversary Proceeding below.

On or about April 2017, Marlon and Movant discussed the formation of a business venture, which eventually became formalized as Iconcare. See Complaint, 2:19-ap-bk-01441-ER, Adv. No. 1 (the "Complaint") at 2-3. According to the Movant, Marlon volunteered to assume a managerial role, but assured that profits would be split proportionally, and Movant would retain a prominent position in Iconcare. See id. at 3. Marlon and Movant executed a shareholder agreement on May 18, 2017, thereon encapsulating their rights and duties with respect to Iconcare [Note 1]. Id. at 26; see Motion, Ex. B. Based on these general representations, among other assurances, the Movant extended two personal loans to Marlon and At Home totaling approximately $100,000, with the expectation that these funds would be paid back to fund Iconcare. Complaint at 4-5. The parties executed a promissory note with respect to the first loan in the amount of $20,000. Id. at 4. Pursuant to the shareholder agreement, Movant also expected to be reimbursed for any physical therapy services rendered as an Iconcare provider. Id. at 5.

Starting on or about August 2017, Movant began asking Marlon to compensate her for services provided, without success. Later, on or about July 2018, Marlon allegedly admitted to appropriating Movant's monies for personal use, further claiming he would not be returning said monies. Id. at 6. Apart from the misconduct asserted above, Movant further alleges that Marlon failed to act in accordance with his duties as vice-president and Treasurer of Iconcare. See id. at 5-6. The injuries caused by Marlon's misrepresentation have also impaired Movant's ability to repay a capital loan taken out to fund Iconcare's operations. Id. at 7. Iconcare has ceased business operations as of August 2018. Id. at 6. Based on the foregoing, the Movant requests a nondischargeability judgment against Debtors pursuant to §§ 523(a)(2), (a)(4), and (a)(6).

The Adversary Proceeding remains pending in this Court. As of the preparation of this tentative ruling, no opposition has been filed in response to the Motion.

following, in pertinent part:

- (1) the commencement or continuation, including the issuance or employment of process of a judicial, administrative, or other action or proceeding against the debtor that was or could have been commenced before the commencement of the case under this title, or to recover a claim against the debtor that arose before the commencement of the case under this title.

11 U.S.C. § 362(a)(1).

In Ingersoll-Rand Financial Corp. v. Miller Min. Co., Inc., the Ninth Circuit established that absent any special circumstances, the automatic stay is "limited to debtors and [does not] include non-bankrupt co-defendants." 817 F.2d 1424, 1427 (9th Cir. 1987) (internal citations omitted). Similarly, in In re Spencer, a bankruptcy court concluded that the automatic stay did not protect a corporation owned by a debtor, reasoning that under California law, "a corporation is considered a legal entity separate and distinct from its owner or owners." 123 B.R. 858, 860 (Bankr. N.D. Cal. 1991) (citing the California Supreme Court's holding in Merco Constr. Eng'r. Inc. v. Municipal Court, 21 Cal.3d 724, 729 (1978)) (abrogated on unrelated grounds by In re Pinkstaff, 974 F.2d 113 (9th Cir. 1992)).

The Court's independent research uncovered additional cases following the rationale established in Ingersoll-Rand Financial Corp. and In re Spencer. In In re Venture Properties, Inc., 37 B.R. 175 (Bankr. D.N.H. 1984), the court determined that the automatic stay did not apply to property owned by a non-debtor entity. The corporate debtor at issue was a partner in a non-debtor limited partnership, which possessed buyer's rights over certain property. See id. at 176. Following its bankruptcy filing, the debtor motioned for injunctive relief, seeking to enjoin third parties from selling the property. See id. The bankruptcy court denied the debtor's request to extend the bankruptcy stay, reasoning that there was—"no essential difference in [the debtor's] position in this case and that of any debtor who might contend that 'property of the estate' was involved because the debtor owned an interest in a non-debtor entity which itself had a legal or equitable interest in some asset."

Chapter 7

Id. at 177.

Similarly, in In re Loughnane, 28 B.R. 940, 941 (Bankr. D. Colo. 1983), an individual debtor attempted to block the IRS's efforts to levy bank accounts in the debtor's wholly-owned corporation, arguing that the automatic stay had been violated. Finding that the debtor's personal property rights represented by the stock certificates were part of the estate, the court nonetheless held that the corporate entity itself was not estate property. Id. at 942. Therefore, the IRS did not intrude upon estate property in attempting to collect back taxes owed by the corporation. Id. Finally, actions taken by corporate officers of a nondebtor corporation were found to not violate the automatic stay, where the debtor had a 50% ownership interest. In re Calvert, 135 B.R. 398, 400-02 (Bankr. S.D. Cal. 1991) (finding that the corporation was a separate legal entity entitled to act through officers and board of directors).

The Court is persuaded by the rationale reached in the foregoing cases. The record provided here parallels the circumstances described above. Although it is established that one of the Debtors possesses an interest in the Entities, the Court is not aware that either At Home or Iconcare have taken any steps to invoke bankruptcy protections. Cf. In re Venture Properties, Inc., 37 B.R. at 177 ("[i]t has been a cardinal principle of bankruptcy law from the beginning that its effects do not normally benefit those who have not themselves 'come into' the bankruptcy court with their liabilities and all their assets."). As such, absent any compelling arguments to the contrary, it would be inconsistent with the conclusions discussed above to find that the automatic stay protected the Entities [Note 2]. Based on the foregoing, the Court finds that the automatic stay was not in effect as to At Home and Iconcare as of the filing of the State Action.

Relatedly, the discharge injunction triggered by the Discharge Order does not release the Entities from any debt arising from an adverse judgment in the State Action. See Underhill v. Royal, 769 F.2d 1426, 1431-32 (9th Cir. 1985) (stating that "discharge of the principal debtor in bankruptcy will not discharge the liabilities of co-debtors or guarantors"); see also Matter of Edgeworth, 993 F.2d 51, 53 (5th Cir. 1993) (discharge only releases the debtor from personal liability for the debt, but the debt can still be collected from liable third-party entities). Accordingly, the Movant may proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies in State Action as to the Entities. To the extent that the Movant obtains a judgment in the State Action for which the Debtors are personally liable, such judgment will be unenforceable pending resolution of the Adversary Proceeding.

In addition to the findings set forth above, the Court deems the Debtors' failure to file a response or opposition as consent to granting the Motion pursuant to Local Bankruptcy Rule 9013-1(h).

III. Conclusion

Based on the foregoing, the Court GRANTS the Motion as follows: 1) the automatic stay was inapplicable to the Entities at the time the State Action was filed, and 2) the discharge injunction does not preclude Movant from proceeding with the State Action against the Entities. All other relief is denied.

The Movant shall upload an appropriate order via the Court's Lodged Order Upload system within 7 days of the hearing.

Accordingly, she asserts alter ego allegations against him in both the Adversary Proceeding and the State Action complaints. See Motion, Ex. A, ¶¶ 10-13; Adversary Proceeding, Adv. No. 1 [Complaint], ¶ 17. The Court acknowledges that based on the findings made in In re Calvert, alter ego allegations may serve as a reason to extend automatic stay protections to some debtor-owned entities. See In re Calvert, 135 B.R. at 402. Adcock

Docket 3471

Tentative Ruling:

11/18/2019

For the reasons set forth below, the Motion is GRANTED, without prejudice to the Committee's ability to move to terminate exclusivity for cause at any time, pursuant to § 1121(d)(1).

Pleadings Filed and Reviewed:

- 1) Debtors' Notice of Motion and Motion for Entry of an Order Pursuant to Section 1121 of the Bankruptcy Code Extending the Exclusive Periods to File a Chapter 11 Plan and Solicit Acceptances [Doc. No. 3471] (the "Motion")
- 2) Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors' Reservation of Rights Regarding the Debtors' Motion for Entry of an Order Pursuant to Section 1121 of the Bankruptcy Code Extending the Exclusive Periods to File a Chapter 11 Plan and Solicit Acceptances [Doc. No. 3542]

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

On August 31, 2018, Verity Health System of California ("VHS") and certain of its subsidiaries (collectively, the "Debtors") filed voluntary petitions for relief under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. On August 31, 2018, the Court entered an order granting the Debtors' motion for joint administration of the Debtors' Chapter 11 cases. Doc. No. 17.

On December 28, 2018, the Court entered an order extending the exclusive period within which the Debtors could file and solicit votes on a plan of reorganization from December 29, 2018 and February 27, 2019, to April 28, 2019 (filing a plan) and June 27, 2019 (obtaining acceptances). Doc. No. 899. On June 7, 2019, the Court extended the exclusivity period to August 26, 2019 (filing a plan) and October 25, 2019 (obtaining acceptances). Doc. No. 2520. On September 11, 2019, the Court extended the exclusivity period to October 25, 2019 (filing a plan) and December 24, 2019 (obtaining acceptances). Doc. No. 3039.

The Debtors move to further extend the exclusivity period to December 31, 2019 (filing a plan) and February 29, 2019 (obtaining acceptances), without prejudice to the Debtors' ability to seek further extensions.

The Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (the "Committee") filed a Reservation of Rights to the Motion. The Committee asserts that the Debtors' present Plan of Liquidation is unconfirmable on its face, because it proposes to pay secured creditors the amount of their asserted claims, prior to the resolution of adversary proceedings brought by the Committee challenging the validity of such claims. The Committee states that it is attempting to resolve this issue with the Debtors, but reserves its rights to seek to terminate exclusivity in order to pursue an alternative plan.

II. Findings and Conclusions

Section 1121(b) gives the Debtor the exclusive right to file a plan during the first 120 days after the date of the order for relief. Section 1121(d) permits the Court to reduce or increase the exclusivity period "for cause." Section 1121 provides the bankruptcy court "maximum flexibility to suit various types of reorganization proceedings." In re Public Service Company of New Hampshire, 88 B.R. 521, 534 (Bankr. D.N.H. 1988). A "transcendent consideration is whether adjustment of exclusivity will facilitate moving the case forward toward a fair and equitable resolution." Official Comm. of Unsecured Creditors v. Henry Mayo Newhall Mem'l Hosp. (In re Henry Mayo Newhall Mem'l Hosp.), 282 B.R. 444, 453 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 2002). In determining whether cause exists to extend the exclusivity period, courts consider a variety of factors, including:

- 1) the size and complexity of the case;
- 2) the necessity of sufficient time to permit the debtor to negotiate a plan of reorganization and prepare adequate information;
- 3) the existence of good faith progress toward reorganization;
- 4) the fact that the debtor is paying its bills as they become due;
- 5) whether the debtor has demonstrated reasonable prospects for filing a viable plan;

- 6) whether the debtor has made progress in negotiations with its creditors;
- 7) the amount of time which has elapsed in the case;
- 8) whether the debtor is seeking an extension of exclusivity in order to pressure creditors to submit to the debtor's reorganization demands; and
- 9) whether an unresolved contingency exists.

In re Dow Corning Corp., 208 B.R. 661, 664–65 (Bankr. E.D. Mich. 1997).

The Court finds that cause exists to further extend the exclusivity period to December 31, 2019 (filing a plan) and February 29, 2019 (obtaining acceptances), as requested by the Debtors. This extension is without prejudice to the Committee's ability to seek to terminate exclusivity for cause at any time, pursuant to § 1121(d)(1).

An extension of exclusivity is warranted for multiple reasons. First, these are complex cases. In addition to bankruptcy law, the Debtors' sale of their hospitals implicates issues of healthcare regulatory law, labor law, and mergers and acquisitions law. Second, the Debtors have made significant progress in these cases. The Debtors' sale of O'Connor Hospital ("O'Connor") and Saint Louise Regional Hospital ("Saint Louise") to the County of Santa Clara closed on February 28, 2019. On May 2, 2019, the Debtors obtained approval of the sale of substantially all the assets of St. Francis Medical Center, St. Vincent Medical Center, St. Vincent Dialysis Center, and Seton Medical Center (including Seton Coastside) to Strategic Global Management, Inc. ("SGM" and the "SGM Sale," respectively). Doc. No. 2306. On November 14, 2019, the Debtors obtained entry of an order approving the SGM Sale free and clear of the Additional Conditions (as defined in the APA) which the California Attorney General had sought to impose. Doc. No. 3611.

Third, the Debtors require additional time to negotiate a Plan of Liquidation. The Debtors are engaged in ongoing discussions with the major constituents in these cases regarding the Plan.

Fourth, the Debtors are paying their ordinary course administrative expense as they come due. As a result, creditors are not prejudiced by the requested extension.

Fifth, the Debtors have filed a Plan. Although objects to the Plan remain outstanding, the Debtors are working with stakeholders to resolve issues through an amended Plan.

Sixth, the cases have not been pending for an unreasonable amount of time in view of their complexity. The cases have been pending for approximately fourteen months.

Seventh, the Debtors did not seek the extension to pressure creditors, as evidenced by the fact that the Debtors continue to negotiate with the Committee to attempt to resolve the Committee's objections to the Plan.

Eighth, various unresolved contingencies exist, the most significant of which is the need to close the SGM Sale.

In sum, consideration of the Dow Corning factors supports the extension of exclusivity requested by the Debtors. The Motion is GRANTED, without prejudice to the Committee's ability to move to terminate exclusivity for cause at any time, pursuant to § 1121(d)(1).

The Debtors shall submit an order incorporating this tentative ruling by reference within seven days of the hearing.

#102.00 Hearing
RE: [13] Application to Employ Fredman Lieberman Pearl LLP as General
Bankruptcy and Reorganization Counsel

FR. 11-5-19

Docket 13

Tentative Ruling:

11/18/2019

For the reasons set forth below, the Debtors are authorized to employ FLP as their general bankruptcy counsel.

Pleadings Filed and Reviewed:

- 1) Debtors' Application for Authority to Employ Fredman Lieberman Pearl LLP as their General Bankruptcy and Reorganization Counsel [Doc. No. 13] (the "Employment Application")
- 2) Notice of Opposition and Request for a Hearing and Memorandum of Points and Authorities in Support of Creditors' Opposition to Debtors' Application to Employ Counsel [Doc. No. 30] (the "Opposition")
- 3) Debtors' Reply to Opposition to Application to Employ Fredman Lieberman Pearl LLP as their General Bankruptcy and Reorganization Counsel [Doc. No. 37] (the "Reply")
 - a) Notice of Errata [Doc. No. 42]

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

Michael Bonert and Vivien Bonert (the "Debtors") filed a voluntary Chapter 11 petition on September 12, 2019 (the "Petition Date"). On September 16, 2019, the Debtors moved to employ Fredman Lieberman Pearl LLP ("FLP") as their general bankruptcy counsel (the "Employment Application"). Creditors Capitol Distribution Company, LLC, Coastal Carriers, LLC, Packaging Corporation of America, Seneca Foods Corporation, and Stratas Foods LLC (collectively, the "Objecting Creditors") oppose the Employment Application.

Chapter 11

Background

Prior to the Petition Date, the Debtors operated a pie manufacturing company known as Bonert's Incorporated (the "Bakery"). In 2016, the Bakery ceased conducting business after its lender caused the Bakery's assets to be sold through a federal receivership. Proceeds of the receivership sale were used to pay secured creditors, but were not sufficient to pay unsecured trade creditors, some of whom obtained unopposed judgments against the Bakery.

On August 13 and 14, 2019, the Objecting Creditors filed four collection actions (the "Collection Actions") against the Bakery, the Debtors, and LLCs owned by the Debtors that had leased properties to the Bakery (such LLCs, the "Affiliates"). The Collection Actions allege, inter alia, that the Debtors operated the Affiliates and the Bakery as a single enterprise for the purpose of defeating the rights of creditors; that the Debtors are the alter ego of the Bakery; and that consequently the Debtors are liable for trade debt incurred by the Affiliates and the Bakery. Two of the Collection Actions were filed in the United States District Court for the Central District of California (the "District Court") and two of the Collection Actions were filed in the Los Angeles Superior Court (the "State Court").

Debtors sought bankruptcy protection for the purpose of having all alter-ego claims arising in connection with the Debtors' operation of the Affiliates and the Bakery adjudicated before the Bankruptcy Court. Pursuant to this objective, on September 13 and 16, 2019, the Debtors removed all four of the Collection Actions to the Bankruptcy Court.

On October 17, 2019, the Court approved stipulations remanding two of the Collection Actions to the District Court. Both stipulations were without prejudice to any party's right (1) to move for referral of the action back to the Bankruptcy Court or (2) to move for an injunction against the prosecution of the action. The Collection Actions that originated in the State Court remain pending before this Court. Motions for orders remanding those Collection Actions to the State Court are scheduled to be heard on December 11, 2019.

The Employment Application

FLP makes the following disclosures in the Employment Application:

For several years prior to the Petition Date, FLP represented the Debtors and the Affiliates. FLP no longer represents any Affiliate.

Chapter 11

On August 15, 2019—before the Debtors had contemplated seeking bankruptcy protection—FLP received from the Debtors a payment of $60,000 on account of non-bankruptcy legal services. On September 6, 2019, FLP returned the $60,000 payment to the Debtors to eliminate any doubt regarding whether it had received an avoidable preference. The $60,000 payment was replaced by two of the Affiliates.

Summary of the Objecting Creditors' Opposition to the Employment Application

The Objecting Creditors make the following arguments in their Opposition to the Employment Application:

FLP is not disinterested. FLP has previously represented the Affiliates. As a result, it is impossible for the Debtors to act impartially in the Collection Actions. The Collection Actions may require FLP to take actions against the Affiliates, their former clients. FLP is too close to the pre-petition conduct of the Debtors and the Affiliates to fairly represent the interests of all creditors.

The $60,000 pre-petition payment from the Affiliates to FLP creates further problems. FLP may be sued by the Affiliates for a return of the payment, FLP will be a target of the Debtors' estate for the payment, and/or the Objecting Creditors will seek a refund of the payment. No matter the case, FLP cannot represent the interests of the Debtors' estate.

The $60,000 payment also likely qualifies as a preference. It is unclear how and why the Affiliates replaced the Debtors' $60,000 payment, and how that makes any difference since the Debtors own and control the Affiliates. That raises the question of whether there were other payments made by the Debtors to FLP within the 90-day preference period.

After Debtors returned the $60,000 payment and the payment was replaced by the Affiliates, FLP became a creditor of the Debtors, since the Affiliates also received legal services from FLP and presumably owe legal fees for these services. The fact that FLP is a creditor of the Debtors is an additional reason why FLP is not disinterested and is disqualified from serving as counsel.

The Employment Application lacked the required disclosures. Specifically, the Employment Application failed to disclose the following information:

- 1) All services rendered by FLP to the Debtors and the Affiliates prior to the Petition Date;

- 2) All fees billed and/or received by FLP pre-petition;
- 3) The work of FLP attorney Greg Yaris advising the Affiliates pre-petition;
- 4) The reason for the Affiliates' payment of the Debtors' legal bills for pre-petition work;
- 5) The source of the funds for the retainer paid to FLP;
- 6) Whether FLP has agreed to any variations from its customary billing arrangements; and
- 7) Whether the professionals included in the engagement have varied their rates based on the geographic location of the case.

Summary of FLP's Reply in Support of the Employment Application

FLP makes the following arguments and representations in their Reply to the Objecting Creditors' Opposition:

The Affiliates' pre-petition payment to FLP does give FLP an adverse interest to the estate. The Affiliates and the Debtors were co-liable to FLP for legal services that FLP had rendered to both the Debtors and the Affiliates prior to the Petition Date. By relieving the Debtors of their co-liability for these legal services, the Affiliates' payment to FLP extinguished any adverse interest that FLP might have to the estate, Objecting Creditors mistakenly speculate that they have fraudulent transfer claims against FLP. To the contrary, FLP represented the Affiliates in response to the Objecting Creditors' judgment enforcement efforts. The Affiliates' payment to FLP was on account of these legal services.

FLP does not have an adverse interest to the estate as a result of its representation of the Affiliates prior to the Petition Date. Section 327(a) provides that a professional is not disqualified from employment solely because of the professional's representation of a creditor, unless there is an actual conflict of interest. Here there is no actual conflict of interest. Even if FLP continued to represent the Affiliates (which it does not), there would be no actual conflict, because the Affiliates are 100% owned by the Debtors, and therefore the interests of the Affiliates and the Debtors are aligned.

There is no merit to Objecting Creditors' contention that FLP did not make the required disclosures in its Employment Application. Contrary to the Objecting Creditors' arguments, neither Bankruptcy Rule 2014 nor LBR 2014 require FLP to disclose all services rendered by FLP to the Debtors and Affiliates prior to the Petition Date. Nor is FLP required to disclose all pre-petition services provided to the Affiliates by FLP attorney Greg Yaris. Mr. Yaris is a transactional real estate attorney who has represented the Affiliates and the Debtors for more than twenty years. The disclosure of all services he provided is not relevant to the Employment Application.

The Objecting Creditors contend that the pre-petition $60,000 payment by the Affiliates was a preference. The Objecting Creditors are incorrect. The payment cannot be a preference because the funds were not property of the Debtors.

II. Findings and Conclusions

Section 327(a) provides that "the trustee, with the court's approval, may employ one or more attorneys ... that do not hold or represent an interest adverse to the estate, and that are disinterested persons, to represent or assist the trustee in carrying out the trustee's duties under this title." Section 101(14) defines "disinterested person" as "a person that is not a creditor, an equity security holder, or an insider; is not and was not, within 2 years before the date of the filing of the petition, a director, officer, or employee of the debtor; and does not have an interest materially adverse to the interest of the estate or any class of creditors or equity security holders, by reason of any direct or indirect relationship to, connection with, or interest in, the debtor, or for any other reason." Section 327(c) provides that "a person is not disqualified for employment under this section solely because of such person's employment by or representation of a creditor, unless there is objection by another creditor or the United States trustee, in which case the court shall disapprove such employment if there is an actual conflict of interest."

Within the context of §327(a), a professional holds an "interest adverse to the estate" if that professional "possess[es] or assert[s] any economic interest that would tend to lessen the value of the bankrupt estate or that would create either an actual or potential dispute in which the estate is a rival claimant; or (2) ... possess[es] a predisposition under circumstances that render such a bias against the estate." Tevis v. Wilke, Fleury, Hoffelt, Gould & Birney, LLP (In re Tevis), 347 B.R. 679, 688 (9th Cir. B.A.P. 2006).

The Objecting Creditors have failed to demonstrate that FLP holds an adverse interest to the estate. Pursuant to § 327(c), the mere fact that FLP represented the Affiliates pre-petition does not give rise to an adverse interest. To disqualify FLP from representing the Debtors, the Objecting Creditors must show the presence of an actual conflict. Objecting Creditors contend that FLP's representation of the Debtors "seems to be a continuation of the alter ego conduct that led to this bankruptcy." Opposition at 6. However, Objecting Creditors offer no concrete facts in support of this accusation. Objecting Creditors' speculation that some unspecified improprieties may exist is not enough to disqualify FLP from employment.

Nor is there merit to Objecting Creditors' contention that FLP received a preferential payment from the Debtors. During the 90-day preference period, FLP returned a $60,000 payment that it had received from the Debtors. That payment was replaced by the Affiliates. The Affiliates' replacement of the payment was not preferential. The Affiliates owed FLP on account of legal services that FLP had provided to the Affiliates. By definition, a preferential payment must involve a transfer of property of the Debtors. See § 547(b) (providing that the trustee "may avoid any transfer of an interest of the debtor in property"). The Affiliates' payment to FLP, from their separate property, on account of legal services provided by FLP to the Affiliates, is not a preference.

The Court rejects the Objecting Creditors' argument that FLP has failed to make the necessary disclosure in support of the Employment Application. Bankruptcy Rule 2014 requires that an Employment Application contain the following disclosures:

The application shall state the specific facts showing the necessity for the employment, the name of the person to be employed, the reasons for the selection, the professional services to be rendered, any proposed arrangement for compensation, and, to the best of the applicant's knowledge, all of the person's connections with the debtor, creditors, any other party in interest, their respective attorneys and accountants, the United States trustee, or any person employed in the office of the United States trustee.

The Employment Application contains all the information required by Bankruptcy Rule 2014. The Objecting Creditors mistakenly contend that FLP is required to make voluminous disclosures not required by Bankruptcy Rule 2014, such as the pre-petition legal work performed by FLP attorney Greg Yaris for the Debtors and the Affiliates over a period of twenty years, the source of the funds for the retainer paid by the Debtors, and all fees billed by FLP to the Debtors pre-petition. Such extensive disclosures are not required under the Bankruptcy Code or Bankruptcy Rules and would be of no assistance to the Court in determining whether FLP holds an adverse interest to the estate.

Based upon the foregoing, the Objecting Creditors' Opposition is OVERRULED, and the Employment Application is GRANTED. The Debtors shall submit a conforming order, incorporating this tentative ruling by reference, within seven days of the hearing.

Docket 3533

Tentative Ruling:

11/19/2019

On October 25, 2018, the Court entered an Order on Debtors' Motion Establishing Procedures for Monthly Payment of Fees and Expense Reimbursement [Doc. No. 661], and on October 16, 2018, the Court entered an Amended Order on Debtors' Motion Establishing Procedures for Monthly Payment of Fees and Expense Reimbursement [Doc. No. 826] (the "Fee Procedures Order"). [Note 1] Pursuant to the Fee Procedures Order, each professional employed by the estate may file a monthly fee application (each, a "Monthly Application") seeking payment of interim compensation in an amount equal to 80% of the fees sought and 100% of the expenses incurred during the prior month. If no objection is filed and served within ten calendar days after the date of the filing of the notice of the Monthly Application, the Monthly Application is deemed approved on an interim basis, and the Debtor is authorized to pay 80% of the fees and 100% of the expenses requested in the Monthly Application without further order of the Court. [Note 2] The failure to object to a Monthly Application does not result in a waiver of a party's ability to object to an interim fee application.

On October 30, 2018, the Court entered an order authorizing the Debtors to employ Nelson Hardiman LLP ("Nelson Hardiman") as special healthcare regulatory counsel. Pursuant to the procedures set forth in the Fee Procedures Order, Nelson Hardiman has submitted twelve Monthly Applications [Doc. Docket 3520

Tentative Ruling:

11/19/2019

On October 25, 2018, the Court entered an Order on Debtors' Motion Establishing Procedures for Monthly Payment of Fees and Expense Reimbursement [Doc. No. 661], and on October 16, 2018, the Court entered an Amended Order on Debtors' Motion Establishing Procedures for Monthly Payment of Fees and Expense Reimbursement [Doc. No. 826] (the "Fee Procedures Order"). [Note 1] Pursuant to the Fee Procedures Order, each professional employed by the estate may file a monthly fee application (each, a "Monthly Application") seeking payment of interim compensation in an amount equal to 80% of the fees sought and 100% of the expenses incurred during the prior month. If no objection is filed and served within ten calendar days after the date of the filing of the notice of the Monthly Application, the Monthly Application is deemed approved on an interim basis, and the Debtor is authorized to pay 80% of the fees and 100% of the expenses requested in the Monthly Application without further order of the Court. [Note 2] The failure to object to a Monthly Application does not result in a waiver of a party's ability to object to an interim fee application.

On September 28, 2018, the Court entered an order approving the Debtors' application to employ Dentons US LLP ("Dentons") as its general bankruptcy counsel. Pursuant to the procedures set forth in the Fee Procedures Order, Dentons has submitted twelve Monthly Applications [Doc. Nos. 853, 1001, 1178, 1443, 1676, 1956, 2265, 2473, 2642, 2824, 3004, and 3181], none of which have been opposed.

No objections to the Third Interim Application of Dentons US LLP, as Debtors' Counsel, for Fees and Expense Reimbursement for the Period May 1, 2018 through August 31, 2019 [Doc. No. 3520] (the "Application") have been filed. Having

#8.00 HearingRE: [3521] Motion to Assume Lease or Executory Contract To Silicon Valley Medical Development; Declaration of Richard G. Adcock In Support Thereof

Docket 3521

Tentative Ruling:

11/19/2019

The Motion was not served upon IDX Information Systems Corporation ("IDX"), the counterparty to the contract that the Debtors seek to assume and assign. The Debtors have been advised that IDX does not oppose the Motion.

By no later than November 26, 2019, the Debtors shall file a declaration from IDX confirming its non-opposition to the Motion. Subject to the filing of such a declaration, the Court is prepared to GRANT the Motion.

Pleadings Filed and Reviewed:

- 1) Debtors' Notice [of Motion] and Motion to Approve Assumption and Assignment of a Certain Executory Contract to Silicon Valley Medical Development [Doc. No. 3521] (the "Motion")
 - a) Supplemental Notice Re [Motion] [Doc. No. 3641]

- 2) No opposition to the Motion is on file

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

On August 31, 2018 (the "Petition Date"), Verity Health System of California ("VHS") and certain of its subsidiaries filed voluntary petitions for relief under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. On August 31, 2018, the Court entered an order granting the Debtors' motion for joint administration of the Debtors' Chapter 11 cases. Doc. No. 17. Debtors VHS and Verity Medical Foundation ("VMF") move for an order authorizing the Debtors to assume and assign a contract with IDX (the "IDX Contract") to Silicon Valley Medical Development ("SVMD"). No opposition to the Motion is on file.

Chapter 11

On March 27, 2019, the Court authorized the Debtors to sell certain clinical assets to SVMD (the "SVMD Sale"). In connection with that sale, various executory contracts were assumed and assigned to SVMD. The IDX Contract was among certain vendor and IT agreements that were not assigned in connection with the SVMD Sale, in part because the IDX Contract was used by VMF to operate clinics not subject to the SVMD Sale.

The Debtors, SVMD, and IDX have engaged in discussions regarding the assignment of the IDX Contract to SVMD. IDX has agreed to the assignment of the IDX Contract. SVMD has agreed to pay a cure amount of up to $69,187.74 to IDX as a condition of assumption and assignment.

II. Findings and Conclusions

Section 365(a) provides that a debtor, "subject to the court's approval, may assume or reject any executory contract or unexpired lease of the debtor." In Agarwal v. Pomona Valley Med. Grp. (In re Pomona Valley Med. Grp., Inc.), the Ninth Circuit explained that the business judgment rule governs the Bankruptcy Court's review of the Debtors' decision to assume or reject an executory contract or unexpired lease. Pomona Valley, 476 F.3d 665, 670 (9th Cir. 2007). The Pomona Valley court stated that the Court "need engage in only a cursory review" of the debtor's decision, and "should presume that the debtor-in-possession acted prudently, on an informed basis, in good faith, and in the honest belief that the action taken was in the best interests of the bankruptcy estate." Id.

The Court approves the assumption and assignment of the IDX Contract to SVMD. Assignment of the IDX Contract is in the best interests of the estate because it will complete the SVMD Sale as originally contemplated.

Based upon the foregoing, the Court is prepared to GRANT the Motion, subject to the filing of a declaration from IDX confirming its non-opposition to the Motion.

RE: [3484] Debtors' Motion to Disallow Claim No. 6106 Filed by Stanley Clay Against Verity Health System of California, Inc. (Case No. 2:18-bk-20151-ER);

Docket 3484

Tentative Ruling:

11/19/2019

For the reasons set forth below, the Claim Objection is SUSTAINED and Claim 6106 is DISALLOWED in its entirety.

Pleadings Filed and Reviewed:

- 1) Debtors' Motion to Disallow Claim No. 6106 Filed by Stanley Clay Against Verity Health System of California, Inc. [Doc. Nos. 3426 and 3484 (re-filed as Doc. No. 3484 solely to correct issue with PDF file)] (the "Claim Objection")
 - a) Declaration of Service by Kurtzman Carson Consultants, LLC Regarding Docket Numbers 3424, 3425, 3426 and 3434 [Doc. No. 3568]
- 2) No opposition to the Claim Objection is on file

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

On August 31, 2018 (the "Petition Date"), Verity Health System of California ("VHS") and certain of its subsidiaries (collectively, the "Debtors") filed voluntary petitions for relief under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. On August 31, 2018, the Court entered an order granting the Debtors' motion for joint administration of the Debtors' Chapter 11 cases. Doc. No. 17. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors operated six acute care hospitals (the "Hospitals").

Claim No. 6106, Asserted by Stanley Clay

On April 1, 2019, Stanley Clay (the "Claimant") filed Proof of Claim No. 6106 ("Claim 6106" or the "Claim"). Claim 6106 seeks a recovery in the amount of $1,744,097.40. The Claimant did not check a box indicating which Debtor the Claim is asserted against. The Claimant asserts that the entire Claim is entitled to priority as a contribution to an employee benefit plan. The Claimant provides no other details on the basis or nature of the Claim.

Summary of the Debtors' Objection to Claim No. 6106

Debtors object to the allowability of Claim 6106. No opposition to the Claim Objection is on file. The Debtors make the following arguments in support of the Claim Objection:

Claimant has failed to provide sufficient evidence in support of the allowability of Claim. The Claimant has not attached any supporting documents or addendum to the Claim.

To the extent the Claim is intended to relate to the pension plan guaranteed by the Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation (the "PBGC"), all pension related claims are covered by the proof of claim filed by the PBGC and the treatment of the PBGC's claim under the Debtors' Chapter 11 Plan. There is no need to allow an individual pension claim for the Claimant.

In addition, any claim for an employee benefit plan would be entirely or largely a general unsecured claim. The priority amount of any such claim would be capped at $12,850 under § 507(a)(5).

II. Findings and Conclusions

A. Notice of the Claim Objection was Sufficient

Bankruptcy Rule 3007 requires that a claimant receive not less than 30 days' notice of a claim objection. Here, the Claim Objection was filed on October 21, 2019, but was not served upon Claimant by the Debtors' claims and balloting agent until October 22, 2019—only 29 days prior to the date of the hearing.

Bankruptcy Rule 9006(c) allows the Court to reduce the notice period under Rule 3007 "in its discretion with or without motion or notice" The Court finds that Claimant was not prejudiced by receiving only 29 days' notice of the Claim Objection, as opposed to the 30 days required under Rule 3007. Claimant has not filed any opposition to the Claim Objection.

The Court finds it appropriate to reduce the notice period under Rule 3007 by one day. Therefore, notice of the Claim Objection was sufficient.

B. The Claim is Disallowed

with the Bankruptcy Rules constitutes prima facie evidence of the validity and amount of the claim. To overcome the presumption of validity created by a timely-filed proof of claim, an objecting party must do one of the following: (1) object based on legal grounds and provide a memorandum of points and authorities setting forth the legal basis for the objection; or (2) object based on a factual ground and provide sufficient evidence (usually in the form of declarations under penalty of perjury) to create triable issues of fact. Durkin v. Bendor Corp. (In re G.I. Indus., Inc.), 204 F.3d 1276, 1280 (9th Cir. BAP 2000); United States v. Offord Finance, Inc. (In re Medina), 205 B.R. 216, 222 (9th Cir. BAP 1996); Hemingway Transport, Inc. v. Kahn (In re Hemingway Transport, Inc.), 993 F.2d 915, 925 (1st Cir. 1993). Upon objection, a proof of claim provides "some evidence as to its validity and amount" and is "strong enough to carry over a mere formal objection without more." See Lundell v. Anchor Constr. Spec., Inc., 223 F.3d 1035, 1039 (9th Cir. 2000) (citing Wright v. Holm (In re Holm), 931 F.2d 620, 623 (9th Cir. 1991)). An objecting party bears the burden and must "show facts tending to defeat the claim by probative force equal to that of the allegations of the proofs of claim themselves." Holm, 931 F.2d at 623. When the objector has shown enough evidence to negate one or more facts in the proof of claim, the burden shifts back to the claimant to prove the validity of the claim by a preponderance of evidence. See Lundell, 223 F.3d at 1039 (citation omitted).

The Debtors have provided sufficient evidence to overcome the presumption of validity created by the Claim. The Debtors have provided a declaration from their Chief Executive Officer, Richard Adcock, denying the allegations in the Claim. Adcock Decl. at ¶ 4.

The Claimant has failed to respond to the Claim Objection. Therefore, the Claimant has failed to carry his ultimate burden in support of the validity of the Claim.

In addition, the Claim is duplicative of the proof of claim filed by the PBGC, and is appropriately disallowed on that ground as well.

Based upon the foregoing, the Claim Objection is SUSTAINED and Claim 6106 is DISALLOWED in its entirety. The Debtors shall submit a conforming order, incorporating this tentative ruling by reference, within seven days of the hearing.

Claimant states that he is “not sure” whether the Claim is secured and does not specify any asserted collateral. Claimant lists the value of the unspecified collateral as $2 million, the amount secured as “?” and the amount unsecured as “up to $2 million.”

Claimant asserts priority status under the priorities for (1) wages, salaries, and commissions, (2) taxes and penalties owed to governmental units, and (3) contributions to an employee benefit plan. Claimant does not list the amounts that he asserted are entitled to priority.

Summary of the Debtors’ Objection to Claim No. 3496

Debtors object to the allowability of Claim 3496. No opposition to the Claim Objection is on file. The Debtors make the following arguments in support of the Claim Objection:

Claimant has failed to provide sufficient evidence in support of the allowability of Claim. Claimant did not provide an addendum, any supporting documents, or any other details in support of the Claim.

The Claim lacks factual merit. The Claimant has provided no basis or calculation for his alleged damages.

The Claim is not entitled to priority status and Claimant has provided no information or documentation supporting priority status.

The Claim is not secured and Claimant has provided no information or documentation supporting secured status.

II. Findings and Conclusions

A. Notice of the Claim Objection was Sufficient

Bankruptcy Rule 3007 requires that a claimant receive not less than 30 days’ notice of a claim objection. Here, the Claim Objection was filed on October 21, 2019, but was not served upon Claimant by the Debtors’ claims and balloting agent until October 22, 2019—only 29 days prior to the date of the hearing.

Bankruptcy Rule 9006(c) allows the Court to reduce the notice period under Rule 3007 "in its discretion with or without motion or notice" The Court finds that Claimant was not prejudiced by receiving only 29 days’ notice of the Claim Objection, as opposed to the 30 days required under Rule 3007. Claimant has not filed any opposition to the Claim Objection.

The Court finds it appropriate to reduce the notice period under Rule 3007 by one day. Therefore, notice of the Claim Objection was sufficient.

B. The Claim is Disallowed

Under Bankruptcy Rule 3001(f), a proof of claim executed and filed in accordance with the Bankruptcy Rules constitutes prima facie evidence of the validity and amount of the claim. To overcome the presumption of validity created by a timely-filed proof of claim, an objecting party must do one of the following: (1) object based on legal grounds and provide a memorandum of points and authorities setting forth the legal basis for the objection; or (2) object based on a factual ground and provide sufficient evidence (usually in the form of declarations under penalty of perjury) to create triable issues of fact. Durkin v. Bendor Corp. (In re G.I. Indus., Inc.), 204 F.3d 1276, 1280 (9th Cir. BAP 2000); United States v. Offord Finance, Inc. (In re Medina), 205 B.R. 216, 222 (9th Cir. BAP 1996); Hemingway Transport, Inc. v. Kahn (In re Hemingway Transport, Inc.), 993 F.2d 915, 925 (1st Cir. 1993). Upon objection, a proof of claim provides "some evidence as to its validity and amount" and is "strong enough to carry over a mere formal objection without more." See Lundell v. Anchor Constr. Spec., Inc., 223 F.3d 1035, 1039 (9th Cir. 2000) (citing Wright v. Holm (In re Holm), 931 F.2d 620, 623 (9th Cir. 1991)). An objecting party bears the burden and must "show facts tending to defeat the claim by probative force equal to that of the allegations of the proofs of claim themselves." Holm, 931 F.2d at 623. When the objector has shown enough evidence to negate one or more facts in the proof of claim, the burden shifts back to the claimant to prove the validity of the claim by a preponderance of evidence. See Lundell, 223 F.3d at 1039 (citation omitted).

The Debtors have provided sufficient evidence to overcome the presumption of validity created by the Claim. The Debtors have provided a declaration from their Chief Executive Officer, Richard Adcock, denying the allegations in the Claim. Adcock Decl. at ¶ 2.

The Claimant has failed to respond to the Claim Objection. Therefore, the Claimant has failed to carry his ultimate burden in support of the validity of the Claim.

Based upon the foregoing, the Claim Objection is SUSTAINED and Claim 3496 is DISALLOWED in its entirety. The Debtors shall submit a conforming order, incorporating this tentative ruling by reference, within seven days of the hearing.

Docket 3486

Tentative Ruling:

11/19/2019

For the reasons set forth below, the Claim Objection is SUSTAINED and Claim 5551 is DISALLOWED in its entirety.

Pleadings Filed and Reviewed:

- 1) Debtors' Motion to Disallow Claim No. 5551 Filed by Doris Thompson Against Verity Health System of California, Inc. [Doc. Nos. 3425 and 3486 (re-filed as Doc. No. 3486 solely to correct issue with PDF file)] (the "Claim Objection")

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

On August 31, 2018 (the "Petition Date"), Verity Health System of California ("VHS") and certain of its subsidiaries (collectively, the "Debtors") filed voluntary petitions for relief under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. On August 31, 2018, the Court entered an order granting the Debtors' motion for joint administration of the Debtors' Chapter 11 cases. Doc. No. 17. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors operated six acute care hospitals (the "Hospitals").

Claim No. 5551, Asserted by Doris Thompson

On April 1, 2019, Doris Thompson (the "Claimant") filed Proof of Claim No. 5551 ("Claim 5551" or the "Claim"). Summary of the Debtors' Objection to Claim No. 5551

Debtors object to the allowability of Claim 5551. No opposition to the Claim Objection is on file. The Debtors make the following arguments in support of the Claim Objection:

Claimant has failed to provide sufficient evidence in support of the allowability of Claim. The only evidence in support of the Claim is a police report and a handwritten declaration.

The Claim lacks factual merit. The Debtors have searched their books, records, and occurrence reports and have not found any evidence supporting the existence of the Claim.

The claim is time-barred. In California, the statute of limitations for a personal injury claim is two years from the date of discovery of the injury. See Cal. Civ. Proc. Code § 335.1. The alleged rape occurred nearly six years before the Petition Date and the alleged incident was not reported to the Los Angeles Police Department until over two and a half years after the alleged incident.

There is no sign that Claimant has engaged an attorney or expert witness or filed suit to pursue the Claim at any time since 2012. Therefore, the Claim should be disallowed for laches.

II. Findings and Conclusions

A. Notice of the Claim Objection was Sufficient

Bankruptcy Rule 3007 requires that a claimant receive not less than 30 days' notice of a claim objection. Here, the Claim Objection was filed on October 21, 2019, but was not served upon Claimant by the Debtors' claims and balloting agent until October 22, 2019—only 29 days prior to the date of the hearing.

Bankruptcy Rule 9006(c) allows the Court to reduce the notice period under Rule 3007 "in its discretion with or without motion or notice" The Court finds that Claimant was not prejudiced by receiving only 29 days' notice of the Claim Objection, as opposed to the 30 days required under Rule 3007. Claimant has not filed any opposition to the Claim Objection.

The Court finds it appropriate to reduce the notice period under Rule 3007 by one day. Therefore, notice of the Claim Objection was sufficient.

To overcome the presumption of validity created by a timely-filed proof of claim, an objecting party must do one of the following: (1) object based on legal grounds and provide a memorandum of points and authorities setting forth the legal basis for the objection; or (2) object based on a factual ground and provide sufficient evidence (usually in the form of declarations under penalty of perjury) to create triable issues of fact. *Durkin v. Upon objection, a proof of claim provides "some evidence as to its validity and amount" and is "strong enough to carry over a mere formal objection without more." See *Lundell v. Anchor Constr. See Lundell, 223 F.3d at 1039 (citation omitted).

Section 502 requires the Court to disallow a claim that "is unenforceable against the debtor and the property of the debtor, under any agreement or applicable law for a reason other than because such claim is contingent or unmatured."

Claim 5551 is not enforceable under California law because it is time-barred. Cal. Civ. Proc. Code § 335.1 provides that "[a]n action for assault, battery, or injury to, or for the death of, an individual caused by the wrongful act or neglect of another" must be commenced within two years of the date of discovery of the wrongful conduct. The alleged rape occurred on October 7, 2012. Claimant did not file a police report until nearly 2.5 years after the alleged incident and has still not filed suit against the Debtors. Claimant's failure to pursue her rights prior to expiration of the statute of limitations requires the Court to disallow the Claim.

In addition, the Debtors have provided sufficient evidence to overcome the presumption of validity created by the Claim. The Debtors have provided a declaration from their Chief Executive Officer, Richard Adcock, which states that the Debtors have searched their books, records, and occurrence reports and have found no against Debtor St. Francis Medical Center of Lynwood Foundation. The basis for the Claim is “personal injury, malpractice, neglect of statutory duty.”

Summary of the Debtors’ Objection to Claim No. 6561

Debtors object to the allowability of Claim 6561. No opposition to the Claim Objection is on file. The Debtors make the following arguments in support of the Claim Objection:

Claimant has failed to provide sufficient evidence in support of the allowability of Claim. Claimant did not provide an addendum, any supporting documents, or any other details in support of the Claim.

The Claim should be disallowed under Civil Rule 12(b)(6) or its state law equivalent. The Claim does not contain sufficient factual allegations to state a viable and legally recognized cause of action.

The Claim lacks factual merit. The Debtors have searched their books, records, and occurrence reports and have not found any evidence supporting the existence of the Claim. The named Debtor in the Claim, St. Francis Medical Center of Lynwood Foundation, does not deliver medical services and would not be involved in any alleged “personal injury, malpractice, or neglect of statutory duty.” Claimant has provided no basis or calculation for her alleged damages of $1 million.

The Claim does not include an authorized signature. Claimant’s alleged agent, Samuel Kenneth Porter, signed the Claim, but there is no written power of attorney attached to the Claim showing that Mr. Porter had authority to sign the Claim on behalf of the Claimant.

There is no sign that Claimant has engaged an attorney or expert witness or filed suit to pursue the Claim at any time since the beginning of 2014. Therefore, the Claim should be disallowed for laches.

The Debtors have provided sufficient evidence to overcome the presumption of validity created by the Claim. The Debtors have provided a declaration from their Chief Executive Officer, Richard Adcock, which states that the Debtors have searched their books, records, and occurrence reports and have found no evidence supporting the existence of the Claim. Adcock Decl. at ¶ 4. The Adcock Declaration further establishes that the named Debtor in the Claim, St. Francis Medical Center of Lynwood Foundation, does not deliver medical services and therefore could not have been involved in any alleged "personal injury, malpractice or neglect of statutory duty." Id.

The Claimant has failed to respond to the Claim Objection. Therefore, the Claimant has failed to carry her ultimate burden in support of the validity of the Claim.

In addition, the Claim is defective because it has not been signed by the Claimant. Although the Claim has been signed by Samuel Kenneth Porter, allegedly in his capacity as the Claimant's agent, there is no evidence attached indicating that Mr. Porter is in fact the Claimant's agent.

Based upon the foregoing, the Claim Objection is SUSTAINED and Claim 6561 is DISALLOWED in its entirety. The Debtors shall submit a conforming order, incorporating this tentative ruling by reference, within seven days of the hearing.

For the reasons set forth below, the Claim Objection is SUSTAINED and Claim 2940 is DISALLOWED in its entirety.

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

On August 31, 2018 (the "Petition Date"), Verity Health System of California ("VHS") and certain of its subsidiaries (collectively, the "Debtors") filed voluntary petitions for relief under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. On August 31, 2018, the Court entered an order granting the Debtors' motion for joint administration of the Debtors' Chapter 11 cases. Doc. No. 17. Claim No. 2940, Asserted by Marc Levy

On February 28, 2019, Marc Levy (the "Claimant") filed Proof of Claim No. 2940 ("Claim 2940" or the "Claim"). Claim 2940 seeks a recovery of $500 million against Debtor Verity Medical Foundation ("VMF"). Claimant alleges that "[i]n 2014, after spending one full year against my will in a California locked mental institution, called

Debtors object to the allowability of Claim 2940. No opposition to the Claim Objection is on file. The Debtors make the following arguments in support of the Claim Objection:

Claimant has failed to provide sufficient evidence in support of the allowability of Claim. The only evidence in support of the Claim is a one-page addendum.

The Claim should be disallowed under Civil Rule 12(b)(6) or its state law equivalent. The Claim does not contain sufficient factual allegations to state a viable and legally recognized cause of action.

The claim is time-barred. In California, the statute of limitations for a personal injury claim is two years from the date of discovery of the injury. See Cal. Civ. Proc. Code § 335.1. The allegedly wrongful conduct began in 2014, yet Claimant took no action to enforce his rights until the filing of Claim 2940.

The Claim lacks factual merit. The Debtors have searched their books, records, and occurrence reports and have not found any evidence supporting the existence of the Claim.

There is no sign that Claimant has engaged an attorney or expert witness or filed suit to pursue the Claim at any time since the beginning of 2014. Therefore, the Claim should be disallowed for laches.

Section 502 requires the Court to disallow a claim that "is unenforceable against the debtor and the property of the debtor, under any agreement or applicable law for a reason other than because such claim is contingent or unmatured."

Claim 2940 is not enforceable under California law because it is time-barred. Cal. Civ. Proc. Code § 335.1 provides that "[a]n action for assault, battery, or injury to, or for the death of, an individual caused by the wrongful act or neglect of another" must be commenced within two years of the date of discovery of the wrongful conduct. The Claim's allegations that the Claimant was wrongfully detained against his will fall within the scope of Cal. Civ. Proc. Code § 335.1. The allegedly wrongful conduct commenced in 2014. There is no indication that the Claimant took any legal action to enforce his rights prior to the filing of the Claim Objection on February 28, 2019. Claimant's failure to pursue his rights prior to expiration of the statute of limitations requires the Court to disallow the Claim.

In addition, the Debtors have provided sufficient evidence to overcome the presumption of validity created by the Claim. The Debtors have provided a declaration from their Chief Executive Officer, Richard Adcock, which states that the Debtors have searched their books, records, and occurrence reports and have found no evidence supporting the existence of the Claim. Adcock Decl. at ¶ 4.

The Claimant has failed to respond to the Claim Objection. Therefore, the Claimant has failed to carry his ultimate burden in support of the validity of the Claim.

Based upon the foregoing, the Claim Objection is SUSTAINED and Claim 2940 is DISALLOWED in its entirety. The Debtors shall submit a conforming order, incorporating this tentative ruling by reference, within seven days of the hearing.

Appearances required.

The Court has approved multiple continuances of this matter to enable the parties to negotiate a settlement. The most recent continuance was granted by way of an order entered on November 6, 2019 [Doc. No. 3547] (the "Order"). The Order provided that "[n]o further continuances will be granted absent a showing of compelling circumstances," and directed the parties to file a Status Report describing the progress made toward memorializing the settlement.

The Status Report filed by the parties contains little to assure the Court that the parties are making meaningful progress toward finalizing a settlement. In relevant part, the Status Report provides: "[W]hile the Purchaser and Seoul Medical Group, Inc. have continued to make progress toward documenting their agreement, they need more time to finalize such documentation because the parties are still reviewing a proposed amendment to the Risk Sharing Agreement and have not yet reached a final decision." Status Report at ¶ 9.

The parties shall appear to provide the Court with further information regarding the reasons why they have been unable to reach a settlement. The initial hearing on this matter took place on July 10, 2019. In the Court's view, the parties have had more than sufficient time to conclude this matter.

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

Debtor Hakop Jack Aivazian (the "Debtor") commenced a voluntary Chapter 11 petition on October 16, 2018. Debtor oversaw the administration of the Chapter 11 case, until this Court entered an order converting this matter to Chapter 7 on January 17, 2019 [Doc. No. 31]. Brad D. Krasnoff was subsequently appointed as Chapter 7 trustee (the "Trustee") [Doc. No. 33].

Chapter 7

On his Schedule A/B, the Debtor claims an ownership interest as joint tenant with his non-filing spouse in a real estate parcel, improved with a multi-unit apartment building, located at 1728-1730-1734 E. Woodbury Avenue, Pasadena, California 91104 (the "Property") with an estimated value of $1.54 million [Doc. No. 14]. Debtor's revised schedules [Doc. No. 127] indicate the Property is encumbered with liens totaling $744,060. See Motion, Ex. 1 [Settlement Agreement], ¶ E. Debtor's Amended Schedule G further alludes to the existence of four rental agreements between Debtor and third parties regarding the Property.

On April 19, 2019, the Debtor motioned the Court for the dismissal of the instant petition given the anticipated refinance of the Property for a loan amount of $1,084,000 [the "Dismissal Motion"], which would have yielded Debtor a net sum of $162,103.05 [Doc. No. 50]. The Court denied the Dismissal Motion, concluding such relief was not in the best interest of creditors as Trustee was in the process of evaluating whether the Property contained any administrable equity [Doc. No. 67]. In addition, the Court notes that the claims bar date elapsed on August 5, 2019: claims were filed in the total amount of $1,370,912.11, of which $1,352,213.41 were secured and $18,698.70 were unsecured claims. Motion at 3.

As set forth in the Motion and Exhibit 1 attached thereto, the Trustee and Debtor reached a resolution concerning the Property, and presently seek approval of their settlement agreement (the "Settlement Agreement"), providing in relevant part that:

1. The Debtor shall tender the sum of $162,103.05 (the "Compromise Sum") to the Trustee within ninety (90) days from the entry of an order approving the Settlement Agreement;
2. The Trustee agrees to cooperate with the Debtor's plan to refinance the Property by, inter alia, depositing into a refinancing escrow account a quitclaim deed to the Property in exchange for the Compromise Sum;
3. In the event that Debtor fails to tender the Compromise Sum, the Debtor stipulates to the entry of a judgment to sell the Property as an estate asset without further litigation (the "Stipulated Judgment") (see Motion, Ex. A);
4. Upon timely and full payment of the Compromise Sum, the Stipulated Judgment shall become null and void;
5. The Debtor shall waive the right to file a proof of claim against any portion of the Compromise Sum; and
6. After all administrative expenses and allowed claims are satisfied, the Trustee agrees to pay Debtor any surplus remaining in the Compromise Sum.

Motion at 4-5; Ex. 1.

Given that the Settlement Agreement will generate immediate estate funds, while mitigating administrative expense, the Trustee submits that the proposed settlement is reasonable, adequate under the circumstances, and in the best interest of creditors pursuant to the factors enumerated in A & C Properties.

As of the preparation of this tentative ruling, no opposition is on file.

II. Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law

Bankruptcy Rule 9019(a) permits the Court to approve a compromise or settlement. In the Ninth Circuit, courts consider the following factors in determining the fairness, reasonableness and adequacy of a proposed settlement agreement:

- (a) The probability of success in the litigation;
- (b) the difficulties, if any, to be encountered in the matter of collection;
- (c) the complexity of the litigation involved, and the expense, inconvenience and delay necessarily attending it;
- (d) the paramount interest of the creditors and a proper deference to their reasonable views in the premises.

Martin v. Kane (In re A&C Properties), 784 F.2d 1377, 1381 (9th Cir. 1986).

"Each factor need not be treated in a vacuum; rather, the factors should be considered as a whole to determine whether the settlement compares favorably with the expected rewards of litigation." In re Western Funding Inc., 550 B.R. 841, 851 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 2016). Furthermore, "compromises are favored in bankruptcy, and the decision of the bankruptcy judge to approve or disapprove the compromise of the parties rests in the sound discretion of the bankruptcy judge." In re Sassalos, 160 B.R. 646, 653 (D. Ore. 1993). In approving a settlement agreement, the Court must "canvass the issues and see whether the settlement 'falls below the lowest point in the range of reasonableness.'" Cosoff v. Rodman (In re W.T. Grant Co.), 699 F.2d 599, 608 (2d Cir. 1983).

Chapter 7

Here, the Court finds that the Settlement Agreement is adequate, fair and reasonable, and in the best interest of the estate in accordance with the A&C Properties factors. Accordingly, the Trustee expresses confidence that estate would likely prevail in litigation, however not without delay and legal expenses. Even if the Property were recovered, any realized equity available to creditors would be further diminished to satisfy capital gain taxes due upon sale. Furthermore, the Court notes that the Settlement Agreement will generate a sizeable pool of funds for the estate upon the refinancing of the Property. Even if the Debtor fails to deliver payment of the Compromise Sum as accorded, the Settlement Agreement provides an expedient resolution through the entry of the Stipulated Judgment. For this reason, the Settlement Agreement adequately considers the interests of creditors, and it reduces the likelihood of litigation, thereby avoiding unnecessary costs, delays, and uncertainties. In sum, the Court determines that the Trustee satisfied the first, third, and fourth A & C factors. The factual record is not sufficiently developed to enable the Court to reach a determination as to the second factor. Therefore, the majority of A & C factors weigh in favor of the Settlement Agreement.

Moreover, the Court has not received any objection to the Motion. Accordingly, pursuant to LBR 9013-1(h), the Court presumes all interested parties consent to approval of the Settlement Agreement.

III. Conclusion

For the reasons set forth above, the Motion is GRANTED, and the Settlement Agreement is APPROVED.

#102.00 HearingRE: [8] Application to Employ Northcap Commercial as Real Estate Broker
Declarations Christina M. De Musee and Glenda Shaw; Statement of Disinterestedness

Docket 8

Tentative Ruling:

11/19/2019

For the reasons set forth below, the Employment Application is GRANTED with employment effective as of October 4, 2019.

Pleadings Filed and Reviewed

1. Application by Chapter 11 Debtor and Debtor in Possession to Employ Northcap Commercial [sic] as Debtor's Real Estate Broker [Doc. No. 8] (the "Employment Application")
2. Palco Promotions, Inc.'s Objection to Employment Application and Request for Hearing [Doc. No. 14] (the "Objection")
3. Notice of Hearing on Application for Employment of Real Estate Broker [Doc. No. 17] (the "Notice of Hearing")
4. Applicant Reply to Creditor's Objection to the Motion to Employ Real Estate Agent (the "Reply") [Doc. No. 20]

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

C & F Sturm, LLC (the "Debtor") filed a voluntary chapter 11 petition on October 1, 2019. On October 7, 2019, the Debtor filed an employment application to retain the services of Northcap Commercial (the "Real Estate Broker") to market and sell commercial real estate in Las Vegas, Nevada, pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 327(a) and 330, effective as of October 4, 2019 (the "Employment Application") [Doc. No. 8]. Pursuant to the Employment Application, the services by the Real Estate Broker will consist of marketing and selling two real estate parcels generally described as 511 and 515 Las Vegas Boulevard South, Las Vegas, NV (the "Properties"), with a listing price of $1,795,000. Employment Application, Ex. 1. Upon sale of the Properties, the Real Estate Broker will be compensated with a 6% commission of the final gross purchase price; final compensation will be governed under §328(a). Employment Application at 1, ¶¶ 6-7; see Ex. A at 5 [the Declaration of Glenda K. Shaw].

Creditor Palco Promotions, Inc. (the "Creditor") filed an objection in response to the Employment Application and requested a hearing thereon [Doc. No. 14] (the "Objection"). Notably, the Objection articulates no contentions whatsoever against the Real Estate Broker's competence, fees, effective date of employment, or disinterestedness. Instead, the Creditor orients its objection squarely against the Debtor, contending that this bankruptcy petition was not filed in good faith. Specifically, Creditor's principal, Louis Palazzo, attests that the proposed listing price for the Properties of $1,795,000 is substantially lower than the minimum sales price of $2,100,000 mandated under a 2012 settlement agreement (the "2012 Settlement Agreement") executed by Christina M. De Musee, acting as the Debtor's manager [Note 1]. Declaration of Louis Palazzo ("Palazzo Decl."), ¶¶ 3-6; Ex. A. Pursuant to said settlement agreement, the Creditor asserts that it was entitled to 50% of any sales proceeds above $1,400,000, theoretically aggregating to a $350,000 payout based on a $2,100,000 purchase price. Palazzo Decl., ¶¶ 3-6. Because the Broker Listing Agreement (see Employment Application, Ex. A) lists the Properties' purchase price at $1,795,000, the Creditor argues it stands to lose $152,500 if the sale is consummated on these terms. However, it is unclear what relief is sought in the Objection—the Creditor questions whether Debtor truly needs to retain bankruptcy counsel and requests that the Court "apply the necessary scrutiny...to the instant bankruptcy petition." Palazzo Decl., ¶ 8.

On November 5, 2019, the Debtor filed the Reply. In response to the Objection, the Debtor counters that the Employment Application should be approved given that Creditor has failed to offer any reason why the Real Estate Broker is not qualified or otherwise eligible for employment.

The Debtor posits that the gravamen of the Objection boils down to the listing price. The Debtor further explains that the parties intended to sell the Properties years ago pursuant to a 2007 settlement agreement, which is referenced in the 2012 Settlement Agreement. See Reply at 2; Objection, Ex. A (2012 Settlement Agreement) at 1, Section II(1)(a). Based on the 2012 Settlement Agreement, the Debtor asserts that the parties agreed to take turns marketing the Properties in 6-month intervals until a sale was finalized. However, according to the Debtor, the Creditor has not hired any brokers and does not intend to sell the Properties, thereby forcing a foreclosure sale. Reply at 2. As the Properties have since failed to sell at the $2,100,000 price, and because the Debtor has absorbed burdensome maintenance expenses, it intends to proceed with the sale of the Properties. Id. at 3. In sum, the Debtor submits that the arguments raised in the Objection are better suited in response to a sale motion.

Finally, with respect to the bad faith allegations, the Debtor claims that it sought bankruptcy protections in good faith as it has a negative cash flow and real properties that are not generating any income.

II. Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law

Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 327(a), a debtor-in-possession may employ a professional or professional organization that does not hold or represent an interest adverse to the estate, and that qualifies as a disinterested person, to represent or assist the debtor-in-possession in carrying out the debtor-in-possession duties under Title 11. Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2014, an employment application brought under § 327 must state:

the specific facts showing the necessity for the employment, the name of the person to be employed, the reasons for the selection, the professional services to be rendered, any proposed arrangement for compensation, and, to the best of the applicant's knowledge, all of the person's connections with the debtor, creditors, any other party in interest, their respective attorneys and accountants, the United States trustee, or any person employed in the office of the United States trustee.

Fed. R. Bankr. P. 2014(a). Additionally, LBR 2014-1(b)(3)(A)-(E) sets forth a list of information to be included in any notice of an employment application.

Having reviewed the Employment Application, the Declaration of Christina M. De Musee, the Brokerage Listing Agreement, the Declaration of Glenda K. Shaw, the Statement of Disinterestedness, and the Notice of Hearing, the Court determines that the Employment Application contains sufficient information to satisfy the requirements of Bankruptcy Rule 2014 and LBR 2014-1(b)(3). The Court further finds that the arguments raised in the Objection do not challenge the veracity or sufficiency of the information supporting the Employment Application. The Objection essentially pertains to facts predating the Debtor's engagement with the Real Estate Broker. At this stage, the Court will not make any substantive findings on the record presented by Creditor. In short, the points argued in opposition are wholly inapposite with respect to the Employment Application; that being so, the Court OVERRULES the Objection.

III. Conclusion

For the reasons set forth above, the Employment Application is GRANTED with employment effective as of October 4, 2019, with compensation pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 328(a).

The Debtor is directed to lodge a conforming proposed order within 7 days of the hearing.

No appearance is required if submitting on the court's tentative ruling. If you intend to submit on the tentative ruling, please contact Daniel Koontz or Carlos Nevarez at 213-894-1522. If you intend to contest the tentative ruling and appear, please first contact opposing counsel to inform them of your intention to do so. Should an opposing party file a late opposition or appear at the hearing, the court will determine whether further hearing is required. If you wish to make a telephonic appearance, contact Court Call at 888-882-6878, no later than one hour before the hearing.

Note 1: Based on its review of Exhibit A of the Objection, the Court notes that the Debtor and Creditor entered into the 2012 Settlement Agreement, as resolution of an action filed in the Eight Judicial District Court of Clark County, Nevada, captioned Palco Promotions, Inc. v. C&F Sturm, LLC, Case No. A490283.

Docket 40

Tentative Ruling:

11/21/2019

For the reasons set forth herein, CONTINUE HEARING to December 9, 2019 at 10:00 a.m. The proof of service [Doc. No. 40] does not reflect that the Motion was served on all lienholders in a manner authorized by Fed. R. Bankr. P. 7004. To the extent any of the lienholders are insured depository institutions, Bankruptcy Rule 7004(h) generally requires that, subject to limited exceptions, an insured depository institution be served by certified mail addressed to an officer of the institution.

Moreover, Movant has failed to include any evidentiary support indicating that the senior lienholder's claim currently stands at $454,274.71 as alleged. See Motion at 8.

Based on the foregoing, by no later than December 2, 2019, Movant is directed to take the following actions: (i) file a notice of continued hearing ("Notice") on the docket; (ii) serve the Notice on all interested parties pursuant to applicable federal and local rules; and (iii) file a proof of service evidencing compliance with this ruling. As part of the amended motion, Movant may submit supplemental information concerning the senior lienholder's current claim, if capable of doing so. Failure to timely comply with any of the foregoing may result in denial of the Motion, or in further delay of the requested relief.

No appearance is required if submitting on the court's tentative ruling. If you intend to submit on the tentative ruling, please contact Daniel Koontz or Carlos Nevarez at 213-894-1522. If you intend to contest the tentative ruling and appear, please first contact opposing counsel to inform them of your intention to do so. Should an opposing party file a late opposition or appear at the hearing, the court will determine whether further hearing is required. Docket 26

Tentative Ruling:

11/22/2019

For the reasons set forth below, the Motion is GRANTED.

Pleadings Filed and Reviewed

1. Notice of Motion and Motion for Relief from the Automatic Stay Under 11 U.S.C. § 362 (Personal Property) [Doc. No. 26] (the "Motion")
2. Response to Motion for Relief from Stay (Personal Property) Filed by BMO Harris Bank, N.A. [Doc. No. 32] (the "Opposition")
3. BMO Harris Bank N.A.'s Reply to the Debtor's Response to Notice of Motion and Motion for Relief from Automatic Stay [Personal Property] (the "Reply") [Doc. No 33.]

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

Debtor Meiqing Sun (the "Debtor") filed a voluntary Chapter 7 petition on September 19, 2019 (the "Petition Date"). The Chapter 7 Trustee issued a "Report of No Distribution" on October 25, 2019 [Doc. No. 24]. BMO Harris Bank, N.A. (the "Movant") thereafter filed the instant Motion on October 30, 2019.

The Movant presently seeks relief from the automatic stay with respect to, inter alia, two Volvo VNL Series tractor trucks (individually, the "2015 Tractor" and the "2016 Tractor") (collectively, the "Personal Property") pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d) (1) and (d)(2). On or about March and December 2015, Movant entered into two loan agreements with Sun USA Enterprise, Inc. ("Sun USA"), the Debtor's dba, which were collateralized by the Personal Property (the "Loan and Security Agreements").

Motion, Exs. 3-5. Movant claims that it holds a security interest in the Personal Property by virtue of 1) the Loan and Security Agreements, each guaranteed by the Debtor (Exs. 4, 5), and the 2) recorded certificate of title on the Personal Property, which evidences Movant's interests therein (Ex. 9). See Declaration of Kimberley Mundt ("Mundt Decl.") ¶ 4.

Movant asserts that cause exists to grant it relief from the automatic stay because it holds a total claim of $306,543.99 based on a pre-petition default judgment entered in state court against the Debtor and Sun USA for damages arising from, and to recover possession of, the Personal Property. See Motion, Ex. 1. Movant further argues for relief because its interest is not adequately protected by an equity cushion because Movant's $306,543.99 claim is greater than the fair market value of the Personal Property, and proof of insurance has not been provided to Movant. Movant asserts that the Personal Property has fair market value of $117,225 (Ex. 2). In support of its valuation, Movant states:

"This is the value stated for property of this year, make, model, and general features in the reference guide most commonly used [as] source for valuation data used by Movant in the ordinary course of its business for determining the value of this type of property."

Mundt Decl., ¶ 10(a).

Aside from referencing the Black Book value estimates attached as Exhibit 2, the Movant neglects to clarify which particular figures it relied upon in reaching its aggregate valuation of $117,225. However, upon reviewing Exhibit 2, it is clear to the Court that Movant based its valuation by adding the average wholesale values for the 2015 Tractor ($51,400) and the 2016 Tractor ($65,825).

Debtor's Opposition

Debtor filed a response to the Motion, mostly focusing on arguments raised in a separate motion filed for relief from stay against real property owned by Debtor [Note 1]. With respect to merits of this Motion, the Debtor contends that Movant is not entitled to the requested relief, noting that this bankruptcy proceeding "is separate and apart from her business." Opposition at 2. Debtor fails to expound on this conclusory allegation any further and concedes the Motion: "Debtor is agreeable to a modified stay order allowing Movant being allowed to repossess these two vehicles." Opposition at 4.

Movant's Reply

On reply, the Movant recaps many of the facts asserted on its moving papers and points out that Debtor has not addressed these substantive arguments. Additionally, Movant cites statutory and case law authority in support of the argument that the automatic stay did not apply to the Personal Property in the first place. See Reply at 3. Movant appears to assert this argument for the first time in the Reply. Accordingly, the Debtor's status as guarantor on the Loan and Security Agreements only entitles her to a potential right of redemption against the Personal Property: "[a] debtor [or] any secondary obligor...may redeem the collateral." See Cal. Comm. Code § 9623. Movant further argues that California and Ninth Circuit case law prescribe that debtors seeking to exercise redemption must fully satisfy all debt obligations against an asset. In re Bialac, 712 F.2d 426, 430 (9th Cir. 1983) ([r]edemption can be had only by satisfying "all" obligations, which clearly implicates the obligations of co-debtors); see Clark Equipment Co. v. Mastelotto, Inc., 87 Cal. App. 3d 88, 94 (1978). Finally, the Movant relies on Boucher v. Shaw in support of the proposition that the automatic stay "does not protect non-debtor parties or their property." 572 F.3d 1087, 1092 (9th Cir. 2009).

II. Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law

Under 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1), the Court shall grant relief if the movant's interest in the property is not protected by an adequate equity cushion. Pursuant to § 362(g)(1), "the party requesting such relief has the burden of proof on the issue of the debtor's equity in property." Under 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(2), the court shall grant relief from the stay if "(A) the debtor does not have any equity in such property; and (B) such property is not necessary for an effective reorganization."

Movant contends that cause exists to grant relief from stay because its interest in the Property is not protected by an adequate equity cushion. The Movant has proffered Black Book value estimates, indicating that the Personal Property is collectively valued at $117,225 as of October 16, 2019. Motion, Ex. 2. Therefore, the

Court finds that Movant carried its initial burden pursuant to § 362(g)(1).

With respect to grounds asserted under § 362(d)(2), Movant has established that the Debtor has no equity left in the Property because Movant's claim of $306,543.99 surpasses the combined fair market value of the Personal Property, which is approximately $117,225. The Debtor does not dispute these valuation figures and concedes to the repossession of the Personal Property. Therefore, Debtor's equity in the Personal Property is -$189,318.99. As the Debtor has no equity in the Personal Property, and has not otherwise made any adequate protection payments, the Court determines that the Movant also prevails on § 362(d)(1) grounds as its interest is not adequately protected.

III. Conclusion

For the reasons set forth above, the Motion is GRANTED to permit Movant, its successors, transferees and assigns, to enforce its remedies to repossess or otherwise obtain possession and dispose of its collateral pursuant to applicable law, and to use the proceeds from its disposition to satisfy its claim. Movant may not pursue any deficiency claim against the Debtor or property of the estate except by filing a proof of claim pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 501.

This order shall be binding and effective despite any conversion of the bankruptcy case to a case under any other chapter of Title 11 of the United States Code. The 14-day stay prescribed by FRBP 4001(a)(3) is waived. All other relief is denied.

Movant shall upload an appropriate order via the Court's Lodged Order Upload system within 7 days of the hearing.

#102.00 HearingRE: [25] Notice of motion and motion for relief from the automatic stay with supporting declarations REAL PROPERTY RE: 971 Rose Street, Colton, California 92324 .

Docket 25

Tentative Ruling:

For the reasons set forth below, the Motion is GRANTED.

Pleadings Filed and Reviewed

1. Notice of Motion and Motion for Relief from the Automatic Stay Under 11 U.S.C. § 362 (Real Property) [Doc. No. 25] (the "Real Property Motion")
2. Response to Motion for Relief from Stay (Real Property) Filed by BMO Harris Bank, N.A. (the "Opposition") [Doc. No. 31]
3. BMO Harris Bank N.A.'s Reply to the Debtor's Response to Notice of Motion and Motion for Relief from Automatic Stay [Real Property] (the "Reply") [Doc. No. 34]

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

Debtor Meiqing Sun (the "Debtor") filed a voluntary Chapter 7 petition on September 19, 2019 (the "Petition Date"). The Chapter 7 Trustee issued a "Report of No Distribution" on October 25, 2019 [Doc. No. 24]. BMO Harris Bank, N.A. (the "Movant") filed the instant Motion on October 30, 2019. The Movant seeks relief from the automatic stay with respect to real property located at 971 Rose Street, Colton, California 92324 (the "Property"). Debtor's Schedule C indicates that Flagstar Bank holds a senior lien against the Property in the amount of $169,869.42. See Motion, Ex. 4 at 71.

Movant appears to assert an interest in the Property by virtue of being a judgment lienholder. See Motion at 6. Accordingly, on September 16, 2016, Movant obtained a default judgment in state court against both the Debtor and Sun USA Enterprise, Inc., the Debtor's dba, in the amount of $504,645.37 (the "Judgment"). Motion, Ex. 1. An abstract of judgment was recorded on September 29, 2016. See Motion, Ex. 2 at 29.

Chapter 7

On June 6, 2019, a writ of execution was granted in favor of Movant against the Property (the "Writ of Execution"). Id. at 63. Pursuant to the Writ of Execution, the San Bernardino County Sheriff's Office levied the Debtor's interest in the Property on June 25, 2019. Id. at 60-01.

Pursuant to § 362(d)(1) and (d)(2), Movant argues that cause exists to grant it relief from the automatic stay because Movant's interest is not adequately protected by an equity cushion as the sum of Movant's claim ($306,543.99) and the senior lien ($169,869) is higher than the fair market value of the Property, which is $346,647 [Note 1]. See Motion at 8. The Property's fair market value is based on the Debtor's own estimate as provided in Schedule A/B. Motion, Ex. 4.

Debtor's opposition does not clearly articulate any points that substantively address the gravamen of the Motion. From what the Court gathered, the Debtor contends that the Motion should be denied because 1) Movant failed to address Debtor's exemption in the Property and 2) the Trustee issued a "No Distribution Report." Debtor does not explain why these details would preclude Movant's requested relief, and instead appears to conflate the legal considerations relevant to a § 522(f) lien avoidance motion. Opposition at 2 ("[t]he question here is simple – may Debtor claim an exemption within her real property to avoid a judicial lien? The answer is clearly yes.").

On reply, the Movant reasserts the principal arguments made in the Motion, i.e., that Movant's interest in the Property is not adequately protected and Debtor has no equity therein. Furthermore, Movant responds to Debtor's inapposite arguments, explaining why the Debtor has not claimed a valid homestead exemption in the Property under California law [Note 2]. In sum, the Movant requests that the Court lift the automatic stay "to levy upon and sell the [Property]."

II. Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law

11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1)

Under 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1), the Court shall grant relief from the stay "for cause, including the lack of adequate protection of an interest in property of such party in interest."

Chapter 7

Movant contends that cause exists to grant relief from stay because its interest in the Property is not protected by an adequate equity cushion. In the Ninth Circuit, "[a] 20% [equity] cushion has been held to be an adequate protection for a secured creditor." In re Mellor, 734 F.2d 1396, 1401 (9th Cir. 1984). Pursuant to section 362(g)(1), Movant has the burden of proof on the issue of the Debtors' equity in the property. 11 U.S.C. § 362(g)(1).

Here, Movant establishes that the fair market value of the Property is $346,647 as represented by Debtor in her commencement documents. See Motion, Ex. 10 at 38. The Court finds Debtor's own estimation made on or about September 19, 2019 to be an accurate measure of the Property's fair market value. See Collier on Bankruptcy ¶ 362.07 (16th 2018) (Recognizing timing of valuation for purposes of adequate protection is not settled law but concluding that determining value as of the date protection is sought will often be most consistent with the Code scheme). Movant further argues that its interest in the Property is not adequately protected because Debtor has an equity cushion of $0 therein. See Motion at 8. The Court agrees with the Movant as the sum of all liens encumbering the Property, exclusive of sale costs, is approximately $476,413.41, leaving an equity cushion of approximately -$129,766.41. In sum, given that Debtor has no equity cushion in the Property and has evidently not made any adequate protection payments, the Movant is entitled to relief from stay pursuant to § 362(d)(1).

The Debtor contends that the Motion should be denied because Movant has not and cannot challenge her alleged homestead exemption in the Property. Debtor's opposing arguments are inapposite. As noted above, the remarks concerning the Debtor's homestead exemption are considerations more suitably asserted in a lien avoidance motion, not in opposition to relief from stay. The purpose of a relief from stay motion is to determine whether the automatic stay will be terminated, annulled, or otherwise modified as to particular estate assets, but not to determine the validity of an underlying lien. See §362(d); see also Hon. Alan M. Ahart, et al., Cal. Pract. Guide: Bankruptcy (The Rutter Group 2019) at Ch. 8(II)-C. Furthermore, the Court notes that Debtor has otherwise failed to challenge any of the Movant's grounds for relief.

Based on the foregoing, the Motion is granted pursuant to section 362(d)(1) as

Movant's interest in the Property is not adequately protected.

11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(2)

Under 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(2), the court shall grant relief from the stay if "(A) the debtor does not have any equity in such property; and (B) such property is not necessary for an effective reorganization." Since a chapter 7 case does not contemplate reorganization, the sole issue before the Court when stay relief is sought under 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(2) is whether the Debtor has equity in the property. See, e.g., Martens v. Countrywide Home Loans (In re Martens), 331 B.R. 395, 398 (B.A.P. 8th Cir. 2005); Ramco Indus. v. Preuss (In re Preuss), 15 B.R. 896, 897 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 1981).

As this case was brought under chapter 7, the only relevant consideration under § 362(d)(2) is whether the Debtor has any equity in the Property. For the same reasons stated above, the Motion is granted pursuant to § 362(d)(2) because the Debtor has no equity in the Property.

III. Conclusion

For the reasons set forth above, the Motion is GRANTED pursuant to §362(d)(1) and (d)(2) to permit Movant, its successors, transferees and assigns, to enforce its remedies to repossess or otherwise obtain possession and dispose of its collateral pursuant to applicable law, and to use the proceeds from its disposition to satisfy its claim. #103.00 HearingRE: [7] Notice of motion and motion for relief from the automatic stay with supporting declarations REAL PROPERTY RE: 18771 Flagstaff Lane, Huntington Beach, California 92646 . (Landa, Anna)

Docket 7

Tentative Ruling:

11/22/2019

Tentative Ruling:

This Motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on the notice required by LBR 4001(c)(1) and LBR 9013-1(d)(2). The failure of the Debtor, the trustee, and all other parties in interest to file written opposition at least 14 days prior to the hearing as required by LBR 9013-1(f) is considered as consent to the granting of the Motion. LBR 9013-1(h). Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995).

The Court finds that there is sufficient evidence to grant relief pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(4). The Debtor filed this voluntary Chapter 7 case on October 7, 2019. On May 17, 2005, Dominic Caruso and Stacey L. Caruso (the "Borrowers") executed a security instrument secured by real property located at 18771 Flagstaff Lane, Huntington Beach, California (the "Property"). See Motion, Ex. 1. As set forth on Exhibit 4 of the Motion, the Borrowers purportedly granted the Debtor an interest in the Property in the amount of $5,700 through a deed a trust. The deed of trust is dated August 16, 2019, fifty-one days before this case was filed. See Motion, Ex. 4. Nevertheless, Debtor's commencement documents do not reflect that she possesses any interests in real property. Doc. No. 1. In fact, the record in the instant case indicates that Debtor has no contractual obligations, or is otherwise in privity of contract, with either the Borrowers or the Movant. Based on the foregoing, the Court determines that in rem relief under § 362(d)(4) is suitable. Notwithstanding, the Court cannot conclude that Debtor herself has actually engaged in any bad faith conduct, or that the instant case is part of a scheme to delay, hinder, and defraud creditors. See In re Dorsey, 476 B.R. 261, 267 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2012) ("[section] 362(d)(4) 'does not

The 14-day period specified in Fed.R.Bankr.P. 4001(a)(3) is waived. This order shall be binding and effective despite any conversion of the bankruptcy case to a case under any other chapter of Title 11 of the United States Code. If recorded in compliance with applicable State laws governing notices of interests or liens in real property, the order shall be binding in any other case under this title purporting to affect the Property filed not later than 2 years after the date of the entry of such order by the Court, except that a debtor in a subsequent case under this title may move for relief from such order based upon changed circumstances or for good cause shown, after notice and a hearing. Any Federal, State, or local governmental unit that accepts notices of interests or liens in real property shall accept a certified copy of this order for indexing and recording. Docket 7

Tentative Ruling:

11/21/2019

Tentative Ruling:

This Motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on the notice required by LBR 4001(c)(1) and LBR 9013-1(d)(2). The failure of the Debtor, the trustee, and all other parties in interest to file written opposition at least 14 days prior to the hearing as required by LBR 9013-1(f) is considered as consent to the granting of the Motion. LBR 9013-1(h). Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995).

The Motion is GRANTED pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) for cause to permit Movant, its successors, transferees and assigns, to enforce its remedies to repossess or otherwise obtain possession and dispose of its collateral pursuant to applicable law, and to use the proceeds from its disposition to satisfy its claim. Movant may not pursue any deficiency claim against the Debtor or property of the estate except by filing a proof of claim pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 501. The Court takes judicial notice of the Chapter 7 Individual Debtor's Statement of Intention in which the Debtor stated an intention to surrender the vehicle to Movant. See Doc. No. 1.

This order shall be binding and effective despite any conversion of the bankruptcy case to a case under any other chapter of Title 11 of the United States Code. The 14-day stay prescribed by FRBP 4001(a)(3) is waived. All other relief is denied.

Movant shall upload an appropriate order via the Court's Lodged Order Upload system within 7 days of the hearing.

(Slates, Ronald)

Docket 61

Tentative Ruling:

11/27/2019

For the reasons set forth below, the Motion is GRANTED.

Pleadings Filed and Reviewed

1. Notice of Motion and Motion for Relief from the Automatic Stay Under 11 U.S.C. § 362 (Action in Nonbankruptcy Forum) [Doc. No. 61] (the "Motion")
2. Order Granting Motion for Relief from Automatic Stay (Action in Non-Bankruptcy Forum) [Doc. No. 55] (the "July 16 Order")
3. As of the preparation of this tentative ruling, no opposition is on file

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

Neilla M. Cenci (the "Debtor"), filed this voluntary chapter 7 case on December 6, 2018 (the "Petition Date"). On June 3, 2019, Ball CM, Inc. ("Movant") filed a request for relief from the automatic stay pursuant to § 362(d)(1) to proceed with an action bearing the caption Ball CM, Inc. v. Cenci, Case No. 18STCV04108 (the "First State Court Action") pending in Los Angeles Superior Court (the "State Court"). On July 16, 2019, this Court entered an order granting Movant's request to proceed against Debtor with respect to the First State Court Action (the "July 16 Order") [Doc. No. 55].

Movant subsequently filed a second state court action against Debtor and various other non-debtor parties in a suit captioned as Ball CM, Inc. v. Cenci, et al., Case No. 19STCV30598 (the "Second State Court Action"). The Second State Court Action expands on the First State Court Action by bringing in new claims and several non-debtor co-defendants. The Movant explains that it filed the Second State Court Action in order preserve its claims against these non-debtor parties, which would have been otherwise jeopardized had Movant amended the complaint of the First State Court Action (the "First Complaint") [Note 1]. See Declaration of Ronald P. Slates (the "Slates Decl."), ¶ 9. Acting under the impression that the July 16 Order covered all claims against Debtor, the Movant filed the Second State Court Action on August 28, 2019, asserting various claims against Debtor and non-debtor third parties for money paid by mistake, breach of fiduciary duty, conversion, negligence, fraud & deceit, and for declaratory relief (the "Second Complaint"). See id., ¶ 8; Motion, Ex. C.

On September 27, 2019, Debtor's counsel e-mailed Movant, advising that the filing of the Second State Court Action had violated the automatic stay. See Motion, Ex. F. Following meet and confer efforts between counsel, Movant informed Debtor that it would be seeking further clarification from this Court. To that end, Movant presently requests that the Court 1) clarify whether the July 16 Order includes relief for all claims or disputes against the Debtor, or 2) alternatively, that the Court grant relief from stay to permit Movant to proceed with the Second State Court Action, annulling any actions retroactive to the filing of said lawsuit.

Movant asserts the following arguments in support of relief from stay:

- Mandatory abstention applies under 28 U.S.C. § 1334(c)(2);
- The claims are nondischargeable in nature and can be most expeditiously resolved in the nonbankruptcy forum;
- Alternatively, it is not consistent with judicial economy for the Court to exercise jurisdiction on the non-debtor parties;
- Non-debtor parties predominate in the Second State Court Action, and this Court does not have jurisdiction over such parties under bankruptcy law;
- The claims arise under nonbankruptcy law and can be most expeditiously resolved in the nonbankruptcy forum;
- The related First State Court Action remains pending in State Court, and Movant expects that it will be consolidated with the Second State Court Action.

Chapter 7

With respect to annulment, the Movant asserts the following:

- Movant filed the Second State Court Action to preserve its claims against non-debtor parties, based on the belief that the July 16 Order extended to all of Movant's claims against the Debtor;
- Debtor has suffered no prejudice or irreparable injury by the filing of the Second State Court Action;
- Movant promptly filed a stay on the Second State Court Action;
- Movant is seeking annulment of any acts deemed to violate the automatic stay on an expedient basis.

As of the preparation of this tentative ruling, no opposition is on file.

II. Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law

1. Relief from Stay

Section 362(d)(1) permits a bankruptcy court to grant relief from the automatic stay upon a showing of "cause." Cause is a flexible concept and courts often conduct a fact intensive, case-by-case balancing test, examining the totality of the circumstances to determine whether sufficient cause exists to lift the stay. In re SCO Grp., Inc., 395 B.R. 852, 856 (Bankr. D. Del. 2007) (citing Baldino v. Wilson (In re Wilson), 116 F.3d 87, 90 (3d Cir. 1997); In re Laguna Assocs. Ltd., 30 F.3d 734, 737 (7th Cir. 1994)); In re MacDonald, 755 F.2d 715, 717 (9th Cir. 1985). "Among factors appropriate to consider in determining whether relief from the automatic stay should be granted to allow state court proceedings to continue are considerations of judicial economy and the expertise of the state court." In re Kronemyer, 405 B.R. 915, 921 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 2009) (citing In re MacDonald, 755 F.2d 715, 717 (9th Cir. 1985)).

In the Ninth Circuit, courts consider 12 non-exclusive factors to determine whether "cause" exists to lift the automatic stay to permit actions against a debtor in a non-bankruptcy forum:

1. Whether the relief will result in a partial or complete resolution of the issues;
2. The lack of any connection with or interference with the

In re Plumberex Specialty Prods., Inc., 311 B.R. 551, 559 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2004). Not all the factors are relevant in every case, and the Court is not required to give equal weight to each factor. Id. at 560.

At the outset, the Court addresses whether the July 16 Order permitted Movant to pursue the Second State Court Action against the Debtor. Based on the Slates Declaration, Movant's counsel interpreted language in the July 16 Order as broadly providing relief from stay to allow "Movant to proceed against Debtor as to all claims Movant had against Debtor." See Slates Decl., ¶ 8. The Court disagrees with the Movant's reading of the July 16 Order and the tentative ruling incorporated therein by reference. Upon review of the First State Court Action, the Court resolved the previous stay motion on narrow terms, which did not give Movant carte blanche to litigate all its claims against the Debtor. See July 16 Order, Ex. A [the "Incorporated Tentative Ruling"] at 2 (" [w]hat constitutes cause for granting relief from the automatic stay is decided on a case-by-case basis. ") (citing In re Kronemyer, 405 B.R. at 921) (emphasis added). The Court's ruling was based on an application of the Plumberex factors as to issues presented in the First Complaint. However, the Court has not had an opportunity to review claims raised for the first time in the Second Complaint. In sum, the Court clarifies that the relief granted via the July 16 Order did not allow Movant to prosecute all of its claims against Debtor, but rather, only the claims based on facts previously presented to the Court.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Court acknowledges that the vast majority of claims and allegations asserted against the Debtor in the Second State Court Action closely mirror those pled in the First State Court Action. Compare Motion, Ex. A, ¶¶ 12-20 with Motion, Ex. C, ¶¶ 36-53. Because the Court has already determined that Movant may litigate these substantive allegations in state court, Movant may pursue these claims. Furthermore, because Movant had previously expressed its intention to amend the First Complaint, the Court reasonably anticipated that allegations would be revised or enhanced with further detail. Incorporated Tentative Ruling at 4 ("granting stay relief will promote interests of judicial economy and avoid piecemeal litigation because Movant intends to seek leave to amend the Complaint to add non-debtor defendants.") Therefore, whether Movant asserted the substantive bulk of these allegations in an amended complaint or in a newly-filed lawsuit makes little practical difference.

Additionally, the Court notes that Movant has pled two original claims against the Debtor in the Second Complaint for "Money Paid by Mistake Re Ball C M 401(k) Plan" and "Conversion Re Ball C M 401(k) Plan" (collectively, the "New Claims"). The New Claims consist of detailed factual allegations not previously presented to the Court. In summary, Movant alleges that Debtor, as a result of her access to a third-party payroll service in the scope of her employment for Movant, directly or indirectly diverted funds from others' 401(k) accounts to her own 401(k) account. See Motion, Ex. C. [the "Second Complaint"], ¶¶ 52, 53. Having reviewed the Second Complaint, the Court determines that the New Claims are based upon the same nucleus of operative facts asserted in the First Complaint, i.e., that Debtor, by virtue of her employment position in Movant's business, misappropriated, embezzled, or diverted monies for her own benefit which it now seeks to recover. In sum, the New Claims fall within the ambit of factual allegations previously considered by the Court.

Chapter 7

Therefore, the Court finds that Movant has established a prima facie case that "cause" exists to grant relief from stay under § 362(d)(1) with respect to the Second State Court Action. Accordingly, the Second State Court Action involves nonbankruptcy law and is within the expertise of the state court. Allowing the Movant to continue the Second State Court Action will best promote the judicial economy by adjudicating a final judgment as to the underlying claims that may either support or negate the filing of a proof of claim, and/or the continuation of a pending adversary complaint [Note 2]. Moreover, as of the preparation of this tentative ruling, no substantive opposition has been filed. Therefore, pursuant to LBR 9013-1(h), the Debtor and all other interested parties are deemed to consent to the granting of the Motion.

2. Annulment Retroactive to the Filing of the Second State Court Action

Unless the Court retroactively annuls the automatic stay, the filing of the Second State Court Action is void. See Schwartz v. United States (In re Schwartz), 954 F.2d 569, 571 (9th Cir. 1992) (holding that "violations of the automatic stay are void, not avoidable"). "[T]he proper standard for determining 'cause' to annul the automatic stay retroactively is a 'balancing of the equities' test." Fjeldsted v. Lien (In re Fjeldsted), 293 B.R. 12, 24 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 2003). As part of the "balancing of the equities" inquiry, courts have considered a number of factors, which relevantly include, "[a] weighing of the extent of prejudice to creditors or third parties if the stay relief is not made retroactive;" "[t]he Debtor's overall good faith (totality of circumstances test);" "[w]hether creditors knew of the stay but nonetheless took action, thus compounding the problem;" "[t]he costs of annulment to debtors and creditors;" "[h]ow quickly creditors moved for annulment, or how quickly debtors moved to set aside the sale or violative conduct;" "[w]hether, after learning of the bankruptcy, creditors proceeded to take steps in continued violation of the stay, or whether they moved expeditiously to gain relief;" and "[w]hether annulment of the stay will cause irreparable injury to the debtor." See Gasprom, Inc. v. Fateh (In re Gasprom, Inc.), 500 B.R. 598, 607 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 2013) (citing In re Fjeldsted, 293 B.R. at 24).

Here, the Movant requested annulment of the automatic stay with respect to the Second State Court Action.

Chapter 7

Upon reviewing the record, the Court determines that Movant filed the Second State Court Action in good faith under the belief that it was entitled to do so, that Movant met and conferred with the Debtor to ascertain whether the automatic stay had been violated, that Movant thereafter stayed all proceedings in the Second State Court Action, and that it promptly sought the Court's clarification as to that issue. Further, there is nothing to indicate that Debtor will be prejudiced if the Court grants the requested annulment. Accordingly, the Court has previously lifted the stay to allow Movant to pursue claims in the First Complaint, and claims asserted in the First and Second Complaints arise from the same set of operative facts. Therefore, based on a totality of the circumstances, annulment of the automatic stay retroactive to the filing of the Second State Court Action is appropriate.

III. Conclusion

Based on the foregoing, the Motion is GRANTED pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d) (1) to permit the Movant to proceed under applicable nonbankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to proceed to final judgment in the nonbankruptcy forum, provided that the stay remains in effect with respect to enforcement of any judgment against the Debtors or estate property. The Movant may not pursue any deficiency claim or any other claim against the Debtors or property of the estate, except that the Movant will retain the right to file a proof of claim and/or an adversary complaint under §§ 523 or 727 (to the extent applicable). The order shall be binding and effective despite any conversion of the bankruptcy case to a case under any other chapter of Title 11 of the United States Code.

Movant's request for waiver of the 14-day stay is GRANTED to allow the pending Second State Court Action to proceed. All other relief requested but not specifically granted above is denied.

Movant shall upload a conforming order via the Court's Lodged Order Upload system within 7 days of the hearing.

Should an opposing party file a late opposition or appear at the hearing, the court will determine whether further hearing is required. If you wish to make a telephonic appearance, contact Court Call at 888-882-6878, no later than one hour before the hearing.

Note 1: Movant further clarifies that it was unable to promptly amend its complaint following the July 16 Order because a hearing on the motion to amend the First Complaint was continued to October 1, 2019. As set forth in the Slates Declaration, Movant was left with no choice but to file another lawsuit to maintain claims against various non-debtor parties. See Slates Decl., ¶ 9.

Note 2: On March 7, 2019, the Movant filed an adversary action against Debtor, inter alia, seeking non-dischargeability of fraud claims under § 523(a)(2)(A), (a)(4), and (a)(6). A status conference is set for January 14, 2020.

Docket 16

Tentative Ruling:

11/27/2019

Tentative Ruling:

This Motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on the notice required by LBR 4001(c)(1) and LBR 9013-1(d)(2). The failure of the Debtor, the trustee, and all other parties in interest to file written opposition at least 14 days prior to the hearing as required by LBR 9013-1(f) is considered as consent to the granting of the Motion. LBR 9013-1(h). Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995).

The Motion is GRANTED pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1). The stay is terminated as to the Debtor and the Debtor's bankruptcy estate with respect to the Movant, its successors, transferees and assigns. Movant may enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property in accordance with applicable law, but may not pursue a deficiency claim against the debtor or property of the estate except by filing a proof of claim pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 501.

The Movant filed a notice to quit upon all occupants of rental property located at 515 S. Hobart Blvd., Apt. 7, Los Angeles, CA 90020 on August 14, 2019, and an unlawful detainer action on August 30, 2019, with a continued trial date of December 12, 2019. The Debtor commenced this voluntary chapter 7 petition on October 21, 2019.

This Motion has been filed to allow the Movant to proceed with the unlawful detainer proceeding in state court. The unlawful detainer proceeding may go forward because the Debtor's right to possess the premises must be determined. This does not

This order shall be binding and effective despite any conversion of this bankruptcy case to a case under any other chapter of Title 11 of the United States Code. The 14-day stay prescribed by FRBP 4001(a)(3) is waived.

All other relief is denied.

Hearing re [56] Trustee's Final Report and Applications for Compensation

Docket 0

Tentative Ruling:

12/2/2019

Having reviewed the first and final application for fees and expenses filed by this Applicant, the court approves the application and awards the fees and expenses as set forth below.

Fees: $2,016 approved [Note 1] [See Doc. No. 53]

Expenses: $275.50 approved [Id.]

Note 1: Applicant requests fees in the sum of $2,106; however, based upon its review of the application, the Court finds that Applicant only billed $2,016 for 1) preparation of its employment application ($210); 2) preparation of state and federal income tax returns ($1,596); and 3) preparation of this application ($210). The Court presumes the requested fee amount is the result of a typographical error. Unless the Applicant can clarify this figure, the Court will only approve $2,016 of its requested fees.

Docket 51

Tentative Ruling:

12/2/2019

For the reasons set forth below, the Motion is GRANTED in its entirety.

Pleadings Filed and Reviewed:

- 1) Motion to Deem Admitted Requested Admissions and to Deem Certain Documents to Be Genuine (the "Motion") [Doc. No. 51]
 - a) Notice of Motion [Doc. No. 52]
- 2) No opposition to the Motion is on file

I. Summary of Pleadings

Merchants Acquisition Group, LLC ("Plaintiff") filed this dischargeability action against Paul A. Carrasco (the "Defendant") on March 25, 2019. The Clerk of the Court entered Defendant's default on May 2, 2019. On August 8, 2019, the Court granted Defendant's motion to set aside the default. Doc. No. 35. Defendant filed an Answer to the Complaint on August 6, 2019. Doc. No. 32. On October 3, 2019, the Court granted the motion of Defendant's counsel to withdraw. Doc. No. 44.

On September 13, 2019, Plaintiff served two sets of Requests for Admission (the "RFAs") upon both Defendant and Defendant's counsel. Defendant has not responded to the RFAs. Plaintiff moves to deem the RFAs admitted against the Defendant. No opposition to the Motion is on file.

II. Findings and Conclusions

Civil Rule 36(a)(3) provides that if a party does not respond to Requests for Admission within thirty days after being served, the matters set forth in the Request for Admission are deemed admitted against that party.

Here, Plaintiff served the RFAs on the Defendant on September 13, 2019. To avoid having the RFAs deemed admitted, the Defendant was required to either answer or object to the RFAs by no later than October 14, 2019. Defendant failed to do so. Therefore, the matters set forth in the RFAs are deemed admitted against the Defendant.

Based upon the foregoing, the Motion is GRANTED in its entirety.

RE: [38] Show Cause (1) Why This Action Should Not Be Remanded To The Los Angeles Superior Court And (2) Why The Court Should Not Sua Sponte Lift The Automatic Stay To Permit The Remanded Action To Proceed.

Docket 38

Tentative Ruling:

12/2/2019

For the reasons set forth below, this adversary proceeding is remanded to the State Court, and the automatic stay is lifted to permit the remanded action to proceed.

Pleadings Filed and Reviewed:

- 1) Order Requiring Cafa Homes, Inc. to Appear and Show Cause (1) Why this Action Should Not be Remanded to the Los Angeles Superior Court and (2) Why the Court Should Not Sua Sponte Lift the Automatic Stay to Permit the Remanded Action to Proceed (the "Order to Show Cause") [Adv. Doc. No. 15 and Bankr. Doc. No. 37]
 - a) Notice of Order to Show Cause [Adv. Doc. No. 17 and Bankr. Doc. No. 42]
- 2) No response to the Order to Show Cause is on file

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

On June 26, 2018, Faoud Barakat (the "Plaintiff") filed a Complaint for Damages, Fraud, [and] Breach of Contract in the Los Angeles Superior Court (the "State Court Complaint") against Cafa Homes, Inc. ("Cafa Homes") and Carlos A. Flores. On September 4, 2019, Cafa Homes filed a voluntary Chapter 7 petition. On September 5, 2019, Plaintiff removed the State Court Complaint to the Bankruptcy Court.

The material allegations of the State Court Complaint are as follows:

- 1) Flores is the principal, sole owner, and manager of Cafa Homes. Flores is the alter ego of Cafa Homes.
- 2) In January 2016, Plaintiff loaned Flores and Cafa Homes $145,000.00 for the purpose of refurbishing real property located in Los Angeles (the "Property"). Flores represented to Plaintiff that the loan would be secured by the Property. Flores presented to Plaintiff a forged Deed of Trust which appeared to have been recorded, when in fact the Deed of Trust had never been recorded. The recording stamps on the Deed of Trust had been forged.

- 3) Flores and Cafa Homes have defaulted on the payments due under the loan.

Based upon the foregoing allegations, the State Court Complaint asserts claims for fraud and breach of contract against Cafa Homes and Flores.

On October 28, 2019, the Court denied Plaintiff's motion for leave to file a First Amended Complaint (the "FAC"). Doc. No. 14. The proposed FAC added claims for relief under § 523(a)(2)(A) and (a)(6) against Cafa Homes. The Court found that the § 523 causes of action in the proposed FAC failed to state a claim upon which relief could be granted against Cafa Homes, because Cafa Homes is a business entity that is not eligible to receive a discharge. See § 727(a)(1) (providing that the "court shall grant the debtor a discharge, unless the debtor is not an individual"). The Court found that no meaningful relief could be granted on the proposed § 523 claims because Cafa Homes was ineligible to receive a discharge.

On October 28, 2019, the Court entered an Order Requiring Cafa Homes, Inc. to Appear and Show Cause (1) Why this Action Should Not be Remanded to the Los Angeles Superior Court and (2) Why the Court Should Not Sua Sponte Lift the Automatic Stay to Permit the Remanded Action to Proceed (the "Order to Show Cause"). Neither Plaintiff nor any other interested party has responded to the Order to Show Cause.

II. Findings and Conclusions

Title 28 U.S.C §1452 provides that the Court may remand an action "on any equitable ground." Courts consider the following factors in determining whether equitable grounds support remand:

- 1) the effect or lack thereof on the efficient administration of the estate if the Court recommends [remand or] abstention;
- 2) the extent to which state law issues predominate over bankruptcy issues;
- 3) the difficult or unsettled nature of applicable law;
- 4) the presence of related proceeding commenced in state court or other nonbankruptcy proceeding;

- 5) the jurisdictional basis, if any, other than § 1334;
- 6) the degree of relatedness or remoteness of the proceeding to the main bankruptcy case;
- 7) the substance rather than the form of an asserted core proceeding;
- 8) the feasibility of severing state law claims from core bankruptcy matters to allow judgments to be entered in state court with enforcement left to the bankruptcy court;
- 9) the burden on the bankruptcy court's docket;
- 10) the likelihood that the commencement of the proceeding in bankruptcy court involves forum shopping by one of the parties;
- 11) the existence of a right to a jury trial;
- 12) the presence in the proceeding of nondebtor parties;
- 13) comity; and
- 14) the possibility of prejudice to other parties in the action.

Citigroup, Inc. v. Pacific Investment Management Co., LLC (In re Enron Corp.), 296 B.R. 505, 509 n. 2 (C.D. Cal. 2003).

Here, multiple Enron facts support remand. The causes of action in the State Court Complaint arise only under state law (factor two). Comity supports remand (factor thirteen). The proceeding involves Carlos A. Flores, who is not a debtor (factor twelve). There is no basis for the Court's jurisdiction over the State Court Complaint aside from 28 U.S.C. § 1334 (factor five). Remand will not interfere with the efficient administration of the estate (factor one). In the event that Plaintiff obtains a judgment against the Debtor in the State Court Action, Plaintiff can seek a distribution from the estate on account of the judgment by filing a Proof of Claim. [Note 1]

The Court further finds that it is appropriate to lift the automatic stay, pursuant to §362(d)(1), to permit the State Court Action to proceed to final judgment in the State Court, provided that any final judgment entered by the State Court may not be enforced absent further order of this Court.

Based upon the foregoing, this adversary proceeding is remanded to the State Court, and the automatic stay is lifted to permit the remanded action to proceed. The Court will prepare and enter appropriate orders.

No appearance is required if submitting on the court's tentative ruling. If you intend to submit on the tentative ruling, please contact Carlos Nevarez or Daniel

Docket 54

Tentative Ruling:

12/2/2019

For the reasons set forth below, the Settlement Agreement is APPROVED and the Motion is GRANTED.

Pleadings Filed and Reviewed:

- 1) Motion to Approve Compromise With Safeway, Inc.; the Vons Companies, Inc., et al. Pursuant to Fed. R. Bankr. P. 9019 (the "Motion") [Doc. No. 54]
 - a) Notice of Motion [Doc. No. 51]
- 2) No opposition to the Motion is on file

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

The Chapter 7 Trustee (the "Trustee") seeks approval of a Settlement Agreement and Release of All Claims (the "Settlement Agreement") between the estate, on the one hand, and Safeway, Inc., the Vons Companies, Inc., Vons Stores, Vons Store # 1625, Banner Albertsons Companies, Inc., Zurich American Insurance Companies, Ace American Insurance Company, Old Republic Insurance Company, and Sedwick Claims Management Services, Inc., on the other hand.

Under the Settlement Agreement, the estate will receive a payment of $500,000 in exchange for the settlement and release of claims arising in connection with a pre-petition personal injury action filed by the Debtor (the "Personal Injury Action"). The Personal Injury Action relates to an incident that occurred on November 4, 2013, at a Vons store located at 1260 W. Redondo Beach Blvd., Gardena, CA 90247.

The proceeds from the Settlement Agreement will be sufficient to pay in full all creditors who have filed proofs of claim. No opposition to the Motion is on file.

"[C]ompromises are favored in bankruptcy, and the decision of the bankruptcy judge to approve or disapprove the compromise of the parties rests in the sound discretion of the bankruptcy judge." In re Sassalos, 160 B.R. 646, 653 (D. Ore. 1993). In approving a settlement agreement, the Court must "canvass the issues and see whether the settlement 'falls below the lowest point in the range of reasonableness.'" Cosoff v. Rodman (In re W.T. Grant Co.), 699 F.2d 599, 608 (2d Cir. 1983). Applying the A&C Properties factors, the Court finds that the Settlement Agreement is adequate, fair, and reasonable, and is in the best interests of the estate and creditors.

Complexity of the Litigation

This factor weighs in favor of approving the Settlement Agreement. The litigation is complex, involving issues of personal injury law that would require reports and testimony from multiple expert witnesses and medical professionals.

Probability of Success on the Merits

This factor weighs in favor of approving the Settlement Agreement. The possibility that additional litigation might yield a result nominally more favorable to the estate cannot be ruled out. Yet any such result obtained through litigation would be a pyrrhic victory from the perspective of the estate and creditors, because the additional administrative costs associated with the litigation would on net leave the estate worse off.

Paramount Interests of Creditors

This factor weighs in favor of approving the Settlement Agreement. The Settlement Agreement will generate funds sufficient to pay (a) unsecured creditors who have filed allowed claims in full and (b) the expenses of administering the estate. No creditors oppose approval of the Settlement Agreement.

Difficulties To Be Encountered in the Manner of Collection

Chapter 7

This factor weighs against approving the Settlement Agreement. Collection is not likely to be an issue, as the parties to the Settlement Agreement are large and solvent corporations. However, given that the other three factors weigh strongly in favor of approval, the Court accords this factor only minimal weight.

III. Conclusion

Based upon the foregoing, the Motion is GRANTED and the Settlement Agreement is APPROVED.

No appearance is required if submitting on the court's tentative ruling. If you intend to submit on the tentative ruling, please contact Carlos Nevarez or Daniel Koontz at 213-894-1522. If you intend to contest the tentative ruling and appear, please first contact opposing counsel to inform them of your intention to do so. Should an opposing party file a late opposition or appear at the hearing, the court will determine whether further hearing is required. #1.00 APPLICANT: JEFFREY I GOLDEN, TRUSTEE

Hearing re [1145] & [1150] Trustee's Final Report and Applications for Compensation

Docket 0

Tentative Ruling:

12/3/2019:

As set forth below, the Trustee's proposed distribution is approved.

The only party who has objected to the Trustee's Final Report is Sonali Perera. Perera objects to the Trustee's proposal to distribute (1) $262,552.78 to Nalan Samarwickrema ("Samarwickrema") on account of Claim No. 33 ("Claim 33") and (2) $78,620.39 to Andrew Holdings, Inc. ("Andrew Holdings") on account of Claim No. 35 ("Claim 35"). Pursuant to the terms of a global settlement that was approved by the Court on December 1, 2014 (the "Global Settlement"), the Trustee intends to pay the amounts owed to Samarwickrema and Andrew Holdings to the "John David Fischer Attorney Client Trust Account."

On June 20, 2016, Perera reached a settlement (the "Perera Settlement") in a state court action (the "State Court Action") that he had brought against Samarwickrema and Andrew Holdings. Under the Perera Settlement, Perera is entitled to receive certain payments from Samarwickrema and Andrew Holdings from any distribution that Samarwickrema and Andrew Holdings receive on account of their claims. Perera asserts that payments to Samarwickrema and Andrew Holdings on account of their claims should be held by the Trustee, or by Perera's counsel, pending a further order resolving a dispute that has arisen concerning the portion of the claims allocable to attorneys' fees.

The Trustee opposes Perera's request. The Trustee asserts that his proposed distribution is consistent with the terms of the Global Settlement, and that there is no reason to further delay the closing of the case.

Samarwickrema and Andrew Holdings also opposes Perera's request. Samarwickrema and Andrew Holdings contend that this is the fourth time in which Perera has attempted to use the Bankruptcy Court to collect upon amounts owed to him under the Perera Settlement. Samarwickrema and Andrew Holdings note that each of Perera's attempts to collect the Perera Settlement funds from the bankruptcy estate have been rejected by the Court. Samarwickrema and Andrew Holdings argue that Perera's latest request is akin to a motion for reconsideration, and that such motion should be rejected by the Court.

The Perera Settlement provides in relevant part:

The parties agree that from the gross proceeds of final distribution of the Dharmasuriya bankruptcy estate to the Borrowers [Samarwickrema and Andrew Holdings] upon their filed claims, that the first proceeds of said distributions shall be paid to the Borrowers' lawyers, John Fischer, Jayne Kaplan, and James Kilkowski, who will each receive their attorneys' fees, as follows:

- 1) This provision pertains only to attorneys' fees, attorneys' fees claims, or attorneys' fees incurred by Borrowers that have not yet been paid.
- 2) The aggregate amount of attorneys' fees claims that shall be paid hereby from the first distributions upon the Borrowers' filed claims shall not exceed $430,000.
- 3) The attorneys' fees claims by John Fischer, Jayne Kaplan, and James Kilkowski (collectively, "Borrowers' Lawyers") shall be presented to the Lender [Perera], directly for approval or challenge within thirty days of the order for final distribution of borrowers' Bankruptcy Proceeds. If any portions of the claims are challenged by Lender [Perera], then the parties agree that any such challenge shall [be] made within thirty days of presentation of the claims by any of John Fischer, Jayne Kaplan or James Kilkowski, and any such challenge shall be resolved by the same court that ordered distribution of the Borrowers' share of the Bankruptcy Estate distribution.
- 4) Any attorneys' fees claims not challenged by written motion to the same bankruptcy court that ordered the distribution filed within thirty days of presentation of the claims to Lender [Perera] shall be deemed waived by the Lender, except that the aggregate of any such claims in excess of $430,000 from distributions upon Borrowers' filed claims, is waived by Borrowers' lawyers, and the Lender need not challenge any such excess amounts and any such claims are otherwise deemed reduced such that the total claimed by Borrowers' lawyers from distributions from Borrowers' filed claims does not exceed $430,000.

Doc. No. 1154 at Ex. A-10–11, ¶ 5a.

A. The Court Lacks Jurisdiction to Adjudicate Disputes Over Attorneys' Fees Under the Perera Settlement

The Court OVERRULES Perera's objection and approves the Trustee's proposed distribution. This case has been pending since 2009 and is finally ready to be closed. Nothing in Perera's objection is cause for further delaying the closing. The distribution contemplated by the Trustee does not prevent Perera from challenging the funds allocated to attorneys' fees in accordance with ¶ 5 of the Perera Settlement, excerpted above. Any such challenge must be presented to the State Court, not the Bankruptcy Court. The Perera Settlement provides that any challenge to the allocation of attorneys' fees "shall be resolved by the same court that ordered distribution of the Borrowers' share of the Bankruptcy Estate distribution." Perera Settlement at ¶ 5a. The State Court, which approved the Perera Settlement, is the "court that ordered distribution of the Borrowers' share of the Bankruptcy Estate distribution."

Further, once the Trustee distributes the funds on account of the claims of Samarwickrema and Andrew Holdings as contemplated by the Global Settlement, those funds will no longer be property of the estate, and the Court will lack jurisdiction with respect to any dispute over the funds. Moreover, the closing of the bankruptcy case—which will occur shortly after the Trustee completes his distribution—will also deprive the Court of jurisdiction.

It is true that in certain circumstances, the Court may retain ancillary jurisdiction over a closed case if necessary "to vindicate its authority and effectuate its decrees." Sea Hawk Seafoods, Inc. v. Alaska (In re Valdez Fisheries Dev. Ass'n, Inc.), 439 F.3d 545, 549 (9th Cir. 2006). However, ancillary jurisdiction to enforce the provisions of a settlement agreement exists only if the order approving the settlement contains a provision under which the Court "explicitly retained jurisdiction." Sea Hawk, 439 F.3d at 549. The Perera Settlement's terms regarding disputed attorneys' fees claims do not explicitly provide that the Bankruptcy Court retains jurisdiction to adjudicate such disputes.

Even if the Perera Settlement contained a retention of jurisdiction provision, the Court's ancillary jurisdiction would not extend to adjudicating a dispute over non-estate funds after the closing of the case. The case of Battle Ground Plaza v. Ray (In re Ray), 624 F.3d 1124 (9th Cir. 2010) is instructive. Battle Ground Plaza posed the question of whether the bankruptcy court retained jurisdiction over an action asserting state law breach of contract claims. At the time the jurisdictional issue arose, the bankruptcy court had already approved a Chapter 11 Plan, closed the case, overseen the payment of creditors, and discharged the debtor. While the case was still pending, the bankruptcy court had entered an order approving the sale of real property to Dean Maldonado (“Sale Order”). In 2000, prior to the filing of the bankruptcy petition, Battle Ground Plaza had entered into an agreement giving it a right of first refusal over any sale of the property. Battle Ground Plaza objected to the sale to Maldonado, asserting that the sale contravened its rights of first refusal, but the bankruptcy court overruled Battle Ground Plaza’s objections. After the Sale Order had been entered, the Plan confirmed, and the case closed, Battle Ground Plaza filed an action against the Debtor in state court, again alleging breach of contract claims on the grounds that the Sale Order violated its rights of first refusal. (Battle Ground Plaza explained the delay in exercising its rights by claiming that it had only just discovered that the property benefitted from a valuable easement giving customers of any business built on the property the right to park at a nearby mall.) The bankruptcy court concluded that it had ancillary jurisdiction over the breach of contract claims.

The Ninth Circuit found that the bankruptcy court did not have ancillary jurisdiction, notwithstanding a provision in the confirmation order stating that the bankruptcy court “shall retain jurisdiction of this case to determine any controversies in connection with assets of the bankruptcy estate.” Id. at 1136 n.8. The Battle Ground Plaza court reasoned that the bankruptcy court’s express retention of jurisdiction could not alone bring the case within its ancillary jurisdiction. Id. The court found that “hearing a breach of contract claim predicated on evidence that came to light after a bankruptcy case had closed, its creditors paid, and the debtor discharged, stretches the limits of the bankruptcy court’s ancillary jurisdiction too far, going beyond what is necessary for the bankruptcy court to ‘effectuate its decrees.’” Id. at 1136.

Under the express provisions of the Perera Settlement, the parties’ rights to assert disputes regarding the allocation of attorneys’ fees do not ripen until after the Bankruptcy Court has distributed funds to creditors. Shortly after funds are distributed to creditors the case will be closed. Similar to the situation in Battle Ground Plaza, Perera is seeking to invoke the Bankruptcy Court’s jurisdiction in a dispute that will arise only after the closing of the case. Ancillary jurisdiction in those circumstances goes beyond what is necessary for the Court to effectuate its decrees.

Chapter 7

- c) Chapter 7 Voluntary Petition [Doc. No. 1]
- d) Amended Schedule C [Doc. No. 11]

I. Nature of Proceedings

The Court previously entered an order granting the Motion on November 8, 2019 (the "November 8 Order") [Doc. No. 26]. On November 14, 2019, the Court partially granted Debtor's Motion for Reconsideration, staying the November 8 Order until further notice and setting an expedited briefing schedule (the "November 14 Order") [Doc. No. 38]. The Court, having considered the record before it, including the declarations and documents received in evidence, the various memoranda and briefs filed by the parties, submits this tentative ruling, which shall constitute this Court's findings and conclusions with respect to the Motion.

II. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

Russell Gando Osio ("Debtor") commenced a voluntary Chapter 7 petition on July 16, 2019 (the "Petition Date"). Sam S. Leslie was appointed as Chapter 7 Trustee (the "Trustee"). As provided in Debtor's amended Schedule C, the Debtor claimed a homestead exemption of $47,491.50 in real property located at 11414 Kelowna St., Sylmar, CA 91342 (the "Property") [see Doc. No. 11]. Debtor claimed the automatic homestead exemption under California Code of Civil Procedure ("CCP") § 704.730. On his Schedule A/B: Property, the Debtor estimates the Property's fair market value at $668,249. On his commencement documents, the Debtor further represents that he is married, and the Property is community property.

On October 16, 2019, the Trustee filed an objection to the claimed exemption on the grounds that the Debtor does not live at the Property (the "Motion"). Based on a liquidation assessment, the Trustee estimates that there is net equity in the Property totaling $41,523.08 [Note 1]. Accordingly, Debtor's schedules convey that he does not reside at the Property, but at a different address—9013 Woodale Ave., Pacoima, CA 91331 (the "Woodale Address"). See Official Form 101, Item No. 5 [Doc. No. 1]. According to his Statement of Financial Affairs, Debtor has not lived anywhere other than at the Woodale Address in the past three years. See Official Form 107, Item No. 2 [Doc. No. 1]. Reference to a rental agreement dated August 20, 2018 further demonstrates that Debtor leased the Property to a "Reynaldo Osio (Hernaiz Residential Care Facility)" through August 20, 2023 (the "Rental Agreement").

Motion, Ex. 5.

Based on the facts referenced above, the Trustee seeks to fully disallow Debtor's homestead exemption in the Property. The Trustee cites to two California bankruptcy cases to argue that Debtor must have resided in the Property at the time the petition was filed to properly claim a homestead exemption under CCP § 704.730. See generally In re Dodge, 138 B.R. 602 (Bankr. E.D. Cal. 1992); In re Pham, 177 B.R. 914 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 1994). As Debtor did not live at the Property on the Petition Date, the Debtor is ineligible to claim a § 704.730 homestead exemption. Consequently, any equity in the Property the Debtor has claimed as exempt belongs to the estate, and pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 542(a), should be delivered to the Trustee for administration. In sum, the Trustee prays for orders compelling Debtor to turn over the Property's keys, current mortgage statement, and proof of insurance no later than seven (7) days after entry of an order granting this Motion. Motion at 7. If Debtor fails to timely comply, the Trustee requests that the Court authorize the U.S. Marshal's office to make a forced entry into the Property. Id.

The Debtor disputes many of the facts presented by the Trustee and opposes the Motion on two grounds. First, the Debtor seemingly repudiates the representations made in his Statement of Financial Affairs, and now claims that he resided at the Property from May 2018 to May 2019. See Declaration of Russell Gando Osio ["Debtor's Decl."], ¶ 7. Debtor supports this assertion by providing recent utility bills addressed to him at the Property's address, as well as his driver's license bearing the Property's address as his domicile. Debtor's Decl., Exs. 1-2. Furthermore, Debtor contends that the cases cited by Trustee—In re Pham and In re Dodge— are inapposite to the present facts. According to the Debtor, under CCP § 704.710(c), debtors are not required to reside at a property on the date a bankruptcy case is filed in order to avail themselves of the homestead exemption. See CCP § 704.710(c). Debtor, however, does not explain how or why § 704.710(c) entitles him to a homestead exemption. Second, the Debtor additionally argues that he is entitled to claim the homestead exemption through his "separated or former" spouse pursuant to CCP § 704.720(d). Even if he did not reside at the Property on the Petition Date, the Debtor alleges that both his spouse and his minor child have continuously resided at the Property since August 2018 (or May 2018). Compare Opposition at 11 with Debtor's Decl., ¶7. Debtor's supporting evidence will be further discussed in the next

In addition, the Debtor raises the separate concern that if the Court grants this Motion, six "developmentally challenged" persons requiring "24 hour care" will be rendered homeless if the Property is lost. See Opposition at 12; see also Debtor's Decl., ¶¶ 5-6. Based on a declaration submitted by Debtor's father, part of the Property has been leased out to his business, which provides round-the-clock care to these disabled individuals. Debtor's Decl., Ex. 2.

On reply, the Trustee directly attacks Debtor's assertions as factually false because Debtor has claimed that he is single on various federal and state income tax returns. Reply, Exs. 1-5. Further, to the extent that Debtor claims to be in a common law marriage with his "spouse," the Trustee argues such claims fail as California does not recognize common law marriage. Next, the Trustee asserts that common sense defies the fact that Debtor's spouse and child reside at the Property with six developmentally disabled persons requiring ongoing care. Based on the Rental Agreement, the Trustee finds it implausible that at least eight people (in addition to in-patient care staff) reside in a 3-bed, 2-bath, single-level mobile home of 2,600 square feet. The Trustee also notes that the Rental Agreement leases out the Property in its entirety starting August 2018, without any carveouts; thus, the claim that Debtor's family has lived there since 2018 is even more perplexing. Finally, the Trustee refers to various cases to argue that Debtor bears the burden of proof to prove the validity of his homestead exemption. One of these cases is the Supreme Court's opinion in Raleigh v. Ill. Dep't of Revenue, 530 U.S. 15 (2000), which is cited for the proposition that "the burden of proof is a substantive element of a claim and, thus, in bankruptcy it remains the same as under the applicable substantive nonbankruptcy law." See Reply at 5. Therefore, because the Debtor's evidentiary support has been amply controverted, the Trustee submits that Debtor has not met his burden.

III. Findings and Conclusions

At the time a Chapter 7 petition is filed, all of the debtor's legal or equitable interests in property become part of the estate, subject to the debtor's right to claim property as exempt. In re Diaz, 547 B.R. 329, 334 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 2016) (citing Schwab v. Reilly, 560 U.S. 770, 774 (2010)). Under § 522, states may opt out of the federal exemption scheme and determine their own exemptions. See § 522(b).

Chapter 7

California is one of the states that has opted out of the federal exemption scheme. CCP § 703.130.

Under California law, the filing of a bankruptcy petition constitutes a "forced sale" which triggers the protections afforded by the automatic homestead exemption provided for in CCP §704.730. See Weil v. Elliott (In re Elliott), 523 B.R. 188, 195 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 2014) (“[t]he filing of a bankruptcy petition constitutes such a ‘forced sale’ to trigger the application of the automatic homestead exemption.”). Cal. CCP § 704.710(c) defines a homestead as “the principal dwelling (1) in which the judgment debtor or the judgment debtor’s spouse resided on the date the judgment creditor’s lien attached to the dwelling, and (2) in which the judgment debtor or the judgment debtor’s spouse resided continuously thereafter until the date of the court determination that the dwelling is a homestead.” In the bankruptcy context, the date on which the judgment creditor’s lien attached to the dwelling is the date of the filing of the petition. See In re Dodge, 138 B.R. 602, 606 (Bankr. E.D. Cal. 1992) (stating that in a bankruptcy proceeding, “the filing of the petition is tantamount to a levy on the debtor’s property”); see also In re Pham, 177 B.R. 914, 918 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 1994) (“[d]ebtors must reside in the dwelling when the petition is filed in order for the Debtors to be entitled to either the automatic or declared homestead exemption”); Wolfe v. Jacobson (In re Jacobson), 676 F.3d 1193, 1199 (9th Cir. 2012) (“bankruptcy exemptions are fixed at the time of the bankruptcy petition.”).

As a matter of course, a debtor’s claimed exemption is presumed to be valid, and the party objecting to the exemption bears the burden of proof. Carter v. Anderson (In re Carter), 182 F.3d 1027, 1029 n. 3 (9th Cir. 1999); FRBP 4003(c). If the objecting party produces evidence sufficient to rebut this presumption, then the burden of persuasion shifts onto the party claiming the exemption. Id. at 1029 n. 3. Notwithstanding, in the context of exemptions under state law, bankruptcy courts in the Ninth Circuit follow the Supreme Court’s rationale discussed in Raleigh. 530 U.S. at 20-21 (finding “[u]nless some federal interest requires a different result, there is no reason why the state interests should be analyzed differently simply because an interested party is involved in a bankruptcy proceeding.”). Accordingly, where a state exemption statute “allocates the burden of proof to the debtor, Rule 4003(c) does not change that allocation.” See In re Diaz, 547 B.R. at 337 (holding that debtor had the burden to prove the validity of the claimed automatic homestead exemption); see also In re Tallerico, 532 B.R. 774, 788 (Bankr. E.D. Cal. 2015). Under California law, the burden of proof is imposed on the party claiming use of the homestead exemption.

See CCP §§ 703.580(b), 704. 780(a).

1) Debtor has failed to prove that he is entitled to claim an automatic homestead exemption through his purported spouse.

At the outset, the Court notes that Debtor attested to residing at the Property from May 2018 until moving out in May 2019, before the Petition Date. As consequence, where the Petition Date served as the date when the hypothetical levy was effectuated, the Debtor cannot claim the automatic homestead exemption based only on his occupancy at the Property. Therefore, the principal issue before the Court is whether Debtor may claim an automatic homestead exemption by virtue of his purported spouse's occupancy at the Property. Debtor's marital status, however, is factually disputed as further discussed below.

Pursuant to CCP § 704.720(d), a debtor not presently residing in the homestead is still entitled to the exemption while the debtor's separated or former spouse continues to live in, or exercise control over, the homestead until entry of judgment or other legally enforceable agreement dividing the community property, or until a later time as specified by court order. However, a debtor must have been legally married. Under the California Family Code, the terms "spouse," and "husband" and "wife" are synonymous with "married persons." In re Rabin, 336 B.R. 459, 461 (Bankr. N.D. Cal. 2005) (citing California Family Code § 11 in determining that registered domestic partners possessed the same homestead exemption rights as "spouses."); see also CCP § 703.110 ("[i]f the judgment debtor is married...[t]he exemptions provided by this chapter or by any other statute apply to all property that is subject to enforcement of a money judgment.").

The Debtor argues that he is entitled to the automatic homestead exemption because his purported spouse and son have continuously resided at the Property since at least August 2018, approximately a year before the Petition Date. The Debtor's objection was supported by his own declaration and declarations submitted by Leilani Osio; Reynoldo Osio, the Debtor's father; and various other documents affixed thereto (collectively, the "Supporting Declarations.") The Supporting Declarations are summarized as follows:

Chapter 7

1. Debtor is currently married to Leilani Osio, who holds a 50% interest in the Property as community property.
2. Debtor and Leilani Osio purchased the Property in July 2017.
3. Following renovations, the Debtor resided at the Property from May 2018 to May 2019.
4. To this day, the Property is the primary residence of Leilani Osio and Debtor's minor child.
5. The Debtor and Leilani Osio are currently separated due to an "altercation" between them.
6. The Debtor currently resides out of a small private room at the Woodale Address.
7. Debtor's personal property is still maintained at the Property.

See generally, Debtor's Decl.; Declaration of Reynaldo Miski Osio; Declaration of Leilani Lauricio Osio.

Conversely, Trustee argues that Debtor is actually single as he has stated on multiple income tax returns.

In the present case, the Debtor has failed to satisfy his burden of proof because the Court cannot determine that he is married to Leilani Osio based on the present record. Although Debtor has proffered three separate declarations in support of his alleged marriage, these declarations are not credible due to Debtor's inconsistent and contradictory statements. For example, in both 2018 and 2017, the Debtor filed federal and state income tax returns as "single" and as "head of household," respectively. See Reply, Exs. 1-5. In 2017, when filing California income taxes, the Debtor in fact identified his marital status as "[n]ot legally married" during 2017. See Reply, Ex. 5 at 54. The Court is cognizant that representations made on tax documents do not definitively establish Debtor's marital status. However, the Court views these inconsistencies as seriously damaging the veracity of the assertions made in the Supporting Declarations. Moreover, the Supporting Declarations fail to explain how the living arrangements of Leilani Osio and Debtor's minor son at the Property are consistent with the Rental Agreement between Debtor and his father's adult daycare business. In sum, the Court shares the Trustee's disbelief, finding it implausible that the Property houses no less than eight people (six of which are "developmentally disabled" and require 24-hour care).

Based on the record proffered, the Court cannot reasonably determine Debtor's marital status—in the past, when seemingly convenient, Debtor has represented that he is single; now Debtor claims that he is married. Additionally, for the reasons stated above, the Court has reason to doubt the Supporting Declarations. If Debtor is in fact legally married, then he has failed to submit any documentation that would unambiguously back his claim. Therefore, the Debtor has not shown that he is married to Leilani Osio and entitled to claim an automatic homestead exemption through her occupancy at the Property.

Therefore, the Trustee's objection is SUSTAINED, and Debtor's homestead exemption is DISALLOWED in its entirety.

2) The Debtor is ordered to turn over the Property and all requested documents.

Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 541(a)(1), the commencement of a bankruptcy petition creates an estate comprising of all of legal and equitable interests of a debtor, except as provided in subsections (b) or (c)(2) of this section. Furthermore, under §§ 521 and 542, a debtor is obligated to identify all property of the estate and to turn over the same to the Trustee, unless the property is of inconsequential value or exempt under § 522. Section 542(a) provides that an entity in possession of estate property "shall" deliver such property to the trustee. In re Del Mission Ltd., 98 F.3d 1147, 1151 (9th Cir. 1996). This is a mandatory duty arising at the time a bankruptcy petition is filed. Id.

As set forth above, because the Property is valuable to the estate, the Debtor has the duty to turn it over to the Trustee pursuant to § 542(a). Accordingly, the Debtor is ordered to turn over the Property and requested documents to the Trustee no later than seven (7) days after entry of an order incorporating this tentative ruling. In addition, the stay on the November 8 Order is lifted.

IV. Conclusion

For the reasons set forth above, the Trustee's objection is SUSTAINED, and the Debtor's claimed homestead exemption is DISALLOWED in its entirety. Additionally, the stay on the November 8 Order is LIFTED.

The Trustee shall submit a conforming order, incorporating this tentative ruling by reference, within seven (7) days of the hearing.

No appearance is required if submitting on the court's tentative ruling. If you intend to submit on the tentative ruling, please contact Carlos Nevarez or Daniel Koontz at 213-894-1522. If you intend to contest the tentative ruling and appear, please first contact opposing counsel to inform them of your intention to do so. Should an opposing party file a late opposition or appear at the hearing, the court will determine whether further hearing is required. If you wish to make a telephonic appearance, contact Court Call at 888-882-6878, no later than one hour before the hearing.

Note 1: The Trustee calculated available net equity of $41,523.08 by subtracting estimated liquidation costs of $53,459.92 and the senior lien amount of $573,266 (see Exhibit 6) from the Property's fair market value of $668,249 (see Exhibit 1). See Leslie Decl. at ¶ 10.

Adcock

Docket 3602

Tentative Ruling:

12/3/2019 (updated to reflect the filing of the Proof of Service of the Motion):

For the reasons set forth below, the Motion is GRANTED in its entirety.

Pleadings Filed and Reviewed:

- 1) Debtors' (I) Notice of Motion and Motion to Reject Unexpired Lease Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 365(a) Nunc Pro Tunc to November 30, 2019 and (II) Notice of Abandonment of Personal Property (the "Motion") [Doc. No. 3602]
 - a) Declaration of Service by Kurtzman Carson Consultants, LLC Regarding Docket Numbers 3596, 3597, 3599, 3601 and 3602 [Doc. No. 3745]
- 2) No opposition to the Motion is on file

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

On August 31, 2018 (the "Petition Date"), Verity Health System of California ("VHS") and certain of its subsidiaries filed voluntary petitions for relief under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. On August 31, 2018, the Court entered an order granting the Debtors' motion for joint administration of the Debtors' Chapter 11 cases. Doc. No. 17.

Debtor Verity Medical Foundation ("VMF") moves to reject an unexpired lease between itself, as lessee, and NMSBPCSLDBH LP, as lessor, dated April 7, 2003 (the "Lease"), nunc pro tunc to November 30, 2019. VMF further moves to abandon certain personal property located at the Lease's premises, on the ground that the property is burdensome and of inconsequential value.

No opposition to the Motion is on file.

Chapter 11

Section 365(a) provides that the Debtor, "subject to the court's approval, may assume or reject any executory contract or unexpired lease of the debtor." In Agarwal v. Pomona Valley Med. Grp. (In re Pomona Valley Med. Grp., Inc.), the Ninth Circuit explained the standard the Bankruptcy Court must apply in determining whether to approve the rejection of an executory contract or unexpired lease:

In making its determination, a bankruptcy court need engage in "only a cursory review of a [debtor-in-possession]'s decision to reject the contract. Specifically, a bankruptcy court applies the business judgment rule to evaluate a [debtor-in-possession]'s rejection decision." ...

Thus, in evaluating the rejection decision, the bankruptcy court should presume that the debtor-in-possession acted prudently, on an informed basis, in good faith, and in the honest belief that the action taken was in the best interests of the bankruptcy estate. See Navellier v. Sletten, 262 F.3d 923, 946 n. 12 (9th Cir.2001); FDIC v. Casterter, 184 F.3d 1040, 1043 (9th Cir.1999); see also In re Chi-Feng Huang, 23 B.R. at 801 ("The primary issue is whether rejection would benefit the general unsecured creditors."). It should approve the rejection of an executory contract under § 365(a) unless it finds that the debtor-in-possession's conclusion that rejection would be "advantageous is so manifestly unreasonable that it could not be based on sound business judgment, but only on bad faith, or whim or caprice."

Pomona Valley, 476 F.3d 665, 670 (9th Cir. 2007).

The Court finds that VMF has shown sufficient cause to reject the Lease. The premises are no longer necessary because the Debtors no longer need the leased space to conduct business operations. Continuing to maintain the Lease creates unnecessary expense and burden for the estates.

Pursuant to § 554(a), a debtor-in-possession "may abandon any property of the estate that is burdensome to the estate or that is of inconsequential value and benefit to the estate." VMF is authorized to abandon the personal property located on the leased premises. The property is burdensome to the estate and it would not be cost-effective to auction the property.

The Court authorizes rejection of the Lease nunc pro tunc to November 30, 2019. The Ninth Circuit has identified four factors used to determine whether retroactive rejection is appropriate: (1) the debtor's immediate filing of a motion to reject; (2) a debtor's prompt action in setting that motion for hearing; (3) whether the debtor received any benefits under the contract or lease; and (4) the non-debtor party to the lease's conduct and motivation in opposing retroactive rejection. Pac Shores Dev., LLC v. At Home Corp. (In re At Home Corp.), 392 F.3d 1064, 1065 (9th Cir. 2004).

All four factors weigh in favor of retroactive rejection. With respect to the first two factors, the Debtors filed the Motion promptly, and quickly obtained a hearing date on the Motion. The Motion is being heard on December 4, 2019; the Debtors seek rejection retroactive to November 30, 2019. With respect to the third factor, the Debtors will not continue to occupy the premises subsequent to the effective date of rejection. Thus, the Debtors will not continue to receive benefits under the Lease after it has been rejected. In addition, the Debtors will be current on post-petition rent through the effective date of rejection. Regarding the fourth factor, the lessor has not opposed the Motion.

Based upon the foregoing, the Motion is GRANTED in its entirety.

No appearance is required if submitting on the court's tentative ruling. If you intend to submit on the tentative ruling, please contact Carlos Nevarez or Daniel Koontz at 213-894-1522. If you intend to contest the tentative ruling and appear, please first contact opposing counsel to inform them of your intention to do so. Should an opposing party file a late opposition or appear at the hearing, the court will determine whether further hearing is required. If you wish to make a telephonic appearance, contact Court Call at 888-882-6878, no later than one hour before the hearing.

Docket 3604

Tentative Ruling:

12/3/2019 (updated to reflect the filing of the Proof of Service of the Motion):

For the reasons set forth below, the Motion is GRANTED in its entirety.

Pleadings Filed and Reviewed:

- 1) Debtors' Omnibus Motion for Approval of (1) Settlement Agreements with Labor Unions, (2) Assumption and Assignment of Modified Collective Bargaining Agreements to SGM, (3) Termination of Retiree Healthcare Benefits and (4) Related Relief (the "Motion") [Doc. No. 3605]

No. 3668]

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

On August 31, 2018 (the "Petition Date"), Verity Health System of California ("VHS") and certain of its subsidiaries (collectively, the "Debtors") filed voluntary petitions for relief under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. On August 31, 2018, the Court entered an order granting the Debtors' motion for joint administration of the Debtors' Chapter 11 cases. Doc. No. 17. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors operated six acute care hospitals (the "Hospitals").

Certain of the Debtors are parties to collective bargaining agreements (the "CBAs") with the California Nurses Association (the "CNA"), the National Union of Healthcare Workers (the "NUHW"), the Service Employees International Union, United Healthcare Workers-West (the "SEIU"), the United Nurses Associations of California/Union of Health Care Professionals ("UNAC"), and IFPTE AFL-CIO CLC, Local 20 ("Local 20," and together with CNA, NUHW, SEIU, and UNAC, the "Unions"). The Debtors have reached settlement agreements with the Unions providing for the modification of the CBAs (the "Settlement Agreements").

The Debtors seek an order (1) approving the Settlement Agreements, (2) authorizing the assumption of the modified CBAs to Strategic Global Management, Inc. ("SGM"), and (3) authorizing the Debtors to terminate retiree healthcare benefits used by eleven individuals. No opposition to the Motion is on file.

The Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (the "Committee") does not oppose the Motion. However, the Committee asserts that the Debtors' characterization of the terms of the Settlement Agreements in the Motion is too general. The Committee does not oppose the entry of an order granting the Motion, provided (1) the language of the Motion at paragraph 43, summarizing the Settlement Agreements, be superseded by the Settlement Agreements themselves and (2) none of the Settlement Agreements be deemed to require the Unions to vote in favor of any particular plan.

The material terms of the Settlement Agreements are as follows:

- 1) Each Union-represented employee who is not offered a job with SGM's applicable acquiring and operating entity will be provided the following:
 - a) An allowed claim for paid time off ("PTO"); and
 - b) An allowed claim for severance.
- 2) The CBAs shall be deemed modified to immediately terminate and discontinue the benefits of eleven current retirees (the "Retiree Benefits"). The Debtors will seek approval of a one-time payment to each Retiree equal to the present value of each Retiree's Health Benefit (the "Lump Sum Payment").
- 3) The Settlement Agreements are conditioned upon the closing of the SGM Sale, with a purchase price that is not materially less than that set forth in the Asset Purchase Agreement (the "APA").
- 4) The Unions agree not to oppose the prompt closing of the SGM Sale.

Chapter 11

Section 1113 provides:

- (a) The debtor in possession, or the trustee if one has been appointed under the provisions of this chapter, ... may assume or reject a collective bargaining agreement only in accordance with the provisions of this section.

- (b)
 - (1) Subsequent to filing a petition and prior to filing an application seeking rejection of a collective bargaining agreement, the debtor in possession or trustee (hereinafter in this section "trustee" shall include a debtor in possession), shall—
 - (A) make a proposal to the authorized representative of the employees covered by such agreement, based on the most complete and reliable information available at the time of such proposal, which provides for those necessary modifications in the employee benefits and protections that are necessary to permit the reorganization of the debtor and assures that all creditors, the debtor and all of the affected parties are treated fairly and equitably; and
 - (B) provide, subject to subsection (d)(3), the representative of the employees with such relevant information as is necessary to evaluate the proposal.
 - (2) During the period beginning on the date of the making of a proposal provided for in paragraph (1) and ending on the date of the hearing provided for in subsection (d)(1), the trustee shall meet, at reasonable times, with the authorized representative to confer in good faith in attempting to reach mutually satisfactory modifications of such agreement.

- (c) The court shall approve an application for rejection of a collective bargaining agreement only if the court finds that—
 - (1) the trustee has, prior to the hearing, made a proposal that fulfills the requirements of subsection (b)(1);

(2) the authorized representative of the employees has refused to accept such proposal without good cause; and

(3) the balance of the equities clearly favors rejection of such agreement.

"Bankruptcy cases generally approach this complicated statute by breaking the statute into a nine part test" first set forth in In re Am. Provision Co., 44 B.R. 907, 909 (Bankr. D. Minn. 1984). See In re Karykeion, Inc., 435 B.R. 663, 677 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2010); see also In re Family Snacks, Inc., 257 B.R. 884, 892 (B.A.P. 8th Cir. 2001) ("Virtually every court that is faced with the issue of whether a Chapter 11 debtor may reject its collective bargaining agreement utilizes a nine-part test that was first set down by the bankruptcy court in In re American Provision Co."). The American Provision factors are as follows:

- 1) The debtor in possession must make a proposal to the Union to modify the collective bargaining agreement.
- 2) The proposal must be based on the most complete and reliable information available at the time of the proposal.
- 3) The proposed modifications must be necessary to permit the reorganization of the debtor.
- 4) The proposed modifications must assure that all creditors, the debtor and all of the affected parties are treated fairly and equitably.
- 5) The debtor must provide to the Union such relevant information as is necessary to evaluate the proposal.
- 6) Between the time of the making of the proposal and the time of the hearing on approval of the rejection of the existing collective bargaining agreement, the debtor must meet at reasonable times with the Union.
- 7) At the meetings the debtor must confer in good faith in attempting to reach mutually satisfactory modifications of the collective bargaining agreement.
- 8) The Union must have refused to accept the proposal without good cause.
- 9) The balance of the equities must clearly favor rejection of the collective bargaining agreement.

American Provision, 44 B.R. at 909.

Courts apply the American Provision factors even where a debtor is liquidating its assets and does not intend to continue in business after emerging from bankruptcy.

Chapter 11

Courts reason that "reorganization," as used in § 1113(b)(1)(A), is "generally understood to include all types of debt adjustment, including a sale of assets, piecemeal or on a going concern basis, under § 363 followed by a plan of reorganization which distributes the proceeds of the sale to creditors in accordance with the Bankruptcy Code's priority scheme." Family Snacks, 257 B.R. at 895. Some courts have held that where, as here, the Debtors are liquidating their assets, the phrase "necessary to permit the reorganization of the debtor" means "necessary to achieve a sale under § 363 of the Bankruptcy Code." Alpha Nat. Res., Inc., 552 B.R. 314, 333 (Bankr. E.D. Va. 2016); see also Walter Energy, 542 B.R. at 890 (requiring that the debtor's proposal "be necessary to permit ... those modifications necessary to consummate a going-concern sale"); In re Karykeion, Inc., 435 B.R. 663, 679 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2010) (finding that the debtor had proven that rejection was necessary when the closing of a § 363 sale was contingent on rejection of a collective bargaining agreement). Others courts have concluded that in a liquidating case, the phrase "necessary to permit reorganization of the debtor" means "necessary to accommodate confirmation of a Chapter 11 plan." Family Snacks, 257 B.R. at 895.

In the context of this case, the term "necessary to permit the reorganization of the debtor" is best interpreted to mean "necessary to permit the Debtors to confirm a liquidating plan." This interpretation aligns most closely with the manner in which the Debtors are prosecuting this case. From the outset, the Debtors have stated their intent to sell the six Hospitals that they operate as going concerns, and use the proceeds from the sales to fund a plan of liquidation. The Debtors have already sold two of their Hospitals, and are in the process of closing the sale of their four remaining Hospitals.

Sections 1113 and 1114 are interpreted interchangeably because the language and standards of these sections overlap. In re Walter Energy, Inc., 911 F.3d 1121, 1129 n.8 (11th Cir. 2018). To the extent that the Settlement Agreements require approval under § 1114, the Court's finding that the Settlement Agreements satisfy § 1113 shall also be deemed to constitute a finding that the Settlement Agreements satisfy § 1114.

The Unions have agreed in the Settlement Agreements that the Debtors have met American Provision factors one, five, six, and seven. Factor eight is moot because the Unions have not rejected the Debtors' proposed amendments to the CBAs.

As set forth below, the Court finds that the Debtors have satisfied factors two (proposal made on good information), three (proposal necessary for cases), four (parties treated fairly), and nine (balance of equities favors relief).

Factor 2—The Proposal Was Based on the Most Complete and Reliable

Chapter 11

Information

To satisfy this factor, “the debtor is simply required to gather the most complete information available at the time and to base its proposal on information it considers reliable.” In re Karykeion, Inc., 435 B.R. 663, 678 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2010).

The Court finds that the Debtors’ proposals to the Unions were based on current, complete, and reliable information. Throughout the negotiation process the Debtors continued to update the proposals so that they reflected the latest developments in the cases.

Factor 3—The Proposal Is Necessary to Permit Plan Confirmation

As noted, within the context of this case, the term “necessary to permit the reorganization of the debtor” is best interpreted to mean “necessary to permit the Debtors to confirm a liquidating plan.” This interpretation aligns most closely with the manner in which the Debtors are prosecuting this case.

The Court finds that the proposal is necessary to facilitate the sale of the Hospitals on a going-concern basis. The Debtors, the Unions, and SGM have renegotiated the CBAs in a manner that will allow the Hospitals to continue to operate sustainably. As the Court has found previously, the unfortunate but undeniable reality is that the legacy cost structure imposed by the CBAs is simply too great to permit the Hospitals to continue to sustainably operate. The modified CBAs will enable continued operation of the Hospitals.

Factor 4—The Proposed Modifications Treat Creditors, the Debtor, and All Affected Parties Fairly and Equitably

The Court finds that the Settlement Agreements treat all parties fairly and equitably. The Settlement Agreements do not disproportionately burden the employees represented by the Unions (the “Represented Employees”). The Settlement Agreements place burdens upon all constituencies in these cases; they do not single out the Represented Employees for unfair treatment.

The Court finds that the Lump Sum Payment to Retirees is fair and equitable. The Retirees will receive cash equal to the present value of their health benefits. The Retirees are not prejudiced by this treatment.

Most important, the Settlement Agreements will allow the Hospitals to continue to operate and continue to employ the majority of the Represented Employees. Obviously, continued operation of the Hospitals is in the best interests of all constituents in these cases—the Debtors, the Represented Employees, SGM, and creditors.

Chapter 11

Factor 9—The Balance of the Equities Favors Relief

The balance of the equities favors the modifications negotiated between the Debtors and the Unions. As discussed, the Settlement Agreements provide a path forward for the continued operation of the Hospitals under the management of SGM, which will preserve the jobs of most of the Represented Employees.

B. The Debtors are Authorized to Assume and Assigned the Modified CBAs to SGM

Section 365(a) provides that a debtor, "subject to the court's approval, may assume or reject any executory contract or unexpired lease of the debtor." In Agarwal v. Pomona Valley Med. Grp. (In re Pomona Valley Med. Grp., Inc.), the Ninth Circuit explained that the business judgment rule governs the Bankruptcy Court's review of the Debtors' decision to assume or reject an executory contract or unexpired lease. Pomona Valley, 476 F.3d 665, 670 (9th Cir. 2007). The Pomona Valley court stated that the Court "need engage in only a cursory review" of the debtor's decision, and "should presume that the debtor-in-possession acted prudently, on an informed basis, in good faith, and in the honest belief that the action taken was in the best interests of the bankruptcy estate." Id.

The Unions have agreed that the consideration provided through execution of the Settlement Agreements constitutes adequate assurance of future performance under the CBAs within the meaning of § 365(b)(1).

Assumption and assignment of the CBAs is an appropriate exercise of the Debtors' sound business and judgment. Assumption and assignment allows SGM to continue to employ the Represented Employees, whose work is essential to the functioning of the Hospitals.

The Debtors have satisfied the requirements for assumption and assignment of the CBAs under § 365.

C. Concerns Raised by the Committee

In response to the concerns raised by the Committee, the Court confirms that with respect to the Unions' obligations to support any plan propounded by the Debtors, the language of the Settlement Agreements (as opposed to the language summarizing the Settlement Agreements contained in the Motion) controls.

A. Summary of the Complaint's Allegations

The material allegations of the Complaint are as follows:

Until March 2017, the Debtor was engaged in the business of manufacturing and selling wholesale fabrics and accessories. Complaint at ¶ 14. From September 2008 through the conclusion of 2015, Jason Young Cho aka Youngduk Duk Cho aka Jason Duk Cho ("J. Cho") was the Chief Executive Officer and sole shareholder of the Debtor. Id. at ¶ 15. J. Cho is an insider of the Debtor within the meaning of § 101(31)(B). Id. at ¶ 16.

J. Cho and Kenny Hwang aka Kyoung Sub Hwang ("K. Hwang") had a verbal agreement to share ownership and control of the Debtor, with J. Cho holding a 30% ownership interest and K. Hwang holding a 70% ownership interest. Id. at ¶ 17. In furtherance of a scheme to avoid paying more than $1 million in taxes, K. Hwang did not disclose his ownership interest in the Debtor until 2016. Id. At the end of 2015 or the beginning of 2016, J. Cho transferred his interest in the Debtor to K. Hwang for no consideration. Id. at ¶ 18. K. Hwang is an insider of the Debtor within the meaning of § 101(31)(B). Id. at ¶ 20.

At all relevant times, J. Cho and K. Hwang jointly managed the Debtor and had access to and control over the Debtor and the Debtor's bank accounts. Id. at ¶ 21.

Between 2013 and the Petition Date, J. Cho and K. Hwang misdirected funds of the Debtor to pay for the personal expenses of themselves and their relatives. Id. at ¶ 22. The misdirection of funds occurred while the Debtor was insolvent, undercapitalized, and unable to pay its debts as they became due in the ordinary course of business. Id.

Between 2013 and the Petition Date, K. Hwang caused the Debtor to transfer substantial amounts of money to his wife, children, and other relatives in the guise of "loans" that were never repaid. Id. at ¶ 23.

Between 2013 and the Petition Date, K. Hwang and/or J. Cho caused the Debtor to transfer funds to Flintridge, a private secondary school (the "Transfers"). Id. at ¶ 26. The purpose of the Transfers was to fund the tuition expenses of Young Jae Hwang, Hee Youn Hwang, and Nam Soo Hwang (collectively, the "Hwang Defendants"). Id. In some instances, the funds were transferred directly from the Debtor to Flintridge.

Id. In other instances, the funds were received by Flintridge through Facts Management Company, Inc. ("Facts Management"), which acted as a conduit for certain payments transferred from the Debtor to Flintridge for the benefit of the Hwang Defendants. Id. In other cases, the funds were transferred directly to the Hwang Defendants. Id. at ¶ 35 and Ex. A.

2. Claims for Relief

Based upon the foregoing allegations, the Complaint asserts claims (1) to avoid the Transfers as intentionally fraudulent, pursuant to § 544(b) (applying Cal. Civ. Code §§ 3439.04(a) and 3439.07) and § 548(a)(1)(A), (2) to avoid the Transfers as constructively fraudulent, pursuant to § 544(b) (applying Cal. Civ. Code §§ 3439.04(b), 3439.05, and 3439.07) and § 548(a)(1)(B), and (3) to recover the avoided Transfers, pursuant to § 550(a)(2).

The Trustee also asserts a "right to amend this Complaint to allege additional claims against the Defendants and to challenge and recover transfers made to or for the benefit of the Defendants in addition to those transfers alleged in this Complaint." Complaint at ¶ 13.

B. Summary of Defendant's Motion to Dismiss

Defendant moves to dismiss the Complaint for failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted. Defendant makes the following arguments in support of the Motion:

The Complaint does not allege specific facts showing that the Hwang Defendants directly received the Transfers at issue. The only plausible theory of liability against the Hwang Defendants is that they were persons "for whose benefit" the Transfers were made. The Trustee's theory is that the Debtor's Transfers to Flintridge enabled the Hwang Defendants to receive the benefit of an education at Flintridge.

The fact that the Hwang Defendants received an education does not qualify them as the "entity for whose benefit" the Transfers were made under § 550(a). "[T]ransfer beneficiary status depends on three aspects of the 'benefit': (1) it must actually have been received by the beneficiary; (2) it must be quantifiable; and (3) it must be accessible to the beneficiary." In re Brooke Corp., 488 B.R. 459, 468 (Bankr. D. Kan. 2013). The benefit of an education is not sufficiently quantifiable and ascertainable to meet the definition of a "benefit."

In Lo v. Lee, 24 Cal. App. 5th 1065, 1072-74, 234 Cal. Rptr. 3d 824, 827-29 (Ct.

App. 2018), the court found that payments made by a debtor father for his son's tuition could be avoidable, but the son could not be held liable as a beneficiary of those payments. In construing the Uniform Voidable Transfers Act (the "UVTA"), the Lo court applied bankruptcy cases interpreting § 550(a). The court found that the son was not an "entity for whose benefit" the transfers were made, because the benefit was not quantifiable and was not accessible to the son:

As to the second prong, courts have stated that in order for a benefit to be "quantifiable," "[a] merely theoretical benefit is not sufficient, since it would not be subject to disgorgement." (McCook Metals, supra, 319 B.R. at p. 591.) Clearly, there is no way to quantify the intellectual and other benefits You [the son] received from the educational opportunity afforded him by Lee's transfer. Even plaintiff concedes "a creditor cannot levy on the student's college education." Any such benefits are entirely intangible and theoretical, and could never be disgorged by him as they cannot be valued solely in terms of dollars and cents.

Additionally, the benefit You received is not, and never was, "accessible" to him. Lee's funds were transmitted directly to Northeastern, and there are no allegations suggesting that the funds were ever controlled by You. In addressing this prong, the McCook Metals court noted that "[e]ven if a quantifiable benefit is actually received, it could not fairly be disgorged if the beneficiary never had access to it." (McCook Metals, supra, 319 B.R. at p. 592.) Here, You had no control over the funds that Lee transferred to the school, and the FAC does not allege that he had access to these funds at any point in time.

Lo v. Lee, 24 Cal. App. 5th 1065, 1074–75, 234 Cal. Rptr. 3d 824, 829–30 (Ct. App. 2018).

In addition, the Trustee has improperly reserved the right to assert claims regarding additional, undiscovered transfers. The Complaint was filed two days prior to the expiration of the statute of limitations. By seeking to preserve the possibility of filing an amended complaint alleging additional transfers, the Trustee is attempting to circumvent the statute of limitations. The Court should prohibit any future amendments that seek to add claims relating to additional transfers.

C. Summary of the Trustee's Opposition

Chapter 7

The Trustee makes the following arguments in his Opposition to the Motion:

Under section 550(a)(1), the Trustee can recover an avoided transfer from the "initial transferee," or an "entity for whose benefit [a] transfer was made." Danning v. Miller (In re Bullion Reserve of N. Am.), 922 F.2d 544, 547 (9th Cir. 1991). The phrase "entity for whose benefit [a] transfer was made," refers to those who receive a benefit as a result of the initial transfer from the debtor—not as the result of a subsequent transfer." In re Bullion Reserve of North America, 922 F.2d 544, 547 (9th Cir. 1991). Moreover, as the Ninth Circuit recognized in Bullion Reserve, such parties are liable, whether or not they actually benefit from the transfers in question. Id. The language of section 550(a)(1) "implies a requirement that, in transferring the avoided funds, the debtor must have been motivated by an intent to benefit the individual or entity from whom the trustee seeks to recover." Halperin v. Moreno (In re Green Field Energy Servs.), 2015 Bankr. LEXIS 2914, *50-51. Additionally, "an entity need not actually benefit, so long as the transfer was made for his benefit." Burdette v. Emerald Partners, LLC (In re Cascade Ag Servs.), 2017 Bankr. LEXIS 3804, *21-22 (internal citations omitted). The Trustee's power to recover from the entity "for whose benefit such transfer was made" is absolute. See Matter of Walldesign, Inc., 872 F.3d 954, 962 (9th Cir. 2017) (When a trustee has proven the avoidability of a transfer, the Ninth Circuit has interpreted § 550(a) to provide trustees "an absolute right of recovery against the 'initial transferee' and any 'entity for whose benefit such transfer was made.'" (quoting Danning v. Miller (In re Bullion Reserve of N. Am.), 922 F.2d 544, 547 (9th Cir. 1991)).

The Complaint sufficiently alleges that the Hwang Defendants were the intended beneficiaries of the Transfers, because the Transfers were made to pay for the Hwang Defendants' private secondary education.

Defendants' request that the Court bar a future amended complaint alleging additional transfers is not proper. In making such a request, the Defendant is asking the Court to adjudicate a matter that is not before it.

D. Summary of the Defendants' Reply

The Defendants make the following arguments in their Reply to the Trustee's Opposition:

The Trustee provides no clear authority to rebut the Lo v. Lee case, which is directly on point. Most of the transfers occurred outside the two-year reachback period of § 548. Therefore, the Trustee is seeking to avoid the transfers under § 544(b), applying state law. That means that the Trustee's failure to rebut Lo v. Lee, which applied California law, is fatal to his position.

II. Findings and Conclusions

"To survive a motion to dismiss, a complaint must contain sufficient factual matter, accepted as true, to 'state a claim to relief that is plausible on its face.' A claim has facial plausibility when the plaintiff pleads factual content that allows the court to draw the reasonable inference that the defendant is liable for the misconduct alleged." Ashcroft v. Iqbal, 556 U.S. 662, 678 (2009) (internal citations omitted). To state a plausible claim for relief, a complaint must satisfy two working principles:

First, the tenet that a court must accept as true all of the allegations contained in a complaint is inapplicable to legal conclusions. Threadbare recitations of the elements of a cause of action, supported by mere conclusory statements, do not suffice.... Second, only a complaint that states a plausible claim for relief survives a motion to dismiss. Determining whether a complaint states a plausible claim for relief will ... be a context-specific task that requires the reviewing court to draw on its judicial experience and common sense. But where the well-pleaded facts do not permit the court to infer more than the mere possibility of misconduct, the complaint has alleged—but it has not "show[n]"—"that the pleader is entitled to relief."

Id. (citing Civil Rule 8(a)(2)).

Although the pleading standard Civil Rule 8 announces "does not require 'detailed factual allegations,' ... it demands more than an unadorned, the-defendant-unlawfully-harmed-me accusation.... A pleading that offers 'labels and conclusions' or a 'formulaic recitation of the elements of a cause of action will not do.' Nor does a complaint suffice if it tenders 'naked assertion[s]' devoid of 'further factual enhancement.'" Id. (citing Bell Atlantic Corp. v. Twombly, 550 U.S. 544, 555 (2007)).

Under California law, recipients of an education are not liable, under a fraudulent transfer theory, for tuition payments made directly from a debtor to the school. As held by the court in Lo v. Lee, the educational benefits received are "entirely intangible and theoretical, and could never be disgorged" Lo, 24 Cal. App. 5th at 1074–75. As further provided in Lo, disgorgement is unwarranted because the beneficiaries of the education never had access to or control over the funds transferred to the school. Id.

The Complaint alleges that the Debtor transferred tuition payments for the benefit of Defendant Joyce Hwang ("J. Hwang") either directly to Flintridge, or to Flintridge by way of a conduit, Facts Management. Under Lo v. Lee, J. Hwang would not be subject to fraudulent transfer liability on account of these transfers. However, these allegations have been mooted by the stipulated dismissal of J. Hwang.

The Complaint's allegations with respect to Young Jae Hwang, Hee Youn Hwang, and Nam Soo Hwang lack the necessary specificity. The Complaint contains a ledger setting forth the Transfers. The ledger indicates that Check No. 20126, in the amount of $8,630.52, was made payable to Nam S. Hwang. However, the memorandum accompanying the ledger entry states "Tuition / Hee Yeon Hwang." With respect to this entry, it is unclear whether the Trustee is seeking to avoid the Transfer as to Hee Yeon Hwang (as an entity for whose benefit the Transfer was made), or seeking to avoid the Transfer as to Nam S. Hwang (the payee named on the check). Certain other entries on the ledger suffer from the same ambiguity.

As a result of this lack of clarity, the Complaint does not provide the Defendants sufficient notice of the misconduct alleged. The Motion to Dismiss is GRANTED, but the Trustee is given leave to amend.

Defendants assert that the Trustee's reservation of the right to amend the Complaint to allege additional transfers do not put Defendants on sufficient notice of the misconduct alleged. Defendants seeks to bar the Trustee from filing an amended complaint that alleges additional transfers.

The Court declines to impose restrictions upon, or rule upon the propriety of, a hypothetical complaint that has not been filed. The Court's role "is neither to issue advisory opinions nor to declare rights in hypothetical cases, but to adjudicate live cases or controversies" Thomas v. Anchorage Equal Rights Comm'n, 220 F.3d 1134, 1138 (9th Cir. 2000). If the Trustee files an amended complaint alleging additional transfers, the Defendants are free to assert that the amended complaint's new allegations are time-barred because they do not relate back to the Complaint under Civil Rule 15(c). Unless that situation arises, the Court will not determine whether allegations of additional transfers are appropriate.

Based upon the foregoing, the Motion to Dismiss is GRANTED, but the Trustee is given leave to amend. Upon the filing of a First Amended Complaint, the Clerk of the Court will issue an updated Scheduling Order setting new litigation deadlines, including the date of a continued Status Conference.

Within seven days of the hearing, the Trustee shall submit an order incorporating

FR. 11-20-19

Docket 11

Tentative Ruling:

12/3/2019

For the reasons set forth below, the Motion to Dismiss is DENIED.

Pleadings Filed and Reviewed:

- 1) Complaint for: (1) Avoidance of Actual Fraudulent Transfers, (2) Avoidance of Constructive Fraudulent Transfers, and (3) Recovery of Avoided Transfers (the "Complaint") [Doc. No. 1]
- 2) Defendant Hyun Hwang's Notice of Motion and Motion to Dismiss Complaint (the "Motion") [Doc. No. 11]

Chapter 7

I. Allegations

The material allegations of the Complaint are as follows:

Until March 2017, the Debtor was engaged in the business of manufacturing and selling wholesale fabrics and accessories. Complaint at ¶ 8. From September 2008 through the conclusion of 2015, Jason Young Cho aka Youngduk Duk Cho aka Jason Duk Cho ("J. Cho") was the Chief Executive Officer and sole shareholder of the Debtor. Id. at ¶ 9. J. Cho is an insider of the Debtor within the meaning of § 101(31)(B). Id. at ¶ 10.

J. Cho and Kenny Hwang aka Kyoung Sub Hwang ("K. Hwang") had a verbal agreement to share ownership and control of the Debtor, with J. Cho holding a 30% ownership interest and K. Hwang holding a 70% ownership interest. Id. at ¶ 11. In furtherance of a scheme to avoid paying more than $1 million in taxes, K. Hwang did not disclose his ownership interest in the Debtor until 2016. Id. At the end of 2015 or the beginning of 2016, J. Cho transferred his interest in the Debtor to K. Hwang for no consideration. Id. at ¶ 12. K. Hwang is an insider of the Debtor within the meaning of § 101(31)(B). Id. at ¶ 13.

At all relevant times, J. Cho and K. Hwang jointly managed the Debtor and had access to and control over the Debtor and the Debtor's bank accounts. Id. at ¶ 15.

Between 2013 and the Petition Date, J. Cho and K. Hwang misdirected funds of the Debtor to pay for the personal expenses of themselves and their relatives. The misdirection of funds occurred while the Debtor was insolvent, undercapitalized, and unable to pay its debts as they became due in the ordinary course of business. Id. at ¶ 16.

Between 2013 and the Petition Date, K. Hwang caused the Debtor to transfer substantial amounts of money to his wife, children, and other relatives in the guise of "loans" that were never repaid. Id. at ¶ 17.

By way of a check dated July 31, 2014, K. Hwang and J. Cho caused the Debtor to transfer $50,000 to the Defendant (the "Transfer"). Id. at ¶ 20 and Ex. A. The Defendant is K. Hwang's daughter and is an insider of the Debtor within the meaning of § 101(31)(B). Id. at ¶ 21.

Although the Transfer to Defendant was listed in the Debtor's QuickBooks with the memo reference "LOAN PMT," the Debtor's financial records contain no evidence of any corresponding loan. Id. at ¶ 23. The Transfer exceeded the total amount of value, if any, that the Defendant provided to the Debtor, and the Debtor did not receive reasonably equivalent value in exchange for the Transfers. Id. at ¶ 26.

2. Claims for Relief

Based upon the foregoing allegations, the Complaint asserts claims (1) to avoid the Transfer as intentionally fraudulent, pursuant to § 544(b) (applying Cal. Civ. Code §§ 3439.04(a) and 3439.07) and § 548(a)(1)(A), (2) to avoid the Transfer as constructively fraudulent, pursuant to § 544(b) (applying Cal. Civ. Code §§ 3439.04(b), 3439.05, and 3439.07) and § 548(a)(1)(B), and (3) to recover the avoided Transfer, pursuant to § 550(a)(2).

The Trustee also asserts a "right to amend this Complaint to allege additional claims against the Defendant Hyun and to challenge and recover transfers made to or for the benefit of the Defendant Hyun in addition to those transfers alleged in this Complaint." Complaint at ¶ 7.

B. Summary of Defendant's Motion to Dismiss

Defendant moves to dismiss the Complaint for failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted. Defendant makes the following arguments in support of the Motion:

The Complaint fails to plead the alleged fraud with the necessary specificity, as required by Civil Rule 9(b). The Complaint does not allege "the who, what, when, where, and how" of the alleged fraud.

The Trustee has improperly reserved the right to assert claims regarding additional, undiscovered transfers. The Complaint was filed two days prior to the expiration of the statute of limitations. By seeking to preserve the possibility of filing an amended complaint alleging additional transfers, the Trustee is attempting to circumvent the statute of limitations. The Court should prohibit any future amendments that seek to add claims relating to additional transfers.

C. Summary of the Trustee's Opposition

The Trustee makes the following arguments in his Opposition to the Motion:

The allegations of the Complaint are sufficient to state a claim. The Trustee has alleged that the Debtor transferred $50,000 to the Defendant; that the Defendant is not a creditor of the Debtor, but is instead the daughter of K. Hwang, an insider of the Debtor; that the Debtor's financial records contain no indication that the $50,000 transfer was a loan; that the $50,000 transfer exceeded the value, if any, that Defendant provided to the Debtor; and that the Debtor did not receive reasonably equivalent value for the transfer. The Complaint's allegations of fraud are detailed and specific.

Defendant's request that the Court bar a future amended complaint alleging additional transfers is not proper. In making such a request, the Defendant is asking the Court to adjudicate a matter that is not before it.

D. Summary of the Defendant's Reply

The Defendant makes the following arguments in her Reply to the Trustee's Opposition:

Had the Complaint sought to avoid only one specific $50,000 transfer, Defendant would not have been required to argue that the Complaint's allegations of fraud were not pleaded with the necessary specificity. However, the Complaint leaves open the possibility that the Trustee may allege additional transfers that the Trustee has not yet identified. The Court should impose reasonable conditions on the filing of a future complaint and prohibit the inclusion of any unidentified transfers.

II. Findings and Conclusions

"To survive a motion to dismiss, a complaint must contain sufficient factual matter, accepted as true, to 'state a claim to relief that is plausible on its face.' A claim has facial plausibility when the plaintiff pleads factual content that allows the court to draw the reasonable inference that the defendant is liable for the misconduct alleged." Ashcroft v. Iqbal, 556 U.S. 662, 678 (2009) (internal citations omitted). To state a plausible claim for relief, a complaint must satisfy two working principles:

First, the tenet that a court must accept as true all of the allegations contained in a complaint is inapplicable to legal conclusions. Threadbare recitations of the elements of a cause of action, supported by mere conclusory statements, do not suffice.... Second, only a complaint that states a plausible claim for relief survives a motion to dismiss. Id. (citing Civil Rule 8(a)(2)).

Although the pleading standard Civil Rule 8 announces “does not require ‘detailed factual allegations,’ ... it demands more than an unadorned, the-defendant-unlawfully-harmed-me accusation.... A pleading that offers ‘labels and conclusions’ or a ‘formulaic recitation of the elements of a cause of action will not do.’ Nor does a complaint suffice if it tenders ‘naked assertion[s]’ devoid of ‘further factual enhancement.’” Id. (citing Bell Atlantic Corp. v. Twombly, 550 U.S. 544, 555 (2007)). Civil Rule 9(b) provides: “In alleging fraud or mistake, a party must state with particularity the circumstances constituting fraud or mistake. Malice, intent, knowledge, and other conditions of a person’s mind may be alleged generally.”

The Ninth Circuit has explained the application of Civil Rule 9(b) as follows:

[W]hen averments of fraud are made, the circumstances constituting the alleged fraud “be ‘specific enough to give defendants notice of the particular misconduct ... so that they can defend against the charge and not just deny that they have done anything wrong.’ ” Bly–Magee, 236 F.3d at 1019 (quoting Neubronner v. Milken, 6 F.3d 666, 672 (9th Cir.1993)). Averments of fraud must be accompanied by “the who, what, when, where, and how” of the misconduct charged. Cooper v. Pickett, 137 F.3d 616, 627 (9th Cir.1997) (internal quotation marks omitted). “[A] plaintiff must set forth more than the neutral facts necessary to identify the transaction. The plaintiff must set forth what is false or misleading about a statement, and why it is false.” Decker v. GlenFed, Inc. (In re GlenFed, Inc. Sec. Litig.), 42 F.3d 1541, 1548 (9th Cir.1994).

Vess v. Ciba-Geigy Corp. USA, 317 F.3d 1097, 1106 (9th Cir. 2003).

The Complaint’s allegations pertaining to the fraudulent transfer are sufficiently pleaded. The Complaint alleges that K. Hwang and J. Cho exercised control over the Debtor’s bank accounts; that K. Hwang and J. Cho caused the funds of the Debtor to be misdirected to fund the personal expenses of themselves and their families; and that on July 31, 2014, K. Hwang caused the Debtor to transfer $50,000 to the Defendant, his daughter, even though the Defendant had not provided reasonably equivalent value to the Debtor. These allegations identify the “who, what, when, where, and how” of the alleged fraud, and are sufficiently specific to state claims for relief under §§ 544, 548(a)(1)(A), and 548(a)(1)(B).

Defendant asserts that the Trustee's reservation of the right to amend the Complaint to allege additional transfers does not put Defendant on sufficient notice of the misconduct alleged. Defendant seeks to bar the Trustee from filing an amended complaint that alleges additional transfers.

Chapter 7

A. Summary of the Complaint

1. Allegations

The material allegations of the Complaint are as follows:

Until March 2017, the Debtor was engaged in the business of manufacturing and selling wholesale fabrics and accessories. Complaint at ¶ 10. From September 2008 through the conclusion of 2015, Jason Young Cho aka Youngduk Duk Cho aka Jason Duk Cho ("J. Cho") was the Chief Executive Officer and sole shareholder of the Debtor. Id. at ¶ 11. J. Cho is an insider of the Debtor within the meaning of § 101(31)(B). Id. at ¶ 12.

J. Cho and Kenny Hwang aka Kyoung Sub Hwang ("K. Hwang") had a verbal agreement to share ownership and control of the Debtor, with J. Cho holding a 30% ownership interest and K. Hwang holding a 70% ownership interest. Id. at ¶ 13. In furtherance of a scheme to avoid paying more than $1 million in taxes, K. Hwang did not disclose his ownership interest in the Debtor until 2016. Id. At the end of 2015 or the beginning of 2016, J. Cho transferred his interest in the Debtor to K. Hwang for no consideration. Id. at ¶ 14. K. Hwang is an insider of the Debtor within the meaning of § 101(31)(B). Id. at ¶ 16.

At all relevant times, J. Cho and K. Hwang jointly managed the Debtor and had access to and control over the Debtor and the Debtor's bank accounts. Id. at ¶ 17.

Between 2013 and the Petition Date, J. Cho and K. Hwang misdirected funds of the Debtor to pay for the personal expenses of themselves and their relatives. Id. at ¶ 18. The misdirection of funds occurred while the Debtor was insolvent, undercapitalized, and unable to pay its debts as they became due in the ordinary course of business. Id.

Between 2013 and the Petition Date, K. Hwang caused the Debtor to transfer substantial amounts of money to his wife, children, and other relatives in the guise of "loans" that were never repaid. Id. at ¶ 19.

During the four-year period immediately preceding the Petition Date, J. Cho and/or K. Hwang caused the Debtor to transfer the sum of $91,211.30 to the Defendant (the "Transfers"). Id. at ¶ 22. The Defendant is K. Hwang's spouse and is an insider of the Debtor. Id. at ¶ 22–23. The Transfers exceeded the amount of value, if any, that Defendant provided to the Debtor, and the Debtor did not receive reasonably equivalent value in exchange for the Transfers. Id. at ¶ 27.

2. Claims for Relief

Based upon the foregoing allegations, the Complaint asserts claims (1) to avoid the Transfers as intentionally fraudulent, pursuant to § 544(b) (applying Cal. Civ. Code §§ 3439.04(a) and 3439.07) and § 548(a)(1)(A), (2) to avoid the Transfer as constructively fraudulent, pursuant to § 544(b) (applying Cal. Civ. Code §§ 3439.04(b), 3439.05, and 3439.07) and § 548(a)(1)(B), and (3) to recover the avoided Transfers, pursuant to § 550(a)(2).

The Trustee also asserts a "right to amend this Complaint to allege additional claims against the Defendant and to challenge and recover transfers made to or for the benefit of the Defendant in addition to those transfers alleged in this Complaint." Complaint at ¶ 9.

B. Summary of Defendant's Motion to Dismiss

Defendant moves to dismiss the Complaint for failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted. Defendant makes the following arguments in support of the Motion:

Defendant's spouse, K. Hwang, filed a voluntary Chapter 7 petition on September 18, 2019. All community property of a debtor is property of that debtor's bankruptcy estate. Through this action, the Trustee seeks to recover from the Defendant community property that is property of K. Hwang's estate. The Trustee's continued prosecution of the action violates the automatic stay in K. Hwang's bankruptcy petition. Consequently, the action should be dismissed.

In addition, the Complaint fails to plead the alleged fraud with the necessary specificity, as required by Civil Rule 9(b). The Complaint does not allege "the who, what, when, where, and how" of the alleged fraud.

Further, the Trustee has improperly reserved the right to assert claims regarding additional, undiscovered transfers. The Complaint was filed two days prior to the expiration of the statute of limitations. By seeking to preserve the possibility of filing an amended complaint alleging additional transfers, the Trustee is attempting to circumvent the statute of limitations. The Court should prohibit any future amendments that seek to add claims relating to additional transfers.

C. Summary of the Trustee's Opposition

The Trustee makes the following arguments in his Opposition to the Motion:

Chapter 7

Defendant argues without any support that the Trustee's prosecution of the claims against the Defendant in this action violate the automatic stay. This argument is without merit, and the Motion to Dismiss was filed in bad faith.

The Complaint's allegations of fraud are detailed and specific, and state plausible claims for relief.

Defendant's request that the Court bar a future amended complaint alleging additional transfers is not proper. In making such a request, the Defendant is asking the Court to adjudicate a matter that is not before it.

D. Summary of the Defendant's Reply:

The Defendant makes the following arguments in her Reply to the Trustee's Opposition:

The Trustee asserts that continued prosecution of the action does not violate the automatic stay in K. Hwang's case, but cites no legal authority for this proposition. Community property of the non-debtor spouse is unquestionably property of the estate under § 541(a).

In the event the Motion to Dismiss is denied or the Court grants the Trustee leave to amend, the Court should prohibit any future complaint from including transfers not already alleged in the Complaint.

II. Findings and Conclusions

Unless and until the Trustee obtains relief from the automatic stay arising in K. Hwang's individual bankruptcy case, the Court will not proceed with the adjudication of the Complaint. Adjudication of the Complaint would violate the automatic stay arising in K. Hwang's bankruptcy petition. Under § 541(a)(2), the property of K. Hwang's estate includes the community property of K. Hwang's spouse, M. Hwang. Therefore, the stay created by K. Hwang's bankruptcy petition prevents adjudication of the Trustee's claims against M. Hwang.

The Court declines to dismiss the Complaint solely as a result of the automatic stay in K. Hwang's case. Dismissal is too extreme a remedy. To the extent the Motion seeks dismissal solely as a result of the automatic stay created by K. Hwang's bankruptcy petition, it is denied.

It is not appropriate for the Court to address the remaining arguments in support of the Motion to Dismiss unless and until the Trustee has obtained stay relief in K. Hwang's bankruptcy case. If the Trustee obtains stay relief in K. Hwang's bankruptcy case, the Court will restore the Motion to the calendar for the purpose of adjudicating Defendants' remaining arguments for dismissal.

A. Summary of the Complaint

1. Allegations

The material allegations of the Complaint are as follows:

Until March 2017, the Debtor was engaged in the business of manufacturing and selling wholesale fabrics and accessories. Complaint at ¶ 12. From September 2008 through the conclusion of 2015, Jason Young Cho aka Youngduk Duk Cho aka Jason Duk Cho ("J. "loan payment" (the "Loan Transfers"). Id. at Ex. A. The Debtor did not receive any value in exchange for these Transfers. Id.

2. Claims for Relief

Based upon the foregoing allegations, the Complaint asserts claims (1) to avoid the Transfers as intentionally fraudulent, pursuant to § 544(b) (applying Cal. Civ. Code §§ 3439.04(a) and 3439.07) and § 548(a)(1)(A), (2) to avoid the Transfers as constructively fraudulent, pursuant to § 544(b) (applying Cal. Civ. Code §§ 3439.04(b), 3439.05, and 3439.07) and § 548(a)(1)(B), and (3) to recover the avoided Transfers, pursuant to § 550(a)(2).

The Trustee also asserts a "right to amend this Complaint to allege additional claims against the Defendant and to challenge and recover transfers made to or for the benefit of the Defendant in addition to those transfers alleged in this Complaint." Complaint at ¶ 11.

B. Summary of I. Hwang's Motion to Dismiss

Defendant I. Hwang moves to dismiss the Complaint for failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted. I. Hwang makes the following arguments in support of the Motion:

The Complaint does not allege that I. Hwang directly received the Wedding Transfers. The only plausible theory of liability against I. Hwang with respect to the Wedding Transfers is that she was a person "for whose benefit" the Wedding Transfers were made.

The fact that the Wedding Transfers were used to pay for services performed at I. Hwang's wedding does not qualify I. Hwang as a person "for whose benefit" the Transfers were made under § 550(a). "[T]ransfer beneficiary status depends on three aspects of the 'benefit': (1) it must actually have been received by the beneficiary; (2) it must be quantifiable; and (3) it must be accessible to the beneficiary." In re Brooke Corp., 488 B.R. 459, 468 (Bankr. D. Kan. 2013).

The benefit I. Hwang received from the services performed at her wedding was not direct and cannot be quantified into a specific dollar amount. In addition, I. Hwang did not have control or dominion over the Wedding Transfers. Therefore, the benefit was not accessible to I. Hwang. There is no basis for holding I. Hwang liable for any portion of the $37,174.65 used to pay for services at I. Hwang's wedding.

In addition, the Trustee has improperly reserved the right to assert claims regarding additional, undiscovered transfers. The Complaint was filed two days prior to the expiration of the statute of limitations. By seeking to preserve the possibility of filing an amended complaint alleging additional transfers, the Trustee is attempting to circumvent the statute of limitations. The Court should prohibit any future amendments that seek to add claims relating to additional transfers.

C. Summary of the Trustee's Opposition

The Trustee makes the following arguments in his Opposition to the Motion:

The Trustee has alleged that I. Young benefitted from approximately $40,000 in Wedding Transfers and approximately $25,000 in Loan Transfers.

Under section 550(a)(1), the Trustee can recover an avoided transfer from the "initial transferee," or an "entity for whose benefit [a] transfer was made." Danning v. Miller (In re Bullion Reserve of N. Am.), 922 F.2d 544, 547 (9th Cir. 1991). The phrase "entity for whose benefit [a] transfer was made," refers to those who receive a benefit as a result of the initial transfer from the debtor—not as the result of a subsequent transfer." In re Bullion Reserve of North America, 922 F.2d 544, 547 (9th Cir. 1991). Moreover, as the Ninth Circuit recognized in Bullion Reserve, such parties are liable, whether or not they actually benefit from the transfers in question. Id. The language of section 550(a)(1) "implies a requirement that, in transferring the avoided funds, the debtor must have been motivated by an intent to benefit the individual or entity from whom the trustee seeks to recover." Halperin v. Moreno (In re Green Field Energy Servs.), 2015 Bankr. LEXIS 2914, *50-51. Additionally, "an entity need not actually benefit, so long as the transfer was made for his benefit." Burdette v. Emerald Partners, LLC (In re Cascade Ag Servs.), 2017 Bankr. LEXIS 3804, *21-22 (internal citations omitted). The Trustee's power to recover from the entity "for whose benefit such transfer was made" is absolute. See Matter of Walldesign, Inc., 872 F.3d 954, 962 (9th Cir. 2017) (When a trustee has proven the avoid ability of a transfer, the Ninth Circuit has interpreted § 550(a) to provide trustees "an absolute right of recovery against the 'initial transferee' and any 'entity for whose benefit such transfer was made.'" (quoting Danning v. Miller (In re Bullion Reserve of N. Am.), 922 F.2d 544, 547 (9th Cir. 1991)).

The Complaint alleges sufficient facts to state a claim to avoid the Wedding Transfers as either actually or constructively fraudulent under applicable California law. The payments to the wedding vendors were made specifically for I. Young's benefit.

Chapter 7

The allegations with respect to the Loan Transfers are likewise sufficiently pleaded.

D. Summary of I. Young's Reply

I. Young makes the following arguments in Reply to the Trustee's Opposition:

The Court can find I. Young liable for the Wedding Transfers only if the Court finds that I. Young is a person for whose benefit the Wedding Transfers were made. The Trustee has failed to rebut the proposition that a "benefit" must be tangible and quantifiable for fraudulent transfer purposes.

I. Young has not located a case directly on point; however, the case of Lo v. Lee, 24 Cal. App. 5th 1065, 1072–74, 234 Cal. Rptr. 3d 824, 827–29 (Ct. App. 2018) is instructive. In Lo, the court found that payments made by a debtor father for his son's tuition could be avoidable, but the son could not be held liable as a beneficiary of those payments. In construing the Uniform Voidable Transfers Act (the "UVTA"), the Lo court applied bankruptcy cases interpreting § 550(a). The court found that the son was not an "entity for whose benefit" the transfers were made, because the benefit was not quantifiable and was not accessible to the son:

As to the second prong, courts have stated that in order for a benefit to be "quantifiable," "[a] merely theoretical benefit is not sufficient, since it would not be subject to disgorgement." (McCook Metals, supra, 319 B.R. at p. 591.) Clearly, there is no way to quantify the intellectual and other benefits You [the son] received from the educational opportunity afforded him by Lee's transfer. Even plaintiff concedes "a creditor cannot levy on the student's college education." Any such benefits are entirely intangible and theoretical, and could never be disgorged by him as they cannot be valued solely in terms of dollars and cents.

Additionally, the benefit You received is not, and never was, "accessible" to him. Lee's funds were transmitted directly to Northeastern, and there are no allegations suggesting that the funds were ever controlled by You. In addressing this prong, the McCook Metals court noted that "[e]ven if a quantifiable benefit is actually received, it could not fairly be disgorged if the beneficiary never had access to it." (McCook Metals, supra, 319 B.R. at p. 592.) Here, You had no control over the funds that Lee transferred to the school, and the FAC does not allege that he had access to these funds at any

Like the educational benefits in Lo, the benefit received from a wedding is intangible and unquantifiable. In addition, the Trustee does not allege that I. Young ever had control or access to the Wedding Transfers.

II. Findings and Conclusions

A. The Motion is Granted in Part and Denied in Part

"To survive a motion to dismiss, a complaint must contain sufficient factual matter, accepted as true, to 'state a claim to relief that is plausible on its face.' A claim has facial plausibility when the plaintiff pleads factual content that allows the court to draw the reasonable inference that the defendant is liable for the misconduct alleged." Ashcroft v. Iqbal, 556 U.S. 662, 678 (2009) (internal citations omitted). To state a plausible claim for relief, a complaint must satisfy two working principles:

First, the tenet that a court must accept as true all of the allegations contained in a complaint is inapplicable to legal conclusions. Threadbare recitations of the elements of a cause of action, supported by mere conclusory statements, do not suffice.... Second, only a complaint that states a plausible claim for relief survives a motion to dismiss. Determining whether a complaint states a plausible claim for relief will ... be a context-specific task that requires the reviewing court to draw on its judicial experience and common sense. But where the well-pleaded facts do not permit the court to infer more than the mere possibility of misconduct, the complaint has alleged—but it has not "show[n]"—"that the pleader is entitled to relief."

Id. (citing Civil Rule 8(a)(2)).

Although the pleading standard Civil Rule 8 announces "does not require 'detailed factual allegations,' ... it demands more than an unadorned, the-defendant-unlawfully-harmed-me accusation.... A pleading that offers 'labels and conclusions' or a 'formulaic recitation of the elements of a cause of action will not do.' Nor does a complaint suffice if it tenders 'naked assertion[s]' devoid of 'further factual enhancement.'" Id. (citing Bell Atlantic Corp. v. Twombly, 550 U.S. 544, 555 (2007)).

which relief can be granted. The Wedding Transfers occurred outside the two-year reachback period set forth in § 548. Consequently, the Trustee can avoid the Wedding Transfers only under California’s Uniform Voidable Transfers Act (the “UVTA”), pursuant to § 544(b).

Where, as here, the Defendant did not directly receive the transfers at issue, fraudulent transfer liability attaches only if the Defendant is “the person for whose benefit the transfer was made.” Cal. Civ. Code § 3439.08. As explained by the court in Lo v. Lee:

[T]he fact that a person received any kind of “benefit,” no matter how intangible or indirect, from a fraudulent transaction does not necessarily subject that person to liability. There are limits to the legal assessment of the type of “benefit” that will subject a beneficiary to liability for the debtor’s alleged fraudulent transfer. The benefit received must be “direct, ascertainable and quantifiable” and must bear a “ ‘necessary correspondence to the value of the property transferred.’ ” (In re Intern. Management Assoc. (11th Cir. 2005) 399 F.3d 1288, 1293.) “ [T]ransfer beneficiary status depends on three aspects of the “benefit”: (1) it must actually have been received by the beneficiary; (2) it must be quantifiable; and (3) it must be accessible to the beneficiary.’ ” (In re Brooke Corp. (Bankr. D. Kan. 2013) 488 B.R. 459, 468 (In re Brooke)). This three-part test is used in federal courts to determine whether a party should be subjected to liability as the ultimate beneficiary of an alleged fraudulent transfer. (Baldi v. Lynch (In re McCook Metals, L.L.C.) (Bankr. N.D.Ill 2005) 319 B.R. 570, 590–594 (McCook Metals); see Bonded Financial Services v. European Amer. Bank (7th. Cir 1988) 838 F.2d 890, 896 (Bonded Financial Services); Sher v. SAF Fin. Inc. (D.Md. 2011) 2011 U.S. Dist. Lexis 116967, *8.) The benefit that is actually received must flow from the initial transfer which is avoided, instead of being a secondary result of the alleged transfer. (Bonded Financial Services, at p. 896.) The nature of the legal benefit is predicated on the “disgorgement-based understanding of recovery of fraudulent transfers from those benefitting from the transfer. ... [T]he benefit actually received must flow from the initial transfer which is avoided.” (In re Brooke, at p. 469.) The three-part test must be satisfied for recovery of a transferred property under 11 U.S.C. section 550(a)(1) from the ultimate beneficiary.

Lo v. Lee, 24 Cal. App. 5th 1065, 1073–74, 234 Cal. Rptr. 3d 824, 829 (Ct. App. 2018).

The Lo court held that the recipient of educational benefits was not liable for tuition payments made directly from a debtor to the recipient's school. The court reasoned that such benefits are "entirely intangible and theoretical, and could never be disgorged" Lo, 24 Cal. App. 5th at 1074–75. In addition, the court held that the tuition transfers were not "accessible" to the recipient of the education because they were paid directly to the school. Id.

The Wedding Transfers at issue here are similar to the tuition payments at issue in Lo. The benefits of a wedding, like those of an education, are "entirely intangible and theoretical" and cannot be disgorged. In addition, the Wedding Transfers were not accessible to I. Hwang, because they were paid directly to the vendors who provided services at the wedding. Cf. Lo, 24 Cal. App. 4th at 1075 ("Here, You had no control over the funds that [the debtor] Lee transferred to the school, and the FAC does not allege that he had access to these funds at any point in time.").

Because the Trustee's theory fails as a matter of law, the allegations with respect to the Wedding Transfers are dismissed without leave to amend. See Reddy v. Litton Indus., Inc., 912 F.2d 291, 296 (9th Cir. 1990) (holding that the Court may dismiss a complaint without leave to amend where any proposed amendment would be futile).

In addition to the Wedding Transfers, the Complaint alleges that I. Young received approximately $25,000 in Loan Transfers. The allegations with respect to the Loan Transfers state a claim upon which relief can be granted. The Trustee has alleged that I. Young provided no value to the Debtor in exchange for the Loan Transfers; that the Debtor was insolvent at the time of the Loan Transfers; and that the Debtor's books and records contain no evidence that I. Young was extended a loan.

I. Young asserts that the Trustee's reservation of the right to amend the Complaint to allege additional transfers does not put I. Young on sufficient notice of the misconduct alleged. I. Young seeks to bar the Trustee from filing an amended complaint that alleges additional transfers.

The Court declines to impose restrictions upon, or rule upon the propriety of, a hypothetical complaint that has not been filed. The Court's role "is neither to issue advisory opinions nor to declare rights in hypothetical cases, but to adjudicate live cases or controversies" Thomas v. Anchorage Equal Rights Comm'n, 220 F.3d 1134, 1138 (9th Cir. 2000). If the Trustee files an amended complaint alleging additional transfers, I. Young is free to assert that the amended complaint's new allegations are time-barred because they do not relate back to the Complaint under Civil Rule 15(c). Unless that situation arises, the Court will not determine whether allegations of additional transfers are appropriate.

III. Conclusion

Based upon the foregoing, the allegations with respect to the Wedding Transfers are dismissed without leave to amend. The remaining allegations against I. Young state a claim upon which relief can be granted. As previously ordered, a Status Conference in this matter shall take place on January 14, 2020. Doc. No. 28.

Docket 18

Tentative Ruling:

12/3/2019

Unless and until the Trustee obtains relief from the automatic stay arising in K. Hwang's individual bankruptcy case, this action is STAYED. The Court will conduct a Status Conference on February 11, 2020, at 10:00 a.m.

Avoidance of Constructive Fraudulent Transfers, (3) Avoidance of Preferential Transfers, (4) Recovery from Subsequent Transferee, (5) Recovery of Avoided Transfers, (6) Conspiracy to Defraud, (7) Recovery of Illegal Dividends, and (8) Unjust Enrichment (the "Complaint") against Kenny Hwang ("K. Hwang"), Mirea Hwang ("M. Hwang"), Hyun Hwang ("H. Hwang"), Tri Blossom, LLC, and K2 America, Inc. (collectively, the "Defendants").

The Complaint seeks to avoid and recover more than $8 million of transfers from the Debtor to the Defendants. The Complaint alleges, inter alia, that K. Hwang caused the Debtor to fraudulently transfer assets to the Defendants to fund personal expenses unrelated to the Debtor's business.

A. Summary of Defendants' Motion to Dismiss

Defendants move to dismiss the Complaint for failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted. Defendants make the following arguments in support of the Motion:

K. Hwang filed a voluntary Chapter 7 petition on September 18, 2019. This action is stayed by the automatic stay arising in K. Hwang's bankruptcy case. The Trustee is effectively seeking to pursue the assets of K. Hwang's bankruptcy estate by seeking damages against him personally. All claims against K. Hwang should be dismissed.

M. Hwang, K. Hwang's spouse, should be dismissed as a defendant as to each of the claims for relief to the extent that the Trustee seeks to pursue the community property assets of K. Hwang, as those non-exempt assets are property of K. Hwang's bankruptcy estate.

B. Summary of the Trustee's Opposition

The Trustee makes the following arguments in his Opposition to the Motion:

The Trustee was not provided notice of K. Hwang's bankruptcy petition. Since learning of K. Hwang's bankruptcy, the Trustee has taken no actions to prosecute the claims against K. Hwang. The Trustee intends to file a motion for relief from the automatic stay in K. Kwang's case.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, K. Hwang has waived the protections of the automatic stay by filing the Motion to Dismiss. See In re Cobb, 88 B.R. 119, 121 (Bankr. W.D. Tex. 1988) ("[W]hen the debtor-in-possession appears and defends a suit on any basis other than application of the automatic stay, then the debtor-in-possession waives the automatic stay. To hold otherwise would allow a debtor-in-possession to have trump card that he could play if he did not like the outcome of the action, but allowing him take a favorable judgment.”).

C. Summary of the Defendants’ Reply

Defendants make the following arguments in their Reply to the Trustee’s Opposition:

K. Hwang and M. Hwang have not waived the automatic stay. Courts have found that a debtor cannot waive the stay. See Marcus, Stowell & Beye Gov’t Secs., Inc. v. Jefferson Inv. Corp., 797 F.2d 227, 230 n.4 (5th Cir. 1986) (stating that a debtor may not unilaterally waive the stay even in cases where the debtor initiated the proceedings). K. Hwang and M. Hwang should be dismissed based on the continuing violation of the automatic stay.

II. Findings and Conclusions

Unless and until the Trustee obtains relief from the automatic stay arising in K. Hwang’s individual bankruptcy case, the Court will not proceed with the adjudication of the Complaint. Adjudication of the Complaint with respect to the claims against K. Hwang and M. Hwang would violate the automatic stay arising in K. Hwang’s bankruptcy petition. Under § 541(a)(2), the property of K. Hwang’s estate includes the community property of K. Hwang’s spouse, M. Hwang. Therefore, the stay created by K. Hwang’s bankruptcy petition prevents adjudication of the Trustee’s claims against M. Hwang.

Contrary to the Trustee’s argument, K. Hwang has not waived the protections of the automatic stay by filing the Motion to Dismiss. In In re Cobb, the case cited by the Trustee, the Court held that a debtor who defended litigation “on any basis other than application of the automatic stay” waived the protections of the stay. 88 B.R. 119, 121 (Bankr. W.D. Tex. 1998). Here, K. Hwang has invoked the automatic stay as a defense against the litigation. Therefore, In re Cobb is inapposite.

Defendants argue that the claims against K. Hwang and M. Hwang should be dismissed as a result of the automatic stay in K. Hwang’s case. Dismissal of such claims is too extreme a remedy. To the extent the Motion seeks dismissal solely as a result of the automatic stay created by K. Hwang’s bankruptcy petition, it is denied.

The automatic stay does not bar the continued prosecution of the Trustee’s claims against Defendants Tri Blossom LLC and Hyun Hwang. However, the claims against these Defendants are based upon the same core of operative facts as the claims against K. Hwang and M. Hwang. Adjudication of the action only against Tri Blossom LLC and Hyun Hwang would not be feasible. Therefore, the Court will not proceed with any aspect of the action unless and until the Trustee obtains stay relief in K. Hwang's bankruptcy case.

Defendants assert additional arguments in support of the Motion to Dismiss. Addressing those arguments while the stay in K. Hwang's bankruptcy case remains in effect would not be appropriate.

If the Trustee obtains stay relief in K. Hwang's bankruptcy case, the Court will restore the Motion to the calendar for the purpose of adjudicating Defendants' remaining arguments for dismissal.

The Court will conduct a Status Conference in this action on February 11, 2020, at 10:00 a.m. The parties shall file a Joint Status Report by no later than fourteen days prior to the hearing.

The Court will prepare and enter an appropriate order.

Docket 1

Tentative Ruling:

12/6/2019

The Clerk of the Court entered Defendant's default on November 27, 2019. Doc. No. 13. The Chapter 7 Trustee has engaged in settlement discussions with one of the Defendant's relatives, Dominic Anderson. The parties have agreed upon a settlement amount, but it is unclear whether Anderson can fund the settlement.

Based upon the foregoing, the Court HEREBY ORDERS AS FOLLOWS:

- 1) The deadline for Anderson to demonstrate to the Trustee's satisfaction that he has the ability to fund the contemplated settlement is January 31, 2020.
- 2) If Anderson demonstrates the ability to fund the settlement, the Trustee shall file a Bankruptcy Rule 9019 Motion by no later than February 14, 2020. The Motion shall be filed on a negative-notice basis, pursuant to the procedure set forth in Local Bankruptcy Rule 9013-1(o).
- 3) If Anderson cannot fund the settlement, the Trustee shall file a Motion for Default Judgment by no later than February 14, 2020. The Motion shall be filed on a negative-notice basis, pursuant to the procedure set forth in Local Bankruptcy Rule 9013-1(o).
- 4) A continued Status Conference shall be held on March 10, 2020, at 10:00 a.m. The Trustee shall file a Unilateral Status Report by no later than fourteen days prior to the hearing. In the event the matter is resolved, the continued Status Conference will go off calendar.

No appearance is required if submitting on the court's tentative ruling. If you intend to submit on the tentative ruling, please contact Carlos Nevarez or Daniel

Docket 1

Tentative Ruling:

12/6/2019

On September 4, 2019, the Court issued a Scheduling Order [Doc. No. 3], which the Plaintiff served upon the Defendant on September 9, 2019. Doc. No. 8. The Scheduling Order provides in relevant part:

Any party contesting this Court's authority to enter a final order or judgment in this matter must file and serve a written objection no later than fourteen days prior to the date set for the first Status Conference. See Wellness Int'l Network, Ltd. v. Sharif, 135 S. Ct. 1932 (2015). Failure to raise the issue in accordance with the requirements set forth above will be deemed consent to this court's authority to enter a final order or judgment.

Scheduling Order at ¶ 6.

In the Joint Status Report [Doc. No. 10] filed on November 22, 2019, Defendant checked the box indicating that it does not consent to entry of a final judgment by the Bankruptcy Court. However, Defendant did not file a written objection to the Bankruptcy Court's entry of final judgment, as required by the Scheduling Order. Therefore, Defendant is deemed to consent to the Bankruptcy Court's authority to enter a final judgment. In addition, the instant Complaint is a dischargeability action brought under § 523(a)(2)(A), and is consequently a core proceeding over which the Bankruptcy Court has statutory and constitutional authority to enter final judgment. Defendant's objection to the Bankruptcy Court's entry of final judgment is OVERRULED.

Having reviewed the Joint Status Report filed by the parties, the Court HEREBY

ORDERS AS FOLLOWS:

- 1) The litigation deadlines previously ordered shall continue to apply, as follows:
 - a) The last day to amend pleadings and/or join other parties is 1/09/2020.
 - b) The last day to disclose expert witnesses and expert witness reports is 4/28/2020.
 - c) The last day to disclose rebuttal expert witnesses and rebuttal expert witness reports is 5/28/2020.
 - d) The last date to complete discovery relating to expert witnesses (e.g., depositions of expert witnesses), including hearings on motions related to expert discovery, is 6/16/2020. (For contemplated hearings on motions related to expert discovery, it is counsel's responsibility to check the Judge's self-calendaring dates, posted on the Court's website. If the expert discovery cutoff date falls on a date when the court is closed or that is not available for self-calendaring, the deadline for hearings on expert discovery motions is the next closest date which is available for self-calendaring.)
 - e) The last day for dispositive motions to be heard is 6/23/2020. (If the motion cutoff date is not available for self-calendaring, the deadline for dispositive motions to be heard is the next closest date which is available for self-calendaring.)
 - f) The last day to complete discovery (except as to experts), including hearings on discovery motions, is 6/27/2020. (If the non-expert discovery cutoff date is not available for self-calendaring, the deadline for non-expert discovery motions to be heard is the next closest date which is available for self-calendaring.)
 - g) A Pretrial Conference is set for 07/14/2020 at 11:00 a.m. By no later than fourteen days prior to the Pretrial Conference, the parties must submit a Joint Pretrial Stipulation via the Court's Lodged Order Upload (LOU) system. Submission via LOU allows the Court to edit the Joint Pretrial Stipulation, if necessary. Parties should consult the Court Manual, section 4, for information about LOU.
 - h) In addition to the procedures set forth in Local Bankruptcy Rule 7016-1(b), the following procedures govern the conduct of the Pretrial Conference and the preparation of the Pretrial Stipulation:
 - i) By no later than thirty days prior to the Pretrial Conference, the parties

- must exchange copies of all exhibits which each party intends to introduce into evidence (other than exhibits to be used solely for impeachment or rebuttal).
- ii) When preparing the Pretrial Stipulation, all parties shall stipulate to the admissibility of exhibits whenever possible. In the event any party cannot stipulate to the admissibility of an exhibit, that party must file a Motion in Limine which clearly identifies each exhibit alleged to be inadmissible and/or prejudicial. The moving party must set the Motion in Limine for hearing at the same time as the Pretrial Conference; notice and service of the Motion shall be governed by LBR 9013-1. The Motion in Limine must contain a statement of the specific prejudice that will be suffered by the moving party if the Motion is not granted. The Motion must be supported by a memorandum of points and authorities containing citations to the applicable Federal Rules of Evidence, relevant caselaw, and other legal authority. Blanket or boilerplate evidentiary objections not accompanied by detailed supporting argument are prohibited, will be summarily overruled, and may subject the moving party to sanctions.
 - iii) The failure of a party to file a Motion in Limine complying with the requirements of ¶(1)(h)(ii) shall be deemed a waiver of any objections to the admissibility of an exhibit.
 - iv) Motions in Limine seeking to exclude testimony to be offered by any witness shall comply with the requirements set forth in ¶(1)(h)(ii), and shall be filed by the deadline specified in ¶(1)(h)(ii). The failure of a party to file a Motion in Limine shall be deemed a waiver of any objections to the admissibility of a witness's testimony.
- i) Trial is set for the week of 07/27/2020. The trial day commences at 9:00 a.m. The exact date of the trial will be set at the Pretrial Conference. Consult the Court's website for the Judge's requirements regarding exhibit binders and trial briefs.
 - 2) The matter shall be referred to the Mediation Panel. The parties shall meet and confer and select a Mediator from this District's Mediation Panel. Plaintiff will lodge a completed "Request for Assignment to Mediation Program; [Proposed] Order Thereon" (See Amended General Order 95-01 available on the Court's website) within 15 days from the date of this hearing, and deliver a hard copy directly to chambers c/o the judge's law clerk Daniel Koontz.

- iv) Motions in Limine seeking to exclude testimony to be offered by any witness shall comply with the requirements set forth in ¶(1)(h)(ii), and shall be filed by the deadline specified in ¶(1)(h)(ii). The failure of a party to file a Motion in Limine shall be deemed a waiver of any objections to the admissibility of a witness's testimony.
- i) Trial is set for the week of 09/28/2020. The trial day commences at 9:00 a.m. The exact date of the trial will be set at the Pretrial Conference. Consult the Court's website for the Judge's requirements regarding exhibit binders and trial briefs.
- 2) The matter shall be referred to the Mediation Panel. The parties shall meet and confer and select a Mediator from this District's Mediation Panel. Plaintiff will lodge a completed "Request for Assignment to Mediation Program; [Proposed] Order Thereon" (See Amended General Order 95-01 available on the Court's website) within 15 days from the date of this hearing, and deliver a hard copy directly to chambers c/o the judge's law clerk Daniel Koontz.

The Court will prepare and enter a Scheduling Order. Plaintiff shall submit the order assigning the matter to mediation.

No appearance is required if submitting on the court's tentative ruling. If you intend to submit on the tentative ruling, please contact Carlos Nevarez or Daniel Koontz at 213-894-1522. If you intend to contest the tentative ruling and appear, please first contact opposing counsel to inform them of your intention to do so. Should an opposing party file a late opposition or appear at the hearing, the court will determine whether further hearing is required. If you wish to make a telephonic appearance, contact Court Call at 888-882-6878, no later than one hour before the hearing.

Tentative Ruling:

12/6/2019

Having reviewed the Joint Status Report filed by the parties, the Court HEREBY ORDERS AS FOLLOWS:

- 1) The litigation deadlines previously ordered shall continue to apply, as follows:
 - a) The last day to amend pleadings and/or join other parties is 1/09/2020.
 - b) The last day to disclose expert witnesses and expert witness reports is 4/28/2020.
 - c) The last day to disclose rebuttal expert witnesses and rebuttal expert witness reports is 5/28/2020.
 - d) The last date to complete discovery relating to expert witnesses (e.g., depositions of expert witnesses), including hearings on motions related to expert discovery, is 6/16/2020. (For contemplated hearings on motions related to expert discovery, it is counsel's responsibility to check the Judge's self-calendaring dates, posted on the Court's website. If the expert discovery cutoff date falls on a date when the court is closed or that is not available for self-calendaring, the deadline for hearings on expert discovery motions is the next closest date which is available for self-calendaring.)
 - e) The last day for dispositive motions to be heard is 6/23/2020. (If the motion cutoff date is not available for self-calendaring, the deadline for dispositive motions to be heard is the next closest date which is available for self-calendaring.)

- g) A Pretrial Conference is set for 07/14/2020 at 11:00 a.m. By no later than fourteen days prior to the Pretrial Conference, the parties must submit a Joint Pretrial Stipulation via the Court's Lodged Order Upload (LOU) system. Submission via LOU allows the Court to edit the Joint Pretrial Stipulation, if necessary. Parties should consult the Court Manual, section 4, for information about LOU.
- h) In addition to the procedures set forth in Local Bankruptcy Rule 7016-1(b), the following procedures govern the conduct of the Pretrial Conference and the preparation of the Pretrial Stipulation:
 - i) By no later than thirty days prior to the Pretrial Conference, the parties must exchange copies of all exhibits which each party intends to introduce into evidence (other than exhibits to be used solely for impeachment or rebuttal).
 - ii) When preparing the Pretrial Stipulation, all parties shall stipulate to the admissibility of exhibits whenever possible. In the event any party cannot stipulate to the admissibility of an exhibit, that party must file a Motion in Limine which clearly identifies each exhibit alleged to be inadmissible and/or prejudicial. The moving party must set the Motion in Limine for hearing at the same time as the Pretrial Conference; notice and service of the Motion shall be governed by LBR 9013-1. The Motion in Limine must contain a statement of the specific prejudice that will be suffered by the moving party if the Motion is not granted. The Motion must be supported by a memorandum of points and authorities containing citations to the applicable Federal Rules of Evidence, relevant caselaw, and other legal authority. Blanket or boilerplate evidentiary objections not accompanied by detailed supporting argument are prohibited, will be summarily overruled, and may subject the moving party to sanctions.
 - iii) The failure of a party to file a Motion in Limine complying with the requirements of ¶(1)(h)(ii) shall be deemed a waiver of any objections to the admissibility of an exhibit.
 - iv) Motions in Limine seeking to exclude testimony to be offered by any witness shall comply with the requirements set forth in ¶(1)(h)(ii), and

#12.00 Status Hearing
RE: [1] Postconfirmation Status Conference

fr. 10-17-18; 1-15-19; 6-11-19

Docket 1

Tentative Ruling:

12/6/2019

On June 18, 2018, the Court entered an order confirming the First Amended Chapter 11 Plan of Liquidation Dated January 31, 2018 (the "Plan"). The Plan appointed Bradley D. Sharp as the Plan Administrator responsible for liquidating the assets of the estate. (The Plan provided that all assets of the estate remained vested in the estate. See Plan at Art. 3.)

The Plan Administrator has made six distributions to holders of allowed claims. Funds distributed to date exceed $9.6 million.

Having reviewed the Fourth Post-Confirmation Status Report, the Court finds that the Plan Administrator is making sufficient progress toward effectuating the Plan. A continued Status Conference shall take place on May 12, 2020, at 10:00 a.m. The Plan Administrator shall submit a Status Report by no later than fourteen days prior to the hearing.

The Court will prepare and enter an order setting the continued Status Conference.

No appearance is required if submitting on the court's tentative ruling. If you intend to submit on the tentative ruling, please contact Carlos Nevarez or Daniel Koontz at 213-894-1522. If you intend to contest the tentative ruling and appear, please first contact opposing counsel to inform them of your intention to do so. Should an opposing party file a late opposition or appear at the hearing, the court will determine whether further hearing is required. #13.00 Status conference re status of appeal

fr. 7-9-19; 10-15-19

Docket 129

Tentative Ruling:

12/6/2019

Trial in this adversary proceeding was initially set for May 29–30, 2018. On May 28, 2018, Defendant Tsai Luan Ho a/k/a Shelby Ho ("Ho") (the only remaining defendant) filed a voluntary Chapter 7 petition in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of California (the "Northern District Bankruptcy Court"). The Court took the trial off calendar. Based upon Plaintiff's representation that it intended to pursue a non-dischargeability action against Ho in the Northern District Bankruptcy Court, the Court subsequently dismissed this action without prejudice.

On July 20, 2018, Plaintiff filed a non-dischargeability action against Ho in the Northern District Bankruptcy Court (the "523 Action"). On August 23, 2018, the Chapter 7 Trustee in Ho's bankruptcy case filed a § 727 complaint to deny Ho's discharge (the "727 Action"). On April 9, 2019, the Northern District Bankruptcy Court entered judgment denying Ho's discharge, pursuant to § 727(a)(3) (the "Judgment Denying Discharge"). On April 16, 2019, Ho appealed the Judgment Denying Discharge to the United States District Court for the Northern District of California (the "District Court"). On June 7, 2019, the Northern District Bankruptcy Court denied Ho's motion for a stay pending appeal of the Judgment Denying Discharge. Ho's appeal of the Judgment Denying Discharge remains pending before the District Court. Proceedings in the 523 Action have been stayed pending resolution of the appeal of the Judgment Denying Discharge. On April 26, 2019, the Northern District Bankruptcy Court issued a minute order providing that the 523 Action "may be restored to the calendar after the District Court acts on the pending appeal" of the Judgment Denying Discharge.

On July 9, 2019, the Court conducted a hearing on Plaintiff's motion to reopen this adversary proceeding (the "Motion to Reopen"). Plaintiff sought an order reopening this proceeding and setting the matter for an immediate status conference in trial.

The Court ruled that it would not set this matter for trial until the District Court had decided Ho's appeal of the Judgment Denying Discharge. The Court reasoned:

In the event that the District Court overturns the Judgment Denying Discharge, Plaintiff will be required to pursue the 523 Action to obtain a recovery against Ho. The 523 Action is based upon the same nucleus of operative facts as this action. The potential for duplicative litigation weighs against proceeding to trial at this time. In addition to wasting judicial resources, the additional costs resulting from a duplicative trial would decrease the recoveries available for distribution to creditors by the Plan Administrator.

Ruling on Motion to Reopen [Doc. No. 135] at 4.

The Court set this Status Conference to monitor the status of Ho's appeal of the Judgment Denying Discharge. The appeal remains pending before the District Court (briefing was completed on October 9, 2019).

A continued Status Conference to monitor the appeal shall be held on February 11, 2020, at 10:00 a.m. A Status Report shall be submitted by no later than seven days prior to the hearing.

The Court will prepare and enter an order setting the continued Status Conference.

No appearance is required if submitting on the court's tentative ruling. If you intend to submit on the tentative ruling, please contact Carlos Nevarez or Daniel Koontz at 213-894-1522. If you intend to contest the tentative ruling and appear, please first contact opposing counsel to inform them of your intention to do so. Should an opposing party file a late opposition or appear at the hearing, the court will determine whether further hearing is required. RE: [12] Notice of motion and motion for relief from the automatic stay with supporting declarations REAL PROPERTY RE: 2905 La Puesta Del Sol, Palm Springs, CA 92262 . (Khil, Christina)
fr. 12-9-19

Docket 12

Tentative Ruling:

12/6/2019

Tentative Ruling:

This Motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on the notice required by LBR 4001(c)(1) and LBR 9013-1(d)(2). The failure of the Debtor, the trustee, and all other parties in interest to file written opposition at least 14 days prior to the hearing as required by LBR 9013-1(f) is considered as consent to the granting of the Motion. LBR 9013-1(h). Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995).

The Court finds that there is sufficient evidence to grant relief pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(4). The Debtor filed this voluntary Chapter 7 case on October 7, 2019. On August 1, 2007, Wayne J. Rizzi (the "Borrower") executed a security instrument secured by real property located at 2905 La Puesta Del Sol, Palm Springs, CA 92262 (the "Property"). See Motion, Ex. 1. As set forth on Exhibit 6 of the Motion, the Borrower purportedly granted the Debtor an interest in the Property in the amount of $7,500 through a short form deed of trust. The deed of trust is dated August 16, 2019, fifty-one days before this case was filed. See Motion, Ex. 6. Nevertheless, Debtor's commencement documents do not reflect that she possesses any interests in real property. Doc. No. 1. In fact, the record indicates that Debtor has no contractual obligations, or is otherwise in privity of contract, with either the Borrower or the Movant. Movant also claims that since 2016 there have been at least two other bankruptcy petitions affecting interests in the Property. Based on the foregoing, the Court determines that in rem relief under § 362(d)(4) is suitable.

Notwithstanding, the Court cannot conclude that Debtor herself has actually engaged in any bad faith conduct, or that the instant case is part of a scheme to delay, hinder, and defraud creditors. See In re Dorsey, 476 B.R. 261, 267 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2012) (" [section] 362(d)(4) 'does not require that it be the debtor who has created the scheme or carried it out, or even that the debtor be a party to the scheme at all.'") (internal citations omitted).

For the reasons set forth above, the Motion is GRANTED to permit Movant, its successors, transferees and assigns, to enforce its remedies to foreclose upon and obtain possession of the Property in accordance with applicable law. The 14-day period specified in Fed.R.Bankr.P. 4001(a)(3) is waived. This order shall be binding and effective despite any conversion of the bankruptcy case to a case under any other chapter of Title 11 of the United States Code. If recorded in compliance with applicable State laws governing notices of interests or liens in real property, the order shall be binding in any other case under this title purporting to affect the Property filed not later than 2 years after the date of the entry of such order by the Court, except that a debtor in a subsequent case under this title may move for relief from such order based upon changed circumstances or for good cause shown, after notice and a hearing. Any Federal, State, or local governmental unit that accepts notices of interests or liens in real property shall accept a certified copy of this order for indexing and recording. All other relief is denied.

Movant shall upload an appropriate order via the Court's Lodged Order Upload system within 7 days of the hearing.

No appearance is required if submitting on the court's tentative ruling. If you intend to submit on the tentative ruling, please contact Daniel Koontz or Carlos Nevarez, the Judge's law clerks at 213-894-1522. If you intend to contest the tentative ruling and appear, please first contact opposing counsel to inform them of your intention to do so. Should an opposing party file a late opposition or appear at the hearing, the court will determine whether further hearing is required. fr. 11-25-19, 12-9-19

Docket 40

Tentative Ruling:

12/6/2019

Tentative Ruling:

This Motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on the notice required by LBR 4001(c)(1) and LBR 9013-1(d)(2). The failure of the Debtor, the trustee, and all other parties in interest to file written opposition at least 14 days prior to the hearing as required by LBR 9013-1(f) is considered as consent to the granting of the Motion. LBR 9013-1(h). Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995).

The Motion is GRANTED pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(2) to permit Movant, its successors, transferees and assigns, to enforce its remedies to foreclose upon and obtain possession of the property in accordance with applicable law. Movant may not pursue any deficiency claim against the Debtor or property of the estate except by filing a proof of claim pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 501. Since a chapter 7 case does not contemplate reorganization, the sole issue before the Court when stay relief is sought under 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(2) is whether the Debtor has equity in the property. See, e.g., Martens v. Countrywide Home Loans (In re Martens), 331 B.R. 395, 398 (B.A.P. 8th Cir. 2005); Ramco Indus. v. Preuss (In re Preuss), 15 B.R. 896, 897 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 1981).

The subject property has a value of $606,900 and is encumbered by a perfected deed of trust or mortgage in favor of the Movant. See Motion, Ex. 3 [Debtor's schedules]. The liens against the property and the expected costs of sale total $790,621.24. See Motion at 8-9; see also Supplemental Declaration of Christopher Powell, ¶¶ 4-6 [Doc. No. 70]. The Court finds there is no equity and there is no evidence that the trustee can administer the subject real property for the benefit of creditors. Based on the foregoing, relief from stay is also appropriate under § 362(d) (1).

This order shall be binding and effective despite any conversion of the bankruptcy case to a case under any other chapter of Title 11 of the United States Code. The 14-day stay prescribed by FRBP 4001(a)(3) is waived. All other relief is denied.

Tentative Ruling:

This Motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on the notice required by LBR 4001(c)(1) and LBR 9013-1(d)(2). The failure of the Debtor, the trustee, and all other parties in interest to file written opposition at least 14 days prior to the hearing as required by LBR 9013-1(f) is considered as consent to the granting of the Motion. LBR 9013-1(h). Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995).

The Motion is GRANTED pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) for cause to permit Movant, its successors, transferees and assigns, to enforce its remedies to repossess or otherwise obtain possession and dispose of its collateral pursuant to applicable law, and to use the proceeds from its disposition to satisfy its claim. Movant may not pursue any deficiency claim against the Debtor or property of the estate except by filing a proof of claim pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 501. The Court takes judicial notice of the Chapter 7 Individual Debtor's Statement of Intention in which the Debtor stated an intention to surrender the vehicle to Movant. See Doc. No. 1.

This order shall be binding and effective despite any conversion of the bankruptcy case to a case under any other chapter of Title 11 of the United States Code. The 14-day stay prescribed by FRBP 4001(a)(3) is waived. All other relief is denied.

Movant shall upload an appropriate order via the Court's Lodged Order Upload

RE: [13] Notice of motion and motion for relief from the automatic stay with supporting declarations UNLAWFUL DETAINER RE: 924 S. Carondelet Street # 219, Los Angeles, CA 90006 with Exhibit A through E and Proof of Service of Document.
fr. 12-9-19

Docket 13

Tentative Ruling:

12/6/2019

Tentative Ruling:

This Motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on the notice required by LBR 4001(c)(1) and LBR 9013-1(d)(2). The failure of the Debtor, the trustee, and all other parties in interest to file written opposition at least 14 days prior to the hearing as required by LBR 9013-1(f) is considered as consent to the granting of the Motion. LBR 9013-1(h). Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995).

The Motion is GRANTED pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1). The stay is terminated as to the Debtor and the Debtor's bankruptcy estate with respect to the Movant, its successors, transferees and assigns. Movant may enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property in accordance with applicable law, but may not pursue a deficiency claim against the debtor or property of the estate except by filing a proof of claim pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 501.

The Movant served a notice to quit upon the property's master tenant and all other occupants on August 1, 2019, and an unlawful detainer action was filed on August 22, 2019, with a continued trial date of December 9, 2019. The Debtor commenced this voluntary chapter 7 petition on September 3, 2019. In addition, the Debtor filed an answer to the unlawful detainer action on September 26, 2019. See Motion, Ex. E.

This Motion has been filed to allow the Movant to proceed with the unlawful detainer proceeding in state court. The unlawful detainer proceeding may go forward because the Debtor's right to possess the premises must be determined. This does not change simply because a bankruptcy petition was filed. See In re Butler, 271 B.R. 867, 876 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2002).

The stay is annulled retroactive to the petition date, so that enforcement actions taken by Movant, if any, before receipt of notice of the automatic stay will not be deemed to have been voided by the automatic stay. This order shall be binding and effective despite any conversion of this bankruptcy case to a case under any other chapter of Title 11 of the United States Code. The 14-day stay prescribed by FRBP 4001(a)(3) is waived. All other relief is denied.

Movant shall upload an appropriate order via the Court's Lodged Order Upload system within 7 days of the hearing.

No appearance is required if submitting on the court's tentative ruling. If you intend to submit on the tentative ruling, please contact Daniel Koontz or Carlos Nevarez, the Judge's law clerks at 213-894-1522. If you intend to contest the tentative ruling and appear, please first contact opposing counsel to inform them of your intention to do so. Should an opposing party file a late opposition or appear at the hearing, the court will determine whether further hearing is required. RE: [9] Motion to Dismiss Adversary Proceeding

fr: 11-19-19

Docket 9

Tentative Ruling:

12/10/2019

For the reasons set forth below, the Motion to Dismiss is GRANTED, and the Complaint is DISMISSED with prejudice.

Pleadings Filed and Reviewed:

- 1) Complaint for Damages and to Determine Dischargeability of Damages [Doc. No. 1] (the "Complaint")
- 2) Notice of Motion and Motion for Dismissal of Adversarial Proceedings Filed by Plaintiff Soroush Janamian Against Debtors Robert Arutyunyan and Klaris Nazaryan [Doc. No. 9] (the "Motion")
- 3) Plaintiff's Memorandum of Points and Authorities in Opposition to Defendants' Motion to Dismiss Adversarial Proceedings [Doc. No. 22]

 - b) Declaration of Soroush Hanamian in Opposition to Debtors' Motion to Dismiss Adversarial Proceedings [Doc. No. 19]
- 4) Defendants' Response to Opposition to Defendants Motion to Dismiss [Doc. No. 23]

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

Robert Arutyunyan and Klaris Nazaryan (the "Debtors") filed a voluntary Chapter 7 petition on June 3, 2019. Debtors scheduled Soroush Janamian as an unsecured creditor. On June 5, 2019, a Notice of Chapter 7 Bankruptcy Case (the "Notice") was mailed by the Bankruptcy Noticing Center to Janamian at the following address:

Soroush Janamian
c/o Bruce T. McIntosh
1055 E. Colorado Blve. Ste. 500
Pasadena, CA 91106-3271

Bankruptcy Noticing Center Certificate of Notice [Bankr. Doc. No. 15] at 1.

The Notice advised Janamian that the deadline to file a dischargeability complaint against the Debtors was September 9, 2019.

On September 13, 2019, Janamian filed a Complaint for Damages and to Determine Dischargeability of Damages [Adv. Doc. No. 1] (the "Complaint") against the Debtors.

The Debtors move to dismiss the Complaint as untimely. Plaintiff opposes the Motion to Dismiss. Plaintiff acknowledges that the Complaint was not filed timely, but argues that the Court should invoke its equitable power to excuse the untimely filing. In support of this request, Plaintiff submits the Declaration of Alex Spada, which provides in relevant part:

I worked on behalf of the Plaintiff ... with respect to the filing of the Adversary Proceeding Complaint in this Action.

On Friday, September 6, 2019, the Complaint was signed and I attempted to fax file the Summons and Complaint in this action. However, I was unsuccessful.

On Monday, September 9, 2019 ... I submitted the Summons and Complaint in this action to One Legal, a well known electronic filing service, for filing with the Court....

I heard nothing back from One Legal the next day, and I believed that it [the Complaint] had been accepted for filing.

On Wednesday, September 11, 2019, I called One Legal to confirm that the Complaint had been filed and was told, for the first time, that the paperwork was rejected because they needed "original paperwork."

The next day, on Thursday, September 12, 2018 [sic; should be 2019], I personally drove to the Bankruptcy Court and tried to file the Summons and Complaint in this action

At that time I was told that the court needed an "original wet signature."

Spada Decl. at ¶¶

II. Findings and Conclusions

Creditors who received notice of the petition are required to file a dischargeability complaint within sixty days after the first date set for the meeting of creditors. Bankruptcy Rule 4007(c). The deadline for filing a dischargeability complaint may be extended for cause, but only if a motion seeking an extension is filed before the deadline has expired. Id.

The Ninth Circuit has “repeatedly held that the sixty-day time limit for filing nondischargeability complaints under 11 U.S.C. § 523(c) is ‘strict’ and, without qualification, ‘cannot be extended unless a motion is made before the 60–day limit expires.’” Anwar v. Johnson, 720 F.3d 1183, 1187 (9th Cir. 2013) (citing In re Kennerley, 995 F.2d at 146). As explained by the Anwar court:

[B]y its terms, the rule requires creditors such as Anwar to file nondischargeability complaints within sixty days of the creditors’ meeting. A creditor may move to extend the deadline for cause—as Anwar successfully did once—but “[t]he motion shall be filed before the time has expired.” [Rule 4007(c).] Reinforcing the statement that creditors must move for extensions of FRBP 4007(c)’s filing deadline before the time for filing has expired, FRBP 9006(b)(3) states that bankruptcy courts may extend this deadline “only to the extent and under the conditions stated in” FRBP 4007(c) itself. Fed. R. Bankr.P. 9006(b)(3). This requirement distinguishes FRBP 4007(c)’s deadline from most others set by the bankruptcy rules, which bankruptcy courts may extend at any time upon a showing of good cause or excusable neglect.

Anwar, 720 F.3d at 1186–87.

In Anwar, the creditor missed the dischargeability deadline by approximately forty minutes as a result of technical problems with creditor’s counsel’s computer. Id. at 1185. In upholding the dismissal of the complaint as untimely, the court stated that “deadlines are often the terrible anvil on which a legal result is forged.” Id. at 1184. The court found that dismissal was required by the plain language of Bankruptcy Rule 4007(c) even though the complaint had been filed only approximately forty minutes late, and even though the debtor was not prejudice by the delay. Id. at 1188. The court held that “under the plain language of the rules and our controlling precedent,” there is not “an equitable exception from FRBP 4007(c)’s filing deadline.” Id.

Here, the issues preventing the timely filing of the Complaint are similar to the technical issues in Anwar. That is, the Complaint was not timely filed as a result of errors by the parties working on Plaintiff’s behalf, including the failure of Spada to file the Complaint by fax on September 6, 2019 and the failure of Spada to submit the required original paperwork on September 9, 2019. As was the case in Anwar, the “bankruptcy court lack[s] the equitable power to grant relief” from the untimely filing. Id. at 1187.

The Motion to Dismiss is GRANTED. This action is DISMISSED with prejudice. The Court will prepare and enter an order dismissing the action.

No appearance is required if submitting on the court’s tentative ruling. If you intend to submit on the tentative ruling, please contact Carlos Nevarez or Daniel Koontz, the Judge’s Law Clerks, at 213-894-1522. If you intend to contest the tentative ruling and appear, please first contact opposing counsel to inform them of your intention to do so. Should an opposing party file a late opposition or appear at the hearing, the court will determine whether further hearing is required. #9.00 HearingRE: [87] Motion to Use Cash Collateral

Tentative Ruling:

12/10/2019

For the reasons set forth below, the Court GRANTS the Cash Collateral Motion. The Debtor is authorized to use the cash collateral through the date of plan confirmation or the dismissal of this case. The Debtor shall tender monthly adequate protection payments to the Bank as stated in the proposed budget.

Pleadings Filed and Reviewed

1. Notice of Motion and Motion in Individual Chapter 11 Case for Order Authorizing Use of Cash Collateral [Doc. No. 87] (the "Cash Collateral Motion")

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

Liboria Zavalza (the "Debtor") filed this voluntary chapter 11 case on April 3, 2019 (the "Petition Date"). On Schedule A, the Debtor listed an ownership interest in a duplex located at 4053 & 4501(A) Raldolph [Note 1] Street, Huntington Park, CA 90255 (the "Property"). As stated in the Cash Collateral Motion, the Debtor rents out the Property and collects monthly rental income totaling $4,000. The Property is subject to a first-priority deed of trust in favor of HSBC Bank, N.A., as Trustee for the Registered Holders of Nomura Home Equity Loan, Inc., Asset-Backed Certificates, Series 2007-3 (the "Bank") in the amount of $1,185,616.25 [Note 2].

On October 16, 2019, the Court entered an order approving a stipulation executed between the Debtor and the Bank (the "Bank Stipulation") [see Doc. Nos. 71, 72]. The relevant terms of the Bank Stipulation are as follows:

1. The Bank shall have a fully secured claim in the amount of $465,000 (the "Secured Claim").
2. The Secured Claim will be paid over 360 monthly installments of $2,787.91, due on the first day of the month, commencing on the first day of the month following entry of an order approving the Bank's Stipulation [November 1, 2019].
3. In addition to the Secured Claim, the Debtor will also tender monthly escrow payments for real property taxes and insurance in the current amount of $1,056.83, which is subject to change.
4. The unsecured portion of the Bank's claim in the amount of $722,892.12 shall be treated as a general unsecured claim.

The Debtor seeks authorization to use cash collateral, through the date of confirmation of a chapter 11 plan, in accordance with both the Bank Stipulation and additional terms set forth in the Proposed Monthly Budget (the "Budget") appearing on page 5 of the Cash Collateral Motion. The Budget provides for the following expenses to be paid for with the Bank's cash collateral:

Income:	$4,000.00
Expenses:
The Bank	($2,787.91)
Property Taxes/ Insurance	($1,056.83)
Maintenance	($50.00)
Repairs & Supplies	($100.00)
Net Income:	$5.26

Other Expenses: Single payment of $15,000 for Attorney's Fees

The Debtor further attests that she holds a balance of $17,767.51 in her rental account as of October 31, 2019. Declaration of Debtor in Support of Cash Collateral Motion (the "Zavalza Decl."), ¶ 10. The Debtor additionally expects to receive $4,000 in rental income in November 2019, bringing the balance of her rental account to $21,767.51. Id. In addition to the terms set forth in the Budget, the Debtor requests court authorization to pay allowed professional fees of $15,000 from her rental account, which would leave the account with a balance of $2,722.77 [Note 3]. Id. at ¶ 12. On December 6, 2019, the Court entered an order approving the application for interim fees and expenses for Lionel E. Giron, Debtor's counsel, in the amount of $15,000 [Doc. No. 92].

Although the Debtor references certain lease agreements labeled as "Exhibit 1," the Debtor failed to include any attachments in support of the Cash Collateral Motion. As of the preparation of this tentative ruling, no opposition is on file.

II. Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law

Section 363(c)(2) requires court authorization for use of cash collateral unless "each entity that has an interest in such cash collateral consents." In the Ninth Circuit, satisfaction of § 363(c)(2)(A) requires the "affirmative express consent" of the secured creditor; "implied consent," resulting from the failure of the secured creditor to object to use of cash collateral, does not satisfy the requirements of the statute. Freightliner Market Development Corp. v. Silver Wheel Freightlines, Inc., 823 F.2d 362, 368-69 (9th Cir. 1987).

1. Expenses contemplated in the Bank Stipulation

The Court finds the terms of the Bank Stipulation, including the Debtor's acknowledgment of payments owed to the Bank on account of its secured claim, to be acceptable. To the extent that the Bank Stipulation contemplates expenses set forth in the Budget (including reasonable maintenance expenses), the Bank has affirmatively expressed consent over Debtor's use of its cash collateral. Even if maintenance expenses are not expressly provided for in the Bank Stipulation, maintaining the Property is necessary to adequately protect the Bank's interests. See In re Megan-Racine Associates, Inc., 202 B.R. 660, 663 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1996) (concluding that "[a]s long as there was a continuous income stream being generated by the Debtor, the fact that the Debtor consumed a portion of those monies to operate and maintain the facility each month did not diminish the value of the [Secured Creditors'] interest in the [cash collateral]."). However, given that interim professional fees and costs are not discussed in the Bank Stipulation, the Court cannot determine that the Bank affirmatively expressed consent to authorize Debtor to pay her attorney with the Bank's cash collateral.

2. Interim professional fees and expenses

The Bank has not consented to the use of its cash collateral. Absent the Bank's consent, the Debtor must obtain court authorization for the use of cash collateral. § 363(c)(2)(B). In determining whether to authorize use of cash collateral, the Court notes that "[t]he principal restraint on use of cash proceeds is found in § 363(e), which specifies that the court shall condition the use of secured property 'as is necessary to provide adequate protection of such interest.' Therefore, when the Debtor proposes to use the Bank's cash collateral for professional fees without consent, the guiding inquiry is whether its security interests are 'adequately protected.'" Security Leasing Partners v. ProAlert, LLC (In re ProAlert), 314 B.R. 436, 442 (9th Cir. B.A.P. 2004) (citing In re George Ruggiere Chrysler-Plymouth, Inc., 727 F.2d 1017 (11th Cir. 1984) (internal citations omitted)); see also § 363(e) (requiring the court to "prohibit or condition" the use of cash collateral "as is necessary to provide adequate protection of such interest"). For instance, the In re ProAlert court affirmed the decision to allow a debtor to use cash collateral to pay estate professionals over the objection of an adequately protected, but undersecured, creditor with an interest in the cash collateral. See id. at 445.

A secured creditor's interest is adequately protected if the value of its collateral is not declining; the secured creditor is not entitled to payment to compensate for its inability to foreclose upon the collateral during bankruptcy proceedings. United Savings Association of Texas v. Timbers of Inwood Forest Associates, Ltd., 484 U.S. 365, 382 (1988). Section 361 sets forth three non-exclusive examples of what may constitute adequate protection: (1) periodic cash payments; (2) an additional or replacement lien on other property; or (3) other relief that provides the indubitable equivalent. See In re Mellor, 734 F.2d 1396, 1400 (9th Cir. 1984).

Therefore, whether Debtor may use rental account monies to pay professional fees depends on Debtor's demonstrated ability to ensure adequate protection of the Bank's cash collateral.

Here, the Debtor offers to maintain the Property and make periodic adequate security payments referenced both in the Budget and the Bank Stipulation. See Cash Collateral Motion at 4. The Debtor further indicates that adequate security payments of $3,844.74 will be paid out on a monthly basis from the rental income generated by the Property, which Debtor claims is $4,000 per month. The Court acknowledges that the monthly amount of rental income purportedly generated from the Property is disputed [Notes 4]. However, based upon the Court's review of the most recent monthly operating report ("MOR") [see Doc. No. 86], the Court notes that the sum of $3,888 was deposited into Debtor's rental account for the month of October 2019, a noticeable increase from receipts obtained for the months of August and July 2019 [see Doc Nos. 61, 70]. Similarly, Debtor received rental income totaling $3,978 during the month of September 2019 [see Doc. No. 74]. Based on the foregoing, the Debtor will have sufficient funds to tender adequate protection payments to the Bank. To the extent that Debtor's projected cash flow remains constant, the Bank's interest will be adequately protected, even if Debtor uses rental account monies to pay allowed professional fees. Moreover, the Debtor's use of cash collateral to pay estate professionals is necessary to preserve the Property and to facilitate the Debtor's reorganization efforts.

In sum, the Court finds that the terms of the Cash Collateral Motion and the Budget comply with § 363. The Court finds that the Bank's interest in the Property remains adequately protected because there is no evidence in the record to suggest that the Property is declining in value and because the Debtor has shown her ability to effectuate monthly adequate protection payments to the Bank. In addition, the absence of any objections is deemed as consent to granting the Cash Collateral Motion pursuant to Local Bankruptcy Rule 9013-1(h).

For the reasons set forth above, the Court GRANTS the Cash Collateral Motion. The Debtor is authorized to use the cash collateral through the date of plan confirmation or the dismissal of this case. The Debtor shall make monthly adequate protection payments to the Bank as set forth in the Budget.

The Debtor is directed to lodge a conforming proposed order, incorporating this tentative ruling by reference, within seven days of the hearing.

No appearance is required if submitting on the court's tentative ruling. If you intend to submit on the tentative ruling, please contact Daniel Koontz or Carlos Nevarez at 213-894-1522. If you intend to contest the tentative ruling and appear, please first contact opposing counsel to inform them of your intention to do so. Should an opposing party file a late opposition or appear at the hearing, the court will determine whether further hearing is required. If you wish to make a telephonic appearance, contact Court Call at 888-882-6878, no later than one hour before the hearing.

Note 1: The Court believes this spelling is in error and that the correct street name is Randolph Street as set forth in the Cash Collateral Motion.

Note 2: On August 20, 2019, the Court entered an order granting the Debtor's motion to value the Property at $465,000 and bifurcated the Bank's lien for plan purposes pursuant to § 506(a) [see Doc. No. 63].

Note 3: The Debtor's calculation is erroneous. Based on the figures set forth in the Budget and the Zavalza Declaration, the rental account would be left with a balance of $2,772.77, not $2,922.77.

Note 4: The U.S. Trustee's office filed an objection against Debtor's proposed disclosure statement because, among other reasons, Debtor's stated rental income is not supported by past MORs [see Doc. No. 85]. The Court reserves any findings with respect to Debtor's disclosure statement at this time.

12/11/2019

Tentative Ruling:

This Motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on the notice required by LBR 4001(c)(1) and LBR 9013-1(d)(2). The failure of the Debtors, the trustee, and all other parties in interest to file written opposition at least 14 days prior to the hearing as required by LBR 9013-1(f) is considered as consent to the granting of the Motion. LBR 9013-1(h). Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995).

The Motion is GRANTED pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) and (d)(2). The stay is terminated as to the Debtors and the Debtors' bankruptcy estate with respect to the Movant, its successors, transferees and assigns. Movant may enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property in accordance with applicable law, but may not pursue a deficiency claim against the Debtors or property of the estate except by filing a proof of claim pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 501.

On September 19, 2019, the Movant served a notice to quit on the Debtors, and an unlawful detainer action was filed on September 26, 2019. Unbeknownst to the Movant, Debtors had initiated this chapter 7 petition on September 6, 2019. See Motion at 10.

This Motion has been filed to allow the Movant to proceed with the unlawful detainer proceeding in state court. The unlawful detainer proceeding may go forward because the Debtors' right to possess the premises must be determined. This does not

This order shall be binding and effective despite any conversion of this bankruptcy case to a case under any other chapter of Title 11 of the United States Code. The 14-day stay prescribed by FRBP 4001(a)(3) is waived. All other relief is denied.

Movant shall upload an appropriate order via the Court's Lodged Order Upload system within 7 days of the hearing.

Docket 25

Tentative Ruling:

12/11/2019

Tentative Ruling:

This Motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on the notice required by LBR 4001(c)(1) and LBR 9013-1(d)(2). The failure of the Debtor, the trustee, and all other parties in interest to file written opposition at least 14 days prior to the hearing as required by LBR 9013-1(f) is considered as consent to the granting of the Motion. LBR 9013-1(h). Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995).

The Court finds that there is sufficient evidence to grant relief pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(4). The filing of the petition was part of a scheme to delay, hinder, and defraud creditors, which involved the transfer of all or part ownership of, or other interest in, the Property without the consent of Movant or court approval and multiple bankruptcy cases affecting the Property. Declaration of Mary Garcia in support of Motion at 11E. Accordingly, on August 5, 2005, Myoung Suk Kim (the "Borrower") executed a promissory note in the original principal amount of $600,000 (the "Note"), which is secured by real property located at 2424 Fallen Drive, Rowland Heights Area, CA 91748 (the "Property"). The original lender has since endorsed the Note in Movant's favor, and it is currently in Movant's possession. Motion, Ex. C. Further, the Borrower purportedly transferred interests in the Property to numerous third parties, including Debtor's "dba" businesses. The Movant claims that at least forty-three bankruptcy petitions have been filed by these various third parties, implicating interests in the Property. See Motion at 11E. Based on the foregoing, the Court determines that in rem relief under § 362(d)(4) is suitable. Notwithstanding, the Court cannot conclude that Debtor herself has actually engaged in any bad faith conduct, or that the instant case is part of a scheme to delay, hinder, and defraud creditors. See In re Dorsey, 476 B.R. 261, 267 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2012) ("[section] 362(d)(4) 'does not require that it be the debtor who has created the scheme or carried it out, or even that the debtor be a party to the scheme at all.'" (internal citations omitted).

For the same reasons, the Motion is GRANTED pursuant to section 362(d)(1) based on Debtor's bad faith filing. The 14-day period specified in Fed.R.Bankr.P. 4001(a)(3) is waived. This order shall be binding and effective despite any conversion of the bankruptcy case to a case under any other chapter of Title 11 of the United States Code. If recorded in compliance with applicable State laws governing notices of interests or liens in real property, the order shall be binding in any other case under this title purporting to affect such real property filed not later than 2 years after the date of the entry of such order by the Court, except that a debtor in a subsequent case under this title may move for relief from such order based upon changed circumstances or for good cause shown, after notice and a hearing. Any Federal, State, or local governmental unit that accepts notices of interests or liens in real property shall accept a certified copy of this order for indexing and recording.

The stay is annulled retroactive to the petition date, so that enforcement actions taken by Movant, if any, before receipt of notice of the automatic stay will not be deemed to have been voided by the automatic stay. All other relief is denied. Lastly, the Court notes that Debtor's case was dismissed on November 25, 2019. The Court vacates the dismissal for the limited purpose of entering an order on this Motion.

Movant shall upload an appropriate order via the Court's Lodged Order Upload system within 7 days of the hearing.

Docket 21

Tentative Ruling:

12/11/2019

Tentative Ruling:

This Motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on the notice required by LBR 4001(c)(1) and LBR 9013-1(d)(2). The failure of the Debtor, the trustee, and all other parties in interest to file written opposition at least 14 days prior to the hearing as required by LBR 9013-1(f) is considered as consent to the granting of the Motion. LBR 9013-1(h). Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995).

The Motion is GRANTED pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) to permit Movant, its successors, transferees and assigns, to enforce its remedies to foreclose upon and obtain possession of the property in accordance with applicable law. Movant may not pursue any deficiency claim against the Debtor or property of the estate except by filing a proof of claim pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 501. Movant has established a prima facie case that cause exists, and Debtor has not responded with evidence establishing that the property is not declining in value or that Movant is adequately protected.

The subject property has a value of $2,900,000 (Ex.10) and is encumbered by a perfected deed of trust or mortgage in favor of the Movant (Ex. 3). Considering Movant's lien and the estimated costs of sale, there is an equity cushion of $45,176. There is some, but very little equity and there is no evidence that the property is necessary to a reorganization or that the trustee can administer the property for the benefit of creditors. Movant is protected by a 1.6% equity cushion in the property. The Ninth Circuit has established that an equity cushion of 20% constitutes adequate protection for a secured creditor. Pistole v. Chapter 7

(9th Cir. 1984); see Downey Sav. & Loan Ass'n v. Helionetics, Inc. (In re Helionetics, Inc.), 70 B.R. 433, 440 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 1987) (holding that a 20.4% equity cushion was sufficient to protect the creditor's interest in its collateral).

Because the equity cushion in this case is less than 20%, the Court concludes that Movant's interest in the collateral is not adequately protected. This is cause to terminate the stay under 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1).

The Court further finds that there is sufficient evidence to grant relief pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(4). The Debtor filed this voluntary chapter 7 case on September 16, 2019, and this case was since dismissed on November 25, 2019. On June 21, 2006, Yi-Jung Lim (the "Borrower") executed a security instrument secured by real property located at 5242 Los Feliz Boulevard, Los Angeles, CA 90027 (the "Property"). Motion, Ex. 1. As indicated by the evidence presented by Movant, interests in the Property were purportedly transferred through unauthorized grant deeds to several individuals, including the Debtor. See Motion, Exs. 6-8. Accordingly, these third parties, including the Borrower, filed multiple bankruptcy cases affecting interests in the Property. See Exs. 4-7, 9. Based on the foregoing, the Court determines that in rem relief under § 362(d)(4) is suitable. Therefore, this petition was part of a scheme to delay, hinder, and defraud creditors, which involved the the transfer of all or part ownership of, or other interest in, the Property without the consent of Movant or court approval and multiple bankruptcy cases affecting the Property. Notwithstanding, the Court cannot conclude that Debtor herself has actually engaged in any bad faith conduct. See In re Dorsey, 476 B.R. 261, 267 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2012) ("[section] 362(d)(4) 'does not require that it be the debtor who has created the scheme or carried it out, or even that the debtor be a party to the scheme at all.'" (internal citations omitted)).

The Court notes that Debtor's case was dismissed on November 25, 2019. The Court vacates the dismissal for the limited purpose of entering an order on this Motion.

For the reasons set forth above, the Motion is GRANTED pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) and (d)(4) to permit Movant, its successors, transferees and assigns, to enforce its remedies to foreclose upon and obtain possession of the Property in accordance with applicable law. The 14-day period specified in Fed.R.Bankr.P.

Debtor has failed to respond to the Court's Order to Show Cause. For the reasons set forth below, Debtor's Chapter 7 petition is DISMISSED.

Pleadings Filed and Reviewed:

- 1) Order Requiring Debtor to Appear and Show Cause Why this Case Should Not be Dismissed Based Upon Debtor's Lack of Representation by Counsel (the "Order to Show Cause") [Doc. No. 5]
 - a) Bankruptcy Notice Center Certificate of Notice [Doc. Nos. 9-10]
- 2) No response to the Order to Show Cause is on file

Western Star, LLC (the "Debtor") filed a voluntary Chapter 7 petition on November 20, 2019. The Debtor is not represented by counsel. On November 21, 2019, the Court entered an Order Requiring Debtor to Appear and Show Cause Why this Case Should Not be Dismissed Based Upon Debtor's Lack of Representation by Counsel (the "Order to Show Cause") [Doc. No. 5]. Debtor has not responded to the Order to Show Cause and has not retained counsel.

"[A] corporation may appear in the federal courts only through licensed counsel." Rowland v. California Men's Colony, Unit II Men's Advisory Council, 506 U.S. 194, 202 (1993). This requirement is reiterated in Local Bankruptcy Rule ("LBR") 9011-2(a).

Debtor's Chapter 7 petition is DISMISSED. The Court will prepare and enter an order of dismissal.

Chapter 11

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

Debtor-in-possession, Monge Property Investments, Inc. (the "Debtor"), filed this voluntary chapter 11 case on May 31, 2012 (the "Petition Date"). The Debtor now seeks confirmation of its Second Amended Chapter 11 Plan of Reorganization [Doc. No. 682] (the "Plan").

Summary of the Plan

Class 1 – JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. – Claim Satisfied in Full

Class 1 consisted of the secured claim of JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. ("Chase") in the approximate amount of $165,121.41, secured by a first-priority lien against 5908 Fayette Street, Los Angeles, CA 90042 (the "Fayette Property"). The Debtor sold the Fayette Property and paid Chase in full on March 14, 2019.

Class 2 – Los Angeles County Treasurer and Tax Collector – Claim Satisfied in Full Class 2 consisted of the secured claim of the Los Angeles County Treasurer and Tax Collector (the "LACTTC") in the approximate amount of $59,439.37. The Debtor used proceeds from the sale of the Fayette Property to pay LACTTC in full.

Class 3 – Priority Unsecured Claims – No Claims Exist

Class 3 is designated for holders of certain priority claims specified in §§ 507(a) (3), (4), (5), (6), and (7). The Debtor does not believe any such claims exist.

Class 4 – General Unsecured Claims – Accepts the Plan

Class 4 consists of general unsecured claims totaling $78,711 that are not entitled to priority under § 507(a). Class 4 claimants will be paid in full in 60 equal monthly installments of $1,312, commencing on the first day of the first month following the Effective Date. Class 4 is impaired and voted to accept the Plan.

Class 5 – Equity Interests – Unimpaired (Deemed to Accept)

Class 5 consists of the equity interests in the Debtor. The Plan provides for the sole equity holder to retain his interest in the Debtor. Class 5 is unimpaired and is therefore deemed to accept the Plan.

The Debtor also used the sale proceeds from the Fayette Property to pay the following administrative and priority tax claims: (i) the United States of America, on behalf of the Internal Revenue Service, in the amount of $210,762, in full satisfaction of Claims 13 and 14; (ii) the LACTTC, in the amount of $96,104, in full satisfaction of Claims 7 and 12; (iii) the Los Angeles Housing & Community Investment, in the amount of $37,248, in full satisfaction of Claim 9; (iv) Payne Financial Forensics, in the amount of $7,205, pursuant to the Court's Order approving this applicant's fees (Doc. No. 699); (v) the Employment Development Department, in the amount of $5,795.46, in full satisfaction of Claim 15; and (vi) the Franchise Tax Board, in the amount of $11,502, in full satisfaction of Claim 10.

On June 21, 2019, the Court entered an order approving the Debtor's sale of real property located at 5908 ½ Fayette Street, Los Angeles, CA 90042 [Doc. No. 806]. The Debtor states that the sale closed on August 1, 2019 and the Debtor used the sale proceeds to pay Valensi Rose's administrative claim in full. Therefore, the only remaining administrative claim is the claim of Debtor's counsel, Resnik Hayes Moradi LLP ("RHM"), which the Debtor proposes to pay in full following Court approval.

As of the date of this tentative ruling, there are no pending oppositions to confirmation of the Plan.

II. Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law

A. Preliminary issue

In support of Confirmation, the Debtor submitted the Declaration of Roksana D. Moradi-Brovia (the "Moradi-Brovia Decl."), [Doc. No. 775]. Ms. Moradi-Brovia states that she only received a single ballot in connection with confirmation of the Debtor's Plan and attached a copy of that ballot as Exhibit A. The single ballot was filed by Class 4 claimant Jesus Navarro and cast in favor of the Plan (the "Navarro Ballot"). However, the Navarro Ballot is dated March 15, 2019, despite the fact that the front page of the ballot unambiguously states: "If your ballot is not received by the proponent's attorney on or before 9/24/2018, and such deadline is not extended, your vote will not count as either an acceptance or rejection of the Plan." The Court has reviewed the record and has been unable to locate any order extending the voting deadline.

Chapter 11

Neither the Debtor, nor any other interested party, has raised this issue. However, unless this Court deems the Navarro Ballot timely, the Debtor will have failed to have obtained acceptance of an impaired consenting class and the Court must deny confirmation of the Debtor's Plan.

Bankruptcy Rule 3017(c) states that "[o]n or before approval of the disclosure statement, the court shall fix a time within which the holders of claims or interests may accept or reject the plan" Fed. R. Bankr. P. 3017(c). "Once the date for filing an acceptance or rejection of the plan has been fixed, a creditor must accept or reject the plan within this time limit, or move the court to permit [the] late filing where failure to file timely was the result of excusable neglect." In re Ekstrom, 2010 Bankr. LEXIS 982, at *44-45 (Bankr. D. Ariz. Mar. 23, 2010) (citing In re Paul, 101 B.R. 228 (Bankr. S.D. Cal. 1989)). In determining whether excusable neglect exists, courts consider a broad range of factors including: (1) whether granting the delay will prejudice the debtor; (2) the length of the delay and its impact on efficient court administration; (3) whether the delay was beyond the reasonable control of the person whose duty it was to perform; (4) whether the creditor acted in good faith; and (5) whether clients should be penalized for their counsel's mistake or neglect. In re Paul, 101 B.R. at 230-31 (citing In re Dix, 95 B.R. 134, 138 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 1988)).

In this case, the voting deadline was set for September 24, 2018 and there has been no formal request to allow the late-filed Navarro Ballot. However, since it appears that the only remaining class of claimants is Class 4 general unsecured creditors and the Debtor has proposed a 100% Plan, the Court finds that it is in the best interests of creditors and the Debtor to treat the Debtor's Confirmation Brief as a request to allow the Navarro Ballot.

Applying the Dix factors, the Court finds good cause exists to allow the Navarro Ballot. First, the Debtor will not be prejudiced if the Court were to deem the Navarro Ballot timely but would be prejudiced if the Court declines to do so. Additionally, because of unanticipated delays resulting from the Debtor's efforts to sell real property that was necessary to fund the Plan, the confirmation hearing has been continued several times. Therefore, even though the delay does not appear to have been beyond Mr. Navarro's control, such delay has not resulted in any detriment to the administration of this case. The Court also has no reason to find that Mr. Navarro

Based upon the foregoing, the Court finds that sufficient excusable neglect exists to allow the late-filed Navarro Ballot to be counted.

B. The Plan Complies With All Applicable Provisions of 11 U.S.C. § 1129

As set forth below, the Court finds that the Plan complies will all applicable provisions of § 1129. The Plan is confirmed.

SECTION 1129(a)(1)

Section 1129(a)(1) requires that the "plan compl[y] with the applicable provisions of this title." According to the leading treatise, the "legislative history suggests that the applicable provisions are those governing the plan's internal structure and drafting: 'Paragraph (1) requires that the plan comply with the applicable provisions of chapter 11, such as section 1122 and 1123, governing classification and contents of a plan.'" Collier on Bankruptcy ¶ 1129.01[1] (16th rev'd ed.) (citing S. Rep. No. 989, 95th Cong., 2d Sess. 126 (1978)).

1. Section 1122(a)

Section 1122(a) provides that "a plan may place a claim or an interest in a particular class only if such claim or interest is substantially similar to the other claims or interests of such class."

The Plan's classification structure complies with § 1122(a).

2. Section 1122(b)

Section 1122(b) provides that "a plan may designate a separate class of claims consisting only of every unsecured claim that is less than or reduced to an amount that the court approves as reasonable and necessary for administrative convenience."

The Plan does not contain any convenience classes. Section 1122(b) does not apply.

3. Section 1123(a)(1)

Section 1123(a)(1) requires that a plan "designate ... classes of claims, other than claims of a kind specified in section 507(a)(2) [administrative expense claims], 507(a)(3) [claims arising during the gap period in an involuntary case], or 507(a)(8) [priority tax claims], and classes of interest."

The Plan appropriately designates classes of claims and interests. The Plan satisfies § 1123(a)(1).

4. Section 1123(a)(2)

Section 1123(a)(2) requires that the Plan "specify any class of claims or interests that is not impaired under the Plan."

The Plan specifies which classes are impaired and which classes are unimpaired. The Plan satisfies § 1123(a)(2).

5. Section 1123(a)(3)

Section 1123(a)(3) requires that the Plan "specify the treatment of any class of claims or interests that is impaired under the Plan."

The Plan specifies the treatment of impaired classes. The Plan satisfies § 1123(a)(3).

6. Section 1123(a)(4)

Section 1123(a)(4) requires that the Plan "provide the same treatment for each claim or interest of a particular class unless the holder of a particular claim or interest agrees to a less favorable treatment of such particular claim or interest."

The Plan provides the same treatment to claims and interests of the same class. The Plan satisfies § 1123(a)(4).

7. Section 1123(a)(5)

Section 1123(a)(5) requires that the Plan "provide adequate means for the plan's implementation."

The Plan will be funded by sale proceeds from the following sources:

- i. sale proceeds generated from the sale of the Debtor's interest in real property located at 5908 Fayette Street, Los Angeles, 90042 and 5908 ½ Fayette Street, Los Angeles, 90042

Angeles, CA 90042; [Note 2]

- ii. collection of rental income from real property located at 942-44 Marine Avenue, Wilmington, CA 90744; and
- iii. funds on hand in Debtor's Debtor-in-possession bank accounts.

The Debtor anticipates that all remaining allowed administrative claims will be paid by the Effective Date. The Debtor submitted evidence in support of its ability to adequately implement the Plan, in the form of income and expense projections, which are attached as Exhibit B to its Disclosure Statement. The proposed funding sources provide an adequate means for the Plan's implementation. The Plan satisfies § 1123(a)(5).

8. Section 1123(a)(6)

Section 1123(a)(6) provides: "[A] plan shall provide for the inclusion in the charter of the debtor, if the debtor is a corporation ..., of a provision prohibiting the issuance of nonvoting equity securities, and providing, as to the several classes of securities possessing voting power, an appropriate distribution of such power among such classes, including, in the case of any class of equity securities having a preference over another class of equity securities with respect to dividends, adequate provisions for the election of directors representing such preferred class in the event of default in the payment of such dividends."

The Plan specifies that the Debtor's bylaws will be amended to include the requisite language set forth above. The Plan satisfies § 1123(a)(6).

9. Section 1123(a)(7)

Section 1123(a)(7) requires that the Plan's provisions with respect to the selection of officers and directors be consistent with public policy and the interests of creditors and equity security holders.

The Plan does not contain any provision with respect to the selection of officers and directors. The Plan satisfies § 1123(a)(7).

10. Section 1123(a)(8)

Section 1123(a)(8), which imposes certain requirements upon individual debtors, is inapplicable in this case.

Chapter 11

Section 1129(a)(2) requires that the "proponent of the plan compl[y] with the applicable provisions of this title." The Court finds that the Debtor has:

- 1) Obtained Court approval of a Disclosure Statement in accordance with § 1125 (see "Order Approving Adequacy of Debtor's Second Amended Disclosure Statement Describing Second Amended Chapter 11 Plan of Reorganization and Setting Dates for Confirmation of Second Amended Chapter 11 Plan of Reorganization [Doc. No. 729]);
 - 2) Obtained Court approval of the employment of professional persons (see Doc. Nos. 89, 90, 230, 232, 286, 323, 335, 400, 416, 422, 640, 675); and
 - 3) Filed monthly operating reports.
- Accordingly, the Debtor has satisfied the requirements of § 1129(a)(2).

SECTION 1129(a)(3)

Section 1129(a)(3) requires that the "plan has been proposed in good faith and not by any means forbidden by law." As one court has explained:

The term 'good faith' in the context of 11 U.S.C. § 1129(a)(3) is not statutorily defined but has been interpreted by case law as referring to a plan that 'achieves a result consistent with the objectives and purposes of the Code.' 'The requisite good faith determination is based on the totality of the circumstances.'

In re Melcher, 329 B.R. 865, 876 (Bankr. N.D. Cal. 2005) (internal citations omitted).

The Plan seeks objectives that are consistent with those of the Bankruptcy Code and the Debtor has complied with the requirements of the Code throughout this case. The Plan satisfies § 1129(a)(3).

SECTION 1129(a)(4)

Section 1129(a)(4) requires that "[a]ny payment made or to be made by the proponent, by the debtor, or by a person issuing securities or acquiring property under the plan, for services or for costs and expenses in or in connection with the case, or in connection with the plan and incident to the case, has been approved by, or is subject to the approval of, the court as reasonable."

The Plan provides that all professional fees are subject to review by the Court. The Plan satisfies § 1129(a)(4).

Chapter 11

SECTION 1129(a)(5)

Section 1129(a)(5) requires that the Plan disclose "the identity and affiliations of any individual proposed to serve, after confirmation of the Plan, as a director, officer, or voting trustee of the debtor, an affiliate of the debtor participating in a joint Plan with the debtor, or a successor to the debtor under the Plan." Section 1129(a)(5)(A)(ii) requires that the appointment to or continuation in office of a director or officer be consistent with the interests of creditors, equity security holders, and public policy. Section 1129(a)(5)(B) requires the Plan proponent to disclose the identity of any insider to be employed by the reorganized debtor.

The Plan discloses that the Debtor's post-confirmation management will remain the same as the Debtor's pre-confirmation management. The Plan satisfies § 1129(a)(5).

SECTION 1129(a)(6)

Section 1129(a)(6), which requires that a governmental regulatory commission with jurisdiction over rates charged by a debtor approve any rate changes provided for in the plan, does not apply.

SECTION 1129(a)(7)

Section 1129(a)(7), known as the "best interests of creditors test," provides in relevant part: "With respect to each impaired class of claims or interests, each holder of a claim or interest of such class has accepted the plan; or will receive or retain under the plan on account of such claim or interest property of a value, as of the effective date of the plan, that is not less than the amount that such holder would so receive or retain if the debtor were liquidated under chapter 7 of this title on such date."

Classes 1 and 2 have been paid in full. Class 3 was designated as priority unsecured claims, but the Debtor does not believe that any such claims exist. Therefore, the only remaining impaired class is Class 4, which consists of general unsecured creditors whose claims total approximately $78,711. Class 4 has voted to accept the Plan. See Exhibit A to Moradi-Brovia Decl. [Doc. No. 775]. Accordingly, all classes have either accepted the Plan or have been paid in full. The Plan satisfies § 1129(a)(7).

Chapter 11

SECTION 1129(a)(8)

Section 1129(a)(8) requires each class to accept the Plan, unless the class is not impaired.

Classes 1 and 2 have been paid in full. Class 3 was designated as priority unsecured claims, but the Debtor does not believe that any such claims exist. Class 4 is impaired and has voted to accept the Plan. See Exhibit A to Moradi-Brovia Decl. [Doc. No. 775]. All classes have either accepted the Plan or have been paid in full. The Plan satisfies § 1129(a)(8).

SECTION 1129(a)(9)

Section 1129(a)(9) requires that holders of certain administrative and priority claims receive cash equal to the allowed claim amount of their claims on the effective date of the plan, unless the claimant agrees to different treatment.

The Plan provides for the payment of all outstanding allowed administrative and priority claims in full on or before the Effective Date. The Plan proposes to pay administrative fees owing to its bankruptcy counsel, RHM, as soon as those fees are approved by the Court and RHM has agreed to this treatment. The Plan satisfies § 1129(a)(9).

SECTION 1129(a)(10)

Section 1129(a)(10) requires that "at least one class of claims that is impaired under the plan has accepted the plan, determined without including any acceptance of the plan by any insider."

Class 4 consists of non-insider general unsecured claims, is impaired, and has voted to accept the Plan. Section 1129(a)(10) is satisfied.

SECTION 1129(a)(11)

Section 1129(a)(11), known as the "feasibility requirement," requires the Court to find that "[c]onfirmation of the plan is not likely to be followed by the liquidation, or the need for further financial reorganization, of the debtor or any successor to the debtor under the plan, unless such liquidation or reorganization is proposed in the plan."

Chapter 11

The Debtor submits that it has sufficient cash on hand to pay the amounts that are due on the Effective Date. Based upon its review of the budget projections included with the Disclosure Statement, the Court finds that confirmation is not likely to be followed by liquidation or the need for further financial reorganization. The Plan is feasible and satisfies § 1129(a)(11).

SECTION 1129(a)(12)

Section 1129(a)(12) requires that the Debtor pay all United States Trustee fees prior to confirmation or provide for payment of those fees on the effective date.

To the Court's knowledge, UST fees are current. Section 1129(a)(12) is satisfied.

SECTION 1129(a)(13)

Section 1129(a)(13), which contains requirements pertaining to the payment of retirement benefits, does not apply.

SECTION 1129(a)(14)

Section 1129(a)(14), which contains requirements pertaining to the payment of domestic support obligations, does not apply.

SECTION 1129(a)(15)

Section 1129(a)(15), which imposes certain requirements upon individual debtors, does not apply.

SECTION 1129(a)(16)

Section 1129(a)(16) provides: "All transfers of property under the plan shall be made in accordance with any applicable provisions of nonbankruptcy law that govern the transfer of property by a corporation or trust that is not a moneyed, business, or commercial corporation or trust."

Section 1129(a)(16) is inapplicable in this case.

SECTION 1129(b)

Section 1129(b), which contains requirements for cram-down, does not apply. All impaired classes have either been paid in full or have accepted the Plan.

Section 1129(c), which states that the court may confirm only one plan in a particular case, is satisfied.

SECTION 1129(d)

Section 1129(d) provides: "Notwithstanding any other provisions of this section, on request of a party in interest that is a governmental unit, the court may not confirm a Plan if the principal purpose of the Plan is the avoidance of taxes or the avoidance of the application of section 5 of the Securities Act of 1933."

No governmental unit has requested that the court not confirm the Plan on the grounds that the Plan's purpose is the avoidance of taxes or application of section 5 of the Securities Act of 1944. The Plan satisfies § 1129(d).

III. Conclusion

For the reasons set forth above, the Plan is CONFIRMED.

The Debtor is directed to lodge a conforming proposed order, incorporating this tentative ruling by reference, within seven days of the hearing.

No appearance is required if submitting on the court's tentative ruling. If you intend to submit on the tentative ruling, please contact Daniel Koontz or Jessica Vogel at 213-894-1522. If you intend to contest the tentative ruling and appear, please first contact opposing counsel to inform them of your intention to do so. Should an opposing party file a late opposition or appear at the hearing, the court will determine whether further hearing is required. If you wish to make a telephonic appearance, contact Court Call at 888-882-6878, no later than one hour before the hearing.

Note 1: The Stipulation [Doc. No. 746] and Order state reference the hearing on the Debtor's Motion for Approval of Disclosure Statement, but this appears to be in error. The Stipulation and Order should have instead referenced continuance of the Confirmation Hearing and applicable briefing deadlines.

Note 2: The Debtor has already sold both properties and used the sale proceeds to satisfy a number of claims.

Care Health Plan

Docket 3667

Tentative Ruling:

12/17/2019

For the reasons set forth below, the Motion is GRANTED in its entirety.

Pleadings Filed and Reviewed:

- 1) Debtors' Notice of Motion and Motion to Approve Compromise Among Verity Health System of California, Inc., St. Francis Medical Center, St. Vincent Medical Center and Local Initiative Health Authority for Los Angeles County dba LA Care Health Plan (the "Motion") [Doc. No. 3667]
 - a) Declaration of Service by Kurtzman Carson Consultants, LLC Regarding Docket Numbers 3665, 3666, 3667, 3674 and 3675 [Doc. No. 3761]
- 2) No opposition to the Motion is on file

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

On August 31, 2018 (the "Petition Date"), Verity Health System of California ("VHS") and certain of its subsidiaries (collectively, the "Debtors") filed voluntary petitions for relief under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. On August 31, 2018, the Court entered an order granting the Debtors' motion for joint administration of the Debtors' Chapter 11 cases. Doc. No. 17. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors operated six acute care hospitals (the "Hospitals").

On January 3, 2019, Debtors St. Vincent Medical Center ("St. Vincent") and St. Francis Medical Center ("St. Francis," and together with St. Vincent, the "Debtor Hospitals") filed a Complaint for Breach of Written Contracts, Turnover, Unjust Enrichment, Damages for Violation of the Automatic Stay, and Injunctive Relief (the "Complaint") [Doc. No. 1] against Local Initiative Health Authority for Los Angeles County, d/b/a L.A. Care Health Plan ("L.A. Care").

Chapter 11

The Complaint alleges that L.A. Care failed to properly reimburse the Debtor Hospitals for services that they provided to members of L.A. Care's health plans. On April 15, 2019, the Court stayed adjudication of the Complaint pending arbitration.

VHS and the Debtor Hospitals move for approval of a settlement agreement with L.A. Care (the "Settlement Agreement"). The material terms of the Settlement Agreement are as follows:

- 1) L.A. Care shall pay the Debtor Hospitals $8 million in full and complete satisfaction of those claims for reimbursement by L.A. Care under the terms of the Service Agreements for health services rendered by either of the Debtor Hospitals to any member of L.A. Care's health plans for dates of service on or before July 18, 2019 (the "Settled Claims"). The Settled Claims do not include (a) any claims for health services rendered by either of the Debtor Hospitals to any member of an L.A. Care health plan for health services with a date of service on or after July 19, 2019 (the "Open Claims"), which Open Claims shall be processed in the ordinary course of business according to the terms and conditions of the Service Agreements, and (b) any claims of VHS or the Debtor Hospitals arising under the Hospital Quality Assurance Fee Program (the "HQAf Claims").
- 2) The proof of claim filed by L.A. Care against St. Vincent shall be reduced from $2,371,127.57 to $991,481.62 and shall be allowed as a general unsecured claim, without further rights to setoff or recoupment.
- 3) The proof of claim filed by L.A. Care against St. Francis shall be reduced from $7,704,774.88 to $4,143,838.84 and shall be allowed as a general unsecured claim, without further rights to setoff or recoupment.

No opposition to the Motion is on file.

II. Findings and Conclusions

Bankruptcy Rule 9019 provides that the Court may approve a compromise or settlement. "In determining the fairness, reasonableness and adequacy of a proposed settlement agreement, the court must consider: (a) The probability of success in the litigation; (b) the difficulties, if any, to be encountered in the matter of collection; (c) the complexity of the litigation involved, and the expense, inconvenience and delay necessarily attending it; (d) the paramount interest of the creditors and a proper deference to their reasonable views in the premises." Martin v. Kane (In re A&C Properties), 784 F.2d 1377, 1381 (9th Cir. 1986). "[C]ompromises are favored in bankruptcy, and the decision of the bankruptcy judge to approve or disapprove the compromise of the parties rests in the sound discretion of the bankruptcy judge." In re Sassalos, 160 B.R. 646, 653 (D. Ore. 1993). In approving a settlement agreement, the Court must "canvass the issues and see whether the settlement 'falls below the lowest point in the range of reasonableness.'" Cosoff v. Rodman (In re W.T. Grant Co.), 699 F.2d 599, 608 (2d Cir. 1983). Applying the A&C Properties factors, the Court finds that the Settlement Agreement is adequate, fair, and reasonable, and is in the best interests of the estate and creditors.

Probability of Success on the Merits and Complexity of the Litigation

These factors weigh in favor of approving the Settlement Agreement. The Settlement Agreement resolves a dispute pertaining to over 3,000 individual reimbursement claims. L.A. Care has asserted a number of defenses, including that a substantial number of the claims are time-barred; that the Debtor Hospitals failed to timely assert their administrative appeal rights under the terms of the Service Agreements; and that the Debtor Hospitals' calculation of reimbursable amounts is inaccurate. Litigation of these issues with respect to more than 3,000 reimbursement claims would be extremely time consuming and would require both percipient and expert witness testimony. The Settlement Agreement is far preferable to the expenses that would be incurred in continued litigation.

The possibility that additional litigation might yield a result nominally more favorable to the estates cannot be ruled out. Yet any such result obtained through litigation would be a pyrrhic victory from the perspective of the estates and creditors, because the additional administrative costs associated with the litigation would on net leave the estates worse off.

Paramount Interests of Creditors

This factor weighs strongly in favor of approving the Settlement Agreement. Neither the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors nor any other parties have objected to the Settlement Agreement.

Difficulties to be Encountered in the Matter of Collection

This factor weighs against approving the Settlement Agreement, as LA Care possesses sufficient assets to fund any judgment that would likely be entered against it. However, within the context of the Settlement Agreement, the Court finds that this factor is entitled to only minimal weight.

III. Conclusion

Based upon the foregoing, the Settlement Agreement is APPROVED and the Motion is GRANTED in its entirety. Movants shall submit a conforming order, incorporating this tentative ruling by reference, within seven days of the hearing.

No appearance is required if submitting on the court's tentative ruling. If you intend to submit on the tentative ruling, please contact Carlos Nevarez or Daniel Koontz at 213-894-1522. If you intend to contest the tentative ruling and appear, please first contact opposing counsel to inform them of your intention to do so. Should an opposing party file a late opposition or appear at the hearing, the court will determine whether further hearing is required. If you wish to make a telephonic appearance, contact Court Call at 888-882-6878, no later than one hour before the hearing.

Chapter 11

- a) Supplement to Discovery Stipulation Regarding Debtors' Motion for Protective Order (the "Supplement to Discovery Stipulation") [Doc. No. 104]

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

A. Background

Michael Bonert ("Michael") and Vivien Bonert ("Vivien," and together with Michael, the "Debtors") filed a voluntary Chapter 11 petition on September 12, 2019 (the "Petition Date"). Prior to the Petition Date, the Debtors operated a pie manufacturing company known as Bonert's Incorporated ("Bonerts"). In 2016, Bonerts ceased conducting business after its lender caused its assets to be sold through a federal receivership. Proceeds of the receivership sale were used to pay secured creditors, but were not sufficient to pay unsecured trade creditors, some of whom obtained unopposed judgments against Bonerts.

On August 13 and 14, 2019, Capitol Distribution Company, LLC ("Capitol"), Stratas Foods LLC ("Stratas"), Packaging Corporation of America, and Seneca Foods Corporation (collectively, the "Creditors") filed four collection actions (the "Collection Actions") against the Debtors, Bonerts, and LLCs wholly owned by the Debtors that were affiliates of Bonerts (the "Affiliates"). The Collection Actions allege, inter alia, that the Debtors operated the Affiliates and Bonerts as a single enterprise for the purpose of defeating the rights of creditors; that the Debtors misappropriated assets of Bonerts and the Affiliates; and that the Debtors are liable for trade debt incurred by Bonerts as its alter ego. Two of the Collection Actions were filed in the United States District Court for the Central District of California (the "District Court") and two of the Collection Actions were filed in the Los Angeles Superior Court (the "State Court").

Debtors sought bankruptcy protection for the purpose of having all alter-ego claims arising in connection with the Debtors' operation of Bonerts and the Affiliates adjudicated before the Bankruptcy Court. Pursuant to this objective, on September 13 and 16, 2019, the Debtors removed all four of the Collection Actions to the Bankruptcy Court.

On October 17, 2019, the Court approved stipulations remanding two of the Collection Actions to the District Court. Both stipulations were without prejudice to any party's right (1) to move for referral of the action back to the Bankruptcy Court or (2) to move for an injunction against the prosecution of the action. The Collection Actions that originated in the State Court remain pending before this Court. Hearings on the motions of Capitol and Stratas to remand the Collection Actions (the "Motions to Remand") are set for January 8, 2020. [Note 1]

On November 5, 2019, the Court granted Creditors' application for a Rule 2004 examination (the "Rule 2004 Motion") of the Debtors (the "Rule 2004 Order"). Doc. No. 68. On November 7, 2019, Debtors filed a motion for reconsideration of the Rule 2004 Order (the "Motion for Reconsideration"). Doc. No. 70. On November 8, 2019, the Court entered an Memorandum of Decision and accompanying order (1) deeming the Motion for Reconsideration to constitute a motion for a protective order (the "Motion for Protective Order"), (2) setting the instant hearing on the Motion for Protective Order, and (3) vacating the Rule 2004 Order pending adjudication of the Motion for Protective Order. Doc. Nos. 78 and 80. The Court further ordered the parties to meet and confer regarding the issues raised by the Motion for Protective Order and to file a stipulation setting forth their positions regarding the scope of the requested document production and examination in accordance with Local Bankruptcy Rule ("LBR") 7026-1(c)(3) (the "Discovery Stipulation").

B. Summary of the Parties' Positions as Set Forth in the Discovery Stipulation

The Rule 2004 Motion requests that the Debtors produce 33 categories (the "Categories") of documents. The parties have resolved their disputes with respect to production requests set forth in Categories 1–6, 12–13, 27, and 29. The parties have stipulated that the Debtors shall have until January 14, 2020 to produce documents responsive to the Rule 2004 Motion.

The parties' unresolved disputes are as follows:

1. Depositions in the Collection Actions

Debtors' Position

In connection with the Collection Actions, Creditors could request up to seven depositions each of the Debtors and as to the persons most knowledgeable of the Affiliates, for a total of 24 depositions. Being subjected to this many depositions would impose a significant burden upon the estate. Creditors should be required to conduct their discovery efficiently. Debtors should only be required to give two more depositions each, including being deposed as managing members of the Affiliates or any other entity. In the event the Court grants Creditors stay relief with respect to the Collection Actions before the District Court, any such relief should be subject to the Court's discovery order.

Chapter 11

Creditors' Position

The Debtors' request for a limitation of discovery in the Collection Actions should be denied as premature. Creditors have not yet sought the Debtors' depositions in the Collection Actions. Unless and until the Creditors seek such discovery, the Court should not rule upon the request.

2. Online Document Repository

Debtors' Position

Creditors should be required to upload into an online depository the approximately 100,000 pages of documents that have already been produced in response to prior subpoenas issued in connection with Creditors' attempts to enforce a prior stipulated judgment against Bonerts, so that all parties may have access to these documents. Creditors should be required to upload any further documents produced by the Debtors into the online depository.

Creditors' Position

Through this request, Debtors are attempting to impose additional obligations upon the Creditors. It is unclear what would be accomplished by the creation of an online document repository, as no parties other than the Debtors and the Affiliates have requested access to the documents. Debtors have not cited any authority in support of this request and have not offered to share the expense of the proposed online repository. Finally, this issue was not raised by the Rule 2004 Motion.

3. Schedule of All Payments Made by Debtors to Fredman Lieberman Pearl LLP During the Six Years Preceding October 29, 2019

Debtors' Position

Category 30 requests the production of "a schedule of all payments made by the Debtors to Fredman Lieberman Pearl, LLP for the six years preceding October 29, 2019." (On December 2, 2019, the Court approved, over the Creditors' objection, the Debtors' application to employ Fredman Lieberman Pearl, LLP ("FLP") as their general bankruptcy counsel. Doc. No. 100.) Debtors should be required to produce a schedule of only the last four years of payments to FLP.

Chapter 11

There are allegations and evidence related to fraudulent transfers of assets going back to at least 2014. The Debtors could have caused one of their Affiliates to pay FLP for services that FLP provided to the Debtors. That has already happened in this case. In its Employment Application, FLP disclosed that it had returned to the Debtors a $60,000 prepetition payment for non-bankruptcy legal services. Debtors further disclosed that the payment had been replaced by two of the Affiliates.

A fraudulent conveyance made to evade payment to creditors would be non-dischargeable under § 523(a)(2)(A). Husky Int'l Elecs., Inc. v. Ritz, 136 S. Ct. 1581, 1585, 194 L. Ed. 2d 655 (2016). Therefore, the documents are properly requested under Rule 2004.

4. All Documents Pertaining to the Michael Bonert and Vivien Bonert Revocable Trust in the Ten Years Preceding October 29, 2019

Debtors' Position

Category 33 requests the production of "[a]ll documents and statements for the Michael Bonert Revocable Trust in the ten (10) years preceding October 29, 2019." The request is overbroad as to time and vague and ambiguous as to the requested documents. Debtors should be required to produce only the last four years of documents and statements.

Creditors' Position

The Michael Bonert and Vivien Bonert Revocable Trust (the "Debtors' Trust") was created in 2010. According to the Debtors' schedules, the trust owns significant assets. Assets could have been transferred from the Debtors to the Debtors' Trust, and then from the Debtors' Trust to other entities, taking the assets out of the bankruptcy estate. The documents are appropriately requested under Rule 2004.

II. Findings and Conclusions

Civil Rule 26(c) allows a party to move for a protective order with respect to a discovery demand. Under Rule 26(c), the "court may, for good cause, issue an order to protect a party or person from annoyance, embarrassment, oppression, or undue burden or expense," including by "forbidding the disclosure or discovery." The "party seeking protection bears the burden of showing specific prejudice or harm will result if no protective order is granted." Phillips ex rel. Estates of Byrd v. Gen. Motors

1. Depositions in the Collection Actions

It is not appropriate for the Court to adjudicate the scope of discovery in the Collection Actions at this time. The hearing on the Motions to Remand filed by two of the Creditors is set for January 8, 2020. It has not been determined whether the Collection Actions will remain before this Court.

If in the future Creditors seek discovery in the Collection Actions which Debtors contend is not "proportional to the needs of the case, considering the importance of the issues at stake in the action, the amount in controversy, the parties' relative access to relevant information, the parties' resources, the importance of the discovery in resolving the issues, and whether the burden or expense of the proposed discovery outweighs its likely benefit," Civil Rule 26(b)(1), Debtors may move for limitations on the proposed discovery.

2. Online Document Repository

The Debtors' request that Creditors be required to bear the expense of maintaining an online document repository for documents that have been or will be produced by the Debtors is denied. The Debtors have failed to cite any authority in support of their position that Creditors should be required to pay for a service which will benefit the Debtors. Further, the Debtors' request is not properly before the Court, as it was not put at issue in the Rule 2004 Motion or the subsequent Motion for Protective Order.

3. Schedule of All Payments Made by Debtors to FLP During the Six Years Preceding October 29, 2019

Debtors' position is that they should be required to produce a schedule of only the last four years of payments to FLP, as opposed to six years of payments as demanded by Creditors.

A Rule 2004 examination "may relate only to the acts, conduct, or property or to the liabilities and financial condition of the debtor, or to any matter which may affect the administration of the debtor's estate, or to the debtor's right to a discharge." Bankruptcy Rule 2004(b). "The scope of a Rule 2004 examination is exceptionally broad Examinations under Rule 2004 are allowed for the 'purpose of discovering assets and unearthing frauds' and have been compared to a 'fishing expedition.'" In re Duratech Indus., Inc., 241 B.R. 283, 289 (E.D.N.Y. 1999) (internal citation omitted).

Creditors' theory is that the Debtors may have caused one of their wholly-owned Affiliates to make payments to FLP on account of legal services that FLP provided to the Debtors, thereby draining the Affiliate of the funds necessary to satisfy its obligations to Creditors.

If Creditors can show that the Debtors are personally liable for the obligations of the Affiliate, and if the Debtors did in fact cause the Affiliate to transfer assets for the purpose of evading its obligations to Creditors, such indebtedness could potentially be excepted from the Debtors' discharge. See Husky Int'l Elecs., Inc. v. Ritz, 136 S. Ct. 1581, 1585, 194 L. Ed. 2d 655 (2016) (holding that fraudulent conveyances made to evade payments to creditors are non-dischargeable under § 523(a)(2)(A)). In view of the broad scope of Rule 2004, the Court finds it appropriate to require the Debtors to disclose all payments made by the Debtors to FLP for the six years preceding October 29, 2019, as requested by Creditors.

4. All Documents Pertaining to the Michael Bonert and Vivien Bonert Revocable Trust in the Ten Years Preceding October 29, 2019

Debtors' position is that they should be required to produce only the last four years of documents pertaining to the Debtors' Trust, as opposed to ten years of documents demanded by Creditors.

If Debtors transferred assets from the Debtors' Trust to other entities for the purpose of evading payments to creditors, the Debtors' liability for the fraudulent transfers could potentially be non-dischargeable under § 523(a)(2)(A). See Husky Int'l Elecs., Inc. v. Ritz, 136 S. Ct. 1581, 1585, 194 L. Ed. 2d 655 (2016) (holding that fraudulent conveyances made to evade payments to creditors are non-dischargeable under § 523(a)(2)(A)).

All assets of the Debtors' Trust have been separately scheduled as assets of the Debtors. See Schedule A/B: Property [Doc. No. 32] at ¶ 25. Notwithstanding the broad scope of Rule 2004, the Court finds the Creditors' demand for ten years' of documents pertaining to the Debtors' Trust to be excessive. Creditors have offered no concrete evidence in support of their theory that the Debtors' Trust facilitated fraudulent conveyances to avoid payments to Creditors. Given that all the assets of the Debtors' Trust have been separately scheduled, the Court will require the Debtors to produce only those documents going back six years from October 29, 2019. The six-

Based upon the foregoing, the Motion for Protective Order is GRANTED IN PART and DENIED IN PART. Except as set forth above, the Debtors shall produce the documents specified in the Rule 2004 Motion by no later than January 14, 2020.

Within seven days of the hearing, the Debtors shall submit an order incorporating this tentative ruling by reference.

Note 1

The hearings on the Motions to Remand were set December 11, 2019, but were continued by the Court to a date subsequent to the December 20, 2019 claims bar date. No. 104] (the "Debtor's Reply")

I. Facts and Summary of Pleadings

Fatemeh Mahdavi (the "Debtor") filed a voluntary Chapter 7 petition on May 22, 2018. The Chapter 7 Trustee (the "Trustee") moves to sell real property located at 1398 Davies Drive, Beverly Hills, CA 90210 (the "Property"). The Trustee also seeks approval of a settlement agreement (attached to the Motion as Exhibit A) with the Debtor resolving treatment of her homestead exemption following the proposed sale.

The Proposed Agreement on the Homestead Exemption

The Debtor claimed a homestead exemption in the amount of $175,000 in the Property, which is the community property of the Debtor and her non-filing spouse. Reference is made to the judgment lien (the "Judgment Lien") of Davoud and Illiad Ashraf Por (collectively, "Gharenbaghi"), which currently impairs the Property's title. Pursuant to a prior court-approved agreement between the Trustee and Gharenbaghi, it was stipulated that the Judgment Lien would be subordinated to the payout of 1) all administrative expenses and 2) the costs of the sale. See Motion, Ex. 6. Further, the Trustee represents that at the current purchase price of $2,700,000, there is an insufficient amount of equity from the Property's sale to pay out Debtor's homestead exemption and the Judgment Lien. To that effect, the Debtor and the Trustee entered into an agreement (the "Homestead Agreement") providing in relevant part as follows:

1. The Debtor accepts the sale of the Property for the amount of $2,700,000, subject to overbids, which the Trustee requests herein;
2. The Debtor will immediately seek to avoid the Judgment Lien to the

3. Following the sale of the Property, the Debtor shall accept $95,000 in full satisfaction of her claimed homestead exemption;
 4. The Trustee shall waive application of reinvestment procedures with respect to Debtor's homestead exemption.

See Motion, Ex. 1.

The Proposed Sale

The Trustee seeks authorization to sell the Property free and clear of liens, claims, and encumbrances, pursuant to §§ 363(b) and (f). The Trustee proposes the following treatment of the liens and encumbrances against the Property:

- 1) Lien for real property taxes for fiscal year 2018–2019 (the "Property Tax Lien"). The Trustee has paid all real property taxes accrued prior to the date of closing. The sale will be free and clear of this lien. In addition, the Trustee proposes to pay any undisputed real property taxes that become due for the fiscal year 2019-2020, currently estimated to be $8,000, assuming that the Property is sold on or about early October. Disputed amounts, if any, will attach to the net sale proceeds.
- 2) Deed of Trust in favor of ZB, N.A. dba California Bank & Trust, securing original indebtedness of $367,500 (the "ZB DOT"). The Trustee will pay through escrow all undisputed amounts owed on the ZB DOT, and any disputed amounts will attach to the net proceeds of the sale. The sale will be free and clear of the ZB DOT.
- 3) Debtor's Homestead Exemption in the amount of $175,000. Provided the Homestead Agreement is approved by the Court, the Debtor will be paid pursuant to the terms therein.
- 4) Judgment lien in the amount of $1,289,722.22 in favor of Davoud Gharehbaghi and Iliad Ashraf Por. The Judgment Lien is subject to the court-approved carve-out agreement (the "Carve-Out Agreement") [Doc. No. 50], which determines distribution of net sale proceeds to Gharehbaghi. Notwithstanding the terms of the Carve-Out Agreement, under the Homestead Agreement, Debtor will seek to avoid the Judgment Lien as it impairs her homestead exemption claim. If Debtor prevails on the avoidance motion, Trustee provides that the sale will be free and clear of the Judgment Lien as it will have been avoided. If Debtor does not prevail, Gharenbaghi will instead be paid according to the Carve-Out Agreement. Pursuant to the Carve-Out Agreement, Gharenbaghi may file a general, unsecured claim against the Debtor's estate to the extent net sale proceeds are insufficient to pay the Judgment Lien. The sale will either be free and clear of the Judgment Lien, or Gharenbaghi will be paid from the net sale proceeds.

- 5) Judgment lien in the amount of $754,265.74 in favor of Melissa Nourai and Parissa Nourai (the "Nourai Judgment"). The sale will be free and clear of the Nourai Judgment. On June 14, 2019, the Trustee and the holders of the Nourai Judgment filed a stipulation (the "Nourai Stipulation"), which provides that the Nourai Judgment is deemed avoided pursuant to § 547 and preserved for the benefit of the bankruptcy estate pursuant to § 551.
- 6) Lien for unsecured property taxes recorded by the Los Angeles County Tax Collector in the amount of $127.73 (the "LA Tax Lien"). The sale will be free and clear of this lien, because it was recorded subsequent to the filing of the petition in violation of the automatic stay and is therefore void ab initio.

The Trustee projects that after the above-liens are resolved, and the costs of sale are fully paid, the net proceeds totaling approximately $176,514 will be largely consumed by Trustee's fees and the fees of professionals.

Opposition by the IRS

The Internal Revenue Service (the "IRS") filed an opposition on September 11, 2019, partially objecting to the Motion insofar as Trustee therein proposed to pay Debtor her homestead exemption ahead of an unsecured priority claim held by the IRS in the amount of $389,874.89. The gravamen of the grounds asserted is that the Debtor's homestead exemption remains liable for accrued tax penalties under §§ 522(c) and 523(a) inter alia. The IRS further argues that the Motion was not properly served because the Trustee did not serve the U.S. Attorney's Office or the Attorney General pursuant to Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure 9014(b) and 7004(b)(5). The IRS does not oppose the actual sale of the Property but instead requests the following: 1) payment of net sale funds on account of its priority claim, and 2) denial of the Trustee's proposal to pay Debtor her homestead exemption.

Chapter 7

On September 18, 2019, the Trustee filed a Reply to the Opposition, contending that the preliminary title report of the Property (Motion, Ex. 2) does not indicate that the IRS in fact possesses any recorded lien or claim as to the Property. Moreover, the Trustee represents that following discussions with the United States Attorney, she understands that the IRS neither opposes the sale of the Property nor seeks to continue the Motion to a later date. To the extent that the Opposition concerns a dispute between Debtor and the IRS, the Trustee takes no position on the issue. However, the Trustee proposes that any order should include language instructing the Trustee to hold funds available for the Debtor's homestead exemption in a segregated account pending future resolution of such dispute.

The Debtor's Reply

The Debtor filed her own reply on September 18, 2019, agreeing with the Trustee's request to hold potential homestead exemption funds in a segregated account until future notice. The Debtor further justifies continuance of this hearing to have more time to mount an adequate defense of her rights to the homestead exemption. As to this argument, she provides a terse list of options she could potentially exercise in the future. Moreover, Debtor contends that it would be premature to determine the IRS's rights to the funds in question as her lien avoidance motion remains outstanding and may be opposed by Gharenbaghi [Note 1].

II. Findings and Conclusions

A. The Homestead Agreement is Partially Approved

With the exception of the provisions identified below, the Court determines that the Homestead Agreement is approved because it facilitates the sale of the Property, which is in the best interest of the creditors and consistent with the Trustee's statutory obligation to liquidate estate assets. The Court reserves approval of Provisions D and F of the Homestead Agreement, which relate to the $95,000 payment to the Debtor on account of her homestead exemption. As discussed below, this issue will be determined on a later date, once the Debtor and the IRS have had an opportunity to submit supplemental briefing. Until such later date, the Homestead Agreement is partially approved.

Chapter 7

B. The Proposed Sale is Approved

Section 363(b) permits the Trustee to sell estate property out of the ordinary course of business, subject to court approval. The Trustee must articulate a business justification for the sale. In re Walter, 83 B.R. 14, 19–20 (9th Cir. BAP 1988). Whether the articulated business justification is sufficient "depends on the case," in view of "all salient factors pertaining to the proceeding." Id. at 19–20.

The Trustee has demonstrated sufficient business justification for the sale. The sale is consistent with the Trustee's statutory obligation to liquidate the estate's assets.

Section 363(f) provides that estate property may be sold free and clear of liens, claims, and interests, providing one of the following conditions is satisfied:

- 1) Applicable nonbankruptcy law permits sale of such property free and clear of such interest;
- 2) Such entity consents;
- 3) Such interest is a lien and the price at which such property is sold is greater than the aggregate value of all liens on such property;
- 4) Such interest is in bona fide dispute; or
- 5) Such entity could be compelled, in a legal or equitable proceeding, to accept a money satisfaction of such interest.

The Court approves the Trustee's proposed treatment of the liens and encumbrances against the Property, and finds that the Property may be sold free and clear of such liens and encumbrances as requested by the Trustee. Pursuant to § 363(f) (3), the sale is free and clear of the Property Tax Liens and the ZB DOT because the purchase price of the Property exceeds the aggregate value of such liens. The sale is free and clear of the LA Tax Lien because such lien is void ab initio, having been recorded in violation of the automatic stay. See Schwartz v. United States (In re Schwartz), 954 F.2d 569 (9th Cir. 1992). To the extent that any funds are available to the Debtor for her homestead exemption, such funds are to be placed on a segregated account until final resolution of the IRS's claim to such funds. As a result, the sale is free and clear of the homestead exemption declaration. The sale is free and clear of the Judgment Lien because Gharenbaghi will only be entitled to recover net sale proceeds, if any, pursuant to the Carve-Out Agreement, and otherwise may file a claim for any unsecured portion thereof. See Motion, Ex. 6. In any case, Gharenbaghi has not filed any opposition to the Sale Motion. The sale is free and clear of the Nouraie Judgment, which has been deemed avoided pursuant to § 547 and has been preserved for the benefit of the bankruptcy estate pursuant to § 551, in accordance with the terms of the Nouraie Stipulation.

The Trustee is authorized to pay real estate brokers' commissions directly from escrow. Having reviewed the Declaration of Zizi Pak, the real estate broker who marketed the Property, the Court finds that proposed buyer Abdulaziz M. Alathel is a good faith purchaser entitled to the protections of § 363(m). In the event that an overbidder prevails at the auction, the Court will take testimony from such overbidder to determine whether §363(m) protections are warranted.

At hearing Trustee's counsel requested that the order further provide that the Sheriff take no further action on the outstanding writ of execution against the Debtor. The Court granted the request.

Auction Procedures

In the event that any qualified overbidders are present, the Court will distribute numbered auction paddles to the proposed purchaser and all qualified overbidders. The initial overbid will be at $2,710,000, with subsequent overbids to be increments of $10,000. The overbid increment is subject to adjustment by the Court to facilitate bidding. The Court will announce each bid level. To remain in the auction, bidders must participate at all bid levels. That is, parties who do not bid in a round cannot later change their minds and re-enter the auction. Parties may make a bid higher than that announced by the Court by approaching the podium and stating their bid.

C. Further Briefing is Required to Resolve the IRS's Entitlement to the Disputed Sale Proceeds

The IRS argues that the Debtor's 2016 tax debts are not dischargeable under § 523(a)(1) and entitled to priority under §507(a)(8). On reply, the Debtor asks to postpone determination of this issue to a later date, once she has had the opportunity to review her options and properly contest the IRS's claim. The Court is amenable to the Debtor's request and agrees that adequate consideration of this issue requires supplemental briefing by Debtor and the IRS. The continuance of this issue to a later date is also appropriate in light of the Debtor's pending lien avoidance motion, which concerns the same funds and the homestead exemption at issue here. For the reasons set forth above, the Court instructs the Trustee to hold funds available for the Debtor's homestead exemption in a separate account pending an order from the Court resolving the dispute between the Debtor and the IRS.

III. Conclusion

Based upon the foregoing, the Homestead Agreement is PARTIALLY APPROVED, as set forth above, and the Sale Motion is GRANTED. The Trustee shall submit a conforming order, incorporating this tentative ruling by reference, within seven days of the hearing. Notwithstanding Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h), the order approving the sale shall take effect immediately upon entry.

For the reasons set forth in the tentative ruling on the Kogan Firm's Fee Application, see Cal. No. 103, below, the Kogan Firm's request for an additional $1,995.00 in fees is DENIED.

The Court approves the fees and expenses, and payment, as requested by the Trustee, as follows:

Total Fees: $10,052.38

Total Expenses: $133.24

Bond Payment to International Sureties, Inc.: $122.10

Tax Payment to Franchise Tax Board: $3,971.96

#103.00 Attorney for Trustee (Other Firm) - Michael S. Kogan

Hearing re [87] Trustee's Final Report and Applications for Compensation

Docket 0

Tentative Ruling:

12/17/2019

On September 10, 2019, the Chapter 7 Trustee (the "Trustee") filed a Notice to Professionals to File an Application for Compensation (the "Compensation Notice") [Doc. No. 79], pursuant to Local Bankruptcy Rule ("LBR") 2016-1(c)(4)(B). The Compensation Notice advised professionals employed by the estate that the last day to file an application for compensation was October 1, 2019.

On March 4, 2019, the Kogan Law Firm, APC (the "Kogan Firm") filed a Final Application for Payment of Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses to Counsel for the Chapter 7 Trustee (the "Fee Application") [Doc. No. 78]. The Fee Application requests fees in the amount of $28,197.50 and expenses in the amount of $168.32. On October 7, 2019, the Kogan Firm filed a Supplemental Declaration of Michael S. Kogan in Support of Final Application for Payment of Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses to Counsel for the Chapter 7 Trustee and Supplemental Request for Additional Fees (the "Supplemental Decl.") [Doc. No. 83]. In the Supplemental Decl., the Kogan Firm requests an additional $1,995.00 in fees beyond the $28,197.50 in fees previously requested. The fees are sought on account of time spent by the Kogan Firm responding to the Trustee's request that the Kogan Firm prepare a declaration setting forth "the amount of funds in the estate ... and the amount and break down of all the claims filed," as well as "all the information necessary for the court, the creditors, and the UST to determine whether the requested fees are reasonable, and that the work benefitted the estate." Supplemental Decl. at ¶ 3. The Supplemental Decl. was not served upon all creditors.

The Notice of Trustee's Final Report and Applications for Compensation and Deadline to Object (the "Notice") [Doc. No. 87], which was served upon all creditors, advised creditors that the Kogan Firm is seeking $28,197.50 in fees. That is, the Notice did not inform creditors of the additional $1,995.00 in fees sought by way of the Supplemental Decl.

On December 4, 2019, the Kogan Firm filed a document captioned Comments to Trustee's Final Report Concerning Requested Fees of the Kogan Law Firm, APC [Doc. No. 90], in which the Kogan Firm asserts that the additional fees of $1,995.00 are allowable because they were incurred in connection with the preparation of the Kogan Firm's Fee Application.

Bankruptcy Rule 2002(a)(6) requires that "all creditors" receive at least 21 days' notice of "a hearing on any entity's request for compensation or reimbursement of expenses if the request exceeds $1,000." As discussed above, creditors have not received notice of the Kogan Firm's request for an additional $1,995.00 in fees. In addition, the Supplemental Decl. was not filed by October 1, 2019, as required by LBR 2016-1(c)(4)(B).

Even if the Court were to overlook these substantial issues, the additional fees requested are grossly excessive in relation to the work performed. The additional information set forth in the Supplemental Decl. that is responsive to the Trustee's request consists of only two paragraphs and a copy of the Trustee's proposed distribution to unsecured creditors. All this information is available in the Trustee's Final Report. Further, without including the $1,995.00 sought in the Supplemental Decl., the Kogan Firm seeks compensation of $2,522.00 for preparing employment and fee applications. In view of the scope of the services performed by the Kogan Firm, compensation of $2,522.00 for the preparation of fee and employment applications is more than sufficient. The Court will not allow the additional $1,995.00 in fees requested in the Supplemental Decl.

Other than the fees requested in the Supplemental Decl., the Court finds the fees requested by the Kogan Firm to be reasonable, considering the nature and extent of the services performed and taking into account all relevant factors. The Court awards the fees and expenses set forth below:

Fees: $28,197.50

Expenses: $168.32

No appearance is required if submitting on the court's tentative ruling. If you intend to submit on the tentative ruling, please contact Daniel Koontz or Carlos Nevarez at 213-894-1522. If you intend to contest the tentative ruling and appear, please
